[R60, §4568; C73, §4220; C97, §5210; C24, 27, §13491.]

13492. Offense triable in another county—transfer. If the magistrate believes from the statements in the affidavit that the offense charged is triable in a county different from that in which the arrest is made, and there is sufficient ground for a trial or preliminary examination, he shall, by a written order, commit the person arrested to a peace officer, to be by him taken before a magistrate in the county in which the offense is triable, and if the offense be a misdemeanor triable on indictment, shall fix in the order the amount of bail which the person arrested may give for his appearance at the district court of the county (naming it) in which the offense is indictable, on the first day of the next term thereof, to answer to an indictment. If the offense be a bailable crime, the person may give bail, conditioned as above provided, before a clerk of the district court. [R60, §4569; C73, §4221; C97, §5211; C24, 27, §13492.]

If bail be not given as above provided, or if the offense charged is a felony not bailable, or a misdemeanor triable on information, the magistrate must deliver the affidavits and order of commitment to a peace officer, who shall proceed with the person arrested as directed by the order or provided by law; and the magistrate in the county in which the offense is triable, when the person arrested is brought before him, shall proceed as on an arrest under a warrant, and if the case be within his jurisdiction to try and determine, shall order an information to be filed against the person arrested. [R60, §4571; C73, §4223; C97, §5213; C24, 27, §13494.]

13494. Proceedings in case of transfer. If bail be not given as above provided, or if the offense charged is a felony not bailable, or a misdemeanor triable on information, the magistrate must deliver the affidavits and order of commitment to a peace officer, who shall proceed with the person arrested as directed by the order or provided by law; and the magistrate in the county in which the offense is triable, when the person arrested is brought before him, shall proceed as on an arrest under a warrant, and if the case be within his jurisdiction to try and determine, shall order an information to be filed against the person arrested. [R60, §4571; C73, §4223; C97, §5213; C24, 27, §13494.]

tions 13492 to 13494, inclusive, the officer having the person arrested in custody, under the order, shall take him before the proper magistrate, in the county in which the offense is triable, which is most convenient for the witnesses on the part of the state; unless, in case of a misdemeanor triable on indictment as hereinbefore provided, the person arrested desires to give bail, in which case he shall take him before the most convenient magistrate in the county in which the offense with which he is charged is triable, or any county through which he passes in going from the county in which the arrest was made to the county in which the offense is triable, or before the clerk of the district court of either of said counties, for the purpose of giving bail. [R60,§4572; C73, §4224; C97,§5214; C24,27,§13495.]

In all cases, the peace officer, when he takes a person committed to him under an order as provided in this chapter before a magistrate or clerk of the district court, either for the purpose of giving bail, if bail be taken, or for trial or preliminary examination, must make his return on such order, and sign such return with his name of office, and deliver the same to the magistrate or clerk. [R60,§4573; C73,§4225; C97,§5215; C24,27,§13496.]

CHAPTER 624
FUGITIVES FROM JUSTICE

13497. Agents in extradition cases. The governor, in any case authorized by the constitution and laws of the United States, may appoint agents to demand of the executive authority of another state or territory, or from the executive authority of a foreign government, any fugitive from justice charged with treason or felony. [C51,§3282; R60,§4518; C73,§4171; C97,§5169; C24,27,§13497.]

13498. Fees and expenses. The expenses to be allowed such agent shall be: fees paid the officers of the state upon whose governor the requisition is made; all necessary and actual traveling expenses paid on account of the agent and fugitive, including the necessary and actual railroad fare of the agent and that paid for transportation of the fugitive. [C51,§3282; R60,§4518; C73,§4171; C97,§5169; C24,27,§13498.]

13499. Payment of claims. Bills for such expenses shall be made out, itemized so as to show each day's expenses, sworn to and filed with the county auditor of the proper county, the county making application for the requisition, and shall be by said county auditor audited and paid out of the county treasury. [C51,§3282; R60,§4518; C73,§4171; C97,§5169; C24,27,§13499.]

13500. Additional compensation prohibited. No compensation, fee, or reward of any kind can be paid to or received by a public officer of the state for a service rendered, or expense incurred, in procuring from the governor the demand mentioned in section 13497, or the surrender of the fugitive, or for conveying him into the state, or detaining him therein, except as provided by law; a violation of this section is a misdemeanor. [R60,§§4519,4520; C73, §§4172,4173; C97,§5170; C24,27,§13500.]

13502. Warrant of arrest. Whenever a demand is made upon the governor by the executive of another state or territory, in any case authorized by the constitution and laws of the United States, for the delivery of a person charged in such state or territory with a crime, if such person is not held in custody or under bail to answer for an offense against the laws of the United States or of this state, he shall issue his warrant, under the seal of the state, authorizing the agent who makes such demand, forthwith, or at such time as may be designated in the warrant, to take and transport such person to the line of this state at the expense of such agent, and may also, by such warrant, require all peace officers to afford all needful assistance in the execution thereof. [C51,§3283; R60,§4522; C73,§4175; C97,§5172; C24, 27,§13502.]

13503. Filing complaint and issuance of warrant. If any person is found in the state charged with a crime committed in another state or territory, and liable by the constitution and laws of the United States to be delivered over upon the demand of the governor thereof, any magistrate may, upon complaint on oath setting forth the offense, and such other matters as are necessary to bring the case within the provisions of law, issue a warrant for the arrest of such person. [C51,§3284; R60,§4523; C73,§4176; C97,§5173; C24, 27,§13504.]

13504. Bail—except when charged with murder. If, upon examination, it appears that there is reasonable cause to believe the complaint true, and that such person may be lawfully demanded of the governor, he shall, if not charged with murder, be required to enter into an undertaking, with sufficient surety in a reasonable sum, to appear before such magistrate at a future day, allowing reasonable time to obtain the warrant from the governor, and abide the order of such magistrate in the premises. [C51,§3285; R60,§4524; C73,§4177; C97,§5174; C24, 27,§13505.]

13505. Failure to give bail—commitment. If such person does not give bail, he must be committed to prison and there detained until such day in like manner as if the offense charged had been committed within the state. [C51,§3286; R60,§4525; C73,§4178; C97,§5175; C24, 27,§13506.]

13507. Discharge. If such person appear before the magistrate upon the day ordered, he must be discharged, unless he is demanded by some person authorized by the warrant of the governor to receive him, or unless the magistrate finds good cause to commit him, or to require him to enter into a new undertaking for his appearance at some other day to await a warrant from the governor. [C51,§3288; R60,§4527; C73,§4180; C97,§5177; C24, 27,§13508.]

13508. Arrest on warrant of governor. Whether the person so charged be bound to appear, be committed, or discharged, any person authorized by the warrant of the governor may at any time take him into custody, and the same is a discharge of the undertaking, if there be one, unless a forfeiture thereof has been previously entered of record. [C51,§3289; R60,§4528; C73,§4181; C97,§5178; C24, 27,§13509.]

13509. Liability of complainant—costs. The complaint in any such case is answerable for all the costs and charges, and for the support in prison of any person so committed; and the magistrate, before issuing his warrant or hearing the cause, must require the complainant to give security for the payment of all such costs, or may require them in advance. [C51, §3290; R60,§4529; C73,§4182; C97,§5179; C24, 27,§13509.]

13510. Arrest without expense to state. Upon the application for the appointment of an agent for the arrest of a fugitive from justice under the provisions of this chapter, the governor may make the appointment and the issuance of the writ conditional that the same be executed without expense to the state. [C73, §4193; C97,§5180; C24, 27,§13510.]

13511. Expenses paid by state. When, in the opinion of the governor, expenses incurred in the arrest of fugitives from justice should be paid by the state, the claim therefor shall be itemized and sworn to, and approved by him and at least two other members of the executive council, and, when so approved, be audited and paid out of the general revenue of the state. [C73,§4184; C97,§5181; C24, 27,§13511.]

13512. Peace officers of foreign state. Any peace officer or extradition agent of another state bringing any person within this state or transporting such person through the state under a warrant of arrest or extradition warrant issued in another state, or the officer of any penal institution of another state conveying or transporting a prisoner of such institution into or through this state, shall have the authority as to the custody and restraint of such person while in the state of Iowa, as duly constituted peace officers of this state have in making an arrest under process issued by the courts of this state. [C24, 27,§13512.]

The complaint and other affidavits, if any, on which the warrant was issued must be sent to the magistrate before whom the person arrested is taken, and, if they cannot be procured, the complainant and his witnesses, if any, must be subpoenaed, if necessary, by the magistrate before whom the person arrested is taken, to appear before him and make a new complaint and affidavits. [R60,§4456; C73, §4117; C97, §5107; C24, 27, §13515.]

§13516. Discharge ordered—costs. If it appear that there is no just reason to fear the commission of the offense alleged to have been threatened, the person complained of must be discharged, and the complainant may be ordered to pay the costs of the proceeding if the magistrate regards the complaint as unfounded and frivolous, and, unless when the proceeding is before a judge of the supreme, district, or superior court, may issue execution therefor; and when the proceeding is before a judge of the supreme, district, or superior court, he shall transmit the complaint, affidavits, warrant, and order to the clerk of the district court of the county, who shall file the same, make a memorandum thereof in the judgment docket, and issue execution therefor immediately. If there be just reason to fear the commission of the offense, the person complained of shall be required to enter into an undertaking, in such sum as the magistrate may direct, with one or more sufficient sureties, to abide the order of the district court of the county at the next term thereof, and in the meantime to keep the peace towards the people of the state, and particularly towards the person against whom or whose property there is reason to fear the offense may be committed. [R60,§4458; C73, §4119; C97, §5109; C24, 27, §13517.]

Judgment shall be entered against the party held to keep the peace for all the costs of the proceeding, but if it is made to appear to the court that the proceeding was instituted without probable cause, the court may render judgment against the complainant for such costs. [R60,§4466; C73,§4126; C97,§5115; C24, 27,§13523.]

When the arrested person is brought before the magistrate, with or without a warrant, upon preliminary information, the magistrate must immediately inform him of the offense with which he is charged, and of his right to counsel in every stage of the proceedings, and must allow him a reasonable time to send for counsel, and, if necessary, adjourn for that purpose. After waiting a reasonable time for or on the appearance of counsel for defendant, the magistrate shall immediately proceed with the preliminary examination, or may allow the defendant to waive the same. [C51,§§2852-2854; R60,§§4575-4577; C73,§§4226-4228; C97,§5216; C24, 27,§13527.]

13538. Witnesses separated. While a witness is under examination before the magistrate he may exclude all others who have not been examined, and may cause the witnesses to be kept separate, that they may not converse with each other until the examination is closed. [C51, §2867; R60, §4591; C73, §4239; C97, §5225; C24, 27, §13538.]

13542. Certification of proceedings. After the examination is closed, the magistrate must attach together the complaint, the warrant or order of commitment, if any, under which the defendant was brought before him, the minutes of the examination, including all depositions used, and annex thereto his certificate, which must set forth, in substance, the time and place of examination, and that the minutes thereof are true, which certificate must be officially signed by the magistrate. [C51, §2869, 2870; R60, §4594; C73, §4242; C97, §5228; C24, 27, §13542.]

13543. Discharge—indorsement on minutes. If after hearing the testimony it appears to the magistrate that a public offense has not been committed, or that there is no sufficient reason for believing the defendant guilty thereof, he must order him discharged, and such order must be indorsed on the minutes of the examination, or annexed thereto and signed by the magistrate, to the following effect: “There being no sufficient cause for believing the defendant guilty of the offense herein mentioned, I order him to be discharged.” [C51, §2871; R60, §4595; C73, §4243; C97, §5229; C24, 27, §13543.]

13721. Minutes of testimony before magistrate. If an indictment was found in whole or in part upon the minutes of evidence taken before a committing magistrate, the clerk of the grand jury shall write out a brief minute of the substance of such evidence, and the same shall be returned to the court with the indictment. [C97, §5272; C24, 27, §13721.]

13722. No indictment found — effect. If, upon investigation, the grand jury refuses to find an indictment, it shall return all of said papers to the court, with an in-dorsement thereon, signed by the foreman, to the effect that the charge is dismissed, and thereupon the court must order the discharge of the defendant from custody if in jail, and the exoneration of bail if bail be given, unless the court, upon good cause shown, direct that the charge should again be submitted to the grand jury, in which case the defendant may be continued in custody, or on bail, until the next term of court. [R60, §4643; C73, §4289; C97, §5272; C24, 27, §13722.]

Related provision, §14023.

13723. Effect of dismissal. Such dismissal of the charge does not prevent the same from being submitted to a grand jury as often as the court may direct; but without such direction it cannot be again submitted. [R60, §4644; C73, §4290; C97, §5273; C24, 27, §13723.]

13724. Proceedings secret — disclosure of action. Every member of the grand jury must keep secret the proceedings of that body and the testimony given before it, except as provided in section 13725; nor shall any grand juror or officer of the court disclose the fact that an indictment for a felony has been found against a person not in custody or under bail, otherwise than by presenting the same in court or issuing or executing process thereon, until such person has been arrested. A violation of this section is a misdemeanor. [C51, §2907; R60, §4638; C73, §4284; C97, §5267; C24, 27, §13724.]

Punishment, §12894.

13725. Disclosure required. Any member of the grand jury and the clerk thereof, and any officer of the court, may be required by the court or any legislative committee duly authorized to inquire into the conduct or acts of any state officer which might be the basis for impeachment proceedings, to disclose the testimony of a witness examined before the grand jury for the purpose of ascertaining whether it is consistent with that given by him before the court or legislative committee, or to disclose the same upon a charge of perjury against the witness, or when in the opinion of the court or legislative committee such disclosure is necessary in the administration of justice. [C51,§2908; R60,§4639; C73,§4285; C97, §5268; C24, 27,§13725.]

Referred to in §13724.

When an indictment is found at the instance of a private prosecutor, the following must be added to the indorsement required by section 13727, "found at the instance of" (here state the name of the person) and, in such case, if the prosecution fails, the court trying the cause may tax the costs against him, if satisfied from all the circumstances that the prosecution was malicious or without probable cause. [R60, §4646; C73,§4292; C97,§5275; C24, 27,§13728.]

Similar provision, §13652.

13729. Names of witnesses indorsed. When an indictment is found, the names of all witnesses on whose evidence it is found must be indorsed thereon before it is presented in the court, and must be, with the minutes of the evidence of such witnesses, presented to the court by the foreman in the presence of the grand jury, and all of the same marked "filed" by the clerk, as provided in the chapter relating to the duties of the grand jury, and shall remain in his office as a record. [C51,§§2913,2914; R60, §§4647, 4648; C73,§§4293, 4294; C97,§5276; C24, 27,§13729.]

13730. Minutes of evidence not public—copy. Such minutes of evidence shall not be open for the inspection of any person except the judge of the court, the county attorney or his assistant or clerk, the defendant and his counsel, or the assistant or clerk of such counsel. The clerk of the court must, within two days after demand made, furnish the defendant or his counsel a copy thereof without charge, or permit the defendant's counsel, or the clerk of such counsel, to take a copy. [C51,§2913; R60, §4647; C73,§4293; C97,§5277; C24, 27,§13730.]

Similar provision, §13653.

13731. Minutes used on resubmission. When an indictment is held insufficient, and an order is made to resubmit the case to the same or another grand jury, or where the grand jury has ignored a bill and the same has been ordered back to the same or another grand jury for further investigation, it shall be unnecessary to summon the witnesses again before such jury in such cases, but the minutes of the testimony returned with the defective indictment or ignored bill or information shall be detached and returned to the grand jury; and thereupon, without more, such grand jury may find a bill and attach said minutes of the evidence thereto, and return said indictment therewith into court in the usual manner, and may in either case take additional testimony. 13732. Definition. An indictment is an accusation in writing, found and presented by a grand jury legally impaneled and sworn to the court in which it is impaneled, charging that a person therein named has done some act, or been guilty of some omission, which by law is a public offense, punishable on indictment. [C51, §2915; R60, §4649; C73, §4295; C97, §5279: C24, 27, §13732.]

13732-c1. Form of indictment. The indictment may be in substantially the following form:

"In the district court of Iowa in and for .... county.

State of Iowa vs. A. B.

The grand jurors of the county of ......... accuse A. B. of (here state the offense, e.g., treason, manslaughter, robbery, or larceny) and charge that (here the particulars of the offense, for instance, as set forth in section 13732-c33 may be added with the view to avoiding the necessity for a bill of particulars)."

13732-c2. Contents of indictment. The indictment may charge, and is valid and sufficient if it charges, the offense for which the accused is being prosecuted in one or more of the following ways:

1. By using the name given to the offense by statute.
2. By stating so much of the definition of the offense, either in terms of the common law or of the statute defining the offense, or in terms of substantially the same meaning, as is sufficient to give the court and the accused notice of what offense is intended to be charged.

The indictment may refer to a section or subsection of any statute creating the crime charged therein, and in determining the validity or sufficiency of such indictment regard shall be had to such reference. [C51, §2916; R60, §§4650, 4652, 4659; C73, §§4296, 4298, 4305; C97, §§5280, 5282, 5289; S13, §5289; C24, 27, §§13733, 13735, 13743; 43GA, ch 266, §2.]

Referred to in §§13732-c5-c15-c18-c21-c22.

13732-c3. Absence of particulars—effect. No indictment which charges the offense in accordance with the provisions of section 13732-c2 shall be held to be insufficient on the ground that it fails to inform the defendant of the particulars of the offense. [43GA, ch 266, §3.]

1. When an indictment charges an offense in accordance with the provisions of section 13732-c2, but such indictment together with the minutes of the evidence filed therewith fails to inform the defendant of the particulars of the offense sufficiently to enable him to prepare his defense, or to give him such information as he is entitled to under the constitution of this state, the court may, of its own motion, and shall, at the request of the defendant, order the county attorney to furnish a bill of particulars containing such information as may be necessary for these purposes, or the county attorney may of his own motion furnish such bill of particulars.

2. When the court deems it to be in the interest of justice that facts not set out in the indictment or in the minutes of the evidence or in any previous bill of particulars, should be furnished to the defendant, it may order the county attorney to furnish a bill of particulars containing such facts. In determining whether such facts and, if so, what facts, should be so furnished the court shall consider the whole record of the case and the entire course of the proceedings against the defendant.

3. Supplemental bills of particulars or a new bill may be ordered by the court or furnished voluntarily under the conditions above stated.

4. Each supplemental bill shall operate to amend any and all previous bills and a new bill shall supersede any previous bill.

5. When any bill of particulars is furnished it shall be filed and become a part of the record and a copy of such bill shall be given to the defendant upon his request. [43GA, ch 266, §4.]

Referred to in §13732-c5.

13732-c5. Setting aside indictment. If it appears from the bill of particulars furnished under section 13732-c4 that the particulars stated do not constitute the offense charged in the indictment, or that the defendant did not committed that offense, or that a prosecution for that offense is barred by the statute of limitations, the court may and on motion of defendant shall set aside the indictment unless the county attorney shall furnish another bill of particulars which so states the particulars as to show that the particulars constitute the offense charged in the indictment and that the offense was committed by the defendant and that it is not barred by the statute of limitations. [43GA, ch 266,§5.]

1. In an indictment or bill of particulars it is sufficient for the purpose of identifying the defendant to state his true name, or to state the name, appellation or nickname by which he has been or is known, or, if no better way of identifying him is practicable, by stating a fictitious name, or describing him as a person whose name is unknown, or in any other manner. In stating the true name or the name by which the defendant has been or is known or a fictitious name, it is sufficient to state a surname, a surname and one or more given names, or a surname and one or more abbreviations or initials of a given name or names.
2. If the defendant is a corporation, it is sufficient to state the corporate name of such corporation, or any name or designation by which it has been or is known or by which it may be identified, without an averment that the corporation is a corporation or that it was incorporated according to law.
3. If in the course of the proceedings the true name of a person indicted otherwise than by his true name is disclosed by the defendant or in the proceedings before the court, it shall order the true name of the defendant to be inserted in the indictment and court record wherever his name appears otherwise therein, and the case shall proceed against him in his true name.
4. In no case is it necessary to prove that the true name of the defendant is unknown to the grand jury or prosecuting attorney. [C51,§2916;
R60,§§4653, 4659; C73,§§4297, 4305; C97,§§5283, 5289; S13,§5289; C24, 27,§§13736, 13743; 43GA, ch 266,§6.]

13732-c7. Time of commission of offense.
1. An indictment need contain no allegation of the time of the commission of the offense except in those cases in which time is a material ingredient of the offense.
2. The allegation in an indictment that the defendant committed the offense shall in all cases be considered an allegation that the offense was committed after it became an offense and before the finding of the indictment and within the period of limitations prescribed by law for the prosecution of the offense.
3. All allegations of the indictment and bill of particulars shall, unless stated otherwise, be demanded to refer to the same time. [C51,§2916;
R60,§§4653, 4659, 4660; C73,§§4297, 4305, 4309;
C97,§§5281, 5285, 5289; S13,§5289; C24, 27,
§§13734, 13739, 13743; 43GA, ch 266,§7.]

13732-c8. Place of commission of offense.
1. An indictment need contain no allegation of the place of the commission of the offense, except in those cases in which the place is a material ingredient of the offense.
2. The allegation in an indictment that the defendant committed the offense shall in all cases be considered an allegation that the offense was committed within the territorial jurisdiction of the court.
3. All allegations in the indictment and bill of particulars shall, unless stated otherwise, be demanded to refer to the same place. [C51,§§2916,
2920; R60,§§4651, 4659, 4660; C73,§§4297, 4305,
4306; C97,§§5281, 5289, 5290; S13,§5289; C24, 27,
§§13734, 13743, 13749; 43GA, ch 266,§8.]

13732-c9. Means. An indictment need contain no allegation of the means by which an offense was committed, unless such allegation is necessary to charge an offense under section 13732-c2. [43GA, ch 266,§9.]

13732-c10. Value. An indictment or bill of particulars need contain no allegation of the value or price of any property, unless such allegation is necessary to charge an indictable offense under section 13732-c2, and in such case it is sufficient to aver that the value or price of the property equals or exceeds the certain value or price which determines the offense. The facts which give the property such value need not be alleged. [43GA, ch 266,§10.]

13732-c11. Ownership. 1. An indictment need contain no allegation of the ownership of any property, unless such allegation is necessary to charge the offense
under section 13732-c2.
2. An allegation in an indictment or bill of particulars of ownership of property is supported by proof of possession or right of possession of such property, and any statement in an indictment or bill of particulars which implies possession or right of possession is a sufficient allegation of ownership. [43GA, ch 266,§11.]

13732-c12. Intent. 1. An indictment need contain no allegation of the intent with which an act was done, unless such allegation is necessary to charge the offense
under section 13732-c2.
2. An allegation generally of an intent to defraud and injure is sufficient without alleging an intent to defraud or injure any particular person, unless such allegation is necessary to charge the offense under section 13732-c2. [C51, §2927; R60,§4667; C73,§4313; C97,§5298; C24,
27,§13756; 43GA, ch 266,§12.]

13732-c13. Immaterial allegations. An indictment need not charge that the offense was committed or the act done “feloniously” or “traitorously” or “unlawfully” or “with force and arms” or “with a strong hand”, nor need it use any phrase of like kind otherwise to charac-terize the offense, nor need it allege that the offense was committed or the act done “burglariously”, “wilfully”, “knowingly”, “maliciously”, or “negligently”, nor need it otherwise characterize the manner of the commission of the offense unless such characterization is necessary to charge the offense under section 13732-c2. [C51,§2920; R60,§4660; C73,§4306;
C97,§5290; C24, 27,§13749; 43GA, ch 266,§13.]
§ 13732-cl4. Unnecessary allegations. An indictment need not state any matter not necessary to be proved. [C51, §2920; R60, §4660; C73, §4506; C97, §5220; C24, 27, §13749; 43GA, ch 266, §14.]

See § 13732-cl9.

§ 13732-cl5. Description of place or thing. Whenever it is necessary in an indictment to describe any place or thing in order to charge an offense under section § 13732-c2 it is sufficient to describe such place or thing by any term which in common understanding embraces such place or thing and does not include any place or thing which is not by law the subject of, or connected with, the offense. [R60, §§4666, 4657; C73, §§4302, 4303; C97, §§5286, 5287; C24, 27, §§13740, 13741; 43GA, ch 266, §15.]

§ 13732-cl6. Identification of others than defendant. 1. In an indictment or bill of particulars it is sufficient for the purpose of identifying any person other than the defendant to state his true name, or to state the name, appellation, or nickname by which he has been or is known, or, if no better way of identifying such person is practicable, by stating a fictitious name, or stating the name of an office or position held by him, or by describing him as "a certain person", or by words of similar import, or in any other manner. In stating the true name of such person or the name by which such person has been, or is known, it is sufficient to state a surname, or a surname and one or more given names, or a surname and one or more abbreviations or initials of a given name or names. 2. It is sufficient for the purpose of describing any group or association of persons not incorporated to state the proper name of such group or association, or to state any name or designation by which the group or association has been or is known or by which it may be identified, or to state the names of all the persons in such group or association, or to state the name or names of one or more persons in such group or association, referring to the other or others as "another" or "others". 3. It is sufficient for the purpose of describing a corporation to state the corporate name of such corporation, or any name or designation by which it has been or is known, or by which it may be identified, without an averment that the corporation is a corporation or that it was incorporated according to law. 4. In no case is it necessary to aver or prove that the true name of any person, group or association of persons or any corporation is unknown to the grand jury or prosecuting attorney. 5. If in the course of the trial the true name of any person, group, or association of persons, or corporation, described otherwise than by the true name is disclosed by the evidence, the court shall cause the true name to be inserted in the indictment and court record wherever the name appears otherwise. [R60, §§4657; C73, §§4302; C97, §5286; C24, 27, §13740; 43GA, ch 266, §16.]

§ 13732-cl7. Money or securities. In an indictment in which it is necessary to make an averment as to money, treasury notes or certificates, bank notes or other securities intended to circulate as money, checks, drafts or bills of exchange, it is sufficient to describe the same or any of them as money, without specifying the particular character, number, denomination, kind, species, or nature thereof. [43GA, ch 266, §17.]

§ 13732-cl8. Instruments generally. Whenever it is necessary in an indictment or bill of particulars to make an averment relative to any instrument which consists wholly or in part of writing or figures, pictures or designs, it is sufficient to describe such instrument by any name or description by which it is usually known or by which it may be identified, or by its purport, without setting forth a copy or facsimile of the whole or any part thereof: provided that the description, if in a bill of particulars, sets forth the character and contents of the instrument with such particularity as to enable the defendant to prepare his defense. [C51, §2925; R60, §§4665; C73, §§4311; C97, §5236; C24, 27, §§13759, 13760; 43GA, ch 266, §18.]

Whenever in an indictment or bill of particulars an averment relative to any spoken or written words or any picture is necessary, it is sufficient to set forth such spoken or written words by their general purport or to describe such picture generally, without setting forth a copy or facsimile of such written words or such picture: provided that when such words or description occur in a bill of particulars, the defendant is thereby sufficiently informed of the identity of the words or picture concerning which the averment is made as to enable him to prepare his defense. [43GA, ch 266, §19.]

§ 13732-cl20. Words and phrases. The words and phrases used in an indictment or bill of particulars are to be construed according to their usual acceptation, except that words and phrases which have been defined by law or which have acquired a legal signification are to be construed according to their legal signification. [R60, §§4657; C73, §§4302; C97, §5287; C24, 27, §§13741, 13759; 43GA, ch 266, §20.]

See ch 614.

§ 13732-cl22. Negativing exception. No indictment for an offense created or defined by statute shall be invalid or insufficient merely for the reason that it fails to negative any exception, excuse or proviso contained in the statute creating or defining the offense. [43GA, ch 266, §22.]

Negativing exceptions, §§1952, 3156.

§ 13732-cl23. Disjunctive or alternative allegations. No indictment for an offense which may be committed by the doing of one or more of several acts, or by one or more of several means, or with one or more of several intents, or with one or more of several results, shall be invalid or insufficient for the reason that two or more of such acts, means, intents or results are charged in the disjunctive or alternative. [43GA, ch 266, §23.]

13732-c24. Indirect or inferential allegations. No indictment shall be invalid or insufficient for the reason that it alleges indirectly and by inference or by way of recital any matters, facts, or circumstances connected with or constituting the offense. [43GA, ch 266, §24.]

13732-c25. Libel. No indictment for libel shall be invalid or insufficient for the reason that it does not set forth extrinsic facts for the purpose of showing the application to the party alleged to be libelled of the defamatory matter on which the indictment is founded. [43GA, ch 266, §25.]

Additional provision, §13258.

13732-c26. Perjury. An indictment for perjury, or for subornation of, solicitation of, or conspiracy to commit, perjury need not set forth any part of the records or proceedings with which the oath was connected, or the commission or authority of the court or other official before whom the perjury was committed or was to have been committed, or the form of the oath or affirmation, or the manner of administering the same. [C51, §2926; R60, §4666; C73, §4312; C97, §5296; C24, 27, §13754; 43GA, ch 266, §26.]

13732-c29. Surplusage. Any allegation unnecessary under existing law or under the provisions of this act [43GA, ch 266] may, if contained in an indictment, be disregarded as surplusage. [C51, §2920; R60, §4660; C73, §4306; C97, §5290; C24, 27, §13749; 43GA, ch 266, §29.]

See §13732-c14.

13732-c30. Indictment under prior law. Nothing contained in this act [43GA, ch 266] shall be so construed as to make invalid or insufficient any indictment which would have been valid and sufficient under the law existing at the date of the enactment hereof. [43GA, ch 266, §30.]

13732-c31. Rule of interpretation. 13802. Failure to plead. If the defendant fails or refuses to plead to the indictment by demurrer or plea, a plea of not guilty must be entered by the court. [C51, §2963; R60, §4722; C73, §4367; C97, §5356; C24, 27, §13802.]

13803. Withdrawal of plea of guilty. At any time before judgment, the court may permit the plea of guilty to be withdrawn and other plea or pleas substituted. [C51, §2961; R60, §4717; C73, §4362; C97, §5357; C24, 27, §13803.]

13804. Issues of fact — trial. An issue of fact arises on a plea of not guilty or of former conviction or acquittal, and no further pleading is necessary. Issues of fact must be tried by a jury. [R60, §§4702, 4704, 4705; C73, §§4347, 4349, 4350; C97, §5358; C24, 27, §13804.]

13808. Prosecutions barred. When a defendant has been convicted or acquitted upon an indictment for an offense consisting of different degrees, the conviction or acquittal shall be a bar to another indictment for the offense charged in the former or for any lower degree of that offense, or for an offense necessarily included therein. [R60, §4720; C73, §4365; C97, §5340; C24, 27, §13808.]

13809. Other judgments — when a bar. Except where otherwise provided, the judgment for a defendant on a demurrer, or on an objection to its form or substance taken on the trial, or for variance between the indictment and the proof, shall not bar another prosecution for the same offense, if a resubmission has been ordered. [R60, §4721; C73, §4366; C97, §5341; C24, 27, §13809.]

13811. Petition by defendant.
13812. Additional verification.
13813. Petition by state.
13814. Petition for second change.
13815. General terms sufficient.
13816. Additional testimony.
13817. Filed with clerk.

13818. Discretion of court.
13819. Order of change of venue.
13820. Transmission of papers.
13821. Several defendants — transcripts.
13822. Delivery of accused.
13823. Proceedings after change.
13824. Cost attending change.
13825. Sheriff's fees.

In all criminal cases which may be pending in any of the district courts, any defendant therein, or the state, in cases where defendant is charged with felony, may petition the court for a change of place of trial to another county. [C51, §3271; R60, §4728; C73, §4369; C97, §5343; C24, 27, §13811.]

13811. Petition by defendant. Such petition, when filed by the defendant, must set forth the nature of the prosecution, the court where the same is pending, and that such defendant cannot receive a fair and impartial trial owing to the prejudice of the judge, or to excitement or prejudice against the defendant in such county, and be verified on information and belief by the affidavit of the defendant. [C51, §3271; R60, §4728; C73, §4369; C97, §5343; C24, 27, §13811.]

13813. Petition by state. Such petition, when filed by the state, shall set forth the nature of the prosecution, the court where the same is pending, and that the state cannot receive a fair and impartial trial in said county owing to excitement or prejudice in such county against the prosecution, and be verified on information and belief by the affidavit of the county attorney or his assistant. [C24, 27, §13813.]

13814. Petition for second change. When a change in place of trial has been granted to one party to the prosecution, the other party thereto to whom no change has been granted, may, in the county to which the case has been sent, petition for a change in the same manner as though said county was the county in which the case was first pending. In such case, if the change be granted, the case shall not be sent to the county in which it was originally pending. [C24, 27, §13814.]

13815. General terms sufficient. The petition need not state the facts upon which the belief of the petitioner or other person verifying the same is founded, but may allege the belief of the particular ground thereof in general terms. [R60, §4730; C73, §4371; C97, §5345; C24, 27, §13815.]

13816. Additional testimony. When the alleged ground in the petition is excitement or prejudice in the county against the petitioner, the court may receive additional testimony by affidavits only, either on the part of the defendant or the state. [R60, §4731; C73, §4372; C97, §5346; C24, 27, §13816.]

13817. Filed with clerk. The petition and affidavits must be filed with the clerk, and are parts of the record. [R60, §4732; C73, §4373; C97, §5347; C24, 27, §13817.]

13819. Order of change of venue. If sustained, the court must, if the ground alleged be the prejudice of the judge, order the change of venue to the most convenient county in an adjoining district to which no objection exists. If sustained on the ground of excitement and prejudice in the county, it must be awarded to such county in the same district in which no such objection exists. [C51, §3272; R60, §§4734, 4735; C73, §§4375, 4376; C97, §5349; C24, 27, §13819.]

13820. Transmission of papers. Upon the change of place of trial to another county, if there be but one defendant in the case, or if all have joined in the petition, the clerk must make out and certify a transcript of all papers on file in the case, including the indictment, and file the same in his office; and all the original papers on file, with a certified copy of all record entries therein, must be without unnecessary delay transmitted to the clerk of the court to which the change is ordered. [C51, §3273; R60, §4736; C73, §4377; C97, §5350; C24, 27, §13820.]

13821. Several defendants—transcripts. If there be more than one defendant in such case, and all the defendants have not joined in the petition, the clerk must, without unnecessary delay, make out and certify a transcript of all entries appearing on the record, and of all the papers on file in the case, including the indictment, and transmit the same to the clerk of the court to which the change of place of trial is ordered, retaining the originals. [R60, §4737; C73, §4378; C97, §5351; C24, 27, §13821.]

13822. Delivery of accused. When a change of place of trial to another county has been ordered, if the defendant is in custody, the sheriff of the county from which the change is granted must, on the order of the court, deliver him to the sheriff of the county to which such change is allowed, and upon such delivery, with a certified copy of the order therefor, the sheriff last mentioned must receive and detain the defendant in his custody until legally discharged therefrom, and give a certificate of such delivery. [C51, §3274; R60, §4738; C73, §4379; C97, §5352; C24, 27, §13822.]

13824. Cost attending change. When the place of trial is changed under the provisions of this chapter, the county from which the change was taken shall pay the expenses and charges of removing, delivering, and keeping the defendant, and all other expenses and costs necessary and consequent upon such change and trial, which shall be audited and allowed by the court.
trying the case; and all such expenses and costs may be recovered by the county to which the trial is changed in an action against the county in which the prosecution was commenced. [C51, §3276; R60, §§4740, 4745; C73, §§3841, 4381, 4386; C97, §§5354; C24, 27, §13824.]

13825. Sheriff’s fees. For delivering prisoners under the provisions of this chapter, sheriffs are entitled to the same fees as are allowed for the conveyance of convicts to the penitentiary. [C51, §3277; R60, §4741; C73, §4382; C97, §5355; C24, 27, §13825.]

Fees. §5191.

See §11459 et seq.

13827. Completion of panel. If for any reason the regular panel is exhausted without a jury being selected, it shall be completed in the manner provided in the chapters upon selecting, drawing, and summoning juries. [C51, §§2970; R60, §4758; C73, §4396; C97, §§5357; C24, 27, §13827.]

13828. Challenges to the panel. All the provisions of law relating to challenges to the panel of trial jurors in civil procedure, the grounds therefor, the manner of exercising the same, and the effect thereof, shall apply to the panel of trial jurors in criminal cases. 13830. Challenges for cause. A challenge for cause may be made by the state or defendant, and must distinctly specify the facts constituting the causes thereof. It may be made for any of the following causes:
1. A previous conviction of the juror of a felony.

13831. Examination of jurors. [C51, §2988; R60, §§4773; C73, §§4407; C97, §§3361; C24, 27, §13831.]

13832. Examination of other witnesses. Other witnesses may also be examined on either side; and the rules of evidence applicable to the trial of other issues shall govern the admission or exclusion of testimony on the trial of the challenge, and the court shall determine the law and the fact, and must allow or disallow the challenge. [C51, §§2989, 2990; R60, §§4774, 4775; C73, §§4408, 4409; C97, §§3362; C24, 27, §13832.]

13834. Order of challenges in general. The challenges of either party need not be all taken at once, but separately, in the following order, including in each challenge all the causes of challenge belonging to the same class: to the panel; to an individual juror for cause; to an individual juror peremptorily. If the offense charged be any other felony, or if it be a misdemeanor involving a violation of the statutes relative to intoxicating liquors, the state and the defendant shall each have the right to peremptorily challenge four jurors and shall strike two jurors.

13837. Clerk to prepare list—procedure. The clerk shall prepare a list of jurors called; and, after all challenges for cause are exhausted or waived, the parties, commencing with the state, shall alternately challenge peremptorily or waive by indicating any such challenge upon the list opposite the name of the juror challenged, or by indicating the number of waiver elsewhere on the list. [R60, §§4780; C73, §§4414; C97, §§3363; C24, 27, §13837.]

13838. Vacancy filled. 13840. Bias in favor of party—waiver. Bias in a juror against either party is no cause of challenge by the other, and may be waived by the party against whom it exists. [R60, §§4784; C73, §§4418; C97, §§3368; C24, 27, §13840.]

2. Statement of state's evidence. The county attorney may briefly state the evidence by which he expects to sustain the indictment.
3. Statement of defendant's evidence. The attorney for the defendant may then briefly state his defense, and the evidence by which he expects to sustain it.
4. Offer of state's evidence. The state may then offer the evidence in support of the indictment.
5. Offer of defendant's evidence. The defendant or his counsel may then offer his evidence in support of his defense.
6. Rebutting or additional evidence. The parties may then, respectively, offer rebutting evidence only, unless the court, for good reasons, in furtherance of justice, permit them to offer evidence upon their original case. [C51,§2991; R60, §4785; C73,§4420; C97,§5372; C24, 27,§13846.]

Referred to in §§13851, 13855

13847. Arguments. When the evidence is concluded, unless the case is submitted to the jury on both sides without argument, the county attorney must commence, the defendant follow by one or two counsel, at his option, unless the court permit him to be heard by a larger number, and the county attorney conclude, confining himself to a response to the arguments of the defendant's counsel. Where two or more defendants are on trial for the same offense, they may be heard by one counsel each. [R60,§4785; C73,§4420; C24, 27,§13847.]

The county attorney, in offering the evidence in support of the indictment in the order prescribed in section 13846, shall not be permitted to introduce any witness who was not examined before a committing magistrate or the grand jury, and the minutes of whose testimony were not presented with the indictment to the court, unless he shall have given to the defendant, or his attorney of record if the defendant be not found within the county, a notice in writing stating the name, place of residence, and occupation of such witness, and the substance of what he expects to prove by him on the trial, at least four days before the commencement of such trial. [R60, §4786; C73,§4421; C97,§5373; S13, §5373; C24, 27,§13851.]

13852. Insufficient time for notice—motion. Whenever the county attorney desires to introduce evidence to support the indictment, of which he shall not have given said four days' notice because of insufficient time therefor since he learned said evidence could be obtained, he may move the court for leave to introduce such evidence, giving the same particulars as in the former case, and showing diligence such as is required in a motion for a continuance, supported by affidavit. [R60,§4786; C73,§4421; C97,§5373; S13, §5373; C24, 27,§13852.]

§13855. Former conviction or acquittal—order of trial. When the defendant's only plea is a former conviction or acquittal, the order prescribed in sections 13846 to 13848, inclusive, shall be reversed, and the defendant shall first offer his evidence in support of his defense. [R60, §4787; C73,§4422; C97,§5374; C24, 27,§13855.]

§13856. View of premises by jury. [R60,§4800; C73,§4432; C97,§5380; C24, 27,§13857.]

§13859. Sickness of juror. If before the conclusion of a trial a juror becomes sick so as to be unable to perform his duty, the court may order him to be discharged, and in such case a new juror may be sworn and the trial begin anew, or the jury may be discharged and a new jury then or afterwards impaneled. [C51, §3013; R60,§4804; C73,§4433; C97,§5381; C24, 27,§13859.]

§13864. Questions of law and fact. On the trial of an indictment for any other offense than that charged in the indictment, the court may direct the jury to be discharged and all proceedings on the indictment to be suspended, and order the defendant to be committed or continued on bail to answer any new indictment which may be found against him for the higher offense. [C51,§30016; R60,§4812; C73,§4439; C97,§5385; C24, 27,§13864.]

fendant must be present at the rendition of the verdict; if it be for a misdemeanor, it may be rendered in his absence. [C51,§3030; R60,§4826; C73,§4461; C97,§5403; C24, 27,§13924.]

13925. Verdict rendered. When the members of the jury have answered to their names, the court or the clerk shall ask them whether they have agreed upon the verdict, and if the foreman answers in the affirmative they must declare the same. [C51,§3031; R60,§4827; C73, §4462; C97,§5404; C24, 27,§13925.]

13928. Certainty in verdict required. No judgment of conviction can be given unless the jury expressly finds against the defendant upon the issue, or judgment is given against him upon a special verdict. [C51, §3042; R60,§4839; C73, §4469; C97,§5410; C24, 27,§13928.]

13929. Jury polled. When a verdict is rendered, and before it is recorded, the jury may be polled on the requirement of either party; in which case each member thereof shall be asked whether it is his verdict, and if anyone answers in the negative the jury must be sent out for further deliberation. [C51,§3043; R60,§4840; C73, §4470; C97,§5411; C24, 27,§13929.]

13930. Reading and entry of verdict—disagreement. When the verdict is given and is such as the court may receive, the clerk may immediately enter it in full upon the record, and must read it to the jury, and inquire of the members thereof whether it is their verdict. If any juror disagrees, the fact must be entered upon the record and the jury again sent out. But if no disagreement is expressed, the verdict is complete and the jury must be discharged from the case. [R60,§4841; C73,§4471; C97,§5412; C24, 27,§13930.]

13931. Defendant discharged on acquittal. If judgment of acquittal is given on a general verdict, and the defendant is not detained for any other legal cause, he must be discharged as soon as the judgment is given. [C51,§3045; R60, §4843; C73,§4475; C97,§5413; C24, 27,§13931.]

13932. Acquittal on ground of insanity—commitment. If the defense is insanity of the defendant, the jury must be instructed, if it acquits him on that ground, to state that fact in its verdict. The court may thereupon, if the defendant is in custody, and his discharge is found to be dangerous to the public peace and safety, order him committed to the insane hospital, or retained in custody, until he becomes sane. [C51,§3044; R60,§4842; C73,§4472; C97, §5414; C24, 27,§13932.]

CHAPTER 651

EXCEPTIONS

13933. Bill of exceptions—purpose. The office of a bill of exceptions is to make the proceedings or evidence appear of record which would not otherwise so appear. [R60,§4846; C73, §4481; C97,§5416; C24, 27,§13933.]

13934. What constitutes record—exceptions unnecessary. All papers pertaining to the cause and filed with the clerk, and all entries made by him in the record book pertaining to them, and showing the action or decision of the court upon them or any part of them, and the judgment, are to be deemed parts of the record, and it is not necessary to except to any action or decision of the court so appearing of record. [R60, §4847; C73,§4482; C97,§5417; C24, 27,§13934.]

13935. Grounds for exceptions. On the trial of an indictment, exceptions may be taken by the state or by the defendant to any decision of the court upon matters of law, in any of the following cases:

1. In disallowing a challenge to an individual juror.
2. In admitting or rejecting witnesses or evidence on the trial of any challenge.
3. In admitting or rejecting witnesses or evidence.
4. In deciding any matter of law, not purely discretionary on the trial of the issue. [C51, §3046; R60,§4844; C73,§4479; C97,§5415; C24, 27,§13935.]

13936. Action affecting substantial right. Exceptions may also be taken to any action or decision of the court which affects any other material or substantial right of either party, whether before or after the trial of the indictment, or on the trial. [R60,§4845; C73,§4480; C97,§5415; C24, 27,§13936.]

13937. Bill by judge. Either party may take an exception to any decision or action of the court, in any stage of the proceedings, not required to be and not entered in the record book, and reduce the same to writing, and tender the same to the judge, who shall sign it if true, and if signed it shall be filed with the clerk and become a part of the record of the cause. [C51, §3047; R60, §4848; C73, §4483; C97, §5418; C24, 27, §13947.]

13938. Bill by bystanders. If the judge refuses to sign it, such refusal must be stated at the end thereof, and it may then be signed by two or more attorneys or officers of the court or disinterested bystanders, and sworn to by them, and filed with the clerk, and it shall thereupon become a part of the record of the cause. [R60, §4858; C73, §4493; C97, §5428; C24, 27, §13948.]

13939. Time to approve bill. The judge shall allow three clear days thereafter to procure the signatures and file the same. [R60, §4849; C73, §4484; C97, §5419; C24, 27, §13939.]

13940. Modification of bill. If the judge and the party excepting can agree in modifying the bill of exceptions, it shall be modified accordingly. [R60, §4850; C73, §4485; C97, §5420; C24, 27, §13940.]

13941. Time allowed to prepare bill. Time must be given to prepare the bill of exceptions when it is necessary; if it can reasonably be done, it shall be settled at the time of taking the exception. [R60, §4851; C73, §4486; C97, §5421; C24, 27, §13941.]

CHAPTER 652
NEW TRIAL

13942. Definition.
13943. Application—when made.

13942. Definition. A new trial is a re-examination of the issue in the same court before another jury, after a verdict has been given. [C51, §3050; R60, §4852; C73, §4487; C97, §5422; C24, 27, §13942.]

13943. Application—when made. The application for a new trial can be made only by the defendant, and must be made before judgment. [C51, §3053; R60, §4856; C73, §4490; C97, §5425; C24, 27, §13943.]

13944. Grounds. The court may grant a new trial for the following causes, or any of them:
1. When the trial has been had in the absence of the defendant, if the indictment be for a felony.
2. When the jury has received any evidence, paper, or document out of court not authorized by the court.
3. When the jury have separated without leave of the court, after retiring to deliberate upon their verdict, or have been guilty of any misconduct tending to prevent a fair and due consideration of the case.
4. When the verdict has been decided by lot, or by means other than a fair expression of opinion on the part of all the jurors.
5. When the court has misdirected the jury in a material matter of law.
6. When the verdict is contrary to law or evidence; but no more than two new trials shall be granted for this cause alone.
7. When the court has refused properly to instruct the jury.
8. When from any other cause the defendant has not received a fair and impartial trial. [C51, §3052; R60, §4854; C73, §4489; C97, §5424; C24, 27, §13944.]

Knowledge of juror, §13858.

13945. Effect of a new trial. The granting of a new trial places the parties in the same position as if no trial had been had; all the testimony must be produced anew and the former verdict cannot be used or referred to either in the evidence or in argument. [C51, §3051; R60, §4853; C73, §4488; C97, §5423; C24, 27, §13945.]

CHAPTER 653
ARREST OF JUDGMENT

13946. Motion in arrest defined—grounds.
13947. Time of making motion.

13946. Motion in arrest defined—grounds. A motion in arrest of judgment is an application to the court in which the trial was had, on the part of the defendant, that no judgment be rendered upon a verdict against him, or on a plea of guilty, and shall be granted when upon the whole record no legal judgment can be pronounced. [C51, §3054; R60, §4856; C73, §4491; C97, §5426; C24, 27, §13946; 45GA, ch 270.]

13947. Time of making motion. The motion may be made at any time before or after judgment, during the same term. [R60, §4859; C73, §4494; C97, §5429; C24, 27, §13947.]

13948. On motion of court.
13949. Defendant held to answer.

13948. On motion of court. The court may also, upon its own observation of any of these grounds, arrest the judgment on its own motion. [C51, §3055; R60, §4857; C73, §4492; C97, §5427; C24, 27, §13948.]

13949. Defendant held to answer. If the court is of opinion from the evidence on the trial that the defendant is guilty of a public offense of which no legal conviction can be had upon the indictment, he may be held to answer the offense in like manner as upon a preliminary examination. [C51, §3057; R60, §4858; C73, §4493; C97, §5428; C24, 27, §13949.]

13951. Judgment of conviction—time for. Upon a plea of guilty, verdict of guilty, or a special verdict upon which a judgment of conviction must be rendered, the court must fix a time for pronouncing judgment, which must be at least three days after the verdict is rendered, if the court remains in session so long, or, if not, as remote a time as can reasonably be allowed; but in no case can it be pronounced in less than six hours after the verdict is rendered, unless defendant consent thereto. [C51, §3058; R60, §§4861, 4862; C73, §4496; C97, §5431; C24, 27, §13951.]

13952. Presence of defendant. When judgment is pronounced, if the conviction be for a felony, the defendant must be personally present; if for a misdemeanor, he need not. [C51, §3059; R60, §4863; C73, §4497; C97, §5432; C24, 27, §13952.]

13953. Forfeiture of bail—warrant of arrest. If the defendant has been discharged on bail, or has deposited money instead thereof, and does not appear for judgment when his personal appearance is necessary, the court, in addition to the forfeiture of the undertaking of bail or money deposited, may make an order directing the clerk, on the application of the county attorney at any time thereafter, to issue a warrant into one or more counties for his arrest, which may be substantially in the following form:

County of .............
The State of Iowa.]

13954. Defendant arrested. The officer must arrest the defendant and bring him before the court, or commit him to the officer mentioned in the warrant. [C51, §§3064; R60, §4869; C73, §4502; C97, §5434; C24, 27, §13954.]

13955. Appearance for judgment—showing of cause. When the defendant appears for judgment, he must be informed by the court, or the clerk under its direction, of the nature of the indictment, his plea, and the verdict, if any, thereon, and be asked whether he has any legal cause to show why judgment should not be pronounced against him. [C51, §§3065; R60, §4870; C73, §4504; C97, §5435; C24, 27, §13955.]

13957. Insanity. If the court is of opinion that there is reasonable ground for believing him insane, the question of his insanity shall be determined as provided in this code, and if he is found to be insane, such proceedings shall be had as are herein directed. [R60, §§4872; C73, §4505; C97, §4537; C24, 27, §13957.]

LIEN OF JUDGMENTS AND STAY OF EXECUTIONS, Ch 655, §13969

13958-a1. Judgment entered. If no sufficient cause is shown why judgment should not be pronounced, and none appears to the court upon the record, judgment shall be rendered. [C51, §3066; R60, §4873, 4874; C73, §4506, 4507; C97, §5438; C24, 27, §13958.]

13959. Cumulative sentences. If the defendant is convicted of two or more offenses, the punishment of each of which is or may be imprisonment, the judgment may be so rendered that the imprisonment upon anyone shall commence at the expiration of the imprisonment upon any other of the offenses. [C51, §3070; R60, §4880; C73, §4508; C97, §5439; C24, 27, §13959.]

13960. Indeterminate sentences. When any person over sixteen years of age is convicted of a felony, except treason or murder, the court imposing a sentence of confinement in the penitentiary, men's or women's reformatory shall not fix the limit or duration of the same, but the term of such imprisonment shall not exceed the maximum term provided by law for the crime of which the prisoner was convicted. [S13, §5718-al3; C24, 27, §13960.]

Further exception in case of rape, §§12966, 12968. Referred to in §13961.

13961. Sentences for two or more offenses. If a person be sentenced for two or more separate offenses and the second or further term is ordered to begin at the expiration of the first and such succeeding term of sentence is specified in the order of commitment, the several terms shall for the purpose of section 13960 be construed as one continuous term of imprisonment. [S13, §5718-a13; C24, 27, §13961.]

13962. Discretion as to sentence. Where one is convicted of a felony that is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, or by fine, or by imprisonment in the county jail, or both, the court may impose the lighter sentence if it shall so elect. [S13, §5718-a13; C24, 27, §13962.]

13963. Place of commitment. Any male person who shall be committed to the penitentiary, except those convicted of murder, treason, sodomy, or incest, and who at the time of commitment is between the ages of sixteen and thirty years, and who has never before been convicted of a felony, shall be confined in the men's reformatory; provided, however, that persons between the ages of sixteen and thirty years convicted of rape, robbery, or of breaking and entering a dwelling house in the nighttime with intent to commit a public offense therein, may, as the particular circumstances may warrant, in the discretion of the court, be committed to either the men's reformatory at Anamosa, or the penitentiary at Fort Madison. [S13, §5718-a5; C24, 27, §13963.]

13965. Commitment to jail of another county. When a person is to be committed to jail, if there is no jail or no sufficient one in the county where the party would be committed under the ordinary provisions of law, the court or magistrate committing may order him to be committed to the jail of some other county, which shall be the one which is most convenient and safe, and the county to which the cause originally belonged shall be liable for all the expenses thereof. [C51, §3073; R60, §4884; C73, §4510; C97, §5441; C24, 27, §13965.]

13966. Allowance of bail upon appeal. In all cases, except murder in the first degree and treason, the court rendering judgment must make an order fixing the amount in which bail must be taken, and there shall be no execution of the judgment until such order is made. 13973. Executions outside county of trial.
13974. Record of discharge.

13971. Copy of judgment as execution. When a judgment of imprisonment, either in the penitentiary or county jail, is pronounced, an execution, consisting of a certified copy of the entry thereof in the record book, must be forthwith furnished to the officer whose duty it is to execute the same, who shall proceed and execute it accordingly, and no other warrant or authority is necessary to justify or require its execution. [C51,§3074; R60,§4886; C73,§4512; C97,§5443; C24, 27,§13971.]

When the court or jury shall direct that a defendant be punished by death, the court pronouncing judgment shall fix the day of the execution thereof, which shall not be less than one year after the day on which the judgment is rendered, and not longer than fifteen months, during which time the defendant shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary. [C97,§4732; C24, 27,§13978.]

13979. Record sent governor. Immediately after entry of judgment of death, the court rendering the same must transmit by mail to the governor a copy of the indictment, plea, verdict, judgment, and testimony in the case. [C97,§4733; C24, 27,§13979.]

13980. Copy of judgment authority for execution. When a judgment of death is pronounced, a certified copy of the entry thereof in

13982. Insanity or pregnancy. When the warden of the penitentiary is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a defendant in his charge under sentence of death is insane or pregnant, he shall notify the commissioners of insanity of the county wherein the penitentiary is located, who shall be sworn by the warden well and truly to inquire into the facts as to the insanity or pregnancy of the defendant, as the case may be, and return a true report of their findings. [C97, §4736; C24, 27, §13982.]

13983. Finding of commissioners. The commissioners, after being sworn, shall examine the defendant and hear any evidence that may be presented, and may examine the medical attendants at the penitentiary, if necessary, to ascertain the facts, and make report thereon in writing, signed by not less than a majority of them, finding as to the fact of insanity or pregnancy. [C97, §4737; C24, 27, §13983.]

13984. Execution suspended. If the report does not show the defendant to be insane or pregnant, the warden shall not suspend the execution; but if it does, he shall suspend the execution, and immediately transmit the report to the governor. [C97, §4738; C24, 27, §13984.]

13986. Time and manner of execution. A judgment of death must be executed by the sheriff of the county in which the judgment was rendered, or his deputy, within the walls of the penitentiary where the defendant is confined, or within a yard or inclosure adjoining thereto, on the day fixed in the judgment, between sunrise and sunset, by hanging by the neck until dead. [C97, §4740; C24, 27, §13986.]

13987. Witnesses to execution. The sheriff or his deputy must, at least three clear days before executing a judgment of death, notify the judge of the district court who tried the case, or, if he be not in office, another judge of such court, the county attorney and the clerk of the district court of the county in which the judgment was rendered, the sheriff of the county in which the offense was committed, if other than that in which judgment was rendered, and two physicians and twelve respectable citizens of the state to be selected by him to be present as witnesses at such execution. He must also, at the request of the defendant, permit one or more ministers of the gospel, named by him, and any of his relatives, to attend the execution, and also such magistrates, peace officers, and guards as the sheriff shall deem necessary, but no minor, and no person other than those herein authorized, shall be present. [C97, §4741; C24, 27, §13987.]

13988. Certificate of execution. The sheriff or his deputy executing the judgment of death must prepare and sign with his name of office a certificate, setting forth the time and place of the execution, and that judgment was executed upon the defendant according to the foregoing provisions, and cause the certificate to be signed by the public officers, and at least twelve persons, not relations of the defendant, who witnessed the same. [C97, §4742; C24, 27, §13988.]

13989. Certificate filed and published. The sheriff or his deputy executing such judgment must cause the certificate to be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which the judgment was rendered, and cause a copy thereof to be published in one newspaper printed at the capital of the state, and one in his county. [C97, §4743; C24, 27, §13989.]

13990. Stay of execution by appeal. An appeal from a judgment of death shall stay the infliction of that punishment, but the defendant is to be retained in custody without bail to abide the judgment thereon. [C97, §4744; C24, 27, §13990.]

13991. Proceedings on appeal. When an appeal is taken from a judgment of death, the clerk of the district court in which it was rendered shall at once give the defendant or his attorney a certificate, under the seal of the court, certifying that fact, and the sheriff or other officer having the defendant in custody must, upon the delivery to him of the certificate, suspend further proceedings on the judgment until final judgment on the appeal is certified to him by the clerk of the supreme court. [C97, §4745; C24, 27, §13991.]

13992. Proceedings on affirmance—issuance of warrant. When such judgment is affirmed, the supreme court must cause a copy of its judgment to be delivered to the governor, and to the sheriff whole duty it is to execute the judgment, signed by the clerk thereof and under seal of the court, and the governor shall issue a warrant of execution under the seal of the state, and transmit it by messenger or mail to the sheriff whose duty it is to execute the judgment, directing him, on a day and at an hour therein named, not earlier than the day fixed by the district court, to execute such judgment in the manner required by law. [C97, §4746; C24, 27, §13992.]

13993. Execution of warrant. The sheriff shall execute such warrant in the manner provided in this chapter, and report his doings to the governor and the district court whose judgment was appealed from, and make the publication of his doings in the manner provided for in this chapter. If from any cause the judgment is not executed on the day named in the warrant, the governor may appoint another, and so on until it is done. [C97, §4746; C24, 27, §13998.]

14003. Bail—proceedings when given. When an appeal is taken by the defendant, and bail is comes, which causes shall take precedence of all other business, be tried at the term at decided, if practicable, at the same term. [R60, §§4518, 4819; C73,§§4531, 4532; C97,§5455; C24, 27,§14004.]

not be dismissed for any informality or defect in taking it, if corrected in a reasonable

C97,§5457; C24, 27,§14006.]

14013. Reversal — effect. If a judgment certified copy of the decision and opinion shall be transmitted to the clerk of the trial court, filed and entered of record by him, and thereafter the jurisdiction of the supreme court shall cease, and all proceedings necessary for exe­ court, or by its clerk. [C51,§§3101, 3102; R60,

§§4929, 4930; C73,§§4542, 4543; C97,§5466; C24, 27,§14016.]

When a defendant is prosecuted for a public offense, upon which the person injured answering the charge at the time the papers on a preliminary examination are returned, at any time before trial on an indictment for the offense, or the trial of an appeal in the district court, and acknowledge in writing that he has received satisfaction for the injury, the court may, in its discretion, on payment of the costs incurred, order all proceedings to be stayed upon the prosecution, and the defendant to be discharged therefrom. In that case the reasons for the order must be set forth therein and entered upon the minutes. [R60, §5107; C73, §4709; C97, §5623; C24, 27, §14020.]

14023. Failure to indict. [C51, §3248; R60, §5007; C73, §4613; C97, §5635; C24, 27, §14023.]

14024. Delay in trial. If a defendant indicted for a public offense, whose trial has not been postponed upon his application, be not brought to trial at the next regular term of the court in which the indictment is triable after the same is found, the court must order it to be dismissed, unless good cause to the contrary be shown. [C51, §3249; R60, §5008; C73, §4614; C97, §5536; C24, 27, §14024.]

14025. Discharge on undertaking. If the defendant be not indicted or tried as above provided, and sufficient reason therefor is shown, the court may order the prosecution continued from term to term, and discharge the defendant from custody on his own undertaking, or on the undertaking of bail for his appearance to answer the charge at the time to which the same is continued, but no continuance under this section shall be extended beyond the following three terms of the court. [C51, §3250; R60, §5009; C73, §4615; C97, §5537; C24, 27, §14025.]

Such a dismissal is a bar to another prosecution for the same offense if it is a misdemeanor; but it is not a bar if the offense charged be a felony. [C51, §8251, 3252; R60, §§5011–5013; C73, §§4617–4619; C97, §5539; C24, 27, §14027.]

DES MOINES, IOWA,
September 1, 1931
STATUTES AND RULES
REGULATING PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE
IN THE
SUPREME COURT OF IOWA

All changes made in these rules as to the preparation of briefs and arguments may be used in cases now pending, but these rules, as now adopted, must be complied with in all cases where brief and argument is filed after November 15, 1931.

ORGANIZATION

CODE SEC. 12801. The supreme court shall consist of nine judges, five of whom shall constitute a quorum to hold court, but one alone thereof may adjourn from day to day or to a certain day or until the next term.

DIVISION OF COURT

CODE SEC. 12802. The supreme court may be divided into two sections in such manner as it may by rule prescribe. Said sections may hold open court separately and cases may be submitted to each section separately, in accordance with such rules as the court may adopt.

RULE 1. The supreme court shall be divided into two divisions to be known as the first and the second.
Each division shall consist of four judges and the chief justice. The personnel of the divisions shall not be permanent, but may be changed from time to time by the chief justice as exigencies may arise, or by affirmative vote by a majority of the justices.

RULE 2. Each division shall, except as hereinafter provided, hear and determine all motions and cases submitted to it, and all petitions for rehearing in cases decided by it, including motions for decrees to retax costs, and all other interlocutory matters.

RULE 3. All cases or other matters passed to another period shall go to and be heard by the division to which the case was originally assigned; and causes or other matters "passed to last period" shall also be heard by the division to which the case was originally assigned, save where the matter is for the full bench, when it shall be passed to the last period and be heard at that time. The parties waive oral argument in all cases passed from one period to another of the term, except cases ordered submitted to the full bench.

RULE 4. Should there be a difference of opinion among the members of either division as to how a case should be decided, or as to the facts or the rules of law applicable thereto, any member of that division, or the chief justice, on his own motion, may call in the other division and the division thus called in shall consider the case and take part in the decision.

RULE 5. Should a member of a division get behind with his work for any reason, or be disqualified from sitting in any cause, the chief justice may call in a judge from another division who is up with his work to sit in place of the one who is behind or disqualified, and may also, in the event an entire division gets behind, make such a division of the cases for any period as will equalize matters between the two divisions.

RULE 6. Consultation may be had between the divisions at any time upon cases pending on motion, for original submission, or upon petitions for rehearing, on request of any member of the court.

RULE 7. Where a chief justice retires and is re­ elected, he shall take his place with the division from which his successor comes, and, if a new man takes his place, he too shall be assigned to the division from which the then chief justice is taken.

CHIEF JUSTICE

CODE SEC. 12804. Of the elected judges whose terms of office first expire, the senior in time of service shall be chief justice for six months and so on in rotation until all such judges shall have been chief justice. If two or more judges, who would otherwise be entitled to the position, are equal in time of service, then the right to the position and the order in which they shall serve shall be determined by seniority in age. At the last term of each year, the supreme court shall determine and enter of record who, under this statute, shall be chief justice for the six months'
period beginning on January first thereafter.
Likewise at the May term in each year and on or before June thirtieth, the supreme court shall determine and enter of record who, under this statute, shall be chief justice for the last six months of the year.

RULE 7-a. In case the chief justice is absent or ill or from any other disability is unable to act, he shall select some other member of the court to act as chief during his absence or disability, and in the event he is unable to make such selection, the court shall select one of its other members to act during the pendency of such disability.

FULL BENCH

RULE 8. All cases involving constitutional questions shall, upon timely application by either litigant, be heard by the full bench.

RULE 9. Any case may upon motion supported by showing be ordered by the court or the chief justice submitted to the full bench, or the court may, on its own motion, order such submission.
RULE 10. Assignment shall also be made of all motions, cases for original submission, and petitions for rehearing which are to go to the full bench, all under the orders and directions of the chief justice.

JURISDICTION

CONST., ART. V, SEC. 4. The supreme court shall have appellate jurisdiction only in cases in chancery, and shall constitute a court for the correction of errors at law, under such restrictions as the general assembly may by law prescribe; and shall have power to issue all writs and process necessary to secure justice to parties, and exercise a supervisory control over all inferior judicial tribunals throughout the state.

CODE SEC. 12822. The supreme court has appellate jurisdiction over all judgments and decisions of all courts of record, except as otherwise provided by law.

CODE SEC. 12823. An appeal may also be taken to the supreme court from:
1. An order made affecting a substantial right in an action, when such order, in effect, determines the action and prevents a judgment from which an appeal might be taken.
2. A final order made in special actions affecting a substantial right therein, or made on a summary application in an action after judgment.
3. An order which grants or refuses, continues or modifies, a provisional remedy; grants or refuses, dissolves or refuses to dissolve, an injunction or attachment; grants or refuses a new trial; sustains or overrules a demurrer in a law action; or sustains or overrules a motion to dismiss in an equitable action.
4. An intermediate order involving the merits or materially affecting the final decision.
5. An order or judgment on habeas corpus.

CODE SEC. 12824. If any of the above orders or judgments are made or rendered by a judge, the same are reviewable the same as if made by a court.

CODE SEC. 12828. The supreme court on appeal may review and reverse any judgment or order of the municipal, superior, or district court, although no motion for a new trial was made in such court.

CODE SEC. 12831. The court may issue all writs and processes necessary for the exercise and enforcement of its appellate jurisdiction.

CODE SEC. 12879. The supreme court may enforce its mandates upon inferior courts and officers by fine and imprisonment, which imprisonment may be continued until obeyed.

CODE SEC. 12885. All objections to the jurisdiction of the court to entertain an appeal must be made in written form stating specifically the ground thereof and served upon the appellant or his attorney of record not less than ten days before the date assigned for the submission of the cause.

TERMS

CODE SEC. 12805. The supreme court shall be held at the seat of government, and shall convene and hold three regular terms each year. The first term shall begin with the second Tuesday of January and end with the first Monday of May; the second shall begin with the first Tuesday after the first Monday of May and end with the third Monday of September; and the third shall begin with the first Tuesday after the third Monday of September and end with the third Saturday of December.

CODE SEC. 12806. Each of said terms of court shall be for the submission and determination of cases, and for the transaction of such other business as shall properly come before the court. All causes on the docket shall be heard at each term, unless continued or otherwise disposed of by order of the court. The court shall remain in session, so far as practicable, until it is determined what the opinion of the court shall be in all causes submitted to it, except in causes where reargument is ordered. Judgments of affirmance, rulings, and orders in causes submitted, and orders authorized by law may be made and entered by the court at any time, regardless of the terms of court.

RULE 11. Each term shall be so divided into periods that the last shall be for the consideration, by the full bench, of all motions, cases on original submission, petitions for rehearing, and other matters properly referable thereto; and all other periods shall be so divided that one division shall sit on the first Tuesday of the period for the submission of such motions, cases, and petitions for rehearing and other matters, as may be assigned to it, and the other shall sit for the hearing of matters assigned to it, on the second Tuesday of each period. And, to equalize the work, cases assigned for each period shall be divided, as nearly as practicable, into two equal parts, save that all cases and other matters for consideration by the entire bench shall be assigned for the last period of the term.

APPEALS IN CIVIL CASES

CODE SEC. 12832. Appeals from the district, superior, and municipal courts may be taken to the supreme court at any time within four months except as hereafter provided from the date of the entry of record of the judgment or order appealed from, and not afterwards; but, when a motion for a new trial, or in arrest of judgment, or for judgment notwithstanding the verdict has been filed, such time for appeal shall be automatically extended so as to permit the same at any time within sixty days after the entry of the ruling upon such motion.

CODE SEC. 12832-d1. If the action challenges the legality, validity or constitutionality of a proposed constitutional amendment, notice of appeal may be taken within three days from and after the entry of the decree in district court, and not afterwards.

CODE SEC. 12833. No appeal shall be taken in any case in which the amount in controversy between the parties as shown by the pleadings does not exceed one hundred dollars, unless the trial judge shall, during the term in which judgment or order is entered, certify that the case is one in which the appeal should be allowed. Upon such certificate being filed the same shall be appealable regardless of the amount in controversy. Said limitation shall not affect the right of appeal in any action in which an interest in real estate is involved, nor shall the right of appeal be affected by the remission of any part of the verdict or judgment returned or rendered.

RULE 12. The supreme court on appeal may review and reverse any judgment or order of the municipal, superior, or district court, although no motion for a new trial was made in such court.

RULE 12834. A part of several coparties may appeal, but in such case they must serve notice of such appeal upon those not joining therein, and file proof thereof with the clerk of the court from which the appeal is taken.

RULE 12835. Coparties, refusing to join in an appeal, cannot afterwards appeal, or derive any benefit therefrom, unless from the necessity of the case, but they shall be held to have joined, and be liable for their proportion of the costs, unless they appear and object thereto.

RULE 12837. An appeal is taken and perfected by the service of a notice in writing on the adverse party, his agent, or any attorney who appeared for him in the case in the court below, and by filing said notice with return of service indorsed thereon or attached thereto with the clerk of the court wherein the proceedings were had, stating the appeal from the same, or from some specific part thereof, defining such part.

RULE 12838. When such service cannot be made the trial court or judge on application shall direct what notice shall be sufficient.

RULE 12839. Notice of appeal shall not be held insufficient because served before the clerk of the trial court has spread the judgment entry upon the court record if it shall appear that such entry has been made in proper form before the appellant’s abstract was filed in the office of the clerk of the supreme court.

RULE 12840. A notice of appeal shall be served and return made thereon in the same manner as an original notice in a civil action.

RULE 12841. All other notices connected with or growing out of the appeal shall be served and the return made in like manner, and filed in the office of the clerk of the supreme court.

RULE 12842. All notices provided for in the two preceding sections become a part of the record in the case on being filed.

RULE 12884. The death of one or all of the parties shall not cause the proceedings to abate, but the names of the proper persons shall be substituted, as is provided in such cases in the district court, and the case may proceed. The court may also, in such case, grant a continuance when such a course will be calculated to promote the ends of justice.

RULE 12. The attorneys and guardians ad litem of the respective parties in the court below shall be deemed the attorneys and guardians of the same parties respectively in this court until others are retained or appointed and notice thereof served on the adverse party.

SUPERSEDEAS BONDS

RULE 12858. No proceedings under a judgment or order, or any part thereof, shall be stayed by an appeal, unless the appellant executes a bond with one or more sureties, to be filed with and approved by the clerk of the court in which the judgment or order was rendered or made, to the effect that he will pay to the appellee all costs and damages that shall be adjudged against him on the appeal; and will satisfy and perform the judgment or order appealed from in case it shall be affirmed, and any judgment or order which the supreme court may render, or order to be rendered by the inferior court, not exceeding in amount or value the original judgment or order, and all rents of or damages to property during the pendency of the appeal out of the possession of which the appellee is kept by reason of the appeal.

RULE 12859. If the bond is intended to stay proceedings on only a part of the judgment or order, it shall be varied so as to secure the part stayed alone.

RULE 12860. When thus filed and approved, the clerk shall issue a written order requiring the appellee and all others to stay all proceedings under such judgment or order, or so much thereof as is superseded thereby.

RULE 12861. No appeal or stay shall vacate or affect such judgment or order.

RULE 12865. If a party has perfected his appeal, and the clerk of the lower court refuses for any reason to approve the bond, or requires an excessive penalty, or unjust or improper conditions, he may apply to the district court or judge thereof, who shall fix the amount and conditions of the bond and approve the same. Pending the application, the judge may, by a written order, recall and stay all proceedings under the order or judgment appealed from until the decision of the application. The bond thus approved shall be filed with the clerk, who shall issue a written order to stay proceedings.

RULE 12866. The appellee may move the court rendering the judgment or making the order appealed from, or the supreme court, or a judge of either court, if in vacation, upon ten days’ notice in writing to appellant, to discharge the bond on account of defect in substance or insufficiency in security, which motion if well taken shall be sustained, unless appellant shall, within a day to be fixed in the order made and filed therein, give a new and sufficient bond as required by said order. If the new bond is not given, proceedings shall be had in the lower court as though no bond had been given, but a new and sufficient bond may be given at any time with like effect and results as though given in the first instance.

RULE 12867. If the judgment or order is for the payment of money, the penalty shall be in at least twice the amount of the judgment and costs. If not for the payment of money, the penalty shall be sufficient to save the appellee harmless from the consequences of taking the appeal, but in no case shall the penalty be less than one hundred dollars.

RULE 12872. The supreme court, if it affirms the judgment, shall also, if the appellee asks or moves therefor, render judgment against the appellant and his sureties on the appeal bond for the amount of the judgment, damages, and costs referred to therein in case such damages can be accurately known to the court without an issue and trial.

DOCKETING OF CAUSES

Code Sec. 12830. The cause on appeal shall be docketed as it was in the court below, and the party taking the appeal shall be called the appellant, and the other party the appellee.

Code Sec. 12843. The clerk shall docket the causes as they are filed in his office and shall, under order of the chief justice, arrange and set a proper number for trial for each day of the term, placing together as far as practicable those from the same judicial district, and shall cause notice thereof to be published and distributed as the court may direct.

Code Sec. 12844. No case shall be docketed until the fees ($5.00) provided by law therefor have been paid.

Code Sec. 12848-b1. If the abstract is filed for more than 4 days before the convening of the first term which follows the taking and perfecting of the appeal, the cause shall be placed on the calendar for said first term, and shall come on for hearing; unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Code Sec. 1456. An appeal may be taken to the supreme court [in a workmen’s compensation case] from any final order, judgment, or decree of the district court, but such appeal shall be docketed, placed upon the term calendar, and submitted in the same time and manner as criminal cases in said court.

Rule 13. Immediately after the time expires during which causes may be docketed for trial at a term of court, the clerk shall make and cause to be printed, without delay, the docket for the term, which shall give all causes, whether continuances or appearances, for trial at such term, and which shall designate the number, the party appealing, the court and county from which the appeal is brought, the counsel of the parties, the period for which each cause is assigned for trial, whether noticed for oral argument, the causes continued by reason of the provisions of Rule 15, and such other matter for the information of the court and attorneys as may be conveniently given, and so assign motions and petitions for rehearing as that the same will be submitted to and reach the proper divisions. He shall forward to each judge of the court, to each attorney having causes at the term, and to the clerk of the district, municipal, and superior courts of each county, a copy of said docket.

ADVANCING CAUSES

Rule 14. If a cause involves the decision of a question of public importance, or rights which are likely to be lost or greatly impaired by delay, the court will, in its discretion, upon motion supported by affidavit duly served, order the submission of the cause at a term in advance of that at which it would otherwise be submitted.

ABSTRACTS

Code Sec. 12845. Printed abstracts of the record shall be filed by the appellant in the office of the clerk of the supreme court.

Code Sec. 12845-b1. Abstracts shall be presumed to contain the record, unless denied or corrected by subsequent abstracts.

Code Sec. 12845-b2. Denials of abstracts, additional abstracts and transcripts may also be filed.

Code Sec. 12847. An abstract must be filed within one hundred twenty days except as hereafter provided after the appeal is taken and perfected unless further time is given before the expiration of said time by the supreme court or a judge thereof for good cause shown.

Rule 14-a1. An extension of time within which to file abstract will be granted only upon reasonable notice to the adverse party or his attorney, proof of which service shall accompany the application; provided that any justice, may, for good cause in his discretion, grant such extension conditionally within the statutory time without notice, subject to the right of the opposing litigant to have such order set aside upon a showing that sufficient ground for refusal of such order existed at the time the order was made.

Rule 15. In making up the docket for the term, the clerk shall place thereon all cases in which the appeal has been served and filed more than 4 days before the first day of said term, unless otherwise ordered by the court; but all cases, in which abstracts have not been served and filed seventy days or more before the time designated by the clerk for the hearing of causes from the judicial district in which said cause was tried, shall ipso facto stand continued until the next term of this court and shall be so marked by the clerk upon the docket. There shall be no waiver of oral argument by reason of such continuance, herein mentioned, if notice in writing or in print, of intention to argue the case orally be served upon an attorney for the adverse party and filed with the clerk of this court at least twenty days before the first day of the term to which continued.

Rule 15-a. The appellant shall serve upon each appellee or his attorney a copy of the abstract, which shall be prepared according to these rules. In case of cross appeals, the party first giving notice of appeal shall under this rule be considered the appellant. Appellant shall also file with the clerk eighteen copies of said abstract, including the service copy.

This rule as to number of copies to be filed, including service copy, shall also apply to all denials and additional abstracts, appellant’s brief and argument, appellee’s brief and argument, the reply, petition for rehearing and the resistance to the same.

Service of abstracts or of any of the other foregoing documents may be made as follows:

1. By delivering copy to the opposing litigant or to his attorney of record;
2. By mailing copy properly addressed to the proper post office address of such counsel, with postage prepaid, and by return receipt mail;
3. Proof of service and the method thereof may be made by appropriate acceptance or affidavit indorsed upon one printed copy and filed as the “service copy” with the clerk of this court. If service be by registered mail the receipt therefor shall be attached as a part of the affidavit of service.

Rule 16. If it appear from an inspection of the abstract that the appellant has negligently or intentionally failed to comply with the rule requiring only so much of the record as may be necessary to a full understanding of the case as may be required for decision to be included therein, the court may, in its discretion, order a new abstract prepared in conformity with such rule or affirm the judgment of the lower court without considering the appeal.
RULE 17. Every denial shall point out as specifically as the case will permit the defects alleged to exist in the abstract. A denial by appellee shall be taken as true unless the appellant sustains his abstract by a certification of the record. Should the appellee deem the appellant's abstract incorrect or unfair he may prepare such additional abstract as he shall deem necessary to a full understanding of the questions presented to the court for decision. A denial by the appellant of such additional abstract, if not confessed, will be disregarded unless sustained by a certification of the record. The appellee shall serve one printed copy of his additional abstract or denial on each appellant or his attorney and deliver eighteen printed copies thereof, including the service copy, to the clerk within fifteen days after receiving appellant's argument, and a denial by the appellant shall be served on the appellee and eighteen printed copies thereof, including the service copy, shall be delivered to the clerk within five days after service of the additional abstract.

RULE 18. Abstracts of record shall be made in substantially the following form:

ject. Alphabetical order at this point may be followed or not at the option of counsel. All exhibits must be referred to in the index by letter or number and a brief description of each exhibit shall be included therein.

This outline is presented for the purpose of indicating the character of the abstract contemplated by the rule, which like all the rules, is to be substantially complied with. Of course, no formula can be laid down applicable to all cases. The rule to be observed in abstracting a case is: Preserve everything material to the questions to be decided and omit everything else.

CERTIFICATION OF RECORD

CODE Sec. 12849. Any party may cause a certified copy of the record in the lower court or any part of the same to be filed in the office of the clerk of the supreme court for its consideration.

CODE Sec. 12850. Upon application to the supreme court or any judge thereof, the clerk of the court from which appeal is taken may be ordered to file such certified copy.

CODE Sec. 12851. The original transcript of evidence may be sent up, but shall be returned to the clerk of the proper county after the cause has been determined by the supreme court.

CODE Sec. 12854. Where a view of an original paper or exhibit in the action may be important to a correct decision of the appeal, the court or any judge thereof may order the clerk of the court below to transmit the same, which he shall do in the manner provided for the transmission of certifications of the record.

CODE Sec. 12857. The lower court, the supreme court, or a judge of either court, may make any necessary orders to secure a perfect record or transcript thereof, upon a showing by affidavit or otherwise, and upon such notice as it or he may prescribe.

DISMISSAL OF APPEALS, OR AFFIRMANCE OF JUDGMENTS

CODE Sec. 12848. If the abstract is not filed within one hundred twenty days after the appeal is taken and perfected or is not filed within the further time as fixed by the court or judge, the appellee may file an abstract of such matters of record as are necessary, or may file a copy of the final judgment or order appealed from, or other matters required, certified to by the clerk of the trial court, and cause the case to be docketed, and the appeal upon motion shall be dismissed, or the judgment or order affirmed.

CODE Sec. 12886. Where appellant has no right, or no further right, to prosecute the appeal, the appellee may move to dismiss it, and if the grounds of the motion do not appear in the record, or by a writing purporting to have been signed by the appellant and filed, they must be verified by affidavit.

CODE Sec. 12887. The appellee may, by answer or abstract filed and verified by himself, agent, or attorney, plead any facts which render the taking of the appeal improper or destroy the appellant's right of further prosecuting the same, to which the appellant may file a reply or abstract likewise verified by himself, his agent, or attorney, and the question of law or fact therein shall be determined by the court, upon such evidence and in such form as it may prescribe.

MOTIONS

CODE Sec. 12870. All motions must be in writing and entered upon the motion book, and be heard upon such notice and argument, if any, as the court by rule may prescribe, but no motion shall be submitted without being publicly called by the court, unless the parties otherwise agree.

RULE 19. Motions must be served by copy of the same and of all affidavits or documents upon which they are based, upon the opposite party or attorney, ten days before the morning on which the causes for the district are set for hearing. Such opposite party shall then have five days to file papers in resistance to the same, copies of which must be served upon the other party or attorney, and no papers will be regarded which do not appear to have been so served. This rule shall not apply to motions the causes whereof arise after the filing of the abstract, but in such cases timely notice of such motions shall be given to the opposite attorneys. Nor shall this rule apply, as to time of service, to motions for continuance, or to advance.

RULE 20. Motions made in a cause after judgment rendered by the supreme court, or after the time assigned for the hearing of causes from the district from which it was appealed, will be heard only upon proof of service of reasonable notice of such motion upon the adverse party or his attorney. Service of all other motions shall be such as is prescribed by the court or a judge thereof.

RULE 21. Arguments in support of motions, if any, must be in writing or print, and shall be filed before the morning of the day set for the hearing of the cause, and served by copy upon the opposite party or attorney when the motion is served; and arguments in resistance, if any, must be in writing or print and filed before the morning of the day set for the hearing of the cause, and served by copy on the opposite party or attorney when the papers in resistance are served.

RULE 22. If a difference of opinion should arise upon the disposition of a motion, the chief justice shall call in the other division, which shall take part in the determination thereof.

RULE 23. Tuesday of each period shall be "motion day" for the submission of motions to the proper division of the court, or to the full bench.

BRIEFS AND ARGUMENTS

CODE Sec. 12871. The parties to an appeal may be heard orally and in writing, subject to such rules as the court may prescribe; and all causes docketed, not continued by consent or upon cause shown, shall be submitted in the order assigned, unless otherwise directed by the court or the judges thereof. ** *

CODE Sec. 12871-d1. If the action challenges the legality, validity or constitutionality of a proposed constitutional amendment, the appellant shall file a written argument within ten days after the filing of the abstract and appellee shall file his argument within ten days thereafter, and appellant shall then file his reply within three days. The cause shall then be submitted to the supreme court in regular or special full bench session as soon thereafter as the chief justice may order.

RULE 24. When the appeal presents only questions of law upon rulings of the court below, appellant shall open and close the argument, and must, at least forty days before the day assigned for the hearing of the case, serve upon an attorney for each appellee copies of his brief of points, authorities and argument. If appellee desires to be heard, he shall, at least fifteen days prior to the date for hearing, serve upon an attorney for each appellee copies of his brief or argument; and the printed reply, if any, shall be served at least three days before the case is to be finally submitted. If the trial in the supreme court is de novo, and appellant has the burden, he shall observe the foregoing rules with the same requirements, and if he may waive his right to open the argument; and if he fails to serve and file his brief within the time hereinbefore provided, he shall be held to have waived the right. Appellant will then be entitled to open the argument, and must serve copies of his brief upon an attorney for each appellee fifteen days before the hearing. Appellee may then, and at least three days before the submission, serve upon an attorney for each appellant copies of his argument, which must be strictly confined to matters in reply to appellant's argument, the exception and contentions, with the same requirements will entitle the party not in default, unless the court shall, for sufficient cause, otherwise order, to a continuance or to have the case submitted at his option upon the briefs and arguments on file which were then and there had occurred.

RULE 25. All printed briefs and arguments, except upon motions, shall be prepared as required by these rules, and each party shall file with the clerk eighteen printed copies of each brief and argument, including the service copy.

RULE 26. Notice in writing, or in print, of inten­tion to argue a case orally, shall be served upon an attorney for the party making the application, and filed with the clerk of this court twenty days before the first day of the term, and the party who fails to serve and file such notice shall not be entitled to argue orally, except in reply to an oral argument for the adverse party.

RULE 27. If the case is triable upon errors as­signed and not de novo and appellant has given notice of oral argument, he will be entitled to open and close.
If appellee alone gave the notice he will be entitled to open the argument and appellant must confine his response to a reply to a reply. If the cause is de novo the party upon whom rests the burden of the proof may, if he has given the requisite notice, open and close the argument. If he has not given notice he will be confined strictly to an answer to the argument for the other side. No oral argument shall exceed one-half hour in length, unless an extension of time be granted before the argument is commenced or it becomes apparent during the course of the argument that more time is necessary, whereupon the court may grant additional time. On original submission two attorneys may be heard on each side; but in the event counsel opening the argument is not entitled to reply, but one attorney shall be heard for either party.
Reply arguments shall be limited to fifteen minutes. On petitions for rehearing only one attorney shall be heard for either party, the peti­tioner not have exceeding twenty and the respondent more than fifteen minutes, unless extensions be granted by the court.

RULE 28. Oral argument shall be confined to a discussion of the proposition and authorities contained in the briefs. Failure to discuss in oral argument points properly made in the briefs shall not be deemed a waiver of such points, but they will be fully considered in determining the cause.

RULE 29. Before taking up the assignment for the several periods a preliminary call of all causes included in that assignment will be made; but the submission of a cause shall not be taken on this call if any party thereto objects. The court will hear all cases included in the assignment and take the submission thereof in the order in which they are assigned, excepting those which have been continued or otherwise directed to hear.

RULE 30. The brief of appellant shall contain a short and clear statement showing:
FIRST. The nature of the action, as for example,
"A suit on a promissory note."
SECOND. The nature of the defense, as for example,
"A plea of payment."
THIRD. How the case was decided.
FOURTH. A brief statement of the main facts as claimed by appellant.
FIFTH. The errors relied upon for reversal.

The rule contemplates that the statement of error shall be complete in itself and that each ruling of the court deemed by the appellant to be erroneous and reversible shall be set forth in clear, concise and definite language sufficiently full and specific, but without elaboration, to apprise the court of the ruling complained of and the particular or particulars in which and for what reason it is claimed to be erroneous.

Repition for the purpose of stating in different form the error or errors relied upon for reversal should be avoided.

Each ruling wherein error is claimed must be dealt with separately.

In addition, specific reference shall be made to the page or pages and line or lines of the abstract showing the ruling and matter complained of to enable the appellee and the court to turn at once to all that the record shows bearing or throwing light thereon.

Omnibus statements of error will not be considered.

SIXTH. Numbered propositions of law stated concisely, and without argument or elaboration, together with the authorities relied on in support thereof.

SEVENTH. An argument in support of appellant's contention, respecting the errors relied upon for reversal.

In citing cases, the names of parties must be given.

And in citing cases determined by this court, which have been officially reported, reference must be made to the volume and page where the case may be found in the Iowa Reports. In citing cases from other jurisdictions in addition to the names of the parties, reference must be made to the volume and page where the same may be found in the National Reporter System.

When textbooks are cited, the number and date of the edition must be given, with the proper volume and page. The failure to comply with this paragraph shall, within the discretion of the court, subject the offending party to the payment of costs.

Any error relied upon for reversal, not argued in the argument in chief, shall be deemed to have been waived.

The argument on questions of law shall be confined to a discussion and elaboration of the points contained in the brief in the order stated.

RULE 31. The brief of appellee shall point out any omissions or inaccuracies in appellant's statement of the record, and shall contain a short and clear state­ mint of the propositions by which counsel seek to meet each of the alleged errors, or by which such errors are claimed to be obviated. Following this statement, the brief shall contain the points and authorities relied on and cited in like manner as required in appellant's brief, and for the same punishment for noncompliance in the citation of authorities.

The brief shall be followed by an argument in support of appellee's propositions in like manner as required of the appellant by the preceding rule.
The brief and argument of appellee on cross appeals shall be prepared in the same manner required of an appellant’s brief and argument. The brief and argument of appellant, in answer to the cross appeal, shall be prepared in the same manner required of appellee’s brief and argument to appellant’s original brief and argument.

Reply briefs and arguments may be filed.

RULE 31-a. Every brief and argument shall be accompanied by a topical index setting forth briefly the principal subjects of the brief in the order of their discussion therein. Alphabetical order is not required.

RULE 31-b. In the appeal of equity actions, two conditions may arise, (see Exchange Bank v. Potterfc, 96 Iowa, 354):

FIRST. Where issues of fact have been joined and evidence taken, and the case is triable anew in this court, then the party having the burden of proof shall make a brief and argument in the following manner:
(a) State the nature of the action;
(b) The nature of the defense;
(c) How the case was decided;
(d) A statement of the main facts relied upon;
(e) Numbered propositions stated concisely and without argument or elaboration which are relied upon, together with the authorities in support thereof;
(f) An argument in support of his contention, in accordance with the foregoing rules. When referring to fact propositions, he shall refer to the pages and lines of the abstract where the same may be found.

SECOND. Where the appeal is for the correction of errors of law only, the errors relied upon for reversal must be pointed out and the method of making a brief and argument thereon shall be the same as provided in Rule 30 hereof.

APPEALS IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS

CODE SEC 13994. The mode of reviewing in the supreme court any judgment, action, or decision of the district court in a criminal case is by appeal. Either the defendant or state may appeal.

CODE SEC 13995. An appeal can only be taken from the final judgment, and within sixty days thereafter.

CODE SEC 13996. When several defendants are indicted and tried jointly, any one or more of them may join in taking the appeal, but those of their codefendants who do not join shall take no benefit therefrom, yet they may appeal afterwards.

CODE SEC 13997. An appeal is taken and perfected by the party or his attorney serving on the adverse party or his attorney of record in the district court at the time of the rendition of the judgment, a notice in writing of the taking of the appeal, and filing the same with such clerk, with evidence of service thereof indorsed thereon or annexed thereto.

CODE SEC 13997-b1. When an appeal has been taken by the defendant in a criminal case, all filings by the appellant on appeal shall be served on the attorney general.

CODE SEC 14000. If a defendant in a criminal cause has perfected an appeal from a judgment against him and shall satisfy a judge of the district court from which the appeal is taken that he is unable to pay for a transcript of the evidence, such judge may order the same made at the expense of the county where said defendant was tried.

CODE SEC 14001. An appeal taken by the state in no case stays the operation of a judgment in favor of the defendant.

CODE SEC 14002. An appeal taken by the defendant does not stay the execution of the judgment, unless bail is put in; but where the judgment is imprisonment in the penitentiary, and an appeal is taken within the time provided after judgment is rendered, and the defendant is unable to give bail, and that fact is satisfactorily shown to the court, or judge thereof, it may, in its discretion, order the sheriff or officer having the defendant in custody to detain him in custody, without taking him to the penitentiary, to abide the judgment on the appeal, if the defendant desires it.

CODE SEC 14003. When an appeal is taken by the defendant, and bail is given, the clerk must give to the defendant, or his attorney, a certificate, under the seal of the court, that an appeal has been taken and bail given, and the sheriff or other officer having the defendant in custody must, upon receiving it, discharge the defendant from custody and cease all further proceedings in execution thereof, and forthwith return to the clerk of the court who issued it the execution under which he acted, with his return thereon; and if it has not been issued, it shall not be until after the final judgment on the appeal.

CODE SEC 14004. The party appealing is the appellant, the adverse party the appellee, but the title of the action shall not be changed on the appeal, and the cause shall be so docketed at the commencement of the period assigned for trying causes from the judicial district from which the appeal comes, which causes shall take precedence of all other business, be tried at the term at which the transcript is filed, unless continued for cause or by consent of the parties, and be decided, if practicable, at the same term.

CODE SEC 14005. The personal appearance of the defendant in the supreme court on the trial of an appeal is in no case necessary.

CODE SEC 14006. An appeal shall not be dismissed for any informality or defect in taking it, if corrected in a reasonable time; and the supreme court must direct how it shall be corrected.
RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT AND RELATED STATUTES

CODE SEC. 14007. No assignment of error is necessary.
CODE SEC. 14008. The defendant is entitled to close the argument.
CODE SEC. 14009. The record and case may be presented in the supreme court by printed abstracts, arguments, motions, and petitions for rehearing as provided by its rules; and the provisions of law in civil procedure relating to certification of the record and the filing of decisions and opinions of the supreme court shall apply in such cases.
CODE SEC. 14010. If the appeal is taken by the defendant, the supreme court must examine the record, without regard to technical errors or defects which do not affect the substantial rights of the parties, and render such judgment on the record as the law demands; it may affirm, reverse, or modify the judgment, or render such judgment as the district court should have done, or order a new trial, or reduce the punishment, but cannot increase it.

CODE SEC. 14011. In case the judgment of the trial court is reversed or modified in favor of the defendant, the appeal of defendant, he shall be entitled to recover the cost of printing abstracts and briefs, not exceeding one dollar for each page thereof, to be paid by the county from which the appeal was taken.

RULE 32. If the appellant desires to submit a criminal case upon a printed abstract and brief and argument, he shall serve on the attorney general and upon the clerk of this court a notice to that effect and shall file the same with the clerk of this court before the day set for the submission of said case, and said cause shall then be automatically continued for submission to the next succeeding term of this court. In that event the appellant shall serve and file his abstract and his brief and argument at least 30 days before the day then assigned for the submission of said cause, and the appellee shall serve and file its denial or amendment to the abstract and its brief and argument at least 15 days before the day assigned for the submission of said cause. If no such notice, as herein provided, is served, or if the appellant fails to serve and file his abstract and his brief and argument as provided herein said cause shall be submitted upon the record unless an extension of time to file has been previously granted.

The provisions of the code and rules of this court in civil procedure relating to the printing, serving, and filing of abstracts, denials, arguments, motions and resistances thereto, the certification of the record and the filing of decisions and opinions, shall apply in criminal cases in so far as the same are consistent with section 14004 of the code and this rule.

CODE SEC. 14012. If the state appeals, the supreme court cannot reverse or modify the judgment so as to increase the punishment, but may affirm it, and shall point out any error in the proceedings or in the measure of punishment, and its decision shall be obligatory as law.

CODE SEC. 14013. If a judgment against the defendant is reversed, such reversal shall be deemed an order for a new trial, unless the supreme court shall direct that the defendant be discharged and his bail exonerated, or if money be deposited instead, that it be refunded to him.

CODE SEC. 14014. On a judgment of affirmance against the defendant, the original judgment shall be carried into execution as the supreme court shall direct, except as otherwise provided.

CODE SEC. 14016. The decision of the supreme court, with any opinion filed or judgment rendered, must be recorded by its clerk, and, after the expiration of the period allowed for a rehearing, or as ordered by the court or provided by its rules, a certified copy of the decision and opinion shall be transmitted to the clerk of the trial court, filed and entered of record by him, and thereafter the jurisdiction of the supreme court shall cease, and all proceedings necessary for executing the judgment shall be had in the trial court, or by its clerk.

CODE SEC. 14017. Unless some proceeding in the district court is directed, a copy of the judgment of the trial court and decision on appeal, or of the judgment and decision on appeal certified by the clerk of the trial court, shall be delivered to the sheriff, or other proper officer, as an execution, and shall authorize him to execute the judgment of the court, or take any steps required to bring the action to a conclusion.

CODE SEC. 14018. If a defendant, imprisoned during the pendency of an appeal, upon a new trial ordered by the supreme court is again convicted, the period of his former imprisonment shall be deducted from the period of imprisonment to be fixed on the last verdict of conviction.

CONSTRUCTION AND MODIFICATION OF RULES

RULE 33. When, by reason of peculiar circumstances, the foregoing rules relating to the abstract, preparation, and argument of causes, ought to be waived or modified in any case, the party desiring such waiver or modification may, upon reasonable notice to the adverse party, apply to any judge of this court in vacation, or to the court in term time, for an order directing the waiver or modification desired. The application shall be in writing, shall set out the peculiar facts relied upon by the applicant, and shall be verified by the party or person having knowledge of the facts, and certified by counsel as being true and made in good faith. The order upon such application shall be in writing, and shall be filed with the clerk of this court. In no case will these rules be waived or modified upon agreement of counsel alone.

PRINTING ABSTRACTS, BRIEFS, ARGUMENTS, AND PETITIONS FOR REHEARING

RULE 34. All abstracts, denials of abstracts, briefs, arguments, and petitions for rehearing shall be printed upon unruled, unglazed writing paper, with type commonly known as small pica, leaded lines, the printed page to be four inches wide by seven inches long, with a margin of two inches; but the type in which extracts are printed may be small pica solid or brevier with leaded lines. The lines of abstracts must be numbered consecutively on each page.

CONTINUANCES

RULE 35. Causes not fully argued at the period of the term to which they are assigned may be continued on the court's own motion. Causes may also be continued upon stipulation of parties. If notice of oral argument has been given, the cause will be for oral argument at the term to which continued.
DEATHS OF THE SUPREME COURT AND RELATED STATUTES

CODE Sec. 12810. When the court is equally divided in opinion, the judgment of the court below shall stand affirmed, but the decision is not final until the written decision is filed with the clerk.

CODE Sec. 12813. The decisions of the court on all questions passed upon by it, including motions and points of practice, shall be specifically stated, and shall be accompanied with an opinion upon all such as are deemed of sufficient importance, together with any dissent therefrom, which dissent may be stated with or without an opinion. All decisions and opinions shall be in writing and filed with the clerk, except that rulings upon motions may be entered upon the announcement book.

CODE Sec. 12814. The records and reports must in all cases show whether a decision was made by a full bench, and whether any, and if so which of the judges dissented from the decision.

RULE 36. Each and every opinion filed shall show, on its face, what judges participated therein.

RULE 37. No procedendo shall issue in any case until the expiration of thirty days from the filing of the opinion, except upon an order of the court, or a judge thereof, upon cause shown, and except in criminal cases and cases where petitions for rehearing have been overruled.

REHEARINGS

CODE Sec. 12881. Written notice of intention to petition for a rehearing shall be served on the opposite party or his attorney and the clerk of the supreme court within thirty days after the filing of the opinion, or within such time as the court may by rule prescribe.

CODE Sec. 12882. Such petition shall be printed, and, with proof of service thereof on the opposite party or his attorney, shall be filed with said clerk within sixty days after the opinion is filed.

CODE Sec. 12883. The petition may be made the argument or a brief of authorities relied upon for rehearing. The adverse party may file a printed argument in response. If the party applying for a rehearing shall give notice of oral argument in his petition, then both parties shall be entitled to be heard orally, unless the party giving notice waives argument.

CODE Sec. 12880. If a petition for rehearing is filed, it shall suspend the decision, if the court or one of the judges upon its presentation so order, until after the final decision on the rehearing.

RULE 38. The petition shall include a copy of the opinion or decision of the court to which objection is made, or reference to the volume and page of the Northwestern Reporter in which it has been printed. Eighteen copies of the petition and argument in support thereof, including service copy, shall be filed with the clerk.

RULE 39. If there be a printed argument in resistance to the petition, a copy thereof shall be served upon the opposing litigant or his attorney, and filed ten days before the day fixed for the hearing of the cause, and eighteen copies, including the service copy, shall be filed with the clerk of this court.

RULE 40. The cause shall be placed on the docket for hearing at the next period commencing not less than thirty days after the service and filing of the petition, and shall be heard by the division to which the case was originally submitted.

EXECUTIONS

CODE Sec. 12875. If the supreme court affirms the judgment or order, it may send the cause to the court below to have the same carried into effect, or may issue the necessary process for this purpose, directed to the sheriff of the proper county, as the party may require.

CODE Sec. 12876. If remanded to the inferior court to be carried into effect, such decision and the order of the court thereon, being certified thereto and entered on the records thereof, shall have the same force and effect as if made and entered during the session of that court.

CODE Sec. 12877. If, by the decision of the supreme court, the appellant becomes entitled to a restoration of any part of the money or property that was taken from him by means of such judgment or order, either the supreme court or the court below may direct execution or writ of restitution to issue for the purpose of restoring to him such property or its value.

CODE Sec. 12888. Executions issued from the supreme court shall be like those from the district court, attended with the same consequences, and returnable in the same time.

DISTRIBUTION OF PRINTED MATTER

RULE 41. The clerk shall make the following distribution of all printed abstracts, denials of abstracts, briefs, and arguments received under the foregoing rules: One copy to each judge of the court, one copy to the state library, one copy to the law department of the state university, one copy to the law department of Drake University, and the remainder shall be placed in his office, one copy of which shall remain permanently among the files.

RETURN OF PAPERS AND EXHIBITS

CODE Sec. 12856. If a new trial is granted by the supreme court, the clerk, as soon as the cause is at an end therein, shall transmit to the clerk of the court below all original papers or exhibits certified up from said court, and may at any time return any such papers when no new trial is awarded.

RULE 42. If decree is entered in this court, either party desire to withdraw any of the said files may, by motion, showing proper grounds therefor, and upon five days' notice to the other party or his attorney, secure an order from the court or a judge thereof, allowing him to do so upon filing a receipt for the same with the clerk of this court.

COSTS

CODE Sec. 12874. The supreme court must provide by rule for taxing as costs all printing authorized upon the trial of appeals. The court shall also tax the costs of any translation of the shorthand notes filed as provided in this chapter, and also any translation of the shorthand notes which has been made of record in the court below, upon the certificate of the clerk of such court as to the amount of such costs.

Code Sec. 12846. If any denial or abstract is filed without good and sufficient cause, the costs of the same or any part thereof, and of any transcript thereby made necessary, shall be taxed to the party causing the same.

Rule 43. When the parties or their attorneys shall furnish printed abstracts, denials of abstracts, amendments, briefs, arguments, or petitions for rehearing in conformity to these rules, the clerk will tax the actual cost of printing the same, which shall not exceed one dollar for each page embraced in a single copy thereof, and when not so prepared and printed shall not exceed the sum of one dollar for every three hundred and seventy-five words, which in no event shall exceed one dollar per page, against the unsuccessful party not furnishing the document, to be collected and paid to the successful party as other costs. It is made the duty of every party who files any printed matter for which cost of printing is claimed, to state at the end of the document in writing or in print and have certified by his attorney as being correct, the true and actual cost of the printing of the same and no costs will be taxed for such printing unless this statement and certificate be made.

Rule 44. Whenever the translation of the shorthand notes is required to be filed in this court, the clerk shall tax as part of the costs in the case the expense of procuring the same, which shall not exceed the rate of five cents per hundred words. If the amount paid or agreed to be paid is not stated in the translation so filed, the clerk shall tax at the statutory rate.

Rule 45. All other taxable fees and costs shall abide the result of the appeal and be taxed to the unsuccessful party, unless otherwise ordered.

TABLE OF CORRESPONDING SECTIONS
OF THE
FORTY-FIRST GENERAL ASSEMBLY

This table shows the sections of the code which correspond in subject matter with the sections of the acts of the 41st general assembly which constituted new or substituted legislation. The table also shows the sections of the code which contain the amendments of said general assembly.

(An asterisk () indicates that the session law citation thus marked is an amendment to some section of the code, and that the code section indicated in the right-hand column shows such section of law as amended by said session law citation, plus such changes as are indicated in the right-center column. A dagger (†) shows part of citation treated as amendment to existing law and part treated as new legislation. The session law citations which are not marked with an asterisk () or dagger (†) consist of either new or substituted legislation.

The omission of a chapter or section number from either of the two left-hand columns, unless otherwise indicated, shows that the same is temporary, special, legalizing, or repealing in character and, therefore, does not appear in the code.

An entry in the right-center column shows an amendment, substitute, or repeal of the session law citation in the left-hand column. "A." indicates an amendment; "R&S." indicates a repeal and substitution.)

TABLE OF CORRESPONDING SECTIONS OF THE FORTY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY

This table shows the sections of the code which correspond in subject matter with the sections of the acts of the 42nd general assembly, which constituted new or substituted legislation. The table also shows the sections of the code which contain the amendments of said general assembly.

[The omission of a chapter or section number from the left-hand or center columns, unless otherwise indicated, shows that the same is temporary, special, legalizing, or repealing in character and does not appear in the code.

An asterisk () indicates that the session law citation thus marked is an amendment to some section of the code, or acts of the 41st general assembly, and that the section indicated in the right-hand column shows such section of law as amended by said session law citation. A dagger (†) shows part of citation treated as amendment to existing law and part treated as new legislation. The session law citations which are not marked with an asterisk () or dagger (†) consist of either new or substituted legislation.]

AMENDMENT TO CONSTITUTION OF IOWA

Art. III, Sec. 34. Agreed to by 41st and 42nd G.A. Ratified at general election in 1928.
TABLE OF CORRESPONDING SECTIONS
FORTY-THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY

This table shows the sections of the code which correspond in subject matter with the sections of the acts of the 43rd general assembly which constituted new or substituted legislation. The table also shows the sections of the code which contain the amendments of said general assembly.

[An asterisk () indicates that the session law citation thus marked is an amendment to some section of the code, and that the code section indicated in the right-hand column shows such section of law as amended by said session law citation, plus such changes as are indicated in the right-center column. A dagger (†) shows part of citation treated as amendment to existing law and part treated as new legislation. The session law citations which are not marked with an asterisk () or dagger (†) consist of either new or substituted legislation.

This table shows the sections of the code which correspond in subject matter with the sections of the acts of the 44th general assembly, which constituted new or substituted legislation. The table also shows the sections of the code which contain the amendments of said general assembly.

The omission of a chapter or section number from the left-hand or center columns, unless otherwise indicated, shows that the same is temporary, special, legalizing or repealing in character and does not appear in the code.

An asterisk () indicates that the session law citation marked is an amendment to some section of the code, or acts of the 43rd general assembly, and that the section indicated in the right-hand column shows such section of law as amended by said session law citation. A dagger (†) shows part of citation treated as amendment to existing law and part treated as new legislation. The session law citations which are not marked with an asterisk () or dagger (†) consist of either new or substituted legislation.

†Part of this citation treated as amendment to existing law and part treated as new legislation.

‡Omitted. See Mathews v. Turner; opinion filed May 5, 1931.
This table shows the sections of the Code of 1924 which were amended, repealed, or substituted by the 41st and 42nd General Assemblies, and the section or sections in the Code of 1927 which correspond in subject matter. The table also shows, at the proper places by entries in italics, the numbers given to the new legislation enacted by the 41st and 42nd General Assemblies. This table, however, is not to be used for the purpose of finding such legislation in the Code, 1927, as there are special tables for this purpose (pp. 1710-1718) preceding this table. The omission of a section number in the left-hand column indicates that the omitted section appears in the Code, 1927, in identically the same form as in the Code, 1924.

TABLE OF CORRESPONDING SECTIONS

OF THE

CODE, 1927, AND CODE, 1931

This table shows the sections of the Code of 1927 which were amended, repealed, or substituted by the 42nd extra, 43rd and 44th general assemblies, and the section or sections in the Code of 1931 which correspond in subject matter.

The table also shows, at the proper places by entries in italics, the numbers given to the new legislation enacted by the 42nd extra, 43rd and 44th general assemblies. This table, however, is not to be used for the purpose of finding such legislation in the Code, 1931, as there are special tables for this purpose (pp. 1718-1730) preceding this table. The omission of a section number in the left-hand column indicates that the omitted section appears in the Code, 1931, in identically the same form as in the Code, 1927.

INDEXER'S PREFATORY NOTE, CODE, 1924

The index herewith submitted follows no "scientific" principles of construction: It has been prepared on the general assumption that its users have never taken a course of training in the manipulation of indexes. As far as was reasonably possible, the compiler has tried to insure searchers for the law against the necessity of minutely analyzing and classifying the law before consulting the index. To light the searcher on his way, numerous cross references have been inserted and the following simple rules are also offered:

1. Large subjects like Cities, Railroad Corporations, Taxation, and many others have been divided whenever possible and appear consecutively under separate index heads. Examples: CITIES AND TOWNS, CITY ATTORNEY, CITY OR TOWN BONDS, CITY OR TOWN BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS, CITY OR TOWN FUNDS, CITY OR TOWN ORDINANCES, CITY OR TOWN TREASURER, and the like; RAILROAD CORPORATIONS, RAILROAD CROSSINGS, RAILROAD RATES AND CHARGES, RAILROAD SHIPMENTS, and RAILROAD TRAINS; TAX ASSESSMENTS, TAX COLLECTIONS BY COUNTY TREASURER, TAX DEEDS, TAX EXEMPTIONS, TAX LEVIES OF CITIES AND TOWNS, TAX LEVIES OF COUNTIES, and TAX LIENS.

2. Civil Procedure and Criminal Procedure have been broken up into their elements and presented under appropriate heads throughout the index. Examples: CHANGE OF VENUE, CONTINUANCES, INSTRUCTIONS TO JURY, JOINDER OF ACTIONS, MOTIONS, PARTIES TO ACTIONS, PLEADINGS, TRIAL OF CIVIL ACTIONS, VERDICTS, WITNESSES, and the like.

3. The headings are in general stated in the form of nouns, the suggestive word coming first. Examples: DEAF, SCHOOL FOR; EDUCATION, STATE BOARD OF.

4. Adjectives appear first only when they are the significant or key words of the matter looked for. Examples: ORIGINAL NOTICE, CITY OR TOWN CLERK, COUNTY AUDITOR, DISTRICT COURT, SCHOOL DIRECTORS, INSURANCE DEPARTMENT, DISTRIBUTIVE SHARE.

5. All law applicable to special charter cities is grouped under one head, CITIES UNDER SPECIAL CHARTERS.

6. Criminal law appears under such particular index heads as ARSON, MURDER, and the like; also under such heads as DAIRY PRODUCTS, subhead "Penal provisions"; EMPLOYERS, subhead "Penal offenses"; CORPORATIONS, subhead "Penal offenses".

If any matter is found to be too deeply submerged in this index and can be made more readily accessible or if errors are discovered, kindly notify the code editor whose duty it is to prepare and publish a new code index every four years. Constructive criticism and concrete suggestions are invited and needed in order to have a better index in the future.

CRIMINAL LAW

For specific offenses see appropriate index heads.
On account of the difficulty of designating statutory crimes very much criminal law must be found under the names of agencies, officers, or persons committing the offense or under the name of the thing the law relating to which has been violated. Such criminal law can be located under the subheads “Penal offenses” or “Penal provisions” of particular index heads.
