

CHAPTER 107.

NOTARIAL ACTS OF E. K. HART LEGALIZED.

AN ACT to legalize the acts of E. K. Hart, a Notary Public in and for Lee County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, That all official acts of E. K. Hart, done and performed by him as Notary Public in and for Lee county, under an appointment by the Governor of this State be and the same are hereby declared to be as legal and binding in law and in equity, as if the said E. K. Hart had caused his commission to be filed and recorded, and had executed and filed his bond as required by law before performing any such official acts.

This bill having remained with the Governor three days (Sunday excepted,) the General Assembly being in session, has become a law this 7th day of April, 1862.

ELIJAH SELLS, Secretary of State.

CHAPTER 108.

FUNDING OUTSTANDING COUNTY WARRANTS.

AN ACT to allow organized counties to fund their outstanding Warrants.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa, That in any organized county in this State, that has outstanding warrants which exceed in the aggregate the sum of one thousand dollars, over and above the amount of money then in the treasury that can be used in payment of said warrants, it shall be lawful for the Board of Supervisors of said County, a majority of all the members of the Board voting therefor, to make an order submitting to the voters of the county at the next general election, the question whether said county will fund its outstanding indebtedness, and if a majority of all the votes cast, shall be in favor of funding said indebtedness, the Board of Supervisors shall then make an order allowing the persons holding such warrants to return the same to the Treasurer of said county, and receive bonds of said county in lieu therefor: Provided, that the provisions of this Act shall not

Board of Supervisors submit question to voters.
