CHAPTER 106

SCHOOLS AND SCHOOL DISTRICTS

AN ACT to authorize resident pupils to attend high school in an adjoining state and to provide for the payment of tuition in such cases.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

- 1 SECTION 1. Any person under twenty-one (21) years of age resid-
 2 ing in any school district or portion thereof in this state which district 3 or portion thereof does not maintain a high school and is severed from 4 the balance of the state or the school district by a navigable stream, 5 who has successfully completed the eighth grade, may with the con-
 6 sent of a majority of the school board of his residence district, ex-7 pressed at a meeting thereof, attend any high school in any adjoining 8 state willing to admit him, which high school is nearer to his place
 9 of residence than any duly established high school in Iowa, the dis-
 10 tances being measured by the usual traveled routes.

- 1 SEC. 2. Any tuition charged by the district so attended shall be 2 paid by the school district in which such person resides; but such 3 tuition shall not be more than such district charges non-resident 4 pupils residing in such state if any such tuition is charged, and if no 5 tuition is charged for non-resident pupils of said state, then such 6 tuition shall not exceed the sum of ten dollars ($10.00) per month.
 7 The person so attending high school in another state shall continue 8 to be treated as a pupil of the district of his residence in apportion-9 ment of the current school fund and the payment of state aid.

House File No. 224. Approved April 3, A. D. 1929.
