HF 109

1 Section 1. Section 69.16, unnumbered paragraph 1, Code
2 2005, is amended to read as follows:

3 All appointive boards, commissions, and councils of the 4 state established by the Code if not otherwise provided by law
5 shall be bipartisan in their composition. ~~No~~ A person shall 6 not be appointed or reappointed to any board, commission, or 7 council established by the Code if the effect of that 8 appointment or reappointment would cause the number of members
9 of the board, commission, or council belonging to one 10 political party to ~~be-greater~~ exceed by more than one-half-the 11 membership one the number of members of the board, commission,
12 or council ~~plus-one~~ belonging to another political party.

13 EXPLANATION

14 This bill concerns the determination of partisan balance
15 for appointive boards, commissions, and councils. The bill
16 provides that the number of members of an appointive board, 17 commission, or council of one political party shall not exceed 18 by more than one the number of members from another political 19 party. Under current law, the number of members of such a 20 body belonging to one political party shall not be greater 21 than one-half of the membership of the body plus one.
