Secretary of State.

CHAPTER 177.

SUPPORT OF SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF.

S. F. 15.

AN ACT to repeal section two thousand seven hundred twenty-seven-a (2727-a), supplement to the code, 1907, and to enact a substitute therefor, providing funds for the support of the school for the deaf at Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Repeal—appropriation—support. That section two thousand seven hundred twenty-seven-a (2727-a) of the supplement to the code, 1907, be and the same is hereby repealed and in lieu thereof is enacted the following:

"For the support of the school and to meet the ordinary and current expenses thereof, including the compensation of officers, teachers, and other employes, the purchase of supplies, of food, clothing, furniture, and furnishings, books, maps, apparatus, and other incidental expenses, there is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, or so much thereof as may be needed, twenty-two dollars per month for nine months of each year, for each resident pupil actually supported in the school. Said sum shall be placed to the credit of the school on the certificate of the board of control of state institutions which shall show the average number of pupils in the school for the preceding month, and shall be paid from the state treasury, as provided by chapter one hundred eighteen (118) of the acts of the twenty-seventh general assembly and acts amendatory thereof. Provided, however, that whenever the average number of pupils in any month shall be less than two hundred seventy-five, the school shall be credited by the auditor of state and the treasurer of state with the sum of six thousand fifty ($6,050.00) dollars.

SEC. 2. Minimum monthly allowance—how computed. The minimum monthly allowance provided for by this act shall be computed from and after the first day of October, A. D. 1908, and credit shall be given as hereinbefore authorized for a sum which shall make the credits given to said school since said date equal to the credits which it would have received if the provisions of this act had been in force during that time."

SEC. 3. In effect. This act being deemed of immediate importance shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the Register and Leader and the Des Moines Capital, newspapers published in Des Moines, Iowa.

Approved April 17, A. D. 1909.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published in the Register and Leader and Des Moines Capital April 21, A. D. 1909.

W. C. HAYWARD,
Secretary of State.

CHAPTER 178.

COLLECTION OF MONEY DUE AND SALE OF EFFECTS OF DECEASED INMATES OF STATE INSTITUTIONS, AND DISPOSITION OF MONEY SO RECEIVED.

H. F. 273.

AN ACT to amend chapter one hundred twelve (112) of the acts of the thirtieth general assembly and provide for the collection of certificates of deposit, promissory notes, and other demands owned by deceased inmates of state institutions and to provide for the sale of the personal effects of such deceased inmates, and the disposition of the money so received. [Amendatory of section twenty-seven hundred twenty-seven-a seventy-two (2727-a72) of the supplement to the code, 1907.]

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. Money due deceased inmates collected—effects sold—disposition of money received. That section one (1) of chapter one hundred twelve (112) of the acts of the thirtieth general assembly is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SECTION 1. That when an inmate of any institution under the control of the board of control of state institutions dies intestate, leaving money, certificate of deposit, promissory note, or other evidence of indebtedness in writing on deposit with the chief executive or other officer, or shall leave in the possession of such institution or of any officer or employe thereof any personal property, it shall be the duty of the chief executive officer of said institution to take into his possession, if he does not already have it, such money, certificate of deposit, promissory note or other evidence of indebtedness in writing, and to receive any money which may have been due, or property which may have been owned by the decedent, and to dispose of the same as follows:

(a.) To deliver such money or other property to the legal representative of the decedent so soon as he shall have qualified and become authorized to receive it.

(b.) If administration be not granted within one year from the date of the death of the decedent, and the value of the estate of decedent is so small as to make the granting of administration under the general law inadvisable, then delivery of the money and other property left by the decedent may be made to the surviving spouse and heirs, if known, of the decedent.

(c.) If administration be not granted within one year from the date of the death of the decedent and no surviving spouse or heir is known to the institution, although diligent search for them shall have been made, the chief executive officer of the institution shall be authorized to collect the certificate of deposit, promissory note or other evidence of indebtedness, and for that
