

11 pensionation is changed by a change in the law the said computation shall 12 also be made in the month the law becomes effective for the salaries 13 paid for the remainder of said year from the effective date of the 14 new law. If a vacancy occurs in any office, the person who is ap-15 pointed or elected to fill the unexpired term in the office vacated, 16 shall receive the same salary as the person vacating the office.

1 SEC. 2. Section three hundred forty point nine (340.9), Code 2 1971, is amended by striking subsections ten (10), eleven (11), and 3 twelve (12) and inserting in lieu thereof the following new subsection:

4 "One hundred thousand or more, an annual salary established by 5 the county board of supervisors, except that in no case shall his annual 6 salary be less than the annual salary established in December, 1969.
 7 The board may accept and utilize private grants or federal funds, or 8 both, for the purpose of paying the salary of the county attorney and 9 his assistants."

1 SEC. 3. Section three hundred forty point eight (340.8), the last 2 unnumbered paragraph, Code 1971, is amended as follows:

3 In counties over two hundred fifty thousand population where more 4 than two deputies are required, said deputies may be paid an amount 5 not to exceed [seventy] seventy-five percent of the annual salary of 6 his or her principal. Upon certification to the board of supervisors 7 by the elected official concerned, the amount of the annual salary for 8 each deputy as above provided, the board of supervisors [shall] may 9 certify to the county auditor of any such county the annual salary 10 certified by the elected officials, but in no event shall said board of 11 supervisors be required to certify to the auditor of any such county 12 an amount in excess of the amounts authorized above. The board of 13 supervisors shall fix all compensation for extra help and clerks.
