6261. Anticipation of special taxes. Any city or town may anticipate the collection of taxes authorized to be levied for the grading fund, city improvement fund, district sewer fund, city sewer fund, the fund for equipping fire departments, the fund for the construction of sewer outlet and purifying plants, the fund for paving roadways, and the fund for flood protection, and cities of the first class may so anticipate the taxes used for the fund for the construction of main sewers, and for that purpose may issue certificates or bonds with interest coupons. [C., '97, § 912; S., '13, §§ 716-d, 840-e, 849-h, 912-a; S. S., '15, §§ 840-g, 840-p; 37 G. A., ch. 222, § 1; 38 G. A., ch. 168, § 1; 38 G. A., ch. 285, § 16; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 179, § 7.]

6262. How denominated. Such certificates and bonds shall be respectively denominated city grading certificates or bonds, city improvement certificates or bonds, district sewer certificates or bonds of the particular sewer district, city sewer certificates or bonds of said city, fire department equipment certificates or bonds, sewer outlet and purifying plant certificates or bonds, paved roadway certificates or bonds, flood protection certificates or bonds, and main sewer certificates or bonds, and all the provisions of this chapter shall apply to such certificates, bonds, and coupons, with such changes only as are necessary to adapt them thereto. [C., '97, § 912; S., '13, § 840-e; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 179, § 8.]

6263. Assessments and levies pledged. Said certificates or bonds and interest thereon shall be secured by said assessments and levies, and shall be payable only out of the respective funds named, pledged to the payment of the same, and no certificates or bonds shall be issued in excess of taxes authorized and levied to secure the payment of the same. It shall be the duty of said city to collect said several funds with interest thereon, and to hold the same separate and apart, in trust, for the payment of said certificates or bonds and interest, and to apply the proceeds of said funds pledged for that purpose to the payment of said certificates or bonds and interest. [C., '97, § 912; S., '13, §§ 716-a, 716-e; S. S., '15, § 840-g; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 179, § 9.]

6264. Limitation of action. No action shall be brought questioning the legality of any of the bonds authorized by this chapter, waterworks bonds, gasworks bonds, or electric light or power plant bonds, from and after three months from the time the same are ordered issued by the proper authority. [C., '97, § 913.]

mission form of government, when issuing bonds for the purchase of real estate for park and other municipal purposes, are hereby authorized to cause portions of said bonds to become due at different definite periods, but none of such bonds so issued shall be due and payable in more than fifty years from date. [37 G. A., ch. 7, § 1.]

- 6286. Decree.
- 6287. Public lands.

6266. Subdivisions or additions. Every original proprietor of any tract or parcel of land, who has subdivided, or shall hereafter subdivide the same into three or more parts, for the purpose of laying out a town or city, or addition thereto, or part thereof, or suburban lots, shall cause a plat of such subdivisions, with references to known or permanent monuments, to be made, giving the bearing and distance from some corner of a lot or block in said town or city to some corner of the congressional division of which said town, city, or addition is a part, which shall accurately describe all the subdivisions thereof, numbering the same by progressive numbers, giving their dimensions by length and breadth, and the breadth and courses of all the streets and alleys established therein. [C., '73, § 559; C., '97, § 914.]

6267. Covenant of warranty. The duty to file for record a plat as provided in the preceding section shall attach as a covenant of warranty, in all conveyances of any part or parcel of such subdivisions, by the original proprietors against any and all assessments, costs, and damages paid, lost, or incurred by any grantee or person claiming under him, in consequence of the omission on the part of said proprietor to file such plat. [C., '73, § 559; C., '97, § 914.]

- 6288. Replatting.
- 6289. Plat by auditor.

- 6297. Hearing.
- 6298. Auditor to prepare plat.
- 6299. Requirements.
- 6300. Resurvey of town plats.
- 6301. Conditions—jurisdiction.
- 6302. How resurvey made.
- 6303. Power of surveyor.
- 6304. Notice of resurvey.
- 6305. Plat certified and filed—effect.
- 6306. Contest—decree.
- 6307. Sale or lease without plat.
- 6308. Public squares transferred for school purposes.
- 6309. Manner of transfer.

6269. Streets and blocks. The plat of any addition to any city or town or subdivision of any part or parcel of lands lying within or adjacent to any city or town shall be divided by streets into blocks, and such blocks and streets shall conform as nearly as practicable to the size of blocks and the widths of streets therein, and shall be extensions of the existing system of streets. [C., '73, § 559; C., '97, § 916; S., '13, § 916; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 78, § 1.]

6270. Grade of streets. The council may require the owner of the land to bring all streets to a grade acceptable to the council before the plat is approved. [38 G. A., ch. 241, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 78, § 1.]

6271. Alleys. It may require alleys to be platted separating abutting lots and if so platted, the alleys shall conform as nearly as practicable to the width of alleys in the city or town and shall be extensions of the existing system of alleys. [S., '13, § 916; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 78, § 1.]

6272. Filing—approval. All such plats, except subdivisions of less than one block, shall be filed with the clerk of the city or town and when so filed the council within a reasonable time shall consider the same, and shall, if it is found to conform to the provisions of the three preceding sections, by resolution approve the plat and direct the mayor and clerk to certify the resolution which shall be affixed to the plat. [C., '97, § 916; S., '13, § 916; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 78, § 2.]

6273. Acknowledgment. Each plat shall be accompanied by a correct description of the land or parcel of land subdivided and by a statement to the effect that the subdivision as it appears on the plat is with the free consent and in accordance with the desire of the proprietor, signed and acknowledged by such proprietor and his spouse, if any, before some officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds. [C., '73, § 560; C., '97, § 915; S., '13, § 915; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 78, § 3.]

6275. Encumbrances — payment—creditor's refusal. If the land so platted is encumbered with a debt certain in amount and which the creditor will not accept with accrued interest to the date of proffered payment if it draws interest, or with a rebate of six per cent per annum if it draws no interest, or if the creditor cannot be found, then such proprietor, and if a corporation, its proper officer or agent, may make an affidavit stating either that the proprietor offered to pay the creditor the full amount of his debt, or the debt with the rebate, as the case may be, and that he would not accept the same, or that he cannot be found. [C., '97, § 915; S., '13, § 915; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 78, § 5.]

6276. Encumbrance—bond. The proprietor shall then execute and file with the recorder a bond in double the amount of the encumbrance, which bond shall be approved by the recorder and clerk of the district court. The bond shall run to the county and be for the benefit of purchasers of land subdivided by the plat and shall be conditioned for the payment of the encumbrance, and the cancellation thereof, of record as soon as practicable after the same becomes due and to hold all purchasers and those claiming under them forever harmless from such encumbrance. [C., '97, § 915; S., '13, § 915; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 78, § 6.]

6277. Record—filing The signed and acknowledged plat, the abstract, and the attorney's opinion, together with the certificates of the clerk, recorder, and treasurer, and the affidavit and bond, if any, together with the certificate of approval of the council, shall be entered of record in the plat book in the auditor's office. When so entered, the signed and acknowledged plat shall be entered of record in the office of the county recorder, and shall be of no validity until so filed. [C., '51, §§ 635, 636; R., '60, §§ 1019, 1020; C., '73, § 560; C., '97, §§ 915, 917; S., '13, § 915; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 78 § 7.]

6279. Change of name of street. Cities and towns shall have authority to change by ordinance the name of a platted street. The mayor and city or town clerk shall certify and file the ordinance, after its passage, with the county recorder and county auditor in the county where the said city or town is located, which shall be entered of record in the recorder's office and a reference made on the margin of the original plat referring to the record of such change of name. [S., '13, § 917-a.]

6280. Vacation by proprietor before sale. Any such plat may be vacated by the proprietor thereof, at any time before the sale of any lots, by a written instrument declaring the same to be vacated, executed, acknowledged, and recorded in the same office with the plat to be vacated, and the execution and recording of such writing shall operate to annul the plat so vacated, and to divest all public rights in the streets, alleys, and public grounds described therein. In cases where any lots have been sold, the plat may be vacated as in this chapter provided by all the owners of lots joining in the execution of the writing aforesaid. [C., '73, § 563; C., '97, § 918.]

6281. Partial vacation by proprietor. Any part of a plat may be thus vacated, provided it does not abridge or destroy any right or privilege of any proprietor in said plat, but nothing contained in this section shall authorize the closing or obstruction of highways. [C., '73, § 564; C., '97, § 919.]

6282. Streets, alleys, and public grounds. When any part of a plat is vacated, the proprietors of the lots may inclose the streets, alleys, and public ground adjoining them in equal proportion, except as provided in sections 6286 and 6287. [C., '73, § 565; C., '97, § 919.]

6283. Correction of plat. The recorder in whose office the plats are recorded shall write across that part of the plat so vacated the word "vacated", and make a reference on the same to the volume and page in which the instrument is recorded. [C., '73, § 566; C., '97, § 919.]

6284. Vacation by lot owners—petition—notice. Whenever the owners of any tract of land which has been platted into town lots, and the plat of which has been recorded, shall desire to vacate the plat or a part thereof, a petition, signed by all the owners of it or the part to be vacated, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which the land is situated, returnable at the ensuing term, and notice thereof given at least four weeks, by posting notices in three conspicuous places in the town where the vacation is prayed, and one upon the door of the courthouse of the county. [C., '97, § 920.]

6285. Time of hearing—notice. At the term of court next following the filing of the petition and notice, the court shall fix a time for hearing the petition, and notice of the day so fixed shall be given by the clerk in some newspaper published in the county at least one week before the day appointed for the hearing. [C., '97, § 920.]

6286. Decree. At the hearing of the petition, if it shall appear that all the owners of lots in the plat or part thereof to be vacated desire the vacation, and there is no valid objection thereto, a decree shall be entered vacating such portion of the plat, and the streets, alleys, and avenues therein, and for all purposes of assessment such portion of the town shall be as if it had never been platted into lots; but if any street as laid out on the plat shall be needed for public use, it shall be excepted from the order of vacation and shall remain a public highway. [C., '97, § 920.]

6287. Public lands. Vacations made under this chapter shall not be construed to affect any lands lying within any city or town which have been dedicated or deeded to the public for parks or other public purposes. [C., '97, § 920.]

6289. Plat by auditor. Whenever the original proprietor of any subdivision of land has sold or conveyed any part thereof, or invested the public with any rights therein, and has failed and neglected to execute and file for record a plat as provided in this chapter, the county auditor shall by mail or otherwise notify some or all of such owners, and demand its execution. If such owners, whether so notified or not, fail and neglect for thirty days after the issuance of such notice to execute and file said plat for record, the auditor shall cause one to be made, making any survey necessary therefor. [C., '73, § 568; C., '97, § 922; S., '13, § 922; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 78, § 8.]

6290. Execution and filing—effect. Said plat shall be signed and acknowledged by the auditor, who shall certify that he executed it by reason of the failure of the owners named to do so, and file it for record in his office and in the office of the county recorder, and when so filed it shall have the same effect as if executed, acknowledged, and recorded by the owners. [C., '73, § 568; C., '97, § 922; S., '13, § 922; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 78, § 9.]

6292. Collection or assessment of costs. The auditor shall at the same time assess the amount pro rata upon the several subdivisions of said tract, lot, or parcel so subdivided, and it shall be collected in the same manner as general taxes, and shall go to the general county fund; or said board may direct suit to be brought in the name of the county to recover from the original proprietor such cost and expense. [C., '73, § 568; C., '97, § 922; S., '13, § 922; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 78, § 11.]

6293. Platting for assessment and taxation. Whenever a congressional subdivision of land of one hundred sixty acres or less, or any lot or subdivision, is owned by two or more persons in severalty, and the description of one or more of the different parts or parcels thereof can not, in the judgment of the county auditor, be made sufficiently certain and accurate for the purposes of assessment and taxation without noting the metes and bounds of the same, he shall cause to be made and recorded in his office and the office of the county recorder a plat of such tract or lot with its several subdivisions, including and replatting in such plat such other plats or parts thereof included within the same lot or congressional subdivision of land as may seem to him to be required in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, proceeding as directed in the four preceding sections, and all of their provisions shall govern. [C., '73, § 569; C., '97, § 923; S., '13, § 923.]

6294. Appeal. The owners of said land shall have the same right of appeal to the board of supervisors as is provided in sections 6296 and 6297 in the case of warranty deeds, and under the same conditions as to notice and hearing; provided, however, that parties aggrieved shall have sixty days within which to appeal. [39 G. A., ch. 13, § 1.]

6295. Insufficiency of description—plat ordered. Every conveyance of land in this state shall be deemed to be a warranty that the description therein contained is sufficiently definite and accurate to enable the auditor to enter the same on the plat book required to be kept; and when there is presented for entry on the transfer book any conveyance in which the description is not sufficiently definite and accurate, the auditor shall note such fact on the deed, with that of the entry for transfer, and shall notify the person presenting it that the land therein is not sufficiently described, and must be platted within thirty days thereafter. [C., '73, § 570; C., '97, § 924; S., '13, § 924.]

6296. Appeal. Any person aggrieved by the opinion of the auditor may within said thirty days appeal therefrom to the board of supervisors, by giving notice thereof in writing, and thereupon no further proceeding shall be taken by the auditor. [C., '73, § 570; C., '97, § 924; S., '13, § 924.]

6297. Hearing. At its next session the board of supervisors shall determine said matter and direct whether the plat shall be executed and filed, and within what time. [C., '73, § 570; C., '97, § 924; S., '13, § 924.]

6298. Auditor to prepare plat. If the grantor in such conveyance shall neglect for thirty days thereafter to file for record a plat thereof, and of the appropriate congressional subdivision in which the same is found, duly executed and acknowledged as required by the auditor, or, in case of appeal, as directed by the board of supervisors, then the auditor shall proceed as is provided in this chapter, and cause such plat to be made and recorded in his office and the office of the county recorder, and thereupon the same result shall follow as provided in section 6293. [C., '73, § 570; C., '97, § 924; S., '13, § 924.]

6299. Requirements. Such plat shall describe said tract and any other subdivisions of the smallest congressional subdivision of which the same is part, numbering them by progressive numbers, setting forth the courses and distances, the number of acres, and such other memoranda as is necessary; and descriptions of such lots or subdivisions according to the number and designation thereof on said plat shall be deemed sufficient for all purposes. [C., '73, § 570; C., '97, § 924; S., '13, § 924.]

6300. Resurvey of town plats. In all cases where the original plat of any city, town, or village, or any addition thereto, has been or may be lost or destroyed after the sale and conveyance of any subdivision, block or lot thereof by the original proprietor and before the same shall have been recorded, or the property so platted has been indefinitely located or the plat is materially defective, any three persons owning real property within the limits of such plat may have the same resurveyed and replatted, and such plat recorded as hereinafter directed. [C., '97, § 925; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 78, § 12.]

6301. Conditions—jurisdiction. In no case shall such plat or replat be made and recorded as hereinafter directed, without the consent in writing, endorsed thereon, of the original proprietor, if he be alive and known, nor before an order has been entered by the district court upon application of the parties desiring a replat to be made, that such replat is necessary. The court shall have jurisdiction of the matter upon proof of publication of notice of the application for at least two weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in the city or town. [C., '97, § 925; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 78, § 12.]

6302. How resurvey made. The county surveyor of any county in which is situated any city, town, village, or addition thereto, as contemplated in this chapter, may, and upon payment of his legal fees by any person desiring the same must, make a resurvey of such city, town, village, or addition, or any portion, and plat thereof, which plat shall conform as near as may be with the original lines of the parcel or tract so resurveyed, and be made in all respects in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [C., '97, § 926; S., '13, § 926.]

6304. Notice of resurvey. No resurvey shall be made except upon notice to be given by the surveyor by a publication of the contemplated resurvey once each week for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper printed in the county. [C., '97, § 926; S., '13, § 926.]

6305. Plat certified and filed—effect. When the surveyor has completed the plat, he shall attach his certificate thereto, to the effect that it is a just, true, and accurate plat of said city, town, village, or addition so surveyed by him; which shall be filed for record in the office of the recorder of the proper county, and from the date of such filing it shall be treated in all courts of this state as though the same had been made by the original proprietor thereof. [C., '97, § 927.]

6306. Contest—decree. Any person may at any time within six months from the date of its filing for record, commence an action in equity against the persons employing the surveyor, setting up his cause of complaint and asking that such record be canceled. If it appears on the trial that the city, town, village, or addition was originally laid out and platted; that the original proprietor had sold any or all of the lots thereof; that he intended to dedicate to the public the streets, alleys, or public squares therein; that the plat thereof has never been recorded, but is lost; that the plat was indefinitely located or materially defective; that the proprietor is dead or his place of residence unknown; and that the re-survey and plat for record is a substantially accurate survey and plat of the original plat of such city, town, village, or addition, then the action shall be dismissed at the cost of the complainants; otherwise the court shall set aside said plat and cancel the same of record at the cost of the defendant. [C., '97, § 925; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 78, § 13; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 39.]

6307. Sale or lease without plat. Any person who shall dispose of or offer for sale or lease any lots in any town, or addition to any town or city, until the plat thereof has been acknowledged and recorded as provided in this chapter, shall forfeit and pay fifty dollars for each lot and part of lot sold or disposed of, leased, or offered for sale. [R., '60, § 1027; C., '73, § 572; C., '97, § 930.]

6308. Public squares transferred for school purposes. The people of any town located wholly within an independent school district, wherein is situated a public square or plat of ground deeded or dedicated to the town or public, may transfer or rededicate to said school district such square or plat for the purposes of a public school lot, to be used for the erection thereon of a public schoolhouse, or for playgrounds in connection with such schoolhouse. [C., '97, § 931.]

6309. Manner of transfer. When a plat or lot of the character described in the preceding section is located in such town, and one-half of the resident voters thereof, according to the last census, shall petition the mayor and council, asking them to submit to the voters of the town, at a general or special election, the question whether or not such public plat or lot shall be transferred to such independent district and dedicated and used for school purposes, they shall submit the question to the voters of the town, in accordance with the prayer of said petition, after giving ten days' notice in writing or printing thereof, in which the proposition submitted shall be clearly set forth and signed by the mayor, three of which notices shall be posted in public and conspicuous places in the town, and one published in the last two issues preceding such election of a weekly newspaper published therein, or, if there be none, then in the weekly newspaper published elsewhere in the county, having the largest circulation in said town. The notice shall also state the manner of voting, which shall be by ballot. The ballot shall contain the words: "Shall the proposition to transfer lot (or block, or square, as the case may be, describing it), for the purposes of a public schoolhouse lot, be adopted?" Such election shall be conducted as ordinary town elections are, under the supervision of the town authorities, who shall canvass the vote as provided in other cases. If it shall appear that two-thirds of the votes cast at such election are in favor thereof, then such transfer shall be complete, and the lot, block, or square may be appropriated and used for the purposes indicated by said vote, and shall be no longer held for any other purpose.

In the event that any such town shall have discontinued its organization or shall have failed to exercise its municipal powers and elect officers for a period of more than ten years, then the petition hereinbefore provided for may be presented to the board of directors within such school corporation, whereupon, if signed by one-third of the resident electors thereof, it shall be the duty of said board within ten days after the filing of the same to call an election in said district for which they shall give the same notices as required in sections 4195 and 4197, at which election the proposition submitted shall be in the same form as in the instance of a submission of such proposition in the case of a town election, and such election shall be held as provided for the holding of other school elections. If it shall appear that a majority of the votes cast at such election are in favor of such proposition, then a transfer of such public square or plat of ground shall be complete and such lot, plat, block, or square may be appropriated and used for the purposes indicated by said vote and shall be no longer held for any other purpose. [C., '97, § 932; S. S., '15, § 932.]

- 6321. Reexamination of retired members.
- 6322. Decision of board.
- 6323. Provisions subject to alteration.
- 6324. Moneys drawn—how paid—report.
- 6325. City marshal.
- 6326. Hospital expense.

6310. Pension funds. Any city or town having an organized fire department may, and all cities having an organized police department or a paid fire department shall, levy annually a tax not to exceed one-half mill for each such department, for the purpose of creating firemen's and policemen's pension funds; cities operating under commission form of government and having a population exceeding one hundred twenty-five thousand, may levy an additional tax not to exceed one-half mill for each such department for such purpose; cities operating under city manager and having a population exceeding thirty-five thousand, may levy an additional tax not to exceed one mill for each such department for such purpose. All moneys derived from each tax so levied, and all moneys received as membership fees and dues, and all moneys received from grants, donations, and devises for the benefit of each fund shall constitute separate funds, to be known and designated as a policemen's pension fund and a firemen's pension fund. No levy or collection of taxes for either of said funds shall be made so as to create or maintain a balance therein in excess of ten thousand dollars at the end of any fiscal year. [S., '13, §§ 932-a, 932-j; 40 G. A., ch. 261, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 12, § 1.]

6311. Boards of trustees—officers. The chief officer of each department, with the city treasurer and the city solicitor or attorney of such cities or towns, shall be ex officio members of and shall constitute separate boards of trustees for the management of each fund. The chief officer of the department shall be president and the city treasurer treasurer of such boards, and the faithful performance of the duties of the treasurer shall be secured by his official bond as city treasurer. Such trustees shall not receive any compensation for their services as members of said boards. [S., '13, §§ 932-a, 932-b, 932-j, 932-k; 40 G. A., ch. 261, § 2.]

6312. Investment of surplus. The boards shall have power to invest any surplus left in such funds, respectively, at the end of the fiscal year, but no part of the funds realized from any tax levy shall be used for any purpose other than the payment of pensions. Investments shall be limited to interest-bearing bonds of the United States, of the state of Iowa, of any county, township, or municipal corporation of the state of Iowa. All such securities shall be deposited with the treasurer of the boards of trustees for safe-keeping. [S., '13, § 932-l; S. S., '15, § 932-c; 40 G. A., ch. 261, § 3.]

6313. Gifts, devises, or bequests. Each board may take by gift, grant, devise, or bequest, any money or property, real or personal, or other thing of value for the benefit of said funds. All rewards in moneys, fees, gifts, or emoluments of every kind or nature that may be paid or given to any police or fire department or to any member thereof, except when allowed to be retained or given to endow a medal or other permanent or competitive reward on account of extraordinary services rendered by said departments or any member thereof, and all fines and penalties imposed upon members, shall be paid into the said pension fund and become a part thereof. [S., '13, §§ 932-d, 932-m; 40 G. A., ch. 261, § 4.]

6314. Membership fee—assessments. Every member of said departments shall be required to pay to the treasurer of said funds a membership fee to be fixed by the board of trustees, not exceeding five dollars, and shall also be assessed and required to pay annually an amount equal to one per cent per annum upon the amount of the annual salary paid to him, which assessment shall be deducted and retained in equal semiannual installments out of such salary. [S., '13, §§ 932-d, 932-m; 40 G. A., ch. 261, § 5.]

6315. Who entitled to pension—conditions of retirement. Any member of said departments who shall have served twenty-two years or more in such department, and shall have reached the age of fifty years; or who shall while a member of such department become mentally or physically permanently disabled from discharging his duties, shall be entitled to be retired, and upon retirement shall be paid out of the pension fund of such department a monthly pension equal to one-half the amount of salary received by him monthly at the date he actually retires from said department. If any member shall have served twenty-two years in said department, but shall not have reached the age of fifty years, he shall be entitled to retirement, but no pension shall be paid while he lives until he reaches the age of fifty years. [S., '13, §§ 932-e, 932-n; 37 G. A., ch. 23, § 1; 38 G. A., ch. 19, § 1; 38 G. A., ch. 45, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 30, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 31, § 1; 40 G. A., ch. 261, § 6.]

6316. Disability—how contracted. No member who has not served five years or more in said department shall be entitled to be retired and paid a pension under the provisions of this chapter, unless such disability was contracted while engaged in the performance of his duties, or by reason of following such occupation. The question of disability shall be determined by the trustees upon the advice of a physician appointed by the board of trustees for that purpose. After any member shall become entitled to be retired, such right shall not be lost or forfeited by discharge or for any other reason except conviction for felony. [S., '13, §§ 932-e, 932-n; 37 G. A., ch. 23, § 1; 40 G. A., ch. 261, § 7.]

6317. Retired members assigned for light duty. The chief of the police department and the chief of the fire department of such city may assign any member of such departments, respectively, retired or drawing pensions under the provisions of this chapter, to the performance of light duties in such department. [S., '13, §§ 932-e, 932-n; 37 G. A., ch. 23, § 1; 40 G. A., ch. 261, § 8.]

6318. Pensions—widow—children—dependents. Upon the death of any acting or retired member of such departments, leaving a widow or minor children, or dependent father or mother surviving him, there shall be paid out of said fund as follows:

1. To the surviving widow, so long as she remains unmarried and of good moral character, thirty dollars per month.

2. If there be no surviving widow, or upon the death or remarriage of such widow, then to his dependent father and mother, if both survive, or to either dependent parent, if one survives, thirty dollars per month.

3. To the guardian of each surviving child under sixteen years of age, eight dollars per month.

The aggregate of all such payments shall not exceed one-half of the amount of the salary of such member at the time of his death or retirement. [S., '13, §§ 932-e, 932-n; 37 G. A., ch. 23, § 1; 38 G. A., ch. 19, § 1; 38 G. A., ch. 45, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 30, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 31, § 1; 40 G. A., ch. 261, § 9.]

6319. Exemption. All pensions paid under the provisions of this chapter shall be exempt from liability for debts of the person to or on account of whom the same is paid, and shall not be subject to seizure upon execution or other process. [S., '13, §§ 932-e, 932-n; 37 G. A., ch. 23, § 1; 40 G. A., ch. 261, § 10.]

6321. Reexamination of retired members. The board of trustees of each department shall have power, at any time, to cause any member of such department retired by reason of physical or mental disability to be brought before it and again examined by competent physicians for the purpose of discovering whether such disability yet continues and whether such retired member should be continued on the pension roll, and shall have power to examine witnesses for the same purpose. Such member shall be entitled to reasonable notice that such examination will be made, and to be present at the time of the taking of any testimony, shall have the right to examine the witnesses brought before the board and to introduce evidence in his own behalf. All witnesses shall be examined under oath, which may be administered by any member of such board. [S., '13, §§ 932-g, 932-p; 40 G. A., ch. 261, § 12.]

6322. Decision of board. The decision of such board upon such matters shall be final and conclusive, in the absence of fraud, and no appeal shall be allowed therefrom. Such disabled member shall remain upon the pension roll unless and until reinstated in such department by reason of such examination. [S., '13, §§ 932-g, 932-p; 40 G. A., ch. 261, § 13.]

6323. Provisions subject to alteration. The provisions of this chapter shall be, at all times, subject to alteration or change, and all persons claiming benefits under the provisions of this chapter shall be entitled to receive only such benefits as provided by law at the time such benefits shall accrue. [S., '13, §§ 932-h, 932-q; 40 G. A., ch. 261, § 14.]

6324. Moneys drawn—how paid—report. All pensions paid and all moneys drawn from the pension fund under the provisions of this chapter shall be upon warrants signed by the appropriate board of trustees, which warrants shall designate the name of the person and the purpose for which payment is made. The treasurer shall prepare annually, immediately after the first day of January, and file with the city clerk a report for each fund of the receipts and expenditures for the year ending December thirty-first of the previous year, showing the money on hand, how invested, and all moneys received and paid out. [S., '13, §§ 932-i, 932-r; 40 G. A., ch. 261, § 15.]

6325. City marshal. Service by any member of the police department as city marshal shall not deprive him of any rights under this chapter. In any matter in which said city marshal shall be individually interested and which requires the action of the board of trustees of the policemen's pension fund, he shall not act as a member of said board, but the mayor of the city shall act with the other two trustees of the board with respect thereto. Upon the termination of his term as city marshal, he shall regain the rank he held in the police department at the time of his appointment as city marshal. [38 G. A., ch. 344, § 1; 40 G. A., ch. 261, § 16.]

6326. Hospital expense. Cities and towns are hereby authorized and empowered to provide hospital, nursing, and medical attention for the members of the police and fire departments of such cities, when injured while in the performance of their duties as members of such department, and the cost of such hospital, nursing, and medical attention shall be paid out of the appropriation for the department to which such injured person belongs; provided that any amounts received by such injured person under the workmen's compensation law of the state, or from any other source for such specific purposes, shall be deducted from the amount paid by such city or town under the provisions of this section. [40 G. A., ch. 133.]

GENERAL PROVISIONS

6327. Applicability. This chapter shall be known as the housing law and shall apply to every city of the first class and cities under commission form of government which, by the last state or federal census, had a population of fifteen thousand or more, and to every city as its population shall reach fifteen thousand thereafter by any state or federal census. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 1.]

6328. Cities and towns—authority. In all other cities having a population of less than fifteen thousand, and in incorporated towns, the council may adopt ordinances for the regulation and control of any or all matters covered by the provisions of this chapter, in so far as same may be reasonably applicable, and fix penalties for the violation thereof; and fix rules and regulations not inconsistent with those provided in this chapter for the enforcement of said ordinances. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 1.]

6329. Definitions. Certain words in this chapter are defined for the purposes thereof as follows: Words used in the present tense include the future; words in the masculine gender include the feminine and neuter; the singular number includes the plural and the plural the singular; the word "person" includes a corporation as well as a natural person.

1. Dwelling. A "dwelling" is any house or building or portion thereof which is occupied in whole or in part as the home or residence of one or more human beings, either permanently or transiently.

2. Classes of dwellings. For the purposes of this chapter dwellings are divided into the following classes: "Private dwellings", "two-family dwellings", and "multiple dwellings".

a. A private dwelling is a dwelling occupied by but one family alone.

b. A two-family dwelling is a dwelling occupied by but two families alone.

c. A multiple dwelling is a dwelling occupied by more than two families.

3. Classes of multiple dwellings. All multiple dwellings are for the purposes of this chapter divided into classes, viz.: class A and class B.

Class A. Multiple dwellings of class A are dwellings which are occupied more or less permanently for residence purposes by several families and in which the rooms are occupied in apartments, suites, or groups. This class includes tenement houses, flats, apartment houses, apartment hotels, bachelor apartments, studio apartments, kitchenette apartments, and all other dwellings similarly occupied whether specifically enumerated or not.

Class B. Multiple dwellings of class B are dwellings which are occupied, as a rule transiently, as the more or less temporary abiding place of individuals who are lodged, with or without meals, and in which as a rule the rooms are occupied singly. This class includes hotels, lodging houses, boarding houses, furnished room houses, club houses, asylums, boarding schools, convents, hospitals, jails, and all other dwellings similarly occupied whether specifically enumerated herein or not.

4. Hotel. A "hotel" is a multiple dwelling of class B in which persons are lodged for hire and in which there are more than twenty-five sleeping rooms.

5. Family occupancy. For the purposes of this chapter, a "family" is a group of persons living together, whether related to each other by birth or not, and may consist of one or more persons.

6. Mixed occupancy. In cases of mixed occupancy where a building is occupied only in part as a dwelling, the part so occupied shall be deemed a dwelling for the purposes of this chapter.

7. Yards. A "rear yard" is an open unoccupied space on the same lot with a dwelling, between the extreme rear line of the lot and the extreme rear line of the house. A yard between the front line of the house and the front line of the lot is a "front yard". A yard between the side line of the house and the side line of the lot which extends from the front line or front yard to the rear yard is a "side yard".

8. Courts. A "court" is an open unoccupied space, other than a yard, on the same lot with a dwelling. A court not extending to the street or front or rear yard is an inner court.

A court extending to the street or front yard or rear yard is an outer court.

9. Corner and interior lots. A "corner lot" is a lot of which at least two adjacent sides abut upon a street. A lot other than a corner lot is an "interior lot". The word "lot" is any deeded parcel of land whether a full platted lot or not.

10. Front, rear, and depth of lot. The front of a lot is that boundary line which borders on the street. In case of a corner lot the owner may elect by statement on his plans either street boundary line as the front. The rear of a lot is the side opposite to the front. The depth of a lot is the dimension measured from the front of the lot to the extreme rear line of the lot. In case of irregular shaped lots the mean depth shall be taken.

11. Public hall. A "public hall" is a hall, corridor, or passageway not within the exclusive control of one family.

12. Stair hall. A "stair hall" is a public hall and includes the stairs, stair landings, and those portions of the building through which it is necessary to pass in going between the entrance floor and the roof.

13. Basement, cellar, attic. A "basement" is a story partly underground but having at least one-half of its height above the curb level, and also one-half of its height above the highest level of the adjoining ground. A basement shall be counted as a story.

A "cellar" is a story having more than one-half of its height below the curb level, or below the highest level of the adjoining ground. A cellar shall not be counted as a story for purposes of height measurement. If any part of a story is in that part the equivalent of a basement or cellar, the provisions of this chapter relative to basements and cellars shall apply to such part of said story.

In the case of private dwellings and two-family dwellings an "attic", or space in a sloping roof, if not occupied for living purposes, shall not be counted as a story; in the case of multiple dwellings an attic room shall be counted as a story if used for living purposes.

14. Height. The "height" of a dwelling is the perpendicular distance measured in a straight line from the curb level to the highest point of the roof beams in the case of flat roofs, and to the average of the height of the gable in the case of pitched roofs; the measurements in all cases to be taken through the center of the front of the house. Where a dwelling is situated on a terrace above the curb level such height shall be measured from the level of the adjoining ground. Where a dwelling is on a corner lot and there is more than one grade or level, the measurements shall be taken from the mean elevation.

15. Curb level. The "curb level" is the level of the established curb in front of the building measured at the center of such front. Where no curb has been established the city engineer shall establish such curb level or its equivalent for the purposes of this chapter.

16. Occupied spaces. Outside stairways, fire towers, porches, platforms, balconies, boiler flues, and other projections shall be considered as part of the building and not as a part of the yards or courts or unoccupied spaces. This provision shall not apply to uninclosed outside porches not exceeding two story in height which do not extend into the front or rear yard a greater distance than ten feet from the front or rear walls of the building, nor to any such porch which does not extend into the side yard a greater distance than twelve feet from the side wall of the building nor exceed twelve feet in its other horizontal dimension, nor to an enclosed rear porch or attached garage with or without sleeping porch above and not exceeding twelve by twenty feet, nor to cornices or eaves not exceeding eighteen inches in width.

17. Fire-resistive constructed dwelling. A dwelling of fire-resistive construction is one with brick, stone, or concrete walls and with brick, tile, concrete, or terra cotta floors and roof. Floor and roof supports to be of brick, concrete, or metal with all metal protected by tile, concrete, or similar fire-resistant material. But this definition shall not be construed as prohibiting the use of wooden flooring on top of the fireproof floors or the use of wooden sleepers, nor as prohibiting wooden handrails or treads of hardwood not less than one inch thick.

18. Wooden buildings. A "wooden building" is a building of which the exterior walls or a portion thereof are of wood. Court walls are exterior walls.

19. Nuisance. The word "nuisance" shall be held to embrace nuisance as known at common law or in equity jurisprudence; and whatever is dangerous to human life or detrimental to health, whatever dwelling is overcrowded with occupants or is not provided with adequate ingress or egress to or from the same, or is not sufficiently supported, ventilated, seweraged, drained, cleaned, or lighted, in reference to its intended or actual use, and whatever renders the air or human food or drink unwholesome, are also severally, in contemplation of this chapter, nuisances, and all such nuisances are hereby declared illegal.

20. Construction of certain words. The word "shall" is always mandatory and not directory, and denotes that the dwelling shall be maintained in all respects according to the mandate as long as it continues to be a dwelling. Wherever the words "charter", "ordinances", "regulations", "superintendent of buildings", "health department", "the board of health", "health officer", "commissioner of public safety", "commissioner of public health", "department charged with the enforcement of this chapter", "corporation counsel", "mayor", "city treasury", or "fire limits" occur in this chapter they shall be construed as if followed by the words "of the city in which the dwelling is situated".

Wherever the words "health department", "health officer", or "duly authorized assistant", or "board of health", "commissioner of public safety", or "commissioner of public health" are employed in this chapter, such words shall be deemed and construed to mean the official or officials in any city to whom is committed the charge of safeguarding the public health. The terms "superintendent of buildings", "building department", and "inspector of buildings" shall embrace the department and the executive head thereof specially charged with the execution of laws and ordinances relating to the construction of buildings. Wherever the words "occupied" or "used" are employed in this chapter such words shall be construed as if followed by the words "or is intended, arranged, designed, built, altered, converted to, rented, leased, let or hired out, to be occupied or used".

Wherever the words "dwelling", "two-family dwelling", "multiple dwelling", "building", "house", "premises" or "lot" are used in this chapter, they shall be construed as if followed by the words "or any part thereof". Wherever the words "city water" are used in this chapter, they shall be construed as meaning any public supply of water through street mains; and wherever the words "public sewer" are used in this chapter they shall be construed as meaning any part of a system of sewers that is used by the public or by concerted action of several users, whether or not such part was constructed at the public expense. Wherever the word "street" is used in this chapter it shall be construed as including for the purpose hereinafter stated any public alley sixteen feet or more in width, namely, for the sole purpose of determining the required open space around and the allowable height of any building abutting thereon.

"Approved fire-resistive material" means as set forth by ordinances, or if not so determined, as approved by the superintendent of buildings. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 2.]

6330. Alteration—change of class. A building not a dwelling, if hereafter converted or altered to such use, shall thereupon become subject to such provisions of this chapter relative to dwellings hereafter erected as the board of health may require. A dwelling of one class if hereafter altered or converted to another class shall thereupon become subject to such provisions of this chapter relative to such latter class as the board of health may require. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 3.]

6331. Unlawful alteration. No dwelling hereafter erected shall at any time be altered so as to be in violation of any provision of this chapter.

No dwelling erected prior to the passage of this chapter shall at any time be altered so as to be in violation of those provisions of this chapter applicable to such dwelling.

If any dwelling or any part thereof is occupied by more families than provided in this chapter, or is erected, altered, or occupied contrary to law, such dwelling shall be deemed an unlawful structure and the health officer may cause such dwelling to be vacated. Any such dwelling shall not again be occupied until it, or its occupation, as the case may be, has been made to conform to the law. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 4.]

6332. Dwelling rebuilt. If a dwelling be damaged by fire or other cause to the extent of sixty-five per cent or more of its original value, exclusive of the value of the foundations, such dwelling shall not be repaired or rebuilt except in conformity with the provisions of this chapter relative to dwellings hereafter erected; provided, however, the owner shall be permitted to rebuild a building of the same size as before, subject to such reasonable provisions regarding light, ventilation, and sanitation as the board of health may prescribe. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 5.]

6334. Sewer connections—water supply. The provisions of this chapter with reference to sewer connections and water supply shall be deemed to apply only where connection with a public sewer and with public water mains is or becomes reasonably accessible. All questions of the practicability of such sewer and water connections shall be decided by the health officer or such other official as the board of health may direct. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 7.]

6335. Minimum requirements—power of cities. The provisions of this chapter shall be held to be the minimum requirements adopted for the protection of health, welfare, and safety of the community. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to invalidate existing ordinances or regulations of any city imposing requirements higher than the minimum requirements laid down in this chapter relative to light, ventilation, sanitation, fire prevention, egress, occupancy, maintenance, and uses for dwellings; nor be deemed to prevent any city subject to this chapter from enacting and putting in force from time to time ordinances and regulations imposing requirements higher than the minimum requirements laid down in this chapter; nor shall anything herein contained be deemed to prevent such cities from prescribing for the enforcement of such ordinances and regulations, remedies and penalties similar or additional to those prescribed herein. Every city subject to this chapter is empowered to enact such ordinances and regulations and to prescribe for their enforcement; and to enact such other ordinances pertaining to the housing of the people, not in conflict with the provisions of this chapter, as shall be deemed advisable by the city council. No ordinance, regulation, ruling, or decision of any municipal body, officer, or authority shall repeal, amend, modify, or dispense with any of the said minimum requirements laid down in this chapter, except as specifically provided herein. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 8.]

6336. Improvements. All improvements specifically required by this chapter upon dwellings erected prior to the date of its passage shall be made within one year from said date, unless time is extended by the health department. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 10.]

6337. Application of provisions. All the provisions of this chapter shall apply to all classes of dwellings, except that in sections where specific reference is made to one or more specific classes of dwellings such provisions shall apply only to those specific classes to which reference is made. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 11.]

LIGHT AND VENTILATION

6338. Height of buildings. No dwelling hereafter erected shall exceed in height one and one-half times the width of the widest street upon which it abuts, nor in any case shall it exceed one hundred feet in height. Such width of street shall be determined by measuring from the front line of the building as constructed to the street line of the opposite side of the street. The provisions of this section shall not apply to hotels. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 12.]

6339. Rear yards. Immediately behind every single and two-family dwelling hereafter erected there shall be, except as hereinafter provided, a rear yard extending across the lot, for a distance equal to at least the width of the dwelling. Such yard shall be open and unobstructed from the ground to the sky. Every part of such yard shall be directly accessible from every other part thereof. The depth of said yard shall be measured at right angles from the rear lot line to the extreme rear part of the dwelling. Such rear yard space shall in no case be less than ten feet deep, and two feet additional for each story of the dwelling on said lot above the first.

An irregular shaped lot, or lot subject to building line restrictions, may be occupied by a dwelling without complying with the provisions of this section, if the total yard space equals that required by this section.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to hotels. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 13.]

6340. Building to side line of lot—side yards. Dwellings hereafter erected may be built up to the side lot line, if the side wall is without windows, or if with windows the air and light required by this chapter are provided otherwise than by windows on the lot line, or if the side lot line abuts on a street or alley. If, however, any side yard is left, it shall be open and unobstructed from the ground to the sky, and its width shall be proportionate to the height of the dwelling, and no side yard shall be less in width in any part than as follows:

1. Multiple dwellings. In the case of all multiple dwellings hereafter erected, one story in height and having a side yard, the width of the side yard measured to the side lot line shall be at least four feet, and such side yard shall be increased in width by one foot for each additional story above the first.

2. Private dwellings and two-family dwellings. In the case of private dwellings and two-family dwellings hereafter erected, one story or two stories in height, the width of the side yard measured to the side lot line shall be at least four feet; such side yard shall be increased in width one foot for each additional story above the second.

3. Distance between buildings on same lot. Where more than one dwelling is erected upon the same lot, the distance between them shall not be less than eight feet in the case of dwellings of one or two stories in height, this distance to be increased two feet for each additional story above the second. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 14.]

6341. Courts—size of. The size of all courts in dwellings hereafter erected shall be proportionate to the height of the dwelling. No court shall be less in any part than the minimum sizes prescribed in this section. The minimum width of an outer court for a one-story dwelling shall be five feet, for a two-story dwelling six feet, for a three-story dwelling seven feet, and shall increase one foot for each additional story above three stories. The least dimension of an inner court shall never be less than twice the minimum width prescribed by this section for an outer court. The width of all courts adjoining the lot line shall be measured to the lot line and not to an opposite building. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 15.]

6342. Covered courts. No court of a dwelling hereafter erected shall be covered by a roof or skylight. Every such court shall be at every point open from the ground to the sky unobstructed; except that in the case of hotels, courts may start on the floor level of the lowest bedroom story, and in the case of other multiple dwellings where there are stores or shops on the lower story or stories, courts may start on the top of such lower story or stories. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 16.]

6343. Air intake. In all dwellings hereafter erected every inner court extending through more than one story shall be provided with a horizontal air intake at the bottom. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 17.]

6344. Corners of courts. Nothing contained in the foregoing sections concerning courts shall be construed as preventing the cutting off of the corners of said courts. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 18.]

6345. Other buildings on same lot. If any building is hereafter placed on the same lot with a dwelling, there shall always be maintained between the said buildings an open and unoccupied space extending upwards from the ground. If such buildings are placed at the side of each other the space between them shall conform to the provisions of section 6340 relating to side yards, but shall be twice the minimum therein required. If such buildings are placed one at the rear of the other the space between them shall be the same as that prescribed in section 6339 for rear yards. In all cases the height of the highest building on the lot shall regulate the dimensions.

No building of any kind shall be hereafter placed upon the same lot with a dwelling so as to decrease the minimum sizes of courts or yards hereinbefore prescribed, except that, in case of a lot less than seventy-five feet deep, a one-story garage, not more than twenty-five feet deep, measured lengthwise of the lot, nor more than twenty-five feet in the other dimensions, or other one-story building, of like dimensions, used exclusively for domestic purposes and not as a dwelling or for the shelter or habitation of animals or fowls of any kind, may occupy one-third of the depth of the open space in this section prescribed.

If any dwelling is hereafter erected upon any lot upon which there is already another building, it shall comply with all the provisions of this chapter, and, in addition, the space between the said building and the said dwelling shall be of such size and arranged in such manner as is herein prescribed, the height of the highest building on the lot to regulate the dimensions. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 19; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 82, § 1.]

6346. Windows. In every dwelling hereafter erected every room shall have at least one window opening directly upon the street or a public alley or other public space at least sixteen feet in width, or upon a yard or court of the dimensions specified in this chapter, and located on the same lot, and such window shall be so located as to properly light all portions of such rooms. This provision shall not, however, apply to rooms used as art galleries, swimming pools, gymnasiums, squash courts, or for similar purposes, provided such rooms are adequately lighted and ventilated. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 20.]

6348. Living and bed rooms. In every dwelling hereafter erected all living rooms and bed rooms shall be of the following minimum sizes: Every such room shall contain at least eighty square feet of floor area, except that kitchenettes may be forty square feet in area; no such room, except kitchenette, shall be in any part less than seven feet wide. In multiple dwellings of class A, in each apartment, group, or suite of rooms there shall be at least one room containing not less than one hundred twenty square feet of floor area. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 22.]

6349. Height of rooms. No room in a private dwelling hereafter erected shall be in any part less than eight feet three inches high from the finished floor to the finished ceiling downstairs and seven feet six inches upstairs; except that an attic room used for living purposes in such private dwelling need be seven feet six inches in but one-half of its area.

No room in a two-family dwelling or multiple dwelling hereafter erected shall be in any part less than eight feet three inches high from the finished floor to the finished ceiling, except that in a two-family dwelling constructed so as to be occupied on two floors by one family, the height of the rooms on the second floor shall be the same as herein provided for a private dwelling. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 23.]

6350. Partitions. In every dwelling hereafter erected an alcove in any room intended or used for separate occupancy shall be separately lighted and ventilated as provided for rooms in the foregoing sections. No part of any room in a dwelling hereafter erected shall be inclosed or subdivided at any time, wholly or in part, by a fixed partition for permanent separate occupancy, unless such part of the room so inclosed or subdivided shall be separately lighted and ventilated as provided for rooms in the foregoing sections. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 24.]

6351. Windows in bathrooms. In every dwelling hereafter erected every water-closet compartment and every bathroom shall have an aggregate window area of at least four square feet between stop beads opening directly upon the street, or upon a yard or court of the dimensions specified in this chapter. Every such window shall be made so as to open in all its parts. Nothing in this section contained shall be construed so as to prohibit a general toilet room containing several water-closet compartments separated from each other by dwarf partitions, provided such toilet room is adequately lighted and ventilated to the outer air as above provided, and that such water-closets are supplemental to the water-closet accommodations required by the provisions of section 6358.

The above provision shall not apply to hotels or dwellings that have a system of forced ventilation so constructed as entirely to change the air in every bathroom, toilet room, or water-closet compartment every seven minutes. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 25.]

6352. Lighting and ventilation of halls. Every multiple dwelling, every public hall, and stair hall shall have adequate lighting and ventilation as the board of health may require. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 26.]

SANITATION

6353. Cellar rooms. In dwellings hereafter erected no room in the cellar shall be occupied for living purposes. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 27.]

6355. Basement or cellar under entrance floor. Every dwelling hereafter erected shall have a basement, cellar, or excavated space under the entire entrance floor, at least three feet in depth, or shall be elevated above the ground so that there will be a clear air space of at least eighteen inches between the top of the ground and the floor joists so as to insure ventilation and protection from dampness; provided, however, that cement floors may be laid on the ground level if desired. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 29.]

6356. Courts and yards graded and drained. In every dwelling hereafter erected all courts, areas, and yards shall be properly graded and drained, and when required by the health officer the courts shall be properly concreted in whole or in part as may be necessary. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 30.]

6357. Sinks and washbowls. In every dwelling hereafter erected and not exempted in section 6334, there shall be a proper sink and washbowl with running water, exclusive of any sink in the cellar. In two-family dwellings and in multiple dwellings of class A there shall be such a sink or washbowl in each apartment, suite, or group of rooms. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 31.]

6358. Water-closets. In every dwelling hereafter erected there shall be a separate water-closet. Each such water-closet shall be placed in a compartment completely separated from every other water-closet; such compartment shall be not less than thirty inches wide, and shall be inclosed with partitions which shall extend to the ceiling. Every such compartment shall have a window opening directly upon the street or upon a yard or court of the minimum sizes prescribed by this chapter and located upon the same lot. Nothing in this section contained shall be construed so as to prohibit a general toilet room containing several water-closet compartments separated from each other by dwarf partitions, provided such toilet room is adequately lighted and ventilated to the outer air as above provided and that such water-closets are supplemental to the water-closet accommodations required by other provisions of this section for the occupants of said house. No water-closet fixture shall be incased with any woodwork. No water-closet shall be placed in a cellar of a multiple dwelling except with written permit from the health officer. In two-family dwellings and in multiple dwellings of class A hereafter erected there shall be for each family a separate water-closet constructed and arranged as above provided and located within each apartment, suite, or group of rooms. In multiple dwellings of class B hereafter erected there shall be provided at least one water-closet for every twenty occupants or fraction thereof. Every water-closet compartment hereafter placed in any dwelling shall be provided with proper means of lighting the same at night. The provisions of this section regarding windows in water-closet compartments shall not apply to dwellings that have a system of forced ventilation as provided in section 6351. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 32.]

6359. Accessibility to city water and sewers. No multiple dwelling shall hereafter be erected unless there is accessible city water and a public sewer, or a private sewer connected directly with a public sewer. No cesspool or similar means of sewage disposal shall be used in connection with any dwelling where connection with a public sewer is practicable. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 33.]

6360. Plumbing fixtures. In every dwelling hereafter erected no plumbing fixture shall be incased, but the space underneath shall be left entirely open. Plumbing pipes shall be exposed, when so required by the health officer. All plumbing work shall be sanitary in every particular and, except as otherwise specified in this chapter, shall be in accordance with the plumbing regulations of said city. All fixtures shall be trapped. Pan, plunger, and long hopper closets will not be permitted. Wooden sinks will not be permitted. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 34.]

FIRE PROTECTION

6361. Dwellings—fire-resistive materials. No dwelling shall hereafter be erected exceeding four stories in height, unless it shall be of fire-resistive material; the building, however, may step up to follow the street grade, provided no part of it is over four stories in height. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 35.]

6362. Egress from multiple dwellings. Every multiple dwelling hereafter erected exceeding two stories in height shall have at least two independent ways of egress, each of which shall extend from the ground floor to the roof, and shall be located remote from each other, and each shall be arranged as provided elsewhere in this chapter. One of such ways of egress shall be a flight of stairs constructed and arranged as provided in sections 6365 to 6368, inclusive. In multiple dwellings of class A the second way of egress shall be directly accessible to each apartment, group, or suite of rooms without having to pass through the first way of egress. In multiple dwellings of class B the second way of egress shall be directly accessible from a public hall. The second way of egress may be any one of the following, as the owner may select:

1. A system of outside balcony fire escapes constructed and arranged so as to comply with the state fire laws.

2. An additional flight of stairs, either inside or outside, constructed and arranged as provided in sections 6364 to 6367, inclusive.

3. A fire tower located, constructed, and arranged as may be required by the superintendent of buildings. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 36.]

6363. Flat-roofed multiple dwellings. Every flat-roofed multiple dwelling hereafter erected exceeding one story in height shall have in the roof a bulkhead or a scuttle not less than two feet by three feet in size. Such scuttle or bulkhead shall be fireproof or covered with metal on the outside and shall be provided with stairs leading thereto and easily accessible to all occupants of the building. No scuttle or bulkhead shall be located in a closet or room, but shall be located in the ceiling of the public hall on the top floor, and access through the same shall be direct and uninterrupted. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 37.]

6364. Stairs in two-story multiple dwellings. Every multiple dwelling two stories or more in height hereafter erected shall have at least one flight of stairs extending from the entrance floor to the roof; and the stairs and public halls therein shall each be at least four feet wide in the clear. All stairs shall be constructed with a rise of not more than eight inches and with treads not less than ten inches wide and not less than four feet long in the clear. Winding stairs will not be permitted. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 38.]

6365. Stairs in multiple dwellings. In multiple dwellings hereafter erected which exceed two stories in height, the stair halls shall be constructed of fire-resistive material throughout. The risers, strings, and balusters shall be of metal, concrete, or stone. The treads shall be of metal, slate, concrete, or stone, or of hardwood not less than two inches thick. Wooden handrails will be permitted if constructed of hardwood. The floors of all such stair halls shall be constructed of iron, steel, or concrete beams and fireproof filling, and no wooden flooring or sleepers shall be permitted. In multiple dwellings hereafter erected which exceed two stories in height, at least one flight of stairs shall be inclosed in fireproof walls from the cellar to the roof. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 39.]

6366. Stair halls in such dwellings. In all multiple dwellings hereafter erected which exceed two stories in height, all stair halls shall be inclosed on all sides with walls of brick or other fire-resistive material not less than eight inches thick. The doors opening from such stair halls shall be fire-resistive and self-closing fire doors of the swinging type. There shall be no transom or sash or similar opening from such stair hall to any other part of the building occupied for living purposes. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 40.]

6367. Multiple dwelling of less than five stories. In multiple dwellings hereafter erected less than five stories high, where there is but one stairway, the entrance hall shall be not less than five feet wide in the clear; and in multiple dwellings five or more stories high, the width shall be not less than six feet and the entrance hall shall have an additional width of two feet for each additional stairway served. In every multiple dwelling hereafter erected, access shall be had from the street or alley to the yard, either in a direct line or through a court. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 41.]

6368. Dumb-waiters, chutes, and shafts. In multiple dwellings hereafter erected all dumb-waiters, chutes, ventilating and miscellaneous shafts shall be inclosed in an inclosure of fire-resistive material with self-closing fire doors at all entrances into same, including cellar entrances.

In multiple dwellings hereafter erected which shall exceed two stories in height or which are occupied by more than two families above the grade floor, elevators, if provided, shall not be permitted in well holes or in the same shaft as the stairs, but shall be in a separate shaft or inclosure of fire-resistive material such as brick not less than eight inches in thickness, reinforced concrete not less than four inches in thickness, well burned tile or terra cotta not less than six inches in thickness.

All entrances into elevator shafts shall be protected by fire doors either self-closing or closed inside by elevator operator. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 42.]

6370. Closets in multiple dwellings. In multiple dwellings hereafter erected no closet of any kind shall be constructed under any staircase leading from the entrance story to the upper stories, but such space shall be left entirely open and kept clear and free from incumbrance. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 44.]

6371. Cellar entrance. In every multiple dwelling hereafter erected there shall be an entrance to the cellar or other lowest story from the outside of said building. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 45.]

6372. Wooden multiple dwellings. No wooden multiple dwelling shall hereafter be erected exceeding two stories in height and no wooden building now used as a multiple dwelling shall hereafter be altered into a multiple dwelling exceeding two stories in height. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 46.]

ALTERATIONS

6373. Enlargement of dwellings. No dwelling shall hereafter be enlarged or its lot diminished, or other building placed on the lot, so that the rear yard or side yard shall be less in size than the minimum sizes prescribed in sections 6339 and 6340 for dwellings hereafter erected. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 47.]

6374. Inner courts. An inner court hereafter constructed in a dwelling erected prior to the passage of this chapter, if extending only through one or two stories, shall be not less than six feet by eight feet in size; and if it extends through more than two stories, it shall be not less than eight feet by ten feet in size. All inner courts shall be opened to the sky, without skylight, or roof of any kind. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 48.]

6375. Additional halls or rooms. Any additional room or hall that is hereafter constructed or created in a dwelling shall comply in all respects with the provisions of this chapter with reference to dwellings hereafter erected, except that it may be of the same height as the other rooms of the same story of the dwelling. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 49.]

6376. Light and ventilation. No dwelling shall be so altered or its lot diminished that any room or public hall or stairs shall have its light or ventilation diminished in any way not approved by the health officer. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 50.]

6377. Stairs. No stairs leading to the roof in any multiple dwelling shall be removed or be replaced with a ladder. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 51.]

6378. Bulkheads. Every bulkhead hereafter constructed in a multiple dwelling shall be constructed of fire-resistive material or covered with metal. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 52.]

6379. Public halls or stairs. No public hall or stairs in a multiple dwelling shall be reduced in width so as to be less than the minimum width prescribed in sections 6364 and 6367. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 53; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 82, § 2.]

6380. Dumb-waiter and elevator shafts. All dumb-waiters and elevators hereafter constructed in multiple dwellings shall be in inclosures constructed of fire-resistive material with fire-resistive doors at all openings at each story, including the cellar. In the case of dumb-waiter shafts such doors shall be self-closing; and such shafts shall be completely separated from the stairs by walls of approved fire-resistive material inclosing the same.

This section does not apply to dumb-waiter shafts or elevator shafts which are already in existence, but only to those which may be installed after this chapter takes effect. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 54.]

6381. Water-closets. Any water-closet hereafter placed in a dwelling, except one provided to replace a defective or insanitary fixture in the same location, shall comply with the provisions of sections 6351, 6358, and 6360, relative to water-closets in dwellings hereafter erected. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 55.]

6383. General rule as to alterations. Except as specified above, no dwelling shall be so altered nor shall its lot be so diminished, nor shall any building be so placed on the same lot, as to cause the dwelling to be in violation of the requirements of this chapter for dwellings hereafter erected; nor shall any room, public hall, or stairs have its light or ventilation diminished in any way not approved by the health officer. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 57.]

6384. Skylights—ventilators. All new skylights hereafter placed in a multiple dwelling shall be provided with ventilators having a minimum opening of forty square inches and also with either fixed or movable louvers or with movable sashes, and shall be of such size as may be determined to be practicable by the health officer. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 58.]

6385. Divided rooms—window. No part of any room in a dwelling shall hereafter be inclosed or subdivided for separate occupancy, wholly or in part by a fixed partition, unless such part of a room so inclosed or subdivided shall contain a window as required by sections 6346, 6347, and 6350 and have a floor area of not less than eighty square feet. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 59; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 82, § 3.]

MAINTENANCE

6386. Lights. In every multiple dwelling a proper light shall be kept burning by the owner in the public hallways near the stairs upon each floor every night from sunset to sunrise throughout the year if so required by the health officer. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 60.]

6387. Water-closets. No water-closet shall be maintained in the cellar of any dwelling without a permit in writing from the health officer, who shall have power to make rules and regulations governing the maintenance of such closets. Under no circumstances shall the general water-closet accommodations of any multiple dwelling be permitted in the cellar or basement thereof; this provision, however, shall not be construed so as to prohibit a general toilet room containing several water-closets, provided such water-closets are supplementary to those required by law. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 61.]

6388. Number of water-closets. In every dwelling existing prior to the passage of this chapter, there shall be provided at least one water-closet for every two apartments, groups, or suites of rooms, or fraction thereof, except that in multiple dwellings of class B there shall be provided at least one water-closet for every twenty occupants or fraction thereof. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 62.]

6389. Cellar or basement rooms. No room in the cellar of any dwelling erected prior to the passage of this chapter shall be occupied for living purposes. And no room in the basement of any such dwelling shall be so occupied without a written permit from the health officer. No such room shall hereafter be occupied unless all the following conditions are complied with:

1. Such room shall be at least seven feet high in every part from the floor to the ceiling.

2. The ceiling of such room shall be in every part at least three feet six inches above the surface of the street or ground outside of or adjoining the same.

3. There shall be appurtenant to such room the use of a water-closet.

4. At least one of the rooms of the apartment of which such room is an integral part shall have a window or windows opening directly to the street or yard, with an aggregate of at least twelve square feet in size clear of the sash frame, and which shall open readily for purposes of ventilation.

5. The lowest floor shall be waterproof and damp proof.

6. Such room shall have sufficient light and ventilation, shall be well drained and dry, and shall be fit for human habitation. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 63.]

6390. Color cellar walls. The cellar walls and cellar ceilings of every multiple dwelling shall by the owner be thoroughly whitewashed or painted a light color and shall be so maintained by him when required by the health officer. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 64.]

6391. Floor beneath water-closets. In all two-family dwellings and multiple dwellings the floor or other surface beneath and around water-closets and sinks shall be maintained in good order and repair and if of wood shall be kept well painted. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 65.]

6392. Repair of dwelling. Every dwelling and all the parts thereof shall be kept in good repair by the owner, and the roof shall be kept so as not to leak, and all rain water shall be so drained and conveyed therefrom as not to cause dampness in the walls or ceilings. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 66.]

6393. Water supply—sinks. Every dwelling not exempted in section 6384 shall have within the dwelling at least one proper sink with running water furnished in sufficient quantity at one or more places exclusive of the cellar. In two-family dwellings and multiple dwellings of class A there shall be at least one sink on every floor, accessible to each family on the floor occupied by said family without passing through any other apartment. Where city water is not available the owner shall provide proper and suitable tanks, pumps, or other appliances to receive and to distribute an adequate and sufficient supply of water at each floor in the said dwelling at all times of the year, during all hours of the day and night. But a failure in the general supply of city water shall not be construed to be a failure on the part of such owner, provided proper and suitable appliances to receive and distribute such water have been provided in said dwelling. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 67.]

6394. Catch basins. In the case of dwellings where, because of lack of city water supply or sewers, sinks with running water are not provided inside the dwellings, one or more catch basins or some other approved convenience for the disposal of waste water, if necessary in the opinion of the health officer, shall be provided in the yard or court, level with the surface thereof and at a point easy of access to the occupants of such dwelling. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 68.]

6395. Accumulations of dirt. Every dwelling and every part thereof shall be kept clean and shall also be kept free from any accumulation of dirt, filth, rubbish, garbage, or other matter in or on the same, or in the yards, courts, passages, areas, or alleys connected with or belonging to the same. The owner of every dwelling and in the case of a private dwelling the occupant thereof, shall thoroughly cleanse or cause to be cleansed all the rooms, passages, stairs, floors, windows, doors, walls, ceilings, privies, water-closets, cesspools, drains, halls, cellars, roofs, and all other parts of the said dwelling, or part of the dwelling of which he is the owner or in case of a private dwelling the occupant, to the satisfaction of the health officer, shall keep the said parts of the said dwelling in a cleanly condition at all times. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 69.]

6396. Color of walls of courts. In multiple dwellings the walls of all courts, unless built of a light color brick or stone, shall be thoroughly whitewashed by the owner or shall be painted a light color by him, and shall be so maintained. Such whitewash or paint shall be renewed whenever necessary, as may be required by the health officer. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 70.]

6397. Color of walls of other rooms. In all multiple dwellings erected prior to this chapter, the health officer may require the walls and ceilings of every room that does not open directly on the street to be calcimined or painted so as to furnish adequate lighting of such room and may require this to be renewed as often as may be necessary. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 71.]

6398. Garbage receptacles. The owner of every dwelling and in the case of a private dwelling the occupant shall provide for said dwelling, keep clean and in place, proper covered receptacles of nonabsorbent material for holding garbage, refuse, rubbish, and other waste matter. Garbage chutes are prohibited. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 72.]

6399. Animals. No horse, cow, calf, swine, sheep, goat, chickens, geese or ducks shall be kept in any dwelling or part thereof. Nor shall any such animal be kept on the same lot or premises with a dwelling except under such conditions as may be prescribed by the health officer. No such animal, except a horse, shall under any circumstances be kept on the same lot or premises with a multiple dwelling. No dwelling or the lot or premises thereof shall be used for the storage or handling of rags or junk. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 73.]

6400. Articles dangerous to life or health. No dwelling nor any part thereof, nor of the lot upon which it is situated, shall be used as a place of storage, keeping, or handling of any article dangerous or detrimental to life or health; nor of any combustible article except under such conditions as may be prescribed by the fire commissioner, or the proper official, under authority of a written permit issued by him. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 74.]

6401. Openings where paint, oil, gasoline, or drugs are stored. There shall be no transom, window, or door opening into a public hall from any part of a multiple dwelling where paint, oil, gasoline, or drugs are stored or kept for the purpose of sale or otherwise. This provision shall not apply to hotels. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 75.]

6402. Janitors. In any multiple dwelling in which the owner thereof does not reside, there shall be a janitor, housekeeper, or other responsible person who shall have charge of the same, if the health officer shall so require. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 76.]

6403. Overcrowding of rooms. If any room in a dwelling is overcrowded the health officer may order the number of persons sleeping or living in said room to be so reduced that there shall be not less than four hundred cubic feet of air to each adult and two hundred cubic feet of air to each child under twelve years of age occupying such room. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 77.]

6404. Subletting of lodgings—eviction. The health officer may prohibit in any multiple dwelling the letting of lodgings therein by any of the tenants occupying such multiple dwelling, and may prescribe conditions under which lodgers or boarders may be taken in multiple dwellings. It shall be the duty of the owner in the case of multiple dwellings to see that the requirements of the health officer in this regard are at all times complied with, and a failure to so comply on the part of any tenant, after due and proper notice from said owner or from the health officer, shall be deemed sufficient cause for the summary eviction of such tenant and the cancellation of his lease. The provisions of this section may be extended to private dwellings and two-family dwellings, as may be found necessary by the health officer. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 78.]

6405. Dwellings unfit for habitation—eviction. Whenever it shall be certified by an inspector or officer of the health department that a dwelling is infected with contagious disease or that it is unfit for human habitation, or dangerous to life or health by reason of want of repair, or of defects in the drainage, plumbing, lighting, ventilation, or the construction of the same, or by reason of the existence on the premises of a nuisance likely to cause sickness among the occupants of said dwelling, the health officer may issue an order requiring all persons therein to show cause why they should not be required to vacate such house within a time to be set by him, for the reasons to be mentioned in said order. In case such order is not complied with within the time specified, the health officer may cause said dwelling to be vacated. The health officer, whenever he is satisfied that the danger from said dwelling has ceased to exist, or that it is fit for human habitation, may revoke said order or may extend the time within which to comply with the same. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 79.]

6406. Nuisances. Whenever any dwelling or any building, structure, excavation, business pursuit, matter, or thing, in or about a dwelling, or the lot on which it is situated, or the plumbing, sewerage, drainage, light, or ventilation thereof, is in the opinion of the health officer in a condition or in effect dangerous or detrimental to life or health, the health officer may after notice and failure to correct, declare that the same to the extent he may specify is a public nuisance, and may order the same to be removed, abated, suspended, altered, or otherwise improved or purified as the order shall specify. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 80.]

6407. Fire escapes. The owner of every multiple dwelling on which there are fire escapes shall keep them in good order and repair, and whenever rusty shall have them properly painted with two coats of paint. No person shall at any time place an obstruction of any kind before or upon such fire escape. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 81.]

6408. Scuttles and bulkheads. In all multiple dwellings where there are scuttles or bulkheads, they and all stairs or ladders leading thereto shall be easily accessible to all occupants of the building and shall be kept free from obstruction and ready for use at all times. No scuttle and no bulkhead door shall at any time be locked with a key, but may be fastened on the inside by movable bolts or hooks. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 82.]

IMPROVEMENTS

6409. Windows. No room in a dwelling erected prior to the passage of this chapter shall hereafter be occupied for living purposes unless it shall have a window of an area of not less than eight square feet opening directly upon the street, or upon a rear yard not less than four feet deep, or above the roof of an adjoining building, or upon a court or side yard of not less than twenty-five square feet in area open to the sky without roof or skylight, unless such room is located on the top floor and is adequately lighted and ventilated by a skylight, opening directly to the outer air; except that a room which can not be made to comply with the above provisions may be occupied if provided with a sash window of not less than fifteen square feet in area, opening into an adjoining room in the same apartment group or suite of rooms, which latter room opens directly on the street or on a rear yard of the above dimensions. Said sash window shall be a vertically sliding pulley-hung sash not less than three feet by five feet between stop beads, both halves shall be made so as to readily open, and the lower half shall be glazed with translucent glass, and so far as possible it shall be in line with windows in the said outer room opening on the street or rear yard so as to afford a maximum of light and ventilation. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 83.]

6410. Light and ventilation. In all multiple dwellings erected prior to the passage of this chapter the public halls and stairs shall be provided with as much light and ventilation to the outer air as may be deemed practicable by the board of health who may order the cutting in of windows and skylights and such other improvements and alterations in said dwellings as in its judgment may be necessary and appropriate to accomplish this result. All new skylights hereafter placed in such dwellings shall be of such size as may be determined to be practicable by said board of health. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 84.]

6411. Sinks and water-closets. In all multiple dwellings erected prior to the passage of this chapter the woodwork incasing sinks except sinks in butler's pantries, and water-closets shall be removed and the space underneath said fixtures shall be left open. The floor and wall surfaces beneath and around the said fixtures shall be put in good order and repair, and if of wood shall be kept well painted. Defective and insanitary water-closet fixtures shall be replaced by proper fixtures, as defined by this chapter. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 85.]

6412. Sewer connections. Whenever a connection with a sewer is possible, all privy vaults, range closets, cesspools, or other similar receptacles used to receive fecal matter, urine, or sewerage, shall, before July 1, 1920, with their contents, be completely removed and the place where they were located properly disinfected under the direction of the health officer. Such appliances shall be replaced by individual water-closets of durable nonabsorbent material, properly sewer-connected, and with individual traps and properly connected flush tanks providing an ample flush of water to thoroughly cleanse the bowl. Each such water-closet shall be located inside the dwelling or other building in connection with which it is to be used in a compartment completely separated from every other water-closet, and such compartment shall contain a window of not less than four square feet in area opening directly to the street or rear yard or on a side yard or court of the minimum size prescribed in sections 6340 and 6341. Such water-closets shall be provided in such numbers as required by section 6388. Such water-closets and all plumbing in connection therewith shall be sanitary in every respect and, except as in this chapter otherwise provided, shall be in accordance with the local ordinances and regulations in relation to plumbing and drainage. Pan, plunger, and long hopper closets will not be permitted except upon written permit of the health officer. No water-closet shall be placed out of doors. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 86.]

6413. Freedom from dampness. The floor of the cellar or lowest floor of every dwelling shall be free from dampness, and, when necessary in the judgment of the health officer, shall be concreted with not less than two inches of concrete of good quality and with a finished surface. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 87.]

6414. Access to shaft or court. In every dwelling where there is a court or shaft of any kind, there shall be at the bottom of every such shaft and court a door giving sufficient access to such shaft or court to enable it to be properly cleaned out; provided that where there is already a window giving proper access it shall be deemed sufficient. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 88.]

6415. Ways of egress. Every multiple dwelling exceeding two stories in height shall have at least two independent ways of egress constructed and arranged as provided in section 6362. In the case of multiple dwellings erected prior to the passage of this chapter, where it is not practicable in the judgment of the building inspector to comply in all respects with the provisions of that section, said building inspector shall make such requirements as may be appropriate to secure proper means of egress from such multiple dwellings for all the occupants thereof. No existing fire escape shall be deemed a sufficient means of egress unless the following conditions are complied with:

1. All parts of it shall be of iron, cement, or stone.

2. The fire escape shall consist of outside balconies which shall be properly connected with each other by adequate stairs or stationary ladders, with openings not less than twenty-four by twenty-eight inches.

3. All fire escapes shall have proper drop ladders or stairways from the lowest balcony of sufficient length to reach a safe landing place beneath.

4. All fire escapes not on the street shall have a safe and adequate means of egress from the yard or court to the street or alley or to the adjoining premises.

5. Prompt and ready access shall be had to all fire escapes, which shall not be obstructed by bathtubs, water-closets, sinks, or other fixtures, or in any other way. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 89.]

6416. Additional egress. Whenever any multiple dwelling is not provided with sufficient means of egress in case of fire, the building inspector shall order such additional means of egress as may be necessary. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 90.]

6417. Skylight — access to roof. Unless there is a bulkhead in the roof there shall be over every inside stairway used by more than one family, a skylight or scuttle not less than two feet by three feet in size. Every flat roof multiple dwelling, exceeding one story in height, shall have at least one convenient and permanent means of access to the roof located in a public part of the building and not in a room or closet. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 91.]

REQUIREMENTS AND REMEDIES

6418. Plans, plat, and specifications required. Before the construction or alteration of a dwelling, or the alteration or conversion of a building for use as a dwelling is commenced and before the construction or alteration of any building or structure on the same lot with a dwelling, the owner, or his agent or architect, shall submit to the board of health a detailed statement in writing, certified by the affidavit of the person making the same, of the specifications for such dwelling or building, upon blanks or forms to be furnished by such board of health, and also full and complete copies of the plans of such work. With such statement there shall be submitted a plat of the lot showing the dimensions of the same, the location of the proposed building and all other buildings on the lot. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 92.]

6419. Detailed requirements. Such statement shall give in full the name and residence, by street and number, of the owner or owners of such dwelling or building and the purposes for which such dwelling or building will be used. If such construction, alteration, or conversion is proposed to be made by any other person than the owner of the land in fee, such statement shall contain the full name and residence, by street and number, not only of the owner of the land, but of every person interested in such dwelling, either as owner, lessee, or in any representative capacity. Said affidavit shall allege that said specifications and plans are true and contain a correct description of such dwelling, building, structure, lot, and proposed work. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 92.]

6420. By whom made. The statements and affidavits herein provided for may be made by the owner, his agent or architect, or by the person who proposes to make the construction, alteration, or conversion, or by the agent or architect of such person. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 92.]

6421. Who deemed agent. No one, however, shall be recognized as the agent of the owner or of such person unless he shall file with said health officer a written instrument signed by such owner or person, as the case may be, designating him as such agent. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 92.]

6422. Perjury. Any intentional false oath in a material point in any such affidavit shall be deemed perjury. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 92.]

6423. Filing and preservation. Such specifications, plans, and statements shall be filed in said health department and shall be deemed public records, but no such specifications, plans, or statements shall be removed from said health department. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 92.]

6424. Approval. The health officer shall cause all such plans and specifications to be examined. If such plans and specifications conform to the provisions of this chapter they shall within five days be approved by the health officer or his duly authorized assistant, and a written certificate to that effect shall be issued by him to the person submitting the same. The health officer shall, from time to time, approve changes in any plans and specifications previously approved by him, provided the plans and specifications when so changed shall be in conformity with law. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 92.]

6425. Construction prohibited. The construction, alteration, or conversion of such dwelling, building, or structure, or any part thereof, shall not be commenced until the filing of such specifications, plans, and statements, and the approval thereof, as above provided. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 92.]

6426. Certificate of health officer. No permit shall be granted and no plan approved by the department of buildings, where such exists, for the construction or alteration of a dwelling or for the alteration or conversion of any building for use as a dwelling until there has been filed in the office of the department of buildings a certificate of the health officer issued as above provided to the effect that such dwelling conforms to the provisions of this chapter. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 92.]

6427. Construction authorized. The construction, alteration, or conversion of such dwelling, building, or structure shall be in accordance with such approved specifications and plans. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 92.]

6429. Revocation of permit. The health officer or his duly authorized assistant shall have power to revoke or cancel any permit or approval in case of any failure or neglect to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter, or in case any false statement or representation is made in any specifications, plans, or statements submitted or filed for such permit or approval. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 92.]

6430. Enforcement in certain cities. In cities of more than one hundred thousand population, as shown by the last state or federal census, having a department or division of building inspection in charge of a person devoting his entire time to the supervision of building construction and to the enforcement of laws and ordinances relating to building construction, repair, alteration, removal, and to related matters, the city council may by ordinance provide that said person shall be charged with the powers and duties charged in sections 6418 to 6429, inclusive, to the board of health and to the health officer, and that all plans, specifications, affidavits, forms, and statements, in said sections prescribed to be filed with the health officer shall be filed with such person; and that said person may issue valid permits, certificates, and orders providing, without the certificate of the health officer hereinbefore provided to be filed in the office of the department of buildings. [39 G. A., ch. 160, § 1.]

6431. New or altered buildings—habitation. No part of a building hereafter constructed as or altered into a dwelling shall be occupied in whole or in part for human habitation until the issuance of a certificate by the health officer that such part of said dwelling conforms to the requirements of this chapter relative to dwellings hereafter erected. Such certificate shall be issued within three days after written application therefor if said dwelling at the date of such application shall be entitled thereto. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 93.]

6432. Rents uncollectible. If any building hereafter constructed as, or altered into, a dwelling be occupied in whole or in part for human habitation in violation of the last section, during such unlawful occupation no rent shall be recoverable by the owner or lessee of such premises for said period, and no action or special proceeding shall be maintained therefor or for possession of said premises for non-payment of said rent, and said premises shall be deemed unfit for human habitation and the health officer may cause them to be vacated accordingly. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 94.]

6433. Violations. Every person who shall violate or assist in the violation of any provision of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than ten dollars or more than one hundred dollars, and in default in payment thereof, by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than thirty days. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 95.]

6434. Civil liability. The owner of any dwelling, or of any building or structure upon the same lot with a dwelling, or of the said lot, where any violation of this chapter, or a nuisance as herein defined, exists who has been guilty of such violation or of creating or knowingly permitting the existence of such nuisance, and any person who shall violate or assist in violating any provision of this chapter, shall also jointly and severally for each such violation and each such nuisance be subject to a civil penalty of fifty dollars to be recovered for the use of the health department in civil action brought in the name of the municipality by the health officer. Such persons and also said premises shall also be liable in such case for all costs, expenses, and disbursements paid or incurred by the health department, by any of the officers, agents, or employees thereof in the removal of any such nuisance or violation. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 95.]

6435. Additional liability. Any person who having been served with a notice or order to remove any such nuisance or violation shall fail to proceed in good faith to comply with said notice or order within five days after such service, or shall continue to violate any provisions or requirements of this chapter in the respect named in said notice or order, shall also be subject to a civil penalty of fifty dollars. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 95.]

6436. Recovery. For the recovery of any such penalties, costs, expenses, or disbursements, an action may be brought in any court of competent civil jurisdiction. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 95.]

6437. Lien on property. The existence of a nuisance in or upon such dwelling, structure on the same lot with a dwelling, or on such lot, which the owner thereof has created or permitted to exist and any violation of this chapter as to such dwelling, structure, and lot of which the owner has been guilty shall in such proceeding subject such dwelling, structure, and lot respectively to a penalty of fifty dollars, which shall be a lien thereon until paid; and any violation of an order made or a notice given by the health officer, permitted or committed by the owner of a dwelling, structure on the same lot with a dwelling, or such lot, shall in such proceeding subject the dwelling, structure, and lot respectively to a penalty of fifty dollars, which penalty shall be a lien thereon until paid. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 95.]

6438. Practice and procedure generally. Except as herein otherwise specified, the procedure for the prevention of violations of this chapter or for the vacation of premises unlawfully occupied, or for other abatement of nuisances, or for the bringing of action therefor, shall be in accordance with the existing practice and procedure. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 96.]

6439. Action to enjoin. In case any dwelling, building, or structure is constructed, altered, converted, or maintained in violation of any provision of this chapter, or of any order or notice of the health officer, or in case a nuisance exists in any such dwelling, building, or structure or upon the lot on which it is situated, said health officer may institute any appropriate action or proceeding to prevent such unlawful construction, alteration, conversion, or maintenance, to restrain, correct, or abate such violation or nuisance, to prevent the occupation of said dwelling, building, or structure, or to prevent any illegal act, conduct, or business in or about such dwelling or lot. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 96.]

6440. Injunction. In any such action or proceeding said health officer may by petition duly verified, setting forth the facts, apply to the district, superior, or municipal court, or to any judge thereof in term time or vacation, for an order granting the relief for which said action or proceeding is brought, or for an order enjoining all persons from doing or permitting to be done any work in or about such dwelling, building, structure, or lot, or from occupying or using the same for any purpose until the entry of final judgment or order. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 96.]

6441. Authority to execute. In case any notice or order issued by said health officer is not complied with, said health officer may apply to the district, superior, or municipal court or to any judge thereof in term time or vacation for an order authorizing him to execute and carry out the provisions of said notice or order, to correct any violation specified in said notice or order, or to abate any nuisance in or about such dwelling, building, or structure or the lot upon which it is situated. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 96.]

6442. Orders authorized. The court or any judge thereof is hereby authorized to make any order specified in the two preceding sections. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 96.]

6443. Eviction. If the occupant of a dwelling shall fail to comply with the provisions of this chapter after due and proper notice from the health officer, such failure to comply shall be deemed sufficient cause for the eviction of such tenant by the owner and the cancellation of his lease. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 97.]

such dwelling, for the purpose of receiving service of all notices required by this chapter, and also a description of the property by street number or otherwise as the case may be, in such manner as will enable the health department easily to find the same. The name of the owner or lessee may be filed as agent for this purpose. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 98.]

6445. Notices generally. Every notice or order required by this chapter shall be served at least ten days before the time for doing the thing in relation to which it shall have been issued, unless otherwise herein provided. The posting of a copy of such notice or order in a conspicuous place in the dwelling, together with the mailing of a copy thereof on the same day that it is posted, to the owner and lessee of the dwelling affected thereby, and each person, if any, whose name has been filed with the health department in accordance with the provisions of the preceding section at his address as filed, shall be sufficient service thereof. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 99.]

6446. Notice of actions. In any action brought by the health officer in relation to a dwelling for injunction, vacation of the premises, or abatement of nuisance, or to establish a lien thereon, or to recover a civil penalty, service of notices shall be in the manner provided by law for the service of original notices; provided that if the address of any agent whose name and address have been filed in accordance with the provisions of the second preceding section is in the county in which the dwelling is situated, then such notice may be served upon such agent. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 100.]

6447. Enforcement generally. The provisions of this chapter shall be enforced in each city by the health officer, except that the department of buildings, where such department exists in a city, shall enforce the provisions contained in sections 6361 to 6372, inclusive, and 6415 to 6417, inclusive. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 101.]

6449. Inspection of multiple dwellings. The health officer or such other appropriate public official as the mayor may designate, shall cause an inspection to be made of every multiple dwelling at least once a year. Such inspection shall include thorough examination of all parts of such multiple dwelling and the premises connected therewith. The health officer or such other official so designated is also hereby empowered to make similar inspections of all dwellings as frequently as may be necessary; and shall make inspection at any time on complaint of the owner, tenant, or other person concerned. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 103.]

6450. Entrance and survey of buildings. The health officer and all inspectors, officers, and employees of the board of health, and such other persons as may be authorized by the health officer, may without fee or hindrance enter, examine, make necessary records, and survey all premises, grounds, erections, structures, apartments, dwellings, buildings, and every part thereof in the city. The owner or his agent or representative and the lessee and occupant of every dwelling and every person having the care and management thereof shall at all reasonable times when required by any such officers or persons give them free access to such dwellings and premises. The owner of a dwelling and his agents and employees shall have right of access to such dwelling at reasonable times for the purpose of bringing about compliance with the provisions of this chapter or any order issued thereunder. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 104.]

6451. Ordinances. All charter provisions, regulations, and ordinances of cities are hereby superseded in so far as they do not impose requirements other than the minimum requirements of this chapter, and except in case of such higher local requirements, this chapter shall in all cases govern. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 107.]

MUNICIPAL ZONING

NOTE: This chapter made applicable to special charter cities by § 6820.

6452. Building restrictions—powers granted.
 6453. Districts.
 6454. Basis of regulations.
 6455. Regulations and boundaries.
 6456. Changes—hearing—notice.
 6457. Zoning commission.
 6458. Board of adjustment.
 6459. Membership.
 6460. Rules—meetings—general procedure.
 6461. Appeals.
 6462. Effect of appeal.

6463. Powers.
 6464. Decision on appeal.
 6465. Vote required.
 6466. Petition for certiorari.
 6467. Writ—restraining order.
 6468. Return.
 6469. Trial—judgment—costs.
 6470. Preference in trial.
 6471. Actions to correct violations.
 6472. Conflicting rules, ordinances, and statutes.
 6473. Restricted residence districts.

6452. Building restrictions—powers granted. For the purpose of promoting the health, safety, morals, or the general welfare of the community, any city or town, including cities acting under the commission plan of government, is hereby empowered to regulate and restrict the height, number of stories, and size of buildings and other structures, the percentage of lot that may be occupied, the size of yards, courts, and other open spaces, the density of population, and the location and use of buildings, structures, and land for trade, industry, residence, or other purposes. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 1.]

6453. Districts. For any or all of said purposes the local legislative body, hereinafter referred to as the council, may divide the city or town into districts of such number, shape, and area as may be deemed best suited to carry out the purposes of this chapter; and within such districts it may regulate and restrict the erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair, or use of buildings, structures, or land. All such regulations and restrictions shall be uniform for each class or kind of buildings throughout each district, but the regulations in one district may differ from those in other districts. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 2.]

6454. Basis of regulations. Such regulations shall be made in accordance with a comprehensive plan and designed to lessen congestion in the street; to secure safety from fire, panic, and other dangers; to promote health and the general welfare; to provide adequate light and air; to prevent the overcrowding of land; to avoid undue concentration of population; to facilitate the adequate provision of transportation, water, sewerage, schools, parks, and other public requirements.

Such regulations shall be made with reasonable consideration, among other things, as to the character of the area of the district and the peculiar suitability of such area for particular uses, and with a view to conserving the value of buildings and encouraging the most appropriate use of land throughout such city or town. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 3.]

6455. Regulations and boundaries. The council of such city or town shall provide for the manner in which such regulations and restrictions and the boundaries of such districts shall be determined, established, and enforced, and from time to time amended, supplemented, or changed. However, no such regulation, restriction, or boundary shall become effective until after a public hearing in relation thereto, at which parties in interest and citizens shall have an opportunity to be heard. At least fifteen days' notice of the time and place of such hearing shall be published in a paper of general circulation in such city or town. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 4.]

6456. Changes—hearing—notice. Such regulations, restrictions, and boundaries may, from time to time, be amended, supplemented, changed, modified, or repealed. In case, however, of a protest against such change signed by the owners of twenty per cent or more either of the area of the lots included in such proposed change, or of those immediately adjacent in the rear thereof extending the depth of one lot or not to exceed two hundred feet therefrom, or of those directly opposite thereto, extending the depth of one lot or not to exceed two hundred feet from the street frontage of such opposite lots, such amendment shall not become effective except by the favorable vote of at least three-fourths of all the members of the council. The provisions of the previous section relative to public hearings and official notice shall apply equally to all changes or amendments. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 5.]

6457. Zoning commission. In order to avail itself of the powers conferred by this chapter, the council shall appoint a commission, to be known as the zoning commission, to recommend the boundaries of the various original districts, and appropriate regulations and restrictions to be enforced therein. Where a city plan commission already exists, it may be appointed as the zoning commission. Such commission shall, with due diligence, prepare a preliminary report and hold public hearings thereon before submitting its final report; and such council shall not hold its public hearings or take action until it has received the final report of such commission. After the adoption of such regulations, restrictions, and boundaries of districts, the zoning commission may, from time to time, recommend to the council amendments, supplements, changes, or modifications. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 6.]

6458. Board of adjustment. The council shall provide for the appointment of a board of adjustment and in the regulations and restrictions adopted pursuant to the authority of this chapter shall provide that the said board of adjustment may in appropriate cases and subject to appropriate conditions and safeguards make special exceptions to the terms of the ordinances in harmony with its general purpose and intent and in accordance with general or specific rules therein contained and provide that any property owner aggrieved by the action of the council in the adoption of such regulations and restrictions may petition the said board of adjustment direct to modify regulations and restrictions as applied to such property owners. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 7.]

6459. Membership. The board of adjustment shall consist of five members each to be appointed for a term of five years, excepting that when the board shall first be created one member shall be appointed for a term of five years, one for a term of four years, one for a term of three years, one for a term of two years, and one for a term of one year. Members shall be removable for cause by the appointing authority upon written charges and after public hearing. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term of any member whose term becomes vacant. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 7.]

6460. Rules—meetings—general procedure. The board shall adopt rules in accordance with the provisions of any ordinance adopted pursuant to this chapter. Meetings of the board shall be held at the call of the chairman and at such other times as the board may determine. Such chairman, or in his absence, the acting chairman, may administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses. All meetings of the board shall be open to the public. The board shall keep minutes of its proceedings, showing the vote of each member upon each question, or if absent or failing to vote, indicating such fact, and shall keep records of its examinations and other official actions, all of which shall be immediately filed in the office of the board and shall be a public record. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 7.]

6461. Appeals. Appeals to the board of adjustment may be taken by any person aggrieved or by any officer, department, board, or bureau of the municipality affected by any decision of the administrative officer. Such appeal shall be taken within a reasonable time as provided by the rules of the board by filing with the officer from whom the appeal is taken and with the board of adjustment a notice of appeal specifying the grounds thereof. The officer from whom the appeal is taken shall forthwith transmit to the board all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 7.]

6462. Effect of appeal. An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from, unless the officer from whom the appeal is taken certifies to the board of adjustment after the notice of appeal shall have been filed with him that by reason of facts stated in the certificate a stay would in his opinion cause imminent peril to life or property. In such case proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by the board of adjustment or by a court of record on application on notice to the officer from whom the appeal is taken and on due cause shown. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 7.]

6463. Powers. The board of adjustment shall have the following powers:

1. To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is error in any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of this chapter or of any ordinance adopted pursuant thereto.

2. To hear and decide special exceptions to the terms of the ordinance upon which such board is required to pass under such ordinance.

3. To authorize upon appeal in specific cases such variance from the terms of the ordinance as will not be contrary to the public interest, where owing to special conditions a literal enforcement of the provisions of the ordinance will result in unnecessary hardship, and so that the spirit of the ordinance shall be observed and substantial justice done. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 7.]

6464. Decision on appeal. In exercising the above mentioned powers such board may, in conformity with the provisions of this chapter, reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision, or determination appealed from and may make such order, requirement, decision, or determination as ought to be made, and to that end shall have all the powers of the officer from whom the appeal is taken. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 7.]

6465. Vote required. The concurring vote of three members of the board shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision, or determination of any such administrative official, or to decide in favor of the applicant on any matter upon which it is required to pass under any such ordinance or to effect any variation in such ordinance. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 7.]

6466. Petition for certiorari. Any person or persons, jointly or severally, aggrieved by any decision of the board of adjustment under the provisions of this chapter, or any taxpayer, or any officer, department, board, or bureau of the municipality, may present to a court of record a petition, duly verified, setting forth that such decision is illegal, in whole or in part, specifying the grounds of the illegality. Such petition shall be presented to the court within thirty days after the filing of the decision in the office of the board. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 7.]

6467. Writ—restraining order. Upon the presentation of such petition, the court may allow a writ of certiorari directed to the board of adjustment to review such decision of the board of adjustment and shall prescribe therein the time within which a return thereto must be made and served upon the relator's attorney, which shall not be less than ten days and may be extended by the court. The allowance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from, but the court may, on application, on notice to the board and on due cause shown, grant a restraining order. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 7.]

6468. Return. The board of adjustment shall not be required to return the original papers acted upon by it, but it shall be sufficient to return certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be called for by such writ. The return shall concisely set forth such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from and shall be verified. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 7.]

6469. Trial—judgment—costs. If upon the hearing which shall be tried de novo it shall appear to the court that testimony is necessary for the proper disposition of the matter, it may take evidence or appoint a referee to take such evidence as it may direct and report the same to the court with his findings of fact and conclusions of law, which shall constitute a part of the proceedings upon which the determination of the court shall be made. The court may reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the decision brought up for review.

Costs shall not be allowed against the board, unless it shall appear to the court that it acted with gross negligence or in bad faith or with malice in making the decision appealed from. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 7.]

6470. Preference in trial. All issues in any proceedings under the foregoing sections shall have preference over all other civil actions and proceedings. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 7.]

6471. Actions to correct violations. In case any building or structure is erected, constructed, reconstructed, altered, repaired, converted, or maintained; or any building, structure, or land is used in violation of this chapter or of any ordinance or other regulation made under authority conferred thereby, the council, in addition to other remedies, may institute any appropriate action or proceedings to prevent such unlawful erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair, conversion, maintenance, or use, to restrain, correct, or abate such violation, to prevent the occupancy of said building, structure, or land, or to prevent any illegal act, conduct, business, or use in or about such premises. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 8.]

6472. Conflicting rules, ordinances, and statutes. Wherever the regulations made under authority of this chapter require a greater width or size of yards, courts or other open spaces, or require a lower height of building or less number of stories, or require a greater percentage of lot to be left unoccupied, or impose other higher standards than are required in any other statute or local ordinance or regulation, the provisions of the regulations made under authority of this chapter shall govern. Wherever the provisions of any other statute or local ordinance or regulation require a greater width or size of yards, courts or other open spaces, or require a lower height of building or a less number of stories, or require a greater percentage of lot to be left unoccupied, or impose other higher standards than are required by the regulations made under authority of this chapter, the provisions of such statute or local ordinance or regulation shall govern. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 9.]

6473. Restricted residence districts. When any city or town shall have taken advantage of and proceeded under the provisions of this chapter, then chapter 325 shall be no longer operative as to such city or town. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 10.]

RESTRICTED RESIDENCE DISTRICTS

NOTE: This chapter made applicable to special charter cities by § 6821.

6474. Petition.

6475. Ordinance—scope.

6474. Petition. Cities of the first class, including cities under commission form of government, may, and upon petition of sixty per cent of the owners of the real estate in the district sought to be affected residing in such city shall, designate and establish, by appropriate proceedings, restricted residence districts within its limits. [37 G. A., ch. 138, § 1.]

NOTE: Ordinances establishing restricted districts to be certified by city clerk and filed with and recorded by county recorder, see §§ 5724 to 5727, inc.

6475. Ordinance—scope. In the ordinance designating and establishing such restricted residence district, every such city is hereby empowered to provide and establish reasonable rules and regulations for the erection, reconstruction, altering, and repairing of buildings of all kinds, within said district, as well as the use and occupancy of such buildings; and to provide that no building or other structure, except residences, schoolhouses, churches, and other similar structures, shall thereafter be erected, altered, or repaired, or occupied without first securing from the city council of such city a permit therefor, such permit to be issued under such reasonable rules and regulations as may in said ordinance be provided. [37 G. A., ch. 138, § 2.]

6476. Ordinance—violations. Any building or structure erected, altered, repaired, or used in violation of any ordinance passed under the authority of the two preceding sections, shall be deemed a nuisance, and every such city is hereby empowered to provide by ordinance for the abatement of such nuisance, either by fine or imprisonment, or by action in the district or municipal court of the county in which such city is located, or by both; such action to be prosecuted in the name of the city. [37 G. A., ch. 138, § 3.]

GENERAL PROVISIONS

6477. Terms defined. In the construction of this chapter the following rules shall be observed, unless such construction would be inconsistent with the manifest intent, or repugnant to, the context of the statute.

1. The words "councilman" or "alderman" shall be construed to mean "councilman" when applied to cities under this chapter.

2. When an office or officer is named in any law referred to in this chapter, it shall, when applied to cities under this chapter, be construed to mean the office or officer having the same functions or duties under the provisions of this chapter, or under ordinances passed under authority thereof.

3. The word "franchise" shall include every special privilege in the streets, highways, and public places of the city, whether granted by the state or city, which does not belong to citizens generally by common right.

4. The word "electors" shall be construed to mean persons qualified to vote for elective officers at regular municipal elections. [S., '13, § 1056-a35.]

6478. Petitions. Petitions provided for in this chapter shall be signed by none but legal voters of the city. Each petition shall contain, in addition to the names of the petitioners, the street and house number in which the petitioner resides, his age, and length of residence in the city. It shall also be accompanied by the affidavit of one or more legal voters of the city stating that the signers thereof were, at the time of signing, legal voters of said city, and the number of signers at the time the affidavit was made. [S., '13, § 1056-a40.]

a population of two thousand or over, may become organized as a city under the provisions of this chapter by proceeding as hereinafter provided. [S., '13, § 1056-a17.]

6480. Reduction in population — effect. Whenever any city shall have been heretofore or may be hereafter organized on the commission plan under the provisions of this chapter, no reduction of the population of such city shown by a subsequent census shall have any effect upon the organization, rights, powers, duties, or obligations of such city or any of its officers, but the same shall continue and remain as though no such reduction or apparent reduction of population was made to appear. [S., '13, § 1056-a17a.]

6481. Population — how determined. The population in this chapter referred to shall be the population as shown by the last preceding state or national census excepting where such census of any such city shows a less population than at the time the voters of such city adopted the plan of government in this chapter provided for, in which case the population shown by the census immediately preceding such adoption shall govern. [40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 30.]

6482. Petition. Upon petition of electors equal in number to twenty-five per cent of the votes cast for all candidates for mayor at the last preceding city election of any such city, the mayor shall, not less than thirty days prior to the election to be held as herein provided, by proclamation submit the question of organizing as a city under this chapter at a special election to be held at a time specified therein, and within two months after said petition is filed; provided, however, that in case not less than ten per cent of the qualified electors of any city reside in each of two or more townships, said petition shall be signed by not less than ten per cent of the qualified electors of said city residing in each of said townships. [S., '13, § 1056-a18.]

6483. Question submitted. At such election, the proposition to be submitted shall be, "Shall the proposition to organize the city of (name the city), under chapter 326 of the code be adopted?" and the election thereupon shall be conducted, the vote canvassed, and the result declared in the same manner as provided by law in respect to other city elections. [S., '13, § 1056-a18.]

6484. Officers elected. If the majority of the votes cast shall be in favor thereof, cities having a population of twenty-five thousand and over shall thereupon proceed to the election of a mayor and four councilmen, and cities having a population of two thousand and less than twenty-five thousand shall proceed to the election of a mayor and two councilmen, as hereinafter provided. [S., '13, § 1056-a18.]

6485. First election. At the next regular city election after the adoption of such proposition there shall be elected a mayor and councilmen. In the event, however, that the next regular city election does not occur within one year after such special election the mayor shall, within ten days after such special election, by proclamation call a special election for the election of a mayor and councilmen, sixty days' notice thereof being given in such call, such election in either case to be conducted as hereinafter provided. [S., '13, § 1056-a18.]

6487. Resubmission of question. If said plan is not adopted at the special election called, the question of adopting said plan shall not be resubmitted to the voters of said city for adoption within two years thereafter, and then the question to adopt shall be resubmitted upon the presentation of a petition signed by electors as hereinbefore provided, equal in number to twenty-five per cent of the votes cast for all candidates for mayor at the last preceding general city election. [S., '13, § 1056-a18.]

THE COUNCIL

6488. Membership. In every city having a population of twenty-five thousand and over there shall be elected at the regular biennial municipal election a mayor and four councilmen, and in every city having a population of two thousand and less than twenty-five thousand, there shall be elected at such election a mayor and two councilmen. [S., '13, § 1056-a20.]

6489. Nomination — election — terms. Said officers shall be nominated and elected at large.

Said officers shall qualify and their terms of office shall begin on the first Monday after their election. [S., '13, § 1056-a20.]

6490. Vacancies. If any vacancy occurs in any such office the remaining members of said council shall appoint a person to fill such vacancy during the balance of the unexpired term. [S., '13, § 1056-a20.]

6491. Termination of terms. The terms of office of the mayor and councilmen or aldermen in such city in office at the beginning of the terms of office of the mayor and councilmen first elected under the provisions of this chapter shall then cease and determine, and the terms of office of all other appointive officers in force in such city, except as hereinafter provided, shall cease and determine as soon as the council shall by resolution declare. [S., '13, § 1056-a20.]

6493. Time, place, and manner of conducting. The primary election for such nomination shall be held on the second Tuesday preceding the general municipal election. It shall be held at the same places, so far as possible, and the polls shall be opened and closed at the same hours, as are required for said general municipal election. [S., '13, § 1056-a21; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 5, § 115-a1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 3.]

6494. Judges and clerks. The judges and clerks of election appointed for the general municipal election shall be the judges and clerks of the primary election. [39 G. A., ch. 109, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 4.]

6495. Affidavit of candidacy. Any person desiring to become a candidate for mayor or councilman shall, at least ten days prior to said primary election, file with the city clerk a statement of such candidacy, in substantially the following form:

State of Iowa }
County, } ss

I,....., being first duly sworn, say that I reside at street, city of, county of, state of Iowa; that I am a qualified voter therein; that I am a candidate for nomination to the office of (here specify the office of mayor, or the particular department or departments, as the case may be), to be voted upon at the primary election to be held on Tuesday of 19, and I hereby request that my name be printed upon the official primary ballot for nomination by such primary election for such office.

[S., '13, § 1056-a21; 39 G. A., ch. 109, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 5.]

6497. Form of petition. Said petition shall be in substantially the following form:

PETITION ACCOMPANYING NOMINATING STATEMENT

The undersigned, duly qualified electors of the city of, and residing at the places set opposite our respective names hereto, do hereby request that the name of (name of candidate) be placed on the ballot as a candidate for nomination for (here specify the office of mayor or the particular department or departments, as the case may be) at the primary election to be held in such city on the Tuesday of, 19....

We further state that we know him to be a qualified elector of said city and a man of good moral character and qualified in our judgment for the duties of such office.

Name of Qualified Electors. Street Residence No. City of Residence.

[S., '13, § 1056-a21; 39 G. A., ch. 109, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 7.]

6498. Verification. The affidavit of one or more electors of the city, as to the qualifications and residence, with street number, of each signer of the petition, shall be indorsed on or attached to each petition. [S., '13, § 1056-a21; 39 G. A., ch. 109, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 8.]

6499. Publication of ballot. Immediately upon the expiration of the time of filing the statements and petitions for candidacies, the said city clerk shall cause to be published for three successive days in all the daily newspapers published in the city, in proper form, the names of the persons as they are to appear upon the primary ballot, in the first of the precincts as arranged by him, and if there be no daily newspaper, then in two issues of any other newspapers that may be published in said city. [S., '13, § 1056-a21; 39 G. A., ch. 109, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 9.]

6500. Preparation of ballots. The city clerk shall cause the primary ballots to be printed upon plain, substantial white paper, and to be authenticated by a facsimile of his signature. No ballot shall have any party designation thereon. [S., '13, § 1056-a21; 39 G. A., ch. 109, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 10.]

6501. Form of ballot in major cities. The ballots in all cities having a population of twenty-five thousand or over shall be in substantially the following form:

..... City Clerk.

[S., '13, § 1056-a21; 39 G. A., ch. 109, § 1; 40 G. A., ch. 135, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 12.]

6504. Arrangement of names. The names of the candidates shall be arranged and printed upon the primary election ballots in the following manner, to wit: The city clerk shall prepare a list of the election precincts of his city, by arranging the various wards or precincts of such city in numerical order. He shall then arrange the surnames of all candidates for such offices alphabetically for the respective offices for the first precinct in the list; thereafter, for each succeeding precinct, the name or names appearing first for the respective offices in the last precinct should be placed last, so that the names that were second before the change shall be first after the change. [39 G. A., ch. 109, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 13.]

6505. Number of ballots. The city clerk shall cause to be delivered at each polling place a number of said ballots equal to twice the number of votes cast in such polling precinct at the last general municipal election for mayor. [S., '13, § 1056-a21; 39 G. A., ch. 109, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 14.]

6506. Qualification of electors—challenges. Persons who are qualified to vote at the general municipal election shall be qualified to vote at such primary election. Challenges can be made by not more than two persons, to be appointed at the time of opening the polls by the judges of election; and the law applicable to challenges at a general municipal election shall be applicable to challenges made at such primary election. [S., '13, § 1056-a21; 39 G. A., ch. 109, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 15.]

6507. Canvass of votes—return. Judges of election shall, immediately upon the closing of the polls, count the ballots and ascertain the number of votes cast in such precinct for each of the candidates, and make return thereof to the city clerk, upon proper blanks to be furnished by the said city clerk, within six hours after the closing of the polls. [S., '13, § 1056-a21; 39 G. A., ch. 109, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 16.]

6508. Canvass of returns—publication. On the day following the primary election, the city clerk shall publicly canvass said returns so received from the polling precincts, and shall make and publish in all the newspapers of said city, at least once, the result thereof. [S., '13, § 1056-a21; 39 G. A., ch. 109, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 17.]

6509. General municipal ballot. The ballot at such general municipal election shall be in the same general form as for such primary election, so far as applicable. [S., '13, § 1056-a21; 39 G. A., ch. 109, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 18.]

6510. Ballot with dual candidates. The city clerk in preparing the ballots for the ensuing general municipal election shall cause to be printed under the caption for a particular office, or combination of offices if any, the names of the two candidates who received the highest number of votes at the primary for said particular office, or combination of offices. [S., '13, § 1056-a21; 39 G. A., ch. 109, § 1; 40 G. A., ch. 135, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 19.]

6511. Ballot with one candidate. If there be but one candidate, at the primary election, for a particular office, or combination of offices, his name shall be printed upon the general municipal ballot as a candidate for said particular office, or combination of offices, as the case may be. [40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 20.]

6512. Arrangement and rotation of names. The names of the candidates shall be arranged and printed upon the general municipal election ballot in the same manner in which they are arranged and printed on the municipal primary ballot. [S., '13, § 1056-a21; 39 G. A., ch. 109, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 21.]

6514. General municipal election statutes. In all elections in such cities, the election precincts, voting places, method of conducting election, canvassing the vote, and announcing the results shall be the same as by law provided for election of officers in cities of the first or second class, so far as the same are applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. [S., '13, § 1056-a21; 39 G. A., ch. 109, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 23.]

6515. Services for hire. Any person who shall agree to perform any services in the interest of any candidate for any office provided in this chapter, in consideration of any money or other valuable thing for such services performed in the interest of any candidate, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty days. [S., '13, § 1056-a22.]

6516. Bribery and illegal voting. Any person offering to give a bribe, either in money or other consideration, to any elector for the purpose of influencing his vote at any election provided in this chapter, or any elector entitled to vote at any such election receiving and accepting such bribe or other consideration; any person making false answer to any of the provisions of this chapter relative to his qualifications to vote at said election; any person wilfully voting or offering to vote at such election who has not been a resident of this state for six months next preceding said election, or who is not twenty-one years of age, or is not a citizen of the United States, or knowing himself not to be a qualified elector of such precinct where he offers to vote; and any person knowingly procuring, aiding, or abetting any violation hereof shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined a sum not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail not less than ten nor more than ninety days. [S., '13, § 1056-a23.]

6517. Salaries. The mayor and councilmen shall have an office in the city hall, and their total compensation shall be as follows:

1. In cities having by the last preceding state or national census a population of less than twenty-five thousand, the mayor and councilmen shall receive as their annual salaries the amount to be fixed by ordinance, as follows: For the mayor, not to exceed the sum of one hundred fifty dollars per annum for each one thousand of population, or major portion thereof, in such city, and for each councilman in such city, not to exceed the sum of one hundred twenty dollars per annum for each one thousand population, or major portion thereof; provided, however, that in such city no mayor shall receive a salary greater than the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars per annum, nor in such city shall a councilman receive as his annual salary an amount greater than two thousand dollars per annum; and provided, further, that during the first term of office under the provisions of this chapter, the mayor and councilmen shall by ordinance fix their compensation as herein provided for their term of office; but thereafter the salary of any such officer shall not be increased or decreased during the term for which he shall have been elected or appointed.

2. In cities having by such census a population of twenty-five thousand and less than forty thousand, the mayor's annual salary shall be twenty-five hundred dollars, and that of each councilman, eighteen hundred dollars.

3. In cities having by such census a population of forty thousand and less than sixty thousand, the mayor's annual salary shall be three thousand dollars, and that of each councilman twenty-five hundred dollars.

4. In cities having by such census a population of sixty thousand or more, the mayor's annual salary shall be thirty-five hundred dollars, and that of each councilman, three thousand dollars.

Such salaries shall be payable in equal monthly installments. [S., '13, § 1056-a28.]

6518. Increase in salary. Any increase in salary occasioned under the provisions of this article by increase in population in any city shall commence with the month next after the official publication of the census showing such increase therein. [S., '13, § 1056-a28.]

6519. Salaries of minor officers. Every other officer or assistant shall receive such salary or compensation as the council shall by ordinance provide, payable in equal monthly installments. The salary or compensation of all other employees of such city shall be fixed by the council and shall be payable monthly or at such shorter periods as the council shall determine. [S., '13, § 1056-a28.]

6520. Governing body. Every city having a population of twenty-five thousand and over shall be governed by a council consisting of the mayor and four councilmen, and every city having a population of two thousand and less than twenty-five thousand shall be governed by a council consisting of the mayor and two councilmen, chosen as provided in this chapter, each of whom shall have the right to vote on all questions coming before the council. [S., '13, § 1056-a24.]

6521. Quorum. In cities having four councilmen three members of the council shall constitute a quorum, and in cities having two councilmen, two members of the council shall constitute a quorum. [S., '13, § 1056-a24.]

6522. Affirmative vote required. In cities having four councilmen the affirmative vote of three members, and in cities having two councilmen the affirmative vote of two members shall be necessary to adopt any motion, resolution, or ordinance, or pass any measure, unless a greater number is provided for in this chapter. [S., '13, § 1056-a24.]

6523. Yeas and nays—writings—reading. Upon every vote the yeas and nays shall be called and recorded, and every motion, resolution, or ordinance shall be reduced to writing and read before the vote is taken thereon. [S., '13, § 1056-a24.]

6524. Presiding officer. The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the council. He shall have no power to veto any measure. [S., '13, § 1056-a24.]

6525. Meetings. Regular meetings of the council shall be held on the first Monday after the election of councilmen, and thereafter at least once each month. The council shall provide by ordinance for the time of holding regular meetings, and special meetings may be called from time to time by the mayor or two councilmen. All meetings of the council, whether regular or special, at which any person not a city officer is admitted, shall be open to the public. [S., '13, § 1056-a29.]

6526. President. The mayor shall be president of the council and preside at its meetings, and shall supervise all departments and report to the council for its action all matters requiring attention in either. [S., '13, § 1056-a29.]

6527. Vice president. The superintendent of the department of accounts and finances shall be vice president of the council, and in case of vacancy in the office of mayor, or the absence or inability of the mayor, shall perform the duties of mayor. [S., '13, § 1056-a29.]

6528. Minor officers and assistants. The council shall, at the first regular meeting after election, or as soon as practical thereafter, elect by majority vote the following city officers:

1. Clerk.
2. Solicitor.
3. Assessor.
4. Treasurer.
5. Auditor.
6. Civil engineer.
7. Health physician.
8. Marshal.
9. Market master.
10. Street commissioner.

11. Such other officers and assistants as shall be provided by ordinance, and are necessary for the proper and efficient conduct of the affairs of the city. [S. S., '15, § 1056-a26; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 25.]

6529. Officers in certain cities. In cities having a population of less than twenty-five thousand such only of the above named officers shall be appointed as may, in the judgment of the mayor and councilmen, be necessary for the proper and efficient transaction of the affairs of the city. [S. S., '15, § 1056-a26; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 26.]

6530. Police judge. In those cities of the first class not having a superior court, the council shall appoint a police judge. [S. S., '15, § 1056-a26; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 27.]

6531. In cities of second class. In cities of the second class not having a superior court the mayor shall hold police court, as now provided by law. [S. S., '15, § 1056-a26; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 28.]

6532. Removal of officers. Any officer or assistant elected or appointed by the council may be removed from office at any time by vote of a majority of the members of the council, except as otherwise provided for in this chapter. [S. S., '15, § 1056-a26; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 29.]

NOTE: Removal of city officers, see § 1117.

6533. Create and discontinue offices. The council shall have power from time to time to create, fill, and discontinue offices and employments other than herein prescribed, according to their judgment of the needs of the city; and may by majority vote of all the members remove any such officer or employee, except as otherwise provided for in this chapter; and may by resolution or otherwise prescribe, limit, or change the compensation of such officers or employees. [S., '13, § 1056-a27.]

6534. Interest in contracts. No officer or employee elected or appointed in any such city shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract or job for work or materials, or the profits thereof, or services to be furnished or performed for the city; and no such officer or employee shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract or job for work or materials, or the profits thereof, or services to be furnished or performed for any person, firm, or corporation operating interurban railway, street railway, gasworks, waterworks, electric light or power plant, heating plant, telegraph line, telephone exchange, or other public utility within the territorial limits of said city. [S., '13, § 1056-a31.]

6535. Free passes—services. No such officer or employee shall accept, or receive, directly or indirectly, from any person, firm, or corporation operating within the territorial limits of said city, any interurban railway, street railway, gasworks, waterworks, electric light or power plant, heating plant, telegraph line or telephone exchange, or other business using or operating under a public franchise, any frank, free pass, free ticket or free service, or accept or receive, directly or indirectly, from any such person, firm, or corporation, any other service upon terms more favorable than is granted to the public generally. [S., '13, § 1056-a31.]

6536. Violations. Any violation of the provisions of the two preceding sections shall be a misdemeanor, and every such contract or agreement shall be void. [S., '13, § 1056-a31.]

6538. Political activity. Any officer or employee of such city who, by solicitation or otherwise, shall exert his influence directly or indirectly to influence other officers or employees of such city to adopt his political views or to favor any particular person or candidate for office, or who shall in any manner contribute money, labor, or other valuable thing to any person for election purposes, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days. [S., '13, § 1056-a31.]

REMOVAL FROM OFFICE

6539. Removal by electors—petition. The holder of any elective office may be removed at any time by the electors qualified to vote for a successor of such incumbent. The procedure to effect the removal of an incumbent of an elective office shall be as follows: A petition signed by electors entitled to vote for a successor to the incumbent sought to be removed, equal in number to at least twenty-five per cent of the entire vote for all candidates for the office of mayor cast at the last preceding general municipal election, demanding an election of a successor of the person sought to be removed, shall be filed with the city clerk, which petition shall contain a general statement of the grounds for which the removal is sought. The signatures to the petition need not all be appended to one paper, but each signer shall add to his signature his place of residence, giving the street and number. One of the signers of each such paper shall make oath before an officer competent to administer oaths that the statements therein made are true as he believes, and that each signature to the paper appended is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be. [S., '13, § 1056-a36.]

6540. Examination. Within ten days from the date of filing such petition the city clerk shall examine and from the voters' register ascertain whether or not said petition is signed by the requisite number of qualified electors, and, if necessary, the council shall allow him extra help for that purpose; and he shall attach to said petition his certificate, showing the result of said examination. [S., '13, § 1056-a36.]

6541. Amendment. If by the clerk's certificate the petition is shown to be insufficient, it may be amended within ten days from the date of said certificate. The clerk shall, within ten days after such amendment, make like examination of the amended petition, and if his certificate shall show the same to be insufficient, it shall be returned to the person filing the same, without prejudice, however, to the filing of a new petition to the same effect. [S., '13, § 1056-a36.]

6542. Election called. If the petition shall be deemed to be sufficient, the clerk shall submit the same to the council without delay. If the petition shall be found to be sufficient, the council shall order and fix a date for holding the said election, not less than thirty days or more than forty days from the date of the clerk's certificate to the council that a sufficient petition is filed. [S., '13, § 1056-a36.]

6543. Notice of election—procedure. The council shall make or cause to be made publication of notice and all arrangements for holding such election, and the same shall be conducted, returned, and the result thereof declared, in all respects as are other city elections. [S., '13, § 1056-a36.]

6544. Nominations. So far as applicable, except as otherwise herein provided, nominations hereunder shall be made without the intervention of a primary election by filing with the clerk, at least ten days prior to said special election, a statement of candidacy accompanied by a petition signed by electors entitled to vote at said special election equal in number to at least ten per cent of the entire vote for all candidates for the office of mayor at the last preceding general municipal election, which said statement of candidacy and petition shall be substantially in the form set out in sections 6495 and 6497, so far as the same are applicable, substituting the word "special" for the word "primary" in such statement and petition, and stating therein that such person is a candidate for election instead of nomination. [S., '13, § 1056-a36.]

6545. Incumbent as candidate. Any person sought to be removed may be a candidate to succeed himself, and unless he requests otherwise in writing, the clerk shall place his name on the official ballot without nomination. [S., '13, § 1056-a36.]

6546. Form of ballot. The ballot for such special election shall be in substantially the following form:

OFFICIAL BALLOT

Special election for the balance of the unexpired term

(Vote for one only)
(Names of Candidates)

(Name of present incumbent)

Official ballot attest:
(Signature)

6547. Result—removal—tenure. In any such removal election, the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. At such election if some other person than the incumbent receives the highest number of votes, the incumbent shall thereupon be deemed removed from the office upon qualification of his successor. In case the party who receives the highest number of votes should fail to qualify within ten days after receiving notification of election, the office shall be deemed vacant.

The successor of any officer so removed shall hold office during the unexpired term of his predecessor. [S., '13, § 1056-a36.]

6548. Failure to remove—cumulative remedy. If the incumbent receives the highest number of votes, he shall continue in office. The said method of removal shall be cumulative and additional to the methods heretofore provided by law. [S., '13, § 1056-a36.]

ABANDONMENT OF PLAN

6549. Procedure. Any city which shall have operated for more than six years under the provisions of this chapter may abandon such organization hereunder, and accept the provisions of the general law of the state then applicable to cities of its population, or if now organized under special charter may resume said special charter by proceeding as follows: Upon the petition of not less than twenty-five per cent of the electors of such city a special election shall be called, at which the following proposition only shall be submitted:

"Shall the city of (name of city) abandon its organization under chapter 326 of the code, and become a city under the general law governing cities, or if now organized under special charter, resume said special charter?"

If the majority of the votes cast at such special election be in favor of such proposition, the officers elected at the next succeeding biennial election shall be those then prescribed by the general law of the state for cities of like population, and upon the qualification of such officers such city shall become a city under such general law of the state; but such change shall not in any manner or degree affect the property, rights, or liabilities of any nature of such city, but shall merely extend to such change in its form of government. The sufficiency of such petition shall be determined, the election ordered and conducted, and the results declared, generally as provided by sections 6539 to 6543, inclusive, in so far as the provisions thereof are applicable. [S., '13, § 1056-a39.]

ORDINANCES AND RESOLUTIONS

6550. When effective. No ordinance passed by the council, except when otherwise required by the general laws of the state or by the provisions of this chapter, except an ordinance for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, which contains a statement of its urgency and is passed by a two-thirds vote of the council, shall go into effect before ten days from the time of its final passage. [S., '13, § 1056-a38.]

6551. Petition of protest. If during said ten days a petition signed by electors of the city equal in number to at least twenty-five per cent of the entire vote cast for all candidates for mayor at the last preceding general municipal election at which a mayor was elected, protesting against the passage of such ordinance, be presented to the council, the same shall thereupon be suspended from going into operation, and it shall be the duty of the council to reconsider such ordinance; and if the same is not entirely repealed, the council shall submit the ordinance, as is provided by section 6557 to the vote of the electors of the city, either at the general election or at a special municipal election to be called for that purpose; and such ordinance shall not go into effect or become operative unless a majority of the qualified electors voting on the same shall vote in favor thereof. [S., '13, § 1056-a38.]

6552. Petition — examination and certification. Said petition shall be in all respects in accordance with the provisions of said section except as to the percentage of signers, and be examined and certified to by the clerk in all respects as is provided in section 6556. [S., '13, § 1056-a38.]

6553. Time limit on enactment. Every ordinance or resolution appropriating money or ordering any street improvement or sewer, or making or authorizing the making of any contract, or granting any franchise or right to occupy or use the streets, highways, bridges, or public places in the city for any purpose, shall be complete in the form in which it is finally passed, and remain on file with the city clerk for public inspection at least one week before the final passage or adoption thereof. [S., '13, § 1056-a30.]

6554. Signing and recording. Every resolution or ordinance passed by the council must be signed by the mayor, or by two councilmen, and be recorded, before the same shall be in force. [S., '13, § 1056-a24.]

6556. Petitions for ordinances. Any proposed ordinance may be submitted to the council by petition signed by electors of the city equal in number to the percentage hereinafter required. The signatures, verification, authentication, inspection, certification, amendment, and submission of such petition shall be the same as provided for petitions under sections 6539 to 6543, inclusive. [S., '13, § 1056-a37.]

6557. Ordinance passed or election called. If the petition accompanying the proposed ordinance is signed by electors equal in number to twenty-five per cent of the votes cast for all candidates for mayor at the last preceding general election, and contains a request that the said ordinance be submitted to a vote of the people if not passed by the council, such council shall either (a) pass said ordinance without alteration within twenty days after attachment of the clerk's certificate to the accompanying petition, or (b) forthwith after the clerk shall attach to the petition accompanying such ordinance his certificate of sufficiency, the council shall call a special election, unless a general municipal election is fixed within ninety days thereafter, and at such special or general municipal election, if one is so fixed, such ordinance shall be submitted without alteration to the vote of the electors of said city. [S., '13, § 1056-a37.]

6558. Ordinance passed or election had. If the petition is signed by not less than ten nor more than twenty-five per cent of the electors, as above defined, then the council shall, within twenty days, pass said ordinance without change, or submit the same at the next general city election occurring not more than thirty days after the clerk's certificate of sufficiency is attached to said petition. [S., '13, § 1056-a37.]

6559. Form of ballot. The ballots used when voting upon said ordinance shall contain these words: "For the ordinance" (stating the nature of the proposed ordinance), and "Against the ordinance" (stating the nature of the proposed ordinance). [S., '13, § 1056-a37.]

6560. Multiple submission—limitation. Any number of proposed ordinances may be voted upon at the same election, in accordance with the provisions of the four preceding sections; but there shall not be more than one special election in any period of six months for such purpose. [S., '13, § 1056-a37.]

6561. Adoption by electors—status. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the proposed ordinance shall vote in favor thereof, such ordinance shall thereupon become a valid and binding ordinance of the city; and any ordinance proposed by petition, or which shall be adopted by a vote of the people, can not be repealed or amended except by a vote of the people. [S., '13, § 1056-a37.]

6562. Amendments. The council may submit a proposition for the repeal of any such ordinance, or for amendments thereto, to be voted upon at any succeeding general city election; and should such proposition so submitted receive a majority of the votes cast thereon at such election, such ordinance shall thereby be repealed or amended accordingly. [S., '13, § 1056-a37.]

6563. Publications. Whenever any ordinance or proposition is required by this chapter to be submitted to the voters of the city at any election, the city clerk shall cause such ordinance or proposition to be published once in each of the daily newspapers published in said city, such publication to be not more than twenty nor less than five days before the submission of such proposition or ordinance to be voted on. [S., '13, § 1056-a37.]

GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES

6564. The council. The council shall have and possess, and the council and its members shall exercise, all executive, legislative, and judicial powers and duties now had, possessed, and exercised by the mayor, city council, solicitor, assessor, treasurer, auditor, city engineer, and other executive and administrative officers in cities of the first and second class, and in cities under special charter, and shall also possess and exercise all executive, legislative, and judicial powers and duties now had and exercised by the park commissioners, the board of police and fire commissioners, and board of waterworks trustees, in all cities wherein park commissioners, board of police and fire commissioners, and board of waterworks trustees now exist or may be hereafter created. [S., '13, § 1056-a25.]

6565. Departments. The executive and administrative powers, authority, and duties in such cities shall be distributed into and among five departments, as follows:

1. Department of public affairs.
2. Department of accounts and finances.
3. Department of public safety.
4. Department of streets and public improvements.
5. Department of parks and public property. [S., '13, § 1056-a25.]

6566. Department superintendents. The mayor shall be superintendent of the department of public affairs and each councilman shall be superintendent of the particular department or combination of departments to which he was elected, as the case may be. [S. S., '15, § 1056-a26; 39 G. A., ch. 109, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 7, § 24.]

6567. Statutes applicable. All laws governing cities of the first and second class and not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, and sections 6735, 6736, 6779, 6786, 6789 to 6793, inclusive, 6817, 6823 to 6825, inclusive, and 6932, now applicable to special charter cities and not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, shall apply to and govern cities organized under this chapter. [S., '13, § 1056-a19.]

6568. Existing ordinances. All by-laws, ordinances, and resolutions lawfully passed and in force in any such city under its former organization shall remain in force until altered or repealed by the council elected under the provisions of this chapter. [S., '13, § 1056-a19.]

6569. Existing limits, rights, property, and liability. The territorial limits of such city shall remain the same as under its former organization, and all rights and property of every description which were vested in any such city under its former organization shall vest in the same under the organization herein contemplated, and no right or liability either in favor of or against it, existing at the time, and no suit or prosecution of any kind, shall be affected by such change, unless otherwise provided for in this chapter. [S., '13, § 1056-a19.]

6570. Revision of appropriations. If, at the beginning of the term of office of the first council elected in such city under the provisions of this chapter, the appropriations for the expenditures of the city government for the current fiscal year have been made, said council shall have power, by ordinance, to revise, repeal, or change said appropriations and to make additional appropriations. [S., '13, § 1056-a34.]

6571. Discretionary powers. The council shall determine the powers and duties to be performed by, and assign them to, the appropriate department; shall prescribe the powers and duties of officers and employees; may assign particular officers and employees to one or more of the departments; may require an officer or employee to perform duties in two or more departments; and may make such other rules and regulations as may be necessary or proper for the efficient and economical conduct of the business of the city. [S., '13, § 1056-a25.]

6574. Flood protection—division of work—levy. Whenever in any such city proceedings have been or shall be begun for the purpose of providing flood protection under the provisions of chapter 310, the council shall have power, after the election in said chapter provided for has been had, and without again submitting the matter at an election, to divide the work into parts, sections, or districts, and determine what property would be benefited by the work or improvement in each part, section, or district; to omit parts of said work or any part, section, or district; and to contract for any part, section, or district separately and proceed therewith the same as if the entire work or improvement was contracted for, done, or made. Whenever in any such city the tax provided for in said chapter has not been levied beginning on the date fixed in the resolution of necessity and in the proposition submitted to a vote of the electors, and a part of the period in which such levy is authorized to be made by such vote has expired without such levy having been made, and no certificates or bonds have been issued or sold for the payment of the improvement as provided in said chapter, the council shall have the power to continue the levy provided for in said chapter and in the proposition theretofore submitted to a vote of the electors, for a period not exceeding twenty years, including the several years, if any, for which such tax has heretofore been levied; and it is hereby made the duty of the council to make the levy in the manner provided in section 6100, and to appropriate and apply the proceeds collected after January 1, 1914, from such tax so levied to the payment of flood protection bonds issued by such city under section 6103 if any such there be. [S., '13, § 1056-a41.]

6575. Special assessments. In all cases where special assessments are authorized and no other mode of proceeding is provided by law, the assessment shall be made as nearly as practicable in the manner provided for assessing the cost of street improvements and sewers. [S., '13, § 1056-a42.]

6577. Repairs by street railway companies. In every such city the owner of any street railway occupying or using any bridge shall construct, reconstruct, and repair the paving or flooring on said bridge three and one-half feet each way from the center line of the space between the rails of its tracks, the same to be ordered, done, assessed, and paid for in the manner provided for paving in sections 6052 to 6054, inclusive, 6057 and 6058. [S., '13, § 1056-a44.]

6578. Parks and cemeteries. In addition to the taxes now or hereafter authorized by law every such city shall have the power to levy upon all taxable property therein the following taxes:

1. A tax of not more than one and five-tenths mills on the dollar for the purpose of caring for and improving the parks of said city.
2. A tax of not more than one mill on the dollar for the purpose of caring for and improving any cemetery owned by such city. [S., '13, § 1056-a45.]

6579. Fund for cemeteries. Every such city shall have power to create a fund from tax levies heretofore or hereafter authorized for cemeteries or from the sale of lots in cemeteries, or from other sources, including bequests or donations for the permanent maintenance of cemeteries, and the fund thus created shall not be used for any other purpose; and the city council shall have authority to cause such accumulations to be invested in bonds of the United States, or in municipal bonds or certificates, or other evidence of indebtedness issued by authority of and according to law of this or any other state, when such bonds are at or above par. [S., '13, § 1056-a46.]

6580. Lease of city property—vote. Any such city, by a two-thirds vote of its council, shall have authority to lease any city property for a term of not exceeding one year from the date of leasing the same, where, in the judgment of the council expressed by a two-thirds vote thereof, any such property may not be needed for the immediate use of such city. [S., '13, § 1056-a47.]

6581. Monthly itemized statement—copies. The council shall each month print in pamphlet form a detailed itemized statement of all receipts and expenses of the city and a summary of its proceedings during the preceding month, and furnish printed copies thereof to the state library, the city library, the daily newspapers of the city, and to persons who shall apply therefor at the office of the city clerk. [S., '13, § 1056-a33.]

6582. Annual examination. At the end of each year the council shall cause a full and complete examination of all the books and accounts of the city to be made by competent accountants, and shall publish the result of such examination in the manner above provided for publication of statements of monthly expenditures. [S., '13, § 1056-a33.]

DRAINAGE IN CERTAIN CITIES

6583. Authorization. All cities in this state organized and existing under this chapter and having a population of one hundred thousand or over, into or through which a stream flows which furnishes drainage for any city or town farther up the stream, and whose boundary lines join, shall have the power to construct, repair, and maintain the necessary drains and sewers to preserve and protect the health of such cities. [38 G. A., ch. 407, § 1.]

6584. Resolution of necessity—notice—objections. When any such city located as above indicated desires to construct, repair, and maintain any such sewer or drain, the council of such city shall by resolution determine the necessity for the construction of such drains and sewers, the character and extent thereof, the method of construction, the one or more kinds and size thereof, the property to be assessed therefor, the location and terminal points thereof, and cause twenty days' notice of time when said resolution will be considered by such council for passage to be given by four publications in said city in some newspaper of general circulation published therein, the last of which shall be not less than two nor more than four weeks prior to the time fixed for the consideration of said resolution, at which time the owners of the property subject to assessment for the same may appear and make objection to the contemplated improvement, sewer, or drain, and the passage of said proposed resolution, at which hearing the same may be amended and passed or passed as proposed. [38 G. A., ch. 407, § 2.]

6585. Sewer districts—assessments. Such city shall have power to establish sewer districts to embrace all or such portions of said commission-governed cities as in the judgment of the council thereof will receive special benefits from the construction, repair, improvement, or reconstruction of such sewer or sewers, to change the boundaries of same from time to time as may become in the judgment of such council just and equitable, and to assess so much of the cost of such drains and sewers against all lots or tracts of land contained in the sewer district within which such improvements are made as shall equal and be in proportion to the special benefits conferred by said improvement and not in excess thereof. In no case shall such assessment exceed twenty-five per cent of the actual value of said lots or tracts at the time of levy thereof. [38 G. A., ch. 407, § 3.]

6586. Construction ordered. Whenever the resolution of necessity herein above provided for has been adopted and the provisions of the three preceding sections complied with, the council may by ordinance or resolution order the construction, repair, improvement, or reconstruction of said drain or sewer upon a year and day vote entered of record, which record shall also show whether such improvement was petitioned for or made on the motion of the council. [38 G. A., ch. 407, § 4.]

POLICE EQUIPMENT IN CERTAIN CITIES

6587. Applicability of act. The four following sections shall apply only to cities having a population of seventy thousand or more as shown by the last United States or state census. [S., '13, § 1056-a59; 40 G. A., ch. 136, § 1.]

6588. Equipment authorized. The council of any city organized under this chapter shall have the power to levy a special tax upon all taxable property in said city, not to exceed one mill on the dollar each year, for the purpose of purchasing and maintaining apparatus and equipment for use in police service in the department of public safety, but nothing in this section or the three following sections shall be held to extend the powers of such cities to make annual levies for general and special taxes in excess of forty-eight mills on the dollar of the taxable value of the property therein. [S., '13, § 1056-a55.]

6589. Levy. When the whole or any part of the cost of purchasing and maintaining apparatus and equipment for use in police service in the department of public safety of any city organized under this chapter shall be ordered paid from the city fund designated to purchase and maintain apparatus and equipment for use in police service in the department of public safety, to be levied upon all the taxable property within such city, it shall have the power after the purchase of said apparatus and equipment, by ordinance or resolution, to levy at any one time the whole or any part of the cost of such apparatus and equipment upon all the taxable property within such city and determine the whole percentage of taxes necessary to pay the same, and the percentage to be paid each year not exceeding one-half of the maximum annual limit of the tax such city may levy for funds to purchase and maintain apparatus and equipment for police service in the department of public safety, and the number of years, not exceeding ten, given for the maturity of each installment thereof, but no part of such costs shall be levied against property owned by the city, county, state, or the United States. Certificates of such levy shall be filed with the auditor of the county or counties in which said city is located, setting forth the amount or percentage and maturity of said tax, or each installment thereof, upon the assessed valuation of all taxable property in said city, certified as correct by the city clerk or auditor, and thereupon said tax shall be placed upon the tax lists of the proper county or counties. [S., '13, § 1056-a56.]

6591. Pledge of special fund. Said certificates, bonds, and interest thereon shall be secured by said assessments and levies and shall be payable only out of the funds derived from such levies and pledged to the payment of the same, and no certificates or bonds shall be issued in excess of taxes authorized and levied to secure the payment of the same. It shall be the duty of such city to collect such funds with interest thereon and to hold the same separate and apart in trust for the payment of said certificates, bonds, and interest, and to apply the proceeds of such funds pledged for such purpose to the payment of said certificates, bonds, and interest. [S., '13, § 1056-a58.]

GARBAGE PLANTS IN CERTAIN CITIES

6592. Tax. The council of any city having a population of seventy thousand or more, organized under this chapter, shall have the power to levy a tax upon all taxable property in said city not to exceed one mill on the dollar each year for the purpose of acquiring a location for and equipment, maintenance, and construction of a garbage disposal plant or system, but nothing in this and the three following sections shall be held to extend the powers of such cities to make annual levies for general and special taxes in excess of forty-eight mills on the dollar of the taxable value of the property therein. [S., '13, § 1056-a61; 39 G. A., ch. 54.]

6593. Levy. When the whole or any part of the cost of purchasing a location for and equipment, maintenance, and construction of a garbage disposal plant or system by any such city, shall be ordered paid from the city fund designated for such purchase, equipment, maintenance, and construction, to be levied upon all taxable property within such city, it shall have the power, after purchase of the property, equipment, maintenance, and construction of any such plant or system, by ordinance or resolution, to levy at any one time, the whole or any part of the total cost of such plant or system and the maintenance thereof upon all the taxable property within such city and determine the whole percentage of taxes necessary to pay the same, and the percentage to be paid each year not exceeding one-half of the maximum annual limit of the tax such city may levy for funds to purchase a location for, maintain, equip, and construct a garbage disposal plant or system, and the number of years, not exceeding ten, given for the maturity of each installment thereof, but no part of such cost shall be levied against property owned by the city, county, state, or the United States. Certificates of such levy shall be filed with the auditor of the county or counties in which said city is located, setting forth the amount or percentage and maturity of said tax, or each installment thereof, upon the assessed valuation of all taxable property in said city, certified as correct by the city clerk or auditor, and thereupon said tax shall be placed upon the tax list of the proper county or counties. [S., '13, § 1056-a62.]

6595. Payment. Said certificates, bonds, and interest thereon shall be secured by said assessments and levies and shall be payable only out of the funds derived from such levies and pledged to the payment of the same, and no certificates or bonds shall be issued in excess of taxes authorized and levied to secure the payment of the same. It shall be the duty of such city to collect such funds, with interest thereon, and to hold the same separate and apart in trust for the payment of said certificates, bonds, and interest, and to apply the proceeds of such funds pledged for that purpose to the payment of said certificates, bonds, and interest. [S., '13, § 1056-a64.]

RIVER FRONT COMMISSION AND FIRE DEPARTMENT IN CERTAIN CITIES

6596. Transfer of powers. All cities which have heretofore been organized and acting under special charters and which have heretofore, or shall hereafter adopt the plan of government provided in this chapter, and in which river front improvement commissions have been or shall hereafter be organized, under chapter 294, shall have and may exercise all the rights and powers conferred by said chapter on the said river front improvement commission, and all such rights and powers are hereby transferred to and vested in the city council of any such city or cities. Said council shall have the power to elect and shall elect a commission of three persons, to be known as the river front improvement commission, whose duties shall be to carry out the powers and duties with respect to the beds and banks of streams in such cities, herein conferred upon said city council, or such limited powers in respect thereto as the council may prescribe by ordinance. Said commission shall be elected biennially on the first Tuesday in May, and shall hold office for a term of six years and until their successors are elected and qualify. The members of the river front improvement commission shall be elected, one for two years, one for four years, and one for six years. [S., '13, § 1056-a48.]

6597. Meandered streams. Every city specified in the preceding section shall have control of all the meandered streams within the boundaries thereof, and of the beds, banks, and waters of such streams. Said cities shall have power to prevent the placing or maintenance of nuisances and obstructions in such streams, or on or along the banks thereof, and to abate and remove such nuisances or obstructions therefrom, and to recover the expense thereof from the person or persons causing, placing, or maintaining such nuisances therein or thereon; to deepen, widen, straighten, or change the channels of such streams; to improve and beautify the banks of such streams; to construct levees, embankments, and other works to protect the city and its property and its inhabitants and their property from floods; to acquire and take by purchase or condemnation any real property necessary for any such works or improvements; to assess upon property benefited by any such works or improvements, the cost thereof, to the extent of the special benefits conferred thereby, but not in excess of such special benefit and not in excess of twenty-five per cent of the actual value of the property benefited; to provide funds for any of the expenditures herein authorized, by levy upon all the taxable property in such city of a continuous tax of not more than two mills on the dollar each year for not more than ten years, and to issue bonds in anticipation of such tax, and to pledge the proceeds of said tax to the payment of said bonds. The said special tax levy and the issuance of bonds in anticipation thereof, the general plans recommended by the river front improvement commission, and the estimated costs of said improvement based upon surveys, plans, and estimates made by the city engineer shall be provided for by ordinance. [S., '13, § 1056-a49.]

6598. Tax sales—redemptions. Whenever any property shall have been heretofore sold for any taxes or special assessment by any city specified in the second preceding section, or by the treasurer thereof, the county treasurer shall have the power and it shall be his duty to collect said taxes and on any such sale to issue tax sale deeds therefor in the same manner and under the same provisions of law as are or may hereafter be applicable to tax sales made by the county treasurer; and any tax sale deed heretofore or hereafter issued on any such sale shall have the same force and effect as though the tax sales had been made by the county treasurer. Redemptions from such tax sales shall be made as from sales made by the county treasurer. [S., '13, § 1056-a50.]

6599. Care of streets. The council of any city specified in section 6596 shall have the power to divide the city into not less than five road districts for the purpose of cleaning, sprinkling, and repairing the streets and public places, or any of said purposes, and to provide for the manner of doing the same and for the payment of the cost thereof out of the district road fund, and shall determine the amount of money necessary for such purposes in each district; and such city council may levy a special tax not exceeding two mills on the dollar on all taxable property in each of said road districts, to be known as the road district fund and to be used only to pay the cost of cleaning, sprinkling, and repairing the streets and public places in such districts. [S., '13, § 1056-a51.]

6600. Tax for fire department. The council of any city specified in section 6596 shall have the power to levy a special tax upon all taxable property in said city, not exceeding six mills on the dollar each year, for the purpose of acquiring property for the use of the fire department and equipping and maintaining such department. But the levies of general and special taxes in such cities shall not exceed, in the aggregate, forty-eight mills on the dollar of the taxable value of the property therein. [S., '13, § 1056-a52.]

MEANDERED STREAMS IN CERTAIN CITIES

6601. Improvement authorized. All cities which have heretofore, or shall hereafter adopt the plan of government provided in this chapter, and which have their corporate limits divided by a meandered stream, and which have a population of thirty-five thousand or more according to the last preceding state or federal census, shall have power to acquire land along or adjacent to such stream as may be deemed desirable by the council of any such city for park purposes, or as sites for public buildings, or shall, by such council, be deemed necessary for the widening, straightening, and improving of the channel of such stream and the improvement of the banks thereof, by purchase, or by condemnation in the manner provided by law for the taking of private property for public use, and shall have power to improve said land for public purposes. [40 G. A., ch. 137, § 1.]

6602. Leases. Such cities may temporarily lease any property so acquired when, in the judgment of the city council, public interests or welfare will thereby be subserved. [40 G. A., ch. 137, § 2.]

6603. Election — bonds — tax. The city councils of any such cities may submit to the electors thereof at a regular city election or at a special election called by the city council for that purpose, the question of the issuance of bonds to provide for the payment for land to be acquired under the provisions of the second preceding section, and for permanently improving the same for public purposes, and if a majority of the electors voting at any such election shall vote in favor thereof the city council may issue bonds maturing not more than fifty years from date of issuance, or serially within such period, payable at such place and of such form as the city council may by ordinance designate, and in an amount not in excess of that authorized by said electors.

In issuing such bonds, such cities may become indebted in an amount which, added to all other indebtedness, shall not exceed five per cent of the actual value of the taxable property in such city as shown by the last preceding assessment roll.

For the purpose of providing for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon, such cities shall have the power to levy upon all the taxable property within the limits thereof an annual tax of not exceeding five mills on the dollar until such bonds and the interest thereon have been fully paid or provided for, not exceeding fifty years. [40 G. A., ch. 137, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 333, § 1.]

6604. Notice—ballot. Notice of such election shall be given in two newspapers published in said city, if there be two, but if not, then in one, once each week for at least four consecutive weeks. The election shall be held not less than five nor more than twenty days after the last publication of such notice. The question to be submitted shall be in the following form:

Shall the city issue bonds in the amount of $ for the purpose of acquiring land along and adjacent to the within the city limits and permanently improve the same for public purposes?
(Name of stream)

Yes

No

 [40 G. A., ch. 137, § 4.]

6605. Interpretative clause. The four preceding sections shall be construed as granting additional power without limiting the power already granted to cities designated in section 6601. [40 G. A., ch. 137, § 5.]

PARKS, SWIMMING POOLS, ETC., IN CERTAIN CITIES

6606. Powers granted. The council of any city organized under this chapter, and having a population of fifty thousand, shall have the power to establish, in and in connection with the parks, swimming pools, bathing beaches, bathhouses, armories, ice rinks, dance pavilions, shelter houses, wading pools, and river walls, and to pave, macadamize, and otherwise improve the roadways, drives, avenues, and walks in and through such parks. [37 G. A., ch. 194, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 338, § 1.]

6607. Tax for swimming pools, and paving. The council of any such city shall have the power, and it is hereby authorized in its discretion, to certify to the county auditor and to cause to be collected, a special tax of not to exceed one-half mill on the dollar on all taxable property of the city to be used for the construction of such swimming pools, bathing beaches, bathhouses, armories, ice rinks, dance pavilions, shelter houses, wading pools, and river walls, and an additional special tax of one-half mill on the dollar on all taxable property of the city to be used for the sole and only purpose of paving, macadamizing, and otherwise improving the roadways, drives, avenues, and walks in and through such parks. The city council may anticipate the collection of said additional tax herein authorized to be levied for the purposes herein stated, and for that purpose may issue park certificates or bonds with interest coupons, and the provisions of chapter 320 shall be operative as to such certificates, bonds, and coupons, in so far as they may be applicable. The proceeds of such special tax shall be kept as a separate fund and shall be used for the purpose of paying certificates or bonds and the coupons issued thereupon and for no other purpose whatsoever. [37 G. A., ch. 194, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 338, § 2.]

MISCELLANEOUS POWER TO CERTAIN CITIES

6608. Trees and shrubbery. Cities now or hereafter having a population of twenty-five thousand or over and organized under this chapter shall have power by ordinance to take and assume charge, custody, and control of all trees and shrubbery upon the public streets, and to plant, prune, care for, and maintain all trees and shrubbery upon the public streets in such manner as not to interfere with public travel and to pay for the same out of the general fund or to provide by ordinance for assessing the cost thereof upon the lots and parcels of land in front of which trees or shrubbery are planted and maintained. No power shall exist to remove other than dead, damaged, or unsightly trees and shrubbery. The carrying into effect of the provisions of any ordinance enacted hereunder shall be vested in the department of parks and public property. [S., '13, § 1056-a65.]

6609. Sale or gift of islands. The council of any city organized and acting under the provisions of this chapter and having a population of over thirty-five thousand and under fifty thousand, according to the last preceding state census, and the corporate limits of which city are divided by a river, shall have power by ordinance adopted as by law provided, to sell or donate to the county in which such city is located such part of any island in such river belonging to such city as may be desirable or necessary for a courthouse and county seat site. [38 G. A., ch. 111, § 1.]

way is so situated as to make it impracticable to levy special assessments against a large portion of the abutting property so situated, for the purpose of building, repairing, and paying for sewer under and curbing and pavement along and upon said street or highway in front of such cemetery are hereby authorized to avail themselves of the provisions of chapter 308 relating to the establishment of districts for the construction, maintenance, and repair of sewers, and for the improvement or repair, by paving or graveling, of such streets within the corporation as in the judgment of the council constitute main traveled highways into and out of cities; and for the proportion of the cost thereof not properly assessable against such street car line and not justly assessable against abutting property other than that owned by the cemetery association, in addition to all other levies now authorized by law, may levy an annual tax not exceeding one mill upon all taxable property excepting moneys and credits contained in said city, or any principal division or district thereof as may be determined or established by the city council. The tax herein provided for may be accumulated from year to year until such special fund is sufficient for the purposes herein authorized. And such city may anticipate the collection of such tax under the provisions of section 6261. [38 G. A., ch. 101, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 169, § 1, par. 2.]

CITY MANAGER PLAN BY ORDINANCE

6611. Duties and compensation.
6612. Appointment—tenure.

6611. Duties and compensation. All cities and towns, except cities under the commission form of government and cities having a population of more than twenty-five thousand as shown by the last preceding census, are hereby authorized to provide by ordinance for the creation of the office of city manager and to fix likewise the duties and powers and compensation of such officer. [S. S., 15, § 679-1a.]

6612. Appointment — tenure. The city manager shall be appointed by a majority vote of the city or town council at a regular meeting of such body, and such manager shall hold office during the pleasure of the said body, and shall be subject to removal by a majority vote thereof. [S. S., '15, § 679-2a.]

duties incumbent upon the street commissioner, or manager of public utilities, cemetery sexton, city clerk, and superintendent of markets, and that he shall superintend and inspect all improvements and work upon the streets, alleys, sewers, and public grounds of the city or town, and perform such other and further duties as may be imposed upon him, and possess such other and further power as may, from time to time, be by ordinance conferred upon him. [S. S., '15, § 679-3a.]

6614. Manager supersedes appointive officers. Whenever by ordinance or resolution of the council the powers and duties heretofore vested in any other appointive municipal officer are to be wholly performed by the said city manager, then no appointment of such appointive officer shall be made, and any appointment of such officer made prior to the adoption of such ordinance or resolution shall be thereby canceled. [S. S., '15, § 679-4a.]

fied in the preceding section equal in number to twenty-five per cent of the votes cast for all candidates for mayor at the last preceding election of such city or town, the mayor shall, not less than thirty days prior to the election to be held as herein provided, by proclamation, submit the question of organizing the government of such city or town, under this chapter, at a special election to be held at a time specified in such proclamation, and within two months after such petition is filed with the clerk of such city or town; provided that in case not less than ten per cent of the qualified electors of any city reside in each of two or more townships, said petition shall be signed by not less than ten per cent of the qualified electors of such city residing in each of such townships. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b1; 37 G. A., ch. 68, § 2.]

6617. Form of submission. At such election, the proposition to be submitted shall be: "Shall the city (or incorporated town, as the case may be) of (name of city or incorporated town), organize under chapter 328 of the code?" [S. S., '15, § 1056-b1.]

6619. Certification. Upon the adoption of the proposition to organize the government of such city or town, under this chapter, the mayor shall immediately transmit to the governor, to the secretary of state, and to the county auditor, a certificate that the form of government provided by this chapter has been adopted. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b1.]

6620. Limit on submissions. If such plan of government be not adopted at the special election called, the question of adopting said plan shall not be resubmitted to the voters of such city or town within two years thereafter. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b1.]

THE COUNCIL AND MINOR EMPLOYEES

6621. Number of councilmen. If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be in favor of the organization of the government of such city or town, under the provisions of this chapter, cities having a population of twenty-five thousand or more shall thereupon proceed to the election of five councilmen, and cities and towns having a population of less than twenty-five thousand shall proceed to the election of three councilmen. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b1.]

6623. When elected. The councilmen for which provision is made herein shall be elected at the next regular city or town election after the adoption of such form of government. If, however, the next regular city or town election does not occur within one year after the special election at which such form of government is adopted, the mayor shall, within ten days after such election, by proclamation, call a special election for the election of councilmen, as herein provided, and shall give thirty days' notice of such special election, which notice shall be included and given in the call for such special election. The special election, so called for the election of councilmen, shall in either case be conducted as hereinafter provided. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b1.]

6624. Temporary officers. The councilmen elected at the special election called by the mayor, after the adoption of the form of government contemplated by this chapter, shall qualify, and their terms of office shall begin on the first Monday after their election, and they shall hold office until the next regular biennial municipal election, and until their successors are elected and qualified. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b3.]

6625. Adjustment of terms. At the first regular biennial election, after the organization of any city or town under the provisions of this chapter, in all such cities and towns where three councilmen are to be elected, one councilman shall be elected for the term of two years, and two for the term of three years. When four councilmen are to be elected, as provided in section 6622, one shall be elected from each township for the term of two years, and one from each township for the term of three years; and in cities where five councilmen are to be elected, two shall be elected for two years, and three for three years. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b3.]

6626. Regular election. At the next regular biennial municipal election, and biennially thereafter, there shall be elected, a member or members of the council for the term of three years to succeed those whose terms of office will expire the first Monday in April following such election, and there shall also be elected at such regular biennial municipal election, a member or members of the council for a term of three years to succeed those whose terms will expire one year after the first Monday in April following such election. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b3.]

6627. Tenure noted on ballots. The time when each candidate for councilman shall begin his term of office shall be specified under his name on the ballot, and all petitions for nomination of members of the council, to be voted for at such regular biennial municipal election, shall specify the length of the term of office for which the candidate seeks nomination. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b3.]

6628. Termination of official terms. The terms of office of the mayor and councilmen or aldermen of any city or incorporated town adopting the form of government contemplated by this chapter, in office at the beginning of the terms of office of the councilmen first elected, under the provisions hereof, shall then cease and determine. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b3.]

6629. Termination of minor positions. Except the members of the library board, whose terms of office shall continue as now provided by law, the terms of office of all other officers, including park commissioners and waterworks trustees, whether elected or appointed, and of all employees of such city or incorporated town, shall be subject to the action of the council or manager. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b3.]

6630. Tenure by council. Except the members of the library board, the council shall have power to determine the tenure of office of any officer or the term of employment of any employee that it is authorized to appoint or employ, and to declare any such office vacant, or to discharge any such employee with or without cause, as it may deem advisable. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b3.]

6631. Tenure by manager. The manager shall have power to determine the tenure of office of any officer or the term of employment of any employee that he is authorized to appoint or employ, and to declare any such office vacant, or to discharge any such employee with or without cause, as he may deem advisable. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b3.]

6632. Vacancies. Any vacancy in the council, caused by death, resignation, removal from office, or removal from the city or town, shall be filled by appointment by the council, and in cities where the territory lies in two townships divided by a watercourse, the member of the council so appointed shall be a resident of the township in which his predecessor in office resided at the time of his election. The person so appointed by the council shall hold his office for the unexpired term of his predecessor. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b25.]

6633. Compensation. The members of the city or town council elected under the provisions of this chapter shall serve and perform all of the duties of their respective offices without compensation. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b9.]

6634. Nominated by petition. Candidates for councilmen to be voted for under the provisions of this chapter shall be nominated by petition, filed with the city or town clerk ten days before the day of election, and no name shall be placed upon the ballot except the names of candidates nominated by such petition. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b4.]

6635. Petitioners. The petition for the nomination of councilmen shall be signed by at least ten electors of the city or town for every one thousand inhabitants of such city or town as shown by the last previous federal or state census, and no petitioner shall sign any petition or petitions for more candidates than are to be elected in the city or town in which such petition is filed. No person shall be deemed nominated for the office of councilman, unless the petition for his nomination shall have been signed as herein required. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b4.]

6636. Form of petition. The petition for the nomination of councilmen shall be substantially in the following form:

"The undersigned, duly qualified electors of (here insert the name of the city or town), and residing at the place set opposite our respective names, hereby nominate (name of candidate), as candidate for the office of councilman, of (name of city or town), and request that his name be placed upon the official ballot of said city (or town), at the municipal election to be held therein, on the..... Monday of....., 19..... We further state that we know the said (name of candidate) to be a qualified elector of said city (or town), a man of good moral character, and, in our judgment, qualified for the duties of councilman.
Name of elector. Residence. Street and number.
[S. S., '15, § 1056-b4; 37 G. A., ch. 15, § 1.]

6637. Residence noted. In cities where the residences are numbered, the street and number of the residence of each elector signing such petition shall be written on the petition immediately after the name of the elector, and no name upon any such petition shall be counted unless the street and number of the residence of the person signing the same appear thereon, as herein provided. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b4.]

6638. Canvass of petitions. Petitions for nomination of councilmen, filed with the city or town clerk, shall, within two days after the expiration of the time within which such petitions may be filed, be canvassed by the city or town council, as the case may be, and the names of all persons who shall have been nominated by such petitions shall, by the clerk, be placed upon the official ballot of the city or town, for the municipal election for which such nominations are made. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b4.]

6639. Arrangement of names. The names of the candidates shall be arranged upon the ballot in the manner provided by section 556, as nearly as may be, with a square at the left of each name, and below the name of each of such candidates, shall appear the words, "Vote for (here insert the number of councilmen to be elected)" as the case may be. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b4.]

6640. Form of ballots. The ballots shall be printed upon plain, substantial, white paper, through which the printing or writing can not be read, and shall be headed, "Candidates for councilmen of (name of city or town), at the general (or special) municipal election of 19....." [S. S., '15, § 1056-b4.]

6641. Voting mark. The candidates upon the ballot shall be voted for by placing a cross in the square preceding the name of the candidate for whom the vote is cast. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b4.]

6642. Ballots—clerk to prepare—number. The city or town clerk shall cause the ballots to be prepared and printed as herein specified, and shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, at every polling precinct in the city or town, a number of ballots equal to twice the number of votes cast in such precinct at the last general municipal election. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b5.]

6643. Conduct of election. The city or town council shall appoint the judges and clerks of the election. The election shall be conducted, the vote canvassed, and the certified return thereof made by the judges of such election as provided by law. The returns from the voting precincts shall be canvassed and the result declared by the council and clerk on the day after the election, and notice of the result given at the time and in the manner provided by statute. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b5.]

6644. Election laws applicable. All of the provisions of sections 6515 and 6516 shall apply to elections held under the provisions of this chapter, and any person violating any of the provisions of either of said sections shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished as therein provided. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b6.]

6645. Mayor—election. The councilmen elected hereunder, after having duly qualified as officers of the city or town in which they are respectively elected, shall, on the first Monday after their election, organize the government of such city or town under the provisions of this chapter, and shall, at that time, elect one of their number as chairman and presiding officer who shall be designated as mayor of the city or town in which he is elected. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b7.]

6646. Official head—service of process. The member of the council so elected shall be recognized as the official head of the city or town, by the courts and officers of the state, upon whom service of civil process may be made. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b7.]

6647. Duties and power. The mayor may take command of the police, and govern the city by proclamation at times of public danger, or during an emergency, and shall be the judge as to what constitutes such public danger or emergency. The election of a member of such city or town council as mayor shall not give him or confer upon him any additional power or authority, except such as is herein provided and such as is ordinarily exercised by a presiding officer. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b7.]

6648. Meetings—presiding officer pro tem. Regular meetings of the council shall be held on the first Monday after the election of councilmen, and on the first Monday of each month thereafter. Special meetings may be called from time to time by two councilmen. All meetings of the council, whether regular or special, shall be open to the public. If, at any meeting, the presiding officer of the council be not present, the members of the council present shall select one of their number to act as presiding officer pro tem, and his acts as presiding officer pro tem shall have the same force and legality as though performed by the regularly elected presiding officer of the council. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b10.]

6650. Yeas and nays—motions etc.—signing and recording. Upon every vote of the city or town council, the yeas and nays shall be called and recorded, and every motion, resolution, or ordinance shall be reduced to writing, and read before the vote is taken thereon. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b8.]

6652. Powers. All officers so appointed by the council shall have and exercise all powers conferred upon such officers by the laws governing cities and towns organized under the general laws of the state, and their compensation shall be fixed and paid, and they shall perform the duties of their respective offices, as required by such laws. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b18.]

6653. Board of review. The council shall, on or before the first Monday of April, in each year, also appoint three persons who shall constitute a local board of review of the city or town in which they are appointed. The compensation of such board of review shall be fixed by the council and paid from the general fund of the city or town, and such board shall be governed by the statute relating to boards of review, and shall possess and exercise all of the powers conferred upon local boards of review by law. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b18.]

6654. Official newspapers. The council shall also select one or more newspapers of general circulation published within the city or town, which shall be designated official papers. If no newspaper is published in any town organized under this chapter, the council of such town may, in its discretion, select a newspaper published in the county, which has a circulation in such town, and designate the same the official paper of the town. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b18.]

6655. Publications. All ordinances, resolutions, and proceedings of any city or town, organized under the provisions of this chapter, required to be published, shall be published in the official paper or papers so selected by the council. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b18.]

6656. Statutes made applicable. All of the provisions of sections 6534 to 6538, inclusive, shall apply to all officers and employees elected or appointed in any city or town, organized under this chapter, as fully as though the provisions of such section, were incorporated, and repeated herein. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b11.]

6657. Ordinances—time limit on enactment. Every ordinance or resolution appropriating money or ordering any sewer or street improvement, or making or authorizing the making of any contract, or granting any franchise, or the right to use and occupy the streets, highways, bridges, or public places of the city or town, for any purpose, shall be complete in the form in which it is finally passed, and, except an ordinance or resolution for an improvement, the preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, which contains a statement of its urgency, shall remain on file with the city or town clerk, for public inspection, at least one week before its final passage or adoption. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b23.]

6658. When effective. No ordinance passed by the council, except when otherwise required by the general laws of the state, or by the provisions of this chapter, and, except an ordinance for an improvement, the preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, which contains a statement of its urgency, and is passed by a unanimous vote of the council, shall go into effect before ten days from the time of its passage. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b23.]

6659. Petition of protest. If during said ten days, a petition, signed by the electors of the city or town, equal in number to at least twenty-five per cent of the entire vote cast in such city or town at the last preceding general or municipal election, as shown by the poll books of such election, protesting against the passage of such ordinance, be presented to the council, such ordinance shall thereupon be suspended from going into operation, and it shall be the duty of the council to reconsider the same, and, if the same be not repealed, the council shall submit the ordinance to the vote of the electors of the city or town at a regular election or a special election called for that purpose, in the manner provided by subdivision b of section 6557. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b23.]

6660. Petition—requirements. The petition protesting against an ordinance shall be, in all respects, in accordance with the provisions of section 6556, except as to the percentage of signers thereof, and shall be examined and certified by the clerk, as provided in such section. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b23.]

6661. Adoption by electors—status. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on the proposed ordinance shall vote in favor thereof, such ordinance shall thereupon become a valid ordinance of the city or town; and, any ordinance so adopted can not be repealed or amended except by a vote of the electors of the city or town. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b23.]

6662. Amendment or repeal. The council may submit a proposition for the repeal of any ordinance so adopted by the electors, or for the amendment thereof, to be voted upon at any succeeding regular municipal election; and should such proposition so submitted receive a majority of the votes cast at such election, such ordinance shall thereby be repealed or amended, according to the proposition submitted. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b23.]

6663. Franchises. No franchise or right to occupy or use the streets, highways, bridges, or public places of any such city or town shall be granted, renewed, or extended, except by ordinance, and every franchise or grant for interurban or street railways, gas or waterworks, electric light or power plants, heating plants, telegraph or telephone systems, or other public utilities within such city or town must be authorized or approved by a majority of the electors of such city or town, voting thereon, at a regular or special election, as provided by sections 5905 to 5909, inclusive. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b24.]

6664. Signing and recording. Every resolution or ordinance passed by the council must be signed by a majority of the council, and be recorded before the same shall be in force. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b8.]

THE MANAGER

6665. Appointment—tenure. At the first meeting after its election, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the council shall appoint a competent person manager, who shall be the administrative head of the municipal government of the city or town in which he is appointed. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b12.]

6666. Basis for appointment. The council in making the appointment of a manager, shall consider only the qualification and fitness of the person appointed, and he shall be appointed without regard to his political affiliation, and need not be a resident of the city or town at the time of his appointment. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b14.]

6667. Manager pro tem. During the absence or disability of the manager, the council may designate some properly qualified person to perform and execute the duties of his office. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b14.]

6668. Qualification—bond. Before entering upon the duties of his office, the manager shall take an official oath that he will support the constitution of the United States, the constitution of the state of Iowa, and, without fear or favor, will, to the best of his ability, faithfully and honestly perform the duties of his office, and shall execute a bond in favor of the city or town, for the faithful performance of his duties, in such sum as may be fixed by the council. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b13.]

6669. Duties. The duties of the manager shall be as follows:

1. He shall see that the laws and ordinances of the city or town are faithfully enforced and executed.

2. He shall attend all meetings of the council.

3. He shall recommend to the council such measures as he may deem necessary or expedient for the good government and welfare of the city or town.

4. He shall have the general supervision and direction of the administration of the city or town government.

5. He shall supervise and direct the official conduct of all appointive officers of the city or town, except the clerk, police judge or magistrate, solicitor, corporation counsel, assessor, board of review, and members of the library board.

6. He shall supervise the performance of all contracts for work to be done for the city or town, make all purchases of material and supplies, and see that such material and supplies are received, and are of the quality and character called for by the contract.

7. He shall have power to employ and discharge from time to time, as occasion requires, all employees of the city or town, and to fix the compensation to be paid to such employees, except as otherwise herein provided.

8. He shall have power to discharge summarily and without cause any officer, appointee, or employee that he has power to appoint or employ.

9. He shall supervise and manage all public improvements, works, and undertakings of the city or town, and shall have charge of the construction, improvement, repair, and maintenance of streets, sidewalks, alleys, lanes, squares, bridges, viaducts, aqueducts, public highways, sewers, drains, ditches, culverts, streams, and watercourses, except those designated in and which are covered by the provisions of chapter 293, and of all public buildings.

10. He shall manage, supervise, and control market houses, crematories, sewage disposal plants, and farms, and shall enforce all obligations of privately owned or operated public utilities enforceable by the city or town.

11. He shall have charge of the making and preservation of all surveys, maps, plans, drawings, specifications and estimates for public works or public improvements; the cleaning, sprinkling, and lighting of streets, alleys, and public places; the collection and disposal of waste, and the preservation of tools and appliances belonging to the city or town.

12. He shall manage all municipal water plants, lighting, heating, or power plants, and transportation enterprises.

13. He shall manage, supervise, and control the use, construction, improvement, repair, and maintenance of all recreational facilities of the city or town, including parks, playgrounds, public gymnasiums, and public bathhouses.

14. He may, without notice, summarily cause the affairs of any department or the conduct of any officer under his supervision, or of any employee, to be investigated; and he, or any person appointed by him to examine or investigate the affairs of any department or the conduct of any officer or employee, shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses, the production of books and papers and other evidence, and to punish for contempt any person who shall fail to attend and testify as a witness when duly summoned, or who shall fail to produce any books, papers, or other evidence under his control when required to do so.

15. He shall take active control of the police, fire, and engineering departments of the city or town, and employ such assistants and employees therein as by him shall be deemed advisable.

16. He shall, in his discretion, issue licenses, authorized by law, and may revoke the same at pleasure. All licenses issued shall be signed by the manager and the clerk, and duly entered in a book kept for that purpose.

17. He shall keep the council fully advised of the financial and other conditions of the city or town, and of its future needs.

18. He shall have power to appoint or employ persons to fill all places for which no other mode of appointment is provided, and shall have power to administer oaths. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b15.]

6670. Budget. The manager shall prepare and submit to the council an annual budget on the basis of estimates of the expenses of the various departments of the city or town. These departmental estimates shall show the expenses of each department for the preceding year, and shall indicate wherein an increase or a diminution is recommended for the ensuing year. Such estimate shall be published in the official newspapers of the city or town two weeks before such estimates are submitted by the manager to the council, and printed copies thereof shall be furnished to any citizen upon request to the manager. The budget so submitted to the council shall be taken up by it in open meeting, and full opportunity shall be given for hearing any objections or protests which any taxpayer of the city or town may desire to make to any item or items in such budget, or to any omissions therefrom. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b16.]

are transacted in a modern and scientific method, in an efficient and businesslike manner, and that accurate records of all of the business affairs of the city or town under his management, are fully and accurately kept. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b16.]

6672. Monthly reports. He shall make to the council an itemized monthly report in writing, showing in detail the receipts and disbursements for the preceding month, and such report shall be made by him not later than the tenth day of each month. The reports so made, after having been passed upon by the council, shall be published each month in the official newspapers of the city or town. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b16.]

6673. General accountability — discharge. Such manager shall be under the direction and supervision of the council, and shall hold office at its pleasure. He shall be accountable to the council for his actions and conduct, and for the management of the business affairs of the city or town. He shall perform any duty specially required of him by the council, and may be discharged at the will of the council, without cause. [S. S., '15, §§ 1056-b12, 1056-b16.]

6674. Salary. The salary of the manager shall be fixed by the council, and paid monthly from the treasury of the city or town, upon an order signed by the presiding officer of the council and by the clerk. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b17.]

6675. Councilman ineligible—removal. No councilman elected under the provisions of this chapter shall be appointed by the manager to any office of the city or town in which he is elected, or employed in any department thereof; and any councilman or manager who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Any councilman or manager violating the provisions of this section may be removed from office, under the provisions of chapter 56. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b19.]

6676. Political activity. The manager shall take no part in any election held for the purpose of electing councilmen, except that he may attend at the polls and cast his vote, if he is a qualified elector of the city or town, and any attempt upon his part to procure the election of any person as councilman, or to induce any elector to vote for any person for councilman, or any solicitation by such manager of any elector to vote for any person or persons for the office of councilman, shall be a misdemeanor, and he may be removed from office under the provisions of chapter 56. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b20; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 310, § 1.]

GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES

6677. Classification of city. Every city which shall adopt the form of government herein contemplated shall, upon the adoption of such form of government, become a city of the first or second class, under the general laws of the state, according to the population of such city. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b9.]

6678. General powers conferred. The council of every city or town organized hereunder shall have, possess, and may exercise all executive, legislative, and judicial powers, not inconsistent with this chapter, conferred by law upon councils of cities and towns of the same class organized under the general laws of the state; and every city and town organized under this chapter shall have, possess, and may exercise the corporate powers, not inconsistent with the provisions hereof, conferred upon cities and towns of the same class organized under the general laws of the state. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b9.]

6680. Existing ordinances, etc. All by-laws, ordinances, and resolutions lawfully passed and in force in any such city or incorporated town under its former organization shall be and remain in force until altered or repealed by the council elected under the provisions of this chapter. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b2.]

6681. Existing limits, rights, property, and liability. The territorial limits of such city or town shall remain the same as under its former organization, and all rights and property of every description which were vested in any such city or town under its former organization shall vest in the same when organized under the provisions of this chapter, and no right or liability in favor of or against such city or town existing at the time of the adoption of the form of government herein contemplated, and no suit or prosecution of any kind shall be affected by the change of the form of government of such city or town, unless herein otherwise provided. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b2.]

6682. Departments to continue. All departments of cities and towns which shall adopt the form of government herein contemplated, shall continue to exist as departments of the government of such city or town until abolished, changed, or modified under the provisions of this chapter. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b22.]

6683. Parks and park commissioners. The provisions of chapter 293, relating to parks and park commissioners, shall be applicable to and be in force in cities and towns organized under the provisions of this chapter, to the same extent and effect that such provisions are applicable to and in force in cities and towns of the same class organized under the general laws of the state, except as changed or modified by this chapter. The board of park commissioners shall have and may exercise all powers conferred upon them by the provisions of said chapter, except as herein changed or modified. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b21.]

6684. Policemen and firemen—pensions. The law as it appears in chapter 322 shall be applicable to and effective in cities which adopt the city manager plan of government under the provisions of this chapter. [39 G. A., ch. 103.]

6685. Notice to person liable over. Section 6735 is hereby made applicable to cities and towns organized under this chapter. [40 G. A., ch. 143.]

6686. Limit of indebtedness. In any city adopting the form of government provided for in this chapter, whose indebtedness prior to the time the change in government was made was limited to five per cent of the actual value of the taxable property therein, and whose actual indebtedness, at the date of such change, exceeds one and one-quarter per cent of the actual value of the taxable property of said city, the limit of indebtedness of such city shall be determined by adding to the indebtedness limit, under the general laws for cities, the actual value, as determined by the city council, of municipally owned and operated utilities, and it shall be limited to such an amount; provided, however, that the amount thus arrived at shall in no event exceed five per cent of the actual value of the taxable property in said city, as shown by the state and county tax list. [39 G. A., ch. 41.]

ABANDONMENT OF PLAN

6687. Procedure—petition—election. Any city or town which shall have operated for six years or more under the provisions of this chapter, may abandon its organization hereunder, and accept the provisions of the general law of the state then applicable to cities or towns of like population, or if now organized under special charter, may resume such special charter by proceeding as follows:

Upon the petition of not less than twenty-five per cent of the electors of such city or town, a special election shall be called at which the following proposition shall be submitted:

“Shall the city (or town) of (name of city or town) abandon its organization under chapter 328 of the code, become a city (or town) under the general law governing cities and towns, or if now organized under special charter, resume such special charter?” [S. S., '15, § 1056-b26.]

6688. Officers elected. If the majority of the votes cast at such election be in favor of the abandonment of the form of government provided by this chapter, the officers elected at the next succeeding regular biennial election shall be those then prescribed by the general law of the state for cities and towns of like population, or those prescribed by the special charter of such city, as the case may be, and upon qualification of such officers, such city or town shall become a city or town under the general law of the state, or under special charter, as the case may be. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b26.]

6689. Effect of abandonment. Such change shall not, in any manner, affect the property, rights, or liabilities of such city or town, and shall extend only to such change in the form of government thereof. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b26.]

6690. Law governing procedure. The petition for the abandonment of the form of government herein provided, shall be signed, filed, its sufficiency determined, the election ordered and conducted, and the results declared generally, as provided by sections 6616 to 6618, inclusive, so far as the provisions thereof are applicable. [S. S., '15, § 1056-b26.]

OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

6691. Council—number. In any city acting under special charter having a population of twenty thousand or more, as shown by the last state or national census, the council shall consist of two aldermen at large, and one alderman from each ward, elected biennially. [C., '97, § 937; S. S., '15, § 937; 38 G. A., ch. 185, § 1.]

6692. Vacancies filled by election. Vacancies occurring in the office of alderman shall be filled by special election, unless such vacancy shall have occurred less than sixty days prior to a regular city election. [S. S., '15, § 937.]

6693. Election called. Such special election shall be called by a proclamation of the mayor, giving at least ten days' notice of such election, designating the time and polling places therefor and the vacancy to be filled thereat. [S. S., '15, § 937.]

6694. Notice of election. Notice of such election shall be published in at least one newspaper printed and published in said city, and in two if there be such number, for a period of ten days prior to such election. Notice of such election shall be posted at or near the polling places designated for said election for a similar length of time. [S. S., '15, § 937.]

6695. Election board. The election board at any such special election shall be the same as at the last preceding city election. In case of vacancies happening therein the mayor shall make appointments to fill the same, such appointee to be a member of the same political party or organization as the member filling such position before the vacancy. [S. S., '15, § 937.]

6696. Ballots. The city clerk shall, on notice from the mayor, cause ballots to be prepared for such election as provided by law; or, in the event of his refusal or inability to act, the mayor shall cause such ballots to be prepared. [S. S., '15, § 937.]

6697. Nominations. Nominations of candidates for such vacant office may be made by caucus or convention, as provided in section 649; or, in the event such nomination be not made by such caucus or convention, within five days prior to the day fixed for holding such election, then the regular executive or city central committee of any party qualified to nominate by caucus or convention may make such nomination. [S. S., '15, § 937.]

NOTE: Applicability of general primary law to municipal elections, see § 639.

ABANDONMENT OF CHARTER

- 6936. Abandonment authorized.
- 6937. Petition—election.
- 6938. Notice.
- 6939. Submission—canvass.
- 6940. Officers elected—ordinances—resubmission.
- 6941. Delinquent taxes.
- 6942. Rights and liabilities.
- 6943. Funds.

6698. Vacancies filled by council. In the event that such vacancy shall have occurred less than sixty days prior to a regular city election, then the vacancy so existing shall be filled by a majority vote of the remaining aldermen of the city council. [S. S., '15, § 937-a.]

6699. Presiding officer. The mayor shall be the presiding officer of the council with the right to vote only in case of a tie. [38 G. A., ch. 185, § 1.]

6700. Marshal—policemen. Cities under special charters shall have power to provide by ordinance for the appointment of a marshal by the mayor, or for his election by the electors thereof, or may dispense with such officer and confer his duties upon any other officer. All policemen shall be appointed and may be removed by the mayor. [C., '97, § 938.]

6701. Police matrons. Police matrons shall be appointed and paid the same compensation as in cities organized under the general law. Such appointees shall be, so far as applicable, subject to the same regulations and restrictions as policemen in such cities. [S., '13, § 654-a; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 3.]

6702. Assessors. They shall provide by ordinance for the election of one or more assessors, who shall discharge the duties usually performed by township assessors, so far as applicable, and such as may be required by ordinance. [C., '97, § 939.]

6703. Other officers—terms. They may provide by ordinance for the election, by the electors, of a marshal, recorder or clerk, treasurer, collector, auditor, attorney, and engineer; and all elective officers hereafter elected shall hold office for the term of two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified, and, when appointed, for such time as may be fixed by ordinance, not exceeding two years. [C., '97, § 940.]

6704. Compensation of aldermen. Aldermen shall be paid an amount prescribed by ordinance, not in excess of six hundred dollars per annum, which shall be in full compensation for all services connected with their official duties. [C., '97, § 943; 38 G. A., ch. 177, § 1.]

6705. Compensation of mayor. The mayor shall receive such salary as may be provided by ordinance, not exceeding two thousand five hundred dollars per annum, and in addition he shall receive for holding a mayor's or police court, or discharging the duties of a justice of the peace, the compensation allowed by law for similar services by such officers, to be paid in the same manner; which amount shall be in full compensation of all such services. [R., '60, §§ 1091, 1121; C., '73, §§ 519, 547; C., '97, § 945; 38 G. A., ch. 178, § 1.]

6706. Compensation of other officers—report. Police judges, magistrates, marshals, and police officers, in criminal cases under the ordinances, shall receive the fees allowed for similar services in criminal cases under the state law, payable out of the city treasury; and for criminal cases under the state law they shall be paid the same fees that justices and constables receive under the state law, payable from the county treasury. When such officers are paid a salary, the same shall be in lieu of all fees, and such fees, when collected, shall be paid into the city treasury. They shall make, under oath, a monthly report of such fees to the council. [R., '60, §§ 1086, 1104, 1107, 1118; C., '73, §§ 515, 533, 536, 544; C., '97, § 946.]

6707. Change of compensation. The emoluments of any officer shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which he shall have been elected or appointed, nor shall any change of compensation affect any officer during his existing term, unless the office be abolished. [R., '60, § 1122; C., '73, § 491; C., '97, § 944.]

6708. Ineligibility when compensation increased. No person who shall have resigned or vacated any office shall be eligible to the same during the time for which he was elected or appointed, when, during the same time, the emoluments have been increased. [R., '60, § 1122; C., '73, § 491; C., '97, § 944.]

6709. Ineligible to appointment. No member of the council shall, during the time for which he has been elected, or for one year thereafter, be appointed to any municipal office which shall be created, or the emoluments of which shall be increased, during the term for which he was elected. [R., '60, § 1122; C., '73, § 490; C., '97, § 943.]

6710. Interest in contract. No member of the council shall be interested directly or indirectly in any contract for work or service to be performed for the corporation. [R., '60, § 1122; C., '73, § 490; C., '97, § 943.]

MISCELLANEOUS OFFICIAL DUTIES

6711. Estimates. Each officer, board, or committee shall file in the office of the clerk or recorder, thirty days before the beginning of each fiscal year, a detailed statement of the necessary labor, supplies, and materials, and the work to be done by or through his or its department during the next fiscal year, and the estimated cost thereof. [C., '97, § 941.]

6712. Appropriations. The council shall make the appropriations for all the different expenditures for each fiscal year at or before the beginning thereof; and it shall be unlawful to issue any warrant, or to enter into any contract or appropriate any money, in excess of the amount thus appropriated, for the different expenses of the city during the year for which said appropriations shall be made. [C., '97, § 942.]

6713. Limitation. It shall not appropriate, in the aggregate, an amount in excess of its annual legally authorized revenue, but nothing herein shall prevent such cities from anticipating their revenue for the year for which such appropriations are made, or from bonding or refunding their outstanding indebtedness. [C., '97, § 942.]

6714. Deposit of funds. The treasurer shall deposit city funds in his possession in the same manner and under the same terms as treasurers in cities organized under the general law. [S., '13, § 660-a; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 5.]

6715. Expense of bond. If the treasurer shall request it, the city shall pay the reasonable expense of procuring a bond for the treasurer, not to exceed one-half of one per cent per annum upon the amount thereof. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 5-a1.]

6716. Warrants. The auditor, clerk, or other officer whose duty it is to draw warrants shall draw no warrant except upon the vote of the council, and no warrant for an amount in excess of one thousand dollars. [C., '97, § 1009; 38 G. A., ch. 339, § 1.]

6717. List of warrants. Section 5642 is made applicable to cities acting under special charters. [C., '97, § 1008.]

6718. Annual financial report. Sections 5677 to 5681, inclusive, shall apply to cities acting under special charters. [S., '13, § 1056-a13; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 158, § 29.]

6719. Accounts. Sections 5675 and 5676 are applicable to special charter cities. [S., '13, §§ 741-a, 741-b; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 14.]

ORDINANCES

6720. Ordinances—fines. Such cities shall have power to make and publish, from time to time, ordinances, not inconsistent with the laws of the state, for carrying into effect or discharging the powers and duties conferred by this chapter, and the charters thereof, and such as are necessary and proper to provide for the safety, preserve the health, promote the prosperity, and improve the morals, order, comfort, and convenience of such cities and the inhabitants thereof; and to enforce obedience to such ordinances by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding thirty days. [R., '60, §§ 1071-1073; C., '73, § 482; C., '97, § 947.]

6721. General procedure—veto. Ordinances and resolutions shall be adopted and signed, recorded, published, and evidenced and be subject to veto by the mayor as in cities organized under the general law. [R., '60, § 1076; C., '73, § 3720; C., '97, §§ 951, 952, 954; S., '13, § 952; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 6.]

6722. Applicable statutes. Sections 5724, 5725, 5726, and 5727 are applicable to special charter cities. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 14.]

6723. Jury and change of venue. In any prosecution or proceeding for the violation of any ordinance, the defendant shall not be entitled to a trial by jury or to a change of venue, except on appeal, but shall be tried by the court or magistrate before whom the action is commenced; except in cities where a municipal court has been established, when such trials shall be governed by the law applicable to municipal courts. [C., '97, § 948; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 7.]

6725. Commitment—executions. Whenever a fine and costs imposed for the violation of any ordinance are not paid, the person convicted may be committed at hard labor until the fine and costs are paid, not to exceed thirty days, and, in addition thereto, such fine and costs may be collected by the issuance of an execution on such judgment against any property of the defendant, which execution shall have the same force and effect and be executed in the same manner as provided by law for the collection of judgments in civil suits by execution. [C., '97, § 949.]

6726. Transcripts. Transcripts of such judgments may be filed in the district court of the proper county as in civil cases, and with the same force and effect, and execution may be issued thereon from such court. [C., '97, § 949.]

6727. Action to recover. Fines and penalties may in all cases be recovered by action before a justice of the peace or other court of competent jurisdiction, and in the name of the proper municipal corporation. In any such action, where pleading is necessary, it shall be sufficient to declare generally for the amount claimed to be due in respect to the violation of the ordinance, referring to its title and the date of its adoption or passage, and showing, as near as may be, the facts of the alleged violation. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 6-a.]

6728. Accounting. All fees, fines, forfeitures, costs, and expenses collected shall be turned over to the city treasurer by the officer collecting the same on or before the tenth day of each succeeding month, and the city treasurer shall forthwith pay to the county treasurer for the benefit of the school fund the portion of fines and forfeitures collected for the violation of state laws. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 6-a.]

GENERAL PROVISIONS AND POWERS

6729. Powers. Any city organized under special charter shall have and exercise, in addition to the provisions of such special charter, the rights, powers, and privileges contained in this chapter. [C., '97, § 934.]

6730. Applicability of provisions. The provisions of this chapter shall apply only to cities acting under special charters. No provisions of this code, nor laws hereafter enacted, relating to the powers, duties, liabilities, or obligations of cities or towns, shall in any manner affect, or be construed to affect, cities while acting under special charters, unless the same have special reference or are made applicable to such cities.

In all laws hereafter enacted such reference or application shall be in a separate section in the act. [C., '97, § 933; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 1.]

6731. Definition. Wherever the words "cities organized under the general law" appear in this chapter, they refer to the law for cities organized under chapter 286. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 2.]

6732. Application of certain terms. Whenever the words "boards of supervisors", "county auditor or recorder of deeds", and "county treasurer" are used in any section made applicable by this chapter to special charter cities, the words "city council", "city clerk" or "city recorder", and "city collector or treasurer" shall be respectively substituted.

This section shall not be construed as depriving boards of supervisors, county auditors, and county treasurers of their powers to spread tax levies and collect taxes certified by cities acting under special charter as provided in sections 6867, 6868, and 6871. [C., '97, §§ 958, 1024; S., '13, § 958; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 21.]

6733. Unliquidated claim—limitation of action. No suit shall be brought against any such city for any unliquidated claim or demand unless within three months from the time the same became due or cause of action accrued thereon, nor unless a written, verified statement of the general nature, cause, and amount of same is filed with the clerk or recorder thirty days before the commencement of such suit. [C., '97, § 1050.]

6734. Claims for personal injury—limitation. In all cases of personal injury or damage to property resulting from defective streets or sidewalks, or from any cause originating in the neglect or failure of any municipal corporation or its officers to perform their duties, no suit shall be brought against any such city after three months from the time of the injury or damage, and not then unless a written verified statement of the amount, nature, and cause of such injury or damage, and the time when and the place where such injury occurred, and the particular defect or negligence of the city or its officers which it is claimed caused or contributed to the injury or damage, shall be presented to the council or filed with the clerk within thirty days after said alleged injury or damage was sustained. [C., '97, § 1051.]

6735. Notice to person liable over. In case any action is brought against any such city for damages for injury to person or property claimed to have been caused by or through the negligence of said city, the city may notify in writing any person or corporation, by or in consequence of whose negligence it is claimed by said city the injury occurred or was caused, of the pendency of said suit, the name of the plaintiff and where pending, and the general nature of the claim, and that the city claims that the person or corporation so notified is liable to said city for any judgment obtained against said city, and asking such person or corporation to appear and defend; thereupon any judgment obtained in such suit shall be conclusive in any action by the city against any person or corporation so notified as to the existence of the defect or other cause of the injury or damage, and as to the liability of the city to the plaintiff in the first named suit in consequence thereof, and as to the amount of the damage or injury occasioned thereby; and every such city is hereby empowered to maintain an action against the person or corporation so notified to recover the amount of any such judgment, together with all the expenses incurred by such city in such suit. [C., '97, § 1053.]

NOTE: Above section made applicable to cities under commission form of government by § 6567; and to cities under city manager plan by § 6685.

6736. Purchase on execution. Such cities shall have power to acquire real estate, or any interest therein, as a purchaser at an execution sale, when judgment is entered in favor of the city, or when it has a lien thereon, or is otherwise interested therein. [C., '97, § 1000.]

NOTE: Above section made applicable to cities under commission form of government by § 6567.

6737. Elections. All elections held in such cities shall be governed by the general election laws. [C., '97, § 936.]

6738. Conveyance of land. They shall have power, by a three-fourths vote of all members of the council, to dispose of and convey lands unsuitable, insufficient, or unnecessary for the purposes for which they were originally acquired; but when such lands are disposed of, enough shall be reserved for streets to accommodate adjacent property owners; and to dispose of the title or interest of such city in any real estate, or any lien thereon, or share or certificate therefor, owned or held by it, including any street or portion thereof vacated or discontinued, however acquired or held, upon such terms as the council shall direct. Conveyance executed in accordance with this section shall extinguish all the rights and claims of the city existing prior thereto. [C., '97, § 1001.]

6739. Use of public grounds. Any such cities situated on the Mississippi river, having within their limits public grounds heretofore set apart or dedicated for levee, warehouse, or other public purposes, and in which the use of such ground for such purposes has ceased or been abandoned in whole or in part, may use or provide for the use of such grounds otherwise than for levee and warehouse purposes, as said council of such cities may determine are for the public interest, and upon such terms and conditions as may be fixed by said council. [C., '97, § 1054.]

6740. Condemnation of land. They shall have power to purchase and provide for the condemnation of, and pay for out of the general or grading fund, or assess and levy the whole or any part of the cost thereof upon the property benefited thereby, and enter upon and take any lands within or without the territorial limits of such city, for the following purposes:

1. For parks, commons, cemeteries, crematories, hospital grounds, natatoriums, or public baths.

2. For establishing, laying out, widening, straightening, narrowing, extending, and lighting streets, avenues, highways, alleys, landing places, public squares, public grounds, public markets, or market places, and public slaughter-houses.

3. For obtaining gravel, stone, or other suitable material with which to improve their streets and alleys, including a suitable roadway thereto by the most reasonable route.

4. For any other purpose, where such purchase or condemnation is herein, or in the charters of such cities, or may hereafter be, authorized. [R., '60, § 1064; C., '73, §§ 464, 470; C., '97, § 999; S., '13, § 2024-j; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 36.]

6741. Proceedings to condemn. Proceedings for condemnation of land as contemplated in this chapter shall be in accordance with the provisions of this code relating to taking private property for works of internal improvement, except that the jurors shall have the additional qualification of being freeholders of the city, or as provided in the charters of said cities. [R., '60, §§ 1065, 1066; C., '73, §§ 469, 476, 477; C., '97, § 1002.]

6742. Infirmary—outdoor relief—baths. The council shall have power, by two-thirds vote of the whole council, to establish and maintain, either within or without the limits of the city, an infirmary for the accommodation of the poor of the city, and to provide for the distribution of outdoor relief, and for a public bathhouse or natatorium when declared by the board of health of such city to be essential to the preservation of the public health, and to regulate by ordinance the use of such baths and the conduct and maintenance of the same. The appropriation for the construction and maintenance of such bathhouse or natatorium shall be paid from the general current revenues of said city not appropriated to other purposes. [R., '60, § 1111; C., '73, § 538; C., '97, § 957.]

6743. Smoke nuisance. The emission of dense smoke within the corporate limits of special charter cities having a population of sixteen thousand or over is hereby declared a nuisance. [S., '13, § 713-a; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 19.]

6744. Property inside curb line. Cities under special charters shall have and are hereby granted power to place by ordinance, the exclusive charge, custody, and control of all property outside of the lot or property lines and inside the curb lines and upon the public streets in the park commission. [S. S., '15, § 997-a; 37 G. A., ch. 174, § 1.]

6746. Trees and shrubbery. Cities under special charters shall have and are hereby granted the power to place by ordinance, the charge, custody, and control in the park commission, of all trees, shrubbery, flowers, and grass outside of the lot or property lines and inside the curb lines and upon the public streets, and authorize the park commission to plant, cut, prune, remove, transplant, spray, care for, and maintain all trees, shrubbery, flowers, and grass outside of the lot or property lines and inside the curb lines and upon the public streets, in such a manner as not to interfere with public travel; and to pay for the same or any part thereof out of the park fund, or to provide by ordinance for assessing the cost thereof or any part thereof upon the lots and parcels of land in front of which such trees, shrubbery, flowers, and grass are planted and maintained. [S. S., '15, § 997-c; 37 G. A., ch. 174, § 2.]

divert it from the natural channel, and conduct the same through such artificial channels or covered drains, and fill old channels; and in doing such work, or in carrying off flowing water, or building main or lateral sewers through ravines or hollows, they shall have the right to pass through private property and condemn the same for such purposes; and the cost of such work, including the cost of the land condemned, shall be paid for as provided herein for the payment of the cost of constructing sewers. [C., '97, § 960.]

6749. Eminent domain. They may condemn and appropriate so much private property as shall be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter relating to the change of watercourses, and the construction of sewers and of artificial channels in the manner provided for condemning land for city purposes. [C., '97, § 961.]

6750. Assessment. If a covered drain or new channel of a watercourse shall be constructed along any street or alley and used by the city as a sanitary or storm waterway, the council shall have the power to assess upon the lots or land adjacent to the line of such covered drain or new channel the whole or a portion of the cost thereof, not exceeding the sum of two dollars per linear foot, in the manner provided for the assessment of the cost of sewers. [C., '97, § 963.]

NOTE: Above section and the four following sections made applicable to cities under commission form of government by § 6567.

6791. Power to grant franchise. They may also grant individuals or private corporations the authority to erect, maintain, or purchase such works or plants or railways, street railways, or telephone systems, for the term of not more than twenty-five years, and may renew or extend the term of such grants for a period not exceeding twenty-five years; but no exclusive franchise shall be thus granted, extended, or renewed, and no franchise shall be granted or authorized, until after notice of the application therefor has been published once each week for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in such city. [C., '97, § 955; S., '13, § 955.]

6792. Question submitted. The council may order any of the questions, including the granting to individuals or corporations authority to erect, maintain, or purchase water or gas works, electric light or power plants, or street railway or telephone systems, provided in the three preceding sections, submitted to a vote at a general election, or at one specially called for that purpose; or the mayor shall submit said question to such vote upon the petition of twenty-five property owners of each ward in the city. [C., '97, § 956.]

6793. Notice—costs. Notice of such election shall be given in two newspapers published in said city, if there are two, if not, then in one, once each week for at least four consecutive weeks. The party asking for a renewal or extension of such franchise shall pay the cost incurred in holding such election. [C., '97, § 956.]

6794. Management of waterworks. The waterworks now owned by such special charter cities having a population of thirty-five thousand or more shall be managed and operated by a board of waterworks trustees, which shall be composed of three resident electors, appointed by the mayor of any such city. [S., '13, § 1056-a1.]

NOTE: The above section is a part of 82 G. A., ch. 47, which became effective March 2, 1907.

6796. Compensation. Said trustees shall receive no compensation whatever for their duties as such. [S., '13, § 1056-a1.]

6797. Vacancies. All vacancies occurring on said board occasioned by death, resignation, removal, or otherwise, shall be filled by appointment to be made by the mayor of said city for the unexpired term. [S., '13, § 1056-a1.]

6798. Bond. Each trustee upon qualifying shall execute and furnish the city an official bond, in the sum of five thousand dollars, for the faithful performance of his duties, which bond, if sufficient, shall be approved by the city council and filed with the city recorder and by him kept in his office and recorded in a book kept for that purpose. The expense of such bonds shall be paid by the city treasurer, upon the order of the trustees, out of the waterworks funds. [S., '13, § 1056-a1.]

6800. Superintendent and employees. The said board of trustees shall employ an efficient

superintendent, and such other employees as may be necessary and proper, for the operation and betterment of such works, for the collection of water rentals, and for the conduct of the business incident to the operation thereof. [S., '13, § 1056-a2.]

6801. Bonds. The said board of trustees shall require of the superintendent, and of the other employees as they may deem proper, good and sufficient bonds, the amount thereof to be fixed and approved by said board, for the faithful performance of their duties, which bonds shall run in the name of the city and be filed with the city recorder and by him kept in his office and recorded in a book kept for that purpose. [S., '13, § 1056-a2.]

6802. Deposit and custody of funds. All money collected by the board of waterworks trustees shall be deposited at least daily by them with the city treasurer; and all money so deposited and all tax money received by the city treasurer from any source, levied and collected for and on account of the waterworks, shall be kept by the city treasurer as a separate and distinct fund, for which funds the city treasurer shall be liable upon his official bond the same as for other funds received by him as such treasurer. [S., '13, § 1056-a2.]

6803. Disbursement. Such moneys shall be paid out by the city treasurer only on the written order of the board of waterworks trustees, who shall have full and absolute control of the application and disbursement thereof for the purposes prescribed by law, including the payment of all indebtedness arising in the maintenance, operation, betterment, and extension of said waterworks; and said board of waterworks trustees shall make no payment of any kind whatsoever, except by written order on the city treasurer. [S., '13, § 1056-a2.]

6805. Rates. The board of trustees shall fix uniform water rates and make and enforce proper rules and regulations for the collection of water rentals and the supplying of good water service, and shall furnish the city council a schedule of such water rates and duplicate of such rules and regulations for publication as part of the proceedings of the city council. [S., '13, § 1056-a2.]

6806. Reports required. Such board of trustees shall each three months furnish the city council an itemized statement of all receipts and expenditures during such period, including all current liabilities and outstanding accounts, and also complete annual statements, in the form of a balance sheet, which shall include all assets and liabilities; and, at least annually, and oftener if they see fit, report the general condition and needs of the waterworks plant; and such quarterly and annual statements and such reports shall, when so furnished, be at once published as a part of the proceedings of the city council. [S., '13, § 1056-a2.]

6807. Records required. Said board of trustees shall keep a book wherein a record shall be entered and kept of their proceedings, which proceedings, duly attested, shall be at once published in two of the official newspapers of any such city. [S., '13, § 1056-a2.]

6808. Records public. All books, vouchers, and records of said trustees in any wise relating to the waterworks shall be open to the inspection and examination of any resident of said city. [S., '13, § 1056-a2.]

6809. Cities affected. All the provisions of the fifteen preceding sections shall be held and construed as applying to cities acting under special charters having a population of thirty-five thousand or more as shown by the last state census; and all acts or parts of acts in conflict with said sections shall not be applicable to any such cities in so far as they relate to the future management of waterworks. [S., '13, § 1056-a3.]

6812. Vacancies. All vacancies occurring on said board, occasioned by expiration of terms, by death, resignation, or removal, shall be filled by appointment by the mayor of such city. [40 G. A., ch. 138, § 1.]

6813. Compensation. The compensation of said trustees shall be not more than three hundred dollars per annum to each member of said board. [40 G. A., ch. 138, § 1.]

6814. Bond. Each of said trustees shall execute and furnish to the city an official bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars to be approved by the mayor and filed with the city clerk. [40 G. A., ch. 138, § 1.]

6815. Removal. Such trustees may be removed from office for proper cause under the provisions of chapter 56. [40 G. A., ch. 138, § 1.]

6817. Regulations of electric wires. Special charter cities shall have power to regulate telegraph, district telegraph, telephone, street car, electric light and power poles, subways, and wires, and provide the manner in which and the places where the same shall be placed, including the right to construct subways under and erect poles upon and along the streets, alleys, and public places; and to compel companies having wires on the same street or alley to use the same poles or subways upon reasonable terms. [C., '97, § 959; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 23.]

BUILDING RESTRICTIONS

6818. Housing law. Chapter 323 is applicable to cities acting under special charters which, by the last state or federal census, had a population of fifteen thousand or more, and to every such city as its population shall reach fifteen thousand thereafter by any state or federal census; provided, however, that in all other such cities having a population of less than fifteen thousand, the council may adopt ordinances for the regulation and control of any or all matters covered by the provisions of said chapter, in so far as same may be reasonably applicable, and fix penalties for the violation thereof; and fix rules and regulations not inconsistent with those provided in said chapter for the enforcement of said ordinances. [38 G. A., ch. 123, § 1.]

6819. Construction or alteration. Section 6430 is applicable to special charter cities of more than fifty thousand population, as shown by the last state or federal census, having a department or division of building inspection in charge of a person devoting his entire time to the supervision of building construction and to the enforcement of laws and ordinances relating to building construction, repair, alteration, removal, and related matters. [39 G. A., ch. 160, § 1.]

6820. Municipal zoning. Chapter 324 is applicable to cities acting under special charters. [40 G. A., ch. 134, § 1.]

6822. Building permits. Such cities shall require plans and specifications for all buildings costing over two thousand dollars, and all buildings to be erected within the fire limits of such cities, to be submitted for approval, and no such building shall be erected until such plans are approved by the board of public works, chief of fire department, or other proper officer of such city. Such city shall require any person, before erecting any building or improvement within the city, to submit plans and specifications for the plumbing, drainage, ventilation, and electric wiring of such building, for approval, and provide for the inspection of the construction thereof, and obtaining a permit for such erection or construction, which shall not be issued until such plans and specifications have been approved by the board of health or electrician, and may make reasonable charges for such approval and inspection, as provided by ordinance, and the money derived therefrom shall be paid monthly to the treasurer or collector. [C., '97, § 1052.]

RIVER FRONT AND LEVEE IMPROVEMENTS

6823. Water front improvement—fund. Any city acting under special charter, which is bounded in part or divided by a river, may improve said water front by constructing retaining walls, filling, grading, paving, macadamizing, or riprapping the same; and to pay for such improvements the council of such city is empowered to levy a tax of not exceeding one mill on the dollar per annum on the taxable property thereof, the same when collected to be known as the levee improvement fund. The proceeds of such fund shall be used exclusively for said purposes. [S., '13, § 1056-a6a.]

NOTE: Above section and the two following sections made applicable to cities under commission form of government by § 6567.

6824. Bonds. In the event that the proceeds of such tax in any one year shall be insufficient to pay for the improvements of that year, or if the city council shall deem best to extend the payment over a number of years, then upon a majority vote of said council approving the same, said cities may borrow the money to make such improvements and issue the negotiable interest-bearing bonds of said city to evidence said debt; provided that the total bond that may be issued under this chapter by any one city shall not exceed one per cent of the assessed value of said city. [S., '13, § 1056-a6b.]

6825. Form of bonds. Said bonds shall be in amounts provided in, and conform in substance to, the requirements of section 6253. [S., '13, § 1056-a6c.]

6826. River front commission. Chapter 294 is applicable to cities acting under special charters. [S., '13, § 879-o.]

6827. Levee improvement commission. Any city acting under special charter may establish a levee improvement commission to consist of the mayor, who shall be its chairman, and not more than four other persons to be appointed by the mayor with the approval of the city council. [S., '13, § 1056-a6d.]

6828. Qualifications — compensation—term. The appointive members shall be residents and qualified electors of the city, and shall hold no other official position in the city, and no member shall receive any salary for his services as a member of such commission. Their term of office shall be fixed by ordinance and shall not exceed six years. [S., '13, § 1056-a6d.]

6829. Bond. Before entering upon their office the appointive members shall each execute a bond in favor of the city in the penal sum of two thousand dollars, with approved fidelity company surety, for the faithful performance of their duties. The expense of this bond shall be paid out of the levee improvement fund. [S., '13, § 1056-a6d.]

6832. Treasurer. The city treasurer shall be the treasurer of the levee improvement commission. He shall keep the levee improvement funds and the moneys derived from the sale of bonds for water front improvements in a separate and distinct fund from which he shall pay no money except upon the order of the levee improvement commission signed by its chairman and secretary, and countersigned by at least one other member of said levee improvement commission. [S., '13, § 1056-a6e.]

BOARD OF HEALTH

6833. Appointment. There shall be appointed in every such city a local board of health consisting of five members, a majority of whom, including the mayor, shall be members of the city council. The mayor of the city shall be ex officio one of said members and the chairman thereof. The manner of appointment and duration of office of said board shall be determined by ordinance of said city. [C., '97, § 1025.]

6834. Officers appointed — quorum. The board of health shall appoint a physician to the board, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the board. The city clerk or recorder shall be clerk of the board, unless some other clerk may be provided by ordinance. The board of health shall appoint, with the consent of the council, all officers and agents necessary to carry their rules and orders into effect, and shall recommend the compensation or salaries to be paid such officers or agents, which shall be determined by the council. In cases of emergency, the board of health may employ persons to aid in the execution of its orders, and fix the compensation of such employees. The majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business and the exercise of powers conferred upon the board. [C., '97, § 1026.]

6835. Physician and clerk. It shall be the duty of such clerk and physician to report at least once a year to the department of health the proceedings of such board, and such other facts as may be required, on blanks in accordance with instructions received from the said department. They shall also make special reports whenever required so to do by the said department. [C., '97, § 1027.]

6836. General powers. The local board of health shall make such rules and regulations and orders respecting the connection of buildings and tenements with sewers, and the approval of plans for plumbing and the inspection thereof; and the inspection of milk, provisions, and of all food products sold within such city, and the condemnation and destruction of the same when impure or diseased; the collection and disposition of garbage; the condemnation of impure wells and cisterns; the prompt report of contagious or infectious diseases; nuisances, sources of filth, and cases of sickness within its jurisdiction, and on all boats in its ports and harbors, or railroad cars passing through such city; and for the prevention of nuisances and the preservation of the public health, as said board may judge necessary for the public health and safety; and shall, from time to time, report to the city council ordinances for carrying such rules, regulations, and provisions into effect, and for the appointment of the proper inspectors and officers necessary to enforce the same. [C., '97, § 1028.]

6837. Violation of regulations. Such cities shall have power and may provide by ordinance for the punishment by fine and imprisonment of any person who shall knowingly violate or fail to comply with any rule, regulation, or order of such local board of health, but the fine shall not exceed one hundred dollars, nor the imprisonment thirty days. The prosecution for the violation of any rule, regulation, or order of such board of health shall be in the name of the city appointing such board, and shall be conducted in the same manner and before the same tribunals as other prosecutions for the violation of ordinances of such city. [C., '97, § 1029.]

6838. Sewer connections. The board of health shall have power to compel all property owners owning property situated on streets along which sewers have been constructed, or within two hundred fifty feet of any sewer, to make proper connections therewith, and to use the same for proper purposes; and in case such owner shall fail to make such connections within the time fixed by such board, they may cause such connections to be made and report the cost and expense thereof to the city council, which shall assess the same against the property so connected, and such assessment shall be a lien on said property which the city council can enforce by the sale of same. [C., '97, § 1030.]

6839. Plumbing. Such board shall have power to prescribe rules and regulations for all plumbing connections of buildings or tenements with any sewer, and for all plumbing, drainage, and ventilation of any building or tenement, and may prescribe the kind and size of materials to be used in any plumbing, drainage, and ventilation of buildings, and the manner in which plumbing shall be done, and compel the plans and specifications for the plumbing of any building to be submitted to and approved by said board before the same is installed, and that such work be done by a competent licensed plumber, and provide for the inspection of the work done under such plans and specifications, and have the power to appoint, with the approval of the city council, an inspector of such plumbing, and define his duties and powers. [C., '97, § 1031.]

6840. Nuisances. Such board may order the owner or occupant of any property, place, or building at his own expense to remove or abate any nuisance, source of filth, or cause of sickness, to dispose of garbage, to destroy diseased or impure milk, provisions, or food products, to purify, fill up, or cease from using any impure well or cistern, to report to the proper officer all contagious or infectious diseases found on his property or property over which he has control, to make sewer connection, and to do such acts as may be required. The board may in its discretion specify in its notice the time and manner of compliance with such order, and if such person neglect to comply with such order he may be punished in accordance with the provisions hereof, and the board may do or cause to be done whatever is required by the order. [C., '97, § 1032.]

agement of such property shall not be found in the city, or whenever the board may deem immediate action necessary, it may, without notice to such owner or occupant or person having the control or management of the same, immediately proceed to remove said nuisance, source of filth, or other cause of sickness, and the expense thereof shall be reported to the council and levied and assessed against the property, place, or building, and collected as a special tax, and shall be a lien upon such property, place, and building, or the same may be enforced in any court having jurisdiction, by the proper officer, in the name of the city. [C., '97, § 1033.]

6842. Enjoining. Whenever any person or persons are engaged in a work, or doing things, or threatening to do things, which, in the opinion of the board, will result in a nuisance or endanger the public health, the board may forbid the doing or continuance thereof, and in case any such person shall fail to comply with any such order, after personal service of a notice thereof, he may be proceeded against and punished under the provisions hereof. [C., '97, § 1034.]

6843. Health regulations. Whenever any such board shall make or adopt any general rules and regulations for the public health, they shall be signed by the mayor or other presiding officer and attested by the clerk of such board, and, when so signed and attested, shall be published twice in the official newspaper of such city. When such publication is completed, due proof thereof by affidavit shall be attached to said rules and regulations, and the same shall then be recorded by the clerk of such board in a book kept for such purpose, which record shall be certified to by the mayor or presiding officer and attested by the clerk; such general rules and regulations shall be in force and effect from and after the completion of such record. [C., '97, § 1035.]

6845. Premises unfit for habitation. The board, when satisfied upon due examination that any cellar, room, tenement, or building in said city, occupied as a dwelling house, has become, by reason of the number of inhabitants or want of cleanliness or other cause, unfit for such habitation, and a cause of nuisance or sickness to the occupants thereof or to the public, may issue a notice to the occupants thereof or any of them, requiring the premises to be put into a proper condition as to cleanliness or health, or may require the occupants to remove from the premises, within such time as the board deems reasonable. If the persons so notified neglect or refuse to comply with the terms of the notice, the board may cause the premises to be properly cleaned at the expense of the owners or property, or the board may remove the occupants forcibly and close up the premises, and the same shall not again be occupied as a dwelling place until put in a sanitary condition to the satisfaction of the board. [C., '97, § 1037.]

6846. Contagious diseases. Whenever by reason of the prevalence of smallpox, or other contagious or infectious disease, in any such city or the vicinity thereof, the board may deem it dangerous to permit the congregation together of people, the board may, with the consent of the council, by public proclamation published once in some newspaper of general circulation in the city, prohibit the congregation of people in schools, churches, theaters, and in all other buildings in said city, and it shall thereupon become the duty of the principals, teachers, and other persons in charge of such places or buildings specified in said publication to keep the same closed and to prevent the congregation of people therein; and when smallpox is prevalent in said city or its vicinity, the said board of health may, with the consent of the council, by notice served upon the teachers or persons in charge of any of the public or private schools, prohibit the admission therein of any pupil until such pupil shall have proved, to the satisfaction of the board or the persons selected by it for that purpose, that such pupils have been vaccinated within five years prior thereto, or within such time as the board may designate; and said board may in like manner prevent the admission of persons not furnishing satisfactory proof of vaccination into churches, theaters, or other buildings, by notifying the persons in charge thereof not to admit such persons. [C., '97, § 1038.]

6847. Warrant. Whenever the board of health shall think it necessary for the preservation of the lives or the health of the inhabitants to enter a place, building, or vessel within its jurisdiction, for the purpose of examining into and destroying, removing, or preventing any nuisance, source of filth, or cause of sickness, and shall be refused such entry, any member of the board may make complaint, under oath, before any justice of the peace, or other judicial officer having jurisdiction to enforce the ordinances of such city, stating the facts of the case so far as he has knowledge thereof. Such officer shall thereupon issue a warrant, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, marshal or public officer, commanding him to take sufficient aid and, being accompanied by two or more members of said board, between the hours of sunrise and sunset, repair to the place where such nuisance, source of filth, or cause of sickness may be, and destroy, remove, or prevent the same under the direction of such members of the board. [C., '97, § 1039.]

6848. Removal of diseased person. When any person coming from abroad or residing within such city shall be infected, or lately shall have been infected, with smallpox or other sickness dangerous to the public health, the board shall make provisions in the manner by it deemed best for the safety of the inhabitants, by removing such sick or infected person to a separate house, if it can be done without injury to his health, and by providing nurses and other assistance and supplies, which shall be charged to the person himself, his parents, or other person liable for his support, if able, otherwise to the county. [C., '97, § 1040.]

6849. Care of such person. If any afflicted person can not be removed without danger to his health, the board shall make provision for him, as directed in the preceding section, in the house in which he may be, and in such case they may cause the persons in the neighborhood to be removed, and take other means as may be deemed necessary for the safety of the inhabitants. [C., '97, § 1041.]

6850. Warrant. Any justice of the peace, or tribunal having jurisdiction to enforce the ordinances of such city, on application under oath, showing cause therefor, by any member of said board, shall issue his warrant, directed to the sheriff or constable of the county or marshal or police officer, commanding him, under the directions of the board, to remove any person infected with contagious disease, or to take possession of condemned houses and lodgings, and to provide nurses and attendants and other necessaries for the care, safety, and relief of the sick. [C., '97, § 1042.]

6851. Meetings—report. Every such board shall meet for the transaction of business at least once each month, and at such other times as occasion may require, and the clerk of the board shall transmit his annual report to the department of health within two weeks after the October meeting, and at such other time as may be required by the said department. Such report shall embrace a history of any epidemic disease which may have prevailed within the city. The failure of the clerk to make such report shall be considered a misdemeanor, for which he shall be subject to a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars. [C., '97, § 1043.]

6852. Powers—assessment of expenses. The foregoing provisions in regard to boards of health shall not in any manner limit the powers of cities acting under special charters in relation to matters affecting the public health, and the city councils of such cities shall provide by ordinance for the manner of the exercise of the powers herein conferred upon such boards, and for the enforcement of the orders, rules, and regulations thereof, and punishment for the violation of the same, as prescribed in this chapter, and shall also have power to provide and shall provide for the assessment of all expenses incurred by said board and by said cities, in consequence of the failure or neglect of any owner or occupant of property to comply with any order of such board, upon the real estate upon which such expenditures are made or expenses incurred, and it shall be a lien thereon from the time said work is done, and may be assessed, levied, and collected as other special assessments, and may be collected and the lien enforced by civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction. [C., '97, § 1044.]

6853. Proceedings reported. Boards of health shall report their doings and proceedings to the council from time to time as required by ordinance or resolution, and the council shall have supervision over the orders and proceedings of said board. [C., '97, § 1045.]

6854. Construction of powers. The provisions of this chapter in regard to the police powers, sanitary regulations, and regulations for the prevention and spread of fires and of contagious diseases, shall not be construed as a limitation of the general powers of such cities. [C., '97, § 1046.]

GENERAL TAXATION

6855. General levy. The council shall levy a tax for the year then ensuing for the purpose of defraying its general or incidental expenses, which shall not exceed ten mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation of all taxable property in the city; but the aggregate of such levy, together with all levies for special purposes as hereinafter authorized, shall not exceed in any city in any one year, twenty-six mills, excluding city and district sewer tax, road district tax, and any tax levied to pay the principal or interest on any bonds issued by such city, or tax levied to pay judgments, or taxes authorized for library, park, or bridge purposes. [C., '97, § 1003; S., '13, § 1003; 40 G. A., ch. 141.]

6856. Special levies. They shall have power to levy annually the following taxes for special purposes:

1. Grading fund. A tax not exceeding three mills on the dollar for a grading fund, to be used for the purpose of opening, widening, extending, or grading any street, public ground, or market place.

2. Improvement fund. A tax not exceeding three mills on the dollar for the city improvement fund, to be used for the purpose of paying the cost of the making, reconstruction, and repair of any street improvement at the intersection of streets, and spaces opposite streets intersecting but not crossing, and the spaces opposite property owned by the city or state.

3. Sewer fund. A tax not exceeding five mills on the dollar on the assessed valuation of all property therein, for the city sewer fund, to be used to pay the cost of making, reconstructing, or repairing any sewer at the intersection of streets, and all spaces opposite streets intersecting but not crossing, and at spaces opposite property owned by the city or state, or to pay the whole or any part of the cost of making, reconstructing, or repairing any sewer within the limits of such city, and for the maintenance and operation of any sewage disposal plant included in said sewer district. When the city has been divided into sewer districts, a tax not exceeding five mills on the taxable real property in the sewer district, for the district sewer fund, to be used to pay, in whole or in part, the cost of the making, reconstruction or repair of any sewer located or laid in that particular district, and for the maintenance and operation of any sewage disposal plant included in said sewer districts; provided that, on petition of the owners of two-thirds in value of all the taxable real estate within such sewer district for the construction of a sewer in such district, the maximum percentage of taxes that can be levied in any one year shall not be limited to five mills, but shall be such percentage of the valuation of such property as will produce at least one-tenth of the whole cost of such sewer assessable upon the real property in such district.

4. Fire fund. A tax not exceeding five mills on the dollar for the purpose of creating a city fire fund, to be used for paying the expenses of organizing, keeping, and maintaining a fire department, including the expenses of constructing, purchasing, leasing, and maintaining the proper and necessary buildings, grounds, and apparatus therefor; provided that where a paid fire department is maintained, all money derived from the sale of any buildings, grounds, or apparatus of such fire department which was originally paid for out of the fire fund, shall belong to said fire fund.

5. Road fund. When any city is divided into road districts, a tax not exceeding two mills on the dollar on all taxable property in such road district, to be known as the district road fund, and to be used only to pay the cost of cleaning, sprinkling, and repairing the streets and public places in such district.

6. Library tax. In cities which have established, or may establish, a free public library, a tax as provided in section 6211, subsections 19 and 20.

7. Tax for water and gas works and electric plants. A tax not exceeding five mills on the dollar, which, with the rates, rents, or revenues derived therefrom, shall be sufficient to pay the expenses of running, operating, and repairing water and gas works and electric light and power plants owned and operated by such city, and the interest on or principal of any bonds issued to pay the cost of the construction of such works; but such taxes shall not be levied upon the property which lies wholly without the limits of the benefits or protection of such works or plants, which limit shall be fixed by the council each year before making the levy.

8. Tax for water, gas, and electric light or power. A tax not exceeding five mills on the dollar for the purpose of paying the amount due, or to become due, to any individual or company operating water or gas works or electric light or power plants, for water, light, gas, or power supplied to the city, the levy to be limited to the property benefited thereby.

9. Bond fund. A tax for the purpose of creating a bond fund sufficient to pay the interest, to accrue before the next annual levy, on funding or refunding bonds outstanding, and to pay the principal of such funding or refunding bonds. In case of such bonds, the levy shall be so made that, dividing the principal into as many parts as the bonds have years to run, not less than one such part shall be levied each year, and shall be made so that the fund derived therefrom shall be available and sufficient to pay the bonds at their maturity.

10. Water and gas or electric light and power bonds. A tax to be used exclusively in payment of the principal and interest of bonds issued for the construction of water and gas works, or electric light and power plants, and which shall be levied in the manner provided in the preceding subdivision.

11. Park tax. A tax not exceeding two mills on the dollar, as authorized by the vote of the electors, to purchase, improve, and maintain public parks in such city.

12. Special bridge tax. A special tax to aid in the construction of bridges, when such tax has been voted by the electors of the city under the provisions of section 5883.

13. Drainage tax. A tax in such sum or amount as may be necessary to pay any special assessment, with interest, or any installment of any special assessment, with interest, levied against any street, alley, highway, public way, or park of any city acting under a special charter, levied under the provisions of sections 7627 and 7629. [C., '73, §§ 461, 475; C., '97, § 1005; S., '13, § 1005; 38 G. A., ch. 394, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 11, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 137, § 1.]

6857. Park levy. Section 6214 is applicable to cities acting under special charters. [38 G. A., ch. 168, § 1.]

6858. City bridge levy. Section 6209 is made applicable to special charter cities. [C., '97, § 1004; S., '13, § 1004.]

6859. Road levy on agricultural land. Section 6210 is made applicable to special charter cities. [C., '97, § 1004; S., '13, § 1004.]

6860. Fire department maintenance levy. Section 6211, subsections 8 and 9, is applicable to special charter cities. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 14.]

6861. Garbage and street cleaning levy. Section 6211, subsection 16, is applicable to special charter cities. [S. S., '15, § 696-b; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 14.]

6862. Excess of judgment or bond tax. When a tax has been levied to pay any judgment against any such city, or the principal and interest of funding or refunding bonds issued by such city, or for any other special purpose, such tax shall not be held invalid if the amount received exceed the amount sought for such specific object, but the excess shall go into the general fund. Money so raised is especially appropriated for such purposes, and shall constitute a distinct fund in the hands of the treasurer until the obligation is discharged.

6863. Anticipating revenue. Loans may be negotiated or warrants issued by any such city in anticipation of its revenues for the fiscal year in which such loans are negotiated or warrants issued, but the aggregate amount of such loans and warrants shall not exceed one-half the estimated revenue of such corporation for the fund or purpose for which the taxes are to be collected for such fiscal year. [R., '60, § 1129; C., '73, § 500; C., '97, § 1007.]

6864. Diversion of funds. Section 6230 is made applicable to cities acting under special charters. [C., '97, § 1008.]

6865. Valuation. The assessed or taxable value of all property except moneys and credits including moneyed capital other than moneyed capital within the meaning of section 5219 of the revised statutes of the United States as amended, and the value at which it shall be listed and upon which the levy shall be made, in special charter cities, shall be provided by the city council of such city, and if the city council of such city shall fix the taxable value of property at any portion thereof except twenty-five percent of the actual value thereof as shown by the assessment, such city council, when the levy for city purposes has been determined, shall ascertain the equivalent thereof, based upon such twenty-five percent valuation and shall certify the aggregate of the levy so ascertained to the county treasurer of the county in which such city is located and the county treasurer shall pay to the treasurer of such city, such portion of the five mill tax on moneys and credits collected within such city, as the aggregate levy so certified is of the total levy obtained by adding such certified levy to the levy for all purposes except city purposes. [S., '13, § 1056-a5; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 329, § 1.]

6867. Levy and collection. The council shall have power to levy and collect taxes for all general and special purposes in this chapter authorized, upon all property within the city not exempted from taxation by the general law of the state, and to fix the number of mills to be levied on the value thereof, which shall be ascertained by the assessor of said city. [C., '97, § 1010.]

6868. Assessment procedure. The council shall provide by ordinance the time and manner of taking such assessment, when the same shall be equalized and returned to the auditor or recorder, and for the assessing and placing upon the tax list all property that may have been omitted, overlooked, brought into the city before the levy of said tax, or otherwise not returned by the assessor, and to fix the time when such officer shall make out and deliver a copy of the assessment and the taxes levied thereon to the collector or treasurer. [C., '97, § 1010.]

6869. Assessment—equalization. All the property of individuals, companies, copartnerships, and corporations shall be listed and returned by the assessor for city taxation, and the duty of the owner, officer, agent, or individual having control of the same to assist the assessor in listing the same, and the penalties for his neglect or refusal so to do, shall be as provided in title 16, so far as the same may be applicable and not in contravention of any of the provisions herein, or of the charters of such cities; but the equalization of all assessments shall be made by the council as provided by ordinance or the charters of said cities. [C., '97, § 1011.]

6870. Board of review. Sections 7129, and 7132 to 7136, inclusive, are made applicable to special charter cities, except that the words "city treasurer" or "collector" and "city" shall be substituted for "county auditor" or "county" wherever the same appear in said sections. [C., '97, § 1004; S., '13, § 1004.]

6871. Collection through county. The council may provide by ordinance for certifying all taxes and assessments to the county auditor, as provided in sections 6227 to 6229, inclusive, which shall be applicable to the city adopting the provisions thereof, and the taxes so certified shall be collected and paid over in the same way, with the same penalties, rights, and liabilities, as in and for other cities to which such sections are applicable. [C., '97, § 1010.]

6872. Collection procedure. Such cities shall have power and shall provide by ordinance when general or special taxes and assessments shall become delinquent, and the rate of interest which they shall thereafter bear, not exceeding ten per cent per annum on the whole amount thereof, including penalty, and for the sale of both real and personal property for the collection of general and special delinquent taxes and assessments, on such terms as the council may determine. [C., '97, § 1012.]

6873. Sale of real estate—notice. In the sale of real property for taxes and assessments, the notice of the time and place of such sale shall be given by the treasurer or the collector, and shall contain the description of each separate tract to be sold, as taken from the tax list; the amount of taxes for which it is liable, delinquent for each year, and the amount of penalty, interest, and cost thereon; the name of the owner, if known, or the person, if any, to whom it is taxable; by publication in some newspaper in the city once each week for three consecutive weeks, the last of which shall be at least one week before the date of such sale, and by posting a copy thereof at the door of the office of the collector or treasurer one week before the day of such sale. [C., '97, § 1012.]

6874. Cost of publication. The compensation for such publication shall not exceed twenty cents for each description, and shall be paid by the city. The amount paid therefor shall be collected as a part of the costs of sale and paid into the treasury. [C., '97, § 1012.]

6875. Sufficiency of notice. In all cases such advertisement shall be sufficient notice to the owners and persons having an interest in or claiming title to any lot or parcel of real estate, of the sale of their property for delinquent taxes. [C., '97, § 1012.]

6876. Irregularities disregarded. No irregularity or informality in the advertisement shall affect the legality of any sale or the title of any property conveyed, if it shall appear that said property was subject to taxation for the year or years for which the same was sold, and that the tax was due and unpaid at the time of sale. [C., '97, § 1012.]

6877. Demand unnecessary. A failure of the collector to make personal demand of taxes shall not affect the validity of any sale or the title of any property acquired under such sale. [C., '97, § 1012.]

6878. Adjournment of sale. Section 7259 is made applicable to cities acting under special charters. [C., '97, § 1013.]

6880. Lien on real estate. Taxes upon real estate shall be a lien thereon against all persons except the state. Taxes due from any person upon personal property shall be a lien upon any and all real estate owned by such person or to which he may acquire title. [C., '97, § 1015.]

6881. Lien between vendor and vendee. As between vendor and vendee, such lien shall attach to real estate on the thirty-first day of December following the levy, unless otherwise provided in this chapter. [C., '97, § 1015.]

6882. Stocks of goods. Taxes upon stocks of goods and merchandise shall be a lien thereon, and shall continue a lien thereon when sold in bulk, and may be collected from the owner, purchaser, or vendee, but the property of the seller thereof shall be first exhausted for the payment. [C., '97, § 1015.]

6883. When lien attaches. All of such taxes shall remain a lien on the property aforesaid from and after the date of the levy in each year. [C., '97, § 1015.]

6884. Tax receipt. The collector or treasurer shall in all cases make out and deliver to the taxpayer a receipt, which receipt shall contain the description and the assessed value of each lot and parcel of real estate, and the assessed value of personal property, and in case the property has been sold for taxes and not redeemed, the date of such sale and to whom sold, also the amount of taxes, interest, and costs paid; and the collector or treasurer shall give separate receipts for each year; whereupon he shall make proper entries of such payments on the books of his office. [C., '97, § 1016.]

6885. Payment refused—receipt made conclusive—liability of treasurer. The council may provide by ordinance:

1. That no person shall be permitted to pay taxes of any one year until the taxes for the previous years shall be first paid.

2. That the receipt contemplated in the preceding section shall be conclusive evidence that all taxes and the costs of every kind against the property described in such receipt are paid to the date of such receipt.

3. That for any failure or neglect on the part of the collector, or on the part of anyone acting as collector, he and his bondsmen shall be liable to an action on his official bond for damages sustained by any person or the city for such neglect. [C., '97, § 1016.]

6886. Certificate of purchase. The treasurer or collector of taxes, or person authorized to act as collector, shall make, sign, and deliver to the purchaser of any real property sold for the payment of any taxes or special assessments authorized by the provisions of this chapter, or by any law applicable to such cities, a certificate of purchase, which shall have the same force and effect as certificates issued by county treasurers for the sale of property for delinquent county taxes. [C., '97, § 1017.]

of the amount for which the same was sold, and ten per cent of such amount immediately added as a penalty, with eight per cent per annum on the whole amount thus made from the day of sale, and the amount of all taxes, either general or special, with interest and costs, paid at any time by the purchaser or his assignee subsequent to the sale, and a similar penalty of ten per cent added as before on the amount of the payment made at any subsequent time, with eight per cent interest per annum on the whole of such amount or amounts from the day or days of payment; provided that such penalty for the nonpayment of the taxes at any subsequent time or times shall not attach, unless such subsequent tax or taxes shall have remained unpaid for thirty days after they became delinquent. [C., '97, § 1018.]

6888. Certificate of redemption. The treasurer, collector, or person authorized to receive the same, upon application of any party to redeem real property sold as aforesaid, and being satisfied that such person has a right to redeem the same, and on payment of the proper amount, shall issue to such party a certificate of redemption, in substance and form as provided for the redemption of property sold for state and county taxes, and shall make proper entry thereof in the sale book, which redemption shall thereupon be deemed complete without further proceedings. [C., '97, § 1018.]

6889. Redemption statutes applicable. The provisions of sections 7277 to 7283, inclusive, shall, so far as the same shall be applicable, and are not herein changed or modified, apply to sales of real estate for delinquent taxes herein contemplated; but where the words "auditor of the county" or "treasurer" are used in said sections the words "city clerk", "recorder", "auditor", or "person authorized to make out the tax list" and "city collector" or "city treasurer or officer authorized to receive same" shall be substituted. [C., '97, § 1018.]

6890. Deed—when executed. Immediately after the expiration of ninety days from the date of service of the notice, as prescribed by sections 7279 to 7284, inclusive, the treasurer, collector, or person authorized to act as collector of taxes, shall make out a deed for each lot or parcel of land sold and remaining unredeemed, and deliver the same to the purchaser upon the return of the certificate of purchase. [C., '97, § 1019.]

6891. Different parcels. Any number of parcels of real estate bought by one person may be included in one deed, if required by the purchaser. [C., '97, § 1019.]

6892. Formal execution. Deeds executed by the city treasurer, collector, or person authorized to act as collector, may be in form substantially as provided by section 7285, and shall be signed and acknowledged by him in his official capacity. [C., '97, § 1019.]

6893. Force and effect. All deeds and conveyances hereafter made and executed on account of any general or special tax sale shall be of the same force and effect as deeds made by the county treasurer as provided in sections 7286 to 7288, inclusive, for delinquent county taxes. [C., '97, § 1019.]

6894. Rights and remedies. The purchaser as well as the owner of any real property sold on account of such general or special delinquent taxes or assessments shall be entitled to all the rights and remedies which are granted and prescribed by sections 7269, 7270, and 7289 to 7296, inclusive, but wherever the words "county and county treasurer and auditor" are used, the words "city, city treasurer, city clerk, recorder, auditor, or collector or officer authorized to act as collector", shall be substituted. [C., '97, § 1019.]

6896. Penalty or interest on unpaid taxes. In cities acting under special charters no penalty or interest shall be collected upon taxes or assessments remaining unpaid four years or more, from the first day of January of the year in which the tax books containing the same were first placed in the hands of the city collector or treasurer. [S., '13, § 1056-a4.]

MISCELLANEOUS TAXES

6897. Poll tax. Chapter 318 is made applicable to special charter cities. [C., '97, § 1004; S., '13, § 1004.]

6898. Intoxicating liquors. Title 6 is made applicable to cities acting under special charters. [C., '97, § 1013.]

NOTE: The intoxicating liquor statutes carry a mulct tax provision; see §§ 2051 and 2052.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS AND SEWERS

6899. How paid. The cost of opening, widening, extending, or grading any street or market place shall be paid from the grading fund. The cost of making or reconstructing any street improvement, not ordered to be paid from the city improvement or grading fund or by any railway or street railway, shall be assessed as a special tax against the property abutting thereon, in proportion to the linear front feet thereof. The term "street", wherever used in this chapter, shall be held to include avenue, highway, alley, and public ground. [R., '60, § 1064; C., '73, §§ 464, 465; C., '97, § 969.]

6900. Road districts—cost at intersections. The council may divide the city into road districts, or may make each ward a separate road district, or make the entire city into a general district for the purpose of cleaning, sprinkling, and repairing the streets, or for any of said purposes, and provide for the manner of doing the same, and for the payment of the cost thereof out of the district road fund, and shall determine the amount necessary for such purposes in each district, and make appropriations therefor at the time and in the manner in this chapter provided for making appropriations for other purposes; but the cost of making, reconstructing, and repairing streets at the intersection of streets, and one-half of the space opposite streets intersecting and not crossing, and opposite city property in any district, shall be paid from the city improvement fund. [C., '97, § 970; 40 G. A., ch. 140.]

6901. Notice and levy of assessments. After filing the plat and schedule referred to in section 6023, the council shall direct the clerk or recorder to give ten days' notice, by publishing same three times in a newspaper published in said city, that such plat and schedule are on file in the office of the clerk, fixing a time within which all objections thereto or to the prior proceedings must be made in writing; and the council, having heard the objections and made necessary corrections, shall levy the special assessment as shown in such plat and schedule. [C., '97, § 971; S., '13, § 971.]

6902. Levy and payment as tax. The special assessments made in said plat and schedule, as corrected and approved, shall be levied at one time, by resolution, against the property abutting upon or adjacent to such street or sewer, and, when levied and certified, shall be payable as ordinary city taxes. [C., '97, § 972; S. S., '15, § 972.]

6903. Maturity under waiver. If the owner of any lot or parcel of land or railroad or street railway, the assessment against which is embraced in any bond or certificate provided for in chapter 311, shall, within thirty days from the date of such assessment, promise and agree in writing, indorsed on such bond or certificate, or in a separate agreement, that, in consideration of having the right to pay his assessment in installments, he will not make any objections of illegality or irregularity, or to the assessment or levy of such tax upon and against his property, and will pay said assessment, with interest from the date of acceptance of the work by the city council at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum, as shall by ordinance or resolution of the council be prescribed, then such tax so levied against the lot or parcel of land or railroad or street railway shall be payable in not less than five nor more than ten equal installments, the first of which may become due and payable, with interest from the date of acceptance of the work by the city council on the whole amount, at a time fixed in the year in which the levy is made, or in the following year, and the other installments shall be due and payable, with interest on the whole amount unpaid, at intervals of one or two years, as fixed by the resolution making the levy, and all of such installments, with interest from the date of acceptance of the work by the city council, shall mature in ten years or less from the time fixed for the payment of the first installment. [C., '97, § 972; S. S., '15, § 972.]

6904. Maturity without waiver. Where no such agreement is made, the whole of such assessment so levied shall mature at one time, and be due and payable, with interest from the date of acceptance of the work by the city council, as hereinafter provided. [C., '97, § 972; S. S., '15, § 972.]

6905. Collection. Such assessments shall be duly entered on the tax books of the city, and shall be then due and payable at the office of the collector, or other officer authorized to collect city taxes, and shall be collected, like other special taxes, as provided by ordinance. [C., '97, § 973.]

6906. Interest. Such assessment shall bear interest from the date of acceptance of the work by the city council at six per cent per annum. Interest on the whole assessment unpaid shall become due and payable at the time fixed by resolution or ordinance for the payment of each installment. [C., '97, § 974; S. S., '15, § 974.]

6907. When delinquent. Such assessment, and each installment with the interest thereon, shall be paid with accrued costs, at the office of the collector or treasurer, by the owner of the property upon which it is levied, at or before the time said property is sold for taxes or interest or both, and each installment and all interest due and unpaid shall become delinquent at the time fixed by ordinance or resolution, and shall bear such interest from the time of becoming delinquent, as ordinary taxes. [R., '60, § 1068; C., '73, § 478; C., '97, § 975.]

6908. When lien attaches. All special assessments shall be a lien upon the property against which the same are assessed from the date of the resolution of the council levying the same and shall be prior and superior to all other liens except ordinary taxes, and shall not be divested by any judicial sale of the property. [R., '60, § 1068; C., '73, § 481; C., '97, § 975; S., '13, § 975.]

6909. Tax sale. Property against which any special assessment has been levied for street improvements or sewers may be sold for any part of the principal or interest, due and delinquent, at any regular, adjourned, or special tax sale, in the same manner and under the same forfeiture, penalty, and right of redemption; and certificates and deeds of such sale shall be made in the same manner and with like effect as in sales of property for nonpayment of ordinary taxes. [C., '97, § 976.]

6910. City as purchaser. The city may be a purchaser at said sale and be entitled to all the rights of purchasers at tax sales, with the right to sell and dispose of the same by the council. [C., '97, § 976.]

6911. Right of purchaser. The purchaser at any such tax sale shall have the same rights as purchasers at ordinary tax sales, but shall take the property charged with the lien of the remaining unpaid installments and interest. [C., '97, § 976.]

6913. Plat and estimate. Before the council orders any street improved or sewer constructed, it shall direct the engineer to prepare a plat, showing the location and general nature of the improvement, the extent thereof, the kinds of material, or, in case of sewers, the size and kinds of material to be used, and an estimate of the cost thereof, and the amount assessable upon any railway or street railway and upon each lot or parcel of land adjacent to such improvement or sewer per square foot in area, and file such plat and estimate in the office of the clerk or recorder. [C., '97, § 965; S., '13, § 965; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 27.]

6914. Publication of notice. Notice of its intention to make such improvement or sewer shall be published by the city clerk or recorder in three consecutive issues of a newspaper of such city, stating that such plat is on file, and, generally, the nature of the improvement, its location, the kinds of material to be used, and the estimate of its cost, and fixing the time before which objections thereto can be filed, which time shall not be less than five days after the last publication of such notice. [C., '97, § 965; S., '13, § 965; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 28.]

6915. Passage of resolution. The council, after considering such objections, shall determine what changes, if any, shall be made in the plan shown by such plat, and may, by resolution, order such improvement or sewer, prescribing generally the extent of the work, the kinds of material, and in case of sewers, the size and kinds of material to be used, when the work shall be completed, the terms of payment, and provide for the publication of notice asking proposals for doing such work, and the time the same will be acted upon. [C., '97, § 965; S., '13, § 965; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 29.]

6916. Street improvement fund. When the whole or any part of the cost of the making or reconstruction of any street improvement shall be ordered paid from the city improvement or grading fund, the council shall have power, after the completion of the work, by resolution, to levy at one time, the whole or any part of the cost of such improvement upon all the taxable property within such city, and determine the whole percentage of taxes necessary to pay the same, and the percentage to be paid each year, not exceeding the maximum annual limit of said taxes, and the number of years, not exceeding ten, given for the maturity of each installment thereof; but no part of such cost shall be levied against any property owned by the city, county, or state. [C., '97, § 977; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 30.]

6917. Sewer fund. When the whole or any part of the cost of the making or reconstruction of any sewer shall be ordered paid from the district or city sewer fund, the council may, after the completion, by resolution, levy at one time the whole or any part of the cost of such sewer upon all taxable real property within such sewer district or within the city, and determine the whole percentage of taxes necessary to pay the same, and the percentage to be paid each year, not exceeding the maximum annual limit of said taxes, and the number of years, not exceeding ten, given for the maturity of each installment; but no part of such cost shall be levied against the property owned by the city, county, or state. [C., '97, § 978; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 31.]

6920. Relevy. When, by reason of nonconformity to any law or ordinance, or by reason of any omission, informality, or irregularity, any special tax or assessment is invalid, or is adjudged irregular, the council shall have power to correct the same by resolution or ordinance, including the reordering of the work and the preliminary notice, and may reassess and relevy the same with the same effect and force as if done at the proper time and in the manner provided by law or by resolution or ordinance relating thereto; and when so corrected it shall be a lien upon the property from the same time and in the same manner and to the same extent as if the original assessment and levy had been in all respects legal. [C., '97, § 980.]

6921. Correction. When, in making any special assessment, any property is assessed too high or too low, the same may be corrected and a reassessment and relevy made, and any taxes collected in excess of the proper amount shall be refunded. The corrected assessment shall be a lien on the lots and parcels of land the same as the original, and shall be certified by the clerk or recorder to the collector or treasurer in the same manner, and, so far as possible, be collected in the same installments, draw interest at the same rates, and be enforced in the same manner as the original assessments. Any provisions of law, resolution, or ordinance, specifying a time when or order in which acts shall be done in the proceedings which may result in any special assessment, shall be taken to be subject to the qualification of this and the preceding section. [C., '97, § 981.]

6922. Certification—lien. All special assessments, where no other provision is made, shall be levied by the council, and a copy filed with the clerk or recorder, and entered upon the tax book of the collector or treasurer, and be a lien upon the property against which the same is assessed from the date of the levy of such assessment, and shall be prior to all other liens except ordinary taxes, and shall not be divested by any judicial or tax sale. The lien of different special assessments shall take priority in the order of their levy. [R., '60, § 1068; C., '73, § 478; C., '97, § 982.]

6923. Interest—delinquency. Special assessments shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the date of the levy, unless otherwise provided, and shall become delinquent thirty days after the levy, and be collected in the same manner, and, when delinquent, they shall bear the same interest, with the same penalties, as ordinary taxes. [R., '60, § 1068; C., '73, § 481; C., '97, § 982.]

6924. Tax sale—procedure. The property upon which any special assessment is a lien, where not otherwise provided, shall be sold for delinquent assessments and interest in the same manner, and with the same force and effect, as property sold for ordinary delinquent city taxes; and tax sale certificates, certificates of redemption from tax sales, and tax deeds shall be made in the same way and with the same force and effect as in sales for ordinary taxes. [C., '97, § 983.]

6925. Call for bonds or certificates. For the purpose of providing for the payment of the assessed cost of any street improvement or sewer which has been, or is to be, assessed upon the property abutting thereon or adjacent thereto, including railways or street railways liable for the payment thereof, the council is authorized from time to time, as the work progresses or is completed, to make requisition on the mayor for the issuance of bonds or certificates, as herein provided, in such denominations as shall be deemed best, in anticipation of the deferred payment of the taxes levied or

6926. Mayor to execute bonds. It shall be the duty of the mayor to make and execute bonds or certificates accordingly, to an amount not exceeding the cost and expense of such improvement to be actually assessed on the property liable for the payment of the same. [C., '97, § 987.]

6927. Requirements of bonds. The bonds shall bear the name of the street, place, or district improved, or in which any sewer is constructed, which street or place shall be particularly described in the resolution authorizing such issue, and such bonds shall be signed by the mayor, countersigned by the clerk or recorder, and sealed with the corporation seal, and shall bear the same date and be payable at the time fixed in said resolution, and be redeemable at any time at the option of the city, and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually. [C., '97, § 987; 40 G. A., ch. 108, § 9.]

6928. Form of bonds. The bonds shall be substantially in the following form:

The city of....., in the state of Iowa, promises to pay, as hereinafter stated, to the bearer hereof, on the..... day of....., or at any time before that date, the sum of..... dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of..... per cent per annum, payable on the presentation and surrender of the interest coupons hereto attached. [C., '97, § 987; 40 G. A., ch. 108, § 9.]

6929. Duty to levy, collect, and apply. It shall be the duty of the city, its council and officers, to comply with the requirements of this chapter in the issuance of said bonds or certificates, and to assess and levy upon the property liable therefor the cost and expenses of such improvement or improvements, and to collect the same, and to apply the proceeds to the redemption of such bonds and certificates, and to no other purpose. [C., '97, § 987.]

6930. Trust fund—liability of city. Said bonds and certificates shall be payable only out of the fund derived from such assessment. The city shall not be obliged to appropriate money from any other fund to the payment of such bonds or certificates or any part of the same. [C., '97, § 987.]

6931. Sewer bonds and certificates. Chapter 311 is applicable to special charter cities in so far as the subject matter of said chapter is not specifically provided for in this chapter. [C., '97, §§ 978, 988, 990; 40 G. A., ch. 108, § 9; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 182, § 34.]

6932. Limitation of action. No action shall be brought, questioning the legality of any street improvement or sewer certificates or bonds, from and after three months from the time the issuance of such certificates or bonds is ordered by the proper authority. [C., '97, § 989.]

NOTE: Above section made applicable to cities under commission form of government by § 6567.

AMENDMENT OF CHARTER

6933. Procedure. On the presentation of a petition signed by one-fourth of the electors, as shown by the vote at the next preceding city election, of any city or town acting under a special charter or act of incorporation, to the governing body thereof, asking that the question of the amendment of such special charter or act of incorporation be submitted to the electors of such city, such governing body shall immediately propose sections amendatory of said charter or act of incorporation, and shall submit the same, as requested, at the first ensuing city or town election. At least ten days before such election the mayor of such city or town shall issue his proclamation setting forth the nature and character of such amendment, and shall cause such proclamation to be published in a newspaper published therein, or, if there be none, he shall cause the same to be posted in five public places in such city. On the day specified, the proposition to adopt the amendment shall be submitted to the electors thereof for adoption or rejection, in the manner provided by the general election laws. [R., '60, § 1141; C., '73, § 548; C., '97, § 1047.]

6934. Proclamation of result. If a majority of the votes cast be in favor of adopting said amendment, the mayor shall issue his proclamation accordingly; and the amendment shall thereafter constitute a part of said charter. [R., '60, § 1142; C., '73, § 549; C., '97, § 1048.]

6935. Submission at special election. The legislative body of said city may submit any amendment to the vote of the people as aforesaid at any special election, provided one-half of the electors as aforesaid petition for that purpose, and the proceedings shall be the same as at the general election. [R., '60, § 1143; C., '73, § 550; C., '97, § 1049.]

6937. Petition—election. Upon a petition of legal voters, equaling ten per cent of the number voting at the last preceding municipal election in any such city or town, to the council, praying that the question of abandoning its charter be submitted to the legal voters, the council shall immediately direct a special election to be held at which such question shall be decided, specifying at the same time the time and place of holding the same, and appointing the judges and clerks of the election. [C., '73, § 435; C., '97, § 632.]

6938. Notice. The mayor, or, in case there is no mayor, the president of the council, shall at once issue a proclamation giving notice of such election, of the question to be submitted to the electors, and of the time and place of holding the election, which proclamation shall be published, once each week, for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in such city or town, and, if there is none published therein, then such proclamation shall be published by posting a copy thereof in five public places within the corporate limits of such city or town, one of which shall be on the door of the mayor's office. [C., '73, § 436; C., '97, § 633; S., '13, § 633.]

6939. Submission—canvass. At such election the proposition to be submitted shall be: "Shall the proposition to abandon the special charter of (naming the city or town) be adopted?" and the proposition shall be printed and placed upon the ballots, and the election shall be conducted in the same manner, as provided with respect to like or similar propositions in the title on elections. The abstract of votes shall be returned to the council or board of trustees, who shall canvass the same and declare the result, which shall be entered on the journal. [C., '73, § 437; C., '97, § 634.]

6941. Delinquent taxes. In special charter cities or towns accepting the provisions of the general incorporation laws, all delinquent taxes remaining unpaid upon the tax books thereof, except such as were levied to pay indebtedness created to take stock or aid in the building of railways, shall be certified at the time, and collected and paid over as provided in the title relating to taxation. [C., '73, § 495; C., '97, § 636.]

6942. Rights and liabilities. All rights and property of every description which were vested in any such city or town under its former organization shall vest in the same under the organization herein contemplated, and no right or liability, either in favor of or against it, existing at the time, and no suit or prosecution of any kind, shall be affected by such change; but when a different remedy is given by this title, which can be made properly applicable to any right existing at the time such change is made, the same shall be cumulative to the remedies before provided, and may be used accordingly. [C., '73, § 439; C., '97, § 637.]

6943. Funds. When a special charter city or town shall abandon its charter the funds which it may then have on hand shall be transferred to the appropriate funds under its new organization in such proportions as the council shall determine. [40 G. A., ch. 142, § 1.]

TAXATION

CHAPTER 330

PROPERTY EXEMPT AND TAXABLE

- 6944. Exemptions.
- 6945. Road not assessable.
- 6946. Military service—exemptions.

A., ch. 151, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 1.]

6946. Military service — exemptions. The following exemptions from taxation shall be allowed:

1. The property, not to exceed three thousand dollars in actual value, and poll tax of any honorably discharged union soldier, sailor, or marine of the Mexican war or the war of the rebellion.

2. The property, not to exceed eighteen hundred dollars in actual value, and poll tax of any honorably discharged soldier, sailor, or marine of the war with Spain, Chinese relief expedition or the Philippine insurrection.

3. The property, not to exceed five hundred dollars in actual value, of any honorably discharged soldier, sailor, marine, or nurse of the war with Germany.

4. The property, to the same extent, of the wife of any such soldier, sailor, or marine, where they are living together, and he has not otherwise received the benefits above provided.

5. The property, to the same extent, of the widow remaining unmarried and of the minor child or children of any such deceased soldier, sailor, or marine. [S., '13, § 4482; 37 G. A., ch. 191, § 1; 38 G. A., chs. 214, 377; 39 G. A., ch. 144, §§ 1-6; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 2.]

6947. Reduction—limitation. All persons named in the preceding section shall receive a reduction equal to their exemption, to be made from the homestead, if any; otherwise from other property owned by said persons. Such exemption shall extend only to the period during which such persons remain the owners of such property. [37 G. A., ch. 191, § 1; 38 G.

6950. Petition for exemption. Whenever a person, by reason of age or infirmity, is unable to contribute to the public revenue, such person may file a petition, duly sworn to, with the board of supervisors, stating such fact and giving a statement of property, real and personal, owned or possessed by such applicant, and such other information as the board may require. The board of supervisors may thereupon order the county treasurer to suspend the collection of the taxes assessed against such petitioner, his polls or estate, or both, for the current year, or such board may cancel and remit said taxes, provided, however, that such petition shall first have been approved by the council of the city or town in which the property of the petitioner is located, or by the township trustees of the township in which said property is located. [C., '51, § 455; R., '60, § 711; C., '73, § 797; C., '97, § 1304; S. S., '15, § 1304; 39 G. A., ch. 281, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 1.]

6951. Additional order. The board of supervisors may, if in their judgment it is for the best interests of the public and the petitioner, cancel and remit the taxes assessed against the petitioner, his polls or estate or both, even though said taxes have previously been suspended as provided in the preceding section. [C., '51, § 455; R., '60, § 711; C., '73, § 797; C., '97, § 1304; S. S., '15, § 1304; 39 G. A., ch. 281, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 1.]

6952. Grantee or devisee to pay tax. In the event that the petitioner shall sell any real estate upon which the tax has been suspended in the manner above provided, or in case any property, or any part thereof, upon which said tax has been suspended, shall pass by devise, bequest, or inheritance to any person other than the surviving spouse or minor child of such infirm person, the taxes, without any accrued penalty, that have been thus suspended shall all become due and payable, with six per cent interest per annum from the date of such suspension, and shall be enforceable against the property or part thereof which does not pass to such spouse or minor child. [39 G. A., ch. 281, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 1.]

6953. What taxable. All other property, real or personal, is subject to taxation in the manner prescribed, and this section is also intended to embrace:

1. Ferry franchises and toll bridges, which, for the purpose of this chapter are considered real property.

2. Horses, cattle, mules and asses over one year of age.

3. Sheep and swine over six months of age.

4. Money whether in possession or on deposit.

5. Credits, including bank bills, government currency, property or labor due from solvent debtors on contract or judgment, mortgages or other like securities, accounts bearing interest.

6. Property situated in this state belonging to any bank or company, incorporated or otherwise, whether incorporated in this or any other state.

7. Corporation shares or stocks not otherwise assessed or excepted.

8. Public or municipal bonds, stocks or loans, except as otherwise provided.

9. Household furniture, beds and bedding made use of in hotels and boarding houses and not hereinbefore exempted.

10. Gold and silver plate, watches, jewelry, and musical instruments.

11. Every description of vehicle, including bicycles, except as otherwise provided.

12. Threshing machines.

13. Boats and vessels of every description, wherever registered or licensed, and whether navigating the waters of the state or not, if owned either wholly or in part by inhabitants of this state, to the amount owned in this state. [C., '51, § 456; R., '60, § 712; C., '73, § 801; C., '97, § 1308.]

LISTING IN GENERAL

6956. Listing—by whom.
 6957. Listing property of another.

 6969. Stipulation for payment.
6970. Partners.
 6971. "Merchants" defined.
 6972. Stocks of merchandise.
 6973. Warehousemen to file list.
 6974. Warehouseman deemed owner.
 6975. "Manufacturer" defined—duty to list.
 6976. Assessment—how made.
 6977. Machinery deemed real estate.
 6978. Manufacturer to list.
 6979. Public utility plants.
 6980. Property in different districts.
 6981. Personal property.
 6982. Capital stock listed and assessed.
 6983. Real estate of corporations.

6956. Listing—by whom. Every inhabitant of this state, of full age and sound mind, shall list for the assessor all property subject to taxation in the state, of which he is the owner, or has the control or management, in the manner herein directed:

1. The property of one under disability, by the person having charge thereof.

2. The property of a married woman, by herself or husband.

3. The property of a beneficiary for whom the property is held in trust, by the trustee.

4. The personal property of a decedent, by the executor or administrator, or if there is none, by any person interested therein.

5. The property of a body corporate, company, society or partnership, by its principal accountant, officer, agent or partner, as the assessor may demand.

6. Property under mortgage or lease is to be listed by and taxed to the mortgagor or lessor, unless listed by the mortgagee or lessee. [C., '51, § 458; R., '60, § 714; C., '73, § 803; C., '97, § 1312; S., '13, § 1312.]

6957. Listing property of another. Any person required to list property belonging to another shall list it in the same county in which he would be required to list it if it were his own, except as herein otherwise directed; but he shall list it separately from his own, giving the assessor the name of the person or estate to which it belongs. [C., '51, § 461; R., '60, § 716; C., '73, § 805; C., '97, § 1316.]

6958. Agent personally liable. Any person acting as the agent of another, and having in his possession or under his control or management any money, notes, and credits, or personal property belonging to such other person, with a view to investing or loaning or in any other manner using or holding the same for pecuniary profit, for himself or the owner, shall be required to list the same at the real value, and such agent shall be personally liable for the tax on the same; and if he refuse to render the list or to swear to the same, the amount of such money, property, notes, or credits may be listed and valued according to the best knowledge and judgment of the assessor. [R., '60, § 725; C., '73, § 817; C., '97, § 1320.]

6959. Personal property — real estate — buildings. Property shall be taxed each year, and personal property shall be listed and assessed each year in the name of the owner thereof on the first day of January. Real estate shall be listed and valued in each odd-numbered year, and in each year in which real estate is not regularly assessed, the assessor shall list and assess any real property not included in the previous assessment, and also any buildings erected since the previous assessment, with a minute of the tract or lot of land whereon the same are situated, and the auditor shall thereupon enter the taxable value of such buildings on the tax list as a part of the real estate to be taxed; but if such buildings are erected by another than the owner of the real estate, they shall be listed and assessed to the owner as personal property, but buildings and fixtures erected on real estate held under a lease of longer than three years' duration shall be assessed as real estate. [C., '51, §§ 460, 465; R., '60, §§ 719, 720; C., '73, § 812; C., '97, § 1350; 40 G. A., ch. 146, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 6.]

6960. Unknown owners. When the name of the owner of any real estate is unknown, it shall be assessed without connecting therewith any name, but inscribing at the head of the page the words "owners unknown", and such property, whether lands or town lots, shall be listed as nearly as practicable in the order of the numbers thereof. [R., '60, § 737; C., '73, § 826; C., '97, § 1353.]

6962. Description of tracts—manner. No one description shall comprise more than one town lot, or more than the sixteenth part of a section or other smallest subdivision of the land according to the government surveys, except in cases where the boundaries are so irregular that it can not be described in the usual manner in accordance therewith. [C., '97, § 1353.]

6963. Place of listing. Moneys and credits, notes, bills, bonds, and corporate shares or stocks not otherwise assessed, shall be listed and assessed where the owner lives, except as otherwise provided, and except that, if personal property not consisting of moneys, credits, corporation or other shares of stock, or bonds, has been kept in another assessment district during the greater part of the year preceding the first of January, or of the portion of that period during which it was owned by the person subject to taxation therefor, it shall be taxed where it has been so kept. [C., '97, § 1313.]

6965. Grain, ice, and coal dealers. Each grain, ice, or coal dealer shall be assessed upon the average amount of capital used by him in conducting his business. In estimating the amount of capital so used, there shall be taken into consideration the increase and decrease of the value of grain held in store, and upon the value of his warehouses, ice houses, granaries, or cribs situated upon lands leased from railway companies or other persons, and upon the value, if any, of such leasehold interest. [C., '97, § 1315.]

6966. Business in different districts. When a person, firm, or corporation is doing business in more than one assessment district, the property and credits existing in any one of such districts, or arising from business done in such district, shall be listed and taxed in that district, and the credits not existing in or pertaining especially to the business in any district shall be listed and taxed in that district where the principal place of business may be. [C., '51, § 463; R., '60, § 717; C., '73, § 806; C., '97, § 1317.]

6967. Branch banks. The personalty, moneys and credits connected with or growing out of all business transacted directly or indirectly by or through the servants, employees or agents of any person, firm or corporation engaged in the banking business, having an office or agency in more than one assessment district for the transaction of business, shall be taxable as provided in chapter 333, for the taxing of private banks and bankers, in the assessment district where said branch business is done. [C., '97, § 1317.]

6968. How assessment made. An assessment made in such district shall be considered and proper deduction made in determining the taxable property of such person or firm, or shares of stock of such corporation, at its principal place of business. [C., '97, § 1317.]

6969. Stipulation for payment. The stipulation for the payment of obligations growing out of the business of such agency, in another district than the place where such agency is located, shall not determine where the property or credits of such parties shall be taxed. [C., '97, § 1317.]

6971. "Merchants" defined. Any person, firm, or corporation owning or having in his possession or under his control within the state, with authority to sell the same, any personal property purchased with a view to its being sold, or which has been consigned to him from any place out of this state to be sold within the same, or to be delivered or shipped by him within or without this state, except a warehouseman as defined in section 9718, shall be held to be a merchant for the purposes of this title. [C., '51, § 468; R., '60, § 723; C., '73, § 815; C., '97, § 1318; 40 G. A., ch. 147, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 7.]

6972. Stocks of merchandise. In assessing such stocks of merchandise, the assessor shall require the production of the last inventory and enter the date thereof in the assessment roll. If, in the judgment of the assessor, the inventory is not correct, or if it was taken at such time as to render it unreliable as to the amount or value of such merchandise, he shall assess the same by personal examination. The assessment shall be made at the average value of the stock during the year next preceding the time of assessment, and if the merchant has not been engaged in business for one year, then the average value during such time as he shall have been so engaged, and if commencing on January first, then the value at that time. [C., '51, § 468; R., '60, § 723; C., '73, § 815; C., '97, § 1318; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 8.]

6974. Warehouseman deemed owner. If said warehouseman fails to furnish such statement all property in the possession of the warehouseman belonging to another subject to taxation, shall be deemed to be owned by the warehouseman for the purpose of taxation, and he shall be liable for taxes thereon. [40 G. A., ch. 147, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 7-a.1.]

6975. "Manufacturer" defined—duty to list. Any person, firm, or corporation who purchases, receives, or holds personal property of any description for the purpose of adding to the value thereof by any process of manufacturing, refining, purifying, combining of different materials, or by the packing of meats, with a view to selling the same for gain or profit, shall be deemed a manufacturer for the purposes of this title, and shall list such property for taxation. [C., '51, § 469; R., '60, § 724; C., '73, § 816; C., '97, § 1319; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 9.]

6976. Assessment—how made. Such personal property, whether in a finished or unfinished state, shall be assessed at its average value estimated upon those materials only which enter into the combination, manufacture, or pack, such average to be ascertained as in section 6972. [C., '51, § 469; R., '60, § 724; C., '73, § 816; C., '97, § 1319; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 9.]

6977. Machinery deemed real estate. Machinery used in manufacturing establishments shall, for the purpose of taxation, be regarded as real estate. [C., '97, § 1319; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 9.]

6978. Manufacturer to list. Corporations organized under the laws of this state for pecuniary profit and engaged in manufacturing as defined in the third preceding section shall list their real estate, personal property not hereinbefore mentioned, and moneys and credits in the same manner as is required of individuals. [C., '97, § 1319; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 9.]

6980. Property in different districts. Where any such property except the capital stock is situated partly within and partly without the limits of a city or town, such portions of the said plant shall be assessed separately, and the portion within the said city or town shall be assessed as above provided, and the portion without the said city or town shall be assessed in the district or districts in which it is located. [C., '97, § 1343.]

6981. Personal property. All the personal property of such individuals and corporations used or purchased by them for the purposes of such gas or waterworks, electric light plants, electric or cable railways, elevated street railways or street railways operated by animal power, including the rolling stock of such railways and street railways, and the animals belonging to such street railways operated by animal power, shall be listed and assessed in the assessment district where usually housed or kept. [C., '97, § 1343.]

6982. Capital stock listed and assessed. The actual value of the capital stock over and above that of the above listed property shall be listed and assessed as prescribed in sections 7008 and 7009. [C., '97, § 1343.]

6983. Real estate of corporations. All real estate owned by corporations, returned in their statements as part of their assets for purposes of taxation, shall be valued therein for such assessment as other real estate, except as otherwise provided, and shall not be otherwise assessed. [C., '97, § 1327.]

MONEYS AND CREDITS

6984. "Credits" defined.
 6985. Moneys—credits—annuities—bank notes—stock.
 6986. Levy—division of money collected.
 6987. Bonus bond levy.
 6988. Deduction of debts.
 6989. Good faith debt required.
 6990. Suretyship.
6991. Debts not deductible.
 6992. Stock and "moneyed" capital denied deduction.
 6993. Deductions to fiduciary.
 6994. Loan corporations.
 6995. Examinations—expense.
 6996. Millage tax.

6984. "Credits" defined. The term credit, as used in this chapter, includes every claim or demand due or to become due for money, labor, or other valuable thing, every annuity or sum of money receivable at stated periods, and all money or property of any kind secured by deed, title bond, mortgage, or otherwise; but pensions of the United States or any of them, or salaries, or payments expected for services to be rendered, are not included in the above term. [C., '51, § 457; R., '60, § 713; C., '73, § 802; C., '97, § 1309.]

6985. Moneys — credits — annuities — bank notes — stock. Moneys, credits, and corporation shares or stocks, except as otherwise provided, cash, circulating notes of national banking associations, and United States legal tender notes, and other notes, and certificates of the United States payable on demand, and circulating or intended to circulate as currency, notes, including those secured by mortgage, accounts, contracts for cash or labor, bills of exchange, judgments, choses in action, liens of any kind, securities, debentures, bonds other than those of the United States, annuities, and corporation shares or stocks not otherwise taxed in kind, shall be assessed and, excepting shares of stock of national, state, and savings banks, and loan and trust companies, and moneyed capital as hereinafter defined, shall be taxed upon the uniform basis throughout the state of five mills on the dollar of actual valuation, same to be assessed and collected where the owner resides. [C., '51, § 466; R., '60, § 721; C., '73, § 813; C., '97, § 1310; S., '13, § 1310.]

6986. Levy — division of money collected. The millage tax provided for in the preceding section shall be in lieu of all other taxes upon moneys and credits and shall be levied by the board of supervisors, placed upon the tax list and collected by the county treasurer, and the amount collected in the various taxing districts of the state shall be divided between the various funds upon the same pro rata basis as other taxes collected in such taxing district are apportioned. [S., '13, § 1310.]

6987. Bonus bond levy. Until the soldiers' bonus bonds are retired and paid, there shall be levied and collected upon all property taxed at five mills on the dollar of actual valuation as provided in the second preceding section an additional tax of one mill on the dollar of actual valuation. Said tax shall be remitted to the treasurer of state and applied to the payment of the principal and interest of the soldiers' bonus bonds. In determining the annual levy for the payment of the principal and interest on such bonds, the executive council shall take into consideration the funds to be derived from said tax. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 10-a.]

6988. Deduction of debts. In making up the amount of money or credits which any person is required to list, or to have listed or assessed, including actual value of any building and loan shares, he will be entitled to deduct from the actual value thereof the gross amount of all debts in good faith owing by him. [C., '51, § 467; R., '60, § 722; C., '73, § 814; C., '97, § 1311; S., '13, § 1311.]

6990. Suretyship. So much only of any liability of such person as security for another shall be deducted as he believes he will be compelled to pay on account of the inability of the principal debtor, and if there are other sureties able to contribute, then so much only as he in whose name the list is made will be bound to contribute. [C., '51, § 467; R., '60, § 722; C., '73, § 814; C., '97, § 1311; S., '13, § 1311.]

6991. Debts not deductible. No person will be entitled to any deduction on account of:

1. Any deposit or security note given in aid of the organization of a mutual insurance company for the premiums of insurance.

2. Any unpaid subscription to any institution, society, corporation or company.

3. Any indebtedness contracted for the purchase of United States bonds or other nontaxable property. [C., '51, § 467; R., '60, § 722; C., '73, § 814; C., '97, § 1311; S., '13, § 1311.]

6992. Stock and "moneyed" capital denied deduction. No deduction for debts shall be allowed from the shares of stock of any state, savings or national bank or loan and trust company, nor from moneyed capital used in competition with banks, within the meaning of section 5219 of the revised statutes of the United States. [S., '13, § 1311.]

6993. Deductions to fiduciary. In listing moneys and credits as provided in this chapter, any administrator, executor, trustee or agent shall be entitled to deductions, as prescribed in the five preceding sections, of debts owing by the legatee, devisee, beneficiary or principal to the same extent as such fund might be reduced if it were held by such legatee, devisee, beneficiary or principal who may be entitled to the income on such trust or fiduciary fund. [S., '13, § 1312.]

6994. Loan corporations. Any domestic corporation engaged in the business of loaning money to deserving persons whose business or circumstances are such as to make it desirable or convenient for them to accumulate funds with which to repay such loans by paying into a fund comparatively small amounts at frequent regular intervals, which fund may be held by such corporation as collateral security for the payment of such loans, may take advantage of the provisions of this and the two following sections on or before January fifteenth of each year by filing with the auditor of state of the state of Iowa a verified report and statement of its financial condition, and showing the following items:

1. Its total capital stock paid in.
2. Its net surplus and undivided profits.
3. The total amount of loans outstanding.
4. The highest rate of interest charged and collected on loans made by it.
5. Whether its loans have been made to deserving persons whose business or circumstances are such as to make it desirable or convenient for them to accumulate funds with which to repay such loans by paying into a fund comparatively small amounts at frequent regular intervals.
6. Such further information in detail as the auditor of state shall from time to time require. [38 G. A., ch. 151, § 1.]

6996. Millage tax. If the auditor of state finds from such report or said examination, or both, that such corporation has honestly and in good faith so conducted its business as to aid deserving persons in the manner provided in the second preceding section, and that the corporation has not collected a usurious rate of interest from borrowers on loans, he shall issue to said corporation a certificate to that effect which shall entitle the corporation to be assessed on the net actual value of its moneys and credits at the rate of five mills on the dollar, which taxation shall be in lieu of all other taxes on its moneys and credits. [38 G. A., ch. 151, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 10.]

7007. In special charter cities.

6997. Private banks. Private banks or bankers, or any persons other than corporations hereinafter specified, a part of whose business is the receiving of deposits subject to check, on certificates, receipts, or otherwise, or the selling of exchange, shall prepare and furnish to the assessor a sworn statement showing the assets, aside from real estate, and liabilities of such bank or banker on January first of the current year, as follows:

1. The amount of moneys, specifying separately the amount of moneys on hand or in transit, the funds in the hands of other banks, bankers, brokers, or other persons or corporations, and the amount of checks or other cash items not included in either of the preceding items.

2. The actual value of credits, consisting of bills receivable owned by them, and other credits due or to become due.

3. The amount of all deposits made with them by others, and also the amount of bills payable.

4. The actual value of bonds and stocks of every kind and shares of capital stock or joint stock of other corporations or companies held as an investment, or in any way representing assets, and the specific kinds and description thereof exempt from taxation.

5. All other property pertaining to said business, including real estate, which shall be specially listed and valued by the usual description thereof.

The aggregate actual value of moneys and credits less the amount of deposits, the aggregate actual value of bonds and stocks less the portion thereof otherwise taxed in this state, and other property, except real estate, pertaining to the business, shall be assessed and taxed on the same basis as bank stock. Real estate shall be listed and assessed as other real estate. [C., '51, §§ 460, 465; R., '60, §§ 719, 720; C., '73, § 812; C., '97, § 1321; S., '13, § 1321; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 11.]

6998. National and state bank stock—place of assessment. Shares of stock of national banks and state and savings banks and loan and trust companies, located in this state, shall be assessed to the individual stockholders at the place where the bank or loan and trust company is located. [R., '60, § 719; C., '73, § 812; C., '97, § 1322; S., '13, § 1322; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 12.]

6999. List of stockholders and their holdings. At the time the assessment is made the officers of national banks and state and savings banks and loan and trust companies shall furnish the assessor with lists of all the stockholders and the number of shares owned by each. [R., '60, § 714; C., '73, § 819; C., '97, § 1322; S., '13, § 1322; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 12.]

7000. Listing to stockholders. The assessor shall list to each stockholder under the head of corporation stock the total value of such shares. [C., '97, § 1322; S., '13, § 1322; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 12.]

7001. Statement furnished. To aid the assessor in fixing the value of such shares, the said corporation shall furnish him a verified statement of all the matter provided in section 6997, which shall also show separately the amount of the capital stock and the surplus and undivided earnings. [C., '97, § 1322; S., '13, § 1322; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 12.]

7002. Deductions on account of real estate. In arriving at the total value of the shares of stock of such corporations, the amount of their capital actually invested in real estate owned by them and in the shares of stock of corporations owning only the real estate (inclusive of leasehold interests, if any,) on or in which the bank or trust company is located, shall be deducted from the real value of such shares, and such real estate shall be assessed as other real estate, and the property of such corporation shall not be otherwise assessed. [C., '97, § 1322; S., '13, § 1322; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 13.]

7003. Rule of actual and taxable value. The assessor from such statement shall fix the value of such stock based upon the capital, surplus, and undivided earnings, at the same ratio of assessed value to actual value as the assessed value of real estate in the taxing district where such bank is located generally bears to its actual value.

The taxable value of such shares of stock shall be one-fourth of the assessed value and shall be taxed as other property of such taxing district. [C., '73, §§ 818-820; C., '97, § 1322; S., '13 § 1322; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 12.]

7004. Refusal to furnish information. A refusal to furnish the assessor with the list of stockholders and the information required by sections 6999 and 7001 shall be deemed a misdemeanor and any bank or officer thereof so refusing shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars. [S., '13, § 1322; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 13.]

7005. "Moneyed" capital. All moneyed capital within the meaning of section 5219 of the revised statutes of the United States shall be listed and assessed against the owner thereof at his place of business, and if a corporation at its principal place of business, at the same rate as state, savings, national bank and loan and trust company stock is taxed, in the same taxing district, and at the actual value of the moneyed capital so invested. [S., '13, § 1310.]

7006. Listing. The person or corporation using moneyed capital in competition with bank capital shall furnish the assessor upon demand a full and complete itemized sworn statement showing the amount of moneyed capital so used. [S., '13, § 1310.]

7007. In special charter cities. The provisions of sections 6944, 6946 to 6952, inclusive, 6959, 6971 to 6978, inclusive, 6987, 6996, 6997 to 7004, inclusive, 7008, 7009, 7086, 7087, 7089, 7091, 7102, 7109, 7144 to 7146, inclusive, 7161, 7163 to 7167, inclusive, and 7279 to 7283, inclusive, so far as applicable, shall apply to cities acting under special charters. [S., '13, § 1322-3a; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 329, § 2.]

CORPORATION STOCK

- 7008. Shares of stock.
- 7009. Statement to assessor.
- 7010. Valuation of stock.
- 7011. Refusal to make statement.
- 7012. Deducting real estate.
- 7013. Corporation liable.
- 7014. Recovery from stockholder.

- 7015. Building and loan associations—where stock taxed.
- 7016. Funds and real estate—where taxed.
- 7017. Statement of property.
- 7018. Foreign company—statement required—duty of auditor of state.
- 7019. County auditor—duty.
- 7020. Stock classed as moneys and credits.

7008. Shares of stock. The shares of stock of any corporation organized under the laws of this state, except corporations otherwise provided for in chapters 331 to 341, inclusive, and except as provided in section 7102, shall be assessed to the owners thereof as moneys and credits at the place where its principal business is transacted. The assessment shall be on the value of such shares on the first day of January in each year. In arriving at the assessable value of the shares of stock of such corporations, the amount of their capital actually invested in property other than moneys and credits shall be deducted from the actual value of such shares. Such property other than moneys and credits shall be assessed as other like property. [C., '97, § 1323; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 16.]

7009. Statement to assessor. Every such corporation annually, on or before the twenty-fifth day of January, shall furnish to the assessor of the assessment district in which its principal place of business is located, a verified statement showing specifically, with reference to the year next preceding the first day of January then last past:

1. Total authorized capital stock and number of shares thereof.
2. Number of shares of stock issued and par value of each.
3. Amount paid into the treasury on each share and the total capital paid in.
4. Description of each tract of real estate owned by said corporation, and the amount of capital actually invested therein.
5. An itemized list of all other property owned by said corporation, except moneys and credits, together with the location thereof, and the amount of capital actually invested therein.
6. Date, rate per cent, and amount of each dividend declared, and the amount of capital on which each such dividend was declared.
7. Gross and net earnings, respectively, during the year, and amount of surplus.
8. Amount of profit added to sinking fund.
9. Highest price of sales of stock between the first and tenth days of January of the current year.

10. Highest price of sales of stock during the preceding year, and average price of such sales. [C., '97, § 1323; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 17.]

7010. Valuation of stock. If the assessor is not satisfied with the appraisement and valuation furnished as provided in the two preceding sections, he may make a valuation of the shares of stock based upon the facts contained in the statements above required, or upon any information within his possession, or that shall come to him, and shall, in either case, assess to the owners the stock at the valuation made by him. [C., '97, § 1324.]

7011. Refusal to make statement. If the officers of any corporation refuse or neglect to make the statement required, the assessor shall make a valuation of the capital stock of the defaulting corporation from the best information obtainable. [C., '97, § 1324.]

7012. Deducting real estate. In deducting, under the provisions of this chapter, the value of real estate from the actual value of the properties, shares or capital stock of any person, firm, association or corporation, the actual value at which said real estate is valued by the assessor or other taxing officer or body where the same is assessed shall be the value thereof. [C., '97, § 1324.]

7013. Corporation liable. The corporations described in the preceding sections of this chapter shall be liable for the payment of the taxes assessed to the stockholders of such corporations, and such tax shall be payable by the corporation in the same manner and under the same penalties as in case of taxes due from an individual taxpayer, and may be collected in the same manner as other taxes, or by action in the name of the county. [C., '97, § 1325.]

7014. Recovery from stockholder. Such corporations may recover from each stockholder his proportion of the taxes so paid, and shall have a lien on his stock and unpaid dividends therefor. If the unpaid dividends are not sufficient to pay such tax, the corporation may enforce such lien on the stock by public sale of the same, to be made by the sheriff at the principal office of such corporation in this state, after giving the stockholders thirty days' notice of the amount of such tax and the time and place of sale, such notices to be by registered letter addressed to the stockholder at his postoffice address, as the same appears upon the books of the company, or is known by its secretary. [C., '97, § 1325.]

7015. Building and loan associations—where stock taxed. The shares of stock of mutual building and loan, or savings and loan associations, exclusively engaged in such business, shall be assessed and taxed to the individual holders thereof at their place of residence. [C., '97, § 1326; S., '13, § 1326.]

7016. Funds and real estate—where taxed. When such association owns real estate, or maintains a reserve, expense or other fund, or its equivalent, the real estate and the total amount of such fund or funds shall be subject to taxation at the principal place of business of the association and shall be assessed against the association as real estate or other personal property, the tax of same to be paid by the association. [C., '97, § 1326; S., '13, § 1326.]

7017. Statement of property. Every domestic and domestic local building and loan, or savings and loan association, on or before the thirty-first day of January of each year, shall furnish to the assessor of the assessment district in which its principal place of business is located a verified statement, showing specifically, with reference to the year preceding the first day of January last past, the total amount of their reserve, expense or other fund, or its equivalent, and the description and value of each tract of real estate owned by such association. [C., '97, § 1326; S., '13, § 1326.]

7018. Foreign company—statement required—duty of auditor of state. The auditor of state shall, on or before the tenth day of February of each year, send to the county auditor of each county a statement of the name and postoffice address of each stockholder of a foreign building and loan, or savings and loan association residing in their respective counties, together with the number of shares owned by each person on the first day of January preceding, and the actual value of each share of stock on said first day of January, which facts shall be reported to him by such associations under the law governing building and loan, or savings and loan associations. [C., '97, § 1326; S., '13, § 1326.]

INSURANCE COMPANIES

7021. Alien companies—tax on gross premiums.
7022. Foreign companies—tax on gross premiums.
7023. Receipts—certificate of authority.
7024. Deduction for debts.
7025. Domestic companies—tax on gross premiums.

7026. Domestic companies—shares of stock.
7027. Personal and real property.
7028. Assessment.
7029. Moneys and credits.
7030. Debts deductible.

7021. Alien companies—tax on gross premiums. Every insurance company or association organized or incorporated under the laws of any state or nation other than the United States, and every other insurance company whose charter may be owned or a majority of whose stock may be controlled or whose business shall be carried on in the interest or for the benefit of any insurance company or association incorporated under the laws of any state or nation other than the United States, shall, at the time of making the annual statements as required by law, pay into the state treasury as taxes two and one-half per cent of the gross amount of premiums received by it or its agents, in cash, promissory obligation, or other form of settlement for business done in this state, including all insurance upon property situated in this state and upon the lives of persons resident in this state during the preceding year. [C., '51, § 464; R., '60, § 718; C., '73, § 807; C., '97, § 1333; S., '13, § 1333.]

7022. Foreign companies—tax on gross premiums. Every insurance company incorporated under the laws of any state of the United States other than the state of Iowa, not including associations operating under the provisions of chapter 400, or fraternal beneficiary associations doing business in the United States, shall, at the time of making the annual statements as required by law, pay into the state treasury as taxes two and one-half per cent of the gross amount of premiums received by it for business done in this state, including all insurance upon property situated in this state and upon the lives of persons resident in this state during the preceding year. [C., '51, § 464; R., '60, § 718; C., '97, § 1333; S., '13, § 1333.]

7023. Receipts—certificate of authority. At the time of paying said taxes, said companies and associations shall take duplicate receipts therefor, one of which shall be filed with the commissioner of insurance, and upon filing of said receipt, and not till then, the commissioner of insurance shall issue the annual certificate as provided by law. [C., '73, § 807; C., '97, § 1333; S., '13, § 1333.]

7024. Deduction for debts. No deduction or exemption from the taxes herein provided shall be allowed for or on account of any indebtedness owing by any such insurance company or association; provided, however, that companies doing a fire insurance business may deduct from the gross amount of premiums received, the amount of premiums returned upon canceled policies issued upon property situated in this state. [C., '97, § 1333; S., '13, § 1333.]

7025. Domestic companies—tax on gross premiums. Every insurance corporation or association of whatever kind or character, organized under the laws of the state of Iowa, not including county mutuals or fraternal beneficiary associations, which county mutuals and fraternal beneficiary associations are not organized for pecuniary profit, shall, on or before the first day of March of each year, pay to the treasurer of state a sum equivalent to one per cent of the gross receipts from premiums, assessments, fees, and promissory obligations required by insurance contracts which are received during the next year preceding the first day of January last past, after deducting the amounts actually paid for losses, matured endowments, dividends to policy holders, and the increase in the amount of the reserve as certified by the department actuary in his official statement to the commissioner of insurance on the thirty-first day of December previous, based on the actuaries' table of mortality and four per cent, and the amounts returned to members upon canceled policies, certificates, and rejected applications, during said year, and not until such payment shall the commissioner of insurance issue the annual certificate, as provided by law; provided that insurance companies organized under the provisions of chapter 404 shall only be required to pay to the treasurer of state a sum equivalent to one per cent of the gross receipts from premiums, assessments, fees, and promissory obligations for business done within this state, including all insurance upon property situated in the state, after deducting the amount actually paid for losses on property located within the state, or on claims arising within the state, and the amount returned upon canceled poli-

7027. Personal and real property. Every insurance corporation or association organized under the laws of this state, not including corporations with capital stock, county mutuals, and fraternal beneficiary associations, which county mutuals and fraternal beneficiary associations are not organized for pecuniary profit, shall, on or before the twenty-sixth day of January in each year, for the purpose of assessment of its property, furnish to the assessor of the assessment district in which its principal place of business is located, a statement verified by its president, showing specifically with reference to the year next preceding the first day of January then last past:

1. A duplicate of the statement required by law to be made to the commissioner of insurance for the said year last past.

2. A detailed statement of all its property and assets of every kind and nature whatsoever, and the value of each item thereof, including surplus, guaranty, and reserve fund, and the amount of each. [S., '13, § 1333-b.]

7028. Assessment. It shall be the duty of the assessor, upon the receipt of said statements, and from other information acquired by him, to assess against every corporation or association referred to in the preceding section, the value of all personal property owned by such corporation or association, together with the actual value of each parcel or real estate situated in the assessment district of such assessor, and all the said property shall be assessed at the same rate, and for the same purposes as the property of private individuals, as provided in section 7109. [S., '13, § 1333-b.]

7029. Moneys and credits. In assessing for taxation the moneys and credits of every insurance corporation, company, or association organized under the laws of this state, except county mutuals and fraternal beneficiary associations, which county mutuals and fraternal beneficiary associations are not organized for pecuniary profit, the assessor shall ascertain the debts or liabilities, if any, of such corporation, company, or association to its shareholders or other persons, which debts and liabilities shall be deducted, as provided in sections 6988 to 6992, inclusive. [S., '13, § 1333-c.]

7030. Debts deductible. In ascertaining the indebtedness or liability of such corporation, company or association, a debt shall be deemed to exist on account of its liability on the policies, certificates or other contracts of insurance issued by it equal to the amount of the surplus or other funds accumulated by any such corporation or association for the purpose of fulfilling its policies, certificates or other contracts of insurance, and which can be used for no other purpose. [S., '13, § 1333-c; 37 G. A., ch. 258, § 1.]

TELEGRAPH AND TELEPHONE COMPANIES

- 7031. Statement required.
- 7032. Additional statement.
- 7033. Failure to make statement.
- 7034. Assessment.
- 7035. Actual value per mile.
- 7036. Taxable value.
- 7037. Hearing.
- 7038. Assessment in each county—how certified.

- 7039. Entry of certificate.
- 7040. Rates of taxation—collection.
- 7041. Other real and personal property.
- 7042. "Company" defined.
- 7043. Line operated by railroad.
- 7044. Maps required.
- 7045. Failure to file.

7031. Statement required. Every telegraph and telephone company operating a line in this state shall, on or before the first day of May in each year, furnish to the executive council a statement verified by its president or secretary showing:

1. The total number of miles owned, operated, or leased within the state, with a separate showing of the number leased.

2. The average number of poles per mile, and the whole number of poles on its lines in this state.

3. The total number of miles in each separate line or division thereof, also the average number of separate wires thereon.

4. The whole number of stations on each line, and the value of the same, including furniture.

5. The whole number of instruments on each separate line, and the gross rental charges per instrument, where the same are rented to patrons of the company making the return, together with the number of stations maintained, other than railroad stations.

6. The gross receipts and operating expenses of said company for the year ending December thirty-first next preceding, on business originating and terminating in this state.

7. The gross receipts and operating expenses of said company for the year ending December thirty-first next preceding, and not included in the statement made under subsection six hereof.

8. The total capital stock of said company.

9. The number of shares of capital stock issued and outstanding, and the par or face value of each share.

10. The market value of such shares of stock on the first day of January next preceding, and if such shares have no market value, the actual value thereof.

11. All real estate and other property owned by such company and subject to local taxation within this state.

12. The specific real estate, together with the permanent improvements thereon, owned by such company and situated outside this state and taxed as other real estate in the state where located, with a specific description of each piece, where located, and the purpose for which the same is used, and the actual value thereof in the locality where situated.

13. All mortgages upon the whole or any part of its property, together with the dates and amounts thereof.

14. The total length of the lines of said company.

15. The total length of the lines of said company outside this state. [C., '97, § 1328; S., '13, § 1328.]

7032. Additional statement. Upon the receipt of said statements from the several companies, the executive council shall examine said statements and if it shall deem the same insufficient and that further information is requisite, it shall require the officer making same to make such other or further statement as it may desire. [C., '97, § 1329; S., '13, § 1329.]

7033. Failure to make statement. In case of failure or refusal of any company to make out or deliver to the executive council the statements required in the second preceding section, such company shall forfeit and pay to the state one hundred dollars for each day such report is delayed beyond the first day of May, to be sued and recovered in any proper form of action in the name of the state, and on the relation of the executive council, and such penalty, when collected, shall be paid into the general fund of the state. [C., '97, § 1329; S., '13, § 1329.]

ing into consideration the valuation of all property of such companies, including franchises and the use of the property in connection with lines outside the state, and making such deductions as may be necessary on account of extra value of property outside the state as compared with the value of property in the state, in order that the actual cash value of the property of the company within this state may be ascertained. Said assessment shall include all property of every kind and character whatsoever, real, personal, or mixed, used by said companies in the transaction of telegraph and telephone business; and the property so included in said assessment shall not be taxed in any other manner than as provided in this chapter and section 6944, subsection 20. [C., '97, § 1330; S., '13, § 1330.]

7035. Actual value per mile. The executive council shall ascertain the value per mile of the property of each of said companies within this state by dividing the total value, as above ascertained, by the number of miles of line of such company within the state, and the result shall be deemed and held to be the actual value per mile of line of the property of such company within this state. [S., '13, § 1330-a.]

7036. Taxable value. The taxable value shall be determined by taking the percentage of the actual value so ascertained, as provided by section 7109, and the ratio between the actual value and the assessed or taxable value of the property of each of said companies shall be the same as in the case of property of private individuals. [S., '13, § 1330-a.]

7037. Hearing. At such meeting in July any company interested shall have the right to appear, by its officers or agents, before the executive council and be heard on the question of the valuation of its property for taxation. [S., '13, § 1330-a.]

7039. Entry of certificate. At the first meeting of the board of supervisors held after such statement is received by the county auditor, it shall cause such statement to be entered in its minute book, and make and enter therein an order stating the length of the lines and the assessed value of the property of each of said companies situated in each city, town, township, or lesser taxing district in its county, as fixed by the executive council, which shall constitute the taxable value of said property for taxing purposes, and the taxes on said property when collected by the county treasurer shall be disposed of as other taxes on real estate. The county auditor shall transmit a copy of said order to the council or trustees of each city, town, or township in which the lines of said company extend. [S., '13, § 1330-c.]

7040. Rate of taxation—collection. All telegraph and telephone property shall be taxable upon said assessment at the same rates, by the same officers, and for the same purposes as the property of individuals within such counties, cities, towns, townships, or lesser taxing districts, and the county treasurer shall collect such taxes at the same time and in the same manner as other taxes, and the same penalties for the nonpayment shall be due and collectible as for the nonpayment of individual taxes. [S., '13, § 1330-d.]

7042. "Company" defined. The word "company" as used in this chapter and section 6944, subsection 20, shall be deemed and construed to mean and include any person, copartnership, association, corporation, or syndicate that shall own or operate, or be engaged in operating, any telegraph or telephone line, whether formed or organized under the laws of this state or elsewhere. [S., '13, § 1330-f.]

7043. Line operated by railroad. No telegraph line shall be assessed which is owned and operated by any railroad company exclusively for the transaction of its business, and which has been duly reported as such in its annual report under the laws providing for the taxation of railroad property. [C., '97, § 1332.]

the pole lines of such company is required under the terms of this section. A telephone or telegraph company whose line is situated upon the right of way of a railway may file, in lieu of the map required to be filed by the provisions of this section, a certificate setting forth along what lines of railway said company's telephone or telegraph line extends. On or before the first day of March, 1905, and annually thereafter, like maps, statements, or certificates shall be filed with the several county auditors of counties in which any part of said lines may have been extended, constructed, relocated, or taken down entirely, during the preceding calendar year, showing the correct location of all such new or relocated lines, and the location of any part abandoned or taken down, as the same existed on the thirty-first day of December preceding; provided county auditors of the several counties shall, upon application of any company owning or operating a telephone or telegraph line in their respective counties, furnish a map or maps accurately showing the boundaries of all taxing districts in said county, and the public highways located within such taxing districts. [S., '13, § 1400-a.]

7045. Failure to file. In the event of the failure or refusal of any telephone or telegraph company, owning or operating any telephone or telegraph line not situated upon the right of way of a railway, to file the map required under the provisions of the preceding section, at the time and according to the conditions named, then the county auditor may cause the same to be prepared by the county surveyor and the cost thereof shall, in the first place, be audited and paid by the board of supervisors of the county, out of the county fund, and the amount thereof shall be by said board levied as a special tax against said company and the property of said company, which shall be collected in the same manner as county taxes and become a part of the county fund. [S., '13, § 1400-b.]

- 7054. Net earnings.
- 7055. Reports additional.
- 7056. Additional rules and regulations.
- 7057. Refusal to obey.

- 7058. Operating expenses.
- 7059. Amended statement.
- 7060. Assessment of railways.
- 7061. Assessment of sleeping and dining cars.
- 7062. Certification to county auditors.
- 7063. Plats.
- 7064. Failure to file.
- 7065. Property assessed by local authorities.
- 7066. Roadbeds.
- 7067. Levy and collection of tax.
- 7068. Rates—purposes.

7046. When assessed—statement required. On the second Monday in July of each year, the executive council shall assess all the property of each railway corporation in the state, excepting the lands, lots, and other real estate belonging thereto not used in the operation of any railway, and excepting railway bridges across the Mississippi and Missouri rivers, and excepting grain elevators; and for the purpose of making such assessment its president, vice president, general manager, general superintendent, receiver, or such other officer as the council may designate, shall, on or before the first day of April in each year, furnish it a verified statement showing in detail for the year ended December thirty-first next preceding:

1. The whole number of miles of railway owned, operated, or leased by such corporation or company within and without the state.

2. The whole number of miles of railway owned, operated, or leased within the state, including double tracks and sidetracks, the mileage of the main line and branch lines to be stated separately, and showing the number of miles of track in each county.

3. A full and complete statement of the cost and actual present value of all buildings of every description owned by said railway company within the state not otherwise assessed.

4. The total number of ties per mile used on all its tracks within the state.

5. The weight of rails per yard in main line, double tracks and sidetracks.

6. The number of miles of telegraph lines owned and used within the state.

7. The total number of engines, and passenger, chair, dining, official, express, mail, baggage, freight, and other cars, including handcars and boarding cars used in constructing and repairing such railway, in use on its whole line, and the sleeping cars owned by it, and the number of each class on its line within the state, each class to be valued separately.

8. Any and all other movable property owned by said railway within the state, classified and scheduled in such manner as may be required by said council.

9. The gross earnings of the entire road, and the gross earnings in this state.

10. The operating expenses of the entire road, and the operating expenses within this state.

11. The net earnings of the entire road, and the net earnings within this state. [C., '73, §§ 810, 1317, 1318; C., '97, § 1334; S., '13, § 1334.]

7047. Real estate holdings—statement required. Each railway or other corporation required by law to report to the executive council under the provisions of the law as it appears in the preceding section shall, on or before the first day of April, 1905, make to the executive council a detailed statement showing the amount of real estate owned or used by it on December 31, 1904, for railway purposes, in each county in the state in which said real estate is situated, including the right of way, roadbed, bridges, culverts, depot grounds, station buildings, yards, section and tool houses, roundhouses, machine and repair shops, water tanks, turntables, gravel beds and stone quarries, and for all other purposes, with the estimated actual value thereof, in such manner as may be required by the executive council. [S., '13, § 1334-a.]

7048. Continuing record. Only one such detailed statement by any corporation shall be necessary, and when received by the council it shall become the record of railway lands of such corporation, and be deemed as annually thereafter reported for valuation and assessment by the executive council. [S., '13, § 1334-a.]

7049. Additional statements. On or before the first day of April of each subsequent year such corporation shall in like manner report all real estate acquired for any of the railway purposes above named during the preceding calendar year; and also a list of any real estate, previously reported, disposed of during the same period, which disposition shall be noted by the council in an appropriate column opposite to the description of said tract in the original report of the same in the record of railway land. [S., '13, § 1334-a.]

7050. Record of railway lands. The executive council shall, by some convenient method of binding, arrange the statements required to be made under the provision of the three preceding sections so as to form a consolidated list of all real estate reported to it as being owned or used for railway purposes within the state of Iowa, which list shall be known as the record of railway lands. [S., '13, § 1334-b.]

also the number of miles each month said cars have been run or operated on such railway within the state, and the total number of miles said cars have been run or operated each month within and without the state. Such statement shall show the average daily sleeping car and dining car service or wheelage operated on each part or division of the line or system within the state, designating the points on the line where variations occur, with the mileage of that part having the same daily service or wheelage. [C., '97, § 1340; S., '13, § 1340.]

7052. Gross earnings. For the purpose of making reports to the executive council, the gross earnings of railway companies, owning or operating a line or lines of railway partly within this state and partly within another state, or other states, or territory, or territories, upon their line or lines within this state, shall be ascertained and reported by said railway companies as follows, to wit: The aggregate of the earnings upon business originating and terminating within this state, upon business originating in this state and terminating elsewhere, upon business originating elsewhere and terminating in this state, and upon business neither originating nor terminating in this state but carried on or done over the line or lines in this state or over some part thereof, shall be reported; and with respect to all such interstate business the earnings in this state for the purpose of report shall be actually computed upon the basis of the length of haul or carriage in this state as compared with the length of haul or carriage elsewhere. It is hereby declared that for the purpose of making reports looking to the assessment of railway property for taxation, the gross earnings or business done or carried partly within this state and partly in another state, or other states, or territories, shall be that proportion of the entire earnings of such business that the haul or carriage in this state bears to the entire haul or carriage. [S., '13, § 1340-a.]

7053. Method of accounting. The executive council shall have the power to prescribe such rules and regulations with respect to the keeping of accounts by the railway companies doing business in this state as will insure the accurate division of earnings as aforesaid, and uniformity in reporting the same to the executive council. [S., '13, § 1340-b.]

7054. Net earnings. The executive council shall have the power to prescribe a method for all railway companies doing business in this state, together with the rules and regulations, for the ascertainment of the net earnings of the railway lines in this state, to the end that all such railway companies, in ascertaining and making report of net earnings, shall proceed upon the same basis and in a uniform manner. [S., '13, § 1340-c.]

7055. Reports additional. The reports provided for in the three preceding sections are not in lieu of, but in addition to, the reports provided for by law, and they shall be made at the time and as a part of the reports already required. [S., '13, § 1340-d.]

7056. Additional rules and regulations. The rules, regulations, method, and requirements herein provided to be made by the executive council shall be made and communicated in writing or print to the said several railway companies and shall be and become binding upon said railway companies from the time they are so communicated; provided, however, that the said executive council shall have the power to prescribe supplemental or additional rules, regulations, and requirements at any time, and communicate them to the several railway companies in the manner aforesaid, and with respect to such additional or supplemental rules, regulations, and requirements, they shall be and become binding upon the said railway companies within thirty days after they are so communicated. [S., '13, § 1340-e.]

7057. Refusal to obey. If any railway company shall fail or refuse to obey or conform to the rules, regulations, method, and requirements so made or prescribed by the executive council under the provisions of the five preceding sections, or to make the reports therein provided, the executive council shall proceed to assess the property of such railway company so failing or refusing, according to the best information obtainable, and shall then add to the taxable valuation of such railway company twenty-five per cent thereof, which valuation and penalty shall be separately shown, and together shall constitute the assessment for that year. [S., '13, § 1340-f.]

7058. Operating expenses. There shall not be included in said operating expenses any payments for interest or discount, or construction of new tracks except needed sidings, for raising or lowering tracks above or below crossings at grade in cities or towns, for new equipment except replacements, for reducing any bonded or permanent debt, nor for any other item of operating expenses not fairly and reasonably chargeable as such in railway accounts. [C., '97, § 1335.]

7059. Amended statement. The council may demand, in writing, detailed, explanatory and amended statements of any of the items mentioned in section 7046, or any other items deemed by it important, to be furnished it by such railway corporation within thirty days from such demand, in such form as it may designate, which shall be verified as required for the original statement. The returns, both original and amended, shall show such other facts as the council, in writing, shall require. [C., '73, § 1318; C., '97, § 1335.]

7060. Assessment of railways. The said property shall be valued at its actual value, and the assessments shall be made upon the taxable value of the entire railway within the state, except as otherwise provided, and shall include the right of way, roadbed, bridges, culverts, rolling stock, depots, station grounds, shops, buildings, gravel beds, and all other property, real and personal, exclusively used in the operation of such railway. In assessing said railway and its equipments, said council shall take into consideration the gross earnings per mile for the year ending January first, preceding, and any and all other matters necessary to enable said council to make a just and equitable assessment of said railway property. If a part of any railway is without this state, then, in estimating the value of its rolling stock and movable property, they shall take into consideration the proportion which the business of that part of the railway lying within the state bears to the business of the railway without this state. [C., '73, § 1319; C., '97, § 1336.]

7061. Assessment of sleeping and dining cars. The council shall, at the time of the assessment of other railway property for taxation, assess for taxation the average number of sleeping and dining cars as provided in section 7051 so used by such corporation each month, and the assessed value of said cars shall bear the same proportion to the entire value thereof that the monthly average number of miles such cars have been run or operated within the state shall bear to the monthly average number of miles such cars have been used or operated within and without the state. Such valuation shall be in the same ratio as that of the property of individuals, and shall be added to the assessed valuation of the corporation, fixed under the preceding sections. [C., '97, § 1341.]

7062. Certification to county auditors. On or before the third Monday in August of each year, the council shall transmit to the county auditor of each county, through and into which any railway may extend, a statement showing the length of the main track within the county, and the assessed value per mile of the same, as fixed by a ratable distribution per mile of the assessed valuation of the whole property. [C., '73, § 1320; C., '97, § 1337; S., '13, § 1337; 37 G. A., ch. 416, § 2.]

7063. Plats. Every railroad company owning or operating a line of railroad within this state shall, on or before the first day of August, 1902, place on file in the office of the county auditor of each county in the state into which any part of the lines of any said company lies, a plat of the lines of said companies within said county, showing the length of their said lines and the area of the land owned or occupied by said companies in each government subdivision of land not included within the platted portion of any city or town, within each of said counties, and the length of the said lines within the platted portion of cities and towns. Companies having on file such plats of part or all of their lines, in any of said counties, shall be required to file plats only of that part of their lines not fully shown as above required on the plats now on file. On the first day of January of each year hereafter, like plats shall be filed of all new lines or extensions of existing lines built or completed within the calendar year preceding. [S., '13, § 1337-a.]

7064. Failure to file. In the event of the failure or refusal of any railroad company to file the plats required under the provisions of the preceding section, at the time or according to the conditions named, then the county auditor may cause the same to be prepared by the county surveyor and the cost thereof shall, in the first place, be audited and paid by the board of supervisors out of the county fund, and the amount thereof shall be by said board levied as a special tax against said company and the property of said company, which shall be collected as county taxes and when collected be paid into the county fund. [S., '13, § 1337-b.]

7065. Property assessed by local authorities. Lands, lots, and other real estate belonging to any railway company, not used exclusively in the operation of the several roads, and all railway bridges across the Mississippi and Missouri rivers, and grain elevators, shall be subject to assessment and taxation on the same basis as property of individuals in the several counties where situated. [C., '73, § 808; C., '97, § 1342.]

included in the assessment to individuals of the adjacent property, but all such real estate shall be the property of such companies for the purpose of taxation. [C., '73, § 809; C., '97, § 1344.]

7067. Levy and collection of tax. At the first meeting of the board of supervisors held after said statement is received by the county auditor, it shall cause the same to be entered on its minute book, and make and enter therein an order stating the length of the main track and the assessed value of each railway lying in each city, town, township or lesser taxing district in its county, through or into which said railway extends, as fixed by the executive council, which shall constitute the taxable value of said property for taxing purposes; and the taxes on said property, when collected by the county treasurer, shall be disposed of as other taxes. The county auditor shall transmit a copy of said order to the council or trustees of the city, town or township. [C., '73, § 1321; C., '97, § 1338.]

7068. Rates—purposes. All such railway property shall be taxable upon said assessment at the same rates, by the same officers, and for the same purpose as the property of individuals within such counties, cities, towns, townships, and lesser taxing districts. [C., '73, § 1322; C., '97, § 1339.]

FREIGHT LINE AND EQUIPMENT COMPANIES

- 7069. "Company" defined.
- 7070. "Freight line company" defined.
- 7071. "Equipment company" defined.
- 7072. Statement required.

7069. "Company" defined. The word "company" as used in this chapter shall be deemed and construed to mean any person, copartnership, association, corporation, or syndicate that may own or operate, or be engaged in operating, furnishing, or leasing cars, as defined and described in the two following sections, whether formed or organized under the laws of this state, or any other state or territory, or any foreign country. [S., '13, § 1342-f.]

7070. "Freight line company" defined. Every company engaged in the business of operating cars, not otherwise listed for taxation or taxed in Iowa, for the transportation of freight, whether such freight be owned by such company, or any other person or company, over any railway line or lines, in whole or in part within this state, such line or lines, not being owned, leased, or operated by such company, whether such cars be termed box, flat, coal, ore, tank, stock, gondola, furniture, or refrigerator cars, or by some other name, shall be deemed to be a freight line company. [S., '13, § 1342-a.]

- 7073. Additional statements.
- 7074. Failure to furnish.
- 7075. Assessment.
- 7076. Rate of tax—payment—distress and sale.

7072. Statement required. Every freight line and every equipment company, as designated in the two preceding sections, doing business, or owning cars which are operated in this state, shall, annually, on or before the first Monday of June in each year, make out and deliver to the executive council a statement, verified by oath of an officer or agent of such company making such statement, with reference to the first day of January next preceding, showing:

1. The name of the company.
2. The nature of the company, whether a person or persons, an association, copartnership, corporation, or syndicate, and under the laws of what state or county organized.

3. The location of its principal office or place of business.

4. The name and postoffice address of the president, secretary, auditor, treasurer, and superintendent or general manager.

5. The name and postoffice address of the chief officer or managing agent of the company in Iowa.

6. The aggregate number of miles traveled within the state of Iowa by its cars during the preceding calendar year.

7. The average number of miles traveled by the cars of each class of its cars during the preceding calendar year. The number of cars necessary for the mileage traveled within the state of Iowa, under the circumstances that ordinarily attend the use of such cars, and where different classes of cars are used by said company, as to the matters embraced in this and the preceding paragraph, it shall furnish the required information as to each class of said cars, in the form prescribed by blanks to be furnished by the executive council.

8. The actual cash value, on the first day of January next preceding, of the said number of cars necessary to provide for the mileage, to be reported as required by paragraph six of this section.

9. The real estate, personal property, structure, machinery, fixtures and appliances, owned by said company, subject to local taxation within the state, and the location and the actual value thereof in the county, township or district where the same is assessed for local taxation. [S., '13, § 1342-b.]

7073. Additional statements. Upon the filing of such statements the executive council shall examine each of them, and if it shall deem the same insufficient, or if they fail to fully set out the matters required to be reported, it shall require such officer or agent to make such other and further statements as to such matters as it may deem proper. [S., '13, § 1342-c.]

7074. Failure to furnish. In case of the failure or refusal of any company to make and deliver to the executive council any statement or statements required by the second preceding section, such company shall forfeit and pay to the state of Iowa one hundred dollars each day such report is delayed beyond the first Monday of June, to be sued and recovered in

7075. Assessment. At the meeting of the executive council on the second Monday in July of each year, it shall value and assess as the property of said company within this state, the cars of the said company necessary, under the circumstances ordinarily attending the use of such cars, for the mileage to be reported under paragraphs six and seven of section 7072, after examining such statements and after ascertaining the actual value of said property of such company therefrom, and from such other information as it may have or obtain. For that purpose the executive council may require such company, by its agents or officers, to appear before said council with such books, papers, or additional statements as the council may require, and may compel the attendance of witnesses in case said council shall deem it necessary to enable it to ascertain the actual value of such property. From the entire actual value of the property within the state so ascertained, there shall be deducted by the said council the actual value of all cars locally assessed, and one-fourth of the residue of such actual value so ascertained shall be by the executive council assessed to said company. [S., '13, 1342-d.]

7076. Rate of tax—payment—distress and sale. The council shall also at said meeting determine the rate of tax to be levied and collected upon said assessments, which shall be equal, as nearly as may be, to the average rate of taxes, state, county, municipal, and local, levied throughout the state during the previous year, which rate shall be ascertained from the records and files in the auditor's office, and said tax shall be in full of all taxes except on real estate, personal property locally assessed, and special assessments, and shall become due and payable at the state treasury on the first day of February following the levy thereof, and if not so paid, the state treasurer shall collect the same by distress and sale of any property belonging to such company in the state in the same manner as is required of county treasurers in like cases; and the order of the executive council in such cases shall be sufficient authority therefor. [S., '13, § 1342-e.]

EXPRESS COMPANIES

- 7077. "Company" defined.
- 7078. "Express company" defined.
- 7079. Statement required.
- 7080. Additional statements.
- 7081. Failure to furnish.
- 7082. Assessment—additional statements—hearing.

- 7083. Actual value—how ascertained.
- 7084. Actual value per mile—taxable value.
- 7085. Assessment in each county—how certified.
- 7086. Entry of certificates.
- 7087. Levy of tax—rates.
- 7088. Action to collect.

7078. "Express company" defined. Every company engaged in conveying to, from, through, in, or across this state, or any part thereof, money, packages, gold, silver, plate, merchandise, or any other article, by express, under a contract, express or implied, with any railroad company, or the managers, lessees, agents, or receivers thereof, provided such company is not a railroad company, a freight line company, nor an equipment company, shall be deemed and held to be an express company within the meaning of this chapter. [C., '97, § 1345; S., '13, § 1346-a.]

7079. Statement required. Every such express company shall, annually, between the first day of February and the first day of March, make out and deliver to the executive council a statement verified by the oath of an officer or agent of said company, making such statement, with reference to the first day of January next preceding, showing:

1. The name of the company, and whether a corporation, partnership, or person, and under the laws of what state or country organized.
2. The principal place of business, and the location of its principal office and the name and postoffice address of its president, secretary, and superintendent or general manager and the name and postoffice address of its principal officers or managing agent in Iowa.
3. The total capital stock of said company; (a) authorized; (b) issued.
4. The number of shares of capital stock issued and outstanding, and the par face value of each share, and in case no shares of stock are issued, in what manner the capital stock thereof is divided, and in what manner such holdings are evidenced.

5. The market value of said shares of stock on the first day of January next preceding, and if such shares have no market value then the actual value thereof; and in case no shares of stock have been issued state the market value, or the actual value, in case there is no market value of the capital thereof, and the manner in which the same is divided.

6. The real estate, buildings, machinery, fixtures, appliances, and personal property owned by said company and subject to local taxation within the state of Iowa, and the location and actual value thereof in the county, township, or district where the same is assessed for local taxation.

7. The specific real estate, together with the improvements thereon, and all bonds, mortgages, and other personal property owned by said company, situated outside of the state of Iowa, and used exclusively outside the conduct of the business, with a specific description of all bonds, mortgages, and other personal property, and the cash value thereof, the purposes for which the same are used, and where the same are kept or deposited and each piece of real estate, where located, the purpose for which the same is used, and the actual value thereof, in the locality where situated.

8. All mortgages upon the whole or any part of its property, together with the dates and amounts thereof.

9. a. The total length of lines or routes over which the company transports such merchandise, freight, or express.

b. The total length of such lines or routes as are outside of the state of Iowa.

c. The length of such lines or routes within each of the counties, townships, and assessment districts within the state of Iowa. [C., '73, § 811; C., '97, § 1346; S., '13, § 1346-a.]

out and deliver to the executive council any statement or statements required by sections 7079, 7080, and 7082, such company shall forfeit and pay to the state of Iowa one hundred dollars for each day such report is delayed beyond the first Monday in March of that year, to be sued and recovered in any proper form of action in the name of the state of Iowa, on the relation of the executive council, and such penalty when collected shall be paid into the general fund of the state. [S., '13, § 1346-b.]

7082. Assessment—additional statements—hearing. The executive council shall meet on the second Monday in July of each year, and it shall thereupon value and assess the property of such company, in the manner hereinafter set forth, after examining such statements, and after ascertaining the actual value of the property of such company therefrom, and from such other information as it may have or obtain. For that purpose the executive council may require such company, by its agents or officers, to appear before said council with such books, papers, or statements as the council may require, or it may require additional statements to be made by such company, and may compel the attendance of witnesses, in case said council shall deem it necessary, to enable it to ascertain the actual value of such property. Any such company interested may, upon written application, appear before the executive council at such meeting and be heard in the matter of the valuation of the property of such company for taxation. [S., '13, § 1346-c.]

7083. Actual value—how ascertained. The executive council shall first ascertain the actual value of the entire property owned by said company, from said statements or otherwise, for that purpose taking the aggregate market value of all shares of capital stock, in case said shares have a market value, and, in case they have none, taking the actual value thereof or of the capital of said company, in whatever manner the same is divided, in case no shares of capital stock have been issued; provided, however, that in case the whole or any portion of the property of said company shall be incumbered by a mortgage or mortgages, such council shall ascertain the actual value of such property by adding to the market value or the aggregate shares of stock or to the value of the capital, in case there shall be no such shares, the aggregate amount of the market or cash value of such mortgage or mortgages, and the result shall be deemed and treated as the actual value of the property of such company. The executive council shall, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual value of the property within the state of Iowa, next ascertain from such statements or otherwise the actual value of the property, both real and personal, owned by the company, and which is used exclusively outside the general business of the company, and also the actual value of that part of its property, if any, without the state which can not lawfully be considered in determining the mileage value of its routes; and the aggregate of such values shall be deducted from the entire actual value of the property as above ascertained. The executive council shall next ascertain and deduct the actual value of the sea or ocean routes of any such company, and in ascertaining the same may take into consideration the earnings, both gross and net per mile, of such sea or ocean routes, as compared with the earnings, gross and net, of the land routes of such company, or may ascertain their value in any other practicable manner, and may require that the reports heretofore provided for shall show such earnings. Thereupon the executive council shall ascertain the actual value of the property of such company within the state of Iowa, and for that purpose may take into consideration the proportional value of the company's property without and within the state, and shall take as a basis of valuation of the company's property in this state the proportion of the whole aggregate value of the property of said company, as above ascertained, after making the deductions above provided for which the length of the routes within the state of Iowa bears to the whole length of the routes of such company other than sea or ocean routes, and such amount so ascertained shall be considered and taken to be the entire actual value of the property of such company within the state of Iowa. From the entire actual value of the property within the state so ascertained, there shall be deducted by the said council the actual value of all the real estate, buildings, machinery, appliances, and personal property not used exclusively in the conduct of the business within the state that are subject to local taxation within the counties, townships, and other assessment districts as hereinbefore described in the sixth item of section 7079. [S., '13, § 1346-d.]

7084. Actual value per mile—taxable value. The executive council shall thereupon ascertain the value per mile of the property within the state, by dividing the total value as above ascertained, after deducting the specific properties locally assessed within the state, by the number of miles within the state, and the result shall be deemed and held to be the actual value per mile of the property of such company within the state of Iowa. The assessed or taxable value shall be determined by taking that percentage of the actual value so ascertained, as is provided by section 7109, and such valuation and assessment shall be in the same ratio as that of the property of individuals. [S., '13, § 1346-e.]

7085. Assessment in each county—how certified. Said executive council shall thereupon, for the purpose of determining what amount shall be assessed by it to said company in each county of the state through, across, into, or over which the route of said company extends, multiply the value per mile, as above ascertained, by the number of miles in each of said counties, as reported in said statements, or as otherwise ascertained, and the result thereof, with the mileage and the rate of assessment per mile, shall be by said council certified to the auditors respectively of the several counties through, into, over, and across which the routes of said company extend. [S., '13, § 1346-f.]

7086. Entry of certificate. At the first meeting of the board of supervisors held after such certificate is received by the county auditor, it shall cause the same to be entered in its minute book, and make and enter therein an order stating the length of the routes and the assessed value of each in each city, town, township, or other taxing district in its county, through or into which said routes extend, which shall constitute the taxable value of said property for taxing purposes, and the taxes on said property, when collected by the county treasurer, shall be disposed of as other taxes. [S., '13, § 1346-g; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 18.]

7087. Levy of tax—rates. The county auditor shall immediately thereafter transmit a copy of said order to the councils of cities, or towns, and to the trustees of each township in the county, and shall also add to the value so apportioned the assessed value of the real estate, buildings, machinery, fixtures, appliances, and personal property not used exclusively in the conduct of the business situated in any township or taxing district as returned by the assessor thereof, and extend the taxes thereon upon the tax list as in other cases. All such property shall be taxable upon said assessment at the same rates, by the same officers, and for the same purposes as the property of individuals within such counties, townships, or taxing districts. The property so included in said assessment shall not be otherwise taxed. [S., '13, § 1346-g; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 19.]

7088. Action to collect. In case any such company shall fail or refuse to pay any taxes assessed against it in any county, township, or assessment district in the state, in addition to other remedies provided by law for the collection of taxes, an action may be prosecuted in the name of the state of Iowa by the county attorneys of the different counties of the state, on the relation of the auditors of the different counties of the state, and judgment in such action shall include a penalty of fifty per cent of the amount of the taxes so assessed and unpaid, together with reasonable attorney's fees for the prosecution of such action, which action may be prosecuted in any county into, through, over, or across which the routes of any such company shall extend, or in any county where such company shall have an officer or agent for the transaction of business. [S., '13, § 1346-h.]

- 7100. Assessment exclusive.
- 7101. Local assessment.
- 7102. Interest of cooperative members.
- 7103. Reassessment by council.

7090. Statement required. Every company owning or operating a transmission line or lines for the conduct of electric energy and which line or lines are located within the state, and which said line or lines are also located wholly or partly outside cities and towns, shall, on or before the first day of May in each year, furnish to the executive council a verified statement as to its entire line or lines within this state, when all of said line or lines are located outside cities and towns, and as to such portion of its line or lines within this state as are located outside cities and towns, when such line or lines are located partly outside and partly inside cities and towns, showing:

1. The total number of miles of line owned, operated, or leased, located outside cities and towns within this state, with a separate showing of the number of miles leased.

2. The location and length of each division within the state and the character of poles, towers, wires, substation equipment and other construction of each such division, designating the length and portion thereof in each separate county into which each such division extends. [S. S., '15, § 1346-k.]

7091. Verification. The verification of any statement required by law shall, in the case of a person, be made by such person; in the case of a corporation, by the president or secretary thereof; and in the case of a copartnership, association, or syndicate, by some member, officer, or agent thereof having knowledge of the facts. [S. S., '15, § 1346-r; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 17-a1.]

7092. Additional statement. Upon receipt of said statements from the several companies, the executive council shall examine such statements, and if it shall deem same insufficient, and that further information is requisite, it shall require the company making same to make such other or further statement as it may desire, notifying such company thereof by registered mail. [S. S., '15, § 1346-l.]

7093. Failure to furnish. In case of the total failure or refusal to make any statement required by sections 7090 and 7092 to be made by May first in any year, or of failure or refusal to make such other or further statement within thirty days from the time the registered notice thereof is received by said company that the same is required by the executive council, such company shall forfeit and pay to the state of Iowa, one hundred dollars for each day the total failure or refusal to make any report is continued beyond the said first day of May of the year in which it is required, or in case of any such other or further report required by the executive council for each day the same is delayed beyond thirty days from the receipt of the notice by said company that same is required, such forfeiture to be sued for and recovered in any proper form of action in the name of the state and on relation of the executive council of the state of Iowa, and such penalty when collected, shall be paid into the general fund. [S. S., '15, § 1346-l.]

7094. Actual value. The executive council shall, at its meeting on the second Monday in July of each year, proceed to find the actual value of that part of such transmission line or lines referred to in section 7090, owned or operated by any company, that is located within this state but outside cities and towns, including the whole of such line or lines when all of such line or lines owned or operated by said company is located wholly outside of cities and towns, taking into consideration the information obtained from the statements required by this chapter, and any further information they can obtain, using the same as a means of determining the actual cash value of such transmission line or lines or part thereof, within this state, located outside of cities and towns. The executive council shall then ascertain the value per mile of such transmission line or lines owned or operated by each company specified in section 7090, by dividing the total value as above ascertained by the number of miles of line of such company within the state located outside of cities and towns, and the result shall be deemed and held to be the actual value per mile of said transmission line or lines of each of said companies within the state located outside of cities and towns. [S. S., '15, § 1346-m.]

cil by this chapter is required to find the value, shall be determined by taking the percentage of the actual value so ascertained, as provided by section 7109, and the ratio between the actual value and the assessed or taxable value of the transmission line or lines of each of said companies located outside of cities and towns shall be the same as in the case of the property of private individuals. [S. S., '15, § 1346-m.]

7097. County assessment—certification. The executive council shall, for the purpose of determining what amount shall be assessed to any one of said companies in each county of the state into which the line or lines of the company extend, multiply the assessed or taxable value per mile of line of said company, as ascertained according to the provisions of this chapter, by the number of miles of line in each of said counties, and the result thereof shall be by said council certified to the several county auditors of the respective counties into, over, or through which said line or lines extend. [S. S., '15, § 1346-n.]

7098. Entry of certificate. At the first meeting of the board of supervisors held after said statements are received by the county auditor, it shall cause such statement to be entered in its minute book and make and enter therein an order stating the length of the lines and the assessed value of the property of each of said companies situated in each township or lesser taxing district in each county outside cities and towns, as fixed by the executive council, which shall constitute the taxable value of said property for taxing purposes. The county auditor shall transmit a copy of said order to the trustees of each township and to the proper taxing boards in lesser taxing districts into which the line or lines of said company extend in the county. The taxes on said property when collected by the county treasurer shall be disposed of as other taxes on real estate. [S. S., '15, § 1346-o.]

7099. Rate—purposes. Such portions of the transmission line or lines within the state referred to in section 7090, as are located outside cities and towns, shall be taxable upon said assessment provided for by sections 7094 to 7097, inclusive, at the same rate, by the same officers and for the same purposes as property of individuals within such counties, townships or lesser taxing districts, outside cities and towns, and the county treasurer shall collect said taxes at the same time and in the same manner as other taxes, and the same penalties shall be due and collectible as for the nonpayment of individual taxes. [S. S., '15, § 1346-p.]

7100. Assessment exclusive. Every transmission line or part thereof, of which the executive council is required by this chapter to find the value, shall be exempt from other assessment or taxation either under sections 6979 to 6982, inclusive, or under any other law of this state except as provided in this chapter. [S. S., '15, § 1346-q.]

7101. Local assessment. All lands, buildings, machinery, poles, towers, wires, station and substation equipment, and other construction owned or operated by any company referred to in section 7090, and where such property is located within any city or town within this state, shall be listed and assessed for taxation in the same manner as provided in sections 6979 and 6980 for the listing and assessment of that part of the lands, buildings, machinery, tracks, poles and wires within the limits of any city or town belonging to individuals or corporations furnishing electric light or power, and where such property, except the capital stock, is situated partly within and partly without the limits of a city or town. All personal property of every company owning or operating any such transmission line referred to in section 7090, used or purchased by it for the purpose of such transmission line, shall be listed and assessed in the assessment district where usually kept and housed and under sections 6981 and 6982. [S. S., '15, § 1346-q.]

7102. Interest of cooperative members. The value of the interests of members in such cooperative corporations or associations which are not organized or operated for profit shall, for the purpose of taxation, be deemed real estate, and be assessed as part of the real estate served by such transmission line or lines. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 17-a1.]

7103. Reassessment by council. The provisions of chapter 341 shall apply to the property of transmission lines included in and referred to in section 7090. [S. S., '15, § 1346-t.]

REASSESSMENT BY EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

7104. Reassessment and relevy.

7104. Reassessment and relevy. When by reason of nonconformity to any law, or by any omission, informality, or irregularity, or for any other cause, any tax heretofore or hereafter levied and assessed against any person, company, association, or corporation by the executive council is invalid or is adjudged illegal, the executive council may assess and levy a tax against such person, company, association, or corporation for the year or years for which such tax is invalid or illegal, or when necessary may assess and certify the same to the proper county officers, who shall levy such tax as by law in such cases made and provided, with the same force and effect as though done at the proper time and under any valid law, 7105. Voluntary payments.

whether in force at the time of said levy and assessment or thereafter enacted. [S., '13, § 1330-h.]

7105. Voluntary payments. When any person, company, association, or corporation, against whom any tax has been assessed and levied by the executive council and held invalid or illegal, shall have paid the same voluntarily or shall otherwise waive such invalidity and illegality, the executive council shall accept such tax in lieu of the tax to be raised by the reassessment and relevy provided for in the preceding section. [S., '13, § 1330-i.]

7106. Listing and valuation. Each assessor shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of his office immediately after the second Monday in January in each year, and shall, with the assistance of each person assessed, or who may be required by law to list property belonging to another, enter upon the assessment rolls furnished him for that purpose the several items of property required to be entered for assessment. He shall personally affix values to all property assessed by him. [C., '51, § 473; R., '60, § 733; C., '73, § 822; C., '97, § 1352.]

7107. Owner to assist. The assessor shall list every person in his township and assess all the property therein, personal and real, except such as is heretofore exempted or otherwise assessed. Any person who shall refuse to assist in making out a list of his property, or of any property which he is by law required to assist in listing, or who shall refuse to make either of the oaths or affirmations or combinations thereof required by the next section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars. [C., '51, § 477; R., '60, § 734; C., '73, § 823; C., '97, § 1354; S., '13, § 1354.]

7108. Oath. The assessor shall administer the oath or affirmation printed on the assessment rolls hereinafter prescribed, or combination thereof, to each person assessed, and require the person taking such oath to subscribe the same, and, in case anyone refuses so to do, he shall note the fact in the column of remarks opposite such person's name. [C., '51, §§ 474, 475; R., '60, § 735; C., '73, § 824; C., '97, § 1355; S., '13, § 1355.]

7109. Actual, assessed, and taxable value. All property subject to taxation shall be valued at its actual value which shall be entered opposite each item, and, except as otherwise provided, shall be assessed at twenty-five per cent of such actual value.

Such assessed value shall be taken and considered as the taxable value of such property upon which the levy shall be made.

In arriving at said actual value the assessor shall take into consideration its productive and earning capacity, if any, past, present, and prospective, its market value, if any, and all other matters that affect the actual value of the property; and the burden of proof shall be upon any complainant attacking such valuation as excessive, inadequate, or inequitable. [C., '97, § 1305; S., '13, § 1305; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 30.]

7110. Forest and fruit-tree reservations. Forest reservations fulfilling the conditions of sections 2604 to 2617, inclusive, shall be assessed on a taxable valuation of one dollar per acre. Fruit-tree reservations shall be assessed on a taxable valuation of one dollar per acre for a period of eight years from the time of planting. In all other cases where trees are planted upon any tract of land, without regard to area, for forest, fruit, shade, or ornamental purposes, or for windbreaks, the assessor shall not increase the valuation of such property because of such improvements. [S., '13, § 1400-1.]

7111. Notice of valuation. The assessor shall, at the time of making the assessment, inform the person assessed, in writing, of the valuation put upon his property, and notify him, if he feels aggrieved, to appear before the board of review and show why the assessment should be changed. [C., '97, § 1356.]

7112. Refusal to furnish statement. If any corporation or person refuse to furnish the verified statements required in chapters 331 to 342, inclusive, or to list his property, or to take or subscribe the oath required, the executive council, or assessor, as the case may be, shall proceed to list and assess such property according to the best information obtainable, and shall add to the taxable valuation one hundred per cent thereof, which valuation and penalty shall be separately shown, and shall constitute the assessment; and if the valuation of such property shall be changed by any board of review, or on appeal therefrom, a like penalty shall be added to the valuation thus fixed. [C., '51, § 475; R., '60, § 734; C., '73, §§ 823, 1318; C., '97, § 1357.]

7113. False statement. Any person making any verified statement or return, or taking any oath required by this title, who knowingly makes a false statement therein, shall be guilty of perjury. [C., '97, § 1358.]

7114. Meeting of assessors. The county auditor of each county shall, before the third day of January annually, issue a call to all the assessors of his county to meet at his office, or some other place at the county seat, within ten days, for consultation, and to receive from such auditor such information as shall tend to the proper discharge by them of their official duties. It shall be the duty of each of such assessors to attend such meeting, and they shall be allowed pay of one day for such attendance, and mileage at ten cents per mile one way. [C., '97, § 1359; 39 G. A., ch. 121.]

a supply of blank assessment rolls on which to enter, separately, the names of all persons, partnerships, corporations, or associations assessed, which rolls shall be made in duplicate, except that the oath form in the original may be omitted and the followed inserted in lieu thereof: "If you are not satisfied that the foregoing assessment is correct, you can appear before the board of review, which meets at..... on the first Monday of April next. Dated..... day of..... 19..... Assessor". In assessment districts where the board of review meets at any other time than the date fixed herein, the assessor shall change the date to correspond with the date upon which the board meets. Said duplicate shall be signed by the assessor, detached from the original, and delivered to the person assessed. He shall also furnish to each assessor a supply of blanks in this chapter described as "Assessment Roll, Form No. 2", which shall be in duplicate, and subject to the same conditions as the roll above provided for. The auditor shall also furnish to the assessor two assessment books, each page of which shall be headed "Assessor's book for..... township,.....county, Iowa, independent district of.....", and shall contain columns ruled and headed for the information required by this chapter, which rolls and books shall be substantially in the following form:

7116. Schedules furnished. The assessor shall furnish to each person, partnership, corporation, or association, except those otherwise assessed as provided by law, a blank known as "Assessment Roll—Form No. 2", as provided in the preceding section, upon which such person, partnership, corporation, or association shall enter and set out all moneys and credits of whatsoever kind or nature belonging to such person, partnership, corporation, or association, and such liabilities as they claim should be deducted from the total of their moneys and credits. The assessor shall carry the aggregate moneys and credits of such persons, partnerships, corporations, or associations to the regular schedule. [C., '97, § 1361; S., '13, § 1361.]

7117. Affidavits combined. It shall be lawful to combine the affidavit with reference to real and personal property, and the affidavit as to moneys and credits, into one affidavit. [S., '13, § 1361.]

fully keep all schedules known and described in this chapter as "Assessment Roll—Form No. 2", for the period of five years from the time of filing of the same in his office. [C., '97, § 1361; S., '13, § 1361.]

7119. Uniform assessment rolls. The state board of review shall from time to time prepare and certify to each county auditor such instructions as to a uniform method of making up the assessment rolls as it thinks necessary to secure a compliance with the law and uniform returns, which shall be printed upon each assessment roll, and also prepare instructions for the same purpose as to making up the assessment books, which shall be printed therein. [C., '97, § 1362.]

7120. Plat book. The county auditor shall furnish to each assessor a plat book on which shall be platted the lands and lots in his assessment district, showing on each subdivision or part thereof, written in ink or pencil, the name of the owner, the number of acres, or the boundary lines and distances in each, and showing as to each tract the number of acres to be deducted for railway right of way and for roads. [C., '51, § 181; R., '60, § 733; C., '73, § 821; C., '97, § 1364.]

7121. Completion of assessment—oath. The assessment shall be completed by the first day of April, and the assessor shall attach to the assessment rolls his oath in the following form:

I, (A..... B.....), assessor of county of and state of Iowa, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that the actual and taxable values of all property, money and credits, of which a statement has been made and verified by the oath of the person required to list the same, is herein truly set forth in such statement; that in every case, where I have been required to ascertain the amount or value of any property, I have diligently, and by the best means in my power, endeavored to ascertain the true amount and value, and as I verily believe the actual and taxable values thereof are set forth in the annexed return; in no case have I knowingly omitted to demand of any person, of whom I was required to do so, a statement of the items of his property which he was required by law to list, nor to administer the oath to him, unless he refused to take it, nor in any way connived at any violation or evasion of any of the requirements of the law in relation to the assessment of property for taxation.

Subscribed and sworn to (or affirmed) this day of A. D., before me.

7122. Rolls returned to local board. Such rolls shall be laid before the local board of review on or before the first Monday of April in each year for correction.

In cities of ten thousand population and over, such assessment rolls shall be laid before the local board of review on or before the first Monday in May in each year. [R., '60, § 736; C., '73, § 825; C., '97, § 1366; S., '13, § 1366; 39 G. A., ch. 92, § 1.]

7123. Assessment book—preparation and return. When such correction has been completed, the assessor shall proceed to make up the assessor's books in duplicate from such assessment rolls, allotting a sufficient number of pages to each letter, and return to the county auditor, together with the assessment rolls, plat book, and all statements which have been furnished to him in connection with the assessment. [S., '13, § 1366; 38 G. A., ch. 385, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 268, § 1.]

7124. Recapitulations—return to city and township clerk. The county auditor shall foot up each column of numbers and values on each page and enter such footings in recapitulation sheets, and not later than the tenth day of May, return one of the books to the township clerk, and to the city or town clerk.

In cities of ten thousand population and over, one of the assessment books shall be returned to the city clerk not later than the tenth day of June. [C., '51, § 478; R., '60, § 736; C., '73, § 825; C., '97, § 1366; S., '13, § 1366; 39 G. A., ch. 92, § 2; 39 G. A., ch. 268.]

7125. Persons subject to poll tax. The assessor shall furnish to the clerk of the city, town or township, as the case may be, a list of all persons subject to poll tax. [38 G. A., ch. 385, § 1.]

7126. Failure to perform duty. If any assessor or member of any board of review shall knowingly fail or neglect to make or require the assessment of property for taxation to be of and for its taxable value as provided by law or to perform any of the duties required of him by law, at the time and in the manner specified, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars, to be recovered in an action in the district court in the name of the county and for its use, and the action against the assessor shall be against him and his bondsmen. [R., '60, § 738; C., '73, § 827; C., '97, § 1367.]

7127. Examination of assessors. It shall be lawful for the boards of supervisors, the trustees of townships, and councils of cities and incorporated towns as boards of review to summon any assessor or assessors to appear before them, respectively, to be inquired of under oath with respect to the method by which he or they has or have ascertained and fixed any valuation or valuations returned by him or them, and as to the correctness of any such valuation or valuations, and to administer the oath by any one of their members to the assessor or assessors so summoned before them; and any assessor so summoned who shall fail without good cause to appear, or, appearing, shall refuse to submit to such inquiry, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished accordingly. [C., '97, § 1368.]

7128. Publication of revenue laws. The auditor of state shall publish in pamphlet form the revenue laws of the state for the benefit of the assessors and boards of review, and distribute them to the county auditors, who shall distribute the same to the assessors and boards of their respective counties. [C., '73, § 828; C., '97, § 1369.]

BOARDS OF REVIEW

- 7129. Local board of review.
- 7130. Clerk—assessment correction.
- 7131. Notice of assessments raised.
- 7132. Complaint to board of review.
- 7133. Appeal.
- 7134. Trial on appeal.
- 7135. Appeal on behalf of public.
- 7136. Power of court.

- 7137. County board of review.
- 7138. Appeals.
- 7139. Abstract to auditor of state.
- 7140. State board of review.
- 7141. Adjusting county valuations.
- 7142. Notice of increase.
- 7143. Adjustment by county auditor.

7129. Local board of review. The township trustees shall constitute the local board of review for the township or the portion thereof not included within any city or town, and the city or town council shall constitute such board for such city or town.

The board shall meet on the first Monday of April, at the office of the township, city or town clerk or recorder, and sit from day to day until its duties are completed, which shall be not later than the first day of May, and shall adjust assessments for the township, city or town by raising or lowering the assessment of any person, partnership, corporation, or association as to any or all of the items of his assessment, in such manner as to secure the listing of property at its actual value and the assessment of property at its taxable value, and shall also add to the assessment rolls any taxable property not included therein, assessing the same in the name of the owner thereof, as the assessor should have done; provided that:

1. In townships having a population of twenty thousand or more, and situated entirely within the limits of a city under special charter, and in cities having a population of twenty thousand or more, including cities under special charters, the board of review may begin the performance of the duties herein defined on and after the first day of March each year.

2. In cities having a population of ten thousand or over, such board shall meet on the first Monday of May and shall complete its duties not later than the first day of June.

In townships having a population of twenty thousand or more, and situated entirely within the limits of a city under special charter, and in cities under special charters having a population of twenty thousand or more, the city council of said city shall be the board of review, except that the township trustees of said townships may, in the event the city council does not act as such board of review for such townships, be the board of review, the same as township trustees would be in townships in which the township lines are not coterminous with city limits. [C., '73, §§ 829,

7130. Clerk—assessment correction. The clerk or recorder of the township, city or town, as the case may be, shall be clerk of the board of review and keep a record of its proceedings, and the assessor shall be present at its meeting and make upon the assessment rolls all corrections or additions directed by the board. At such meetings it shall be the duty of the assessor to read each and every taxpayer's name and assessment on the assessment rolls, and, if the assessment is approved, pass to the next name. After checking the same, the board shall then take up the unchecked names in alphabetical order, and raise or lower the same as in their opinion will be just, checking off each taxpayer as the same is adjusted. [R., '60, § 740; C., '73, § 831; C., '97, § 1371; S., '13, § 1371.]

7131. Notice of assessments raised. In case the value of any specific property or the entire assessment of any person, partnership, corporation, or association is raised, or new property is added by the board, the clerk shall give immediate notice thereof by mail to each at the postoffice address shown on the assessment rolls, and at the conclusion of the action of the board therein the clerk shall post an alphabetical list of those whose assessments are thus raised and added, in a conspicuous place in the office or place of meeting of the board, and enter upon the records a statement that such posting has been made, which entry shall be conclusive evidence of the giving of the notice required. The board shall hold an adjourned meeting, with at least five days intervening after the posting of said notices, before final action with reference to the raising of assessments or the adding of property to the rolls is taken, and the posted notices shall state the time and place of holding such adjourned meeting, which time and place shall also be stated in the proceedings of the board. [C., '97, § 1372; S., '13, § 1372.]

7132. Complaint to board of review. Any person aggrieved by the action of the assessor in assessing his property may make oral or written complaint thereof to the board of review, which shall consist simply of a statement of the errors complained of, with such facts as may lead to their correction, and any person whose assessment has been raised or whose property has been added to the assessment rolls, as provided in the preceding section, and any member of the board of review aggrieved by any action of the board of review of which he was, at the time complained of, a member, shall make such complaint before the meeting of the board for final action with reference thereto, as provided in said section. [R., '60, § 740; C., '73, § 831; C., '97, § 1373; S., '13, § 1373; 40 G. A., ch. 148, § 1.]

NOTE: Above section and the four following sections made applicable to special charter cities by § 6870.

7133. Appeal. Appeals may be taken from the action of the board with reference to such complaints to the district court of the county in which such board holds its sessions, within twenty days after its adjournment. Appeals shall be taken by a written notice to that effect to the chairman or presiding officer of the reviewing board, and served as an original notice. [C., '73, § 831; C., '97, § 1373; S., '13, § 1373.]

7134. Trial on appeal. The court shall hear the appeal in equity and determine anew all questions arising before the board which relate to the liability of the property to assessment or the amount thereof, and its decision shall be certified by the clerk of the court to the county auditor, who shall correct the assessment books in his office accordingly. [C., '97, § 1373; S., '13, § 1373.]

7135. Appeal on behalf of public. Any officer of a county, city, town, township or school district interested or a taxpayer thereof may in like manner make complaint before said board of review in respect to the assessment of any property in the township, city or town and an appeal from the action of the board of review in fixing the amount of assessment on any property concerning which such complaint is made, may be taken by any of such aforementioned officers.

Such appeal is in addition to the appeal allowed to the person whose property is assessed and shall be taken in the name of the county, city, town, township or school district interested and tried in the same manner, except that the notice of appeal shall also be served upon the owner of the property concerning which the complaint is made and affected thereby or person required to return said property for assessment. [S., '13, § 1373.]

7136. Power of court. Upon trial of any appeal from the action of the board of review fixing the amount of assessment upon any property concerning which complaint is made, the court may increase, decrease or affirm the amount of the assessment appealed from. [S., '13, § 1373.]

7137. County board of review. The board of supervisors shall constitute a county board of review, and shall adjust the assessments of the several townships, cities and towns of their county at their regular meeting in June, and add to or deduct from the assessed value of the property substantially as the state board adjusts assessments of the several counties of the state. [R., '60, § 739; C., '73, § 832; C., '97, § 1375.]

7138. Appeals. Appeals may be taken from any action or decision of a county board of review by the board of review of any city, town, or township aggrieved thereby, within the same time and in the same manner as appeals are taken from the local board of review. [C., '97, § 1376.]

7139. Abstract to auditor of state. Each auditor shall, on or before the third Monday in June, make out and transmit to the auditor of state an abstract of the real and personal property in his county, in which he shall set forth:

1. The number of acres of land and the aggregate actual and taxable values of the same, exclusive of town lots, returned by the assessors, as corrected by the county board of review.

2. The aggregate actual and taxable values of real estate in each township, city and town in the county, returned as corrected by the county board of review.

3. The aggregate actual and taxable values of personal property.

4. An abstract as to the number and value of all animals as the same are returned by the assessor, showing the aggregate actual and taxable values and number of each kind or class, and such other facts as may be required by the state board of review. [R., '60, § 741; C., '73, § 833; C., '97, § 1377.]

7140. State board of review. The executive council shall constitute the state board of review, and shall meet at the seat of government on the second Monday of July in each year. The auditor of state shall lay before it the abstracts transmitted to him by the county auditors, as required by the preceding section. [C., '51, §§ 481, 482; R., '60, § 742; C., '73, § 834; C., '97, § 1378; S., '13, § 1378.]

7141. Adjusting county valuations. It shall adjust the valuation of property in the several counties, adding to or deducting from the valuation of each kind or class of property such percentage in each case as will bring the same to its taxable value as fixed in chapters 330 to 344, inclusive. [C., '51, §§ 481, 482; R., '60, § 742; C., '73, § 834; C., '97, § 1379.]

7142. Notice of increase. Before such executive council shall add to the valuation of any kind or class of property any such percentage, it shall serve ten days' notice by mail, on the auditor of the county whose valuation is proposed to be raised and shall hold an adjourned meeting after such ten days' notice, at which time such county may appear by its board of supervisors, county attorney, or otherwise, and make written or oral protest against such proposed raise, which protest shall consist simply of a statement of the error, or errors, complained of with such facts as may lead to their correction, and at such adjourned meeting final action may be taken in reference thereto. [37 G. A., ch. 139, § 1.]

7143. Adjustment by county auditor. The board shall keep a record of its proceedings and finish its review and adjustment on or before the third Monday of August. The county auditor shall thereupon add to or deduct from the valuation of each kind or class of property in his county the required percentage, rejecting all fractions of fifty cents or less in the result, and counting all over fifty cents as one dollar. [C., '51, § 483; R., '60, § 743; C., '73, § 836; C., '97, § 1382; S., '13, § 1382; 37 G. A., ch. 416, § 1.]

TAX LIST

7144. Consolidated tax.
7145. Tax list.
7146. Correction—tax apportioned.
7147. Tax list delivered—informality and delay.
7148. Aggregate valuations certified.
7149. Corrections by auditor.
7150. Notice.
7151. Right of appeal.
7152. Adjustment of accounts.

7153. Expense—report to supervisors.
7154. Procedure on appeal.
7155. Corrections by treasurer.
7156. Action by treasurer—apportionment.
7157. Duty of treasurer.
7158. Time limit.
7159. Real estate—duty of owner.
7160. Irregularities, errors, and omissions—effect.
7161. Discovery of property not listed.

7144. Consolidated tax. All taxes, except road taxes, which are uniform throughout any township or school district shall be formed into a single tax and entered upon the tax list in a single column, to be known as a consolidated tax, and each receipt shall show the percentage levied for each separate fund. [C., '73, § 838; C., '97, § 1383; S., '13, § 1383; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 20.]

7145. Tax list. Before the first day of January in each year, the county auditor shall transcribe the assessments of the several townships, towns, or cities into a book, to be known as the tax list, properly ruled and headed, with separate columns, in which shall be entered the names of the taxpayers, descriptions of lands, number of acres and value, numbers of town lots and value, value of personal property and each description of tax, with a column for polls and one for payments, and shall complete the same by entering the amount due on each installment, separately, and carrying out the total of both installments. He shall also complete each page by footing all columns and balancing with tax totals. [C., '51, § 486; R., '60, § 745; C., '73, § 837; C., '97, § 1383; S., '13, § 1383; 40 G. A., ch. 149, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 20.]

7146. Correction—tax apportioned. At the time of transcribing said assessments into the tax list, the county auditor shall correct all transfers up to date and place the legal descriptions of all real estate in the name of the owner at said date as shown by the transfer book in his office. At the end of the list for each township, town, or city he shall make an abstract thereof, and apportion the consolidated tax among the respective funds to which it belongs, according to the number of mills levied for each. [C., '97, § 1383; S., '13, § 1383; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 21.]

7147. Tax list delivered—informality and delay. He shall make an entry upon the tax list showing what it is, for what county and year, and deliver it to the county treasurer on or before the thirty-first day of December, taking his receipt therefor; and such list shall be a sufficient authority for the treasurer to collect the taxes therein levied. No informality therein, and no delay in delivering the same after the time above specified, shall affect the validity of any taxes, sales, or other proceedings for the collection of such taxes. [C., '51, § 487; R., '60, § 748; C., '73, § 843; C., '97, § 1387.]

7148. Aggregate valuations certified. At the time of delivering the list to the treasurer, the auditor shall furnish to the auditor of state a certified statement showing separately the aggregate full and taxable valuations of the real and personal property in the county, and also the aggregate amount of each separate tax as shown by the tax list. [R., '60, § 748; C., '73, § 844; C., '97, § 1388.]

7149. Corrections by auditor. The auditor may correct any error in the assessment or tax list, and may assess and list for taxation any omitted property. [R., '60, § 747; C., '73, § 841; C., '97, § 1385; S., '13, § 1385-b.]

7150. Notice. Before assessing and listing for taxation any omitted property, the auditor shall notify by registered letter the person, firm, corporation, or administrator or other person in whose name the property is taxed, to appear before him at his office within ten days from the time of said notice and show cause, if any there be, why such correction or assessment should not be made. [S., '13, § 1385-b.]

7151. Right of appeal. Should such party feel aggrieved at the action of said auditor he shall have the right of appeal therefrom to the district court. [S., '13, § 1385-b.]

7152. Adjustment of accounts. If such correction or assessment is made after the books have passed into the hands of the treasurer he shall be charged or credited therefor as the case may be. [S., '13, § 1385-b.]

7153. Expense—report to supervisors. All expense incurred in the making of said correction or assessment shall be borne pro rata by the funds which are affected by said correction and the proceedings shall be reported to the board of supervisors. [S., '13, § 1385-b.]

7154. Procedure on appeal. The appeal provided for in section 7151 shall be taken within ten days from the time of the final action of the auditor, by a written notice to that effect to the auditor, and served as an original notice. The court on appeal shall hear and determine the rights of the parties in the same manner as appeals from the board of review, as prescribed in sections 7134 and 7136. [S., '13, § 1385-c.]

7155. Corrections by treasurer. When property subject to taxation is withheld, overlooked, or from any other cause is not listed and assessed, the county treasurer shall, when apprised thereof, at any time within five years from the date at which such assessment should have been made, demand of the person, firm, corporation, or other party by whom the same should have been listed, or to whom it should have been assessed, or of the administrator thereof, the amount the property should have been taxed in each year the same was so withheld or overlooked and not listed and assessed, together with six per cent interest thereon from the time the taxes would have become due and payable had such property been listed and assessed. [C., '97, § 1374.]

7156. Action by treasurer—apportionment. Upon failure to pay such sum within thirty days, with all accrued interest, he shall cause an action to be brought in the name of the treasurer for the use of the proper county, to be prosecuted by the county attorney, or such other person as the board of supervisors may appoint, and when such property has been fraudulently withheld from assessment, there shall be added to the sum found to be due a penalty of fifty per cent upon the amount, which shall be included in the judgment. The amount thus recovered shall be by the treasurer apportioned ratably as the taxes would have been if they had been paid according to law. [C., '97, § 1374.]

7157. Duty of treasurer. The treasurer shall assess any real property subject to taxation which may have been omitted by the assessor, board of review, or county auditor, and collect taxes thereon, and in such cases shall note, opposite the tract or lot assessed, the words "by treasurer". [C., '51, § 491; R., '60, § 752; C., '73, § 851; C., '97, § 1398.]

7159. Real estate—duty of owner. In all cases where real estate subject to taxation has not been assessed, the owner, by himself or agent, shall have the same done by the treasurer, and pay the taxes thereon; and if he fails to do so the treasurer shall assess the same and collect the tax assessed as he does other taxes. [R., '60, § 753; C., '73, § 852; C., '97, § 1399.]

7160. Irregularities, errors, and omissions—effect. No failure of the owner to have such property assessed or to have the errors in the assessment corrected, and no irregularity, error or omission in the assessment of such property, shall affect in any manner the legality of the taxes levied thereon, or affect any right or title to such real estate which would have accrued to any party claiming or holding under and by virtue of a deed executed by the treasurer as provided by this title, had the assessment of such property been in all respects regular and valid. [R., '60, § 753; C., '73, § 852; C., '97, § 1399.]

7161. Discovery of property not listed. It shall be lawful for the board of supervisors of any county to employ any person, corporation, or firm for a reasonable salary or per diem to assist the proper officers in the discovery of property not listed or assessed for taxation as required by law. [S., '13, § 1407-f; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 29.]

TAX LEVIES

CERTIFICATION OF TAXES

- 7162. Basis for amount of tax.
- 7163. Amounts certified in dollars.
- 7164. Computation of rate.
- 7165. Permissible excess rate.
- 7166. Fractional rates disregarded.
- 7167. Interpretative clause.
- 7168. Record of rates.
- 7169. Excessive tax prohibited.
- 7170. Mandatory provisions.

COUNTY LEVIES AND LICENSES

- 7171. Annual levies.
- 7172. Court expense.

7162. Basis for amount of tax. In all taxing districts in the state, including townships, school districts, cities, towns, and counties, when by law then existing the people are authorized to determine by vote, or officers are authorized to estimate or determine, a rate of taxation required for any public purpose, such rate shall in all cases be estimated and based upon the adjusted taxable valuation of such taxing district for the preceding calendar year. [37 G. A., ch. 343, § 1.]

7163. Amounts certified in dollars. When any authorized tax rate within any taxing district, including townships, school districts, cities, towns, and counties, shall have been thus determined as provided by law, the officer or officers charged with the duty of certifying said authorized rate to the county auditor or board of supervisors shall, before certifying the same, compute upon the adjusted taxable valuation of such taxing district for the preceding calendar year (not including moneys and credits, and other moneyed capital taxed at a flat rate as provided in section 6985), the amount of tax said rate will raise, stated in dollars, and shall certify said computed amount in dollars and not by rate, to the county auditor and board of supervisors. [37 G. A., ch. 343, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 22.]

7164. Computation of rate. When the valuations for the several taxing districts shall have been adjusted by the several boards for the current year, the county auditor shall thereupon apply such a rate, not exceeding the rate authorized by law, as will (without including moneys and credits and other moneyed capital taxed at a flat rate as provided in section 6985), raise the amount required for such taxing district, and no larger amount. [37 G. A., ch. 343, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 23.]

- 7173. County orphan fund.
- 7174. Peddlers.
- 7175. Payment—license.
- 7176. "Peddlers" defined.
- 7177. Exceptions.
- 7178. Peddling without license.
- 7179. Public shows—license.
- 7180. Violations.

LEVIES BY EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

- 7181. Levy to pay municipal bonds.
- 7182. Annual levy.
- 7183. Rate certified to county auditor.

7165. Permissible excess rate. In fixing such rate the auditor, with the approval of the board of supervisors, may provide for an excess in the amount to be raised, not exceeding five per cent on the amount of the tax, for the purpose of meeting possible shrinkage due to exemptions or other cause. [38 G. A., ch. 57, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 23.]

7166. Fractional rates disregarded. If in adjusting the rate to be levied in any taxing district to conform to law, such rates shall make necessary the levying of a fraction of a mill in excess of one-half of one-tenth of a mill, said fractional excess may be computed as one-tenth of a mill, which latter shall be the smallest required to be spread upon the tax lists for any purpose except rates applicable to a state purpose. [37 G. A., ch. 343, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 23.]

7167. Interpretative clause. Nothing herein shall be construed as interfering with the right of any taxing district to receive its due proportion of the taxes on moneys and credits and other moneyed capital taxed at a flat rate as provided in section 6985. [37 G. A., ch. 343, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 23.]

7168. Record of rates. On the determination by the auditor of the necessary rates as herein directed, it is made his duty to enter a record of such rates for each taxing district upon the permanent records of his office in a book to be kept for that purpose. [37 G. A., ch. 343, § 4.]

7169. Excessive tax prohibited. It is hereby made a misdemeanor for the board of supervisors to authorize, or the county auditor to carry upon the tax lists for any year, an amount of tax for any public purpose in excess of the amount certified or authorized as provided by law. [37 G. A., ch 343, § 5.]

7170. Mandatory provisions. The provisions of the eight preceding sections, and the methods of computation, certification, and levy therein provided shall be obligatory on all officers within the several counties of the state upon whom devolves the duty of determining, certifying, and levying taxes. [37 G. A., ch. 343, § 6.]

7171. Annual levies. The board of supervisors of each county shall, annually, at its September session, levy the following taxes upon the assessed value of the taxable property in the county:

1. For state revenue, such rate of tax as shall be fixed by the executive council as hereinafter provided.

2. For ordinary county revenue, not to exceed six mills on a dollar, with a poll tax of fifty cents on each male resident over twenty-one years of age. [C., '51, § 454; R., '60, § 710; C., '73, § 796; C., '97, § 1303; S. S., '15, § 1303; 40 G. A., ch. 75.]

7172. Court expense. In any county where, by reason of extraordinary or unusual litigation the rates herein fixed for ordinary county revenue are found to be insufficient to pay the same, the board of supervisors may create an additional fund to be known as court expense fund, and may levy for such fund such rate of taxes as shall be necessary to pay all court expenses chargeable to the county. Such fund shall be used for no other purpose, and the levy therefor shall be dispensed with when the authorized levy for the ordinary county revenue is sufficient to meet the necessary county expenditures including such court expenses. Provided, further, that the levy for the purpose of providing an additional fund shall not exceed three mills on a dollar. [C., '97, § 1303; S. S., '15, § 1303.]

7173. County orphan fund. The board of supervisors may levy a tax, not exceeding one-half mill on the dollar in any one year, on all the taxable property in its county, at the same time other taxes are levied, and to be collected in the same manner, to aid in and for the maintenance and education of destitute orphans. The fund thus raised shall be called the "county orphan fund", and shall be expended in such sums and manner as the exigencies of each case may demand. If there be such children who are without guardian, or, having one, are neglected, they shall be cared for through some suitable person to be appointed by the board. [C., '73, §§ 1638-1641; C., '97, § 2687.]

attached thereto or made a part thereof a conveyance for merchandise or samples. [C., '51, § 510; R., '60, § 791; C., '73, § 906; C., '97, § 1347; S., '13, § 1347-a; 39 G. A., ch. 52.]

7175. Payment—license. Such tax shall be paid to the county treasurer, who shall issue to the person making such payment duplicate receipts therefor and upon presentation of one of same to the county auditor, he shall issue to the person presenting such receipt a license which shall not be transferable authorizing such person to ply the vocation of a peddler in such county for the term of one year from the date thereof. The license shall be good only in the county in which issued, and shall not authorize peddling in cities and towns. [C., '97, § 1348; S., '13, §§ 1347-a, 1348.]

7176. "Peddlers" defined. The word "peddlers" under the provisions of the two preceding sections, and wherever found in the code, shall be held to include and apply to all transient merchants and itinerant vendors selling by sample or by taking orders, whether for immediate or future delivery. [S., '13, § 1347-a.]

7178. Peddling without license. Any person peddling outside the limits of a city or town without such license or after the expiration thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, whether he be the owner of the goods sold or carried by him or not, and, on conviction thereof, shall forfeit and pay into the county treasury, in addition to the penalty imposed therefor, double the amount of the tax for one year as fixed in section 7174. [C., '51, §§ 511, 512; R., '60, § 792; C., '73, § 907; C., '97, § 1348; S., '13, § 1348.]

7179. Public shows—license. No person shall exhibit any traveling show or circus, nor show any natural or artificial curiosity, or exhibition of horsemanship in a circus or otherwise for any price, gain, or reward in any county outside the limits of a city or town, until he shall have obtained a license therefor from the county auditor, upon the payment to the county treasurer of such sum as may be fixed by the board of supervisors, not exceeding one hundred dollars for each place in the county at which such show or circus may exhibit. [C., '97, § 1349.]

7180. Violations. Any person exhibiting any such show without first having obtained such license shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall also forfeit and pay to the county treasurer double the amount fixed for such license, for the benefit of the school fund. [C., '97, § 1349.]

LEVIES BY EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

7181. Levy to pay municipal bonds. Whenever any municipal corporation, board, or tribunal is charged with the duty of levying a tax to pay any bonds or interest thereon, and fails to make such levy, the holder thereof may, after obtaining final judgment thereon, in addition to any other remedies he may have, file a transcript thereof with the auditor of state, taking his receipt therefor, and the same shall be registered in his office, and the state board of review at its regular annual session shall levy upon the taxable property of the county, city, town, or school district for which such bonds were issued a sufficient rate of taxation to realize the amount of interest, or principal and interest, due or to become due on the bonds so filed, prior to the next levy, and the money arising from such levy shall be known as the bond fund, and collected as a part of the state tax, paid into the state treasury, and placed to the credit of such county, city, town, or school district for the payment of said bonds and interest, and shall be paid out as the interest installments or the principal may mature, by warrants drawn by the auditor of state in favor of the holder of such bonds, as shown by the register in his office, until the same shall be paid; and, when paid, the bonds and coupons shall be canceled and returned to the treasurer of the county, city, town, or school district issuing the same, who shall receipt therefor. [C., '97, § 1381.]

7182. Annual levy. In each year the executive council shall fix the rate in percentage to be levied upon the valuation of the taxable property of the state necessary to raise such amount for general state purposes as shall be designated by the general assembly, either by statute or joint resolution. [S., '13, § 1380-c.]

7183. Rate certified to county auditor. The executive council shall certify the rate so fixed to the auditor of each county. [S., '13, § 1380-d.]

7234. Record of separate funds.
7235. Refunding erroneous tax.
7236. Sale for erroneous tax.
7237. Remission in case of loss.

7184. Duty of treasurer. The treasurer, after making the entry provided in section 7193, shall proceed to collect the taxes, and the list shall be his authority and justification against any illegality in the proceedings prior to receiving the list; and he is also authorized and required to collect, as far as practicable, the taxes remaining unpaid on the tax books of previous years, his efforts to that end to include the sending by mail of a statement to each delinquent taxpayer not later than the first day of November of each year. [R., '60, § 751; C., '73, § 846; C., '97, § 1390; 37 G. A., ch. 137, § 1.]

7185. Resistance. If the treasurer, his deputy, or collector is resisted or impeded in the execution of the duties of his office, he may require any person to assist him therein, and if such person refuses, he shall forfeit a sum not exceeding ten dollars, to be recovered by civil action in the name of the county, and the person resisting shall be punished as in the case of resisting an officer in the execution of legal process. [C., '51, § 494; R., '60, § 758; C., '73, § 860; C., '97, § 1408.]

NOTE: Above section made applicable to special charter cities by § 6895.

7186. Actions authorized. In addition to all other remedies and proceedings now provided by law for the collection of taxes on personal property, the county treasurer is hereby authorized to bring or cause an ordinary suit at law to be commenced and prosecuted in his name for the use and benefit of the county for the collection of taxes from any person, persons, firm, or corporation as shown by the tax list in his office, and the same shall be in all respects commenced, tried, and prosecuted to final judgment the same as provided by the code for ordinary actions. [S., '13, § 1452-a.]

7188. Receipt. The treasurer shall in all cases make out and deliver to the taxpayer a receipt, stating the time of payment, the description and assessed value of each parcel of land, and the assessed value of personal property, the amount of each kind of tax, the interest on each and costs, if any, giving a separate receipt for each year; and he shall make the proper entries of such payments on the books of his office. Such receipt shall be in full of the first or second half or all of such person's taxes for that year, but the treasurer shall receive the full amount of any county, state, or school tax whenever the same is tendered, and give a separate receipt therefor. [R., '60, § 760; C., '73, § 867; C., '97, § 1405.]

7189. Distress and sale. The treasurer shall collect all delinquent taxes by distress or sale of any personal property belonging to the person to whom such taxes are assessed, and not exempt from taxation, or any real or personal property upon which they are a lien, but he shall continue to receive the same until collected, and any owner or claimant of any real estate advertised for sale may pay to the county treasurer, at any time before the sale thereof, the taxes due thereon, with accrued penalties, interest, and costs to the time of payment. [C., '51, §§ 495, 497; R., '60, §§ 759, 760, 769; C., '73, §§ 865, 866; C., '97, § 1414.]

NOTE: Certain property of national guardsmen exempt, see § 461.

7192. Lien on real estate. Personal tax entered on delinquent personal tax list, as provided in the two preceding sections, shall constitute a lien on any real estate owned or acquired by any such delinquent, and so remain until the same has been paid or legally canceled, and taxes not so entered for each year shall cease to be a lien. [R., '60, § 750; C., '73, § 845; C., '97, § 1389; S., '13, § 1389-c.]

7193. Former delinquent real estate taxes. The treasurer shall each year, upon receiving the tax list, enter upon the same in separate columns opposite each parcel of real estate on which the tax remains unpaid for any previous year, the amount of such unpaid tax, and unless such delinquent real estate tax is so brought forward and entered it shall cease to be a lien upon the real estate upon which the same was levied, or upon any other real estate of the owner. But to preserve such lien it shall only be necessary to enter such tax, as aforesaid, opposite any tract upon which it was a lien. Any sale for the whole or any part of such delinquent tax not so entered shall be invalid. [R., '60, § 750; C., '73, § 845; C., '97, § 1389; S., '13, § 1389-d.]

7194. Penalty and interest limited—unavailable taxes. No penalty or interest, except for the first four years, shall be collected upon taxes remaining unpaid four years or more from the thirty-first day of December of the year in which the tax books containing the same were first placed in the hands of the county treasurer, and the board of supervisors at the January meeting may declare such tax unavailable, and when so declared by the board, the amount shall be credited to the treasurer by the auditor as unavailable and he shall apportion such tax among the funds to which it belongs. [C., '97, § 1391; S. S., '15, § 1391.]

7195. County credited. Any portion of such tax belonging to the state shall be reported by him in his semiannual settlement sheets to the auditor of state as unavailable, whereupon the auditor of state shall credit the county with the amount so reported, but nothing in this or the preceding section shall be construed to in any way release the county treasurer from any duty required of him in the collection of delinquent taxes, nor to release the taxpayer from his liability for the same. [S. S., '15, § 1391.]

7196. Subsequent collection. Should any of such tax afterward be collected, the county treasurer shall distribute the net amount collected among the several funds the same as though it had never been declared unavailable, and the portion belonging to the state shall be credited back to the state and included in the treasurer's remittance of other state taxes to the treasurer of state and shall be reported by the county auditor in his semiannual settlement sheets to the auditor of state, who shall recharge the same to the county. [S. S., '15, § 1391.]

7197. Certificate of taxes due. The county treasurer, when requested to do so by anyone having an interest therein, shall certify in writing the entire amount of taxes and assessments due upon any parcel of real estate, together with all sales of the same for unpaid taxes or assessments shown by the books in his office, with the amount required for redemption from the same, if still redeemable, if he is paid or tendered his fees for such certificate at the rate of fifty cents for the first parcel in each township, town, or city, and ten cents for each subsequent parcel in the same township, town, or city, and in computing such fees each description in the tax list shall be reckoned a parcel. [C., '73, § 848; C., '97, § 1393.]

7198. Effect of certificate and receipt. Such certificate, with the treasurer's receipt showing the payment of all the taxes therein specified, and the auditor's certificate of redemption from the tax sales therein mentioned, shall be conclusive evidence for all purposes, and against all persons, that the parcel of real estate in said certificate and receipt described was, at the date thereof, free and clear of all taxes and assessments, and sales for taxes or assessments, except sales whereon the time of redemption had already expired and the tax purchaser had received his deed. [C., '73, § 849; C., '97, § 1394.]

7199. Treasurer liable. For any loss resulting to the county, or any subdivision thereof, or to any tax purchaser, or taxpayer, from an error in said certificate or receipt, the treasurer and his sureties shall be liable on his official bond. [C., '73, § 850; C., '97, § 1395.]

7200. Information as to taxes due. The treasurer, when applied to by letter and receiving thirty cents in postage stamps or money, and ten cents additional for each tract of one hundred sixty acres in excess of three hundred twenty acres, in no case to exceed fifty cents, shall correctly answer the same by mail, giving the amount and interest of unpaid taxes and of any tax sales thereof as the same appear upon the tax list in his office, and upon the return of the letter or a copy, before the last day of the current month, with the demand due as shown therein, he shall pay the taxes and forward to the sender a tax receipt without further charge. [C., '73, § 3794; C., '97, § 1396.]

7201. Penalty. Any treasurer who shall neglect for twenty days after the receipt of any such letter, with money or stamps inclosed as aforesaid, to answer the same fully as required in the preceding section, or who shall directly or indirectly receive or be concerned in receiving any greater compensation for the service mentioned than as above provided, shall forfeit to the person aggrieved, for each offense, the sum of fifty dollars, which may be recovered in a civil action. [C., '73, § 3795; C., '97, § 1397.]

7202. Lien of taxes on real estate. Taxes upon real estate shall be a lien thereon against all persons except the state. [C., '51, § 495; R., '60, § 759; C., '73, §§ 853, 865; C., '97, § 1400; S., '13, § 1400.]

7203. Personal property tax lien on real estate. Taxes due from any person upon personal property shall be a lien upon any and all real estate owned by such person or to which he may acquire title. [C., '73, § 853; C., '97, § 1400; S., '13, § 1400.]

7204. Lien between vendor and purchaser. As against a purchaser, such liens shall attach to real estate on and after the thirty-first day of December in each year. [C., '97, § 1400; S., '13, § 1400.]

7205. Lien follows certain personal property. Taxes upon stocks of goods or merchandise, fixtures and furniture in hotels, rooming houses, billiard halls, moving picture shows and theaters, shall be a lien thereon and shall continue a lien thereon when sold in bulk, and may be collected from the owner, purchaser or vendee, and such owner, purchaser or vendee of any of such goods, merchandise, furniture or fixtures shall be personally liable for all taxes thereon. [37 G. A., ch. 337, § 1.]

7206. Lien follows building assessed as personalty. In all cases where buildings are assessed as personal property, the taxes shall be and remain a lien on said buildings from the date of levy until paid. [S., '13, § 1400.]

7207. Payment—what receivable. The treasurer is authorized and required to receive in payment of all taxes by him collected, together with the interest and principal of the school fund, the circulating notes of national banking associations organized under and in accordance with the conditions of the act of the congress of the United States, entitled, "An act to provide a national currency secured by the pledge of the United States stocks, and to provide for the redemption thereof", approved February 25, 1863, and acts amendatory thereto,

United States legal tender notes, and other notes and certificates of the United States payable on demand and circulating or intended to circulate as currency. [C., '73, § 855; C., '97, § 1402.]

7208. Certain warrants receivable. Auditor's warrants shall be received by the county treasurer in full payment of state taxes, and county warrants shall be received by the treasurer of the proper county for ordinary county taxes, but money only shall be received for the school tax. Road taxes, except the portion payable in money, may be discharged and road certificates of work done received, as provided by law. [C., '51, § 489; R., '60, §§ 754, 2057, 2059; C., '73, §§ 854, 1779; C., '97, § 1401.]

7210. Payment—installments. No demand of taxes shall be necessary, but it shall be the duty of every person subject to taxation to attend at the office of the treasurer, at some time between the first Monday in January and the first day of March following, and pay his taxes in full, or one-half thereof before the first day of March succeeding the levy, and the remaining half before the first day of September following. [C., '51, § 492; R., '60, § 756; C., '73, § 857; C., '97, § 1403.]

7211. When delinquent. In all cases where the half of any taxes has not been paid before the first day of April succeeding the levy, the whole amount charged against such entry shall become delinquent from the first day of March after due; and in case the second installment is not paid before the first day of October succeeding its maturity, it shall become delinquent from the first day of September after due. [C., '97, § 1403.]

7212. Apportionment. In all cases where taxes are paid by installment, each of such payments, except road taxes, shall be apportioned among the several funds for which taxes have been assessed in their proper proportions. [C., '97, § 1403.]

7214. Interest as penalty. If the first installment of taxes shall not be paid by April first, the whole shall become due and draw interest as a penalty of one per cent per month until paid, from the first of March following the levy; and if the first half shall be paid when due, and the last half shall not be paid by October first following such levy, then a like interest shall be charged from the date such last half became delinquent. [C., '51, §§ 495, 497; R., '60, §§ 759, 760; C., '73, § 865; C., '97, § 1413.]

7215. Penalty on personal taxes. On all personal taxes not paid on or before the first Monday in December a penalty of five per cent shall be added and collected in addition to the one per cent per month penalty herein provided; and the tax with all penalties shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner. [C., '73, § 866; C., '97, § 1413; 39 G. A., ch. 66, § 1.]

7216. When interest penalty omitted. No interest as a penalty shall be added to taxes levied by any court to pay a judgment on county, city, town or school district indebtedness, other than the interest which such judgment may draw, nor upon taxes levied in aid of the construction of any railroad. [C., '73, § 866; C., '97, § 1413.]

7217. Assessment of migratory property of nonresident. All personal property, the owner of which is a nonresident of the state, and which property is by the owner thereof intended for sale or consumption at a place, or shipment to a place other than where said property is located, shall be assessed in the owner's name, if the owner is known, and if the owner is unknown or uncertain the same shall be assessed to "unknown owner", and shall be by the assessor sufficiently described so that said property may be identified. [C., '97, § 1404.]

7218. Lien on migratory personal property—maturity of tax. A lien for the tax upon said property as herein provided shall relate back to and exist from the first day of January of the year for which it is assessed, and if anyone seeks to remove the said property from the county before the tax for said year shall be paid, the tax shall immediately become due and collectible. [C., '97, § 1404.]

7219. Enforcement of lien. It shall be the duty of the assessor to notify the county auditor if said property is being, or is about to be, removed from the county. In such event, or if the knowledge of the removal of or intent to remove said property shall come to him in any other authentic manner, the said auditor shall certify such fact to the county treasurer, with a full description of the property as the same appears on the assessor's books, giving assessment district, where located, and the amount of said assessment, and the county treasurer shall thereupon proceed by distress to restrain the removal of said property and secure the lien of the tax due or to become due. [C., '97, § 1404.]

7220. Release of lien by bond. If at the time of such distress the levy for the year is unknown, the auditor is authorized to release the lien of such tax upon a good and sufficient bond, with sureties resident in the county, being filed with said auditor, to be by him approved, which bond shall obligate all parties thereto to pay all taxes due on said property when same are payable. Upon the filing and approving of such bond, the auditor shall make a certificate releasing the said personality from the lien of such tax. [C., '97, § 1404.]

7221. Payment—effect. The payment of said tax shall be a bar against the collection of taxes for same year on said property in any other county in this state. [C., '97, § 1404.]

7222. Collectors—appointment. Immediately after the taxes become delinquent, each county treasurer shall proceed to collect the same by distress and sale of the personal property of the delinquent taxpayers, and for this purpose he may appoint one or more collectors to assist him in collecting the same. [C., '73, § 859; C., '97, § 1407; S., '13, § 1407.]

NOTE: Above section and the four following sections made applicable to special charter cities by § 6895.

7224. Sheriff or constable as collector. In the discharge of his duties as collector, should it become necessary to make the delinquent taxes by distress and sale, or should no collector be appointed, or should the collector fail to institute proceedings to collect said delinquent taxes, the treasurer shall place the same in the hands of the sheriff, or a constable, who shall proceed to collect the same, and either shall be entitled to receive the same compensation, in addition to the five per cent, as constables are entitled to receive for the sale of property on execution. [C., '73, § 859; C., '97, § 1407; S., '13, § 1407.]

7225. Personal property tax collectors. The boards of supervisors may in their discretion authorize the appointment by the treasurer of one or more collectors to assist in the collection of such delinquent personal tax as the board may designate, and may pay such collector as full compensation for all services rendered and expenses incurred a sum not to exceed ten per cent of the amount collected, which sum shall in no event be paid or allowed until all such taxes collected have been paid over to the county treasurer by such collector. [C., '73, § 859; C., '97, § 1407; S., '13, § 1407.]

7226. Current taxes—when delivered for collection. In no case shall delinquent taxes of the current year be turned over for collection, whether designated by the board or otherwise, before the first day of November. [40 G. A., ch. 151.]

7227. Compensation deducted ratably. The amount allowed as compensation to such collector shall be deducted ratably from the several funds to which such taxes so collected by the collector belong. [S., '13, § 1407-1a.]

7228. Taxes certified to another county. In all cases of delinquent taxes in any county, where the person upon whose property the same were levied shall have disposed of or removed the said property and the treasurer of the county where the taxes were levied can find no property within said county out of which said taxes can be made, the treasurer of the county where said taxes are delinquent shall make out a certified abstract thereof and forward the same to the treasurer of the county in which the delinquent resides or has property, when the treasurer transmitting the said abstract has reason to believe that said taxes can be collected thereby. [C., '73, § 861; C., '97, § 1409; S. S., '15, § 1409.]

7229. Collection in such case. The treasurer forwarding and the one receiving said abstract shall each keep a record thereof, and, upon receipt and filing in the office of the treasurer to whom sent, it shall have the effect of a levy of taxes in that county, and the collection of the same shall be proceeded with in the same manner as in the collection of other taxes. [C., '73, § 862; C., '97, § 1410.]

7230. Penalties collectible. The officer collecting taxes so certified into another county shall, in addition to the penalties on delinquent taxes, assess and collect the further penalty of twenty per cent on the whole amount of such taxes, inclusive of the penalties thereon. [C., '73, § 863; C., '97, § 1411.]

7231. Return. The officer receiving said abstract shall, when in his opinion the taxes are uncollectible, return the same with the indorsement thereon "uncollectible", and, if collected, he shall remit the amount to the treasurer of the county where said taxes were levied, less the penalty provided by the preceding section. [C., '73, § 864; C., '97, § 1412.]

7232. Monthly apportionment. On or before the tenth day of each month the treasurer shall apportion all taxes and interest on the same collected during the preceding month among the several funds to which it belongs according to the number of mills levied for each fund and enter the same upon his cash account, and report the amount of each tax and interest collected on same to the county auditor who shall charge him in each fund with the same. [C., '73, § 868; C., '97, § 1415; S., '13, § 1415.]

7233. Misapplied interest or penalty. Any interest or penalty on delinquent taxes apportioned or transferred to any fund other than the fund upon which same was collected, together with a penalty of ten per cent and interest at six per cent on the aggregate from the time such tax was due and payable, may be recovered in a civil action brought against the county treasurer and his bondsmen by any person in control of the fund affected thereby. [S., '13, § 1415.]

7234. Record of separate funds. The auditor shall keep a complete account with the treasurer, with each separate fund or tax by itself, and in each account he shall charge him with the amounts in his hands at the opening of such account whether it be delinquent taxes, notes, cash, or other assets belonging to such fund, the amount of each tax for each year when the tax list is received by him, and all additions to each tax or fund whether by additional assessments, interest on delinquent taxes, amount received for licenses, or other items, and upon proper vouchers shall credit him for money disbursed for double and erroneous assessments, including all improper and illegal assessments the correction or remission of which causes a diminution of the tax, and for unavailable or uncollectible taxes, as directed by the board of supervisors. [R., '60, § 761; C., '73, § 869; C., '97, § 1416.]

7235. Refunding erroneous tax. The board of supervisors shall direct the treasurer to refund to the taxpayer any tax or portion thereof found to have been erroneously or illegally exacted or paid, with all interest and costs actually paid thereon. [R., '60, § 762; C., '73, § 870; C., '97, § 1417.]

for the payment of such erroneous tax, interest or costs, the error or irregularity in the tax may be corrected at any time provided in this chapter, but such correction shall not affect the validity of the sale or the right or title conveyed by a treasurer's deed, if the property was subject to taxation for any of the purposes for which any portion of the taxes for which the land was sold was levied, and the taxes were not paid before the sale, or the property redeemed from sale. [R., '60, § 762; C., '73, § 870; C., '97, § 1417.]

7237. Remission in case of loss. The board of supervisors shall have power to remit in whole or in part the taxes of any person whose buildings, crops, stock, or other property has been destroyed by fire, tornado, or other unavoidable casualty, if said property has not been sold for taxes, or if said taxes have not been delinquent for thirty days at the time of the destruction. The loss for which such remission is allowed shall be such only as is not covered by insurance. [R., '60, § 818; C., '73, § 800; C., '97, § 1307.]

- 7269. Assessment to wrong person.
- 7270. Certified copies of records as evidence.
- 7271. Failure to obtain deed—cancellation of sale.

7238. Sale shown. The auditor, when making up the tax list, before it is placed in the hands of the county treasurer, shall designate each piece or parcel of real estate sold for taxes, and not redeemed, by writing opposite the same the year in which it was sold in a column made for that purpose and headed "sold in". [C., '73, § 842; C., '97, § 1386.]

7239. Notice of previous sale. Each county treasurer, when any person offers to pay taxes on any real estate marked "sold", shall notify him of such fact and inform him for what taxes and when the sale was made. [C., '73, § 847; C., '97, § 1392.]

7240. Sale of personal property. If anyone neglects to pay his taxes at or before maturity, the treasurer may collect the same by distress and sale of his personal property not exempt from taxation, and the tax list alone shall be sufficient warrant therefor. When the treasurer distrains goods, and the owner refuses to give a sufficient bond for the delivery of the same on the day of sale, he may keep them at the expense of the owner. [C., '51, §§ 492, 493; R., '60, §§ 756, 757; C., '73, §§ 857, 858; C., '97, § 1406.]

NOTE: Above section and the three following sections made applicable to special charter cities by § 6895.

7241. Notice of time and place of sale. The treasurer shall give notice of the time and place of their sale within five days after the taking, in the manner constables are required to give notice of the sale of personal property under execution. [C., '51, § 493; R., '60, § 757; C., '73, § 858.]

7242. Time of sale—adjournment. The time of sale shall not be more than twenty days from the day of taking, but he may adjourn the sale from time to time, not exceeding five days in all, and shall adjourn at least once when there are no bidders, and, in case of adjournment, he shall post up a notice thereof at the place of sale, announcing the time to which the adjournment is ordered. [C., '51, § 493; R., '60, § 757; C., '73, § 858.]

7244. Annual tax sale. Annually, on the first Monday in December, the treasurer shall offer at his office at public sale all lands, town lots, or other real property on which taxes of any description for the preceding year or years are delinquent, which sale shall be made for the total amount of taxes, interest, and costs due and unpaid thereon. [C., '51, § 496; R., '60, § 763; C., '73, § 871; C., '97, § 1418.]

7245. Dual county seats. In counties having two county seats and divided into two districts for the collection of taxes, such sale may be made by the deputy treasurer and the recorder or his deputy at the county seat where the taxes for the district are collected, and the records thereof shall be kept thereat. Such deputy treasurer and the recorder or his deputy shall have all the powers conferred by law upon the treasurer and auditor in relation to the collection of the revenue, sales for delinquent taxes, redemption therefrom, the execution of tax deeds thereunder, and every other matter connected therewith. [C., '97, § 1418.]

7246. Notice of sale—service. Notice of the time and place of such sale shall be given by the treasurer, and shall contain a description of each separate tract to be sold as taken from the tax list, the amount of taxes for which it is liable delinquent for each year, and the amount of penalty, interest, and costs thereon, the name of the owner, if known, or the person, if any, to whom it is taxed, by publication in some newspaper in the county, once each week, for three consecutive weeks, the last of which shall be at least one week before the day of sale, and by immediately posting a copy of the first publication thereof at the door of the courthouse, if there be one, if not, at the door of the place where the last term of district court was held. [C., '51, § 498; R., '60, § 764; C., '73, §§ 872-874, 3833; C., '97, § 1419; S., '13, § 1419.]

7247. Costs. The compensation for such publication shall not exceed forty cents for each description, and shall be paid by the county. The amount paid therefor shall be collected as a part of the costs of sale and paid into the county treasury. [C., '51, § 498; R., '60, § 764; C., '73, §§ 873, 3833; C., '97, § 1419; S., '13, § 1419; 38 G. A., ch. 389, § 1.]

7248. Substituted service. If the treasurer can not procure the publication of the notice for the sum herein fixed, then the notice may be given by posting the same in four of the most public places in the county, to be selected by him, for four weeks, and filing a copy thereof with the auditor before the day of sale, with his verified statement thereon that it had been posted as and for the time herein required, and that he could not obtain a publication thereof at the legal rate. [C., '51, § 498; R., '60, § 764; C., '73, §§ 873, 3833; C., '97, § 1419; S., '13, § 1419.]

7249. Certificate of publication. The treasurer shall obtain a copy of the notice of sale, with a certificate of the publication thereof, from the printer or publisher, and file it in the office of the auditor, which certificate shall be substantially in the following form:

I, A..... B....., publisher (or printer) of the....., a newspaper printed and published in the county of.....and state of Iowa, do hereby certify that the foregoing notice and list were published in said newspaper once in each week for three successive weeks, the last of which publications was made on the.....day of....., A. D., and that copies of each number of said paper in which said notice and list were published were delivered by carrier or transmitted by mail to each of the subscribers to said paper, according to the accustomed mode of business in this office.

A..... B.....
.....County. } ss.

The above certificate of publication was subscribed and sworn to before me by the above named A..... B....., who is personally known to me to be the identical person described therein, on the.....day of....., A. D.....

Auditor..... County, Iowa.
[C., '51, § 500; R., '60, § 771; C., '73, § 881; C., '97, § 1420.]

7250. Method of describing lands etc. In all entries required to be made by the auditor, treasurer, or other officer, letters and figures may be used to denote townships, ranges, sections, parts of sections, lots, blocks, date, and the amount of taxes, interest, and costs. [R., '60, § 770; C., '73, § 880; C., '97, § 1421.]

7251. Irregularities in advertisement. No irregularity or informality in the advertisement shall affect the legality of the sale or the title to any real estate conveyed by the treasurer's deed under this and the two following chapters, and in all cases its provisions shall be sufficient notice to the owners of the sale thereof. [R., '60, § 770; C., '73, § 880; C., '97, § 1421.]

7253. Bid—purchaser. The person who offers to pay the amount of taxes which are a lien on any parcel of land or town lot for the smallest portion thereof shall be the purchaser, and when such purchaser shall designate the portion of any tract of land or town lot for which he will pay the whole amount of taxes for which it may be sold, the portion thus designated shall be an undivided portion. [C., '51, § 501; R., '60, § 766; C., '73, § 876; C., '97, § 1423.]

7254. Sale continued. The treasurer shall continue the sale from day to day as long as there are bidders, or until the taxes are all paid. [C., '51, § 499; R., '60, § 767; C., '73, § 877; C., '97, § 1424.]

7255. Prior advertised property—notice and sale. Each treasurer shall, on the day of the regular tax sale each year or any adjournment thereof, offer and sell at public sale, to the highest bidder, all real estate which remains liable to sale for delinquent taxes, and shall have previously been advertised and offered for two years or more and remained unsold for want of bidders, general notice of such sale being given at the same time and in the same manner as that given of the regular sale. [C., '97, § 1425.]

7256. Unavailable tax—credit given. Any taxes on such real estate, in excess of the amount for which the same was sold, shall be credited to the treasurer by the auditor as unavailable, and he shall apportion such excess among the funds to which it belongs, and if any of such excess belongs to the state, it shall be reported by him to the auditor of state as unavailable, who shall give the county credit therefor. [C., '97, § 1425.]

7257. Resale. The person purchasing any parcel or part thereof shall forthwith pay to the treasurer the amount bid, and on failure to do so the same shall at once be again offered as if no such sale had been made. Such payments may be made in the funds receivable in payment of taxes. [C., '51, § 502; R., '60, § 768; C., '73, § 878; C., '97, § 1426.]

7258. Record of sales. The auditor shall attend all sales of real estate for taxes, and keep a record thereof in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, therein describing each tract of real estate on which the taxes and costs were paid by the purchaser as they are described in the copy of the notice on file in his office, stating in separate columns the amount, as obtained from the treasurer's tax list, of each kind of tax, interest, and costs for each tract, how much and what part of each parcel was sold, to whom, and date thereof. The treasurer shall also keep a book of sales in which he shall make the same record. He shall also note in the tax list, opposite the description of the property sold, the fact and date thereof. [R., '60, § 772; C., '73, § 882; C., '97, § 1427.]

7259. Sale adjourned. When all the real estate advertised for sale has been offered, and a part remains unsold for want of bidders, the treasurer shall adjourn the sale to some day not exceeding two months from adjournment, due notice of which day shall be given at the time thereof, and by keeping such notice posted in a conspicuous place in his office, and no further notice shall be necessary. On the day fixed by the adjournment, the same proceedings shall be had as in the first instance. Further adjournment shall be made from time to time, not exceeding two months, and the sales thus continued until the next regular annual sale, or until all the taxes are paid. [R., '60, § 773; C., '73, § 883; C., '97, § 1428.]

7260. Misconduct of officers. Any treasurer or auditor failing to attend a sale of lands in person or by deputy shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered in an action in the name of the county and for its use. If such officer or deputy shall sell or assist in selling any real estate, knowing it is not subject to taxation, or that the taxes for which it is sold have been paid, or shall knowingly and wilfully sell or assist in selling any real estate for taxes to defraud the owner thereof, or shall knowingly and wilfully execute a deed for property so sold, he shall, upon conviction, be fined in a sum of not less than one thousand nor more than three thousand dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding one year, or both fined and imprisoned, and shall be liable to pay the injured party all damages sustained by him on account thereof, and all such sales shall be void. [R., '60, § 774; C., '73, § 884; C., '97, § 1429.]

7261. Fraud of officers. If any treasurer or auditor shall be directly or indirectly concerned in the purchase of any real estate sold for the nonpayment of taxes, he and his sureties shall be liable on his official bond for all damages sustained by the owner of such property, and all such sales shall be void. In addition thereto, the officer so offending shall, upon conviction, be fined in a sum of not more than one thousand dollars. [R., '60, § 775; C., '73, § 885; C., '97, § 1430.]

for sale on the first Monday of December, the treasurer shall make the sale on the first Monday of the next succeeding month in which the required notice can be given. [R., '60, § 776; C., '73, § 886; C., '97, § 1431.]

7263. Certificate of purchase. The treasurer shall prepare, sign, and deliver to the purchaser of any real estate sold for the non-payment of taxes a certificate of purchase, describing it as shown in the record of sales, giving the part of each tract or lot sold, the amount of each kind of tax, interest, and costs for each tract or lot as described in such record, and that payment has been made therefor. Not more than one such parcel or description shall be entered upon each certificate of purchase. [C., '51, § 503; R., '60, § 777; C., '73, § 887; C., '97, § 1432; S., '13, § 1432; 39 G. A., ch. 12.]

7264. Loss of certificate. In case of loss of said certificate of purchase, the owner thereof, as appears on record, may, by filing an affidavit of such loss or destruction with the county treasurer, receive a duplicate thereof, which shall take the place of the original certificate and have the same force and effect in law and be subject to the same rules and regulations. [S., '13, § 1432.]

7266. Payment of subsequent taxes by purchaser. The treasurer shall also prepare, sign, and deliver to the purchaser of any real estate sold for taxes duplicate receipts for taxes, interest, and costs paid by him after the date of his purchase for any subsequent year or years, one of which receipts shall be filed in the office of the auditor and noted on the register of sales therein. [C., '73, § 889; C., '97, § 1434.]

NOTE: Above section and the following section made applicable to special charter cities by § 6895.

7267. Failure to file duplicate receipt. If such duplicate receipt is not so filed before redemption, such tax shall not be a lien upon the land, and the person paying the tax shall not be entitled to recover it of the owner of the real estate. [C., '73, § 889; C., '97, § 1434.]

7268. School, agricultural college, or university land. When any school, agricultural college, or university land sold on credit is sold for taxes, the purchaser shall acquire only the interest of the original purchaser therein, and no sale of any such lands for taxes shall prejudice the rights of the state, agricultural college, or university. In all cases where the real estate is mortgaged or otherwise incumbered to the school, agricultural college, or university fund, the interest of the person who holds the fee shall alone be sold for taxes, and in no case shall the lien or interest of the state be affected by any sale thereof. The foregoing provision shall include all lands exempt from taxation by law, and any legal or equitable estate therein held, possessed, or claimed for any public purpose, and no assessment or taxation of such lands, nor the payment of any such tax by any person, or the sale and conveyance for taxes of any such lands, shall in any manner affect the right or title of the public therein, or confer upon the purchaser or person who pays such taxes any right or interest in such land. [R., '60, §§ 810, 811; C., '73, § 900; C., '97, § 1435.]

7269. Assessment to wrong person. No sale of real estate for taxes shall be invalid on account of its having been taxed in any other name than that of the rightful owner, if it is in other respects sufficiently described. [R., '60, § 787; C., '73, § 904; C., '97, § 1450.]

7270. Certified copies of records as evidence. The books and records belonging to the offices of the auditor and treasurer, or copies thereof properly certified, shall be sufficient evidence to prove the sale of any real estate for taxes, the redemption thereof, or the payment of taxes thereon. [R., '60, § 788; C., '73, § 905; C., '97, § 1451.]

7271. Failure to obtain deed—cancellation of sale. After eight years have elapsed from the time of any tax sale, and no action has been taken by the holder of a certificate to obtain a deed, it shall be the duty of the county auditor and county treasurer to cancel such sales from their tax sale index and tax sale register. [C., '97, § 1452.]

TAX REDEMPTION

7272. Redemption—terms.
 7273. Nonallowable penalties.
 7274. Agricultural college lands.
 7275. Redemption from sale for part of tax.
 7276. Certificate of redemption—countersigned by treasurer.
 7277. Minors and lunatics.
7278. Redemption after delivery of deed.
 7279. Notice of expiration of right of redemption.
 7280. Service of notice.
 7281. Agent of nonresident.
 7282. When service deemed complete—presumption.
 7283. Cost—fee—report.

7272. Redemption—terms. Real estate sold under the provisions of this chapter and chapter 347 may be redeemed at any time before the right of redemption is cut off, by the payment to the auditor, to be held by him subject to the order of the purchaser, of the amount for which the same was sold and eight per cent of such amount added as a penalty, with eight per cent interest per annum on the whole amount thus made from the day of sale, and the amount of all taxes, interest, and costs paid by the purchaser or his assignee for any subsequent year or years, with a similar penalty added as before on the amount of the payment for each subsequent year, and eight per cent per annum on the whole of such amount or amounts from the day or days of payment. [C., '51, § 505; R., '60, § 779; C., '73, § 890; C., '97, § 1436; S., '13, § 1436.]

NOTE: Costs of service of notice and costs of affidavit of publication, see § 7283.

7273. Nonallowable penalties. The penalty for nonpayment of taxes of any subsequent year or years shall not attach, unless the same shall have remained unpaid until the first day of April after they become due and have become delinquent, nor shall said penalties apply to taxes voted in aid of the construction of any railroad. [C., '73, § 890; C., '97, § 1436; S., '13, § 1436.]

7274. Agricultural college lands. In redeeming from a sale of a leasehold interest in agricultural college land, the amount to be paid shall include any amount paid by the holder of the certificate as interest or principal due by the terms of the lease or otherwise to prevent a forfeiture thereof, as provided by law, and for which proper voucher shall have been filed with the auditor, with interest thereon at eight per cent per annum from date of payment, which amount shall be paid by the auditor to the holder of the certificate, and the certificate of redemption shall show the amount so paid by the party redeeming. [C., '51, § 505; R., '60, § 779; C., '73, § 890; C., '97, § 1436; S., '13, § 1436.]

sold for a less sum than the taxes, penalty, interest, and costs, the purchaser shall receive only the amount paid and a ratable part of such penalty, interest, and costs. In determining the interest and penalties to be paid upon redemption from such sale, the sum due on any parcel sold shall be taken to be the full amount of taxes, interest, and costs due thereon at the time of such sale, and the amount paid for any such parcel at such sale shall be apportioned ratably among the several funds to which it belongs. Real estate so sold shall be redeemable in the same manner and with the same penalties as that sold for the taxes of the preceding year. [C., '97, § 1437.]

7276. Certificate of redemption—countersigned by treasurer. The auditor shall, upon application of any party to redeem real estate sold for taxes, and being satisfied that he has a right to redeem the same upon the payment of the proper amount, issue to such party a certificate of redemption, setting forth the facts of the sale substantially as contained in the certificate thereof, the date of the redemption, the amount paid, and by whom redeemed, and make the proper entries in the book of sales in his office, and immediately give notice of such redemption to the treasurer. The certificate of redemption shall then be presented to the latter, who shall countersign it, noting such fact in the sale book opposite the entry of the sale, and no certificate of redemption shall be evidence of such redemption without the signature of the treasurer. [R., '60, § 780; C., '73, § 891; C., '97, § 1438.]

7277. Minors and lunatics. If real property of any minor, lunatic or person of unsound mind is sold for taxes, it may be redeemed at any time within one year after such disability is removed, in the manner specified in the following section, or redemption may be made by the guardian or legal representative under sections 7272 to 7274, inclusive, at any time before the delivery of the deed. [R., '60, § 779; C., '73, § 892; C., '97, § 1439.]

NOTE: For applicability of above section and the six following sections to special charter cities, see § 6889.

7279. Notice of expiration of right of redemption. After two years and nine months from the date of sale, the holder of the certificate of purchase may cause to be served upon the person in possession of such real estate, and also upon the person in whose name the same is taxed, if such person resides in the county where the land is situated, in the manner provided for the service of original notices, a notice signed by him, his agent, or attorney, stating the date of sale, the description of the property sold, the name of the purchaser, and that the right of redemption will expire and a deed for the land be made unless redemption is made within ninety days from the completed service thereof. [R., '60, § 781; C., '73, § 894; C., '97, § 1441; S., '13, § 1441; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 24.]

7280. Service of notice. Service may be made upon nonresidents of the county by publishing the same once each week, for three consecutive weeks, in some newspaper of said county, or by personal service thereof elsewhere in the same manner as original notices may be served. [C., '73, § 894; C., '97, § 1441; S., '13, § 1441; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 25.]

of the county in which such land is situated as agent, and file said appointment with the treasurer of said county, who shall forthwith record the same in a record kept in his office therefor, and index the same, after which personal service of said notice shall be made upon said agent. [C., '73, § 894; C., '97, § 1441; S., '13, § 1441; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 25.]

7282. When service deemed complete—presumption. Service shall be complete only after an affidavit has been filed with the treasurer, showing the making of the service, the manner thereof, the time when and place where made, and under whose direction the same was made; such affidavit to be made by the holder of the certificate or by his agent or attorney, and in either of the latter cases stating that such affiant is the agent or attorney, as the case may be, of the holder of such certificate; which affidavit shall be filed by the treasurer and entered upon the sale book opposite the entry of the sale, and said record or affidavit shall be presumptive evidence of the completed service of said notice, and the right of redemption shall not expire until ninety days after service is complete. [C., '73, § 894; C., '97, § 1441; S., '13, § 1441; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 27.]

7283. Cost-fee-report. The cost of serving the notice and affidavit of publication shall be added to the amount necessary to redeem. The fee for serving the notice shall be the same as for service of an original notice, including copy fee and mileage. The treasurer shall, upon the filing of proof of service and statement of costs, forthwith report the same in writing to the auditor, who shall enter it on the sale book against the proper tract of real estate. The holder of the certificate of sale or his agent may report in writing to the county auditor the amount of costs incurred in giving such notice, and the auditor shall enter the same in the sale book. No redemption shall be complete until such costs are paid. C., '73, § 894; C., '97, § 1441; S., '13, § 1441; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 183, § 28.]

7294. Correcting wrongful sale.
7295. Limitation of actions.
7296. Officers de facto.

7284. Deed executed. Immediately after the expiration of ninety days from the date of completed service of the notice provided in section 7282 the treasurer then in office shall make out a deed for each lot or parcel of land sold and unredeemed, and deliver it to the purchaser upon the return of the certificate of purchase. The treasurer shall receive twenty-five cents for each deed made by him, and may include any number of parcels of land purchased by one person in one deed, if desired by him. [C., '51, §§ 503, 504; R., '60, §§ 781, 782; C., '73, § 895; C., '97, § 1442.]

STATE OF IOWA, }
 } ss.
 County. }

7285. Form. Deeds executed by the treasurer shall be substantially in the following form:

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that the following described real estate, viz.: (here follows the description), situated in the county of.....and state of Iowa, was subject to taxation for the year (or years) A. D....., and the taxes assessed thereon for the year (or years) aforesaid remained due and unpaid at the date of the sale hereinafter named; and the treasurer of said county, having on theday of....., A. D....., by virtue of the authority in him vested by law, at (an adjournment of) the sale begun and publicly held on the first Monday of December, A. D., exposed to public sale at the office of the county treasurer in the county aforesaid, in substantial conformity with all the requirements of the statute, the real property above described, for the payment of the taxes, interest and costs then due and remaining unpaid on said property, and at the time and place aforesaid A..... B....., of the county of and state of, having offered to pay the sum of dollars and cents, being the whole amount of taxes, interest and costs then due and remaining unpaid on said property, for (here follows the description of the property sold) which was the least quantity bid for, and payment of said sum having been made by him to said treasurer, the property was stricken off to him at that price; and the said A..... B..... did, on the day of, A. D., duly assign the certificate of the sale of the property as aforesaid and all his right, title and interest to said property to E..... F..... of the county of and state of; and by the affidavit of, filed in said treasurer's office on the day of, A. D., it appears that notice has been given more than ninety days before the execution of these presents to and of the expiration of the time of redemption allowed by law; and three years having elapsed since the date of said sale, and said property having not been redeemed therefrom:

Now, I, C..... D....., treasurer of said county, for the consideration of said sum to the treasurer paid as aforesaid and by virtue of law, have granted, bargained and sold, and by these presents do grant, bargain and sell to the said A..... B..... (or E..... F.....), his heirs and assigns, the real property hereinbefore described, to have and to hold unto him (or E..... F.....), his heirs and assigns, forever; subject, however, to all the rights of redemption provided by law. In witness whereof, I, C..... D....., treasurer as aforesaid, by virtue of the authority aforesaid, have hereunto subscribed my name on this day of....., A. D.

I hereby certify that before me,, in and for said county, personally appeared the above named C..... D....., treasurer of said county, personally known to me to be the treasurer of said county at the date of the execution of the above conveyance, and to be the identical person whose name is affixed to and who executed the above conveyance as treasurer of said county, and acknowledged the execution of the same to be his voluntary act and deed as treasurer of said county, for the purposes therein expressed.

Given under my hand (and seal) this..... day of....., A. D.
[R., '60, § 783; C., '73, § 896; C., '97, § 1443.]

7286. Execution and effect of deed. The deed shall be signed by the treasurer as such, and acknowledged by him before some officer authorized to take acknowledgments, and when substantially thus executed and recorded in the proper record in the office of the recorder of the county in which the property is situated, shall vest in the purchaser all the right, title, interest, and estate of the former owner in and to the land conveyed, and all the right, title, interest, and claim of the state and county thereto. [C., '51, § 503; R., '60, § 784; C., '73, § 897; C., '97, § 1444.]

7287. Presumptive evidence. The deed shall be presumptive evidence in all the courts of this state in all controversies and actions in relation to the rights of the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, to the land thereby conveyed, of the following facts:

1. That the real property conveyed was subject to taxation for the year or years stated in the deed.
2. That the taxes were not paid at any time before the sale.
3. That the real property conveyed had not been redeemed from the sale at the date of the deed.
4. That the property had been listed and assessed.
5. That the taxes were levied according to law.
6. That the property was duly advertised for sale.
7. That the property was sold for taxes as stated in the deed. [C., '51, § 503; R., '60, § 784; C., '73, § 897; C., '97, § 1444.]

7288. Conclusive evidence. The deed shall be conclusive evidence of the following facts:
1. That the manner in which the listing, assessment, levy, notice and sale were conducted was in all respects as the law directed.
2. That the grantee named in the deed was the purchaser.
3. That all the prerequisites of the law were complied with by all the officers who had, or whose duty it was to have had, any part or action in any transaction relating to or affecting the title conveyed or purporting to be conveyed by the deed, from the listing and valuation of the property up to the execution of the deed, both inclusive, and that all things whatsoever required by law to make a good and valid sale and to vest the title in the purchaser were done, except in regard to the points named in the last preceding section wherein the deed shall be presumptive evidence only. [C., '51, § 503; R., '60, § 784; C., '73, § 897; C., '97, § 1444.]

7289. Facts necessary to defeat deed. In all actions involving the title to real estate claimed and held under a deed executed substantially as aforesaid by the treasurer, the person claiming title adverse to the title conveyed thereby shall be required to prove, in order to defeat the title, either:

1. That the real property was not subject to taxation for the year or years named in the deed,

2. That the taxes had been paid before the sale,

3. That the property had been redeemed from the sale and that such redemption was had or made for the use and benefit of persons having the right of redemption, or

4. That there had been an entire omission to list or assess the property, or to levy the taxes, or to give notice of the sale, or to sell the property. [C., '51, § 503; R., '60, § 784; C., '73, § 897; C., '97, § 1445.]

7290. Additional facts necessary. No person shall be permitted to question the title acquired by a treasurer's deed without first showing that he, or the person under whom he claims title, had title to the property at the time of the sale, or that the title was obtained from the United States or this state after the sale, and that all taxes due upon the property have been paid by such person, or the person under whom he claims title. [R., '60, § 784; C., '73, § 897; C., '97, § 1445.]

7291. Sale made by mistake. In any case where a person had paid his taxes, and through mistake in the entry made in the treasurer's books, or in the receipt, the land upon which the taxes were paid was afterward sold, the treasurer's deed shall not convey the title. [R., '60, § 784; C., '73, § 897; C., '97, § 1445.]

7292. Fraudulent sale. In all cases where the owner of the lands sold for taxes shall resist the validity of the tax title, he may prove fraud committed by the officer selling the same, or in the purchaser, to defeat the same, and, if fraud is established, the sale and title shall be void. [R., '60, § 784; C., '73, § 897; C., '97, § 1445.]

7293. Wrongful sales—purchaser indemnified. When, by mistake or wrongful act of the treasurer, land has been sold on which no tax was due at the time, or when land is sold in consequence of error in describing it in the tax receipt, the county shall hold the purchaser harmless by paying him the amount of principal, interest, and costs to which he would have been entitled had the land been rightfully sold, and the treasurer and his bondsmen shall be liable to the county therefor to the amount of his official bond; or the purchaser, or his assignee, may recover the same directly of him and his bondsmen. [C., '51, § 509; R., '60, § 785; C., '73, § 899; C., '97, § 1446.]

NOTE: Above section and the two following sections made applicable to special charter cities by § 6895.

7296. Officers de facto. In all actions and controversies involving the question of title to real property held under a treasurer's deed, all acts of assessors, treasurers, auditors, supervisors and other officers de facto shall be of the same validity as acts of officers de jure. [R., '60, § 786; C., '73, § 903; C., '97, § 1449.]

APPORTIONMENT OF TAXES

7297. Application.

7298. Notice.

7299. Order—record.

7300. Correction of books.

7301. Effect of order.

7302. Appeal.

7303. Trial on appeal.

7304. Interpretative clause.

7297. Application. When a tract of real estate has been assessed and taxed as one item of property, and thereafter and before the tax is paid, the title to different portions of said real estate becomes vested in different parties in severalty, and the said owners are unable to agree as to what portion of the total tax each portion of the real estate should bear, any of said parties may file with the board of supervisors a written application for the apportionment of said tax. [40 G. A., ch. 152, § 1.]

7299. Order—record. On the hearing, the board shall apportion said tax to the different portions of the real estate owned in severalty, in accordance with the values thereof. All orders and determinations of the board shall be entered of record in its minutes. An order of apportionment shall definitely identify each portion of said real estate so owned in severalty. [40 G. A., ch. 152, § 3.]

7300. Correction of books. The county auditor shall, upon the making of an order of apportionment, at once correct the tax books in his possession, in accordance with said order, and if said books have been delivered to the county treasurer, the said auditor shall at once certify said order of apportionment to the said treasurer who shall make said correction. [40 G. A., ch. 152, § 4.]

7301. Effect of order. An order of apportionment, when followed by a correction of the tax book in accordance therewith, shall have the same effect as though the original assessment had been made in the same manner. [40 G. A., ch. 152, § 5.]

7302. Appeal. A party aggrieved by an order of apportionment may appeal therefrom to the district court at any time within ten days from the date of said order, by serving written notice of said appeal on all other parties to said proceeding. Should personal service of said notice within the county be impossible as to any party, any judge of the district court may prescribe the manner of such service. [40 G. A., ch. 152, § 6.]

7303. Trial on appeal. The district court shall try said appeal anew and in equity. The final order of the court shall be certified by the clerk of the district court to the county auditor and shall be treated in the same manner as though originally made by the board of supervisors. [40 G. A., ch. 152, § 7.]

7304. Interpretative clause. This chapter shall not be construed as exclusive of other legal remedies. [40 G. A., ch. 152, § 8.]

7393. Property in this state belonging to foreign estate.
7394. Compromise settlement.
7395. Unknown heirs.
7396. Refund of tax improperly paid.
7397. Contingent estates.

7305. "Person" defined—authority of county attorney. In the construction of this chapter the word "person" shall include plural as well as singular, and artificial as well as natural persons. This chapter shall not be construed to confer upon a county attorney authority to represent the state in any case, and he shall represent the treasurer of state only when especially authorized by him to do so. [S., '13, § 1481-a45; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 14.]

7306. Estates taxable. The estates of all deceased persons in any property whether the decedents be inhabitants of this state or not, and whether such estates consist of real, personal or mixed property, tangible or intangible, and any interest in, or income from any such estate or property which estate or property is, at the death of the decedent owner within this state, or is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state, or thereafter is brought within this state and becomes subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state; or the property of any decedent, domiciled within this state at the time of the death of such decedent, even though the property of such decedent so domiciled was situated outside of the state, except real estate located outside of the state, passing in fee from the decedent owner, which shall pass in any manner herein described shall be subject to tax as herein provided. [C., '97, § 1467; S., '13, § 1481-a; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 2.]

7307. Property included. The tax hereby imposed shall be collected upon the net market value and shall go into the general fund of the state to be determined as herein provided, of any property passing:

1. By will or under the statutes of inheritance of this or any other state or country.

2. By deed, grant, sale, gift, or transfer made in contemplation of the death of the grantor or donor, or any such deed, grant, sale, gift, or transfer made or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after the death of the grantor or donor.

3. Under power of appointment hereafter exercised whether the power was created before or after the taking effect of this chapter.

4. Property which is held jointly or as tenants in the entirety by the decedent and any other person or persons or any deposit in banks, or other institution in their joint names and payable to either or to the survivor, except such part as may be proven to have belonged to the survivor; or any interest of a decedent in property owned by a joint stock or other corporate body whereby the survivor or survivors become beneficially entitled to the decedent's interest upon the death of a share holder. The tax imposed upon the passing of property under the provisions of this paragraph shall apply to property held under all such contracts or agreements whether made before or after the taking effect of this chapter.

5. When the decedent shall have disposed of his estate in any manner to take effect at his death with a request secret or otherwise that the beneficiary give, pay to, or share the property or any interest therein received from the decedent, with other person or persons, or to so dispose of beneficial interests conferred by the decedent upon the beneficiaries as that the property so passing would be taxable under the provisions of this chapter if passing directly by will or deed from the decedent owner to those to receive the gift from the beneficiary, compliance with such request shall constitute a transfer taxable under the provisions of this chapter, at the highest rate possible in like cases of transfers by will or deed. [C., '97, § 1467; S., '13, § 1481-a; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 2.]

7308. Exemptions. The tax imposed by this chapter shall not be collected:

1. When the net value of the estate of decedent passing to the beneficiaries named in class two of section 7313, after deducting the debts as defined herein, does not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars, provided that where such net value of such estate exceeds one thousand dollars then the whole of said net estate shall be subject to said tax.

2. When the property passes to societies or institutions within this state incorporated for educational or religious purposes, or to cemetery associations or societies within this state organized for purposes of public charity, including humane societies.

3. When the property passes to public libraries or public art galleries within this state, open to the use of the public and not operated for gain, or to hospitals within this state, or to municipal corporations for purely public purposes.

4. Bequests for the care and maintenance of the cemetery or burial lot of the decedent or his family, and bequests not to exceed five hundred dollars in any estate of a decedent for the performance of a religious service or services by some person regularly ordained, authorized, or licensed by some religious society to perform such service, which service or services are to be performed for or in behalf of the testator or some person named in his last will. [S., '13, § 1481-a1; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 3.]

7309. Liability for tax. Any person becoming beneficially entitled to any property or interest therein by any method of transfer as herein specified, and all administrators, executors, referees, and trustees of estates or transfers taxable under the provisions of this chapter, shall be respectively liable for all such taxes to be paid by them respectively. [C., '97, § 1467; S., '13, § 1481-a; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 2.]

7311. Lien of tax. The tax shall be and remain a legal charge against and a lien upon such estate, and any and all the property thereof from the death of the decedent owner until paid, provided that said lien shall not continue longer than five years from the date such tax becomes due and payable; provided further, such five year limitation shall not apply to estates or beneficiaries embraced in paragraph 2 of section 7313, in cases where decedent died prior to the taking effect of this chapter. [C., '97, § 1467; S., '13, § 1481-a; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 2; 39 G. A., ch. 164, § 3.]

7312. Transfers in contemplation of death. If the decedent makes a transfer of, or creates a trust with respect to, any property in contemplation of his death, or intended to take effect after his death (except in the case of a bona fide sale for a fair consideration in money or money's worth), and if the tax in respect thereto is not paid when due, the transferee or trustee shall be personally liable for such tax, and such property, to the extent of the decedent's interest therein at the time of his death, shall be subject to a lien for the payment of such tax. [C., '97, § 1467; S., '13, § 1481-a; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 2.]

7313. Rate of tax. The property or any interest therein or income therefrom subject to the provisions of this chapter shall be taxed as herein provided.

1. When such property, interest, or income passes to the wife or the husband of the deceased, in excess of the distributive share of such surviving spouse, grantor, donor, or vendor, or to the father or mother or to any child or lineal descendant of such decedent, grantor, donor, or vendor, including a legally adopted child or illegitimate child entitled to inherit under the laws of this state, the tax imposed shall be on the individual share so passing, and shall be as follows:

One per cent on any amount in excess of fifteen thousand dollars and up to thirty thousand dollars.

One and one-half per cent on any amount in excess of thirty thousand dollars and up to forty-five thousand dollars.

Two per cent on any amount in excess of forty-five thousand dollars and up to sixty thousand dollars.

Two and one-half per cent on any amount in excess of sixty thousand dollars and up to ninety thousand dollars.

Three per cent on any amount in excess of ninety thousand dollars and up to one hundred twenty thousand dollars.

Four per cent on any amount in excess of one hundred twenty thousand dollars and up to one hundred eighty thousand dollars.

Five per cent on any amount in excess of one hundred eighty thousand dollars and up to two hundred forty thousand dollars.

Six per cent on any amount in excess of two hundred forty thousand and up to three hundred thousand dollars.

Seven per cent on all sums in excess of three hundred thousand dollars.

Provided that, in case any such child does not survive the decedent, grantor, donor, or vendor, or, for any reason, sufficient property, interest, or income of such decedent does not pass to such child to equal the amount of the exemption to which such child would be entitled under the provisions of this section, but property, interest, or income passes to the spouse or any lineal descendant of such child, the amount so passing to such child, if any, and the amount passing to such spouse or lineal descendant shall be treated collectively as one inheritance and the persons receiving such collective inheritance shall collectively be entitled to the same exemption, prorated according to the amount passing to each of such persons as if such inheritance had passed entirely to such child.

2. When the property or any interest therein or income therefrom taxable under the provisions of this chapter passes to any person firm, corporation, or society other than those designated in paragraph 1 of this section, the rate of tax imposed shall be as follows:

Five per cent on any amount up to one hundred thousand dollars.

Six per cent on any amount in excess of one hundred thousand dollars and up to two hundred thousand dollars.

Seven per cent on all amounts in excess of two hundred thousand dollars. [C., '97, § 1467; S., '13, § 1481-a; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 4; 39 G. A., ch. 164, § 1.]

7315. Alien beneficiaries. When property or any interest therein shall pass to heirs, devisees, or other beneficiaries subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, who are aliens, nonresidents of the United States, the same shall be subject to a tax of twenty per cent of its true value except when such foreign beneficiaries are brothers or sisters of the decedent owner or are within the class described in paragraph 1 of section 7313, when the rate of tax to be assessed and collected therefrom shall be ten per cent of the value of the property or interest so passing. [C., '97, § 1467; S., '13, § 1481-a; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 4.]

7317. Deductions of debts. There shall be deducted from the gross value of the estate as fixed by the inheritance tax appraisers appointed under the provisions of this chapter, or as fixed by the court, the debts defined as follows:

1. From the estate of such decedent who at the time of his death was domiciled within this state, there shall be deducted the debts owing by the decedent at the time of his death, the local and state taxes due from the estate in January of the year of his death, and federal taxes, a reasonable sum for funeral expenses, temporary allowance for the widow and children under fifteen years of age as granted by the probate court or judge thereof, court costs, the costs of appraisal made for the purpose of assessing the inheritance tax, the statutory fee of executors, administrators, or trustees estimated upon the appraised value of the property, the amount paid by the executor or administrator for a bond, the attorney fee in a reasonable amount to be approved by the court for the ordinary probate proceedings in said estate, and no other sum; provided, however, that the debt of such decedent owing for or secured by property outside of this state, shall not be deducted before estimating the tax, except when the property for which the debt is owing or by which it is secured is subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, or when the foreign debt exceeds the value of the property securing it or for which it was contracted, when the excess may be deducted, provided that satisfactory proof of the value of the foreign property and the amount of such debt is furnished to the treasurer of state.

Said debts shall not be deducted unless the same are approved and allowed by the court within eighteen months from the death of the decedent, unless otherwise ordered by the judge or court of the proper county.

2. From the estate of such decedent who at the time of his death is domiciled outside of this state, the state treasurer shall deduct such debts and expenses as are chargeable to the property under the laws of this state, provided that in the event that the executor, administrator, or trustee of such foreign estate files with the clerk of the court having ancillary jurisdiction and with the treasurer of state, or with the treasurer of state in case there is no administration of the estate within this state, a duly certified statement exhibiting the true market value of the entire estate of the decedent owner, and the indebtedness for which the said estate has been adjudged liable, which statement shall be duly attested by the judge of the court having original jurisdiction, the beneficiaries of the said estate shall then be entitled to have deducted such proportion of the said indebtedness of the decedent from the value of the property as the value of the property within this state bears to the value of the entire estate.

3. An amount equal to the value at the time of the decedent's death of any property, real, personal, or mixed, which can be identified as having been received by the decedent as a share in the estate of any person who died within two years prior to the death of the decedent, or which can be identified as having been acquired by the decedent in exchange for property so received, if an estate tax under this chapter was collected from such estate, and if such property is included in decedent's

7318. Inheritance tax and lien book. The clerk of the district court in and for each county shall provide and keep a suitable book, substantially bound and suitably ruled, to be known as the inheritance tax and lien book, in which shall be kept a full and accurate record of all proceedings in cases where property is charged or sought to be charged with the payment of an inheritance tax under the laws of this state, to be printed and ruled so as to show upon one page:

1. The name, place of residence, and date of death of the decedent.
2. Whether the decedent died testate, or intestate, and, if testate, the record and page where the will was probated and recorded.
3. The name and postoffice address of the executor, administrator, trustee, or grantee, with date of appointment or transfer.
4. The names, postoffice addresses, and relationship, if known, of all the heirs, devisees, and grantees.
5. The appraised valuation of the personal property.
6. The amount of inheritance tax due upon said personal property.
7. A record of payment with amount and date.
8. Date of filing objections and names of objectors.
9. Blank for index and reference to all proceedings and for memorandum entries of the court or judge in relation thereto.

Upon the opposite page of such record shall be printed:

1. Real estate derived from (naming decedent) which is subject to the lien prescribed by the statute for inheritance tax.
2. A full and accurate description of such real estate, by forty-acre or fractional tracts, or by lots, or other complete individual description.
3. The appraised valuation as reported by the appraisers, with a reference to the record of their report, as to each piece of such real estate.
4. The amount of the inheritance tax due upon each such piece.
5. A record of payments, with dates and amounts. [S., '13, § 1481-a25; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 10.]

7319. Blanks for reports by executors etc. Upon the appointment and qualification of such executor, administrator, or testamentary trustee, the clerk issuing the letters shall at the same time deliver to him a blank form upon which he shall be required to make detailed report of the following facts:

1. Name and last residence of decedent.
2. Date of death.
3. Whether or not he left a will.
4. Name and postoffice of executor, administrator, or trustee.
5. Name and postoffice of surviving wife or husband, if any.

6. If testate, name and postoffice of each beneficiary under will.

7. Relationship of each beneficiary to the testator.

8. If intestate, name and postoffice of each heir at law.

9. Relationship of each heir at law to decedent.

10. Inventory of all the real estate of the decedent, giving amount and description of each tract.

11. Whether the property passes in possession and enjoyment in fee, for life, or for a term of years. [S., '13, § 1481-a26.]

7320. Report required—delinquency. Within thirty days after his qualification, each executor, administrator, or testamentary trustee shall make and return to the clerk, under oath, a full and detailed report as indicated in the preceding section, any will to the contrary notwithstanding, and upon his failure to do so, the clerk shall forthwith report his delinquency to the district court if in session, or to a judge of said court if in vacation, for such order as may be necessary to enforce an observance of this section. [S., '13, § 1481-a26.]

7321. Copy for treasurer of state. Upon the filing of such report, the clerk of the court shall immediately forward a true copy thereof to the treasurer of state. [S., '13, § 1481-a26.]

7322. Entry of lien. If it appears from the inventory or report so filed that the real estate or any part of it is subject to an inheritance tax, it shall be the duty of the executor or administrator or of any person interested in the property if there be no administration, to cause the lien of the same to be entered upon the lien book in the office of the clerk of the court in each county where each particular tract of said real estate is situated. [S., '13, § 1481-a26.]

7323. Conveyance—effect. When said real estate or any interest therein, is subject to such tax, no conveyance either before or after the entering of said lien, shall discharge the real estate so conveyed from said lien. [S., '13, § 1481-a26.]

7324. Acceptance of final report. No final settlement of the account of any executor, administrator, or trustee shall be accepted or allowed unless a strict compliance with the provisions of sections 7320 and 7322 has been had by such person. [S., '13, § 1481-a26.]

7325. Record of estates by treasurer. The treasurer of state shall record in a book kept in his office for that purpose, all estates reported to him as liable for a tax under the provisions of this chapter, showing:

1. The name of the decedent.
2. The place of his residence or county from which such estate was reported.
3. The date of his death.
4. The name of the administrator, executor, or trustee.

5. The appraised value of the property, or the value of any taxable pecuniary legacy.

6. The amount of indebtedness that was deducted before estimating the tax.

7. The amount of tax collected.

8. The amount of fees paid for reporting and collecting such tax.

9. The amount of tax, if any, refunded. [S., '13, § 1481-a46.]

7326. Record of deferred estates. He shall also keep a separate record of any deferred estate upon which the tax due is not paid within eighteen months from the death of the decedent, showing substantially the same facts as are required in other cases, and also showing:

1. The date and amount of all bonds given to secure the payment of the tax with a list of the sureties thereon.

2. The name of the person beneficially entitled to such estate or interest, with place of residence.

3. A description of the property or a statement of conditions upon which such deferred estate is based or limited. [S., '13, § 1481-a46.]

7327. Administration on application of treasurer. If, upon the death of any person leaving an estate that may be liable to a tax under the provisions of this chapter, a will disposing of such estate is not offered for probate, or an application for administration made within four months from the time of such decease, the treasurer of state may, at any time thereafter, make application to the proper court, setting forth such fact and praying that an administrator may be appointed, and thereupon said court shall appoint an administrator to administer upon such estate. [S., '13, § 1481-a3.]

7328. Administration avoided. When the heirs or persons entitled to inherit the property of an estate subject to the tax hereby imposed, desire to avoid the appointment of an administrator as provided in the preceding section, they or one of them shall, before the expiration of four months from the death of the decedent file under oath the inventories and reports and perform all the duties required by this chapter, of administrators, including the filing of the lien. Proceedings for the collection of the tax when no administrator is appointed, shall conform as nearly as may be to the provisions of this chapter in other cases. [S., '13, § 1481-a3.]

7329. Nonresident administrator. A nonresident of this state shall not be appointed as executor, administrator, or trustee of any estate that may be subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, unless such nonresident first file a bond conditioned upon the payment of all tax, interest and costs for which the estate may be liable, such bond to be signed by not less than two resident freeholders or by an approved surety company and in an amount not less than twenty-five per cent of the total value of the estate, or of the property within this state if the estate is a foreign estate. [S., '13, § 1481-a3.]

7330. Appraisers. In each county the court shall, annually, at the first term of the court therein, appoint three competent residents and freeholders of said county to act as appraisers of all property within its jurisdiction which is charged or sought to be charged with an inheritance tax. Said appraisers shall serve for one year, and until their successors are appointed and qualified. They shall each take an oath to faithfully and impartially perform the duties of the office, but shall not be required to give bond. They shall be subject to removal at any time at the discretion of the court, and the court, or judge thereof in vacation, may also in its discretion, either before or after the appointment of the regular appraisers, appoint other appraisers to act in any given case. Vacancies occurring otherwise than by expiration of term shall be filled by appointment of the court or by a judge in vacation. No person interested in any manner in the estate to be appraised may serve as an appraiser of such estate. [S., '13, § 1481-a4; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 6.]

7331. Commission to appraisers. Whenever it appears that an estate or any property or interest therein is or may be subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, the clerk shall issue a commission to the appraisers, who shall fix a time and place for appraisement, except that if the only interest that is subject to such tax is a remainder or deferred interest upon which the tax is not payable until the determination of a prior estate or interest for life or term of years, he shall not issue such commission until the determination of such prior estate, except at the request of parties in interest who desire to remove the lien thereon. [S., '13, § 1481-a5.]

7332. Notice of appraisement. It shall be the duty of all appraisers appointed under the provisions of this chapter, upon receiving a commission as herein provided, to forthwith give notice to the treasurer of state and other persons known to be interested in the property to be appraised, of the time and place at which they will appraise such property, which time shall not be less than ten days from the date of such notice. The notice shall be served in the same manner as is prescribed for the commencement of civil actions, and if not practicable to serve the notice provided for by statute, they shall apply to the court or a judge thereof in vacation for an order as to notice. [S., '13, § 1481-a6.]

7333. Returns required. Upon service of such notice and the making of such appraisement, the said notice, return thereon and appraisement shall be filed with the clerk, and a copy of such appraisement shall at once be filed by the clerk with the treasurer of state. [C., '97, § 1476; S., '13, § 1481-a6.]

7334. Property in different counties. When property is located in more than one county, the appraisers of the county in which the estate is being administered may appraise the whole estate, or those of the several counties may serve for the property within their respective counties or other appraisers appointed as the district court if in session, or judge thereof in vacation, may direct. [C., '97, § 1476; S., '13, § 1481-a6.]

7335. Objections. The treasurer of state or any person interested in the estate or property appraised may, within twenty days thereafter, file objections to said appraisement and give notice thereof as in beginning civil actions, on the hearing of which as an action in equity either party may produce evidence competent or material to the matters therein involved. [S., '13, § 1481-a7.]

7336. Hearing—order. If upon such hearing the court finds the amount at which the property is appraised is its value on the market in the ordinary course of trade, and the appraisement was fairly and in good faith made, it shall approve such appraisement; but if it finds that the appraisement was made at a greater or less sum than the value of the property in the ordinary course of trade, or that the same was not fairly or in good faith made, it shall set aside the appraisement, appoint new appraisers and so proceed until a fair and good appraisement of the property is made at its value in the market in the ordinary course of trade. [S., '13, § 1481-a7.]

7337. Appeal and notice. The treasurer of state or anyone interested in the property appraised may appeal to the supreme court from the order of the district court approving or setting aside any appraisement to which exceptions have been filed. Notice of appeal shall be served within sixty days from the date of the order appealed from, and the appeal shall be perfected in the time now provided for appeals in equitable actions. [S., '13, § 1481-a7.]

7338. Bond on appeal. In case of appeal the appellant, if he is not the treasurer of state, shall give bond to be approved by the clerk of the court, which bond shall provide that the said appellant and sureties shall pay the tax for which the property may be liable with cost of appeal. [S., '13, § 1481-a7.]

7339. Cancellation of lien. If upon the hearing of objections to the appraisement the court finds that the property is not subject to the tax, the court shall upon expiration of time for appeal, when no appeal has been taken, order the clerk to enter upon the lien book a cancellation of any claim or lien for taxes. If at the end of twenty days from the filing of the appraisement with the clerk, no objections are filed, the appraisement shall stand approved. [S., '13, § 1481-a7.]

7340. Appraisement of transferred property. Within ninety days after the transfer of any property that may be liable for a tax under the provisions of this chapter, except as herein otherwise provided, the clerk of the proper county upon his own motion or upon the application of the treasurer of state, county attorney, or person interested in the property, shall cause the property to be appraised as provided herein. [S., '13, § 1481-a8.]

7341. Appraisal of other property. If there be an estate or property subject to said tax wherein the records in the clerk's office do not disclose that there may be a tax due under the provisions of this chapter, the person or persons interested in the property shall report the matter to the clerk with an application that the property be appraised. [S., '13, § 1481-a8.]

7343. Deduction of debts. The debt of a domestic estate owing for or secured by property outside of the state, shall not be deducted before estimating the tax, except when the property for which the debt is owing or by which it is secured is subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, or when the foreign debt exceeds the value of the property securing it or for which it was contracted, when the excess may be deducted provided that satisfactory proof of the value of the foreign property and the amount of such debt is furnished to the treasurer of state. [S., '13, § 1481-a8.]

7344. Relief from appraisement. All estates subject in whole or in part to the tax imposed by this chapter shall be appraised for the purpose of computing said tax by the regular inheritance tax appraisers; provided that estates liable for the payment of the inheritance tax upon specific legacies, annuities, bequests of money or other property the value of which may be determined without appraisement, and estates which consist of money, book accounts, bank deposits, notes, mortgages, and bonds, need not be appraised by the inheritance tax appraisers if the administrator, executor, or trustee, or the persons entitled to or claiming such property are willing to charge themselves with the full face value of such bequests or property, together with the interest, earnings, or undivided profits which may be due on said properties, at the time of death of the testator or intestate, as the basis for the assessment of said tax. [S., '13, § 1481-a9; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 7.]

7345. Approval of court and treasurer. In all cases the relief from appraisement for the inheritance tax is dependent upon the consent of the treasurer of state, and the subsequent approval thereof by the court or judge thereof in vacation. [S., '13, § 1481-a9; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 7.]

7346. Procedure for relief. In the event that the estate has been duly appraised under the ordinary statutes of inheritance or the property has been sold and such appraisement or selling price is accepted by the treasurer of state as satisfactory for inheritance tax purposes, the court or judge thereof in vacation may, upon proper application, relieve the estate from the appraisement by the inheritance tax appraisers; but in order to obtain such relief, the administrator, executor, trustee, or other party interested must file an application for relief with the consent of the treasurer of state thereto in the office of the clerk of the court before said clerk issues a commission to the inheritance tax appraisers. [S., '13, § 1481-a9; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 7.]

7347. Relief on exempt estate. The court or judge thereof in vacation may, upon application of the representatives of the estate or parties interested, relieve the estate of the appraisement for tax purposes if it be shown to said court that the market value of the entire estate will not exceed one thousand dollars; provided that prior to the application to said court or judge the written consent of the treasurer of state to such relief is procured. [S., '13, § 1481-a9.]

7348. Record as to relief from appraisement. In all cases where an estate is relieved from an appraisement for inheritance tax purposes, the order granting relief shall be recorded in the clerk's office, and the fact of such relief and reasons therefor shall be duly noted in the decree or order of final settlement made by the court. [S., '13, § 1481-a9; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 7.]

7349. Remainders — appraisement. When any person, whose estate over and above the amount of his debts, as defined in this chapter, exceeds the sum of one thousand dollars, shall bequeath or devise or otherwise transfer any real property to or for the use of persons exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter, during life or for a term of years, and the remainder to a person or persons not thus exempt, said property, upon the determination of such estate for life or years, shall be appraised at its then actual market value from which shall be deducted the value of any improvements thereon, or betterments thereto, if any, made by the remainderman during the time of the prior estate, to be ascertained and determined by the appraisers and the tax on the remainder shall be paid by such remainderman as provided in section 7351. [S., '13, § 1481-a10; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 8.]

7350. Life and term estates—appraisement. Whenever any real property of a decedent shall be subject to such tax and there be an estate or interest for life or term of years given to a party other than those especially exempt by this chapter, the clerk shall cause such property to be appraised at the actual market value thereof, as is provided in ordinary cases, and the party entitled to such estate or interest shall, within one year from the death of decedent owner, pay such tax, and in default thereof the court shall order such interest in said estate, or so much thereof as shall be necessary to pay such tax and interest, to be sold. [S., '13, § 1481-a11.]

7351. Deferred estate—appraisement. Upon the determination of any prior estate or interest, when the remainder or deferred estate or interest or any part thereof is subject to such tax and the tax upon such remainder or deferred interest has not been paid, the person or persons entitled to such remainder or deferred interest shall immediately report to the clerk of the proper court the fact of the determination of the prior estate, and upon receipt of such report, or upon information from any source, of the determination of any such prior estate when the remainder interest has not been appraised for the purpose of assessing such tax, the clerk shall forthwith issue a commission to the inheritance tax appraisers, who shall immediately proceed to appraise the property as provided in like cases in section 7349 and the tax upon such remainder interest shall be paid by the remainderman within one year next after the determination of the prior estate. If such tax is not paid within said time the court shall then order said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay such tax and interest, to be sold. [S., '13, § 1481-a11; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 9.]

7352. Life and term estates in personal property. Whenever any personal property shall be subject to the tax imposed by this chapter and there be an estate or interest for life or term of years given to one or more persons and remainder or deferred estate to others, the clerk shall cause the property so devised or conveyed to be appraised as provided herein in ordinary estates and the value of the several estates or interests so devised or conveyed shall be determined as provided in section 7356, and the tax upon such estates or interests as are liable for the tax imposed by this chapter shall be paid to the treasurer of state from the property appraised or by the persons entitled to such estate or interest within eighteen months from the death of the testator, grantor, or donor; provided, however, that payment of the tax upon any deferred estate or remainder interest may be deferred until the determination of the prior estate by the giving of a good and sufficient bond as provided in the next succeeding section. [S., '13, § 1481-a12.]

bond shall be declared forfeited, and the amount thereof forthwith collected. When the estate of a decedent consists in part of real and in part of personal property, and there be an estate for life or for a term of years to one or more persons and a deferred or remainder estate to others, and such deferred or remainder estate is in whole or in part subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, if the deferred or remainder estates or interests are so disposed that good and sufficient security for the payment of the tax for which such deferred or remainder estates may be liable can be had because of the lien imposed by this chapter upon the real property of such estate, then payment of the tax upon such deferred or remainder estates may be postponed until the determination of the prior estate without giving bond as herein required to secure payment of such tax, and the tax shall remain a lien upon such real estate until the tax upon such deferred estate or interest is paid. [S., '13, § 1481-a13.]

7354. Bonds—conditions. All bonds required by this chapter shall be payable to the treasurer of state and shall be conditioned upon the payment of the tax, interest, and costs for which the estate may be liable, and for the faithful performance of all the duties hereby imposed upon and required of the person whose acts are by such bond to be guaranteed, and shall be in an amount equal to twice the amount of the tax, interest, and costs that may be due, but in no case less than five hundred dollars, and must be secured by not less than two resident freeholders or by a fidelity or surety company authorized by the commissioner of insurance to do business in this state. [S., '13, § 1481-a14.]

7355. Removal of property from state—bond. It shall be unlawful for any person to remove from this state any property, or the proceeds thereof, that may be subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, without paying the said tax to the treasurer of state. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be fined an amount equal to twice the amount of tax, interest, and costs for which the estate may be liable, but in no case less than two hundred dollars, and imprisoned as the court shall direct, until the fine is paid; provided, however, that the penalty hereby imposed shall not be enforced if, prior to the removal of such property or the proceeds thereof, the person desiring to effect such removal files with the clerk a bond conditioned upon the payment of the tax, interest, and costs, as is provided in the preceding section hereof. [S., '13, § 1481-a15.]

7356. Annuities—life and term estates. The value of any annuity, deferred estate, or interest, or any estate for life or term of years, subject to the inheritance tax, shall be determined for the purpose of computing said tax by the rule of standards of mortality and of value commonly used in actuaries' combined experience tables as now provided by law. The taxable value of annuities, life or term, deferred or future estates, shall be computed at the rate of four per cent per annum of the appraised value of the property in which such estate or interest exists or is founded. [S., '13, § 1481-a16; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 10.]

7357. Deferred estates—removal of lien. Whenever it is desired to remove the lien of the inheritance tax on remainders, reversions, or deferred estates, parties owning the beneficial interest may pay at any time the said tax on the present worth of such interests determined according to the rules herein fixed. [S., '13, § 1481-a16; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 10.]

7358. Duty of executor to pay tax. It is hereby made the duty of all executors, administrators, trustees, or other persons charged with the management or settlement of any estate subject to the tax provided for in this chapter, to collect and pay to the treasurer of state the amount of the tax due from any devisee, grantee, donee, heir, or beneficiary of the decedent, except in cases where payment of the tax is deferred until the determination of a prior estate, in which cases the treasurer of state shall collect the same. [S., '13, § 1481-a17.]

7359. Sale to pay tax. Executors, administrators, trustees, or the state treasurer, shall have power to sell so much of the property of the decedent as will enable them to pay said tax, in the same manner as is now provided by law for the sale of such property for the payment of debts of testators or intestates. [S., '13, § 1481-a17.]

7360. Action to collect. The treasurer of state may bring, or cause to be brought in his name of office, suit, for the collection of said tax, interest and costs, against the executor, administrator, or trustee, or against the person entitled to property subject to said tax, or upon any bond given to secure payment thereof, either jointly or severally, and obtaining judgment may cause execution to be issued thereon as is provided by statute in other cases. The proceedings shall conform as nearly as may be to those for the collection of ordinary debt by suit. [S., '13, § 1481-a17.]

7361. Time of payment extended. If because of necessary litigation or other unavoidable cause of delay enforced payment of the tax hereby imposed, by suit and execution, would result in loss or be to the detriment of the best interests of the estate, the court may extend the time for the payment of the tax. Such extensions of time shall not be granted except in cases where security is given for payment of the tax, interest, and costs. [S., '13, § 1481-a17.]

or trustee having in charge or trust any property of an estate subject to said tax, and which is made payable by him, shall deduct the tax therefrom or shall collect the tax thereon from the legatee or person entitled to said property and pay the same to the treasurer of state, and he shall not deliver any specific legacy or property subject to said tax to any person until he has collected the tax thereon. [S., '13, § 1481-a18.]

7363. Final settlement to show payment. No final settlement of the account of any executor, administrator, or trustee shall be accepted or allowed unless it shall show, and the court shall find, that all taxes imposed by the provisions of this chapter upon any property or interest therein, that is hereby made payable by such executors, administrators, or trustees, and to be settled by said account, shall have been paid, and the receipt of the treasurer of state for such tax shall be the proper voucher for such payment. Any order contravening the provision of this section shall be void. Upon the filing of such receipt showing payment of the tax, the clerk shall record the same upon the inheritance tax lien book in his office. [S., '13, § 1481-a19; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 10.]

7364. Jurisdiction of court. The district court in the county in which some part of the property is situated, of the decedent who was not a resident, or such court in the county of which the deceased was a resident at the time of his death or where such estate is administered, shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all questions regularly brought before it in relation to said tax that may arise affecting any devise, legacy, annuity, transfer, grant, gift, or inheritance, subject to appeal as in other cases. [S., '13, § 1481-a20.]

7366. Bequests to executors or trustees. Whenever a decedent appoints one or more executors or trustees and, in lieu of their allowance or commission, makes a bequest or devise of property to them which would otherwise be liable to said tax, or appoints them his residuary legatees, and said bequests, devises, or residuary legacies exceed the statutory fees as compensation for their services, such excess shall be liable to such tax. [S., '13, § 1481-a21.]

7367. Legacies charged upon real estate. Whenever any legacies subject to said tax are charged upon or payable out of any real estate, the heir or devisee, before paying the same, shall deduct said tax therefrom and pay it to the executor, administrator, trustee, or treasurer of state, and the same shall remain a charge against and be a lien upon said real estate until it is paid; and payment thereof shall be enforced by the executor, administrator, trustee, or treasurer of state in his name of office as herein provided. [S., '13, § 1481-a22.]

7368. Maturity of tax—interest. All taxes imposed by this chapter shall be payable to the treasurer of state and, except when otherwise provided in this chapter, shall be paid within eighteen months from the death of the testator or intestate. All taxes not paid within the time prescribed in this chapter shall draw interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum thereafter until paid. [S., '13, § 1481-a23.]

7369. Clerk furnished receipt showing payment. Upon payment of such tax the treasurer of state shall forthwith transmit a duplicate receipt, to the clerk of the court of the county in which the estate is being settled, showing the payment of such tax. [S., '13, § 1481-a23.]

7370. Treasurer to enforce collection. It shall be the duty of the treasurer of state to enforce the collection of the delinquent inheritance tax, and the provisions of law with reference thereto. [38 G. A., ch. 300, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 209, § 58.]

7371. Investigation by treasurer. The treasurer of state is hereby authorized and empowered to issue a citation to any person who he may believe or have reason to believe has any knowledge or information concerning any property which he believes or has reason to believe has been transferred by any person and as to which there is or may be a tax due to the state under the provisions of the inheritance tax laws of this state, and by such citation require such person to appear before him or anyone designated by him at the county seat of the county where said person resides and at a time to be designated in such citation, and testify under oath as to any fact or information within his knowledge touching the quantity, value, and description of any such property and the disposition thereof which may have been made by any person, and to produce and submit to the inspection of the treasurer of state, any books, records, accounts, or documents in the possession of or under the control of any person so cited. [39 G. A., ch. 38, § 15.]

7372. Inspection of books, records, etc. The treasurer of state shall also have the power to inspect and examine the books, records, and accounts of any person, firm or corporation, including the stock transfer books of any corporation, for the purpose of acquiring any information deemed necessary or desirable by him for the proper enforcement of the inheritance tax laws of this state, and the collection of the full amount of the tax which may be due to the state thereunder. [39 G. A., ch. 38, § 15.]

7373. Information confidential. Any and all information acquired by the treasurer of state under and by virtue of the means and methods provided for by the two preceding sections shall be deemed and held by him as confidential and shall not be disclosed by him except so far as the same may be necessary for the enforcement and collection of the inheritance tax provided for by the laws of this state. [39 G. A., ch. 38, § 15.]

7374. Contempt. Refusal of any person to attend before the treasurer of state in obedience to any such citation, or to testify, or produce any books, accounts, records or documents in his possession or under his control and submit the same to inspection of the treasurer of state when so required, may, upon application of the treasurer of state, be punished by any district court in the same manner as if the proceedings were pending in such court. [39 G. A., ch. 38, § 15.]

7375. Fees. Witnesses so cited before the treasurer of state, and any sheriff or other officer serving such citation shall receive the same fees as are allowed in civil actions; to be audited by the board of audit and paid upon the certificate of the treasurer of state out of funds not otherwise appropriated. [39 G. A., ch. 38, § 15.]

7376. Proof of amount of tax due. Before issuing his receipt for the tax, the treasurer of state may demand from administrators, executors, trustees, or beneficiaries such information as may be necessary to verify the correctness of the amount of the tax and interest, and when such demand is made they shall send to said treasurer certified copies of wills, deeds, or other papers, or of such parts of their reports as he may demand, and upon the refusal or neglect of said parties to comply with the demand of the treasurer of state, it is the duty of the clerk of the court to comply with such demand, and the expenses of making such copies and transcripts shall be charged against the estate, as are other costs in probate, or the tax may be assessed without deducting debts for which the estate may be liable. [S., '13, § 1481-a24.]

7377. Extension of time of appraisement. Whenever, by reason of the complicated nature of an estate, or by reason of the confused condition of the decedent's affairs, it is impracticable for the executor, administrator, trustee, or beneficiary of said estate to file with the clerk of the court a full, complete, and itemized inventory of the personal assets belonging to the estate, within the time required by statute for filing inventories of the estates, the court may, upon the application of such representatives or parties in interest, extend the time for making the inheritance appraisement for a period not to exceed three months beyond the time fixed by this chapter. [S., '13, § 1481-a27; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 10.]

7378. Heirs at law to make report. Whenever any property passing under the intestate laws may be subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, the person or persons entitled to such property shall make or cause to be made to the clerk of the courts of the county wherein such property is located, within ninety days next following the death of such intestate, a report in writing embodying therein substantially the information required by section 7319. Failure to furnish such report or to probate the will in a testate estate shall not relieve the estate from the lien created hereby or the persons entitled to the property of such decedent from payment of the tax, interest, or other penalties imposed by this chapter. [S., '13, § 1481-a28.]

7379. Taxable estates — record by clerk. The clerk shall enter upon the inheritance tax and lien book the title of all estates subject to the inheritance tax as shown by the inventories or lists of heirs filed in his office, or as reported to him by the county attorney, treasurer of state, or other person, and shall enter in said book as against each estate or title at the appropriate place, all such information relating to the situation and condition of the estate as he may be able to obtain from the papers filed in his office, or from any other source, as may be necessary to the collection and enforcement of the tax. He shall also immediately index in the book kept in his office for that purpose, all liens entered upon the inheritance tax and lien book. Failure to make such entries as are herein required shall not operate to relieve the estate from the lien or defeat the collection of the tax. [S., '13, § 1481-a29; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 10.]

7381. Clerk to report taxable estates. It shall be the duty of each clerk of the district court to make examination from time to time of all reports filed with him by administrators, executors, and trustees, pursuant to law; also to make examination of all foreign wills offered for probate or recorded within his county, as well as of the record of deeds and conveyances in the recorder's office of said county, and if from such examination or from information or knowledge coming to him from any other source, he finds or believes that any property within his county, or within the jurisdiction of the district court of said county, has, since July 4, 1896, passed by will or by the intestate laws of this or any other state, or by deed or other method of conveyance, made in anticipation of or intended to take effect in possession or in enjoyment after the death of the testator, donor, or grantor, to any person other than to or for the use of the persons, societies, or organizations exempt from the tax hereby imposed, he shall make report thereof in writing to the treasurer of state, embodying in such report such information as he may be able to obtain as to the name and residence of decedent, date of death, name and address of administrator, executor, or trustee, the description of any property liable to said tax and the county in which it is located, and name and relationship of all beneficiaries or heirs. [S., '13, § 1481-a31.]

7382. Information by citizen. Any citizen of the state having knowledge of property liable to such tax, against which no proceeding for enforcing collection thereof is pending, may report the same to the clerk and it shall be the duty of such officer to investigate the case, and if he has reason to believe the information to be true, he shall forthwith enter the estate and report the same substantially as above indicated. [S., '13, § 1481-a31.]

7384. Payment of fee. Except when this information has first been received from another source, the treasurer of state, when he has issued his receipt for the tax in such estate, shall certify to the auditor of state the amount due the clerk for such service and the auditor of state shall issue his warrant on the treasurer of state in favor of said clerk for the sum due as herein provided. [S., '13, § 1481-a31.]

7385. Duty of recorder. Each county recorder shall, upon the filing in his office of any deed, bill of sale, or other transfer of any description whatsoever which shows upon its face that it was made or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after the death of the maker of such instrument, forward to the treasurer of state a certified copy thereof. [39 G. A., ch. 38, § 11.]

7386. Conflicting claims for fees. In the event of uncertainty or of conflicting claims as to fees due county attorneys or clerks under this chapter, the treasurer of state is empowered to determine the amount of fees, to whom payable, and when the same are due and, as far as possible, such determination shall be in accord with fixed rules made by the treasurer of state. [S., '13, § 1481-a33.]

treasurer of state of such fact, and the clerk shall enter said estate on the inheritance tax book. Should any estate, or the name of any grantee or grantees be placed upon the book at the suggestion of the clerk or by order of court, in which the papers already on file in the clerk's office do not disclose that an inheritance tax is due or payable, the clerk shall forthwith give to all parties in interest such notice as the court or judge may prescribe, requiring them to appear on a day to be fixed by the said court or judge, and show cause why the property should not be appraised and subjected to said tax. At any such hearing any person may be required to appear and answer as to his knowledge of any such estate or property, and it shall be the duty of the clerk to notify the treasurer of state of the time and place of such hearing. If upon any such hearing the court is satisfied that any property of the decedent, or any property devised, granted, or donated by him is subject to the tax, the same proceeding shall be had as in other cases, so far as applicable. [S., '13, § 1481-a34; 39 G. A., ch. 38, §§ 10, 19.]

7388. Costs charged against estate — exceptions. In all cases where an estate or interest therein so passes as to be liable to taxation under this chapter, all costs of the proceedings had for the assessment of such tax shall be chargeable to such estate as other costs in probate proceedings and, to discharge the lien, all costs as well as the taxes must be paid. In all other cases the costs are to be paid as ordered by the court. When a decision adverse to the state has been rendered, with an order that the state pay the costs, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court in which such action was pending to certify the amount of such costs to the treasurer of state, who shall, if said costs be correctly certified and the case has been finally terminated and the tax if any due has been paid, present the claim to the state board of audit to audit and, said claim being allowed by said board, the auditor of state is directed to issue a warrant on the treasurer of state in payment of such costs. [S., '13, § 1481-a35.]

7389. Securities and assets held by bank, etc. No safe deposit company, trust company, bank, or other institution, person or persons holding securities or assets of the decedent shall deliver or transfer the same to the executor, administrator, or legal representative of said decedent unless the tax for which such securities or assets are liable under this chapter shall be first paid, or the payment thereof is secured by bond as herein provided. It shall be lawful for and the duty of the treasurer of state personally, or by any person by him duly authorized, to examine such securities or assets at the time of any proposed delivery or transfer. Failure to serve ten days' notice of such proposed transfer upon the treasurer of state or to allow such examination on the delivery of such securities or assets to such executor, administrator, or legal representative shall render such safe deposit company, trust company, bank, or other institution, person or persons liable for the payment of the tax upon such securities or assets as provided in this chapter. [S., '13, § 1481-a36.]

7390. Transfer of corporation stock. If a foreign executor, administrator, or trustee shall assign or transfer any corporate stock or obligations in this state standing in the name of a decedent, or in trust for a decedent, liable to such tax, the tax shall be paid to the treasurer of state on or before the transfer thereof; otherwise the corporation permitting its stock to be so transferred shall be liable to pay such tax, interest, and costs, and it is the duty of the treasurer of state to enforce the payment thereof. [S., '13, § 1481-a37.]

7391. Corporations to report transfers. Every Iowa corporation organized for pecuniary profit shall, on July first of each year, by its proper officers under oath, make a full and correct report to the treasurer of state of all transfers of its stocks made during the preceding year by any person who appears on the books of such corporation as the owner of such stock, when such transfer is made to take effect at or after the death of the owner or transferor, and all transfers which are made by an administrator, executor, trustee, referee, or any person other than the owner or person in whose name the stocks appeared of record on the books of such corporation, prior to the transfer thereof. Such report shall show the name of the owner of such stocks and his place of residence, the name of the person at whose request the stock was transferred, his place of residence and the authority by virtue of which he acted in making such transfer, the name of the person to whom the transfer was made, and the residence of such person, together with such other information as the officers reporting may have relating to estates of persons deceased who may have been owners of stock in such corporation. If it appears that any such stock so transferred is subject to tax under the provisions of this chapter, and the tax has not been paid, the treasurer of state shall notify the corporation in writing of its liability for the payment thereof, and shall bring suit against such corporation as in other cases herein provided unless payment of the tax is made within sixty days from the date of such notice. [S., '13, § 1481-a38.]

7392. Foreign estates—deduction of debts. Whenever any property belongs to a foreign estate, which estate in whole or in part passes to persons not exempt herein from such tax, the said tax shall be assessed upon the market value of said property remaining after the payment of such debts and expenses as are chargeable to the property under the laws of this state. In the event that the executor, administrator, or trustee of such foreign estate files with the clerk of the court having ancillary jurisdiction, and with the treasurer of state, duly certified statements exhibiting the true market value of the entire estate of the decedent owner, and the indebtedness for which the said estate has been adjudged liable, which statements shall be duly attested by the judge of the court having original jurisdiction, the beneficiaries of said estate shall then be entitled to have deducted such proportion of the said indebtedness of the decedent from the value of the property as the value of the property within this state bears to the value of the entire estate. [S., '13, § 1481-a39.]

7393. Property in this state belonging to foreign estate. Whenever any property, real or personal, within this state belongs to a foreign estate and said foreign estate passes in part exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter and in part subject to said tax and there is no specific devise of the property within this state to exempt persons or if it is within the authority or discretion of the foreign executor, administrator, or trustee administering the estate to dispose of the property not specifically devised to exempt persons in the payment of debts owing by the decedent at the time of his death, or in the satisfaction of legacies, devises, or trusts given to direct or collateral legatees or devisees or in payment of the distributive shares of any direct and collateral heirs, then the property within the jurisdiction of this state belonging to such foreign estate shall be subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, and the tax due thereon shall be assessed as provided in section 7392 relating to the deduction of the proportionate share of indebtedness; provided, however, that if the value of the property so situated exceeds the total amount of the estate passing to other persons than those exempt hereby from the tax imposed by this chapter, such excess shall not be subject to said tax. [S., '13, § 1481-a40; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 12.]

7394. Compromise settlement. Whenever an estate charged or sought to be charged with the inheritance tax is of such a nature, or is so disposed, that the liability of the estate is doubtful, or the value thereof can not with reasonable certainty be ascertained under the provisions of law, the treasurer of state may, with the written approval of the attorney general, which approval shall set forth the reasons therefor, compromise with the beneficiaries or representatives of such estates, and compound the tax thereon; but said settlement must be approved by the district court or judge of the proper court, and after such approval the payment of the amount of the taxes so agreed upon shall discharge the lien against the property of the estate. [S., '13, § 1481-a41; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 10.]

7395. Unknown heirs. Whenever the heirs or persons entitled to any estate or any interest therein are unknown or their place of residence can not with reasonable certainty be ascertained, a tax of five per cent shall be paid to the treasurer of state upon all such estates or interests, subject to refund as provided herein in other cases; provided, however, that if it be afterwards determined that any estate or interest passes to aliens, there shall be paid within sixty days after such determination and before delivery of such estate or property, an amount equal to the difference between five per cent, the amount paid, and the amount which such person should pay under the provisions of this chapter. [S., '13, § 1481-a42.]

7396. Refund of tax improperly paid. When, within five years after the payment of the tax, a court of competent jurisdiction may determine that property upon which an inheritance tax has been paid is not subject to or liable for the payment of such tax, or that the amount of tax paid was excessive, so much of such tax as has been overpaid to the treasurer of state shall be returned or refunded to the executor or administrator of such estate, or to those entitled thereto. When a certified copy of the record of such court showing the fact of nonliability of such property to the payment of such tax has been filed with the executive council of the state, the executive council shall, if the case has been finally determined, issue an order to the auditor of state directing him to issue a warrant upon the treasurer of state to refund such tax. Such order of court shall not be given until fifteen days' notice of the application therefor shall have been given to the treasurer of state of the time and place of the hearing of such application, which notice shall be served in the same manner as provided for original notices. [S., '13, § 1481-a43; 39 G. A., ch. 38, § 13.]

7397. Contingent estates. Estates in expectancy which are contingent or defeasible and in which proceedings for the determination of the tax have not been taken or where the taxation thereof has been held in abeyance, shall be appraised at their full, undiminished value when the persons entitled thereto shall come into the beneficial enjoyment or possession thereof, without diminution for or on account of any valuation theretofore made of the particular estates for purposes of taxation, upon which said estates in expectancy may have been limited. When an estate, devise, or legacy can be divested by the act or omission of the legatee or devisee, it shall be taxed as if there were no possibility of such divesting. When a devise, bequest, or transfer is one in part contingent, and in part vested so that the beneficiary will come into possession and enjoyment of a portion of his inheritance on or before the happening of the event upon which the possible defeating contingency is based, a tax shall be imposed and collected upon such bequest or transfer as upon a vested interest, at the highest rate possible under the terms of this chapter if no such contingency existed; provided that in the event such contingency reduces the value of the estate or interest so taxed, and the amount of tax so paid is in excess of the tax for which such bequest or transfer is liable upon the removal of such contingency, such excess shall be refunded as is provided in the preceding section in other cases. [S., '13, § 1481-a44.]

SECURITY OF THE REVENUE

7398. County responsible to state.
 7399. Defaulting treasurer.
 7400. Interest on warrants.
 7401. Discounting warrants.
 7402. Loans by county treasurer.
 7403. Loans by state treasurer.
 7404. Deposits by county treasurer.
 7405. Bond required.
 7406. Filing of bond—action thereon.
 7407. Nonrelease of principal or sureties.
 7408. Settlement with treasurer.
 7409. Settlement by retiring treasurer.

7398. County responsible to state. Each county is responsible to the state for the full amount of tax levied for state purposes, excepting such amounts as are certified to be unavailable, double, or erroneous assessments. [R., '60, § 793; C., '73, § 908; C., '97, § 1453.]

7399. Defaulting treasurer. If any treasurer prove to be a defaulter to any amount of state revenue, such amount shall be made up to the state within the next three years by additional levies in such manner as to annual amounts as the board of supervisors may direct. [R., '60, § 794; C., '73, § 909; C., '97, § 1454.]

7400. Interest on warrants. When interest is due and allowed by the treasurer of any county or the treasurer of state on the redemption of auditor's warrants or county warrants, the same shall be receipted on the warrants by the holder, with the date of the payment, and no interest shall be allowed by the auditor of state or board of supervisors except such as is thus receipted. [R., '60, § 795; C., '73, § 910; C., '97, § 1455.]

7401. Discounting warrants. If the state treasurer or any county treasurer, by himself or through another, discounts auditor's warrants, either directly or indirectly, he shall upon conviction be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars. [R., '60, § 796; C., '73, § 911; C., '97, § 1456.]

7402. Loans by county treasurer. A county treasurer shall be liable to a like fine for loaning out, or in any manner using for private purposes, state, county, or other funds in his hands. [R., '60, § 797; C., '73, § 912; C., '97, § 1457; S., '13, § 1457.]

7403. Loans by state treasurer. The state treasurer shall be liable to a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars for a like misdemeanor. [R., '60, § 797; C., '73, § 912; C., '97, § 1457; S., '13, § 1457.]

7410. Supervisors to report to state auditor.
 7411. Correct balances.
 7412. Custody of public funds.
 7413. Manner and details of settlement.
 7414. Duty of examining officer.
 7415. Report of settlement filed.
 7416. False statements or reports.
 7417. Official delinquency.
 7418. Refund to counties.
 7419. Warrant for excess.
 7420. Delivery to treasurer.

7404. Deposits by county treasurer. The county treasurer shall, with the approval of the board of supervisors as to place of deposit, by resolution entered of record, deposit state, county, or other funds in any bank or banks in the state to an amount fixed by such resolution at interest at the rate of at least two and one-half per cent per annum on ninety per cent of the daily balances payable at the end of each month, all of which shall accrue to the benefit of the general county fund. [C., '97, § 1457; S., '13, § 1457; 39 G. A., ch. 114, § 2.]

7405. Bond required. Before such deposit is made, such bank shall file a bond with sureties to be approved by the treasurer and the board of supervisors in double the amount deposited, conditioned to hold the treasurer harmless from all loss by reason of such deposit or deposits; provided that in cases where an approved surety company's bond is furnished, said bond may be accepted in an amount equal to ten per cent more than the amount deposited. [C., '97, § 1457; S., '13, § 1457.]

7406. Filing of bond—action thereon. Said bond shall be filed with the county auditor and action may be brought thereon either by the treasurer or the county as the board of supervisors may elect. [C., '97, § 1457; S., '13, § 1457.]

7407. Nonrelease of principal or sureties. Nothing done under the provisions of the five preceding sections shall alter or affect the liability of the treasurer or the sureties of his official bonds. [C., '97, § 1457; S., '13, § 1457.]

7408. Settlement with treasurer. At the meetings in January and June of each year, the board of supervisors shall make a full and complete settlement with the treasurer, and shall certify to the auditor of state all credits to him for double or erroneous assessments and unavailable taxes, and all dues for state revenue, interest, or delinquent taxes, sales of land, peddlers' licenses, and other dues, the amounts collected therefor, and revenues still delinquent, each year to itself, which reports shall be forwarded by mail. [C., '51, §§ 157, 158; R., '60, § 798; C., '73, § 913; C., '97, § 1458.]

7409. Settlement by retiring treasurer. When a county treasurer goes out of office, he shall make a full and complete settlement with the board of supervisors, and deliver up all books, papers, moneys, and all other property pertaining to the office, to his successor, taking his receipt therefor. [R., '60, § 802; C., '73, § 917; C., '97, § 1461.]

7410. Supervisors to report to state auditor. The board of supervisors shall make a statement of state dues to the auditor of state, showing all charges against the treasurer during his term of office, and all credits made, the delinquent taxes and other unfinished business charged over to his successor, and the amount of money paid over to his successor, showing to what year and to what account the amount so paid over belongs. [R., '60, § 802; C., '73, § 917; C., '97, § 1461.]

7411. Correct balances. The board of supervisors shall also see that the books of the treasurer are correctly balanced before passing into the possession and control of the treasurer elect. [R., '60, § 802; C., '73, § 917; C., '97, § 1461.]

7412. Custody of public funds. The state treasurer and each county treasurer shall at all times keep all funds coming into their possession as public money, in a vault or safe, to be provided for that purpose, or in some bank legally designated as a depository for such funds. [R., '60, § 804; C., '73, § 918; C., '97, § 1462; S., '13, § 1462.]

7413. Manner and details of settlement. At the time of any examination of any such office, or at the time of any settlement with the treasurer in charge of any such public funds, the treasurer shall produce and count in the presence of the officer or officers making such examination or settlement, all moneys or funds then on deposit in the safe or vault in his office, and shall produce a statement of all money or funds on deposit with any depository wherein he is authorized to deposit such funds, which statement shall be certified by one or more officers of such depository, and shall correctly show the balance remaining on deposit in such depository at the close of business on the day preceding the day of such settlement. The treasurer shall also file a statement setting forth the numbers, dates, and amounts of all outstanding checks, or other items of difference, reconciling the balance as shown by the treasurer's books with those of the depositories. [R., '60, § 804; C., '73, § 918; C., '97, § 1462; S., '13, § 1462.]

7414. Duty of examining officer. It shall be the duty of the officer or officers making such settlement to see that the amount of money produced and counted, together with the amounts so certified by the legally designated depositories, agrees with the balance with which such treasurer should be charged, and he shall make a report in writing of any such settlement or examination, and attach thereto the certified statement of all such depositories. [S., '13, § 1462.]

7415. Report of settlement filed. The report of any such settlement with the treasurer of state shall be filed in the office of the auditor of state, and the report of a settlement with a county treasurer with the auditor of the county. [S., '13, § 1462.]

7416. False statements or reports. Any officer or other person making a false statement or report or in any manner violating any of the provisions of sections 7412 to 7415, inclusive, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be liable to a fine of not less than five hundred dollars. [S., '13, § 1462-a.]

7417. Official delinquency. If any auditor or treasurer or other officer shall neglect or refuse to perform any act or duty specifically required of him, such officer shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, and he and his bondsmen shall be liable on his official bond for such fine, and for the damages sustained by any person through such neglect or refusal. [R., '60, §§ 744, 749, 805; C., '73, § 919; C., '97, § 1463.]

7418. Refund to counties. The auditor of state shall draw his warrant on the state treasury in favor of any county in the state for the amount of any excess in any fund or tax due the state from said county, excepting the state taxes. [C., '97, § 1464.]

7419. Warrant for excess. When it shall appear from the books in the office of the auditor of state that there is a balance due any county in excess of any revenue due the state, except state taxes, he shall draw his warrant for such excess in favor of the county entitled thereto, and forward the same by mail, or otherwise, to the county auditor of the county to which it belongs, and charge the amount so sent to such county. [C., '97, § 1465.]

7420. Delivery to treasurer. The auditor to whom said warrant is sent shall immediately, upon receipt thereof, deliver it to the treasurer of his county, and charge the amount thereof to the treasurer, and shall acknowledge the receipt of the amount to the state auditor. [C., '97, § 1466.]

7421. Jurisdiction to establish. The board of supervisors of any county shall have jurisdiction, power and authority at any regular, special or adjourned session, to establish a drainage district or districts, and to locate and establish levees, and cause to be constructed as hereinafter provided any levee, ditch, drain, or watercourse, or to straighten, widen, deepen, or change any natural watercourse, in such county, whenever the same will be of public utility or conducive to the public health, convenience, or welfare. [C., '73, § 1207; C., '97, § 1939; S., '13, § 1989-a1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 1.]

7422. Presumption. The drainage of surface waters from agricultural lands or the protection of such lands from overflow shall be presumed to be a public benefit and conducive to the public health, convenience, and welfare. [S., '13, § 1989-a1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 2.]

7423. "Levee" defined—bank protection. For the purpose of this chapter and with reference to improvements along or adjacent to the Missouri river the word "levee" shall be construed to include, in addition to its ordinary and accepted meaning, embankments, revetments, retards, or any other approved system of construction which may be deemed necessary to adequately protect the banks of any river or stream, within or adjacent to any county, from wash, cutting, or erosion. [39 G. A., ch. 45, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 3.]

7424. Definition of terms. Within the meaning of this chapter, the term "board" shall embrace the board of supervisors, the joint boards of supervisors in case of intercounty levee or drainage districts, and the board of trustees in case of a district under trustee management.

The term "commissioners" shall mean the men appointed and qualified to classify lands, fix percentages of benefits, apportion and assess costs and expenses in any levee or drainage district, unless otherwise specifically indicated by law.

The term "appraisers" shall mean the men appointed and qualified to ascertain the value of all land taken and the amount of damage arising from the construction of levee or drainage improvements. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 220-a1.]

7425. General rule for location. The levees, ditches, or drains herein provided for shall, so far as practicable, be surveyed and located along the general course of the natural streams and watercourses or in the general course of natural drainage of the lands of said district; but where it will be more economical or practicable such ditch or drain need not follow the course of such natural streams, watercourses, or course of natural drainage, but may straighten, shorten, or change the course of any natural stream, watercourse, or general course of drainage. [S., '13, § 1989-a2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 4.]

7426. Location across railroad. When any such ditch or drain crosses any railroad right of way, it shall when practicable be located at the place of the natural waterway across such right of way, unless said railroad company shall have provided another place in the construction of the roadbed for the flow of the water; and if located at the place provided by the railroad company, such company shall be estopped from afterwards objecting to such location on the ground that it is not at the place of the natural waterway. [S., '13, § 1989-a2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 5.]

7427. Number of petitioners required. The owner or owners of at least fifteen per cent of the land named in the petition described in section 7429 may file in the office of the county auditor a petition for the establishment of a levee or drainage district. If the district described in the petition is a subdistrict, one or more of the owners of the land affected by the improvement may petition for such subdistrict. [S., '13, §§ 1989-a2, 1989-a23; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 6.]

7428. Straightening creek or river. When the proposed drainage district involves only the straightening of a creek or river, the board of supervisors shall refuse to consider the petition unless the same is signed by owners of at least twenty-five per cent of the acreage affected by or assessed for the expense of the proposed improvement. This section shall not affect drainage projects involving the drainage of swamps or sloughs not in the congressional forty-acre tracts abutting upon such creek or river. [37 G. A., ch. 415, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 7.]

7429. Petition. The petition shall set forth:

1. An intelligible description of the lands sought to be reclaimed, by congressional divisions or otherwise.

2. That said lands are subject to overflow or are too wet for cultivation.

3. That the public benefit, utility, health, convenience, or welfare will be promoted by leveeing, ditching, tiling, or draining said lands, or by changing the watercourses thereon.

4. The starting point, route, terminus, and lateral branches of the proposed improvement. [S., '13, §§ 1989-a2, 1989-a23; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 6.]

7430. Bond. There shall be filed with the petition a bond in an amount fixed and with sureties approved by the auditor, conditioned for the payment of all costs and expenses incurred in the proceedings in case the district is not finally established. [S., '13, § 1989-a2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 8.]

7431. Additional bond. No preliminary expense shall be incurred before the establishment of such proposed improvement district by the board in excess of the amount of bond filed by the petitioners. In case it is necessary to incur any expense in addition to the amount of such bond, the board of supervisors shall require the filing of an additional bond by the petitioners and shall not proceed with the preliminary survey or authorize any additional expense until the additional bond is filed in a sufficient amount to cover such expense. [40 G. A., ch. 154; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 8-a1.]

7432. Engineer—bond. The board shall at its first session thereafter, regular, special, or adjourned, appoint a disinterested and competent civil engineer who shall give bond to the county for the use of the proposed levee or drainage district, if it be established, and if not established, for the use of the petitioners, in amount and with sureties to be approved by the auditor, and conditioned for the faithful and competent performance of his duties. [S., '13, § 1989-a2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 9.]

7433. Compensation. Any engineer employed under the provisions of this chapter shall receive such compensation per diem as shall be fixed and determined by the board of supervisors. [S., '13, § 1989-a41; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 10.]

7434. Discharge. The board may at any time terminate the contract with, and discharge the engineer. [S., '13, § 1989-a2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 11.]

7435. Assistants. Assistants may be employed by the engineer only with the approval of the board, which shall fix their compensation. [S., '13, § 1989-a42; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 12.]

7436. Record of work. The engineer shall keep an accurate record of the kind of work done by himself and each assistant, the place where done, and the time engaged therein, and shall file an itemized statement thereof with the auditor. No expenses shall be incurred by the engineer except upon authority of the board, and vouchers shall be filed with the claims therefor. [S., '13, § 1989-a42; S. S., '15, § 1527-s21b; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 12.]

7437. Survey. The engineer shall examine the lands described in the petition and any other lands which would be benefited by said improvement or necessary in carrying out the same.

He shall locate and survey such ditches, drains, levees, pumping stations, and other improvements as will be necessary, practicable, and feasible in carrying out the purposes of the petition and which will be of public benefit or utility, or conducive to public health, convenience, or welfare. [S., '13, § 1989-a2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 13.]

7438. Report. The engineer shall make full written report to the county auditor, setting forth:

1. The starting point, route, and terminus of each ditch, drain, and levee and the character and location of all other improvements.

2. A plat and profile, showing all ditches, drains, levees, and other improvements, the course, length, and depth of each ditch, the length, size, and depth of each drain, and the length, width, and height of each levee, through each tract of land, and the particular descriptions and acreage of the land required from each forty-acre tract or fraction thereof as right of way, together with the congressional or other description of each tract and the names of the owners thereof as shown by the transfer books in the office of the auditor.

3. The boundary of the proposed district, including therein by color or other designation other lands that will be benefited or otherwise affected by the proposed improvements, together with the location, size, and elevation of all lakes, ponds, and deep depressions therein.

4. Plans for the most practicable and economic place and method for passing machinery, equipment, and material required in the construction of said improvements across any highways, railroads, and other utilities within the proposed district.

5. The probable cost of the proposed improvements, together with such other facts and recommendations as he shall deem material. [S., '13, § 1989-a2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 14.]

7439. Procedure on report. Upon the filing of the report of the engineer recommending the establishment of the levee or drainage district, the board shall at its first regular, adjourned, or special meeting examine and consider the same, and, if the plan is not approved, the board may employ said engineer or another disinterested engineer to report another plan or make additional examination and surveys and file an additional report covering such matters as the board may direct. Additional surveys and reports must be made in accordance with the provisions of the last two preceding sections. At any time prior to the final adoption of the plans they may be amended, and as finally adopted by the board shall be conclusive unless the action of the board in finally adopting them shall be appealed from as hereinafter provided. [S., '13, § 1989-a3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 15.]

7440. Notice of hearing. When any plan and report of the engineer has been approved by the board, such approval shall be entered of record in its proceedings as a tentative plan only for the establishment of said improvement. Thereupon it shall enter an order fixing a date for the hearing upon the petition not less than forty days from the date of the order of approval, and directing the auditor immediately to cause notice to be given to the owner of each tract of land or lot within the proposed levee or drainage district as shown by the transfer books of the auditor's office, including railway companies having right of way in the proposed district and to each lienholder or encumbrancer of any land within the proposed district as shown by the county records, and also to all other persons whom it may concern, including actual occupants of the land in the proposed district, without naming individuals, of the pendency and prayer of the said petition, the favorable report thereon by the engineer, and that such report may be amended before final action, the approval thereof by the board as a tentative plan, and the day and the hour set for hearing on said petition and report, and that all claims for damages except claims for land required for right of way, and all objections to the establishment of said district for any reason must be made in writing and filed in the office of the auditor at or before the time set for such hearing. [S., '13, 1989-a3; 38 G. A., ch. 138 § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 16.]

7441. Service by publication—proof. The notice provided in the preceding section shall be served, except as otherwise hereinafter provided, by publication thereof once each week for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county, the last of which publications shall be not less than twenty days prior to the day set for hearing of the said petition. Proof of such service shall be made by affidavit of the publisher, and be on file with the auditor at the time the hearing begins. [S., '13, § 1989-a3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 17.]

7442. Service on agent. If any person, corporation, or company owning or having interest in any land or other property affected by any proposed improvement under chapters 353 to 362, inclusive, shall file with the auditor an instrument in writing designating the name and postoffice address of his or its agent upon whom service of notice of said proceeding shall be made, the auditor shall, not less than twenty days prior to the date set for hearing upon said petition, send a copy of said notice by registered mail addressed to the agent so designated. Proof of such service shall be made by affidavit of the auditor filed by him in said proceeding at or before the date of the hearing upon the petition, and such service shall be in lieu of all other service of notice to such persons, corporations, or companies.

This designation when filed shall be in force for a period of five years thereafter and shall apply to all proceedings under said chapters during such period. The person, company, or corporation making such designation shall have the right to change the agent appointed therein or to amend it in any other particular. [S., '13, § 1989-a3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 18.]

7443. Personal service. In lieu of publication, personal service of said notice may be made upon any owner of land in the proposed district, or upon any lienholder or other person interested in the proposed improvement, in the manner and for the time required for service of original notices in the district court. Proof of such service shall be on file with the auditor on the date of said hearing. [S., '13, § 1989-a3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 19.]

7444. Waiver of notice. No service of notice shall be required upon any person who shall file with the auditor a statement in writing, signed by him, waiving notice, or who enters an appearance in the proceedings. The filing of a claim for damages or objections to the establishment of said district or other pleading shall be deemed an appearance. [S., '13, § 1989-a3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 20.]

7445. Waiver of objections and damages. Any person, company, or corporation failing to file any claim for damages or objections to the establishment of the district at or before the time fixed for said hearing, except claims for land required for right of way, shall be held to have waived all objections and claims for damages. [S., '13, § 1989-a4; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 21.]

7446. Adjournment for service—jurisdiction retained. If at the date set for hearing, it shall appear that any person entitled to notice has not been properly served with notice, the board may postpone said hearing and set another time for the same not less than thirty days from said date, and notice of such hearing as hereinbefore provided shall be served on such omitted parties. By fixing such new date for hearing and the adjournment of said proceeding to said date, the board shall not lose jurisdiction of the subject matter of said proceeding nor of any parties already served with notice. [S., '13, § 1989-a3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 22.]

7447. Hearing of petition—dismissal. At the time set for hearing on said petition the board shall hear and determine the sufficiency of the petition in form and substance (which petition may be amended at any time before final action thereon), and all objections filed against the establishment of such district, and the board may view the premises included in the said district. If it shall find that the construction of the proposed improvement will not materially benefit said lands or would not be for the public benefit or utility nor conducive to the public health, convenience, or welfare, or that the cost thereof is excessive it shall dismiss the proceedings. [S., '13, § 1989-a5; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 23.]

7448. Establishment—further investigation. If the board shall find that such petition complies with the requirements of law in form and substance, and that such improvement would be conducive to the public health, convenience, welfare, benefit, or utility, and that the cost thereof is not excessive, and no claim shall have been filed for damages, it may locate and establish the said district in accordance with the recommendation of the engineer and the report and plans on file; or it may refuse to establish the proposed district if it deem best, or it may direct the engineer or another one employed for that purpose to make further examination, surveys, plats, profiles, and reports for the modification of said plans, or for new plans in accordance with sections 7437 and 7438, and continue further hearing to a fixed date. All parties over whom the board then has jurisdiction shall take notice of such further hearing; but any new parties rendered necessary by any modification or change of plans shall be served with notice as for the original establishment of a district. The county auditor shall appoint three appraisers as provided for in the next section to assess the value of the right of way required for open ditches or other improvements. [S., '13, § 1989-a5; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 24.]

7449. Appraisers. If the board shall find that such improvement will materially benefit said lands, will be conducive to the public health, convenience, welfare, benefit, or utility, and that the law has been complied with as to form and substance of the petition, the service of notice and the survey and report of the engineer, and that said improvement should be made, then if any claims for damages shall have been filed, further proceedings shall be continued to an adjourned, regular, or special session, the date of which shall be fixed at the time of adjournment, and of which all interested parties shall take notice, and the auditor shall appoint three appraisers to assess damages, one of whom shall be an engineer, and two freeholders of the county who shall not be interested in nor related to any person interested in the proposed improvement, and the said appraisers shall take and subscribe an oath to examine the said premises, ascertain and impartially assess all damages according to their best judgment, skill, and ability. [S., '13, § 1989-a5; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 25.]

7450. Assessment—report—adjournment—other appraisers. The appraisers appointed to assess damages shall view the premises and determine and fix the amount of damages to which each claimant is entitled, and shall place a separate valuation upon the acreage of each owner taken for right of way for open ditches, as shown by plat of engineer, and shall, at least five days before the date fixed by the board to hear and determine the same, file with the county auditor reports in writing, showing the amount of damage sustained by each claimant. Should the report not be filed in time, or should any good cause for delay exist, the board may postpone the time of final action on the subject, and, if necessary, the auditor may appoint other appraisers. [S., '13, § 1989-a6; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 26.]

7451. Award by board. At the time fixed for hearing and after the filing of the report of the appraisers, the board shall examine said report, and may hear evidence thereon, both for and against each claim for damages and compensation, and shall determine the amount of damages and compensation due each claimant, and may affirm, increase, or diminish the amount awarded by the appraisers. [S., '13, § 1989-a6; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 27.]

sion thereof, consider the costs of construction of said improvement as shown by the reports of the engineer and the amount of damages and compensation awarded to all claimants, and, if in its opinion, such costs of construction and amount of damages awarded create a greater burden than should justly be borne by the lands benefited by the improvement, it shall then dismiss the petition and assess the costs and expenses to the petitioners and their bondsmen, but if it finds that such cost and expense is not a greater burden than should be justly borne by the land benefited by the improvement, it shall finally and permanently locate and establish said district and improvement. [S., '13, § 1989-a6; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 27.]

7453. Dismissal on remonstrance. If, at or before the time set for final hearing as to the establishment of a proposed levee, drainage or improvement district, except subdrainage district, there shall have been filed with the county auditor, or auditors, in case the district extends into more than one county, a remonstrance signed by a majority of the land owners in the district, and these remonstrants must in the aggregate own seventy per cent or more of the lands to be assessed for benefits or taxed for said improvements, remonstrating against the establishment of said levee, drainage or improvement district, setting forth the reasons therefor, the board or boards as the case may be, shall assess to the petitioners and their bondsmen or the remonstrators, or apportion the costs among them as the board or boards may deem just or as said parties may agree upon. When all such costs have been paid, the board or boards of supervisors shall dismiss said proceedings and cause to be filed with the county auditor all surveys, plats, reports, and records in relation to the proposed district. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 27-a]

7454. Dissolution. When for a period of two years from and after the date of the establishment of a drainage district, or when an appeal is taken or litigation brought against said district within two years from the date such appeal or litigation is finally determined, no contract shall have been let or work done or drainage certificates or bonds issued for the construction of the improvements in such district, a petition may be filed in the office of the auditor, addressed to the board of supervisors, signed by a majority of the persons owning land in such district and who, in the aggregate, own seventy per cent or more of all the land embraced in said district, setting forth the above facts and reciting that provision has been made by the petitioners for the payment of all costs and expenses incurred on account of such district. The board shall examine such petition at its next meeting after the filing thereof, and if found to comply with the above requirements, shall dissolve and vacate said district by resolution entered upon its records, to become effective upon the payment of all the costs and expenses incurred in relation to said district.

In case of such vacation and dissolution and upon payment of all costs as herein provided, the auditor shall note the same on the drainage record, showing the date when such dissolution became effective. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 27-b.]

7455. Permanent survey, plat, and profile. When the improvement has been finally located and established, the board may if necessary appoint the said engineer or a new one to make a permanent survey of said improvement as so located, showing the levels and elevations of each forty-acre tract of land and file a report of the same with the county auditor together with a plat and profile thereof. [S., '13, § 1989-a6; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 27-a1.]

7456. Paying or securing damages. The amount of damages or compensation finally determined in favor of any claimant, shall be paid in the first instance by the parties benefited by the said improvement, or secured by bond in the amount of such damages and compensation with sureties approved by the auditor. [S., '13, § 1989-a7; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 28.]

7457. Division of improvement. After the damages as finally fixed, shall have been paid or secured, the board shall divide said improvement into suitable sections, having regard to the kind of work to be done, numbering the same consecutively from outlets to the beginning, and prescribing the time within which the improvement shall be completed. [S., '13, § 1989-a7; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 29.]

7458. Supervising engineer—bond. Upon the payment or securing of damages, the board shall appoint a competent engineer to have charge of the work of construction thereof, who shall be required before entering upon the work to give a bond to the county for the use and benefit of the levee or drainage district, to be approved by the auditor in such sum as the board may fix, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties. [S., '13, § 1989-a7; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 30.]

7459. Advertisement for bids. The board shall cause notice to be given by publication once each week for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in the county wherein such improvement is located, and such additional advertisement and publication elsewhere as it may direct, of the time and place of letting the work of construction of said improvement, specifying the approximate amount of work to be done in each numbered section of the district, the time fixed for the commencement, which shall not be prior to the date on which the assessment shall be fixed by the board, and the time of the completion thereof, that bids will be received on the entire work and in sections or divisions thereof, and that each bidder will be required to deposit with his bid cash or certified check on and certified by a bank in Iowa, payable to the auditor or his order, at his office, in an amount equal to ten per cent of his bid, in no case to exceed ten thousand dollars. When the estimated cost of the improvement exceeds fifteen thousand dollars, the board shall make additional publication of such notice as the board may prescribe for two consecutive weeks in some contractors' journal of general circulation. All notices shall fix the date to which bids will be received, and upon which said work will be let. [C., '73, § 1212; C., '97, § 1944; S., '13, § 1944; S. S., '15, § 1989-a8; 39 G. A., ch. 127, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 33.]

7460. Bids—letting of work. The board shall award contract or contracts for each section of the work to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders therefor, bids to be submitted, received and acted upon separately as to the main drain and each of the laterals, exercising their own discretion as to letting such work as to the main drain as a whole, or as to each lateral as a whole, or by sections as to both main drain and laterals, and reserving the right to reject any and all bids and readvertise the letting of the work. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a8; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 34.]

7461. Manner of making bids—deposit. Each bid shall be in writing specifying the portion of the work upon which the bid is made, and filed with the auditor, accompanied with a deposit of cash or a certified check on and certified by a bank in Iowa, payable to the auditor or his order at his office in a sum equal to ten per cent of the amount of the bid, but in any event not to exceed ten thousand dollars. The checks of unsuccessful bidders shall be returned to them, but the checks of successful bidders shall be held as a guarantee that they will enter into contract in accordance with their bids. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a8; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 35.]

7462. Performance bond—return of check. Each successful bidder shall be required to execute a bond with sureties approved by the auditor in favor of the county for the use and benefit of the levee or drainage district and all persons entitled to liens for labor or material in an amount not less than seventy-five per cent of the contract price of the work to be done, conditioned for the timely, efficient, and complete performance of his contract, and the payment, as they become due, of all just claims for labor performed and material used in carrying out said contract. When such contract is executed and bond approved by the board, the certified check deposited with the bid shall be returned to the bidder. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a8; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 36.]

7463. Contracts. All agreements and contracts for work or materials in constructing the improvements of such district shall be in writing, signed by the chairman of the board of supervisors for and on behalf of the district and the parties who are to perform the work or furnish the materials specified in such contract. Such contract shall specify the particular work to be done or materials to be furnished, the time when it shall begin and when it shall be completed, the amount to be paid and the times of payment, with such other terms and conditions as to details necessary to a clear understanding of the terms thereof. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 37.]

7464. Commissioners to classify and assess. When a levee or drainage district shall have been located and finally established, and the contracts for construction let, or, unless otherwise provided by law, when the required proceedings have been taken to enlarge, deepen, widen, change, or extend any of the ditches, laterals, or drains of such district, or the required proceedings have been had to annex additional lands to such district, the board shall appoint three commissioners to assess benefits and classify the lands affected by such improvement. One of such commissioners shall be a competent civil engineer and two of them shall be resident freeholders of the county in which the district is located, but not living within, nor interested in any lands included in, said district, nor related to any party whose land is affected thereby. The commissioners shall take and subscribe an oath of their qualifications and to perform the duties of classification of said lands, fix the percentages of benefits and apportion and assess the costs and expenses of constructing the said improvement according to law and their best judgment, skill, and ability. If said commissioners or any of them fail or neglect to act or perform the duties in the time and as required of them by law, the board shall appoint others with like qualifications to take their places and perform said duties. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a12; 37 G. A., ch. 127, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 38.]

7465. Duties—time for performance—scale of benefits. At the time of appointing said commissioners, the board shall fix the time within which said assessment, classification, and apportionment shall be made, which may be extended for good cause shown. Within twenty days after their appointment, they shall begin to inspect and classify all the lands within said district, or any change, extension, enlargement, or relocation thereof in tracts of forty acres or less according to the legal or recognized subdivisions, in a graduated scale of benefits to be numbered according to the benefit to be received by each of such tracts from such improvement, and pursue said work continuously until completed and, when completed, shall make a full, accurate, and detailed report thereof and file the same with the auditor. The lands receiving the greatest benefit shall be marked on a scale of one hundred, and those benefited in a less degree with such percentage of one hundred as the benefits received bear in proportion thereto. They shall also make an equitable apportionment of the costs, expenses, fees, and damages computed on the basis of the percentages fixed. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a12; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 39.]

7466. Classification as basis for future assessments. This classification when finally established shall remain as a basis for all future assessments connected with the objects of said levee or drainage district, unless the board for good cause shall authorize a revision thereof. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 40.]

NOTE: For similar provision, see § 7476.

7467. Rules of classification. In the report of the appraisers so appointed they shall specify each tract of land by proper description, and the ownership thereof, as the same appears on the transfer books in the auditor's office.

In estimating the benefits as to the lands not traversed by said improvement, they shall not consider what benefits such land shall receive after some other improvements shall have been constructed, but only the benefits which will be received by reason of the construction of the improvement in question as it affords an outlet to the drainage of such lands, or brings an outlet nearer to said lands or relieves the same from overflow. [S., '13, § 1989-a13; S. S., '15, § 1989-a12; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 40.]

7468. Assessment for lateral ditches. In fixing the percentages and assessment of benefits and apportionment of costs of construction on lands benefited by lateral ditches and drains as a part of the entire improvement to be made in a drainage district, the commissioners shall ascertain and fix the percentage of benefits and apportionment of costs to the lands benefited by such lateral ditches on the same basis and in the same manner as if said lateral was with its sublaterals, being constructed as a subdistrict as provided in this chapter, reporting separately:

1. The percentage of benefits and amount accruing to each forty-acre tract or less on account of the construction of the main ditch, drain, or watercourse including pumping plant, if any.

7469. Railroad property—collection. The commissioners to assess benefits and make apportionment of costs and expenses shall determine and assess the benefits to the property of any railroad company extending into or through the levee or drainage district, and make return thereof showing the benefit and the apportionment of costs and expenses of construction. Such assessment when finally fixed by the board shall constitute a debt due from the railroad company to the district, and unless paid it may be collected by ordinary proceedings for the district in the name of the county in any court having jurisdiction. All other proceedings in relation to railroads, except as otherwise provided, shall be the same as provided for individual property owners within the levee or drainage district. [S., '13, § 1989-a18; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 42.]

7470. Public highways. When any public highway extends into or through a levee or drainage district, the commissioners to assess benefits shall ascertain and return in their report the amount of benefits and the apportionment of costs and expenses to such highway, and the board of supervisors shall assess the same against such highway. Such assessments against primary highways shall be paid out of the county's allotment of the primary road fund and against all other highways, one-fourth out of the county road fund or county drainage fund, and three-fourths out of the township road fund or township drainage fund. Such assessments shall draw interest at the same rate and from the same time as assessments against lands. [S., '13, §§ 1989-a19, 1989-a26; 37 G. A., ch. 344, § 4; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 43.]

7471. Report of commissioners. The commissioners, within the time fixed or as extended, shall make and file in the auditor's office a written verified report in tabulated form as to each forty-acre tract, and each tract of less than forty acres, setting forth:

1. The names of the owners thereof as shown by the transfer books of the auditor's office or the reports of the engineer on file, showing said entire classification of lands in said district.

2. The amount of benefits to highway and railroad property and the percentage of benefits to each of said other tracts and the apportionment and amount of assessment of cost and expense against each:

a. For main ditches.

b. For laterals.

c. For levees and pumping station.

3. The aggregate amount of all assessments. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a12; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 44.]

7472. Notice of hearing. The board shall fix a time for a hearing upon the report of the commissioners, and the auditor shall cause notice to be served upon each person whose name appears as owner, naming him, and also upon the person or persons in actual occupancy of any tract of land without naming him, of the day and hour of such hearing, which notice shall be for the same time and served in the same manner as is provided for the establishment of a levee or drainage district, and shall state the amount of assessment of costs and expenses of construction apportioned to each owner upon each forty-acre tract or less, and that all objections thereto must be in writing and filed with the auditor at or before the time set for such hearing. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a12; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 45.]

7473. Hearing and determination. At the time fixed or at an adjourned hearing, the board shall hear and determine all objections filed to said report and shall fully consider the said report, and may affirm, increase, or diminish the percentage of benefits or the apportionment of costs and expenses made in said report against any body or tract of land in said district as may appear to the board to be just and equitable. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a12; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 45.]

7474. Evidence—conclusive presumption. At such hearing, the board may hear evidence both for and against the approval of said report or any portion thereof, but it shall not be competent to show that any of the lands in said district assessed for benefits or against which an apportionment of costs and expenses has been made will not be benefited by such improvement in some degree. Any interested party may be heard in argument by himself or counsel. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a12; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 46.]

7475. Notice of increased assessment. The board shall cause notice to be served upon the owner of any tract of land against which it is proposed to increase the assessment, requiring him to appear at a fixed date, not less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of service, and show cause why such assessment should not be so increased, which notice shall be served in the same manner as an original notice upon residents of the county or counties in which the district is located, and upon nonresidents of the county or counties by service on any tenant or occupant of the land affected, and upon any agent of any railroad company affected. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a12; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 46.]

7476. Classification as basis for future assessments. The classification as finally adopted shall remain the basis of all future assessments for the purpose of said district unless revised by the board in the manner provided for reclassification. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a12; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 45.]

NOTE: For similar provision, see § 7466.

7477. Levy—interest. When the board has finally determined the matter of assessments of benefits and apportionment, it shall levy such assessments as fixed by it upon the lands within such district, and all assessments shall be levied at that time as a tax and shall bear interest at six per cent per annum from that date, payable annually, except as hereinafter provided as to cash payments thereof within a specified time. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a12; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 46.]

7478. Lien of tax. Such taxes shall be a lien upon all premises against which they are assessed as fully as taxes levied for state and county purposes. [S., '13, § 1989-a45; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 46.]

7479. Levy for deficiency. If the first assessment made by the board for the original cost or for repairs of any improvement is insufficient, the board shall make an additional assessment and levy in the same ratio as the first for either purpose, payable at the next taxpaying period after such indebtedness is incurred subject, however, to the provisions of section 7484. [S., '13, § 1989-a26; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 45.]

7480. Record of drainage taxes. All drainage or levee tax assessments shall be entered in the drainage record of the district to which they apply, and also upon the tax records of each county. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 47.]

7481. Funds—disbursement—interest. Such taxes when collected shall be kept in a separate fund known as the drainage or levee fund of the district to which they belong, and shall be paid out only for purposes properly connected with and growing out of the drainage or levee improvement of such district, and on order of the board. Interest collected by the treasurer on drainage or levee districts funds shall be credited to the drainage or levee district to which such funds belong. [S., '13, § 1989-a13; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 47.]

7482. Assessments—maturity and collection. All drainage or levee tax assessments shall become due and payable at the same time as other taxes, and shall be collected in the same manner with the same penalties for delinquency and the same manner of enforcing collection by tax sales. [S., '13, § 1989-a26; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 47.]

7483. Payment before bonds or certificates issued. All assessments for benefits, as corrected and approved by the board, shall be levied at one time against the property benefited, and when levied and certified by the board, shall be payable at the office of the county treasurer. Each person or corporation shall have the right, within twenty days after the levy of assessments, to pay his or its assessment in full without interest, and before any improvement certificate or drainage bond is issued therefor, and any certificate at any time after issue, with accrued interest. [S., '13, § 1989-a26; 39 G. A., ch. 214, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 48.]

7484. Installment payments—waiver. If the owner of any premises against which a levy exceeding twenty dollars has been made and certified shall, within thirty days from the date of such levy, agree in writing indorsed upon any improvement certificate referred to in section 7499, or in a separate agreement, that in consideration of having a right to pay his assessment in installments, he will not make any objection as to the legality of his assessment for benefit, or the levy of the taxes against his property, then such owner shall have the following options:

1. To pay one-third of the amount of such assessment at the time of filing such agreement; one-third within twenty days after the engineer in charge shall certify to the auditor that the improvement is one-half completed; and the remaining one-third within twenty days after the improvement has been completed and accepted by the board. All such installments shall be without interest if paid at said times, otherwise said assessments shall bear interest from the date of the levy at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable annually, and be collected as other taxes on real estate, with like penalty for delinquency.

2. To pay such assessments in not less than ten nor more than twenty equal installments, the number to be fixed by the board and interest at the rate fixed by the board, not exceeding six per cent per annum. One such installment shall be payable at the March semiannual tax-paying date in each year; provided, however, that the county treasurer shall, at the March semiannual tax-paying date, require only the payment of a sufficient portion of the assessments to meet the interest and the amount maturing on bonds or certificates prior to the regular time for the payment of the second installment of taxes and the balance shall be collected with such second installment and without penalty. [S., '13, §§ 1989-a26, 1989-a27; S. S., '15, § 1989-a12; 37 G. A., ch. 344, § 6; 38 G. A., ch. 271, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 214, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 49.]

7486. Installment payments after appeal. When an owner takes an appeal from the assessment against any of his land, the option to pay in installments whatever assessment is finally established against such land in said appeal shall continue, if within twenty days after the final determination of said appeal he shall file in the office of the auditor his written election to pay in installments, and within said period pay such installments as would have matured prior to that time if no appeal had been taken, together with all accrued interest on said assessment to the last preceding interest-paying date. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 49-a1.]

7487. Notice of half and full completion. Within two days after the engineer has filed a certificate that the work is half completed and within two days after the board of supervisors has accepted the completed improvement as in this chapter provided, the county auditor shall notify the owner of each lot or parcel of land who has signed an agreement of waiver as provided in the third preceding section, of such fact. Such notice shall be given by registered mail sent to such owners, respectively, at the addresses filed with the auditor at the time of making such agreement of waiver. [39 G. A., ch. 214, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 50.]

7489. Laterals—return of excess levy. In all cases where a drainage district has been constructed consisting of main ditches which are beneficial to the entire district, and also of laterals, and where the assessments have been made based upon the estimated cost of such laterals, and it can be ascertained that the actual cost of constructing such laterals was less than such estimated cost thereof, then the board of supervisors or joint board of supervisors or other officers having control of such drainage district shall be, and hereby are, authorized and directed to return to the party or parties who owned the land benefited and assessed for such laterals at the time the assessment was fixed and levied by the board or boards of supervisors, the respective proportional parts of such excess assessments made for such laterals by the issue of warrants drawn upon the district fund. [40 G. A., ch. 156; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 51-a1.]

7490. Subdrainage district. After the establishment of a drainage district, any person, company, or corporation owning land within such district which has been assessed for benefits, but which is separated from the main ditch, drain, or watercourse for which it has been so assessed, by the land of others, who desires a ditch or drain constructed from his land across the land of such others in order to connect with the main ditch, drain, or watercourse, and shall be unable to agree with such intervening owners on the terms and conditions on which he may enter upon their lands and cause to be constructed such connecting drain or ditch, may file a petition for the establishment of a subdistrict and thereafter the proceedings shall be the same as provided for the establishment of an original district. [S., '13, § 1989-a23; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 52.]

7491. Presumption—jurisdiction. Such connecting ditch or drain which he shall cause to be constructed shall be presumed conducive to the public health, welfare, convenience, and utility the same as if it had been so constructed as a part of the original improvement of said district. When such subdistrict has been established and constructed it shall become and be a part of the improvement of such drainage district as a whole and be under the control and supervision of the board to the same extent and in every way as if it had been a part of the original improvement of such district. [S., '13, § 1989-a23; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 52.]

7492. Reclassification. After a drainage or levee district has been established and the improvements thereof constructed and put in operation, if the board or boards shall find that the original assessments are not equitable as a basis for the expenses of any enlargement or extension thereof which may have become necessary, they shall order a new classification of all the lands in said district by resolution, and appoint three commissioners, one of whom shall be a civil engineer with qualifications as provided in this chapter and two of whom shall be resident freeholders of the county not living within any township into which the improvement extends, and not interested therein nor related to any party whose land is affected thereby, who shall be duly sworn as hereinbefore provided for such commissioners. [37 G. A., ch. 302, §§ 2, 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 54.]

7493. Bids required. In case the board shall finally determine that any such changes shall be made involving an expenditure of five thousand dollars or more, said work shall be let by bids in the same manner as is provided for the original construction of such improvements. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 54.]

7494. Procedure governing reclassification. The proceedings for such reclassification shall in all particulars be governed by the same rules as for original classification. The commissioners shall fix the percentage of actual benefits and make an equitable apportionment of the costs and expenses of construction, enlargement, or extension and file a report thereof with the auditor in the same form and manner as for original classification. Thereafter all the proceedings in relation thereto as to notice, hearing, and fixing of percentage of benefits and amount of assessments shall be as in this chapter provided in relation to original classification and assessments, and at such hearing the board may affirm, increase or diminish the percentage and assessment of benefits and apportionment of costs and expenses so as to make them just and equitable, and cause the record of the original classification, percentage of benefits, and assessments to be modified accordingly. [37 G. A., ch. 302, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 55.]

7495. Drainage warrants received for assessments. Warrants drawn upon the funds of any district shall be accepted by the treasurer in payment of assessments levied upon any lands in that district owned by the persons to whom said warrants were issued, and when the amount of the warrant exceeds the amount of the assessment, the treasurer shall cancel the said warrant, and give the holder thereof a certificate for the amount of such excess, which certificate shall be filed with the auditor, who shall issue a warrant for the amount of such excess, and charge the treasurer therewith. Such certificate is transferable by indorsement, and will entitle the holder to the new warrant, made payable to his order, and bearing the original number, preceded by the words, "Issued as unpaid balance due on warrant number". [S., '13, § 1989-a13; 39 G. A., ch. 118, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 56.]

7496. Unpaid warrants—interest. All warrants drawn upon the funds of any drainage district, which can not be paid for want of funds, shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable annually, from and after the date of presentation thereof to the treasurer. The treasurer shall indorse such warrants "Not paid for want of funds", keep a record of the same, together with the name and postoffice address of the holder, issue calls for outstanding warrants at such times as he may have funds to pay the same, and pay such warrants under the same procedure as is provided by law in relation to county warrants generally. No additional presentation of warrants shall be required to entitle the holder to interest on overdue annual interest. [S., '13, § 1989-a9; 37 G. A., ch. 264, § 1; 38 G. A., ch. 162, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 57.]

7497. Notice of assignment. When such drainage warrant shall be assigned and transferred after having been so indorsed by the treasurer, the assignee thereof shall notify the treasurer of such assignment, giving the treasurer his name and postoffice address; and upon receipt of such notice by the treasurer he shall make a memorandum in the record kept of such warrant, showing the name and address of each successive assignee or holder. [38 G. A., ch. 162, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 58.]

7498. Call for unpaid warrants. When the treasurer shall have funds on hand to pay any such warrant or warrants, he shall, in addition to the call provided by law for calling for payment of county warrants generally, mail a written notice of such call to the then holder thereof as shown by his said record, and shall make a record of the date of mailing such notice, and at the expiration of thirty days thereafter if such warrants are not presented for payment, interest thereon shall cease. [37 G. A., ch. 264, § 2; 38 G. A., ch. 162, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 59.]

7499. Improvement certificates. The board may provide by resolution for the issuance of improvement certificates payable to bearer or to the contractors, naming them, who have constructed the said improvement or completed any part thereof, in payment or part payment of such work. [S., '13, § 1989-a26; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 60.]

7500. Form, negotiability, and effect. Each of such certificates shall state the amount of one or more drainage assessments or part thereof made against the property, designating it and the owner thereof liable for the payment of such assessments. Said certificates shall be negotiable and transfer to the bearer all right and interest in and to the tax in every such assessment or part thereof described in such certificates, and shall authorize such bearer to collect and receive every assessment embraced in said certificate by or through any of the methods provided by law for their collection as the same mature. [S., '13, § 1989-a26; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 61.]

7501. Interest—place of payment. Such certificates shall bear interest not to exceed six per cent per annum, payable annually, and shall be paid by the taxpayer to the county treasurer, who shall receipt for the same and cause the amount to be credited on the certificates issued therefor. [S., '13, § 1989-a26; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 62.]

7503. Drainage bonds. When a drainage district has been established or the making of any subsequent repair or improvement determined upon, if the board of supervisors shall find that the cost of such improvement will create assessments against the land included therein greater than should be levied in a single year upon the lands benefited by such improvement, then, instead of issuing improvement certificates, as provided in the four preceding sections, the board may fix the amount that shall be levied and collected each year until such cost and expenses are paid, and may issue drainage bonds of the county covering all assessments exclusive of assessments of twenty dollars and less. [C., '97, § 1953; S., '13, § 1989-a27; 39 G. A., ch. 39, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 64.]

7504. Form. Each of such bonds shall be numbered and have printed upon its face that it is a "Drainage Bond", stating the county and number of the district for which it is issued, the date and maturity thereof, that it is in pursuance of a resolution of the board of supervisors, that it is to be paid only from taxes for levee and drainage improvement purposes levied and collected on the lands assessed for benefits within the district for which the bond is issued. [S., '13, § 1989-a27; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 69.]

longer period of maturity than twenty years, and bear a rate of interest not to exceed five per cent per annum, payable semiannually, on June first and December first of each year. [C., '97, § 1953; S., '13, § 1989-a27; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, §§ 66, 69.]

7506. Maturity—interest—highway benefits. The board shall fix the amount, maturity, and interest of all bonds to be issued. It shall determine the amount of assessments to highways for benefits within the district to be covered by each bond issue. The taxes levied for benefits to highways within any drainage or levee district shall be paid at the same times and in the same proportion as assessments against the lands of private owners. [S., '13, § 1989-a27; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 71.]

7508. Sale or application at par—premium. Such bonds may be applied at par with accrued interest to the payment of work as it progresses upon the improvements of the district, or, the board may sell, through the county treasurer, said bonds at not less than par with accrued interest and devote the proceeds to such payment. Any premium derived from the sale of said bonds shall be credited to the drainage fund of the district. [C., '97, § 1953; S., '13, § 1989-a27; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 67.]

7510. Record of bonds. A record of the numbers, amounts, and maturities of all such bonds shall be kept by the auditor showing specifically the lands embraced in the district upon which the tax has not been previously paid in full. [S., '13, § 1989-a27; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 69.]

7511. Assessments payable in cash. All assessments of twenty dollars and less shall be paid in cash. [37 G. A., ch. 344, § 6; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 68.]

of twenty dollars may be paid in cash, and before any bonds are issued, publish notice in an official newspaper in the county where the district is located, of such time. After the expiration of such time, no assessments may be paid except in the manner and at the times fixed by the board in the resolution authorizing the issue of the bonds. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 68.]

7515. Time and manner. All appeals shall be taken within twenty days after the date of final action or order of the board from which such appeal is taken by filing with the auditor a notice of appeal, designating the court to which the appeal is taken, the order or action appealed from, and stating that the appeal will come on for hearing at the next succeeding term of the court and designating such term. This notice shall be accompanied by an appeal bond with sureties to be approved by the auditor conditioned to pay all costs adjudged against the appellant and to abide the orders of the court. [S., '13, §§ 1989-a6, 1989-a14, 1989-a35; 37 G. A., ch. 344, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 74.]

7516. Transcript. When notice of any appeal with the bond as required by the preceding section shall be filed with the auditor, he shall forthwith make and certify a transcript of the notice of appeal and appeal bond, and file the same with the clerk. [S., '13, § 1989-a14; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 75.]

7517. Petition—docket fee — waiver — dismissal. On or before the first day of the next succeeding term of court, the appellant shall file a petition setting forth the order or final action of the board appealed from and the grounds of his objections and his complaint, with a copy of his claim for damages or objections filed by him with the auditor. He shall pay to the clerk the filing fee as provided by law in other cases. A failure to pay the filing fee or to file such petition shall be deemed a waiver of the appeal and in such case the court shall dismiss the same. [S., '13, § 1989-a14; 37 G. A., ch. 344, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 76.]

to the petition unless some affirmative defense is made thereto, but they may do so. [S., '13, § 1989-a14; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 76.]

7519. Proper parties—employment of counsel. In all actions or appeals affecting the district, the board of supervisors shall be a proper party for the purpose of representing the district and all interested parties therein, other than the adversary parties, and the employment of counsel by the board shall be for the purpose of protecting the rights of the district and interested parties therein other than the adversary parties. [S., '13, § 1989-a14; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 77.]

7520. Plaintiffs and defendants. In all appeals or actions adversary to the district, the appellant or complaining party shall be entitled the plaintiff, and the board of supervisors and drainage district it represents, the defendants. [S., '13, § 1989-a14; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 77.]

7521. Right of board and district to sue. In all appeals or actions for or in behalf of the district, the board and the drainage district it represents may sue as the plaintiffs. [S., '13, § 1989-a14; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 77.]

7522. Trial on appeal—consolidation. Appeals from orders or actions of the board fixing the amount of compensation for lands taken for right of way or the amount of damages to which any claimant is entitled shall be tried as ordinary proceedings. All other appeals shall be triable in equity. The court may, in its discretion, order the consolidation for trial of two or more of such equitable cases. [S., '13, §§ 1989-a6, 1989-a14, 1989-a35; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 78.]

7523. Conclusive presumption on appeal. On the trial of an appeal from the action of the board in fixing and assessing the amount of benefits to any land within the district as established, it shall not be competent to show that any lands assessed for benefits within said district as established are not benefited in some degree by the construction of the said improvement. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a12; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 80.]

7524. Order as to damages—duty of clerk. If the appeal is from the action of the board as to the amount of damages or compensation awarded, the amount found by the court shall be entered of record, but no judgment shall be rendered therefor. The amount thus ascertained shall be certified by the clerk of said court to the board of supervisors who shall thereafter proceed as if such amount had been by it allowed to the claimant. [S., '13, § 1989-a6; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 81.]

7525. Costs. Unless the result on the appeal is more favorable to the appellant than the action of the board, all costs of the appeal shall be taxed to the appellant, but if more favorable, the cost shall be taxed to the appellees. [S., '13, § 1989-a6; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 81.]

7526. Decree as to establishing district or including lands. On appeal from the action of the board in establishing or refusing to establish said district, or in including land within the district, the court may enter such order or decree as may be equitable and just in the premises, and the clerk of said court shall certify the decree or order to the board of supervisors which shall proceed thereafter in said matter as if such order had been made by the board. The taxation of costs among the litigants shall be in the discretion of the court. [S., '13, § 1989-a6; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 83.]

7527. Appeal as exclusive remedy — non-appellants. Upon appeal the decision of the court shall in no manner affect the rights or liabilities of any person who did not appeal. The remedy by appeal provided for in this chapter shall be exclusive of all other remedies. [S., '13, § 1989-a46; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 84.]

7528. Reversal by court — rescission by board. In any case where the decree has been entered setting aside the establishment of a drainage district for errors in the proceedings, and such decree becomes final, the board shall rescind its order establishing the drainage district, assessing benefits, and levying the tax based thereon, and shall also cancel any contract made for construction work or material, and shall refund any and all assessments paid. [S., '13, § 1989-a14; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 85.]

7530. Reassessment to cure illegality. Whenever any special assessment upon any lands within any drainage district shall have been heretofore adjudged to be void for any jurisdictional defect or for any illegality or uncertainty as to the terms of any contract and the improvement shall have been wholly completed, the board or boards of supervisors shall have power to remedy such illegality or uncertainty as to the terms of any such contract with the consent of the person with whom such contract shall have been entered into and make certain the terms of such contract and shall then cause a reassessment of such land to be made on an equitable basis with the other land in the district by taking the steps required by law in the making of an original assessment and relieving the tax in accordance with such assessment, and such tax shall have the same force and effect as though the board or boards of supervisors had jurisdiction in the first instance and no illegality or uncertainty existed in the contract. [40 G. A., ch. 155; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 86-a1.]

7531. Monthly estimate — payment. The supervising engineer shall, on or before the tenth day of each calendar month, furnish the contractor and file with the auditor estimates for work done during the preceding calendar month under the contract on each section, and the auditor shall at once draw warrants in favor of such contractor on the drainage funds of the district or give him an order directing the county treasurer to deliver to him or them improvement certificates, or drainage bonds as the case may be, for eighty per cent of the estimate on work done. Such monthly estimates shall remain on file in the office of the auditor as a part of the permanent records of the district to which they relate. [C., '97, § 1944; S., '13, §§ 1944, 1989-a9; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 87.]

7532. Completion of work — report — notice. When the work to be done under any contract is completed to the satisfaction of the engineer in charge of construction, he shall so report and certify to the board, which shall fix a day to consider said report and shall give notice of the time and purpose of such meeting by one publication in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county seat in said county and the date fixed for considering said report shall be not less than five days after the date of such publication. [S., '13, § 1989-a9; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 88.]

7534. Final settlement. If it finds the work under any contract has been completed and accepted, the board shall compute the balance due, and if there are no liens on file against such balance, it shall enter of record an order directing the auditor to draw a warrant in favor of said contractor upon the levee or drainage fund of said district or give him an order directing the county treasurer to deliver to him improvement certificates or drainage bonds, as the case may be, for such balance found to be due, but such warrants, improvement certificates or bonds shall not be delivered to the contractor until the expiration of thirty days after the acceptance of the work. [C., '73, § 1212; C., '97, § 1944; S., '13, §§ 1944, 1989-a9; 37 G. A., ch. 264, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 90.]

7535. Abandonment of work. In case any contractor abandons or fails to proceed diligently and properly with the work before completion, or in case he fails to complete the same in the time and according to the terms of the contract, the board shall make written demand on him and his surety to proceed with the work within ten days. Service of said demand may be personal, or by registered mail addressed to the contractor and the surety, respectively, at their places of residence or business, as shown by the records in the auditor's office. [S., '13, §§ 1944, 1989-a10; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 91.]

7536. New contract—suit on bond. Unless the contractor or the surety on his bond shall appear and in good faith proceed to comply with the demand, and resume work under the contract within the time fixed, the board shall proceed to let contracts for the unfinished work in the same manner as original contracts, and apply all funds not paid to the original contractor toward the completion of the work, and if not sufficient for such purpose, may cause suit to be brought upon the bond of the defaulting contractor for the benefit of the district, and the amount of recovery thereon shall be credited to the district. [C., '73, § 1212; C., '97, § 1944; S., '13, §§ 1944, 1989-a10; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 92.]

7537. Construction on or along highway. When a levee or drainage district shall have been established by the board and it shall become necessary or desirable that the levee, ditch, drain, or improvement shall be located and constructed within the limits of any public highway, it shall be so built as not materially to interfere with the public travel thereon. [S., '13, § 1989-a20; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 94.]

7538. Establishment of highways. The board shall have power to establish public highways along and upon any levee or embankment along any such ditch or drain, but when so established the same shall be worked and maintained as other highways and so as not to obstruct or impair the levee, ditch, or drain. [S., '13, § 1989-a20; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 94.]

7539. Bridges. When such levee, ditch, drain, or change of any natural watercourse crosses a public highway, necessitating moving or building or rebuilding any county or township bridge, the board of supervisors shall move, build or rebuild the same, paying the costs and expenses thereof from the county bridge fund, or primary road fund. [S., '13, § 1989-a19; 37 G. A., ch. 344, § 4; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 95.]

7540. Construction across railroad. Whenever the board of supervisors shall have established any levee, or drainage district, or change of any natural watercourse and the levee, ditch, drain, or watercourse as surveyed and located crosses the right of way of any railroad company, the county auditor shall immediately cause to be served upon such railroad company, in the manner provided for the service of original notices, a notice in writing stating the nature of the improvement to be constructed, the place where it will cross the right of way of such company, and the full requirements for its complete construction across such right of way as shown by the plans, specifications, plat, and profile of the engineer appointed by the board, and directing such company to construct such improvement according to said plans and specifications at the place designated, across its right of way, and to build and construct or rebuild and reconstruct the necessary culvert or bridge where any ditch, drain or watercourse crosses its right of way, so as not to obstruct, impede or interfere with the free flow of the water therein, within thirty days from the time of the service of such notice upon it. [S., '13, § 1989-a18; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 96.]

7541. Duty to construct. Upon receiving the notice provided in the preceding section, such railroad company shall construct the improvement across its right of way according to the plans and specifications prepared by the engineer for said district, and build or rebuild the necessary culvert or bridge and complete the same within the time specified. [S., '13, § 1989-a18; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 97.]

7542. Bridges at natural waterway—costs. The cost of building, rebuilding, constructing, reconstructing, changing, or repairing, as the case may be, any culvert or bridge, when such improvement is located at the place of the natural waterway or place provided by the railroad company for the flow of the water, shall be borne by such railroad company without reimbursement therefor. [S., '13, § 1989-a18; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 97.]

7543. Construction when company refuses. If the railroad company shall fail, neglect, or refuse to comply with said notice, the board shall cause the same to be done under the supervision of the engineer in charge of the improvement, and such railroad company shall be liable for the cost thereof to be collected by the county for said district in any court having jurisdiction. [S., '13, § 1989-a18; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 98.]

7544. Cost of construction across railway. The cost of constructing the improvement across the right of way of such company, not including the cost of building or rebuilding and constructing or reconstructing any necessary culvert or bridge, when such improvement is located at the place of the natural waterway or place provided by the railroad company for the flow of the water, shall be considered as an element of such company's damages by the appraiser to appraise damages. [S., '13, § 1989-a18; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 98.]

thereof, shall be considered as an element of such company's damages by the appraisers thereof; provided that if such company shall fail to do so within thirty days after written notice from the auditor, the engineer shall cause the same to be done under his direction and the company shall be liable for the cost thereof to be collected by the county in any court having jurisdiction. Provided, further, that the railway company shall have the right to designate the day and hours thereof within said period of thirty days above mentioned when such crossing shall be made. [39 G. A., ch. 206, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 99.]

7546. Passage across other public utilities. The owner or operator of a public utility, whether operated publicly or privately other than steam and electric railways shall afford the contractor of any drainage project under this chapter unrestricted passage for his machines and equipment across the right of way lines or other equipment of such utility whenever recommended by the engineer and approved by the board of supervisors. [39 G. A., ch. 205, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 100.]

7547. Failure to comply. If the owner or operator of the utility fails to afford such passage within fifteen days after written notice from the drainage engineer so to do, the contractor, under the supervision of the engineer, may proceed to do the necessary work to afford such passage and to place said utility in the same condition as before said passage; but the owner or operator shall have the right to designate the hours of the day when such crossing or passage shall be made. [39 G. A., ch. 205, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 206, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 101.]

7548. Expenses attending passage. The work necessary to afford such passage shall be deemed to be covered by and included in the contract with the district under which the contractor is operating, and if the work is done by the owner or operator of such utility the reasonable expense thereof shall be paid out of the drainage funds of the district and charged to the account of the contractor. [39 G. A., ch. 205, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 206, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 102.]

7549. Annexation of additional lands. After the establishment of a levee or drainage district, if the board becomes convinced that additional lands are benefited by the improvement and should have been included in the district as originally established, it may adopt a resolution of necessity for annexation of such additional land and appoint an engineer with the qualifications provided in this chapter to examine such additional lands, to make a survey and plat thereof showing their relation, elevation, and conditions of drainage with reference to such established district, and to make and file with the auditor a report as in this chapter provided for the original establishment of such district. [S., '13, § 1989-a54; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 103.]

7550. Proceedings on report. If said report recommends the annexation of such lands or any portion thereof, the board shall consider such report, plats, and profiles and if satisfied that any of such lands are materially benefited by the district and that such annexation is feasible, expedient, and for the public good, it shall proceed in all respects as to notice, hearing, appointment of appraisers to fix damages and as to hearing thereon; and (if such annexation is finally made), as to classification and assessment of benefits, to the same extent and in the same manner as provided in the establishment of an original district. All parties shall have the right to receive notice, to make objections, to file claims for damages, to have hearing, to take appeals and to do all other things to the same extent and in the same manner as provided in the establishment of an original district. [S., '13, § 1989-a54; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 104.]

7551. Petition for annexation. Annexation may be made and brought under the jurisdiction of the board for all of said purposes upon the petition of the owners of all the lands to be annexed. [S., '13, § 1989-a54; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 105.]

7552. Use of former and abandoned surveys. In cases where proceedings have been taken for the establishment of a levee or drainage district and an engineer has been appointed who has made a survey, return and plat thereof and for any reason the improvement has been abandoned and the proceedings dismissed, and afterwards proceedings are instituted for the establishment of a levee or drainage district which will benefit any territory surveyed in said former proceedings, the engineer shall use so much of the return, levels, surveys, plat, and profile made in the former proceedings as may be applicable. He shall specify in his reports the parts thereof so used, and in case the cost of said returns, levels, surveys, plat, and profile made in said former proceedings has been paid by the former petitioners or their bondsmen, then a reasonable amount shall be allowed said petitioners or bondsmen for the use of the same. [S., '13, § 1989-a16; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 106.]

7553. Unsuccessful procedure—reestablishment. When proceedings have been instituted for the establishment of a drainage district or for any change or repair thereof, or the change of a natural watercourse, and the establishment thereof has failed for any reason either before or after the improvement is completed, the board shall have power to reestablish such district or improvement and any new improvement in connection therewith as recommended by the report of the engineer. As to all lands benefited by such reestablishment, repair, or improvement, the board shall proceed in the same manner as in the establishment of an original district, using as a basis for assessment the entire cost of the proceedings, improvement, and maintenance from the beginning; but in awarding damages and in the as-assessment of benefits account shall be taken of the amount of damages and taxes, if any, theretofore paid by those benefited, and credit therefor given accordingly. All other proceedings shall be the same as for the original establishment of the district, making of improvements, and assessment of benefits. [S., '13, §§ 1989-a17, 1989-a50; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 108.]

7554. New district including old district. If any levee or drainage district or improvement established either by legal proceedings or by private parties shall be insufficient to properly drain all of the lands tributary thereto, the board upon petition as for the establishment of an original levee or drainage district, shall have power to establish a new district covering and including such old district or improvement together with any additional lands deemed necessary. All outstanding indebtedness of the old levee or drainage district shall be assessed only against the lands included therein. [S., '13, § 1989-a25; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 109.]

7555. Credit for old improvement. When such district as contemplated in the preceding section and the new improvement therein shall include the whole or any part of the former improvement, the commissioners, for classification of lands for assessment of benefits and apportionment of costs and expenses of such new improvement, shall take into consideration the value of such old improvement in the construction of the new one and allow proper credit therefor to the parties owning the old improvement as their interests may appear. In all other respects the same proceedings shall obtain as are provided for the original establishment of levee and drainage districts. [S., '13, § 1989-a25; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 110.]

7556. Repair. When any levee or drainage district shall have been established and the improvement constructed the same shall be at all times under the supervision of the board of supervisors except as otherwise provided for control and management by a board of trustees, and it shall be the duty of the board to keep the same in repair and for that purpose it may cause the ditches, drains, and watercourses thereof to be enlarged, reopened, deepened, widened, straightened or lengthened, or the location changed for better service, or may cause any part thereof to be converted into a closed drain when considered for the best interest of the public. [S., '13, § 1989-a21; 37 G. A., ch. 302, §§ 1, 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 116.]

7557. Payment. Such repairs shall be paid for out of the funds of the levee or drainage district in the hands of the county treasurer if there be any. [S., '13, § 1989-a21; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 116.]

7558. Assessment without notice. If such funds are not sufficient and the cost thereof does not exceed ten per cent of the original cost of the improvements in the district a new assessment shall be made on the basis of the old apportionment and no notice of such assessment shall be necessary. [S., '13, § 1989-a21; 37 G. A., ch. 302, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 116.]

7559. Assessment with notice. If the cost thereof does exceed ten per cent of the original cost of the improvements in the district, the board may for good reason order a new apportionment of, and assessment upon, the lands in the district to be made; and the same proceedings shall be had and the same rules shall be applied as are provided in this chapter for an original apportionment and assessment; and the same right to appeal shall be given to any interested party. [S., '13, § 1989-a21; 37 G. A., ch. 302, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 116.]

7561. Separate assessments for main ditch and laterals. Notwithstanding the provisions of the five preceding sections, so much of the cost of the work and materials as is required to clean out any specific open ditch or main so as to restore it to its original efficiency or capacity and to preserve its sides at a practical slope must be assessed to the lands in the whole district in the same proportion as the costs and expenses of the construction of such specific open ditch was originally assessed to said lands; and so much of the cost of the work and materials as is required to restore any tile line or lateral to its original efficiency, or to clean any tile line, or to replace broken or defective tile, or to rebuild any bulkhead, must be assessed to the lands benefited by such specific tile line or lateral in the same proportion as the original cost thereof. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 116-a2.]

7562. Reclassification required. If, however, it shall appear that the original assessment or apportionment did not designate separately the amount each tract should pay for the main ditch or drain and the amount it should pay for the lateral drain, then the board shall make such reclassification whenever a new assessment is necessary for repairs or changes according to the principles and rules set forth in sections 7467 and 7468. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 116-a2.]

7563. Improvement of common outlet. When two or more drainage districts outlet into the same ditch, drain, or natural watercourse and the board determines that it is necessary to clean out, deepen, enlarge, extend, or straighten said ditch, drain, or natural watercourse in order to expeditiously carry off the combined waters of such districts, the board may proceed as provided in the two preceding sections. Each district shall be assessed for the cost of such work in proportion to the benefits derived. [S., '13, § 1989-a24; 38 G. A., ch. 332; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 116-a3.]

7564. Commissioners to apportion benefits. For the purpose of ascertaining the proportionate benefits, the board shall appoint commissioners having the qualifications of benefit commissioners, one of whom shall be an engineer, to determine the percentage of benefits and the sum total to be assessed to each district for the improvement. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 116-a4.]

7565. Time of report. When said commissioners are appointed, the board shall, by proper order, fix the time when the commissioners shall report their findings, but a report filed within thirty days of the time so fixed shall be deemed a compliance with said order. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 116-a5.]

7567. Levy under original classification. If the amount finally charged against a district does not exceed ten per cent of the original cost of the improvement in said district, the board shall proceed to levy said amount against all lands, highways, and railway rights of way and property within the district, in accordance with the original classification and apportionment. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 116-a6.]

7568. Levy under reclassification. If the amount finally charged against a district exceeds ten per cent of the original cost of the improvement, the board shall order a reclassification as provided for the original classification of a district and upon the final adoption of the new classification and apportionment shall proceed to levy said amount upon all lands, highways, and railway rights of way and property within the district, in accordance with said new classification and apportionment. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 116-a6.]

7569. Removal of obstructions. The board shall cause to be removed from the ditches, drains, and laterals of any district any obstructions which interfere with the flow of the water, including trees, hedges, or shrubbery and the roots thereof, and may cause any tile drain so obstructed to be relaid in concrete or any other adequate protection, such work to be paid for from the drainage funds of the district. [38 G. A., ch. 121, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 117.]

drain in order to prevent obstruction by the roots thereof, if the board and the owners of such trees or hedges can not agree upon the damage for the destruction thereof, the board may proceed to acquire the right to destroy and remove such trees or hedges by the same proceedings provided for acquiring right of way for said drainage improvement in the first instance. [38 G. A., ch. 121, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 119.]

7571. Outlet for lateral drains—specifications. The owner of any premises assessed for the payment of the costs of location and construction of any ditch, drain, or watercourse as in this chapter provided, shall have the right to use the same as an outlet for lateral drains from his premises. The board of supervisors shall make specifications covering the manner in which such lateral drains shall be connected with the main ditches or other laterals and be maintained, and the owner shall follow such specifications in making and maintaining any such connection. [S., '13, § 1989-a22; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 120.]

7572. Subdistricts in intercounty districts. The board of supervisors of any county shall have jurisdiction to establish subdrainage districts of lands included within a district extending into two or more counties when the lands to compose such subdistricts lie wholly within such county, and to make improvements therein, repair and maintain the same, fix and levy assessments for the payment thereof, and the provisions of this section shall apply to all such drainage subdistricts, the lands of which lie wholly within one county. The proceedings for all such purposes shall be the same as for the establishment, construction, and maintenance of an original levee or drainage district the lands of which lie wholly within one county, so far as applicable, except that one or more persons may petition for a subdistrict as provided in section 7490. [S., '13, § 1989-a37; 37 G. A., ch. 344, § 8; 38 G. A., ch. 54, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 122.]

7573. District by mutual agreement—presumption. The owners of lands may provide by mutual agreement in writing duly signed, acknowledged, and filed with the auditor for combined drainage of their lands by the location and establishment of a drainage district for such purposes and the construction of drains, ditches, and watercourses upon and through their said lands. Such drainage district shall be presumed to be conducive to the public welfare, health, convenience, or utility. [S., '13, § 1989-a28; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 123.]

7574. What the agreement shall contain. Such agreement shall contain the following:

1. A description of the lands by congressional divisions, metes and bounds, or other intelligible manner, together with the names of the owners of all said lands.

2. The location of the drains and ditches to be constructed, describing their sources and outlets and the courses thereof.

3. The character and extent of drainage improvement to be constructed.

4. The assessment of damages if any.

5. The classification of the lands included in such district, the amount of drainage taxes or special assessments to be levied upon and against the several tracts, and when the same shall be levied and paid.

6. Such other provisions as may be mutually agreed upon relating to establishment and maintenance of such joint and mutual drainage district. [S., '13, § 1989-a28; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 124.]

7575. Board to establish. When such agreement is filed with the auditor he shall record it in the drainage record. The board shall at a regular, special, or adjourned session thereafter locate and establish a drainage district and locate the ditches, drains, and watercourses thereof as provided in said agreement, and enter of record an order accordingly. The board thereafter shall carry out the object, purpose, and intent of such agreement and cause to be completed and constructed the said improvement and shall retain jurisdiction of the same as fully as in districts established in any other manner. It shall cause to be levied upon and against the lands of such district, the drainage taxes and assessments according to said agreement and when collected said taxes and assessments shall constitute the drainage funds of said district to be applied upon order of the board as in said agreement provided. [S., '13, § 1989-a28; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 125.]

7576. Procedure. The board shall proceed to carry out the provisions of the agreement, advertising for and receiving bids, letting the work, making contracts, levying assessments, paying on estimates, issuing warrants, improvement certificates or drainage bonds as the case may be, in the same manner as in districts established on petition, except as in said mutual agreement otherwise provided. [S., '13, § 1989-a28; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 127.]

7577. Outlet in adjoining county. When a drainage district is established in any county in the state and no practicable outlet can be obtained except through lands in an adjoining county, the board of the county in which the district is located shall have power to purchase a right of way for such outlet in such adjoining county and pay for the same out of the funds of such district. In case the board and the owners of the land required for such outlet can not agree upon the price to be paid as compensation for the land taken, such board is hereby empowered to exercise the right of eminent domain in order to procure such necessary right of way. [S., '13, § 1989-a55; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 128.]

7578. Outlet in another state. When a district is established in any county in this state and no practicable outlet can be obtained except through lands in an adjoining state, the board of supervisors of such county shall have power to purchase a right of way for such outlet in such adjoining state and pay for the same out of the funds of such district. [S., '13, § 1989-a39; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 129.]

7579. Injuring or diverting—damages. Any person who shall wilfully break down or through or injure any levee or who shall dam up, divert, obstruct, or wilfully injure any ditch, drain, or other drainage improvement authorized by law shall be liable to the person or persons owning or possessing the lands for which such improvements were constructed in double the amount of damages sustained by such owner or person in possession; and in case of a subsequent offense by the same person he shall be liable in treble the amount of such damages. [C., '73, § 1227; C., '97, § 1961; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 130.]

7580. Obstructing or damaging. Any person or persons wilfully diverting, obstructing, impeding, or filling up, without legal authority, any ditch, drain, or watercourse or breaking down or injuring any levee established, constructed, and maintained under any provision of law shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and punished accordingly. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 131.]

7581. Nuisance—abatement. Any ditch, drain, or watercourse which is now or hereafter may be constructed so as to prevent the surface and overflow water from the adjacent lands from entering and draining into and through the same is hereby declared a nuisance and may be abated as such. [S., '13, § 1989-a15; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 132.]

7582. Waste banks—private use. The landowner may have any beneficial use of the land to which he has fee title and which is occupied by the waste banks of an open ditch when such use does not interfere in any way with the easement or rights of the drainage district as contemplated by this chapter. For the purpose of gaining such use the landowner may smooth said waste banks, but in doing so he must preserve the berms of such open ditch without depositing any additional dirt upon them. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 167-a1.]

7583. Preliminary expenses—how paid. If the proposed district is all in one county, the board of supervisors is authorized to pay all necessary preliminary expenses in connection therewith from the general fund of the county. If it extends into other counties, the boards of the respective counties are authorized to pay from the general fund thereof, such proportion of said expenses as the work done or expenses created in each county bears to the whole amount of work done or expenses created. Said amounts shall be ascertained and reported by the engineer in charge of the work and be approved by the respective boards which shall, as soon as paid, charge the amount to said district in favor of the general fund of the counties, as their interest may appear, as soon as the said district is established. If said district shall not be established, the said amounts shall be collected upon the bond or bonds of the petitioners. [S., '13, § 1989-a48; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 134.]

7584. Additional help for auditor. If the work in the office of the auditor by reason of the existence of drainage districts is so increased that the regular officer is unable by diligence to do the same, the board of supervisors may employ such additional help as may be necessary to keep the records and transact the business of the drainage districts. The expense of such help shall be paid by the districts in proportion to the amount of work done therefor. [S., '13, § 1989-a42; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 135.]

7585. Employment of counsel. The board is authorized to employ counsel to advise and represent it and drainage districts in any matter in which they are interested. Attorney's fees and expenses shall be paid out of the drainage fund of the district for which the services are rendered, or may be apportioned equitably among two or more districts. Such attorneys shall be allowed reasonable compensation for their services, also necessary traveling expenses while engaged in such business. Attorneys rendering such services shall file with the auditor an itemized, verified account of all claims therefor, and statement of expenses, and the same shall be audited and allowed by the board in the amount found to be due. [S., '13, § 1989-a14; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 136.]

7586. Compensation of appraisers. Persons appointed to appraise and award damages and make classification of lands and assess benefits, other than the engineer, shall receive such compensation as the board may fix, not to exceed, however, five dollars per day each, and in addition thereto, the necessary expense of transportation of said persons while engaged upon their work. They shall file with the auditor an itemized, verified account of the amount of time employed upon said work and their expenses. [S., '13, § 1989-a41; 38 G. A., ch. 76, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 138.]

7587. Fees for publications. Fees for publication of all notices required to be published by the provisions of this chapter shall be fixed by the board not exceeding thirty-three and one-third cents for each insertion for each ten lines of brevier type or its equivalent. [S., '13, § 1989-a41; 39 G. A., ch. 130, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 139.]

7588. Payment. All compensation for services rendered, fees, costs, and expenses when properly shown by itemized and verified statement shall be filed with the auditor and allowed by the board in such amounts as shall be just and true, and when so allowed shall be paid on order of the board from the levee or drainage funds of the district for which such services were rendered or expenses incurred, by warrants drawn on the treasurer by the auditor. [S., '13, § 1989-a41; 38 G. A., ch. 76, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 130, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 140.]

7589. Purchase at tax sale. When land in a levee, drainage, or improvement district is being sold at a tax sale for delinquent taxes or assessment, the board of supervisors or the district trustees, as the case may be, shall have authority to bid in such land or any part of it, paying the amount of the bid from the funds of the district, and taking the certificate of sale in their names as trustees for such district, and may thereafter pay any assessments for taxes or benefits levied against said premises from the district funds. The amount paid for redemption which shall include such additional payment, shall be credited to the district. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 141.]

7590. Tax deed—sale or lease. If no redemption shall be made the board of supervisors or trustees, as the case may be, shall receive the tax deed as trustees for the district. They shall credit the district with all income from said property. They may lease or sell and convey said property as trustees for such district and shall deposit all money received therefrom to the credit of such district. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 141.]

7591. Voting power. In case any proposition arises in said district to be determined by the vote of parties owning land therein, notice of such hearing shall be given and the board of supervisors or trustees, as the case may be, while holding title in trust to any such land, shall have the same right to vote for or against such proposition as the former owner would have had if he had not been divested of the title to said land. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 141.]

7592. Inspection of improvements. The board of any county into which a levee or drainage improvement extends shall cause a competent engineer to inspect such levee or drainage improvement as often as it deems necessary for the proper maintenance and efficient service thereof. The engineer shall make report to the board of the condition of the improvement, together with such recommendations as he deems necessary. For any claim for services and expenses of inspection, the engineer shall file with the auditor an itemized and verified account of such service and expense to be allowed by the board in such amount as it shall find due and paid out of the drainage funds of the district. If the district extends into two or more counties, such action shall be had jointly by the several boards, and the expenses equitably apportioned among the lands in the different counties. [S., '13, § 1989-a44; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 142.]

7593. Watchmen. When a levee has been established and constructed in any county, the board shall be empowered to employ one or more watchmen, and fix their compensation, whose duty it shall be to watch such levee and make repairs thereon in case of emergency. Such employee shall file with the auditor an itemized, verified account for services rendered, and cost and expense incurred in watching or repairing such levee, and the same shall be audited and allowed by the board as other claims and paid by the county from funds belonging to such district. [S., '13, § 1989-a40; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 143.]

7594. Construction of drainage laws. The provisions of this chapter and all other laws for the drainage and protection from overflow of agricultural or overflow lands shall be liberally construed to promote leveeing, ditching, draining, and reclamation of wet, swampy, and overflow lands. [S., '13, § 1989-a46; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 144.]

7595. Technical defects. The collection of drainage taxes and assessments shall not be defeated where the board has acquired jurisdiction of the interested parties and the subject matter, on account of technical defects and irregularities in the proceedings occurring prior to the order of the board locating and establishing the district and the improvements therein. [S., '13, § 1989-a46; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 144.]

7597. Drainage record. The board shall provide a drainage record book, which shall be in the custody of the auditor, who shall keep a full and complete record therein of all proceedings relating to drainage districts, so arranged and indexed as to enable any proceedings relative to any particular district to be examined readily. [S., '13, §§ 1989-a14, 1989-a42; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 133.]

7598. Records belong to district. All reports, maps, plats, profiles, field notes, and other documents pertaining to said matters, including all schedules, and memoranda relating to assessment of damages and benefits, shall belong to the district to which they relate, remain on file in the office of the county auditor, and be matters of permanent record of drainage proceedings. [38 G. A., ch. 141, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 32.]

- 7615. Bonds or proceeds made available.
- 7616. Supervising engineer.
- 7617. Duty of engineer.
- 7618. Notice of letting work—applicable procedure.
- 7619. Contracts.
- 7620. Monthly estimate—payment.
- 7621. Final settlement.
- 7622. Failure of board to act.
- 7623. Transfer to district court.
- 7624. Transcript, docket, and trial.
- 7625. Decree.
- 7626. Law applicable.

7599. Petition and bond. When the levee or drainage district embraces land in two or more counties, a duplicate of the petition of any owner of land to be affected or benefited by such improvement shall be filed with the county auditor of each county into which said levee or drainage district will extend, accompanied by a duplicate bond to be filed with the auditor of each of the said counties as provided when the district is wholly within one county, in an amount and with sureties approved by the auditor of the county in which the largest acreage of the district is situated, which bond shall run in favor of the several counties in which it is filed. [S., '13, § 1989-a29; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 146.]

the board of each of such counties shall appoint a commissioner and the commissioners of the several counties so appointed shall meet within thirty days thereafter and appoint a competent engineer who shall also act as a commissioner. [S., '13, § 1989-a29; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 147.]

7600. Commissioners. Upon the filing of such petition in each county and the approval of such duplicate bond by the proper auditor, 7601. Examination and report. The commissioners thus appointed shall examine the application and make an inspection of all the lands embraced in the proposed district and shall determine what improvements in the way of levees, ditches, drains, or change of natural watercourse are necessary for the drainage of the lands described in the petition. Such commissioners, including the engineer, shall file a detailed report of their examination and their findings and file a duplicate thereof in the office of the auditor of each of said counties. [S., '13, § 1989-a29; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 147.]

7603. Notice. Immediately upon the filing of the report of the commissioners and the engineer, if the same recommends the establishment of such district, notice shall be given by the auditor of each county to the owners of all the lots and tracts of land in his own county respectively embraced within such district as recommended by the commissioners as shown by the transfer books in the office of the auditor of each of said counties, and also to the persons in actual occupancy of all the lots or tracts of land in such district, and also to each lienholder or incumbrancer of any of such lots or tracts as shown by the records of the respective counties. [S., '13, § 1989-a29; 39 G. A., ch. 150, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 149.]

7604. Contents of notice — service. Such notice shall state the time and place, when and where the boards of the several counties will meet in joint session for the consideration of said petition and the report of the commissioners and engineer thereon, and shall in other respects be the same and served in the same time and manner as required when the district is wholly within one county, except that the auditor of each county shall give notice only to the owners, occupants, incumbrancers, and lienholders of the lots and tracts of land embraced within the proposed district in his own county as shown by the records of such county. [S., '13, § 1989-a29; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 149.]

7605. Claims for damages—filing—waiver. Any person filing objections or claiming damages or compensation on account of the construction of such improvement shall file the same in writing in the office of the auditor of the county in which his land is situated, at or before the time set for hearing. He may, however, file it at the time and place of hearing. If he shall fail to file such claim at the time specified he shall be held to have waived his right thereto, but claims for land taken for right of way for any open ditch need not be filed. [S., '13, § 1989-a30; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 150.]

7606. Organizations — procedure—adjournments. At the time set for hearing such petition, the boards of the several counties shall meet at the place designated in said notice. They shall organize by electing a chairman and a secretary, and when deemed advisable may adjourn to meet at the call of such chairman at such time and place as he may designate, or may adjourn to a time and place fixed by said joint boards. They shall sit jointly in considering the petition, the report and the recommendations of the engineer, in the same manner as if the district were wholly within one county. [S., '13, § 1989-a31; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 151.]

7607. Tentative adoption of plans. The said boards by their joint action may dismiss the petition and refuse to establish such district, or they may approve and tentatively adopt the plans and recommendations of the engineer for the said district. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 151.]

7608. Appraisers. If the said boards shall adopt a tentative plan for the district, the board of each county shall select an appraiser and the several boards by joint action shall employ an engineer, and the said appraisers and engineer shall constitute the appraisers to appraise the damages and value of all right of way required for open ditches. [S., '13, § 1989-a31; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 151.]

7609. Duty of appraisers—procedure. The appraisers shall proceed in the same manner and make return of their findings and appraisal the same as when the district is wholly within one county, except that a duplicate thereof shall be filed in the auditor's office of each of the several counties. After the filing of the report of the appraisers, all further proceedings shall be the same as where the district is wholly within one county, except as otherwise provided. [S., '13, § 1989-a31; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 151.]

7610. Meetings of joint boards. The board of supervisors of any county in which a petition for the establishment of a levee or drainage district to extend into or through two or more counties is on file, may meet with the board or boards of any other county or counties in which such petition is on file, for the purpose of acting jointly with such other board or boards in reference to said petition or any business relating to such district. Any such joint meetings held in either of the counties in which such petition is on file shall constitute a valid and legal meeting of said joint boards for the transaction of any business pertaining to said petition or to the business of such district. [S., '13, § 1989-a37; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 152.]

7611. Equalizing voting power. When the boards are of unequal membership, for the purpose of equalizing their voting power each member of the smallest board shall cast a full vote and each member of a larger board shall cast such fractional part of a vote as results from dividing the smallest number by such larger number. [S., '13, § 1989-a29; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 153.]

7612. Commissioners to classify and assess. If the boards of the several counties acting jointly shall establish the district, they shall appoint a commission consisting of one from each county, and in addition thereto a competent engineer who shall within twenty days begin to inspect the premises and classify the lands in said district fixing the percentages and assessments of benefits and the apportionment of costs and expenses and shall complete said work within the time fixed by the boards. The qualifications of said commissioners, their classification of lands, fixing percentages and assessments of benefits and apportionment of costs and the report thereof in all details shall be governed in all respects by the provisions of chapter 353 for districts wholly within one county. [S., '13, § 1989-a32; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 154.]

7613. Notice and service thereof—objections. Upon the filing of the report of the commissioners to classify lands, fix and assess benefits and apportion costs and expenses, the auditors of the several counties, acting jointly, shall cause notice to be served upon all interested parties of the time when and the place where the boards will meet and consider such report and make a final assessment of benefits and apportionment of costs, which notice shall be the same and served for the time and in the manner and all proceedings thereon shall be the same as provided in chapter 353 in districts wholly within one county, except publication of notice as provided in section 7441 shall be in each of the counties into which the district extends, and also except that the objections not filed prior to the date of the hearing shall be filed with the boards at the time and place of such hearing. [S., '13, § 1989-a32; 37 G. A., ch. 344, § 7; 39 G. A., ch. 257, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 155.]

7614. Levies—certificates and bonds. After the amount to be assessed and levied against the several tracts of land shall have been finally determined, the several boards, acting separately, and within their own counties, shall levy and collect the taxes apportioned and levied in their respective counties. They may issue warrants, improvement certificates, or bonds for the payment of the cost of such improvement within their respective counties, with the same right of landowners to pay without interest or in installments all as provided where the district is wholly within one county. [S., '13, § 1989-a32; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 156.]

7615. Bonds or proceeds made available. When drainage bonds are to be issued under the provisions of the preceding section they shall be issued at such time that they or the proceeds thereof shall be available for the use of the district at a date not later than ninety days after the actual commencement of the work on the improvement as provided in relation to districts wholly within one county, and subject to the same exceptions in cases of appeals set forth in section 7507. [39 G. A., ch. 124, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 157.]

7616. Supervising engineer. At the time of finally establishing the district, the boards of the several counties, acting jointly, shall employ a competent engineer to have charge and supervision of the construction of the improvement and they shall fix his compensation and he shall, before entering upon said work, give a bond running to the several counties for the use and benefit of the district in the same amounts and of like tenor and effect as is provided in districts wholly within one county. A duplicate of such bond shall be filed with the auditor of each of said counties. [S., '13, § 1989-a34; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 158.]

7617. Duty of engineer. The duties of the supervising engineer shall be the same in all respects as is provided by chapter 353 for districts wholly within one county. [S., '13, § 1989-a34; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 159.]

7618. Notice of letting work—applicable procedure. If the boards, acting jointly, shall establish such district, the auditors of the several counties shall immediately thereafter, acting jointly, cause notice to be given of the time and place of the meeting of the boards for letting contracts for the construction of the improvement. The notices, bids, bonds, and all other proceedings in relation to letting contracts shall be the same as provided where the district is wholly within one county, but duplicates of contractors' bonds shall be filed with the auditor of each county. [S., '13, § 1989-a33; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 160.]

7619. Contracts. All contracts made for engineering work and the work of constructing improvements of an intercounty district shall be made by written contract executed by the contractor and such person as may be authorized by the boards of the several counties and by joint resolution and shall specify the work to be done, the amount of compensation therefor and the times and manner of payment, all as provided in relation to districts wholly within one county. [S., '13, § 1989-a33; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 161.]

7621. Final settlement. When the work to be done on any contract is completed to the satisfaction of the supervising engineer he shall so report and certify to the boards of the several counties, which by joint action shall fix a day to consider said report, and all the provisions shall apply in relation to objections to said report and the approval of the same and the completion of any unfinished or abandoned work as is provided in chapter 353 relating to completion of work and final settlement in districts wholly within one county, except that, when the completed work is accepted by the joint action of the boards of supervisors of the several counties into which the district extends such acceptance shall be certified to the auditor of each county who shall draw a warrant for the contractor or give him an order directing the treasurer to deliver to him improvement certificates or drainage bonds, as the case may be, for the balance due from the portion of the district in such county. [S., '13, § 1989-a34; 39 G. A., ch. 116, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 163.]

7622. Failure of board to act. When the establishment of a district, extending into two or more counties, is petitioned for as hereinbefore provided and one or more of such boards fails to take action thereon, the petitioners may cause notice in writing to be served upon the chairman of each board demanding that action be taken upon the petition within twenty days from and after the service of such notice. [S., '13, § 1989-a36; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 164.]

7623. Transfer to district court. If such boards shall fail to take action thereon within the time named, or fail to agree, the petitioners may cause such proceedings to be transferred to the district court of any of the counties into which such proposed district extends by serving notice upon the auditors of the several counties within ten days after the expiration of said twenty days' notice, or after the failure of such boards to agree. [S., '13, § 1989-a36; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 165.]

7624. Transcript, docket, and trial. Upon the giving of such notice the auditors shall, acting jointly, prepare and certify to the clerk of the district court a full and complete transcript of all proceedings had in such case, on or before the first day of the next succeeding term of said court. The clerk of the district court shall thereupon docket the case and the same shall be tried as in equity and the appearance term shall be the trial term. [S., '13, § 1989-a36; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 166.]

7625. Decree. The court shall enter judgment and decree dismissing the case or establishing such district and may by proper orders and writs enforce the same. [S., '13, § 1989-a36; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 166.]

7626. Law applicable. Except as otherwise stipulated in this chapter the provisions and procedure set forth in chapter 353 shall govern and apply to the formation, establishment, and conduct of every levee or drainage district extending into two or more counties, the petition therefor, the giving or publication or service of notice therein, the appointment and duties of all officers or appraisers or commissioners, the making or filing of waivers, reports, plats, profiles, recommendations, notices, contracts, and papers, the classification and apportionment and assessment of lands and all other property, the taking and hearing of appeals, the issuance and delivery of warrants, bonds and assessment certificates, the payment of taxes and assessments, the making of improvements, ditches, drains, changes, enlargements, extensions, and repairs, the inclusion of lands, and the making or performance of every other matter or thing whatsoever relevant to or in any wise connected with such joint drainage or levee district, and the rights, privileges, and duties of all persons, landowners, officers, appellants, and courts. [S., '13, § 1989-a37; 38 G. A., ch. 54, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 167.]

DRAINAGE DISTRICTS EMBRACING PART OR WHOLE OF CITY OR TOWN

7627. Authority to include city.

7628. Inclusion of city—notice.

7629. Assessments—notice.

7630. Objections—appeal.

7631. Assessments—interest.

7632. Bonds, certificates, and waivers.

7633. Funding bonds.

7634. Jurisdiction relinquished.

7635. Request for relinquishment.

7636. Duty to relinquish.

7637. Jurisdiction of municipality.

7627. Authority to include city. The board of any county shall have the same power to establish a drainage district that includes the whole or any part of any incorporated town or city, including cities under special charter, as they have to establish districts wholly outside of such cities and towns, including assessment of damages and benefits within such cities and towns, but no board of supervisors shall have power or authority to establish a drainage or levee district which lies wholly within the corporate limits of any city or town, nor in any case to establish any district for sewer purposes. [S., '13, § 1989-a38; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 168.]

7628. Inclusion of city—notice. Notice of the filing of the petition for such district and the time of hearing thereon, shall set forth the boundaries of the territory included within such city or town and directed to the town or city clerk and the owners and lienholders of the property within such boundaries without naming individuals, to be served in the same manner as notices where the district is wholly outside of such city or town. [S., '13, § 1989-a38; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 168.]

7629. Assessments—notice. When the streets, alleys, public ways, or parks or lots or parcels including railroad rights of way of any incorporated town or city, or city under special charter, so included within a levee or drainage district, will be beneficially affected by the construction of any improvement in such district, it shall be the duty of the commissioners appointed to classify and assess benefits to estimate and return in their report the percentage and assessment of benefits to such streets, alleys, public ways, and parks, or lots or parcels including railroad rights of way and notice thereof shall be served upon the clerk of such incorporated town or city, irrespective of the form of government, and upon owners of lots, parcels, and railroad rights of way so assessed. [S., '13, § 1989-a38; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 169.]

7630. Objections—appeal. The council or clerk of such town or city or individual owners may file objections to such percentage and assessment of benefits in the time and manner provided in case of landowners outside such city or town, and they shall have the same right to appeal from the finding of the board with reference to such assessment. [S., '13, § 1989-a38; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 170.]

7631. Assessments—interest. Such assessment as finally made shall draw interest at the same rate and from the same time as assessment against lands. [S., '13, § 1989-a38; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 170.]

7632. Bonds, certificates, and waivers. The board of supervisors and the town or city council shall have the same power in reference to issuing improvement certificates or drainage bonds and executing waivers on account of such assessment for benefits to streets, alleys, public ways, and parks as is herein conferred upon the board of supervisors and the township trustees in reference to assessment for benefits to highways. [S., '13, § 1989-a38; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 170.]

7633. Funding bonds. Such cities or towns may issue their funding bonds for the purpose of securing money to pay any assessment against it as provided by law. [37 G. A., ch. 28, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 170.]

any drainage district which is located wholly within the corporate limits of any city or town, including those the outlets of which are outside of such limits, and the drains thereof have been wholly or partially constructed of sewer tile, or when the ground that is used for said drains is needed by the city or town for storm sewer and drainage purposes, said board shall relinquish all authority or control of all of said drain that is included within such corporate limits, to the city or town upon request of the city or town council as provided in the next section. [37 G. A., ch. 224, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 172.]

7635. Request for relinquishment. It is hereby made the duty of any city or town council, if it deems the same for the best interest of the said city or town, to pass, by a majority vote, a resolution requesting the board of supervisors to permit the city or town to take over and control the drains within its corporate limits which resolution shall be certified to the board of supervisors of the county and filed by the auditor, who shall spread the same upon the records of the drainage district. [37 G. A., ch. 224, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 173.]

HIGHWAY DRAINAGE DISTRICTS

7638. Establishment.
 7639. Powers.
 7640. Initiation without petition.
 7641. Engineer.
 7642. Survey and report.
 7643. Assessment—report.
 7644. Advanced payments.

7645. Payment from road or drainage funds.
 7646. Dismissal—costs.
 7647. Condemnation of right of way.
 7648. Laws applicable.
 7649. Removal of trees from highway.
 7650. Trees outside of highways.

7638. Establishment. Whenever, in the opinion of the board of supervisors, it is necessary to drain any part of any public highway under its jurisdiction, and any land abutting upon or adjacent thereto, it may proceed without petition or bond to establish a highway drainage district by proceeding in all other respects as provided in chapter 353. When the board does not proceed on its own motion, it shall so proceed when petitioned by the board of township trustees as to any highway under the jurisdiction of said board of trustees. [S. S., '15, §§ 1989-b, 1989-b2-1989-b6, 1989-b8, 1989-b12, 1989-b13; 37 G. A., ch. 161, § 1; 38 G. A., ch. 135, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 175-a1.]

7639. Powers. Such district, when established, shall have the powers granted to drainage and levee districts, and all parties interested shall have the same rights so far as applicable. [S. S., '15, §§ 1989-b, 1989-b2-1989-b6, 1989-b8, 1989-b12, 1989-b13; 37 G. A., ch. 161, § 1; 38 G. A., ch. 135, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 175-a1.]

7640. Initiation without petition. When the board of supervisors determines on its own action to proceed to the establishment of a highway drainage district, it shall do so by the adoption of a resolution of necessity to be placed upon its records, in which it shall describe in a general way the portion of any highway or highways to be included in such district, together with the description of abutting or adjacent land and railroad rights of way to be included in such district and made subject to assessment for such improvement. [S. S., '15, § 1989-b; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 175-a2.]

7641. Engineer. The board shall appoint a competent engineer for the district. If the county engineer is appointed, he shall serve without additional compensation. In no case shall the county engineer act as a member of the assessment commission in a drainage district provided for in this chapter. [S. S., '15, §§ 1989-b, 1989-b11; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 175-a3.]

7642. Survey and report. The engineer shall make a survey of the proposed district and report the same to the board, being governed in all respects as provided by sections 7437 and 7438 and designate particularly any portion of the county road system, the primary road system, or the township road system, or any portion of either and all of said systems, as well as all lands adjoining and adjacent thereto, including lands and rights of way of railway companies which in his judgment will be benefited by drainage of highways in such district, and which should be embraced within the boundaries of such district. [S. S., '15, § 1989-b1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 175-a4.]

7643. Assessment—report. The commission for assessment of benefits and classifying the property assessed shall determine and report:

1. The separate amount which shall be paid by the county on account of the county road system and the primary road system.

2. The amounts which shall be paid by the township or townships on account of the township road system.

3. The amounts which shall be assessed against the right of way or other real estate of each railway company within such district.

4. The amounts which shall be assessed against each forty-acre tract or less within such district. [S. S., '15, § 1989-b5; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 175-a5.]

7644. Advanced payments. The board on construction of such improvement may advance out of the county road fund that portion to be collected by special assessment, the amount so advanced to be replaced in said county funds as the first special assessments are collected. The board may in lieu of making such advancements, issue warrants to be known as "Drainage Warrants", said warrants to draw not to exceed six per cent interest per annum payable annually from the date of issue and to be paid out of the special assessments levied therefor, when the same are collected. [S. S., '15, § 1989-b7; 38 G. A., ch. 30, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 175-a6.]

7645. Payment from road or drainage funds. The amount fixed by the final order of the board to be paid on account of the primary road system shall be payable out of the primary road fund. The amount fixed by the final order of the board to be paid on account of the county road system may be payable out of the county road fund or out of the county drainage fund. The amount fixed by the final order of the board to be paid on account of the township road system shall be payable out of the township road fund or out of the township drainage fund. [S. S., '15, § 1989-b5; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 175-a7.]

7646. Dismissal—costs. If such proceedings are dismissed or said improvement abandoned, all costs of such proceedings shall be paid out of the road system for the benefit of which said proceeding was initiated. [S. S., '15, § 1989-b10; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 175-a8.]

7647. Condemnation of right of way. When in the judgment of the board of supervisors, it is inadvisable to establish a drainage district but necessary to acquire right of way through private lands for the construction of ditches or drains as outlets for the drainage of highways, the board of supervisors may cause such right of way to be condemned by proceedings in the manner required for the exercise of the right of eminent domain as for works of internal improvement, and apportion the costs and expenses thereof equitably among the several road systems benefited thereby, but no attorney's fees will be taxed. [S., '13, § 1989-a43; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 175-a9.]

7649. Removal of trees from highway. When the roots of trees located within a highway obstruct the ditches or tile drains of such highway, the board of supervisors or the board of township trustees shall remove such trees from highways under their respective jurisdictions, except shade or ornamental trees adjacent to a dwelling house or other farm buildings or feed lots. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 175-a11.]

7650. Trees outside of highways. When the roots of trees and hedges growing outside a highway obstruct the ditches or tile drains of any highway, the board of supervisors or the board of township trustees, as the case may be, may acquire the right to destroy such trees in the manner provided for taking private property for public use. Ornamental trees adjacent to any dwelling, orchard trees and trees used as windbreaks for a dwelling house, out-buildings, barn or feed lots, shall be exempt from the provisions of this section. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 175-a12.]

- 7670. Levy.
- 7671. Scope of act.
- 7672. Funds available to pay bonds.
- 7673. Limitation of actions.

7651. Authorization. The board of supervisors of any county or counties in which a drainage or levee district has been organized as by law provided, may establish and maintain a pumping station or stations, when and where the same may be necessary to secure a proper outlet for the drainage of the land comprising the district or any portion thereof, and the cost of construction and maintenance of said pumping station or stations shall be levied upon and collected from the lands in the district benefited by such pumping station or stations, in the same manner as provided for in the construction and maintenance of said districts. [S., '13, §§ 1989-a49, 1989-a52; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 176.]

7652. Petition — procedure. Such pumping station shall not be established or maintained unless a petition therefor shall be presented to the board signed by not less than one-third of the owners of lands benefited thereby. The lands benefited by such pumping station shall be determined by the board on said petition and report of the engineer, and such other evidence as it may hear. No additional land shall be taken into any such drainage district after the improvements therein have been substantially completed, unless one-third of the owners of the land proposed to be annexed have petitioned therefor or consented in writing thereto. [S., '13, § 1989-a49; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 177.]

7653. Additional pumping station. After the establishment of a drainage district, including a pumping plant, and before the completion of the improvement therein, the board or boards may, if deemed necessary to fully accomplish the purposes of said improvement, by resolution authorize the establishment and maintenance of such additional pumping station or stations as the engineer may recommend, and if a petition is filed by one-third of the owners of land within such district asking the establishment of such pumping plant or plants, the board or boards must direct the engineer to investigate the advisability of the establishment thereof and upon the report of said engineers the board or boards shall determine whether such additional pumping plant or plants shall be established. [38 G. A., ch. 283, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 178.]

7654. Transfer of pumps. If the board or boards determine that additional pumping plant or plants shall be established and maintained, a pump or pumps may be removed from any pumping station already established and may be installed in any such additional plant, if such removal can be made without injuring the efficient operation of the plant from which removed. [38 G. A., ch. 283, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 178.]

7656. Dividing districts. When a drainage district has been created and more than one pumping plant is established therein, the board or boards of supervisors may, and upon petition of one-third of the owners of land within said district shall, appoint an engineer to investigate the advisability of dividing said district into two or more districts so as to include at least one pumping plant in each of such districts. [38 G. A., ch. 283, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 179.]

7657. Notice—publication. If the engineer recommends such division the board of supervisors shall fix a time for hearing upon the question of such division and shall publish notice directed to all whom it may concern of the time and place of such hearing, for the time and in the manner as is required for the publication of notice of the establishment of said district, except that said notice need not name the owners and lienholders. [38 G. A., ch. 283, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 179.]

7658. Hearing—jurisdiction of divided districts. At the time fixed, the board shall determine the advisability of such division and shall make such order with reference thereto as shall be deemed proper, having consideration for the interests of all concerned. If such division is made, the board or boards having jurisdiction of the original district shall retain jurisdiction of the new districts created by such division for the purpose of collecting assessments theretofore made and making such additional assessments as are necessary to pay the obligations theretofore contracted. For all other purposes, each division shall be under the jurisdiction of the board or boards of supervisors which would have had jurisdiction thereof if originally established as an independent district. [38 G. A., ch. 283, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 180.]

7659. Division in other cases. After a levee or drainage district operating a pumping plant shall have been established and the improvement constructed and accepted, if it shall become apparent that the lands can be more effectually drained, managed, or controlled by a division thereof, then the said board or boards, or trustees, may, and if the district is divided by a stream, they shall, divide the district. [38 G. A., ch. 283, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 181.]

7661. Election and apportionment of trustees. If said district, before the division was made, was under the control and management of trustees, then each trustee shall continue to serve in the district in which he is situated, and other trustees shall be elected in each new district. The election for said new trustees shall be called by the old board of trustees in each district within ten days after said division is made and shall be conducted as provided for the election of trustees. [38 G. A., ch. 283, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 183.]

7662. Settling basin—condemnation. If, before a district operating a pumping plant is completed and accepted, it appears that portions of the lands within said district are wet or nonproductive by reason of the floods or overflow waters from one or more streams running into, through, or along said district and that said district or some other district of which such district shall have formed a part, shall have provided a settling basin to care for the said floods and overflow waters of said stream or watercourse, but no channel to said settling basin has been provided, said board or boards are hereby empowered to lease, buy, or condemn the necessary lands within or without the district for such channel. Proceedings to condemn shall be as provided for the exercise of the right of eminent domain. [38 G. A., ch. 283, § 4; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 184.]

7663. Funding bonds. When the owners of ten per cent of the land in a drainage or levee district having and operating a pumping station shall petition the board of supervisors to extend the time of payment of the taxes assessed against the lands within said district for a period not exceeding twenty years, under such rules and regulations as said board may direct, the interest on such assessments to be paid annually the same as other taxes levied against the property, not less than one-twentieth of the principal of said extended tax to be paid each year until the entire tax is paid, and the lien of such tax to continue until fully paid, the board of supervisors may settle, adjust, renew, or extend the legal indebtedness of such district as shown by the assessments levied against the lands therein whether evidenced by certificates, warrants, bonds, or judgments by refunding all such indebtedness and issuing coupon bonds therefor when such indebtedness amounts to one thousand dollars or upwards, but for no other purpose. [40 G. A., ch. 159, §§ 1, 11; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 184-a1.]

7664. Form of bonds. Such bonds shall be issued in sums of not less than one hundred dollars or more than one thousand dollars each, running not more than twenty years, bearing interest not exceeding six per cent per annum, payable annually or semiannually, and shall be substantially in the form provided by law for funding bonds issued for drainage purposes. [40 G. A., ch. 159, §§ 1, 11; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 184-a2.]

7665. Formal execution. Such bonds shall be numbered consecutively, signed by the chairman of the board of supervisors, attested by the county auditor. The interest coupons attached thereto shall be executed in the same manner. [40 G. A., ch. 159, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 184-a3.]

7666. Resolution — requisites — record. All bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be issued pursuant to and in conformity with a resolution adopted by the board of supervisors, which shall specify the amount authorized to be issued, the purpose for which issued, the rate of interest they shall bear and whether payable annually or semiannually, the place where the principal and interest shall be payable and when it becomes due, and such other provisions not inconsistent with law in reference thereto as the board of supervisors shall think proper, which resolution shall be entered of record upon the minutes of the proceedings of the said board and a complete copy thereof printed on the back of each bond, which resolution shall constitute a contract between the drainage district and the purchasers or holders of said bonds. [40 G. A., ch. 159, § 4; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 184-a4.]

7667. Registration. When bonds have been executed as aforesaid they shall be delivered to the county treasurer and his receipt taken therefor. He shall register the same in a book provided for that purpose, which shall show the number of each bond, its date, date of sale, amount, date of maturity, and the name and address of the purchaser, and if exchanged what evidences of debt were received therefor, which record shall at all times be open to the inspection of the owners of property within the district. The treasurer shall thereupon certify on the back of each bond as follows:

“This bond duly and properly registered in my office this day of 19.....

Treasurer of the County of

[40 G. A., ch. 159, § 5; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 184-a5.]

7669. Sale — application of proceeds. He shall, under a resolution and the direction of the said county board of supervisors, sell the bonds for cash on the best available terms or exchange them on like terms for a legal indebtedness of the said district evidenced by bonds, warrants, or judgments outstanding at the date of the passage of the resolution authorizing the issue thereof; and the proceeds shall be applied and exclusively used for the purpose for which said bonds are issued. In no case shall they be sold or exchanged for a less sum than their face value and all interest accrued at the date of sale or exchange. After registration the treasurer shall deliver said bonds to the purchaser thereof and when exchanged for indebtedness of said district shall at once cancel all warrants or bonds or secure proper credits therefor on judgments. [40 G. A., ch. 159, § 6; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 184-a6.]

7670. Levy. Drainage districts issuing funding or refunding bonds under this chapter shall levy taxes for the payment of the principal and interest thereof, where there has not been a prior levy covering same, in accordance with the provisions of the law relating to taxation. [40 G. A., ch. 159, § 7; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 184-a7.]

7671. Scope of act. Refunding bonds for the purposes set out in this chapter may be issued to pay off and take up bonds issued in payment for drainage improvements under prior laws or to refund any part thereof. Bonds thus issued shall substantially conform to the provisions of the law relating to drainage bonds and the face amount thereof shall be limited to the amount of the unpaid assessments, with interest thereon, applicable to the payment of the bonds so taken up. [40 G. A., ch. 159, § 9; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 184-a8.]

7672. Funds available to pay bonds. When refunding bonds shall be issued to pay for drainage improvements under the provisions of this chapter, all special assessments, taxes, and sinking funds applicable to the payment of such bonds previously issued shall be applicable in the same manner and the same extent to the payment of the refunding bonds issued hereunder, and all the powers and duties to levy and collect special assessments and taxes or create liens upon property shall continue until all refunding bonds shall be paid.

The drainage district shall collect the special assessments out of which the said bonds are payable and hold the same separate and apart in trust for the payment of said refunding bonds but the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to assessments or bonds adjudicated to be void. [40 G. A., ch. 159, § 10; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 184-a9.]

7673. Limitation of actions. No action shall be brought questioning the validity of any of the bonds authorized by this chapter from and after three months from the time the same are ordered issued by the proper authorities. [40 G. A., ch. 159, § 8; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 184-a10.]

7674. Trustees authorized. In the manner provided in this chapter, any drainage or levee district in which the original construction has been completed and paid for by bond issue or otherwise, may be placed under the control and management of a board of three trustees to be elected by the persons owning land in the district that has been assessed for benefits. [S. S., '15, §§ 1989-a52a, 1989-a61; 37 G. A., ch. 307, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 185.]

7675. Petition. A petition shall be filed in the office of the auditor signed by a majority of the persons including corporations owning land within the district assessed for benefits. [S., '13, § 1989-a52b; S. S., '15, § 1989-a52a; 37 G. A., ch. 307, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 186.]

7676. Election. The board, at the next regular, adjourned, or special session shall canvass the petition and if signed by the requisite number of landowners, it shall order an election to be held at some convenient place in the district not less than forty nor more than sixty days from the date of such order, for the election of three trustees of such district. It shall appoint from the freeholders of the district who reside in the county or counties, three judges and two clerks of election. [S., '13, §

1989-a52b; S. S., '15, § 1989-a63; 37 G. A., ch. 307, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 186.]

7677. Intercounty district. If the district extends into two or more counties, a duplicate of the petition shall be filed in the office of the auditor of each county. The boards of supervisors shall, within thirty days after the filing of such petition, meet in joint session and canvass the same, and if found to be signed by a majority of the owners of land in the district assessed for benefits, they shall by joint action order such election and appoint judges and clerks of election as provided in the preceding section. [S., '13, § 1989-a52b; S. S., '15, §§ 1989-a62, 1989-a63; 37 G. A., ch. 307, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 187.]

7678. Election districts. When a petition has been filed for the election of trustees to manage a district containing three thousand acres or more, the board, or, if the district extends into more than one county, the boards of such counties by joint action, shall, before the election, divide the district into three election districts for the purpose of securing a proper distribution of trustees in such district, and such division shall be so made that each election district will have substantially equal voting power and acreage, as nearly as may be. After such division is made there shall be elected one trustee for each of said election districts, but at such election all the qualified voters for the entire district shall be entitled to vote for each trustee. The division here provided for shall be for the purposes only of a proper distribution of trustees in the district and shall not otherwise affect said district or its management and control. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 188.]

7679. Record and plat of election districts. At the time of making a division into election districts, as provided in the preceding section, the board or boards shall designate by congressional divisions, subdivisions, metes and bounds, or other intelligible description, the lands embraced in each election district, and the auditor, or auditors if more than one county, shall make a plat thereof in the drainage record of the district indicating thereon the boundary lines of each election district, numbering them, one, two, and three, respectively. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 189.]

7681. Notice of election. The board, or, if in more than one county, the boards acting jointly, shall cause notice of said election to be given, setting forth the time and place of holding the same and the hours when the polls will open and close. Such notice shall be published for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper in which the official proceedings of the board are published in the county, or if the district extends into more than one county, then in such newspaper of each county. The last of such publications shall not be less than ten days before the date of said election. [S., '13, § 1989-a52b; S. S., '15, § 1989-a63; 37 G. A., ch. 307, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 191.]

7682. Assessment to determine right to vote. Before any election is held, the election board shall obtain from the county auditor or auditors a certified copy of so much of the record of the establishment of such district as will show the lands embraced therein, the assessment and classification of each tract, and the name of the person against whom the same was assessed for benefits, and the present record owner, and such certified record shall be kept by the trustees after they are elected, for use in subsequent elections. They shall, preceding each subsequent election, procure from the county auditor or auditors additional certificates showing changes of title of land assessed for benefits and the names of the new owners. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a75; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 192.]

7683. New owner entitled to vote. Anyone who has acquired ownership of assessed lands since the latest certificate from the auditor shall be entitled to vote at any election if he presents to the election board for its inspection at the time he demands the right to vote evidence showing that he has title. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a75; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 193.]

7684. Qualifications of voters. Each landowner over twenty-one years of age without regard to sex and any railway or other corporation owning land in said district assessed for benefits shall be entitled to one vote only, except as provided in the next section. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a73; 37 G. A., ch. 307, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 194.]

7685. Votes determined by assessment. When a petition asking for the right to vote in proportion to assessment of benefits at all elections for any purpose thereafter to be held within said district, signed by a majority of the landowners owning land within said district assessed for benefits, is filed with the board of trustees, then, in all elections of trustees thereafter held within said district, any person whose land is assessed for benefits without regard to age, sex, or condition shall be entitled to one vote for each ten dollars or fraction thereof of the original assessment for benefits against the land actually owned by him in said district at the time of the election, but in order to have such ballot counted for more than one vote the voter shall write his name upon the ballot. The vote of any resident of a county in which the district is located in whole or in part must be cast in person. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a73; 37 G. A., ch. 307, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 195.]

7686. Vote by agent. Any nonresident of the county or any corporation owning land or right of way lying wholly or in part within the district and assessed for benefits may have his or its vote cast by some resident taxpayer of the district or agent of such corporation when authorized by a power of attorney signed and acknowledged by such nonresident landowner or duly authorized officer of such corporation. Such power of attorney shall be filed with the auditor of the county where such election is held at least five days prior to the election at which it is to be effective. Every such power of attorney shall specify the particular election for which it is to be used, indicating the day, month, and year of such election, and shall be void for all elections subsequently held. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a73; 37 G. A., ch. 307, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 196.]

7687. Vote of minor or insane. The vote of any person who is a minor, insane, or under other legal incompetency shall be cast by the parent, guardian, or other legal representative of such minor, insane, or other incompetent person and in order to be counted it shall be cast in person. The person casting such vote shall deliver to the judges and clerks of election a written sworn statement giving the name, age, and place of residence of such minor, insane, or other incompetent person, and any false statement knowingly made to secure permission to cast such vote shall render the party so making it guilty of the crime of perjury. [37 G. A., ch. 307, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 197.]

7688. Ballots. Each ballot for election of trustees shall have the name of each person voted for printed or legibly written thereon, and the number of the election district for which he is a candidate. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 198.]

7689. Candidates voted for. Each qualified voter for the whole district shall be entitled to vote for one candidate for each district for which a trustee is to be elected. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 198.]

7691. Canvass — certificates of election. The canvass of the returns by the board or boards of supervisors shall be on the next Monday following said election and it or they shall make a return of the results of such canvass to the auditor, who shall issue certificates to the trustees elected, and when the district extends into more than one county, then the auditor with whom the election returns were filed shall issue such certificates. [S., '13, § 1989-a52c; S. S., '15, § 1989-a64; 37 G. A., ch. 307, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 200.]

7692. Tenure of office. Except as provided in the next section, the trustees so elected shall hold office until the fourth Saturday in January next succeeding their election and until their successors are elected and qualify. On the third Saturday in the January next succeeding their original election, an election shall be held at which three trustees shall be chosen, one for one year, one for two years, and one for three years, and each shall qualify and enter upon the duties of his office on the fourth Saturday of the same January. On the third Saturday in each succeeding January, an election shall be held to choose a successor to the trustee whose term is about to expire, and the term of his office shall be for three years and until his successor has qualified. [S. S., '15, §§ 1989-a52d, 1989-a65-1989-a67; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 201.]

7693. Levee and pumping station districts. In a levee district or drainage district having a pumping station an election of trustees shall be held biennially on the third Saturday in January, at which election two trustees shall be elected for a term of three years, but the term of one shall begin one year from the fourth Saturday in January after his election. Ballots shall indicate which of said trustees is for the term beginning on the first Saturday after his election and which for the term beginning one year from such period. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section the terms of trustees in any such districts shall expire on the fourth Saturday of January, 1925, and on the third Saturday of January, 1925, an election of trustees shall be held at which there shall be two trustees elected for two years, and one for three years, and thereafter biennially two trustees shall be elected with terms of office as first above provided. [S., '13, § 1989-a52e; S. S., '15, § 1989-a52d; 37 G. A., ch. 307, § 4; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 201-a1.]

7696. Change of time. The date on which said annual election shall be held may be changed by the choice of a majority of electors of such district expressed by ballot at any such annual election, and the return of such vote shall be certified in the same manner as the returns for election of trustees. [S., '13, § 1989-a52e; 37 G. A., ch. 307, § 4; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 204.]

7697. Vacancies. If any vacancy occurs in the membership of the board of trustees between the annual elections, the remaining members of the board shall have power to fill such vacancies by appointment of persons having the same qualifications as themselves. The persons so appointed shall qualify in the same manner and hold office until the next annual election when their successors shall be elected. In the event that all places on the board become vacant, then a new board shall be appointed by the auditor, or if more than one county, then by the auditor of the county in which the greater acreage of the district is located. The persons so appointed shall hold office until the next annual election and until their successors are elected and qualify.

7699. Organization. As soon as the trustees have qualified, they shall organize by electing one of their own number as chairman and may select some other taxpayer of the district as clerk of the board who shall serve during the pleasure of the board of trustees. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a70; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 207.]

7700. Power and duties of trustees. Trustees shall have control, supervision, and management of the district for which they are elected and shall be clothed with all of the powers now conferred on the board or boards of supervisors for the control, management, and supervision of drainage and levee districts under the laws of the state, unless otherwise specially provided. Such authority shall extend only to the district for which they are elected. [S. S., '15, §§ 1989-a52f, 1989-a71; 37 G. A., ch. 307, § 5; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 208.]

7701. Cost and expenses. All costs and expenses necessary to discharge the duties by this chapter conferred upon trustees shall be levied and collected as provided by law and such levy shall be upon certificate by the trustees to the board or boards of supervisors of the amount necessary for such levy. [S. S., '15, §§ 1989-a52f, 1989-a71; 37 G. A., ch. 307, § 5; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 209.]

7702. Disbursement of funds. Drainage and levee taxes when so levied and collected shall be kept by the treasurer of the county in a separate fund to the credit of the district for which it is collected, shall be expended only upon the orders of trustees, signed by the president of the board, upon which warrants shall be drawn by the auditor upon the treasurer. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a52f; 37 G. A., ch. 307, § 5; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 209.]

are negotiated. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a52f; 37 G. A., ch. 307, § 5; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 210.]

7704. Reclassification and other changes. If a reclassification of lands or a readjustment of the assessments of property or any important change of the district shall be deemed advisable by the said trustees, they shall submit such questions to the vote of the owners of land of said district assessed for benefits, by ballot, at the next regular election of trustees, or they shall have the power to call a special election therefor, with like notice as for regular elections which shall state the proposition to be submitted. Should the proposition receive the sanction of the majority of the voters at said election, then the trustees shall proceed in the same manner in the reclassification and readjustment of the assessments as is now provided for governing the actions of the board or boards of supervisors. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a71; 37 G. A., ch. 307, § 5; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 211.]

7706. Ballots distinguished—record. Said ballot shall be separate from any ballot for the election of trustees and when voted, such ballot shall be deposited in a separate box and be kept separate; and the returns of election shall be certified by the judges and clerks of election to the auditor, or if more than one county, to each auditor, and the ballots deposited with the auditor of the county having the largest acreage of the district, and a record made thereof in the drainage record of said district. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 212.]

7707. Report to auditor. Such trustees shall, from time to time, and with reasonable promptness, furnish the auditor of each county in which any part of said district is situated, with a correct report of their acts and proceedings, which report shall be signed by the chairman and the clerk of the board and shall be recorded by the auditor in the drainage record, and shall be published in one official paper in the county having a general circulation in the district. [S., '13, § 1989-a52g; S. S., '15, § 1989-a72; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 213.]

of the board is hereby fixed at three dollars per day and necessary expenses, to be paid out of the funds of the drainage or levee district for each day necessarily expended in the transaction of the business of the district, but no one shall draw compensation for services as trustee and as clerk at the same time. They shall file with the auditor or auditors, if more than one county, itemized, verified statements of their time devoted to the business of the district and of the expenses incurred. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a52f, 1989-a74; 37 G. A., ch. 307, § 5; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 214.]

7709. Change to supervisor management. Any district which has been placed under the management of trustees may be placed back under the management of the board or boards of supervisors in the manner provided in the next section. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 215.]

7710. Petition—canvass. For such purposes a petition signed by a majority of persons, including corporations, owning land within the district assessed for benefits and who in the aggregate own more than one-half the acreage of such lands, may be filed in the office of the auditor and if more than one county, then a duplicate shall be filed in the office of the auditor of each county.

The trustees shall fix a date not less than ten nor more than thirty days from the date such petition is filed for the canvass of such petition, and the trustees and auditor or auditors shall canvass said petition and certify and record in the drainage record the result. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 216.]

7711. Remonstrance. Remonstrances signed by the same persons who are qualified to sign the petition may be filed in the office of the auditor and if the same persons petition and remonstrate they shall be counted on the remonstrance only. Such remonstrances shall be filed not less than five days before the time set for hearing. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 217.]

7712. When change effective. If the result of the canvass shows a majority in favor of such change, then it shall become effectual on the date at which the next annual election of trustees would be held, and on such date the trustees shall surrender and turn over to the board or boards of supervisors the full and complete management and control of such district, together with all books, contracts, and other documents relating thereto. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 218.]

7713. Final report of trustees. On or before the date such change becomes effective, the said trustees shall make and file with the auditor, or if more than one county, a duplicate with each auditor, a final report setting forth:

1. The amount of cash funds on hand or to the credit of the district.
2. The amount of outstanding indebtedness of the district, and the form thereof, whether in warrants, improvement certificates, or bonds and the amount of each.
3. Any outstanding contracts for repairs or other work to be done.
4. A statement showing the condition of the improvements of the district, and specifying any portion thereof in need of repair. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 219.]

7714. Management by supervisors. After such change is made it shall be the duty of the board or boards of supervisors to manage and control the affairs of said district as fully and to the same extent as if it had never been under trustee management. They shall carry out any pending contracts lawfully made by the trustees as fully as if made by the board. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 220.]

7715. Drainage through land of others—application. When the owner of any land shall desire to construct any levee, open ditch, tile, or other underground drain, for agricultural, sanitary, or mining purposes, or for the purpose of securing more complete drainage or a better outlet, across the lands of others or across or through the right of way and roadbed of a railroad, and shall be unable to agree with the owner of any such lands or with any such railroad company upon the terms upon which such rights may be obtained, he may file with the township clerk of the township in which any such land or right of way is situated, an application in writing, setting forth a description of the land or other property through which he is desirous of constructing any such levee, ditch, or drain, the starting point, route, terminus, character, size, and depth thereof. [C., '73, § 1217; C., '97, § 1955; S., '13, § 1955; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 221.]

7716. Notice of hearing—service. Upon the filing of any such application, the clerk shall forthwith fix a time and place for hearing thereon before the township trustees of his township, which hearing shall be not more than ninety days nor less than thirty days from the time of the filing of such application, and cause notice in writing to be served upon the owner of each tract of land across which any such levee, ditch, or drain is proposed to be located, as shown by the transfer books in the office of the county auditor, and also upon the person in actual occupancy of any such lands, of the pendency and prayer of such application and the time and place set for hearing on the same before the township trustees, which notice, as to residents of the county and railroad companies, shall be served not less than ten days before the time set for such hearing, in the manner that original notices are required to be served. Notice to a railroad

7717. Service upon nonresident. In case any such owner is a nonresident of the county, such notice as to him shall be posted in three public places within the township where his land is situated at least fifteen days before the time set for such hearing, one of which places shall be upon the land of which he is the owner. [C., '73, § 1218; C., '97, § 1955; S., '13, § 1955; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 223.]

7718. Service on omitted parties—adjournment. If at the hearing it should appear that any person entitled to notice has not been served with notice, the trustees may postpone such hearing and fix a new time for the same, and notice of such new time of hearing may be served on such omitted persons in the manner and for the time provided by law and by fixing such new time for hearing and by adjournment to such time, the trustees shall not lose jurisdiction of the subject matter of such proceeding nor of any persons previously served with notice. [S., '13, § 1955; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 224.]

7719. Claims for damages—waiver. Any person or corporation claiming damages or compensation for or on account of the construction of any such improvement, shall file a claim in writing therefor with the township clerk at or before the time fixed for hearing on the application. A failure to file such claim at the time specified shall be deemed to be a waiver of the right to claim or recover such damage. [S., '13, § 1955; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 225.]

as required, they shall proceed to hear and determine the sufficiency of the application as to form and substance, which application may be amended both as to form and substance before final action thereon. They shall also determine the merits of the application, all objections thereto, and all claims filed for damages or compensation, and may view the premises. The trustees may adjourn the proceedings from day to day, but no adjournment shall be for a longer period than ten days. [C., '73, § 1219; C., '97, § 1956; S., '13, § 1956; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 226.]

7721. Shall locate when—specifications. If the trustees find that the levee, ditch, or drain petitioned for will be beneficial for sanitary, agricultural, or mining purposes, they shall locate the same and fix the points of entrance and exit on such land or property, the course of the same through each tract of land, the size, character, and depth thereof, when and in what manner the same shall be constructed, how kept in repair, what connections may be made therewith, what compensation, if any, shall be made to the owners of such land or property or damages by reason of the construction of any such improvements, and any other question arising in connection therewith. [C., '73, § 1220; C., '97, § 1956; S., '13, § 1956; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 227.]

7723. Appeal—notice. Either party may appeal to the district court from any such decision by causing to be served, within ten days from the time it was filed with the clerk, a notice in writing upon the opposite party of the taking of such appeal, which notice shall be served in the same manner as is provided for the service of original notices. If the appellant is the party petitioning for the drain, he shall also file a bond, conditioned to pay all costs of appeal that may be assessed against him, which bond, if good and sufficient, shall be approved by the township clerk. [C., '73, § 1223; C., '97, § 1957; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 229.]

7724. Transcript. In case of appeal, the township clerk shall certify to the district court a transcript of the proceedings before the trustees, which shall be filed in said court with the appeal bond, the party appealing paying for said transcript and the docketing of said appeal, as in other cases. [C., '97, § 1958; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 232.]

7725. Appeal—how tried—costs. The cause shall be tried in the district court by ordinary proceedings, upon such pleading as the court may direct, each party having the right to offer such testimony as shall be admissible under the rules of law. If the appellant does not recover a more favorable judgment in the district court than he received in the decision of the trustees, he shall pay all the costs of appeal. [C., '97, § 1957; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 230.]

7726. Parties — judgment — orders. The party claiming damages shall be the plaintiff and the applicant shall be the defendant; and the court shall render such judgment as shall be warranted by the verdict, the facts, and the law upon all the matters involved, and make such orders as will cause the same to be carried into effect. [C., '73, § 1224; C., '97, § 1958; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 231.]

7727. Costs and damages—payment. The applicant shall pay the costs of the trustees and clerk and for the serving of notices for hearing, the fees of witnesses summoned by the trustees on said hearing, and the recording of the finding of said trustees by the county recorder. [C., '73, § 1221; C., '97, § 1959; S., '13, § 1959; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 233.]

7728. Construction. Before entering on the construction of the drain, the party applying therefor shall pay to the party through whose land said drain is to be constructed the damages awarded to him, or shall pay the same to the trustees for his use. The applicant may proceed to construct said drain in accordance with the decision of the trustees, and the taking of an appeal shall not delay such work. [C., '97, § 1959; S., '13, § 1959; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 233.]

7729. Construction through railroad property. If any such ditch or drain shall be located through or across the right of way or other land of a railroad company, the trustees shall determine the cost of constructing the same and the railroad company shall have the privilege of constructing such improvement through its property in accordance with the specifications made by the trustees and recover the costs thereof as fixed by the trustees. Such railroad company before it may exercise such privilege shall file its election to that effect with the township clerk within five days after the decision of the trustees is filed. [S., '13, § 1959; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 234.]

7730. Deposit. In case such election is filed the applicant shall within ten days thereafter pay to the township clerk, for the use of the railroad company, the cost of constructing the drainage improvement through its property, in addition to the amount that may be allowed as damages, and when the railroad company shall have completed the improvement through its property in accordance with such specifications it shall be entitled to demand and receive from the township clerk such cost. [S., '13, § 1959; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 234.]

7731. Failure to construct. If the railroad company shall fail to so construct the improvement for a period of thirty days after filing its election so to do, the applicant may proceed to do so and may have returned to him the cost thereof deposited with the township clerk. [S., '13, § 1959; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 235.]

7733. Obstruction. Any person who shall dam up, obstruct, or in any way injure any ditch or drain so constructed, shall be liable to pay to the person owning or possessing the swamp, marsh, or other low lands, for the draining of which such ditch or ditches have been opened, double the damages that shall be sustained by the owner, and, in case of a second or subsequent offense by the same person, treble such damages. [C., '73, § 1227; C., '97, § 1961; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 237.]

7734. Drains on abutting boundary lines. When any watercourse or natural drainage line crosses the boundary line between two adjoining landowners and both parties desire to drain their land along such watercourse or natural drainage line, but are unable to agree as to the junction of the lines of drainage at such boundary line, the township trustees of the township in which said land is located shall have full power and authority upon the application of either party to hear and determine all questions arising between such parties after giving due notice to each of the time and place of such hearing, and may render such decision thereon as to said trustees shall seem just and equitable. [C., '97, § 1962; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 238.]

7735. Boundary between two townships. If any controversy referred to in the preceding section relates to a boundary line between adjoining owners which is also the boundary line between two townships, then such controversy shall be determined by the joint action of the board of trustees in said two adjoining townships, and all the proceedings shall be the same as provided in the preceding section except that it shall be by the joint action of the boards of trustees of said two townships. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 239.]

7736. Drainage in course of natural drainage. Owners of land may drain the same in the general course of natural drainage by constructing open or covered drains, discharging the same in any natural watercourse or depression whereby the water will be carried into some other natural watercourse, and when such drainage is wholly upon the owner's land he shall not be liable in damages therefor. Nothing in this section shall in any manner be construed to affect the rights or liabilities of proprietors in respect to running streams. [S., '13, § 1989-a53; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 240.]

7737. Drainage connection with highway. When the course of natural drainage of any land runs to a public highway, the owner of such land shall have the right to enter upon such highway for the purpose of connecting his drain or ditch with any drain or ditch constructed along or across the said highway, but in making such connections, he shall do so in accordance with specifications furnished by the highway authorities having jurisdiction thereof, which specifications shall be furnished to him on application. He shall leave the highway in as good condition in every way as it was before the said work was done. [C., '97, § 1963; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 241.]

7738. Private drainage system—record. Any person who has provided a system of drainage on land owned by him may have the same made a matter of record in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the drainage system is located as is hereinafter provided. [39 G. A., ch. 237, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 242.]

7739. Drainage plat book. The county recorder shall be provided with a loose leaf plat book, made to a scale not larger than sixteen inches to one mile, for each section of the land within the county in which such records shall be made. Such plat book shall consist of sheets of paper interbound by sheets of tracing cloth with proper heading, margin, and binding edge. Said plat book shall be used for keeping a record of drainage systems filed by any landowner. Plats shall be made or approved only by a registered engineer. Plats so offered for record shall be drawn to scale giving distances in feet, indicate the size of tile used, length of mains, submains, and laterals, and location with regard to boundary lines of tract or government corners and subdivisions. [39 G. A., ch. 237, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 243.]

7740. Record book and index. The county recorder shall also be provided with a record book and index referring to the plats provided for in the preceding section, and which may be used to give the owner's name, description of tracts of land drained, stating the time when drainage system was established, the kind, quality, and brand of tile used, the name and place of manufacturing plant, the name of contractors who laid the tile, the name of the engineer in charge of the survey and installation, the cost of tile, delivery, installation, and engineering expense, depths, grades, outlets, connections, contracts for agreements with adjoining landowners as to connections, and any other matters or information that may be considered of value, all of said information to be furnished by the landowner or the engineer having charge of the installation of the same and certified to under oath, and shall be certified under oath by a registered engineer as being a true and accurate record. [39

G. A., ch. 237, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 244.]

7741. Original plat filed. In lieu of making the record as herein provided any landowner may file with the county recorder the original plat used in the establishment of said drainage system, or a copy thereof, which shall be certified by the engineer having made the same. [39 G. A., ch. 237, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 244.]

7742. Record not part of title. The drainage records herein provided for shall not be construed as an essential part of the title to said lands, but may upon request be set out by abstracters as a part of the record title of said lands. [39 G. A., ch. 237, § 4; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 245.]

7743. Fees for record and copies. The county recorder shall be entitled to collect fees for the filing and information heretofore provided for, and for the making of copies of such records the same as is provided for other work of a similar nature. [39 G. A., ch. 237, § 5; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 246.]

CHAPTER 360

DRAINAGE DISTRICTS IN CONNECTION WITH UNITED STATES LEVEES

7744. United States levees—cooperation of board.
7745. Manner of cooperation.
7746. Report of engineer—payment authorized.
7747. Costs assessed.

7744. United States levees—cooperation of board. In any case where the United States has built or shall build a levee along or near the bank of a navigable stream forming a part of the boundary of this state, the board of supervisors of any county through which the same may pass shall have the power to aid in procuring the right of way for and maintaining said levee, and providing a system of internal drainage made necessary or advisable by the construction thereof. Such improvement shall be presumed to be conducive to the public health, convenience, welfare, or utility. [C., '97, § 1975; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 247.]

7745. Manner of cooperation. Any United States government levee under the conditions mentioned in the preceding section may be taken into consideration by the board as a part of the plan of any levee or drainage district and improvements therein, and such board may, by agreement with the proper authorities of the United States government, provide for payment of such just and equitable portion of the costs of procuring the right of way and maintenance of such levee as shall be conducive to the public welfare, health, convenience, or utility. [C., '97, § 1975; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 248.]

7746. Report of engineer—payment authorized. In the proceedings to establish such a district the engineer shall set forth in his report, separately from other items, the amount of the cost for the right of way of such levee, of constructing and maintaining the same; and if the plan is approved and the district finally established in connection with such levee, the board shall make a record of any such cooperative arrangement and may use such part of the funds of the district as may be necessary to pay the amount so agreed upon toward the right of way and maintenance of such levee. [C., '97, § 1976; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 249.]

7747. Costs assessed. If said district is established, the entire costs and expenses in-

7748. Annual installments.
7749. Collection of tax.
7750. Cost of maintaining.
7751. Laws applicable.

curring under this chapter shall be assessed against and collected from the lands lying within such district, by the levy of a rate upon the assessable value of the land within such district, sufficient to raise the required sum; provided that where the proposed improvement is for drainage only, the board may, in their discretion, classify the land within such district and graduate the tax thereon, as provided in chapter 353. [C., '97, § 1982; S., '13, § 1982; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 249-a1.]

7748. Annual installments. If the proposed improvement is the maintenance of a levee, the amount collected in any one year shall not exceed fifty mills on the dollar of the assessment valuation, which said assessment shall be levied at a level rate on the assessable value of the said lands, easements, and railroads within the district. If the amount necessary to pay for the improvement exceed said sum, it shall be levied and collected in annual installments. For all other improvements, the board shall levy a rate sufficient to pay for the same, and may, at their discretion, make the same payable in annual installments of ten or less. [C., '97, § 1984; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 249-a2.]

7749. Collection of tax. The assessment required under the two preceding sections shall be made by the board of supervisors at the time of levying general taxes, after the work has been authorized, and the same shall be entered on the records of the board of supervisors, then entered on the tax books by the county auditor as drainage taxes, and shall be collected by the county treasurer at the same time, in the same manner, and with the same penalties, as general taxes; and if the same is not paid he shall sell all such lands upon which such assessment remains unpaid, at the same time, and in the same manner, as is now by law provided for the sale of lands for delinquent taxes, including all steps up to the execution and delivery of the tax deed for the same. The landowners shall take notice of

and pay such assessments without other or further notice than such as is provided for in this chapter. The funds realized from such assessments shall constitute the drainage fund, as contemplated in this chapter, and shall be disbursed on warrants drawn against that fund by the county auditor, on the order of the board of supervisors. [C., '97, § 1983; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 249-a3.]

7750. Cost of maintaining. The board of supervisors shall have the right and power to keep and maintain any such levee, ditches, drains, or system of drainage, either in whole or in part, established under the preceding sections of this chapter, as may in their judgment be required, and to levy the expense thereof upon the real estate within such drainage district as herein provided for, and collect and expend the same; provided, however, that no such work which shall impose a tax exceeding fifty mills on the dollar on the assessable value of the lands within the district shall be authorized by them, unless the same is first petitioned for and authorized in substantially the manner required by this chapter for the inauguration of new work. [C., '97, § 1986; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 249-a4.]

7751. Laws applicable. In the establishment and maintenance of levee and drainage districts in cooperation with the United States as in this chapter provided, all the proceedings for said purpose in the filing and the form and substance of the petition, assessment of damages, appointment of an engineer, his surveys, plats, profiles, and report, notice of hearings, filing of claims and objections, hearings thereon, appointment of commissioners to classify lands, assess benefits, and apportion costs and expenses, report, notice and hearing thereon, the appointment of a supervising engineer, his duties, the letting of work and making contracts, payment for work, levy and collection of drainage or levee assessments and taxes, the issue of improvement certificates and drainage or levee bonds, the taking of appeals and the manner of trial thereof, and all other proceedings relating to such district shall be as provided in chapters 353 to 359, inclusive, except as otherwise in this chapter provided. [C., '97, §§ 1976-1989; S., '13, §§ 1976, 1977, 1979, 1981, 1982, 1984, 1985, 1985-a, 1986, 1989; 38 G. A., ch. 334, §§ 1-3; 40 G. A., ch. 158, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 250.]

INTERSTATE DRAINAGE DISTRICTS

- 7752. Cooperation—procedure.
- 7753. Agreement as to costs.
- 7754. Contracts let by joint agreement.

7752. Cooperation—procedure. When proceedings for the drainage of lands bordering upon the state line are had and the total cost of constructing the improvement in this state, including all damage, has been ascertained, and the engineer in charge, before the final establishment of the district, reports that the establishment and construction of such improvement ought to be jointly done with like proceedings for the drainage of lands in the same drainage area in such an adjoining state and that drainage proceedings are pending in such state for the drainage of such lands, the said authorities of this state may enter an order continuing the hearing on the establishment of such district to a fixed date, of which all parties shall take notice. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a77; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 251.]

7753. Agreement as to costs. The board shall have power, when the total cost, including damages, of constructing the improvement in such other state has been ascertained by the authorities of such other state, to enter into an agreement as to the separate amounts which the property owners of each state should in equity pay toward the construction of the joint undertaking. When such amount is thus determined, the board or boards having jurisdiction in this state shall enter the same in the minutes of their proceedings and shall proceed

- 7756. Conditions precedent.
- 7757. Assessments, bonds, and costs—limitation.

therewith as though such amount to be paid by the portion of the district in this state had been originally determined by them as the cost of constructing the improvement in this state. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a77; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 252.]

7754. Contracts let by joint agreement. When the bids for construction are opened, unless the construction work on each side of the line can go forward independently, no contract shall be let by the authorities in this state, unless the acceptance of a bid or bids for the construction of the whole project is first jointly agreed upon by the authorities of both states. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a77; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 253.]

7755. Separate contracts. The contract or contracts for the construction of that portion of the improvement within this state shall be entirely distinct and separate from the contract or contracts let by the authorities of the neighboring state; but the aggregate amount of the contract or contracts for the construction of the work within this state shall not exceed an amount equal to the amount of the benefits assessed in this state including damages and other expenses. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a77; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 254.]

7756. Conditions precedent. No contract shall be let until the improvement shall be finally established in both states, and after the final adjustment in both states of damages and benefits. No bonds shall be issued until all litigation in both states arising out of said proceedings has been finally terminated by actual trial or agreements, or the expiration of all right of appeal. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a78; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 255.]

7757. Assessments, bonds, and costs—limitation. All proceedings except as provided in this chapter in relation to the establishment, construction, and management of interstate drainage districts shall be as provided for the establishment and construction of districts wholly within this state as provided in chapter 353. All such proceedings shall relate only to the lands of such district which are located wholly within this state. Boards having jurisdiction in this state may make just and equitable agreements with like authorities in such adjoining state for the joint management, repair, and maintenance of the entire improvement, after the establishment and completed construction thereof. [S. S., '15, § 1989-a77; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 256.]

CHAPTER 362

DRAINAGE OF COAL AND MINERAL LANDS AND MINES

7758. Drainage through lands of another.
7759. Lead or zinc bearing lands.
7760. Setting apart compensation.
7761. Failure to pay compensation.
7762. Notice to smelters—effect.

7763. Right of way.
7764. Condemnation.
7765. Limitation of provisions.
7766. Interpretation of codification act.

7758. Drainage through lands of another. Any person or corporation owning or possessing any land underlaid with coal, who is unable to mine the same by reason of the accumulation of water in or upon it, may drain the same through, over, or under the surface of land belonging to another person, and if such person or corporation and the owner of the land cannot agree as to the amount of damages that will be sustained by such owner, the parties may proceed to have the necessary right of way condemned and the damages assessed in the manner provided in the chapter on eminent domain. [C., '73, § 1228; C., '97, § 1967; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 257.]

NOTE: For chapter relative to eminent domain, see ch. 366.

7759. Lead or zinc bearing lands. Any person or corporation who by machinery, or by making drains or adit levels, or in any other way, shall rid any lead or zinc bearing lands or lead or zinc mines of water, thereby enabling the owners of mineral interests in said lands to make them productive and available for mining purposes, shall receive one-tenth of all the lead and zinc taken from said lands as compensation for said drainage. [C., '73, § 1229; C., '97, § 1968; S., '13, § 1968; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 258.]

7760. Setting apart compensation. The owners of the mineral interests in said lands, and persons mining upon and taking lead or zinc from said lands, shall jointly and severally set apart and deliver from time to time, when demanded, the said one-tenth of the mineral taken from said lands to the person or corporation entitled thereto, and the owners of the mineral interests therein shall allow the party entitled to such compensation and his agent at all times to descend into and examine said mines, and to enter any building occupied for mining purposes upon any of said lands and examine and weigh the mineral taken there-

7761. Failure to pay compensation. Upon the failure or refusal of any owner of the mineral interests in said lands, or of any person taking the mineral therefrom to comply with the provisions of the preceding section, the person or corporation entitled to said compensation may recover the value of said mineral. If it shall appear that the defendant obstructed the plaintiff in the exercise of the right to examine such mines and to weigh such mineral, or concealed or secretly carried away any mineral taken from them, the court shall render judgment for double the amount proved to be due from such defendant. [C., '73, § 1231; C., '97, § 1970; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 260.]

7762. Notice to smelters—effect. The person or corporation entitled to said drainage compensation may at any time leave with any smelter of lead or zinc mineral in this state a written notice, stating that said person or corporation claims of the persons named in said notice the amount to which said person or corporation may be entitled, which notice shall have the effect of notices in garnishment, and also require the said smelter to retain, for the use of the person entitled thereto, the one-tenth part of the mineral taken from said land and received from the person named in said notice. The payment or delivery of the one-tenth part of the mineral taken from any of said lands by any of the persons whose duty it is hereby made to pay or deliver the same, shall discharge the parties liable jointly with him, except liability to contribute among themselves. [C., '73, § 1232; C., '97, § 1971; S., '13, § 1971; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 261.]

7763. Right of way. Any person or corporation engaged as aforesaid in draining such mines and lead or zinc bearing lands, when he or they shall find it necessary for the prosecution of their work, may procure the right of way upon, over, or under the surface of such mineral lands and the contiguous and neighboring lands, for the purpose of conveying the water from said mineral lands by troughs, pipes, ditches, water races, or tunnels, and the right to construct and use shafts and air holes in and upon the same, doing as little injury as possible in making said improvements. [C., '73, § 1233; C., '97, § 1972; S., '13, § 1972; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 262.]

7764. Condemnation. If the said person or corporation engaged in draining as aforesaid, and the owner of any land upon which said right of way may be deemed necessary, can not agree as to the amount of damages which will be sustained by the owner by reason thereof, the parties may proceed to have the same assessed in the manner provided for the exercise of the right of eminent domain as provided in chapter 366. [C., '73, § 1234; C., '97, § 1973; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 263.]

7766. Interpretation of codification act. The amendment, revision, and codification of existing law contained in this and the nine preceding chapters shall not affect litigation pending at the time said chapters go into effect, or the validity of the establishment, construction, or organization of any district then existing, the classification then existing of all lands, the assessment and levy of drainage taxes then made, existing contracts, and vested rights or any warrants, improvement certificates, or drainage bonds outstanding or already provided for under prior existing laws. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 185, § 265.]

MILLDAMS AND RACES

7767. Prohibition—permit.
 7768. Application for permit.
 7769. Notice of hearing.
 7770. Hearing.
 7771. When permit granted.
 7772. Certificate of approval.
 7773. Application for certificate.
 7774. Granting or refusing.
 7775. Permit fee—annual license.
 7776. Construction and operation.
 7777. Access to works.
 7778. Duty to enforce statutes.
 7779. Violations.
 7780. Action to collect fees.
 7781. Unlawful combination—receivership.

7782. Nuisance.
 7783. Condemnation—petition.
 7784. Precept for jury—service.
 7785. Guardian appointed.
 7786. Lands in different counties.
 7787. Oath—assessment of damages—costs.
 7788. Appeal.
 7789. Protection of banks.
 7790. Embankments—damages.
 7791. Right to utilize fall.
 7792. Revocation or forfeiture of permit.
 7793. Legislative control.
 7794. Pending applications.
 7795. Permits for existing dams.
 7796. State lands.

7767. Prohibition—permit. No dam shall be constructed, maintained, or operated in this state in any navigable or meandered stream for any purpose, or in any other stream for manufacturing or power purposes, nor shall any water be taken from such streams for industrial purposes, unless a permit has been granted by the executive council to the person, firm, corporation, or municipality constructing, maintaining, or operating the same. [R., '60, § 1264; C., '73, § 1188; C., '97, § 1921; 37 G. A., ch. 25, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 1.]

7768. Application for permit. Any person, firm, corporation, or municipality making application for a permit to construct, maintain, or operate a dam in any of the waters, including canals, raceways, and other constructions necessary or useful in connection with the development and utilization of the water or water power, shall file with the executive council a written application, which shall contain the following information:

1. The name of the navigable, meandered, or other stream in or across which a dam is maintained or it is proposed to construct a dam or other obstruction, and a description of the site for such dam, including the name or names of the riparian owners of the site.

2. The purpose for which the dam is maintained or for which it is proposed to maintain the same, including the use to which the water is to be put.

3. A general description of the dam, raceways, canals, and other constructions, including the specifications as to the material and plan of construction and a general description of all booms, piers, and other protection works which are constructed in connection therewith, or which it is proposed to erect in connection therewith.

4. The approximate amount of hydraulic power that the dam is capable of developing and the amount of power to be used.

5. A map or blue-print on a scale of not less than four inches to the mile, showing the lands that are or may be affected by the construction, operation, or maintenance of the dam, and the ownership of each tract of land within the affected area.

6. Such additional information as may be required by the executive council. [R., '60, § 1265; C., '73, §§ 1188, 1189; C., '97, § 1921; 37 G. A., ch. 25, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 2.]

7769. Notice of hearing. When any application for a permit to construct, maintain, or operate a dam from and after the passage of this chapter is received, the executive council shall fix a time for hearing, and it shall give notice of the time and place of such hearing by publication once each week for two successive weeks in at least one newspaper in each county in which riparian lands will be affected by the dam. [R., '60, §§ 1266, 1270; C., '73, § 1190; C., '97, § 1922; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 3.]

7771. When permit granted. If it shall appear to the council that the construction, operation, or maintenance of the dam will not materially obstruct existing navigation, or materially affect other public rights, will not endanger life or public health, and any water taken from the stream in connection with the project is returned thereto at the nearest practicable place without being materially diminished in quantity or polluted or rendered deleterious to fish life, it shall grant the permit, upon such terms and conditions as it may prescribe. [R., '60, § 1269; C., '73, §§ 1193, 1198; C., '97, § 1930; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 3.]

7772. Certificate of approval. No permit shall be granted for the construction or operation of a dam where the water is to be used for manufacturing purposes, except to develop power, until a certificate of the state department of health has been filed with the council showing its approval of the use of the water for the purposes specified in the application. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 3.]

7773. Application for certificate. When it is proposed to use the water for manufacturing purposes, except to develop power, or for condensation purposes, application must be made to the department of health, accompanied by a description of the proposed use of the water and what, if any, substances are to be deposited in such water and chemical changes made in the same, and such other information as the department of health may require to enable it to determine the advisability of the issuance of such certificate. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 4.]

7774. Granting or refusing. If the department of health is satisfied that the use of the water in any such project will not cause pollution of the same or render it materially unwholesome or impure, or deleterious to fish life, it may issue a certificate, and if it is not so satisfied, it shall refuse to issue same. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 4.]

7775. Permit fee—annual license. Every person, firm, or corporation, excepting a municipality, to whom a permit is granted to construct or to maintain and operate a dam already constructed in or across any stream for the purpose herein specified, shall pay to the executive council a permit fee of one hundred dollars and shall pay an annual inspection and license fee, to be fixed by the executive council, on or before the first day of January, 1925, and annually thereafter, but in no case shall the annual inspection and license fee be less than twenty-five dollars. All fees shall be paid into the general fund of the state treasury.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to dams already constructed having less than twenty-five horsepower capacity. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 5.]

7776. Construction and operation. The executive council shall investigate methods of construction, reconstruction, operation, maintenance, and equipment of dams, so as to determine the best methods to conserve and protect as far as possible all public and riparian rights in the waters of the state and so as to protect the life, health, and property of the general public; and the method of construction, operation, maintenance, and equipment of any and all dams in such waters shall be subject to the approval of the executive council. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 6.]

7777. Access to works. Such council or any member, agent, or employee thereof shall at all times be accorded full access to all parts of any dam and its appurtenances being constructed, operated, or maintained in such waters. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 6.]

7778. Duty to enforce statutes. It shall be the duty of the council to require that all existing statutes of the state, including the provisions of this chapter, with reference to the construction of dams, shall be enforced. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 6.]

7779. Violations. The construction, maintenance, or operation of a dam for the purpose specified herein without a permit first being issued, as in this chapter provided, shall constitute a misdemeanor, and shall be punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 7.]

7780. Action to collect fees. If any dam is constructed, operated, or maintained without the provisions of this chapter having been first complied with, including the payment of the permit fee and the annual inspection and license fee, the permit fee and the inspection and license fee may be recovered in an action brought in the name of the state, and in addition to the recovery of the amount due, there shall be collected a penalty of one thousand dollars. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 7.]

7781. Unlawful combination—receivership. If any dam for which a permit has been issued becomes owned, leased, trusteeed, possessed, or controlled in such manner as to be controlled by any unlawful combination or trust, or forms the subject or part of the subject of any contract or agreement to limit the output of any hydraulic or hydroelectric power derived therefrom for the purpose of price fixing as to such output, the state may take possession thereof by receivership proceedings instituted by the council, and such proceedings shall be conducted for the purpose of disposing of said property for lawful use and the proceeds shall be turned over to the persons found by the court to be entitled thereto, after the payment of all expenses of the receivership. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 8.]

7782. Nuisance. If any dam is constructed, maintained, or operated for any of the purposes specified herein, in waters of this state in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter or in violation of any provisions of the law, the state may, in addition to the remedies herein prescribed, have such dam abated as a nuisance. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 9.]

7783. Condemnation — petition. Any person, firm, corporation, or municipality owning land on one or both sides of a watercourse, desiring to construct or heighten any dam in such watercourse or to construct or enlarge a raceway, canal, or other construction necessary for the development or utilization of the water or waterpower for any of the purposes specified in this chapter therefrom for the purpose of propelling any mill or machinery or developing any power by the use of the water, and to whom a permit has been granted as in this chapter provided, may file in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which such dam is, or is to be erected or heightened, a petition designating himself as plaintiff and the owners of the lands affected, or that will be affected, as defendants, and describing with reasonable certainty the locality where such dam is to be erected or improved, and also of the lands that will be overflowed or otherwise affected thereby. [R., '60, §§ 1264, 1265, 1274; C., '73, §§ 1188, 1189; C., '97, § 1921; 37 G. A., ch. 25, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 10.]

7784. Precept for jury—service. The clerk shall thereupon issue an order, with a copy of the petition attached, directed to the sheriff, commanding him to summon a jury of twelve disinterested electors of his county to meet on a day fixed therein, and upon the lands described, which order, including the copy of the petition, shall be served on the defendants in the same manner and for the same length of time previous to the day fixed in the order as is required for the service of original notices.

Where the owner of any land affected is a non-resident of the state, service shall be made of the notice by publication in a newspaper in the county once each week for three successive weeks. [R., '60, § 1266; C., '73, § 1190; C., '97, § 1922; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 11.]

7785. Guardian appointed. When service is made upon a minor or insane person having no guardian, the clerk at the time of issuing the order shall, by indorsement made thereon, appoint a suitable person to make defense for him. [C., '73, § 1190; C., '97, § 1922; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 11.]

7786. Lands in different counties. If any of the lands are situated in a different county than that in which the petition is required to be filed, the proceedings shall apply thereto to the same extent as if such lands were situated in the county where it is filed. [R., '60, § 1270; C., '73, § 1191; C., '97, § 1923; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 12.]

7787. Oath—assessment of damages—costs. The jury shall be sworn, impartially and to the best of their skill and judgment, to view the lands described in the petition, and ascertain and appraise the damages each of the defendants will sustain by reason of such lands being overflowed or otherwise injuriously affected by the dam or raceway or heightening or enlarging the same. They may, in addition to examining the premises, examine witnesses, and shall determine the amount of damages to which each of the defendants are, in their judgment, entitled, by reason of the construction or improvement of the dam or raceway, and shall report their findings in writing, attaching the same to the order and returning it to the sheriff. All costs and fees in connection with the assessment of damages under this chapter shall be the same as in condemnation cases and shall be paid by the plaintiff. [R., '60, §§ 1267, 1273; C., '73, §§ 1192, 1193, 1203; C., '97, §§ 1924, 1925, 1935; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 13.]

7788. Appeal. Either party may appeal from such assessment to the district court within thirty days after the assessment is made and such appeal and all further proceedings in connection with such matter, whether as to an appeal or the payment of damages and costs, and all other matters connected with the proceedings, shall be the same as provided by law for assessment of damages in taking property for works of internal improvement. [C., '73, § 1194; C., '97, § 1926; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 14.]

7789. Protection of banks. Where the water backed up by any dam belonging to any mill or machinery is about to break through or over the banks of the stream or raceway, or to wash a channel, so as to turn the water of such stream or raceway, or any part thereof, out of its ordinary channel, whereby such mill or machinery will be materially injured or affected, the owner or occupant of such mill or machinery, if he does not own such banks or the land lying contiguous thereto, may, if necessary, enter thereon and erect and keep in repair such embankments and other works as may be necessary to prevent such water from breaking through or over the banks, or washing a channel as aforesaid; such owner or occupier committing thereon no unnecessary waste or damage, and being liable to pay all damages which the owner of the lands may actually sustain by reason thereof. [R., '60, §§ 1275, 1276; C., '73, § 1204; C., '97, § 1936; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 15.]

7790. Embankments—damages. If any person shall injure, destroy, or remove any such embankment or other works, the owner or occupier of such mill or machinery may recover of such person all damages he may sustain by reason thereof. [R., '60, § 1277; C., '73, § 1205; C., '97, § 1937; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 16.]

7791. Right to utilize fall. Any person owning and using a water power for the purpose of propelling machinery shall have the right to acquire, maintain, and utilize the fall below such power for the purpose of improving the same, in like manner and to the same extent as provided in this chapter for the erection or heightening of milldams. After such right has been acquired, the fall shall be considered part and parcel of said water power or privilege, and the deepening or excavating of the stream, tail, or raceway, as herein contemplated, shall in no way affect any rights relating to such water power acquired by the owner thereof prior to such change. [C., '73, § 1206; C., '97, § 1938; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 17.]

7792. Revocation or forfeiture of permit. If the person to whom a permit is issued under the provisions of this chapter does not begin the construction or the improvement of the dam or raceway within one year from the date of the granting of the permit, his permit may be revoked by the executive council, and if any permit holder does not finish and have in operation the plant for which the dam is constructed within three years after the granting of the permit, unless for good cause shown the council has extended the time for completion, such permit shall be forfeited. [R., '60, §

7793. Legislative control. No permit granted or rights acquired hereunder shall be perpetual, but they shall be subject to restriction, cancellation, and regulation by legislative action, and subject to all the provisions of this chapter. [37 G. A., ch. 25, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 19.]

7795. Permits for existing dams. The owner of a dam existing at the time of the taking effect of this chapter shall make application for a permit, which application shall be accompanied by such proofs and data as may be required by the executive council. Upon receipt of such application with proofs and data and payment of fees as required, the executive council shall grant a permit for the maintenance and operation of said dam as a matter of course. The owner of such dam shall, however, be subject to all of the regulatory provisions of this chapter. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 21.]

7796. State lands. Whenever the erection of any such dam will affect state owned lands, the applicant shall as a condition precedent secure a permit from the board, commission, or other official body charged with jurisdiction over and control of said lands. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 186, § 22.]

CHAPTER 364

WATER POWER IMPROVEMENTS

7797. Eminent domain.
7798. Use of highways.
7799. Public lands.

7800. Powers generally.
7801. Completion of work.
7802. Legislative control.

7797. Eminent domain. Any person, or any corporation organized for the purpose of utilizing and improving any water power within this state, or in the streams lying upon the borders thereof, may take and hold so much real estate as may be necessary for the location, construction, and convenient use of its canals, conduits, mains, and waterways, or other means employed in the utilization of such water power, and for the construction of such buildings and their appurtenances as may be required for the purposes aforesaid. Such person or corporation may also take, remove and use, for the construction and repair of its said canals, waterways, buildings, and appurtenances, any earth, gravel, stone, timber or other materials on or from the land so taken. Compensation shall be made for the lands and materials so taken and used by such person or corporation, to the owner, in the manner provided for taking private property for works of internal improvement. [C., '73, § 1236; C., '97, § 1990.]

7798. Use of highways. Such person or corporation may use, raise or lower any road for the purpose of having its said canals, waterways, mains and pipes pass over, along or under the same, and in such case shall put such road, as soon as may be, in good repair and condition for the safe and convenient use of the public. Any such person or corporation may construct and carry its canals, conduits, waterways, mains or water pipes across, over or under any railway, canal, stream or watercourse, when it shall be necessary for the construction or operation of the same, but shall do so in such manner as not to impede the travel, transportation or navigation upon, or other proper use of, such railway, canal or stream. The powers conferred in this section can only be exercised in cities and towns with the consent and under the control of the council. [C., '73, § 1237; C., '97, § 1991.]

7799. Public lands. Such person or corporation is authorized to pass over, occupy and enjoy any of the school, university and saline or other lands of this state, whereof the fee or any use, easement or servitude therein is in the public, making compensation therefor. No more of such land shall be taken than is required for its necessary use and convenience. [C., '73, § 1238; C., '97, § 1992.]

7800. Powers generally. Such corporation, in addition to other powers, shall have the following: To borrow money for the purpose of constructing, renewing or repairing its works; to make, execute and deliver contracts, bonds, notes, bills, mortgages, deeds of trust, and other conveyance charging or incumbering its property, including its franchises, or any part or parcel thereof; to erect, maintain and operate canals, conduits, mains, waterways, mills, factories, and other buildings and machinery, including waterways, sluices and conduits for the purpose of carrying waste water off from said premises to the stream from which the same was taken, or other convenient place; to let, lease, or sell and convey, any portion of their water supply, and any of the buildings, mills or factories, or machinery, for such sums, prices, rents, tolls and rates as shall be agreed upon between the parties; and to lay down, maintain and operate such water mains, conduits, leads and service pipes as shall be necessary to supply any building, village, town or city with water; and the grantee of any such person or corporation, or purchaser of said property, franchise, right and privileges under and by virtue of any judicial sale, shall take and hold the same as fully as the same were held and enjoyed by such person or corporation. [C., '73, § 1239; C., '97, § 1993.]

7801. Completion of work. Such person or corporation shall take, hold and enjoy the privilege of utilizing and improving the water power and the rights, powers and privileges aforesaid, and shall proceed in good faith to make the improvements and employ the powers above conferred, and shall, within two years from the date of acquiring such powers, provide the necessary capital, complete the preliminary surveys, and actually commence the work of improving and utilizing the water power and furnishing the supply of water as contemplated; and said waterworks and canals shall be completed within five years thereafter. [C., '73, § 1240; C., '97, § 1994.]

7802. Legislative control. The rights, powers, and privileges conferred by this chapter shall be at all times subject to legislative control. [C., '73, § 1240; C., '97, § 1994.]

CHAPTER 365

EMINENT DOMAIN

- 7803. Exercise of power by state.
- 7804. On behalf of federal government.
- 7805. Conveyance by state to federal government.
- 7806. Right conferred.
- 7807. Right to purchase.
- 7808. Railways.
- 7809. Cemetery lands.
- 7810. Limitation on right of way.
- 7811. Additional purposes.
- 7812. Finding by railway commission.

- 7813. Lands for water stations—how set aside.
- 7814. Access to water—overflow limited.
- 7815. Change in streams.
- 7816. Unlawful diversion prohibited.
- 7817. Abandonment of right of way.
- 7818. Right to condemn abandoned right of way.
- 7819. Procedure to condemn.
- 7820. Parties entitled to damages.
- 7821. Interpretive clause.

7803. Exercise of power by state. Proceedings may be instituted and maintained by the state of Iowa, or for the use and benefit thereof, for the condemnation of such private property as may be necessary for any public improvement which the general assembly has authorized to be undertaken by the state, and for which an available appropriation has been made. The executive council shall institute and maintain such proceedings in case authority to so do be not otherwise delegated. [C., '73, § 1271; C., '97, § 2024; S., '13, § 2024-d; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 1.]

NOTE: Condemnation by executive council for park and highway purposes, see §§ 1800 and 1801.

7804. On behalf of federal government. The executive council may institute and maintain such proceedings when private property is necessary for any use of the government of the United States. [S., '13, § 2024-a; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 2.]

NOTE: Condemnation by federal government, see § 4.

7805. Conveyance by state to federal government. When land or any easement therein is condemned by the state for the use and benefit of the United States, the governor, after the land has been finally acquired, shall have power to convey, to the United States, the easement or lands so acquired and all rights of the state therein. [S., '13, § 2024-b; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 3.]

7806. Right conferred. The right to take private property for public use is hereby conferred:

1. Counties. Upon all counties for such lands as are reasonable and necessary for the erection of courthouses or jails.

2. Agricultural societies. Upon all incorporated county fair societies, and county or district agricultural associations, when the property sought to be taken is necessary in order to enable such society or association to carry out the authorized purposes of its incorporation.

3. Corporations or persons in certain cases. Upon any corporation or person desiring to construct a canal, road, or bridge as a work of public utility, but the land taken shall not exceed one hundred feet in width.

4. Owners of land without way thereto. Upon the owner or lessee of lands, which have no public or private way thereto, for the purpose of providing a public way, not exceeding forty feet in width, which will connect with some existing public road. Such condemned roadway shall be located on a division, subdivision or "forty" line (or immediately adjacent thereto), and along the line which is the nearest feasible route to an existing public road. Such road shall not interfere with buildings, orchards, or cemeteries. When passing through inclosed lands, such roads shall be fenced on both sides thereof by the condemnor.

5. Owners of mineral lands. Upon all owners, lessees, or possessors of land, for a railway right of way thereto not exceeding one hundred feet in width and located wherever necessary or practical, when such lands have no railway thereto and contain coal, stone, gravel, lead, or other minerals and such railway is necessary in order to reach and operate any mine, quarry, or gravel bed on said land and transport the products thereof to market. Such right of way shall not interfere with buildings, orchards, or cemeteries, and when passing through inclosed lands, fences shall be built and maintained on both sides thereof by the party condemning the land and by his assignees. The jury, in the assessment of damages, shall consider the fact that a railway is to be constructed thereon.

6. Cemetery associations. Upon any private cemetery or cemetery association which is incorporated under the laws of this state relating to corporations not for pecuniary profit, and having its cemetery located outside the limits of a city or town, for the purpose of acquiring necessary grounds for cemetery use or reasonable additions thereto. The right granted in this subsection shall not be exercised until the board of supervisors, of the county in which the land sought to be condemned is located, has, on written application and hearing, on such reasonable notice to all interested parties as it may fix, found that the land, describing it, sought to be condemned, is necessary for cemetery purposes. The association shall pay all costs attending such hearing. 1. [S., '13, § 2024-f; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 4.] 2. [38 G. A., ch. 292, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 4.] 3. [C., '51, § 759; R., '60, §§ 1278-1288; C., '73, § 1269; C., '97, § 2023; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 4.] 4. [C., '97, § 2028; S., '13, § 2028; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 4.] 5. [C., '97, §§ 2028, 2031; S., '13, § 2028; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 4.] 6. [S., '13, §§ 1644-a-1644-e; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 4.]

7807. Right to purchase. Whenever the power to condemn private property for a public use is granted to any officer, board, commission, or other official, or to any county, township, or municipality, such grant shall, unless otherwise declared, be construed as granting authority to the officer, board, or official body having jurisdiction over the matter, to acquire, at its fair market value, and from the parties having legal authority to convey, such right as would be acquired by condemnation. [R., '60, § 1317; C., '73, §§ 1244, 1247; C., '97, §§ 1999, 2002, 2014, 2029; S., '13, § 1644-a; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 5.]

7808. Railways. Any railway, incorporated under the laws of the United States or of any state thereof, may acquire by condemnation or otherwise so much real estate as may be necessary for the location, construction, and convenient use of its railway. Such acquisition shall carry the right to use for the construction and repair of said railway and its appurtenances any earth, gravel, stone, timber, or other material, on or from the land so taken. [R., '60, § 1314; C., '73, § 1241; C., '97, § 1995; S., '13, § 1995; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 6.]

7809. Cemetery lands. No lands actually platted, used, and devoted to cemetery purposes shall be taken for any railway purpose without the consent of the proper officers or owners thereof. [S., '13, § 1995; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 7.]

7810. Limitation on right of way. Land taken for railway right of way, otherwise than by consent of the owner, shall not exceed one hundred feet in width unless greater width is necessary for excavation, embankment, or depositing waste earth. [R., '60, § 1314; C., '73, § 1241; C., '97, § 1995; S., '13, § 1995; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 8.]

7811. Additional purposes. Any such corporation owning, operating, or constructing a railway may, by condemnation or otherwise, acquire lands for the following additional purposes:

1. For necessary additional depot grounds or yards.
2. For the purpose of constructing a track or tracks to any mine, quarry, gravel pit, manufactory, warehouse, or mercantile establishment.
3. For additional or new right of way for constructing double track, reducing or straightening curves, changing grades, shortening or relocating portions of the line, and for excavations, embankments, or places for depositing waste earth.
4. For the purpose of constructing water stations, dams or reservoirs for supplying its engines with water. [R., '60, § 1314; C., '73, §§ 1241, 1242; C., '97, §§ 1995, 1996, 1998; S., '13, §§ 1995, 1998; 37 G. A., ch. 407, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 9.]

7812. Finding by railway commission. The company, before instituting condemnation proceedings under the last preceding section, shall apply in writing to the board of railroad commissioners, for permission to so condemn. Said board shall give notice to the landowner, and examine into the matter, and report by certificate to the clerk of the district court in the county in which the land is situated, the amount and description of the additional lands necessary for such purposes, present and prospective, of such company; whereupon the company shall have power to condemn the lands so certified by the commissioners. [C., '97, § 1998; S., '13, § 1998; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 10.]

7813. Lands for water stations—how set aside. Lands which are sought to be condemned for water stations, dams or reservoirs, including all the overflowed lands, if any, shall, if requested by the owner, be set aside in a square or rectangular shape by the board of railroad commissioners. [C., '73, § 1242; C., '97, § 1996; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 11.]

7814. Access to water—overflow limited. An owner of land, which has in part been condemned for water stations, dams or reservoirs, shall not be deprived, without his consent, of access to the water, or the use thereof, in common with the company, on his own land, nor, without his consent, shall his dwelling, outhouses, or orchards be overflowed, or otherwise injuriously affected by such condemnation. [C., '73, § 1242; C., '97, § 1996; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 12.]

7815. Change in streams. When a railway company would have the right to excavate a channel or ditch and thereby change and straighten the course of a stream or watercourse, which is too frequently crossed by such railway, and thereby protect the right of way and roadbed, or promote safety and convenience in the operation of the railway, it may, by condemnation or otherwise, acquire sufficient land on which to excavate such ditch or channel. [C., '97, § 2014; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 13.]

7816. Unlawful diversion prohibited. Nothing in the last preceding section shall give such corporation the right to change the course of any stream or watercourse where such right does not otherwise exist, nor, without the owner's consent, to divert such stream or watercourse from any cultivated meadow or pasture land, when it only touches such lands at one point. [C., '97, § 2014; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 14.]

7817. Abandonment of right of way. Where a railway constructed in whole or in part has ceased to be operated for more than five years; or where the construction of a railway has been commenced and work on the same has ceased and has not, in good faith, been resumed for more than five years, and remains unfinished; or where any portion of any such railway has not been operated for four consecutive years, and the rails and rolling stock have been wholly removed therefrom it shall be treated as abandoned. [C., '73, § 1260; C., '97, § 2015; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 15.]

7818. Right to condemn abandoned right of way. All rights of the person or corporation which constructed or operated any such railway, as is mentioned in the preceding section, over so much as remains unfinished or from which the rails and rolling stock have been wholly removed, may be entered upon and appropriated as provided in the next section. [C., '73, § 1260; C., '97, § 2015; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 16.]

7819. Procedure to condemn. In case of abandonment, as provided in the two preceding sections, any other corporation may enter upon such abandoned work, or any part thereof, and acquire the right of way over the same, and the right to any unfinished work or grading found thereon, and the title thereto, by proceeding as near as may be in the manner provided for an original condemnation. [C., '73, § 1261; C., '97, § 2016; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 17.]

7820. Parties entitled to damages. Parties who have previously received compensation in any form for the right of way on the line of such abandoned railway, which has not been refunded by them, shall not be permitted to recover the second time. The value of such roadbed and right of way, excluding the work done thereon, when taken for a new company, shall be assessed in the condemnation proceedings for the benefit of the former company or its legal representative. [C., '73,

§ 1261; C., '97, § 2016; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 18.]

public use shall not be construed as limiting a like grant elsewhere in the code for another and different use. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 18-a1.]

CHAPTER 366

PROCEDURE UNDER POWER OF EMINENT DOMAIN

7822. Procedure provided.
 7823. By whom conducted.
 7824. Application for condemnation.
 7825. Commission to assess damages.
 7826. Vacancies.
 7827. Commission when state is applicant.
 7828. Commissioners to qualify.
 7829. Notice of assessment.
 7830. Form of notice.
 7831. Signing of notice.
 7832. Filing of notices and return of service.
 7833. Notice to nonresidents.
 7834. Service outside state.
 7835. Appraisal—report.
 7836. Guardianship.
 7837. Power of guardian.
 7838. When appraisal final.
 7839. Appeal.
 7840. Sheriff to file certified copy.
 7841. Appeals—how docketed and tried.

7842. Question determined.
 7843. Reduction of damages.
 7844. Right to take possession of lands.
 7845. Dispossession of owner.
 7846. Erection of dam—limitation.
 7847. Deposit pending appeal.
 7848. Acceptance of deposit.
 7849. Additional deposit.
 7850. Payment by public authorities.
 7851. Removal of condemnor.
 7852. Costs and attorney fees.
 7853. Refusal to pay final award.
 7854. Sheriff to file record.
 7855. Clerk to file record.
 7856. Form of record—certificate.
 7857. Record of proceedings.
 7858. Fee for recording.
 7859. Failure to record—liability.
 7860. Presumption.

7822. Procedure provided. The procedure for the condemnation of private property for works of internal improvement, and for other public uses and purposes, unless and except as otherwise provided by law, shall be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 19.]

7823. By whom conducted. Such proceedings shall be conducted:

1. By the attorney general when the damages are payable from the state treasury.

2. By the county attorney, when the damages are payable from funds disbursed by the county, or by any township, or school district.

3. By the city attorney, when the damages are payable from funds disbursed by the city or town.

This section shall not be construed as prohibiting any other authorized representative from conducting such proceedings. [C., '73, § 1271; C., '97, § 2024; S., '13, §§ 2024-a, 2024-d, 2024-f; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 20.]

7824. Application for condemnation. Such proceedings shall be instituted by a written application filed with the sheriff of the county in which the land sought to be condemned is located. Said application shall set forth:

1. A description of all the property in the county, affected or sought to be condemned, by its congressional numbers, in tracts not exceeding one-sixteenth of a section, or, if the land consists of lots in a city or town, by the numbers of the lot and block, and plat designation.

2. A plat showing the location of the right of way or other property sought to be condemned with reference to such description.

3. The names of all record owners of the different tracts of land sought to be condemned, or otherwise affected by such proceedings, and of all record holders of liens and incumbrances on such lands; also the place of residence of all such persons so far as known to the applicant.

4. The purpose for which condemnation is sought.

5. A request for the appointment of a commission to appraise the damages. [R., '60, § 1230; C., '73, § 1247; C., '97, § 2002; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 21.]

7826. Vacancies. In case any appointee under the preceding section fails to act, the sheriff shall summon some other freeholder, possessing the required qualifications, to complete the membership. [R., '60, § 1319; C., '73, § 1251; C., '97, § 2006; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 23.]

7827. Commission when state is applicant. When the damages are payable out of the state treasury, the sheriff, immediately upon receipt of the application, shall notify the chief justice of the supreme court of the filing of such application. Thereupon the chief justice shall appoint six resident freeholders of the state to assess all said damages. No commissioner, so appointed, shall be interested in the same or a like question. No two members of such commission shall be residents of the same county. The names and places of residence of such commissioners shall be returned by said chief justice to, and filed with, the sheriff. The chief justice shall fill all vacancies which may occur in the commission appointed under this section. [S., '13, § 2024-d; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 24.]

7828. Commissioners to qualify. Before proceeding with the assessment all commissioners shall qualify by filing with the sheriff a written oath that they will to the best of their ability faithfully and impartially assess said damages and make written report to the sheriff. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 25.]

7829. Notice of assessment. The applicant, or the owner or any lienholder or incumbrancer of any land described in the application, may, at any time after the appointment of the commissioners, have the damages to the lands of any such owner assessed by giving the other party, if a resident of this state, ten days' notice, in writing. Such notice shall specify the day and the hour when the commissioners will view the premises, and be served in the same manner as original notices. [R., '60, § 1318; C., '73, § 1245; C., '97, § 2000; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 26.]

7830. Form of notice. Said notice shall be in substantially the following form, with such changes therein as will render it applicable to the party giving and receiving the notice, and to the particular case pending, to wit:

"To (here name each person whose land is to be taken or affected and each record lienholder or incumbrancer thereof) and all other persons, companies, or corporations having any interest in or owning any of the following described real estate:

(Here describe the land as in the application.)

You are hereby notified that (here enter the name of the applicant) desires the condemnation of the following described land: (Here describe the particular land or portion thereof sought to be condemned, in such manner that it will be clearly identified.)

That such condemnation is sought for the following purpose: (Here clearly specify the purpose.)

That a commission has been appointed as provided by law for the purpose of appraising the damages which will be caused by said condemnation.

That said commissioners will, on the day of, 19...., at o'clock .. m., view said premises and proceed to appraise said damages, at which time you may appear before the commissioners if you care to do so.

Applicant."

[R., '60, § 1320; C., '73, § 1247; C., '97, § 2002; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 27.]

7831. Signing of notice. The notice may be signed by the applicant, by his attorney, or by any other authorized representative. [R., '60, § 1320; C., '73, § 1247; C., '97, § 2002; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 28.]

7832. Filing of notices and return of service. Notices, immediately after the service thereof, shall, with proper return of service indorsed thereon or attached thereto, be filed with the sheriff. The sheriff shall at once cause the commissioners to be notified of the day and hour when they will be required to proceed with the appraisalment. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 29.]

7833. Notice to nonresidents. If the owner of such lands or any person interested therein is a nonresident of this state, or if his residence is unknown, no demand for the land for the purposes sought shall be necessary, but the notice aforesaid shall be published in some newspaper of the county and of general circulation therein, once each week for at least four successive weeks prior to the day fixed for the appraisalment, which day shall be at least thirty days after the first publication of the notice. [R., '60, § 1320; C., '73, §§ 1247, 1248; C., '97, §§ 2002, 2003; S., '13, § 2003; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 30.]

7834. Service outside state. Personal service outside the state on nonresidents in the time and manner provided for the service of original notices shall have the same force and effect as publication service within the state. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 31.]

7835. Appraisalment—report. The commissioners shall, at the time fixed in the aforesaid notices, view, if necessary, the land sought to be condemned and assess the damages which the owner will sustain by reason of the appropriation, and file their written report with the sheriff. The appraisalment and return may be in parcels larger than forty acres belonging to one person and lying in one tract, unless the agent or attorney of the applicant, or the commissioners, have actual knowledge that the tract does not belong wholly to the person in whose name it appears of record. In case of such knowledge the appraisalment shall be made of the different portions as they are known to be owned. [C., '73, § 1249; C., '97, §§ 2004, 2029; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 32.]

7836. Guardianship. In all cases where any interest in lands sought to be condemned is owned by a person who is under legal disability and has no guardian of his property, the applicant shall, prior to the filing of the application with the sheriff, apply to the district court for the appointment of a guardian of the property of such person. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 33.]

7837. Power of guardian. If the owner of any lands is under guardianship, such guardian may, under the direction of the district court, or judge thereof, agree and settle with the applicant for all damages resulting from the taking of such lands, and give valid conveyances thereof. [R., '60, § 1316; C., '73, § 1246; C., '97, § 2001; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 34.]

7838. When appraisal final. The appraisal of damages returned by the commissioners shall be final unless appealed from. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 35.]

7839. Appeal. Any party interested may, within thirty days after the assessment is made, appeal therefrom to the district court, by giving the adverse party, his agent or attorney, and the sheriff, written notice that such appeal has been taken. [R., '60, § 1317; C., '73, § 1254; C., '97, § 2009; S., '13, § 2009; 38 G. A., ch. 189, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 36.]

7840. Sheriff to file certified copy. The sheriff, when an appeal is taken, shall at once file with the clerk of the district court a certified copy of so much of the assessment as applies to the part appealed from. In case of such appeal the sheriff shall, as soon as all other unappealed assessments are disposed of, file with the clerk all papers pertaining to the proceedings and remaining in his hands. [R., '60, § 1317; C., '73, § 1254; C., '97, § 2009; S., '13, § 2009; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 37.]

7841. Appeals—how docketed and tried. The appeal shall be docketed in the name of the owner of the land, or of the party otherwise interested and appealing, as plaintiff, and in the name of the applicant for condemnation as defendant, and be tried as in an action by ordinary proceedings. [R., '60, § 1317; C., '73, § 1254; C., '97, § 2009; S., '13, §§ 2009, 2024-h; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 38.]

7842. Question determined. On the trial of the appeal, no judgment shall be rendered except for costs, but the amount of damages shall be ascertained and entered of record. [C., '73, § 1257; C., '97, § 2011; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 39.]

7843. Reduction of damages. If the amount of damages awarded by the commissioners is decreased on the trial of the appeal, the reduced amount only shall be paid to the landowner. [C., '73, § 1259; C., '97, § 2013; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 40.]

7844. Right to take possession of lands. Upon the filing of the commissioner's report with the sheriff, the applicant may deposit with the sheriff the amount assessed in favor of a claimant, and thereupon the applicant shall, except as otherwise provided, have the right to take possession of the land condemned and proceed with the improvement. No appeal from said assessment shall affect such right, except as otherwise provided. [R., '60, § 1317; C., '73, §§ 1244, 1272; C., '97, §§ 1999, 2010, 2025, 2029; S., '13, §§ 2024-e, 2024-g, 2024-h; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 41.]

7845. Dispossession of owner. A landowner shall not be dispossessed, under condemnation proceedings, of his residence, dwelling house, outhouse, orchard, or garden, until the damages thereto have been finally determined and paid. This section shall not apply to condemnation proceedings for drainage or levee improvements. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 42.]

7846. Erection of dam—limitation. If it appears from the finding of the commissioners that the dwelling house, outhouse, orchard, or garden of the owner of any land taken will be overflowed or otherwise injuriously affected by any dam or reservoir to be constructed as authorized by this chapter, such dam shall not be erected until the question of such overflowing or other injury has been determined in favor of the corporation upon appeal. [C., '73, § 1250; C., '97, § 2005; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 42.]

7849. Additional deposit. If, on the trial of the appeal, the damages awarded by the commissioners are increased, the condemnor shall, if he is already in possession of the property, make such additional deposit with the sheriff, as will, with the deposit already made, equal the entire damages allowed. If the condemnor be not already in possession, he shall deposit with the sheriff the entire damages awarded, before entering on, using, or controlling the premises. [C., '73, § 1258; C., '97, § 2012; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 45.]

7850. Payment by public authorities. When damages, by reason of condemnation, are payable from public funds, the sheriff, or clerk of the district court, as the case may be, shall certify to the officer, board, or commission having power to audit claims for the purchase price of said lands, the amount legally payable to each claimant, and, separately, a detailed statement of the cost legally payable from such public funds. Said officer, board, or commission shall audit said claims, and the warrant issuing officer shall issue warrants therefor on any funds appropriated therefor, or otherwise legally available for the payment of the same. Warrants shall be drawn in favor of each claimant to whom damages are payable. The warrant in payment of costs shall be issued in favor of the officer certifying thereto. [C., '73, § 1272; C., '97, § 2025; S., '13, §§ 2024-b, 2024-e, 2024-g; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 46.]

7851. Removal of condemnor. The sheriff, upon being furnished with a copy of the assessment as determined on appeal, certified to by the clerk of the district court, may remove from said premises the condemnor and all persons acting for or under him, unless the amount of the assessment is forthwith paid or deposited as hereinbefore provided. [C., '73, § 1258; C., '97, § 2012; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 47.]

7852. Costs and attorney fees. The applicant shall pay all costs of the assessment made by the commissioners. The applicant shall also pay all costs occasioned by the appeal, including reasonable attorney fees to be taxed by the court, unless on the trial thereof the same or a less amount of damages is awarded than was allowed by the tribunal from which the appeal was taken. [R., '60, § 1317; C., '73, § 1252; C., '97, § 2007; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 48.]

7853. Refusal to pay final award. Should the applicant decline, on the final determination of the appeal, to take the property and pay the damages awarded, he shall pay, in addition to the costs and damages actually suffered by the landowner, reasonable attorney fees to be taxed by the court. [C., '97, § 2011; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 49.]

7854. Sheriff to file record. The sheriff, in case no appeal is taken, shall, immediately after the final determination of condemnation proceedings, and after the acquiring of the property by the condemnor, file, with the county recorder of the county in which the condemned land is situated, the following papers:

1. The application for condemnation.
2. All notices, together with all returns of service indorsed thereon or attached thereto.
3. The report of the commissioners.
4. All other papers filed in said proceedings.
5. A written statement by the sheriff of all money received in payment of damages, from whom received, to whom paid, and the amount paid to each claimant. [C., '73, § 1253; C., '97, § 2008; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 50.]

7855. Clerk to file record. The clerk of the district court, in case an appeal is taken in condemnation proceedings, shall file with the county recorder the records which the sheriff is required to file in case no appeal is taken, and in addition thereto the following:

1. A copy of the record entry of the court showing the amount of damages determined on appeal.

2. A written statement by the clerk of all money received by him in payment of damages, from whom received, to whom paid, and the amount paid to each claimant. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 51.]

7856. Form of record—certificate. Said papers shall be securely fastened together, arranged in the order named above, and be accompanied by a certificate of the officer filing the same that said papers are the original files in the proceedings and that the statements accompanying the same are true. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 52.]

7857. Record of proceedings. The county recorder shall record said papers, statements, and certificate in the record of deeds, properly index the same, and carefully preserve the originals as files of his office. [C., '73, § 1253; C., '97, § 2008; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 53.]

7858. Fee for recording. The sheriff or clerk, as the case may be, shall collect from the condemnor such fee as the county recorder would have legal right to demand for making such record, and pay such fee to the recorder upon presenting the papers for record. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 54.]

7859. Failure to record—liability. Any sheriff, or clerk of the district court, as the case may be, who fails to present said papers, statements, and certificate for record, and any recorder who fails to record the same as above provided shall be liable for all damages caused by such failure. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 55.]

7860. Presumption. The said original papers, statements, and certificate, or the record thereof shall be presumptive evidence of title in the condemnor, and shall constitute constructive notice of the right of such condemnor to the lands condemned. [C., '73, § 1253; C., '97, § 2008; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 56.]

7861. Relocation of railway.

7862. Failure to operate or construct railway.

7861. Relocation of railway. Such part of a railway right of way as is wholly abandoned for railway purposes by the relocation of the line of railway, shall revert to the persons who, at the time of the abandonment, are 7863. Quasi-public roads and right of ways.

7864. Lands for highway improvement.

owners of the tract from which such abandoned right of way was taken. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 57.]

7862. Failure to operate or construct railway. If a railway, or any part thereof, shall not be used or operated for a period of eight years, or if, its construction having been commenced, work on the same has ceased and has not been in good faith resumed for eight years, the right of way, including the roadbed, shall revert to the persons who, at the time of the reversion, are owners of the tract from which such right of way was taken. [C., '73, § 1260; C., '97, § 2015; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 58.]

7863. Quasi-public roads and right of ways. Roads established for the purpose of providing a public road to lands which theretofore had no such road, shall, when not used or operated for said purpose for eight consecutive years, revert to those persons who, at the time of the reversion, are owners of the tract from which such road was taken. [C., '97, § 2030; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 59.]

7864. Lands for highway improvement. Lands condemned by a county, city, or town for the purpose of obtaining gravel or other suitable material for highway improvement, and not used for such purpose for five consecutive years, shall revert to those persons who, at the time of the reversion are owners of the tract from which the condemned lands were taken. S., '13, § 2024-1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 187, § 60.]

7865. Eligibility of commissioners and secretary. No person in the employ of any common carrier, or owning any bonds, stock, or property in any railroad company, or who is in any way or manner pecuniarily interested in any railroad corporation, shall be eligible to the office of railroad commissioner or secretary of the board; and the entering into the employ of any common carrier, or the acquiring of any stock or other interest in any common carrier by any officer under this chapter, after his election or appointment, shall disqualify him to hold the office and to perform the duties thereof. [C., '97, § 2111; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 1.]

7866. Election—organization. The board of railroad commissioners shall consist of three persons having the qualifications of electors. On the second Tuesday of January of each year, the board shall organize by electing one of its members as chairman, and appointing a secretary, who shall take the same oath as the commissioners; but this or a part of this may be done at a subsequent meeting. The board shall have power to employ such additional clerical help as it may find necessary. [C., '97, § 2111; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 2.]

7867. Proceedings. The board may in all cases conduct its proceedings, when not otherwise prescribed by law, in such manner as will best conduce to the proper dispatch of business and the attainment of justice. [C., '97, § 2142.]

7868. Quorum—personal interest. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but no commissioner shall participate in any hearing or proceeding in which he has any pecuniary interest. [C., '97, § 2142.]

7869. Rules, forms, and service. It may from time to time make or amend such general rules or orders as may be necessary for the preservation of order and the regulation of proceedings before it, including forms of notice and the service thereof, which shall conform as nearly as may be to those in use in the courts of the state. [C., '97, § 2142.]

7870. Appearances—record of votes—public hearings. Any party may appear before it and be heard in person or by attorney. Every vote and official action thereof shall be entered of record, and, upon the request of either party or person interested, its proceedings shall be public. [C., '97, § 2142.]

7871. Seal. It shall have a seal, of which courts shall take judicial notice. [C., '97, § 2142.]

7874. General jurisdiction. The board shall have general supervision of all railroads in the state, express companies, car companies, sleeping car companies, freight and freight line companies, interurban railway companies, motor carriers, and any common carrier engaged in the transportation of passengers or freight by railroads, except street railroads, and also all lines for the transmission, sale, and distribution of electrical current for light, heat, or power, except in cities and towns. It shall investigate any alleged neglect or violation of law by any such common carrier, its agents, officers, or employees. [C., '97, § 2112; S., '13, § 2120-n; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 5.]

7875. Inspection—notice to repair. It shall from time to time carefully examine into and inspect the condition of each railroad, its tracks, bridges, and equipment, and the manner of its conduct, operation, and management with regard to the public safety and convenience in the state. If found by it unsafe, it shall immediately notify the railroad company whose duty it is to put the same in repair, which shall be done by it within such time as the board shall fix. If any corporation fails to perform this duty the board may forbid and prevent it from running trains over the defective portion while unsafe. [C., '97, § 2113; S., '13, § 2113; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 6.]

7876. Connections and shelter. Should any railroad or transportation company in this state fail to provide proper shelter for its patrons at stations where two or more tracks are operated, or fail or refuse to connect by proper switches or tracks with the tracks or lines of other railroad or transportation companies, the board may require such railroad or transportation company to provide the same in such manner and upon such conditions as it may determine. [C., '97, § 2113; S., '13, § 2113; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 7.]

NOTE: See §§ 803 and 8016.

7877. Changes in operation and improvements. When, in the judgment of the board, any railway corporation fails in any respect to comply with the terms of its charter or articles of incorporation or the laws of the state; or when in its judgment any repairs are necessary upon its road; or any addition to its rolling stock, or addition to or change in its stations or station houses, or the equipment thereof, for the health and convenience of the public, or change in its rates of fare for transporting freight or passengers, or change in the mode of operating its road or conducting its business, is reasonable and expedient in order to promote the security, convenience, and accommodation of the public, the board may make an order prescribing such improvements and changes as it finds to be proper and shall serve a notice upon such corporation, in the manner provided for the service of an original notice in a civil action, which notice shall be signed by its secretary. A report of such proceedings shall be included in its annual report to the governor. Nothing in this or the two preceding sections shall be so construed as relieving any railroad company from its responsibility or liability for damage to person or property. [C., '97, § 2113; S., '13, § 2113; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 8.]

7878. Investigation and inquiry. The board shall investigate and inquire into the management of the business of all common carriers subject to this chapter and chapter 373 and keep itself well informed as to the manner and method in which the same is conducted. It shall have the right to obtain from them full and complete information necessary to enable the board to perform its duties. It shall have power to require the attendance and testimony of witnesses, the production of all books, papers, tariff schedules, contracts, agreements, and documents, relating to any matter under investigation, and to inspect the same and to examine under oath or otherwise any officer, director, agent, or employee of any common carrier; to issue subpoenas and to enforce obedience thereto. [C., '97, §§ 2115, 2133; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 9.]

7879. Aid from courts. The board may invoke the aid of any court of record in any county where the carrier extends, in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers, tariff schedules, agreements, and other documents. Any court or judge thereof having jurisdiction where any inquiry is carried on shall, in case of the refusal of any person to obey a subpoena or other process, issue an order requiring any of the officers, agents, or employees of any carrier or other person to appear before the board and produce all books and papers required by such order and testify in relation to any matter under investigation. A failure to obey any such order of the court shall be punished as a contempt. [C., '97, § 2133; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 10.]

7880. Hindering or obstructing board. Any person who shall wilfully obstruct it or its members in the performance of their duties, or who shall refuse to give any information within his possession that may be required by it within the line of its duty, shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, in the discretion of the court. [C., '97, § 2115; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 11.]

7881. Examination of rates. The board shall, upon the application of the mayor and council of any city or town, or the trustees of any township, make an examination of the rate of passenger fare or freight tariff charged by any railroad company, and of the condition or operation of any railroad, any part of whose location lies within the limits of such city, town, or township; and if twenty-five or more voters in any city, town, or township shall, by written petition, request the mayor and council of such city or town, or the trustees of such township, to make the said complaint and application, and they refuse, they shall state the reason therefor in writing upon the petition, and return the same to the petitioners, who may thereupon, within ten days from the date of such refusal and return, present the same to the board of commissioners, who shall, if it thinks the public good demands the examination, proceed to make it in the same manner as if called upon by the mayor and council of any city or town, or the trustees of any township. Before proceeding to make such examination, it shall give to the petitioners and the corporation reasonable notice, in writing, of the time and place of entering upon the same. If, upon such an examination, it shall appear to the board that the complaint is well founded, it shall, within ten days, inform the corporation operating such railroad of its finding, and shall report its doings to the governor. [C., '97, § 2117.]

7882. Cumulative remedies. Nothing in this or chapter 373 shall be construed to estop or hinder any persons or corporations from bringing action against any railway company for any violation of the laws of the state for the government of railroads. [C., '97, § 2118.]

7883. Jurisdiction of courts to enforce order. The district courts of this state shall have jurisdiction to enforce, by proper decrees, injunctions, and orders, the rulings, orders and regulations affecting public rights, made by the board as authorized by law for the direction and observance of railroads in this state.

The proceedings therefor shall be by equitable action in the name of the state, and shall be instituted by the commerce counsel, whenever advised by the board that any railway corporation, or person operating a line of road in this state, is violating and refusing to comply with any rule, order, or regulation made by the board, and applicable to such railroad or person. [C., '97, § 2119; S., '13, § 2119; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 12.]

7884. Mandatory injunction—contempt. It shall be the duty of the court in which any such cause shall be pending to require the issue to be made up at the first term of the court to which such cause is brought, which shall be the trial term, and to give the same precedence over other civil business. If the court shall find that such rule, regulation, or order is reasonable and just, and that in refusing compliance therewith said railway company is neglecting and omitting the performance of any public duty or obligation, the court shall decree a mandatory and perpetual injunction, compelling obedience to and compliance with such rule, order, or regulation by said railroad company or person, its officers, agents, servants, and employees, and may grant such other relief as may be deemed just and proper. All violations of such decree shall render the company, persons, officers, agents, servants, and employees who are in any manner instrumental in such violation, guilty of contempt of court, and the court may punish such contempt by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars for each offense. Such decree shall continue and remain in effect and be enforced until the rule, order, or regulation shall be modified or vacated by the board. [C., '97, § 2119; S., '13, § 2119; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 13.]

7885. When order effective—violation. All rules, orders, and regulations affecting public rights, made by the board of railroad commissioners, as now or may hereafter be authorized for the direction and observance of railroads in this state, shall be in full force and effect from and after the date fixed by the board. If any railroad fails, neglects, or refuses to comply with any rule, order, or regulation made by the board within the time specified, it shall, for each day of such failure, pay a penalty of fifty dollars. [S., '13, § 2119; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 14.]

7886. Time may be extended to test legality. The time for the taking effect of any rule, order, or regulation affecting public rights, made by the board, may, in its discretion, be extended; and said extension of time may be granted for the purpose of testing the legality thereof, upon application by any such aggrieved railroad, showing reasonable grounds therefor, and that said application is made in good faith and not for the purpose of delay. [S., '13, § 2119; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 15.]

ceedings in any court of proper jurisdiction to have the same vacated. If found by the court, after due trial, not to be reasonable, equitable, or just, and if upon an appeal from any rule, order, or regulation of the board the complaining railroad is successful in having such rule, order, or regulation vacated, the aforesaid penalty shall be set aside. [S., '13, § 2119; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 16.]

7888. Remitting penalty. When any common carrier shall fail upon appeal to secure a vacation of the order appealed from, it may apply to the court in which the appeal is finally adjudicated for an order remitting the penalty which has accrued during the pendency of the appeal. Upon a satisfactory showing that the appeal was prosecuted in good faith and not for the purpose of delay, and that there were reasonable grounds to believe that the order appealed from was unreasonable or unjust or that the power of the board to make the same was doubtful, such court may remit the penalty that has accrued during the pendency of the appeal. [S., '13, § 2119; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 17.]

7889. Costs—attorney's fees. When a decree shall be entered against a railroad company or person under the six preceding sections, the court shall render judgment for costs, and attorney's fees for counsel representing the state. [C., '97, § 2120.]

7890. Interstate freight rates. The board shall exercise constant diligence to ascertain the rates, charges, rules, and practices of common carriers operating in this state, in relation to the transportation of freight in interstate business. When it shall ascertain from any source or have reasonable grounds to believe that the rates charged on such interstate business or the rules or practices in relation thereto discriminate unjustly against any of the citizens, industries, interests, or localities of the state, or place any of them at an unreasonable disadvantage as compared with those of other states, or are in violation of the laws of the United States regulating commerce, or in conflict with the rulings, orders, or regulations of the interstate commerce commission, the board shall take the necessary steps to prevent the continuance of such rates, rules, or practices. [S., '13, § 2120-a; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 18.]

7891. Application to interstate commerce commission. When any common carrier has put in force any rates, rules, or practices in relation to interstate freight business, in violation of the laws of the United States regulating commerce, or of the orders, rules, or regulations of the interstate commerce commission, or shall unjustly discriminate against any of the citizens, industries, interests, or localities of the state, the board shall present the material facts involved in such violations or discrimination to the interstate commerce commission and seek relief therefrom, and, if deemed necessary or expedient, the board shall prosecute any charge growing out of such violation or discrimination, at the expense of the state, before the interstate commerce commission. [S., '13, § 2120-b; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 19.]

7892. Choice of remedies. Any person claiming damages from a common carrier on account of any violation of the provisions of chapter 373 may either make complaint to the board of railroad commissioners, or may bring action on his own behalf for the recovery of such damages; but he shall not have the right to pursue both of said remedies at the same time. [C., '97, § 2131; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 19-a1.]

7893. Complaints. Any person, firm, corporation, association, mercantile, agricultural, or manufacturing society, body politic, or municipal organization, may file with the board a petition setting forth any particular in which any common carrier has violated the law to which it is subject and the amount of damages sustained by reason thereof. The board shall furnish to the carrier against which complaint is filed, a copy thereof, and a reasonable time shall be fixed within which such carrier shall answer the petition or satisfy the demand therein made. If such carrier fails to satisfy the complaint within the time fixed or there shall appear to be reasonable grounds for investigating the matters set forth in said petition, the board shall hear and determine the questions involved and make such orders as it shall find to be proper. No petition so filed shall be dismissed on the grounds that the petitioner has not suffered any direct damage. When the board ascertains or has reason to believe that any carrier is violating any of the laws to which it is subject, it may institute an investigation and cause a hearing to be made before it in relation to such matters in all respects as fully as if a petition had been filed. [C., '97, § 2134; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 20.]

7894. Investigation—report. When a hearing has been had before the board after notice, it shall make a report in writing setting forth the findings of fact and its conclusions together with its recommendations or orders as to what reparation, if any, the offending carrier shall make to any party who has suffered damage. Such finding of fact shall thereafter in all legal proceedings be prima facie evidence of every fact found. All reports of hearings and investigations made by the board shall be entered of record and a copy furnished to the carrier against which the complaint was filed, to the party complaining, and to any other person having a direct interest in the matter. [C., '97, § 2135; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 21.]

7895. Orders—compliance—release. When the board finds as the result of any investigation that a common carrier has violated or is violating any of the provisions of law to which it is subject, or that any complainant or other person has sustained damages by reason of such violation, the board shall notify such carrier to cease such violation at once and shall fix a time within which it shall pay the amount of damage which has been found due to any person as a result of such violation. Upon a satisfactory showing to the board that the carrier has complied with the notice in the time and manner required, it shall thereupon be relieved from further liability or penalty for that particular violation of law, and the board shall enter of record such release. [C., '97, § 2136; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 22.]

7896. Violation of order—petition—notice. When any common carrier shall violate or fail to obey any lawful order or requirement of the board, the board shall apply in a summary way by petition in the name of the state, against such common carrier, to the district court of any county through which such carrier owns or operates a line of railroad or in which the failure or violation of such order occurred, alleging such violation or failure to obey; the court shall hear and determine the matter set forth in said petition on reasonable notice to the common carrier, to be fixed by the court and to be served in the same manner as original notices for the commencement of action. [C., '97, § 2137; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 23.]

7897. Interested party may begin proceedings. Any person, firm, or corporation interested in the matter of enforcing any order or requirement of the board, may file a petition against such carrier, alleging the failure to comply with such order or requirement and praying summary relief to the same extent and in the same manner as the board may do under the preceding section, and the proceedings after the filing of such petition shall be the same as in said section provided. [C., '97, § 2137; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 24.]

7898. Duty of commerce counsel and county attorney. When any proceeding has been instituted under the two preceding sections, the commerce counsel shall prosecute the same, and the county attorney of the county in which such proceeding is pending shall render such assistance as the commerce counsel may require of him. [C., '97, § 2137; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 25.]

7899. Hearing in equity—injunction. All such causes shall be in equity, and the order or report of the board in question shall be prima facie evidence of the matters contained therein. If the court shall find that the order or requirement in question is lawful and has been violated, it shall issue an injunction or other proper process, mandatory or otherwise, to compel obedience to such order or requirement. [C., '97, § 2137; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 26.]

7900. Violation of injunction. For a violation of any injunction or other process issued in such proceeding, any common carrier or any officer, agent, or employee thereof shall be fined for contempt in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars. In addition to any other penalty the court may fix a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars which each defaulting carrier, officer, or agent shall pay after a fixed date for each day such injunction or other process is disobeyed and render judgment for penalty which shall accrue from disobedience after the time fixed. One-half of such sums collected shall be paid into the treasury of the county where the judgment is rendered and one-half into the state treasury. [C., '97, § 2137; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 27.]

7901. Appeal—effect. An appeal to the supreme court shall not stay or supersede the order of the court or the execution of any writ or process thereon. When appeal is taken by the board, it shall not be required to give an appeal bond or security for costs. [C., '97, § 2137; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 28.]

7902. Suits by commissioners. When the board has reason to believe that any common carrier has been guilty of extortion or unjust discrimination, it shall immediately cause actions to be commenced and prosecuted against such carrier. Such action may be brought in any county through or into which any line of railway owned or operated by such carrier may extend. No actions thus commenced shall be dismissed unless the board and the commerce counsel consent thereto. The court in which any such action is pending may, in its discretion, give preference as to the time of trial of such action over other business, except criminal cases. [C., '97, §§ 2149, 2150; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 29.]

7903. Uniform gauge—inspection—order. As often as it deems it expedient, the board shall examine all the railroads in the state that are less than four feet eight and one-half inches gauge, and if in the judgment of the board, it is necessary and reasonable to change the gauge of any such railroad to four feet eight and one-half inches, it shall make an order in writing, fixing a reasonable time within which such gauge shall be changed, taking into consideration the life of the rolling stock of such narrow gauged road and all other facts and conditions bearing on the length of time required to make such change. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 30.]

7904. Rights and remedies not exclusive. Nothing in this chapter shall abridge any rights or remedies existing at common law or by statute, but shall be in addition to such remedies. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 188, § 31.]

7905. Accidents—investigation of—report. Upon the occurrence of any serious accident upon any railroad within this state, which shall result in personal injury, or loss of life, the corporation operating the road upon which the accident occurred shall give immediate notice thereof to the board of railroad commissioners whose duty it shall be, if they deem it necessary, to investigate the same, and promptly report to the governor the extent of the personal injuries, or loss of life, and whether the same was the result of mismanagement or neglect of the corporation on whose line the injury or loss of life occurred; but such report shall not be evidence or referred to in any case in any court. [S., '13, § 2120-k.]

7906. Annual reports from companies. The board shall require annual reports from all common carriers subject to the provisions of chapter 373 to be made at the same time they make report to the executive council, to cover the same period, and prescribe the manner in which specific answers to all questions upon which it may need information shall be made. [C., '73, § 1280; C., '97, § 2143.]

7907. Details of report. Such report shall show in detail the amount of capital stock issued, the amounts paid therefor, and manner of payment; the dividends paid; surplus fund, if any; number of stockholders; the funded and floating debts and the interest paid thereon; the cost and value of the carrier's property, franchises, and equipment; the number of locomotive engines and cars used in the state, and the number supplied with automatic safety couplers, and the kind and number of brakes used, and the number of each; the number of employees and the salaries paid each class; the amounts expended for improvements each year, how and where expended and the character of such improvements; the earnings and receipts from each branch of business and from all sources; the operating and other expenses; the balance of profit and loss, and a complete exhibit of the financial operations thereof each year, including an annual balance sheet. [C., '73, § 1280; C., '97, § 2143.]

7908. Additional details. Such reports shall also contain such information in relation to rates or regulations concerning fares or freights, or agreements, arrangements, or contracts with other carriers, and other statistics of the road and its transportation, as the board may require. [C., '97, § 2143.]

7909. Additional reports. The board may also require of any and all common carriers subject to the provisions of chapter 373 such other reports, and fix the time for filing the same, as in its judgment shall be necessary and reasonable, which reports shall be in such form, and concerning such subjects, and be from such sources as it shall direct, except as otherwise provided herein. [C., '97, § 2143.]

7911. Violations. Any corporation, company, or individual owning or operating a railway within the state, neglecting or refusing to make the required reports by the date fixed, or fixed by the board, shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars for each and every day of delay in making the same after the date thus fixed. [C., '73, §§ 1281, 1282; C., '97, § 2143.]

7912. Report. The board shall annually, on or before the first Monday in December, make a report to the governor of its doings for the preceding year, containing such facts, statements, and explanations as will disclose the working of such systems of railroad transportation in the state, and their relation to the general business and prosperity of the citizens thereof, with such suggestions and recommendations in respect thereto as may to the board seem appropriate. Said report shall also contain, as to every railroad corporation doing business in this state:

1. The amount of its capital.
2. The amount of its preferred stock, if any, and the condition of its preferment.
3. The amount of its funded debt and the rate of interest.
4. The amount of its floating debt.
5. The cost and actual present cash value of its road equipment, including permanent way, buildings, and rolling stock, all real estate used exclusively in operating the road, and all fixtures and conveniences for transacting its business.
6. The estimated value of all other property owned by it, with a schedule of the same, not including lands granted in aid of its construction.
7. The number of acres originally granted it by the United States or this state in aid of the construction of its road.
8. The number of acres of such land remaining unsold.
9. A list of its officers and directors, with their respective places of residence.
10. Such statistics of the road and of its transportation business for the year as may, in the judgment of the commissioners, be necessary and proper for the information of the general assembly or as may be required by the governor.
11. The average amount of tonnage that can be carried over each road in the state with an engine of given power.

Said report shall exhibit and refer to the condition of such corporation on the first day of July of each year, and the details of its transportation business transacted during the year ending June thirtieth. [C., '97, § 2114.]

NOTE: For time of filing report, see § 253.

CHAPTER 369

COMMERCE COUNSEL

7913. Appointment—term.
 7914. Vacancy.
 7915. Disqualification.
 7916. Political activity.

7917. Removal.
 7918. Office—assistants—expenses.
 7919. Duties.

7913. Appointment—term. Within sixty days after the general assembly convenes in 1927, and every four years thereafter, the board of railroad commissioners shall appoint a competent attorney to the office of commerce counsel, subject to the approval of two-thirds of the members of the senate. His term of office shall be for four years and till his successor is appointed, and shall begin on the first day of July of the year he is appointed. [S., '13, § 2121-h; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 189, § 1.]

7914. Vacancy. A vacancy in said office occurring while the general assembly is in session, shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as original appointments. If the general assembly is not in session, a vacancy shall be filled by an appointment made by the board, which appointment shall expire thirty days from the time the next general assembly convenes. [S., '13, § 2121-h; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 189, § 2.]

7915. Disqualification. The existence of any fact which would disqualify a person from election or acting as a railroad commissioner shall disqualify such person from appointment or acting as commerce counsel. [S., '13, § 2121-i; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 189, § 3.]

7916. Political activity. The commerce counsel shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office; and during his term of office he shall not be a member of any political committee or contribute to any political campaign fund or take any part in political campaigns or be a candidate for any political office. [S., '13, § 2121-i; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 189, § 4.]

7917. Removal. The board may, with the approval of the senate, during a session of the general assembly, remove said counsel for malfeasance or nonfeasance in office, or for any cause which renders him ineligible for appointment, or incapable or unfit to discharge the duties of his office; and his removal, when so made, shall be final. [S., '13, § 2121-h; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 189, § 5.]

NOTE: General removal statutes, see ch. 56.

7918. Office—assistants—expenses. The office of commerce counsel shall be at the seat of government and he shall have free access to all the files, records, and documents in the office of the board. The commerce counsel, his assistants and office help shall be paid their actual necessary traveling expenses and other disbursements incurred in the discharge of official duties; such expenditures are to be approved by the board of railroad commissioners. [S., '13, § 2121-j; 39 G. A., ch. 209, § 21; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 189, § 6.]

7919. Duties. The commerce counsel shall:
 1. Act as attorney for, and legal adviser of, the board of railroad commissioners.

2. Investigate the legality of all rates, charges, tariffs, rules, regulations, and practices of all common carriers and persons under the jurisdiction of the board, and institute civil proceedings before the board or any proper court to correct any illegality on the part of any common carrier and prosecute the same to final determination.

3. Investigate the reasonableness of rates, tariffs, charges, rules, regulations, and practices of all such common carriers in interstate transportation when directed by the board, or when in his judgment they are unlawful, prejudicial, and discriminate against any city, town, community, business, industry, or citizen of the state, and institute before the interstate commerce commission or any other tribunal having jurisdiction and prosecute to final determination any proceeding growing out of such matters.

4. Appear on behalf of any person or persons who shall file any complaint against any common carrier before the board in any matter within its jurisdiction.

5. Appear for and represent the board, the state, and any citizen, community, city, or town or business or industry of the state in all proceedings brought by or against any common carrier before the interstate commerce commission in which any or all of such parties are interested.

6. Appear for the board or for the state and the citizens and industries thereof in all actions instituted in any state or federal court wherein is involved the validity of any rule, order, or regulation of said board, or the validity of any rule, order, or regulation of the interstate commerce commission affecting the interests of the citizens and industries of the state, and prosecute in any state or federal court in the name of the state, all actions necessary to enforce, or to restrain the violation of, any rule, order, or regulation made by the board or by the interstate commerce commission. [S., '13, § 2121-l; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 189, § 7.]

GENERAL POWERS OF RAILWAY CORPORATIONS

7920. Change of name.
 7921. Effect of change.
 7922. Where recorded.
 7923. Joinder at boundary line—consolidation.
 7924. Connections with foreign carrier.
 7925. Extension into foreign state.
 7926. Powers in other states.
 7927. Acquisition of foreign line.
 7928. Duties and liabilities of lessees.
 7929. Offices—location.
 7930. Financial record.
 7931. Stock transfer office—residence required.
 7932. Bonds—mortgages.

7933. After-acquired property.
 7934. Execution of mortgages.
 7935. Bonds secured by mortgage.
 7936. Mortgage to secure bonds of lessee.
 7937. Preferred stock.
 7938. Conversion into common stock.
 7939. Selection of directors by bondholders.
 7940. Corporation may own stock.
 7941. Foreign railway companies.
 7942. Sale or lease of railroad property.
 7943. Mortgage of contract or lease.
 7944. Report to general assembly.
 7945. Rights reserved.

7920. Change of name. Any corporation organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of constructing and operating a railway may, with the consent of two-thirds of all the stockholders in interest, change the corporate name thereof, but no such change shall be complete until the president and secretary shall file in the office of the secretary of state a statement under oath showing the consent of the stockholders thereto and the new name adopted, with a certified copy of the proceedings in relation thereto as appears in the records thereof, and from that time the corporation by its new name shall be entitled to all the rights, powers, and franchises that it possessed under the old one, and by such new name shall be liable upon all contracts and obligations entered into by or binding upon such corporation under the old name to the same extent and in the same manner as if no change had been made. [C., '73, § 1273; C., '97, § 2034.]

7921. Effect of change. If any railway company is organized under a corporate name, and has made contracts for payments to it upon delivery of stock in such company, and shall subsequently thereto change its name, or if the real ownership in the property, rights, and franchises has passed legally or equitably into any other company, no such contract shall be enforced until tender or delivery of stock in such last named company or corporation is made. [C., '73, § 1302; C., '97, § 2068; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 1.]

7922. Where recorded. The secretary of state shall immediately record in the proper book in his office any document filed pertaining to said change in name, making references to the record of the articles of incorporation. [C., '73, § 1274; C., '97, § 2035; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 2.]

7923. Joinder at boundary line—consolidation. Any such corporation may join, intersect, and unite its railway with that of any other corporation at such point upon the boundary line of this state as may be agreed upon, and, with the consent of three-fourths in interest of all the stockholders, by purchase, sale, or otherwise, may merge and consolidate the stock, property, franchises, and liabilities of such corporations, making the same one corporation, upon such terms as may be agreed upon, not in conflict with law. [R., '60, § 1332; C., '73, § 1275; C., '97, § 2036.]

7924. Connections with foreign carrier. Any such corporation which has constructed or may construct its railway so as to meet or connect with another railway in an adjoining state at the boundary line of this state, may make such contracts and agreements therewith for the transportation of freight and passengers, or the use of its railway, as the board of directors may see proper, and not inconsistent with law. [R., '60, § 1334; C., '73, § 1276; C., '97, § 2037.]

7925. Extension into foreign state. Any such corporation organized for the purpose of constructing a railway from a point within the state may construct or extend the same into or through any other state, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the laws of such state, and its rights and privileges over said extension in the construction and use thereof, and in controlling and applying the assets, shall be the same as if its railway was constructed wholly within the state. [R., '60, § 1333; C., '73, § 1277; C., '97, § 2038.]

7926. Powers in other states. Any railroad corporation organized under and by virtue of the laws of this state, and owning and operating a railroad therein, shall be authorized and empowered to exercise in any other state or territory of the United States, in which it may control or operate a connecting line or lines of railway, the powers and privileges conferred upon it by its articles of incorporation and all powers, privileges, and franchises conferred upon railroad corporations under and by virtue of the laws of Iowa or of such other state or territory, for the purposes set forth in the next section. [S., '13, § 2038-a.]

7927. Acquisition of foreign line. Any railroad corporation so organized under the laws of Iowa and owning and operating a railroad therein may lease, purchase, or otherwise acquire and own, control, or operate any connecting extension of its said railroad not parallel or competing therewith, in any other state or territory of the United States, and to that end may purchase and control the stock, bonds, or securities of any such extension if not contrary to the laws of such other state or territory. [S., '13, § 2038-b.]

7928. Duties and liabilities of lessees. All the duties and liabilities imposed by law upon corporations owning or operating railways shall apply to all lessees or other persons owning or operating such railways as fully as if they were expressly named herein; and any action which might be brought or penalty enforced against any such corporation by virtue of any provisions of law may be brought or enforced against such lessees or other persons. [C., '73, § 1278; C., '97, § 2039.]

7929. Offices—location. The offices of secretary and treasurer or assistant treasurer and general superintendent of railway corporations organized under the laws of the state shall be where its principal place of business is or is to be, in which the original record, stock, and transfer books and all the original papers and vouchers thereof shall be kept. [C., '73, § 1279; C., '97, § 2040.]

7930. Financial record. Such treasurer or assistant treasurer shall keep a record of the financial condition of the corporation, which shall be open to inspection by any stockholder, or any committee appointed by the general assembly, at all reasonable times. [C., '73, § 1279; C., '97, § 2040.]

7931. Stock transfer office—residence required. Such corporations may keep a transfer office in any other state, with a duplicate transfer book, but no transfer of shares of stock shall be legal or binding until the same is entered in the one kept in the state. The secretary and treasurer or assistant treasurer and general superintendent shall reside in this state. [C., '73, § 1279; C., '97, § 2040.]

7932. Bonds—mortgages. Any such corporation may issue its bonds for the construction and equipment of its railway in sums of not less than fifty dollars, payable to bearer or otherwise, with interest not exceeding eight per cent per annum, and making them convertible into stock, and sell the same at such prices as is thought proper. If such bonds are sold below par they shall, nevertheless, be valid, and no plea of usury shall be allowed in any action or proceeding brought to enforce the collection thereof. Such corporation may also secure the payment of the bonds by mortgages or deeds of trust upon the whole or any part of its property and franchises. [R., '60, § 1339; C., '73, § 1283; C., '97, § 2041.]

7933. After-acquired property. Such mortgages or deeds of trust may by their terms include and cover not only the property of the corporation making them, owned at the time of their date, but all property, real and personal, which may thereafter be acquired, and they shall be as valid and effectual for that purpose as if the property were in possession at the time of their execution. [R., '60, § 1340; C., '73, § 1284; C., '97, § 2042.]

7934. Execution of mortgages. They shall be executed in the manner the articles of incorporation or the by-laws of the corporation may provide, and be recorded in each county through which the railway of the company may be located, or in which any property mortgaged or conveyed may be situated, and when recorded shall be constructive notice of the rights of all parties thereunder; and for this purpose the rolling stock and personal property of the company belonging to the road shall be deemed a part thereof, and such mortgages and deeds so recorded shall protect the lien of the mortgagee or grantee upon the personal property to the same extent that it does upon real estate thus mortgaged or conveyed. [R., '60, § 1341; C., '73, § 1285; C., '97, § 2043.]

7935. Bonds secured by mortgage. Any railway corporation organized under the laws of the state may mortgage its property and franchises, in whole or in part, to secure bonds issued by it to pay or refund its indebtedness, to improve or develop its property, or for the purpose of effecting the object of its incorporation, to be issued in such amounts, run for such length of time, be payable within or without this state, and bear such rate of interest, not to exceed the legal rate in the state at the time of issue, as the company issuing the same shall determine. [C., '97, § 2049.]

7936. Mortgage to secure bonds of lessee. Any railway corporation organized under the laws of the state may mortgage its property and franchises, in whole or in part, to secure bonds issued by any other railway corporation of this or any other state, which, at the time, is operating the road of such mortgagor under lease thereof; such bonds to be issued to refund or to secure the means to pay the indebtedness of such lessor, or to improve or develop its property, for the purpose of effecting the object of its incorporation. Such bonds may be issued in such amounts, run for such length of time, be made payable within or without the state, and bear such rate of interest, not exceeding the legal rate in this state at the time they are issued, as may be determined by and be acceptable to such lessee. The lessee may secure the bonds issued by it for any of the purposes aforesaid by a mortgage of its lease-hold interest in the property and franchises of the lessor. [C., '97, § 2050.]

7937. Preferred stock. Any railway corporation may increase its capital stock by the issuance of preferred stock in one or more classes entitled to such rate or rates of preferred dividends not exceeding eight per cent per annum, and to such other preferences including accumulation thereon for future payment of any dividends not earned or paid in any fiscal or corporate year, and with such other privileges and rights as may be authorized by the stockholders pursuant hereto, and may issue the same either in exchange for property upon compliance with the provisions of sections 8412 to 8415, inclusive, or for sale for cash at par or for the retirement of its indebtedness at the rate of par for par; no such stock increase shall be made, and no such preferred stock shall be issued, unless authorized by the vote of not less than seventy-five per cent of the total amount of the capital stock of such corporation at the time outstanding, expressed at a meeting called for the purpose, upon not less than thirty days' notice inserted in a newspaper published in the city or town wherein such corporation may have its principal place of business in this state, and mailed to each stockholder of record at his address appearing upon the stock books of such corporation, provided that the plan and purpose for the issuance of any preferred stock under the provisions of this section, shall first be submitted to and receive the approval of the board of railroad commissioners. [C., '73, § 1286; C., '97, § 2044; 37 G. A., ch. 82, § 2.]

7938. Conversion into common stock. Such preferred stock and any income or mortgage bond of the corporation shall, at the option of the holder, be convertible into common stock on such terms as the board of directors may prescribe; but the aggregate amount of the common and preferred stock shall not exceed the total amount of stock which the corporation may be authorized by law, or the articles of incorporation, to issue. [C., '73, § 1287; C., '97, § 2045.]

7939. Selection of directors by bondholders. Any railway corporation organized under any law of the state, including consolidated corporations created pursuant to the laws of this and any adjoining state, may in such manner, under such regulations, and to such an extent as may be prescribed by its board of directors, and consented to by at least two-thirds of the capital stock then outstanding, confer upon the holders of its bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, or upon the holders of any particular class of such bonds or evidences of indebtedness, the right to vote for directors thereof, one or more of whom may be chosen from among such bondholders. [C., '97, § 2046.]

of the state, or operating a road therein under the authority of the laws thereof, may acquire, own, and hold either the whole or any part of the stock, bonds, or other securities of any other railroad company of this or any adjoining state. [C., '97, § 2047.]

7941. Foreign railway companies. Any railway corporation organized or created by or under the laws of any other state, owning and operating a line or lines of railroad in such state, may build its road or branches into this state, and shall possess all the powers and privileges, and be subject to the same liabilities, as like corporations organized and incorporated under the laws of this state, if it shall file with the secretary of state a copy of its articles of incorporation, if incorporated under a general law of such state, or a certified copy of the statute incorporating it where the charter thereof was granted by statute. [C., '97, § 2048.]

7942. Sale or lease of railroad property. Any railway corporation may sell or lease its property and franchises to, or make joint running arrangements not in conflict with law with, any corporation owning or operating any connecting railway, and any corporation operating the railway of another shall be liable in the same manner and extent as though such railway belonged to it. [C., '73, § 1300; C., '97, § 2066.]

7945. Rights reserved. All contracts, stipulations, and conditions regarding the right of controlling and regulating the charges for freight and passengers upon railways, heretofore made in granting land and other property or voting taxes to aid in the construction of or franchises to railway corporations, are expressly reserved, continued, and perpetuated in full force and effect, to be exercised by the general assembly whenever the public good or the public necessity requires such exercise thereof. [C., '73, § 1306; C., '97, § 2070.]

- 7998. Notice.
- 7999. Violations.

7946. Crossing railway, canal, or watercourse. Any railroad company may build its railway across, over, or under any other railway, canal, or watercourse, when necessary, but shall not thereby unnecessarily impede travel, transportation, or navigation. It shall be liable for all damages caused by such crossing. [R., '60, § 1325; C., '73, § 1265; C., '97, § 2020; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 26.]

7947. Maintenance of bridges—damages. Every railroad company shall build, maintain, and keep in good repair all bridges, abutments, or other construction necessary to enable it to cross over or under any canal, watercourse, other railway, public highway, or other way, except as otherwise provided by law, and shall be liable for all damages sustained by any person by reason of any neglect or violation of the provisions of this section. [R., '60, §§ 1326, 1327; C., '73, §§ 1266, 1267; C., '97, § 2021; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 27.]

7948. Rights of riparian owners. All owners or lessees of lands or lots situated upon the Iowa banks of the Mississippi or Missouri rivers upon which any business is carried on which is in any way connected with the navigation of either of said rivers, or to which such navigation is a proper or convenient adjunct, are authorized to construct and maintain in front of their property, piers, cribs, booms, and other proper and convenient erections and devices for the use of their respective pursuits, and the protection and harbor of rafts, logs, floats, and water craft, in such manner as to create no material or unreasonable obstruction to the navigation of the stream, or to a similar use of adjoining property. [C., '97, § 2032; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 17.]

7949. Railroad on riparian land or lots. No person or corporation shall construct or operate any railroad or other obstruction between the lots or lands referred to in the preceding section and either of said rivers, or upon the shore or margin thereof, unless the injury and damage to owners or lessees occasioned thereby shall be first ascertained and paid in the manner provided for taking private property for works of internal improvement. [C., '97, § 2033; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 18.]

7950. Right to lay pipes. Such railway may lay, maintain, and repair pipes through any lands adjoining its tracks for a distance not to exceed three-fourths of a mile therefrom, in order to conduct water, for its engines, from any running stream. Said pipes shall not be laid to any spring, nor be so used as to injuriously withdraw the water from any farm. [C., '73, § 1243; C., '97, § 1997; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 30.]

7951. Duty to restore natural surface. It shall, without unnecessary delay after such laying or repairing, restore the surface of the land to its natural grade, and replace any fence or other improvement which it may have disturbed. [C., '73, § 1243; C., '97, § 1997; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 31.]

7952. Right of landowner. The owner of the land through which any such pipes may be laid shall have the right to use the land in any manner which will not interfere with such pipes. [C., '73, § 1243; C., '97, § 1997; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 32.]

7953. Liability to landowner. Said corporation shall be liable to the owner of the land for any damages occasioned by laying, maintaining, or repairing such pipes. [C., '73, § 1243; C., '97, § 1997; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 33.]

7954. Station telephones. It shall be the duty of all railway companies on all lines of railway operated by them to install a telephone in each passenger or freight depot in any city or town where a telephone exchange is maintained for public service, said telephone to be connected with and for the use of the patrons of said exchange. [S., '13, § 2077-a.]

7956. Violations. Any railway company violating the provisions of the two preceding sections, and any agent, telephone or telegraph operator of such railroad company violating the provisions of the preceding section in relation to posting bulletins in the waiting room indicating when the trains are late or on time, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars. [S., '13, § 2077-a1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 40.]

7957. Automatic couplers. No corporation, company, or person operating a railroad and no car manufacturing or transportation company using or leasing cars shall operate upon any railroad in this state any car that is not equipped with safety automatic couplers, so constructed as to enable a person to couple and uncouple them without going between cars. [C., '97, §§ 2079, 2080; S., '13, § 2080; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 41.]

motive engine upon any railroad or in any railroad yard in the state that is not equipped with a proper and efficient power brake, commonly called a driver brake. [C., '97, § 2081.]

7959. Power brake on cars. No corporation, company, or person operating a line of railroad in the state shall run any train of cars that shall not have therein a sufficient number of cars with some kind of efficient automatic or power brake to enable the engineer to control the train without requiring brakemen to go between the ends or on the top of the cars to use the hand brake. [C., '97, § 2082.]

7960. Violations. Any corporation, company, or person operating a railroad in this state and using a locomotive engine, or running a train of cars, or using any freight, way, or other car contrary to the provisions of the three preceding sections, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subject to a fine of not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars for each and every offense; but such penalties shall not apply to companies hauling cars belonging to railroads other than those of this state which are engaged in interstate traffic. [C., '97, § 2083.]

7962. Switch engines—safety devices. It shall be unlawful for any railway or terminal transfer company, or any corporation operating locomotives in switching or yard service, to operate, or permit the same to be operated, unless said locomotives are equipped with headlight on both front and rear of engine, when operated between sunset and sunrise, and all such engines shall be equipped with a footboard of substantially uniform height, width, and length, securely fastened and firmly braced to the pilot beam in front of engine, and a similar footboard on rear of tank or tender of engines, upon which employees may stand or ride when their duties require them so to do, and that a substantial grab rail or rod be securely fastened upon said pilot beam at each end and in the center, at a convenient height for employees to reach and hold on to with their hands, said rod to extend across the full length of the said pilot beam, and also across the rear end beam of said tank or tender. [S., '13, § 2083-c.]

7963. Exceptions. The provisions of the preceding section shall not apply to switching or yard service at stations or places where regular switch engines are not employed exclusively as switch engines, or during a period of not exceeding twelve hours, when a switch engine is being cleaned or washed out, and also switching by work trains; and where regular switch engines are disabled by accident, or in need of repairs, or there is an unusual or unexpected amount of work, switching, under such conditions, with ordinary engines, for a period of not to exceed forty-eight hours, shall not be considered a violation of this statute. [S., '13, § 2083-c.]

7964. Violations. Any person, railway company, terminal transfer, or other corporation or company who violates any of the provisions of the second preceding section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars or more than five hundred dollars for any such violation, and each day that every such engine is operated shall constitute a separate and distinct violation of said section. [S., '13, § 2083-d.]

7965. Frost glass in cab windows. Every person, partnership, company, or corporation owning or operating a railway in the state, between November first and April first of each year, shall equip the cab of all locomotive engines in use, with frost glass, of not less than eight inches in width and eighteen inches in length on either side of the cab of said engine in front of the seats of the engineer and fireman; but when a frost glass is broken or becomes out of repair, a period of not to exceed seventy-two hours is allowed to repair or replace the same. [S., '13, § 2083-e.]

7966. Violations. Any violation of the preceding section shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each day any locomotive engine is operated in violation thereof. [S., '13, § 2083-f.]

7967. Headlights. It shall be the duty of every person, firm, or corporation owning or operating any line of railway within the state, except lines under twenty miles in length operated wholly within this state, to equip all locomotives, power vehicles, power cars, or other equipment used as the equivalent of or in place of a locomotive, when used in the transportation of passengers or freight, with a headlight of sufficient candle power, measured with a reflector, to throw a light in clear weather that will enable the operator of same to plainly discern an object the size of a man lying prone on the track at a distance of eleven hundred feet from the headlight, and thereafter to maintain and use such headlights upon every such locomotive, vehicle, car, or other equipment. [S., '13, § 2083-g.]

7968. Exceptions. The preceding section shall not be construed to apply to power cars used by street railways and operated wholly within the corporate limits of any city or town, nor to engines or other equipment used exclusively for switching purposes, nor to engines or other equipment running after sunrise and before sunset. [S., '13, § 2083-g.]

7969. Violations. Any person, firm, or corporation owning such line of railway or the equipment operated thereon, who shall cause or permit any locomotive, power vehicle, power car, or other equipment used as the equivalent thereof, to be operated without being equipped with the headlight required by the provisions of the second preceding section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each offense. [S., '13, § 2083-h.]

7971. Standard caboose cars. The provisions of the next two sections shall apply to any corporation or to any person or persons while engaged as common carriers in the transportation by railroads of passengers or property within this state except interurban, to which the regulative power of this state extends. [S., '13, § 2083-i.]

7972. Minimum length—construction—equipment. It shall be unlawful, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, for any such common carrier by railroad to use on its lines any caboose car or other car used for like purposes, unless such caboose or other car shall be at least twenty-four feet in length, exclusive of the platform, and equipped with two four-wheel trucks, and shall be provided with a door in each end thereof and an outside platform across each end of said car; each platform shall not be less than eighteen inches in width and shall be equipped with proper guard rails, and with grab irons and hand brakes, and steps for the safety of persons getting on and off said car; said steps shall be equipped with a suitable rod, board, or other guard at each end and at the back thereof, properly designed to prevent slipping from said step. Such caboose or other car used for like purposes shall be provided with cupola, and necessary closets and windows. Each caboose car shall be equipped with an emergency air valve, and air gauge, which shall be placed on inside of said car; but the provisions hereof shall not apply to work trains, transfer service, or emergencies not exceeding thirty-six hours. [S., '13, § 2083-j; 39 G. A., ch. 195.]

7973. Violations. Any common carrier as provided in section 7971 violating any of the provisions of the preceding section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each offense. [S., '13, § 2083-m.]

7974. Adequate stockyards required. Any person, firm, or corporation operating a railroad within the state shall provide at each of its stations where live stock is received for shipment, adequate stockyards, which shall be substantially provided with good gates, suitable chutes for loading live stock, suitable sheds for the protection of live stock from the inclemency of the weather, suitable troughs from which live stock may be watered and an ample water supply conveniently located and supplied by pipes from wells or other water supply, the amount of such water supply to be at all time sufficient for all live stock in said yards and also for the wetting down of cars in hot weather. [37 G. A., ch. 211, § 1.]

7975. Duty to enforce. It shall be the duty of the said board of railroad commissioners to enforce the provisions of the preceding section, and, upon a complaint signed by five or more shippers of live stock, it shall be their duty to investigate the stockyards and loading facilities at any such station and determine their adequacy and shall have power to make such order for the improvement of said yards as shall, in their judgment, seem necessary. [37 G. A., ch. 211, § 2.]

7976. Depots — closets — sanitation. At all railway stations in this state, where a depot and waiting rooms for passengers are maintained, there shall be within the same, or connected therewith, sanitary closets, including separate closets for women which, in cities or towns having a system of sewerage so located that the same can be reasonably used by the railroad property, shall be thoroughly drained, constructed, and plumbed according to approved sanitary principles and said depots and closets shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition, free from any offensive odors. Depots in cities or towns not provided with a sewerage system, shall be provided with privies or closets properly screened and separated for the use of males and females, which shall be cleaned and disinfected as often as necessary to keep and maintain them in an approved sanitary condition. [S., '13, § 2514-y.]

7977. Enforcement. It shall be the duty of the department of agriculture to see that the provisions of the preceding section are fully complied with and, on complaint being filed by an employee or patron of the railway company, shall inspect the same. [S., '13, § 2514-y1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 330, § 1.]

7978. Delinquency—notice to station agent. It shall be the duty of the department upon ascertaining by inspection or otherwise that any railroad company has not complied with the provisions of the second preceding section at any of its depots, to notify the station agent of such depot, in writing, stating in what respect it is delinquent and requiring it in a reasonable time, to be fixed by the department, to do or cause to be done the things necessary to make it comply with the law. [S., '13, § 2514-y2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 330, § 2.]

ply, within the time fixed, with the provisions of the third preceding section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars for each offense and the inspector shall file information in such a case. [S., '13, § 2514-y3.]

7980. Fee. Such railroad companies shall pay a fee of five dollars to the person making the inspection. If there is no cause of complaint, the person complaining shall be liable for such fee. All fees shall forthwith be paid over to the state treasurer. [S., '13, § 2514-y4; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 330, § 3.]

7981. Freight, passenger, express, and telegraph offices. All railroads terminating in the state shall establish and maintain at such terminus general freight and passenger offices, and express or telegraph offices when operating an independent express or telegraph company, at localities accessible and convenient to the public, and there keep for sale tickets over their respective roads, and, in advertising, correctly set forth their true connections, starting or terminal points, time-tables, and freight tariffs. [C., '97, § 2108.]

7984. Employees' hours of service. It shall be unlawful for any railway company within the state, or any of its officers or agents, to require or permit any employee engaged in or connected with the movement of any rolling stock, engine, or train, to remain on duty more than sixteen consecutive hours, or to require or permit any such employee who has been on duty sixteen consecutive hours to perform any further service without having at least ten hours for rest, or to require or permit any such employee to be on duty at any time to exceed sixteen hours in any consecutive twenty-four hours. [S., '13, § 2110-a.]

7985. Exceptions. The preceding section shall not apply to work performed in the protection of life or property in cases of accident, wreck, or other unavoidable casualty, or prevent train crews from taking a passenger train, or freight train loaded exclusively with live stock or perishable freight, to the next nearest division point upon such railroad; and it shall not apply to that time necessary for the trainmen to reach a resting place when an accident, wreck, washout, snow blockade, or other unavoidable cause has delayed their train; and provided further that said section shall not apply to employees of sleeping car companies. [S., '13, § 2110-a.]

7986. Violations — investigation — prosecutions. Any superintendent, trainmaster, train dispatcher, yardmaster, or other official of any railroad in the state, violating any of the provisions of the second preceding section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and not more than five hundred dollars for each offense. [S., '13, § 2110-b.]

7987. Investigation by commissioners. It shall be the duty of the board of railroad commissioners to receive written statements of violations of section 7984, and when so requested to hold the same without disclosure of the name of the person making such statement, and to investigate each and every complaint filed alleging such violation. [S., '13, § 2110-b.]

7988. Hearing—report. The board in making such investigation shall have the power to administer oaths, interrogate witnesses, take testimony, and require the production of books and papers, and must file a report of such investigation in writing with a full statement of its finding to the governor. [S., '13, § 2110-b.]

7989. Prosecutions. In all cases of violation of said provisions, the board of railroad commissioners, through the attorney general, must at once begin the prosecution of all parties against whom evidence of violation is found; but said provisions shall not be construed to prevent any other person from beginning prosecution for violation thereof. [S., '13, § 2110-b.]

7990. Semimonthly payment of wages. Every railway corporation operating or doing business in the state shall as often as semimonthly pay to every employee engaged in its business all wages or salaries earned by such employee to a day not more than eighteen days prior to the date of such payment. Any employee who is absent at the time fixed for payment, or who for any other reason is not paid at that time, shall be paid thereafter at any time upon six days' demand, and any employee leaving his or her employment or discharged therefrom shall be paid in full following his or her dismissal or voluntary leaving his or her employment at any time upon six days' demand. No corporation coming within the meaning of this section shall by special contract with the employees or by any other means secure exemption from the provisions of this section. Each and every employee of any corporation coming within the meaning hereof shall have his or her right of action against any such corporation for the full amount of his or her wages due on each regular pay day as herein provided in any court of competent jurisdiction of this state. [S. S., '15, § 2110-b1.]

7991. Violations. Any corporation violating the preceding section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and fined in a sum not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, for each separate offense, and each and every failure or refusal to pay each employee the amount of wages due him or her at the time, or under the conditions required in the preceding section, shall constitute a separate offense. [S. S., '15, § 2110-b2.]

7992. Destruction of weeds. It shall be the duty of every corporation owning or operating a railroad in this state on written notice from the owner, lessee or occupant of any land abutting upon its right of way to cut and burn, or otherwise destroy once each year during the month of July, all cockleburs, burdock weeds, quack grass, and thistles on its right of way adjacent to said land. [S., '13, § 2110-i.]

7993. Violations. Any failure to comply with the provisions of the preceding section shall be deemed a misdemeanor and shall be punished accordingly. [S., '13, § 2110-j.]

7995. Profane language on trains. Any person who shall use profane or indecent language on any passenger railway car, or on any street car, or interurban car, in service, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [S., '13, § 2461-f; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 265, § 1.]

7996. Power to eject passenger. Any conductor of a railway train, or street car, or interurban car carrying passengers shall have the right to refuse to permit any person, not in the custody of an officer, to enter any passenger car on his train, or street car, or interurban car in his charge, who shall be in a state of intoxication; and shall have the further right to eject from his train at any station, or from his street car, or interurban car at any regular stop, any person found in a state of intoxication or drinking intoxicating liquors as a beverage, or using profane or indecent language, and for that purpose may call to his aid any employee of the railway or street car or interurban company. [S., '13, § 2461-g; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 265, § 2.]

7997. Changing names of stations. In all cases where any railway company shall fail or refuse to make the name of the railway station conform to the name of the village, incorporated town, or city within the limits of which it is situated, it shall be the duty of the railroad commissioners of the state to order a change of the name of said railway station to effect such uniformity, within sixty days after a petition in writing by the town council of said incorporated town or city, or, in the case of a village, by the township trustees, asking for such order, is filed with said railroad commissioners. [C., '97, § 2105.]

7998. Notice. When the commissioners shall order a change in the name of a railway station, they shall give the company owning or operating the same notice of such order, and if it is not complied with within thirty days from the date of service of such notice, the commissioners shall notify the attorney general thereof, who shall begin proceedings in the proper court to compel the enforcement of said order. [C., '97, § 2106.]

7999. Violations. A failure to comply with the order of the commissioners within thirty days from service of such notice shall also be a misdemeanor, for which said company shall be subject to a fine of one thousand dollars, and noncompliance for each thirty days thereafter shall constitute a separate and distinct offense, subject to a fine of one thousand dollars. [C., '97, § 2107.]

- 8034. Condemnation—reconstruction.
- 8035. Compulsory establishment.

8000. Cattle guards — crossings — signs. Every corporation constructing or operating a railway shall make proper cattle guards where the same enters or leaves any improved or fenced land, and construct at all points where such railway crosses any public road good, sufficient, and safe crossings and cattle guards, and erect at such points, at a sufficient elevation from such road as to admit of free passage of vehicles of every kind, a sign with large and distinct letters placed thereon, to give notice of the proximity of the railway, and warn persons of the necessity of looking out for trains. Any railway company neglecting or refusing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be liable for all damages sustained by reason of such refusal or neglect, and it shall only be necessary, in order to recover, for the injured party to prove such neglect or refusal. [R., '60, § 1331; C., '73, § 1288; C., '97, § 2054.]

8001. Railway fences required. All railway corporations owning or operating a line of railway within the state, shall construct, maintain, and keep in repair a fence on each side of the right of way, so connected with cattle guards at all public road crossings as to prevent live stock getting upon the tracks. All such rights of way shall be fenced within six months after the completion of the track or any part thereof. [C., '97, § 2057; S., '13, § 2057; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 5.]

8002. Exception. The preceding section shall not apply to a class C line of railway through the lands of any owner who by written agreement with the company owning or operating such line waives the fencing thereof. [C., '97, § 2057; S., '13, § 2057; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 5.]

8003. Specifications. All fences shall be not less than fifty-four inches high and may be of any of the following types:

1. Not less than five barbed wires, properly spaced.
2. Not less than three barbed wires above and not less than twenty-four inches of woven wire below.
3. Entirely of woven wire.
4. Five boards properly spaced.
5. Any other type which the fence viewers of any township through which it passes may determine as efficient as any of the above types.

Each of the above types shall be securely nailed to posts firmly set, not more than twenty feet apart for the first three types, nor more than eight feet apart for the fourth. [C., '97, § 2057; S., '13, § 2057; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 6.]

8004. Hog-tight fences. When any person owning land abutting on the right of way is maintaining a hog-tight fence on all sides thereof or any division of such land except along such right of way, the railway company owning such right of way shall, on written request of the landowner, make such right of way fence along such enclosed land hog-tight by the addition of barbed or woven wire or other equally efficient means. [S., '13, § 2057; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 7.]

8005. Failure to fence. Any corporation operating a railway and failing to fence its right of way against live stock running at large or to maintain proper and sufficient cattle guards at all points where the right to fence or maintain cattle guards exists, shall be liable to the owner of any stock killed or injured by reason of the want of such fence or cattle guards for the full amount of the damages sustained by the owner, unless it was occasioned by the wilful act of such owner or his agent; and to recover the same it shall only be necessary for him to prove the loss of or injury to his property. [C., '73, § 1289; C., '97, § 2055; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 8.]

8006. Double damages. If such corporation fails or neglects to pay such damages within thirty days after notice in writing that a loss or injury has occurred, accompanied by an affidavit thereof, served upon any officer or station or ticket agent employed by said corporation in the county where such loss or injury occurred, such owner shall be entitled to recover from the corporation double the amount of damages actually sustained by him. [C., '73, § 1289; C., '97, § 2055; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 9.]

8007. Laws and local regulations not applicable. No law of the state or any local or police regulations of any county, township, city, or town, relating to the restraint of domestic animals, or in relation to the fences of farmers or landowners, shall be applicable to railway rights of way, unless specifically so stated in such law and regulation. [C., '73, § 1289; C., '97, § 2055; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 10.]

8008. Depot grounds—speed limit. Upon depot grounds necessarily used by the public and the corporation, the operating of trains at a greater rate of speed than eight miles an hour where no fence is built, shall be negligence, and shall render such corporation liable for all damages occasioned thereby, in the same manner and to the same extent, except as to double damages, as in cases where the right to fence exists. [C., '73, § 1289; C., '97, § 2055; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 11.]

8009. Penalty—killing of stock. If the corporation, officer thereof or lessee owning or engaged in the operation of any railroad in the state refuses or neglects to comply with any provision of this chapter relating to the fencing of the tracks, such corporation, officer, or lessee shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction fined in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars for each offense, and every thirty days' continuance of such refusal or neglect shall constitute a separate and distinct offense. [C., '97, § 2058.]

8010. Killing of stock—interpretative clause. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to relieve the corporation from liability arising from the killing or maiming of live stock on said track or right of way by its negligence or that of its employees, nor shall anything in this chapter interfere with the right of open or private crossings, or with the right of persons to such crossings, nor in any way limit or qualify the liability of any corporation or person owning or operating a railway that fails to fence the same against live stock running at large for any stock injured or killed by reason of the want of such fence. [C., '97, § 2058.]

8011. Private crossings. When any person owns land on both sides of any railway, or when a railway runs parallel with a public highway thereby separating a farm from such highway, the corporation owning or operating such railway, on request of the owner of such land or farm, shall construct and maintain a safe and adequate farm crossing or roadway across such railway and right of way at such reasonable place as the owner of the land may designate, and shall construct and maintain a cattle guard on each side of such roadway where it crosses the track, connected by wing or cross fences to the fences on each side of the right of way. [R., '60, § 1329; C., '73, § 1268; C., '97, § 2022; S., '13, § 2022; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 28.]

8012. Overhead, underground, or more than one crossing. Such owner of land may serve upon such railroad company a request in writing for more than one such farm or private crossing, or for an overhead or underground crossing, accompanied by a plat of his land designating thereon the location and character of crossing desired. If the railroad company refuses or neglects for thirty days after such service to comply with such request, the owner of the land may make written application to the board of railroad commissioners to hear and determine his rights in said respect. Such board, after reasonable notice to the railroad company, shall hear said application and all objections thereto, and make such order as shall be reasonable and just, and if it requires the railroad company to construct any crossing or roadway, fix the time for compliance with such order. The matter of costs shall be in the discretion of the board. [S., '13, § 2022; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 29.]

8013. Station houses at crossings. All railway corporations shall, at all points of connection, crossings, or intersection with the roads of other corporations, unite therewith in establishing and maintaining suitable platforms and station houses for the convenience of passengers desiring to transfer from one road to the other, and for the transfer of passengers, baggage, or freight, whenever the same shall be ordered by the railroad commission; and shall, when ordered by it, keep such depot or passenger house warmed, lighted, and opened a reasonable time before the arrival, and until after the departure of all trains carrying passengers. [C., '97, § 2103.]

NOTE: See § 7876.

8014. Expense. The expense of constructing and maintaining such station houses and platforms shall be paid by such corporations in such proportions as may be fixed by the commission. [C., '97, § 2103.]

8016. Connecting tracks. Such corporations whose roads so connect or intersect shall, when ordered by the commission, so unite and connect the tracks of the several roads as to permit the transfer of cars from the track of one to that of the other. [C., '73, §§ 1292-1295; C., '97, § 2103.]

NOTE: See § 7876.

8017. Violations. Any railway corporation or company which, after having received ninety days' notice from the commissioners, shall neglect or refuse to comply with the provisions of the four preceding sections shall, for every day it fails, neglects, or refuses to comply therewith, forfeit and pay the sum of twenty-five dollars, which may be recovered in the name of the state for the use of the school fund of the county wherein such crossing or intersection is situated, and the county attorney of such county shall prosecute the same. [C., '97, § 2104.]

8018. Signals at road crossings. A bell and a steam whistle shall be placed on each locomotive engine operated on any railway, which whistle shall be twice sharply sounded at least sixty rods before a road crossing is reached, and after the sounding of the whistle the bell shall be rung continuously until the crossing is passed; but at street crossings within the limits of cities or towns the sounding of the whistle may be omitted, unless required by ordinance or resolution of the council thereof; and the company shall be liable for all damages which shall be sustained by any person by reason of such neglect. [C., '97, § 2072.]

8019. Violations. Any officer or employee of any railway company violating any of the provisions of the preceding section shall be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars for each offense. [C., '97, § 2072.]

8021. Disagreement — application — notice. If the railway company and said highway authorities can not agree upon the changes to be made, either party may make written application to the board of railroad commissioners, setting forth the changes and alterations desired, and said board shall fix a date for hearing and give the other party ten days' written notice by mail of such date. [S. S., '15, § 2017; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 20.]

8022. Hearing—order. The board of railroad commissioners shall hear and determine such application, taking into consideration the necessity of such changes and the expense thereof, the location of any crossing and the manner in which it shall be constructed and maintained, or whether a crossing is to be eliminated and the provisions therefor, and may make such order in relation thereto as shall be equitable, including authority to condemn and take additional land for such purposes when necessary, and shall determine what portion of the expense shall be paid by any party to such controversy. [S. S., '15, § 2017; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 21.]

8023. Railway company to hold in trust. Any portion of the expense of making such crossing changes and alterations borne by any municipal corporation or township, the state or any person, shall forever be held in trust by such railroad corporation or its successors, and no part of such funds shall constitute any part of the value of its property on which it is entitled to receive a return. [S. S., '15, § 2017; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 22.]

8024. Repairs—aid by court. If the board of supervisors, township trustees, city or town council, or any official having jurisdiction over such highway, shall determine that such crossing is unsafe or is in need of further repairs or alterations, and can not agree with the railroad company as to such repairs or additional alterations, the proper board, council, or officer shall file a petition in the district court of the county in which the crossing is located, setting forth the facts and conditions on which relief is sought and serve the railroad company with written notice thereof in the time and manner required for original notices. [R., '60, § 1322; C., '73, § 1263; C., '97, § 2018; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 23.]

8025. Issues — hearing — order. The railroad company may join issue by answer. The court or a judge thereof shall hear the controversy in a summary manner in equity in term time or vacation and make such order or decree as may be found equitable and fix a reasonable time for compliance therewith and, on default of the railroad company, it may enjoin the operation of trains over that portion of the railway during the continuance of such default. The court may award costs against either party in its discretion. [R., '60, § 1322; C., '73, § 1263; C., '97, § 2018; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 24.]

8026. Condition after change — temporary ways. When a railroad company changes, alters, or repairs a highway crossing, it shall upon completion of the work leave it free from obstructions to travel and in good condition. If travel will be obstructed while any alterations or repairs are being made, the railroad company shall provide safe and convenient temporary ways for the public to avoid or pass such obstructions. [R., '60, §§ 1321, 1324; C., '73, §§ 1262, 1264; C., '97, §§ 2017, 2019; S. S., '15, § 2017; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 25.]

8027. Railway crossings near Mississippi river. When in the construction of a railway it becomes necessary to cross another railway near the shore of the Mississippi River, each shall be so constructed and maintained at the point of crossing that the respective roadbeds thereof shall be above high water mark in such river; but where the crossing occurs within the limits of any city or town containing six thousand or more inhabitants, the council or other governing authorities thereof may establish the crossing grade. [C., '73, § 1290; C., '97, § 2059; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 12.]

8028. Grade crossings. The board of railroad commissioners of the state shall have jurisdiction over all crossings at grade of steam and interurban railways within the state. Upon the application of any interurban railway or upon its own motion, the said board may require the trains of any steam railway to stop at any crossing of such railway tracks at grade or said board may make such rules and regulations in relation to speed or other methods of operation at such grade crossings as in its judgment are necessary to protect the public safety. This section shall be construed as an exception to the general rule as provided by law, with reference to interurban railways being street railways within cities and towns. [39 G. A., ch. 34, §§ 2, 3; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 195, § 1.]

8029. Duties of employees. Wherever the tracks of an interurban railway cross the tracks of any steam railway at grade, the steam railway shall, except where required to stop by order of the railroad commissioners, have the right of way and not be compelled to stop its trains and the interurban company operating its line shall cause its cars to come to a full stop not nearer than ten feet nor more than fifty feet from such crossing. Before proceeding to cross said steam railway tracks some employee of the interurban company shall first cross said track ahead of its car or cars and ascertain if the way is clear and free from danger for the passage of such interurban cars. The interurban car or cars shall not proceed to cross until signaled to do so by such person employed as aforesaid. No steam railway in the operation of its engine and cars shall obstruct the free passage of cars of an intersecting interurban railway at such crossing except in the exercise of its right of way as provided in this section. [S., '13, § 2033-e; 39 G. A., ch. 34, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 195, § 2.]

8030. Stopping at crossings — exceptions. Except as otherwise in this chapter provided in relation to interlocking switches at railway grade crossings and except as otherwise provided in the preceding section, all trains run upon any steam railroad in this state which intersects and crosses any other railroad upon the same level, shall be brought to a full stop at a distance of not less than two hundred nor more than eight hundred feet from the point of intersection or crossing, before such intersection or crossing is passed. [C., '97, § 2073; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 195, § 3.]

8031. Violations. Any person in charge of an interurban car or cars, who shall violate the provisions of the second preceding section and any engineer or person in charge of an engine, who shall violate the provisions of the preceding section shall be fined for each offense not exceeding one hundred dollars; and the corporation or company on whose road such offense is committed, shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars for each offense. [C., '97, § 2073; S., '13, § 2033-e; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 195, § 4.]

8032. Interlocking switches. When in any case two or more railroads cross each other at a common grade, or a railroad crosses a stream by swing or drawbridge, they may be equipped thereat with an interlocking switch system, or other suitable safety device rendering it safe for engines or trains to pass thereover without stopping. The plans for such proposed interlocking system or other safety device shall be first submitted to the board of railroad commissioners for approval, and after the same has been installed no engines or trains shall pass over such crossings or bridges without stopping until the board of railroad commissioners shall have inspected and issued a certificate of approval of such interlocking system or safety device. [C., '97, § 2060; 39 G. A., ch. 247, § 2.]

8033. Changing plan. In the event any railroad company desires to make a change in the mechanical construction, arrangement, or location of any interlocking system or other safety device, or in any of the parts of such system or device, the plans showing specifically the nature of the changes proposed shall be filed with the board of railroad commissioners, and such system or device as changed shall not be operated until a certificate of approval thereof has been issued by the board. [39 G. A., ch. 247, § 3.]

8034. Condemnation—reconstruction. Any interlocking system or other safety device now or hereafter constructed or operated, which may be found by the board of railroad commissioners, after inspection, to be unsafe or dangerous, may be condemned by the said board, and the railroad company or companies required to reconstruct the same in accordance with the rules governing the construction, operation, and maintenance of interlocking plants adopted by said board of railroad commissioners. [39 G. A., ch. 247, § 4.]

8035. Compulsory establishment. Whenever in the judgment of the board of railroad commissioners it is necessary for the public safety, said board may require the establishment of an interlocking system or other safety device at any railroad crossing, junction, or drawbridge. [39 G. A., ch. 247, § 5.]

GENERAL PROVISIONS

8036. Applicability of chapter. The provisions of this chapter shall apply to the transportation of passengers and property, and to the receiving, delivering, storing, and handling of property wholly within this state, and shall apply to all railroad corporations, express companies, car companies, sleeping car companies, freight or freight line companies, and to any common carrier engaged in this state in the transportation of passengers or property by railroad therein, and to shipments of property made from any point within the state to any point within the state, whether the transportation of the same shall be wholly within this state or partly within this state and partly within an adjoining state. [C., '97, § 2122; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 196, § 1.]

8037. Definition of terms. The terms "railroad" and "railway" as used in this chapter shall include all bridges and ferries used or operated in connection with any railroad, and also all the road in use by any corporation, receiver, trustee, or other person operating a railroad, whether owned or operated under contract, agreement, lease, or otherwise.

The term "transportation" shall include all instrumentalities of shipment or carriage.

The term "railway corporation" shall mean all corporations, companies, or individuals owning or operating any railroad or carrier in whole or in part in this state, except street railways.

The term "switching service" is hereby defined to be shifting of a car or of cars between two points, both of which points are within the industrial vicinity of an industry, a group of industries, a station, a village, or a city, as such industrial vicinity may be defined by the board of railroad commissioners. [C., '97, § 2122; S. S., '15, § 2125; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 196, § 5.]

8038. Duty to furnish cars and transport freight. Every railway corporation shall upon reasonable notice, and within a reasonable time, furnish suitable cars to any and all persons who may apply therefor, for the transportation of any and all kinds of freight, and receive and transport such freight with all reasonable dispatch, and provide and keep suitable facilities for the receiving and handling thereof at any depot on the line of its road. [C., '97, § 2116; S., '13, § 2116; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 196, § 2.]

TERMINATING CARRIER'S LIABILITY

- 8153. Notice of arrival of shipment.
- 8154. Notice prescribed.
- 8155. Exceptions.

NEGLIGENCE OF EMPLOYEES

- 8156. Liability for negligence of employees.
- 8157. Relief or indemnity contract.
- 8158. Contributory and comparative negligence.
- 8159. Unallowable pleas.
- 8160. Damages by fire.
- 8161. Baggage—liability.

8039. Cars of connecting roads. It shall receive and transport in like manner the empty or loaded cars furnished by any connecting road, to be delivered at any station or stations on the line of its road, to be loaded or discharged or reloaded and returned to the road so connecting. For compensation it shall not demand or receive any greater sum than is accepted by it from any connecting railroad for a similar service. [C., '97, § 2116; S., '13, § 2116; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 196, § 2.]

8040. Passenger service — frequency — presumption. Every railway corporation owning or operating lines of railroad of more than seventeen miles in length within the limits of the state, shall maintain a service of not less than two passenger trains each way every twenty-four hours, over the entire length of each division of such line or lines, when so ordered by the board of railroad commissioners. Passenger service of less than the number of trains provided herein shall be presumed to be unreasonable. [S., '13, § 2116; 39 G. A., ch. 153, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 196, § 3.]

8041. Burden of proof. In any action in court, or before the board, brought against a railroad corporation for the purpose of enforcing rights arising under the provisions of this and the three preceding sections, the burden of proving that the provisions thereof have been complied with by such railroad corporation, shall be upon such railroad corporation. [S., '13, § 2116; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 196, § 4.]

8042. Limitation on liability. No contract, receipt, rule, or regulation shall exempt any railway corporation engaged in transporting persons or property from the liability of a common carrier, or carrier of passengers, which would exist had no contract, receipt, rule, or regulation been made or entered into. [C., '73, § 1308; C., '97, § 2074.]

8043. Limitation on liability. No contract, receipt, rule, or regulation shall exempt any corporation or person engaged in transporting persons for hire from the liability of a common carrier, or carrier of passengers, which would exist had no contract, receipt, rule, or regulation been made. [C., '73, § 2184; C., '97, § 3136.]

8044. Preference prohibited—exception. It shall be unlawful for any common carrier to give any preference or advantage to, or entail any prejudice or disadvantage upon any particular person, company, firm, corporation, locality, or any class of business or traffic, by any rate, rule, regulation, or practice whatsoever. This provision shall not prevent any common carrier from giving preference as to time of shipping live stock, live poultry, uncured meats, fruits, vegetables, or other perishable property. [C., '97, § 2125; S. S., '15, § 2125; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 196, § 6.]

8046. Unjust discrimination—exceptions. If any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter shall directly or indirectly, by any special rate, rebate, drawback, or other device, charge, demand, collect, or receive from any person or persons a greater or less compensation for any service rendered, or to be rendered, in the transportation of passengers or property subject to the provisions of this chapter, than it charges, demands, collects, or receives from any other person or persons for doing for him or them a like and contemporaneous service in the transportation of a like kind of traffic, such common carrier shall be guilty of unjust discrimination, which is hereby prohibited and declared to be unlawful; but this section shall not be construed as prohibiting a less rate per one hundred pounds in a carload lot than is charged, collected, or received for the same kind of freight in less than a carload lot. [C., '97, § 2124.]

8047. Reconsignment without charge. Upon request of the consignee it shall be the duty of any common carrier of freight to reconsign, rebill, and reship from any place of destination within the state to any other place within the state any property in carload lots, whether accompanied by any person or not, brought to said place of destination over its own or other line and treat the same in all respects as an original shipment between such places, provided the charges to first place of destination are paid or secured to the satisfaction of such company. [S., '13, § 2157-r.]

property in this state, or for the receiving, delivering, storage, or handling of such property, shall be reasonable and just, and every unjust and unreasonable charge for such service is prohibited and declared to be unlawful. [C., '97, § 2123.]

'8049. Long and short haul—fair rate. No common carrier, subject to the provisions of this chapter, shall charge more for the transportation of persons or property to or from any point on its railroad than a fair and just rate or charge.

No such common carrier, or carriers, shall charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of persons or of a like kind of property for a shorter than for a longer distance, over the same line or route in the same direction within this state, the shorter being included within the longer distance, or charge any greater compensation as a through rate than the aggregate of the intermediate rates; but this shall not be construed as authorizing any such common carrier or carriers to charge or receive as great a compensation for a shorter as for a longer distance or haul; provided that upon application to the board of railroad commissioners such common carrier or carriers may, in special cases, after investigation, be authorized by the board of railroad commissioners to charge less for a longer than for a shorter distance for the transportation of persons or property; and the board of railroad commissioners may from time to time prescribe the extent to which such designated common carrier or carriers may be relieved from the operation and requirement of this section; but, in exercising the authority conferred upon it in this proviso, the board of railroad commissioners shall not permit the establishment of any charge to or from the more distant point that is not reasonably compensatory for the service performed; and, if a circuitous rail line or route is, because of such circuitry, granted authority to meet the charges of a more direct line or route to or from competitive points and to maintain higher charges to or from intermediate points on its line, the authority shall not include intermediate points as to which the haul of the petitioning line or route is not longer than that of the direct line or route between the competitive points. [C., '97, § 2126; 40 G. A., ch. 161.]

8050. Pooling contracts. It shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter to enter into any contract, agreement, or combination with any other common carrier or carriers for the pooling of freight of different and competing railroads, or divide between them the aggregate or net proceeds of the earnings of such railroads, or any portion thereof; and in case of an agreement for the pooling of freights as aforesaid, each day of its continuance shall be a separate offense. [C., '73, §§ 1297-1299; C., '97, § 2127.]

8051. Continuous shipments. It shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter to enter into any combination, contract or agreement, expressed or implied, to prevent, by change of time schedules, carriage in different cars, or, by other means or device, the carriage of freights from being continuous from place of shipment to the place of destination in the state; and no break of bulk, stoppage, or interruption made by such common carrier shall prevent the carriage of freights from being treated as one continuous carriage from the place of shipment to the place of destination, unless such break, stoppage, or interruption was made in good faith for some necessary purpose, and without any intent to avoid or unnecessarily interrupt such continuous carriage, or to evade any of the provisions of this chapter. [C., '97, § 2129.]

8052. Violations—treble damages. In case any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter shall do, cause, or permit to be done anything herein prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or shall omit to do anything in this chapter required to be done, it shall be liable to the person or persons injured thereby for three times the amount of damages sustained in consequence, together with costs of suit, and a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court, on appeal or otherwise, which shall be taxed and collected as part of the costs in the case; but in all cases demand in writing shall be made for the money damages sustained before action is brought for a recovery under this section, and no action shall be brought until the expiration of fifteen days after such demand. [C., '97, § 2130.]

8053. Criminal liability. Except as otherwise specially provided for in this chapter, and unless relieved from the consequences of a violation of the law as provided herein, any common carrier subject to the provisions hereof, or, when such common carrier is a corporation, any director or officer thereof, or any receiver, trustee, lessee, agent, or person acting for or employed by such corporation, who, alone or with any other corporation, company, person, or party shall wilfully do or cause to be done, or shall wilfully suffer or permit to be done any act, matter, or thing in this chapter prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or who shall aid or abet therein, or shall wilfully omit or fail to do any act, matter, or thing in this chapter required to be done, or shall cause or willingly suffer or permit any act, matter, or thing, so directed or required by the provisions of this chapter to be done, not to be so done; or shall aid or abet any such omission or failure, or shall be guilty of any infraction of the provisions of this chapter, or shall aid or abet therein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than five thousand nor less than five hundred dollars for each offense. [C., '97, § 2132.]

8054. "Extortion" defined—penalty. If any railway corporation or carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter shall charge, collect, demand, or receive more than a fair and reasonable rate of toll or compensation for the transportation of passengers or freight of any description, or for the use and transportation of any railway car upon its track or any of the branches thereof, or upon any railroad within the state which it has the right, license or permission to use, operate, or control; or shall make any unjust and unreasonable charge prohibited in this chapter, it shall be deemed guilty of extortion, and be dealt with as hereinafter provided; and if any such railroad corporation or common carrier shall be found guilty of any unjust discrimination as defined in this chapter, it shall, upon conviction thereof, be dealt with as hereinafter provided. [C., '97, § 2144.]

8055. Discrimination—prima facie evidence. If any such railway corporation shall:

1. Charge, collect or receive for the transportation of any passenger or freight of any description upon its railroad, for any distance within the state, a greater amount of toll or compensation than is at the same time charged, collected or received for the transportation in the same direction of any passenger or like quantity of freight of the same class, over a greater distance of the same railway; or

2. Charge, collect or receive at any point upon its road a higher rate of toll or compensation for receiving, handling or delivering freight of the same class and quantity than it shall at the same time charge, collect or receive at any other point upon the same railway; or

3. Charge, collect or receive for the transportation of any passenger or freight of any description over its railway a greater amount as toll or compensation than shall at the same time be charged, collected or received by it for the transportation of any passenger or like quantity of freight of the same class being transported in the same direction over any portion of the same railway of equal distance; or

4. Charge, collect or receive from any person a higher or greater amount of toll or compensation than it shall at the same time charge, collect or receive from any other person for receiving, handling or delivering freight of the same class and like quantity at the same point upon its railway; or

5. Charge, collect or receive from any person for the transportation of any freight upon its railway a higher or greater rate of toll or compensation than it shall at the same time charge, collect or receive from any other person or persons for the transportation of the like quantity of freight of the same class being transported from the same point in the same direction over equal distances of the same railway; or

6. Charge, collect or receive from any person for the use and transportation of any railway car or cars upon its railroad for any distance, a greater amount of toll or compensation than is at the same time charged, collected or received from any other person for the use and transportation of any railway car of the same class or number, for a like purpose, being transported in the same direction over a greater distance of the same railway; or greater compensation in the aggregate than it shall, at the same time, charge, collect or receive from any other person for the use and transportation of any railway car or cars of the same class for a like purpose, being transported from the same original point in the same direction, over an equal distance of the same railway—

all such discriminating rates, charges, collections or receipts, whether made directly or by means of any rebate, drawback, or other shift or evasion, shall be received as prima facie evidence of the unjust discriminations prohibited by this chapter. [C., '97, § 2145.]

8056. "Competition" no defense. It shall not be a sufficient excuse or justification thereof on the part of said railway corporation that the station or point at which it shall charge, collect or receive less compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of such passenger or freight, or for the use and transportation of such railway car the greater distance than for the shorter distance, is a station or point at which there exists competition with another railway or other transportation line. [C., '97, § 2145.]

8057. Other evidence. The two preceding sections shall not be construed so as to exclude other evidence tending to show any unjust discrimination in freight or passenger rates. [C., '97, § 2145.]

8058. Railways included. The provisions of the three preceding sections shall apply to any railway, the branches thereof, and any road or roads which any railway corporation has the right, license or permission to use, operate or control, wholly or in part, within this state. [C., '97, § 2145.]

8059. Exceptions. The provisions of the four preceding sections shall not be so construed as to prevent railway corporations from issuing commutation, excursion, or thousand-mile tickets, if the same are issued alike to all applying therefor. [C., '97, § 2145.]

8060. Switching charges. Nothing in the five preceding sections shall be so construed as to prevent railroad companies or the board of railroad commissioners from establishing schedules of reasonable charges applicable to switching services only, and which shall be independent of any schedule of charges which may be provided for the regular line haul freight service of common carriers. [S., '13, § 2145.]

than a carload of a like class; nor more for transporting one hundred pounds of freight than it charges, collects, demands or receives per hundred for more than one hundred pounds of freight, but less than a ton of a like class. [C., '97, § 2146; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 197, § 1.]

8062. New industries—limitation. For the protection and development of any new industry in the state, any common carrier may grant concessions or special rates for any agreed number of carloads or for a specified period of time, which rates and period of time shall be fixed and approved by the board of railroad commissioners, and a copy thereof filed in its office. [C., '97, § 2146; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 197, § 2.]

8064. Penalty for discrimination. Any such corporation guilty of extortion, or of making any unjust discrimination as to passenger or freight rates, or the rates for the use and transportation of railway cars, or in receiving, handling or delivering freights, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not less than one thousand nor more than five thousand dollars for the first offense, and for each subsequent offense not less than five thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars,—such fine to be imposed in a criminal prosecution by indictment; or shall be subject to the liability prescribed in the next succeeding section, to be recovered as therein provided. [C., '97, § 2147.]

8065. Civil forfeiture. Any such railway corporation guilty of extortion, or of making any unjust discrimination as to passenger or freight rates, or the rates for the use and transportation of railway cars, or in receiving, handling, or delivering freights, shall forfeit and pay to the state not less than one thousand nor more than five thousand dollars for the first offense, and not less than five thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars for each subsequent offense, to be recovered in a civil action in the name of the state; and the release from liability or penalty provided for in this chapter shall not apply to a criminal prosecution under the last preceding section, or to a civil action under this section. [C., '97, § 2148.]

8066. Free or reduced freight rates permitted. Nothing in this chapter shall apply to free or reduced rates for the transportation, storage, or handling of:

1. Property for the United States, this state, or municipal governments.

2. Materials to be used by public authorities in constructing or maintaining public highways outside of the corporate limits of cities and towns.

3. Property for charitable purposes.

4. Property for exhibition at fairs or expositions.

5. Private property or goods for the family use of such employees as are entitled to free passenger transportation. [C., '97, § 2150; 37 G. A., ch. 390, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 197, § 4.]

JOINT RATES

8067. Authorization. The preceding sections of this chapter shall not be construed to prohibit the making of rates by two or more railway companies for the transportation of property over two or more of their respective lines within the state; and a less charge by each of said companies for its portion of such joint shipment than it charges for a shipment for the same distance wholly over its own line within the state shall not be considered a violation of said chapter, and shall not render such company liable to any of the penalties thereof. [C., '97, § 2152.]

8068. Discrimination against stations. The provisions of the preceding section shall not be construed to permit railway companies establishing joint rates to make thereby any unjust discrimination between the different shipping points or stations upon their respective lines between which joint rates are established, and any such unjust discrimination shall be punished in the manner and by the penalties provided by this chapter. [C., '97, § 2152.]

8069. Connecting lines. Every owner or consignor of freight to be transported by railway from any point within this state to any other point within this state shall have the right to require that the same shall be transported over two or more connecting lines of railway, to be transferred at the connecting point or points without change of car or cars if in carload lots, and with or without change of car or cars if in less than carload lots, whenever the distance from the place of shipment to destination, both being within this state, is less over two or more connecting lines of railway than it is over a single line of railway, or where the initial line does not reach the place of destination; and it shall be the duty, upon the request of any such owner or consignor of freight, made to the initial company, of such railway companies whose lines so connect, to transport the freight without change of car or cars if the shipment be in a carload lot or lots, and with change of car or cars if it be in less than carload lots, from the place of shipment to destination, whenever the distance from the place of shipment to destination, both being within this state, is less than the distance over a single line, or when the initial line does not reach the point of destination, for a reasonable joint through rate. This section shall apply to interurban railways and their connection with ordinary steam railways. [C., '97, § 2153; S., '13, § 2153.]

8074. When effective—presumption. The joint through rates thus established shall be promulgated by mailing a printed copy thereof to each railway company affected thereby, and shall go into effect within ten days after they are so promulgated; and from and after that time an official printed schedule thereof shall be prima facie evidence, in all the courts of this state, that the rates therein fixed are just and reasonable for the joint transportation of such freight between the points and over the lines described therein. [C., '97, § 2155; S., '13, § 2155.]

8075. Copies. The said board shall deliver a printed copy of said schedule to any person making application therefor. [S., '13, § 2155.]

charge that it may make for transportation for a similar distance over any part of its line for any single rate shipment or the share of any other joint rate. [S., '13, § 2155.]

8077. Revision of joint rates. The board, upon such reasonable notice as it may prescribe, may, upon its own motion or upon the application of any person, firm or corporation interested therein, revise, change or add to any joint through rates fixed or promulgated hereunder; and any such revised, changed or added joint rates shall have the same force and effect as the rate or rates originally established. [S., '13, § 2155.]

8078. Permissible rate for long haul. The said board is empowered to authorize, upon proper hearing, any railway company whose line connects the point of shipment with the point of destination but requires a longer haul than the joint haul over which a joint rate has been established, to charge the joint rate without affecting the charge upon any other part of its line, except that the charge for a like kind of property must not be greater for a shorter than for a longer distance over its railroad, all of the shorter haul being included within the longer. [S., '13, § 2155.]

8079. Interurban railways included. The eight preceding sections shall apply to interurban railways and their connection with ordinary steam railways. [S., '13, § 2155.]

8081. Unreasonable charges. Every unjust and unreasonable charge for the transportation of freight and cars over two or more railroads in this state is prohibited, and every company making such unreasonable and unlawful charges, or otherwise violating the provisions of this chapter, shall be punished as provided in this chapter for the making of unreasonable charges for the transportation of freight and cars over a single line of railroad by a single railway company. [C., '97, § 2157.]

RATE SCHEDULES

8082. Definitions. The term "board" as employed in this chapter means the board of railroad commissioners.

The term "rates" embraces fares, tariffs, tolls, charges, and all classifications, contracts, practices, rules, and regulations of common carriers relating to such rates.

The term "joint tariffs" embraces joint rates, tolls, contracts, classifications, and charges. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 1.]

8083. Rate schedules—filing and publication. Every common carrier, subject to the provisions of this chapter shall file with the board and shall print and keep open to public inspection schedules showing the rates for the transportation within this state of persons and property from each point upon its route to all other points thereon and from all points upon its route to all points upon every other route leased, operated, or controlled by it; and from each point on its route or upon any route leased, operated, or controlled by it to all points upon the route of any other common carrier, whenever a through route and a joint rate shall have been established or ordered between any two such points. If no joint rate over a through route has been established, the schedules of the several carriers in such through route shall show the separately established rates, applicable to the through transportation. [C., '73, § 1304; C., '97, § 2128; 40 G. A., ch. 162, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 2.]

8084. Detailed requirements. The schedules aforesaid shall plainly state the places between which such property and persons will be carried, and, separately, all terminal charges, storage charges, icing charges, and all other charges which the board may require to be stated, all privileges or facilities granted or allowed, and all rules or regulations which may in any wise change, affect, or determine any part or the aggregate of such rates, or the value of the various services rendered to the passenger, shipper, or consignee. [C., '73, § 1304; C., '97, § 2128; 40 G. A., ch. 162, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 3.]

8085. Printing—accessible to public. Subject to such rules and regulations as the board may prescribe, such schedules shall be plainly printed in large type and a copy thereof shall be kept by every such carrier readily accessible to and for inspection by the public in every station or office of such carrier where passengers or property are respectively received for transportation when such station or office is in charge of an agent, and in every station or office of such carrier where passenger tickets or tickets for sleeping car, parlor car, or other train accommodations are sold, or bills of lading or waybills or receipts for property are issued. [C., '73, § 1304; C., '97, § 2128; 40 G. A., ch. 162, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 4.]

8086. Right to inspect. Any or all of such schedules kept as aforesaid shall be immediately produced by such carrier for inspection upon the demand of any person. [40 G. A., ch. 162, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 5.]

8087. Notice as to schedules. A notice printed in bold type and stating that such schedules are on file with the agent and open to inspection by any person, and that the agent will assist any person to determine from such schedules any rate, shall be kept posted by the carrier in two public and conspicuous places in every such station or office. [C., '97, § 2128; 40 G. A., ch. 162, § 4; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 6.]

8088. Form of schedules. The form of every such schedule shall be prescribed by the board and shall conform, in the case of common carriers subject to an act of congress entitled "An Act to Regulate Commerce", approved February 4, 1887, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, as nearly as may be to the form of schedule prescribed by the interstate commerce commission under said act. [40 G. A., ch. 162, § 5; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 7.]

8089. Interstate commerce schedules. When schedules and classifications required by the interstate commerce commission contain in whole or in part the information required by the provisions of this chapter, the posting, publishing, and filing of a copy or copies of such schedules and classifications shall be deemed a compliance with the requirements of this chapter in so far as such schedules and classifications contain the information required by this chapter, and any additional or different information may be posted, published, and filed in a supplementary schedule. [40 G. A., ch. 162, § 5; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 8.]

8090. Partial schedules. In lieu of filing its entire schedule in each station or office, any common carrier may, subject to the regulations of the board, file or keep posted at such stations or offices, schedules of such rates as are applicable at, to and from the places where such stations or offices are located. [C., '97, § 2128; 40 G. A., ch. 162, § 6; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 9.]

8091. Changes in schedules. The board shall have power from time to time, in its discretion, to determine and prescribe by order such changes in the form of the schedules referred to in this chapter as it may find expedient, and to modify the requirements of any of its orders, rules, or regulations in respect thereto. [C., '97, § 2128; 40 G. A., ch. 162, § 7; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 10.]

8092. Joint tariff schedules. The names of the several common carriers which are parties to any joint tariff, shall be specified in the schedule or schedules showing the same. Unless otherwise ordered by the board, a schedule showing such joint tariff need be filed with the board by only one of the parties if there is also filed with the board, in such form as the board may require, a concurrence in such joint tariff by each of the other parties thereto. [C., '97, § 2128; 40 G. A., ch. 162, § 8; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 11.]

8093. Contracts affecting rate. Every common carrier shall file with the board, copies of all contracts, agreements, or arrangements with other common carriers in relation to any service, affected by the provisions of this chapter, to which it may be a party, and copies of all other contracts, agreements, or arrangements with any other person or corporation affecting in the judgment of the board the cost to such common carrier of any service. [C., '97, § 2128; 40 G. A., ch. 162, § 9; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 12.]

8094. Transportation prohibited. No common carrier shall undertake to perform any service nor engage or participate in the transportation of persons or property between points within this state, until its schedule of rates shall have been filed and published as herein provided. [40 G. A., ch. 162, § 10; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 13.]

8095. Change in rate. Unless the board otherwise orders, no change shall be made by any common carrier in any rate, except after thirty days' notice to the board and to the public as herein provided. [C., '97, § 2128; 40 G. A., ch. 162, § 11; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 14.]

8096. Notice of change. Such notice shall be given by filing with the board and by keeping open for public inspection new schedules or supplements stating plainly the change or changes to be made in the schedule or schedules then in effect, and the time when the change or changes will go into effect. [C., '97, § 2128; 40 G. A., ch. 162, § 11; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 15.]

8097. Changes without notice. The board, for good cause shown, may allow changes without requiring said thirty days' notice by an order specifying the changes so to be made and the time when they shall take effect, and the manner in which they shall be filed and published. [C., '97, § 2128; 40 G. A., ch. 162, § 11; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 16.]

8098. Indicating change. When any change is proposed in any rate, such proposed change shall be plainly indicated on the new schedule filed with the board, by some character immediately preceding or following the item. [C., '97, § 2128; 40 G. A., ch. 162, § 11; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 17.]

8099. Schedule charge mandatory—refunds and discrimination. No common carrier, except as otherwise provided, shall charge, demand, collect, or receive a greater or less or different compensation for the transportation of persons or property or for any service in connection therewith than the rates, fares, and charges applicable to such transportation as specified in its schedules filed and in effect at the time; nor shall any such carrier refund or remit in any manner or by any device any portion of the rates, fares, or charges so specified except upon order of the courts or of the board as may be now or hereafter by law provided, nor extend to any shipper or person any privilege or facility in the transportation of passengers or property except such as are specified in such schedules. [C., '97, § 2128; 40 G. A., ch. 162, § 12; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 18.]

8100. Power to revise rates. Whenever there shall be filed with the board any schedule, stating an individual or joint rate, the board shall have power, either upon complaint or upon its own motion, at once, and, if it so orders, without answer or formal pleadings by the interested common carrier or carriers, but upon reasonable notice, to enter upon a hearing concerning the propriety of such rate. [40 G. A., ch. 162, § 13; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 19.]

8101. Suspension of rates. Pending the hearing and the decision thereon, such rate shall not go into effect; but the period of suspension of such rate shall not extend more than one hundred twenty days beyond the time when such rate would otherwise go into effect, unless the board, in its discretion, extends the period of suspension for a further period of not exceeding thirty days. [40 G. A., ch. 162, § 13; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 20.]

8102. Decision. On such hearing the board shall establish the rates, in whole or in part, or others in lieu thereof, which it shall find to be just and reasonable. [40 G. A., ch. 162, § 14; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 21.]

8103. When rates effective. All such rates not so suspended shall, on the expiration of thirty days from the time of filing the same with the board or of such less time as the said board may grant, go into effect and be the established and effective rates, subject to the power of the board after a hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint, as herein provided, to alter or modify the same. [40 G. A., ch. 162, § 14; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 22.]

8104. Posting and filing of revised schedules. After such changes have been authorized by the board, copies of the new or revised schedules shall be posted or filed as provided in this chapter within such reasonable time as may be fixed by the board. [40 G. A., ch. 162, § 14; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 198, § 23.]

8105. Commissioners' schedules of rates—effect. The schedules of reasonable maximum rates of charges for the transportation of freight and cars, together with the classification of such freights now in effect, shall remain in force until changed by the board according to law, which, in all actions brought against railway corporations, wherein there are involved the charges thereof for the transportation of any freight or cars, or any unjust discrimination in relation thereto, shall be taken as prima facie evidence in all courts that the rates fixed therein are reasonable and just maximum rates of charge for which said schedules have been prepared. The board shall from time to time, and as often as circumstances may require, change and revise such schedules, but the rates fixed shall not be higher than established by law. The board shall give notice of its intention to revise or change such schedules, by publishing a notice thereof in two weekly newspapers published at the seat of government, for two consecutive weeks, and the last publication of such notice shall be at least ten days before the time fixed for considering the matter, and such notice shall contain, in general terms, a statement of the matters the board proposes to consider, and the date when and the place where the matter will be taken up, and shall be addressed to all persons interested therein. When any schedule is thus revised the board must cause notice thereof to be published for two successive weeks in some public newspaper printed at the seat of government, which shall state the date of the taking effect thereof, and it shall take effect at the time so stated. A printed copy of such revised schedule shall be conspicuously posted by said common carrier in each freight office and passenger depot upon all lines affected thereby, and, when certified by the board that the same is a true copy prepared by it for the railway company or corporation therein named, and that notice thereof had been published as required by law, shall be received in evidence in all actions as prima facie the schedule of such board. [C., '97, § 2138.]

8106. Complaint of violation. When any person in his own behalf, or in behalf of a class of persons similarly situated, or a firm, corporation, or association, or any mercantile, agricultural, or manufacturing society, or any body politic or municipal organization, shall make complaint to the board of railroad commissioners that the rate charged or published by any railway company, or the maximum rates fixed by the board in the schedule of rates made by it, or the maximum rate fixed by law, is unreasonably high or discriminating, the board shall investigate the matter, and, if the charge appears to be well founded, fix a day for hearing the same, giving the railway company notice of the time and place thereof by mail, directed to any division superintendent, general or assistant superintendent, general manager, president or secretary of such company, which notice shall contain the substance of the complaint, also the person or persons complaining. [C., '97, § 2139.]

8107. Hearing—evidence. Upon the hearing the board shall receive any evidence and listen to any arguments offered or presented by either party relevant to the matter under investigation, and the burden of proof shall not be upon the person or persons making the complaint; but it shall add to the showing made at such hearing whatever information it may then have, or can obtain from any source, including schedules of rates actually charged by any railway company for substantially the same kind of service, in this or any other state. The lowest rates published or charged by any railway company for substantially the same kind of service whether in this or another state, shall, at the instance of the person or persons complaining, be accepted as prima facie evidence of a reasonable rate for the services under investigation; and if the railway company complained of is operating a line of railroad beyond the state, or has a traffic arrangement with any such railway company, the same shall be taken into consideration in determining what is a reasonable rate; if it be operating a line of railway beyond the state, the rate charged or established for substantially a similar or greater service by it in another state shall also be considered. [C., '97, § 2140.]

8108. Determination. After such hearing and investigation, the board shall fix and determine the maximum charges to be thereafter made by the railroad company or common carrier complained of, which charge shall in no event exceed the one now or hereafter fixed by law; and the board shall render their decision in writing, and shall spread the same at length in the record to be kept for that purpose; such decision shall specifically set out the sums or rate which the railroad company or common carrier so complained of may thereafter charge or receive for the service therein named, and including a classification of such freight; and the board shall not be limited in their said decision and the schedule to be contained therein to the specific case or cases complained of, but it shall be extended to all such rates between points in this state, and whatever part of the line of railway of such company or common carrier within this state may have been fairly within the scope of such investigation; and any such decisions so made and entered on record of the board, including any such schedules and classifications, shall, when duly authenticated, be received and held in all suits brought against any such railroad corporation or common carrier, wherein is in any way involved the charges of any such corporation or carrier mentioned in said decisions, in any of the courts of this state, as prima facie evidence that the rates therein fixed are reasonable maximum rates, the same as the schedule made by the board as provided in section 8105; and the rates and classifications so established, after such hearing and investigation, shall, from time to time thereafter, upon complaint duly made, be subject to revision by the board, the same as any other rates and classifications. [C., '97, § 2141.]

LIVE STOCK

8109. Shipment—free transportation. Common carriers of live stock, in carload lots, upon receiving, in this state, for shipment one or more carloads of horses or mules or two or more carloads of other live stock, shall upon demand of the owner of such animals offered for shipment, issue to such owner, or the actual agent or employee of such owner, without other consideration, transportation from the place of receiving such shipment to the place of destination, and return; such transportation to be limited to one person for each shipment, as is above set out. When a single shipment aggregates six cars or more, such owner shall be entitled, on demand, as is above provided, to transportation for one additional person, such additional person to be an actual agent or employee of such owner, and such common carrier shall in like manner and under similar conditions issue transportation for one person to destination of shipment only to the shipper of one carload of cattle, hogs, or sheep. The return transportation herein provided for is to be delivered, upon demand, at the office of the carrier at the place of destination, upon proper identification of the person so entitled to same, and shall be good for transportation if presented within forty-eight hours from the time of the delivery of such shipment at place of destination. [S., '13, § 2157-a.]

8110. Violations. Any common carrier violating the above provisions shall forfeit and pay to the owner of any shipment, as is above provided, three times the amount of the regular fare expended by such owner for himself, or his agent, in going from point of shipment to point of destination, and return, of a shipment of stock as herein provided. [S., '13, § 2157-b.]

8111. Misuse of transportation. Any person other than the owner, his agent, or employees, as is described in the two preceding sections, attempting to use, or using, the transportation therein provided for, shall be considered a trespasser upon the trains or premises of such common carrier. [S., '13, § 2157-c.]

8112. Water-closets in cabooses. The cabooses or cars attached to such stock trains, and in which the holders of such transportation are required to ride when accompanying such live stock to market, shall be provided with suitable water-closets for the use of such persons while in transit. [S., '13, § 2157-d.]

8113. Violations. Any railroad in this state engaged in the transportation of live stock, and failing or refusing to comply with the requirements of the foregoing section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars for each day's negligence or refusal to comply therewith; and all moneys so collected as fines shall be paid into the public school funds of the state. [S., '13, § 2157-e.]

8114. Movement of live stock—burden of proof. It is hereby made the duty of all common carriers of freight within this state to move cars of live stock at the highest practicable speed consistent with reasonable safety, and the reasonable movement of its general traffic. The burden of proof that cars of live stock are so moved shall be upon the carrier, and proof that such cars were moved according to schedule or time-table shall not be prima facie evidence that they were moved at the highest practicable speed consistent with reasonable safety. [S., '13, § 2157-s.]

8115. Power to prescribe speed. The power to prescribe speed and determine conditions for the movement of cars of live stock within this state is hereby expressly conferred upon the said board of railroad commissioners. [S., '13, § 2157-t.]

8116. Commissioners to prescribe speed. In order to enforce the duty prescribed in the second preceding section, the board of railroad commissioners shall from time to time investigate the practice of the common carriers with respect to the movement of live stock; and if it ascertains at any time that the common carriers or any of them are not moving cars of live stock with the proper speed, then upon notice to any such common carrier or carriers, the said board shall prescribe the speed at which and the conditions under which cars of live stock shall be moved within this state by any such carrier or carriers. [S., '13, § 2157-t.]

8117. Order—when effective. The order shall specify the time at which it shall go into effect, which shall be as soon as, in the judgment of the board, the carrier or carriers affected can, with reasonable diligence, readjust its or their time-tables. [S., '13, § 2157-t.]

8118. Enforcement. Any order, ruling or regulation made by the board under the four preceding sections shall be enforceable as provided in sections 7883 to 7888, inclusive. [S., '13, § 2157-u.]

8119. Unloading live stock. No railway company in this state, in the carrying or transportation of cattle, sheep, swine, or other animals, shall confine the same in cars for a longer period than twenty-eight consecutive hours, unless delayed by storm or other accidental cause, without unloading for rest, water, and feeding for a period of at least five consecutive hours; provided that upon the written request of the owner or person in custody of that particular shipment, which written request shall be separate and apart from any printed bill of lading, or other railroad form, the time of confinement may be extended to thirty-six hours. [C., '73, § 4032; C., '97, § 4970; 38 G. A., ch. 108, § 1.]

8121. Care of unloaded animals—lien. Animals unloaded for rest, water and feeding shall be properly fed, watered and sheltered during such rest by the owners or persons in custody thereof, or, in case of their default in so doing, then by the railway company transporting them, at the expense of said owners or persons in custody thereof, and said company shall have a lien upon such animals for food, care and custody furnished, and shall not be liable for any detention of such animals authorized by this section. [C., '73, § 4032; C., '97, § 4970.]

8122. When unloading not required—violations. When such animals shall be carried in cars in which they shall and do have proper food, water, space and opportunity for rest, the foregoing provisions in regard to their being unloaded shall not apply. Any railway company, owner or custodian of such animals, who shall fail to comply with the provisions of the three preceding sections, shall, for each and every such offense, be liable for and forfeit and pay a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [C., '73, § 4032; C., '97, § 4970.]

CLASSIFICATION AND PASSENGER RATES

8123. Classification of railroads. All railroads of the state shall be classified in accordance with the gross amount of their several annual earnings within the state, per mile, for the preceding year, as follows:

1. Class A shall include those whose gross annual earnings per mile shall be four thousand dollars or more.

2. Class B shall include those whose gross annual earnings per mile shall be three thousand dollars or any sum in excess thereof less than four thousand dollars.

3. Class C shall include those whose gross annual earnings per mile shall be less than three thousand dollars. All steam railroads operating wholly within this state, and not to exceed twenty-five miles in length, shall be included in and classified as class C railroads. [C., '97, §§ 2076, 2077; S., '13, §§ 2076, 2077; 37 G. A., ch. 327, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 36.]

8124. Basis of classification. In determining the classification of any railroad, the entire railroad property owned or operated by any company shall be considered as a single railroad, and the aggregate gross earnings of the entire railroad within the state shall be divided by the entire mileage owned or operated within the state, to ascertain the gross earnings per mile of such railroad. [S., '13, § 2076; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 37.]

8125. Classification by executive council. The executive council shall at its regular meeting on the second Monday in July in each year classify the different railways, as provided by the two preceding sections, from information as to gross earnings obtained from the annual reports of railways made to the executive council for assessment and taxation, if it shall be satisfied of the correctness of same, or from information obtained by said executive council from any other source, and, when there shall be any change in classification, shall issue a certificate to any corporation or corporations affected by such change, certifying the class to which they are respectively assigned. Any change of rates by any corporation pursuant to any change of classification shall take effect and be in force from and after the date of such certificate. [C., '97, § 2078; S., '13, § 2078; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 38.]

8126. Passenger rates—limitation. All railroad corporations according to their classifications as herein prescribed shall be limited to compensation per mile for the transportation of any person with ordinary baggage not exceeding one hundred fifty pounds in weight, as follows:

1. Class A, two cents.
2. Class B, two and one-half cents.
3. Class C, three cents.
4. For children twelve years of age or under, one-half the rate above prescribed.
5. Every railroad corporation shall be entitled to charge a fare of not to exceed ten cents for the transportation of each passenger with ordinary baggage for any distance not exceeding five miles.
6. A charge of ten cents may be added to the fare of any passenger when the same is paid upon the cars, if a ticket might have been procured within a reasonable time before the departure of the train, except in those cases where a minimum of ten cents is charged for a distance of less than five miles as above provided. [C., '73, § 1305; C., '97, § 2077; S., '13, § 2077; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 39.]

8127. Free passes and reduced passenger rates prohibited. No common carrier of passengers shall, directly or indirectly, issue, furnish or give free or at reduced rate, any ticket, pass, or other evidence of the right or privilege of transportation to any person, except as provided in the next section; nor shall any person accept or use any free ticket, pass, or other evidence of the right or privilege of transportation, except as in said section provided. The words "free ticket", "free pass", or other evidence of the right or privilege of transportation as used in this section shall include any ticket, pass, contract, permit, or transportation issued, furnished, or given to any person, by any common carrier of passengers, for carriage or passage, for any other consideration than money paid in the usual way at the rate, fare, or charge open to all who desire to purchase. [S., '13, § 2157-f; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 197, § 5.]

8128. Exceptions. The persons to whom tickets, free passes, free transportation, or discriminating reduced rates may be issued, furnished, or given, shall be as follows:

1. The railroad commissioners, their secretary and experts or other agents, and the commerce counsel, while engaged in the performance of their respective duties.
2. The general officers of such common carrier.
3. The officers, agents, employees, attorneys, physicians, and surgeons of such common carriers, whose chief and principal occupation is to render service to common carriers of passengers, and to the families of such persons.
4. Sleeping car and express company employees, linemen of telegraph and telephone companies operated in connection with such carriers, railway mail service employees, postoffice inspectors, customs inspectors, immigration inspectors, newsboys on trains, and baggage agents.

5. Persons injured in wrecks and physicians and nurses attending such persons.

6. Persons traveling for the purpose of providing relief in cases of railroad accident, general epidemic, pestilence, or other calamitous visitation.

7. The necessary caretakers of live stock, vegetables and fruit, including return transportation to forwarding station.

8. The officers, agents or regularly accredited representatives of labor organizations composed wholly of employees of railway companies.

9. Inmates of homes for the reform or rescue of the vicious or unfortunate, including those about to enter and those returning home after discharge, and boards of managers, including officers and superintendents of such homes.

10. Superannuated and pensioned employees and members of their families, widows of employees who die while in the service of such common carrier, and widows of pensioned employees.

11. Employees crippled and disabled in the service of such common carrier.

12. Mail carriers and firemen and all peace officers (except state policemen and agents of the department of justice) of any city, within the limits of such city, while wearing the insignia of their office.

13. Ministers of religion, traveling secretaries of railroad young men's christian associations, inmates of hospitals and charitable and eleemosynary institutions, and persons exclusively engaged in charitable and eleemosynary work.

14. Indigent, homeless, and destitute persons, while being transported by charitable societies or hospitals, and the necessary agents or employees accompanying such persons.

15. School children to and from public, private, or parochial schools.

16. The state game warden, his car and necessary assistants accompanying the same, when engaged in the performance of official duties.

17. The adjutant general of Iowa for the transportation of officers or enlisted men of the Iowa national guard or other military organization of the state, when traveling under the order of the commander in chief. [C., '97, § 2150; S., '13, § 2157-g; 38 G. A., ch. 174, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 197, § 6.]

8129. Interchange of passes. The provisions of the preceding section shall not prohibit the officers of any railway from interchanging passes and tickets with other railway companies for their officers and employees, or the interchange of passes by railway companies for the persons to whom free tickets, passes, or transportation may lawfully be given or furnished, nor to invalidate any existing contract between a street railway company and a city where a condition of any franchise granted requires the furnishing of transportation to policemen, firemen, and city officers, while in the performance of their duties. [C., '97, § 2150; S., '13, § 2157-g; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 197, § 7.]

8130. Burden of proof. In any prosecution wherein it is charged that a free ticket, pass, or transportation was wrongfully issued or given to or accepted by a physician, surgeon, attorney, agent or employee of a common carrier, the burden of proof shall be upon the defendant to prove the amount and character of the service rendered or to be rendered. [S., '13, § 2157-g; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 197, § 8.]

8133. Passenger tickets—redemption—time limit. It shall be the duty of every railroad company, corporation, person, or persons acting as common carriers of passengers in the state to provide for the redemption, at the place of purchase and at the general passenger agent's office of said carrier, of the whole or any integral part of any passenger ticket or tickets that such carrier may have sold, as the purchaser or owner has not used for passage or received transportation for which such ticket should have been surrendered; and said carrier shall there redeem the same at a rate which shall equal the difference between the price paid for the whole ticket and the cost of a ticket between the points for which said ticket has been actually used, and no carrier shall limit the time in which redemption shall be made to less than ten days from date of sale at the place of purchase and six months from date of sale at general passenger agent's office. [S., '13, § 2128-a.]

8134. Notice as to limitation and transferability. No railroad company, corporation, person, or persons doing business in the state, as common carrier of passengers, whose rate of fare is regulated by statute of this state, shall sell or issue to any person, at the maximum rate allowed by law, any ticket or tickets bearing any condition of limitation as to the time of use, or as to transferability, without first providing for the redemption of said ticket, as directed by the preceding section, and also having notice of such provision and privilege of redemption conspicuously posted at each place where sales of tickets are made by such common carriers in this state. A failure to provide for the redemption of such ticket or to give notice as above provided shall make all conditions and limitations as to time of use or transferability of no force or effect. [S., '13, § 2128-b.]

8135. Violations. Any railroad company, corporation, person, or persons, who as common carriers shall sell or issue tickets as set forth in the preceding sections, and shall refuse or neglect to redeem the same, as by said sections provided, within ten days of date of demand, shall forfeit and pay to the owner of such ticket the purchase price of said ticket, and the further sum of one hundred dollars. [S., '13, § 2128-c.]

8136. Mileage books. Nothing in the three preceding sections shall prohibit the sale of mileage books or tickets, at less than the maximum rates allowed by law, bearing reasonable conditions of limitation, as to the right of use for passage. [S., '13, § 2128-d.]

WEIGHING OF COAL

8137. Coal in car lots. Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in operating any railroad within the state shall equip the line of its track and thereafter maintain thereon in good order, track scales of sufficient capacity to weigh all carloads of coal that may be transported over the said railroad, and shall weigh the same at the request of any owner, consignor or consignee of such commodities, and furnish written certificates of such weights to such owner, consignor or consignee as hereinafter provided. Such track scales shall be so installed and maintained at all division stations along the line of such railroads within the state, and at such other stations as the board of railroad commissioners shall from time to time direct. [S., '13, § 2157-l.]

8138. Where weighed—bills of lading. Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in operating any railroad within the state over which coal in carload lots shall be transported for hire, shall weigh such coal at point where such shipment originates unless covered by weight agreement between consignor and railway company, provided such point is equipped with track scales. If not so equipped, it shall be weighed at first practicable point en route where track scales are provided. Said person, firm, or corporation shall furnish to said shipper a bill of lading showing date and place weighed, also the gross, tare and net weights for each carload of coal so weighed. The tare weight shall be determined by using actual weight of empty car at loading station, provided track scales are maintained at such point. [S., '13, § 2157-m.]

8139. Weight at destination—fee. Such coal shall be weighed at destination upon request of consignee when there are track scales at such point. If not equipped with track scales at such point, then at nearest practicable point en route where such scales are maintained, and certificate of weight, showing actual gross, tare and net weights, shall be furnished to consignee and settlement of freight charges based on these weights. A reasonable charge of not more than one dollar per car may be made for such weighing on request. [S., '13, § 2157-n.]

8140. How weighed. Cars when weighed on track scales shall be uncoupled, clear and unhampered at both ends, carefully weighed by competent weighmen and certificates issued upon request of consignees, showing gross, tare and net weights. [S., '13, § 2157-o.]

8141. Prima facie evidence. Certificates mentioned in the preceding sections shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein recited in any action arising between consignors and consignees and common carriers. [S., '13, § 2157-p.]

8142. Violation—penalty. Any common carrier operating in this state violating any of the provisions of the five preceding sections by neglecting or refusing to weigh cars or to furnish certificates of weights as therein provided shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be, upon conviction thereof, fined in the sum of not more than one hundred twenty-five dollars for each and every violation. [S., '13, § 2157-q.]

APPROPRIATION OF FUEL

8143. Fuel in transit. It shall be unlawful for any common carrier doing business in this state, or any director, officer, receiver, trustee, agent or employee, acting for or employed by such common carrier, to take, use, divert or appropriate, any coal, coke, or oil received for shipment, without having obtained written consent of the state railroad commission as hereinafter provided. [39 G. A., ch. 285, § 1.]

8144. Application for permission. Whenever it appears to a corporation operating a common carrier that it does not have a sufficient supply of fuel to adequately operate its motive power for thirty days next ensuing, an application in writing, duly verified by its proper officer or employee in charge of motive power, setting forth the amount of fuel on hand, and the amount of fuel needed for that specific purpose, for the next thirty days, and that said corporation does not have sufficient fuel in transit, or is unable to obtain a sufficient supply of fuel, and that unless permitted to take fuel in transit, the operation of its motive power will be materially lessened, and to be supplemented by such other facts and showing as may be required by said railroad commission, may in the discretion of such commission be permitted by written order to take and use such fuel in transit for the period, and in such amount as shall by such commission be deemed reasonable or adequate. [39 G. A., ch. 285, § 2.]

8145. Modification of orders. The railroad commission in its discretion may modify or annul any order or orders made, without notice or additional showings. [39 G. A., ch. 285, § 3.]

8146. State or public utility as consignee. Fuel consigned to the state, or to a person, firm, or corporation operating a public utility, shall not be included in any order made by the railroad commission. [39 G. A., ch. 285, § 4.]

8147. Notice of application. The commission in its discretion may require notice to be served upon the owner of fuel sought to be taken by virtue hereof, the manner and form of such notice, and the time and place of the hearing, to be fixed by said commission. [39 G. A., ch. 285, § 5.]

8148. Notification of owner—payment. Whenever a common carrier is permitted to take fuel in transit by order of the railroad commission, it shall be the duty of the common carrier to promptly notify the owner of such taking and the owner thereof may, at his option, accept as payment therefor, the full value of such fuel, plus twenty per cent of such value, to be promptly paid by such carrier; but if the owner does not so elect, nothing herein shall be construed to affect any other right or remedy. [39 G. A., ch. 285, § 6.]

8149. Violations. Any common carrier subject to the provisions of the six preceding sections, or any director or officer thereof, or any receiver, trustee, lessee, agent or employee, who alone, or with any other director, officer, receiver, trustee, lessee, agent or employee, shall wilfully take, use, divert, or appropriate, any coal, coke, or oil, or suffer or permit the same to be taken, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than five thousand dollars, nor less than five hundred dollars for each offense. [39 G. A., ch. 285, § 7.]

ADJUSTMENT OF CLAIMS

8150. Time limit for adjustment. Every claim for loss of or damage to property while in the possession of any common carrier, or for delay in delivering freight or baggage or express, or for a charge in excess of the legal and regular charge for the service rendered, shall be adjusted and paid within forty days in case of shipments wholly within this state, and within ninety days in case of shipments from without the state after the filing of such claim with the agent or agent's carrier at the point of origin or of destination of each shipment; but no such claim shall be filed until after the arrival of the shipment or of some part thereof at the point of destination or until after the lapse of a reasonable time for the arrival thereof; and if such claim is not filed within sixty days from the time it accrues, the penalty provided in the following section shall not apply. [S., '13, § 2074-c; 37 G. A., ch. 399, § 1.]

8151. Failure to adjust. Failure to adjust and pay such claim, within the period herein prescribed shall subject the common carrier, so failing, to the penalty of a sum which in amount shall be equal to the amount of the claim originally filed; but it shall in no case be less than twenty-five dollars or more than one hundred dollars for each and every failure, to be recovered by the party aggrieved in any court of competent jurisdiction; and said claim shall be filed in proper form, including such information possessed by the claimant as will aid in establishing his claim. The penalty shall not apply unless the claimant shall recover the full amount claimed by him, nor when the claim exceeds five hundred dollars. [S., '13, § 2074-d.]

8152. No division of claims. The claimant shall not be permitted under this chapter to divide his claims arising from loss, damage, or injury to one shipment or consignment of goods, but only one claim within the meaning of this and the two preceding sections shall be filed for one shipment. [S., '13, § 2074-e.]

TERMINATING CARRIER'S LIABILITY

8153. Notice of arrival of shipment. All companies, corporations, or individuals that now, or hereafter, may own or operate any railroads, in whole or in part, in the state, and all persons, firms, or companies, and all associations of persons, whether incorporated or not, that shall do business as a common carrier upon any of the lines of railway in this state, shall be and remain liable as a common carrier upon all less than carload shipments until the consignee shall be notified of the arrival of the shipment and has reasonable time and opportunity to receive same. [S. S., '15, § 2074-f.]

8154. Notice prescribed. A deposit in the United States postoffice or public mailing box of a written notice addressed to the consignee at the address given upon the bill of lading will constitute service of the notice required by the preceding section, and forty-eight hours from the date of the mailing of such notice shall be a reasonable time in which to receive said shipment. [S. S., '15, § 2074-f.]

8155. Exceptions. The provisions of the two preceding sections shall not apply to shipments to stations or platforms where no agent is regularly employed. [S. S., '15, § 2074-f.]

NEGLIGENCE OF EMPLOYEES

8156. Liability for negligence of employees. Every corporation operating a railway shall be liable for all damages sustained by any person, including employees of such corporation, in consequence of the neglect of the agents, or by any mismanagement of the engineers, or other employees thereof, and in consequence of the wilful wrongs, whether of commission or omission, of such agents, engineers, or other employees, when such wrongs are in any manner connected with the use and operation of any railway on or about which they shall be employed, and no contract which restricts such liability shall be legal or binding. [C., '73, § 1307; C., '97, § 2071; S., '13, § 2071; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 194, § 1.]

8157. Relief or indemnity contract. No contract of insurance, relief, benefit, or indemnity in case of injury or death, entered into prior to the injury, between the person so injured and such corporation, or any other person or association acting for such corporation, and no acceptance of any such insurance, relief, benefit, or indemnity by the person injured, his widow, heirs, or legal representatives after the injury, from such corporation, person, or association, shall constitute any bar or defense to any cause of action brought under the provisions of the preceding section; but nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent or invalidate any settlement for damages between the parties subsequent to injuries received. [S., '13, § 2071; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 194, § 2.]

8158. Contributory and comparative negligence. In all actions brought against any railway corporation to recover damages for the personal injury or death of any employee under or by virtue of any of the provisions of the second preceding section, the fact that the employee may have been guilty of contributory negligence shall not bar a recovery; but the damages shall be diminished by the jury in proportion to the amount of negligence attributable to such employee. [S., '13, § 2071; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 194, § 3.]

8159. Unallowable pleas. No such employee who may be injured or killed shall be held to have been guilty of contributory negligence in any case where the violation by such common carrier or corporation of any statute enacted for the safety of employees contributed to the injury or death of such employee; nor shall it be any defense to such action that the employee who was injured or killed assumed the risks of his employment. [S., '13, § 2071; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 194, § 3.]

8160. Damages by fire. Any corporation operating a railway shall be liable for all damages sustained by any person on account of loss of or injury to his property occasioned by fire set out or caused by the operation of such railway. Such damages may be recovered by the party injured in the manner set out in section 8005, and to the same extent. [C., '73, § 1289; C., '97, § 2056.]

8161. Baggage—liability. Omnibus and transfer companies or other common carriers, and their agents, shall be liable for damages occasioned to baggage or other property belonging to travelers through careless or negligent handling while in the possession of said companies or carriers, and, in addition to the damages, the plaintiff shall be entitled to a allowance of not less than five dollars for every day's detention caused thereby, or by action brought to recover the same. [C., '73, § 2183; C., '97, § 3135.]

CHAPTER 374

RELOCATION OF LINE

8162. Petition.
8163. Notice.
8164. Conditions.
8165. Order of court.

8166. Effect.
8167. Notice to township trustees—vested rights.
8168. Cuts and banks.

or county shall be necessary only with reference to the change to be made within its own territorial limits. [C., '97, § 2094.]

8165. Order of court. If the court finds that notice has been given, and the consent of the proper parties has been obtained, it shall ascertain the amount of money or property contributed to the company by any person or party thereto or appearing therein that was so contributed exclusively in consideration that the road should be located on the line from which it is proposed to remove it, which shall be repaid in case of money, and returned if property, or its value fixed, and in either case shall render judgment therefor, and may also enter a decree authorizing, if the public interest demands it, the removal of or change in the line of said road upon condition that all judgments above provided for be first paid or satisfied, and foreclosing all persons or parties not appearing in the action, and forever barring them from asserting any claim against such company on account of the contributions or donations herein mentioned. [C., '97, § 2095.]

8166. Effect. All mortgage liens or other incumbrances on the line of road which the company is authorized by the court to change shall attach to the line to which said road is removed, and have the same priority over other liens that they held on the original line. [C., '97, § 2096.]

8167. Notice to township trustees—vested rights. For the purpose of this chapter, the trustees of each township shall be served with notice and shall represent and act for it. No vested right of any person or persons living on and along the line of any railroad thus removed shall be defeated or affected by the removal. [C., '97, § 2097.]

8164. Conditions. No railway company shall be allowed to change or remove its line of road, after a permanent location and construction, without repaying all moneys, and restoring all property, or its value, which were donated to the company building the same exclusively in consideration of said railroads being located and constructed on such line, to the parties donating the same, their heirs, or assigns, nor without first procuring the consent of all parties having liens upon the railroad, and of any township, city, or county that by taxation or by the issuing of bonds has contributed money to aid in the construction thereof; but the consent of such township, city,

8168. Cuts and banks. When any railway company shall take up its track and relocate the same under the provisions of this chapter, it shall within two years therefrom fill up the cuts and level down the banks, or cause the same to be done. [C., '97, § 2098.]

CHAPTER 375

PRIVATE BUILDINGS AND SPUR TRACKS

8169. Buildings on railroad lands.
 8170. Destruction of buildings.
 8171. Spur tracks.
 8172. Cost of construction.

8173. Bond for construction.
 8174. Costs in excess of deposit.
 8175. Failure of company to act.
 8176. Connections with original spurs.

8169. Buildings on railroad lands. When a disagreement arises between a railroad company and the owner of any building used for receiving, storing, or manufacturing any article of commerce transported or to be transported, situated on the railroad right of way or any land owned or controlled by the railroad company for railroad purposes, as to the terms and conditions on which the same is to be continued thereon or removed therefrom, or when application is made by any person, firm, or corporation for a site on such lands for the erection and maintenance of such improvements, and the railway company and the applicant can not agree as to whether such improvement shall be placed on such lands, or as to the character and location of the buildings to be erected and maintained thereon, or as to the terms and conditions under which the same may be placed or operated, such railway company, person, firm, or corporation may make written application to the board of railroad commissioners and such board shall, as speedily as possible after the filing of such application, hear and determine such controversy and make such order in relation thereto as shall be just and equitable between the parties, which order shall be enforced in the same manner as other orders of the board. [S., '13, § 2110-; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 42.]

8170. Destruction of buildings. In the event that any building referred to in the preceding section, situated on the right of way or other land of a railroad company used for railway purposes, shall be injured or destroyed by the negligence of the railroad company, or the servants or agents thereof in the conduct of the business of such company, the railroad company causing such injury or destruction shall be liable therefor to the same extent as if such building used for said purposes was not situated on the right of way or other land of such railroad company used for railway purposes, any provision in any lease or contract to the contrary notwithstanding. [S., '13, § 2110-m; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 43.]

8171. Spur tracks. Every railroad, whether operated by steam or electricity, shall acquire the necessary rights of way for, by condemnation or purchase, and shall construct, connect, and operate and maintain a reasonably adequate and suitable spur track, whenever such spur track does not necessarily exceed three miles in length, and is required for the successful operation of any existing or proposed mill, elevator, storehouse, warehouse, dock, wharf, pier, manufacturing establishment, lumber yard, coal dock, or other industry or enterprise, and its construction and operation is not unusually unsafe and dangerous, and is not unreasonably harmful to public interest. No such track is required to be constructed until, or if hereafter constructed need not be maintained unless, the board of railroad commissioners, after hearing, shall have declared the same to be necessary. [39 G. A., ch. 86, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 44.]

8172. Cost of construction. Such railroad company may require the person or persons, firm, corporation, or association primarily to be served thereby to pay the legitimate cost and expense of acquiring, by condemnation or purchase, the necessary right of way for such spur track and of constructing the same as shall be determined in separate items by the board of railroad commissioners. Except as in the next section provided, the total estimated cost thereof as ascertained by said board shall be deposited with the railroad company before it shall be required to incur any expense whatsoever therefor. [39 G. A., ch. 86, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 45.]

8173. Bond for construction. When the total estimated cost has been ascertained by the board such person, firm, corporation, or association shall have the option to either deposit said amount with the railroad company or to file with such company its written election to build and construct such spur track accompanied by a good and sufficient surety company bond running to such railroad company and conditioned upon the construction of such spur track in a good and workmanlike manner according to plans and specifications furnished by such railroad company and approved by the commission. If such person, firm, corporation, or association so elects to build such spur track it shall only be required to deposit with such railroad company the estimated cost of the necessary right of way for such spur track as ascertained by the commission, and the total amount stated in such written election. [39 G. A., ch. 86, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 46.]

8174. Costs in excess of deposit. In any event before the railroad company shall be required to incur any expense whatever in the construction of such spur track the person, firm, corporation, or association primarily to be served thereby shall give the railroad company a bond to be approved by the commissioners as to form, amount, and surety, securing the railroad company against loss on account of any expense incurred beyond the amount so deposited with the railroad company. [39 G. A., ch. 86, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 47.]

8175. Failure of company to act. In case of failure, neglect, or refusal of any railroad company to comply with any of the provisions of the three preceding sections, the person, firm, corporation, or association primarily to be served thereby may file a complaint with the board of railroad commissioners setting forth the facts upon which such grievance is based. The said commissioners after reasonable notice to the railroad company shall investigate and determine all matters in controversy and make such order as the facts in relation thereto will warrant. Any such order shall have the same force and effect as other orders made by said board in other proceedings within its jurisdiction and shall be enforced in the same manner. [39 G. A., ch. 86, § 4; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 48.]

8176. Connections with original spurs. Whenever such spur track is so connected with the main line, as provided in this chapter, at the expense of the owner of such proposed or existing mill, elevator, storehouse, dock, wharf, pier, manufacturing establishment, and any person, firm, corporation, or association shall desire a connection with such spur track, application therefor shall be made to the commission, and such person, firm, corporation, or association shall be required to pay to the person, firm, corporation, or association that shall have paid or contributed to the primary cost and expense of acquiring the right of way for such original spur track, and of constructing the same, an equitable proportion thereof, to be determined by the commission, upon such application and notice, to the persons, firms, corporations, or associations that have paid or contributed towards the original cost and expense of acquiring the right of way and constructing the same. [39 G. A., ch. 86, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 190, § 49.]

CHAPTER 376

UNION DEPOTS

8177. Corporations authorized.
8178. Eminent domain.

8177. Corporations authorized. Any number of persons or railway corporations, or both persons and railway corporations, may form a body corporate under the laws of this state relating to corporations for pecuniary profit, for the purpose of acquiring, establishing, constructing, and maintaining at any place in the state union station houses or depots for freight or passengers, or both, with necessary offices for express, baggage, or postal rooms in the same or separate buildings, and railroad tracks and other appurtenances of such depots. Any railroad company operating a road in the state, or interested therein, whether organized under its laws or elsewhere, may become a stockholder in such corporation. A copy of the by-laws, if any are adopted, shall be posted in the passenger or waiting rooms of the depot and in the office of the company. [C., '97, § 2099.]

8178. Eminent domain. Every corporation formed under the provisions of the preceding section shall have power to take and hold, for the purposes therein mentioned, such real estate as may be found necessary by the railroad commissioners for the location of its depot and approaches, which it may acquire by purchase or condemnation as provided for the taking of private property for works of internal improvement. [C., '97, § 2100.]

8179. Connecting tracks.
8180. Liability for damages.

8179. Connecting tracks. Such corporations, with the consent of the council of any city or town in which any such depot is located, shall have the right to lay its tracks to make necessary connection with all railways desiring to use such depot, upon the streets or alleys of such city or town, and, by and with the consent of the council, may erect such depot upon or across any street or alley; but no railway track can thus be located, nor can any such depot be so erected, until after the injury to property abutting upon the streets or alleys thus appropriated has been ascertained and paid in the manner provided for taking private property for works of internal improvement. [C., '97, § 2101.]

8180. Liability for damages. Nothing in this chapter contained, or in the articles of incorporation or by-laws of such corporation, shall release the railroad companies using such union depots, tracks, or appurtenances from the same liability for all damages on account of injuries to persons, stock, baggage, or freight, or for the loss of baggage or freight in or about such union depot grounds, as they would be under if said depot tracks and appurtenances belonged to and were operated by the railway companies using the same. [C., '97, § 2102.]

8181. Tax aid authorized. The qualified voters of the following named districts may file a petition under the conditions hereinafter specified to vote taxes not exceeding five per cent on the assessed value of the real property within the district for any of the following purposes:

1. To aid any railway incorporated under the laws of this state in constructing a projected steam railway into, through, or along a district composed of a township, a town, or a city.

2. To aid in the construction of a projected electric railroad or in electrifying an existing steam railroad into, through, or along a district contiguous to and within five miles of such railroad.

3. To aid in the construction of a proposed railroad or in reconstruction, improvement, repair, or maintenance of a railroad heretofore constructed, the operation of which has been abandoned, into, through, or along a district contiguous to and within a distance not to exceed two and one-half miles from the center line of the right of way thereof measured at right angles thereto. [C., '97, §§ 2084, 2086; S., '13, §§ 2084, 2086, 2091-b; 38 G. A., ch. 328, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 192, § 1.]

8182. Requisites for petition. The petition shall show:

1. The name and the location of the principal office of the company to be aided.

2. For which of the purposes stated in the preceding section it is proposed to vote the taxes.

3. The rate of tax proposed and the number of years not exceeding five in which it shall be levied and paid in equal installments.

4. The location of the line of railway for which it is proposed to vote the tax.

5. The limits of the proposed district and the county or counties in which the same is located.

6. The amount of work required to be done and when and where the same shall be done before any of the tax shall be payable.

7. Any other conditions which shall be performed before any part of the tax shall be payable.

8. The signatures of a majority of the resident freehold taxpayers of the proposed district; except that in cities of any form of government having a population of twenty-five thousand or over, not more than two thousand such signatures shall be required. [C., '97, § 2085; S., '13, §§ 2085, 2091-c; 38 G. A., ch. 328, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 192, § 2.]

8183. Exception—approval by board. No tax shall be levied to aid in the electrification of any steam railway for the benefit of any person, firm, or individual, who is not the owner in fee simple of said steam railway, unless with or prior to the presentation of the petition to the board of supervisors asking for said election, the agreement between the person, firm, or corporation proposing to electrify said steam railway and the owner of said steam railway, for its electrification and use, has been presented to the board of railroad commissioners, and its duration, terms, and conditions found suitable by said board, and said approval made a matter of record in the proceedings of said board, and certified to such board of supervisors. [S., '13, § 2091-e; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 192, § 3.]

8185. Proceedings on petition. At its next regular adjourned or special session after such petition is filed, the board of supervisors shall canvass the petition, and if found to meet the requirements of law, it shall fix a time and place for holding a special election in the proposed district, appoint judges and clerks of such election, fix the hours when the polls shall open and close and cause notice to be given as hereinafter provided. The date of such election shall be at least ten days after completed service of such notice.

The railroad company for whose benefit such election is held shall pay the expense thereof, including publication of notice and printing of ballots. [C., '97, § 2085; S., '13, §§ 2085, 2091-c; 38 G. A., ch. 328, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 192, § 5.]

8186. Form of notice. The notice shall be addressed to the qualified electors of the township, city, town, district, or territory in which the election is to be held and shall state:

1. The time and place of holding such election and the hours at which the polls will open and close.

2. The name and location of the principal office of the corporation to which it is proposed to vote the tax.

3. The purpose for which it is proposed to vote such tax.

4. The rate of such tax, the installments into which it shall be divided, the years in which it is payable, and the rate of interest on deferred payments.

5. The amount of work to be done, or any other conditions to be performed before the tax is payable.

6. From what point to what point the improvement shall extend and within what time it is to be completed.

7. Any other special conditions set forth in the petition. [C., '97, § 2085; S., '13, §§ 2085, 2091-c; 38 G. A., ch. 328, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 192, § 6.]

8187. Manner of giving notice. The auditor shall cause such notice to be published for three consecutive weeks in the official newspapers of each county in which the election is to be held, and if in a district or territory extending into more than one county, then the official newspapers of each of such counties, and the last publication shall be not less than ten days before such election. Proof of such publication, by affidavit of the publisher, shall be filed with the auditor on completion of the publication.

The auditor shall also cause such notice to be posted in five public places in the proposed district, not less than ten days before the date of the election, and proof of such posting by affidavit of the parties who did or saw it done, shall be filed in the office of the auditor. [C., '97, § 2085; S., '13, §§ 2085, 2091-c; 38 G. A., ch. 328, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 192, § 7.]

8188. Form of ballot. The auditor shall cause to be prepared and printed the ballots for such election on which shall be plainly stated the proposition to be voted upon, placed in interrogatory form with the words "yes" and "no" so arranged as to enable the voter to clearly indicate his vote for or against such proposition, which ballots shall be delivered to the judges of election by the time the polls are open. [C., '97, § 2085; S., '13, §§ 2085, 2091-c; 38 G. A., ch. 328, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 192, § 8.]

8189. Election returns. The judges and clerks shall count the ballots cast as soon as the polls close and certify and file the returns, with all the ballots cast, in the office of the auditor. [C., '97, § 2085; S., '13, §§ 2085, 2091-c; 38 G. A., ch. 328, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 192, § 9.]

8190. Canvass of returns. On the filing of the returns, the board shall convene and canvass the same and certify the result to the auditor. If a majority of the votes cast are in favor of such taxes, the board shall, at the time of levying the ordinary taxes next following, levy such taxes as are voted and cause the same to be placed on the tax lists of the proper township, city, town, or district as the case may be. [C., '97, § 2085; S., '13, §§ 2085, 2091-c; 38 G. A., ch. 328, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 192, § 10.]

8191. District in more than one county. If the district or territory in which taxes are voted extends into more than one county, the auditor in whose office the returns are filed shall make and certify a copy of such returns and file the same in the office of the auditor of every other county into which the district extends. The board of supervisors of such other counties shall levy the tax upon the real estate in the portion of the district located in such county and cause such tax to be entered upon the tax list of such county. [C., '97, § 2085; S., '13, § 2085; 38 G. A., ch. 328, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 192, § 11.]

8192. Terms and conditions entered. In all cases where a tax has been voted and levied in aid of a railroad there shall be entered upon the tax lists of the county all the terms and conditions upon which such taxes are payable. [C., '97, § 2085; S., '13, §§ 2085, 2091-c; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 192, § 12.]

8193. Collection of special tax. Special taxes voted for any of the purposes aforesaid, shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as other taxes, with the same penalties for delinquency and the same manner of enforcing collection by sale as ordinary taxes. When collected they shall be kept in a separate fund and paid out only for the purposes for which and on the terms and conditions upon which they were voted, all of which shall be shown by the records and files of the auditor's office relating thereto. [C., '97, § 2085; S., '13, §§ 2085, 2091-c; 38 G. A., ch. 328, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 192, § 13.]

8194. Limitation. The aggregate amount of taxes on property in aid of railroads shall not during any ten years exceed five per cent on the value thereof. [C., '97, § 2086; S., '13, §§ 2086, 2091-f; 38 G. A., ch. 328, § 4; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 192, § 14.]

of the president or managing director thereof, at any time after the trustees of such township or council of such town or city voting the same, or a majority thereof, shall have certified to the county treasurer that the conditions required of the railway company and set forth in the notice for the special election have been complied with, which certificate said township trustees or council of such town or city shall make when conditions have been sufficiently complied with to entitle the railway company thereto, or when the conditions are fully complied with on the part of the railway company; but if the costs and expenses of holding the election and of recording the certificates have not been paid, then the treasurer shall first deduct from the moneys collected the amount thereof, and pay same to the parties entitled thereto. [C., '97, § 2087.]

8196. Certificates exchangeable for stock or bonds — exception. The county treasurer, when required, shall, in addition to a tax receipt, issue to each taxpayer, on the payment of any taxes voted under the provisions of this chapter, a certificate showing the amount of tax paid, the name of the railway company entitled thereto, and when the same was paid; and he may charge twenty-five cents for each certificate issued. Said certificates shall be assignable, and, when presented by any person holding the legal title thereto to the president, managing director, treasurer, or secretary of the railroad company receiving the taxes paid, as shown by such certificates, in sums of one hundred dollars or more of taxes, it shall issue or cause to be issued to said person the amount of stock of the company desiring the benefit from said taxes, to the amount of said certificate or certificates, and if the taxes paid as shown by said certificate or certificates amount in the aggregate to more or less than any certain number of shares of stock, then the holder thereof shall be entitled to receive the full number of shares of stock covered by said certificates, and may make up in money the balance of any share when the certificates held by him are not equal to one full share of such stock, which stock for such purpose shall be estimated at par. When it shall be proposed in the petition and notice calling an election to issue first mortgage bonds not exceeding the sum of eight thousand dollars per mile for a railroad of three feet gauge, and not exceeding the sum of eighteen thousand five hundred dollars per mile for the ordinary four feet eight and one-half inch gauge in lieu of stock, it shall be lawful to issue bonds of the denomination of one hundred dollars in the same manner as is provided for the issue of stock, and in such case the petition and notice shall state the amount of bonds per mile to be issued, the rate of interest, and the time of payment of the interest and principal thereof; but the provisions of this section shall not be applicable to taxes that are voted and paid in aid of the construction of railroads that are interurban in character. [C., '97, § 2088; S., '13, § 2088.]

8198. Forfeiture of tax. Should the taxes voted in aid of any railroad under the provisions of this chapter remain in the county treasury for more than one year after the same have been collected, the right to them by the railroad company shall be forfeited, and the persons who paid the same entitled to receive back from the county treasurer their pro rata shares thereof remaining; and in all cases where any taxes have been voted or levied upon the real or personal property in any township, town, or city to aid in the construction of any railroad, and the road in aid of which they were voted or levied has not been built, completed, or operated into or through such township, town, or city, it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of the county where said taxes have been voted and levied and still remain on the tax books to give the railway company in aid of which the tax was voted at least thirty days' notice in writing, to be served like original notices, of their intention to cancel such taxes, and thereupon to cause the same to be canceled and stricken from the tax books of the county, which cancellation shall remove all liens created by the levy thereof.

In all cases where the railway company to whom taxes have been voted neglects or refuses to receive such taxes, or to require or permit the same to be collected and certificates therefor to be issued, for the period of one year after they become due and collectible, and in all cases where taxes have been voted in aid of any railroad, and the conditions upon which the same were voted have not in fact been complied with, and the time in which said conditions were to be fulfilled has expired, the same shall be forfeited, and the county officers of the county in which they have been levied and entered upon the tax books shall enter cancellation thereof upon the proper records.

In all cases where any taxes to aid in the construction of any railroad may be voted upon the inducement or promise offered on the part of said railroad company, or any duly authorized agent thereof, for any rebates or exemptions from said tax or any part thereof, or any agreed price to be paid for the stock that may be issued in lieu of said tax, or a division of said tax, or any portion or percentage thereof, with any of the voters or taxpayers as an inducement to procure said tax to be voted, all taxes so procured to be voted shall be void. [C., '97, § 2090.]

validity in his settlement with the board of supervisors as the orders from the railroad company provided for in this chapter. Laborers shall have a lien upon any tax voted in aid of a railroad company for the amount due them for labor performed in the construction of said railroad. [C., '97, § 2091.]

8200. Trolley or electric railways. All of the provisions of this chapter relating to tax in aid of railways are hereby made applicable to trolley or electric railways. And wherever the word "railroad" appears in any of said provisions the same shall be held to include trolley or electric railroad; and wherever the words "railroad company" or "railway company" appear in said provisions the same shall be held to include trolley railway company, and electric railway company; no stock shall be issued by any such company except upon payment therefor of the full par value thereof in cash or its equivalent. [S., '13, § 2091-a.]

8201. Definition. Any railway operated upon the streets of a city or town by electric or other power than steam, which extends beyond the corporate limits of such city or town to another city, town, or village, or any railway operated by electric or other power than steam, extending from one city, town, or village to another city, town, or village, shall be known as an interurban railway, and shall be a work of internal improvement. [S., '13, § 2033-a.]

8202. When deemed a street railway. Any interurban railway shall, within the corporate limits of any city or town, or of any city acting under a special charter, upon such streets as it shall use for transporting passengers, mail, baggage, and such parcels, packages, and freight as it may carry in its passenger or combination baggage cars only, be deemed a street railway, and be subject to the laws governing street railways. [S., '13, § 2033-c.]

ration, as used in the code and acts of the general assembly, now in force or hereafter enacted, are hereby declared to apply to and include all interurban railways, and all companies or corporations constructing, owning, or operating such interurban street railways, and all provisions of the code and acts of the general assembly, now in force or hereafter enacted, affecting railways, railway companies, railway corporations, railroads, railroad companies, and railroad corporations, are hereby declared to affect and apply in full force and effect to all interurban railways, and to all interurban railway companies or railway corporations constructing, owning, or operating such interurban railways. [S., '13, § 2033-b.]

8204. On highway. Any interurban or street railway operated by any motive power other than steam, may build and operate its line over, along, and upon any public highway which is not less than one hundred feet wide, outside the limits of any city or town. The board of supervisors may, without expense to the county, accept conveyances of real estate abutting on any highway, or any part thereof, for the purpose of increasing such highway or part thereof to the width of one hundred feet or more for said purposes. [C., '97, § 2026; S., '13, § 2026; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 1.]

8205. Narrow highways. When the board of supervisors shall find that it is not practicable or expedient to widen a highway to one hundred feet or more for the purpose aforesaid and when there is filed with the county auditor the written consent of two-thirds of the residents of the county owning real estate abutting upon the portion of the highway upon and along which it is proposed to build and operate such railway, the board may grant the right to build and operate such line upon and along the portion of such highway to which such written consent applies. [C., '97, § 2026; S., '13, § 2026; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 2.]

8206. Damages. The signing of written consent as provided in the preceding section shall not be a waiver of any damages which may accrue to any owner of abutting land on account of the building and operation of such railway upon and along such highway, or resulting from the negligence of any officer, agent, or servant of such railway company in the building or operation of such railway. [S., '13, § 2026; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 3.]

8207. Waiver — condemnation. Unless the owners of land abutting each side of said road shall make written waiver of any damages, the railway company shall pay all damages sustained by such abutting owners caused by building said road. If the parties cannot agree, the amount of such damages shall be ascertained and paid in the same manner as is provided for taking private property for works of internal improvement. [C., '97, § 2027; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 3.]

8208. Sixty-foot highways. The board of supervisors may without such written consent grant the right to such interurban or street railway company to build and operate its line for a distance not exceeding two miles outside the limits of any city or town upon and along any highway not less than sixty feet wide. [C., '97, § 2026; S., '13, § 2026; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 4.]

8209. Regulations. All rights to build and operate any such railway upon and along any public highway shall be subject to such restrictions and regulations as shall be prescribed from time to time by the board of supervisors. The construction and operation of such railway shall be so conducted as to cause the least interference with the convenient use of such highway by the public, and such highway shall, as soon as practicable, be placed in as good condition as it was before the location of such railway thereon. [C., '97, § 2026; S., '13, § 2026; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 5.]

8210. Eminent domain. All questions as to damages sustained by owners of land abutting on a highway along and upon which has been constructed such railway, shall be subject to proceedings relating to eminent domain. [S., '13, § 2026; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 6.]

8211. Franchises. Cities and towns under any form of government may, as provided by law, authorize or forbid the construction and operation of such railways upon, over, or along the streets, alleys, and public grounds within their limits and prescribe the conditions and regulations for such construction and operation. The right to operate as a street railway shall not be granted for a period exceeding twenty-five years. [S., '13, § 2033-d; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 7.]

8212. Contracts and rates. Nothing in the preceding section shall impair the obligation of contracts of any city under any form of government or town entered into prior to April 8, 1902, nor affect any provisions of law relating to free or reduced or discriminating rates of transportation. [S., '13, § 2033-d; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 8.]

8213. Terminal facilities. Any person or corporation owning or operating an electric street railway in any city or town, shall permit the use of its tracks, poles, wires, and terminal facilities within such city or town by any interurban railway entering such city or town for interurban business only in the transportation of passengers, mail, express, and baggage in passenger or in combination baggage cars, but shall not be required to permit the use of its car houses or barns by such interurban railway. [S., '13, § 2110-c; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 9.]

8214. Electric power. When the power plant of a street railway is sufficient therefor and during the hours its street cars are in operation, and to the extent it can do so without interference with its own traffic, it shall furnish power for the operation of interurban passenger and combination baggage cars on such portions of such street railway tracks as such interurban railway has the right to use. It shall have preference in the use of its own power and tracks so that its cars shall not be delayed in transit. [S., '13, § 2110-c; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 10.]

8215. Interurban to furnish facilities and power. Any interurban electric railway company carrying on a street railway business in a city or town shall furnish to any other interurban electric railway company entering said city or town, for interurban purposes only, the same privileges and facilities which an electric street railway is required to furnish under the two preceding sections. [S., '13, § 2110-f; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 11.]

8216. Compensation—disagreement—proceedings. Any interurban railway company shall pay a reasonable compensation for the privileges and facilities furnished to it by a street railway company and in case of disagreement as to the facilities to be furnished or the conditions for their use or the compensation therefor, the question shall be submitted to and heard and determined by the board of railroad commissioners, on petition of either party, and on ten days' written notice of such hearing served on the opposite party. Any order made by the board or the court on appeal shall be subject to review and modification from time to time on ten days' written notice by either party setting forth the grounds of the application. [S., '13, § 2110-c; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 12.]

8217. Appeal — notice — transcript. Either party shall have the right to appeal from any order or decision of the board to the district court of the county in which the street railway is located, within twenty days from the date of the order or decision, by serving written notice of appeal on the other party and filing the same with proof of service with the secretary of the board. Such secretary shall forthwith make and file in the office of the clerk of said court a transcript of the petition and such other documents as are on file in said cause, including the order or decision and notice of appeal. [S., '13, § 2110-d; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 13.]

8218. Trial — bond. The appeal shall be tried in equity and have precedence over all other civil causes. The first term after the transcript is filed shall be the trial term. No appeal shall suspend the order or decision appealed from, if the interurban company on whose behalf the order or decision is made shall file with the secretary of the board a bond with sureties approved by the board, conditioned for the payment of any judgment for costs and compensation and for obedience to any order or decree of the court. [S., '13, § 2110-d; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 14.]

8219. Trackage acquired. Any interurban railway company doing a street railway business on its own tracks in a city or town, may, for the purpose of completing a terminal loop for its interurban cars only, acquire under the foregoing provisions the use of so much of the track, poles, and wire of a street railway as shall be necessary for said purposes. [S., '13, § 2110-f; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 15.]

8220. Right to furnish power. Street railroad companies desiring so to do shall be authorized to furnish to interurban railway companies, power for the operation of the cars of interurban railway companies outside of cities and towns, but no street railroad company shall be required to furnish such power. [S., '13, § 2110-e.]

8221. Water supply. Any interurban railway company requiring an electric generating plant for its operation, shall have the power of eminent domain to acquire, by condemnation, the right of access to all necessary streams or other sources for the purpose of supplying its power house with water, and of making the necessary changes and improvements, and to repair or renew the same from time to time, in such streams, or upon the lands from which it is to obtain said water supply, in the same manner provided by law for the taking of private property for works of internal improvement. Such company shall pay to the owner of any lands or water rights all damages arising out of the exercises of such right. [S. S., '15, § 2033-1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 16.]

8223. Proceedings to acquire. Before proceeding to condemn any property rights to acquire or reach a water supply, such railway company shall make written application to the board of railroad commissioners, accompanied by a drawing showing in detail the land required, the water supply to be obtained and the changes and improvements to be made, and giving the names and addresses of all persons whose rights will be affected thereby. [S. S., '15, § 2033-1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 18.]

8224. Notice of application—expense. Such board shall forthwith give written notice to all persons whose rights will be affected by the proposed changes of the date on which a hearing will be had on said application. If upon examination into the matter the board finds that any rights of the public will be affected by such improvements, it shall give such notice as it deems sufficient to advise the public thereof. Any person having any interest may file objections to the application. The expenses of all such notices shall be paid by the company or person making the application. [S. S., '15, § 2033-1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 19.]

8225. Findings—certificate. If the board finds that such proposed changes or improvements are necessary and proper and the exercise of the power of eminent domain is reasonable, it shall grant the application as made, or with such modifications as shall be proper and just, and file in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which the improvements are to be made a certified transcript of the proceedings and order accompanied by plans and specifications showing in reasonable detail the land and water rights to be acquired for present and prospective use of such company, whereupon such company may proceed to acquire the same by condemnation, but shall not take possession of such property and water rights till the damages awarded by the condemnation commission have been deposited with the sheriff. [S. S., '15, § 2033-1; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 20.]

8226. Applicable statutes. Except as in this chapter otherwise provided, all provisions relating to eminent domain conferring upon railway companies the right to condemn land for reservoirs and to enable them to reach and acquire sources of water supply and access thereto, shall apply to interurban railway companies for reaching and acquiring water supplies for their power plants. [S. S., '15, §§ 2033-l, 2033-m; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 200, § 21.]

8227. Heating of passenger cars. Every person, partnership, company, or corporation owning or operating an interurban line or a street railway in a city of more than twenty thousand population in this state shall, from November fifteenth of each year to April first following, heat all cars, used for the transportation of passengers, while in service, to at least forty degrees Fahrenheit; provided that open cars may be operated during the month of November for special trips to transport heavy traffic. [37 G. A., ch. 320, § 1.]

8228. Violations. Every person, partnership, company, or corporation owning or operating a street railway in this state who shall fail to comply with the provisions of the preceding section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense. Any failure to comply with the provisions of the preceding section shall be deemed a separate offense. [37 G. A., ch. 320, § 2.]

8229. Automobile railway—statutes applicable. Any system of railway operating cars within the state over or upon any track other than steel or iron shall be known as an automobile railway, and shall be a work of internal improvement. The words "railway", "railway company", "railway corporation", "railroad", "railroad company" or "railroad corporation", as used in the code and acts of the general assembly now in force or hereafter enacted, are hereby declared to apply to, and include, automobile railways, and all companies or corporations owning or operating such automobile railways, and all provisions of the code and acts of the general assembly now in force or hereafter enacted affecting railways, railway companies, railway corporations, railroads, railroad companies, or railroad corporations, are hereby declared to affect and apply in full force and effect to all automobile railways and to all automobile railway companies owning or operating such automobile railways. [S., '13, § 2033-f.]

INTERURBAN RAILWAYS IN CERTAIN CITIES

- 8230. Use of other tracks—relocation—compensation.
- 8231. Disputes—notice — hearing — procedure — modification of orders.

- 8232. Appeal—trial.
- 8233. Order not suspended by appeal—bond.
- 8234. Appliances—specifications for construction.
- 8235. Rules—enforcement of orders.

8230. Use of other tracks—relocation—compensation. When any corporation has heretofore, or hereafter shall be authorized by any city of this state having not less than thirty thousand nor more than thirty-five thousand inhabitants according to the federal census of 1910, to construct and operate an interurban railway upon any of the streets of such city, and shall desire to extend, construct and operate its said interurban railway upon other streets of said city upon which railroad track or tracks are located, and shall be authorized by the city council of said city by resolution so to do, and such streets are so occupied by railroad tracks that it is not practicable to construct and operate said interurban railway thereon, the owners, lessees and operators of said railroad tracks are authorized and required, if practicable, to relocate such of their tracks on said streets as are necessary to permit of the construction and operation of said interurban railway, and if it is not practicable to relocate said railroad tracks, then the owners, lessees and operators are authorized and required to permit said interurban railway to use such of their said tracks as are necessary for the operation and carrying on of the business of said interurban railway, and to permit to be made such alterations in, attachments to and connections with said railroad tracks and to be installed and maintained such trolley system or other construction or equipment as will permit the use in common of said railroad tracks by said interurban railway for railway purposes and by the owners, lessees or other operators thereof for ordinary steam railway purposes.

Where it is practicable to relocate said railroad tracks, and it is also practicable to operate said interurban railway over said tracks without relocating the same, the owners, lessees and operators of such railroad tracks may elect to grant the use thereof to said interurban railway and permit to be made such alterations in, attachments to and connections with the same and to the installation and maintenance of such trolley system or other construction or equipment as will permit the use in common of said railroad tracks by said interurban railway and the said owners, lessees and operators thereof, and signify such election in writing, filed in the proceeding before the commencement of the hearing of said proceeding on appeal in the district court as hereinafter provided, then said tracks may be so used in place of being relocated.

The owner of said interurban railway shall pay just compensation to the owners, lessees or operators of any railroad tracks for the relocation or use and alteration of said railroad tracks, and for the exercise of such other privileges as are granted such interurban railway under the provisions of this chapter. [S. S., '15, § 2033-g.]

8231. Disputes — notice — hearing — procedure—modification of orders. If an agreement can not be made between the said owner of said interurban railway and the owners, lessees and operators of such railroad tracks for the relocation or use of such railroad tracks, or as to the alterations, attachments, and connections that shall be made therein or thereto, or as to the manner of the installation and maintenance of the trolley system or other construction or equipment such as will permit such common use of such tracks, or the terms and conditions of or the compensation to be paid for such relocation or use and the alterations or attachments to said railroad tracks and the exercise of such other privileges as are granted to such interurban railway under the provisions of this chapter, then all said matters shall be heard and determined by the board of railroad commissioners upon petition to said board by the owner of said interurban railway or other party to the controversy.

Upon filing of said petition said board shall fix a time for the hearing thereof, and twenty days' notice of the filing of said petition and of the time fixed for the hearing thereof shall be given by the petitioner to the opposite parties. Said notice shall be served in the manner provided by law for the service of notices of the commencement of a civil action in the district court.

The commission shall have the power and, upon the demand of any party appearing in said proceeding, shall appoint a shorthand reporter who shall take the evidence offered or introduced upon the hearing, and the commission shall have power to require any party to said hearing to produce books, records, papers, or other documents material to said inquiry, and shall have the power to subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses.

All orders of the commission or revisions or modifications of said orders shall be subject to revision or modification by the commission upon application of any party to the original proceeding, made in the same manner and under the same procedure as is provided for applications for original orders, provided that there shall be no revisions or modification of any order for the relocation of railroad tracks or of compensation if the total compensation was fixed at one definite sum; provided, further, that in the event of additional cost of construction or additional cost of maintenance occasioned by viaducts, track elevation or depression, crossing gates, or other safety appliances or the installation of more expensive types of track construction, the compensation shall be subject to revision and modification in the manner and by the method as in this chapter provided. [S. S., '15, § 2033-h.]

8232. Appeal—trial. Any party to said proceeding may appeal to the district court of the county where said city is located from any order made by the board of railroad commissioners under this chapter within twenty days from the date of the order appealed from.

Such appeal shall be taken and perfected by the party appealing by serving a notice in writing upon the other parties to said proceeding, specifying the order or part thereof appealed from, and by filing in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county to which said appeal is taken, a petition stating the general nature of the proceeding before said board of railroad commissioners and of the order or part thereof appealed from, and that an appeal has been taken and asking the court to determine the matter in controversy.

Such notice of appeal shall be served and proof of service thereof made in the same manner as an original notice in a civil action, and shall be filed with the secretary of the board of railroad commissioners. Service of such notice of appeal may be made upon any attorney appearing for any party in the proceedings before the board of railroad commissioners with the same force and effect as if served upon such party.

Such petition filed in the office of the clerk of the district court to which an appeal is taken shall be entitled in the name of the interurban railway company as plaintiff and the other parties to the appeal as defendants.

Immediately after twenty days from the date of any order appealed from, said board of railroad commissioners shall certify to the clerk of the district court to which an appeal or appeals have been taken, a transcript of the papers and proceedings before said board and its order thereon and all notices of appeal therefrom with proofs of service thereof.

All appeals growing out of a single order of said board of railroad commissioners shall be consolidated and tried together, provided that if the owners, lessees, and operators of said railroad tracks have filed their election to permit the use of said tracks by said interurban railway after an appeal has been taken by any party to the proceedings as herein provided, each and all of the matters and things heard and determined by the board of railroad commissioners shall, subject to such election, be heard and determined by the district court the same as if each of the parties to said proceeding had appealed from the entire order of said board.

The proceedings upon appeal shall be in equity and subject to all of the rules of equity practice, except that the court shall require the issues to be made up at the first term after the petition is filed and give the proceedings precedence over other civil business and try the same thereat, if possible. The action shall be triable de novo upon said appeal; provided, however, that the question of the amount of compensation for the relocation or use of any tracks and for the other privileges granted shall be tried in the same manner and with the same effect as trials upon appeal from assessments for the taking of private property for works of internal improvement.

Upon trial to determine the amount of compensation, the court shall first determine the basis, whether as rental or otherwise, upon which compensation shall be paid, and the terms and conditions of such payment, and all questions of the amount of compensation shall, upon such appeal, be tried before the same jury, who shall return a separate verdict fixing the amount of compensation to which each party to the proceedings is entitled, and in the event of appeal to the supreme court, the proceedings tried before a jury shall be heard and determined the same as in a law action. [S. S., '15, § 2033-i.]

8233. Order not suspended by appeal—bond. The appeal shall not suspend any order appealed from, if the interurban railway company in whose behalf any order is made by the board of railroad commissioners shall file in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county to which such appeal is taken, a bond in such amount and upon such conditions as the district court to which such appeal is taken, or a judge thereof, may, upon application of said interurban railway, require. [S. S., '15, § 2033-j.]

8234. Applicances—specifications for construction. The railroad commission is hereby authorized, directed and empowered to inspect any and all wires and appliances authorized by this section and to condemn and order removed, or placed in safe condition, all wires and appliances erected or maintained in violation of the terms and conditions hereof.

1. No wire or cable used to conduct electricity for light and power shall be erected or maintained on any pole or appliance attached to such pole, within a less distance than thirteen inches from the center line of such pole; nor shall any wire or cable be erected or maintained in the vicinity of any pole, and unattached thereto, within the distance of thirteen inches from the center line of such pole.

2. Nor shall any wire or cable carrying less than six hundred volts of electricity be erected or maintained within a distance of forty inches from any wire or cable which carries at any time more than six hundred volts of electricity.

3. Nor shall any wire or cable which carries at any time more than six hundred volts of electricity be erected or maintained within a distance of forty inches from any wire or cable carrying less than six hundred volts of electricity.

4. Nor shall any wire be erected or maintained running parallel, crossing, or attached to same pole at a less distance than seven feet from any wire carrying thirteen thousand volts or more.

5. No wire or cable carrying more than thirteen thousand volts of electricity shall be erected or maintained across or above any wire or cable carrying less than thirteen thousand volts at point of crossing without at all times maintaining approved methods of construction to prevent falling and coming in contact with wires of lesser voltage.

6. No guy wire or guy cable attached to any pole or appliance to which is attached any wire or cable used to conduct electricity for light and power shall be erected or maintained without causing such guy wire or guy cable to be kept effectively insulated by approved insulators placed in such wire or cable not less than nine feet, nor more than eleven feet, from each end thereof; provided, however, that the lower insulator shall not be less than eight feet, perpendicularly, from the ground.

7. No wire or cable shall be erected or maintained vertically on any wooden pole, without causing such wire or cable to be at all times incased in a casing of wooden material not less than three-quarters of an inch in thickness, or of other insulating material approved by the railroad commission; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to any vertical wire which is more than thirteen inches from center line of pole.

8. Trolley span wires shall be insulated by not less than two approved insulators between such trolley wire and the pole or other support; such insulators shall be placed not less than two or more than four feet from point of attachment to wire or pole.

9. No pole or other structure used for the support of wires shall be erected or maintained at a less distance than six feet from the nearest rail of any steam, electric, or other railway track over which freight cars may be operated.

10. All poles must be distinctly and permanently marked with owner's name, at a point not less than five nor more than seven feet above the ground. All wooden poles of any lead must be as nearly as practicable uniformly spaced, of uniform height, and not less than forty poles to the mile.

11. Wires or cables carrying electric current for light and power must not be erected or maintained on any bracket or knob attached directly to any pole or cross arm.

12. No trolley wire authorized by this chapter shall be erected or maintained at a less distance than twenty-two feet above any track.

13. All devices and materials, insulators, and other methods of insulation of wires shall conform to specifications approved by the railroad commission. No wire shall be stretched within four feet of any building without being attached to and insulated therefrom. No wires shall hang within a less distance than twenty-two feet of the ground at the lowest point of sag. In case of leads crossing each other, each lead must pass above or below the other, and under no circumstances shall any wire of one lead run through the other lead.

14. Primary or high potential wire must be provided with approved line cut-outs on all branches, and at all transformers; and mains shall be divided into sections by approved cut-outs located as directed by the railroad commission. All wires and cut-outs on same crossarm must be at least fourteen inches apart, except pole wires, which must be twenty-six inches apart. [S. S., '15, § 2033-k.]

8235. Rules—enforcement of orders. In any case where it is found impracticable to comply with the foregoing requirements or when to the satisfaction of the railroad commission it is found that in the advancement of the art or trade, improved methods, appliances, fixtures, and requirements will the better conserve persons and property, including the operation of such property, the railroad commission is hereby empowered, upon application made in writing, to allow such reasonable deviation therefrom as may be deemed reasonably safe and necessary.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association, or corporation including a municipal corporation to place, construct, keep, or maintain any fixture, appliance, or other thing contrary to the terms and provisions of this and the preceding section, and the railroad commission is hereby empowered to enforce the provisions of this and the preceding section with reference to such matter.

The railroad commission is hereby authorized and empowered to make such other rules and regulations and fix standards of and for appliances and fixtures as may be deemed reasonably necessary from time to time for the purpose of protecting persons and property; and such order made by the commission shall be deemed reasonable and necessary and the burden of proof shall rest upon any complainant to prove the contrary.

The railroad commission shall give reasonable notice of any order or requirement within the contemplation of this chapter and cause the same to be enforced by an action in equity.

The terms, conditions, and provisions of this and the preceding section shall only apply to such interurban railway construction and conditions contemplated by section 8230. [S. S., '15, § 2033-k.]

CHAPTER 380

EXPRESS COMPANIES

8236. Regulation—statutes applicable.
8237. Supervision—joint rates.
8238. Schedule of rates.
8239. Presumption.
8240. Posting of schedules.

8241. Excessive charges.
8242. Violations.
8243. Duty to transport.
8244. Damages and penalty.

8236. Regulation—statutes applicable. All express companies operating and doing business in this state are declared to be common carriers, and it shall be the duty of every such express company or common carrier to transport all property, parcels, money, merchandise, packages, and other things of value which may be offered to them for transportation, at a reasonable charge or rate therefor; and all laws so far as applicable, now in force or hereafter enacted, regulating the transportation of property by railroad companies, shall apply with equal force and effect to express companies. [C., '97, § 2165; S., '13, § 2165-a.]

8237. Supervision—joint rates. The railroad commissioners of this state shall have general supervision of all express companies operating and doing business in this state; and shall inquire into any unjust discrimination, neglect, or violation of the laws of this state governing common carriers, by any express company doing business therein, or by the officers, agents, or employees thereof, and they shall have power, and it shall be their duty, to fix and establish reasonable, fair, and just rates of charges including a schedule of maximum joint rates for each kind or class of property, money, parcels, merchandise, packages, and other things to be charged for and received by each express company or carriers by express, separately or conjointly, on all such property, money, parcels, merchandise, packages, and other things which by the contract of carriage are to be transported separately or conjointly by such express companies, or carriers by express, doing business over the line of any railroad or other carrier between points wholly within the state, which rates or charges shall be made to apply to all such express companies or express carriers, and may be changed or modified by said commissioners from time to time in such manner as may become necessary. [C., '97, § 2166; S., '13, § 2165-b.]

8238. Schedule of rates. It shall be the duty of said railroad commissioners, and they are hereby directed, to prepare and make for each express company doing business in this state a schedule of reasonable maximum charges of rates for transporting property, money, parcels, merchandise, packages, and other things carried by such express company or companies between points wholly within the state. [C., '97, § 2166; S., '13, § 2165-c.]

8239. Presumption. In all actions brought against such common carriers wherein there are involved the charges thereof for the transportation of any property, or any unjust discrimination in relation thereto, the schedules or reasonable maximum rates of charges so made by the railroad commissioners shall be taken as prima facie evidence in all courts that the rates fixed therein are reasonable and just maximum rates of charges for which said schedules have been prepared. [C., '97, § 2166; S., '13, § 2165-c.]

8240. Posting of schedules. It shall be the duty of every such company or common carrier engaged in transporting property, money, parcels, merchandise, packages and other things, to print in clear and legible type the schedules of rates for transportation of such property, money, parcels, merchandise, packages, and other things, so made by such railroad commissioners, and shall post in each of its offices or places of business where patrons visit for the purpose of making and receiving shipments, and keep displayed in each office or place of business within convenient access, and for the inspection and use of the public during customary business hours such printed schedule of rates of charges and any amendments thereto, and shall also post and display in similar manner any special rules and regulations which may be promulgated by them or said railroad commissioners for the information of their patrons. [S., '13, § 2165-d.]

8241. Excessive charges. It shall be unlawful for any express company or common carrier to charge, demand, collect, or receive a greater compensation for such transportation of property, or for any service in connection therewith, between the points named in such schedules than the rates and charges which are specified in the schedules made by said railroad commissioners and in effect at the time. [S., '13, § 2165-e.]

8242. Violations. Any such express company or common carrier, any officer, representative, or agent of any express company, or carrier, who knowingly violates the provisions of this chapter shall forfeit to the state the sum of five hundred dollars for each offense, to be recovered as by law provided. [S., '13, § 2165-e.]

8243. Duty to transport. Each and every express company or carrier by express, as herein defined, doing business within the state, shall at all convenient times during the hours of business accept and receive for prompt transportation and shipment destined to points on their own line, or to points on the lines of other express companies operating within the state, or for points beyond said state, all property, parcels, money, merchandise, packages, and other things of value which may be offered to them, or either of them, for transportation by the public. [S., '13, § 2165-f.]

8244. Damages and penalty. Any express company or other common carrier refusing to transport goods as above provided taking the same in the order presented, shall be liable to the party injured for damages sustained by reason of its refusal, and in addition thereto shall be liable to a penalty of not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered in each case by the owner of the goods in any court having jurisdiction in the county where the wrong is done, or where the common carrier resides or has an agent, and each case of refusal shall be construed as a separate offense under this section. [S., '13, § 2165-f.]

UNIFORM BILLS OF LADING LAW

NOTE: The number in brackets following each section number in this chapter indicates the number of the corresponding section of the uniform bills of lading act.

 8291. [§ 47.] Negotiation of bill for mortgaged goods.
 8292. [§ 48.] Negotiation of bill when goods are not in carrier's possession.
 8293. [§ 49.] Inducing carrier to issue bill when goods have not been received.
 8294. [§ 50.] Issue of nonnegotiable bill not so marked.

PART V

INTERPRETATION

8295. [§ 51.] Rule for cases not provided for in this chapter.
 8296. [§ 52.] Interpretation shall give effect to purpose of uniformity.
 8297. [§ 53.] Definitions.
 8298. [§ 54.] Chapter does not apply to existing bills.
 8299. [§ 57.] Name of chapter.

PART I

THE ISSUE OF BILLS OF LADING

8245.[§ 1.] Bills governed. Bills of lading issued by any common carrier shall be governed by this chapter. [S., '13, § 3138-b.]

8246.[§ 2.] Essential terms. Every bill must embody within its written or printed terms:

1. The date of its issue,
2. The name of the person from whom the goods have been received,
3. The place where the goods have been received,
4. The place to which the goods are to be transported,
5. A statement whether the goods received will be delivered to a specified person, or to the order of a specified person,
6. A description of the goods or of the packages containing them which may, however, be in such general terms as are referred to in section 8267, and
7. The signature of the carrier.

A negotiable bill shall have the words "order of" printed thereon immediately before the name of the person upon whose order the goods received are deliverable.

A carrier shall be liable to any person injured thereby for the damage caused by the omission from a negotiable bill of any of the provisions required in this section. [S., '13, § 3138-b1.]

8247.[§ 3.] What terms may be inserted. A carrier may insert in a bill, issued by him, any other terms and conditions, provided that such terms and conditions shall not:

1. Be contrary to law or public policy, or
2. In any wise impair his obligation to exercise at least that degree of care in the transportation and safe-keeping of the goods intrusted to him which a reasonably careful man would exercise in regard to similar goods of his own. [S., '13, § 3138-b2.]

8248.[§ 4.] Nonnegotiable or straight bill. A bill in which it is stated that the goods are consigned or destined to a specified person, is a nonnegotiable or straight bill. [S., '13, § 3138-b3.]

8249.[§ 5.] Negotiable or order bill. A bill in which it is stated that the goods are consigned or destined to the order of any person named in such bill, is a negotiable or order bill. Any provision in such a bill that it is nonnegotiable shall not affect its negotiability within the meaning of this chapter. [S., '13, § 3138-b4.]

8250.[§ 6.] Negotiable bills must not be issued in sets. Negotiable bills issued in this state for the transportation of goods to any place in the United States on the continent of North America, except Alaska, shall not be issued in parts or sets. If so issued the carrier issuing them shall be liable for failure to deliver the goods described therein to anyone who purchases a part for value in good faith, even though the purchase be after the delivery of the goods by the carrier to a holder of one of the other parts. [S., '13, § 3138-b5.]

8251.[§ 7.] Duplicate negotiable bills must be so marked. When more than one negotiable bill is issued in this state for the same goods to be transported to any place in the United States on the continent of North America, except Alaska, the word "duplicate" or some other word or words indicating that the document is not an original bill shall be placed plainly upon the face of every such bill, except the one first issued. A carrier shall be liable for the damage caused by his failure so to do to anyone who has purchased the bill for value in good faith as an original, even though the purchase be after the delivery of the goods by the carrier to the holder of the original bill. [S., '13, § 3138-b6.]

8252.[§ 8.] Nonnegotiable bill shall be so marked. A nonnegotiable bill shall have placed plainly upon its face by the carrier issuing it "nonnegotiable" or "not negotiable". This section shall not apply, however, to memoranda or acknowledgments of an informal character. [S., '13, § 3138-b7.]

8253.[§ 9.] Insertion of name of person to be notified. The insertion in a negotiable bill of the name of a person to be notified of the arrival of goods shall not limit the negotiability of the bill, or constitute notice to a purchaser thereof of any rights or equities of such person in the goods. [S., '13, § 3138-b8.]

8254.[§10.] Acceptance of bill indicates assent to its terms. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, where a consignor receives a bill and makes no objection to its terms or conditions at the time he receives it, neither the consignor nor any person who accepts delivery of the goods, nor any person who seeks to enforce any provision of the bill, shall be allowed to deny that he is bound by such terms and conditions, so far as they are not contrary to law or public policy. [S., '13, § 3138-b9.]

PART II

OBLIGATIONS AND RIGHTS OF CARRIERS UPON THEIR BILLS OF LADING

8255.[§11.] Obligation of carrier to deliver. A carrier, in the absence of some lawful excuse, is bound to deliver goods upon a demand made either by the consignee named in the bill for the goods, or if the bill is negotiable, by the holder thereof, if such demand is accompanied by:

1. An offer in good faith to satisfy the carrier's lawful lien upon the goods,
2. An offer in good faith to surrender, properly indorsed, the bill which was issued for the goods, if the bill is negotiable, and
3. A readiness and willingness to sign, when the goods are delivered, an acknowledgment that they have been delivered, if such signature is requested by the carrier.

In case the carrier refuses or fails to deliver the goods in compliance with a demand by the consignee or holder so accompanied, the burden shall be upon the carrier to establish the existence of a lawful excuse for such refusal or failure. [S., '13, § 3138-b10.]

8256.[§12.] Justification of carrier in delivering. A carrier is justified, subject to the provisions of the three following sections, in delivering goods to one who is:

1. A person lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods, or

2. The consignee named in a nonnegotiable bill for the goods, or

3. A person in possession of a negotiable bill for the goods by the terms of which the goods are deliverable to his order, or which has been indorsed to him or in blank by the consignee or by the mediate or immediate indorsee of the consignee. [S., '13, § 3138-b11.]

8257.[§13.] Carrier's liability for misdelivery. Where a carrier delivers goods to one who is not lawfully entitled to the possession of them the carrier shall be liable to anyone having a right of property or possession in the goods if he delivered the goods otherwise than as authorized by subdivisions 2 and 3 of the preceding section; and, though he delivered the goods as authorized by either of said subdivisions, he shall be so liable if prior to such delivery he:

1. Had been requested, by or on behalf of a person having a right of property or possession in the goods, not to make such delivery, or

2. Had information at the time of the delivery that it was to a person not lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods.

A request or information to be effective within the meaning of this section must be given to an officer or agent of the carrier, the actual or apparent scope of whose duties includes action upon such a request or information, and must be given in time to enable the officer or agent to whom it is given, acting with reasonable diligence, to stop delivery of the goods. [S., '13, § 3138-b12.]

8258.[§14.] Negotiable bill must be canceled when goods delivered. Except as provided in section 8271, and except when compelled by legal process, if a carrier delivers goods for which a negotiable bill had been issued, the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of the goods, and fails to take up and cancel the bill, such carrier shall be liable for failure to deliver the goods to anyone who for value and in good faith purchases such bill, whether such purchaser acquired title to the bill before or after the delivery of the goods by the carrier, and notwithstanding delivery was made to the person entitled thereto. [S., '13, § 3138-b13.]

8259.[§15.] Negotiable bills must be canceled or marked when part of goods delivered. Except as provided in section 8271, and except when compelled by legal process, if a carrier delivers part of the goods for which a negotiable bill had been issued and fails either:

1. To take up and cancel the bill, or

2. To place plainly upon it a statement that a portion of the goods has been delivered, with a description, which may be in general terms, either of the goods or packages that have been so delivered or of the goods or packages which still remain in the carrier's possession, he shall be liable for failure to deliver all the goods specified in the bill, to anyone who for value and in good faith purchases it, whether such purchaser acquired title to it before or after the delivery of any portion of the goods by the carrier, and notwithstanding such delivery was made to the person entitled thereto. [S., '13, § 3138-b14.]

8260.[§16.] Altered bills. Any alteration, addition, or erasure in a bill after its issue without authority from the carrier issuing the same either in writing or noted on the bill shall be void, whatever be the nature and purpose of the change, and the bill shall be enforceable according to its original tenor. [S., '13, § 3138-b15.]

8261.[§17.] Lost or destroyed bill. Where a negotiable bill has been lost or destroyed, a court of competent jurisdiction may order the delivery of the goods upon satisfactory proof of such loss or destruction and upon the giving of a bond with sufficient surety to be approved by the court to protect the carrier or any person injured by such delivery from any liability or loss, incurred by reason of the original bill remaining outstanding. The court may also in its discretion order the payment of the carrier's reasonable costs and counsel fees. The delivery of the goods under an order of the court as provided in this section, shall not relieve the carrier from liability to a person to whom the negotiable bill has been or shall be negotiated for value without notice of the proceedings or of the delivery of the goods. [S., '13, § 3138-b16.]

8263.[§19.] Carrier can not set up title in himself. No title to goods or right to their possession, asserted by a carrier for his own benefit, shall excuse him from liability for refusing to deliver the goods according to the terms of a bill issued for them, unless such title or right is derived directly or indirectly from a transfer made by the consignor or consignee after the shipment, or from the carrier's lien. [S., '13, § 3138-b18.]

8264.[§20.] Interpleader of adverse claimants. If more than one person claims the title or possession of goods, the carrier may require all known claimants to interplead, either as a defense to an action brought against him for nondelivery of the goods, or as an original suit, whichever is appropriate. [S., '13, § 3138-b19.]

8265.[§21.] Carrier has reasonable time to determine validity of claims. If some one other than the consignee or person in possession of the bill, has a claim to the title or possession of the goods, and the carrier has information of such claim, the carrier shall be excused from liability for refusing to deliver the goods either to the consignee or person in possession of the bill, or to the adverse claimant, until the carrier has had a reasonable time to ascertain the validity of the adverse claim or to bring legal proceedings to compel all claimants to interplead. [S., '13, § 3138-b20.]

8266.[§22.] Adverse title is no defense, except as above provided. Except as provided in the two preceding sections and in section 8256, no right or title of a third person unless enforced by legal process shall be a defense to an action brought by the consignee of a nonnegotiable bill or by the holder of a negotiable bill against the carrier for failure to deliver the goods on demand. [S., '13, § 3138-b21.]

8267.[§23.] Liability for nonreceipt or misdescription of goods. If a bill of lading has been issued by a carrier or on his behalf by an agent or employee the scope of whose actual or apparent authority includes the issuing of bills of lading, the carrier shall be liable to:

1. The consignee named in a nonnegotiable bill, or
2. The holder of a negotiable bill, who has given value in good faith relying upon the description therein of the goods, for damages caused by the nonreceipt by the carrier or a connecting carrier of all or part of the goods or their failure to correspond with the description thereof in the bill at the time of its issue.

If, however, the goods are described in the bill merely by a statement of marks or labels upon them or upon packages containing them, or by a statement that the goods are said to be goods of a certain kind or quantity, or in a certain condition, or it is stated in the bill that packages are said to contain goods of a certain kind or quantity or in a certain condition, or that the contents or the condition of contents of packages are unknown, or words of like purport are contained in the bill, such statements, if true, shall not make liable the carrier issuing the bill, although the goods are not of the kind or quantity or in the condition which the marks or labels upon them indicate, or of the kind or quantity or in the condition they were said to be by the consignor. The carrier may, also, by inserting in the bill the words "shipper's load and count" or other words of like purport, indicate that the goods were loaded by the shipper and the description of them made by him; and if such statement be true, the carrier shall not be liable for damages caused by the improper loading or by the nonreceipt or by the misdescription of the goods described in the bill. [S., '13, § 3138-b22.]

8269.[§25.] Creditor's remedies to reach negotiable bills. A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a negotiable bill shall be entitled to such aid from courts of appropriate jurisdiction by injunction and otherwise in attaching such bill, or in satisfying the claim by means thereof as is allowed at law or in equity in regard to property which can not readily be attached or levied upon by ordinary legal process. [S., '13, § 3138-b24.]

8270.[§26.] Negotiable bill must state charges for which lien is claimed. If a negotiable bill is issued the carrier shall have no lien on the goods therein mentioned, except for charges on those goods for freight, storage, demurrage, and terminal charges, and expenses necessary for the preservation of the goods or incident to their transportation subsequent to the date of the bill, unless the bill expressly enumerates other charges for which a lien is claimed. In such case there shall also be a lien for the charges enumerated so far as they are allowed by law and the contract between the consignor and the carrier. [S., '13, § 3138-b25.]

8271.[§27.] Effect of sale. After goods have been lawfully sold to satisfy a carrier's lien, or because they have not been claimed, or because they are perishable or hazardous, the carrier shall not thereafter be liable for failure to deliver the goods to the consignee or owner of the goods, or to a holder of the bill given for the goods when they were shipped, even if such bill be negotiable. [S., '13, § 3138-b26.]

PART III

NEGOTIATION AND TRANSFER OF BILLS

8272.[§28.] Negotiation of negotiable bills by delivery. A negotiable bill may be negotiated by delivery where, by the terms of the bill, the carrier undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of a specified person, and such person or a subsequent indorsee of the bill has indorsed it in blank. [S., '13, § 3138-b27.]

8273.[§29.] Negotiation of negotiable bills by indorsement. A negotiable bill may be negotiated by the indorsement of the person to whose order the goods are deliverable by the tenor of the bill. Such indorsement may be in blank or to a specified person. If indorsed to a specified person, it may be negotiated again by the indorsement of such person in blank or to another specified person. Subsequent negotiation may be made in like manner. [S., '13, § 3138-b28.]

8274.[§30.] Transfer of bills. A bill may be transferred by the holder by delivery, accompanied with an agreement, express or implied, to transfer the title to the bill or to the goods represented thereby. A nonnegotiable bill can not be negotiated, and the indorsement of such a bill gives the transferee no additional right. [S., '13, § 3138-b29.]

8275.[§31.] Who may negotiate a bill. A negotiable bill may be negotiated by any person in possession of the same, however such possession may have been acquired if, by the terms of the bill, the carrier undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of such person, or if at the time of negotiation the bill is in such form that it may be negotiated by delivery. [S., '13, § 3138-b30.]

8276.[§32.] Rights of person to whom a bill has been negotiated. A person to whom a negotiable bill has been duly negotiated acquires thereby:

1. Such title to the goods as the person negotiating the bill to him had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and also such title to the goods as the consignee and consignor had or had power to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and
2. The direct obligation of the carrier to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the bill as fully as if the carrier had contracted directly with him. [S., '13, § 3138-b31.]

8277.[§33.] Rights of person to whom a bill has been transferred. A person to whom a bill has been transferred but not negotiated acquires thereby as against the transferor, the title to the goods, subject to the terms of any agreement with the transferor. If the bill is nonnegotiable, such person also acquires the right to notify the carrier of the transfer to him of such bill, and thereby to become the direct obligee of whatever obligations the carrier owed to the transferor of the bill immediately before the notification.

Prior to the notification of the carrier by the transferor or transferee of a nonnegotiable bill, the title of the transferee to the goods and the right to acquire the obligation of the carrier may be defeated by garnishment or by attachment or execution upon the goods by a creditor of the transferor, or by a notification to the carrier by the transferor or a subsequent purchaser from the transferor of a subsequent sale of the goods by the transferor.

A carrier has not received notification within the meaning of this section unless an officer or agent of the carrier, the actual or apparent scope of whose duties includes action upon such notification, has been notified; and no notification shall be effective until the officer or agent to whom it is given has had time with the exercise of reasonable diligence to communicate with the agent or agents having actual possession or control of the goods. [S., '13, § 3138-b32.]

8278.[§34.] Transfer of negotiable bill without indorsement. Where a negotiable bill is transferred for value by delivery, and the indorsement of the transferor is essential for negotiation, the transferee acquires a right against the transferor to compel him to indorse the bill, unless a contrary intention appears. The negotiation shall take effect as of the time when the indorsement is actually made. This obligation may be specifically enforced. [S., '13, § 3138-b33.]

8279.[§35.] Warranties on sale of bill. A person who negotiates or transfers for value a bill by indorsement or delivery, including one who assigns for value a claim secured by a bill, unless a contrary intention appears, warrants:

1. That the bill is genuine,
2. That he has a legal right to transfer it.
3. That he has knowledge of no fact which would impair the validity or worth of the bill, and
4. That he has a right to transfer the title to the goods, and that the goods are merchantable or fit for a particular purpose whenever such warranties would have been implied, if the contract of the parties had been to transfer without a bill the goods represented thereby.

In the case of an assignment of a claim secured by a bill, the liability of the assignor shall not exceed the amount of the claim. [S., '13, § 3138-b34.]

8280.[§36.] Indorser not a guarantor. The indorsement of a bill shall not make the indorser liable for any failure on the part of the carrier or previous indorsers of the bill to fulfill their respective obligations. [S., '13, § 3138-b35.]

8281.[§37.] No warranty implied from accepting payment of a debt. A mortgagee or pledgee, or other holder of a bill for security who in good faith demands or receives payment of the debt for which such bill is security, whether from a party to a draft drawn for such debt or from any other person, shall not be deemed by so doing to represent or to warrant the genuineness of such bill or the quantity or quality of the goods therein described. [S., '13, § 3138-b36.]

person making the negotiation, or by the fact that the owner of the bill was deprived of the possession of the same by fraud, accident, mistake, duress, or conversion, if the person to whom the bill was negotiated, or a person to whom the bill was subsequently negotiated, gave value therefor, in good faith, without notice of the breach of duty, or fraud, accident, mistake, duress, or conversion. [S., '13, § 3138-b37.]

8283.[§39.] Subsequent negotiation. Where a person having sold, mortgaged, or pledged goods which are in a carrier's possession and for which a negotiable bill has been issued, or having sold, mortgaged, or pledged the negotiable bill representing such goods, continues in possession of the negotiable bill, the subsequent negotiation thereof by that person under any sale, pledge, or other disposition thereof to any person receiving the same in good faith, for value and without notice of the previous sale, shall have the same effect as if the first purchaser of the goods or bill had expressly authorized the subsequent negotiation. [S., '13, § 3138-b38.]

8284.[§40.] Form of the bill as indicating rights of buyer and seller. Where goods are shipped by the consignor in accordance with a contract or order for their purchase, the form in which the bill is taken by the consignor shall indicate the transfer or retention of the property or right to the possession of the goods as follows:

1. Where by the bill the goods are deliverable to the buyer or to his agent, or to the order of the buyer or of his agent, the consignor thereby transfers the property in the goods to the buyer.

2. Where by the bill the goods are deliverable to the seller or to his agent, or to the order of the seller or of his agent, the seller thereby reserves the property in the goods. But if, except for the form of the bill, the property would have passed to the buyer on shipment of the goods, the seller's property in the goods shall be deemed to be only for the purpose of securing performance by the buyer of his obligation under the contract.

3. Where by the bill the goods are deliverable to the order of the buyer or his agent, but possession of the bill is retained by the seller or his agent, the seller thereby reserves a right to the possession of the goods, as against the buyer.

4. Where the seller draws on the buyer for the price and transmits the draft and bill together to the buyer to secure acceptance or payment of the draft, the buyer is bound to return the bill if he does not honor the draft, and if he wrongfully retains the bill he acquires no added right thereby. If, however, the bill provides that the goods are deliverable to the buyer, or to the order of the buyer, or is indorsed in blank or to the buyer by the consignee named therein, one who purchases in good faith, for value, the bill or goods from the buyer, shall obtain the title to the goods, although the draft has not been honored, if such purchaser has received delivery of the bill indorsed by the consignee named therein, or of the goods, without notice of the facts making the transfer wrongful. [S., '13, § 3138-b39.]

8285.[§41.] Sight draft—assumptions of buyer. Where the seller of goods draws on the buyer for the price of the goods and transmits the draft and a bill of lading for the goods either directly to the buyer or through a bank or other agency, unless a different intention on the part of the seller appears, the buyer and all other parties interested shall be justified in assuming:

1. If the draft is by its terms or legal effect payable on demand or presentation or at sight, or not more than three days thereafter, whether such three days be termed days of grace or not, that the seller intended to require payment of the draft before the buyer should be entitled to receive or retain the bill.

2. If the draft is by its terms payable on time, extending beyond three days after demand, presentation, or sight, whether such three days be termed days of grace or not, that the seller intended to require acceptance, but not payment of the draft before the buyer should be entitled to receive or retain the bill.

The provisions of this section are applicable whether by the terms of the bill the goods are consigned to the seller, or to his order, or to the buyer, or to his order, or to a third person, or to his order. [S., '13, § 3138-b40.]

8286.[§42.] Negotiation defeats vendor's lien. Where a negotiable bill has been issued for goods, no seller's lien or right of stoppage in transitu shall defeat the rights of any purchaser for value in good faith to whom such bill has been negotiated, whether such negotiation be prior or subsequent to the notification to the carrier who issued such bill of the seller's claim to a lien or right of stoppage in transitu. Nor shall the carrier be obliged to deliver or justified in delivering the goods to an unpaid seller unless such bill is first surrendered for cancellation. [S., '13, § 3138-b41.]

8287.[§43.] When rights and remedies under mortgages and liens are not limited. Except as provided in the preceding section, nothing in this chapter shall limit the rights and remedies of a mortgagee or lien holder whose mortgage or lien on goods would be valid, apart from this chapter, as against one who for value and in good faith purchased from the owner, immediately prior to the time of their delivery to the carrier, the goods which are subject to the mortgage or lien and obtained possession of them. [S., '13, § 3138-b42.]

PART IV

CRIMINAL OFFENSES

8288[§44.] Issue of bill for goods not received. Any officer, agent, or servant of a carrier, who with intent to defraud issues or aids in issuing a bill knowing that all or any part of the goods for which such bill is issued have not been received by such carrier, or by an agent of such carrier, or by a connecting carrier, or are not under the carrier's control at the time of issuing such bill, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both. [S., '13, § 3138-b43.]

8289.[§45.] Issue of bill containing false statement. Any officer, agent, or servant of a carrier, who with intent to defraud issues or aids in issuing a bill for goods knowing that it contains any false statement, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both. [S., '13, § 3138-b44.]

8290.[§46.] Issue of duplicate bills not so marked. Any officer, agent, or servant of a carrier, who with intent to defraud issues or aids in issuing a duplicate or additional negotiable bill for goods in violation of the provisions of section 8251 knowing that a former negotiable bill for the same goods or any part of them is outstanding and uncanceled, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both. [S., '13, § 3138-b45.]

8291.[§47.] Negotiation of bill for mortgaged goods. Any person who ships goods to which he has not a title, or upon which there is a lien or mortgage, and who takes for such goods a negotiable bill which he afterwards negotiates for value with intent to deceive and without disclosing his want of title or the existence of the lien or mortgage, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both. [S., '13, § 3138-b46.]

8292.[§48.] Negotiation of bill when goods are not in carrier's possession. Any person who with intent to deceive negotiates or transfers for value a bill knowing that any or all of the goods which by the terms of such bill appear to have been received for transportation by the carrier which issued the bill, are not in the possession or control of such carrier, or of a connecting carrier, without disclosing this fact, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both. [S., '13, § 3138-b47.]

8293.[§49.]—Inducing carrier to issue bill when goods have not been received. Any person who with intent to defraud secures the issue by a carrier of a bill knowing that at the time of such issue, any or all of the goods described in such bill as received for transportation have not been received by such carrier, or an agent of such carrier, or a connecting carrier, or are not under the carrier's control, by inducing an officer, agent, or servant of such carrier falsely to believe that such goods have been received by such carrier, or are under its control, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both. [S., '13, § 3138-b48.]

8294.[§50.] Issue of nonnegotiable bill not so marked. Any person who with intent to defraud issues or aids in issuing a nonnegotiable bill without the words "not negotiable" placed plainly upon the face thereof, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment not exceeding five years or by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both. [S., '13, § 3138-b49.]

PART V

INTERPRETATION

8295.[§51.] Rule for cases not provided for in this chapter. In any case not provided for in this chapter, the rules of law and equity including the law merchant, and in particular the rules relating to the law of principal and agent, executors, administrators, and trustees, and to the effect of fraud, misrepresentation, duress, or coercion, accident, mistake, bankruptcy, or other invalidating cause, shall govern. [S., '13, § 3138-b50.]

8296.[§52.] Interpretation shall give effect to purpose of uniformity. This chapter shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it. [S., '13, § 3138-b51.]

8297.[§53.] Definitions.

1. In this chapter, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:

"Action" includes counterclaim, set-off, and suit in equity.

"Bill" means bill of lading.

"Consignee" means the person named in the bill as the person to whom delivery of the goods is to be made.

"Consignor" means the person named in the bill as the person from whom the goods have been received for shipment.

"Goods" means merchandise or chattels in course of transportation, or which have been or are about to be transported.

"Holder" of a bill means a person who has both actual possession of such bill and a right of property therein.

"Order" means an order by indorsement on the bill.

"Owner" does not include mortgagee or pledgee.

"Person" includes a corporation or partnership or two or more persons having a joint or common interest.

To "purchase" includes to take as mortgagee and to take as pledgee.

“Purchaser” includes mortgagee and pledgee. “Value” is any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract. An antecedent or preexisting obligation, whether for money or not, constitutes value where a bill is taken either in satisfaction thereof or as security therefor.

2. A thing is done “in good faith”, within the meaning of this chapter, when it is in fact done honestly, whether it be done negligently or not. [S., '13, § 3138-b52.]

8298.[§54.] Chapter does not apply to existing bills. The provisions of this chapter do not apply to bills made and delivered prior to the taking effect thereof. [S., '13, § 3138-b53.]

8299. [§57.] Name of chapter. This chapter may be cited as the “Uniform Bills of Lading Law”. [S., '13, § 3138-b56.]

CHAPTER 382

TELEGRAPH AND TELEPHONE LINES AND COMPANIES

- 8300. Right of way.
- 8301. Removal of lines.
- 8302. Construction—damages.
- 8303. Condemnation.
- 8304. Equal facilities—delay.

8300. Right of way. Any person or firm, and any corporation organized for such purpose, within or without the state, may construct a telegraph or telephone line along the public roads of the state, or across the rivers or over any lands belonging to the state or any private individual, and may erect the necessary fixtures therefor. [C., '51, § 780; R., '60, § 1348; C., '73, § 1324; C., '97, § 2158.]

8301. Removal of lines. When any road along which said line has been constructed shall be changed, the person, firm or corporation shall, upon ninety days' notice in writing, remove said lines to said road as established. The notice may be served upon any agent or operator in the employ of such person, firm or corporation. [C., '73, § 1324; C., '97, § 2158.]

8302. Construction—damages. Such fixtures shall not be so constructed as to inconvenience the public in the use of any road or the navigation of any stream; nor shall they be set up on the private grounds of any individual without paying him a just equivalent for the damage he thereby sustains. [C., '51, § 781; R., '60, § 1349; C., '73, § 1325; C., '97, § 2159.]

8303. Condemnation. If the person over whose lands such telegraph or telephone line passes claims more damages therefor than the proprietor of such line is willing to pay, the amount thereof may be determined in the same manner as provided for taking private property for works of internal improvement. [C., '51, § 782; R., '60, § 1350; C., '73, § 1326; C., '97, § 2160.]

8304. Equal facilities—delay. If the proprietor of any telegraph or telephone line within the state, or the person having the control and management thereof, refuses to furnish equal facilities to the public and to all connecting lines for the transmission of communications in accordance with the nature of the business

- 8305. Delay—wilful error—revealing contents.
- 8306. Mistakes and delays.
- 8307. Negligence presumed.
- 8308. Presentation of claim.

which it undertakes to carry on, or to transmit the same with fidelity and without unreasonable delay, the law in relation to limited partnerships, corporations, and to the taking of private property for works of internal improvement, shall not longer apply to them, and property taken for the use thereof without the consent of the owner may be recovered by him. [C., '51, § 783; R., '60, § 1351; C., '73, § 1327; C., '97, § 2161.]

8305. Delay—wilful error—revealing contents. Any person employed in transmitting messages by telegraph or telephone must do so with fidelity and without unreasonable delay, and if anyone wilfully fails thus to transmit them, or intentionally transmits a message erroneously, or makes known the contents of any message sent or received to any person except him to whom it is addressed, or his agent or attorney, or wilfully and wrongfully takes or receives any telegraph or telephone message, he is guilty of a misdemeanor. [C., '51, § 784; R., '60, § 1352; C., '73, § 1328; C., '97, § 2162.]

8307. Negligence presumed. In any action against any telegraph or telephone company for damages caused by erroneous transmission of a message, or by unreasonable delay in delivery of a message, negligence on the part of the telegraph or telephone company shall be presumed upon proof of erroneous transmission or of unreasonable delay in delivery, and the burden of proof that such error or delay was not due to negligence upon its part shall rest upon such company. [C., '97, § 2164.]

8308. Presentation of claim. No action for the recovery of such damages shall be maintained unless a claim therefor is presented in writing to such company, officer or agent thereof within sixty days from time cause of action accrues. [C., '97, § 2164.]

8338. Crossing highway.

8309. Franchise. No individual, company, or corporation shall erect, maintain or operate any transmission line, wire, or cable along, over or across any public highway or grounds outside of cities and towns for the transmission, distribution, or sale of electric current, without first procuring from the board of railroad commissioners, or from the board of supervisors in the county or each of the respective counties in which such transmission line is to be constructed or operated, a franchise granting authority so to do as in this chapter provided. [S., '13, §§ 1527-c, 2120-n; 38 G. A., ch. 267, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 262, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 1.]

8310. Petition for franchise. Any person, corporation, or company authorized to transact business in the state including cities and towns may file a verified petition asking for a franchise to erect, maintain, and operate a line or lines for the transmission, distribution, use and sale of electric current outside cities and towns and for such purpose to erect, use and maintain poles, wires, guy wires, towers, cables, conduits, and other fixtures and appliances necessary for conducting electric current for light, heat, or power over, along, and across any public lands, highways, streams, or the lands of any person, company, or corporation, and to acquire necessary interests in real estate for such purposes.

Where the application is made to a board of supervisors the applicant shall file a copy of such petition with the board of railroad commissioners at least ten days before the time of the hearing thereon. The board of railroad commissioners must furnish the applicant with a certificate showing the fact with reference to the filing of such copy. [S., '13, § 2120-n; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 2.]

8311. Petition—requirements. The petition shall set forth:

1. The name of the individual, company, or corporation asking for the franchise.
2. The principal office or place of business.
3. The starting points, routes, and termini of the proposed lines, accompanied with a map or plat showing such details.
4. A general description of the public or private lands, highways, and streams over, across, or along which any proposed line will pass.
5. General specifications as to materials and manner of construction.
6. The maximum voltage to be carried over each line. [S., '13, § 2120-n; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 3.]

8312. Notice of hearing. Upon the filing of such petition, the board shall fix a date for hearing thereon and cause a notice, addressed to the citizens of each county through which the proposed line or lines will extend, to be published in one of the official newspapers of each such county for two consecutive weeks. Said notice shall contain a general statement of the contents and purpose of the petition, a general description of the lands and highways to be traversed by the proposed line or lines, the date and place fixed for hearing thereon, and that all objections thereto must be filed at least five days before said date. Said hearing shall be not less than ten days from the date of the last publication and at the offices of the board before which said matter is pending, unless a different place in such notice is specified. [S., '13, § 2120-n; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 4.]

8313. Objections—hearing. Any person, company, city, town, or corporation whose rights or interests may be affected, shall have the right to file written objections to the proposed improvement or to the granting of such franchise; but all such objections shall be on file with the board at least five days before the date fixed for said hearing. The board may allow objections to be filed later in which event the applicant must be given reasonable time to meet such late objections. The board may examine the proposed route or cause any engineer selected by it to do so. It shall consider said petition and any objections filed thereto, and may hear such testimony as may aid it in determining the propriety of granting such franchise. It may grant such franchise in whole or in part upon such terms, conditions, and restrictions, and with such modifications as to location and route as may seem to it just and proper. The petitioners shall pay all costs and expenses of said proceeding, including cost of publishing notice, before such franchise shall become effective. [S., '13, § 2120-n; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 5.]

8314. Form of franchise. The commerce counsel shall prepare a blank form of franchise for such purposes, which shall provide space for a general description of the improvement authorized thereby, the name and address of the person or corporation to whom granted, the general terms and conditions upon which it is granted, and such other things as may be necessary. This blank form shall be filled out and signed by the chairman of the board which grants the franchise, and the official seal shall be attached. Such franchise shall be subject to such regulations and restrictions as the general assembly from time to time may prescribe, and to such rules, not inconsistent with statutes, as the board of railroad commissioners may establish from time to time. [S., '13, § 2120-n; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 6.]

8315. Valuation of franchise. No financial consideration shall be charged for such franchise. In fixing the value for rate making purposes of the property of any person, company, or corporation owning it or operating under it no account shall be taken of, and no increased value shall be allowed for, any such franchise, except that the reasonable cost to the petitioners of obtaining said franchise may be included in the cost of constructing said line. [40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 6-a1.]

8316. Exclusive rights—duration of franchise. No exclusive right shall ever be given by franchise or otherwise to any person, company, corporation, town, or city to conduct electrical energy, or to place electric wires, along or over or across any public highway or public place or ground; and no franchise or privilege shall ever be granted for any such purpose for a longer period than twenty-five years. [40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 6-a2.]

8317. Franchise transferable—notice. When any such electric transmission line or lines are sold and transferred either by voluntary or judicial sale, such transfer shall carry with it the franchise under which the said improvement is owned, maintained, or operated. If a transfer of such franchise is made before the improvement for which it was issued is constructed, in whole or in part, such transfer shall not be effective till the person, company, or corporation to whom it was issued shall file in the office of the board granting the franchise a notice in writing stating the date of such transfer and the name and address of the transferee. [40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 7.]

8318. Record of franchises. The board granting the franchise shall keep a record of all such franchises granted and issued by it, when and to whom issued, with a general statement of the location, route, and termini of the transmission line or lines covered thereby. When any transfer of such franchise has been made as provided in this chapter, the board shall also make note upon its record of the date of such transfer and the name and address of the transferee.

Every person, company, or corporation which secures a franchise for transmission lines from any board of supervisors must file with the board of railroad commissioners a copy of the order or resolution granting the franchise, certified by the county auditor. The franchise shall be effective when such copy is filed. When so filed the board of railroad commissioners shall issue a statement showing that fact. [40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 8.]

8319. Acceptance of franchise. Any person, company, or corporation obtaining a franchise as in this chapter provided, or owning or operating under one, shall be conclusively held to an acceptance of the provisions thereof and of all laws relating to the regulation, supervision, or control thereof which are now in force or which may be hereafter enacted, and to have consented to such reasonable regulation as the commission may, from time to time, prescribe. The provisions of this chapter shall apply equally to assignees as well as to original owners. [S., '13, § 2120-p; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 9.]

8320. Extension of franchise. Any person, firm, or corporation owning a franchise granted under this chapter or previously existing law, desiring to acquire extensions of such franchise, may petition the board in the manner provided for the granting of a franchise, and the same proceeding shall be had as on an original application. Such petition shall be accompanied by the written consent of the applicant that the provisions of all laws relating to public utilities, franchises, and transmission lines, or to the regulation, supervision, or control thereof which are then in force or which may be thereafter enacted shall apply to its existing line or lines, franchises and rights with the same force and effect as if such franchise had been granted or such lines had been constructed or rights had been obtained under the provisions of this chapter. [S., '13, § 2120-o; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 10.]

8321. Service furnished. Any city or town which owns or operates a system for the distribution of electric light or power, and which has obtained electric energy for such distribution from any person or firm or corporation owning or operating an electric light and power plant or transmission line, shall be entitled to have the service reasonably needed by such municipality and its patrons continued at and for a reasonable rate and charge and under reasonable rules of service.

It shall be unlawful for the owner or operator of such light and power plant or transmission line to disconnect or discontinue such service (except during nonpayment of reasonable charges) so long as such operator holds or enjoys any franchise to go upon or use any public streets, highways, or grounds.

Until the municipality and the operator shall agree upon a rate or charge for such service the municipality shall pay and the operator shall accept the rate provided in the expired contract if any existed, and if none existed then the rate before paid. This shall be without prejudice, however, to the right of either party to test in court or before any lawfully constituted rate-making tribunal the reasonableness of such rate.

This section shall not apply if the original service to the municipality was given in case of emergency or for any other temporary purpose. [40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 10-a1.]

8322. Eminent domain—procedure. Any person, company, or corporation having secured a franchise as provided in this chapter, shall thereupon be vested with the right of eminent domain to such extent as may be necessary and as prescribed and approved by the board, not exceeding one hundred feet in width for right of way and not exceeding one acre in any one location, in addition to right of way, for the location of transformer or other stations to carry out the purposes of said franchise. If agreement can not be made with the private owner of lands as to damages caused by the construction of said transmission line, the same proceedings shall be taken as provided for taking private property for works of internal improvement. [S., '13, § 2120-q; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 11.]

8323. Injury to person or property. In case of injury to any person or property by any such transmission line, negligence will be presumed on the part of the person or corporation operating said line in causing said injury, but this presumption may be rebutted by proof. Such presumption shall not exist in favor of employees of the person or corporation operating said transmission line who are charged with or engaged in the construction, reconstruction, repair, or maintenance thereof, unless otherwise provided by the employers' liability and workmen's compensation laws of the state. [S., '13, § 2120-s; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 12.]

8324. Access to lines—damages. Individuals or corporations operating such transmission lines shall have reasonable access to the same for the purpose of constructing, reconstructing, enlarging, repairing, or locating the poles, wires, or construction and other devices used in or upon such line, but shall pay to the owner of such lands and of crops thereon all damages to said lands or crops caused by entering, using, and occupying said lands for said purposes. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the execution of an agreement between the person or company owning or operating such line and the owner of said land or crops with reference to the use thereof. [S., '13, § 2120-t; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 13.]

8325. Supervision of construction—location. The board of railroad commissioners shall have power of supervision over the construction of said transmission line and over its future operation and maintenance. Said transmission line shall be constructed near and parallel to the right of way of the railroads of the state or along the division lines of the lands, according to the government survey thereof, wherever the same is practicable and reasonable, and so as not to interfere with the use by the public of the highways or streams of the state, nor unnecessarily interfere with the use of any lands by the occupant thereof. [S., '13, § 2120-r; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 14.]

8326. Manner of construction. Such lines shall be built of strong and proper wires attached to strong and sufficient supports properly insulated at all points of attachment; all wires, poles, and other devices which by ordinary wear or other causes are no longer safe shall be removed and replaced by new wires, poles, or other devices, as the case may be, and all abandoned wires, poles, or other devices shall be at once removed. Where wires carrying current are carried across, either above or below wires used for other service, the said transmission line shall be constructed in such manner as to eliminate, so far as practicable, damages to persons or property by reason of said crossing. There shall also be installed sufficient devices to automatically shut off electric current through said transmission line whenever connection is made whereby current is transmitted from the wires of said transmission line to the ground, and there shall also be provided a safe and modern improved device for the protection of said line against lightning. [S., '13, § 2120-r; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 15.]

8327. Distance from buildings. No transmission line shall be constructed, except by agreement, within one hundred feet of any dwelling house or other building, except where said line crosses or passes along a public highway or is located alongside or parallel with the right of way of any railway company. In addition to the foregoing, each person, company, or corporation shall conform to any other rules, regulations, or specifications established by the board of railroad commissioners, in the construction, operation, or maintenance of such lines. [S., '13, § 2120-r; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 16.]

8328. Lines along or crossing highway—danger label. At any crossing of any highway by such transmission line, the poles or towers next to the highway shall be labeled with the following words: "Danger volts electricity", filling in the voltage. The stroke of said letters and numbers shall be at least four inches in length and not less than five-eighths of an inch in width, and the color of the letters and numbers shall be in contrast with the color of the background. The said labels shall show the maximum number of volts of electricity transmitted over said line, and shall face toward the highway. Where said poles or towers are extended along said highway and within the limits thereof or immediately adjacent thereto, the sign herein prescribed shall be placed at least every quarter of a mile. The board of railroad commissioners shall have power to make and enforce such further and additional rules relating to location, construction, operation, and maintenance of said transmission line as may be reasonable. [S., '13, § 2120-r; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 17.]

8329. Nonuser. Unless the improvement for which a franchise is granted is constructed in whole or in part within two years from the granting thereof, it shall be forfeited and the board which granted the franchise shall cancel and revoke the same and make record thereof. [40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 18.]

8330. Forfeiture for violations. If any person, company, or corporation shall violate the provisions of this chapter or any rule established for the construction, maintenance, or operation of such electric transmission line, and shall fail for ninety days after notice from the board to comply therewith, such board shall have power to cancel and annul such franchise and order the removal of such line.

Provided, however, that if proceedings are commenced within said ninety days in any court of competent jurisdiction to determine whether the provisions of this chapter, or whether any rule established for the construction or maintenance or operation of an electrical transmission line, have been violated, or are legal and enforceable rules or provisions, no forfeiture shall be declared or become effective if within sixty days from the date of the final decree or judgment in such proceedings the said rule or provisions have been fully complied with and the cause of forfeiture removed. [40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 19.]

8331. Prior franchises—legislative control. Any such franchise heretofore granted under previously existing law shall not be abrogated by the provisions of this chapter, but all such franchises and all franchises granted under the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to further legislative control. [40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 21.]

8332. Violations. Any person, company, or corporation constructing or undertaking to construct or maintain any electric transmission line, without first procuring a franchise for such purpose in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall be fined in the sum of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars; and for violating any of the other provisions of this chapter relating to electric transmission lines or disobeying any order or rule made by the board of railroad commissioners in relation thereto, shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars. [S., '13, § 1527-d; 38 G. A., ch. 399, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 22.]

8333. Wire crossing railroads—supervision. The board of railroad commissioners shall have general supervision over any and all wires whatsoever crossing under or over any railway track and shall make rules prescribing the manner in which such wires shall cross such track; but in no case shall the board of railroad commissioners prescribe a less height for any wire than twenty-two feet above the top of the rails of any railroad track. [S., '13, §§ 2120-d, 2120-e, 2120-h; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 23.]

8334. Wires across railroad right of way at highways. The board of railroad commissioners shall prescribe the manner for the crossing of wires over and across railroad right of ways at highways and other places within the state. [S., '13, § 2120-i; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 24.]

8335. Wires—how strung. No corporation or person shall place or string any such wire for transmitting electric current or any wire whatsoever across any track of a railroad except in the manner prescribed by the board of railroad commissioners. [S., '13, § 2120-f; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 25.]

8336. Examination of existing wires. The board of railroad commissioners shall, either by personal examination or otherwise, obtain information where railroad tracks are crossed by wires contrary to, or not in compliance with, the rules prescribed by it. It shall order such change or changes to be made by the persons or corporations owning or operating such wires as may be necessary to make the same comply with said rules and within such reasonable time as it may prescribe. [S., '13, § 2120-g; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 26.]

8337. Penalty—enforcement. Any person or corporation who shall string or maintain any wire across any railroad track in this state at a different height or in a different manner from that prescribed by the board of railroad commissioners shall forfeit and pay to the state the sum of one hundred dollars for each separate period of ten days during which such wire is so maintained. Such forfeiture shall be recovered in a civil action in the name of the state by the commerce counsel, or by the county attorney of the county in which such wire is situated, at the request of the board of railroad commissioners. [S., '13, § 2120-j; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 27.]

8338. Crossing highway. Nothing in this chapter shall prevent any such individual or corporation having its high tension line on its own private right of way on both sides of any highway, from crossing such public highway under such rules and regulations as the board of railroad commissioners may prescribe, and subject from time to time to legislative control as to duration and use. [40 Ex. G. A., ch. 13, § 28.]

8403. Ownership of alien property.
8404. False statements or pretenses.
8405. Political contributions prohibited.
8406. Solicitation from corporations.
8407. Violations.

8339. Who may incorporate. Any number of persons may become incorporated for the transaction of any lawful business, but such incorporation confers no power or privilege not possessed by natural persons, except as herein-after provided. [C., '51, § 673; R., '60, § 1150; C., '73, § 1058; C., '97, § 1607.]

8340. Single person. Except as otherwise provided by law, a single person may incorporate under the provisions of this chapter, thereby entitling himself to all the privileges and immunities provided herein, but if he adopts the name of an individual or individuals as that of the corporation, he must add thereto the word "incorporated." [C., '51, § 702; R., '60, § 1179; C., '73, § 1088; C., '97, § 1608.]

8341. Powers. Among the powers of such corporations are the following:

1. To have perpetual succession.
2. To sue and be sued by its corporate name.
3. To have a common seal, which it may alter at pleasure.
4. To render the interests of the stockholders transferable.

5. To exempt the private property of its members from liability for corporate debts, except as otherwise declared.

6. To make contracts, acquire and transfer property,—possessing the same powers in such respects as natural persons.

7. To establish by-laws, and make all rules and regulations necessary for the management of its affairs. [C., '51, § 674; R., '60, § 1151; C., '73, § 1059; C., '97, § 1609.]

8342. Index book. The county recorder shall keep in his office an index book for articles of incorporation, which shall be ruled and headed substantially after the following form, and shall make entries therein in the order in which they are filed in his office.

INDEX TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.	Name	Place of Business	Date of Filing		Date of Inst.			Where Recorded		Capital Stock	Remarks
			Mo.	Day	Yr.	Mo.	Day	Yr.	Bk.

[S., '13, § 1610.]

8343. Articles adopted and recorded. Before commencing any business except their own organization, they must adopt articles of incorporation, which must be signed and acknowledged by the incorporators, recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county where the principal place of business is to be, in a book kept therefor; and the recorder must, within five days thereafter, indorse thereon the time when the same were filed and the book and page where the record will be found. Said articles thus indorsed shall then be forwarded to the secretary of state, and be by him recorded in a book kept for that purpose. [C., '51, § 675; R., '60, § 1152; C., '73, § 1060; C., '97, § 1610; S., '13, § 1610.]

8344. Filing or refusal to file. When articles of incorporation are presented to the secretary of state for the purpose of being filed, if he is satisfied that they are in proper form to meet the requirements of law, that their object is a lawful one and not against public policy, that their plan for doing business, if any be provided for, is honest and lawful, he shall file them; but if he is of the opinion that they are not in proper form to meet the requirements of the law, or that their object is an unlawful one, or against public policy, or that their plan for doing business is dishonest or unlawful, he shall refuse to file them. [S., '13, § 1610.]

8345. Question of legality submitted. Should a question of doubt arise as to the legality of the articles, he shall submit them to the attorney general whose duty it shall be to forthwith examine and return them with an opinion in writing touching the point or points concerning which inquiry has been made of him. [S., '13, § 1610.]

8346. Action on opinion. If such opinion is in favor of the legality of the articles, and no other objections are apparent, they shall then, upon payment of the proper fee, be filed and otherwise dealt with as the law provides. If, however, such opinion be against their legality they shall not be filed. [S., '13, § 1610.]

8347. Submission to executive council. Upon the rejection of any articles of incorporation by the secretary of state, except for the reason that they have been held by the attorney general to be illegal, they shall, if the person or persons presenting them so request, be submitted to the executive council, which shall, as soon as practicable, consider the said articles and if the council determines that the articles are in proper form, of honest purpose, not against public policy, nor otherwise objectionable, it shall so advise the secretary of state in writing, whereupon he shall, upon the payment of the proper fees, file the same and proceed otherwise as the law directs; but if the council sustains the previous action of the secretary of state in rejecting said articles, such decision by the council shall be reported to the secretary of state in writing, and he shall then return said articles to the person or persons presenting them with such explanation as shall be proper in the case. [S., '13, § 1610.]

8348. Interpretative clause. Nothing in the five preceding sections shall be construed as repealing or modifying any statute now in force in respect to the approval of articles of incorporation relating to insurance companies, building and loan associations or investment companies. [S., '13, § 1610.]

8349. Incorporation fee. Such corporation shall pay to the secretary of state, before a certificate of incorporation is issued, a fee of twenty-five dollars, and, for all authorized stock in excess of ten thousand dollars, an additional fee of one dollar per thousand. Should any corporation increase its capital stock, it shall pay a fee to the secretary of state of one dollar for each one thousand dollars of such increase, and a recording fee of ten cents per one hundred words, no recording fee to be less than fifty cents. [C., '97, § 1610; S., '13, § 1610.]

8350. Exemption from fee. Farmers' mutual cooperative creamery associations, whose articles of incorporation provide that the business of the association be conducted on a purely mutual and cooperative plan, without capital stock, and whose patrons shall share equally in expense and profits, domestic and domestic local building and loan associations and incorporations organized for the manufacture of sugar from beets grown in the state, shall be exempt from the payment of the incorporation filing fee provided herein in excess of twenty-five dollars. [C., '97, § 1610; S., '13, § 1610.]

8351. Limit of indebtedness. Such articles must fix the highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which the corporation is at any one time to be subject, which in no case, except risks of insurance companies, and liabilities of banks not in excess of their available assets, not including their capital, shall exceed two-thirds of its capital stock. [C., '51, § 676; R., '60, § 1153; C., '73, § 1061; C., '97, § 1611; S. S., '15, § 1611; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 6, § 4.]

8352. Exceptions. The provisions of the last preceding section shall not apply:

1. To the bonds or other railway or street railway securities, issued or guaranteed by railway or street railway companies of the state, in aid of the location, construction, and equipment of railways or street railways, to an amount not exceeding sixteen thousand dollars per mile of single track, standard gauge, or eight thousand dollars per mile of single track, narrow gauge, lines of road for each mile of railway or street railway actually constructed and equipped.

2. To the debentures or bonds of any company incorporated under the provisions of this chapter, the payment of which shall be secured by an actual transfer of real estate securities for the benefit and protection of purchasers thereof; such securities to be at least equal in amount to the par value of such bonds or debentures, and to be first liens upon unincumbered real estate worth at least twice the amount loaned thereon; nor to debentures or bonds issued by any corporation organized under this chapter for the purpose of manufacturing or selling gas, heat, steam, or electricity, or constructing or operating interurban or street railways, or waterworks, or for any one or more of said purposes, when such debentures or bonds are not issued in an amount exceeding twice the amount of the paid-up capital stock of such corporation.

3. To the debentures or bonds of any company organized under the provisions of this chapter, provided said company shall have not less than one million dollars paid-in and outstanding capital stock, the payment of which debentures and bonds shall be secured by the actual transfer of the obligations of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations, for the benefit and protection of purchasers thereof; provided that where such obligations are secured by actual transfer of warehouse receipts of bonded warehouses as security collateral thereto, said obligation to represent not exceeding seventy-five per cent of market value of the commodity represented by such warehouse receipt, debentures or bonds may be issued to an amount not in excess of one hundred per cent of the actual value of said obligations; provided, further, that the said debentures shall be first liens upon the said obligations and upon the warehouse receipts collateral thereto; and provided further, that where such debentures or bonds shall be issued upon the security of obligations indorsed by a bank permitted to do banking business in the state, or obligations secured by collateral other than warehouse receipts of bonded warehouses, said collateral to consist of chattel loans on live stock up to eighty per cent of its value, or investments authorized by law for Iowa savings banks, they shall not be issued for an amount in excess of ninety per cent of the actual value of such obligations, and such debentures or bonds shall be first liens upon said obligations, and the collateral thereto.

4. To liabilities incurred through federal intermediate credit banks organized under the provisions of the act of Congress of March 4, 1923, known as the Agricultural Credit Act of 1923, relating to agricultural credits, when such liabilities are secured by warehouse receipts for agricultural products or chattel mortgages of live stock. [C., '97, § 1611; S. S., '15, § 1611; 40 Ex. G. A., Ch. 6, § 5.]

8353. Place of business. Any corporation organized under the laws of this state shall fix upon and designate in its articles of incorporation its principal place of business which must be in this state, and if outside the limits of a city or town then its postoffice address must be given. The place of business so designated shall not be changed except through an amendment to its articles of incorporation. [C., '97, § 1612; S., '13, § 1612.]

8354. Custody of office-business maintained. Its place of business shall be in charge of an agent of the corporation and shall be the place where it shall hold its meetings, keep a record of its proceedings and its stock and transfer books. [C., '97, § 1612; S., '13, § 1612.]

8355. Secretary of state as process agent. Any corporation organized under the laws of this state that does not maintain an office in the county of its organization, or transact business in this state, shall file with the secretary of state a written instrument duly signed and sealed, authorizing the secretary of state to acknowledge service of notice or process for and in behalf of such corporation in this state, and consenting that service of notice or process may be made upon the secretary of state, and when so made shall be taken and held as valid as if served according to the laws of this state, and waiving all claim or right or error by reason of such acknowledgment of service. [S., '13, § 1612.]

8356. Acknowledgment of service. Such notice or process, with a copy thereof, may be mailed to the secretary of state at Des Moines, Iowa, in a registered letter addressed to him by his official title, and he shall immediately upon its receipt acknowledge service thereon in behalf of the defendant corporation by writing thereon, giving the date thereof, and shall immediately return such notice or process in a registered letter to the clerk of the court in which the suit is pending, addressed by his official title, and shall also forthwith mail such copy, with a copy of his acknowledgment of service written thereon, in a registered letter addressed to the corporation or person who shall be named or designated by the corporation in such written instrument. [C., '97, § 1612; S., '13, § 1612.]

8357. Notice of incorporation. A notice must be published once each week for four weeks in succession in some newspaper as convenient as practicable to the principal place of business, which must contain:

1. The name of the corporation and its principal place of business.

2. The general nature of the business to be transacted.

3. The amount of capital stock authorized, and the times and conditions on which it is to be paid in.

4. The time of the commencement and termination of the corporation.

5. By what officers or persons its affairs are to be conducted, and the times when and manner in which they will be elected.

6. The highest amount of indebtedness to which it is at any time to subject itself.

7. Whether private property is to be exempt from corporate debts. [C., '51, §§ 677, 678; R., '60, §§ 1154, 1155; C., '73, §§ 1062, 1063; C., '97, § 1613; S., '13, § 1613.]

NOTE: For legalizing acts, see ch. 465.

8358. Proof of publication—filing. Proof of such publication, by affidavit of the publisher of the newspaper in which it is made, shall be filed with the secretary of state, and shall be evidence of the fact. [C., '97, § 1613; S., '13, § 1613.]

sequently published for the required time, and proof of the publication thereof filed with the secretary of state, the acts of such corporation after such publication shall be valid. [C., '51, § 679; R., '60, § 1156; C., '73, § 1064; C., '97, § 1614; 40 G. A., ch. 164, § 1.]

8360. Amendments—fees. Amendments to articles of incorporation making changes in any of the provisions of the articles may be made at any annual meeting of the stockholders or special meeting called for that purpose, and they shall be valid only when recorded, approved and published as the original articles are required to be. If no increase is made in the amount of capital stock, a certificate fee of one dollar and a recording fee of ten cents per one hundred words must be paid; no recording fee less than fifty cents. Where capital stock is increased the certificate fee shall be omitted but a filing fee of one dollar per thousand dollars of such increase together with a recording fee of ten cents per one hundred words shall be paid. [C., '51, § 680; R., '60, § 1157; C., '73, § 1065; C., '97, § 1615; S., '13, § 1615.]

8361. Signing and acknowledging of amendments. Such amendments need only be signed and acknowledged by such officers of the corporation as may be designated by the stockholders to perform such act. [C., '97, § 1615; S., '13, § 1615.]

8362. Individual property liable. A failure to substantially comply with the foregoing requirements in relation to organization and publicity shall render the individual property of the stockholders liable for the corporate debts; but corporators and stockholders in railway and street railway companies shall be liable only for the amount of stock held by them therein. [C., '51, § 689; R., '60, §§ 1166, 1338; C., '73, § 1068; C., '97, § 1616.]

8363. Dissolution—notice of. A corporation may be dissolved prior to the period fixed in the articles of incorporation, by unanimous consent, or in accordance with the provisions of its articles, and notice thereof must be given in the same manner and for the same time as is required for its organization; provided, however, that the notice of such dissolution shall be deemed sufficient if signed by the officers of such corporation and published as required by law. [C., '51, §§ 682, 683; R., '60, §§ 1159, 1160; C., '73, §§ 1066, 1067; C., '97, § 1617; 37 G. A., ch. 128, § 1; 40 G. A., ch. 165.]

8364. Duration. Corporations for the construction and operation, or the operation alone, of steam railways, interurban railways, and street railways, for the establishment and conduct of savings banks, or for the transaction of the business of life insurance, may be formed to endure fifty years; those for other purposes, not to exceed twenty years. [C., '51, § 681; R., '60, § 1158; C., '73, § 1069; C., '97, § 1618; S., '13, § 1618.]

8365. Renewal—conditions. In either case they may be renewed from time to time for the same or shorter periods, within three months before or after the time for the termination thereof, if a majority of the votes cast at any regular election, or special election called for that purpose, be in favor of such renewal, and if those voting for such renewal will purchase at its real value the stock voted against such renewal. [C., '51, § 681; R., '60, § 1158; C., '73, § 1069; C., '97, § 1618; S., '13, § 1618.]

8366. Computation and duration. Such renewals shall date from the expiration of the corporate period which it succeeds and shall be limited in duration to a period not exceeding the time allowed by law to the same class of corporations. [S., '13 § 1618.]

8367. Execution of renewal—record required. Within five days after the said action of the stockholders for the renewal of any corporation, a certificate, showing the proceedings resulting in such renewal, sworn to by the president and secretary of the corporation, or by such other officers as may be designated by the stockholders, together with the articles of incorporation, which may be the original articles of incorporation or amended and substituted articles, shall be filed for record in the office of the recorder of the county in which the principal place of business of said corporation is situated, and the same shall be recorded. [S., '13, § 1618.]

8368. Filing with secretary of state—record—fee—certificate of renewal. Upon filing with the secretary of state the said certificate and articles of incorporation, within ten days after they are filed with the recorder, and upon the payment to the secretary of state of a fee of twenty-five dollars, together with a recording fee of ten cents per one hundred words and an additional fee of one dollar per thousand for all authorized stock in excess of ten thousand dollars, the secretary of state shall record the said certificate and the said articles of incorporation in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall issue a proper certificate for the renewal of the corporation. [S., '13, § 1618.]

8369. Exemption from fee. Farmers' mutual cooperative creamery associations, domestic and domestic local building and loan associations, and corporations organized for the manufacture of sugar from beets grown in the state of Iowa, shall be exempt from the payment of the incorporation fee, provided in the preceding section. [S., '13, § 1618.]

8370. Notice of renewal—publication. Within three months after the filing of the certificate and articles of incorporation with the secretary of state, the corporation so renewed shall publish a notice of renewal. Said notice shall be published once each week for four weeks in succession in a newspaper as convenient as practicable to the principal place of business of the corporation, and proof of publication filed in the office of the secretary of state, and shall contain the matters and things required to be published by section 8357, relating to original incorporations. [S., '13, § 1618.]

8371. Renewal of banks—conditions. The corporate existence of any state or savings bank may be renewed or extended, from time to time, for a period not longer than the time for which such banks may organize, by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the shareholders thereof, at a stockholders' meeting held for that purpose, within three months before or after the time of the expiration of its charter as shown by its certificate of incorporation issued by the secretary of state. [S., '13, § 1618-a.]

8372. Meeting and notice thereof. Such meeting shall be called upon a notice signed by at least two of the officers of the bank and by a majority of its directors, specifying the object of the meeting, and the time and place thereof, published once a week for four consecutive weeks before the time at which the same is to be held, in some newspaper in the county wherein the bank is located. [S., '13, § 1618-a.]

8373. Execution of renewal—record and fees. If at such meeting the required vote is given, a certificate of the proceedings showing compliance with the foregoing provisions and the time to which the corporate period is to be continued, shall be signed and verified by the affidavit of the chairman and secretary of the meeting, certified to by a majority of the board of directors, and together with the articles of incorporation, as they exist at the date of the meeting, shall be recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of the proper county and filed, recorded, and fees paid, as provided in section 8368, and shall be by the secretary of state certified to the superintendent of banking. [S., '13, § 1618-a.]

8374. Amendments to articles. When the meeting is held previous to the expiration of the charter of the bank, such amendments may be made to the articles of incorporation, subject to the provisions thereof, as may be deemed necessary and whether held before or after the extension of the corporate period, such changes may be made in the articles as are necessary to show the time to which the corporate period is extended and the names of the officers and directors at the time of the renewal or extension. [S., '13, § 1618-a.]

8375. Certificate of renewal—notice. When the above has been complied with, the superintendent of banking shall issue to such bank a certificate as provided in section 9161, notice of which shall be published as required by the provisions of said section. [S., '13, § 1618-a.]

8376. Legislative control. The articles of incorporation, by-laws, rules and regulations of corporations hereafter organized under the provisions of this title, or whose organization may be adopted or amended hereunder, shall at all times be subject to legislative control, and may be at any time altered, abridged or set aside by law, and every franchise obtained, used or enjoyed by such corporation may be regulated, withheld, or be subject to conditions imposed upon the enjoyment thereof, whenever the general assembly shall deem necessary for the public good. [C., '73, § 1090; C., '97, § 1619.]

8377. Fraud—penalty for. Intentional fraud in failing to comply substantially with the articles of incorporation, or in deceiving the public or individuals in relation to their means or their liabilities, shall be a misdemeanor, and shall subject those guilty thereof to fine and imprisonment, or both, at the discretion of the court. Any person who has sustained injury from such fraud may also recover damages therefor against those guilty of participating in such fraud. [C., '51, § 686; R., '60, § 1163; C., '73, § 1071; C., '97, § 1620.]

8378. Diversion of funds—unlawful dividends. The diversion of the funds of the corporation to other objects than those mentioned in its articles and in the notice published, if any person be injured thereby, and the payment of dividends which leaves insufficient funds to meet the liabilities thereof, shall be such fraud as will subject those guilty thereof to the penalties of the preceding section; and such dividends, or their equivalent, in the hands of stockholders, shall be subject to such liabilities. If the directors or other officers or agents of any corporation shall declare and pay any dividend when such corporation is known by them to be insolvent, or any dividend the payment of which would render it insolvent, or which would diminish the amount of its capital stock, all directors, officers or agents knowingly consenting thereto shall be jointly and severally liable for all the debts of such corporation then existing, but dividends made in good faith before knowledge of the occurring of losses shall not come within the provisions of this section. [C., '51, §§ 687, 688; R., '60, §§ 1164, 1165; C., '73, §§ 1072, 1073; C., '97, § 1621.]

8379. Forfeiture. Any intentional violation by the board of directors or the managing officers of the corporation of the provisions of the two preceding sections shall work a forfeiture of the corporate privileges, to be enforced as provided by law. [C., '51, § 690; R., '60, § 1167; C., '73, § 1074; C., '97, § 1622.]

8380. Liability on excessive indebtedness. If the indebtedness of any corporation shall exceed the amount of indebtedness permitted by law, the directors and officers of such corporation knowingly consenting thereto shall be personally and individually liable to the creditors of such corporation for such excess. [C., '97, § 1622.]

8381. Keeping false accounts. The intentional keeping of false books or accounts shall be a misdemeanor on the part of any officer, agent or employee of the corporation guilty thereof, or of anyone whose duty it is to see that such books or accounts are correctly kept. [C., '51, § 691; R., '60, § 1168; C., '73, § 1075; C., '97, § 1623.]

8382. By-laws posted. A copy of the by-laws of the corporation, with the names of all of its officers, must be posted in the principal places of business subject to public inspection. [C., '51, § 684; R., '60, § 1161; C., '73, § 1076; C., '97, § 1624.]

8383. Statement of stock and indebtedness. A statement of the amount of capital stock subscribed, the amount of capital actually paid in, and the amount of the indebtedness in a general way, must also be kept posted in like manner, which shall be corrected as often as any material change takes place in relation to any part of the subject matter thereof. [C., '51, § 685; R., '60, § 1162; C., '73, § 1077; C., '97, § 1625.]

8384. Stockholders entitled to names of stockholders. The secretary of each corporation shall, upon a written request, furnish to the stockholders of said corporation a printed or typewritten list, giving the names of the stockholders and their postoffice address, and the number of shares owned by each stockholder. Said list shall be prepared and ready for delivery upon said request not later than thirty days prior to the annual meeting of the stockholders and not more than sixty days prior to said annual meeting. Said written request must be made at least forty days prior to said annual meeting. [39 G. A., ch. 208.]

8385. Stock book and transfers. The books of the corporation must be so kept as to show the original stockholders, their interests, the amount paid on their shares, and all transfers thereof; which books, or a copy thereof, so far as the items mentioned in this and the following section are concerned, shall be subject to the inspection of any person desiring the same. [C., '51, § 692; R., '60, § 1169; C., '73, § 1078; C., '97, § 1626.]

8386. Transfer of shares. The transfer of shares is not valid, except as between the parties thereto, until regularly entered upon the books of the company, showing the name of the person by and to whom transferred, the numbers or other designation of the shares, and the date of the transfer; but such transfer shall not exempt the person making it from any liability of said corporation created prior thereto. [C., '51, § 692; R., '60, § 1169; C., '73, § 1078; C., '97, § 1626.]

8387. Transfer of shares as collateral. When any shares of stock shall be transferred to any person, firm, or corporation as collateral security, such person, firm, or corporation may notify in writing the secretary of the corporation whose stock is transferred as aforesaid, and from the time of such notice, and until written notice that said stock shall have ceased to be held as collateral security, said stock so transferred and noticed as aforesaid shall be considered in law as transferred on the books of the corporation which issued said stock, without any actual transfer on the books of such corporation of such stock. [C., '97, § 1626.]

8388. Release of shares held as collateral. In such case, it shall be the duty of the secretary or cashier of the corporation or of the person or firm to which such stock shall have been transferred as collateral security, at once upon its ceasing to be so held, to inform the secretary of the corporation issuing such stock of such fact. [C., '97, § 1626.]

8389. Record of transfers as collateral. The secretary of the company whose stock is transferred as collateral shall keep a record showing such notice of transfer as collateral, and notice of discharge as collateral, subject to public inspection. [C., '97, § 1626.]

8390. Liability of collateral holder. No holder of stock as collateral security shall be liable for assessments on the same. [C., '97, § 1626.]

8391. Right to vote stock—attachment. Every executor, administrator, guardian, or trustee shall represent the stock in his hands at all corporate meetings, and may vote the same as a stockholder.

Every person who shall pledge his stock, in the absence of a written agreement to the contrary, may represent the same at all such meetings and vote accordingly.

The owner of corporate stock levied upon by attachment or other proceeding shall have the right to vote the same at all corporate meetings, until such time as he shall have been divested of his title thereto by execution sale.

Nothing contained in this section shall in any manner conflict with any provision in the articles of incorporation, or the by-laws of the corporation issuing the stock. [S., '13, § 1641-a.]

8392. Expiration and closing of business. Corporations whose charters expire by limitation or the voluntary act of the stockholders may nevertheless continue to act for the purpose of winding up their affairs. [C., '51, § 694; R., '60, § 1171; C., '73, § 1080; C., '97, § 1629.]

8393. Sinking fund and loaning thereof. For the purpose of repairs, rebuilding, enlarging, or to meet contingencies, or for the purpose of creating a sinking fund, the corporation may set apart a sum which it may loan, and take proper securities therefor. [C., '51, § 699; R., '60, § 1176; C., '73, § 1081; C., '97, § 1630.]

8394. Liability of stockholders. Neither anything in this chapter contained, nor any provisions in the articles of corporation, shall exempt the stockholders from individual liability to the amount of the unpaid installments on the stock owned by them, or transferred by them for the purpose of defrauding creditors; and execution against the company may, to that extent, be levied upon the private property of any such individual. [C., '51, § 695; R., '60, § 1172; C., '73, § 1082; C., '97, § 1631.]

8395. Levy on private property. In none of the cases contemplated in this chapter can the private property of the stockholders be levied upon for the payment of corporate debts while corporate property can be found with which to satisfy the same; but it will be sufficient proof that no property can be found, if an execution has issued on a judgment against the corporation, and a demand has been thereon made of some one of the last acting officers of the body for property on which to levy, and he neglects to point out any such property. [C., '97, § 1631.]

8396. Suit by creditor—measure of recovery. In suits by creditors to recover unpaid installments upon shares of stock against any person who has in any manner obtained such stock of the corporation, the stockholder shall be liable for the difference between the amount paid by him to the corporation for said stock and the face value thereof. [C., '97, § 1631.]

8397. Corporate property exhausted. Before any stockholder can be charged with the payment of a judgment rendered for a corporate debt, an action shall be brought against him, in any stage of which he may point out corporate property subject to levy; and, upon his satisfying the court of the existence of such property, by affidavit or otherwise, the cause may be continued, or execution against him stayed, until the property can be levied upon and sold, and the court may subsequently render judgment for any balance which there may be after disposing of the corporate property; but if a demand of property has been made as contemplated in section 8395, the costs of said action shall, in any event, be paid by the company or the defendant therein, but he shall not be permitted to controvert the validity of the judgment rendered against the corporation, unless it was rendered through fraud and collusion. [C., '51, §§ 696, 697; R., '60, §§ 1173, 1174; C., '73, §§ 1083, 1084; C., '97, § 1632.]

8398. Indemnity—contribution. When the property of a stockholder is taken for a corporate debt, he may maintain an action against the corporation for indemnity, and against any of the other stockholders for contribution. [C., '51, § 698; R., '60, § 1175; C., '73, § 1085; C., '97, § 1633.]

8399. Franchise sold on execution. The franchise of a corporation may be levied upon under execution and sold, but the corporation shall not become thereby dissolved, and no dissolution of the original corporation shall affect the franchise, and the purchaser becomes vested with all the powers of the corporation therefor. Such franchise shall be sold without appraisement. [C., '51, § 700; R., '60, § 1177; C., '73, § 1086; C., '97, § 1634.]

8400. Production of books. In proceedings by or against a corporation or a stockholder to charge his private property, or the dividends received by him, the court may, upon motion of either party, upon cause shown for that purpose, compel the officers or agents of the corporation to produce the books and records of the corporation. [C., '51, § 701; R., '60, § 1178; C., '73, § 1087; C., '97, § 1635.]

8401. Estoppel. No person or persons acting as a corporation shall be permitted to set up the want of a legal organization as a defense to an action against them as a corporation, nor shall any person sued on a contract made with such an acting corporation, or sued for an injury to its property, or a wrong done to its interests, be permitted to set up a want of such legal organization in his defense. [C., '51, § 704; R., '60, § 1181; C., '73, § 1089; C., '97, § 1636.]

8402. Dissolution — receivership. Courts of equity shall have full power, on good cause shown, to dissolve or close up the business of any corporation, and to appoint a receiver therefor, who shall be a resident of the state of Iowa. An action therefor may be instituted by the attorney general in the name of the state, reserving, however, to the stockholders and creditors all rights now possessed by them. [C., '97, § 1640.]

8403. Ownership of alien property. Corporations organized in any foreign country or corporations organized in this country, the stock of which is owned in whole or in part by nonresident aliens, shall have the same rights, powers and privileges with regard to the purchase and ownership of real estate in this state as are granted to nonresident aliens in section 10215. [C., '97, § 1641; S., '13, § 1641.]

8404. False statements or pretenses. Every director, officer or agent of any corporation or joint-stock association, who knowingly concurs in making, publishing or posting, either generally or privately to the stockholders or other persons, any written report, exhibit, or statement of its affairs or pecuniary condition, or book or notice containing any material statement which is false, or any untrue or wilfully or fraudulently exaggerated report, prospectus, account, statement of operations, values, business, profits, expenditures, or prospects, or any other paper or document intended to produce or give, or having a tendency to produce or give, the shares of stock in such corporation a greater value or a less apparent or market value than they really possess, is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not to exceed one year, or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed six months or a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars. [S., '13, § 1641-g.]

8405. Political contributions prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any corporation doing business within the state, or any officer, agent or representative thereof acting for such corporation, to give or contribute any money, property, labor or thing of value, directly or indirectly, to any member of any political committee, political party, or employee or representative thereof, or to any candidate for any public office or candidate for nomination to any public office or to the representative of such candidate, for campaign expenses or for any political purpose whatsoever, or to any person, partnership or corporation for the purpose of influencing or causing such person, partnership or corporation to influence any elector of the state to vote for or against any candidate for public office or for nomination for public office or to any public officer for the purpose of influencing his official action, but nothing in this section shall be construed to restrain or abridge the liberty of the press or prohibit the consideration and discussion therein of candidacies, nominations, public officers, or political questions. [S., '13, § 1641-h.]

8406. Solicitation from corporations. It shall be unlawful for any member of any political committee, political party, or employee or representative thereof, or candidate for any office or the representative of such candidate, to solicit, request or knowingly receive from any corporation or any officer, agent or representative thereof, any money, property or thing of value belonging to such corporation, for campaign expenses or for any political purpose whatsoever. [S., '13, § 1641-i.]

8407. Violations. Any person convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of the two preceding sections shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not less than six months or more than one year and, in the discretion of the court, by fine not exceeding ten hundred dollars. [S., '13, § 1641-k.]

CHAPTER 385

CAPITAL STOCK

8408. Indorsement of amount paid.
 8409. Effect of violation.
 8410. Penalties.
 8411. Certain corporations excepted.
 8412. Par value required.
 8413. Payment in property other than cash.

8408. Indorsement of amount paid. No certificate or shares of stock shall be issued, delivered or transferred by any corporation, officer or agent thereof, or by the owner of such certificate or shares without having indorsed on the face thereof what amount or portion of the par value has been paid to the corporation issuing the same, and whether such payment has been in money or property. [C., '97, § 1627; S., '13, § 1627; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 202, § 1.]

8409. Effect of violation. Any certificate of stock issued, delivered or transferred in violation of the preceding section when the corporation has not received payment therefor at par in money or property at a valuation approved by the executive council, shall be void, and the issuance, delivery or transfer of each certificate shall be considered a separate transaction. [40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 202, § 1.]

8410. Penalties. Any person violating the provisions of the two preceding sections, or knowingly making a false statement on such certificate, shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and shall stand committed to the county jail until such fine and costs are paid. [C., '97, § 1627; S., '13, § 1627; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 202, § 1.]

8411. Certain corporations excepted. The three preceding sections shall not apply to railway or quasi-public corporations organized before October 1, 1897. [S., '13, § 1627; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 202, § 2.]

8412. Par value required. No corporation organized under the laws of this state, except building and loan associations, shall issue any certificate of a share of capital stock, or any substitute therefor, until the corporation has received the par value thereof. [S., '13, § 1641-b; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 202, § 3.]

8413. Payment in property other than cash. If it is proposed to pay for said capital stock in property or in any other thing than money, the corporation proposing the same must, before issuing capital stock in any form, apply 8414. Executive council to fix amount.

 8415. Elements considered in fixing amount.
 8416. Certificate of issuance of stock.
 8417. Cancellation of stock—reimbursement.
 8418. Dissolution—distribution of assets.
 8419. Violations.

to the executive council of the state for leave so to do. Such application shall state the amount of capital stock proposed to be issued for a consideration other than money, and set forth specifically the property or other thing to be received in payment for such stock. [S., '13, § 1641-b; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 202, § 4.]

8414. Executive council to fix amount. The executive council shall make investigation, under such rules as it may prescribe, and ascertain the real value of the property or other thing which the corporation is to receive for the stock. It shall enter its finding, fixing the value at which the corporation may receive the same in payment for capital stock; and no corporation shall issue capital stock for the said property or thing in a greater amount than the value so fixed. [S., '13, § 1641-b; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 202, § 5.]

8415. Elements considered in fixing amount. For the purpose of encouraging the construction of new steam or electric railways, and manufacturing industries within this state, the labor performed in effecting the organization and promotion of such corporation, and the reasonable discount allowed or reasonable commission paid in negotiating and effecting the sale of bonds for the construction and equipment of such railroad or manufacturing plant, shall be taken into consideration by said council as elements of value in fixing the amount of capital stock that may be issued. [S., '13, § 1641-b; 40 Ex. G. A., H. F. 202, § 6.]

8416. Certificate of issuance of stock. It shall be the duty of every corporation to file a certificate under oath with the secretary of state, within ten days after the issuance of any capital stock, stating the date of issue, the amount issued, the sum received therefor, if payment be made in money, or the property or thing taken, if such be the method of payment. [S., '13, § 1641-c.]

8417. Cancellation of stock—reimbursement. The capital stock of any corporation issued in violation of the terms and provisions of the five preceding sections shall be void, and in a suit brought by the attorney general on behalf of the state in any court having jurisdiction, a decree of cancellation shall be entered; and if the corporation has received any money or thing of value for the said stock, such money or thing of value shall be returned to the individual, firm, company or corporation from whom it was received, and if represented by labor or other service of intangible nature, the value thereof shall constitute a claim against the corporation issuing stock in exchange therefor. [S., '13, § 1641-d.]

8418. Dissolution—distribution of assets. Any corporation violating the provisions of sections 8412 to 8416, inclusive, shall, upon the application of the attorney general, in behalf of the state, made to any court of competent jurisdiction, be dissolved, its affairs wound up, and its assets distributed among the stockholders other than those who have received the stock so unlawfully issued. [S., '13, § 1641-e.]

8419. Violations. Any officer, agent or representative of a corporation who violates any of the provisions of sections 8412 to 8416, inclusive, shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than two hundred dollars nor more than ten hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months. [S., '13, § 1641-f.]

PERMITS TO FOREIGN CORPORATIONS

- 8420. Application for permit.
- 8421. Details of application.
- 8422. Secretary of state to determine values.
- 8423. Fees.
- 8424. Increase of capital—blanks.
- 8425. Exemption.
- 8426. Issuance of permit—effect.

- 8427. Denial of right to sue.
- 8428. Alphabetical records required.
- 8429. Powers denied.
- 8430. Violations by corporation.
- 8431. Violations by officers.
- 8432. Status of corporation and officers.

8420. Application for permit. Any corporation for pecuniary profit organized under the laws of another state, or of any territory of the United States, or of any foreign country, which has transacted business in the state of Iowa since September 1, 1886, or desires hereafter to transact business in this state, and which has not a permit to do such business, shall file with the secretary of state a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, duly attested by the secretary of state or other state officer in whose office the original articles were filed, accompanied by a resolution of its board of directors or stockholders authorizing the filing thereof, and also authorizing service of process to be made upon any of its officers or agents in this state engaged in transacting its business, and requesting the issuance to such corporation of a permit to transact business in this state; said application to contain a stipulation that such permit shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter. [C., '97, § 1637; S., '13, § 1637; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 6, § 6.]

8421. Details of application. Said application shall also contain a statement subscribed and sworn to by at least two of the principal officers of the corporation, setting forth the following facts, to wit:

1. The total authorized capital of the corporation.

2. The total paid up capital of the corporation.

3. The total value of all assets of the corporation, including money and property other than money represented by capital, surplus, undivided profits, bonds, promissory notes, certificates of indebtedness or other designation, whether carried as money on hand or in bank, real estate or personal property of any description.

4. The total value of money and all other property the corporation has in use or held as investment in the state, at the time the statement is made (if any).

5. The total value of money and all other property the corporation proposes or expects to make use of in the state, during the ensuing year.

6. Certified copy of the resolution of the board of directors of said corporation giving name and address in Iowa of a resident agent on whom the service of original notice of civil suit in the courts of this state may be served. Failing which, or in the event such agent may not be found within the state, service of such process may then be made upon said corporation through the secretary of state by sending the original and two copies thereof to him, and on the original of which he shall accept service on behalf of said corporation, retain one copy for his files and send the other by registered mail to the corporation at the address of its home office as shown by the records in his office, which service shall have the same force and effect as if lawfully made upon said corporation within the county where such civil suit could be maintained against it under the laws of this state. [S., '13, § 1637; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 6, § 6.]

8422. Secretary of state to determine values. The secretary of state can make such independent and further investigation as to the property within this state owned by any such corporation as he may desire, and upon the true facts determine the value thereof, and fix the fee to be paid by such company. [S., '13, § 1637; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 6, § 6.]

8423. Fees. Before a permit is issued authorizing such corporation to transact business in the state, said corporation shall file with the secretary of state a certified copy of the articles of incorporation, with resolution and statement as previously set forth, and pay a filing fee of twenty-five dollars upon ten thousand dollars or less of money and property of such company actually within the state, and of one dollar for each one thousand dollars of such money or property within this state in excess of ten thousand dollars. [C., '97, § 1637; S., '13, § 1637; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 6, § 6.]

8424. Increase of capital—blanks. If from time to time the amount of money or other property in use in the state by said foreign corporation is increased, said corporation shall at the time of said increase, or at the time of making annual report to the secretary of state, in July of each year, file with the secretary of state a sworn statement showing the amount of such increase, and shall pay a filing fee thereon of one dollar for each one thousand dollars or fraction thereof of such increase. The secretary of state shall upon request furnish a blank upon which to make report of such increase of capital in use within the state. [C., '97, § 1637; S., '13, § 1637; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 6, § 6.]

8425. Exemption. Any corporation transacting business in this state prior to September 1, 1886, shall be exempt from the payment of the fees required under the provisions of the two preceding sections. [C., '97, § 1637; S., '13, § 1637; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 6, § 6.]

8426. Issuance of permit—effect. The secretary of state shall thereupon issue to such corporation, a permit, in such form as he may prescribe, for the transaction of the business of such corporation, and upon the receipt of such permit said corporation shall be permitted and authorized to conduct and carry on its business in this state. [C., '97, § 1637; S., '13, § 1637; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 6, § 6.]

8427. Denial of right to sue. No foreign stock corporation doing business in this state shall maintain any action in this state upon any contract made by it in this state unless prior to the making of such contract it shall have procured such permit. This prohibition shall also apply to any assignee of such foreign stock corporation and to any person claiming under such assignee of such foreign corporation or under either of them. [40 Ex. G. A., ch. 6, § 6.]

8428. Alphabetical records required. The secretary of state shall number consecutively all such certified copies heretofore and hereafter filed in his office and shall maintain a card index thereof alphabetically arranged and shall preserve the same and the originals of said certified copies as permanent records of his office. [40 Ex. G. A., ch. 6, § 6.]

8429. Powers denied. No foreign corporation which has not in good faith complied with the provisions of this chapter and taken out a permit shall possess the right to exercise the power of eminent domain, or exercise any of the rights and privileges conferred upon corporations, until it has so complied herewith and taken out such permit. [C., '97, § 1638.]

8430. Violations by corporation. Any foreign corporation that shall carry on its business in violation of the provisions of this chapter in the state of Iowa, by its officers, agents or otherwise, without having complied with the preceding sections of this chapter and taken out and having a valid permit, shall forfeit and pay to the state, for each and every day in which such business is transacted and carried on, the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered by suit in any court having jurisdiction. [C., '97, § 1639.]

8431. Violations by officers. Any agent, officer or employee who shall knowingly act or transact such business for such corporation, when it has no valid permit as provided herein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and for such offense shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not to exceed thirty days, or be punished by both such fine and imprisonment, and pay all costs of prosecution. [C., '97, § 1639.]

8432. Status of corporation and officers. Nothing contained in this chapter shall relieve any person, company, corporation, association or partnership from the performance of any duty or obligation now enjoined upon or required of it, or from the payment of any penalty or liability created by the statutes heretofore in force, and all foreign corporations, and the officers and agents thereof, doing business in this state shall be subject to all the liabilities, restrictions and duties that are or may be imposed upon corporations of like character organized under the general laws of this state, and shall have no other or greater powers. [C., '97, § 1639.]

FOREIGN PUBLIC UTILITY CORPORATIONS

8433. Capital stock and permit.
 8434. Holding companies.
 8435. Annual report—fee.

8436. Sale of capital stock.
 8437. Violations—stock void.
 8438. Dissolution—receiver.

8433. Capital stock and permit. Sections 8412 to 8416, inclusive, and 8420 to 8428, inclusive, are hereby made applicable to any foreign corporation which directly or indirectly owns, uses, operates, controls or is concerned in the operation of any public gasworks, electric light plant, heating plant, waterworks, interurban or street railway located within the state, or the carrying on of any gas, electric light, electric power, heating business, waterworks, interurban or street railway business within the state, or that owns or controls, directly or indirectly, any of the capital stock of any corporation which owns, uses, operates or is concerned in the operation of any public gasworks, electric light plant, electric power plant, heating plant, waterworks, interurban or street railway located within the state, or any foreign corporation that exercises any control in any way or in any manner over any of said works, plants, interurban or street railways or the business carried on by said works, plants, interurban or street railways by or through the ownership of the capital stock of any corporation or corporations or in any other manner whatsoever, and the ownership, operation or control of any such works, plants, interurban or street railways or the business carried on by any of such works or plants or the ownership or control of the capital stock in any corporation owning or operating any of such works, plants, interurban or street railways by any foreign corporation in violation of the provisions of this chapter is hereby declared to be unlawful. [S., '13, § 1641-l.]

8434. Holding companies. The provisions of this chapter are hereby made applicable to all corporations, including so-called "holding companies" which by or through the ownership of the capital stock in any other corporation or corporations or a series of corporations owning or controlling the capital stock of each other can or may exercise control over the capital stock of any corporation which owns, uses, operates or is concerned in the operation of any public gasworks, electric light plant, electric power plant, heating plant, waterworks, interurban or street railway located in the state, or the business carried on by such works or plants. [S., '13, § 1641-m.]

8435. Annual report—fee. All corporations subject to the provisions of this chapter are hereby required to pay the annual fee and to make the annual report in the form and manner and at the time as specified in chapter 388. [S., '13, § 1641-n.]

8436. Sale of capital stock. The provisions of this chapter are hereby made applicable to the sale of its own capital stock by any corporation subject to the provisions of this chapter, whether said capital stock has been heretofore issued by said corporation or not, including the sale of so-called "treasury stock" or stock of the corporation in the hands of a trustee or where the corporation participates in any way or manner in the benefits of said sales, and also to the sale of any of the obligations of any corporation subject to the provisions of this chapter, the payment of which is secured by the deposit or pledge of any of the capital stock of said corporation. [S., '13, § 1641-o.]

8437. Violations—stock void. Shares of capital stock of any corporation owned or controlled in violation of the provisions of this chapter shall be void and the holder thereof shall not be entitled to exercise the powers of a shareholder of said corporation or permitted to participate in or be entitled to any of the benefits accruing to shareholders of said corporation, and sections 8430 to 8432, inclusive, are hereby made applicable to violations of the provisions of this chapter; and courts and juries shall construe this chapter so as to prevent evasion and to accomplish the intents and purposes thereof. [S., '13, § 1641-p.]

8438. Dissolution—receiver. Courts of equity shall have full power to dissolve, close up or dispose of any business or property owned, operated or controlled in violation of the provisions of this chapter; to dissolve any corporation owning or controlling the capital stock of any other corporation in violation of the provisions of this chapter and to close up or dispose of the business or property of said corporation; and if the court finds that, in order to carry out the purposes of this chapter it is necessary so to do, it may dissolve the corporation issuing the stock which is owned in violation of the provisions of this chapter, close up the business of said corporation and dispose of its property, and the court may also appoint a receiver who shall be a resident of Iowa for any business or for any corporation which has violated the provisions thereof or of the corporation issuing the stock which is held in violation thereof. Any action to enforce the provisions of this chapter may be instituted by the attorney general in the name of the state of Iowa or by a citizen in the name of the state of Iowa at his own proper cost and expense, reserving, however, to the stockholders owning capital stock not held in violation of this chapter all rights possessed by them. [S., '13, § 1641-q.]

- 8454. Lien.
- 8455. Annual notice of requirements.
- 8456. Service of notice.
- 8457. List of complying corporations.
- 8458. Corporations exempted.

8439. Time of report—requirements. Any corporation, organized under the laws of this state or under the laws of any other state, territory or any foreign country, which has complied with the laws of this state relating to the organization of corporations and secured a certificate of incorporation or permit to transact business in this state, and any corporation that may hereafter organize and become incorporated under the laws of this state, and shall secure a certificate of incorporation or permit to transact business in this state, and any foreign corporation that may hereafter comply with the laws of this state relating to foreign corporations and secure a permit to transact business within this state, shall, between the first day of July and the first day of August of each year, make an annual report to the secretary of state, said report to be in such form as he may prescribe, upon a blank to be prepared by him for that purpose, and such report shall contain the following information:

1. Name and postoffice address of the corporation.
2. The amount of capital stock authorized.
3. The amount of capital stock actually issued and outstanding.
4. Par value of such stock, designating whether preferred or common stock, and the amount of each kind.
5. The names and postoffice addresses of its officers and directors and whether any change of place of business has been made during the year previous to making said report. [S., '13, § 1614-c.]

8440. Signature and oath—permit. The report required by the preceding section shall be signed and sworn to by an officer of the corporation and when filed with the secretary of state shall be accompanied by the fee required in section 8442, and also by an application for a permit to be issued to said corporation under the provisions of this chapter; said permit to be in such form as the secretary of state may prescribe and which shall be in force and effect for one year from and after the first day of July of the year in which it is issued, except that where the term of a corporate existence shall expire in less than a year from the first day of July aforesaid, then said permit shall be issued for such unexpired term only. [S., '13, § 1614-d.]

8441. Exemption. Any corporation organized under the laws of this state, and any foreign corporation filing a certified copy of its articles of incorporation after the first day of April of any year, shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter, for the period ending one year from the first day of July following, after which it shall be subject to all the provisions of this chapter. [S., '13, § 1614-d.]

8442. Annual fee. Every corporation whose corporate period has not expired, which has heretofore obtained, or may hereafter obtain, a certificate of incorporation or permit under the provisions of chapters 384 or 386, to transact business in this state as a corporation, whether the same be a domestic or a foreign corporation, shall pay to the secretary of state an annual fee in the sum of one dollar. [S., '13, § 1614-e.]

8443. Schedule of penalties. Any corporation organized under the laws of this state, and any foreign corporation authorized to do business in this state, which shall fail to make the report and pay the annual fee provided for in this chapter, and within the time required in section 8439, shall, in addition to the annual fee of one dollar required, incur the following penalties beginning with the month of September and dating from the first day thereof, to wit: For the month of September the sum of one dollar, for the month of October the sum of two dollars, for the month of November the sum of three dollars, for the month of December the sum of four dollars, and for each month thereafter the sum of five dollars. [S., '13, § 1614-f; 38 G. A., ch. 205, § 1.]

8444. Collection. If on the first day of January following, such corporation shall not have filed the annual report and paid the annual fee, together with all monthly penalties due at the time of filing said report and paying said fee, the secretary of state shall furnish to the attorney general a list of delinquent domestic corporations and he may direct the county attorney of the county in which the corporation has its principal place of business to bring suit for the collection of the fee and penalties then due, or may bring such action himself. [S., '13, § 1614-f; 38 G. A., ch. 205, § 1.]

8445. Dissolution — effect. Any domestic corporation may, prior to the first day of February of any subsequent year, escape the payment of fee and penalty by dissolving the corporation in the manner provided by section 8363 and filing with the secretary of state a proof of publication of notice of dissolution. [S., '13, § 1614-f; 38 G. A., ch. 205, § 1.]

8446. Forfeiture of right to do business. Any foreign corporation that shall fail to make the annual report and pay the annual fee and penalties that may be due shall thereby forfeit its right to do business within this state. [S., '13, § 1614-f.]

8447. Notice of delinquency—recommendation of attorney general. During the month of August of each year the secretary of state shall prepare a list of all delinquent corporations and file the same in his office, and on or before the first day of September he shall send by registered mail to each delinquent a notice of such delinquency and of the penalties provided in section 8443 and if the annual report required is not filed and the annual fee paid, together with penalties due, on or before the last day of January, on the first day of February following, notice of such delinquency will be filed with the attorney general, who may cause action to be brought for the collection of the fee and penalties due the state; or, at his discretion, the attorney general may recommend that the secretary of state cancel the name of any delinquent corporation from the list of live corporations in his office, and enter such cancellation on the proper records, and when so canceled by the secretary of state the corporate rights of any such corporation shall be forfeited and its corporate period terminated on the date such cancellation shall have been entered on the records of his office. [S., '13, § 1614-g; 38 G. A., ch. 205, § 2.]

8448. Notice of recommendations. The secretary of state shall forward to such corporation, a written notice of the recommendations of the attorney general, such notice to state that unless said corporation shall within sixty days of the date of such notice fully comply with the provisions of the preceding section by filing in the office of the secretary of state any report that may be due and pay all fees and penalties that have accrued, or, in lieu thereof file a proof of publication of notice of dissolution as required by section 8363, a declaration of forfeiture and cancellation will be entered on the records of his office. [38 G. A., ch. 205, § 2.]

8449. Service of notice. The notice herein provided for, when inclosed in a sealed envelope with legal postage affixed thereon, and addressed to the corporation, shall constitute a legal notice for the purpose of the preceding section. [38 G. A., ch. 205, § 2.]

8450. Forfeiture of right to do business. After such declaration and forfeiture shall have been entered by the secretary of state on the records of his office such corporation shall not be entitled to exercise the rights of a corporate body, except, it may be allowed a reasonable time to close up its business and wind up its affairs, but no new business shall be transacted. [38 G. A., ch. 205, § 2.]

8451. Compromise. Any corporation whose corporate rights shall have been canceled and forfeited in the manner provided herein, or any stockholders or creditor of such corporation may, however, make an application to the executive council in the manner provided in section 288 for a compromise of the claim of the state for the fee and penalties that may have accrued under the provisions of this chapter, and upon payment to the secretary of state the fee or fees that may have accrued, and such amount in addition thereto as penalties as may be fixed by the executive council, and also, upon filing such annual reports as may be delinquent, the secretary of state shall reinstate said corporation and the decree of cancellation and forfeiture previously entered shall be annulled and the corporation shall be entitled to continue to act as a corporation for the unexpired portion of its corporate period, as fixed by its articles of incorporation and the limitations prescribed by law, with the right of renewal under sections 8371 to 8375, inclusive. [38 G. A., ch. 205, § 2.]

8452. Effect of forfeiture. No corporation shall be permitted to waive any duty or obligation required of corporations or the payment of any just claim or claims by reason of such cancellation, forfeiture, and reinstatement as herein provided. [38 G. A., ch. 205, § 2.]

8453. Corporate rights canceled. On the first day of February following the date of the notice provided for in section 8447, all foreign corporations that have not complied with the provisions of this chapter shall forfeit the right to transact business in this state and a declaration of forfeiture and cancellation shall be entered upon the margin of the record of the certified copy of the articles of incorporation of such company in the office of the secretary of state or in such other record as the secretary of state may provide. [S., '13, § 1614-h; 38 G. A., ch. 205, § 3.]

8454. Lien. The fees and penalty provided for in this chapter shall be a prior lien on any property of the corporation against all persons, whether said property is in the possession of said corporation or otherwise. [38 G. A., ch. 205, § 5.]

8455. Annual notice of requirements. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state between the first day of May and the first day of July of each year to notify all corporations whose corporate period has not expired, or that have not dissolved according to law, that are subject to the provisions of this chapter, of the requirements therein made, inclosing therewith a blank form of report and application as provided. [S., '13, § 1614-k.]

8456. Service of notice. The mailing of said notice at Des Moines, Iowa, addressed to the corporation at its postoffice address as shown by the records of his office shall be deemed a full, complete and legal notice for the purpose of this chapter. [S., '13, § 1614-k.]

8457. List of complying corporations. After the first day of November and not later than the first day of January of each year, the secretary of state shall compile an alphabetical list of the domestic and foreign corporations that have complied with the provisions of this chapter, together with postoffice address, and mail a copy thereof to each county recorder in this state, who shall file the same in his office. [S., '13, § 1614-j.]

8458. Corporations exempted. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as imposing an annual fee or requiring a report from any corporation organized for religious, educational, scientific, or charitable purposes or other corporations not organized for pecuniary profit, or from any corporation engaged in the banking or loan and trust business, nor from insurance companies or associations who have paid or have been exempted from the taxes provided in sections 7021 to 7025, inclusive, and received a certificate of authority from the commissioner of insurance. [S., '13, § 1614-i; S. S., '15, § 1920-u4; 38 G. A., ch. 205, § 4; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 6, § 1.]

- 8482. Use of term “cooperative” restricted.
- 8483. Use of funds.
- 8484. Private property exempt.
- 8485. Limit of indebtedness.

8459. Plan authorized. Any number of persons, not less than five, may associate themselves as a cooperative association, society, company or exchange, for the purpose of conducting any agricultural, dairy, mercantile, mining, manufacturing or mechanical business on the cooperative plan. For the purposes of this chapter, the words “association”, “company”, “corporation”, “exchange”, “society”, or “union”, shall be construed to mean the same. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r1.]

8460. Articles of incorporation. They shall sign and acknowledge written articles which shall contain the name of said association and the names and residences of the persons forming the same. Such articles shall also contain a statement of the purposes of the association, and shall designate the city, town or village where its principal place of business shall be located. Such articles shall also state the amount of capital stock, the number of shares, and the par value of each. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r2.]

8461. Filing—certificate of incorporation. The original articles of incorporation of associations organized under this chapter, or a true copy thereof, verified as such by the affidavits of two of the signers thereof, shall be filed with the secretary of state. A like verified copy of such articles and certificates of the secretary of state, showing the date when such articles were filed with and accepted by the secretary of state, shall, within thirty days of such filing and acceptance, be filed and recorded with the recorder of deeds of the county in which the principal place of business of the corporation is to be located, and no corporation shall have legal existence until such articles be left for record. The recorder shall forthwith transmit to the secretary of state a certificate stating the time when such copy was recorded. Upon receipt of such certificate, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of incorporation. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r3.]

8462. Fee. For filing the articles of incorporation of associations organized under this chapter, there shall be paid to the secretary of state ten dollars, and for the filing of an amendment to such articles, five dollars; provided that when the capital stock of such corporation shall be less than five hundred dollars, such fee for filing either the articles of incorporation or amendments thereto shall be one dollar. For recording copy of such articles, the recorder of deeds shall receive the usual fee for recording. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r4.]

8463. Board of directors. Every such association shall be managed by a board of not less than five directors, who shall be elected by and from the stockholders at such time and for such term of office as the by-laws may prescribe, and shall hold office for the time for which elected and until their successors are elected and qualify. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r5.]

8464. Removal. A majority of the stockholders shall have the power at any regular or special stockholders' meeting, legally called, to remove any director or officer for cause, and fill the vacancy, and thereupon the director or officer so removed, shall cease to be a director or officer of said corporation. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r5.]

8465. Officers. The officers of every such association shall be a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary, and a treasurer, who shall be elected annually by the directors, and each of said officers must be a director of the association. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be combined, and when so combined the person filling the office shall be secretary-treasurer. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r5.]

8466. Amending articles. The association may amend its articles of incorporation by a majority vote of its stockholders at any regular stockholders' meeting, or at any special stockholders' meeting called for that purpose, on ten days' notice to all stockholders. Said power to amend shall include the power to increase or diminish the amount of capital stock and the number of shares; provided the amount of the capital stock shall not be diminished below the amount of paid-up capital at the time the amendment is adopted. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r6.]

8468. Powers. An association created under this chapter shall have power to conduct any agricultural, dairy, mercantile, mining, manufacturing or mechanical business, on the cooperative plan, and may buy, sell, and deal in the products of any other cooperative company heretofore or hereafter organized under the provisions hereof. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r7.]

8469. Ownership of shares and voting power limited. No stockholder in any such association shall own shares of a greater aggregate par value than five thousand dollars, except as hereinafter provided, nor shall he be entitled to more than one vote. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r8; 39 G. A., ch. 251.]

8470. Stock holding. At any regular meeting, or any regularly called special meeting, at which at least a majority of all its stockholders shall be present, or represented, an association organized under this chapter, may by a majority vote of the stockholders present or represented, subscribe for shares and invest its reserve fund, not to exceed twenty-five per cent of its capital, in the capital stock of any other cooperative association. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r9.]

8471. Issue of shares as payment. Whenever an association created under this chapter shall purchase the business of another association, person, or persons, it may pay for the same in whole or in part by issuing to the selling association or person shares of its capital stock to an amount, which at fair market value as determined by the executive council, would equal the fair market value of the business so purchased as determined by the executive council as in cases of other corporations. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r10; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 11, § 1.]

8472. May act as trustee. In case the cash value of such purchased business exceeds one thousand dollars, the directors of the association are authorized to hold the shares in excess of one thousand dollars in trust for the vendor, and dispose of the same to such persons, and within such times, as may be mutually satisfactory to the parties in interest, and to pay the proceeds thereof as currently received to the former owner of said business. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r11; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 312, § 1.]

8473. Paid-up stock—right to vote. Certificates of stock shall not be issued to any subscriber until fully paid, but the by-laws of the association may allow subscribers to vote as stockholders; provided part of the stock subscribed for has been paid in cash. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r11; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 312, § 1.]

8474. Voting by mail. At any regularly called general or special meeting of the stockholders, a written vote received by mail from any absent stockholder, and signed by him, may be read in such meeting, and shall be equivalent to a vote of each of the stockholders so signing; provided he has been previously notified in writing by the secretary of the exact motion or resolution upon which such vote is taken, and a copy of same is forwarded with and attached to the vote so mailed by him. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r12.]

8475. Reserve fund. The board of directors, subject to revision by the association at any general or special meeting, shall each year set aside not less than ten per cent of the net profits for a reserve fund, until an amount has accumulated therein equal to fifty per cent of the paid-up capital stock. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r13; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 11, § 2.]

8476. Educational fund — dividends. The board may each year, out of remaining net profits, subject to the approval of the association at any general or special meeting:

1. Provide an educational fund to be used in teaching cooperation, not exceeding five per cent of the net profits.

2. Declare and pay a dividend on the stock, not exceeding ten per cent. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r13; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 11, § 3.]

8477. Additional dividends. The remainder of said net profits shall be distributed by uniform dividends upon the amount of purchases of shareholders, and upon the wages and salaries of employees. In producing associations, such as creameries, canneries, elevators, factories, and the like, dividends shall be on raw material delivered instead of on goods purchased. In case the association is both a selling and a producing concern, the dividends may be on both raw material delivered and goods purchased by patrons. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r13; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 11, § 4.]

8478. When dividends distributed. The profits or net earnings of such associations shall be distributed to those entitled thereto, at such times as the by-laws shall prescribe, which shall be as often as once in twelve months. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r14.]

8479. Dissolution. If such associations, for five consecutive years, shall fail to declare a dividend upon the shares of its paid-up capital, five or more stockholders, by petition, setting forth such fact, may apply to the district court of the county wherein is situated its principal place of business in this state, for its dissolution. If, upon hearing, the allegations of the petition are found to be true, the court may adjudge a dissolution of the association. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r14.]

8480. Annual report. Every association organized under the terms of this chapter shall annually, on or before the first day of March of each year, make a report to the secretary of state; such report shall contain the name of the company, its principal place of business in this state, and generally a statement as to its business, showing total amount of business transacted, amount of capital stock subscribed for and paid in, number of stockholders, total expense of operation, amount of indebtedness for liabilities, and its profits and losses. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r15.]

8481. Chapter extended to former companies. All cooperative corporations, companies, or associations heretofore organized and doing business under prior statutes, or which have attempted to so organize and do business, shall have the benefit of all the provisions of this chapter and be bound thereby, on filing with the secretary of state a written declaration, signed and sworn to by the president and secretary, to the effect that said cooperative company or association has by a majority vote of its stockholders decided to accept the benefits of and to be bound by the provisions hereof. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r16.]

8482. Use of term "cooperative" restricted. No corporation or association organized after July 4, 1915, shall be entitled to use the term "cooperative" as part of its corporate or other business name or title, unless it has complied with the provisions of this chapter, and any corporation or association violating the provisions of this section may be enjoined from doing business under such name at the instance of any stockholder of any association legally organized under the provisions of this chapter. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r17.]

8483. Use of funds. None of the funds of any association organized under the provisions of this chapter shall be used in the payment of any promotion, as commissions, salaries, or expenses of any kind, character, or nature whatsoever. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r18.]

8484. Private property exempt. The private property of the stockholders shall be exempt from execution for the debts of the corporation. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r19.]

8485. Limit of indebtedness. The highest amount of indebtedness the corporation may contract shall not exceed two-thirds of its capital stock. [S. S., '15, § 1641-r20.]

| 8498. Conditions printed on certificates. | |
| 8499. Combinations of local associations. | |
| 8500. Powers of central associations. | |

8486. Organization. Any number of persons, not less than five, may associate themselves as a cooperative association, without capital stock, for the purpose of conducting any agricultural, live stock, horticultural, dairy, mercantile, mining, manufacturing or mechanical business, or the constructing and operating of telephone and high tension electric transmission lines on the cooperative plan and of acting as a cooperative selling agency for its members. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 11, § 5.]

8487. Terms defined—products of nonmember. For the purpose of this chapter, the words “association”, “exchange”, “society”, or “union”, shall be construed to mean the same and are defined to mean a corporate body composed of actual producers or consumers of the given commodity handled by the association, whose business is conducted for the mutual benefit of its members and not for the profit of stockholders, and control of which is vested in its members upon the basis of one vote to each member. No association shall handle the products of any nonmember. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 2.]

8488. Articles—personal liability. They shall sign and acknowledge written articles, which shall contain the name of the association and the names and residences of the incorporators. Such articles shall also contain a statement of the purposes of the association, the amount of the membership fee, and shall designate the city, town or village where its principal place of business shall be located, and the manner in which such articles may be amended, and any limitation which the members propose to place upon their personal liability for the debts of the association. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 3.]

8489. Filing—certificate of incorporation. The original articles of incorporation shall be filed for record with the secretary of state. Upon approval of such articles, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of incorporation. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 4.]

8490. Fees. For filing the articles of incorporation of associations organized under this chapter, there shall be paid to the secretary of state five dollars, and for the filing of an amendment to such articles, two dollars. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 5.]

8491. Amendments. Within thirty days after the adoption of any amendment to its articles of incorporation, the association shall cause a copy of such amendment to be recorded in the office of the secretary of state. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 8.]

8492. Board of directors—removals. Every such association shall be managed by a board of not less than five directors, who shall be elected by and from the members at such time and for such term of office as the articles may prescribe. They shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualify; but a majority of the members shall have the power at any regular or special meeting of the association legally called, to remove any director or officer for cause, and fill the vacancy. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 6.]

8493. Officers. The officers of every such association shall be a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary, and treasurer, who shall be elected annually by the directors, from amongst their own number. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be held by the same person. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 7.]

8494. Admission of members. Under the terms and conditions prescribed in its by-laws, an association may admit as members persons engaged in the production of the products, or in the use or consumption of the supplies, to be handled by or through the association, including the lessors and landlords of lands used for the production of such products, who receive as rent part of the crop raised on the leased premises. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 9.]

8495. Membership certificates. Membership certificates in due form shall be issued to all charter members and to such others as shall subsequently be admitted by the association in accordance with its articles and by-laws. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 9.]

8496. Certificates nontransferable—surrender. No such certificate shall be transferable by the member to any other person, but shall be surrendered to the association in case of his voluntary withdrawal. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 9.]

8497. Automatic cancellation — revocation. It shall become void upon his death, or may be revoked by the directors upon proof duly made that he has ceased to be a producer of products handled by or through the association, in the case of producing or selling associations or has ceased to be the user of products handled by or through the association in case of stores and supply associations, or for failure to observe its by-laws or his contractual obligations to it. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 9.]

8498. Conditions printed on certificates. The conditions of membership specified in the two preceding sections shall be printed upon the face of every membership certificate. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 9.]

8499. Combinations of local associations. Likewise, associations may be formed under this chapter whose membership shall consist of other associations formed under the provisions of this chapter, the purpose being to federate local associations into central cooperative associations for the more economical and efficient performance of their marketing or other operations. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 9.]

8500. Powers of central associations. Such central associations may enter into contracts, agreements, and arrangements with their member associations. Each member association in such federated associations shall have an official representative chosen by its own board of directors, who shall cast one vote and no more at all business meetings of the federated association. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 9.]

8501. Voting power. Each member of an association shall be entitled to one vote and no more upon all questions affecting the control and management of the affairs of the association and in the selection of its board of directors. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 10.]

tion, provided that the secretary shall notify all members in writing of the exact motion or resolution upon which such vote is to be taken, and a copy of same shall be forwarded with and attached to the vote so mailed by the member. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 10.]

8503. Power to compel sales and purchases—liquidated damages. The association may require members to sell all or a stipulated part of their specifically enumerated products exclusively through the association or to buy specifically enumerated supplies exclusively through the association, but in such case, a reasonable period during each year shall be specified during which any member, by giving notice in prescribed form, may be released from such obligation thereafter. Where it is desired to enter into the exclusive arrangement provided in this section, the association shall execute a contract with each such member setting forth what goods or wares are to be handled and upon what terms. In order to protect itself in the necessary outlay, which it may make for the maintenance of its services, the association may stipulate that some regular charge shall be paid by the member for each unit of goods covered by such contract whether actually handled by the association or not, and in order to reimburse the association for any loss or damage which it or its members may sustain through the member's failure to deliver his products to or to procure his supplies from the association.

In case it is difficult or impracticable to determine the actual amount of damage suffered by the association or its members through such failure to comply with the terms of such a contract, the association and the member may agree upon a sum to be paid as liquidated damages for the breach of his contract, said amount to be stated in the contract. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 11.]

8504. Financial power. Every association may borrow money necessary for the conduct of its business, and may issue notes, bonds, or debentures therefor, and may give security in the form of mortgage or otherwise for the repayment thereof. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 12.]

8505. Personal liability. Members of such association may limit their personal liability to the amount of their membership fee as provided in their articles of incorporation. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 13.]

8506. Cost of service—dues, etc. Associations formed under this chapter shall perform services for their members on a basis of the lowest practicable cost, and may provide for meeting the cost thereof through dues, assessments, or service charges, which shall be prescribed in the by-laws. Such charges shall be set high enough to provide a margin of safety above current operating costs and fixed charges upon borrowed capital. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 14.]

8507. Reserve and educational funds—patronage dividends. Out of any surplus remaining in any given year, the directors shall each year set aside not less than ten per cent of such savings for the accumulation of a reserve fund until such reserve shall equal at least forty per cent of the invested capital of the association, not less than one per cent nor more than five per cent for a permanent educational fund from which expenditures shall be made annually at the discretion of the directors for the purpose of teaching cooperation, and the remainder to be returned to the members as a patronage dividend prorated on a uniform basis to each member upon the value of business done by him through the association. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 14.]

8508. Annual report—penalty. Every association organized under the terms of this chapter shall annually, on or before the first day of March of each year, make a report to the secretary of state; such report shall contain the name of the company, its principal place of business in this state, and generally a statement as to its business, showing total amount of business transacted, number of members, total expense of operation, amount of indebtedness, and its profits or losses. Such reports shall be for the calendar or fiscal year immediately preceding the said first day of March, provided that a calendar or fiscal year has been completed upon said date.

Failure to comply with this section shall subject the delinquent association to a penalty of ten dollars. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 15; 40 G. A., ch. 166.]

8509. Chapter extended to former associations. All corporations, or associations heretofore organized and doing business under prior statutes, or which have attempted so to organize and do business cooperatively, shall have the benefit of all the provisions of this chapter and be bound thereby, on filing with the secretary of state a written declaration signed and sworn to by the president and secretary, to the effect that said company or association has, by a majority vote of its stockholders, decided to accept the benefits of and to be bound by the provisions of this chapter. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 16.]

8510. Use of term “cooperative”—injunction. No corporation or association hereafter organized shall be entitled to use the term “cooperative” as part of its corporate or other business name or title, unless it has complied with the provisions of this chapter or of chapter 389, and any corporation or association violating the provisions of this chapter may be enjoined from doing business under such name at the instance of any stockholder of any association legally organized under the provisions of this chapter. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 17.]

8511. Use of funds—promotion expenses. None of the funds of any association shall be used for purposes of any promotion as commissions, salaries, or expenses of any kind, character, or nature whatsoever, except that in the case of associations operating in more than one county, if the par value of securities to be sold is in excess of one hundred thousand dollars, a sum not to exceed five per cent of the par value of bonds or debentures sold may be used by committees elected by the members for selling or soliciting for the sale of such securities or for hiring responsible salaried solicitors for that purpose. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 18.]

8512. Duration of incorporation—renewal. Associations formed under the provisions of this chapter shall continue for a period of twenty-five years, unless earlier dissolved by order of its members or by other processes as by law provided, and the term of its existence may be renewed by the filing of new articles of association, as by law provided. [39 G. A., ch. 122, § 19.]

CHAPTER 391

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

8513. Authorization.

8514. Liquidated damages.

8513. Authorization. Persons engaged in the conduct of any agricultural, horticultural, dairy, live stock, mercantile, mining, or manufacturing business in the manner provided in section 8515 may act together in associations, corporate or otherwise, for the purpose of collectively producing, processing, preparing for market, handling and marketing the products of their members. Such persons may organize and operate such associations, and such associations may make the necessary contracts and agreements to effect that purpose, any law to the contrary notwithstanding. [39 G. A., ch. 176, § 1.]

8515. Applicability of chapter.

8516. Rule of interpretation.

8514. Liquidated damages. Contracts and agreements entered into between associations and the members thereof may, where damages that may be sustained for the breach thereof are difficult of ascertainment, provide for such penalties as may be agreed upon, which penalties, if the parties thereto so agree, shall be construed as liquidated damages and be enforceable in the full amount thereof both at law and in equity. [39 G. A., ch. 176, § 2.]

8515. Applicability of chapter. The provisions of this chapter shall apply:

1. To corporations organized under the provisions of chapter 389.

2. To other incorporated associations or companies organized without capital stock, not for pecuniary profit and for the mutual benefit of their members. [39 G. A., ch. 176, § 3.]

8516. Rule of interpretation. Should any section of this chapter or any part thereof be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional, such section or part thereof shall be deemed to be independent of and unrelated to any other section or part of this chapter, and such decision shall affect only the specific provision which it is held offends against the constitution, and shall not be held to be an inducement to the passage of any other section or provision of this chapter. [39 G. A., ch. 176, § 4.]

CHAPTER 392

SALE OF STOCK ON INSTALLMENT PLAN

- 8517. Terms defined.
- 8518. Certificate—how obtained.
- 8519. Council to approve.
- 8520. Annual report.

8517. Terms defined. The term “association” when used in this chapter shall mean any person, firm, company, partnership, association or corporation, other than building and loan associations and insurance companies and associations, which issue stocks on the partial payment or installment plan. The term “issue” shall mean issue, sell, place, engage in or otherwise dispose of or handle. The term “stock” shall mean certificates, memberships, shares, bonds, contracts, debentures, stocks, tontine contracts, or other investment securities or agreements of any kind or character issued upon the partial payment or installment plan. [S., '13, § 1920-k.]

8518. Certificate—how obtained. No association contemplated by this chapter shall issue any stock until it shall have procured from the auditor of state a certificate of authority authorizing it to engage in such business. To procure such certificate of authority it shall be necessary for such association to file with the auditor of state a statement, under oath, showing the name and location of such association, the name and postoffice address of its officers, the date of organization, and if incorporated a copy of its articles of incorporation, also, a copy of its by-laws or rules by which it is to be governed, the form of its certificates, stocks or contracts, all printed matter issued by it, together with a detailed statement of its financial condition and such other information concerning its affairs or plan of business as the auditor of state may require. The same shall be, by the auditor of state laid before the executive council for consideration. [S., '13, § 1920-l.]

8519. Council to approve. If the executive council is satisfied that the business is not in violation of law or of public policy, and is safe, reliable and entitled to public confidence, and if it shall approve the form of certificate of stock or contract, it shall direct the auditor of state to issue to such association a certificate of authority authorizing it to transact business within this state until the first day of March next succeeding the date of such authorization. [S., '13, § 1920-m.]

- 8521. Bonds or securities deposited.

8520. Annual report. During the month of January of each year, every association transacting the business contemplated by this chapter, shall file with the auditor of state a statement showing its condition on the thirty-first day of December preceding. Said statement shall be in such form as shall be prescribed by the auditor of state. If it appears from such statement that such association is doing a safe business and is solvent, the auditor of state may renew its certificate of authority authorizing it to transact business within the state until the first day of March of the following year. If at any time it shall appear that such association is doing an unsafe business or is insolvent the auditor of state may revoke its certificate of authority authorizing it to transact business within the state until the first day of March of the following year. If at any time it shall appear that such association is doing an unsafe business or is insolvent the auditor of state may revoke its certificate of authority to transact business and having revoked the certificate of authority of an association organized under the laws of this state, he shall report his action to the attorney general who shall at once apply to the district court or a judge thereof for the appointment of a receiver to close up the affairs of such association, and an injunction may issue in the same proceeding enjoining and restraining the association from transacting business in this state. [S., '13, § 1920-o.]

8521. Bonds or securities deposited. Before any association shall be authorized to transact business contemplated by this chapter, it shall deposit with the auditor of state a bond approved by the executive council, guaranteeing the faithful performance of all contracts entered into by such association or securities of the kind designated in subdivisions 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 of section 8737, or such other securities as shall be approved by the executive council in the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars, which amount shall remain in possession of the auditor of state until the end of the calendar year in which the association shall first be authorized to transact business. At the end of such calendar year, such association shall deposit with the auditor of state securities of the kind above provided in an amount equal to all its liabilities to persons residing within this state and shall keep such deposit at all times equal to such liability; provided that at no time shall such deposit be reduced below twenty-five thousand dollars except at such time as such association shall be by law closing out its business and its liabilities shall have been reduced below twenty-five thousand dollars. [S., '13, § 1920-p.]

8522. Unauthorized companies—penalty. Any member or representative of any association who shall attempt to issue or sell any stock as contemplated by this chapter or to transact any business whatsoever in the name of or on behalf of such association, not authorized to do business within this state, or which has failed or refused to comply with the provisions of this chapter, or has violated any of its provisions shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year, or by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than ten hundred dollars or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court. [S., '13, § 1920-q.]

8524. Examination. Every such association doing business within this state, shall be subject to examination in the same manner as is provided for the examination of insurance companies and shall pay the same fees and costs therefor, and shall so far as is consistent with the plan of business, be subject to the same restrictions and regulations. Such examinations shall be full and complete and in making the same the auditor of state or examiner shall have full access to and may demand the production of all books, securities, papers, moneys, etc., of the association under examination, and may administer oaths, summon and compel the attendance and testimony of any persons connected with such association. If upon such examination, it shall appear that such association does not conduct its business in accordance with law, or if it permits forfeiture of payments by persons holding its stock, after three years from the issuance of said stock or provides for the payment of its expenses other than from earnings, or that any profits, advantage or compensation of any form or description is given to any member or investor over any other member or investor of the same class, or if beneficiaries are selected or determined or advantages given one over another by any form of chance, lottery, or hazard, or if certificates of stock are by their terms or by any other provision to be redeemed in numerical order or by any arbitrary order or precedence, without reference to the amount previously paid thereon by the holder thereof, or that the affairs are in an unsound condition, or if such association refuses such examination to be made, the auditor of state may revoke its certificate of authority to do business in this state, and having revoked the certificate of authority of an association organized under the laws of this state, he shall report the same to the attorney general, who shall proceed as provided in section 8520. [S., '13, § 1920-s.]

8525. Permit to sell stock. Every person, firm, association, company, or corporation that shall, either directly or through representatives or agents, sell, offer, or negotiate for sale, within this state, any stocks, certificates, bonds, debentures, certificates of participation, certificates of shares or interest, preorganization certificates and subscriptions, memberships, profit sharing certificates, investments, contracts, unit interests in property, estates, shares of participation, common law trust agreements or real estate, oil, gas or mineral leases, provided, however, that this shall not apply in whole or in part to mineral leases in Iowa lands; and notes or other evidences of indebtedness, and evidence of, title to, interest in or liens upon any or all of the property or profits of an individual or company, hereinafter referred to as "stocks, bonds, or other securities", shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter, except as herein otherwise provided; and shall, before selling or offering for sale any such securities in this state, be required to secure a permit from the secretary of state. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u; 39 G. A., ch. 189, § 1; 40 G. A., ch. 167.]

8526. Exceptions. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to:

1. Securities of this state, or of the United States, or of any state or territory thereof, or of any foreign government, or of any district, county, township, city, town, or other public taxing subdivision of any state or territory of the United States, including all drainage, county, school, or other municipal bonds of this state.

2. Conveyance of real estate located in Iowa; also conveyance of real estate located elsewhere when the transaction does not involve an agreement to develop on said real estate or in connection therewith mines, oil wells, fruit trees, nut producing trees or other projects of a speculative nature which the parties contemplate as a substantial element of value in the transaction.

3. Evidences of indebtedness executed by a corporation and secured by a mortgage on real estate, which mortgage may also cover tangible property connected therewith, when the total amount of such indebtedness does not exceed the fair value of the property pledged; also evidences of indebtedness (not issued by a corporation) secured by bona fide mortgage on personal property in this state; also commercial paper or acceptances or negotiable promissory notes.

4. The stock, obligations and other securities issued by any national bank, or of any bank, trust company or building and loan association organized under the laws of any state, subject to examination and supervision of the proper authorities thereof; and the stock and obligations of any insurance company when such insurance company is legally authorized to transact business in this state by the insurance department thereof.

5. Securities of any corporation organized under the laws of this state whose authorized capital stock, when not sold above par, added to its other outstanding securities, shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars; but this exemption shall apply only to the securities issued by such company.

6. Securities sold or offered for sale, at any judicial, executor's or administrator's sale, or at any sale by a receiver or trustee in insolvency or bankruptcy, whether at a public or private sale; also the securities of one acting in a judiciary capacity under an order of court or of a trustee of a trust created by or declared in a will or judicial writ, or order, decree or judgment, who lawfully disposes of securities embraced within such trust.

7. Securities issued by any corporation organized not for pecuniary profit or organized exclusively for educational, benevolent, fraternal, charitable, or reformatory purposes.

8. Securities issued as a stock dividend when such issue has been approved by the executive council; also securities authorized by the executive council under the provisions of chapter 392.

9. Securities of corporations operating railroads, public or quasi-public utilities, the issue of whose securities is regulated by the interstate commerce commission or by a railroad or public service commission, board or similar body of any state or territory of the United States or of any province of the dominion of Canada, and securities of all other corporations operating public utilities in this state.

10. Bonds, debentures, collateral trust certificates or other similar instruments evidencing title to, interest in, or lien upon property, issued or executed in good faith by any company where the debt secured does not exceed sixty per cent of the value of the property pledged as security.

11. Securities of an issuer, organized under the laws of this state, where the disposal, in good faith and not for the purpose of avoiding the provisions of this chapter, is made for the sole account of the issuer, without commission and at a total organization therefrom, plus five hundred dollars; provided that the president and secretary, or the incorporators if done before organization, of the issuer shall, prior to such disposal, file with the secretary a written statement setting forth the existence of all facts and that such issuer is formed for the purpose of transacting business within the state. The secretary, however, shall be given the right at any time to inquire into the affairs of companies claiming such exemption, and to examine their books to ascertain whether the securities named have been disposed of in the manner stated. Also the securities of a syndicate unincorporated, formed by residents of this state, whose members shall not exceed twenty-five in number, and whose interest or units are not divided into greater number than twenty-five provided no solicitation is made to the public for the disposal of said interest or units. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u1; 39 G. A., ch. 189, §§ 2, 7.]

8527. Permit—fee—papers and documents filed. Before any person, firm, association, company or corporation, subject to the provisions of this chapter, shall secure a permit from the secretary of state to sell, offer or negotiate for sale any stocks, bonds or other securities, in this state, such person, firm, association, company or corporation shall pay to the secretary of state a filing fee of two dollars and an annual inspection fee of twenty dollars and file in the office of said secretary of state the following papers and documents, to wit:

1. A copy of its constitution and by-laws, or articles of copartnership or association.

2. An itemized statement of its actual financial condition and the amount of its properties and liabilities.

3. A statement showing in full detail the plan upon which it proposes to transact business.

4. A copy of all bonds or other securities which it proposes to make with or sell to its contributors, including the price at which such stocks, bonds or other securities are to be sold or offered for sale.

5. Sample copies of all literature or advertising matter used or to be used by such person, firm, association, company or corporation.

6. A statement showing the name and location of its principal office of business and the names and addresses of its officers and directors.

7. If said person, firm, association, company or corporation is chartered to do business under the laws of any other state or territory than the state of Iowa, it shall file a copy of its charter or other instrument or documents authorizing it to do business in said state or territory, which copy shall bear the certificate of the secretary of state or other officer of such state having custody of such records to the effect that the same is a correct, true and complete copy of said charter or other instrument, together with the seal of such officer attached thereto, if such officer is possessed of a seal. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u2.]

8528. Verification. All of the above described papers shall be verified by the oath of the person receiving the permit, if the business is carried on by an individual, or by the oath of a member of a copartnership or association, or by the president and secretary of a corporation, if the concern be incorporated. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u2.]

necessary in order to prevent fraud in the sale of any stocks, bonds or other securities in this state, require of such person, firm, association or corporation, or any of the officers, agents or representatives thereof, additional information in the form of reports or otherwise, duly verified. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u2.]

8530. Part payment of fee. If any person, firm, association, company or corporation, subject to the provisions of this chapter, desires to transact business in this state and does not desire to pay the annual inspection fee of twenty dollars by reason of the limited amount of business to be transacted, or otherwise, said person, firm, association, company or corporation shall have the option of paying to the secretary of state the filing fee of two dollars incident to the cost of filing and recording said papers and documents and an inspection fee of one-tenth of one per cent upon the face value of the securities for the sale of which application is made to the secretary of state. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u3.]

8531. Limitation on fee. Any person, firm, association, company or corporation, paying the inspection fee of one-tenth of one per cent upon the face value of the securities which it is proposed to sell within the state shall not be required to pay in the aggregate more than twenty dollars inspection fees to the said secretary of state in any one year. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u3.]

8532. Annual report. The secretary of state shall keep an accurate account of all moneys received from each person, firm, association, company or corporation as filing and inspection fees under the provisions of this chapter, and a record of all money expended in the enforcement of the provisions thereof, and at the end of the biennial period a report shall be made to the governor and legislature showing the amount of fees received and the amount of the money expended in the administration of this chapter. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u4.]

8533. Reduction of fees. If from said report it shall appear that the inspection fees are in substantial excess of the cost of inspection and all expenses incidental thereto, the succeeding legislature shall then reduce the amount of said inspection fees in proportion to the amount of such excess collected hereunder. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u4.]

8534. Secretary of state as process agent. Every nonresident person, firm, association, company or corporation subject to the provisions of this chapter shall, before receiving a certificate as provided for in section 8525, file in the office of the secretary of state an agreement in writing signed by the person receiving the permit, if the business is to be carried on by an individual, and by the signature of a member of a copartnership or company, if it be a copartnership or company, and by the signatures of the president and secretary of the incorporated or unincorporated company or association, if it be a company or association, authenticated by the seal of said company, if possessed of a seal, and shall be accompanied by a duly certified copy of the order or resolution of the board of directors, trustees or managers of the corporation, authorizing the said president and secretary to execute the same; that thereafter service of notice of any action or process of any kind against such nonresident person, firm, association, company or corporation, growing out of the transaction of any business of said person, firm, association, company or corporation in this state may be made on the secretary of state of the state of Iowa, and when so made, such service of notice or process of any kind shall be valid, binding and effective for all purposes as if served upon said nonresident person, firm, association, company or corporation according to the laws of this or any other state, and waiving all claims or right to claim error by reason of such acknowledgment of service. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u5.]

8535. Service on said secretary. Such notice or process, with a copy thereof, shall be mailed to the secretary of state at Des Moines, Iowa, in a registered letter addressed to him by his official title, and he shall immediately upon its receipt acknowledge service thereon on behalf of the nonresident person, firm, association, company or corporation to which the same is directed by writing thereon, giving the date thereof, and shall immediately return such notice or process in a registered letter to the clerk of the court in which the suit is pending, addressed to him by his official title, and shall also forthwith mail such copy, with a copy of his acknowledgment of service written thereon, in a registered letter addressed to each person, firm, association or corporation who shall be named or designated as defendant in such written instrument. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u5.]

8536. Examination—refusing or granting permit. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to examine the statements and documents so filed in his office and secure such further information as he deems necessary, if any, and if from such examination of all papers and documents submitted to him and from such other information as he may obtain, he finds that the sale within this state of stocks, bonds or other securities by any such person, firm, company, association or corporation would work a fraud upon the purchasers thereof, then and in that event he shall refuse to grant such permit; otherwise he shall grant such permit. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u6.]

8537. Change in business plan. Every person, firm, association, company or corporation having submitted to said secretary of state a detailed plan of its business, together with such other information required by sections 8527 to 8529, inclusive, and thereafter desiring to change its articles of association or incorporation or its proposed plan of business, or its proposed contract, the character of its securities or method of advertisement, shall, before such change is made, submit the same to the secretary of state, in writing, showing in full detail the new plan of transacting business, together with all changes made either in articles of association or corporation, by-laws, plan of business, proposed contract, or in the character of securities. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u7.]

8538. Approval or disapproval. If the secretary of state after examination shall find that the proposed change will not work a fraud upon the purchasers of its stocks, bonds or other securities in this state, then he shall approve the same; otherwise he shall refuse to approve such change or amendment and require such a modification thereof as may be necessary to protect the people of this state against fraud. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u7.]

8539. Cancellation of permit. If and in the event such person, firm, association, company or corporation submitting such proposed change shall refuse to so modify the plan of his business, including the character of securities sold, as to conform to the requirements of the secretary of state and to the end that no fraud may be perpetrated upon the purchasers of the stocks, bonds or other securities sold in this state, then said secretary of state shall be required and he is hereby directed to cancel the permit of said person, firm, association, company or corporation, and said person, firm, association, company or corporation shall be denied the right to transact business in this state, unless and until said person, firm, association, company or corporation shall so modify and change its business that the transaction of business in this state will not work a fraud upon the purchasers thereof. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u7.]

8540. General power to refuse or cancel. The secretary of state under sections 8536 to 8539, inclusive, 8552, and 8567 to 8572, inclusive, shall have the right to refuse or cancel a permit where he finds from his examination that the applicant is not of good business repute, or that the proposed plan of business, or of selling the security is unfair, unjust, or inequitable, or finds that the securities the dealer, issuer, agent or broker proposes to sell are likely to work a fraud upon the purchaser thereof, such refusal, or cancellation, to be subject to the same right of appeal as herein provided in other cases. [39 G. A., ch. 189, § 6].

8541. Annual financial statement. Every person, firm, association, company or corporation doing business within this state pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall, on or before December thirty-first of each year, or at such time as they make their annual statement to their directors, but not less than once each year, file with the secretary of state a statement properly verified by the officers of said company, if a company or corporation, or by a member of a partnership, if a firm or copartnership, or by the owner of said business, if the same is transacted by an individual, which statement shall set forth its financial condition, the amount of its assets and liabilities and such other information concerning its financial affairs or its plan of business, including the character of securities sold, as the secretary of state may require in order to determine whether said person, firm, association, company or corporation is doing a legitimate and honest business within this state. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u8.]

8542. Confidential nature of report. Said statement shall be for the information of the secretary of state, the attorney general or any public officer who may be interested in an official way in receiving said information and shall not be open to public inspection, nor shall it be published or used for private purposes, but may be used in an official, legitimate way if need be. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u8.]

8543. Annual fee. Said annual statement shall be accompanied by an annual inspection fee of twenty dollars for the year next succeeding; provided, however, that any person not desiring to pay the annual inspection fee of twenty dollars may pay the inspection fee of one-tenth of one per cent on the amount of securities proposed to be sold as provided under the terms and conditions set forth in sections 8527, 8530, and 8531. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u8.]

8544. Violations—penalty. Any person, firm, association, company or corporation failing to file said statement for the preceding year, or failing to pay the inspection fee as provided by this chapter, shall, in addition to the criminal punishment otherwise imposed in this chapter, be liable to a penalty of ten dollars per day for each and every day which said person, firm, association, company or corporation transacts business in this state in violation of the provisions hereof. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u9.]

8545. Collection of penalty—accounting. Said penalty may be collected by a suit in the name of the state of Iowa upon the relation of the attorney general, instituted in any court of competent jurisdiction, and when collected shall be paid over to the secretary of state who shall cover the same into the general revenues of the state. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u9.]

8546. Accounts. The general accounts of every person, firm, association, company or corporation doing business in this state pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be kept in a businesslike and intelligent manner and in sufficient detail that the secretary of state can ascertain at any time upon inspection and examination its financial condition. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u10.]

8547. Opportunity to inspect. Any person, firm, association, company or corporation engaged in the business of buying or selling stocks, bonds or other securities and subject to the provisions of this chapter, shall keep its books of account during business hours, except Sundays and legal holidays, open to its members, stockholders, and investors and to the secretary of state or his duly authorized agents or representatives. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u10.]

8548. Right to inspect. The said secretary of state shall have the right to make an examination and inspection of the books, accounts and financial condition of any such person, firm, association, company or corporation engaged in the business of dealing in stocks, bonds and other securities pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u10.]

8549. Extent of right. The right, powers, and privileges of the secretary of state in connection with such examination shall be the same as is now provided with reference to examination of state and savings banks. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u10.]

8550. Inspection fee and expenses. Such person, firm, association, company or corporation so examined shall pay a fee to the secretary of state for each of such examinations not to exceed ten dollars per day, or fraction thereof, spent by said secretary of state or his duly authorized representative while absent from the seat of government in making such examination, and shall further pay the actual traveling and hotel expenses of said examiner. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u10; 39 G. A., ch. 189, § 3.]

8551. Refusal to pay. Upon failure or refusal of any person, firm, association, company or corporation to pay the fees herein required, upon the demand of the secretary of state or his duly authorized representative, the secretary of state may suspend its right to sell, offer or negotiate for sale any of its stocks, bonds or other securities in this state until such fee or fees are paid. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u10.]

8552. Fraud—cancellation of permit. If from such examination it shall appear that said person, firm, association, company or corporation is doing an illegitimate and fraudulent business in this state, that its plan of business is fraudulent or that the sale of its stocks, bonds, or other securities would work a fraud upon the purchasers in this state, said secretary of state shall have the right to cancel the certificate of such person, firm, association, company or corporation, and deny it the right to further transact business in this state until it changes its plan of business, including the character of its securities, so that the citizens and residents of this state or others dealing with it therein shall not be defrauded thereby. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u11.]

8553. Fees—account kept. All fees herein provided for shall be collected by the secretary of state and by him covered into the state treasury on the first secular day of each month; and the secretary of state shall keep a record of the receipts and expenditures incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u12; 39 G. A., ch. 209, § 3.]

8554. Stocks held by bona fide owners. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as to prohibit a bona fide owner of any stocks, bonds or other securities from selling, exchanging or otherwise disposing of the same when not made in the course of continuing or repeated transactions of a similar nature, or when said securities, including negotiable promissory notes, have been issued or given for goods, wares or merchandise purchased or dealt in by the issuer in the ordinary course of his business, or when sold, exchanged or otherwise disposed of to a bank subject to governmental supervision, trust company, insurance company, building and loan association, or to a person who has duly received a permit to transact business within this state pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, provided that the same are sold by said owner in good faith and not for the purpose of evading the provisions of this chapter. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u13.]

8555. Other securities—permit to sell. The secretary of state may authorize in writing any such bona fide owner of any stocks, bonds, or other securities to sell in this state any other securities not included in the provisions set forth in the preceding section; provided said securities were acquired and held by the owner in good faith and not for the purpose of evading the provisions of this chapter. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u13.]

8557. Bond—inspection fee. The said secretary of state may, if he have reason to believe said securities will work a fraud upon the purchasers thereof, require the owner to file in his office a bond in the penal sum of not to exceed five thousand dollars running to the state of Iowa, conditioned that said owner thereof will not in the sale and disposition of said securities, knowingly make any false or fraudulent representations concerning the nature and character of such securities. Such owner shall pay to the secretary of state an inspection fee as is provided for in sections 8530 and 8531. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u13.]

8558. Permit—form of. Each and every certificate granted by the secretary of state under the provisions of this chapter shall be in substantially the following form:

"This is to certify that the has this date been given permission to sell $. of its within the state of Iowa.
(stocks, bonds or securities)

THE SECRETARY OF STATE DOES NOT RECOMMEND THE PURCHASE OF THIS OR ANY OTHER SECURITY.

(SEAL)

[S. S., '15, § 1920-u14.]

8559. Prominence to printing. The words "THE SECRETARY OF STATE DOES NOT RECOMMEND THE PURCHASE OF THIS OR ANY OTHER SECURITY" shall be printed in larger, bolder faced type than the other part of the said certificate. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u14.]

8560. Warning to public. Any person, firm, association, company or corporation that makes any reference in any statement, advertisement or printed matter to the fact that a permit has been received from the secretary of state to transact business in this state shall, with equal prominence, state in the same circular, advertisement or printed matter that "THE SECRETARY OF STATE DOES NOT RECOMMEND THE PURCHASE OF THE SECURITY OF THIS OR ANY OTHER COMPANY". [S. S., '15, § 1920-u14.]

8561. Registration of agents—certificates. Every person, firm, association, company or corporation that has received a permit to transact business in this state and desires to appoint agents or representatives shall cause said agent or representative to register with the secretary of state and file with said officer his written appointment and authority to represent said person, firm, association, company or corporation as its agent in this state, and such further information as the secretary may require, and receive from said secretary a certificate showing that the principal represented by said agent or representative has complied with the provisions of this chapter and received a certificate to do business. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u15; 39 G. A., ch. 189, § 8.]

8562. Revocation of certificate. All such certificates shall be subject to revocation by the secretary of state if upon examination or investigation the secretary finds that the agent is misrepresenting the kind and character of securities, the nature of the business or is thereby, or otherwise defrauding the people of this state, in the sale of stocks, bonds or other securities. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u15.]

8563. Tenure of certificate—fee. All such certificates, unless sooner revoked, shall expire on the first day of July of each year. A charge of three dollars shall be made by the secretary of state for each certificate issued to such agent. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u15; 39 G. A., ch. 189, § 9.]

8564. Secret agents—failure to disclose interest. Any individual, not licensed as an agent, who, with intent to secure financial gain for himself, advises and procures or assists in procuring any person to purchase any securities contemplated by this chapter and who received for such service any commission or reward, without disclosing to the purchaser the fact of his interest shall, in addition to any other penalty, be guilty of a misdemeanor. [39 G. A., ch. 189, § 5.]

8565. Promotion expense—agent's commission. No person, firm, association, company or corporation shall offer for sale, sell or otherwise dispose of, within this state, any securities coming within the provisions of this chapter on which the total promotion expense, including all commissions, discount on paper or other expense in marketing such securities exceeds ten per cent of the selling price thereof; provided that any such company organized for the purpose of carrying on an industrial business within this state may expend for such purposes not to exceed fifteen per cent of such selling price; and provided that in addition there may be paid all charter fees, franchise taxes, permit and certificate fees, attorney fees, and necessary expenditures for stationery and supplies. The agent's commission shall be paid to the agent only out of the purchase price of the stock and then only when and as such purchase price is paid by the purchaser. [39 G. A., ch. 189, § 5.]

8567. Broker's annual permit. The secretary of state may issue to any broker, or dealer in stocks, bonds or other securities, an annual permit, which permit shall entitle such stockbroker or dealer to sell, offer or negotiate for sale any stocks, bonds or other securities within this state, except those stocks, bonds or other securities, the sale of which would work a fraud upon the purchaser; provided that such stockbroker or dealer shall file on the first and fifteenth day of each month a detailed list of the stocks, bonds or other securities on hand for sale or listed for sale by him, and also those sold by him during the preceding one-half month and not previously reported. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u16.]

8568. Refusal to grant permit—cancellation. The secretary of state shall refuse to grant a permit, or shall cancel a permit previously granted, to any such stockbroker or dealer when he finds by investigation or otherwise that such stockbroker or dealer is selling or offering for sale within this state any stocks, bonds or other securities which would work a fraud upon the purchasers thereof. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u16.]

8569. Investigations by secretary. In order that the secretary of state may determine the nature and kind of securities to be sold and the character of the applicant, he is authorized to make investigation as otherwise provided herein, the expenses incurred thereby to be paid as provided in section 8550. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u16.]

8570. Fee—tenure of permit. The applicant shall also pay a fee of fifty dollars to the secretary of state for each of said annual permits, which permit, unless sooner revoked by the secretary of state, shall expire on the first secular day of July of each year. If said permit is issued after the first of January of any year, the fee shall be reduced one-half. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u16.]

8571. Bond. Before being granted such permit by the secretary of state, the stockbroker or dealer shall give a bond in the penal sum of five thousand dollars to the state of Iowa, for the use and benefit of any interested person, conditioned upon a strict compliance with this chapter and the honest and faithful application of all funds received by said broker, which bond shall be approved by the executive council and filed with the secretary of state. Said bond shall be further conditioned for the payment of all damages suffered by any person damaged or defrauded by reason of the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, or by reason of any fraud connected with or growing out of any transaction contemplated by the provisions of this chapter. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u16; 40 G. A., ch. 168.]

8572. Action on bond. Action may be brought upon said bond in the county where the plaintiff resides, or in any county in which any of the defendants may be sued, or in any county of the state wherein any of the transactions relating to the subject matter of the action transpired. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u16; 40 G. A., ch. 168.]

8573. Appeal to executive council. Any person, firm, association, company or corporation that is denied a certificate to transact business in this state, or whose certificate is canceled pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall have the right to appeal to the executive council from any decision of the secretary of state affecting a substantial right under the provisions of this chapter within twenty days from the entry or the pronouncement of the decision of said secretary by serving notice of such appeal upon the secretary of the executive council. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u17.]

cil under such rules and regulations as they may prescribe giving full notice and opportunity to be heard by all persons interested therein. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u17.]

8575. Appeal to court. Any person, firm, association, company or corporation perfecting said appeal to said executive council, may upon receiving an adverse decision by said executive council, appeal to the district court at the seat of government, by the service of a written notice of appeal on the attorney general, and thereupon the cause may be docketed and the case may be tried in the district court as a special equitable action by the filing of such transcript and such pleadings as the court may prescribe in order that an intelligent hearing may be had and a just decision rendered thereon free from any technical objections or irregularities in the matter of procedure or the introduction of evidence. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u17.]

8576. Supersedeas bond—conditions. A supersedeas may be had by any person denied a permit to do business in this state and who has thereafter perfected an appeal by the execution and filing of a penal bond to the state for the use and benefit of the state for any costs or damages incurred by reason of said appeal and for the use and benefit of any purchaser of any stocks, bonds or other securities from the appellant during the pendency of said appeal; said bond shall be in the sum fixed by the judge of the district court to which said appeal is taken and approved by the clerk of said court, and shall provide that if the order appealed from is affirmed, the party appealing shall pay to the state all costs and damages by reason of said appeal, and shall pay to the secretary of state for the use and benefit of any purchaser who has suffered damage by reason of the purchase of any security during the pendency of such appeal the amount fixed in said bond or so much thereof as may be necessary. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the district court to transmit a certified copy of said bond to the secretary of state immediately upon the filing and approval of said bond in the office of said clerk. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u18.]

8577. False statements, entries, and representations. Any person, firm, association, company or corporation subject to the provisions of this chapter that shall subscribe or cause to be made any false statement or false entry in any book required to be kept or relating to any business to be transacted in this state pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, or make or subscribe to any false statement, exhibit or paper filed with the secretary of state or shall make to the secretary of state, his deputy, agent or representative any false or fraudulent statement concerning the proposed plan of business to be transacted, or the nature, value or character of securities to be sold in this state, or shall make to said secretary of state, his deputy, agent or representative any false statement as to the financial condition of such person, firm, association, company or corporation shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be fined in the sum of not more than five thousand dollars, or imprisoned not to exceed five years in the penitentiary or reformatory, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u19.]

8578. General violations. Any person, firm, association, company or corporation subject to the provisions of this chapter that shall sell or negotiate for the sale of any stocks, bonds or other securities within this state without first paying the inspection fee and otherwise complying with the provisions of this chapter, or that continues to sell, offers for sale, or negotiates for the sale of stocks, bonds or other securities in this state after his certificate or permit to do business has been canceled by the secretary of state, unless a supersedeas bond has been filed as and according to the provisions of section 8576, or that shall otherwise neglect or refuse to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not to exceed five thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed six months or by both such fine and imprisonment. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u20.]

8579. False representations. Any person, firm, association, company or corporation, or any agent or representative thereof, whether subject to the provisions of this chapter or otherwise, that sells, offers for sale or negotiates for the sale of any stocks, bonds, or other securities within this state, and knowingly makes any false representations or statement as to the nature, character or value of such security, or the amount of the earning power of such security whether in the nature of interest, dividends or otherwise, or knowingly makes any false or fraudulent representation concerning the financial condition, the assets or the property of the company, firm or corporation issuing said security, or knowingly makes any other false or fraudulent representation to any person for the purpose of inducing said person to purchase said security, or conceals any material fact in the advertisement or prospectus of such security for the purpose of defrauding the purchaser, or knowingly violates any of the provisions of this chapter with intent to defraud, shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the penitentiary or reformatory for not more than five years or by both such fine and imprisonment. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u21; 39 G. A., ch. 189, § 4.]

8580. Promotion by state officials and employees. No state official or employee of the state shall use his name in his official capacity in connection with the indorsement or recommendation of the organization or the promotion of any company or in the disposal to the public of its securities, nor shall anyone use the stationery of the state or of any official thereof in connection with any such transaction. Whoever violates the aforesaid provision shall, upon conviction, by any court of competent jurisdiction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and fined in any sum not to exceed five hundred dollars or be punished by confinement in a county jail for not more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [39 G. A., ch. 189, § 5.]

8581. Interpretation. Should any section of this chapter or any part thereof be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be unconstitutional, such decision shall affect the specific provision only which it is held offends against the constitution and said unconstitutional part shall not be held to be an inducement to the passage of any other section or provision of this chapter. [S. S., '15, § 1920-u22.]

GENERAL PROVISIONS

8582. Articles. Any three or more persons of full age, a majority of whom shall be citizens of the state, may incorporate themselves for the establishment of churches, colleges, seminaries, lyceums, libraries, fraternal lodges or societies, temperance societies, trades' unions or other labor organizations, commercial clubs, associations of business men, agricultural societies, farmers' granges, or organizations of a benevolent, charitable, scientific, political, athletic, military or religious character, by signing, acknowledging, and filing for record with the county recorder of the county where the principal place of business is to be located, articles of incorporation, stating the name by which the corporation or association shall be known, which shall not be the same as that of any such organization previously existing, its business or objects, the number of trustees, directors, managers or other officers to conduct the same, and the names thereof for the first year. [C., '51, §§ 708, 709; R., '60, §§ 1187, 1188, 1190, 1191, 1193, 1197; C., '73, §§ 1091, 1092, 1095, 1100; C., '97, § 1642; 37 G. A., ch. 143, § 1.]

8583. Powers—duration. Upon filing such articles, the persons signing and acknowledging the same, and their associates and successors, shall become a body corporate, with the name therein stated, and may sue and be sued. It may have a corporate seal, alterable at its pleasure, and may take by gift, purchase, devise or bequest real and personal property for purposes appropriate to its creation, and may make by-laws. Corporations so organized shall endure for fifty years, unless a shorter period is fixed in the articles, or they are sooner dissolved by three-fourths vote of all the members thereof, or by act of the general assembly, or by operation of law. [R., '60, §§ 1185, 1194, 1198; C., '73, §§ 1070, 1096, 1101; C., '97, § 1643; S., '13, § 1643.]

8584. Property of extinct religious society—rules. State, diocesan or district religious organizations incorporated under this chapter, or those existing by voluntary association and having permanent funds, shall have the power to adopt and enforce rules as to the property of extinct local societies which at any time have been or which may be connected therewith and defining when such a local society shall be considered extinct, and to take charge of and to control the real and personal property of such extinct society. [S., '13, § 1643.]

8585. For agricultural, horticultural, and cemetery purposes. Corporations organized for agricultural or horticultural purposes, and cemetery associations, shall not own to exceed nine sections of land, and the improvements and necessary personal property for the proper management thereof; and the articles of incorporation shall provide a mode by which any member may at any time withdraw therefrom, and also the mode of determining the amount to be received by such member upon withdrawal, and for the payment thereof to him, subject to the right of creditors of the corporation; and their duration shall be without limit, unless terminated by act of the general assembly. [R., '60, § 1185; C., '73, § 1070; C., '97, § 1644.]

8586. Dividend. No dividend or distribution of property among the stockholders shall be made until the dissolution of the corporation. [C., '51, § 710; R., '60, § 1188; C., '73, § 1093; C., '97, § 1645; S., '13, § 1645.]

8587. When society deemed extinct. When a local religious society shall have ceased to support a minister or leader or regular services and work for two years or more, or as defined by the rules of any incorporated state, diocesan or district society with which it has been connected, it shall be deemed extinct, and its property may be taken charge of and controlled by such state or similar society of that denomination with which it had been connected. [S., '13, § 1645.]

8588. Power to confer degree. Any corporation of an academical character may confer the degrees usually conferred by such an institution. [C., '51, § 711; R., '60, § 1189; C., '73, § 1094; C., '97, § 1646; 40 Ex. G. A., Ch. 6, § 2.]

8589. Trustees or managers. Such corporation may, annually or oftener, elect from its members its trustees, directors or managers, at such time and place and in such manner as may be specified in its by-laws, who shall have the control and management of its affairs and funds, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. When a vacancy occurs in its governing body, it shall be filled in such manner as shall be provided by the by-laws. When the corporation consists of the trustees, directors or managers of any benevolent, charitable, scientific, or religious institution which is or may be established in the state, and which is or may be under the patronage, control, direction or supervision of any synod, conference, association or other ecclesiastical body in any state established agreeably to the laws thereof, such ecclesiastical body may nominate and appoint such trustees, directors or managers, according to the usages of the appointing body, and may fill any vacancy which may occur among them; and when any such institution may be under the patronage, control, direction or supervision of two or more of such synods, conferences, associations or other ecclesiastical bodies, they may severally nominate and appoint such proportion of such trustees, directors or managers as shall be agreed upon by the bodies immediately concerned, and any vacancy occurring among such appointees last named shall be filled by the synod, conference, association or body having appointed the last incumbent. [R., '60, § 1195; C., '73, § 1097; C., '97, § 1647.]

8590. Academical — meetings. Any corporation of an academical character, the membership of which shall consist of lay members and pastors of churches, delegates to any synod, conference or council holding its annual meetings alternately in this and one or more adjoining states, may hold its annual meetings for the elections of officers and the transaction of business in any adjoining state, at the place where such synod, conference or council holds its annual meeting; and the election and business transacted shall be of the same effect as if held and transacted at its place of business in this state. [C., '73, § 1098; C., '97, § 1648.]

8591. Election of officers. If an election of trustees, directors or managers shall not be made on the day designated by the by-laws, the society for that cause shall not be dissolved, but such election may take place on any other day directed in the by-laws. [R., '60, § 1196; C., '73, § 1099; C., '97, § 1649.]

8593. Amendment of articles. Any corporation organized under this chapter may change its name or amend its articles of incorporation by a vote of a majority of the members, in such manner as may be provided in its articles; but if no such provision is made in the articles the same may be amended at any regular meeting or special meeting called for that purpose by the president or secretary or a majority of the board of directors. Notice of any meeting at which it is proposed to amend the articles of incorporation, shall be given by mailing to each member at his last known post office address at least ten days prior to such meeting, a notice signed by the secretary setting forth the proposed amendments in substance, or by two publications of said notice in some daily or weekly newspaper in general circulation in the county wherein said corporation has its principal place of business. The last publication of said notice shall be not less than ten days prior to the date of said meeting. If the trustees, directors, or managers of such corporation are appointed by two or more synods, conferences, associations, or other ecclesiastical bodies, such change or amendment shall not be made without the concurrence of a majority of those appointed by each such body. [C., '97, § 1651; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 6, § 3.]

8595. Endowment fund—trustees. Any presbytery, synod, conference, state or diocesan convention, or other state or district representative body of any religious denomination in this state, now or hereafter incorporated under this chapter, or any assembly, synod, conference, convention or other general ecclesiastical body of any religious denomination in the United States having local societies in this state and wherever incorporated, may in its articles of incorporation or by amendment thereto create a board, committee or commission of three or more members for any endowment fund or other fund or property of the denomination represented by such body, and at any regular meeting of such presbytery, synod, conference, state or diocesan convention or other representative assembly of such denomination in this state, or of such assembly, synod, conference, convention or other general ecclesiastical body in the United States, may elect not less than three members of such denomination, one of whom shall be a resident freeholder in this state, to serve as trustees of such fund or property; and a copy of such articles of incorporation and amendment, duly certified to by the officer with whom the same have been filed for record, shall be evidence in the courts of this state of the existence of such trust and of the powers of such trustees. [S., '13, § 1652-a.]

8596. Powers of trustees. Such trustees, if chosen to take charge of any endowment or other like fund, may invest, manage and dispose of the same in accordance with the purpose for which it was created, subject to such regulations as the body by which they were elected may from time to time prescribe; and shall have power to make contracts regarding, and to collect and sue for, and in all ways to control and protect, any property belonging or which should belong to any such funds. [S., '13, § 1652-b.]

8597. Extinct religious societies—disposition of property. When any local religious society shall have become extinct, such trustees of the denomination with which it shall have been at any time connected shall take charge of its property, whether real or personal, and control, dispose of and use the same in trust, as part of the endowment or other like funds of such denomination within the territorial limits represented by such trustees and the corporation by which they were elected and especially for the work of such denomination at the place where such extinct local society shall have been situated. A transfer of such property by resolution or act of the remaining member or members, representative or representatives, of such extinct local society to such trustees shall operate to pass complete title. If on demand therefor there is a failure or refusal to transfer such property to such trustees, or if such trustees think proper so to do, they may commence action in equity in the district court of the county where such extinct local society was situated, making parties defendant thereto all persons known to have any interest in or claim upon such property; notice shall be given as in other equitable actions, and said court shall have jurisdiction to enter a decree whereby the title to all the property of such extinct society shall be transferred to such trustees, or for the sale thereof and transfer of the proceeds of such sale to such trustees.

Such decree or sale thereunder shall pass good title to such property. Provisions shall be made for the protection of all having claims against such local society or its property. [S., '13, § 1652-c.]

8598. Property in trust—use of principal. The property of any such extinct religious society shall be held and disposed of by such trustees in trust for the work of the denomination in the territorial limits represented by such trustees, and especially in trust for such work at the place where such extinct society was situated or its immediate vicinity within the judgment of the religious body by which such trustees were elected. Only income therefrom shall be used for the general work of such denomination in such territorial limits, but the principal shall be kept as a permanent fund for not less than five years, except that it may be used in the locality where such extinct local society was situated or its immediate vicinity if thought best by such body. No local society of such denomination at such place shall be allowed to demand the use of such principal for its benefit until it has been recognized and approved by and has complied with the reasonable requirements of the body so electing such trustees. If the principal or income in the hands of such trustees is not used in the locality where the extinct local society was situated within the term of five years from the time of the sale or disposition of its property, then the said principal and income, if any, may be used for building or improving other property of the denomination within the territorial limits in which such extinct society was located. [S., '13, § 1652-d; 38 G. A., ch. 102, § 1.]

8599. Contract and rights not affected. Existing contract and property rights arising under the organization, rules, laws or canons heretofore adopted by any corporation or organization of a religious character, shall not be affected by the provisions of sections 8584, 8587, and 8595 to 8598, inclusive, except by consent of the interested parties. [S., '13, § 1652-e.]

NOTE: The above section, and the sections enumerated therein, except an amendment by 38 G. A., ch. 102, took effect July 4, 1911.

FOREIGN NONPECUNIARY CORPORATIONS

8600. Permits. Any corporation organized under the laws of another state, or of any territory of the United States, for any of the purposes mentioned in section 8582, desiring a permit to do business in the state, shall file with the secretary of state a certified copy of its articles of incorporation duly attested by the secretary of state, or other state officer in whose office the original articles were filed, accompanied by a resolution of its board of directors or stockholders authorizing the filing thereof, and also authorizing service of process to be made upon any of its officers or agents in this state engaged in transacting its business, and requesting the issuance to such corporation of a permit to transact business in the state. [37 G. A., ch. 354, § 1.]

8601. Record and permit. If it appears that said foreign corporation is, in fact, organized not for pecuniary profit, the secretary of state shall, upon the payment of ten cents per hundred words, record said articles of incorporation and issue a permit to such corporation to do business in the state, for which permit the secretary of state shall charge, and receive, a fee of five dollars. Upon the issuance of such permit the corporation shall be entitled to carry on its business in the state. [37 G. A., ch. 354, § 1.]

8602. Annual reports. Any corporation, organized as provided in the two preceding sections shall, between the first day of July and the first day of August of each year, make an annual report to the secretary of state, said report to be in such form as he may prescribe and upon a blank to be prepared by him for that purpose. [37 G. A., ch. 354, § 3.]

8603. Forfeiture. Should any corporation referred to in sections 8600 and 8601 fail to comply with the provisions of this chapter, notice of such failure shall be called to its attention by the secretary of state by registered letter and, if such delinquent corporation fails or neglects to comply with this chapter within sixty days from the receipt of such letter from the secretary of state, then and in such case said corporation shall forfeit its right to do business in this state. [37 G. A., ch. 354, § 4.]

8604. Location. The insurance department of Iowa, as heretofore created and established, with the commissioner of insurance as head thereof, shall be located at the seat of government. [S., '13, §§ 1683-r, 1683-r1; 39 G. A., ch. 209, § 15; 40 G. A., ch. 169, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 205, § 1.]

8605. Appointment and term. The governor shall, within sixty days following the organization of the regular session of the general assembly in 1927, and each four years thereafter, appoint, with the approval of two-thirds of the members of the senate in executive session, a commissioner of insurance, who shall be selected solely with regard to his qualifications and fitness to discharge the duties of this position, devote his entire time to such duties, and serve for four years from July first of the year of appointment. [S., '13, § 1683-r; 40 G. A., ch. 169, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 205, § 2.]

8607. Vacancies. Vacancies that may occur while the general assembly is not in session shall be filled by appointment by the governor, which appointment shall expire at the end of thirty days from the time the general assembly next convenes. Prior to the expiration of said thirty days the governor shall transmit to the senate for its confirmation an appointment for the unexpired portion of the regular term. Vacancies occurring during a session of the general assembly shall be filled as regular appointments are made and before the end of said session, and for the unexpired portion of the regular term. [S., '13, § 1683-r; 40 G. A., ch. 169, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 205, § 4.]

8608. Deputy—assistants—bond. The commissioner shall appoint a deputy commissioner and such other clerks and assistants as shall be needed to assist him in the performance of his duties, all of whom shall serve during the pleasure of the commissioner. Before entering upon the duties of his office, the deputy commissioner shall give a bond in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars. [S., '13, § 1683-r2; 39 G. A., ch. 209, § 16; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 205, § 5.]

8609. Payment of salaries. All salaries of deputy, assistants and clerks herein provided for shall be paid in the same manner as are the salaries of other state officers out of the general revenues of the state; and on the first day of each month all such salaries as are indicated herein shall be paid by warrant drawn by the auditor upon the treasurer of state. [40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 205, § 6.]

8610. Expenses. The commissioner shall be entitled to reimbursement of his actual necessary expenses in attending meetings of insurance commissioners of other states, and in the performance of the duties of his office, not exceeding one thousand dollars annually. He may incur such other and additional expenses as may be authorized by the executive council, not exceeding one thousand dollars annually. [S., '13, § 1683-r2; 39 G. A., ch. 209, § 16; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 205, § 7.]

8611. Documents and records. All books, records, files, documents, reports, and securities, and all papers of every kind and character relating to the business of insurance shall be delivered to, and filed or deposited with, the said commissioner of insurance. [S., '13, § 1683-r4.]

8612. Fees. All fees and charges of every character whatsoever which are now required by law to be paid to the auditor of state by insurance companies and associations shall, from and after July 4, 1914, be payable to the commissioner of insurance whose duty it shall be to account for and pay over the same to the treasurer of state at the time and in the manner as now provided for by law for the auditor of state. [S., '13, § 1683-r5.]

8613. General powers and duties. The commissioner of insurance shall be the head of the insurance department, and shall have general control, supervision, and direction over all insurance business transacted in the state, and shall enforce all the laws of the state relating to such insurance.

He shall supervise all transactions relating to the organization, reorganization, liquidation, and dissolution of domestic insurance corporations, and all transactions leading up to the organization of such corporations.

He shall also supervise the sale in the state of all stock, certificates, or other evidences of interest, either by domestic or foreign insurance companies or organizations proposing to engage in any insurance business. [S., '13, § 1683-r3; 39 G. A., ch. 224, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A. ch. 9, § 1.]

8614. Life insurance—annual report. Before the first day of May the commissioner of insurance shall make an annual report to the governor of the general conduct and condition of the life insurance companies doing business in the state, and include therein an aggregate of the estimated value of all outstanding policies in each of the companies; and in connection therewith prepare a separate abstract thereof as to each company, and of all the returns and statements made to him by them. [C., '73, § 1176; C., '97, § 1781.]

NOTE: For period covered by report, see § 247.

8615. Other insurance—annual report. The commissioner shall cause the information contained in the statements required of the companies, other than life insurance, organized or doing business in the state to be arranged in detail, and prepare the same for printing, which report shall be made to the governor on or before the first day of May of each year. [C., '73, § 1158; C., '97, § 1720; S., '13, § 1720-a.]

CHAPTER 396

ORGANIZATION AND SALE OF STOCK OF DOMESTIC INSURANCE COMPANIES

8616. Sale of stock or membership—conditions.
8617. Power over organization—certificate.
8618. Promotion expense—unallowable dividends.
8619. General regulation by commissioner.
8620. Unallowable contracts.

8616. Sale of stock or membership—conditions. Neither the stock in an insurance company nor the membership in an insurance association in process of organization shall be sold or solicited until such company or association, and the promoters thereof, shall have first complied with all of the statutory provisions regulating the organization of such companies and associations, and also have secured from the commissioner of insurance a certificate indicating full compliance with the provisions of this section. [S., '13, § 1683-r3; 39 G. A., ch. 224, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 2.]

8617. Power over organization—certificate. Before the commissioner of insurance shall issue such certificate of compliance, he shall first be satisfied with the general plan of such organization and the character of the advertising to be used; he shall also fix the time within which such organization shall be completed; he shall also prescribe the method of keeping books and accounts of such corporation and those of fiscal agents. [S., '13, §

8621. Violations.
8622. Liability for illegal sale of stock.
8623. Appeal.
8624. Sale of stock as inducement to insurance.

1683-r3; 39 G. A., ch. 224, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 3.]

8618. Promotion expense—unallowable dividends. The maximum promotion expense which may be incurred shall in no case exceed twelve and one-half per cent of the par value of said stock, and no portion of such amount shall be used in the payment of salaries for officers and directors before the issuance, by the commissioner of insurance, of authority to transact an insurance business. Any amount paid to the company for stock above the par value of the stock shall constitute a contributed surplus and shall not be used in the payment of dividends. [39 G. A., ch. 224, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 4.]

8619. General regulation by commissioner. The commissioner of insurance shall have power to regulate all other matters in connection with the organization of such domestic corporations, and the sale of stock or the issuing of certificates by all insurance corporations within the state, to the end that fraud may be prevented in the organization of such companies and the sale of their stocks and securities. [S., '13, § 1683-r3; 39 G. A., ch. 224, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 5.]

8620. Unallowable contracts. No company shall enter into any contract with any promoter, officer, director, or agent of the company or any other person to pay his expenses or to pay him any commission or any compensation for his services in promoting or organizing such company, or in selling its stock in excess of the amount authorized in section 8618; nor shall it contract with any such person to pay him any part of the premiums arising from the insurance it has written or may write as compensation, directly or indirectly, for aiding in the promotion or for aiding or effecting any consolidation of such company with any other company, without the approval of the commissioner of insurance. [39 G. A., ch. 224, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 6.]

8621. Violations. Any person who violates any of the provisions of the preceding sections of this chapter, or who violates any order of the commissioner of insurance made by authority thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by fine not to exceed one thousand dollars, and by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed six months. [39 G. A., ch. 224, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 8.]

8622. Liability for illegal sale of stock. Any person, association, or corporation who sells or aids in selling or causes to be sold any stock, certificate of membership, or evidence of interest in any such corporation or association, in violation of law, shall be personally liable to any person to whom he may have sold any stock or certificate of membership or evidence of interest, in an amount equal to the price paid therefor by such person with legal interest, and suit to recover the same may be brought by such purchasers, jointly or severally, in any court of competent jurisdiction. [39 G. A., ch. 224, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 9.]

8623. Appeal. Any person, corporation, or association aggrieved by any order made by the commissioner of insurance under the provisions of this chapter, may appeal to the district court at the seat of government, by the service of a written notice of such appeal on the commissioner of insurance and attorney general. If such appeal is taken, the commissioner of insurance shall transmit the transcript of the proceedings had before him to such court, and the cause shall be docketed and tried as an equitable action. [39 G. A., ch. 224, § 3; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 10.]

8624. Sale of stock as inducement to insurance. No insurance company shall issue in this state, or permit its agents, officers, or employees to issue in this state its own stock, agency company stock or other stock or securities, or any special or advisory board or other contract of any kind promising returns and profits as an inducement to insurance.

No insurance company shall be authorized to do business in this state which issues or permits its agents, officers, or employees to issue in this state or in any other state or territory, agency company stock or other stock or securities, or any special advisory board or other contract of any kind promising returns and profits as an inducement to insurance.

No corporation or stock company, acting as an agent of an insurance company, or any of its agents, officers, or employees, shall be permitted to agree to sell, offer to sell, or give, or offer to give, directly or indirectly, in any manner whatsoever, any share of stock, securities, bonds or agreement of any form or nature, promising returns and profits as an inducement to insurance, or in connection therewith.

Nothing herein contained shall impair or affect in any manner any such contracts issued or made as an inducement to insurance prior to the enactment of this section, or prevent the payment of the dividends or returns therein stipulated to be paid.

It shall be the duty of the commissioner upon being satisfied that any insurance company, or any agent thereof, has violated any of the provisions of this section, to revoke the certificate of authority of the company or agent so offending. [39 G. A., ch. 181, § 1.]

CHAPTER 397

EXAMINATION OF INSURANCE COMPANIES

8625. "Company" defined.
 8626. Examination required.
 8627. Companies to assist—oaths.
 8628. Examiner—assistants.
 8629. Bond.
 8630. Employment of experts.
 8631. Expenses.
 8632. Payment by company.
 8633. Fees—accounting.

8625. "Company" defined. The word "company" as used in this chapter shall mean all companies or associations organized under the provisions of chapters 398, 400, 401, 404, and 406, except county mutuals, and all companies or associations admitted or seeking to be admitted to this state under the provisions of any of the chapters herein referred to. [S., '13, § 1821-i.]

8626. Examination required. The commissioner of insurance may, at any time he may deem it advisable, make an examination of, or inquire into the affairs of any insurance company authorized or seeking to be authorized to transact business within this state, provided that such examination shall not be less frequent than once during each biennial period. [S., '13, § 1821-a.]

8627. Companies to assist—oaths. When any company is being examined, the officers, employees, or agents thereof, shall produce for inspection all books, documents, papers, or other information concerning the affairs of such company, and shall otherwise assist in such examination so far as they can do. The commissioner of insurance, or his legally authorized representative in charge of the examination, shall have authority to administer oaths and take testimony bearing upon the affairs of any company under examination. [S., '13, § 1821-b.]

8628. Examiner—assistants. The commissioner of insurance is hereby authorized to appoint two insurance examiners, one of whom shall be an experienced actuary, the other of whom shall be an experienced and competent fire insurance accountant, and who, while conducting examinations, shall possess all the powers conferred upon the commissioner of insurance for such purposes. The entire time of the examiners shall be under the control of the said commissioner, and shall be employed as he may direct.

The said commissioner may, when in his judgment it is advisable, appoint assistants to 8642. Examination of nonresident companies.

aid in making examinations. [S., '13, § 1821-c; 39 G. A., ch. 209, § 17.]

8629. Bond. Said examiners shall give bond to the state conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duties, in the sum of five thousand dollars, which bond shall be filed with and approved by said commissioner. [S., '13, § 1821-c.]

8630. Employment of experts. If in making any examination a situation develops which, in the judgment of the commissioner, requires the services of an expert examiner having special training and knowledge not possessed by the regular examiners of the department, he may also employ such an expert assistant examiner, who shall receive as full compensation for such services the sum of not to exceed twenty-five dollars per day. [38 G. A., ch. 348, § 14.]

8631. Expenses. Said examiners and assistants and the said commissioner shall receive actual and necessary traveling, hotel, and other expenses while engaged in conducting examinations away from their respective places of residence. [S., '13, § 1821-c; 39 G. A., ch. 209, § 17.]

8632. Payment by company. All bills for expenses of any examination, together with the compensation of the assistants, shall be charged to and paid by the companies examined, and upon failure or refusal of any company examined to pay such bill or bills, the same may be recovered in an action brought in the name of the state under the direction of the executive council, and the commissioner may also revoke the certificate of authority of such company to transact business within this state. [S., '13, § 1821-c.]

8633. Fees—accounting. All fees collected under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid to the commissioner of insurance and shall be by him turned into the state treasury as are other fees of his office. [S., '13, § 1821-c.]

8634. Suspension or revocation of certificate—receivership. If upon investigation or examination, it shall appear that any company is insolvent or in an unsound condition, or is doing an illegal or unauthorized business, or that it has refused or neglected for more than thirty days to pay final judgment rendered against it in the courts of this state, the commissioner of insurance may suspend its authority to transact business within this state until it shall have complied in all respects with the laws applicable to such company or has paid such judgment, or he may revoke its certificate of authority to transact business within this state and having revoked the certificate of any company organized under the laws of this state, he shall at once report the same to the attorney general, who shall apply to the district court or any judge thereof for the appointment of a receiver to close up the affairs of said company. [S., '13, § 1821-d.]

8635. Procedure against nonlife companies. In the case of companies organized on the stock plan under the provisions of chapter 404, the above named officers shall proceed as provided in sections 8964 and 8965. [S., '13, § 1821-d.]

8636. Procedure against life companies. In case of companies organized under the provisions of chapter 398, said officers shall proceed as provided in sections 8661 to 8663, inclusive. [S., '13, § 1821-d.]

8637. Notice of application. No receiver shall be appointed for any company contemplated by this chapter except upon application of the attorney general, unless five days' notice shall have been served upon the commissioner and attorney general, stating the time and place of the hearing of such application, at which time and place said officers shall have the right to appear and be heard as to such application and appointment. [S., '13, § 1821-d.]

8638. Publication of examination. The results of any examination shall be published in one or more newspapers of the state or in pamphlet form, when in the opinion of the commissioner of insurance the interests of the public require it. [S., '13, § 1821-d.]

8639. Transfer pending examination. Any transfer of stock of any company, pending an investigation, shall not release the party making the transfer from any liability for losses that may have occurred previous to such transfer. [S., '13, § 1821-e.]

8640. Unlawful solicitation of business. Any officer, manager, agent, or representative of any insurance company contemplated by this chapter, who, with knowledge that its certificate of authority has been suspended or revoked, or that it is insolvent, or is doing an unlawful or unauthorized business, solicits insurance for said company, or receives applications therefor, or does any other act or thing toward receiving or procuring any new business for said company, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to the penalties provided in sections 8755 and 8756, and the provisions of said sections are hereby extended to all companies contemplated by this chapter. [S., '13, § 1821-f.]

8641. Refusing to be examined. Should any company decline or refuse to submit to an examination as in this chapter provided, the commissioner of insurance shall at once revoke its certificate of authority, and if such company is organized under the laws of this state, he shall report his action to the attorney general, who shall at once apply to the district court or a judge thereof for the appointment of a receiver to wind up the affairs of the company. [S., '13, § 1821-g.]

8642. Examination of nonresident companies. Examination of insurance companies not located within this state shall only be made by order of the executive council, and at such time as it may direct. [S., '13, § 1821-h.]

[C., '73, § 1161; C., '97, § 1768; S., '13, § 1768.]

8644. Approval of articles. Before any such company shall be permitted to incorporate under the laws of this state, it shall present its articles of incorporation to the commissioner of insurance and the attorney general and have the same by them approved. [S., '13, § 1768.]

8645. Requirements of articles. Such articles shall show the name, location of principal place of business, object, amount of capital, if a stock company, and shall contain such other provisions as may be necessary to a full understanding of the nature of the business to be transacted and the plan upon which the same is to be conducted. [S., '13, § 1768.]

8646. Approval of amendments. All amendments to such articles and amendments hereafter made to the articles of incorporation of companies already organized under the laws of this state shall be approved in like manner. [C., '97, § 1768.]

8647. Capital and surplus required. Stock companies organized to transact business under the provisions of this chapter shall have not less than one hundred thousand dollars of capital stock paid up in cash, and when first authorized to write insurance shall have a cash surplus in an amount equal to twenty-five per cent of the paid-up capital stock, which capital stock shall be invested as provided by sections 8737 to 8740, inclusive. [C., '73, § 1162; C., '97, § 1769; 39 G. A., ch. 261, § 2; 40 G. A., ch. 263.]

8648. Deposit of securities—certificate. Such securities shall be deposited with the commissioner of insurance and when such deposit is made and evidence furnished, by affidavit or otherwise, satisfactory to the commissioner, that the capital stock is all fully paid and the company possessed of the surplus required and that the company is the actual and unqualified owner of the securities representing the paid-up capital stock or other funds of the company, and all laws have been complied with, he shall issue to such company the certificate hereinafter provided for. [C., '73, § 1162; C., '97, § 1769; 39 G. A., ch. 261, § 2; 40 G. A., ch. 263.]

8649. Loans to officers. No part of the capital or other funds shall be loaned directly or indirectly to any officer, director, stockholder, or employee of the company or directly or indirectly to any relative of any officer or director of such company. [C., '73, § 1162; C., '97, § 1769; 39 G. A., ch. 261, § 2; 40 G. A., ch. 263.]

8650. Loan on stock or to prohibited companies. No such company shall make any loan upon its own stock as collateral, or directly or indirectly make any loan to or invest any of its funds in the property of any corporation, firm, association, or trustees of which any officer or director of the insurance company is also an officer, director, stockholder, member, or trustee of such other corporation, firm, association, or trustees. [40 G. A., ch. 263.]

8651. Mutual companies—conditions. Level premium and natural premium life insurance companies organized under the laws of this state upon the mutual plan shall, before issuing any policies, have actual applications on at least two hundred and fifty lives for an average amount of one thousand dollars each, a list of which, giving the name, age, residence, amount of insurance, and annual premium of each applicant shall be filed with the commissioner of insurance, and a deposit made with him of an amount equal to three-fifths of the whole annual premium on said applications, in cash or the securities required by section 8647; and on compliance with the provisions of this section, the commissioner shall issue to such mutual company the certificate hereinafter prescribed. [C., '73, § 1163; C., '97, § 1770.]

8652. Foreign companies—capital or surplus—investments. No company incorporated by or organized under the laws of any other state or government shall transact business in this state unless it is possessed of the actual amount of capital required of any company organized by the laws of this state, or, if it be a mutual company, of surplus equal in amount thereto, and the same is invested in bonds of the United States or of this state, or in interest-paying bonds, when they are at or above par, of the state in which the company is located, or of some other state, or in notes or bonds secured by mortgages on unincumbered real estate within this or the state where such company is located, worth double the amount loaned thereon, which securities shall, at the time, be on deposit with the superintendent of insurance, auditor, comptroller, or chief financial officer of the state by whose laws the company is incorporated, or of some other state, and the commissioner of insurance is furnished with a certificate of such officer, under his official seal, that he as such officer holds in trust and on deposit for the benefit of all the policy holders of such company, the securities above mentioned. This certificate shall embrace the items of security so held, and show that such officer is satisfied that such securities are worth one hundred thousand dollars. Nothing herein contained shall invalidate the agency of any company incorporated in another state by reason of its having exchanged the bonds or securities so deposited with such officer for other bonds or securities authorized by this chapter, or by reason of its having drawn its interest and dividends on the same. [C., '73, § 1164; C., '97, § 1772.]

8653. Annual statement. The president or vice president and secretary or actuary, or a majority of the directors of each company organized under this chapter, shall annually, by the first day of March, prepare under oath and file in the office of the commissioner of insurance a statement of its affairs for the year terminating on the thirty-first day of December preceding, showing:

1. The name of the company and where located.
2. The names of officers.

41. The whole number of policies issued during the year, with the amount of insurance effected thereby, and total amount of risk.

42. All other items of information necessary to enable the commissioner of insurance to correctly estimate the cash value of policies, or to judge of the correctness of the valuation thereof. [C., '73, § 1167; C., '97, § 1773.]

8654. Valuation of policies. As soon as practicable after the filing of such statement, the commissioner of insurance shall ascertain the net cash value of every policy in force upon the basis of the American table of mortality and four and one-half per cent interest, or actuaries' combined experience table of mortality and four per cent interest, in all companies organized under the laws of this state. For the purpose of making such valuation he may employ a competent actuary, who shall be paid by the company for which the service is rendered; but the company may make such valuation and it shall be received by the commissioner upon satisfactory proof of its correctness. [C., '73, § 1169; C., '97, § 1774.]

8655. Deposit to cover valuation. The net cash value of all policies in force in any such company being ascertained, the commissioner shall notify it of the amount, and within thirty days thereafter the officers thereof shall deposit with the commissioner the amount of the ascertained valuation in the securities specified in section 8737. [C., '73, § 1169; C., '97, § 1774.]

8656. Deposit by stock company. No stock company organized under the laws of this state shall be required to make such deposit until the cash value of the policies in force, as ascertained by the commissioner, exceeds the amount deposited by it as capital. [C., '73, § 1169; C., '97, § 1774.]

8657. Annual certificate of authority. On receipt of such deposit and statement, and the statement and evidence of investment of foreign companies, all of which shall be renewed annually, by the first day of March, the commissioner of insurance shall issue a certificate setting forth the corporate name of the company, its home office, that it has fully complied with the laws of the state and is authorized to transact the business of life insurance for the ensuing year, which certificate shall expire on the first day of April of the ensuing year, or sooner upon thirty days' notice given by the commissioner, of the next annual valuation of its policies. Such certificate shall be renewed annually, upon the renewal of the deposit and statement by a domestic company, or of the statement and evidence of investment by a foreign company, and compliance with the conditions above required, and be subject to revocation as the original certificate. [C., '73, § 1170; C., '97, § 1775.]

8658. Violation by domestic company. Upon a failure of any company organized under the laws of this state to make the deposit or file the statement in the time herein stated, the commissioner of insurance shall notify the attorney general of the default, who shall at once apply to the district court of the county where the home office of such company is located, if the court is in session, if not, to any judge thereof, for an order requiring the company to show cause upon reasonable notice, to be fixed by the court or judge, as the case may be, why its business shall not be discontinued. If, upon the hearing, no sufficient cause is shown, the court shall decree its dissolution. [C., '73, § 1171; C., '97, § 1776.]

8659. Violation by foreign company. Companies organized and chartered by the laws of a foreign state or country, failing to file the evidence of deposit and statement within the time fixed, shall forfeit and pay the sum of three hundred dollars, to be collected in an action in the name of the state for the use of the school fund, and their right to transact further new business in this state shall immediately cease until the requirements of this chapter have been fully complied with. [C., '73, § 1171; C., '97, § 1776.]

8660. Examination. The commissioner of insurance at any time may make a personal examination of the books, papers, securities, and business of any life insurance company doing business in this state, or authorize any other suitable person to make the same, and he or the person so authorized may examine under oath any officer or agent of the company, or others, relative to its business and management. [C., '73, § 1172; C., '97, § 1777.]

8661. Injunction—receivership—dissolution. If upon such examination the commissioner is of the opinion that the company is insolvent, or that its condition is such as to render its further continuance in business hazardous to the public or holders of its policies, he shall advise and communicate the facts to the attorney general, who shall at once apply to the district court of the county or any judge thereof, where the home office of a domestic company or an agency of a foreign company is located, for an injunction to restrain the company from transacting further business except the payment of losses already ascertained and due, until further hearing, and for the appointment of a receiver, and, if a domestic company, for the dissolution of the corporation. The judge of such court may grant a preliminary injunction with or without notice, as he may direct. [C., '73, § 1172; C., '97, § 1777.]

of the following section as to the appointment of a receiver, the disposition of the deposits of the company in the hands of the commissioner, and its dissolution, if a domestic company. [C., '73, § 1172; C., '97, § 1777.]

8663. Securities. The securities of a defaulting or insolvent company, or a company against which proceedings are pending under the two preceding sections, on deposit shall vest in the state for the benefit of the policies on which such deposits were made, and the proceeds of the same shall, by the order of the court upon final hearing, be divided among the holders thereof in the proportion of the last annual valuation of the same, or at any time be applied to the purchase of reinsurance for their benefit. [C., '73, § 1173; C., '97, § 1778.]

8664. Change of securities. Companies shall have the right at any time to change the securities on deposit by substituting a like amount of the character required in the first instance. If the annual valuation of the policies in force shows them to be less than the amount of security deposited, then the company may withdraw such excess, but twenty-five thousand dollars must always remain on deposit. [C., '73, § 1174; C., '97, § 1779.]

8665. Interest on securities. Companies having on deposit with the commissioner of insurance bonds or other securities may collect the dividends or interest thereon, delivering to their authorized agents the coupons or other evidence of interest as the same become due, but if any company fails to deposit additional security when and as called for by the commissioner, or pending any proceedings to close up or enjoin it, the commissioner shall collect such dividends or interest and add the same to such securities. [C., '73, § 1175; C., '97, § 1780.]

8666. Discriminations. No life or casualty, health or accident insurance company or association shall make or permit any distinction or discrimination between persons insured of the same class and equal expectancy of life in the amount or payment of premiums or rates charged for policies of life or endowment insurance, or in the dividends or other benefits payable thereon, or in any other of the terms or conditions of the contract it makes; nor shall any such company or association or agent thereof make any contract of insurance agreement, other than as plainly expressed in the policy issued; nor shall any such company or association or agent pay or allow, directly or indirectly, as an inducement to insurance, any rebate of premium payable on the policy, or any special favor or advantage in the dividends or other benefits to accrue thereon, or any valuable consideration or inducement whatever, not specified in the policy or contract of insurance. [C., '97, § 1782; S., '13, § 1782.]

8667. Violations. Every corporation, officer, or agent thereof who shall knowingly violate any of the provisions of the preceding section shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, to be recovered by an action in the name of the state for the benefit of the school fund, and the license may be revoked for three years, in the discretion of the court. [C., '97, § 1783.]

8668. Policy forms—approval. It shall be unlawful for any insurance company transacting business within this state, under the provisions of this chapter, to write or use any form of policy or contract of insurance, on the life of any individual in this state, until a copy of such form of policy or contract has been filed with and approved by the commissioner of insurance. [S., '13, § 1783-a; 38 G. A., ch. 348, § 7.]

8669. Failure to file copy. Should any company decline to file a copy of its form of policies or contracts, the commissioner of insurance shall suspend its authority to transact business within the state until such form of policies or contracts have been so filed and approved. [S., '13, § 1783-c.]

8671. Policy provision for medical examination. The commissioner of insurance shall decline to approve any such form of policy or contract of insurance unless the same shall, in all respects, conform to the laws of this state applicable thereto, and unless the issuance of the same is based upon a satisfactory medical examination of the applicant by a physician duly authorized to practice medicine or by an osteopathic physician duly authorized to practice osteopathy in the state of Iowa or the state where examined, and no policy or contract of insurance shall be issued by any insurance company to any individual in this state until such examination shall have been passed and duly approved by the medical examiner or medical board of such company.

Provided, that no medical examination of any person to be insured under an industrial policy shall be required or be necessary when the amount of the policy of insurance is five hundred dollars or less. [S. S., '15, § 1783-b; 39 G. A., ch. 223, § 1.]

8672. Authority to write other insurance. Any life insurance company organized on the stock or mutual plan and authorized by its charter or articles of incorporation so to do, may in addition to such life insurance, insure, either individually or on the group plan, the health of persons and against personal injuries, disablement or death, resulting from traveling or general accidents by land or water, and insure employers against loss in consequence of accidents or casualties of any kind to employees or other persons, or to property resulting from any act of the employee or any accident or casualty to persons or property, or both, occurring in or connected with the transaction of their business, or from the operation of any machinery connected therewith, but nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize any life insurance company to insure against loss or injury to person, or property, or both, growing out of explosion or rupture of steam boilers. [S., '13, § 1783-d; 39 G. A., ch. 133.]

8673. Liability. Every life insurance company issuing a separate policy, or maintaining a separate department, for the purpose of writing any of the classes of insurance authorized by the preceding section shall also be subject to all of the provisions applicable to companies authorized to write a similar kind of insurance under the provisions of chapter 404. [38 G. A., ch. 348, § 8.]

8674. Proceeds of policy held in trust. Any life insurance company organized under the provisions of this chapter and doing business in this state, shall have the power to hold in trust the proceeds of any life insurance policy issued by it, upon such terms and subject to such limitations as to revocation by the policy holder and control by the beneficiary thereunder, as shall have been agreed to in writing by such company and the policy holder; provided that the trust provisions herein contemplated shall in no manner subject said corporation to any of the provisions of the laws of Iowa relating to banks or trust companies; and provided further, that the forms of such trust agreements shall be first submitted to and approved by the commissioner of insurance. [38 G. A., ch. 304, § 1.]

CHAPTER 399

GROUP LIFE INSURANCE

8675. "Group insurance" defined.
 8676. Terms defined.
 8677. Authority to issue.
 8678. Policy—required provisions.
 8679. Policy in foreign state by domestic company.

8680. Policy by foreign company.
 8681. More favorable clauses.
 8682. Employer deemed policy holder.
 8683. Exemption of proceeds of policy.
 8684. Medical examination.

8675. "Group insurance" defined. Group insurance is hereby declared to be that form of either life, health, or accident insurance covering not less than fifty employees, with or without medical examination, written under a policy issued to the employer, the premium on which is to be paid by the employer or by the employer and employees jointly, and insuring only all of his employees, or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to the employment, for amounts of insurance based upon some plan which will preclude individual selection, for the benefit of persons other than the employer; provided, however, that when the premium is to be paid by the employer and employees jointly and the benefits of the policy are offered to all eligible employees, not less than seventy-five per cent of such employees may be so insured. [38 G. A., ch. 197, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 12.]

8676. Terms defined. The word "employer" as used in the preceding section shall include the advisory, supervising, or governing body or bodies, of all regularly organized religious denominations. The word "employee" shall include clergymen, priests, and ministers of the gospel in good standing in any of such denominations. [40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 12.]

8677. Authority to issue. Any level premium life insurance company, organized on the stock or mutual plan and authorized to transact insurance business under the provisions of chapter 398, may, by complying with the provisions of said chapter and of this chapter, issue contracts providing for group life insurance as defined in the two preceding sections. [38 G. A., ch. 197, § 2.]

Note: For additional provisions as to "group insurance", see §§ 8672 and 8673.

8678. Policy—required provisions. No policy of group insurance shall be issued or delivered in this state unless and until a copy of the form thereof has been filed with the commissioner of insurance and approved by him; nor shall such policy be so issued or delivered unless it contains in substance the following provisions:

1. A provision that the policy shall be incontestable after two years from its date of issue, except for nonpayment of premiums and except for violation of the conditions of the policy relating to military or naval service in time of war.

2. A provision that the policy, the application of the employer and the individual applications, if any, of the employees insured, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties, and that all statements made by the employer or by the individual employees shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties, and that no such statements shall be used in defense to a claim under the policy, unless it is contained in a written application.

3. A provision for the equitable adjustment of the premium or the amount of insurance payable in the event of a misstatement of the age of an employee.

4. A provision that the company will issue to the employer for delivery to the employee, whose life is insured under such policy, an individual certificate setting forth a statement as to the insurance protection to which he is entitled, to whom payable, together with provision to the effect that in case of the termination of the employment for any reason whatsoever the employee shall be entitled to have issued to him by the company, without further evidence of insurability, and upon application made to the company within thirty-one days after such termination and upon the payment of the premium applicable to the class of risk to which he belongs and to the form and amount of the policy at his then attained age, a policy of life insurance in any one of the forms customarily issued by the company, except term insurance, in an amount equal to the amount of his protection under such group insurance policy at the time of such termination.

5. A provision that to the group or class thereof originally insured shall be added from time to time all new employees of the employer eligible to insurance in such group or class. [38 G. A., ch. 197, § 3.]

8679. Policy in foreign state by domestic company. Policies of group insurance issued in other states or countries by companies organized in this state, may contain any provision required by the laws of the state, territory, district, or country, in which the same are issued, anything in the preceding section to the contrary notwithstanding. [38 G. A., ch. 197, § 3.]

8680. Policy by foreign company. Policies of group insurance, when issued in this state by any company not organized under the laws of this state, may contain, when issued, any provision required by the law of the state, or territory, or district of the United States under which the company is organized. [38 G. A., ch. 197, § 3.]

8681. More favorable clauses. Any such policy may be issued or delivered in this state which in the opinion of the commissioner of insurance contains provisions on any one or more of the several foregoing requirements more favorable to the employer or to the employee than hereinbefore required. [38 G. A., ch. 197, § 3.]

8682. Employer deemed policy holder. In every group policy issued by a domestic life insurance company, the employer shall be deemed to be the policy holder for all purposes within the meaning of this chapter, and, if entitled to vote at meetings of the company, shall be entitled to one vote thereat. [38 G. A., ch. 197, § 3.]

8683. Exemption of proceeds of policy. No policy of group insurance, nor the proceeds thereof, when paid to any employee or employees thereunder, shall be liable to attachment, garnishment, or other process, or to be seized, taken, appropriated or applied by any legal or equitable process or operation of law, to pay any debt or liability of such employee, or his beneficiary, or any other person who may have a right thereunder, either before or after payment; nor shall the proceeds thereof, when not made payable to a named beneficiary, constitute a part of the estate of the employee for the payment of his debts. [38 G. A., ch. 197, § 4.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8776, 8796, and 11919.

8684. Medical examination. The provisions of section 8671, relating to medical examination of applicants, shall not apply to insurance written under this chapter. [38 G. A., ch. 197, § 5.]

 8723. Trust funds.
 8724. Reincorporation.
 8725. Valuation of policies.
 8726. Reinsurance reserve required.
 8727. Accident or health associations.

8685. "Association" defined. Every corporation organized upon the assessment plan, for the purpose of insuring the lives of individuals or furnishing benefits to the widows, heirs, orphans or legatees of deceased members, or insuring the health of persons, or furnishing accident indemnity, shall be styled an association. [C., '97, § 1784; S., '13, § 1784.]

8686. "Assessment plan" of life insurance defined. Any corporation doing business under this chapter which provides for the payment of policy claims, accumulation of a reserve or emergency fund, the expense of management and prosecution of the business, by payment of assessments as provided in its contracts, and wherein the liability of the insured to contribute to the payment of policy claims is not limited to a fixed amount, shall be deemed to be engaged in the business of life insurance upon the assessment plan, and shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter, and chapter 401. [C., '97, § 1784; S., '13, § 1784.]

8687. "Certificate" defined. "Certificates of membership" or "certificate", when used in this chapter with respect to the insurance of the members, shall be taken to mean and include policy of insurance. [C., '97, § 1785.]

8688. Articles—approval. The articles of incorporation and by-laws of any such association shall show its plan of business, and be submitted to the commissioner of insurance and the attorney general, and if they are found by those officers to comply with the provisions of this title, chapter and of law, they shall approve the same. [C., '97, § 1785; 39 G. A., ch. 58, § 1.]

8689. Record and publication. When the articles are thus approved, they shall be recorded in the office of the secretary of state, and a notice published within ninety days in the manner and for the time provided in the general incorporation laws. [C., '97, § 1785.]

8690. Right of member to vote. Every member of any association organized under the provisions of this chapter shall be entitled to vote, either in person or by proxy, at every regular and special meeting of such association. No such association shall limit the right of any member to so vote, unless the proposal to limit shall have first been submitted to the entire membership for vote and shall have been approved by a majority of those voting. [40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 17.]

8691. Name. No such association shall take any name in use by another organization, or one so closely resembling it as to mislead the public as to its identity. [C., '97, § 1786.]

8692. Conditions for commencing business—approval of policy forms. Before issuing any policy or certificate of membership, if the association at the time has not a membership sufficient to pay the full amount of its certificate or policy on an assessment, it shall cause all applications for insurance to have printed in red ink, in a conspicuous manner along the margin thereof, the words: "It is understood that the amount of insurance to be paid under this application, and certificate or policy issued thereon, shall depend upon the amount collected from an assessment therefor." It must have actual applications upon at least two hundred fifty lives for at least one thousand dollars each; and it shall file with the commissioner of insurance satisfactory proof that the president, secretary, and treasurer have each given a good and sufficient bond for five thousand dollars for the faithful discharge of their duties as such officers, sworn copies of which shall be filed with him. It shall also file with him a list, verified by the president and secretary, of the applications, giving the name, age and residence of each applicant, the amount of insurance applied for by each, together with the annual dues and the proposed assessments thereon. Its policy forms shall be approved, as provided by section 8668. [C., '97, § 1787; S., '13, § 1787.]

8693. Assessments—diversion of funds. The articles and by-laws of each such association shall state the objects to which the money to be collected is to be devoted, and no part of the proceeds thereof shall be applied to any other purpose than as stated, and the excess, if any, beyond payment of the benefit, shall be set aside and applied only to like purposes, except that all sums collected for expenses and not used for that purpose may be transferred to the benefit, emergency, or reserve fund. [C., '97, § 1788; S., '13, § 1788; 40 G. A., ch. 171, § 1.]

8694. Insurable age—beneficiary and change thereof—assignment. No association organized or operating under this chapter shall issue a certificate of membership to any person under fifteen or over sixty-five years of age, or unless the beneficiary named in the certificate is the husband, wife, relative, legal representative, heir, creditor or legatee of the insured member, nor shall any such certificate be assigned. Any certificate issued or assignment made in violation of this section shall be void.

The beneficiary named in the certificate may be changed at any time at the pleasure of the assured, as may be provided for in the articles or by-laws, but no certificate issued for the benefit of a wife or children shall be thus changed so as to become payable to the creditors; provided that the foregoing provisions of this section shall not be applicable except as to certificates issued prior to July 4, 1923, to life associations organized and operating under this chapter issuing life insurance policies or certificates of membership, and any member or policy holder in any such life association shall have the right to designate his beneficiary, and unless the policy is issued without the right of revocation, shall have the right to change the beneficiary in the manner authorized by the rules, laws and regulations of the association, or as may be provided in the policy contract; and no beneficiary under any policy shall have or obtain any vested right or interest in the death benefits to be payable under said policy, until such benefits shall become due and payable after the death of the insured. [C., '97, § 1789; 40 G. A., ch. 171, § 2.]

8695. Business year—annual report—fees. The annual business of such association organized under the laws of this state shall close on the thirty-first day of December of each year, and it shall within sixty days thereafter prepare and file in the office of the commissioner of insurance a detailed statement, verified by its president and secretary, giving its assets, liabilities, receipts from each assessment and all other sources, expenditures, salaries of officers, number of contributing members, death losses paid and amount paid on each, death losses reported but not paid, and furnish such other information as the commissioner, who shall provide blanks for that purpose, may require, so that its true financial condition may be shown, and shall pay, upon filing each annual statement, the sum of three dollars, and such other fees as are required by the provisions of sections 8763 to 8765, inclusive. [C., '97, § 1790; 38 G. A., ch. 348, § 9.]

8696. Publication of report—examination and expense. The commissioner of insurance shall publish such annual statement in detail in his report, and for the purpose of verifying it he may make or cause to be made an examination of the affairs of any such association at its expense, which shall be, if done by him or his clerk, necessary hotel and traveling expenses only, if by a person not regularly employed in his office, the actual cost thereof, not exceeding ten dollars per day for the time required and actual expenses; but the examination herein provided for shall be in addition to those authorized by the provisions of section 8626. [C., '97, § 1790; 38 G. A., ch. 348, § 10.]

8697. Bonds—supplemental reports. If the commissioner regards it necessary for the safety of the funds of the association, he may require the bonds of the officers to be increased to an amount not exceeding double the sum for which they are accountable, and he may also require supplemental reports from such association at such time and in such form as he may direct, and it shall be the duty of its officers to furnish the bonds and reports when thus required. [C., '97, § 1790.]

8698. Investments. Any association accumulating any moneys to be held in trust for the purpose of the fulfillment of its policy or certificate, contract, or otherwise, shall invest such accumulations in the securities provided in section 8737 and deposit the same with the commissioner of insurance as provided in section 8741. [C., '97, § 1791.]

8699. Investment for office building. Such association may invest in real estate in Iowa such a portion of said accumulation as is necessary for its accommodation in the transaction of its business to be owned by said association, and in the erection of any building for such purpose may add thereto rooms for rental. [C., '97, § 1791.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8735, 8737, par. 6, and 8747.

8700. Change of securities. Such association may at any time change its securities on deposit by substituting a like amount in other securities of the same character, and the commissioner of insurance shall permit a withdrawal of the same, upon satisfactory proof in writing filed with him that they are to be used for the purpose for which they were originally deposited. [C., '97, § 1792.]

8701. Interest on securities. The commissioner of insurance shall permit the associations owning the bonds or other securities to collect and retain the interest accruing thereon, delivering to them the evidences of interest as the same become due; but on default of any association to make or enforce such collection, he may collect the same and add it to the securities in his possession, less the expense thereof. [C., '97, § 1793.]

8702. Certificate of authority. Upon compliance with the provisions of this chapter by an association, the commissioner of insurance shall issue to it a certificate, setting forth that it has fully complied with the provisions of this chapter, and is authorized to transact business for a period of one year from April first of the year of its issue. [C., '97, § 1796; 37 G. A., ch. 227, § 1.]

8703. Foreign companies. Any association organized under the laws of any other state to carry on the business of insuring the lives of persons, or of furnishing benefits to the widows, orphans, heirs, or legatees of deceased members, or of paying accident indemnity, or surrender value of certificates of insurance, upon the stipulated premium plan or assessment plan, may be permitted to do business in the state by complying with the requirements hereinafter made, but not otherwise. [C., '97, § 1794; S., '13, § 1794.]

8704. Articles — by-laws — applications and policy. It shall file with the commissioner of insurance a copy of its charter or articles of incorporation, duly certified by the proper officers of the state wherein it was organized, together with a copy of its by-laws, application and policy or certificate of membership. [C., '97, § 1794; S., '13, § 1794.]

tary, and other principal officers, the number of certificates or policies in force, the aggregate amount insured thereby, the amount paid to beneficiaries in the event of death or accident, the amount paid on the last death loss and the date thereof, the amount of cash or other assets owned by the association and how invested, and any other information which the commissioner may require. [C., '97, § 1794; S., '13, § 1794.]

8706. Adequacy of assessments and management. The statement, papers, and proofs thus filed shall show that the death loss or surrender value of the certificate of insurance or accident indemnity is in the main provided for by assessments upon or contributions by surviving members of such association, and that it is legally organized, honestly managed, and that an ordinary assessment upon its members or other regular contributions to its mortuary fund are sufficient to pay its maximum certificate to the full limit named therein. [C., '97, § 1794; S., '13, § 1794.]

8707. Certificate of authority—fee. Upon its complying with the provisions of the three preceding sections, and of section 8766, and the payment of twenty-five dollars, the commissioner shall issue to it a certificate of authority to do business in this state, provided the same right is extended by the state in which said association is organized to associations of the same class in this state. [C., '97, § 1794; S., '13, § 1794.]

8708. Examinations. When the commissioner doubts the solvency of any foreign association, and the failure to pay the full limit named in its certificate or policy shall be such evidence of its insolvency as to require the commissioner to investigate it, he shall for this or other good cause, at the expense of such association, cause an examination of its books, papers, and business to be made. [C., '97, § 1794; S., '13, § 1794.]

8709. Examiner's fee—payment. If the commissioner appoints someone not receiving a regular salary in his office to make this examination, such examiner shall receive ten dollars per day for his services in addition to his actual traveling and hotel expenses, to be paid by the association examined, or by the state on the approval of the executive council, if the association fails to pay the same. [C., '97, § 1794; S., '13, § 1794; 39 G. A., ch. 58, § 2.]

8710. Revocation of certificate. If upon such examination he finds that the association is not financially sound, or is not paying its policies or certificates in full, or is conducting its business fraudulently, or if it shall fail to make the statement required by law, he may revoke its authority and prohibit it from doing business until it shall again comply with the provisions of this chapter. [C., '97, § 1794; S., '13, § 1794.]

8711. Applicability of sections. The provisions of the eight preceding sections shall apply to fraternal beneficiary associations doing exclusively an accident insurance business, and upon compliance with the provisions of this chapter, and the provisions of chapter 401, so far as the same are applicable, such associations may be authorized to transact business within this state. [S., '13, § 1794.]

8712. Proceedings to control or wind up. When any association organized under this title and chapter fails to make its annual statement on or before the first day of March, or is conducting its business fraudulently or not in compliance with law, or is not carrying out its contracts with its members in good faith, the commissioner of insurance shall promptly communicate the fact to the attorney general, who shall at once commence action before the district court of the county in which such association has its principal place of business, giving it reasonable notice thereof. [C., '97, § 1795.]

8713. Removal of officers. If upon a hearing it is found to be advantageous to the holders of certificates of membership therein, said court or judge may remove any officer or officers, and appoint others in their place until the next annual election. [C., '97, § 1795.]

8714. Receiver. If it is advantageous to the holders of certificates that the affairs of said corporation be wound up, the court or judge shall so direct, and for that purpose may appoint a receiver who shall treat all legal claims for death benefits as preferred. [C., '97, § 1795.]

8715. Transfer of membership—division of surplus. The receiver may also, with the approval of the court or judge, transfer the members of such association who consent thereto to some like solvent association of the state, or divide the surplus accumulated in proportion to the share due each certificate at the time. [C., '97, § 1795.]

8716. Distribution of surplus. Any association which provides in the main for the payment of death losses or accident indemnity by assessments upon its members, or stipulated premium plan, may provide for the equitable distribution of any surplus or advance insurance fund accumulated in the course of its business, which may be paid in cash, or applied in the reduction or payment of future premiums, paid-up or extended insurance, as its rules or contracts may provide, and for an equitable surrender value upon the cancellation of a certificate or policy, provided the terms and conditions thereof are set forth in such policy or certificate of membership, and such surrender value shall in the main be accumulated during the term of such policy or certificate. [C., '97, § 1797.]

of any one occupation, guild, profession, or religious denomination, but any such society may, by complying with the provisions hereof, become entitled to all the privileges thereof, in which event it shall be amenable to the provisions of this chapter so far as they are applicable; provided that if organized under the laws of another state or country, they shall file with the commissioner of insurance an agreement in writing authorizing service or notice of process to be made upon the said commissioner, and when so made shall be as valid and binding as if served upon the association within this state. [C., '97, § 1798; S., '13, § 1798.]

8718. Assessment associations prohibited. No life, health, or accident insurance company or association, other than fraternal beneficiary associations, which issues contracts, the performance of which is contingent upon the payment of assessments of call made upon its members, shall do business within this state except such companies or associations as are now authorized to do business within this state and which, if a life insurance company or association, shall value their assessment policies or certificates of membership as yearly renewable term policies according to the standard of valuation of life insurance policies prescribed by the laws of this state. [S., '13, § 1798-a.]

NOTE: For time of taking effect of above section, see 32 G. A., ch. 83; 34 G. A., ch. 18.

8719. Exceptions. The provisions of the preceding section shall not apply to unincorporated assessment associations now existing in this state, and having policy holders or certificates of membership numbering not less than two hundred fifty, and which were organized or in existence in this state as such unincorporated assessment associations prior to March 23, 1907; but any such unincorporated assessment association now existing in this state, having policy holders or certificates of membership numbering not less than two hundred fifty and which were organized or in existence in this state prior to March 23, 1907, may, by becoming hereafter incorporated in this state, and complying with the provisions of this chapter, become entitled to all of the privileges hereof, in which event it shall become amenable to the provisions of this chapter as far as they are applicable. [37 G. A., ch. 413, § 1.]

8720. Reciprocal authorization. The commissioner of insurance of this state may authorize any health or accident insurance company or association organized under the laws of any other state or territory, to do business in this state, if, under the laws of such state or territory health and accident insurance companies or associations organized under the laws of this state are permitted to do business in such state. [37 G. A., ch. 234, § 1.]

8721. Separate classes of policy holders. Any life insurance association, other than fraternal beneficiary associations, incorporated and doing business under the provisions of this chapter, may establish a separate class of members or policy holders to whom it may issue certificates or policies of insurance on the legal reserve or level premium plan, provided that all such policies on the legal reserve or level premium plan shall be valued on a basis not lower than the valuations required for insurance companies operating on the level premium or the natural premium plan under the provisions of chapter 398. [40 G. A., ch. 171, § 3.]

8722. Cash value of policies. The net cash value of all policies in force on the legal reserve or level premium plan in any such association shall be ascertained in accordance with the basis of valuations which shall be adopted for said policies, and the amount of such ascertained valuation, and all other amounts which shall be accumulated and held in trust for the benefit of members or policy holders of any class or held for the purpose of fulfilling any contract in its policies or certificates, shall be invested in the securities provided in section 8737, and deposited with the commissioner of insurance as provided in section 8741. [40 G. A., ch. 171, § 3.]

8723. Trust funds. An amount of the funds herein provided for, not less than the reserve valuation required to be maintained on all such policies on the legal reserve or level premium plan, shall be held at all times for the exclusive use and benefit of the class of policy holders having policies on said legal reserve or level premium plan. [40 G. A., ch. 171, § 3.]

8724. Reincorporation. Any existing domestic assessment company or association, or fraternal beneficiary society may, with the written consent of the commissioner of insurance, upon a majority vote of its trustees or directors, amend its articles of incorporation and by-laws in such manner as to transform itself into a legal reserve or level premium company, and upon so doing and upon procuring from the commissioner a certificate of authority, as prescribed by law, to transact business in this state as a legal reserve or level premium company, shall incur the obligations and enjoy the benefits thereof, the same as though originally thus incorporated, and such corporation, under its charter as thus amended, shall be a continuation of such original corporation. The officers thereof shall serve through their respective terms as provided in the original charter, but their successors shall be elected and serve as in such amended articles provided; but such amendment or reincorporation shall not affect existing suits, rights, or contracts. [S. S., '15, § 1798-b.]

8725. Valuation of policies. Any assessment company or fraternal beneficiary society reincorporated to transact life insurance business, shall value its assessment policies or certificates or benefit certificates as yearly renewable term policies according to the standard of valuation of life insurance policies prescribed by the laws of this state. [S. S., '15, § 1798-b.]

8726. Reinsurance reserve required. No such company or association shall reorganize under the provisions of the two preceding sections unless it shall have accumulated sufficient surplus to constitute a reinsurance reserve equal to the unearned premium on all outstanding policies or certificates, as prescribed by the statutes of this state relating thereto. [S. S., '15, § 1798-b.]

8727. Accident or health associations. Accident or health associations may take advantage of all the provisions of the three preceding sections in so far as applicable, and may thereupon transform themselves into stock companies. [S. S., '15, § 1798-b.]

8728. Annual statement of foreign companies. Every company or association organized under the laws of any other state or country and doing business in this state shall annually, by the first day of March, file with the commissioner of insurance a statement of its affairs for the year terminating on the thirty-first day of December preceding, in the same manner and form provided for similar companies or associations organized in this state. [C., '73, § 1166; C., '97, § 1799.]

8729. Amended forms of statement. The commissioner may amend the form of the annual statement required to be made by companies or associations doing business in this state, and propose and require such additional matter to be covered therein as he may think necessary to elicit a full exhibit of the standing of any such company or association. [C., '73, § 1168; C., '97, § 1799.]

8730. Blanks for reports. All reports contemplated under sections 8653, 8695, 8697, 8728, 8729, 8822, 8945, and 8946 may be upon forms furnished by the commissioner of insurance, and who may, at his option upon authority of the executive council, purchase such forms as are approved by the national convention of insurance commissioners, known as convention edition. [S., '13, § 1820-d.]

8731. Advertisements—who deemed agent. The provisions of sections 9001 to 9005, inclusive, shall apply to life insurance companies and associations. [C., '97, § 1815.]

8732. Agent's certificate to act. No person shall, directly or indirectly, act within this state as agent, or otherwise, in receiving or procuring applications for insurance, or in doing or transacting any kind of life insurance business, for any company or association contemplated in chapters 398 and 400, except for the purpose of taking applications for organizations, unless the company or association for which he is acting has received a certificate from the commissioner of insurance authorizing it to transact business therein, and unless he shall have received from said commissioner a certificate showing that such company or association has complied with the provisions of law, and that such person is authorized to act for it. [C., '73, § 1166; C., '97, § 1800.]

8733. Violations. Any such company or association that does or solicits new business without the certificates required by the said chapters shall forfeit five hundred dollars for every day's neglect to procure the same. Any person knowingly soliciting applications or making insurance for any company or association having no such certificate from the commissioner of insurance as required, shall forfeit and pay the sum of three hundred dollars, and any person acting for any company or association authorized to transact business without having the agent's certificate prescribed in the preceding section in his possession, shall be liable to pay twenty-five dollars for each day's neglect to procure the same during the time he thus acts. [C., '73, § 1177; C., '97, § 1801.]

8734. Recovery of penalties. Actions brought to recover any of the penalties provided for in this chapter shall be instituted in the name of the state by the county attorney of the county, under the direction and authority of the commissioner of insurance, and may be brought in the district court of any county in which the company or association proceeded against is engaged in the transaction of business, or in which the offending person resides, if it is against him. The penalties, when recovered, shall be paid into the state treasury for the use of the school fund. [C., '73, § 1178; C., '97, § 1802.]

8735. Acquisition of real estate. No such company or association organized under the laws of this state shall purchase, hold or convey real estate, except for the purposes and in the manner herein set forth:

1. Such as is required for its use in the transaction of its business.

2. Such as shall have been mortgaged to it in good faith by way of security for loans previously contracted in the course of its dealings.

3. Such as shall have been conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its dealings.

4. Such as shall have been purchased at sales under execution issued upon judgments and decrees based upon debts due it, or obtained by redemption as junior judgment creditor or mortgagee. [C., '73, § 1180; C., '97, § 1803.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8699, 8737, par. 6, and 8747.

8736. When to be sold. All real estate acquired which is not necessary for such company or association in the convenient transaction of its business shall be sold within five years after it acquired title thereto, unless it procures a certificate from the commissioner of insurance that its interests will suffer by a forced sale thereof, in which event the time may be extended as the commissioner shall direct in said certificate. [C., '73, § 1181; C., '97, § 1804.]

8737. Investment of funds. The funds required by law to be deposited with the commissioner of insurance by any company or association contemplated in chapters 398 and 400, and the funds or accumulations of any such company or association organized under the laws of this state held in trust for the purpose of fulfilling any contract in its policies or certificates, shall be invested in the following described securities and no other:

1. Federal bonds. The bonds of the United States.

2. State bonds. The bonds of this state or of any other state when such bonds are at or above par.

3. Municipal bonds. Bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of any county, city, town, or school district within this state or any other state, drainage district bonds of this state, improvement certificates issued by any municipal corporation of this state, such certificates being a first lien upon real estate within the corporate limits of the municipality issuing the same, where such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness are issued by authority of and according to law and bearing interest, and are approved by the commissioner of insurance.

4. Real estate bonds and mortgages. Bonds and mortgages and other interest-bearing securities being first liens upon real estate within this state or any other state worth at least double the amount loaned thereon and secured thereby exclusive of improvements, or two and one-half times such amount including the improvements thereon, if such improvements are constructed of brick or stone.

No such improvements shall be considered in estimating the value unless the owner shall contract to keep the same insured in some reliable fire insurance company or companies authorized to do business in the state, during the life of the loan, in a sum at least equal to the excess of the loan above one-half the value of the ground exclusive of the improvements, the insurance to be made payable in case of loss to the company or association investing its funds, as its interests may appear at the time of loss.

Before a company or association may invest any of its funds in such securities as are specified in this subdivision of this section in any state other than the state of Iowa it shall first obtain consent of the commissioner of insurance so to do.

Any mortgage lien upon real estate shall not, for the purposes of this section, be held or construed to be other than a first lien by reason of the fact that drainage or other improvement assessments may have been levied against the real estate covered by said mortgage, whether the installments of said assessment be matured or not, provided that in determining the value of said real estate for loan purposes, the amount of the drainage or other assessment tax unpaid, shall be deducted.

5. Policy loans. Loans upon its own policies, where the same have been in force at least two full years, in an amount not exceeding the net terminal reserve. If such loan is made, the company must describe in the note or contract taken, the amount of the loan, the name of the borrower, the number of the policy, and the terms of such note or contract shall make the amount loaned a lien against such policy and such note or contract shall be numbered, dated, and signed, giving the postoffice address of the insured.

6. Real estate. Any such real estate in this state as is necessary for its accommodation as a home office; and in the erection of any building for such purposes, it may add thereto rooms for rent.

Before any company or association shall invest any of its funds, in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision, it shall first obtain the consent of the executive council. [C., '73, § 1179; C., '97, § 1806; S. S., '15, § 1806; 37 G. A., ch. 404, § 1.]

NOTE: For similar provisions as to home office building, see §§ 8699, 8785, and 8747.

8738. Home office—limitation. The maximum amount which any such company or association shall be permitted to invest in accordance with the provisions of subdivision 6 of the preceding section shall not exceed ten per cent of the lawful reserve on its policies or certificates of insurance, provided, however, that a stock company may invest such portion of its paid-up capital, in addition to said ten per cent of the lawful reserve on its policies, as is not held to constitute a part of its legal reserve deposit under sections 8654 and 8655; provided, further, that the total legal reserve of such company shall be equal to or exceed the amount of its paid-up capital stock. [37 G. A., ch. 404, § 1.]

8739. Real estate as deposit of legal reserve. Any company or association so investing its funds may use the value of any such real estate and home office building as a part of the deposit of legal reserve in which case it shall convey the same to the commissioner of insurance by trust deed, such property to be held by him in trust for the benefit of the policy holders or members of the company or association. [S. S., '15, § 1806; 37 G. A., ch. 404, § 1.]

8740. Reconveyance of real estate—valuation. The commissioner of insurance shall execute and deliver to the company or association a quitclaim deed to the property held by him in trust whenever the full legal reserve of said company or association shall be invested in other securities and deposited with the commissioner of insurance. The value of said property whether deeded in trust or otherwise shall be determined from time to time by the commissioner of insurance. [37 G. A., ch. 404, § 1.]

8741. Securities deposited. All such securities shall be deposited with the commissioner, subject to his approval, and shall remain with him until withdrawn in accordance with law. [C., '97, § 1806; S. S., '15, § 1806.]

8742. Payments to be reported—penalty. Any company or association receiving payments or partial payments on any securities deposited with the commissioner shall notify him of such fact, giving the amount and date of payment, within thirty days after such payment shall have been made. The officers of any company or association which fails to report the receipt of payments or partial payments as above provided, shall be liable to a fine in double the amount collected and not reported within the time and in the manner above specified. [S. S., '15, § 1806.]

8743. Withdrawals on lapsed policies. It shall be the duty of the company or association and of the officers thereof to withdraw from deposit any loans made in accordance with the provisions of subdivision 5 of section 8737 within fifteen days after the date of the lapsing or termination of any policy of insurance upon which any such loan is made. [S. S., '15, § 1806.]

8744. Purpose of withdrawal. Any association making deposit with the commissioner as herein contemplated, shall at the time of making request for the withdrawal of any securities designate for what purpose the same are desired to be withdrawn. [S. S., '15, § 1806.]

8745. Violations. The commissioner shall have authority to suspend or revoke the certificate of authority of any company or association failing to comply with any of the provisions of the eight preceding sections or for violating the same. [S. S., '15, § 1806.]

8746. Rule of valuation. All bonds or other evidences of debt having a fixed term and rate, held by any life insurance company, assessment life association, or fraternal beneficiary association authorized to do business in this state may, if amply secured and not in default as to principal and interest, be valued as follows:

1. If purchased at par, at the par value.
2. If purchased above or below par, on the basis of the purchase price adjusted so as to bring the value to par at maturity and so as to yield in the meantime the effective rate of interest at which the purchase was made.

Provided that the purchase price shall in no case be taken at a higher figure than the actual market value at the time of purchase.

The commissioner of insurance shall have full discretion in determining the method of calculating values according to the foregoing rule. [39 G. A., ch. 198.]

8747. Investment in land and buildings. Such organization may purchase such real estate in the state with a portion of its accumulations as may be necessary for its use in the transaction of its business, and in the erection of a building thereon for such purpose, to which rooms for rent may be added. [C., '97, § 1807.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8699, 8785, and 8737, par. 6.

8748. Prohibited loans. No insurance company or association organized under the statutes of this state to transact an insurance business, shall invest its capital, surplus funds, or other assets, in or loan the same on property owned by any officer or director of such company or by any of the immediate members of the family of any such officer or director. [38 G. A., ch. 348, § 13.]

8749. Officers not to profit by investments. No such officer or director shall gain through the investment of funds of any such company. [38 G. A., ch. 348, § 13.]

8750. Disbursements — vouchers— affidavit. No domestic life insurance company shall make any disbursement of one hundred dollars or more unless the same be evidenced by a voucher signed by or on behalf of the person, firm, or corporation receiving the money and correctly describing the consideration for the payment. If the expenditure be for both services and disbursements the voucher shall set forth the services rendered and an itemized statement of the disbursements made. When such voucher can not be obtained the expenditure shall be evidenced by an affidavit of some officer or agent of said company describing the character and object of the expenditure and stating the reason for not obtaining such voucher. [S., '13, § 1820-a.]

8751. Taxes—from what funds payable. In case this or any other state shall impose or levy any tax on any company or association, the same may be paid from any surplus or emergency fund of such company or association. [C., '97, § 1821.]

8752. Discrimination in foreign states. If by the laws of any state, or the rulings or decisions of the appropriate officers thereof, any burden, obligation, requirement, disqualification, or disability is put upon any company or association of any class organized in this state affecting its freedom to do business in that state, then the same or like burden, obligations, requirement, disqualification, or disability shall be put upon every such company or association of the same class from that state doing or seeking to do business in this state. [C., '97, § 1810.]

8753. Enforcement. The commissioner of insurance shall enforce the provisions of the preceding section, and in doing so may refuse or revoke the certificate of such company or association of such other state. [C., '97 § 1810.]

8754. Discrimination against domestic company. It shall be unlawful for the commissioner of insurance to impose upon companies or associations organized under chapter 400 any rules or regulations, requirements or limitations, that shall not be imposed with equal force upon like companies or associations from other states doing a like business in this state. [C., '97, § 1810.]

8755. Illegal business. Any officer, manager, or agent of any life insurance company or association who, with knowledge that it is doing business in an unlawful manner or is insolvent, solicits insurance with said company or association, or receives applications therefor, or does any other act or thing towards procuring or receiving any new business for such company or association, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and for every such act, on conviction thereof, shall be adjudged to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding one year, or be punished by both such fine and imprisonment. [C., '97, § 1814.]

8756. Contracts void—recovery—damages— attorney fees. All contracts, promises, and agreements made by any person to or with any such company or association concerning any premium, policy, or certificate of new business, after the revocation of its certificates or denial of authority to do business, shall be null and void, and all payments of premium or assessments advanced or made by any person on account of any such policy, certificate of new business, or upon any arrangement therefor, may be recovered from such company or association, or its agent to whom payment was advanced or made, or from both of them, and in addition thereto plaintiff may recover an equal amount as liquidated damages, together with a reasonable fee to plaintiff's attorney for services in the case. [C., '97, § 1814.]

8757. Fraud in procuring insurance. Any agent, physician, or other person who shall knowingly, by means of concealment of facts or false statements, procure or assist in procuring from any life insurance organization any policy or certificate of insurance, shall be punished by a fine of not to exceed one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year, or by both, in the discretion of the court. [C., '97, § 1816.]

8758. Conspiracy to defraud. If two or more persons conspire to defraud or obtain any money from any life insurance company or association by means of false statements as to the death of any person insured, or the false appearance of the death of any such person, each shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not to exceed ten years. Any person who by such means obtains any money or property on the policy or certificate of the person so insured shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not to exceed fifteen years. Any person who thus attempts to obtain money from any such company or association shall be punished by like imprisonment not to exceed seven years. [C., '97, § 1817.]

8759. Misrepresentations. No life insurance corporation doing business in this state and no officer, director, or agent thereof shall issue, circulate, or use, or cause or permit to be issued, circulated, or used, any estimate, illustration, circular, or statement of any sort misrepresenting the terms of any policy issued by it or the benefits or advantages promised thereby, or the dividends or share of surplus to be received thereon, or shall use any title of any policy or class of policies misrepresenting the true nature thereof. [S., '13, § 1820-b.]

8760. Violations. Any person violating the provisions of the preceding section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished accordingly. [S., '13, § 1820-c.]

8761. May not advertise authorized capital. No insurance company shall be permitted to advertise or publish an authorized capital, or to represent in any manner itself as possessed of any greater capital than that actually paid up and invested. [S., '13, § 1783-g.]

8762. Penalties. Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of the preceding section, or sections 8903 to 8905, inclusive, or failing to comply with any of the provisions therein, shall be subjected to the penalties provided in sections 8634 to 8637, inclusive. [S., '13, § 1783-h.]

8763. Fees from foreign companies. When not otherwise provided, each life insurance company doing business in this state, except those organized under the laws thereof, shall pay to the commissioner of insurance the following fees:

1. Upon filing declaration or certified copy of the charter or articles of incorporation, twenty-five dollars.
2. Upon filing the annual statement, twenty dollars.
3. For each certificate of authority and certified copy thereof, two dollars.
4. For each agent's certificate, two dollars.
5. For every copy of any paper filed, the sum of twenty cents per folio, and for certifying and affixing the official seal thereto, one dollar.
6. For valuing policies, ten dollars for each million dollars of insurance or fraction thereof. [C., '73, § 1183; C., '97, § 1818.]

8764. Fees from domestic companies. Companies organized under the laws of the state shall pay the following fees:

1. For filing and examination of the first application and the issuance of certificate thereon, ten dollars.
2. For filing each annual statement and issuance of renewal certificate, three dollars.
3. For each agent's certificate, fifty cents. [C., '73, § 1183; C., '97, § 1818.]

8766. Commissioner as process agent. Every life insurance company and association organized under the laws of another state or country shall, before receiving a certificate to do business in this state or any renewal thereof, file in the office of the commissioner of insurance an agreement in writing that thereafter service of notice or process of any kind may be made on the commissioner, and when so made shall be as valid, binding, and effective for all purposes as if served upon the company according to the laws of this or any other state, and waiving all claim or right of error by reason of such acknowledgment of service. [C., '73, § 1165; C., '97, § 1808.]

8767. Service of process. Such notice or process, with a copy thereof, may be mailed to the commissioner at Des Moines, Iowa, in a registered letter addressed to him by his official title, and he shall immediately upon its receipt acknowledge service thereon on behalf of the defendant foreign insurance company by writing thereon, giving the date thereof, and shall immediately return such notice or process in a registered letter to the clerk of the court in which the suit is pending, addressed to him by his official title, and shall also forthwith mail such copy, with a copy of his acknowledgment of service written thereon, in a registered letter addressed to the person or corporation who shall be named or designated by such company in such written instrument. [C., '73, § 1165; C., '97, § 1808.]

8768. Interpretation. The provisions of the two preceding sections are merely additions to the general provisions of law on the subjects therein referred to, and are not to be construed to be exclusive. [C., '97, § 1809.]

8769. Intoxication as defense. In any action pending in any court of the state on any policy or certificate of life insurance, wherein the defendant seeks to avoid liability upon the alleged ground of the intemperate habits or habitual intoxication of the assured, it shall be a sufficient defense for the plaintiff to show that such habits or habitual intoxication of the assured were generally known in the community or neighborhood where the agent of the defendant resided or did business, if thereafter the company continued to receive the premiums falling due thereon. [C., '97, § 1811.]

8770. Physician's certificate—conclusiveness. In any case where the medical examiner, or physician acting as such, of any life insurance company or association doing business in the state shall issue a certificate of health or declare the applicant a fit subject for insurance, or so report to the company or association or its agent under the rules and regulations of such company or association, it shall be thereby estopped from setting up in defense of the action on such policy or certificate that the assured was not in the condition of health required by the policy at the time of the issuance or delivery thereof, unless the same was procured by or through the fraud or deceit of the assured. [C., '97, § 1812.]

8771. Misrepresentation of age. In all cases where it shall appear that the age of the person insured has been understated in the proposal, declaration or other instrument upon which a policy of life insurance has been founded or issued, then the amount payable under the policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age; provided, however, that one who, by misstating his age, obtains life insurance not otherwise obtainable shall be entitled to recover from the insurer on account of such policy only the aggregate premiums paid. [C., '97, § 1813; 38 G. A., ch. 348, § 11.]

8772. Application for insurance—duty to attach to policy. All life insurance companies or associations organized or doing business in this state under the provisions of the preceding chapters shall, upon the issue of any policy, attach to such policy, or indorse thereon, a true copy of any application or representation of the assured which by the terms of such policy are made a part thereof, or of the contract of insurance, or referred to therein, or which may in any manner affect the validity of such policy, or, upon reinstatement of a lapsed policy, shall attach to the renewal receipt a true copy of all representations made by the assured upon which the renewal or reinstatement is made. [C., '97, § 1819.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8798 and 8974.

8773. Failure to attach—defenses—estoppel. The omission so to do shall not render the policy invalid, but if any company or association neglects to comply with the requirements of the preceding section, it shall forever be precluded from pleading, alleging or proving such application or representations, or any part thereof, or the falsity thereof, or any part thereof, in any action upon such policy, and the plaintiff in any such action shall not be required, in order to recover against such company or association, either to plead or prove such application or representation, but may do so at his option. [C., '97, § 1819.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8794 and 8975.

8774. Limitation on proofs of loss. No stipulation or condition in any policy or contract of insurance or beneficiary certificate issued by any company or association mentioned or referred to in this chapter, limiting the time to a period of less than one year after knowledge by the beneficiary within which notice or proofs of death or the occurrence of other contingency insured against must be given, shall be valid. [C., '97, § 1820; S., '13, § 1820.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8775, 8978, 8979, 8986, and 9045.

8775. Limitation under health and accident. In case of accident or health insurance it shall be valid for any company or association to limit by contract the time when notice or proofs of death, cause of disability or other contingency insured against shall be given; but in no case shall said notice be limited to a period of less than sixty days after knowledge by the beneficiary within which such notice or proofs must be given. [S., '13, § 1820.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8774, 8978, 8979, 8986, and 9045.

8776. Policy exempt from execution. A policy of insurance on the life of an individual, in the absence of an agreement or assignment to the contrary, shall inure to the separate use of the husband or wife and children of said individual, independently of his creditors.

The proceeds of an endowment policy payable to the assured on attaining a certain age shall be exempt from liability for any of his debts.

Any benefit or indemnity paid under an accident policy shall be exempt to the assured, or in case of his death to the husband or wife and children of the assured, from his debts.

The avails of all policies of life or accident insurance payable to the surviving widow shall be exempt from liability for all debts of such beneficiary contracted prior to the death of the assured, but the amount thus exempted shall not exceed five thousand dollars. [C., '51, § 1330; R., '60, § 2362; C., '73, §§ 1182, 2372; C., '97, § 1805.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8688, 8796, and 11919.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

8777. Definition. A fraternal beneficiary association is hereby declared to be a corporation, society, or voluntary association, formed or organized and carried on for the sole benefit of its members and their beneficiaries, and not for profit, and having a lodge system, with ritualistic form of work and representative form of government. [C., '97, § 1822; S., '13, § 1822.]

8778. Death, sick, and disability benefits. Such association shall make provision for the payment of benefits in case of death, and may make provision for the payment of benefits in case of sickness, temporary or permanent physical disability, either as a result of disease, accident or old age, provided the period of life at which payment of physical disability benefits on account of old age commences shall not be under seventy years, subject to the compliance by members with its constitution and laws. [C., '97, § 1822; S., '13, § 1822.]

8779. Exclusive religious orders. Beneficiary societies or associations, whose membership is confined to the members of any one religious denomination, shall only be required to have a branch system and a representative form of government. Such beneficiary societies or associations shall be governed by the provisions of this chapter, and shall be exempt from the provisions of the statutes of this state, relating to life insurance companies, to the same extent as fraternal beneficiary associations. [S., '13, § 1822.]

8780. Sick and funeral benefits only. The provisions of this chapter shall not be construed to include fraternal orders which only provide for sick and funeral benefits. [C., '97, § 1822; S., '13, § 1822.]

8781. Certificates permitted. Any fraternal beneficiary society issuing certificates, based upon rates not lower than those required by the mortality table set forth in section 8823, may issue certificates providing for death benefits upon the term, whole life, or limited payment plan, in which event it shall maintain the required legal reserve on all such certificates, based on the standard adopted for the issuing of such certificates, which said reserve shall be set aside and held as a special reserve fund for the exclusive benefit of the members contributing thereto. [38 G. A., ch. 343, § 1.]

8782. Benefits. Any such society may grant to its members extended and paid-up protection or such withdrawal equities as its constitution and laws may permit, provided that such grants

8888. Revocation or suspension of authority—action by attorney general.
8889. Expenses—how paid.
8890. Illegal business.
8891. Application for receiver.
8892. When commenced.
8893. Examinations confidential.

shall in no case exceed in value the portion of the reserve to the credit of the members to whom they are made. [38 G. A., ch. 343, § 1.]

8783. Exclusive membership in religious order. Any corporation heretofore organized under the laws of this or any other state, whose membership is confined to the members of any one religious denomination, and whose plan of business permits, may take advantage of the preceding sections of this chapter by amendment to its articles of incorporation, and by complying with the provisions of sections 8806 to 8811, inclusive; provided that such corporations as on March 15, 1907, were and have since continuously been doing business under chapter 400, may take advantage of said sections without raising their mortuary assessment rates or showing that their said rates are such as are required by section 8823. [S. S., '15, § 1822-a.]

8784. Assessments. The fund from which the payment of such benefits shall be made and the expenses of such association defrayed shall be derived from beneficiary calls, assessments, or dues collected from its members. [C., '97, § 1823.]

8785. Insurable age—beneficiary. No fraternal association created or organized under the provisions of this chapter shall issue any certificate of membership to any person under the age of fifteen years, or over the age of sixty-five years, or unless the beneficiary under said certificate shall be the wife, husband, relative by blood to the fourth degree, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, step-father, step-mother, step-children, children by legal adoption, legal representative, or to a person or persons dependent upon the member. [C., '97, § 1824; 38 G. A., ch. 240, § 1.]

8787. Change in beneficiary. Within the above restrictions each member shall have the right to designate his beneficiary and from time to time have the same changed in accordance with the laws, rules, or regulations of the society. [38 G. A., ch. 240, § 1.]

8788. Vested interest. No beneficiary shall have or obtain any vested interest in said benefit until the same has become due and payable upon the death of said member. [38 G. A., ch. 240, § 1.]

8789. Additional limitation. Any society may, by its laws, limit the scope of beneficiaries within the above classes. [38 G. A., ch. 240, § 1.]

8790. Association as beneficiary. Any association or society, whose articles of incorporation, or constitution, or rules, or by-laws, provide that at the time of the admission to membership into such society, every member, when joining shall belong to one occupation or guild, may become a beneficiary as may be provided in its articles of incorporation, or constitution, or rules, or by-laws. [39 G. A., ch. 240.]

8791. Statutes applicable. Such associations shall be governed by this chapter, and shall be exempt from the provisions of the statutes of this state relating to life insurance companies, except as hereinafter provided. [C., '97, § 1825.]

8792. Change in beneficiary notwithstanding contract. No contract between a member and his beneficiary that the beneficiary or any person for him shall pay such member's assessments and dues, or either of them, shall deprive the member of the right to change the name of the beneficiary. [C., '97, § 1834.]

8793. Duty to attach copy of application. All such associations shall, upon the issue or renewal of any beneficiary certificate, attach to such certificate or indorse thereon a true copy of any application or representation of the member which by the terms of such certificate are made a part thereof. [C., '97, § 1826.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8772 and 8974.

8794. Failure to attach. The omission so to do shall not render the certificate invalid, but if any such association neglects to comply with the requirements of the preceding section it shall not plead or prove the falsity of any such certificate or representation or any part thereof in any action upon such certificate, and the plaintiff in any such action, in order to recover against such association, shall not be required to either plead or prove such application or representation. [C., '97, § 1826.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8773 and 8975.

8795. Where suable. Such associations may be sued in any county in which is kept their principal place of business, or in which the beneficiary contract was made, or in which the death of the member occurred; but actions to recover old age, sick, or accident benefits may, at the option of the beneficiary, be brought in the county of his residence. [C., '97, § 1827.]

8796. Exemption of proceeds. The proceeds of any beneficiary certificate issued by any such association, and of any claims for benefits, shall be exempt from execution and attachment, to the same extent as the proceeds of any policy of life or endowment insurance, as is now or may hereafter be provided by the laws of this state. [C., '97, § 1828.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8683, 8776 and 11919.

8797. Permit to foreign companies—conditions. Any such association organized under the laws of any other state shall be permitted to do business in this state, when it shall have filed with the commissioner of insurance a duly certified copy of its charter and articles of association, and a copy of its constitution or laws, certified to by its secretary or corresponding officer, together with an appointment of the commissioner as a person upon whom process may be served as hereinafter provided, if such association shall be shown to be authorized to do business in the state in which it is incorporated or organized. [C., '97, § 1829.]

8798. Examination. The commissioner may personally, or by some person to be designated by him, examine into the conditions, affairs, character and business methods, accounts, books, and investments of such association at its home office, which examination shall be at the expense of such association, and shall be made within thirty days after demand therefor. [C., '97, § 1829.]

8799. Expense. The expense of such examination shall be limited to five dollars per day and the necessary expenses of travel and for hotel bills. [C., '97, § 1829.]

8801. Commissioner as process agent. Any such association permitted to do business within this state, and not having its principal office within this state, and not organized under the laws of this state, shall appoint, in writing, the commissioner of insurance to be attorney in fact, on whom all process in any action or proceeding against it shall be served, and in such writing shall agree that any process against it which is served on said attorney in fact shall be of the same validity as if served upon the association, and that the authority shall continue in force so long as any liability remains outstanding in this state. [C., '97, § 1831.]

8802. Copies. Copies of such certificate, certified by said commissioner, shall be deemed sufficient evidence thereof, and shall be admitted in evidence with the same force and effect as the original. [C., '97, § 1831.]

8803. Service—notice to association. When legal process against any such association is served upon said commissioner, he shall immediately notify the association of such service by letter, postage prepaid, directed and mailed to its secretary or corresponding officer, and shall within two days after such service forward in the same manner a copy of the process served on him to such officer. [C., '97, § 1831.]

8804. Service deemed sufficient. Service upon such attorney shall be deemed sufficient service upon such association. [C., '97, § 1831.]

8806. Commencement of business—conditions. Before any beneficiary society, order, or association shall be authorized to commence business within this state, it shall submit to the commissioner of insurance its by-laws or rules by which it is to be governed, and also its articles of incorporation, if a corporation, which shall include its plan of business. [S., '13, § 1832; 39 G. A., ch. 270.]

8807. Opinion of attorney general. The commissioner shall thereupon submit its articles of incorporation to the attorney general for examination, and if found by him to be in harmony with this title, chapter, and with law, he shall so certify upon said articles and return them to the commissioner. [S., '13, § 1832.]

8808. Permit—fees. If the commissioner shall approve the articles and also the by-laws or rules, he shall issue to the society, order, or association a permit in writing, authorizing it to transact business within this state for a period of one year from the first day of April of the year of its issue, for which certificate and all proceedings in connection therewith, there shall be paid to the commissioner a fee of twenty-five dollars, and for each annual renewal thereof a like fee shall be paid. [C., '97, § 1832; S., '13, § 1832.]

8809. Insurance required. Before such certificate shall be issued, the fraternal society, order, or association shall have actual bona fide applications upon the lives of at least five hundred persons, residents of this state, for at least one thousand dollars of insurance each, and the commissioner may require the presentation of such applications, signed by the applicants themselves. [S., '13, § 1832.]

8810. Renewal of permit conditional. No renewal of certificate of authority shall be made to any society, order, or association whose membership, in good standing, or the amount of whose insurance in force shall be reduced below the above requirements. [S., '13, § 1832.]

8811. Foreign societies—conditions. Societies, orders, or associations not organized under the laws of this state, in addition to the requirements of the provisions of section 8797, must also comply with all of the provisions of this chapter, except as to the residence of membership; provided that no such society, order, or association shall be authorized to transact business within this state unless it shall be shown to have actual members, in good standing, of at least one thousand, and at least one million dollars of insurance in force. [S., '13, § 1832.]

8812. Employment of agents. Such association shall not employ paid agents in soliciting or procuring members, except in the organization or building up of subordinate bodies, or granting members inducements to procure new members. [C., '97, § 1833.]

8813. Meetings in foreign states. Any such association organized under the laws of this state may provide for the meetings of its legislative or governing body in any other state, territory, or province wherein such association shall have subordinate bodies, and all business transacted at such meetings shall be valid, in all respects, as if such meetings were held within this state. [C., '97, § 1835.]

8814. Voting in foreign state. Where the laws of any such association provide for the election of its officers by votes to be cast in its subordinate bodies, the votes so cast in its subordinate bodies in any other state, territory, or province shall be valid, as if cast within this state. [C., '97, § 1835.]

8815. Violations of statute. Any such association refusing or neglecting to make the report as provided in this chapter shall be excluded from doing business within this state. [C., '97, § 1836.]

8816. Delinquency reported—injunction. The commissioner of insurance must, within sixty days after failure to make such report, or in case any such association shall exceed its powers, or shall conduct its business fraudulently, or shall fail to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter, give notice in writing to the attorney general, who shall immediately commence an action against such association to enjoin the same from carrying on any business. [C., '97, § 1836.]

8817. Business prohibited—reinstatement. No association so enjoined shall have authority to continue business until such report shall be made, or overt act or violation complained of shall have been corrected, or until the costs of such action be paid by it, provided the court shall find that such association was in default, as charged; whereupon the commissioner shall reinstate such association, and not until then shall such association be allowed to again do business in this state. [C., '97, § 1836.]

8818. Violations. Any officer, agent, or person acting for any such association or subordinate body thereof within this state, while such association shall be so enjoined or prohibited from doing business pursuant to this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than thirty days nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. [C., '97, § 1836.]

8819. Illegal business—agents. Any person who shall act within this state as an officer, agent, or otherwise for any such association which has failed, neglected, or refused to comply with, or which has violated any of the provisions of this chapter, or shall have failed or neglected to procure from the commissioner of insurance proper certificate of authority to transact business as provided for by this chapter, shall be subject to the penalty provided in the preceding section for the misdemeanor therein specified. [C., '97, § 1837.]

8820. False representations. Any officer, agent, or member of such association, who shall obtain any money or property belonging thereto by any false or fraudulent representation, shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars and costs, and stand committed until such fine and costs are paid, or may be imprisoned in the county jail not more than six months. [C., '97, § 1838.]

8821. Physician's certificate. Every applicant for membership in any association organized in this state shall first be examined by a physician holding a certificate from the state department of health. [C., '97, § 1839.]

8822. Report. Every such association doing business in this state shall, on or before the first day of March of each year, make, and file with the commissioner of insurance, a report for the year ending on the thirty-first day of December immediately preceding. All reports shall be upon blank forms to be provided by the commissioner, or may be printed in pamphlet form, and shall be verified under oath by the authorized officers of such association, and shall be published, or the substance thereof, in the annual report of the commissioner under the separate title "Fraternal Beneficiary Associations", and shall contain answers to the following questions:

1. Number of certificates issued during the year, or members admitted.
2. Amount of indemnity effected thereby.
3. Number of losses or benefit liabilities incurred.
4. Number of losses or benefit liabilities paid.
5. The amount received from each assessment for the year.
6. Total amount paid members, beneficiaries, legal representatives, or heirs.
7. Number and kind of claims for which assessments have been made.

8. Number and kind of claims compromised or resisted, and brief statement of reason.

9. Does association charge annual or other periodical dues or admission fees.

10. How much on each one thousand dollars annually, or per capita, as the case may be.

11. Total amount received, from what source, and the disposition thereof.

12. Total amount of salaries, fees, per diem, mileage, expenses paid to officers, showing amount paid to each.

13. Does the association guarantee, in its certificates, fixed amounts to be paid regardless of amount realized from assessments, dues, admission fees, and donations.

14. If so, state amount guaranteed, and the security of such guarantee.

15. Has the association a reserve or emergency fund.

16. If so, how is it created, and for what purpose, the amount thereof, and how invested.

17. Has the association more than one class.

18. If so, how many, and amount of indemnity in each.

19. Number of members in each class.

20. If voluntary, so state, and give date of organization.

21. If organized under the laws of this state, under what law and at what time, giving chapter and year, and date of passage of the act.

22. If organized under the laws of any other state, territory, or province, state such fact and the date of organization, giving chapter and year, and date of passage of the act.

23. Number of certificates of beneficiary membership lapsed during the year.

24. Number in force at beginning and end of year; if more than one class, number in each class.

25. Names and addresses of its presidents, secretary, and treasurer, or corresponding officers.

The commissioner is empowered to make any additional inquiries of any such association relative to the business contemplated by this chapter, and such officer of such association as the commissioner may require shall promptly reply in writing, under oath, to all such inquiries. [C., '97, § 1830.]

RATES

8823. Mortuary assessment rates. No fraternal beneficiary society not admitted to transact business in this state prior to July 4, 1907, shall be incorporated, or given a permit or certificate of authority to transact business within this state, unless it shall first show that the mortuary assessment rates provided for in whatever plan of business it has adopted, including the issuance of term, whole life, or limited payment certificates with withdrawal options, are not lower than is indicated as necessary by the following mortality table:

[S., '13, § 1839-j; 38 G. A., ch. 227, § 1.]

8824. Exceptions. The preceding section shall not be construed so as to apply to or affect any association organized solely for benevolent purposes and whose articles of incorporation, constitution, rules or by-laws provide, that, at the time of the admission to membership, each member, when joining, shall belong to one certain occupation or guild. [S., '13, § 1839-j; 37 G. A., ch. 193, § 1.]

If the society makes loans on its certificates, the valuation shall be based upon a mortality table not lower than the American table of mortality and four and one-half per cent interest. [S., '13, § 1839-j; 37 G. A., ch. 113, § 1.]

INVESTMENTS

8826. Real estate for home office. Any fraternal beneficiary society, order, or association organized under the laws of this state, accumulating money to be held in trust for the purpose of the fulfillment of its certificates or contracts, shall be permitted to invest not to exceed ten per cent of the aggregate amount of such accumulation in such real estate in this state as is necessary for its accommodation as a home office, and in the purchase or erection of any building for such purpose it may add thereto rooms for rent; provided that before any association shall invest any of its funds in accordance with the provisions of this section it shall first obtain the consent of the executive council. [S., '13, § 1839-k.]

8827. Society to authorize. Nothing in the preceding section shall be construed to permit the officials or board of directors of such society, order, or association to make such investment without authority specifically granted by the said society, order, or association through its grand or supreme lodge or convention. [S., '13, § 1839-k.]

8828. Conveyance to commissioner—valuation. Any company or association so investing its funds shall convey the real estate thus acquired to the commissioner of insurance by deed, such property to be held by him in trust for the benefit of the members of such association, the value thereof to be determined from time to time by the commissioner. [S., '13, § 1839-k; 37 G. A., ch. 379, § 1.]

8829. Schedule of investments. Any fraternal beneficiary society, order, or association organized under the laws of this state, accumulating money to be held in trust for the purpose of the fulfillment of its certificates or contracts, shall invest such accumulations in the following securities and no other:

1. Federal bonds. Bonds of the United States.
2. State bonds. Bonds of this or of any other state, when such bonds are at or above par.
3. Municipal bonds. Bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of any county, city, town, or school district within the state, or any other state, or drainage bonds of any drainage district in the state where such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness are issued by authority of and according to law, and bearing interest, and are approved by the executive council.

4. Real estate bonds and mortgages. Bonds, mortgages, and other interest-bearing securities being first liens upon real estate within this state or any other state, worth at least double the amount loaned thereon and secured thereby exclusive of improvements, or two and one-half times such amount including the improvements thereon, if such improvements are constructed of brick or stone; but no such improvements shall be considered in estimating the value unless the owner shall contract to keep the same insured in some reliable fire insurance company or companies authorized to do business in the state, during the life of the loan, in a sum at least double the excess of the loan above one-half the value of the ground exclusive of the improvements, the insurance to be made payable in case of loss to the company or association investing its funds, as its interest may appear at the time of loss.

5. Loans on certificates. Loans on certificates of members, provided that the valuation of the society shows a maintenance of reserve not lower than the usual reserve computed upon the American table of mortality and four and one-half per cent interest. [S., '13, § 1839-l; 37 G. A., ch. 193, § 2.]

8831. Payment of securities. Any fraternal beneficiary society, order, or association receiving payments, or partial payments on any securities deposited with the commissioner, shall notify him of such fact giving the amount and date of payment within fifteen days after such payment shall have been made. [S., '13, § 1839-l.]

8832. Failure to report payments. The officers of any society, order, or association which fails to report the receipt of payments or partial payments as above provided shall be liable to a fine in double the amount collected and not reported within the time and in the manner above specified. [S., '13, § 1839-l.]

8833. Authority for fund—purpose of withdrawal. Any society, order, or association required to make a deposit with the commissioner as herein contemplated, shall at the time of making such deposit, designate by what provisions of its articles of incorporation or laws such fund is accumulated and upon making request for withdrawal of any funds shall designate for what purpose such withdrawal is desired. [S., '13, § 1839-l.]

8834. Change of securities. Any society, order, or association, may at any time change its securities on deposit by depositing a like amount in other securities of the same character and the commissioner shall permit a withdrawal of the same upon satisfactory proof in writing filed with him that they are to be used for the purpose for which they were originally deposited. [S., '13, § 1839-l.]

8835. Violations—associations excepted. The commissioner shall have authority to suspend or revoke the certificate of authority of any society, order, or association failing to comply with any of the provisions of the six preceding sections or for violating the same. Nothing in the six preceding sections shall be construed to apply to any association organized solely for benevolent purposes and whose articles of incorporation, constitution, rules or by-laws provide that, at the time of the admission to membership, each member, when joining, shall belong to one certain occupation, guild, profession, or religious denomination. [S., '13, § 1839-l; 37 G. A., ch. 193, § 2.]

8836. Applicability—exceptions. The provisions of this chapter shall not be construed to apply to organizations, societies, or associations, the membership of which consists of female members of the families of members of any one occupation, guild, profession, or religious denomination, nor shall the provisions of this chapter be construed to apply to auxiliary societies or associations, the membership of which consists of female members of the families of members of any one occupation, guild, profession, or religious denomination. [S., '13, § 1839-l; 37 G. A., ch. 193, § 2.]

BENEFITS ON LIVES OF CHILDREN

8837. Authorization. Any fraternal benefit society authorized to do business in this state and operating on the lodge plan, may provide in its constitution and by-laws, in addition to other benefits provided for therein, for the payment of death or annuity benefits upon the lives of children between the ages of two and eighteen years at next birthday, for whose support and maintenance a member of such society is responsible. [37 G. A., ch. 431, § 1.]

8838. Branch organizations. Any such society may at its option organize and operate branches for such children, and membership in local lodges and initiation therein shall not be required of such children, nor shall they have any voice in the management of the society. [37 G. A., ch. 431, § 1.]

8839. Maximum benefits. The total benefits payable as above provided shall in no case exceed the following amounts at ages at next birthday at time of death, respectively, as follows: Two, thirty-four dollars; three, forty dollars; four, forty-eight dollars; five, fifty-eight dollars; six, one hundred forty dollars; seven, one hundred sixty-eight dollars; eight, two hundred dollars; nine, two hundred forty dollars; ten, three hundred dollars; eleven, three hundred eighty dollars; twelve, four hundred sixty dollars; thirteen to fifteen, five hundred twenty dollars, and sixteen to eighteen years, where not otherwise authorized by law, six hundred dollars. [37 G. A., ch. 431, § 1.]

8840. Certificates—conditions. No benefit certificate as to any child shall take effect until after medical examination or inspection by a licensed medical practitioner, in accordance with the laws of the society, nor shall the first benefit certificate be so issued unless the society shall simultaneously put in force at least five hundred such certificates, on each of which at least one assessment has been paid, nor where the number of lives represented by such certificate falls below five hundred. [37 G. A., ch. 431, § 2.]

8841. Death benefit contributions. The death benefit contributions to be made upon such certificate shall be based upon the standard mortality table of the English life table number six and a rate of interest not greater than four per cent per annum, or upon a higher standard; provided that contributions may be waived or returns may be made from any surplus held in excess of reserve and other liabilities, as provided in the by-laws, and provided, further, that extra contributions shall be made if the reserves hereafter provided for become impaired. [37 G. A., ch. 431, § 2.]

8842. Reserve required. Any society entering into such insurance agreements shall maintain on all such contracts the reserve required by the standard of mortality and interest adopted by the society for computing contributions, as provided in the preceding section. [37 G. A., ch. 431, § 3.]

8843. Segregation of fund. The funds representing the benefit contributions and all accretions thereon shall be kept as separate and distinct funds, independent of the other funds of the society, and shall not be liable for nor used for the payment of the debts and obligations of the society other than the benefits herein authorized. [37 G. A., ch. 431, § 3.]

8844. Cancellation and exchange of certificate. A society may provide that when a child reaches the minimum age for initiation into membership in such society, any benefit certificate issued under section 8837 may be surrendered for cancellation and exchanged for any other form of certificate issued by the society, provided that such surrender will not reduce the number of lives insured in the branch below five hundred, and upon the issuance of such new certificate any reserve upon the original certificate herein provided for shall be transferred to the credit of the new certificate. [37 G. A., ch. 431, § 3.]

8845. No vested interest in new certificate. Neither the person who originally made application for benefits on account of such child, nor the beneficiary named in such original certificate, nor the person who paid the contributions, shall have any vested right in such new certificate, the free nomination of a beneficiary under the new certificate being left to the child so admitted to benefit membership. [37 G. A., ch. 431, § 3.]

8846. Annual financial statement. An entirely separate financial statement of the business transactions and of assets and liabilities arising therefrom shall be made in its annual report to the commissioner of insurance by any society availing itself of the provisions of sections 8837 to 8839, inclusive. [37 G. A., ch. 431, § 4.]

8847. Integrity of fund. The separation of assets, funds, and liabilities required hereby shall not be terminated, rescinded, or modified nor shall the funds be diverted for any use other than as specified in sections 8842 to 8844, inclusive, as long as any certificates issued under section 8837 remain in force, and this requirement shall be recognized and enforced in any liquidation, reinsurance, merger, or other change in the condition of the status of the society. [37 G. A., ch. 431, § 4.]

8848. Specified payments. Any society shall have the right to provide in its laws and the certificate issued under section 8837 for specified payments on account of the expense or general fund, which payments shall or shall not be mingled with the general fund of the society as its constitution and by-laws may provide. [37 G. A., ch. 431, § 5.]

8849. Lapse of membership of parent. In the event of the termination of membership in the society by a person responsible for the support of any child, on whose account a certificate may have been issued, the certificate may be continued for the benefit of the estate of the child, provided the contributions are continued, or for the benefit of any other person responsible for the support and maintenance of such child, who shall assume the payment of the required contributions. [37 G. A., ch. 431, § 6.]

FRATERNAL CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS

8850. General power granted. It shall be lawful for any fraternal beneficiary society, order, or association now organized and existing, or hereafter organized under and by virtue of the laws of this state, or any such society, order, or association organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of any other state, province, or territory, and now or hereafter admitted to do business within this state, to create, maintain, and operate, for the benefit of its sick, disabled, or distressed members and their families and dependents, out of any general, special, or expense fund, and from any voluntary contributions it may receive therefor, hospitals, asylums, sanatoriums, schools, or homes. [40 G. A., ch. 172, § 1.]

8851. Financial powers. For such purpose any such society, order, or association may own, hold, lease, mortgage, sell, and convey personal property and real property located within or without this state, with necessary buildings thereon; provided that the amount of the general, special, or expense fund to be expended, as herein provided, shall not exceed such amounts as shall have been or shall be, from time to time, authorized by the legislative or supreme governing body of such society, order, or association. [40 G. A., ch. 172, § 1.]

8852. Charges. Maintenance, treatment, training and proper attendance in any such hospital, asylum, sanatorium, school, or home may be furnished free, or a reasonable charge may be made therefor. [40 G. A., ch. 172, § 1.]

8853. Profit prohibited. No such hospital, asylum, sanatorium, school, or home shall be operated for profit. [40 G. A., ch. 172, § 1.]

8854. General funds protected. No part of the cost or expense of creating, maintaining, or operating any such hospital, asylum, sanatorium, school, or home shall be defrayed or paid out of the mortuary, sick, disability, or benefit funds of any such society. [40 G. A., ch. 172, § 1.]

8855. Management. The management of such institutions shall be in such officers as the supreme governing body may designate, and such officers may or may not be members of the society, order, or association. [40 G. A., ch. 172, § 1.]

8856. Legal standing. Any such hospital, asylum, sanatorium, school, or home, when established in the manner provided by section 8850, is hereby declared to be a charitable institution, with all the rights, benefits, and privileges given to charitable institutions under and by the constitution and laws of this state. [40 G. A., ch. 172, § 2.]

8857. May be beneficiary. Such hospital, asylum, sanatorium, school, or home is hereby declared to be competent to be named and to take as beneficiary in and by the benefit certificate of any member of such society, order, or association. [40 G. A., ch. 172, § 2.]

8858. General powers of commissioner. The commissioner of insurance shall have the same powers, supervision, and control over such hospitals, asylums, sanatoriums, schools, and homes erected by any such society incorporated in this state, as he now has, or may hereafter legally exercise over fraternal beneficiary societies organized or transacting business in this state. [40 G. A., ch. 172, § 3.]

8859. Mismanagement—delinquency reported. Whenever the commissioner of insurance finds that any such hospital, asylum, sanatorium, school, or home erected by such domestic society is being mismanaged or that the interest of the society or public requires it, the commissioner may direct an order to the officers responsible for such mismanagement or in control of such institution with reference to such mismanagement, and if such officers refuse, neglect, or fail to comply with such order within the time fixed by the commissioner of insurance, the commissioner shall communicate the fact to the attorney general. [40 G. A., ch. 172, § 3.]

8860. Duty of attorney general—decree. The attorney general shall proceed in the manner provided for in section 8888, or the court may remove such officers guilty of mismanagement and appoint others until the society may regularly elect or select other officers to succeed those deposed. [40 G. A., ch. 172, § 3.]

CONSOLIDATION OR REINSURANCE

8861. Presenting proposed plan. When any fraternal beneficiary association shall propose to consolidate or enter into any reinsurance contract with any other association or organization, it shall present its proposed plan of consolidation or reinsurance, together with a statement of the condition of its affairs to the commissioner of insurance for his approval. [S., '13, § 1839-g.]

8862. Submission of plan—notice. Should the commissioner approve the plan, the same shall be submitted by any association proposing to reinsure its risks or transfer its business, to its local lodges or organizations or to a regular or special meeting of its supreme lodge or governing body to be voted upon, such notice being given as the commissioner may direct. [S., '13, § 1839-g.]

8863. Submission to reinsuring association. If, in the judgment of the commissioner, it is deemed advisable he may also require the plan to be in like manner submitted to the association proposing to accept or reinsure the risks of any other association. [S., '13, § 1839-g.]

8864. Multiple consolidation. In case two or more associations propose to consolidate, the proposed plan of consolidation shall be submitted, as above provided, to all of the associations interested in such consolidation. [S., '13, § 1839-g.]

8865. Approval—proxies. In any of the above cases, a two-thirds vote of all of the members of each association present and voting shall be necessary to an approval of any plan of consolidation or reinsurance, and in no case shall proxies be voted. [S., '13, § 1839-g.]

8866. Official order of approval. On presenting to the commissioner satisfactory proof that the foregoing provisions have been complied with and that the required number of votes have been cast in favor of the proposed plan, he shall issue to the association an order to the effect that the plan has been approved, and the same shall be in force and effect from and after the date of such order, and the commissioner shall direct such distribution of the assets of any such association or associations as shall be just and equitable. [S., '13, § 1839-g.]

8867. Expenses. All expenses or costs incident to proceedings under the provisions of the six preceding sections shall be paid by the associations interested. [S., '13, § 1839-h.]

8868. Violations. Any officer, director, or manager of any association violating or consenting to the violation of any of the provisions of sections 8861 to 8866, inclusive, shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court. [S., '13, § 1839-i.]

REORGANIZATION

8869. Authorization. Any existing fraternal beneficiary society may amend its articles of incorporation and by-laws in such a manner as to transform itself into a legal reserve level premium company doing business either as a mutual or stock company, but only after complying with the provisions of the fourteen following sections. [38 G. A., ch. 302, § 1.]

8870. Submission of plan. Whenever any such society shall propose to transform itself into a legal reserve level premium company as herein provided, it shall file with the commissioner of insurance, its proposed articles and by-laws, its plan of transformation, setting forth in detail the terms and conditions of such transformation and also the method by which it proposes to protect the interests of its membership. [38 G. A., ch. 302, § 1.]

8871. Notice. The commissioner may proceed to hear and determine such petition without notice, or, if he deems it necessary that such notice should be given in order to conserve the interests of the membership, he shall require the society to first notify, by mail, all of the members of such society of the pendency of such petition, the contents of such notice to be determined by the commissioner. [38 G. A., ch. 302, § 1.]

8872. Appearance. When notice shall have been given, as above provided, any member of said society shall have the right to appear before said commissioner and be heard with reference to said petition. [38 G. A., ch. 302, § 1.]

8873. Examination. The commissioner may also make such examination into the affairs and conditions of the society as he deems proper, and shall have power to summon and compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses, and the production of books and papers, and may administer oaths. [38 G. A., ch. 302, § 1.]

8874. Authorization order. If satisfied that the interests of the membership of said society are properly protected and that no reasonable objection to said petition exists, the commissioner may authorize in writing, such transformation, or may first require such modification thereof as may seem to him necessary for the best interests of such membership. [38 G. A., ch. 302, § 1.]

8875. Disposition of assets. The said commissioner shall make such order and disposition of the assets of any such society as in his judgment may be just and equitable. [38 G. A., ch. 302, § 1.]

8876. Submission to supreme governing body. The commissioner shall require the plan of transformation to be submitted to the supreme governing body of such society, to be voted upon. When submitted, it shall be either at a regular meeting of said supreme governing body or at a special meeting of same called for that purpose. [38 G. A., ch. 302, § 2.]

8877. Notice — vote required — proxies. A notice of said special meeting, in the form approved by the commissioner of insurance, shall be given in accordance with the requirement of the by-laws of such society. When so submitted, a majority vote of the said supreme governing body present and voting, as authorized by its articles of incorporation and by-laws, shall be necessary to an approval of such plan of transformation; and no proxies shall in any case be voted. [38 G. A., ch. 302, § 2.]

8878. Referendum. If the supreme governing body approves the plan of transformation, the board of directors or other managing body of such society shall submit the plan to a referendum vote of the members of such society under such regulations as may be prescribed by the commissioner of insurance, and if the result of such vote shall show that the majority of the members of such society has voted to repeal the action of the supreme governing body, then the same shall be considered as repealed by such society and shall be null and of no effect. [38 G. A., ch. 302, § 2.]

8879. Approval by commissioner—vote filed. Any such plan of transformation submitted to the supreme governing body as herein contemplated, must first have been approved by the commissioner of insurance; and the result of said vote must be filed with such commissioner and be by him determined before any transformation shall be so effective. [38 G. A., ch. 302, § 2.]

8880. Conditions precedent. No such transformation shall take place until after its plan has been approved by the commissioner, either with or without a hearing as herein provided, and until such approved plan has been adopted by a majority vote of the board of directors or board of trustees of such society; and, if submitted to the supreme governing body, until such approved plan has also been adopted by a majority vote of the said supreme governing body present and voting. [38 G. A., ch. 302, § 2.]

8881. Effect of reorganization—officers. Any such society so transformed, shall incur the obligations and enjoy the benefits thereof the same as though originally thus incorporated, and such corporation, under its charter as thus amended, shall be a continuation of such original corporation, and the officers thereof shall serve through their respective terms as provided in the original charter, but their successors shall be elected and serve as in such amended articles provided. [38 G. A., ch. 302, § 3.]

8882. Pending suits. Such amendment or reincorporation shall not affect existing suits, claims, or contracts. [38 G. A., ch. 302, § 3.]

8883. Purchase of stock. Any such fraternal beneficiary society taking advantage of the second preceding section, to reorganize into a stock company shall offer to each member of said society the privilege of subscribing for and purchasing his or her proportionate amount of capital stock. [38 G. A., ch. 302, § 3.]

8884. Valuation of existing certificates. The existing certificates of membership of any fraternal beneficiary society which shall have transformed itself into a legal reserve level premium life insurance company, in conformity with the provisions of sections 8869 to 8875, inclusive, shall be valued as follows:

1. Certificates on which rates of contribution are not on the basis of any table of mortality, valued as yearly renewable term policies according to the standard of valuation of life insurance policies prescribed by the laws of this state.

2. Certificates on which the rates of contribution are based upon a standard table of mortality and specified rate of interest, valued in accordance with such standard.

The reserve so ascertained shall be held as a liability by the company in its annual statement rendered to the insurance department. [38 G. A., ch. 302, § 4.]

EXAMINATION AND RECEIVERSHIP

8885. Association defined. The term "association" when used in this chapter shall mean any society, order, or association organized or authorized under the provisions of this chapter. [S., '13, § 1839-a.]

8886. Examination. The commissioner of insurance may, at any time he may deem it advisable, either in person or by his legally appointed representative, make an examination of, or inquire into the affairs of any fraternal beneficiary association authorized or seeking to be authorized to transact business within this state, provided the examination of associations organized under the laws of this state shall not be less frequent than once during each biennial period. [S., '13, § 1839-b; 38 G. A., ch. 348, § 12; 39 G. A., ch. 209, § 18.]

8887. Officers to assist—oaths. When an association is being examined, the officers, agents, or employees thereof shall produce for inspection all books, papers, documents, or other information concerning the affairs of the association and shall otherwise assist in the examination. The commissioner of insurance or examiner shall have authority to administer oaths, and may summon and may examine under oath any officer, employee, representative, or agent of any association concerning its affairs or condition. [S., '13, § 1839-c.]

8888. Revocation or suspension of authority—action by attorney general. If upon investigation or examination, it shall appear to the satisfaction of the commissioner of insurance that any association is doing an illegal or unauthorized business, or is failing to fulfill its contracts with its members, or is conducting its business fraudulently, or if its membership or the amount of its insurance in force has been reduced below the legal requirement, or should any association decline or refuse to submit to an examination, the commissioner may suspend or revoke its certificate of authority to transact business within this state, and having revoked the certificate of authority of any association organized under the laws of this state, he shall at once report the same to the attorney general who shall apply to the district court or any judge thereof for the appointment of a receiver to wind up the affairs of such association. [S., '13, § 1839-d.]

ducting examinations away from their respective places of residence, the same to be paid by the treasurer of state upon warrants drawn by the auditor of state, bills therefor having been filed under oath and approved by the state board of audit. Such expense and compensation shall, by the commissioner, be charged to and collected from the associations examined and should any association neglect or refuse to pay the same, the commissioner shall at once revoke its certificate of authority to transact business within this state. [S., '13, § 1839-e; 39 G. A., ch. 209, § 19.]

8890. Illegal business. Any officer, manager, agent, or representative of any association who with knowledge that its certificate of authority has been suspended or revoked, or that it is doing an illegal, unauthorized, or fraudulent business solicits insurance for said association, or receives applications therefor, or does any other act or thing toward receiving or procuring any new business for said association, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and for every such act, on conviction thereof, shall pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than ten hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than one year, or be punished by both such fine and imprisonment. [S., '13, § 1839-f.]

thereof, shall be entertained by any court in this state, unless same is made by the attorney general. [S. S., '15, § 1839-m.]

8892. When commenced. No such proceedings shall be commenced by the attorney general against any fraternal beneficiary society until the commissioner of insurance has first made an examination of such fraternal beneficiary society, and completed a report upon its affairs, and not until after notice has been duly served on the chief executive officers of the society, and a reasonable opportunity given to it, on a date to be named in said notice, to show cause why such proceedings should not be commenced. [S. S., '15, § 1839-n.]

8893. Examinations confidential. Pending, during, or after an examination or investigation of such fraternal beneficiary society, the commissioner of insurance shall make public no financial statement, report, or finding, nor shall he permit to become public any financial statement, report, or finding affecting the status, standing, or rights of any such society until a copy of such examination and investigation shall have been served upon such society, at its home office, nor until such society shall have been afforded a reasonable opportunity to answer such financial statement, investigation, report, or finding, and to make such showing in connection therewith, as it may desire. [S. S., '15, § 1839-o.]

CHAPTER 403

MUTUAL BENEFIT SOCIETIES

8894. Exemption.

8894. Exemption. Unless specific reference is made thereto, no provision of this title shall include or apply to domestic societies which limit their membership to the employees of:

1. A particular city or town, or
2. A designated firm, business house, or corporation. [40 G. A., ch. 170, § 1.]

8895. Power of commissioner.

8895. Power of commissioner. The commissioner of insurance may require from any society such information as will enable him to determine whether such society is exempt from the provisions of the laws relating to insurance or to fraternal benefit societies. [40 G. A., ch. 170, § 2.]

8896. Incorporation. Corporations formed for the purpose of insurance, other than life insurance, shall be governed by the provisions of chapter 384, except as modified by the provisions of this chapter. [C., '73, § 1122; C., '97, § 1684.]

8897. Articles—approval. Each such organization shall present to the commissioner of insurance its articles of incorporation, which shall show its name, objects, location of its principal place of business, and amount of its capital stock, who shall submit it to the attorney general for examination, and if found by him to be in accordance with the provisions of this title, the laws of the United States, and the constitution and laws of the state, he shall certify such fact thereon and return the same to said commissioner, and no articles shall be approved by him or recorded unless accompanied with such certificate. [C., '73, § 1122; C., '97, § 1685.]

8898. Certificate—recording. If the commissioner of insurance approves them, he shall so certify, and the articles with the certificates of approval shall be recorded in the office of the secretary of state as articles of other corporations are, who shall indorse thereon his certificate thereof, as is required in case of other corporations for pecuniary profit. [C., '73, § 1123; C., '97, § 1686.]

8899. Name. If the commissioner of insurance finds the name of the company to be so similar to one already appropriated by a corporation of the same character as to be likely to mislead the public or to cause inconvenience, he shall refuse his certificate to its articles on that ground. [C., '73, § 1122; C., '97, § 1687.]

8900. Filing with commissioner. The articles, when thus certified by the secretary of state as recorded in his office, or a copy thereof certified by him as such, shall be filed in the office of the commissioner of insurance and remain therein. [C., '73, § 1123; C., '97, § 1688.]

8901. Nature of organization entered on policy. Every domestic and foreign insurance company organized and doing business under this chapter shall indicate upon the first page of every policy and renewal receipt that the policy is issued by a mutual company in case of a mutual company, and by a stock company in case of a stock company. [C., '73, § 1140; C., '97, § 1689; S., '13, § 1689; 37 G. A., ch. 423, § 1.]

8902. Stock and mutual plan distinguished. No company shall be organized to do business upon both stock and mutual plans; nor shall a company organized as a stock company do business upon the plan of a mutual company; nor shall a company organized upon the mutual plan do business or take risks upon the stock plan. [C., '73, § 1159; C., '97, § 1690.]

8903. Paid-up capital required. No insurance company other than life shall be incorporated to transact business upon the stock plan with less than two hundred thousand dollars capital, the entire amount of which shall be fully paid up in cash and invested as provided by law. No increase of the capital stock of any company shall be made unless the amount of such increase is fully paid up in cash. The stock shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. [C., '73, § 1124; C., '97, § 1691; S., '13, § 1783-e; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 11.]

8904. Surplus required. Such company shall be possessed of a surplus in cash or invested in securities authorized by law, equal to twenty-five per cent of such paid-up and outstanding capital at the time certificate of authority is first applied for and issued. [C., '73, § 1124; C., '97, § 1691; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 11.]

8905. Prohibited loans. No part of the capital referred to shall be loaned to any officer or stockholder of the company. [S., '13, § 1783-e; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 11.]

1. It shall hold bona fide applications for insurance upon which it shall issue simultaneously, or it shall have in force, at least two hundred policies issued to at least two hundred members for the same kind of insurance upon not less than two hundred separate risks, each within the maximum single risk described herein; provided that not more than one hundred members shall be required for employer's liability and workmen's compensation insurance.

2. The maximum single risk shall not exceed twenty per cent of the admitted assets, or three times the average risk, or one per cent of the insurance in force, whichever is the greater, any reinsurance taking effect simultaneously with the policy being deducted in determining such maximum single risk.

3. It shall have collected a premium upon each application, which premium shall be held in cash or securities in which insurance companies are authorized to invest, which shall be equal, in case of fire insurance, to not less than twice the maximum single risk assumed subject to one fire nor less than ten thousand dollars; and in any other kind of insurance, to not less than five times the maximum single risk assumed; and, in case of employer's liability and workmen's compensation insurance, to not less than fifty thousand dollars.

4. For the purpose of transacting employer's liability and workmen's compensation insurance, the applications shall cover not less than one thousand five hundred employees, each such employee being considered a separate risk for determining the maximum single risk. [C., '73, § 1124; C., '97, § 1692; 37 G. A., ch. 429, § 2.]

8907. Membership in mutuals. Any public or private corporation, board, or association in this state, or elsewhere, may make applications, enter into agreements for and hold policies in any such mutual insurance company. Any officer, stockholder, trustee, or local representative of any such corporation, board, association, or estate may be recognized as acting for, or on its behalf for the purpose of such membership, but shall not be personally liable upon such contract of insurance by reason of acting in such representative capacity. The right of any corporation organized under the laws of this state to participate as a member of any such mutual insurance company is hereby declared to be incidental to the purpose for which such corporation is organized and as much granted as the rights and powers expressly conferred. [C., '73, § 1124; C., '97, § 1693; 37 G. A., ch. 429, § 3.]

8908. Voting power. Every policy holder of such mutual company shall be a member of the company and shall be entitled to one vote, and such member may vote in person or by proxy as may be provided in the by-laws. [37 G. A., ch. 429, § 4.]

8909. Maximum premium. The maximum premium payable by any member of a mutual company shall be expressed in the policy and in the application for the insurance. Such maximum may be a cash premium and an additional contingent premium not less than the cash premium, or may be solely a cash premium, which premium may be made payable in installments or regular assessments. No policy shall be issued for a cash premium without an additional contingent premium unless the company has a surplus which is not less in amount than the capital stock required, at the time of the organization of such mutual insurance company, of domestic stock insurance companies writing the same kind of insurance; but said surplus shall not be less than one hundred thousand dollars. [37 G. A., ch. 429, § 5; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 13.]

8910. Unearned premiums. Such mutual company shall maintain unearned premium and other reserves separately for each kind of insurance, upon the same basis as that required of domestic insurance companies transacting the same kind of insurance; provided that any reserve for losses or claims based upon the premium income shall be computed upon the net premium income, after deducting any so-called dividend or premium returned or credited to the member. [37 G. A., ch. 429, § 6.]

8911. Assessments. Any such mutual company not possessed of assets at least equal to the unearned premium reserve and other liabilities shall make an assessment upon its members liable to assessment to provide for such deficiency, such assessment to be against each member in proportion to such liability as expressed in his policy; provided the commissioner may by written order, relieve the company from an assessment or other proceedings to restore such assets during the time fixed in such order. [37 G. A., ch. 429, § 7.]

8912. Advancement of funds. Any director, officer, or member of any such mutual company, or any other person, may advance to such company, any sum or sums of money necessary for the purpose of its business, or to enable it to comply with any of the requirements of the law, and such moneys and such interest thereon as may have been agreed upon, not exceeding the maximum statutory rate of interest, shall not be a liability or claim against the company or any of its assets, except as herein provided, and upon approval of the commissioner of insurance may be repaid, but only out of the surplus earnings of such company. No commission or promotion expenses shall be paid in connection with the advance of any such money to the company. The amount of such advance shall be reported in each annual statement. [37 G. A., ch. 429, § 8.]

8913. Additional policy provisions. Such mutual company may insert in any form of policy prescribed by the law of this state any additional provisions or conditions required by its plan of insurance if not inconsistent or in conflict with any law of this state. [37 G. A., ch. 429, § 9.]

8914. Countersigning policies. Such mutual company shall comply with the provisions of any law applicable to stock insurance companies effecting the same kind of insurance requiring that policies be countersigned and delivered through a resident agent, provided that this requirement shall not apply to any policy of such mutual company on which no commission shall be paid to any local agent. [37 G. A., ch. 429, § 10.]

8915. Existing companies. The provisions of this chapter [37 G. A., ch. 429] shall not apply to any company or association of this state now doing business whether organized under chapter 4 or chapter 5, title 9 of the code, as amended [code of 1897], unless such company or association shall so elect by resolution of its board of directors duly certified to by the president and secretary and filed with and approved by the commissioner, and shall further amend its articles, if necessary, to permit full compliance with this chapter [37 G. A., ch. 429] and to include such additional kind or kinds of insurance as such company or association intends to transact. On the filing and approval of such resolution and on making such amendment if required, such company may be authorized to transact such kinds of insurance under this chapter. [37 G. A., ch. 429, § 11.]

8916. Tax—computation. For the purpose of determining the basis of any tax upon the “gross amount of premiums”, or “gross receipts from premiums, assessments, fees, and promissory obligations”, now or hereafter imposed upon any mutual fire or casualty insurance company under any law of this state, such gross amount or gross receipts shall consist of the gross premiums or receipts for direct insurance, without including or deducting any amounts received or paid for reinsurance, but with such other deductions as provided by law, and in addition deducting any so-called dividend or return of savings or gains to policy holders; provided that as to any deposits or deposit premiums received by any such company, the taxable premiums shall be the portion of such deposits or deposit premiums earned during the year with such deductions therefrom as provided by law. [37 G. A., ch. 429, § 20.]

8917. Subscriptions of stock—applications. After compliance by the incorporators with sections 8896 and 8897, the secretary of state shall certify the articles of incorporation to the commissioner of insurance. When the commissioner of insurance is satisfied that all provisions of law in relation to the promotion and organization of said corporation, including sections 8618 to 8620, inclusive, have been complied with, he shall issue a certificate to that effect, and thereupon such corporation may open books for subscriptions to the stock of stock companies or if a mutual company take applications and receive premiums for insurance at such times and places as it may find convenient, and may keep such books open until the full amount required is subscribed or taken, or the time granted therefor has expired, or until an order is issued by the commissioner of insurance to desist for failure to comply with the provisions of law in reference thereto. [C., '73, § 1125; C., '97, § 1694; 37 G. A., ch. 429, § 12; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 14.]

8918. Directors. The affairs of a company organized as provided by this chapter shall be managed by a number of directors to be stated in the articles of not less than five nor more than twenty-one, all of whom, in case of a stock company, shall be stockholders, or, in case of a mutual company, be policy holders, or before the company shall effect insurance, be subscribers for stock or for insurance as the case may be. When the paid-up capital for a stock company, or the subscriptions for insurance for a mutual company, shall have been obtained, the incorporators or directors in charge of the business shall give at least ten days' written notice by mail to stockholders or subscribers, as the case may be, of a meeting of the stockholders or subscribers, for the election of directors, and such meeting shall be held within thirty days after the paid-up capital or subscriptions have been secured. The directors then elected shall continue in office until their successors have been elected and qualified. [C., '73, § 1126; C., '97, § 1695; 37 G. A., ch. 429, § 13; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 15.]

8919. Election. The annual meetings for the election of directors shall be held during the month of January, at such time as the by-laws of the company may direct; but if for any cause no election is held, or there is a failure to elect at any annual meeting, then a special meeting for that purpose shall be held on the call of a majority of the directors, or of those persons holding a majority of the stock, or of a majority of policy holders if a mutual company, by giving thirty days' notice thereof in some newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the principal office of the company is located. [C., '73, § 1127; C., '97, § 1696.]

8920. Term of office. The directors chosen at any such annual or special meeting shall continue in office until the next annual meeting, and until their successors are elected and have accepted. [C., '73, § 1127; C., '97, § 1696.]

8921. Classification of directors. A company may in its articles of incorporation provide that the board of directors be divided into classes holding for a term of not to exceed three years and providing for the election of the members of one class at each annual meeting. [40 G. A., ch. 174.]

8922. Powers of directors—president. The directors shall elect by ballot from their own number a president, and fill all vacancies occurring in the board or presidency thereof; and the board of directors thus constituted, or a majority of them, when convened at the office of the company, shall be competent to exercise all the powers vested in them by this chapter. [C., '73, § 1128; C., '97, § 1697.]

8923. Secretary and other officers. The board of directors shall have power to appoint a secretary and any other officers or agents necessary for transacting the business of the company, paying such salaries and taking such security of them as is reasonable. [C., '73, § 1129; C., '97, § 1698.]

8924. By-laws. It may adopt such by-laws and regulations not inconsistent with law as shall appear to them necessary for the regulation and conduct of the business. [C., '73, § 1129; C., '97, § 1698.]

8925. Record and inspection. The directors shall keep full and correct entries of their transactions, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of the stockholders if a stock company, or policy holders if a mutual company, and to the inspection of persons invested by law with the right thereof. [C., '73, § 1129; C., '97, § 1698.]

8926. Right to own real estate. No company organized under this chapter shall purchase, hold, or convey any real estate, save for the purpose and in the manner herein set forth:

1. Such as shall be required for the transaction of its business.

2. Such as shall have been mortgaged to it in good faith by way of security for loans previously contracted, or for money due.

3. Such as shall have been conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the legitimate business of the company, or for money due.

4. Such as shall have been purchased at sales upon judgments, decrees, or mortgages obtained or made for such debt, or obtained by redemption as junior judgment creditor or mortgagee; but it may convey real estate which shall be found in the course of its business not necessary therefor, and all such last mentioned real estate shall be sold and conveyed within three years after the same has been determined, by the commissioner of insurance, unnecessary, unless the company shall procure a certificate from him that the interest of the company will materially suffer by a forced sale, in which event the sale may be postponed for such a period as he may direct in such certificate. [C., '73, § 1137; C., '97, § 1703.]

8927. Investments. Any company organized under this chapter shall invest its capital and funds in the following described securities and no other:

1. Federal bonds. The bonds of the United States or federal farm loan bonds issued under the provisions of the act of congress approved July 17, 1916.

2. State bonds. The bonds of this state or any other state when such bonds are at or above par.

3. Municipal bonds. Bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of any county, city, town, or school district within the state or any other state, drainage district bonds of this state, improvement certificates issued by any municipal corporation of this state, such certificates being a first lien upon real estate within the corporate limits of the municipality issuing the same, where such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness are issued by authority of and according to law and bearing interest.

4. Real estate bonds and mortgages. Bonds and mortgages and other interest-bearing securities being first liens upon real estate within this state or any other state, worth at least double the amount loaned thereon and secured thereby exclusive of improvements, or two and one-half times such amount including the improvements thereon, but no such improvement shall be considered in estimating the value unless the owner shall contract to keep the same insured during the life of the loan, in some reliable fire insurance company or companies authorized to do business in the state, other than the company making the investment, in a sum at least double the excess of the loan above one-half the value of the ground exclusive of the improvements, the insurance to be made payable in case of loss to the company or association investing its funds, as its interest may appear at the time of loss; except that the surplus funds may be invested in stocks other than bank stock or in bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of any solvent dividend-paying corporation organized under the laws of any of the states, or of the United States, or may be loaned thereon upon pledge thereof, at not exceeding eighty per cent of their current market value, but no investment shall be made in the company's own stock. [C., '73, § 1130; C., '97, § 1699; S., '13, § 1699; 40 G. A., ch. 175.]

8928. Financial statements. After complying with the requirements of the preceding sections of this chapter, the company shall file with the commissioner of insurance a satisfactory detailed statement showing the financial condition of the company, including all transactions had during its organization, together with a record of all moneys received and disbursed, a list of the stockholders, the amount of stock purchased by each, and the price paid. [C., '97, § 1700; 37 G. A., ch. 429, § 14.]

8929. Mutual companies. The incorporators or officers of such mutual company shall file the statement under oath required of stock companies. [C., '73, § 1131; C., '97, § 1700; 37 G. A., ch. 429, § 14.]

8930. Examination—certificate of compliance. Such commissioner may appoint in writing some disinterested person to make an examination and if it shall be found that the capital or assets herein required of the company named, according to the nature of the business proposed to be transacted by such company, have been paid in, and are now possessed by it in money or such stock, bonds, and mortgages as are required by the preceding sections of this chapter, he shall so certify; but if the examination is made by another than the commissioner, the certificate shall be by him, and under his oath. [C., '73, § 1131; C., '97, § 1700; 37 G. A., ch. 429, § 14.]

8931. Ownership of assets—oath. The incorporators or officers of any such company, or proposed company, shall be required to state to the commissioner of insurance under oath that the capital or assets exhibited to the person making the examination are actually and in good faith the property of the company examined, and free and clear of any lien or claim on the part of any other person. [C., '73, § 1131; C., '97, § 1700; 37 G. A., ch. 429, § 14.]

8932. Form of certificate. The certificate of examination of a mutual company shall be to the effect that it has received and has in its actual possession:

1. The cash premiums.
2. Actual contracts of insurance upon property, belonging to the signers thereof, and upon which the insurance applied for can properly be issued.
3. Other securities, as the case may be, to the extent and value hereinbefore required. [C., '97, § 1700; 37 G. A., ch. 429, § 1.]

8934. Tenure of certificate—renewal—evidence. Such certificate of authority shall expire on the first day of April next succeeding its issue, and shall be renewed annually so long as such company shall transact business in accordance with the requirements of law; a copy of which certificate, when certified to by the commissioner of insurance, shall be admissible in evidence for or against a company with the same effect as the original. [C., '73, § 1131; C., '97, § 1700; 37 G. A., ch. 429, § 14; 40 G. A., ch. 176, § 3.]

8935. Capital increased. When the directors of a stock company with less than the maximum capital allowed in this chapter desire to increase the amount, they shall, if authorized by the holders of a majority of the stock to do so, file with the commissioner of insurance an amendment of its articles authorizing such increase, not exceeding the maximum authorized capital, and thereupon shall be entitled to have the increased amount of capital fixed by such amendment, and the examination of securities constituting the increased capital stock shall be made in the same manner as provided for the original capital stock. [C., '73, § 1135; C., '97, § 1701.]

8936. Dividends. The directors or managers of a stock company incorporated under the laws of this state shall make no dividends except from the profits arising from their business. [C., '73, § 1136; C., '97, § 1702; 39 G. A., ch. 190, § 1.]

8937. Reserve fund required. In estimating the profits, a reserve for unearned premiums as set out in section 8939, also a reserve for unpaid losses, expenses, and taxes which have been incurred shall be set up; and there shall also be held as nonadmitted assets all sums due the corporation on bonds and mortgages, bonds, stocks and book account, of which no part of the principal or interest thereon has been paid during the year preceding such estimate of profits, and upon which suit for foreclosure or collection has not been commenced, or which, after judgment has been obtained thereon, shall have remained more than two years unsatisfied, and on which interest has not been paid; and such judgment with the interest due or accrued thereon and remaining unpaid, shall also be so held. [C., '73, § 1136; C., '97, § 1702; 39 G. A., ch. 190, § 1.]

8938. Forfeiture of franchise. Any dividend made contrary to the provisions of the two preceding sections shall subject the company making it to forfeiture of its franchise. [C., '73, § 1136; C., '97, § 1702; 39 G. A., ch. 190, § 1.]

8939. Unearned premium reserve—computation. The policy liability of any company or association, transacting business under the provisions of this chapter, and the amount such company or association shall hold as a reserve for unearned premiums, shall be computed in the following manner:

1. On all policies written or renewed prior to January 1, 1922, there shall be held as such unearned premium reserve an amount equal to forty per cent of the aggregate gross premiums written in all policies in force, less deductions for reinsurance in authorized companies or associations.

2. On all policies written or renewed on and after January 1, 1922, and running one year or less from date of policy or last renewal thereof, shall be held as such unearned premium reserve an amount equal to fifty per cent of the aggregate gross premiums written in all policies in force, less deductions for reinsurance in authorized companies or associations.

3. On all policies written or renewed on and after January 1, 1922, and running for more than one year, and not exceeding five years, from date of policy or last renewal thereof there shall be held as such unearned premium reserve an amount of the aggregate gross premiums written in all policies in force, less deductions for reinsurance in authorized companies or associations, computed in accordance with the following table:

Term for which Policy was written	Reserve for Unearned Premium
Two years	1st year	3-4
	2nd year	1-4
Three years	1st year	5-6
	2nd year	1-2
	3rd year	1-6
Four years	1st year	7-8
	2nd year	5-8
	3rd year	3-8
	4th year	1-8
Five years	1st year	9-10
	2nd year	7-10
	3rd year	1-2
	4th year	3-10
	5th year	1-10

4. On all policies written or renewed on and after January 1, 1922, and running for more than five years from date of policy or last renewal thereof, there shall be held as such unearned premium reserve an amount of the aggregate gross premiums, less deductions for reinsurance in authorized companies or associations equal to the pro rata unearned premium on all policies in force. The term pro rata used herein shall be such proportion of the gross premiums on policies in force as the number of months unexpired bears to the total number of months for which the policy was written.

5. On all policies written or renewed and for which any premium has been received which would continue a policy in force for a period beyond the term for which it was written, or term covered by last renewal thereof, there shall be held as such unearned premium reserve an amount equal to one hundred per cent of such premium on all policies in force.

6. Mutual companies or associations, organized, or doing business under this chapter, shall hold as a reserve for unearned premiums an amount equal to at least forty per cent of the aggregate gross premiums written in all policies in force less deductions for reinsurance in authorized companies or associations. [C., '73, § 1136; C., '97, § 1702; 39 G. A., ch. 190, § 1.]

8940. Kinds of insurance. Any company organized under this chapter or authorized to do business in this state may:

1. Insure dwelling houses, stores, and all kinds of buildings and household furniture, and other property against loss or damage, including loss of use or occupancy, by fire, lightning, rain, windstorm, tornado, cyclone, earthquake, hail, frost or snow, weather or climatic conditions including excess or deficiency of moisture, flood, rain or drought, rising of the waters of the ocean or its tributaries, bombardment, invasion, insurrection, riot, civil war or commotion, military or usurped power, and by explosion whether fire ensues or not, except explosion on risks specified in subdivision 6 of this section, and also against loss or damage by insects or disease to farm crops or products, and loss of rental value of land used in producing such crops or products, and also against loss or damage by water or other fluid to any goods or premises arising from sprinkler leakage or from the breakage of sprinkler, pumps or other apparatus erected for extinguishing fires, or all other conduits or containers, or by water entering through leaks or openings in buildings and of water pipes, and against accidental injury to such sprinklers, pumps, apparatus, conduits, containers, or water pipes; and may also insure glass against breakage.

2. Insure the fidelity of persons holding places of private or public trust, or execute as surety any bond or other obligation required or permitted by law to be made, given or filed, except bonds required in criminal causes. None but stock companies shall engage in fidelity and surety business; and insure the maker, drawer, drawee or indorser of checks, drafts, bills of exchange, or other commercial paper against loss by reason of any alteration of such instruments.

3. Insure the safe-keeping of books, papers, moneys, stocks, bonds, and all kinds of personal property, and receive them on deposit.

4. Insure against loss or damage by theft, injury, sickness or death of animals and to furnish veterinary service.

5. a. Insure the health of persons and against personal injuries, disablement or death resulting from traveling or general accidents by land or water.

b. Insure against liability for loss, damage or expense resulting from personal injury or death caused by error or negligence of the insured in the practice of medicine, surgery or dentistry, including the performance of surgical operations, or in the prescribing or dispensing of drugs or medicines, or for loss by reason of damages in other respects, for which loss, damage or expense the insured is legally liable; provided, however, that any policy issued by any such company shall contain a provision so that said policy shall inure to the benefit of any person obtaining a judgment against the insured to the extent of the insurance carried and for the purpose for which the insurance was issued.

c. Insure against loss or damage to property caused by the accidental discharge or leakage of water from automatic sprinkler system.

d. Insure employers against loss in consequence of accidents or casualties of any kind to employees, including workmen's compensation, or other persons, or to property resulting from any act of an employee, or any accident or casualty to persons or property, or both, occurring in or connected with the transaction of their business, or from the operation of any machinery connected therewith.

e. Insure against liability for loss or expense arising or resulting from accidents occurring by reason of the ownership, maintenance, or use of automobiles or other conveyances, resulting in personal injuries or death, or damage to property belonging to others, or both, and for damages to assured's own automobile when sustained through collision with another object; provided that should an execution on a judgment against the insured be returned unsatisfied in an action by a person who is injured or whose property is damaged, when such owner or operator has insured his liability for such personal injury or damage, the judgment creditor shall have a right of action against the insurer to the same extent that such owner or operator could have enforced his claim against such insurer had such owner or operator paid such judgment.

6. Insure against loss or injury to person or property, or both, and against loss of rents or use of buildings and other property, growing out of explosion or rupture of boilers, pipes, flywheels, engines, and machinery.

7. Insure against loss or damage resulting from burglary or robbery, or attempt thereat, or larceny.

8. Insure or guarantee and indemnify merchants, traders, and those engaged in business and giving credit from loss and damage by reason of giving and extending credit to their customers and those dealing with them, which business shall be known as credit insurance. Such insurance may cover losses, less a deduction of an agreed percentage, not to exceed ten per cent, representing anticipated profits, and a further deduction not to exceed thirty-three and one-third per cent, on losses on credits extended to risks who have inferior ratings, and less an agreed deduction for normal loss.

9. Insure vessels, boats, cargoes, goods, merchandise, freights, specie, bullion, jewels, profits, commissions, bank notes, bills of exchange, and other evidences of debt, bottomry and respondentia interest and every insurance appertaining to or connected with marine risks of transportation and navigation, and insure automobiles, airplanes, seaplanes, dirigibles, or other aircraft, whether stationary or being operated under their own power, which include all or any of the hazards of fire, explosion, transportation, collision, loss by legal liability for damage to property resulting from the maintenance and use of automobiles, airplanes, seaplanes, dirigibles, or other aircraft, and loss by burglary or theft, vandalism, malicious mischief, or the wrongful conversion, disposal, or concealment of automobiles whether held under conditional sale, contract, or subject to chattel mortgages, or any one or more of such hazards, but not including insurance against loss by reason of bodily injury to the person. [C., '73, § 1132; C., '97, § 1709; S., '13, § 1709; 37 G. A., ch. 428, §§ 1-4; 37 G. A., ch. 429, § 16; 38 G. A., ch. 330, §§ 1, 2; 38 G. A., ch. 348, §§ 1, 2; 38 G. A., ch. 372; 40 G. A., ch. 177, §§ 1-4; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 9, § 16.]

8941. Limitation on risks. No company authorized to transact business in this state as provided in this chapter, shall issue policies of insurance for more than one of the nine purposes or subdivisions enumerated in the preceding section, except as herein provided, as follows:

1. Any domestic or foreign insurance company authorized in this state to do the business specified in subdivision 1 of the preceding section may, in addition to the business specified in subdivision 1 insure against the casualties specified in subdivision 9 of the preceding section.

2. Any domestic or foreign insurance company authorized in this state to do the business contemplated by either subdivisions 2 or 5 may in addition to such business insure against the casualties specified in subdivision 6 of the preceding section, and also to insure against theft, larceny, burglary and robbery, or attempt thereat.

3. Any domestic or foreign company authorized in this state to transact the business specified in subdivision 5 of the preceding section, if it is possessed of a paid-up capital of five hundred thousand dollars, may, in addition to insuring against the casualties specified in subdivision 5 transact the business specified in subdivisions 2 and 6 of the preceding section, and insure glass against breakage.

4. Any domestic insurance company authorized in this state to transact the business specified in subdivision 5 of the preceding section, and possessed of two hundred fifty thousand dollars paid-up capital stock, may, in addition to insuring against the casualties specified in subdivision 5, insure against injury or loss to persons or property, or both, contemplated by subdivision 6, and may also insure glass against breakage.

5. Any foreign insurance company authorized in this state to transact the business specified in subdivision 5 of the preceding section, if possessed of a paid-up capital of three hundred thousand dollars, may, in addition to insuring against the casualties specified in said subdivision 5, insure against the casualties specified in subdivision 6 of the preceding section, and also insure glass against breakage.

6. Any domestic or foreign insurance company authorized in their state to transact the business specified in subdivision 2 of the preceding section, if possessed of paid-up capital stock of five hundred thousand dollars, may, in addition to transacting the business authorized by said subdivision 2, transact the business of credit insurance as authorized by subdivision 8 of the preceding section.

Providing always, that the charter or articles of incorporation of any such company authorizes the writing of such additional insurance.

No company shall expose itself to loss on any one risk or hazard, to an amount exceeding ten per cent of its paid-up capital, except that fidelity and surety companies may be exposed on any one risk or hazard to an amount not exceeding ten per cent of their paid-up capital and surplus, unless the excess shall be reinsured in some other good and reliable company licensed to do an insurance business in this state. But in no case shall such excess reinsurance exceed ten per cent of the capital of the reinsuring company, and that a certificate of such reinsurance shall be furnished to the insured.

The restrictions as to the amount of risk a company may assume shall not be applicable to a company that receives on deposit and guarantees the safe-keeping of books, papers, and moneys and other personal property. [C., '73, § 1132; C., '97, § 1710; S., '13, § 1710; 37 G. A., ch. 428, § 5; 38 G. A., ch. 348, § 3; 39 G. A., ch. 261, § 1; 40 G. A., ch. 179, §§ 1, 2.]

8942. Loans—reinsurance. Such company may lend money on bottomry or respondentia, and cause itself to be insured in companies only authorized to do business in this state, against any loss or risk it may have incurred in the course of its business, and upon the interest which it may have in any property on account of any such loan, and generally to do and perform all other matters and things proper to promote these objects. [C., '73, § 1132; C., '97, § 1711; S., '13, § 1711.]

8943. Execution of policies. All policies or contracts of insurance made or entered into by the company may be made either with or without the seal of said company, but shall be subscribed by the president, or such other officer as may be designated by the directors for that purpose, and be attested by the secretary thereof. [C., '73, § 1133; C., '97, § 1712.]

8944. Transfer of stock. Transfers of stock made by any stockholder or his legal representative shall be subject to the provisions of chapters 384 and 385 relative to transfer of shares, and to such restrictions as the directors shall establish in their by-laws, except as hereinafter provided. [C., '73, § 1134; C., '97, § 1713.]

8945. Annual statement. The president or the vice president and secretary of each company organized or authorized to do business in the state shall annually before the first day of March of each year prepare under oath and file with the commissioner of insurance a full, true, and complete statement of the condition of such company on the last day of the preceding year, which shall exhibit the following items and facts:

First—The amount of capital stock of the company.

Second—The names of the officers.

Third—The name of the company and where located.

Fourth—The amount of its capital stock paid up.

Fifth—The property or assets held by the company, specifying:

1. The value of real estate owned by the company.

2. The amount of cash on hand and deposited in banks to the credit of the company, and in what bank deposited.

4. The amount of loans secured by first mortgage on real estate, with the rate of interest thereon.

5. The amount of all other bonds and loans and how secured, with the rate of interest thereon.

6. The amount due the company on which judgment has been obtained.

7. The amount of bonds of the state, of the United States, of any county or municipal corporation of the state, and of any other bonds owned by the company, specifying the amount and number thereof, and par and market value of each kind.

8. The amount of bonds, stock, and other evidences of indebtedness held by such company as collateral security for loans, with amount loaned on each kind, and its par and market value.

9. The amount of assessments on stock and premium notes, paid and unpaid.

10. The amount of interest actually due and unpaid.

11. All other securities and their value.

12. The amount for which premium notes have been given on which policies have been issued.

Sixth—Liabilities of such company, specifying:

1. Losses adjusted and due.

2. Losses adjusted and not due.

3. Losses unadjusted.

4. Losses in suspense and the cause thereof.

5. Losses resisted and in litigation.

6. Dividends in scrip or cash, specifying the amount of each, declared but not due.

7. Dividends declared and due.

8. The amount required to reinsure all outstanding risks on the basis of the unearned premium reserve as required by law.

9. The amount due banks or other creditors.

10. The amount of money borrowed and the security therefor.

11. All other claims against the company.

Seventh—The income of the company during the previous year, specifying:

1. The amount received for premiums, exclusive of premium notes.

2. The amount of premium notes received.

3. The amount received for interest.

4. The amount received for assessments or calls on stock notes, or premium notes.

5. The amount received from all other sources.

Eighth—The expenditures during the preceding year, specifying:

1. The amount of losses paid during said term, stating how much of the same accrued prior, and how much subsequent, to the date of the preceding statement, and the amount at which such losses were estimated in such statement.

2. The amount paid for dividends.

3. The amount paid for commissions, salaries, expenses, and other charges of agents, clerks, and other employees.

4. The amount paid for salaries, fees, and other charges of officers and directors.

5. The amount paid for local, state, national, and other taxes and duties.

6. The amount paid for all other expenses, including printing, stationery, rents, furniture, or otherwise.

Ninth—The largest amount insured in any one risk.

Tenth—The amount of risks written during the year then ending.

Eleventh—The amount of risks in force having less than one year to run.

Twelfth—The amount of risks in force having more than one and not over three years to run.

Thirteenth—The amount of risks having more than three years to run.

Fourteenth—The dividends, if any, declared on premiums received for risks not terminated. [C., '73, § 1141; C., '97, § 1714; 39 G. A., ch. 190, § 2; 40 G. A., ch. 176, § 1.]

8946. Accident insurance—record. Each accident insurance company, or company insuring against accidents, shall keep a register of tickets sold or policies issued by its officers or agents, which register shall show the name and residence of the person insured, the amount of insurance, the date of issue of such ticket or policy, and the time the same will remain in force; and the annual statement of each such company shall show the number of tickets sold and policies issued by it during the year, and the aggregate amount of insurance evidenced by such tickets and policies, classified as to the length of time for which such insurance is given. [C., '73, § 1141; C., '97, § 1714.]

8947. Certificate refused. The commissioner of insurance shall withhold his certificate or permission of authority to do business from any company neglecting or failing to comply with the provisions of this chapter. [C., '97, § 1715.]

8948. Annual statement of foreign company. The annual statement of foreign companies doing business in this state shall also show, in addition to the foregoing matters, the amount of losses incurred and premiums received in the state during the preceding period, so long as such company continues to do business in this state. [C., '73, § 1146; C., '97, § 1716.]

8949. Inquiry by commissioner. The commissioner of insurance shall address any inquiries to any insurance company in relation to its doings and condition, or any other matter connected with its transactions, which he may deem necessary for the public good, or for a proper discharge of his duties, and any company so addressed shall promptly reply in writing thereto. [C., '73, § 1142; C., '97, § 1718.]

8950. Forms for statements. He shall cause to be prepared and furnished to each company organized under the laws of this state, and to the attorney or agent of each company incorporated in other states and foreign governments, who may apply therefor, printed forms of statements required by this chapter, and may from time to time make such changes in the forms as shall seem to him best adapted to elicit from the companies a true exhibit of their condition in respect to the several points hereinbefore enumerated. [C., '73, § 1157; C., '97, § 1719.]

8951. Foreign companies—capital required. No stock insurance company organized under or by the laws of any other state or foreign government for the purpose specified in this chapter, shall, directly or indirectly, take risks or transact any business of insurance in this state unless possessed of two hundred thousand dollars of actual paid-up capital, exclusive of any assets deposited in any state, territory, district, or country for the special benefit or security of those insured therein, but companies organized to insure plate glass, or live stock exclusively, are not required to have a greater capital than one hundred thousand dollars; and such companies organized to insure the health of persons and against personal injuries, disablement or death resulting from traveling or general accidents by land or water, having an actual paid-up capital of one hundred thousand dollars and surplus in an amount to be approved by the commissioner of insurance, exclusive of any assets deposited in other states and territories for the special benefit or security of the insured therein, shall be deemed sufficient within the meaning of this section. [C., '73, § 1144; C., '97, § 1721; S. S., '15, § 1721; 37 G. A., ch. 429, § 18; 38 G. A., ch. 346, § 1.]

8952. Commissioner as process agent. Any foreign company desiring to transact the business of insurance under this chapter, by an agent or agents in the state, shall file with the commissioner of insurance a written instrument, duly signed and sealed, authorizing such commissioner to acknowledge service of notice or process for and in behalf of such company in this state, and consenting that service of notice or process may be made upon the said commissioner, and when so made shall be taken and held as valid as if served upon the company according to the laws of this or any other state, and waiving all claim, or right, or error, by reason of such acknowledgment of service. [C., '73, § 1144; C., '97, § 1722.]

8953. Manner of service. Such notice or process with a copy thereof may be mailed to the commissioner of insurance at Des Moines, Iowa, in a registered letter addressed to him by his official title, and he shall immediately upon its receipt acknowledge service thereon on behalf of the defendant foreign insurance company by writing thereon, giving the date thereof, and shall immediately return such notice or process in a registered letter to the clerk of the court in which the suit is pending, addressed to him by his official title, and shall also forthwith mail such copy, with a copy of his acknowledgment of service written thereon, in a registered letter addressed to the person or corporation who shall be named or designated by such company in such written instrument. [C., '97, § 1722.]

8954. Additional statements—impaired capital. Such company shall also file with the commissioner a certified copy of its charter or deed of settlement, together with a statement under oath of the president or vice president or other chief officer and the secretary of the company for which they may act, stating the name of the company, the place where located, the amount of its capital, with a detailed statement of the facts and items required from companies organized under the laws of this state, and a copy of the last annual report, if any, made under any law of the state by which such company was incorporated; and no agent shall be allowed to transact business for any company whose capital is impaired by liabilities as specified in this chapter to the extent of twenty per cent thereof, while such deficiency shall continue. [C., '73, § 1144; C., '97, § 1722.]

8955. Foreign mutual companies—surplus. Any mutual insurance company organized outside of this state and authorized to transact the business of insurance on the mutual plan in any other state of the United States or in the District of Columbia, may be admitted to this state and authorized to transact herein any of the kinds of insurance authorized by its charter or articles of incorporation, when so permitted by the provisions of this chapter, with the powers and privileges and subject to the conditions and limitations specified in said chapter; provided, however, such company has complied with all the statutory provisions which require stock companies to file papers and to furnish information and to submit to examination, and is also solvent according to the requirements of this chapter and is possessed of a surplus safely invested as follows:

1. In case any such mutual company issuing policies for a cash premium without an additional contingent liability equal to or greater than the cash premium, the surplus shall be at least two hundred thousand dollars.

2. In case of any other such mutual company issuing policies for a cash premium or payment with an additional contingent liability equal to or greater than the cash premium or payment, the surplus shall be such an amount as the commissioner of insurance of Iowa may require, but in no case less than fifty thousand dollars, provided that the provisions of this section fixing a minimum surplus of fifty thousand dollars shall not apply to companies now admitted to do business in Iowa; provided, further, that no such mutual company shall be authorized to transact compensation insurance without a surplus of at least two hundred thousand dollars unless all liability for each adjusted claim in this state, the payment of any part of which is deferred for more than one year, shall be provided for by a special deposit, in a trust company of this state, which shall be a trust fund applicable solely and exclusively to the payment of the compensation benefits for which such deposit is made, or shall be reinsured in an authorized stock company, or in an authorized mutual company with a surplus of at least two hundred thousand dollars. [C., '73, § 1144; C., '97, § 1723; 37 G. A., ch. 429, § 19.]

8956. Certificate to foreign company. When any foreign company has fully complied with the requirements of law and become entitled to do business, the commissioner of insurance shall issue to such company a certificate of that fact, which certificate shall be renewed annually on the first day of April, if the commissioner is satisfied that the capital, securities, and investments of such company remain unimpaired, and the company has complied with the provisions of law applicable thereto. [C., '73, § 1146; C., '97, § 1724; 40 G. A., ch. 176, § 2.]

8958. Notes taken for insurance. All notes taken for policies of insurance in any company doing business in the state shall state upon their face that they have been taken for insurance, and shall not be collectible unless the company and its agents have fully complied with the laws of the state relative to insurance. [C., '73, § 1146; C., '97, § 1726.]

8959. Forfeiture of policies — notice. No policy or contract of insurance provided for in this chapter shall be forfeited or suspended for nonpayment of any premium, assessment or installment provided for in the policy, or in any note or contract for the payment thereof, unless within thirty days prior to, or on or after the maturity thereof, the company shall serve notice in writing upon the insured that such premium, assessment, or installment is due or to become due, stating the amount, and the amount necessary to pay the customary short rates, up to the time fixed in the notice when the insurance will be suspended, forfeited, or canceled, which shall not be less than thirty days after service of such notice, which may be made in person, or by mailing in a registered letter addressed to the insured at his postoffice as given in or upon the policy, and no suspension, forfeiture, or cancellation shall take effect until the time thus fixed and except as herein provided, anything in the policy, application or a separate agreement to the contrary notwithstanding. [C., '97, § 1727.]

8960. Cancellation of policy. At any time after the maturity of a premium, assessment, or installment provided for in the policy, or any note or contract for the payment thereof, or after the suspension, forfeiture, or cancellation of any policy or contract of insurance, the insured may pay to the company the customary short rates and costs of action, if one has been commenced or judgment rendered thereon, and may then, if he so elect, have his policy and all contracts or obligations connected therewith, whether in judgment or otherwise, canceled, and they and each of them thereafter shall be void; and in case of suspension, forfeiture, or cancellation of any policy or contract of insurance, the assured shall not be liable for any greater amount than the short rates earned at the date of such suspension, forfeiture, or cancellation and the costs herein provided. The policy may be canceled by the insurance company by giving five days' notice of such cancellation, in which event it may retain only the pro rata premium. [C., '97, § 1728; S., '13, § 1728.]

8961. Short rates. The commissioner of insurance shall prepare and publish a table of the short rates provided for in the two preceding sections, which, when published, shall be for the guidance of all companies covered in this chapter, and the rate to be given in the notice therein provided, and no greater sum than thus fixed shall be demanded or collected. A copy of said short rates shall be printed on or attached to each policy. [C., '97, § 1729.]

8962. Policy restored. At any time before cancellation of the policy for nonpayment of any premium, assessment, or installment provided for therein, or in any note or contract for the payment thereof, or after action commenced or judgment rendered thereon, the insured may pay to the insurer the full amount due, including court costs if any, and from the date of such payment, or the collection of the judgment, the policy shall revive and be in full force and effect, provided such payment is made during the term of the policy and before a loss occurs. [C., '97, § 1730.]

8963. Right of insured to cancel. No provision, stipulation or agreement to the contrary in or independent of the policy or contract of insurance shall avoid or defeat the right of any insured to pay short rates and costs of action, if any, and have the policy and all contracts connected therewith, including judgments rendered thereon, canceled. [C., '97, § 1730.]

8964. Examination—dissolution. The commissioner of insurance shall, when he finds it expedient, appoint one or more persons, not officers, agents, or stockholders of any insurance company doing business in the state, to examine into the affairs and condition of any such company incorporated or doing business therein, or make such examination himself, and the officers or agents thereof shall produce their books for the inspection of the examiners and otherwise assist therein, so far as they can do so; and in conducting the investigation they may examine under oath the officers or agents of any company, or others, relative to the business and condition of the company, and the result thereof shall be published in one or more papers in the state, when the commissioner believes the public interest requires it. When it appears to the commissioner from such examination that the assets and funds of any company incorporated in this state are reduced or impaired by its liabilities, as defined under the head of liabilities in the statement required by this chapter, more than twenty per cent below the paid-up capital stock required, he shall direct the officers thereof to require the stockholders to pay in the amount of such deficiency within such a period as he may designate in such requisition, or he shall communicate the fact to the attorney general, who shall apply to the district court, or if in vacation to one of the judges thereof, for an order requiring the company to show cause why its business shall not be dissolved. The court or judge, as the case may be, shall thereupon proceed to hear the allegations and proofs of the respective parties; and in case it appears to its or his satisfaction that the assets and funds of said company are not sufficient, as aforesaid, or that the interest of the public requires it, it or he shall decree a dissolution of said company and a distribution of its effects, and appoint a receiver therefor. The application of the attorney general may be by the court or judge sent to a referee to inquire into and report upon the facts stated therein, which report shall be made to the court or judge. [C., '73, § 1149; C., '97, § 1731.]

8965. Requisition on stockholders—personal liability. Any company receiving such a requisition from the commissioner of insurance shall forthwith call upon its stockholders for such amounts as will make its paid-up capital equal to the amount fixed by this chapter or the articles of incorporation of said company; and in case any stockholder shall refuse or neglect to pay the amount called for after notice personally given, or by advertisement in such time and manner as the commissioner shall approve, it shall be lawful for the company to require the return of the original certificate of stock held by such stockholder, and in lieu thereof to issue new certificates for such number of shares as the said stockholder may be entitled to in the proportion that the ascertained value of the funds of the said company may be found to bear to its original capital, the value of such shares for which new certificates shall be issued to be ascertained under the direction of the commissioner, the company paying for the fractional parts of shares, and the directors of such company may issue new stock and dispose of the same, and issue new certificates therefor, to an amount sufficient to make up the original capital of the company. In the event of additional losses accruing upon new risks, taken after the expiration of the period limited by the commissioner in the aforesaid requisition for the filling up of the deficiency in the capital of such company, and before said deficiency shall have been made up, the directors shall be individually liable to the extent thereof. [C., '73, § 1150; C., '97, § 1732.]

8966. Mutual companies—dissolution—personal liability. If, upon such examination, it shall appear to the commissioner of insurance that the assets of any company organized or operating upon the plan of mutual insurance under this chapter are insufficient to justify the continuance of such company in business, he shall proceed in relation to such company in the same manner as herein required in regard to stock companies; and the trustees or directors of such company are made personally liable for any losses which may be sustained upon risks taken after the expiration of the period limited by the commissioner for filling up the deficiency in the assets or premium notes, and before such deficiency shall have been made up. [C., '73, § 1151; C., '97, § 1733.]

8967. Transfers pending investigation. Any transfer of the stock of any company organized under this chapter, made pending any investigation above required, shall not release the party making the transfer from any liability for losses which may have accrued previous to such transfer. [C., '73, § 1151; C., '97, § 1734.]

be authorized to examine into the condition and affairs of any insurance company, as provided for in this chapter, doing business in this state, not organized under its laws, or cause such examination to be made by some person or persons appointed by him having no interest in any insurance company; and when it shall appear to his satisfaction that the affairs of any such company are in an unsound condition, he shall revoke the certificates granted in its behalf, and cause a notification thereof to be published in some newspaper of general circulation, published at the seat of government, and no agent or agents of such company after such notice shall issue policies or renew any previously issued. [C., '73, § 1152; C., '97, § 1735.]

8969. Laws of other states—reciprocity. When, by the laws of any other state, any taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits of money, securities, or other obligations or prohibitions are imposed, or would be imposed, on insurance companies of this state, doing, or that might seek to do business in such other state, or upon their agents therein, so long as such laws continue in force the same obligations and prohibitions of whatever kind shall be imposed upon all insurance companies of such other state doing business in this state, or upon their agents here. [C., '73, § 1154; C., '97, § 1736.]

8970. Certificates of compliance—how published. The commissioner of insurance shall annually, as soon as practicable after the first of March, publish in two newspapers of general circulation, a statement made up from the annual report of every insurance company of the character provided for in this chapter and doing business in this state whether organized under the laws of this or any other state, which statements shall contain a synopsis of the company's annual report and shall show that the company has in all respects complied with the laws of the state relating to insurance and is authorized to transact business in the state. One publication as above contemplated, shall be made at the seat of government, and in case of companies organized in this state and located elsewhere than in the city of Des Moines, the other shall be made in the county in which the home office of the company is located. The fee for each publication shall be six dollars, which shall be paid to the commissioner at the time and in the manner provided for in section 9007, and shall be by him paid to the papers making the publication upon receipt of a bill for same, together with an affidavit by the publisher or foreman showing that such publication has been properly made, the same to be filed within thirty days from the date of such publication. [C., '73, § 1155; C., '97, § 1737; S., '13, § 1737.]

8971. False statement of assets. No company transacting the business of fire insurance within the state shall state or represent by advertisement in any newspaper, magazine, or periodical, or by any sign, circular, card, policy of insurance, or renewal certificate thereof or otherwise, any funds or assets to be in its possession and held available for the protection of holders of its policies unless so held, except the policy of insurance or certificate of renewal thereof may state, as a single item, the amount of capital set forth in the charter, or articles of incorporation, or association, or deed of settlement under which it is authorized to transact business. [C., '97, § 1738.]

8972. Statement of capital and surplus. Every advertisement or public announcement, and every sign, circular, or card issued or published by any foreign company transacting the business of fire insurance in the state, or by any officer, agent, or representative thereof, which shall purport to make known its financial standing, shall exhibit the capital actually paid in in cash, and the amount of net surplus of assets over all its liabilities actually held and available for the payment of losses by fire and for the protection of holders of fire policies, and shall also exhibit the amount of net surplus of assets over all liabilities in the United States actually available for the payment of losses by fire and held in the United States for the protection of holders of fire policies in the United States, including in such liabilities the fund reserved for reinsurance of outstanding risks, and the same shall correspond with the latest verified statement made by the company or association to the commissioner of insurance. No such company shall write, place, or cause to be written or placed, any policy or contract for insurance upon property situated or located in this state except through its resident agent or agents. [C., '97, § 1739.]

8973. Violations. Any violation of the provisions of the two preceding sections shall for the first offense subject the company, association, or individual guilty thereof to a penalty of five hundred dollars, to be recovered in the name of the state, with costs, in an action instituted by the county attorney, either in the county in which the company, association, or individual is located or transacts business, or in the county where the offense is committed, and such penalty, when recovered, shall be paid into the school fund of the county in which action is brought. Every subsequent violation of said sections shall subject the company, association, or individual to a penalty of one thousand dollars, to be sued for, recovered, and disposed of in like manner. [C., '97, § 1740.]

8974. Copy of application—duty to attach. All insurance companies or associations shall, upon the issue or renewal of any policy, attach to such policy, or indorse thereon, a true copy of any application or representation of the assured which, by the terms of such policy, are made a part thereof, or of the contract of insurance, or referred to therein, or which may in any manner affect the validity of such policy. [C., '97, § 1741.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8772 and 8798.

8975. Failure to attach—effect. The omission so to do shall not render the policy invalid, but if any company or association neglects to comply with the requirements of the preceding section it shall forever be precluded from pleading, alleging, or proving any such application or representations, or any part thereof, or falsity thereof, or any parts thereof, in any action upon such policy, and the plaintiff in any such action shall not be required, in order to recover against such company or association, either to plead or prove such application or representation, but may do so at his option. [C., '97, § 1741.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8773 and 8794.

8976. Presumption as to value. In any action brought in any court in this state on any policy of insurance for the loss of any building so insured, the amount stated in the policy shall be received as prima facie evidence of the insurable value of the property at the date of the policy. [C., '97, § 1742.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see § 9049.

8977. Value of building—liability. The insurance company or association issuing such policy may show the actual value of said property at date of policy, and any depreciation in the value thereof before the loss occurred; but the said insurance company or association shall be liable for the actual value of the property insured at the date of the loss, unless such value exceeds the amount stated in the policy. [C., '97, § 1742.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see § 9050.

8978. Prima facie right of recovery. In an action on such policy it shall only be necessary for the assured to prove the loss of the building insured, and that he has given the company or association notice in writing of such loss, accompanied by an affidavit stating the facts as to how the loss occurred, so far as they are within his knowledge, and the extent of his loss. [C., '97, § 1742.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8774, 8775, 8979, 8986, and 9045.

8979. Proofs of loss of personal property. In furnishing proofs of loss, under any contract of insurance for damages or loss of personal property it shall only be necessary for the assured, within sixty days from the time the loss occurs, to give notice in writing to the company issuing such contract of insurance accompanied by an affidavit, stating the facts as to how the loss occurred, so far as same are within his knowledge, and the extent of the loss, any agreement or contract to the contrary notwithstanding. [S., '13, § 1742-a.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8774, 8775, 8978, 8986, and 9045.

8980. Invalidating stipulations—avoidance. Any condition or stipulation in an application, policy, or contract of insurance, making the policy void before the loss occurs, shall not prevent recovery thereon by the insured, if it shall be shown by the plaintiff that the failure to observe such provision or the violation thereof did not contribute to the loss. [C., '97, § 1743; S., '13, § 1743.]

8981. Conditions invalidating policy. Any condition or stipulation referring:

1. To any other insurance, valid or invalid, or
2. To vacancy of the insured premises, or
3. To the title or ownership of the property insured, or
4. To lien, or incumbrances thereon created by voluntary act of the insured and within his control, or
5. To the suspension or forfeiture of the policy during default or failure to pay any written obligation given to the insurance company for the premium, or
6. To the assignment or transfer of such policy of insurance before loss without the consent of the insurance company, or
7. To the removal of the property insured, or
8. To a change in the occupancy or use of the property insured, if such change or use makes the risk more hazardous, or
9. To the fraud of the insured in the procurement of the contract of insurance—shall not be changed or affected by the provision of the preceding section. [C., '97, § 1743; S., '13, § 1743.]

8982. Arbitration agreements. No recovery on a policy or contract of insurance shall be defeated for failure of the insured to comply, after a loss occurs, with any arbitration or appraisal stipulation as to fixing value of property. No arbitration shall take place except where the property was situated at the time of loss. [C., '97, § 1743; S., '13, § 1743.]

8983. Right to rebuild. Any agreement, stipulation, or condition in any policy or contract of insurance by which any insurance company reserves or has the right to rebuild shall be void and of no effect in case of total loss, or where the amount of loss, upon the request of the insurance company, has been submitted to arbitration. [C., '97, § 1743; S., '13, § 1743.]

8984. Pleadings. Nothing in the four preceding sections shall be construed to change the limitations or restrictions respecting the pleading or proving of any defense by any insurance company to which it is subject by law. [C., '97, § 1743; S., '13, § 1743.]

8985. Applicability of statute. The provisions of the five preceding sections shall apply to all contracts of insurance on real and personal property. [C., '97, § 1743; S., '13, § 1743.]

8986. Notice and proof of loss—limitation of actions. The notice of loss and proof thereof required in section 8978, and the notice and proof of loss under oath in case of insurance on personal property, shall be given within sixty days from the time loss occurred, and no action for such loss shall be begun within forty days after such notice and proofs have been given to the company, nor shall the time within which action shall be brought be limited to less than one year from the time when a cause of action for the loss accrues. No provisions of any policy or contract to the contrary shall affect the provisions of this and the ten preceding sections. [C., '97, § 1744; S., '13, § 1744.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8774, 8775, 8978, 8979, 9045, and 9048.

8987. More favorable conditions. Nothing contained in the preceding section or in section 8979 shall be so construed as to prohibit any insurance company not required by the statutes of Iowa to issue a standard form of policy, from embodying, with the approval of the commissioner of insurance, in any insurance contract issued by it, provisions or conditions which are more favorable to the insured than those authorized in said statutes. [38 G. A., ch. 348, § 5.]

8988. Forms of policies — approval. The form of all policies or permits issued or proposed to be issued by any insurance company doing business in this state under the provisions of this chapter, shall first be examined and approved by the commissioner of insurance. [C., '97, § 1745; S., '13, § 1745; 38 G. A., ch. 348, § 6.]

8989. Special policy requirements. Such commissioner shall refuse to authorize it to do business or to renew its permission to do business when the form of policy issued or proposed to be issued does not provide for the cancellation of the same at the request of the insured upon equitable terms, and the return to the insured of any premium paid in excess of the customary short rates for the insurance up to the time of cancellation, or the release of the insured from any liability beyond such short rates, or for losses after the cancellation of the policy if the insurance be in a mutual company; and in case any company or association shall issue any policies not containing such provision, it shall be the duty of the commissioner to revoke the authority of such company or association to do business. [C., '97, § 1745; S., '13, § 1745; 38 G. A., ch. 348, § 6.]

8990. Coinsurance—void stipulations. Any provisions, contract, or stipulation contained in any policy of insurance, issued by any insurance company doing business in the state under the provisions of this chapter, providing or stipulating that the insured shall maintain insurance on any property covered by such policy to any extent, or shall to any extent be an insurer of the property insured in such policy, or shall bear any portion of the loss on the property insured, shall be void; and the commissioner of insurance shall refuse to authorize any such company to do business or to renew the authority or the certificate of any such company when the form of policy issued or proposed to be issued contains any such provision, contract, or stipulation. [C., '97, § 1746; S., '13, § 1746; 40 G. A., ch. 180, § 1.]

8991. Coinsurance riders—exceptions. Upon the written request of any person desiring insurance, a rider providing for coinsurance may be attached to and become a part of the policy, but in no case shall such rider apply to dwellings or farm property. [S., '13, § 1746; 37 G. A., ch. 185, § 1; 40 G. A., ch. 180, § 1.]

8992. Request for coinsurance rider—signing. The request for the application of the coinsurance clause or rider to any policy of insurance shall be written or printed on a single sheet of paper which shall contain nothing but the request hereinafter set out, and said request must be signed by the insured and a copy thereof be left with him by the agent at the time the insurance is applied for. [S., '13, § 1746; 40 G. A., ch. 180, § 1.]

8993. Form of request. No form of request for coinsurance except the following shall be used by any company doing business within this state:

REQUEST FOR THE APPLICATION OF THE COINSURANCE CLAUSE

In consideration of a reduction from the established rate of per cent to per cent in premiums to be paid to the..... insurance company for insurance upon the following described property

I hereby request that a coinsurance rider be attached to the policy to be issued by said company, and hereby agree that during the life of the policy I will maintain insurance of the character mentioned in said policy upon said property, to the extent of at least per cent of the actual cash value thereof at the time of loss, and that failing to do so, I shall become a coinsurer to the extent of such deficit.

Before signing this request or the coinsurance rider to be attached to the policy to be issued, I carefully read each of them and fully understand that in case I shall fail to maintain insurance of the character mentioned in the policy on the previously described property to the extent above provided, then in the event of loss or damage this company shall not be liable for a greater per cent of the loss or damage to said property than the total amount of insurance maintained bears to per cent of the actual cash value of the property insured at the time of loss.

Date Insured. [S., '13, § 1746; 37 G. A., ch. 185, § 1; 40 G. A., ch. 180, § 1.]

8994. Signing of rider. The coinsurance rider to be used shall be signed by both the agent and the insured, and a copy thereof shall be left with the insured at the time the application is made for insurance. [S., '13, § 1746; 40 G. A., ch. 180, § 1.]

8995. Form of rider. The rider shall be in form and restrictions as follows:

IOWA COINSURANCE AND REDUCED RATE CLAUSE

(This clause must be signed by both the insured and the agent).

In consideration of the acceptance by the insured of a reduction in premiums from the established rate of per cent to per cent, it is hereby agreed that the insured shall maintain insurance during the life of this policy upon the property insured, to the extent of at least per cent of the actual cash value thereof at the time of loss, and, that failing to do so, the insured shall be a coinsurer to the extent of such deficit.

This clause, at the request of the insured, is attached to and forms part of policy number of the insurance company of and shall in no case apply to dwellings or farm property.

..... Insured
Date Agent

8996. Stipulation as to prorating. No condition or stipulation in a policy of insurance fixing the amount of liability or recovery under such policy with reference to prorating with other insurance on property insured shall be valid except as to other valid and collectible insurance, any agreement to the contrary notwithstanding. [C., '97, § 1746; S., '13, § 1746; 40 G. A., ch. 180, § 1.]

8997. Limitation on coinsurance riders. The request and the rider hereinbefore referred to shall only be permitted to be used in connection with insurance contracts issued in this state against the hazards of fire, lightning, tornadoes, cyclones, windstorms, and sprinkler leakage. [S., '13, § 1746; 40 G. A., ch. 180.]

8998. Compliance with law — change of articles. Every insurance company organized under the laws of or doing business in this state shall conform to all the provisions of this chapter and to other laws of this state, whether now existing or hereafter enacted, applicable thereto, and when necessary any existing company shall change its charter and by-laws so as to conform thereto, by a vote of a majority of its board of directors. [C., '73, § 1147; C., '97, § 1747.]

8999. Violations. Any officer, manager, or agent of any insurance company or association who, with knowledge that it is doing business in an unlawful manner, or is insolvent, solicits insurance with said company or association, or receives applications therefor, or does any other act or thing towards procuring or receiving any new business for such company or association, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and for every such act, on conviction thereof, shall be adjudged to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding one year, or be punished by both such fine and imprisonment. [C., '73, § 1147; C., '97, § 1747.]

9000. Officers punished. Any president, secretary, or other officer of any company organized under the laws of this state, or any officer or person doing or attempting to do business in this state for any insurance company organized either within or without this state, failing to comply with any of the requirements of this chapter, or violating any of the provisions thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail for a period not less than thirty days nor more than six months. [C., '73, § 1147; C., '97, § 1748.]

9001. Advertisements. Every agent of any insurance company shall, in all advertisements of such agency, publish the location of the company, giving the name of the city, town, or village in which it is located, and the state or government under the laws of which it is organized. [C., '73, § 1148; C., '97, § 1749.]

NOTE: For applicability of above section and the four following sections to life insurance companies and associations, see § 8731.

9002. "Soliciting agent" defined. Any person who shall hereafter solicit insurance or procure application therefor shall be held to be the soliciting agent of the insurance company or association issuing a policy on such application or on a renewal thereof, anything in the application, policy, or contract to the contrary notwithstanding. [C., '73, § 1148; C., '97, § 1749.]

9003. Agent—general definition. The term "agent" used in the foregoing sections of this chapter shall include any other person who shall in any manner directly or indirectly transact the insurance business for any insurance company complying with the laws of this state. [C., '97, § 1750.]

9004. Agent—specific definition. Any officer, agent, or representative of an insurance company doing business in this state who may solicit insurance, procure applications, issue policies, adjust losses, or transact the business generally of such companies, shall be held to be the agent of such insurance company with authority to transact all business within the scope of his employment, anything in the application, policy, contract, by-laws, or articles of incorporation of such company to the contrary notwithstanding. [C., '97, § 1750.]

9005. Exceptions. Members of mutual assessment associations which pay no commission, reward or gratuity for the procuring of applications for membership, the income of which associations is derived solely from assessments, dues and fees collected from its members for the sole purpose of meeting loss and expenses, shall not be deemed to be agents under any section of this chapter. [39 G. A., ch. 123, § 1.]

9006. Applicability to organizations and individuals. The provisions of the foregoing sections relative to insurance companies shall apply to all such companies, partnerships, associations, or individuals, whether incorporated or not. [C., '73, § 1148; C., '97, § 1751.]

9007. Fees. There shall be paid to the commissioner of insurance for services required under the provisions of this chapter the following fees, which shall be accounted for by him in the same manner as other fees received in the discharge of the duties of his office:

1. For filing and examination of the first application of any company and accompanying articles of incorporation for organization in this state, and the issuing of the permission to do business, ten dollars.

2. For filing application of any foreign company for certificate to do business in this state, and the accompanying certified copy of charter or articles of incorporation, twenty-five dollars.

3. For permission to foreign company to do business in this state, or certified copy thereof, two dollars.

4. For filing annual statement of a domestic company, and issuing the renewal of the permission required by law to authorize continuance in business, three dollars.

5. For filing annual statement of a foreign company, twenty dollars, and issuing renewal of permission, two dollars.

6. For certificate of authority to agent of foreign company, two dollars.

7. For each certificate of authority to agent of domestic company, fifty cents.

8. For every copy of any paper filed, the sum of twenty cents per folio, and for affixing the official seal to such copy and certifying the same, one dollar.

9. For each certificate for publication of foreign companies, two dollars, and for each certificate for publication of Iowa companies, fifty cents. [C., '73, § 1153; C., '97, § 1752; S., '13, § 1752.]

9008. Expenses of examination. The necessary expenses of any examination of any insurance company made or ordered to be made by the commissioner of insurance under this chapter shall be certified to by him, and paid on his requisition by the company so examined; and in case of failure of the company to make such payment, the commissioner shall suspend such company from doing business in this state until such expenses are paid. If such expenses are not paid by the company, they shall be audited by the state board of audit and paid out of the state treasury. [C., '73, § 1156; C., '97, § 1753.]

9009. Examination of foreign companies. In no case shall any foreign insurance company be examined except by order of executive council. [C., '97, § 1753.]

9010. Unlawful combinations. It shall be unlawful for two or more insurance companies doing business in this state, or for the officers, agents, or employees of such companies, to make or enter into any combination or agreement relating to the rates to be charged for insurance, the amount of commissions to be allowed agents for procuring the same, or the manner of transacting the insurance business within this state. [C., '97, § 1754; 38 G. A., ch. 318, § 1.]

9011. Violations. Any such company, officer, agent, or employee violating the above provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall pay a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each offense, to be recovered in the name of the state for the use of the permanent school fund. [C., '97, § 1754.]

9012. Examination of officers and employees. The commissioner of insurance is authorized to summon before him, for examination under oath, any officer, agent, or employee of any such company suspected of violating any of the provisions of the second preceding section, and, on complaint to him in writing by two or more residents of this state charging such company under oath upon their knowledge or belief with violating the provisions of the said second preceding section, he shall summon any officer, agent, or employee of said company before him for examination under oath. [C., '97, § 1755.]

9013. Revocation of authority. If upon such examination, and that of any other witness produced and examined, he shall determine that such company is guilty of a violation of any of the provisions of the said section, or if any such officer, agent, or employee after being duly summoned shall fail to appear or submit to examination, the commissioner shall forthwith issue an order revoking the authority of such company to transact business within this state, and it shall not thereafter be permitted to do the business of fire insurance in this state at any time within one year therefrom. [C., '97, § 1755.]

9014. Appeal. Either party may appeal from the decision of the commissioner of insurance, made pursuant to the preceding section, to the district court of the county where the same was made, within twenty days from the time of the rendition of such decision, by serving a written notice of such appeal on the opposite party and on the commissioner, and filing with the clerk of said court a good and sufficient bond for the payment of all costs on the appeal in case the decision shall be affirmed. On such appeal said court shall try the case de novo, as equitable causes are tried, and on such evidence as either party may produce, and may reverse, modify, or affirm the decision of the commissioner. [C., '97, § 1756.]

9015. Incrimination. The statements and declarations made or testimony given by any such officer, agent, or employee in the investigation before the commissioner of insurance, or upon the hearing and trial before the district court, as provided in the three preceding sections, shall not be used against the person making the same in any criminal prosecution against him. [C., '97, § 1757.]

9016. Insurance in unauthorized companies. No action shall be maintained in any court in the state upon any policy or contract of fire insurance issued upon any property situated in the state by any company, association, partnership, individual, or individuals that have not been authorized by the commissioner of insurance to transact such insurance business, unless it shall be shown that the insurer or insured, within six months after the issuing of such policy or contract of insurance, has paid into the state treasury two and one-half per cent of the gross premium paid or agreed to be paid for such policy or contract of insurance. [C., '97, § 1758.]

9017. Standard policy — additions, riders, and clauses. It shall be unlawful for any insurance company to issue any policy of fire insurance upon any property in this state except upon automobiles and marine risks other or different from the standard form of fire insurance policy herein set forth except:

I. It may print in its policy its name, location, date of incorporation, amount of its paid-up capital stock (if a stock company), names of its officers and agents, the number and date of the policy, the amount (under dollar mark) for which it is issued, and if issued through an agent the words: "This policy shall not be valid until countersigned by the duly authorized agent of this company at

II. It may use in or upon its policy forms or slips of the description, location, and specifications of the property insured, together with permits upon such conditions not in conflict with the provisions of law, as may be agreed upon, for the use or storage of electricity, gasoline, explosives, or other extra hazardous products or materials; for repairs or improvements; for the operation or ceasing to operate; and for the vacancy of the premises; and permits for hazards other than those specifically mentioned above; also a mortgagee's or loss payable clause, and other permits or riders, not in conflict with law.

III. It may also by written or printed clause upon such conditions not in conflict with the provisions of law as may be agreed upon, provide that a policy shall cover any loss or damage caused by lightning, tornadoes, cyclones, hail, or windstorms not exceeding the sum insured or the interest of the insured in the property; provided if there shall be other valid insurance on such property, whereby the same is insured against loss by lightning, tornadoes, cyclones, hail, or windstorms, said company shall be liable only pro rata with such other valid and collectible insurance for any such loss by lightning, tornadoes, cyclones, hail, or windstorms.

IV. Any company incorporated in this state, or authorized to do business herein, shall print in its policy or attach thereto any provision which such company is required by law to insert in its policies or attach thereto, not included in the provisions of this policy, but such provisions shall be printed apart from the other conditions and agreements of this policy and under a separate title as follows: "Provisions required by law to be stated in the policy of insurance".

V. It shall print upon its policy issued in compliance with the preceding provisions of this section, the words: IOWA STANDARD FIRE INSURANCE POLICY. [S., '13, § 1758-a.]

9018. Form of standard policy. The policy shall be plainly printed, and no part thereof shall be in type smaller than brevier; the conditions thereof shall be printed in uniform numbered lines, as adopted and approved by the commissioner of insurance, and such policy shall be in terms and conditions as follows:

I. In consideration of the stipulations herein named and of dollars,.... does insure....
..... for the term of from the day of 19.... at noon (standard time), to the day of 19.... at noon (standard time), against all direct loss or damage by fire, except as hereinafter provided, to an amount not exceeding dollars, to the following described property, while located and contained as described herein, and not elsewhere, to wit:

It is hereby agreed that the insured may obtain $. additional insurance in companies authorized to do business in the state of Iowa.

II. This company shall not be liable beyond the actual cash value of the property covered by this policy at the time any loss or damage occurs, and said liability shall in no event exceed what it would cost the insured to repair or replace the property lost or damaged with material of like kind and quality. The sum for which this company is liable pursuant to this policy, shall be payable forty days after due notice and proofs of loss have been received by this company in accordance with law.

III. This policy shall be void if the insured has concealed or misrepresented any material fact or circumstance concerning this insurance or the subject thereof.

IV. Unless otherwise provided by agreement of this company this policy shall be void:

a. If the insured now has or shall hereafter procure any other contract of insurance valid or invalid on the property covered in whole or in part by this policy; or

b. If the subject of insurance be a manufacturing establishment, and it cease to be operated for more than ten consecutive days; or

c. If the building herein described, whether intended for occupancy by the owner or tenant be or become vacant or unoccupied and so remain for ten consecutive days; or

d. If the interest of the insured be other than unconditional and sole ownership; or

e. If the subject of insurance be a building on ground not owned by the insured; or

f. If any change other than by death of the insured whether by legal proceedings, judgment, voluntary act of the insured or otherwise, take place in the interest, title, possession, or use of the subject of insurance, if such change in the possession or use makes the risk more hazardous; or

g. If the subject of insurance or a part thereof (as to the part so encumbered) be or become encumbered by lien, mortgage, or otherwise created by voluntary act of the insured or within his control; or

h. If the property insured or any part thereof (as to the part so removed) be removed to any other building or location than that specified in the policy; or

i. If this policy be assigned before loss.

V. Unless otherwise provided by agreement of this company, this policy shall be void:

a. If the subject of insurance be a manufacturing establishment, and it be operated in whole or in part at night later than 10 o'clock; or

b. If the hazard be increased by any means within the knowledge of the insured; or

c. If mechanics be employed in building, altering, or repairing the within described premises for more than fifteen days at any one time; or

d. If illuminating gas or vapor be generated in any building covered hereby, or on any premises adjacent thereto for use upon the insured premises; or

e. If there be kept, used, or allowed on the within described premises, benzine, benzole, dynamite, ether, fireworks, gasoline, Greek fire, gunpowder exceeding twenty-five pounds in quantity, naphtha, nitroglycerine, or other explosives, phosphorus, calcium carbide, petroleum or any of its products of greater inflammability than kerosene of lawful standard, which last named article may be used for lights and kept for sale according to law, in quantities not exceeding five barrels; or

f. If the insured permits the property which is the subject of insurance, or any part thereof, to be used for any unlawful purpose.

Provided that nothing contained in paragraph V herein shall operate to avoid this policy in any case, if the insured shall establish that the failure to observe and comply with such provisions and conditions did not contribute to the loss.

VI. This company shall not be liable for loss caused directly or indirectly by invasion, insurrection, riot, civil war, or military or usurped power, or by theft, or by neglect of the insured to use all reasonable means to save and preserve the property during and after a fire, or when the property is endangered by fire in neighboring premises; or (unless fire ensues, and, in that event, for damage by fire only) by explosion of any kind or by lightning; but liability for direct damage by lightning may be assumed by specific agreement.

VII. This company shall not be liable for loss or damage to any property covered by this policy if the insured shall fail to pay any written obligation given to the company for the premium or any assessment or installment of premium when due; provided the company shall have given the insured notice as required by law. Upon payment and acceptance by the company of the delinquent premium, assessment, or installment of premium, before loss occurs, or after loss, if the company shall have had notice thereof and accepts such payment, this policy shall be revived and in full force according to its terms.

VIII. If a building or any part thereof fall, except as the result of fire, all insurance by this policy on such building, or its contents, shall immediately cease.

IX. This company shall not be liable for loss to accounts, bills, currency, deeds, evidences of debt, money, notes or securities; nor, unless liability is specifically assumed thereon, for loss to awnings, bullion, casts, curiosities, drawings, dies, implements, jewels, manuscripts, medals, models, patterns, pictures, scientific apparatus, signs, store or office furniture or fixtures, sculpture, plate glass, frescoes or decorations; nor property held in storage nor for repairs; nor, beyond the actual value destroyed by fire for loss occasioned by ordinance or law regulating construction or repairs of buildings, or by interruption of business, manufacturing processes or otherwise.

X. Any application, survey, plan, or description of property signed by the insured and referred to in this policy shall, when a copy is attached hereto, be a part of this contract, and shall be held to be a representation and not a warranty.

XI. This policy shall be canceled at any time at the request of the insured; or by the company by giving five days' notice of such cancellation either by registered letter directed to the insured at his last known address, or by personal written notice. If this policy shall be canceled as hereinbefore provided, or becomes void or cease, the premium having been actually paid, the unearned portion shall be returned on surrender of this policy or last renewal, this company retaining the customary short rates; except that when this policy is canceled by this company by giving notice it shall retain only the pro rate premium.

XII. If, with the consent of this company, an interest under this policy shall exist in favor of a mortgagee, or of any person or corporation having an interest in the subject of insurance other than the interest of the insured as described herein, the provisions and conditions hereinbefore contained shall apply in the manner expressed in such provisions and conditions of insurance relating to such interest, as shall be agreed upon by the company.

XIII. If property covered by this insurance is so endangered by fire as to require removal to a place of safety, and is so removed, that part of this policy in excess of its proportion of any loss and of the value of property remaining in the original location, shall, for the ensuing five days only, cover the property so removed in the new location; if removed to more than one location, such excess of this policy shall cover therein for such five days in the proportion that the value in any one new location bears to the value in all such new locations; but this company shall not in any case of removal, whether to one or more locations, be liable beyond the proportion that the amount hereby insured shall bear to the total valid and collectible insurance on the whole property at the time of fire, whether the same cover in new location or not.

XIV. If loss occur the insured shall as soon as practicable after he ascertains the fact of such loss, give notice in writing thereof to the company, protect the property from further damage, forthwith separate the damaged and undamaged personal property, and put it in the best possible order, and shall, within sixty days from date of loss, furnish this company with notice thereof in writing accompanied by affidavit stating the facts as to how the loss occurred and the extent thereof, so far as such facts are within his knowledge.

XV. The insured, as often as reasonably required, shall exhibit to any person designated by this company, all that remains of any property herein described as to which a claim for loss or damage is made, and submit to examination under oath by any person named by this company, and subscribe the same, and, as often as reasonably required, shall produce for examination all books of account, bills, invoices, and other vouchers, or certified copies thereof, if originals be lost, at such reasonable place as may be designated by this company or its representatives, and shall permit extracts and copies thereof to be made; provided, however, that this company shall not be held to have waived any of the provisions or conditions of this policy or any forfeiture thereof by any examination or investigation herein provided for.

XVI. This company shall not be liable under this policy for a greater proportion of any loss on the described property, or for loss by and expense of removal from premises endangered by fire, than the amount hereby insured shall bear to the whole amount of valid and collectible insurance covering such property.

XVII. No suit or action on this policy, for the recovery of any claim thereon, shall be sustainable in any court of law or equity, unless commenced within twelve months next after the right of action for the loss accrues.

XVIII. Wherever in this policy the word "insured" occurs, it shall be held to include the legal representative of the insured, and wherever the word "loss" occurs, it shall be deemed the equivalent of "loss or damage".

XIX. This policy is issued and accepted subject to the foregoing stipulations and conditions, together with such other provisions, agreements, or conditions now or hereafter specifically authorized by law as may be indorsed hereon or added hereto.

In witness whereof, this company has executed and attested these presents.

9019. Violations—status of policy. Any insurance company, its officers or agents, or either of them, violating any of the provisions of the two preceding sections, by issuing, delivering, or offering to issue or deliver any policy of fire insurance on property in this state other or different from the standard form, herein provided for, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon complaint made by the commissioner of insurance, or by any citizen of this state, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for the first offense, and not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for each subsequent offense, but any policy so issued or delivered shall, nevertheless, be binding upon the company issuing or delivering the same, and such company shall, until the payment of such fine, be disqualified from doing any insurance business in this state; but any policy so issued or delivered shall, nevertheless, be binding upon the company issuing or delivering the same. [S., '13, § 1758-c.]

9020. Existing statutes — waiver. Nothing contained in the three preceding sections nor any provisions or conditions in the standard form of policy provided for in section 9018, shall be deemed to repeal or in any way modify any existing statutes or to prevent any insurance company issuing such policy, from waiving any of the provisions or conditions contained therein, if the waiver of such provisions or conditions shall be in the interest of the insured. [S., '13, § 1758-d.]

9021. Policy—formal execution. Every fire insurance company and association authorized to transact business in this state shall conduct its business in the name under which it is incorporated, and the policies issued by it shall be headed or entitled only by such name. There shall not appear on the face of the policy or on its filing back, anything that would indicate that it is the obligation of any other than the company responsible for the payment of losses under the policy, though it will be permissible to stamp or print on the bottom of the filing back, the name or names of the department or general agency issuing the same. [S. S., '15, § 1758-e.]

9022. Misleading statements. No insurance company, or department or general agency of an insurance company, doing business in this state, or its officers or agents, shall issue any false or misleading advertisements through newspapers or other periodicals, or any false or misleading representations by signs, cards, letterheads, tending to conceal or misrepresent the true identity of the insurer or insurance company, which is carrying the liability under any policy issued in this state.

Nor shall any insurance company, or department or general agency of an insurance company, doing business in this state issue any advertisement or representation of any character, giving the appearance of a separate or independent insuring organization on the part of any department or general agency, and the type or lettering used in any advertisement or representation shall set forth the name of the company or organization assuming the risk more conspicuously than that of any department or general agency. [S. S., '15, § 1758-f.]

9023. Violations. Any violation of the two preceding sections shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars. [S. S., '15, § 1758-g.]

9024. Advertisements by agents. Nothing contained in sections 9021 and 9022 shall be construed to prevent any representative of an insurance company from advertising his own individual business without specific mention of the name of the company or companies which he may represent. [S. S., '15, § 1758-h.]

CHAPTER 405

EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY INSURANCE

9025. Reserve required.
9026. Terms defined.

9025. Reserve required. Every corporation, association, company, or reciprocal exchange writing any of the several classes of insurance authorized by paragraph d of subsection 5 of section 8940 shall maintain reserves for outstanding losses under insurance against loss or damage from accident to or injuries suffered by an employee or other person and for which the insured is liable computed as follows:

1. For all liability suits being defended under policies written more than

a. Ten years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, one thousand five hundred dollars for each suit.

b. Five and less than ten years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, one thousand dollars for each suit.

c. Three and less than five years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, eight hundred fifty dollars for each suit.

2. For all liability policies written during the three years immediately preceding the date as of which the statement is made, such reserve shall be sixty per cent of the earned liability premiums of each of such three years less all loss and loss expense payments made under liability policies written in the corresponding years; but in any event, such reserve shall, for the first of such three years, be not less than seven hundred and fifty dollars for each outstanding liability suit on said year's policies.

3. For all compensation claims under policies written more than three years prior to the date as of which the statement is made, the present values at four per cent interest of the determined and the estimated future payments.

4. For all compensation claims under policies written in the three years immediately preceding the date as of which the statement is made, such reserve shall be sixty-five per cent of the earned compensation premiums of each of such three years, less all loss and loss expense payments in connection with such claims under 9027. Distribution of unallocated payments.

9028. Reports required.

policies written in the corresponding years; but in any event, in the case of the first year of any of such three-year period such reserve shall be not less than the present value at four per cent interest of the determined and the estimated unpaid compensation claims under policies written during such year. [40 G. A., ch. 178, § 1.]

9026. Terms defined. The term "earned premiums" as used herein shall include gross premiums charged on all policies written, including all determined excess and additional premiums, less return premiums, other than premiums returned to policy holders as dividends, and less reinsurance premiums and premiums on policies canceled, and less unearned premiums on policies in force.

Any participating company which has charged in its premiums a loading solely for dividends shall not be required to include such loading in its earned premiums, provided a statement of the amount of such loading has been filed with and approved by the commissioner of insurance.

The term "compensation" as used in this chapter shall relate to all insurances affected by virtue of statutes providing compensation to employees for personal injuries irrespective of fault of the employer.

The term "liability" shall relate to all insurance, except compensation insurance, against loss or damage from accident to or injuries suffered by an employee or other person and for which the insured is liable.

The terms "loss payments" and "loss expense payments" as used herein shall include all payments to claimants, including payments for medical and surgical attendance, legal expenses, salaries and expenses of investigators, and field men, rents, stationery, telegraph and telephone charges, postage, salaries and expenses of office employees, home office expenses, and all other payments made on account of claims, whether such payments shall be allocated to specific claims or unallocated. [40 G. A., ch. 178, § 2.]

9027. Distribution of unallocated payments. All unallocated liability loss expense payments made in a given calendar year subsequent to the first four years in which an insurer has been issuing liability policies shall be distributed as follows: Thirty-five per cent shall be charged to the policies written in that year, forty per cent to the policies written in the preceding year, ten per cent to the policies written in the second year preceding, ten per cent to the policies written in the third year preceding, and five per cent to the policies written in the fourth year preceding, and such payments made in each of the first four calendar years in which an insurer issues liability policies shall be distributed as follows: In the first calendar year one hundred per cent shall be charged to the policies written in that year, in the second calendar year fifty per cent shall be charged to the policies written in that year and fifty per cent to the policies written in the preceding year, in the third calendar year forty per cent shall be charged to the policies written in that year, forty per cent to the policies written in the preceding year, and twenty per cent to the policies written in the second year preceding, and in the fourth calendar year thirty-five per cent shall be charged to the policies written in that year, forty per cent to the policies written in the preceding year, fifteen per cent to the policies written in the second year preceding, and ten per cent to the policies written in the third year preceding, and a schedule showing such distribution shall be included in the annual statement.

All unallocated compensation loss expense payments made in a given calendar year subsequent to the first three years in which an insurer has been issuing compensation policies shall be distributed as follows:

Forty per cent shall be charged to the policies written in that year, forty-five per cent to the policies written in the preceding year, ten per cent to the policies written in the second year preceding and five per cent to the policies written in the third year preceding, and such payments made in each of the first three calendar years in which an insurer issues compensation policies shall be distributed as follows: In the first calendar year one hundred per cent shall be charged to the policies written in that year, in the second calendar year fifty per cent shall be charged to the policies written in that year and fifty per cent to the policies written in the preceding year, in the third calendar year forty-five per cent shall be charged to the policies written in that year, forty-five per cent to the policies written in the preceding year and ten per cent to the policies written in the second year preceding, and a schedule showing such distribution shall be included in the annual statement.

Whenever, in the judgment of the commissioner of insurance, the liability or compensation loss reserves of any insurer under his supervision, calculated in accordance with the foregoing provisions, are inadequate, he may, in his discretion, require such insurer to maintain additional reserves based upon estimated individual claims or otherwise. [40 G. A., ch. 178, § 3.]

9028. Reports required. Each insurer that writes liability or compensation policies shall include in the annual statement required by law a schedule of its experience thereunder in such form as the commissioner of insurance may prescribe. [40 G. A., ch. 178, § 4.]

An application on blanks furnished by the association and signed by the insured or his representative, which may contain in addition to other provisions; the value of the property, the proper description thereof, the amount of other insurance and the incumbrance thereon, and agreement to be governed by the articles of incorporation and by-laws in force at the time the policy is issued, a representation that the foregoing statements are true as far as the same are known to the insured or material to the risk, and that the insurance shall take effect when approved by the secretary.

2. A policy issued by the association in accordance with its rules, and approved by the commissioner of insurance.

Such associations may insure risks of their members or may reinsure risks of other associations or companies; or may organize reinsurance associations for the reinsurance of risks.

The words "persons" and "members" as used in this chapter shall be construed to mean trustees, administrators, and all other individuals, public or private corporations or associations. [C., '73, § 1160; C., '97, § 1759; S., '13, § 1759-a; 37 G. A., ch. 42, § 1; 37 G. A., ch. 412, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 1; 40 G. A., ch. 182.]

9030. County and state mutual associations. Any association incorporated under the laws of this state for the purpose of furnishing insurance as provided for in this chapter, doing business only within the county in which is situated the town or city named in its articles of incorporation as its principal place of business, or the counties contiguous thereto, shall for the purpose of this chapter, be deemed a county mutual assessment association; all other associations operating hereunder shall, for the purposes of this chapter, be deemed state mutual assessment associations, and such associations may do business throughout the state and in other states where they are legalized and authorized to do business. The words "mutual" and "association" shall be incorporated in and become a part of their name. [C., '97, § 1760; S., '13, § 1759-b; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 2.]

9031. Meetings. Unless the time and place of holding the annual meeting of the members of any association transacting business under the provisions of this chapter are plainly stated in their articles of incorporation or by-laws, twenty days' notice of the time and place of holding of said meetings shall be given to all members of the association. Annual meetings may adjourn from time to time. [S., '13, § 1759-o; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 11.]

9032. Amendments to articles. Members of the association at such annual meetings shall have power to make or amend articles of incorporation or by-laws as they in their judgment may deem necessary. [S., '13, § 1759-o; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 11.]

9033. Articles and by-laws part of policy. When such articles of incorporation and by-laws are printed on the policy they become a part thereof and are binding upon the association and the insured alike. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 11.]

9034. Officers — éléction. Officers or directors shall be elected in the manner and for the length of time prescribed in the articles of incorporation or by-laws. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 11; 40 G. A., ch. 183, § 2.]

9035. Policies — issuance — conditions. No state mutual assessment association shall issue policies until at least one hundred twenty-five applications have been received in any class as shown by section 9029, representing the following amount of insurance: Classes one, two, three, and five, two hundred fifty thousand dollars each; class four, one hundred thousand dollars, and no county mutual assessment association shall issue policies until applications for insurance to the amount of fifty thousand dollars representing at least fifty applicants have been received, and no application for insurance during the period of organization shall exceed two per cent of the amount required for organization, or after one year of organization, one per cent of the total insurance in force, any reinsurance taking effect simultaneously with the policy being deducted in determining such maximum single risk. [C., '97, § 1761; S., '13, § 1759-c; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 3.]

9036. Approval by commissioner. Neither shall any association issue policies of insurance until its articles of incorporation, by-laws and form of policy shall have been submitted to the commissioner of insurance and if upon examination of same he finds them to conform to the provisions of this chapter he shall at once issue to the association a certificate authorizing it to transact an insurance business. [C., '97, § 1761; S., '13, § 1759-c; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 3.]

9037. Allowable assessments and fees. Such associations may collect a policy and contingent fee, and such assessments, provided for in their articles of incorporation and by-laws, as are required to pay losses and necessary expenses, and for the creation and maintenance of an emergency fund for the payment of excess losses and no part of such emergency fund can be claimed by any member whose policy expires or is surrendered for cancellation. [C., '97, § 1765; S., '13, § 1759-h; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 4.]

9038. Advance assessments. Any association may collect assessments for losses and expenses for one year in advance; or for more than one year in advance where such advance assessment does not exceed five mills on each dollar of insurance in force. [S., '13, § 1759-h; 39 G. A. ch. 120, § 4.]

9039. Borrowing money. In case the funds of any association are not sufficient to pay losses that have been reported or adjusted the association may borrow money for payment of losses until such time as it is practical to make an assessment or until the regular assessment period. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 4.]

9040. Emergency fund. Funds raised by such associations which because of temporarily low rate of losses are not needed to pay losses and expenses in any year, may be passed to an emergency fund to be held for payment of excess losses in a subsequent year or years; such fund may be deposited in banks, or at the option of the board of directors may be invested in the classes of securities permitted by section 8927; but under the direction of the board of directors and with the consent of the commissioner of insurance a part of such fund may be invested in a home office building. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 4.]

9041. Policies with fixed premiums. When the emergency fund of any association reaches an amount equal to one hundred per cent of the average cost per thousand on all policies in force for the full term for which assessment is collected and not less than one hundred thousand dollars or such amount of capital stock as is required of domestic companies, such associations may issue policies of fixed premiums. [C., '73, § 1160; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 4.]

9042. Net assets required—liability of members. Associations using a basis rate whose risks consist principally of store buildings and their contents, manufacturing establishments, public garages, lumber yards, office buildings, hotels, theaters, moving picture houses, stocks of implements or automobiles, shall maintain at all times net assets equal to forty per cent of one annual assessment at the basis rate charged for such insurance on all policies in force, less deductions for reinsurance in authorized companies or associations; and may provide in its by-laws and specify in its policies the maximum liability of its members to the association; such liability shall not be less than a sum equal to the basis rate charged by the association for insurance nor greater than a sum equal to three times such basis rate. [S., '13, § 1759-i; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 4; 40 G. A., ch. 183, § 1.]

9043. Hail associations — limited assessments. Hail associations may provide in their

by-laws and policies for a limited assessment in any one year; and if the proceeds of such assessment, and other funds on hand, do not equal the losses and expenses for the year, such total funds, after payment of expenses, shall be prorated among the holders of loss claims payable in such year which shall be in full payment for such loss. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 4; 40 G. A., ch. 183, § 1.]

9044. Annual report. Each association doing business under the provisions of this chapter shall, annually, in the month of January report to the commissioner of insurance, upon blanks furnished by him, such facts as are required of domestic insurance companies organizing under chapter 404, as are applicable to this chapter. These reports shall be tabulated and published by the commissioner of insurance in the annual report of insurance, one copy of which shall be sent to each association. The county associations, the state associations, and those doing an exclusive tornado, an exclusive hailstorm, or an exclusive automobile insurance business shall be separately classified in said report. [C., '73, § 1160; C., '97, § 1762, 1763; S., '13, §§ 1759-d, 1759-e; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 5.]

9045. Proof of loss—sixty day limit. In furnishing proofs of loss under any contract of insurance under this chapter for loss or damage it shall be necessary for the insured within sixty days from the time loss or damage occurs, to give notice in writing to the association issuing such contracts of insurance accompanied by an affidavit stating the facts as to how the loss occurred so far as the same are within the knowledge of the insured, the property destroyed or damaged, and the extent of the loss. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 6.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 8774, 8775, 8978, 8979, and 8986.

9046. Five day limit. In case of damage or loss to live stock by fire or lightning or loss or damage to automobiles by theft or fire, notice of such loss must be given the association by mailing written notice within five days from the time such loss or damage occurred. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 6.]

9047. Ten day limit. In case of loss to growing crops by hail, notice of such loss must be given the association by mailing a registered letter within ten days from the time such loss or damage occurred. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 6.]

9048. Limitation of action. No action on any loss shall be begun until the date when such loss becomes due in accordance with the articles of incorporation or by-laws of such association and in no event sooner than forty days after such proof has been given to the association and no action can be started after one year from the date such cause of action accrues. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 6.]

NOTE: For similar provision, see § 8986.

9049. Presumption as to value. In any action brought in any court in this state on any policy of insurance for the loss of any building so insured, the amount stated in the policy shall be received as prima facie evidence of the insurable value of the building at the date of the policy. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 7.]

NOTE: For similar provision, see § 8976.

9050. Value of building—liability. The association issuing such policy may show the actual value of said property at date of policy, and any depreciation in the value thereof before the loss occurred; but the said association shall be liable for the actual value of the property insured at the date of the loss, unless such value exceeds the amount of insurance stated in the policy. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 7.]

NOTE: For similar provision, see § 8977.

9051. Value of personal property—value of crops. In any action on a policy to recover loss or damage on personal property, the association shall not be liable in excess of the amount of damage or loss at the time the loss or damage occurs; provided that the value of growing crops may be stated in the policy or contract. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 7.]

9052. Reinsurance—quo warranto. The commissioner of insurance may address inquiries to any association in relation to its doings and condition and any association so addressed shall promptly reply thereto in writing. If the commissioner of insurance is then satisfied that the association has failed to comply with any provisions of this law, or is exceeding its powers, or is not carrying out its contracts in good faith; or is transacting business fraudulently or soliciting insurance in territories where it is not legally admitted to do business, or is in such condition as to render the further transaction of business by it hazardous to the public or its policy holders, the business under his supervision and with the consent of the association may be reinsured in some mutual association, or he may present the facts relating thereto to the attorney general and if the circumstances warrant he may commence an action in quo warranto in a court of competent jurisdiction. [C., '97, § 1766; S., '13, § 1759-g; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 8.]

9053. Decree — receivership. Such court shall thereupon notify the officers of such association of a hearing, and unless it shall then appear that some special and good reason exists why such association should not be closed, said association shall be enjoined from carrying on any further business, and some person shall be appointed receiver of such association and shall proceed at once to take possession of the books, papers, moneys, and other assets of the association and shall forthwith, under the direction of the court proceed to close the affairs of the association and to distribute its funds to those entitled thereto, or he may make an assessment pro rata on the membership liable to an assessment to pay the legitimate debts of the association. [C., '97, § 1766; S., '13, § 1759-g; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 8.]

9054. Cancellation by association—notice. Any policy of insurance issued by any association operating under the provisions of this chapter may be canceled by the association giving five days' written notice thereof to the insured. [S., '13, § 1759-m; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 9.]

9055. Cancellation by insured—conditions. If the insured shall demand in writing or in person of the association the cancellation of policy, the association shall immediately advise him by letter to last known address, the amount, if any, due, as his pro rata share of losses and in addition actual expenses incurred on said policy. Upon surrender of his policy and payment of all sums due, his membership shall cease, provided that during the months of June, July, and August, hail insurance policies may be canceled only at the option of the officers of the association carrying the risk. [S., '13, § 1759-m; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 9.]

9056. Unearned assessments—return. Upon the cancellation of any policy of insurance issued under the provisions of this chapter all obligations to the association having been paid, the unearned portion of any advance assessment paid, other than the emergency fund, shall be returned to the insured upon the surrender of his policy, the association retaining a pro rata share for losses and in addition actual expenses incurred on said policy. [S., '13, § 1759-m; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 9.]

9057. When pro rata assessment retained. When the policy is canceled by the association by giving notice thereof it shall retain only the pro rata assessment. [S., '13, § 1759-m; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 9.]

9058. Bonds of officers. Any state mutual assessment association contemplated by this chapter, before being authorized to do business in this state, shall require its secretary and treasurer to give bond, personal or surety, to the association in such sums as the directors shall deem sufficient, no less, however, than ten thousand dollars for each office, which bond after being approved by the president of the association shall be deposited with the commissioner of insurance as security for the faithful performance of the duties of the secretary and treasurer in handling the funds of the association. [C., '97, § 1767; S., '13, § 1759-n; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 10.]

9059. Additional security—noncompliance. Should the commissioner of insurance find the surety on said bonds, or the amount thereof, insufficient, he may require additional security, or an increase in the amount of the bond. If such additional security or increase be not furnished within thirty days after notice thereof, the commissioner of insurance shall refer the matter to the attorney general the same as under sections 9052 and 9053, and it shall be taken care of by him in accordance therewith. [C., '97, § 1767; S., '13, § 1759-n; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 10.]

9060. Annual tax. Every state mutual association doing business under this chapter shall on or before the first day of March, each year, pay to the treasurer of state a sum equivalent to one per cent of the gross receipts from premiums, assessments, fees and promissory obligations for business done within the state, including all insurance upon property situated in the state after deducting the amount actually paid for losses on property located within this state, and the amount returned upon canceled policies and rejected applications covering property situated within the state, and the amount paid for reinsurance on property situated within the state, and dividends returned to policy holders on property situated within the state. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 12; 40 G. A., ch. 183, § 3.]

9061. Examination—expense. The commissioner of insurance shall at least once in each biennial period cause the books of each state mutual association doing business under this chapter to be examined and shall furnish a report of such examination to the association so examined. The expense of such examination shall be paid by the association as provided for in section 8632. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 12.]

9062. Exemption of county mutuals. County mutual associations shall be exempt from the examination and the payment of tax provided for in the two preceding sections. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 12.]

9063. Moneys and credits. In assessing for taxation the moneys and credits of such mutual insurance corporations, the assessor shall ascertain the debts or liabilities, if any, of the corporation to its policy holders or other persons which liabilities shall be deducted as provided in section 6988. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 13.]

9064. "Debt" defined. In ascertaining such corporate indebtedness, a debt shall be deemed to exist, on account of its liabilities on the policy certificates or contracts of insurance issued, by its equal to the amount of surplus or other funds accumulated by such corporation for the purpose of fulfilling its policy contracts of insurance and which can be used for no other purpose. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 13.]

9065. Annual fees. Such associations shall pay the same fees for annual reports and annual certificates of authority as are required to be paid by domestic companies organized and doing business under chapter 404, which certificates shall expire March first of the year following the date of issue. [C., '73, § 1160; C., '97, § 1764; S., '13, § 1759-f; 39 G. A., ch. 120, § 14.]

9066. Agents to be licensed. No person or corporation shall solicit any application for insurance for any association, other than county mutuals, in this state without having procured from the commissioner of insurance a license authorizing him to act as agent. Violation of this provision shall be punished by a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars per day. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 15.]

9067. License—fee. The commissioner of insurance shall upon the receipt of payment of fifty cents issue license to act as agent to any person for whom a license is requested by any association doing business under the provisions of this chapter. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 15.]

9068. Cancellation of license. The commissioner of insurance may, for a just and reasonable cause, cancel the license of such agent after due notice and hearing. [39 G. A., ch. 120, § 15.]

CHAPTER 407

LIABILITY INSURANCE—CERTAIN PROFESSIONS

- 9069. Authorization.
- 9070. Incorporation—powers.
- 9071. Policy requirements.
- 9072. Approval of articles.
- 9073. Approval of policy—certificate of authority.
- 9074. Conditions.
- 9075. Reports.

9069. Authorization. Any number of physicians, druggists, dentists, and graduate nurses, licensed to practice their profession in this state, may, by complying with the provisions of this chapter and without regard to other statutory provisions, enter into contracts with each other for the purpose of protecting themselves by insurance against loss by reason of actions at law on account of their alleged error, mistake, negligence, or carelessness in the treatment and care of patients, including the performance of surgical operations, or in the prescribing and dispensing of drugs and medicines, or for loss by reason of damages in other respects, and to reimburse any member in case of such loss. [38 G. A., ch. 286, § 1.]

9070. Incorporation—powers. All corporations, organized for the purpose of transacting such insurance business under the provisions of this chapter, shall incorporate under the provisions of chapter 384, and be known as mutual corporations; and are hereby empowered to collect such assessments, or premium payments, provided for in their articles of incorporation or by-laws, as are required to pay losses and expenses incurred in the conduct of their business. Such mutual insurance corporations may issue certificates of membership, or policies; and may provide that all assessments, or premium payments, payable thereunder, be made in cash, or on the installment, or assessment plan. [38 G. A., ch. 286, § 1.]

9071. Policy requirements. Any policy issued by any such company shall contain a provision so that said policy shall inure to the benefit of any person obtaining a judgment against the insured to the extent of the insurance carried and for the purpose for which the insurance was issued. [38 G. A., ch. 286, § 1.]

- 9076. Reinsurance reserve.
- 9077. Cancellation of policy.
- 9078. Fees.
- 9079. Powers of commissioner.
- 9080. Liability to assessments.
- 9081. Foreign companies.
- 9082. Construction.

9072. Approval of articles. The articles of such mutual insurance corporations shall be submitted to, and approved by, the attorney general and the commissioner of insurance before being filed with the secretary of state. [38 G. A., ch. 286, § 2.]

9073. Approval of policy—certificate of authority. No such mutual insurance corporation shall issue membership certificates, or policies, until its form of certificate, or policy, shall have been submitted to, and approved by, the commissioner of insurance and until it has secured from such commissioner of insurance a certificate authorizing it to transact such an insurance business. [38 G. A., ch. 286, § 2.]

9074. Conditions. No such certificate shall be issued by the commissioner of insurance until two hundred fifty applications have been received, representing, in the aggregate, one million dollars of insurance, and until the commissioner of insurance has satisfied himself that such mutual insurance corporation has bona fide applications representing the number of applicants and the amount of insurance herein required, and that there is in the possession of such mutual insurance corporation cash assets amounting to not less than ten thousand dollars. [38 G. A., ch. 286, § 2.]

9075. Reports. Such mutual insurance corporations doing business under the provisions of this chapter shall, annually, in the month of January, report to the commissioner of insurance, upon blanks furnished by him, the same facts, so far as applicable, as are required to be furnished by mutual insurance associations under the statutes of Iowa, which report shall be tabulated by the commissioner of insurance and published by him in the annual report on insurance. [38 G. A., ch. 286, § 3.]

9076. Reinsurance reserve. Such mutual insurance corporations shall, annually, set aside and maintain as a reinsurance reserve, an amount equal to ten per cent of the receipts from assessments, or premium payments, during the year until the total amount thus accumulated shall equal forty per cent, but not to exceed fifty per cent of the amount of the annual assessment, or premium payment, at the rate charged for such insurance on all policies in force. The reserve thus accumulated may be used for the payment of losses and expenses, and when so used shall be restored and maintained in like manner as originally accumulated. [38 G. A., ch. 286, § 4.]

9077. Cancellation of policy. Any certificate of membership, or policy, issued by such a mutual insurance corporation may be canceled by the corporation by giving five days' written notice thereof to the insured; or such cancellation may be upon demand of the insured; and such cancellation, when so made, either by the corporation or by the insured, shall be upon a pro rata basis, and the cancellation of such certificate or policy shall release the member from all other future obligations to such corporation. [38 G. A., ch. 286, § 5.]

9078. Fees. Such a mutual insurance corporation shall pay the same fees for admission into the state, for annual reports, and for annual certificates of authority as are required to be paid by domestic mutual companies organized and doing business under chapter 404; such certificate shall expire March first of the year following the date of its issue. [38 G. A., ch. 286, § 6.]

9079. Powers of commissioner. The commissioner of insurance shall have and exercise the same control over such corporations as he now has over mutual assessment insurance associations organized and doing business under the provisions of chapter 406. [38 G. A., ch. 286, § 6.]

9080. Liability to assessments. The provisions as to maximum liability of members to assessments when assets are insufficient and to assessments when the corporation is insolvent, found in sections 9037, 9038, 9042, and 9053, shall apply to all mutual insurance corporations organized under the provisions of this chapter. [38 G. A., ch. 286, § 6.]

9081. Foreign companies. Any mutual insurance association organized under the laws of any other state, for the purpose of transacting the kind of business described in this chapter, and which has been in business not less than one year, and has on hand cash assets in an amount of not less than ten thousand dollars, and has not less than three hundred members, shall upon application, be admitted to do business in this state; and shall thereafter make all reports and be subject to taxation, examination and supervision by the commissioner of insurance to the same extent and in the same manner as are domestic corporations organized under the provisions of this chapter. [38 G. A., ch. 286, § 7.]

9082. Construction. All laws, or parts of laws, in conflict herewith shall be so construed as not to include corporations regulated by this chapter. [38 G. A., ch. 286, § 8.]

CHAPTER 408

RECIPROCAL OR INTERINSURANCE CONTRACTS

9083. Authorization.
 9084. Execution of contract.
 9085. Office of attorney—foreign office.
 9086. Preliminary declaration.
 9087. Actions—venue—commissioner as process agent.
 9088. Manner of service.
 9089. Judgment—satisfaction.
 9090. Reports—limitations on risks.
 9091. Standard of solvency.
 9092. Annual report—examination.

9093. Implied powers of corporations.
 9094. Certificate of authority.
 9095. Violations—exceptions.
 9096. Refusal or revocation of certificate.
 9097. Bonds.
 9098. Additional security—refusal.
 9099. Foreign attorney—bonds.
 9100. Annual tax—fees.
 9101. Form of policy—construction.
 9102. Reinsurance.
 9103. Law applicable.

9083. Authorization. Individuals, partnerships, and corporations, including independent school districts and municipal corporations, of this state, hereby designated subscribers, are hereby authorized to exchange reciprocal or interinsurance contracts with each other, and with individuals, partnerships, and corporations of other states, territories, districts, and countries, providing insurance among themselves from any loss which may be insured against under the law, except life insurance. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 1.]

9084. Execution of contract. Such contracts may be executed by an attorney, agent or other representative herein designated attorney, duly authorized and acting for such subscribers under powers of attorney, and such attorney may be a corporation. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 2.]

9085. Office of attorney—foreign office. The principal office of such attorney shall be maintained at such place as is designated by the subscribers in the power of attorney; provided that, where the principal office of such attorney is located in another state, the commissioner of insurance shall not issue a certificate of authority, or license, as provided in this chapter unless such attorney shall hold a license or certificate of authority from the insurance department of such other state. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 2.]

9086. Preliminary declaration. Such subscribers so contracting among themselves, shall, through their attorney, file with the commissioner of insurance a declaration verified by the oath of such attorney, or, where such attorney is a corporation, by the oath of the duly authorized officers thereof, setting forth:

1. The name of the attorney and the name or designation under which such contracts are issued, which name or designation shall not be so similar to any name or designation adopted by any attorney or by any insurance organization in the United States prior to the adoption of such name or designation by the attorney, as to confuse or deceive.

2. The location of the principal office.

3. The kind or kinds of insurance to be effected.

4. A copy of each form of policy, contract, or agreement under or by which insurance is to be effected.

5. A copy of the form of power of attorney under which such insurance is to be effected.

6. That applications have been made for indemnity or insurance upon at least one hundred separate risks aggregating not less than one and one-half million dollars represented by executed contracts or bona fide applications to become concurrently effective; or, in case of employers' liability or workmen's compensation insurance, covering a total pay roll of not less than two and one-half million dollars.

7. That there is in the possession of such attorney and available for the payment of losses, assets amounting to not less than fifty thousand dollars, and, in case of employers' liability or workmen's compensation insurance, that such assets shall amount to not less than one hundred thousand dollars.

8. A financial statement under oath in form prescribed for the annual statement.

9. The instrument authorizing service of process as provided for in this chapter.

10. Certificate showing deposit of funds. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 3.]

9087. Actions — venue — commissioner as process agent. Concurrently with the filing of the declaration provided for by the terms of the preceding section, the attorney shall file with the commissioner of insurance an instrument in writing executed by him for said subscribers, conditioned that, upon the issuance of certificate of authority provided for in this chapter, action may be brought in the county in which the property or person insured thereunder is located, and that service of process may be had upon the commissioner of insurance in all suits in this state arising out of such policies, contracts, or agreements, which service shall be valid and binding upon all subscribers exchanging at any time reciprocal or inter-insurance contracts through such attorney. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 4.]

9088. Manner of service. Three copies of such process shall be served and the commissioner of insurance shall file one copy, forward one copy to said attorney, and return one copy with his admission of service. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 4.]

9089. Judgment—satisfaction. A judgment rendered in any such case where service of process has been so had upon the commissioner of insurance, shall be valid and binding against any and all such subscribers as their interests appear and such judgment may be satisfied out of the funds in the possession of the attorney belonging to such subscribers. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 4.]

9090. Reports—limitations on risks. There shall be filed with the commissioner of insurance by such attorney whenever the commissioner of insurance shall so require, a statement under oath of such attorney showing the maximum amount of indemnity upon a single risk, and, except as to workmen's compensation insurance, no subscriber shall assume on any single risk an amount greater than ten per cent of the net worth of such subscriber. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 5.]

9091. Standard of solvency. There shall at all times be maintained as assets a sum in cash, or in securities of the kind designated by the laws of the state where the principal office is located for the investment of funds of insurance companies, equal to one hundred per cent of the net unearned premiums or deposits collected and credited to the accounts of subscribers, or assets equal to fifty per cent of the net annual deposits collected and credited to the accounts of subscribers on policies having one year or less to run and pro rata on those for longer periods; in addition to which there shall be maintained in cash, or in such securities, assets sufficient to discharge all liabilities on all outstanding losses arising under policies issued, the same to be calculated in accordance with the laws of the state relating to similar reserves for companies insuring similar risks; provided that where the assets on hand available for the payment of losses other than determined losses, shall not equal two hundred thousand dollars, all liability for each determined loss or claim deferred for more than one year, shall be provided for by a special deposit in a trust company of the state in which the principal office is located, to be used in payment of compensation benefits for disability; such deposit to be a trust fund and applicable only to the purposes stated, or such liability may be reinsured in authorized companies with a surplus of at least two hundred thousand dollars. For the purpose of said reserves, net deposits shall be construed to mean the advance payments of subscribers after deducting therefrom the amount specifically provided in the subscribers' agreements for expenses. If at any time the assets so held in cash or such securities shall be less than required above, or less than one hundred thousand dollars as to employers' liability or workmen's compensation insurance, or less than fifty thousand dollars as to other classes of insurance, the subscribers or their attorney for them shall make up the deficiency within thirty days after notice from the commissioner of insurance so to do. In computing the assets required by this section, the amount specified in subdivision 7, section 9086, shall be included. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 6.]

9092. Annual report—examination. Such attorney shall, within the time limited for filing the annual statement by insurance companies transacting the same kind of business, make a report, under oath, to the commissioner of insurance for each calendar year, showing the financial condition of affairs at the office where such contracts are issued and shall, at any and all times, furnish such additional information and reports as may be required; provided, however, that the attorney shall not be required to furnish the names and addresses of any subscribers except in case of an unpaid final judgment. The business affairs, records, and assets of any such organization shall be subject to examination by the commissioner of insurance at any reasonable time, and such examination shall be at the expense of the organization examined. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 7.]

9093. Implied powers of corporations. Any corporation now or hereafter organized under the laws of this state shall, in addition to the rights, powers, and franchises specified in its articles of incorporation, have full power and authority to exchange insurance contracts of the kind and character herein mentioned. The right to exchange such contracts is hereby declared to be incidental to the purposes for which such corporations are organized and as fully granted as the rights and powers expressly conferred. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 8.]

9094. Certificate of authority. Upon compliance with the requirements of this chapter, the commissioner of insurance shall issue a certificate of authority or a license to the attorney, authorizing him to make such contracts of insurance, which license shall specify the kind or kinds of insurance and shall contain the name of the attorney, the location of the principal office and the name or designation under which such contracts of insurance are issued. Such license shall be renewed annually upon a showing that the standard of solvency required herein has been maintained, and that all fees and taxes required have been paid. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 9.]

9095. Violations—exceptions. Any attorney who shall exchange any contracts of insurance of the kind and character specified in this chapter, or any attorney or representative of such attorney, who shall solicit or negotiate any applications for the same without the attorney having first complied with the foregoing provisions, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be subject to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars. For the purpose of organization and upon issuance of permit by the commissioner of insurance, powers of attorney and applications for such contracts may be solicited without compliance with the provisions of this chapter, but no attorney, agent, or other person shall make any such contracts of indemnity until all of the provisions of this chapter shall have been complied with. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 10.]

9096. Refusal or revocation of certificate. In addition to the foregoing penalties and where not otherwise provided, the penalty for failure or refusal to comply with any of the terms and provisions of this chapter, upon the part of the attorney, shall be the refusal, suspension, or revocation of certificate of authority or license by the commissioner of insurance and the public announcement of his act, after due notice and opportunity for hearing has been given such attorney so that he may appear and show cause why such action should not be taken. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 11.]

9097. Bonds. Where the principal office of the attorney in fact is located in this state, he shall give bond to the subscribers in such sum as the advisory committee of the exchange shall deem sufficient, not less, however, than in the sum of ten thousand dollars, which bond, after being approved by the advisory committee and by the commissioner of insurance, shall be deposited with the commissioner of insurance as security for the faithful performance of the duties of the attorney in handling the funds of the subscribers. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 12.]

9098. Additional security—refusal. Should the commissioner of insurance consider the surety on said bond, or the amount thereof, insufficient, he may require additional security or an increase in the amount of the bond. If such additional security or increase be not furnished within thirty days after notice to furnish the same, the commissioner of insurance may revoke the certificate of authority. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 12.]

9099. Foreign attorney—bonds. Where the principal office of the attorney is located in another state, there shall be filed with the commissioner of insurance, in connection with the declaration, provided for by section 9086, certified copies of all such bonds given by such attorney as security for the funds of subscribers. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 12.]

9100. Annual tax—fees. In lieu of all other taxes, licenses, charges, and fees whatsoever, such attorney shall pay annually on account of the transaction of such business in this state, the same fees as are paid by mutual companies transacting the same kind of business, and an annual tax of one per cent, if a domestic reciprocal organization, and two and one-half per cent, if a foreign reciprocal organization, calculated upon the gross premiums or deposits collected from subscribers in this state during the preceding calendar year, after deducting therefrom returns, or cancellations, considerations for reinsurances, and all amounts returned to subscribers or credited to their accounts as savings, and after deducting the amount actually paid for losses on property located within this state, or on claims arising within this state, and the amount returned upon canceled policies and rejected applications covering property situated or on business done within this state. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 13; 40 G. A., ch. 184, §§ 1, 2.]

9101. Form of policy—construction. The attorney may insert in any form of policy prescribed by the laws of this state any provisions or conditions required by the plan of reciprocal or interinsurance, provided the same shall not be inconsistent with or in conflict with any law of this state. Such policy, in lieu of conforming to the language and form prescribed by such law, shall be held to conform thereto in substance if such policy includes a provision or indorsement reciting that the policy shall be construed as if in the language and form prescribed by such law. Any such policy or indorsement shall first be filed with and approved by the commissioner of insurance. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 14.]

9102. Reinsurance. Such attorney shall not effect any reinsurance on risks in this state unless the insurance carrier granting such reinsurance shall be licensed in this state. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 15.]

9103. Laws applicable. Except as provided in this chapter, the making of contracts as herein provided for and such other matters as are properly incident thereto, shall not be subject to the laws of this state relating to insurance, unless they are therein specifically mentioned. [37 G. A., ch. 180, § 16.]

9104. "Company" defined. The word "company" or "companies" when used in this chapter shall mean any company or association organized under the provisions of chapters 398, 400, 401, 404, or 406, except county mutuals. [S., '13, § 1821-m.]

9105. Life companies — consolidation and reinsurance. No company organized under the laws of this state to do the business of life insurance, either on the stock, mutual, stipulated premium, or assessment plan, shall consolidate with any other company or reinsure its risks, or any part thereof, with any other company, or assume or reinsure the whole or any part of the risks of any other company, except as hereinafter provided; provided that nothing contained in this chapter shall prevent any company, as defined in the preceding section, from reinsuring a fractional part of any single risk. [S., '13, § 1821-n.]

9106. Submission of plan. When any such company shall propose to consolidate or enter into any reinsurance contract with any other company, it shall present its plan to the commissioner of insurance, setting forth the terms of its proposed contract of consolidation or reinsurance, asking for the approval or any modification thereof, which the commission hereinafter provided for may approve. company must also file a statement of its assets and if a legal reserve company, of the reserve value of its policies or contracts. [S., '13, § 1821-o.]

9107. Procedure — notice. The commission shall proceed to hear and determine such petition, without notice. If the commission shall deem it necessary in order to conserve the interests of the policy holders, that notice shall be given, it shall require the company or companies to notify, by mail, all of the members or policy holders of the said company or companies of the pendency of such petition, and the time and place at which the same will be heard, the length of time of such notice to be determined by the commission. [S., '13, § 1821-p.]

9108. Commission to hear petition. For the purpose of hearing and determining such petition, a commission consisting of the governor, commissioner of insurance, and attorney general is hereby created. In the inability of the governor to act, the secretary of state may act in his stead. [S., '13, § 1821-q.]

9109. Examination. The commission may make such examination into the affairs and condition of any company or companies as it may deem proper, and shall have power to summon and compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses, and the production of books and papers before said commission and may administer oaths. [S., '13, § 1821-q.]

9110. Appearance by policy holders. When notice shall have been given as above provided, any policy holder, or stockholder of said company or companies shall have the right to appear before said commission and be heard with reference to said petition. [S., '13, § 1821-q.]

9111. Authorization. Said commission, if satisfied that the interests of the policy holders of said company or companies are properly protected and no reasonable objection to said petition exists, may authorize the proposed consolidation or reinsurance or may direct such modification thereof as may seem to it best for the interests of the policy holders; and said commission may make such order and disposition of the assets of any such company thereafter remaining as shall be just and equitable. [S., '13, § 1821-q.]

9112. Unanimous decision required. Such consolidation or reinsurance shall only be approved by the consent of all of the members of said commission, and it shall be the duty of said commission to guard the interests of the policy holders of any such company or companies proposing consolidation or reinsurance. [S., '13, § 1821-q.]

9113. Election called. In case of companies organized on the assessment plan, the commission may require the plan of consolidation or reinsurance to be submitted to the membership of such company or companies to be voted upon. When submitted, it shall be at a meeting called for that purpose, thirty days' notice being given, and a two-thirds vote of all the members present and voting shall be necessary for an approval of any plan of consolidation or reinsurance, and no proxies shall, in any case, be voted. [S., '13, § 1821-q.]

9114. Approval and filing with commissioner. Any plan of consolidation or reinsurance submitted as herein contemplated, must first have been approved by the commission, and the result of said vote must be filed with the commissioner of insurance and be by him determined before any consolidation or reinsurance shall be effected. [S., '13, § 1821-q.]

9115. Companies other than life—approval of plan. When any company or companies not named in section 9105 desire to consolidate or reinsure, it shall only be necessary for such company or companies to submit the plan of consolidation or reinsurance with any other information that may be required, to the commissioner of insurance and the attorney general and have the same by them approved. [S., '13, § 1821-r.]

9116. Consolidation prohibited. No company or companies as defined by section 9104 shall consolidate or reinsure with any other company or companies not authorized to transact business in this state. [S., '13, § 1821-s.]

9117. Expenses—how paid. All expenses and costs incident to proceedings under the provisions of this chapter, shall be paid by the company or companies bringing the petition. [S., '13, § 1821-t.]

9118. Violations. Any officer, director or stockholder of any company or companies, as defined in section 9104, violating or consenting to the violation of any of the provisions of sections 9105 to 9116, inclusive, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court. [S., '13, § 1821-u.]

CHAPTER 410

LICENSING OF AGENTS

9119. License required.

9120. Term of license.

9121. Issuance and revocation.

9122. Fee.

9123. Violations.

9119. License required. No person shall directly or indirectly, act within this state as agent, or otherwise, in receiving or procuring applications for insurance, or in doing or transacting any kind of insurance business for any company or association, other than county mutuals or fraternal beneficiary associations, until he has procured from the commissioner of insurance a license authorizing him to act for such company or association as agent. [S., '13, § 1821-k.]

9120. Term of license. Said license shall terminate at the end of the insurance year for which such company or association is authorized to transact business. [S., '13, § 1821-k.]

9121. Issuance and revocation. The commissioner may, for good cause, decline to issue such license or may, for like cause, revoke the same. [S., '13, § 1821-k.]

9122. Fee. The fee charged for such agent's license shall be, for domestic companies, fifty cents, and for companies located outside the state, two dollars. [S., '13, § 1821-k.]

9123. Violations. Any person acting as agent or otherwise representing any insurance company or association, in violation of the provisions of section 9119, shall be liable to a fine of twenty-five dollars for each day he shall so act. [S., '13, § 1821-l.]

CHAPTER 411

ELECTIONS AND PROPORTIONATE REPRESENTATION

9124. Proxies authorized.
 9125. Conditions—revocation.
 9126. Filing proxy.

9127. Solicitation by agents—use of funds.
 9128. Proportionate representation.
 9129. Amendment of articles.

9124. Proxies authorized. Any insurance company or association organized under the laws of this state, may provide in its articles of incorporation, that its members or stockholders may vote by proxies, voluntarily given, upon all matters of business coming before the stated or called meetings of the stockholders or members, including the election of directors. [S., '13, § 1821-x.]

9125. Conditions—revocation. No proxy shall be valid unless signed and executed within two months prior to such meeting or election for which said proxy was given, and such proxy shall be limited to thirty days subsequent to the date of such meeting or election, and may be revoked at any time by the policy holder or stockholder who executed the said proxy. [S., '13, § 1821-x.]

9126. Filing proxy. All proxies shall be filed with the company at least one day prior to an election at which they are to be used. [S., '13, § 1821-x.]

9127. Solicitation by agents—use of funds. Soliciting of proxies by an agent of the company either for personal use, or for the use of officers of the company or association, or for any other persons, is forbidden. Nor shall any of the funds of a company or association be expended in procuring proxies. Any violation of this or the three preceding sections shall be deemed a misdemeanor and punishable accordingly. [S., '13, §§ 1821-y, 1821-z.]

9128. Proportionate representation. The holder or holders, jointly or severally, of not less than one-fifth but less than a majority of the shares of the capital stock of corporations organized on the stock plan under the laws of this state for transacting the business of life or fire insurance, shall be entitled to nominate, to be elected, or appointed, as the case may be, directors or other persons performing the functions of directors by whom, according to the articles of incorporation of such corporations, its affairs are to be conducted. In the event such nomination shall be made, there shall be elected or appointed to the extent that the total number to be elected or appointed is divisible, such proportionate number from the persons so nominated as the shares of stock held by persons making such nominations bear to the whole number of shares issued; provided the holder or holders of the minority shares of stock shall only be entitled to one-fifth (disregarding fractions) of the total number of directors to be elected for each one-fifth of the entire capital stock of such corporation so held by them; and provided, further, that this section shall not be construed to prevent the holders of a majority of the stock of any such corporation from electing the majority of its directors. Vacancies occurring from time to time shall be filled so as to preserve and secure to such minority and majority stockholders proportionate representation as above provided. [S., '13, § 1821-v.]

9129. Amendment of articles. All such existing corporations shall by amendment to their articles of incorporation, approved by the commissioner of insurance, provide for the nomination, election, or appointment of the directors or other persons by whom its affairs are to be conducted, in conformity with the provisions of the preceding section, and the articles of incorporation of all such corporations hereafter organized shall contain like provisions. [S., '13, § 1821-w.]

9130. Superintendent of banking—term. The superintendent of banking shall have his office at the seat of government. His regular term of office shall be four years from the first day of July of the year of his appointment. [37 G. A., ch. 40, §§ 1, 2, 6; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 10, § 1.]

9131. Appointment—qualifications. The governor shall, within sixty days following the organization of the regular session of the general assembly in 1925, and each four years thereafter, appoint, with the approval of two-thirds of the members of the senate in executive session, a superintendent of banking. Such appointee shall be selected solely with regard to his qualification and fitness to discharge the duties of his office, and no person shall be appointed who has not had at least five years' executive experience in a state or savings bank in the state. [37 G. A., ch. 40, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 10, § 2.]

9132. Confirmation. No nomination shall be considered by the senate until the same has been referred to a committee of five, not more than three of whom shall belong to the same political party. Said committee shall be appointed by the president of the senate, without motion, and shall report to the senate in executive session. The consideration of nominations by the senate shall not be had on the same legislative day that appointments are so referred. [37 G. A., ch. 40, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 10, § 3.]

9133. Vacancies. Vacancies that may occur while the general assembly is not in session shall be filled by appointment by the governor, which appointment shall expire at the end of thirty days from the time the general assembly next convenes. Prior to the expiration of said thirty days the governor shall transmit to the senate for its confirmation an appointment for the unexpired portion of the regular term. Vacancies occurring during a session of the general assembly shall be filled as regular appointments are made and before the end of said session, and for the unexpired portion of the regular term. [37 G. A., ch. 40, § 2; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 10, § 4.]

9134. Removal of superintendent. The governor may, by and with the consent of a majority of the senate during a session of the general assembly, remove the superintendent of banking for malfeasance in office or for any cause that renders him ineligible to appointment, or incapable or unfit to discharge the duties of his office, and his removal, when so made, shall be final. [37 G. A., ch. 40, § 3.]

9135. Suspension of superintendent. When the general assembly is not in session the governor may suspend the superintendent of banking so disqualified, and shall appoint another to fill the vacancy thus created, subject, however, to the approval or disapproval of a majority of the senate when next in session; and if the senate shall concur therein he shall be removed from the office. But if the senate shall at the same session fail to concur or to act on the same, said suspension shall thereupon cease. [37 G. A., ch. 40, § 3.]

Provided that whenever the proper conduct of the affairs of the office demands, he may, with the approval of the executive council, appoint for a term not to exceed one year such additional bank examiners and employees as may be necessary, any provision of the law for said department to the contrary notwithstanding. Such additional examiners or employees shall be paid out of current or accumulated earnings of the banking department, their salaries to be not greater than those of other similar employees authorized by law. All such appointees shall be removable at the pleasure of the said superintendent. [37 G. A., ch. 40, § 5; 38 G. A., ch. 335, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 10, § 5.]

9137. Salaries. The deputy superintendent of banking and all bank examiners shall receive a salary to be fixed by the superintendent of banking, which salaries shall be commensurate with the work done. In no case shall the salary of anyone exceed the sum of thirty-eight hundred dollars per annum, except that the salaries of the deputy superintendent and of not more than three examiners may be increased by the executive council in an amount in each instance not in excess of six hundred dollars in any one year upon the request of the superintendent of banking and a showing by him of the need of such action, but under this provision no salary shall exceed a maximum of forty-eight hundred dollars. [37 G. A., ch. 40, § 5; 38 G. A., ch. 335, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 209, § 61; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 15, § 3.]

9138. Bond of examiners—qualifications. Each examiner shall give a corporate surety bond to the state, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties, for the sum of three thousand dollars, which shall be filed with said superintendent and approved by him. Said examiners shall have had at least three years' experience in practical bank work or as bank examiners. [37 G. A., ch. 40, § 5; 38 G. A., ch. 335, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 209, § 61.]

ployees shall give bond to the state in such sum as shall be fixed by the executive council. [37 G. A., ch. 40, § 5; 38 G. A., ch. 335, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 209, § 61.]

9140. Duties and powers. The superintendent of banking shall be the head of the banking department of Iowa and shall have general control, supervision, and direction of all banks and trust companies incorporated under the laws of Iowa, and shall be charged with the execution of the laws of this state relating to banks and banking. The organization and reorganization of state and savings banks and trust companies shall be subject to the approval of the superintendent of banking. [37 G. A., ch. 40, § 7; 38 G. A., ch. 236, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 15, § 1.]

9141. Appeal. Any person aggrieved by the action of the superintendent of banking in granting or refusing to grant a certificate of authority to engage in banking may appeal to the executive council of the state by filing with the secretary of the council a notice of appeal, in writing, and serving the same upon the superintendent of banking or some employee of the office. [38 G. A., ch. 236, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 15, § 1.]

9142. Time of appeal—decision. Such appeal shall be taken within ten days after the action of the superintendent of banking. When notified of such appeal the executive council shall fix a time and place for the hearing and its findings in the matter shall be final. [38 G. A., ch. 236, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 15, § 1.]

9143. Fees for examination. Every bank and trust company shall pay to the superintendent of banking within ten days after the date of each examination a fee based on the assets of said bank or trust company as of the date for the close of business for which such examination is made, as follows: At the rate of one dollar per one thousand dollars of assets on the first twenty-five thousand dollars of assets, and at the rate of three cents per one thousand dollars of assets on all assets over and above twenty-five thousand dollars of assets, provided that no examination shall be made for less than twenty dollars. [C., '97, § 1876; S. S., '15, § 1875; 38 G. A., ch. 335, § 2; 40 G. A., ch. 185; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 15, § 2.]

9144. Expenses. The superintendent of banking and examiners shall be entitled to actual and necessary expenses incurred in the examination of banks and trust companies, and the actual and necessary expenses within the state of special assistants and other employees, who may be designated by the superintendent to aid in the official work of this department, shall be allowed. The superintendent of banking shall also be entitled to actual and necessary expenses incurred in attending the district or group meetings and state convention of the Iowa bankers association; the annual convention of the American bankers association, any meetings that may be called by the federal reserve bank of Chicago, and the annual session, if any, or any conference of state supervisors of banking or banking commissioners, that may be called by said state supervisors of banking, or banking commissioners, or their organization, if any, not to exceed five hundred dollars in any one year, as shall be approved by the state board of audit, as provided in section 393, and such expenses shall be paid by the treasurer of state on warrants drawn by the auditor of state, but the total amount of expense and salaries shall not, in any one year, exceed the amount of fees collected from banks and trust companies. [37 G. A., ch. 40, § 5; 38 G. A., ch. 335, § 1.]

9145. Payment. No payments of any kind shall be made by the treasurer of state to cover expenses and salaries of the banking department or any part thereof, unless there shall be on hand in the office of the treasurer of state sufficient funds, received as income from said department to pay the same, and such salaries and expenses shall be paid from such funds. The superintendent shall furnish to the auditor of state from time to time a list of the salaries as fixed by him or as authorized by the executive council and all salaries shall be paid monthly by the treasurer of state on warrants drawn by the auditor of state in conformity with such salary list so furnished. [38 G. A., ch. 335, §§ 1, 3; 39 G. A., ch. 209, § 61; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 15, § 4.]

9146. When examiner disqualified. No bank examiner shall be assigned by the superintendent of banking to examine a bank or trust company in a county in which he is interested in the business of a bank or trust company. [C., '97, §§ 1875, 1876; S. S., '15, § 1875; 38 G. A., ch. 335, § 2.]

9147. Records. All books, records, files, documents, reports, and securities, and all papers of every kind and character relating to the business of banking shall be delivered to and filed or deposited with the said superintendent of banking. [37 G. A., ch. 40, § 8.]

9148. Annual report. The superintendent of banking shall, at the time provided by law, make an annual report as to the condition of every bank from which reports have been received, and may embrace in said report such observations and recommendations as he may deem of value. [C., '97, § 1881; 40 Ex. G. A., ch. 10, § 6.]

NOTE: For time of filing report, see § 251.

9149. Accounting. All fees and charges of every character whatsoever which are required by law to be paid by banks and trust companies shall be payable to the superintendent of banking, whose duty it shall be to account for and pay over the same to the treasurer of state at the time and in the manner as now provided for by law. [37 G. A., ch. 40, § 9.]

9150. Cost bill—penalty. Upon the completion of each examination the bank examiner in charge of said examination shall render a bill for such fee, in triplicate, and shall deliver one copy thereof to the bank, and shall forward one copy to the treasurer of state, and one copy to the superintendent of banking at his office in Des Moines. Failure to place the amount of said fee in the hands of the superintendent of banking within ten days, as hereinbefore provided, shall subject the bank to an additional fee equal to five per cent of the amount of such fee for each day same shall be delinquent. The superintendent shall account for and pay over said fees to the treasurer of state at the time and in the manner as now provided for by law. [C., '97, §§ 1875, 1876; S. S., '15, § 1875; 38 G. A., ch. 335, § 2.]

9151. Use of banking terms prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any individual, partnership, or unincorporated association, or corporation, other than national banking associations, not subject to the supervision or examination of the banking department, to make use of any office sign bearing thereon the word "bank", "banking", "banker", or any derivative, plural or compound, of the word "banking", or word or words in a foreign language having the same or similar meaning, or to make use of any exterior or interior sign bearing thereon such word or words whatsoever to indicate to the general public, or to any individual, that such place or office is the place or office of a bank, nor shall such person or persons, partnership, unincorporated association, or corporation, make any use of or circulate any letterheads, billheads, bank notes, bank receipts, certificates, circulars, or any written or printed, or partly written, or partly printed, papers whatever having thereon any other word or words indicating that such business is the business of a bank. [38 G. A., ch. 236, § 2.]

9152. Violations. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of the preceding section, either individually or as an interested party in any such copartnership or corporation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not less than three hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail not less than sixty days nor more than one year, or be punished by both such fine and imprisonment. [38 G. A., ch. 236, § 2.]

9153. Exceptions. Nothing in the two preceding sections shall be construed as affecting or in any wise interfering with any private bank or private banker that may be engaged in lawful business previous to April 16, 1919. [38 G. A., ch. 236, § 3.]

9154. Construction. If any part of the three preceding sections shall be declared unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other part of said sections. [38 G. A., ch. 236, § 4.]

9155. Organization. Corporations designated savings banks may be formed by not less than five persons of lawful age, a majority of whom shall be citizens of the state, and must be organized as provided in this chapter. [C., '97, § 1840.]

9156. Banking powers. Savings banks may receive on deposit the savings and funds of others, preserve and invest the same, pay interest or dividends thereon, and transact the usual business of such institutions, but shall not have power to issue bank notes, bills, or other evidences of debt for circulation as money. [C., '97, § 1841.]

9157. Articles of incorporation. The articles of incorporation of a savings bank shall be signed and acknowledged by the incorporators before some officer authorized to take acknowledgment of deeds, and give:

1. The corporate name,
2. The object for which it is formed,
3. The amount of capital,
4. The time of its existence, which shall not exceed fifty years,
5. The number of its directors,
6. The name and postoffice address of each person or officer who shall manage its affairs until the first election, and
7. The name of the city, town, or village, and the county, in which the principal place of business is to be located. [C., '97, § 1842; S., '13, § 1842.]

9158. Record required. Such articles shall be filed and recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county of the principal place of business, and in the office of the secretary of state. [C., '97, § 1842; S., '13, § 1842.]

9159. Notice of incorporation. Notice of its incorporation shall be given by publication in some newspaper published in the county wherein the bank is located, once each week, for four consecutive weeks, which notice shall state, in substance, the matters required to be given in the articles of incorporation. [C., '97, § 1842; S., '13, § 1842.]

9160. Paid-up capital required. The paid-up capital of any savings bank shall not be less than ten thousand dollars in towns or villages having a population of one thousand or less, nor less than fifteen thousand dollars in towns having a population of more than one thousand and less than two thousand, nor less than twenty-five thousand dollars in cities of more than two thousand and less than ten thousand population, nor less than fifty thousand dollars in cities having a greater population. [C., '97, § 1843; S., '13, § 1843; 37 G. A., ch. 357, § 1.]

9161. Commencement of business—conditions. The corporation may commence business when its first directors or officers named in its recorded articles of incorporation shall have furnished the superintendent of banking proof, under oath, that the required capital has been paid in and is held in good faith by said bank, and he has satisfied himself of such fact, for which purpose he may make a personal examination, or cause it to be made, at the expense of such bank, and he is also satisfied that the preceding sections of this chapter have been complied with, and has issued a certificate to that effect, naming therein its first board of directors, notice of which certificate shall be given by the publication thereof once each week for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper printed in the county where its articles are recorded, at the expense of such bank, and proof of such publication by the oath of the publisher or his foreman filed with said superintendent. [C., '97, § 1843; S., '13, § 1843.]

9162. Powers. The incorporators and their successors shall be a body corporate with the right of succession for the period limited, and shall have power:

1. To sue and be sued.
2. To have a corporate seal and alter it at pleasure.
3. To purchase, hold, sell, convey, and release from trust or mortgage such real and personal estate as provided for in this chapter.
4. To appoint such officers, agents, employees, and servants as the business of the corporation shall require, to define their powers, prescribe their duties, fix their compensation, and to require of them such security as may be proper for the performance of their duties.
5. To loan and invest the funds of the corporation, to receive deposits of money, to loan and invest the same as provided in this chapter, and to repay such deposits without interest, or with such interest as the by-laws or articles may provide.
6. To make by-laws for the management and regulation of the corporation, its property and affairs, prescribing the condition on which the deposits will be received and interest paid thereon, and the time and manner of dividing the profits, and for carrying on all business within its power. [C., '97, § 1844.]

9163. Directors—citizenship. The business and property of such banks shall be managed by a board of directors of not less than five, all of whom shall be shareholders, and at least three-fourths of the directors must be citizens of the state. [C., '97, § 1845; 37 G. A., ch. 238, § 1.]

9164. Articles to designate number—changes. The articles of incorporation shall designate the maximum number of directors, and the stockholders by a majority of all of the votes of the stockholders of such bank may change at any annual meeting by resolution, the number of its directors, as said stockholders may decide, to any number not less than five nor more than the maximum designated in the articles of incorporation or certificate of authorization, provided that said resolution of the stockholders shall after being duly adopted as aforesaid be filed in the office of the superintendent of banking within thirty days after such adoption. [38 G. A., ch. 60, § 1.]

9165. Amendment of articles. The maximum number of directors as fixed by the articles of incorporation may be changed in the manner prescribed by law for changing the said articles of incorporation. [38 G. A., ch. 60, § 1.]

9166. Eligibility—stock holdings. No person shall be eligible as director of any savings bank, nor can he qualify or serve as such, unless he owns in his own right shares of stock in such bank, as follows:

1. In those having a capital of less than twenty thousand dollars, one share.
2. In those having a capital of twenty thousand dollars or over, but less than thirty thousand dollars, two shares.
3. In those having a capital of thirty thousand dollars or over, but less than forty thousand dollars, three shares.
4. In those having a capital of forty thousand dollars or over, but less than fifty thousand dollars, four shares.
5. In those having a capital of fifty thousand dollars or over, five shares. [C., '97, § 1845.]

9167. Oath of director—filing. Each director, before acting as such, shall take an oath that he will diligently, faithfully and impartially perform the duties imposed upon him by law, that he will not knowingly violate or willingly permit to be violated any of its provisions, that he is the bona fide owner in his own right of the number of shares of stock required to be owned by him as provided in this chapter; that the same is not hypothecated nor in any manner pledged as security for any loan obtained or debt owing by him, which oath shall be signed by each director and certified by the officer before whom it is taken, and filed with and preserved in the office of the superintendent of banking. [C., '97, § 1845.]

9168. First meeting—notice. The call for the first meeting of the directors or trustees shall be signed by one or more persons named in said superintendent's certificate, stating the time and place of meeting, and shall be delivered personally to each director or published at least ten days in some newspaper in the county wherein the principal place of business of the incorporation is located. [C., '97, § 1845.]

9169. Officers and employees—bonds. At their first meeting, and as often thereafter as the by-laws require, they shall elect from their number a president and one or more vice presidents for the ensuing year, and appoint a treasurer or cashier, and such other officers and employees as may be required, who shall hold their office during the pleasure of the board, and give such security for the faithful performance of their duties as may be required of them by the by-laws. [C., '97, § 1845.]

9170. Vacancies on board. All vacancies in the board of directors shall be filled at its next regular meeting after such vacancy shall arise from among the stockholders, and the person receiving a majority of the votes of the whole number of directors shall be duly elected to fill such vacancy. [C., '97, § 1846.]

9171. First regular board — tenure. The directors to succeed those named in the certificate of the superintendent of banking shall be elected at the first annual meeting thereafter, at such time and place, in such manner and upon such notice as shall be provided by the by-laws, and shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualify, which shall be annually thereafter. [C., '97, § 1846.]

9172. Manner of elections. All such elections shall be by ballot, and the persons receiving the greater number of votes cast shall be directors. [C., '97, § 1846.]

9173. Postponement. If an election of directors shall not be held on the day designated, it may be held on any other day, after giving the notice required by the by-laws. [C., '97, § 1846.]

9174. Quorum. A majority of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but in no case shall a measure be declared carried unless receiving three affirmative votes. [C., '97, § 1846.]

9175. Voting of stock—when stockholder disqualified. At all stockholders' meetings, and all elections held thereat, each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote. Any stockholder may vote upon his shares in person, or by proxy in writing. Shares belonging to an estate may in like manner be voted by the administrator thereof, and shares belonging to a corporation, association, or society may be voted by any person authorized by its board of directors to do so, but no stockholder shall be entitled to vote who owes the bank any past due indebtedness. [C., '97, § 1847.]

9176. Deposits. Any savings bank organized under this chapter may receive on deposit money equal to twenty times the aggregate amount of its paid-up capital and surplus, and no greater amount of deposits shall be received without a corresponding increase of the aggregate paid-up capital and surplus, which capital and surplus shall be a guaranty fund for the better security of depositors, and invested in safe and available securities. [C., '97, § 1848; S., '13, § 1848.]

9177. Payment. The deposits so received shall be paid to such depositor or his representative, when requested, with such interest and under such regulations as the board of directors shall, from time to time, prescribe, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. [C., '97, § 1848; S., '13, § 1848.]

9178. Regulations—posting. Said regulations shall be printed and conspicuously exposed in the business office of the bank, in some place accessible and visible to all; and no alteration which may at any time be made in such rules and regulations shall affect the rights of depositors acquired previously thereto in respect to deposits or interest thereon. [C., '97, § 1848; S., '13, § 1848.]

9179. Notice of withdrawal. Savings banks may require sixty days' written notice of the withdrawal of savings deposits, but when there are sufficient funds on hand the officers thereof may, in their discretion, waive this requirement. [C., '97, § 1848; S., '13, § 1848.]

9180. Closing of accounts. They may close any account, upon such written notice as may be provided for in the by-laws, directing a depositor to withdraw his deposits, after which it shall cease to draw interest. [C., '97, § 1848; S., '13, § 1848.]

9181. Demand certificates. Nothing in this chapter shall prevent such banks, in their discretion, issuing certificates of deposit payable upon demand. [C., '97, § 1848; S., '13, § 1848.]

9182. Limitation as to interest. All accounts upon which no deposit or drafts shall be made for a period of ten years in succession shall be so far closed that neither the sum deposited, nor the interest that shall have accrued thereon, shall be entitled to any interest after the expiration of the ten years from the date of the last deposit or draft. This provision, however, shall not apply to endowments for children, to trust estates, nor to other cases where special provision is made therefor at the time of the deposit thereof. [C., '97, § 1849.]

9183. Investment of funds. Each savings bank shall invest its funds or capital, all moneys deposited therein, and all its gains and profits, only as follows:

1. Federal securities. In bonds or interest-bearing notes or certificates of the United States.

2. State securities. In bonds or evidences of debt of this state, bearing interest.

3. Municipal securities. In bonds or warrants of any city, town, county, school district, or drainage district of this state, issued pursuant to the authority of law; but not exceeding twenty-five per cent of the assets of the bank shall consist of such bonds or warrants.

4. Real estate bonds and mortgages. In notes or bonds secured by mortgage or deed of trust upon unincumbered real estate located in Iowa or upon unincumbered farm land in adjoining states, worth at least twice the amount loaned thereon; provided, however, that no such loan shall be made upon any real estate located west of the one-hundredth meridian line.

5. Federal reserve and land bank stock. An amount not exceeding ten per cent of their capital stock and surplus in the capital stock of corporations chartered or incorporated under the provisions of section 25-a of the federal reserve act, approved December 24, 1919, and a like amount in the capital stock of corporations organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of extending credit to those engaged in agriculture and to agricultural organizations, subject, however, to the approval of the superintendent of banking; provided that said investments by savings banks shall in no event exceed in the aggregate twenty per cent of the capital stock and surplus of said bank. [C., '97, § 1850; S., '13, § 1850; 37 G. A., ch. 364, § 1; 39 G. A., ch. 161, § 1.]

NOTE: Investments in federal reserve bank stock, see § 9269.

9184. Commercial paper. It may discount, purchase, sell, and make loans upon commercial paper, notes, bills of exchange, drafts, or any other personal or public security, but shall not purchase, hold, or make loans upon the shares of its capital stock. [C., '97, § 1850; S., '13, § 1850.]

9185. Expense attending loans. In all cases of loans upon real estate, all the expenses of searches, examination and certificates of title, or the inspection of property, appraisals of value, and of drawing, perfecting, and recording papers, shall be paid by such borrowers. [C., '97, § 1850; S., '13, § 1850.]

9186. Insurance. If buildings are included in the valuation of real estate upon which a loan shall be made, they shall be insured by the mortgagor for at least two-thirds of their value, in some solvent company, and the loss, if any, under the policy of insurance shall be made payable to the bank or its assigns, as its interests may appear. When the mortgagor neglects to procure the insurance as above provided, the mortgagee may procure the same in the mortgagor's name for its benefit, and the premium so paid therefor shall be added to the mortgage debt. [C., '97, § 1850; S., '13, § 1850.]

9187. Surplus fund—investment. The directors of any savings bank may set apart from its earnings, over and above expenses, a surplus fund, to be maintained as such, separate and apart from earnings usually carried and designated as undivided profits, and which surplus fund shall not be drawn upon for the payment of expenses or dividends, except that it may be made use of as a stock dividend for increasing the capital of the bank. Such surplus shall be invested in the same manner as the capital of the bank, as provided in section 9183. [S., '13, § 1850-a; 40 G. A., ch. 186, § 1; 40 Ex. G. A., S. F. 325, § 4.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 9189, 9217, and 9301.

9188. Retransfer of fund. The directors may transfer said surplus fund, or any part of the same, back to the undivided profits account, and make use of the same, when so transferred, for the payment of expenses and dividends when the deposits of the bank shall be less than ten times the capital, or capital and remaining surplus, and not otherwise. [S., '13, § 1850-a.]

9189. Surplus fund required. Before any dividend is declared, not less than one-tenth of the net profits of the bank for the preceding half year or for each period as is covered by the dividend shall be carried to a surplus fund until such surplus shall amount to twenty per cent of its capital stock, and no dividend in excess of eight per cent per annum for the period covered by said dividend shall be paid, unless said surplus fund is equal to twenty per cent of its capital. [40 G. A., ch. 186, § 1.]

NOTE: For similar provisions as to surplus, see §§ 9187, 9217, and 9301.

For similar limitation on dividends, see §§ 9217 and 9302.

9190. Real estate holdings. A savings bank may purchase, hold, and convey real estate only as follows:

1. The lot and building in which its business is carried on.

2. Such as shall have been purchased at sales upon foreclosure of mortgages owned by it, or upon judgments or decrees obtained or rendered for debts due it, or such as shall be conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its dealings, or such as it may obtain by redemption as junior mortgagee or judgment creditor, and which shall be sold by said bank within ten years after the title shall be vested in it. [C., '97, § 1851.]

9191. Interest—dividends. No dividend shall be declared or paid to stockholders, save out of the undivided profits on hand after paying or setting apart sums sufficient for the payment of all expenses in operating the bank, and of interest to depositors according to the rate fixed therefor by the board of directors from time to time. The bank shall pay interest to the depositors, when due, upon presentation of deposit book or certificate. [C., '97, § 1852; S., '13, § 1852.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 9263 and 9299.

9192. Shares—transfers. The capital of savings banks shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, issued or acquired only upon full payment of the sums represented by them, transferable on the books of the corporation in such manner as shall be prescribed by law and in its by-laws. Stock owned by any corporation, association, or society may be transferred by any person authorized to do so by its board of directors or trustees. [C., '97, § 1853.]

9193. Deposits—to whom payable. Deposits made by a person as executor, administrator, or in any other official capacity, shall be payable to him as such official; if personally made by a minor, to him, although he have no guardian, or his guardian shall not have authorized such payment; and the check, receipt, or acquittance of the minor therefor shall be valid and binding. If a deposit be made in her own name by a woman, then or afterwards married, payment shall be made to her upon her check or receipt; if made by any corporation, association, or society, to any person authorized by its board of directors or trustees to receive the same. [C., '97, § 1854.]

9194. Increase of capital stock. The capital of savings banks may be increased by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the shares thereof, at a stockholders' meeting, called upon a notice signed by the officers of the bank and a majority of its directors, specifying the object of the meeting, its time and place, and the amount of the proposed increase, published once a week for four consecutive weeks before the time fixed, in some newspaper of the county where the bank is located. [C., '97, § 1856.]

9195. Record of increase—certificate. If at such meeting the required vote is given, a certificate of the proceedings showing compliance with the foregoing provisions, the amount of capital paid in, the amount to which it is to be increased, and the manner thereof, shall be signed and verified by the affidavit of the chairman and secretary of the meeting, certified to by a majority of the board of directors, and filed and recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of the proper county, and with the secretary of state, and a certificate shall thereupon be issued by him in the manner required in the original organization of the bank. When this is done, the stock shall be increased to the amount stated in the certificate. [C., '97, § 1856.]

9196. Reorganization as savings bank. Any bank existing under any law of the state may be reorganized under the provisions of this chapter by filing with the recorder of deeds of the county in which the business is to be conducted, articles of incorporation as required for the organization of savings banks, or such amendment of its articles as will comply with the provisions of this chapter. [C., '97, § 1858.]

9197. Articles — execution—record—certificate of authority. Such articles or amendment shall be signed by a majority of the directors of such bank, acknowledged before some officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds, and recorded in the office of the proper recorder of deeds and secretary of state, as if the original articles, whereupon the superintendent of banking shall issue his certificate, as in case of the original organization of savings banks, which, when received and published as in such cases required, shall authorize it to transact business. [C., '97, § 1858.]

9198. Effect of reorganization. All the provisions relating to savings banks shall apply to banks thus reorganized, and all its securities, real estate, or property may be then transferred to such new organization. [C., '97, § 1858.]

9199. Preexisting obligations. Such reorganization shall not discharge the original bank, its directors or stockholders from any liability to its depositors or any other person; and such new savings bank shall be liable for every claim or demand existing against such former organization. [C., '97, § 1858.]

9200. Fraudulent representations. Any bank, banking association, private banker, or person, not incorporated under the provisions of this chapter, or any officer, agent, servant, or employee thereof, who shall advertise, issue, or circulate any card or other paper, or exhibit any sign as a savings bank or savings institution, and any savings bank advertising in any way a greater amount of capital than it has actually paid in, shall forfeit and pay one hundred dollars for each day the offense is continued, to be recovered in a suit brought in the name of the state, by the county attorney, of and for the use of the school fund of the county where such bank is located, and, in addition thereto, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor for each day the same is done or continued. [C., '97, § 1859.]

9201. Cash reserve fund. Savings banks doing a commercial business, located in towns having a population of less than three thousand inhabitants, shall at all times keep a cash reserve fund equal to fifteen per cent of their sight and demand deposits, and eight per cent of their savings deposits and time certificates having a fixed and definite time of maturity.

All such banks located in cities and towns having a population of three thousand or over shall at all times keep a cash reserve fund equal to twenty per cent of their sight and demand deposits, and eight per cent of their savings deposits and time certificates having a fixed and definite time of maturity.

Savings banks doing an exclusive savings bank business shall at all times keep a cash fund equal to eight per cent of their deposits.

Eighty-five per cent of such reserve fund provided for in this section may be kept on deposit, subject to call, with other banks organized under state or national laws. [C., '97, § 1860; S. S., '15, § 1860; 37 G. A., ch. 189, § 1.]

NOTE: Above section made applicable to state banks, see § 9216.

CHAPTER 414

STATE BANKS

9202. "State banks" defined.
 9203. Other use of name prohibited.
 9204. Incorporation—articles—contents.
 9205. Record and notice of incorporation.
 9206. Paid-up capital required.
 9207. Commencement of business—certificate of authority.
 9208. Publication of certificate.
 9209. Shares.

9210. Directors.
 9211. Articles to state number—change by stockholders.
 9212. Amendment of articles.
 9213. Eligibility—stock holdings.
 9214. Oath.
 9215. Execution of oath—filing.
 9216. Cash reserve required.
 9217. Surplus—limitation on dividends.

9202. "State banks" defined. Associations organized under the general incorporation laws of this state for transacting a banking business, buying or selling exchange, receiving deposits, discounting notes and bills, other than savings banks, shall be designated state banks, and shall have the word "state" incorporated in and made a part of the name of such corporation; and no such corporation shall be authorized to transact business unless the provisions of this code have been complied with. [C., '97, § 1861.]

9203. Other use of name prohibited. No partnership, individual, or unincorporated association engaged in buying or selling exchange, receiving deposits, discounting notes and bills, or other banking business, shall incorporate or embrace the word "state" in its name, but this section shall not apply to associations organized under the laws of the United States. [C., '97, § 1862.]

9204. Incorporation—articles—contents. State banks may be hereafter organized by not less than five persons of lawful age, who shall, prior to the commencement of business, sign and acknowledge articles of incorporation before some officer authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds. Such articles of incorporation shall state:

1. The object of the corporation and the name by which it shall be known.
2. The principal place of business.
3. The time of the commencement and termination of the corporation, which shall in no case exceed twenty years.
4. The amount of capital stock authorized, and the times and conditions in which it shall be paid in.
5. By what officers and persons the affairs of the corporation are to be conducted, and the times at which they will be elected.
6. The highest amount of indebtedness to which the corporation may at any time subject itself.
7. Whether private property, in addition to the liability fixed by law, shall be liable for corporate debts.

8. The name and postoffice address of each officer or person who shall manage the affairs of the corporation until the first election.

9. Such other provisions, not contrary to law, which the corporation may adopt for the conduct of the business of the corporation. [C., '97, § 1863.]

9205. Record and notice of incorporation. Such articles shall be filed and recorded, and notice of incorporation given, as provided in sections 9158 and 9159 in reference to savings banks. [C., '97, § 1863.]

9207. Commencement of business—certificate of authority. No such association shall have the right to commence business until its officers or its stockholders shall have furnished to the superintendent of banking a sworn statement of the paid-up capital, and, when the said superintendent is satisfied as to that fact, he shall issue to such association a certificate authorizing it to commence business. [C., '97, § 1864; S., '13, § 1864.]

9208. Publication of certificate. The association shall cause said certificate to be published in some newspaper printed in the city or town where the association is located, once each week, for at least four weeks, or, if no newspaper is published in such city or town, then in a newspaper published nearest thereto in the county. [C., '97, § 1864; S., '13, § 1864.]

9209. Shares. The capital of state banks hereafter organized shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, issued or acquired only upon full payment of the sum represented by them. [C., '97, § 1865.]

9210. Directors. The business and property of each state bank shall be managed by a board of directors of not less than five, all of whom shall be shareholders. [C., '97, § 1866; 39 G. A., ch. 70, § 1.]

9211. Articles to state number—change by stockholders. The articles of incorporation shall designate the maximum number of directors, and the stockholders by a majority of all of the votes of the stockholders of such bank may change at any annual meeting by resolution, the number of its directors, as said stockholders may decide, to any number not less than five nor more than the maximum designated in the articles of incorporation or certificate of authorization, provided that said resolution of the stockholders shall after being duly adopted as aforesaid be filed in the office of the superintendent of banking within thirty days after such adoption. [C., '97, § 1866.]

9212. Amendment of articles. The maximum number of directors as fixed by the articles of incorporation may be changed in the manner prescribed by law for changing the said articles of incorporation. [C., '97, § 1866.]

9213. Eligibility—stock holdings. No person shall be eligible as director of any state bank, nor shall he qualify or serve as such, unless he owns in his own right shares of stock in such bank, as follows:

1. In those having a capital of twenty-five thousand dollars or over, but less than thirty thousand dollars, two shares.

2. In those having a capital of thirty thousand dollars or over, but less than forty thousand dollars, three shares.

3. In those having a capital of forty thousand dollars or over, but less than fifty thousand dollars, four shares.

4. In those having a capital of fifty thousand dollars or over, five shares. [C., '97, § 1866.]

9214. Oath. Each director, before acting as such, shall take an oath that he is the bona fide owner in his own right of the number of shares of stock required in this chapter, and that the same is not hypothecated nor in any manner pledged as security for any loan or debt. [C., '97, § 1866.]

9215. Execution of oath—filing. Said oath shall be signed by each director and certified by the officer before whom it is taken, and filed with and preserved in the office of the superintendent of banking. [C., '97, § 1866.]

9216. Cash reserve required. All of the provisions of section 9201 shall apply with equal force and effect to all state banks heretofore or hereafter incorporated under the provisions of this chapter. [C., '97, § 1867; 37 G. A., ch. 189, § 2; 38 G. A., ch. 67, § 1.]

9217. Surplus—limitation on dividends. Henceforth before any dividend is declared by any state bank, not less than one-tenth of the net profits of the bank for the preceding half year or for each period as is covered by the dividend shall be carried to a surplus fund, until such surplus shall amount to twenty per cent of its capital stock, and no dividend in excess of eight per cent per annum for the period covered by said dividend shall be paid, unless said surplus fund is equal to twenty per cent of its capital. [40 G. A., ch. 186, § 3.]

NOTE: For similar provisions as to surplus, see §§ 9187, 9189, and 9301.

For similar limitation on dividends, see §§ 9189 and 9302.

 9281. Official neglect of officers.
 9282. False statements or entries—diversion of funds.
 9283. Intentional fraud—payment of unlawful dividends.

9218. Misnomer. The misnomer of any savings or state bank in any instrument shall not vitiate or impair the same, if such bank be sufficiently described to ascertain the intention of the parties. [C., '97, § 1868.]

9219. Compensation of officers. Officers of savings and state banks may receive for their services a reasonable compensation to be fixed from time to time in the by-laws, or by vote of the board of directors; provided, however, directors as such shall receive only such reasonable compensation as shall be fixed from year to year by the stockholders at their annual meeting and when approved by the superintendent of banking, and a director of such bank who is paid a salary as an active officer thereof shall not draw any added compensation for attendance upon board meetings. [C., '97, § 1869; S., '13, § 1869.]

9220. Loans—use of funds. No officer or employee of the bank shall in any manner directly or indirectly use its funds or deposits or any part thereof, except for the regular business transactions of the bank, and no loans shall be made by it to any of them except upon express order of the board of directors, made in the absence of the applicant, duly entered in the records of the board proceedings and only upon the same security as required of others; but the board of directors may by resolution, duly entered in the records of the board proceedings, authorize loans to directors not holding any other office nor being an employee, not exceeding a maximum sum at any one time, which resolution shall be voted upon in the absence of such director. [C., '97, § 1869; S., '13, § 1869.]

9221. Violations. Any such officer, director or employee of the bank violating any of the provisions of the two preceding sections shall be guilty of embezzlement and shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not exceeding ten years, or fined in a sum not less than the amount embezzled, or punished by both fine and imprisonment, but nothing in this and the two preceding sections shall prevent or defeat the right to recover upon any note or notes given in violation thereof. [C., '97, § 1869; S., '13, § 1869.]

9222. Indebtedness. State and savings banks may contract indebtedness or liability for the following purposes only: for necessary expenses in managing and transacting their business, for deposits, and to pay depositors; provided that in pursuance to an order of the board of directors previously adopted, other liabilities not in excess of amount equal to the capital stock may be incurred. [C., '97, § 1855; S., '13, § 1855-a.]

NOTE: For similar provision, see § 9297.

9223. Limit of liabilities. The total liabilities to any savings or state bank of any person, corporation, company, or firm for money borrowed, including in the liabilities of a company or firm the liabilities of the several members thereof, shall at no time exceed twenty per cent of the actually paid-up capital and surplus of such bank; provided that they may loan not to exceed one-half of their capital stock to any person, corporation, company, or firm on notes or bonds secured by mortgage or deed of trust upon unincumbered farm land in this state, worth at least twice the amount loaned thereon; but the discount of bona fide bills of exchange drawn against actually existing value, and the discount of commercial or business paper actually owned by the person or persons, corporation, company, or firm negotiating the same, shall not be considered money so borrowed. [C., '97, § 1870; S. S., '15, § 1870.]

9224. Examinations by directors. The board of directors of each savings and state bank shall, at its annual meeting, appoint from its members an examining committee of not less than two, which shall examine the condition of the bank, at least every quarter, and report the same in writing duly signed to the board, which shall cause said report to be recorded in the directors' minute book of the bank. [C., '97, § 1871; S., '13, § 1871.]

9225. Time of examination—report to superintendent. One of these examinations shall be made during the month of June, and another one during the month of December, in each year, and these two examinations, besides being recorded in the minute book of the bank, shall be reported to the superintendent of banking on blanks to be supplied by him. [S., '13, § 1871.]

9226. Failure to report. In case any bank refuses or neglects to so forward such report, said superintendent shall be authorized to have such examination made by one of his regular examiners, and the bank shall be charged with and required to pay the reasonable expense of such examination. [S., '13, § 1871.]

9227. Compensation. Members of such examining committee shall receive for their services a reasonable compensation, to be fixed by the board at its annual meeting, but in no case shall such compensation exceed five dollars per day for each day's actual service to each member. [C., '97, § 1871; S., '13, § 1871.]

9228. Statements. All savings and state banks shall make a full, clear and accurate statement of the condition of the bank, verified by the oath of the president, vice president, cashier, or assistant cashier, and attested by the signatures of at least three of the directors, or verified by the oath of two of its officers and attested by two of the directors, which statement shall contain:

1. The amount of capital actually paid in.
2. The amount of debts of every kind due to banks, bankers, or persons other than regular depositors.
3. The amount due depositors, including sight and time deposits.
4. The amount subject to be drawn at sight then remaining on deposit with solvent banks or bankers of the country, specifying each city and town and the amount deposited in each and belonging to such bank.
5. The amount of gold and silver coin and bullion belonging to such bank at the time of making such statement.
6. The amount then on hand of legal tender and national bank notes and subsidiary coin.
7. The amount of drafts and checks on other solvent banks, and other cash items not dishonored, then on hand and belonging to such bank.
8. The amount of bills, bonds, and other evidences of debt discounted or purchased by such bank, and then belonging to the same.
9. The value of real or personal property owned by such bank, specifying the amount of each.
10. The amount of undivided profits, if any, then on hand.
11. The total amount of liabilities to such association on the part of the directors thereof. [R., '60, § 1636; C., '73, § 1570; C., '97, § 1872.]

9229. Filing with superintendent. Said statement shall be transmitted to the superintendent of banking within ten days after the receipt of a request or requisition therefor from him, and by him filed in his office. [R., '60, § 1636; C., '73, § 1570; C., '97, § 1872.]

9230. Failure to furnish information. Any bank or trust company subject to supervision by the superintendent of banking which fails to furnish him the call statement within the time required by the preceding section, or fails to furnish him any report, or other information he is legally authorized to call for, within ten days of his call therefor, or within the time required by law, shall be subject to a penalty of ten dollars for each such day of delinquency, unless prior to such delinquency the superintendent has extended the time within which the same may be filed and same is filed within such extended time; such penalty to be paid to the superintendent of banking and collected and accounted for by him, pursuant to the provisions of section 9150. [39 G. A., ch. 69.]

9231. Examinations—reports required. The superintendent of banking may, at any time he may see proper, make or cause to be made an examination of any savings or state bank, or he shall call upon it for a report of its condition upon any given day which has passed, as often as three times or more, at his discretion, each year, which report shall contain the information under section 9228. [R., '60, § 1637; C., '73, § 1571; C., '97, § 1873; S., '13, § 1873; 40 G. A., ch. 187.]

9232. Publication of reports—expense. The said superintendent shall cause said report to be published, except as hereinafter provided, in one regular issue in some daily, semiweekly or weekly newspaper in the city or town where such bank is located, or if there be none in such city or town, then, in one regular issue of some daily, semiweekly, triweekly or weekly newspaper printed in said county, and the expense of such publication shall be paid by the bank. [R., '60, § 1637; C., '73, § 1571; C., '97, § 1873; S., '13, § 1873.]

9233. Matters not published. The statement published in the newspaper shall not contain the name of the bank or banks in which the bank making the statement, has on deposit, funds subject to be drawn at sight, nor shall said statement show the amount of liabilities due such bank on the part of the directors thereof, nor contain an itemized statement of reserve. The reserve with respect to the total amount of cash on hand and due from banks may be shown in one sum. [S., '13, § 1873; 39 G. A., ch. 71.]

9234. Special reports. The superintendent of banking shall also have power to call for special reports from savings and state banks whenever in his judgment the same are necessary in order to obtain a full and complete knowledge of their condition, which reports shall be verified and attested in the same manner as required in this chapter. [C., '97, § 1874.]

9235. Illegal practices—insolvency. When it shall appear to the superintendent of banking that any savings or state bank has refused to pay its deposits in accordance with the terms on which such deposits were received, or has become insolvent, or that its capital has become impaired, or it has violated the law, or is conducting its business in an unsafe manner, he shall, by an order addressed to such bank, direct a discontinuance of such illegal or unsafe practices, and require conformity with the law. [C., '73, § 1572; C., '97, § 1877.]

9236. Examination — oath — evidence. The said superintendent may appoint an examiner to investigate the affairs of any savings or state bank, who shall have power to administer oaths to any person whose testimony may be required on such examination, and to compel his attendance for the purpose thereof, by subpoena or attachment, in the manner now authorized in respect to witnesses in the courts of the state, and all books and papers which it may be found necessary to inspect on the examination so ordered shall be produced, and their production may be compelled in like manner. [C., '97, § 1877.]

9237. Expense of examination. All expenses thereof shall be paid by the banks examined, in such amount as the said superintendent shall certify to be just and reasonable, but costs taxed as such shall not exceed those allowed for like services in the district court. [C., '97, § 1877.]

9238. Liquidation—right of levy suspended. If any such bank shall fail or refuse to comply with the demands made by the said superintendent, or if the said superintendent shall become satisfied that any such bank is in an insolvent or unsafe condition, or that the interests of creditors require the closing of any such bank, he may appoint an additional bank examiner to assist him in the duty of liquidation and distribution, whereupon the right of levy, or execution, or attachment against said bank or its assets shall be suspended. [C., '73, § 1572; C., '97, § 1877; 40 G. A., ch. 189, § 1.]

9239. Receivership—distribution. The superintendent of banking may apply to the district court for that district in which said bank is located, or a judge thereof, for the appointment of said superintendent as receiver for such bank, and its affairs shall thereafter be under the direction of the court, and the assets thereof after the payment of the expenses of liquidation and distribution shall be ratably distributed among the creditors thereof, giving preference in payment to depositors. [C., '73, § 1572; C., '97, § 1877; 40 G. A., ch. 189, § 1.]

9240. Attorney for receiver. The attorney general of the state, or such assistants as may be appointed by the court, shall represent the superintendent of banks in all proceedings provided for hereunder. [C., '97, § 1877; 40 G. A., ch. 189, § 1.]

9241. General assignments. No general assignment for the benefit of creditors shall be of any validity. [C., '97, § 1877; 40 G. A., ch. 189, § 1.]

9242. Superintendent as receiver. The superintendent of banking henceforth shall be the sole and only receiver or liquidating officer for state incorporated banks and trust companies and he shall serve without compensation other than his stated compensation as superintendent of banking, but he shall be allowed clerical and other expenses necessary in the conduct of the receivership. [40 G. A., ch. 189, § 1.]

9243. Expenses of liquidation. All expenses of supervision and liquidation shall be fixed by the superintendent, subject to approval by the court or a judge thereof, and shall upon his certificate be paid out of the funds of such bank in his hands. [40 G. A., ch. 189, § 1.]

9244. Converted assets—examination. The court having direction and control of any such receiver, or any judge thereof, may require, upon the motion of said receiver, any person suspected of having taken wrongful possession of any of the effects of a state or savings bank for which said receiver has been appointed, or of having had such effects under his control, or any officer or agent of any such suspected person, to appear and submit to an examination, under oath, touching such matters, and if, on such examination, it appears that the person examined has the wrongful possession of any such property, the court or judge may order the delivery thereof to the receiver. [40 G. A., ch. 188, § 1.]

9245. Contempt—enforcement of orders. If, on being served with the order of the court or judge requiring him to do so, any person fails to appear in accordance therewith, or if, having appeared, he refuses to answer any questions which the court or judge thinks proper to be put to him in the course of such examination, or if he fails to comply with the order of the court or judge requiring him to deliver any such property or effects to the receiver, he may be committed to the jail of the county until he does. [40 G. A., ch. 188, § 2.]

9246. Impairment of capital stock—assessments. Should the capital stock of any state or savings bank become impaired by losses or otherwise, the superintendent of banking may require an assessment upon the stockholders, and shall address an order to the several members of the board of directors of such bank, fixing the amount of assessment required. [C., '97, § 1878.]

9247. Compliance with order. The board of directors shall, within thirty days after the receipt of such order, cause such deficiency to be made good by a ratable assessment upon the stockholders for the amount of stock held by them, by giving such stockholders notice in writing, signed by the president or vice president, attested by the cashier or secretary of the bank, under its seal, if it have one, and deposited in the postoffice, addressed to the last known residence of the stockholders, proof thereof to be made by the affidavit of the person so making the deposit, which notice shall state the entire sum to be raised, and the amount due from the addressed stockholder. [C., '97, § 1878.]

9248. Assessment enforced. Should any stockholder neglect or refuse to pay his assessment within ninety days from the date of mailing notice thereof, the board of directors shall cause a sufficient amount of the capital stock held by such stockholder to be sold at public auction to make good the deficiency, after giving 'thirty days' notice thereof by posting the same in the bank, and publishing it in some newspaper of the county in which the bank is located, which notice shall recite the assessment made, the amount due thereunder from the stockholder, and the time and place of sale; proof of all which may be made in the manner provided in the preceding section. [C., '97, § 1879.]

9249. Balance of proceeds. After such deficiency is made good, the balance of the proceeds of said sale, if any, shall be paid to the delinquent stockholder. [C., '97, § 1879.]

9250. Liability of directors. Should the board of directors of such bank having an impaired capital neglect or refuse to proceed as above provided for a period of thirty days after receipt of such order from the superintendent of banking, they shall become severally liable for any deficiency, which liability may be enforced at law by any creditor of or stockholder in the bank, or receiver appointed to wind up its affairs. [C., '97, § 1880.]

9251. Liability of stockholders. All stockholders of savings and state banks shall be individually liable to the creditors of such corporation of which they are stockholders over and above the amount of stock by them held therein and any amount paid thereon, to an amount equal to their respective shares, for all its liabilities accruing while they remained such stockholders. [C., '97, § 1882.]

9252. Enforcement. Should any such association or corporation become insolvent, its stockholders may be severally compelled to pay such deficiency in proportion to the amount of stock owned by each, not to exceed the extent of the additional liability hereby created. [C., '97, § 1882.]

9253. Action by creditor. The assignee or receiver of any such corporation, or in case there is none, or of his failure or refusal to act, any creditor thereof, may maintain an action in equity to determine the liability of the stockholders, and the amount to which each creditor shall be entitled; and all parties interested shall be brought into court. [C., '97, § 1882.]

9254. Distribution of proceeds. Should the whole amount for which the stockholders are made individually responsible, as provided by the three preceding sections, be found in any case to be inadequate for the payment of all the debts of any such association or corporation, after the application of its assets to the payment of such debts, then the amount due from such stockholders, on account of their individual liability created by said sections, as such, shall be distributed equally among all the creditors of such corporation in proportion to the several sums due them. [C., '97, § 1883.]

9255. List of officers, stockholders, and holdings. The president and cashier of every savings and state bank shall cause to be kept at all times a full and correct list of the names and residences of the officers, directors, examining committee, and of all the stockholders in the bank, and the number of shares held by each, in the office where its business is transacted. [C., '97, § 1889; S., '13, § 1889.]

9256. Right to inspect list. Said list shall be subject to the inspection of all the stockholders and creditors of the bank during business hours of each day in which business may be legally transacted. [C., '97, § 1889; S., '13, § 1889.]

9257. List filed with superintendent. A copy of such list, verified by the oath of the president or cashier, shall be transmitted to the superintendent of banking within ten days after each annual meeting. [C., '97, § 1889; S., '13, § 1889.]

9258. Banking business—limitation and exceptions. No corporation shall engage in the banking business, receive deposits, and transact the business generally done by banks, unless it is subject to and organized under the provisions of this title, or of the banking laws of the state heretofore existing, except that loan and trust companies may receive time deposits subject to the same limitations as are now or may hereafter be prescribed for the receiving of deposits by state banks and issue drafts on their depositories. [C., '97, § 1889; S., '13, § 1889.]

9259. Loan and trust companies. All such companies and all corporations organized under the provisions of chapter 384, whose articles of incorporation authorize the acceptance and execution of trusts, and all corporations in whose name the word "trust" is incorporated and forms a part, shall have a full paid capital of not less than the amount of capital of savings banks, as provided in section 9160 and shall be subject to examination, regulation and control by the superintendent of banking, like savings and state banks, and their stockholders shall be liable to the creditors of such companies as provided in sections 9251 to 9253, inclusive, for stockholders in savings and state banks. [C., '97, § 1889; S., '13, § 1889.]

9260. Violations. Any corporation violating the five preceding sections shall forfeit its charter at the suit of the attorney general, and said corporation, its officers, directors and agents, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, or imprisonment of not less than two years in the penitentiary, or by both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court. [C., '97, § 1889; S., '13, § 1889.]

9261. Reorganizations of loan and trust companies. Loan and trust companies organized under the general incorporation laws of the state, which were engaged in the banking business prior to January 1, 1886, and have continued therein since said date, may, by the proper additions to their articles of incorporation, become state banks within the provisions of this title, without incorporating the word "state" in the names of such corporations. [C., '97, § 1889; S., '13, § 1889.]

9262. Withdrawal of capital stock. No corporation organized under the banking laws of this state shall withdraw, or permit to be withdrawn, either in the form of dividends or otherwise, any part of its capital stock, except as hereinafter provided. [37 G. A., ch. 218, § 1.]

9263. Unallowable dividends. If losses have at any time been sustained, equal to or exceeding undivided profits on hand, no dividends shall be made; and no dividends shall be made by any association formed under the banking laws of the state to an amount greater than the net profits on hand, less the losses and bad debts. [37 G. A., ch. 218, § 1.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 9191 and 9299.

9264. Reduction of capital stock. The capital stock may be reduced by the affirmative vote of the stockholders holding two-thirds of the shares of the capital stock, at a meeting of the stockholders to be called for this purpose in the manner and after the publication of notice as required in case of the increase of the capital stock. No reduction shall be to any amount less than the capital required to authorize the confirmation of such association. [37 G. A., ch. 218, § 1.]

9265. Approval of reduction or cancellation. There shall be no reduction of capital or cancellation of stock, until said reduction or cancellation shall first be approved by the superintendent of banking. [37 G. A., ch. 218, § 1.]

9266. Forged or raised checks—liability of bank. No bank shall be liable to a depositor for the payment by it of a forged or raised check unless within six months after the return to the depositor of the voucher of such payment, such depositor shall notify the bank that the check so paid is forged or raised. [S., '13, § 1889-a.]

9267. Deposit in names of two persons. When a deposit shall hereafter be made in any bank or trust company in the names of two persons, payable to either, or payable to either or the survivor, such deposit, or any part thereof, or interest or dividend thereon, may be paid to either of said persons whether the other be living or not, and the receipt or acquittance of the person so paid shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge to the bank, banker, or trust company for any payment so made. [S., '13, § 1889-b.]

9268. Securities—deposit with federal treasurer. All state and savings banks existing under and by virtue of the laws of this state are authorized and permitted to deposit with the treasurer of the United States such of the securities of the depositing bank as may be required to secure the postal savings funds deposited therein. [S., '13, § 1889-c.]

9269. Membership in federal reserve system—investment. Any state bank, savings bank, or trust company organized under the laws of this state is authorized and empowered, upon a vote of the shareholders thereof owning not less than fifty-one per cent of the capital stock of such state bank, savings bank, or trust company, to become a member of the federal reserve bank system and to invest their funds in the stock of the federal reserve bank in the federal reserve district in which such banks or trust companies are located, and to incur liability therefor. [S. S., '15, § 1889-o.]

9270. Reserve funds of members federal reserve system. Any state bank, savings bank, or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state, which is or hereafter may become a member of the federal reserve bank system of the United States of America, shall be required to carry during the period of such membership only such cash reserve funds as may be required from time to time to be maintained by national bank members of said federal reserve bank system. [38 G. A., ch. 319, § 1.]

9271. Investment in federal reserve and farm loan bank stock. State banks and trust companies are hereby authorized, subject to the approval of the superintendent of banking, to invest an amount not exceeding ten per cent of their capital stock and surplus in the capital stock of corporations chartered or incorporated under the provisions of section 25-a of the federal reserve act, approved December 24, 1919, and a like amount in the capital stock of corporations organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of extending credit to those engaged in agriculture and to agricultural organizations; provided that the said investments by state banks and trust companies shall in no event exceed in the aggregate twenty per cent of the capital stock and surplus of said state bank or trust company. [39 G. A., ch. 157, § 1.]

9272. Acceptance of drafts. Any state bank, savings bank, or trust company may accept drafts or bills of exchange drawn upon it having not more than six months' sight to run, exclusive of days of grace, which grow out of transactions involving the importation or exportation of goods; or which grow out of transactions involving the domestic shipment of goods, provided shipping documents conveying or securing title are attached at the time of acceptance, or which are secured at the time of acceptance by a warehouse receipt or other such document conveying or securing title covering readily marketable staples. [38 G. A., ch. 66, § 1.]

9273. Acceptances limited. No state bank, savings bank, or trust company shall accept, whether in a foreign or domestic transaction, for any one person, company, firm, or corporation to an amount equal at any time in the aggregate to more than ten per cent of its paid-up and unimpaired capital stock and surplus, unless the bank is secured either by attached documents or by some other actual security growing out of the same transaction as the acceptance; nor shall the total of bills accepted for and money borrowed by any one person, company, firm, or corporation exceed in the aggregate more than twenty per cent of its paid-up capital and surplus; and no bank shall accept such bills to an amount equal at any time in the aggregate to more than one-half of its paid-up and unimpaired capital stock and surplus. [38 G. A., ch. 66, § 1.]

9274. Superintendent to regulate acceptances. The superintendent of banking, under such general regulations as he may prescribe, which shall apply to all banks alike regardless of the amount of capital stock and surplus, may authorize any state bank, savings bank, or trust company to accept such bills to an amount not exceeding at any time in the aggregate one hundred per cent of its paid-up and unimpaired capital stock and surplus; but the aggregate of acceptances growing out of domestic transactions shall in no event exceed fifty per cent of such capital stock and surplus. [38 G. A., ch. 66, § 1.]

9275. Commission for organizing banks. No individual, partnership, or corporation shall, directly or indirectly, receive or contract to receive any commission or bonus of any kind for organizing any bank or trust company in this state, or for securing a subscription to the original capital stock or surplus of any bank or trust company in this state, or to any increase thereof; provided that this section shall not be construed as prohibiting an attorney at law from receiving reasonable compensation for legal service in connection therewith. [38 G. A., ch. 144, § 1.]

9276. Violations. Each and every individual, partnership, or corporation violating the provisions of the preceding section shall forfeit to the state one hundred dollars, for each and every such violation, and in addition thereto forfeit double the amount of such commission, compensation or bonus. [38 G. A., ch. 144, § 1.]

9277. Dissolution. State or savings banks may be dissolved prior to the period fixed in the certificate of incorporation, by the affirmative votes of the stockholders holding three-fourths of the capital, at a meeting of stockholders to be called for this purpose in the manner and after publication of notice as required in case of the increase of its capital. [C., '97, § 1857; S., '13, § 1857.]

9278. Receivership—forced sale. In case of dissolution of the bank or proceedings to close the same as authorized in this chapter, no receiver appointed thereunder shall be allowed to sell the assets thereof at forced sale, but he shall collect the same with all diligence, and make distribution of the proceeds from time to time to those entitled thereto. [C., '97, § 1857; S., '13, § 1857.]

9279. Receiving deposits when insolvent. No bank, banking house, exchange broker, deposit office, firm, company, corporation, or person engaged in the banking, brokerage, exchange, or deposit business, shall, when insolvent, accept or receive on deposit, with or without interest, any money, bank bills or notes, United States treasury notes or currency, or other notes, bills, checks, or drafts, or renew any certificate of deposit. [C., '97, § 1884.]

9280. Violations. If any such bank, banking house, exchange broker, deposit office, firm, company, corporation, or person shall receive or accept on deposit any such deposits, as aforesaid, when insolvent, any owner, officer, director, cashier, manager, member, or person knowing of such insolvency, who shall knowingly receive or accept, be accessory, or permit, or connive at receiving or accepting on deposit therein, or thereby, any such deposits, or renew any certificate of deposit, as aforesaid, shall be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term of not more than ten years, or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year, or by both fine and imprisonment. [C., '97, § 1885.]

9281. Official neglect of officers. Any officer or officers whose duty it is to make statement of the condition of their bank and make publication of same, who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to perform such duties imposed upon them or either of them, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not less than three months nor more than three years in the penitentiary. [C., '97, § 1886.]

9282. False statements or entries—diversion of funds. Any owner, director, officer, agent, employee, or clerk of any bank who shall knowingly subscribe or make any false statements or false entries in the books thereof, or knowingly subscribe or exhibit false papers with intent to deceive any person authorized to examine its condition, or shall knowingly subscribe and make false reports, or shall knowingly divert the funds of the bank to other objects than those authorized by law, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars, and be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years, and be forever after barred from holding any office created by this chapter. [C., '97, § 1887.]

9283. Intentional fraud—payment of unlawful dividends. Any owner, director, officer, agent, employee, or clerk of any bank who is guilty of intentional fraud, or of deceiving the public or individuals in relation to the means or liabilities of such bank, or who aids, assists, or consents to the payment of dividends which leave insufficient funds with which to meet the liabilities of the bank, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, or imprisonment of not less than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court; and such act shall cause a forfeiture of all the privileges of said bank, and the court may proceed to close the same in the manner prescribed by law. [C., '97, § 1888.]

CHAPTER 416

BANKS AND TRUST COMPANIES AS FIDUCIARIES

9284. Authorization—additional powers.
 9285. Deposit of trust funds—payment.
 9286. Avoiding burdensome bond by deposit.
 9287. Payment of deposited funds.
 9288. National banks.
 9289. Voting of stock.
 9290. Separation of funds—liability.
 9291. Analogous rights and duties—compensation—bond.
 9292. Appointment of successor.
 9293. Release from liability.
 9294. Return of securities.

9295. Mandatory use of "trust", "state", or "savings".
 9296. Prohibited use of word "trust".
 9297. Indebtedness or liability—exceptions.
 9298. Attorney—appointment of—fee.
 9299. Dividends.
 9300. "Bad debts" defined.
 9301. Surplus fund required.
 9302. Limitation on dividends.
 9303. Investment of surplus.
 9304. Applicable provisions.
 9305. Trust matters—report.

9284. Authorization — additional powers. Trust companies, state and savings banks existing under the provisions of this title, in addition to the powers already granted to such corporations, shall have power, when so authorized by their articles of incorporation:

1. To be appointed assignee or trustee by deed, and guardian, executor, or trustee by will, and such appointment, upon qualification as herein required, shall be of like force as in case of appointment of a natural person.

2. To be appointed receiver, assignee, guardian, administrator, or other trustee by any court of record in this state, and it shall be lawful for such court to appoint such corporation as such receiver, assignee, guardian, administrator, or other trustee, in the manner provided by law for the appointment of any natural person to such trust; provided any such appointment as guardian shall apply to the estate and not the person.

3. To act as fiscal or transfer agents, or registrar for estates, municipalities, companies, and corporations.

4. To take, accept, and execute any and all such trusts and powers of whatsoever character and description, not in conflict with the laws of the United States or of this state, as may be conferred upon or intrusted or committed to them by any person or persons or any body politic, corporation, or other authority, by grant, assignment, transfer, devise, bequest, or otherwise, or which may be intrusted or committed or transferred to them or vested in them by order of any court of record, and to receive and take and hold any property or estate, real or personal, which may be the subject of any such trust, and to manage and dispose of such property or estate in accordance with the terms of such trust or power.

5. To issue drafts upon depositories, and to purchase, invest in, and sell promissory notes, bills of exchange, bonds, mortgages, and other securities.

6. To exercise the powers conferred on and to carry on the business of a safe deposit company. [S. S., '15, § 1889-d.]

9285. Deposit of trust funds — payment. Any court having appointed, and having jurisdiction of any receiver, executor, administrator, guardian, assignee, or other trustee, upon the application of such officer or trustee, after such notice to the other parties in interest as the court may direct, and after a hearing upon such application, may order such officer or trustee to deposit any moneys then in his hands, or which may come into his hands thereafter, and until the further order of said court, with any such trust company, state or savings bank, and upon deposit of such money, and its receipt and acceptance by such corporation, the said officer or trustee shall be discharged from further care or responsibility therefor. Such deposit shall be paid out only upon the orders of said court. [S. S., '15, § 1889-d.]

9286. Avoiding burdensome bond by deposit. Whenever, in the judgment of any court having jurisdiction of any estate in process of administration by any assignee, receiver, executor, administrator, guardian, or other trustee, the bond required by law of such officer shall seem burdensome or excessive, upon application of such officer or trustee, and after such notice to the parties in interest as the court shall direct, and after a hearing on such application, the said court may order the said officer or trustee to deposit with any such corporation for safe-keeping, such portions or all of the personal assets of said estate as it shall deem proper, and thereupon said court shall, by an order of record, reduce the bond to be given, or theretofore given by such officer or trustee, and the property as deposited shall thereupon be held by the corporation under the orders and directions of said court. [S. S., '15, § 1889-d.]

9287. Payment of deposited funds. When any deposit shall be made by any person in trust for another, and no other or further notice of the existence and terms of a legal and valid trust shall have been given to the corporation in the event of the death of the trustee, the same or any part thereof, together with the dividends or interest thereon, may be paid to the person for whom the said deposit was made, or to his or her legal representatives; provided that the person for whom the deposit was made, if a minor, shall not draw the same during his or her minority without the consent of the legal representatives of said trustee. [S. S., '15, § 1889-d.]

9288. National banks. When so authorized by any law of the United States now in force or hereafter enacted, national banks may exercise the same powers and perform the same duties as are by the preceding sections of this chapter conferred upon trust companies, state and savings banks. [S. S., '15, § 1889-d.]

9289. Voting of stock. In case any corporation shall hold any of its own shares of stock in any of the trust capacities herein authorized, then such shares shall be voted at stockholders' meetings by any person so authorized by the board of directors of said corporation. [S., '13, § 1889-e.]

9290. Separation of funds — liability. All property, real or personal, received in trust by any such corporation exercising the powers granted by this chapter, shall be kept separate from such funds or property which may be in the possession of such corporation, and shall not be liable for the debts or obligations of such corporation. [S., '13, § 1889-f.]

9291. Analogous rights and duties—compensation—bond. Every state or savings bank, or trust company, acting as guardian, administrator, executor, trustee, assignee, receiver, or custodian shall have the same rights, powers, and privileges as individuals so acting, and receive the same compensation as is or may be allowed individuals for exercising similar offices or trusts, so far as the same are fixed by statutes, and shall execute a bond for the faithful performance of the trust confided to it in like sum and with like penalties as is required by individuals. [S., '13, § 1889-g.]

9292. Appointment of successor. In case any corporation desires to retire from business under this chapter, or in case of the dissolution of any such corporation, the court having jurisdiction of each of the several trusts and appointments held by such corporation shall, upon application of such corporation or its receiver, after such notice to the other parties in interest as the court may direct, and after a hearing upon such application, appoint another corporation as successor trustee or appointee. [S., '13, § 1889-h.]

9293. Release from liability. Upon the acceptance of such office by the successor trustee and due qualification therefor, and the transfer of the property in such case held, to the successor trustee then the dissolving corporation shall be discharged from any further responsibility in such trust capacity or appointment. [S., '13, § 1889-h.]

9294. Return of securities. The superintendent of banking, upon being furnished with satisfactory evidence of said corporation's release and discharge from all of the obligations and trusts assumed by virtue of this chapter, shall thereupon return to such corporation the securities deposited by it with him. [S., '13, § 1889-h.]

9295. Mandatory use of "trust", "state", or "savings". Any trust company, state or savings bank, which under this chapter and by its original or amended articles of incorporation shall be authorized to exercise any of the powers herein granted, shall have the word "trust", "state", or "savings" incorporated in the name thereof. [S., '13, § 1889-i.]

9296. Prohibited use of word "trust". No corporation hereinafter organized without complying with the terms of this chapter, and no partnership, individual or unincorporated association, shall incorporate or embrace the word "trust" in its name. [S., '13, § 1889-i.]

9297. Indebtedness or liability—exceptions. Trust companies, state or savings banks, may contract indebtedness or liability for the following purposes: For necessary expenses in managing and transacting their business, for deposits, and to pay depositors, provided that in pursuance of an order of the board of directors previously adopted, other liabilities not in excess of an amount equal to the capital stock may be incurred. Nothing herein contained shall limit the issuance, by trust companies, of debentures or bonds, the actual payment of which shall be secured by an actual transfer of real estate securities. [S., '13, § 1889-j.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see § 9222.

9298. Attorney—appointment of—fee. The beneficiaries of any trust held by any such corporation may appoint, by and with the approval of the court having jurisdiction thereof, a practicing attorney in good standing to look after the legal interests of said beneficiaries; and said attorney shall be allowed by the court a reasonable fee for such legal services, to be paid out of said trust estate. [S., '13, § 1889-k.]

9299. Dividends. After providing for all expenses, interest, and taxes accrued or due from any corporation exercising the powers herein conferred and deducting all losses and bad debts, the board of directors of said corporation may declare a dividend of so much of the profits of the corporation as they shall judge expedient. [S., '13, § 1889-l.]

NOTE: For similar provision, see §§ 9191 and 9263.

9300. "Bad debts" defined. All debts past due to any corporation on which interest is past due and unpaid for a period of twelve months, unless the same are well secured and in process of collection, shall be considered bad debts within the meaning of the preceding section. [S., '13, § 1889-l.]

9301. Surplus fund required. Before any such dividend is declared, not less than one-tenth of the net profits of the corporation for the preceding half year, or for such period as is covered by the dividend, shall be carried to a fund to be designated the surplus fund, until such surplus fund shall amount to twenty per cent of its capital stock, and thereafter such surplus fund shall always be equal to at least twenty per cent of the capital stock of such corporation unless impaired by losses, and whenever the same becomes so impaired it shall be reimbursed in the manner provided for its accumulation. [S., '13, § 1889-l.]

NOTE: For similar provisions, see §§ 9187, 9189, and 9217.

9302. Limitation on dividends. In no event shall any corporation exercising the powers herein conferred pay any dividend in excess of eight per cent per annum for the period covered by said dividend unless said surplus is equal to twenty per cent of its capital. [40 G. A., ch. 186, § 2.]

NOTE: For similar limitation on dividends, see §§ 9189 and 9217.

9303. Investment of surplus. Said surplus shall be invested the same as the original capital. [S., '13, § 1889-l.]

9304. Applicable provisions. All of the provisions of sections 8371 to 3375, inclusive, relating to the renewal of corporate existence of state and savings banks, and all of the provisions of sections 9155, and 9157 to 9161, inclusive, so far as same relate to time and manner of commencing business, sections 9163 to 9182, inclusive, 9192 to 9199, inclusive, 9201, 9277, and 9278, and all the provisions of sections 9218 to 9221, inclusive, 9223 to 9268, inclusive, and 9279 to 9283, inclusive, shall apply with equal force and effect to all trust companies organized or reorganized under this chapter. [S., '13, § 1889-m.]

9305. Trust matters—report. Any corporation exercising any of the powers herein granted, in addition to matters required by section 9228, to be given in the statement of conditions, shall give:

A list and brief description of the trusts held by such company, the source of the appointment thereto, and the amount of real and personal estate held by such company by virtue thereof, except that mere mortgage trusts wherein no action has been taken by such company, shall not be included in such statement; said list to be transmitted to the superintendent of banking within thirty days after the receipt of requisition therefor, but such list shall not be published. [S., '13, § 1889-m.]

INCORPORATED ASSOCIATIONS

9306. Defined generally. Corporations organized for the purpose of furnishing money to their members upon sufficient security shall be known as building and loan or savings and loan associations. [C., '73, § 1184; C., '97, § 1890.]

9307. Domestic local companies. Domestic local building and loan or savings and loan associations shall include corporations, societies, organizations, or associations incorporated under the laws of this state for the purpose of and doing business only within the county in which is situated the town or city named in its articles of incorporation as its principal place of business; provided that, where the town or city named in its articles of incorporation as the principal place of business is situated in more than one county, and the business of the association is restricted to the town or city and to the county within which is located its principal office, said association shall be deemed a domestic local building and loan or savings and loan association within the meaning of this chapter. [C., '97, § 1890.]

9308. Domestic companies. Domestic building and loan or savings and loan associations shall include corporations, societies, organizations, or associations incorporated under the laws of this state for the purposes herein provided, the business of which is not restricted to the county in which is situated the town or city named in its articles of incorporation as its principal place of business. [C., '97, § 1890.]

9309. Foreign companies. Foreign building and loan or savings and loan associations shall include corporations, societies, organizations, or associations incorporated under the laws of another state, territory, country, or nation for the purposes specified herein. [C., '97, § 1890.]

9310. Organization. Any number of persons not less than five, residents of the state, may become incorporated as building and loan or savings and loan associations under the general incorporation laws of this state, except as otherwise herein provided, and upon complying with the provisions of this chapter. [C., '73, § 1184; C., '97, § 1891.]

9311. Capital—commencement of business. The capital named in the articles of incorporation shall be taken to mean the authorized capital, and the association may commence business when one hundred shares thereof have been subscribed and the other provisions of this chapter in relation thereto have been complied with. [C., '97, § 1892.]

9312. Directors. Such associations shall be governed by a board of directors who shall be elected annually by the stockholders, and who shall hold their office for not less than one nor more than five years, and, if for a longer period than one year, it shall be so arranged that the terms of an equal number thereof, as nearly as may be, shall expire each year. [C., '97, § 1892.]

9313. Articles The articles of incorporation shall show:

1. The names and residences of the incorporators.
2. The name of the association and its principal place of business.
3. The purpose for which such association is formed.
4. The terms and plan of becoming and continuing a member.
5. The plan of making loans.
6. The plan of distributing profits.
7. The plan of equalizing losses.
8. The plan and terms of withdrawal of members.
9. The plan of providing for payment of expenses.
10. The number of shares into which capital stock is to be divided.
11. The classes into which its capital stock is to be divided, and the terms of paying for the same by subscribers.
12. The term of corporate existence.
13. The manner of electing officers and filling vacancies. [C., '97, § 1893.]

9314. Maximum and uniform interest rate. No such associations shall be authorized or empowered to collect or receive premiums and interest from a borrower at a greater rate than eight per cent and in case of an amendment to the articles of incorporation so that a lower rate of interest or charge for the use of money loaned to the borrowing member is authorized, then the rate of interest charged upon loans to members who have theretofore borrowed shall in like manner be reduced to the same rate as that permitted to borrowers after such amendments to the articles of incorporation, so that the interest charged under whatever name, whether charged as premium or interest, to all members of the same association shall be the same, all reductions of the rate of interest or premium charged to new borrowers shall be made and apply equally to those who have theretofore borrowed. [S., '13, § 1893-a.]

9315. Approval of articles—certificate of authority. Such articles of incorporation with the by-laws of the association shall be presented to the executive council, and if it finds they are in conformity with the law, and based upon a plan equitable in all respects to its members, it shall attach thereto its certificate of approval, and thereupon such articles and by-laws shall be filed in the office of the auditor of state, who shall issue a certificate authorizing the association to transact business. [C., '97, § 1894.]

9316. Amendments—approval. Amendments to such articles may be made from time to time at any regular or special meeting of the stockholders, and shall in like manner be submitted to the executive council and approved by it. [C., '97, § 1894.]

9317. Record. The council shall keep a record of its proceedings with reference to such associations. [C., '97, § 1894.]

9318. Revocation of certificates. The executive council shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to revoke any certificate of authority given to any building and loan or savings and loan association whenever it appears to said council that said association is transacting business illegally, or is unjust and oppressive to its members or the public. [S., '13, § 1894-a.]

9319. Domestic companies—bonds—custody. The officers of any domestic building and loan or savings and loan association who sign or indorse checks or handle any funds or securities of such association shall give such bonds or fidelity insurance for the faithful performance of their duties in such sum as the board of directors may require; and no such officer shall be deemed qualified to enter upon the duties of his office until his bond is approved by the board of directors and by the state auditor. Said bond shall be deposited and filed with the auditor of state. [C., '97, § 1895.]

9320. Additional bonds. All such bonds shall be increased or additional securities required by the board of directors or the auditor of state when it becomes necessary to protect the interests of the association or its members. [C., '97, § 1895.]

9321. Disqualified sureties. No director shall be accepted as surety on such bonds, and no person shall be accepted as surety on the bond of more than one officer of said association. [C., '97, § 1895.]

9323. Domestic local companies—bonds. The officers of any domestic local building and loan or savings and loan association who sign or indorse checks or handle any funds or securities of said association shall give such bonds or fidelity insurance for the faithful performance of their duties in such sum as the board of directors may require; and no such officer shall be deemed qualified to enter upon the duties of his office until his bond is approved by the board of directors and the clerk of the district court of the county of the principal place of business of said association. [C., '97, § 1896.]

9324. Approval and custody of bonds. Said bonds shall be deposited with the said clerk, and it is hereby made the duty of the said clerk to approve said bonds and to receive the same as herein provided. [C., '97, § 1896.]

9325. Disqualified sureties. No person shall be accepted as surety on the bond of more than one officer of said association. [C., '97, § 1896.]

9326. Increase in bonds. All such bonds shall be increased or additional securities required by the board of directors or by the clerk of said district court when it shall be deemed necessary to protect the interests of the association or its members. [C., '97, § 1896.]

9328. Banking prohibited. It shall be unlawful for any building and loan or savings and loan association to receive deposits of money without issuing shares of stock for the same, or to transact a banking business. [C., '97, § 1897.]

9329. Powers. All building and loan or savings and loan associations, upon receiving the certificate from the auditor, shall have power, subject to the terms and conditions contained in their articles of incorporation and by-laws:

1. To issue stock to members to be paid for in single, stated, or monthly payments.

2. To assess and collect from members such dues, membership fees, fines, premiums, and interest on loans as may in the articles of incorporation and by-laws have been provided, and the same shall not be held to be usurious.

3. To permit members, other than holders of guarantee stock, to withdraw all or a part of their stock deposits upon such terms and at such times as the articles of incorporation and by-laws may provide.

4. To acquire, hold, incumber and convey such real estate and personal property as may be necessary for the transaction of their business.

5. To make loans to members on such terms, conditions, and securities as the articles of incorporation and by-laws provide; said loans to be made only on real estate security, or on the security of their own shares of stock, not to exceed ninety per cent of the withdrawal value thereof. [C., '73, §§ 1185, 1186; C., '97, § 1898; S., '13, § 1898.]

9330. Limitation on issue of stock. Not more than ten thousand dollars of stock, computed at par value, of any kind shall be issued to one person except that any association having assets in excess of one million dollars may issue to one person stock, computed at par value, not in excess of one per cent of its assets. [C., '73, § 1185; 39 G. A., ch. 258, § 1.]

9331. Foreclosure—debit and credit. In case of foreclosure, the borrower shall be charged with the full amount of the loan made to him, together with the dues, interest, premium, and fines for which he is delinquent, and he shall be credited with the same value of his pledged shares as if he had voluntarily withdrawn the same. [C., '97, § 1898; S., '13, § 1898.]

9332. Limitation on judgment. In event that judgment is obtained against a borrower from a building and loan association, no greater recovery shall be had than the net amount of principal actually received, with interest thereon at a rate not greater than twelve per cent per annum on the net amount of loan actually received by and paid to borrower, with statutory attorney fees; no evasion of this provision shall be had by means of any dues, membership fees, premiums, fines, forfeitures, or other charges, any agreement to the contrary notwithstanding. [C., '73, § 1186; C., '97, § 1898; S., '13, § 1898.]

9333. Annual statement as to stock values. It shall be the duty of the secretary of every such association doing business in this state to prepare, on or before February fifteenth of each year, a duly verified statement, showing the book value and withdrawal value of a share of each class of stock in said association, for each monthly period up to January first preceding, and file the same with the auditor of state, which shall be preserved in his office.

The said association shall, on or before February fifteenth of each year, mail to each shareholder a written or printed copy of the same. [C., '97, § 1898; S., '13, § 1898.]

9334. Forbidden stocks—rate of dividend. No building and loan or savings and loan associations shall issue guarantee stock, fully paid stock, or single payment stock, or any stock of any other kind or name which shall receive fixed dividends, or is not subject to all the liabilities of all other classes of stock of said associations, except that it shall be lawful for such associations to issue fully paid stock upon the payment by the holder thereof of the par value of such stock upon which the dividends to be declared shall not exceed the sum named in said certificate of stock, but in no event shall the dividend exceed eight per cent per annum nor the rate of dividend declared upon the other stock of said association, which said stock shall be subject to be called in and redeemed by the said association by giving the holder thirty days' notice thereof. [S., '13, § 1898-c; 39 G. A., ch. 258, § 2.]

9335. Foreclosure—debts and credits. In case of foreclosure of any mortgage given by a shareholder of any such association, the mortgagor shall be charged with the rate of interest agreed upon, not, however, to exceed eight per cent per annum, and shall be entitled to be credited, as of any anniversary of said mortgage, with the total amount of all payments made on the stock to the said association during the preceding year, and such payment on the stock shall be treated as a payment upon the mortgage, anything in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws of such association to the contrary notwithstanding. [S., '13, § 1898-d.]

9336. Equitable contribution to losses. If such association shows affirmatively that losses have occurred during the period of the membership of such shareholder in excess of the amount of any fund accumulated from which to pay such losses, to such an extent that the value of the shares of stock have been impaired, then such associations shall be entitled to have entered as a part of the judgment of foreclosure the equitable contribution of said shareholder toward such losses. [S., '13, § 1898-d.]

9337. When withdrawal value credited. If, by the articles of incorporation, the withdrawal value of the stock of such mortgagor is greater than the amount paid thereon, together with eight per cent interest, then such withdrawal value shall be credited on the mortgages of the date to which such value is computed, in lieu of the credits of payment on stock as aforesaid, and judgment and decree shall be rendered for only the balance found due. [S., '13, § 1898-d.]

9338. Costs. In any suit in which the recovery upon the mortgage shall be for a less amount than the amount demanded in the plaintiff's petition, all costs of suit, including attorneys' fees, may in the discretion of the court be taxed to the plaintiff. [S., '13, § 1898-d.]

9339. Right of association to judgment. In case of foreclosure, judgment and decree shall be entered for as much as would be due the association under the provisions of this chapter if suit had not been brought. [S., '13, § 1898-d.]

9340. Investments—mortgages—collateral. All funds, except those necessary to defray the expenses of the association, shall be invested for the benefit of the shareholders. For every loan made a nonnegotiable note or bond secured by first mortgage on real estate shall be given, unless the prior mortgage is to the same association; then a second mortgage may be taken to secure said note, except when such loan is on the withdrawal value of stock only. Said note or bond shall be accompanied by the transfer of the shares of stock of the borrower to the association, to be held as collateral security. [C., '97, § 1899.]

9341. Loans—premium and interest. Such associations shall have power to loan money to their members at such rate as may be agreed upon, and may collect premiums and interest thereon, but in no case shall the amount of premium and interest paid exceed eight per cent per annum; but nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the payment of such interest and premium monthly, or at such time as may be provided for in the articles of incorporation. [S., '13, § 1899-a.]

9342. Voting shares of stock. Each member shall have one vote for each one hundred dollars of stock par value owned and held by him at any election, and may vote the same by proxy, but no person shall vote more than ten per cent of the outstanding shares at the time of said election. Anyone depositing or transferring stock to the association as collateral security shall be deemed the owner of such stock within the meaning of this section. [C., '97, § 1900.]

9343. Voting in representative capacity. Any guardian, executor, administrator, or trustee shall have the right to vote, manage, and control the shares held by him in his representative capacity. [C., '97, § 1901.]

9344. Minors as members. Minors may become members and make withdrawals the same as other members, unless notice to the contrary is given in writing to said association by the parent or guardian of said minor. [39 G. A., ch. 258, § 3.]

9345. Expenses. The expenses of every such association shall be paid from the earnings, or from a fixed charge provided for in the by-laws, and said expenses shall not exceed eight dollars for the maturing of every one hundred dollars of installment stock, said sum to be equitably distributed over the maturity period; and two dollars per year for every one hundred dollars for full paid or prepaid stock. [C., '73, § 1187; C., '97, § 1902.]

9346. "Expenses" defined. Membership fees and expenses incurred in making loans shall not be deemed a part of the expenses of the association. [C., '97, § 1902.]

9347. Dividends The net earnings of such association shall be apportioned as a dividend, annually, semiannually, or quarterly, to members, in such manner as the articles of incorporation and by-laws may provide. [C., '73, § 1187; C., '97, § 1902.]

9348. Expenditures and expenses. All expenditures and expenses for management and conducting the affairs of such associations, not including membership fees and charges for closing loans, shall be paid from the receipts of interest, premiums, and other sources of profit. Said associations may thus use for expenses in any one year a sum not in excess of the following percentages on their assets, as shown by the last annual report, to wit:

1. Associations with assets not in excess of one hundred thousand dollars, three per cent per annum.

2. Associations with assets in excess of one hundred thousand dollars and less than three hundred thousand dollars, two and one-half per cent.

3. Associations in excess of three hundred thousand dollars and less than five hundred thousand dollars, two and one-quarter per cent.

4. Associations with assets in excess of five hundred thousand dollars and less than eight hundred thousand dollars, one and three-quarters per cent.

5. Associations with assets in excess of eight hundred thousand dollars and less than one million dollars, one and one-half per cent.

6. Associations with assets in excess of one million dollars, one per cent. [S., '13, § 1902-a; 39 G. A., ch. 269, § 1.]

9349. Compensation of officers and agents. No officer, employee, or agent of any association shall receive directly or indirectly any salary or other compensation, except for services actually rendered. Any compensation paid in violation of this section may be recovered by the association or by any shareholder or borrower, in the name and for the use of such association, within three years from the receipt of such illegal compensation, from the person accepting the same, or from any officer knowingly consenting to the allowance thereof. [S., '13, § 1902-a; 39 G. A., ch. 269, § 2.]

9350. Dues—premiums—losses. Dues, fines, premiums, and interest less current expenses, shall accrue to the shareholders, and any net loss shall be deducted before declaring any dividend. [C., '97, § 1903.]

9351. Fines. Any stockholder in arrears in payments may be fined in a sum not in excess of three cents per share of one hundred dollars each for the first month's delinquency and five cents per share of one hundred dollars each for each succeeding month's delinquency; but said penalty shall only be due and payable from the profits belonging to said delinquent. [S., '13, § 1903-a.]

9352. Withdrawals. The terms of withdrawal of a member from such association shall be such that any withdrawing member shall receive a sum not less than he has paid into said association, unless losses have occurred to said association, during the time that said withdrawing member was a member, which exceed the amount of the profits, or any fund created with which to pay such losses, and in that case such withdrawing member shall be charged with his proportionate share of the excess of the losses over the profits, and no more. [S., '13, § 1903-a.]

9353. Nonborrowing members—withdrawal. The articles of incorporation of any building and loan, or building and savings association may, by a three-fourths vote of the board of directors, provide that nonborrowing members shall withdraw their stock at book value in the order of its issue, beginning with the stock first issued, by giving the stockholders thereof thirty days' notice. [S., '13, § 1903-b.]

9354. Examinations. At least once in each year the auditor of state shall, by himself or some competent person appointed by him, make an examination of all domestic and foreign building and loan and savings and loan associations doing business in this state, and may examine under oath any officer, agent, or employee of the association, or other person, and may compel the production of its books and papers, and for this purpose such examiner shall have the same power as the district court to secure the attendance of witnesses and the production of such books and papers, and to punish as for contempt. [C., '97, § 1904.]

9355. Verification—additional examinations. If the report is made by another than the auditor, it shall be under oath. Examinations may be made at such other times as the auditor may order. [C., '97, § 1904.]

9356. Expenses and per diem. If the examination is made by the auditor in person, he shall receive his actual expenses. If by another, his actual expenses and the per diem fixed by law, which in either case shall be paid by the association examined. [C., '97, § 1904; 39 G. A., ch. 209, § 57.]

9357. Record required. A record of such examination shall be kept in the auditor's office, showing in detail as to each association all matters connected with the conduct of the business, its financial standing and everything touching its solvency, plan of business, and integrity. [C., '97, § 1904.]

9358. Revocation of authority. If any such association refuse to submit to such examination, the auditor shall revoke its certificate of authority. [C., '97, § 1904.]

9359. Examination of domestic locals. When twenty shareholders of any domestic local building and loan or savings and loan association shall in writing request the auditor of state, he shall have the same authority and shall proceed to make an examination of the affairs of such association in the manner provided in this chapter for the examination of domestic associations, and the costs and penalties shall be the same. [C., '97, § 1905.]

9360. Auditor's biennial report. The auditor shall, in his biennial report to the governor, state the general conduct and condition of the building and loan or savings and loan associations doing business in the state, with such suggestions as he may deem expedient. Such report shall also include the information contained in the statements of the associations, arranged in tabulated form, with the names and compensations of the clerks employed by him, the entire income, the source whence derived, and the expense during the year ending on the thirty-first day of December, in detail. [C., '97, § 1906.]

9361. Statement of salaries. The auditor of state shall publish, in his report of building and loan and savings and loan associations, a detailed statement of the salaries and compensation paid, and to whom, giving the names of the officers and agents respectively receiving such salaries. [S., '13, § 1906-a.]

9362. Quo warranto. When any building and loan or savings and loan association is conducting its business illegally, or in violation of its articles of incorporation or by-laws, or is practicing deception upon its members or the public, or is pursuing a plan of business that is injurious to the interests of its members, or its affairs are in an unsafe condition, the auditor of state shall notify the directors thereof, and, if they shall fail to put its affairs upon a safe basis, he shall advise the attorney general thereof, who shall take the necessary steps to wind up its affairs in the manner provided by law. [C., '97, § 1907.]

9363. Voluntary liquidation. Building and loan or savings and loan associations, by a vote of three-fourths of the shareholders of such associations, represented in person or by proxy, may go into voluntary liquidation upon such plan as shall be determined upon by the shareholders at their meeting. [S., '13, § 1907-a.]

9364. Transfer of mortgages—maturity. In case any such association resolves to go into voluntary liquidation, it shall have power, after crediting the mortgages given by the borrowing member with the full book value of the stock, to sell and assign such mortgages to a similar building and loan association, or to any other parties who will hold the same upon the terms under which such mortgage was given to the association. In that event the said mortgage shall be held to become due, if no other time can be agreed upon between the mortgagor and the association, within three years after the assignment thereof. [S., '13, § 1907-a.]

9365. Statutory plan of liquidation. In case the shareholders are unable to agree upon other plan and terms upon which the said association may wind up its affairs, the following plan shall be adopted. Interest shall be computed on the respective amounts paid in by the several shareholders from the date of such payments until the date that said association resolves to go into liquidation, and amount so found shall be the basis for distribution of the assets of the association. In the case of a borrowing member the amount thus found due him on stock, if there have been no losses so as to impair the capital, shall be credited on his mortgage and the balance of such mortgage shall be paid within one year, together with interest at the rate therein agreed upon, not to exceed eight per cent, and upon the payments of the outstanding mortgages and the conversion of the assets into money the same shall be distributed pro rata among the stockholders according to the amount found due each as aforesaid. And any balance due the borrowing member, over and above the amount actually received as a credit on the mortgage, shall be paid to such members. In case, however, of an impairment of the capital by loss, the amount of such loss shall be estimated and apportioned to each member pro rata according to the amount found due such members in the manner aforesaid, and the borrowing members shall be entitled to receive a credit on their mortgages for the balance after the stock is charged with its pro rata share of the loss, and the balance due on such mortgages shall be paid within twelve months, and upon the final distribution any balance due such borrowing member shall be paid to him. But in the final distribution, before the final dividend is made, interest shall be allowed on the amount found due the nonborrowing member not to exceed six per cent so as to equalize between the borrowing member who has received a credit on his mortgage, and the nonborrowing member. Any plan other than that herein specified shall be submitted to the executive council for approval before the same is adopted. [S., '13, § 1907-a.]

9366. Consolidation with other companies. Any building and loan or savings and loan association organized under the laws of this state shall have authority to consolidate its business and membership with one or more building and loan or savings and loan associations of the same class organized under the laws of this state and to transfer to such association or associations its entire assets subject to its existing liabilities, and upon the consolidation of such associations, if any one or more of said companies shall have heretofore issued guaranty stock, they may provide for the withdrawal and retirement of said guaranty stock, and the same may be withdrawn in accordance with the plan therein adopted. [S., '13, § 1907-b.]

9367. Approval by executive council. The plan of such consolidation, when approved by the board of directors of each of the associations, shall be reduced to writing and submitted to the executive council, and if they find that the plan is in conformity with the law, and equitable in all respects to the members of both associations, they shall attach thereto their certificate of approval. [S., '13, § 1907-b.]

9368. Approval by members. Such plan shall then be submitted to the members of both associations, either at the regular meetings or at special meetings called for that purpose, and, if approved by a vote of three-fourths of the shares of stock of each association, the same shall then be filed in the office of the auditor of state, who shall issue a certificate authorizing the consolidation. [S., '13, § 1907-b.]

9369. Manner of voting. At such meetings the members may vote in person, or by proxy, or by written ballot mailed or otherwise delivered to the secretary at or before the time of meeting. [S., '13, § 1907-b.]

9370. Consolidation under receivership. In any case where a receiver has been appointed for any such association, its membership and business may in like manner be consolidated with, and its assets transferred to, another such association of the same class, but in such case the receiver shall act in place of the board of directors, and the plan must also be approved by the court by which the receiver was appointed. [S., '13, § 1907-c.]

9371. Foreign companies. If any foreign building and loan or savings and loan association, as in this chapter defined, desires to transact business within this state, it shall furnish to the executive council a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, or charter and by-laws, and a certified copy of the state laws under which it is organized, together with a report for the year next preceding, verified by its president, vice president, secretary, and at least three directors, which report shall show:

1. The amount of its authorized capital stock and the par value of each share.

2. The number of shares sold during the year.

3. The number of shares canceled or withdrawn during the year.

4. The number of shares in force at the end of the year.

5. A detailed statement of all funds received during the year and all disbursements.

6. The salaries paid each of its officers.

7. A detailed statement of its assets and liabilities at the end of such year and the nature thereof.

8. Any other matters of fact which the council may require. [C., '97, § 1908.]

9372. Approval by council—certificate of authority. Upon receipt of such report the council, if it finds therefrom that the association is properly managed, that its financial condition is satisfactory, and that its business is conducted upon a safe and reliable plan and one equitable to its members, shall so certify upon such copy and statement, and, the same being filed with the auditor, he shall issue a like certificate as in the case of domestic associations. [C., '97, § 1908.]

9373. Conditions attending approval. No building and loan or savings and loan association, incorporated under the laws of any other state or country, shall be authorized to do business in this state, whose articles of incorporation are not found by the executive council to be in substantial compliance with the laws of this state, and affording equal security and protection to the members thereof. [S., '13, § 1908-a.]

9374. Deposit by foreign company. Every such foreign building and loan or savings and loan association, before the state auditor shall issue to it a certificate, shall comply with the following provisions:

1. It shall deposit with the auditor of state one hundred thousand dollars, either in cash, or bonds of the United States or of the state of Iowa, or of any county or municipal corporation of the state of Iowa, or notes secured by first mortgage, on real estate, or a like amount in such other security as shall be satisfactory to said auditor.

2. Such foreign association may collect and use the interest on any securities so deposited as long as it fulfills its obligations and complies with the provisions of this chapter. It may also exchange them for other securities of equal value and satisfactory to said auditor. [C., '97, § 1909.]

9375. Liability of deposit. The deposit made with the auditor shall be held as security for all claims of resident shareholders of the state against said association, and shall be liable for all judgments or decrees thereon, and subject to the payment of the same. [C., '97, § 1910.]

9376. Auditor of state as process agent. Such foreign association shall also file with the auditor of this state a duly authenticated copy of a resolution adopted by the board of directors of such association, stipulating and agreeing that, if any legal process or notice affecting such association be served on the said state auditor, and a copy thereof be mailed, postage prepaid, by the party procuring and issuing the same, or his attorney, to said association, addressed to its home office, then such service and mailing of such process or notice shall have the same effect as personal service on said association within this state. [C., '97, § 1911.]

9377. Manner of service. When proceedings have been commenced against, or affecting any foreign building and loan or savings and loan association, as contemplated in the preceding section, and notice has been served upon the auditor of the state, the same shall be by duplicate copies, one of which shall be filed in his office, and the other mailed by him, postage prepaid, to the home office of such association. [C., '97, § 1911.]

9378. Amendments to articles. All foreign building and loan or savings and loan associations shall file with the auditor of state, within ten days after their adoption, a duly certified copy of any amendment or amendments to their articles of incorporation or by-laws that may have been adopted. [C., '97, § 1912.]

9379. Fees—foreign companies. Foreign building and loan or savings and loan associations shall pay to the auditor of state the following fees, which shall be paid by him into the state treasury: For each application to do business in this state, one hundred dollars; for each certificate of authority and each annual renewal thereof, fifty dollars; for filing each annual statement of the assets of the association, as shown by the statement filed, amounts to fifty thousand dollars or less, three dollars; if more than fifty thousand dollars and less than one hundred thousand dollars, five dollars; if more than one hundred thousand dollars and less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, ten dollars; if more than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and less than five hundred thousand dollars, twenty dollars; if more than five hundred thousand dollars and less than one million dollars, thirty dollars; and if more than one million dollars, fifty dollars. [C., '97, § 1913.]

9380. Fees—domestic companies. Domestic building and loan or savings and loan associations shall pay to the auditor of state the sum of twenty-five dollars for each certificate of authority and each renewal thereof, and for filing each annual statement, ten dollars. [C., '97, § 1913.]

9381. Fees—domestic local companies. Domestic local building and loan or savings and loan associations shall pay to the auditor of state for filing each annual statement the sum of five dollars. [C., '97, § 1913.]

9382. Annual statement. All building and loan or savings and loan associations doing business in this state shall, on or before the first day of February of each year, file with the auditor of state a detailed report and financial statement of their business for the year ending the thirty-first day of December next preceding, and such report shall be verified by the president and secretary or by three directors of the association, and such report shall show:

1. The date when the association was incorporated and the par value of each share of stock.

2. The number of shares sold during the year.

3. The number of shares canceled or withdrawn during the year.

4. The number of shares in force at the end of the year.

5. A detailed statement of receipts and disbursements, showing specifically from what source received and in what manner applied.

6. A statement of the assets and liabilities at the end of the year.

7. The salary paid to each of its officers during the year. [C., '97, § 1914.]

9383. Additional report by foreign company. All foreign building and loan or savings and loan associations shall, in addition to the above, report the name of each shareholder of such association residing within the state, together with the postoffice address of each, and the number of shares owned by each of said persons on the first day of January preceding, and the cash value of each of said shares on said date. [C., '97, § 1914.]

9384. Violations. If an association shall fail or refuse to furnish to the auditor of state the report required in the two preceding sections, it shall forfeit the sum of twenty-five dollars for every day such report shall be withheld, and the auditor of state may maintain an action in the name of the state to recover such penalty, and the same shall be paid into the treasury of the state. [C., '97, § 1915.]

9385. Sale of stock in unauthorized foreign company. It shall be unlawful for any agent, solicitor, or other person to sell stock or solicit persons to subscribe for stock in any such association named in section 9373, which has not been authorized to do business in this state, and any person convicted of so doing shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars, and shall be committed to the county jail until the fine and costs are paid. [S., '13, § 1915-a.]

9386. Discrimination in foreign states. When by the laws of any other state, territory, country, or nation, or by the decision or rulings of the appropriate and proper officers thereof, any greater taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits of money or other securities, or other obligations or prohibitions, are demanded of building and loan or savings and loan associations of this state, as a condition to be complied with before doing business in such other state, territory, country, or nation, or their agents therein, than are imposed upon foreign associations doing business in this state, so long as such laws continue in force, the same requirements, obligations, and prohibitions of whatever kind shall be imposed on all building and loan or savings and loan associations of such other state, territory, country, or nation doing business in this state, and upon their agents. It is hereby made the duty of the auditor of state to enforce the provisions of this section. [C., '97, § 1916.]

9387. Revocation of certificate. If a certificate of authority to do business shall have been issued to any association, and it shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter, the auditor of state shall revoke the same. [C., '97, § 1917.]

9388. Criminal offenses. If any officer, director, or agent of any building and loan or savings and loan association shall knowingly and wilfully swear falsely to any statement in regard to any matter in this chapter required to be made under oath, he shall be guilty of perjury. If any director of any such association shall vote to declare a dividend greater than has been earned; or if any officer or director or any agent or employee of any such association shall issue, utter, or offer to utter, any warrant, check, order, or promise to pay of such association, or shall sign, transfer, cancel, or surrender any note, bond, draft, mortgage, or other evidence of indebtedness belonging to such association, or shall demand, collect, or receive any money from any member or other person in the name of such association without being authorized to do so by the board of directors in pursuance of its lawful power; or if any such officer, director, agent, or employee shall embezzle or convert to his own use, or shall use or pledge for his own benefit or purpose, any moneys, securities, credits, or other property belonging to the association, or shall knowingly do or attempt to do any business for such association that has not procured and does not hold the certificate of authority therefor as in this chapter provided, or shall knowingly make or cause to be made any false entries in the books of the association, or shall, with the intent to deceive any person making an examination in this chapter required to be made, exhibit to the person making the examination any false entry, paper, or statement, or shall knowingly do or solicit business for any building and loan or savings and loan association which has not procured the required certificate therefor, he shall be fined in any sum not exceeding ten thousand dollars, or imprisoned in the penitentiary not exceeding ten years, or punished by both such fine and imprisonment. [C., '97, § 1918.]

9389. Preexisting associations. All building and loan or savings and loan associations having heretofore transacted business in this state, which shall not have complied with the provisions of this chapter, shall have the right to close up their business and fulfill their contracts heretofore entered into with the residents of this state, without being subject to the penalties prescribed in this chapter. [C., '97, § 1919.]

NOTE: The above section is a part of chapter 85, acts 26 G. A., which took effect July 4, 1896.

UNINCORPORATED ASSOCIATIONS

9390. Statutes applicable. All unincorporated organizations, associations, societies, partnerships, or individuals conducting and carrying on a business, the purpose of which is to create a fund derived from periodical payments by members of such organizations, associations, societies, or other persons, upon contracts or otherwise, as well as from fines, forfeitures, incidental fees, and payment of premiums and interest; which fund is to be loaned or advanced to members of the organization, association, society, or to the persons making such periodical payments, for the purpose of enabling them to acquire the ownership or free possession of real estate, or personal property, or to construct buildings, or any or all of such purposes, shall be deemed building and loan associations; and the provisions of this chapter shall apply to all such building and loan associations so far as the same can be made applicable to unincorporated organizations, associations, societies, partnerships, or individuals. [S., '13, § 1920-a.]

9391. Statement of resources, liabilities, and plan. Every such unincorporated organization, association, society, partnership, or individual, conducting and carrying on the business defined in the preceding section shall, before transacting any business in this state, submit to the executive council a full and complete sworn statement of the resources and liabilities of such organization, association, society, partnership, or individual, and of the proposed plan or method of doing business. [S., '13, § 1920-b.]

9392. Deposit of securities. No such unincorporated building and loan association shall be permitted to carry on its business within this state unless it shall first deposit with the auditor of state at least fifty thousand dollars of first mortgages and negotiable notes in the same amount secured thereby upon real estate in the state, bearing interest at a rate not less than five per cent per annum, which said mortgages shall in no case exceed one-half the actual value of the real estate upon which they are taken. [S., '13, § 1920-b.]

9393. Additional deposits. The auditor of state shall have power and authority to require that such further amount of such securities shall be deposited with him as in his judgment may thereafter be necessary to protect the members of such building and loan association, or the persons making periodical payments thereto. [S., '13, § 1920-b.]

9394. Securities held in trust. The notes, mortgages, and securities so deposited with the auditor of state shall, with all interest and accumulations thereon, be held in trust by him for the purpose of fulfilling and carrying out all contracts made by such building and loan association with the members thereof, and with the persons making periodical payments thereto. [S., '13, § 1920-b.]

9395. Approval—certificate of authority. If the executive council approves the plan or method of business of any such building and loan association, it shall indorse its approval upon the statement of the resources and liabilities and plan of business presented to it, and such statement shall thereupon be filed in the office of the auditor of state, who shall issue a certificate to such building and loan association to transact business within the state, if such association has deposited with him the mortgages and securities required by the provisions of the three preceding sections. [S., '13, § 1920-c.]

9396. Officers to give bonds—approval. Every officer of such building and loan association who signs or indorses checks, or handles any of the funds or securities thereof, shall give such bond or fidelity insurance for the faithful performance of his duty in such sum as the auditor of state may require, and no such officer shall be deemed qualified to enter upon the duties of his office until his bond is approved by, and deposited with, the auditor of state. And any such bond may be increased or additional sureties required by the auditor of state whenever in his judgment it becomes necessary to protect the interest of the association or its members, or persons making periodical payments of money thereto. [S., '13, § 1920-d.]

9397. Examination. The auditor of state may at any time he may see proper, make, or cause to be made, an examination of any such building and loan association, or he may call upon it for a report of its condition upon any given day which has passed, as often as four times each year, which report shall contain the information hereinafter required. [S., '13, § 1920-e.]

9398. Expense of examination. The expense of making such examination shall be paid by the building and loan association, and if made by the auditor in person he shall be paid his necessary expenses only; if made by an examiner designated by the auditor, he shall receive ten dollars a day for the time employed by him, and his necessary expenses. [S., '13, § 1920-f.]

9399. Annual reports. On or before the first day of February of each year, every such building and loan association shall file with the auditor of state its annual report in writing for the year ending on the thirty-first day of December preceding, giving a complete statement in detail of all of its receipts from all sources, and all disbursements made during such year, arranged and itemized as may be required by the auditor of state. Such report shall also show the number of members or persons making periodical payments to such association, the number and amount of loans made to such persons, the interest received therefrom, the number and amounts of mortgages, contracts or other securities held by the association, the actual cash value of the real estate securing such mortgages or contracts, the salary paid to each of its officers during the preceding year, the assets and liabilities of the association at the end of the year, and any other matters which in the judgment of the auditor of state may be required to give him full information as to the business transacted by such building and loan association. [S., '13, § 1920-g.]

9400. Failure to furnish reports. If any such building and loan association shall fail or refuse to furnish to the auditor of state the report required in the preceding section, the officers or persons conducting the business of such building and loan association shall forfeit the sum of twenty-five dollars for each day that such report is withheld, and the auditor of state may maintain an action, jointly or severally, against them in the name of the state to recover such penalty, and the same shall be paid into the state treasury when recovered by him. [S., '13, § 1920-h.]

9401. Criminal offenses. If any officer or agent of any such building and loan association, or any person conducting the business thereof, shall knowingly and wilfully swear falsely to any statement in regard to any matter in this chapter required to be made under oath, he shall be guilty of perjury and punished accordingly. And if any officer, agent or employee of any such association, or any person transacting the business thereof, shall issue, utter or offer to utter, any warrant, check, order, or promise to pay of such association, or shall sign, transfer, cancel, or surrender any note, bond, draft, mortgage, or other evidence of indebtedness belonging to such association, or shall demand, collect, or receive any money from any member or other person in the name of such association without being authorized so to do; or if any such officer, agent or employee of such association, or any person transacting the business thereof, shall embezzle, convert to his own use, or shall use or pledge for his own benefit or purpose, any moneys, securities, credits, or other property belonging to the association, or shall knowingly solicit, transact, or attempt to transact any business for any such association which has not procured and does not hold the certificate of authority from the auditor of state to transact business in this state as provided herein; or shall knowingly make, or cause to be made, any false entries in the books of the association, or shall, with intent to deceive any person making an examination of such association, as herein provided, exhibit to the person making the examination any false entry, paper, or statement, he shall be fined in a sum not exceeding ten thousand dollars, or imprisoned in the penitentiary not exceeding ten years, or punished by both such fine and imprisonment. [S., '13, § 1920-i.]

9402. Revocation of certificate — receiver. If any such building and loan association, holding a certificate of authority to transact business within this state issued by the auditor as herein provided, shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter, or shall fail to deposit with the auditor of state such further amount of mortgages or securities as he may require under section 9393, the auditor of state shall at once revoke such certificate and notify the executive council of the revocation thereof; and under the direction of the executive council, application shall be made by the attorney general to the proper court for the appointment of a receiver to wind up the affairs of the association; and in such proceedings the amount due from the borrowing members or persons making periodical payments upon contracts or mortgages given by them, shall be ascertained in the manner provided in section 9365; and the amounts owing upon such mortgages or contracts from members of the association or persons making periodical payments thereto, shall be treated and considered as due and payable within a reasonable time, to be fixed by the court after the appointment of a receiver. [S., '13, § 1920-j.]

TITLE XXIII

TRADE AND COMMERCE

CHAPTER 418

MONEY AND INTEREST

9403. Denominations of money.
9404. Rate of interest.
9405. Interest on judgments and decrees.
9406. Illegal rate prohibited—usury.

9407. Penalty for usury.
9408. Interest in excess of two per cent per month.
9409. Assignee of usurious contract.

9403. Denominations of money. The money of account of this state is the dollar, cent, and mill, and all public accounts, and the proceedings of all courts in relation to money, shall be kept and expressed in the above denominations. Demands expressed in money of another denomination shall not be affected by the provisions of this section, but in any action or proceeding based thereon it shall be reduced to and computed by the denominations given. [C., '51, §§ 943, 944; R., '60, §§ 1785, 1786; C., '73, §§ 2075, 2076; C., '97, § 3037.]

9404. Rate of interest. The rate of interest shall be six cents on the hundred by the year in the following cases, unless the parties shall agree in writing for the payment of interest not exceeding eight cents on the hundred by the year:

1. Money due by express contract.
2. Money after the same becomes due.
3. Money loaned.
4. Money received to the use of another and retained beyond a reasonable time, without the owner's consent, express or implied.
5. Money due on the settlement of accounts from the day the balance is ascertained.
6. Money due upon open accounts after six months from the date of the last item.
7. Money due, or to become due, where there is a contract to pay interest, and no rate is stipulated. [C., '51, § 945; R., '60, § 1787; C., '73, § 2077; C., '97, § 3038.]

9405. Interest on judgments and decrees. Interest shall be allowed on all money due on judgments and decrees of courts at the rate of six cents on the hundred by the year, unless a different rate is fixed by the contract on which the judgment or decree is rendered, in which case the judgment or decree shall draw interest at the rate expressed in the contract, not exceeding eight cents on the hundred by the year, which rate must be expressed in the judgment or decree. [C., '51, § 946; R., '60, § 1789; C., '73, § 2078; C., '97, § 3039.]

9406. Illegal rate prohibited—usury. No person shall, directly or indirectly, receive in money or in any other thing, or in any manner, any greater sum or value for the loan of money, or upon contract founded upon any sale or loan of real or personal property, than is in this chapter prescribed. [R., '60, § 1790; C., '73, § 2079; C., '97, § 3040.]

9407. Penalty for usury. If it shall be ascertained in any action brought on any contract that a rate of interest has been contracted for, directly or indirectly, in money or in property, greater than is authorized by this chapter, the same shall work a forfeiture of eight cents on the hundred by the year upon the amount of the principal remaining unpaid upon such contract at the time judgment is rendered thereon, and the court shall enter final judgment in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant for the principal sum so remaining unpaid without costs, and also against the defendant and in favor of the state, for the use of the school fund of the county in which the action is brought, for the amount of the forfeiture; and in no case where unlawful interest is contracted for shall the plaintiff have judgment for more than the principal sum, whether the unlawful interest be incorporated with the principal or not. [R., '60, § 1791; C., '73, § 2080; C., '97, § 3041.]

9408. Interest in excess of two per cent per month. Every person or persons, company, corporation, or firm, and every agent of any person, persons, company, corporation, or firm, who shall take or receive, or agree to take or receive, directly or indirectly, by means of commissions or brokerage charges, or otherwise, for the forbearance or use of money in the sum or amount of more than three hundred dollars a rate greater than two per cent per month, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as authorizing a higher rate of interest than is now provided by law. [S. S., '15, § 3041-a; 39 G. A., ch. 35, § 20.]

9409. Assignee of usurious contract. Any assignee of a usurious contract, becoming such in good faith in the usual course of business and without notice of such fact, may recover of the usurer the full amount of the consideration paid by him therefor, less any sum that may have been realized on the contract, anything in this chapter contained to the contrary notwithstanding. [R., '60, § 1792; C., '73, § 2081; C., '97, § 3042.]

CHAPTER 419

CHATTEL LOANS

NOTE: For law regulating loans in excess of $300.00, see § 9408.

- 9410. License required to make certain loans.
- 9411. Application for license.
- 9412. Fee for license.
- 9413. Bond—amount.
- 9414. Condition of bond.
- 9415. Issuance of license—expiration.
- 9416. Duplicate license.
- 9417. Manner of making loans.
- 9418. Display of license.
- 9419. Notice of change of place of business.
- 9420. Interest rate.
- 9421. Computation of interest.
- 9422. Additional charges.
- 9423. Excessive charges—forfeiture of loan.
- 9424. Limitation on loan.

- 9425. Duty of licensee as to borrower.
- 9426. Confession of judgment—amount of loan.
- 9427. Assignment of wages—exempt property.
- 9428. Limitation on assignment.
- 9429. Illegal rate of interest.
- 9430. Evasions by sale of property.
- 9431. Enforcement of loans made outside state.
- 9432. False advertisements.
- 9433. Examinations and inspections.
- 9434. Books and records of licensee.
- 9435. Violations—penalty.
- 9436. Revocation of license.
- 9437. Inadequate bond.
- 9438. Scope of law—exceptions.

9410. License required to make certain loans. No person, copartnership, or corporation shall engage in the business of making loans of money, credit, goods, or things in action in the amount or to the value of three hundred dollars or less, and charge, contract for, or receive a greater rate of interest than eight per cent per annum therefor, except as authorized by this chapter, and without first obtaining a license from the superintendent of banking, hereinafter called the licensing official. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 1.]

9413. Bond—amount. The applicant shall also, at the same time, file with the licensing official a bond in which the applicant shall be the obligor, in the sum of one thousand dollars with one or more sureties (whose liability as such sureties, in the aggregate, shall not exceed one thousand dollars), to be approved by the licensing official, which bond shall run to the state for the use of the state and of any person or persons who may have a cause of action against the obligor of said bond under the provisions of this chapter. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 3.]

9411. Application for license. Application for such license shall be in writing and shall contain the full name and address, both of the residence and place of business, of the applicant, and if the applicant is a copartnership, of every member thereof, or if a corporation, of each officer thereof; also the county and municipality, with street and number, if any, where the business is to be conducted. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 2.]

9414. Condition of bond. Such bond shall be conditioned that said obligor will conform to and abide by each and every provision of this chapter and will pay to the state and to any such person or persons, any and all moneys that may become due or owing to the state and to such person, or persons, from said obligor, under and by virtue of the provisions of this chapter. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 3.]

9412. Fee for license. Every such applicant, at the time of making such application, shall pay to the licensing official the sum of one hundred dollars as an annual license fee and in full payment of all expenses of examinations under and administration of this chapter; provided that if the license is issued for a period of less than twelve months, the license fee shall be prorated according to the number of months that said license shall run. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 2.]

9415. Issuance of license—expiration. Upon the filing of such application and the approval of said bond and the payment of said fee, the licensing official shall issue a license to the applicant to make loans in accordance with the provisions of this chapter for a period which shall expire the first day of January next following the date of its issuance. Such license shall not be assignable. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 4.]

9416. Duplicate license. Not more than one place of business shall be maintained under the same license, but the licensing official shall issue more than one license to the same licensee upon the payment of an additional license fee and the filing of an additional bond for each license. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 8.]

9417. Manner of making loans. No person, copartnership, or corporation so licensed shall make any loan provided for by this chapter, under any other name, or at any other place of business, than that named in the license. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 8.]

9418. Display of license. The license shall be kept conspicuously posted in the place of business of the licensee. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 7.]

9420. Interest rate. Every person, copartnership, and corporation licensed hereunder may loan any sum of money not exceeding in amount the sum of three hundred dollars and may charge, contract for, and receive thereon interest at a rate not to exceed three and one-half per cent per month. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 13.]

9421. Computation of interest. Interest shall not be payable in advance nor compounded, and shall be computed on unpaid balances. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 13.]

9422. Additional charges. In addition to the interest herein provided for, no further or other charge, or amount whatsoever for any examination, service, brokerage, commission, or other thing, or otherwise, shall be directly or indirectly charged, contracted for, or received, except the lawful fees, if any, actually and necessarily paid out by the licensee to any public officer, for filing, or recording in any public office any instrument securing the loan, which fees may be collected when the loan is made, or at any time thereafter. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 13.]

9423. Excessive charges—forfeiture of loan. If interest or charges in excess of those permitted by this chapter shall be charged, contracted for, or received, the contract of loan shall be void and the licensee shall have no right to collect, or receive any principal, interest, or charges whatsoever. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 13.]

9424. Limitation on loan. No person shall owe any licensee, as such, at any time more than three hundred dollars for principal. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 13.]

9425. Duty of licensee as to borrower. Every licensee shall:

1. Deliver to the borrower, at the time a loan is made, a statement in the English language showing in clear and distinct terms the amount and date of the loan and of its maturity, the nature of the security, if any, for the loan, the name and address of the borrower and of the licensee and the rate of interest charged. Upon such statement there shall be printed in English a copy of the five preceding sections.

2. Give to the borrower a plain and complete receipt for all payments made on account of any such loan at the time such payments are made.

3. Upon repayment of the loan in full, mark indelibly every paper signed by the borrower with the word "paid" or "canceled", and release any mortgage, restore any pledge, cancel and return any note, and cancel and return any assignment given by the borrower as security. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 14.]

9426. Confession of judgment—amount of loan. No licensee shall take any confession of judgment, or any power of attorney in relation to any such loan. Nor shall he take any note, promise to pay, or security that does not state the actual amount of the loan, the time for which it is made, and the rate of interest charged, nor shall he take any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled after execution. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 15.]

9427. Assignment of wages—exempt property. No assignment of or order for the payment of any salary, wages, commissions, or other compensation for services, earned or to be earned, given to secure any such loan shall be valid unless such loan is contracted simultaneously with its execution; nor shall any such assignment, or order, or any chattel mortgage or other lien on household furniture then in the possession and use of the borrower be valid unless in writing signed and acknowledged in person by the borrower; nor, if the borrower is married, unless signed and acknowledged in person by both husband and wife. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 16.]

9428. Limitation on assignment. Under any such assignment or order for the payment of future salary, wages, commissions, or other compensation for services, given as security for a loan made under this chapter, a sum not exceeding ten per cent of the borrower's salary, wages, commissions, or other compensation for services, shall be collectible therefrom by the licensee at the time of each payment of salary, wages, commissions, or other compensation for services, from the time that a copy of such assignment, verified by the oath of the licensee, or his agent, together with a verified statement of the amount unpaid upon such loan, is served upon the employer. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 16.]

9429. Illegal rate of interest. No person, copartnership, or corporation, except as authorized by this chapter, shall, directly or indirectly, charge, contract for, or receive any interest or consideration greater than eight per cent per annum upon the loan, use, or forbearance of money, goods, or things in action, or upon the loan, use, or sale of credit, of the amount or value of three hundred dollars or less. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 17.]

9430. Evasions by sale of property. The foregoing prohibition shall apply to any person who, as security for any such loan, use, or forbearance of money, goods, or things in action, or for any such loan, use, or sale of credit, makes a pretended purchase of property from any person and permits the owner or pledgor to retain the possession thereof, or who, by any device or pretense of charging for his services, or otherwise, seeks to obtain a greater compensation than is authorized by this chapter. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 17.]

9431. Enforcement of loans made outside state. No loan for which a greater rate of interest or charge than is allowed by this chapter has been contracted for or received, wherever made, shall be enforced in this state, and any person in any wise participating therein in this state shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 17.]

9432. False advertisements. No licensee, or other person, copartnership, or corporation, shall print, publish, or distribute, or cause to be printed, published, or distributed in any manner whatsoever, any written or printed statement with regard to the rates, terms, or conditions for the lending of money, credit, goods, or things in action, in amounts of three hundred dollars or less, which is false, or calculated to deceive. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 12.]

9433. Examinations and inspections. The licensing official, for the purpose of discovering violations of this chapter, may, either personally or by any person designated by him, at any time and as often as he may desire, investigate the loans and business of every licensee and of every person, copartnership, and corporation by whom or which any such loan shall be made, whether such person, copartnership, or corporation shall act, or claim to act as principal, agent, or broker, or under or without the authority of this chapter; and for that purpose he shall have free access to the office or place of business, books, papers, records, safes, and vaults of all such persons, copartnerships, and corporations; he shall also have authority to examine, under oath, all persons whomsoever, whose testimony he may require, relative to such loans or business. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 10.]

9434. Books and records of licensee. The licensee shall keep such books and records in his place of business as in the opinion of the licensing official will enable the licensing official to determine whether the provisions of this chapter are being observed. Every such licensee shall preserve the records of final entry used in such business, including cards used in the card system, if any, for a period of at least two years after the making of any loan recorded therein. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 11.]

9435. Violations—penalty. Any person, copartnership, or corporation and the several officers and employees thereof who shall violate any of the provisions of sections 9410, 9416, 9417, 9420 to 9422, inclusive, 9424, or 9429 to 9432, inclusive, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment of not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 18.]

9436. Revocation of license. The licensing official may, upon notice to the licensee and reasonable opportunity to be heard, revoke such license if the licensee has violated any provision of this chapter; and in case the licensee shall be convicted by a court a second time of a violation of sections 9420 to 9422, inclusive, and 9424, the licensing official shall revoke such license; provided that the second offense shall have occurred after a prior conviction, in which case another license shall not be issued to such licensee, nor to the husband or wife of the licensee, nor to any copartnership or corporation of which he is a member or officer. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 6.]

9437. Inadequate bond. If in the opinion of the licensing official the bond of the licensee shall at any time appear to be insecure, or exhausted, or otherwise doubtful, an additional bond in the sum of not more than one thousand dollars satisfactory to the licensing official shall be filed within ten days after notice to the licensee, and upon failure of the obligor to file such additional bond, the license shall be revoked by the licensing official. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 5.]

9438. Scope of law—exceptions. This chapter shall not apply to any existing private bank or bankers doing a general banking business, or to any person, copartnership, or corporation doing business under any law of this state or of the United States relating to banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, or licensed pawnbrokers, nor shall it apply to any domestic corporation entitled to the benefits of sections 6994 to 6996, inclusive. [39 G. A., ch. 35, § 19.]

CHAPTER 420

CONTRACTS

9439. Seals abolished.
9440. Consideration implied.

9439. Seals abolished. The use of private seals in written contracts, or other instruments in writing, by individuals, firms, or corporations that have not adopted a corporate seal, is hereby abolished; but the addition of a seal to any such instrument shall not affect its character or validity in any respect. [C., '51, § 974; R., '60, § 1823; C., '73, § 2112; C., '97, § 3068; S., 13, § 3068.]

9440. Consideration implied. All contracts in writing, signed by the party to be bound or by his authorized agent or attorney, shall import a consideration. [C., '51, § 975; R., '60, § 1824; C., '73, § 2113; C., '97, § 3069.]

9441. Failure of consideration. The want or failure, in whole or in part, of the consideration of a written contract may be shown as a defense, total or partial, except as provided in the negotiable instruments law. [C., '51, § 976; R., '60, § 1825; C., '73, § 2114; C., '97, § 3070; 40 G. A., ch. 262.]

NOTE: For negotiable instruments law, see ch. 424.

9442. Gaming contracts void. All promises, agreements, notes, bills, bonds, or other contracts, mortgages or other securities, when the whole or any part of the consideration thereof is for money or other valuable thing won or lost, laid, staked, or bet, at or upon any game of any kind or on any wager, are absolutely void and of no effect. [C., '51, § 2724; R., '60, § 4366; C., '73, § 4029; C., '97, § 4965.]

CHAPTER 421

TENDER OF PAYMENT AND PERFORMANCE

NOTE: Tender in actions against heirs, see § 12060. Tender under offer to compromise, see ch. 546.
Notary fee for noting tender, see § 1214.

9443. Demand required.
9444. Tender of labor or property.
9445. Tender when contract assigned.
9446. Effect of tender.

9443. Demand required. No cause of action shall accrue upon a contract for labor or the payment or delivery of property other than money, where the time of performance is not fixed, until a demand of performance has been made upon the maker and refused, or a reasonable time for performance thereafter allowed. [C., '51, § 959; R., '60, § 1806; C., '73, § 2097; C., '97, § 3056.]

9444. Tender of labor or property. When a contract for labor, or for the payment or delivery of property other than money, does not fix a place of payment, the maker may tender the labor or property at the place where the payee resided at the time of making the contract, or at the residence of the payee at the time of performance of the contract, or where any assignee of the contract resides when it becomes due, but if the property in such case is too ponderous to be conveniently transported, or if the payee had no known place of residence within the state at the time of making the contract, or if the assignee of a written contract has no known place of residence within the state at the time of performance, the maker may tender the property at the place where he resided at the time of making the contract. [C., '51, §§ 960, 961; R., '60, §§ 1807, 1808; C., '73, §§ 2098, 2099; C., '97, § 3057.]

9445. Tender when contract assigned. When the contract is contained in a written instrument which is assigned before due, and the maker has notice thereof, he shall make the tender at the residence of the holder if he resides in the state and no farther from the maker than the payee did at the making thereof. [C., '51, § 962; R., '60, § 1809; C., '73, § 2100; C., '97, § 3058.]

9446. Effect of tender. A tender of the property, as above provided, discharges the maker from the contract, and the property becomes vested in the payee or his assignee, and he may maintain an action therefor as in other cases. But if the property tendered be perishable, or requires feeding, or other care, and no person is found to receive it when tendered, the person making the tender shall preserve, feed, or otherwise take care of the same, and shall have a lien thereon for his reasonable expenses and trouble in so doing. [C., '51, §§ 963, 964; R., '60, §§ 1810, 1811; C., '73, §§ 2101, 2102; C., '97, § 3059.]
