

CHAPTER 62

INTERSTATE RENDITION FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE SUPPORT

H.F. 513

AN ACT relating to interstate rendition of persons charged with failure to provide support.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Section 1. NEW SECTION. 252A.24 INTERSTATE RENDITION.

The governor of this state may:

1. Demand of the governor of another state the surrender of a person found in that state who is charged in this state with failing to provide for the support of any person.
2. Surrender on demand by the governor of another state a person found in this state who is charged in that state with failing to provide for the support of any person. Provisions for extradition of criminals not inconsistent with this chapter apply to the demand even if the person whose surrender is demanded was not in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the act and has not fled therefrom. The demand, the oath, and any proceedings for extradition pursuant to this section need not state or show that the person whose surrender is demanded has fled from justice or at the time of the commission of the act was in the demanding state.

Sec. 2. NEW SECTION. 252A.25 CONDITIONS OF INTERSTATE RENDITION.

1. Before making the demand upon the governor of another state for the surrender of a person charged in this state with failing to provide for the support of a person, the governor of this state may require the department of human services or any county attorney of this state to satisfy the governor that at least sixty days prior thereto the obligee initiated proceedings for support under this chapter or that any proceeding would be of no avail.
2. If, under a substantially similar statute, the governor of another state makes a demand upon the governor of this state for the surrender of a person charged in that state with failure to provide for the support of a person, the governor may require any prosecuting attorney to investigate the demand and to report to the governor whether proceedings for support have been initiated or would be effective. If it appears to the governor that a proceeding would be effective but has not been initiated, the governor may delay honoring the demand for a reasonable time to permit the initiation of a proceeding.
3. If proceedings have been initiated and the person demanded has prevailed therein, the governor may decline to honor the demand. If the obligee prevailed and the person demanded is subject to a support order, the governor may decline to honor the demand if the person demanded is complying with the support order.

GROUP INSURANCE

H.F. 610

AN ACT to grant the commissioner of insurance the authority to approve discretionary group insurance.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Section 1. Section 509.1, Code 1987, is amended by adding the following new subsection:
