HF-153

1 Section 1. STATE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION REVIEW OF 2 AVIATION SECURITY MEASURES. The administrator for aeronautics
3 and public transit within the state department of 4 transportation shall review existing policies and procedures
5 to determine if more stringent security measures are necessary
6 to prevent the spread of terrorism through the use of aircraft
7 and aircraft transportation infrastructures. The review shall 8 include but is not limited to an assessment of private 9 aviation services, pilot training within the state including 10 training to fly crop dusters, and background checks on pilots.
11 The administrator shall consult with other states and the 12 proper federal agencies when conducting the review. The 13 administrator shall issue findings based upon the review and 14 file the findings with the general assembly by November 30, 15 2006.

16 EXPLANATION

17 This bill directs the state department of transportation's
18 aeronautics administrator to conduct a review of security 19 measures needed to prevent terrorism via an aircraft. The 20 review shall consider private aviation services, pilot
21 training, training to fly crop dusters, and pilot background
22 checks. The administrator must consult with other states and 23 federal agencies. The administrator is to file the findings
24 of the review with the general assembly by November 30, 2006.
