5 information they can obtain, using the same as a means for determin-6 ing the actual cash value of the property of such companies within 7 this state; also taking into consideration the valuation of all property

5 ascertained, by the number of miles in each of said counties, and the 6 result thereof shall be by said council certified to the several county
7 auditors of the respective counties into, over or through which said 8 line extends.

1 At the first meeting of the board of supervisors held after such 2 statement is received by the county auditor it shall cause such state-
3 ment to be entered in its minute book, and make and enter therein
4 an order stating the length of the lines and the assessed value of the

The county auditor shall transmit a copy of said order to the council or trustees of each city, town, or township in which the lines of said company extend.

company, owning or operating a telephone or telegraph line in their respective counties, furnish a map or maps accurately showing the boundaries of all taxing districts in said county, and the public high-shall be by said board levied as a special tax against said company and the property of said company, which shall be collected in the same manner as county taxes and become a part of the county fund.

and may compel the attendance of witnesses in case said council shall decree it necessary to enable it to ascertain the actual value of such

SEC. 4562. Additional statement—delay—penalty.

Upon the filing of such statements, the executive council shall examine each of them, and if it shall deem the same insufficient, or in case it shall deem that other information is requisite, it shall require such officer or agent to make such other and further statements as the executive council may call for. In the case of the failure or refusal of any company to make out and deliver to the executive council any statement or statements required by this and sections forty-five hundred sixty-one and forty-five hundred sixty-three, such company shall forfeit and pay to the state of Iowa one hundred dollars for each day such report is delayed beyond the first Monday in March of that year, to be sued and recovered in any proper form of action in the name of the state of Iowa, on the relation of the executive council, and such penalty when collected shall be paid into the general fund of the state.

SEC. 4563. Assessment by executive council.

The executive council shall meet on the second Monday in July in each year, and it shall thereupon value and assess the property of such company, in the manner hereinafter set forth, after examining such statements, and after ascertaining the actual value of the property of such company therefrom, and from such other information as it may have or obtain. For that purpose the executive council may require such company, by its agents or officers, to appear before said council with such books, papers, or statements as the council may require, or it may require additional statements to be made by such company, and may compel the attendance of witnesses, in case said council shall deem it necessary, to enable it to ascertain the actual value of such property; any such company interested may, upon written application, appear before the executive council at such meeting, and be heard in the matter of the valuation of the property of such company for taxation.

SEC. 4564. Actual value—how ascertained.

The executive council shall first ascertain the actual value of the entire property owned by said company, from said statements or otherwise, for that purpose taking the aggregate market value of all shares of capital stock, in case said shares have a market value, and in case they have none taking the actual value thereof or of the capital of said company, in whatever manner the same is divided, in case no shares of capital stock have been issued; provided, however, that in case the whole or any portion of the property of said company shall be incumbered by a mortgage or mortgages, such council shall ascertain the actual value of such property by adding to the market value or the aggregate shares of stock or to the value of the capital, in case there shall be no such shares, the aggregate amount of the market or cash value of such mortgage or mortgages, and the result shall be deemed and treated as the actual value of the property of such company. The executive council shall, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual value of the property within the state of Iowa, next ascertain from such statements or otherwise the actual value of the property, both real and personal, owned by the company, and which is used exclusively outside the general business of the company, and also the actual value of that part of its property, if any, without the state which can not lawfully be considered in determining the mileage value of its routes; and the aggregate of such values shall be deducted from the entire actual value of the property as above ascertained. The executive council shall next ascertain and deduct the actual value of the sea or ocean routes of any such company, and in ascertaining the same may take into consideration the earnings, both gross and net per mile, of such sea or ocean routes, as compared with the earnings, gross and net, of the land routes of such company or may ascertain their value in any other practicable manner, and may require that the reports heretofore provided for shall show such earnings. Thereupon the executive council shall ascertain the actual value of the property of such company within the state of Iowa, and for that purpose may take into consideration the proportional value of the company's property without and within the state, and shall take as a basis of valuation of the company's property in this state the proportion of the whole aggregate value of the property of said company, as above ascertained, after making the deductions above provided for which the length of the routes within the state of Iowa bears to the whole length of the routes of such company other than sea or ocean routes, and such amount so ascertained shall be considered and taken to be the entire actual value of the property of such company within the state of Iowa. From the entire actual value of the property within the state so ascertained, there shall be deducted by the said council the actual value of all the real estate, buildings, machinery, appliances, and personal property not used exclusively in the conduct of the business within the state that are subject to local taxation within the counties, townships, and other assessment districts as hereinbefore described in the sixth item of section forty-five hundred sixty-one.

SEC. 4565. Actual value per mile—taxable value.

1 The executive council shall thereupon ascertain the value per mile of the property within the state, by dividing the total value as above ascertained, after deducting the specific properties locally assessed within the state, by the number of miles within the state, and the result shall be deemed and held to be the actual value per mile of the property of such company within the state of Iowa. The assessed or taxable value shall be determined by taking that percentage of the actual value so ascertained, as is provided by section forty-five hundred eighty-four, and such valuation and assessment shall be in the same ratio as that of the property of individuals.

SEC. 4566. Assessment in each county—how certified.

1 Said executive council shall thereupon, for the purpose of determining what amount shall be assessed by it to said company, in each county of the state, through, across, into, or over which the route of said company extends, multiply the value per mile, as above ascertained, by the number of miles in each of said counties, as reported in said statements, or as otherwise ascertained, and the result thereof, with the mileage and the rate of assessment per mile, shall be by said council certified to the auditors respectively of the several counties through, into, over and across which the routes of said company extend.

SEC. 4567. Levy and collection of tax—rates.

1 At the first meeting of the board of supervisors held after such certificate is received by the county auditor, it shall cause the same to be entered in its minute book and make and enter therein an order stating the length of the routes and the assessed value of each in each city, town, township, or other taxing district in its county, through or into which said routes extend, which shall constitute the taxable value of said property for taxing purposes, and the taxes on said property, when collected by the county treasurer, shall be disposed of as other taxes. The county auditor shall immediately thereafter transmit a copy of said order to the councils of cities, or towns, and to the trustees of each township, in the county. The county auditor shall also add to the value so apportioned the assessed value of the real estate, buildings, machinery, fixtures, appliances, and personal property not used exclusively in the conduct of the business situated in any township or taxing district as returned by the assessor thereof, and extend the taxes thereon upon the tax list as in other cases. All such property shall be taxable upon said assessment at the same rates, by the same officers, and for the same purposes as the property of individuals within such counties, townships, or taxing districts. The property so included in said assessment and the shares of stock in such companies so assessed shall not be taxed in this state, except as provided in this chapter.

[S., '13, § 1346-g.]

SEC. 4568. Penalty.

In case any such company shall fail or refuse to pay any taxes assessed against it in any county, township, or assessment district in the state, in addition to other remedies provided by law for the collection of taxes, an action may be prosecuted in the name of the state of Iowa by the county attorneys of the different counties of the state, on the relation of the auditors of the different counties of the state, and judgment in such action shall include a penalty of fifty per cent of the amount of the taxes so assessed and unpaid, together with reasonable attorney's fees for the prosecution of such action, which action may be prosecuted in any county into, through, over, or across which the routes of any such company shall extend, or in any county where such company shall have an officer or agent for the transaction of business.

[S., '13, § 1346-h.]

SEC. 4569. "Company" defined.

The word "company," as used in this chapter, shall be deemed and construed to mean and include any person, copartnership, association, corporation, or syndicate that may own or operate, or be engaged in operating, any express route as herein defined, whether formed or organized under the laws of this state, any other state or territory, or of any foreign country.

[S., '13, § 1346-i.]

a verified statement as to its entire line or lines within this state, when all of said line or lines are located outside cities and towns, and as to such portion of its line or lines within this state as are located outside cities and towns, when such line or lines are located partly located outside cities and towns within this state, with a separate showing of the number of miles leased.

2. The location and length of each division within the state and the character of poles, towers, wires, substation equipment and other extends.

[S. S., '15, § 1346-k.]

SEC. 4571. Additional statement—delay—penalty.

Upon receipt of said statements from the several companies, the executive council shall examine such statements, and if it shall deem same insufficient, and that further information is requisite, it shall require the company making same to make such other or further statement as it may desire, notifying such company thereof by registered mail. In case of the total failure or refusal to make any statement required by this and the preceding section to be made by May first in any year, or of failure or refusal to make such other or further statement within thirty days from the time the registered notice thereof is received by said company that the same is required by the executive council, such company shall forfeit and pay to the state of Iowa, one hundred dollars for each day the total failure or refusal to make any report is continued beyond the said first day of May of

SEC. 4572. Assessment by executive council.

The executive council shall, at its meeting on the second Monday in July of each year, proceed to find the actual value of that part of such transmission line or lines referred to in section forty-five hun-within this state but outside cities and towns, including the whole of such line or lines when all of such line or lines owned or operated by said company are located wholly outside cities and towns, taking into consideration the information obtained from the statements required by this chapter, and any further information they can obtain, using the same as a means of determining the actual cash value of such transmission line or lines or part thereof, within this state, located outside cities and towns. The executive council shall then ascertain the value per mile of such transmission line or lines owned or operated by each company specified in section forty-five hundred seventy by dividing the total value as above ascertained by the num-cities and towns, and the result shall be deemed and held to be the clerk shall post an alphabetical list of those whose assessments are thus raised and added, in a conspicuous place in the office or place of meeting of the board, and enter upon the records a statement that such posting has been made, which entry shall be conclusive evidence of the giving of the notice required. The board shall hold an ad-

his property may make oral or written complaint thereof to the board of review, which shall consist simply of a statement of the errors complained of, with such facts as may lead to their correction, and any person whose assessment has been raised or whose property has anew all questions arising before the board which relate to the liability of the property to assessment or the amount thereof, and its decision shall be certified by the clerk of the court to the county auditor, who shall correct the assessment books in his office accordingly. Any officer of a county, city, town, township or school district interested or a taxpayer thereof may in like manner make complaint before said board in respect to the assessment of any property in the township, city or town and an appeal from the action of the board of review in fixing the amount of assessment on any property concerning which such complaint is made, may be taken by any of such aforementioned officers. Such appeal is in addition to the appeal allowed to the person whose property is assessed and shall be taken in the name of the county, city, town, township or school district interested and tried in the same manner, except that the notice of appeal shall also be served upon the owner of the property concerning which the complaint is made and affected thereby or person required to return said property for assessment. Upon trial of any appeal from the action of the board of review fixing the amount of assessment upon any property concerning which complaint is made, the court may increase, decrease or affirm the amount of the assessment appealed

8 taxed in each year the same was so withheld or overlooked and not 9 listed and assessed, together with six per cent interest thereon from 10 the time the taxes would have become due and payable had such 11 property been listed and assessed, and upon failure to pay such sum 12 within thirty days, with all accrued interest, he shall cause an action

9 affect any right or title to such real estate which would have accrued

But in any county in which the levy is limited to four mills the board of supervisors may, at any general election, submit the question of increasing such levy to six mills or less to a vote of the electors, and if such proposition is adopted the board of supervisors may make the next general levy at the proposed rate; provided, however, that in any county where, by reason of extraordinary or unusual litigation the rates herein fixed for ordinary county revenue are found to be insufficient to pay the same, the board of supervisors may create an additional fund to be known as court expense fund, and may levy for such fund such rate of taxes as shall be necessary to pay all court expenses chargeable to the county. Such fund shall be used for no other purpose, and the levy therefor shall be dispensed with when the authorized levy for the ordinary county revenue is sufficient to meet the necessary county expenditures including such court expenses. 2 in the two preceding sections, shall constitute a lien on any real estate 3 owned or acquired by any such delinquent, and so remain until the 5 each year shall cease to be a lien.

1 The treasurer shall each year, upon receiving the tax list, enter
2 upon the same in separate columns opposite each parcel of real estate
3 on which the tax remains unpaid for any previous year, the amount of 4 such unpaid tax, and unless such delinquent real estate tax is so

10 semiannual settlement sheets to the auditor of state as unavailable, 11 whereupon the auditor of state shall credit the county with the 12 amount so reported, but nothing in this section shall be construed to 13 in any way release the county treasurer from any duty required of 14 him in the collection of delinquent taxes, nor to release the taxpayer 15 from his liability for the same. Should any of such tax afterward be 16 collected, the county treasurer shall distribute the net amount col-17 lected among the several funds the same as though it had never been 18 declared unavailable, and the portion belonging to the state shall be 19 credited back to the state and included in the treasurer's remittance 20 of other state taxes to the treasurer of state and shall be reported by

SEC. 4652. Lien on personal property of nonresident.

1 All personal property, the owner of which is a nonresident of the state, and which property is by the owner thereof intended for sale or consumption at a place or shipment to a place other than where said property is located, shall be assessed in the owner's name, if the owner is known, and if the owner is unknown or uncertain the same shall be assessed to "unknown owner," and shall be by the assessor sufficiently described so that said property may be identified. A lien for the tax upon said property as herein provided shall relate back to and exist from the first day of January of the year for which it is assessed, and if anyone seeks to remove the said property from the county before the tax for said year shall be paid, the tax shall immediately become due and collectible. It shall be the duty of the assessor to notify the county auditor if said property is being, or is about to be, removed from the county. In such event, or if the knowledge of the removal of or intent to remove said property shall come to him in any other authentic manner, the said auditor shall certify such fact to the county treasurer, with a full description of the property as the same appears on the assessor's books, giving assessment district, where located, and the amount of said assessment, and the county treasurer shall thereupon proceed by distress to restrain the removal of said property and secure the lien of the tax due or to become due. If at the time of such distress the levy for the year is unknown, the auditor is authorized to release the lien of such tax upon a good and sufficient bond, with sureties resident of the county, being filed with said auditor, to be by him approved, which bond shall obligate all parties thereto to pay all taxes due on said property when same are payable. Upon the filing and approving of such bond, the auditor shall make a certificate releasing the said personalty from the lien of such tax. The payment of said tax shall be a bar against the collection of taxes for same year on said property in any other county in this state.

1 Immediately after the taxes become delinquent, each county treasurer shall proceed to collect the same by distress and sale of the personal property of the delinquent taxpayers, and for this purpose he may appoint one or more collectors to assist him in collecting the same. Each collector appointed shall receive for his services and expenses the sum of five per cent on the amount of all taxes collected and paid over by him, which percentage he shall collect from the delinquent, together with the whole amount of delinquent taxes and interest; and pay the same to the treasurer at the end of each month, and in the discharge of his duties as collector, should it become necessary to make the delinquent taxes by distress and sale, or should no collector be appointed, or should the collector fail to institute proceedings to collect said delinquent taxes, the treasurer shall place the same in the hands of the sheriff, or a constable, who shall proceed to collect the same, and either shall be entitled to receive the same compensation, in addition to the five per cent, as constables are entitled to receive for the sale of property on execution. And the boards of supervisors may in their discretion authorize the appointment by the treasurer of one or more collectors to assist in the collection of such delinquent personal tax as the board may designate and may pay such collector as full compensation for all services rendered and expenses incurred a sum not to exceed ten per cent of the amount collected which sum shall in no event be paid or allowed until all such taxes collected have been paid over to the county treasurer by such collector.

TAX SALE.

SEC. 4683. Payment of subsequent taxes.

The treasurer shall also prepare, sign, and deliver to the purchaser of any real estate sold for taxes duplicate receipts for taxes, interest and costs paid by him after the date of his purchase for any subsequent year or years, one of which receipts shall be filed in the office of the auditor and noted on the register of sales therein. If such duplicate receipt is not so filed before redemption, such tax shall not be a lien upon the land, and the person paying the tax shall not be entitled to recover it of the owner of the real estate.

SEC. 4684. School, agricultural college or university land.

When any school, agricultural college or university land sold on credit is sold for taxes, the purchaser shall only acquire the interest of the original purchaser therein, and no sale of any such lands for taxes shall prejudice the rights of the state, agricultural college or university. In all cases where the real estate is mortgaged or otherwise incumbered to the school, agricultural college or university fund, the interest of the person who holds the fee shall alone be sold for taxes, and in no case shall the lien or interest of the state be affected by any sale thereof. The foregoing provision shall include all lands exempt from taxation by law, and any legal or equitable estate therein held, possessed, or claimed for any public purpose, and no assessment or taxation of such lands, nor the payment of any such tax by any person, or the sale and conveyance for taxes of any such lands, shall in any manner affect the right or title of the public therein, or confer upon the purchaser or person who pays such taxes any right or interest in such land.

SEC. 4685. Assessment to wrong person.

No sale of real estate for taxes shall be invalid on account of its having been taxed in any other name than that of the rightful owner, if it is in other respects sufficiently described.

SEC. 4686. Certified copies of records.

The books and records belonging to the offices of the auditor and treasurer, or copies thereof properly certified, shall be sufficient evidence to prove the sale of any real estate for taxes, the redemption thereof, or the payment of taxes thereon.

SEC. 4687. Cancellation of sale.

After eight years have elapsed from the time of any tax sale, and no action has been taken by the holder of a certificate to obtain a deed, it shall be the duty of the county auditor and county treasurer to cancel such sales from their tax sale index and tax sale register.
SECTION 4688. Redemption—how effected.

Real estate sold under the provisions of this and the preceding chapter may be redeemed at any time before the right of redemption is cut off, by the payment to the auditor, to be held by him subject to the order of the purchaser, of the amount for which the same was sold and eight per cent of such amount added as a penalty, with eight per cent interest per annum on the whole amount thus made from the day of sale, and the amount of all taxes, interest and costs paid by the purchaser or his assignee for any subsequent year or years, with a similar penalty added as before on the amount of the payment for each subsequent year, and eight per cent per annum on the whole of such amount or amounts from the day or days of payment; but the penalty for non-payment of taxes of any subsequent year or years shall not attach, unless the same shall have remained unpaid until the first day of April after they become due and have become delinquent, nor shall said penalties apply to taxes voted in aid of the construction of any railroad. In redeeming from a sale of a leasehold interest in agricultural college land, the amount to be paid shall include any amount paid by the holder of the certificate as interest or principal due by the terms of the lease or otherwise to prevent a forfeiture thereof, as provided by law, and for which proper voucher shall have been filed with the auditor, with interest thereon at eight per cent per annum from date of payment, which amount shall be paid by the auditor to the holder of the certificate, and the certificate of redemption shall show the amount so paid by the party redeeming.

SEC. 4689. Redemption from sale for part of tax.

In case a redemption is made of any real estate sold for a less sum than the taxes, penalty, interest and costs, the purchaser shall receive only the amount paid and a ratable part of such penalty, interest and costs. In determining the interest and penalties to be paid upon redemption from such sale, the sum due on any parcel sold shall be taken to be the full amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon at the time of such sale, and the amount paid for any such parcel at such sale shall be apportioned ratably among the several funds to which it belongs. Real estate so sold shall be redeemable in the same manner and with the same penalties as that sold for the taxes of the preceding year.

SEC. 4690. Certificate of redemption.

The auditor shall, upon application of any party to redeem real estate sold for taxes, and being satisfied that he has a right to redeem the same upon the payment of the proper amount, issue to such party a certificate of redemption, setting forth the facts of the sale substantially as contained in the certificate thereof, the date of the redemption, the amount paid, and by whom redeemed, and make the proper entries in the book of sales in his office, and immediately give notice of such redemption to the treasurer. SEC. 4692. Equitable action.
1 Any person entitled to redeem lands sold for taxes after the de-
2 livery of the deed shall do so by an equitable action in a court of rec-3 ord, in which all persons claiming an interest in the land derived from 4 the tax sale, as shown by the record, shall be made defendants, and the 5 court shall determine the rights, claims and interest of the several 6 parties, including liens for taxes and claims for improvements made 7 on the land by the person claiming under the tax title. No person
8 shall be allowed to redeem land sold for taxes in any other manner 9 after the service of the notice provided for by the next section and 10 the execution and delivery of the treasurer's deed.

[C., '73, § 893; C., '97, § 1440.]

SEC. 4693. Notice of expiration of right of redemption.

15 county in which said land is situated an agent, and file said appoint-

17 the same in a record kept in his office therefor, and index the same,

[Sec. 4712. Administrator — appointment on application of treasurer — bond of nonresident administrator.]

If, upon the death of any person leaving an estate that may be liable to a tax under the provisions of this chapter, a will disposing of such estate is not offered for probate, or an application for administration made within four months from the time of such decease, the treasurer of state may, at any time thereafter, make application to the proper court, setting forth such fact and praying that an administrator may be appointed, and thereupon said court shall appoint an administrator to administer upon such estate. When the heirs or persons entitled to inherit the property of an estate subject to the tax hereby imposed, desire to avoid the appointment of an administrator as provided in this section, they or one of them shall, before the expiration of four months from the death of the decedent file under oath the inventories and reports and perform all the duties required by this chapter, of administrators, including the filing of the lien; proceedings for the collection of the tax when no administrator is appointed, shall conform as nearly as may be to the provisions of this chapter in other cases. A nonresident of this state shall not be appointed as executor, administrator or trustee of any estate that may be subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, unless such nonresident first file a bond conditioned upon the payment of all tax, interest and costs for which the estate may be liable, such bond to be signed by not less than two resident freeholders or by an approved surety company and in an amount not less than twenty-five per cent of the total value of the estate, or of the property within this state if the estate is a foreign estate.

All the real estate of the decedent subject to such tax shall, except as hereinafter provided, be appraised within thirty days next after the appointment of an executor, administrator or trustee, and the tax thereon, calculated upon the appraised value after deducting debts for which the estate is liable, shall be paid by the person entitled to said estate within fifteen months from the approval by the court of such appraisement, unless a longer period is fixed by the court, and, in default thereof, the court shall order the same, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay such tax, to be sold.

In each county, the court shall annually at the first term of the court therein appoint three competent residents and freeholders of said county, to act as appraisers of all property within its jurisdiction which is charged or sought to be charged with the collateral inheritance tax. Said appraisers shall serve for one year, and until their successors are appointed and qualified. They shall each take an oath to faithfully and impartially perform the duties of the office, but shall not be required to give bond. They shall be subject to removal at any time at the discretion of the court, and the court or judge thereof in vacation, may also in its discretion, either before or after the appointment of the regular appraisers, appoint other appraisers to act in any given case. Vacancies occurring otherwise than by expiration of term, shall be filled by the appointment of the court or by a judge in vacation. No person interested in any manner in the estate to be appraised may serve as an appraiser of such estate.

SEC. 4715. Commission to appraisers—when issued.

Whenever it appears that an estate or any property or interest therein is or may be subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, the clerk shall issue a commission to the appraisers, who shall fix a time and place for appraisement, except that if the only interest that is subject to such tax is a remainder or deferred interest upon which the tax is not payable until the determination of a prior estate or interest for life or term of years, he shall not issue such commission until the determination of such prior estate, except at the request of parties in interest who desire to remove the lien thereon.

SEC. 4716. Notice of appraisement—returns filed—appraisal when property is in more than one county.

It shall be the duty of all appraisers appointed under the provisions of this chapter, upon receiving a commission as herein provided, to forthwith give notice to the treasurer of state and other persons known to be interested in the property to be appraised, of the time and place at which they will appraise such property, which time shall not be less than ten days from the date of such notice. The notice shall be served in the same manner as is prescribed for the commencement of civil actions, and if not practicable to serve the notice provided for by statute, they shall apply to the court or a judge thereof in vacation for an order as to notice and upon service of such notice and the making of such appraisement, the said notice, return thereof and appraisement shall be filed with the clerk, and a copy of such appraisement shall at once be filed by the clerk with the treasurer of state. When property is located in more than one county, the appraisers of the county in which the estate is being administered may appraise the whole estate, or those of the several counties may serve for the property within their respective counties or other appraisers be appointed as the district court if in session, or judge thereof in vacation, may direct.

SEC. 4717. Objections—when filed—appraisement approved or set aside—appeal.

1. The treasurer of state or any person interested in the estate or property appraised, may, within twenty days thereafter, file objections to said appraisement and give notice thereof as in beginning civil actions, on the hearing of which as an action in equity either party may produce evidence competent or material to the matters therein involved. If upon such hearing the court finds the amount at which the property is appraised is its value on the market in the ordinary course of trade, and the appraisement was fairly and in good faith made, it shall approve such appraisement; but if it finds that the appraisement was made at a greater or less sum than the value of the property in the ordinary course of trade, or that the same was not fairly or in good faith made, it shall set aside the appraisement, appoint new appraisers and so proceed until a fair and good appraisement of the property is made at its value in the market in the ordinary course of trade. The treasurer of state or anyone interested in the property appraised may appeal to the supreme court from the order of the district court approving or setting aside any appraisement to which exceptions have been filed. Notice of appeal shall be served within sixty days from the date of the order appealed from, and the appeal shall be perfected in the time now provided for appeals in equitable actions. In case of appeal the appellant, if he is not the treasurer of state, shall give bond to be approved by the clerk of the court, which bond shall provide that the said appellant and sureties shall pay the tax for which the property may be liable with cost of appeal. If upon the hearing of objections to the appraisement the court finds that the property is not subject to the tax, the court shall upon expiration of time for appeal, when no appeal has been taken, order the clerk to enter upon the lien book a cancellation of any claim or lien for taxes. If at the end of twenty days from the filing of the appraisement with the clerk, no objections are filed, the appraisement shall stand approved.

SEC. 4718. Transferred property—appraisement of—foreign and domestic—market value—deduction of debts.

1. Within ninety days after the transfer of any property that may be liable for a tax under the provisions of this chapter, except as herein otherwise provided, the clerk of the proper county upon his own motion or upon the application of the treasurer of state, county attorney, or person interested in the property, shall cause the property to be appraised as provided herein. If there be an estate or property subject to said tax wherein the records in the clerk's office do not disclose that there may be a tax due under the provisions of this chapter, the person or persons interested in the property shall report the matter to the clerk with an application that the property be appraised. The appraised value of the property shall in all cases be its market value in the ordinary course of trade, and in domestic estates the tax shall be calculated thereon after deducting the debts as defined herein; provided, however, that the debt of a domestic estate owing for or secured by property outside of the state, shall not be deducted before estimating the tax, except when the property for which the debt is owing or by which it is secured is subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, or when the foreign debt exceeds the value of the property securing it or that satisfactory proof of the value of the foreign property and the amount of such debt is furnished to the treasurer of state.

SEC. 4719. Relief from appraisement.
1 All estates subject in whole or in part to the tax imposed by this chapter shall be appraised for the purpose of computing said tax by the regular collateral inheritance tax appraisers; provided that estates liable for the payment of the inheritance tax upon specific legacies, annuities, bequests of money or other property the value of which may be determined without appraisement, and estates which consist of money, book accounts, bank deposits, notes, mortgages and bonds, need not be appraised by the collateral inheritance tax appraisers if the administrator, executor or trustee or the persons entitled to or claiming such property are willing to charge themselves with the full face value of such bequests or property, together with the interest, earnings or undivided profits which may be due on said properties, at the time of death of the testator or intestate, as the basis for the assessment of said tax, but in all cases the relief from appraisement for the collateral inheritance tax is dependent upon the consent of the treasurer of state, and the subsequent approval thereof by the court or judge thereof in vacation. In the event that the estate has been duly appraised under the ordinary statutes of inheritance or the property has been sold and such appraisement or selling price is accepted by the treasurer of state as satisfactory for collateral inheritance tax purposes, the court or judge thereof in vacation may, upon proper application, relieve the estate from the appraisement by the collateral inheritance tax appraisers; but in order to obtain such relief, the administrator, executor, trustee or other party interested must file an application for relief with the consent of the treasurer of state thereof in the office of the clerk of the court before said clerk issues a commission to the collateral inheritance tax appraisers. The court or judge thereof in vacation may, upon application of the representatives of the estate or parties interested, relieve the estate of the apraisement for collateral tax purposes if it be shown to said court that the market value of the entire estate will not exceed one thousand dollars; provided that prior to the application to said court or judge the written consent of the treasurer of state to such relief is procured. In all cases where an estate is relieved from an appraisement for collateral inheritance tax purposes, the order granting relief shall be recorded in the clerk's office, and the fact of such relief and reasons therefor shall be duly noted in the decree or order of final settlement made by the court.

SEC. 4720. Remainders in realty after term estates to exempted persons—when appraised.
1 When any person, whose estate over and above the amount of his debts, as defined in this chapter, exceeds the sum of one thousand dollars, shall bequeath or devise any real property to or for the use of persons exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter, during life or for a term of years, and the remainder to a collateral heir, said property upon the determination of such estate for life or years, shall be appraised at its then actual market value from which shall be de-SEC. 4721. Remainders.

When any person whose estate, over and above the amount of his just debts, exceeds the sum of one thousand dollars shall bequeath or devise any real property to or for the use of the father, mother, husband, wife, lineal descendant, adopted child, or lineal descendant of such child, during life or for a term of years, and the remainder to a collateral heir or to a stranger to the blood, the court, upon the determination of such estate for life or years, shall, upon its own motion or upon the application of the treasurer of state, cause such estate to be appraised at its then actual market value, from which shall be deducted the value of any improvements thereon, or betterments thereto, if any, made by the remainderman during the time of the prior estate, to be ascertained and determined by the appraisers, and the tax on the remainder shall be paid by such remainderman within sixty days from the approval by the court of the report of the appraisers. If such tax is not paid within said time; the court shall then order said real estate, or so much thereof as shall be necessary to pay such tax, to be sold.

SEC. 4722. Life and term estates in realty to those not exempt—appraisement—payment of tax—determination of prior estates—report—tax to be paid by remainderman.

Whenever any real property of a decedent shall be subject to such tax and there be an estate or interest for life or term of years given to a party other than those especially exempt by this chapter, the clerk shall cause such property to be appraised at the actual market value thereof, as is provided in ordinary cases, and the party entitled to such estate or interest shall, within one year from the death of decedent owner, pay such tax, and in default thereof the court shall order such interest in said estate, or so much thereof as shall be necessary to pay such tax and interest, to be sold. Upon the determination of any prior estate or interest, when the remainder or deferred estate or interest or any part thereof is subject to such tax and the tax upon such remainder or deferred interest has not been paid, the person or persons entitled to such remainder or deferred interest shall immediately report to the clerk of the proper court the fact of the determination of the prior estate, and upon receipt of such report, or upon information from any source, of the determination of any such prior estate when the remainder interest has not been appraised for the purpose of assessing such tax, the clerk shall forthwith issue a commission to the collateral inheritance tax appraisers, who shall immediately proceed to appraise the property as provided in like cases in section forty-seven hundred twenty, and the tax upon such remainder interest shall be paid by the remainderman within one year next after the determination of the prior estate. If such tax is not paid within said time the court shall then order said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay such tax and interest, to be sold.

SEC. 4723.  Life estate.

Whenever any real estate of a decedent shall be subject to such tax, and there be a life estate or interest for a term of years given to a party other than named in section forty-seven hundred twenty-one, and the remainder to a collateral heir or stranger to the blood, the court shall direct the interest of the life estate or term of years to be appraised at the actual market value thereof, and, upon the approval of such appraisement by the court, the party entitled to such life estate, or term of years, shall within sixty days thereafter pay such tax, and in default thereof the court shall order such interest in said estate, or so much thereof as shall be necessary to pay such tax, to be sold.  Upon the determination of such life estate or term of years, the same provision shall apply as to the ascertainment of the amount of the tax and the collection of the same on the real estate in remainder as in like cases is provided in section forty-seven hundred twenty-one.  Whenever any personal estate of a decedent shall be subject to such tax, and there be a life estate or interest for a term of years given to a party other than named in section forty-seven hundred twenty-one, and remainder to a collateral heir or stranger to the blood, the court shall inquire into and determine the value of the life estate or interest for the term of years, and order and direct the amount of the tax thereon to be paid by the prior estate and that to be paid by the remainderman, each of whom shall pay their proportion of such tax within sixty days from such determination, unless a longer period is fixed by the court, and in default thereof the executor administrator or trustee shall pay the same out of said property, and hold the same from distribution, and invest it at interest under the order of the court until said tax is paid, or until the interest on the same equals the amount of such tax, which shall thereupon be paid.

SEC. 4724.  Life and term estates in personal property—appraisement—payment of tax.

Whenever any personal property shall be subject to the tax imposed by this chapter and there be an estate or interest for life or term of years given to one or more persons and remainder or deferred estate to others, the clerk shall cause the property so devised or conveyed to be appraised as provided herein in ordinary estates and the value of the several estates or interests so devised or conveyed shall be determined as provided in section forty-seven hundred twenty-eight, and the tax upon such estates or interests as are liable for the tax imposed by this chapter shall be paid to the treasurer of state from the property appraised or by the persons entitled to such estate or interest within eighteen months from the death of the testator, grantor, or donor; provided, however, that payment of the tax upon any deferred estate or remainder interest may be deferred until the determination of the prior estate by the giving of a good and sufficient bond as provided in the next succeeding section.

SEC. 4725. Bond to defer payment of tax until determination of prior estate—exception.
1 When in case of deferred estates or remainder interests in personal property or in the proceeds of any real estate that may be sold during the time of a life, term or prior estate, the persons interested who may desire to defer the payment of the tax until the determination of the prior estate, shall file with the clerk of the proper district court a bond as provided herein in other cases, such bond to be renewed every two years until the tax upon such deferred estate is paid. If at the end of any two-year period the bond is not promptly renewed as herein provided and the tax has not been paid, the bond shall be declared forfeited, and the amount thereof be forthwith collected.
2 When the estate of a decedent consists in part of real and in part of personal property, and there be an estate for life or for a term of years to one or more persons and a deferred or remainder estate to others, and such deferred or remainder estate is in whole or in part subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, if the deferred or remainder estates or interests are so disposed that good and sufficient security for the payment of the tax for which such deferred or remainder estates may be liable can be had because of the lien imposed by this chapter upon the real property of such estate, then payment of the tax upon such deferred or remainder estates may be postponed until the determination of the prior estate without giving bond as herein required to secure payment of such tax, and the tax shall remain a lien upon such real estate until this tax upon such deferred estate or interest is paid.

SEC. 4726. Bonds—conditions.
1 All bonds required by this chapter shall be payable to the treasurer of state and shall be conditioned upon the payment of the tax, interest and costs for which the estate may be liable, and for the faithful performance of all the duties hereby imposed upon and required of the person whose acts are by such bond to be guaranteed, and shall be in an amount equal to twice the amount of the tax, interest and costs that may be due, but in no case less than five hundred dollars and must be secured by not less than two resident freeholders or by a fidelity or surety company authorized by the auditor of state to do business in this state.

1 It shall be unlawful for any person to remove from this state any property, or the proceeds thereof, that may be subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, without paying the said tax to the treasurer of state. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be fined an amount equal to twice the amount of tax, interest and costs for which the estate may be liable, but in no case less than two hundred dollars and imprisoned as the court shall direct, until the fine is paid; provided, however, that the penalty hereby imposed shall not be enforced, if prior to the removal of such property or the proceeds thereof, the person desiring to effect such removal files with the clerk a bond conditioned

SEC. 4728. Determination of value of annuities and life and term
1 estates—basis of computation—release of lien on remainders 2 and reversions.
3 The value of any annuity, deferred estate, or interest, or any 4 estate for life or term of years, subject to the collateral inheritance 5 tax, shall be determined for the purpose of computing said tax by 6 the rule of standards of mortality and of value commonly used in 7 actuaries' combined experience tables as now provided by law. The 8 taxable value of annuities, life or term, deferred or future estates, 9 shall be computed at the rate of four per cent per annum of the ap-
10 praised value of the property in which such estate of interest exists 11 or is founded. Whenever it is desired to remove the lien of the col-12 lateral inheritance tax on remainders, reversions, or deferred estates, 13 parties owning the beneficial interest may pay at any time the said 14 tax on the present worth of such interests determined according to 15 the rules herein fixed.

SEC. 4729. Executors, administrators, trustees—powers and duties—suit by treasurer—extension of time of payment.
1 It is hereby made the duty of all executors, administrators, trus-2 tees, or other persons charged with the management or settlement of 3 any estate subject to the tax provided for in this chapter, to collect 4 and pay to the treasurer of state the amount of the tax due from any 5 devisee, grantee, donee, heir or beneficiary of the decedent, except in 6 cases where payment of the tax is deferred until the determination 7 of a prior estate in which cases the treasurer of state shall collect the 8 same. Executors, administrators, trustees, or the state treasurer, 9 shall have power to sell so much of the property of the decedent as 10 will enable them to pay said tax, in the same manner as is now pro-
11 vided by law for the sale of such property for the payment of debts 12 of testators or intestates. The treasurer of state may bring, or cause 13 to be brought in his name of office, suit, for the collection of said tax, 14 interest and costs, against the executor, administrator, or trustee, or 15 against the person entitled to property subject to said tax, or upon 16 any bond given to secure payment thereof, either jointly or severally 17 and obtaining judgment may cause execution to be issued thereon as 18 is provided by statute in other cases. The proceedings shall conform 19 as nearly as may be to those for the collection of ordinary debt by 20 suit. If because of necessary litigation or other unavoidable cause of 21 delay enforced payment of the tax hereby imposed, by suit and execu-22 tion, would result in loss or be to the detriment of the best interests of 23 the estate, the court may extend the time for the payment of the tax.
24 Such extensions of time shall not be granted except in cases where 25 security is given for payment of the tax, interest and costs.

All taxes not paid within the time prescribed in this chapter shall draw interest at the rate of eight per centum per annum until paid.

SEC. 4733. Collection.

It is hereby made the duty of all executors, administrators or trustees charged with the management or settlement of any estate subject to the tax provided for in this chapter, to collect and pay to the treasurer of state the amount of the tax due from any devisee, grantee or donee of the decedent, except in cases falling under the provisions of sections forty-seven hundred twenty-one and forty-seven hundred twenty-three, in which cases the treasurer of state shall collect the same. Applications may be made to the district court by such executor, administrator, trustee or state treasurer to sell the real estate subject to said tax in an equitable action, or, if made to the court having charge of the settlement of said estate, the proceedings shall conform as nearly as may be to those for the sale of the real estate of a decedent for the settlement of his debts.

SEC. 4734. Settlements with executors or trustees.

No final settlement of the account of any executor, administrator or trustee shall be accepted or allowed unless it shall show, and the court shall find, that all taxes imposed by the provisions of this chapter upon any property or interest therein belonging to the estate to be paid by such executors, administrators or trustees, and to be settled by said account, shall have been paid, and the receipt of the treasurer of state for such tax shall be the proper voucher for such payment.

3 court shall find, that all taxes imposed by the provisions of this chap-
4 ter upon any property or interest therein, that is hereby made pay-
5 able by such executors, administrators or trustees, and to be settled 6 by said account, shall have been paid, and the receipt of the treasurer 7 of state for such tax shall be the proper voucher for such payment.
8 Any order contravening the provision of this section shall be void.

Before issuing his receipt for the tax, the treasurer of state may demand from administrators, executors, trustees or beneficiaries such information as may be necessary to verify the correctness of the amount of the tax and interest, and when such demand is made they shall send to said treasurer certified copies of wills, deeds, or other papers, or of such parts of their reports as he may demand, and upon the refusal or neglect of said parties to comply with the demand of the treasurer of state, it is the duty of the clerk of the court to comply with such demand, and the expenses of making such copies and trans-scripts shall be charged against the estate, as are other costs in probbate, or the tax may be assessed without deducting debts for which the estate may be liable.

SEC. 4745. Extension of time of appraisement — complicated estates.

Whenever, by reason of the complicated nature of an estate, or by reason of the confused condition of the decedent's affairs, it is impracticable for the executor, administrator, trustee or beneficiary of said estate to file with the clerk of the court a full, complete and itemized inventory of the personal assets belonging to the estate, within the time required by statute for filing inventories of the estates, the court may, upon the application of such representatives or parties in interest, extend the time for making the collateral inheritance appraisement for a period not to exceed three months beyond the time fixed by this chapter.
[S., '13, § 1481-a27.]

SEC. 4746. Heirs at law to make report—failure to report does not relieve estate from lien.

Whenever any property passing under the intestate laws may be subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, the person or persons entitled to such property shall make or cause to be made to the clerk of the courts of the county wherein such property is located, within ninety days next following the death of such intestate, a report in writing embodying therein substantially the information required by section forty-seven hundred seven. Failure to furnish such report or to probate the will in a testate estate shall not relieve the estate from the lien created hereby or the persons entitled to the property of such decedent from payment of the tax, interest or other penalties imposed by this chapter.

SEC. 4747. Entries made by clerk.

The clerk shall enter upon the collateral inheritance tax and lien book, the title of all estates subject to the inheritance tax as shown by the inventories or lists of heirs filed in his office, or as reported to him by the county attorney, treasurer of state, or other person, and shall enter in said book as against each estate or title at the appropriate place, all such information relating to the situation and condition of the estate as he may be able to obtain from the papers filed in his office, or from any other source, as may be necessary to the collection and enforcement of the tax. He shall also immediately index in the book kept in his office for that purpose, all liens entered upon the collateral inheritance tax and lien book. Failure to make such entries as are herein required, shall not operate to relieve the estate from the lien or defeat the collection of the tax.
Sec. 4748. Probate record.

In all cases entered upon the inheritance tax and lien book, the clerk shall make a complete record in the proper probate record, of all the proceedings, orders, reports, inventory, appraisements and all other matters and proceedings therein.

Sec. 4749. Clerk to examine probate records and report estates subject to tax—fee.

It shall be the duty of each clerk of the district court to make examination from time to time of all reports filed with him by administrators, executors and trustees, pursuant to law; also to make examination of all foreign wills offered for probate or recorded within his county, as well as of the record of deeds and conveyances in the recorder's office of said county, and if from such examination or from information or knowledge coming to him from any other source, he finds or believes that any property within his county, or within the jurisdiction of the district court of said county has, since July fourth, eighteen hundred ninety-six, passed by will or by the intestate laws of this or any other state, or by deed or other method of conveyance, made in anticipation of or intended to take effect, in possession or in enjoyment after the death of the testator, donor or grantor, to any person other than to or for the use of the persons, societies, or organizations exempt from the tax hereby imposed, he shall make report thereof in writing to the treasurer of state, embodying in such report such information as he may be able to obtain as to the name and residence of decedent, date of death, name and address of administrator, executor, or trustee, the description of any property liable to said tax and the county in which it is located and name and relationship of all beneficiaries or heirs. Any citizen of the state having knowledge of property liable to such tax, against which no proceeding for enforcing collection thereof is pending, may report the same to the clerk and he shall be the duty of such officer to investigate the case, and if he has reason to believe the information to be true, he shall forthwith enter the estate and report the same substantially as above indicated. For reporting such estates or property the clerk shall receive a compensation of one dollar for each one hundred dollars or fraction thereof of tax paid, but not to exceed the sum of five dollars in any one estate, the same to be in addition to the compensation now allowed him by law. Except when this information has first been received from another source, the treasurer of state, when he has issued his receipt for the tax in such estate, shall certify to the auditor of state the amount due the clerk for such service and the auditor of state shall issue his warrant on the treasurer of state in favor of said clerk for the sum due as herein provided.

Sec. 4750. Duties of county attorney — compensation — other counsel may be employed.

It shall be the duty of the county attorney of each county, when directed by the treasurer of state, to perform such legal services as shall be necessary in the enforcement of said tax, but such attorney shall have no authority to receipt for or receive any of such tax. He shall advise and assist the clerk and appraisers in the discharge of their duties in collateral inheritance tax matters, and see that the notices required by law are properly made and returned. In each estate where the county attorney has performed such legal services, he shall receive a compensation as follows, viz.: On the first one hundred dollars or fraction thereof of tax paid, ten per cent; on the excess of one hundred dollars to five hundred dollars, five per cent; on the excess of five hundred dollars to one thousand dollars, three per cent; on all sums in excess of one thousand dollars, one per cent, but not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars from any one estate; provided, however, that except in cases of litigation requiring the filing of a petition or answer in court, the fee in any case shall not exceed the sum of fifty dollars. When the treasurer of state has issued his receipt for the tax in an estate, in which the county attorney has been directed to render legal services, and has performed such services, the treasurer of state shall certify the amount due for such services to the auditor of state, who shall issue his warrant on the treasurer of state in favor of said county attorney for the sum due. If the county attorney is attorney for the executor, administrator or other person interested in the estate, the treasurer of state may employ another attorney to represent the state.

SEC. 4751. Conflicting claims for fees—treasurer to adjust.

In the event of uncertainty or of conflicting claims as to fees due county attorneys or clerks under this chapter, the treasurer of state is empowered to determine the amount of fees, to whom payable, and when the same are due, and as far as possible, such determination shall be in accord with fixed rules made by the treasurer of state.

SEC. 4752. Regular inspection of records and reports by court—order instituting proceedings.

On the first day of each regular term, the court shall require the clerk to present for its inspection the inheritance tax and lien book hereinbefore provided for, together with all reports of administrators, executors and trustees which have been filed pursuant to this chapter, since the last preceding term. The county attorney shall also attend and make report to the court concerning the progress of all cases pendning for the collection of such taxes, together with any other facts, which in his judgment may aid the court in enforcing the general observance of the collateral inheritance tax law. If from information obtained from the records or reports, or from any other source, the court has reason to believe that there is property within its jurisdiction liable to the payment of an inheritance tax, against which procedings for collection are not already pending, it shall enter an order of record, directing the county attorney to institute such proceedings forthwith. Should any estate, or the name of any grantee or grantees be placed upon the book at the suggestion of the county attorney, the treasurer of state, or other person, in which the papers already on file in the clerk's office do not disclose that an inheritance tax is due or payable, the county attorney shall forthwith give to all parties in interest such notice as the court or judge may prescribe, requiring them to appear on a day to be fixed by the said court or judge, and show cause why the property should not be appraised and subjected 23 to said tax. At any such hearing any person may be required to 24 appear and answer as to his knowledge of any such estate or prop-25 erty. If upon any such hearing the court is satisfied that any prop-26 erty of the decedent or any property devised, granted or donated by 27 him, is subject to the tax, the same proceedings shall be had as in 28 other cases, so far as applicable.

1 In all cases where an estate or interest therein so passes as to be 2 liable to taxation under this chapter, all costs of the proceedings had 3 for the assessment of such tax shall be chargeable to such estate as 4 other costs in probate proceedings and to discharge the lien, all costs, 5 as well as the taxes must be paid. In all other cases the costs are to 6 be paid as ordered by the court. When a decision adverse to the state 7 has been rendered, with an order that the state pay the costs, it shall 8 be the duty of the clerk of the court in which such action was pend-9 ing to certify the amount of such costs to the treasurer of state, who 10 shall, if said costs be correctly certified, and the case has been finally 11 terminated, and the tax if any due has been paid, present the claim to 12 the executive council to audit, and said claim being allowed by said 13 council, the auditor of state is directed to issue a warrant on the treas-14 urer of state in payment of such costs.

SEC. 4754. Securities and assets held by bank or trust com-1 pany—notice to transfer.
1 No safe deposit company, trust company, bank or other institu-
2 tion, person or persons holding securities or assets of the decedent 3 shall deliver or transfer the same to the executor, administrator or 4 legal representative of said decedent unless the tax for which such 5 securities or assets are liable under this chapter shall be first paid,
6 or the payment thereof is secured by bond as herein provided. It 7 shall be lawful for and the duty of the treasurer of state personally, 8 or by any person by him duly authorized, to examine such securities
9 or assets at the time of any proposed delivery or transfer. Failure
10 to serve ten days' notice of such proposed transfer upon the treasurer 11 of state or to allow such examination on the delivery of such securi-12 ties or assets to such executor, administrator or legal representative 13 shall render such safe deposit company, trust company, bank or other 14 institution, person or persons liable for the payment of the tax upon 15 such securities or assets as provided in this chapter.

SEC. 4755. Transfer of corporation stock by foreign executor, administer or trustee—liability of corporation for tax.
1 If a foreign executor, administrator or trustee shall assign or 2 transfer any corporate stock or obligations in this state standing in 3 the name of a decedent, or in trust for a decedent, liable to such tax,
4 the tax shall be paid to the treasurer of state on or before the trans-
5 fer thereof; otherwise the corporation permitting its stock to be so 6 transferred shall be liable to pay such tax, interest, and costs, and it 7 is the duty of the treasurer of state to enforce the payment thereof.

All Iowa corporations organized for pecuniary profit, shall on July first of each year, by its proper officers under oath make a full and correct report to the treasurer of state of all transfers of its stocks made during the preceding year by any person who appears on the books of such corporation as the owner of such stock, when such transfer is made to take effect at or after the death of the owner or transferee, and all transfers which are made by an administrator, executor, trustee, referee, or any person other than the owner or person in whose name the stocks appeared of record on the books of such corporation, prior to the transfer thereof. Such report shall show the name of the owner of such stocks and his place of residence, the name of the person at whose request the stock was transferred, his place of residence and the authority by virtue of which he acted in making such transfer, the name of the person to whom the transfer was made, and the residence of such person; together with such other information as the officers reporting may have relating to estates of persons deceased who may have been owners of stock in such corporation. If it appears that any such stock so transferred is subject to tax under the provisions of this chapter, and the tax has not been paid, the treasurer of state shall notify the corporation in writing of its liability for the payment thereof, and shall bring suit against such corporation as in other cases herein provided unless payment of the tax is made within sixty days from the date of such notice.

SEC. 4757. Foreign estates—deduction of debts.

Whenever any property belonging to a foreign estate, which estate in whole or in part passes to persons not exempt herein from such tax, the said tax shall be assessed upon the market value of said property remaining after the payment of such debts and expenses as are chargeable to the property under the laws of this state. In the event that the executor, administrator or trustee of such foreign estate files with the clerk of the court having ancillary jurisdiction, and with the treasurer of state, duly certified statements exhibiting the true market value of the entire estate of the decedent owner, and the indebtedness for which the said estate has been adjudged liable, which statements shall be duly attested by the judge of the court having original jurisdiction, the beneficiaries of said estate shall then be entitled to have deducted such proportion of the said indebtedness of the decedent from the value of the property as the value of the property within this state bears to the value of the entire estate.

SEC. 4758. Property in this state belonging to a foreign estate and not specifically devised—how assessed.

Whenever any property, real or personal, within this state belongs to a foreign estate and said foreign estate passes in part exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter and in part subject to said tax and there is no specific devise of the property within this state to direct heirs or if it is within the authority or discretion of the foreign executor, administrator or trustee administering the estate to dispose of the property not specifically devised to direct heirs or devisees in 8 the payment of debts owing by the decedent at the time of his death, 9 or in the satisfaction of legacies, devises, or trusts given to direct or 10 collateral legatees or devisees or in payment of the distributive shares 11 of any direct and collateral heirs, then the property within the juris-12 diction of this state, belonging to such foreign estate, shall be subject 13 to the tax imposed by this chapter, and the tax due thereon shall be 14 assessed as provided in the next preceding section relating to the de-15 duction of the proportionate share of indebtedness; provided, how-16 ever, that if the value of the property so situated exceeds the total 17 amount of the estate passing to other persons than those exempt 18 hereby from the tax imposed by this chapter such excess shall not be 19 subject to said tax.

SEC. 4759. Compromise settlement—how effected—discharge of lien.
1 Whenever an estate charged or sought to be charged with the 2 collateral inheritance tax is of such a nature, or is so disposed, that 3 the liability of the estate is doubtful, or the value thereof can not with 4 reasonable certainty be ascertained under the provisions of law, the 5 treasurer of state may, with the written approval of the attorney gen-6 eral, which approval shall set forth the reasons therefor, compromise 7 with the beneficiaries or representatives of such estates, and com-8 pound the tax thereon; but said settlement must be approved by the 9 district court or judge of the proper court, and after such approval 10 the payment of the amount of the taxes so agreed upon shall discharge 11 the lien against the property of the estate.

SEC. 4760. Unknown heirs.
1 Whenever the heirs or persons entitled to any estate or any in-2 terest therein, are unknown or their place of residence can not with 3 reasonable certainty, be ascertained, a tax of five per cent shall be 4 paid to the treasurer of state upon all such estates or interests, sub-5 ject to refund as provided herein in other cases; provided, however,
6 that if it be afterwards determined that any estate or interest passes 7 to aliens, there shall be paid within sixty days after such determina-8 tion and before delivery of such estate or property, an amount equal 9 to the difference between five per centum, the amount paid, and the 10 amount which such person should pay under the provisions of this
11 chapter.

SEC. 4761. Refund of tax improperly paid.
1 When within five years after the payment of the tax, a court of 2 competent jurisdiction may determine that property upon which a 3 collateral inheritance tax has been paid is not subject to or liable for 4 the payment of such tax, or that the amount of tax paid was exces-
5 sive, so much of such tax as has been overpaid to the treasurer of 6 state shall be returned or refunded to the executor or administrator 7 of such estate, or to those entitled thereto, when a certified copy of 8 the record of such court showing the fact of nonliability of such prop-9 erty to the payment of such tax has been filed with the executive 10 council of the state, the executive council shall if the case has been finally determined issue an order to the auditor of state directing him to issue a warrant upon the treasurer of state to refund such tax.
Such order of court shall not be given until fifteen days' notice of the application therefor shall have been given to the treasurer of state of the time and place of the hearing of such application, which notice shall be served in the same manner as provided for original notices.

SEC. 4762. Contingent estates—appraisement—refund of excess payment.

Estates in expectancy which are contingent or defeasible and in which proceedings for the determination of the tax have not been taken or where the taxation thereof has been held in abeyance, shall be appraised at their full, undiminished value when the persons entitled thereto shall come into the beneficial enjoyment or possession thereof, without diminution for or on account of any valuation there-tofore made of the particular estates for purposes of taxation, upon which said estates in expectancy may have been limited. When an estate, devise, or legacy can be divested by the act or omission of the legatee or devisee, it shall be taxed as if there were no possibility of such divesting. When a devise, bequest or transfer is one in part contingent, and in part vested so that the beneficiary will come into possession and enjoyment of a portion of his inheritance on or before the happening of the event upon which the possible defeating contingency is based, a tax shall be imposed and collected upon such bequest or transfer as upon a vested interest, at the highest rate possible under the terms of this chapter if no such contingency existed; provided that in the event such contingency reduces the value of the estate or interest so taxed, and the amount of tax so paid is in excess of the tax for which such bequest or transfer is liable upon the removal of such contingency, such excess shall be refunded as is provided in the preceding section in other cases.

1 A petition signed by a majority of the persons resident in the 2 county, owning land abutting upon such proposed improvement, shall 3 be first filed in the office of the county auditor, setting forth the neces-
4 sity for the same, the starting point, route and terminus, together 5 with a bond, with sufficient sureties to be approved by him, condi-
6 tioned to pay all costs and expenses incurred in case the supervisors
7 refuse to grant the prayer of the petition. The auditor shall thereupon 8 place a copy of the petition in the hands of the county surveyor or a 9 competent engineer, who shall make a survey of the proposed improve-10 ment, and return a plat and profile thereof to the auditor; which 11 return shall set forth a full and detailed description thereof, its avail-12 ability, necessity and probable cost, with a description of each tract 13 of land owned by different persons, through or abutting upon which 14 the improvement is proposed to be located, how it will be affected 15 thereby, and its situation and elevation as compared with that of 16 adjoining lands, with such other facts as he may deem material. The 17 auditor shall immediately thereafter cause notice in writing to be 18 served on the owner of each tract of land, through or abutting upon 19 which the proposed improvement is to be located, who is a resident 20 of the county, of the pendency and prayer of said petition, and the 21 session of the board of supervisors at which the same will be heard, 22 which notice shall be served ten days prior to said session in the same 23 manner that original notices are required to be served. In case any 24 such owner is a nonresident of the county, such notice as to him shall 25 be published, once each week, for two consecutive weeks in some news-
26 paper published in the county, proof thereof being made by affidavits 27 as in the case of legal notices published in newspapers, which proof 28 shall be filed with the board.

[C., '73, § 1208; C., '97, § 1940; S., '13, § 1940.]

SEC. 4779. Location—damages.
1 The board, at the session set for hearing said petition, shall 2 thereupon proceed to hear and determine the petition, and, if necessary, view the premises, and if they find such improvement conducive to the public health, convenience or welfare, and no claims shall have been made for damages as provided in the next section, they shall locate and establish the same on the route specified in the plat and return of the county surveyor or engineer. But if any such claim has been made, further proceedings shall be adjourned to the next regular session, and the county auditor shall forthwith appoint appraisers to assess such damages, who shall proceed in the manner provided by law for the assessment of damages in the opening of roads; and the sum so assessed in favor of said claimant shall be paid in the first instance by the parties benefited by such improvement, or secured to be paid upon such terms and conditions as the county auditor may deem just and proper; and the board shall, at the next regular session after such damages have been assessed and paid, or secured, as aforesaid, proceed to locate and establish the improvement as hereinbefore provided, and place a competent engineer in charge of the work.

SEC. 4780. Claim for damages.

Any person claiming damages as compensation for land required for the construction of such improvement, or for injury sustained by the change of direction of any such watercourse, shall make his application in writing therefor to the board of supervisors, on or before the first day of the session at which the petition has been set for hearing, and on failure to make the same shall be held to have waived his right thereto.

[C., '73, § 1210; C., '97, § 1942.]

SEC. 4781. Work divided.

When the board shall have established any such improvement, it shall divide the same into suitable sections, not less in number than the number of tracts of land of different owners through which the same may be located, and prescribe the time within which work upon each section shall be completed.

SEC. 4782. Letting work—payment.

The auditor shall cause notice to be given of the time and place of letting, the kind and approximate amount of work to be done on each section, and the time fixed for its completion, by publication, once each week, for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper printed in said county, and shall let it upon each separate section to the lowest bidder therefor, who shall be required to execute a bond, with sufficient sureties, in an amount equal to ten per cent of the estimated cost of the work so let, or deposit such amount in cash with the auditor, as security for the performance of his contract. The engineer in charge of the construction shall furnish the contractor monthly estimates of the amount of work done on each section, and upon the filing of the same with the auditor, he shall draw a warrant in favor of the contractor for eighty per cent of the value of the work done, according to the estimate; and when said improvement is completed to the satisfaction of the engineer in charge, and so certified by him to the auditor, he shall draw a warrant in favor of said contractor upon the levee or drainage fund for the balance due, as provided in the following sec-§§ 4783-4784. LEVEES, DRAINS AND WATERCOURSES. Tit. XV, Ch. 1.

18 tion. If any person to whom any portion of said work has been let 19 shall fail to perform the same as, and in the time, specified in his con-
20 tract, the cash deposited by him shall be forfeited to, or the penalty 21 named in the bond may be recovered in an action thereon by, the 22 county auditor, for the benefit of the levee or drainage district, on 23 said contract, as liquidated damages, and it shall be relet by the auditor 24 in the manner hereinafter provided.

SEC. 4783. Costs and fees—how paid.

1 The auditor and engineer shall each be allowed for their services
2 such sum as may be fixed by the board of supervisors, and all other
3 fees or costs shall be the same as is provided by law for like services
4 in other cases, and if the county surveyor performs service in relation 5 thereto, the same as is provided by law; all of which, together with 6 damages assessed, shall be paid out of the county treasury from the 7 fund collected for that purpose, upon the order of the county auditor.

[C., '73, § 1213; C., '97, § 1945.]

SEC. 4784. Assessment of costs and damages—classification.

1 When any levee, ditch, drain, or change of direction of any wa-
2 tercourse shall have been located and established, as provided in this 3 chapter, or when it shall be necessary to cause the same to be repaired 4 or reopened, the auditor shall appoint three persons, one of whom 5 shall be a competent civil engineer, and two who shall be resident free-
6 holders of the county, not living within the township or townships
7 where the improvement is or is to be located, and not interested 8 therein or in a like question, nor related to any party whose land is 9 affected thereby, who shall within twenty days after such appoint-10 ment personally inspect and classify as “dry,” “low,” “wet,” or 11 “swamp” all the land benefited by the location and construction of the 12 improvement, or the repairing or reopening of the same, and shall 13 make an equitable apportionment of the cost, expenses, cost of con-14 struction, fees, and damages assessed for the construction of any 15 such improvement, or of repairing or reopening the same, and make 16 report thereof in writing to the board of supervisors and file the same
17 with the county auditor who shall immediately thereafter fix a time 18 for hearing objections thereto before the board of supervisors, and 19 cause to be served upon the owner of each tract of land or lot de-20 scribed in said report as shown by the transfer books in the auditor's 21 office notice in writing of the filing and pendency of said report, the 22 amount of special assessment apportioned to such owner, the day set 23 for hearing the same, and that all objections thereto must be made in 24 writing and filed with the county auditor on or before noon of the 25 day set for such hearing, which notice as to residents of the county 26 shall be served not less than ten days prior to the day set for such 27 hearing in the same manner that original notices are required to be 28 served, and as to nonresidents of the county such notice shall be 29 served by publishing the same once each week for two consecutive 30 weeks, the last publication not less than ten days prior to the day set 31 for hearing, in some newspaper published in the county, and by serv-32 ing the same upon the person or persons in the actual occupancy of 33 the property not less than ten days prior to the day set for such hear-34 ing. When the day set for hearing has arrived the board of supervisors shall proceed to hear and determine all objections made and filed to said report, and may increase, diminish, annul or affirm the apportionment made in said report or any part thereof as may appear to the board to be just and equitable, which apportionment shall be assessed among the owners of the land along or in the vicinity of such improvement and to be benefited thereby, in proportion to the benefit to each of them, and levied upon the lands of the owners so benefited in said proportions, and collected in the same manner as other taxes are levied and collected for county purposes; which fund so collected shall be kept separate from other county funds, and shall be paid out only for purposes properly connected with the improvement, on the order of the county auditor, on claims properly certified by the engineer in charge of the improvement as in this chapter provided, or on the order of the board of supervisors. The engineer shall receive for each day's service, while so engaged, five dollars, and the other commissioners shall receive each two dollars per day, to be paid out of the funds so collected. In order to prevent or repair a break in any levee in time of high water, any member of the board of supervisors may at once employ the necessary labor to repair the levee or prevent a break thereof, and the necessary and reasonable expense therefor shall be audited by the board of supervisors and paid from the levee fund.

SEC. 4785. Applicable to proceedings now pending.
Section forty-seven hundred eighty-four shall be construed to apply to all proceedings now pending before boards of supervisors for the location and construction of levees, drains, ditches or watercourses under the provisions of this chapter, where the apportionment, assessment or levy of the cost of the improvement has not yet been made, as well as to proceedings instituted hereafter.

SEC. 4786. Reassessment and relevy.
Where the assessment and levy on account of any ditch, drain or watercourse has been made by the board of supervisors of any county under the provisions of section forty-seven hundred eighty-four without notice or legal notice to the owner of the land affected thereby, and the whole or any part thereof remains unpaid, the board of supervisors shall have the authority to recall the assessment or levy thus made without notice and proceed anew as provided in section forty-seven hundred eighty-four to apportion and levy the cost of such improvement among the owners and upon the land benefited thereby, taking as a basis the original apportionment, and report of the commissioners upon which the board had theretofore acted, and the new assessment and levy made upon notice and hearing in such cases shall be certified by the county auditor to the county treasurer, reentered upon the tax list and collected as other taxes for county purposes, and all payments made under the prior assessment and levy shall be credited upon the new assessment and levy.

SEC. 4787. Completion of and payment for work already begun.
When any levee, ditch, drain, watercourse or change of watercourse shall have been heretofore established by any of the boards of §§ 4788-4791. LEVEES, DRAINS AND WATERCOURSES. Tit. XV, Ch. 1.

3 supervisors of this state and contract or contracts let therefor, and the improvement wholly or partly constructed or drainage bonds issued on account thereof and the proceedings or tax therefor have been or shall be for any cause found invalid and the board of supervisors has found or shall find that such improvement will be conducive to the public health, convenience or welfare, such board is authorized provided for the completion of the work and the payment therefor, and for the payment of the work already done and of the drainage bonds issued and to that end shall recall the tax theretofore levied and shall reascertain the cost and expense of such improvement, and after notice and hearing as provided in sections forty-seven hundred eighty-four to forty-seven hundred eighty-nine, inclusive, shall assess and levy the same upon the lands benefited thereby, and the said board and the other county officers shall proceed as provided by the preceding section and the other provisions of said sections. Such reassessment and relevy of taxes shall be in proportion to and not in excess of benefits, and all taxes theretofore paid upon such improvement shall be credited as provided in the preceding section.

SEC. 4788. Drainage bonds.
Section forty-seven hundred ninety-five shall be construed to apply to and authorize the issuance of drainage bonds in proceedings heretofore or hereafter instituted under section forty-seven hundred seventy-eight.

SEC. 4789. Future levies.
Such assessment shall fix the proportion for all future levies on account of such improvement or the repair or reopening thereof, and may be levied in one year or apportioned among a series of years, and drainage bonds issued therefor as provided by section forty-seven hundred ninety-five, and appeals may be taken as provided by the following section.

SEC. 4790. Appeals.
An appeal may be taken to the district court from the order of the board of supervisors in fixing the assessment upon lands, in the same manner appeals may be taken in the location of roads, and within the same time. But on such appeal it shall not be competent to show that the lands assessed were not benefited by the improvement. The petitioners, or any of them, and claimants for damages as compensation for lands taken or injuries sustained in any such proceedings, may in like manner appeal from the order locating and establishing such improvement, or refusing so to do, or from the amount of damages allowed, and the county auditor shall keep a full and complete record of all proceedings in each case, and, upon an appeal being taken, shall make out transcripts thereof as provided in appeals taken from the assessment of damages in cases of the location of roads.

SEC. 4791. Through two or more counties.
When the improvement petitioned for extends into or through two or more contiguous counties, or parts thereof, the boards of supervisors of each of the counties, upon the presentation of the petition, shall appoint a commissioner, and the commissioners thus appointed, within twenty days after the selection of the one last named, shall meet and locate the same through or into said counties. They shall appoint a competent engineer, who shall have charge of the construction of the work, and with him shall make a survey of the proposed levee, ditch, drain, or change of watercourse, and make written return thereof to the county auditors of the several counties in which the location shall be made in whole or in part; which return shall in all respects be the same as is required in case of the location of such improvement in but a single county; and thereafter all subsequent proceedings relating to the condemnation or taking of land, the compensation therefor, damages on account of the work, assessment of lands for taxation, and in every other matter and thing, shall in all respects be the same as in like cases where the improvement is situated in but one county. Appeals in such case may be taken to the district court of the county where the land is situated.

SEC. 4792. Apportionment of assessments.

If the first assessment made by the board of supervisors of the several counties is insufficient to pay the cost of construction, additional assessment may be made in the same ratio as the first; and they shall make additional assessments in like manner for repairing said improvements, when needed; if a greater amount is collected in either county by such assessments than is required to pay for the work actually done therein, or if more work be done than the equitable tax in that county will pay for, then the boards of supervisors of the counties interested shall jointly meet and ascertain in which the excess and deficiency exist, and the excess shall be transferred to the county having a deficit, or, if there be more than one, then ratably to such counties.

SEC. 4793. Levees, ditches or drains in public highway—highway along levee.

Levees, ditches, drains and embankments may be located and constructed within the limits of public highways, on either or both sides of and along the same, to be so built as not materially to interfere with the public travel thereon, by taxation and assessment under the provisions of this chapter, and, when constructed, shall be under the control of the board of supervisors of the county in which they are situated; and it shall have power to grant a right of way thereon to any railway that will maintain them while used by it, subject to any claim for damages against the company in any condemnation proceedings which shall be instituted, and the damages awarded, paid, or secured to be paid before possession shall be given, but the county shall not be required on account thereof or otherwise to keep up such improvements at its expense. The board of supervisors shall have power to establish public highways along and upon any levee built under the provisions of this chapter, provided that when so used the same shall be worked as other highways and so as to at all times maintain its condition as a levee.

SEC. 4794. Petition for drain—proceedings.
1 When the petition of one hundred voters of the county, setting
2 forth that any body or district of land in said county, described by 3 metes and bounds or otherwise, is subject to overflow, or too wet for 4 cultivation, and the public health, convenience or welfare will be pro-5 moted by draining, ditching or leveeing the same, or changing a water-6 course, and also a bond conditioned as required in case of proceed-7 ings for the location of levees, drains, ditches, and changes of water-8 courses shall be filed with the county auditor, he shall appoint a com-9 petent engineer or commissioner, who shall proceed to examine the 10 lands described, and may survey and locate such improvement as may 11 be necessary for the reclamation of such lands or any part thereof, 12 and for the public health, convenience or welfare, and shall make sub-13 stantially the same report, and the same proceedings shall be had, as 14 is provided by law for the location and construction of ditches, drains, 15 and changes in watercourses, and two or more counties may in the 16 same manner unite in such work.

SEC. 4795. Drainage bonds.
1 If the board of supervisors shall determine that the estimated 2 cost of reclamation of such district of lands is greater than should 3 be levied in a single year upon the lands benefited, it shall fix the pro-
4 portion that should be levied and collected each year, and may issue
5 drainage bonds of the county, bearing not more than eight per cent 6 annual interest, and payable in the proportions and at the times when 7 such taxes so apportioned will have been collected, and may devote 8 the same at par to the payment of the work as it progresses, or may 9 sell the same at not less than par and devote the proceeds to such pay-10 ment; and should the cost of such work exceed the estimate, a new 11 apportionment of taxes may be made, and other bonds issued and used 12 in like manner; but in no case shall the bonds run longer than fifteen 13 years, and at least ten per cent in amount of those issued on the first 14 estimate shall be payable annually. The board may divide the land 15 to be benefited into drainage districts, which shall be accurately de-16 scribed and numbered, and such drainage bonds shall be in sums of 17 not less than fifty dollars each, numbered consecutively, and issued as 18 other county bonds are, and shall specify that they are drainage bonds, 19 and designate by number the drainage district on account of which 20 they are issued. In no case shall the amount of the bonds issued ex-21 ceed fifty per cent of the value of the lands in the drainage district, 22 as shown by the last assessment for taxation. Each bond so issued 23 shall express on its face that it shall only be paid by taxes assessed, 24 levied and collected on the lands within the district so designated and 25 numbered, and for the benefit of which district such bond was issued.
26 In no case shall any tax be levied or collected for the payment of such 27 bond or bonds, or the interest thereon, on any property outside of the 28 district so numbered, designated and benefited.

[C., '97, § 1953.]

SEC. 4796. Tax to pay bonds.
1 The board shall levy each year on the lands benefited a tax suffi-
2 cient to pay the interest on such bonds, and so much of the principal 3 as falls due in the succeeding year; and such tax shall be collected in the same manner as other county taxes, and carried to the credit of the drainage district on account of which the bonds are issued, and be used to pay the principal and interest of said bonds as the same fall due, and any surplus may be devoted to payment for works of reclamation in said district, or repairs thereof.

[C., '97, § 1954.]

SEC. 4797. Drains through land of another—application—notice.

Whenever the owner of any land shall desire to construct any levee, open ditch, tile or other underground drain, for agricultural, sanitary or mining purposes, or for the purpose of securing more complete drainage or a better outlet, across the lands of others, or across or through the right of way and roadbed of a railroad, and shall be unable to agree with the owner of any such lands, or with any such railroad company, through whose land or property he desires to construct the same, with regard to the location or manner of constructing any such ditch, drain or levee, or with regard to the compensation to be made, or with regard to any other matter properly connected therewith, he may file with the township clerk of the township in which any such land or right of way is situated, an application in writing, setting forth a description of the land or other property through which he is desirous of constructing any such levee, ditch or drain, the starting point, route, terminus, character, size and depth thereof. Upon the filing of any such application, the clerk shall forthwith fix a time and place for hearing thereon before the township trustees of his township, which hearing shall be not more than ninety days nor less than thirty days from the time of the filing of such aplication and thereupon the township clerk shall cause notice in writing to be served upon the owner of each tract of land across which any such levee, ditch or drain, is proposed to be located, as shown by the transfer books in the office of the county auditor, and also upon the person in actual occupancy of any such lands, of the pendency and prayer of such application, and the time and place set for hearing on the same before the township trustees, which notice, as to residents of the county and railroad companies, shall be served not less than ten days before the time set for such hearing, in the manner that original notices are required to be served. In case any such owner is a non-resident of the county, such notice as to him shall be posted in three public places within the township where his land is situated at least twelve days before the time set for such hearing, one of which places shall be upon the land of which he is the owner. Such notices may be served upon a railroad company by serving the same upon its nearest station agent. If at the hearing it should appear that any person entitled to notice, as provided herein, has not been served with notice as herein provided, the township trustees may postpone such hearing and fix a new time for the same, and notice of such new day of hearing may be served on such omitted persons in the manner and for the same length of time provided herein, and by fixing such new day for hearing and by adjournment of the proceedings to such time, the trustees shall not be held to have lost jurisdiction of the subject matter of such proceeding nor of any persons previously served with notice.
Any person or corporation claiming damages as compensation for or on account of the construction of any such improvement, shall file a claim in writing therefor with the township clerk at least two days before the day fixed for hearing on the application and a failure to SEC. 4798. Hearing—action of trustees.

1 At the time set for hearing on any such application, the trustees, if they are satisfied that the provisions of the preceding section have been complied with, shall proceed to hear and determine the sufficiency of the application as to form and substance, which application may be amended both as to form and substance before final action thereon. They shall also determine the merits of the application, all objections thereto and all claims filed for damages that may be occasioned by the location and construction of the proposed drainage improvement, and, if deemed necessary, the trustees may view the premises. The trustees may adjourn the proceedings from day to day, but no adjournment shall be for a longer period than ten days. When the time for final action shall have arrived, the township trustees shall, if they find that the levee, ditch or drain petitioned for will be beneficial for sanitary, agricultural or mining purposes, locate the same and fix the points of entrance and exit on such land or property, the course of the same through each tract of land, the size, character and depth thereof, when and in what manner the same shall be constructed, how kept in repair, what connections may be made therewith, what compensation, if any, shall be made to the owners of such land or property for damages by reason of the construction of any such improvements, and any other question arising in connection therewith. The trustees shall reduce their findings, decision and determination to writing, which shall be filed with the clerk of such township, who shall record it in his book of records, together with the application and all other papers filed in connection therewith, and he shall cause the findings and decision of the trustees to be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which such land is situated, and said decision shall be final unless appealed from as provided in the next section.

1 Either party may appeal to the district court from any such decision by causing to be served, within ten days from the time it was filed with the clerk, a notice in writing upon the opposite party of the taking of such appeal, which notice shall be served in the same manner as is provided for the service of original notices. If the appellant is the party petitioning for the drain, he shall also file a bond, conditioned to pay all costs of appeal that may be assessed against him, which bond, if good and sufficient, shall be approved by the township clerk. The cause shall be tried in the district court by ordinary proceedings, upon such pleading as the court may direct, each party having the right to offer such testimony as shall be admissible under the rules of law. If the appellant does not recover a more favorable judgment in the district court than he received in the decision of the trustees, he shall pay all the costs of appeal.

SEC. 4800. Transcript.

In case of appeal, the township clerk shall certify to the district court a transcript of the proceedings before the trustees, which shall be filed in said court with the appeal bond, the party appealing paying for said transcript and the docketing of said appeal, as in other cases. The party claiming damages shall be the plaintiff, and the applicant shall be the defendant; and the court shall render such judgment as shall be warranted by the verdict, the facts, and the law upon all the matters involved, and make such orders as will cause the same to be carried into effect.

SEC. 4801. Costs and damages paid—railroad land.

The applicant shall pay the costs of the trustees and clerk and for the serving of notices for hearing, the fees of witnesses summoned by the trustees on said hearing, and the recording of the finding of said trustees by the county recorder. He shall pay all damages awarded, before entering on the construction of the drain through the land of another. If, after the decision of the trustees locating said drain, the party applying therefor shall pay to the party through whose land said drain is to be constructed the damages awarded to said party, or shall pay the same to the trustees for his use, he may proceed to construct said drain in accordance with the decision of the trustees, and the taking of an appeal shall not affect his right to proceed with the construction of the same. If any such ditch or drain shall be located through or across the right of way or other land of a railroad company, the trustees shall determine the cost of constructing the same across and through such property and the railroad company shall have the privilege of constructing such improvement through its property in accordance with the specifications made by the trustees and recover the cost thereof as fixed by the trustees. But such railroad company before it may exercise such privilege shall file its election to that effect with the township clerk within five days after the decision of the trustees is filed, and in case such election is filed the applicant shall within ten days thereafter pay to the township clerk for the use of the railroad company, the cost of constructing the drainage improvement through its property, in addition to the amount that may be allowed as damages, and when the railroad company shall have completed the improvement through its property in accordance with such specifications it shall be entitled to demand and receive from the township clerk such cost. If the railroad company shall fail to so construct the improvement for a period of thirty days after filing its election so to do, the applicant may proceed to do so and may have returned to him the cost thereof deposited with the township clerk.

SEC. 4802. Repairs.

In case any dispute shall thereafter arise as to the repair of any such drain, the same shall be determined by said trustees upon application in substantially the same manner as in the original construction thereof.

SEC. 4803. Penalty for obstructing.

Any person who shall dam up, obstruct or in any way injure any ditch or drain so constructed, shall be liable to pay to the person owning or possessing the swamp, marsh or other low lands, for the draining of which such ditch or ditches have been opened, double the damages that shall be sustained by the owner, and, in case of a second or subsequent offense by the same person, treble such damages.

SEC. 4804. Connecting drains.

When any watercourse or natural drainage line crosses the boundary line between two adjoining landowners, and both parties desire to drain the land along such watercourse or natural drainage line, but are unable to agree as to the junction of the lines of drainage at the boundary line aforesaid, the township trustees shall have full power and authority, upon the application of either party, to hear and determine all questions arising between such parties, after giving due notice to each of the time and place of such hearing, and may render such decision thereon as to said trustees shall seem just.

SEC. 4805. Along highways.

Any person shall have the right to go upon any public road to construct an outlet to a drain, but he shall leave the road in as good condition as it was before the drain was constructed, the question as to such condition to be determined by the superintendent of roads of the district where the work is done.

SEC. 4806. Drains across highways.

When any watercourse or natural drain crosses any public road in the state, and the adjoining or abutting landowner wishes to cross said road with an underground tile drain, he shall notify the road superintendent having supervision over the road to be crossed, in writing, specifying the depth of drain and size of tile to be used in crossing said road, and give the road superintendent twenty days' time to construct said underground drain.

SEC. 4807. Supervisor shall construct.

When the road superintendent receives said written notice, he shall order said drain constructed across said road, and pay for the tile and construction of the same out of any money or fund in his hands.

SEC. 4808. Construction by owner.

If the superintendent fails to construct said drain within twenty days' time, then the abutting or adjoining landowner may go upon the road and construct the same across said road, and he shall receive pay for constructing the same, including tile used in crossing said road, out of any money or fund belonging to such road district; pro-

Any person or corporation owning or possessing any land underlaid with coal, who is unable to mine the same by reason of the accumulation of water in such mine, may drain the same through, over or under the surface of land belonging to another person, and if such person or corporation and the owner of the land cannot agree as to the amount of damages that will be sustained by such owner, the parties may proceed to have the necessary right of way condemned and the damages assessed in the manner provided for taking private property for works of internal improvement.

Any person or corporation who by machinery, such as engines or pumps, or by making drains or adit levels, or in any other way, shall rid any lead or zinc bearing mineral lands or lead or zinc mines of water, thereby enabling the miners and the owners of mineral interest in said lands to make them productive and available for mining purposes, shall receive one-tenth of all the lead and zinc mineral taken from said lands as compensation for said drainage.

The owners of the mineral interest in said lands, and persons mining upon and taking lead or zinc mineral from said lands, shall jointly and severally set apart and deliver from time to time, when demanded, the said one-tenth part of the mineral taken from said lands to the person or corporation entitled thereto, and the owners of the mineral interest therein shall allow the party entitled to such compensation and his agents at all times to descend into and examine said mines, and to enter any building occupied for mining purposes upon any of said lands, and examine and weigh the mineral taken therefrom.

Upon the failure or refusal of any owner of the mineral interest in said lands, or of any person taking the mineral therefrom, to comply with the provisions of the preceding section, the person or corporation entitled to said compensation may recover the value of said mineral. And if it shall appear that the defendant obstructed the plaintiff in the exercise of the right to examine such mines, and to weigh such mineral, or concealed or secretly carried away any mineral taken from them, the court shall render judgment for double the amount proved to be due from such defendant.

The person or corporation entitled to said drainage compensation may at any time leave with any smelter of lead or zinc mineral...

in this state a written notice, stating that said person or corporation claims of the persons named in said notice the amount to which said person or corporation may be entitled, which notice shall have the effect of notices in garnishment, and also authorize the said smelter to retain, for the use of the person entitled thereto, the one-tenth part of the mineral taken from said land and received from the person named in said notice. The payment or delivery of the one-tenth part of the mineral taken from any of said lands by any one of the persons whose duty it is hereby made to pay or deliver the same, shall discharge the parties liable jointly with him, except liability to contribute among themselves.

[C., '73, § 1232; C., '97, § 1971; S., '13, § 1971.]

SEC. 4814. Right of way.

Any person or corporation engaged as aforesaid in draining such mines and lead or zinc bearing mineral lands, when he or they shall find it necessary for the prosecution of their work, shall have the right of way upon, over or under the surface of such mineral lands, and the contiguous and neighboring lands, for the purpose of conveying the water from said mineral lands by troughs, pipes, ditches, water races or tunnels, and the right to construct and use shafts and airholes in and upon the same, doing as little injury as possible in making said improvements.

SEC. 4815. Damages.

If the said person or corporation engaged in draining as aforesaid, and the owner of any land upon which said right of way may be deemed necessary, can not agree as to the amount of damages which will be sustained by the owner by reason thereof, the parties may proceed to have the same assessed in the manner provided for taking private property for works of internal improvement.

SEC. 4816. Consent of owners.

The foregoing provisions shall not be construed to require the owners of the mineral interest in any of said lands to take mineral therefrom, or to authorize any other person to take the mineral from said lands without the consent of the owners.

SEC. 4817. Assistance by counties.

In any case where the United States may have undertaken, or may hereafter undertake, the work of building a levee along or near the bank of a navigable stream forming a part of the boundary of this state, the board of supervisors of any and every county through which the same may pass shall have the right and power to aid in procuring the right of way for the same, maintaining the same, and providing a system of internal drainage made necessary or advisable by the construction of such levee, whenever in their judgment such work will be conducive to the public health, convenience or welfare.

SEC. 4818. Proceedings.

Proceedings as contemplated by the preceding section may be begun by filing with the county auditor a petition asking the board of supervisors to form a levee or a drainage district, for any one or all of the purposes specified in the preceding section. Said petition shall be signed by one or more owners of lands lying within the limits of such proposed district; the general limits of said district shall be given therein, and a plat of the proposed district shall be filed with said petition. There shall be filed with said petition a bond, with sureties approved by the county auditor, conditioned for the payment of all costs and expenses incurred, in case the board of supervisors shall refuse to grant the prayer or the petition.

At their next regular session held after the filing of such petition, or at a special session called for the purpose, the board of supervisors shall, if the foregoing provisions have been complied with, appoint a commission of three disinterested freeholders of the county, one of whom shall be, if practicable, a competent civil engineer or surveyor. This commission shall, after being duly sworn, proceed to examine the lands within such proposed district, lay out the work required, and make an estimate of the probable cost of the same. They shall make a full report to the board of supervisors, and may recommend that such district be formed as prayed, or that it be enlarged or diminished, as in their judgment will best subserve the general good and promote the general welfare.

SEC. 4820. Notice.

Upon the filing of the report of the commissioners, the county auditor shall fix a time, not less than twenty days thereafter, when the board of supervisors will proceed to take final action on the petition. At least ten days' notice of such hearing shall be given to each owner of land lying within such proposed district, as shown by the transfer books in the auditor's office. Such notice shall be over the hand and seal of the county auditor, shall state in brief the substance of the petition, the recommendation of the commissioners, and the time when the board of supervisors will proceed to a hearing on the same. This notice shall be served by the sheriff, if the person named can be found in the county, but, if the sheriff shall return that any such person can not be found in the county, the notice shall then be served by posting two copies thereof at least fifteen days before the time fixed for the hearing, one to be posted at the front door of the courthouse, and the other at some public place in the township within which such lands are situated, and within the limits of such proposed drainage district; a copy of such notice, with an affidavit of the posting of the same, to be filed with the county auditor before the hearing; provided, however, that service of such notice may be acknowledged in the manner provided for the service of an original notice, and substituted service of such notice may be made under the circumstances and in the manner provided for substituted service of an original notice.

§§ 4821-4823. LEVEES, DRAINS AND WATERCOURSES. Tit. XV, Ch. 1.

SEC. 4821. Hearing.
1 At the time named, or at such other time to which the board of supervisors may adjourn the matter, they shall proceed with the hearing, at which any interested parties may appear, either in person or by counsel, and be heard, and may file written pleadings. The board shall hear and determine the matter, and if they determine against the formation of such district, they shall dismiss the proceedings at the cost of the petitioners. If they shall decide to form such levee or drainage district, they shall proceed to fix the boundaries of the same, and their finding shall be entered upon their records. The finding and the report of the commissioner shall be competent evidence at the hearing above provided for, but shall not be conclusive.

SEC. 4822. Appeal.
1 Any person aggrieved by such action of the board of supervisors may, within twenty days after such action is taken, appeal to the district court of the county in which such lands are situated, where such appeal shall be heard on its merits, regardless of technicalities, and appeal may be taken from the district to the supreme court, but under and subject to the restrictions now imposed by law upon appeals generally. The appeal to the district court shall be taken by serving notice of such appeal on the county auditor and the three persons first named among the signers to the petition specified in section forty-eight hundred eighteen. If the appeal is taken by the petitioners, notice of such appeal shall be served on the county auditor and any three of the successful remonstrants, if there be so many, but on all if they be less than three. Upon service of notice of such appeal, the county auditor shall file with the clerk of the district court a copy of the petition, written objections filed by the parties complaining, or complained against, and of the action taken by the board of supervisors, all certified by him; these may constitute the pleadings, and the clerk of the district court shall docket the same, as in case of any other action brought, entitling the same in the names of the three first signing the petition, on behalf of all, and against the remonstrants who are successful, or who appeal, as the case may be. Such appeal, however, shall not interfere with the board of supervisors in the prosecution of the work, unless the same shall have been taken by not less than one-half of the acreage lying within the limits of such proposed district; but if so taken, by not less than one-half such acreage; then the board of supervisors shall so enter upon their records, and shall also enter an order suspending all proceedings pending the final disposition of such appeal.

SEC. 4823. Work carried on—land condemned.
1 After entering the order as provided in section forty-eight hundred twenty-one, unless further proceedings are suspended as provided in the preceding section, the board of supervisors shall proceed and adopt such plan or system as in their judgment is proper and best under all the circumstances, and cause the work to be done, causing such ditches to be dug, channels opened, embankments erected, fills made, and such other work done as in their judgment will most efficiently promote the general good and the public welfare. They shall have power, in the manner now provided by law for the taking of private property for works of internal improvements to condemn any land which they deem it necessary to take or use in the prosecution of such work, including any that may be required to aid the United States in completing such levee, the costs and expenses of which shall be paid out of the drainage fund pertaining to such district as hereinafter provided. In the doing of this work the board of supervisors shall have power to employ such help and assistance as they deem necessary, and to fix compensation for the same. All the work to be done which shall involve an estimated expenditure of five hundred dollars or over shall be let by contract, after advertising the same, once each week, for three weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county, to the lowest bidder who shall furnish satisfactory security for the performance of the contract; provided, however, that the board of supervisors may reject all bids, and do the work themselves whenever in their judgment the work can be so done at a substantial saving.

SEC. 4824. Costs assessed.

If said district is established, the entire costs and expenses incurred under this chapter shall be assessed against and collected from the lands lying within such district, by the levy of a rate upon the assessable value of the land within such district, sufficient to raise the required sum; provided that where the proposed improvement is for drainage only the board may, in their discretion, classify the land within such district and graduate the tax thereon, as provided in chapter two of this title and sections twenty-eight hundred fifty-seven and eighty-seven hundred thirty-eight. When the board decides to make such classification, they shall proceed in the manner set forth in section forty-eight hundred fifty-one, and the commissioners shall each be allowed three dollars per day.

[C., '97, § 1982; S., '13, § 1982.]

SEC. 4825. Collection of tax.

The assessment required under the preceding section shall be made by the board of supervisors at the time of levying general taxes, after the work has been authorized, and the same shall be entered on the records of the board of supervisors, then entered on the tax books by the county auditor as drainage taxes, and shall be collected by the county treasurer at the same time, in the same manner, and with the same penalties, as general taxes; and if the same is not paid he shall sell all such lands upon which such assessment remains unpaid, at the same time, and in the same manner, as is now by law provided for the sale of lands for delinquent taxes, including all steps up to the execution and delivery of the tax deed for the same. The landowners shall take notice of and pay such assessments, without other or further notice than such as is provided for in this chapter. The funds realized from such assessments shall constitute the drainage fund, as contemplated in this chapter, and shall be disbursed on warrants drawn against that fund by the county auditor, on the order of the board of supervisors.

[C., '97, § 1983.]
SEC. 4826. Annual installments.
1 If the proposed improvement is the maintenance of a levee, the 2 amount collected in any one year shall not exceed fifty mills on the 3 dollar of the assessment valuation, which said assessment shall be 4 levied at a level rate on the assessable value of the said lands, ease-5 ments and railroads within the district. If the amount necessary to 6 pay for the improvement, under section forty-eight hundred twenty-7 four, exceed said sum, it shall be levied and collected in annual install-8 ments. For all other improvements, the board shall levy a rate suffi-9 cient to pay for the same, and may, at their discretion, make the same 10 payable in annual installments of ten or less.

SEC. 4827. Bonds.
1 If the entire amount required under this chapter can not be col-
2 lected in one year, the board of supervisors of such county shall have 3 the power to issue drainage bonds for all which can not thus be pro-4 vided for in one year, in substantially the manner and form as pro-5 vided in section forty-seven hundred ninety-five, such issue to be 6 determined upon by them before the levy, and an amount sufficient 7 to pay the interest on such bonds shall be estimated and included in 8 the assessment. If the amount of money required for the improve-9 ment under the provisions of this chapter can not be collected in one 10 year, or if the board of supervisors in their discretion deem it advis-11 able that the taxes shall be paid in installments, or in case it becomes 12 necessary to expend an extraordinary sum for the preservation of the 13 levee in case of an emergency, the board of supervisors of the county 14 shall have the power to issue bonds for all which can not thus be 15 provided for in one year in substantially the manner and form pro-16 vided in section forty-eight hundred seventy-five, and all acts and pro-17 ceedings in relation thereto shall conform therewith, except that bonds 18 issued in anticipation of taxes for the maintenance of a levee shall 19 not exceed five years' taxes and shall be due in six years from the date 20 of issue.

SEC. 4828. Claim for repairs.
1 Whenever a levee or drainage district is organized, the board or 2 boards of supervisors, as the case may be, shall have power and au-3 thority to audit and allow claims for money and labor expended in the 4 preservation of said levee prior to and since the organization of the 5 said district, all sums so allowed to be payable from the levee or drain-6 age fund. The said board or boards shall also have full power and 7 authority to make an equitable adjustment of and credit for any taxes
8 paid for repairing the levee where the same has been heretofore levied
9 and collected in any manner by said board or boards of supervisors 10 under any prior proceedings.

SEC. 4829. Cost of maintaining.
1 The board of supervisors shall have the right and power to keep 2 up and maintain any such levee, ditches, drains, or system of drain-3 age, either in whole or in part, established under the preceding sec-4 tions of this chapter, as may in their judgment be required, and to levy the expense thereof upon the real estate within such drainage district as herein provided for, and collect and expend the same; provided, however, that no such work which shall impose a tax exceeding fifty mills on the dollar on the assessable value of the lands within the district shall be authorized by them, unless the same is first petitioned for and authorized in substantially the manner required by this chapter for the inauguration of new work.

SEC. 4830. Districts.

The petitioners who proceed under section forty-eight hundred eighteen may ask that the lands described in the petition be formed into more than one drainage district, and, whether they do so or not, the board of supervisors shall have the right and power to arrange said lands, or the lands which they shall finally determine to bring within the provisions of sections forty-eight hundred seventeen to forty-eight hundred thirty-two, inclusive, into two or more districts, the boundaries of which shall be so fixed as will, in the judgment of the board, tend to a more equitable and just apportionment of the burdens to be imposed. It shall be the duty of the commissioners provided for in section forty-eight hundred nineteen hereof to report whether, in their judgment, there should be more than one such district formed, and to make their plans and estimates according to such districts as they recommend.

[C., '97, § 1987.]

SEC. 4831. Apportionment of cost.

In case more than one such district is created as provided in the preceding section the board of supervisors shall require separate accounts to be kept of the costs and expenses incurred in each, making an equitable apportionment of such as is not susceptible of exact division, and the lands in each drainage district shall be liable to assessment for the costs and expenses incurred in such district only.

[C., '97, § 1988.]

SEC. 4832. Through two or more counties.

The boards of supervisors of any two or more adjoining counties where a government levee has been constructed, or partly constructed by the government and partly by other means, may carry on the work provided for in this chapter concurrently, provided that they first agree upon a plan or system and a basis of an equitable apportionment of the work to be done and the share of the cost and expense of the same to be borne by each of said counties; or when said levee has been built and separate districts have been heretofore formed the boards of supervisors may unite said districts into one district, but before said districts can be so united each board of supervisors, acting separately, must by resolution vote in favor of such consolidation, and upon said separate votes being favorable the said levee districts shall be consolidated into one district, and thereafter the same shall be governed in all respects as now provided, except all action governing the new district shall be by the boards of supervisors acting jointly.

SEC. 4833. Levee or drainage district—powers of board.

1 Where a petition has been filed asking for the establishment of a levee or drainage district, and the board of supervisors have attempted to establish said district, under the provisions of title ten, chapter two, McClain’s Code, 1888, or as amended, and said establishment has failed on account of said provision being unconstitutional and the work and improvement petitioned for shall have been in whole or part completed, whether the original construction work, or repairs and maintenance work thereto, the board of supervisors shall have power and shall proceed to establish a district, as provided by chapter two of title fifteen, in the same manner as though a petition and bond had been filed therefor, and shall have power to establish any new improvement work in connection with that already constructed as may be recommended by the report of the engineer therein appointed, and all sections of said chapter two of title fifteen shall be applicable thereto, and shall govern all proceedings in the matter of said establishment and the levy of taxes thereunder.

SEC. 4834. Improvements—apportionment of benefits.

1 In all proceedings under sections forty-eight hundred thirty-two to forty-eight hundred thirty-five, inclusive, where the improvement originally recommended has been in whole or in part constructed, or where certain repair or maintenance shall have been in whole or in part constructed, the board of supervisors shall and they are hereby empowered to take over and establish the same as the improvement work of the district established under said sections, and in apportioning the benefits to the land in said district, use as a basis for the amount to be raised in the district for the improvement already constructed and the repair and maintenance work that may have been completed, the actual cost of said work, and that amount together cost of and additional improvement or repair work and expenses shall be assessed as benefits as by the provisions of chapter two of title fifteen, provided and in all cases where an assessment and levy of taxes has heretofore been attempted to have been made and taxes paid thereunder, the commissioners appointed to apportion the benefits shall be governed by section forty-eight hundred fifty-seven of said chapter.

SEC. 4835. Damages.

1 In all proceedings under this and the two preceding sections, the commission appointed to fix the amount of damages, and the board of supervisors in determining the same, where damages have been here-fore attempted to have been fixed for the improvement or repair and maintenance work, constructed, and the same have been paid to the owner of lands affected by the improvement, shall deduct from the amount of damages now found and determined upon the amount here-fore paid, if there be any.

[38 G. A., ch. 334, § 3.]
CHAPTER 2.
LEVEES, DITCHES, DRAINS AND WATERCOURSES.

SECTION 4836. Board of supervisors to establish drainage district.

The board of supervisors of any county shall have jurisdiction, power and authority at any regular, special or adjourned session, to establish a drainage district or districts, and to locate and establish levees, and cause to be constructed as hereinafter provided any levee, ditch, drain or watercourse, or to straighten, widen, deepen or change any natural watercourse, in such county, whenever the same will be of public utility or conducive to the public health, convenience or welfare, and the drainage of surface waters from agricultural lands shall be considered a public benefit and conducive to the public health, convenience, utility and welfare.

Whenever a petition signed by one or more of the landowners whose lands will be affected by, or assessed for the expenses of, the proposed improvement, shall be filed in the office of the county auditor, setting forth that any body or district of land in the county, described by metes and bounds, or otherwise, so as to convey an intelligible description of such lands, is subject to overflow or too wet for cultivation, and that the public benefit or utility, or the public health, convenience or welfare will be promoted by draining, ditching, tiling or leveeing the same, or by changing a natural watercourse, and setting forth therein the starting point, route and terminus and lateral branches, if necessary, of the proposed improvement, and there is filed therewith a bond, in amount and with sureties to be approved by the county auditor and conditioned for the payment of all costs and expenses incurred in the proceedings in case the supervisors do not grant the prayer of said petition, the board shall at its first session thereafter, regular, special or adjourned, appoint a disinterested and competent engineer, who shall give bond to the county for the use and benefit of the proposed levee or drainage district, if it be established, in amount and with sureties to be approved by the county auditor and conditioned for the faithful and competent performance of his work, and place a copy of the petition in his hands and he shall proceed to examine the lands described in said petition and any other lands which would be benefited by said improvement or necessary in the carrying out of said improvement, and survey and locate such drain or drains, ditch or ditches, improvement or improvements, as may be practicable and feasible to carry out the purposes of the petition and which will be of public benefit or utility or conducive to public health, convenience or welfare; provided, however, that when the proposed drainage district involves only the straightening of a creek or river, the board of supervisors may refuse to consider any such petition unless and until signed by those landowners who own at least ten per cent of the land affected by, or assessed for the expense of, the proposed improvement. Provided, however, that this act [37 G. A., ch. 415] shall not affect drainage projects where the drainage of swamps and sloughs are involved that are not in the congressional forty-acre tracts adjoining such creek or river. He shall make return of his proceedings to the county auditor, which returns shall set forth the starting point, the route, the terminus or termini of the said ditch or ditches, drain or drains, or other improvements, together with a plat and profile showing the ditches, drains or other improvements, and the course and length of the drain or drains through each tract of land, together with the number of acres appropriated from said tract for construction of said improvement, and the elevation of all lakes, ponds and deep depressions in said district, and the boundary of the proposed district, so as to include therein all lands that will be benefited or otherwise affected by the proposed improvements, and the description of each tract of land therein and names of the owners thereof as shown by the transfer books in the auditor's office, together with the probable cost, and such other facts and recommendations as he may deem material. The engineers' notes of the preliminary survey, together with the original tracing of plat and profile of the drainage district, are to be filed with the county auditor at the time of making report, and to be the property of the drainage district, together with all other plats, profiles and reports specified in this section. The board of supervisors may at any time recall the appointment of any engineer made under the provisions of this section, if deemed advisable to do so, and select another to act in his place. The ditches or drains herein provided for shall so far as practicable be surveyed and located along the general course of the natural streams and watercourses or in the general course of natural drainage of the lands of said district, but where it will be more economical or practicable such ditch or drain need not follow the course of such natural streams, watercourses, or course of natural drainage, but may straighten, shorten or change the course of any natural stream, watercourse or general course of drainage. Whenever any such ditch or drain crosses any railroad right of way it shall when practicable be located at the place of the natural waterway across such right of way unless said railroad company shall have provided another place in the construction of the roadbed for the flow of the water; and if located at the place provided by the railroad company, such company shall be estopped from afterwards objecting to such location on the ground that it is not at the place of the natural waterway.

SEC. 4838. Notice of hearing—approval of plan—fees and mileage for serving notice.

Upon the filing of the return of the engineer, if the same recommends the establishment of the levee or drainage district, the board of supervisors shall then examine the return of the engineer, and if the plan seems to be expedient and meets with the approval of the board of supervisors, they shall direct the auditor to cause a notice to be given, as hereinafter provided; but if it does not appear to be expedient and is not approved, the board of supervisors are hereby authorized to direct said engineer, or another engineer, selected by them, to report another plan. At any time prior to the establishment of the district, the plan may be amended, and as amended shall be conclusive, unless appealed from as provided in section forty-eight hundred forty-one of this chapter. When the plan, if any, shall have been finally adopted by the board of supervisors, they shall order the auditor immediately thereafter to cause notice to be given to the owner 15 of each tract of land or lot within the proposed levee or drainage dis-16 trict, as shown by the transfer books of the auditor's office, including 17 railway companies having right of way in the proposed district, and 18 to each lienholder or incumbrancer of any land through which or abut-19 ting upon which the proposed improvement extends as shown by the 20 county records, and also to all other persons whom it may concern, in-21 cluding actual occupants of the land in the proposed district (without 22 naming individuals), and when there is included within such proposed 23 district any portion of a city or incorporated town it shall be sufficient 24 that such notice set forth the boundaries of the territory within such 25 city or town included within the proposed district and be directed to 26 the owners, lienholders and incumbrancers of the property within such 27 boundaries without naming individuals, of the pendency and prayer 28 of said petition, the favorable report thereon by the engineer and that 29 such report may be amended before final action, the day set for hear-30 ing on said petition and report before the board of supervisors, and 31 that all claims for damages must be filed in the auditor's office not 32 less than five days before the day set for hearing upon the petition, 33 which notice shall be served, except as otherwise hereinafter provided, 34 by publication thereof once each week for two consecutive weeks in 35 some newspaper of general circulation published in the county, the 36 last of which publications shall be not less than twenty days prior to 37 the day set for hearing upon the petition, proof of such service to be 38 made by affidavit of the publisher and filed with the county auditor;
39 provided further, however, that when any resident, nonresident, cor-40 poration, railroad company, or other persons owning or having an 41 interest in any land or property affected by the proposed improve-42 ment shall have filed with the county auditor of the county wherein 43 such improvement is proposed, an instrument in writing, duly signed, 44 and designating the name and postoffice address of his or its agent
45 upon whom service of notice in said matter shall be made, the county 46 auditor shall, at least twenty days prior to the date set for hearing
47 upon said petition, mail a true copy of said notice in a registered letter 48 addressed to the person or agent so designated in said written instru-49 ment, as aforesaid. Proof of such service of said notice shall be made 50 by affidavit of said county auditor and filed by him in said matter in 51 his said office on or before the date of the hearing upon the petition, 52 and such service shall be in lieu of all other service of notice to such 53 residents, nonresidents, corporations, railroad companies or other per-54 sons. No notice need be served by the auditor upon any of the per-55 sons hereinbefore described who shall file with said auditor a state-56 ment in writing signed by him entering his appearance at said hearing 57 and waiving any additional notice. If, at the date set for the hearing 58 before the board of supervisors, it should appear that any person en-59 titled to notice, as provided in this section, has not been served with 60 notice for the time, or in the manner, as herein provided, the board 61 may postpone said hearing and set another time for the same, and 62 notice of such day of hearing may be served on such omitted parties 63 in the manner and for the same length of time as provided for in this 64 section; and by fixing such new day for hearing and by adjourning 65 said proceedings to said time, the board of supervisors shall not be 66 held to have lost jurisdiction of the subject matter of said proceeding, 67 nor of any parties so previously served with notice. Personal service 68 upon any of the parties above described in the manner and for the 69 time required for service of original notices shall be sufficient and 70 make publication of notice as to such persons unnecessary.

SEC. 4839. Claims for damages.

1 Any person claiming damages as compensation for or on account 2 of the construction of such improvement shall file such claim in the 3 office of the county auditor at least five days prior to the day on which 4 the petition has been set for hearing, and on failure to file such claim 5 at the time specified, shall be held to have waived his rights thereto; 6 provided, however, that it shall not be necessary to file claims covering 7 value of land appropriated for right of way for construction of pro- 8 posed improvements.

SEC. 4840. Location—appraisers.

1 The board of supervisors at the session set for the hearing on 2 said petition, which session may be regular, special or adjourned, 3 shall thereupon proceed to hear and determine the sufficiency of the 4 petition in form and substance, which petition may be amended as to 5 form and substance at any time before final action thereon, and, if 6 deemed necessary, the board may view the premises, and if they shall 7 find that such levee or drainage districts would not be for the public 8 benefit or utility, nor conducive to the public health, convenience or 9 welfare, they shall dismiss the proceedings; but, if they shall find such 10 improvement conducive to the public health, convenience or welfare 11 or to the public benefit or utility and no claim shall have been filed 12 for damages as provided in the preceding section, they may, if deemed 13 advisable, locate and establish the same in accordance with the recom- 14 mendations of the engineer, or they may refuse to establish the same 15 as they may deem best; and at said hearing, the board may order the 16 said engineer or a new engineer appointed by them if deemed advis- 17 able, to make further examination and report to said board as to said 18 proposed improvement, and if they determine that further examina- 19 tion and report shall be made, or if any claims have been filed for 20 damages, as provided in the preceding section, then the board of 21 supervisors shall proceed no further than to determine the necessity 22 of the levee or drainage districts and further proceedings shall be 23 continued to an adjourned, regular or special session, the date of which 24 shall be fixed at the time of the adjournment; and the county auditor 25 shall appoint three appraisers to assess such damages, one of whom 26 shall be the engineer theretofore appointed as above provided, or, in 27 case of his absence or inability to act, some other engineer, and two 28 freeholders of the county who shall not be interested in, nor related 29 to any party interested in the proposed improvement.

SEC. 4841. Assessment of damages—appeal.

1 The appraisers appointed to assess damages shall proceed to view 2 the premises and determine and fix the amount of damages to which 3 each claimant is entitled, and shall place a valuation upon all acreage 4 taken for right of way as shown by plat of engineer and shall, at least 5 five days before the date fixed by the board to hear and determine the 6 same, file with the county auditor reports in writing showing the amount of damages sustained by each claimant. Should the report not be filed in time, or should any good cause for delay exist, the board may postpone the time of final action on the subject and, if necessary, the auditor may appoint other appraisers. When the time for final action shall have arrived, and after the filing of the report of the appraisers, said board shall consider the amount of damages awarded in their final determination in regard to establishing such levee or drainage district, and if in their opinion the cost of construction and the amount of damages awarded is not excessive and a greater burden than should be properly borne by the land benefited by the improvement, they shall locate and establish the same, and they shall thereupon appoint said engineer, or if deemed advisable, may appoint a new engineer as a commissioner, who shall make a permanent survey of said ditch as so located, showing the levels and elevations of each forty-acre tract of land and shall file a report of the same with the county auditor together with a plat and profile thereof and shall thereupon proceed to determine the amount of damages sustained by each claimant, and may hear evidence in respect thereto and may increase or diminish the amount awarded in respect thereto, and any party aggrieved may appeal from the finding of the board in establishing or refusing to establish the improvement district or from its finding in the allowance of damages to the district court by filing notice with the county auditor at any time within twenty days after such finding, at the same time filing a bond with the county auditor, approved by him, and conditioned to pay all costs and expenses of the appeal unless the finding of the district court shall be more favorable to the appel-ant or appellants than the finding of the board, which appeal shall be tried in the district court as an ordinary proceeding, except that when the appeal is from the order of the board in establishing or refusing to establish the levee or drainage district, it shall be tried in equity and the appearance term shall be the trial term; the finding of the court in relation to the establishment of or refusal to establish the levee or drainage district shall be certified by the clerk of the district court to the board of supervisors, who shall enter an order in harmony therewith and proceed accordingly. If the appeal is from the amount of damages allowed, the amount ascertained in the district court shall be entered of record, but no judgment shall be rendered therefor. The amount thus ascertained shall be certified by the clerk of said court to the board of supervisors, who shall thereafter proceed as if such amount had been by it allowed the claimant as damages. If the appeal is from the action of the board in establishing or refusing to establish said drainage district, the court shall enter such order as may be proper in the premises, and the clerk of said court shall certify the same to the board of supervisors, who shall proceed thereafter in said matter in accordance with the order of the court. How the costs shall be distributed among the litigants and against whom the same shall be taxed shall rest in the discretion of the trial court.

SEC. 4842. Damages—by whom paid—division into districts—engineer.

The amount of damages finally determined by the board in favor of any claimant or claimants shall be required to be paid in the first instance by the parties benefited by the said levee or drainage district, or secured to be paid by sufficient bond to be fixed and approved by the county auditor, and after such damages shall have been paid or secured as aforesaid, the board shall divide said improvement into suitable sections, numbering the same consecutively from the source or beginning of the improvement downward towards its outlet and prescribe the time within which the improvement shall be completed and appoint a competent engineer to have charge of the work of construction thereof, who shall be required before entering upon the work to give a bond to the county for the use and benefit of the levee or drainage district to be approved by the auditor in such sum as the board may fix, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties.

SEC. 4843. Letting work—notice—bids.

1. The board shall cause notice to be given by publication, once each
2. week, for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in the
3. county wherein such improvement is located and such additional pub-
4. lication elsewhere as they may direct, of the time and place of letting
5. the work of construction of said improvement, and in such notice they
6. shall specify the approximate amount of work to be done in each sec-
7. tion and the time fixed for the commencement and completion thereof;
8. and when the estimated cost of said improvement exceeds fifteen thou-
9. sand dollars the board shall make additional publication for two con-
10. secutive weeks in some contracting journal of general circulation, of
11. such notice as they may prescribe, and they shall award contract or
12. contracts for each section of the work to the lowest responsible bidder
13. or bidders therefor, bids to be submitted, received and acted upon
14. separately as to the main drain and each of the laterals, exercising
15. their own discretion as to letting such work as to the main drain as
16. a whole, or as to each lateral as a whole, or by sections as to both main
17. drain and laterals, and reserving the right to reject any and all bids
18. and readvertise the letting of the work. Each person bidding for such
19. work shall deposit in cash or certified check a sum equal to ten per
20. centum of the amount of the bid, not in any event, however, to exceed
21. ten thousand dollars, said deposit to be returned to him if his bid is
22. not successful, and if successful to be retained as a guarantee only
23. of his good faith in entering on said contract. The successful bidder
24. shall be required to execute a bond with sufficient sureties in favor
25. of the county for the use and benefit of the levee or drainage district
26. in an amount equal to twenty-five per centum of the estimated cost
27. of the work so let, or he may deposit such amount in cash with the
28. auditor as security for the performance of his contract and for the
29. payment as they become due of all just claims for labor performed
30. and material used in the completion of said contract, and upon the
31. execution of such bond, or the making of such deposit, the deposit
32. originally made with his bid shall be returned to him.

SEC. 4844. Monthly estimates—payment.

1. The engineer in charge of the construction shall furnish the con-
2. tractor monthly estimates of the amount of work done on each section,
3. and upon filing the same with the auditor, he shall draw a warrant
4. in favor of such contractor, or deliver to him improvement certificates,
5. as the case may be, for eighty per centum of the value of the work
6. done according to the estimate, and when said improvement is completed to the satisfaction of the engineer in charge thereof and so certified by him to the board and approved by it, the auditor shall draw a warrant in favor of said contractor upon the levee or drainage fund, or deliver to him improvement certificates, as the case may be, for the balance due. All warrants drawn upon the funds of any drainage district which can not be paid for want of funds shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum, payable annually, from and after the date of presentation thereof to the county treasurer.

SEC. 4845. Unpaid warrants—record of holders.
1 When a warrant drawn upon the funds of any drainage district
2 is presented to the county treasurer for payment and not paid for 3 want of funds and so indorsed by the treasurer, said treasurer shall 4 make and keep a record of the owner and holder presenting such 5 warrant, together with his or its postoffice address.

SEC. 4846. Transfer—record to show.
1 Whenever such drainage warrant shall be assigned and trans-
2 ferred after having been so indorsed by the county treasurer, the 3 assignee thereof may notify the treasurer of such assignment, giving 4 the treasurer his or its name and postoffice address; and upon receipt 5 of such notice by the treasurer he shall make a memorandum in the 6 record kept of such warrant, showing the name and address of each 7 such successive assignee or holder.

[38 G. A., ch. 162, § 2.]

SEC. 4847. Funds—notice—interest.
1 Whenever the treasurer shall have funds on hand to pay such 2 warrant or warrants, he shall, in addition to the call provided for in 3 section thirty-one hundred sixty-nine, mail a written notice of such 4 call to the then holder thereof as shown by his said record, and shall 5 make a memorandum showing the date of mailing such notice as shown 6 by the memorandum herein required to be made, the interest on such 7 warrant or warrants shall cease.

[38 G. A., ch. 162, § 3.]

SEC. 4848. Unpaid drainage warrants—duty of treasurer.
1 The county treasurer shall indorse such warrants, keep a record
2 of the same, issue calls for outstanding warrants at such times as he 3 may have funds to pay the same, and pay such warrants under the 4 same procedure as is prescribed in the case of county warrants by 5 sections thirty-one hundred sixty-eight to thirty-one hundred seventy, 6 inclusive.

[37 G. A., ch. 264, § 2.]

SEC. 4849. Failure to perform work — penalty — completion of work.
1 If any person to whom any portion of said work shall have been 2 let shall fail to perform the same according to the terms specified in 3 his contract, then the cash deposited by him shall be forfeited to the 4 county, or recovery may be had in an action on the bond by the county,
5 for the benefit of the levee or drainage district, for the damages sus-
§§ 4850-4851. LEVEES, DITCHES AND WATERCOURSES. Tit. XV, Ch. 2.

Sec. 4850. Changes in dimensions—notice—objections—appeal. If, after the establishment of said district, and before the completion of the drainage improvements therein, it shall become apparent that a levee or drain should be enlarged, deepened or otherwise changed or that a change or alteration in the location should be made for the better service thereof, said board may by resolution authorize such change or changes in the said improvement as the engineer shall recommend; provided that, whenever any change or changes are made either under this section or under any other section of this chapter, all persons whose land shall be taken, or whose assessments shall be increased thereby, shall first have been given like notices as provided in section forty-eight hundred thirty-eight of this chapter, and shall have like opportunity to file claims for damages, as provided for in section forty-eight hundred thirty-nine of this chapter, or file objection to such assessment as provided in the following section, as the case may be, and like opportunity to appeal from the action of the board as provided in section forty-eight hundred forty-one of this chapter, or section forty-eight hundred fifty-four of this chapter, as the case may be.

Sec. 4851. Assessment of costs and damages—apportionment. When the levee or drainage district or other improvement herein provided for shall have been located and established as provided for in this chapter, or when it shall be necessary to cause the same to be repaired, enlarged, reopened or cleared from any obstruction therein, unless such repairs, reopening or clearing of obstructions can be paid for as hereinafter provided, the board shall appoint three commissioners, one of whom shall be a competent civil engineer and two of whom shall be resident freeholders of the state not living within the levee or drainage district and not interested therein, nor related to any party whose land is affected thereby; and they shall within twenty days after such appointment begin to personally inspect and classify all the lands benefited by the location and construction of such levee or drainage district, or the repairing or reopening of the same, in tracts of forty acres or less according to the legal or recognized subdivisions in a graduated scale of benefits, to be numbered according to the benefit to be received by the proposed improvement; and they shall make an equitable apportionment of the costs, expenses, costs of construction, fees and damages assessed for the construction of any such improvement, or the repairing or reopening of the same, and make report thereof in writing to the board of supervisors. In making the said estimate the lands receiving the greatest benefit shall be marked on a scale of one hundred and those benefited in a less degree shall be...
§ 4851. Marked with such percentage of one hundred as the benefit received bears in proportion thereto. This classification when finally established shall remain as a basis for all future assessments connected with the objects of said levee or drainage district, unless the board, for good cause, shall authorize a revision thereof. In the report of the appraisers so appointed, they shall specify each tract of land by proper description and the ownership thereof as the same appears on the transfer books in the auditor's office, and the auditor shall cause notice to be served upon each person whose name appears as owner and also upon the person or persons in actual occupancy of any such land in the time and manner provided for the establishment of a levee or drainage district, which notice shall state the amount of special assessments apportioned to such owner, upon each tract or lot, the day set for hearing the same before the board of supervisors and that all objections thereto must be made in writing and filed with the county auditor on or before noon of the day set for such hearing. When the day set for hearing shall have arrived, the board of supervisors shall proceed to hear and determine all objections made and filed to said report and may increase, diminish, annul or affirm the apportionment made in said report or in any part thereof as may appear to the board to be just and equitable; but in no case shall it be competent to show that the lands assessed would not be benefited by the improvement, and when such hearing shall have been had the board shall levy such apportionment so fixed by it upon the lands within such levee or drainage district; and all installments of the tax shall be levied at that time, and shall bear interest at six per cent per annum from that date; provided that if the owner of any parcel of land, lot or premises against which any such levy shall have been made and certified, shall, within twenty days from the date of such assessment, promise and agree in writing filed in the office of the county auditor that in consideration of his having the right to pay his assessments in installments he will not make any objection of illegality or irregularity as to the assessment of benefits or levy of such taxes upon or against his property, but will pay said assessment, then said taxes levied against said land, lot or premises of such owner shall be payable without interest, as follows: one-third of the amount of said assessment at the time of filing the above agreement; one-third within ten days after the engineer in charge of said drainage improvement shall file a certificate in the office of the county auditor that said improvement is one-half completed, and the remaining one-third within ten days after the said improvement shall have been accepted by the board of supervisors, and if said installments are not paid as above provided, the failure to pay any installment shall cause the whole sum to become due and payable at once with interest at the rate of one per cent per month from the date of filing said agreement, and such assessments shall thereupon be collected as other taxes on real estate, which rate may be later reduced to correspond with the rate specified in the certificates or bonds, as the case may be; provided, however, that no deferred installment of the amount assessed, as between vendor and vendee, mortgagor and mortgagee, shall become a lien upon the property against which it is assessed and levied, until the thirty-first day of December of the year next preceding that in which it is due and payable; and in case the board of supervisors shall increase said apportionment, service of notice thereof shall be made upon the owner of such tract or lot of land as shown by the transfer books in the auditor's office, in the same manner in which original notices are required.

79 to be served, where such owner is a resident of the county, and in 80 case such owner is a nonresident of the county such notice as to him 81 shall be served on the actual occupant of the tract or lot of land; pro-82 vided that in case any railroad company shall be affected by such in-83 creased apportionment said notice shall be served upon the station 84 agent of the said railroad company nearest the proposed improvement.
85 If the first assessment made by the board of supervisors for the orig-
86 inal cost or for repairs of any improvement as provided in this chap-87 ter is insufficient, the board may make an additional assessment and 88 levy in the same ratio as the first for either purpose; provided, fur-89 ther, that any assessment may be paid in full without interest at any 90 time within twenty days from the date the assessment is confirmed 91 by the board of supervisors.

SEC. 4852. Districts—levees—outlet—costs.

1 When it shall become necessary hereafter to clean out, enlarge,
2 deepen or widen any ditch or drain of any levee or drainage district,
3 which ditch or drain has heretofore been established and constructed 4 or which shall hereafter be established or constructed, and into or 5 through which any of the waters of any other levee or drainage dis-6 trict shall flow, each levee or drainage district flowing annually into 7 or through such other levee or drainage district, including the levee 8 or drainage district carrying the combined discharge of water, shall 9 be assessed for the cost of such work in the same ratio to such total 10 cost as the discharge of waters of such district bears to the com-11 bined discharge of waters of the several districts flowing into or 12 through such a ditch or drain. And when it shall become necessary 13 hereafter to extend any ditch or drain of any levee or drainage dis-14 trict for a better outlet for the waters flowing annually into or through 15 such a ditch or drain so extended for a better outlet, each district, in-16 cluding the district carrying the combined discharge of water, shall 17 be assessed for the cost of such work in the same ratio to the total 18 cost as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 4853. Levy and collection of tax—warrants.

1 In estimating the benefits as to the lands not traversed by said
2 improvement they shall not consider what benefits such lands will 3 receive after some other improvements shall have been constructed,
4 but only the benefits which will be received by reason of the construc-5 tion of the improvement in question as it affords an outlet for the 6 drainage of such lands, or brings an outlet nearer to said lands or 7 relieves the same from overflow. Said tax shall be levied upon the 8 lands of the owners so benefited in the ratio aforesaid and collected 9 in the same manner as other taxes for county purposes, and the funds 10 so collected shall be kept as a separate fund and shall be paid out only 11 for purposes properly connected with such improvement on the order 12 of the board of supervisors; provided, however, that warrants drawn 13 upon the funds of any drainage district shall be accepted by the county
14 treasurer in payment of drainage assessments levied upon any lands 15 in that district owned by the person to whom the said warrants were 16 issued, and when the amount of the warrant exceeds the amount of 17 the assessment, the treasurer shall cancel the said warrant, and give 18 the holder thereof a certificate for the amount of the overplus, upon 19 the presentation of which certificate to the county auditor he shall file 20 it, and issue a new warrant for the amount of the overplus, and charge 21 the treasurer therewith; and such certificate is transferable by de-22 livery, and will entitle the holder of the new warrant, made payable 23 to his order, and bearing the original number, preceded by the words, 24 "Issued as unpaid balance due on warrant number ...................."

SEC. 4854. Appeal—drainage record — counsel — establishment rescinded—new hearing.

An appeal may be taken to the district court from the order of 2 the board fixing the assessment of benefits upon the lands in the same
3 manner and time as herein provided for appeals from the assessment
4 of damages, and such appeal may be taken from the order of the board 5 of supervisors increasing the apportionment within twenty days after 6 the completed service of notice of such increased apportionment in 7 the same manner as herein provided for appeals in assessment for 8 damages, whether objection was made to the report of the commis-9 sioner or not. The appeal herein provided for shall be tried in the 10 district court as an action in equity and the appearance term shall 11 be the trial term; and when several appeals are taken and pending 12 in the district court by landowners of the same drainage district 13 whose lands have been assessed by the board, the court may, in its 14 discretion, order the consolidation of such cases, and try the same as 15 one cause of action. When any appeal is taken from any order of the 16 board made in any drainage proceeding coming before it for action, 17 it shall be the duty of the board to employ counsel to represent the 18 interests of the drainage district affected by said appeal on the trial 19 thereof in the appellate courts and the expense thereof shall be paid 20 out of the drainage fund of such district. In all actions or appeals 21 involving or affecting the drainage district, the board of supervisors 22 shall be a proper party for the purpose of representing the drainage district, and all interested parties therein, other than the adversary 23 parties thereto, and the employment of counsel by the board, as au-24 thorized by this chapter, shall be for the purpose of protecting all 25 the rights of the drainage district and interested parties therein other 26 than the adversary parties thereto; in all appeals or actions adversary
27 to the district, the appellant or complaining party shall be entitled
28 to the district, the appellant or complaining party shall be entitled 29 the plaintiff, and the board of supervisors and drainage district it represents, the defendants, and in all appeals or actions for or in behalf of the district, the board of supervisors and the drainage district it represents may sue as and be entitled the plaintiffs. When an ap-33 peal authorized by this chapter is taken, the county auditor shall forth-34 with make a transcript of the notice of appeal and appeal bond and 35 transmit the same to the clerk of the district court, and the clerk shall 36 docket the same upon payment by the appellant of the docket fee;
37 and on or before the first day of the next succeeding term of the dis-
38 tribution of the board appealed from and his claims and objections 39 relating thereto, and attach thereto a copy of his claim for damages
40 or objections filed by him with the county auditor. A failure to com-41 ply with these requirements shall be deemed a waiver of the appeal, 42 and in such case the court shall dismiss the same; it shall not be necessary for the appellee to file answer to the petition unless some affirmative defense is made thereto, but he may do so. The board shall provide a book to be known as the drainage record, and the county auditor shall keep a full and complete record therein of all proceedings of the board relating to drainage districts. In any case where the decree is or has been entered setting aside the establishment of a drainage district for errors in the proceedings taken, and such decree becomes final, the board of supervisors shall rescind its order establishing the drainage district, assessing benefits, and levying the tax based thereon, and shall also cancel any contract made for construction work or material, and may refund any or all assessments paid in. The board shall fix a new date for hearing, giving notice thereof by publication for two weeks, and at the time so fixed enter its order as to the establishment of the proposed district, and thereafter proceed as by law provided.

SEC. 4855. Obstructions—nuisance—abatement.
Any ditch, drain or watercourse, which is now or hereafter may be constructed so as to prevent the surface and overflow water from the adjacent lands from entering the same, is hereby declared as a nuisance and may be abated as such.

SEC. 4856. Subsequent proceedings—use of former surveys.
In any proceedings heretofore or hereafter had for the establishment of a ditch, drain, levee or the changing of a natural watercourse, or the establishment of a levee or drainage district where an engineer has been appointed and has made a complete survey, return and plat thereof and for any reason the improvement has been abandoned and the proceedings dismissed and afterwards proceedings are instituted for the establishment of a levee or drainage district, or the changing of a natural watercourse, for the benefit or reclamation of the same territory surveyed in said former proceedings, or part thereof, or the same with territory additional thereto, the engineer shall use the return, levels, surveys, plat and profile made in said former proceedings, or so much thereof, as may be applicable; and in case the cost of said returns, levels, surveys, plat and profile made in said former proceedings have been paid for by the former petitioners or their bondsmen, then a reasonable amount shall be allowed said petitioners or bondsmen for the use of the same.

SEC. 4857. Relevy.
Where proceedings have been had for the establishment of a ditch, drain, levee, change of natural watercourse or the establishment of a drainage district under the law as heretofore existing, and such improvement has been established and constructed and taxes levied upon the land benefited thereby, or upon any portion thereof for the cost of such improvement, and where the levy so made can not for any reason be enforced, the board shall proceed as to all lands benefited by said improvement in the same manner as if the appraisement and apportionment of benefits had never been made; and they shall proceed in the manner hereinbefore provided, using as a basis the entire cost of such improvement, and in taxing up said benefits account shall be taken of the amount of tax, if any, that has been paid by those benefited and credit therefor shall be given accordingly.

SEC. 4858. Establishment and construction across railroad right of way.

Whenever the board of supervisors shall have established any levee, or drainage district, or change of any natural watercourse and the levee, ditch, drain or watercourse as surveyed and located crosses the right of way of any railroad company, the county auditor shall immediately cause to be served upon such railroad company, in the manner provided for the service of original notices, a notice in writing stating the nature of the improvement to be constructed, the place where it will cross the right of way of such company, and the full requirements for its complete construction across such right of way as shown by the plans, specifications, plat and profile of the engineer appointed by the board, and directing such company to construct such improvement according to said plans and specifications at the place designated, across its right of way, and to build and construct or rebuild and reconstruct the necessary culvert or bridge where any ditch, drain or watercourse crosses its right of way, so as not to obstruct, impede or interfere with the free flow of the water therein, within thirty days from the time of the service of such notice upon it; and upon receiving said notice it shall be the duty of such railroad company to construct the improvement across its right of way according to the plans and specifications furnished in said notice and to build and construct or rebuild and reconstruct the necessary culvert or bridge above mentioned and complete the same within the time specified in said notice; if such railroad company shall fail, neglect or refuse to do so within the time fixed in said notice the auditor shall cause the same to be done under the supervision of the engineer in charge of the improvement and such railroad company shall be liable for the cost thereof to be collected by the county in any court having jurisdiction; and the cost of constructing the improvement across the right of way of such company, not including the cost of building and constructing or rebuilding and reconstructing any necessary culvert or bridge when such improvement is located at the place of the natural waterway or place provided by the railroad company for the flow of the water, shall be considered as an element of such company's damages by the appraisers thereof; and the cost of building and constructing or rebuilding and reconstructing any necessary culvert or bridge, when such improvement is located at the place of the natural waterway or place provided by the railroad company for the flow of the water, shall be borne by such railroad company without reimbursement therefor. The commissioners to assess benefits shall fix and determine the benefits to the property of the railroad company within the levee or drainage district and make return thereof with their regular return. Such special assessment shall be a debt due personally from the railroad company, and unless the same is paid by the railroad company as special assessment, it may be collected in the name of the county in any court having jurisdiction. All other proceedings in relation to railroads shall be the same as provided for individual property owners within the drainage district.

SEC. 4859. Construction across highway—interest on assessments.

Whenever such levee, ditch, drain or change of any natural watercourse crosses a public highway, necessitating the removal or the building or rebuilding of any bridge or bridges, the board of supervisors shall remove, build or rebuild such bridge or bridges, paying the costs and expenses thereof from the county bridge fund. Whenever any county or township highway within the levee or drainage district will be beneficially affected by the construction of any improvement or improvements in such district, it shall be the duty of the commissioners appointed to classify and assess benefits to determine and return in their report the amount of benefit to such highway, and notice thereof shall be served upon the clerk of the township in which said highway is located, as provided in the case of an individual property owner. The township trustees or clerk of such township may file objections to such assessment in the time and manner provided in case of landowners, and the trustees shall have the same right of appeal from the finding of the board with reference to the assessment on account of the benefits to such highway. One-fourth of such assessment shall be paid by the county from the county road fund, or from the county drainage fund, and three-fourths by the township. Such assessment may be paid by the township from its road fund, or out of a fund created for said purpose as provided in section two-hundred seventy. The amount finally assessed for benefits to highways shall draw interest at the same rate and from the same time as the assessment against lands.

SEC. 4860. Construction on or along highway.

Whenever a levee or drainage district shall have been established by the board and it shall become necessary or desirable that the levee, ditch, drain or improvement should be located and constructed within the limits of any public highway, on either or both sides and along the same, it shall be so built as not materially to interfere with the public travel thereon; and the board of supervisors shall have power and authority to lay out and establish public highways along and upon any levee or embankment along any ditch or drain built under the provisions of this chapter, provided that when so established the same shall be worked as other highways and so as not to impair the levee, ditch or drain.

SEC. 4861. Control—repairs—cost.

Whenever any levee or drainage district shall have been established and the improvement constructed as in this chapter provided, the same shall at all times be under the control and supervision of the board of supervisors, and it shall be the duty of the board to keep the same in repair, and for that purpose they may cause the same to be enlarged, reopened, deepened, widened, straightened or lengthened for a better outlet, and they may change or enlarge the same or cause all or any part thereof to be converted into a closed drain when considered for the best interests of the public rights affected thereby. The cost of such repairs or change shall be paid by the board from the drainage fund of said levee or drainage district, or by assessing and levying the cost of such change or repair upon the lands in the same proportion that the original expenses and cost of construction were levied and assessed, except where additional right of way is required or additional lands affected thereby, in either of which cases the board shall proceed as hereinbefore provided; provided, however, that if the repair is made necessary by the act or negligence of the owner of any land through which such improvement is constructed or by the act, or the negligence of his agent or employee, or if the same is filled and obstructed by the cattle, hogs or other stock of such owner, employee or agent, then the cost thereof shall be assessed and levied against the lands of such owner alone. Whenever any ditch, drain or watercourse which has been heretofore, or may be hereafter constructed by any drainage district shall become obstructed by the roots of trees or by the roots of osage orange, willow or any other hedge, it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors to repair the same and remove the cause of the obstruction; they may cause any tile drain so obstructed to be relaid in concrete or other protection, and they may, if deemed best, cause the trees or hedge causing such obstruction to be removed, and if said trees or hedge are not within the area of the right of way originally acquired for the construction of said improvement, and if said board can not agree with the owner thereof as to his damage for the destruction of said trees, they may proceed to acquire jurisdiction of said trees and the right to destroy and remove the same by the same proceedings as are provided for acquiring right of way for said drainage improvement in the first instance, and the owner shall have the same right of appeal from the award of damages made in said proceedings as is provided in section forty-eight hundred forty-one, and the damages, if any, allowed the owner, together with all other costs of said proceedings and repairs, shall be paid out of the drainage fund of such district.

SEC. 4862. Maintenance of levee—conditions—levy.

In any levee or drainage district which maintains a levee, the board or boards of supervisors shall have the right and power to keep up and maintain any such levees, ditches or drains, established under chapter one of this title, or in case of washout or other injury to enlarge or strengthen or increase the height of the same as may in their judgment be required; provided, however, that said work shall only be done or changes made upon the recommendation of a competent engeineer appointed by said board, and said board or boards of supervisors are empowered to levy the expense thereof upon the real estate within said drainage or levee district.

SEC. 4863. Alterations—notice.

If after the ordering of said repairs or improvements and before the completion thereof, it shall become apparent that the same should be enlarged, strengthened or otherwise changed or alteration in the location should be made for the better service thereof, said board or boards may by resolution authorize such change or changes in said improvement as the engineer may recommend, provided that when any changes are made, all persons whose lands shall be taken shall have been given notice as at the original establishment of said district and §§ 4864-4867. LEVEES, DITCHES AND WATERCOURSES. Tit. XV, Ch. 2.

9 have the right to be heard as to damages and appeal as in said chapter 10 provided at the original establishment.

SEC. 4864. Reclassifications.

1 When it shall be necessary to repair or strengthen or reopen said
2 levee, ditches or drains in any district maintaining a levee, and assess 3 the costs and damages therefor, and the board or boards shall find that 4 the original assessments are no longer equitable as a basis, then and 5 in that case they shall order a new classification of all the lands in said 6 district and thereupon the auditor shall appoint three persons, one of 7 whom shall be a competent civil engineer, and two of whom shall be 8 resident freeholders of the county, not living within the township or 9 townships where the improvement is or is to be located and not inter-10 ested therein nor related to any party whose land is affected thereby, 11 who shall, within twenty days after such appointment, personally in-12 spect and classify all the lands within said district according to the 13 benefits which said lands have received by the location and construc-14 tion of the improvement or the repairing or reopening of the same, 15 and they shall make an equitable apportionment on the costs, expenses, 16 cost of construction, fees and damages assessed for the construction of 17 said improvement or the repairing or reopening of the same and make 18 report thereof in writing to the board of supervisors and file the same
19 with the county auditor; and thereafter all the proceedings in reference 20 to notice and hearing and the confirming of said assessments shall be 21 as provided in chapter one of this title.

[37 G. A., ch. 302, § 3.]

SEC. 4865. Board of supervisors may relinquish jurisdiction—conditions.

1 Whenever heretofore the board of supervisors of any county has,
2 or may hereafter, establish any drainage district which is located
3 wholly within the incorporated limits of any city or town, and the drain 4 thereof having been wholly or partially constructed of sewer tile, or 5 whenever the ground that has been used for said drain is needed by 6 the city or town for sewer or other purposes, it shall be lawful for the 7 said board of supervisors to relinquish all authority or control of all 8 of said drain that is included within the incorporated limits of the city 9 or town to the city or town upon the request of the city or town council, 10 which request shall be made by resolution and certified to the board of 11 supervisors of the county.

SEC. 4866. Duty of supervisors.

1 Upon the request of the city or town council, as above provided,
2 it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors to pass a resolution and 3 have the same made a part of their proceedings relinquishing all au-4 thority and control of the drainage district which is within the incor-5 porated limits of the city or town to the said city or town.

SEC. 4867. Duty of council.

1 It is hereby made the duty of any city or town council, if it deem 2 the same for the best interest of the said city or town, to take over and control any drainage districts located within its incorporated limits, to pass, by a majority vote, a resolution requesting the board of supervisors to permit the city or town to take over and control the drains within its incorporated limits, which resolution shall be certified to the board of supervisors of the county and filed by the county auditor, who shall spread the same upon the records of the drainage district referred to.

SEC. 4868. Jurisdiction of municipality.

After the said drainage district has been taken over by the city or town, it shall have complete control and authority of all of the drainage district and drain so taken over, and may by resolution declare its use and use the same for any purpose that said city or town through its city or town council deem proper and necessary for the advancement of the city or town or its health or welfare, and the city or town shall be responsible for the maintenance and upkeep of said drainage district so taken over only from and after its relinquishment by the board of supervisors to the city or town as herein provided.

SEC. 4869. Pending litigation or proceedings.

Nothing shall prevent the board of supervisors from making and certifying assessments against the district for construction heretofore lawfully made or repairs thereon heretofore lawfully made on drains legally established.

SEC. 4870. Outlet for lateral drains—specifications.

The owner of any land, lot or premises that have been assessed for the payment of the cost of the location and construction of any ditch, drain or watercourse as hereinbefore provided, shall have the right to use the ditch, drain or watercourse as an outlet for lateral drains from said land, lot or premises. In making connections with the drainage improvements provided for in this chapter, care must be taken to so protect the drain or drains where such connection is made as to prevent damage thereto by washing out the banks or by permitting soil or silt to be carried into the public improvement, and to this end the board of supervisors may make specifications as to the manner in which all such connections shall be made.

If any person who owns land within the drainage district which has been assessed for benefits and which is separated from the ditch, drain or watercourse for which it has been assessed, by the land of another or others, shall desire to ditch or drain his said land across the land of such other or others into such ditch, drain or watercourse and shall be unable to agree with such other or others on the terms and conditions on which he may enter upon their lands and construct such drain or ditch, he may proceed in the manner in this section provided, and the ditch or drain which he shall construct or cause to be constructed shall be considered to be conducive to the public health, welfare, convenience and utility to promote which said drainage district was established. He may file his petition with the county auditor asking the board to establish a subdistrict within the limits of the original district for the purpose of securing more complete drainage, describing the lands to be affected thereby by metes and bounds or otherwise so as to convey an intelligible description of such lands; and the bond and all other proceedings shall be the same as herein provided for the establishment, formation and construction of original districts and improvement thereof, including the assessment of damages and the assessment of benefits, and when established and constructed, it shall be and become a part of the drainage system of such drainage district and be under the control and supervision of the board of supervisors.

SEC. 4872. Enlargement of watercourse or stream.

When two or more districts shall have their outlet or discharge into the same natural watercourse or stream and it shall become necessary to deepen or enlarge said natural watercourse or stream, each district shall be assessed for the cost of such work in the same ratio to such total cost as the discharge of waters of such district bears to the combined discharge of waters of the several districts emptying into said natural watercourse or stream; but no district shall be liable to contribute for any improvement or costs and expenses incurred in improving said natural watercourse or stream above the point of discharge of the waters of such district into the same.

SEC. 4873. New levee or drainage districts.

If any levee, drainage district or improvement heretofore established, either by legal proceedings or by private parties, or which may hereafter be established, shall prove insufficient to protect or drain all of the lands necessarily tributary thereto, the board of supervisors, upon petition therefor as for the establishment of an original levee or drainage district, shall have the power and authority to establish a new levee or drainage district covering and including such old district or improvement, together with any additional lands deemed necessary; and whenever a new district shall be established as contemplated in this section and the new improvement shall extend into or along the former improvement, the commissioners of classification and benefits shall take into consideration the value of such old improvement in the construction of the new improvement and credit the same to the parties owning the old improvement as their interests may appear.

SEC. 4874. Special assessment — how paid — improvement certificates — waivers.

The special assessment for benefits made by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, as corrected and approved by the board of supervisors, shall be levied at one time by the board against the property so benefited, and when levied and certified shall be payable at the office of the county treasurer. If the owner of any parcel of land, lot or premises against which any such levy shall have been made and certified, which is embraced in any certificate provided for in this section, shall within thirty days from the date of such assessment promise and agree in writing indorsed upon such certificate, or in a separate agreement, that in consideration of having the right to pay his assessment in installments, he will not make any objection of illegality or irregularity as to the assessment of benefits, or levy of such tax upon and against his property, but will pay said assessment with interest thereon at such rate not exceeding six per centum per annum as shall be prescribed by resolution of the board, such tax so levied against the land, lot or premises of such owner shall be payable in not less than ten nor more than twenty equal installments, the first of which, with interest on the whole assessment, shall mature and be payable on the date of such assessment, and the others with interest on the whole amount unpaid annually thereafter at the same time and in the same manner as the March semiannual payment of ordinary taxes, but the foregoing provision as to payment in installments shall not apply to assessments of twenty dollars or less on a single lot or tract of land; but where no such terms and agreement in writing shall be made by the owner of any land, lot or premises, then the whole of said special assessment, so levied upon and against the property of such owner, shall mature at one time and be due and payable with interest from the date of such assessment, and shall be collected at the next succeeding March semiannual payment of ordinary taxes. All of such tax with interest shall become delinquent on the first day of March next after its maturity and shall bear the same interest with the same penalties as ordinary taxes. And the board may provide by resolution for the issuance of improvement certificates, payable to bearer or to the contractors who have constructed the said improvement or completed part thereof within the meaning of this chapter in payment or part payment therefor, each of which certificates shall state the amount of one or more assessments or part thereof made against the property, designating it and the owners thereof liable to assessments for the cost of same, and said certificate may be negotiated. Such certificates shall transfer to the bearer, contractor or assigns all right and interest in and to the tax in every such assessment or part thereof described therein, and shall authorize such bearer, contractor or assignee to collect and receive every assessment embraced in said certificate, by or through any of the methods provided by law for their collection, as the same mature. Such certificates shall bear interest not to exceed six per centum per annum, payable annually, and shall be paid by the taxpayer to the county treasurer who shall receipt for the same and cause the amount paid to be applied to the payment of the certificate issued therefor; provided that any person shall have the right to pay the full amount of the tax so levied against his property, together with interest thereon to date of payment, at any time he desires so to do, even before the maturity of any certificates issued therefor. No certificate shall be issued or negotiated for the use of the drainage district for less than par value with accrued interest up to the delivery or transfer thereof. Should the costs of such work exceed the amount of benefits assessed and certificates issued, a new apportionment and levy of tax may be made and other certificates issued in like manner. If the board of supervisors provides for the issuance of improvement certificates by the owners of lands, the township trustees may execute waivers, and there may be issued improvement certificates for such part of the assessment for benefits to highways as is to be paid by the township,

63 such waivers and certificates to conform as nearly as may be to those 64 executed upon the assessments against lands.

[S., '13, § 1989-a26; 37 G. A., ch. 344, § 5; 38 G. A., ch. 64,

/SEC. 4875. Drainage bonds—benefits to highways included.

1 If the board of supervisors shall determine that the estimated
2 cost of reclamation and improvement of such district of land is greater
3 than should be levied in a single year upon the lands benefited, instead 4 of issuing improvement certificates as provided in the preceding sec-
5 tion, it may fix the amount that shall be levied and collected each year 6 and may issue drainage bonds of the county, bearing not more than 7 six per centum annual interest and payable semiannually in the pro-8 portions and at the times when such taxes shall have been collected, 9 and may devote the same at par, with accrued interest, to the payment 10 of the work as it progresses or may sell the same at not less than par, 11 with accrued interest, and devote the proceeds to such payment; and 12 if in the sale of said bonds a premium is received, such premium shall 13 be credited to the drainage fund, and should the cost of such work 14 exceed the estimate, or should the proceeds of the tax when collected 15 be insufficient to pay the principal and interest of bonds sold, a new 16 apportionment of the tax may be made and other bonds issued and 17 sold in like manner, to meet such excess of cost or shortage in the pro-18 ceeds of tax, but in no case shall the bonds run longer than not more 19 than twenty years. Provided, however, that no assessments of twenty 20 dollars or less on a single lot or tract shall be included in such bond 21 issue and such sums shall be collected as provided in the preceding 22 section, at the next succeeding March semiannual payment of ordinary 23 taxes; provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent owners 24 of such lots or tracts to take advantage of the provisions of section 25 forty-eight hundred fifty-one, providing for payment in three install-26 ments. Any property owner may pay the full amount of the benefit 27 assessed against his property before such bonds are issued and receive 28 a receipt in full therefor. Such payment shall be made to the county 29 treasurer, and it shall be the duty of the county auditor to certify to 30 the treasurer the amount of any such assessment when requested to 31 do so, and the treasurer shall enter the same upon the tax lists in his 32 hands in a separate place provided therefor, and shall furnish the au-33 ditor with duplicate receipts given for all assessments so paid in full.
34 The terms and times of payment of the bonds so issued shall be fixed 35 by the board. Said bonds shall be issued for the benefit of the dis-36 trict numbered thereon and each district shall be numbered by the 37 board of supervisors and recorded by the auditor, said record showing 38 specifically the lands embraced in said district and upon which the 39 tax has not been previously paid in full. In no case shall the amount 40 of bonds exceed the benefits assessed. Each bond issued shall show 41 expressly upon its face that it is to be paid only by a tax assessed, 42 levied and collected on the lands within the district so designated and 43 numbered, and for the benefit of which district such bond is issued;
44 nor shall any tax be levied or collected for the payment of said bond 45 or bonds, or the interest thereon, on any property outside the district 46 so numbered, designated and benefited. When the board of super-47 visors shall provide for the issuance of drainage bonds, it shall deter-48 mine what part, if any, of the amount assessed for the benefits to 49 highways shall be included in such bond issue, and such part, with 50 interest, shall be paid out of the proper funds in the same yearly 51 proportion and at the same times as the assessments against the lands 52 of private owners.

[S., '13, § 1989-a27; 37 G. A., ch. 344, § 6; 38 G. A., ch. 64,

SEC. 4876. Establishment when owners mutually agree.

Owners of land which requires combined drainage may provide for the establishment of a drainage district or location and construction of drains, ditches and watercourses upon their own lands by mutual agreement in writing duly signed, acknowledged and filed with the county auditor; such agreement may include the location, the character of the work to be done, the adjustment of the damages, the classification of the lands to be benefited thereby, the amount of taxes or special assessments to be levied, when the same shall be levied, or so many of these or other provisions as may be agreed upon, and to such extent shall be as valid and binding as though performed in the mode and manner provided for in this chapter. Upon the filing of the agreement with the county auditor, the board of supervisors shall at the next session thereafter establish such drainage district, and locate the ditch, drain or watercourse provided for in said mutual agreement according to the terms thereof, and shall thereafter have full and complete jurisdiction of the parties and subject matter, and order such procedure under the provisions of this chapter as may be required or necessary to carry out the object, purpose and intent of such agreement and to complete and construct the desired improvement and shall retain jurisdiction of the same as fully as in other cases made and provided for in this chapter.

SEC. 4877. Establishment through two or more counties—voting powers of boards of supervisors equalized.

When the desired levee or drainage district extends into or through two or more counties and embraces land in two or more counties, the petition of one or more owners of land to be affected or benefited by such improvement shall be presented to the county auditor of each county into or through which said levee or drainage dis-circuit will extend, accompanied by a bond to be filed with the county auditor of each of the said counties at the time of filing such petition, conditioned as provided when the district is wholly within one county, in an amount and with sureties satisfactory to and approved by the board of supervisors. Upon the presentation of such petition and the approval of such bond, the board of supervisors of each of said coun-dies shall appoint a commissioner, and the commissioners of the sev-cal counties thus appointed shall meet within thirty days thereafter and appoint a competent engineer, and such commissioners and engineer shall together make a survey of the entire lands embraced in the district, and shall determine what improvement or improvements in the way of levees, drains, ditches or changing of natural watercourses are necessary for the reclamation of the lands described in the said petition; the engineer shall make a plat of all of the lands of said district, showing thereon the proposed improvements, the elevations and levels of said lands, so far as he may deem necessary, and a profile of said levee, drains, ditches or changes in any natural watercourse and shall file a copy in the auditor's office of each of said counties, together with a full return of said commissioners and engineers explaining the situation, describing the lands, the improvements, what effect said improvements will have upon the lands of said district, the course and length of any levee, drain, ditch or change of any natural watercourse through each tract of land, the estimated cost of the same, the dimensions of said improvement, together with the names of the owners of all lands included within said district, as shown by the transfer books in the auditor's office, and which in their opinion will be affected or benefited thereby, together with such other facts and recommendations as to them shall seem advisable, and especially whether or not in their judgment such levee or drainage district should be established. Immediately upon the filing of such return, plat and profile, if such recommends the establishment of the levee or drainage district, each county auditor of said counties shall cause the owners of the lands, as shown by the transfer books in the auditor's office, and also the person in actual occupancy of any lots or lands in the district, and also each lienholder or incumbrancer, as shown by the county records, of any land through or abutting upon which the proposed improvement extends, to be notified of the time and place where the boards of the several counties will meet in joint session for the consideration of said petition and return. Such notice shall be the same and served in the same time and manner as provided in this chapter when the levee or drainage district is wholly within one county. When the boards of supervisors are of unequal number, each member of the board of the smallest number of members shall cast a full vote, and each member of any larger board shall cast such fractional part of a full vote as may be determined by making the smallest number of the membership of any board the numerator and the number of the membership of any such larger board entitled to vote the denominator of such fraction, so as to equalize the voting power of each board.

SEC. 4878. Claims for damages—where filed.

Any person claiming damages as compensation for, or on account of, the construction of such improvement shall file his claim in writing therefor in the office of the county auditor of the county in which his land is situated, at least five days prior to the time at which the petition has been set for hearing, and on failure to file such claims at the time specified shall be held to have waived his right thereto.

SEC. 4879. Hearing—appraisers.

At the time set for hearing such petition the boards of the several counties shall meet at the place designated in said notice and sit jointly in considering the petition and proceed in the same manner as provided in section forty-eight hundred forty, except that if it becomes necessary to appoint appraisers, the boards of supervisors acting jointly shall appoint one appraiser from each county, and if said levee or drainage district extends into or through only two counties then the two appraisers shall choose a third, each of whom shall have like qualifications as provided where the improvement is wholly within one county and they shall then proceed in the same manner and make the same return as provided in section forty-eight hundred forty-one, except that a copy thereof shall be filed in the auditor's office of each of the several counties. After the filing of the report of such appraisers the further proceedings of the boards of supervisors acting jointly shall be the same as in this chapter provided where the levee or drainage district is wholly within one county, so far as applicable, except as herein otherwise provided.

SEC. 4880. Assessment of costs and damages—improvement certificates—bonds.

If the boards of supervisors, acting jointly, shall establish the levee or drainage district, they shall appoint a commission, one of whom shall be selected from each county, and in addition thereto a competent engineer, each of whom shall have the same qualifications as provided where the district is wholly within one county; and said commission shall within twenty days go upon and view the premises and begin the work of classifying the same as hereinbefore provided where the district is wholly within one county, and in addition thereto shall make an equitable apportionment of the costs, expenses, costs of construction, fees and damages assessed for the construction of such improvement or of the repairing or reopening the same, and make report thereof as provided where the improvement is wholly within one county, except a copy of said report shall be filed with each of the several county auditors. Immediately upon the filing of such report the several county auditors, acting jointly, shall cause notice to be served of the time when and the place where the boards of supervisors will meet and consider such report, which notice shall be the same and served in the same time and manner, and all proceedings thereon shall be the same as provided where the district is wholly within one county, except that the objections not filed prior to the day of the hearing shall be filed with the boards of supervisors at the place where the hearing is to be held, and except after the amount to be assessed and levied against the several parcels or tracts of land shall have been apportioned and finally determined, the several boards of supervisors, acting separately, and within their own counties, shall proceed to levy and collect the taxes thus apportioned in the same manner as provided where the district is wholly within one county, and they may issue improvement certificates or may sell bonds for the full amount of the benefits apportioned to such county.

SEC. 4881. Letting work.

If the boards of supervisors, acting jointly, shall establish such levee or drainage district, the auditors of the several counties shall immediately thereafter, acting jointly, cause notice to be given of the time and place of the meeting of the boards for letting the contract or contracts for the construction of the improvement. The notices, bond and all other proceedings in relation to letting the contract or contracts shall be the same as in this chapter provided where the district is wholly within one county, except that the several boards shall act jointly.

2. boards of supervisors shall appoint a competent engineer to have
3. charge of the construction of the work, and they shall fix his com-

5. charge of said work, give bond to the counties for the use and benefit
6. of the levee or drainage district, approved by the boards of supervisors
7. in such sum as they may direct, conditioned for the faithful discharge
8. of his duties. The engineer in charge of the work shall furnish the
9. contractor monthly estimates of the amount of work done on each
10. section and the amount due from each county, a duplicate of which
11. shall be filed with the auditor of each of the several counties. Upon
12. the filing of such statement each auditor shall draw a warrant or
13. deliver to him improvement certificates, as the case may be, in favor of 14. the contractor for eighty per centum of the amount due from his
15. respective county. When said improvement is completed to the satis-
16. faction of the engineer in charge and accepted by the boards of super-
17. visors, the engineer shall certify such fact to the several county
18. auditors and each county auditor shall draw a warrant in favor of

1. Any person or persons aggrieved shall have the right to appeal
2. in the same time and in the same manner as provided when the dis-

4. action of the boards in establishing the levee or drainage district,
5. such appeal may be taken to the district court of either county in
6. which the district or some part thereof is located. If said appeal is
7. from the award of damages or assessment of benefits the appeal shall
8. be taken to the district court of the county in which the land affected
9. is located. Notice of appeal and bond shall be given to and filed with 10. the county auditor in the county where the appeal is taken.

SEC. 4884. District court to establish—when.

1. Whenever the establishment of a levee or drainage district,
2. extending into or through two or more counties, is petitioned for as
3. hereinbefore provided and one or more of such boards of supervisors
4. neglect, fail or refuse to take action thereon, the petitioner or peti-
5. tioners may cause notice in writing to be served upon the chairman of
6. such board or boards, demanding that action be taken upon the prayer
7. of the petition within twenty days from and after the service of such
8. notice; and if such board or boards shall neglect, fail or refuse to take
9. action thereon within the time named, or if such action is taken and
10. the boards of supervisors can not agree as to the proper determina-
11. tion thereof, the petitioner or petitioners may cause such proceedings
12. to be transferred to the district court of either of the counties into or
13. through which such proposed district, or some part thereof, extends
14. by serving notice upon the auditors of the several counties within ten
15. days after the expiration of the time fixed by the notice, served upon
16. the chairman of the board or boards, or within ten days after the 17. failure of such boards to agree. Upon such notice being given, the auditors shall, acting jointly, prepare and certify to the clerk of the district court a full and complete transcript of all proceedings had in such case, on or before the first day of the next succeeding term of said court. The clerk of the district court shall thereupon docket the case and the same shall be tried as in equity and the appearance term

SEC. 4885. Special sessions of boards of supervisors.

Whenever the district is located in two or more counties, the boards of supervisors shall have power and authority to adjourn from time to time and meet in special session and in all cases shall have the same jurisdiction, power and authority as provided where the improvement is wholly within one county, and all proceedings shall be the same so far as applicable and not herein otherwise provided, except that the board of supervisors of one county shall have jurisdiction to establish a subdrainage district of lands included within a joint drainage district when the lands to compose said subdistrict lie wholly within such county, and to make improvements therein, repair and maintain the same, fix and levy assessments for the payment thereof, and to do the like for all drainage subdistricts heretofore established, the lands of which lie wholly within one county.

SEC. 4886. Cities and towns may be included—benefits assessed—notice—objections—appeal.

The board of supervisors shall have the same power, right and authority to establish a levee or drainage district that includes the acting under special charters, as they have to establish districts as hereinbefore provided, and they shall have the same power, right and authority with respect to the assessment of damages and benefits within such towns or cities as they have in other cases provided for in establishment of such district and the apportionment and assessment of damages and benefits shall be given as is required by this chapter to be given to owners of property damaged or benefited by the estab-

alleys, public ways or parks of any incorporated town or city, or city acting under special charter, so included within a levee or drainage district, will be beneficially affected by the construction of any improvement or improvements in such district, it shall be the duty of the commissioners appointed to classify and assess benefits to determine and return in their report the amount of benefit to such streets, alleys, public ways and parks, and notice thereof shall be served upon the clerk of such incorporated town or city, or city acting under special charter, and the town or city council, or clerk of such town or city, may file objections to such assessment in the time and manner provided in case of landowners, and the town or city council shall have the same right to appeal from the finding of the board with reference to such an assessment, and such assessment, as finally established, shall draw interest at the same rate and from the same time as the assessments against lands, and the board of supervisors and the town or city council shall have the same power and authority in reference to issuing improvement certificates or drainage bonds and executing waivers on account of such assessment for benefits to streets, alleys, public ways and parks as is herein conferred upon the board of super-

2 state and no practicable or feasible outlet can be obtained except 3 through the lands of an adjoining state, the board of supervisors of 4 such county shall have power and authority to purchase a right of 5 way for such outlet in such adjoining state and pay for the same out 6 of the funds of such district.

7 cost and expense incurred in watching or repairing such levee, and the 8 same shall be audited and allowed by the board as other claims and 9 demands, and the amount or amounts so allowed shall be paid by the 10 county from the funds belonging to such levee district. If there are 11 no funds on hand belonging to such district, the same shall be paid in 12 the first instance by the county from the general fund, and the 13 board shall proceed to assess and levy a tax upon the lands in such 14 district, which assessment and levy shall be apportioned to each tract 15 of land in the same ratio that the original cost thereof was appor-16 tioned, and when collected the auditor shall draw a warrant thereon in 17 favor of the county for the sum or sums so paid from the county funds.

SEC. 4890. Fees and expenses.
1 Any engineer employed under the provisions of this chapter shall 2 receive such compensation per diem as shall be fixed and determined 3 by the board of supervisors. Appraisers of damages and commission-

5 pensation as the board of supervisors may allow, not to exceed five 6 dollars per day each, and all other fees and costs required under the 7 provisions of this chapter shall be the same as provided by law for like 8 services in other cases. Such costs and expenses shall be paid by the 9 order of the board of supervisors out of the county treasury from the 10 levee or drainage funds collected for that purpose upon warrants drawn by the county auditor. And the amount of fees for publica-

3 and in the same manner as taxes levied for county and state purposes.
[S., '13, § 1989-a45.]

SEC. 4894. Defects in proceedings.
1 The provisions of this chapter shall be liberally construed to promote the leveeing, ditching, draining and reclamation of wet, overflow 3 or agricultural lands; the collection of the assessments shall not be 4 defeated, where the proper notices have been given, by reason of any 5 defect in the proceedings occurring prior to the order of the board of 6 supervisors locating and establishing the levee, ditch, drain or change 7 of natural watercourse provided for in this chapter, but such order or 8 orders shall be conclusive and final that all prior proceedings were 9 regular and according to law unless they were appealed from. But if 10 upon appeal the court shall deem it just and proper to release any 11 person or modify his assessment or liability, it shall in no manner 12 affect the rights or liability of any person other than the appellant; 13 and the failure to appeal from the order of the board of supervisors of which complaint is made shall be a waiver of any illegality in the procceedings, and the remedies provided for in this chapter shall exclude all other remedies.

board of supervisors of said county (or counties if there be more than one) are hereby authorized to pay all necessary preliminary expenses in connection with said drainage district, out of the general county fund of said county, or if there be more than one county from the general county fund of each of the counties included in said district in such proportion as the work done or expense created in each county bears to the whole amount of work done or expense created, said amounts to be determined by the engineer in charge of the work, and they shall replace the same to the credit of the county fund of said county or counties as their interests may appear as soon as possible after the drainage district is established, or if said district be not established, then said amounts shall be paid from the proceeds of the bond deposited with the county auditor for that purpose, as provided system for the establishment and maintenance of a pumping station or stations, when and where the same may be necessary to secure a proper outlet for the drainage of the land comprising the said district or any portion thereof, and the cost of construction and maintenance of said pumping station or stations, shall be levied upon and collected from the lands in the drainage or levee district, or the lands benefited by such pumping station or stations, in the same manner as provided for in the construction and maintenance of ditches or drains or levees in this chapter; provided that such pumping station or stations shall not be established or maintained unless a petition therefor shall be presented to the board of supervisors signed by not less than one-

by such pumping station or stations shall be determined by the board of supervisors on the report of the engineer, nor shall additional land be taken into any such drainage district after the improvements therein have been substantially completed, unless thirty-three and SEC. 4899. Drainage districts—pumping stations.

After the establishment of a drainage district, including a pumping plant, and before the completion of the drainage improvement therein, the board or boards of supervisors may, if deemed necessary to more effectively drain the lands in said district and fully accomplish the purposes of said improvement, by resolution, authorize the establishment and maintenance of such additional pumping station or stations as the engineer may recommend, and if a petition shall be filed by one-third of the owners of land within such district asking the establishment of such additional pumping plant or plants, the board or boards must direct the engineer to investigate the advisability of the establishment thereof and upon the report of said engineer the board or boards shall proceed to determine whether such additional pumping plant or plants shall be established. If the board or boards determine that additional pumping plant or plants shall be established and maintained a pump or pumps may be removed from any pumping station already established and may be installed in any such additional plant, if such removal can be made without injuring the efficient operation of the plant from which removed. The cost of the establishment of such additional pumping plant or plants shall be paid in the same manner and upon the same basis as is provided for the cost of the original improvement.

SEC. 4899. Districts—engineer—jurisdiction of board.

Whenever a drainage district has been created and more than one pumping plant is established therein, the board or boards of supervisors may, and upon petition of one-third of the owners of land within said district, shall appoint an engineer to determine the advisability of dividing said district into two or more districts so as to include at least one pumping plant in each of such districts. If the engineer recommends such division, the board of supervisors shall fix a time for hearing upon the question of such division and shall publish notice directed to all whom it may concern of the time and place of such hearing, which notice shall be published for the time and in the manner as is required for the publication of notice of the establishment of said district, except that said notice need not name the owners and lienholders but shall be sufficient if directed as above provided. At the time fixed, the board shall determine the advisability of such division and shall make such order with reference thereto as shall be deemed proper, having consideration for the interests of all concerned. If such division is made, the board or boards having jurisdiction of the original district shall retain jurisdiction of the new districts created by such division for the purpose of collecting assessments theretofore made and for the purpose of making such additional assessments as are necessary to pay the obligations theretofore contracted and for paying debts theretofore contracted. For all other purposes, each division shall be under the jurisdiction of the board or boards of supervisors which would have had jurisdiction thereof if originally established as an independent district, the same as though originally established by such board or boards.

SEC. 4901. Settling basin—channel—board to provide.

If before a district operating a pumping plant is completed, or if after such district shall have been completed and accepted, it develops or appears that portions of the lands within said district are caused to be wet or nonproductive by reason of the floods or overflow waters from some stream running into, through or along said district and that said district or some other district of which this district shall have formed a part, shall have constructed or provided a settling basin to care for the said floods and overflow waters of said stream or watercourse, but no channel to said settling basin has been provided, said board or boards of supervisors may and are hereby empowered to lease, buy or condemn the necessary lands within or without the said district to provide said channel to said settling basin, and if necessary to condemn the said lands to provide said channel the proceedings shall be as provided by this chapter and sections twenty-eight hundred fifty-seven and eighty-seven hundred thirty-eight.

5 the same shall be necessary to secure a proper outlet for the lands 6 comprising the district, and the costs of construction and mainte-7 nance of such pumping station or plant shall be levied upon and col-8 lected from the lands in the drainage district in the same manner as 9 provided for the construction and maintenance of ditches as provided

11 the signatures of fifty per cent of the landowners of such district.

SEC. 4905. Pumping stations and levees — management by trustees—petition.

1 In all drainage or levee districts having or operating a pumping 2 station or maintaining a levee, or both, heretofore established, or 3 which may hereafter be established under the laws of the state of 4 Iowa, at any time after the completion of the contract for the original 5 construction has been accepted by the board of supervisors, any three 6 or more persons who own land within the district which has been 7 assessed for benefits may file in the office of the county auditor of 8 the county or counties in which the district is located a petition signed 9 by a majority of the persons owning land within the district which 10 has been assessed for benefits, asking that said district be placed

The owner of each tract of land over twenty-one years of age, without regard to sex, and any railroad or corporation owning property in said district and assessed for benefits, shall be entitled to at least one vote; provided, however, that if a petition asking for the right to vote in proportion to their assessment at all elections for any purpose thereafter to be held within said district, signed by sixty percent of the landowners owning land within said district is presented to said trustees, then in all elections thereafter, held within said district under the provisions of this chapter, anyone whose land is assessed for benefits in a sum exceeding ten dollars, without regard to age, sex or condition, shall be entitled to one vote for each ten dollars of the original assessment for benefits against the land actually owned by him in said district at the time of the election and which has been assessed for benefits in said district, but in order to have his ballot counted for more than one vote, he shall write his name upon his ballot. The vote of any resident of a county in which the district is located, in whole or in part, must be cast in person. The vote of any person or corporation, including railroads owning land or right of way lying wholly or in part within the district as located and established, may have his or its vote cast by some resident taxpayer of the district or agent of such railroad or corporation who is authorized by a power of attorney signed and acknowledged by such non-resident landowner or duly authorized officer of such railroad or corporation to cast the vote for him, but the power of attorney in such case shall be filed with the county auditor, at least five days prior to the election at which it is to be effective. The trustees shall have control and supervision of said district with all of the same powers that are now conferred on the board or boards of supervisors for the control or supervision of drainage and levee districts under the drainage and levee laws of Iowa, and they shall promptly and faithfully look after all of the business of the district. If a reclassification and readjustment of the assessments of property or any important change of the district shall be deemed advisable by the said trustees, they shall submit the question of the reclassification and readjustment of the assessments of property, or change of district to the vote of the electors of said district by ballot, at the next regular election of trustees, or they shall have the power to demand a special election therefor. Should the proposition receive the sanction of the majority of the voters at said election, then the trustees shall proceed in the same manner in the reclassification and readjustment of the assessments as are now provided for governing the actions of the board or boards of supervisors. All costs and expense necessary to carry out the powers and duties hereby conferred upon said trustees shall be levied and collected upon the land in said district in the same manner as the same are now levied and collected, upon certificate by the trustees to the board or boards of county supervisors of the amount necessary therefor. The said trustees shall have power to issue drainage or levee bonds when necessary, said bonds to be approved by a judge of the district court of the county or counties in which said district lies. The said trustees shall have power, if in their judgment, it is necessary to employ a clerk for said district, and to fix his compensation. Sec. 4913. Additional lands—procedure for annexation.

After the original establishment of a drainage district, as in this chapter provided, if the said board is satisfied that additional lands should be included within any drainage district, and that said lands are benefited by the improvement therein, and that said lands have been included in said original district, then, in such case, the board may order the engineer to make a plat of said lands, with the elevations thereof, and report thereon; and thereupon, if said report be in favor of including additional lands, which shall be particularly described in the report, said board shall proceed in such matter as to said proposed annexed territory as in the original establishing of such district, including the fixing and levying of the special tax for benefits, and thereafter the said annexed territory shall be a part of said district, and governed in all respects as lands within the original district; or said annexation may be made and brought under the jurisdiction of the board for all of said purposes upon the petition of the owners of all the lands to be annexed.

Sec. 4914. Outlet—acquisition of land for outside limits of county—procedure.

In any case where the necessary outlet of any proposed drainage district is beyond the limits of the county wherein such district is projected, and in the judgment of the board of supervisors expense will be saved such district by avoiding joint proceedings with such adjoining county and by proceeding as hereinafter authorized or whenever after establishment of any district it is found necessary to extend the main ditch beyond the limits of such district as established, in order to secure proper outlet therefor, the board of supervisors shall have power to so extend such outlet and to use the general funds of the district for such purposes; and generally such board of supervisors shall have full power to treat with and to make fair and equitable agreements with any landowner, any other drainage district, ditching organization, corporation or association within this state, whether the same may be acting under this or any other law, touching any work in which such district may be interested, or which may facilitate the flow of the waters from the lands within such district or the flow of waters from the lands lying above said district, through the ditches of such district. Where such drainage district shall find it necessary to acquire real estate for such outlet purposes the board of supervisors may proceed in the county where said real estate is located to con-amount of the contract price for which no warrants shall have been issued at the time of the filing of said claim. Such claim shall be made by filing with the county auditor an itemized sworn statement of the demand at any time after the performance of the labor or furnishing of the material, but within thirty days from and after the completion of the contract, and such claims shall have priority in the order in they or either of them be liable for the payment of the same before the time provided for in the principal contract.

SEC. 4916. Adjudication—attorney's fee.

Any party in interest may cause an adjudication of the amount, priority and mode and time of payment of such claims by an equi-

the court may assess a reasonable attorney's fee against the party failing, in favor of said drainage district or county.

[S., '13, § 1989-a58.]

The contractor may at any time release such claim by filing with the county auditor of the county in which the drainage ditch is located, a bond for the benefit of such claimant in sufficient penalty and with sureties to be approved by said county auditor, conditioned for the payment of any sum which may be found due such claimant. Such contractor may prevent the filing of such claims by filing in a like manner a bond conditioned for the payment of persons who may be entitled to file such claims. And actions may be brought on any such bond by any claimant within one year after his cause of action ac-crues, and judgment shall be rendered on said bond for the amount due such claimant.

SEC. 4933. Interstate drainage—cooperation with authorities of sister state—procedure.
1 Whenever proceedings for the drainage of lands within this
2 state and bordering upon the state line are had and the total cost,
3 including all damage, of constructing the improvement in this state
4 has been ascertained by the authorities of this state, and the engineer 5 in charge, before the final establishment of the district, reports that 6 the establishment and construction of such improvements ought to be 7 jointly constructed with like proceedings for the drainage of adjoining 8 lands in an adjoining state and that drainage proceedings are 9 pending in such adjoining state for the drainage of such adjoining
10 lands, then and in that case the said authorities of this state may enter 11 an order continuing the hearing on the establishment of such district to the named date, of which all parties shall take notice, but 12 shall have power, whenever the total cost, including damages, of constructing the improvement in such other state has been ascertained
13 by the authorities of such other state, to enter into an arrangement
14 or tentative agreement as to the separate amounts which the authorities of each state should in equity pay toward the construction of the 15 joint undertaking. When such amount is thus determined, the authorities of this state shall enter the same in the minutes of their proceedings and shall proceed therewith as though such amount had been 16 originally determined by them as the cost of constructing the improvement in this state.
17 When the bids for construction are opened, unless the construction work on each side of the line can go forward independently and 18 without undue friction when let to contractors, no contract shall be 19 let by the authorities in this state, unless by joint conference of the 20 authorities of both states, the acceptance of a bid or bids for the construction of the whole project is first jointly agreed upon, but the 21 contract or contracts for the construction of that portion of the improvement within this state shall be entirely distinct and separate 22 from the contract or contracts let by the authorities of the neighboring state; provided that the contract or contracts for the construction 23 of the work within this state shall not exceed an amount equal to the 24 amount of the benefits assessed in this state less the damages allowed 25 in this state and less the incidental expenses in this state.

SEC. 4934. Conditions precedent to letting contract or issuing bonds.

1 No contract shall be let until the improvement shall be conditionally and finally established in both states, and after final adjustment in both states of damages and benefits both as between individuals and lands. No bonds shall be issued until all litigation in both states arising out of said proceedings has been finally terminated by actual trial and hearing, or by the expiration of all right of appeal.

SEC. 4994. Appraisement—appeal.

The landowner shall be plaintiff and the corporation defendant.

SEC. 4995. Deposit—acceptance.
An appeal shall not delay the prosecution of work upon said railway, if said corporation pays or deposits with the sheriff the amount assessed. Should the corporation decline to take the property and pay the damages awarded on final determination of the appeal, then it shall pay, in addition to the costs and damages actually suffered by the landowner, reasonable attorney's fees, to be taxed by the court.

1 If, on the trial of the appeal, the damages awarded by the commissioners are increased, the corporation shall pay or deposit with the sheriff the whole amount of damages awarded before entering on or using or controlling the premises. The sheriff, upon being furnished with a certified copy of the assessment, may remove said corporation, and all persons acting for or under it, from said premises, unless the amount of the assessment is forthwith paid or deposited with him.

Nothing in this section shall give the corporation the right to change the course of any stream or watercourse where such right does not otherwise exist, nor to turn such stream or watercourse off from any cultivated meadow, or pasture lands, when it only touches such lands at one point, unless the owner or owners thereof consent to such diversion.

railway has been commenced and work on the same has ceased and has not, in good faith, been resumed for more than five years, and remains unfinished; or where any portion of any such railway has not been operated for four consecutive years, and the rails and rolling stock have been wholly removed therefrom; it shall be treated as abandoned, and all rights of the person or corporation constructing or operating any such railway, over so much as remains unfinished or from which the rails and rolling stock have been wholly removed, may be entered upon and appropriated as provided in the next section. If the railway or any part thereof shall not be used or operated for a period of eight years, or if, its construction having been commenced, work on the same has ceased and has not been in good faith resumed for eight years, the right of way, including the roadbed, shall revert to the owner of the land from which said right of way was taken.

[C., '73, § 1260; C., '97, § 2015.]

SEC. 5001. Condemning abandoned right of way.

In case of abandonment, as provided in the preceding section, any other corporation may enter upon such abandoned work, or any part thereof, and acquire the right of way over the same, and the right to any unfinished work or grading found thereon, and the title thereto, by proceeding as near as may be in the manner provided in this chapter; but parties who have previously received compensation in any form for the right of way on the line of such abandoned railway, which has not been refunded by them, shall not be permitted to recover the second time. The value of such roadbed and right of way, excluding the work done thereon, when taken for a new company, shall be assessed for the benefit of the former company or its legal representative.

[C., '73, § 1261; C., '97, § 2016.]

SEC. 5002. Raising or lowering highways for crossings—railroad commission shall adjust disagreements.

Any such corporation may raise or lower any turnpike, plank road, or other road, for the purpose of having its railroad cross over or under the same, and, in such cases, such corporation shall put such road, as soon as may be, in as good repair and condition as before such alteration. Wherever a railroad now crosses an established highway or when a new railroad crosses an established highway, or when it is desired to locate a new highway across an established railroad, or when it is desired, by any citizen of or the board of supervisors of any county or by the township trustees of any township, or by any railroad company operating a railroad in this state, for the safety of the public using such highway, to change, alter, relocate, or vacate an established highway, where same crosses a railroad, and the railroad company and the board of supervisors of the county or township trustees of any township in which such highway crossing is located can not agree in respect thereto, the board of railroad commissioners of this state, upon application of either the board of supervisors or township trustees of any township or of twenty-five freeholders of said county, or the railroad company interested, are authorized and empowered, after hearing upon reasonable notice, to determine the necessity for such crossings, location thereof, whether the same shall be at grade or otherwise, the manner in which the same shall be constructed, maintained, or changed, division of expense thereof, and generally to Eminence Domain.

§§ 5003-5006.

23 make such orders in respect thereto as are equitable and just, includ-24 ing the right to require condemnation proceedings to be instituted by 25 the board of supervisors as may be necessary to carry out such order; 26 providing, however, that any portion of such expense that is borne by 27 any city, town, county, state, or other public body, shall forever be 28 considered as held in trust by said railroad company receiving same, 29 and no part of the same shall be considered a part of the value of the 30 properties of said railroad company upon which it is entitled to 31 receive a return.

[R., '60, § 1321; C., '73, § 1262; C., '97, § 2017; S. S., '15, § 2017.]

SEC. 5003. Further repairs.

1 If the supervisors, trustees, city council, or other person having 2 jurisdiction over such road, require further or different repairs or 3 alterations made thereon, or if the same, in their opinion, is unsafe, 4 they shall give notice thereof in writing to any agent or officer of the 5 corporation, and, if the parties are unable to agree respecting the 6 same, either may apply by petition, setting out the facts, to the 7 district court or judge thereof, and such court or judge shall cause 8 reasonable notice to be given the adverse party of the application.
9 The petition shall be filed in the clerk's office, and may be answered
10 as in other cases. The court shall determine the matter in a summary 11 way, and make the necessary orders in relation thereto, giving such 12 corporation, if found at fault, a reasonable time to comply therewith, 13 and, upon failure to do so, it may enjoin the corporation from using 14 so much of its road as interferes with any such roads, and may award 15 costs in favor of the prevailing party.

SEC. 5004. Temporary ways.

1 Every such corporation, when employed in raising or lowering any 2 road, or in making any other alteration by means of which the same 3 may be obstructed, shall provide and keep in good order suitable tem-4 porary ways to enable travelers to avoid or pass such obstructions.

SEC. 5005. Crossing railways, canals.

1 Any such corporation may construct and carry its railway across,
2 over or under any railway, canal or watercourse, when it may be neces-
3 sary in the construction of the same, and in such cases it shall so 4 construct its crossings as not unnecessarily to impede the travel, trans-5 portation or navigation upon the railway, canal or stream so crossed.
6 Said corporation shall be liable for the damages occasioned to any 7 person injured by reason of said crossing.

[R., '60, § 1325; C., '73, § 1265; C., '97, § 2020.]

SEC. 5006. Bridges—damages.

1 Every such corporation shall maintain and keep in good repair
2 all the bridges, with their abutments, which it may construct for the 3 purpose of enabling its railway to pass over or under any turnpike,
4 road, canal, watercourse or other way, and shall be liable for all dam-

6 tion of the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 5007.  Private crossings.
1 When any person owns land on both sides of any railway, or when 2 the railway runs parallel with the public highway, thereby severing
3 the farm from the public highway, the corporation owning the same
4 shall, when requested to do so, make and keep in good repair a 5 sufficient causeway or other adequate means of crossing the same and 6 one cattle guard on each side thereof connected by cross fences to the 7 right of way fence on each side of the right of way at such reasonable 8 place as may be designated by the owner. If such person desires more 9 than one crossing or desires an overhead or underground crossing over 10 or under said railway, he shall serve or cause to be served a notice in 11 writing upon such railway company setting forth his demand, with a 12 plat of the land showing the place and manner of the desired crossing 13 or crossings. If such railroad company, within thirty days after hav-14 ing been served with such notice, has failed and refused to construct 15 such crossing or crossings, such person may apply to the board of 16 railroad commissioners of this state, which shall have full authority 17 to determine all questions growing out of such demand, and upon 18 hearing, after due notice, make such order as it may deem just and 19 equitable.

§ 2022.]

SEC. 5008.  Right of way for canal, turnpike, or bridge.
1 When any corporation or person desires to construct a canal, turn-2 pike, graded, macadamized or plank road, or a bridge, such corpora-3 tion or person may take such private property as may be necessary for 4 right of way, not exceeding one hundred feet in width, by pursuing the 5 course prescribed in this chapter.

'97, § 2023.]

SEC. 5009.  Damages.
1 When the amount of the damages is finally determined, the sheriff
2 or clerk, as the case may be, shall certify the amount thereof to the 3 governor, who shall, by an order indorsed thereon, direct the payment 4 of the same, and the auditor of state shall issue a warrant on the 5 treasury for the amount, which shall be paid with any money not 6 otherwise appropriated, and when paid to the sheriff or person entitled 7 thereto, the state, through its proper officer or agent, may enter on 8 the premises and construct the desired work.

[C., '73, § 1272; C., '97, § 2025.]

SEC. 5010.  Damages to abutting owners.
1 Unless the owners of the land abutting each side of said road
2 shall consent to such use, the railway company shall pay all damages 3 sustained by the landowners caused by building said road, which shall 4 be ascertained and paid in the same manner as is provided for taking 5 private property for works of internal improvement, and it shall also be liable for all damages resulting from the carelessness of its officers, agents or servants in the construction or operation of its railway.

[C., '97, § 2027.]

SEC. 5011. Railway established.
1 Any owner, lessee or possessor of lands having coal, stone, lead
2 or other mineral thereon, who has paid the damages assessed for roads
3 established as hereinbefore provided, may construct, use and maintain 4 a railway thereon, for the purpose of reaching and operating any 5 quarry or mine on such land and of transporting the products thereof
6 to market. In giving the notices required in such cases, the applicant 7 shall state whether a railway is to be constructed and maintained on 8 the way sought to be established, and, if it be so stated, the jury 9 shall consider that fact in the assessment of damages.

[C., '97, § 2031.]

SEC. 5012. Rights of riparian owners.
1 All owners and lessees of lands or lots situated upon the Iowa
2 banks of the Mississippi or Missouri rivers, upon which any business 3 is carried on which is in any way connected with the navigation of 4 either of said rivers, or to which such navigation is a proper or con-
5 venient adjunct, are authorized to construct and maintain, in front
6 of their property, piers, cribs, booms and other proper and convenient 7 erections and devices for the use of their respective pursuits, and the 8 protection and harbor of rafts, logs, floats and other water crafts, in 9 such manner as to create no material or unreasonable obstruction to 10 the navigation of the stream, or to a similar use of adjoining property.

SEC. 5013. Construction of railroad.
1 No person or corporation shall construct or operate any railroad
2 or other obstruction between such lots or lands and either of said 3 rivers, or upon the shore or margin thereof, unless the injury and damages to owners or lessees occasioned thereby shall be first ascer-

TITLE XVI.
COMMON CARRIERS.

CHAPTER 1.
BOARD OF RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS.

SECTION 5014. Election—organization.
1 The board of railroad commissioners shall consist of three persons
2 having the qualifications of electors, who shall be elected in the same
3 manner as other state officers. Immediately after the new member 4 has qualified, the board shall organize by electing one of its members
5 as chairman, and appointing a secretary, who shall take the same oath
6 as the commissioners; but this, or a part of this, may be done at a 7 subsequent meeting. Any person ineligible to the office of commis-8 sioner shall be ineligible to the office of secretary of the board. The 9 board shall have power to employ such additional clerical help as it 10 may find necessary. No person in the employ of any common carrier, 11 or owning any bonds, stock or property in any railroad company, or 12 who is in any way or manner pecuniarily interested in any railroad 13 corporation, shall be eligible to the office of railroad commissioner, and 14 the entering into the employ of any common carrier, or the acquiring 15 of any stock or other interest in any common carrier by any officer 16 under this chapter, after his election or appointment, shall disqualify 17 him to hold the office and to perform the duties thereof.

[C., '97, § 2111.]

SEC. 5015. Supervision.
1 The board shall have the general supervision of all railroads in 2 the state operated by steam, express companies, car companies, sleep-
3 ing car companies, freight and freight line companies, and any com-
4 mon carrier engaged in the transportation of passengers or freight 5 by railroad, street railroads excepted, and shall investigate any alleged 6 neglect or violation of the laws of the state by any railroad corpora-
7 tion doing business therein, or by the officers, agents or employees 8 thereof.

[C., '97, § 2112.]

SEC. 5016. Powers and duties.
1 It shall from time to time carefully examine into and inspect the 2 condition of each railroad, its equipment, and the manner of its con-
3 duct and management with regard to the public safety and conven-4 ience in the state; make semiannual examination of its bridges, and 5 report the condition thereof to the company to which they belong; and 6 if found by it unsafe it shall immediately notify the railroad com-7 pany whose duty it is to put the same in repair, which shall be done
8 by it within ten days after receiving such notice. If any corporation 9 fails to perform this duty the board may forbid and prevent it from running trains over the same while unsafe. And should any railroad or transportation company in this state fail to provide proper shelter for its patrons at stations where two or more tracks are operated, or fail or refuse to connect by proper switches or tracks with the tracks or lines of other railroad or transportation companies, the board may require such railroad or transportation company to provide the same in such manner and upon such conditions as it may determine. When, in the judgment of the board, any railway corporation fails in any respect to comply with the terms of its charter or articles of incorporation or the laws of the state; or when in its judgment any repairs are necessary upon its road; or any addition to its rolling stock, or addition to or change in its stations or station houses, or the equipment thereof for the health and convenience of the public, or change in its rates of fare for transporting freight or passengers, or change in the mode of operating its road or conducting its business, is reasonable and expedient in order to promote the security, convenience, and accommodation of the public, the board may make an order prescribing such improvements and changes and shall serve a notice upon such corporation, in the manner provided for the service of an original notice in a civil action, which notice shall be signed by its secretary, of the improvements and changes which it finds to be proper; and a report of such proceedings shall be included in its annual report to the governor as provided in the next section; but nothing in this section shall be so construed as relieving any railroad company from its present responsibility or liability for damage to person or property.

[C., '97, § 2113; S., '13, § 2113.]

The board shall annually, on or before the first Monday in December, make a report to the governor of its doings for the preceding year, containing such facts, statements and explanations as will disclose the working of such systems of railroad transportation in the state, and their relation to the general business and prosperity of the citizens thereof, with such suggestions and recommendations in respect thereto as may to the board seem appropriate. Said report shall also contain, as to every railroad corporation doing business in this state:

1. The amount of its capital.
2. The amount of its preferred stock, if any, and the condition of its preferment.
3. The amount of its funded debt and the rate of interest.
4. The amount of its floating debt.
5. The cost and actual present cash value of its road equipment, including permanent way, buildings and rolling stock, all real estate used exclusively in operating the road, and all fixtures and conveniences for transacting its business.
6. The estimated value of all other property owned by it, with a schedule of the same, not including lands granted in aid of its construction.
7. The number of acres originally granted it by the United States or this state in aid of the construction of its road.
8. The number of acres of such land remaining unsold.
9. A list of its officers and directors, with their respective places of residence.
10. Such statistics of the road and of its transportation business for the year as may, in the judgment of the commissioners, be necessary and proper for the information of the general assembly or as may be required by the governor.

11. The average amount of tonnage that can be carried over each road in the state with an engine of given power.

Which report shall exhibit and refer to the condition of such corporation on the first day of July of each year, and the details of its transportation business transacted during the year ending June thirtieth.

SEC. 5018. Examinations.

The board shall have power, in the discharge of its duties, to examine any of the books, papers or documents of any railway corporation, or to examine, under oath or otherwise, any officer, director, agent or employee thereof; to issue subpoenas,—the cost thereof as well as of the investigation to be first paid by the state, upon the certificate of the board,—and to enforce obedience thereto in the performance of its duties as courts of law may. Any person who shall wilfully obstruct it or its members in the performance of their duties, or who shall refuse to give any information within his possession that may be required by them within the line of their duty, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 5019. Duty of railroad to transport freight—passenger service.

Every railway corporation shall upon reasonable notice, and within a reasonable time, furnish suitable cars to any and all persons who may apply therefor, for the transportation of any and all kinds of freight, and receive and transport such freight with all reasonable dispatch, and provide and keep suitable facilities for the receiving and handling thereof at any depot on the line of its road; and shall also receive and transport in like manner the empty or loaded cars furnished by any connecting road, to be delivered at any station or stations on the line of its road, to be loaded or discharged or reloaded and returned to the road so connecting; and for compensation it shall not demand or receive any greater sum than is accepted by it from any other connecting railroad for a similar service. In any suit or action in court brought against a railroad corporation for the purpose of enforcing rights arising under the provisions of this section, the burden of proving that the provisions of this section have been complied with by such railroad corporation shall be upon such railroad corporation. Every railway corporation owning or operating lines of railroads of more than twenty-five miles in length within the limits of the state of Iowa shall maintain a service of not less than two passenger trains each way every twenty-four hours, over the entire length of each division of such line or lines, when so ordered by the board of railroad commissioners. Passenger service of less than the number of trains provided herein shall be presumed to be unreasonable within the contemplation of section fifty hundred sixteen.

SEC. 5020. Examination of rates.
1 The board shall, upon the application of the mayor and council of 2 any city or town, or the trustees of any township, make an examination
3 of the rate of passenger fare or freight tariff charged by any railroad 4 company, and of the condition or operation of any railroad, any part 5 of whose location lies within the limits of such city, town or township; 6 and if twenty-five or more voters in any city, town or township shall,
7 by written petition, request the mayor and council of such city or 8 town, or the trustees of such township, to make the said complaint and 9 application, and they refuse, they shall state the reason therefor in 10 writing upon the petition, and return the same to the petitioners, who 11 may thereupon, within ten days from the date of such refusal and 12 return, present the same to the board of commissioners, who shall, if 13 it thinks the public good demands the examination, proceed to make 14 it in the same manner as if called upon by the mayor and council of 15 any city or town, or the trustees of any township. Before proceeding 16 to make such examination, it shall give to the petitioners and the 17 corporation reasonable notice, in writing, of the time and place of 18 entering upon the same. If, upon such an examination, it shall appear 19 to the board that the complaint is well founded, it shall, within 20 ten days, inform the corporation operating such railroad of its finding, 21 and shall report its doings to the governor.

SEC. 5021. Cumulative.
1 Nothing in this or chapter four shall be construed to estop or 2 hinder any persons or corporations from bringing action against any 3 railway company for any violation of the laws of the state for the 4 government of railroads.

[C., '97, § 2118.]

SEC. 5022. Orders of commissioners enforced—appeals—penalties, when remitted.
1 The district courts of this state shall have jurisdiction to enforce,
2 by proper decrees, injunctions and orders, the rulings, orders and 3 regulations affecting public rights, made or to be made by the board,
4 such as are now, or may hereafter be, authorized to be made by them 5 for the future direction and observance of railroads in this state.
6 The proceedings therefor shall be by equitable action in the name of 7 the state of Iowa, and shall be instituted by the attorney general, 8 whenever advised by the board that any railway corporation, or per-9 son operating a line of road in this state, is violating and refusing 10 to comply with any rule, order or regulation made by the board, and 11 applicable to such railroad or person. It shall be the duty of the 12 court in which any such cause shall be pending to require the issue 13 to be made up at the first term of the court to which such cause is 14 brought, which shall be the trial term, and to give the same prece-15 dence over other civil business. If the court shall find that such rule, 16 regulation or order is reasonable and just, and that in refusing com-17 pliance therewith said railway company is failing and omitting the 18 performance of any public duty or obligation, the court shall decree 19 a mandatory and perpetual injunction, compelling obedience to and 20 compliance with such rule, order or regulation by said railroad com-21 pany, or other person, its officers, agents, servants and employees, and may grant such other relief as may be deemed just and proper.

All violations of such decree shall render the company, persons, officers, agents, servants and employees who are in any manner instrumental in such violation, guilty of contempt of court, and the court may punish such contempt by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars for each offense, and may imprison the person guilty of contempt until he shall sufficiently purge himself therefrom. And such decree shall continue and remain in effect and be enforced until the rule, order or regulation shall be modified or vacated by the board.

All rules, orders and regulations affecting public rights, made or to be made by the board of railroad commissioners, such as are now or may hereafter be authorized to be made by them for the future direction and observance of railroads in this state, shall be in full force and effect from and after the date fixed by the board for the taking effect of such rules, order and regulations. If any railroad fails, neglects or refuses to comply with any rule, order or regulation made by the board within the time specified, it shall pay a penalty of fifty dollars for each and every day it fails, neglects or refuses to obey any rule, order or regulation so made, to be recovered in any court having jurisdiction.

Any railroad aggrieved at any rule, order or regulation made by the board may institute proceedings in any court of proper jurisdiction to have the rule, order or regulation complained of vacated, if found by the court, after due trial, not to be reasonable, equitable or just, and if upon an appeal from any rule, order or regulation of the board the complaining railroad is successful in having such rule, order or regulation vacated, the aforesaid penalty shall be set aside; if unsuccessful, there shall be taxed as a part of the costs a reasonable attorney's fee for the attorney appearing in behalf of the state.

The time for the taking effect of any rule, order, or regulation affecting public rights, made by the board of railroad commissioners as provided herein, may, in its discretion, be extended, and said extension of time may be granted for the purpose of testing the legality thereof, upon application by any such aggrieved railroad, showing reasonable grounds therefor, and that said application is made in good faith and not for the purpose of delay. When any railroad shall fail upon appeal to secure a vacation of the order from which it has appealed, it may apply to the court in which said appeal is finally adjudicated for an order remitting the penalty which has accrued during the pendency of the appeal, and upon a satisfactory showing that the order appealed from was unreasonable or unjust, or that the power of the board to make the same was doubtful and that said appeal has been prosecuted in good faith and not for the purposes of delay, such court may remit the penalty that has accrued during the pendency of the appeal.

SEC. 5023. Costs—attorney's fees.

1 When a decree shall be entered against a railroad company or person under the preceding section, the court shall render judgment for costs, and attorney's fees for counsel representing the state.

SEC. 5024. Interstate freight rates—investigation.

1 It is hereby made the duty of the board of railroad commissioners to exercise constant diligence in informing themselves of the rates,
ch. 1. BOARD OF RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS. §§ 5025-5029.

3 charges, rules, and practices of common carriers engaged in the trans-3 portation of freight from points in this state to points beyond its 4 limits, and from points in other states to points in this state, also in 5 territory wholly outside this state; and whenever it shall come to the 6 knowledge of the board of railroad commissioners, either from their 7 own investigation or by complaint made to them in any manner what-8 ever, that the rates charged by any common carrier on interstate 9 business are unjust or unreasonable, or that such rates, rules or prac-
10 tices discriminate unjustly against the citizens, industries or interests 11 of this state, or place any of the citizens, industries or interests of this 12 state at an unreasonable disadvantage as compared with those of 13 other states, or are levied or laid in violation of the act to regulate 14 commerce, or in conflict with the rulings, orders or regulations of the 15 interstate commerce commission, it shall be the duty of the board of 16 railroad commissioners to immediately call the attention of the offi-17 cials of railroads operating in this state to the fact and to urge upon 18 them the propriety of changing such rate or rates, rules or practices.

SEC. 5025. Appeal to interstate commerce commission—prosecu-1 tions.

1 When such rates, rules or practices are not changed or adjusted
2 so as to remove or remedy such discrimination within a reasonable 3 time, it shall be the duty of the board of railroad commissioners, when 4 it can legally be done, to present the facts involved in such discrimina-
5 tion to the interstate commerce commission and appeal to it for relief 6 and thereafter, if deemed necessary, by said board of railroad com-7 missioners, they shall prosecute any charge or charges growing out
8 of any such discrimination at the expense of the state, before said 9 interstate commerce commission.

SEC. 5026. Attorney general to assist.

1 In all work devolving upon the railroad commission they shall 2 receive, upon application, the services of the attorney general of this 3 state, and he shall also represent them, whenever called upon to do so,
4 before the interstate commerce commission.

SEC. 5027. Wires over railroad tracks.

1 The railroad commissioners of this state shall have general super-2 vision over any and all wires for transmitting electric current or any 3 other wire whatsoever crossing under or over any track of a railroad 4 in this state.

SEC. 5028. Regulations.

1 The railroad commissioners shall make regulations prescribing
2 the manner in which such wires shall cross such railroad tracks in 3 this state.

SEC. 5029. Wires must be strung in manner prescribed.

1 It shall hereafter be unlawful for any corporation or person to 2 place or string any such wire for transmitting electric current or any wire whatsoever across any track of a railroad in this state except in such manner as may be prescribed by the railroad commissioners as provided by the two preceding sections.

SEC. 5030. Examination of wires already strung.

The board of railroad commissioners shall, either by personal examination or otherwise, obtain information where the tracks or railroads are crossed by wires strung over said tracks, contrary to or not in compliance with the rules prescribed by the railroad commissioners as contemplated by sections fifty hundred twenty-seven to fifty hundred thirty-three, inclusive, and shall order such change or changes to be made by the persons or corporations owning or operating such wires as it may deem necessary to make the same comply with said rules and within such reasonable time as it may prescribe.

[S., '13, § 2120-g.]

SEC. 5031. Minimum height.

In case such wires cross over said track, in no case shall said board of railroad commissioners prescribe a less height than twenty-two feet above the top of the rails of any railroad track for any wire.

SEC. 5032. Wires across railroad right of way at highways.

The board of railroad commissioners are hereby authorized to provide for and regulate the crossing of wires over and across railroad right of ways at highways and other places within the state.

across any railroad track in this state at a different height or in a different manner from that prescribed by the said board of railroad commissioners shall forfeit and pay to the state of Iowa the sum of such wire is so maintained, said forfeiture to be recovered in a civil action brought in any court of competent jurisdiction in the name of the state of Iowa, by the attorney general, or by the county attorney of the county in which such wire is situated, at the request of the said board of railroad commissioners, and it is hereby made the duty of

SEC. 5034. Accidents—investigation of—report.

Upon the occurrence of any serious accident upon any railroad within this state, which shall result in personal injury, or loss of life, the corporation operating the road upon which the accident occurred shall give immediate notice thereof to the board of railroad commisthe same, and promptly report to the governor the extent of the per-of mismanagement or neglect of the corporation on whose line the injury or loss of life occurred; but such report shall not be evidence or referred to in any case in any court.

SEC. 5035. Uniform gauge—inspection—order.

The railroad commissioners of Iowa are charged with the duty to inspect and examine all railroad lines or branches that are of a gauge less than four feet eight and one-half inches in width of track, and if, considering the interest of the public and the railroad traffic tributary to that line or branch road, and the physical or natural difficulties to be encountered and the expense that would be involved or incurred in changing the track to a gauge of four feet eight and one-half inches in width, and making it practical to operate the said line or branch road on that gauge, it appears to be reasonable and just to require the railway company which is the owner to do so, then said commissioners shall enter an order fixing a reasonable time within which said railroad track is to be changed to a gauge of four feet eight and one-half inches in width.

SEC. 5036. Uniform gauge—inspection—order.

It shall be the duty of the railroad commissioners to examine all the railroads in this state, now in existence, that are less than four feet eight and one-half inches gauge, and if they find that it is feasible or in their judgment necessary and reasonable to change the gauge of any such railroad to four feet eight and one-half inches, they shall make their order in writing, fixing such reasonable time within which such gauge shall be changed to that width. In making such order, said commissioners shall take into consideration the amount and probable life of the rolling stock of such narrow gauged road, and all other facts bearing on the reasonableness of the time to be allowed to make such change of gauge.

SEC. 5037. Electric current transmission lines — franchise — hearing.

Upon petition to the railroad commission of the state of Iowa, said railroad commission may grant to any individual or corporation organized under the laws of Iowa, or corporation authorized to transact business in Iowa under the general incorporation laws of the state, engaged in the manufacture, sale, or distribution for sale of electric current for light, power, or heating purposes, the right within the state, except in cities and towns, to erect, use and maintain poles, wires, guy wires, towers, fixtures and other necessary construction for the purpose of conducting electricity for lighting, power and heating purposes over, along and across any public lands, highways or streams or the lands of any person or persons, and to acquire the necessary interests in real estate therefor. The said petition shall set forth the manner, methods and specifications for the construction of said line, together with a general description of the public lands, highways, streams or private lands over which it is desired that said transmission line be constructed, together with a map showing the starting point, route and terminus of said proposed line. Upon the filing of said petition, the commission shall cause publication in the official newspapers of each county into or through which said pro-which notice shall contain a statement as to the purpose of the petition, a description of the lands to be traversed by the transmission line, and the date and place fixed by the commission for hearing upon said petition.

The date fixed shall be not less than ten days after the last publifinal submission to the commission, objections in writing to the proposed line, either as to its establishment or location, may be filed with the commission and shall be given due consideration. The expense of said publication shall be paid by the applicant as a condition precedent to said hearing. The commission may personally examine the proposed route and upon said hearing may grant the application either as a whole or in part, or upon such conditions as to terms and location as to the commission may seem right and just. The privilege granted by the commission shall be and constitute a franchise to operate and maintain the proposed transmission line, but all rights granted by said franchise shall be subject to the provisions of this section and also to such regulations as the legislature may, from time to time, prescribe, either by direct legislative enactment or by and through the railroad commission, under the laws of Iowa now or hereafter in force.

SEC. 5038. Additional rights—how granted.

Any person, or corporation organized under the laws of this state, or corporation authorized to transact business in Iowa under the general incorporation laws of the state, owning or operating a transmission line for the conducting of electricity, or who or which has obtained a right so to do, and desires to acquire additional rights for the purposes contemplated herein, may petition the railroad commission, as hereinbefore provided, for the original granting of such right, and the same proceedings shall be taken as hereinbefore pro-person or corporation filing same shall, with said petition, file its consent that the provisions of all laws relating to public utilities or to the regulation, supervision, or control thereof which are now in

Any person or corporation having secured the franchise provided for in the preceding sections shall thereupon be vested with the right of eminent domain to such extent as may be necessary and as prescribed and approved by the commission, not exceeding twenty-five feet in width, to carry out the purposes of said franchise, and in the event agreement with the private owner of lands as to damages caused by the construction of said transmission line can not be made, the same proceedings shall be taken as provided for taking private property for works of internal improvement.

SEC. 5041. Supervision of construction—requirements—danger signals.

The railroad commission shall have power of supervision over the construction of said transmission line and over its future operation and maintenance, and said transmission line shall be constructed near and parallel to the right of way of the railways of the state or along the division lines of the lands, according to the government survey thereof, wherever the same is practicable and reasonable, and so as not to interfere with the use by the public of the highways or streams of the state, nor unnecessarily interfere with the use of any lands by the occupant thereof, and shall be built of strong and proper wires attached to strong and sufficient supports properly insulated at all proper points of attachment; all wires, poles and other devices which by ordinary wear or other causes are no longer safe shall be removed and replaced by new wires, poles or other devices, as the case may be, and all abandoned wires, poles or other devices shall be at once removed. Where wires carrying current are carried across, either above or below wires used for other service, the said transmission line shall be constructed in such manner as to eliminate, so far as practicable, damages to persons or property by reason of said crossing; there shall also be installed sufficient devices to automatically shut off electric current through said transmission line whenever connection is made whereby current is transmitted from the wires of said transmission line to the ground, and there shall also be provided a safe and modern improved device for the protection of said line against lightning. No transmission line shall be constructed, except by agreement, within one hundred feet of any dwelling house or other building, except where said line crosses or passes along a public highway or is located alongside or parallel with the right of way of any railway company. At any crossing of any highway by said transmission line, the poles or towers next to the highway shall be labeled with the following words: “Danger.................. volts Electricity.” The stroke of said letters and numbers shall be at least four inches in length and not less than five-eighths of an inch in width, and the color of the letters and numbers shall be in contrast with the color of the background. The said labels shall show the maximum number of volts of electricity transmitted over said line, and said label shall face toward the highway. Where said poles or towers are extended along said highway and within the limits thereof or immediately adjacent thereto, the sign hereinbefore described shall be placed at least every quarter of a mile. The commission shall have full power and authority to add such further and additional rules and

9 Said damages shall be payable annually at the end of each season, and

SEC. 5074. Fences required.

Such tracks shall be fenced within six months after the completion of the same or any part thereof. Such fence, when of barb wire, shall be of five wires; when of barb wire and woven wire, it shall consist of three barb wires above and woven wire not less than twenty-four inches wide at the bottom, or it may consist entirely of woven wire, in which event the woven wire shall be not less than fifty inches wide; all of the above to be securely fastened to posts not more than twenty feet apart, the top of such fences to be not less than fifty-four inches high; or such fences may consist of five boards, securely nailed to posts set not more than eight feet apart, and to be not less than fifty-four inches high; but where such fences are constructed entirely of barb wire, in addition to the above, on the written request of any person owning land abutting such right of way who has constructed, and is maintaining around his said land, or any part thereof, a hog tight fence on all sides thereof except along such right of way fence with such additional barb or woven wire as is necessary to make it hog tight. If such corporation fails or neglects to pay such damages within thirty days after notice in writing that a loss or injury has occurred, accompanied by an affidavit thereof, served upon any officer or station or ticket agent employed by said corporation in the county where such loss or injury occurred, such owner shall be entitled to recover from the corporation double the amount of damages actually sustained by him. No law of the state or any local or police regulations of any county, township, city or town, relating to the restraint of domestic animals, or in relation to the fences of farmers or landowners, shall be applicable to railway tracks, unless specifically so stated in such law and regulation. Upon depot grounds necessarily used by the public and the corporation, the operating of trains at a greater rate of speed than eight miles an hour where no fence is built shall be negligence, and shall render such corporation liable for all damages occasioned thereby, in the same manner and to the same extent, except as to double damages, as in cases where the right to fence exists.

SEC. 5086. Sale or lease of railroad property—joint arrangement.

SEC. 5087. Mortgage of contract or lease.

1 Any contract, lease or benefit derived under the authority given in the preceding section may be mortgaged for the purpose of securing construction bonds in the same manner as other property of the corporation.

Nor shall any contract of insurance, relief, benefit, or indemnity in case of injury or death, entered into prior to the injury, between the person so injured and such corporation, or any other person or association acting for such corporation, nor shall the acceptance of any such insurance, relief, benefit, or indemnity by the person injured, his widow, heirs, or legal representatives after the injury, from such corporation, person, or association, constitute any bar or defense to any cause of action brought under the provisions of this section, but nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent or invalidate any settlement for damages between the parties subsequent to injuries received. In all actions hereafter brought against any such corporation to recover damages for the personal injury or death of any employee under or by virtue of any of the provisions of this section, the fact that the employee may have been guilty of contributory negligence shall not bar a recovery, but the damages shall be diminished by the jury in proportion to the amount of negligence attributable to such employee; provided that no such employee who may be injured or killed shall be held to have been guilty of contributory negligence in any case where the violation by such common carrier or corporation of any statute enacted for the safety of employees contributed to the injury or death of such employee; nor shall it be any defense to such action that the employee who was injured or killed assumed the risks of his employment.

3 and handling of property wholly within this state, and shall apply to 4 all railroad corporations, express companies, car companies, sleeping
5 car companies, freight or freight line companies, and to any common 6 carrier engaged in this state in the transportation of passengers or 7 property by railroad therein, and to shipments of property made from 8 any point within the state to any point within the state, whether the 9 transportation of the same shall be wholly within this state or partly 10 within this state and partly within an adjoining state. The term 11 “railroad” and “railway” as used in this chapter shall include all 12 bridges and ferries used or operated in connection with any railroad, 13 and also all the road in use by any corporation, receiver, trustee or 14 other person operating a railroad, whether owned or operated under term “railway corporation” shall mean all corporations, companies or 17 individuals owning or operating any railroad in whole or in part in

SEC. 5176. Undue preference — switching charges — switching service defined.

It shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter to make or give any preference or advantage to any particular person, company, firm, corporation or locality, or any particular description of traffic, in any respect whatsoever, or subject any particular person, company, firm, corporation or locality, or any particular description of traffic, to any prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever; but this shall not be construed to prevent any common carrier from giving preference as to time of shipment of live stock, uncured meats, or other perishable property. All common carriers subject to the provisions of this chapter shall, according to their respective powers, afford all reasonable, proper and equal facilities for the interchange of traffic between their respective lines, and for the receiving, forwarding and switching of cars, and for the receiving, forwarding and delivery of passengers and property to and from their several lines, and to and from other lines and places connected therewith; and shall not discriminate in their accommodations, rates and charges between such connecting lines. Any common carrier may be required to switch and transfer cars for another, for the purpose of being loaded or unloaded, upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the board of railroad commissioners.

21 The switching service of common carriers is hereby defined to be the shifting of a car, or of cars, between two points, both of which points are within the industrial vicinity of an industry, a group of industries, a station, a village or a city, as such industrial vicinity may be defined by the board of railroad commissioners.

1 It shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter to charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of passengers or a like kind of property for a shorter than for a longer distance over its railroad, all or any portion of the shorter haul being included within the longer, and shall charge no more for transporting freight to or from any point on its railroad than a fair and just rate, compared with the price it charges for the same kind of freight transportation to or from any other point.

SEC. 5178. Pooling contracts.

1 It shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter to enter into any contract, agreement or combination with any other common carrier or carriers for the pooling of freight of different and competing railroads, or divide between them the aggregate or net proceeds of the earnings of such railroads, or any portion thereof; and in case of an agreement for the pooling of freights as aforesaid, each day of its continuance shall be a separate offense.

SEC. 5179. Schedules of rates and fares.

1 Every common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter shall print and keep for public inspection schedules showing the rates, fares and charges for the transportation of passengers and property which it has established, and which are in force at the time upon its railroad. The schedules shall plainly state the places upon its roads between which property and passengers will be carried, and shall contain the classification of freight in force upon such road, stating separately any terminal charges, and any rules and regulations which in anywise change, affect or determine any part of the aggregate of such rates, fares and charges. Such schedules shall be plainly printed in large type, of at least the size of ordinary pica, and a copy for the use of the public shall be kept in every freight office and passenger station on such road, where it can be conveniently inspected; and it shall keep a printed notice posted in every such freight office and passenger station indicating where therein the same can be found. No advance shall be made in the rates, fares and charges which have been established and published as aforesaid by any common carrier except after ten days' public notice, which shall plainly state the changes proposed to be made in the schedules then in force, and the time when the increased rates, fares or charges will go into effect; which proposed changes shall be shown by printing new schedules, or shall be plainly indicated upon the schedules in force at the time and kept for public inspection. Reduction in such published rates, fares or charges may be made without previous public notice, but, when made, notice thereof shall be immediately and publicly posted, and such changes made pub-ules at the time in force and kept for public inspection. When any such common carrier shall have established and published its rates, fares and charges, it shall not charge, demand, collect or receive from any person or persons a greater or less compensation for the transportation of passengers or property, or for any services in connection therewith, than is specified in such published schedule of rates, fares and charges as may at the time be in force. Every common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter shall file with the board of railroad commissioners copies of its schedules of rates, fares and charges established and published, and shall promptly notify said board of all changes made in the same. Every such common carrier shall also file with the board copies of all contracts, agreements or arrangements with other common carriers in relation to any traffic affected by the provisions of this chapter to which it may be a party.

If passengers and freight pass over continuous lines or routes in this state, operated by more than one common carrier, and the several common carriers operating such lines or routes have established joint tariffs of rates, fares or charges for such continuous lines or routes, copies of such joint tariffs shall also be filed with the board. Such joint rates, fares and charges on such continuous lines shall be made public by such common carriers, when directed by said board, in so far as in its judgment may be practicable, and it shall from time to time prescribe the measures of publicity which shall be given to such rates, fares and charges, or to such part thereof as it may think practicable for such common carriers to publish, and the places in which they shall be published; but no common carrier, party to any such joint tariff, shall be liable for the failure of any other party thereto to observe and adhere to the rates, fares or charges thus made and pub-ished. If any such common carrier shall neglect or refuse to file or publish its schedule or tariffs of rates, fares and charges, or any part of the same, it shall, in addition to other penalties herein prescribed, be subject to a writ of mandamus, to be issued by any district court of this state in the judicial district wherein its principal office is situated, or wherein such offense may be committed. If such common carrier be a foreign corporation, then such writ may be issued by any district court in the judicial district where it accepts traffic and has an agent to perform such service, to compel compliance with the provisions of this section—such writ to issue in the name of the state, at the relation or upon the petition of the board of railroad commissioners; and the failure to comply with its requirement shall be punishable as for a contempt, and shall make said corporation liable to a penalty of five hundred dollars for each day’s failure to comply therewith; and when any such writ of mandamus shall be applied for, no bond shall be required.

SEC. 5181. Notice posted as to limitation and transferability.

No railroad company, corporation, person or persons doing business in the state of Iowa, as common carrier of passengers, whose rate of fare is regulated by statute of this state, shall sell or issue to any person, at the maximum rate allowed by law, any ticket or tickets bearing any condition of limitation as to the time of use, or as to transferability, without first providing for the redemption of said ticket, as directed by the preceding section hereof, and also having notice of such provision and privilege of redemption conspicuously posted at each place where sales of tickets are made by such common carriers in this state. A failure to provide for the redemption of such ticket or to give notice as above provided shall make all conditions and limitations as to time of use or transferability of no force or effect.

SEC. 5182. Penalty.

Any railroad company, corporation, person or persons, who as common carriers shall sell or issue tickets as set forth in the preceding sections, and shall refuse or neglect to redeem the same, as by said sections provided, within ten days of date of demand, shall forfeit and pay to the owner of such ticket the purchase price of said ticket, and the further sum of one hundred dollars.

SEC. 5183. Mileage books.

Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the sale of mileage books or tickets, at less than the maximum rates allowed by law, bearing reasonable conditions of limitation, as to the right of use for passage.

SEC. 5184. Continuous shipments.

It shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter to enter into any combination, contract or agreement, expressed or implied, to prevent, by change of time schedules, carriage in different cars, or, by other means or device, the carriage of freights from being continuous from place of shipment to the place of destination in the state; and no break of bulk, stoppage or interruption made by such common carrier shall prevent the carriage of freights from being treated as one continuous carriage from the place of shipment to the place of destination, unless such break, stoppage or interruption was made in good faith for some necessary purpose, and without any intent to avoid or unnecessarily interrupt such continuous carriage, or to evade any of the provisions of this chapter.

[C., '97, § 2129.]

SEC. 5185. Penalty in treble damages.
1 In case any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter shall do, cause, or permit to be done anything herein prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or shall omit to do anything in this chapter required to be done, it shall be liable to the person or persons injured thereby for three times the amount of damages sustained in consequence, together with costs of suit, and a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court, on appeal or otherwise, which shall be taxed and collected as part of the costs in the case; but in all cases demand in writing shall be made for the money damages sustained before action is brought for a recovery under this section, and no action shall be brought until the expiration of fifteen days after such demand.

[C., '97, § 2130.]

1 Any person claiming to be damaged by any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter may either make complaint to the board of railroad commissioners, or may bring action in his own behalf for the recovery of damages for which any such common carrrier may be liable under the provisions hereof; but he shall not have the right to pursue both of said remedies at the same time. In any such action, the court before whom the same shall be pending may compel any director, officer, receiver, trustee or agent of the corporation or company defendant in such suit to attend as a witness and to testify, and may compel the production of the books and papers of such corporation or company; and the claim that any such testimony or evidence may tend to criminate the person giving the same shall not excuse him from testifying or producing said books and papers, but no person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for and on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise; but no person so testifying shall be exempted from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

[C., '97, § 2131.]

SEC. 5187. Criminal liability.
1 Except as otherwise specially provided for in this chapter, and 2 unless relieved from the consequences of a violation of the law as 3 provided herein, any common carrier subject to the provisions hereof, or, when such common carrier is a corporation, any director or officer 4 thereof, or any receiver, trustee, lessee, agent or person acting for or 5 employed by such corporation, who, alone or with any other corporation, company, person or party shall wilfully do or cause to be done, or shall wilfully suffer or permit to be done any act, matter or thing in this chapter prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or who shall aid or abet therein, or shall wilfully omit or fail to do any act, matter or thing in this chapter required to be done, or shall cause or willingly suffer or permit any act, matter or thing, so directed or required by the provisions of this chapter to be done, not to be so done, or shall aid

SEC. 5188. Inquiry by commissioners.

The board of railroad commissioners shall inquire into the management of the business of all common carriers subject to the provisions of this chapter, and keep itself informed as to the manner and method in which the same is conducted, and have the right to obtain from them full and complete information necessary to enable the board to perform its duties and carry out the object for which it was created; shall have power to require the attendance and testimony of witnesses, the production of all books, papers, tariffs, schedules, contracts, agreements and documents relating to any matter under investigation; and may invoke the aid of any court of this state in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers and documents; and any court within the jurisdiction of which such inquiry is carried on shall, in case of refusal to obey a subpoena or other proper process issued to any common carrier or person subject to the provisions hereof, issue an order requiring such carrier or person to appear before said board and produce books and papers, if so ordered, and testify touching, or in relation to, the matter in question; and a failure to obey such orders of the court shall be punished as for a contempt thereof. The claim that any such testimony or evidence may tend to criminate the person giving it shall not excuse him from testifying, but no person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for and on account of any matter concerning which he may testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise; provided that no person so testifying shall be exempted from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.

SEC. 5189. Complaint.

Any person, firm, corporation or association, or any mercantile, agricultural or manufacturing society, or any body politic or municipal organization, complaining of anything done or omitted to be done by any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter in contravention thereof, may apply to said board by petition, briefly stating the facts; whereupon a copy of the complaint with the damages, if any are claimed, shall be forwarded by the board to such carrier, who shall be requested to satisfy the complaint, or answer the same in writing within a reasonable time to be fixed by the board. If such carrier within the time specified shall make reparation for the injury alleged to have been done, or shall correct the wrong complained of, it shall be relieved of liability to the complainant for the particular violation complained of. If it shall not satisfy the complaint within the time fixed, or there shall appear to be any reasonable ground for investigating the complaint, the board shall inquire into the matters complained of in such manner and by such means as it shall think proper. When it has sufficient reason to believe that any carrier is violating any of the provisions of this chapter, it shall at once institute an inquiry, as
SEC. 5190. Investigation—report.

When an investigation is made by the board after notice, it shall make a report in writing, stating its conclusions, which shall include the findings of fact upon which the conclusions are based, together with its recommendations or orders as to what reparation, if any, shall be made by the carrier to any party who may be found to have been injured; and such finding shall thereafter in all judicial proceedings be prima facie evidence of every fact found. All reports of investigations made by the board shall be entered of record, and a copy furnished to the party who complained, and any other person directly interested, and to any carrier that may have been complained of.

SEC. 5191. Orders.

If in any case in which an investigation shall be made by the board it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of such board, either by the testimony of witnesses or other competent evidence, that anything has been done or omitted to be done, in violation of the provisions of this chapter, or of any law cognizable by the board, by any common carrier, or that any injury or damage has been sustained by the party complaining, or by other parties, in consequence of any such violation, it shall be the duty of the board forthwith to cause a copy of its report in respect thereto to be delivered to such carrier, together with a notice to it to cease from such violation, or to make reparation for the injury found to have been done, or both, within a reasonable time, to be fixed by the board. And if within the time fixed it shall be made to appear to the board that such carrier has ceased from such violation of law, and has made reparation for the injury found to have been done, in compliance with the report and notice of the board, or to the satisfaction of the party complaining, a statement to that effect shall be entered of record by it, and the carrier shall thereupon be relieved from further liability or penalty for such particular violation of law.

SEC. 5192. Enforcement of orders.

When any common carrier as defined in this chapter shall violate or refuse or neglect to obey any lawful order or requirement of the board, it shall be the duty of the board, and lawful for any company or person interested in such order or requirement, to apply, in a summary way, by petition, to the district or superior court in any county of this state in which the common carrier complained of has its principal office, or in any county through which its line of road passes or is operated, or in which the violation or disobedience of such order or requirement shall happen, alleging such violation or disobedience, as the case may be; and the said court shall have power to hear and determine the matter, on such short notice to the common carrier complained of as the court shall deem reasonable; and such notice may be served on such common carrier, his or its officers, agents or servants, as the court shall direct; and said court shall proceed to hear and determine the matter speedily as a court of equity, and without the formal pleadings and proceedings applicable to ordinary suits in equity, but in such manner as to do justice in the premises; and, to this end, such court shall have power, if it think fit, to direct and prosecute, in such mode and by such persons as it may appoint, all such inquiries as the court may think needful to enable it to form a just judgment in the matter of such petition; and on such hearing the report of the board shall be prima facie evidence of the matter therein, or in any order made by them, stated; and if it be made to appear to such court on such hearing, or on the report of any such person or persons, that the order or requirement of the board drawn in question has been violated or disobeyed, it shall be lawful for such court to issue a writ of injunction, or other proper process, mandatory or otherwise, to restrain such common carrier from further continuing such violation of injunction or other proper process, mandatory or otherwise, it shall be lawful for such court to issue a writ of attachment, or any other process of said court incident or applicable to writs of injunction or other proper process, mandatory or otherwise, against such common carrier, and, if a corporation, against one or more of the directors, officers or agents of the same, or against any owner, lessee, trustee, receiver or other person failing to obey such writ of injunction or other proper process, mandatory or otherwise; and said court may, if it think fit, make an order directing such common carrier or other person so disobeying such writ of injunction or other proper process, mandatory or otherwise, to pay any sum of money, not exceeding for each carrier or person in default the sum of one thousand dollars for every day, after a day to be named in the order, that such carrier or other person shall fail to obey such injunction or other proper process, mandatory or otherwise; and such moneys shall, upon order of the court, be paid into the treasury of the county in which the action was commenced, and one-half thereof shall be transferred by the county treasurer to the state treasury; and the payment thereof may, without prejudice to any other mode of recovering the same, be enforced by attachment or order, in the nature of a writ of execution, in like manner as if the same had been recovered by a final decree in personam in such court, saving to the board and any other party or person interested the right of appeal to the supreme court of the state, under the same regulations now provided by law in relation to appeals to said court as to security for such appeal, except that in no case shall security for such appeal be required when the same is taken by the board; but no appeal to said supreme court shall operate to stay or supersede the order of the court, or the execution of any writ or process thereon; and such court may in every such matter order the payment of such costs and attorney and counsel fees as shall be deemed reasonable. When any such petition shall be filed or presented, or be prosecuted by the board, or by their direction, it shall be the duty of the attorney general of the state to prosecute the same, and in such prosecution he shall have the right to have the assistance of any county attorney of the county in which any such proceedings are instituted, and it is hereby made the duty of any such county attorney to render such assistance; and the costs and expenses, on the part of the board, of any such prosecution shall be paid out of the appropriations for the expenses of the board.

[C., '97, § 2137.]
SEC. 5193. Commissioners' schedules of rates—effect.
1 The schedules of reasonable maximum rates of charges for the 2 transportation of freight and cars, together with the classification 3 of such freights now in effect, shall remain in force until changed by 4 the board according to law, which, in all actions brought against rail-5 way corporations, wherein there are involved the charges thereof for 6 the transportation of any freight or cars, or any unjust discrimination
7 in relation thereto, shall be taken as prima facie evidence in all courts 8 that the rates fixed therein are reasonable and just maximum rates of 9 charge for which said schedules have been prepared. The board shall 10 from time to time, and as often as circumstances may require, change 11 and revise such schedules, but the rates fixed shall not be higher than 12 established by law. The board shall give notice of its intention to 13 revise or change such schedules, by publishing a notice thereof in two 14 weekly newspapers published at the seat of government, for two con-15 secutive weeks, and the last publication of such notice shall be at least 16 ten days before the time fixed for considering the matter, and such 17 notice shall contain, in general terms, a statement of the matters the 18 board proposes to consider, and the date when and the place where the 19 matter will be taken up, and shall be addressed to all persons inter-20 ested therein. When any schedule is thus revised the board must 21 cause notice thereof to be published for two successive weeks in some 22 public newspaper printed at the seat of government, which shall state 23 the date of the taking effect thereof, and it shall take effect at the 24 time so stated. A printed copy of such revised schedule shall be con-25 spicuously posted by said common carrier in each freight office and 26 passenger depot upon all lines affected thereby, and, when certified by 27 the board that the same is a true copy prepared by it for the railway 28 company or corporation therein named, and that notice thereof had 29 been published as required by law, shall be received in evidence in all 30 actions as prima facie the schedule of such board.

[C., '97, § 2138.]

SEC. 5194. Complaint of violation of schedule.
1 When any person in his own behalf, or in behalf of a class of 2 persons similarly situated, or a firm, corporation or association, or any 3 mercantile, agricultural or manufacturing society, or any body politic 4 or municipal organization, shall make complaint to the board of rail-
5 road commissioners that the rate charged or published by any railway 6 company, or the maximum rates fixed by the board in the sched-
7 ule of rates made by it, or the maximum rate fixed by law, is unreason-8 ably high or discriminating, the board shall investigate the matter, 9 and, if the charge appears to be well founded, fix a day for hearing the 10 same, giving the railway company notice of the time and place thereof 11 by mail, directed to any division superintendent, general or assistant 12 superintendent, general manager, president or secretary of such com-13 pany, which notice shall contain the substance of the complaint, also 14 the person or persons complaining.

[C., '97, § 2139.]

2 showing made at such hearing whatever information it may then have,

4 charged by any railway company for substantially the same kind of 5 service, in this or any other state. The lowest rates published or 6 charged by any railway company for substantially the same kind of 7 service whether in this or another state, shall, at the instance of the 8 person or persons complaining, be accepted as prima \( \text{f} \)\( \text{b} \)\( \text{f} \)\( \text{e} \) evidence of 9 a reasonable rate for the services under investigation; and if the rail-10 way company complained of is operating a line of railroad beyond the 11 state, or has a traffic arrangement with any such railway company, 12 the same shall be taken into consideration in determining what is a 13 reasonable rate; if it be operating a line of railroad beyond the state, 14 the rate charged or established for substantially a similar or greater 15 service by it in another state shall also be considered.

[C., '97, § 2140.]

SEC. 5196. Determination.

1 After such hearing and investigation, the board shall fix and determine the maximum charges to be thereafter made by the railroad company or common carrier complained of, which charge shall in no event exceed the one now or hereafter fixed by law; and the board shall render their decision in writing, and shall spread the same at length in the record to be kept for that purpose; such decision shall specifically set out the sums or rate which the railroad company or common carrier so complained of may thereafter charge or receive for the service therein named, and including a classification of such freight; and the board shall not be limited in their said decision and the schedule to be contained therein to the specific case or cases complained of, but it shall be extended to all such rates between points in this state, and whatever part of the line of railway of such company or common carrier within this state may have been fairly within the scope of such investigation; and any such decisions so made and entered on record of the board, including any such schedules and classifications, shall, when duly authenticated, be received and held in all suits brought against any such railroad corporation or common car-ror, wherein is in any way involved the charges of any such corporation or carrier mentioned in said decisions, in any of the courts of this state, as prima \( \text{f} \)\( \text{f} \)\( \text{a} \)\( \text{e} \) evidence that the rates therein fixed are reasonable maximum rates, the same as the schedule made by the board as provided in section fifty-one hundred ninety-three; and the rates and classifications so established, after such hearing and investigation, shall, from time to time thereafter, upon complaint duly made, be subject to revision by the board, the same as any other rates and classifications.

[C., '97, § 2141.]

SEC. 5197. Proceedings of commissioners.

1 The board may in all cases conduct its proceedings, when not otherwise prescribed by law, in such manner as will best conduce to the proper dispatch of business and the attainment of justice. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but no commissioner shall participate in any hearing or procceeding in which he has any pecuniary interest. It may from time to 7 time make or amend such general rules or orders as may be necessary
8 for the preservation of order and the regulation of proceedings before 9 it, including forms of notice and the service thereof, which shall con-10 form as nearly as may be to those in use in the courts of the state.
11 Any party may appear before it and be heard in person or by attor-
12 ney. Every vote and official action thereof shall be entered of record, 13 and, upon the request of either party or person interested, its pro-14 ceedings shall be public. It shall have a seal, of which courts shall take 15 judicial notice.

SEC. 5198. Annual reports from companies.
1 The board shall require annual reports from all common carriers
2 subject to the provisions of this chapter to be made at the same time
3 they make report to the executive council, to cover the same period,
4 and prescribe the manner in which specific answers to all questions 5 upon which it may need information shall be made. Such report shall 6 show in detail the amount of capital stock issued, the amounts paid 7 therefor, and manner of payment; the dividends paid; surplus fund, 8 if any; number of stockholders; the funded and floating debts and the 9 interest paid thereon; the cost and value of the carrier's property, 10 franchises and equipment; the number of locomotive engines and 11 cars used in the state, and the number supplied with automatic safety 12 couplers, and the kind and number of brakes used, and the number of 13 each; the number of employees and the salaries paid each class; the 14 amounts expended for improvements each year, how and where ex-15 pended and the character of such improvements; the earnings and 16 receipts from each branch of business and from all sources; the operat-
17 ing and other expenses; the balance of profit and loss, and a complete 18 exhibit of the financial operations thereof each year, including an 19 annual balance sheet. Such reports shall also contain such informa-20 tion in relation to rates or regulations concerning fares or freights, or 21 agreements, arrangements or contracts with other carriers, and other 22 statistics of the road and its transportation, as the board may require;
23 and it may prescribe uniformity and methods of keeping accounts, as 24 near as may be, and fix a time when such regulations shall take effect.
25 The board may also require of any and all common carriers subject 26 to the provisions of this chapter such other reports, and fix the time 27 for filing the same, as in its judgment shall be necessary and reason-28 able, which reports shall be in such form, and concerning such sub-29 jects, and be from such sources as it shall direct, except as otherwise 30 provided herein. Any corporation, company or individual owning or 31 operating a railway within the state, neglecting or refusing to make 32 the required reports by the date fixed, or fixed by the board, shall be 33 subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars for each and every day of 34 delay in making the same after the date thus fixed.

SEC. 5199. Extortion—penalty.
1 If any railway corporation or carrier subject to the provisions of 2 this chapter shall charge, collect, demand or receive more than a fair 3 and reasonable rate of toll or compensation for the transportation of 4 passengers or freight of any description, or for the use and transpor-5 tation of any railway car upon its track or any of the branches thereof,
§ 5200. REGULATION OF CARRIERS. Tit. XVI, Ch. 4.

If any such railway corporation shall charge, collect or receive for the transportation of any passenger or freight of any description upon its railroad, for any distance within the state, a greater amount of toll or compensation than is at the same time charged, collected or received for the transportation in the same direction of any passenger or like quantity of freight of the same class, over a greater distance of the same railway; or if it shall charge, collect or receive at any point upon its road a higher rate of toll or compensation for receiving, handling or delivering freight of the same class and quantity than it shall at the same time charge, collect or receive at any other point upon the same railway; or if it shall charge, collect or receive for the transportation of any passenger or freight of any description over its railway a greater amount as toll or compensation than shall at the same time be charged, collected or received by it for the transportation of any passenger or like quantity of freight of the same class being transported in the same direction over any portion of the same railway of equal distance; or if it shall charge, collect or receive from any person a higher or greater amount of toll or compensation than it shall at the same time charge, collect or receive from any other person for receiving, handling or delivering freight of the same class and like quantity at the same point upon its railway; or if it shall charge, collect or receive from any person for the transportation of any freight upon its railway a higher or greater rate of toll or compensation than it shall at the same time charge, collect or receive from any other person or persons for the transportation of the like quantity of freight of the same class being transported from the same point in the same direction over equal distances of the same railway; or if it shall charge, collect or receive from any person for the use and transportation of any railway car or cars upon its railroad for any distance, a greater amount of toll or compensation than is at the same time charged, collected or received from any other person for the use and transportation of any railway car of the same class or number, for a like purpose, being transported in the same direction over a greater distance of the same railway; or if it shall charge, collect or receive from any person for the use and transportation of any railway car or cars upon its railway a higher or greater compensation in the aggregate than it shall, at the same time, charge, collect or receive from any other person for the use and transportation of any railway car or cars of the same class for a like purpose, being transported from the same original point in the same direction, over an equal distance of the same railway; all such discriminating rates, charges, collections or receipts, whether made directly or by means of any rebate, drawback, or other shift or evasion, shall be received as prima facie evidence of the unjust discriminations prohibited by this chapter; and it shall not be a suffi-
SEC. 5201. Discrimination as to quantity.

No such common carrier shall charge, collect, demand or receive more for transporting a car of freight than it at the same time charges, collects, demands or receives per car for several cars of a like class of freight over the same railway, for the same distance, in the same direction; nor charge, collect, demand or receive more for transporting a ton of freight than it charges, collects, demands or receives per ton for several tons of freight under a carload of a like class over the same railway, for the same distance, in the same direction; nor charge, collect, demand or receive more for transporting a hundred pounds of freight than it charges, collects, demands or receives per hundred for several hundred pounds of freight, under a ton, of a like class, over the same railway, for the same distance, in the same direction; and all such discriminating rates, charges, collections or receipts, whether made directly or by means of any rebate, drawback, or other shift or evasion, shall be received as prima facie evidence of the unjust discrimination prohibited by this chapter; but for the protection and development of any new industry within the state, such railway company may grant concessions or special rates for any agreed number of carloads, which rates shall first be approved by the board of commissioners, and a copy thereof filed in its office.

SEC. 5202. Penalty for discrimination.

Any such corporation guilty of extortion, or of making any unjust discrimination as to passenger or freight rates, or the rates for the use and transportation of railway cars, or in receiving, handling or delivering freights, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not less than one thousand nor more than five thousand dollars for the first offense, and for each subsequent offense not less than five thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars,—such fine to be imposed in a criminal prosecution by indictment; or shall be subject to the lia-
SEC. 5203. Forfeiture.
Any such railway corporation guilty of extortion, or of making any unjust discrimination as to passenger or freight rates, or the rates for the use and transportation of railway cars, or in receiving, handling or delivering freights, shall forfeit and pay to the state not less than one thousand nor more than five thousand dollars for the first offense, and not less than five thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars for each subsequent offense, to be recovered in a civil action in the name of the state; and the release from liability or penalty provided for in this chapter shall not apply to a criminal prosecution under the last preceding section, or to a civil action under this section.

SEC. 5204. Suits by commissioners.
When the board has reason to believe that any railway corporation or carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter has been guilty of extortion or unjust discrimination, it shall immediately cause actions to be commenced and prosecuted against such railway corporation or carrier, which may be brought in any county of the state through or into which the line of the corporation sued may extend, and it may on behalf of the state employ counsel to assist the attorney general in conducting such actions. No actions thus commenced shall be dismissed unless they and the attorney general consent thereto. The court in its discretion may give preference to such actions over all other business, except criminal cases.

SEC. 5205. Free transportation or reduced rates.
Nothing in this chapter shall apply to the transportation, storage or handling of property free or at reduced rates for the United States, this state, or municipal governments, or for materials to be used by public authorities in constructing or maintaining public highways outside of the corporate limits of cities and towns, by common carriers, nor for charitable purposes, or to and from fairs and expositions for exhibition thereat, nor for the employees thereof or their families, or private property or goods for the family use of such employees, nor from giving reduced rates to the quartermaster general of Iowa for the transportation of officers or enlisted men of the Iowa national guard, when traveling under the orders of the commander in chief, or to ministers of religion, nor from giving free transportation to their own officers and employees, and their families dependent upon them for support, nor to persons in charge of live stock being shipped, from point of shipment to destination and return, nor to prevent the officers of any railway company from exchanging passes or tickets with other railroad companies for their officers and employees; and nothing in this chapter shall in any way abridge or alter the remedies now existing at common law or by statute, but the provisions thereof are in addition to such remedies.

SEC. 5206. Commissioners transported free.
1 The commissioners and their secretary shall be carried free, while 2 performing their duties, on all railroads and trains in the state, and 3 may take with them experts or other agents, who shall be carried free.
[C., '97, § 2151.]

1 The preceding sections of this chapter shall not be construed to 2 prohibit the making of rates by two or more railway companies for the 3 transportation of property over two or more of their respective lines 4 within the state; and a less charge by each of said companies for its 5 portion of such joint shipment than it charges for a shipment for the 6 same distance wholly over its own line within the state shall not be 7 considered a violation of said chapter, and shall not render such com-
8 pany liable to any of the penalties thereof; but the provisions of this 9 section shall not be construed to permit railway companies establish-10 ing joint rates to make thereby any unjust discrimination between the 11 different shipping points or stations upon their respective lines 12 between which joint rates are established, and any such unjust dis-13 crimination shall be punished in the manner and by the penalties pro-14 vided by this chapter.
[C., '97, § 2152.]

SEC. 5208. Connecting lines.
1 Every owner or consignor of freight to be transported by railway
2 from any point within this state to any other point within this state
3 shall have the right to require that the same shall be transported over 4 two or more connecting lines of railway, to be transferred at the con-5 necting point or points without change of car or cars if in carload lots,
6 and with or without change of car or cars if in less than carload lots,
7 whenever the distance from the place of shipment to destination, both 8 being within this state, is less over two or more connecting lines of 9 railway than it is over a single line of railway, or where the initial line 10 does not reach the place of destination; and it shall be the duty, upon 11 the request of any such owner or consignor of freight, made to the 12 initial company, of such railway companies whose lines so connect, to 13 transport the freight without change of car or cars if the shipment be 14 in a carload lot or lots, and with change of car or cars if it be in less 15 than carload lots, from the place of shipment to destination, whenever 16 the distance from the place of shipment to destination, both being 17 within this state, is less than the distance over a single line, or when 18 the initial line does not reach the point of destination, for a reasonable 19 joint through rate. This section shall apply to interurban railways 20 and their connection with ordinary steam railways.
[C., '97, § 2153; S., '13, § 2153.]

SEC. 5209. Reasonable through rates—no discrimination.
1 When shipments of freight to be transported between different 2 points within the state are required to be carried by two or more rail-
3 way companies operating connecting lines, such railway companies
4 shall transport the same at reasonable through rates, and shall at all
5 times give the same facilities and accommodations to local or state 6 traffic as they give to interstate traffic over their lines of road.
[C., '97, § 2154.]
SEC. 5210. Schedules of joint rates.

1 The board of railroad commissioners shall make and publish a 2 schedule of joint through railway rates for such traffic and on such 3 routes as in its judgment the fair and reasonable conduct of business 4 requires shall be done by carriage over two or more lines of railway, 5 and will promote the interests of the people of this state. In the making 6 thereof, and in changing, revising or adding to the same, the board 7 shall be governed as nearly as may be by the preceding sections of this 8 chapter, and shall take into consideration, among other things, the 9 rates established for shipments within this state for like distances 10 over single lines, the rates charged by the railway companies operating 11 such connecting lines for joint interstate shipments, and the in-12 creased cost, if any, of a joint through shipment as compared with a 13 shipment over a single line for like distances. In establishing such 14 rates for shipments in less than carload lots, in cases where at the 15 connecting point or points in the line of shipment the connecting rail-16 ways have not and are not required to have a common station or stop-17 ping place for loading or unloading freight, the board shall make such 18 lawful regulations as in its judgment will be fair and just respecting 19 the transportation of such freight from the usual unloading place of 20 one railway to the usual loading place of the other. The joint through 21 rates thus established shall be promulgated by mailing a printed copy 22 thereof to each railway company affected thereby, and shall go into 23 effect within ten days after they are so promulgated; and from and 24 after that time an official printed schedule thereof shall be prima facie 25 evidence, in all the courts of this state, that the rates therein fixed 26 are just and reasonable for the joint transportation of such freight 27 between the points and over the lines described therein. The said 28 board shall deliver a printed copy of said schedule to any person making 29 application therefor. The share of any railway company of any 30 joint through rate shall not be construed to fix the charge that it may 31 make for transportation for a similar distance over any part of its line 32 for any single rate shipment or the share of any other joint rate. The 33 board, upon such reasonable notice as it may prescribe, may, upon its 34 own motion or upon the application of any person, firm or corporation 35 interested therein, revise, change or add to any joint through rates 36 fixed or promulgated hereunder; and any such revised, changed or 37 added joint rates shall have the same force and effect as the rate or 38 rates originally established. The said board is empowered to author-39 ize, upon proper hearing, any railway company whose line connects 40 the point of shipment with the point of destination but requires a 41 longer haul than the joint haul over which a joint rate has been estab-42 lished, to charge the joint rate without affecting the charge upon any 43 other part of its line, except that the charge for a like kind of property 44 must not be greater for a shorter than for a longer distance over its 45 railroad, all of the shorter haul being included within the longer. This 46 section shall apply to interurban railways and their connection with 47 ordinary steam railways.

[C., '97, § 2155 ; S., '13, § 2155.]

SEC. 5211. Division of joint rates.

1 Before the promulgation of such rates, the board shall notify the 2 railroad companies interested of the schedule of joint rates fixed, and 3 give them a reasonable time thereafter to agree upon a division of the 4 charges provided for therein. If such companies fail to agree upon a division, and to notify the board thereof, it shall, after a hearing of the companies interested, decide the same, taking into consideration the value of terminal facilities and all the circumstances of the haul, and the division so determined by it shall, in all controversies or actions between the railway companies interested, be prima facie evidence of a just and reasonable division thereof.

[C., '97, § 2156.]

SEC. 5212. Unreasonable charges—penalty.
1 Every unjust and unreasonable charge for the transportation 2 of freight and cars over two or more railroads in this state is prohibited, and every company making such unreasonable and unlawful 4 charges, or otherwise violating the provisions of this chapter, shall 5 be punished as provided in this chapter for the making of unreasonable charges for the transportation of freight and cars over a single line of railroad by a single railway company.

[C., '97, § 2157.]

SEC. 5213. Adequate stockyards required.
1 Any person, firm or corporation operating a railroad within the 2 state of Iowa shall provide at each of its stations where live stock is 3 received for shipment, adequate stockyards, which shall be substantially provided with good gates, suitable chutes for loading live stock, 4 suitable sheds for the protection of live stock from the inclemency of 5 weather, suitable troughs from which live stock may be watered
6 and an ample water supply conveniently located and supplied by pipes
7 from wells or other water supply, the amount of such water supply 9 to be at all times sufficient for all live stock in said yards and also 10 for the wetting down of cars in hot weather.

SEC. 5214. Duty of railroad commissioners.
1 It shall be the duty of the said board of railroad commissioners
2 to enforce the provisions of the preceding section, and, upon a com-3 plaint signed by five or more shippers of live stock, it shall be their 4 duty to investigate the stockyards and loading facilities at any such 5 station and determine their adequacy and shall have power to make 6 such order for the improvement of said yards as shall, in their judg-7 ment, seem necessary.

[37 G. A., ch. 211, § 2.]

SEC. 5215. Transportation of live stock — conditions — return transportation.
1 Common carriers of live stock, in carload lots, upon receiving, in 2 this state, for shipment one or more carloads of horses or mules or 3 two or more carloads of other live stock, shall upon demand of the 4 owner of such animals offered for shipment, issue to such owner, or 5 the actual agent or employee of such owner, without other consideration, transportation from the place of receiving such shipment to the 7 place of destination, and return, such transportation to be limited to 8 one person for each shipment, as is above set out. When a single ship-9 ment aggregates six cars or more, such owner shall be entitled, on de-10 mand, as is above provided, to transportation for one additional per-11 son, such additional person to be an actual agent or employee of such §§ 5216-5220. REGULATION OF CARRIERS. Tit. XVI, Ch. 4.

12 owner, and such common carrier shall in like manner and under sim-13 ilar conditions issue transportation for one person to destination of 14 shipment only to the shipper of one carload of cattle, hogs or sheep.
15 The return transportation herein provided for is to be delivered, upon 16 demand, at the office of the carrier at the place of destination, upon 17 proper identification of the person so entitled to same, and shall be 18 good for transportation if presented within forty-eight hours from 19 the time of the delivery of such shipment at place of destination.

SEC. 5216. Penalty.

1 Any common carrier violating the above provisions shall forfeit
2 and pay to the owner of any shipment, as is above provided, three 3 times the amount of the regular fare expended by such owner for him-4 self, or his agent, in going from point of shipment to point of des-5 tination, and return, of a shipment of stock as herein provided.

SEC. 5217. Misuse of transportation—trespasser.

1 Any person other than the owner, his agent or employees, as is 2 described in the two preceding sections, attempting to use, or using,
3 the transportation therein provided for, shall be considered a tres-4 passer upon the trains or premises of such common carrier.

SEC. 5218. Water-closets in cabooses.

1 The cabooses or cars attached to such stock trains, and in 2 which the holders of such transportation are required to ride when 3 accompanying such live stock to market, shall be provided with suit-4 able water-closets for the use of such persons while in transit.

SEC. 5219. Penalty.

1 Any railroad in this state engaged in the transportation of live
2 stock, and failing or refusing to comply with the requirements of the 3 foregoing section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon 4 conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars
5 for each day's negligence or refusal to comply therewith; and all
6 moneys so collected as fines shall be paid into the public school funds 7 of the state.

SEC. 5220. Free passes—issuance or acceptance—what prohibited.

1 No common carrier of passengers shall, directly or indirectly, is-
2 sue, furnish or give any free ticket, free pass or free transportation 3 for the carriage or passage of any person within this state except as 4 permitted in the next section. Nor shall any common carrier, in the 5 sale of tickets for transportation at reduced rates, discriminate be-6 tween persons purchasing the same, except the persons described in 7 the next section. Nor shall any person accept or use any free ticket, 8 free pass or free transportation except the persons described in said
9 section. The words "free ticket," "free pass," "free transportation," 10 as used in this act [32 G. A., ch. 112] shall include any ticket, pass, 11 contract, permit or transportation issued, furnished or given to any SEC. 5221. Persons entitled to such transportation.

1 The persons to whom free tickets, free passes, free transporta-
2 tion and discriminating reduced rates may be issued, furnished, or 3 given are the following, to wit: (a) the officers, agents, employees, at-4 torneys, physicians, and surgeons, of such common carriers of pas-5 sengers whose chief and principal occupation is to render service to 6 common carriers of passengers; (b) to the families of the persons in-7 cluded in subdivision “a” hereof; (c) the general officers of any such 8 common carrier; (d) employees on sleeping cars, express cars, and

In any prosecution under this section if it is claimed that a free 37 ticket, free pass or other transportation was wrongfully issued or 38 given to physicians or surgeons, attorneys, agents, or employees, it 39 shall be incumbent upon the defendant to prove the character of the 40 service rendered, or to be rendered. The provisions of this section 41 shall not be construed to prohibit the interchange of passes for the 42 persons to whom free tickets, free passes, or free transportation may 43 be furnished or given under the provisions of this section. Nothing 44 in this section shall operate to repeal the provisions of section fifty-45 two hundred five so far as said section refers to the members of the 46 national guard, nor shall it operate to repeal section fifty-two hundred 47 six. Nothing in this section shall be construed to invalidate any exist-48 ing contract between a street railway company and a city where a 49 condition of a franchise grant requires the furnishing of transporta-§§ 5222-5225.
REGULATION OF CARRIERS.

Tit. XVI, Ch. 4.

SEC. 5222.  Testimony—immunity from prosecution.

SEC. 5223.  Penalty.

Any common carrier, its officer, agent or representative, violating any of the provisions of the three preceding sections shall be fined in a sum not less than one hundred dollars and not more than ten hundred dollars for each offense, or in the discretion of the court shall be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty and not more than ninety days; and any person other than the persons excepted in the next to the last preceding section who accepts or uses any free ticket, free pass or free transportation for carriage or passage within this state shall be subject to a like penalty.

Every common carrier of passengers within the provisions of the four preceding sections shall on or before the first day of February of each year, file with the executive council of the state of Iowa, a sworn statement showing the names of all persons within this state to whom, during the preceding calendar year, it issued, furnished or gave a free ticket, free pass, free transportation or a discriminating reduced rate, except wage earners of common carriers in their ordinary employment and families of such wage earners, and disclosing such further information as will enable the council to determine whether the person to whom it was issued was within the exception of said provisions.

SEC. 5225.  Weighing of coal in car lots—scales—weight certificates to be furnished on request.

Such track scales shall be so installed and maintained at all division stations along the line of such railroads within the state of Iowa, and at such other stations as the board of railroad commissioners shall from time to time direct.

SEC. 5226. At point where shipment originates.
1 Every person, firm or corporation engaged in operating any rail-
2 road within the state of Iowa over which coal in carload lots shall be 3 transported for hire, shall weigh such coal at point where such ship-4 ment originates unless covered by weight agreement between con-5 signor and railway company, provided such point is equipped with 6 track scales. If not so equipped, it shall be weighed at first practicable 7 point en route where track scales are provided. Said person, firm or 8 corporation shall furnish to said shipper a bill of lading showing date 9 and place weighed, also the gross, tare and net weight for each car-10 load of coal so weighed. The tare weight shall be determined by using 11 actual weight of empty car at loading station, provided track scales 12 are maintained at such point.

[S., '13, § 2157-m.]

SEC. 5227. At destination upon request—fee.
1 Such coal shall be weighed at destination upon request of con-
2 signee when there are track scales at such point. If not equipped 3 with track scales at such point, then at nearest practicable point en 4 route where such scales are maintained, and certificate of weight,
5 showing actual gross, tare and net weights, shall be furnished to con-
6 signee and settlement of freight charges based on these weights. A 7 reasonable charge of not more than one dollar per car may be made 8 for such weighing on request.

SEC. 5228. How weighed.
1 Cars when weighed on track scales shall be uncoupled, clear and 2 unhampered at both ends, carefully weighed by competent weighmen
3 and certificates issued upon request of consignees, showing gross, tare 4 and net weights.

SEC. 5229. Prima facie evidence.
1 Certificates mentioned in the preceding sections shall be prima 2 facie evidence of the facts therein recited in any action arising be-3 tween consignors and consignees and common carriers.

SEC. 5230. Penalty.
1 Any common carrier operating in this state violating any of the 2 provisions of the five preceding sections by neglecting or refusing to 3 weigh cars or to furnish certificates of weights as therein provided 4 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be, upon conviction thereof, 5 fined in the sum of not more than one hundred twenty-five dollars for 6 each and every violation.

SEC. 5231. Reconsignment without charge.
1 Upon request of the consignee it shall be the duty of any common brought to said place of destination over its own or other line and treat the same in all respects as an original shipment between such places, provided the charges to first place of destination are paid or secured to the satisfaction of such company.

[S., '13, § 2157-r.]

SEC. 5232. Movement of cars of live stock—burden of proof.
It is hereby made the duty of all common carriers of freight within this state to move cars of live stock at the highest practicable speed consistent with reasonable safety, and the reasonable movement of its general traffic. The burden of proof that cars of live stock are so moved shall be upon the carrier, and proof that such cars were moved according to schedule or time-table shall not be prima facie evidence that they were moved at the highest practicable speed consistent with reasonable safety.
[S., '13, § 2157-s.]

SEC. 5233. Railroad commissioners to prescribe speed.
In order to enforce the duty prescribed in the preceding section, the board of railroad commissioners shall immediately and from time to time investigate the practice of the common carriers with respect to the movement of live stock; and if it ascertains at any time that the common carriers or any of them are not moving cars of live stock with the proper speed, then upon notice to any such common carrier or carriers, the said board shall prescribe the speed at which and the conditions under which cars of live stock shall be moved within this state by any such carrier or carriers. The order shall specify the time at which it shall go into effect, which shall be as soon as, in the judgment of the board, the carrier or carriers affected can, with reasonable diligence, readjust its or their time-tables. The power to prescribe speed and determine conditions for the movement of cars of live stock within this state is hereby expressly conferred upon the said board of railroad commissioners.
[S., '13, § 2157-t.]

SEC. 5234. Enforcement.
Any order, ruling or regulation made by the board under the two preceding sections shall be enforceable as provided in section fifty hundred twenty-two.
[S., '13, § 2157-u.]

SEC. 5235. Cruelty to animals by railways, when transporting.
No railway company in this state, in the carrying or transportation of cattle, sheep, swine or other animals, shall confine the same in cars for a longer period than twenty-eight consecutive hours, unless delayed by storm or other accidental cause, without unloading for rest, water and feeding for a period of at least five consecutive hours; provided that upon the written request of the owner or person in custody of that particular shipment, which written request shall be separate and apart from any printed bill of lading, or other railroad form, the time of confinement may be extended to thirty-six hours.
In estimating such confinement, the time the animals have been confined without such rest on connecting railways from which they are received shall be computed, it being the intention of this section to prevent their continuous confinement beyond twenty-eight hours, except upon the contingencies before stated; and animals unloaded for rest, water and feeding shall be properly fed, watered and sheltered during such rest by the owners or persons in custody thereof, or, in case of their default in so doing, then by the railway company transporting them, at the expense of said owners or persons in custody thereof, and said company shall have a lien upon such animals for food, care and custody furnished, and shall not be liable for any detention of such animals authorized by this section. But when such animals shall be carried in cars in which they shall and do have proper food, water, space and opportunity for rest, the foregoing provisions in regard to their being unloaded shall not apply. Any railway company, owner or custodian of such animals, who shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section, shall, for each and every such offense, be liable for and forfeit and pay a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars.

CHAPTER 5.
INTERURBAN RAILWAYS.

SECTION 5236. Definition.

Any railway operated upon the streets of a city or town by electric or other power than steam, which extends beyond the corporate limits of such city or town to another city, town or village, or any railway operated by electric or other power than steam, extending from one city, town or village to another city, town or village, shall be known as an interurban railway, and shall be a work of internal improvement.

SEC. 5237. When deemed a street railway.

Any interurban railway shall, within the corporate limits of any city or town, or of any city acting under a special charter, upon such streets as it shall use for transporting passengers, mail, baggage, and such parcels, packages, and freight as it may carry in its passenger or combination baggage cars only, be deemed a street railway, and be subject to the laws governing street railways.

SEC. 5238. What statutes apply.

The words railway, railway company, railway corporation, railroad, railroad company, and railroad corporation, as used in the code and acts of the general assembly, now in force or hereafter enacted, are hereby declared to apply to and include all interurban railways, and all companies or corporations constructing, owning or operating such interurban street railways, and all provisions of the code and acts of the general assembly, now in force or hereafter enacted, affecting railways, railway companies, railway corporations, railroads, railroad companies and railroad corporations, are hereby declared to affect and apply in full force and effect to all interurban railways, and to all interurban railway companies or railway corporations constructing, owning or operating such interurban railways.

SEC. 5239. Interurban or street railway over highways.

Any interurban or street railway may, for the purpose of constructing or extending its line, locate, build and operate its road by any power other than steam, over and along any portion of the public road, beyond the limits of any city or town, which is one hundred feet or more wide. It shall as soon as practicable put the road in as good repair as it was before its use for such railway. Boards of supervisors are authorized to accept for road purposes conveyances of land adjacent to such road or part thereof sufficient to increase the same to the width of one hundred feet; but in any county in which such company desires to operate its line of railway over a road not less than sixty feet in width, for a distance not over two miles, beyond the limits of a city or town, the board of supervisors may grant the right to it to operate its line over said road, not exceeding two miles, under such rules and regulations as said board may prescribe, and may also from time to time make such further reasonable regulations as may be necessary. Where an interurban railway desires to operate its lines along or upon a public highway beyond the limits of any city or town, and in the opinion of the board of supervisors of the county in which such highway is located, it is impracticable or inexpedient to increase the width thereof to one hundred feet, such board of supervisors may permit such interurban railway company to construct and operate its railway along and upon such highway, under such restrictions and regulations as the board may deem advisable; but no such railway shall construct or operate its line along or upon such highway until a written statement of consent of two-thirds of the residents owning property abutting upon such highway shall have been obtained and filed with the auditor of the county in which the highway is located; but no such written consent signed by any abutting landowner shall be construed to waive any claim for damages he may have on account of the location and construction of such railway upon and along the highway in front of the premises unless expressly so stated therein, and no such written consent shall have the effect to deprive any other abutting landowner of his right to recover damages therefor. And in all cases the location, construction and operation of such interurban railway shall be subject to the provisions relating to eminent domain.

[C., '97, § 2026; S., '13, § 2026.]

SEC. 5240. Powers of cities and towns.

Cities and towns and cities acting under special charters shall have power to authorize or forbid the construction of such railways upon, or over, or along the streets, alleys and public grounds within their limits and to prescribe the conditions and regulations under which said railways shall be constructed and operated within said limits. But the right to operate as a street railway under section fifty-two hundred thirty-seven shall not be granted for a period exceeding twenty-five years. Nothing herein shall impair the obligation of contracts of such city or town heretofore made. This chapter shall not in any manner affect sections thirty-eight hundred twenty-four and thirty-eight hundred twenty-five, which shall be applicable to interurban railways.

SEC. 5241. Grade crossings—duties of employees—penalty.

Wherever the tracks of an interurban railway cross the tracks of any steam railway at grade the steam railway shall have the right of way and not be compelled to stop its trains and the interurban railway company operating said line shall cause its cars to come to a full stop not nearer than ten feet nor farther than fifty feet from such crossing, and before proceeding to cross said steam railway tracks shall cause some person in its employ first to cross said track ahead of said car or cars and ascertain if the way is clear and free from danger for the passage of said interurban cars, and said interurban cars shall not proceed to cross until signaled to do so by such person employed as aforesaid, or said way is clear for such passage over said tracks. Every person in charge of any interurban car or cars, who wilfully fails to comply with the provisions hereof and fails to bring the car or cars which he has in charge to a stop, or causes the same to cross said steam railway tracks before the way is clear, or he is signalled to do so, shall be subject to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred dollars or imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed twelve months, in the discretion of the court. Said interurban railways shall pay a reasonable compensation for the privileges and power that may be furnished them as above mentioned under this section. If an agreement for the use of the facilities so furnished and the compensation for the same can not be made between the interested parties the question as to the amount of such compensation and the conditions... under which said facilities shall be furnished, used and operated, shall be heard and determined by the board of railroad commissioners of the state, on petition to the said board by either party to the con-upon the opposite party; and any order entered by said board of railroad commissioners or court, upon appeal, shall be subject to modito all the rules of equity practice, except that the court shall require the issues to be made up at the first term after the petition is filed and give the proceedings precedence over all other civil business and try the same thereafter. The action shall be triable de novo upon said appeal, except that the question of compensation for the tracks, poles, wires, terminals and power to be furnished shall first be tried to a jury in the same manner and with the same effect as jury trials in ordinary proceedings, and the jury shall assess, sep-court shall direct. No such appeal shall suspend the order appealed made shall file such bond for the payment of damages and costs as the district court to which such appeal is taken, or a judge thereof, may order and require. In all cases payment of the compensation awarded shall be made or secured to be made as the board of railroad

6 built tracks in a city or town used for street railway purposes it may 7 acquire the use of such tracks, poles and wires as may be necessary 8 to complete a terminal loop for the cars operated on such tracks and 9 for the use of its interurban cars only, under the provisions of this
10 chapter.

[S., '13, § 2110-f.]

CHAPTER 6.
INTERURBAN RAILWAYS IN CERTAIN CITIES.

SECTION 5251. Interurban railways entitled to the use of other tracks—relocation—compensation.

When any corporation has heretofore, or hereafter shall be authorized by any city of this state having not less than thirty thousand nor more than thirty-five thousand inhabitants according to the federal census of A. D. nineteen hundred ten, to construct and operate an interurban railway upon any of the streets of such city, and shall desire to extend, construct and operate its said interurban railway upon other streets of said city upon which railroad track or tracks are located, and shall be authorized by the city council of said city by resolution so to do, and such streets are so occupied by railroad tracks that it is not practicable to construct and operate said interurban railway thereon, the owners, lessees and operators of said railroad tracks are authorized and required, if practicable, to relocate such of their tracks on said streets as are necessary to permit of the construction and operation of said interurban railway, and if it is not practicable to relocate said railroad tracks, then the owners, lessees and operators are authorized and required to permit said interurban railway to use such of their said tracks as are necessary for the operation and carrying on of the business of said interurban railway, and to permit to be made such alterations in, attachments to and connections with said railroad tracks and to be installed and maintained such trolley system or other construction or equipment as will permit the use in common of said railroad tracks by said interurban railway for railway purposes and by the owners, lessees or other operators thereof for ordinary steam railway purposes.

Where it is practicable to relocate said railroad tracks, and it is also practicable to operate said interurban railway over said tracks without relocating the same, the owners, lessees and operators of such railroad tracks may elect to grant the use thereof to said interurban railway and permit to be made such alterations in, attachments to and connections with the same and to the installation and maintenance of such trolley system or other construction or equipment as will permit the use in common of said railroad tracks by said interurban railway and the said owners, lessees and operators thereof, and signify such election in writing, filed in the proceeding before the commencement of the hearing of said proceeding on appeal in the district court as hereinafter provided, then said tracks may be so used in place of being relocated.

The owner of said interurban railway shall pay just compensation to the owners, lessees or operators of any railroad tracks for the relocation or use and alteration of said railroad tracks, and for the exercise of such other privileges as are granted such interurban railway under the provisions of this chapter.

[S. S., '15, § 2033-g.]

If an agreement can not be made between the said owner of said interurban railway and the owners, lessees and operators of such railroad tracks for the relocation or use of such railroad tracks, or as to the alterations, attachments and connections that shall be made therein § 5253. INTERURBAN RAILWAYS IN CERTAIN CITIES. Tit. XVI, Ch. 6.

5 or thereto, or as to the manner of the installation and maintenance 6 of the trolley system or other construction or equipment such as will 7 permit such common use of such tracks, or the terms and conditions 8 of or the compensation to be paid for such relocation or use and the 9 alterations or attachments to said railroad tracks and the exercise of 10 such other privileges as are granted to such interurban railway un-11 der the provisions of this chapter, then all said matters shall be heard 12 and determined by the board of railroad commissioners of the state
13 of Iowa upon petition to said board by the owner of said interurban 14 railway or other party to the controversy.
15 Upon filing of said petition said board shall fix a time for the 16 hearing thereof, and twenty days' notice of the filing of said petition 17 and of the time fixed for the hearing thereof shall be given by the 18 petitioner to the opposite parties. Said notice shall be served in the 19 manner provided by law for the service of notices of the commence-20 ment of a civil action in the district court.
21 The commission shall have the power and, upon the demand of 22 any party appearing in said proceeding, shall appoint a shorthand re-

24 hearing, and the commission shall have power to require any party
25 to said hearing to produce books, records, papers or other documents 26 material to said inquiry, and shall have the power to subpoena and 27 require the attendance of witnesses.
28 All orders of the commission or revisions or modifications of said 29 orders shall be subject to revision or modification by the commission 30 upon application of any party to the original proceeding, made in the 31 same manner and under the same procedure as is provided for ap-32 plications for original orders, provided that there shall be no revisions 33 or modification of any order for the relocation of railroad tracks or of 34 compensation, if the total compensation was fixed at one definite sum;
35 provided, further, that in the event of additional cost of construction 36 or additional cost of maintenance occasioned by viaducts, track eleva-37 tion or depression, crossing gates or other safety appliances or the 38 installation of more expensive types of track construction, the com-39 pensation shall be subject to revision and modification in the manner 40 and by the method as in this chapter provided.

[S. S., '15, § 2033-h.]

SEC. 5253. Appeal—how taken—service—record certified—consolida-

2 Any party to said proceeding may appeal to the district court of 3 the county where said city is located from any order made by the board 4 of railroad commissioners under this chapter within twenty days from 5 the date of the order appealed from.
6 Such appeal shall be taken and perfected by the party appealing
7 by serving a notice in writing upon the other parties to said proceed-

9 the office of the clerk of the district court of the county to which said 10 appeal is taken, a petition stating the general nature of the proceed-

12 part thereof appealed from, and that an appeal has been taken and 13 asking the court to determine the matter in controversy.
14 Such notice of appeal shall be served and proof of service thereof 15 made in the same manner as an original notice in a civil action, and 16 shall be filed with the secretary of the board of railroad commis-16 tioners. Service of such notice of appeal may be made upon any at-17 torney appearing for any party in the proceedings before the board
18 of railroad commissioners with the same force and effect as if served 19 upon such party.
20 Such petition filed in the office of the clerk of the district court to 21 which an appeal is taken shall be entitled in the name of the inter-
22 urban railway company as plaintiff and the other parties to the appeal 23 as defendants.
24 Immediately after twenty days from the date of any order ap-25 pealed from said board of railroad commissioners shall certify to the 26 clerk of the district court to which an appeal or appeals have been 27 taken, a transcript of the papers and proceedings before said board 28 and its order thereon and all notices of appeal therefrom with proofs 29 of service thereof.
30 All appeals growing out of a single order of said board of rail-31 road commissioners shall be consolidated and tried together, provided 32 that if the owners, lessees and operators of said railroad tracks have 33 filed their election to permit the use of said tracks by said interurban 34 railway after an appeal has been taken by any party to the proceed-35 ings as herein provided, each and all of the matters and things heard 36 and determined by the board of railroad commissioners shall, subject 37 to such election, be heard and determined by the district court the 38 same as if each of the parties to said proceeding had appealed from 39 the entire order of said board.
40 The proceedings upon appeal shall be in equity and subject to all 41 of the rules of equity practice, except that the court shall require the 42 issues to be made up at the first term after the petition is filed and 43 give the proceedings precedence over other civil business and try the 44 same thereat, if possible. The action shall be triable de novo upon 45 said appeal; provided, however, that the question of the amount of 46 compensation for the relocation or use of any tracks and for the other 47 privileges granted shall be tried in the same manner and with the 48 same effect as trials upon appeal from assessments for the taking of 49 private property for works of internal improvement.
50 Upon trial to determine the amount of compensation, the court
51 shall first determine the basis, whether as rental or otherwise, upon 52 which compensation shall be paid, and the terms and conditions of 53 such payment, and all questions of the amount of compensation shall, 54 upon such appeal, be tried before the same jury, who shall return a 55 separate verdict fixing the amount of compensation to which each 56 party to the proceedings is entitled, and in the event of appeal to the 57 supreme court, the proceedings tried before a jury shall be heard and 58 determined the same as in a law action.

[S. S., '15, § 2033-i.]

SEC. 5254. Order not suspended by appeal—bond.

2 interurban railway company in whose behalf any order is made by 3 the board of railroad commissioners shall file in the office of the clerk
4 of the district court of the county to which such appeal is taken, a 5 bond in such amount and upon such conditions as the district court to

7. No guy wire or guy cable attached to any pole or appliance to which is attached any wire or cable used to conduct electricity for light and power shall be erected or maintained without causing such guy wire or guy cable to be kept effectively insulated by approved insulators placed in such wire or cable not less than nine feet, nor more than eleven feet, from each end thereof; provided, however, that the lower insulator shall not be less than eight feet, perpendicularly, from the ground.

8. No wire or cable shall be erected or maintained vertically on any wooden pole, without causing such wire or cable to be at all times incased in a casing of wooden material not less than three-quarters of an inch in thickness, or of other insulating material approved by the railroad commission; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to any vertical wire which is more than thirteen inches from center line of pole.

All wires and cut-outs on same crossarm must be at least fourteen inches apart, except pole wires, which must be twenty-six inches apart.

In any case where it is found impracticable to comply with the foregoing requirements or when to the satisfaction of the railroad commission it is found that in the advancement of the art or trade, improved methods, appliances, fixtures and requirements will the better conserve persons and property, including the operation of such property, the railroad commission is hereby empowered, upon application made in writing, to allow such reasonable deviation therefrom as may be deemed reasonably safe and necessary.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association or corporation including a municipal corporation to place, construct, keep or maintain any fixture, appliance or other thing contrary to the terms and provisions of this and the preceding section, and the railroad commission is hereby empowered to enforce the provisions of this and the preceding section with reference to such matter.

2. 1. The date of its issue,
3. 2. The name of the person from whom the goods have been received,
4. 3. The place where the goods have been received,
5. 4. The place to which the goods are to be transported,
6. 5. A statement whether the goods received will be delivered to a specified person, or to the order of a specified person,
7. 6. A description of the goods or of the packages containing them which may, however, be in such general terms as are referred to in section fifty-two hundred eighty-five, and
8. 7. The signature of the carrier.

A negotiable bill shall have the words “order of” printed thereon immediately before the name of the person upon whose order the goods received are deliverable.

A carrier shall be liable to any person injured thereby for the damage caused by the omission from a negotiable bill of any of the provisions required in this section.

[S., '13, § 3138-b1.]

SEC. 5265. Certain terms may be inserted.

1. A carrier may insert in a bill, issued by him, any other terms and conditions, provided that such terms and conditions shall not—
2. 1. Be contrary to law or public policy, or
3. 2. In any wise impair his obligation to exercise at least that degree of care in the transportation and safe-keeping of the goods entrusted to him which a reasonably careful man would exercise in regard to similar goods of his own.

SEC. 5266. Nonnegotiable or straight bill.

1. A bill in which it is stated that the goods are consigned or destined to a specified person, is a nonnegotiable or straight bill.

[S., '13, § 3138-b3.]

SEC. 5267. Negotiable or order bill.

1. A bill in which it is stated that the goods are consigned or destined to the order of any person named in such bill, is a negotiable or order bill. Any provision in such a bill that it is nonnegotiable shall not affect its negotiability within the meaning of this chapter.

SEC. 5268. Negotiable bills not to be issued in parts or sets—liability for violation.
Negotiable bills issued in this state for the transportation of goods to any place in the United States on the continent of North America, except Alaska, shall not be issued in parts or sets. If so issued the carrier issuing them shall be liable for failure to deliver the goods described therein to anyone who purchases a part for value in good faith, even though the purchase be after the delivery of the goods by the carrier to a holder of one of the other parts.

SEC. 5269. Duplicate bills to be so marked—liability for violation.
When more than one negotiable bill is issued in this state for the same goods to be transported to any place in the United States on the continent of North America, except Alaska, the word "duplicate" or some other word or words indicating that the document is not an original bill shall be placed plainly upon the face of every such bill, except the one first issued. A carrier shall be liable for the damage caused by his failure so to do to anyone who has purchased the bill for value in good faith as an original, even though the purchase be after the delivery of the goods by the carrier to the holder of the original bill.

SEC. 5270. Nonnegotiable bill to be so marked.
A nonnegotiable bill shall have placed plainly upon its face by the carrier issuing it "nonnegotiable" or "not negotiable." This section shall not apply, however, to memoranda or acknowledgments of an informal character.
[S., '13, § 3138-b7.]

SEC. 5271. Insertion of name of person to be notified not to limit negotiability.
The insertion in a negotiable bill of the name of a person to be notified of the arrival of goods shall not limit the negotiability of the bill, or constitute notice to a purchaser thereof of any rights or equities of such person in the goods.

SEC. 5272. Waiver of objections to terms—estoppel.
Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, where a consignor receives a bill and makes no objection to its terms or conditions at the time he receives it, neither the consignor nor any person who accepts delivery of the goods, nor any person who seeks to enforce any provision of the bill, shall be allowed to deny that he is bound by such terms and conditions, so far as they are not contrary to law or public policy.
[S., '13, § 3138-b9.]

SEC. 5273. Delivery of goods by carrier—refusal—burden of proof.
A carrier, in the absence of some lawful excuse, is bound to deliver goods upon a demand made either by the consignee named in the §§ 5274-5276. UNIFORM BILLS OF LADING. Tit. XVI, Ch. 8.

3 bill for the goods, or if the bill is negotiable, by the holder thereof, 4 if such demand is accompanied by— 5 1. An offer in good faith to satisfy the carrier's lawful lien upon 6 the goods. 7 2. An offer in good faith to surrender, properly indorsed, the bill 8 which was issued for the goods, if the bill is negotiable, and 9 3. A readiness and willingness to sign, when the goods are de- 10 livered, an acknowledgment that they have been delivered, if such 11 signature is requested by the carrier. 12 In case the carrier refuses or fails to deliver the goods in com- 13 pliance with a demand by the consignee or holder so accompanied, the 14 burden shall be upon the carrier to establish the existence of a lawful 15 excuse for such refusal or failure.

SEC. 5274. Carrier justified in delivering goods to certain persons, conditionally. 1 A carrier is justified, subject to the provisions of the three fol- 2 lowing sections, in delivering goods to one who is— 3 1. A person lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods, or 4 2. The consignee named in a nonnegotiable bill for the goods, or 5 3. A person in possession of a negotiable bill for the goods by the 6 terms of which the goods are deliverable to his order, or which has 7 been indorsed to him or in blank by the consignee or by the mediate 8 or immediate indorsee of the consignee.

SEC. 5275. Liability of carrier in certain cases. 1 Where a carrier delivers goods to one who is not lawfully entitled 2 to the possession of them the carrier shall be liable to anyone having 3 a right of property or possession in the goods if he delivered the goods 4 otherwise than as authorized by subdivisions two and three of the 5 preceding section; and, though he delivered the goods as authorized 6 by either of said subdivisions, he shall be so liable if prior to such 7 delivery he— 8 1. Had been requested, by or on behalf of a person having a right 9 of property or possession in the goods, not to make such delivery, or 10 2. Had information at the time of the delivery that it was to a 11 person not lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods. 12 A request or information to be effective within the meaning of 13 this section must be given to an officer or agent of the carrier, the 14 actual or apparent scope of whose duties includes action upon such 15 a request or information, and must be given in time to enable the 16 officer or agent to whom it is given, acting with reasonable diligence, 17 to stop delivery of the goods.

SEC. 5276. Failure of carrier to cancel negotiable bill—liability. 1 Except as provided in section fifty-two hundred eighty-nine, and 2 except when compelled by legal process, if a carrier delivers goods 3 for which a negotiable bill had been issued, the negotiation of which 4 would transfer the right to the possession of the goods, and fails to 5 take up and cancel the bill, such carrier shall be liable for failure to 6 deliver the goods to anyone who for value and in good faith purchases
Sec. 5277. Failure of carrier to cancel negotiable bill—delivery of part of goods.

Except as provided in section fifty-two hundred eighty-nine, and except when compelled by legal process, if a carrier delivers part of the goods for which a negotiable bill had been issued and fails either—
1. To take up and cancel the bill, or
2. To place plainly upon it a statement that a portion of the goods has been delivered, with a description, which may be in general terms, either of the goods or packages that have been so delivered or of the goods or packages which still remain in the carrier's possession, he shall be liable for failure to deliver all the goods specified in the bill, to anyone who for value and in good faith purchases it, whether such purchaser acquired title to it before or after the delivery of any portion of the goods by the carrier, and notwithstanding such delivery was made to the person entitled thereto.

[S., '13, § 3138-bl13.]

Sec. 5278. Alterations without authority void.

Any alteration, addition or erasure in a bill after its issue without authority from the carrier issuing the same either in writing or noted on the bill shall be void, whatever be the nature and purpose of the change, and the bill shall be enforceable according to its original tenor.

Sec. 5279. Lost or destroyed negotiable bill—court may order delivery—bond—liability.

Where a negotiable bill has been lost or destroyed, a court of competent jurisdiction may order the delivery of the goods upon satisfactory proof of such loss or destruction and upon the giving of a bond with sufficient surety to be approved by the court to protect the carrier or any person injured by such delivery from any liability or loss, incurred by reason of the original bill remaining outstanding. The court may also in its discretion order the payment of the carrier's reasonable costs and counsel fees. The delivery of the goods under an order of the court as provided in this section, shall not relieve the carrier from liability to a person to whom the negotiable bill has been or shall be negotiated for value without notice of the proceedings or of the delivery of the goods.

Sec. 5280. Liability on duplicate bills.

A bill upon the face of which the word "duplicate" or some other word or words indicating that the document is not an original bill is placed plainly shall impose upon the carrier issuing the same the liability of one who represents and warrants that such bill is an accurate copy of an original bill properly issued, but no other liability.

SEC. 5281. Assertion of title by carrier—liability for refusal to deliver.

1. No title to goods or right to their possession, asserted by a carrier for his own benefit, shall excuse him from liability for refusing to deliver the goods according to the terms of a bill issued for them, unless such title or right is derived directly or indirectly from a transfer made by the consignor or consignee after the shipment, or from the carrier's lien.

SEC. 5282. Claimants required to interplead.

1. If more than one person claims the title or possession of goods, the carrier may require all known claimants to interplead, either as a defense to an action brought against him for nondelivery of the goods, or as an original suit, whichever is appropriate.

SEC. 5283. Disputed title or possession—delivery—liability for refusal to deliver excused—limitation.

1. If some one other than the consignee or person in possession of the bill, has a claim to the title or possession of the goods, and the carrier has information of such claim, the carrier shall be excused from liability for refusing to deliver the goods either to the consignee or person in possession of the bill, or to the adverse claimant, until the carrier has had a reasonable time to ascertain the validity of the adverse claim or to bring legal proceedings to compel all claimants to interplead.

SEC. 5284. Right or title of third person no defense to failure to deliver—exceptions.

1. Except as provided in the two preceding sections and in section fifty-two hundred seventy-four, no right or title of a third person unless enforced by legal process shall be a defense to an action brought by the consignee of a nonnegotiable bill or by the holder of a negotiable bill against the carrier for failure to deliver the goods on demand.

SEC. 5285. General liability of carrier.

1. If a bill of lading has been issued by a carrier or on his behalf by an agent or employee the scope of whose actual or apparent authority includes the issuing of bills of lading, the carrier shall be liable to—

1. The consignee named in a nonnegotiable bill, or
2. The holder of a negotiable bill, who has given value in good faith relying upon the description therein of the goods, for damages caused by the nonreceipt by the carrier or a connecting carrier of all or part of the goods or their failure to correspond with the description thereof in the bill at the time of its issue.

If, however, the goods are described in the bill merely by a statement of marks or labels upon them or upon packages containing them, or by a statement that the goods are said to be goods of a certain kind or quantity, or in a certain condition, or it is stated in the bill that packages are said to contain goods of a certain kind or quantity or in a certain condition, or that the contents or the condition of contents of packages are unknown, or words of like purport are contained in the bill, such statements, if true, shall not make liable the carrier issuing the bill, although the goods are not of the kind or quantity or in the condition which the marks or labels upon them indicate, or of the kind or quantity or in the condition they were said to be by the consignor. The carrier may, also, by inserting in the bill the words "shipper's load and count" or other words of like purport, indicate that the goods were loaded by the shipper and the description of them made by him; and if such statement be true, the carrier shall not be liable for damages caused by the improper loading or by the non-receipt or by the misdescription of the goods described in the bill.

[S., '13, § 3138-b22.]

SEC. 5286. Attachment—surrender of bill—negotiation enjoined.
1 If goods are delivered to a carrier by the owner or by a person
2 whose act in conveying the title to them to a purchaser for value in 3 good faith would bind the owner and a negotiable bill is issued for 4 them, they can not thereafter, while in the possession of the carrier, 5 be attached by garnishment or otherwise, or be levied upon under an 6 execution, unless the bill be first surrendered to the carrier or its ne-7 gotiation enjoined. The carrier shall in no such case be compelled to deliver the actual possession of the goods until the bill is surrendered 9 to him or impounded by the court.

[S., '13, § 3138-b23.]

SEC. 5287. Rights of creditor.
1 A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a negotiable bill shall 2 be entitled to such aid from courts of appropriate jurisdiction by in-3junction and otherwise in attaching such bill, or in satisfying the 4 claim by means thereof as is allowed at law or in equity in regard to 5 property which can not readily be attached or levied upon by ordinary 6 legal process.

[S., '13, § 3138-b24.]

SEC. 5288. Carrier's lien for certain charges.
1 If a negotiable bill is issued the carrier shall have no lien on the 2 goods therein mentioned, except for charges on those goods for freight, 3storage, demurrage and terminal charges, and expenses necessary for 4the preservation of the goods or incident to their transportation sub-5sequent to the date of the bill, unless the bill expressly enumerates 6other charges for which a lien is claimed. In such case there shall 7also be a lien for the charges enumerated so far as they are allowed 8by law and the contract between the consignor and the carrier.

[S., '13, § 3138-b25.]

SEC. 5289. Release from liability to deliver when goods are sold to satisfy lien—unclaimed, perishable or hazardous goods.
1 After goods have been lawfully sold to satisfy a carrier's lien, or 2 because they have not been claimed, or because they are perishable 3or hazardous, the carrier shall not thereafter be liable for failure to deliver the goods to the consignee or owner of the goods, or to a holder §§ 5290-5295.  UNIFORM BILLS OF LADING.  Tit. XVI, Ch. 8.

5 of the bill given for the goods when they were shipped, even if such 6 bill be negotiable.

[S., '13, § 3138-b26.]

SEC. 5290.  Negotiation by delivery.
1 A negotiable bill may be negotiated by delivery where, by the 2 terms of the bill, the carrier undertakes to deliver the goods to the 3 order of a specified person, and such person or a subsequent indorsee 4 of the bill has indorsed it in blank.

[S., '13, § 3138-b27.]

SEC. 5291.  Negotiation by indorsement.
1 A negotiable bill may be negotiated by the indorsement of the 2 person to whose order the goods are deliverable by the tenor of the 3 bill. Such indorsement may be in blank or to a specified person. If 4 indorsed to a specified person, it may be negotiated again by the in-5 dorsement of such person in blank or to another specified person.
6 Subsequent negotiation may be made in like manner.

[S., '13, § 3138-b28.]

SEC. 5292.  Transfer by delivery—indorsement of nonnegotiable bill.
1 A bill may be transferred by the holder by delivery, accompanied 2 with an agreement, express or implied, to transfer the title to the bill
3 or to the goods represented thereby. A nonnegotiable bill can not 4 be negotiated, and the indorsement of such a bill gives the transferee 5 no additional right.

[S., '13, § 3138-b29.]

SEC. 5293.  Negotiation by person in possession of bill.
1 A negotiable bill may be negotiated by any person in possession
2 of the same, however such possession may have been acquired if, by 3 the terms of the bill, the carrier undertakes to deliver the goods to the 4 order of such person, or if at the time of negotiation the bill is in such 5 form that it may be negotiated by delivery.

[S., '13, § 3138-b30.]

SEC. 5294.  Rights acquired by negotiation.
1 A person to whom a negotiable bill has been duly negotiated ac-
2 quires thereby—
3 1. Such title to the goods as the person negotiating the bill to 4 him had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value,
5 and also such title to the goods as the consignee and consignor had 6 or had power to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and 7 2. The direct obligation of the carrier to hold possession of the 8 goods for him according to the terms of the bill as fully as if the car-9 rier had contracted directly with him.

[S., '13, § 3138-b31.]

SEC. 5295.  Rights acquired by transfer—garnishment, attachment or execution—notice.
1 A person to whom a bill has been transferred but not negotiated
2 acquires thereby as against the transferor, the title to the goods, sub-§§ 5296-5299.

3 object to the terms of any agreement with the transferor. If the bill is 4 nonnegotiable, such person also acquires the right to notify the carrier
5 of the transfer to him of such bill, and thereby to become the direct 6 obligee of whatever obligations the carrier owed to the transferor of 7 the bill immediately before the notification. Prior to the notification 8 of the carrier by the transferor or transferee of a nonnegotiable bill, 9 the title of the transferee to the goods and the right to acquire the 10 obligation of the carrier may be defeated by garnishment or by attach-11 ment or execution upon the goods by a creditor of the transferor, or 12 by a notification to the carrier by the transferor or a subsequent pur-13 chaser from the transferor of a subsequent sale of the goods by the 14 transferor. A carrier has not received notification within the mean-15 ing of this section unless an officer or agent of the carrier, the actual 16 or apparent scope of whose duties includes action upon such notifica-17 tion, has been notified; and no notification shall be effective until the 18 officer or agent to whom it is given has had time with the exercise of 19 reasonable diligence to communicate with the agent or agents having 20 actual possession or control of the goods.

SEC. 5296. Right of transferee to compel indorsement.
1 Where a negotiable bill is transferred for value by delivery, and 2 the indorsement of the transferor is essential for negotiation, the 3 transferee acquires a right against the transferor to compel him to 4 indorse the bill, unless a contrary intention appears. The negotiation 5 shall take effect as of the time when the indorsement is actually made.
6 This obligation may be specifically enforced.

[S., '13, § 3138-b33.]

SEC. 5297. Warranties of transferor.
1 A person who negotiates or transfers for value a bill by indorse-
2 ment or delivery, including one who assigns for value a claim secured
3 by a bill, unless a contrary intention appears, warrants—
4 1. That the bill is genuine,
5 2. That he has a legal right to transfer it,
6 3. That he has knowledge of no fact which would impair the 7 validity or worth of the bill, and 8 4. That he has a right to transfer the title to the goods, and that 9 the goods are merchantable or fit for a particular purpose whenever 10 such warranties would have been implied, if the contract of the parties 11 had been to transfer without a bill the goods represented thereby.
12 In the case of an assignment of a claim secured by a bill, the lia-13 bility of the assignor shall not exceed the amount of the claim.

[S., '13, § 3138-b34.]

SEC. 5298. Liability of indorser limited.
1 The indorsement of a bill shall not make the indorser liable for 2 any failure on the part of the carrier or previous indorsers of the bill 3 to fulfill their respective obligations.

[S., '13, § 3138-b35.]

SEC. 5299. Holder of bill for security does not warrant genuine-1 ness, or quantity or quality of goods.
2 A mortgagee or pledgee, or other holder of a bill for security who 3 in good faith demands or receives payment of the debt for which such bill is security, whether from a party to a draft drawn for such debt or from any other person, shall not be deemed by so doing to represent or to warrant the genuineness of such bill or the quantity or quality of the goods therein described.

SEC. 5300. Validity of negotiation— not impaired by certain facts if holder acted in good faith.

The validity of the negotiation of a bill is not impaired by the fact that such negotiation was a breach of duty on the part of the person making the negotiation, or by the fact that the owner of the bill was deprived of the possession of the same by fraud, accident, mistake, duress or conversion, if the person to whom the bill was negotiated, or a person to whom the bill was subsequently negotiated, gave value therefor, in good faith, without notice of the breach of duty, or fraud, accident, mistake, duress or conversion.

SEC. 5301. Holder in good faith after subsequent negotiation.

Where a person having sold, mortgaged, or pledged goods which are in a carrier's possession and for which a negotiable bill has been issued, or having sold, mortgaged, or pledged the negotiable bill representing such goods, continues in possession of the negotiable bill, the subsequent negotiation thereof by that person under any sale, pledge, or other disposition thereof to any person receiving the same in good faith, for value and without notice of the previous sale, shall have the same effect as if the first purchaser of the goods or bill had expressly authorized the subsequent negotiation.

SEC. 5302. Right to possession of goods— how indicated.

Where goods are shipped by the consignor in accordance with a contract or order for their purchase, the form in which the bill is taken by the consignor shall indicate the transfer or retention of the property or right to the possession of the goods as follows:

1. Where by the bill the goods are deliverable to the buyer or to his agent, or to the order of the buyer or of his agent, the consignor thereby transfers the property in the goods to the buyer.

2. Where by the bill the goods are deliverable to the seller or to his agent, or to the order of the seller or of his agent, the seller thereby reserves a right to the possession of the goods. But if, except for the form of the bill, the property would have passed to the buyer on shipment of the goods, the seller's property in the goods shall be deemed to be only for the purpose of securing performance by the buyer of his obligation under the contract.

3. Where by the bill the goods are deliverable to the order of the buyer or his agent, but possession of the bill is retained by the seller or his agent, the seller thereby reserves a right to the possession of the goods, as against the buyer.

4. Where the seller draws on the buyer for the price and transmits the draft and bill together to the buyer to secure acceptance or payment of the draft, the buyer is bound to return the bill if he does not honor the draft, and if he wrongfully retains the bill he acquires no added right thereby. If, however, the bill provides that the goods are deliverable to the buyer, or to the order of the buyer, or is indorsed in blank or to the buyer by the consignee named therein, one who purchases in good faith, for value, the bill or goods from the buyer, shall obtain the title to the goods, although the draft has not been honored, if such purchaser has received delivery of the bill indorsed by the consignee named therein, or of the goods, without notice of the facts making the transfer wrongful.

SEC. 5303. Assumptions of buyer.

Where the seller of goods draws on the buyer for the price of the goods and transmits the draft and a bill of lading for the goods either directly to the buyer or through a bank or other agency, unless a different intention on the part of the seller appears, the buyer and all other parties interested shall be justified in assuming:

1. If the draft is by its terms or legal effect payable on demand or presentation or at sight, or not more than three days thereafter, whether such three days be termed days of grace or not, that the seller intended to require payment of the draft before the buyer should be entitled to receive or retain the bill.

2. If the draft is by its terms payable on time, extending beyond three days after demand, presentation or sight, whether such three days be termed days of grace or not, that the seller intended to require acceptance, but not payment of the draft before the buyer should be entitled to receive or retain the bill.

The provisions of this section are applicable whether by the terms of the bill the goods are consigned to the seller, or to his order, or to the buyer, or to his order, or to a third person, or to his order.

SEC. 5304. Rights of purchaser for value in good faith not to be defeated.

Where a negotiable bill has been issued for goods, no seller's lien or right of stoppage in transitu shall defeat the rights of any purchaser for value in good faith to whom such bill has been negotiated, whether such negotiation be prior or subsequent to the notification to the carrier who issued such bill of the seller's claim to a lien or right of stoppage in transitu. Nor shall the carrier be obliged to deliver or justified in delivering the goods to an unpaid seller unless such bill is first surrendered for cancellation.

SEC. 5305. Rights or remedies of mortgagee or lienholder.

Except as provided in the preceding section, nothing in this chapter shall limit the rights and remedies of a mortgagee or lienholder whose mortgage or lien on goods would be valid, apart from this chapter, as against one who for value and in good faith purchased from the owner, immediately prior to the time of their delivery to the carrier, the goods which are subject to the mortgage or lien and obtained possession of them.

[S., '13, § 3138-b42.]
SEC. 5306. Issuance of bill when goods not received by carrier or agent—penalty.

Any officer, agent, or servant of a carrier, who with intent to defraud issues or aids in issuing a bill knowing that all or any part of the goods for which such bill is issued have not been received by such carrier, or by an agent of such carrier or by a connecting carrier, or are not under the carrier's control at the time of issuing such bill, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both.

SEC. 5307. False statement—penalty.

Any officer, agent, or servant of a carrier, who with intent to defraud issues or aids in issuing a bill for goods knowing that it contains any false statement, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both.

SEC. 5308. Fraudulent duplicate negotiable bill—penalty.

Any officer, agent, or servant of a carrier, who with intent to defraud issues or aids in issuing a duplicate or additional negotiable bill for goods in violation of the provisions of section fifty-two hundred sixty-nine knowing that a former negotiable bill for the same goods or any part of them is outstanding and uncanceled, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both.

SEC. 5309. Shipping goods without title—penalty for negotiation of bill.

Any person who ships goods to which he has not a title, or upon which there is a lien or mortgage, and who takes for such goods a negotiable bill which he afterwards negotiates for value with intent to deceive and without disclosing his want of title or the existence of the lien or mortgage, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both.

SEC. 5310. Negotiating bill with intent to deceive—penalty.

Any person who with intent to deceive negotiates or transfers for value a bill knowing that any or all of the goods which by the terms of such bill appear to have been received for transportation by the carrier which issued the bill, are not in the possession or control of such carrier, or of a connecting carrier, without disclosing this fact, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both.

§ 5311. Securing issuance of bill with intent to defraud—penalty.

of the secretary of state in rejecting said articles, such decision by the council shall be reported to the secretary of state in writing, and

Such renewals shall date from the expiration of the corporate period which it succeeds and shall be limited in duration to a period not exceeding the time allowed by law to the same class of corporations. Within five days after the said action of the stockholders for the renewal of any corporation, a certificate, showing the proceedings resulting in such renewal, sworn to by the president and secretary of the corporation, or by such other officers as may be designated by the stockholders, together with the articles of incorporation, which may be the original articles of incorporation or amended and substituted articles, shall be filed for record in the office of the recorder of the county in which the principal place of business of said corporation is situated, and the same shall be recorded. Within three months after the filing of the certificate and articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, the corporation so renewed shall publish a notice of renewal. Said notice shall be published once each week for four weeks in succession in a newspaper as convenient as practicable to the principal place of business of the corporation, and proof of publication filed in the office of the secretary of state, and shall contain the matters and things required to be published by section fifty-three hundred thirty-three, relating to original incorporations. SEC. 5349. Renewal of corporate existence.
1 The corporate existence of any state or savings bank may be renewed or extended, from time to time, for a period not longer than the time for which such banks may organize, by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the shareholders thereof, at a stockholders' meeting held for that purpose, within three months before or after the time of the expiration of its charter as shown by its certificate of incorporation issued by the secretary of state. Such meeting shall be called upon a notice signed by at least two of the officers of the bank and by a majority of its directors, specifying the object of the meeting, and the time and place thereof, published once a week for four consecutive weeks before the time at which the same is to be held, in some newspaper in the county wherein the bank is located. If at such meeting the required vote is given, a certificate of the proceedings showing compliance with the foregoing provisions and the time to which the corporate period is to be continued, shall be signed and verified by the affidavit of the chairman and secretary of the meeting, certified to by a majority of the board of directors, and together with the articles of incorporation, as they exist at the date of the meeting, shall be recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of the proper county and filed, recorded and fees paid, as provided in the preceding section, and shall be by the secretary of state certified to the auditor of state. When the meeting is held previous to the expiration of the charter of the bank, such amendments may be made to the articles of incorporation, subject to the provisions thereof, as may be deemed necessary and whether held before or after the extension of the corporate period, such changes may be made in the articles as are necessary to show the time to which the corporate period is extended and the names of the officers and directors at the time of the renewal or extension. When the above has been complied with, the auditor of state shall issue to such bank a certificate as provided in section fifty-seven hundred sixty-nine, notice of which shall be published as required by the provisions of said section.

SEC. 5352. Diversion of funds.

1 The diversion of the funds of the corporation to other objects
2 than those mentioned in its articles and in the notice published, if 3 any person be injured thereby, and the payment of dividends which 4 leaves insufficient funds to meet the liabilities thereof, shall be such 5 fraud as will subject those guilty thereof to the penalties of the pre-6 ceding section; and such dividends, or their equivalent, in the hands 7 of stockholders, shall be subject to such liabilities. If the directors or 8 other officers or agents of any corporation shall declare and pay any 9 dividend when such corporation is known by them to be insolvent, 10 or any dividend the payment of which would render it insolvent, or 11 which would diminish the amount of its capital stock, all directors, 12 officers or agents knowingly consenting thereto shall be jointly and 13 severally liable for all the debts of such corporation then existing, but 14 dividends made in good faith before knowledge of the occurring of 15 losses shall not come within the provisions of this section.

[C., '51, §§ 687, 688; R., '60, §§ 1164, 1165; C., '73, §§ 1072,
1073; C., '97, § 1621.]

SEC. 5353. Forfeiture.

2 aging officers of the corporation of the provisions of the two preced-3 ing sections shall work a forfeiture of the corporate privileges, to be 4 enforced as provided by law. If the indebtedness of any corporation 5 shall exceed the amount of indebtedness permitted by law, the direct-
6 ors and officers of such corporation knowingly consenting thereto 7 shall be personally and individually liable to the creditors of such 8 corporation for such excess.

[C., '51, § 690; R., '60, § 1167; C., '73, § 1074; C., '97, § 1622.]

SEC. 5354. Keeping false accounts.

1 The intentional keeping of false books or accounts shall be a mis-
2 demeanor on the part of any officer, agent or employee of the corpora-3 tion guilty thereof, or of anyone whose duty it is to see that such § 1623.]

SEC. 5355. By-laws posted.

1 A copy of the by-laws of the corporation, with the names of all
2 of its officers, must be posted in the principal places of business sub-

5 relation to any part of the subject matter thereof.

SEC. 5357. Transfer of shares.
1 The transfer of shares is not valid, except as between the parties
2 thereto, until regularly entered upon the books of the company, 3 showing the name of the person by and to whom transferred, the 4 numbers or other designation of the shares, and the date of the 5 transfer; but such transfer shall not exempt the person making it 6 from any liability of said corporation created prior thereto. Its 7 books must be so kept as to show the original stockholders, their 8 interests, the amount paid on their shares, and all transfers thereof;
9 which books, or a copy thereof, so far as the items mentioned in this 10 section are concerned, shall be subject to the inspection of any person 11 desiring the same. When any shares of stock shall be transferred 12 to any person, firm or corporation as collateral security, such person, 13 firm or corporation may notify in writing the secretary of the corpo-
14 ration whose stock is transferred as aforesaid, and from the time 15 of such notice, and until written notice that said stock shall have 16 ceased to be held as collateral security, said stock so transferred and 17 noticed as aforesaid shall be considered in law as transferred on the 18 books of the corporation which issued said stock, without any actual 19 transfer on the books of such corporation of such stock. In such case, 20 it shall be the duty of the secretary or cashier of the corporation or 21 of the person or firm to which such stock shall have been transferred 22 as collateral security at once, upon its ceasing to be so held, to inform 23 the secretary of the corporation issuing such stock of such fact. The 24 secretary of the company whose stock is transferred as collateral 25 shall keep a record showing such notice of transfer as collateral, and 26 notice of discharge as collateral, subject to public inspection. No 27 holder of stock as collateral security shall be liable for assessments 28 on the same.

[C., '51, § 692; R., '60, § 1169; C., '73, § 1078; C., '97,

SEC. 5358. Right to vote stock—attachment.
1 Every executor, administrator, guardian or trustee shall repre-
2 sent the stock in his hands at all corporate meetings, and may vote 3 the same as a stockholder; and every person who shall pledge his 4 stock, in the absence of a written agreement to the contrary, may 5 represent the same at all such meetings and vote accordingly. The 6 owner of corporate stock levied upon by attachment or other pro-7 ceeding shall have the right to vote the same at all corporate meet-8 ings, until such time as he shall have been divested of his title thereto 9 by execution sale. But nothing contained in this section shall in any 10 manner conflict with any provision in the articles of incorporation, or

[S., '13, § 1641-a.]

SEC. 5359. Expiration.
1 Corporations whose charters expire by limitation or the volun-

3 purpose of winding up their affairs.

[C., '51, § 694; R., '60, § 1171; C., '73, § 1080; C., '97,

[C., '51, § 699; R., '60, § 1176; C., '73, § 1081; C., '97, § 1630.]

SEC. 5361. Liability of stockholders.

1 Neither anything in this chapter contained, nor any provisions in the articles of corporation, shall exempt the stockholders from individual liability to the amount of the unpaid installments on the stock owned by them, or transferred by them for the purpose of defrauding creditors; and execution against the company may, to that extent, be levied upon the private property of any such individual. In none of the cases contemplated in this chapter can the private property of the stockholders be levied upon for the payment of corporate debts while corporate property can be found with which to satisfy the same; but it will be sufficient proof that no property can be found, if an execution has issued on a judgment against the corporation, and a demand has been thereon made of some one of the last acting officers of the body for property on which to levy, and he neglects to point out any such property. In suits by creditors to recover unpaid installments upon shares of stock against any person who has in any manner obtained such stock of the corporation, the stockholder shall be liable for the difference between the amount paid by him to the corporation for said stock and the face value thereof.

SEC. 5362. Corporate property exhausted.

1 Before any stockholder can be charged with the payment of a judgment rendered for a corporate debt, an action shall be brought against him, in any stage of which he may point out corporate property subject to levy; and, upon his satisfying the court of the existence of such property, by affidavit or otherwise, the cause may be continued, or execution against him stayed, until the property can be levied upon and sold, and the court may subsequently render judgment for any balance which there may be after disposing of the corporate property; but if a demand of property has been made as contemplated in the preceding section, the costs of said action shall, in any event, be paid by the company or the defendant therein, but he shall not be permitted to controvert the validity of the judgment rendered against the corporation, unless it was rendered through fraud and collusion.

SEC. 5363. Indemnity—contribution.

1 When the property of a stockholder is taken for a corporate debt, he may maintain an action against the corporation for indemnity, and against any of the other stockholders for contribution.

SEC. 5364. Franchise sold on execution.

1. The franchise of a corporation may be levied upon under execution and sold, but the corporation shall not become thereby dissolved, and no dissolution of the original corporation shall affect the franchise, and the purchaser becomes vested with all the powers of the corporation therefor. Such franchise shall be sold without appraisement.

SEC. 5365. Production of books.

SEC. 5366. Estoppel.

1. No person or persons acting as a corporation shall be permitted to set up the want of a legal organization as a defense to an action against them as a corporation, nor shall any person sued on a contract made with such an acting corporation, or sued for an injury to its property, or a wrong done to its interests, be permitted to set up a want of such legal organization in his defense.

SEC. 5367. Foreign corporation—filing articles—process—application—increase of capital—fees.

1. Any corporation for pecuniary profit, other than for carrying on mercantile or manufacturing business as clearly defined and restricted by its articles of incorporation, organized under the laws of another state, or of any territory of the United States, or of any foreign country, which has transacted business in the state of Iowa since the first day of September, eighteen hundred eighty-six, or desires hereafter to transact business in this state, and which has not a permit to do such business, shall file with the secretary of state a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, duly attested by the secretary of state or other state officer in whose office the original articles were filed, accompanied by a resolution of its board of directors or stockholders authorizing the filing thereof, and also authorizing service of process to be made upon any of its officers or agents in this state engaged in transacting its business, and requesting the issuance to such corporation of a permit to transact business in this state; said application to contain a stipulation that such permit shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter. Said application shall also contain a statement subscribed and sworn to by at least two of the principal officers of the corporation, setting forth the following facts, to wit:

1. The total authorized capital of the corporation.
2. The total paid-up capital of the corporation.
3. The total value of all assets of the corporation, including money and property other than money, represented by capital, surplus, undivided profits, bonds, promissory notes, certificates of indebtedness, or...

estate or personal property of any description.

4. The total value of money and all other property the corporathe statement is made (if any).

5. The total value of money and all other property the corporation proposes or expects to make use of in the state of Iowa, during the ensuing year.

The secretary of state can make such independent and further investigation as to the property within this state owned by any such corporation as he may desire, and upon the true facts determine the value thereof, and fix the fee to be paid by such company. Before a permit is issued authorizing such corporation to transact business in the state of Iowa, said corporation shall pay to the secretary of state a fee of ten cents per one hundred words for recording the certified copy of the articles of incorporation, with resolution and statement as previously set forth, and a filing fee of twenty-five dollars upon ten thousand dollars or less of money and property of such company actually within the state of Iowa, and of one dollar for each one thousand dollars of such money or property within this state in excess of ten thousand dollars. If from time to time the amount of money or other property in use in the state of Iowa by said foreign corporation is increased, said corporation shall at the time of said increase, or at the time of making annual report to the secretary of state, in July of each year, file with the secretary of state a sworn statement showing the amount of such increase, and shall pay a filing fee thereon of one dollar for each one thousand dollars or fraction thereof of such increase, together with a recording fee of ten cents per one hundred words, but not less than fifty cents. The secretary of state shall upon request furnish a blank upon which to make report of such increase of capital in use within the state. Any corporation transacting business in this state prior to the first day of September, eighteen hundred eighty-six, shall be exempt from the payment of the fees required under the provisions of this section. The secretary of state shall thereupon issue to such corporation a permit, in such form as he may prescribe, for the transaction of the business of such corporation, and upon the receipt of such permit said corporation shall be permitted and authorized to conduct and carry on its business in this state.
Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent any foreign corporation from buying, selling and otherwise dealing in notes, bonds, mortgages and other securities.

[C., '97, § 1637; S., '13, § 1637.]

SEC. 5368. Permit.

1 No foreign corporation which has not in good faith complied with 2 the provisions of this chapter and taken out a permit shall possess the 3 right to exercise the power of eminent domain, or exercise any of the 4 rights and privileges conferred upon corporations, until it has so com-guilty of a misdemeanor, and for such offense shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not to exceed thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and pay all costs of prosecution. Nothing contained in this chapter shall relieve any person, company, corporation, association or partnership from the performance of any duty or obligation now enjoined upon or required of it, or from the payment of any penalty or liability created by the statutes heretofore in force, and all foreign corporations, and the officers and agents thereof, doing business in this state shall be subject to all the liabilities, restrictions and duties that are or may be imposed upon corporations of like character organized under the general laws of this state, and shall have no other or greater powers.

[C., '97, § 1639.]

SEC. 5370. Dissolution—receiver.

false, or any untrue or wilfully or fraudulently exaggerated report, prospectus, account, statement of operations, values, business, profits, expenditures, or prospects, or any other paper or document intended to produce or give, or having a tendency to produce or give, the shares of stock in such corporation a greater value or a less apparent or market value than they really possess, is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitennot to exceed six months or a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

[S., '13, § 1641-g.]
SEC. 5373. Political contributions prohibited.

SEC. 5518. Foreign companies.
1 Any association organized under the laws of any other state to carry on the business of insuring the lives of persons, or of furnishing benefits to the widows, orphans, heirs or legatees of deceased memers, or of paying accident indemnity, or surrender value of certificates of insurance, upon the stipulated premium plan or assessment plan, may be permitted to do business in the state by complying with the requirements hereinafter made, but not otherwise. It shall file with the commissioner of insurance a copy of its charter or articles of incorporation, duly certified by the proper officers of the state wherein it was organized, together with a copy of its by-laws, application and policy or certificate of membership. It shall also file with the commissioner a statement, signed and verified by its president and secretary, which shall show the name and location of the association, its principal place of business, the names of its president, secretary and other principal officers, the number of certificates or policies in force, the aggregate amount insured thereby, the amount paid to beneficiaries in the event of death or accident, the amount paid on the last death loss and the date thereof, the amount of cash or other assets owned by the association and how invested, and any other information which the commissioner may require. The statement, papers and proofs thus filed shall show that the death loss or surrender value of the certificate of insurance or accident indemnity is in the main provided for by assessments upon or contributions by surviving members of such association, and that it is legally organized, honestly managed, and that an ordinary assessment upon its members or other regular contributions to its mortuary fund are sufficient to pay its maximum 27 certificate to the full limit named therein. Upon its complying with 28 the provisions of this section, and of section fifty-five hundred thirty-29 four, and the payment of twenty-five dollars, the commissioner shall 30 issue to it a certificate of authority to do business in this state, pro-31 vided the same right is extended by the state in which said association 32 is organized to associations of the same class in this state. When the 33 commissioner doubts the solvency of any foreign association, and the 34 failure to pay the full limit named in its certificate or policy shall be 35 such evidence of its insolvency as to require the commissioner to in-36 vestigate it, he shall for this or other good cause, at the expense of 37 such association, cause an examination of its books, papers and busi-38 ness to be made, and if upon such examination he finds that the asso-39 ciation is not financially sound, or is not paying its policies or certifi-40 cates in full, or is conducting its business fraudulently, or if it shall 41 fail to make the statement required by law, he may revoke its authority 42 and prohibit it from doing business until it shall again comply with 43 the provisions of this chapter. If the commissioner appoints some 44 one not receiving a regular salary in his office to make this examina-
45 tion, such examiner shall receive five dollars per day for his services 46 in addition to his actual traveling and hotel expenses, to be paid by 47 the association examined, or by the state on the approval of the execu-48 tive council, if the association fails to pay the same. The provisions 49 of this section shall apply to fraternal beneficiary associations doing 50 exclusively an accident insurance business, and upon compliance with 51 the provisions of this chapter, and the provisions of chapter five of 52 title eighteen, so far as the same are applicable, such associations may 4 or is not carrying out its contracts with its members in good faith, 5 the commissioner of insurance shall promptly communicate the fact 6 to the attorney general, who shall at once commence action before the 7 district court of the county in which such association has its principal 8 place of business, giving it reasonable notice thereof, and if upon a 9 hearing it is found to be advantageous to the holders of certificates

10 of membership therein, said court or judge may remove any officer 11 or officers, and appoint others in their place until the next annual 12 election. If it is advantageous to the holders of certificates that the 13 affairs of said corporation be wound up, the court or judge shall so 14 direct, and for that purpose may appoint a receiver who shall treat 15 all legal claims for death benefits as preferred. The receiver may 16 also, with the approval of the court or judge, transfer the members 17 of such association who consent thereto to some like solvent associa-

CHAPTER 6.
FRATERNAL BENEFICIARY SOCIETIES, ORDERS OR ASSOCIATIONS.

SECTION 5552. Defined—general provisions.
1 A fraternal beneficiary association is hereby declared to be a cor-2 poration, society or voluntary association, formed or organized and 3 carried on for the sole benefit of its members and their beneficiaries, 4 and not for profit, and having a lodge system, with ritualistic form of 5 work and representative form of government. Such association shall 6 make provision for the payment of benefits in case of death, and may 7 make provision for the payment of benefits in case of sickness, tem-8 porary or permanent physical disability, either as a result of disease, 9 accident or old age, provided the period of life at which payment of 10 physical disability benefits on account of old age commences shall not 11 be under seventy years, subject to the compliance by members with 12 its constitution and laws. Provided that beneficiary societies or asso-13 ciations, whose membership is confined to the members of any one 14 religious denomination, shall only be required to have a branch sys-15 tem and a representative form of government. Such beneficiary 16 societies or associations shall be governed by the provisions of this 17 chapter, and shall be exempt from the provisions of the statutes of 18 this state, relating to life insurance companies, to the same extent as 19 fraternal beneficiary associations. But the provisions of this chapter 20 shall not be construed to include fraternal orders which only provide 21 for sick and funeral benefits.
22 [C., '97, § 1822; S., '13, § 1822.]

SEC. 5553. Certain certificates may be issued—when—reserve.
1 Any fraternal beneficiary society issuing certificates, based upon 2 rates not lower than those required by the mortality table set forth in 3 section fifty-five hundred eighty-one, may issue certificates providing 4 for death benefits upon the term, whole life or limited payment plan, 5 in which event it shall maintain the required legal reserve on all such 6 certificates, based on the standard adopted for the issuing of such 7 certificates, which said reserve shall be set aside and held as a special 8 reserve fund for the exclusive benefit of the members contributing 9 thereto. Any such society may grant to its members extended and 10 paid-up protection or such withdrawal equities as its constitution and 11 laws may permit, provided that such grants shall in no case exceed in 12 value the portion of the reserve to the credit of the members to whom 13 they are made.
14 [38 G. A., ch. 343, § 1.]
SEC. 5554. Membership confined to one religious denomination—heretofore organized.
1 Any corporation heretofore organized under the laws of this or any other state, whose membership is confined to the members of any one religious denomination, and whose plan of business permits, may take advantage of the two preceding sections by amendment to its articles of incorporation, and by complying with the provisions of section fifty-five hundred sixty-four; provided that such corporations as on March fifteenth, nineteen hundred seven, were and have since continuously been doing business under chapter four of this title, may take advantage of said sections without raising their mortuary assessment rates or showing that their said rates are such as are required by section fifty-five hundred eighty-one.

SEC. 5555. Assessments.
1 The fund from which the payment of such benefits shall be made and the expenses of such association defrayed shall be derived from beneficiary calls, assessments or dues collected from its members.
[C., '97, § 1823.]

SEC. 5556. Insurable age—beneficiary.
1 No fraternal association created or organized under the provisions of this chapter shall issue any certificate of membership to any person under the age of fifteen years, nor over the age of sixty-five years, nor unless the beneficiary under said certificate shall be the wife, husband, relative by blood to the fourth degree, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, step-father, step-mother, step-children, children by legal adoption, legal representative or to a person or persons dependent upon the member; provided that if after the issuance of the original certificate the member shall become dependent upon an incorporated charitable institution, he shall have the privilege, with the consent of the governing body or board of the society, to make such institution his beneficiary. Within the above restrictions each member shall have the right to designate his beneficiary and from time to time have the same changed in accordance with the laws, rules or regulations of the society, and no beneficiary shall have or obtain any vested interest in said benefit until the same has become due and payable upon the death of said member, provided that any society may, by its laws, limit the scope of beneficiaries within the above classes.
[C., '97, § 1824; 33 G. A., ch. 240, § 1.]

SEC. 5557. Statutes applicable.
1 Such associations shall be governed by this chapter, and shall be exempt from the provisions of the statutes of this state relating to life insurance companies, except as hereinafter provided.
[C., '97, § 1825.]

SEC. 5558. Copy of application.
1 All such associations shall, upon the issue or renewal of any beneficiary certificate, attach to such certificate or indorse thereon a true copy of any application or representation of the member which by the terms of such certificate are made a part thereof. The omission so to do shall not render the certificate invalid, but if any such association neglects to comply with the requirements of this section it shall not plead or prove the falsity of any such certificate or representation or any part thereof in any action upon such certificate, and the plaintiff in any such action, in order to recover against such association, shall not be required to either plead or prove such application or representation.

[C., '97, § 1826.]

SEC. 5559. Where suitable.
Such associations may be sued in any county in which is kept their principal place of business, or in which the beneficiary contract was made, or in which the death of the member occurred; but actions to recover old age, sick or accident benefits may, at the option of the beneficiary, be brought in the county of his residence.

[C., '97, § 1827.]

SEC. 5560. Exemption of proceeds.
The proceeds of any beneficiary certificate issued by any such affairs, character and business methods, accounts, books and investments of such association at its home office, which examination shall be at the expense of such association, and shall be made within thirty days after demand therefor; and the expense of such examination shall be limited to five dollars per day and the necessary expenses of travel and for hotel bills. If the commissioner, after such examination, is of the opinion that no permit should be granted to such association, he may refuse to issue the same.

[C., '97, § 1829.]

Every such association doing business in this state shall, on or before the first day of March of each year, make, and file with the commissioner of insurance, a report for the year ending on the thirty-first day of December immediately preceding. All reports shall be

Service upon such attorney shall be deemed sufficient service upon such association. When legal process against any such association is served upon said commissioner, he shall immediately notify the association of such service by letter, postage prepaid, directed and mailed to its secretary or corresponding officer, and shall within two days after such service forward in the same manner a copy of the process served on him to such officer. The commissioner shall thereupon submit its articles of incorporation to the attorney general for examination, and if found by him to be in harmony with this title, chapter and with law, he shall so certify upon said articles and return them to the commissioner. If the commissioner shall approve the articles and also the by-laws or rules, he shall issue to the society, order or association a permit in writing, authorizing it to transact business within this state for a period of one year from the first day of April of the year of its issue, for which certificate and all proceedings in connection therewith, there shall be paid to the commissioner a fee of twenty-five dollars, and for each annual renewal thereof a like fee shall be paid; provided, however, that before such certificate shall be issued, the fraternal society, order or association shall have actual bona fide applications upon the lives of at least five hundred persons, residents of this state, for at least one thousand dollars of insurance each, and the commissioner may require the presentation of such applications, signed by the applicants themselves. No renewal of certificate of authority shall be made to any society, order, or association whose membership, in good standing, or the amount of whose insurance in force shall be reduced below the above requirements. Societies, orders or associations not organized under the laws of this state, in addition to the requirements of the provisions of section fifty-five hundred sixty-one must also comply with all of the provisions of this chapter, except as to the residence of membership; provided that no such society, order or association shall be authorized to transact business within this state unless

6 state; and where the laws of any such association provide for the 7 election of its officers by votes to be cast in its subordinate bodies, the 7 notice in writing to the attorney general, who shall immediately comby this chapter or the articles of incorporation of said company; and in case any stockholder shall refuse or neglect to pay the amount called for after notice personally given, or by advertisement in such time and manner as the commissioner shall approve, it shall be law-

In the event of additional losses accruing upon new risks, taken after the expiration of the period limited by the commissioner in the aforesaid requisition for the filling up of the deficiency in the capital of such company, and before said deficiency shall have been made up, the directors shall be individually liable to the extent thereof.

to which each creditor shall be entitled; and all parties interested shall be brought into court.

1 It shall be unlawful for any building and loan or savings and loan

[C., '97, § 1897.]

All building and loan or savings and loan associations, upon receiving the certificate from the auditor, shall have power, subject to the terms and conditions contained in their articles of incorporation and by-laws, to issue stock to members to be paid for in single, stated, or monthly payments, but not more than ten thousand dollars of stock, computed at par value, of any kind shall be issued to one person; to assess and collect from members such dues, membership fees, fines, premiums, and interest on loans as may in the articles of incorporation and by-laws have been provided, and the same shall not be held to be usurious; to permit members, other than holders of guarantee stock, to withdraw all or a part of their stock deposits upon such terms and at such times as the articles of incorporation and by-laws may provide; to acquire, hold, incumber and convey such real estate and personal property as may be necessary for the transaction of their business; to make loans to members on such terms, conditions and securities as the articles of incorporation and by-laws provide; said loans to be made only on real estate security, or on the security of their own shares of stock, not to exceed ninety per cent of the withdrawal value thereof. And the said association shall, on or before February fifteenth of each year, mail to each shareholder a written or printed copy of the same. In case of foreclosure, the borrower shall be charged with the full amount of the loan made to him, together with the dues, interest, premium and fines for which he is delinquent, and he shall be credited with the same value of his pledged shares as if he had voluntarily withdrawn the same. In event that judgment is obtained against a borrower from a building and loan association, no greater recovery shall be had than the net amount of principal actually received, with interest thereon at a rate not greater than twelve per centum per annum on the net amount of loan actually received by and paid to borrower, with statutory attorney fees; no evasion of this provision shall be had by means of any dues, membership fees, premiums, fines, forfeitures or other charges, any agreement to the contrary, notwithstanding.

In case of foreclosure of any mortgage given by a shareholder of any such association, the mortgagor shall be charged with the rate of interest agreed upon, not however to exceed eight per cent per annum, and shall be entitled to be credited, as of any anniversary of said mortgage, with the total amount of all payments made on the stock to the said association during the preceding year, and such payment on the stock shall be treated as a payment upon the mortgage, anything in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws of such association to the contrary notwithstanding. If such association shows affirmatively that losses have occurred during the period of the membership of such shareholder in excess of the amount of any fund accumulated from which to pay such losses, to such an extent that the value of the shares of stock have been impaired, then such associations shall be entitled to have entered as a part of the judgment of foreclosure the equitable contribution of said shareholder toward such losses. If, by the articles of incorporation, the withdrawal value of the stock of such mortgagor is greater than the amount paid thereon, together with eight per cent interest then such withdrawal value shall be credited on the mortgages of the date to which such value is computed, in lieu of the credits of payment on stock as aforesaid, and judgment and decree shall be rendered for only the balance found due.

In any suit in which the recovery upon the mortgage shall be for a less amount than the amount demanded in the plaintiff's petition, all costs of suit, including attorneys' fees, may in the discretion of the court be taxed to the plaintiff; provided, further, that in case of foreclosure judgment and decree shall be entered for as much as would be due the association under the provisions of this chapter if suit had not been brought.

SEC. 5847. Investment of funds.

All funds, except those necessary to defray the expenses of the association, shall be invested for the benefit of the shareholders. For every loan made a nonnegotiable note or bond secured by first mortgage on real estate shall be given, unless the prior mortgage is to the same association; then a second mortgage may be taken to secure said note, except when such loan is on the withdrawal value of stock only. Said note or bond shall be accompanied by the transfer of the shares of stock of the borrower to the association, to be held as collateral security.

SEC. 5848. Loans—premium and interest.

Such associations shall have power to loan money to their members at such rate as may be agreed upon, and may collect premiums and interest thereon, but in no case shall the amount of premium and interest paid exceed eight per cent per annum, but nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the payment of such interest and premium monthly, or at such time as may be provided for in the articles of incorporation.
SEC. 5849. Voting shares of stock.

Each member shall have one vote for each one hundred dollars of stock par value owned and held by him at any election, and may vote the same by proxy, but no person shall vote more than ten per cent of the outstanding shares at the time of said election. Anyone depositing or transferring stock to the association as collateral security shall be deemed the owner of such stock within the meaning of this section.

fifty-eight hundred seventy-nine, the auditor of state shall at once revoke such certificate and notify the executive council of the revocation thereof; and under the direction of the executive council, application shall be made by the attorney general to the proper court for the appointment of a receiver to wind up the affairs of the association; and in such proceedings the amount due from the borrowing members or persons making periodical payments upon contracts or mortgages given by them, shall be ascertained in the manner provided in section fifty-eight hundred sixty-one; and the amounts owing upon such mortgages or contracts from members of the association or persons making periodical payments thereto, shall be treated and considered as due and payable within a reasonable time, to be fixed by the court after the appointment of a receiver.

2 crees of courts at the rate of six cents on the hundred by the year, un-3 less a different rate is fixed by the contract on which the judgment or

5 interest at the rate expressed in the contract, not exceeding eight 6 cents on the hundred by the year, which rate must be expressed in 7 the judgment or decree.

[C., '51, § 946; R., '60, § 1789; C., '73, § 2078; C., '97, § 3039.]

SEC. 5891. Illegal rate prohibited.

[R., '60, § 1790; C., '73, § 2079; C., '97, § 3040.]

SEC. 5892. Usury—penalty.

5 year upon the amount of the principal remaining unpaid upon such 6 contract at the time judgment is rendered thereon, and the court 7 shall enter final judgment in favor of the plaintiff and against the 9 and also against the defendant and in favor of the state, for the use 10 of the school fund of the county in which the action is brought, for the 12 contracted for shall the plaintiff have judgment for more than the 13 principal sum, whether the unlawful interest be incorporated with 14 the principal or not.

[R., '60, § 1791; C., '73, § 2080; C., '97, § 3041.]

[S. S., '15, § 3041-a.]

SEC. 5894. Assignee.

1 Any assignee of a usurious contract, becoming such in good faith
2 in the usual course of business and without notice of such fact, may 3 recover of the usurer the full amount of the consideration paid by him

5 anything in this chapter contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

5 any respect.

[C., '51, § 974; R., '60, § 1823; C., '73, § 2112; C., '97, § 3068;
S., '13, § 3068.]

SEC. 5896. Consideration implied.
1 All contracts in writing, signed by the party to be bound or by 2 his authorized agent or attorney, shall import a consideration.

[C., '51, § 975; R., '60, § 1824; C., '73, § 2113; C., '97, § 3069.]

SEC. 5897. Failure of—fraud.
1 The want or failure, in whole or in part, of the consideration of 2 a written contract may be shown as a defense, total or partial, except 3 to negotiable paper transferred in good faith and for a valuable con-4 sideration before maturity, but if such paper has been procured by 5 fraud upon the maker, no holder thereof shall recover thereon of the 6 maker a greater sum than he paid therefor, with interest and costs.

[C., '51, § 976; R., '60, § 1825; C., '73, § 2114; C., '97, § 3070.]

SEC. 5898. Gaming contracts void.
1 All promises, agreements, notes, bills, bonds or other contracts,

5 are absolutely void and of no effect.

[C., '51, § 2724; R., '60, § 4366; C., '73, § 4029; C., '97, § 4965.]

CHAPTER 3.

TENDER OF PAYMENT AND PERFORMANCE.

SECTION 5899. When demand necessary.
1 No cause of action shall accrue upon a contract for labor or the 2 payment or delivery of property other than money, where the time of 3 performance is not fixed, until a demand of performance has been 4 made upon the maker and refused, or a reasonable time for perform-5 ance thereafter allowed.

[C., '51, § 959; R., '60, § 1806; C., '73, § 2097; C., '97, § 3056.]

SEC. 5900. Tender of labor or property.
1 When a contract for labor, or for the payment or delivery of 2 property other than money, does not fix a place of payment, the maker
3 may tender the labor or property at the place where the payee re-§§ 5901-5904. TENDER OF PAYMENT AND PERFORMANCE. Tit. XXI, Ch. 3.

sided at the time of making the contract, or at the residence of the payee at the time of performance of the contract, or where any assignee of the contract resides when it becomes due, but if the property in such case is too ponderous to be conveniently transported, or if the payee had no known place of residence within the state at the time of making the contract, or if the assignee of a written contract has no known place of residence within the state at the time of performance, the maker may tender the property at the place where he resided at the time of making the contract.

SEC. 5901. When contract assigned.

When the contract is contained in a written instrument which is assigned before due, and the maker has notice thereof, he shall make the tender at the residence of the holder if he resides in the state, and no farther from the maker than the payee did at the making thereof.

SEC. 5902. Effect of tender.

A tender of the property, as above provided, discharges the maker from the contract, and the property becomes vested in the payee or his assignee, and he may maintain an action therefor as in other cases. But if the property tendered be perishable, or requires feeding, or other care, and no person is found to receive it when tendered, the person making the tender shall preserve, feed or otherwise take care of the same, and shall have a lien thereon for his reasonable expenses and trouble in so doing.

SEC. 5903. When holder absent from state.

When the holder of an instrument for the payment of money is absent from the state when it becomes due, and the indorsee or assignee of such an instrument has not notified the maker of such indorsement or assignment, the maker may tender payment at the last residence or place of business of the payee before the instrument becomes due, and if there be no person there authorized to receive payment and give proper credit therefor, the maker may deposit the amount due with the clerk of the district court in the county where the payee resided at the time it became due, and the maker shall not be liable for interest from that date.

SEC. 5904. Offer in writing.

An offer in writing to pay a particular sum of money, or to deliver a written instrument or specific personal property, if not accepted, is equivalent to the actual tender of the money, instrument or property, subject, however, to the condition contained in the following section; but if the party to whom the tender is made desires an inspection of the instrument or property tendered, other than money, before making his determination, it shall be allowed him on request.

[C., '51, § 967; R., '60, § 1816; C., '73, § 2105; C., '97, § 3061.]
ASSIGNMENT OF ACCOUNTS

SEC. 5905. When not accepted.
When a tender of money or property is not accepted by the party to whom it is made, the party making it may, if he sees fit, retain it in his possession; but if afterwards the party to whom the tender was made concludes to accept it and gives notice thereof to the other party, and the subject of the tender is not delivered to him within a reasonable time, the tender shall be of no effect.
[C., '51, § 966; R., '60, § 1815; C., '73, § 2104; C., '97, § 3062.]

SEC. 5906. Receipt—objection.
The person making a tender may demand a receipt in writing for the money or article tendered, as a condition precedent to the delivery thereof. The person to whom a tender is made must, at the time, make any objection which he may have to the money, instrument or property tendered, or he will be deemed to have waived it.
[C., '51, §§ 968, 969; R., '60, §§ 1817, 1818; C., '73, §§ 2106, 2107; C., '97, § 3063.]

CHAPTER 4.
ASSIGNMENT OF ACCOUNTS AND NONNEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS.

SECTION 5907. Assignment of nonnegotiable instruments.
Bonds, duebills, and all instruments by which the maker promises to pay another, without words of negotiability, a sum of money, or by which he promises to pay a sum of money in property or labor, or to pay or deliver any property or labor, or acknowledges any money, labor or property to be due, are assignable by indorsement thereon, or by other writing, and the assignee shall have a right of action thereon in his own name, subject to any defense or counterclaim which the maker or debtor had against any assignor thereof before notice of such assignment.

SEC. 5908. When assignment prohibited.
When by the terms of an instrument its assignment is prohibited, an assignment thereof shall nevertheless be valid, but the maker may avail himself of any defense or counterclaim against the assignee which he may have against any assignor thereof before notice of such assignment is given to him in writing.
[C., '51, § 951; R., '60, § 1798; C., '73, § 2086; C., '97, § 3046.]

SEC. 5909. Open account assignable.
An open account of sums of money due on contract may be assigned, and the assignee will have a right of action thereon in his own name, subject to such defenses and counterclaims as are allowed against the instruments mentioned in the preceding section, before notice of such assignment is given to the debtor in writing by the assignee. But no sale or assignment, by the head of a family, of wages, whether the same be exempt from execution or not, shall be of any validity whatever unless the same be evidenced by a written instrument, and if married, unless the husband and wife sign and acknowl-
SURETIES. Tit. XXI, Ch. 5.

SEC. 5910. Assignor liable.

1 The assignor of any of the above instruments not negotiable shall be liable to the action of his assignee without notice.

[SEC. 5911. May require creditor to sue.

1 When any person bound as surety for another for the payment of money, or the performance of any other contract in writing, apprehends that his principal is about to become insolvent or remove permanently from the state without discharging the contract, he may, if a cause of action has accrued thereon, by writing, require the creditor to sue upon the same, or permit the surety to commence an action in such creditor's name and at the surety's cost.

[SEC. 5912. Refusal or neglect.

1 If the creditor refuses or neglects to bring an action for ten days after request, and does not permit the surety to do so, and furnish him with a true copy of the contract or other writing therefor, and enable him to have the use of the original when requisite in such action, the surety shall be discharged.

[SEC. 5913. Surety may sue.

1 When the surety commences such action, he shall give a bond to pay such costs as may be adjudged against the creditor, and the action shall be brought against all the obligors, but those joining in the request to the creditor shall make no defense thereto, but may be heard on the assessment of the damages.

[SEC. 5914. Executor—official bonds.

1 The provisions of this chapter extend to the executor of a deceased surety and holder of the contract, but not to the official bonds of public officers, executors or guardians.
CHAPTER 6.
NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS.
FORM AND INTERPRETATION.

SECTION 5915. Form of negotiable instrument.
An instrument to be negotiable must conform to the following requirements:
1. It must be in writing and signed by the maker or drawer.
2. Must contain an unconditional promise or order to pay a sum certain in money.
3. Must be payable on demand or at a fixed or determinable future time.
4. Must be payable to the order of a specified person or to bearer; and,
5. Where the instrument is addressed to a drawee, he must be named or otherwise indicated therein with reasonable certainty.

[S., '13, § 3060-a1.]

SEC. 5916. Certainty as to sum—what constitutes.
The sum payable is a sum certain within the meaning of this chapter although it is to be paid:
1. With interest; or
2. By stated installments; or
3. By stated installments, with a provision that upon default in payment of any installment, the whole shall become due; or
4. With exchange, whether at a fixed rate or at the current rate; or
5. With costs of collection or an attorney’s fee, in case payment shall not be made at maturity.

[S., '13, § 3060-a2.]

SEC. 5917. When promise is unconditional.
An unqualified order or promise to pay is unconditional within the meaning of this chapter, though coupled with:
1. An indication of a particular fund out of which reimbursement is to be made, or a particular account to be debited with the amount; or
2. A statement of the transaction which gives rise to the instrument. But an order or promise to pay out of a particular fund is not unconditional.

[S., '13, § 3060-a3.]

An instrument is payable at a determinable future time, within the meaning of this chapter, which is expressed to be payable:
1. At a fixed period after date or sight; or
2. On or before a fixed or determinable future time specified therein; or
3. On or at a fixed period after the occurrence of a specified event, which is certain to happen, though the time of happening be uncertain.
An instrument payable upon a contingency is not negotiable, and the happening of the event does not cure the defect.

[S., '13, § 3060-a4.]
SEC. 5919. Additional provisions not affecting negotiability.

An instrument which contains an order or promise to do an act in addition to the payment of money is not negotiable. But the negotiable character of an instrument otherwise negotiable is not affected by a provision which:
1. Authorizes the sale of collateral securities in case the instrument be not paid at maturity; or
2. Authorizes a confession of judgment if the instrument be not paid at maturity; or
3. Waives the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or protection of the obligor; or
4. Gives the holder an election to require something to be done in lieu of payment of money.

But nothing in this section shall validate any provision or stipulation otherwise illegal.

[S., '13, § 3060-a5.]

SEC. 5920. Omissions—seal—particular money.

The validity and negotiable character of an instrument are not affected by the fact that:
1. It is not dated; or
2. Does not specify the value given, or that any value has been given therefor; or
3. Does not specify the place where it is drawn or the place where it is payable; or
4. Bears a seal; or
5. Designates a particular kind of current money in which payment is to be made.

But nothing in this section shall alter or repeal any statute requiring in certain cases the nature of the consideration to be stated in the instrument.

[S., '13, § 3060-a6.]

SEC. 5921. When payable on demand.

An instrument is payable on demand:
1. Where it is expressed to be payable on demand, or at sight, or on presentation; or
2. In which no time for payment is expressed.

Where an instrument is issued, accepted or indorsed when overdue, it is, as regards the person so issuing, accepting or indorsing it, payable on demand.

[S., '13, § 3060-a7.]

SEC. 5922. When payable to order.

The instrument is payable to order where it is drawn payable to the order of a specified person or to him or his order. It may be drawn payable to the order of:
1. A payee who is not maker, drawer or drawee; or
2. The drawer or maker; or
3. The drawee; or
4. Two or more payees jointly; or
5. One or some of several payees; or
6. The holder of an office for the time being.
Where the instrument is payable to order, the payee must be named or otherwise indicated therein with reasonable certainty.

[S., '13, § 3060-a8.]

SEC. 5923. When payable to bearer.

1. The instrument is payable to bearer:
   1. When it is expressed to be so payable; or
   2. When it is payable to a person named therein or bearer; or
   3. When it is payable to the order of a fictitious or nonexisting person, and such fact was known to the person making it so payable; or
   4. When the name of the payee does not purport to be the name of any person; or
   5. When the only or last indorsement is an indorsement in blank.

[S., '13, § 3060-a9.]

SEC. 5924. Terms—when sufficient.

The negotiable instrument need not follow the language of this chapter, but any terms are sufficient which clearly indicate an intention to conform to the requirements thereof.

[S., '13, § 3060-a10.]

SEC. 5925. Date—presumption as to.

When the instrument or an acceptance or any indorsement thereon is dated, such date is deemed prima facie to be the true date of the making, drawing, acceptance or indorsement, as the case may be.

[S., '13, § 3060-a11.]

SEC. 5926. Antedated and postdated.

The instrument is not invalid for the reason only that it is antedated or postdated, provided this is not done for an illegal or fraudulent purpose. The person to whom an instrument so dated is delivered acquires the title thereto as of the date of delivery.

[S., '13, § 3060-a12.]

SEC. 5927. When date may be inserted.

When an instrument expressed to be payable at a fixed period after date is issued undated, or where the acceptance of an instrument payable at a fixed period after sight is undated, any holder may insert therein the true date of issue or acceptance, and the instrument shall be payable accordingly. The insertion of a wrong date does not avoid the instrument in the hands of a subsequent holder in due course; but as to him, the date so inserted is to be regarded as the true date.

SEC. 5928. Blanks—when may be filled.

Where the instrument is wanting in any material particular, the person in possession thereof has a prima facie authority to complete it by filling up the blanks therein. And a signature on a blank paper delivered by the person making the signature in order that the paper may be converted into a negotiable instrument operates as a prima facie authority to fill it up as such for any amount. In order, however, that any such instrument when completed may be enforced against any person who became a party thereto prior to its completion, it must be filled up strictly in accordance with the authority given and within a reasonable time. But if any such instrument, after completion, is negotiated to a holder in due course it is valid and effectual for all purposes in his hands, and he may enforce it as if it had been filled up strictly in accordance with the authority given and within a reasonable time.

Sec. 5929. Incomplete instrument not delivered.

Where an incomplete instrument has not been delivered it will not, if completed and negotiated, without authority, be a valid contract in the hands of any holder, as against any person whose signature was placed thereon before delivery.

[S., '13, § 3060-a15.]

Sec. 5930. Delivery—when effectual—when presumed.

Every contract on a negotiable instrument is incomplete and revocable until delivery of the instrument for the purpose of giving effect thereto. As between immediate parties, and as regards a remote party other than a holder in due course, the delivery, in order to be effectual, must be made either by or under the authority of the party making, drawing, accepting or indorsing, as the case may be; and in such case the delivery may be shown to have been conditional or for a special purpose only, and not for the purpose of transferring the property in the instrument. But where the instrument is in the hands of a holder in due course, a valid delivery thereof by all parties prior to him so as to make them liable to him, is conclusively presumed. And where the instrument is no longer in the possession of a party whose signature appears thereon, a valid and intentional delivery by him is presumed until the contrary is proved.

Sec. 5931. Construction where instrument is ambiguous.

Where the language of the instrument is ambiguous, or there are omissions therein, the following rules of construction apply:

1. Where the sum payable is expressed in words and also in figures and there is a discrepancy between the two, the sum denoted by the words is the sum payable; but if the words are ambiguous or uncertain, references may be had to the figures to fix the amount.

2. Where the instrument provides for the payment of interest, without specifying the date from which interest is to run, the interest runs from the date of the instrument, and if the instrument is undated, from the issue thereof.

3. Where the instrument is not dated, it will be considered to be dated as of the time it was issued.

4. Where there is conflict between the written and printed provisions of the instrument, the written provisions prevail.

5. Where the instrument is so ambiguous that there is doubt whether it is a bill or a note, the holder may treat it as either, at his election.

6. Where a signature is so placed upon the instrument that it is not clear in what capacity the person making the same intended to sign, he is to be deemed an indorser.
Where an instrument containing the words “I promise to pay,” is signed by two or more persons, they are deemed to be jointly and severally liable thereon.

SEC. 5932. Liability of person signing in trade or assumed name.
No person is liable on the instrument whose signature does not appear thereon, except as herein otherwise expressly provided. But one who signs in a trade or assumed name will be liable to the same extent as if he had signed in his own name.

SEC. 5933. Signature by agent—authority—how shown.
The signature of any party may be made by a duly authorized agent. No particular form of appointment is necessary for this purpose; and the authority of the agent may be established as in other cases of agency.

SEC. 5934. Liability of person signing as agent.
Where the instrument contains, or a person adds to his signature, words indicating that he signs for or on behalf of the principal, or in a representative capacity, he is not liable on the instrument if he was duly authorized; but the mere addition of words describing him as an agent, or as filling a representative character without disclosing his principal, does not exempt him from personal liability.

SEC. 5935. Signature by procuration—effect of.
A signature by “procuration” operates as notice that the agent has but a limited authority to sign, and the principal is bound only in case the agent in so signing acted within the actual limits of his authority.

[S., '13, § 3060-a21.]

SEC. 5936. Effect of indorsement by infant or corporation.
The indorsement or assignment of the instrument by a corporation or by an infant passes the property therein, notwithstanding that from want of capacity the corporation or infant may incur no liability thereon.

SEC. 5937. Forged signature—effect of.
Where a signature is forged or made without the authority of the person whose signature it purports to be, it is wholly inoperative, and no right to retain the instrument, or to give a discharge therefor, or to enforce payment thereof against any party thereto, can be acquired through or under such signature, unless the party against whom it is sought to enforce such right is precluded from setting up the forgery or want of authority.

[S., '13, § 3060-a23.]
CONSIDERATION OF NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS.

SEC. 5938. Presumption of consideration.
1 Every negotiable instrument is deemed prima facie to have been
2 issued for a valuable consideration, and every person whose signature 3 appears thereon to have become a party thereto for value.

[S., '13, § 3060-a24.]

SEC. 5939. Consideration—what constitutes.
1 Value is any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract.
2 An antecedent or preexisting debt constitutes value, and is deemed 3 such, whether the instrument is payable on demand or at a future time.

[S., '13, § 3060-a25.]

SEC. 5940. What constitutes holder for value.
1 Where value has at any time been given for the instrument, the 2 holder is deemed a holder for value in respect to all parties who be-3 came such prior to that time.

[S., '13, § 3060-a26.]

SEC. 5941. When lien on instrument constitutes holder for value.
1 Where the holder has a lien on the instrument, arising either 2 from contract or by implication of law, he is deemed a holder for 3 value to the extent of his lien.

[S., '13, § 3060-a27.]

SEC. 5942. Effect of want of consideration.
1 Absence or failure of consideration is matter of defense as against 2 any person not a holder in due course, and partial failure of considera-3 tion is a defense pro tanto, whether the failure is an ascertained and 4 liquidated amount or otherwise.

[S., '13, § 3060-a28.]

SEC. 5943. Liability of accommodation party.
1 An accommodation party is one who has signed the instrument
2 as maker, drawer, acceptor, or indorser, without receiving value there-3 for, and for the purpose of lending his name to some other person.
4 Such a person is liable on the instrument to a holder for value, not-5 withstanding such holder at the time of taking the instrument knew 6 him to be only an accommodation party.

[S., '13, § 3060-a29.]

NEGOTIATION.

SEC. 5944. What constitutes negotiation.
1 An instrument is negotiated when it is transferred from one per-2 son to another in such manner as to constitute the transferee the 3 holder thereof. If payable to bearer, it is negotiated by delivery; if 4 payable to order, it is negotiated by the indorsement of the holder, 5 completed by delivery.

[S., '13, § 3060-a30.]
SEC. 5945. Indorsement—how made.
1 The indorsement must be written on the instrument itself or 2 upon a paper attached thereto. The signature of the indorser, with-3 out additional words, is a sufficient indorsement.
[S., '13, § 3060-a31.]

SEC. 5946. Indorsement must be of entire instrument.
1 The indorsement must be an indorsement of the entire instru-
2 ment. An indorsement which purports to transfer to the indorsee 3 a part only of the amount payable, or which purports to transfer the 4 instrument to two or more indorsees severally, does not operate as a 5 negotiation of the instrument. But where the instrument has been 6 paid in part, it may be indorsed as to the residue.
[S., '13, § 3060-a32.]

SEC. 5947. Kinds of indorsement.
1 An indorsement may be either in blank or special; and it may 2 also be either restrictive or qualified, or conditional.
[S., '13, § 3060-a33.]

SEC. 5948. Special indorsement—indorsement in blank.
1 A special indorsement specifies the person to whom or to whose 2 order the instrument is to be payable; and the indorsement of such 3 indorsee is necessary to the further negotiation of the instrument.
4 An indorsement in blank specifies no indorsee, and an instrument so 5 indorsed is payable to bearer, and may be negotiated by delivery.
[S., '13, § 3060-a34.]

SEC. 5949. Blank indorsement—how changed to special indorse-1 ment. The holder may convert a blank indorsement into a special in-2 dorsement by writing over the signature of the indorser in blank any 3 contract consistent with the character of the indorsement.
[S., '13, § 3060-a35.]

SEC. 5950. When indorsement restrictive.
1 An indorsement is restrictive which either:
2 1. Prohibits the further negotiation of the instrument; or 3 2. Constitutes the indorsee the agent of the indorser; or 4 3. Vests the title in the indorsee in trust for or to the use of some 5 other person. But the mere absence of words implying power to 6 negotiate does not make an indorsement restrictive.
[S., '13, § 3060-a36.]

1 A restrictive indorsement confers upon the indorsee the right:
2 1. To receive payment of the instrument.
3 2. To bring any action thereon that the indorser could bring.
4 3. To transfer his rights as such indorsee, where the form of the 5 indorsement authorizes him to do so.
6 But all subsequent indorsees acquire only the title of the first 7 indorsee under the restrictive indorsement.
[S., '13, § 3060-a37.]
SEC. 5952. Qualified indorsement.

1 A qualified indorsement constitutes the indorser a mere assignor of the title to the instrument. It may be made by adding to the indorser's signature the words "without recourse" or any words of similar import. Such an indorsement does not impair the negotiable character of the instrument.

[S., '13, § 3060-a38.]

SEC. 5953. Conditional indorsement.

1 Where an indorsement is conditional, a party required to pay the instrument may disregard the condition, and make payment to the indorsee or his transferee, whether the conditions have been fulfilled or not. But any person to whom an instrument so indorsed is negotiated, will hold the same, or the proceeds thereof, subject to the rights of the person indorsing conditionally.

[S., '13, § 3060-a39.]

SEC. 5954. Indorsement of instrument payable to bearer.

1 Where an instrument, payable to bearer, is indorsed specially, it may nevertheless be further negotiated by delivery; but the person indorsing specially is liable as indorser to only such holders as make title through his indorsement.

[S., '13, § 3060-a40.]

SEC. 5955. Indorsement where payable to two or more persons.

1 Where an instrument is payable to the order of two or more payees or indorsees who are not partners, all must indorse unless the one indorsing has authority to indorse for the others.

[S., '13, § 3060-a41.]

SEC. 5956. Effect of instrument drawn or indorsed to a person as cashier.

1 Where an instrument is drawn or indorsed to a person, as "cashier" or other fiscal officer of a bank or corporation, it is deemed prima facie to be payable to the bank or corporation of which he is such officer; and may be negotiated by either the indorsement of the bank or corporation, or the indorsement of the officer.

[S., '13, § 3060-a42.]

SEC. 5957. Indorsement where name is misspelled.

1 Where the name of a payee or indorsee is wrongly designated or misspelled, he may indorse the instrument as therein described adding, if he thinks fit, his proper signature.

[S., '13, § 3060-a43.]

SEC. 5958. Indorsement in representative capacity.

1 Where any person is under obligation to indorse in a representative capacity, he may indorse in such terms as to negative personal liability.

[S., '13, § 3060-a44.]
SEC. 5959. Time of indorsement—presumption.
1 Except where an indorsement bears date after the maturity of 2 the instrument, every negotiation is deemed prima facie to have been 3 effected before the instrument was overdue.
[S., '13, § 3060-a45.]

SEC. 5960. Place of indorsement—presumption.
1 Except where the contrary appears every indorsement is pre-
2 sumed prima facie to have been made at the place where the instru-3 ment is dated.
[S., '13, § 3060-a46.]

SEC. 5961. Continuation of negotiable character.
1 An instrument negotiable in its origin continues to be negotiable
2 until it has been restrictively indorsed or discharged by payment or 3 otherwise.
[S., '13, § 3060-a47.]

SEC. 5962. Striking out indorsement.
1 The owner may at any time strike out any indorsement which 2 is not necessary to his title. The indorser whose indorsement is 3 struck out, and all indorsers subsequent to him, are thereby relieved 4 from liability on the instrument.
[S., '13, § 3060-a48.]

SEC. 5963. Transfer without indorsement—effect of.
1 Where the holder of an instrument payable to his order transfers
2 it for value without indorsing it, the transfer vests in the transferee 3 such title as the transferor had therein, and the transferee acquires, 4 in addition, the right to have the indorsement of the transferor. But 5 for the purpose of determining whether the transferee is a holder in 6 due course, the negotiation takes effect as of the time when the in-7 dorsement is actually made.
[S., '13, § 3060-a49.]

SEC. 5964. When prior party may negotiate instrument.
1 Where an instrument is negotiated back to a prior party, such 2 party may, subject to the provisions of this chapter, reissue and fur-
3 ther negotiate the same, but he is not entitled to enforce payment
4 thereof against any intervening party to whom he was personally 5 liable.
[S., '13, § 3060-a50.]

RIGHTS OF HOLDER.

SEC. 5965. Right of holder to sue—payment.
1 The holder of a negotiable instrument may sue thereon in his 2 own name and payment to him in due course discharges the instru-3 ment.
[S., '13, § 3060-a51.]

SEC. 5966. What constitutes a holder in due course.
1 A holder in due course is a holder who has taken the instrument
2 under the following conditions:
1. That the instrument is complete and regular upon its face.
2. That he became the holder of it before it was overdue, and without notice that it had been previously dishonored, if such was the fact.
3. That he took it in good faith and for value.
4. That at the time it was negotiated to him he had no notice of any infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiating it.

[§ § 5967-5972. § 5967. When person not deemed holder in due course.
Where an instrument payable on demand is negotiated an unreasonable length of time after its issue, the holder is not deemed a holder in due course.

[S., '13, § 3060-a53.]

§ 5968. Notice before full amount paid.
Where the transferee receives notice of any infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiating the same before he has paid the full amount agreed to be paid therefor, he will be deemed a holder in due course only to the extent of the amount theretofore paid by him.

[S., '13, § 3060-a54.]

§ 5969. When title defective.
The title of a person who negotiates an instrument is defective within the meaning of this chapter when he obtained the instrument, or any signature thereto, by fraud, duress, or force and fear, or other unlawful means, or for an illegal consideration, or when he negotiates it in breach of faith, or under such circumstances as amount to a fraud.

§ 5970. What constitutes notice of defect.
To constitute notice of an infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiating the same, the person to whom it is negotiated must have had actual knowledge of the infirmity or defect, or knowledge of such facts that his action in taking the instrument amounted to bad faith.

[S., '13, § 3060-a56.]

§ 5971. Rights of holder in due course.
A holder in due course holds the instrument free from any defect of title of prior parties, and free from defenses available to prior parties among themselves, and may enforce payment of the instrument for the full amount thereof against all parties liable thereon.

[S., '13, § 3060-a57.]

§ 5972. When subject to original defenses.
In the hands of any holder other than a holder in due course, a negotiable instrument is subject to the same defenses as if it were nonnegotiable. But a holder who derives his title through a holder in due course, and who is not himself a party to any fraud or illegality SEC. 5973. Who deemed holder in due course.

Every holder is deemed prima facie to be a holder in due course; but when it is shown that the title of any person who has negotiated the instrument was defective, the burden is on the holder to prove that he or some person under whom he claims acquired the title as a holder in due course. But the last mentioned rule does not apply in favor of a party who became bound on the instrument prior to the acquisition of such defective title.

SEC. 5974. Liability of maker.

The maker of a negotiable instrument by making it engages that he will pay it according to its tenor, and admits the existence of the payee and his then capacity to endorse.

SEC. 5975. Liability of drawer.

The drawer by drawing the instrument admits the existence of the payee and his then capacity to indorse, and engages that on due presentment the instrument will be accepted or paid, or both, according to its tenor, and that if it be dishonored, and the necessary proceedings on dishonor be duly taken, he will pay the amount thereof to the holder, or to any subsequent indorser who may be compelled to pay it. But the drawer may insert in the instrument an express stipulation negativing or limiting his own liability to the holder.

SEC. 5976. Liability of acceptor.

The acceptor by accepting the instrument engages that he will pay it according to the tenor of his acceptance, and admits:

1. The existence of the drawer, the genuineness of his signature, and his capacity and authority to draw the instrument; and
2. The existence of the payee and his then capacity to indorse.

SEC. 5977. When person deemed indorser.

A person placing his signature upon an instrument otherwise than as maker, drawer or acceptor is deemed to be an indorser, unless he clearly indicates by appropriate words his intention to be bound in some other capacity.

SEC. 5978. Liability of irregular indorser.

Where a person, not otherwise a party to an instrument, places thereon his signature in blank before delivery, he is liable as indorser in accordance with the following rules:

1. If the instrument is payable to the order of a third person, he is liable to the payee and to all subsequent parties.
2. If the instrument is payable to the order of the maker or drawer, or is payable to bearer, he is liable to all parties subsequent to the maker or drawer.
3. If he signs for the accommodation of the payee, he is liable to all parties subsequent to the payee.

[S., '13, § 3060-a64.]

SEC. 5979. Warranty where negotiation by delivery.

Every person negotiating an instrument by delivery or by a qual-i-fied indorsement, warrants:
1. That the instrument is genuine and in all respects what it purports to be.
2. That he has a good title to it.
3. That all prior parties had capacity to contract.
4. That he has no knowledge of any fact which would impair the validity of the instrument or render it valueless.

But when the negotiation is by delivery only, the warranty extends in favor of no holder other than the immediate transferee. The provisions of subdivision three of this section do not apply to persons negotiating public or corporate securities, other than bills and notes.

[S., '13, § 3060-a65.]

SEC. 5980. Liability of general indorser.

Every indorser who indorses without qualification, warrants to all subsequent holders in due course:
1. The matters and things mentioned in subdivisions one, two and three of the next preceding section; and
2. That the instrument is at the time of his indorsement valid and subsisting. And, in addition, he engages that on due presentment, it shall be accepted or paid, or both, as the case may be, according to its tenor, and that if it be dishonored, and the necessary proceedings on dishonor be duly taken, he will pay the amount thereof to the holder, or to any subsequent indorser who may be compelled to pay it.

[S., '13, § 3060-a66.]

[S., '13, § 3060-a104.]

SEC. 6020. When sender deemed to have given due notice.

[S., '13, § 3060-a105.]

SEC. 6021. Deposit in postoffice—what constitutes.

2. If he lives in one place, and have his place of business in another, notice may be sent to either place; or
3. If he is sojourning in another place, notice may be sent to the place where he is sojourning. But where the notice is actually received by the party within the time specified in this chapter, it will be sufficient, though not sent in accordance with the requirements of this section.

[S., '13, § 3060-a108.]

[S., '13, § 3060-a109.]

SEC. 6025. Whom affected by waiver.
1 Where the waiver is embodied in the instrument itself, it is binding upon all parties; but where it is written above the signature of an indorser, it binds him only.

[S., '13, § 3060-a110.]

SEC. 6026. Waiver of protest.
1 A waiver of protest, whether in the case of a foreign bill of exchange or other negotiable instrument, is deemed to be a waiver not only of a formal protest, but also of a presentment and notice of dishonor.

[S., '13, § 3060-a111.]

SEC. 6027. When notice is dispensed with.

[S., '13, § 3060-a113.]

SEC. 6029. When notice need not be given to drawer.
1 Notice of dishonor is not required to be given to the drawer in either of the following cases:
2 1. Where the drawer and drawee are the same person.
3 2. Where the drawee is a fictitious person or a person not having capacity to contract.
4 3. Where the drawer is the person to whom the instrument is presented for payment.

SEC. 6030. When notice need not be given to indorser.

1 Notice of dishonor is not required to be given to an indorser in either of the following cases:
2 1. Where the drawee is a fictitious person or a person not having capacity to contract and the indorser was aware of the fact at the time he indorsed the instrument.

1 Where any negotiable instrument has been dishonored it may be protested for nonacceptance or nonpayment as the case may be; but protest is not required, except in the case of foreign bills of exchange.

[S., '13, § 3060-a118.]

DISCHARGE OF NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS.

SEC. 6034. How instrument discharged.

1 A negotiable instrument is discharged:
2 1. By payment in due course by or on behalf of the principal debtor.
3 2. By payment in due course by the party accommodated, where the instrument is made or accepted for accommodation.
4 3. By the intentional cancellation thereof by the holder.
5 4. By any other act which will discharge a simple contract for the payment of money.
6 5. When the principal debtor becomes the holder of the instrument at or after maturity in his own right.

[S., '13, § 3060-a119.]

SEC. 6035. When persons secondarily liable on—discharged.

1 A person secondarily liable on the instrument is discharged:
2 1. By an act which discharges the instrument.
3 2. By the intentional cancellation of his signature by the holder.
§§ 6036-6040.

4 3. By the discharge of a prior party.
5 4. By the valid tender of payment made by a prior party.
6 5. By a release of the principal debtor, unless the holder's right 7 of recourse against the party secondarily liable is expressly reserved.
8 6. By an agreement binding upon the holder to extend the time of 9 payment, or to postpone the holder's right to enforce the instrument, 10 unless made with the assent of the party secondarily liable, or unless 11 the right of recourse against such party is expressly reserved.

[S. S., '15, § 3060-a120.]

SEC. 6036. Right of party who discharges instrument.
1 Where the instrument is paid by a party secondarily liable
2 thereon, it is not discharged; but the party so paying it is remitted to 3 his former rights as regards all prior parties, and he may strike out 4 his own and all subsequent indorsements, and again negotiate the 5 instrument, except:
6 1. Where it is payable to the order of a third person, and has been 7 paid by the drawer; and 8 2. Where it was made or accepted for accommodation, and has 9 been paid by the party accommodated.

[S., '13, § 3060-a121.]

SEC. 6037. Renunciation by holder.
1 The holder may expressly renounce his rights against any party
2 to the instrument before, at or after its maturity. An absolute and 3 unconditional renunciation of his rights against the principal debtor 4 made at or after the maturity of the instrument discharges the instru-5 ment. But a renunciation does not affect the rights of a holder in 6 due course without notice. A renunciation must be in writing, unless 7 the instrument is delivered up to the person primarily liable thereon.

[S., '13, § 3060-a122.]

SEC. 6038. Cancellation—unintentional—burden of proof.
1 A cancellation made unintentionally, or under a mistake, or with-
2 out the authority of the holder, is inoperative; but where an instru-3 ment or any signature thereon appears to have been canceled, the 4 burden of proof lies on the party who alleges that the cancellation was 5 made unintentionally, or under a mistake or without authority.

[S., '13, § 3060-a123.]

SEC. 6039. Alteration of instrument—effect of.
1 Where a negotiable instrument is materially altered without the 2 assent of all parties liable thereon, it is avoided, except as against a 3 party who has himself made, authorized or assented to the alteration
4 and subsequent indorsers. But when an instrument has been mate-
5 rially altered and is in the hands of a holder in due course, not a 6 party to the alteration, he may enforce payment thereof according to 7 its original tenor.

[S., '13, § 3060-a124.]

SEC. 6040. What constitutes a material alteration.
1 Any alteration which changes:
2 1. The date;
§§ 6041-6046.

3 2. The sum payable, either for principal or interest;
4 3. The time or place of payment;
5 4. The number or the relations of the parties;
6 5. The medium or currency in which payment is to be made;
7 Or which adds a place of payment where no place of payment is 8 specified, or any other change or addition which alters the effect of 9 the instrument in any respect, is a material alteration.

[S., '13, § 3060-a125.]

BILL S OF EXCHANGE—FORM AND INTERPRETATION.

SEC. 6041. Bill of exchange defined.
1 A bill of exchange is an unconditional order in writing addressed 2 by one person to another, signed by the person giving it, requiring the 3 person to whom it is addressed to pay on demand, or at a fixed or 4 determinable future time, a sum certain in money to order or to bearer.

[S., '13, § 3060-a126.]

SEC. 6042. Bill not an assignment of funds in hands of drawee.
1 A bill of itself does not operate as an assignment of the funds in 2 the hands of the drawee available for the payment thereof, and the 3 drawee is not liable on the bill unless and until he accepts the same.

[S., '13, § 3060-a127.]

SEC. 6043. Bill addressed to more than one drawee.
1 A bill may be addressed to two or more drawees jointly, whether 2 they are partners or not; but not to two or more drawees in the alter-3 native or in succession.

[S., '13, § 3060-a128.]

SEC. 6044. Inland and foreign bills of exchange.
1 An inland bill of exchange is a bill which is, or on its face pur-
2 ports to be, both drawn and payable within this state. Any other bill
3 is a foreign bill. Unless the contrary appears on the face of the bill, 4 the holder may treat it as an inland bill.

[S., '13, § 3060-a129.]

SEC. 6045. When bill may be treated as promissory note.
1 Where in a bill the drawer and drawee are the same person, or 2 where the drawee is a fictitious person, or a person not having capacity
3 to contract the holder may treat the instrument, at his option, either 4 as a bill of exchange or a promissory note.

[S., '13, § 3060-a130.]

SEC. 6046. Referee in case of need.
1 The drawer of a bill and any indorser may insert thereon the 2 name of a person to whom the holder may resort in case of need, that 3 is to say, in case the bill is dishonored by nonacceptance or non-4 payment. Such person is called the referee in case of need. It is in 5 the option of the holder to resort to the referee in case of need or not,
6 as he may see fit.

[S., '13, § 3060-a131.]
SEC. 6047. Acceptance—how made.
1 The acceptance of a bill is the signification by the drawee of his 2 assent to the order of the drawer. The acceptance must be in writing 3 and signed by the drawee. It must not express that the drawee will 4 perform his promise by any other means than the payment of money.
[S., '13, § 3060-a132.]

SEC. 6048. Holder entitled to acceptance on face of bill.
1 The holder of a bill presenting the same for acceptance may 2 require that the acceptance be written on the bill, and if such request 3 is refused, may treat the bill as dishonored.
[S., '13, § 3060-a133.]

SEC. 6049. Acceptance by separate instrument.
1 Where an acceptance is written on a paper other than the bill
2 itself, it does not bind the acceptor except in favor of a person to 3 whom it is shown and who, on the faith thereof, receives the bill for 4 value.
[S., '13, § 3060-a134.]

SEC. 6050. Promise to accept—when equivalent to acceptance.
1 An unconditional promise in writing to accept a bill before it is 2 drawn is deemed an actual acceptance in favor of every person who,
3 upon the faith thereof, receives the bill for value.
[S., '13, § 3060-a135.]

SEC. 6051. Time allowed drawee to accept.
1 The drawee is allowed twenty-four hours after presentment in 2 which to decide whether or not he will accept the bill; but the accept-3 ance, if given, dates as of the day of presentation.
[S., '13, § 3060-a136.]

SEC. 6052. Liability of drawee retaining or destroying bill.
1 Where a drawee to whom a bill is delivered for acceptance de-
2 stroyes the same, or refuses within twenty-four hours after such deliv-3 ery, or within such other period as the holder may allow, to return the 4 bill accepted or nonaccepted to the holder, he will be deemed to have 5 accepted the same.
[S., '13, § 3060-a137.]

SEC. 6053. Acceptance of incomplete bill.
1 A bill may be accepted before it has been signed by the drawer, or 2 while otherwise incomplete, or when it is overdue, or after it has been 3 dishonored by a previous refusal to accept, or by nonpayment. But 4 when a bill payable after sight is dishonored by nonacceptance and the 5 drawee subsequently accepts it, the holder, in the absence of any 6 different agreement, is entitled to have the bill accepted as of the date 7 of the first presentment.
[S., '13, § 3060-a138.]
§§ 6054-6059. NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS. Tit. XXI, Ch. 6.

SEC. 6054. Kinds of acceptance.
1 An acceptance is either general or qualified. A general acceptance
2 assents without qualification to the order of the drawer. A qualified 3 acceptance in express terms varies the effect of the bill as drawn.
[S., '13, § 3060-a139.]

SEC. 6055. What constitutes a general acceptance.
1 An acceptance to pay at a particular place is a general acceptance
2 unless it expressly states that the bill is to be paid there only and not 3 elsewhere.
[S., '13, § 3060-a140.]

SEC. 6056. Qualified acceptance.
1 An acceptance is qualified, which is:
2 1. Conditional, that is to say, which makes payment by the ac-
3 ceptor dependent on the fulfillment of a condition therein stated.
4 2. Partial, that is to say, an acceptance to pay part only of the 5 amount for which the bill is drawn.
6 3. Local, that is to say, an acceptance to pay only at a particular 7 place.
8 4. Qualified as to time.
9 5. The acceptance of some one or more of the drawees, but not 10 of all.
[S., '13, § 3060-a141.]

SEC. 6057. Rights of parties to qualified acceptance.
1 The holder may refuse to take a qualified acceptance, and if he
2 does not obtain an unqualified acceptance, he may treat the bill as dis-3 honored by nonacceptance. Where a qualified acceptance is taken, the 4 drawer and indorsers are discharged from liability on the bill, unless 5 they have expressly or impliedly authorized the holder to take a quali-6 fied acceptance, or subsequently assent thereto. When the drawer or 7 an indorser receives notices of a qualified acceptance, he must within a 8 reasonable time express his dissent to the holder, or he will be deemed 9 to have assented thereto.
[S., '13, § 3060-a142.]

PRESENTMENT OF BILLS OF EXCHANGE FOR ACCEPTANCE.

SEC. 6058. When presentment for acceptance must be made.
1 Presentment for acceptance must be made:
2 1. When the bill is payable after sight, or in any other case where 3 presentment for acceptance is necessary in order to fix the maturity 4 of the instrument; or 5 2. Where the bill expressly stipulates that it shall be presented 6 for acceptance; or 7 3. Where the bill is drawn payable elsewhere than at the resi-8 dence or place of business of the drawee.
9 In no other case is presentment for acceptance necessary in order 10 to render any party to the bill liable.
[S., '13, § 3060-a143.]

SEC. 6059. When failure to present releases drawer and indorser.
1 Except as herein otherwise provided, the holder of a bill which is 2 required by the next preceding section to be presented for acceptance NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS.

§§ 6060-6064.

must either present it for acceptance or negotiate it within a reasonable time. If he fail to do so, the drawer and all indorsers are discharged.

[S., '13, § 3060-a144.]

SEC. 6060. Presentment—how made.

Presentment for acceptance must be made by or on behalf of the holder at a reasonable hour, on a business day and before the bill is overdue, to the drawee or some person authorized to accept or refuse acceptance on his behalf; and:

1. Where a bill is addressed to two or more drawees who are not partners, presentment must be made to them all, unless one has authority to accept or refuse acceptance for all, in which case presentment may be made to him only.

2. Where the drawee is dead, presentment may be made to his personal representative.

3. Where the drawee has been adjudged a bankrupt or an insolvent or has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, presentment may be made to him or to his trustee or assignee.

Where the holder of a bill drawn payable elsewhere than at the place of business or the residence of the drawee has not time with the exercise of reasonable diligence to present the bill for acceptance before presenting it for payment on the day that it falls due, the delay caused by presenting the bill for acceptance before presenting it for payment is excused and does not discharge the drawers and indorsers.

[S., '13, § 3060-a147.]

SEC. 6063. Where presentment is excused.

Presentment for acceptance is excused and a bill may be treated as dishonored by nonacceptance, in either of the following cases:

2. Where after the exercise of reasonable diligence, presentment can not be made.

3. Where although presentment has been irregular, acceptance has been refused on some ground.

[S., '13, § 3060-a148.]

A bill is dishonored by nonacceptance:

1. When it is duly presented for acceptance and such an acceptance as is prescribed by this chapter is refused or can not be obtained; or § 6065. Duty of holder where bill is not accepted.

Where a bill is duly presented for acceptance and is not accepted within the prescribed time, the person presenting it must treat the bill as dishonored by nonacceptance or he loses the right of recourse against the drawer and indorsers.

[S., '13, § 3060-a149.]

SEC. 6066. Rights of holders where bill is not accepted.

PROTEST OF BILLS OF EXCHANGE.

SEC. 6067. In what cases protest necessary.

Where a foreign bill appearing on its face to be such is dishonored by nonacceptance, it must be duly protested for nonacceptance, and where such a bill which has not previously been dishonored by nonacceptance is dishonored by nonpayment, it must be duly protested for nonpayment. If it is not so protested, the drawer and indorsers are discharged. Where a bill does not appear on its face to be a foreign bill, protest thereof in case of dishonor is unnecessary.

[S., '13, § 3060-a152.]

SEC. 6068. Protest—how made.

The protest must be annexed to the bill, or must contain a copy thereof, and must be under the hand and seal of the notary making it, and must specify:

1. The time and place of presentment.
2. The fact that presentment was made and the manner thereof.
3. The cause or reason for protesting the bill.
4. The demand made and the answer given, if any, or the fact that the drawee or acceptor could not be found.

[S., '13, § 3060-a153.]

SEC. 6069. Protest—by whom made.

SEC. 6071. Protest—where made.
1 A bill must be protested at the place where it is dishonored, except 2 that when a bill drawn payable at the place of business or residence of 3 some person other than the drawee, has been dishonored by non-

[S., '13, § 3060-a156.]

SEC. 6072. Protest both for nonacceptance and nonpayment.
1 A bill which has been protested for nonacceptance may be subse-

[S., '13, § 3060-a157.]

SEC. 6073. Protest before maturity where acceptor insolvent.
1 Where the acceptor has been adjudged a bankrupt or an insolvent
2 or has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, before the bill
3 matures, the holder may cause the bill to be protested for better 4 security against the drawer and indorsers.
[S., '13, § 3060-a158.]

SEC. 6074. Where protest dispensed with.
1 Protest is dispensed with by any circumstances which would dis-
2 pense with notice of dishonor. Delay in noting or protesting is ex-3 cused when delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of 4 the holder and not imputable to his default, misconduct or negli-

4 of the holder, intervene and accept the bill supra protest for the honor 5 of any party liable thereon or for the honor of the person for whose 6 account the bill is drawn. The acceptance for honor may be for part

[S., '13, § 3060-a163.]

SEC. 6080. Agreement of acceptor for honor.
1 The acceptor for honor by such acceptance engages that he will

SEC. 6082. Protest of bill accepted for honor.
1 Where a dishonored bill has been accepted for honor supra pro-

SEC. 6087. Payment for honor—how made.
1 The payment for honor supra protest in order to operate as such 2 and not as a mere voluntary payment must be attested by a notarial 3 act of honor which may be appended to the protest or form an exten-4 sion to it.
[S., '13, § 3060-a172.]

SEC. 6088. Declaration before payment for honor.
1 The notarial act of honor must be founded on a declaration made 2 by the payer for honor or by his agent in that behalf declaring his 3 intention to pay the bill for honor and for whose honor he pays.
[S., '13, § 3060-a173.]

SEC. 6089. Preference of parties offering to pay for honor.
1 Where two or more persons offer to pay a bill for the honor of 2 different parties, the person whose payment will discharge most 3 parties to the bill is to be given the preference.
[S., '13, § 3060-a174.]

SEC. 6090. Effect on subsequent parties where bill is paid for honor.

2 party for whose honor it is paid are discharged, but the payer for 3 honor is subrogated for, and succeeds to, both the rights and duties of 4 the holder as regards the party for whose honor he pays and all 5 parties liable to the latter.
[S., '13, § 3060-a175.]

SEC. 6091. Where holder refuses to receive payment supra protest.
1 Where the holder of a bill refuses to receive payment supra protest, he loses his right of recourse against any party who would have 3 been discharged by such payment.
[S., '13, § 3060-a176.]

SEC. 6092. Rights of payer for honor.
1 The payer for honor on paying to the holder the amount of the 2 bill and the notarial expenses incidental to its dishonor, is entitled to 3 receive both the bill itself and the protest.
[S., '13, § 3060-a177.]
BILLS IN A SET.

SEC. 6093. Bills in sets constitute one bill.
1 Where a bill is drawn in a set, each part of the set being numbered

4 affects the rights of a person who in due course accepts or pays the 5 part first presented to him.
[S., '13, § 3060-a179.]

SEC. 6095. Liability of holder who indorses two or more parts of 1 a set to different persons.
2 Where the holder of a set indorses two or more parts to different 3 persons he is liable on every such part, and every indorser subsequent 4 to him is liable on the part he has himself indorsed, as if such parts 5 were separate bills.
[S., '13, § 3060-a180.]

SEC. 6096. Acceptance of bills drawn in sets.
1 The acceptance may be written on any part and it must be writ-2 ten on one part only. If the drawee accepts more than one part, and 3 such accepted parts are negotiated to different holders in due course, 4 he is liable on every such part as if it were a separate bill.
[S., '13, § 3060-a181.]

SEC. 6097. Payment by acceptor of bills drawn in sets.
1 When the acceptor of a bill drawn in a set pays it without requir-
2 ing the part bearing his acceptance to be delivered up to him, and that 3 part at maturity is outstanding in the hands of a holder in due course, 4 he is liable to the holder thereon.
[S., '13, § 3060-a182.]

SEC. 6098. Effect of discharging one of a set.
1 Except as herein otherwise provided where any one part of a bill
2 drawn in a set is discharged by payment or otherwise, the whole bill

SEC. 6101. Within what time a check must be presented.

Such certificates shall contain the name and address of the person, firm or corporation issuing them, and the name and address of the party to whom issued, the location of the elevator, warehouse, building or other place where the commodity therein described is stored, the date of the issuance of such certificate, the quantity of each commodity therein mentioned, the brands or marks of identification thereon, if any, and be signed by the person or firm issuing the same, unless issued by a corporation, in which case they shall be signed by such corporation by its secretary or business manager, if it has such manager other than its secretary.

No record or other notice shall be necessary to protect the rights of the holder of the certificate as against subsequent purchasers of the property.

SEC. 6118. Registration of certificates and transfers.

1 All certificates given under the provisions of this chapter shall be registered by the party issuing them in a book kept for that purpose, showing the date thereof, the number of each, the name of the party to whom issued, the quantities and kinds of commodities enumerated therein, and the brands or other distinguishing marks thereon, if any, which book shall be open to the inspection of any person holding any of the certificates that may be outstanding and in force, or his agent or attorney; and when any commodity enumerated in any such certificate is delivered to the holder thereof, or it in any other manner becomes inoperative, the fact and date of such delivery or other termination of such liability shall be entered in such register, in connection with the original entry of the issuance thereof.

[C., '73, § 2175; C., '97, § 3128.]

CHAPTER 8.
WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS, DUTIES AND LIABILITIES OF WAREHOUSEMEN.

SECTION 6122. Who may issue receipts.

1 Warehouse receipts may be issued by any warehouseman.

[S., '13, § 3138-a1.]

SEC. 6123. Form of receipts—essential terms.

1 Warehouse receipts need not be in any particular form, but every such receipt must embody within its written or printed terms—
2 1. The location of the warehouse where the goods are stored.
3 2. The date of issue of the receipt.
4 3. The consecutive number of the receipt.
5 4. A statement whether the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, to a specified person, or to a specified person or his order.
6 5. The rate of storage charges.
7 6. A description of the goods or of the packages containing them.
8 7. The signature of the warehouseman, which may be made by his authorized agent.
9 8. If the receipt is issued for goods of which the warehouseman is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, the fact of such ownership; and
9. A statement of the amount of advances made and of liabilities incurred for which the warehouseman claims a lien. If the precise amount of such advances made or of such liabilities incurred is, at the time of the issue of the receipt, unknown to the warehouseman or to his agent who issues it, a statement of the fact that advances have been made or liabilities incurred and the purpose thereof is sufficient.

A warehouseman shall be liable to any person injured thereby, for all damages caused by the omission from a negotiable receipt of any of the terms herein required.

[S., '13, § 3138-a2.]

SEC. 6124. What terms may be inserted.
1 A warehouseman may insert in a receipt, issued by him, any other terms and conditions, provided that such terms and conditions shall not—
2. Be contrary to the provisions of this chapter.
3. In anywise impair his obligation to exercise that degree of care in the safe-keeping of the goods intrusted to him which a reasonably careful man would exercise in regard to similar goods of his own.

[S., '13, § 3138-a3.]

SEC. 6125. Nonnegotiable receipt defined.
1 A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the depositor, or to any other specified person, is a nonnegotiable receipt.

[S., '13, § 3138-a4.]

SEC. 6126. Negotiable receipt defined.
1 A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, or to the order of any person named in such receipt, is a negotiable receipt. No provision shall be inserted in a negotiable receipt that it is nonnegotiable. Such provisions, if inserted, shall be void.

SEC. 6127. Duplicate receipts must be so marked.
1 When more than one negotiable receipt is issued for the same goods, the word "duplicate" shall be plainly placed upon the face of every such receipt, except the one first issued. A warehouseman shall be liable for all damage caused by his failure so to do to anyone who purchased the subsequent receipt for value supposing it to be an original, even though the purchase be after the delivery of the goods by the warehouseman to the holder of the original receipt.

SEC. 6128. Failure to mark "not negotiable."
1 A nonnegotiable receipt shall have plainly placed upon its face by the warehouseman issuing it "nonnegotiable," or "not negotiable." In case of the warehouseman's failure so to do, a holder of the receipt who purchased it for value supposing it to be negotiable, may, at his option, treat such receipt as imposing upon the warehouseman the same liabilities he would have incurred had the receipt been nego-
7 tiable. This section shall not apply, however, to letters, memoranda 8 or written acknowledgments of an informal character.
9
[S., '13, § 3138-a7.]

SEC. 6129. Obligation of warehouseman to deliver.
1 A warehouseman, in the absence of some lawful excuse provided
2 by this chapter, is bound to deliver the goods upon a demand made 3 either by the holder of a receipt for the goods or by the depositor, if 4 such demand is accompanied with—5 1. An offer to satisfy the warehouseman's lien, 6 2. An offer to surrender the receipt if negotiable, with such 7 indorsements as would be necessary for the negotiation of the re-8 ceipt; and 9 3. A readiness and willingness to sign, when the goods are de-10 livered, an acknowledgment that they have been delivered, if such 11 signature is requested by the warehouseman.
12 In case the warehouseman refuses or fails to deliver the goods in 13 compliance with a demand by the holder or depositor so accompanied, 14 the burden shall be upon the warehouseman to establish the existence 15 of a lawful excuse for such refusal.
[S., '13, § 3138-a8.]

SEC. 6130. Justification of warehouseman delivering.
1 A warehouseman is justified in delivering the goods, subject to 2 the provisions of the three following sections, to one who is—3 1. The person lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods, or 4 his agent.
5 2. A person who is either himself entitled to delivery by the 6 terms of a nonnegotiable receipt issued for the goods, or who has 7 written authority from the person so entitled either indorsed upon 8 the receipt or written upon another paper; or 9 3. A person in possession of a negotiable receipt by the terms 10 of which the goods are deliverable to him or order or to bearer, or 11 which has been indorsed to him or in blank by the person to whom 12 delivery was promised by the terms of the receipt or by his mediate 13 or immediate indorsee.
[S., '13, § 3138-a9.]

SEC. 6131. Warehouseman's liability for misdelivery.
1 Where a warehouseman delivers the goods to one who is not in 2 fact lawfully entitled to the possession of them, the warehouseman 3 shall be liable as for conversion to all having a right of property or 4 possession in the goods if he delivered the goods otherwise than as 5 authorized by subdivisions two and three of the preceding section and 6 though he delivered the goods as authorized by said subdivisions he 7 shall be so liable, if prior to such delivery he had either—8 1. Been requested, by or on behalf of the person lawfully entitled 9 to a right of property or possession in the goods, not to make such 10 delivery; or 11 2. Had information that the delivery about to be made was to one 12 not lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods.
§§ 6132-6135. DUTIES AND LIABILITIES OF WAREHOUSEMEN. Tit. XXI, Ch. 8.

SEC. 6132. Negotiable receipt must be canceled when goods delivered.
1 Except as provided in section sixty-one hundred fifty-seven, where a warehouseman delivers goods for which he had issued a negotiable receipt, the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of the goods, and fails to take up and cancel the receipt, he shall be liable to anyone who purchases for value in good faith such receipt, for failure to deliver goods to him, whether such purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of the goods by the warehouseman.

SEC. 6133. Negotiable receipt must be canceled or marked when part of goods delivered.
1 Except as provided in section sixty-one hundred fifty-seven, where a warehouseman delivers part of the goods for which he had issued a negotiable receipt and fails either to take up and cancel such receipt, or to place plainly upon it a statement of what goods or packages have been delivered, he shall be liable, to anyone who purchases for value in good faith such receipt, for failure to deliver all the goods specified in the receipt, whether such purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of any portion of the goods by the warehouseman.

SEC. 6134. Altered receipts.
1 The alteration of a receipt shall not excuse the warehouseman who issued it from any liability if such alteration was—
2 1. Immaterial,
3 2. Authorized, or 4 3. Made without fraudulent intent.
5 If the alteration was authorized, the warehouseman shall be liable according to the terms of the receipt as altered. If the alteration was unauthorized, but made without fraudulent intent, the warehouseman shall be liable according to the terms of the receipt, as they were before alteration. Material and fraudulent alteration of a receipt shall not excuse the warehouseman who issued it from liability to deliver, according to the terms of the receipt as originally issued, the goods for which it was issued, but shall excuse him from any other liability to the person who made the alteration and to any person who took with notice of the alteration. Any purchaser of the receipt for value without notice of the alteration shall acquire the same rights against the warehouseman which such purchaser would have acquired if the receipt had not been altered at the time of the purchase.

SEC. 6135. Lost or destroyed receipts.
1 Where a negotiable receipt has been lost or destroyed, a court of competent jurisdiction may order the delivery of the goods upon satisfactory proof of such loss or destruction and upon the giving of a bond with sufficient sureties to be approved by the court to protect the warehouseman from any liability or expense, which he or any person injured by such delivery may incur by reason of the original receipt remaining outstanding. The court may also in its discretion order the payment of the warehouseman's reasonable costs and counsel fees.
The delivery of the goods under an order of the court as provided in this section, shall not relieve the warehouseman from liability to a person to whom the negotiable receipt has been or shall be negotiated for value without notice of the proceedings or of the delivery of the goods.

[S., '13, § 3138-a14.]

SEC. 6136. Effect of duplicate receipt.

A receipt upon the face of which the word "duplicate" is plainly placed is a representation and warranty by the warehouseman that such receipt is an accurate copy of an original receipt properly issued and uncanceled at the date of the issue of the duplicate, but shall impose upon him no other liability.

[S., '13, § 3138-a15.]

SEC. 6137. Warehouseman can not set up title in himself.

No title or right to the possession of the goods, on the part of the warehouseman, unless such title or right is derived directly or indirectly from a transfer made by the depositor at the time of or subsequent to the deposit for storage, or from the warehouseman's lien, shall excuse the warehouseman from liability for refusing to deliver the goods according to the terms of the receipt.

[S., '13, § 3138-a16.]

SEC. 6138. Interpleader of adverse claimants.

If more than one person claims the title or possession of the goods, the warehouseman may, either as a defense to an action brought against him for nondelivery of the goods, or as an original suit, whichever is appropriate, require all known claimants to interplead.

[S., '13, § 3138-a17.]

SEC. 6139. Warehouseman has reasonable time to determine validity of claims.

If some one other than the depositor or person claiming under him has a claim to the title or possession of the goods, and the warehouseman has information of such claim, the warehouseman shall be excused from liability for refusing to deliver the goods, either to the depositor or person claiming under him or to adverse claimant, until the warehouseman has had a reasonable time to ascertain the validity of the adverse claim or to bring legal proceedings to compel all claimants to interplead.

[S., '13, § 3138-a18.]

SEC. 6140. Adverse title no defense—exceptions.

Except as provided in the two preceding sections and in sections sixty-one hundred thirty and sixty-one hundred fifty-seven, no right or title of a third person shall be a defense to an action brought by the depositor or person claiming under him against the warehouseman for failure to deliver the goods according to the terms of the receipt.

[S., '13, § 3138-a19.]
SEC. 6141. Liability for nonexistence or misdescription of goods.

A warehouseman shall be liable to the holder of a receipt for damages caused by the nonexistence of the goods or by the failure of the goods to correspond with the description thereof in the receipt at the time of its issue. If, however, the goods are described in a receipt merely by a statement of marks or labels upon them, or upon packages containing them, or by a statement that the goods are said to be goods of a certain kind, or that packages containing the goods are said to contain goods of a certain kind, or by words of like purport, such statements, if true, shall not make liable the warehouseman issuing the receipt, although the goods are not of the kind which the marks or labels upon them indicate or of the kind they were said to be by the depositor.

SEC. 6142. Liability for care of goods.

A warehouseman shall be liable for any loss or injury to the goods caused by his failure to exercise such care in regard to them as a reasonably careful owner of similar goods would exercise, but he shall not be liable, in the absence of an agreement to the contrary, for any loss or injury to the goods which could not have been avoided by the exercise of such care.

[S., '13, § 3138-a21.]

SEC. 6143. Goods must be kept separate.

Except as provided in the following section, a warehouseman shall keep the goods so far separate from goods of other depositors, and from other goods of the same depositor for which a separate receipt has been issued, as to permit at all times the identification and redelivery of the goods deposited.

SEC. 6144. Fungible goods may be commingled, if warehouseman authorized.

If authorized by agreement or by custom, a warehouseman may mingle fungible goods with other goods of the same kind and grade. In such case the various depositors of the mingled goods shall own the entire mass in common, and each depositor shall be entitled to such portion thereof as the amount deposited by him bears to the whole.

[S., '13, § 3138-a23.]

SEC. 6145. Liability of warehouseman to depositors of commingled goods.

The warehouseman shall be severally liable to each depositor for the care and redelivery of his share of such mass to the same extent and under the same circumstances as if the goods had been kept separate.

[S., '13, § 3138-a24.]

SEC. 6146. Attachment or levy upon goods for which a negotiable receipt has been issued.

If goods are delivered to a warehouseman by the owner or by a person whose act in conveying the title to them to a purchaser in good

SEC. 6147. Creditors' remedies to reach negotiable receipts.
1 A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a negotiable receipt shall 2 be entitled to such aid from courts of appropriate jurisdiction, by 3 injunction and otherwise, in attaching such receipt or in satisfying
4 the claim by means thereof as is allowed at law or in equity, in regard 5 to property which can not readily be attached or levied upon by ordi-6 nary legal process.
[S., '13, § 3138-a26.]

SEC. 6148. What claims included in warehouseman's lien.
1 Subject to the provisions of section sixty-one hundred fifty-one,
2 a warehouseman shall have a lien on goods deposited or on the pro-3 ceeds thereof in his hands, for all lawful charges for storage and 4 preservation of the goods; also for all lawful claims for money ad-
5 vanced, interest, insurance, transportation, labor, weighing, coopering
6 and other charges and expenses in relation to such goods; also for all 7 reasonable charges and expenses for notice, and advertisements of 8 sale, and for sale of the goods where default has been made in satis-
9 fying the warehouseman's lien.
[S., '13, § 3138-a27.]

SEC. 6149. Against what property lien may be enforced.
1 Subject to the provisions of section sixty-one hundred fifty-one,
2 a warehouseman's lien may be enforced—
3 1. Against all goods, whenever deposited, belonging to the person 4 who is liable as debtor for the claims in regard to which the lien is 5 asserted; and 6 2. Against all goods belonging to others which have been depos-7 ited at any time by the person who is liable as debtor for the claims 8 in regard to which the lien is asserted, if such person has been so 9 intrusted with the possession of the goods that a pledge of the same 10 by him at the time of the deposit to one who took the goods in good 11 faith for value would have been valid.
[S., '13, § 3138-a28.]

SEC. 6150. How lien may be lost.
1 A warehouseman loses his lien upon goods—
2 1. By surrendering possession thereof; or 3 2. By refusing to deliver the goods when a demand is made with 4 which he is bound to comply under the provisions of this chapter.
[S., '13, § 3138-a29.]
§§ 6151-6154. DUTIES AND LIABILITIES OF WAREHOUSEMEN. Tit. XXI, Ch. 8.

SEC. 6151. Negotiable receipt must state charges for which lien is claimed.

If a negotiable receipt is issued for goods, the warehouseman shall have no lien thereon, except for charges for storage of those goods subsequent to the date of the receipt, unless the receipt expressly enumerates other charges for which a lien is claimed. In such case there shall be a lien for the charges enumerated so far as they are within the terms of section sixty-one hundred forty-eight, although the amount of the charges so enumerated is not stated in the receipt.

SEC. 6152. Warehouseman need not deliver until lien is satisfied.

A warehouseman having a lien valid against the person demanding the goods may refuse to deliver the goods to him until the lien is satisfied.

[S., '13, § 3138-a31.]

SEC. 6153. Warehouseman's lien does not preclude other remedies.

Whether a warehouseman has or has not a lien upon the goods, he is entitled to all remedies allowed by law to a creditor against his debtor, for the collection from the depositor of all charges and advances which the depositor has expressly or impliedly contracted with the warehouseman to pay.

[S., '13, § 3138-a32.]

SEC. 6154. Satisfaction of lien by sale.

A warehouseman's lien for a claim which has become due may be satisfied as follows:

The warehouseman shall give a written notice to the person on whose account the goods are held, and to any other person known by the warehouseman to claim an interest in the goods. Such notice shall be given by delivery in person or by registered letter addressed to the last known place of business or abode of the person to be notified. The notice shall contain—

1. An itemized statement of the warehouseman's claim, showing the sum due at the time of the notice and the date or dates when it became due.
2. A brief description of the goods against which the lien exists.
3. A demand that the amount of the claim as stated in the notice, and of such further claim as shall accrue, shall be paid on or before a day mentioned, not less than ten days from the delivery of the notice if it is personally delivered, or from the time when the notice should reach its destination, according to the due course of post, if the notice is sent by mail; and
4. A statement that unless the claim is paid within the time specified the goods will be advertised for sale and sold by auction at a specified time and place.

In accordance with the terms of a notice so given, a sale of the goods by auction may be had to satisfy any valid claim of the warehouseman for which he has a lien on the goods. The sale shall be had in the place where the lien was acquired, or, if such place is manifestly unsuitable for the purpose, at the nearest suitable place. After the 27 time for the payment of the claim specified in the notice to the de-28 posit or has elapsed, an advertisement of the sale, describing the goods 29 to be sold, and stating the name of the owner or person on whose ac-30 count the goods are held, and the time and place of the sale, shall be 31 published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper pub-32 lished in the place where such sale is to be held. The sale shall not be 33 held less than fifteen days from the time of the first publication. If 34 there is no newspaper published in such place, the advertisement shall 35 be posted at least ten days before such sale in not less than six con-36 spicuous places therein. From the proceeds of such sale the ware-37 houseman shall satisfy his lien, including the reasonable charges of 38 notice, advertisement, and sale. The balance, if any, of such proceeds 39 shall be held by the warehouseman, and delivered on demand to the 40 person to whom he would have been bound to deliver or justified in 41 delivering the goods. At any time before the goods are so sold any 42 person claiming a right of property or possession therein may pay the 43 warehouseman the amount necessary to satisfy his lien and to pay 44 the reasonable expenses and liabilities incurred in serving notices and 45 advertising and preparing for the sale up to the time of such pay-46 ment. The warehouseman shall deliver the goods to the person mak-47 ing such payment if he is a person entitled, under the provisions of 48 this chapter, to the possession of the goods on payment of charges 49 thereon. Otherwise the warehouseman shall retain possession of the 50 goods according to the terms of the original contract of deposit.

[S., '13, § 3138-a33.]

SEC. 6155. Perishable and hazardous goods.

1 If goods are of a perishable nature, or by keeping will deteriorate 2 greatly in value, or by their odor, leakage, inflammability, or ex-3 plosive nature, will be liable to injure other property, the warehouse-
4 man may give such notice to the owner, or to the person in whose name 5 the goods are stored, as is reasonable and possible under the circum-
6 stances, to satisfy the lien upon such goods and to remove them from 7 the warehouse, and in the event of the failure of such person to sat-8 isfy the lien and to remove the goods within the time so specified, the 9 warehouseman may sell the goods at public or private sale without 10 advertising. If the warehouseman, after a reasonable effort, is un-11 able to sell such goods, he may dispose of them in a lawful manner, 12 and shall incur no liability by reason thereof. The proceeds of any 13 sale made under the terms of this section shall be disposed of in the 14 same way as the proceeds of sales made under the terms of the pre-15 ceding section.

[S., '13, § 3138-a34.]

SEC. 6156. Other methods of enforcing liens.

1 The remedy for enforcing a lien herein provided does not pre-
2 clude any other remedies allowed by law for the enforcement of a 3 lien against personal property nor bar the right to recover so much of 4 the warehouseman's claim as shall not be paid by the proceeds of the 5 sale of the property.

[S., '13, § 3138-a35.]

SEC. 6157. Effect of sale.

1 After the goods have been lawfully sold to satisfy a warehouse-2 man's lien, or have been lawfully sold or disposed of because of their perishable or hazardous nature, the warehouseman shall not there-4 after be liable for failure to deliver the goods to the depositor, or 5 owner of the goods, or to a holder of the receipt given for the goods 6 when they were deposited, even if such receipt be negotiable.

[S., '13, § 3138-a36.]

SEC. 6158. Negotiation of negotiable receipts by delivery.

A negotiable receipt may be negotiated by delivery—

1. Where, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the bearer; or

2. Where, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of a specified person, and such person or a subsequent indorsee of the receipt has indorsed it in blank or to bearer.

Where, by the terms of a negotiable receipt, the goods are deliverable to bearer or where a negotiable receipt has been indorsed in blank or to bearer, any holder may indorse the same to himself or to any other specified person, and in such case the receipt shall thereafter be negotiated only by the indorsement of such indorsee.

[S., '13, § 3138-a37.]

SEC. 6159. Negotiation of negotiable receipts by indorsement.

A negotiable receipt may be negotiated by the indorsement of the person to whose order the goods are, by the terms of the receipt, deliverable. Such indorsement may be in blank, to bearer or to a specified person. If indorsed to a specified person, it may be again negotiated by the indorsement of such person in blank, to bearer or to another specified person. Subsequent negotiation may be made in like manner.

[S., '13, § 3138-a38.]

SEC. 6160. Transfer of receipts.

A receipt which is not in such form that it can be negotiated by delivery may be transferred by the holder by delivery to a purchaser or donee. A nonnegotiable receipt can not be negotiated, and the indorsement of such a receipt gives the transferee no additional right.

[S., '13, § 3138-a39.]

SEC. 6161. Who may negotiate a receipt.

A negotiable receipt may be negotiated—

1. By the owner thereof; or
2. By any person to whom the possession or custody of the receipt has been intrusted by the owner, if, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of the person to whom the possession or custody of the receipt has been intrusted, or if, at the time of such intrusting, the receipt is in such form that it may be negotiated by delivery.

[S., '13, § 3138-a40.]

SEC. 6162. Rights of persons to whom receipt has been negotiated.

A person to whom a negotiable receipt has been duly negotiated acquires thereby—

1. Such title to the goods as the person negotiating the receipt to him had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and also such title to the goods as the depositor or person to whose order the goods were to be delivered by the terms of the receipt had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value; and
2. The direct obligation of the warehouseman to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt as fully as if the warehouseman had contracted directly with him.

[S., '13, § 3138-a41.]

SEC. 6163. Rights of persons to whom receipt has been transferred.
1 A person to whom a receipt has been transferred but not negotiated, acquires thereby, as against the transferor, the title to the goods, subject to the terms of any agreement with the transferor. If the receipt is nonnegotiable such person also acquires the right to notify the warehouseman of the transfer to him of such receipt, and to thereby acquire the direct obligation of the warehouseman to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt.
Prior to the notification of the warehouseman by the transferor or the transferee of a nonnegotiable receipt, the title of the trans-ferree to the goods and the right to acquire the obligation of the warehouseman may be defeated by the levy of an attachment or execution upon the goods by a creditor of the transferor, or by a notification to the warehouseman by the transferor or by a subsequent purchaser from the transferor of a subsequent sale of the goods by the transferor.

[S., '13, § 3138-a42.]

SEC. 6164. Transfer of negotiable receipt without indorsement.
1 Where a negotiable receipt is transferred for value by delivery, and the indorsement of the transferor is essential for negotiation, the transferee acquires a right against the transferor to compel him to endorse the receipt, unless a contrary intention appears. The negotiation shall take effect as of the time when the indorsement is actually made.

[S., '13, § 3138-a43.]

SEC. 6165. Warranties on sale of receipt.
1 A person who for value negotiates or transfers a receipt by indorsement or delivery, including one who assigns for value a claim secured by a receipt, unless a contrary intention appears, warrants—
1. That the receipt is genuine.
2. That he has a legal right to negotiate or transfer it.
3. That he has knowledge of no fact which would impair the validity or worth of the receipt; and
4. That he has a right to transfer the title to the goods, and that the goods are merchantable or fit for a particular purpose whenever such warranties would have been implied, if the contract of the parties had been to transfer without a receipt the goods represented thereby.

[S., '13, § 3138-a44.]

SEC. 6166. Indorser not a guarantor.
1 The indorsement of a receipt shall not make the indorser liable for any failure on the part of the warehouseman or previous indorsers of the receipt to fulfill their respective obligations.

[S., '13, § 3138-a45.]
SEC. 6167. No warranty implied from accepting payment of debt.
1 A mortgagee, pledgee or holder for security of a receipt who, in 2 good faith, demands or receives payment of the debt for which such 3 receipt is security, whether from a party to a draft drawn for such 4 debt or from any other person, shall not by so doing be deemed to 5 represent or to warrant the genuineness of such receipt or the quality 6 or quantity of the goods therein described.
[S., '13, § 3138-a46.]

SEC. 6168. When negotiation not impaired by fraud, mistake or
1 duress.
2 The validity of the negotiation of a receipt is not impaired by 3 the fact that such negotiation was a breach of duty on the part of the 4 person making the negotiation, or by the fact that the owner of the 5 receipt was induced by fraud, mistake, or duress to intrust the pos-6 session or custody of the receipt to such person, if the person to whom 7 the receipt was negotiated, or a person to whom the receipt was sub-8 sequently negotiated, paid value therefor, without notice of the breach 9 of duty, or fraud, mistake, or duress.
[S., '13, § 3138-a47.]

SEC. 6169. Subsequent negotiation.
1 Where a person having sold, mortgaged, or pledged goods which 2 are in a warehouse and for which a negotiable receipt has been issued,
3 or having sold, mortgaged, or pledged the negotiable receipt repre-
4 senting such goods, continues in possession of the negotiable receipt,
5 the subsequent negotiation thereof by that person under any sale, or 6 other disposition thereof to any person receiving the same in good 7 faith, for value and without notice of the previous sale, mortgage or 8 pledge, shall have the same effect as if the first purchaser of the 9 goods or receipt had expressly authorized the subsequent negotiation.
[S., '13, § 3138-a48.]

SEC. 6170. Negotiation defeats vendor's lien.
1 Where a negotiable receipt has been issued for goods, no seller's
2 lien or right of stoppage in transitu shall defeat the rights of any 3 purchaser for value in good faith to whom such receipt has been ne-4 gotiated, whether such negotiation be prior or subsequent to the no-
5 tification to the warehouseman who issued such receipt of the seller's
6 claim to a lien or right of stoppage in transitu. Nor shall the ware-7 houseman be obliged to deliver or justified in delivering the goods to 8 an unpaid seller unless the receipt is first surrendered for cancellation.
[S., '13, § 3138-a49.]

SEC. 6171. Issue of receipt for goods not received.
1 A warehouseman or any officer, agent, or servant of a warehouse-
2 man, who issues or aids in issuing a receipt knowing that the goods 3 for which such receipt is issued have not been actually received by 4 such warehouseman, or are not under his actual control at the time
5 of issuing such receipt, shall be guilty of felony, and upon conviction
6 shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment in the penitentiary 7 not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dol-8 lars, or by both.
[S., '13, § 3138-a50.]
SEC. 6172. Issue of receipt containing false statement.

A warehouseman, or any officer, agent or servant of a warehouseman, who fraudulently issues or aids in fraudulently issuing a receipt for goods, knowing that it contains any false statement, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both.

SEC. 6173. Issue of duplicate receipts not so marked.

A warehouseman, or any officer, agent or servant of a warehouseman, who issues or aids in issuing a duplicate or additional negotiable receipt for goods, knowing that a former negotiable receipt for the same goods or any part of them is outstanding and uncanceled, without plainly placing upon the face thereof the word “duplicate,” except in the case of a lost or destroyed receipt after proceedings as provided for in section sixty-one hundred thirty-five, shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both.

SEC. 6174. Issue for warehouseman’s goods of receipts which do not state that fact.

Where there are deposited with or held by a warehouseman goods of which he is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, such warehouseman, or any of his officers, agents, or servants who, knowing this ownership, issues or aids in issuing a negotiable receipt for such goods which does not state such ownership, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both.

SEC. 6175. Delivery of goods without obtaining negotiable receipt.

A warehouseman, or any officer, agent, or servant of a warehouseman who delivers goods out of the possession of such warehouseman, knowing that a negotiable receipt, the negotiating of which would transfer the right to the possession of such goods, is outstanding and uncanceled, without obtaining the possession of such receipt at or before the time of such delivery, shall, except in the cases provided for in section sixty-one hundred thirty-five and sixty-one hundred fifty-seven, be found guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both.

SEC. 6177. When rules of common law still applicable.

In any case not provided for in this chapter, the rules of law and 2 equity, including the law merchant, and in particular the rules relat-3 ing to the law of principal and agent and to the effect of fraud, mis-4 representation, duress or coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other in-

7 shall remain to be divided, he may also receive his portion thereof.
8 If, after the payment of interest or profits, it is found that the capital 9 has been reduced, the partner receiving the same shall immediately sustained in consequence of any such violation of the provisions of said section, together with a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court in every case of recovery and to be taxed as part of the costs in the case, and the property of any person who may be a member of any such trust, pool, combination, corporation or association, violating the provisions of said section, shall be liable for the full amount of such judgment.

[S., '13, § 5077-a4.]

SEC. 6236. Duty of grand jury—penalty.

Any person, partnership, company, association or corporation subject to the provisions of the two preceding sections, or any person, trust, combination, pool or association, or any director, officer, lessee, receiver, trustee, employee, clerk, agent or any person acting for or employed by them or either of them, who shall violate any of the provisions of section sixty-two hundred thirty-four, or who shall aid and abet in such violation, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall upon conviction thereof be fined any sum not less than five hundred dollars and not exceeding two thousand dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail for a period not exceeding six months, or both, at the discretion of the court. It shall be the duty of the grand jury to inquire into and ascertain if there exists any pool, trust, combination or violation of any provision in the two preceding sections in their respective counties.

[S., '13, § 5077-a5.]

SEC. 6237. Provision deemed to be a part of every contract—forfeit.

The following provision shall be deemed and held to be a part of every contract hereafter entered into by any person, firm or private corporation with the state of Iowa, or with any county, city, town, city acting under special charter, cities acting under commission form of government, school corporation or with any municipal corporation, now or hereafter created, whether said provision be inserted in such contract or not, to wit:
The party to whom this contract has been awarded, hereby represents and guarantees that he has not, nor has any other person for or in his behalf, directly or indirectly, entered into any arrangement or agreement with any other bidder, or with any public officer, whereby he has paid or is to pay to any other bidder or public officer any sum of money or anything of value whatever in order to obtain this contract; and that he has not, nor has another person, for or in his behalf, directly or indirectly, entered into any agreement or arrangement with any other person, firm, corporation or association which tends to or does lessen or destroy free competition in the letting of this contract and agrees that the establishment of the falsity of these representations and guaranties, or any of them, and he hereby agrees that in case it hereafter be established that such representations or guaranties, or any of them, are false, he will forfeit and pay not less than five per cent of the contract price but in no event be less than three hundred dollars, as liquidated damages to the other contracting party.

[S., '13, § 1279-c.]

Sec. 6238. Witnesses not privileged from testifying—immunity.

In any action in any court wherein the falsity of such representations and guaranties are at issue, no witness shall be privileged from testifying to any matter or from producing any books, papers, or letters, on the ground that the same might or would tend to render such witness criminally liable, but such witness shall not be prosecuted for any offense whatever growing out of or connected with the matters and things so testified to or produced by him, provided such witness shall not be exempt from prosecution for perjury committed in so testifying.

[S., '13, § 1279-d.]
SECTION 6239. Contracts to sell and sales.

1. A contract to sell goods is a contract whereby the seller agrees to transfer the property in goods to the buyer for a consideration called price.

2. A sale of goods is an agreement whereby the seller transfers the property in goods to the buyer for a consideration called the price.

3. A contract to sell or a sale may be absolute or conditional.

4. There may be a contract to sell or a sale between one part owner and another.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 1.]

SEC. 6240. Capacity—liabilities for necessaries.

1. Capacity to buy and sell is regulated by the general law concerning capacity to contract and to transfer and acquire property.

2. Where necessaries are sold and delivered to an infant, or to a person who by reason of mental incapacity or drunkenness is incompetent to contract, he must pay a reasonable price therefor.

3. Necessaries in this section mean goods suitable to the condition in life of such infant or other person and to his actual requirements at the time of delivery.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 2.]

SEC. 6241. Form of contract or sale.

1. Subject to the provisions of this chapter and of any statute in that behalf, a contract to sell or a sale may be made in writing (either with or without seal), or by word of mouth, or partly in writing and partly by word of mouth, or may be inferred from the conduct of the parties.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 3.]

SEC. 6242. Statute of frauds.

1. A contract to sell or a sale of any goods or choses in action shall not be enforceable by action unless the buyer shall accept part of the goods or choses in action so contracted to be sold or sold and actually receive the same or give something in earnest to bind the contract, or in part payment, or unless some note or memorandum in writing of the contract or sale be signed by the party to be charged or his agent in that behalf.

2. The provisions of this section apply to every such contract or sale, notwithstanding that the goods may be intended to be delivered
SALES OF PERSONAL PROPERTY. §§ 6243-6245.

1. The goods which form the subject of a contract to sell may be either existing goods, owned or possessed by the seller, or goods to be manufactured or acquired by the seller after the making of the contract to sell, in this chapter called "future goods".

2. There may be a contract to sell goods, the acquisition of which by the seller depends upon a contingency which may or may not happen.

3. Where the parties purport to effect a present sale of future goods, the agreement operates as a contract to sell the goods.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 4.]

SEC. 6244. Undivided shares.

1. There may be a contract to sell or a sale of an undivided share of goods. If the parties intend to affect a present sale, the buyer by force of the agreement becomes an owner in common with the owner or owners of the remaining shares.

2. In the case of fungible goods, there may be a sale of an undivided share of a specific mass, though the seller purports to sell and the buyer to buy a definite number, weight, or measure of the goods in the mass and though the number, weight, or measure of the goods in the mass is undetermined. By such a sale the buyer becomes owner in common of such a share of the mass as the number, weight, or measure bought bears to the number, weight, or measure of the mass. If the mass contains less than the number, weight, or measure bought, the buyer becomes the owner of the whole mass and the seller is bound to make good the deficiency from similar goods unless a contrary intent appears.

SEC. 6245. Destruction of goods sold.

1. Where the parties purport to sell specific goods, and the goods without the knowledge of the seller have wholly perished at the time when the agreement is made, the agreement is void.

2. Where the parties purport to sell specific goods, and the goods without the knowledge of the seller have perished in part or have wholly or in a material part so deteriorated in quality as to be substantially changed in character, the buyer may at his option treat the sale:

   a As avoided, or

   b As transferring the property in all of the existing goods or in so much thereof as have not deteriorated, and as binding the buyer to pay the full agreed price if the sale was indivisible, or to pay the agreed price for the goods in which the property passes if the sale was divisible.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 7.]

SEC. 6246. Destruction of goods contracted to be sold.

1. Where there is a contract to sell specific goods, and subsequently, but before the risk passes the buyer, without any fault on the part of the seller or the buyer, the goods wholly perish, the contract is thereby avoided.

2. Where there is a contract to sell specific goods, and consequently, but before the risk passes to the buyer, without any fault of the seller or the buyer, part of the goods perish or the whole or a material part of the goods so deteriorate in quality as to be substantially changed in character, the buyer may, at his option treat the contract:

a. As avoided; or
b. As binding the seller to transfer the property in all of the ex-sting goods or in so much thereof as have not deteriorated, and as binding the buyer to pay the full agreed price if the contract was indivisible, or to pay the agreed price for so much of the goods as the seller, by the buyer's option, is bound to transfer if the contract was divisible.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 8.]

SEC. 6247. Definition and ascertainment of price.

1. The price may be fixed by the contract, or may be left to be fixed in such manner as may be agreed, or it may be determined by the course of dealing between the parties.

2. The price may be made payable in any personal property.

3. Where transferring or promising to transfer any interest in real estate constitutes the whole or part of the consideration for transferring or for promising to transfer the property in goods, this chapter shall not apply.

4. Where the price is not determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions the buyer must pay a reasonable price. What is a reasonable price is a question of fact dependent on the circumstances of each particular case.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 9.]

SEC. 6248. Sale at a valuation.

1. Where there is a contract to sell or a sale of goods at a price or on terms to be fixed by a third person, and such third person, without fault of the seller or the buyer, can not or does not fix the price or terms, the contract or the sale is thereby avoided; but if the goods or any part thereof have been delivered to and appropriated by the buyer he must pay a reasonable price therefor.

2. Where such third person is prevented from fixing the price or terms by fault of the seller or the buyer, the party not in fault may have such remedies against the party in fault as are hereinafter provided.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 10.]

SEC. 6249. Effect of conditions.

1. Where the obligation of either party to a contract to sell or a sale is subject to any condition which is not performed, such party may refuse to proceed with the contract or sale or he may waive performance of the condition. If the other party has promised that the condition should happen or be performed, such first mentioned party may also treat the nonperformance of the condition as a breach of warranty.

2. Where the property in the goods has not passed, the buyer may treat the fulfillment by the seller of his obligation to furnish goods as described and as warranted expressly or by implication in the contract to sell as a condition of the obligation of the buyer to perform his promise to accept and pay for the goods.

SEC. 6250. Definition of express warranty.

Any affirmation of fact or any promise by the seller relating to the goods is an express warranty if the natural tendency of such affirmation or promise is to induce the buyer to purchase the goods, and if the buyer purchases the goods relying thereon. No affirmation of the value of the goods nor any statement purporting to be a statement of the seller's opinion only shall be construed as a warranty.

SEC. 6251. Implied warranties of title.

In a contract to sell or a sale, unless contrary intention appears, there is—

1. An implied warranty on the part of the seller that in case of a sale he has a right to sell the goods, and that in case of a contract to sell he will have a right to sell the goods at the time when the property is to pass.

2. An implied warranty that the buyer shall have and enjoy quiet possession of the goods as against any lawful claims existing at the time of the sale.

3. An implied warranty that the goods shall be free at the time of the sale from any charge or incumbrance in favor of any third person not declared or known to the buyer before or at the time when the contract or sale is made.

4. This section shall not, however, be held to render liable a sheriff, auctioneer, mortgagee, or other person professing to sell by virtue of authority in fact or law goods in which a third person has a legal or equitable interest.

SEC. 6252. Implied warranty in sale by description.

Where there is a contract to sell or a sale of goods by description, there is an implied warranty that the goods shall correspond with the description, and if the contract or sale be by sample, as well as by description, it is not sufficient that the bulk of the goods corresponds with the sample if the goods do not also correspond with the description.

SEC. 6253. Implied warranties of quality.

Subject to the provisions of this chapter and of any statute in that behalf, there is no implied warranty or condition as to the quality or fitness for any particular purpose of goods supplied under a contract to sell or a sale, except as follows:

1. Where the buyer, expressly or by implication, makes known to the seller the particular purpose for which the goods are required, and it appears that the buyer relies on the seller's skill or judgment, whether he be the grower or manufacturer or not, there is an implied warranty that the goods shall be reasonably fit for such purpose.

2. Where the goods are bought by description from a seller who deals in goods of that description, whether he be the grower or manufacturer or not, there is an implied warranty that the goods shall be of merchantable quality.

3. If the buyer has examined the goods, there is no implied warranty as regards defects which such examination ought to have revealed.

4. In the case of a contract to sell or a sale of a specified article under its patent or other trade name there is no implied warranty as to its fitness for any particular purpose.

5. An implied warranty or condition as to quality or fitness for a particular purpose may be annexed by the usage of trade.

6. An express warranty or condition does not negative a warranty or condition implied under this chapter unless inconsistent therewith.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 15.]

SEC. 6254. Implied warranties in sale by sample.

1. In the case of a contract to sell or a sale by sample:

2. 1. There is an implied warranty that the bulk shall correspond with the sample in quality.

3. 2. There is an implied warranty that the buyer shall have a reasonable opportunity of comparing the bulk with the sample, except so far as otherwise provided in section sixty-two hundred eighty-five, subdivision three.

4. 3. If the seller is a dealer in goods of that kind there is an implied warranty that the goods shall be free from any defect rendering them unmerchantable which would not be apparent on reasonable examination of the sample.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 16.]

SEC. 6255. No property passes until goods are ascertained.

1. Where there is a contract to sell unascertained goods no property in the goods is transferred to the buyer unless and until the goods are ascertained, but property in an undivided share of ascertained goods may be transferred as provided in section sixty-two hundred forty-four.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 17.]

SEC. 6256. Property in specific goods passes when parties so intend.

1. Where there is a contract to sell specific or ascertained goods, the property in them is transferred to the buyer at such time as the parties to the contract intend it to be transferred.
2. For the purpose of ascertaining the intention of the parties regard shall be had to the terms of the contract, the conduct of the parties, usages of trade, and the circumstances of the case.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 18.]

SEC. 6257. Rules for ascertaining intention.

Unless a different intention appears, the following are rules for ascertaining the intention of the parties as to the time at which the property in the goods is to pass to the buyer.

RULE 1.

Where there is an unconditional contract to sell specific goods in a deliverable state the property in the goods passes to the buyer when the contract is made, and it is immaterial whether the time of payment, or the time of delivery, or both, be postponed.

RULE 2.

Where there is a contract to sell specific goods and the seller is bound to do something to the goods, for the purpose of putting them into a deliverable state, the property does not pass until such things be done.

RULE 3.

1. When goods are delivered to the buyer "on sale or return", or on other terms indicating an intention to make a present sale, but to give the buyer an option to return the goods instead of paying the price, the property passes to the buyer on delivery, but he may re vest the property in the seller by returning or tendering the goods within the time fixed in the contract, or, if no time has been fixed, within a reasonable time.

2. When goods are delivered to the buyer on approval or on trial or on satisfaction, or other similar terms, the property therein passes to the buyer—

a. When he signifies his approval or acceptance to the seller or does any other act adopting the transaction.

b. If he does not signify his approval or acceptance to the seller, but retains the goods without giving notice or [of] rejection, then if a time has been fixed for the return of the goods, on the expiration of such time, and if no time has been fixed, on the expiration of a reasonable time. What is a reasonable time is a question of fact.

RULE 4.

1. Where there is a contract to sell unascertained or future goods by description, and goods of that description and in a deliverable state are unconditionally appropriated to the contract, either by the seller with the assent of the buyer, or by the buyer with the assent of the seller, the property in the goods thereupon passes to the buyer. Such assent may be expressed or implied, and may be given either before or after the appropriation is made.

2. Where, in pursuance of a contract to sell, the seller delivers the goods to the buyer, or to a carrier or other bailee, whether named by the buyer or not, for the purpose of transmission to or holding for the buyer, he is presumed to have unconditionally appropriated the goods to the contract, except in the cases provided for in the next rule and in section sixty-two hundred fifty-eight. This presumption is applicable, although by the terms of the contract the buyer is to pay the price before receiving delivery of the goods, and the goods are marked with the words "collect on delivery" or their equivalents.
§§ 6258-6259.
SALES OF PERSONAL PROPERTY. Tit. XXII, Ch. 1.

49  RUL 5.
50  If the contract to sell requires the seller to deliver the goods to 51  the buyer, or at a particular place or to pay the freight or cost of 52  transportation to the buyer, or to a particular place, the property 53  does not pass until the goods have been delivered to the buyer or 54  reached the place agreed upon.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 19.]

SEC. 6258. Reservation of right of possession or property when goods are shipped.

1  1. Where there is a contract to sell specific goods, or where goods 2  are subsequently appropriated to the contract, the seller may, by the 3  terms of the contract or appropriation, reserve the right of possession
4  or property in the goods until certain conditions have been fulfilled. The right of possession or property may be thus reserved
5  notwithstanding the delivery of the goods to the buyer or to a carrier 6  or other bailee for the purpose of transmission to the buyer.

7  2. Where goods are shipped, and by the bill of lading the goods
8  are deliverable to the seller or his agent, or to the order of the seller 9  or of his agent, the seller thereby reserves the property in the goods.
10  But if, except for the form of the bill of lading, the property would 11  have passed to the buyer on shipment of the goods, the seller's property in the goods shall be deemed to be only for the purpose of securing performance by the buyer of his obligations under the contract.

12  3. Where goods are shipped, and by the bill of lading the goods
13  are deliverable to the order of the buyer or of his agent, but possession of the bill of lading is retained by the seller or his agent, the 14  seller thereby reserves a right to the possession of the goods as against 15  the buyer.

16  4. Where the seller of goods draws on the buyer for the price and 17  transmits the bill of exchange and bill of lading together to the buyer
18  to secure acceptance or payment of the bill of exchange the buyer is 19  bound to return the bill of lading if he does not honor the bill of exchange, and if he wrongfully retains the bill of lading he acquires no added right thereby. If, however, the bill of lading provides that the goods are deliverable to the buyer or to the order of the buyer, or is indorsed in blank or to the buyer by the consignee named therein, one 20  who purchases in good faith for value the bill of lading or goods from 21  the buyer will obtain the property in the goods, although the bill of exchange has not been honored, provided that such purchaser has received delivery of the bill of lading indorsed by the consignee named 22  therein, or the goods, without notice of the facts making the transfer 23  wrongful.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 20.]

SEC. 6259. Sale by auction.

1  In the case of sale by auction—
2  1. Where goods are put up for sale by auction in lots each lot is 3  the subject of a separate contract of sale.

4  2. A sale by auction is complete when the auctioneer announces 5  its completion by the fall of the hammer, or in other customary manner. Until such announcement is made any bidder may retract his 6  bid, and the auctioneer may withdraw the goods from the sale unless 7  the auction has been announced to be without reserve.
3. A right to bid may be reserved expressly by or on behalf of the seller.

4. Where notice has not been given that a sale by auction is subject to a right to bid on behalf of the seller it shall not be lawful for the seller to bid himself or to employ or induce any person to bid at such sale on his behalf, or for the auctioneer to employ or induce any person to bid at such sale on behalf of the seller or knowingly to take any bid from the seller or any person employed by him. Any sale contravening this rule may be treated as fraudulent by the buyer.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 21.]

SEC. 6260. Risk of loss.

Unless otherwise agreed, the goods remain at the seller's risk until the property therein is transferred to the buyer, but when the property therein is transferred to the buyer the goods are at the buyer's risk whether delivery has been made or not, except that—

1. Where delivery of the goods has been made to the buyer, or to a bailee for the buyer, in pursuance of the contract and the property in the goods has been retained by the seller merely to secure performance by the buyer of his obligations under the contract, the goods are at the buyer's risk from the time of such delivery.

2. Where delivery has been delayed through the fault of either buyer or seller the goods are at the risk of the party in fault as regards any loss which might not have occurred but for such fault.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 22.]

SEC. 6261. Sale by a person not the owner.

Subject to the provisions of this chapter, where goods are sold by a person who is not the owner thereof, and who does not sell them under the authority or with the consent of the owner, the buyer acquires no better title to the goods than the seller had, unless the owner of the goods is by his conduct precluded from denying the seller's authority to sell.

2. Nothing in this chapter, however, shall affect:

a. The provisions of any factors' acts, recording acts, or any enactment enabling the apparent owner of goods to dispose of them as if he were the true owner thereof.

b. The validity of any contract to sell or sale under any common law or statutory power of sale or under the order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 23.]

SEC. 6262. Sale by one having a voidable title.

Where the seller of goods has a voidable title thereto, but his title has not been avoided at the time of sale, the buyer acquires a good title to the goods, provided he buys them in good faith, for value, and without notice of the seller's defect of title.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 24.]

SEC. 6263. Sale by seller in possession of goods already sold.

Where a person having sold goods continues in possession of the goods, or of negotiable documents of title to the goods, the delivery or transfer by that person, or by an agent acting for him, of the goods or documents of title under any sale, pledge, or other disposition thereof, to any person receiving and paying value for the same in good faith and without notice of the previous sale, shall have the same effect as if the person making the delivery or transfer were expressly authorized by the owner of the goods to make the same.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 25.]

SEC. 6264.  Creditors' rights against sold goods in seller's possession.

1 Where a person having sold goods continues in possession of the goods, or of negotiable documents of title to the goods and such retention of possession is fraudulent in fact or is deemed fraudulent under any rule of law, a creditor or creditors of the seller may treat the sale as void.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 26.]

SEC. 6265.  Definition of negotiable documents of title.

1 A document of title in which it is stated that the goods referred to therein will be delivered to the bearer, or to the order of any person named in such document is a negotiable document of title.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 27.]

SEC. 6266.  Negotiation of negotiable documents by delivery.

1 A negotiable document of title may be negotiated by delivery—

2 1. Where by the terms of the document the carrier, warehouseman, or other bailee issuing the same undertakes to deliver the goods to the bearer, or

3 2. Where by the terms of the document the carrier, warehouseman, or other bailee issuing the same undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of a specified person, and such person or a subsequent indorsee of the document has indorsed it in blank or to bearer.

4 Where by the terms of a negotiable document of title the goods are deliverable to bearer or where a negotiable document of title has been indorsed in blank or to bearer, any holder may indorse the same to himself or to any other specified person, and in such case the document shall thereafter be negotiated only by the indorsement of such indorsee.

SEC. 6267.  Negotiation of negotiable documents by indorsement.

1 A negotiable document of title may be negotiated by the indorsement of the person to whose order the goods are by the terms of the document deliverable. Such indorsement may be in blank, to bearer, or to a specified person. If indorsed to a specified person, it may be again negotiated by the indorsement of such person in blank, to bearer, or to another specified person. Subsequent negotiation may be made in like manner.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 29.]

SEC. 6268.  Negotiable documents of title marked “not negotiable.”

1 If a document of title which contains an undertaking by a carrier, warehouseman, or other bailee to deliver the goods to the bearer, to a specified person or order, or to the order of specified person, or which contains words of like import, has placed upon it the words
"not negotiable," "nonnegotiable," or the like, such a document may, nevertheless, be negotiated by the holder and is a negotiable document of title within the meaning of this chapter. But nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed as limiting or defining the effect upon the obligations of the carrier, warehouseman, or other bailee issuing a document of title of [by] placing thereon the words "not negotiable," "nonnegotiable," or the like.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 30.]

SEC. 6269. Transfer of nonnegotiable documents.

A document of title which is not in such form that it can be negotiated by delivery may be transferred by the holder by delivery to a purchaser or donee. A nonnegotiable document can not be negotiated, and the indorsement of such a document gives the transferee no additional right.

SEC. 6270. Who may negotiate a document.

A negotiable document may be negotiated by any person in possession of the same, however such possession may have been acquired, if by the terms of the document the bailee issuing it undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of such person, or if at the time of negotiation the document is in such form that it may be negotiated by delivery.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 32.]

SEC. 6271. Rights of person to whom document has been negotiated.

A person to whom a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated acquires thereby:

1. Such title to the goods as the person negotiating the document to him had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value and also such title to the goods as the person to whose order the goods were to be delivered by the terms of the document had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and
2. The direct obligation of the bailee issuing the document to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the document as fully as if such bailee had contracted directly with him.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 33.]

SEC. 6272. Rights of person to whom document has been transferred.

A person to whom a document of title has been transferred, but not negotiated, acquires thereby, as against the transferor, the title to the goods, subject to the terms of any agreement with the transferor.

If the document is nonnegotiable, such person also acquires the right to notify the bailee who issued the document of the transfer thereof, and thereby to acquire the direct obligation of such bailee to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the document.

Prior to the notification of such bailee by the transferor or transferee of a nonnegotiable document of title, the title of the transferee to the goods and the right to acquire the obligation of such bailee may §§ 6273-6277.

SALES OF PERSONAL PROPERTY. Tit. XXII, Ch. 1.

13 be defeated by the levy of an attachment or execution upon the goods 14 by a creditor of the transferor, or by notification to such bailee by the 15 transferor or a subsequent purchaser from the transferor of a subse-16 quent sale of the goods by the transferor.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 34.]

SEC. 6273. Transfer of negotiable document without indorse-
1 Where a negotiable document of title is transferred for value by 2 delivery, and the indorsement of the transferor is essential for negoti-
3 ation, the transferee acquires a right against the transferor to compel 4 him to indorse the document unless a contrary intention appears. The 5 negotiation shall take effect as of the time when the indorsement is 6 actually made.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 35.]

SEC. 6274. Warranties on sale of document.
1 A person who for value negotiates or transfers a document of 2 title by indorsement or delivery, including one who assigns for value
3 a claim secured by a document of title unless a contrary intention 4 appears, warrants:
5 1. That the document is genuine.
6 2. That he has a legal right to negotiate or transfer it.
7 3. That he has knowledge of no fact which would impair the 8 validity or worth of the document; and 9 4. That he has a right to transfer the title to the goods and that 10 the goods are merchantable or fit for a particular purpose, whenever 11 such warranties would have been implied if the contract of the parties 12 had been to transfer without a document of title the goods represented 13 thereby.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 36.]

SEC. 6275. Indorser not a guarantor.
1 The indorsement of a document of title shall not make the in-2 dorser liable for any failure on the part of the bailee who issued the 3 document or previous indorsers thereof to fulfill their respective obli-4 gations.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 37.]

SEC. 6276. When negotiation not impaired by fraud, mistake, or duress.
1 The validity of the negotiation of a negotiable document of title
2 is not impaired by the fact that the negotiation was a breach of duty 3 on the part of the person making the negotiation, or by the fact that 4 the owner of the document was induced by fraud, mistake, or duress 5 to intrust the possession or custody thereof to such person, if the 6 person to whom the document was negotiated or a person to whom 7 the document was subsequently negotiated paid value therefor, with-8 out notice of the breach of duty, or fraud, mistake, or duress.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 38.]

SEC. 6277. Attachment or levy upon goods for which a negotiable document has been issued.
1 If goods are delivered to a bailee by the owner or by a person
2 whose act in conveying the title to them to a purchaser in good faith for value would bind the owner and a negotiable document of title is issued for them they can not thereafter, while in the possession of such bailee, be attached by garnishment or otherwise or be levied upon under an execution unless the document be first surrendered to the bailee or its negotiation enjoined. The bailee shall in no case be compelled to deliver up the actual possession of the goods until the document is surrendered to him or impounded by the court.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 39.]

SEC. 6278. Creditors’ remedies to reach negotiable documents.

A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a negotiable document of title shall be entitled to such aid from courts of appropriate jurisdidiction by injunction and otherwise in attaching such document or in satisfying the claim by means thereof as is allowed at law or in equity in regard to property which can not readily be attached or levied upon by ordinary legal process.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 40.]

SEC. 6279. Seller must deliver and buyer accept goods.

It is the duty of the seller to deliver the goods and of the buyer to accept and pay for them, in accordance with the terms of the contract to sell or sale.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 41.]

SEC. 6280. Delivery and payment are concurrent conditions.

Unless otherwise agreed, delivery of the goods and payment of the price are concurrent conditions; that is to say, the seller must be ready and willing to give possession of the goods to the buyer in exchange for the price and the buyer must be ready and willing to pay the price in exchange for possession of the goods.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 42.]

SEC. 6281. Place, time, and manner of delivery.

1. Whether it is for the buyer to take possession of the goods or for the seller to send them to the buyer is a question depending in each case on the contract, express or implied, between the parties.
Apart from any such contract, express or implied, or usage of trade to the contrary, the place of delivery is the seller’s place of business if he have one, and if not his residence; but in case of a contract to sell or a sale of specific goods, which to the knowledge of the parties when the contract or the sale was made were in some other place, then that place is the place of delivery.

2. Where by a contract to sell or a sale the seller is bound to send the goods to the buyer, but no time for sending them is fixed, the seller is bound to send them within a reasonable time.

3. Where the goods at the time of sale are in the possession of a third person, the seller has not fulfilled his obligation to deliver to the buyer unless and until such third person acknowledges to the buyer that he holds the goods on the buyer’s behalf; but as against all others than the seller the buyer shall be regarded as having received delivery from the time when such third person first has notice of the sale.
Nothing in this section, however, shall affect the operation of the issue or transfer of any document of title to goods.
4. Demand or tender of delivery may be treated as ineffectual unless made at a reasonable hour. What is a reasonable hour is a question of fact.

5. Unless otherwise agreed, the expenses of and incidental to putting the goods into a deliverable state must be borne by the seller.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 43.]

SEC. 6282. Delivery of wrong quantity.

1. Where the seller delivers to the buyer a quantity of goods less than he contracted to sell, the buyer may reject them, but if the buyer accepts or retains the goods so delivered, knowing that the seller is not going to perform the contract in full, he must pay for them at the contract rate. If, however, the buyer has used or disposed of the goods delivered before he knows that the seller is not going to perform his contract in full, the buyer shall not be liable for more than the fair value to him of the goods so received.

2. Where the seller delivers to the buyer a quantity of goods larger than he contracted to sell, the buyer may accept the goods included in the contract and reject the rest, or he may reject the whole. If the buyer accepts the whole of the goods so delivered, he must pay for them at the contract rate.

3. Where the seller delivers to the buyer the goods be [he] contracted to sell mixed with goods of a different description not included in the contract, the buyer may accept the goods which are in accordance with the contract and reject the rest, or he may reject the whole.

4. The provisions of this section are subject to any usage of trade, special agreement, or course of dealing between the parties.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 44.]

SEC. 6283. Delivery in installments.

1. Unless otherwise agreed, the buyer of goods is not bound to accept delivery thereof by installments.

2. Where there is a contract to sell goods to be delivered by stated installments, which are to be separately paid for, and the seller makes defective deliveries in respect of one or more installments, or the buyer neglects or refuses to take delivery of or pay for one or more installments, it depends in each case on the terms of the contract and the circumstances of the case whether the breach of contract is so material as to justify the injured party in refusing to proceed further and suing for damages for breach of the entire contract, or whether the breach is severable, giving rise to a claim for compensation but not to a right to treat the whole contract as broken.

SEC. 6284. Delivery to a carrier on behalf of the buyer.

1. Where, in pursuance of a contract to sell or a sale, the seller is authorized or required to send the goods to the buyer, delivery of the goods to a carrier, whether named by the buyer or not, for the purpose of transmission to the buyer is deemed to be a delivery of the goods to the buyer, except in the cases provided for in section sixty-two hundred fifty-seven, rule five, or unless a contrary intent appears.

2. Unless otherwise authorized by the buyer, the seller must make such contract with the carrier on behalf of the buyer as may be reasonable, having regard to the nature of the goods and the other circumstances of the case. If the seller omit so to do, and the goods are lost or damaged in course of transit, the buyer may decline to treat the delivery to the carrier as a delivery to himself, or may hold the seller responsible in damages.

3. Unless otherwise agreed, where goods are sent by the seller to the buyer under circumstances in which the seller knows, or ought to know, that it is usual to insure, the seller must give such notice to the buyer as may enable him to insure them during their transit, and, if the seller fails to do so, the goods shall be deemed to be at his risk during such transit.

Sec. 6285. Right to examine the goods.

1. Where goods are delivered to the buyer, which he has not previously examined, he is not deemed to have accepted them unless and until he has had a reasonable opportunity of examining them for the purpose of ascertaining whether they are in conformity with the contract.

2. Unless otherwise agreed, when the seller tenders delivery of goods to the buyer, he is bound, on request, to afford the buyer a reasonable opportunity of examining the goods for the purpose of ascertaining whether they are in conformity with the contract.

3. Where goods are delivered to a carrier by the seller, in accordance with an order from or agreement with the buyer, upon the terms that the goods shall not be delivered by the carrier to the buyer until he has paid the price, whether such terms are indicated by marking the goods with the words "collect on delivery," or otherwise, the buyer is not entitled to examine the goods before payment of the price in the absence of agreement permitting such examination.

Sec. 6286. What constitutes acceptance.

The buyer is deemed to have accepted the goods when he intimates to the seller that he has accepted them, or when the goods have been delivered to him, and he does any act in relation to them which is inconsistent with the ownership of the seller, or when, after the lapse of a reasonable time, he retains the goods without intimating to the seller that he has rejected them.

Sec. 6287. Acceptance does not bar action for damages.

In the absence of express or implied agreement of the parties, acceptance of the goods by the buyer shall not discharge the seller from liability in damages or other legal remedy for breach of any promise or warranty in the contract to sell or the sale. But if, after acceptance of the goods, the buyer fails to give notice to the seller of the breach of any promise or warranty within a reasonable time after the buyer knows, or ought to know, of such breach the seller shall not be liable therefor.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 49.]

Sec. 6288. Buyer is not bound to return goods wrongly delivered.

Unless otherwise agreed, where goods are delivered to the buyer, and he refuses to accept them, having the right so to do, he is not §§ 6289-6292.
SALES OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.
Tit. XXII, Ch. 1.

3 bound to return them to the seller, but it is sufficient if he notifies
4 the seller that he refuses to accept them.
[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 50.]

SEC. 6289.  Buyer's liability for failing to accept delivery.
1 When the seller is ready and willing to deliver the goods and 2 requests the buyer to take delivery, and the buyer does not within a 3 reasonable time after such request take delivery of the goods, he is 4 liable to the seller for any loss occasioned by his neglect or refusal to 5 take delivery, and also for a reasonable charge for the care and cus-
6 tody of the goods.  If the neglect or refusal of the buyer to take de-7 livery amounts to a repudiation or breach of the entire contract, the 8 seller shall have the right against the goods and on the contract here-9 inafter provided in favor of the seller when the buyer is in default.
[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 51.]

SEC. 6290.  Definition of unpaid seller.
1 1. The seller of goods is deemed to be an unpaid seller within the 2 meaning of this chapter—
3 a When the whole of the price has not been paid or tendered.
4 b When a bill of exchange or other negotiable instrument has 5 been received as conditional payment, and the condition on which it 6 was received has been broken by reason of the dishonor of the instru-7 ment, the insolvency of the buyer, or otherwise.
8 2. In this part of this chapter the term "seller" includes an agent 9 of the seller to whom the bill of lading has been indorsed, or a con-10 signor or agent who has himself paid, or is directly responsible for 11 the price, or any other person who is in the position of a seller.
[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 52.]

SEC. 6291.  Remedies of an unpaid seller.
1 1. Subject to the provisions hereof, notwithstanding that the 2 property in the goods may have passed to the buyer, the unpaid seller
3 of goods, as such, has—4 a A lien on the goods or right to retain them for the price while 5 he is in possession of them.
6 b In case of the insolvency of the buyer, a right of stopping the 7 goods in transit after he has parted with the possession of them.
8 c A right of resale as limited by this chapter.
9 d A right to rescind the sale as limited by this chapter.
10 2. Where the property in goods has not passed to the buyer the 11 unpaid seller has, in addition to his other remedies, a right of with-12 holding delivery similar to any coextensive with his rights of lien and 13 stoppage in transit where the property has passed to the buyer.
[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 53.]

SEC. 6292.  When right of lien may be exercised.
1 1. Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the unpaid seller of 2 goods who is in possession of them is entitled to retain possession 3 of them until payment or tender of the price in the following cases, 4 namely:
5 a Where the goods have been sold without any stipulation as to 6 credit.
7 b Where the goods have been sold on credit, but the term of credit has expired.
9 c Where the buyer becomes insolvent.
10 2. The seller may exercise his right of lien notwithstanding that he is in possession of the goods as agent or bailee for the buyer.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 54.]

SEC. 6293. Lien after part delivery.

1 Where an unpaid seller has made part delivery of the goods, he may exercise his right of lien on the remainder unless such part delivery has been made under such circumstances as to show an intent to waive the lien or right of retention.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 55.]

SEC. 6294. When lien is lost.

1 1. The unpaid seller of goods loses his lien thereon—
2 a When he delivers the goods to a carrier or other bailee for the purpose of transmission to the buyer without reserving the property in the goods or the right to the possession thereof.
3 b When the buyer or his agent lawfully obtains possession of the goods.
4 c By waiver thereof.
5 2. The unpaid seller of goods, having a lien thereon, does not lose his lien by reason only that he has obtained judgment or decree for the price of the goods.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 56.]

SEC. 6295. Seller may stop goods on buyer's insolvency.

1 Subject to the provisions of this chapter, when the buyer of goods is or becomes insolvent, the unpaid seller who has parted with the possession of the goods has the right of stopping them in transitu; that is to say, he may resume possession of the goods at any time while they are in transit and he will then become entitled to the same rights in regard to the goods as he would have had if he had never parted with the possession.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 57.]

SEC. 6296. When goods are in transit.

1 1. Goods are in transit within the meaning of the preceding section—
2 a From the time when they are delivered to a carrier by land or water, or other bailee, for the purpose of transmission to the buyer, until the buyer, or his agent in that behalf, takes delivery of them from such carrier or other bailee.
3 b If the goods are rejected by the buyer and the carrier or other bailee continues in possession of them, even if the seller has refused to receive them back.
5 2. Goods are no longer in transit within the meaning of the preceding section—6 a If the buyer, or his agent in that behalf, obtains delivery of the goods before their arrival at the appointed destination.
8 b If, after the arrival of the goods at the appointed destination, the carrier or other bailee acknowledges to the buyer or his agent that he holds the goods on his behalf and continues in possession of them as bailee for the buyer or his agent; and it is immaterial that a further destination for the goods may have been indicated by the buyer.

2. If the carrier or other bailee wrongfully refuses to deliver the goods to the buyer or his agent in that behalf.

3. If goods are delivered to a ship chartered by the buyer, it is a question depending on the circumstances of the particular case whether they are in the possession of the master as a carrier or as agent of the buyer.

4. If part delivery of the goods has been made to the buyer, or his agent in that behalf, the remainder of the goods may be stopped in transitu, unless such part delivery has been made under such circumstances as to show an agreement with the buyer to give up possession of the whole of the goods.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 58.]

SEC. 6297. Ways of exercising the right to stop.

1. The unpaid seller may exercise his right of stoppage in transitu either by obtaining actual possession of the goods or by giving notice of his claim to the carrier or other bailee in whose possession the goods are. Such notice may be given either to the person in actual possession of the goods or to his principal. In the latter case the notice, to be effectual, must be given at such time and under such circumstances that the principal by the exercise of reasonable diligence, may prevent a delivery to the buyer.

2. When notice of stoppage in transitu is given by the seller to the carrier, or other bailee in possession of the goods, he must redeliver the goods to, or according to the directions, of the seller. The expenses of such delivery must be borne by the seller. If, however, a negotiable document of title representing the goods has been issued by the carrier or other bailee, he shall not be obliged to deliver or justified in delivering the goods to the seller unless such document is first surrendered for cancellation.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 59.]

SEC. 6298. When and how resale may be made.

1. Where the goods are of a perishable nature, or where the seller expressly reserves the right of resale in case the buyer should make default, or where the buyer has been in default in the payment of the price an unreasonable time, an unpaid seller having a right of lien or having stopped the goods in transitu may resell the goods. He shall not thereafter be liable to the original buyer upon the contract to sell or the sale or for any profit made by such resale, but may recover from the buyer damages for any loss occasioned by the breach of the contract or the sale.

2. Where a resale is made, as authorized in this section, the buyer acquires a good title as against the original buyer.

3. It is not essential to the validity of a resale that notice of an intention to resell the goods be given by the seller to the original buyer. But where the right to resell is not based on the perishable nature of the goods, or upon an express provision of the contract or the sale, the giving or failure to give such notice shall be relevant in any issue involving the question whether the buyer had been in default an unreasonable time before the resale was made.
4. It is not essential to the validity of a resale that notice of the time and place of such resale should be given by the seller to the original buyer.

5. The seller is bound to exercise reasonable care and judgment in making a resale, and subject to this requirement may make a resale either by public or private sale.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 60.]

SEC. 6299. When and how the seller may rescind the sale.

1. An unpaid seller having a right of lien or having stopped the goods in transitu, may rescind the transfer of title and resume the property in the goods, where he expressly reserved the right to do so in case the buyer should make default, or where the buyer has been in default in the payment of the price an unreasonable time. The seller shall not thereafter be liable to the buyer upon the contract to sell or the sale, but may recover from the buyer damages for any loss occasioned by the breach of the contract or the sale.

2. The transfer of title shall not be held to have been rescinded by an unpaid seller until he has manifested by notice to the buyer or by some other overt act an intention to rescind. It is not necessary that such overt act should be communicated to the buyer, but the giving or failure to give notice to the buyer of the intention to rescind shall be relevant in any issue involving the question whether the buyer had been in default an unreasonable time before the right of rescission was asserted.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 61.]

SEC. 6300. Effect of sale of goods subject to lien or stoppage in transitu.

Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the unpaid seller's right of lien or stoppage in transitu is not affected by any sale or other disposition of the goods which the buyer may have made, unless the seller has assented thereto.

If, however, a negotiable document of title has been issued for goods, no seller's lien or right of stoppage in transitu shall defeat the right of any purchaser for value in good faith to whom such document has been negotiated, whether such negotiation be prior or subsequent to the notification to the carrier, or other bailee who issued such document of the seller's claim to a lien or right of stoppage in transitu.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 62.]

SEC. 6301. Action for the price.

1. Where, under a contract to sell or a sale, the property in the goods has passed to the buyer, and the buyer wrongfully neglects or refuses to pay for the goods according to the terms of the contract or the sale, the seller may maintain an action against him for the price of the goods.

2. Where, under a contract to sell or a sale, the price is payable on a day certain, irrespective of delivery or of transfer of title, and the buyer wrongfully neglects or refuses to pay such price, the seller may maintain an action for the price, although the property in the goods has not passed and the goods have not been appropriated to the contract. But it shall be a defense to such an action that the seller at any time before judgment in such action has manifested an inability to perform the contract or the sale on his part or an inten-
3. Although the property in the goods has not passed, if they can not readily be resold for a reasonable price, and if the provisions of the next section are not applicable, the seller may offer to deliver the goods to the buyer, and, if the buyer refuses to receive them, may notify the buyer that the goods are thereafter held by the seller as bailee for the buyer. Thereafter the seller may treat the goods as the buyer's and may maintain an action for the price.

SEC. 6302. Action for damages for nonacceptance of the goods,
1. Where the buyer wrongfully neglects or refuses to accept and pay for the goods, the seller may maintain an action against him for damages for nonacceptance.
2. The measure of damages is estimated loss directly and naturally resulting, in the ordinary course of events, from the buyer's breach of contract.
3. Where there is an available market for the goods in question, the measure of damages is in the absence of special circumstances, showing proximate damage of a greater amount, the difference between the contract price and the market or current price at the time or times when the goods ought to have been accepted, or, if no time was fixed for acceptance, then at the time of the refusal to accept.
4. If, while labor or expense of material amount are necessary on the part of the seller to enable him to fulfill his obligations under the contract to sell or the sale, the buyer repudiates the contract or the sale, or notifies the seller to proceed no further therewith, the buyer shall be liable to the seller for no greater damages than the seller would have suffered if he did nothing toward carrying out the contract or the sale after receiving notice of the buyer's repudiation or countermand. The profit the seller would have made if the contract or the sale had been fully performed shall be considered in estimating such damages.

SEC. 6303. When seller may rescind contract or sale.
Where the goods have not been delivered to the buyer, and the buyer has repudiated the contract to sell or sale, or has manifested his inability to perform his obligations thereunder, or has committed a material breach thereof, the seller may totally rescind the contract or the sale by giving notice of his election so to do to the buyer.

SEC. 6304. Action for converting or detaining goods.
Where the property in the goods has passed to the buyer and the seller wrongfully neglects or refuses to deliver the goods, the buyer may maintain any action allowed by law to the owner of goods of similar kind when wrongfully converted or withheld.

SEC. 6305. Action for failing to deliver goods.
1. Where the property in the goods has not passed to the buyer, and the seller wrongfully neglects or refuses to deliver the goods, the §§ 6306-6307.

3. buyer may maintain an action against the seller for damages for nondelivery.

2. The measure of damages is the loss directly and naturally resulting in the ordinary course of events from the seller's breach of contract.

3. Where there is an available market for the goods in question, the measure of damages, in the absence of special circumstances showing proximate damages of a greater amount, is the difference between the contract price and the market or current price of the goods at the time or times when they ought to have been delivered, or, if no time was fixed, then at the time of the refusal to deliver.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 67.]

SEC. 6306. Specific performance.

Where the seller has broken a contract to deliver specific or ascertained goods, a court having the powers of a court of equity may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the buyer, by its judgment or decree direct that the contract shall be performed specifically, without giving the seller the option of retaining the goods on payment of damages. The judgment or decree may be unconditional, or upon such terms and conditions as to damages, payment of the price and otherwise, as to the court may seem just.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 68.]

SEC. 6307. Remedies for breach of warranty.

Where there is a breach of warranty by the seller, the buyer may, at his election—

a. Accept or keep the goods and set up against the seller the breach of warranty by way of recoupment in diminution or extinction of the price.

b. Accept or keep the goods and maintain an action against the seller for damages for the breach of warranty.

c. Refuse to accept the goods, if the property therein has not passed, and maintain an action against the seller for damages for the breach of warranty.

d. Rescind the contract to sell or the sale and refuse to receive the goods, or, if the goods have already been received, return them or offer to return them to the seller and recover the price or any part thereof which has been paid.

2. When the buyer has claimed and been granted a remedy in any one of these ways, no other remedy can thereafter be granted.

3. Where the goods have been delivered to the buyer, he can not rescind the sale if he knew of the breach of warranty when he accepted the goods, or if he fails to notify the seller within a reasonable time of the election to rescind, or if he fails to return or to offer to return the goods to the seller in substantially as good condition as they were in at the time the property was transferred to the buyer. But if deterioration or injury of the goods is due to the breach of warranty, such deterioration or injury shall not prevent the buyer from returning or offering to return the goods to the seller and rescinding the sale.

4. Where the buyer is entitled to rescind the sale and elects to do so, the buyer shall cease to be liable for the price upon returning or offering to return the goods. If the price or any part thereof has already been paid, the seller shall be liable to repay so much thereof
§§ 6308-6312. SALES OF PERSONAL PROPERTY. Tit. XXII, Ch. 1.

31 as has been paid, concurrently with the return of the goods or imme-32 diately after an offer to return the goods in exchange for repayment 33 of the price.
34 5. Where the buyer is entitled to rescind the sale and elects to do 35 so, if the seller refuses to accept an offer of the buyer to return the 36 goods, the buyer shall thereafter be deemed to hold the goods as bailee 37 for the seller, but subject to a lien to secure the repayment of any 38 portion of the price which has been paid, and with the remedies for 39 the enforcement of such lien allowed to an unpaid seller by section 40 sixty-two hundred ninety-one.
41 6. The measure of damages for breach of warranty is the loss 42 directly and naturally resulting, in the ordinary course of events, from 43 the breach of warranty.
44 7. In the case of breach of warranty of quality, such loss, in the 45 absence of special circumstances showing proximate damage of a 46 greater amount, is the difference between the value of the goods at 47 the time of delivery to the buyer and the value they would have had if 48 they had answered to the warranty.

[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 69.]

SEC. 6308. Interest and special damages.
1 Nothing in this chapter shall affect the right of the buyer or the 2 seller to recover interest or special damages in any case where by law
3 interest or special damages may be recoverable, or to recover money 4 paid where the consideration for the payment of it has failed.
[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 70.]

SEC. 6309. Variation of implied obligations.
1 Where any right, duty, or liability would arise under a contract
2 to sell or a sale by implication of law, it may be negatived or varied by 3 express agreement or by the course of dealing between the parties, or 4 by custom, if the custom be such as to bind both parties to the con-5 tract or the sale.
[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 71.]

SEC. 6310. Rights may be enforced by action.
1 Where any right, duty, or liability is declared by this chapter, it
2 may, unless otherwise by this chapter provided, be enforced by action.
[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 72.]

SEC. 6311. Rule for cases not provided herein.
1 In any case not provided for in this chapter the rules of law and 2 equity, including the law merchant, and in particular the rules relating 3 to the law of principal and agent and to the effect of fraud, misrepre-4 sentation, duress or coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other invalid-
5 ing cause, shall continue to apply to contracts to sell and to sales 6 of goods.
[38 G. A., ch. 396, § 73.]

SEC. 6312. Interpretation shall give effect to purpose of uniformity.
1 This chapter shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate 2 its general purpose to make uniform the laws of those states which two years have elapsed without a repayment or offer of repayment of the same by the owner thereof, and such occupancy is continued up to the time at which the action is brought by which the recovery of the real estate is obtained; but nothing in this chapter shall be

[C., '51, § 1246; R., '60, § 2278; C., '73, § 1989; C., '97, § 2973.]
SEC. 6416. Conveyance or incumbrance.
1 No conveyance or incumbrance of or contract to convey or incum-

Tit. XXIII, Ch. 4.
HOMESTEAD.
§§ 6416-6420.
SEC. 6421. Selecting—platting—notice to plat and record.

1 The owner, husband or wife, may select the homestead and cause it to be platted, but a failure to do so shall not render the same liable when it otherwise would not be, and a selection by the owner shall control. When selected, it shall be marked off by permanent, visible monuments, and the description thereof shall give the direction and distance of the starting point from some corner of the dwelling, which description, with the plat, shall be filed and recorded by the recorder of the proper county in the homestead book, which shall be, as nearly as may be, in the form of the record books for deeds, with an index kept in the same manner. Should the homestead not be platted and recorded at the time levy is made upon real property in which a homestead is included the officer having the execution shall give notice in writing to said owner, and the husband or wife of such owner, if found within the county to plat and record the same within ten days after service thereof; after which time said officer shall cause said homestead to be platted and recorded as above, and the expense thereof shall be added to the costs in the case.

SEC. 6422. By court.

Upon application made to the district court by any creditor of the owner of the homestead, or other person interested therein, such court shall hear the cause upon the proof offered, and fix and establish the boundaries thereof, and the judgment therein shall be filed and recorded in the manner provided in the preceding section.

[C., '97, § 2980.]

SEC. 6423. Changes.

The owner may, from time to time, change the limits of the homestead by changing the metes and bounds; as well as the record of the plat and description, or vacate it, but such changes shall not prejudice conveyances or liens made or created previously thereto, and no such change of the entire homestead, made without the concurrence of the husband or wife, shall affect his or her rights, or those of the children. The new homestead, to the extent in value of the old, is exempt from execution in all cases where the old or former one would have been.

SEC. 6424. Referees to determine exemption.

When a disagreement takes place between the owner and any person adversely interested, as to whether any land or buildings are properly a part of the homestead, the sheriff shall, at the request of either party, summon nine disinterested persons having the qualifications of jurors. The parties then, commencing with the owner, shall in turn strike off one person each, until three remain. Should either party fail to do so, the sheriff may act for him, and the three as referees shall proceed to examine and ascertain all the facts of the case, and report the same, with their opinion thereon, to the next term of court from which the execution or other process may have issued.

SEC. 6425. Referring back—marking off—costs.

The court in its discretion may refer the whole or any part of the matter back to the same or other referees, to be selected in the same manner, or as the parties agree, giving them directions as to the report required of them. When the court is sufficiently advised in the case, it shall make its decision, and may, if expedient, direct the homestead to be marked off anew, or a new plat and description to be made and recorded, and take such further steps in the premises as in its discretion may appear expedient for attaining the objects of this chapter. It shall also award costs in accordance with the practice in other cases, as nearly as may be.

SEC. 6426. Change of circumstances.

The extent or appurtenances of the homestead thus established may be called in question in like manner, whenever a change in value or circumstances will justify such new proceedings.

Upon the death of either husband or wife, the survivor may continue to possess and occupy the whole homestead until it is otherwise disposed of according to law, but the setting off of the distributive share of the husband or wife in the real estate of the deceased shall be such a disposal of the homestead as is herein contemplated. The survivor may elect to retain the homestead for life in lieu of such share in the real estate of the deceased; but if there be no survivor, the homestead descends to the issue of either husband or wife according to the rules of descent, unless otherwise directed by will, and is to be held by such issue exempt from any antecedent debts of their parents or their own, except those of the owner thereof contracted prior to its acquisition.

SEC. 6428. Sale for debts.

If there is no such survivor or issue, the homestead is liable to be sold for the payment of any debts to which it might at that time be subjected if it had never been held as a homestead.

[C., '51, § 1265; R., '60, § 2297; C., '73, § 2009; C., '97, § 2986.]

SEC. 6429. Devise.

Subject to the rights of the surviving husband or wife, the homestead may be devised like other real estate of the testator.

SEC. 6434. Tenant at will—notice to quit.
1 Any person in the possession of real estate, with the assent of the 2 owner, is presumed to be a tenant at will until the contrary is shown,
3 and thirty days’ notice in writing must be given by either party before 4 he can terminate such a tenancy; but when, in any case, a rent is 5 reserved payable at intervals of less than thirty days, the length of 6 notice need not be greater than such interval. In case of tenants
7 occupying and cultivating farms, the notice must fix the termination
8 of the tenancy to take place on the first day of March, except in cases
9 of mere croppers, whose leases shall be held to expire when the crop 10 is harvested; if the crop is corn, it shall not be later than the first 11 day of December, unless otherwise agreed upon. But where an agree-12 ment is made fixing the time of the termination of the tenancy, whether 13 in writing or not, it shall cease at the time agreed upon, without no-

CHAPTER 6.

WALLS IN COMMON.

SECTION 6435. Resting wall on neighbor’s land.

1 Where building lots have been surveyed and plats thereof re-
2 corded, anyone who is about to build contiguous to the land of another 3 may, if there be no wall on the line between them, build a brick or 4 stone wall thereon, when the whole thickness of such wall above the 5 cellar wall does not exceed eighteen inches exclusive of the plastering, 6 and rest one-half thereof on the adjoining land, but the adjoining 7 owner shall not be compelled to contribute to the expense of building 8 said wall.

[R., '60, § 1914; C., '73, § 2019; C., '97, § 2994.]

SEC. 6436. Contribution by adjoining owner.

1 If the adjoining owner contributes one-half of the expense of 2 building such wall, then it is a wall in common between them, but if 3 he refuses to contribute, he shall have the right to make it a wall in 4 common by paying to the person who erected or maintained it one-half 5 of its appraised value at the time of using it.

[R., '60, § 1915; C., '73, § 2020; C., '97, § 2995.]

SEC. 6437. Openings—presumption.

1 No wall shall be built by any person partly on the land of another 2 with any openings therein, and every separating wall between build-3 ings shall, as high as the upper part of the first story, be presumed to 4 be a wall in common, if there be no titles, proof or mark to the con-
5 trary, and if any wall is erected which, under the provisions of this 6 chapter, becomes, or may become, at the option of another, a wall in 7 common, such person shall not be compelled to contribute to the ex-8 pense of closing any openings therein, but this shall be done at the 9 expense of the owner of such wall.

[R., '60, § 1916; C., '73, § 2021; C., '97, § 2996.]

SEC. 6438. Repairs—expense apportioned.

1 The repairs and rebuilding of walls in common are to be made 2 at the expense of all who have a right to them, and in proportion to 3 the interest of each therein, but every coproprietor of a wall in com-
4 mon may be exonerated from contributing to the same by giving up 5 his right in common, if no building belonging to him is actually sup-6 ported by such wall.

[R., '60, § 1917; C., '73, § 2022; C., '97, § 2997.]

1. Every coproprietor may increase the height of a wall in common
2. at his sole expense, and he shall repair and keep in repair that part
3. of the same above the part held in common. If the wall so held in
4. common can not support the wall to be raised upon it, one who wishes
5. to have it made higher must rebuild it anew and at his own expense,
6. and the additional thickness of the wall must be placed entirely on
7. his own land. The person who did not contribute to the heightening
8. of a wall held in common may cause the raised part to become common
9. by paying one-half of the appraised value of raising it, and half the
10. value of the ground occupied by the additional thickness thereof, if
11. any ground was so occupied.

[R., '60, §§ 1919-1921; C., '73, §§ 2024-2026; C., '97, § 2999.]

SEC. 6441. Paying for share of adjoining wall.

1. Every proprietor joining a wall has the right of making it a wall
2. in common, in whole or in part, by repaying to the owner thereof one-
3. half of its value, or one-half of the part which he wishes to hold in
4. common, and one-half of the value of the ground on which it is built,
5. if the person who has built it has laid the foundation entirely upon
6. his own ground.

[R., '60, § 1922; C., '73, § 2027; C., '97, § 3000.]

SEC. 6442. Openings—fixtures.

1. Adjoining owners of walls held in common shall not make open-

3. ture, without the consent of the other, or upon his refusal, without
4. having taken all necessary precautions to guard against injury to the
5. rights of the other, to be ascertained by persons skilled in building.

3 mentioned in section sixty-four hundred fifty-five from taking or hold-

5 upon which he has such lien; nor shall it prevent any nonresident commence the proceeding provided for in the preceding section; and if, after hearing such proofs as may be offered, it finds there is reason-county attorney to proceed as provided in this chapter. If in any such case the county attorney is adversely interested, the court may ap-

SECTION 6462. Sale authorized.
All land between high-water mark and the center of the former channel of any navigable stream, where such channel has been abanto be used for the purposes of navigation, and all land within such abandoned river channels, and all bars or islands in the channels of navigable streams not heretofore surveyed or platted by the United States or the state of Iowa, and all within the jurisdiction of the state of Iowa shall be sold and disposed of in the manner hereinafter provided.

[S., '13, § 2900-a2.]

SEC. 6463. Written applications—by whom made.
It shall be the duty of the county auditor to file written applica-cation with the secretary of state, asking that certain land located within the county be surveyed, appraised and sold, whenever he is satisfied that such land is of the character contemplated by the preceding section. If the county auditor fails or neglects to make such application, then any person desiring to purchase such land may file a written application with the secretary of state, asking that the said land be surveyed, appraised and sold. The said application whether made by the county auditor or by a person desiring to purchase the land, shall contain an accurate description thereof, stating whether the land is abandoned river channel, or land within such abandoned river channel, or an island or a sand bar in a navigable stream, and giving the number of township and range in which it is located, and the section numbers if possible, and also the estimated acreage.

[S., '13, § 2900-a3.]

SEC. 6464. Survey.
Upon receiving such application, it shall be the duty of the secretary of state to order a complete survey of such land to be made by the county surveyor of the county wherein the land is situated, and in case of the refusal or inability of such county surveyor to make such survey then the secretary of state shall appoint some other competent surveyor to make such survey. When such survey is made, a full report thereof, with field notes, shall be filed with the clerk of the state land office, which report and field notes shall constitute the official survey of such land.

[S., '13, § 2900-a4.]

SEC. 6465. Appraisement.
Upon the filing of such report, with the accompanying field notes, the secretary of state shall thereupon appoint a commission of three disinterested freeholders of the county wherein the land is situated, to view the land and make appraisement of the value thereof, which appraisement shall be returned and filed with the clerk of the state land office in the office of the secretary of state. The secretary of state, if he deems it necessary, may either go in person or send the clerk of the state land office into the county to make proper selection of the said commissioners, and the necessary expenses of such trip shall be paid in the manner provided in section sixty-four hundred seventy-six.

[S., '13, § 2900-a5.]

SEC. 6466. Contract with surveyors.
The secretary of state shall make a contract with some surveyor for making such survey; the surveyor to furnish all the chainmen and other attendants and pay all necessary expenses, which contract before it becomes binding shall be submitted to and approved by the executive council.

[S., '13, § 2900-a6; 38 G. A., ch. 32, § 1.]

SEC. 6467. Commissioners' compensation.
Commissioners, for their services in making such appraisement shall each be entitled to receive five dollars per day for the actual time employed.

[38 G. A., ch. 32, § 2.]

SEC. 6468. Sale—how effected—rights of bona fide occupants.
Such lands shall be sold in the following manner: Any person who has in fact lived upon any such land and occupied the same, as a home, continuously for a period of three or more years immediately prior to the time of the appraisement thereof, and such occupancy has been in good faith for the purpose of procuring title thereto, whenever by law such title could be vested in him by purchase from the proper authority, or any person who has acquired possession of such land by inheritance, or by purchase made in good faith from a former occupant, or occupants, whose occupancy dates back over a period of three eyears prior to the date of appraisement of the land, shall have first right to purchase such land at the appraised value; provided such bona fide occupant shall file his application for the purchase thereof at the appraised value with the secretary of state within sixty days after the day the appraisement is made, and shall accompany such application with affidavits showing proof of such bona fide occupancy. If no application has been filed by such bona fide occupant within the sixty-day period above provided, then the secretary of state shall advertise the sale of such land once each week for four consecutive weeks in two newspapers of general circulation published in the county wherein the land is situated, and proof of publication shall be filed with the secretary of state. The sale shall be made upon written bids addressed to the secretary of state and the advertisements shall fix the time when such bids will be received and opened. All bids shall be opened by the secretary of state or by the clerk of the state land office at the time fixed, and the land thereupon may be sold to the highest bidder and at not less than the appraised value.

[S. S., '15, § 2900-a7.]

SEC. 6469. Lease authorized—lands readvertised—sale.
1 If no application is filed for the purchase of the land within the sixty-day period by a bona fide occupant, and if no bids are received for the purchase thereof, on or before the date of the sale as advertised, then the secretary of state is authorized to lease the land for a period of from one to five years, upon as favorable terms as he can obtain. At the expiration of such lease he shall readvertise the land for sale in the manner provided in the preceding section. If no bids for the purchase of the land are received on the date of the second advertised sale, then the secretary of state shall submit the matter to the executive council, and they may either order the land reappraised in the manner provided in section sixty-four hundred sixty-five, and then advertised and sold in the manner provided in the preceding section, or if they deem it advisable, they may authorize the secretary of state to sell the land for less than the appraised value.
In such event the secretary of state shall readvertise the land for sale in the manner provided in the preceding section, and such advertisement shall also state that the land will be sold to the highest bidder without restrictions as to the appraised value.

[S., '13, § 2900-a8.]

SEC. 6470. Deed or patent.
1 When, upon full compliance with the conditions of this chapter, any person shall become entitled to a deed or patent for any land, a deed or patent shall thereupon be executed and delivered to such per-

SEC. 6471. Previous survey.

When any such land shall be found to have been previously surveyed under and by virtue of any order of a court of record, and the record of such survey has been duly made and preserved, then and in that event, in the discretion of the secretary of state, a duly certified transcript of such record, together with the field notes accompanying the same, if obtainable, may be filed with the clerk of the state land office in the office of secretary of state, and when so filed shall obviate the necessity for any further survey of such land except when such survey becomes necessary for the purpose of execution of conveyance thereof, and the record of such transcript, when filed, shall constitute the official survey of such land.

SEC. 6472. Boundary commission.

If in any proceeding contemplated by the provisions of this chapter, it shall become necessary to determine the boundary line between the state of Iowa and either of the states adjoining, the matter shall then be at once referred to the executive council, who shall thereupon proceed to confer with the proper authority of such adjoining state, and if the cooperation of the proper authority of such adjoining state shall be obtained, then the executive council shall appoint a commission of three disinterested, competent persons, who shall, in conjunction with the parties acting for such adjoining state, have authority to ascertain and locate the true boundary line between the state of Iowa and such adjoining state, so far as the particular land under consideration at the time is concerned. The report of the commissioners with a statement of their findings shall be submitted to the executive council, who shall file the same with the clerk of the state land office in the office of the secretary of state. The line so ascertained and located shall constitute the true and permanent boundary line between the state of Iowa and such other state to the extent such line shall be so ascertainable and located.

SEC. 6473. How constituted—compensation.

The members of the commission shall be selected with reference to their fitness for the duties required and at least one of them shall be a competent surveyor and civil engineer. They shall receive for their services such amount as the executive council may deem reasonable, to be certified by the executive council to the auditor of state, who shall draw his warrant for the amount, and the same shall be paid out of the general fund.

SEC. 6474. Purchase money refunded on failure of title.

If the grantee of the state, or his successors, administrators, or assigns, shall be deprived of the land conveyed by the state under this chapter by the final decree of a court of record for the reason that the conveyance by the state passed no title whatever to the land...
5 therein described, because title thereto had previously for any reason
6 been vested in others, then the money so paid the state for the said
7 land shall be refunded by the state to the person or persons entitled 8 thereto, provided the said grantee, or his successors, administrators 9 or assigns, shall file a certified copy of the transcript of the said final 10 decree with the executive council within one year from the date of 11 the issuance of such decree, and shall also file satisfactory proof with 12 the executive council that the action over the title to the land was 13 commenced within ten years from the date of the issuance of patent 14 or deed by the state. The amount of money to be refunded under the 15 provisions of this section shall be certified by the executive council to 16 the auditor of state, who shall draw his warrant therefor, and the 17 same shall be paid out of the general fund.

[S., '13, § 2900-a13.]

SEC. 6475. Sales and leases for cash.
1 All sales and leases of land under the provisions of this chapter 2 shall be for cash. All money received for such sales and leases shall 3 be paid into the state treasury by the secretary of state.

[S., '13, § 2900-a14.]

SEC. 6476. Expenses of survey, appraisement and advertising—

3 the trip into the county to select the commissioners to appraise the 4 land, the expenses of advertising and readvertising for sale of the 5 land, and the expenses of reappraising whenever such reappraisement 6 is deemed necessary, shall be certified by the secretary of state to the 7 auditor of state, who shall draw his warrant for the amount, and the 8 same shall be paid out of the general fund.

[S., '13, § 2900-a15.]

SEC. 6477. Lands in possession of person or corporation for ten or more years—how sold.
1 If any lands in the present or in any former channel of any navigable 2 river, or island therein, or any lands formed by accretion or 3 avulsion in consequence of the changes of the channel of any such 4 river, have been for ten years or more in the possession of any 5 person, company or corporation, or of his or its grantors or predecessors 6 in interest under a bona fide claim of ownership, and the person, com-7 pany or corporation so in possession, or his or its grantors or prede-
8 cessors in interest, have paid state or county taxes upon said lands
9 for a period of five years, and have in good faith and under bona fide 10 claim of title made valuable improvements thereon, and also in any 11 other case where, in the judgment of the executive council, the person 12 in possession of any land subject to the provisions of this chapter, 13 has, in equity and good conscience, a substantial interest therein, then 14 the said lands shall be sold to the person, company or corporation so in 15 possession thereof as hereinafter provided.

[S., '13, § 2900-a16.]

shall be the duty of the attorney general to bring an action in equity, in the district court of the county in which said lands are situated, against the party in possession thereof to determine the title of the state to such lands, and the value thereof, exclusive of improvements made thereon by the occupant or by his or its grantors or predecessors in interest. If the person, company or corporation in possession of such land shall, after the court has determined the value thereof as herein provided, tender to the secretary of state the amount adjudged to be the value of said lands, exclusive of improvements made thereon by the occupant or by his or its grantors or predecessors in interest, a deed or patent of such land shall be executed by the governor, attested by the secretary of state, and delivered to the person, company or corporation making such tender, as provided by law. If the person, company or corporation so in possession shall fail to pay to the state the amount so adjudged within six months after the final deter-be subject to the other provisions of this chapter.

[S., '13, § 2900-a17.]

the secretary of state as provided in the preceding section, no deed or patent of such land, or any part thereof, shall be executed or issued until the title thereto shall have been established by the court as herein provided. If the party making such application, or his assignee, does not desire to prosecute his application, or if he does not purchase the land under this chapter, then all of the money deposited by him with the secretary of state under the provisions of this chapter shall be repaid to said applicant by the secretary of state; and if any part of the money so deposited has been expended by the secretary of state, then the amount so expended shall be certified by the secretary of state to the auditor of state, who shall draw his warrant upon the general fund in favor of the person entitled thereto.

state, and to execute and deliver a patent or lease thereof. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to apply to islands in the Mississippi or Missouri rivers.

[S., '13, § 2900-a28.]

SEC. 6481. Survey — appraisement — sale advertised — written

Before a sale of any island is made under the provisions of the preceding section, the executive council shall cause a survey and plat of such island to be made, showing its location and area, and the plat and notes of such survey shall be filed with the secretary of state. The land composing the island shall then be appraised by a commission acquired by the governor, consisting of three disinterested freeholders of the state, who shall report their appraisement to the execweek for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circu-

[S., '13, § 2900-a29.]

SEC. 6482. Lease—written bids.
If it shall be deemed expedient to lease any such island, a lease thereof may be made upon written bids addressed to the executive council, and the island proposed to be leased shall be surveyed and platted, and notice of the leasing thereof and of the receiving and opening of bids shall be published, in the manner provided in the preceding section, but no appraisement shall be necessary. Upon the opening of the bids received by the executive council it may make a lease of such island to the highest bidder for such term as is deemed advisable.

[S., '13, § 2900-a30.]

SEC. 6483. Sales and leases for cash—expenses.
All sales and leases must be for cash, and the money received therefor shall be paid into the state treasury. All expenses incurred

If a lien for rent is given in a written lease or other instrument upon additional property, it may be enforced in the same manner and in the same action.

1 The payment of the rent for the lands upon which such grain or other annual products were raised at or before the time the same fails due, shall be a bar to any prosecution under the preceding section and no prosecution shall be commenced until such rent be wholly due.
[S., '13, § 4852-b.]

CHAPTER 2.
MECHANICS' LIEN.

SECTION 6507. Definition of "owner."
1 Every person for whose use or benefit any building, erection or other improvement is made, having the capacity to contract, including guardians, shall be included in the word "owner" as used in this chapter.
[C., '51, § 982; R., '60, § 1866; C., '73, § 2144; C., '97, § 3096.]

SEC. 6508. Definition of "subcontractor."
1 All persons furnishing materials or doing work provided for in this chapter shall be considered subcontractors, except such as have contracts therefor directly with the owner, his agent or trustee.
[R., '60, § 1871; C., '73, § 2146; C., '97, § 3097.]

SEC. 6509. Who may have lien.
1 Every person who shall do any labor upon, or furnish any materials, machinery or fixtures for, any building, erection or other improvement upon land, including those engaged in the construction or repair of any work of internal improvement, and those engaged in grading any land or lot by virtue of any contract with the owner, his agent, trustee, contractor or subcontractor, upon complying with the provisions of this chapter, shall have for his labor done, or material, machinery or fixtures furnished, a lien upon such building, erection or improvement and upon the land belonging to such owner on which the same is situated, or upon the land or lot so graded, to secure payment for such labor done or material, machinery or fixtures furnished.
SEC. 6510. Collateral security.

No person shall be entitled to a mechanic's lien who, at the time of making or executing a contract for furnishing material or performing labor, or during the progress of the work, erection, building or other improvement, shall take any collateral security on such contract. But after the completion of such work, and when the contractor or other person shall have become entitled to claim or establish a lien, the taking of such or other security shall not affect the right thereto, unless such new security shall, by express agreement, be given and received in lieu of such lien.

SEC. 6511. Extent of lien—leasehold interest.

The entire land upon which any such building, erection or other improvement is situated, including that portion not covered therewith, shall be subject to all liens created by this chapter to the extent of the interest therein of the person for whose benefit such labor was done or for which furnished; and when such interest is only a leasehold the forfeiture of such lease for the nonpayment of rent, or for non-compliance with any of the other conditions therein, shall not forfeit or impair such liens upon such improvements, but the same may be sold to satisfy such liens, and be moved away by the purchaser within thirty days after the sale thereof.

SEC. 6512. Lien on work of internal improvement.

When such material has been furnished or labor performed in the construction, repair or equipment of any railroad, canal, viaduct or other similar improvement, the lien therefor shall attach to the erections, excavations, embankments, bridges, roadbed, and all land upon which the same may be situated, and the rolling stock and other equipment belonging to any such railroad, canal, viaduct or other company; all of which, except the easement or right of way, shall constitute the building, erection or improvement provided and mentioned in this chapter.

[C., '73, § 2132; C., '97, § 3091.]

SEC. 6513. Filing statement.

Every person, whether contractor or subcontractor, who wishes to avail himself of the provisions of this chapter, shall file with the clerk of the district court of the county in which the building, erection or other improvement to be charged with the lien is situated a verified statement or account of the demand due him, after allowing all credits, setting forth the time when such material was furnished or labor performed, and when completed, and containing a correct description of the property to be charged with the lien, which statement or account must be filed by a principal contractor within ninety days, and by a subcontractor within sixty days, from the date on which the last of the material shall have been furnished or the last of the labor was performed; but a failure to file the same within said periods shall not defeat the lien, except against purchasers or incumbrances in good faith, without notice, whose rights accrued after the sixty or ninety days, as the case may be, and before any claim for the lien was filed;
but where a lien is claimed upon a railway, the subcontractor shall have sixty days from the last day of the month in which such labor was done or material furnished within which to file his claim therefor.

SEC. 6514. Subcontractor’s lien—liability of owner to original contractor—discharge of lien.

No owner of any building or structure upon which a subcontractor’s mechanics’ lien may be filed under the provisions of the preceding section shall be liable to an action by the original contractor for compensation for work done or materials, machinery or fixtures furnished for any building, structure or other improvement upon land until the expiration of sixty days from the completion of said building, structure or improvement, unless the original contractor shall furnish to the owner of said building, structure or improvement receipts and waivers of claims for mechanics’ liens, signed by all persons who performed any labor or furnished any material, machinery or fixtures for said building, structure or improvement, provided there be such persons, or unless the original contractor shall furnish to the owner a good and sufficient bond to be approved by said owner, conditioned that said owner shall be held harmless from any loss which he may sustain by reason of the filing of subcontractor’s mechanics’ liens.

Should the owner pay to the original contractor any part of the contract price of such building, structure or improvement before the lapse of the sixty days allowed by law for the filing of subcontractor’s mechanics’ liens, he will still be liable to said subcontractor for the full value of any material, machinery or fixtures furnished, or labor performed upon said building, structure or improvement, provided said subcontractor file his mechanics’ lien within the time provided by law for the filing of subcontractor’s mechanics’ liens. The lien of a subcontractor may be vacated and discharged at any time by the owner, principal contractor or intermediate subcontractor filing with the clerk of the district court of the county in which the property is located a sufficient bond in twice the amount of the sum for which the claim for the lien is filed, with surety or sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the district court in which said lien is filed, conditioned for the payment of any sum for which the claimant may obtain judgment upon the demand for which such statement or account has been filed. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the owner to pay a greater amount or at an earlier date than is provided in his contract with the principal contractor, unless said owner pays a part or all of the contract price to the original contractor before the expiration of the sixty days allowed by law for the filing of subcontractor’s mechanics’ lien.

[R., '60, § 1847; C., '73, § 2131; C., '97, § 3092; S., '13, § 3093; 38 G. A., ch. 380, § 1.]

SEC. 6515. Subcontractor’s claim after sixty days.

A subcontractor may, at any time after the expiration of said sixty days, file his claim for a lien with the clerk of the district court, and give written notice thereof to the owner, or his agent or trustee, which notice may be served by any person, and if the party to be served, his agent, or trustee, is out of the county wherein the property is situated, a return of that fact by the person charged with making such service shall constitute sufficient service from and after the time it was filed with the clerk, and from and after the service of such notice his lien shall have the same force and effect, and be prosecuted or vacated by bond, as if filed within the sixty days, but shall be enforced against the property or upon the bond, if given by the owner, only to the extent of the balance due from the owner to the contractor at the time of the service of such notice upon him, his agent or trustee; but if in such case the bond is given by the contractor, or person contracting with the subcontractor filing the claim for a lien, such bond shall be enforced to the full extent of the amount found due the sub-contractor.

[C., '73, § 2133; C., '97, § 3094; S. S., '15, § 3094; 38 G. A., ch. 380, § 1.]

SEC. 6516. Priority.

The liens provided for by this chapter shall take priority as follows:
1. As between persons claiming mechanics' liens upon the same property, according to the order of the filing of the statements and accounts therefor.
2. They shall take priority of all garnishments of the owner for the contract debts, whether made prior or subsequent to the commencement of the furnishing of the material or performance of the labor, without regard to the date of filing the claim for such lien.
3. They shall be preferred to all other liens and incumbrances which may attach to or upon such buildings, erections or other improvements, and to the land upon which they are situated, made subsequently to the commencement of said buildings, erections or other improvements, but the rights of purchasers, incumbrancers, and other persons who acquire interests in good faith and for a valuable consideration, and without notice, after the expiration of the time for filing claims for liens, shall be prior to the claims of all contractors or subcontractors who have not, at the dates such rights and interests were acquired, filed their claims for such liens.
4. The liens for the material or work aforesaid, including those for additions, repairs and bettersments, shall attach to the buildings, errections or improvements for which they were furnished or done, in preference to any prior lien, incumbrance or mortgage upon the land upon which such erection, building or improvement belongs, or is erected or put. If such material was furnished or labor performed in the erection or construction of an original and independent building, errection or other improvement commenced since the attaching or execution of such prior lien, incumbrance or mortgage, the court may, in its discretion, order and direct such building, erection or improvement to be sold separately under execution, and the purchaser may remove the same in such reasonable time as the court may fix. But if the court shall find that such building should not be sold separately, it shall take an account of and ascertain the separate values of the land, and the erection, building or other improvement, and order the whole sold, and distribute the proceeds of such sale so as to secure to the prior mortgage or other lien priority upon the land, and to the mechanics' lien priority upon the building, erection or other improvement. If the material furnished or labor performed was for additions to, repairs of, or betterments upon buildings, erections or other im-40 improvements, the court shall take an accounting of the values before 41 such material was furnished or labor performed, and the enhanced 42 value caused by such additions, repairs or betterments, and, upon the 43 sale of the premises, distribute the proceeds of such sale so as to secure 44 to the prior mortgagee or lienholder priority upon the land and im-
45 provements as they existed prior to the attaching of the mechanic's 46 lien, and to the mechanic's lienholder priority upon the enhanced value 47 caused by such additions, repairs or betterments. In case the prem-48 ises do not sell for more than sufficient to pay off the prior mortgage 49 or other lien, the proceeds shall be applied on the prior mortgage or 50 other liens.

[R., '60, §§ 1853, 1855; C., '73, §§ 2139, 2141; C., '97, § 3095.]

SEC. 6517. Filing of statements.
1 The clerk of the court shall indorse upon every account or state-2 ment filed in his office the date and hour of its filing, and make an 3 abstract thereof in a book kept for that purpose and properly indexed, 4 containing the date and hour of its filing, the name of the person filing
