conform to county plan or the petition shall request change of the county plan, shall be filed with the superintendent of schools of the county in which the greatest number of electors reside. Such petition shall be signed by voters in each existing school district affected or portion thereof equal in number to at least twenty percent of the number of eligible voters or four hundred voters, whichever is the smaller number. School districts affected or portion thereof shall be defined to mean that area to be included in the plan of the proposed new school district.

2. Such petition shall also state the number of directors which may be either five or seven and the method of election of the school directors of the proposed district. The method of election of the directors shall be one of the following optional plans:

c. In such case, all directors shall be elected by the electors of the entire school district.

d. Division of the entire school district into designated geographical subdistricts, to be known as director districts, each of which director districts shall be represented on the school board by one director who shall be a resident of such director district and who shall be elected by the voters of said director district. Place of voting in such director districts shall be designated by the county board.

3. If the petition proposes the division of the school district into director districts, the boundaries of such proposed director districts shall be described in the petition.

4. The county board or boards of education in reviewing such petition shall proceed in sections 275.15 and 275.16 shall review the proposed method of election of school directors and shall have the duty and authority to change or amend such plan in any manner, including the changing of boundaries of director districts if proposed, or to specify a different method of electing school directors on the basis of area, school population, or assessed valuation as may be required by law, justice, equity, and the interest of the people. In such action the county board or boards shall follow the same procedure as is required by sections 275.15 and 275.16 for other action on the petition by the county board or boards.

The county superintendent shall at once publish the decision in the same newspaper in which the original notice was published.

In case a controversy arises from such meeting, the county board or boards or any school district aggrieved may bring the controversy to the state department of public instruction, as provided in section 275.8, within twenty days from the publication of this order, and if said controversy is taken to the state department of public instruction, written notice shall be given to all county boards and school districts affected or portions thereof.

280A.9 Disapproval of plan. When a plan is disapproved, a statement of the reasons for such disapproval shall be forwarded to each of the planning boards. Within fifteen calendar days from the date of receiving such statement, the planning boards or their authorized representative may request a hearing by the state board on the disapproved plan. The state board shall grant the hearing within thirty calendar days after receipt of the request. Upon receiving all evidence and arguments presented by the planning boards or their representative, the state board may reaffirm or reconsider its previous action with respect to the disapproved plan or may request the planning boards to modify and resubmit the plan. [C66, 71, §280A.9]

The board of directors shall thereafter organize on the first Monday in October of each year. Organization of the board shall be effected by the election of a president and such other officers from the board membership as board members so determine. The board of directors shall appoint a secretary and a treasurer who shall each give bond as prescribed in section 291.2 and who shall each receive such salary as shall be determined by the board. The secretary and treasurer shall perform such duties as are prescribed in chapter 291 and such additional duties as the board of directors may deem necessary. The frequency of meetings other than organizational meetings shall be as determined by the board of directors but the president or a majority of the members may call a special meeting at any time. [C66, 71, §280A.13]

280A.14 Expenses prorated. All expenses incurred in electing the initial board of a merged area shall be prorated among the several county school systems included in the area, in the proportion that the value of taxable property in each county school system, or any portion thereof which is part of the merged area, bears to the total value of taxable property in the area. The superintendent responsible for calling and conducting the election shall certify to each county board of education the amount which each board owes. [C66, 71, §280A.14]

280A.17 Preparation of budget. The board of directors of each merged area shall prepare an annual budget designating the proposed expenditures for operation of the area vocational school or area community college. The board shall further designate the amounts which are to be raised by local taxation and shall, prior to July 1, either grant its approval or return the budget without approval with the comments of the state board thereto. Any unapproved budget shall be resubmitted to the state board for final approval or return. [C66, 71, §280A.17] approval. Upon approval of the budget by the state board, the board of directors shall prorate the amount to be raised by local taxation among the respective county school systems or parts thereof, in the proportion that the value of taxable property in each system, or part thereof, bears to the total value of taxable property in the area. The board of directors shall certify the amount so determined to the respective county auditors and the boards of supervisors shall levy a tax sufficient to raise the amount. No tax in excess of three-fourths mill shall be levied on taxable property in a merged area for the operation of an area vocational school or area community college. Taxes collected pursuant to such levy shall be paid by the respective county treasurers to the treasurer of the merged area in the same manner that other school taxes are paid to local school districts.

It is the policy of this state that the property tax for the operation of area schools shall not in any event exceed three-fourths mill, and that the present and future costs of such operation in excess of the funds raised by such three-fourths mill levy shall be the responsibility of the state and shall not be paid from property tax. [C6, 71,§280A.17]

280A.18 Other funds received. In addition to revenue derived by tax levy, a board of directors of a merged area shall be authorized to receive and expend:

1. Federal funds made available and administered by the state board, for such purposes as may be provided by federal laws, rules, and regulations.

2. Other federal funds for such purposes as may be provided by federal law, subject to the approval of the state board.

3. Tuition for instruction received by persons who reside outside the area, or by persons twenty-one years of age or over who are high school graduates residing within the area.

4. State aid to be paid in accordance with the statutes which provide such aid.

5. State funds for sites and facilities made available and administered by the state board.

6. Donations and gifts which may be accepted by the governing board and expended in accordance with the terms of the gift without compliance with the local budget law.

7. Student fees collected from students for activities, laboratory breakage, instructional materials, and other objects and purposes for which student fees other than tuition are customarily charged by colleges and universities, as provided in a schedule of fees adopted by the area board of directors. The expenditure of funds collected from students for activities shall be determined by the student government unit with administrative and board approval. Any increases in student fees for activities shall be determined by the student government unit with administrative and board approval. [C6, 71,§280A.18; 61 GA, ch 164,§1]

280A.19 Acquisition of sites and buildings. Boards of directors of merged areas may acquire sites and erect and equip buildings for use by area vocational schools or area community colleges and may contract indebtedness and issue bonds to raise funds for such purposes. [C6, 71,§280A.19]

280A.21 Election to incur indebtedness. No indebtedness shall be incurred under section 280A.19 until authorized by an election. A proposition to incur indebtedness and issue bonds for area vocational school or area community college purposes shall be deemed carried in a merged area if approved by a sixty percent majority of all voters voting on the proposition in the area. [C6, 71,§280A.21]

280A.22 Additional tax. In addition to the tax authorized under section 280A.17, the voters in any merged area may at the annual school election vote a tax not exceeding three-fourths mill on the dollar in any one year for a period not to exceed five years for the purchase of grounds, construction of buildings, payment of debts contracted for the construction of buildings, purchase of buildings and equipment for buildings, and the acquisition of libraries, and for the purpose of maintaining, remodeling, improving, or expanding the area vocational school or area community college of the merged area which tax shall be collected by the county treasurers and remitted to the treasurer of the merged area as other taxes are collected and remitted, and the proceeds of said tax shall be deposited in a separate and distinct fund to be known as the voted tax fund, to be paid out upon warrants drawn by the president and secretary of the board of directors of the merged area district for the payment of costs incurred in providing the school facilities for which the tax was voted.

In order to make immediately available to the merged area the proceeds of the voted tax hereinbefore authorized to be levied, the board of directors of any such merged area is hereby authorized, without the necessity for any further election, to borrow money and enter into loan agreements in anticipation of the collection of such tax, and such board shall, by resolution, provide for the levy of an annual tax, within the limits of the special voted tax hereinbefore authorized, sufficient to pay the amount of any such loan and the interest thereon to maturity as the same becomes due. A certified copy of this resolution shall be filed with the county auditors of the counties in which such merged area is located, and the filing thereof shall make it a duty of such auditors to enter annually this levy for collection until funds are realized to repay the loan and interest thereon in full. Said loan must mature within the number of years for which the tax has been voted and shall bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding seven percent per annum. Any loan agreement entered into pursuant to authority herein contained shall be in such form as the board of directors shall by resolution provide and the loan shall be payable to both principal and interest from the proceeds of the annual levy of the voted tax hereinbefore authorized, or so much thereof as will be sufficient to pay the loan and interest thereon. In furtherance of the foregoing the board of directors of such merged area may, with or without notice, negotiate and enter into a loan agreement or agreements with any bank, investment banker, trust company, insurance company, or group thereof whereunder the borrowing of the necessary funds may be assured and consummated. The proceeds of such loan shall be deposited in a special fund, to be kept separate and apart from all other funds of the merged area, and shall be paid out upon warrants drawn by the president and secretary of the board of directors to pay the cost of acquiring the school facilities for which the tax was voted.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit the authority of the board of directors to levy the full amount of the voted tax, but if and to whatever extent said tax is levied in any year in excess of the amount of principal and interest falling due in such year under any loan agreement, the first available proceeds thereof, to an amount sufficient to meet maturing installments of principal and interest under the loan agreement, shall be paid into the sinking fund for such loan before any of such taxes are otherwise made available to the merged area for other school purposes, and the amount required to be annually set aside to pay the principal of and interest on the money borrowed under such loan agreement shall constitute a first charge upon all of the proceeds of such annual special voted tax, which tax shall be pledged to pay said loan and the interest thereon.

This law shall be construed as supplemental and in addition to existing statutory authority and as providing an independent method of financing the cost of acquiring school facilities for which a tax has been voted under this section and for the borrowing of money and execution of loan agreements in connection therewith and shall not be construed as subject to the provisions of any other law. The fact that a merged area may have previously borrowed money and entered into loan agreements under authority herein contained shall not prevent such merged area from borrowing additional money and entering into further loan agreements provided that the aggregate of the amount payable under all of such loan agreements does not exceed the proceeds of the voted tax. All acts and proceedings hereinafter taken by the board of directors or by any official of any merged area for the exercise of any of the powers granted by this section are hereby legalized and validated in all respects. [C66, 71, §280A.22; 64GA, ch 1061, §1]

280A.23 Authority of area directors. The board of directors of each area vocational school or area community college shall:

1. Determine the curriculum to be offered in such school or college subject to approval of the state board. If an existing private educational or vocational institution within the merged area has facilities and curriculum of adequate size and quality which would duplicate the functions of the area school, the board of directors shall discuss with the institution the possibility of entering into contracts to have the existing institution offer facilities and curriculum to students of the merged area. The board of directors shall consider any proposals submitted by the private institution for providing such facilities and curriculum. The board of directors may enter into such contracts. In approving curriculum, the state board shall ascertain that all courses and programs submitted for approval are needed and that the curriculum being offered by an area school does not duplicate programs provided by existing public or private facilities in the area. In determining whether duplication would actually exist, the state board shall consider the needs of the area and consider whether the proposed programs are competitive as to size, quality, tuition, purposes, and area coverage with existing public and private educational or vocational institutions within the merged area.

2. Change boundaries of director districts in merged areas after each decennial census or change in boundaries of the merged area to compensate for changes in population if such population changes have taken place.

3. Have authority to determine tuition rate for instruction as authorized under section 280A.18, subsection 3. Tuition for residents of Iowa shall not exceed the lowest tuition rate per semester, or the equivalent, charged by an institution of higher education under the state board of regents for a full-time resident student. Tuition for nonresidents of Iowa shall be not less than one hundred fifty percent and not more than two hundred percent. of the tuition established for residents of Iowa. Tuition for resident or nonresident students may be set at a higher figure with the approval of the state board. A lower tuition for nonresidents may be permitted under a reciprocal tuition agreement between a merged area and an educational institution in another state, if the agreement is approved by the state board.

4. Have the powers and duties with respect to such schools and colleges, not otherwise provided in this chapter, which are prescribed for boards of directors of local school districts by chapter 279.

5. Have the power to enter into contracts and take other necessary action to insure a sufficient curriculum and efficient operation and management of the school or college and maintain and protect the physical plant, equipment, and other property of the school or college.

6. Establish policy and make rules, not inconsistent with law and administrative rules, regulations, and policies of the state board, for its own government and that of the administrative, teaching, and other personnel, and the students of the school or college, and aid in the enforcement of such laws, rules, and regulations.

7. Have authority to sell any article resulting from any vocational program or course offered at an area vocational school or area community college. Governmental agencies and governmental subdivisions of the state within the merged areas shall be given preference in the purchase of such articles. All revenue received from the sale of any article shall be credited to the funds of the board of the merged area.

8. With the consent of the inventor, and in the discretion of the board, secure letters patent or copyright on inventions of students, instructors, and officials of any vocational school or community college of the merged area, or take assignment of such letters patent or copyright and make all necessary expenditures in regard thereto. Letters patent or copyright on inventions when so secured shall be the property of the board of the merged area and the royalties and earnings thereon shall be credited to the funds of the board.

9. The area board, when setting the salary of the area superintendent, shall take into consideration the salaries of administrators of educational institutions in the area, and the enrollment of the area schools; the salary range shall be from seventeen thousand dollars to twenty-five thousand dollars per annum. The superintendent shall not be required to hold any teacher's certificate.

10. At the request of an employee through contractual agreement the board may arrange for the purchase of an individual annuity contract for any of their respective employees from any company the employee may choose that is authorized to do business in this state and through an Iowa-licensed insurance agent that the employee may select, for retirement or other purposes and may make payroll deductions in accordance with such arrangements for the purpose of paying the entire premium due and to become due under such contracts. The deductions shall be made in the manner which will qualify the annuity premiums for the benefits afforded under section 403b of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and amendments thereto. The employee's rights under such annuity contract shall be nonforfeitable except for the failure to pay premiums. [C66, 71, §280A.23]

280A.24 Area community college. The board of directors of a merged area initially organized for the establishment of, and which is operating, an area vocational school may with the approval of the state board expand the curriculum of the school to qualify as an area community college. The state board shall upon approval officially classify the school as an area community college.

The standard academic work load for an instructor in arts and science courses shall be fifteen credit hours per school term, and the maximum academic work load for any instructor shall be sixteen credit hours per school term, for classes taught during the normal school day. In addition thereto, any faculty member may teach a course or courses at times other than usual day-course hours, or on days other than the regular school week, involving total class instruction time equivalent to not more than a three-credit-hour course. The total work load for such instructors shall not exceed the equivalent of eighteen credit hours per school term. [C66, 71, §280A.24]

280A.25 Power of state board. The state board shall:

1. Have authority to designate any vocational school or community college as an “area vocational education school” within the meaning of, and for the purpose of administering, the Act of Congress designated the “Vocational Education Act of 1963.” No vocational school or community college shall be so designated by the board for the expenditure of funds under section 35c, subsection “a”, paragraph 5, Title 20, U.S.C., which has not been designated and classified as an area vocational school or area community college by the state board.

2. Change boundaries of director districts in any merged area when the board of directors of the area fails to change boundaries as required under section 280A.23, subsection 2.

3. Change boundaries of merged areas to take into account mergers of local school districts and changes in boundaries of local school districts, when necessary to maintain the policy of this chapter that no local school district shall be a part of more than one merged area. The state board may also make other changes in boundaries of merged areas with the approval of the board of directors of each merged area affected by the change. At any time when the boundaries of a merged area are so changed, the state board may authorize the board of directors of the merged area to levy additional taxes upon the property within the merged area, or any part thereof, and distribute the same so that all parts of the merged area are paying their share toward the support of the school or college.

4. Administer, allocate, and disburse any federal or state funds made available to pay any portion of the cost of acquiring sites for and constructing, acquiring, or remodeling facilities for area vocational schools or area community colleges, and establish priorities for the use of such funds.

7. Have authority to adopt such administrative rules and regulations as it deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

8. Have the power to enter into contracts with local school boards within the area that have and maintain a technical or vocational high school and with private schools or colleges in the cooperative or merged areas to provide courses or programs of study in addition to or as a part of the curriculum made available in the community college or area vocational schools.

9. Make arrangements with boards of merged areas and local school districts to permit students attending high school to participate in vocational-technical programs and obtain credit for such participation for application toward the completion of a high school diploma. The granting of such credit shall be subject to the approval of the state board.

280A.26 Former community or junior colleges. Any local school district which operated a community or junior college for any period between September 1, 1964, and July 4, 1965, may continue to operate such college. Existing public community or junior colleges may be converted into area vocational schools or area community colleges in the manner provided in this chapter. In addition, an existing public community or junior college may be converted into an area vocational school or area community college by agreement between the board of directors of the local school district operating the community or junior college and the board of directors of the merged area. Such agreement shall be effective only if approved by the state board of public instruction. Such agreement shall provide for reasonable compensation to such local school district.

Where the board of any local school district operating a community or junior college and the board of directors of the merged areas are not in agreement on the reasonable value of any public community or junior college which is to be converted, the matters of disagreement shall be decided by three disinterested arbitrators; one selected by the local board, one by the board of the merged area, and one by the two arbitrators so selected. The decision of the arbitrators shall be made in writing and a copy of the decision shall be filed with the secretary of the board of the merged area and the secretary of the local board. Any party to the proceedings may appeal therefrom to the district court by serving notice thereof within twenty days after the decision is filed. Such appeal shall be tried in equity and a decree entered determining the entire matter. The decree so entered shall be final. [C66, 71, §280A.26]

280A.27 Area schools branch in department. There shall be an area schools branch within the state department of public instruction. 280A.35 Limitation on land. A merged area may not purchase land which will increase the aggregate of land owned by such area, excluding land which has been or may be acquired by donation or gift, by more than three hundred twenty acres. Such limitation shall not apply to merged areas owning more than three hundred twenty acres, excluding land acquired by donation or gift, prior to January 1, 1969.

With the approval of the state board, the board of directors of any merged area at any time may sell any land in excess of one hundred sixty acres owned by the merged area, and no election shall be necessary in connection with such sale notwithstanding any other provisions of law. Upon obtaining the approval of the state board, the board shall invite bids thereon, by advertisement published once each week for two consecutive weeks in the county where the building is to be located. Such lease agreement shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, or the board may reject all bids and readvertise for new bids. [C71,§280A.38]

280A.39 Combining merged areas—election. Any merged area may combine with any adjacent merged area after a favorable vote by the electors of each of the areas involved. If the boards of directors of two or more merged areas agree to a combination, the question shall be submitted to the electors of each area at a special election to be held on the same day in each area. The special election shall not be held within thirty days of any general election. A school district, county board of education, or joint county board of education that provides special education as required by this chapter shall, prior to each March 1, apply to the department of public instruction, upon forms prescribed by the department, for qualification to receive reimbursement pursuant to this chapter. During the following fiscal year the department shall approve each application and qualification if the district, county board of education, or joint county board establishes all of the following:

1. That there are sufficient students within the area who are in need of the instruction.
2. That the applying unit is the unit that can best and most efficiently provide for the instruction without duplicating services otherwise provided, as opposed to another available educational unit.
3. That the unit has qualified teachers available.
4. That the instruction is a natural and normal progression of a planned course or courses of instruction, and that this progressive growth factor is not out of proportion to the ability of the educational unit to pay for the courses of instruction.
5. That all reimbursement sought is for actual delivery of special education services and not for administrative costs.
6. Other factors as the department may require.

There is hereby appropriated out of the general fund of the state to the department of public instruction beginning July 1, 1973, a sum sufficient to pay all approved applications for reimbursement pursuant to this chapter and this section, to the extent that the approved applications are for expanded special education programs beyond those programs provided for the fiscal year commencing July 1, 1971, or January 1, 1972, but only to the extent that the expanded programs would have qualified for state reimbursement pursuant to this chapter, as interpreted by the rules of the state department of public instruction effective on July 1, 1970. The county treasurer shall transmit to the auditor an order directing him to transfer the amount of such account from the funds of the debtor corporation to the creditor corporation, and he shall pay the same accordingly. In such case the cost of the tuition and transportation, when required by law, shall be paid by the treasurer of the state as provided in section 282.23. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4283; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §282.22]

The tuition and transportation when required of such a child, at the rates established by law, shall be paid by the treasurer of state from any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, and upon warrants drawn by the state comptroller upon the requisition of the superintendent of public instruction. In such classification the school that falls within the eighty-fifth percentile of the monthly per pupil cost shall form the basis. Using this figure the elementary and high school tuition rates for the succeeding school year shall be determined so that the rate for the high school student is one and seventy-five hundredths times the rate for the elementary student. The junior high school rate shall be one and fifty hundredths times the elementary rate.

The superintendent of public instruction shall, after July 1 but before September 1 of each year, notify every school in the state, affected by this section, what the computed maximum tuition rate shall be for the ensuing year.

Nothing in this section shall prevent the corporation or district in which the student resides from paying a tuition in excess of the maximum computed tuition rates, if the actual per pupil cost of the preceding year so warrants, but in no case may the receiving district or corporation demand more than the maximum rate. §284.1, REIMBURSEMENT OF SCHOOL DISTRICTS

284.1 Reimbursement—by whom computed. When unplatted lands within the boundaries of a school district are owned by the government of the United States, by the state, by a county, or by a municipal corporation located wholly outside said school district, and such lands have been removed from taxation for school purposes, said school district shall be reimbursed, as hereinafter provided, in an amount which shall be computed by the county board of supervisors in the county in which such lands are located, which computation shall be made on or before the first day of September in the year in which said deductions are to be made. [C31.§4283-c9; C35.§4283-el; C39.§4283.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §284.1] Referred to in §§284.2, 284.3

284.2 Basis of computation—limitation. The computation provided for in section 284.1 shall be made: (1) On the basis of the proportion that the assessable value of the total number of acres owned by the government of the United States, by the state, by the county, or by the municipal corporation, as the case may be, in such school district bears to the assessable value of the total number of acres in said school district. The average assessable value per acre of the lands so owned within the school district shall, for the purposes of the computation provided for in this chapter, not exceed the average assessable value per acre of the taxable lands in said district, or (2), if said land or any part thereof is being operated by a municipal corporation for veterans or public housing purposes, and said municipal corporation does not furnish school facilities for tenants' children of school age, then the municipal corporation shall be obligated to provide its proportionate share of the education and building costs of the school district in which said project is located and the computation provided for in section 284.1 shall be made on the basis of the proportion the number of pupils attending said school district from said land bears to the total number of pupils attending said school district. The use of either computation provided for in this section shall be determined on the basis of whichever is the greater. [C31.§4283-c10; C35.§4283-e2; C39.§4283.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §284.2] Referred to in §284.3

284.4 Payment to district. Upon receipt of the certificate provided for in section 284.3, it shall become the duty of the council of such municipal corporation or the county auditor of such county, as the case may be, to cause a warrant in said amount to be drawn on the general fund of such county or such municipal corporation and delivered to the secretary of said school district.

When the computed amount is based upon lands belonging to the state or to the government of the United States, as provided herein, it shall then become the duty of the secretary of the executive council of the state to certify the amount to the state comptroller, who shall draw his warrant to the secretary of said school district and the treasurer of state shall pay the same from any funds of the state not otherwise appropriated.

If the computed reimbursement to a school district on state or government-owned land within the district is not sufficient to cover the tuition such district is required to pay because of children of employees of the state or federal government who reside on such land and attend a public school outside the district in which such land is located, then the county board of supervisors shall add to the computed reimbursement to such district the difference between the computed reimbursement and the tuition such district is required to pay because of the children of such employees, and certify the total to the secretary of the executive council for payment by the state as provided by law.

The executive council of the state shall deduct from tax-free land reimbursement claims those amounts certified to them by county boards of education under section 467B.14. [31, §§4283-c3, c12; C35, §4283-e4; C39, §4283.14; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §284.4] Referred to in §467B.14

It shall also be the duty of the secretary of such school district at the time of certifying

[C31, §4283-c3; C35, §4283-e5; C39, §4283.15; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §281.5]

   a. Elementary pupils residing within the limits of a village, town, or city of less than twenty thousand population wherein the designated school is located, must live more than two miles from the school in their district designated for attendance to be entitled to transportation.
   b. Elementary pupils residing in a district wherein is located a city of twenty thousand or more in population must live more than two miles from the public school designated for attendance to be entitled to transportation.
   c. Elementary pupils residing in a consolidated district not operating a central school, when the school in the district is in operation, must live more than two miles from the school in their own district to be entitled to transportation.

   Boards at their discretion may provide transportation for student children attending public school who live less than the distance at which transportation is required.
   d. High school pupils residing within the limits of a village, town, or city of less than twenty thousand population wherein the designated school is located are not entitled to transportation.
   e. High school pupils residing in a district containing a city of twenty thousand population or over must live more than three miles from high school designated for attendance to be entitled to transportation thereto.

2. Any pupil may be required to meet a school bus on the approved route a distance of not to exceed three-fourths of a mile without reimbursement.

3. In any district where transportation by school bus is impracticable or where school bus service is not available, the board may require the parents or guardian to transport their children to the school designated for attendance. The parent or guardian shall be reimbursed for such transportation by the board of resident district at the rate of twenty-eight cents per mile per day, one way, per family for the distance from pupil's residence to the bus route.

Where transportation by school bus is impracticable or not available or other existing conditions warrant it, arrangements may be made for use of common carriers according to uniform standards established by the state superintendent of public instruction. The cost shall be the actual cost of service not to exceed forty dollars per pupil per year.

6. When the school designated for attendance of pupils is engaged in the transportation of pupils, the sending or designating school shall use these facilities and pay the pro rata cost of transportation except that a district sending pupils to another school may make other arrangements when it can be shown that such arrangements will be more efficient and economical than to use facilities of the receiving school, providing such arrangements are approved by the county board of education.

7. If a board closes either elementary or high school facilities and is approved by the county board of education to operate its own transportation equipment, the full cost of transportation shall be paid by the board for all pupils living beyond the statutory walking distance from the school designated for attendance.

It shall include one-seventh of the original net cost of the bus and such other items as shall be determined and approved by the superintendent of public instruction but no part of the capital outlay cost for school buses and transportation equipment for which the school district is reimbursed from state funds or that portion of the cost of the operation of any school bus used in transporting pupils to and from extra-curricular activities shall be included in determining said pro rata cost. In any district where because of unusual conditions, the cost of transportation is in excess of the actual operating cost of the bus route used to furnish transportation to nonresident pupils, the board of the local district may charge a cost equal to the cost of other schools supplying such service to that area, upon receiving approval of the state director of school transportation. Capital outlay for school buses and transportation equipment shall be excluded from the capital outlay in determining tuition costs as provided in section 279.18, and section 282.20.

11. The pro rata cost of transportation shall be based upon the actual cost for all the children transported in all school buses. It shall include one-seventh of the original net cost of the bus and such other items as shall be determined and approved by the superintendent of public instruction but no part of the capital outlay cost for school buses and transportation equipment for which the school district is reimbursed from state funds or that portion of the cost of the operation of any school bus used in transporting pupils to and from extra-curricular activities shall be included in determining said pro rata cost. In any district where because of unusual conditions, the cost of transportation is in excess of the actual operating cost of the bus route used to furnish transportation to nonresident pupils, the board of the local district may charge a cost equal to the cost of other schools supplying such service to that area, upon receiving approval of the state director of school transportation. Capital outlay for school buses and transportation equipment shall be excluded from the capital outlay in determining tuition costs as provided in section 279.18, and section 282.20.

§285.4 Pupils sent to another district. On or before July 8, 1949, the board in districts not maintaining high school facilities shall by record action designate the school or schools for attendance of all high school pupils from their respective districts. In making designations, the local board shall give consideration to the wishes of the majority of the patrons, the adequacy of the facilities and curricular offerings and available bus service to avoid duplication of transportation facilities to different receiving schools.
When a board closes its elementary school facilities for lack of pupils or by action of the board, it shall, if there is a school bus service available in the area, designate for attendance the school operating the buses, provided the board of such school is willing to receive them and the facilities and curricular offerings are adequate. The board of the district where the pupils reside may with the approval of the county board of education, subject to legal limitations and established uniform standards, designate another rural school and provide their own transportation if the transportation costs will be less than to use the established bus service.

1. Each bus route shall be planned and adjusted to utilize the normal seating capacity of each bus insofar as it is possible to do so.

2. Each bus route shall serve regularly only pupils whose homes are beyond the statutory walking distance to the nearest appropriate school. It is provided, however, that in areas of any county having a population of over one hundred and fifty thousand, where, in the opinion of the board, the volume of traffic is such that the pupils safety depends upon transportation, regular transportation may be provided for pupils living less than the statutory walking distance from the designated school.

3. Each bus route shall serve only those pupils living in those areas where transportation by bus is the most economical method for providing adequate transportation facilities.

4. A route shall not be extended for the purpose of accommodating pupils whose homes are nearer another bus route.

5. Special contracts for transportation of pupils entitled to transportation shall be entered into only when it is more economical to make such special provision than to provide same by regular bus route, or when by reason of physical or mental handicap of the pupil such pupil cannot be transported with safety by bus.

6. The boards shall take advantage of all tax exemptions on fuel, equipment, and of such other economies as are available.

7. CHAPTER 286A
GENERAL AID TO SCHOOLS

286A.1 Area vocational schools, community and junior colleges. The several merged areas operating area vocational schools or community colleges and the several school districts operating junior colleges or community colleges in the state of Iowa shall be entitled to receive financial aid from the state in the manner and amount as provided in this chapter. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §286A.1]

286A.3 Basis of aid—standards for junior colleges. General school aid shall be distributed under this chapter on the basis provided in section 286A.4.

286A.4 Determination. The general school aid funds allocated to each district shall be determined as follows:

Approval standards for public community and junior colleges shall be established and approved as prescribed in section 280A.33, with said standards to be issued and enforced by the state department of public instruction. Eligibility for receipt of state aid for public community and junior colleges shall be determined by the state board of public instruction and the state board of regents. No aid shall be paid to a public community or junior college unless such college meets approval standards. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §286A.3]

286A.6 Rules and regulations.
Multiply one dollar and thirty cents by the number of students for which the district pays tuition for such students to attend an area vocational technical high school or program which has been established and approved under the provisions of chapter 258. Multiply this product by the actual number of days that the vocational technical school was officially in session, not to exceed one hundred eighty days. For any district which has an area vocational technical high school or program established and approved under the provisions of chapter 258, multiply one dollar and fifty cents by the number of full-time day students who have graduated from high school or who are beyond twenty-one years of age and are tuition students. Multiply this product by the actual number of days that the school was officially in session, not to exceed one hundred eighty days. A school district, in computing the tuition to charge such a student, shall deduct the amount of general aid received for such student from the regular tuition for such student. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§286A.4]

286A.5 Information furnished by school district. At the close of each school year, but not later than July 5, the local district or merged area school shall supply to the state department of public instruction the information required for calculation of the amount reimbursable to the district for elementary and secondary school. For any day student who has been enrolled on a less than a full school-day basis, the reimbursement shall be calculated proportionately to the portion for which he is enrolled as shall be determined by the state department of public instruction. For school districts operating a junior college or community college, the aid to the district for such college shall be separately appropriated, calculated, prorated when necessary, and paid as hereinafter provided in sections 286A.9 through 286A.10. Forms for reporting information to calculate aid for elementary and secondary school purposes shall be supplied by the state department of public instruction to each school district not later than June 1. On or before August 1, the state department of public instruction shall furnish to the state comptroller estimates of the amount reimbursable for the year to each school district for general aid for elementary and secondary school purposes and upon said estimates the state comptroller shall, on or about August 1, make payment of the first half of the annual amount appropriated for such general aid. After all such claims have been calculated for the year and validated for accuracy, the state department of public instruction shall certify the same to the state comptroller prior to February 1. On or about February 1, the state comptroller shall make payment to the school districts, of the balance of the amount appropriated for such general aid, which, when taken with the first half payment, conforms to the amount of full year reimbursement due each school district as then validated and certified by the state department of public instruction. In the event that the amount appropriated for reimbursement of the school districts for such purposes is insufficient to pay in full the amounts to each of the school districts or merged areas, then the amount of each payment shall be reduced by the state comptroller in the ratio that the total respective funds appropriated and available for such aid bears to the respective total amounts certified for reimbursement. All funds received or to be received under the provisions of this chapter shall be taken into account and considered by each school district or merged area when estimating the amount required for the general fund. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§286A.5]

286A.6 Rules and regulations. The superintendent of public instruction, subject to the approval of the state board of public instruction, is hereby authorized to adopt such rules and regulations and definitions of terms as are necessary and proper for the administration of this chapter. The necessary expenses incurred by the department in the administration of this chapter may be paid from the appropriation therefor. When such conditions as unnatural weather hazards, bad roads, epidemics, and the like, occur to such an extent as to penalize any district, the superintendent of public instruction can adjust the formula by taking the average of several months' attendance in lieu of the months affected by such epidemics or hazards. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§286A.6]

286A.8 General aid to junior or community colleges. School districts operating a junior or community college shall be entitled to general school aid therefor as follows: Multiply one dollar by the average daily enrollment of the students who are residents of such school district carrying twelve or more semester hours of work plus the full-time equivalent of resident students carrying less than twelve semester hours of work. Multiply two dollars and twenty-five cents by the average daily enrollment of students who are nonresidents of the district carrying twelve or more semester hours of work plus the full-time equivalent of nonresident students carrying less than twelve semester hours of work. Multiply the sum of these products by the actual number of days school was officially in session, not to exceed one hundred eighty days. For the purposes of this section, “work” means subjects or courses; for which credit may be earned and applied toward fulfillment of the requirements for a certificate, diploma, or degree; and which are approved by the state department of public instruction for state aid. [C71,§286A.8]

286A.9 Merged area schools general aid. Merged areas operating area schools shall be entitled to general school aid. Each merged area shall be entitled to two dollars and twenty-five cents per day for the full-time equivalent enrollment of students who are residents of the state. The total amount of state aid allocated to each area shall be computed by the following formula:

\[ \text{State aid} = \text{Full-time equivalent enrollment} \times 180 \text{ days} \times $2.25. \]

The amount appropriated for general state aid for the fiscal year each year, shall first be allocated to each merged area, in accordance with the above formula, on the basis of its reimbursable full-time equivalent enrollment for the previous school year. Any amount remaining shall be allocated to each merged area as provided in sections 286A.11 and 286A.12. Any course or program, the direct operational costs of which are entirely paid by federal, state, or other governmental agencies or private subsidy, or both, shall not be eligible for reimbursement.

For the purpose of this chapter, the following definitions shall apply:

1. "Full-time equivalent enrollment" means the quotient of the total number of reimbursable hours carried by residents of the state attending a single area school, divided by five hundred forty, which represents fifteen reimbursable hours per week for a period of thirty-six weeks.

2. "Reimbursable hour" means any of the following:

a. One contact hour of lecture in an approved course in arts and science or vocational-technical education. A contact hour of lecture is one that requires significant outside preparation.

b. Two contact hours of laboratory in an approved course in arts and science or vocational-technical education.

c. Two contact hours in an approved course of adult education that is eligible for general state aid except that basic adult education, high school completion, and college credit courses that qualify as lecture courses will be reimbursed on a one contact hour basis. Courses dealing with recreation, hobbies, casual cultural, or self-enjoyment subjects shall not be eligible for reimbursement. [C71, §286A.9]

286A.10 Aid paid quarterly. Payment of the aid provided in sections 286A.8 and 286A.9 shall be made to each merged area, and to each school district operating a junior or community college on a quarterly basis, at the end of each quarter of the school year, which commences on July 1 and ends on the following June 30, in the following manner:

1. At the close of each school year but not later than July 5, the board of directors of each school district or merged area shall certify to the state department of public instruction the information necessary to compute the aid entitlement, as hereinabove provided, for the school year ending on June 30 immediately preceding the said July 1. In addition thereto, each said board shall certify to the state department, its best bona fide estimate of what the same data and information will be for the school year that commences upon the said July 1, and ends on the following June 30.

2. On the basis of estimates certified, as provided in subsection 1 hereof, thirty percent of the anticipated aid entitlement for each such school district or merged area shall be paid to the district or merged area at the end of each of the first three quarters of the school year for which said estimates have been certified. The aid payment for the fourth quarter shall be equal to the difference between the aggregate aid payments for the first three quarters and the total amount of aid entitlement computed on the basis of the actual information required for calculation, as certified in the following July, plus or minus such pro rata amount as may be necessary to make the aggregate total of general school aid paid to all such school districts or merged areas, as the case may be, for the said year equal to the respective amounts of aid funds appropriated for payment to such districts or areas in the said year.

3. Forms for the purpose of reporting the information and estimates required under subsection 1 hereof shall be supplied by the state department. After quarterly payments have been calculated they shall be certified to the state comptroller for payment. Such certification shall be made to the comptroller on or about August 1, November 1, February 1, and May 1 for aid payable for the preceding quarter. The comptroller shall pay the quarterly amounts so certified forthwith. [C71, §286A.10]

Referred to in §§286A.5, 286A.10, 286A.11

286A.11 Plan for allocation of remaining funds. The superintendent of public instruction, with the advice and participation of an advisory committee, shall submit a plan to the state comptroller for the allocation of any funds remaining after fulfilling the requirements of section 286A.9.

For the purpose of this section, the "advisory committee" shall consist of one board member from each merged area, to be appointed by each merged area board at its first meeting in July of each year. [C71, §286A.11]

Referred to in §286A.9

286A.12 Uniform accounting system. The superintendent of public instruction shall establish a uniform accounting system for area schools subject to the approval of the auditor of state. The accounting system shall provide for crediting all funds received in the form of federal aid, state aid, tuition, and miscellaneous fees to four separate accounts, as follows:

1. Arts and science education.
2. Vocational-technical education.
3. General adult education.
4. Co-operative programs or services.

All expenditures shall be charged to the appropriate accounts. No funds shall be transferred from one account to another without the approval of the superintendent of public instruction, and notification of all such transfers shall be given to the state comptroller.

The accounting system of each area school shall be audited annually by the auditor of state. [C71, §286A.12] the school corporation except as hereinafter provided.

For the sole purpose of computing the amount of bonds which may be issued as a result of the application of any millage limitation referred to in this section, all interest on the bonds in excess of that accruing in the first twelve months may be excluded from the first annual levy of taxes, so that the need for including more than one year's interest in the first annual levy of taxes to pay the bonds and interest shall not operate to further restrict the amount of bonds which may be issued, and in certifying the annual levies to the county auditor or auditors such first annual levy of taxes shall be sufficient to pay all principal of and interest on said bonds becoming due prior to the next succeeding annual levy and the full amount of such first annual levy shall be entered for collection by said auditor or auditors, as provided in chapter 76.

The amount estimated and certified to apply on principal and interest for any one year may exceed ten mills by such number of mills as may be approved by the voters of the school corporation, but not exceeding fifteen mills, on the dollar of the assessed valuation of the taxable property within any school corporation, provided that the qualified voters of such school corporation have first approved such increased millage at a special election, which may be held at the same time as the regular school election. Notice of such election shall be given by publication once each week for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper published in the school corporation, or if there is no newspaper published in the school corporation, in a newspaper published in the county and of general circulation in the school corporation. Such notice shall state the date of the election, the hours of opening and closing the polls and the exact location thereof, and the question to be submitted. The election shall be held on a date not less than five nor more than twenty days after the last publication of the notice. Such notice shall be sufficient and shall be in lieu of any other notice required by any other statute. At such election the ballot used for the submission of said proposition shall be in substantially the form for submitting special questions at general elections. Such proposition shall not be deemed carried or adopted unless the vote in favor of such proposition is equal to at least sixty percent of the total vote cast for and against said proposition at said election. Whenever such a proposition has been approved by the voters of a school corporation as hereinafter provided, no further approval of the voters of such school corporation shall be required as a result of any subsequent change in the boundaries of such school corporation.

The voted millage referred to herein shall not limit the source of payment of bonds and interest but shall only restrict the amount of bonds which may be issued.

§302.1 Permanent fund. The permanent school fund, the interest of which only can be appropriated for school purposes, shall consist of:

1. Five percent of the net proceeds of the public lands of the state, which shall be paid to the state treasurer and be apportioned by the state comptroller among the several counties.

2. The proceeds of the sale of the five hundred thousand acres of land granted the state under the eighth section of an Act of Congress passed September 4, 1841, entitled: "An Act to appropriate the proceeds of all sales of public lands, and to grant pre-emption rights".

3. The proceeds of all intestate estates escheated to the state.

4. The proceeds of the sales of the sixteen section in each township, or lands selected in lieu thereof. [R60,§§1962, 1964; C73,§§1837, 1839; C97,§2838; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4469; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71,§302.1]

§302.2 Lands and escheats. The proceeds of all lands sold, and all sums due from escheats, shall be payable to the treasurer of the county in which the lands or escheated estates are situated or found, and the county treasurer shall pay the proceeds to the state treasurer once each month. §302.3 Temporary fund. The temporary school fund, which shall be received and appropriated annually in the same manner as the interest of the permanent fund, shall consist of:

1. All forfeitures which are authorized to be made for the benefit of the school fund.

2. The proceeds of all fines collected for violation of the penal laws, and for the nonperformance of military duty.

3. The proceeds of the sale of lost goods and estrays.

These several funds shall be payable to the county treasurer of the several counties in which they arise, accounted for to the board of supervisors, and apportioned by it among the several school districts of the county as provided by law. [R60,§§1963, 1966; C73,§§1838, 1841; C97,§2839; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§4471; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§302.3]

§302.4 Division and appraisement. The board of supervisors may, at such time as it may fix, and as preliminary to a sale, authorize the trustees of any township, where the sixteen section or land selected in lieu thereof has not been sold, to lay out the same into such tracts as in their judgment will be for the best interests of the school fund, conforming, as far as the interests of said fund will permit, to the legal subdivisions of the United States surveys, and appraise each tract at what they believe to be its true value, and certify to said board the divisions and appraisements made by them. Said division and appraisement shall be approved or disapproved by said board at its first meeting after such report, and in case it disapproves the same it may at once order another division and appraisement. If the board of supervisors approves, the county auditor shall make and keep a record of such division, appraisement, and appraisal; but no school lands of any kind shall be sold for less than the appraised value per acre, except as hereinafter provided; nor shall any member of the board of supervisors, county auditor, township trustee, or any person who was engaged in the division and appraisement of said land, be directly or indirectly interested in the purchase thereof; and any sale made, where such parties or any of them are so interested, shall be void. [R60,§§1970, 1971; C73,§§1845-1847; C97,§2840; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4472; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §302.4]

302.5 Notice — sale. When the board of supervisors shall offer for sale the sixteenth section or lands selected in lieu thereof, or any portion of the same, or any part of the five-hundred-thousand acre grant, the county auditor shall give at least forty days' notice, by written or printed notices posted in five public places in the county, two of which shall be in the township in which the land to be sold is situated, and also publish a notice of said sale once each week for two weeks preceding the same in a newspaper published in the county, describing the land to be sold and the time and place of such sale. At such time and place, or at such other time and place as the sale may be adjourned to, he shall offer to the highest bidder, subject to the provisions of this chapter, and sell, either for cash or one-third cash and the balance on a credit not exceeding ten years, with interest on the same at the rate of not less than three and one-half percent per annum, to be paid at the office of the county treasurer of said county on the first day of January in each year, delinquent interest to bear the same rate as the principal. Such county treasurer shall pay to the state treasurer on the first day of February all interest collected. [R60,§1971; C73,§1846; C97,§2841; S13, §2841; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4473; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §302.5]

302.6 Sale without appraisal. When the board of supervisors of any county has once offered for sale any school lands in compliance with the requirements of this chapter, and they remain unsold, and it is unable to obtain therefor the appraised value thereof, and in the opinion of said board it is for the best interests of the school fund that the same be sold for a less price, it may instruct the auditor to transmit to the secretary of state a certified copy of its proceedings in relation thereto, including the notice of said sale and the township trustees, and the price per acre at which the land had been appraised, which transcript the secretary of state shall submit to the executive council; and if it approves of a sale at a less sum it shall certify such approval to the auditor of the county from which said transcript came, which certificate shall be transcribed in the minute book of the board of supervisors, and thereupon said land may again be offered and sold to the highest bidder, after notice given as in case of sales in the first instance, without being again appraised. [C73,§1849; C97,§2842; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4474; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §302.6]

302.7 Sale on credit — taxation — waste. When lands are sold upon a partial credit, the contract therefor shall be at once reduced to writing, signed by the proper parties, recorded in the county where the land is situated, and immediately thereafter filed in the office of the county auditor. Any purchaser or his assigns may at any time pay the full amount for lands with accrued interest, and receive from the county auditor a certificate of purchase, which shall be at once transmitted to the secretary of state and will entitle the holder to a patent for the lands, to be issued by the secretary of state and the governor. All school lands sold in pursuance of law shall be subject to taxation from and after the execution and delivery of a contract of purchase. All sales made, where the full price is not paid, shall be subject to the law relative to the prevention or punishment of waste, and in all such cases the township trustees in each township are charged with the duty of preventing the commission of waste upon any school lands lying in their township, and, if attempted, they shall apply by petition for an injunction to stay the same, and if granted the writ shall issue without bond, and the court issuing it may make such order in the premises as shall be equitable and best calculated to prevent threatened injury, and may adjudge damages for any injury done, the costs to abide the event of the action, and the damages adjudged shall be paid to the county treasurer and the county treasurer shall forthwith pay the same to the state treasurer which shall become a part of the permanent school fund. [R60,§§1972, 1973, 1976-1978; C73,§§1851, 1852, 1856-1858; C97,§2843; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4475; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §302.7]

302.8 Sale of lands bid in. When lands have been sold and bid in by the state in behalf of such fund, the land may be sold in like manner as other school lands, and when lands have been conveyed to the counties in which they are situated for the use of the school fund, instead of to the state, such conveyance shall be valid and binding, and upon proper certificates of sales patents shall issue in like manner as in cases where the conveyances were properly made to the state. [C73,§1850; C97, §2844; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4476; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §302.8]

302.9 Cash or collateral security. When, in the judgment of the board of supervisors, any school lands are of such a character that a sale upon partial credit would be unsafe or incompatible with the interest of the school fund, and especially in the case of timbered lands, the board of supervisors may in its discretion exact the whole of the purchase money in advance; or if it sells such land upon a partial credit, and in timbered lands it shall require good collateral security for the payment of the part upon which credit is given. [R60,§1974; C73,§1853; C97,§2845; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4477; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §302.9]

price of land sold, the interest shall be made payable on the first day of January each year, and if the debtor fails to pay the interest within six months thereafter, the entire amount of both principal and interest shall become due, and the county auditor shall make a report thereof to the county attorney, who shall immediately commence action for the collection of the amount reported to him as due, and this section is hereby declared to be a part of any contract made by virtue of this chapter, whether expressed therein or not. 302.11 School fund accounts — audit of losses. The state comptroller shall keep the school fund accounts in books provided for that purpose, separate and distinct from the revenue books. The auditor of state shall audit all losses to the permanent school or university fund which shall have been occasioned by the defalcation, mismanagement, or fraud of the agents or officers controlling and managing the same, and for this purpose shall prescribe such regulations for those officers as may be necessary to ascertain such losses. [R60, §1969; C73, §1842; C97, §2847; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4179; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §302.11]

302.12 Bonds to cover losses. When any sum not less than one thousand dollars shall be so audited and so become a debt of the state to the fund, as provided by the Constitution, the auditor of state shall issue the bond or bonds of the state in favor of the fund, bearing six percent interest, payable semiannually on the first day of January and July after issuance, and the amount to pay the interest as it becomes due is appropriated out of any funds in the state treasury. [C73, §1843; C97, §2847; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4180; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §302.12]

Each county shall be liable for all losses upon loans of the school fund, principal or interest, made in such county, unless the loss was not occasioned by reason of any default of its officers or by taking insufficient or imperfect securities, or from a failure to bid at an execution sale the full amount of the judgment and costs. However, as to any state park road which is an extension of either a primary or secondary highway which both enters and exits from the state park at separate points, the state highway commission in the case of a primary road, and the county board of supervisors in the case of secondary roads, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the state conservation commission over such roads, and the state highway commission in the case of a primary road and the board of supervisors in the case of a secondary road, may expend the moneys available for such roads in the same manner as they expend such funds on other roads over which they exercise jurisdiction and control. The parties exercising concurrent jurisdiction shall enter into agreements with each other as to the kind and type of construction, reconstruction and repair and the division of cost thereof, but in the absence of such agreement the jurisdiction and control of said road shall remain under the conservation commission. Provided, however, that the Iowa state highway commission, in the case of a primary highway extension, and the board of supervisors in the case of a secondary highway extension, shall perform maintenance on said road in the same manner as performed on a highway of a like type of surface or construction. [C51, §514; R60, §819; C73, §920; C97, §1482; C24, 27, §§4510, 4635–4677, 4780–4812; C31, 35, §§4560, 4614–c1; C59, §§4500, 4614–01; C46, 50, §309.1; C54, 58, 62, 66, §306.3; C71, §306.4] Referred to in §§306.9, 307.5(12)

306.5 Continuity of systems in municipalities, parks and institutions. Adequate mileage shall be included within municipalities, state parks and institutions to provide for the continuity of the primary road systems and the county trunk systems. Such mileage shall be included in the total mileage of the particular primary or secondary road system and shall also be listed separately as an extension of such primary or secondary road system.

The state highway commission may reallocate mileage within the systems under its jurisdiction. The board of supervisors or the governing body of municipalities may alter the classification of roads under their jurisdiction with the approval of the functional classification board as provided in section 306.6. [C71, §306.5] Referred to in §306.9

The mayors shall meet at the call of the chairman of the county board of supervisors who shall act as chairman of the meeting without vote. In the event the mayors cannot agree to and appoint this member within thirty days after the call of the meeting by the chairman, the two members previously appointed shall select the third member. The board shall serve without additional compensation and shall:

1. Classify each segment of each rural public road and each municipal street in the county in accordance with the classifications found in section 306.1.

2. Establish continuity between the systems within the county and with the systems of adjacent counties.

3. File a copy of the proposed road classification in the office of county engineer for public information and hold a public hearing before final approval of any road classification action. Notice of the date, the time, and the place of such hearing, and the filing of such proposed road classification for public information shall be published in an official newspaper in general circulation throughout the affected area at least twenty days prior to the established date of the hearing.

4. Report the selected classifications to the state highway commission. The state highway commission shall review the reports of the county classification boards and may:

a. Alter the classification of roads coinciding with or crossing county lines to provide continuity of the various county systems.

b. Reduce mileage of roads classified in the trunk system or trunk collector system to assure equitable distribution among the counties of the total mileage of such systems. [C71, §306.6]

306.7 Functions changed or new roads added. If the function of any road or street has been altered by new construction or by reconstruction or relocation, or if a new road or street has been constructed, the functional classification board shall reclassify said roads or streets within one year. If the functional classification board does not classify any road or street as provided herein, the state highway commission shall make the classification. [C71, §306.7] Referred to in §§306.9

306.8 Transfer of jurisdiction. When a change of jurisdiction occurs as a result of the classification or reclassification of a road or street, the unit of government having jurisdiction shall, prior to such change of jurisdiction, place the road or street and any structures thereon in good repair sufficient for the traffic thereon. [C71, §306.8] Referred to in §306.9

306.9 Limitation on jurisdiction transfer. Nothing in sections 306.1 to 306.8, inclusive, shall be construed to provide for or permit the transfer of any road or street of this state from the jurisdiction under whose control said road or street is on January 1, 1970, except that a transfer may be made as provided in section 313.2 or because of a change in the corporate limits of a city or town. Roads or streets established after January 1, 1970, shall be under the

In the construction, improvement, operation or maintenance of any highway, or highway system, the board or commission which has control and jurisdiction over such highway or highway system, shall have power, on its own motion, to alter or vacate and close any such highway or railroad crossing thereon, and to establish new highways or railroad crossing thereon which are or are intended to become a part of the highway system over which said board or commission has jurisdiction and control. [C71, §306.9]

306.11 Hearing—place—date. In proceeding to vacate any part thereof, or railroad crossing, the board or commission in control of said road, or road system, shall fix a date for a hearing thereon in the county where said road, or part thereof, or crossing, is located, and if located in more than one county, then in a county wherein any part of such road or crossing is located. If the road to be vacated or changed is a secondary road located in more than one county, the boards of supervisors of such counties, acting jointly, shall fix a date for a hearing thereon in either or any of the counties where such road, or part thereof, is located. [C31, 35, §§1755-d2, 4755-d3; C39, §§4755.37, 4755.38; C46, 50, §§313.46, 313.47; C54, 58, 62, 66, §306.5; C71, §306.11]

306.12 Notice—service. Notice of such hearing shall be published in some newspaper of general circulation in the county or counties where such road is located, at least twenty days prior to the date of hearing. [SS15, §1527-r7; C24, 27, §4621; C31, 35, §§4621, 4755-d4; C39, §§4621, 4755.39; C46, 50, §§306.62, 313.48; C54, 58, 62, 66, §306.6; C71, §306.12]

306.13 Notice—requirements. Said notice shall state the time and place of such hearing, the location of the particular road, or part thereof, or crossing, the vacation and closing of which is to be considered, and such other data as may be deemed pertinent. [C31, 35, §1755-d5; C39, §§4755.40; C46, 50, §313.49; C54, 58, 62, 66, §306.7; C71, §306.13]

At such hearing, the state highway commission, the board of supervisors, or the board or commission in control of affected state lands, as the case may be, and any interested person, may appear and object and be heard. Any person owning land abutting on a road which is proposed to vacate and close, shall have the right to file, in writing, a claim for damages at any time on or before the date fixed for hearing. [C31, 35, §§4755-d6; C39, §§4755.41; C46, 50, §313.50; C54, 58, 62, 66, §306.8; C71, §306.14]

306.15 Purchase and sale of property. If, as to any one or more properties affected by the proposed vacation and closing of any secondary road, it should appear to the board of supervisors to be in the interest of economy or public welfare, the board may purchase or condemn, by proceeding as this chapter provides, the said entire property or properties, and make payment therefor out of the secondary road fund. After the road has been vacated and closed the board shall sell such property or properties at the best attainable price, and credit the proceeds of such sale to the secondary road fund. [C31, 35, §§4755-d7; C39, §§4755.42; C46, 50, §§313.51; C54, 58, 62, 66, §306.9; C71, §306.15]

306.16 Final order. After such hearing, the commission, board or boards which instituted such proceedings and conducted such hearing, shall enter an order. Said commission or board may dismiss the proceedings, or if any vacated or closed secondary road, part thereof, or crossing, in which event it shall determine and state in the order the amount of the damages allowed to each claimant. Said order thus entered shall be final except as to the amount of the damages. A copy of such order shall be filed with the county auditor of the county or counties in which the road, part thereof, or crossing, is located and with the state highway commission and the board or commission in control of any affected state land. §306.18, ESTABLISHMENT OF HIGHWAYS

1. In the maintenance, relocation, establishment, or improvement of any road, including the extension of such road within cities and towns, the commission or board having jurisdiction and control of such road shall have authority to purchase or to institute and maintain proceedings for the condemnation of the necessary right of way thereof. Such board or commission shall likewise have power to purchase or institute and maintain proceedings for the condemnation of land necessary for highway drainage, or land containing gravel or other suitable material for the improvement or maintenance of highways, together with the necessary road access or right of access thereto.

2. Whenever the board or commission condemns or purchases property access rights or alters by lengthening any existing driveway to a road from abutting property, except during the time required for construction and maintenance of the road or highway, the board or commission shall:
   a. Compensate the owner for any diminution in the market value of the property by the denial or alteration by lengthening the driveway; however, in computing such diminution in value no consideration shall be given to the additional maintenance expense for maintaining the additional length of driveway, but in lieu thereof, both in condemnation proceedings or negotiated purchases, the board or commission shall pay to the owner the sum of five dollars for every linear foot of additional length of driveway located on said owner’s property. This payment shall represent just compensation to said property owner for the extension of such road within cities and towns, the commission or board having jurisdiction and control of such road shall have authority to purchase or to institute and maintain proceedings for the condemnation of the necessary right of way thereof. Such board or commission shall likewise have power to purchase or institute and maintain proceedings for the condemnation of land necessary for highway drainage, or land containing gravel or other suitable material for the improvement or maintenance of highways, together with the necessary road access or right of access thereto.

b. If in the opinion of the board or commission it would be more economical to purchase the entire tract of the property owner than to provide and pay the maintenance expense required under the provisions of this section, proceed with the acquisition of the entire tract of land; or

c. If mutually agreeable, move buildings from an existing location to a location requiring an equal or lesser length of driveway and provide an adequate driveway to a public road.

3. None of the foregoing requirements shall prohibit the property owner and the board or commission from entering into a mutually acceptable agreement for the replacement, relocation, construction, or maintenance of any alternate driveway on the owner’s property.

4. Compensation for any property rights taken in the establishment of any alternative temporary or permanent access shall be paid as in any other purchase or condemnation of property. Proceedings for the condemnation of land for any highway shall be under the provisions of chapter 471 and chapter 472. Provided that, in the condemnation of right of way for secondary roads, the board of supervisors may proceed as provided in sections 306.25 to 306.37.

5. For the purposes of this section, the term “driveway” shall mean a way of ingress and egress located entirely on private property, consisting of a lane or passageway leading from a residence to a public roadway or highway. If such tract, parcel, or piece of land or part thereof is held or used in connection with any primary road, or state park or institutional road, such sale shall be subject to approval of the executive council of the state of Iowa.

Said notice shall give an opportunity to the present owner of adjacent property to be heard and make offers for the tract, parcel or piece of land to be sold, and if such offer is equal to or exceeds in amount any other offer received, it shall be given preference by the board in control of said land. Neglect or failure for any reason, to comply with the provisions of said notice, shall in no way prevent the giving of a clear title to the purchaser of said tract, parcel or piece of land. [C35, §4755-f2; C39, §4755.45; C46, 50, §313.54; C54, 58, 62, 66, §306.17; C71, §306.23]

306C.12 None visible from highway. An advertising device shall not be constructed or reconstructed beyond the adjacent area in unincorporated areas of the state if it is visible from the main-traveled way of any interstate or primary highway except for advertising devices permitted in section 306C.11, subsections 1 and 2, and municipal recognition signs erected by any city or town. Any advertising device permitted beyond an adjacent area in unincorporated areas of the state shall be subject to the applicable permit provisions of section 306C.18. [64GA, ch 1068, §12]

1. Advertising devices located within the adjacent area of interstate highways and freeway primary highways shall not be erected or maintained closer to another advertising device facing in the same direction than five hundred feet outside of cities and towns, and within two hundred fifty feet if inside of cities and towns. An advertising device may not be located within two hundred fifty feet of an interchange, or rest area. The measurement shall be from the nearest widening constructed for the purpose of acceleration or deceleration of traffic movement to or from the main-traveled way to the advertising device.

2. Advertising devices located within the adjacent area of primary highways shall not be erected or maintained closer to another advertising device facing in the same direction than one hundred feet if inside the corporate limits of a municipality. No advertising device, other than as excepted or permitted by subsections 4, 5, or 6 of this section, shall be located within the triangular area formed by the line connecting two points each fifty feet back from the point where the street right of way lines of the main-traveled way and the intersecting street meet, or would meet, if extended.

3. Advertising devices located within the adjacent area of primary highways shall not be erected or maintained closer to another advertising device facing in the same direction than three hundred feet if outside the corporate limits of a municipality. No advertising device, other than those excepted or permitted by subsections 4, 5, or 6 of this section, shall be located within the triangular area formed by a line connecting two points each one hundred feet back from the point where the street right of way lines of the main-traveled way and the intersecting street meet, or would meet, if extended.

4. The distance spacing measurements fixed by subsections 2 and 3 of this section shall not apply to advertising devices which are separated by a building in such a manner that only one advertising device located within the minimum spacing distance is visible from a highway at any one time.

5. Within a triangular area, as defined by subsections 2 and 3 of this section, occupied by a building or structure, no advertising device shall be erected or maintained closer to the intersection than the building or structure itself, except that a wall advertising device may be attached to said building or structure not to protrude more than twelve inches.

6. Official advertising devices and advertising devices concerning the sale or lease of the property or activities conducted upon the property as specified in Title 23, section 131, paragraph "c" of the United States Code, shall not be taken into consideration in determining compliance with spacing requirements.
7. The minimum distance between two advertising devices facing the same direction shall apply without regard to the side of the highway on which the advertising devices may be located and shall be measured along the center line of the highway between points directly opposite the advertising devices.

8. Advertising devices shall not be erected, maintained, or illuminated:
   a. In a manner to obscure or otherwise physically interfere with an official traffic sign, signal, or device, or to obstruct or physically interfere with any driver's view of approaching, merging, or intersecting traffic.
   b. Unless effectively shielded to prevent light from being directed at any portion of the traveled highway with such intensity or brilliance as to cause glare or to impair the vision of the driver of any motor vehicle.
   c. Which contain, include, or are illuminated by any flashing, intermittent, or moving light or lights, except those giving public service information such as, but not limited to time, date, temperature, weather, news and similar information.
   d. Which imitate or resemble an official sign or signal or device or which are erected or maintained within or closer than three hundred feet from scenic areas, as defined and determined by the commission, or which are located or maintained upon trees, or painted or drawn upon rocks or natural features, or which are structurally unsafe or in substantial disrepair.
   e. Which exceed one thousand two hundred square feet in area or in the case of a back-to-back or V-type advertising device, with a maximum of two facings per advertising device, seven hundred fifty square feet in area, including border and trim but excluding base or apron, support, and other structural members.
   f. Which do not comply with all applicable state or local laws, regulations and ordinances, including but not limited to zoning, building, and sign codes as locally interpreted and applied and enforced, or which violate chapter 310; however, nothing in this division or section 306B.5 shall prevent or restrict county or local zoning authorities from making a determination of customary use concerning size, lighting, and spacing of advertising devices in zoned commercial or industrial adjacent areas, and such determinations will be accepted in lieu of the standards of this division or section 306B.5.
   g. Which exceed in size, lighting, and spacing the standards contained in this section pertaining to such advertising devices erected or maintained within six hundred sixty feet of the right of way of those portions of the interstate highway system exempted from control under chapter 306B by authority of section 306B.2, subsection 5, nor to advertising devices erected and maintained within adjacent areas along primary highways within zoned and unzoned commercial and industrial areas, unless said advertising devices were erected subsequent to July 1, 1972. [46GA, ch 1068, §13]

306C.14 Existing signs—six-year limit. Any advertising device lawfully in existence in an adjacent area on July 1, 1972, which does not conform with the provisions of this division and section 306B.5, shall be required to be brought into conformity or removed within six years after July 1, 1972. Any advertising device lawfully erected after said date which subsequently becomes nonconforming, shall be required to be brought into conformity or removed within five years after the date the nonconformity occurs. However, no advertising device shall be required or be required to be removed pursuant to this division or section 306B.5 unless the commission receives notification from the federal government that the federal share of "just compensation" to be paid is immediately available to contribute to the cost of acquisition or removal; this requirement shall not apply to the acquisition or removal of advertising devices for which no federal share is payable. [46GA, ch 1068, §14]

306C.15 Acquisition of signs. The commission shall acquire by purchase, gift, or condemnation, and shall pay "just compensation" upon the removal of any or the following advertising devices which are not in conformity with the provisions of this division and section 306B.5:
   2. Advertising devices lawfully in existence on land adjoining any highway made an interstate, freeway, primary, or primary highway after July 1, 1972.
   3. Advertising devices lawfully erected on or after July 1, 1972, but which subsequently become nonconforming.
   4. Any advertising device erected on the mistaken or negligent advice of any official or employee of the state of Iowa as to the interpretation, effect, or operation of this division, chapter 306B, or rules promulgated by the commission. [46GA, ch 1068, §15]

306C.16 Compensation. Compensation required by section 306C.15 shall be paid for the following:

§306C.17 Condemnation. The provisions of chapters 471 and 472 shall be applicable to any such condemnation commenced pursuant to this division and section 306B.5, and the commission may take immediate possession of and remove such advertising devices under the procedures of section 472.25. [61GA, ch 1068, §17] 306C.18 Permit required. The owner of every advertising device regulated by the provisions of this chapter, except signs and advertising devices excepted by subsections 1, 2, 4 and 5 of section 306C.11, shall be required to make application to the commission for a permit.*

The application for a permit shall be on a form provided by the commission and shall contain the name and address of the owner of the advertising device and the name and address of the owner of the real property on which it is located; the date of its erection; a description of its location; its dimensions; and such other information required by the commission, together with a permit fee as provided in this section.

After July 1, 1972, no new advertising device for which an application for a permit is required may be erected without first obtaining a permit from the commission, except in the case of advertising devices lawfully in existence in areas adjacent to any highway made an interstate, freeway primary, or primary highway after July 1, 1972. The owner shall be required to make application for a permit as provided for in this section within thirty days after the date the said highway acquired such designation.

Upon receipt of an application containing all the required information in due form and properly executed together with the fee required, the commission shall issue a permit to be affixed to the advertising device if the advertising device will not violate any provision of this division or section 306B.5, or any rule promulgated by the commission, provided that in the case of advertising devices to be acquired pursuant to section 306C.15, a provisional permit shall be issued.

The fee for both types of permits shall be five dollars for the initial fee and three dollars for each annual renewal. The fees collected for the above permits shall be credited to a special account entitled the "highway beautification fund" and all salaries and expenses incurred in administering this chapter shall be paid from this fund or from specific appropriations for this purpose, except that surveillance of, and removal of, advertising devices performed by regular maintenance personnel are not to be charged against the account. [61GA, ch 1068, §18]

306C.19 Removal after notice. Any advertising device erected or maintained after July 1, 1972, in violation of this division and section 306B.5 or the rules promulgated by the commission, is a public nuisance and may be removed by the commission upon thirty days' notice, by certified mail, to the owner of the advertising device and to the owner of the land on which the advertising device is located. The notice shall require such owners to remove the advertising device if it is prohibited, or to cause it to conform to this division and section 306B.5 or rules promulgated by the commission if it is not prohibited.

1. If the landowner or owner of the advertising device fails to act within thirty days as required in the notice, the commission may enter upon the land and remove the advertising device. Such entry after notice, shall not be deemed a trespass and the commission may be aided by injunction to abate the nuisance and to insure peaceable entry.

2. The cost of removal, including any fees and costs or expenses as may arise out of any action brought by the commission to insure peaceful entry and removal, shall be assessed against the owner of the advertising device. Should the owner of the advertising device fail to promptly pay such fees, costs, or expenses, the commission shall proceed to advertise, sell and sell the advertising device for purposes of collecting the same. Any balance from the total receipts of the sale after deducting all fees, costs, and expenses, including those of the sale, shall be paid to the owner of the advertising device; however, if in the opinion of the commission, the proceeds of the sale will not be sufficient to justify the expense involved, the advertising device may be used, scrapped, dismantled, or otherwise destroyed or disposed of by the commission as it sees fit. [61GA, ch 1068, §19]

306C.20 Bonus funds agreements. The commission shall enter into agreements with the duly constituted federal authorities in order to secure for the state all bonus federal funds allotted and appropriations to the state and to avoid loss or reduction, under Title 23, section 131, of the United States Code, of federal aid funds apportioned or to be apportioned to the state under Title 23, section 104 of the United States Code. The commission may accept funds from whatever source, including any allotment of funds by the United States, or any of its departments or agencies, appropriated to carry out the purposes of Title 23, section 131 of the United States Code. The commission shall take such steps as may be necessary to obtain from the United States or any of its departments or agencies, funds allotted and appropriated for the purpose of paying the federal share of just compensation to be paid to advertising device owners and owners of the real property under the terms of this chapter, and Title 23, section 131, paragraph “g” of the United States Code. All money received pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be deposited in the "highway beautification fund". [61GA, ch 1068, §20]
306C.21 Information centers. The commission may establish or enter into agreements with private persons, firms, or corporations for the establishment of information centers in rest areas on the interstate, freeway primary, and primary highways, subject to the approval of the appropriate authority of the federal government. 3. Make joint agreements for the location, construction, and maintenance of roads under their jurisdiction wholly within one county to provide road access to lands in an adjoining county, when such location provides the most economical and practical method of providing such road access. The expense of constructing and maintaining such a road shall be equitably shared by the counties in such proportion as the boards may determine. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §4661; C27, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §309.68]

At said hearing the commission shall fully investigate all questions pertaining to said matters, and shall, as soon as practicable, certify its decision to the different boards. Which decision shall be final, and said boards shall forthwith comply with said order in the same manner as though such work was located wholly within the county. Such contracts may also provide for the acquisition of right of way for, and construction of, highways connecting such bridge to existing city streets or secondary roads. Such bridge and highways shall be constructed under plans and specifications jointly agreed on by the respective contracting bodies. Such contract shall set forth the amount of money to be contributed by each contracting party and may provide for the amount of money to be contributed annually by each contracting party for the maintenance of the said public improvements. 310.36 Report to governor. The research projects and engineering studies authorized herein shall be conducted in co-operation with the county engineers. Once each year, the highway commission shall file a report with the governor and county engineers showing the work accomplished and projects undertaken under section 310.35, and copies of a biennial report of the same for the use and benefit of the general assembly shall be filed with the chief clerk of the house of representatives and the secretary of the senate on or before January 31 of each odd-numbered year. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §310.36]

SECONDARY ROAD ASSESSMENT DISTRICTS

311.1 Power to establish. In order to provide for the graveling, oiling, or other suitable surfacing of secondary roads, the board of supervisors shall have power, on petition, to establish secondary road assessment districts. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4746; C46, §311.3; C50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §311.1]

311.2 Width of district. Any such secondary road assessment district shall be no more than one-half mile wide on each side of the road or roads to be improved by said district. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4746; C46, §311.3; C50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §311.2]

311.3 Amount of assessment. Special assessments in the aggregate amount of not less than twenty-five percent of the total estimated cost of surfacing any road included in a secondary road assessment district project shall be apportioned and levied on the lands included in said secondary road assessment district. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4753; C46, §311.10; C50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §311.3]

311.4 County line road. Whenever it is desired to surface a secondary road on a county line, as a secondary road assessment district project, the board of supervisors of any county concerned may establish an assessment district in its county, and levy and collect special assessments for the payment of that portion of the estimated cost of such project assessable against lands in that county. Each county shall pay its share of the cost of said project as provided in this chapter, in the same manner as though the project were located wholly within that county. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4746; C46, §311.3; C50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §311.4]

311.5 Project in city or town. Any road or street which is a continuation of a secondary road within any city or town and which the county board desires to improve by graveling, oiling, or other suitable surfacing, may be improved as a secondary road assessment district project or part thereof as herein provided. The lands within such city or town abutting on or adjacent to such street or road may be included within such secondary road assessment district and assessed on account of such improvement upon the same basis and in the same manner as though such lands were located outside of a city or town. [C24, §4754;
C27, 31, 35, §4745-a1; C39, §4745.1; C46, §311.2; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §311.6]

311.6 Petition—information required. The petition for a secondary road assessment district proposing to establish such district shall intelligibly describe the road or roads proposed to be improved, the nature of the proposed improvement, the percentage of the estimated cost of the surfacing of said road proposed to be assessed against the property in the said district and the lands proposed to be included in such district.

Such petition shall be signed by thirty-five percent of the owners of the lands within such proposed district, or by thirty-five percent of the owners of the land within such proposed district who reside within said county. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4746; C46, §311.3; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §311.6]

311.7 Improvement by private funds. When any owner or group of owners of not less than seventy-five percent of the lands adjacent to, or abutting upon any secondary road or roads shall, on or before October 1 of any year petition the board of supervisors of their county for the improving by graveling or other suitable surfacing, of said road or roads, and for the assessment of not less than fifty percent (or such greater portion as may be provided in said petition) of the cost of such improving, by graveling or other suitable surfacing, to the lands adjacent to, or abutting upon said road or roads, the board of supervisors shall, in the order in which such petitions were filed with it, include and give preference to said project or projects in the secondary road construction program of said county for the ensuing year. When a proper petition is filed, it shall retain its preference in succeeding years.

The board of supervisors shall proceed during the ensuing year with the construction and completion of said project or projects under the same procedure as is prescribed generally for the improvement of secondary roads by assessment, and shall, as the law may provide, establish a special secondary road assessment district and assess against the lands included therein not less than fifty percent (or such greater portion as may be provided in said petition) of the engineer's estimated cost of the surfacing of the road or roads included in said project against all the lands adjacent to, or abutting upon the said road or roads.

Provided, that should the owner or owners of all the lands included in any special secondary road assessment district under this section, subscribe and deposit with the county treasurer an amount not less than fifty percent (or such greater portion as may be provided in said petition) of the engineer's estimated cost of the surfacing of the road or roads included in said project, the board of supervisors shall not establish such special assessment district as herein provided, but shall accept the said donations in lieu of an assessment, and shall otherwise proceed to the improvement of said road or roads as herein provided.

Provided further, that the total expenditure of secondary road funds of the county in any year for or on account of special secondary road assessment district projects on local secondary roads under this section shall not exceed the total secondary road funds legally expendable for construction on local secondary roads in said county in said year, and the expenditure of secondary road funds of the county, in any township in any three-year period, for or on account of special secondary road assessment district projects on local secondary roads under this section, shall not exceed said township's pro rata share, on the area basis, of the total secondary road funds legally expendable for construction on local secondary roads in said county in said three-year period, unless there be a township or townships from which there are no petitions filed during the first two years of said three-year period.

If the engineer's estimated cost of the grading, bridges, culverts, and draining of the road proposed to be included in any special assessment district project under this section, exceeds an average of seven thousand dollars per mile, the board of supervisors of said county may appeal to the state highway commission as to whether the county shall proceed with the construction of said project. The state highway commission shall hold a hearing on said matter, at a time and place of which the petitioners and the county board shall be duly notified, and shall have an opportunity to appear and be heard. After such hearing the state highway commission shall determine whether the county shall proceed with said project, which determination shall be final.

Upon the completion of such road or roads, and the satisfaction of all claims in relation thereto, any balance then remaining of the funds provided by the sponsors shall be returned to them according to their respective interests, providing all guarantees made by such sponsors have been fulfilled.

Any road or road, so improved by graveling or other suitable surfacing under the provisions of this section shall be maintained by the county from the secondary road fund. [C21, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§4747, 4753; C46, §§311.4, 311.10; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §311.7]

Ch 1180, 1982—65 GA

311.8 County engineer's report. Upon the filing of such petition with the county auditor proposing the establishment of such secondary road assessment district, the county engineer shall file a report thereon with the county auditor, which report shall include:

1. An estimate of the cost of the surfacing proposed on the road or roads included in such proposed district.

2. A plat of said proposed district which plat shall show the road or roads proposed to be improved, the various tracts and parcels of real estate included in said proposed district, and the ownership of such lands.
3. An approximately equitable apportionment of not less than twenty-five percent of the estimated cost of said improvement among the tracts and parcels of real estate included in such proposed district.

4. A statement whether all of the secondary roads to be surfaced in said proposed second road assessment district project have been built to permanent grade and properly drained.

5. Any information the county engineer may deem pertinent [C24, §311.8, §311.11; C50, 51, 53, 62, 66, §311.9]

311.9 Publicly owned real estate. In making said apportionment, real estate owned by the state, county or any city or town, shall be treated as other real estate, but no other publicly owned real estate shall be included. In apportioning benefits to real estate owned by a town, city, the county or the state, no consideration shall be given to the buildings thereon. [C24, §311.7, §311.8, §311.11; C50, 51, 53, 62, 66, §311.9]

311.10 Estimate and apportionment — presumption. Said estimated cost shall carry the presumption, in the absence of a contrary showing, that the same correctly represents the probable cost of said project as nearly as can be determined in advance of the actual doing and completion of the work. Said apportionment shall carry the presumption, in the absence of a contrary showing, that the same is fair, just, equitable, and in proportion to the benefits and not in excess thereof. [C24, §4707; C27, 31, 35, §4753-al; C39, §4753.01; C46, §311.11; C50, 51, 53, 62, 66, §311.10]

311.11 Hearing—notice. The board of supervisors shall fix a time for hearing on the proposal for the establishment of said secondary road assessment district and on the apportionment of not less than twenty-five percent of the estimated cost of the proposed improvement, and shall cause the county auditor to publish notice of said hearing. Said notice shall state:

1. The time and place of hearing.
2. The road or roads proposed to be improved.
3. The type of surfacing proposed.
4. The estimated cost of the proposed improvement.
5. A description of the lands lying within said proposed district,
6. The ownership of said lands as shown by the transfer books in the auditor's office,
7. A statement of the amount apportioned to each tract or parcel of real estate as shown by the engineer’s report,
8. That at said hearing the amount apportioned to any tract or parcel of land may be increased or decreased without further notice,
9. That all objections to the establishment of said district, to the said apportionment report, or to the proceedings relating thereto must be specifically made in writing and filed with the county auditor on or before noon of the day set for such hearing, and
10. That a failure to make and file such objections will be deemed a conclusive waiver of all such objections. [C24, §4707, §4750, §4751; C27, 31, 35, §4753-al; C39, §4753, §4753.01; C46, §311.11; C50, 51, 53, 62, 66, §311.10]

311.12 Publication of notice. Such notice shall be published once each week for two successive weeks in some newspaper published in the county as near as practicable to said district. The last publication shall be not less than five days previous to said hearing. Proof of such publication shall be made by the publisher by affidavit filed with the county auditor [C24, §1707; C27, 31, 35, §4753-al; C39, §4753.01, C46, §311.11; C50, 51, 53, 62, 66, §311.12]

311.13 Errors in notice or apportionment report. Any omission or error in said apportionment report or notice with respect to any tract or parcel of real estate or the description thereof, or the name of the owner, or the amount of the assessment apportioned thereto, shall work no loss of jurisdiction on the part of the board over such proceeding. Such omission or error shall only affect the particular tract of real estate or person in question. If, before or after the board has entered its final order in the establishment of the said district or in the apportionment proceedings such omission or error is discovered, the board shall fix a time for a hearing as to such party or real estate and shall cause service of notice to be made upon them, either by publication as in this chapter provided, or by personal service in the time and manner required for service of original notices in the district court. After such hearing the board shall proceed as to such person or land as though such omission or error had not occurred. [C24, §4707; C27, 31, 35, §4753-al; C39, §4753.01; C46, §311.11; C50, 51, 53, 62, 66, §311.13]

311.14 Appearance. The appearance of any interested party, either in writing or personally, or by authorized agent, before the board of supervisors at any stage of the pending proceedings for a secondary road assessment district shall be deemed a full appearance. Only interested parties shall have the right to appear in such proceedings. All persons so appearing shall state for whom they appear. The clerk of the board shall make definite entry accordingly in the minutes of the board. [C24, §1707; C27, 31, 35, §4753-al; C39, §4753.01; C46, §311.11; C50, 51, 53, 62, 66, §311.14]

311.15 Hearing—adjournment—order. Hearings on the proposed establishment of said district may be adjourned from time to time without loss of jurisdiction by the board. On final hearing the board shall proceed to a determination of said matters. It may reject, approve, or modify and approve said proposal. The board may exclude lands from the dis-

 Tristan or may add lands thereto or otherwise modify the proposal.

 Should the proposal be approved in whole or in part, the board shall establish such district. The order of the board establishing such district shall state the road or roads to be improved, the type of improvement, and the lands included in said district. Said order shall be final. No lands shall thereafter be added to or excluded from said district. [C21,§1710; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a3; C39,§4753.02; C46,§311.12; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§311.15]

 311.16 Final hearing—assessment levied. On final hearing the board shall hear and determine all objections filed. The board may increase, diminish, annul, or affirm the apportionment made in said report, or any part thereof, as may appear to the board to be just and equitable.

 On the final determination the board shall levy such assessments and all installments thereof upon the real estate within said district as finally established. The entire amount of said assessment shall be due and payable, and bear interest at six percent per annum commencing twenty days from the date of said levy, and shall be collected at the next succeeding March semiannual payment of ordinary taxes. [C21,§1710; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a3; C39,§4753.03; C46,§311.13; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§311.16]

 311.17 Assessments over ten dollars—waiver. If any owner other than the state or a county, city or town, of any tracts of land on which the assessment is more than ten dollars, shall, within twenty days from the date of said assessment, agree in writing filed in the office of the county auditor, that in consideration of his having the right to pay his assessment in installments, he will not make any objection of illegality or irregularity as to said assessment upon his said real estate, and will pay the same with six percent interest thereon, and in such case said assessment shall be payable in ten equal installments. The first installment shall be payable on the date of such agreement. The other installments with interest on the whole amount unpaid shall be paid annually thereafter at the same time and in the same manner as the March semiannual payment of ordinary taxes.

 An owner of land who has availed himself of said ten-year option may at any time discharge his assessment by paying the balance then due on all unpaid installments, with interest on the entire amount of the unpaid installments for thirty days in advance. [C24,§1710; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a3; C39,§4753.03; C46,§311.13; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§311.17]

 311.18 Assessment delinquent — penalties. All such taxes shall become delinquent on the first day of March next after their maturity, shall bear the same interest, the same penalties, and be attended with the same rights and remedies for collection, as ordinary taxes.

 311.19 Assessment ten dollars or less. Assessments of ten dollars or less against any tract of land, and assessments against lands owned by the state, county, city or town, shall be due and payable from the date of levy by the board of supervisors, or in the case of any appeal, from the date of final confirmation of the levy by the court.

 In case of assessments on lands owned by the county, the same shall be paid from the county general fund. In case of assessments on lands owned by the state, the same shall be paid out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated. In case of assessments on lands owned by a city or town, the same shall be paid from the city or town street fund. [C21,§1710; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a3; C39,§4753.03; C46,§311.13; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§311.19]

 311.20 Variation between estimated and actual cost. Any variation between the engineer's estimated cost and the actual cost of a secondary road assessment district project shall in no way affect the validity of the assessment. It is the intent of this chapter that the assessment shall be based on the estimated cost and not on the actual cost. [C24,§1711; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a4; C39,§4753.04; C46,§311.14; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§311.20]

 311.21 Procedures. The preparation and approval of plans and specifications, the advertising for bids, the award and approval of contract, the supervision and inspection of construction work, and the approval and payment of claims on any secondary road assessment district project, shall be conducted in the manner provided in the laws for secondary road construction work generally. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§§4749, 4752; C16,§311.6, 311.9: C50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71,§311.21]

 311.22 Road graded and drained. Any such secondary road shall be built to permanent grade and drained in a manner approved by the county engineer before being surfaced, as provided in this chapter. [C27, 31, 35, 39,§4746; C16,§311.3; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§311.22]

 311.23 Payment of construction costs. The total cost of any secondary road assessment district project shall in the first instance be paid out of the secondary road fund of said county. Any assessments which are paid in cash and in anticipation of which assessments no certificates have been issued, shall be transferred to the secondary road fund.

 If no special assessment certificates are issued and sold on account of any particular secondary road assessment district, the special assessments on lands included in that district, and the interest on such assessments when collected, shall be transferred to the secondary road fund of said county. If certificates are issued and sold in anticipation of the special assessments levied on any such district as herein provided, the proceeds of such certificates shall be credited to the secondary road fund of said county. In that event, the special assessments in anticipation of which certificates have been issued, and the interest on such assessments shall, when collected, be used to retire such certificates. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4752; C46,§311.19; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71.§311.23]

311.24 Appeal from assessment. Any owner of land in a secondary road assessment district may appeal to the district court from the order of the board of supervisors in levying the assessment against his real estate, by filing with the county auditor within fifteen days of the date of such levy, a bond conditioned to pay all costs in case the appeal is not sustained, and a written notice of appeal wherein he shall, with particularity, point out the specific objection which he desires to lodge against such levy. Said appeal shall have precedence over all other business pending before the court except criminal matters. The appeal shall be heard as in equity. The court may raise or lower the assessment in question and make an equitable assessment in the judgment of the court. The clerk of the district court shall, upon the entry of the final order of the court, certify such final order to the county auditor. The board of supervisors shall at once so adjust the assessments as to comply with the final order of the court. [C24,§4713; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a5; C39,§4753.05; C46,§311.15; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§311.24]

311.25 Appeal docketed. When an appeal is taken, the county auditor shall at once make a transcript of the notice of appeal and appeal bond and transmit the same to the district court. The appellant shall, within twenty days after perfection of said appeal, docket said appeal and file a petition setting forth the order or decision of the board of supervisors appealed from, and his specific objections thereunto. A failure to comply with either of these requirements shall be deemed a conclusive waiver of the appeal and in such case the court shall dismiss the same. Appellee need not file answer, but may do so. [C24,§4714; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a6; C39,§4753.06; C46,§311.16; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§311.25]

311.26 Assessments certified to county treasurer. When the board of supervisors has entered its final order as to the amounts of all special assessments on a given improvement, the county auditor shall at once certify a list of such assessments and a list of real estate upon which each assessment has been levied, with the specific designation of the district embracing such real estate, to the county treasurer, who shall enter each assessment on the tax books and continue such entry until such assessment is paid.

Each special assessment and all installments thereof shall be a lien upon the real estate upon which it is levied from the date of such certificate by the county auditor to the same extent and in the same manner as taxes levied for state and county purposes. Changes in the amount of any special assessment by reason of any ruling of the district court on appeals shall be likewise certified and the county treasurer shall make the proper correction on his books. [C24,§4715; C27, 31, 35, §4753-a7; C39,§4753.07; C46,§311.17; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§311.26]

311.27 Each district separate unit. Each assessment district shall be considered a unit and all funds received by the county treasurer for or on behalf of such unit shall be carried as a distinct and separate account and under the same specific name as that used by the board in establishing such unit. [C24,§1716; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a8; C39,§4753.08; C46,§311.18; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§311.27]

311.28 Certificates anticipating assessments. In order to render immediately available that amount of the estimated cost of an improvement which has been specially assessed, the board may issue road certificates in the name of the county in an aggregate amount not exceeding the then unpaid amount of the special assessment levied in said district. Each issue of certificates shall be under, and in accordance with, a duly adopted resolution of the board and which shall recite (1) the name or designation of the road district on account of which the certificates are issued; (2) that a stated amount (naming the amount) has been specially assessed against the lands within said district; (3) that a stated amount of said aggregate amount not yet been paid (naming the unpaid amount); (4) that it is necessary to render such unpaid amount immediately available; (5) the number of road certificates authorized and the specific amount of each certificate; (6) the specific numbering or designation of such certificates; (7) the rate of interest which each certificate shall bear from date, to wit, not to exceed six percent per annum; (8) the fact that said certificates are payable solely from the proceeds of the special assessments which have been levied on the lands within said districts; (9) that each certificate shall be payable on or before the first day of January of the first year following the maturity of the last installment of such special assessments, and that interest thereon shall be paid annually; (10) the authorization to the chairman of the board, and to the county auditor, respectively, to sign and countersign each of said certificates. [C24,§4717; C27, 31, 35,§4753-a9; C39,§4753.09; C46,§311.19; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§311.28]

311.29 Sale of certificates. Upon the signing of each of said certificates by the chairman of the board, said certificates shall be delivered to the county auditor, who shall countersign the same, charge the county treasurer with the amount thereof, and deliver the same to the latter officer, who shall be responsible therefor on his bond. The treasurer may apply said certificates in payment of any warrants duly authorized and issued for surfacing the roads within said district, or he may sell the same for the best attainable price and for not less than par, plus accrued interest, and credit the proceeds to the secondary road fund. Such certificates shall be retired in the order of the consecutive numbering thereof. [C24, §4717; C27, 31, 35, §4753-a9; C39, §4753.09; C46, §311.19; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §311.29]

Chapter 313: Road Use Tax, etc.
carrying out subsection 12 of section 307.5, the last paragraph of section 313.4 and section 307.10, and credit annually to the primary road fund the sum of five hundred thousand dollars to be used for paying expenses incurred by the secondary and urban road departments of the commission other than expenses incurred for extensions of primary roads in cities and towns. 6. The treasurer of state shall before making the above allotments credit annually to the primary road fund the sum of two million five hundred thousand dollars or an amount equal to one-ninth of the federal allotment whichever is the smaller, said sum to be used for matching the federal allotment to the state of Iowa for the use of the interstate and national defense highways in the state of Iowa. [C50, §30SA.2; C51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §312.2; 64GA, ch 1069, §1]

5. In any case where two or more cities or towns have consolidated, the apportionment of funds under this section shall be based upon the population of the city or town resulting from said consolidation and shall be determined by combining the population of all cities and towns involved in the consolidation as determined by the last available federal or special federal census enumeration for said consolidating city or town. §313.1, PRIMARY ROAD IMPROVEMENT

313.1 Federal and state co-operation. The state highway commission is empowered on behalf of the state to enter into any arrangement or contract with and required by the duly constituted federal authorities, in order to secure the full co-operation of the government of the United States, and the benefit of all present and future federal allotments in aid of highway construction, reconstruction, improvement or maintenance. The good faith of the state is hereby pledged to cause to be made available each year, sufficient funds to equal the total of any sums now or hereafter apportioned to the state for road purposes by the United States government for such year, and to maintain the roads constructed with said funds.

All federal aid primary and urban road funds received by the state.

313.2 "Road systems" defined — roadside parks. The highways of the state are, for the purposes of this chapter, divided into two systems, to wit: The primary road system and the secondary road system. The primary road system shall embrace those main roads, not including roads within cities and towns, which connect all county-seat towns, cities, and main market and industrial centers and which have already been designated as primary roads in chapter 241, Code of 1924; provided that the said designation of roads shall be, with the consent of the federal bureau of public roads, subject to revision by the state highway commission.

Any portion of said primary road system eliminated by reconstruction or relocation shall revert to and become part of the local secondary road system, provided, however, that the highway commission shall, during a period of not to exceed one year from the date a county has so notified that the road has reverted to the secondary system, maintain said road and conduct periodic traffic checks. If, at the end of one year the traffic on the section in question exceeds four hundred vehicles per day, it shall remain in the primary system. If, at the end of one year, the traffic on said section does not exceed four hundred vehicles per day, it shall revert to and become a part of the secondary system, provided, however, that the state highway commission shall first allocate sufficient funds to place the road in good repair sufficient for the traffic thereon. Whenever the board of supervisors of a county and the state highway commission mutually determine that a portion of a highway under the jurisdiction of either party should be transferred to the jurisdiction of the other party, the board and commission may enter into an agreement to effect such transfer. Such agreement may provide that each party may undertake or share responsibility for improving said road with the costs of such improvement to be borne entirely by either the county or the commission or equitably divided between the two jurisdictions. All such improvements shall be completed and all actual costs thereof paid or reimbursed prior to the time transfer of the road is made. In carrying out such agreement, the board of supervisors may expend secondary road funds of the county and the highway commission may expend primary road funds.

However, prior to entering into the agreement, a notice of intent to execute such agreement shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation within the county and the cost of such notice shall be jointly borne by the state highway commission and the board of supervisors. If one hundred or more residents of the county request by petition or in writing that a hearing be held in regard to such agreement within ten days after the publication of the notice, the board of supervisors and the state highway commission shall hold such a hearing not more than seven days after receiving the petition or written instrument, and based upon evidence presented at such hearing shall re-examine the merits of executing such agreement and make a decision in regard to it.

The state highway commission may, for the purpose of affording access to cities, towns or state parks, or for the purpose of shortening the direct line of travel on important routes, or to effect connections with Interstate roads at the state line, add such road or roads to the primary system.

The state highway commission, either alone or in co-operation with any county, shall have the authority to utilize any land acquired incidental to the acquisition of land for highway right of way and to also accept by gift, lands not exceeding two acres in area for roadside parks and parking areas. The commission may furnish necessary maintenance. The commission shall also have authority to accept by gift, equipment or other installations incidental to the use of said parks and parking areas. Said parks and parking areas shall be a part of the primary road system and the commission may at its discretion sell or otherwise dispose of said lands. No rest areas or rest area buildings shall be established or constructed on an interstate highway at intervals of less than sixty miles.

Reasonable maintenance and surveillance of rest area sites and buildings located thereon shall be provided by regular maintenance employees of the state highway commission under the district maintenance engineer in the district where the rest areas are located within the limits of appropriations provided for such purpose. [C24, §1689; C27, 31, 33, §4755-b1; C39, §4755-1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §313.11]

313.3 Primary road fund. There is hereby created a primary road fund which shall include and embrace:

1. All road use tax funds which are by law credited to the primary road fund.

2. All federal aid primary and urban road funds received by the state.
313.4 Disbursement of fund.

1. Said primary road fund is hereby appropriated for and shall be used in the establishment, construction, and maintenance of the primary road system, including the drainage, grading, surfacing, construction of bridges and culverts, the elimination or improvement of railroad crossings, the requiring of additional right of way or other expenses incurred in the construction and maintenance of said primary road system and the maintenance and housing of the state highway commission.

2. Such fund is also appropriated and shall be used for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, and maintenance of state institutional roads and state park roads and bridges on such roads as provided in subsection 12 of section 307.5, for restoration of secondary roads used as primary road detours and for compensation of counties for such use, for restoration of municipal streets so used and for compensation of cities and towns for such use, and for the payments required in section 307.5.

3. It is further provided that there is appropriated from the primary road fund an amount sufficient to pay the increase in salaries, which increase is not otherwise provided for by the general assembly in an appropriation bill, resulting from the annual review of the merit pay plan as provided in subsection 2 of section 19A.9. The appropriation herein provided shall be in effect from the date of approval by the executive council to the end of the fiscal biennium in which it becomes effective. (C21, §4692; C27, 31, 35, §1755-4b; C39, §1755.03; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §313.6)

313.5 Biennial appropriation—budget. The highway commission shall submit to the comptroller, as provided by chapter 8, a detailed estimate of the amount required by the highway commission during each succeeding biennium for the support of the commission and for engineering and administration of highway work and maintenance of the primary road system. Such estimate shall be in the same general form and detail as is required by chapter 8 and said chapter shall apply to the budgeting, appropriation, and expenditure of funds in the primary road fund in the same manner as such chapter applies to other departments.

313.9 Surveys, plans, and specifications. Before proceeding with the improvement of any primary road, the commission shall cause suitable surveys, plans and specifications for said

However, the amount of contracts for bituminous resurfacing, bridge painting, concrete paving, repair, and agreements with municipalities for maintenance on primary road extensions need not be included in the amount appropriated for maintenance.

The provisions of chapter 8 shall apply except that the provisions of section 8.39 shall not apply to funds appropriated to the commission under section 313.4, however, the first paragraph of section 8.39 shall apply to appropriations for support of the commission and for engineering and administration of highway work and maintenance of the primary road system.

Any contingent fund appropriated to the highway commission from the primary road fund shall be subject to the following conditions:

1. A written statement from the state comptroller shall be obtained, recommending expenditures from the fund for the purposes requested by the highway commission.

2. The comptroller and the governor shall determine that the expenditures contemplated are in the best interest of the state, and that the purpose or project for which funds are requested was not presented to the general assembly by way of a bill and which failed to become enacted into law. (C39, §1755.05; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §313.5)

The state highway commission shall proceed to the improvement of the primary road system as rapidly as funds become available therefor until the entire mileage of the primary road system is built to established grade, bridged, and surfaced with pavement or other surface suited to the traffic on such road. Improvements shall be made and carried out in such manner as to equalize the condition of the primary roads, as nearly as possible, in all sections of the state. (C27, 31, 35, §1755-57; C39, §1755.08; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §313.8)

After the final audit of such claims, the state comptroller shall draw warrants therefor payable to the treasurer of state and forward the same to the state highway commission for record. When such warrants have been recorded in the office of the said commission, they shall be forwarded to the state treasurer who shall redeem the same, charge them to the proper fund and credit the primary road contingent fund with the amount thereof. [C24, §4705; C27, 31, 35, §4755-b19; C39, §4755.19; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §313.19]

313.20 Auditor—appointment—bond—duties. The state comptroller shall appoint the auditor of the state highway commission who shall give bond in the sum of fifty thousand dollars for the faithful performance of his duties. The premium on said bond shall be paid by the state highway commission from the primary road fund. Said auditor shall check and audit all claims against the commission before such claims are approved by the commission, and shall keep all records and accounts relating to the expenditures of the commission. He shall, in the checking and auditing of claims against the commission, and keeping the records and accounts of the commission, be under the direction and supervision of the comptroller, and act as an agent of said comptroller. The state highway commission shall furnish said auditor with such help and assistants as may be necessary to properly perform the duties herein specified. The said auditor may be removed by the state comptroller. [C24, §4706; C27, 31, 35, §4755-b20; C39, §4755.20; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §313.21]

313.21 Improvements in cities and towns. The state highway commission is hereby given authority, subject to the approval of the council to construct, reconstruct, improve and maintain extensions of the primary road system within any city or town including the construction, reconstruction, and improvement of storm sewers and electrical traffic control devices reasonably incident and necessary thereto, provided that such improvement, exclusive of storm sewers, shall not exceed in width that of the primary road system and the amount of funds expended in any one year shall not exceed thirty-five percent of the primary road construction fund.

The phrase “subject to approval of the council,” as it appears in this section, shall be construed as authorizing the council to consider said proposed improvements in its relationship to municipal improvements (such as sewers, water lines, sidewalks and other public improvements, and the establishment or re-establishment of street grades). The location of said primary road extensions shall be determined by the state highway commission. [C24, §4731; C27, 31, 35, §4755-b26; C39, §4755.51; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §313.21]

313.22 Paying of whole street by commission. Any city or town and the state highway commission may enter into an agreement with respect to any project for the paving of any portion of a primary road extension, and for the construction, reconstruction, and improvement of storm sewers and electrical traffic control devices reasonably incident and necessary thereto, within such city or town. Said agreement shall specify that the city or town shall pay for that portion of the cost of said project which is not payable out of primary road funds, and may authorize the state highway commission to advertise for bids, let contracts, and supervise the construction of that portion of said project to be paid for by the city or town. Such agreement shall be a valid and binding obligation on the parties thereto. [C16, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §313.22]

313.23 Reimbursement by city or town. Payment for the work, including the city’s or the town’s portion thereof, may in the first instance be made out of the primary road fund. Upon completion of the project, the city or town shall reimburse the state highway commission for the amount so advanced out of the primary road fund, including the city’s or town’s portion of the engineering and inspection costs. [C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §313.23]

313.24 Separated cities or towns. The state highway commission shall designate the street or streets which shall constitute the primary road extensions in any city or town of the state, which city or town is separated from the remainder of the state by a river more than five hundred feet in width from bank to bank. The laws of this state relating to the construction, reconstruction or maintenance of the extensions of primary roads in cities and towns, and to the purchase or condemnation of right of way therefor, and to the expenditure of primary road funds thereon, shall apply to the roads or streets designated hereunder, the same as though said community were not so separated from the rest of the state. [C39, §4755.22; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §313.24]

The state highway commission may construct or aid in the construction, and may maintain bridges, viaducts, and railroad grade crossing eliminations on primary road extensions in cities and towns. [C31, 35, §4755-d1; C39, §4755.25; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §313.27]

313.28 Temporary primary road detours. When the state highway commission, for the purpose of establishing, constructing or maintaining any primary road, determines that any secondary road or portion thereof is necessary for a detour or haul road, the commission, after consultation with the county board of supervisors having jurisdiction of the route, shall by order temporarily designate the secondary road or portion thereof as a temporary primary road detour or as a temporary primary road haul road, and the commission shall maintain the same as a primary road until it shall revoke the temporary designation order. Prior to use of a secondary road as a primary haul road or detour, the commission shall designate a representative to inspect the secondary road with the county engineer to determine and note the condition of the road.

Prior to revoking the designation, the commission shall:

1. Restore the secondary road or portion thereof to as good condition as it was prior to its designation as a temporary primary road, or
2. Determine such amount as will adequately compensate the county exercising exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction over the secondary road or portion thereof for excessive traffic upon the secondary road or portion thereof during the period of its designation as a temporary primary road. The commission shall certify the amount determined to the state comptroller. The comptroller shall credit the amount to the secondary road fund of the county.

3. If on examination of the route, it is determined that the road can be restored to its original condition only by reconstruction, the commission shall cause plans to be drawn, award the necessary contracts for work and proceed to reconstruct and make payments for the same manner as is prescribed for primary construction projects. [C71,§313.28]

313.29 Detours located in city or town. When the temporary primary road detour or temporary primary road haul road, or any portion thereof, is located within the corporate limits of a city or town, then as to such portion so located, the provisions of section 313.28 as to consultation, designation, restoration and payment by the state highway commission shall apply in like manner to the benefit of such city or town, and credits thereunder shall be made to the street fund of such city or town. Such city or town may designate the county engineer or, in the case of a city, its chief civil engineer, to inspect such street so used jointly with the representative of the state highway commission. 313.43 Lateral or detour routes in cities and towns. Any city or town located on the primary road system and in which the primary road extension as officially designated does not pass through the main part or business district of such city or town, may designate and mark a lateral or detour route in order to facilitate such primary road traffic as may desire to get into and out of such business district. [C31, 35, §4755-c2; C39, §4755.34; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §313.43]

313.44 Standard markings required. Such lateral or detour routes shall be marked with standard markings adopted by the state highway commission therefor, which markings shall clearly indicate that such lateral route is not the official primary road extension but is in fact a lateral or detour extending to the business district. 2. The Iowa highway commission is authorized to make payment for any such bridge and its approaches from the primary road fund provided however, that in no event shall the amount of such payment be more than one hundred thousand dollars for any one bridge and approaches thereto, and provided further that such purchase shall not be completed or payment made therefor until the adjoining state shall either have purchased or agreed to purchase ownership of the remaining one-half of said bridge and approaches, and agrees to pay the costs of repairing or maintaining such portion of the bridge and all approaches.

INTERSTATE BRIDGES

313A.1 Definitions. The following words or terms, as used in this chapter, shall have the respective meanings as stated:

“Toll bridge” shall mean an interstate bridge constructed, purchased or acquired under the provisions of this chapter, upon which tolls are charged, together with all appurtenances, additions, alterations, improvements, and replacements thereof, and the approaches there- to, and all funds and interests therein used therefor, and buildings and improvements thereon.

“Commission” shall mean the state highway commission, the agency of the state of Iowa created and provided for under the provisions of chapter 307.

“Construct, constructing, construction or constructed” shall include the completion, re construction, remodeling, repair, or improvement of any existing toll bridge or any partially constructed interstate bridge, as well as the construction of any new toll bridge.

“Acquisition by purchase, gift, or condemnation” as used in this chapter shall mean ac- quisition by the state highway commission, whether such terms “purchase, gift, or condemnation” are used singularly or in sequence.

“Federal bridge commission” shall mean any bridge commission organized and operating pursuant to an Act of the Congress of the United States, even though such Act of Congress may declare the bridge commission not to be an agency of the federal government. [C71,§313A.1; 64GA, ch 172, §1]

313A.2 Bridge to be controlled by highway commission. The state highway commission shall have full charge of the construction and acquisition of all toll bridges constructed or acquired under the provisions of this chapter, the operation and maintenance thereof and the imposition and collection of tolls and charges for the use thereof. The commission shall have full charge of the design of all toll bridges constructed under the provisions of this chapter. The commission shall proceed with the construction of such toll bridges and other facilities and the approaches thereto by contract immediately upon there being made available funds for such work and shall prosecute such work to completion as rapidly as practicable. The commission shall advertise for bids for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, repair or remodeling of any toll bridge by publication of a notice once each week for at least two consecutive weeks in a newspaper published and having a general circulation throughout the state of Iowa, the first publication to appear at least fifteen days prior to the date set for receiving bids. The commission shall have the power to accept such offer or offers, propositions or bids, and enter into such contract or contracts as it shall deem to be to the best interest of the state. [C71, §313A.2]

313A.3 Toll bridges constructed over boundary rivers. The commission is hereby authorized to establish and construct toll bridges upon any public highway, together with approaches thereto, wherever it is considered necessary or advantageous and practical for crossing any navigable river between this state and an adjoining state. The necessity or advantage and practicality of any toll bridge shall be determined by the commission. To obtain information for the consideration of the commission upon the construction of any toll bridge or any other matter pertaining thereto, any officer or employee of the state, upon the request of the commission, shall make reasonable examination, investigation, survey, or reconnaissance to determine material facts pertaining thereto and shall report such findings to the commission. The cost thereof shall be borne by the department or office conducting it from funds provided for its functions. [C71, §313A.3]

313A.1 Investigation of feasibility. The commission is hereby authorized to enter into agreements with any federal bridge commission or any county, city, or town of this state, and with an adjoining state or county, city, or town thereof, for the purpose of implementing an investigation of the feasibility of any toll bridge project for the bridging of a navigable river forming a portion of the boundary of this state and such adjoining state. The commission may use any funds available for the purposes of this section. Such agreements may provide that in the event any such project is determined to be feasible and adopted, any advancement of funds by any state, county, city, or town thereof, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions hereof, shall be reimbursed out of any proceeds derived from the sale of bonds or out of tolls and revenues to be derived from such project. [C71, §313A.4]

313A.5 Acquiring existing bridge — bonds. Whenever the commission deems it necessary or advantageous and practical, it may acquire by gift, purchase, or condemnation any interstate bridge which connects with or may be connected with public highways and the approaches thereto, except that the commission may not condemn an existing interstate bridge used for interstate highway traffic and combined highway and railway traffic and presently owned by a municipality, or a person, firm, or corporation engaged in interstate commerce. The commission may also acquire by gift or purchase two or more existing interstate bridges and any partially constructed interstate bridge, all located within ten miles of each other, complete the partially constructed bridge and dismantle the bridge which it is designed to replace. In connection with the acquisition of any such bridge, bridges, or partially constructed bridge, the commission and any federal bridge commission or any city, town, county, or other political subdivision of the state are authorized to do all acts and things as in this chapter are provided for the establishing and constructing of toll bridges and operating, financing, and maintaining such bridges insofar as such powers and requirements are applicable to the acquisition of any toll bridge and its operation, financing, and maintenance. In so doing, they shall act in the same manner and under the same procedures as provided for establishing, constructing, operating, financing, and maintaining toll bridges insofar as such manner and procedures are applicable. Without limiting the generality of the above provisions, the commission is hereby authorized to cause surveys to be made to determine the propriety of acquiring any such bridge and the rights of way necessary therefor, and other facilities necessary to carry out the provisions hereof; to issue, sell, redeem bonds or issue and exchange bonds with present holders of outstanding bonds of bridges being acquired under the provisions of this chapter and deposit and pay out of the proceeds of the bonds for the financing thereof; to impose, collect, deposit, and expend tolls therefrom; to secure and remit financial and other assistance in connection with the purchase thereof; and to carry insurance thereon. [C71, §313A.5; 64GA, Ch 172, §2]

313A.6 Rules adopted—financial statements. The commission, its officials, and all state officials are hereby authorized to perform such acts and make such agreements consistent with the law which are necessary and desirable in connection with the duties and powers conferred upon them regarding the construction, maintenance, and operation and insurance of toll bridges or the safeguarding of the funds and revenues required for such construction and the payment of the indebtedness incurred therefor. The commission shall adopt such rules and regulations in accordance with the provisions of chapter 17A as it may deem necessary for the administration and exercise of its powers and duties granted by this chapter, and shall prepare annual financial statements regarding the operation of such toll bridges which shall be made available for inspection by the public and by the holders of revenue bonds issued by the commission under the provisions of this chapter at all reasonable times. [C71, §313A.6]
§313A.7 Resolution of public interest and necessity—revenue bonds.
Whenever the commission deems it to be in the best interest of the primary highway system that any new toll bridge be constructed upon any public highway and across any navigable river between this state and an adjoining state, the commission shall adopt a resolution declaring that the public interest and necessity require the construction of such toll bridge and authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds in an amount sufficient for the purpose of obtaining funds for such construction. The issuance of bonds as provided in this chapter for the construction, purchase, or acquisition of more than one toll bridge may, at the discretion of the commission, be included in the same authority and issue or issues of bonds, and the commission is hereby authorized to pledge the gross revenues derived from the operation of any such toll bridge under its control and jurisdiction to pay the principal of and interest on bonds issued to pay the cost of purchasing, acquiring, or constructing any such toll bridge financed under the provisions of this chapter. The commission is hereby granted wide discretion, in connection with the financing of the cost of any toll bridge, to pledge the gross revenues of a single toll bridge for the payment of bonds and interest thereon issued to pay the cost of such bridge and to pledge the gross revenues of two or more toll bridges to pay bonds issued to pay the cost of one or more toll bridges and interest thereon as long as the several bridges included herein are not more than ten miles apart.

In addition, if the commission in its discretion determines that the construction of a toll bridge cannot be financed entirely through revenue bonds and that the construction of such toll bridge is necessary, the commission may advance funds from the primary highway fund to pay for that part of the construction costs including the cost of approaches and all incidental costs, which is not paid out of the proceeds of revenue bonds. However, said funds advanced from the primary highway fund shall be used only to pay the construction cost, including the cost of approaches and all incidental costs, with respect to that part of the bridge which is or will be located within the state of Iowa. After all revenue bonds and interest thereon issued and sold pursuant to this chapter and payable from the tolls and revenues of said bridge have been fully paid and redeemed or funds sufficient to pay said bonds and interest, including premium, if any, have been set aside and pledged for that purpose, then such amount advanced from the primary road fund shall be repaid to the primary road fund from the tolls and revenues of said bridge before said bridge is made a toll free bridge under the provisions of this chapter. [C71, §313A.7] a public use or purpose by any person, firm, county, city or town, district, or any political subdivision of the state, may be condemned and taken, and the acquisition and use thereof as herein provided for the same public use or purpose to which such property has been so appropriated or dedicated, or for any other public use or purpose, shall be deemed a superior and permanent right and necessity, and a more necessary use and purpose than the public use or purpose for which such property has already been appropriated or dedicated, and any condemnation award may be paid from the proceeds of revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter. [C71, §313A.10]

313A.11 Payment from available funds. If the commission determines that any toll bridge should be constructed or acquired under its authority, all costs thereof, including land, right of way, surveying, engineering, construction, legal and administrative expenses, and fees of any fiscal advisor, shall be paid out of any funds available for payment of the cost of the bridge. [C71,§313A.11]

313A.12 Revenue bonds. The commission is hereby authorized and empowered to issue revenue bonds for the acquisition, purchase or construction of any interstate bridge. Any and all bonds issued by the commission for the acquisition, purchase, or construction of any interstate bridge under the authority of this chapter shall be issued in the name of the Iowa highway commission and shall constitute obligations only of the commission, shall be identified by some appropriate name, and shall contain a recital on the face thereof that the payment of this bond consists solely of the tolls and other revenues of any nature whatever received from the operation of the particular bridge for the acquisition, purchase, or construction of which the bonds are issued and of which there is no such bridge or bridges as may have been pledged therefor, and that neither the payment of the principal of or any part thereof nor of the interest thereon or any part thereof constitutes a debt, liability, or obligation of the state of Iowa. When it is determined by the commission to be in the best public interest, any bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter may be refunded and refinanced at a lower rate, the same rate or a higher rate or rates of interest and from time to time as often as the commission shall find it to be advisable and necessary so to do. Bonds issued to refund other bonds therefor issued by the commission under the provisions of this chapter may either be sold in the manner hereinafter provided and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of the bonds being refunded, or the refunding bonds may be exchanged for and in payment and discharge of the bonds being refunded. The refunding bonds may be sold or exchanged in installments at different times or an entire issue or series may be sold or exchanged at one time. Any issue or series of refunding bonds may be exchanged in part or sold in part in installments at different times or at one time. The refunding bonds may be sold at any time on, before, or after the maturity of any of the outstanding bonds to be refinanced thereby and may be issued for the purpose of refunding a like or greater principal amount of bonds, except that the principal amount of the refunding bonds may exceed the principal amount of the bonds to be refunded to the extent necessary to pay any premium due on the call of the bonds to be refunded or to fund interest in arrears or about to become due. The gross revenues of any toll bridge pledged to the payment of the bonds being refunded, together with the unpledged gross revenues of any other toll bridges located within ten miles of said bridge, may be pledged by the commission to pay the principal of and interest on the refunding bonds and to create and maintain reserves therefor.

The commission is empowered to receive and accept funds from the state of Iowa or the federal government or any other state upon a co-operative or other basis for the acquisition, purchase, or construction of any interstate bridge authorized under the provisions of this chapter and is empowered to enter into such agreements with the state of Iowa or any other state or the federal government as may be required for the securing of such funds.

The commission is authorized and empowered to spend from annual primary road fund receipts sufficient moneys to pay the cost of operation, maintenance, insurance, collection of tolls and accounting therefor and all other charges incidental to the operation and maintenance of any toll bridge administered under the provisions of this chapter. However, said annual primary road fund receipts shall be used only to pay such costs and charges with respect to that part of the bridge which is located within the state of Iowa.

The commission may also issue its revenue bonds to pay all or any part of the cost of acquiring two or more existing interstate bridges and any partially constructed interstate bridge, all located within ten miles of each other, of completing the partially constructed bridge and of dismantling the bridge which it is designed to replace, and to impose and collect tolls on all of such bridges and to pledge the revenues derived therefrom to the payment of the bonds issued to finance such project. The commission may also issue its revenue bonds to pay all or any part of the cost of reconstructing, completing, improving, repairing, or remodeling any interstate bridge or partially constructed bridge, impose and collect tolls, and pledge the bridge revenues to the payment of said bonds. 313A.13 Sale and exchange or retirement of bonds. The revenue bonds may be issued and sold or exchanged by the commission from time to time and in such amounts as it deems necessary to provide sufficient funds for the acquisition, purchase, or construction of any such bridge and to pay interest on bonds issued for the construction of any toll bridge during the period of actual construction and for six months after completion thereof. The commission is hereby authorized to adopt all necessary resolutions prescribing the form, conditions, and denominations of the bonds, the maturity dates thereof, and the interest rate or rates which the bonds shall bear. All bonds of the same issue need not bear the same interest rate. Principal and interest of the bonds shall be payable at such places or under such conditions and upon payment of such premiums as it may determine in the resolution providing for the issuance of the bonds. All such bonds and any coupons attached thereto shall be signed by such officers of the commission as the commission may direct. Successive issues of such bonds within the limits of the original authorization shall have equal preference with respect to the payment of the principal thereof and the payment of interest thereon. The commission may fix different maturity dates, serially or otherwise, for successive issues under any one original authorization. All bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall have all the qualities of negotiable instruments under the laws of the state of Iowa. All bonds issued and sold hereunder shall be sold to the highest and best bidder on the basis of sealed proposals received pursuant to a notice specifying the time and place of sale and the amount of bonds to be sold which shall be published at least once not less than seven days prior to the sale in a newspaper published in the state of Iowa and having a general circulation in said state. None of the provisions of chapter 75 shall apply to bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter but such bonds shall be sold, and all funds constituting surplus revenues which are not immediately needed for the particular object or purpose to which they must be applied or are pledged may be invested in obligations issued or guaranteed by the United States or by any person controlled by or supervised by and acting as an instrumentality of the United States pursuant to authority granted by the Congress of the United States; provided, however, that the commission may direct, may be issued and delivered until the definitive bonds are executed and available for delivery. [CT1.§313A.13]

313A.14 Proceeds in trust fund. The proceeds from the sale of all bonds authorized and issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be deposited by the commission in a fund designated as the construction fund of the particular interstate bridge or bridges for which such bonds were issued and sold, which fund shall not be a state fund and shall at all times be kept segregated and set apart from all other funds and in trust for the purposes herein set out. Such proceeds shall be paid out or disbursed solely for the acquisition, purchase, or construction of such interstate bridge or bridges and expenses incident there to, the acquisition of the necessary lands and easements therefor and the payment of interest on such bonds during the period of actual construction and for a period of six months thereafter, only as the need therefor shall arise and the commission may agree with the purchaser of said bonds upon any conditions or limitations restricting the disbursement of such funds that may be deemed advisable, for the purpose of assuring the proper application of such funds. All moneys in such fund and not required to meet construction costs of the interstate bridge or bridges for which such bonds were issued and sold, and all funds constituting surplus revenues which are not immediately needed for the particular object or purpose to which they must be applied or are pledged may be invested in obligations issued or guaranteed by the United States or by any person controlled by or supervised by and acting as an instrumentality of the United States pursuant to authority granted by the Congress of the United States; provided, however, that the commission may provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said bonds that the investment of such moneys shall be made only in particular bonds and obligations within the classifications eligible for such investment and such provisions shall thereupon be binding upon the commission and all officials having anything to do with such investment. Any surplus which may exist in said construction fund shall be applied to the retirement of bonds issued for the acquisition, purchase, or construction of any such interstate bridge by terms as may be agreed to and the bonds shall be subject to all the provisions of this chapter, except that any bonds issued hereunder to the United States or any agency thereof need not first be offered at public sale. The commission may also provide for cause the private sale of bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter to the state treasurer of Iowa upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon, and in such event said bonds need not first be offered at public sale. Temporary or interim bonds, certificates, or receipts, of any denomination, and with or without coupons attached, signed by such official as the commission may direct, may be issued and delivered until the definitive bonds are executed and available for delivery. [CT1.§313A.14] purchase or call and, in the event such bonds cannot be purchased at a price satisfactory to the commission and are not by their terms callable prior to maturity, such surplus shall be paid into the fund applicable to the payment of principal and interest of said bonds and shall be used for that purpose. The proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds may provide limitations and conditions upon the time and manner of applying such surplus to the purchase and call of outstanding bonds and the terms upon which they shall be purchased or called and such limitations and conditions shall be followed and observed in the application and use of such surplus. All bonds so retired by purchase or call shall be immediately canceled. [C71, §313A.14]

313A.15 Toll revenue fund. All tolls or other revenues received from the operation of any toll bridge acquired, purchased, or constructed with the proceeds of bonds issued and sold hereunder shall be deposited by the commission to the credit of a special trust fund to be designated as the toll revenue fund of the particular toll bridge or toll bridges producing such tolls or revenue, which fund shall be a trust fund and shall at all times be kept segregated and apart from all other funds. [C71, §313A.15] 313A.15 Amend 7-1-75 Ch 1180, §89—65 GA

313A.16 Funds transferred to place of payment. From the money so deposited in each separate construction fund as hereinafter provided, at the direction of the commission there shall be transferred to the place or places of payment named in said bonds such sums as may be required to pay the interest as it becomes due on all bonds issued and outstanding for the construction of such particular toll bridge or toll bridges during the period of actual construction and during the period of six months immediately thereafter. The commission shall thereafter transfer from each separate toll revenue fund to the place or places of payment named in the bonds for which said revenues have been pledged such sums as may be required to pay the interest on said bonds and redeem the principal thereof as such interest and principal become due. All funds so transferred for the payment of principal of or interest on bonds issued for any particular toll bridge or toll bridges shall be segregated and applied solely for the payment of said principal or interest. The proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds may provide for the setting up of a reserve fund or funds out of the tolls and other revenues not needed for the payment of principal and interest, as the same currently matures and for the preservation and continuance of such fund in a manner to be provided therein, and such proceedings may also require the immediate application of all surplus moneys in such toll revenue fund to the retirement of such bonds prior to maturity, by call or purchase, in such manner and upon such terms and the payment of such premiums as may be deemed advisable in the judgment of the commission. The moneys remaining in each separate toll revenue fund after providing the amount required for the payment of principal of and interest on bonds as hereinafter provided, shall be held and applied as provided in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said bonds. In the event the proceedings authorizing the issuance of said bonds do not require surplus revenues to be held or applied in any particular manner, they shall be allocated and used for such other purposes incidental to the construction, operation, and maintenance of any toll bridge as the commission may determine and as permitted under sections 313A.7 and 313A.12. [C71, §313A.16]

313A.17 Warrants for payment. Warrants for payments to be made on account of such bonds shall be drawn by the commission on duly approved vouchers. Moneys required to meet the costs of purchase or construction and all expenses and costs incidental to the acquisition, purchase, or construction of any particular Interstate bridge or to meet the costs of operating, maintaining, and repairing the same, shall be paid by the commission from the proper fund therefor upon duly approved vouchers. All interest received or earned on money deposited in each and every fund herein provided for shall be credited to and become a part of the particular fund upon which said interest accrues. [C71, §313A.17]

The commission may provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds or may otherwise agree with the purchasers of bonds regarding the deposit of all moneys constituting the construction fund and the toll revenue fund and provide for the deposit of such money at such times and with such depositaries or paying agents and upon the furnishing of such security as may meet with the approval of the purchasers of such bonds. [C71, §313A.18] 313A.18 Amend 7-1-75 Ch 1180, §89—65 GA

313A.19 Expenses of commission. Notwithstanding any provision contained in this chapter, the proceeds received from the sale of bonds and the tolls or other revenues received from the operation of any toll bridge may be used to defray any expenses incurred by the commission in connection with and incidental to the issuance and sale of bonds for the acquisition, purchase, or construction of any such toll bridge including expenses for the preparation of surveys and estimates, legal, fiscal and administrative expenses, and the making of such inspections and examinations as may be required by the purchasers of such bonds; provided, that the proceedings authorizing the issuance of such bonds may contain appropriate provisions governing the use and application of said bond proceeds and toll or other revenues for the purposes herein specified. 313A.20 No diminution of duties while bonds outstanding. While any bond is issued by the commission remain outstanding, the powers, duties or existence of the commission or of any other official or agency of the state shall not be diminished or impaired in any manner that will affect adversely the interests and rights of the holders of such bonds. The holder of any bond may by mandamus or other appropriate proceeding require and compel the performance of any of the duties imposed upon any state department, official, or employee or imposed upon the commission or its officers, agents, and employees in connection with the acquisition, purchase, construction, maintenance, operation, and insurance of any bridge and in connection with the collection, deposit, investment, application, and disbursement of all tolls and other revenues derived from the operation and use of any bridge and in connection with the deposit, investment, and disbursement of the proceeds received from the operation of such toll bridge during any period of time that may be determined upon by the commission and fixed in its discretion, and be paid for out of the toll revenue fund as may be specified in said proceedings. [C71,§313A.21]

313A.22 Toll charges fixed by commission. The commission is hereby empowered to fix the rates of toll and other charges for all interstate bridges acquired, purchased, or constructed under the terms of this chapter. Toll charges so fixed may be changed from time to time as conditions may warrant. The commission in establishing toll charges shall give due consideration to the amount required annually to pay the principal of and interest on bonds payable from the revenues thereof. The tolls and charges shall be at all times fixed at rates sufficient to pay the bonds and interest as they mature, together with the creation and maintenance of bond reserve funds and other funds as established in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds, for any particular toll bridge. The amounts required to pay the principal of and interest on bonds shall constitute a charge and lien on all such tolls and other revenues and interest thereon and sinking funds created therefrom received from the use and operation of said toll bridge, and the commission is hereby authorized to pledge a sufficient amount of said tolls and revenues for the payment of bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter and interest thereon and to create and maintain a reserve therefor. Such tolls and revenues, together with the interest earned thereon, shall constitute a trust fund for the security and payment of such bonds and shall not be used or pledged for any other purpose as long as such bonds or any of them are outstanding and unpaid. [C71,§313A.22]

313A.23 Political subdivision may aid. Whenever a proposed interstate bridge is to be acquired, purchased or constructed, any city, town, county, or other political subdivision located in relation to such facility as to benefit directly or indirectly thereby, may, either jointly or separately, at the request of the commission advance or contribute money, rights of way, labor, materials, and other property toward the expense of acquiring, purchasing or constructing the bridge, and for preliminary surveys and the preparation of plans and estimates of cost therefor and other preliminary expenses. Any such city, town, county, or other political subdivision may, either jointly or separately, at the request of the commission advance or contribute money for the purpose of guaranteeing the payment of interest or principal on the bonds issued by the commission to finance the bridge. Appropriations for such purposes may be made from any funds available, including county road funds received from or credited by the state, or funds obtained by excess tax levies made pursuant to law or the issuance of general obligation bonds for this purpose. Money or property so advanced or contributed may be immediately transferred or delivered to the commission to be used for the purpose.
for which contribution was made. The commission may enter into an agreement with a city, town, county, or other political subdivision to repay any money or the value of the right of way, labor, materials or other property so advanced or contributed. The commission may make such repayment to a city, town, county, or other political subdivision and reimburse the state for any expenditures made by it in connection with the bridge out of tolls and other revenues for the use of the bridge. [C71, §313A.23]

313A.24 Sale of excess land to political subdivisions. If the commission deems that any land, including improvements thereon, is no longer required for toll bridge purposes and that it is in the public interest, it may negotiate for the sale of such land to the state or to any city, town, county, or other political subdivision or municipal corporation of the state. The commission shall certify the agreement for the sale to the state executive council, with a description of the land and the terms of the sale and the state executive council may execute the deed and deliver it to the grantee. [C71, §313A.24] Referred to in §313A.28

313A.25 Sale to public. If the commission is of the opinion that any land, including improvements thereon, is no longer required for toll bridge purposes, it may be offered for sale upon publication of a notice once each week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper published and having a general circulation throughout the state of Iowa, specifying the time and place fixed for the receipt of bids. [C71, §313A.25] Referred to in §313A.28

313A.26 Acceptance or rejection of bids. The commission may reject all such bids if the highest bid does not equal the reasonable fair market value of the real property, plus the value of the improvements thereon, computed on the basis of the reproduction value less depreciation. The commission may accept the highest and best bid, and certify the agreement for the sale to the state executive council, with a description of the land and the terms of the sale and the state executive council shall execute the deed and deliver it to the grantee. [C71, §313A.26] Referred to in §313A.28

313A.27 Franchises for use of bridge. If the commission deems it consistent with the use and operation of any toll bridge, the commission may grant franchises to persons, firms, associations, private or municipal corporations, the United States government or any agency thereof, to use any portion of the property of any toll bridge, including approaches thereto, for the construction and maintenance of water pipes, flumes, gas pipes, telephone, telegraph and electric light and power lines and conduits, trams or railways and any other such facilities in the manner of granting franchises on state highways. [C71, §313A.27] Referred to in §313A.28

313A.29 Tolls imposed for improving other bridges. The commission shall have the right to impose and reimpose tolls for pedestrian or vehicular traffic over any interstate bridges under its control and jurisdiction for the purpose of paying the cost of reconstructing and improving existing bridges and their approaches, purchasing existing bridges, and constructing new bridges and approaches, provided that any such existing bridge or new bridge is located within ten miles of the bridge on which tolls are so imposed or reimposed, to pay interest on and create a sinking fund for the retirement of revenue bonds issued for the account of such projects and to pay any and all costs and expenses incurred by the commission in connection with and incidental to the issuance and sale of bonds and for the preparation of surveys and estimates and to establish the required interest reserves for and during the estimated construction period and for six months thereafter. [C71, §313A.29] Referred to in §313A.30

313A.30 Bridges as part of primary roads. The bridges herein provided for may be incorporated into the primary road system as toll free bridges whenever the costs of the construction of the bridges and the approaches thereto and the reconstruction and improvement of existing bridges and approaches thereto, including all incidental costs, have been paid and when all revenue bonds and interest thereon issued and sold pursuant to this chapter and payable from the tolls and revenues thereof shall have been fully paid and redeemed or funds sufficient to pay said bonds and interest, including premium, if any, have been set aside and pledged for that purpose. However, tolls may again be imposed as provided in section 313A.29. [C71, §313A.30]

313A.31 Revenue bonds. The commission shall have the power and is hereby authorized by resolution to issue, sell, or pledge its revenue bonds in an amount sufficient to provide funds to pay all or any part of the costs of construction of a new bridge and approaches thereto and the reconstruction, improvement, and maintaining of an existing bridge and approaches thereto, including all costs of survey, acquisition of right of way, engineering, legal, fiscal, and incidental expenses, to pay the interest due thereon during the period beginning with the date of issue of the bonds and ending at the expiration of six months after the first imposition and collection of tolls from the users of said bridges, and all costs incidental to the issuance and sale of the bonds.

Except as may be otherwise specifically provided by statute, all of the other provisions of this chapter shall govern the issuance and sale of revenue bonds issued under this section, the execution thereof, the disbursement of the proceeds of issuance thereof, the interest rate or rates thereon, their form, terms, conditions, covenants, negotiability, denominations, date or dates, the creation of special funds or accounts safeguarding and providing for the payment of the principal thereof and interest thereon, and their manner of redemption and retirement.

Such bonds shall include a covenant that the payment of the principal thereof and the interest thereon are secured by a first and direct charge and lien on all of the tolls and other gross revenues received from the operation of said toll bridges and from any interest which may be earned from the deposit or investment of any such revenues.

The tolls and charges shall be at all times fixed at rates sufficient to pay the bonds and interest as they mature, together with the creation and maintenance of bond reserve funds and other funds as established in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds. [C71, §313A.31]

313A.32 Operation and control of bridge. The commission is hereby authorized to operate and to assume the full control of said toll bridges and each portion thereof whether within or without the borders of the state of Iowa, with full power to impose and collect tolls from the users of such bridges for the purpose of providing revenues at least sufficient to pay the cost and incidental expenses of construction and acquisition of said bridges and approaches in both states in which located and for the payment of the principal of and interest on its revenue bonds as authorized by this chapter. [C71, §313A.32]

313A.33 No obligation of state. Under no circumstances shall any bonds issued under the terms of this chapter be or become or be held to be a debt of or charge against the state of Iowa within the purview of any constitutional or statutory limitation or provision. No taxes, appropriations or other funds of the state of Iowa may be pledged to pay such bonds, but any such bonds shall be payable solely and only as to both principal and interest from the tolls and revenues derived from the operation of any toll bridge or toll bridges acquired, purchased, or constructed under this chapter, and the sole remedy for any breach or default of the terms of any such bonds or proceedings for their issuance shall be a proceeding either in law or in equity by suit, action or mandamus to enforce and compel performance of the duties required by this chapter and the terms of the resolution under which such bonds are issued. [C71, §313A.33]

313A.34 Agreements with other states. 3. A provision that the commission, after consultation with the other governmental agencies or subdivisions who are parties to such agreements, shall fix and revise the classifications and amounts of tolls to be charged and collected from the users of the toll bridges, with the further provision that such toll charges shall be removed after all costs of planning, designing, and construction of such toll bridges and approaches thereto and all incidental costs shall have been paid, and all of said revenue bonds, and interest thereon, issued pursuant to this chapter shall have been fully paid and redeemed or funds sufficient therefor have been set aside and pledged for that purpose.

4. A provision that all acts pertaining to the design and construction of such toll bridges may be done and performed by the commission and that any and all contracts for the construction of such toll bridges shall be awarded in the name of the commission.

5. A provision that the state of Iowa and adjoining state and all governmental agencies or subdivisions party to such agreement shall be reimbursed out of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds or out of tolls and revenues as herein allowed for any advances they may have made or expenses they may have incurred for any of the purposes for which said revenue bonds may be issued, after duly verified itemized statements of such advances and expenses have been submitted to and been approved by all parties to such agreement.
6. A provision that when all outstanding indebtedness or other obligations payable from the revenues of such bridges have been paid the adjoining state agrees to accept ownership of that portion of the bridge within such state and agrees to pay the cost of maintaining such portions of the bridge or proportionate share of the total cost of maintaining the bridge. [C71,§313A.34]

313A.35 General obligation bonds. Counties are hereby authorized to issue general obligation bonds for the purpose of contributing money to the commission to help finance the construction of toll bridges across navigable rivers constituting boundaries between the county and an adjoining state. Prior to the issuance of such bonds the board of supervisors shall call and hold an election in said county at which the proposition shall be submitted to the voters of the county in the following form:

"Shall the county of ................. issue its bonds in the amount of $ .............. for the purpose of .................?"

313A.36 Purposes of powers granted. The exercise of the powers granted by this chapter will be in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of Iowa, for the increase of their commerce and prosperity and for the improvement of their health and living conditions, and as the acquisition, construction, operation, and maintenance by the commission of the projects herein defined will constitute the performance of essential governmental functions, the commission shall not be required to pay any taxes or assessments upon such projects or upon any property acquired or used by the commission under the provisions of this chapter or upon the income from such projects, and the bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter, their transfer and the income therefrom including any profit made on the sale thereof shall at all times be free from taxation by or within the state of Iowa. [C71,§313A.36]

313A.38 Independent of any other law. This chapter shall be construed as providing an alternative and independent method for the acquisition, purchase, or construction of interstate bridges, for the issuance and sale or exchange of bonds in connection therewith and for refunding bonds pertinent thereto, and for the imposition, collection, and application of the proceeds of tolls and charges for the use of interstate bridges, without reference to any other statute, and shall not be construed as an amendment of or subject to the provisions of any other law, and no publication of any notice, and no other or further proceeding in respect to the issuance or sale or exchange of bonds under this chapter shall be required except such as are prescribed by this chapter, any provisions of other statutes of the state to the contrary notwithstanding. Provided, that this authority shall not apply to the extensions of secondary roads located in cities over twenty-five hundred population, where the houses or business houses average less than two hundred feet apart.

The phrase "subject to the approval of the council" as it appears in this section, shall be construed as authorizing the council to consider said proposed improvement only in its relationship to municipal improvements such as sewers, water lines, establishing grades, change of established street grades, sidewalks, and other public improvements. The locations of such road extensions shall be determined by the board or commission in control of such road or road system. Nor shall they destroy or injure reasonable ingress or egress to any property, or trench the natural drainage of the surface water to the injury of adjoining owners. It shall be their duty to use strict diligence in draining the surface water from the public road in its natural chan-said land of suitable quality and in sufficient quantity to warrant the purchase or con-

Any damage caused by such entry, surveys, soundings, drillings, appraisals or examinations shall be determined by agreement or in the manner provided for the award of damages in condemnation of land for highway pur-

Joint use of telephone, telegraph, electric transmission or pipe lines may not be required. No grant to any public utility to use such bridge shall in any way interfere with the use of such bridge by the public for highway purposes. 2. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as creating in any condemnation proceedings brought under the power of eminent domain, any element of value or of damage not in existence immediately prior to the date of this chapter.

3. In order to prevent unjust enrichment or a duplication of payments to any condemnee, the courts of this state, when determining just compensation in condemnation proceedings, shall not allow any damages which duplicate any of the benefits provided under the provisions of this chapter. [C71, §316.8; 64GA, ch 173, §2]

316.3 Declaration of policy. The purpose of this chapter is to establish a uniform policy for the fair and equitable treatment of persons...
displaced as a result of state and federally assisted highway programs in order that such persons shall not suffer disproportionate injuries as a result of programs designed for the benefit of the public as a whole. The general assembly declares that replacement housing for persons displaced by highway projects is a necessary and essential part of such highway projects. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Highway Relocation Assistance Law". [64GA, ch 173, §3]

316.4 Moving and related expenses. 1. Whenever the acquisition of real property for a program or project undertaken by the commission will result in the displacement of any person, the commission shall make a payment to any displaced person, upon proper application as approved by such commission, for:
   a. Actual reasonable expenses in moving himself, his family, business, farm operation, or other personal property;
   b. Actual direct losses of tangible personal property as a result of moving or discontinuing a business or farm operation, but not to exceed an amount equal to the reasonable expenses that would have been required to relocate such property, as determined by the commission; and
   c. Actual reasonable expenses in searching for a replacement business or farm.

2. Any displaced person eligible for payments under subsection 1 who is displaced from a dwelling and who elects to accept the payments authorized by this subsection in lieu of the payments authorized by subsection 1 may receive a moving expense allowance, determined according to a schedule established by the commission not to exceed three hundred dollars; and a dislocation allowance of two hundred dollars.

3. Any displaced person eligible for payments under subsection 1 who is displaced from his place of business or from his farm operation and who elects to accept the payment authorized by this subsection in lieu of the payment authorized by subsection 1 may receive a fixed payment in an amount equal to the average annual net earnings of the business or farm operation, except that such payment shall be not less than two thousand five hundred dollars nor more than ten thousand dollars. In the case of a business, no payment shall be made under this subsection unless the commission is satisfied that the business cannot be relocated without a substantial loss of its existing patronage, and is not a part of a commercial enterprise having at least one other establishment not being acquired for a highway project which is engaged in the same or similar business. For purposes of this subsection, the term "average annual net earnings" means one-half of any net earnings of the business or farm operation, before federal, state, and local income taxes, during the two taxable years immediately preceding the taxable year in which such business or farm operation moves from the real property acquired for such project, or during such other period as the commission determines to be more equitable for establishing such earnings, and includes any compensation paid by the business or farm operation to the owner, his spouse, or his dependents during such period. [C71, §316.3; 64GA, ch 173, §4]

316.5 Replacement housing for homeowner. 1. In addition to payments otherwise authorized by this chapter, the commission shall make an additional payment not in excess of fifteen thousand dollars to any displaced person who is displaced from a dwelling actually owned and occupied by such displaced person for not less than one hundred eighty days prior to the initiation of negotiations for the acquisition of the property. Such additional payment shall include the following elements:
   a. The amount, if any, which when added to the acquisition cost of the dwelling acquired by the commission equals the reasonable cost of a comparable replacement dwelling which is a decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling adequate to accommodate such displaced person, reasonably accessible to public services and places of employment and available on the private market. All determinations required to carry out this paragraph shall be made in accordance with departmental rules established by the commission in making these additional payments.
   b. The amount, if any, which will compensate such displaced person for any increased interest costs which such person is required to pay for financing the acquisition of any such comparable replacement dwelling. Such amount shall be paid only if the dwelling acquired by the commission was encumbered by a bona fide mortgage which was a valid lien on such dwelling for not less than one hundred and eighty days prior to the initiation of negotiations for the acquisition of such dwelling. Such amount shall be equal to the excess in the aggregate interest and other debt service costs of that amount of the principal of the mortgage on the replacement dwelling which is equal to the unpaid balance of the mortgage on the acquired dwelling, over the remainder term of the mortgage on the acquired dwelling, reduced to discounted present value. The discount rate shall be the prevailing interest rate paid on savings deposits by commercial banks in the general area in which the replacement dwelling is located.
   c. Reasonable expenses incurred by such displaced person for evidence of title, recording fees, and other closing costs incident to the purchase of the replacement dwelling, but not including prepaid expenses.

2. The additional payment authorized by this section shall be made only to such a displaced person who purchases and occupies a replacement dwelling which is decent, safe, and sanitary not later than the end of the one-year period beginning on the date on which he receives from the commission final payment of all costs of the acquired dwelling, or on the date on which he moves from the acquired dwelling, whichever is the later date. [C71, §§316.4(1), 316.5; 64GA, ch 173,§6]

316.6 Replacement housing for tenants and certain others. In addition to amounts otherwise authorized by this chapter, the commission shall make a payment to or for any displaced person displaced from any dwelling not eligible to receive a payment under section 316.5 which dwelling was actually and lawfully occupied by such displaced person for not less than ninety days prior to the initiation of negotiations for acquisition of such dwelling. Such payment shall be either:

1. The amount necessary to enable such displaced person to lease or rent for a period not to exceed four years, a decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling of standards adequate to accommodate such person in areas not generally less desirable in regard to public utilities and public and commercial facilities, and reasonably accessible to his place of employment, but not to exceed four thousand dollars, or

2. The amount necessary to enable such person to make a down payment, including incidental expenses described in section 316.5, subsection 1, paragraph "c", on the purchase of a decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling of standards adequate to accommodate such person in areas not generally less desirable in regard to public utilities and public and commercial facilities, but not to exceed four thousand dollars, except that if such amount exceeds two thousand dollars, such person must equally match any such amount in excess of two thousand dollars, in making the down payment. If the commission determines that any person occupying property immediately adjacent to the real property acquired is caused substantial economic injury because of the acquisition, he may offer such person relocation advisory services under such program.

2. The commission shall co-operate to the maximum extent feasible with federal, state or local agencies to assure that such displaced persons receive the maximum assistance available to them.

c. Assure that, within a reasonable period of time, prior to displacement there will be available in areas not generally less desirable in regard to public utilities and public and commercial facilities and at rents or prices within the financial means of the families and individuals displaced, decent, safe, and sanitary dwellings, as defined by the commission, equal in number to the number of and available to such displaced persons who require such dwellings and reasonably accessible to their places of employment, except that the commission may prescribe by departmental rules situations when such assurances may be waived;

4. The commission shall co-ordinate relocation activities with project work, and other planned or proposed governmental actions in the community or nearby areas which may affect the carrying out of relocation assistance programs. [C71,§316.2; 64GA, ch 173,§7]

316.8 Housing replacement by commission as last resort.

1. If a highway project cannot proceed to actual construction because comparable replacement sale or rental housing is not available, and the commission determines that such housing cannot otherwise be made available, the commission may take such action as is necessary or appropriate to provide such housing by use of funds authorized for such project. The commission may let contracts for the construction of said housing to approve plans and specifications for the building thereof, and to supervise, inspect and approve the housing once constructed in order that the housing so constructed complies with the terms and conditions of this chapter.

2. No person shall be required to move from his dwelling on or after July 1, 1971, on account of any highway project, unless the commission is satisfied that replacement housing, in accordance with section 316.7, subsection 3, paragraph "c", is available to such person. [64GA, ch 173,§8]

3. A displaced person who makes proper application for a payment authorized by this chapter is paid promptly after a move or, in hardship cases, is paid in advance.

All rules shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 17A. [C71,§316.9; 64GA, ch 173,§9]

The commission or any political subdivision may provide all or a part of the programs and payments authorized under this chapter to persons displaced by any street or highway project which is financed in whole or in part by the state or a political subdivision, which is not a federal-aid project, and which requires the purchase or condemnation of private property for public use. To the extent that a program or payment is provided under this section, it shall be provided on a uniform basis to all persons so displaced. The commission shall make departmental rules and regulations to assure reasonable standards which need not conform to federal rules and guidelines, for programs and payments provided under this section. [64GA, ch 173,§11]

316.13 Administration. In order to prevent unnecessary expenses and duplications of functions, and to promote uniform and effective administration of relocation assistance programs for displaced persons, the commission may enter into contracts with any individual, firm, association, or corporation for services in connection with such programs, or may carry out its functions through any governmental agency, political subdivision, or instrumentality having an established organization for conducting relocation assistance programs. The commission shall, in carrying out the relocation assistance activities described in section 316.8 whenever practicable, utilize the services of state or local housing agencies or other agencies having experience in the administration or conduct of similar housing assistance activities. [64GA, ch 173,§13]

The actual cost and expense of such cutting, burning or otherwise destroying of said weeds, the cost of serving notice and special meetings or proceedings, if any, shall be paid from the county general fund and, together with the additional assessment to apply toward costs of supervision and administration, be recovered by an assessment against the tract of real estate on which the weeds were growing, as provided in section 317.21. Said order shall define the roads along which said weeds are required to be cut, burned or otherwise destroyed and shall require said weeds to be cut, burned or otherwise destroyed within thirty days after the publication of said order in the official newspapers of said county. 1. Annually, after the weed commissioner has completed his program of destruction of weeds by reason of noncompliance by persons responsible therefor, the board of supervisors shall determine as to each tract of real estate the actual cost of labor and materials used by the commissioner in cutting, burning or otherwise destroying said weeds, the cost of serving notice and special meetings or proceedings, if any. To the total of all such sums expended, they shall add an amount equal to twenty-five percent thereof to compensate for the cost of supervision and administration and assess the resulting sum against said tract of real estate by a special tax, which shall be certified to the county auditor and county treasurer by the clerk of the board of supervisors, and shall be placed upon the tax books, and collected, together with interest and penalty after due, in the same manner as other unpaid taxes. Such tax shall be due on March 1 after such assessment, and shall be delinquent after March 31. When collected, said funds shall be paid into the fund from which said costs were originally paid.

2. Before making any such assessment, the board of supervisors shall prepare a plat or schedule showing the several lots, tracts of land or parcels of ground to be assessed which shall be in accord with the assessor’s records and the amount proposed to be assessed against each of the same for destroying or controlling weeds during the calendar year.

3. Such board shall thereupon fix a time for the hearing on such proposed assessments, which time shall not be later than December 15 of the year, and at least twenty days prior to the time thus fixed for such hearing shall give notice thereof to all concerned that such plat or schedule is on file, and that the amounts as shown therein will be assessed against the several lots, tracts of land or parcels of ground described in said plat or schedule at the time fixed for such hearing, unless objection is made thereto. Notice of such hearing shall be given by one publication in official county newspapers in the county in which the property to be assessed is situated; or by posting a copy of such notice on the premises affected and by mailing a copy by certified mail to the last known address of the person owning or controlling said premises. At such time and place the owner of said premises or anyone liable to pay such assessment, may appear with the same rights given by law before boards of review, in reference to assessments for general taxation. A security interest in a vehicle subject to registration under the laws of this state, except trailers whose empty weight is two thousand pounds or less, and wagon box trailers subject to a registration fee of five dollars or less, and new or used vehicles held by a dealer or manufacturer as inventory for sale, is perfected by the delivery to the county treasurer of the county where the certificate of title was issued or, in the case of a new certificate, to the county treasurer where the certificate will be issued of an application for certificate of title which lists such security interest, or an application for notation of security interest signed by the owner, or a certificate of title from another jurisdiction which shows such security interest, and a fee of two dollars for each security interest shown. If the owner or secured party is in possession of the certificate of title, it must also be delivered at this time in order to perfect the security interest. If a vehicle is subject to a security interest when brought into this state, the validity of the security interest and the date of perfection is determined by the Uniform Commercial Code, section 554.9103.

2. Upon receipt of the application and the required fee, the county treasurer shall notify the holder of the certificate of title to deliver to the county treasurer, within five days from the receipt of notice, the certificate of title to permit notation of the security interest. If the holder of the certificate of title shall fail to deliver it within the said five days, he shall be liable to anyone harmed by his failure.

3. Upon receipt of the application, the certificate of title, if any, and the required fee, the county treasurer shall note such security interest, and the date thereof, on the certificate over the signature of such officer or deputy and the seal of office. He shall also note such security interest and the date thereof on the duplicate of same on file. On that day he shall notify the department on forms provided by the department, which shall note such security interests on the duplicate title in its file. The county treasurer shall then mail the certificate of title to the first secured party as shown thereon.

4. When a security interest is discharged, the holder thereof shall execute a release within fifteen days after payment is received, such release to contain the certificate of title number, the date of the notation thereof, and the name and address of the person to whom the title shall be delivered when such delivery is requested as hereinafter provided. The holder shall also note a cancellation of same on the face of the certificate of title over his, her or its signature, and deliver the release and certificate of title to the county treasurer where title was issued. The county treasurer shall immediately note the cancellation of said security interest on the face of the certificate of title and on the duplicate of same on file in his office. On the same day he shall notify the department, which shall note such release on the duplicate title in its file. The county treasurer shall on the same day deliver the certificate of title to the then first secured party or, if there is no such person, to the person as directed on the lien release or, if there is no such person designated, then to the owner. Said cancellation of the security interest shall be noted on the certificate of title by the county treasurer without charge. The holder of a lien discharged by payment who fails to release such lien as herein provided within fifteen days after being requested in writing to do so shall forfeit to the person making such payment the sum of twenty-five dollars. If no security interest has been filed for notation on the certificate of title, the certificate shall be mailed by the treasurer to the owner of the vehicle. 321.89 Abandoned motor vehicles.

1. Definitions. As used in this section and sections 321.90 and 321.91 unless the context otherwise requires:

a. "Police authority" means the Iowa highway safety patrol or any law enforcement agency of a county, city, or town.

b. "Abandoned vehicle" means any of the following:

(1) A motor vehicle that has been left unattended on public property for more than forty-eight hours and lacks current registration plates or two or more wheels or other structural parts which renders the vehicle totally inoperable, or

(2) A motor vehicle that has remained illegally on public property for more than fifteen days, or

(3) A motor vehicle that has been unlawfully parked on private property or has been placed on private property without the consent of the owner or person in control of the property for more than twenty-four hours, or

(1) A motor vehicle that has been legally impounded by order of a police authority and has not been reclaimed for a period of thirty days.

c. "Demolisher" means any city or public agency organized for the disposal of solid waste, or any person whose business it is to convert a motor vehicle to junk, processed scrap or scrap metal, or otherwise to wreck, or dismantle vehicles.

2. Authority to take possession of abandoned motor vehicles. A police authority may, and on the request of any other authority having the duties of control of highways or traffic, shall take into custody any abandoned motor vehicle on public property and may take into custody any abandoned motor vehicle on private property. The police authority may employ its own personnel, equipment and facilities or hire other personnel, equipment and facilities for the purpose of removing, preserving, storing, or disposing abandoned motor vehicles.

3. Notification of owner and lienholders.

a. A police authority which takes into custody an abandoned motor vehicle shall notify, within ten days, by certified mail, the last known registered owner of the motor vehicle and all lienholders of record, addressed to their last known address of record, that the abandoned motor vehicle has been taken into custody. Notice shall be deemed given when mailed. The notice shall describe the year, make, model, and serial number of the motor vehicle, set forth the location of the facility where it is being held, inform the owner and any lienholders of their right to reclaim the motor vehicle within fourteen days after the effective date of the notice upon payment of all towing, preservation, and storage charges resulting from placing the motor vehicle in custody. The notice shall also state that the failure of the owner or lienholders to exercise their right to reclaim the motor vehicle within the time provided shall be deemed a waiver by the owner and all lienholders of all right, title, claim and interest in the motor vehicle and that such failure to reclaim the motor vehicle is deemed consent to the sale of the motor vehicle at a public auction or disposal of the motor vehicle to a demolisher. If the owner and lienholders do not exercise their right to reclaim such motor vehicle within the fourteen-day reclaiming period, such owner and lienholders shall no longer have any right, title, claim, or interest in or to such motor vehicle. No court in any case in law or equity shall recognize any right, title, claim, or interest of any such owner and lienholders after the expiration of the fourteen-day reclaiming period.

b. If the identity of the last registered owner cannot be determined, or if the registration contains no address for the owner, or if it is impossible to determine with reasonable certainty the identity and addresses of all lienholders, notice by one publication in one newspaper of general circulation in the area where the motor vehicle was abandoned shall be sufficient to meet all requirements of notice under this section. The published notice may contain multiple listings of abandoned motor vehicles but shall be published within the same time requirements and contain the same information as prescribed for mailed notice in subsection 2, paragraph "a" of this section.

c. The owner or any lienholders may, by written request delivered to the police authority prior to the expiration of the fourteen-day reclaiming period, obtain an additional fourteen days within which the motor vehicle may be reclaimed.

4. Auction of abandoned motor vehicles. If an abandoned motor vehicle has not been reclaimed as provided for in subsection 3, the police authority shall make a determination as to whether or not the motor vehicle shall be sold for use upon the highways. If it is to be sold as a motor vehicle for use upon the highways, it shall first be inspected as required by section 321.328 and have a valid certificate of inspection affixed. If the motor vehicle is not sold for use upon the highways, it shall only be sold to a dealer licensed under chapter 322 or to a demolisher for junk, or demolished and sold as scrap or sold as provided in section 321.88 with a restricted certificate of title and not for use upon the highways. The police authority shall sell the motor vehicle at public auction. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, any police authority, which has taken into possession any abandoned motor vehicle which lacks an engine or two or more wheels or other structural part which renders the vehicle totally inoperable shall dispose of such motor vehicle to a demolisher for junk without the notification procedures enumerated in subsection 3 and without public auction. The purchaser of the motor vehicle shall take title free and clear of all liens and claims of ownership, shall receive a sales receipt from the police authority, and shall be entitled to register the motor vehicle and receive a certificate of title if sold for use upon the highways or a restricted certificate of title as the case may be; however, if the motor vehicle is sold or disposed of to a demolisher for junk, the sales receipt by itself shall be sufficient title only for purposes of transferring the motor vehicle to such demolisher for demolition, wrecking, or dismantling and, when so transferred, no further titling of the motor vehicle shall be permitted. From the proceeds of the sale of an abandoned motor vehicle the police authority shall reimburse itself for the expenses of the auction, the costs of towing, preserving, and storing which resulted from placing the abandoned motor vehicle in custody, all notice and publication costs incurred pursuant to subsection 3, the cost of inspection, and any other costs incurred except costs of bookkeeping and other administrative costs. Any remainder from the proceeds of sale shall be returned to the owner of the motor vehicle or entitled lienholder for ninety days, and shall then be deposited in the reimbursement fund received by the department of public safety pursuant to section 321.145, subsection 2. The costs to police authorities of auction, towing, preserving, storage, and all notice and publication costs, inspection costs and all other costs which result from placing other abandoned vehicles in custody, whenever the proceeds from a sale of such other abandoned motor vehicles are insufficient to meet these expenses and costs, shall be paid from the reimbursement fund of the department of public safety under section 321.145, subsection 2. In the event the reimbursement fund is temporarily exhausted, payment shall be deferred until the reimbursement fund contains sufficient funds to meet the claims.

The state comptroller shall establish by rule a claims procedure to be followed by police authorities in obtaining expenses and costs from the fund. [64GA, ch 1073, §§2-5]

321.90 Disposal of abandoned motor vehicles.

1. Garagekeepers and abandoned motor vehicles. Any motor vehicle left in a garage operated for commercial purposes after the period for which the vehicle was to remain on the premises shall, after notice by certified mail to the last known registered owner of the vehicle addressed to his last known address of record to reclaim the vehicle within ten days of the date of the notice, be deemed an abandoned motor vehicle unless reclaimed by the owner within such ten-day period or the owner notifies the garagekeeper in writing within such period of time that such vehicle is not an abandoned motor vehicle and shall be reported by the garagekeeper to the police authority. If the identity or address of the last registered owner of the motor vehicle cannot be determined, the vehicle shall be deemed an abandoned motor vehicle on the eleventh day after the period for which the vehicle was to remain on the premises unless reclaimed by the owner within the ten-day period or the owner notifies the garagekeeper in writing within such period of time that such vehicle is not an abandoned motor vehicle and shall be reported by the garagekeeper to the police authority. All abandoned motor vehicles left in garages may be taken into custody by a police authority upon the request of the garagekeeper and sold in accordance with the procedures set forth in section 321.89, subsection 4, unless the motor vehicle is reclaimed. The proceeds of the sale shall be first applied to the garagekeeper’s charges for towing and storage, and any surplus proceeds shall be distributed in accordance with section 321.89, subsection 4. Nothing in this section shall be construed to impair any lien of a garagekeeper under the laws of this state, or the right of a garagekeeper to foreclose his lien, provided that a garagekeeper shall be deemed to have abandoned his artisan lien when such vehicle is taken into custody by the police authority. For the purposes of this section “garagekeeper” means any operator of a parking place or establishment, motor vehicle storage facility, or establishment for the servicing, repair, or maintenance of motor vehicles.

2. Disposal to demolisher.
   a. Any person, firm, corporation, or unit of government upon whose property or in whose possession is found any abandoned motor vehicle, or any person being the owner of a motor vehicle whose title certificate is faulty, lost, or destroyed and is thereby unable to transfer title to the motor vehicle, may apply to the police authority of the jurisdiction in which the motor vehicle is situated for authority to sell, give away, or otherwise dispose of the motor vehicle to a demolisher.
   b. The application shall set out the name and address of the applicant, the year, make model, and serial number of the motor vehicle, if ascertainable, together with any other identifying features, and shall contain a concise statement of the facts surrounding the abandonment, or a statement that the title of the motor vehicle is lost or destroyed, or the reasons for the defect of title in the owner. The applicant shall execute an affidavit stating that the facts alleged are true and that no material fact has been withheld.
   c. If the police authority finds that the application is executed in proper form, and shows that the motor vehicle has been abandoned upon the property of the applicant, or if it shows that the motor vehicle is not abandoned but that the applicant appears to be the rightful owner, the police authority shall follow appropriate notification procedures as set forth in section 321.89, subsection 3.
   d. If the abandoned motor vehicle is not reclaimed in accordance with section 321.89, subsection 3, or no lienholder objects to the disposal in the case of an owner-applicant, the police authority may give the applicant a certificate of authority to dispose of the motor vehicle to any demolisher for demolition, wrecking, or dismantling. The demolisher shall accept such certificate in lieu of the certificate of title to the motor vehicle.
§321.90, MOTOR VEHICLES—ANTITHEFT LAW

e. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section and sections 321.89 and 321.91, any person, firm, corporation, or unit of government upon whose property or in whose possession is found any abandoned motor vehicle, or any person being the owner of a motor vehicle whose title certificate is faulty, lost, or destroyed, may dispose of such motor vehicle to a demolisher for junk without his title and without the notification procedures of section 321.89, subsection 3, if the motor vehicle lacks an engine or two or more wheels or other structural part which renders the vehicle totally inoperable.

f. The owner of an abandoned motor vehicle and all lienholders shall no longer have any right, title, claim, or interest in or to such motor vehicle; and no court in any case in law or equity shall recognize any right, title, claim or interest of any such owner and lienholders after the disposal of such motor vehicle to a demolisher.

g. Any proceeds from the sale of an abandoned motor vehicle to a demolisher under this section, by one other than the owner of the vehicle, shall first be applied to that person’s expenses in effecting the sale, including storage, disposal charges, and any surplus shall be distributed in accordance with section 321.89, subsection 4.

3. Duties of demolishers.

a. Any demolisher who purchases or otherwise acquires an abandoned motor vehicle for junk under the provisions of this section shall junk, scrap, dismantle, or demolish such motor vehicle. However, if the vehicle is acquired under the provisions of subsection 2, paragraph "e", the demolisher shall apply to the police authority of the jurisdiction from which the vehicle was acquired for a certificate of authority to demolish the vehicle. In making the application the demolisher shall describe the motor vehicle as required by subsection 2, paragraph "b". The police authority shall issue the certificate of authority upon complying with subsection 2, paragraph "e", but shall be excused from following the notification procedures as required therein. No further titling of the motor vehicle shall be permitted. After the motor vehicle has been demolished, processed, or changed so that it physically is no longer a motor vehicle, the demolisher shall surrender the auction sales receipt or certificate of authority to dispose of or demolish a motor vehicle to the department of public safety for cancellation. The department of public safety shall issue such forms, rules, and regulations governing the surrender of auction sales receipts, certificates of title, and certificates of authority to dispose of or demolish motor vehicles, and the cancellation and surrender of the registrations and certificates of title for such motor vehicles as are appropriate.

b. A demolisher shall keep an accurate and complete record of all motor vehicles purchased or received by him in the course of his business. These records shall contain the name and address of the person from whom each such motor vehicle was purchased or received and the date when such purchases or receipts occurred. Such records shall be open for inspection by any police authority at any time during normal business hours. Any record required by this section shall be kept by the demolisher for at least one year after the transaction to which it applies. [64GA, ch 1073,§§6-8]

Except as otherwise provided, the certificate shall be valid for the period commencing with the calendar month of issue and ending at midnight on the last day of the twelfth calendar month following the month of issue and shall not be valid thereafter.

16. The inspection of any vehicle and issuance of a certificate of inspection shall not be construed in any court as a warranty of the mechanical condition of the vehicle, and the failure to discover any defect in any vehicle in the course of an inspection under the provisions of this section shall not be the basis of an action for damages in any court.

1. Green alone or “Go”.

Vehicular traffic facing the signal may proceed straight through or turn right or left unless a sign at such place prohibits either such turn. But vehicular traffic shall yield the right of way to other vehicles and to pedestrians lawfully within the intersection at the time such signal is exhibited.

Pedestrians facing the signal may proceed across the roadway within any marked or unmarked crosswalk.

2. Yellow alone or “Caution” when shown following the green or “Go” signal.

Vehicular traffic facing the signal shall stop before entering the nearest crosswalk at the intersection, but if such stop cannot be made in safety a vehicle may be driven cautiously through the intersection.

Pedestrians facing such signal are thereby advised that there is insufficient time to cross the roadway, and any pedestrian then starting to cross shall yield the right of way to all vehicles.

3. Red alone or “Stop”. Vehicular traffic facing a steady red signal alone shall stop at a clearly marked stop line, but if none, before entering the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection, or if none, then before entering the intersection, and shall remain standing until an indication to proceed is shown. A right turn shall be permitted at an intersection by vehicular traffic which has come to a complete stop, whenever a sign is in place permitting such turn. Any right turn made pursuant to this subsection shall be made in such a manner that it does not interfere with other vehicular or pedestrian traffic lawfully using the intersection.

No pedestrian facing such signal shall enter the roadway unless he can do so safely and without interfering with any vehicular traffic, but a vehicle turning right at such intersection shall yield the right of way to a pedestrian lawfully entering such intersection.

No pedestrian facing such signal shall enter the roadway unless he can do so safely and without interfering with any vehicular traffic.

The motorman of any streetcar shall obey all the above signals as applicable to vehicles. [C39, §5019.06; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.257; 64 GA, ch 185, §1]

1. Flashing red (Stop signal). When a red lens is illuminated by rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles shall stop before entering the nearest crosswalk at an intersection or at a limit line when marked and the right to proceed shall be subject to the rules applicable after making a stop at a stop sign.

2. Flashing yellow (Caution signal). When a yellow lens is illuminated by rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles may proceed through the intersection or past such signal only with caution. [C39, §5019.07; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.258]

321.259 Unauthorized signs, signals, or markings. No person shall place, maintain, or display upon or in view of any highway any sign, signal, marking, or device which purports to be or is an imitation of or resembles an official parking sign, curb or other marking, traffic-control device or railroad sign or signal, or which attempts to direct the movement of traffic, or which hides from view or interferes with the effectiveness of any official traffic-control device or any railroad sign or signal, or which attempted to do so. Any person convicted of未经授权 possession of any official traffic-control device shall upon conviction be punished as provided in section 321.482. [C39, §5019.09; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.260]

Driving While Intoxicated and Reckless Driving

321.280 Assaults and Homicides. A conviction of the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter shall not be a bar to a prosecution for an assault or for a homicide committed by any person in operating motor vehicles [S13, §1571-m30, C24, 27, 31, 35, §5091, C39, §5022.01, C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321 280] Referred to in §121 228

321.281 Operating While Intoxicated or Drugged—Copy of Judgment to Commission—Commitment of Defendant for Treatment. Whoever operates a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage, a narcotic, hypnotic or other drug, or any combination of such substances shall, upon conviction or a plea of guilty, be punished for the first offense by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not to exceed one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, for the second offense by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a period of not to exceed one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and for a third offense and each offense thereafter by imprisonment in the penitentiary for any term of years not less than one or more than five, and the court may pronounce sentence for a lesser period than the maximum, the provisions of the indeterminate sentence law to the contrary notwithstanding.

In lieu of, or prior to imposition of, the punishment above described for second offense, third offense and each offense thereafter, the court upon hearing may commit the defendant for treatment of alcoholism or drug addiction or dependency to any hospital or institution in Iowa providing such treatment. The court may prescribe the length of time for such treatment and may request that the hospital to which the person is committed immediately report to the court when the person has received maximum benefit from the program of the hospital or institution or has recovered from his addiction, dependency or tendency to chronically abuse alcohol or drugs. A person committed under this section shall be considered a state patient.

The court in pronouncing sentence may provide as to the period during which a new license to operate a motor vehicle shall not be issued to the defendant, provided said period shall not be less than one hundred twenty days for conviction of a first offense of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage, a narcotic, hypnotic or other drug, or any combination of such substances, of not less than two hundred forty days for conviction of a second offense of such charge; and not less than one year for conviction of a third offense of such charge and for each offense thereafter, notwithstanding the provisions of section 321 212, and the clerk of court shall forthwith certify to the department a true copy of the judgment sentencing the defendant under this section. The court shall, after pronouncing sentence, cause the clerk to certify a true copy of the judgment to the Iowa liquor control commission. Said commission upon receipt of such copy shall cause notice of such conviction and judgment to be sent to the manager of each liquor store in the state which notice shall be posted therein.

This section shall apply to a person operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of a narcotic, hypnotic or other drug if such substances were prescribed for such person and have been taken under such prescription and in accordance with the directions of a reputable doctor of medicine, provided however there is no evidence of the consumption of alcohol and further provided said doctor of medicine has not directed such person to refrain from operating a motor vehicle.

For the purposes of this section, evidence that there was, at the time, more than ten hundredths of one percentum by weight of alcohol in his blood shall be admitted as presumptive evidence that the defendant was under the influence of an alcoholic beverage. No previous conviction for, or plea of guilty to, an offense under this section occurring more than six years prior to the date of the violation being charged shall be used to determine that the violation being charged is a second, third or subsequent offense [S13, §1571-m23, C24, 27, 31, 35, §5027, C39, §5022.02, C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321 281, 64GA, ch 149, §11] Referred to in §§321 228, 321B 2, 321B 16, 321B 17, 321B 20, §502 18(10). “Alcoholic beverage” defined, see §321B 2

321.283 Reckless Driving. Any person who drives any vehicle in such manner as to indicate either a willful or a wanton disregard for the safety of persons or property is guilty of reckless driving.

Every person convicted of reckless driving shall be punished upon a conviction by imprisonment for a period of not more than thirty days, or by fine of not less than twenty-five dollars, not more than one hundred dollars. [C73, §4071, C97, §5039, S13, §1571 m19, C24, 27, 31, 35, §5028, C99, §5022.64, §5022.65. C46, 50, 54, 58, §5021.283, §5021.284, §506, 71, §5021.285, Amend. 7-1-75].

SPEED RESTRICTIONS

321.285 Speed restrictions. Any person driving a motor vehicle on a highway shall drive the same at a careful and prudent speed not greater than nor less than is reasonable and proper, having due regard to the traffic, surface and width of the highway and of any other conditions then existing, and no person shall drive any vehicle upon a highway at a speed greater than will permit him to bring it to a stop within the assured clear distance ahead, such driver having the right to assume, however, that all persons using said highway will observe the law. The following shall be the lawful speed except as herebefore or heremafter modified, and any speed in excess thereof shall be unlawful:

1. Twenty miles per hour in any business district.
2. Twenty-five miles per hour in any residence or school district.
3. Forty miles per hour for any motor vehicle drawing another vehicle, except as hereafter specified.
4. Forty-five miles per hour in any suburban district. Each school district as defined in subsection 59 of section 3211 shall be marked by distinctive signs as provided by the current manual on uniform traffic control devices adopted by the state highway commission and placed on the highway at the limits of such school district.
5. Sixty miles per hour from sunset to sunrise and seventy miles per hour from sunrise to sunset.
6. Fifty-five miles per hour for any motor vehicle drawing a one- or two-wheel trailer or a tandem wheel trailer not more than thirty-two feet in length including towing arm and not more than eight feet in width.
7. Reasonable and proper, but not greater than sixty miles per hour at any time between sunset and sunrise, and not greater than fifty miles per hour at any time between sunset and sunrise, on secondary roads unless such roads are surfaced with concrete or asphalt or a combination of both, in which case the speed limits shall be the same as provided in subsection 5 of this section. Whenever the board of supervisors of any county shall determine upon the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation conducted by the state highway commission when so requested by said board that the speed limit on any secondary road is greater than is reasonable and proper under the conditions found to exist at any intersection or other place or upon any part of a secondary road, said board shall determine and declare a reasonable and proper speed limit thereat. Such speed limits as determined by the board of supervisors shall be effective when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected by the board of supervisors at such intersection or other place or part of the highway.

8. Notwithstanding any other speed restrictions, the speed limits for all vehicular traffic, except vehicles subject to the provisions of section 321.286 on fully controlled access, divided, multilane highways included in, and as a part of, the national system of interstate highways designated by the federal bureau of public roads and this state [23 U.S.C. 162 (1)] shall be seventy-five miles per hour from sunset to sunrise and sixty-five miles per hour from sunset to sunrise, except that the speed limit for any motor vehicle drawing a one-wheel or two-wheel trailer or a tandem wheel trailer shall be sixty-five miles per hour. However, the highway commission or the cities and towns, with the approval of the highway commission, may establish a lower speed limit upon such highways located within the corporate limits of any city or town used as part of alternate routes, commonly referred to as ‘freeways’. For the purposes of this subsection a fully controlled access highway is a highway that gives preference to through traffic by providing access connections with selected public roads only and by prohibiting crossings at grade or direct private driveway connections. It is further provided that a minimum speed of forty miles per hour, road conditions permitting, shall be established on the highways referred to in this subsection.

It is further provided that any kind of vehicle, implement, or conveyance incapable of attaining and maintaining a speed of forty miles per hour shall be prohibited from using the interstate system [S13, §1571 m19, m20, C24, 27, 31, 35, §5029, 5030, C99, §5022.64, §5022.65. C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §5021.285 64GA, ch 174, §84, 51].

321.286 Truck speed limits. It shall be unlawful for the driver of a freight carrying vehicle, with a gross weight of over five thousand pounds, to drive the same at a speed exceeding the following:

1. Sixty-five miles per hour on all interstate highway systems.
§321.286, MOTOR VEHICLES—SPEED RESTRICTIONS 1394

2. Fifty-five miles per hour on all primary roads.
3. Fifty miles per hour on all secondary roads.

For the purposes of this section, interstate highways are those designated by the federal bureau of public roads and this state, and primary and secondary roads shall be those designated by the federal bureau of public roads and this state. [§321.280, §321.286]

2. Fifty-five miles per hour on all primary roads.
3. Fifty miles per hour on all secondary roads.

§321.288 Control of vehicle. The person operating a motor vehicle or motorcycle shall have the same under control and shall reduce the speed to a reasonable and proper rate:
1. When approaching and passing a person walking in the traveled portion of the public highway.
2. When approaching and passing an animal which is being led, ridden, or driven upon a public highway.
3. When approaching and traversing a crossing or intersection of public highways, or a bridge, or a sharp turn, or a curve, or a steep descent, in a public highway.
4. When approaching and passing a fusee, flares, red reflector electric lanterns, red reflectors or red flags displayed in accordance with §321.288.

§321.289 Speed signs—duty to install. The state highway commission shall furnish and place on primary roads or on extensions of primary roads within any city or town suitable standard signs showing the points at which the rate of speed changes and the maximum rate of speed in the district which the vehicle is entering. On all other main highways the city or town shall furnish and erect suitable signs giving similar information to traffic on such highways. [§321.289, §321.290]

§321.290 Special restrictions. Whenever the state highway commission shall determine upon the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that any speed limit hereinbefore set forth is greater or less than is reasonable or safe under the conditions found to exist at any intersection or other place or upon any part of the primary road system or upon any part of a primary road extension, said commission shall determine and declare a reasonable and safe speed limit thereat which shall be effective when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected at such intersection or other place or part of the highway.

Whenever the council in any city or town shall determine upon the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation that any speed limit hereinbefore set forth is greater or less than is reasonable or safe under the conditions found to exist at any intersection or other place or upon any part of the city street system, except primary road extensions, said council shall determine and adopt by ordinance such higher or lower speed limit as it deems reasonable and safe thereat. Such speed limit shall be effective when proper and appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected at such intersections or other place or part of the street. [§321.290]

§321.291 Information or notice. In every charge of violation of sections 321.285 to 321.287, inclusive, the information, also the notice to appear, shall specify the speed at which the defendant is alleged to have driven, also the speed limit applicable within the district or at the location. [§321.291, §321.292]

§321.292 Civil action unaffected. The foregoing provisions of sections 321.285 to 321.287, inclusive, shall not be construed to relieve the plaintiff in any civil action from the burden of proving negligence upon the part of the defendant as the proximate cause of an accident. [§321.292, §321.293]

§321.293 Local authorities may alter limits. Local authorities in their respective jurisdiction may in their discretion subject to the approval of the state highway commission authorize by ordinance higher speeds than those stated in section 321.285 upon through highways or upon highways or portions thereof where stop or yield signs have been erected at the entrances thereto provided signs are erected giving notice of the authorized speed, but local authorities shall not have authority to authorize by ordinance a speed in excess of fifty-five miles per hour. If local authorities fail to authorize by ordinance higher speeds than those stated in section 321.285 upon through highways or upon highways or portions thereof where stop signs have been erected at the entrances thereto, the state highway commission may recommend, upon the basis of an engineering and traffic investigation, to the local authorities that the speed limit be increased. If local authorities fail to increase the speed limit upon said recommendation of the state highway commission, said commission shall declare a reasonable and safe speed limit which shall be effective when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected at such intersections or other places or parts of the highway.
speed as to impede or block the normal and reasonable movement of traffic except when reduced speed is necessary for safe operation or in compliance with law. Peace officers are hereby authorized to enforce this provision by directions to drivers, and in the event of apparent willful disobedience to this provision and refusal to comply with direction of an officer in accordance herewith the continued slow operation by a driver shall be a misdemeanor, and be punished as provided in section 321.142. [C31, §5021; C39, §5023.10; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.294] See also §51.722

321.295 Limitation on bridge or elevated structures. No person shall drive a vehicle on any public bridge or elevated structure at a speed which is greater than the maximum speed permitted under this chapter on the street or highway at a point where said street or highway joins said bridge or elevated structure, provided that if the maximum speed permitted on said street or highway differs from the maximum speed on any other street or highway joining said bridge or elevated structure, then the lowest of said speeds shall be the maximum speed limit on said bridge or elevated structure, subject to the following:

The state highway commission upon request from any local authority shall, or upon its own initiative may, conduct an investigation of any bridge or other elevated structure constituting a part of a highway, and if it shall thereupon find that such structure cannot with safety withstand vehicles traveling at the speed otherwise permissible under this chapter, the commission shall determine and declare the maximum speed of vehicles which such structure can withstand, and shall cause or permit suitable signs stating such maximum speed to be erected and maintained at a distance of two hundred feet before each end of such structure.

No person shall drive a vehicle over any bridge or other elevated structure constituting a part of a highway at a speed which is greater than the maximum speed which can be maintained with safety to such bridge or structure, when such structure is sign-posted as provided in this section.

Upon the trial of any person charged with driving a vehicle at a speed which is greater than the maximum speed which can be maintained with safety to such bridge or structure, proof of such determination of the maximum speed by said commission and the existence of said signs shall constitute conclusive evidence of the maximum speed which can be maintained with safety to such bridge or structure. [C39, §5023.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.295] See also §51.722

321.296 Emergency vehicles — speed. The speed limitations set forth in this chapter shall not apply to authorized emergency vehicles when responding to emergency calls and the drivers thereof sound audible signal by bell, siren, or exhaust whistle. This provision shall not relieve the driver of an authorized emergency vehicle from the duty to drive with due regard for the safety of all persons using the streets, nor shall it protect the driver of any such vehicle from the consequence of his negligence. [C39, §5023.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.296]

321.297 Traveling on right-hand side. The operator of a motor vehicle, in cities and towns, shall travel on the right-hand side of the center of the street unless otherwise provided by law. [S13, §1571-m18; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5019; C39, §5024.01; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.297]

321.298 Meeting and turning to right. Persons on horseback, or in vehicles, including motor vehicles, meeting each other on the public highway, shall give one-half of the traveled way thereof by turning to the right. [R60, §906; C3, $1000; C97, §1569; C13, §1569; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5020; C39, §5024.02; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.298]

321.299 Overtaking a vehicle. The following rules shall govern the overtaking and passing of vehicles proceeding in the same direction, subject to those limitations, exceptions, and special rules hereinafter stated:

The driver of a vehicle overtaking another vehicle proceeding in the same direction shall pass to the left thereof at a safe distance and shall not again drive to the right side of the roadway until safely clear of the overtaken vehicle.

Except when overtaking and passing on the right is permitted, the driver of an overtaken vehicle shall give way to the right in favor of the overtaking vehicle on audible signal and shall not increase the speed of his vehicle until completely passed by the overtaking vehicle. [S13, §1571-m18; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5021, 5022; C39, §5024.03; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.299]

321.300 Failure to recognize signal. Any driver of a vehicle that is overtaken by a faster moving vehicle who fails to heed the signal of the overtaking vehicle when it is given under such circumstances that he could, by the exercise of ordinary care and precaution, hear such signal and who fails to yield that part of the traveled way as herein provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable as provided in section 321.492. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5023; C39, §5024.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.300] Referenced to in §421.101

321.301 Burden of proof. Upon proof that a signal was given as contemplated by section 321.300, the burden shall rest upon the accused to prove that he did not hear said signal. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §5024; C39, §5024.05; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.301]
Overtaking on the right. The driver of a vehicle may overtake and pass upon the right of another vehicle which is making or about to make a left turn.

The driver of a vehicle may overtake and, allowing sufficient clearance, pass another vehicle proceeding in the same direction either upon the left or upon the right on a roadway with unobstructed pavement of sufficient width for four or more lines of moving traffic when such movement can be made in safety. No person shall drive off the pavement or upon the shoulder of the roadway in overtaking or passing on the right. [C39, §5024.06; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.302]

Limitations on overtaking on the left. No vehicle shall be driven to the left side of the center of the roadway in overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction unless such left side is clearly visible and is free of oncoming traffic for a sufficient distance ahead to permit such overtaking and passing to be completely made without interfering with the safe operation of any vehicle approaching from the opposite direction or any vehicle overtaken. In every event the overtaking vehicle must return to the right-hand side of the roadway before coming within one hundred feet of any vehicle approaching from the opposite direction. [C39, §5024.07; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.303]

Prohibited passing. No vehicle shall, in overtaking and passing another vehicle or at any other time, be driven to the left side of the roadway under the following conditions:
1. When approaching the crest of a grade or upon a curve in the highway where the driver’s view along the highway is obstructed for a distance of approximately seven hundred feet.
2. When approaching within one hundred feet of any narrow bridge, viaduct, or tunnel, when so signposted, or when approaching within one hundred feet of or traversing any intersection or railroad grade crossing.
3. Where official signs are in place directing that traffic keep to the right or a distinctive center line or off-center line is marked, which distinctive line also so directs traffic as declared in the sign manual adopted by the state highway commission. [C35, §5021-e1; C39, §5024.08; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.304]

One-way roadways and rotary traffic islands. Upon a roadway designated and signposted for one-way traffic a vehicle shall be driven only in the direction designated.

A vehicle passing around a rotary traffic island shall be driven only to the right of such island. [C39, §5024.09; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.305]

Roadways laned for traffic. Whenever any roadway has been divided into three or more clearly marked lanes for traffic the following rules in addition to all others consistent herewith shall apply:

A vehicle shall be driven as nearly as practical entirely within a single lane and shall not be moved from such lane until the driver has first ascertained that such movement can be made with safety.

Upon a roadway which is divided into three lanes a vehicle shall not be driven in the center lane except when overtaking and passing another vehicle where the roadway is clearly visible and such center lane is clear of traffic within a safe distance, or in preparation for a left turn or where such center lane is at the time allocated exclusively to traffic moving in the direction the vehicle is proceeding and is signposted to give notice of such allocation.

Official signs may be erected directing slow-moving traffic to use a designated lane or allocating specified lanes to traffic moving in the same direction and drivers of vehicles shall obey the directions of every such sign.

Vehicles moving in a lane designated for slow-moving traffic shall yield the right of way to vehicles moving in the same direction in a lane not so designated when such lanes merge to form a single lane.

A portion of a highway provided with a lane for slow-moving vehicles does not become a roadway marked for three lanes of traffic. [C39, §5024.10; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.306]

Following too closely. The driver of a motor vehicle shall not follow another vehicle more closely than is reasonable and prudent, having due regard for the speed of such vehicles and the traffic upon and the condition of the highway. [C39, §5024.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.307]

Motor trucks and towed vehicles—distance requirements. The driver of any motor truck, or of a motor vehicle drawing another vehicle, when traveling upon a roadway, outside of a business or residence district shall not follow within three hundred feet of another motor truck, or of a motor vehicle drawing another vehicle. The provisions of this section shall not be construed to prevent overtaking and passing nor shall the same apply upon any lane specially designated for use by motor trucks. [C31, 35, §5067-d9; C39, §5024.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.308]

See §321.309 for convoys or caravans.

Towing — convoys — drawbars. No person shall pull or tow by motor vehicle, for hire, another motor vehicle over any highway outside the limits of any incorporated city or town, except in case of temporary movement of a disabled motor vehicle to the place where repairs will be made, unless such person has complied with the provisions of sections 321.57 and 321.58. Provided, however, if such person is a nonresident of the state of Iowa and has complied with the laws of the state of his residence governing licensing and registration as a transporter of motor vehicles he shall not be required to pay the fee provided in section 321.58 but only to submit proof of his status as a bona fide manufacturer or transporter as may reasonably be required by the department.

Every person pulling or towing by motor vehicle another motor vehicle in convoy or caravan shall maintain a distance of at least five hundred feet between the units of said convoy or caravan.

The drawbar or towing arm between a motor vehicle pulling or towing another motor vehicle shall be of a type approved by the commissioner, except in case of the temporary movement of a disabled vehicle in an emergency situation. [C31, 35, §5067-d9; C39, §5024.13; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.309]

321.310 Towing four-wheeled trailers. No motor vehicle shall tow any four-wheeled trailer with a steering axle, or more than one trailer or semitrailer, or both in combination, with the exception that this section shall not apply to any motor truck, truck tractor or road tractor registered at a combined gross weight of ten tons or more nor to a farm tractor towing a four-wheeled trailer, or to any farm tractor or motor vehicle towing implements of husbandry, or a wagon box trailer used by a farmer in transporting produce, farm products or supplies hauled to and from market.

Any four-wheeled trailer towed by a truck tractor or road tractor shall be registered under the semitrailer provisions of section 321.122, provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not be applicable to motor vehicles drawing wagon box trailers used by a farmer in transporting produce, farm products or supplies hauled to and from market. [C39, §5024.14; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.310]

321.311 Turning at intersections. The driver of a vehicle intending to turn at an intersection shall do so as follows:

Both the approach for a right turn and right turn shall be made as close as practical to the right-hand curb or edge of the roadway.

Approach for a left turn shall be made in that portion of the right half of the roadway nearest the center line thereof and after entering the intersection the left turn shall be made so as to depart from the intersection to the right of the center line of the roadway being entered.

Approach for a left turn from a two-way street into a one-way street shall be made in that portion of the right half of the roadway nearest the center line thereof and by passing to the right of such center line where it enters the intersection. A left turn from a one-way street into a two-way street shall be made by passing to the right of the center line of the street being entered upon leaving the intersection.

Local authorities in their respective jurisdictions may cause markers, buttons, or signs to be placed within or adjacent to intersections and thereby require and direct that a different course from that specified in this section be traveled by vehicles turning at an intersection, and when markers, buttons, or signs are so placed no driver of a vehicle shall turn a vehicle at an intersection other than as directed and required by such markers, buttons, or signs. [C13, §1571-m18; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5033; C39, §5025.01; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.311]

321.312 Turning on curve or crest of grade. No vehicle shall be turned so as to proceed in the opposite direction upon any curve, or upon the approach to, or near the crest of a grade or hill, where such vehicle cannot be seen by the driver of any other vehicle approaching from either direction within five hundred feet. [C39, §5025.02; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.312]

321.314 When signal required. No person shall turn a vehicle from a direct course upon a highway unless and until such movement can be made with reasonable safety and then only after giving a clearly audible signal by sounding the horn if any pedestrian may be affected by such movement or after giving an appropriate signal in the manner hereinafter provided in the event any other vehicle may be affected by such movement. [C13, §1571-m18; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5032; C39, §5025.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.314]

321.315 Signal continuous. A signal of intention to turn right or left shall be given continuously during not less than the last one hundred feet traveled by the vehicle before turning when the speed limit is forty-five miles per hour or less and a continuous signal during not less than the last three hundred feet when the speed limit is in excess of forty-five miles per hour. [C39, §5025.05; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.315]

321.316 Stopping. No person shall stop or suddenly decrease the speed of a vehicle without first giving an appropriate signal in the manner provided herein to the driver of any vehicle immediately to the rear where there is opportunity to give such signal. [C13, §1571-m18; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5032; C39, §5025.06; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.316]

321.317 Signals by hand and arm or signal device.

1. The signals required under the provisions of this chapter may be given either by means of the hand and arm as provided in section 321.318, or by a mechanical or electrical directional signal device or light of a type approved by the department and conforming to the provisions of this chapter relating thereto.
§321.317, MOTOR VEHICLES—STARTING, TURNING AND STOPPING

2. Directional signal devices shall be designed with a white, yellow or amber lamp or lamps to be displayed on the front of vehicles and with a lamp or lamps of red, yellow or amber to be displayed on the rear of vehicles. Such devices shall be capable of clearly indicating any intention to turn either to the right or to the left and shall be visible and understandable during both daylight and darkness from a distance of at least one hundred feet from the front and rear of a vehicle equipped therewith.

3. After the thirty-first day of December, 1953, it shall be unlawful for any person to sell or offer for sale or operate on the highways of the state of Iowa any vehicle subject to registration under the provisions of this chapter which has never been registered in this or any other state prior to January 1, 1954, unless such vehicle is equipped with a directional signal device of a type approved by the department and is in compliance with the provisions of subsection 2 of this section. Motorcycles, motor scooters, bines with motor attached and semitrailers and trailers less than forty inches in width are exempt from the provisions of this section.

4. When a vehicle is equipped with a directional signal device, such device shall at all times be maintained in good working condition. No directional signal device shall project a glaring or dazzling light. All directional signal devices shall be self-illuminated when in use while other lamps on the vehicle are lighted.

5. Whenever any vehicle or combination of vehicles is disabled or for other reason may present a vehicular traffic hazard requiring unusual care in approaching, overtaking or passing during the hours of darkness, the operator of such vehicles may display on such vehicle or combination of vehicles four directional signals of a type complying with the provisions of this section relating to directional signal devices in simultaneous operation. The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to exempt any vehicle or combination of vehicles from compliance with the provisions of sections 321.447 and 321.448. [S13, §1571-m18; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5032; C39, §5026.07; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.318]

321.318 Method of giving hand and arm signals. All signals herein required which may be given by hand and arm shall when so given be given from the left side of the vehicle and the following manner and interpretation thereof is suggested:

1. Left turn.—Hand and arm extended horizontally.

2. Right turn.—Hand and arm extended upward.

3. Stop or decrease of speed.—Hand and arm extended downward. [C39, §5025.08; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.318]

321.319 Entering intersections from different highways. When two vehicles enter an intersection from different highways or public streets at approximately the same time, the driver of the vehicle on the left shall yield the right of way to the vehicle on the right.

The foregoing rule is modified at through highways and otherwise as hereinafter stated in this chapter. [S13, §1571-m18; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5032; C39, §5026.01; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.319]

321.320 Turning left at intersection. The driver of a vehicle within an intersection intending to turn to the left shall yield the right of way to all vehicles approaching from the opposite direction which are within the intersection or so close thereto as to constitute an immediate hazard, then said driver, having so yielded and having given a signal when and as required by this chapter, may make such left turn. [S13, §1571-m18; C24, 27, 31, 35, §5035; C39, §5026.02; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.320]

The driver of a vehicle shall stop or yield as required by this chapter at the entrance to a through highway and shall yield the right of way to other vehicles which have entered the intersection from said through highway or which are approaching so closely on said through highway as to constitute a hazard, but said driver having so yielded may proceed cautiously and with due care enter said through highway. [C27, §§5079-b2, b3; C31, 35, §§5079-b2, b3, d2, d3; C39, §5026.03; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.321]

The driver of a vehicle shall likewise stop or yield in obedience to a stop or yield sign as required herein at an intersection where a stop or yield sign is erected at one or more entrances thereto although not a part of a through highway and shall proceed cautiously, yielding to vehicles not so obliged to stop or yield which are within the intersection or approaching so closely as to constitute a hazard, but may then proceed.

The driver of a vehicle approaching a yield sign shall in obedience to such sign slow down to a speed reasonable for the existing conditions or shall stop if necessary and shall yield the right of way to any pedestrian legally crossing the roadway on which he is driving, and to any vehicle in the intersection or approaching on another highway so closely as to constitute a hazard. Said driver having so yielded may proceed with caution. [C27, §§5079-b2, b3; C31, 35, §§5079-b2, b3, d2, d3; C39, §5025.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.322]

321.324 Operation on approach of emergency vehicles. Upon the immediate approach of an authorized emergency vehicle with any lamp or device displaying a red light or flashing red light from directly in front thereof, or when the driver is giving audible signal by siren, exhaust whistle, or bell, the driver of every other vehicle shall yield the right of way, and shall immediately drive to a position parallel to, and as close as possible to, the right-hand edge or curb of the highway clear of any intersection and shall stop and remain in such position until the authorized emergency vehicle has passed, except when otherwise directed by a police officer.

Upon the approach of an authorized emergency vehicle, as above stated, the motorman of every streetcar shall immediately stop such car clear of any intersection and keep it in such position until the authorized emergency vehicle has passed, except when otherwise directed by a police officer.

This section shall not operate to relieve the driver of an authorized emergency vehicle from the duty to drive with due regard for the safety of all persons using the highway. [C39, §321.324] Referred to in §§321.325, 321.326

§321.429 Revocation of certificate. When the commissioner has reason to believe that an approved device as being sold commercially does not comply with the requirements of this chapter, he may, after giving thirty days' previous notice to the person holding the certificate of approval for such device in this state, conduct a hearing upon the question of compliance of said approved device. After said hearing the commissioner shall determine whether said approved device meets the requirements of this chapter. §321.430 Brake, hitch and control requirements.

1. Every motor vehicle, other than a motorcycle, when operated upon a highway shall be equipped with brakes adequate to control the movement of and to stop and hold such vehicle, including two separate means of applying the brakes, each of which means shall be effective to apply the brakes to at least two wheels. If these two separate means of applying the brakes are connected in any way, they shall be so constructed that failure of any one part of the operating mechanism shall not leave the motor vehicle without brakes on at least two wheels.

2. Every motorcycle, and bicycle with motor attached, when operated upon a highway shall be equipped with at least one brake, which may be operated by hand or foot.

3. Every trailer or semitrailer of a gross weight of three thousand pounds or more, and every trailer coach or travel trailer of a gross weight of three thousand pounds or more intended for use for human habitation, shall be equipped with brakes adequate to control the movement of and to stop and hold such vehicle, and so designed as to be applied by the driver of the towing motor vehicle from its cab, or with self-actuating brakes, and weight equalizing hitch with a sway control of a type approved by the commissioner of public safety. Every semitrailer, travel trailer, or trailer coach of a gross weight of three thousand pounds or more shall be equipped with a separate, auxiliary means of applying the brakes on the semitrailer, travel trailer, or trailer coach from the cab of the towing vehicle. Trailers or semitrailers with a truck or truck tractor need only comply with the brake requirements.

4. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, every new motor vehicle, trailer, or semitrailer hereafter sold in this state and operated upon the highways shall be equipped with service brakes upon all wheels of every such vehicle with the following exceptions:

a. Any motorcycle.

b. Any trailer or semitrailer of less than three thousand pounds gross weight need not be equipped with brakes.

c. Trucks and truck tractors having three or more axles need not have brakes on the front wheels, except that such vehicles equipped with two or more front axles shall be equipped with brakes on at least one of such axles; provided that the service brakes of such vehicle comply with the performance requirements of section 321.131.

d. Only such brakes on the vehicle or vehicles being towed in a driveaway-towaway operation need be operative as may be necessary to insure compliance by the combination of vehicles with the performance requirements of section 321.431. The term "driveawaytowaway" operation as used in this subsection means any operation in which any motor vehicle or motor vehicles, new or used, constitute the commodity being transported, when one set or more of wheels of any such motor vehicle or motor vehicles are on the roadway during the course of transportation, whether or not any such motor vehicle furnishes the motive power. [S13,§1571-m17; C24, 27, 31, 35, upon dry asphalt or concrete pavement surface free from loose material where the grade does not exceed one percent, when traveling twenty miles an hour shall be adequate:

a. To stop such vehicle or vehicles having a gross weight of less than five thousand pounds within a distance of thirty feet.

b. To stop such vehicle or vehicles having a gross weight in excess of five thousand pounds within a distance of forty-five feet.

2. Under the above conditions the hand brake shall be adequate to hold such vehicle or vehicles stationary on any grade upon which operated.

3. Under the above conditions the service brakes upon a motor vehicle equipped with two-wheel brakes only, and when permitted hereunder, shall be adequate to stop the vehicle within a distance of forty-five feet and the hand brake adequate to stop the vehicle within distance of fifty-five feet.

4. All braking distances specified in this section shall apply to all vehicles mentioned, whether such vehicles are not loaded or are loaded to the maximum capacity permitted under this chapter.

5. All brakes shall be maintained in good working order and shall be so adjusted as to operate as equally as practicable with respect to the wheels on opposite sides of the vehicle.

hicle shall be equipped with nor shall any per­ sion use upon a vehicle any siren, whistle, or bell, except as otherwise permitted in this section. It is permissible but not required that any commercial vehicle be equipped with a theft alarm signal device which is so arranged that it cannot be used by the driver as an ordinary warning signal. Any authorized emergency vehicle may be equipped with a siren, whistle, or bell, capable of emitting sound audible under normal conditions from a distance of not less than five hundred feet and of a type approved by the department, but such siren shall not be used except when such vehicle is operated in response to an emer­

321.437 Mirrors. Every motor vehicle shall be equipped with a mirror so located as to reflect to the driver a view of the highway for a distance of at least two hundred feet to the rear of such vehicle. 7. Been regrooved or recut below the original tread design depth, excepting special tires which have extra under tread rubber and are identified as such.

If a pneumatic tire was originally designed without grooves or tread, the safety standards therefor shall be established by the commissioner. [§321.440]

321.441 Metal tires prohibited. No person shall operate or move on any highway any motor vehicle, trailer, or semitrailer having any metal tire in contact with the roadway. [§321.441]

3. Pneumatic tires with inserted iron clips or tire studs projecting not more than one-sixteenth inch beyond the tread of the traction surface of the tire upon any vehicle from November 1 of each year to April 1 of the following year, except that a school bus and fire department emergency apparatus may use such tires at any time. No person shall sell any new motor vehicle nor shall any motor vehicle, manufactured since July 1, 1935, be registered, or operated unless such vehicle is equipped with safety glass wherever glass is used in doors, windows, and windshields. Replacements of glass in doors, windows, or windshields shall be of safety glass.

2. The term "safety glass" shall mean any product composed of glass, so manufactured, fabricated, or treated as substantially to prevent shattering and flying of the glass when struck or broken or such other or similar product as may be approved by the commissioner.

Overloads on axles and tandem axles and overloads on groups of axles or on an entire vehicle or combination of vehicles shall be considered as separate violations of the provisions of this section.

The penalties herein provided shall not be construed to be in lieu of any other penalties provided for violations of other provisions of this chapter.

Any person who issues or executes, or causes to be issued or executed any bill of landing manifest or shipping document of any kind which states the false weight of the cargo set forth on such bill, manifest or document, to be less than the actual weight of such cargo, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than thirty days.[C24, 27, 31, 35, §5065, C39, §5065.12, C46 50 54, 58 62 66 71, §321 463]

321.464 Investigation as to safety. The commissioner upon registering any vehicle under the laws of this state which vehicle is designed and used primarily for the transportation of property or for the transportation of ten or more persons, may require such information and may make such investigation or test as necessary to enable him to determine whether such vehicle may safely be operated upon the highways in compliance with all the provisions of this chapter. He shall register every such vehicle for a permissible gross weight not exceeding the limitations set forth in this chapter. Every such vehicle shall meet the following requirements.
§321.464, MOTOR VEHICLES—SIZE, WEIGHT AND LOAD

1. It shall be equipped with brakes as required in sections 321.430 and 321.431.

2. Every motor vehicle to be operated outside of business and residence districts shall have motive power adequate to propel at a reasonable speed such vehicle and any load thereon or to be drawn thereby. [C39,§5035.13; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§321.464]

§321.465 Weighing vehicles and removal of excess. Any peace officer having reason to believe that the weight of a vehicle and load is unlawful is authorized to require the driver to stop and submit to a weighing of the same either by means of portable or stationary scales and may require that such vehicle be driven to the nearest public scales.

Whenever an officer upon weighing a vehicle and load, as above provided, determines that the weight is unlawful, such officer may require the driver to stop the vehicle in a suitable place and remain standing until such portion of the load is removed as may be necessary to reduce the gross weight of such vehicle to such limit as permitted under this chapter. All material so unloaded shall be cared for by the owner or operator of such vehicle at the risk of such owner or operator.

Any driver of a vehicle who fails or refuses to stop and submit the vehicle and load to a weighing, or who fails or refuses when directed by an officer upon a weighing of the vehicle to stop the vehicle and otherwise comply with the provisions of this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished as provided in section 321.482.

Upon weighing a vehicle and load, as above provided, if such load is a scaled load, the weight officer shall issue a certificate setting forth the weights as determined by him and the seal number or numbers, if requested by the owner or operator. [C31, 35,§4921-d; C39,§5035.14; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§321.465]

§321.466 Increased loading capacity—reregistration. An increased gross weight registration may be obtained for any vehicle by payment of the difference between the annual fee for the higher gross weight and the amount of the fee for the gross weight at which it is registered.

With respect to a vehicle held by a dealer for sale or trade, an increased gross weight registration may be obtained for any such vehicle on or after April 10 of each year upon change of ownership by payment of one-twelfth of the difference between the annual fee for the higher gross weight and the amount of the fee for the gross weight at which it is registered, multiplied by the number of unexpired months of the year.

On or after July 1 of each year, the owner of a motor truck, truck tractor, road tractor, semitrailer or trailer may, if his operation thereof has not resulted in a conviction under this section or an action then pending against him for violation of the same, increase the gross load of any such vehicle to a higher gross weight classification by payment of one-twelfth of the difference between the annual fee for the higher gross weight and the amount of the fee for the gross weight at which it is registered, multiplied by the number of unexpired months of the year.

Upon conversion of a truck to a truck tractor or a truck tractor to a truck, an increased gross weight registration of the proper type may be obtained for any such vehicle by payment, except as provided in section 321.106, of one-twelfth of the difference between the annual fee for the higher gross weight and the amount of the annual fee for the gross weight at which the vehicle is registered, multiplied by the number of unexpired months of the year from the date of such conversion.

The registered gross weight of any vehicle or combination of vehicles may also be increased by installing and using a properly registered auxiliary axle or axles, and the combined registered gross weight of such vehicle and auxiliary axle or axles shall determine the total registered gross weight thereof. No auxiliary axle may be used to convert a single axle to a tandem axle unless equipped with a device to equalize the load carried by the single axle and the said auxiliary axle when in tandem and when in motion or when standing, and the load transmitted to the highway by either the single axle or the auxiliary axle shall not exceed that permitted for any single axle, nor shall the load transmitted to the highway when in tandem and when in motion or when standing, exceed that permitted for any tandem axle.

It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a motor truck, trailer, truck tractor, road tractor, semitrailer or combination thereof, or any such vehicle equipped with a transferable auxiliary axle or axles, on the public highways with a gross weight exceeding that for which it is registered by more than five percent of the gross weight for which it is registered, provided, however, that any vehicle or vehicle combination referred to herein, while carrying a load of raw farm products, soil fertilizers, including ground limestone, raw dairy products or livestock, live poultry, eggs, may be operated with a gross weight of twenty-five percent in excess of the gross weight for which it is registered.

For the purposes of this section cracked or ground soybeans, sargo, corn, wheat, rye, oats or other grain shall be deemed to be raw farm products, provided that such products are being directly delivered to a farm, from the place where the whole grain had been delivered from a farm for the purpose of cracking or grinding and immediate delivery to the farm to which such cracked or ground products are being delivered.

The truck operator shall have in his possession a receipt showing place of processing on his return trip. [C24, 27, §4921; C31, 35, §§4921-c1, c2; C39, §5035.15; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.466]

321.471 Local authorities may restrict. Local authorities with respect to highways under their jurisdiction may by ordinance or resolution prohibit the operation of vehicles upon any such highway or impose restrictions as to the weight of vehicles to be operated upon any such highway, for a total period of not to exceed ninety days in any one calendar year, whenever any said highway by reason of deterioration, rain, snow, or other climatic conditions will be seriously damaged or destroyed unless the use of vehicles thereon is prohibited or the permissible weights thereof reduced.

Any person who violates the provisions of such ordinance or resolution shall be punished by a fine as provided in the schedule for gross or group of axles weight violations in section 321.463. The violation shall be that weight in excess of the maximum weight established by the ordinance or resolution, and the fine shall be imposed accordingly. Local authorities may issue special permits, during periods such restrictions are in effect, to permit limited operation of vehicles upon specified routes with loads in excess of any restrictions imposed under this section, but not in excess of load restrictions imposed by any other provision of this chapter. The highway commission may issue special permits in accordance with the foregoing to trucks moving farm produce, which decays and loses its value if not speedily put to its intended use, to market upon a showing to the highway commission that there is a requirement for trucking such produce. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §§606; C39, §5035.22; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.474]

Any person driving any vehicle, object, or contrivance upon any highway or highway structure shall be liable for all damage which said highway or structure may sustain as a result of any illegal operation, driving, or moving of such vehicle, object, or contrivance, or as a result of operation, driving, or moving any vehicle, object, or contrivance weighing in excess of the maximum weight in this chapter but authorized by a special permit issued as provided in this chapter.

Whenever such driver is not the owner of such vehicle, object, or contrivance, but is so operating, driving, or moving the same with the express or implied permission of said owner, then said owner and driver shall be jointly and severally liable for any such damage. Such damage may be recovered in a civil action brought by the authorities in control of such highway or highway structure. [C39, §5035.22; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321.475]

321.476 Weighing vehicles by highway commission. Authority is hereby given to the state highway commission to stop any motor vehicle or trailer on the highways for the purposes of weighing and inspection, to weigh and inspect the same and to enforce the provisions of the motor vehicle laws relating to the registration, size, weight, and load of motor vehicles and trailers.

Authority is also hereby granted to subject to weighing and inspection, vehicles which have moved from a highway onto private property under circumstances which indicate that the load of the vehicle, if any, is substan-

Any person who prevents or in any manner obstructs an officer attempting to carry out the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 321.482. [C16, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71,§321.476]

Such a person shall also file the original policy of insurance or a certified copy thereof. If available, and such other documents as the commissioner may require to show that the loss, injury, or damage for which such judgment was rendered, was covered by such policy of insurance. 2. The commissioner shall not suspend a license, registration, or nonresident's operating privilege, and shall restore any license, registration, or nonresident's operating privilege suspended following nonpayment of a judgment, when the judgment debtor gives proof of financial responsibility and obtains such an order permitting the payment of such judgment in installments, and while the payment of any said installment is not in default.

respect to all motor vehicles registered by such person.

2. Proof of financial responsibility may be furnished by filing with the commissioner the written certificate of any insurance carrier duly authorized to do business in this state certifying that there is in effect a motor vehicle liability policy for the benefit of the person required to furnish proof of financial responsibility. Such certificate shall give the effective date of such motor vehicle liability policy, which date shall be the same as the effective date of the certificate, and shall designate by explicit description or by appropriate reference all motor vehicles covered thereby, unless the policy is issued to a person who is not the owner of a motor vehicle.

2. No motor vehicle shall be or continue to be registered in the name of any person required to file proof of financial responsibility unless such certificate is so designated in such a certificate. [C50, §54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321A.19] Referred to in §§321A.13, 321A.14, 321A.18, 321A.21, 321A.22

321A.20 Certificate furnished by nonresident as proof. 1. The nonresident owner of a motor vehicle not registered in this state may give proof of financial responsibility by filing with the commissioner a written certificate or certificates of an insurance carrier authorized to transact business in the state in which the motor vehicle, or motor vehicles, described in such certificate is registered, or if such nonresident does not own a motor vehicle, then in the state in which the insured resides, provided such certificate otherwise conforms with the provisions of this chapter, and the commissioner shall accept the same upon condition that said insurance carrier complies with the following provisions with respect to the policies so certified:

a. Said insurance carrier shall execute a power of attorney authorizing the commissioner to accept service on its behalf of notice or process in any action arising out of a motor vehicle accident in this state.

b. Said insurance carrier shall agree in writing that such policies shall be deemed to conform with the laws of this state relating to the terms of motor vehicle liability policies issued herein.

2. If any insurance carrier not authorized to transact business in this state, which has qualified to furnish proof of financial responsibility, defaults in any said undertakings or agreements, the commissioner shall not thereafter accept as proof any certificate of said carrier whether theretofore filed or thereafter tendered as proof, so long as such default continues. [C50, §54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321A.20] Referred to in §§321A.13, 321A.14, 321A.18, 321A.21, 321A.22

321A.21 “Motor vehicle liability policy” defined. 1. A “motor vehicle liability policy” as said term is used in this chapter shall mean an owner’s or an operator’s policy of liability insurance, certified as provided in section 321A.19 or section 321A.20 as proof of financial responsibility, and issued, except as otherwise provided in section 321A.20, by an insurance carrier duly authorized to transact business in this state, to or for the benefit of the person named therein as insured.

2. Such owner’s policy of liability insurance:

a. Shall designate by explicit description or by appropriate reference all motor vehicles with respect to which coverage is thereby to be granted; and

b. Shall insure the person named therein and any other person, as insured, using any such motor vehicle or motor vehicle with the express or implied permission of such named insured, against loss from the liability imposed by law for damages arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of such motor vehicle or motor vehicles within the United States of America or the Dominion of Canada.
subject to limits exclusive of interest and costs, with respect to each such motor vehicle, as follows: Ten thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident and, subject to said limit for one person, twenty thousand dollars because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident, and five thousand dollars because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one accident.

3. Such operator's policy of liability insurance shall insure the person named as insured therein against loss from the liability imposed upon him by law for damages arising out of the use by him of any motor vehicle not owned by him, within the same territorial limits and subject to the same limits of liability as are set forth above with respect to an owner's policy of liability insurance.

4. Such motor vehicle liability policy shall state the name and address of the named insured, the coverage afforded by the policy, the premium charged therefor, the policy period, and the limits of liability, and shall contain an agreement or be endorsed that insurance is provided thereunder in accordance with the coverage defined in this chapter as respects bodily injury and death or property damage, or both, and is subject to all the provisions of this chapter.

5. Such motor vehicle liability policy need not insure any liability under any workman's compensation law or any liability on account of bodily injury to or death of an employee of the insured while engaged in the employment, other than domestic, of the insured, or while engaged in the operation, maintenance, or repair of any such motor vehicle nor any liability for damage to property owned by, rented to, in charge of, or transported by the insured.

6. Every motor vehicle liability policy shall be subject to the following provisions which need not be contained therein:

a. The liability of the insurance carrier with respect to the insurance required by this chapter shall become absolute whenever injury or damage covered by said motor vehicle liability policy occurs; said policy may not be canceled or annulled as to such liability by any agreement between the insurance carrier and the insured after the occurrence of the injury or damage; no statement made by the insured or on his behalf and no violation of said policy shall defeat or void said policy.

b. The satisfaction by the insured of a judgment for such injury or damage shall not be a condition precedent to the right or duty of the insurance carrier to make payment on account of such injury or damage.

c. The insurance carrier shall have the right to settle any claim covered by the policy, and if such settlement is made in good faith, the amount thereof shall be deductible from the limits of liability specified in paragraph "b" of subsection 2 of this section.

d. The policy, the written application therefor, if any, and any rider or endorsement which does not conflict with the provisions of the chapter shall constitute the entire contract between the parties.

7. Any policy which grants the coverage required for a motor vehicle liability policy may also grant any lawful coverage in excess of or in addition to the coverage specified for a motor vehicle liability policy and such excess or additional coverage shall not be subject to the provisions of this chapter. With respect to a policy which grants such excess or additional coverage the term "motor vehicle liability policy" shall apply only to that part of the coverage which is required by this section.

8. Any motor vehicle liability policy may provide that the insured shall reimburse the insurance carrier for any payment the insurance carrier would not have been obligated to make under the terms of the policy except for the provisions of this chapter.

9. Any motor vehicle liability policy may provide for the prorating of the insurance thereunder with other valid and collectible insurance.

10. The requirements for a motor vehicle liability policy may be fulfilled by the policies of one or more insurance carriers which policies together meet such requirements.

11. Any binder issued pending the issuance of a motor vehicle liability policy shall be deemed to fulfill the requirements for such a policy. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321A.21]

321A.22 Notice of cancellation or termination of certified policy. When an insurance carrier has certified a motor vehicle liability policy under section 321A.19 or section 321A.20, the insurance so certified shall not be canceled or terminated until at least ten days after a notice of cancellation or termination of the insurance so certified shall be filed in the office of the commissioner, except that such a policy subsequently procured and certified shall, on the effective date of its certification, terminate the insurance previously certified with respect to any motor vehicle designated in both certificates. [C50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321A.22]

321A.23 Chapter not to affect other policies. 1. This chapter shall not be held to apply to or affect policies of automobile insurance against liability which may now or hereafter be required by any other law of this state, and such policies, if they contain an agreement or are endorsed to conform with the requirements of this chapter, may be certified as proof of financial responsibility under this chapter.

2. This chapter shall not be held to apply to or affect policies insuring solely the insured named in the policy against liability resulting from the maintenance or use by persons in the insureds employ or on his behalf of motor vehicles not owned by the insured. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321A.23]

321A.24 Bond as proof.

1. Proof of financial responsibility may be evidenced by the bond of a surety company duly authorized to transact business within this state, or a bond with at least two individual sureties each owning real estate within this state, and together having equities equal in value to at least twice the amount of the bond, which real estate shall be scheduled in the bond approved by a judge or clerk of a court of record, which said bond shall be conditioned for payment of the amounts specified in subsection 10 of section 321A.1. Such bond shall be filed with the commissioner and shall not be cancelable except after ten days' written notice to the commissioner. Such bond shall constitute a lien in favor of the state upon the real estate so scheduled of any surety, which lien shall exist in favor of any holder of a final judgment against the person who has filed such bond, for damages, including damages for care and loss of services, because of bodily injury to or death of any person, or for damage because of injury to or destruction of property, including the loss of use thereof, resulting from the ownership, maintenance, use, or operation of a motor vehicle after such bond was filed, upon the filing of notice to that effect by the commissioner in the office of the proper clerk of court of the county where such real estate shall be located. Any individual surety so scheduling real estate security shall furnish satisfactory evidence of title thereto and the nature and extent of all encumbrances thereon and the value of the surety's interest therein, in such manner as the judge or clerk of the court of record approving the bond may require. The notice filed by the commissioner shall, in addition to any other matters by him deemed to be pertinent, contain a legal description of the real estate so scheduled, the name of the holder of the record title, the amount for which it stands as security, and the name of the person in whose behalf proof is so being made. Upon the filing of such notice the clerk of the court of such county shall retain the same as part of the records of such court and enter upon the encumbrance book the date and hour of filing, the name of the surety, the name of the record titleholder, the description of the real estate, and the further notation that a lien is charged on such real estate pursuant to the notice filed hereunder. From and after the entry of the foregoing upon the encumbrance book all persons whomsoever shall be charged with notice thereof.

2. If such a judgment, rendered against the principal on such bond shall not be satisfied within sixty days after it has become final, the judgment creditor may, for his own use and benefit and at his sole expense, bring an action or actions in the name of the state against the company or persons executing such bond, including an action or proceeding to foreclose any lien that may exist upon the real estate of a person who has executed such bond. An action to foreclose any lien upon real estate scheduled by any surety under the provisions of this chapter shall be by equitable proceeding in the same manner as is provided for the foreclosure of real estate mortgages. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321A.24]

The state treasurer shall not accept any such deposit and issue a certificate therefor and the commissioner shall not accept such certificate unless accompanied by evidence that there are no unsatisfied judgments of any character against the depositor in the county where the depositor resides.

2. Such deposit shall be held by the state treasurer to satisfy, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, any execution on a judgment issued against such person making the deposit, for damages, including damages for care and loss of services, because of bodily injury to or death of any person, or for damages because of injury to or destruction of property, including the loss of use thereof, resulting from the ownership, maintenance, use, or operation of a motor vehicle after such deposit was made. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321A.25]

321A.26 Owner may give proof for others.

Whenever any person required to give proof of financial responsibility hereunder is or later becomes an operator in the employ of any owner, or is or later becomes a member of the immediate family or household of the owner, the commissioner shall accept proof given by such owner in lieu of proof by such other person to permit such other person to operate a motor vehicle for which the owner has given proof as herein provided or has qualified as a self-insurer under section 321A.34. The commissioner shall designate the restrictions imposed by this section on the face of such person's license. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321A.26]

a. At any time after three years from the date such proof was required when, during the three-year period preceding the request, the commissioner has not received record of a conviction or a forfeiture of bail which would require or permit the suspension or revocation of the license, registration, or nonresident’s operating privilege of the person by or for whom such proof was furnished; or

b. In the event of the death of the person on whose behalf such proof was filed or the permanent incapacity of such person to operate a motor vehicle; or

c. In the event the person who has given proof surrenders his license and registration to the commissioner;

2. Provided, however, that the commissioner shall not consent to the cancellation of any bond or the return of any money or securities in the event any action for damages upon a liability covered by such proof is then pending or any judgment upon any such liability is then unsatisfied, or in the event the person who has filed such bond or deposited such money or securities has within one year immediately preceding such request been involved as an operator or owner in any motor vehicle accident resulting in injury or damage to the person or property of others. An affidavit of the applicant as to the nonexistence of such facts, or that he has been released from all of his liability, or has been finally adjudicated not to be liable, for such injury or damage, shall be sufficient evidence thereof in the absence of evidence to the contrary in the records of the commissioner.

3. Whenever any person whose proof has been canceled or returned under paragraph "c" of subsection 1 of this section applies for a license or registration within a period of three years from the date proof was originally required, any such application shall be refused unless the applicant shall re-establish such proof for the remainder of such three-year period. 321A.30 Transfer of registration to defeat purpose of chapter prohibited. This chapter shall not prevent the owner of a motor vehicle, the registration of which has been suspended hereunder, from effecting a bona fide sale of such motor vehicle to another person whose rights or privileges are not suspended under this chapter nor prevent the registration of such motor vehicle by such transferee. This chapter shall not in any wise affect the rights of any secured party or lessor of a motor vehicle registered in the name of another as owner who becomes subject to the provisions of this chapter. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321A.30]

321A.31 Surrender of license and registration. Any person whose license or registration shall have been suspended as herein provided, or whose policy of insurance or bond, when required under this chapter, shall have been canceled or terminated, or who shall neglect to furnish other proof upon request of the commissioner shall immediately return his license and registration to the commissioner. If any person shall fail to return to the commissioner the license or registration as provided herein, the commissioner shall forthwith direct any peace officer to secure possession thereof and to return the same to the commissioner. [C31, 33, §5079-c; C39, §5021.01; C46, §321.275; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321A.31]

2. Any person willfully failing to return license or registration as required in section 321A.31 shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned not to exceed thirty days, or both.

321A.34 Self-insurers.
1. Any person in whose name more than twenty-five motor vehicles are registered may qualify as a self-insurer by obtaining a certificate of self-insurance issued by the commissioner as provided in subsection 2 of this section.
2. The commissioner may, in his discretion, upon the application of such a person, issue a certificate of self-insurance when he is satisfied that such person is possessed and will continue to be possessed of ability to pay judgments obtained against such person for damages arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of any vehicle owned by such person.
3. Upon not less than five days' notice and a hearing pursuant to such notice, the commissioner may, upon reasonable grounds cancel a certificate of self-insurance. Failure to pay any judgment for damages arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of any vehicle owned by such self-insurer within thirty days after such judgment shall have become final shall constitute a reasonable ground for the cancellation of a certificate of self-insurance. [C50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §321A.34]

321A.35 Past application of chapter. #### 321B.1 Declaration of policy.

The general assembly hereby determines and declares that the provisions of this division are necessary in order to control alcoholic beverages and aid the enforcement of laws prohibiting operation of a motor vehicle while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage. [C66, 71, §321B.1]

321B.2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter the words "peace officer" mean:

1. Members of the highway patrol.
2. Police officers under civil service as provided in chapter 365.
4. Regular deputy sheriffs who have had formal police training.
5. Any other law enforcement officer who has satisfactorily completed an approved course relating to motor vehicle operators under the influence of alcoholic beverages at the Iowa law enforcement academy or a law enforcement training program approved by the department of public safety.

As used in this chapter and sections 29B.106, 321.281, 321.494 and 749.2 the words "alcoholic beverage" include alcohol, wine, spirits, beer, or any other beverage which contains ethyl alcohol and is fit for human consumption. [C66, 71, §321B.2; 61GA, ch 189, §1]

321B.3 Implied consent to test.

Any person who operates a motor vehicle in this state upon a public highway, under such circumstances as to give reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage, shall be deemed to have given consent to the withdrawal from his body of specimens of his blood, breath, saliva, or urine, and to a chemical test or tests thereof, for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of his blood, subject to the provisions hereinafter set out. The withdrawal of such body substances, and the test or tests thereof, shall be administered at the written request of a peace officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been operating a motor vehicle upon a public highway of this state while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage, and only after the peace officer has placed such person under arrest for the offense of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage. If such person requests that a specimen of his blood not be withdrawn, then a specimen of his breath, saliva, or urine shall be withdrawn at the written request of such peace officer; provided, however, that if such person refuses to submit to any chemical testing, no test shall be given, and the provisions of section 321B.7 shall apply. Subject to the right of a person to refuse a blood test or to refuse to submit to any chemical testing, such peace officer may determine which of said substances shall be tested; and if he requires a breath test, he may also require a test of one other of said substances. However, if such peace officer fails to provide such test within two hours after such arrest, no test shall be required, and there shall be no revocation under the provisions of section 321B.7. [C66, 71, §321B.3]

321B.4 Taking sample for test.

Only a licensed physician, or a medical technologist or registered nurse designated by a licensed physician as his representative, acting at the written request of a peace officer may withdraw such body substances for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of the person's blood. However, any peace officer, using devices and methods approved by the commissioner of public safety, may take a specimen of a person's breath or urine for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of the person's blood. Only new, originally factory wrapped, disposable syringes and needles, kept under strictly sanitary and sterile conditions shall be used for drawing blood. Such person may have an independent chemi-321B.5 Dead or unconscious persons. Any person who is dead, unconscious or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him incapable of consent or refusal shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by section 321B.3, and the test may be given provided that a licensed physician shall certify in advance of such test that such person is dead, unconscious or otherwise in a condition rendering him incapable of consent or refusal. In such case such condition shall obviate the requirements of arrest and advice pursuant to section 321B.6. [C66, 71, §321B.5]

Referred to in §321B.6

321B.6 Statement of officer. A peace officer shall advise any person who is requested to take any chemical test that a refusal to submit to such test will result in revocation of the person’s license or privilege to operate a motor vehicle; provided, however, that this requirement shall not apply in the case of any person referred to in section 321B.5. [C66, 71, §321B.6]

Referred to in §321B.5

321B.7 Refusal to submit. If a person under arrest refuses to submit to the chemical testing, no test shall be given, but the commissioner of public safety, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the peace officer that he had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person to have been operating a motor vehicle upon a public highway of this state while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage, that he had placed such person under arrest for the offense of operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage and that the person had refused to submit to the chemical testing, shall revoke his license or permit to drive and any nonresident operating privilege for a period of more than one year; or if the person is a resident operating privilege for a period of more than one year; or if the person is a nonresident operating privilege has been revoked or denied, may file a petition within thirty days after the determination by the commissioner of public safety or his authorized agent for a hearing of the matter in the district court in the county wherein the alleged events occurred for which he was arrested or in the county in which the administrative hearing was held. It shall be the duty of the court to set the matter for hearing, and the petitioner shall give twenty days’ notice thereof to the commissioner. Within fifteen days after receipt of the notice, the commissioner shall file in the office of the clerk of the district court to which the appeal is taken a certified transcript of the testimony and all other proceedings. It shall constitute the record on which the commissioner made his determination. The court thereafter shall hear the matter de novo and shall affirm the decision of the commissioner or his authorized agent. The person or the commissioner may appeal to the supreme court in accordance with the Iowa Rules of Civil Procedure. [C66, 71, §321B.7]

Referred to in §321B.9

321B.8 Hearing. Upon the written request of a person whose privilege to drive has been revoked or denied, the commissioner of public safety shall grant the person an opportunity to be heard within ten days after the receipt of the request, but the request must be made within thirty days after the effective date of revocation or denial. The hearing shall be before the commissioner or his authorized agent, in the county wherein the alleged events occurred for which the person was arrested, unless the commissioner or his authorized agent and the person agree that the hearing may be held in some other county. The hearing shall be recorded and its scope shall cover the issues of whether a peace officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been operating a motor vehicle upon a public highway of this state while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage, whether the person was placed under arrest and whether he refused to submit to the test or tests. The commissioner or his authorized agent shall order that the revocation or denial be either rescinded or sustained. [C66, 71, §321B.8]

321B.9 Appeal. If the revocation or denial is sustained the person whose license, permit to drive, or nonresident operating privilege has been revoked or denied, may file a petition within thirty days after the determination by the commissioner of public safety or his authorized agent for a hearing of the matter in the district court in the county wherein the alleged events occurred for which he was arrested or in the county in which the administrative hearing was held. It shall be the duty of the court to set the matter for hearing, and the petitioner shall give twenty days’ notice thereof to the commissioner. Within fifteen days after receipt of the notice, the commissioner shall file in the office of the clerk of the district court to which the appeal is taken a certified transcript of the testimony and all other proceedings. It shall constitute the record on which the commissioner made his determination. The court thereafter shall hear the matter de novo and shall affirm the decision of the commissioner or his authorized agent. The person or the commissioner may appeal to the supreme court in accordance with the Iowa Rules of Civil Procedure. [C66, 71, §321B.9]

321B.11 Proof of refusal admissible. If the person under arrest refuses to submit to the test or tests, proof of refusal shall be admissible in any civil or criminal action or proceeding arising out of acts alleged to have been committed while the person was operating a motor vehicle upon a public highway of this state.
state while under the influence of an alcoholic beverage. [C66, §321B.11]

321B.12 Other evidence. The provisions of this division shall not be construed as limiting the introduction of any other competent evidence bearing on the question of whether the person was under the influence of an alcoholic beverage. [C66, §321B.12]

321B.13 Information relayed to other states. When it has been finally determined under the procedures of this division that a nonresident’s privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been revoked or denied, the department of public safety shall give information in writing of the action taken to the official in charge of traffic control or public safety of the state of the person’s residence and of any state in which he has a license. [C66, §321B.13]

321B.14 Citation of Act. This division may be cited as the “Uniform Chemical Test for Intoxication Act”. [C66, §321B.14]

CHAPTER 321C

INTERSTATE DRIVERS LICENSE COMPACTS

321C.1 Authority to compact. The commissioner of public safety is hereby authorized to enter into drivers license compacts with other jurisdictions legally joining therein in substantially the following form.

The contracting states agree:

ARTICLE I—FINDINGS AND DECLARATION OF POLICY

a. The party states find that:
1. The safety of their streets and highways is materially affected by the degree of compliance with state laws and local ordinances relating to the operation of motor vehicles.
2. Violation of such a law or ordinance is evidence that the violator engages in conduct which is likely to endanger the safety of persons and property.
3. The continuance in force of a license to drive is predicated upon compliance with laws and ordinances relating to the operation of motor vehicles, in whichever jurisdiction the vehicle is operated.
4. It is the policy of each of the party states to:
   1. Promote compliance with the laws, ordinances, and administrative rules and regulations relating to the operation of motor vehicles by their operators in each of the jurisdictions where such operators drive motor vehicles.
   2. Make the reciprocal recognition of licenses to drive and eligibility therefor more just and equitable by considering the overall compliance with motor vehicle laws, ordinances and administrative rules and regulations as a condition precedent to the continuance or issuance of any license by reason of which the licensee is authorized or permitted to operate a motor vehicle in any of the party states.

ARTICLE II—DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact:

a. "State" means a state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

b. "Home state" means the state which has issued and has the power to suspend or revoke the use of the license or permit to operate a motor vehicle. [321C.1 Amend 7-1-75 Ch 1180, §121—65 GA]
c. "Conviction" means a conviction of any offense related to the use or operation of a motor vehicle which is prohibited by state law, municipal ordinance or administrative rule or regulation, or a forfeiture of bail, bond or other security deposited to secure appearance by a person charged with having committed any such offense, and which conviction or forfeiture is required to be reported to the licensing authority.

ARTICLE III—REPORTS OF CONVICTION

The licensing authority of a party state shall report each conviction of a person from another party state occurring within its jurisdiction to the licensing authority of the home state of the licensee. Such report shall clearly identify the person convicted; describe the violation specifying the section of the statute, code or ordinance violated; identify the court in which action was taken; indicate whether a plea of guilty or not guilty was entered, or the conviction was a result of the forfeiture of bail, bond or other security; and shall include any special findings made in connection therewith.

Referred to in Art. IV

ARTICLE IV—EFFECT OF CONVICTION

a. The licensing authority in the home state, for the purposes of suspension, revocation or limitation of the license to operate a motor vehicle, shall give the same effect to the conduct reported, pursuant to Article III of this compact, as it would if such conduct had occurred in the home state, in the case of convictions for:

1. Manslaughter or negligent homicide resulting from the operation of a motor vehicle;
2. Driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a narcotic drug, or under the influence of any other drug to a degree which renders the driver incapable of safely driving a motor vehicle;
3. Any felony in the commission of which a motor vehicle is used;
4. Failure to stop and render aid in the event of a motor vehicle accident resulting in the death or personal injury of another.

b. As to other convictions, reported pursuant to Article III, the licensing authority in the home state shall give such effect to the conduct as is provided by the laws of the home state.

c. If the laws of a party state do not provide for offenses or violations denominated or described in precisely the words employed in subdivision "a" of this article, such party state shall construe the denominations and descriptions appearing in subdivision "a" hereof as being applicable to and identifying those offenses or violations of a substantially similar nature, and the laws of such party state shall contain such provisions as may be necessary to ensure that full force and effect is given to this article.

ARTICLE V—APPLICATIONS FOR NEW LICENSES

Upon application for a license to drive, the licensing authority in a party state shall ascertain whether the applicant has ever held, or is the holder of a license to drive issued by any other party state. The licensing authority in the state where application is made shall not issue a license to drive to the applicant if:

1. The applicant has held such a license, but the same has been suspended by reason, in whole or in part, of a violation and if such suspension period has not terminated.
2. The applicant has held such a license, but the same has been revoked by reason, in whole or in part, of a violation and if such revocation has not terminated, except that after the expiration of one year from the date the license was revoked, such person may make application for a new license if permitted by law. The licensing authority may refuse to issue a license to any such applicant if, after investigation, the licensing authority determines that it will not be safe to grant to such person the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways.
3. The applicant is the holder of a license to drive issued by another party state and currently in force unless the applicant surrenders such license.

ARTICLE VI—APPLICABILITY OF OTHER LAWS

Except as expressly required by provisions of this compact, nothing contained herein shall be construed to affect the right of any party state to apply any of its other laws relating to licenses to drive to any person or circumstance, nor to invalidate or prevent any driver license agreement or other co-operative arrangement between a party state and a non-party state.

ARTICLE VII—COMPACT ADMINISTRATOR AND INTERCHANGE OF INFORMATION

a. The head of the licensing authority of each party state shall be the administrator of this compact for his state. The administrators, acting jointly, shall have the power to formulate all necessary and proper procedures for the exchange of information under this compact.

b. The administrator of each party state shall furnish to the administrator of each other party state any information or documents reasonably necessary to facilitate the administration of this compact.

ARTICLE VIII—ENTRY INTO FORCE AND WITHDRAWAL

a. This compact shall enter into force and become effective as to any state when it has enacted the same into law.

b. Any party state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same, but no such withdrawal shall take effect until six months after the executive head of the withdrawing state has given notice of the withdrawal to the executive heads of all other party states. No withdrawal shall affect the validity or applicability by the licensing authorities of states remaining party to the compact of any report of conviction occurring prior to the withdrawal.

ARTICLE IX—CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable. [C66, 71,§321C.1]

321C.2 Enforcement. The agencies and officers of this state and its subdivisions and municipalities shall enforce this compact and do all things appropriate to effect its purpose and intent which may be within their respective jurisdictions. [C66, 71,§321C.2]

VEHICLE EQUIPMENT COMPACTS

321D.1 Authority to compact. The commissioner of public safety is hereby authorized to enter into vehicle equipment safety compacts with other jurisdictions legally joining therein in substantially the following form.

The contracting states agree:

ARTICLE I—FINDINGS AND PURPOSES

a. The party states find that:
1. Accidents and deaths on their streets and highways present a very serious human and economic problem with a major deleterious effect on the public welfare.
2. There is a vital need for the development of greater interjurisdictional co-operation to achieve the necessary uniformity in the laws, rules, regulations and codes relating to vehicle equipment, and to accomplish this by such means as will minimize the time between the development of demonstrably and scientifically sound safety features and their incorporation into vehicles.

b. The purposes of this compact are to:
1. Promote uniformity in regulation of and standards for equipment.
2. Secure uniformity of law and administrative practice in vehicular regulation and related safety standards to permit incorporation of desirable equipment changes in vehicles in the interest of greater traffic safety.
3. To provide means for the encouragement and utilization of research which will facilitate the achievement of the foregoing purposes, with due regard for the findings set forth in subdivision “a” of this article.

c. It is the intent of this compact to emphasize performance requirements and not to determine the specific detail of engineering in the manufacture of vehicles or equipment except to the extent necessary for the meeting of such performance requirements.

ARTICLE II—DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact:

a. “Vehicle” means every device in, upon or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a highway, excepting devices moved by human power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks.

b. “State” means a state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

c. “Equipment” means any part of a vehicle or any accessory for use thereon which affects the safety of operation of such vehicle or the safety of the occupants.

ARTICLE III—THE COMMISSION

a. There is hereby created an agency of the party states to be known as the “Vehicle Equipment Safety Commission” hereinafter called the commission. The commission shall be composed of one commissioner from each party state who shall be appointed, serve and be subject to removal in accordance with the laws of the state which he represents. If authorized by the laws of his party state, a commissioner may provide for the discharge of his duties and the performance of his functions on the commission, either for the duration of his membership or for any lesser period of time, by an alternate. No such alternate shall be entitled to serve unless notification of his identity and appointment shall have been given to the commission in such form as the commission may require. Each commissioner and each alternate, when serving in the place and stead of a commissioner, shall be entitled to be reimbursed by the commission for expenses actually incurred in attending commission meetings or while engaged in the business of the commission.

b. The commissioners shall be entitled to one vote each on the commission. No action of the commission shall be binding unless taken at a meeting at which a majority of the total number of votes on the commission are cast in favor thereof. Action of the commission shall be only at a meeting at which a majority of the commissioners, or their alternates, are present.

c. The commission shall have a seal.

d. The commission shall elect annually, from among its members, a chairman, a vice-chairman and a treasurer. The commission may appoint an executive director and fix his duties and compensation. Such executive director shall serve at the pleasure of the commission.
§321D.l, VEHICLE EQUIPMENT COMPACTS

and together with the treasurer shall be bonded in such amount as the commission shall determine. The executive director also shall serve as secretary. If there be no executive director, the commission shall elect a secretary in addition to the other officers provided by this subdivision.

e. Irrespective of the civil service, personnel or other merit system laws of any of the party states, the executive director with the approval of the commission, or the commission if there be no executive director, shall appoint, remove or discharge such personnel as may be necessary for the performance of the commission's functions, and shall fix the duties and compensation of such personnel.

f. The commission may establish and maintain independently or in conjunction with any one or more of the party states, a suitable retirement system for its full-time employees. Employees of the commission shall be eligible for social security coverage in respect of old age and survivor’s insurance provided that the commission takes such steps as may be necessary pursuant to the laws of the United States, to participate in such program of insurance as a governmental agency or unit. The commission may establish and maintain or participate in such additional programs of employee benefits as may be appropriate.

g. The commission may borrow, accept or contract for the services of personnel from any party state, the United States, or any subdivision or agency of the aforementioned governments, or from any agency of two or more of the party states or their subdivisions.

h. The commission may accept for any of its purposes and functions under this compact any and all donations, and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials, and services, conditional or otherwise, from any state, the United States, or any other governmental agency and may receive, utilize and dispose of the same.

ARTICLE IV—RESEARCH AND TESTING

The commission shall have power to:

a. Collect, correlate, analyze and evaluate information resulting or derivable from research and testing activities in equipment and related fields.

b. Recommend and encourage the undertaking of research and testing in any aspect of equipment or related matters when, in its judgment, appropriate or sufficient research or testing has not been undertaken.

c. Contract for such equipment research and testing as one or more governmental agencies may agree to have contracted for by the commission, provided that such governmental agency or agencies shall make available the funds necessary for such research and testing.

d. Recommend to the party states changes in law or policy with emphasis on uniformity of laws and administrative rules, regulations or codes which would promote effective governmental action or co-ordination in the prevention of equipment-related highway accidents or the mitigation of equipment-related highway safety problems.

ARTICLE V—VEHICULAR EQUIPMENT

a. In the interest of vehicular and public safety, the commission may study the need for or desirability of the establishment of or changes in performance requirements or restrictions for any item of equipment. As a result of such study, the commission may publish a report relating to any item or items of equipment, and the issuance of such a report shall be a condition precedent to any proceedings or other action provided or authorized by this article. No less than sixty days after the publication of a report containing the results of such study, the commission upon due notice shall hold a hearing or hearings at such place or places as it may determine.

b. Following the hearing or hearings provided for in subdivision “a” of this article, and with due regard for standards recommended by appropriate professional and technical associations and agencies, the commission may issue rules, regulations or codes embodying performance requirements or restrictions for any item or items of equipment covered in the report, which in the opinion of the commission will be fair and equitable and effectuate the purposes of this compact.

c. Each party state obligates itself to give due consideration to any and all rules, regulations and codes issued by the commission and hereby declares its policy and intent to be the promotion of uniformity in the laws of the several party states relating to equipment.

d. The commission shall send prompt notice of its action in issuing any rule, regulation or code pursuant to this article to the appropriate motor vehicle agency of each party state and such notice shall contain the complete text of the rule, regulation or code.

c. If the constitution of a party state requires, or if its statutes provide, the approval of the legislature by appropriate resolution or act may be made a condition precedent to the taking effect in such party state of any rule, regulation or code. In such event, the commissioner of such party state shall submit any commission rule, regulation or code to the legislature as promptly as may be in lieu of administrative acceptance or rejection thereof by the party state.

d. Except as otherwise specifically provided in or pursuant to subdivisions “e” and “g” of this article, the appropriate motor vehicle agency of a party state shall in accordance with its constitution or procedural laws adopt the rule, regulation or code within six months of the sending of the notice, and, upon such adoption, the rule, regulation or code shall have the force and effect of law therein.

e. The appropriate motor vehicle agency of a party state may decline to adopt a rule, regulation or code issued by the commission pursuant to this article if such agency specifically finds, after public hearing on due notice, that a variation from the commission's rule, regulation or code is necessary to the public safety, and incorporates in such finding the reasons upon which it is based. Any such finding shall be subject to review by such procedure for review of administrative determinations as may be applicable pursuant to the laws of the party state. Upon request, the commission shall be furnished with a copy of the transcript of any hearings held pursuant to this subdivision.

ARTICLE VI—FINANCE

a. The commission shall submit to the executive head or designated officer or officers of each party state a budget of its estimated expenditures for such period as may be required by the laws of that party state for presentation to the legislature thereof.

b. Each of the commission's budgets of estiimated expenditures shall contain specific recommendations of the amount or amounts to be appropriated by each of the party states.
The total amount of appropriations under any such budget shall be apportioned among the party states as follows: One-third in equal shares; and the remainder in proportion to the number of motor vehicles registered in each party state. In determining the number of such registrations, the commission may employ such source or sources of information as in its judgment present the most equitable and accurate comparisons among the party states. Each of the commission's budgets of estimated expenditures and requests for appropriations shall indicate the source or sources used in obtaining information concerning vehicular registrations.

c. The commission shall not pledge the credit of any party state. The commission may meet any of its obligations in whole or in part with funds available to it under Article III "h" of this compact, provided that the com-mision takes specific action setting aside such funds prior to incurring any obligation to be met in whole or in part in such manner. Except where the commission makes use of funds available to it under Article III "h" hereof, the commission shall not incur any obligation prior to the allotment of funds by the party states adequate to meet the same.

d. The commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the commission shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established under its rules. However, all receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the commission shall be audited yearly by a qualified public accountant and the report of the audit shall be included in and become part of the annual reports of the commission.

e. The accounts of the commission shall be open at any reasonable time for inspection by duly constituted officers of the party states and by any persons authorized by the commission.

f. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent commission compliance with laws relating to audit or inspection of accounts by or on behalf of any government contributing to the support of the commission.

ARTICLE VII—CONFLICT OF INTEREST

a. The commission shall adopt rules and regulations with respect to conflict of interest for the commissioners of the party states, and their alternates, if any, and for the staff of the commission and contractors with the commission to the end that no member or employee or contractor shall have a pecuniary or other incompatible interest in the manufacture, sale or distribution of motor vehicles or vehicular equipment or in any facility or enterprise employed by the commission or on its behalf for testing, conduct of investigations or research.
In addition to any penalty for violation of such rules and regulations as may be applicable under the laws of the violator's jurisdiction of residence, employment or business, any violation of a commission rule or regulation adopted pursuant to this article shall require the immediate discharge of any violating employee and the immediate vacating of membership, or relinquishing of status as a member on the com-mision by any commissioner or alternate. In the case of a contractor, any violation of any such rule or regulation shall make any contract of the violator with the commission subject to cancellation by the commission.

b. Nothing contained in this article shall be deemed to prevent a contractor for the commission from using any facilities subject to his control in the performance of the contract even though such facilities are not devoted solely to work of or done on behalf of the

ARTICLE VIII—ADVISORY AND TECHNICAL COMMITTEES

The commission may establish such advisory and technical committees as it may deem necessary, membership on which may include private citizens and public officials, and may co-operate with and use the services of any such committees and the organizations which the members represent in furthering any of its activities.

ARTICLE IX—ENTRY INTO FORCE AND WITHDRAWAL

a. This compact shall enter into force when enacted into law by any six or more states. Thereafter, this compact shall become effective as to any other state upon its enactment thereof.

b. Any party state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same, but no such withdrawal shall take effect until one year after the executive head of the withdrawing state has given notice in writing of the withdrawal to the executive heads of all other party states. No withdrawal shall affect any liability already incurred by or chargeable to a party state prior to the time of such withdrawal. [C66, 71,§321D.1]

321D.2 Enforcement. The agencies and officers of this state and its subdivisions and municipalities shall enforce this compact and do all things appropriate to effect its purpose and intent which may be within their respective jurisdictions. [C66, 71,§321D.2]

Referred to in §§321E.8, 321E.9

321E.1 Permits by highway commission.

The state highway commission and local authorities may in their discretion and upon application and with good cause being shown therefor issue permits for the movement of vehicles with indivisible loads carried thereon which exceed the maximum dimensions and weights specified in sections 321.452 through 321.466, but not to exceed the limitations imposed in sections 321E.1 through 321E.15. Permits so issued may be single-trip permits or annual permits. All permits shall be in writing and shall be carried in the cab of the vehicle for which the permit has been issued and shall be available for inspection at all times. When in the judgment of the issuing local authority in cities, towns, and counties the movement of a vehicle with an indivisible load which exceeds the maximum dimensions and weights will be unduly hazardous to public safety or will cause undue damage to streets, avenues, boulevards, thoroughfares, highways, curbs, sidewalks, trees, or other public or private property, the permit shall be denied and the reasons therefor endorsed upon the application. Permits issued by local authorities shall designate the days when and routes upon which loads may be moved within the county on other than primary roads. The permit holder shall further show that he has a good and substantial defense to the action and may appear and answer the allegations made against him. Thereupon, the proceedings may be had as if the permit holder had appeared in due time and no order had been entered. Any such condition, agreement, or understanding between any manufacturer or distributor and a motor vehicle dealer in this state is hereby declared to be against the public policy of this state and to be unlawful and void.

5. No manufacturer or distributor of motor vehicles or any agent or representative of such manufacturer or distributor, shall terminate or threaten to terminate, or fail to renew any contract, agreement, or understanding for the sale of new motor vehicles to any motor vehicle dealer in this state without just, reasonable and lawful cause therefor or because such motor vehicle dealer failed to sell, assign, or transfer any retail installment contract arising from the retail sale of such motor vehicles or any one or more of them to a person or a class of persons designated by such manufacturer or distributor. Provided, however, that the provisions of this subsection relating to “failure to renew” shall not apply to any contract, agreement, or understanding, which is for a term of five or more years.

6. No person, who is engaged in the business of selling at retail motor vehicles, shall make and enter into a retail installment contract unless such contract meets the following requirements:

a. Every retail installment contract shall be in writing, shall be signed by both the buyer and the seller and shall be completed as to all essential provisions prior to the signing of the contract by the buyer except that, if delivery of the motor vehicle is not made at the time of the execution of the contract, the identifying numbers or marks of the motor vehicle or similar information and the due date of the first installment may be inserted in the contract after its execution.

b. The printed portion of the contract, other than instructions for completion, shall be in at least eight point type. The contract shall contain, directly above the buyer’s signature, and in a size equal to at least ten point bold type:

(1) The following notice: “Notice to the Buyer: Do not sign this contract before you read it or if it contains any blank spaces. You are entitled to an exact copy of the contract you sign.”

(2) An acknowledgment by the buyer of delivery of a copy of the contract.

c. The retail installment contract shall contain the following items:

(1) The cash sale price of the motor vehicle which is the subject matter of the retail installment transaction;

(2) The amount of the buyer’s down payment, whether made in money or goods, or partly in money and partly in goods;

(3) The difference between items one and two;

(4) The amount, if any, separately included for insurance and other benefits specifying the types of coverage and benefits;

(5) Official fees as defined in subsection 13 of section 322.2;

(6) Principal balance, which is the sum of item three, item four and item five;

(7) The amount of the finance charge;

(8) The balance, which is the sum of items six and seven, owed by the buyer to the seller and the number of installments required and the amount and date of each payment necessary finally to pay such balance; provided, however, the amount and date of each payment need not be separately listed if the payments are specified in terms of a series of payments of specified amounts, payable at specified intervals of time from an initial date.

The above items need not be stated in the sequence or order set forth, and additional items may be included to explain the calculations involved in determining the stated time price to be paid by the buyer.

d. The amount, if any, included for insurance, which may be purchased by the holder of the retail installment contract, shall not exceed the applicable premiums chargeable in accordance with the rates filed with the commissioner of insurance.

e. The retail installment contract shall provide that any buyer may pay in full at any time before maturity the debt of such contract and in so paying such debt shall receive for such anticipation of payments a refund credit in an amount which shall represent at least as great a proportion of the finance charge after first deducting from such finance charge an acquisition cost of twenty-five dollars, as the sum of the periodic time balances after the month in which prepayment is made, bears to the sum of all the periodic time balances under the schedule of payments in the original contract; provided, however, that if the amount of the credit is less than one dollar no refund need be made.

f. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to require that a place of business as defined in this chapter shall be maintained by a person selling motor vehicles at retail solely for the purpose of disposing of motor vehicles acquired or repossessed by such person in exercise of powers or rights granted by lien or title-retention instruments or contracts given as security for loans or purchase money obligations.
§322.3, MOTOR VEHICLE MANUFACTURERS, DISTRIBUTORS, DEALERS
8. No manufacturer or distributor of motor vehicles or agent or representative of such manufacturer or distributor shall coerce or attempt to coerce any motor vehicle dealer to accept delivery of any motor vehicle or vehicles, parts, or accessories thereof, or any other commodity or commodities which shall not have been ordered by such dealer.

9. No person licensed under this chapter shall, either directly or through an agent, salesman or employee, engage in this state, or represent or advertise that he is engaged or intends to engage in this state, in the business of buying or selling at retail new or used motor vehicles on the first day of the week, commonly known and designated as Sunday. 322.4 Application for license. Each person before engaging in this state in the business of selling at retail motor vehicles or representing or advertising that he is engaged or intends to engage in such business in this state shall file in the office of the department an application for license as a motor vehicle dealer in the state in such form as the department may prescribe, duly verified by oath, which application shall include the following:

1. The name of the applicant and his principal place of business wherever situated.
   a. If the applicant is an individual—the name or style under which he intends to engage in such business.
   b. If the applicant is a copartnership—the name or style under which such copartnership intends to engage in such business and the name and post-office address of each partner.
   c. If the applicant is a corporation—the state of incorporation and the name and post-office address of each officer and director thereof.

2. The make or makes of new motor vehicles, if any, which the applicant will offer for sale to retail in this state.

3. The location of each place of business within this state to be used by the applicant for the conduct of his business.

4. If the applicant is a party to any contract or agreement or understanding with any manufacturer or distributor of motor vehicles or is about to become a party to such a contract, agreement, or understanding, the applicant shall state the name of each such manufacturer and distributor and the make or makes of new motor vehicles, if any, which are the subject matter of each such contract.

5. A statement of the previous history, record, and association of the applicant and if the applicant is a copartnership, of each partner thereof and if the applicant is a corporation, of each officer and director thereof, which statement shall be sufficient to establish to the department the reputation in business of the applicant.

6. A description of the general plan and method of doing business in this state, which the applicant will follow if the license applied for in such application is granted.

7. A financial statement of the applicant showing his true financial condition as of a date not more than six months prior to the date of such application. Before the issuance of a motor vehicle dealer’s license to a dealer engaged in the sale of vehicles for which a certificate of title is required, under the provisions of chapter 321, the applicant for such license shall furnish a surety bond executed by the applicant as principal and executed by a corporate surety company, licensed and qualified to do business within this state, which bond shall run to the state of Iowa, be in the amount of ten thousand dollars and be conditioned upon the faithful compliance by said applicant as a dealer, if the license be issued to it or him, that such dealer will comply with all of the statutes of this state regulating or being applicable to the business of said dealer as a dealer in motor vehicles, and indemnify the department from any loss or damage occasioned by the failure of such dealer to comply with any of the provisions of chapter 321 and this chapter, including, but not limited to, the furnishing of a proper and valid certificate of title to the motor vehicle involved in any such transaction, and that such bond shall be filed with the department prior to the issuance of license provided by law. The aggregate liability of the surety of all persons, however, shall in no event exceed the amount of said bond.

Applicable to all licenses issued beginning with 1968

8. Such other information touching the business of the applicant as the department may require.

For the purpose of investigating the matters contained in such application the department may withhold the granting of a license for a period not exceeding thirty days. [C39, §5039.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§322.4]

322.5 License fee. The license fee for a motor vehicle dealer for each calendar year or part thereof shall be the sum of thirty-five dollars for the licensee’s principal place of business in each city, town, or township and an additional five dollars for each used-car lot which is in the city, town, or township wherein said place of business is located and which is not adjacent to such place, to be paid to the department at the time a license is applied for. In case the application is denied, the department shall refund the amount of such fee to the applicant. [C39,§5039.05; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§322.5]

322.6 Denial of license. The department shall deny the application of any person for a license as a motor vehicle dealer, and refuse to issue a license to him as such, if, after reasonable notice and a hearing, the department determines that such applicant:

1. Has made a material false statement in his application for the license; or
2. Has not complied with the provisions of this chapter or any rules or regulations promulgated by the department thereunder except as otherwise provided; or
3. Is of bad business repute; or
4. Has been guilty of a fraudulent act in connection with selling, bartering, or otherwise dealing in motor vehicles; or

7. Has a contract or agreement with any manufacturer or distributor of motor vehicles or is about to enter into a contract or agreement with any manufacturer or distributor of motor vehicles, who without just, reasonable, and lawful cause therefor, has terminated within ninety days from the date of application a contract or agreement with a motor vehicle dealer in any county of the state in which the applicant proposes to engage in business;
8. Does not have a place of business within the meaning of this chapter unless applicant is a person referred to in subsection 7 of section 322.3;
9. Has violated any of the provisions of sections 321.77, 321.78, 321.80, 321.81, 321.92, 321.97, 321.98, 321.99, 321.100, 539.4 and 713.24.

It shall be sufficient cause for refusal or revocation of a license as a motor vehicle dealer in the case of a partnership or corporation if any member of the partnership or any officer or director of the corporation has committed any act or omission which would be cause for refusing or revoking a license to such person as an individual.

In considering whether or not a contract or agreement between a motor vehicle dealer and a manufacturer or distributor of motor vehicles has been terminated by such manufacturer or distributor without just and reasonable cause therefor, the department shall take into consideration the circumstances existing at the time of such termination, including the amount of business transacted by the motor vehicle dealer pursuant to the contract or agreement and prior to such termination; the investment necessarily made and the obligation necessarily incurred by the motor vehicle dealer in the performance of his part of such contract; the permanency of such investment; the reasons for such termination by such manufacturer or distributor and the fact that it is injurious to the public welfare for the business of a motor vehicle dealer to be disrupted by termination of such contract without just and reasonable cause.

Whenever the department determines to deny the application of any person for a license as a motor vehicle dealer and refuses to issue a license to him as such, the department shall enter a final order thereof with its findings relating thereto within thirty days from the date of the hearing thereon. (C39, §5039.06; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §322.6) Referred to in §§521.9, 322.9

322.7 License of motor vehicle dealer.
1. If the department grants the application of any person for a license as a motor vehicle dealer, it shall evidence the granting thereof by a final order and shall issue to the person a license in such form as may be prescribed by the department, which license shall include the following:
   a. The name of the person licensed.
   b. If the applicant is an individual or a copartnership—the name and style under which the license will engage in such business and if a copartnership, the name and address of each partner.
   c. The principal place of business of the licensee and location therein of each place wherein the licensee is licensed to carry on such business.
   d. The make or makes of new motor vehicles which the licensee is licensed to sell.
2. The instrument evidencing the license or a certified copy thereof provided by the department shall be kept posted conspicuously in the principal office of the licensee and in each place of business maintained and operated by the applicant pursuant to the license in this state.
3. The license of a motor vehicle dealer shall expire and terminate, unless sooner revoked or suspended, at the end of the calendar year in which it is granted.
4. The motor vehicle dealer license provided for in this chapter shall be renewed annually in the same manner and on payment of the same fee as in the case of the original license. Such renewal shall take effect on the first day of January of each year. (C39, §5039.07; C46, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §322.7)

322.8 Supplemental statements. Each motor vehicle dealer license shall promptly file with the department from time to time during the period of the license, statements supplemental to the statements contained in his application for license whenever any change shall occur in his personnel or in his plan or method of doing business or in the location of his place or places of business, so that the statements made in the application do, after such change, properly disclose the licensee's status and method and plan of doing business. The supplemental statement shall be in the form prescribed by the department and shall disclose such information as would have been required by this chapter if such changes had occurred prior to the licensee making application for a license.

If the department finds that the changes set forth in the supplemental statement do not violate the provisions of this chapter and it

§322.11 Injunctions. Whenever the department shall believe from evidence satisfactory to it that any person has or is now violating any provision of this chapter, the department may, in addition to any other remedy, bring an action in the name and on behalf of the state of Iowa against such person and any other person concerned in or in any way participating in or about to participate in practices or acts in violation of this chapter, to enjoin such person and said other person from continuing the same. In any such action, the department may apply for an order or judgment that any person be enjoined from continuing or engaging in any practice or act which would have been a ground for the denial of a license under section 322.6.

The department is hereby authorized to revoke or suspend the license of any retail motor vehicle dealer if, after notice and hearing, it finds that such license has been guilty of any act which would have been a ground for the denial of a license under section 322.6.

The department is further authorized to revoke or suspend the license of any retail motor vehicle dealer if, after notice and hearing, it finds that such license has been convicted or has forfeited bail on three charges of:

1. An appeal may be taken by any person interested from any final order of the department to the district court of the county in which he resides or in which his principal place of business is located, within thirty days after he shall have received notice from the department of such order.

2. The appeal shall be taken by a written notice to the department and served as an original notice. When said notice is so served it shall, with the return thereon, be filed in the office of the clerk of said district court, and docketed as other cases, with the appellant as plaintiff and the department as defendant. The plaintiff shall file with such clerk a bond for the use of the defendant, with sureties approved by such clerk and in an amount fixed by him, provided in no case shall the bond be less than fifty dollars, conditioned that the plaintiff shall perform the orders of the court.

3. The court shall hear the appeal in equity, determine anew all questions submitted to it on appeal from the order of the department, for the administration and enforcement of this chapter, in addition hereto and not inconsistent herewith. All rules and regulations shall be filed and entered by the department in its office in an indexed, permanent book or record, with the effective date thereof suitably indicated, and such book or record shall be a public document. Whenever a new rule or regulation is adopted by the department, a copy of the same shall be mailed by it to each licensee hereunder.

2. The department shall have power to prescribe the forms to be used in connection with the licensing of persons as herein provided. [C39.§5039.13; C16, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71.§322.13]

Any person who shall willfully and intentionally violate the provisions of subsection 6 of section 322.3 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to violations under subsection 5 of section 322.3. [C39.§5039.11; C16, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71.§322.11] 322.14 Amended Ch 1250, §9.113—65 GA

The buyer shall have the privilege of purchasing such insurance from an agent or broker of his own selection and of selecting an insurance company acceptable to the holder; but in such case the inclusion of the insurance premium in the retail installment contract shall be optional with the seller. If any insurance is canceled, unearned insurance premium refunds received by the holder shall be credited to the final maturing installments of the contract except to the extent applied toward payment for similar insurance protecting the interests of the buyer and the holder or either of them. [C58, 62, 66, 71.§322.18]

If any person shall refuse to obey any such subpoena, to give testimony, or to produce evidence as required thereby, any judge of the district court of the state of Iowa in and for Polk county may, upon application and proof of such refusal, make an order awarding process of subpoena or subpoena duces tecum, out of the said court, for the witness to appear before the commissioner and to give testimony, and to produce evidence as required thereby. [C58, 62, 66, 71, §322.25]

322.26 Short title. This chapter may be cited as the “Motor Vehicle Dealers Licensing Act.” [C39, §5039.16; C46, §322.16; C50, 54, §322.17; C58, 62, 66, 71, §322.26]

the change of location on the license without charge if it be within the same municipality.
A change of location to another municipality shall require a new license. [C66, 71,§322.30]

322A.31 Denial of license. The department may deny the application of any person for a

become effective in the same community, without diminution of the motor vehicle service formerly provided, or that the community cannot be reasonably expected to support such a dealership; provided, however, a franchiser may terminate a franchise for a particular line-make if the franchiser discontinues that line-make and a franchiser may terminate a franchise if the franchisee’s license as a motor vehicle dealer is revoked pursuant to the provisions of chapter 322. [C71, §322A.2]

322A.3 New franchise. In the event that a franchiser is permitted to terminate or not continue a franchise, and is further permitted not to enter into a franchise for the line-make in the community, no franchiser shall thereafter be entered into for the sale of motor vehicles of that line-make in the community, unless the franchiser has first established, in a hearing held under the provisions of this chapter, that there has been a change of circumstances so that the community at that time can be reasonably expected to support the dealership. [C71, §322A.3]

322A.4 Additional franchise. No franchiser shall enter into any franchise for the purpose of establishing an additional motor vehicle dealership in any community in which the same line-make is then represented, unless the franchiser has first established in a hearing held under the provisions of this chapter that there is good cause for such additional motor vehicle dealership under such franchise, and that it is in the public interest. [C71, §322A.4]

322A.5 Warranties. Every franchiser and franchisee shall fulfill the terms of any express or implied warranty concerning the sale of a motor vehicle to the public of the line-make which is the subject of a contract or franchise agreement between the parties. If it is determined by the district court that either the franchiser or franchisee, or both, have violated an express or implied warranty, the court shall add to any award or relief granted an additional award for reasonable attorney fees and other necessary expenses for maintaining the litigation. [C71, §322A.5]

322A.6 Application filed with commission. In the event that a franchiser seeks to terminate or not continue any franchise, or seeks to enter into a franchise establishing an additional motor vehicle dealership of the same line-make, the franchiser shall file an application with the commission for permission to terminate or not continue the franchise, or for permission to enter into a franchise for additional representation of the same line-make in that community. [C71, §322A.6]

322A.7 Commission to hold hearing. Upon receiving an application, the commission shall enter an order fixing a time, which shall be within ninety days of the date of such order, and place of hearing, and shall send by certified or registered mail, with return receipt requested, a copy of the order to the franchisee whose franchise the franchiser seeks to terminate or not continue. If the application requests permission to establish an additional motor vehicle dealership, a copy of the order shall be sent to all franchisees in the community who are then engaged in the business of offering to sell or selling the same line-make. Copies of orders shall be addressed to the franchisee at the place where the business is conducted. The commission may also give notice of franchiser’s application to any other parties whom the commission may deem interested persons, such notice to be in the form and substance and given in the manner the commission deems appropriate.

Any person who can show an interest in the application may become a party to the hearing, whether or not he receives notice; provided, however, a party not receiving notice shall be limited to participation at the hearing on the question of the public interest in the termination or continuation of the franchise or in the establishment of an additional motor vehicle dealership. [C71, §322A.7]

322A.8 Continuation. If the commission finds it desirable it may upon request continue the date of hearing for a period of ninety days, and may upon application, but not ex parte, continue the date of hearing for an additional period of ninety days. [C71, §322A.8]

322A.9 Burden of proof. Upon hearing, the franchiser shall have the burden of proof to establish that under the provisions of this chapter he should be granted permission to terminate or not continue the franchise, or to enter into a franchise establishing an additional motor vehicle dealership.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to require or authorize any investigation by the commission of any matter before the commission under this chapter. Upon hearing the commission shall hear the evidence introduced by the parties and shall make its decision solely upon the record so made. [C71, §322A.9]

322A.10 Rules of evidence. The rules of civil procedure relating to discovery and inspection shall apply to hearings held under the provisions of this chapter, and the commission may issue orders to give effect to such rules.

In the event issues are raised which would involve violations of any state or federal antitrust or price-fixing law, all discovery and inspection proceedings which would be available under such issues in a state or federal court action shall be available to the parties to the hearing, and the commission may issue orders to give effect to such proceedings.

Evidence which would be admissible under the issues in a state or federal court action is admissible in a hearing held by the commission. The commission shall apportion all costs between the parties. [C71, §322A.10]
322A.11 Condition barring change in franchise. Notwithstanding the terms, provisions or conditions of any agreement or franchise, the following shall not constitute good cause for the termination or noncontinuation of a franchise, or for entering into a franchise for the establishment of an additional dealership in a community for the same line-make:

1. The sole fact that franchiser desires further penetration of the market.
2. The change of ownership of the franchisee's dealership or the change of executive management of the franchisee's dealership, unless the franchiser, having the burden of proof, proves that such change of ownership or executive management will be substantially detrimental to the distribution of franchiser's motor vehicles in the community.
3. The fact that the franchisee refused to purchase or accept delivery of any motor vehicle or vehicles, parts, accessories or any other commodity or service not ordered by the franchiser. [C71,§322A.11]

Referred to in §§:322A.12, 322A.13

322A.12 Sale or transfer of ownership. Notwithstanding the terms, provisions or conditions of any agreement or franchise, subject to the provisions of subsection 2 of section 322A.11, in the event of the sale or transfer of ownership of the franchisee's dealership by sale or transfer of the business or by stock transfer or in the event of change in the executive management of the franchisee's dealership the franchiser shall give effect to such a change in the franchise unless the transfer of the franchisee's license under chapter 322 is denied or the new owner is unable to obtain a license under said chapter, as the case may be. [C71,§322A.12]

322A.13 Compulsory attendance at hearings. The commission may issue subpoenas, administer oaths, compel the attendance of witnesses and production of books, papers, documents, and all other evidence. The commission may apply to the district court of the county wherein the hearing is being held for a court order enforcing this section. [C71,§322A.13]

322A.14 License to dealer denied. In the event that a franchiser enters into or attempts to enter into a franchise, whether upon termination or refusal to continue another franchise or upon the establishment of an additional motor vehicle dealership in a community where the same line-make is then represented, without first complying with the provisions of this chapter, no license under chapter 322 shall be issued to that franchisee or proposed franchiser to engage in the business of selling motor vehicles manufactured or distributed by that franchiser. [C71,§322A.14]

322A.15 Commission's guidelines. In determining whether good cause has been established for terminating or not continuing a franchise, the commission shall take into consideration the existing circumstances, including, but not limited to:

1. Amount of business transacted by the franchisor.
2. Investment necessarily made and obligations incurred by the franchisor in performance of his part of the franchise.
3. Permanency of the investment.
4. Whether it is injurious to the public welfare for the business of the franchisee to be disrupted.
5. Whether the franchisee has adequate motor vehicle service facilities, equipment, parts and qualified service personnel to reasonably provide consumer care for the motor vehicles sold at retail by the franchisee and any other motor vehicles of the same line-make.
6. Whether the franchisee refuses to honor warranties of the franchisor to be performed by the franchisee, provided that the franchisor reimburses the franchisee for such warranty work performed by the franchisee.
7. Except as provided in section 322A.11, failure by the franchisee to substantially comply with those requirements of the franchise which are determined by the commission to be reasonable and material.
8. Except as provided in section 322A.11, bad faith by the franchisee in complying with those terms of the franchise which are determined by the commission to be reasonable and material. [C71,§322A.15]

322A.16 Commission's additional guidelines. In determining whether good cause has been established for entering into an additional franchise for the same line-make, the commission shall take into consideration the existing circumstances, including, but not limited to:

1. Amount of business transacted by other franchisees of the same line-make in that community.
2. Investment necessarily made and obligations incurred by other franchisees of the same line-make, in that community, in the performance of their part of their franchises.
3. Permanency of the investment.
4. Effect on the retail motor vehicle business as a whole in that community.
5. Whether it is injurious to the public welfare for an additional franchise to be established.
6. Whether the franchisees of the same line-make in that community are providing adequate consumer care for the motor vehicles of the line-make which shall include the adequacy of motor vehicle service facilities, equipment, supply of parts and qualified service personnel. [C71,§322A.16]

322A.17 Appeal. Any party to a hearing before the commission may take an appeal from any final order entered in such hearing in the manner provided for appeals in section 322.10. [C71,§322A.17]

MOTOR FUEL TAX, §324.2

324.1 Short title. This division, plus applicable provisions of division IV of this chapter and any amendments to either shall be known and may be cited as the "Motor Fuel Tax Law", and as so constituted is hereinafter referred to as this division. [C35, §5093-f40; C39, §5093.39; C46, §321.06; C58, §321.66; C58, §62, 66, 71, §324.11]

324.2 Definitions. As employed in this division:

1. "Motor fuel" shall mean (a) all products commonly or commercially known or sold as gasoline (including casinghead and absorption or natural gasoline) regardless of their classifications or uses; and (b) any liquid advertised, offered for sale, sold for use, or commonly or commercially used as a fuel for propelling motor vehicles, which when subjected to distillation of gasoline, naphtha, kerosene and similar petroleum products (American Society of Testing Materials Designation D-86), show not less than ten per centum distilled (recovered) below three hundred forty-seven degrees Fahrenheit (one hundred seventy-five degrees Centigrade) and not less than ninety-five per centum distilled (recovered) below four hundred sixty-four degrees Fahrenheit (two hundred forty degrees Centigrade); provided, that the term "motor fuel" shall not include special fuel as defined in section 324.33, subsection 1, and shall not include liquefied gases which would not exist as liquids at a temperature of sixty degrees Fahrenheit and a pressure of one hundred forty-eight pounds per square inch absolute, nor naphthas and solvents as hereinafter defined unless the liquefied gases or naphthas and solvents are used as a component in the manufacture, compounding, or blending of a liquid within (b) above, in which event the resulting product shall be deemed to be motor fuel.

2. "Distributor" shall mean and include any person who first receives motor fuel within this state (within the meaning of the word "received" as hereinafter defined), and any person now or hereafter engaged in the business of selling motor fuel to a dealer in this state for resale, and shall include any person who sells special fuel as defined in section 324.33, subsection 1 in bulk for highway use provided that a person may bring into this state not to exceed twenty gallons of motor fuel in the fuel supply tank, or any other container, directly connected to the motor of a motor vehicle without becoming a distributor.

3. "Licensee" shall mean and include any person holding an uncanceled distributor's license issued by the department of revenue under this division or any prior motor fuel tax law.
Except as hereinbefore set forth, the word "received" shall be given its usual and customary meaning.

6. "Naphthas and solvents" shall mean and include those liquids which come within the distillation specifications for motor fuel set out under (b) of subsection 1 of this section, but which are designed and sold for exclusive use other than as a fuel for propelling motor vehicles. [C27, §5093-a2; C35, §5093-f2; C39, §5093-102; C46, 50, 54, §821.1; C58, 62, 66, 71, §324.2]

324.2 Distillation specifications for motor fuel include those liquids which come within the ordinary meaning.

6. "Motor fuel" shall mean and include all liquids which are suitable for use as a fuel for propelling motor vehicles, and shall include propylene, ethylene, butylene, and other similar hydrocarbons, which are liquid or partially liquid at ordinary temperatures and are used as motor fuel. [C27, §5093-a2; C35, §5093-f2; C39, §5093-102; C46, 50, 54, §821.1; C58, 62, 66, 71, §324.2]

324.3 Levy of excise tax—exemptions—credits. For the privilege of operating motor vehicles in this state an excise tax of seven cents a gallon is hereby imposed upon the use of all motor fuel used for any purpose except as otherwise provided in this division. The tax shall be paid in the first instance by the distributor upon the invoiced gallonage of all motor fuel received by him in this state, within the meaning of the word "received" as defined in this division, less the deductions hereinafter authorized. Thereafter, except as otherwise provided, the per gallon amount of such tax shall be added to the selling price of each and every gallon of such motor fuel sold in this state and collected from the purchaser to the end that the ultimate consumer shall bear the burden of such tax; provided, however, that no tax shall be imposed or collected under this division with respect to the following:

1. Motor fuel sold for export or exported from this state to any other state, territory, or foreign country.
2. Motor fuel sold to the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof.
3. Motor fuel sold to any post exchange or other concessionaire on any federal reservation within this state; but the tax on motor fuel so sold, to the extent permitted by federal law, shall be collected by the post exchange or concessionaire, reported and paid to the department of revenue.
4. Motor fuel sold to the state of Iowa or any of its agencies, but this exemption shall not apply to political subdivisions of this state. [C27, §5093-a2; C35, §5093-f2; C39, §5093-102; C46, 50, 54, §821.1; C58, 62, 66, 71, §324.2]

324.4 Distributor's license. It shall be unlawful for any person to receive motor fuel within this state or to otherwise act as a distributor or to sell special fuel in bulk for high-way use unless he holds an uncanceled distributor's license issued by the department of revenue. To procure a license a distributor shall file with the department of revenue an application signed under penalty for false certificate and in such form as the department of revenue may prescribe, setting forth:

1. The name under which the distributor will transact business in the state of Iowa.
2. The location, with street number address, of the principal office or place of business of the distributor within this state.
3. The name and complete residence address of the owner or the names and addresses of the partners, if the distributor is a partnership, or the names and addresses of the principal officers, if the distributor is a corporation or association.

Concurrently with the filing of an application for a license, every distributor shall file with the department of revenue a bond of the character and in the amount provided for in this division. No license shall be issued unless application is accompanied by the bond, nor, if the applicant is a foreign corporation, unless it is at the time properly qualified under the laws of this state to do business therein.

If (a) any application for a license to transact business as a distributor in this state shall be filed by any person whose license shall have been canceled for cause at any time theretofore under the provisions of the chapter or any prior motor fuel tax law, or (b) the department of revenue shall be of the opinion that such application is not filed in good faith, or (c) the application is filed by some person as a subterfuge for the real person in interest whose license or registration shall theretofore have been canceled for cause under the provisions of this chapter or any prior motor fuel tax law, the department of revenue, after a hearing of which the applicant shall have been given fifteen days' notice in writing and in which said applicant shall have the right to appear in person or by counsel and present testimony, shall have and is hereby given the right and authority to refuse to issue to the applicant a distributor's license.

Upon the filing of the application, a filing fee of ten dollars shall be paid to the department of revenue.

The application in proper form having been accepted for filing, the filing fee paid, the bond having been accepted and approved and the other conditions and requirements of this section having been complied with, the department of revenue shall issue to the applicant a license to transact business as a distributor in this state. The license shall remain in full force and effect until canceled as provided in this chapter.

The license shall not be assignable, and shall be valid only for the distributor in whose name issued, and shall be displayed conspicuously in the principal place of business of the distributor in this state.

The department of revenue shall keep and file all applications and bonds with an alphabetical index thereof, together with a record of all licenses. [C31, §5093-c2; C35, §§5093-f5, 67; C39, §§5093-105, 5093-07; C46, 50, 54, §§324.5, 324.6, 324.8-324.10; C58, 62, 66, 71, §324.4]

Referred to in §324.4.
324.5 Permissive licensing of bulk storers as distributors. Any person other than a distributor as hereinbefore defined having bulk storage in this state for rail tank car or four thousand gallon or more transport loads of motor fuel for use or for distribution in bulk by tank truck or tank car, or both, may, subject to and upon compliance with the provisions of section 324.4, also be licensed as a distributor and thereby for all purposes of this division shall be deemed to be the distributor with respect to any motor fuel "received" by him while the license remains in effect.

324.7 Security required of licensed distributor.

1. Every distributor shall file with the department of revenue a bond:
   a. In an amount to be determined by the department of revenue not less than two thousand dollars nor more than five hundred thousand dollars on a form to be approved by the department of revenue.
   b. With a surety company approved by the department of revenue as surety thereon.
   c. Upon which the distributor shall be the principal obligor and the state of Iowa shall be the obligee.
   d. Conditioned upon the prompt filing of true reports and the payment by the distributor to the department of revenue of any and all motor fuel excise taxes which are now or which hereafter may be levied or imposed by the state of Iowa, together with any and all penalties and interest thereon, or either, and generally upon faithful compliance with the provisions of this division.

Referred to in §324.36(4)

2. The department of revenue shall contract annually with the lowest responsible bidder licensed to do business in Iowa for surety bonds to be filed by distributors. The premiums on the surety bonds contracted for by the department of revenue shall be paid from the funds appropriated by section 321.77.

Referred to in §324.36(4)

3. In the event that liability upon the bond thus filed by a distributor shall be discharged or reduced, whether by judgment rendered, payment made or otherwise, or if in the opinion of the department of revenue any surety on the bond theretofore given shall have become unsatisfactory or unacceptable, then the department of revenue shall require the distributor to file a new bond meeting the requirements in subsection 1. If the new bond is not filed within ten days after demand therefor, the department of revenue shall forthwith cancel the license of the distributor. If a new bond shall be furnished by the distributor as above provided, the department of revenue shall release in writing the surety under the old bond from any liability accruing after the effective date of the new bond.

4. In the event that upon hearing, of which the distributor shall be given five days' notice in writing, the department of revenue shall decide that the amount of the existing bond is insufficient to insure payment to the state of Iowa of the amount of the tax and any penalties and interest for which the distributor is or may at any time become liable, then the distributor shall forthwith, upon the written demand of the department of revenue, file a new bond meeting the requirements in subsection 1 and in such amount, not to exceed in total five hundred thousand dollars, as is determined by the department of revenue to be necessary to secure at all times the required reports and payments. If the new bond is not filed within ten days after demand therefor, the department of revenue shall forthwith cancel the license of the distributor.

5. Any surety on bond furnished by distributor shall be released and discharged from any and all liability to the state of Iowa accruing on the bond after the expiration of sixty days from the date upon which such surety shall have lodged with the department of revenue written request to be released and discharged; provided, however, that the request shall not operate to relieve, release or discharge the surety from any liability already accrued, or which shall accrue, before the expiration of the sixty-day period. The department of revenue shall promptly on receipt of notice of the request notify the distributor who furnished the bond, and unless the distributor shall on or before expiration of the sixty-day period file with the department of revenue a new bond with a surety company satisfactory to the department of revenue in the amount and form hereinbefore in this section provided, the department of revenue shall forthwith cancel the license of said distributor.

6. In lieu of a surety bond in excess of the minimum amount the department of revenue may accept a financial statement of the distributor showing ability to make any and all payments that may be due from the distributor under this division. [C31, §5093-c:2; C55, §§5093-f7, 10, 11; C39, §§5093.07, 5093.10, 5093.11; C46, 50, 51, §§324.10, 324.19; C58, 62, 66, 71, §324.7]

324.8 Tax reports—computation and payment of tax—credits. For the purpose of determining the amount of his liability for the tax herein imposed, each distributor shall, not later than the last day of the month next following the month in which this division becomes effective and not later than the last day of each calendar month thereafter, file with the department of revenue a monthly report, signed under penalty for false certificate, which shall include the following:
§324.8, MOTOR FUEL TAX

1. A statement of the number of invoiced gallons of motor fuel received (within the meaning of the term "received" as defined in this division) by the distributor within this state during the next preceding calendar month in such detail as is prescribed by the department of revenue and as may be necessary for the proper administration of this division.

2. A statement showing the deductions authorized in this division in such detail and with such supporting evidence as is prescribed by the department of revenue and as may be for proper administration of this division.

3. Such other information as the department of revenue may require for the enforcement of this chapter.

At the time of filing each monthly report, each distributor shall pay to the department of revenue the full amount of the motor fuel tax due from the distributor for the next preceding calendar month computed as follows:

4. From the total number of invoiced gallons of motor fuel "received" by the distributor within the state during the next preceding calendar month shall be made the following deductions:

First, the gallonage of motor fuel received and thereafter sold within the exemptions provided for in section 324.3: and second, the number of gallons of motor fuel equal to three per centum of the first three hundred thousand gallons and one and one-quarter per centum of gallonage in excess of three hundred thousand gallons of invoiced gallons of motor fuel received by the distributor within this state during the next preceding calendar month, this percentage being a flat allowance to cover evaporation, shrinkage, and losses, other than those provided for in section 324.3, and the distributor's expenses and losses in collection, accounting for, and paying over the motor fuel tax.

5. The number of invoiced gallons remaining after the deductions hereinabove set forth shall be multiplied by the per gallon motor fuel tax rate and resulting figure shall be the amount of motor fuel tax in dollars and cents due from the distributor for the next preceding calendar month. Any outstanding credit memoranda issued by the department of revenue to the distributor may be applied against the amount due. [C27, §§5093-a5,b1; C35, §§5093-f9; C39, §§5093-f9; C46, 50, 54, §§324.13–324.15, 324.17, 324.29; C58, 62, 66, 71, §324.54]

324.9 Report from persons not licensed as distributors. Every person other than a licensed distributor, who shall purchase, bring into this state or otherwise acquire within this state motor fuel, not otherwise exempted, with respect to which such person has knowingly not paid or incurred liability to pay either to a licensee or to a dealer the motor fuel tax shall be subject with respect to the motor fuel to all the provisions of this division that apply to distributors on motor fuel received by them in this state and shall make the same reports and tax payments thereon and be subject to the same penalties for delinquent or nonreporting or delinquent or nonpayment as apply to distributors. [C31, §§5093-e2; C35, §§5093-f6; C39, §§5093-f6; C46, §§324.8, 324.9; C58, 62, 66, 71, §324.9]

324.10 Required distributor and special fuel distributor and dealer records. Each motor fuel distributor and special fuel distributor shall maintain and keep for a period of three years, such records of all transactions by which he receives, uses, sells, delivers or otherwise disposes of motor fuel within this state, together with invoices, bills of lading and other pertinent records and papers as may reasonably be required by the department of revenue for the administration of this division.

If in the normal conduct of a distributor's business his records are maintained and kept at an office outside the state of Iowa, it shall be a sufficient compliance with this section if the records are made available for audit and examination by the department of revenue at the office outside Iowa, but such audit and examination outside Iowa shall be without expense to the state.

Each dealer handling motor fuel in this state shall maintain and keep for a period of two years records of all motor fuel purchased or otherwise acquired by him, together with delivery tickets, invoices, and bills of lading, and such other pertinent records as the department of revenue shall require.

The department of revenue, after an audit and examination of the records of a distributor or dealer may authorize their disposal, the authorization to be in writing after request by the distributor or dealer. [C27, §§5093-a4,a5; C35, §§5093-f5,f8; C39, §§5093-f5,5093-f8; C46, 50, 54, §§324.7, 324.11; C58, 62, 66, 71, §324.10]

1. Currently as any vehicle is retired or its use for the transportation of motor fuel for others is discontinued, the registrant shall notify the department of revenue or at the direction of the department of revenue shall either surrender to the department of revenue or destroy the vehicle identification issued under this section. Annually on or before the first day of July of each year, each carrier as aforesaid shall file with the department of revenue a statement showing each registered vehicle then in use for transportation of motor fuel for others.

For the purpose of determining the amount of his liability for special fuel tax each special fuel dealer and each special fuel user shall file with the department of revenue not later than the last day of the month next following the month in which this division becomes effective and not later than the last day of each calendar month thereafter a monthly tax return certified under penalties for false certificate. The return shall show, with reference to each location at which special fuel is delivered or placed by the dealer or user into a fuel supply tank of any motor vehicle during the next preceding calendar month, such information as the department of revenue may reasonably require for the proper administration and enforcement of this division, provided, however, that if a special fuel dealer or user is also a wholesale distributor of special fuel at a location where special fuel is delivered into the supply tank of a motor vehicle, the monthly return to the department of revenue covering the location need not include inventory control data covering bulk storage from which wholesale distribution of special fuel is made.

2. Computation. The amount of tax due shall be computed by multiplying the appropriate tax rate per gallon by the number of gallons of special fuel delivered or placed by the special fuel dealer or user into supply tanks of motor vehicles.

3. Payments. The return shall be accompanied by remittance in the amount of the tax due for the month in which the special fuel was placed in the fuel tanks of motor vehicles.

4. Reporting exemption for authorized tax-paid purchases. Any special fuel dealer or user licensed under this division may upon application in writing to the department of revenue and at the discretion of the director of revenue, be authorized, subject to regulations prescribed by the department of revenue, to purchase on a tax-paid basis from any supplier licensed as a distributor under division I of this chapter all special fuel acquired by the dealer or user for subsequent delivery into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles. Every supplier so licensed who sells or delivers special fuel on a tax-paid basis to special fuel users or special fuel dealers authorized as aforesaid shall make a return of these tax-paid sales to the department of revenue accompanied by payment of the special fuel tax on the tax-paid gallonage so sold or delivered. The return and payment shall be made at the same time as the supplier’s motor fuel tax return or special fuel tax return for the month in which the covered sales or deliveries were made.

5. Exemption for fueling by licensed dealers. No return need be made by any special fuel user, not licensed as a special fuel dealer, whose entire use of special fuels in this state is limited solely to special fuels delivered into the fuel supply tanks of the user’s motor vehicles by special fuel dealers.

6. Presumption. For purposes of this section there shall be a prima-facie presumption that all special fuel received by a special fuel dealer or special fuel user into storage and dispensing equipment designed to fuel motor vehicles is to be delivered by the special fuel dealer or special fuel user into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles. DIVISION III
MOTOR FUEL AND SPECIAL FUEL USE TAX FOR INTERSTATE MOTOR VEHICLE OPERATIONS
Referred to in §§324.57, 324.58

324.50 Short title. This division and applicable provisions of division IV of this chapter and any amendments to either shall be known and may be cited as the “Interstate Fuel Use Tax Law,” and as so constituted is hereinafter referred to as this division. [C35, §§5093-f10; C39, §5093.39; C46, 50, 54, §324.66; C58, 62, 66, 71, §324.50]

324.51 Purpose. The purpose of this division is to provide an additional method of collecting fuel taxes from interstate motor vehicle operators commensurate with their operations on Iowa highways; and to permit the department of revenue to suspend this collection as to transportation entering Iowa from any other state where it appears that Iowa highway fuel tax revenue and interstate highway transportation moving out of Iowa will not be unduly prejudiced thereby. [C27, 31, §1735-b38, 5093-21; C39, §§5093.19; C46, 50, 54, §324.2; C58, 62, 66, 71, §324.51]

324.52 Fuels imported in supply tanks of motor vehicles. No person shall bring into this state in the fuel supply tanks of a commercial motor vehicle, or any other container, regardless of whether or not the supply tanks are connected to the motor of the vehicle, any motor fuel or special fuel to be used in the operation of the vehicle in this state unless he has paid or made arrangements in advance with the department of revenue for payment of Iowa fuel taxes on the gallonage consumed in operating the vehicle in this state; except that this division shall not apply to a private passenger automobile.

Any person who brings into the state in the fuel supply tanks of a commercial motor vehicle more than thirty gallons of motor fuel or special fuel in violation of the provisions of the preceding paragraph is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars or shall be imprisoned in the county jail not more than thirty days. [C39, §§5093-19, 5093.20; C46, 50, 54, §324.31, 324.37; C58, 62, 66, 71, §324.52]

324.53 Permit—bond. The advance arrangements referred to in the preceding section shall include the procuring of a permit and may in the discretion of the department of revenue include the posting of a suitable indemnity bond in a sum to be fixed by the department of revenue to assure the required reporting, tax payments and the keeping of required records.

Persons choosing not to make advance arrangements with the department of revenue by the procuring of a permit are not relieved of their responsibility to purchase motor fuel and special fuel commensurate with their use of the state's highway system. The department may audit persons not holding a permit who are suspected of evading the fuel tax on commercial motor vehicles. Audits shall be conducted pursuant to section 324.53.

Permit may be obtained upon application to the department of revenue. The department of revenue shall charge a fee of one dollar for each permit issued. The holder of a permit under this division shall have the privilege of bringing into this state in the fuel supply tanks of commercial motor vehicles any amount of motor fuel or special fuel to be used in the operation of the vehicles and for that privilege shall pay Iowa motor fuel or special fuel taxes as provided in section 324.54. Each vehicle operated into or through Iowa in interstate operations using motor fuel or special fuel acquired in any other state shall carry in or on each vehicle a duplicate or evidence of the permit required in this section. A visible sign of a compliance with this section may at the discretion of the director of revenue be attached to the outside of a commercial motor vehicle. A fee not to exceed fifty cents shall be charged by the department of revenue for each duplicate or other evidence of permit issued by him. [C35, §§5093-19, 5093.20; C46, 50, 54, §324.38; C58, 62, 66, 71, §324.53]

324.54 Fuel tax computation—refund—reporting and payment. Fuel tax liability under this division shall be computed on the total number of gallons of each kind of motor fuel and special fuel consumed in the operation in Iowa by commercial motor vehicles subject to this division at the same rate for each kind of fuel as would be applicable if taxed under division I or division II of this chapter. A refund against the fuel tax liability so computed shall be allowed, on excess Iowa motor fuel purchased, in the amount of fuel tax paid at the prevailing rate per gallon set out under division I or division II of this chapter on motor fuel and special fuel consumed by commercial motor vehicles, the operation of which is subject to this division.

Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to the contrary, the director, upon application filed with the motor vehicle fuel tax division, not later than ninety days after the last day of the month in which the overpayment of Iowa fuel tax paid on excess purchases of motor fuel or special fuel was reported as provided in section 321.8, and which application is supported by such proof as the director may require, shall cause to be issued a warrant covering a refund of Iowa fuel tax paid on motor fuel or special fuel purchased in excess of the amount consumed by such commercial motor vehicles in their operation on the highways of this state.

Application for a refund of fuel tax under the provisions of this division must be made for each individual month in which the excess payment was reported, and will not be allowed unless the amount of fuel tax paid on the fuel purchased in this state, in excess of that consumed for highway operation in this state in the month applied for, is in an amount exceeding ten dollars. An application for a refund of excess Iowa fuel tax paid under the provisions of this division which is filed for any period or in any manner other than herein set out shall not be allowed.

To determine the amount of fuel taxes due under this division and to prevent the evasion thereof, the director shall require a monthly report on forms prescribed by the director. It shall be filed not later than the last day of the month following the month reported, and each month thereafter. These reports shall be required of all persons who have been issued a permit under this division and shall cover actual operation and fuel consumption in Iowa on the basis of the permit holder's average consumption of fuel in Iowa, determined by the total miles traveled and the total fuel purchased and consumed for highway use by the permittee's commercial motor vehicles in his entire operation in all states to establish an over-all miles per gallon ratio, which ratio shall be used to compute the gallons used for the miles traveled in Iowa. [C27, §5093-b1; C35, §§5093-f18-f25; C39, §§3093.18, 5093.25; C46, 50, 54, §§324.32, 324.40; C58, 62, 66, 71, §324.54; 64A, ch 191, §1]

324.55 Records. Every person operating within the purview of this division shall make and keep for a period of three years such records as may reasonably be required by the department of revenue for the administration of this division. If in the normal conduct of the business, the required records are maintained and kept at an office outside the state of Iowa, it shall be a sufficient compliance with this section if the records are made available for audit and examination by the department of revenue at the office outside Iowa, but such audit and examination shall be without expense to the state of Iowa.

When, as a result of such audit and examination, fuel taxes unpaid and due are found owing the state of Iowa in an amount exceeding five hundred dollars such audit and expenses shall be without cost to the state of Iowa. The department of revenue within a period of one year from the issuance of a permit may audit the records of the permittee for the two years preceding the issuance of the permit. The department shall collect all taxes due the permittee licensed for the two years prior to the issuance of the permit and shall refund all excess credit that would have been paid pursuant to section 324.54. [C27, §5093-g1; C35, §§5093-f14-f21; C39, §§5093.14, 5093.21; C46, 50, 54, §§324.27, 324.28, 324.41; C58, 62, 66, 71, §324.55]

324.56 Not applicable to distributors. The provisions of this division shall not be required of a distributor licensed under division I of this chapter who elects to report and pay tax on motor fuel as is set out in division I and on special fuel as is set out in division II of this chapter, provided that a distributor so electing shall also report and pay Iowa fuel tax on motor fuel and special fuel purchased in another state which is used to propel a commercial motor vehicle owned or leased by the distributor on the highways of this state. Such distributor shall be allowed to enter this state with thirty gallons or more fuel in the supply tank of a commercial motor vehicle, but shall not be allowed any other provision of this division. 1. The amount of fuel taxes imposed by this chapter, including interest and penalty and costs that may accrue, shall be a lien in favor of the state upon franchises, property and rights to property, whether real or personal, then belonging to or thereafter acquired by a person liable for the payment of the fuel taxes from the date the taxes are due and payable as provided in this chapter and until the amount of the lien is paid or the property sold in payment thereof. Fuel tax liens shall have priority over any lien or encumbrance whatsoever except the lien of other state taxes having priority by law, and except that a fuel tax lien shall not have priority over any bona fide mortgage, pledge, attachment, or other personal property or debts until thirty days after the person notified shall neither transfer or dispose of any and all credits or personal property or debts until thirty days after the receipt of the notice unless the department of revenue consents to a previous transfer or disposition. At the expiration of the thirty-day period, the property shall be released, unless in the meantime it shall have been attached by process of court or the holder thereof garnished. All persons so notified, must, within five days after receipt of the notice, advise the department of revenue of any and all credits or personal property or debts in their possession or under their control belonging or owed to the licensee or other person from whom the fuel taxes are due.

4. When the property of a licensee is seized upon any mesne or final process of any court of this state or of the United States, or when the business of a licensee shall be suspended by the action of creditors or put into the hands of any assignee, receiver or trustee, or when a petition in voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy has been filed by or against a licensee, then and in all such cases, all fuel taxes collected by the licensee under the provisions of this chapter or due and owing to the state shall be considered and treated as preferred claims, and the state shall be a preferred creditor and shall be paid in full.

5. No sheriff, receiver, assignee, master or other officer shall sell the property or franchises of any licensee within thirty days after the department of revenue a statement containing the following information: Name or names of the plaintiff or party at whose instance or upon whose account the sale is made; name of the person whose property or franchise is to be sold; the time and place of sale; and the nature of the property and the location of the same. It shall be the duty of the department of revenue, after receiving notice as aforesaid, to furnish to the sheriff, receiver, trustee, assignee, master or other officer, having charge of the sale, a certified copy or copies of all assessments for fuel taxes, penalties, and interest on file in the department of revenue as liens against such person, and in the event there are no such liens a certificate showing that fact, which certified copy or copies of certificate shall be publicly read by such officer at and immediately before the sale of the property or franchise of such person.

6. It shall be the duty of the department of revenue to furnish to any person applying therefor a certificate showing the amount of all liens for fuel taxes, penalties, and interest that may be of record in the files of the department of revenue against any person under the provisions of this chapter.

7. It shall be the duty of the department of revenue, upon receipt of notice of the opening of the administration of an estate of any individual who was a licensee, to file a claim as a preferred creditor for all fuel taxes, penalties and interest due the state of Iowa, if any, in the court having jurisdiction over the administration of said estate. [C25,§5093-f13; C39,§5093-13; C46, 50, 54,§324.22-324.24; C58, 62, 66, §324.65; C71,§324.66]

324.67 Procedure when tax payment in default.

1. It shall be unlawful for any distributor to sell or offer for sale motor fuel or for any special fuel dealer or user to dispense or offer to dispense special fuel into a fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle, while in default of or delinquent in the payment of the whole or any part of fuel taxes imposed under this chapter, and in the event of the failure or refusal to pay the whole of any of these taxes after assessment and notice thereof by the department of revenue, the delinquent fuel taxes, together with penalties and interest provided for shall be recovered by and in the name of the state of Iowa and the attorney general of the state of Iowa or the county attorney of any county in which the distributor, dealer or user resides or is engaged in business is hereby authorized and directed to institute suit therefore in any court of competent jurisdiction against the distributor or special fuel dealer or user or his surety or sureties, if any, or both.

2. A fuel tax lien filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of any county may be foreclosed in the same manner as real estate mortgages foreclosed, and the court in the proceedings shall enter judgment against the licensee or other person for the amount found by the court to be due to the state, with interest and the penalty as assessed by the department of revenue, and may in the same proceedings foreclose on any security which the department of revenue may hold for the payment of the fuel taxes, and may in the same proceedings entertain suit on any bond filed as security for the payment of the fuel taxes.

3. In the event suit is instituted upon application made by the attorney general or other proper public official the court may issue a writ of injunction, without requiring bond, enjoining and restraining the defendant from engaging in any or all activities covered in subsection 1 of this section until any judgment and costs recovered in the suit or attached by the court shall have been paid, and the court shall, upon application therefor by the attorney general or other proper public official appoint a receiver of the property and business of the delinquent defendant, for the purpose of impounding the same as security for any judgment recovered. The delinquent fuel taxes, penalties and interest shall also be collectible and enforceable by a writ of attachment brought by the attorney general or other proper public officials in the name of the state of Iowa against the lands, goods, chattels, credits and other personal property of the defendant. No attachment shall be required, nor shall an indemnity bond be required or demanded by any officer serving the writ of attachment, and no officer shall be liable in damages on account of denying the attachment when acting under the direction of the attorney general or other proper public official. The serving officer shall also summon the persons named in the writ as garnishees, and all other persons within his county whom the attorney general or other proper public officials shall designate as having any property, effects, choses in action, or credits in their possession or power, belonging to the defendant, or who are in anywise indebted to the defendant, the same as if their names had been inserted in the writ. The persons so summoned shall be considered as garnishees, and the officer shall state, in his return, the names of all persons so summoned, and the date of service on each. All proceedings and hearings, civil or criminal, arising under this chapter shall have precedence over all other cases in any court where the same shall be brought excepting criminal or other cases in which the public is a moving party.

4. No action or other proceeding shall be maintained to enforce collection of any amount of fuel tax, penalty, or interest over and above the amount shown to be due by reports filed by a licensee except upon an assessment by the department of revenue as authorized in this chapter or unless brought within one year after the date of the assessment. No assessment shall be made over any period beyond three years prior to the date of assessment. I.C., § 5093.14, § 5093.13; C.G., 50, § 324.67, C.8, 62, 66, § 324.66; C.71, § 324.67.

§324.68 Power of department of revenue to cancel licenses. If a licensee shall at any time file a false monthly report of the data or information required by this chapter, or shall fail, refuse, or neglect to file a monthly report required by this chapter, or to pay the full amount of fuel tax as required by this chapter, then after ten days' written notice by registered mail directed to the last known address of the licensee setting a time and place at which he may appear and show cause why his license should not be canceled, and if the licensee fails to appear or if upon the hearing it is shown by a preponderance of the evidence that the failure to correctly report or pay was with intent to evade the tax, the department of revenue may cancel the license and shall notify the licensee of the cancellation by registered mail to his last known address.

If a licensee shall at any time abuse the privileges for which the license was issued, fail to maintain records reasonably requested by the department of revenue, or fail to extend reasonable co-operation to the department, the licensee shall be advised in writing of a hearing scheduled to determine if said license shall be canceled. The department upon the presentation of a preponderance of evidence shall be allowed to cancel a license for cause.

Upon receipt of written request from any person the department of revenue shall cancel the license of the licensee effective sixty days from the date of receipt of the request but no such license shall be canceled upon request unless and until the licensee shall, prior to the date of cancellation, have paid to the department of revenue all fuel taxes payable under this chapter, together with any and all penalties, interest and fines appertaining thereto. If, upon investigation, the department

326.6 Proportional registration of fleets. The board may, pursuant to section 326.5, provide for proportional registration between this state and other jurisdictions of fleets of commercial vehicles owned by residents or nonresidents engaged in interstate commerce or simultaneously engaged in interstate and intrastate commerce.

1. The owners of fleets of commercial vehicles subject to proportional registration under apportionment agreements negotiated by the board shall file a sworn statement with the board which shall contain the following information and such other information as the board may require:
   a. Total fleet miles for the preceding year.
   b. In-state miles for the preceding year.
c. A description and identification of each vehicle which is part of the fleet for which proportional registration is sought.

2. The dollar amount of registration fees due this state for each fleet subject to proportional registration shall be computed as follows:
   a. Divide total fleet miles during the preceding year into in-state miles during the preceding year to determine the percentage of total fleet mileage allocable to this state.
   b. Determine the sum total amount necessary to register each and every vehicle in the fleet based on the annual registration fees prescribed in chapter 321.
   c. Multiply the percentage obtained under paragraph “a” of this subsection by the sum total obtained under paragraph “b” of this subsection.
   d. The product so obtained under paragraph “c” of this subsection shall be the amount payable by the owner for proportional registration of the fleet for the registration year. Payment of registration fees shall be made in accordance with law. [C71, §326.6]
   Referred to in §326.7

326.7 Agreements on basis of compact miles. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, and as an alternative to the procedure set out in section 326.6, the board may enter into agreements providing for proportional registration between this state and other jurisdictions of fleets of commercial vehicles owned by residents or nonresidents engaged in interstate commerce or simultaneously engaged in interstate and intrastate commerce on the basis of compact miles.

   The Iowa prorate percent will be computed by dividing the Iowa miles by the compact miles as defined in section 326.2. If the composite percentage paid by the Iowa resident to each of the states a party to an apportioned registration agreement with Iowa for apportioned registrations is less than one hundred percent, the Iowa reciprocity board will redetermine the registration fees due the state of Iowa to bring the composite percent to one hundred percent. If the composite percent paid by the nonresident fleet operator to each of the states a party to an apportioned registration agreement with Iowa for apportioned registrations is less than one hundred percent, the Iowa reciprocity board will redetermine the registration fees due the state of Iowa to bring the composite percent to one hundred percent. If the composite percent so obtained under paragraph “a” of this subsection shall be the amount payable by the owner for proportional registration of the fleet for the registration year. Payment of registration fees shall be made in accordance with law. [C71, §326.6]

326.9 Individual vehicles not to be proportionally registered. The registrations of individual vehicles shall not be subject to proportional registration with this state. The same fleet, consisting of the same vehicles in each state, shall be proportionally registered in each state with which the fleet is provided; and every one of the vehicles shall be included in the fleet in each state. Failure to comply with these requirements shall constitute grounds for cancellation of proration privileges. [C71, §326.9]

326.10 Minimum fee. The minimum fee for each vehicle registered with this state under an apportionment agreement shall not be less than ten dollars for each truck or truck tractor and two dollars for each trailer. In addition to proportional registration fees, the board shall collect the amounts of fees due as hereinafter provided for the issuance of plates, stickers, or other identification of all vehicles subject to proportional registration. [S13, §1571-m16; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4866; C39, §5003.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, §321.56; C62, 66, §326.2; C71, §326.10]

326.11 Subsequently acquired vehicles. Vehicles acquired by a fleet owner after the commencement of the registration year and subsequently added to the fleet shall be prorated by applying the mileage percentage used in the original application for such fleet for such registration period to registration fees due under chapter 321 but in no case less than that required by section 326.10. A supplemental report shall be filed with the board not later than ten days after such addition to the fleet. [C71, §326.11]

326.12 Vehicles deleted—registration transferred. Fleet owners who delete commercial vehicles displaying Iowa base plates from the fleet after the commencement of the registration year shall be allowed to transfer registration credit to a replacement vehicle in accordance with the provisions of this section. Iowa shall allow credit for non-Iowa based deleted vehicles only if the state designated by the fleet owner as the base state of the deleted vehicle permits transfer of registration credit to the replacement vehicle. The fleet owner shall notify the board not later than ten days after such deletion and replacement. Allowance of credit for deleted vehicles shall be subject to the following conditions:

1. No additional registration fee shall be assessed on a replacement vehicle upon which the registration fee would have been the same as that for the deleted vehicle. The fee for reissuance of registration credentials or for transfer of credentials shall be seven dollars.

326.8 Estimating mileage. When in-state and total fleet or compact mileage cannot be computed for a particular fleet on the basis of actual operation during the preceding year, estimated mileage shall be accepted for the fleets first prorate application. Estimated mileage shall be based on the proposed operation of the fleet during the entire year for which proportional registration is sought. The applicant shall substantiate the estimate by submitting details of his proposed operation including, but not limited to, type of operation, its location, routes, and frequency of operation. [C71, §326.8]

2. No deletion shall be made nor credit allowed toward registration of a replacement vehicle unless the vehicle to be removed from service has been sold, junked, repossessed, foreclosed by mechanic's lien, title transferred by operation of law, or cancellation or expiration of a lease arrangement. The deleted vehicle shall have been disposed of on or before the date the replacement vehicle was acquired or in the possession of the applicant.

3. If a leased vehicle is to be deleted from the fleet and unexpired registration fees applied to the replacement vehicle, the lessee shall certify to the board that any unexpired registration fees paid by the lessor to the lessee have been refunded to the lessor prior to the date of the supplemental application requesting credit for registration fees paid on the deleted vehicle. [C71, §326.12]

326.13 Information under oath. The board shall require fleet owners to submit under oath any information deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Information furnished under this chapter shall be forwarded to the executive secretary of the board by each fleet owner no later than November 1 preceding each registration year. [S13, §1517-16; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4866; C39, §5003.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, §321.56; C62, 66, §326.3; C71, §326.13]

326.14 Plates and receipts from safety department. The board shall obtain registration plates and receipts to be issued pursuant to apportionment agreements or arrangements authorized under this chapter from the department of public safety in accordance with law. The board shall then issue such registration plates and receipts pursuant to apportionment agreements or arrangements authorized under this chapter. [C71, §326.14]

326.15 Total composite over one hundred percent—refund. If the composite percentage apportioned by an owner on a fleet of vehicles based in Iowa to each of the states with which Iowa has an apportionment agreement is more than one hundred percent proportionally, the fleet owner may file a claim with the board for a refund of registration fees paid in excess of one hundred percent proportionally. The claim for such refund shall be filed on or after December 1 of the year for which refund is requested, and the fleet owner shall furnish satisfactory evidence of the alleged overpayment. The board shall prescribe and provide suitable forms requisite or deemed necessary to process such claims and insure that claims are paid to fleet owners who have complied with apportionment registration requirements. The fleet owner may elect to apply any such refund to proportional registration fees payable the next registration year in lieu of any refund payable under this section. The state of Iowa shall not be liable for claims filed after December 1 of the following year. [C71, §326.15]

326.16 Delinquent fees. If the fees for such proportional registration are not paid to each contracting jurisdiction entitled thereto on the basis of the proportional registration application and supporting documents filed with the board by the fleet owner within a reasonable amount of time as determined by the board, the board shall redetermine fees due this state. If any additional fees due this state are not paid by the fleet owner within twenty days after the mailing to the owner of a notice by certified mail of the additional fees due, such owner’s registration in this state shall be canceled. In addition, the fees due for registration in this state shall be a debt due to the state of Iowa. [S13, §1517-16; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4866; C39, §5003.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, §321.56; C62, 66, §326.3; C71, §326.16]

326.17 Iowa base plates. Resident fleet owners shall be required to list Iowa as the base state for all commercial vehicles which qualify under the term “base state” as defined in this chapter, and Iowa base plates shall be displayed on all such vehicles. Nonresident fleet owners subject to proportional registration shall display Iowa base plates if the commercial vehicle qualifies as an Iowa based vehicle as defined in this chapter. [C71, §326.17]

326.18 Fully registered for interstate movements. When a nonresident fleet owner has registered vehicles on a prorated basis, the vehicles shall be considered fully registered insofar as interstate commerce is concerned. The privilege granted to a nonresident pursuant to this chapter shall permit the operation of a vehicle which is simultaneously engaged in interstate movements and intrastate commerce, provided that the owner has intrastate authority or rights granted by the Iowa state commerce commission. Each vehicle upon which an Iowa base plate is required to be displayed under this chapter shall be considered fully registered for both interstate commerce and intrastate commerce. [S13, §1517-16; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4866; C39, §5003.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, §321.56; C62, 66, §326.2; C71, §326.18]

326.19 Records preserved. Any owner complying with and granted proportional registration privileges shall preserve the records upon which applications are made for a period of four full years following the year for which the application was made. Upon request of the board, all fleet owners shall make all such records available to the board at the office of the executive secretary for audit as to accuracy of computation and payment. If the owner does not produce such records when so requested, the owner shall pay the costs of an audit by a duly appointed representative of the board at the home office of the owner. The board may enter into agreements with auditors elected or other contracting states for joint audits of any such owner. [S13, §1517-16; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4866; C39, §5003.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, §321.56; C62, 66, §326.4; C71, §326.19]

326.20 Benefits extended to leased vehicles. The board may, notwithstanding any provi-

In the absence of an agreement with another jurisdiction, the board may examine the laws and requirements of such jurisdiction and declare the extent and nature of exemptions, benefits, and privileges to be extended to vehicles or owners of vehicles properly registered or licensed in such other jurisdiction. The board shall consider the interests of the state of Iowa and the citizens thereof, the interests of the other jurisdictions and the citizens thereof, and the benefits which will accrue to the economy of the state of Iowa from the uninterrupted flow of commerce in declarations made under this section. Each declaration shall specify that the extent of exemptions, benefits, and privileges is subject to revision without notice upon adoption by the general assembly of legislation in conflict with the terms of any such declaration. [C71, §326.21]

326.21 Laws of other states—Iowa interests. Any nonresident registered vehicle shall be subject to all laws, rules, and regulations governing the operation of such vehicle on the highways of this state. The registration number plates, sticker, or other identification assigned and furnished to any vehicle for the current registration year by the state in which the vehicle is registered shall be displayed on such vehicle substantially as provided in chapter 321 for vehicles registered pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. In addition, the board shall charge and collect an additional fee of one dollar for each plate, and two dollars for each sticker, or other identification, for the vehicle registered in accordance with the provisions of this section or extended reciprocity in accordance with the provisions of this section except that no charge shall be made for the initial registration receipt or cab card issued for each vehicle registered pursuant to an apportionment registration agreement. The same fee shall be charged for issuance of duplicate plates, stickers or other identification required and a fee of two dollars shall be charged for each duplicate or replacement registration receipt or cab card. [S13, §1517-ml6; C21, 27, 31, 35, §4866; C39, §5003.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, §321.56; C62, 66, §326.6; C71, §326.21]

326.22 Operational laws of Iowa applicable. Any nonresident registered vehicle shall be subject to all laws, rules, and regulations governing the operation of such vehicle on the highways of this state. The registration number plates, sticker, or other identification assigned and furnished to any vehicle for the current registration year by the state in which the vehicle is registered shall be displayed on such vehicle substantially as provided in chapter 321 for vehicles registered pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. In addition, the board shall charge and collect an additional fee of one dollar for each plate, and two dollars for each sticker, or other identification, for the vehicle registered in accordance with the provisions of this section or extended reciprocity in accordance with the provisions of this section except that no charge shall be made for the initial registration receipt or cab card issued for each vehicle registered pursuant to an apportionment registration agreement. The same fee shall be charged for issuance of duplicate plates, stickers or other identification required and a fee of two dollars shall be charged for each duplicate or replacement registration receipt or cab card. [S13, §1517-ml6; C21, 27, 31, 35, §4866; C39, §5003.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, §321.56; C62, 66, §326.6; C71, §326.22]

326.23 Trip permits. The board may issue a trip permit to an owner who has registered a fleet of vehicles with this state on a prorated basis pursuant to this chapter to permit a non-Iowa registered vehicle to operate on the highways of this state in interstate commerce if that leased vehicle, when operated by the lessor, would be entitled to reciprocity in this state. If the vehicle operated on the trip basis is owned by the prorate fleet owner or is, at the time of the trip, under lease to the owner for thirty days’ duration or longer, the board may limit the issuance of permits on a particular vehicle not registered in Iowa to one round trip interstate on Iowa highways during each calendar quarter. The board may also issue a trip permit to an Iowa fleet owner or Iowa broker who has not registered the vehicle on a prorated basis pursuant to the provisions of this chapter to permit a non-Iowa registered vehicle to operate on the highways of this state in interstate commerce if that leased vehicle, when operated by the lessor, would be entitled to reciprocity in this state. The board shall charge and collect a fee of five dollars for each permit issued under this section. [C66, §326.7; C71, §326.23]

326.24 Vehicles not entitled to reciprocity—permit. The owner of any vehicle with a gross weight in excess of twelve thousand pounds which is properly registered and licensed in some other jurisdiction, not entitled to reciprocal privileges for the use of Iowa highways, and operated in interstate commerce occasionally on Iowa highways, may in lieu of payment of the annual registration fee for such vehicle register the vehicle and obtain a trip permit from the board authorizing a trip operation of such vehicle on the highways of Iowa in interstate commerce for not to exceed seventy-two hours. The fee for such trip permit shall be ten dollars. [C71, §326.24]

326.25 Applications — investigations. The board shall examine and determine the genuineness, regularity, and legality of every application lawfully made pursuant to this chapter, and may in all cases make investigations as may be deemed necessary or require additional information. The board shall reject any such application if not satisfied of the genuineness, regularity, or legality thereof of the truth of any statement contained therein, or for any other reason, when authorized by law. The board is hereby authorized to take possession of any indicia of proportional registration or reciprocity upon expiration, revocation, cancellation, or suspension thereof, or which is fictitious, or which has been unlawfully or erroneously issued.

The board may suspend or revoke the registration indicia of a vehicle registered on a prorated basis in any one of the following events:

1. When the board is satisfied that such registration indicia was issued upon fraudulent application. Bona fide errors shall be corrected within fifteen days after notification by the board.

2. When the board determines that the required fee has not been paid and same is not paid upon reasonable notice and demand.

3. When the registration indicia is knowingly displayed on a vehicle which is not in the prorate fleet of the registrant. [C71, §326.25]
326.26 Forms. The board shall prescribe and provide suitable forms of application, registration receipts, and all other forms requisite or deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. [C71, §326.26]

326.27 Violations to negate agreements. Operation of a commercial vehicle or vehicles in violation of the requirements of this chapter, the motor vehicle registration laws of this state, or the terms of any agreement negotiated by the board pursuant to this chapter may, after due notice and hearing, be grounds for denial of reciprocal or proportional registration privileges on the vehicle or vehicles of an owner so operated. Any owner denied such reciprocal or proportional registration privileges shall be subject to payment of full annual Iowa registration fees on any such vehicle operated on Iowa highways.

In addition to denial of reciprocal or proportional registration privileges, it shall be a misdemeanor, unless such act is declared under Iowa law to be a felony, punishable as provided in section 321.482 for any person to operate under reciprocity or proportional registration in violation of any requirements of this chapter. [C66, §326.7; C71, §326.27]

326.28 Copies of records—fee. A fee shall be charged for copies of such records as may be provided from the office of the board or the executive secretary. Such fee shall be one dollar for the first page and fifty cents for each additional page of copy received at any one time. [C71, §326.28]

326.29 Fees to road use tax fund. All fees collected by the board pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be remitted to the treasurer of the state for deposit in the road use tax fund. [C71, §326.29]

326.30 Motor vehicle law applicable. All provisions of chapter 321 insofar as applicable, are hereby specifically extended to include owners who register vehicles in this state on a proportional registration basis or who operate interstate on Iowa highways under reciprocity. [C71, §326.30]

326.31 Filing incorrect information—effect. Whenever the reciprocity board has reason to believe that a fleet owner has filed incorrect information with the reciprocity board, department of public safety, or the department of revenue, for the purpose of reducing the fleet owner's obligation for registration fees or fuel taxes, the reciprocity board may cancel the apportioned registration privileges on all of the vehicles owned by such person. Any person who has such privileges canceled shall be subject to the payment of the full annual registration fee for all vehicles operated on the highways of this state for a period of at least five years thereafter. The commissioner of public safety and the director of revenue shall co-operate with the reciprocity board in ascertaining the accuracy of all reports filed pertaining to registration fees and motor fuel taxes.

Any person whose privileges are canceled may request an administrative hearing of said action, and during the period pending the hearing the apportioned registration privileges shall be reinstated if the fleet owner posts security with the reciprocity board in an amount sufficient to pay such full annual fees if an adverse decision is rendered at the hearing. At such hearing the fleet owner shall have the burden of proof as to the accuracy of any report filed by the fleet owner with the reciprocity board, department of public safety, or the department of revenue. Any person aggrieved by a decision reached at the administrative hearing may appeal from such decision to the district court. [C71, §326.31]

326.32 Additional fees or restrictions by other states—effect. If the laws of any other state or country impose any taxes, fees, charges, penalties, obligations, prohibitions, or limitations of any kind upon the vehicles of residents of Iowa, in addition to those imposed upon the vehicles of residents of such other state or country by the state of Iowa, the department may impose and collect fees and charges in the same amount and impose the same obligations, prohibitions, or limitations upon the owner or operator of a vehicle registered in such other state or country. [C71, §326.32]

326.33 Rules adopted. The board may promulgate any rules deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Such rule-making authority shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 17A. [C71, §326.33]

If a certificate of compliance is withdrawn by any one of the participating agencies, the executive secretary shall cancel the single cab card. [C71, §326.36]

326.37 Temporary permit. The executive secretary may issue a temporary authorization permit to qualified carriers for vehicles not previously issued a permanent single cab card. [C71, §326.37]

326.38 Rules. The participating agencies shall jointly prepare and adopt rules to effectuate the purposes of this division. [C71, §326.38]

The term “individual written contract” shall mean an agreement in writing between a contract carrier and a shipper, effective for a duration of at least three months, imposing mutual obligations to tender freight and perform transportation, and specifying the charges. The presence of goods originating from more than five shippers on one vehicle at any one time shall be prima-facie evidence that the carrier is a motor carrier and not a contract carrier.

For the purposes of this section the terms "tractor or truck tractor" shall mean every self-propelled vehicle designed and used primarily for drawing other vehicles and not so constructed as to carry a load other than a part of the weight of the vehicle and load so drawn.

It shall be a misdemeanor for any truck operator or contract carrier to operate any motor truck for which the annual fee has not been paid and the commission may revoke the truck operator or contract carrier permit.

AIRPORT ZONING

329.1 Definitions. The following words, terms, and phrases, when used in this chapter, shall, for the purposes of this chapter, have the meaning herein given, unless otherwise specifically defined, or unless another intention clearly appears, or the context otherwise requires:

1. “Airport” means any area of land or water designed and set aside for the landing and take-off of aircraft and utilized, or to be utilized, in the interest of the public for such purposes.

2. “Airport hazard” means any structure or tree, or use of land, which obstructs the airspace required for the flight of aircraft in landing or taking off at an airport, or is otherwise hazardous to such landing or taking off of aircraft.

3. “Airport hazard area” means any area of land or water upon which an airport hazard might be established if not prevented as provided by this chapter.

4. “Municipality” means any county, city, village, or town of this state.

5. “Person” means any individual, firm, corporation, company, association, joint stock association, or body politic, and includes any trustee, receiver, assignee, or other similar representative thereof.

6. “Structure” means any object constructed or installed by man, including, but without limitation, buildings, towers, smokestacks, and overhead transmission lines, including the poles or other structures supporting the same.

8. “Obstruction” means any tangible, inanimate physical object, natural or artificial, protruding above the surface of the ground.

9. “Commission” means the Iowa aeronautics commission; “state” or “this state” means the state of Iowa.

10. The singular shall include the plural, and the plural the singular. [C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §329.1]

329.2 Airport hazards contrary to public interest. It is hereby found that an airport hazard endangers the lives and property of users of the airport, and of occupants of land and other persons in its vicinity, and also, if of the obstruction type, in effect reduces the size of the area available for the landing, taking off and maneuvering of aircraft, thus tending to destroy or impair the utility of the airport and the public investment therein. Accordingly, it is hereby declared:

1. That the creation or establishment of an airport hazard is a public nuisance and an injury to the community served by the airport in question.

2. That it is necessary in the interest of the public health, safety, and general welfare that the creation or establishment of airport hazards be prevented.

3. That this should be accomplished, to the extent legally possible, by proper exercise of the police power.

4. That the prevention of the creation or establishment of airport hazards, and the elimination, removal, alteration, mitigation, or marking and lighting of existing airport hazards are public purposes for which municipalities may raise and expend public funds, as an incident to the operation of airports, to acquire land or property interests therein. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §329.2]

See §657.2(9)

329.3 Zoning regulations—powers granted. Every municipality having an airport hazard area within its territorial limits may adopt, administer, and enforce in the manner and upon the conditions prescribed by this chapter, zoning regulations for such airport hazard area, which regulations may divide such area into zones and, within such zones, specify the land uses permitted, and regulate and restrict, for the purpose of preventing airport hazards, the height to which structures and trees may be erected or permitted to grow. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §329.3]

Referred to in §§329.4(2), 329.6

329.4 Extra-territorial airport hazard areas. When any airport hazard area appertaining to an airport owned or controlled by a municipality is located outside the territorial limits of said municipality:

1. Ordinances or resolutions. The municipality owning or controlling the airport, and the municipality within which the airport hazard area is located, may by duly adopted ordinance or resolution, as may be appropriate, adopt, administer, and enforce airport zoning regulations applicable to the airport hazard area in question.

2. Petition to district court. If the municipality within which is located such airport hazard area has failed or refused, within sixty days after demand has been made upon it by any municipality owning or controlling the airport, to adopt reasonably adequate airport zoning regulations under section 329.3, or to join in adopting joint airport zoning regulations as authorized in subsection 1 of this section, the municipality owning or controlling the airport may, upon a resolution of necessity therefor duly adopted by its governing body, petition the district court of the county in which such airport hazard area or any part thereof is located, in the name of the municipality owning or controlling the affected airport, praying that zoning regulations be established for the airport hazard area in question.

3. Petition—contents. Such petition shall allege all essential facts showing the necessity for bringing such action, the relief sought including proposed zoning regulations, and the necessity therefor.

4. Parties. The parties defendant in such action shall be the municipality in which such airport hazard area is located, and all persons having an apparent or contingent interest in the property located within such area, who may be joined in said action generally as a class.

Referred to in §329.6

5. Procedure. The action shall be triable in equity and in accordance with general rules of civil procedure, except that such action shall have precedence over any other business of the court except criminal cases, and the court shall set said petition for hearing not less than sixty days nor more than one hundred twenty days from the date it is filed with the clerk of said court.

Referred to in §329.6

6. Notice. The original notice in such action shall be served upon the municipality in which such airport hazard area is located, and in the same manner as original notice of any other action but not less than thirty days prior to the date set for trial; and upon all other defendants by the publication of said notice in some newspaper or newspapers of general circulation within the area described in the petition, or as near thereto as possible, which publication shall be in the same manner as provided for the publication of original notices, provided, however, that the last publication thereof shall be not less than thirty days prior to the date set for trial.

Referred to in §329.6

7. Decree and modification. Upon trial the court may enter decree establishing such zoning regulations as it shall find reasonable and necessary. The court having once taken jurisdiction of such matter shall retain continuing jurisdiction thereof for such subsequent modification as it may deem advisable, upon proper application of interested parties, and due showing made thereunder after such notice to possible adverse parties as the court shall prescribe.

Referred to in §329.6

8. Appeal. Any person or municipality adversely affected or aggrieved by any finding of the court may appeal therefrom as in other civil actions.

Referred to in §329.6

9. Enforcement. Following the entry of any final decree by the district court, and unless appeal has been taken therefrom, the zoning regulations established by such decree may be enforced, and violations thereof punished, as provided by section 329.14. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §329.4]

Referred to in §329.6
329.5 Prevention of airport hazards. Any municipality owning or controlling an airport may maintain actions in equity to restrain and abate as nuisances the creation or establishment of airport hazards appertaining to said airport, in violation of any zoning regulations adopted or established pursuant to the provisions of this chapter for any area whether within or without the territorial limits of said municipality. [C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §329.5] See §657.2(9).

329.6 Zoning powers—aeronautics commission. If any municipality owning or controlling an airport adjacent to which there is an airport hazard area shall fail or refuse, within sixty days after demand made upon it by the aeronautics commission of the state, to adopt reasonably adequate airport zoning regulations under section 329.3, or to proceed as provided in section 329.4, the aeronautics commission of the state may petition the district court of the county in which such airport hazard area, or any part thereof, is located, in the name of the state, praying that zoning regulations be established for the airport hazard area in question, and the provisions of subsections 3 to 9, inclusive, of section 329.4 shall apply to such actions provided, however, that such municipality shall be joined as a party defendant in any such action.

The aeronautics commission of the state may maintain actions in equity to restrain and abate as nuisances the creation or establishment of airport hazards appertaining to any airport within the state, in violation of any zoning regulations adopted or established pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. [C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §329.6]

329.7 Relation to comprehensive zoning regulations. Any municipality which has adopted, or hereafter adopts, zoning ordinances under the provisions of chapter 411, is hereby empowered to incorporate therein such airport hazard area zoning regulations as are provided for by this chapter, and to administer and enforce the same as herein provided. [C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §329.7]

329.8 Conflicting regulations. In the event of any conflict between any airport zoning regulations adopted or established under this chapter and any other regulations applicable to the same area, whether the conflict be with respect to the height of structures or trees, the use of land, or any other matter, the more stringent limitation or requirement shall govern and prevail. [C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §329.8]

329.9 Procedure for adopting zoning regulations — zoning commission. In adopting, amending, and repealing airport zoning regulations under this chapter the governing body of the municipality shall follow the procedure as provided in sections 414.4 and 414.6. Any action taken on the part of any county under this chapter shall be by resolution of the board of supervisors thereof and no such action shall be taken without a majority of the board of supervisors voting therefor and consenting thereto. The commission so appointed shall be known as the airport zoning commission. The airport zoning commission shall consist of two members from each municipality selected by the governing body thereof and one additional member to act as chairman and to be selected by a majority vote of the members selected by the municipality. The terms of the members of the airport zoning commission shall be for six years excepting that when the board shall first be created, one of the members appointed by each municipality shall be appointed for a term of two years and one for a term of four years. Members may be removed for cause by the appointing authority upon written charges after public hearing. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term of any member whose office becomes vacant in the same manner in which said member was selected. [C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §329.9]

1. All airport zoning regulations adopted under this chapter shall be reasonable and none shall impose any requirement or restriction which is not necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter.
2. No airport zoning regulations adopted under this chapter shall require the removal, lowering, or other change or alteration of any structure or tree, or interfere with any use, not conforming to the regulations when adopted or amended, except that they may require the owner thereof to permit the municipality at its own expense to install, operate, and maintain thereon such markers and lights as may be necessary to indicate to operators of aircraft the presence of the airport hazard.
3. All such regulations shall provide that no pre-existing nonconforming structure, tree, or use, shall be replaced, rebuilt, altered, allowed to grow higher, or replanted, so as to constitute a greater airport hazard than it was when such airport zoning regulations or amendments thereto were adopted. [C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §329.10]

329.11 Variances. Any person desiring to erect or increase the height of any structure, or to permit the growth of any tree, or otherwise use his property in violation of airport zoning regulations adopted under this chapter, may apply to the board of adjustment for a variance from the zoning regulations. Such variances shall be allowed where a literal application or enforcement of the regulations would result in practical difficulty or unnecessary hardship and the relief granted would not be contrary to the public interest, but would do substantial justice and be in accordance with the spirit of the regulations and this chapter; provided, however, that any such variance may be allowed subject to any reasonable conditions that the board of adjustment may deem necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter, including the reseroration of the right of the municipality, at its own expense, to install, operate, and maintain thereon such markers and lights as may be necessary to indicate to operators of aircraft the presence of the airport hazard. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §329.11]

329.12 Board of adjustment—creation—powers—duties. The governing body of any municipality availing or seeking to avail itself of the powers by this chapter conferred shall, by ordinance or resolution duly adopted, provide for the appointment of a board of adjustment, as provided in section 411.7. Such board of adjustment shall have the same powers and duties, and its procedure, and appeals thereto and therefrom, in all respects shall be governed by and subject to the same provisions established in sections 414.9 to 414.19, inclusive.

The concurring vote of a majority of the board shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision or determination of any administrative official or to decide in favor of the applicant on any matter upon which it is required to pass under any regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter or to effect any variance therefrom.

The board of adjustment shall consist of two members from each municipality, selected by the governing body thereof, and one additional member to act as chairman and to be selected by a majority vote of the members selected by the municipality. Members shall be removable for cause by the appointing authority upon written charges and after public hearing. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term of any member whose office becomes vacant in the same manner in which said member was selected. The terms of the members of the board of adjustment shall be for five years, excepting that when the board shall first be created, one of the members appointed by each municipality shall be appointed for a term of two years and one for a term of four years. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §329.12]

329.13 Administration of airport zoning regulations. All airport zoning regulations adopted under this chapter shall provide for the administration and enforcement of such regulations by an administrative agency (which may be an agency created by such regulations), or by any official, board, or other existing agency of the municipality adopting the regulations, or of one or both of the municipalities which participated therein, but in no case shall such administrative agency be or include any member of the board of adjustment. The duties of any administrative agency designated pursuant to this chapter shall not include any of the powers herein delegated to the board of adjustment. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §329.13]

329.14 Enforcement and remedies. Each violation of this chapter or of any regulations, order, or rules promulgated pursuant to this chapter, shall constitute a misdemeanor, and the perpetrator thereof, upon conviction, shall be punished accordingly; and each day a violation continues to exist shall constitute a separate offense. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §329.14]

329.15 Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Airport Zoning Act." [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §329.15]

Concurrent action by the governing bodies of the political subdivision participating shall constitute joint action. Such agreements may provide for the creation and establishment of a joint airport commission which, when so created or established, shall function in accordance with the provisions of sections 330.17 to 330.24, inclusive, insofar as provided by said agreements. And they shall furthermore require that the plans and specifications be in substantial accord with the regulations of the U.S. department of commerce or other department of the federal government having general supervision of air navigation as it relates to plans and specifications for airports. And if so found they shall approve such plans and specifications. [C31, 35, §5903-c6; C39, §5903.06; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §330.9]

Each authority shall have a committee whose duties shall consist of electing board members, as hereinafter provided, and advising the board on all matters with respect to the needs and operation of the authority. Committee membership shall affect airport commissions of cities in the above classification which have already been in existence and operation prior to January 1, 1941, under the provisions of this chapter. Said resolution shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in such withdrawing or joining municipality at least fourteen days prior to the date of hearing. A withdrawing municipality shall state in said resolution why it wishes to withdraw and how it intends to pay its portion of the outstanding obligation, if any. A joining municipality shall state in said resolution the information required in section 330A.6. A copy of said resolution shall be certified to the authority by the municipality at least fourteen days in advance of said hearing. The authority shall by resolution express its consent to such withdrawal, or joining, if satisfactory provision has been made as aforesaid.

3. An application to withdraw or join shall be submitted to the authority and shall in all cases be executed by the proper officers of the withdrawing or incoming municipality under its municipal seal and accompanied by a certified copy of the authorizing ordinance, and shall be joined in by the proper officers of the governing body of the authority.

4. To acquire, purchase, hold, own, operate, and lease as lessee and use any franchise, property, real, personal or mixed, tangible or intangible, or any interest therein, necessary or desirable for carrying out the purposes of an authority and this chapter, and to sell, mortgage, lease as lessor, transfer, and dispose of any property or interest therein at any time acquired by it.

5. To enter into and make leases, either as lessee or lessor, for such period or periods of time and under such terms and conditions as an authority shall determine. Such leases may be entered into for buildings, structures, or facilities constructed or acquired or to be constructed or acquired by an authority, or may be entered into for lands owned by an authority where the lessee of said lands agrees as a consideration for said lease to construct or acquire buildings, structures, or facilities on said lands which will become the property of an authority under such terms, rentals, and other conditions as the authority shall deem proper.

6. To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, and to construct, improve, maintain, repair, and operate aviation facilities.

7. To fix, alter, charge, establish, and collect rates, fees, rentals, and other charges for the services and facilities of aviation facilities, or any part thereof, at reasonable and uniform rates to be determined exclusively by an authority for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

8. To borrow money, make and issue negotiable bonds, certificates, refunding bonds, and other obligations (herein called "bonds") and notes of an authority and to secure the payment of such bonds or any part thereof by a pledge of any or all of an authority's revenues, rates, fees, rentals, or other charges, and any other funds which it has a right to, or may hereafter have the right to pledge for such purposes (hereafter sometimes referred to as "revenues"), and to mortgage its property as security for the payment of such bonds; and in general, to provide for the security of said bonds and the rights and remedies of the holders thereof. Such bonds may be issued to finance either one or more or a combination of aviation facilities and the revenues of any one or more aviation facilities may, subject to any prior rights of bondholders, be pledged for any one or more or a combination of aviation facilities. Any revenues from existing aviation facilities theretofore constructed or acquired pursuant to this chapter or existing laws, or existing aviation facilities constructed or acquired by an authority from any source may be pledged for any one or more or a combination of aviation facilities financed under this chapter, regardless of whether or not such existing aviation facilities are then being improved or financed by the proceeds of the bonds to be issued to finance the one or more or the combination of aviation facilities for which such revenues of such existing aviation facilities are to be pledged.

9. To make contracts of every kind and nature and to execute all instruments necessary or convenient for the carrying on of its business.

10. Without limitation of the foregoing, to borrow money and accept grants, contributions or loans from, and to enter into contracts, leases, or other transactions with, municipal, county, state, or federal government.

11. To have the power of eminent domain, such power to be exercised in the manner provided by law for municipal corporations of this state.

13. To pledge, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise encumber all or any part of the property, real or personal, of the authority as security for all or any of the obligations issued by an authority.

15. To do all acts and things necessary or convenient for the promotion of its business and the general welfare of an authority, in order to carry out the powers granted to it by this chapter or any other laws. An authority shall have no power at any time or in any manner to pledge the taxing power of the state or any political subdivision or agency thereof, nor shall any of the obligations issued by an authority be deemed to be an obligation of the state or any political subdivision or agency thereof secured by and payable from ad valorem taxes thereof, nor shall the state or any political subdivision or agency thereof be liable for the payment of principal or interest on such obligations except from the special funds provided for in this chapter. [C71, §330A.8]

1. The bonds issued by an authority pursuant to this chapter shall be authorized by resolution of the board thereof and shall be either term or serial bonds, shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding forty years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, not exceeding eight per centum per annum payable semiannually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or fully registered, shall carry such registration, exchangeability and interchangeability privileges, be payable in such medium of payment and at such place or places, within or without the state, be subject to such terms of redemption and be entitled to such priorities on the revenues, rates, fees, rentals, or other charges or receipts of the authority as such resolution or any resolution subsequent thereto may provide. Pending the preparation of definitive bonds, interim certificates or temporary bonds may be issued to the purchaser or purchasers of such bonds, and may contain such terms and conditions as the authority may determine.

2. An authority shall have the power, at any time and from time to time after the issuance of bonds thereof shall have been authorized, to borrow money for the purposes for which such bonds are to be issued in anticipation of the receipt of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds and within the authorized maximum amount of such bond issue. Any such loan shall be paid within three years after the date of the initial loan. Bond anticipation notes shall be authorized for all moneys so borrowed under the provisions of this section, and such notes may be renewed from time to time, but all such renewal notes shall mature within the time above limited for the payment of the initial loan. Such notes shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall be in such denomination or denominations, shall bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding the maximum rate permitted by the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds, shall be in such form and shall be executed in such manner, all as such authority shall prescribe. Such notes shall be sold at public sale or, if such notes shall be renewal notes, they may be exchanged for notes then outstanding on such terms as the board shall determine. The board, in its discretion, may retire any such notes from the revenues derived from its aviation facilities or from such other moneys of the authority which are lawfully available therefor or from a combination of each, in lieu of retiring them by means of bond proceeds; provided, however, that before the retirement of such notes by any means other than the issuance of bonds it shall amend or repeal the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds, in anticipation of the proceeds of the sale of which such notes shall have been issued, so as to reduce the authorized amount of the bond issue by the amount of the notes so retired. Such amendatory or repealing resolution shall take effect upon its passage.

3. Any such resolution or resolutions authorizing any bonds hereunder may contain provisions which shall be part of the contract with the holders of such bonds, as to:
   a. The pledging of all or any part of the revenues, rates, fees, rentals, or other charges or receipts of an authority derived by an authority from all or any of its aviation facilities.
   b. The construction, improvement, operation, extensions, enlargement, maintenance, repair, or lease of such aviation facilities and the duties of an authority with reference thereto.
   c. Limitations on the purposes to which the proceeds of the bonds, then or thereafter to be issued, or of any loan or grant by the federal government or the state government or the county or any municipality therein, may be applied.
   d. The fixing, charging, establishing, and collecting of rates, fees, rentals, or other charges for use of the services and facilities of the aviation facilities of an authority, or any part thereof.
   e. The setting aside of reserves or sinking funds or repair and replacement funds or other funds and the regulation and disposition thereof.
   f. Limitations on the issuance of additional bonds.
   g. The terms and provisions of any deed of trust, mortgage, or indenture securing the bonds or under which the same may be issued.
   h. Any other or additional agreements with the holders of the bonds as are customary and proper and which in the judgment of an authority will make said bonds more marketable.

4. An authority may enter into any deeds of trust, mortgages, indentures, or other agreements, with any bank or trust company or any other lender within or without the state as security for such bonds, and may assign and pledge all or any of the revenues, rates, fees, rentals, or other charges or receipts of an authority thereunder. Such deeds of trust, mortgages, indentures, or other agreements, may contain such provisions as may be customary in such instruments, or, as an authority may authorize, including, but without limitation, provisions as to:
   a. The construction, improvement, operation, leasing, maintenance, and repair of the aviation facilities and duties of an authority with reference thereto.
   b. The application of funds and the safeguarding and investment of funds on hand or on deposit.
   c. The appointment of consulting engineers or architects and approval thereof by the holders of the bonds.
   d. The rights and remedies of said trustee and the holders of the bonds.
   e. The terms and provisions of the bonds or the resolution authorizing the issuance of the same.

Any of the bonds issued pursuant to this chapter are, and are hereby declared to be, negotiable instruments, and shall have all the qualities and incidents of negotiable instruments. [C71.§330A.9]

330A.10 Funds of an authority. Moneys of an authority shall be paid to the treasurer of the authority who shall not commingle said moneys with any other moneys, but shall deposit them in a separate account or accounts. The moneys in said accounts shall be paid out on check of the treasurer on requisition of the chairman of the authority, or of such other person, or persons, as the authority may authorize to make such requisition. Notwithstanding the aforementioned provisions an authority is hereby authorized, and shall have the right, to deposit any of its rates, fees, rentals, or other charges, receipts or income with any bank or trust company within the state and to deposit the proceeds of any bonds issued hereunder with any bank or trust company within the state, all as may be provided in any agreement with the holders of bonds issued hereunder. Any municipality, airport commission, authority, or person is additionally authorized hereby to transfer, assign, and set over to an authority any contract or contracts which may have been awarded by said municipality, airport commission, authority, or person for the construction of aviation facilities not begun or, if begun, not completed.

2. The proposed action of an authority, and the proposed agreement to acquire, shall be approved by the governing body of the owner of the aviation facilities. Whenever the governing body of any municipality, airport commission, or authority, shall desire to sell, lease, lend, grant, or convey to the authority, any aviation facilities or any part or parts thereof, as aforesaid, it shall adopt a resolution signifying its intention to do so and shall publish said resolution at least one time in a newspaper of general circulation in said municipality and in a newspaper or newspapers, if necessary, of general circulation of the area served by said airport commission or authority giving notice of a hearing to be held on the question of said sale, lease, loan, grant, or conveyance. Such resolution shall be published at least fourteen days prior to the date of hearing. After the hearing and if in the public interest, said municipality shall enact an ordinance authorizing said sale, lease, loan, grant, or conveyance and said airport commission or authority shall pass a resolution authorizing said sale, lease, loan, grant, or conveyance.

3. An owner, transferring existing facilities to an authority under the provisions of this section must notify the authority of and make provision in the transfer documents for, where necessary, existing rights, liens, securities, and rights of re-entry belonging to the state and federal government.

4. This section, without reference to any other law, shall be deemed complete authority for the acquisition by agreement, of aviation facilities as defined in this chapter, any provision of other laws to the contrary notwithstanding, and no proceedings or other action shall be required except as herein prescribed. [C71,§330A.11]

330A.12 Award of contract. All contracts entered into by an authority for the construction, reconstruction, and improvement of aviation facilities shall be entered into pursuant to and shall comply with chapter 23. However, where an authority determines an emergency exists, it may enter into contracts obligating the authority for not in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars per emergency without regard to the requirements of chapter 23 and the authority may proceed with the necessary action as expeditiously as possible to the extent necessary to resolve such emergency. [C71,§330A.12]

The governing body of a municipality after joining an authority and after determination by the authority pursuant to planning studies may by ordinance provide for the assessment of an annual levy not to exceed one mill upon all the taxable property in such municipality for a period not to exceed forty years as shall be agreed by the member municipalities or for such longer time as any revenue bonds of an authority shall be outstanding or until such municipality withdraws from the authority, whichever is sooner. A county which is a member municipality may levy such tax only upon the property in the unincorporated area of such county. Such tax may be levied in excess of any millage tax limitation imposed by statute. Such ordinance shall not be effective only after publication of notice and hearing in the manner prescribed in section 330A.6. Upon such enactment, a copy thereof shall be certified to the authority. An authority shall have the power to enforce the collection of such levy by mandamus or other appropriate remedy and such levy shall be collected in the manner other taxes are collected and allocated and paid to the authority for the exclusive and proper use of the authority, including but not limited to the purchase of land, and the acquiring, establishing, constructing, enlarging, operating, and maintaining of aviation facilities. In addition to the purposes listed above, moneys in said fund may be pledged to the payment of the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, on bonds of the authority. Money paid to the authority pursuant to this section shall be deposited by the authority in a special trust fund to be called the "Authority Capital Reserve Fund". Member municipalities may, in addition, deposit money from current operating funds in the capital reserve fund pursuant to agreement for the purpose of providing initial funds to the authority to be used for funding studies, plans, and other expenses of an authority. Prior to the deposit of any funds from the annual levy herein authorized, any such money so deposited shall be considered a gift and is not repayable. [C71, §330A.15]

330A.16 Exemption from taxation. The effectuation of the authorized purposes of an authority shall be in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state and the member municipalities, for the increase of their commerce and prosperity, and for the improvement of their welfare, health, and living conditions, and since an authority shall be performing essential governmental functions in effectuating such purposes, an authority shall not be required to pay any taxes or as-

330A.17 Statute complete and additional authority. The powers conferred by this chapter shall be in addition and supplemental to any other law and this chapter shall not be construed so as to repeal any other law, except to the extent of any conflict between the provisions of this chapter and the provisions of any other law, in which event the provisions of this chapter shall be controlling and shall, to the extent of any such conflict, supersede the provisions of any other law. This chapter is intended to and shall provide an alternative and complete method for the exercise of the powers granted by this chapter, and the aviation facilities authorized by this chapter may be constructed, acquired, or improved and bonds or other obligations issued pursuant to this chapter upon compliance with the provisions of this chapter without regard to or necessity for compliance with the limitations or restrictions contained in any other law. Each member municipality is, further and additionally, authorized to covenant in any such co-operation agreement made pursuant to this section to pay all or any part of the costs of operation and maintenance of the aviation facilities of an authority from moneys derived from ad valorem taxation or from any other available funds of the municipality. Any such co-operation agreement may be made and entered into pursuant to this chapter for such time or times not exceeding forty years as shall be agreed by the parties thereto or for such longer time as any revenue bonds of an authority, including refundings thereof, remain outstanding and unpaid and may contain such other details, terms, provisions, and conditions as shall be agreed upon by the parties thereto. They shall be qualified electors, and be elected by the qualified voters of their respective counties, and shall hold their office for four years.

331.2 Number increased by vote. When petitioned to do so by one-tenth of the qualified electors of said county having voted in the last previous general election for the office of governor, the board of supervisors shall, or may on its own motion by resolution, submit to the qualified electors of the county, at any regular election, a proposition as to whether or not the number of supervisors should be increased to five.

If a majority of the votes cast shall be in favor of the increase to five members, then at the next general election two additional supervisors shall be elected; one for a term of two years and one for a term of four years.

The length of term for which any person is a candidate and the time when the term begins shall be indicated on the ballot. [R60, §903; C73, §§294, 299; C97, §410; SS15, §410; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5106; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §331.1]

331.3 Number reduced by vote. In any county where the number of supervisors has been increased to five, the board of supervisors shall, on petition of one-tenth of the qualified electors of the county having voted in the last previous general election for the office of governor, or may on its own motion by resolution, submit to the qualified electors of the county, at any regular election, a proposition as to whether or not the number of supervisors should be decreased to three.

If a majority of the votes cast shall be in favor of the decrease to three members, then the number of supervisors shall be so reduced as provided in sections 331.6 and 331.7. [C73, §299; C97, §410; SS15, §410; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5108; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §331.3]

331.4 Petition in certain counties. In counties where there is a city operating under the commission form of government, with a population of more than seventy-five thousand people, the petition shall contain ten percent of the qualified electors residing in the county and outside of the city, and then ten percent of the qualified electors residing in the city. [C35, §5108-e1; C39, §5108.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §331.4]

331.5 Vote in certain counties. When the proposition is voted upon, the qualified electors residing in the county and outside of the city, shall vote separately upon the proposition, and there shall be cast a majority vote of such electors outside of the city, and a majority vote of the qualified electors of the city, before such change shall be effective. [C35, §5108-e2; C39, §5108.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §331.5]

331.6 When reduction takes effect. If the proposition to reduce the number of members of the board carries, the board shall consist of the same number of members as at the time the proposition to reduce was submitted, until the second secular day in January following the next general election, at which time the terms of all members of the board shall expire. [C73, §29; C97, §410; SS15, §410; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5109; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §331.6] Referred to in §331.3

331.7 Election of new members. At the next general election following the one at which the proposition to reduce the number of members of the board to three was carried, such members shall be elected pursuant to the supervisor representation plan currently in effect in such county. One person shall be elected as member of the board for two years and two for four years.

The length of term for which any person is a candidate and the time when the term begins shall be indicated on the ballot. [SS15, §410; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §5110; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §331.7] Referred to in §331.3

   a. Plan one. Election at large and without district residence requirements for members.

The board of supervisors, when petitioned by ten percent of the number of qualified electors of the county having voted in the last previous general election for the office of governor, shall cause a special election to be held within the county for the purpose of selecting the supervisor representation plan enumerated in section 331.8 under which such county board shall thereafter be elected.

Such petition shall be filed with the county auditor by January 1 of any general election year. However, the plan selected by such special election and any plan thereafter selected by special election shall remain in effect for at least six years. Said special election shall be held at least one hundred days prior to the primary election. Notice of such special election shall be published once each week for three successive weeks in an official newspaper of the county and shall state the alternative representation plans to be submitted to the electors and that the election will be held not less than five nor more than twenty days from the date of last publication.

Plan 2. At large but with equal population district residence requirements for members.
Plan 3. From single-member equal-population districts in which the electors of each district shall elect one member who shall be required to reside in that district.

If the plan adopted by a plurality of the ballots cast in the special election is not the supervisor representation plan currently in effect in the county, the members of the board serving at the time of the special election shall continue their terms until the second secular day in January following the next general election, at which time the terms of all such members shall expire and members shall be elected pursuant to the requirements of the plan adopted by the people and set out in sections 331.25, 331.26 and 331.27. These salaries shall be in full payment of all services rendered to the county by said supervisors except statutory mileage while actually engaged in the performance of official duties. Such mileage shall be limited to one thousand dollars for each supervisor. Supervisors on boards of more than five members shall receive a salary equal to the total salaries received by a five member board pursuant to the population schedule, divided by the number of members on such board.

In counties of forty thousand population or less the board of supervisors may on their own motion elect to receive their compensation on a per diem basis. If they so elect, the members of the board of supervisors shall each receive twenty-five dollars per day for each day actually in session or employed on committee service or as a ditch or drainage board considering drainage matters. No such member shall receive per diem pay in excess of five thousand dollars in any one calendar year. In addition, he shall receive ten cents for every mile traveled in going to and from sessions and in going to and from the place of performing committee service, however, such mileage payment shall not exceed one thousand dollars per year.

If on the same day the board considers matters involving two or more drainage districts, their per diem shall be apportioned by them among such districts.

If on the same day the board acts both as a county board and also for the purpose of considering drainage matters, the board shall be paid for one day only and from the general fund or drainage fund as the board may order. [R60, §317; C73, §3791; C97, §469; S13, §469; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§5125, 5127; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, §§331.22, 331.24; C71, §331.22; 61GA, ch 1080, §1]

331.23 and 331.24 Repealed by 63GA, ch 217, §2.

331.25 Plan "one" terms of office. If plan "one" is selected pursuant to section 331.8 or 331.9, the county board shall be elected as provided in this section.

1. In the primary and general elections, the number of supervisors, or candidates for such offices, which constitutes the county board in such county, shall be elected by the qualified electors of the county at large and no district residence requirements shall be imposed upon the candidates for such office.

2. In counties with three supervisors, one person shall be elected as a member of the board for two years and two persons shall be elected as members of the board for four years.

In counties with five supervisors, two persons shall be elected as members of the board for two years and three persons shall be elected as members of the board for four years.

In no case shall a board be composed of more than five members.

The determination as to whether a term of office shall be for two or four years shall be decided by lot prior to the primary election, and the results of such determination indicated on the ballot in such primary and general elections. [C71, §331.25]

Terms when no special election is held, 63GA, ch 215, §2(2)

331.26 Plan "two" terms of office. If plan "two" is selected pursuant to section 331.8 or 331.9, the county board shall be elected as provided in this section.

1. The board of supervisors shall, before November 1, 1969, and before November 1 of the nonelection year following each federal decennial census thereafter, if necessary, divide the county into a number of supervisor districts corresponding to the number of supervisors in such county. However, if such plan is selected pursuant to section 331.9, the board shall so divide the county before March 15 of the election year. The board shall make a good-faith effort to achieve precise mathematical equality in the population of such districts as indicated by the most recent federal decennial census.

Such supervisor districts may be drawn on the basis of existing natural or artificial divisions and boundaries of the county; township and voting precinct lines may be crossed; but in no event shall the existence of convenient district boundaries justify the designation of supervisor districts which are not of as nearly precise mathematical equality in population as is practicable.

2. Members of the county board shall be required to reside one to each supervisor district but shall be elected by the electors of the county at large. Election ballots shall be prepared to specify the district which each candidate seeks to represent and each elector may cast a vote for one candidate from each district for which a supervisor is to be chosen in the general election.

3. The county board may redesignate supervisor districts once in every two years, and no sooner. In the event that the board redistricts, it must be completed and available to the public by November 1 of the year prior to the election to be applicable in that election year. The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed as having the effect of lengthening or diminishing the term of office of any member of such board as a result of such redesignation, nor shall districts be redesignated except in compliance with this section. No supervisor district shall be designated by the county board pursuant to subsection 1 of this section which, while complying with the requirement that it be of as nearly precise mathematical equality in population as practicable to the other supervisor districts of the county, discriminates by design for or against any political party, board member, candidate for board membership, racial or ethnic minority or any other group of persons.

4. At the primary and general elections the number of supervisors, or candidates for such offices, which constitute the county board in such county shall be elected as provided in this section. Terms of members shall be as provided in section 331.25, subsection 2. [C71, §331.26]

Referred to in §§331.9, 331.27

331.27 Plan “three.” If plan “three” is selected pursuant to section 331.8 or 331.9, the county board shall be elected as provided in section 331.26, except that each member of the board, and candidates for such office, shall, at the primary and general elections, be elected only by the electors of the district which he or they seek to represent. [C71, §331.27]

Referred to in §331.9

Section 331.27, Code 1966, repealed by 63GA, ch 218, §11

331.28 Special transition provisions.

1. In the event there is no special election pursuant to section 331.9 or a special election does not change the supervisor representation plan selected by the board pursuant to section 331.8, the members of the board elected in the 1968 general election shall continue to retain office until their terms expire. If plan “one” is selected, or imposed pursuant to the Sixty-third General Assembly, chapter 218, section 1, subsection 3, such holdover members shall become supervisors at large.

2. No county board shall, after the second secular day in January 1971, be composed of more than five members. Boards of more than five members shall, before the 1970 general election, reduce their number to five in a manner determined by the board and pursuant to law.

If plan “two” or “three” is selected under the circumstances described in subsection 1 of this section, each holdover member shall represent the supervisor district wherein he resides; however, if two or more such holdover members are residents of the same district the terms of both or all of such members shall expire on the second secular day following the 1970 general election and members shall be chosen in such election to fill the vacancies thus created. The terms of such members shall be two years. [C71, §331.28]

On or before the thirty-first day of December of each year, each elective or appointive officer of any county having charge of any county office or department shall prepare and submit to the board of supervisors a detailed estimate itemized in the same manner that the various expenditures of such office or department are itemized on the records of the county auditor, showing the proposed expenditures of his office or department for the following calendar year. If the estimated expenditures show an increase over those for the current year, a statement in writing of the reason for such estimated increase must also be submitted. [C31, 35, §5260-c1; C39, §5260.01; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §344.1]

344.2 Appropriation. On or before the thirty-first of January of every year, the board of supervisors shall appropriate, by resolution, such amounts as are deemed necessary for each of the different county officers and departments during the ensuing year, and shall specify from which of the different county funds created by law the appropriated sums shall be derived. The appropriations to each separate county office or department shall be itemized on the same manner as the accounts are itemized on the records of the county auditor. [C31, 35, §5260-c2; C39, §5260.02; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §344.2]

The board of supervisors may also appropriate to a contingent account for one or each of the county funds, a sum which may be spent for purposes which cannot be anticipated at the beginning of the year, but said contingent appropriation together with other appropriations shall not exceed the anticipated revenues. [C31, 35, §5260-c3; C39, §5260.03; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §344.3]

The total amount appropriated from any county fund shall not exceed the anticipated receipts of that fund. [C31, 35, §5260-c4; C39, §5260.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §344.4]

If it shall have been determined during the course of any year that the actual receipts to any of the different county funds will be larger than were anticipated in the original resolution of appropriation, the board of supervisors may make a supplementary appropriation by resolution at any regular meeting, appropriating the sums in excess of the estimated receipts from any county fund augmented by larger revenues than were anticipated, to any county office or offices supported by said fund or funds. No such supplementary appropriation shall be made to any such county office or offices unless it shall be shown that a specific need therefor exists. Such supplementary appropriation shall clearly state the amount collected into such augmented county fund in excess of the amount estimated in the general resolution of appropriation. [C31, 35, §5260-c6; C39, §5260.06; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 63, 71, §344.6]

344.10 Expenditures exceeding appropriation. It shall be unlawful for any county official, the expenditures of whose office come under the provisions of this chapter, to authorize the expenditure of a sum for his department larger than the amount which has been appropriated by the county board of supervisors.

Any county official in charge of any department or office who violates this law shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished accordingly. [C31, §345.10; C39, §345.10; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §344.10] rescinded in like manner and upon like notice, by a subsequent vote taken thereon, but neither contracts made under them, nor taxes voted for carrying into effect, can be rescinded, provided that taxes voted for carrying into effect any such proposition may be by subsequent vote of the electors allocated to another designated purpose. If upon such subsequent vote of the electors, a majority of the votes cast is adverse to the allocation proposed, then the tax fund shall revert to and become part of the county general fund. [C39, §348.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §347.2] Referred to in §37.27

347.3 Submission at general election. Upon the presentation of such petition, the board of supervisors shall submit to the voters of the county at the next general election the question of issuing bonds and levying a tax for such hospital in the form and manner required for the submission of public measures in the title on elections. [S13, §§109-a, b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §349; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §347.3] Submission procedure, §49.43 et seq.; also ch 345

Said bonds shall be due and payable in twenty years from date of issuance, but at the option of the county payable at any time after ten years from such date, and shall be substantially in the form provided for county bonds, and shall show on their face that they are county public hospital bonds payable only from the county public hospital fund as provided for in section 347.7. The proceeds of such taxes shall constitute the county public hospital fund and such fund shall be subject to review by the board of supervisors in counties over two hundred twenty-five thousand. Provided, however, that the board of trustees of a county hospital of said county, where funds are available in the county public hospital fund of said county which are unappropriated, may use such unappropriated funds for erecting and equipping hospital buildings and additions thereto without authority from the voters of said county.

For the purpose of computing whether or not said proposition is carried, the votes of the residents of the town or city in which said hospital is located shall be counted both for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the proposition is carried within the city or town and also for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the proposition is carried within the county. [C62, 66, §347.23]

If any of the provisions of this section shall be in conflict with any of the laws of this state, then the provisions of this section shall prevail. [C62, 66, §347.25]

347.26 Health care facility in existing hospital.
In any county where there is a county hospital in existence, a health care facility as defined in section 135C.1 may be established to be operated in conjunction therewith, and all of the provisions of this chapter and all of the proceedings authorized hereby relating to hospital buildings and additions thereto, shall apply to erecting, equipping and procuring sites for such facilities and replacements thereto, as well as for improvements, maintenance and replacements of such facilities. [C62, 66, §347.26]

Any county having therefore established a county public hospital being operated under the provisions of this chapter may equip, enlarge, and improve the county public hospital and acquire the necessary lands, rights of way, and other property. For the purpose of equipping, enlarging, and improving any such county public hospital, including the acquisition of the necessary lands, rights of way, and other property, any county may, pursuant to resolution of the board of supervisors of the county and after it has been determined by the board of hospital trustees to be advisable, from time to time issue and dispose of its negotiable interest-bearing revenue bonds, payable solely as to both principal and interest from the revenues derived from the operation of the county public hospital. All such bonds may bear such date or dates, may mature at such time or times not exceeding thirty years from their respective dates, may bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding seven percent per annum payable semiannually, may be in such form and payable at such place or places, and may be subject to such redemption privileges as are stated on the face thereof and as may be provided in the resolution.

After a resolution authorizing the revenue bonds has been adopted, the county auditor shall publish notice of the adoption in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the county at least once each week for two consecutive weeks. The notice shall identify the resolution by the date of its adoption and shall specify the amount of bonds proposed to be issued. If within thirty days following the date of the first publication of the notice a petition is filed with the county auditor signed by qualified voters of the county in a number equal to or exceeding twenty percent of the total number of votes cast in the county for governor at the last preceding regular election at which a governor was elected, then the bonds authorized by the resolution shall not be issued until the proposition to issue the bonds is submitted at an election throughout the county and approved by not less than sixty percent of the votes cast for and against the proposition. When any petition is filed, it shall be referred to the board of supervisors at its next meeting. The board of supervisors may either refer the bond resolution or order the election which shall be called and conducted in the manner provided by chapter 315. If no petition is filed within the time provided or if a petition is filed and the proposition of issuing the bonds is approved at the election, then the board of supervisors may proceed with the equipment, enlargement and improvement of the county public hospital and the acquisition of the necessary lands, rights of way, and other property and the issuance of revenue bonds, as provided in this section.
Under no circumstances shall any revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this section be or become an indebtedness of the county within the purview of any constitutional or statutory limitation or provision. It shall be plainly stated on the face of each bond that it does not constitute such an indebtedness, but is payable solely from revenues derived from the operation of the county hospital. All the bonds shall be sold in a manner and upon terms prescribed by the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds, however no bonds shall be sold upon terms that will result in an interest cost computed to maturity of the bonds according to standard tables of bond values of more than seven percent per annum. The resolution authorizing the revenue bonds may contain any covenants determined by the board of supervisors to be desirable in connection with the use and application of the bond proceeds, the operation of the county public hospital, and the custody and application of the revenues from this operation. The sole remedy for any breach or default of the terms of any bonds or proceedings for their issuance shall be by mandamus in a court of competent jurisdiction to compel performance and compliance therewith.

The board of hospital trustees shall fix rates, fees, and charges for the services furnished by the county public hospital so that the revenues of the county public hospital will be at all times sufficient to provide for the payment of the interest on and principal of all revenue bonds issued and outstanding under the provisions of this section, and for the payment of all operating and maintenance expenses of the county public hospital. If in any year, after payment of the accruing interest on and principal due of any revenue bonds issued hereunder from the revenues derived from the operation of such hospital, there be a balance of such revenues insufficient to pay the expenses of operation and maintenance of the county public hospital the board of hospital trustees shall certify that fact as soon as ascertained to the board of supervisors of such county, and thereafter it shall be the duty of such board of supervisors to make the amount of such deficiency for paying the expenses of operation and maintenance of the county public hospital available from other county funds or, the board of supervisors of such county shall levy a tax not to exceed one mill in counties having a population of less than two hundred twenty-five thousand inhabitants, or four and one-half mills in counties having a population of two hundred twenty-five thousand inhabitants or over, in any one year on all the taxable property in said county in an amount sufficient for that purpose, it being conditioned that no general county funds or the proceeds of any taxes shall ever be used or applied to the payment of the interest on or principal of any revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this section, but that such general county funds or proceeds of taxes may only be used and applied to pay such expenses of operation and maintenance of the county public hospital as cannot be paid from available revenues derived from such operation.

All contracts for construction work to be paid for in whole or in part through the issuance of revenue bonds under the provisions of this section shall be awarded by the board of supervisors on competitive bidding following such advertisement as may be prescribed by such board.

This section is an alternative and independent method for the equipment, enlargement, and improvement of a county public hospital, and for the issuance and sale of revenue bonds and shall not be construed as limiting or superseding any other method of equipping, enlarging, or improving a county public hospital [61GA, ch 202,§1].

The board of hospital trustees may employ, fix the compensation and remove at pleasure professional, technical and other employees, skilled or unskilled, as it may deem necessary for the operation and maintenance of the hospital, and disbursement of funds in such operation and maintenance shall be made upon order and approval of the board of hospital trustees. A county hospital may include a nurses home and nurses training school. The board of trustees shall make all rules and regulations governing its meetings and the operation of the county hospital and shall fix rates, fees and charges for the services thereby furnished so that the revenues will be at all times sufficient in the aggregate to provide for the payment of the interest on and principal of all revenue bonds that may be issued and outstanding under the provisions of this chapter, and for the payment of all operating and maintenance expenses of the hospital. 347A.2 Bonds — authorization — payment. For the purpose of acquiring, constructing, equipping, enlarging or improving such hospital or any part thereof, any such county may, pursuant to resolution of the board of supervisors of such county, from time to time issue and dispose of its negotiable interest-bearing revenue bonds payable solely as to both principal and interest from the revenues to be derived from the operation of such hospital. All such bonds may bear such date or dates, may mature at such time or times, may not exceed thirty years from their respective dates, may bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding seven percent per annum payable semiannually, may be in such form and payable at such place or places, and may be subject to such redemption privileges as is stated on the face thereof and as may be provided in such resolution. After a resolution authorizing such revenue bonds has been adopted the county auditor shall publish notice of such adoption in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the county at least once each week for two consecutive weeks. Such notice shall identify the resolution by the date of its adoption and shall specify the amount of bonds proposed to be issued, and if within twenty days following the date of the first publication of such notice a petition is filed with the county auditor signed by qualified voters of said county in number equal to or exceeding twenty percent of the total number of votes cast in such county for governor at the last preceding regular election wherein a governor was elected then the bonds authorized by such resolution shall not be issued unless and until the proposition to issue same shall have been submitted at an election throughout the county and approved by not less than sixty percent of the votes cast for and against the proposition.
When any such petition is filed it shall be referred to the board of supervisors at its next meeting and thereupon the board of supervisors may either repeal the bond resolution or order the election which shall be called and conducted in the manner provided by chapter 345. If there be no petition filed within the time hereinbefore provided or if there be a petition filed and the proposition of issuing such bonds is approved at such election then the board of supervisors may proceed with the acquisition, construction, equipment, operation and maintenance of the county hospital and the issuance of bonds in connection therewith, all as in this chapter permitted and provided. Under no circumstances shall the revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter be or become an indebtedness of the county within the purview of any constitutional or statutory limitation or provision, and it shall be plainly stated on the face of each bond that it does not constitute such an indebtedness, but is payable solely from the revenues as aforesaid. All such bonds shall be sold in such manner and upon such terms as is prescribed by the resolution authorizing the issuance thereof, provided, that no bonds shall be sold upon terms that will result in an interest cost computed to majority of the bonds and bearing to standard tables of bond values of more than seven percent per annum. The resolution authorizing such revenue bonds may contain such covenants as are determined by the board of supervisors to be desirable in connection with the use and application of the bond proceeds, the operation of the county hospital and the custody and application of the revenues from such operation. The sole remedy for any breach or default of the terms of any such bonds or proceedings for their issuance shall be by mandamus in a court of competent jurisdiction to compel performance and compliance therewith. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §347A.2]

347A.3 Tax for maintenance and operation. If in any year, after payment of the accruing interest on and principal due of any revenue bonds issued hereunder from the revenues derived from the operation of such hospital, there is a balance of such revenues insufficient to pay the expenses of operation and maintenance of the county hospital the board of hospital trustees shall certify that fact as soon as ascertained to the board of supervisors of such county, and thereupon it shall be the duty of such board of supervisors to make the amount of such deficiency for paying the expenses of operation and maintenance of the county hospital available from other county funds or, the board of supervisors of such county shall levy a tax not to exceed four mills in any one year on all the taxable property in said county in an amount sufficient for that purpose, it being conditioned that no general county funds or the proceeds of any taxes shall ever be used or applied to the payment of the interest on or principal of any revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter, but that such general county funds or proceeds of taxes may only be used and applied to pay such expenses of operation and maintenance of the county hospital as cannot be paid from available revenue derived from such operation. [C50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §347A.3]

347A.4 Independent method. This chapter shall be construed as providing an alternative and independent method for the acquisition, construction, equipment, enlargement, improvement, operation and maintenance of a county hospital, and for the issuance and sale of revenue bonds in connection therewith, and shall not be construed as an amendment of or subject to the provisions of any other law. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §347A.4]

347A.6 Collection of accounts. It shall be the duty of the hospital trustees either by themselves or through the superintendent or similar person to make collections of all accounts for hospital services. Such account shall be payable on presentation to the person liable thereby of an itemized statement and if not paid or secured within sixty days after such presentation the said trustees shall proceed to enforce collections by such means as are necessary and are authorized to employ any person for that purpose and, if legal proceedings are required, may employ counsel, the employment in either event to be on such arrangement for compensation as the hospital trustees deem appropriate. [C58, 62, 66, 71, §347A.6]

347A.7 Enlarging and improving county hospital. For the purpose of enlarging and improving any county hospital or hospitals theretofore acquired and being operated under the provisions of this chapter, any such county, upon petition and recommendation of the board of hospital trustees, and pursuant to resolution of the board of supervisors of such county, may from time to time incur indebtedness and issue and sell the negotiable obligation bonds of said county, provided that the principal amount of all such bonds which may be issued and outstanding under this section shall not be in excess of two percent of the assessed value of the taxable property in such county as shown by the latest state and county tax list. All such bonds may bear such date or dates, may matures at such time or times not exceeding twenty years from their respective dates, may bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding seven percent per annum payable semiannually, may be in such form and payable at such place or places, and may be made subject to such privileges of redemption prior to maturity and upon such terms of redemption as are stated on the face of such bonds and as may be provided in such resolution.
For the purpose of paying such bonds and interest thereon, the board of supervisors of such county shall in and by the resolution authorizing the issuance thereof provide for the levy of an annual tax sufficient for that purpose on all of the taxable property in such county, in addition to all other taxes.

After the resolution authorizing any such bonds has been adopted the county auditor shall publish notice of such adoption in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the county at least once each week for two consecutive weeks. Such notice shall identify the resolution by the date of its adoption and shall specify the amount of bonds proposed to be issued, and if, within twenty days following the date of the first publication of such notice, a petition is filed with the county auditor signed by qualified voters of said county in number equal to or exceeding twenty percent of the total number of votes cast in such county for governor at the last preceding regular election wherein a governor was elected, then the bonds authorized by such resolution shall not be issued unless and until the proposition to issue same shall have been submitted at an election throughout the county and approved by not less than sixty percent of the votes cast for and against the proposition. When any such petition is filed, it shall be referred to the board of supervisors at its next meeting and thereupon the board of supervisors may either repeal the bond resolution or order an election which shall be called and conducted substantially in the manner provided by chapter 37. If no petition is filed within the time hereinbefore provided or if a petition is filed and the proposition of issuing such bonds is approved at such election, then the board of supervisors may proceed with the enlargement and improvement of such county hospital and the issuance of bonds in connection therewith, all as in this section permitted and provided.

This section shall be construed as providing an alternative and independent method for the enlargement and improvement of such county hospital; shall not be construed as limiting or supersedes any other method of enlargement and improvement of such county hospital; and shall not be construed as an amendment of or subject to the provisions of any other law. [C62, 66, 71, §347A.7]
