HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 1.

RATIFYING THE PROPOSED INCOME TAX AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

A joint resolution ratifying the amendment to the constitution of the United States proposed by congress as the sixteenth amendment thereto, relative to laying and collecting a tax on income.

WHEREAS, both houses of the sixty-first congress of the United States of America, at its first session, by a constitutional majority of two-thirds thereof, made the following proposition to amend the constitution of the United States of America in the following words, to-wit:

“A joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution of the United States.

“Resolved by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled (two-thirds of each house concurring therein), that the following article is proposed as an amendment to the constitution of the United States, which, when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states, shall be valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the constitution; article xvi. The congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the several states, and without regard to any census or enumeration.”

Therefore, be it resolved by the general assembly of the state of Iowa, that the said proposed amendment to the constitution of the United States of America be, and the same is hereby, ratified by the general assembly of the state of Iowa.

And, further be it resolved, that certified copies of this joint resolution be forwarded by the governor of this state to the secretary of state at Washington and to presiding officers of each house of the national congress.

Approved February 27, A. D. 1911.
