

8 or voter in the city proposing to make such purchase, or in the county 9 of the state opposite and adjoining said bridge. Such appraisers shall 10 be paid fifteen dollars ($15.00) per day for the time necessarily and 11 actually employed in making such appraisal, together with their 12 actual and necessary traveling expenses, the same to be paid by the 13 city.

1 SEC. 5. Regulation of tolls. If any such city shall thus become 2 the owner of any such bridge, the city council shall have power from 3 time to time to fix the rates of toll or charges for passing over the 4 bridge, which tolls shall be large enough to pay for the maintenance
 5 and operating expenses, interest upon any bonds issued for its pur-
 6 chase, and sufficient after five years to provide a sinking fund of at 7 least five per cent of such outstanding bonds, and for their payment 8 at maturity.

1 SEC. 6. Management and maintenance. If any such city shall 2 thus become the owner of any such bridge it shall operate the same 3 by officers or employees selected by the mayor and approved by the 4 city council of said city, who shall have police powers and shall main-
 5 tain order upon said bridge. One of such officers shall be superinten-6 dent and authorized to make proper inspection of the structure, see 7 that the same is at all times kept in repair and safe for the traveling 8 public, and that the navigation laws and regulations of the United 9 States are observed.

10 The said city shall have power to prescribe and enforce proper
 11 regulations respecting the passing of stock in droves, and persons 12 and vehicles over said bridge.

13 Such bridge shall be kept open for travel at all hours of the day or 14 night unless some unavoidable accident shall make such travel for 15 the time unsafe.

16 The rates of toll and copies of such regulation shall be kept posted 17 at each end of such bridge.

Approved April 5, A. D. 1917.
