

best interests of their cemeteries to have certain delegates attend meetings of cemetery officials to exchange and get new ideas on cemetery control and management; and

WHEREAS there is some question about the legality of said communities allowing the expenses and dues of said delegates; and

WHEREAS, the payment of such expenses, dues, and subscriptions should be legalized for the best interests of the cemeteries in Iowa; therefore,

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

1 SECTION 1. That every city, county, town or township having a 2 cemetery under its control may delegate not to exceed two officials
3 from each cemetery so controlled to attend meetings of cemetery
4 officials, and that certain expenses, including association dues, not to 5 exceed twenty-five dollars, of said delegates may be paid out of the 6 Cemetery Fund of said city, county, town or township; that the ex-7 pense of such delegates shall not exceed the expenses allowed under 8 Section fifty-six hundred eighty-three and one-tenth (5683.1) of the 9 1939 Code of Iowa.

1 SEC. 2. That the cemetery officials of every city, county, town or 2 township having a cemetery under its control may subscribe to one 3 or more publications devoted exclusively to cemetery management, but 4 said subscriptions may be paid out of the Cemetery Fund of the city,
5 county, town or township.

Approved April 5, 1943.
