When the foregoing provisions have been complied with, the defendant so notified shall be required to appear as if personally served on the day of the last publication within the county in which the petition is or will be filed, proof thereof being made by the affidavit of the publisher or his foreman, and filed before default is taken.

2. By entering an appearance in the appearance docket or judge's calendar or by announcing to the court an appearance which shall be entered of record.

3. By taking part either personally or by attorney in the trial of the case.

4. Any defendant may appear specially for the sole purpose of attacking the jurisdiction of the court. Such special appearance shall be announced at the time it is made and shall limit the party to jurisdictional matters only and shall give him no right to plead to the merits of the case.

SEC. 7187. Where one or more of defendants not served.

When the action is against two or more defendants, and one or more of them shall have been served, but not all, the plaintiff may proceed as follows:

1. If the action is against defendants who are jointly, or jointly and severally, or severally liable only, he may, without prejudice to his rights in that or any other action against those not served, proceed against those served in the same manner as if they were the only defendants; if he recovers against those jointly liable only, he may take judgment against all thus liable, which may be enforced against the joint and separate property of those served, but not against the separate property of those not served, until they have had opportunity to show cause why judgment should not be enforced against their separate property; or,

2. He may continue until the next term and bring in the other defendants; but at such second term the action shall proceed against all who have been served in due time, and no further delay shall be allowed to bring in the others, unless all that appear shall consent to such delay, or the cause is continued for other reasons.

If the petition be amended to include other parties or other lands, same shall be similarly indexed. When the cause is finally determined the result shall be indicated in said book wherever indexed. When so indexed said action shall be considered pending so as to charge all third persons with notice of its pendency, and while pending no interest can be acquired by third persons in the subject matter thereof as against the plaintiff's rights. Within two months after the determination of the action, there shall also be filed with such clerk a certified copy of the final order, judgment or decree, who shall enter and index the same as though rendered in that county, or such notice of pendency shall cease to be constructive notice.

SEC. 7205. Demurrer or motion suspends other pleadings—sub-

4 morning of the day succeeding such determination; and all motions
5 and demurrers shall be argued and submitted on the morning of the 6 day succeeding the filing thereof, or at such other time as is ordered 7 by the court, unless the cause is sooner reached for trial.

or the subject of the action.
3 2. That the plaintiff has not legal capacity to sue.
4 3. That there is another action pending between the same parties for the same cause.
5 4. That there is a defect of parties, plaintiffs or defendants.
6 5. That the facts stated in the petition do not entitle the plaintiff to the relief demanded.
7 6. That the petition, on the face thereof, shows that the cause of action is barred by the statute of limitations; or fails to show it to be in writing, where it should be so evidenced; or, if founded on an account or writing as evidence of indebtedness, that neither such writing or account or copy thereof is incorporated into or attached to the pleading, or a sufficient reason stated for not doing so.

[R., '60, §§ 2876, 2920, 2961, 2963, 2964; C., '73, § 2648;
C., '97, § 3561.]

SEC. 7209. How specific.

1 A demurrer must specify and number the grounds of objection to the pleading; and it shall not be sufficient to state the objection in the terms of the preceding section, except that a demurrer to an equitable petition, for the fifth reason of said section, may be stated in the terms thereof.

[C., '51, § 1754; R., '60, § 2877; C., '73, § 2649; C., '97,

SEC. 7210. Demurrer to one of several causes—effect of demurrer and ruling.

1 The defendant may demur to one or more of the several causes of action alleged in the petition, and answer as to the residue. A demurrer shall be considered as an admission of the allegations of the pleading demurred to for the purposes of demurrer, and for such purposes only; and when a demurrer shall be overruled and the party demurring shall answer or reply, the ruling on the demurrer shall not be considered as an adjudication of any question raised by the demur-ner; and in such case the sufficiency of the pleading thus attacked shall be determined as if no demurrer had been filed. No pleading shall be held sufficient on account of a failure to demur thereto.

[C., '51, § 1738; R., '60, § 2879; C., '73, § 2651; C., '97, § 3564.]

SEC. 7211. Joinder in demurrer—answering, amending or pleading over.

1 The opposite party shall be deemed to join in a demurrer whenever he shall not amend the pleading to which it is addressed. Upon a demurrer being overruled, the party demurring may answer or reply. Upon a decision of a demurrer, if the adverse party fail to amend or plead over, the same consequences shall ensue as though a verdict had passed against the plaintiff or the defendant had made default, as the case may be.

[C., '51, §§ 1755, 1771; R., '60, §§ 2900, 2976, 3086; C., '73,
§§ 2652-2654; C., '97, § 3566.]

SEC. 7212. Objection raised by answer—arrest of judgment.

When any of the matters enumerated as grounds of demurrer do not appear on the face of the petition, the objection may be taken by answer. If the facts stated by the petition do not entitle the plaintiff to any relief whatever, advantage may be taken of it by motion in arrest of judgment before judgment is entered.

[R., '60, § 2878; C., '73, § 2650; C., '97, § 3563.]

SEC. 7213. Counterclaim—how stated—what may constitute.

Each counterclaim must be stated in a distinct count or division, and must be:
1. When the action is founded on contract, a cause of action also arising on contract, or ascertained by the decision of a court.
2. A cause of action in favor of the defendants, or some of them, against the plaintiffs, or some of them, arising out of the contracts or transactions set forth in the petition or connected with the subject of the action.
3. Any new matter constituting a cause of action in favor of the defendant, or all of the defendants if more than one, against the plaintiff, or all of the plaintiffs if more than one, and which the defendant or defendants might have brought when suit was commenced, or which was then held, either matured or not, if matured when so plead.

[C., '51, § 1740; R., '60, §§ 2884, 2886, 2889, 2891; C., '73, numbered, as required in regard to an equitable cause of action in the petition.

[R., '60, § 2885; C., '73, § 2660; C., '97, § 3571.]

SEC. 7215. Counterclaim by comaker or surety.

A comaker or surety, when sued alone, may, with the consent of his comaker or principal, avail himself by way of counterclaim of a debt or liquidated demand due from the plaintiff at the commencemen t of the action to such comaker or principal, but the plaintiff may meet such counterclaim in the same way as if made by the comaker or principal himself.

[R., '60, § 2887; C., '73, § 2661; C., '97, § 3572.]

SEC. 7216. New party.

When a new party is necessary to a final decision upon a counter-claim, the court may either permit such party to be made, or direct that it be stricken out of the answer and made the subject of a separate action.

[R., '60, §§ 2888, 2890; C., '73, § 2662; C., '97, § 3573.]

1 When a defendant has a cause of action affecting the subject
2 matter of the action against a codefendant, or a person not a party
3 to the action, he may, in the same action, file a cross petition against 4 the codefendant or other person. The defendants thereto may be 5 notified as in other cases, and defense thereto shall be made in the 6 time and manner prescribed in regard to the original petition, and with 7 the same right of obtaining provisional remedies applicable to the 8 case. The prosecution of the cross petition shall not delay the trial 9 of the original action, when a judgment can be rendered therein that 10 will not prejudice the rights of the parties to the cross petition.

[R., '60, § 2892; C., '73, § 2663; C., '97, § 3574.]

SEC. 7218. Demurrer to answer.
1 When the facts stated in the answer, or any count or division
2 thereof, are not sufficient to constitute a defense or counterclaim, the 3 adverse party may demur, and shall be held to the same certainty in 4 the statement of the grounds therefor as obtains in a demurrer to the 5 petition, and with like results attendant upon the ruling thereon.

[R., '60, § 2894; C., '73, § 2664; C., '97, § 3575.]

SEC. 7219. Reply—when necessary.
1 There shall be no reply except:
2 1. Where a counterclaim is alleged.
3 2. Where some matter is alleged in the answer to which the 4 plaintiff claims to have a defense by reason of the existence of some 5 fact which avoids the matter alleged in the answer.

[C., '51, § 1741; R., '60, § 2895; C., '73, § 2665; C., '97, § 3576.]

4 to form a belief.
5 2. Any new matter, not inconsistent with the petition, constitut-6 ing a defense to the matter alleged in the answer; or the matter in the 7 answer may be confessed, and any new matter alleged, not inconsist-8 ent with the petition, which avoids the same, but an allegation of new 9 matter in avoidance shall not be treated as a waiver of the denial of 10 the allegations of the answer implied by law.

[R., '60, § 2896; C., '73, § 2666; C., '97, § 3577.]

SEC. 7221. Defenses to counterclaim—paragraphs.
1 Any number of defenses, negative or affirmative, are pleable
2 to a counterclaim, and each affirmative matter of defense in the reply
3 shall be sufficient in itself, and must intelligibly refer to the part of 4 the answer to which it is intended to apply. A division of equitable 5 matter must also be separated into paragraphs and numbered, as 6 required in case of such matter in the answer.

[R., '60, §§ 2897, 2898; C., '73, § 2667; C., '97, § 3578.] §§ 7222-7229.

Tit. XXIX, Ch. 7.

SEC. 7222. Demurrer to reply.
1 When the facts stated in the reply do not amount to a sufficient defense, the defendant may demur, subject to the same requirements of certainty in statement of grounds thereof as obtain in demurrer to the petition, and with like results attendant upon the ruling thereon.
[R., '60, § 2899; C., '73, § 2668; C., '97, § 3579.]

SEC. 7223. Verification—when necessary.
1 Every pleading must be subscribed by the party or his attorney, and when any pleading in a case shall be verified by affidavit, all subsequent pleadings, except motions and demurrers, shall be verified also; and in all cases of verification of a pleading, the affidavit shall

5 4. The charges must also be verified by the party or clerk who made the entries, to the effect that they believe them just and true, or a sufficient reason must be given why such verification is not made.
6 Any loose leaf or card or other form of entry which may be in use in the ordinary course of business by the party seeking to prove an account against another, and shall have been properly identified as being the original entry of such account shall be admitted as competent evidence for the purpose of proving such account by deposition or in open court, and it shall be competent for any person whose duties in the ordinary course of such business require a personal knowledge of the records of such business, to verify such account or make deposition or testify in open court with regard to any matters pertaining to such records.

SEC. 7333. Exceptions.

1. The provisions of the first subdivision of the preceding section do not apply when the article of personal property sold is not at the time of the contract owned by the vendor and ready for delivery, but labor, skill or money is necessarily to be expended in producing or procuring the same; nor do those of the fourth subdivision apply where the purchase money, or any portion thereof, has been received by the vendor, or when the vendee, with the actual or implied consent of the vendor, has taken and held possession thereof under and by virtue of the contract, or when there is any other circumstance which, by the law heretofore in force, would have taken the case out of the statute of frauds.

1. When the recording of any instrument in the office of any public officer is authorized by law, the record of such instrument, or a duly 3 authenticated copy thereof, is competent evidence whenever, by the 4 party's own oath or otherwise, the original is shown to be lost, or not 5 belonging to the party wishing to use the same, nor within his control.
6 In such case, it is no objection to the record that no official seal is 7 appended to the recorded acknowledgment thereof, if, when the ac-8 knowledge purports to have been taken by an officer having an 9 official seal, there is a statement in the certificate of acknowledgment
10 that the same is made under his hand and seal of office, and the record 11 shows, by a scroll or otherwise, that there was such a seal, which will 12 be presumptive evidence that it was attached to the original certificate.

CHAPTER 11.
CHANGE OF VENUE.

SECTION 7432.  Grounds for.

1. A change of the place of trial in any civil action may be had in 2 any of the following cases:
3 1. County a party. Where the county in which the action is 4 pending is a party thereto, if the motion is made by the party ad-
5 versely interested, and the issue be triable by jury.
6 2. Judge a party or interested. Where the judge is a party, or 7 is directly interested in the action, or is connected by blood or affinity 8 with any person so interested nearer than the fourth degree.
9 3. Prejudice or local influence. Where either party files an affi-
10 davit, verified by himself and three disinterested persons not related 11 to the party making the motion nearer than the fourth degree, nor 12 standing in the relation of servant, agent or employee of such party, 13 stating that the inhabitants of the county or the judge is so prejudiced 14 against him, or that the adverse party or his attorney has such an 15 undue influence over the inhabitants of the county, that he can not 16 obtain a fair trial; and when either party files such an affidavit the 17 other party shall have a reasonable time in which to prepare and file
18 counter affidavits, and the court or judge, in its discretion, may cause
19 the affiants upon either side to be brought into court for examination 20 upon the matters contained in their affidavits, and, when fully ad-21 vised, shall allow or refuse the change according to the very right and 22 merits of the matter.
23 4. Agreement. By the written agreement of the parties.
24 5. Jury not obtainable. If the issue is one triable by a jury, and 25 it is made apparent to the court or judge that a jury can not be ob-
26 tained in the county where the action is pending, then, upon the appli-27 cation of either party, a change of place of trial shall be granted to 28 the nearest county in which a jury can be obtained.
6. Fraud in the inception of written contract. In an action brought on a written contract in the county where the contract by its express terms is to be performed, in which a defendant to said action, residing in a different county in the state, has filed a sworn answer alleging fraud in the inception of the contract constituting a complete defense thereto, such defendant, upon application and the filing of a sufficient bond, may have such action transferred to the district court of the county of his residence. If upon the trial of the action judgment is rendered against the defendant, it shall include the reasonable expenses incurred by the plaintiff and his attorney, on account of change of place of trial, as part of the costs. The bond above referred to shall be with sureties to be approved by the clerk, in an amount to be fixed by the court or judge in vacation for the payment of all costs which may accrue in the action in the court in which it is brought, or in any other to which it may be carried, either to the plaintiff or to the officers of the court.

Not more than two such changes to either party shall be allowed for any of the causes enumerated in this section; nor shall a change be allowed in case of appeal from a justice of the peace; nor, when the issues can only be tried to the court, for any objection to the inhabitants of the county, or for the objection that the adverse party or his attorney has such an undue influence over the inhabitants thereof that he can not obtain a fair trial. After a change of place of trial has been taken and a trial had, and the jury discharged or a new trial granted, a subsequent change may be taken for any of the causes mentioned in this section.

SEC. 7433. Change of venue on objections of judge—where—interchange of judges.

When a change of venue is granted on the ground of objection made to the judge, he may, in his discretion, if there be a judge or judges of the same district against whom there is no objection, assign the cause to one of such judges for trial. If there be no other judge of his district against whom there is no objection, then he may, in his discretion, send the cause for trial to the nearest and most convenient county of another district, or to a county of another district agreed upon by the parties, for trial before a judge of such district; or he may procure another judge of another district to interchange with him for the trial of such cause.

SEC. 7434. Application for.

The application for a change of place of trial may be made either to the court or to the judge in vacation, and if made in term time shall not be awarded until the issues are made up, unless the objection is to the court, nor shall such application be allowed after a continuance, except for a cause not known to the affiant before or arising since such continuance, and after one change no party is entitled to another for any cause in existence when the first was obtained.
SEC. 7435. To what county or court.

1 If the application for a change is granted for any cause except on account of the prejudice or disability of the judge, or under subdivision six of the first section of this chapter, the cause shall be sent to the nearest or most convenient county in the district, unless objections supported by affidavit are made to each county in the district, in which case to the nearest or most convenient county in another district. If the objections are to the judge, the cause shall not be tried by him, but retained on the docket and tried as provided in the chapter relating to the district court.

[C., '51, § 1707; R., '60, § 2805; C., '73, § 2592; C., '97, § 3507; S., '13, § 3507.]

SEC. 7436. Notice in vacation.

1 If an application for the change is made in vacation, five days' notice thereof, with a copy of the affidavit, shall be served on the adverse party or his attorney, and, if granted, the judge shall forthwith transmit his order to the clerk, with all the papers presented to him.

[C., '51, § 1709; R., '60, § 2806; C., '73, § 2593; C., '97, § 3508.]

SEC. 7437. When change perfected.

4 2. Upon material allegations of new matter in the answer, either 5 denied by a reply or by operation of law.
6 3. Upon allegations of new matter in the reply, which shall be 7 considered as controverted by the opposite party without further 8 pleading.
9 Any other issue is one of law.

All the evidence so taken shall be certified by the judge at any time within six months after the entry of a final decree, and the evidence and certificate be made a part of the record, and go on appeal to the supreme court, which shall try the cause anew. 2 party desiring to bring such cause on for trial at any term shall, at 3 least ten days before such term, file with the clerk a notice of trial,
4 and no such cause shall stand for trial unless a trial notice be so filed,
5 except by consent of parties. But after the commencement of the 6 term, the court may in its discretion, by order entered of record, per-7 mit notices of trial to be entered in the same manner, ten days prior 8 to such date as the court may name in such order. Such order may be 9 general, and not entered of record in each particular case. The clerk, 10 in preparing the court calendars, shall note thereon, opposite the title
11 of each cause noticed for trial, the words, "for trial," which words 12 shall also appear on the printed calendar. This rule shall not apply to 13 appearance or criminal cases, nor to proceedings in probate.

[C., '97, § 3658.]

SEC. 7454. Assignments of trial causes—hearing of motions and

1 On the first day of the term, or as soon thereafter as practicable,
2 the court may make an assignment of the trial causes, which assign-3 ment shall fix the day of the term on which each cause will be tried,
4 and parties will be required to conform to this order of trial. Further 5 assignments may be made by the court as often as necessary. The court may also designate particular times for the hearing of motions and demurrers.

[C., '97, § 3659.]

SEC. 7455. Docketing appeals from justices—other appeals.

In appeals from justices' courts or other inferior tribunals in civil causes, the appellant shall cause the case to be docketed by noon of the second day of the term to which the same is returnable, and, in case of his failure to do so, the appellee may procure the case to be docketed, and thereupon will be entitled to have the judgment below affirmed, or to have the case set down for trial upon its merits, as he may elect, and the provisions of this code as to appeals from justices' courts shall be applicable, so far as may be, to other appeals contemplated in this section.

[C., '97, § 3660.]

SEC. 7456. Calendar.

The clerk shall keep a calendar distinguishing, first, criminal causes, and next, civil causes, and arranging each in the order of their commencement, and, if the court so order, shall, under the direction of the court or judge, apportion the same to as many days as is believed necessary, and, at the request of any party to a cause, or his attorney, shall issue subpoenas accordingly. The clerk shall furnish the court and the bar with a sufficient number of printed copies of the calendar.

SEC. 7457. Continuances—application for.

When time is asked for making application for continuance, the cause shall not lose its place on the calendar, or it may be continued at the option of the other party, and at the cost of the party applying therefor, for which cost judgment may at once be entered by the clerk, unless the contrary be agreed between the parties or ordered by the court.

[C., '51, § 1764; R., '60, § 3008; C., '73, § 2748; C., '97, § 3662.]

2. Efforts constituting due diligence which have been used to obtain such witness, or his testimony.

3. What particular facts, as distinguished from legal conclusions, the affiant believes the witness will prove, and that the affiant believes them to be true, and that he knows of no other witness by whom such facts can be fully proven.

SEC. 7460. Admission by opposite party.

If the application is insufficient, it shall be overruled; if sufficient, the cause shall be continued, unless the adverse party will admit that the witness, if present, would testify to the facts therein stated, in which event the cause shall not be continued, but the party may read as evidence of such witness the facts held by the court to be properly stated.

SEC. 7461. Filing motion.

The motion must be filed on the second day of the term, if it is then certain that it will have to be made before the trial, and as soon thereafter as it becomes certain that it will need to be made, and shall not be allowed to be made when the cause is called for trial, except for matters which could not by reasonable diligence have been before that time discovered. If made after the second day of the term, the affidavit must state facts constituting an excuse for the delay in making it. If time is taken when the case is called to make such motion, it shall be made and determined as soon as the court opens after the next ordinary adjournment.

SEC. 7462. Amendment.

The application may be amended but once, unless by permission to supply a clerical error.

SEC. 7463. Written objections.

To such motion, in its original form or as amended, the adverse party may at once, or within such reasonable time as the court shall allow, file written objections, stating wherein he claims that the same is insufficient, and on such motion and objections no argument shall be heard unless the court desires it.

SEC. 7464. Part of record.

Such motion and objections shall be a part of the record, and error in refusing a continuance or in compelling an election may be reviewed upon appeal.
SEC. 7465. Entered on appearance docket.
1 No copy of a motion for continuance or of objections thereto need be served, but a minute of the filing thereof shall be entered on the appearance docket.

A challenge to the panel can be founded only on a material departure from the forms prescribed by statute in respect to the drawing and return of the jury.

When and how made.

A challenge to the panel must be taken before a juror is sworn, and must be in writing, specifying distinctly the facts constituting the ground of challenge.

How tried.

A challenge to the panel may be taken by either party, and upon the trial thereof the officers, whether judicial or ministerial, whose irregularity is complained of, as well as any other persons, may be examined to prove or disprove the facts alleged as the ground of the challenge.

4 called may be challenged for cause and shall be subject to peremptory
5 challenge or to being struck from the list as other jurors. After all

2. The other party may then briefly state his defense and the evidence by which he expects to sustain it.
3. The party on whom rests the burden of proof in the whole action must first produce his evidence, to be followed by that of the adverse party.
4. The parties then will be confined to rebutting evidence, unless the court for good reasons, in furtherance of justice, permit them to offer evidence in their original case.
5. But one counsel on each side shall examine the same witness. Upon interlocutory questions, the party moving the court or objecting to testimony shall be heard first; the respondent may then reply by one counsel, and the mover rejoining, confining his remarks to the points first stated and a pertinent answer to respondent's argument. Argument on the questions shall then be closed, unless further requested by the court.

SEC. 7545. Exceptions—how taken.

An exception is an objection, taken to a decision of the court, or person acting as the court, on a matter of law. The party excepting to the decision must do so at the time it is made, unless it is upon a motion or demurrer, in which case it may be taken within three days. It may be embodied in a bill of exceptions to be filed within thirty days after the final determination of the case, or within a reasonable time thereafter, to be fixed by the court, not to exceed ninety days therefrom. In equitable actions, triable de novo on appeal, no bill of exceptions shall be necessary, nor in other actions in which all the proceedings are, under the direction of the court, taken in writing or shorthand by the regular court reporter, or another appointed by the court or judge for the purpose, and embodied in a report by such reporter, certified by him and the court or judge, in the manner provided in this chapter for making and certifying such report. This section shall not be so construed as to prevent any party embodying in a bill of exceptions all or any part of the proceedings in any action in which he may elect to preserve his exceptions in that form. And whenever the judge or referee trying a cause is unable by reason of death, removal, resignation or any cause to sign a bill of exceptions, or certify the shorthand reporter's record, the same shall be done by his successor, and the time for such signing or certification shall be extended thirty days after the appointment, or election and qualification of such successor.

[C., '51, § 1805; R., '60, § 3106; C., '73, § 2831; C., '97, § 3749.]

[R., '60, § 3107; C., '73, § 2832; C., '97, § 3750.]

SEC. 7547. Exception noted.
1 When the decision objected to is entered on the record, and the 2 grounds of the exception appear in the entry, or when any error
3 appears of record, the exception may be taken by the party causing 4 to be noted at the end of the decision, or in connection therewith, that 5 he excepts.

[R., '60, § 3108; C., '73, § 2833; C., '97, § 3751.]

SEC. 7548. Writings identified—skeleton bill.
1 A bill of exceptions, when presented for signature, need not 2 include therein, spread out at length, any writing filed in court, but 3 may incorporate the same by any unmistakable reference thereto; and 4 the clerk, in making a transcript of the bill of exceptions, shall write 5 therein at length all of such writing included therein by reference.

[R., '60, § 3109; C., '73, § 2834; C., '97, § 3752.]

SEC. 7549. Signing.
1 When the decision is not entered on the record, or the grounds
2 of objection do not sufficiently appear therein, the party excepting 3 must reduce his exception to writing and present it to the judge for 4 his signature, which, if it fairly presents the facts, he shall sign; if he 5 refuses, the party may procure the signature of two bystanders attest-
6 ing that the exception is correctly stated, and that the judge has 7 refused to sign the same, which bill of exceptions shall then be filed 8 with the clerk and become a part of the record. The truth of such 9 exceptions may be controverted and maintained by affidavits, not 10 exceeding five on each side, which shall become a part of the record.
11 All affidavits impugning the exception must be filed within three days
12 from the time of filing the bill, and all affidavits sustaining the same 13 within two days thereafter.

[C., '51, §§ 1806, 1807; R., '60, § 3110; C., '73, § 2835;
C., '97, § 3753.]

1 No exception shall be regarded in the supreme court unless the 2 ruling has been on a material point, and the effect thereof prejudicial
3 to the rights of the party excepting.

[R., '60, § 3111; C., '73, § 2836; C., '97, § 3754.]

1 A new trial is a reexamination in the same court of an issue of 2 fact, or some part or portions thereof, after verdict by a jury, report
3 of a referee, or a decision by the court. The former report, verdict
4 or decision, or some part or portion thereof, shall be vacated and a 5 new trial granted, on the application of the party aggrieved, for the 6 following causes affecting materially the substantial rights of such 7 party:
TRIAL AND JUDGMENT.

§ 7552. Application—affidavits.

The application must be made within five days after the verdict, report or decision is rendered, unless for good cause the court extends the time, except for the cause of newly discovered evidence; must be by motion upon written grounds, and, if for the causes enumerated in subdivisions two, three and seven of the preceding section, may be sustained and controverted by affidavits.

Sec. 7553. Judgment notwithstanding verdict.

Either party may file a motion for judgment in his favor, notwithstanding the fact that a verdict has been returned against him, if the pleadings of the party in whose favor the verdict has been returned omit to aver some material fact or facts necessary to constitute a complete cause of action or defense, the motion clearly pointing out the omission.

Sec. 7554. Arrest of judgment.

Either party may file a motion in arrest of judgment, where the pleadings of the prevailing party wholly fail to state a cause of action or a complete defense, and a verdict has been returned in his favor.

Sec. 7555. Filing of motion.

The filing of either a motion for a new trial, for judgment notwithstanding the verdict, or in arrest of judgment, shall not be a waiver of the right to file either or both of the others, but any such motion shall be filed within the time fixed for the filing of motions for new trials.

[C., '97, § 3759.]

SEC. 7556. Amendment to cure defect.
1 Upon any motion for a new trial, for judgment notwithstanding 2 the verdict, or in arrest of judgment, the party whose pleading it is 3 alleged is defective may, if the court considers it necessary, file an 4 amendment setting up the omitted facts, which, if true, would remedy
5 the alleged defects, and such amendment shall be filed before the hear-
6 ing of the motion, and shall suspend the same. If the facts thus stated 7 would not, if proven, defeat the object of the motion, it shall be sus-8 tained. If such new averments would, if proven, defeat its object and 9 are not admitted, they must be denied, or confessed and avoided, by 10 the opposite party within such time as the court shall direct, unless 11 the same are denied by legal operation, and in such case the law of 12 pleading and procedure shall apply, except that the amendment and 13 response need not be verified.

[R., '60, § 3119; C., '73, § 2842; C., '97, § 3760.]

SEC. 7557. Issues tried—judgment.
1 If the facts thus pleaded are admitted, the party pleading the 2 same shall be entitled to such judgment as he would have been entitled
3 to if such facts had been stated in the original pleading and admitted 4 as proven on the trial, but, if controverted, there shall be a trial of 5 the issues raised by the new pleadings, and judgment shall be rendered 6 on the original verdict or finding, as modified or supplemented by the 7 verdict or finding on the new issues.

2 terms or conditions named by it shall be agreed to by the opposite
3 party, and, in the event of his agreement, the terms or conditions
4 named shall be entered on the record, and no new trial shall be granted
5 if he refuses to agree thereto.

2 creditor does not pay the amount, make the deposit, or give the secu-
3 rity required, the levy shall be discharged, and the property restored 4 to the possession of the person from whom it was taken and the 5 creditor shall be liable to the holder of the mortgage for any damages
6 sustained by reason of such levy.
[C., '97, § 3981.]

SEC. 7665. Creditor subrogated.
1 When such sum is paid to the holder of the mortgage or deposited
2 with the clerk, the attachment or execution creditor shall be subro-
3 gated to all the rights of such holder, and the proceeds of the sale of 4 the mortgaged property shall be first applied to the discharge of such 5 indebtedness and the costs incurred under the writ of attachment or 6 execution.
[C., '97, § 3982.]

SEC. 7666. Holder reinstated.
1 If, for any reason, the levy upon the mortgaged property is dis-
2 charged or released without a sale thereof, the attachment or execution
3 creditor who has paid or deposited the amount of the mortgage 4 debt shall have all the rights under such mortgage possessed by the 5 holder at the time of the levy. If the holder thereof desires to be 6 reinstated in his rights thereunder, he may repay the money received
7 by him, with interest thereon at the rate borne by the mortgage debt 8 for the time it has been held by him, and demand the return of the 9 mortgage, whereupon his rights thereunder shall revest in him, and 10 the attachment or execution creditor shall be entitled to the deposit 11 made, or any part thereof remaining in the hands of the clerk, or any 12 money returned to the clerk by the holder of the mortgage.
[C., '97, § 3983.]

SEC. 7667. Statement by holder of amount due.
1 The holder of the mortgage shall, before receiving the money
2 tendered to him by the attaching or execution creditor or deposited
3 with the clerk, state over his signature and under oath, on the back 4 of the mortgage, the amount due or to become due thereon, and deliver the same, together with the note or other evidence of indebtedness secured by said mortgage, to the person paying the said amount or the clerk with whom the deposit is made, and the holder of the mortgage shall only receive the amount so stated to be due, and the surplus, if any, shall be returned to the person making the deposit.

[C., '97, § 3984.]

SEC. 7668. Indemnifying bond released.

When the attaching or execution creditor thus pays or deposits the amount of the claim under the mortgage, he shall not be required to give an indemnifying bond on notice to the sheriff by the holder of the mortgage of his right to the property thereunder, or if one has been given, it shall be released.

[C., '97, § 3985.]

SEC. 7669. Costs—surplus.

If under execution sale the mortgaged property does not sell for enough to pay the mortgage debt, interest and costs of sale, the judgment creditor shall be liable for all costs thus made, but if a greater sum is realized, the officer conducting the sale shall at once pay to the mortgage holder the amount due thereunder, and apply the surplus on the execution.

[C., '97, § 3986.]

SEC. 7670. Statement of indebtedness.

For the purpose of enabling the attaching or execution creditor to determine the amount to be tendered or deposited to hold the levy under the writ of attachment or execution, the person entitled to receive payment of the mortgage debt shall deliver to any such person, upon written demand therefor, a statement in writing under oath, showing the nature and amount of the original debt, the date and the amount of each payment, if any, which has been made thereon, and an itemized statement of the amount then due and unpaid.

[C., '97, § 3987.]

SEC. 7671. Contest as to validity or amount.

If the right of the mortgagee to receive such or any sum is for any reason questioned by the levying creditor, he may, within ten days after levy, or after demand is made for a statement of the amount due as above provided, commence an action in equity or contest such right upon filing a bond in a penalty double the amount of such mortgage, or double the value of the property levied upon, conditioned either for the payment of any sum found due on said mortgage to the person entitled thereto, or for the value of the property levied upon, as the party ordering the levy may elect, with sureties to be approved by the clerk; and if such mortgagee is a nonresident or his residence is unknown, service may be made by publication as in other actions, but if such residence becomes known before final submission, the court may order personal service to be made. If commenced at law, the court may transfer the same to the equity side as in other cases. The court may appoint a receiver, and shall determine the amount due on the mortgage, the value of the property levied upon, and all other questions properly presented, and may continue and preserve or dismiss the lien of the levy, the costs to be taxed to the losing party as in other cases. If there are two or more mortgages, the creditor may admit the validity of one or more, and make the required deposit as to such, and contest the other, and where there are two or more such mortgages, each of which is questioned, a failure to establish the invalidity of all shall not defeat the rights of the levycreditor, but in such case the decree shall determine the priority of liens, and direct the order of payment out of the proceeds of the property which shall be sold under special execution to be awarded in said cause; but nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed to forbid or in any way affect the right of a creditor to contest in any other way the validity of any mortgage.

[C., '97, § 3988; S., '13, § 3988.]

SEC. 7672. Failure to make statement.
1. A failure to make the statement, when required as above provided, shall have the effect to postpone the lien of the mortgage and give the levy of the writ of attachment or execution priority over the claim of the holder thereof.

[C., '97, § 3989.]

SEC. 7673. Where mortgagee has been garnished.
1. If the mortgagee, before the levy of a writ of attachment or execution, has been garnished at the suit of a creditor of the mortgagee, a creditor desiring to seize the mortgaged property under a writ of attachment or execution shall pay to the holder of the mortgage, or deposit with the clerk, in addition to the mortgage debt, the sum claimed under the garnishment, and the provisions of this chapter, so far as applicable, in all respects shall govern proceedings relating thereto.

[C., '97, § 3990.]

SEC. 7674. Indemnifying bond—notice of claim to property.
1. An officer is bound to levy an execution on any personal property in the possession of, or that he has reason to believe belongs to, the defendant, or on which the plaintiff directs him to levy, unless he has received notice in writing under oath from some other person, his agent or attorney, that such property belongs to him; stating the nature of his interests therein, how and from whom he acquired the same, and consideration paid therefor; or from the defendant, that the property is exempt from execution; but failure to give such notice shall not deprive the party of any other remedy. Or, if after levy he receives such notice, such officer may release the property unless a bond is given as provided in the next section; but the officer shall be protected from all liability by reason of such levy until he receives such written notice.

[C., '51, § 1916; R., '60, § 3277; C., '73, § 3055; C., '97, § 3991.]

1. When the officer receives such notice he may forwith give the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, notice that an indemnifying bond is required. Bond may thereupon be given by or for the plaintiff, with one or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer, to the effect that the obligors will indemnify him against the damages which he may sustain in consequence of the seizure or sale of the property, and will pay to any claimant thereof the damages he may sustain in consequence of the seizure or sale, and will warrant to any purchaser of the property such estate or interest therein as is sold; and thereupon the officer shall proceed to subject the property to the execution, and shall return the indemnifying bond to the court from which the execution issued.

[R., '60, § 3277; C., '73, § 3056; C., '97, § 3992.]

SEC. 7676. Failure to give bond.

If such bond is not given, the officer may refuse to levy, or if he has done so, and the bond is not given in a reasonable time after it is required by the officer, he may restore the property to the person from whose possession it was taken, and the levy shall stand discharged.

[R., '60, § 3278; C., '73, § 3057; C., '97, § 3993.]

SEC. 7677. Application of proceeds.

Where property for the sale of which the officer is indemnified sells for more than enough to satisfy the execution under which it was taken, the surplus shall be paid into the court to which the indemnifying bond is directed to be returned. The court may order such disposition or payment of the money to be made, temporarily or absolutely, as may be proper in respect to the rights of the parties interested.

of any of them, for money received in a fiduciary capacity, or for the breach of any official duty, there may be a stay of execution, if the defendant therein shall, within ten days from the entry of judgment, REDEMPTION.

SECTION 7738. When sale absolute.

When real property has been levied upon, if the estate is less than a leasehold having two years of an unexpired term, the sale is absolute, but if of a larger amount, it is redeemable as hereinafter prescribed. [C., '51, § 1924; R., '60, §§ 3329, 3330; C., '73, §§ 3098, 3099; C., '97, § 4043.]

The debtor may redeem real property at any time within one year from the day of sale, and will, in the meantime, be entitled to the possession thereof; and for the first six months thereafter such right of redemption is exclusive; but no party who has taken an appeal from the superior or district court, or stayed execution on the judgment, shall be entitled to redeem. [C., '51, §§ 1926, 1927; R., '60, §§ 3332, 3333; C., '73, §§ 3102, 3103; C., '97, § 4045.]

SEC. 7740. By creditors.

If no redemption is made by the debtor as above provided, thereafter, and at any time within nine months from the day of sale, said redemption may be made by a mortgagee before or after the debt secured by the mortgage falls due, or by any creditor whose claim becomes a lien prior to the expiration of the time allowed for such redemption; but a mechanic's lien before judgment thereon is not of such character as to entitle the holder to redeem. The owner of a claim which has been allowed and established against the estate of a decedent may redeem as in this chapter provided, by making application to the district court or any judge of the district where the real estate to be redeemed is situated. Such application shall be heard after notice to such parties as said court or judge may direct, and shall be determined with due regard to rights of all persons interested. [C., '51, §§ 1927, 1928; R., '60, §§ 3333, 3334; C., '73, §§ 3103, 3104; C., '97, § 4046.]

[C., '51, § 1932; R., '60, §§ 3338, 3339; C., '73, §§ 3108, 3109;
C., '97, § 4049.]

SEC. 7744. Terms.
1 The terms of redemption, when made by a creditor, in all cases
2 shall be the reimbursement of the amount bid or paid by the holder
3 of the certificate, including all costs, with interest the same as the 4 lien redeemed from bears on the amount of such bid or payment, from 5 the time thereof, but where a mortgagee whose claim is not yet due 6 is the person from whom the redemption is thus to be made, he shall 7 receive on such mortgage only the amount of the principal thereby 8 secured, with unpaid interest thereon to the time of such redemption.
[C., '51, § 1930; R., '60, § 3336; C., '73, § 3106; C., '97,

4 added to the amount of his own lien, or the amount he has credited 5 thereon, if less than the whole, with interest at contract rate on the 6 certificate of sale from its date, and upon sums so paid by way of 7 redemption from date of payment, and upon the amount credited on 8 his own judgment from the time of said credit, in each case including 9 costs. All redemptions made under the provisions of this chapter 10 shall be made in the county where the sale is had.

2 who has last redeemed prior to the expiration of the nine months
3 aforesaid, will hold the property absolutely.
[C., '51, § 1935; R., '60, § 3343; C., '73, § 3113; C., '97, § 4054.]

SEC. 7749. Claim extinguished.
1 In case it is thus held by a redeeming creditor, his lien, and the 2 claim out of which it arose, will be held to be extinguished, unless he 3 pursues the course pointed out in the next section.
[C., '51, § 1936; R., '60, § 3344; C., '73, § 3114; C., '97, § 4055.]

SEC. 7750. Credit on judgment.
1 The mode of redemption by a lienholder shall be by paying into 2 the clerk's office the amount necessary to effect the same, computed
3 as above provided, and filing therein his affidavit, or that of his agent
4 or attorney, stating as nearly as practicable the nature of his lien and 5 the amount still due and unpaid thereon. If he is unwilling to hold the 6 property and credit the debtor thereon the full amount of his lien, he 7 must state the utmost amount he is willing to credit with. If 8 the amount paid to the clerk is in excess of the prior bid and liens, he 9 shall refund the excess to the party paying the same, and enter each
10 such redemption made by a lienholder upon the sale book, and credit
11 upon the lien, if a judgment in the court of which he is clerk, the full

2 amount of any lien, the person claiming such right may deposit the 3 necessary amount therefor with the clerk, accompanied with the affi-
4 davit above required, and also stating therein the nature of such ques-
5 tion or objection, which question or objection shall be submitted to 6 the court or a judge thereof as soon as practicable thereafter, upon 7 such notice as it or he shall prescribe of the time and place of the 8 hearing of the controversy, at which time and place the matter shall 9 be tried upon such evidence and in such manner as may be pre-may, upon the application of any person representing that a person has died intestate, leaving real estate, and none of the persons entitled by law to administer upon the estate of such deceased person has made application for letters of administration, appoint some responsible person as administrator, whose duty it shall be to ascertain the names, ages and places of residence of the surviving spouse of such intestate, to the surviving spouse, except sufficient to pay his debts and expenses of administration; but where the survivor is named as a devisee therein, it shall be presumed, unless the intention is clear and explicit to the contrary, that such devise is in lieu of such distributive share, homestead and exemptions. No devise or bequest, however, to a cor-

[C., '51, § 1393; R., '60, § 2425; C., '73, § 2439; C., '97, § 3365.]

The same share of the real estate of a deceased wife shall be set apart to the surviving husband. All provisions made in this chapter in regard to

As against a purchaser from a nonresident alien, the survivor shall not be entitled to a distributive share in the estate of the deceased, if at the time of the purchase such survivor was also a nonresident alien.

[C., '73, § 2442; C., '97, § 3368.]

SEC. 7894. Setting off survivor's share.

The survivor's share may be set off by the mutual consent of all parties in interest, or by referees appointed by the court or the judge thereof, the application therefor to be made in writing, after twenty days from the death of the intestate and within ten years, which application must describe the land in which the share is claimed, and pray the appointment of referees to set it off.

SEC. 7896. Shares marked off.

The referees may employ a surveyor, if necessary, and must cause the shares to be marked off by metes and bounds, and make report of their proceedings to the court as early as practicable.

[C., '51, § 1399; R., '60, § 2430; C., '73, § 2446; C., '97, § 3371.]

The court or judge may require a report by such a time as it thinks reasonable, and if the referees fail to obey this or any other of its orders, it may discharge them and appoint others in their stead, and impose upon them the payment of all costs previously made, unless they show good cause against it.

[C., '51, § 1400; R., '60, § 2431; C., '73, § 2447; C., '97, § 3372.]

SEC. 7898. Confirmation—new reference.
1 The court may confirm the report, or set it aside and refer the matter to the same or other referees, at its discretion, which confirmation, after the lapse of thirty days, unless appealed from, shall be binding and conclusive, and the survivor may bring an action to obtain possession of the land set apart.

1 If the referees report that the property or any part of it can not be readily divided, the court may order the whole sold and one-third of the proceeds paid over to the survivor, but no sale shall be made if anyone interested gives security to the satisfaction of the court, conditioned to pay the survivor the appraised value of the share, with eight per cent interest on the same, within such reasonable time as it may fix, not exceeding one year. If no such arrangement is made, such survivor may keep the property by giving like security to pay the claims of all others interested upon like terms. With any money thus obtained, the survivor may procure a homestead, which shall be exempt from liability for all debts from which the former homestead would have been exempt, and such sale shall not be ordered so long as those in interest shall express a contrary desire and agree upon some mode of sharing and dividing the rents, profits or use thereof, or shall consent that the court divide it by rent, profits or use.

SEC. 7901. Share not affected by will—election—made by court.

Where a voluntary election to take or refuse to take under a will has not been filed by a surviving spouse within sixty days from the date when the will of a decedent has been admitted to probate, it shall be the duty of the executor appointed to administer the will of such decedent in this state, to cause to be served, in the manner required for service of original notice, upon the surviving spouse, a notice, in writing, advising such surviving spouse that the will of such decedent has been admitted to probate, stating the name of the court and the date when the will was admitted to probate, and requiring that such spouse, within six months after the completed service of such notice, elect whether he or she shall take or refuse to take under the provisions of open court or by writing filed in such court, which election, when made, shall be entered on the proper records thereof. The same notice may be given by any other person interested in the estate of decedent, and shall have the same force and effect as if given by the executor.

In case such surviving spouse does not make such election within six months from the date of the completed service of such notice, it shall be conclusively presumed that such survivor consents to the provisions of the will and elects to take thereunder; unless within such period of six months, an affidavit shall be filed setting forth that such surviving spouse is mentally incapable of making such election. In case such

1 Whenever it appears by the affidavit of the plaintiff, or by the 2 return of the attachment, that no property is known to the plaintiff

6 three disinterested persons; which inventory and appraisement shall 7 be returned by the officer with the attachment, and such return shall

5 the plaintiff makes affidavit to that effect, the sheriff may summon 6 three persons having the qualifications of jurors to examine the same.
7 The sheriff shall give the defendant, if within the county, three days'
8 notice of such hearing, and he may appear before such jury and have 9 a personal hearing. If they are of the opinion that the property
10 requires soon to be disposed of, they shall specify in writing a day 11 beyond which they do not deem it prudent that it should be kept in 12 the hands of the sheriff. If such day occurs before the trial day, he 13 shall thereupon give the same notice as for sale of goods on execution, 14 and for the same length of time, unless the condition of the property
15 renders a more immediate sale necessary. The sale shall be made

If such debt or property, or any part thereof, is found to be thus exempt or not liable, the garnishee shall be discharged as to that part which is exempt or not liable.

DISPUTED CORNERS AND BOUNDARIES.

SECTION 8109. When allowed.
1 When one or more owners of land, the corners and boundaries of 2 which are lost, destroyed or in dispute, desire to have the same established, they may bring an action in the district court of the county where such lost, destroyed or disputed corners or boundaries, or part thereof, are situated, against the owners of the other tracts which will be affected by the determination or establishment thereof, to have such corners or boundaries ascertained and permanently established. If any public road is likely to be affected thereby, the proper county shall be made defendant.

[C., '97, § 4228.]

SEC. 8110. Notice.

Notice of such action shall be given as in other cases, and if the defendants or any of them are nonresidents of the state, or unknown, they may be served by publication as is provided by law.

[C., '97, § 4229.]

SEC. 8111. Pleadings—trial of issue.

The action shall be a special one, and the only necessary pleading therein shall be the petition of plaintiff describing the land involved, and, so far as may be, the interest of the respective parties, and asking that certain corners and boundaries therein described, as accurately as may be, shall be established, and either the plaintiff or defendant may, by proper plea, put in issue the fact that certain alleged boundaries or corners are the true ones, or that such have been recognized and acquiesced in by the parties or their grantors for a period of ten consecutive years, which issue may be tried before commission is appointed, in the discretion of the court.

[C., '97, § 4230.]

SEC. 8112. Commissioners.

The court in which said action is brought shall appoint a commission of one or more disinterested surveyors, who shall, at a date and place fixed by the court in the order of appointment, proceed to locate the lost, destroyed or disputed corners and boundaries.

[C., '97, § 4232.]

SEC. 8114. Hearing.

At the time and in the manner specified in the order of court, the commission shall proceed to locate said boundaries and corners, and for that purpose may take the testimony of witnesses as to where the true boundaries and corners are located, and, if that issue is presented, shall also take testimony as to whether the boundaries and corners alleged to have been recognized and acquiesced in for ten years or more have in fact been recognized and acquiesced in, and, if it finds affirmatively on such issue, shall incorporate the same into the report to the court.

[C., '97, § 4233.]
SEC. 8115. Adjournments—report.
1 The proceedings may be adjourned by the commission from time
2 to time as may be necessary, but the survey and location of the cor-
3 ners and boundaries must be completed and the report thereof filed 4 with the clerk of the court at least ten days before the first day of 5 the term next following that of its appointment, unless there are good 6 and sufficient reasons for delay.

[C., '97, § 4234.]

SEC. 8116. Exceptions—hearing in court.
1 At the term of court after such report is filed, any party inter-
2 ested may file exceptions thereto before noon of the second day of the 3 term, and the court shall hear and determine them, hearing evidence in 4 addition to that reported by the commission, if necessary, and may 5 approve or modify such report, or again refer the matter to the same 6 or another commission for further report.

[C., '97, § 4235.]

SEC. 8117. Corners and boundaries established.
1 The corners and boundaries finally established by the court in 2 such proceeding, or on appeal therefrom, shall be binding upon the 3 parties as the corners or boundaries which had been lost, destroyed or 4 in dispute, but if it is found that the boundaries and corners alleged 5 to have been recognized and acquiesced in for ten years have been so
6 recognized and acquiesced in, such recognized boundaries and corners
7 shall be permanently established.

[C., '97, § 4236.]

SEC. 8118. Appeal.
1 There shall be no appeal in such proceeding, except from final
2 judgment of the court, taken in the time and manner that other ap-
3 peals are, and heard as in an action by ordinary proceedings.

[C., '97, § 4237.]

SEC. 8119. Costs.
1 The costs in the proceeding shall be taxed as the court shall think 2 just, and shall be a lien on the land or interest therein owned by the 3 party or parties against whom they are taxed, so far as such land is 4 involved in the proceeding.

[C., '97, § 4238.]

SEC 8120. Agreements.
1 Any lost or disputed corner or boundary may be determined by 2 written agreement of all parties thereby affected, signed and acknowl-
3 edged by each as required for conveyances of real estate, clearly 4 designating the same, and accompanied by a plat thereof, which shall 5 be recorded as an instrument affecting real estate, and shall be bind-

If such title, or any portion thereof, is not in writing or does not appear of record, such fact shall be stated in the abstract, and either party shall furnish the adverse party with a copy of any unrecorded conveyance, or with a reasonable excuse for not so doing, within a reasonable time after demand therefor. No written evidence of title shall be introduced on the trial unless it has been sufficiently referred to in such abstract which, on motion, may be made more specific, and may be amended as other pleadings.

[C., '73, § 3279; C., '97, § 4242.]

SEC. 8124. Contingent interests.

Persons having apparent or contingent interests in such property may be made parties to the proceedings, and the proceeds of the property so situated, or the property itself in case of partition, shall be subject to the order of the court until the right becomes fully vested. The ascertained share of any absent owner shall be retained, or the proceeds invested for his benefit, under like order.

[C., '51, §§ 2069, 2070; R., '60, §§ 3647, 3648; C., '73, § 3280; C., '97, § 4243.]

[C., '51, § 2032; R., '60, § 3610; C., '73, § 3282; C., '97, § 4245.]

4 the property.

[C., '51, §§ 2045, 2046; R., '60, §§ 3623, 3624; C., '73, § 3284;

§ 4248.]

SEC. 8130. Issue as to incumbrances.
1 If any question arises as to the validity or amount of an incum-
2 brance, or the payment of the same, the court may direct an issue to 3 be made up between the incumbrancer and an owner, and an adjudica-
4 tion thereon shall be decisive of their respective rights; and, upon a 5 sale, it may order the money to be retained or invested to await final 6 action in relation to its disposition, and notice thereof to be forthwith
7 given to the incumbrancer unless he has already been made a party.

[C., '51, §§ 2050, 2051; R., '60, §§ 3628, 3629; C., '73, § 3286;
C., '97, § 4249.]

1 If the lien is upon one or more undivided interests, the holder
2 thereof shall be made a party, and the lien shall, after partition or 3 sale, remain a charge upon the particular interests or the proceeds 4 thereof, but the amount of costs is a charge upon those interests, para-

[C., '51, § 2031; R., '60, § 3609; C., '73, § 3287; C., '97,

1. After all the shares and interests of the parties have been settled in any of the methods aforesaid, decree shall be rendered establishing the rights of the parties, confirming the shares and interests of the owners of the lands, and directing partition to be made accordingly.

[C., '51, § 2037; R., '60, § 3615; C., '73, § 3289; C., '97, § 4252.]

SEC. 8134. Partition—referees appointed—possession—lease.
1. Upon entering such decree, the court shall appoint referees to make partition, unless the parties agree to a sale of the property, or where it is shown that the property can not be equitably divided into the requisite number of shares, a sale shall be ordered. Three referees shall be appointed to make partition, unless the parties to the suit agree to a less number, but where it is shown that partition can not be made and a sale is ordered, the court may fix the number. Where there is a delay in making sale and the owners of the property are not able to agree as to the possession or leasing of the same, the court may make such order as to the possession and leasing of said property by the referee as may be found to be for the best interests of the owners of said property.

[C., '51, §§ 2038, 2040, 2041; R., '60, §§ 3616, 3618, 3619; C., '73, § 3290; C., '97, § 4253; S., '13, § 4253.]

SEC. 8135. Shares marked out.
1. When a partition is ordered, the referees must mark out the shares by visible monuments, and may employ a competent surveyor and assistants to aid them therein, if necessary.

[C., '51, § 2059; R., '60, § 3637; C., '73, § 3291; C., '97, § 4254.]

SEC. 8137. Special allotments.
1. For good and sufficient reasons appearing to the court, the referees may be directed to allot particular portions of the land to particular individuals. In other cases the shares must be made as nearly as possible of equal value.

2 rendered confirming the partition and apportioning the costs as herein
3 provided, entering judgment therefor. Upon the rendition of such 4 decree the clerk shall file with the county recorder of the county a duly 5 certified transcript of such part of the entire decree, in the case in 6 which partition has been ordered, as may be necessary to show the 7 volume and page where such decree is recorded, and the confirmation 8 of the shares and interests of the parties in the property of which 9 partition is made, and the names of the parties who are found entitled
10 to such shares, and an accurate description of each of the shares
11 allotted to the several owners; and such transcript shall be presented 12 to the county auditor for transfer and recorded in the deed records of 13 the county where the action was brought and also in the other counties
14 in the state, if any, where any of the property so partitioned is situ-
15 ated; and in such case the clerk shall transmit to the county recorder 16 of each of such other counties a duplicate of such transcript, and the 17 same shall be there so recorded and transfer so made. Such transcript 18 shall be indexed in the recorder’s office the same as conveyances of 19 real estate with the names of the parties so entitled to such shares as 20 grantors, and the name of the party to whom each share is allotted as 21 grantee. The costs of making and recording such transcript shall be

1 In actions for partition of real estate, when a decree ordering

3 attorney, as costs in the case, an attorney’s fee; but in no case shall the 4 amount so taxed exceed the following, to wit: for the first two hundred 5 dollars or fraction thereof, ten per cent; for the next three hundred 6 dollars, five per cent; for the next five hundred dollars, three per cent;
7 and for all excess over above amounts, one per cent of the value of 8 the property partitioned. Such value to be determined by the court 9 or the appraisement, or by the sale when sale is ordered.

[C., '51, § 2043; R., '60, § 3621; C., '73, § 3299; C., '97, § 4264.]

After completing said sale, the referees must report their proceedings to the court, with a description of the different parcels sold to each purchaser and the price bid therefor, which report shall be filed with the clerk.

[C., '51, § 2044; R., '60, § 3622; C., '73, § 3300; C., '97, § 4265.]

3 shall be made of the proceeds of such sale, the court must direct it to 4 be invested in real estate, under the supervision of such person as it
5 may appoint, taking the title in the name of the owner of the share

7 shall not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars the court may in its 8 discretion direct the same to be paid to the owner or two-thirds to 9 the owner and one-third to the spouse; and provided, further, that in 10 all cases when it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that the 11 owner has been abandoned by the husband or wife, the whole amount 12 shall be paid to the owner and no agreement therefor shall be required.

SEC. 8152. Life estates.
1 If a tenant for life or years is entitled as such to a part of the pro-
2 ceeds of sale, and the parties can not agree upon a sum in gross which 3 they will consider an equivalent for such estate, the court shall direct
4 the avails of the incumbered property to be invested, and the proceeds
5 to be paid to the incumbrancer during the term of the incumbrance.
[C., '51, § 2052; R., '60, § 3630; C., '73, § 3306; C., '97,

When such a bond is filed and written notice of such filing given the person, firm, partnership, or corporation claiming a lien, as aforesaid, the lien, if any, shall be discharged from the personal property and shall be merged in the bond upon which there shall be a right of action to the extent of the lien on the personal property at the time the bond was filed; and if the person, firm, partnership or corporation claiming a lien has the possession of said personal property, such possession shall be surrendered to the owner of the property. If the person, firm, partnership, or corporation claiming the lien fails, neglects, or refuses to surrender said personal property after the bond has been filed and notice served as aforesaid, the owner of said personal property may bring an action for the possession of the specific personal property or pursue any other remedy provided by law to enforce that right. An action upon such bond shall be brought in the county where the principal on the bond resides; but where the aforesaid principal is a nonresident of the state, the action shall be brought in the county where the bond is filed.

MANDAMUS.

SECTION 8231. Definition.
1 The action of mandamus is one brought to obtain an order com-
2 manding an inferior tribunal, board, corporation or person to do or 3 not to do an act, the performance or omission of which the law enjoins
4 as a duty resulting from an office, trust or station. Where discretion
5 is left to the inferior tribunal or person, the mandamus can only 6 compel it to act, but can not control such discretion. All such actions 7 shall be tried as equitable actions.

[C., '51, § 2180; R., '60, §§ 3761, 3763; C., '73, § 3373; C., '97, § 4341; S., '13, § 4341.]

1 The plaintiff in any action, except those brought for the recovery
2 of specific real or personal property, may also, as an auxiliary relief,
3 have an order of mandamus to compel the performance of a duty
4 established in such action. But if such duty, the performance of 5 which is sought to be compelled, is not one resulting from an office,
6 trust or station, it must be one for the breach of which a legal right
7 to damages is already complete at the commencement of the action, 8 and must also be a duty of which a court of equity would enforce the 9 performance.

[R., '60, § 3767; C., '73, § 3375; C., '97, § 4343.]

SEC. 8234. Other remedy.

1 An order of mandamus shall not be issued in any case where
2 there is a plain, speedy and adequate remedy in the ordinary course
3 of the law, save as herein provided.

4 public interest is concerned, and is in the name of such private party
5 or of the state, as the case may be in fact brought.

[R., '60, § 3761; C., '73, § 3377; C., '97, § 4345.]

1 The plaintiff in such action shall state his claim, and shall also 2 state facts sufficient to constitute a cause for such claim, and shall 3 also set forth that the plaintiff, if a private individual, is personally 4 interested therein, and that he sustains and may sustain damage by 5 the nonperformance of such duty, and that performance thereof has 6 been demanded by him, and refused or neglected, and shall pray an 7 order of mandamus commanding the defendant to fulfill such duty.

[R., '60, § 3762; C., '73, § 3378; C., '97, § 4346.]

SEC. 8237. Other pleadings.

1 The pleadings and other proceedings in any action in which a 2 mandamus is claimed shall be the same, as nearly as may be, and costs'
3 shall be recoverable by either party, as in an ordinary action for the 4 recovery of damages.

[R., '60, § 3766; C., '73, § 3379; C., '97, § 4347.]

SEC. 8238. Injunction may issue—joinder.

2 with a cause of action for such an injunction as may be obtained by ordinary proceedings, or with the causes of action specified in this chapter, but no other joinder and no counterclaim shall be allowed. [R., '60, § 4181; C., '73, § 3380; C., '97, § 4348.]

[R., '60, § 3768; C., '73, § 3381; C., '97, § 4349.]

SEC. 8240. Return.
1 The order shall simply command the performance of the duty, shall be directed to the party, and may be issued in term or vacation, returnable forthwith, and no return except that of compliance shall be allowed; but time to return it may, upon sufficient grounds, be allowed by the court or judge, either with or without terms. [R., '60, § 3769; C., '73, § 3382; C., '97, § 4350.]

SEC. 8241. Performance by another—costs.
1 The court may, upon application of the plaintiff, besides or instead of proceeding against the defendant by attachment, direct that the act required to be done may be done by the plaintiff or some other person appointed by the court, at the expense of the defendant, and, upon the act being done, the amount of such expense may be ascertained by the court, or by a referee appointed by the court or judge, and the court may render judgment for the amount of the expense and cost, and enforce payment thereof by execution. [R., '60, § 3770; C., '73, § 3383; C., '97, § 4351.]

ASSIGNMENT FOR BENEFIT OF CREDITORS.

SECTION 8407. Must be without preferences.
1 No general assignment of property by an insolvent person, firm
2 or corporation, or in contemplation of insolvency, for the benefit of 3 creditors, shall be valid unless it be made for the benefit of all the 4 creditors in proportion to the amount of their respective claims; and 5 in every such assignment the assent of the creditors shall be presumed.

[C., '51, §§ 977, 978; R., '60, §§ 1826, 1827; C., '73, §§ 2115,
2116; C., '97, § 3071.]

SEC. 8408. How made—inventory—effect—recording.
1 Every such assignment shall be by an instrument in writing,
2 setting forth the name of the assignor, his residence and business,
3 the name of the assignee and his residence and business, and, in a gen-
4 eral way, the property assigned and its location, and the purpose of the 5 assignment; it shall be signed and acknowledged in the manner pre-6 scribed for the execution and acknowledgment of deeds, and recorded 7 in the office of the recorder of the county where the assignor resides, 8 and in any other county in the state in which he has real property to 9 be assigned thereby, in the records of deeds, and indexed in the proper index books. The assignor shall annex to such instrument an inventory, under oath, of his estate, real and personal, according to the best of his knowledge, and a list of his creditors and the amount of their respective demands, but such inventory shall not be conclusive as to the amount of the debtor's estate; and such assignment shall vest in the assignee the title to any other property belonging to the debtor at the time of making the assignment, not exempt from execution. As soon as such assignment is recorded, it shall be filed, with the inventory and list of creditors, in the office of the clerk of the district court, as shall all subsequent papers connected with such proceedings.

[R., '60, § 1828; C., '73, § 2117; C., '97, § 3072.]

SEC. 8409. Assignee—inventory and appraisement—removal.
1 The assignee shall forthwith file with the clerk of the district
2 court where such assignor resides a true and full inventory and valuation of said estate under oath, so far as the same has come to his knowledge, and shall then enter into bonds to said clerk, for the use of the creditors, in double the amount of the inventory and valuation, with one or more sureties to be approved by said clerk, for the faithful performance of said trust, and the assignee may thereupon proceed 8 to perform any duty necessary to carry into effect the purpose of said 9 assignment.

[R., '60, § 1830; C., '73, § 2118; C., '97, § 3073.]

SEC. 8410. Notice.
1 The assignee shall forthwith give notice of such assignment by 2 publication in some newspaper in the county, which shall be contin-

4 mail to each creditor of whom he shall be informed, directed to his §§ 8411-8415. ASSIGNMENT FOR BENEFIT OF CREDITORS. Tit. XXXI, Ch. 30.

The claims of all creditors, clearly and distinctly stated and sworn to by the claimant, or by some person acquainted with the facts, shall be filed with the assignee within three months from the date of the first publication provided for in the preceding section, unless the court extends such time for all or some of such claimants, which it may do in its discretion where peculiar circumstances seem to justify such extension, but in no case shall such time be extended beyond nine months.

[C., '97, § 3074.]

SEC. 8412. List of creditors.

At the expiration of three months from the time of first publishing notice, the assignee shall report and file with the clerk of the court a true and full list, under oath, of all such creditors of the assignor as shall have claimed to be such, with a statement of their claims, an affidavit of publication of notice, and a list of the creditors, with their places of residence, to whom notice has been sent by mail, and the date of mailing the same.

[R., '60, § 1831; C., '73, § 2120; C., '97, § 3076.]

SEC. 8413. Claims contested.

Any person interested may appear within three months after such report is filed and contest the claim or demand of any creditor by written exceptions thereto filed with the clerk, who shall forthwith cause notice thereof to be given to the creditor, which shall be served as in case of an original notice and returnable at the next term, at which term the court shall proceed to hear the proofs and allegations of the parties in the case, and render such judgment thereon as shall be just, or it may allow a trial by jury.

[R., '60, § 1832; C., '73, § 2121; C., '97, § 3077.]

SEC. 8414. Priority of taxes.

In all assignments of property for the benefit of creditors, assessments thereof or taxes levied thereon, whether under the laws of the state or ordinances of municipal corporations, shall be entitled to priority, and paid in full by the assignee, and claims therefor need not be filed with him.

[C., '97, § 3078.]

SEC. 8415. Claims for services preferred—dividends—reports—compensation.

If the claim of any creditor is for personal services rendered the assignor within ninety days next preceding the execution of the assignment, it shall be paid in full. Subject to the provisions contained in this and the preceding section, if no exception be made to the claim of any creditor, or if the same has been adjudicated, the court shall order the assignee to make, from time to time, fair and equal dividends among the creditors of the assets in his hands in proportion to their claims, and as soon as may be to render a final account of said trust to said court, which may allow such compensation to said assignee in the final settlement as may be considered just and right. If, upon making the final dividend to the creditors, the assignee shall be unable, after reasonable efforts, to ascertain the place of residence of any creditor, or any person who is authorized to receive the dividend due him, he shall report the same to the court, with evidence showing diligent attempts to find such creditor or person authorized to receive the dividend, whereupon the court may, in its discretion, order the distribution of the unclaimed dividend among the other creditors.

SEC. 8416. Settlement.

The assignee shall be at all times subject to the order and supervision of the court or judge, and from time to time may be compelled by citation or attachment to file reports of his proceedings and of the situation and condition of the trust, and to proceed in the execution of the duties required by this chapter; and he shall dispose of all personal property and divide the proceeds of the same among creditors as they may be entitled thereto within six months from the date of the assignment, and shall dispose of real estate within one year from such date, and make full settlement by that time, unless the court or judge, for good reason shown, shall extend the time within which such disposition or settlement shall be made.

SEC. 8417. Assignment not void—citation to debtor.

No assignment shall be declared fraudulent or void for want of any list or inventory, as provided in this chapter. The court or judge may, upon application of the assignee or any creditor, compel the appearance in person of the debtor before such court or judge forthwith, or at the next term, to answer under oath such matters as may be inquired of him, and such debtor may be fully examined under oath as to the amount and situation of his estate, and the names of the creditors and amounts due to each, with their places of residence, and may be compelled to deliver to the assignee any property or estate embraced in the assignment.

[R., '60, § 1835; C., '73, § 2124; C., '97, § 3081.]

SEC. 8418. Additional inventory.

The assignee shall, from time to time, file with the clerk of the court an inventory and valuation of any additional property which may come into his hands under said assignment after the filing of the first inventory, and the clerk may thereupon require him to give additional security.

[R., '60, § 1836; C., '73, § 2125; C., '97, § 3082.]

SEC. 8419. Claims not due—filed after three months.

Any creditor may claim debts to become due, as well as debts due, but on debts not due a reasonable rebate shall be made when the same are not drawing interest, and all creditors who shall not file their claims within three months from the publication of notice, as afore-
§§ 8420-8423. ASSIGNMENT FOR BENEFIT OF CREDITORS. Tit. XXXI, Ch. 30.

[R., '60, § 1837; C., '73, § 2126; C., '97, § 3083.]

SEC. 8420. Sale of property.

1 The assignee may dispose of and sell all the estate assigned, real and personal, which the debtor had at the time of the assignment, may sue for and recover in his name everything belonging or appertaining to said estate, and generally do whatever the debtor might have done in the premises; but no sale of real estate belonging to said trust shall be made without notice, published as in case of sales of real estate on execution, unless the court or judge shall otherwise order, and no such sales shall be valid until approved by such court or judge.

[R., '60, § 1838; C., '73, § 2127; C., '97, § 3084.]

SEC. 8421. Removal of assignee.

Upon a written application of two-thirds of the creditors in number, and two-thirds in amount, the court shall remove the assignee and appoint in his stead a person approved by the creditors in the same number and amount, and the person so removed shall immediately turn over to the clerk of the district court, or any person appointed by the court, all moneys and property of the estate in his hands. If an assignee shall reside out of the state, or become insane or otherwise incapable of discharging the trust, the court may, upon ten days' notice to him or his attorney, remove him and appoint another in his stead.

[R., '60, § 1830; C., '73, § 2118; C., '97, § 3085.]

SEC. 8422. Death of assignee—failure to act—misconduct.

1 If an assignee dies before the closing of his trust, or in case any assignee shall fail or neglect for the period of twenty days after the making of any assignment to file an inventory and valuation, and give bond as required by this chapter, the district court, or any judge thereof, of the county where such assignment may be recorded, on the application of any person interested, shall appoint some person to execute the trust, who shall, on giving bond with sureties as required of an assignee, have all of the powers of the assignee first appointed, and be subject to all the duties hereby imposed. In case any bond or surety is found to be insufficient, or, on complaint before the court or judge, it shall be made to appear that any assignee is guilty of wasting or misapplying the trust estate, such court or judge may require additional security, may remove the assignee and appoint another in his place, and such person so appointed, on giving bond, shall execute such duties, and may demand and sue for all estate in the hands of the person removed, and recover the amount and value of all moneys and property or estate wasted and misapplied, from such person and his sureties.

[R., '60, § 1839; C., '73, § 2128; C., '97, § 3086.]

SECURITIES AND INVESTMENTS OF TRUST FUNDS.

SECTION 8424. Security to be by bond.
1 Whenever security is required to be given by law or by order or 2 judgment of a court, and no particular mode is prescribed, it shall be 3 by bond.

Sec. 8425. To whom payable.
1 Such security, when not otherwise directed, may, if for the benefit
2 of individuals, be given to the party intended to be secured thereby; if 3 in relation to the public matters concerning the inhabitants of one 4 county or part of a county, it may be made payable to the county; if 5 concerning the inhabitants of more than one county, it may be made
6 payable to the state, but a mere mistake in these respects will not 7 vitiate the security.

Sec. 8426. Defects rectified.
1 No defective bond or other security or affidavit in any case shall 2 prejudice the party giving or making it, provided it be so rectified,
3 within a reasonable time after the defect is discovered, as not to cause
4 essential injury to the other party.

Sec. 8427. Bonds to secure performance of public contracts in excess of one thousand dollars.
1 Whenever any public body, board, committee, officer or other
2 public representative now or hereafter empowered by law to enter into 3 a contract, for and on behalf of the public, for the purpose of con-
4 structing any public building, or for the purpose of making any public 5 improvement, or for the making of any additions thereto, or for the 6 finishing, furnishing or repairing of any such buildings or public work,
7 such body, board, committee, officer or other public representative, 8 whenever the contract price is in excess of one thousand dollars, shall 9 require as a condition precedent to the making of such contract that 10 the person, firm or corporation to whom the contract is awarded fur-11 nish and file a bond, as hereinafter provided, in a sum of not less than 12 the contract price, the amount to be determined by those representing 13 the public, signed by the contractor and a responsible surety company
14 authorized to do business in Iowa, which bond shall run to said body, 15 board, committee, or other public representative, for its use and bene-
16 fit and for the use and benefit of all persons, firms and corporations 17 who shall perform any labor or furnish any material, including fuel, in 18 the carrying out of such public contract, and shall have as one of its 19 conditions, the following paragraph:
"Now, therefore, the condition of this obligation is such that if the principal shall faithfully perform the contract on his part, and satisfy all claims and demands, incurred for the same, and shall fully indemnify and save harmless the owner from all cost and damage which he may suffer by reason of failure so to do, and shall fully reimburse and repay the owner all outlay and expense which the owner may incur in making good any such default, and shall pay all persons who have contracts directly with the principal for subcontractors for labor or materials, then this obligation shall be null and void; otherwise it shall remain in full force and effect."
The foregoing condition shall at all times be additional to those conditions and requirements now or hereafter required by statute to be a part of such bonds. The provisions and requirements of this section and the three following sections shall not be modified or annulled by contrary provisions in any such bond or contract.

SEC. 8428. Executed in duplicate—copy filed in office of clerk of district court—suit thereon.
Such bond shall be executed in duplicate, one copy of which shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which such public work is to be performed; and any person for whose benefit the bond is given, or his assigns, may bring an action on such bond for the recovery of such indebtedness; provided that no such action shall be brought on said bond after six months of the completion of any public improvement or building, and provided that a verified, itemized statement of the claim shall be filed with the city clerk, county auditor or secretary of the school board, as the case may be, within sixty days after the last item of material is furnished or labor performed.

SEC. 8429. Contract of no validity unless bond filed and clerk's indorsement thereon.
No public contract coming within the provisions of this chapter shall be of any validity until the bond mentioned herein has been executed and filed in the form and bearing the conditions as provided by this chapter, and until there is indorsed on said contract the written indorsement of the clerk of the district court of the county in which such public work is to be performed that such a bond, properly executed, is now on file in his office.

SEC. 8430. Three preceding sections construed as additional security.
The three preceding sections shall be construed as affording additional security to that now provided such claimants under existing statutes and not so as to affect existing mechanic's lien laws or other statutes providing for the filing of similar claims, and so as not to apply to bonds furnished under the requirements of chapter two, title fifteen.
SEC. 8431. Qualifications of sureties—attorneys not accepted.

1 The surety in every bond provided for or authorized by law must be a resident of this state, and worth double the sum to be secured beyond the amount of his debts, and have property liable to execution in this state equal to the sum to be secured, except as otherwise provided by law. Where there are two or more sureties in the same bond, they must in the aggregate have the qualification prescribed in this section. Attorneys at law shall not be accepted as sureties upon any official bonds provided for in this section. Whenever the board of supervisors of any county shall have knowledge that any attorney at law is surety upon any official bond, above referred to, it shall require said officer to forthwith file a new bond. But nothing herein shall exempt such person from any liability upon the bond signed by him.

[R., '60, § 4126; C., '73, § 249; C., '97, § 358; S., '13, § 358.]

SEC. 8432. Affidavit of sureties—effect of—guarantee companies as sureties.

1 The officer whose duty it is to take a surety in any bond provided for or authorized by law shall require the person offered as surety to make affidavit of his qualification, which affidavit may be made before such officer, or other officer authorized to administer oaths. The taking of such an affidavit shall not exempt the officer from any liability to which he might otherwise be subject for taking insufficient security. Any company engaged in the business of becoming surety upon bonds shall file, with the clerk of any county in which it shall do business, a certificate from the commissioner of insurance that it has complied with the law and is authorized to do business in this state; and, should said authority be withdrawn at any time, the commissioner of insurance shall at once notify the clerk of each district court to that effect. The clerk shall keep a book, properly indexed, in which shall be recorded all such certificates and revocations.

SEC. 8433. When guaranty company may be accepted as surety—premium—not applicable to criminal cases.

1 Whenever any person who now or hereafter may be required or permitted to give a bond applies for the approval thereof, any officer or body who is now or shall hereafter be required to approve the sufficiency of such bond shall accept and approve the same, whenever its conditions are guaranteed by a company or corporation duly organized or incorporated under the laws of this state, or authorized to do business therein, and to guarantee the fidelity of persons holding positions of public or private trust, or secure any bond above referred to, and which company shall have the certificate of the commissioner of insurance authorizing it to do business therein, as provided in chapter seven, title eighteen, and the premium for any such guaranty or surety company bond as defined in this section, may, by the approval of the court, be paid out of the trust funds in the hands of the party of whom the bond is required. The certificate of the commissioner of insurance, to the effect that such company has complied with the requirements of said chapter and title and is authorized to do business in this state, shall be sufficient evidence to authorize the officer or body having the approval of such bond to accept and approve the same, but no such security shall be accepted on any bond for an amount in excess of ten per cent of the paid-up cash capital of such company or corporation unless the excess shall be reinsured in some other company or corporation authorized to do business in the state and in no case to exceed ten per cent of the capital of the reinsuring company and provided that a certificate of such reinsurance shall be furnished to the insured, but nothing herein contained shall apply to bonds in criminal cases.

[C., '97, § 360; S. S., '15, § 360.]

SEC. 8434. Release from liability—same as private persons.

1 Such company or corporation may be released from its liability
2 as such surety on any bond on the same terms and conditions, and in 3 the same manner, as is by law prescribed for the release of natural 4 persons as such sureties; it being the intent of this chapter to enable 5 companies created, incorporated or chartered for such purposes to 6 become surety on bonds required by law, subject to all the rights and

When thus filed and 15 approved, the clerk shall issue a written order requiring the appellee 16 and all others to stay all proceedings under such judgment or order, 17 or so much thereof as is superseded thereby, but no appeal or stay shall 18 vacate or affect such judgment or order.

1 At the term of court at which grand jurors are required to appear,
2 the names of the twelve persons constituting the panel of the grand
3 jury shall, on the second day of each term of court, unless otherwise 4 ordered by the court or judge, be placed by the clerk in a box, and 5 after thoroughly mixing the same, he shall draw therefrom seven 6 names, and the persons so drawn shall constitute the grand jury for 7 that term. Should any of the persons so drawn be excused or fail to 8 attend on said second day of the court, the clerk shall draw other 9 names until the seven grand jurors are secured.
[C., '51, § 2881; R., '60, §§ 4608-4610; C., '73, §§ 4255-4257;
C., '97, § 5240; S., '13, § 5240.]

Sec. 9300. Additional drawings.
1 If, for any reason, the number of grand jurors required is not
2 secured from the twelve persons so constituting such panel, the clerk
3 shall draw from the grand jury list, provided for by section seventy 4 hundred two, such number of names as the court may direct, and from 5 the persons whose names are so drawn the panel of the grand jury
6 for the term shall be filled, and the court shall issue a venire to secure 7 their attendance.
[C., '51, § 2881; R., '60, §§ 4608-4610; C., '73, §§ 4255-4257;
C., '97, § 5240; S., '13, § 5240.]
SEC. 9301. Challenge to panel—motion.

1 A defendant held to answer for a public offense may, before the grand jury is sworn, challenge the panel, only for the reason that it was not selected, drawn or summoned as prescribed by law. A defendant indicted not having been held to answer, or having been so held after the impaneling of the grand jury, may for the same reasons object to the panel by motion, but the right to make such motion is waived by entering a plea to an indictment.

[C., '51, §§ 2882, 2883, 2890; R., '60, §§ 4611, 4612, 4619; C., '73, §§ 4258, 4260, 4266; C., '97, § 5241.]

SEC. 9302. Joinder in challenges.

1 When several persons are held to answer for one and the same offense, no challenge to the panel can be made unless they all join therein.

[C., '51, § 2890; R., '60, § 4619; C., '73, § 4266; C., '97, § 5242.]

SEC. 9303. Grounds of challenge.

1 A challenge to an individual grand juror may be made before the grand jury is sworn as follows:

2 By the state or the defendant, because the grand juror does not possess the qualifications required by law.

3 By the state only because:

4 1. He is related either by affinity or consanguinity nearer than in the fifth degree, or stands in the relation of agent, clerk, servant or employee, to any person held to answer for a public offense, whose case may come before the grand jury.

5 2. He is bail for anyone held to answer for a public offense, whose case may come before the grand jury.

6 3. He is defendant in a prosecution similar to any prosecution to be examined by the grand jury.

7 4. He is, or within one year preceding has been, engaged or interested in carrying on any business, calling or employment the carrying on of which is a violation of law, and for which the juror may be indicted by the grand jury.

8 By the defendant only because:

9 1. He is a prosecutor upon a charge against the defendant.

10 2. He has formed or expressed such an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the prisoner as would prevent him from rendering a true verdict upon the evidence submitted on the trial.

[C., '51, §§ 2882, 2884, 2890; R., '60, §§ 4611, 4613, 4619; C., '73, §§ 4258, 4259, 4261, 4266; C., '97, § 5243.]

SEC. 9304. Decided by the court.

[C., '51, § 2886; R., '60, § 4615; C., '73, § 4262; C., '97, § 5244.]

SEC. 9305. Effect of allowing challenge to panel.

1 If a challenge to the panel be allowed, the grand jury is prohibited from inquiring into the charge against the defendant by whom it was 3 interposed, and, if it does so and finds an indictment, the court must 4 set it aside.

[C., '51, § 2887; R., '60, § 4616; C., '73, § 4263; C., '97, 5 § 5245.]

SEC. 9306. Dismissal of jurors—new panels.
1 If a challenge to an individual grand juror be allowed, he shall
2 not be present at or take any part in the consideration of the charge
3 against the defendant. If a challenge to the panel is allowed, or if 4 by reason of challenges to individual grand jurors being allowed, or 5 if for any cause at any time, the grand jury is reduced to a less number 6 than seven, a new grand jury shall be impaneled to inquire into the 7 charge against the defendant in whose behalf the challenge to the 8 panel has been allowed, or the panel of the jury so reduced below the 9 number required by law shall be filled as the case may be. If a chal-
10 lenge is allowed to the panel the names of jurors required to impanel 11 a new jury shall be drawn from the grand jury list.

[C., '51, § 2888; R., '60, § 4617; C., '73, § 4264; C., '97,
5 § 5246; S., '13, § 5246.]

SEC. 9307. Summoning additional jurors.
1 If such grand jury has been reduced to a less number than seven
2 by reason of challenges to individual jurors being allowed, or from 3 any other cause, the additional jurors required to fill the panel shall 4 be summoned, first, from such of the twelve jurors originally sum-5 moned which were not drawn on the grand jury as first impaneled,
6 or excused, and if they are exhausted, the additional number required
7 shall be drawn from the grand jury list and the court shall, when 8 necessary, issue a venire to secure the attendance of such additional 9 jurors. The persons so summoned shall serve only in the case, or 10 cases, in which, by reason of challenges, or other causes, the regular 11 panel is set aside or is insufficient in number to find an indictment.

[C., '97, § 5246; S., '13, § 5246.]

SEC. 9308. Effect of violation.
1 The grand jury must inform the court of any violation of the two
2 preceding sections, which offense shall be punished as a contempt.

[C., '51, § 2889; R., '60, § 4618; C., '73, § 4265; C., '97, 5 § 5247.]

SEC. 9309. Foreman appointed.
1 From the persons impaneled as grand jurors the court must
2 appoint a foreman, or when the foreman already appointed is dis-

1. The title of the action, giving the name of the court to which it is presented, and the names of the parties.
2. A statement of the facts constituting the offense in ordinary and concise language, without repetition, and in such manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

[R., '60, § 4650; C., '73, § 4296; C., '97, § 5280.]

[R., '60, § 4653; C., '73, § 4299; C., '97, § 5283.]

SEC. 9347. Indictment must charge but one offense.

The indictment must charge but one offense, but it may be charged in different forms to meet the testimony, and if it may have been committed in different modes and by different means, may allege the modes and means in the alternative. Except in case of compound offenses, where in the same transaction more than one offense has been committed, the indictment may charge the several offenses and the defendant may be convicted of any offense included therein.

[C., '51, § 2917; R., '60, § 4654; C., '73, § 4300; C., '97, § 5284.]

SEC. 9348. Statement of exact time of offense not required.

The precise time at which the offense was committed need not be stated in the indictment, but it is sufficient if it allege that it was committed at any time prior to the time of the finding hereof, except where the time is a material ingredient of the offense.

[R., '60, § 4655; C., '73, § 4301; C., '97, § 5285.]

SEC. 9349. Name of person injured.

SEC. 9352. What indictment must show—amendments—objections.

The indictment is sufficient if it can be understood therefrom:

1. That it was found by a grand jury of the county impaneled in the court having authority to receive it, though the name of the court is not actually stated.

2. That the defendant is named, or if his true name is unknown to the grand jury, such fact is stated, and that he is described by a fictitious name.

3. That the offense is triable within the jurisdiction of the court.

4. That the offense was committed prior to the time of the finding of the indictment.

5. That the act or omission charged as the offense is stated in ordinary and concise language, with such certainty and in such manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended, and the court to pronounce judgment according to law upon a conviction.

6. That, when material, the name of the person injured or attempted to be injured be set forth when known to the grand jury, or, if not known, that it be so stated in the indictment.

The county attorney may, at any time before or during the trial of defendant upon indictment, amend the indictment so as to correct errors or omissions therein as to matters of form, or to correct errors in the name of any person or in the description of any person or thing, or in the allegations concerning the ownership of property that may be described in the indictment; but such amendment shall not prejudice the substantial rights of the defendant, or charge him with a different crime or different degree of crime from that charged in the original indictment returned by the grand jury.

A notice of the time the state will ask permission to file such amendment, together with a copy of such amendment, shall be served upon the defendant or his attorney and an opportunity be given the defendant to resist the filing of such amendment. No continuance or delay in trial shall be granted because of such amendment, except upon the defendant's application, it appearing to the court that defendant should have additional time to prepare for trial because of the new allegations contained in the indictment.

All objections to the indictment relating to matters of substance and form which might be raised by a plea in abatement shall be deemed waived if not raised by the defendant before the jury is sworn on the trial of the case.

[C., '51, § 2916; R., '60, § 4659; C., '73, § 4305; C., '97, § 5289; S., '13, § 5289.]

SEC. 9353. Immaterial matters.

2. For the omission of any of the following allegations, namely, "with force and arms," "contrary to the form of the statute, or of the statutes," or "against the peace and dignity of the state."

Where two or more defendants are on trial for the same offense, they may be heard by one counsel each; and when the affirmative of the issue is with the defendant, the court may, in its discretion, award to the defendant the last argument. 5 agreed upon its verdict and rendered it in open court, unless, by the 6 consent of both parties entered upon the record, or unless, at the ex-
7 piration of such time as the court may deem proper, it satisfactorily
8 appears that there is no reasonable probability that it can agree.

4 acquittal of the same offense, in which case it shall be "for the state"
5 or "for the defendant," and except in cases submitted to determine 6 the grade of the offense and, when authorized, fixing the punishment:
7 therefor. It must also return with the general verdict answers to 8 special interrogatories submitted by the court upon its own motion,

1 On an indictment against several, if the jury can not agree upon

SEC. 9494. Return of jury—roll call.
1 When the jury has agreed upon its verdict, it must be conducted into court by the officer having it in charge; the names of the jurors must then be called, and if all do not appear the rest must be dis-

1 If the jury renders a verdict which is neither a general nor special one, the court may direct it to reconsider it, and it shall not be recorded until it is rendered in some form from which the intent of the jury can be clearly understood, whether to render a general verdict, or to find the facts specially and leave the judgment to the court.
[C., '51, §§ 3038, 3041; R., '60, §§ 4834, 4838; C., '73, §§ 4468, 4478; C., '97, § 5409.]

SEC. 9498. Informal verdict.
1 If the jury persists in finding an informal verdict, from which, however, it can be understood that the intention is to find for the defendant upon the issue, it shall be entered in the terms in which it is found, and the court must give judgment of acquittal. But no judgment of conviction can be given unless the jury expressly finds against the defendant upon the issue, or judgment is given against him upon a special verdict.

If any juror disagrees, the fact must be entered upon the record and the jury again sent out. But if no disagreement is expressed, the verdict is complete and the jury must be discharged from the case.
[R., '60, § 4841; C., '73, § 4471; C., '97, § 5412.]

1 If the defense is insanity of the defendant, the jury must be instructed, if it acquits him on that ground, to state that fact in its verdict. 3 entered in the record book, and reduce the same to writing, and tender
4 the same to the judge, who shall sign it if true, and if signed it shall 5 be filed with the clerk and become a part of the record of the cause;
6 if the judge refuses to sign it, such refusal must be stated at the end

6 by him, and thereafter the jurisdiction of the supreme court shall 7 cease, and all proceedings necessary for executing the judgment shall 8 be had in the trial court, or by its clerk.
   [C., '51, §§ 3101, 3102; R., '60, §§ 4929, 4930; C., '73, §§ 4542,
   4543; C., '97, § 5466.]

2 the judgment of the trial court and decision on appeal, or of the judg-

CHAPTER 46.
COMPROMISING CERTAIN OFFENSES.

SECTION 9581. Compromisable offenses.
1 When a defendant is prosecuted in a criminal action for a misdemeanor, for which the person injured by the act constituting the offense has a remedy by a civil action, the offense may be compromised as provided in the next section, except when it was committed:
2 1. By or upon an officer while in the execution of the duties of his office;
3 2. Riotously; or,
4 3. With an intent to commit a felony.
[R., '60, § 5106; C., '73, § 4708; C., '97, § 5622.]

SEC. 9582. Stay of proceedings—discharge of defendant.
1 If the party injured in such a case appear before the court to 2 which the papers on a preliminary examination are returned, at any 3 time before trial on an indictment for the offense, or the trial of an 4 appeal in the district court, and acknowledge in writing that he has 5 received satisfaction for the injury, the court may, in its discretion, on 6 payment of the costs incurred, order all proceedings to be stayed upon 7 the prosecution, and the defendant to be discharged therefrom. But 8 in that case the reasons for the order must be set forth therein and 9 entered upon the minutes.
[R., '60, § 5107; C., '73, § 4709; C., '97, § 5623.]

SEC. 9583. Compromise bar to prosecution.
1 The order authorized by the last section is a bar to another prosecution for the same offense.
[R., '60, § 5108; C., '73, § 4710; C., '97, § 5624.]

SEC. 9584. Other compromises—not allowed.
1 No public offense can be compromised, nor can any proceedings
2 for the prosecution or punishment thereof, upon a compromise, be 3 stayed, except as provided in this chapter.
[R., '60, § 5109; C., '73, § 4711; C., '97, § 5625.]

CHAPTER 47.
DISMISSAL OF CRIMINAL ACTIONS.

SECTION 9585. Dismissal when indictment not found.
1 When a person is held to answer for a public offense, if an indictment be not found against him at the next regular term of the court
SEC. 9586. Dismissal for delay in trial.

If a defendant indicted for a public offense, whose trial has not been postponed upon his application, be not brought to trial at the next regular term of the court in which the indictment is triable after the same is found, the court must order it to be dismissed, unless good cause to the contrary be shown.

[C., '51, § 3249; R., '60, § 5008; C., '73, § 4614; C., '97, § 5536.]

SEC. 9587. Discharge on undertaking.

If the defendant be not indicted or tried as above provided, and sufficient reason therefor is shown, the court may order the prosecution continued from term to term, and discharge the defendant from custody on his own undertaking, or on the undertaking of bail for his appearance to answer the charge at the time to which the same is continued, but no continuance under this section shall be extended beyond the following three terms of the court.

[C., '51, § 3250; R., '60, § 5009; C., '73, § 4615; C., '97, § 5537.]

SEC. 9588. Discharge on dismissal.

If the court direct the prosecution to be dismissed, the defendant, if in custody, must be discharged, or his bail, if any, exonerated, and if money has been deposited instead of bail, it must be refunded to him.

[R., '60, § 5010; C., '73, § 4616; C., '97, § 5538.]

SEC. 9589. Dismissal by court.

The court, upon its own motion or the application of the county attorney, in the furtherance of justice, may order the dismissal of any pending criminal prosecution, the reasons therefor being stated in the order and entered of record, and no such prosecution shall be discontinued or abandoned in any other manner. Such a dismissal is a bar to another prosecution for the same offense if it is a misdemeanor; but it is not a bar if the offense charged be a felony.

[C., '51, §§ 3251, 3252; R., '60, §§ 5011-5013; C., '73, §§ 4617-4619; C., '97, § 5539.]
