CHAPTER 80.

[Chap. 130.]

BANKING.

AN ACT providing for the submission to the people of an act to amend the General Banking Law.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa,

SECTION 1. A vote of the people upon banking with a capital of $25,000. That at the next general election there shall be submitted to the people, the question whether or not, an act entitled "an act to amend an act, entitled an act, authorizing general banking in the state of Iowa," passed at the regular session of the eighth general assembly, shall go into effect or in any manner be in force.

SEC. 2. Ballots. Every person voting at said election, shall have the right to use a ticket or ballot with the words written or printed thereon, "For amendments to General Banking law," or "Against amendments to General Banking Law."

SEC. 3. Abstract of votes to be transmitted to the sec'y of state—canvass. In making the abstract of votes given at said election, as now required by law, the proper officers shall make an abstract of the votes given under the provisions of this act, and which shall be transmitted [98] to the secretary of state within the time and in the same manner as is now required in the election of state officers; said abstract shall be endorsed "Abstract of votes for and against amendments to General Banking Law," or in words clearly indicating the contents of the paper, and the abstracts so transmitted shall be opened and the votes canvassed in the time and manner, and by the officers provided for in relation to the elections of state officers.

SEC. 4. Certificate. It shall be the duty of the officers canvassing the votes for and against amendments, aforesaid, as soon as said state canvass shall be made, to make a certificate under their hands of the facts, stating the number of votes given for and against the law aforesaid, and file the same in the office of the secretary of state.

SEC. 5. Proclamation of the governor. If it shall appear from such certificate that a majority of all the votes cast at such election, "For amendments to General Banking Law," and "Against amendments to General Banking Law," has been cast, "For amendments to General Banking Law," the governor shall immediately and within ten days from the filing of such certificate in the office of the secretary of state, issue his proclamation declaring such result of said election; and upon the issuing of such proclamation, the said act, entitled "An act to amend an act, entitled an act authorizing General Banking in the State of Iowa," shall go into effect and be in full force, and not otherwise.

Approved April 2, 1860.
