

CHAPTER 26
SALARIES, FEES, DEPOSITS, AND LEGAL NOTICES
H. F. 40

AN ACT to amend, revise, and codify sections seven hundred six (706), seven hundred seven (707), seven hundred ten (710), seven hundred sixteen (716), seven hundred seventeen (717), seven hundred nineteen (719) to seven hundred twenty-two (722), inclusive, of the compiled code of Iowa, relating to the deposit of public funds by officers, and to the salaries, fees, expenses, and expenditures of such officers, and to the publication and posting of legal notices.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

That sections seven hundred six (706) and seven hundred seven (707) of the compiled Code of Iowa are amended, revised, and codified to read as follows:

Section 1. Appraisers of property. The compensation of appraisers appointed by authority of law to appraise property for any purpose shall be fifty cents (50c) per hour for each appraiser for the time necessarily spent in effecting the appraisement and five cents (5c) a mile for the distance traveled in going to and returning from the place of appraisement, which shall, unless otherwise provided, be paid out of the property appraised or by the owner thereof.

That section seven hundred ten (710) of the compiled Code of Iowa is amended, revised, and codified to read as follows:

Sec. 2. Fees payable in advance. All fees, unless otherwise specifically provided, are payable in advance, if demanded, except in the following cases:

1. When the fees grow out of a criminal prosecution.
2. When the fees are payable by the state or county.
3. When the orders, judgments, or decrees of a court are to be entered, or performed, or its writs executed.

Sec. 3. Witnesses for defendant in criminal cases. Witnesses subpoenaed for the defendant in criminal cases may demand their fees in advance as in civil cases, unless the subpoena shows that it is issued under the order of the judge.

That sections seven hundred sixteen (716) and seven hundred seventeen (717) of the compiled Code of Iowa are amended, revised, and codified to read as follows:

Sec. 4. Deposit of state funds. All elective and appointive state officers, boards, commissions, and departments, except the state fair board, the state board of education and the board of control of state institutions, shall, within ten (10) days succeeding the collection thereof, deposit, with the treasurer of state, or to the credit of said treasurer in any depository by him designated ninety per cent (90%) of all fees, commissions, and moneys collected or received; the balance actually collected in cash, remaining in the hands of any officer, board or department shall not exceed the sum of five thousand ($5,000) and no money collected shall be held more than thirty days.

Sec. 5. Statement itemized. Each deposit shall be accompanied by an itemized statement of the sources from which the money has been collected, and the funds to be credited, a duplicate of which shall, at the time, be filed with the auditor of state.

Sec. 6. Auditor and treasurer to keep account. The treasurer and auditor of state shall each keep an accurate account of the moneys so deposited.

That sections seven hundred nineteen (719) to seven hundred twenty-two (722), inclusive, of the compiled Code of Iowa, are amended, revised, and codified to read as follows:

Sec. 7. Publication of legal notices. The compensation, when not otherwise fixed, for the publication in a newspaper of any notice, order, citation, or other publication required or allowed by law, shall not exceed one dollar ($1.00) for one (1) insertion, and fifty cents (50c) for each subsequent insertion, for each ten (10) lines of brevier type, or its equivalent, in a column not less than two and one-sixth (2 1/6) inches in width.

Sec. 8. Selection of newspapers. Publications may be made in a newspaper published once a week or oftener. The plaintiff or executor or his attorney, in all publications concerning actions, executions, and estates, may designate the newspaper in which such publication shall be made.

Sec. 9. Refusal to publish. If publication be refused when copy therefor, with the cost or security for payment of the cost, is tendered, such publication may be made in some other newspaper of general circulation at or nearest to the county seat, with the same effect as if made in the newspaper so refusing.

Sec. 10. Days of publication. When the publication is in a newspaper which is published oftener than once a week, the succeeding publications of such notice, shall be on the same day of the week as the first publication. This section shall not apply to any notice for the publication of which provision inconsistent herewith is specially made.

Sec. 11. Posting advertisements. In all cases where an officer in the discharge of his duty is required to post an advertisement or notice, he shall, when not otherwise provided, be allowed twenty-five cents (25c) and the same mileage as a sheriff.

Sec. 12. Party to pay for publication. Publications required by law, shall, in the first instance, be paid for by the party causing publication, and shall be taxed as costs in the proceeding.

Approved February 20, 1924.
