

CHAPTER 96
DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS ESTABLISHED

S.F. 464

AN ACT reorganizing the department of social services by establishing a department of corrections, renaming the department of social services as the department of human services, and providing penalties.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Section 1. Sections 2 through 54 are enacted as a new chapter 217A of the Code.

Sec. 2. NEW SECTION. 217A.1 DEFINITIONS. For purposes of this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Department" means the Iowa department of corrections established in section 217A.2.
2. "Board" means the board of corrections established in section 217A.4.
3. "Director" means the director of the department.

Sec. 3. NEW SECTION. 217A.2 DEPARTMENT ESTABLISHED. The Iowa department of corrections is established to be responsible for the control, treatment, and rehabilitation of offenders committed under law to the following institutions:

1. Iowa correctional institution for women.
2. Iowa state men's reformatory.
3. Iowa state penitentiary.
4. Iowa security and medical facility.
5. North central correctional facility.
6. Mount Pleasant correctional facility.
7. Clarinda correctional treatment facility.
8. Correctional release center.
9. Rehabilitation camps.
10. Other institutions related to an institution in subsections 1 through 9 but not attached to the campus of the main institution as program developments require.

Sec. 4. NEW SECTION. 217A.3 RESPONSIBILITIES OF DEPARTMENT. The department shall administer the institutions listed in section 217A.2. The department shall be responsible to the extent provided for by law for all of the following:

1. Accreditation and funding of community-based corrections programs including but not limited to pretrial release, probation, residential facilities, presentence investigation, parole, and work release.
2. Iowa state industries.
3. Jail inspections.
4. Other duties provided for by law.

Sec. 5. NEW SECTION. 217A.4 BOARD CREATED. A board of corrections is created within the department. The board shall consist of seven members appointed by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate. Not more than four of the members shall be from the same political party. Members shall be electors of this state. Six of the seven members shall each be a resident of a different congressional district. Members of the board shall serve four-year staggered terms.

Sec. 6. NEW SECTION. 217A.5 BOARD—DUTIES. The board of corrections shall:

1. Organize annually and select a chairperson and vice chairperson.
2. Adopt and establish policies for the operation and conduct of the department and the implementation of all department programs.
3. Recommend to the governor the names of individuals qualified for the position of director when a vacancy exists in the office.
4. Report immediately to the governor any failure by the director of the department to carry out any of the policy decisions or directives of the board.
5. Approve the budget of the department prior to submission to the governor.
6. Adopt rules in accordance with chapter 17A as the board deems necessary to transact its business and for the administration and exercise of its powers and duties.
7. Make recommendations from time to time to the governor and the general assembly.
8. Perform other functions as provided by law.

Sec. 7. NEW SECTION. 217A.6 MEETINGS. The board shall meet at least twelve times a year. Special meetings may be called by the chairperson or upon written request of any three members of the board. The chairperson shall preside at all meetings or in the chairperson's absence, the vice chairperson shall preside. The members of the board shall be paid forty dollars per diem while in session, and their reasonable and necessary expenses while attending the meetings.

Sec. 8. NEW SECTION. 217A.7 DIRECTOR—APPOINTMENT AND QUALIFICATIONS. The chief administrative officer for the department is the director. The director shall be appointed by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. The director shall be qualified in reformatory and prison management, knowledgeable in community-based corrections, and shall possess administrative ability. The director shall also have experience in the field of criminology and discipline and in the supervision of inmates in corrective penal institutions. The director shall not be selected on the basis of political affiliation, and while employed as the director, shall not be a member of a political committee, participate in a political campaign, be a candidate for a partisan elective office, and shall not contribute to a political campaign fund, except that the director may designate on the checkoff portion of the state or federal income tax return, or both, a party or parties to which a contribution is made pursuant to the checkoff. The director shall not hold any other office under the laws of the United States or of this or any state or hold any position for profit and shall devote full time to the duties of office.

Sec. 9. NEW SECTION. 217A.8 DIRECTOR—GENERAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES.

1. The director shall:
  - a. Supervise the operations of the institutions under the department's jurisdiction and may delegate the powers and authorities given the director by statute to officers or employees of the department.
  - b. Supervise state agents whose duties relate primarily to the department.
  - c. Establish and maintain a program to oversee women's institutional and community corrections programs and to provide community support to ensure continuity and consistency of programs. The person responsible for implementing this section shall report to the director.
  - d. Establish and maintain acceptable standards of treatment, training, education, and rehabilitation in the various state penal and corrective institutions which shall include habilitative services and treatment for mentally retarded offenders. For the purposes of this paragraph, habilitative services and treatment means medical, mental health, social, educational, counseling, and other services which will assist a mentally retarded person to become self-reliant. However, the director may also provide rehabilitative treatment and services to other persons who require the services. The director shall identify all individuals entering the correctional system who are mentally retarded, as defined in section 222.2, subsection 5. Identification shall be made by a qualified mental retardation professional. In assigning a mentally retarded offender, or an offender with an inadequately developed intelligence or with impaired mental abilities, to a correctional facility, the director shall consider both the program needs and the security needs of the offender. The director shall consult with the department of human services in providing habilitative services and treatment to mentally ill and mentally retarded offenders.

e. Employ, assign, and reassign personnel as necessary for the performance of duties and responsibilities assigned to the department. Employees shall be selected on the basis of fitness for work to be performed with due regard to training and experience and are subject to chapter 19A.

f. Examine all state institutions which are penal, reformatory, or corrective to determine their efficiency for adequate care, custody, and training of their inmates and report the findings to the board.

g. Prepare a budget for the department, subject to the approval of the board, and other reports as required by law.

h. Develop long-range correctional planning and an ongoing five-year corrections master plan. The director shall annually report to the general assembly to inform its members as to the status and content of the planning and master plan.

i. Supervise rehabilitation camps within the state as may be established by the director. Persons committed to institutions under the department may be transferred to the facilities of the camp system and upon transfer shall be subject to the same laws as pertain to the transferring institution.

j. Adopt rules subject to the approval of the board, pertaining to the internal management of institutions and agencies under the director's charge and necessary to carry out the duties and powers outlined in this section.

k. Adopt rules, policies, and procedures, subject to the approval of the board, pertaining to the supervision of parole and work release.

2. The director, with the express approval of the board, may establish for any inmate sentenced pursuant to section 902.3 a furlough program under which inmates sentenced to and confined in any institution under the jurisdiction of the department may be temporarily released. A furlough for a period not to exceed fourteen days may be granted when an immediate member of an inmate's family is seriously ill or has died, when an inmate is to be interviewed by a prospective employer, or when an inmate is authorized to participate in a training program not available within the institution. Furloughs for a period not to exceed fourteen days may also be granted in order to allow inmates to participate in programs or activities that serve rehabilitative objectives.

3. The director may establish a sales bonus system for the sales representatives for prison industry products. If a sales bonus system is established, the system shall not affect the status of the sales representatives under chapter 19A.

4. The director may expend moneys from the support allocation of the department as reimbursement for replacement or repair of personal items of the department's employees damaged or destroyed by clients of the department during the employee's tour of duty. However, the reimbursement shall not exceed one hundred fifty dollars for each item. The director shall establish rules in accordance with chapter 17A to carry out the purpose of this subsection.

5. The director may obtain assistance for the department including construction, facility planning, data processing and project accomplishment, by contracting under chapter 28E with the department of human services or the department of general services.

Sec. 10. NEW SECTION. 217A.9 OFFICIAL SEAL. The department shall have an official seal with the words "Iowa Department of Corrections" and other engraved design as the board prescribes. Every commission, order, or other paper of an official nature executed by the department may be attested with the seal.

Sec. 11. NEW SECTION. 217A.10 TRAVEL EXPENSES. The director, staff members, assistants, and employees, in addition to salary, shall receive their necessary traveling expenses by the nearest practicable route, when engaged in the performance of official business. Permission shall not be granted to any person to travel to another state except by approval of the board and the executive council.

Sec. 12. NEW SECTION. 217A.11 REPORT BY DEPARTMENT. Annually at the time provided by law, the department shall make a report to the governor and the general assembly, which shall cover the annual period ending with June thirtieth preceding the date of the report and shall include:

1. An itemized statement of the department's expenditures for each program under the department's administration.
2. Adequate and complete statistical reports for the state as a whole concerning payments made under the department's administration.
3. Recommendations concerning changes in laws under the department's administration as the board deems necessary.
4. Observations and recommendations of the board and the director relative to the programs of the department.
5. Information concerning long-range planning and the master plan as provided by section 217A.8, subsection 1, paragraph h.
6. Other information the board or the director deems advisable, or which is requested by the governor or the general assembly.

Sec. 13. NEW SECTION. 217A.12 CONFIDENTIALITY OF RECORDS—REPORT.

1. The following information regarding individuals receiving services from the department is confidential:

- a. Names and addresses of individuals receiving services from the department, and the types of services or amounts of assistance provided, except as otherwise provided in subsection 4.
- b. Information concerning the social or economic conditions or circumstances of particular individuals who are receiving or have received services or assistance from the department.
- c. Agency evaluations of information about a particular individual.
- d. Medical or psychiatric data, including diagnosis and past history of disease or disability, concerning a particular individual.

2. Information described in subsection 1 shall not be disclosed to or used by any person or agency except for purposes of administration of the department's programs of services or assistance and shall not, except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, be disclosed to or used by persons or agencies outside the department unless they are subject to standards of confidentiality comparable to those imposed on the department by this section.

3. This section does not restrict the disclosure or use of information regarding the cost, purpose, number of persons served or assisted by, and results of any program administered by the department, and other general and statistical information, so long as the information does not identify particular individuals served or assisted.

4. The general assembly finds and determines that the use and disclosure of information as provided in this subsection is for purposes directly connected with the administration of the programs of services and assistance referred to in this section and is essential for their proper administration.

Confidential information described in subsection 1, paragraphs a, b and c shall be disclosed to public officials for use in connection with their official duties relating to law enforcement, audits, and other purposes directly connected with the administration of the programs, upon written application to and with the approval of the director or the director's designee.

5. If it is established that a provision of this section would cause any of the department's programs of services or assistance to be ineligible for federal funds, the provision shall be limited or restricted to the extent which is essential to make the program eligible for federal funds. The department shall adopt, pursuant to chapter 17A, rules necessary to implement this subsection.

6. Violation of this section is a serious misdemeanor.

7. This section takes precedence over section 17A.12, subsection 7.

Sec. 14. NEW SECTION. 217A.13 ACTION FOR DAMAGES. A person may institute a civil action for damages under chapter 25A or to restrain the dissemination of confidential records set out in subsection 1, paragraph b, c, or d of section 217A.12, in violation of that section, and a person, including but not limited to an agency or governmental body, proven to have disseminated or to have requested and received confidential records in violation of subsection 1, paragraph b, c, or d of section 217A.12, is liable for actual damages and exemplary damages for each violation and is liable for court costs, expenses, and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the party bringing the action. The award for damages shall not be less than one hundred dollars.

Any reasonable grounds to believe that a public employee has violated a provision of section 217A.12 is grounds for immediate removal from access of any kind to confidential records or suspension from duty without pay.

Sec. 15. NEW SECTION. 217A.14 POWERS OF GOVERNOR—REPORT OF ABUSES. Section 217A.8, subsection 1, paragraph a, does not limit the general supervisory or examining powers vested in the governor by the laws or constitution of the state, or legally vested by the governor in a committee appointed by the governor.

The superintendent of an institution shall make reports to the board and the director as requested by the board and the director and the director shall report, in writing, to the governor any abuses found to exist in any of the institutions.

Sec. 16. NEW SECTION. 217A.15 APPOINTMENT OF SUPERINTENDENTS. The director shall appoint, subject to the approval of the board, the superintendents of the institutions provided for in section 217A.2.

The superintendent has the immediate custody and control, subject to the orders and policies of the director, of all property used in connection with the institution except as otherwise provided by statute. The tenure of office of a superintendent shall be at the pleasure of the appointing authority but a superintendent may be removed for inability or refusal to properly perform the duties of the office. Removal shall occur only after an opportunity is given the person to be heard before the board and the director and upon preferred written charges. The removal when made is final.

Sec. 17. NEW SECTION. 217A.16 FARM OPERATIONS ADMINISTRATOR. The director may appoint a farm operations administrator for institutions under the control of the departments of corrections and human services. If appointed, the farm operations administrator, subject to the direction of the director shall do all of the following:

1. Manage and supervise all farming and nursery operations at institutions, farms and gardens of the departments of corrections and human services.

2. Determine priorities on the use of agricultural resources and labor for farming and nursery operations.

3. Develop an annual operations plan for crop and livestock production and utilization that will provide work experience and contribute to developing vocational skills of the institutions' inmates and residents. The department of human services must approve the parts of the plan that affect farm operations on property of institutions having programs of the department of human services.

4. Coordinate farm lease arrangements, farm input purchases, farm product distribution, machinery maintenance and replacement, and renovation of farm buildings, fences and livestock facilities.

5. Develop and maintain accounting records, budgeting and cash flow systems, and inventory records.

6. Advise and instruct institution staff and inmates in application of agricultural technology.

7. Implement actions to restore and maintain productivity of soil resources at the institutions through crop rotation, minimum tillage, contouring, terracing, waterways, pasture renovation, windbreaks, buffer zones, and wildlife habitat in accordance with soil conservation service plans and recommendations.

8. Administer the revolving farm fund created in section 217A.48.

9. Do any other farm management duties assigned by the director.

Sec. 18. NEW SECTION. 217A.17 SUBORDINATE OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES. The director shall determine the number and compensation of subordinate officers and employees for each institution subject to chapter 19A. Subject to this chapter, the officers and employees shall be appointed and discharged by the superintendent who shall keep in the record of each subordinate officer and employee, the date of employment, the compensation, and the date of and the reasons for each discharge.

Sec. 19. NEW SECTION. 217A.18 BONDS. The director shall require officers and employees of institutions under the director's control who are charged with the custody or control of money or property belonging to the state, to give an official bond properly conditioned and signed by sufficient sureties in a sum to be fixed by the director. The bond is subject to approval by the director and shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

Sec. 20. NEW SECTION. 217A.19 DWELLING HOUSE. The director may furnish the superintendent of each of the institutions, in addition to salary, with a dwelling house or with appropriate quarters in lieu of a house, or the director may compensate the superintendent of each of the institutions in lieu of furnishing a house or quarters. If a superintendent of the institution is furnished with a dwelling house or quarters, either of which is owned by the state, the superintendent may also be furnished with water, heat, and electricity.

The director may furnish assistant superintendents or other employees, or both, with dwelling houses or with appropriate quarters, owned by the state. The assistant superintendent or employee, who is so furnished shall pay rent for the dwelling house or quarters in an amount to be determined by the superintendent of the institution, which shall be the fair market rental value of the house or quarters. If an assistant superintendent or employee is furnished with a dwelling house or quarters either of which is owned by the state, the assistant superintendent or employee may also be furnished with water, heat, and electricity. However, the furnishing of these utilities shall be considered in determining the fair market rental value of the house or quarters.

Sec. 21. NEW SECTION. 217A.20 TRANSFER OF INMATES. The director may transfer at the expense of the state an inmate of one institution to another similar institution under the director's control. The director may transfer an inmate under the director's jurisdiction from any institution supervised by the director to another institution under the control of a director of a division of the department of human services with the consent and approval of the other director and may transfer an inmate to any other institution for mental or physical examination or treatment retaining jurisdiction over the inmate when so transferred.

Sec. 22. NEW SECTION. 217A.21 RECORD OF INMATES. The director shall keep the following record of every person committed to any of the department's institutions: Name, residence, sex, age, place of birth, occupation, civil condition, date of entrance or commitment, date of discharge, whether a discharge is final, condition of the person when discharged, the name of the institutions from which and to which the person has been transferred, and if the person is dead, the date and cause of death.

Sec. 23. NEW SECTION. 217A.22 RECORD PRIVILEGED. Except with the consent of the director, or on an order of the district court, the record provided in section 217A.21 shall be accessible only to the board and the director and to assistants and proper clerks authorized by the director. The director may permit the state libraries and the Iowa state historical department's division of historical museum and archives to copy or reproduce by any photographic, photostatic, microfilm, microcard, or other process which accurately reproduces in a durable medium and to destroy in the manner described by law the records of inmates required in section 217A.21.

Sec. 24. NEW SECTION. 217A.23 REPORTS TO DIRECTOR. The superintendent of each institution shall, within ten days after the commitment or entrance of a person to the institution, cause a true copy of the person's entrance record to be made and forwarded to the director. When an inmate leaves, is discharged, transferred, or dies in any institution, the superintendent or person in charge shall within ten days thereafter send the information to the office of the director on forms which the director prescribes.

Sec. 25. NEW SECTION. 217A.24 QUESTIONABLE COMMITMENT. The superintendent shall within three days of the commitment or entrance of a person at the institution notify the director if there is any question as to the propriety of the commitment or detention of any person received at the institution, and the director upon notification shall inquire into the matter presented, and take appropriate action.

Sec. 26. NEW SECTION. 217A.25 RELIGIOUS BELIEFS. The superintendent receiving a person committed to any of the institutions shall ask the person to state the person's religious preference, shall enter the stated preference in a book kept for that purpose, and shall request that the person sign the entry. If the person is a minor and has formed no choice, the preference may be expressed at any later time by the person.

Sec. 27. NEW SECTION. 217A.26 RELIGIOUS WORSHIP. Any inmate, during the time of detention, shall be allowed for at least one hour on each Sunday or other holy day or in times of extreme sickness, and at other suitable and reasonable times consistent with proper discipline in the institution, to receive spiritual advice, instruction, and ministrations from any recognized member of the clergy who represents the inmate's religious belief.

Sec. 28. NEW SECTION. 217A.27 INVESTIGATION. The director or director's designee shall visit and inspect the institutions under the director's control, and investigate the financial condition and management of the institutions at least once in six months.

During the investigation the director or designee shall see every inmate of each institution as far as practicable, especially those admitted since the preceding visit, and shall give the inmates suitable opportunity to converse with the director or designee apart from the officers and attendants.

Sec. 29. NEW SECTION. 217A.28 INVESTIGATION OF OTHER INSTITUTIONS. The director may investigate charges of abuse, neglect or mismanagement on the part of any officer or employee of any public or private institution subject to the director's supervision or control.

Sec. 30. NEW SECTION. 217A.29 WITNESSES. The director may exercise the following powers in an investigation:

1. Summon and compel the attendance of witnesses.
2. Examine the witnesses under oath, which the director may administer.
3. Have access to all books, papers, and property material to the investigation.
4. Order the production of books or papers material to the investigation.

Witnesses other than those in the employ of the state are entitled to the same fees as in civil cases in the district court.

Sec. 31. NEW SECTION. 217A.30 CONTEMPT. If a person fails or refuses to obey the orders of the director issued under section 217A.29, or fails or refuses to give or produce evidence when required, the director shall petition the district court in the county where the offense occurs for an order of contempt and the court shall proceed as for contempt of court.

Sec. 32. NEW SECTION. 217A.31 TRANSCRIPT OF TESTIMONY. The director shall cause the testimony taken at the investigation to be transcribed and filed in the director's office at the seat of government within ten days after the testimony is taken, or as soon as practicable, and when filed the testimony shall be open for the inspection of any person.

Sec. 33. NEW SECTION. 217A.32 SERVICES REQUIRED—WAGES. Inmates of the institutions may be required to render any proper and reasonable service either in the institutions proper or in the industries established in connection with them. When an inmate of an institution is working outside the institution proper, the inmate shall be deemed at all times to be in the actual custody of the superintendent of the institution.

The director may when practicable pay the inmate a wage as the director deems proper in view of the circumstances, and in view of the cost attending the maintenance of the inmate. The wage shall not exceed the amount paid to free labor for a like or equivalent service.

Sec. 34. NEW SECTION. 217A.33 DEDUCTION TO PAY COURT COSTS OR DEPENDENTS—DEPOSITS. If wages are paid pursuant to section 217A.32, the director may deduct an amount established by the inmates' restitution plan of payment. The amount deducted shall be forwarded to the clerk of the district court or proper official. The director may pay all or any part of remaining wages paid pursuant to section 217A.32 directly to a dependent of the inmate, or may deposit the wage to the account of the inmate, or may deposit a portion and allow the inmate a portion for the inmate's personal use.

Sec. 35. NEW SECTION. 217A.34 CONFERENCES. Quarterly conferences of the superintendents of the institutions shall be held with the director for the consideration of all matters relative to the management of the institutions. Full minutes of the meetings shall be preserved in the records of the director. The director may cause papers to be prepared and read at the conferences on appropriate subjects.

Sec. 36. NEW SECTION. 217A.35 DIAGNOSTIC CLINIC—INMATE CLASSIFICATION. The director may provide facilities and personnel for a diagnostic clinic. The work of the clinic shall include a scientific study of each inmate, the inmate's career and life history, the causes of the inmate's criminal acts and recommendations for the inmate's custody, care, training, employment, and counseling with a view to rehabilitation and to the protection of society. To facilitate the work of the clinic and to aid in the rehabilitation of the inmates, the trial judge, prosecuting attorney, and presentence investigators shall furnish the director upon request with a full statement of facts and circumstances attending the commission of the offense so far as known or believed by them. If the department develops and utilizes an inmate classification system, it must, within a reasonable time, present evidence from independent experts as to the effectiveness and validity of the classification system.

Sec. 37. NEW SECTION. 217A.36 ANNUAL REPORTS. The superintendent of each institution shall make an annual report to the director. The report shall include a detailed and accurate inventory of the stock and supplies on hand, and their amount and value.

Sec. 38. NEW SECTION. 217A.37 CONTINGENT FUND. The director may permit the superintendent of each institution to retain a stated amount of funds in possession as a contingent fund for the payment of freight, postage, commodities purchased on authority of the director on a cash basis, salaries, and bills granting discount for cash. If necessary, the director shall make proper requisition upon the state comptroller for a warrant on the treasurer of state to secure the contingent fund for each institution. A monthly report of the status of the contingent fund shall be submitted by the superintendent of the institution to the director, according to rules prescribed by the director.

Sec. 39. NEW SECTION. 217A.38 PURCHASE OF SUPPLIES. The director shall adopt rules governing the purchase of all articles and supplies needed at the various institutions and the form and verification of vouchers for the purchases. When purchases are made by sample, the sample shall be properly marked and retained until after an award or delivery of the items is made. The director may purchase supplies from any institution under the director's control, for use in any other institution, and reasonable reimbursement shall be made for these purchases.

Sec. 40. NEW SECTION. 217A.39 EMERGENCY PURCHASES. The purchase of materials or equipment for penal or correctional institutions under the department is exempted from the requirements of centralized purchasing and bidding by the department of general services if the materials or equipment are needed to make an emergency repair at an institution or the security of the institution would be jeopardized because the materials or equipment could not be purchased soon enough through centralized purchasing and bidding and, in either case, if the director approves the emergency purchase.

Sec. 41. NEW SECTION. 217A.40 PLANS AND SPECIFICATIONS. The director shall cause plans and specifications to be prepared for all improvements authorized and costing over twenty-five thousand dollars. An appropriation for any improvement costing over twenty-five thousand dollars shall not be expended until the adoption of suitable plans and specifications, prepared by a competent architect and accompanied by a detailed statement of the amount, quality, and description of all material and labor required for the completion of the improvement.

A plan shall not be adopted, and an improvement shall not be constructed, which contemplates an expenditure of money in excess of the appropriation.

Sec. 42. NEW SECTION. 217A.41 LETTING OF CONTRACTS—REPAIRS OR ALTERATIONS. The director shall, in writing, let all contracts for authorized improvements costing in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars to the lowest responsible bidder, after advertisement for bids as the director deems proper in order to secure full competition. The director may reject all bids and readvertise. A preliminary deposit of money, bank check, or certified check, or a bid bond as provided in section 23.20, in an amount the director prescribes shall be required as an evidence of good faith, upon all proposals for the construction of improvements. The deposit, bank check, or certified check shall be held under the direction of the director. Upon prior authorization by the director, improvements costing five thousand dollars or less may be made by the superintendent of any institution.

Contracts are not required for improvements at any state institution where the labor of inmates is to be used.

Sec. 43. NEW SECTION. 217A.42 PAYMENT FOR IMPROVEMENTS. The director shall not authorize payment for construction purposes until satisfactory proof has been furnished to the director by the proper officer or supervising architect, that the contract has been complied with by the parties. Payments shall be made in a manner similar to that in which the current expenses of the institutions are paid.

Sec. 44. NEW SECTION. 217A.43 PROPERTY OF DECEASED INMATE. Upon the death of an inmate, the superintendent of the institution shall immediately take possession of the decedent's property left at the institution and shall deliver the property to the duly appointed representative of the deceased. However, if administration is not granted within one year from the date of the death of the decedent and the value of the estate of decedent is so small as to make the granting of administration inadvisable, then delivery of the money and other property left by the decedent may be made to the surviving spouse or an heir of the decedent. If administration is not granted within one year from the death of decedent and no surviving spouse or heir is known, the superintendent shall convert the property into money.

Sec. 45. NEW SECTION. 217A.44 MONEY DEPOSITED WITH TREASURER OF STATE. Money from property converted pursuant to section 217A.43 shall be transmitted to the treasurer of state as soon after one year after the death of the inmate as practicable. A complete permanent record of the property, showing by whom and with whom it was left, its amount when converted to money, the date of the death of the owner, the owner's reputed place of residence before becoming an inmate of the institution, the date on which the money was sent to the treasurer of state, and any other facts which may tend to identify the decedent and explain the case, shall be kept by the superintendent of the institution, and a transcript of the record shall be sent to and kept by the treasurer of state.

Money deposited with the treasurer of state pursuant to this section shall be paid at any time within ten years from the death of the inmate to any person who is shown to be entitled to it.

Sec. 46. NEW SECTION. 217A.45 TEMPORARY QUARTERS IN EMERGENCY. If the buildings at any institution under the management of the director are destroyed or rendered unfit for habitation by reason of fire, storms, or other like causes, to such an extent that the inmates cannot be confined and cared for at the institution, the director shall make temporary provision for the confinement and care of the inmates at some other place in the state. Like provision may be made in case of an epidemic among the inmates. The reasonable cost of the change including the cost of transfer of inmates, shall be paid from any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 47. NEW SECTION. 217A.46 INDUSTRIES. The director may establish industries at or in connection with any of the institutions under the director's control and may make contractual agreements with the United States, other states, state departments and agencies, and subdivisions of the state, for purchase of industry products.

The director may with the assistance of the Iowa state conservation commission establish and operate forestry nurseries on state-owned land under the control of the department. Residents of the adult correctional institutions shall provide the labor for the operation. Nursery stock shall be sold in accordance with the rules of the state conservation commission. The department shall pay the costs of establishing and operating the forestry nurseries out of the revolving farm fund created in section 217A.47. The state conservation commission shall pay the costs of transporting, sorting, and distributing nursery stock to and from or on state-owned land under the control of the commission. Receipts from the sale of nursery stock produced under this section shall be divided between the department and the state conservation commission in direct proportion to their respective costs as a percentage of the total costs. The department shall deposit its receipts in the revolving farm fund created in section 217A.47.

Sec. 48. NEW SECTION. 217A.47 REVOLVING FARM FUND. A revolving farm fund is created in the state treasury in which the department shall deposit receipts from agricultural products, nursery stock, agricultural land rentals, and the sale of livestock. However, before any agricultural operation is phased out, the department which proposes to discontinue this operation shall notify the governor, chairpersons and ranking members of the house and senate appropriations committees, and cochairpersons and ranking members of the subcommittee in the senate and house of representatives which has handled the appropriation for this department in the past session of the legislature. Before the department sells farmland under the control of the department, the director shall notify the governor, chairpersons and ranking members of the house and senate appropriations committees, and cochairpersons and ranking members of the joint appropriations subcommittee that handled the appropriation for the department during the past legislative session. The department may pay from the fund for the operation, maintenance, and improvement of farms and agricultural or nursery property under the control of the department. A purchase order for five thousand dollars or less payable from the fund is exempt from the general purchasing requirements of chapter 18. Notwithstanding section 8.33, unencumbered or unobligated receipts in the revolving farm fund at the end of a fiscal year shall not revert to the general fund of the state.

The department shall annually prepare a financial statement to provide for an accounting of the funds in the revolving farm fund. The financial statement shall be filed with the legislative fiscal bureau on or before February 1 each year.

As used in this section, "department" means the Iowa department of corrections and the Iowa department of human services.

The farm operations administrator appointed under section 217A.16 shall perform the functions described under section 217A.16 for agricultural operations on property of the Iowa department of human services.

The Iowa department of human services shall enter into an agreement under chapter 28D with the Iowa department of corrections to implement this paragraph.

Sec. 49. NEW SECTION. 217A.48 COOPERATION. The department and the director shall cooperate with any department or agency of the state government in any manner, including the exchange of employees, calculated to improve administration of the affairs of the institutions. Joint use of facilities by the department and another public agency as defined in section 28E.2 shall be only according to an agreement entered into under chapter 28E. All joint campuses shall have one superintendent and one business manager who shall be employed by the department with supervisory responsibility for the majority of the facility's population. Employment of the superintendent and business manager shall be done in consultation with the department which has responsibility for services for the other population at the facility.

Sec. 50. NEW SECTION. 217A.49 CONSULTANTS. The director may secure the services of consultants to furnish advice on administrative, professional, or technical problems to the director, or the employees of institutions under the director's jurisdiction or to provide in-service training and instruction for the employees. 906.17 ALLEGED PAROLE VIOLATORS—REIMBURSEMENT TO COUNTIES FOR TEMPORARY CONFINEMENT. The ~~division~~ Iowa department of adult corrections shall reimburse a county for the temporary confinement of alleged parole violators. The amount to be reimbursed shall be determined by multiplying the number of days so confined by the average daily cost of confining a person in the county facility as negotiated by the department. Payment shall be made upon submission of a voucher executed by the sheriff and approved by the director of the ~~division~~ Iowa department of adult corrections. The money shall be deposited in the county general fund to be credited to the jail account.

Sec. 149. Section 908.5, Code 1983, is amended to read as follows:

908.5 WAIVER OF PROBABLE CAUSE HEARING. The alleged parole violator may waive the probable cause hearing, in which event the liaison officer shall proceed as upon a finding of probable cause. Before accepting a waiver of hearing, the liaison officer shall inform the alleged violator of the charge, of the alleged violator's right to a hearing to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that parole has been violated, and that if the hearing is waived, the alleged violator will be committed to the custody of the Iowa department of social services corrections without further proceedings, to await the determination of the parole board. The liaison officer shall make a verbatim record of the proceedings in which the hearing is waived.

Sec. 150. Section 908.6, Code 1983, is amended to read as follows:

908.6 DISPOSITION BY LIAISON OFFICER. If it appears from the evidence that there is no probable cause to believe that the arrested person has violated the conditions of parole, the liaison officer shall order the arrested person to be released from custody and continued on parole. If it appears that there is probable cause to believe that the arrested person has violated the conditions of parole, the liaison officer shall commit the arrested person to the custody of the Iowa department of social services corrections, and the procedure prescribed in section 901.7 shall apply to ~~such~~ the commitment; or the liaison officer may recommend that the arrested person be admitted to bail as provided in section 908.2. The liaison officer shall make a summary of the testimony and other evidence considered and a statement of the facts relied on as a basis for the finding of probable cause or no probable cause, and shall without delay forward them together with all documents relating to the matter to the executive secretary of the parole board. If the alleged parole violator has waived the probable cause hearing, the verbatim record of that proceeding shall be forwarded in lieu of the summary of evidence and statement of facts.

Sec. 151. Section 908.7, Code 1983, is amended to read as follows:

908.7 ACTION BY PAROLE BOARD. Upon a finding of probable cause to believe that a parole violation has occurred, the board of parole shall proceed without unreasonable delay to hear the charge of parole violation. Upon receipt of the record prepared and forwarded by the liaison officer, the board shall fix a time and place for ~~such~~ the hearing and shall notify in writing the alleged violator, the alleged violator's attorney of record, if any, and the Iowa department of social services corrections of ~~such~~ the hearing and the claimed violation of parole. The alleged violator shall be given an opportunity to be heard by the board under ~~such~~ rules as the board shall adopt. The inquiry shall be limited to the following two matters: 1. Did the alleged parole violation actually occur? 2. If the violation did occur, should the violator's parole be revoked?

PARAGRAPH DIVIDED. If the board determines that the parole should be revoked, it shall make an order revoking the parole. The board shall furnish the violator with a written statement of the facts relied upon to establish a violation and the reasons for revoking parole.

Sec. 152. Section 908.8, Code 1983, is amended to read as follows:

908.8 PROCEEDING WITHOUT ARREST OR PROBABLE CAUSE. The board of parole may receive from a parole officer a charge or complaint of parole violation against any parolee and may proceed to a hearing on ~~such~~ the charge in any case where the alleged violator has not been arrested or has been arrested and discharged by the liaison officer on a finding of no probable cause. The presence of the alleged violator at ~~such~~ the hearing shall be secured by summons. A statement of the charge against the alleged violator shall accompany the summons, and the parole officer shall give the alleged violator ~~such~~ assistance as is needed to get to the place of the hearing. Travel expenses, if any, shall be paid by the board. If the alleged violator fails without good cause to appear as commanded by the summons, ~~such~~ the failure shall be considered a violation of the parole, and the board may proceed to revoke parole. If the parole is revoked, the board shall issue a warrant for the person's arrest and return to the custody of the Iowa department of social services corrections. Upon ~~his or her~~ the person's return to custody, the board ~~shall~~, upon request, shall give the person an opportunity to present any matters in defense or mitigation of the conduct.

Sec. 153. Section 908.9, Code 1983, is amended to read as follows:

908.9 DISPOSITION OF VIOLATOR. If the parole of ~~any~~ a parole violator is revoked, the violator shall remain in the custody of the Iowa department of social services corrections under the terms of the parolee's original commitment. If the parole of ~~any~~ a parole violator is not revoked, the board shall order ~~his or her~~ the person's release subject to the terms of ~~his or her~~ the person's parole with any modifications that the board ~~shall determine~~ determines proper.

Sec. 154. Section 910.5, subsections 3 and 4, Code 1983, are amended to read as follows:

3. If an offender is to be placed on work release from a facility under control of a county sheriff or the judicial district department of correctional services, restitution shall be a condition of work release. The judicial district department of correctional services shall prepare a restitution plan of payment or may modify any previously existing restitution plan of payment. The new or modified plan of payment shall reflect the offender's present circumstances concerning the offender's income, physical and mental health, education, employment and family circumstances. Failure of the offender to comply with the restitution plan of payment including the community service requirement, if any, shall constitute a violation of a condition of work release. The judicial district department of correctional services may modify the plan of restitution at any time to reflect the offender's present circumstances.

4. If an offender is to be placed on parole, restitution shall be a condition of parole. The ~~parole office~~ district department of correctional services to which the offender will be assigned shall prepare a restitution plan of payment or may modify any previously existing restitution plan of payment. The new or modified plan of payment shall reflect the offender's present circumstances concerning the offender's income, physical and mental health, education, employment, and family circumstances. Failure of the offender to comply with the restitution plan of payment including a community service requirement, if any, shall constitute a violation of a condition of parole. The parole officer may modify the plan of payment any time to reflect the offender's present circumstances. A restitution plan of payment or modified plan of payment, prepared by a parole officer, must meet the approval of the ~~chief of the bureau~~ director of community the district department of correctional services of the division of adult corrections.

Sec. 158. INITIAL TERMS. Notwithstanding section 217A.4, the terms of the initial members of the board of corrections appointed pursuant to section 217A.4 shall be as follows:

Two members shall serve until April 30, 1985.

Two members shall serve until April 30, 1986.

Three members shall serve until April 30, 1987.

Members of the board shall commence serving their terms July 1, 1983.

Sec. 159. TRANSITION. This bill takes effect October 1, 1983 except that this section and sections 157 and 158 of this Act take effect July 1, 1983 and parole and work release programs and responsibilities assigned to community-based corrections under section 217A.3, subsection 1, shall be performed by the Iowa department of corrections until July 1, 1984. On July 1, 1983 the initial appointees to the board of corrections shall commence serving their terms as provided in section 158 of this Act and shall organize, promulgate rules, and shall perform all duties as provided for in section 217A.5 as necessary to insure the commencement of the operation of the department of corrections on October 1, 1983. As soon as practicable after the effective date of this section the board shall recommend and the governor shall appoint a person to act as director of the department. The acting director shall perform those duties of section 217A.8 and any other duties assigned by the board, necessary to insure commencement of the operation of the department on October 1, 1983. The department of human services shall provide staffing and support for the board of corrections until October 1, 1983. In addition to the staffing and support provided by the department of human services, the acting director shall employ a transition team to help organize the department to identify with the department of human services the administrative support staff, equipment, and other resources to be transferred to the department of corrections, consistent with the purposes of this Act, and to insure the commencement of the department on October 1, 1983.

The department of human services shall retain the responsibilities and duties of adult corrections as provided for in the Code until October 1, 1983 at which time all positions and incumbent staff on the table of organization of the division of adult corrections of the Iowa department of human services and the farm operations administrator for the Iowa department of human services are transferred to the Iowa department of corrections. The Iowa merit employment department in cooperation with the director of the Iowa department of corrections and the director of the Iowa department of human services shall establish a special procedure for the period beginning July 1, 1983 and ending September 1, 1983 for consideration of applications from persons currently employed by the Iowa department of human services for positions available with the Iowa department of corrections. After September 1, 1983 employment of persons by the Iowa department of corrections is subject to rules of the Iowa merit employment department. Duties may be reassigned at the discretion of the director of the Iowa department of corrections to align with the organizational and functional needs of the new agency. Employees of the department of human services whose duty assignments are transferred or terminated because of this Act may be reassigned to other duties or terminated. Employees so transferred or reassigned shall not lose any rights, privileges, or benefits accrued that were associated with their status prior to the effective date of this Act. All policies, procedures, and rules established for or by the division of adult corrections of the department of social services or human services shall apply respectively to the Iowa department of corrections, its employees, residents, and inmates, until otherwise changed as provided by law or rule promulgated by the board of corrections. All applicable contracts and leasing arrangements shall be transferred to the jurisdiction of the Iowa department of corrections on October 1, 1983. All equipment, supplies, and property in the custody of the division of adult corrections of the department of social services or human services, shall be transferred to the Iowa department of corrections on that date. Funds appropriated for the division of adult corrections shall be transferred and be available for the use of the Iowa department of corrections on and after that date.

The department of corrections shall contract with the department of human services until July 1, 1986 for the supplying of food for the institutions and the use of the department of human services' central warehouse. The board of corrections shall study the issue of the purchasing and storing of food for the institutions and shall adopt a policy as to the future purchasing and warehousing of food. The study shall include the feasibility of growing crops and raising livestock at the institutions for consumption at the institutions.

All other contracts, rules, regulations, orders, and directives promulgated and in effect for the Iowa department of social services remain in force and effect for the department of human services even though the department's name has changed. The department of human services shall use the stationery and other goods containing the symbol of the department of social services remaining with the department of human services until such time as the goods are replaced. The department of social services may change its official seal upon the effective date of the name change of the department. The Iowa department of corrections in consultation with the Iowa merit employment department and subject to approval by the executive council, shall determine which positions of the Iowa department of corrections shall be transferred to the judicial district departments when the transfer of parole and work release programs and responsibilities is made pursuant to this Act.

Employees of the Iowa department of corrections who become employees of judicial district departments of correctional services because of the transfer of parole and work release programs and responsibilities to the judicial district departments, shall be credited with all the seniority, vacation, and sick leave that had accrued to the employee at the time of the employee's transfer to the district department.

If a person transferred to a judicial district department pursuant to this Act, is reemployed by the Iowa department of corrections within two years of the transfer, that person shall be credited with all the seniority that accrued to the person prior to the transfer to the judicial district department.

Sec. 160. The Code editor may change any reference to the "division of corrections" and any reference to the "women's reformatory" inadvertently* remaining in the Code to the "Iowa department of corrections" and the "Iowa correctional facility for women" and make other corrective changes consistent with the intent of this Act. The Code editor shall change the term "inmate" in chapter 218 to the term "resident", unless the context requires otherwise.
