[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §1864; C46, §114.11]

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §1866; C46, §114.13]

1. As a professional engineer:
   a. Graduation from an approved course in engineering of four years or more in an approved school or college; and a specific record of an additional two years or more of practical experience in engineering work of a character satisfactory to the board.
   b. Successfully passing a written, or written and oral, examination designed to show knowledge and skill approximating that attained through graduation from an approved four year engineering course; and a specific record of six years or more of practical experience in engineering work.

2. As a land surveyor:

a. Graduation from an approved course in surveying in an approved school or college; and an additional two years or more of practical experience in land surveying work.

b. Successfully passing a written, or written and oral, examination in surveying prescribed by the board; and a specific record of six years or more of practical experience in land surveying work. The practical experience required in this section may be obtained under the exemption provisions of section 114.29.

In considering the qualifications of applicants, responsible charge of engineering teaching may be construed as responsible charge of engineering work. The satisfactory completion of each year of an approved course in engineering in an approved school or college, without graduation, shall be considered as equivalent to a year of practical experience. Graduation in a course other than engineering from a college or university of recognized standing shall be considered as equivalent to two years of practical experience; provided, however, that no applicant shall receive credit for more than four years of practical experience because of educational qualifications.

Any person having the necessary qualifications prescribed in this chapter to entitle him to registration shall be eligible for such registration though he may not be practicing his profession at the time of making his application.

The scope of the examinations and the methods of procedure shall be prescribed by the board. As soon as practicable, after the close of each examination, a report shall be filed in the office of the secretary of the board by the members conducting such examinations. Said report shall show the action of the board upon each application, whereupon the secretary of the board shall notify each applicant of the result of his examination. Each registrant shall provide himself with a suitable seal with a uniform inscription thereon formulated by the board, with which he shall stamp all plans, specifications, surveys, and reports made or issued by him. A certificate of registration provided for in this chapter shall be presumptive evidence that the person named therein is legally registered. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §1868; C46, §114.16]

114.17 Certificate. To any applicant who shall have passed the examination as a professional engineer and who shall have paid an additional fee of ten dollars, the board shall issue a certificate of registration as a professional engineer signed by the chairman and secretary of the board under the seal of such board, which certificate shall authorize the applicant to practice professional engineering as defined in this chapter. Such certificate shall not carry with it the right to practice land surveying, unless specifically so stated in said certificate, which permission shall be granted by the board without additional fee in cases where the applicant duly qualifies as a land surveyor as prescribed by the rules of said board. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §1869; C46, §114.17]

114.18 Expirations and renewals. Certificates of registration shall expire on the last day of the month of December following their issuance or renewal and shall become invalid on that date unless renewed. It shall be the duty of the secretary of the board to notify every person registered under this chapter, of the date of expiration of his certificate and the amount of the fee that shall be required for its renewal for one year; such notice shall be mailed at least one month in advance of the date of the expiration of said certificate. Renewal may be effected at any time during the month of December by the payment of a fee of two dollars. The failure on the part of any registrant to renew his certificate annually in the month of December as required above shall not deprive such a person of the right of renewal, but the fee to be paid for the renewal of a certificate after the month of December shall be increased two dollars per year for each year or fraction of a year that payment of renewal is delayed; provided, however, that the maximum fee for delayed renewal shall not exceed the dollars. For the duration of any war in which the United States is engaged the board may, in its discretion, defer the collection of renewal fees without penalty, which have or may become due from registered professional engineers who are employed in the war effort, and residing outside the state, or who are members of the armed forces of the United States, and may renew the engineering certificates of said registered professional engineers. [C27, 31, 35, §1869-b1; C39, §1869.1; C46, §114.18]

To any applicant who shall have passed the examination as a land surveyor and who shall have paid an additional fee of ten dollars, the board shall issue a certificate of registration signed by its chairman and secretary under the seal of the board, which certificate shall authorize the applicant to practice land surveying as defined in this chapter and to administer oaths to his assistants and to witnesses produced for examination, with reference to facts connected with land surveys being made by such land surveyor. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §1870; C46, §114.19]

The secretary of the board upon presentation to him of satisfactory evidence, by any person, that he holds a certificate of registration issued to him by proper authority in any state, territory or country so recorded, and upon the receipt of a fee of ten dollars, shall issue to such person a certificate of registration to practice professional engineering or land surveying as provided by this chapter, signed by the chairman and the secretary under the seal of the board, whereupon the person to whom such certificate is issued shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges conferred by the certificate issued after examination by the board. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §1871; C46, §114.20]

114.21 Revocation of certificate. The board shall have the power by a four-fifths vote of the entire board to revoke the certificate of any professional engineer or land surveyor registered hereunder, found guilty of any fraud or deceit in his practice, or guilty of any fraud or deceit in obtaining his certificate, or in case he is found by the same vote to be incompetent. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §1872; C46, §114.21]

114.25 Violations. With respect to such corporations all principal designing or constructing engineers shall hold certificates of registration hereunder. This chapter shall not apply to corporations engaged solely in building said work. This chapter shall not apply to any professional engineer or land surveyor working for the United States government, nor to any professional engineer or land surveyor employed as an assistant to a professional engineer or land surveyor registered under this chapter, nor to the operation and/or maintenance of power and mechanical plants or systems, nor to any professional engineer or land surveyor from without this state until a reasonable length of time as prescribed by the rules of the board shall have elapsed to permit the registration of such a person under this chapter, provided that, before practicing within this state, he shall have applied for the issuance to him of a certificate of registration and shall have paid the fee prescribed in this chapter. Such guardian may be removed or discharged at any time by said court, or the judge thereof in vacation, and a new guardian

All such operations shall be performed with due regard for the physical condition of the person upon whom it is performed and in a safe and humane manner. [C31, §2437-cl3; C39, §2437.13; C46, §145.13]

In case the person to be operated upon be feeble-minded or insane, the consent hereinbefore mentioned in section 145.13 shall be construed to mean the written consent of such person's legal guardian, or if such person has no legal guardian, then the written consent of such person's nearest known kin or personal friend within the state of Iowa, or if such person be insane, or feeble-minded, and has neither legal guardian nor known kin or personal friend within the state of Iowa, then the written consent of the guardian appointed by the court for such person as provided in this chapter. [C31, §2437-cl4; C39, §2437.14; C46, §145.14]

If any such person shall not consent, within twenty days from the service of such order upon him, to the performance of such operation, said board of eugenics, through its secretary, or other officer having charge of its records and files, within fifteen days thereafter, or such further time as the court or judge thereof may allow, shall file a transcript of its proceedings and of its said findings, conclusions, and order with reference to said person with the clerk of the district court of the county in which such person resides or may be found. [C31, §2437-cl5; C39, §2437.15; C46, §145.15]

Upon the filing of such findings, conclusions, and order, the clerk of the district court shall issue a summons directed to such person and deliver the same to the sheriff, together with a copy of such order prepared and certified by him, and it shall be the duty of said sheriff to forthwith serve said summons and copy of order upon said person therein named, who shall be required, within twenty days after such service upon him, to enter his appearance in writing with the clerk of the district court in such case or by appearing in person before said clerk, who shall thereupon enter the appearance of such person in such proceeding. If he be an insane or feeble-minded person such appearance may be made by his guardian, if he have one; if not, then by his nearest of kin or near friend. If he be confined in an institution, facility shall be furnished him for making such appearance. [C31, §2437-cl6; C39, §2437.16; C46, §145.16]

145.17 Court procedure. The issue thereby raised shall be whether the findings and conclusions of said board shall be affirmed by the court, and shall be tried in the district court of said county, as a special proceeding, in the same manner as a civil action at law in which the state shall be the plaintiff and the person so summoned shall be the defendant. Each party shall have the same rights as to production of evidence and the case shall be tried in the same manner as any other civil action. In all such cases the county attorney of the county where such proceedings are tried shall appear and prosecute such action on behalf of the state. If the defendant has no attorney and he is unable to secure one, the court shall appoint an attorney from the membership of the bar of said county to conduct his defense, and appeal, if any be taken as hereinbefore provided, and such attorney shall be compensated by the state, upon order of the court. Upon the request of either party to such proceeding all questions of fact shall be tried by a jury and the court in every instance shall have the testimony fully reported at the expense of the state. If the findings and conclusions of the state board of eugenics shall be affirmed by the court, the defendant shall be immediately placed in custody by the sheriff of said county, and may be admitted to bail by the court, who shall fix the amount of such bail, and if not so admitted to bail, shall be held until the operation provided in such findings be performed. [C31, §2437-cl8; C39, §2437.18; C46, §145.18]

145.19 Appeal. Either party to said proceedings may take an appeal from the district court to the supreme court of this state in the same manner and within the same time and with like effect as appeals in other civil actions are taken, and such case shall be tried in the supreme court in the same manner as other appeals in actions at law. If the defendant be represented by an attorney appointed by the court, and, in the opinion of the court, is financially unable to meet his part of the expense of an appeal, the defendant's actual and necessary expense of such appeal and prosecution thereof to final decree by the supreme court shall be paid by the state upon order of said district court, same to be paid out of the general funds of the state not otherwise appropriated. 145.21 Selection of physician. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to empower or authorize the state board of eugenics or its representatives, or the state health officer, or his representatives, or the superintendent of any of the institutions mentioned, or his representatives, to interfere in any manner with the individual's right to select the physician of his choice; provided, that such physician is in the judgment of the state board of eugenics competent to perform such operation; nor to interfere with the practice of any person whose religion treats or administers to the sick or suffering by purely spiritual means; provided that such practice, treatment or administration shall not in any way interfere with the operation of this chapter, and the carrying out of its purposes. 4. Noxious weed seeds shall be divided into two classes, “primary noxious weed seeds” and “secondary noxious weed seeds” which are defined in a and b of this subsection; provided that the secretary of agriculture, upon recommendation of the state botanist, may add to or subtract from the list of seeds included under either definition whenever he finds, after public hearing, that such additions or subtractions are within the respective definitions.

a. Primary noxious weed seeds are the seeds of perennial weeds such as those that not only reproduce by seed but also by underground roots or stems and which when established are highly destructive and difficult to control in this state by ordinary good cultural practices. Primary noxious weeds in this state are the seeds of:

   1. Quack grass—Agropyron repens
   2. Canada thistle—Cirsium arvense

6. "Tolerance" means the allowable deviation from any figure used on a label to designate the percentage of any fraction in the lot in question. It is based on the law of normal variation from a mean. The secretary of agriculture shall prepare tables of maximum tolerances allowable in the enforcement of this chapter and may be guided in such preparation by the rules and regulations under the federal seed act.

7. "Treated seed" shall mean agricultural seed to which a fungicide has been added or applied for the purpose of controlling pathogens that cause crop diseases.

8. "Inoculant for leguminous plants" shall mean any bacterial culture, or material containing bacteria, that is represented as causing the formation of nodules and aiding the growth of leguminous plants by the fixation of nitrogen.

9. The term "labeling" includes all labels, and other written, printed, or graphic representations, in any form whatsoever, accompanying and pertaining to any seed whether in bulk or in containers, and includes invoices.

10. The term "advertisement" means all representations, other than those on the label, disseminated in any manner or by any means, relating to seed within the scope of this chapter. [S13, §§5077-a14-a17; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3127, 3128; C46, §199.1]

   c. Origin, if known, of alfalfa, red clover.
   If the origin is unknown, that fact shall be stated.
   d. Percentage by weight of all weed seeds.

b. Available phosphoric acid, percent.
c. Available potash, percent.

4. Name and address of the person guaranteeing the registration.

In the case of bone, tankage, natural mineral phosphates, or other unacidulated phosphatic fertilizer materials in which the phosphoric acid is not shown by laboratory methods to be available but may eventually become available in the soil, the phosphoric acid may be guaranteed as total phosphoric acid. If the term “available phosphoric acid” be used in the statement of analysis, it shall mean the sum of the water soluble and citrate soluble phosphoric acid, except that when applied to basic slag or calcined phosphates the term “available” shall mean that part of the phosphoric acid found available by the Wagner citric acid method as adopted by the association of official agricultural chemists. In no case shall both the total phosphoric acid and available phosphoric acid be used in the same statement of analysis; except in the case of unacidulated mineral phosphates, when both the available and total phosphoric acid shall be guaranteed.

The person offering for sale or selling any mixed fertilizer or fertilizer material which is branded or trade-marked shall not be required to register the same if it has already been registered under this chapter by the person entitled to do so and such registration is then outstanding.

For the privilege of registration, the person applying therefor shall pay to the secretary in advance of registration twenty-five dollars for said brand or trade-mark used to designate his fertilizers.

Said registration shall expire on July 1 following its issuance. Said registration or a renewal thereof may be renewed for the period of one year by payment of a renewal fee of one dollar.

The secretary shall issue at least once a year in his printed annual report a classified list of all registrations outstanding and in force, showing the name and address of the registrant, whether operating as an Individual, partnership, association, or corporation, name of material manufactured or dealt in, characteristics of business, and date of issue and term of the registration. The information may either be branded or printed directly on the bag or other shipping container, or may be printed on a tag, label, or certificate which shall be affixed to the shipping container or otherwise associated with the shipment, as provided in this section.

If shipped in bags, barrels, or other contain-ers commonly used, the data required by subsection 2 of section 200.4 shall be printed (1) either directly on the package, or (2) on tags to be affixed to the package by the manufacturer.

If shipped in bulk by rail, the data shall be printed on a suitable label which shall be fastened on the inside wall of the car near the door.

If shipped in bulk by truck, wagon, or other vehicle, the information required by this section shall be attached to the copy of the invoice delivered to the purchaser or other receiver. [S13,§2528-f; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3142; C46,§200.5]

It shall be unlawful for any person to make any false and misleading representation in regard to any commercial fertilizer or fertilizer material shipped, sold or offered for sale by him in this state, or to use any misleading or deceptive trade-mark or brand name in connection therewith. The secretary is hereby authorized to refuse registration for any commercial fertilizer or fertilizer material with respect to which this section is violated. [C46,§200.11]

200.12 Bulk materials. Nothing in this chapter shall abridge the right of a consumer of commercial fertilizer to buy bulk materials from any manufacturer or dealer for his own use, provided the registration fee and tonnage tax have been paid thereon if subject thereto, and that the provisions of this chapter otherwise in respect to such materials have been complied with. [C46,§200.12]

200.13 Departmental regulations. For the enforcement of this chapter the secretary is authorized to prepare and issue such regulations not inconsistent with this chapter as may be necessary, and to co-operate with any department or agency of the government of the state as he may elect in their enforcement. 2. If it purports to be or is represented as a drug the name of which is recognized in an official compendium, and its strength differs from, or its quality or purity falls below, the standard set forth in such compendium. Such determination as to strength, quality, or purity shall be made in accordance with the tests or methods of assay set forth in such compendium, or in the absence of or inadequacy of such tests or methods of assay, those prescribed under authority of the federal Act. No drug defined in an official compendium shall be deemed to be adulterated under this paragraph because it differs from the standard of strength, quality, or purity thereof set forth in such compendium if its difference in strength, quality, or purity from such standard is plainly stated on its label. Whenever a drug is recognized in both the United States Pharmacopoeia and the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States it will be subject to the requirements of the United States Pharmacopoeia unless it is labeled and offered for sale as a homeopathic drug, in which case it shall be subject to the provisions of the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States and not to those of the United States Pharmacopoeia.

3. If any word, statement, or other information required by or under authority of this chapter to appear on the label or labeling is not prominently placed thereon with such conspicuousness (as compared with other words, statements, designs or devices, in the labeling) and in such terms as to render it likely to be read and understood by the ordinary individual under customary conditions of purchase and use.

7. If it purports to be a drug the name of which is recognized in an official compendium, unless it is packaged and labeled as prescribed therein; provided, that the method of packing may be modified with the consent of the board. Whenever a drug is recognized in both the United States Pharmacopoeia and the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, it shall be subject to the requirements of the United States Pharmacopoeia with respect to packaging and labeling unless it is labeled and offered for sale as a homeopathic drug, in which case it shall be subject to the provisions of the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, and not to those of the United States Pharmacopoeia.

8. If it is found by the board to be a drug liable to deterioration, unless it is packaged in such form and manner, and its label bears a statement of such precautions, as the board shall by regulations require as necessary for the protection of public health. No such regulation shall be established for any drug recognized in an official compendium until the board shall have informed the appropriate body charged with the revision of such compendium of the need for such packaging or labeling requirements and such body shall have failed within a reasonable time to prescribe such requirements.

9. (a) If it is a drug and its container is so made, formed, or filled as to be misleading; or (b) if it is an imitation of another drug; or (c) if it is offered for sale under the name of another drug.

a. Such doctor, dentist or veterinarian is licensed by law to administer such drug, and

b. Such drug bears a label containing the name and place of business of the seller, the serial number and date of such prescription, and the name of the doctor, dentist or veterinarian.

208.1 Definitions. As used in this chapter:

1. The term “illuminating oil” shall mean all products known or sold as kerosene and any petroleum product sold for use in atmospheric pressure wickfed illuminating apparatus.

2. The term “department” shall mean the department of agriculture of the state of Iowa and shall include the authorized agents of such department. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3191; C46, §208.1; 52GA, ch 108, §§1, 2]
§208.2 Illuminating oil tested. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale or use any illuminating oil in this state unless it has first been sampled for testing by the department as hereinafter provided, nor if the same, upon being tested by the department as hereinafter prescribed, emits a combustible vapor at a temperature of less than one hundred degrees Fahrenheit. [C73,§§3901; C97, §§2505, 2506; S15,§2508; SS15,§2505; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3197, 3202; C46, §§208.7, 208.12; 52GA, ch 108, §1, 3]

§208.3 Sampling. Illuminating oil stored in any tank at or adjacent to a refinery or marine or pipe-line terminal in this state, from which same is withdrawn for sale or use in this state or for distribution to destinations in this state, shall be sampled for testing by the department whenever the stock in such tank is replenished. After replenishment of any such stock, no withdrawals shall be made therefrom for sale or use in this state or for shipment or delivery to points in this state, until a true sample of not less than sixteen fluid ounces is taken therefrom as hereinafter prescribed. Every person storing illuminating oil in such tanks shall notify the department of each consignment by which the stock in such tanks will be replenished. Illuminating oil imported into this state (other than that placed in storage at refineries or marine or pipe-line terminals in this state) shall not be unloaded or emptied from its original container or sold or offered for sale or used in this state until a sample of not less than sixteen fluid ounces is taken therefrom as hereinafter prescribed; provided that if such illuminating oil has been previously sampled or tested by the department, the same may be unloaded, emptied, sold, offered for sale or used. Every person receiving or about to receive illuminating oil so imported into this state which has not been previously sampled or tested as hereinafter provided shall notify the department of the receipt or anticipated receipt of each consignment thereof.

If such replenishment or receipt of illuminating oil occurs during the usual business hours of any regular business day, notice thereof (unless previously given stating the approximate date of anticipated replenishment or receipt) shall be given to the department forthwith. If such replenishment or receipt occurs outside usual business hours, such notice shall be given during the first usual business hour thereafter. For the purposes of this chapter, usual business hours shall be between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. on any regular business day except Saturday and between 8 a.m. and 12 noon on Saturday. Sundays and legal holidays shall not be considered regular business days.

If, after the stock of illuminating oil has been replenished in any tank at a refinery or marine or pipe-line terminal in this state, such replenished stock has not been sampled by the department prior to the time the first withdrawal therefrom is made, the custodian of such oil shall take a true sample thereof, of not less than sixteen fluid ounces, for testing by the department. If illuminating oil brought into this state (other than that imported by boat, barge, or pipe line for storage at a marine or pipe-line terminal in this state) has not been sampled by the department prior to the time the same is ready for unloading in this state, the receiver thereof shall take a true sample therefrom, of not less than sixteen fluid ounces, for testing by the department. All such samples shall be immediately placed in a clean container and sealed. Suitable containers and seals shall be furnished by the department. The person taking such sample or custodian shall record upon or with the seal thereon the date and the identity of the conveyance or container, from which the sample was taken, and the kind of product sampled, together with such other information as the department may reasonably require for the proper identification of such sample and the making of a proper inspection certificate. Such sample thus taken shall be mailed or held for delivery to the department as the department shall prescribe. After such sample is taken, such illuminating oil may be withdrawn, unloaded, sold, offered for sale, or used, the same as if sampled by the department.

The department may, upon agreement with the operator of any refinery or marine or pipe-line terminal outside this state, provide an inspector or appoint an agent to sample or to make tests of illuminating oil at such refinery or terminal for shipment or delivery into this state in which case the procedures prescribed in this chapter may be performed thereat in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if such refinery or terminal was within this state. [C97, §§2504–2506; S13, §§2504, 2505, 2510-3a; S815, §§2505, 2506; C24, 27, 31, 39, §§3193, 3198, 3199, 3208, 3209; C46, §§208.3, 208.8, 208.9, 208.18, 208.19; 52GA, ch 108, §§1, 4]

§208.4 Method of testing. All tests provided for in this chapter shall be conducted in accordance with the methods outlined by the American Society for Testing Materials—Method D-56 (A.S.T.M.) or with the Foster cup or Foster automatic oil tester. If Foster cup or Foster automatic oil tester is used, it shall be used in accordance with the following directions:

1. Remove the thermometer with its mountings from the oil cup.
2. Lift off the oil cup containing the flashing taper and fill open water bath with water to the mark upon the inside.
3. Take the wick holder from the oil cup, and fill this vessel with the oil to be tested, pouring in the oil at the place of the wick holder and noting the gauge mark at the thermometer hole, pouring very gradually as the surface approaches the gauge mark. The gauge mark consists of a small pendant shelf and the oil cup is properly filled when the upper surface of the oil just adheres to the lower surface of the gauge mark. Too much care cannot be taken at this point. Having ceased pouring, tip the cup so that the oil flows away from the gauge, then gradually restore it to the horizontal, and if the surface does not again adhere, add a little more oil.

4. Adjust the wick to the flashing taper to give a flame that does not exceed one-quarter of an inch in height and that exhibits as much blue at its base as yellow at its top.

5. Set the oil cup on top and into the water bath, return the flashing taper to its place, inverting the conical thimble around it, and return the thermometer to its place upon the cup. In doing this be sure that the casing of the latter is pushed down upon the cup as far as it will go.

6. Fill the lamp beneath half full of alcohol, light and place it beneath the water bath. Note the rate of increase in temperature as shown by the thermometer and adjust the wick to raise the temperature at the rate of two degrees per minute. When the temperature has reached eighty-five degrees, light the flashing taper and observe it closely. As soon as the oil under test has reached its "flashing point", the flame of this taper will be extinguished by the first "flash", and the point of attention is the temperature at the instant the flame of the taper is extinguished. This "flashing point" is the point of temperature at which the oil emits a combustible vapor.

The department shall determine which of the methods set out above shall be used in the inspection of kerosene, and shall by regulation prescribe the one method which shall be uniform in all kerosene inspections. [C97, §2504; S13, §2504; SS15, §2505; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3198; C46, §208.8, §52G, ch 108, §1, 5]

208.5 Records of department. The department shall keep such records as may be necessary for the purposes of this chapter or of all tests made by it of illuminating oil. Such records shall be open at all reasonable times to public inspection. The department shall furnish to the person for whom such tests are made a certificate of inspection covering each sample tested showing the date of such test, the identity of the conveyance or container from which the sample was taken, the kind of illuminating oil therein, the result of the test and inspection. [C97, §§2505, 2506; S13, §§2505, 2506; SS15, §§2505, 2506; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3190, 3215; C46, §§208.8, 208.25; §52G, ch 108, §1, 6]

208.6 Gasoline receptacles. No person shall place gasoline or any other petroleum product having a flash point below one hundred degrees Fahrenheit into any bottle, can, cask, barrel or other similar receptacle having a capacity in excess of one pint unless the same is painted bright red and is plainly marked with the word "gasoline" or with the warning "flammable—keep fire away" in red lettering of a height equal to at least one-tenth of the smallest dimension of such container. The foregoing shall not apply to vehicle cargo or supply tanks nor to underground storage nor to storage tanks from which such liquids are withdrawn for manufacturing purposes or are loaded into vehicle cargo tanks, but all outlet faucets or valves from such excepted containers shall be painted bright red and suitably tagged to indicate the nature of the product to be withdrawn therefrom. No person shall place illuminating oil in any container which is painted red nor shall illuminating oil be loaded or withdrawn through any piping which is used or designated as aforesaid for products having a flash point below one hundred degrees Fahrenheit. [C97, §§2505; S13, §§2510-1a, 2a-j-k; SS15, §§2505; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3194-3196; C46, §§208.4-208.8; §52G, ch 108, §§1, 7]

208.7 Commingled products. If any illuminating oil is commingled with any other product the entire commingled products shall be deemed uninspected and untested, and it shall be unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale, or use any such commingled product for illuminating purposes within this state unless and until the same has been inspected and approved for sale or use by the department. [C73, §§3901; C97, §§2505, 2508; S13, §§2508; SS15, §§2505; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3201-3203; C46, §§208.11-208.13; §52G, ch 108, §§1, 8]

208.8 Fees for inspection. Illuminating oil inspections provided for in this chapter shall be deemed to be made for, and fees therefor at the rate of one cent per barrel (fifty gallons) on all illuminating oil received shall be paid by the person who first received such illuminating oil in this state.

For the purposes of computing such fees, illuminating oil shall be deemed to be received in this state as follows:

1. If placed in storage at or adjacent to a refinery or a marine or pipe-line terminal in this state the same shall be deemed to be received when withdrawn from such storage for sale or use in this state or for transportation to destinations in this state other than for transfer to other refineries or marine or pipe-line terminals in this state and not before. When so withdrawn, such oil shall be deemed to be received by the person who was the owner thereof just prior to withdrawal. Provided that if such oil so withdrawn is shipped or delivered to a person engaged in the storage and distribution thereof by tank car or tank truck, such oil when so withdrawn shall be deemed to be received by such distributor.

2. If imported into this state (other than to a refinery or marine or pipe-line terminal in this state) the same shall be deemed to be received by the person who is the owner thereof immediately after the same is unloaded in this state.

On or before the last day of each calendar month, every person receiving illuminating oil in this state shall file with the department a report in such form and containing such information as the department shall prescribe as to each receipt or the total receipts of illuminating oil by such person in this state during the preceding calendar month and at the same time shall remit to the department the inspection fees thereon. Providing, however, that only one-half of the inspection fees shall be remitted on illuminating oil received and thereafter ported from this state, and if remitted in full, and if sold in this state shall contain any forcement of the gas or liquid fuel under which 208A.9 Prosecution.

208A.10 Fees remitted.

208A.12 Citation of chapter.

208A.1 Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires: (1) "Antifreeze" shall include all substances and preparations intended for use as the cooling medium, or to be added to the cooling liquid, in the cooling system of internal combustion engines to prevent freezing of the cooling liquid or to lower its freezing point; and
(2) "person" shall include individuals, partner­ships, corporations, companies and associa­tions. [53GA, ch 91,§1]

208A.2 What deemed adulterated. An anti­freeze shall be deemed to be adulterated: (1)
If it consists in whole or in part of any sub­stance which will render it injurious to the cooling system of an internal combustion en­gine or will make the operation of the engine dangerous to the user; or (2) if its strength, quality, or purity falls below the standard of strength, quality, or purity under which it is sold. [53GA, ch 91,§2]

208A.3 What deemed misbranded. An anti­freeze shall be deemed to be misbranded: (1)
If its labeling is false or misleading in any picular; or (2) if in package form it does not bear a label containing the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, seller or distributor and an accurate statement of the quantity of the contents in terms of weight or measure on the outside of the package. [53GA, ch 91,§3]

208A.4 Inspection by department. Before any antifreeze shall be sold, exposed for sale, or held with intent to sell within this state, a sample thereof must be inspected by the de­partment of agriculture. Upon application of the manufacturer, packer, seller or distributor and the payment of a fee of twenty dollars for each brand of antifreeze submitted, the depart­ment shall inspect the antifreeze submitted.
If the antifreeze is not adulterated or misbranded, if it meets the standards of the department, and is not in violation of this chapter, the depart­ment shall give the applicant a written permit authorizing the sale of such antifreeze in this state until the formula or labeling of the anti­freeze is changed in any manner.

If the department shall at a later date find that the product to be sold, exposed for sale or held with intent to sell has been materially altered or adulterated, a change has been made in the name, brand or trade-mark under which the antifreeze is sold, or it violates the provi­sions of this chapter, the department shall no­tify the applicant and the permit shall be can­celed forthwith. [53GA, ch 91,§4] been given the laboratory test and inspection of the department, and found to meet all the standard requirements and not to be in violation of this chapter. Then such statement may be contained in any advertising literature where such brand or trade-mark of antifreeze is being advertised for sale, and such statement may be used on all regular containers of such antifreeze. [53GA, ch 91, §8]

208A.9 Prosecution. Whenever the department of agriculture shall discover any antifreeze is being sold or has been sold in violation of this chapter, the facts shall be furnished to the attorney general who shall institute proper proceedings. [53GA, ch 91, §9]

208A.10 Fees remitted. All fees provided for in this chapter shall be collected by the secretary of the department of agriculture and remitted to the state treasury. [53GA, ch 91, §10]

208A.11 Penalty. If any person, partnership, corporation, or association shall violate the provisions of this chapter, such person, partnership, corporation or association shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished according to the general provisions of title X and the department may after due hearing cancel registration. [53GA, ch 91, §11]

208A.12 Citation of chapter. This chapter may be cited as the “Iowa Antifreeze Act.” [53GA, ch 91, §12]

A remade mattress or comfort shall have attached thereto a label of the kind hereinbefore provided, except that such label shall bear the words "Remade from Used Material" in lieu of the words "Manufactured of New Material". [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3226; C46, §209.8]

The application shall be made to the superintendent of the state hospital in the district in which the county of his residence is located. During such extended period of observation, if the patient is not discharged a recommendation for commitment as insane may be filed with the commission. If the commission does not issue a commitment as insane after recommendation by the superintendent within five days following receipt of such recommendation, the superintendent may, upon authority of the board of control, discharge such patient from the hospital, and the hospital and board of control, after discharge of such patient, shall be absolved of further responsibility in connection with the case until such time as the same person may be committed.

persons appearing for him of his right to legal counsel, then if no counsel is employed, the district court shall assign him counsel. An attorney so assigned shall receive such compensation as the district court shall fix to be paid in the first instance by the county. Warrant of commitment, §229.10

229.20 Beneficiaries of veterans bureau. 1. Whenever, in any proceeding under the laws of this state for the commitment of a person alleged to be of unsound mind or otherwise in need of confinement in a hospital or other institution for his proper care, it is determined after such adjudication of the status of such person as may be required by law that commitment to a hospital for mental disease or other institution is necessary for safekeeping or treatment and it appears that such person is eligible for care or treatment by the veterans administration or other agency of the United States government, the court, upon receipt of a certificate from the veterans administration or such other agency showing that facilities are available and that such person is eligible for care or treatment therein, may commit such person to said veterans administration or other agency. The person whose commitment is sought shall be personally served with notice of the pending commitment proceeding in the manner as provided by the law of this state; and nothing in this section shall affect his right to appear and be heard in the proceedings. Upon commitment, such person, when admitted to any facility operated by any such agency within or without this state shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the veterans administration or other agency. The chief officer of any facility of the veterans administration or institution operated by any other agency of the United States to which the person is so committed shall with respect to such person be vested with the same powers as superintendents of state hospitals for mental diseases within this state with respect to retention of custody, transfer, parole or discharge. Jurisdiction is retained in the committing or other appropriate court of this state at any time to inquire into the mental condition of the person so committed, and to determine the necessity for continuance of his restraint, and all commitments pursuant to this section are so conditioned.

2. The judgment or order of commitment by a court of competent jurisdiction of another state or of the District of Columbia, committing a person to the veterans administration, or other agency of the United States government for care or treatment shall have the same force and effect as to the committed person while in this state as in the jurisdiction in which is situated the court entering the judgment or making the order; and the courts of the committing state, or of the District of Columbia, shall be deemed to have retained jurisdiction of the person so committed for the purpose of inquiring into the mental condition of such person, and of determining the necessity for continuance of his restraint; as is provided in subsection 1 of this section with respect to persons committed by the courts of this state. Consent is hereby given to the application of the law of the committing state or district in respect to the authority of the chief officer of any facility of the veterans administration, or of any institution operated in this state by any other agency of the United States to retain custody, or transfer, parole or discharge the committed person.

3. Upon receipt of a certificate of the veterans administration or such other agency of the United States that facilities are available for the care or treatment of any person heretofore committed to any hospital for the insane or other institution for the care or treatment of persons similarly afflicted and that such person is eligible for care or treatment, the superintendent of the institution may cause the transfer of such person to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States for care or treatment. Upon effecting any such transfer, the committing court or proper officer thereof shall be notified thereof by the transferring agency. No person shall be transferred to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States if he be confined pursuant to conviction of any felony or misdemeanor or if he has been acquitted of the charge solely on the ground of insanity, unless prior to transfer the court or other authority originally committing such person shall enter an order for such transfer after appropriate motion and hearing.

4. Any person transferred as provided in this section shall be deemed to be committed to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States pursuant to the original commitment. [C27, §3562-b; C39, §3562.1; C46, §229.20; 52GA, ch 129, §6]

The transfer of a veteran from one hospital to another shall in no way invalidate the original commitment and such commitment together with all such laws and rules of the board of control pertaining to parole or discharge shall remain in full force and effect as the original commitment. [C39, §3562.3; C46, §229.22]

229.23 Blanks. The board of control shall furnish the commissions of insanity of the counties with such forms for blanks for warrants, certificates, and other papers as will enable them with regularity and facility to comply with the provisions of this chapter, and also with copies of the regulations of the hospital, when printed. 229.24 Temporary custody in certain cases. If any person found to be insane cannot at once be admitted to the hospital, or, in case of appeal from the finding of the commission, if such person cannot with safety be allowed to go at liberty, the commission of insanity shall require that such person shall be suitably provided for either in the county home or otherwise until such admission can be had, or until the occasion therefor no longer exists. [R60, §1436; C73, §1403; C97, §2297; S13, §2271; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3564; C46, §229.24; 52GA, ch 129, §5]

SUPPORT OF INSANE

230.1 Liability of county and state. The necessary and legal costs and expenses attending the arrest, care, investigation, commitment, and support of an insane person committed to a state hospital shall be paid:
1. By the county in which such person has a legal settlement, or
2. By the state when such person has no legal settlement in this state, or when such settlement is unknown.

The residence of any person found insane who is an inmate of any state institution shall be that existing at the time of admission thereto. [C73, §1402; C97, §2270; S13, §2270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3581; C46, §230.11]

1. In the county of the residence of said commissioners;
2. In some other county of the state;
3. In some foreign state or country; or
4. Unknown.

230.3 Certification of settlement. If such legal settlement is found to be in another county of this state, the commission shall, as soon as said determination is made, certify such finding to the superintendent of the hospital to which said patient is committed, and thereupon said superintendent shall charge the expenses already incurred and unadjusted, and all future expenses of such patient, to the county so certified until said settlement shall be otherwise determined as hereinafter provided. [C73, §1417; C97, §2270; S13, §2270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3583; C46, §230.3]

230.4 Certification to debtor county. Said finding of legal settlement shall also be certified by the commission to the county auditor of the county of such legal settlement. Such auditor shall lay such notification before the board of supervisors of his county, and it shall be conclusively presumed that such person has a legal settlement in said notified county unless said county shall, within six months, in writing filed with the commission of insanity giving said notice, dispute such legal settlement. [C73, §1402; C97, §2270; S13, §2270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3584; C46, §230.41]

230.5 Nonresidents. If such legal settlement is found by the commission to be in some foreign state or country, or unknown, it shall, without entering an order of commitment to the state hospital, immediately notify the board of control of such finding and furnish the board of control with a copy of the evidence taken on the question of legal settlement, and hold said patient for investigation by said board of control. 1. If the board of control finds that the decision of the commission of insanity as to legal settlement is correct, the board of control shall cause said patient either to be transferred to a state hospital for the insane and there maintained at the expense of the state, or to be transferred to the place of foreign settlement.
2. If the board of control finds that the decision of the commission of insanity is not correct, the board of control shall order said patient transferred to a state hospital for the insane and there maintained at the expense of the county of legal settlement in this state. [S13, §2727-a28a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3586; C46, §230.6]

Expenses certified to counties, §230.20

230.7 Removal of nonresidents. If at any time the board of control discovers that an insane patient in a state hospital was, at the time of commitment, a nonresident of this state, it may cause said patient to be conveyed to his place of residence if his condition permits of such transfer and other reasons do not render such transfer inadvisable. [C73, §1419; C97, §2283; S13, §§2283, 2727-a28a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3587; C46, §230.7]

The transfer to state hospitals or to the places of their legal settlement of insane persons who have no legal settlement in this state or whose legal settlement is unknown, shall be made according to the directions of the board of control, and when practicable by employees of state hospitals, and the actual and necessary expenses of such transfers shall be paid on itemized vouchers sworn to by the claimants and approved by the board of control, from any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated. [S13, §§2296-a, 2727-a28b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3588; C46, §230.8]

230.9 Subsequent discovery of residence. If, after a patient has been received into a state hospital for the insane as a patient whose legal settlement is supposed to be outside this state or unknown, the board of control finds that the legal settlement of said patient was, at the time of commitment, in a county of this state, said board shall charge all legal costs and expenses pertaining to the commitment and support of said patient to the county of such legal settlement, and the same shall be collected as provided by law in other cases. [S13, §2727-a28a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3589; C46, §230.9]

All legal costs and expenses attending the arrest, care, investigation, and commitment of a person to a state hospital for the insane under a finding that such person has a legal settlement in another county of this state, shall, in the first instance, be paid by the county of commitment. The county of such legal settlement shall reimburse the county so paying for all such payments, with interest. [S13, §2308-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3590; C46, §230.10]

230.12 Action to determine legal settlement. When a dispute arises between different counties or between the board of control and a county as to the legal settlement of a person committed to a state hospital for the insane, the attorney general, at the request of the board of control, shall, without the advancement of fees, cause an action to be brought in the district court of any county where such dispute exists, to determine the legal settlement. Said action may be brought at any time when it appears that said dispute cannot be amicably settled. All counties which may be the place of such legal settlement, so far as known, shall be made defendants and the allegation of such settlement may be in the alternative. Said action shall be tried as in equity. [C73, §1418; C97, §§2270, 2282; S13, §2270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3592; C46, §230.12]

How issues tried, R.C.P. 177 et seq.

230.13 Judgment when settlement found within state. The court shall determine whether the legal settlement of said insane person, at the time of the commitment, was in one of the defendant counties. If the court so find, judgment shall be entered against the county of such settlement in favor of any other county for all legal costs and expenses arising out of said proceedings in insanity, and paid by said other county, if any such costs have not been paid, judgment shall be rendered against the county of settlement in favor of the parties, including the state, to whom said costs or expenses may be due. [C73, §1418; C97, §§2282; S13, §2308-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3593; C46, §230.13]

If the court finds that the legal settlement of said insane person, at the time of commitment, was in a foreign state or country, or was unknown, an order shall be entered that said insane person shall be maintained in the hospital for the insane at the expense of the state. In such case the state shall refund to any county, with interest, all legal costs and expenses arising out of said proceedings in insanity and paid by said county. Any decision by the court shall be final. [C73, §1402; C97, §§2270; S13, §2270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3594; C46, §230.14]

Persons legally liable for the support of an insane or idiotic person shall include the spouse, father, mother, and adult children of such insane or idiotic person, and any person, firm, or corporation bound by contract hereafter made for support. The county auditor, subject to the direction of the board of supervisors, shall enforce the obligation herein created to all sums advanced by the county.
230.16 Presumption. In actions to enforce the liability imposed by section 230.15, the certificate from the superintendent to the county auditor stating the sums charged in such cases, shall be presumptively correct. [R60, §1488; C73, §1433; C97, §2297; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3595; C46, §230.15]

The certificate of the superintendent of the state hospital in which any nonresident is or has been a patient, showing the amounts drawn from the state treasury or due therefrom as provided by law on account of such nonresident patient, shall be presumptive evidence of the reasonable value of the care, maintenance, and treatment furnished such patient. [S13, §2297-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3595; C46, §230.19]

A duplicate certificate shall also be mailed to the auditor of each county having patients chargeable thereto. 239.2 Eligibility for aid to dependent children. Assistance shall be granted under this chapter to any needy dependent child who:
1. Is living in a suitable family home maintained by one or more of the persons referred to in subsection 4 of section 239.1.
2. Has resided in the state for one year immediately preceding the application for such assistance; or was born within the state within one year immediately preceding the application, if the mother has resided in the state for one year immediately preceding the birth of said child, without regard to the residence of the person or persons with whom said child is living.
3. Is not in a public institution and because of a physical or mental condition, in need of continued care therein. [C46, §239.2]
§239.3 Application for assistance. Application for assistance under this chapter shall be made to the county board of the county in which the dependent child resides or will reside. In the event assistance is granted, the application shall be in writing or reduced to writing in the manner and upon the form prescribed by the state. Such application shall be made by an adult person with whom the dependent child resides or will reside, and shall contain such information as may be required by said application form. One application may be made for several children of the same family if they reside or will reside with the same person. [C46,§239.3]

§239.4 Investigation of application. Whenever a county board receives a notification of the dependency of a child or an application for assistance, an investigation and record of the circumstances shall promptly be made in order to ascertain the dependency of the child and the facts supporting the application.

The investigations shall include visits to the home of the child and of the person with whom the child will live during the time assistance is granted. [C46,§239.4]

§239.5 Granting of assistance and amount of assistance. Upon the completion of an investigation the county board shall decide whether the child is eligible for assistance under the provisions of this chapter and determine the amount of such assistance. The county board shall, within thirty days, notify the person with whom the child is living or will be living, of the decision made. The county board may require, as a condition of granting assistance, that a legal guardianship be established over any child or children and in such cases the assistance payments shall be made to such guardian, when appointed, but no guardian shall be allowed to receive any assistance payments for any dependent child or children unless such guardian shall bear a relationship to the child or children embraced by subsection 4, section 239.1. The dependent child for whom the grant is made shall be originally charged to the county in which such child resides when application is made.

The county board shall, on the basis of actual need, fix the amount of assistance necessary for any dependent child, subject to the approval of the state department, with due regard to the necessary expenditures of the family and the conditions existing in each case, taking into consideration any other income or resources of any child claiming assistance under this chapter and any private resources found to be available to such child. Such assistance when granted shall be sufficient, when added to all other income and support available to the child, to provide such child with a reasonable subsistence compatible with decency and health. Assistance, when granted, shall be paid monthly to an adult person within the specified degrees of relationship and with whom the child is living, from the fund for aid to dependent children established by this chapter, upon the order of the state department. [C46,§239.5; 52 GA, ch 134,§1]

§239.6 Periodic reconsideration, changes, and termination of grants. Any or all assistance grants made under this chapter shall be subject to reconsideration at any time the county board deems necessary and shall be reinvestigated and reconsidered by the county board as frequently as may be required. After any such further investigation, the county board shall make further report to the state department. Upon such report, assistance may be continued, renewed, suspended, changed in amount, or entirely withdrawn, as the findings of such reports warrant. [C46,§239.6]

§239.7 Appeal. If an application is not acted upon by the county board or the state department within a reasonable time after such application is made, if it is denied in whole or in part, or if any award of assistance is modified, suspended, or canceled under any provision of this chapter, the applicant or recipient may appeal to the state board. The state board shall, upon receipt of such appeal, give the appellant reasonable notice and opportunity for a fair hearing before the state board or its duly authorized representative or representatives.

An applicant whose application for assistance has been rejected, or a recipient whose certificate for assistance has been canceled or modified, after a review hearing hereinabove provided, within thirty days after notice of such action is given, may appeal from the decision of the state board to the district court of the county in which the applicant or recipient resides, by serving a ten days notice of such appeal upon any member of the state board, in the manner required for the service of an original notice in any civil action. Upon the service of such notice, the state board shall furnish the applicant with a copy of the application and all supporting papers, a transcript of the testimony taken in a hearing, if any, and a copy of its decision. The district court shall act as an appellate court to review the decision of the state board to determine whether or not it has therein committed fraud or abused its discretion. The costs may be taxed to appellant where the appeal is affirmed or may be remitted. [C46,§239.7]

§239.8 Removal from county. When any child for whose benefit a grant of assistance has been made removes or is removed from the county giving assistance, it shall be the duty of the recipient to immediately notify the county board of the county giving assistance of the fact of such removal and of the city or town (or the nearest city or town) and of the county to which the child has removed. If the removal is into another county in the state, the county which has been giving assistance shall continue the assistance for a period of six months after the date of removal, but if the removal is out of the state assistance shall immediately cease. Thereafter any assistance
239.9 Funeral expenses. Upon the death of any child for whose benefit assistance payments are being made or have been authorized, a reasonable funeral expense for the burial of such child may be paid by the state department, provided such expenses do not exceed one hundred fifty dollars, and the estate of the deceased or any life insurance or payments by any death or funeral benefit association or society paid by reason of the death of such child to the child's estate or to any person legally liable for his support, are insufficient to defray such funeral expenses. The person to whom such funeral expenses are paid as above provided is hereby prohibited from soliciting, accepting, or contracting to receive any further compensation for services rendered or articles furnished in connection with such funeral except on written approval of the board of the county to which the assistance is chargeable and subject to such rules and regulations as the state board shall prescribe. [C46, §239.9; 52GA, ch 135, §1]

239.10 Confidential nature of records. All applications, investigations and records shall be privileged communications and shall be confidential. They shall be subject to inspection and use only by persons authorized by the state or county in connection with their official duties directly connected with the administration of this chapter.

Any list or lists of names of applicants or recipients of assistance authorized by this chapter or other lists compiled by the state department of social welfare or its successors in the administration of this chapter are hereby declared to be the personal property of the state; and no employee of the state, or any other person shall give, sell or furnish such lists or list to any persons or person for any purpose except for use in the administration of this chapter, and as otherwise herein provided. No person shall buy, give, furnish, sell or use such list or lists, or any plate or card from which any such list could be prepared, belonging to or used in the administration of aid to dependent children in the state for any commercial or political purpose, and the violation of any of the provisions hereof is hereby made a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not to exceed one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [C46, §239.10]

239.11 County appropriations. The county board of supervisors in each county in this state shall appropriate annually, and pay in the manner hereinafter specified from the county poor fund, such sum as shall result in the payment by such county of that portion of all assistance and benefits payable with respect to dependent children chargeable to the county under this chapter, which shall equal one-half of all such assistance and benefits chargeable to the county exclusive of such receipts and contributions to such fund other than state or county funds, as may from time to time be legally received from any source and credited to the state department and shall include in the tax levy for such county the sum or sums so appropriated for that purpose. The sums necessary as above provided shall be originally determined upon the basis of an annual budget prepared by the county board and approved by the state department. Should the sum so appropriated, however, be expended or exhausted during the year for which it was appropriated, such additional sum shall be appropriated by the board of supervisors from the county poor fund as shall be sufficient to meet the obligation of the county to pay its share as heretofore provided of all assistance and benefits with respect to dependent children chargeable to the county. The appropriation provided in this section shall not exceed statutory tax limitations now or hereafter provided, except that in counties having a population of sixty thousand, or more, the board of supervisors may levy annually an additional tax not to exceed one-eighth mill to carry out the provisions of this chapter; and in counties having a population of over thirty-five thousand and less than sixty thousand, the board of supervisors may levy annually an additional tax not to exceed one-eighth mill to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

The share of any county for assistance and benefits payable to dependent Indian children living on an Indian reservation in said county shall be paid by the state, from the fund for aid to dependent children. [C46, §239.11]

239.12 Fund for aid to dependent children—reimbursement to state. There is hereby established in the state treasury a fund to be known as the "Fund for Aid to Dependent Children" to which shall be credited all funds appropriated by the state for the payment of administrative expenses, assistance and benefits under this chapter, all moneys received at any time for such purposes, and all funds paid by counties to the state department as provided in this chapter. All assistance and benefits under this chapter, and the administrative expenses incident thereto, except compensation and expenses paid to the county board members, shall be paid from said fund. The state department shall report to the county board quarterly the total amount of assistance and benefits paid during the preceding quarter to recipients chargeable to the county. The county board shall promptly report the same to the county board of supervisors which shall then order paid from the county poor fund a sum representing the county's share thereof determined in the manner heretofore provided, which payment shall be credited to the fund for aid to dependent children.

Any unexpended balance of the fund appropriated or allocated by the state which remains in the fund for aid to dependent children at the end of each biennium shall not revert to the general fund of the state, any law to the contrary notwithstanding. [C46, §239.12; 52GA, ch 136, §1]

239.13 Assistance not assignable. Assistance granted under this chapter shall not be transferable or assignable at law or in equity, and none of the money paid or payable under this chapter shall be subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment, or other legal process, or to the operation of any bankruptcy or insolvency law. [C46, §239.13]

239.14 Fraudulent acts. Whoever obtains, or attempts to obtain, or aids or abets any person to obtain, by means of a willfully false statement or representation, or by impersonation, or any fraudulent device, any assistance under this chapter to which the recipient is not entitled, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punishable by fine, not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [C46, §239.14]

239.15 Grant accepted without condition. No contribution or grant shall be received or accepted if any condition is attached as to its use or administration other than that it be used for assistance to dependent children as provided in this chapter.

If any contribution or grant has been accepted, and thereafter the same is discontinued or rejected, the county tax levy for the purpose of this chapter shall not be increased more than one-half mill and the state appropriation of this chapter shall not be increased more than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars in any one fiscal year by reason of such discontinuance or rejection of any such contribution or grant. [C46, §239.15]

239.16 Merit rating for employees. The selection of all persons as employees of the state board in the administration of this chapter shall be governed by the provisions of section 234.8. [C46, §239.16]

239.17 Recovery of assistance obtained by fraudulent act. Whosoever obtains, or attempts to obtain, or aids or abets any person to obtain, by means of a willfully false statement or representation, or by impersonation or any fraudulent device, any assistance as defined in this chapter to which the recipient is not entitled, shall be personally liable for the amount of assistance thus obtained. Such amount may be recovered from the offender or his estate in an action brought or by claim filed in the name of the state, and upon recovery the state shall pay the county a portion thereof equal to the amount paid by the county with respect to such assistance and return the balance of such recovery to the fund for aid to dependent children. [C46, §239.17]

239.18 State control exclusive. Questions of policy and control respecting administration of this chapter shall vest and remain in the state agency of the state of Iowa for the purposes of administering all provisions of this chapter. In order to provide a uniform statewide program for aid to dependent children, the state board shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary to make the provisions of this chapter uniform in all of the counties of this state. [C46, §239.18]

2. Prescribe, for the guidance of county boards, the qualifications and capabilities required of county board employees, consistent with the provisions of section 241.12.

3. The application shall be in writing upon the form prescribed by the state board. [C39, §3684.07; C46, §241.7]

Upon the completion of such investigation the county board shall make findings of fact as to the eligibility of the applicant for assistance under the provisions of this chapter and shall recommend in accordance with the rules and regulations of the state board the amount of assistance which should be granted. This report, together with a copy of the report of the ophthalmologist, shall be forwarded to the state board. The state board may make such further investigation as it may deem desirable and, upon the basis of such reports and investigation, shall determine whether the applicant is eligible for assistance under the terms of this chapter and, if eligible, the amount of such assistance and the date on which such assistance shall begin. The state board shall notify the county board of its decision, and the county board shall promptly notify the applicant thereof. Such assistance shall be paid monthly to the applicant upon the order of the state board, from the fund for the aid of the blind established by this chapter. After such further investigation as the county board may deem necessary or the state board may require, the county board shall make further report to the state board and the amount of assistance may be changed or assistance may be entirely withdrawn if the state board finds that the recipient's circumstances have altered sufficiently to warrant such action. [C39, §3684.12; C46, §241.12]

The amount so paid shall be allowed as a claim against his estate in favor of the state, and upon recovery the state shall repay to the county that portion of the amount paid under this chapter to such person during his lifetime, or for his burial. No person shall receive old-age assistance if he has more than three hundred dollars, or if married and not separated from the spouse, if he and his spouse have more than four hundred fifty dollars in cash, on deposit in a bank, in postal savings, or if the immediate cash value, as determined by the board and subject to review by the state department, of his holdings of bonds, stocks, mortgages, other securities or investments, except real estate, exceeds three hundred dollars, or if married and not separated from the spouse, if he and his spouse have more than four hundred fifty dollars. At the discretion of the state department, however, where such immediate need of assistance, shall assign such securities and investments to the state to be held in trust by the applicant, when in immediate need of assistance, and fix an amount of assistance or reject the claim of the applicant; and shall give written notice to the applicant as to the action taken.

A sworn statement by both the vendor and vendee of the reasons and/or considerations of any transfer of real and/or personal property within the five years immediately preceding the date of application for old-age assistance may be required by the board or state department to be made in such manner and on such forms as the state board may direct; provided, however, that no sworn statement need be made for any transfer prior to January 1, 1934, unless the state department so directs. [C35,§5296-f13; C39,§3828.012; C46,§249.9] action. Upon the service of such notice, the state board shall furnish the applicant with a copy of the application and all supporting papers, a transcript of the testimony taken in a hearing, if any, and a copy of its decision.

The district court shall act as an appellate court to review the decision of the state board to determine whether or not it has therein committed fraud or abused its discretion. The costs may be taxed to appellant where the appeal is affirmed or may be remitted. [C35, §5296-f18; C39, §3828.014; C46, §249.11]

249.12 Witnesses. For the purpose of any such investigation, the state board and the county board shall have the power to compel, by subpoena, the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books and papers. All witnesses shall be examined on oath, and any member of the state board or of the county board may administer said oath. The costs incurred in connection with any such hearing or examination shall be paid by the state board or county board, whichever issues the subpoenas; and the witnesses shall be entitled to claim a two-dollar fee and mileage expense at a rate of five cents per mile, except that responsible relatives as defined in sections 252.2, 252.5 and 600.6 shall not be entitled to claim witness fees and mileage expense. [C35, §5296-f19; C39, §3828.015; C46, §249.12]

249.13 Assistance certificate. The state department shall issue to each applicant to whom assistance is allowed a certificate stating the amount of each installment, which may be monthly or quarterly, as the state department may decide; and, on written order of the state department, the state comptroller shall issue his warrant, or warrant check to be forwarded by the state department, to such recipient in payment of such installment. The amount of assistance granted under this chapter shall be subject to review at any time by the state department and the amount received by the recipient may be increased, decreased, or discontinued. [C35, §5296-f20; C39, §3828.016; C46, §249.13]

249.14 Fingerprint indorsement. Whenever the payee of an old-age assistance warrant is unable to indorse said warrant in writing as his name appears on the face of said warrant, the indorsement shall be made by the payee’s fingerprint, which act shall be witnessed by at least two persons who shall sign as witnesses, also giving their address. [C39, §3828.017; C46, §249.14]

249.15 Renewal of certificate. The general provisions as to the eligibility of applicants for assistance shall apply to recipients whose certificates are subject to review for the issuance of renewal certificates of assistance, with the following exceptions as to residence:

Provided, that he does not establish a domicile outside this state, a person may, while receiving assistance and with the approval of the state department, retain his rights under the provisions of this chapter and section, even though he takes up residence outside the state in the household of a relative or friend for reasons of the infirmities of age, health or economic necessity. [C35, §5296-f21; C39, §3828.018; C46, §249.15]

249.16 Assistance certificate improperly obtained. If at any time the state department has reason to believe that an assistance certificate has been improperly obtained, it shall cause special inquiry to be made by the board, and may suspend payment of any installment pending the inquiry. It shall also notify the board of such suspension and it shall also promptly notify the recipient in writing of such suspension stating in such notice the reason for such suspension and such recipient shall be entitled to a hearing, as provided by section 249.11, to show cause why such suspension should not be made permanent. If on inquiry it appears that the certificate was improperly obtained, it shall be canceled by the state department, but if it appears that the certificate was properly obtained, the suspended installments shall be payable in due course. [C35, §5296-f30; C39, §3828.019; C46, §249.16]

249.17 When assistance commences. The assistance, if allowed, shall commence on the date named in the certificate, which shall be the day fixed by the state board for payments to recipients in the county from which the applicant applied and within the calendar month following that on which the application is approved by the state department. [C35, §5296-f22; C39, §3828.020; C46, §249.17]

249.18 Funeral expenses. On the death of any person to whom a certificate of old-age assistance has been issued, such reasonable funeral expenses shall be paid from the old-age assistance fund to such person as the county board directs, in an amount of not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars; provided:

1. That the total expense of such funeral does not exceed three hundred dollars.

2. That the decedent does not leave an estate which may be probated, subject to the provisions of section 249.19, with sufficient proceeds to allow a funeral claim of at least three hundred dollars, as provided by section 635.65.

3. That any payment which is due the decedent’s estate, spouse, children, father, mother, brother, or sister by reason of the liability of any life insurance or death or funeral benefit company, association or society to be made in the event of the death of such decedent who was a recipient of old-age assistance may be deducted from the state department’s liability of one hundred fifty dollars.

4. That in the event the total funeral expenses exceed the department’s liability of one hundred fifty dollars, as provided under 1, 2, and 3 above, the additional expenses shall accrue only when there is an extraordinary expense or when the family or next best friend of the decedent specify the use of a steel or concrete outside burial vault. Provided that said additional expense shall not be paid by the state.

Any funeral expenses thus paid by the state department shall become a part of the claim and lien for assistance paid the individual recipient of old-age assistance and shall be collectible under the provisions of sections 249.19 and 249.20.

When no claim is filed, or, whenever a claim is filed and disallowed, for the payment of funeral expenses, as provided for by this chapter and section, and the person furnishing such services and merchandise, in connection with the funeral of a deceased recipient of old-age assistance, files a claim against the decedent's estate, as provided for by chapter 635, such claim shall not be allowed in an amount exceeding three hundred dollars.

Where a person has been receiving old-age assistance under the provisions of this chapter and while receiving such assistance is committed or admitted to any tax supported institution for any cause and is not receiving old-age assistance at the time of his death, he shall, notwithstanding such facts, be qualified to receive his burial expense as provided in this section. [C35, §249.19; C39, §3828.021; C46, §249.18; 52GA, ch 142, §1]

249.19 Deduction from estate

On the death of a person receiving or who has received assistance under this chapter or of the survivor of a married couple, either or both of whom were so assisted, the total amount paid as assistance, shall be allowed as a lien against the real estate in the estate of the decedent and as a claim of the second class against the personal estate of such decedent, in the event the estate is admitted to probate. Neither the homestead nor the proceeds therefrom of such decedent or his survivor, shall be exempt from the payment of said lien or claim, any act or statute to the contrary notwithstanding. The filing of its claim against the estate shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the state board, in behalf of the state, to maintain an action by equitable proceedings to foreclose upon its lien against a homestead left by the deceased as well as any other real estate situated within the state of Iowa, and belonging to the estate of the deceased. The proceeds of such claim or lien shall be paid into the old-age assistance revolving fund. In case of the death of either husband or wife, either or both of whom have been receiving or have received assistance under this chapter, the homestead shall not be sold until the surviving spouse shall die or cease to occupy the homestead as such. Furthermore, no such claim shall be enforced against any real estate of the recipient, or the real estate of a person who has been a recipient, while it is occupied by the recipient's surviving spouse, if the latter, at the time of marriage to the recipient, was not more than fifteen years younger than the recipient, and does not marry again. [C35, §249.19; C39, §3828.022; C46, §249.18]

Referred to in §§249.18, 249.20, 249.21, 615.150

249.20 Transfer of property to the state.

In any event, the assistance furnished under this chapter shall be and constitute a lien on any real estate owned either by the husband or wife for assistance and funeral benefit furnished to either of such persons. Whenever an order is made for such assistance to any person, a copy of such order shall be indexed and recorded in the manner provided for the indexing of real-estate mortgages in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the recipient lives and in which the real estate belonging to the recipient or the spouse of such recipient is situated, and such recording and indexing shall constitute notice of such lien. The county recorder shall not charge a fee for such recording and indexing or for releasing said lien.

Assistance furnished under this chapter shall not constitute a lien on any real estate owned by the Indian tribes residing in this state. This is the sole exception to the provisions of this section or chapter, until the death of the recipient, former recipient, or the surviving spouse, if any.

The state board shall release liens created or existing under this chapter when the amount thereof is fully paid, or when an estate, of which real estate affected by this chapter is a part, has been probated and the proceeds allowable through such probate have been applied on such liens. The board may also, in its discretion, at any time, order the release of any lien in full, or the release of any specific parcel of land from the lien, upon such compromise, settlement, substitution of other security, or other consideration as the board shall determine to be fair and adequate under the peculiar circumstances affecting the property subject to the lien or its ownership. Such release shall be executed and acknowledged by the secretary of the state board of social welfare; and such release when recorded shall be conclusive in favor of any third person dealing with or concerning the land thus released in reliance on such record.

If the state board deems it necessary to protect the interest of the state, it may require, as a condition to the grant of assistance, the absolute conveyance or assignment of all, or any part, of the property of an applicant for assistance to the state board; upon the taking of such deed or assignment, the state department shall pay any delinquent taxes against said property and said deed shall reserve to the grantor and his spouse a life estate in said property and an option to the grantor and his heirs to purchase said property by repayment of the total amount paid for the benefit of the recipient. Said option insofar as the heirs are concerned shall be for two years from the date of the death of the grantor or the grantor's surviving spouse, if any, and shall include an interest charge of three and one-half percent during the period of the option to the heirs.

Title to any real estate may be taken in the name of the state board of social welfare.

Such property shall be managed by the state department which shall credit the net income to the account of the person or persons entitled thereto. The state board shall have power to sell, lease, assign or convey such property or defend and prosecute all suits concerning it, and to pay all just claims against it, and to do all other things necessary for the protection, preservation and management of the property.

Upon the death of the recipient, or person who has received assistance, and the surviving spouse of such person, which spouse meets the requirements set out in section 249.19, and the expiration of the option to the heirs, the property shall be disposed of and so much of the proceeds as is necessary for the repayment of the amount of assistance and other benefits paid to the grantor and/or his spouse and repayment of amount expended for the preservation of the property shall be transferred to the old-age assistance revolving fund. The balance, if any, shall be paid through the old-age assistance revolving fund to the heirs.

The state board and state department shall be entitled to an assignment of the certificate of tax sale of said property upon tender to the holder or to the county auditor of the amount to which the holder of the tax sale certificate would be entitled in case of redemption.

The attorney general, at the request of the state board, shall take the necessary proceedings, and represent and advise the state board in respect to any matters arising under this section. [C35, §5296-f16; C39, §3828.023; C46, §249.20]

249.21 Executor responsible. Any transfer of any property or interest therein made by an applicant or recipient of old-age assistance to any person without adequate consideration therefor or with intent to deprive the state of its interest therein shall be void.

All administrators, executors, referees and trustees of estates subject to liens provided for by this chapter shall when such lien as provided in sections 249.19 and 249.20, is filed or a claim is filed in the estate or against said estate or established by other legal proceedings as provided by law, pay said lien or claim when so ordered by the court. [C35, §5296-g1; C39, §3828.024; C46, §249.21]

249.22 Compromise by state. The state board and state department, when considering a compromise settlement of the state's interest in any property or the estate of a recipient and/or the recipient's spouse, may recognize such equitable interest as may be established by another person or legal entity. [C39, §3828.025; C46, §249.22]

249.23 Assignment of insurance. Any person, who has been granted a certificate of old-age assistance and is receiving payments of assistance from the old-age pension fund, may petition the state board to accept an assignment of any assignable death benefits, loan value, or cash surrender value, of any life insurance policy, death or funeral benefit of any association, society or organization, requiring further payment of premiums or assessments which such person believes he is unable to pay. The state board may accept such assignment if it deems such action advisable and in the best interests of such person and the state. Upon the payment of such death benefit, the state department shall first deduct the amount of the funeral expenses, incurred under the provisions of section 249.18, the amount of the premiums or assessments paid by the state department to keep the insurance or benefit in force, and the amount of assistance paid to such person, all of which shall accrue to the old-age assistance revolving fund, and pay the balance received, if any, to such person as was the beneficiary last specified upon the policy.

Any recipient of old-age assistance may assign any such insurance policy or benefit certificate for the purpose stated in this section, and when such assignment has been received by the company, association, society, or other organization, issuing same, the state board and state department shall have a vested interest therein for the purpose and to the extent as is contemplated in this section, and the contract so made between such insured person and the state board and state department, shall be valid, and binding upon such insured person, or company, association, society or other organization, any other statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

When proceeds are received from any insurance policy or benefit certificate which was not assigned to the state board and which states the beneficiary to be the administrator, or legal representatives or estate of the insured, such proceeds shall be subject to the claim against said estate for any old-age assistance payments to or on behalf of such insured person or for any funeral claims paid and said claim shall be prior to the claim of the heirs thereto. [C35, §5296-g2; C39, §3828.026; C46, §249.23]

249.24 Board notified of increase of property or income. If at any time during the currency or continuance of an old-age assistance certificate the recipient, or the wife or husband of the recipient, becomes possessed of any property or income in excess of the amount allowed by this chapter in respect of the amount of assistance granted, it shall be the duty of the recipient immediately to notify the board of the receipt and possession of any such property or income. The board shall inform the state department of such change and make its recommendation for further action by the state department. The state department thereupon shall cancel the certificate or lower the amount of assistance for the remaining period of the certificate and notify the recipient of the reason for such change. Any excess assistance paid shall be returned to the state, and recoverable as a debt due the state. [C35, §5296-f23; C39, §3828.027; C46, §249.24]

Referred to in §249.35

249.25 Recovery from responsible relatives.
If at any time under this chapter the state board and state department or county board finds that any person, municipality, association, society or corporation, as specified under subsection 7 of section 249.6, is or was at the time any assistance was paid reasonably able to contribute to the necessary care and support of any recipient without undue hardship, during the continuance of any certificate of assistance, and such person, municipality, association, society or corporation fails or has failed or refused to do so, then, after notice to such person, municipality, association, society, or corporation, there shall exist a cause of action against such person, municipality, association, society or corporation for the recovery by the state board and state department, for the state, of double such amount of assistance furnished as was or is in excess of the amount allowed by this chapter. [C39, §3828.028; C46, §249.25]

Referred to in §249.28

249.26 When child’s liability begins.
The state board or the court in determining the responsibility of a child for funeral expenses or the support of a claimant or recipient shall deem liability to begin when said child is receiving a net income from whatever source, commensurate with that upon which he would make an income tax payment to this state. [C39, §3828.029; C46, §249.26]

249.27 County attorney’s duties—equity action.
It shall be the duty of the county attorney of each and every county, upon application of the state board of social welfare, to institute and conduct the prosecution of any suit for the support of an applicant for or recipient of assistance by any person or legal entity legally or contractually liable therefor, and any action brought for the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, within the county.

In the event that a child or other responsible relative neglects or refuses to contribute to the support of a claimant or recipient, an action in equity may be commenced in the district court of the county in which a responsible relative resides and there may be joined as defendants in said action any or all other responsible relatives. The court may decree the amount of contribution, if any, to be made by each child or other responsible relative with due regard to their separate incomes, financial ability and obligations. [C39, §3828.030; C46, §249.27]

249.28 Cancellation when county evades responsibility.
The state board may cancel the certificate of any recipient who is found by the state board to be acting in agreement with the authorities of any county charged with the duty of providing for the support of the poor if it shall appear to the state board that such agreement is with the intent to shift or would have the effect of shifting the responsibility of any such county to evade the provisions of sections 249.29 and 249.34. [C39, §3828.031; C46, §249.28]

249.29 Recipient not to receive other assistance.
No person receiving assistance under this chapter shall at the same time receive any other assistance from the state, or from any political subdivision thereof, except for fuel, dental, nursing, osteopathic, chiropractic, medical and surgical assistance, and hospitalization.

This section shall not be construed to exclude the spouse, minor children or other dependents of the recipient of old-age assistance, or the members of the same family or household as said recipient from receiving relief, assistance or pensions handled or paid through the state or any of its political subdivisions. In administering old-age assistance or relief, the officials of this state and its political subdivisions shall assume old-age assistance payments to the benefit of the aged person to whom the certificate of assistance has been issued. [C35, §5296-f27; C39, §3828.032; C46, §249.29]

249.30 No assistance during imprisonment.
If any person receiving assistance is convicted of any crime or offense and punished by imprisonment for one month or longer, the board shall direct that payments shall not be made during the period of imprisonment. [C35, §5296-f33; C39, §3828.033; C46, §249.30]

249.31 Resident in institution.
Any recipient who is a resident in any charitable, benevolent, or fraternal institution, not tax-supported, may expend a part of the assistance paid him under the provisions of this chapter toward defraying the actual expenses of his residence in such institution, provided, that the state board has approved and that it and its agents are permitted freely to visit and inspect such institution and, provided, the charge shall not be so much as to deprive said recipient and inmate of such cash as he needs for necessities and incidentals not furnished by said institution. [C35, §5296-f63; C39, §3828.034; C46, §249.31]

249.32 Incapacity of applicant or recipient.
If the person applying for or receiving assistance, on the testimony of reputable witnesses, is thought to be incapable of taking care of himself or his money, the board shall complete the investigation, as provided elsewhere in this chapter, and send such application, investigation, and supporting papers to the state department. When notified by the state department of the conditional approval of said application or the renewal or continuance of a certificate, contingent upon the appointment of a legal guardian, the board shall direct the county attorney to petition the court for such appointment and shall forward the court record to the state department as notice of the person to whom assistance payments shall be made.
The application of a person who has been called an incompetent shall be honored only when made by a legally appointed guardian as provided for under the provisions of section 670.2. Upon subsequent investigations all affidavits shall be affirmed by said legal guardian and the person or persons supplying the required information in behalf of said incompetent person.

All guardianship proceedings in the case of an applicant or recipient shall be carried out without fee or other expense including all court costs when, in the opinion of the court, the aged person is unable to assume said expense. At the discretion of the court, such a guardian may serve without bond. [C35, to discount or pay less than the face value of any warrant drawn on the old-age assistance fund when cashing the same or accepting it in the payment of the purchase price of goods or merchandise, services, rent, taxes, or indebtedness. [C35,§5296-4; C39,§3828.036;

C46,§249.33]

249.34 Assistance to be inalienable. All rights to old-age assistance shall be absolutely inalienable by any assignment, sale, execution or otherwise, and, in the case of bankruptcy, the assistance shall not pass to or through any trustees or other persons acting on behalf of creditors. [C35,§5296-29; C39,§3828.037; C46, it is found that any person who is receiving or has received old-age assistance has failed to notify the board, as provided in section 249.24, that he is or was possessed of property or income in excess of the amount allowed by this chapter, then his certificate shall be canceled and double the amount of assistance paid, in excess of that to which the recipient was entitled, may be recovered from him, while living, as a debt due the state; upon his death as a preferred claim against his estate. The amount so recovered shall be transferred to the old-age assistance revolving fund of the state. [C35,§5296-24; C39,§3828.038; C46, §249.35]

Any employer failing to collect and to report said tax shall be liable therefor. As a condition for obtaining assistance under this chapter and from this fund, satisfactory proof shall be furnished to the board or state department that the applicant has paid all taxes due to said fund.

The officer of each department, division, or bureau of the state government, including state educational institutions, whose duty it is to make out a pay roll and to certify the same, shall be liable, personally and under his bond, for the failure of any state employee, under his jurisdiction, to pay the per capita tax levied under the provisions of this section. Such officer is hereby authorized to act in the same manner in withholding the tax from the salary or wages of a state employee as is granted a private employer and a municipal employer under the provisions of this section and chapter.

The penalties accruing under the provisions of this section shall accompany the tax and be credited to the old-age assistance fund.

All taxes collected under the provisions of this section and chapter shall be deposited to the credit of the old-age assistance fund, and shall be kept separate from the general fund of the state. On receipt of written order from the state department, the state comptroller shall draw warrants, or warrant checks against the old-age assistance fund for any and all old-age assistance payments and other expenditures provided for in this chapter.

Whenever any tax, as provided for in section 249.36, has been erroneously paid or has been paid or collected more than once for the same year, the taxpayer by whom the tax was erroneously paid shall have the amount of said tax or duplicated tax refunded to him upon application to the county treasurer and the submission of satisfactory proof that the tax has been erroneously paid or paid more than once for any year. Such refund shall be from any old-age assistance funds then in the hands of such county treasurer. [C35,§5296-g7; C39,§3828.040; C46,§249.37]

249.38 Mandamus proceedings. In the event that any county auditor or treasurer, or both, of any county fails to do his or their duty in the matter of listing taxable persons, or the collection of the taxes levied, or the proper recording of said collections, or the making of a proper and timely return of the money so collected to the treasurer of state, or to otherwise comply with the provisions of this chapter, mandamus shall lie and proceedings shall be instituted by the auditor of state and the state board against such county auditor or treasurer or both, to comply therewith. [C39,§3828.041; C46,§249.35]

249.39 Revolving fund created. There is hereby created a fund, to be known as the "old-age assistance revolving fund," to be used for the purpose of protecting the interests of the recipients of old-age assistance and such interests of the state and the old-age assistance fund as arise under the provisions of this chapter.

To establish the old-age assistance revolving fund, there is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars. The state comptroller shall set aside from the appropriation, herein made, the amount necessary to be used by the state board and state department. Upon orders by the state board or state department the comptroller shall draw warrants from this fund, if he so approve, for the purposes herein described.

All moneys received or recovered by the state board and state department, from whatever source, except those specifically appropriated to the old-age assistance fund, shall be credited to the old-age assistance revolving fund, which together with the appropriation made hereunder, shall constitute said fund. At the end of each quarter of each fiscal year if the old-age assistance revolving fund shall have a cash balance in excess of two hundred thousand dollars, the state comptroller shall transfer such excess to the old-age assistance fund and shall notify the state board of such transfer. The amounts thus transferred shall supplement other allocations to the old-age assistance fund and may be expended for the purposes and in the manner referred to in section 249.36. [C35,§5296-g7; C39,§3828.042; C46,§249.39]

249.40 Authority to accept gifts. The state board and state department are authorized to accept in behalf of the state any gifts, deeds, or bequests of money or property the proceeds of which shall accrue to the benefit of the old-age assistance revolving fund. In the making of such gifts or contributions the donor shall attach no conditions, whatsoever. The management and disposition of any property so received will be in the state department but such management and disposition shall be subject to the approval of the state board. [C35,§5296-g6; C39,§3828.043; C46,§249.40]

249.41 Cancellation of warrants. The state comptroller, as of January, April, July and October 1 of each year, shall stop payment on and issue duplicates of all old-age assistance warrants or checks which have been outstanding and unredeemed by the state treasurer for six months or longer. 2. Join and co-operate with the government of the United States, or any of its appropriate agencies or instrumentalities, in any proper relief activity.
3. Make such reports of budget estimates to the governor and to the general assembly as are required by law, or are necessary and proper to obtain appropriations of funds necessary for relief purposes and for all the purposes of this chapter.
4. Determine the need for funds in the various counties of the state basing such determination upon the amount of money needed in the various counties to provide adequate relief, and upon the counties' financial inability to provide such relief from county funds. The state board may administer said funds belonging to the state within the various counties of the state to supplement local funds as needed.
5. Make such reports, obtain and furnish such information from time to time as may be required by the governor, by the general assembly, or by any other proper office or agency, state or federal, and make an annual report of its activities. [C39,§3828.068; C46,§251.2]

251.3 Grants from state funds to counties. The state department shall have the authority to require as a condition of making available state assistance to counties for emergency relief purposes, that the county boards of supervisors shall make maximum tax levies for relief and establish such budgets as are needed in respect to the relief situation in the counties. The state department shall also have the authority to require as a condition of grants of state aid to the counties that the county board of supervisors shall make no transfers from the county poor fund or charges against the county poor fund for purposes other than that for which the county poor fund is established by law, and it is hereby made mandatory upon the county board of supervisors, that taxes levied and collected for the county poor fund shall be expended only for the purposes levied. [C39,§3828.069; C46,§251.3]

251.4 Duties of the county board of social welfare. The county board, in addition to all of the powers and duties given it by law, shall have the following duties:

The board of supervisors may require that all employables contribute as many hours of his or her labor as that employable's requirements, as estimated by the board, will buy at the prevailing rate of compensation for that class of labor in that community. The board of supervisors may determine on what projects of county-wide or community-wide nature such relief labor may be used. It may, however, delegate to its political subdivisions such authority as it deems advisable for administrative expediency. CHAPTER 252
SUPPORT OF THE POOR

252.1 "Poor person" defined. The words "poor" and "poor person" as used in this chapter shall be construed to mean those who have no property, exempt or otherwise, and are unable, because of physical or mental disabilities, to earn a living by labor; but this section shall not be construed to forbid aid to needy persons who have some means, when the board shall be of opinion that the same will be conducive to their welfare and the best interests of the public. [C97, §2251; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5300; C39, §3828.073; C46, §252.1]

252.2 Parents and children liable. The father, mother, and children of any poor person, who is unable to maintain himself or herself by labor, shall jointly or severally relieve or maintain such person in such manner as, upon application to the township trustees of the township where such person has a residence or may be, they may direct. [C51, §787; R60, §1355; C73, §1330; C97, §2216; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5298; C39, §3828.074; C46, §252.2]

252.3 Putative father. The word "father" in this chapter includes the putative father of an illegitimate child, and the question of parentage may be tried in any proceeding to recover for or compel the support of such a child, and like proceedings may be prosecuted against the mother independently of or jointly with the alleged father. [C51, §787; R60, §1356; C73, §1331; C97, §2217; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5301; C39, §3828.077; C46, §252.5]

252.5 Remote relatives. In the absence or inability of nearer relatives, the same liability shall extend to grandparents, if of ability without personal labor, and to the male grandchildren who are of ability by personal labor or otherwise. [C51, §787; R60, §1355; C73, §1331; C97, §2218; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5302; C39, §3828.078; C46, §252.6]

252.6 Enforcement of liability. Upon the failure of such relatives so to relieve or maintain a poor person who has made application for relief, the township trustees, county social welfare board, or state division of old-age assistance may apply to the district court of the county where such poor person resides or may be, for an order to compel the same. [C51, §788; R60, §1357; C73, §1333; C97, §2219; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5303; C39, §3828.079; C46, §252.7]

252.7 Notice—hearing. At least ten days notice in writing of the application shall be given to the parties sought to be charged, service thereof to be made as of an original notice, in which proceedings the county shall be plaintiff and the parties served defendants. No order shall be made affecting a person not served, but, as to such, notice may be given at any stage of the proceedings. The court may proceed in a summary manner to hear all the allegations and proofs of the parties, and order any one or more of the relatives who shall be able, to relieve or maintain him or her, charging them as far as practicable in the order above named, and for that purpose may bring in new parties when necessary. [C51, §§790-792; R60, §§1358-1360; C73, §§1334-1336; C97, §2220; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5303; C39, §3828.075; C46, §252.7]
252.8 Scope of order. The order may be for the entire or partial support of the applicant, may be for the payment of money or the taking of the applicant to a relative's house, or may assign him or her for a certain time to one and for another period to another, as may be just and right, taking into view the means of the several relatives liable, but no such assignment shall be made to one who is willing to pay the amount necessary for support. If the order be for relief in any other form than money, it shall state the extent and value thereof per week, and the time such relief shall continue; or the order may make the time of continuance indefinite, and it may be varied from time to time by a new order, as circumstances may require, upon application to the court by the trustees, the poor person, or the relative affected, ten days notice thereof being given to the party or parties concerned. [C51, §§793-795; R60, §§1361-1363; C73, §§1337-1339; C97, §2219; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5304; C39, §3828.080; C46, §252.8]

252.9 Judgment—appeal. When money is ordered to be paid, it shall be paid to such person as the court may direct. If support be not rendered as ordered, the court upon such fact being shown by the affidavit of one or more of the proper trustees, may render judgment and order execution for the amount due, rating any support ordered in kind at the valuation previously made. An appeal may be taken from the judgment rendered to the supreme court. Support for later periods under the same order may be, as it becomes due, applied for and obtained in the same manner. [C51, §§796-798; R60, §§1364-1366; C73, §§1340-1342; C97, §2219; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5305; C39, §3828.081; C46, §252.9]

252.10 Abandonment—order as to property. When father or mother abandons any child, husband his wife, or wife her husband, leaving them at public charge or likely to become such, the trustees of the township, upon application to them, may make complaint to the district court or judge thereof in the county in which such abandoned person resides, or in which any property of such father, mother, husband, or wife is situated, for an order to seize such property, and, upon proof of the necessary facts, the court or judge shall issue an order, directed to the sheriff of the county, to take and hold possession of said property, subject to the further orders of the court, which order shall be executed by taking possession of chattel property wherever found, and shall entitle the officer serving the same to collect and hold the rents accruing upon real property. [C51, §§799, 800; R60, §§1367, 1368; C73, §§1343, 1344; C97, §2220; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5306; C39, §3828.082; C46, §252.10]

252.11 Preservation and release of lien. Statement of the issuance of the order and a description of any real estate sought to be affected thereby, shall be entered in the encumbrance book, and from the date thereof shall be superior in right to any conveyance or lien created by the owner thereafter, and return shall be made of said order to the proper court, where the order of seizure, upon investigation, may be discharged or continued; if continued, the entire matter shall be subject to the control of the court, and it shall from time to time make such orders as to the disposition of the personal property seized, and the application of it or the proceeds thereof, as it may deem proper, and of the disposition of the rents and profits of the real estate. Should the party against whom the order issued thereafter resume his or her support of the person abandoned, or give bond with sureties, to be approved by the clerk, conditioned that such person shall not become chargeable to the county, the order shall be by the clerk discharged and the property remaining restored. [C51, §§801-804; R60, §§1369-1372; C73, §§1345-1348; C97, §2220; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5307; C39, §3828.083; C46, §252.11]

252.12 Trial by jury. In all cases the party sought to be charged with the support of another may demand a jury trial upon the question of his obligation and ability to render such support, the alleged abandonment, and the liability of the person abandoned to become a public charge: such trial to be had upon demand, which may be made at the time of the hearing of the application for the order, or at such other time as may be directed by the court, upon notice to the defendant. [C31, 35, §5309-61; C39, §3828.086; C46, §252.14]

252.15 Recovery by relative. A more distant relation, who may have been compelled to aid a poor person, may recover from any one or more of the nearer relatives, and one so compelled to aid may recover contribution from others in the same degree, and a recovery may be had against the poor person or his estate, if, after such aid or support has been given, the person aided or supported becomes able to repay the same; but proceedings to recover therefor must be brought within two years from the time a cause of action accrues. [C51,§807; R60,§1375; C73,§1351; C97,§2223; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5310; C39,§3828.087; C46,§252.15]

1. Any person continuously residing in any one county of this state for a period of two years without being warned to depart as provided in this chapter acquires a settlement in that county, but if such person has been warned to depart as provided in this chapter, then such settlement can only be acquired after such person has resided in any one county without being warned to depart as provided in this chapter for a continuous period of two years from and after such time as such person shall have filed with the board of supervisors of such county an affidavit stating that such person is no longer a pauper and intends to acquire a settlement in that county.

2. Any person having acquired a settlement in any county of this state shall not acquire a settlement in any other county until such person shall have continuously resided in said county for a period of two years without being warned to depart as provided in this chapter.

3. Any such person who is an inmate of or is supported by any institution whether organized for pecuniary profit or not or any institution supported by charitable or public funds in any county in this state or any person who is being supported by public funds shall not acquire a settlement in said county unless such person before becoming an inmate thereof or being supported thereby has a settlement in said county.

4. A married woman has the settlement of her husband, if he has one in this state; if not, or if she lives apart from or is abandoned by him, she may acquire a settlement as if she were unmarried. Any settlement which the wife had at the time of her marriage may at her election be resumed upon the death of her husband, or if she be divorced or abandoned by him, if both settlements were in this state.

5. Legitimate minor children take the settlement of their father, if there be one, if not, then that of the mother.

6. Illegitimate children take the settlement of their mother, or, if she has none, then that of their putative father.

7. Any person with settlement in this state who enlists in or is induced into the military or naval service of the United States shall retain such settlement during the period of his military or naval service. Any person without settlement in this state who is serving in said military or naval service within the borders of this state shall not acquire a settlement during the period of such service. [C51,§808; R60,§1376; C73,§1352; C97,§2224; C24, 27, 31, 35,§5311; C39, §3828.088; C46,§252.16]

252.17 Settlement continues. A legal settlement once acquired shall so remain until such person has removed from this state for more than one year or has acquired a legal settlement in some other county or state. [C51,§809; R60,§1377; C73,§1353; C97,§2224; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5312; C36,§3828.089; C46,§252.17]

252.18 Foreign paupers.

1. Any person who is a county charge or likely to become such, coming from another state and not having acquired a settlement in any county of this state or any such person having acquired a settlement in any county of this state who removes to another county, may be removed from this state or from the county into which such person has moved, as the case may be, at the expense of the county wherein said person is found, upon the petition of said county to the district or superior court of that county.

2. The court or judge shall fix the time and place of hearing on said petition and prescribe the time and manner of service of the notice of such hearing.

3. If upon the hearing on said petition such person shall be ordered to remove from the state or county and fails to do so, he shall be deemed and declared in contempt of court and may be punished accordingly; or the judge may order the sheriff of the county seeking the removal to return such person to the state or county of his legal settlement. [C51,§811: R60,§1379; C73,§1354; C97,§2225; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5313; C39,§3828.090; C46,§252.18]

252.19 Importation prohibited. [C51,$2736; R60,$4379; C73,§4045; C97,$5009; C24, 27, 31, 35,$5314; C39,§3828.091; C46,$252.19]

252.20 Notice to depart. Persons coming into the state, or going from one county to another, who are county charges or are likely to become such, may be prevented from acquiring a settlement by the authorities of the county, township, or city in which such persons are found warning them that their continued residence in the county will not result in their acquiring legal settlement rendering them eligible to receive poor relief from the funds of the county. Such warning shall state that its purpose is to prevent eligibility to receive poor relief from the funds of the county, and in no way affects any other legal right of the person on whom the warning is served. After such warning, such persons cannot acquire a settlement except by the requisite residence of two years after the filing of the affidavit as provided in subsection 1 of section 252.16. [C51, §812; R60, §1380; C73, §1355; C97, §2228; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5315; C39, §3828.002; C46, §252.20]

Such warning shall be in writing, and may be served upon the order of the trustees of the township, or of the board of supervisors, by any person; and such person shall make a return of his doings thereon to the board of supervisors, which, if not made by a sworn officer, must be verified by affidavit.

In the event such person cannot be found within the county, any person attempting to make such service shall file with the board of supervisors an affidavit that diligent search has been made and that such persons cannot be found within the county and the same shall constitute sufficient service of warning as provided herein. [C51, §813; R60, §1381; C73, §1356; C97, §2227; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5316; C39, §3828.093; C46, §252.21]

If it is not, the poor person, if able, may be removed to the county of his settlement, or, at the request of the auditor or board of supervisors of the county of his settlement, he may be maintained where he then is at the expense of such county, and without affecting his legal settlement.

All laws relating to the support of the poor as provided by this chapter shall be applicable to care, treatment, and hospitalization provided by county public hospitals. [C51, §§816, 817; R60, §§1384, 1385; C73, §§1359, 1360; C97, §2228; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5318; C39, §3828.095; C46, §252.23]

252.24 County of settlement liable. The county where the settlement is liable is the county rendering relief for all reasonable charges incurred in the relief and care of a poor person, and for the charges of removal and expenses of support incurred.

When relief as herein provided is furnished by any governmental agency of the county, township or city, such relief shall be deemed to have been furnished by the county in which such agency is located and the agency furnishing such relief shall certify the correctness of the costs of such relief to the board of supervisors of said county and said county shall collect from the county of such person's settlement. 1. A husband in one state is hereby declared to be liable for the support of his wife and any child or children under seventeen years of age and any other dependent residing or found in the same state or in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws, and, if possessed of sufficient means or able to earn such means, she may be required to pay for their support a fair and reasonable sum according to her means, as may be determined by the court having jurisdiction of the respondent in a proceeding instituted under this chapter.

2. A mother in one state is hereby declared to be liable for the support of her child or children under seventeen years of age residing or found in the same state or in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws, whenever the father of such child or children is dead, or cannot be found, or is incapable of supporting such child or children, and, if she is possessed of sufficient means or able to earn such means, she may be required to pay for the support of such child or children a fair and reasonable sum according to her means, as may be determined by the court having jurisdiction of the respondent in a proceeding instituted under this chapter.

232A.4 Jurisdiction. For the purposes of this chapter:

1. The court shall have jurisdiction regardless of the state of last residence or domicile of the petitioner and the respondent and whether or not the respondent has ever been a resident of the initiating state or the dependent person has ever been a resident of the responding state.

2. The court of the responding state shall have the power to order the respondent to pay sums sufficient to provide necessary food, shelter, clothing, care, medical or hospital expenses, expenses of confinement, expenses of education of a child, funeral expenses and such other reasonable and proper expenses of the petitioner as justice requires, having due regard to the circumstances of the respective parties.

3. The courts of both the initiating state and the responding state shall have the power to order testimony to be taken in either or both of such states by deposition or written interrogatories, and to limit the nature of and the extent to which the right so to take testimony shall be exercised, provided that the respondent is given a full and fair opportunity to answer the allegations of the petitioner. [53GA, ch 103,§4]

232A.5 When proceeding may be maintained. A proceeding to compel support of a dependent may be maintained under this chapter in any of the following cases:

1. Where the petitioner and the respondent are residents of or domiciled or found in the same state.

2. Where the petitioner resides in one state and the respondent is a resident of or is domiciled or found in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws.

3. Where the respondent is not and never was a resident of or domiciled in the initiating state and the petitioner resides or is domiciled in such state and the respondent is believed to be a resident of or domiciled in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws.

4. Where the respondent was or is a resident of or domiciled in the initiating state and has departed or departs from such state leaving therein a dependent in need of and entitled to support under this chapter and is believed to be a resident of or domiciled in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws. [53GA, ch 103,§5]
252A.6 How commenced—trial.

1. A proceeding under this chapter shall be commenced by a petitioner by filing a verified petition in the court in the county of the state wherein he resides or is domiciled, showing the name, age, residence and circumstances of the petitioner, alleging that he is in need of and is entitled to support from the respondent, giving his name, age, residence and circumstances, and praying that the respondent be compelled to furnish such support.

2. If the respondent be a resident of or domiciled in such state and the court has or can acquire jurisdiction of the person of the respondent under existing laws in effect in such state, such laws shall govern and control the procedure to be followed in such proceeding.

3. If the respondent be not a resident of, or domiciled in, or cannot be found in such state, a judge of such court shall certify that a verified petition has been filed in his court in a proceeding against the respondent under this chapter to compel the support of the petitioner, that a summons duly issued out of his court for service upon the respondent has been returned with an affidavit to the effect that the respondent cannot with due diligence be located or served with such process in the initiating state, that the respondent is believed to be residing or domiciled in the responding state and that, in his opinion, the respondent should be compelled to answer such petition and should be dealt with according to law, and he shall transmit such certificate and exemplified copies of such petition and summons to the appropriate court in the responding state.

4. Any judge of a court in the county of the responding state in which the respondent resides or is domiciled or found, upon presentation to him of such certificate and exemplified copies of such petition and summons, shall fix a time and place for a hearing on such petition and shall issue a summons out of his court, directed to the respondent, duly requiring him to appear at such time and place.

5. It shall not be necessary for the petitioner or the petitioner's witnesses to appear personally at such hearing, but it shall be the duty of the petitioner's representative of the responding state to appear on behalf of and represent the petitioner at all stages of the proceeding.

6. If at such hearing the respondent controverts the petition and enters a verified denial of any of the material allegations thereof, the judge presiding at such hearing shall stay the proceedings and transmit to the judge of the court in the initiating state a transcript of the clerk's minutes showing the denials entered by the respondent.

7. Upon receipt by the judge of the court in the initiating state of such transcript, such court shall take such proof, including the testimony of the petitioner and the petitioner's witnesses and such other evidence as the court may deem proper, and, after due deliberation, the court shall make its recommendation, based on all of such proof and evidence, and shall transmit to the court in the responding state an exemplified transcript of such proof and evidence and of its proceedings and recommendation in connection therewith.

MEDICAL AND SURGICAL TREATMENT OF INDIGENT PERSONS

255.1 Complaint. Any adult resident of the state may file a complaint in the office of the clerk of any juvenile court, charging that any legal resident of Iowa residing in the county where the complaint is filed is pregnant or is suffering from some malady or deformity that can probably be improved or cured or advantageously treated by medical or surgical treatment or hospital care, and that neither such person nor persons legally chargeable with his support are able to pay therefor. [SS15, §254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4009; C39, §3828.136; C46, §255.1]

Upon the filing of such complaint, the clerk shall docket the same and shall appoint a competent physician and surgeon, living in the vicinity of the patient, who shall personally examine the patient with respect to said pregnancy, malady, or deformity. [SS15, §254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4008; C39, §3828.135; C46, §255.4]

255.5 Report by physician. Such physician shall make a report in duplicate on blanks furnished as hereinafter provided, answering the questions contained therein and setting forth the information required thereby, giving such history of the case as will be likely to aid the medical or surgical treatment or hospital care of such patient, describing the pregnancy, deformity, or malady in detail, and stating whether or not in his opinion the same can probably be improved or cured or advanta-geously treated, which report shall be filed in the office of the clerk within such time as the clerk may fix. [SS15, §§254-b, j; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4009; C39, §3828.136; C46, §255.5]

255.6 Investigation and report. When such complaint is filed, the clerk shall furnish the county attorney and board of supervisors with a copy thereof and said board shall, by the overseer of the poor or such other agent as it may select, make a thorough investigation of facts as to the legal residence of the patient, and the ability of the patient or others chargeable with his support to pay the expense of such treatment and care; and shall file a report of such investigation in the office of the clerk, at or before the time of hearing. [SS15, §254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4010; C39, §3828.137; C46, §255.6]

255.7 Notice of hearing — duty of county attorney. When the physician's report has been filed, the clerk shall, with the consent of the court or judge, fix a time and place for hearing of the matter by the court, and the county attorney shall cause such patient and the parent or parents, guardian, or person having the legal custody of said patient, if under legal disability, to be served with such notice of the time and place of the hearing as the judge or clerk may prescribe. [SS15, §254-c; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4011; C39, §3828.138; C46, §255.7]

neither the patient nor any person legally chargeable with his or her support is able to pay the expenses thereof, then the clerk of court, except in obstetrical cases and cases of crippled children, shall immediately ascertain from the admitting physician at the university hospital whether such person can be received as a patient within a period of thirty days, and if the patient can be so received, the court shall then enter an order directing that said patient be sent to the university hospital for proper medical and surgical treatment and hospital care. If the court ascertain, excepting in obstetrical cases and orthopedic cases, that a person of the age or sex of the patient, or afflicted by the complaint, disease or deformity with which such person is affected cannot be received as a patient at the said university hospital within the period of thirty days, then he shall enter an order directing the board of supervisors of the county to provide adequate treatment at county expense for said patient at home or in a hospital. Obstetrical cases and orthopedic cases may be committed to the university hospital without regard to the limiting period of thirty days hereinbefore stated. In any case of emergency the court without previous inquiry may at its discretion order the patient to be immediately taken to and accepted by the university hospital for the necessary care as provided in section 255.11, but if such a patient cannot be immediately accepted at the university hospital as ascertained by telephone if necessary, the court may enter an order as in certain cases above set forth directing the board of supervisors to provide adequate treatment at county expense for the said patient at home or in a hospital. [C31, 35, §4012-d1; C39, §3828.140; C46, §255.9]

255.10 Religious belief — denial of order. The court in its discretion may refuse to make such order in any case where the court finds the patient or his parent, parents, or guardian are members of a religious denomination whose tenets preclude dependence on the practice of medicine or surgery and desire in good faith to rely upon the practice of their religion for relief from disease or disorder. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §4013; C39, §3828.141; C46, §255.10]

255.11 Order in case of emergency. In cases of great emergency, when the court or judge is satisfied that delay would be seriously injurious to the patient, he may make such order with the consent of the patient, if adult, or of the parent or parents, guardian, or person having the legal custody of said patient, if a minor or incompetent, without examination, report, notice, or hearing. [SS15, §254-c; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4014; C39, §3828.142; C46, §255.11]

The physician appointed by the court to make the examination and report shall receive therefor three dollars for each examination and report so made and his actual necessary expenses incurred in making such examination, but if said physician receives a salary or other compensation from the public for his full-time services, then no such examination fee shall be paid. The actual, necessary expenses of transporting and caring for the patient shall be paid as hereinafter provided. [SS15, §254-h; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4016; C39, §3828.144; C46, §255.13]

255.15 Duty of admitting physician at hospital. The authorities in control of the medical college shall designate some physician to pass upon the admission of such patient, and it shall be his duty to receive such patient into the hospital and to provide for him, if available, a cot, bed, or room in said hospital, and to assign him to the appropriate clinic and for treatment by the proper physician, unless, in his judgment, the presence of the patient in the hospital would be dangerous to other patients, or there is no reasonable probability that he may be benefited by the proposed treatment or hospital care. If the admitting physician shall deny admission to the patient, he shall make a report in duplicate of his reasons therefor.

Referred to in §255.18

255.16 County quotas. Subject to subsequent qualifications in this section, there shall be treated at the university hospital during each fiscal year a number of committed indigent patients from each county which shall bear the same relation to the total number of committed indigent patients admitted during the year as the population of such county shall bear to the total population of the state according to the last preceding official census. This standard shall apply to indigent patients, the expenses of whose commitment, transportation, care and treatment shall be borne by appropriated funds and shall not govern the admission of either obstetrical or orthopedic patients. If the number of patients admitted from any county shall exceed by more than ten percent the county quota as fixed and ascertained under the first sentence of this section, the charges and expenses of the care and treatment of such patients in excess of ten percent of the quota shall be paid from the funds of such county at actual cost: but if the number of excess patients from any county shall not exceed ten percent, all costs, expenses, and charges incurred in their behalf shall be paid from the appropriation for the support of the hospital.

Appropriation, 52GA, ch 150, §6

275.1 Consolidation of districts—survey. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the state to encourage by the granting of state aid the reorganization of school districts into such units as are necessary, economical and efficient and which will assure an equal educational opportunity to all the children of the state. In conformity to the county administration law, chapter 273, the county board of education in each county of the state shall initiate detailed studies and surveys of the school districts within the county and territory adjacent thereto for the purpose of promoting such reorganization of districts by unions, mergers, reorganizations or centralization as will effect more economical operation and the attainment of higher standards of education in the schools.

Such detailed studies and surveys shall be commenced within six months after May 9, 1947. [C46, §275.1; 52GA, ch 150, §§1, 5]

Referred to in §275.3

275.2 Scope. The scope of such studies and surveys shall include the following matters in the various districts in the county: The adequacy of the educational program, average daily attendance of pupils, property valuations, existing buildings and equipment, natural community areas, road conditions, transportation, economic factors, and such other matters that may bear on educational programs meeting minimum standards required by law. [C46, §275.2]

275.3 Hearings. In making such studies and surveys the board in each county shall consult with the officials of affected districts and other citizens, and shall from time to time hold public hearings, and may employ such research and other assistance as it may determine reasonably necessary in order to properly carry on its survey and prepare definite plans of reorganization. In the development of such reorganization plans and surveys the county boards shall call upon the department of public instruction for advice and counsel in order to keep such reorganization plans in conformity to the statewide plan of education and to state laws.

For the purpose of assisting the county boards of education in adopting reorganization plans which conform to the statewide plan of education and to state laws, the state superintendent of public instruction shall cause reorganization plans and suggestions to be prepared and forwarded to the county superintendents of schools together with such recommendations as may promote the purposes set forth in section 275.1. [C46, §275.3; 52GA, ch 150, §2]

275.4 Proposition submitted. Upon final approval by the county board of any plan of reorganization, the county board through its executive officer shall, at the next school election, submit same to the qualified electors of the affected districts in the manner provided for in sections 296.4 and 296.5. If a majority of the votes cast in each of the affected districts are in favor of the plan, the same shall go into effect and the reorganized district or districts shall become a school corporation or corporations in accordance with the plan on the first day of July following said election; provided, however, that when the plan for reorganization of school districts includes all or portions of five or more separate, regularly established school districts, and eighty percent of the affected districts or portions of districts, vote in favor of the plan, then the plan shall be deemed to have been adopted by the districts or portions of districts voting approval, and the district or portion of a district voting adversely to such plan shall be omitted from the newly formed district. [C46, §275.4; 52GA, ch 150, §3]

275.5 Election of officers. If the plan of reorganization carries, the county board through its executive officer shall call a special election in and for the new school corporation or corporations for the election of directors and treasurer, said election to be held on or before the tenth day of June, and notice of same to be given by one publication in the same newspapers in which the former notices were published, and he shall appoint judges who shall serve without pay. At such election there shall be elected a treasurer for two years, and directors as provided in section 277.25, and except as may be otherwise provided in this chapter, the election shall be conducted as provided in chapter 277. [C46.§275.5]

275.6 Expenses of election. If the plan of reorganization so submitted to vote of affected districts carries, the newly created district shall pay the expenses of the election and the proceedings to initiate the election, and if the plan involved the creation of more than one new district, such costs shall be divided between the new districts in proportion to the assessed valuation of property therein. The costs of the special election for election of the first board of directors and treasurer shall be paid by each newly formed district. If the plan of reorganization does not carry, the said election expenses shall be apportioned by the county board among the several affected districts in proportion to the assessed valuation of property therein, and as thus apportioned be paid by the respective districts. [C46.§275.6]

275.7 Division of assets and liabilities. A plan of reorganization in addition to setting up the territory to comprise the reorganized districts, may provide for a division of assets and liabilities of the old districts between reorganized districts. If no provision is made in the plan for the division of assets and liabilities, such division shall be made under the provisions of sections 274.19 to 274.21, inclusive. [C46.§275.7]

275.8 Progressive program. It is the intent of this chapter that the county board shall carry on the program of reorganization progressively and shall, insofar as is possible, submit plans as they are developed and approved. [C46.§275.8]

275.9 Budget. The county board of education shall include in the budget submitted each year such sums as it deems necessary to carry on its reorganization work under this chapter. [C46.§275.9]

275.10 Co-operation of state department. The state department of public instruction shall co-operate with the several county boards of education in making the studies and surveys required hereunder. In the case of controversy arising over the organization of joint districts, the matter shall be submitted to the state department of public instruction and its decision shall be final. Joint districts shall mean districts that lie in two or more adjacent counties. [C46.§275.10]

275.11 Supplementary provisions. The provisions of this chapter are supplemental to the existing provisions of law for the promotion of districts and the changing of boundaries of districts. [C46.§275.11]

275.12 Aid not to be withheld. School aid funds shall not be withheld from any school solely for the reason that said district has failed to comply with an order for reorganization. [C46.§275.12]
