428A.1 Amount of tax on transfers. There is imposed on each deed, instrument, or writing by which any lands, tenements, or other realty in this state shall be granted, assigned, transferred, or otherwise conveyed, a tax determined in the following manner. When there is no consideration or when the deed instrument or writing is executed and tendered for recording as an instrument corrective of title, and so states, there shall be no tax. When there is consideration and the actual market value of the real property transferred is in excess of five hundred dollars, the tax shall be fifty-five cents for each five hundred dollars or fractional part of five hundred dollars in excess of five hundred dollars. The term "consideration" as used in this chapter, means the full amount of the actual sale price of the real property involved, paid or to be paid, including the amount of an incumbrance or lien on the property, whether assumed or not by the grantee. It shall be presumed that the sale price so stated shall include the value of all personal property transferred as part of the sale unless the dollar value of said personal property is stated on the instrument of conveyance. When the dollar value of the personal property included in the sale is so stated, it shall be deducted from the consideration shown on the instrument for the purpose of determining the tax. [C66, 71, §428A.1; 64GA, ch 1106,§1]

The validity of the effectiveness of an instrument as between the parties thereto, and as to any person who would otherwise be bound thereby, shall not be affected by the failure to comply herewith; nor if an instrument is accepted for recording or filing contrary to the provision hereof, shall the failure to comply herewith destroy or impair the record thereof as notice. [C66, 71, §428A.4; 64GA, ch 1106, §4]

The county recorder shall deposit the remaining twenty-five percent of the receipts to the credit of the county general fund.

The county recorder shall keep such records and make such reports with respect to the documentary stamps entrusted to his custody and with respect to the sale of such stamps as the director of revenue shall prescribe. [C66, 71, §428A.8; 64GA, ch 1106, §5]

Actual value—how ascertained. The director of revenue shall first ascertain the actual value of the entire property owned by said company, from said statements or otherwise, for that purpose taking the aggregate market value of all shares of capital stock, in case said shares have a market value, and in case they have none, taking the actual value thereof or of the capital of said company, in whatever manner the same is divided, in case no shares of capital stock have been issued; provided, however, that in case the whole or any portion of the property of said company shall be encumbered by a mortgage or mortgages, the director shall ascertain the actual actual value per mile of the property of such company within the state. The assessed or taxable value shall be determined by taking that percentage of the actual value so ascertained, as is provided by section 441.21, and such valuation and assessment shall be in the same ratio as that of the property of individuals. [§13, §1346-e; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7084; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §436.8]

436.9 Assessment in each county—how certified. The director of revenue shall thereupon, for the purpose of determining what amount shall be assessed to said company in each county of the state through, across, into, or over which the route of said company extends, multiply the value per mile, as above ascertained, by the number of miles in each of said counties, as reported in said statements, or as otherwise ascertained, and the result thereof, with the mileage and the rate of assessment per mile, shall be by the director certified to the auditors respectively of the several counties through, into, over, and across which the routes of said company extend. [§13, §1346-f; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7085; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §436.9]

436.10 Entry of certificate. At the first meeting of the board of supervisors held after such certificate is received by the county auditor, it shall cause the same to be entered in its minute book, and make and enter therein an order stating the length of the routes and the assessed value of each in each city, town, township, or other taxing district in its county, through or into which said routes extend, which shall constitute the taxable value of said property for taxing purposes, and the taxes on said property, when collected by the county treasurer, shall be disposed of as other taxes. [§13, §1346-g; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7086; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §436.10]

436.11 Levy of tax—rates. The county auditor shall immediately thereafter transmit a copy of said order to the councils of cities, or towns, and to the trustees of each township in the county, and shall also add to the value so apportioned the assessed value of the real estate, buildings, machinery, fixtures, appliances, and personal property not used exclusively in the conduct of the business within the state that are subject to local taxation within the counties, townships, and other assessment districts as hereinbefore described in the sixth subsection of section 436.3. 436.8 Actual value per mile—taxable value. The director of revenue shall thereupon ascertain the value per mile of the property within the state, by dividing the total value as above ascertained, after deducting the specific properties locally assessed within the state, by the number of miles within the state, and the result shall be deemed and held to be the value of such property by adding to the market value or the aggregate shares of stock or to the value of the capital, in case there shall be no such shares, the aggregate amount of the market or cash value of such mortgage or mortgages, and the result shall be deemed and treated as the actual value of the property of such company. The director shall, for the purpose of ascertaining the actual value of the property within the state, next ascertain from such statements or otherwise the actual value of the property, both real and personal, owned by the company; and which is used exclusively outside the general business of the company, and also the actual value of that part of its property, if any, without the state which can not lawfully be considered in determining the mileage value of its route: and the aggregate of such values shall be deducted from the entire actual value of the property as above ascertained. The director shall next ascertain and deduct the actual value of the sea or ocean routes of any such company, and in ascertaining the same may take into consideration the earnings, both gross and net per mile, of such sea or ocean routes, as compared with the earnings, gross and net, of the land routes of such company, or may ascertain their value in any other practicable manner, and may require that the reports herefore provided for shall show such earnings. Thereupon the director shall ascertain the actual value of the property of such company within the state, and for that purpose may take into consideration the proportional value of the company's property without and within the state, and shall take as a basis of valuation of the company's property in this state the proportion of the whole aggregate value of the property of said company, as above ascertained, after making the deductions above provided for which the length of the routes within the state bears to the whole length of the routes of such company other than sea or ocean routes, and such amount so ascertained shall be considered and taxed as the proportional value of the entire value of the property of such company within the state. From the entire actual value of the property within the state so ascertained, there shall be deducted by the director the actual value of all the real estate, buildings, machinery, appliances, and personal property not used exclusively in the conduct of the business within the state that are subject to local taxation within the counties, townships, and other assessment districts as hereinbefore described in the sixth subsection of section 436.3. [§13, §1346-f; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7083; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §436.7]

The court shall make an appropriate finding as to the existence of taxable property not listed. All taxable property discovered thereby shall thereupon be assessed by the assessor in the manner provided by law.

In all cases where the court finds that the taxpayer has not listed its or his property, as provided by law, and in all hearings where the court decides a matter against the taxpayer, the costs shall be paid by the taxpayer, otherwise they shall be paid out of the assessment expense fund. 9. Furnish to the director of revenue any information which he may have relative to the ownership of any property that may be assessable within this state, but not assessable or subject to being listed for taxation by him.

10. Measure the exterior length and exterior width of all mobile homes except those for which said measurements are contained in the manufacturer's and importer's certificate of origin, and report said information to the county treasurer. Check all mobile homes and travel trailers for violations of registration and for inaccuracy or measurements as necessary or upon written request of the county treasurer and report such findings immediately to the county treasurer. 441.18 Listing and valuation. Each assessor shall, with the assistance of each person assessed, or who may be required by law to list property belonging to another, enter upon the assessment rolls the several items of property required to be entered for assessment. He shall personally affix values to all property assessed by him. [C51, §§474, 475; R60, §§735, 736; C73, §§824, 825; C97, §§1355, 1359, 1366; S13, §§1355, 1366; C24, 27, 31, 35, 59, §§7108, 7114, 7122, 7123; C46, §§441.3, 411.9, 411.17, 411.18; C50, 54, 58, §§405A.8, 441.4, 411.12, 462, 66, 71, §§441.17; HGA, ch 1104, §6]

441.19 Owner to assist—provisions for assessment. The assessor shall list every person in his county or city as the case may be and assess all the property therein, personal and real, except such as is heretofore exempted or otherwise assessed. Any person who shall refuse to assist in making out a list of his property, or of any property which he is by law required to assist in listing or who shall refuse to make either of the oaths or affirmations or combinations thereof required by section 111.20, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars.

1. Supplemental and optional to the procedure for the assessment of property by the assessor as provided in this chapter, the assessor is hereby authorized to require from all persons required to list their property for taxation as provided by sections 289.1, 282.2 and 282.3, a supplemental return to be prescribed by the director of revenue upon which such person shall list his property. Such supplemental return shall be in substantially the same form as now prescribed by law for the assessment rolls used in the listing of property by the assessors, and the director of revenue may prescribe separate supplemental forms for the listing of personal property, both tangible and intangible. It shall be the duty of every person required to list property for taxation to make a complete listing of such property upon such supplemental forms and to return the same to the assessor as promptly as possible. Such return shall be verified over the signature of the person making the return and the provisions of section 441.25 shall apply to any person making such return. The assessor shall make such supplemental return forms available as soon as practicable after the first day of January of each year. The assessor shall make such supplemental return forms available to the taxpayer by mail, or at a designated place within the taxing district.

2. Upon receipt of such supplemental return from any person the assessor shall prepare a roll assessing such person as hereinafter provided. In the preparation of such assessment roll the assessor shall be guided not only by the information contained in such supplemental roll, but by any other information he may have or which may be obtained by him as prescribed by the law relating to the assessment of property. The assessor shall not be bound by any values as listed in such supplemental return, and he may include in the assessment roll any property omitted from the supplemental return which in the knowledge and belief of the assessor should be listed as required by law by the person making the supplemental return. Upon completion of such roll he shall deliver to the person submitting such supplemental return a copy of the assessment roll, either personally or by mail.

3. Any taxpayer aggrieved by the action of the assessor in the preparation of an assessment roll upon which a supplemental return has been made shall have the same rights and privileges of appeal as provided by law in connection with the assessment rolls prepared in entirety by the assessor, but no assessment rolls prepared by the assessor after receiving a supplemental return shall be deemed insufficient or invalid because of the fact that such assessment roll does not bear the signature of the person assessed, and the signature of the person listing property upon the supplemental return shall be deemed a signature on the roll as prepared by the assessor.

4. The supplemental returns herein provided for shall be preserved in the same manner as assessment rolls, but shall be confidential to the assessor, board of review, or director of revenue, and shall not be open to public inspection, but any final assessment roll as made out by the assessor shall be a public record, provided that such supplemental return shall be available to counsel of either the person making the return or of the public, in case any appeal is taken to the board of review or to the court.

5. In the event of failure of any person required to list property to make a supplemental return, as required herein, on or before the fifteenth day of February of any year when such listing is required, the assessor shall proceed in the listing and assessment of his property as provided by this chapter, and no person subject to taxation shall be relieved of his obligation to list his property through failure to make a supplemental return as herein provided, and any roll prepared by the assessor after receiving a supplemental return or when prepared in accordance with other provisions of this chapter, shall be a valid assessment.

6. The provisions of this chapter relating to assessment rolls shall be applicable to the preparation of rolls upon which a supplemental return has been received, insofar as they are not in conflict with the provisions of this section.

441.20 Oath. The assessor shall administer the oath or affirmation printed on the assessment rolls hereinafter prescribed, or combination thereof, to each person assessed, and require the person taking such oath to subscribe the same, and, in case anyone refuses so to do, he shall note the fact in the column of remarks opposite such person's name.

441.21 Actual, assessed and taxable value.

1. All real and tangible personal property subject to taxation shall be valued at its actual value which shall be entered opposite each item, and shall be assessed at twenty-seven percent of such actual value, and such value so assessed shall be taken into consideration in arriving at the assessed value, sale prices of the property or comparable property in normal transactions reflecting market value, and the probable availability or unavailability of persons interested in purchasing the property, shall be taken into consideration in arriving at its market value. In arriving at market value, sale prices of property in abnormal transactions not reflecting market value shall not be taken into account; or shall be adjusted to eliminate the effect of factors which distort market value, including but not limited to sales to immediate family of the seller, foreclosure or other forced sales, contract sales, discounted purchase transactions or purchase of adjoining land or other land to be operated as a unit.

Actual value of property in one assessing jurisdiction shall be equalized as compared with actual value of property in an adjoining assessing jurisdiction. If a variation of five percent or more exists between the actual values of similar, closely adjacent property in adjoining assessing jurisdictions in Iowa, the assessors thereof shall determine whether adequate reasons exist for such variation. If no such reasons exist, the assessors shall make adjustments in such actual values to reduce the variation to five percent or less.

In assessing and determining the actual value of agricultural property fifty percent consideration shall be given to each of the following factors:

a. The productivity and net earning capacity determined on the basis of the use for agricultural purposes capitalized at a rate representing a fair return on the investment, such rate to be established by the state board of tax review and applied uniformly among counties and among classes of property.

b. The fair and reasonable market value of such property as defined herein, but such market value shall be based only on its current use and not on its potential value for other uses.

In counties or townships in which field work on a modern soil survey has been completed since January 1, 1949, the assessor and the department of revenue shall place emphasis upon the results of such survey in determining the productive and earning capacity of such agricultural property.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the actual value of any property shall not exceed its fair and reasonable market value.

The market value of an inventory or goods in bulk shall be the market value as such inventory or goods in bulk, not their retail or unit price. Such market value shall be based on market value of similar classes of property.

In the event market value of the property being assessed cannot be readily established in the foregoing manner, then the assessor may consider its productive and earning capacity, if any, industrial conditions, its cost, physical and functional depreciation and obsolescence and replacement cost, and all other factors which would assist in determining the fair and reasonable market value of the property but the actual value shall not be determined by the use of only one such factor. The following shall not be taken into consideration: Special value or use value of the property to its present owner, and the good will or value of a business which uses the property as distinguished from the value of the property as property. Upon adoption of uniform rules and regulations by the state tax commission or succeeding authority covering assessments and valuations of such properties, said valuation on such properties shall be determined in accordance therewith for assessment purposes to assure uniformity, but such rules and regulations shall not be inconsistent with or change the foregoing means of determining the actual, market, taxable and assessed values.

"Actual value", "taxable value", or "assessed value" as used in other sections of the Code shall mean the valuations as determined by this section; however, other provisions of the Code providing special methods or formulas for assessing or valuing specified property shall remain in effect, but this section shall be applicable to the extent consistent with such provisions. The assessor and department of revenue shall disclose at the written request of the taxpayer all information in any formula or method used to determine the actual value of this property.

The burden of proof shall be upon any complainant attacking such valuation as excessive, inadequate, inequitable or capricious; however, in protest or appeal proceedings when the complainant offers competent evidence by at least two disinterested witnesses that the market value of the property is less than the market value determined by the assessor, the burden of proof thereafter shall be upon the officials or persons seeking to uphold such valuation to be assessed.

2. For the purpose of computing the debt limitations for municipalities, political subdivisions and school districts as provided in sections 107.1 and 407.2, the term "actual value" as used in said sections shall mean the "actual value" as determined by this section and entered opposite each item, and as listed on the tax list as provided in section 143.2 as "actual value".

Whenever any board of review or other tribunal changes the assessed value of property, all applicable records of assessment shall be adjusted to reflect such change in both assessed value and actual value of such property.

3. Any normal and necessary repairs to any building, not amounting to structural replacements or modifications, shall not increase the taxable value of such building. The provisions of this paragraph shall apply only to repairs of five hundred dollars or less per building per year. 441.22 Forest and fruit-tree reservations. Forest reservations fulfilling the conditions of sections 161.1 to 161.13, inclusive, shall be assessed on a taxable valuation of four dollars per acre. Fruit-tree reservations shall be assessed on a taxable valuation of four dollars per acre for a period of eight years from the time of planting. In all other cases where trees are planted upon any tract of land.

441.23 Notice of valuation. If there has been an increase or decrease in the valuation of the property, or upon the written request of the person assessed, the assessor shall, at the time of making the assessment, inform the person assessed, in writing, of the valuation put upon his property, and notify him, if he feels aggrieved, to appear before the board of review and show why the assessment should be changed. The owners of real property shall be notified not later than April 1 of any adjustment of the real property assessment. 441.24 Refusal to furnish statement. If any corporation or person refuse to furnish the verified statements required in connection with the assessment of property by the assessor, or to list his property, or to take or subscribe the oath required, the director of revenue, or assessor, as the case may be, shall proceed to list and assess such property according to the best information obtainable, and shall add to the taxable valuation one hundred percent without regard to area, for forest, fruit, shade, or ornamental purposes, or for windbreaks, and shall add to the taxable valuation one hundred percent thereof, which valuation and penalty shall be separately shown, and shall constitute the assessment; and if the valuation of such property shall be changed by any board of review, or on appeal therefrom, a like penalty shall be added to the valuation thus fixed. 441.26 Assessment rolls and books. The director of revenue shall each year prescribe the form of assessment roll to be used by all assessors in assessing real and personal property, including moneys and credits. In this state, also the form of pages of the assessor's assessment book. Such assessment rolls shall be in such form as will permit entering thereon, separately, the names of all persons, partnerships, corporations, or associations assessed; shall contain a form of oath or affirmation to be administered to each person assessed, and shall also contain a notice in the following form:

“If you are not satisfied that the foregoing assessment is correct, you may file a protest against such assessment with the board of review on or after April 16, and including May 5, of the year of the assessment, such protest to be confined to the grounds specified in section 441.37. Dated ........ day of ........, 19........ .........County/City Assessor.”

Such assessment rolls shall be used in listing the property and showing the values affixed to such property of all persons, partnerships, corporations, or associations assessed, which rolls shall be made in duplicate. Said duplicate roll shall be signed by the assessor, detached from the original and delivered to the person assessed if there has been an increase or decrease in the valuation of the property, or upon the written request of the person assessed. It shall be lawful to combine the affidavit or form of oath or affirmation with reference to real and personal property, and the affidavit or form of oath or affirmation as to moneys and credits, into one affidavit or form of oath or affirmation, and only the one such affidavit or form of oath or affirmation shall be sufficient on the assessment roll. The pages of the assessor's assessment book shall contain columns ruled and headed for the information required by this chapter and that which the county auditor shall carefully keep and preserve all such rolls, schedules and book for a period of five years from the time of filing of the same in his office. Provided, however, in §441.36 Change of assessment — notice. All changes in assessments authorized by the board of review, and reasons therefor, shall be entered in the minute book kept by said board and on the assessment roll. Said minute book shall be filed with the assessor after the adjournment of the board of review and shall taxing district, and in such case, it shall de-

441.37 Protest of assessment—grounds. Any property owner or aggrieved taxpayer who is dissatisfied with his assessment may file a protest against such assessment with the board of review on or after April 16, to and including May 5, of the year of the assessment. In any county which has been declared to be a disaster area by proper federal authorities after March 1 and prior to May 20 of said year of assessment, the time for filing a protest shall be extended to and include the period from May 25 to June 5 of such year. Said protest shall be in writing and signed by the one protesting or by his duly authorized agent. Taxpayer may have an oral hearing thereon if request therefor in writing is made at the time of filing the protest. Said protest must be confined to one or more of the following grounds:

1. That said assessment is not equitable as compared with assessments of other like property in the taxing district. When this ground is relied upon as the basis of a protest the specific amount which the protesting party considers a fair value and the amount he considers a fair assessment, the time for filing a protest shall not be considered on this ground.

2. That his property is assessed for more than the value authorized by law, stating the reasons therefor.

3. That his property is not assessable and stating the reasons therefor.

4. That there is an error in the assessment and state the specific alleged error.

5. That there is fraud in the assessment which shall be specifically stated.

In addition to the above, the property owner may protest annually to the board of review under the provisions of section 441.35, but such protest shall be in the same manner and upon the same terms as heretofore prescribed in this section.

After the board of review has considered any protest filed by a property owner or aggrieved taxpayer and made final disposition of the protest, the board shall give written notice to the property owner or aggrieved taxpayer who filed the protest of the action taken by the board of review on the protest. 441.38 Appeal to district court. Appeals may be taken from the action of the board of review with reference to protests of assessment, to the district court of the county in which such board holds its sessions within twenty days after its adjournment. No new grounds in addition to those set out in the protest to the board of review as provided in section 441.37 can be pleaded, but additional evidence to sustain said grounds may be introduced. The assessor shall have the same right to appeal and in the same manner as an individual taxpayer, public body or other public officer as provided in section 441.42. Appeals shall be taken by a written notice to that effect to the chairman or presiding officer of the board of review and served as an original notice. Its decision shall be certified by the clerk of the court to the county auditor, and the assessor, who shall correct the assessment books accordingly. The clerk of the court shall likewise certify to the county treasurer the costs assessed by the court on any appeal from a board of review to the district court, and in all cases where said costs are taxed against the board of review or any taxing body. Thereupon the county treasurer shall compute and apportion the said costs between the various taxing bodies participating in the proceeds of the collection of the taxes involved in any such appeal, and said treasurer shall so compute and apportion the various amounts which said taxing bodies are required to pay in proportion to the amount of taxes each of said taxing bodies is entitled to receive from the whole amount of taxes involved in each of such appeals. The said county treasurer shall deduct from the proceeds of all general taxes collected the amount of costs so computed and apportioned by him from the moneys due to each taxing body from general taxes collected. The amount so deducted shall be certified to each taxing body in lieu of moneys collected. Said county treasurer shall pay to the clerk of the district court the amount of said costs so computed, apportioned and collected by him in all cases now on file or hereafter filed in which said costs have not been paid. Such appeal is in addition to the appeal allowed to the person whose property is assessed and shall be taken in the name of the county, city, town, township, drainage district, levee district, or school district interested, and tried in the same manner, except that the notice of appeal shall also be served upon the owner of the property concerning which the complaint is made and affected thereby or person required to return said property for assessment. 441.47 Adjusted valuations. The director of revenue on or about the third Friday of May in each year shall adjust the valuation of property in the several counties adding to or deducting from the valuation of each kind or class of property such percentage in each case as will bring the same to its taxable value as fixed in this chapter and chapters 427 to 443 plus inclusive. study set out in section 421.17, subsection 6; (b) the proposed use of any state-wide income capitalization studies; (c) the proposed use of other methods that would assist the director in arriving at the accurate level of assessment

441.48 Notice of adjustment. Before the director of revenue shall adjust the valuation of any kind or class of property any such per­ notice by mail, on the assessor whose valua­ an adjourned meeting after such ten days' attorney, or otherwise, and make written or oral protest against such proposed adjustment, which protest shall consist simply of a statement of the error, or errors, complained of with such facts as may lead to their correction, and at such adjourned meeting final action may be taken in reference thereto. (C24, 27, 31, 35, 39.§7142; C46, 50, 54, 58.§§405.23, 442.17; C62,

441.49 Adjustment by assessor. The director shall keep a record of the review and adjustment proceedings and finish such proceedings on or before the third Monday of October. He shall notify each assessor by mail of the final action taken by him at such proceedings and specify any adjustments in the valuations of any kind or class of property to be made effective for the assessor jurisdiction. The assessor shall, after December 31 of the year in which the adjustments were ordered by the director and prior to April 16 of the year following, review the actual and assessed valuations then in effect on any part or all of the real estate of the class or classes of property whose valuations were adjusted by the director and the assessor shall revalue and reassess to the end that the aggregate actual valuation for each class of property affected will be the amount determined by the director. In making such adjustments the assessor shall see to it that in no case shall the assessed value of an individual property exceed twenty-seven percent of its actual value determined in accordance with section 441.21. For the purposes of this section, a taxpayer affected by the assessor's revaluation and reassessment shall have the right to have the same reviewed in the maner provided for in sections 411.35, 411.36 and 411.39, but such review shall be limited only to the action taken by the assessor for the current year, not for prior years. By no later than April 21, the assessor shall submit to the direc­ 	tor of revenue, on forms prescribed by the director, a report of whatever action he has taken to comply with the equalization order issued to him the previous October. If the director of revenue determines that, for any reason, the assessor has not complied with the equalization order by making the necessary adjustments in valuations, he shall on or about
May 1 so notify the local board of review.
Upon its receipt of such notification, the board of review shall make the necessary adjustments to arrive at the level of assessment as provided for in the equalization order, and shall notify, through publications in official newspapers of general circulation, any class or classes of property affected by such action. By no later than May 31, the board of review shall submit to the director of revenue, on forms prepared by the director, a report of the action taken to comply with the equalization order. The director of revenue shall reconvene

441.50 Appraisers employed. The conference board shall have power to employ appraisers or other technical or expert help to assist in the valuation of property, the cost thereof to be paid in the same manner as other expenses of the assessor's office. The conference board can certify for levy annually an amount not to exceed one and one-half mills upon all taxable property for the purpose of establishing a special appraiser's fund, to be used only for such purposes. From time to time the conference board may direct the transfer of any unexpended balance in the special appraiser's fund to the assessment expense fund. (C50, 54, 58.§§405A.19, 405A.20; C62, 66, 71.§441.50)

10,000 to 125,000 population. Any city having a population of ten thousand or more, according to the latest federal census, or which shall attain such population in the future but shall not have a population in excess of one hundred twenty-five thousand, may by ordinance provide for the selection of a city assessor and the assessment of property in such cities under the provisions of this chapter.
Any city desiring to provide for such assessment under the provisions of this chapter shall, not less than sixty days before the expiration of the term of the assessor in office, notify the taxing bodies affected and proceed to establish a conference board, examining board and board of review and select an assesor, all as provided in this chapter. (C50, 51, 58.§405A.1; C62, 66, 71.§441.51)

441.52 Failure to perform duty. If any as­ sees or member of any board of review shall knowingly fail or neglect to make or require the assessment of property for taxation to be and for its taxable value as provided by law or to perform any of the duties required of him by law, at the time and in the manner specified, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars to be recovered in an action in the district court in the name of the county or in the name of the city as the case may be, and for its use, and the action against 441.54 Construction. Whenever in the laws of this state, the words "assessor" or "assessors" appear, singly or in combination with other words, they shall be deemed to mean and refer to the county or city assessor, as the case may be. [C50, 54, 58, §§441.29, 442.13; C62, 66, 71, §441.54]

441.55 Conflicting laws. If any of the provisions of this chapter shall be in conflict with any of the laws of this state, then the provisions of this chapter shall prevail. [C62, 66, 71, §441.55]

441.56 Assessor's duties—combined appointment. When the duties of the county assessor are combined with the duties of another officer or employee as provided in sections 332.17 to 332.21, inclusive, the person named to perform the combined duties shall be appointed as provided in sections 441.5 to 441.8, inclusive. CHAPTER 442
SCHOOL FOUNDATION PROGRAM

Chapter 442, Code 1971, repealed effective July 1, 1972, see 64GA, ch 165, §33

Referred to in §§265.6, 298.1, 441.47

442.1 State school foundation program. This chapter establishes a state school foundation program. For each school year, each school district in the state is entitled to receive state school foundation aid, which shall be an amount per pupil in fall enrollment equal to the difference between the amount per pupil in fall enrollment of foundation property tax plus miscellaneous income in the district, and the state foundation base or the district cost per pupil, whichever is less. However, if the amount so determined for any district is less than two hundred dollars per pupil in fall enrollment, the district is entitled to receive not less than two hundred dollars per pupil in fall enrollment except when a district's total general fund millage rate for any school year, is reduced to ninety percent of the district’s total general fund millage rate for the school year beginning July 1, 1970. In this case the district is entitled to receive only that portion of the two hundred dollars per pupil necessary to retain that ten percent reduction. [64GA, ch 165, §1]

442.2 Foundation property tax. Each school district shall cause to be levied each year, a foundation property tax of twenty mills per dollar of assessed valuation on all taxable property in the district. For the purpose of this chapter, a school district is defined as a school corporation or-organized under chapter 274. Each county auditor shall certify to each school district within the county and to the state comptroller, not later than October 1 each year, the assessed valuation of taxable property for the current year in each school district within the county. [64GA, ch 165, §2]

442.3 State foundation base. The state foundation base for the school year beginning July 1, 1972, is seventy percent of the state cost per pupil. For each succeeding school year the state foundation base shall be increased by the amount of one percent of the state cost per pupil, up to a maximum of eighty percent of the state cost per pupil. The district foundation base is the larger of the state foundation base or the amount per pupil in fall enrollment which the district will receive from foundation property tax, miscellaneous income, and state school foundation aid. [64GA, ch 165, §3]

442.4 Fall enrollment. Fall enrollment shall be determined by adding the resident pupils and the out-of-state pupils who are enrolled on the second Friday of September of each year in public elementary and secondary schools of the district, in public elementary and secondary schools in another district or state for which tuition is paid by the district, and in special education programs for which tuition is paid by the district whether the special education program is conducted by a county board of education or another school district.

Shared-time and part-time pupils of school age shall be counted in the proportion that the time for which they are enrolled or receive instruction bears to the time that full-time pupils carrying a normal course schedule, at the same grade level, in the same school district, for the same school year, are enrolled and receive instruction.

Each school district shall certify its fall enrollment to the state department of public instruction by September 25 of each year, and the information shall be promptly forwarded to the state comptroller. [64GA, ch 165, §4, ch 1107, §1]

442.5 Miscellaneous income. Miscellaneous income is all revenues of a school district general fund budget, exclusive of federal aid provided under Title 20, chapter 13, of the United States Code, the foundation property tax, the school foundation aid, guaranteed state aid, the additional school district property tax levy, any supplemental aid distributed by the school budget review committee, and any school district income surtax imposed in the district. [64GA, ch 165, §5]

See temporary provisions, 64GA, ch 1107, §2

442.6 District cost. As used in this chapter, "district cost" means the total expenditures for the current year or anticipated expenditures for the budget year of a district which are payable from the school general fund. [64GA, ch 165, §6, ch 1107, §3]

See temporary provisions, 64 GA, ch 1107, §3

442.7 Allowable growth. Each year the state comptroller shall compute the state percent of growth by adding the percents of increase for the second and third years of the most recent three-year period for which accurate figures are available, for each of the following sources of revenue, and dividing the total by four:

1. State general fund revenues, adjusted for changes in rates or basis.

2. Statewide assessed valuation of taxable property, adjusted for statewide changes in assessment practices.

Each year the state comptroller shall compute the dollar equivalent of the state percent of growth by multiplying the state cost per pupil for the preceding school year by the current state percent of growth, except that this dollar equivalent is limited to a maximum amount of forty-eight dollars for the school year beginning on July 1, 1972, forty-eight dollars for the school year beginning on July 1, 1973, and fifty-one dollars for the school year beginning on July 1, 1974. As used in this chapter, "allowable growth" means the dollar equivalent of the state percent of growth. [64GA, ch 165, §7]

442.8 State cost per pupil. The state cost per pupil for the school year beginning July 1, 1971, is nine hundred twenty dollars. The state cost per pupil for the school year beginning on July 1, 1972, and for each succeeding school year is the previous year's state cost per pupil plus the allowable growth. If the state percent of growth is zero or less, the state cost per pupil shall be the same as the previous year's state cost per pupil. [64GA, ch 165, §8]

442.9 Maximum general fund budget and additional school district property tax levy.

1. The state comptroller shall determine the additional school district property tax levy for each school district, which is in addition to the foundation property tax levy, as follows:

a. The district cost per pupil in fall enrollment for the current school year ending June 30 each year, plus the allowable growth, determines the district cost per pupil for the school year beginning July 1 each year. However, if the district cost per pupil in fall enrollment for the current school year ending June 30 each year exceeds one hundred percent of the state cost per pupil, the school budget review committee shall review the proposed budget and establish the amount of allowable growth for that district, not to exceed the limitations in section 442.7.

b. The district cost per pupil multiplied by the number of pupils in fall enrollment for the school year beginning July 1 each year, determines the maximum district cost for each district. A school district may not exceed its maximum district cost unless additional millage is authorized or supplemental state aid is distributed to the district by the school budget review committee as provided in section 142.13, subsection 5, or unless an additional amount

c. The district foundation base multiplied by the number of pupils in fall enrollment, and the product, plus any moneys excluded from miscellaneous income, subtracted from the lesser of the actual or maximum district cost for the school year beginning July 1 each year, determines the amount to be raised by the additional school district property tax levy, subject to the maximum millage provided in section 442.13. Any additional millage authorized by the school budget review committee under section 442.13, subsection 5, paragraph "a", or the maximum millage reduction provided in section 442.21.

2. No later than December 1 of each year, the state comptroller shall notify the county auditor of each county the amount, both in dollars and mills, of the additional property tax levy in each school district in the county. Each county auditor shall spread the additional property tax levy for each school district over all taxable property in the district.

3. a. A county board of education or joint county board of education shall not certify for the fiscal year commencing July 1, 1972, or the fiscal year commencing January 1, 1973, or any succeeding fiscal year, an amount of money to be raised by property taxes for the general fund budget in excess of the amount of money raised by property taxes for general fund expenditures for its last preceding fiscal year, plus an amount determined by multiplying the state percent of growth determined under section 442.7 by the amount raised by property taxes for the general fund budget for its last preceding fiscal year.

b. In addition to the amounts provided in paragraph "a" of this subsection, a county board of education or joint county board of education may certify and receive moneys to expand special education programs for the fiscal year commencing July 1, 1972, or January 1, 1973, or any succeeding year. However, this exception applies only to those special education programs or courses which would have qualified for state reimbursement pursuant to chapter 281, as interpreted by the rules and regulations of the state department of public instruction effective on July 1, 1970.

c. If, for any school year, responsibility for a special education pupil is transferred from a school district to a county or joint county board of education, or from a county or joint county board of education to a school district, the moneys budgeted for that pupil shall be transferred to the district or board which accepts responsibility for the pupil, or a proportionate amount shall be transferred if the change is made during the school year. [64GA, ch 165,§9, ch 1107,§1]

442.11 Guaranteed state aid. For the school year beginning July 1, 1972, and for the next four succeeding school years, the state shall provide specific funds, called guaranteed state aid, to any school district in which the maximum millage, excluding any additional millage approved by the school budget review committee, plus the district’s miscellaneous income and state school foundation aid, does not meet the actual or maximum district cost, whichever is less.

There is hereby appropriated from the general fund of the state to the department of public instruction moneys sufficient to pay the guaranteed state aid provided in this section. The state comptroller shall pay this aid no later than May 15 of each year, beginning in 1973 for the school year beginning July 1, 1972. [64GA, ch 165,§11]

442.12 School budget review committee. A school budget review committee is established, consisting of the superintendent of public instruction, the state comptroller, and three members appointed by the governor to represent the public and to serve three-year staggered terms. The committee shall meet and hold hearings each year and shall continue in session until it has reviewed budgets of school districts, as provided in section 442.13. It may call in school board members and employees as necessary for the hearings. Legislators shall be notified of hearings concerning school districts in their constituencies.

The committee shall adopt its own rules of procedure. The superintendent of public instruction shall serve as chairman, and the state comptroller shall serve as secretary. The committee members representing the public are entitled to receive a per diem equal to the per diem of members of the board of public instruction, and their necessary travel and other expenses while engaged in their official duties. Expense payments shall be made from appropriations to the department of public instruction. [C71.§442.21; 64GA, ch 165,§12]

442.13 Duties of the committee.

1. The school budget review committee may recommend the revision of any rules, regulations, directives, or forms relating to school district budgeting and accounting, confer with local school boards or their representatives and make recommendations relating to any budgeting or accounting matters, and may direct the superintendent of public instruction or the state comptroller to make studies and investigations of school costs in any school district.

2. The committee shall report to each session of the general assembly, which report shall include any recommended changes in laws relating to school districts, and shall specify the number of hearings held annually, the reasons for the committee's recommendations, and other information as the committee deems advisable.

3. The committee shall review the proposed or certified budget of any school district if the district cost per pupil in estimated fall enrollment has increased over the district cost per pupil in fall enrollment for the previous year by more than the allowable growth of the district.

1. The committee may review the proposed or certified budget of any school district as follows:
   a. If the budget shows district costs per pupil in estimated fall enrollment of more than the state cost per pupil.
   b. If in the judgment of the committee, the budget shows the district cost to be unreasonably high in relation to the comparative cost factors of similar districts, even if the district cost per pupil in estimated fall enrollment does not exceed the state cost per pupil.

5. The committee may authorize a school budget in excess of limitations provided in sections 412.9 and 412.10 of this division as follows:
   a. If a nonpublic school closes wholly or in part, the committee may authorize an increase in the school general fund millage beyond the maximum permitted under section 412.10, but only to the extent necessary to cover the cost of absorbing the former nonpublic school pupils into the public school system. The school board shall establish the amount of necessary increased cost to the satisfaction of the school budget review committee before an increase in millage is authorized.
   b. Additional supplemental state aid may be paid to any district from any discretionary funds appropriated specifically to the committee for this purpose.

6. If the committee does not authorize a school district's budget, it shall state its recommendations in terms of a specific reduction in the district cost, and in terms of a projected reduction in the millage rate of the school district, and shall notify the school board of its recommendations through the state comptroller.

7. The committee, when making decisions relating to school budgets, shall consider each district's circumstances and facts which are unique and unusual, including but not limited to any unusual increases or decreases in enrollments, natural disasters, unusual transportation problems, and initial staffing problems.

8. Failure by any school district to provide information or appear before the committee as requested for the accomplishment of review or hearing shall constitute justification for the committee to instruct the state comptroller to withhold any state aid to that district until the committee's inquiries are satisfied completely.

9. The school budget review committee may call in any county board of education for the purpose of reviewing its budget as it relates to the individual districts within the county. [C71, §§442.21, 442.22, 64GA, ch 165, §13, ch 1107, §5]

Referred to in §§442.9(1), 442.10, 442.12, 442.14

442.14 Election to exceed maximum district cost. If a school board wishes to exceed its maximum district cost, as determined under section 412.9, it shall first submit its proposed budget to the school budget review committee. The committee may approve the proposed budget or may make other recommendations, but if the board decides that the district should exceed its maximum district cost, and the committee has not authorized an additional millage or supplemental state aid as provided in section 412.13, subsection 5, the board shall submit to the voters of the school district, at a regular or special school election held not later than September 15, the question of whether the proposed budget shall be approved, and financed by a school district income surtax of a specified rate, or whether the district shall be limited to its maximum district cost.

If a majority of those voting approves the proposed budget and the specified school district income surtax rate, the surtax, determined as provided in section 412.15, may be imposed by resolution of the school board.

If the proposed budget and surtax does not receive approval by a majority of those voting, the school board shall reduce its general fund budget to an amount which does not exceed its maximum district cost.

The school board shall certify the result of an election required under this section to the county auditor, the school budget review committee, and the director of revenue, within ten days following the election. If a school district income surtax is approved, the school board shall publish notice of the surtax rate, as provided in chapter 618. [64GA, ch 163, §14]

442.15 School district income surtax. 1. If a school district income surtax is proposed by a school board, the state comptroller shall determine the rate of school district income surtax as follows:
   a. Determine the excess amount needed.
   b. Determine the total amount of state individual income tax as shown on the individual tax returns of persons residing in the school district on December 31 of the last preceding calendar year for which accurate figures are available or on the last day of a taxpayer’s fiscal year ending within that calendar year.
The director of revenue shall report this amount to the state comptroller as requested.

c. Divide the total amount of state individual income tax determined into the excess amount needed. The quotient is the school district income surtax rate which shall be imposed on the state individual income tax for the calendar year during which the school year begins, or for a taxpayer's fiscal year ending during that calendar year but after the date of the election approving the budget, and for subsequent years as provided in subsections 2 and 3 of this section, and shall be imposed on all individuals residing in the school district on December 31 of each calendar year, or on the last day of their fiscal year. As used in this section, "state individual tax" means the tax computed under section 122.5, less the deductions allowed in section 422.12.

2. A school district income surtax rate approved by the voters, or as much of it as may be necessary, shall continue to be in effect in that school district until the school board finds that the surtax or a part of it is unnecessary, or until the amount of the surtax is altered by another election. If a school board wishes to increase the district costs to the extent that they exceed the combined maximum millage, state aid, miscellaneous income, and the approved school district income surtax, the school board may hold another election to submit the question of whether to increase the surtax rate for the district, and may increase the rate only if an increase is approved by a majority of those voting.

3. At least once every five years, if a school district income surtax is found to be necessary, the school board shall submit to the voters of the school district, at a regular or special school election held not later than September 15, the question of whether to continue imposition of the established rate of school district income surtax or of a lesser rate as necessary. If a majority of those voting does not approve the proposed school district income surtax rate, the school board shall reduce its general fund budget to an amount which does not exceed its maximum district cost. [64GA, ch 165, §15]

442.15, subs. 2, 3. Amended
Ch. 258, §13—1st 65 GA

442.16 Statutes applicable. The director of revenue shall administer any school district income surtax imposed under this chapter, and all the provisions of sections 422.20, 422.22 through 422.31, inclusive, 422.68, and 422.72 through 422.75, inclusive, shall apply in respect to administration of the school district income surtax. [64GA, ch 165, §16]

442.17 Form and time of return. The school district income surtax shall be made a part of the Iowa individual income tax return subject to the conditions and restrictions set forth in section 422.21. [64GA, ch 165, §17]

442.18 Deposit of school district income surtax. The director of revenue shall deposit all moneys received as school district income surtax to the credit of each district from which the moneys are received, in a "school district income surtax fund" which is established in the office of the treasurer of state. [64GA, ch 165, §18]

442.19 School district income surtax certification. On or before October 20 each year, the director of revenue shall make an accounting of the school district income surtax collected under this chapter applicable to tax returns for the last preceding calendar year, or for fiscal year taxpayers, on the last day of their tax year ending during that calendar year and after the date of the election approving the surtax, from taxpayers in each school district in the state which has imposed a surtax, and shall certify to the state comptroller and the state department of public instruction the amount of total school district income surtax credited from the taxpayers of each school district. Additional returns in process, if any, at the time of certification shall be completed and the additional amount of school district income surtax reported to the state comptroller for distribution back to the school district with the first installment of the following school year. [64GA, ch 165, §19]

442.20 School district income surtax distribution. The state comptroller shall draw warrants in payment of the amount of surtax payable to each of the school districts in two installments to be paid on approximately the first day of December and the first day of February, and shall cause the warrants to be delivered to the respective school districts. [64GA, ch 165, §20]

442.21 Maximum millage reduction. If the functioning of the state school foundation program established by this chapter causes a reduction in any school district, for the school year beginning July 1, 1972, of more than ten percent of the district's total general fund millage for the school year beginning July 1, 1970, the reduction for the school year beginning July 1, 1972, is limited to that ten percent, and the reduction for each of the school years beginning July 1, 1973, and July 1, 1974, is limited to ten percent of the preceding year's millage. However, if this limitation results in a district millage levy which raises more than the district needs to meet its lesser surtax, the district may reduce its millage as much as can be done without entitling the district to state school foundation aid. The state comptroller shall compute any maximum millage reduction required by this section, and shall notify the school boards accordingly. [64GA, ch 165, §21]

442.22 Tentative budget. Not later than December 1 for each ensuing fiscal year, the board of directors of each school district shall set a tentative budget in dollars of the amount the district may spend on each program in the system as defined by the school budget review committee and in the forms prescribed by the committee. This prospectus of program and allotted dollars as approved by the board shall guide the superintendent when preparing the proposed budget for that year. These limitations submitted by the board of directors to the superintendent of schools for the district shall be promptly forwarded to the committee. [C71, §442.23; 64GA, ch 165, §22]

442.23 Rules. The superintendent of public instruction, after consultation with the state comptroller, may adopt rules and definitions of terms as necessary and proper for the administration of this chapter. [C71, §442.18; 64GA, ch 165, §23]

442.24 Local budget law. Provisions of chapter 24 remain applicable to school budgets. [64GA, ch 165, §24]

442.25 Estimates of miscellaneous aids. No later than September 1 of each year, the department of public instruction shall certify to the state comptroller the amounts of any state aids other than the amounts provided in this division that will be received by each school district in the state. In the event any estimate of state aids in any school budget certified to the auditor as provided by section 24.17 is more or less than the amount of state aids certified to the state comptroller by the department of public instruction as provided by this section, the state comptroller shall certify to the county auditors the final millage for each school district. [C71, §442.20; 64GA, ch 165, §25]

442.26 Appropriations. There is hereby appropriated each year from the general fund of the state an amount necessary to pay the state school foundation aid.

All state aids paid under this division, unless otherwise stated, shall be paid in installments due on or about September 15, December 15, March 15, and May 15 of each year, and the installments shall be as nearly equal as possible as determined by the state comptroller, taking into consideration the relative budget and cash position of the state resources.

All moneys received by a school district from the state under the provisions of this chapter shall be deposited in the general fund of the school district, and may be used for any school general fund purpose. [C71, §442.15; 64GA, ch 165, §26]

[C97, §1374; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7155; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §443.12]

FOR YEARS COMMENCING WITH THE YEAR 1966, IN COMPUTING THE AMOUNT TO BE DERIVED FROM THE MONEYS AND CREDITS TAX REPLACEMENT FUND THE COUNTY AUDITOR SHALL USE THE AMOUNT OF THE TAX TO BE DERIVED FROM THE PROPERTY DESCRIBED IN AND SUBJECT TO TAXATION UNDER SECTION 429.2* OWNED OR HELD BY INDIVIDUALS, ADMINISTRATORS, EXECUTORS, GUARDIANS, CONSERVATORS, TRUSTEES OR AN AGENT OR NOMINEE THEREOF WHICH WAS USED IN COMPUTING THE TAX RATE IN SUCH DISTRICT FOR THE YEAR 1965; AND SHALL ALSO USE THE AMOUNT OF THE TAX TO BE DERIVED FROM THE PROPERTY DESCRIBED IN AND SUBJECT TO TAXATION UNDER SECTION 431.1 FOR THE YEAR 1965 BUT NOT SUBJECT TO TAXATION UNDER SAID SECTION FOR THE YEAR 1966, WHICH WAS USED IN COMPUTING THE TAX RATE IN SUCH DISTRICT FOR THE YEAR 1965.

IF ANY TAXING DISTRICT OR PART THEREOF SHALL HAVE BEEN MERGED OR CONSOLIDATED WITH ANOTHER DISTRICT OR SHALL CEASE TO EXIST, THE TAX TO BE DERIVED FROM THE MONEYS AND CREDITS TAX REPLACEMENT FUND FOR SUCH TAXING DISTRICT SHALL BE ALLOCATED TO OR AMONG THE SURVIVING OR SUCCESSION DISTRICTS BY THE COUNTY AUDITOR.

444.4 Fractional rates disregarded. If in adjusting the rate to be levied in any taxing district to conform to law, such rates shall make necessary the levying of a fraction of a mill in excess of one-half of one-tenth of a mill, said fractional excess may be computed as one-tenth of a mill, which latter shall be the smallest required to be spread upon the tax lists for any purpose except rates applicable to a state purpose. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7166; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §444.4]

2. By deed, grant, sale, gift or transfer made in contemplation of the death of the grantor or donor, and any such transfer of property made by any person within three years prior to the death of the grantor or donor shall, unless shown to the contrary, be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death.
3. By deed, grant, sale, gift or transfer made or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment after the death of the grantor or donor. A transfer of property in respect of which the transferor reserves to himself a life income or interest shall be deemed to have been intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at death, provided, that if the transferor reserves to himself less than the entire income or interest, the transfer shall be deemed taxable thereunder only to the extent of a like proportion of the value of the property transferred.
4. Under power of appointment hereafter exercised whether the power was created before or after the taking effect of this chapter. Any transfer involving creation of a general power of appointment shall be treated as a transfer of a fee or equivalent interest in the property subject thereto to the donee of the power. a transfer taxable under the provisions of this chapter, at the highest rate possible in like cases of transfers by will or deed. [C97, §1467; S13, §1481-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7307; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §450.3]

3. When the property passes to public libraries or public art galleries within this state, open to the use of the public and not operated for gain, or to hospitals within this state, or to municipal corporations for purely public purposes.

Bequests for the care and maintenance of the cemetery or burial lot of the decedent or his family, and bequests not to exceed five hundred dollars in any estate of a decedent for the performance of a religious service or services by some person regularly ordained, authorized, or licensed by some religious society to perform such service, which service or services are to be performed for or in behalf of the testator or some person named in his last will.

When in the opinion of the director of revenue additional time should be granted for payment to avoid hardship, the director may extend the period to a date not exceeding three years from date of death of decedent, but in case of any such extension the tax shall bear six percent interest from the expiration of eighteen months from decedent's death. [S13, §1481-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7310; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §450.6]

450.7 Lien of tax.

1. The tax is a charge against and a lien upon the estate subject to tax under this chapter, and all property of the estate or owned by the decedent from the death of the decedent until paid, subject to the following limitations:

a. Inheritance taxes owing with respect to a passing of property of a deceased person whose estate has not been administered in this state are no longer a lien against the property twenty years from the date of death of the decedent owner, except to the extent taxes are attributable to remainder or deferred interests which have not been finally vested in possession for at least ten years.

b. Inheritance taxes owing with respect to a passing of property of a deceased person whose estate has been administered in this state are no longer a lien against the property ten years from the date of death of the decedent owner, except to the extent taxes are attributable to remainder or deferred interests and are deferred in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

2. Notice of the lien is not required to be recorded. The rights of the state under the lien have priority over all subsequent mortgages, purchases, or judgment creditors; and a conveyance after the decedent's death of the property subject to a lien does not discharge the property except as otherwise provided in this chapter. The department of revenue may release the lien by filing in the office of the clerk of the court in the county where the property is located, the decedent owner died, or the estate is pending or was administered, one of the following:

a. A receipt in full payment of the tax.

b. A certificate of nonliability for the tax as to all property reported in the estate.

c. A release or waiver of the lien as to all or any part of the property reported in the estate, which shall release the lien as to the property designated in the release or waiver.
§450.7, INHERITANCE TAX 2036

3. The sale, exchange, mortgage, or pledge of property by the personal representative pursuant to a testamentary direction or power, or under order of court, divests the property from the lien of the tax. The proceeds from such a sale, exchange, mortgage, or pledge shall be held by the personal representative subject to the same priorities for the payment of the tax as existed with respect to the property before the transaction, and the personal representative is personally liable for payment of the tax to the extent of the proceeds. Whenever there is a change in the status, type, or nature of the assets reported in the preliminary Inventory, the change shall be reported on or before the filing of the final report when required by the department of revenue. [C37, §1467; S13, §1481-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7311; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §450.7; G1GA, ch. 218, §1]

450.8 Transfers in contemplation of death. If the decedent makes transfer of, or creates a trust with respect to, any property in contemplation of his death, or intended to take effect after his death (except in the case of a bona fide sale for a fair consideration in money or money's worth), and if the tax in respect thereof is not paid when due, the transferee or trustee shall be personally liable for such tax, and such property, to the extent of the decedent's interest therein at the time of his death, shall be subject to a lien for the payment of such tax. [C37, §1467; S13, §1481-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7312; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §450.8]

1. Wife, forty thousand dollars.
2. Husband, forty thousand dollars.
3. Each son and daughter, including legally adopted sons and daughters, or illegitimate sons and daughters entitled to inherit under the law of this state, fifteen thousand dollars.
4. Father or mother, ten thousand dollars.
5. Any other lineal descendant of the deceased, five thousand dollars. [C31, 35, §7312-d1; C39, §7312; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §450.9]

450.10 Rate of tax. The property or any interest therein or income therefrom, subject to the provisions of this chapter, shall be taxed as herein provided:

1. When such property, interest, or income passes to the wife or the husband of the deceased, grantor, donor, or vendor, or to the father or mother, or to any child or lineal descendant of such decedent, grantor, donor or vendor, including a legally adopted child or illegitimate child entitled to inherit under the laws of this state, the tax imposed shall be on the individual share so passing in excess of the exemptions herein allowed and shall be as follows:

   Ten percent on any amount up to fifty thousand dollars.

Twelve percent on any amount in excess of fifty thousand dollars and up to one hundred thousand dollars.

Fifteen percent on all sums in excess of one hundred thousand dollars.

1. When the property or any interest therein or income therefrom, taxable under the provisions of this chapter, passes in any manner to societies, institutions or associations incorporated or organized under the laws of any other state, territory, province or country than this state, for charitable, educational or religious purposes, or to cemetery associations, including humane societies not organized under the laws of this state, or to resident trustees for uses without this state, the rate of tax imposed shall be as follows:

1. From the estate of such decedent who at the time of his death was domiciled within this state, there shall be deducted the debts owing by the decedent at the time of his death, the local and state taxes due from the estate in January of the year of his death, and federal taxes owing by the decedent or paid from the estate on Iowa property, a reasonable sum for funeral expenses, temporary allowance for the widow and children under fifteen years of age as granted by the probate court or judge thereof, court costs, the costs of appraisement made for the purpose of assessing the inheritance tax, the fee of executors, administrators, or trustees as allowed by order of court, the amount paid by the executor or administrator for a bond, the attorney fee in a reasonable amount to be approved by the court for the probate proceedings in said estate, and no other sum; provided, however, that the debt of such decedent owing for or secured by property outside of this state, shall not be deducted before estimating the tax, except when the property for which the debt is owing or by which it is secured is subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, or when the foreign debt exceeds the value of the property securing it or for which it was contracted, when the excess may be deducted, provided that satisfactory proof of the value of the foreign property and the amount of such debt is furnished to the director of revenue.

450.80 Payment of fee. Except when this information has first been received from another source, the director of revenue, after issuing a receipt for the tax in such estate, shall certify to the state comptroller the amount due the clerk for such service and the comptroller shall issue his warrant on the treasurer of state in favor of said clerk for the sum due as herein provided. \[S13,§1481-a31; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7384; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§450.80\]

On or before the fifteenth day of the first month of each calendar quarter the court shall require the clerk to present for its inspection the inheritance tax and lien book hereinbefore provided for, together with all reports of administrators, executors, and trustees which have been filed pursuant to this chapter since the last preceding quarterly inspection. If, from information obtained from the records or reports, or from any other source, the court has reason to believe that there is property within its jurisdiction liable to the payment of an inheritance tax, against which proceedings for collection are not already pending, it shall enter an order of record directing the clerk to notify the director of revenue of such fact, and the clerk shall enter said estate on the inheritance tax book. Should any estate, or the name of any grantee or grantees be placed upon the book at the suggestion of the clerk or by order of court, in which the papers already on file in the clerk's office do not disclose that an inheritance tax is due or payable, the clerk shall forthwith give to all parties in interest such notice as the court may prescribe, requiring them to appear on a day to be fixed by the said court, and show cause why the property should not be appraised and subjected to said tax. At any such hearing any person may be required to appear and answer as to his knowledge of any such estate or property, and it shall be the duty of the clerk to notify the director of revenue of the time and place of such hearing. If upon any such hearing the court is satisfied that any property of the decedent, or any property devised, granted, or donated by him is subject to the tax, the same proceeding shall be had as in other cases, so far as applicable. \[S13,§1481-a34; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7387; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§450.83\]

In all other cases the costs are to be paid as ordered by the court. However, all the contents shall be reported in writing to the department of revenue, and thereafter may be delivered to the executor, administrator, or legal representative. It is lawful for and the duty of the director of revenue personally, or by any person by him duly authorized, to examine the securities or assets at the time of any proposed delivery or transfer. Failure to give written notice of the contents of the safety deposit box or other security enclosure to the department of revenue at the time of or prior to the delivery of the securities or assets to the executor, administrator, or legal representative or transferee, joint owner, or beneficiary shall render the safe deposit company, trust company, bank, or other institution, person or persons liable for the payment of the tax upon the securities or assets as provided in this chapter. [S13, §1481-a36; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7389; C40, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §450.86; 64GA, ch 218, §10]

450.88 Corporations to report transfers. Every Iowa corporation organized for pecuniary profit shall, on July 1 of each year, by its proper officers under oath, make a full and complete report to the director of revenue of all transfers of Its stocks made during the preceding year by any person who appears on the books of such corporation as the owner of such stock, when such transfer is made to take effect at or after the death of the owner or transferor, and all transfers which are made by an administrator, executor, trustee, referee, or any person other than the owner or person in whose name the stocks appeared of record on the books of such corporation, prior to the transfer thereof. Such report shall show the name of the owner of such stocks and his place of residence, the name of the person at whose request the stock was transferred, his place of residence and the authority by virtue of which he acted in making such transfer, the name of the person to whom the transfer was made, and the residence of such person, together with such other information as the officers reporting may have relating to estates of persons deceased who may have been owners of such stock or corporation. If it appears that any such stock so transferred is subject to tax under the provisions of this chapter, and the tax has not been paid, the director of revenue shall notify the corporation in writing of its liability for the payment thereof, and shall bring suit against such corporation as in other cases herein provided unless payment of the tax is made within sixty days from the date of such notice. [S13, §1481-a38; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7391; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §450.88]

Whenever any property belongs to a foreign estate, which estate in whole or in part passes to persons not exempt herein from such tax, the said tax shall be assessed upon the market value of said property remaining after the payment of such debts and expenses as are chargeable to the property under the laws of this state. In the event that the executor, administrator, or trustee of such foreign estate files with the clerk of the court having ancillary jurisdiction, and with the director of revenue, duly certified statements exhibiting the true market value of the entire estate of the decedent owner, and the indebtedness for which the said estate has been adjudged liable, which statements shall be duly attested by the judge of the court having original jurisdiction, the beneficiaries of said estate shall then be entitled to have deducted such proportion of the said indebtedness of the decedent from the value of the property as the value of the property within this state bears to the value of the entire estate. [S13, §1481-a39; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7392; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §450.89]

450.90 Property in this state belonging to foreign estate. Whenever any property, real or personal, within this state belongs to a foreign estate and said foreign estate passes in part exempt from the tax imposed by this chapter and in part subject to said tax and there is no specific devise of the property within this state to exempt persons or if it is within the authority or discretion of the foreign executor, administrator, or trustee administering the estate to dispose of the property not specifically devised to exempt persons in the payment of debts owing by the decedent at the time of his death, or in the satisfaction of legacies, devises, or trusts given to direct or collateral legatees or devisees or in payment of the distributive shares of any direct and collateral heirs, then the property within the jurisdiction of this state belonging to such foreign estate shall be subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, and the tax due thereon shall be assessed as provided in section 450.89 relating to the deduction of the proportionate share of indebtedness; provided, however, that if the value of the property so situated exceeds the total amount of the estate passing to other persons than those exempt hereby from the tax imposed by this chapter, such excess shall not be subject to said tax. [§13, §1481-a-40; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7393; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §450.90]

450.91 Foreign estates — reciprocity — personal property. The tax imposed by this chapter in respect to personal property of nonresidents (other than tangible personal property having an actual situs in this state) shall not be payable (1) if the decedent at the time of his death was a resident of a state or territory of the United States which at the time of his death did not impose a transfer tax or death tax of any character in respect to personal property of residents of this state (other than tangible personal property having an actual situs in such state or territory), or (2) if the laws of the state or territory of residence of the decedent at the time of his death contained a reciprocal provision under which nonresidents were exempted from transfer taxes or death taxes of every character in respect of personal property (other than tangible personal property having an actual situs there in) provided the state or territory of residence of such nonresidents allowed a similar exemption to residents of the state or territory of residence of such decedent.

In no case shall the provisions of this section apply to the intangible personal property of nonresident decedents unless such intangible personal property shall have been subjected to a tax or submitted for purposes of taxation in the state of the decedent's residence.

This section shall apply only to estates of decedents dying subsequent to July 4, 1929.

For the purpose of this section the District of Columbia and possessions of the United States shall be considered territories of the United States. [C31, 35, §7393-cl; C39, §7393.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §450.91]

450.92 Compromise settlement. Whenever an estate charged or sought to be charged with the inheritance tax is of such a nature, or is so disposed, that the liability of the estate is doubtful, or the value thereof cannot with reasonable certainty be ascertained under the provisions of law, the director of revenue may, with the written approval of the attorney general, which approval shall set forth the reasons therefor, compromise with the beneficiaries or representatives of such estates, and compound the tax thereon; but said settlement must be approved by the district court or judge of the proper court, and after such approval the payment of the amount of the taxes so agreed upon shall discharge the lien against the property of the estate. [§13, §1481-a-41; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7394; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §450.92]

450.93 Unknown heirs. Whenever the heirs or persons entitled to any estate or any interest therein are unknown or their place of residence cannot with reasonable certainty be ascertained, a tax of five percent shall be paid to the department of revenue upon all such estates or interests, subject to refund as provided herein in other cases; provided, however, that if it be afterwards determined that any estate or interest passes to aliens, there shall be paid within sixty days after such determination and before delivery of such estate or property, an amount equal to the difference between five percent, the amount paid, and the amount which such person should pay under the provisions of this chapter. [§13, §1481-a-42; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7395; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §450.93]

450.94 Refund of tax improperly paid. When, within five years after the payment of the tax, a court of competent jurisdiction may determine that property upon which an inheritance tax has been paid is not subject to or liable for the payment of such tax, or that the amount of tax paid was excessive, so much of such tax as has been overpaid to the department of revenue shall be returned or refunded to the executor or administrator of such estate, or to those entitled thereto. When a certified copy of the record of such court showing the fact of nonliability of such property to the payment of such tax has been filed with the department of revenue, the director of revenue shall, if the case has been finally determined, issue an order to the state comptroller directing him to issue a warrant upon the treasurer of state to refund such tax. Such order of court shall not be given until fifteen days' notice of the application therefor shall have been given to the director of revenue of the time and place of the hearing of such application, which notice shall be served in the same manner as provided for original notices. [§13, §1481-a-43; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7396; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §450.94]

Manner of service, R.C.P. 56 (a)

450.95 Appropriation. There is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated a sum sufficient to carry out the provisions of section 450.94. [C27, 31, 35, §7396-a1; C39, §7396.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §450.95]

Referred to in §450.96

450.96 Contingent estates. Estates in expectancy which are contingent or defeasible and in which proceedings for the determination of the tax have not been taken or where the taxation thereof has been held in abeyance, shall be appraised at their full, undiminished value when the persons entitled thereto shall come into the beneficial enjoyment or possession thereof, without diminution for or on account of any valuation theretofore made of the particular estates for purposes of taxation, upon which said estates in expectancy may have been limited. When an estate, devise, or legacy can be divested by the act or omission of the legatee or devisee, it shall be taxed as if there were no possibility of such divesting. When a devise, bequest, or transfer is one in part contingent, and in part vested so that the beneficiary will come into possession and enjoyment of a portion of his inheritance on or before the happening of the event upon which the possible defeating contingency is based, a tax shall be imposed and collected upon such bequest or transfer as upon a vested interest, at the highest rate possible under the terms of this chapter if no such contingency existed; provided that in the event such contingency reduces the value of the estate or interest so taxed, and the amount of tax so paid is in excess of the tax for which such bequest or transfer is liable upon the removal of such contingency, such excess shall be refunded as is provided in sections 450.91 and 450.93 in other cases. [S13; §1181-a41; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7397; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §450.961

450.97 Joint owners of bank accounts—duty to notify department of revenue. No person, bank, credit union, or savings and loan association shall permit the withdrawal of funds from a joint account by a surviving joint owner without first notifying the department of revenue of the balance in such account at the date of decedent’s death and the name and address of the surviving joint owner. Such notification may be accomplished by mailing the required information to the department of revenue and withdrawal or payment of such funds may be made immediately thereafter as long as such mailing is accomplished by ordinary mail no later than the date of withdrawal or earlier if knowledge of the decedent’s death is known by the depository. A person, bank, credit union, or savings and loan association shall only be liable for any inheritance tax due by the surviving joint owner for willful failure to report to the department of revenue as herein provided. [C66, 71, §450.97]

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE MORTALITY TABLE

The two factors across the page equal one hundred percent. Multiply the corpus of the estate by the first factor to obtain value of the life estate.

Use the second factor to obtain the remainder interest if the tax is to be paid at the time of probate, or to determine if there would be any tax due.

All figures are based on the 1958 CSO Mortality Table with interest at four percent.

This table to be used for estates of decedents where death occurs on or after July 4, 1965.

The judge of the court granting such order may make a reasonable allowance for attorneys' fees for the prosecution of such appeal, and direct the manner in which the same, together with any other costs or expenses which may be allowed by said court in connection therewith, shall be paid. [C31, 35, §7397-c9; C39, §7397.09; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §451.9]

If, at the beginning of any six months' period, no assessment rate on public funds has been fixed, and the amount in the state sinking fund over and above accrued and contingent liabilities does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars, the assessment rate shall be one-half of one percent per annum during such period. No assessment rate shall be fixed, and no assessments paid for any six months' period after the amount in the state sinking fund over and above accrued and contingent liabilities has reached five hundred thousand dollars until the amount in said sinking fund has been reduced to less than one hundred thousand dollars, in which event assessment rates shall again be fixed and assessments paid commencing at the next six months' period; provided that, if in the opinion of the treasurer the amount in said sinking fund will not be adequate to meet the demands upon the sinking fund the treasurer may, with the approval of the executive council, fix an assessment rate and require the payment of assessments for the balance of any six months' period after the amount in the state sinking fund becomes less than one hundred thousand dollars. 455.28 Establishment — further investigation. If the board shall find that such petition complies with the requirements of law in form and substance, and that such improvement would be conducive to the public health, convenience, welfare, benefit, or utility, and that the cost thereof is not excessive, and no claim shall have been filed for damages, it may locate and establish the said district in accordance with the recommendation of the engineer and the report and plans on file; or it may refuse to establish the proposed district if it deem best, or it may direct the engineer or another person employed for that purpose to make further examination, surveys, plats, profiles, and reports for the modification of said plans, or for new plans in accordance with sections 455.17 and 155.18, and continue further hearing to a fixed date. All parties over whom the board then has jurisdiction shall take notice of such further hearing; but any new parties rendered necessary by any modification or change of plans shall be served with notice as for the original establishment of a district. The county auditor shall appoint three appraisers as provided for in section 455.30 to assess the value of the right of way required for open ditches or other improvements. [S13, §1989-95; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7448] C16, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §155.28

455.29 Settling basins—purchase or lease of lands. If a settling basin or basins are provided as a part of a drainage improvement, the board of supervisors may buy or lease the necessary lands in lieu of condemning said lands. The board may by purchase acquire the necessary lands required for right of way for open ditches, or other improvements in lieu of condemning said lands. [C27, 31, 35, §7448-a1; C39, §7448.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.29]

455.30 Appraisers. If the board shall find that such improvement will materially benefit said lands, will be conducive to the public health, convenience, welfare, benefit, use, convenience, public health, public safety or utility, and that the law has been complied with as to form and substance of the petition, the service of notice, and the survey and report of the engineer, and that such improvement should be made, then if any claims for damages shall have been filed, further proceedings shall be continued to an adjourned, regular, or special session, the date of which shall be fixed at the time of adjournment, and of which all interested parties shall take notice, and the auditor shall appoint three appraisers to assess damages, one of whom shall be an engineer, and two freeholders of the county who shall not be interested in nor related to any person interested in the proposed improvement, and the said appraisers shall take and subscribe an oath to examine the said premises, ascertain and impartially assess all damages according to their best judgment, skill, and ability. [S13, §1989-a5; C21, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7449; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.30]

455.31 Assessment — report — adjournment — other appraisers. The appraisers appointed to assess damages shall view the premises and determine and fix the amount of damages to which each claimant is entitled, and shall place a separate valuation upon the acreage of each owner taken for right of way for open ditches or for settling basins, as shown by plat of engineer, and shall, at least five days before the date fixed by the board to hear and determine the petition, file with the county auditor their reports in writing, showing the amount of damage sustained by each claimant. Should the report not be filed in time, or should any good cause for delay exist, the board may postpone the time of final action on the subject, and, if necessary, the auditor may appoint other appraisers. [S13, §1989-a6; C21, 27, 31, 35, 39, §750; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.31]

455.32 Award by board. At the time fixed for hearing and after the filing of the report of the appraisers, the board shall examine said report, and may hear evidence thereon, both for and against each claim for damages and compensation, and shall determine the amount of damages and compensation due each claimant, and may affirm, increase, or diminish the amount awarded by the appraisers. [S13, §1989-a6; C21, 27, 31, 35, 39, §751; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.32]

455.33 Dismissal or establishment. The board shall at said meeting, or at an adjourned session thereof, consider the costs of construction of said improvement as shown by the reports of the engineer and the amount of damages and compensation awarded to all claimants, and if, in its opinion, such costs of construction and amount of damages awarded create a greater burden than should justly be borne by the lands benefited by the improvement, it shall then dismiss the petition and assess the costs and expenses to the petitioners and their bondsmen, but if it finds that such cost and expense is not a greater burden than should be justly borne by the lands benefited by the improvement, it shall finally and permanently locate and establish said district and improvement. [S13, §1989-a6; C21, 27, 31, 35, 39, §752; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.33]

455.34 Dismissal on remonstrance. If, at or before the time set for final hearing as to the establishment of a proposed levee, drainage, or improvement district, except subdrainage district, there shall have been filed with the county auditor, or auditors, in case the district extends into more than one county, a remonstrance signed by a majority of the landowners in the district, and these remonstrants must in the aggregate own seventy percent or more of the lands to be assessed for benefits or taxed for said improvements, remonstrating against the establishment of said levee, drainage, or improvement district, setting forth the reasons therefor, the board or boards as the case may be, shall assess to the petitioners and their bondsmen or apportion the costs among them as the board or boards may deem just or as said parties may agree upon. When all such costs have been paid, the board or boards of supervisors shall dismiss said proceedings and cause to be filed with the county auditor all surveys, plats, reports, and records in relation to the proposed district. [C21, 27, 31, 35, 39, §753; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.34]

455.35 Dissolution. When for a period of two years from and after the date of the establishment of a drainage district, or when an appeal is taken or litigation brought against said district within two years from the date such appeal or litigation is finally determined, no contract shall have been let or work done, or drainage certificates or bonds issued for the construction of the improvements in such district, a petition may be filed in the office of the auditor, addressed to the board of supervisors, signed by a majority of the persons owning land in such district and who, in the aggregate, own sixty percent or more of all the land embraced in said district, setting forth the above facts and reciting that provision has been made by the petitioners for the payment of all costs and expenses incurred on account of such district. The board shall examine such petition at its next meeting after the filing thereof, and if found to comply with the above requirements, shall dissolve and vacate said district by resolution entered upon its records. to become effective upon the payment of all the costs and expenses incurred in relation to said district. In case of such vacation and dissolution and upon payment of all costs as herein provided, the auditor shall note the same on the drainage record, showing the date when such dissolution became effective. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7454; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.35]

455.36 Permanent survey, plat, and profile. When the improvement has been finally located and established, the board may if necessary appoint the said engineer or a new one to make a permanent survey of said improvement as so located, showing the levels and elevations of each forty-acre tract of land and file a report of the same with the county auditor together with a plat and profile thereof. [S13,§1989-a6; C21, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7455; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§455.36]

455.37 Paying or securing damages. The amount of damages or compensation finally determined in favor of any claimant shall be paid in the first instance by the parties benefited by the said improvement, or secured by bond in the amount of such damages and compensation with sureties approved by the auditor. [S13,§1989-a7; C21, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7456; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§455.37]

455.38 Division of improvement. After the damages as finally fixed, shall have been paid or secured, the board may divide said improvement into suitable sections, having regard to the kind of work to be done, numbering the same consecutively from outlets to the beginning, and prescribing the time within which the improvement shall be completed. A settling basin, if provided for, may be embraced in a section by itself. [S13,§1989-a7; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7457; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§455.38]

455.39 Supervising engineer — bond. Upon the payment or securing of damages, the board shall appoint a competent engineer to have charge of the work of construction thereof, who shall be required before entering upon the work to give a bond to the county for the use and benefit of the levee or drainage district, to be approved by the auditor in such sum as the board may fix, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties. [S13,§1989-a7; C21, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7458; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§455.39]

455.40 Advertisement for bids. The board shall cause notice to be given by publication once each week for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in the county wherein such improvement is located, and such additional advertisement and publication elsewhere as it may direct, of the time and place of letting the work of construction of said improvement, specifying the approximate amount of work to be done in each numbered section of the district, the time fixed for the commencement, and the time of the completion thereof, that bids will be received on the entire work and in sections or divisions thereof, and that each bidder will be required to deposit with his bid cash or certified check on and certified by a bank in Iowa, payable to the auditor or his order, at his office in an amount equal to ten percent of his bid, in no case to exceed ten thousand dollars. When the estimated cost of the improvement exceeds fifteen thousand dollars, the board may make additional publication for two consecutive weeks in some contractors journal of general circulation, giving only the type of proposed construction or repairs, estimated amount, date of letting, amount of bidder's bond, and the name and address of the county auditor. All notices shall fix the date to which bids will be received and upon which said work will be let. Except, however, when the estimated cost of the improvement is less than twenty-five hundred dollars, the board may let the contract for such construction without taking bids therefor and without publishing any notice as above provided. [C73,§1212; C97,§1914; S13, §1914; SS15,§1989-a8; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7459; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§455.40]

455.41 Bids—letting of work. The board shall award contract or contracts for each section of the work to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders therefor, bids to be submitted, received and acted upon separately as to the main drain and each of the laterals, and each settling basin, if any, exercising their own discretion as to letting such work as to the main drain as a whole, or as to each lateral as a whole, or by sections as to both main drain and laterals, and reserving the right to reject any and all bids and readvertise the letting of the work. [SS15,§1989-a8; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7460; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§455.41]

455.42 Manner of making bids — deposit. Each bid shall be in writing, specifying the portion of the work upon which the bid is made, and filed with the auditor, accompanied with a deposit of cash or a certified check on and certified by a bank in Iowa, payable to the auditor or his order at his office in a sum equal to ten percent of the amount of the bid, but in any event not to exceed ten thousand dollars. The checks of unsuccessful bidders shall be returned to them, but the checks of successful bidders shall be held as a guarantee that they will enter into contract in accordance with their bids. [SS15,§1989-a8; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7461; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.42]

455.43 Performance bond—return of check. Each successful bidder shall be required to execute a bond with sureties approved by the auditor in favor of the county for the use and benefit of the levee or drainage district and all persons entitled to liens for labor or material in an amount not less than seventy-five percent of the contract price of the work to be done, conditioned for the timely, efficient, and complete performance of his contract, and the payment, as they become due, of all just claims for labor performed and material used in carrying out said contract. When such contract is executed and bond approved by the board, the certified check deposited with the bid shall be returned to the bidder. [SS15, §1989-a12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §462; C46, 50, 54, 68, 62, 66, 71, §455.43] 455.44 Contracts. All agreements and contracts for work or materials in constructing the improvements of such district shall be in writing, signed by the chairman of the board of supervisors for and on behalf of the district and the parties who are to perform the work or furnish the materials specified in such contract. Such contract shall specify the particular work to be done or materials to be furnished, the time when it shall begin and when it shall be completed, the amount to be paid and the times of payment, with such other terms and conditions as to details necessary to a clear understanding of the terms thereof. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §463; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.44] 455.45 Commissioners to classify and assess. When a levee or drainage district shall have been located and finally established or, unless otherwise provided by law, when the required proceedings have been taken to enlarge, deepen, widen, change, or extend any of the ditches, laterals, settling basins, or drains of such district, or the required proceedings have been had to annex additional lands to such district, or a plan of the United States government for original construction of the improvements in such district has been heretofore or hereafter adopted by such district under the provisions of sections 455.202 to 455.217, inclusive, the board shall appoint three commissioners to assess benefits and classify the lands affected by such improvement. One of such commissioners shall be a competent civil engineer and two of them shall be resident freeholders of the county in which the district is located, but not living within, nor interested in any lands included in, said district, nor related to any party whose land is affected thereby. The commissioners shall take and subscribe an oath of their qualifications and to perform the duties of classification of said lands, fix the percentages of benefits and apportion and assess the costs and expenses of constructing the said improvement according to law and their best judgment, skill, and ability. If said commissioners or any of them fail or neglect to act or perform the duties in the time and as required of them by law, the board shall appoint others with like qualifications to take their places and perform said duties. [SS15, §1989-a12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §464; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.45] Referred to in §§455.9(5), 455.19, 455.197(3, 8) 455.46 Duties—time for performance—scale of benefits. At the time of appointing said commissioners, the board shall fix the time within which said assessment, classification, and apportionment shall be made, which may be extended for good cause shown. Within twenty days after their appointment, they shall begin to inspect and classify all the lands within said district, or any change, extension, enlargement, or relocation thereof in tracts of forty acres or less according to the legal or recognized subdivisions, in a graduated scale of benefits to be numbered according to the benefit to be received by each of such tracts from such improvement, and pursue said work continuously until completed and, when completed, shall make a full, accurate, and detailed report thereof and file the same with the auditor. The lands receiving the greatest benefit shall be marked on a scale of one hundred, and those benefited in a less degree with such percentagess of one hundred as the benefits received bear in proportion thereto. They shall also make an equitable apportionment of the costs, expenses, fees, and damages computed on the basis of the percentages fixed. [SS15, §1989-a12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §465; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.46] Referred to in §§455.9(5), 455.19, 455.197(3, 8) 455.47 Rules of classification. In the report of the appraisers so appointed they shall specify each tract of land by proper description, and the ownership thereof, as the same appears on the transfer books in the auditor’s office. In estimating the benefits as to the lands not traversed by said improvement, they shall not consider what benefits such land shall receive after some other improvements shall have been constructed, but only the benefits which will be received by reason of the construction of the improvement in question as it affords an outlet to the drainage of such lands, or brings an outlet nearer to said lands or relieves the same from overflow and relieves and protects the same from damage by erosion. [S13, §1989-a13; SS15, §1989-a12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §467; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.47] Referred to in §§455.9(5), 455.19, 455.197(3, 8) 455.48 Assessment for lateral ditches—reclassification of benefited lands. 1. In fixing the percentages and assessments of benefits and apportionment of costs of construction to lands benefited by lateral ditches and drains as a part of the entire improvement to be made in a drainage district, the commissioners shall ascertain and fix the percentage of benefits and apportionment of costs to the lands benefited by such lateral ditches on the same basis and in the same manner as if said lateral was, with its sublaterals, being constructed as a subdivdistrict as provided in this chapter, reporting separately. a. The percentage of benefits and amount accruing to each forty-acre tract or less on account of the construction of the main ditch, drain, or watercourse including pumping plant, if any.
b. The percentage of benefits and amount accruing to each forty-acre tract or less on account of the construction of such lateral improvement.

2. When there has been a repair or improvement to a lateral ditch or drain as provided in section 455.135 and the lands benefited by the lateral have not been classified as provided in this section, then the board may order a classification of said lands and the commission shall ascertain and fix the percentage of benefits and apportionment of costs to the lands benefited by such lateral ditches or drains on the same basis and in the same manner as if said lateral was with its sublaterals being constructed as a subdistrict as provided in this chapter. Whenever this procedure is followed for the classification of any lateral ditch or drain in a given district, the board shall simultaneously follow the same procedure for the main drains and all other lateral ditches or drains in the district which have not been classified as prescribed in this section. [S13, §1989-a23; SS15,§1989-a12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7468; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.48] Referred to in §§455.9(5), 455.19, 455.22(2), 455.197(3, 8)

455.49 Railroad property—collection. The commissioners to assess benefits and make apportionment of costs and expenses shall determine and assess the benefits to the property of any railroad company extending into or through the levee or drainage district, and make return thereof showing the benefit and the apportionment of costs and expenses of construction. Such assessment when finally fixed by the board shall constitute a debt due from the railroad company to the district, and unless paid it may be collected by ordinary proceedings for the district in the name of the county in any court having jurisdiction. All other proceedings in relation to railroads, except as otherwise provided, shall be the same as provided for individual property owners within the levee or drainage district. [S13, §1989-a18; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7469; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.49] Referred to in §§455.9(5), 455.19, 455.22(2), 455.197(3)

455.50 Public highways and state-owned lands. When any public highway or other public land extends into or through a levee or drainage district, the commissioners to assess benefits shall ascertain and return in their report the amount of benefits and the apportionment of costs and expenses to such highway or other public land, and the board of supervisors shall assess the same against such highway and land.

Such assessments against primary highways and other state-owned lands under the jurisdiction of the state highway commission shall be paid by the state highway commission from the primary road fund on due certification of the amount by the county treasurer to said commission, and against all secondary roads and other county owned lands under the jurisdiction of the board of supervisors, from the secondary road construction fund or from the secondary road maintenance fund, or from both of said funds.

When any state-owned lands under the jurisdiction of the state conservation commission are situated within a levee or drainage district, the commissioners to assess benefits shall ascertain and return in their report the amount of benefits and the apportionment of costs and expenses to such lands and the board of supervisors shall assess the same against such lands.

Such assessments against lands used by the fish and game division of the state conservation commission shall be paid by the state conservation commission from the state fish and game protection fund on due certification of the amount by the county treasurer to said commission, and against lands used by the division of lands and waters from the state conservation funds. [S13,§§1989-a19-a26; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7470; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.50] Referred to in §§455.9(5), 455.19, 455.22(2), 455.197(3)

455.51 Report of commissioners. The commissioners, within the time fixed or as extended, shall make and file in the auditor's office a written verified report in tabulated form as to each forty-acre tract, and each tract of less than forty acres, setting forth:

1. The names of the owners thereof as shown by the transfer books of the auditor's office or the reports of the engineer on file, showing said entire classification of lands in said district.

2. The amount of benefits to highway and railroad property and the percentage of benefits to each of said other tracts and the apportionment and amount of assessment of cost and expense, or estimated costs or expense, against each:
   a. For main ditches, and settling basins.
   b. For laterals.
   c. For levees and pumping station.
   d. For erosion protection and control or flood control*.

3. The aggregate amount of all assessments.

4. Any specific benefits other than those derived from the drainage of agricultural lands shall be separately stated. [SS15,§1989-a12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7471; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.51] Referred to in §§455.9(5), 455.19, 455.197(3)

455.52 Notice of hearing. The board shall fix a time for a hearing upon the report of the commissioners, and the auditor shall cause notice to be served upon each person whose name appears as owner, naming him, and also upon the person or persons in actual occupancy of any tract of land without naming him, of the day and hour of such hearing, which notice shall be for the same time and served in the same manner as is provided for the establishment of a levee or drainage district, and shall state the amount of assessment of costs and expenses of construction apportioned to each owner upon each forty-acre tract or less, and that all objections thereto must be in writing and filed with the auditor at or before the time set for such hearing. [SS15, §1989-a12; C21, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7472; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.52]

455.52 LEVEE AND DRAINAGE DISTRICTS

455.53 Hearing and determination. At the time fixed or at an adjourned hearing, the board shall hear and determine all objections filed to said report and shall fully consider the said report, and may affirm, increase, or diminish the percentage of benefits or the apportionment of costs and expenses made in said report against any body or tract of land in said district as may appear to the board to be just and equitable. [SS15, §1989-a12; C21, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7473; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.53]

455.54 Evidence — conclusive presumption. At such hearing, the board may hear evidence both for and against the approval of said report or any portion thereof, but it shall not be competent to show that any of the lands in said district assessed for benefits or against which an apportionment of costs and expenses has been made will not be benefited by such improvement in some degree. Any interested party may be heard in argument by himself or counsel. [SS15, §1989-a12; C21, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7474; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.54]

455.55 Notice of increased assessment. The board shall cause notice to be served upon the owner of any tract of land or easement against which it is proposed to increase the assessment, requiring him to appear at a fixed date and show cause why such assessment should not be so increased. Such notice shall be served for the time and in the manner prescribed in section 455.21 or section 455.22, as the case may be, except that personal service in the same manner as an original notice may be made in lieu of the other methods. [SS15, §1989-a12; C21, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7475; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.55]

455.56 Classification as basis for future assessments. A classification of land for drainage, erosion or flood control purposes, when finally adopted, shall remain the basis of all future assessments for the purpose of said district unless revised by the board in the manner provided for reclassification, except that where land included in said classification has been destroyed, in whole or in part, by the erosion of a river, or where additional right of way has been subsequently taken for drainage purposes, such land shall be divided and the percentage of the original classification or reclassification of any drainage district now or hereafter established, is divided into two or more tracts, whether such division is by sale or condemnation or platted as a subdivision, the classification of the original tract shall be apportioned to the resulting parcels, regardless of use, except for land taken for additional drainage right of way. The classification of the original tract may be apportioned between the resulting parcels by agreement between the parties to such division. The parties shall file with the county auditor a written agreement setting forth the original description and the description of the tracts as subdivided and the percentage of the original classification apportioned to each. This agreement shall bear the signature of all of the parties to such subdivision. The agreement contemplated herein may be contained in the deed or other instrument effecting the division of the land, which agreement shall be binding upon the grantee or grantees by their acceptance of such instrument and their signatures shall not be necessary. The auditor shall enter this agreement in the drainage record and amend the current classification of the district in accordance with such agreement.

In the event the parties to such subdivision cannot agree as to the apportionment of the percentage classification, the board of supervisors shall, upon application of either party, appoint a commission consisting of three persons, two of whom shall be residents of the county and one of whom shall be a professional engineer or a land surveyor, to make the apportionment in accordance with section 455.45. The commissioners shall inspect the lands involved and apportion the existing classification of the original tract equitably and fairly to each of the several tracts as subdivided and shall make a full, accurate and detailed report thereof and file the same with the county auditor within the time set by the board. The report of the commissioners shall set forth the names of the owners thereof, the description of each of the tracts and the percentage of the original classification that each such tract shall bear (1) for main ditches and settling basins, (2) for laterals, (3) for levees and pumping station. Thereafter all the proceedings in relation thereto as to notice of hearing and fixing of percentage benefits shall be as in this chapter provided in relation to original classification and assessments, and at such hearing, the board may affirm, increase or diminish the percentage of benefits so as to make them just and equitable, and cause the record of the existing classification, percentage of benefits or assessments, or both, to be modified accordingly. In the event the parties neither agree as to the apportionment of classification nor make application for the appointment of commissioners, then the auditor of the county in which the land is situated shall make such apportionment upon an equitable basis and enter the same of record as herein provided. No tract of land included within the boundary of any drainage district shall be exempt from drainage assessments or reassessments, except as herein provided. [SS15,§1989-a12; C21, 27,§§7466, 7476; C31, 35, 39,§7476; C46, 50, 54, 55, 62, 66, 71,§455.36]

455.57 Levy—interest. When the board has finally determined the matter of assessments of benefits and apportionment, it shall levy such assessments as fixed by it upon the lands within such district, but any assessment on any tract, parcel or lot within the district which is computed at less than two dollars shall be fixed at the sum of two dollars. All assessments shall be levied at that time as a tax and shall bear interest at not to exceed seven percent per annum from that date, payable annually, except as hereinafter provided, as to such payments thereof within a specified time. [SS15,§1989-a12; C21, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7477; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71,§155.57; §1]

455.59 Levy for deficiency. If the first assessment made by the board for the original cost or for repairs of any improvement is insufficient, the board shall make an additional assessment and levy in the same ratio as the first for either purpose, payable at the next taxing period after such indebtedness is incurred subject, however, to the provisions of section 155.61. Any assessment made under this section on any tract, parcel or lot within the district which is computed at less than two dollars shall be fixed at the sum of two dollars. [SS13,§1989-a20; C21, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7479; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71,§155.60; §1]

455.61 Funds—disbursement—interest. Such taxes when collected shall be kept in a separate fund known as the county drainage or levee fund and shall be paid out only for purposes properly connected with and growing out of the county drainage and levee districts on order of the board. The auditor shall continue to keep a record of each of the drainage and levee districts' funds so as to accurately reflect the financial condition of each such district account. The treasurer, on order of the board of supervisors, shall invest such funds not immediately needed for current operating expenses in United States government bonds, in time certificates of deposit, in savings accounts in such banks as the board shall approve, in the interest bearing obligations of the drainage and levee districts of the county, or as provided by chapter 453. Interest collected by the treasurer on the funds so invested shall be deposited in the county drainage or levee fund, and on January 1 of each year the auditor shall apportion and credit such interest to each drainage or levee district account in the proportion which the average credit balance of each district bears to the average balance of the county drainage or levee fund. The averages to be ascertained shall be the averages of the balances existing on the first of each month during the calendar year immediately preceding. Interest and penalties collected on drainage or levee district taxes shall be credited to the district for which the taxes are being collected. This section shall not be construed so as to permit expenditures in behalf of any district in excess of the share of the county drainage or levee fund. The provisions of this section shall not apply to drainage and levee districts under trustee management unless the trustees consent thereto, and in the absence of such consent, section 462.29 shall apply. 455.63 Payment before bonds or certificates issued. All assessments for benefits, as corrected and approved by the board, shall be levied at one time against the property benefited, and when levied and certified by the board, shall be payable at the office of the county treasurer. Each person or corporation shall have the right, within twenty days after the levy of assessments, to pay his or its assessment in full without interest, and before any warrants against assessments, improvement certificate or drainage bond is issued therefor, and any certificate at any time after issue, with accrued interest. [SS13,§1989-a26; C21, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7483; C46, 50, 54, 55, 62, 66, 71,§155.63] make any objection as to the legality of his assessment for benefit, or the levy of the taxes against his property, then such owner shall have the following options:

1. To pay one-third of the amount of such assessment at the time of filing such agreement; one-third within twenty days after the engineer in charge shall certify to the auditor that the improvement is one-half completed; and the remaining one-third within twenty days after the improvement has been completed and accepted by the board. All such installments shall be without interest if paid at said times, otherwise said assessments shall bear interest from the date of the levy at the rate of not to exceed seven percent per annum, payable annually, and be collected as other taxes on real estate, with like penalty for delinquency.

2. To pay such assessments in not less than ten nor more than twenty equal installments, the number to be fixed by the board and interest at the rate fixed by the board, not exceeding seven percent per annum. One such installment shall be payable at the March semiannual taxing date in each year; provided, however, that the county treasurer shall, at the March semiannual taxing date, require only the payment of a sufficient portion of the assessments to meet the interest and the amount maturing on bonds or certificates prior to the regular time for the payment of the second installment of taxes and the balance shall be collected with such second installment and without penalty.

The provisions of this section and of sections 455.65 to 455.68, inclusive, may within the discretion of the board, also be made applicable to repairs and improvements made under the provisions of section 455.135. When one-half or more of all assessments for a drainage or levee district have been paid and it is ascertained that there will be a surplus in the district fund after all assessments have been paid, the board may refund to the owner of each tract of land, not more than fifty percent of his proportionate part of such surplus. When all construction work has been completed and all cost paid, and all assessments have been paid in full, the board may refund to the owner of each tract of land, his proportionate part of any surplus funds except such portion of the surplus as the board considers should be retained for a sinking fund to pay future maintenance and repair costs. Such notice shall be given by certified mail sent to such owners, respectively, at the addresses filed with the auditor at the time of making such agreement of waiver. 455.68 Change of conditions—modification of plan. If, after the improvement has been finally located and before construction thereof has been completed, there has been a change of conditions of such nature that the plan of improvement as adopted should be modified or amended, the board may direct the engineer appointed under section 455.36 or another engineer, to make a report showing such changes or modifications of the plan of improvement as may be necessary to meet the change of conditions. Upon the filing of such report, the board shall have jurisdiction to adopt said modified or amended plan of improvement or may further modify or amend and adopt the same by following the procedure provided in sections 455.202, 455.206 to 455.210, inclusive, so far as same are applicable, except that awards for damages shall not be canceled where there has been no change made in the improvement which would increase or decrease the damages awarded. However, modifications and changes may be made in the plan on which hearing was held without further notice or hearing, provided the same do not increase or decrease the estimated cost to the district by more than twenty-five percent. 455.70 Subdrainage district. After the establishment of a drainage district, any person, company, or corporation owning land within such district which has been assessed for benefits, but which is separated from the main ditch, drain, or watercourse for which it has been so assessed, by the land of others, who desires a ditch or drain constructed from his land across the land of such others in order to connect with the main ditch, drain, or watercourse, and shall be unable to agree with such intervening owners on the terms and conditions on which he may enter upon their lands and cause to be constructed such connecting drain or ditch, may file a petition for the establishment of a subdistrict and thereafter the proceedings shall be the same as provided for the establishment of an original district. [S13, §1989-a23; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7490; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.70] 49ExGA, HF 185, §92, editorially divided

455.71 Presumption—jurisdiction. Such connecting ditch or drain which he shall cause to be constructed shall be presumed conducive to the public health, welfare, convenience, and utility the same as if it had been so constructed as a part of the original improvement of said district. When such subdistrict has been established and constructed it shall become and be a part of the improvement of such drainage district as a whole and be under the control and supervision of the board to the same extent and in every way as if it had been a part of the original improvement of such district. [S13, §1989-a23; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §791; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.71]

455.72 Reclassification. When, after a drainage or levee district has been established, except districts established by mutual agreement in accordance with section 455.152, and the improvements thereof constructed and put in operation, there has been a material change in the condition of such lands benefited by the improvement, or when a repair, improvement, or extension has become necessary, the board may consider whether the existing assessments are equitable as a basis for payment of the expense of maintaining the district and of making the repair, improvement or extension. If they find the same to be inequitable in any particular, they shall by resolution express such finding, appoint three commissioners possessing the qualifications prescribed in section 455.15 and order a reclassification as follows:

1. If they find the assessments to be generally inequitable they shall order a reclassification of all property subject to assessment, such as lands, highways, and railroads in said district.

2. If the inequity ascertained by the board is limited to the proportion paid by highways or railroads, a general reclassification of all lands shall not be necessary but the commissioners may evaluate and determine the fair proportion to be paid by such highways or railroads or both as provided in sections 455.49 and 455.50.

3. Any benefits of a character for which levee or drainage districts may be established and which are attributable to or enhanced by the improvement or by the repair, improvement, or extension thereof, shall be a proper subject of consideration in a reclassification notwithstanding the district may have been originally established for a limited purpose.

4. If after a district has been reclassified, the board in its judgment concludes there were errors in the reclassification or there is an inequitable assessment of benefits, the board may on its own motion, after notice to the landowners involved as provided in sections 155.20 to 155.24, inclusive, and by resolution, order the district or any portion of the district to again be reclassified as prescribed in this section and in section 455.74.

Such reclassification when finally adopted shall remain the basis for all future assessments unless revised as provided in this chapter. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7492; C46, 50, 51, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.72]

455.73 Bids required. In case the board shall finally determine that any such changes as defined in section 455.69 shall be made involving an expenditure of five thousand dollars or more, said work shall be let by bids in the same manner as is provided for the original construction of such improvements. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7493; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.73]

455.74 Procedure governing reclassification. The proceedings for such reclassification shall in all particulars be governed by the same rules as for original classification. The commissioners shall fix the percentage of actual benefits and make an equitable apportionment of the costs and expenses of such repairs, improvements or extensions and file a report thereof with the auditor in the same form and manner as for original classification. Thereafter, all the proceedings in relation thereto as to notice, hearing, and fixing of percentage of benefits and amount of assessments shall be as in this chapter provided in relation to original classification and assessments, and at such hearing the board may affirm, increase, or diminish the percentage and assessment of benefits and apportionment of costs and expenses so as to make them just and equitable, and cause the record of the original classification, percentage of benefits, and assessments to be modified accordingly. 455.81 Drainage bonds. When a drainage district has been established or the making of any subsequent repair or improvement determined upon, if the board of supervisors shall find that the cost of such improvement will create assessments against the land included therein greater than should be levied in a single year upon the lands benefited by such improvement, then, instead of issuing improvement certificates, as provided in secions 455.77 to 455.80, inclusive, the board may fix the amount that shall be levied and collected each year until such cost and expenses are paid, and may issue drainage bonds of the county covering all assessments exclusive of assessments of one hundred dollars and less.

Before such bonds shall be issued, the gov­ for declaratory judgment to be brought in the district court of the county in which the bonds

it may concern without naming them specifically. Such notice shall be given by publication and by mailing for the same time in advance of hearing and in the same manner prescribed in section 455.21. After the entry of the declaratory judgment adjudicating the validity of such bonds, the approval of the district court shall be endorsed on the bonds before their issuance. After the establishment of a levee or drainage district, if the board becomes convinced that additional lands contiguous to the district, and without regard to county boundaries, are benefited by the improvement or that the same are then receiving benefit or will be benefited by a repair or improvement to said district as contemplated in section 455.135, it may adopt, with or without a petition from owners of the proposed annexed lands, a resolution of necessity for the annexation of such additional land and appoint an engineer with the qualifications provided in this chapter to examine such additional lands, to make a survey and plat thereof showing their relation, elevation, and condition of drainage with reference to such established district, and to make and file with the auditor a report as in this chapter provided for the original establishment of such district, said report to specify the character of the benefits received.

In the event the additional lands are a part of an existing drainage district, as an alternative procedure to that established by the foregoing provisions of this section, the lands may be annexed in either of the following methods:

1. A petition, proposing that the lands be included in a contiguous drainage district and signed by at least twenty percent of the landowners of those lands to be annexed, shall be filed with the governing board of each affected district.

The board of the district in which the lands are presently included may, at its next regular meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose, adopt a resolution approving and consenting to the annexation; or

2. Whenever the owners of all of the land proposed to be annexed file a petition with the governing boards of affected districts, the consent of the board in which the lands are then located shall not be required to consent to the annexation, and the board of the annexing district may proceed as provided in this section.

3. If either method of annexation provided for in subsections 1 and 2 of this section is completed, the board of the district to which the lands are to be annexed may adopt a resolution of necessity for the annexation of the additional lands, as provided in this section. [S13, §1989-a54; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7549; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.128; 64GA, ch 224, §1]

Refer to in §455.130

455.129 Proceedings on report. If such report recommends the annexation of such lands or any portion thereof, the board shall consider such report, plans, and profiles and if satisfied that any of such lands are materially benefited by the district and that such annexation is feasible, expedient, and for the public good, it shall proceed in all respects as to notice, hearing, appointment of appraisers to fix damages and as to hearing thereon; and (if such annexation is finally made), as to classification and assessment of benefits to the annexed lands only, to the same extent and in the same manner as provided in the establishment of an original district. Those parties having an interest in the lands proposed to be annexed shall have the right to receive notice, to make objections, to file claims for damages, to have hearing, to take appeals and to do all other things to the same extent and in the same manner as provided in the establishment of an original district. [S13, §1989-a54; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7550; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.129; 64GA, ch 221, §2]

455.130 Levy on annexed lands. After such annexation is made the board shall levy upon the annexed lands an assessment sufficient to equal the assessments for benefit originally paid by the lands of equal classification if the finding by the board as provided by section 455.128 was that said lands should have been included in the district when originally established, plus their proportionate share of the costs of any enlargement or extension of drains required to serve the annexed lands. If the finding of the board as provided in section 455.128 was based on the fact that additional lands are now benefited by virtue of the repair or improvement made to said district and were not benefited by the district as originally established, then the board shall levy upon said annexed lands an assessment sufficient to pay their proportionate share of the costs of said repair or improvement which was the basis for the lands being annexed. 455.131 Use of former and abandoned surveys. In cases where proceedings have been taken for the establishment of a levee or drainage district and an engineer has been appointed who has made a survey, return, and plat thereof and for any reason the improvement has been abandoned and the proceedings dismissed, and afterward proceedings are instituted for the establishment of a levee or drainage district which will benefit any territory surveyed in said former proceedings, the engineer shall use so much of the return, levels, surveys, plat, and profile made in the former proceedings as may be applicable. He shall specify in his reports the parts thereof so used, and in case the cost of said returns, levels, surveys, plat, and profile made in said former proceedings has been paid by the former petitioners or their bondsmen, then a reasonable amount shall be allowed said petitioners or bondsmen for the use of the same. [S13, §1989-a16; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7552; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.131]

455.132 Unsuccessful procedure — re-establishment. When proceedings have been instituted for the establishment of a drainage district or for any change or repair thereof, or the change of a natural watercourse, and the establishment thereof has failed for any reason either before or after the improvement is completed, the board shall have power to re-establish such district or improvement and any new improvement in connection therewith as recommended by the report of the engineer. As to all lands benefited by such re-establishment, repair, or improvement, the board shall proceed in the same manner as in the establishment of an original district, using as a basis for assessment the entire cost of the proceedings, improvement, and maintenance from the beginning; but in awarding damages and in the assessment of benefits account shall be taken of the amount of damages and taxes, if any, theretofore paid by those benefited to the credit therefor given accordingly. All other proceedings shall be the same as for the original establishment of the district, making of improvements, and assessment of benefits. [S13,§§1989-al7,-a50; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7553; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§455.132]

455.133 New district including old district. If any levee or drainage district or improvement established either by legal proceedings or by private parties shall be insufficient to properly drain all of the lands tributary thereeto, the board upon petition as for the establishment of an original levee or drainage district, shall have power to establish a new district covering and including such old district or improvement together with any additional lands deemed necessary. All outstanding indebtedness of the old levee or drainage district shall be assessed only against the lands included therein. [S13,§1989-a25; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7554; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§455.133]

455.134 Credit for old improvement. When such district as contemplated in section 455.133 and the new improvement therein shall include the whole or any part of the former improvement, the commissioners, for classification of lands for assessment of benefits and apportionment of costs and expenses of such new improvement, shall take into consideration the value of such old improvement in the construction of the new one and allow proper credit therefor to the parties owning the old improvement as their interests may appear. In all other respects the same proceedings shall obtain as are provided for the original establishment of levee and drainage districts. [S13,§1989-a25; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7555; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§455.134]

1. When any levee or drainage district shall have been established and the improvement constructed, the same shall be at all times under the supervision of the board of supervisors except as otherwise provided for control and management by a board of trustees and it shall be the duty of the board to keep the same in repair as provided herein. The board at any time on its own motion, without notice, may order done whatever is necessary to restore or maintain a drainage or levee improvement in its original efficiency or capacity, and for that purpose may remove silt and debris, repair any damaged structures, remove weeds and other vegetable growth, and whatever else may be needed to restore or maintain such efficiency or capacity. In the event permanent restoration of a damaged structure is not feasible at the time, the board may order such temporary construction as it deems necessary to the continued functioning of the improvement. If in maintaining and repairing tile lines the board finds from the engineer's report it is more economical to construct a new line than to repair the existing line, such new line may be considered to be a repair. If the estimated cost of any repair exceeds seventy-five percent of the original total cost of the district and subsequent improvements therein, the board shall set a date for a hearing on the matter of making such repairs, and shall give notice as provided in sections 455.20 to 455.24, inclusive. At such hearing the board shall hear objections to the feasibility of such repairs, and following the hearing the board shall order made such repairs as it deems desirable and feasible. Any interested party shall have the right of appeal from such orders in the manner provided in this chapter. The right of remonstrance shall not apply to repairs as defined in this section.

2. In the case of minor repairs, or in the eradication of brush and weeds along the open ditches, not in excess of one thousand dollars where the board finds that the same will result in a saving to the district it may cause the same to be done by secondary road equipment, or weed fund equipment, and labor of the county and then reimburse the secondary road fund or the weed fund from the fund of the drainage district thus benefited.

3. When the board deems it necessary it may repair or reconstruct the outlet of any private tile line which empties into a drainage ditch of any district and assess the cost, in each case against the land served by the private tile line.

4. When the board determines that improvements, which differ from the repairs referred to in the preceding paragraphs, are necessary or desirable, it shall appoint an engineer to make such surveys as seem appropriate to determine the nature and extent of such improvements, and to file a report showing what improvements are recommended and their estimated costs, which report may be amended before final action. If the estimated cost of the improvements does not exceed twenty-five percent of the original cost of the district and subsequent improvements therein, the board may order the work done by the board and shall not divide proposed improvements into separate programs in order to avoid the twenty-five percent limitation herein fixed for making improvements without notice. If the board deems it desirable to make improvements where the estimated cost exceeds twenty-five percent of the original total cost of the district and subsequent improvements therein, it shall set a date for a hearing on the matter of constructing such improvements and also on the matter of whether there shall be a reclassification of benefits for the cost of such improvements, and shall give notice as provided in sections 455.20 to 455.24, inclusive. At such hearing the board shall hear objections to the feasibility of such improvements and such arguments for or against a reclassification as may be presented by or for any taxpayer of the district. Following the hearing the board shall order made such improvements as it deems desirable and feasible, and shall also determine whether there should be a reclassification of benefits for the cost of such improvement. If it is determined that such reclassification of benefits should be made the board shall proceed as provided in section 455.45.
In the event that the estimated cost of the improvements as contemplated in this section shall exceed the original cost of the district, plus the cost of subsequent improvements in the district, a majority of the landowners, owning in the aggregate more than seventy percent of the total land in said district, may file a written remonstrance against said improvement, at or before the time fixed for hearing on said improvement, with the county auditor, or auditors in case the district extends into more than one county. If such remonstrance is filed, the board shall discontinue and dismiss all further proceedings on said improvement and charge the costs incurred to date for said proposed improvement to the district. Any interested party shall have the right of appeal from such orders in the manner provided in this chapter. Provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not affect the procedures of section 455.112 covering the common outlet.

5. Where under the laws in force prior to 1904, drainage ditches and levees were established and constructed without fixing at the time of establishment a definite boundary line for the body of land to be assessed for the cost thereof, the body of land which was last assessed to pay for the repair thereof shall also be considered as the established district for the purpose of this section.

6. The governing body of the district may, by contract or conveyance, acquire, within or without the district, the necessary lands or easements for making repairs or improvements under this section, including easements for body of land or meander, and in addition thereto, the same may be obtained in the manner provided in the original establishment of the district, or by exercise of the power of eminent domain as provided for in chapter 172. If additional right of way is required for any repair or improvement under this section, the same may be acquired in the same manner as provided for the acquisition of right of way in the original establishment of a district, except that where notice and hearing are not otherwise required under this section notice as provided in this chapter to owners, lienholder of record, and occupants of the land from which right of way is to be acquired shall suffice.

7. In existing districts where the stream has eroded appropriated lands beyond its original right of way and it is more economical and feasible to acquire an easement for such erosion and meander than to undertake containment of the stream in its existing right of way, the board may, in the discharge of the duties enjoined upon it by this section, effect such acquisition as to the whole or part of the course. Right of way so taken shall be classed an improvement for the purpose of procedure under this section.

8. If the drainage records on file in the auditor's office for a particular district do not devote specifically the land taken for right of way for drainage purposes, the board may at any time upon its own motion employ a land surveyor to make a survey and report of said district and to actually define the right of way taken for drainage purposes. After the land surveyor has filed his survey and report with the board, the board shall fix a date for hearing on said report and shall serve notice of said hearing upon all landowners and lienholders of record and occupants of the lands traversed by said right of way in the manner and for the time required for service of original notices in the district court. §13, §1989a-21; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§7556, 7558-7561; C46 §§455.184, 455.137-455.140; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §155.135

455.135 Payment. The costs of the repair or improvements provided for in section 455.135 shall be paid for out of the funds of the levee or drainage district. If the funds on hand are not sufficient to pay such expenses, the board within two years shall levy an assessment sufficient to pay the outstanding indebtedness and leave the balance which the board determines is desirable as a sinking fund to pay maintenance and repair expenses. Any assessment made under this section on any tract, parcel or lot within the district which is computed at less than two dollars shall be fixed at the sum of two dollars.

If the board deems that the costs of the repairs or improvements will create assessments against the lands in the district greater than should be borne in one year, it may levy the same at one time and provide for the payment of said costs and assessments in the manner provided in sections 455.64 to 455.68, inclusive; provided that assessments may be collected in less than ten installments as the board may determine. §13, §1989a-21; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§7557; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §155.136; 64GA, ch 228, §3

455.137 Impounding areas and erosion control devices. Levee and drainage districts are empowered to construct impounding areas and other flood and erosion control devices to protect lands of the district and drainage structures and may provide ways for access to improvements for the operation or protection thereof, where the costs are not excessive in consideration of the value to the district. Necessary lands or easements may be acquired within or without the district by purchase, lease or agreement, or by exercise of the right of eminent domain and may be procured and construction undertaken either independently or in co-operation with other districts, individuals, or any federal or state agency or political subdivision. [C51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.137]

455.138 Revenues used for operation, maintenance and construction. Levee and drainage districts may realize income from incidental uses of their improvements and rights of way which are not injurious to same or incompatible with the purposes of the district. Revenues derived therefrom may be expended for operating, maintenance or construction costs of the district as its governing body may elect. [C54, 58, 62, 66, 71.§453.138]

455.111 Reclassification required. When an assessment for improvements as provided in section 155.135, exceeds twenty-five percent of the original assessment and the original or subsequent assessment or report of the benefit commission as confirmed did not designate separately the amount each tract should pay for the main ditch and tile lateral drains then the board shall order a reclassification in accordance with the principles and rules set forth in section 455.48. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39 §7562; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71.§155.141]

455.142 Improvement of common outlet—notice of hearing. When two or more drainage districts outlet into the same ditch, drain, or natural watercourse and the board determines that it is necessary to clean out, deepen, enlarge, extend, or straighten said ditch, drain, or natural watercourse in order to expeditiously carry off the combined waters of such districts, the board may proceed as provided in section 455.135. After said board has decided that such work should be done. It shall fix a date for hearing on its decision, and it shall give two weeks' notice thereof by certified mail to the auditor of the county wherein the land to be assessed for such work is located, and said county auditor shall thereupon immediately notify by certified mail the board or boards of trustees of the districts having supervision thereof, as to said hearing on said contemplated work. In those instances where two or more districts are under the supervision of the same board, or joint board if the district is intercounty, the notice shall be given to all landowners affected as prescribed in sections 455.20 to 455.24, inclusive. Each district shall be assessed for the cost of such work in proportion to the benefits derived. Common outlet for the purpose of this section shall mean an outlet where two adjacent districts have an outlet common to both of said districts and which districts are also contiguous, one to the other. [S13.§1089-a24; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7563; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71.§455.142]

455.113 Commissioners to apportion benefits—interest prohibited. For the purpose of ascertaining the proportionate benefits, the board shall appoint commissioners having the qualifications of benefit commissioners, one of whom shall be an engineer. Such commissioners appointed shall not be residents of any of the districts affected, nor shall any member thereof have any interest in land in any district affected by the contemplated work. Such commission shall determine the percentage of benefits and the sum total to be assessed to each district for the improvement.

In the event that one of the districts to be assessed under this statute shall have any improvement such as a settling basin which reduces the quality and quantity of flow or sediment, such commission may give consideration to the existence of such an improvement when they determine the percentage of benefits and the sum total to be assessed to each district for the improvement. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7564; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71.§155.143]

455.144 Time of report—notice of hearing. When said commissioners are appointed, the board shall, by proper order, fix the time when the commissioners shall report their findings, but a report filed within thirty days of the time so fixed shall be deemed a compliance with said order. On the filing of said report the board shall fix a time for hearing thereon, and it shall give notice thereof to the auditor of the county in which the land to be assessed for such work is located by certified mail; said county auditor shall thereupon immediately notify by certified mail the board of supervisors, and board or boards of trustees of the districts having supervision thereof, as to said hearing on said commissioner's report. In those instances where two or more districts are under the supervision of the same board, or joint board if the district is intercounty, the notice shall be given to all landowners affected as prescribed in sections 455.20 to 455.24, inclusive. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7565; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71.§155.141]

455.145 Report and review — appeal. The commissioners shall file with the board a detailed report of their findings. Said board shall review said report and may, by proper order, increase or decrease the amount which shall be charged to each district. After the final order of the board herein has been made, said board shall notify the county auditor, in the time and manner as provided in sections 455.143 and 455.144, of said order, and said county auditor shall notify by certified mail the board of supervisors, and said board or boards of trustees, of said final order. Said board of supervisors and said board or boards of trustees, if aggrieved by said final order, may appeal therefrom to the district court of the county in which any of the improvement proposed or done is located.

Any such appeal shall be taken, perfected and conducted in the time and manner provided in sections 455.92, 455.94 to 455.98, inclusive, for appeals contemplated by said sections. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7566; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§455.145]

trict, the board shall proceed to levy said amount against all lands, highways, and railroad rights of way and property within the district, in accordance with the original classification and apportionment. Any assessment made under this section on any tract, parcel or lot within the district which is computed at less than two dollars shall be fixed at the sum of two dollars. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §7567; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.146; 64GA, ch 223, §4]

455.147 Levy under reclassification. If the amount finally charged against a district exceeds twenty-five percent of the original cost of the improvement, the board shall order a reclassification as provided for the original classification of a district and upon the final adoption of the new classification and apportionment shall proceed to levy said amount upon all lands, highways, and railroad rights of way and property within the district, in accordance with said new classification and apportionment. Any assessment made under this section on any tract, parcel or lot within the district which is computed at less than two dollars shall be fixed at the sum of two dollars. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §7567; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.146; 64GA, ch 223, §5]

455.148 Removal of obstructions. The board shall cause to be removed from the ditches, drains, and laterals of any district any obstructions which interfere with the flow of the water, including trees, hedges, or shrubbery and the roots thereof, and may cause any tile drain so obstructed to be relaid in concrete or any other adequate protection, such work to be paid for from the drainage funds of the district. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §7568; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.148]

455.149 Trees and hedges. When it becomes necessary to destroy any trees or hedges outside the right of way of any ditch, lateral, or drain in order to prevent obstruction by the roots thereof, if the board and the owners of such trees or hedges cannot agree upon the damage for the destruction thereof, the board may proceed to acquire the right to destroy and remove such trees or hedges by the same proceedings provided for acquiring right of way for said drainage improvement in the first instance. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §7569; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.149]

Similar provision, §469.13

455.150 Outlet for lateral drains—specifications. The owner of any premises assessed for the payment of the costs of location and construction of any ditch, drain, or watercourse as in this chapter provided, shall have the right to use the same as an outlet for lateral drains from his premises. The board of supervisors shall make specifications covering the manner in which such lateral drains shall be connected with the main ditches or other laterals and be maintained, and the owner shall follow such specifications in making and maintaining any such connection. [S13, §1989-a22; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7571; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.150]

455.151 Subdistricts in intercounty districts. The board of supervisors of any county shall have jurisdiction to establish subdrainage districts of lands included within a district extending into two or more counties when the lands to compose such subdistricts lie wholly within such county, and to make improvements therein, repair and maintain the same, fix and levy assessments for the payment thereof, and the provisions of this section shall apply to all such drainage subdistricts, the lands of which lie wholly within one county. The proceedings for all such purposes shall be the same as for the establishment, construction, and maintenance of an original levee or drainage district the lands of which lie wholly within one county, so far as applicable, except that one or more persons may petition for a subdistrict as provided in section 155.70. [S13, §1989-a37; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7572; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.151]

455.152 District by mutual agreement— presumption. The owners of lands may provide by mutual agreement in writing duly signed, acknowledged, and filed with the auditor for combined drainage of their lands by the location and establishment of a drainage district for such purposes and the construction of drains, ditches, settling basins, and watercourses upon and through their said lands. Such drainage district shall be presumed to be conducive to the public welfare, health, convenience, or utility. [S13, §1989-a28; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7573; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.152]

455.153 What the agreement shall contain. Such agreements shall contain the following:
1. A description of the lands by congressional divisions, metes and bounds, or other intelligible manner, together with the names of the owners of all said lands.
2. The location of the drains and ditches to be constructed, describing their sources and outlets and the courses thereof.
3. The character and extent of drainage improvement to be constructed, including settling basins, if any.
4. The assessment of damages, if any.
5. The classification of the lands included in such district, the amount of drainage taxes or special assessments to be levied upon and against the several tracts, and when the same shall be levied and paid.
6. Such other provisions as the board deems necessary. [S13, §1989-a28; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7574; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.153]

455.154 Board to establish. When such agreement is filed with the auditor he shall record it in the drainage record. The board shall at a regular, special, or adjourned session thereafter locate and establish a drainage district and locate the ditches, drains, settling basins, and watercourses thereof as provided in said agreement, and enter of record an order accordingly. The board thereafter shall carry out the object, purpose, and intent of such agreement and cause to be completed and constructed the said improvement and shall retain jurisdiction of the same as fully as in districts established in any other manner. It shall cause to be levied upon and against the lands of such district, the drainage taxes and assessments according to said agreement and when collected said taxes and assessments shall constitute the drainage funds of said district to be applied upon order of the board as in said agreement provided. [S13,$1989-a28; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,$7578; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71,
§455.154]

455.155 Procedure. The board shall proceed to carry out the provisions of the agreement, advertising for and receiving bids, letting the work, making contracts, levying assessments, paying on estimates, issuing warrants, improvement certificates, or drainage bonds as the case may be, in the same manner as in districts established on petition, except as in said mutual agreement otherwise provided. [S13,$1989-a28; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,$7576;
C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,$455.155]

455.156 Outlet in adjoining county. When a drainage district is established and a satisfactory outlet cannot be obtained except through lands in an adjoining county, or when an improved outlet cannot be obtained except through lands downstream from the district boundary, the board shall have the power to purchase a right of way, to construct and maintain such outlets, and to pay all necessary costs and expenses out of the district funds.
The board shall have similar authority relative to the construction and maintenance of silt basins upstream from the district boundary.
In case the board and the owners of the land required for such outlet or silt basin cannot agree upon the price to be paid as compensation for the land taken or used, the board is hereby empowered to exercise the right of eminent domain in order to procure such necessary right of way. [S13,$1989-a56; C24, 27,

455.157 Outlet in another state. When a district is, or has been established in this state and no practicable outlet therefor can be obtained except through lands in an adjoining state, the board of supervisors of the county where said district is situated shall, as drainage commissioners, have power to pur-cure a right of way and to construct a ditch for such outlet in an adjoining state or to contribute to the construction of such a ditch, in an adjoining state and to pay for the same out of the funds of such district. Provided, however, that no drainage district or districts shall be charged or assessed any cost for land or work done unless previously agreed to by the board of supervisors or trustees of all of the drainage districts which will be assessed. [C13,$1890-a188; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,$7578; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71,$455.157]

455.158 Tax. The board of supervisors shall have authority to levy a tax on the lands in said drainage district established in this state to provide funds from which to pay for the improvement referred to in section 455.157 should such levy be necessary. [C31, 35,$7578-
c; C39,$7578.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,

455.159 Injuring or diverting — damages.
Any person who shall willfully break down or through or injure any levee or bank of a settling basin, or who shall dam up, divert, obstruct, or willfully injure any ditch, drain, or other drainage improvement authorized by law shall be liable to the person or persons owning or possessing the lands for which such improvements were constructed in double the amount of damages sustained by such owner or person in possession; and in case of a subsequent offense by the same person he shall be liable in treble the amount of such damages. [C73,$1227; C97,$1961; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, 455.160 Obstructing or damaging. Any person or persons willfully diverting, obstructing, impeding, or filling up, without legal authority, any ditch, drain, or watercourse or breaking down or injuring any levee or the bank of any settling basin, established, constructed, and maintained under any provision of law, or tural practices upon the improvement or rights

455.162 Actions — settlement — counsel. Levee or drainage districts through their governing bodies are authorized to maintain actions in law or equity for the purposes of preventing or recovering damages that may accrue to such districts on account of the impairment of their functions, or the increase in the cost of maintenance or operation of such districts, or on account of damages to property owned by such districts, resulting from the construction or operation of locks, dams and pools in the Mississippi or Missouri rivers; they may make settlements and adjustments of such damages and written contracts with relation thereto, and receive any appropriations that may be made by the Congress of the United States for the increased cost to drainage or levee districts and may agree to the construction and maintenance of present equipment and of new or remedial works, improvements and equipment as a part of such damages, or as a means of lessening the damages which will be suffered by the said districts. Said districts are further authorized to employ legal and engineering counsel for such purposes and to pay for the same out of the award of damages or out of the maintenance funds of the district.

If a lump sum settlement is made between the United States and the district to provide an annual payment of income therefrom, the county treasurer of the county in which the greater portion of the district is situated shall be custodian of such principal fund. The governing body of the district shall apply to the district court for authority to invest said fund as provided by section 652.23, in addition to the investments therein approved the court may authorize investment of said fund in interest-bearing bonds or warrants of said districts. The income from said fund shall be disbursed by direction of the governing body of the district. [C39,§7581.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§455.162]

455.163 Waste banks — private use. The landowner may have any beneficial use of the land to which he has fee title and which is occupied by the waste banks of an open ditch when such use does not interfere in any way with the easement or rights of the drainage district as contemplated by this chapter. For the purpose of gaining such use the landowner may smooth said waste banks, but in doing so he must preserve the berms of such open ditch without depositing any additional dirt upon them. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7582; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§455.163]

If it extends into other counties, the boards of the respective counties are authorized to pay from the general fund thereof, such proportion of said expenses as the work done or expenses created in each county bears to the whole amount of work done or expenses created. Said amounts shall be ascertained and reported by the engineer in charge of the work and be approved by the respective boards, such amounts shall be paid, charged the amount to said district in favor of the general fund of the counties, as their interest may appear, as soon as the said district is established. If said district shall not be established, the said amounts shall be collected upon the bond or bonds of the petitioners. [S13,§1989-a18; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7584; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§455.161]

455.165 Additional help for auditor. If the work in the office of the auditor by reason of the existence of drainage districts is so increased that the regular officer is unable by diligence to do the same, the board of supervisors may employ such additional help as may be necessary to keep the records and transact the business of the drainage districts. The expense of such help shall be paid by the districts in proportion to the amount of work done thereon. [S13,§1989-a12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7584; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§455.165]

Attorney's fees and expenses shall be paid out of the drainage fund of the district for which the services are rendered, or may be apportioned equitably among two or more districts. Such attorneys shall be allowed reasonable compensation for their services, also necessary traveling expenses while engaged in such business. Attorneys rendering such services shall file with the auditor an itemized, verified account of all claims therefor, and statement of expenses, and the same shall be audited and allowed by the board in the amount found to be due. [S13,§1989-a14; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§7585; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§455.166]

They shall credit the district with all income from said property. They may lease or sell and convey said property as trustees for such district and shall deposit all money received therefrom to the credit of such district. The board of trustees may also lease or sell and convey such other property of the district, both real and personal, as is no longer needed for purposes for which the district was established, and any such leases, sales and conveyances prior to July 4, 1963, are hereby declared to be valid and binding. [C31, 35, §7590-c1; C39, §7590.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455.172]

Payment to the county auditor for such certificate shall be from the fund of said drainage or levee district, or subdistrict, on a warrant issued against that fund which shall have precedence over all other outstanding warrants drawn against that fund in the order of their payment. Should there not be a sufficient amount in the fund of said district, or subdistrict, to pay said warrant then the board of supervisors, or the trustees of the district, as the case may be, are authorized to borrow a sum of money sufficient for that purpose on a warrant for that amount on the fund of the district, or subdistrict, which warrant shall bear interest from date at six percent per annum and shall have preference in payment over all other unpaid warrants on said fund, and the county treasurer shall so enter the same on the list of warrants in his office and call the same for payment as soon as there is sufficient money in said fund. In the event any such holder of any bond or bonds shall acquire title he shall have a right to lease or convey said premises, upon giving thirty days' written notice to the board of supervisors by filing the same with the county auditor and in the event said board shall not approve said lease or sale, the same shall be referred to the district court of the county where the land is situated and there tried and determined in the manner prescribed in section 455.172. Any funds realized from the lease or sale of said land shall be first applied in extinguishing the lien of the holder of the certificate herein provided for and the balance shall be paid to the said drainage bond fund of said district. The engineer shall make report to the board of the condition of the improvement, together with such recommendations as he deems necessary. For any claim for services and expenses of inspection, the engineer shall file with the auditor an itemized and verified account of such service and expense to be allowed by the board in such amount as it shall find due and paid out of the drainage funds of the district. If the district extends into two or more counties, such action shall be had jointly by the several boards, and the expenses equitably apportioned among the lands in the different counties. §455.197, LEVEE AND DRAINAGE DISTRICTS

455.197 Land classification and assessment in district.

1. a. When a levee district shall have been located and finally established; or

b. When the required proceedings have been taken to enlarge, extend, strengthen, raise, relocate, reconstruct, or improve any existing levee; or

c. When the required proceedings have been held to annex additional lands to said levee district or to exclude or eliminate lands from said levee district; or

d. When a plan of the United States government for the construction of any levee, or a portion of a levee, in said levee district, or for the enlarging, extending, strengthening, raising, relocating, reconstructing, or improving any existing levee, or a portion thereof, in accordance with any such plan in said levee district, has been heretofore or hereafter adopted by such levee district under the provisions of sections 455.202 to 455.217, inclusive; or

e. When the board shall, as authorized by section 455.72, determine that the assessments of benefits of said levee district against the lands in said levee district are generally inequitable, the board may by resolution, or if a petition is filed by more than one-third of the owners, including corporations, of land within said levee district and who in the aggregate own more than one-third of the value of the land and land improvements in said levee district as the value thereof is then shown by the general tax records of the county or counties in which such land and land improvements are located, requesting the board to do so, the board shall order the lands in said levee district and the improvements on the land in said levee district classified or reclassified in accordance with the assessed taxable value of said land and land improvements as the same are then shown and as the same may be thereafter shown by the assessment roll of the county or counties in which said land and land improvements are located.

The assessed taxable value of any land, including land improvements exempt from general taxation but subject to assessment for levee purposes, shall be determined by the county assessor who shall make such determination in accordance with the rules of assessment applicable to adjacent lands and without any additional compensation therefore.

2. If the board orders classification or reclassification of lands as authorized in subsection 1 of this section, the board shall fix a time and place for a hearing to be held upon the action of the board in ordering such classification or reclassification, which hearing shall be held at the county seat of the county having the largest acreage in said levee district. The board shall cause notice of the time and place of such hearing to be served by the county auditor or auditors upon each person whose name appears as owner of lands or land improvements within the levee district in the transfer books of the auditor's office in the county or counties in which said levee district is located, naming him, and also upon the person or persons in actual occupancy of any tract of land or land improvements located in said levee district, without naming him. Such notice shall be for the same time and served in the same manner as is provided for the establishment of a levee district, and such notice shall state:

a. The aggregate estimated costs and expenses which the board proposes to assess under such classification or reclassification;

b. The total aggregate assessed taxable value of all lands and land improvements in said levee district;

c. That the said classification or reclassification of benefits will be based on the assessed taxable value of all lands and land improvements to lands located in said levee district;

d. That each tract of land and each land improvement in said levee district will be assessed for its pro rata share of said costs and expenses based upon the ratio that the assessed value of each tract of land and the assessed value of each land improvement bears to the total assessed taxable value of all lands and all land improvements in said district; and

e. That all objections to said method of classification or reclassification shall be in writing and filed with the auditor of the county in which said land or land improvements are located before the time set for said hearing or with the board of trustees of said district at or before the time set for such hearing.

The notice need not show the amount of such costs and expenses to be apportioned to each such owner or to any particular tract of land or land improvement within such levee district.

3. If at or before the time set for said hearing as to such classification or reclassification, there shall have been filed with the county auditor, or auditors in case the district extends into more than one county, or with said board, a remonstrance or remonstrances or objections to such method of classification or reclassification signed by owners of land and land improvements in the levee district aggregating sixty percent of the total assessed value of the lands plus land improvements in said district as shown by the taxing records in said county or counties in which said district is located, the board shall abandon the alternative method of classification or reclassification herein authorized. The board may then proceed to classify the lands in said levee district as authorized under sections 455.45 to 455.51, inclusive, or may proceed to reclassify the same as authorized under section 455.72 unless said remonstrances and objections filed as above provided are filed by a majority of the landowners in the levee district and these remonstrants and objectors in the aggregate own seventy percent or more of the acreage of lands in the levee district and, in writing, object to any reclassification of any kind, then the board shall not reclassify the lands within the district under the provision of this section nor shall the same be reclassified under the provisions of section 455.72.

4. At the time fixed or at any adjourned hearing if the remonstrances and objections filed at or before the hearing are not signed by sufficient number of owners, or the owners signing such remonstrances and objections do not meet the requirements hereinafore provided, then the board shall fully consider all objections and remonstrances and shall make a determination as to whether or not the costs and expenses shall be assessed:
   a. By the alternative method hereinafore set forth; or
   b. As provided by sections 155.15 to 155.51, inclusive; or
   c. That the land should be reclassified as provided in section 455.72; or
   d. On the basis of a then existing classification of lands.

5. If the board shall determine that the cost and expenses shall be assessed on the basis of assessed taxable value as hereinafore provided, then such basis shall be used for all future assessments made for the purposes of said levee district except if said assessed taxable value of lands and land improvements in said levee district may be changed or revised by the county assessor in the county or counties in which the same are located for general tax purposes, then any such revision made in the assessed taxable value by any such county assessor shall automatically constitute a revision of the classification of such land or land improvements for future assessments made by the board for the purpose of said levee district.

6. In lieu of the hearing provided for in the preceding subsections, the board may, and if the petition of owners provided for in the preceding subsections so asks, the board shall call for an election for the purpose of determining the question of classification on the basis of assessed value of lands and land improvements.

   The question may be submitted at a regular election of the district or at a special election called for that purpose. The provisions of sections 49.43 through 49.49 and of chapter 612, insofar as the same are applicable, shall govern all such elections, and the question to be submitted shall be set forth in the notice of election.

   If sixty percent of the votes cast be in favor of the proposed change in assessment, it shall become effective for all future assessments as heretofore provided in this section. If the question should fail, no new election on the subject may be called for a period of one year.

7. When a levee district has been established and constructed, as an alternative to the other methods prescribed by law, upon reclassification, the levee district may adopt a method of classification and assessment uniform as to all land in the district, including railroad land, public highways and other public land and land exempt from general taxation, based on the total amount to be assessed divided by the total acres within the district. This method of classification and assessment may be adopted either by hearing or by election and shall become effective as heretofore provided in this section.

8. When a drainage district or drainage and levee district has been established and constructed, and after the lands therein have been classified in accordance with the provisions of sections 455.46, 455.47, and 455.48 or reclassified in accordance with section 455.72, the district may adopt methods of assessment for maintenance, repair, and operation of said district uniform as to all land in the district in the same manner and by the same procedures as prescribed in subsections 1 through 7 of this section. Provided, however, that only those lands drained by respective mains and laterals shall be assessed for maintenance, repair, and operation of said mains and laterals, and provided further that this alternate method of assessment shall not be applied to making improvements in the drainage system.

9. Following the adoption of any alternative method of classification or assessment as provided in this section, the same shall continue in effect until such time as the method is changed pursuant to this section or to section 455.72.

10. All proceedings taken prior to July 1, 1908, purporting to establish or re-establish a drainage or levee district or districts, or to enlarge or change the boundaries of any drainage or levee district, and any assessments not heretofore declared invalid by any court, are hereby legalized, validated, and confirmed.

The foregoing shall not be construed to affect any litigation that may be pending at the time this section becomes effective involving the establishment, re-establishment, enlargement, or change in boundaries or any assessments of drainage or levee districts. [C71, §455.197]

455.198 Warrants not paid for want of funds. Chapter 74 shall be applicable to all warrants which are legally drawn on levee and drainage district funds and are not paid for want of funds, except that such warrants shall bear interest at not to exceed seven percent per annum. [C71, §455.198]

455.199 Easements through a drainage district. As used in this section, "person" shall mean any individual or group of individuals, corporation, firm, company, or association, except a railroad company.

1. When any person proposes to construct a pipe line, electric transmission line, communication line, underground service line, or other similar installations on, over, across, or beneath the right of way of any drainage or
§455.199, LEVEE AND DRAINAGE DISTRICTS

1. When the construction of a levee district, such person shall, before beginnings construction, obtain from the drainage or levee district an easement to cross the district's right of way. The governing body of the district shall require such person to agree to comply with subsection 3 of this section and may, as a condition of granting such easement, attach thereto such additional conditions as they deem necessary. When the necessary easement has been obtained, such person shall construct the installation at his own expense and shall pay all costs of any reconstruction, relocation, modification, or re-installation of the drainage or levee district's facility which may be necessary as a result of construction of the installation for which the easement was granted.

2. After construction of the installation has been completed in accordance with all conditions under which the easement is granted, the drainage or levee district shall maintain its facility at its own expense, and the person who constructed the installation, or his successors in interest, shall maintain the installation at his own expense. If the drainage or levee district subsequently undertakes any maintenance, improvement, or reconstruction of its facility which requires the modification, relocation, or reconstruction of the installation, the expense of such modification, relocation, or reconstruction shall be borne by the person who constructed the installation or his successors in interest.

3. When the construction of a public highway, or any installation for which an easement has been obtained under subsection 1 of this section, on, over, across, or beneath the right of way of any drainage or levee district disturbs or requires replacement of any portion of a tile drain less than twenty inches in diameter, and a portion of such drain will remain wholly or partially exposed after the construction project has been completed, the portion which is to remain exposed and not less than three feet of such drain immediately on either side of the portion which is to remain exposed, shall be replaced either with steel pipe of not less than sixteen gauge or polyvinyl chloride pipe conforming to current industry standards regarding diameter and wall thickness. [C71,§455.199]

455.200 Agreements with outside owners or other districts. Levee and drainage districts are empowered to enter into agreements with the owners of lands lying outside of said districts, or with other levee and drainage districts or municipalities, to provide levee protection or drainage for such lands on such terms as the board may agree and subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The facilities of the district furnishing the service shall not be overburdened.

2. There shall be no additional cost to the district furnishing the service.

3. The agreement shall be in writing, be made a part of the drainage records and shall include the following:

a. The description of the lands to be served;

b. The location of tile lines constructed or to be constructed;

c. The consideration to be paid to the district furnishing the service and the classification of the lands to be served; and

d. Such other provisions as the board deems necessary. [C71,§455.200]

455.201 Public improvements which divide a district—procedure. If it should develop that any type of public improvement, other than the forces of nature, has caused such a change in the district as to effectively sever and cut off some of the land in the district from other lands in the district and from the improvements in the district in such a way as to deprive the land of any further benefits from the improvement, or in some manner to divide the benefits that may be derived from two separated portions of the improvement, then the board of supervisors or the board of trustees in charge may upon notice to interested parties and hearing as provided by this chapter for the original establishment of a district make an order to remove lands so deprived of benefits from the district without any reclassification, or may subdivide the district into two separate entities if the public improvement splits the district into two separate units, each of which may still derive some separate benefits from the separated portions of the district.

If the public improvement is such as to leave two separate portions of the improvement that are still operable and of benefit to the land on each side of the division made by the public improvement, then the board may divide the district into two separate units so that each may perform further work on the improvements in their respective parts, but neither shall be charged for work completed on the opposite side of the new improvement that divides them and may only be charged for the work done in that portion of the district remaining on their side of the division.

The same authority provided in this section shall vest in the board of supervisors or the board of trustees in the event a drainage district in any manner relinquishes its control over any portion of its improvements or its obligation to maintain same to another district and lands may be removed from the district or the district may be divided as provided in this section.

The board may further in dividing the district award to each of the separated portions of the district the improvement remaining in each portion, determine the value of the improvement so remaining on each side and secondly determine the contributions of the lands in the separated portions to the improvements and the upkeep of the earlier district, and if the contribution is proportionate, the board shall determine an equitable adjustment and the amount of payment required for one portion to pay to the other to buy the existing improvement.

If land is eliminated from any further benefits, there need not be any reclassification and the board may remove the same from the district in the same manner as if the land has been destroyed in whole by the erosion of a river and spread any deficiency in assessment among the remaining lands as provided for in section 455.56.

"Type of public improvement" for the purpose of this section includes drainage or levee improvements or new highways. [C71, §455.201]

FEDERAL FLOOD CONTROL CO-OPERATION

455.202 Plan of improvement.

1. Whenever the government of the United States acting through its proper agencies or instrumentalities will undertake the original construction of improvements or the repair or alteration of existing improvements which will accomplish the purposes for which the district was established or aid in the accomplishment thereof and shall cause to be filed in the office of the auditor of the county in which said district is located a plan of such improvement or for the repair or alteration of existing improvements, the board shall have jurisdiction, power and authority, upon the notice, hearing and determination hereinafter provided, to adopt such plan of improvement or of repair or alteration of existing improvements and to provide necessary right of way therefor; and to pay such portion of all costs and damages incident to the adoption of such plan, the construction thereunder and the maintenance and operation of the works as will not be discharged by the federal government under legislation existing at the time of adoption; also to enter into such agreements with the United States government as may be necessary to meet federal requirements including the taking over, repair and maintenance of the works and to perform under such agreements.

2. If the cost to the district of the repair or alteration of existing improvements contemplated by this section does not exceed twenty-five percent of the sum of the original cost to the district and the cost of subsequent improvements, including all federal contributions, the board may proceed under the provisions of section 455.135, without notice and hearing, and without appraisal as contemplated by section 455.211, but the remaining provisions of section 455.202 through section 455.217 that are not in conflict with section 455.135 shall remain applicable.

If the federal program divides a project into separate phases, each phase shall be considered a separate program as described in section 455.135, subsection 4, and shall in no event be construed as an unauthorized division into separate programs to avoid the twenty-five percent limitation prescribed for making improvements under said section 455.135, subsection 4, without notice and hearing. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.201; C71, §455.202]

455.203 Agreement in advance. The agreement with the federal government contemplated in section 455.202 may be entered into by the board in advance of the filing of the plan—such agreement to be effective if the plan is finally adopted. If the plan is approved the board shall make a record of any such cooperative agreement. [C50, 54, 58, 66, §455.202; C71, §455.203]

455.204 Engineer appointed. After the filing of the plan contemplated in section 455.202 the board shall, at its first session thereafter, appoint a disinterested and competent civil or drainage engineer who shall give bond in an amount to be fixed by the board conditioned for the faithful and competent performance of his duties. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.203; C71, §455.204]

455.205 Engineer’s report. The engineer shall examine the plan filed by the federal agency and the lands affected thereby and shall make and file with the county auditor a full written report which, together with the federal plan, will show the following:

1. The character and location of all contemplated improvements, and the plats, profiles and specifications thereof.

2. The particular description and acreage of land required from each forty-acre tract or fraction thereof for right of way, borrow pits or other purposes together with congressional or other description of each tract and the names of the owners thereof as shown by the transfer books in the office of the auditor.

3. A particular description of each forty-acre tract or fraction thereof that will be excluded from benefit by adoption of the plan as filed, together with the name of the owners thereof as shown by the transfer books in the office of the auditor.

4. A particular description of each forty-acre tract or fraction thereof outside the district which will benefit from adoption of the plan as filed and the name of the owner thereof as shown by the transfer books in the office of the auditor.

5. Such rights of way or portions thereof previously established or acquired as will be rendered unnecessary by adoption of the federal plan and any unpaid damages awarded therefor.

6. Such other damages previously awarded as will be affected by adoption of the federal plan.

7. The recommendation of the engineer with respect to the adoption of the plan. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.204; C71, §455.205]

and consider the same together with the plan and the commitments involved in its adoption and may require supplemental reports of the engineer or of another disinterested engineer with such data as they may deem necessary or desirable including recommendations for any change or modification, negotiate with the federal agency involved and amend the plan in such manner as may be mutually agreed upon. The engineer shall make such supplemental reports as may be required by the board or necessitated by amendment of plan. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.205; C71, §455.206]

455.207 Notice and hearing. If upon consideration of the plan or amended plan and the report or reports of the engineer and the commitments involved in the adoption of the plan the board finds that the district will benefit therefrom or for the purposes for which the district was established will be promoted thereby, the board shall adopt the same as a tentative plan, entering order to that effect and fixing a date for hearing thereon not less than thirty days thereafter and directing the auditor to cause notice to be given of such hearing as hereinbefore provided. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.206; C71, §455.207]

Referred to in §§455.45, 455.69, 455.197(1, 4); 455.202

455.208 Form of notice. Such notice shall be captioned in the name of the district and shall be directed to the owners of each tract or lot within said levee or drainage district, including railroad companies having rights of way, lienholders and encumbrances, and to all owners, lienholders or encumbrancers of lands which an adoption of the plan would exclude from benefits and of lands outside the district which will benefit therefrom or benefit to all other persons whom it may concern and, without naming them, to the occupants of all lands affected and shall set forth that there is on file in the office of the auditor a plan of construction of the federal agency (naming it), together with reports of an engineer thereon, which the board has tentatively approved, and that such plan may be amended before final action; also the day and hour set for hearing on the adoption of said plan, and that all claims for damages, except claims for land required for right of way or construction, and all objections to the adoption of said plan for any reason must be made in writing and filed in the office of the auditor at or before the time set for hearing. Provisions of this chapter for giving notice, waiver of notice, waiver of objection and damages and adjournment for service contained in sections 455.21 to 455.26, inclusive, shall apply. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.207; C71, §455.208]

Referred to in §§455 45, 455.69, 455.197(1, 4); 455.202

455.209 Amendment — new parties. The board may continue the hearing pending decision and may amend the plan but in the event of amendment the board shall continue further hearing to a fixed date. All parties over whom the board then has jurisdiction shall take notice of such further hearing but any new parties rendered necessary by the modification or change of plans shall be served with notice as for the original hearing. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.208; C71, §455.209]

Referred to in §§455.45, 455.69, 455.197(1, 4); 455.202

455.210 Entry of order—effect. If the board, after consideration of the subject matter, including all objections filed to the adoption of the plan and all claims for damages, shall find that the district will be benefited by adoption of the plan or the purposes for which the district was established is furthered thereby, they shall enter order approving and adopting such final plan. Such order shall have the effect of:

1. Altering the boundaries of the district to conform to the changes effected by the plan adopted.

2. Canceling all existing awards for damages for property not appropriated for right of way or construction and rendered unnecessary by the plan so adopted.

3. Canceling all awards previously made for damages other than for right of way or construction but reinstating the claims for such damages which said claims may be amended by the claimants within ten days thereafter.

4. Canceling all unpaid assessments for benefits on lands excluded from the district by adoption of the plan. The assessments so canceled shall become part of the costs of the improvement.

5. Establishing as benefited thereby the lands added to the district by adoption of the plan and rendering same subject to classification and assessment.

6. Whenever a plan has been adopted as contemplated by this section, modification and changes can be made therein without further notice or hearing, provided the same do not increase or decrease the estimated cost of the plan to the district by more than twenty-five percent. [C50, 51, 58, 62, 66, §455.209; C71, §455.210]

Referred to in §§455.45, 455.69, 455.197(1, 4); 455.202

455.211 Appraisement. The board shall thereupon appoint three appraisers of the qualifications prescribed in section 455.30, who shall qualify in the manner therein provided, and shall fix a time for hearing on their report of which all interested parties shall take notice. The appraisers shall view the premises and fix and determine the damages to which each claimant is entitled, including claimants whose awards for damages were canceled by the order of adoption, and shall place a separate valuation upon the acreage of each owner taken for right of way or other purposes necessitated by adoption of the plan and shall file a report thereof in writing in the office of the auditor at least five days before the date fixed by the board for hearing thereon. Should the report not be filed on time or should good cause for delay exist the board may postpone the time for final action on the subject and, if necessary, may appoint other appraisers. Thereafter the provisions of section 455.32 shall apply. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.210; C71, §455.211]

Referred to in §§455.45, 455.197(1, d), 455.202

The board may, upon hearing, adjust the classification of lands affected by the plan. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.211; C71, §455.212]

The board may issue warrants bearing interest at not to exceed seven percent per annum against assessments. The warrants may be numbered and state a maturity date in which event they shall bear interest from the date of issue without being presented for payment and marked unpaid for want of funds. The warrants may be sold by the board for cash in an amount not less than the face value thereof, together with accrued interest, if any. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §455.212; C71, §455.213]

STATE LANDS

455.218 Occupancy and use permitted — assessments paid. Any levee or drainage district organized, or in the process of being organized, under the laws of this state may occupy and use for any lawful levee or drainage purpose land owned by the state of Iowa, upon first obtaining permission to do so from the state or state agency controlling the same.

In the case of lands lying within the beds of meandered streams and border streams the permission shall be obtained from the state conservation commission, or its successor. In the case of lands that are under the control of no office or agency of the state, then the permission shall be obtained from the executive council.

Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld and shall be in the form of an easement executed by the governor or in the case of an agency, by the chairman or presiding officer thereof, and when once granted shall be perpetual, except that if no use is made of the same for a period of five years such permission shall immediately thereafter expire.

All uses and occupancies as contemplated by this section existing on July 1, 1961, are hereby legalized.

The state of Iowa, its agencies and subdivisions shall be financially responsible for drainage and special assessments against land which they own, or hold title to, within existing drainage districts. [C62, 66, §455.217; C71, §455.218]

BOARD OF COUNTY DRAINAGE ADMINISTRATORS

455.219 Administrators appointed. The county board of supervisors of any county of this state in which one or more drainage districts are established may by resolution establish a board of county drainage administrators. All of the powers, duties, and responsibilities now or hereafter conferred on county boards of supervisors in this chapter and chapters 456 to 467, inclusive, shall thereupon be transferred to and thereafter exercised by the board of county drainage administrators. A drainage or levee district may be established pursuant to chapter 462. [C71, §455.219]
455.220 Administrator areas. When establishing a board of county drainage administrators, the board of supervisors shall divide the county, along township lines, into three drainage administrator areas of approximately equal territory. The board of county drainage administrators shall consist of one resident freeholder appointed by the county board of supervisors from each area, and at least two of the administrators shall be agricultural landowners. The members first appointed shall hold office for terms of one, two, and three years respectively, as indicated and fixed by the county board of supervisors. Thereafter, succeeding members shall be appointed for a term of three years, except that vacancies occurring otherwise than by expiration of a term shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term. Any member of the board of county drainage administrators who shall cease to have any of the qualifications prescribed by this section shall thereupon be disqualified as a member of the board and his office shall be deemed vacant. Members of the board of county drainage administrators may be removed by the county board of supervisors for cause, but every such removal shall be by written order which shall be filed with the county auditor. [C71,§455.220]

455.221 Compensation. The members of the board of county drainage administrators shall each receive seventeen dollars and fifty cents per day for each day actually devoted to the duties of their office, ten cents for every mile traveled in going to and from meetings of, or other places of performing the duties of, said board, and other actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. [C71,§455.221]

455.222 How paid. The compensation and expenses of the county board of drainage administrators, for each day or portion thereof necessarily expended in the transaction of the business of a drainage or levee district, shall be paid out of the funds of the district served. The administrators shall file with the auditor or auditors, as the case may be, itemized, verified statements of their time devoted to the business of the district and the expenses incurred. If the administrators transact business of more than one district on a given day, they shall prorate their claims for compensation proportionately among the districts served on that day, but in no case shall a member of the board of county drainage administrators claim or receive a sum in excess of seventeen dollars and fifty cents, plus actual and necessary expenses, for a single day. [C71,§455.222]

455.223 Conservancy districts. The governing board of every drainage or levee district organized under the laws of this state shall take notice of the district plan, and shall conform to the duly promulgated rules, of the conservancy district or districts in which the drainage or levee district is located; provided that this section shall not be construed to grant any authority not otherwise granted by law to the governing boards of drainage or levee districts. [64GA, ch 227,§25]

455A.17 Functions and duties. The council shall establish and enforce a comprehensive state-wide plan for the control, utilization and protection of the water resources of the state, which plan shall include all uses and developments of water resources and shall provide for the optimum control, protection, development, allocation and utilization thereof. All uses and developments of water resources regulated under provisions of this chapter must be found to be compatible with the state comprehensive plan prior to the granting of a permit by the water commissioner or an approval order by the council. In making and formulating such state comprehensive plan for the further control, development, protection, allocation, and utilization of the water resources of the state, the council shall make surveys and investigations of the water resources of the state and shall give consideration to the needs of agriculture, industry, health, fish and wildlife, recreation, pollution and allied matters as they relate to flood control and water resources.

The council shall be the official representative of the state of Iowa on all comprehensive water resources planning groups for which state participation is provided. The council shall co-ordinate state planning with local and national planning and, in safeguarding the interests of the state and its people, shall undertake the resolution of any conflicts that may arise between the water resources policies, plans, and projects of the federal government and the water resources policies, plans, and projects of the state, its agencies, and its people. Nothing in this section assigning the overall responsibility for comprehensive planning of water resources to the council shall be construed as limiting or supplanting the functions, duties and responsibilities of the several state or local agencies or institutions with regard to planning of water associated projects within the particular area of responsibility of such state or local agency or institution.

The council shall enter into negotiations and agreements with the federal government relative to the operation of, or the release of water from, any project that has been authorized or constructed by the federal government when the council shall deem such negotiations and agreements to be necessary for the achievement of the policies of the state of Iowa relative to its water resources.

The council, on behalf of the state, shall enter into negotiations with the federal government relative to the inclusion of conservation storage features for water supply in any project that has been authorized by the federal government when the council shall deem such negotiations to be necessary for the achievement of the policies of the state of Iowa and the state comprehensive plan for water resources; provided, however, that any agreements reached pursuant to such negotiations shall not bind the state until enacted into law by the legislature.

Water users who will benefit from the development by the federal government of conservation storage for water supply shall be encouraged to assume the responsibility for repaying to the federal government any reimbursable costs incurred in such development and such users who will accept benefits from such developments financed in whole or in part by the state shall assume by contract the responsibility of repaying to the state their reasonable share of the state's obligations in accordance with such basis as will assure payment within the life of the development. No appropriations, diversion, or use shall be made by any person of any of the waters of the state that have been stored or released from storage either under the authority of the state or pursuant to an agreement between the state and the federal government until such time as he shall have assumed by contract his repayment responsibility; provided, however, that the application of this provision shall in no way infringe upon any vested property interests.

In its contracts with water users for the payment of state obligations incurred in the development of conservation storage for water supply, the council shall include (1) such terms as it shall find reasonable and necessary for the protection of the health, safety, and general welfare of the people of the state, (2) such terms as it shall find reasonable and necessary for the achievement of the purposes of this chapter and acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, and, (3) such terms as shall make clear that the state of Iowa shall not be responsible to any person in the event the waters involved are insufficient for performance. The council may designate and describe any such contract, and describe the relationships to which it relates, as a sale of storage capacity, a sale of water release services, a contract for the storage or sale of water, or any similar terms suggestive of the creation of a property interest. The term of such contracts shall be commensurate with the investment and use concerned but in no event shall the council enter into any such contract for a term in excess of the maximum period provided for water use permits.

The council shall procure and obtain flood control works and water resources projects from and through or by co-operation with the United States, or any agency of the United States, by co-operation with and action of the cities, towns and other subdivisions of the state, under the laws of the state relating to flood control and use of water resources, and by co-operation with the action of landowners in areas affected thereby when the council shall deem such projects to be necessary for the achievement of the policies of the state of Iowa and the state comprehensive plan for water resources. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §455A.17]

455A.18 Jurisdiction — diversion of water.

The council shall have jurisdiction over the public and private waters in the state and the lands adjacent thereto necessary for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this chapter. The council may construct flood control works or any part thereof. In the construction of such works or in making surveys and investigations or in formulating plans and programs relating to the water resources of the state, the council may co-operate with other states or any agency thereof or with the United States or any agency of the United States, or with any person as defined in this chapter.

Upon application by any person for permission to divert, pump, or otherwise take waters from any watercourse, underground basin or watercourse, drainage ditch or settling basin within the state of Iowa for any purpose other than a nonregulated use, the council shall cause to be made an investigation of the effect of such use upon the natural flow of such watercourse; the effect of any such use upon the owners of any land which might be affected by such use, and the effect of any such use upon the state comprehensive plan for water resources, and shall hold a hearing thereon. Upon application by any person for approval of the construction or maintenance of any structure, dam, obstruction, deposit or excavation to be erected, used, or maintained in or on the flood plains of any river or stream, the council shall cause an investigation to be made of the effect thereof on the efficiency and capacity of the floodway and on the state comprehensive plan for water resources. In determining the effect of any such proposal the council shall consider fully its effect on flooding or flood control both to any proposed works and to adjacent lands and property, on the wise use and protection of water resources, on the quality of water, on fish, wildlife and recreational facilities or uses, and on all other public rights and requirements. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71.§455A.18]

455A.19 Procedure to secure permit. The procedure for securing a permit to divert, store or withdraw waters shall be as follows:

1. The application for a permit shall be made in writing to the council and shall set forth the designated beneficial use for which the permit is sought, the specific limits as to quantity, time, place, and rate of diversion, storage or withdrawal of waters.

2. Upon receipt of an application for a permit, the water commissioner shall set a time and place for hearing. The hearing shall be in the county where the permit is sought, but may be held at any other place in the state unless objection is raised by the applicant. The hearing shall be to the water commissioner.

3. The water commissioner shall cause due notice of the hearing to be published. Said notice shall specify the date, time and place of hearing and shall include a concise statement of the designated beneficial purposes for which diversion is sought, the specific limits as to quantity, time, place, and rate of diversion, storage or withdrawal of waters, the name of the applicant and the description of the land upon which waters are to be diverted, stored or withdrawn. In addition to the foregoing, the water commissioner shall cause a copy of the notice to be sent to the director of the conservation commission, community of public health, the secretary of the soil conservation committee, secretary of agriculture, director of the Iowa geological survey, the director of the Iowa development commission, and to any other person who has filed a written request for a notification of any hearings affecting a designated area, by ordinary mail, prior to the date of last publication.

4. Any interested person may appear and present evidence at the hearing, and may be represented by counsel, who shall have the right to question others who present evidence.

5. The applicant for a permit shall pay a fee to the council in the amount of fifteen dollars at the time of filing his application which fee shall include the cost of publishing notice and which publication shall then be paid for by the council. Such fee shall be used by the council for administering this chapter, including the payment of expenses incurred in publishing legal notice.

6. The council shall prescribe the rules of procedure for the conduct of the hearings.

7. The determination of the water commissioner on any application before him shall be in writing, filed with the council and shall set forth his findings. A copy of the determination shall be mailed to the applicant and to any person appearing who in writing requests a copy of the determination.

8. Any party aggrieved by the determination of the water commissioner may, within thirty days from the date such determination is filed, appeal therefrom to the council setting forth in general terms the determination appealed from and the grounds of the appeal. The director shall set a time and place for hearing before the council and shall then send a notice by ordinary mail to all persons who appeared at the hearing before the water commissioner.

9. The council shall adopt rules and regulations for the conduct of the hearing on appeal and shall file a determination in writing, setting forth findings. A copy of the determination shall be mailed to the applicant or to any person appearing who in writing requests a copy of the determination.

10. The water commissioner or the council or other employee so authorized by the council at any hearing or other proceeding authorized by this chapter, shall have the power to administer oaths; take testimony; issue subpoenas and compel the attendance of witnesses, the subpoenas shall be served in the same manner as subpoenas issued by the courts of the state; and to order the taking of depositions in the same manner as depositions are taken under the Iowa Rules of Civil Procedure. [C58, 62, 66, 71.§455A.19]

due investigation that such diversion, storage or withdrawal will not be detrimental to the public interests, including drainage and levee districts, or to the interests of property owners with prior or superior rights who might be affected, the water commissioner following the first hearing, or the council following the hearing on appeal shall grant a permit for such diversion, storage or withdrawal. Any person or public body aggrieved by the granting of such permit may appeal as provided by section 455A.37. Permits may be granted for any period of time but not to exceed ten years. Permits may be granted which provide for less diversion, storage, or withdrawal of waters than set forth in the application. Permits may be extended by the water commissioner for a period of not more than ninety days during the pendency of an application for renewal. Any permit granted shall remain as an appurtenance of the land described therein through the date specified in such permit and any extension thereof or such earlier date as the permit or any extension thereof is revoked or canceled under the provisions of section 455A.28.

Upon application therefor prior to the termination date specified therein, permits may be renewed by the water commissioner for any period of time not to exceed ten years. Permits may be renewed without hearing or fee if no objection is filed and no change in the conditions of the permit is sought. The water commissioner shall cause notice of receipt of an application for renewal to be sent by ordinary mail to any person who appeared at the next previous proceeding on the permit and to any person who has filed a written request for notification of any hearings affecting a designated area. If written objection is filed not more than thirty days after the date of the notice by any person shown to have an interest, a hearing shall be held thereon with notice thereof to be sent not less than ten nor more than thirty days prior thereto by ordinary mail to such objector, to any person who appeared at the next previous proceeding on the permit, and to any person who has filed written request for notification of any hearings affecting a designated area.

If a change in the terms of a permit is requested which involves a change in the designated beneficial purposes for which the diversion is sought, a change in the place of such diversion, or an increase in the quantity, time, or rate of diversion, storage or withdrawal of waters, the applicant therefor shall pay a fee as required by section 455A.19, subsection 5, and a hearing shall be held thereon with notice thereof as required by section 455A.19, subsection 3.

455A.21 Priority of permits. In the consideration of applications for permits, priority will be given to persons in the order applications are received. However, persons who have made diversion or withdrawal of water for a beneficial use prior to May 16, 1957, will be accorded priority according to the actual date of said diversion or withdrawal. The water commissioner or the council on appeal shall exercise their judgment on the quantity of water for which a permit may be granted. The use of water for ordinary household purposes, for poultry, livestock and domestic animals shall have priority over other uses. Any person with an existing irrigation system in use prior to May 16, 1957, shall be issued a permit to continue, unless by the use thereof some other riparian user is damaged. In the consideration of applications for permits by regulated users, the declared policies and principles of beneficial use, as set forth in this chapter, shall be the standard for the determination of the disposition of the applications for said permits. Nothing in this chapter shall impair the vested right of any person. Prior orders of the council shall not be invalidated by the provisions of sections 455A.19 to 455A.32, inclusive.

Referred to in §§455A.21, 455A.25, 455A.26, 455A.27

455A.22 Permits for beneficial use. The water commissioner and the council shall have the authority to issue a permit for beneficial use of water in a watercourse provided the established average minimum flow is preserved.

1. Any municipal corporation or person supplying a municipal corporation which increases its water use in excess of one hundred thousand gallons, or three percent, whichever is the greater, per day more than its highest per day beneficial use prior to May 16, 1937. Such corporation or person shall make reasonable provision for the storage of water at such time or times when the daily use of such water by such corporation or person is less than the amount specified herein.

2. Except for a nonregulated use, any person using in excess of five thousand gallons of water per day, diverted, stored, or withdrawn from any source of supply except a municipal water system or any other source specifically exempted under the provisions of sections 455A.19 to 455A.32, inclusive.

However, that any diversion of water or material from the surface directly into any underground watercourse, or basin existing upon May 16, 1957, shall not require a permit if said diversion does not create waste or pollution. No permit shall be issued under this subsection until the approval of the Iowa water pollution control commission has been obtained.

4. Industrial users of water having their own water supply, within the territorial boundaries of municipal corporations, shall be regulated when such water use exceeds three percent more than the highest per day beneficial use prior to May 16, 1957. [CS8, 62, 66, 71, §455A.25]

455A.26 Taking water prohibited. No person shall take water from any natural watercourse, underground basin or watercourse, drainage ditch, or settling basin within the state of Iowa for any purpose other than a nonregulated use except upon compliance with sections 455A.19 to 455A.32, inclusive, provided that existing uses may be continued during the period of the pendency of an application for a permit. [CS8, 62, 66, 71, §455A.26]

455A.27 Rights preserved. Nothing in sections 455A.19 to 455A.32, inclusive, shall operate to deprive any person of the right to use diffused waters, or to drain land by use of tile, open ditch or surface drainage, or to construct an embankment on said person's property so long as provision is made for safe construction and for continued established average minimum flow, if and when such flow is required to protect the rights of water users below. [CS8, 62, 66, 71, §455A.27]

455A.28 Modification or cancellation of permits. Every permit issued hereunder shall be irrevocable for the term therefor, and for any extension of such term except as follows:

Subject to appeal in the manner provided by section 155A.19, subsection 8, a permit may be modified or canceled by the water commissioner in case of any breach of the terms or conditions thereof or in case of any violation of the law pertaining thereto by the permittee, his agents or servants, in case of nonuse as provided hereinbefore, or in case the water commissioner finds such modification or cancellation necessary to protect the public health or safety or to protect the public interests in lands or waters, or to prevent substantial injury to persons or property in any manner, upon at least thirty days' written notice mailed to the permittee at his last known address, stating the grounds of the proposed modification or cancellation and giving the permittee an opportunity to be heard thereon.

NATURAL RESOURCES COUNCIL, §455A.32

3. By written order to the permittee, the water commissioner may forthwith suspend operations under a permit if he finds it necessary in an emergency to protect the public health or safety or to protect the public interests in lands or waters against imminent danger of substantial injury in any manner or to any extent not expressly authorized by the permit, or to protect persons or property against such danger, may require the permittee to take any measures necessary to prevent or remedy such injury; provided, that no such order shall be in effect for more than thirty days from the date thereof, without giving the permittee at least ten days' written notice of such order and an opportunity to be heard thereon. [CS8, 62, 66, 71, §455A.28]

455A.29 Termination of permit. The right of the permittee and his successors to the use of water shall terminate when he ceases for three consecutive years to use it for the specific beneficial purpose authorized in his permit and the permittee has been notified by the water commission that unless written application as set forth as follows, that the permit will cease; provided, however, that upon his written application prior to the expiration of said three-year period for extension of said permit, the council may grant such extension without loss of priority. [CS8, 62, 66, 71, §455A.29]

455A.31 Power of eminent domain. The state of Iowa, any subdivision thereof, or municipal corporation, for the purpose of carrying out any permission granted, as hereinbefore provided, shall have and exercise the power of eminent domain. [CS8, 62, 66, 71, §455A.31]

455A.32 Unauthorized depleting uses. In the event that any person shall file a complaint with the council that any other person is making a depleting use of water not expressly exempted as a nonregulated use under the provisions of this chapter and without a permit to do so, the council shall cause an investigation to be made and if the facts stated in the complaint are verified the council shall order the discontinuance of the use. §455A.33 Unlawful acts—powers of council. It shall be unlawful to suffer or permit any structure, dam, obstruction, deposit or excavation to be erected, used, or maintained in or on any floodway or flood plains, which will adversely affect the efficiency of or unduly restrict the capacity of the floodway, adversely affect the control, development, protection, allocation, or utilization of the water resources of the state, or adversely affect or interfere with the state comprehensive plan for water resources, or an approved local water resources plan, and the same are declared to be and to constitute public nuisances, provided, however, that this provision shall not apply to dams constructed and operated under the authority of chapter 469 as amended.

The council shall have the power to commence, maintain and prosecute any appropriate action to enjoin or abate a nuisance, including any of the foregoing nuisances and any other nuisance which adversely affects flood control.

In the event any person desires to erect or make, or to suffer or permit, a structure, dam, obstruction, deposit or excavation, other than a dam, constructed and operated under the authority of chapter 469 as amended, to be erected, made, used or maintained in or on any floodway or flood plains, such person shall file a verified written application with the council, setting forth the material facts, and the council after an investigation or hearing, shall enter an order, determining the fact and permitting or prohibiting the same, upon such terms and conditions as it may prescribe.

The council shall have the authority to maintain an action in equity to enjoin any such person from erecting or making or suffering or permitting to be made any structure, dam, obstruction, deposit, or excavation other than a dam constructed and operated under the authority of chapter 469, for which a permit has not been granted.

The council shall have the power to remove or eliminate any structure, dam, obstruction, deposit or excavation in any floodway which adversely affects the efficiency of or unduly restricts the capacity of the floodway, by an action in condemnation, and in assessing the damages in such proceeding, the appraisers and the court shall take into consideration whether the structure, dam, obstruction, deposit or excavation is lawfully in or on the floodway. §455A.34 Additional powers—licensing of dams. After April 17, 1949, the term "council", as used in chapter 469, shall be construed to refer to the Iowa natural resources council unless specifically otherwise provided. [C50, 54, §455A.20; C58, 62, 66, 71, §455A.54]

§455A.35 Council—established flood plains—encroachment limits. The council may establish and enforce regulations for the orderly development and wise use of the flood plains of any river or stream within the state and alter, change, or revoke and terminate the same. The council shall determine the characteristics of floods which reasonably may be expected to occur and may by order establish encroachment limits, protection methods and minimum protection levels appropriate to the flooding characteristics of the stream and to reasonable use of the flood plains. The order shall fix the length of flood plains to be regulated at any practical distance; shall fix the width of the zone between the encroachment limits so as to include portions of the flood plains adjoining the channel, which with the channel, are required to carry and discharge the flood waters or flood flow of such river or stream; and shall fix the design discharge and water surface elevations for which protection shall be provided for projects outside the encroachment limits but within the limits of inundation. Plans for the protection of projects proposed for areas subject to inundation shall be reviewed as plans for flood control works within the purview of section 455A.36. No order establishing encroachment limits and flood plain regulations shall be issued until due notice of the proposed establishment thereof shall have been given and public hearings held and opportunity given for the presentation of all protests against the establishment thereof.

In establishing any such limits or regulations, the council shall avoid to the greatest possible degree the evacuation of persons residing in the area of any floodway, the removal of any residential structures occupied by such persons in the area of any floodway, and the removal of any structures erected or made prior to July 4, 1965, which are located on the flood plains of any river or stream but not within the area of any floodway.

The council may co-operate with and assist local units of government in the establishment of encroachment limits, flood plain regulations and zoning ordinances relating to flood plains proposed for areas subject to inundation and may by order establish encroachment limits but within the limits of inundation. Plans for the protection of projects proposed for areas subject to inundation shall be submitted to the council for review and approval prior to adoption by such local units of government. Changes or variations from an approved regulation or ordinance as it relates to flood plain use shall be approved by the council prior to adoption. Individual applications, plans and specifications and individual council approval orders shall not be required for works on the flood plains constructed in conformity with encroachment limits, flood plain regulations, or zoning ordinances adopted by the local units of government and approved by the council. [C50, 54, §455A.21; C58, 62, 66, 71, §455A.35]

and accepted engineering practice so as to effect the best flood control obtainable throughout the state. No person shall construct or install any works of any nature for flood control unless and until the proposed works and the plans and specifications therefor are approved by the council. The interested persons shall file a verified written application with the council therefor, and the council after an investigation or hearing shall consider all the pertinent facts relating to the proposed works which will affect flood control and water resources in the state and shall determine whether the proposed works in the plans and specifications will be in aid of and acceptable as part of, or will adversely affect and interfere with flood control in the state, adversely affect the control, development, protection, allocation or utilization of the water resources of the state, or adversely affect or interfere with the state comprehensive plan for water resources or an approved local water resources plan, and shall enter an order approving or disapproving the application, plans and specifications. In the event of disapproval, the order shall set forth the objectionable features so that the proposed works and the plans and specifications therefor may be corrected or adjusted to obtain the approval of the council.

The provisions of this section shall apply to all drainage districts, soil conservation districts, projects undertaken by the state conservation commission, all public agencies including counties, cities, towns and all political subdivisions of the state and to all privately undertaken projects relating to or affecting flood control. [C50, §455A.22; C58, 62, 66, 71, §455A.36]

455A.37 Appeal. Any person aggrieved by any of the acts or orders of the council shall have the right to appeal therefrom to the district court of any county in which the property affected is located, by filing with the council a notice of such appeal within thirty days from the date of such action or order. The notice of appeal shall state the grounds of appeal. When an appeal is taken, the council shall forthwith cause to be made a certified transcript of all proceedings had and all orders made and shall file the same with the clerk of the district court where the appeal is pending.

Upon such appeal being perfected, it shall be brought on for trial at any time by either party upon ten days' notice to the other, and shall be tried by the court de novo. At such trial the burden of proof that any acts and orders of the council from which appeal is taken are reasonable and necessary shall be upon the council. If the court shall determine that the order appealed from is reasonable and necessary, it shall be affirmed. If the court finds that the order appealed from is unjust, unreasonable or not supported by the evidence it shall make such order to take the place of the order appealed from as is justified by the record before it.

455A.38 Executive prerogatives. The council shall have no executive prerogatives outside of its own duties and functions as set out by this chapter and shall not disturb the work, functions or authority of any of the several state or local agencies and institutions, provided the powers conferred upon the council by this chapter shall not be exercised by any other of the agencies or institutions. [C50, §455A.24; C58, 62, 66, 71, §455A.38]

455A.39 Penalties. Whoever is convicted of erecting, causing or continuing a common or public nuisance, as provided in this chapter, or whoever diverts or withdraws water in violation of the provisions of this chapter, upon conviction, shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars or be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty days and each day that such violation continues after conviction shall be considered a separate offense. 1. Direct the development of a comprehensive plan for the abatement, control, and prevention of air pollution in this state, recognizing varying requirements for different areas in the state.

2. Establish, modify, or repeal rules pertaining to the evaluation, abatement, control, and prevention of air pollution after at least sixty days' public notice and public hearings.

3. Establish, modify, or repeal air quality standards for the atmosphere of this state on the basis of providing air quality necessary to minimize air pollution after at least sixty days' public notice and public hearings.

4. Establish, modify, or repeal emission standards relating to the maximum quantities of air contamination that may be emitted from any air contaminant source after at least sixty days' public notice and public hearings.

5. Consider complaints of conditions reported to, or considered likely to, constitute air pollution; and instruct the department to investigate such complaints upon receipt of the written petition of any state agency, the governing body of any political subdivision, a local board of health, or twenty-five affected residents of the state.

The commission may require, by rule, the owner or operator of any air contaminant source to establish and maintain such records, make such reports, install, use and maintain such monitoring equipment or methods, sample such emissions in accordance with such methods at such locations and intervals, and using such procedures as the commission shall prescribe, and provide such other information as the commission may reasonably require. Such classifications may be for application to the state as a whole, or to any designated area of the state, and shall be made with special reference to effects on health, economic and social factors, and physical effects on property.

10. Require, by rules, notice of the construction or the installation of any equipment which may cause or contribute to air pollution, and the submission of plans and specifications to the department, or such other information deemed necessary, for the installation of equipment from which air contaminants may be emitted to the atmosphere and related control equipment. Such rules shall not specify any particular method to be used to reduce undesirable levels of emissions, nor type, design, or method of installation of any equipment to be used to reduce such levels of emissions, nor the type, design, or method of installation or type of construction of any manufacturing processes or kinds of equipment, nor specify the kind or composition of fuels permitted to be sold, stored, or used.

The commission may give technical advice pertaining to the construction or installation of such equipment or any other recommendation.

11. Review and evaluate air pollution control programs conducted by political subdivisions of the state with respect to whether such programs are consistent with the provisions of this division II and any rules adopted by the commission.

12. Represent the state in all matters pertaining to plans, procedures, negotiations, and agreements for interstate compacts relating to the control of air pollution, subject to the provisions of section 455B.7, subsection 5.

13. Encourage voluntary co-operation by persons or affected groups in restoring and preserving a reasonable quality of air within the state.

14. Encourage political subdivisions to handle air pollution problems within their respective jurisdictions. [C71, §136B.4; 64GA, ch 1119, §13] Referred to in §§455B.13, 455B.14

455B.13 Executive director. The executive director shall:
1. Publish and administer the rules and standards established by the commission. The department shall furnish a copy of such rules or standards to any person upon request.

2. Provide technical, scientific, and other services required by the commission or for the effective administration of this division.

3. Conduct investigations of complaints received directly or referred by the commission, or such other investigations deemed necessary. The executive director shall participate, on behalf of the state, in hearings before the commission.

While conducting an investigation, the executive director may enter at any reasonable time in and upon any private or public property, except private dwellings, to investigate any actual or possible violation of the provisions of this chapter or the rules or standards adopted under this chapter.

a. If the executive director is denied admittance to property subject to inspection under this chapter, he may apply to the district court of the county in which the property is located for issuance of a search warrant. In the application, the executive director shall state that he believes that a search of the property designated in the application is necessary for the proper administration and enforcement of the provisions of this chapter or the rules or standards adopted under this chapter. If the court is satisfied that a search warrant is justified he shall grant the application and issue the warrant.

b. If the executive director establishes, under oath, probable cause that a violation of the provisions of this chapter or the rules or standards adopted under this chapter has occurred, and that the evidence required to prove such violation is of a nature that it may be easily or quickly dissipated, camouflaged, or disposed of, he may apply for and the court may issue a search warrant without evidence that admission to the property was denied and prior to any attempt by the executive director to gain admittance.

4. Grant, modify, or deny permits for the installation of new equipment capable of emitting air contaminants to produce air pollution and for related control equipment, subject to the rules adopted by the commission. The department shall furnish necessary application forms for such permits.

a. No equipment which may cause or contribute to air pollution or which is intended primarily to prevent or to control the emission of air contaminants shall be installed, altered so that it significantly affects operation efficiency, or placed in use unless a permit has been issued for such equipment.

b. The condition of expected performance must be reasonably detailed in the permit unless it is agreed between the department and the permit holder that a condition of development and adjustment exists.

c. Upon denial of such a permit, the applicant shall be notified of such denial and informed of the reason or reasons therefor, and such applicant shall be entitled to a hearing before the commission as provided in section 455B.12, subsection 6.

5. Determine by field studies and sampling the quality of atmosphere and the degree of air pollution in this state or any part thereof.

6. Conduct and encourage studies, investigations, and research relating to air pollution and its causes, effects, abatement, control, and prevention.

7. Accept, receive, and administer grants or other funds or gifts from public or private agencies, including the federal government, for the abatement, prevention, or control of air pollution, subject to the approval of the executive committee.

8. Provide technical assistance to political subdivisions of this state requesting such aid for the furtherance of air pollution control.

9. Collect and disseminate information, and conduct educational and training programs, relating to air pollution and its abatement, prevention, and control. [C71.§136B.1(17, 18), 136B.5; 61GA, ch 1119,§14]

455B.14 Limit on authority. Nothing contained in this division shall be deemed to grant to the commission or the executive director any authority or jurisdiction with respect to air pollution existing solely within residences or solely within commercial and industrial plants, works, or shops under the jurisdiction of chapters 85 and 91; or to affect the relations between employers and employees with respect to, or arising out of, any condition of air pollution. [C71.§136B.6; 61GA, ch 1119, §15]

455B.15 Assistance on demand. The commission and the executive director may request and receive assistance from any other agency, department, or educational institution of the state, or political subdivision thereof, when it is deemed necessary or beneficial by the commission or the executive director. The department may reimburse such agencies for special expense resulting from expenditures not normally a part of the operating expenses of any such agency. [C71.§136B.7; 61GA, ch 1119,§16]

455B.16 Privileged information. Information received by the commission or any employees of the department through filed reports, inspections, or as otherwise authorized in this division concerning trade secrets, secret industrial processes, or other privileged communications, except emission data, shall not be disclosed or opened to public inspection, except as may be necessary in a proceeding concerning a violation of said division or of any rules promulgated thereunder, or as otherwise authorized or ordered by appropriate court action or proceedings. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the executive director from compiling or publishing analyses or summaries relating to the general condition of the atmosphere; provided that such analyses or summaries do not reveal any information otherwise confidential under this section. [C71,§136B.8; 64GA, ch 1119,§171]

Referred to in §§455B.15, 455B.17, 455B.22

455B.17 Notice to offenders. Whenever the commission or the executive director has evidence that a violation of any provision of this division II, or rule or standard established by the commission has occurred, the executive director shall notify the alleged violator and, by informal negotiation, attempt to resolve the problem. If such negotiations fail to resolve the problem within a reasonable period of time, the commission shall hold a public hearing, subject to the provisions of section 455B.16.

1. Notice of the time and place of the public hearing shall be served upon each alleged violator at least ten days prior to such hearing. Such notice shall be served in the manner required for the service of notice of the commencement of a civil action in a district court.

2. After such hearing, if the commission finds that a violation has occurred, it shall issue an appropriate order directing the violator to prevent, abate, or control the emissions or air pollution involved. The order shall prescribe the date by which the violation shall cease and may prescribe timetables for necessary action in preventing, abating, or controlling the emissions of air pollution.

3. The executive director shall keep a complete record of the public hearings and such record shall be open to public inspection, subject to section 455B.16. A copy of the transcript shall be furnished to the violator or alleged violator at his request and at his expense. [C71,§136B.9; 64GA, ch 1119,§18]

455B.18 Emergency orders. If the commission or the executive director has evidence that any person is causing air pollution and that such pollution creates an emergency requiring immediate action to protect the public health and safety, or property, either may, without notice or hearing, issue an emergency order requiring such person to reduce or discontinue immediately the emission of air contaminants. A copy of the emergency order shall be served as provided in section 455B.17, subsection 1. An emergency order issued by the commission or the executive director shall be effective immediately and binding until reviewed by the commission at a public hearing or modified or rescinded by a district court. [C71,§136B.9(5); 64GA, ch 1119,§19]

Referred to in §§455B.19, 455B.24

455B.19 Appeal. An appeal may be taken by any aggrieved party from any order issued as provided in sections 455B.17 and 455B.18 to the district court of the county in which the alleged offense was committed. Notice of appeal from an order shall be served upon the commission or the executive director by certified mail or by personal service. Failure to serve such notice of appeal within thirty days after receipt of the order shall operate as a waiver of the right to appeal. An order by the commission shall not be stayed by an appeal from the order in an action for an injunction by order of the district court after hearing for good cause shown by the aggrieved party. The hearing on appeal shall be tried as a suit in equity and shall be de novo. The court may receive additional testimony and evidence and may affirm, modify, or reverse the order of the commission. [C71,§136B.10; 64GA, ch 1119,§20]

455B.20 Legal action. If action to prevent, control, or abate air pollution is not taken in accordance with the rules established, orders issued by the commission, or if the commission or the executive director has evidence that an emergency exists by reason of air pollution which requires immediate action to protect the public health or property, the attorney general, at the request of the commission or the executive director, shall commence legal action, in the name of the state, for an injunction to prevent any further or continued violation of such rule or order. In an action for an injunction, any previous findings of the commission, after due notice and hearing, shall be prima-facie evidence of the fact or facts found therein. [C71,§136B.11; 64GA, ch 1119,§21]

455B.21 Burden of proof. In all proceedings with respect to any alleged violation of the provisions of this division II or any rule established by the commission, the burden of proof shall be upon the commission except in an action for an injunction as provided in section 455B.20. [C71,§136B.12; 64GA, ch 1119,§22]

455B.22 Variance. Any person who owns or operates any plant, building, structure, process, or equipment may apply for a variance from the rules or standards governing the quality, nature, duration, or extent of emissions by filing an application with the department. The application shall be accompanied by such information and data required by the commission.

1. The executive director shall promptly investigate the application and recommend to the commission the disposition of such application. The commission may grant a variance if it finds that:

   a. The emissions occurring or proposed to occur do not endanger or tend to endanger human health or safety or property; and

   b. Compliance with the rules or standards from which the variance is sought will produce serious hardship without equal or greater benefits to the public.

2. A public hearing, subject to the provisions of section 455B.16, shall be held if the commission concludes that a hearing is advisable. The applicant may request a review hearing before the commission if his application is denied.

3. In determining under what conditions and to what extent a variance may be granted the commission shall give due recognition to the progress which the applicant has made toward eliminating or preventing air pollution. In such a case the commission shall consider the reasonableness of the request, conditioned upon such applicant effecting a partial abatement of the particular air pollution within a reasonable period of time and the commission may prescribe other requirements with which such applicant shall comply.

1 The commission may grant a variance for a specified period of time not exceeding one year and the commission may further specify that the applicant make periodic reports specifying the progress that has been made toward compliance with any rule for which the variance was granted. A variance may be extended from year to year by affirmative action of the commission [C71 §15B17 64GA ch 1119 §23].

455B 23 Local control program.

1 Any political subdivision may conduct an air pollution control program within the boundaries of its jurisdiction or may jointly conduct in air pollution control program with other political subdivisions of this state or of other states except that every joint program shall be established and administered as provided in chapter 25E. In conducting such programs political subdivisions may adopt and enforce rules or standards to secure and maintain adequate air quality within their respective jurisdictions.

2 If the board of supervisors in any county establishes an air pollution control program and has obtained a certificate of acceptance the agency implementing the program may regulate air pollution within the county including any incorporated areas therein until such incorporated areas obtain a certificate of acceptance as a joint or separate agency [C71 §136B14 64GA ch 1119 §21].

455B 24 Acceptance of local program. When an air pollution control program conducted by a political subdivision or a combination thereof is deemed upon review as provided in section 455B 12 subsection 11 to be consistent with the provisions of this division II or the rules established thereunder the commission shall accept such program in lieu of state administration and regulation of air pollution within the political subdivisions involved. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the commission or the executive director to take corrective action under the provisions of sections 455B 18 and 455B 20.

1 In evaluating an air pollution control program consideration shall be given to whether such program provides for the following:

b Enforcement of such requirements by appropriate administrative and judicial process.

Administrative organization staff financial and other resources necessary to administer an efficient and effective program.

2 Upon acceptance of a local air pollution control program the commission shall issue a certificate of acceptance to the appropriate local agency.

a Any political subdivision desiring a certificate of acceptance shall apply to the department on forms prescribed by the commission.

b The executive director shall promptly investigate the application and recommend the disposition of such application to the commission. The commission may conduct a public hearing before action is taken on the recommendation. If the recommendation is against issuing a certificate the political subdivision shall be entitled to a public hearing as provided in section 455B 17. At the public hearing the commission shall decide whether the local program is substantially consistent with the provisions of this division II or rules adopted thereunder and whether the local program is being enforced. The burden of proof shall be upon the political subdivision.

c If the commission determines at any time that a local air pollution program is being conducted in a manner inconsistent with the substantive provisions of this division II or the rules adopted thereunder the commission shall notify the political subdivision setting the deviations from the acceptable standards and the corrective measures to be completed with in a reasonable amount of time. If the corrective measures are not implemented as prescribed the commission shall suspend the certificate of acceptance of such political subdivision and shall administer the regulatory provisions of this division within the political subdivision until the applicable standards are met. Upon receipt of evidence that necessary corrective action has been taken the commission shall reinstate the suspended certificate of acceptance and the political subdivision shall resume the administration of the local air pollution control program within its jurisdiction. In cases where the certificate of acceptance is suspended the political subdivision is entitled to a public hearing as provided in section 455B 17.

d Nothing in this division II shall be construed to supersede the jurisdiction of the local air pollution control program in operation on the first of January 1973 except that any such program shall meet all requirements of said division. [C71 §136B15 64GA ch 1119 §23].

455B 25 Civil action for compliance. If any order or rule of the commission is being violated the attorney general shall at the request of the commission or the executive director institute a civil action in any district court for injunctive relief to prevent any further violation of such order or rule for the assessment of a fine as determined by the court.
to exceed five hundred dollars per day for each day such violation continues, or both such in­

§455B.25, AIR QUALITY COMMISSION

455B.25 Failure—procedure. Upon failure of the executive director to take action within sixty days after an application for installation permit or variance, or upon failure of the commission to enter a final order or determination within sixty days after the final argument in a public hearing, the person seeking such action shall be entitled to treat such failure to act as a grant of the requested permit or variance, or of a finding favorable to the respondent in a public hearing, as the case may be. [C71,§136B.17; 64GA, ch 1119,§27]

455B.26 Fees prohibited. No fees shall be charged by the executive director or the commission for the performance of their respective functions as provided in this division II. [C71, §136B.18; 64GA, ch 1119,§28]

455B.27 Other provisions not affected. The powers, duties, and functions vested in the air quality commission under the provisions of this division II shall not be construed to affect the powers, duties and functions vested in the department under any other provisions of this chapter or the Code. [C71,§136B.19; 64 GA, ch 1119,§29]

455B.28 Prior rules. Any rule adopted or order or variance issued under chapter 136B* of prior Codes by the Iowa air pollution control commission or by the state department of health, shall remain effective until modified or rescinded by action of the air quality commission unless such rule is inconsistent or contrary to this division II. [64GA, ch 1119,§30]

Referred to in §455B.23

455B.31 Administrative agency. The department shall be the agency of the state to prevent, abate, or control water pollution. [C66, 71,§455B.3; 64GA, ch 1119,§32]

455B.32 Duties. The commission shall:

1. Develop comprehensive plans and programs for the prevention, control and abatement of water pollution.

2. Establish, modify, or repeal quality standards and effluent standards for the water of the state. The effluent standards may provide for maintaining the existing quality of the water... of the state where the quality thereof exceeds the requirements of the water quality standards.

3. Establish, modify, or repeal rules specifying the conditions under which the executive director shall issue, revoke, modify, or deny permits for the installation or operation of disposal systems, or for the discharge of sewage, industrial waste or other wastes, or for the disposal of water wastes resulting from poultry and livestock operations. Persons engaged in livestock and poultry operations or persons intending to initiate such operations shall register with the department and provide information relating to their operations or intended operations as the executive director may reasonably require. Except as otherwise provided in section 455B.15, no such registrant shall be required to make application and obtain a permit for disposal of waste water unless the department determines that the livestock and poultry operations of such registrant are polluting or may pollute the water of the state.

4. Recognize existing permits for the continuance of every disposal system operating under legal authority. The commission may direct the executive director to modify or revoke such permits in the same manner as other permits.

5. Establish, modify or repeal rules governing the labeling of detergents which contain phosphorus. Any rules shall be formulated to provide potential purchasers with accurate information concerning the percent of phosphorus in the formula and the weight in grams of phosphorus per recommended use level.

6. Cooperate with other state or interstate water pollution control agencies in establishing standards, objectives, or criteria for the quality of interstate waters originating or flowing through this state.

2. Approve or disapprove of plans and specifications for disposal systems or any part thereof.

3. Issue, modify, or revoke orders, in accordance with rules established by the commission, for the prevention or discontinuance of the discharge of sewage, industrial waste or other wastes in any water of the state resulting in water pollution in excess of the applicable quality standard established by the commission. [C66, 71, §§ 155B.9–455B.11; 64 GA, ch 1119, §31]

WATER QUALITY COMMISSION, §455B.34

455B.34 Investigations. All investigations conducted by the department shall be full and complete and may include engineering studies, bacteriological, biological, and chemical analyses of the water and the location and character of the source of contamination. If water pollution is found to exist, taking into consideration the criteria set forth in section 455B.35, the executive director shall notify the alleged offender and by informal negotiation attempt to resolve the problem. Failing to resolve the problem within a reasonable period of time, the commission or the executive director shall issue an order fixing the time and place of a public hearing. [C66, 71, §455B.12; 64 GA, ch 1119, §35]

455B.35 Criteria considered. In establishing, modifying, or repealing quality standards for the water of the state, or in establishing, modifying, or repealing effluent standards for disposal systems, the commission shall consider:

1. The protection of the public health;

2. The size, depth, surface area covered, volume, direction and rate of flow, stream gradient, and temperature of the affected water of the state;

3. The character and uses of the land area bordering the affected water of the state;

4. The uses which have been made, are being made, or may be made of the affected water of the state for public, private, or domestic water supplies, irrigation; livestock watering; propagation of wildlife, fish, and other aquatic life; bathing, swimming, boating, or other recreational activity; transportation; and disposal of sewage and wastes;

5. The extent of contamination resulting from natural causes including the mineral and chemical characteristics;

6. The extent to which floatable or settleable solids may be permitted;

7. The extent to which suspended solids, colloids, or a combination of solids with other suspended substances may be permitted;

8. The extent to which bacteria and other biological organisms may be permitted;

9. The amount of dissolved oxygen that is to be present and the extent of the oxygen demanding substances which may be permitted;

10. The extent to which toxic substances, chemicals or deleterious conditions may be permitted. [C66, 71, §455B.13; 64 GA, ch 1119, §36] Referred to in §455B.34

455B.36 Entering upon land of another. Authorized employees of the department may enter upon any land or water in the state or bordering on the state, to investigate, examine, survey, or study the quality or pollution of such waters. [C66, 71, §455B.14; 64 GA, ch 1119, §37]

455B.37 Hearings. When the commission or the executive director conducts any hearing or investigation, any member of the commission or any employee or agent authorized in writing by the commission or the executive director may administer oaths, examine witnesses and issue, in the name of the commission, subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of evidence relevant to any matter involved in such hearing or investigation. Witnesses shall receive the same fees and mileage as in civil actions.

1. Notice of the time and place of hearing shall be served upon each alleged offender at least ten days before the hearing. Such notice shall be in the manner required for the service of notice of the commencement of an ordinary action in a court of record.

2. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 1 the commission or the executive director when it has first been determined that an emergency exists respecting any matter affecting or likely to affect the public health, may make an order without notice and without hearing. A copy of such order shall be served as provided in subsection 1. Any such order entered by the commission or the executive director shall be binding and effective immediately until such order is reviewed by a hearing or is modified or reversed by the court.

3. After such hearing the commission or the executive director may, if it finds the alleged offender is guilty of the charges, enter an order directing such person to desist in the practice found to be the cause of such pollution, taking into account the use to which the water is being or may be put or the commission or the executive director may order a change in method of discharging sewage, industrial wastes and other wastes into the water so that the same will not result in pollution and the method shall be in compliance with the effluent or water quality standards adopted by the commission.

4. If any such change is ordered, unless such practice is rendering such water dangerous to the public health, a reasonable time shall be granted to the offender in which to put in use the method ordered.

5. The executive director shall keep a complete record of such proceedings, including all the evidence taken, and such record shall be open to public inspection. However, it shall be unlawful for any person in connection with his duties or employment by the department, to make public or give any information relating to secret processes or methods of manufacture or production at any public hearing or otherwise, and all such information shall be kept strictly confidential. [C66, 71.§455B.15;
455B 17; 61GA, ch 1119,§38]

455B.38 Refusal to obey subpoena. If any person refuses to obey a subpoena issued under provisions of this part 1 of division III, the district court of the county where the procceeding is pending shall have jurisdiction, upon application of the commission or the executive director to issue to such person an order requiring him to appear and testify or produce evidence and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof. [C66, 71.§455B.16;

455B.39 Appeal. An appeal may be taken by any aggrieved party from any order entered in such proceedings to the district court of the county in which the alleged offense was committed or such final order was entered.
Such appeal shall be perfected by serving a written notice on the executive director within thirty days of the entry of such order. The hearing on appeal shall be tried as a suit in equity and shall be de novo. The court may receive additional testimony and may affirm, modify or reverse the order of the commission or the executive director. The setting aside of such order by the court shall not preclude the commission or the executive director from again instituting proceedings against the same person if the commission or the executive director feels that the public health is endangered. [C66, 71.§455B.18; 61GA, ch 1119,§40]

455B.40 Transcript on appeal. Within thirty days after an application for an appeal is filed with the executive director, he shall make, certify and file in the office of the clerk of the court to which an appeal is taken a full and complete transcript of all documents and papers relating to the case including a copy of the order, rule or decision appealed from and a copy of any findings of fact, rulings or conclusions of law made by the department in the matter. [C66, 71.§455B.19; 61GA, ch 1119,

455B.41 Stay order. Action of the department shall not be stayed by an appeal except by order of the court for good cause shown by the appellant. The granting of a stay may be conditioned upon the furnishing by the appel-ellant of such reasonable security as the court depart may direct. A stay may be vacated on application of the department or any other party after hearing by the court. [C66, 71.§455B.20;

455B.42 Action conclusive. If no appeal is taken from an order, rule or other decision of the department as provided in this part 1 of division III, or if the action of the department is affirmed on appeal, the action of the department in the matter involved shall be deemed conclusive and the validity and reasonableness thereof shall not be raised in any other action or proceeding, but this shall not preclude the department from modifying or re-cinding its action. [C66, 71.§455B.21; 61GA, ch 1119,§43]

455B.43 Injunction. Any person, firm, cor-

450.1 Jurisdiction to abandon and dissolve. When any drainage or levee district is free from indebtedness and it shall appear that the necessity therefor no longer exists or that the expense of the continued maintenance of the ditch or levee is in excess of the benefits to be derived therefrom, the board of supervisors or board of trustees, as the case may be, shall have power and jurisdiction, upon petition of a majority of the landowners, who, in the aggregate, own sixty percent of all land in such district, to abandon the same and dissolve and discontinue such districts. Nothing in this section shall prevent the board from eliminating land from a drainage district as permitted under section 455.201. [C35, §7598-g1; C39, §7598.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §456.1]

456.2 Notice of hearing. Upon the filing of such petition the board shall enter an order fixing the date for hearing thereon not less than forty days from the date of the filing thereof and shall enter an order directing the county auditor, if such district is under the control of the board of supervisors, or the clerk of the board, if under the control of a board of trustees, to immediately cause notice of hearing thereon to be served on the owners of lands in such district as may then be provided by law in proceedings for the establishment of a drainage or levee district. [C35, §7598-g2; C39, §7598.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §456.2]

456.3 Hearing on petition. At the time set for hearing on said petition the board shall hear and determine the sufficiency of the petition as to form and substance (which petition may be amended at any time before final action thereon), and all objections filed against the abandonment and dissolution of such district. If it shall find that such district is free from indebtedness and that the necessity for the continued maintenance thereof no longer exists or that the expense of the continued maintenance of such district is not commensurate with the benefits derived therefrom, it shall enter an order abandoning and dissolving such district, which order shall be filed with the county auditor of the county or counties in which such district is situated and noted on the drainage record. [C35, §7598-g3; C39, §7598.13; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §456.3]

Where such district is free of indebtedness but there are not sufficient funds on hand or unpaid assessments outstanding or other assets to pay such expense the board shall assess such expense against the property in the district in the same proportions as the last preceding assessments of benefits. Any excess remaining to the credit of such district after sale of its assets and after payment of such expenses shall be prorated back to the property owners in the district in the proportions according to class and benefits as last assessed. If the petition is denied, the costs of said proceedings shall be paid by the petitioning owners. [C35, §7598-g5; C39, §7598.15; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §456.5]

Nothing in this section shall in any manner be construed to affect the rights or liabilities of proprietors in respect to running streams. [S13, §1989-a53; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7736; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §465.22]

Such plat book shall consist of sheets of paper interbound by sheets of tracing cloth with proper heading, margin, and binding edge. Said plat book shall be used for keeping a record of drainage systems filed by any landowner. Plats so offered for record shall be drawn to scale on paper measuring eight and one-half by eleven inches, giving distances in feet and indicating the size of tile used, length and location of tile lines as installed with reference to government corners and subdivisions. 465.30 Lost records — hearing. When the records of any mutual drain are incomplete or have been lost, or when the owner of any land affected by such mutual drain believes that the apportionment of costs or damages is inequitable or that repair or reconstruction is needed, such owner may petition the board of supervisors for relief. The board shall notify all affected parties of such petition, and set a date for a hearing on the petition. The board may adjourn the proceedings from day to day, but no adjournment shall be for more than ten days, and may order such engineering examinations, reclassifications of lands and appraisals of damages as they deem necessary. At the completion of the hearing the supervisors shall re-establish the original record or establish a revised record and basis for apportionment of costs and damages as they find equitable and advisable, and may order such repairs or reconstruction as they find to be needed. All costs of such re-establishment or revisions of records, and of the needed repair or reconstruction shall be apportioned in accordance with the basis established. Whenever a landowner fails to pay the cost apportioned as provided in section 465.30, or whenever a repair or reconstruction ordered as provided in said section is not made within reasonable time, and in such other instances as the board of supervisors desires, the board by resolution shall establish such mutual drain as a drainage district; all proceedings thereafter shall be as provided for other legally established districts. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §465.31]

DRAINAGE DISTRICTS IN CONNECTION WITH UNITED STATES LEVEES

466.2 Manner of co-operation.
466.4 Costs assessed.

466.1 United States levees—co-operation of board. In any case where the United States has built or shall build a levee along or near the bank of a navigable stream forming a part of the boundary of this state, the board of supervisors of any county through which the same may pass shall have the power to aid in procuring the right of way for and maintaining said levee, and providing a system of internal drainage made necessary or advisable by the construction thereof. Such improvement shall be presumed to be conducive to the public health, convenience, welfare, or utility. [C97, §1975; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7744; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §466.1]

466.2 Manner of co-operation. Any United States government levee under the conditions mentioned in section 466.1 may be taken into consideration by the board as a part of the plan of any levee or drainage district and improvements therein, and such board may, by agreement with the proper authorities of the United States government, provide for payment of such just and equitable portion of the costs of procuring the right of way and maintenance of such levee as shall be conducive to the public welfare, health, convenience, or utility. [C97, §1975; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7745; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §466.2]

466.3 Report of engineer—payment authorized. In the proceedings to establish such a district the engineer shall set forth in his report, separately from other items, the amount of the cost for the right of way of such levee, of constructing and maintaining the same; and if the plan is approved and the district finally established in connection with such levee, the board shall make a record of any such co-operative arrangement and may use such part of the funds of the district as may be necessary to pay the amount so agreed upon toward the right of way and maintenance of such levee. [C97, §1976; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7746; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §466.3]

466.4 Costs assessed. If said district is established, the entire costs and expenses incurred under this chapter shall be assessed against and collected from the lands lying within such district, by the levy of a rate upon the assessable value of the land and improvements within such district, sufficient to raise the required sum; provided the board may, in their discretion, classify the land within such district and graduate the tax thereon, as provided in chapter 455. [C97, §1982; S13, §1982; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7747; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §466.4]

§466.5, DRAINAGE DISTRICTS—U. S. LEVEES 2156

466.5 Annual installments. If the proposed improvement is the maintenance of a levee, the amount collected in any one year shall not exceed twelve and one-half mills on the dollar of the assessment valuation, which said assessment shall be levied at a level rate on the assessable value of the said lands, improvements, easements, and railroads within the district. If the amount necessary to pay for the improvement exceeds said sum, it shall be levied and collected in annual installments of twenty or less. For all other improvements, the board shall levy a rate sufficient to pay for the same, and may, at their discretion, make the same payable in annual installments of twenty or less. [C97,§1984; C21, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7748; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71.§466.5]

466.6 Collection of tax. The assessment required under sections 466.4 and 466.5 shall be made by the board of supervisors at the time of levying general taxes, after the work has been authorized, and the same shall be entered on the records of the board of supervisors, then entered on the tax books by the county auditor as drainage taxes, and shall be collected by the county treasurer at the same time, in the same manner, and with the same penalties, as general taxes; and if the same is not paid he shall sell all such lands upon which such assessment remains unpaid, at the same time, and in the same manner, as is now by law provided for the sale of lands for delinquent taxes, including all steps up to the execution and delivery of the tax deed for the same. The landowners shall take notice of and pay such assessments without other or further notice than such as is provided for in this chapter. The funds realized from such assessments shall constitute the drainage fund, as contemplated in this chapter, and shall be disbursed on warrants drawn against that fund by the county auditor, on the order of the board of supervisors. [C97,§1983; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7749; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71. §166.6]

INTERSTATE DRAINAGE DISTRICTS

467.1 Co-operation—procedure.
467.2 Agreement as to costs.
467.3 Contracts let by joint agreement.
467.4 Separate contracts.

467.1 Co-operation—procedure. When proceedings for the drainage of lands bordering upon the state line are had and the total cost of constructing the improvement in this state, including all damage, has been ascertained, and the engineer in charge, before the final establishment of the district, reports that the establishment and construction of such improvement ought to be jointly done with like proceedings for the drainage of lands in the same drainage area in such an adjoining state and that drainage proceedings are pending in such state for the drainage of such lands, the said authorities of this state may enter an order continuing the hearing on the establishment of such district to a fixed date, of which all parties shall take notice. [SS15, §1989-a77; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7752; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467.1]

467.2 Agreement as to costs. The board shall have power, when the total cost, including damages, of constructing the improvement in such other state has been ascertained by the authorities of such other state, to enter into an agreement as to the separate amounts which the property owners of each state should in equity pay toward the construction of the joint undertaking. When such amount is thus determined, the board or boards having jurisdiction in this state shall enter the same in the minutes of their proceedings and shall proceed therewith as though such amount to be paid by the portion of the district in this state had been originally determined by them as the cost of constructing the improvement in this state. [SS15, §1989-a77; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7753; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467.2]

467.3 Contracts let by joint agreement. When the bids for construction are opened, unless the construction work on each side of the line can go forward independently, no contract shall be let by the authorities in this state, unless the acceptance of a bid or bids for the construction of the whole project is first jointly agreed upon by the authorities of both states. [SS15, §1989-a77; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7754; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467.3]

467.4 Separate contracts. The contract or contracts for the construction of that portion of the improvement within this state shall be entirely distinct and separate from the contract or contracts let by the authorities of the neighboring state; but the aggregate amount of the contract or contracts for the construction of the work within this state shall not exceed an amount equal to the amount of the benefits assessed in this state including damages and other expenses. [SS15, §1989-a77; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7755; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467.4]

467.5 Conditions precedent. No contract shall be let until the improvement shall be finally established in both states, and after the final adjustment in both states of damages and benefits. No bonds shall be issued until all litigation in both states arising out of said proceedings has been finally terminated by actual trial or agreements, or the expiration of all right of appeal. [SS15, §1989-a78; C21, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7756; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467.5]

467.6 Assessments, bonds, and costs—limitation. All proceedings except as provided in this chapter in relation to the establishment, construction, and management of interstate drainage districts shall be as provided for the establishment and construction of districts wholly within this state as provided in chapter 455. All such proceedings shall relate only to the lands of such district which are located wholly within this state. Boards having jurisdiction in this state may make just and equitable agreements with like authorities in such adjoining state for the joint management, repair, and maintenance of the entire improvement, after the establishment and completed construction thereof. [SS15, §1989-a77; C21, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7757; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467.6]

1. Any twenty-five owners, but in no case less than twenty percent of the owners of land lying within the limits of the territory proposed to be organized into a district may file a petition with the state soil conservation committee asking that a soil conservation district be organized to function in the territory described in the petition. Such petition shall set forth:

a. The proposed name of said district.

b. That there is need, in the interest of health, safety and public welfare, for a soil conservation district to function in the territory described in the petition.

c. A description of the territory proposed to be organized as a district, which description shall not be required to be given by metes and bounds or by legal subdivisions, but shall be deemed sufficient if generally accurate.

d. A request that the state soil conservation committee duly define the boundaries for such district; that a referendum be held within the territory so defined on the question of the creation of a soil conservation district in such territory; and that the committee determine that such a district be created.

Where petitions are filed covering adjacent territory or parts of the same territory, the state soil conservation committee may consolidate all or any of such petitions. [CS16, §467A.3(4)]

2. Within ninety days after such petition has been formally accepted by the state soil conservation committee, it shall cause due notice by publication to be given of a proposed hearing upon the question of the desirability and necessity in the interest of health, safety and public welfare, of the creation of such district, on the question of the appropriate boundaries to be assigned to each district upon the propriety of the petition and other proceedings taken under this chapter and upon all questions relative to such inquiries.

All owners of land within the limits of the territory described in the petition and of lands within any territory considered for addition to such described territory and all other interested parties shall have the right to attend such hearings and to be heard. If it shall appear upon the hearing that it shall be desirable to include within the proposed district territory outside the area within which due notice of the hearing has been given, the hearing shall be adjourned and due notice of further hearing shall be given through the entire area considered for inclusion in the district, and such further hearing held. After such hearing, if the committee shall determine, upon the facts presented at such hearing and upon such other relevant facts and information as may be available, that there is need in the interest of health, safety and public welfare, for a soil conservation district to function in the territory considered at the hearing, it shall make and record such determination, and shall define the boundaries of such district. In making such determination and in defining such boundaries, the committee shall give due weight and consideration to the topography of the area considered and of the state, the character of soils therein, the distribution of erosion, the prevailing land-use practices, the desirability and necessity of including within the boundaries the particular lands under consideration and the benefits which such lands may receive from being included within such boundaries, the relation of the proposed area to existing watersheds and agricultural regions, and to other soil conservation districts already organized or proposed for organization under the provisions of this chapter, and such other physical, geographical and economic factors as are relevant, having due regard to the legislative determinations set forth in section 467A.2. If the committee shall determine after such hearing, upon consideration of the said relevant facts, that there is no need for a soil conservation district to function in the territory considered at the hearing, it shall make and record such determination and shall deny the petition.

3. After the committee has made and recorded a determination that there is need, in the interest of health, safety and public welfare, for the organization of a district in a particular territory and has defined the boundaries thereof, it shall consider the question whether the operation of a district within such boundaries with the powers conferred upon soil conservation districts in this chapter is administratively practicable and feasible. It shall be the duty of the department to hold a referendum within the proposed district upon the question of the creation of the district, and, at the same time, hold an election to elect the first commissioners of the district, and to cause due notice of such referendum and election to be given. Petitions nominating candidates for the office of commissioner shall be filed with the department of soil conservation at least ten days prior to the date of the election, unless the department extends the time within which such petitions may be filed. No nominating petition shall be accepted by the department which contains the name of more than one candidate for the office of commissioner, nor which is signed by fewer than twenty-five landowners of the proposed district. No landowner may sign more than five such petitions. The referendum and election shall be held by using ballots upon which the words "For creation of a soil conservation district of the lands below described and lying in the county (ies) of , , and ... shall appear, with a square before each proposition, and a direction to insert an X mark in the square before any five names to indicate the voter’s preference. The committee shall not have authority to determine that the operation of the proposed district within the defined boundaries is administratively practicable and feasible unless at least sixty-five percent of the votes cast in the referendum is in favor of the creation of such district.

6. If the committee shall determine that the operation of the proposed district within the defined boundaries is administratively practicable and feasible, it shall publish the results of the election of commissioners. The five candidates who shall have received the largest number, respectively, of the votes cast in such election shall be the elected commissioners for such district. The term of office of each commissioner shall be six years, except that the terms of the commissioners first elected shall be as follows: Six years for the commissioner receiving the highest number of votes in the election, four years for the two commissioners receiving the second and third highest number of votes in the election, and two years for the commissioners receiving the fourth and fifth highest number of votes in the election. A commissioner shall hold office until his successor has been elected and has qualified. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term. There shall be elected biennially one commissioner for the term of six years to succeed each commissioner whose term of office expires. The election of a successor to fill an unexpired term or for a full term shall be made under regulations of the state soil conservation committee and conducted by the commissioners of the district in the same manner as hereinabove provided; or, at the discretion of the committee, it may appoint a successor to fill the unexpired term of a commissioner, but only for a term extending to the date of the next election in the district held to elect a successor to a commissioner for that district.

7. Each district shall, at the next regular biennial election of a commissioner in that district after July 1, 1969, elect three commissioners whose terms shall each begin at the expiration of the term of the commissioner whose successor is to be elected at that election. The commissioner receiving the highest number of votes in such election shall serve a term of six years, the commissioner receiving the second highest number of votes shall serve a term of four years, and the commissioner receiving the third highest number of votes shall serve a term of two years.

8. The district shall be a body corporate upon the taking of the following proceedings: The five commissioners shall present to the secretary of state an application signed by them, which shall set forth (and such application need contain no detail other than the mere recitals):

a. That a petition for the creation of the district was approved by the state soil conservation committee pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, and that they are the duly elected commissioners;

b. The name and official residence of each of the commissioners;

c. The name which is proposed for the district;

d. The location of the proposed office of the commissioners of the district.

The application shall be subscribed and sworn to by each of said commissioners before an officer authorized by the laws of this state to take and certify oaths. The application shall be accompanied by a statement by the state soil conservation committee which shall certify that a petition was filed, notice issued, and hearing held as aforesaid; that the committee did duly determine that there is need, in the interest of health, safety and public welfare, for a soil conservation district to function in the proposed territory and did define the boundaries thereof; that notice was given and a referendum held on the question of the creation of such district and an election held to elect commissioners for such district, if created, and that the results of such referendum showed sixty-five percent of the votes cast in such referendum to be in favor of the creation of the district; that thereafter the committee did duly determine that the operation of the proposed district is administratively practicable and feasible. The said statement shall set forth the boundaries of the district as they have been defined by the committee, and the names of the duly elected commissioners.

The secretary of state shall examine the application and statement and, if he finds that the name proposed for the district is not identical with that of any other soil conservation district of this state or so nearly similar as to lead to confusion or uncertainty, he shall receive and file them and shall record them in an appropriate book of record in his office. If the secretary of state shall find that the name proposed for the district is identical with that of any other soil conservation district of this state, or so nearly similar as to lead to confusion or uncertainty, he shall certify such fact to the state soil conservation committee, which shall thereupon submit to the secretary of state a new name for the said district, which shall not be subject to such defects. Upon receipt of a new name, the secretary of state shall record the application and statement, with the name so modified, in an appropriate book of record in his office. When the application and statement have been made, filed and recorded, as herein provided, the district shall constitute a body corporate. The secretary of state shall make and issue to the said commissioners a certificate, under the seal of the state, of the due organization of the said district, and shall record such certificate with the application and statement. The commissioners shall also cause such certificate to be recorded in the office of the county recorder of each county in which the land of the district extends. The boundaries of such district shall include the territory as determined by the state soil conservation committee as aforesaid, but in no event shall they include any area included within the boundaries of another soil conservation district organized under the provisions of this chapter.

9. After six months shall have expired from the date of entry of a determination by the state soil conservation committee that operation of a proposed district is not administratively practicable and feasible, and denial of a petition pursuant to such determination, subsequent petitions may be filed as aforesaid, and action taken thereon in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

10. Petitions for including additional territory within an existing district may be filed with the state soil conservation committee, and the proceedings herein provided for in the case of petition to organize a district shall be observed in the case of petitions for such inclusion. The committee shall prescribe the form for such petition, which shall be as nearly as may be in the form prescribed in this chapter for petitions to organize a district. In referenda upon petitions for such inclusion, all landowners within the proposed area shall be eligible to vote. Where the total number of landowners in the area proposed for inclusion shall be less than twenty-five, the petition may be filed when signed by seventy-five percent of the landowners of such area, and in such case no referendum need be held.

11. In any suit, action, or proceeding involving the validity or enforcement of, or relating to, any contract, proceeding, or action of the district, the district shall be deemed to have been established in accordance with the provisions of this chapter upon proof of the issuance of the aforesaid certificate by the secretary of state. A copy of such certificate duly certified by the secretary of state shall be admissible in evidence in any such suit, action or proceeding, and shall be proof of the filing and contents thereof.

12. All land within the outside boundaries of any district established in accordance with this chapter shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the district, including land lying within any city or town. [C39,§2603.06; C46,§160.5; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§467A.5]
Referred to in §§467A.3(4, 5), 467A.6, 467A.15

467A.6 Appointment, qualifications and tenure of commissioners. The governing body of the district shall consist of five commissioners, elected as provided in section 467A.5, no more than one of whom shall be a resident of any one voting precinct established pursuant to chapter 49. Any person shall be eligible to the office of commissioner who is a qualified elector and resides within the jurisdiction of the district as defined by this chapter. The commissioners shall designate a chairman and may, from time to time, change such designation.

The commissioners of the respective districts shall submit to the department such statements, estimates, budgets, and other information at such times and in such manner as the department may require.

A commissioner shall receive no compensation for his services but he may be paid expenses, including traveling expenses, necessarily incurred in the discharge of his duties, if funds are available for that purpose.

The commissioners may call upon the attorney general of the state for such legal services as they may require. The commissioners may delegate to their chairman, to one or more commissioners or to one or more agents, or employees, such powers and duties as they may deem proper. The commissioners shall furnish to the department of soil conservation, upon request, copies of such ordinances, rules, regulations, orders, contracts, forms, and other documents as they shall adopt or employ, and such other information concerning their activities as it may require in the performance of its duties under this chapter.

The commissioners shall provide for the execution of surety bonds for all employees and officers who shall be entrusted with funds or property; shall provide for the keeping of a full and accurate record of all proceedings and of all resolutions, regulations, and orders issued or adopted; and shall provide for a biennial audit of the accounts of receipts and disbursements.

The commissioners may invite the legislative body of any municipality or county located near the territory comprised within the district to designate a representative to advise and consult with the commissioners of the district on all questions of program and policy which may affect the property, water supply, or other interests of such municipality or county. [C39, §2003.03; C46.1600.6; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §167A.6]

467A.7 Powers of districts and commissioners. A soil conservation district organized under the provisions of this chapter shall have the following powers, in addition to others granted in other sections of this chapter:

1. To conduct surveys, investigations, and research relating to the character of soil erosion and erosion, floodwater, and sediment damages, and the preventive and control measures needed, to publish the results of such surveys, investigations or research, and to disseminate information concerning such preventive and control measures; provided, however, that in order to avoid duplication of research activities, no district shall initiate any research program except in co-operation with the Iowa agricultural experiment station located at Ames, Iowa, and pursuant to a co-operative agreement entered into between the Iowa agricultural experiment station and such district.

2. To conduct demonstrational projects within the district on lands owned or controlled by this state or any of its agencies, with the consent and co-operation of the agency administering and having jurisdiction thereof, and on any other lands within the district upon obtaining the consent of the owner or occupier of such lands or the necessary rights or interests in such lands, in order to demonstrate by example the means, methods, and measures by which soil and soil resources may be conserved, and soil erosion in the form of soil blowing and soil washing may be prevented and controlled; provided, however, that in order to avoid duplication of agricultural extension activities, no district shall initiate any demonstrational projects, except in co-operation with the Iowa agricultural extension service whose offices are located at Ames, Iowa, and pursuant to a co-operative agreement entered into between the Iowa agricultural extension service and such district.

3. To carry out preventive and control measures within the district, including, but not limited to, crop rotations, engineering operations, methods of cultivation, the growing of vegetation, changes in use of land, and the measures listed in section 467A.2, on lands owned or controlled by this state or any of its agencies, with the consent and co-operation of the agency administering and having jurisdiction thereof, and on any other lands within the district, upon obtaining the consent of the owner or occupier of such lands or the necessary rights or interests in such lands. The approval of the Iowa natural resources council shall be required on any project which relates to or in any manner affects flood control.

4. To co-operate, or enter into agreements with, and within the limits of appropriations duly made available to it by law, to furnish financial or other aid to any agency, governmental or otherwise, or any owner or occupier of lands within the district, in the carrying on of erosion-control and watershed protection and flood prevention operations within the district, subject to such conditions as the commissioners may deem necessary to advance the purposes of this chapter.

5. To obtain options upon and to acquire, by purchase, exchange, lease, gift, grant, bequest, devise or otherwise, any property, real or personal, or rights or interests therein; to maintain, administer, and improve any properties acquired, to receive income from such properties, and to expend such income in carrying out the purposes and provisions of this chapter; and to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any of its property or interests therein in furtherance of the purposes and provisions of this chapter.

6. To make available on such terms as it shall prescribe, to landowners or occupiers within the district, agricultural and engineering machinery and equipment, fertilizer, lime, and such other material or equipment as will assist such landowners or occupiers to carry on operations upon their lands for the conservation of soil resources and for the prevention and control of soil erosion and for the prevention of erosion, floodwater, and sediment damages.

7. To construct, improve, and maintain such structures as may be necessary or convenient for the performance of any of the operations authorized in this chapter. The approval of the Iowa natural resources council shall be required on any project which relates to or in any manner affects flood control.

8. To develop comprehensive plans for the conservation of soil resources and for the control and prevention of soil erosion and for the prevention of erosion, floodwater, and sediment damages within the district, which plans shall specify in such detail as may be possible, the acts, procedures, performances, and avoidance which are necessary or desirable for the effectuation of such plans, including the specification of engineering operations, methods of cultivation, the growing of vegetation, cropping programs, tillage practices, and changes in use of land; and to publish such plans and information and bring them to the attention of owners and occupiers of lands within the district.

9. To sue and be sued in the name of the district; to have a seal, which seal shall be judicially noticed; to have perpetual succession; to make and execute contracts and other instruments, necessary or convenient to the exercise of its powers; to make, and from time to time amend and repeal, rules not inconsistent with this chapter, to carry into effect its purposes and powers.

10. To accept donations, gifts, and contributions in money, services, materials, or otherwise, from the United States or any of its agencies, or from this state or any of its agencies, and to use or expend such moneys, services, materials, or other contributions in carrying on its operations.

11. As a condition to the extending of any benefits under this chapter to, or the performance of work upon, any lands not owned or controlled by this state or any of its agencies, the commissioners may require contributions in money, services, materials, or otherwise to any operations conferring such benefits, and may require landowners or occupiers to enter into and perform such agreements or covenants as to the permanent use of such lands as will tend to prevent or control erosion thereon.

12. No provisions with respect to the acquisition, operation, or disposition of property by other public bodies shall be applicable to a district organized hereunder unless the legislature shall specifically so state.

13. After the formation of any district under the provisions of this chapter, all participation hereunder shall be purely voluntary, any provision herein contained on the contrary notwithstanding.

14. Subject to the approval of the state soil conservation committee, to change the name of such soil conservation district.

15. To take notice of the district plan, and conform to the duly promulgated rules of the conservancy district or districts in which the soil conservation district is located; provided that this subsection shall not be construed to grant any authority not otherwise granted by law to the commissioners of soil conservation districts. [C39, §2603.09; C46, §160.7; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §167A.7; 64GA, ch 227, §28]

467A.8 Co-operation between districts. The commissioners of any two or more districts organized under the provisions of this chapter may co-operate with one another in the exercise of any or all powers conferred in this chapter. [C39, §2603.10; C46, §160.8; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467A.8]

467A.9 State agencies to co-operate. Agencies of this state which have jurisdiction over, or be charged with the administration of, any state-owned lands, and of any county, or other governmental subdivision of the state, which shall have jurisdiction over, or be charged with the administration of, any county-owned or other publicly owned lands, lying within the boundaries of any district organized hereunder, may co-operate to the fullest extent with the commissioners of such districts in the effectuation of programs and operations undertaken by the commissioners under the provisions of this chapter. [C39, §2603.11; C46, §160.9.5; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467A.9]

467A.10 Discontinuance of districts. At any time after five years after the organization of a district under the provisions of this chapter, any twenty-five owners of land lying within the boundaries of such district, but in no case less than twenty percent of the owners of land lying within such district, may file a petition with the state soil conservation committee praying that the operations of the district be terminated and the existence of the district discontinued. The committee may conduct such public meetings and public hearings upon such petition as may be necessary to assist in the consideration thereof. Within sixty days after such a petition has been received by the committee, the department may give due notice of the holding of a referendum, and shall supervise such referendum, and issue appropriate regulations governing the conduct thereof, the question to be submitted by ballots upon which the words “For terminating the existence of the ................... (name of the soil conservation district to be here inserted)” and “Against terminating the existence of the ................... (name of the soil conservation district to be here inserted)” shall be printed, with a square before each proposition and a direction to insert an X mark in the square before one or the other of said propositions as the voter may favor or oppose discontinuance of such district. All owners of lands lying within the boundaries of the district shall be eligible to vote in such referendum. Only such landowners shall be eligible to vote. No informalities in the conduct of such referendum or in any matters relating thereto shall invalidate said referendum or the result thereof if notice thereof shall have been given substantially as herein provided and said referendum shall have been fairly conducted.

When sixty-five percent of the landowners vote to terminate the existence of such district, the state soil conservation committee shall advise the commissioners to terminate the affairs of the district. The commissioners shall dispose of all property belonging to the district at public auction and shall pay over the proceeds of such sale to be covered into the state treasury. The commissioners shall thereupon file an application, duly verified, with the secretary of state for the discontinuance of such district, and shall transmit with such application the certificate of the state soil conservation committee setting forth the determination of the committee that the continued operation of such district is not administratively practicable and feasible. The application shall recite that the property of the district has been disposed of and the proceeds paid over as in this section provided, and shall set forth a full accounting of such properties and proceeds of the sale. The secretary of state shall issue to the commissioners a certificate of dissolution and shall record such certificate in an appropriate book of record in his office.

Upon issuance of a certificate of dissolution under the provisions of this section, all ordinances and regulations theretofore adopted and in force within such districts shall be of no further force and effect. All contracts theretofore entered into, to which the district or commissioners are parties, shall remain in force and effect for the period provided in such contracts. The state soil conservation committee shall be substituted for the district or commissioners as party to such contracts. The committee shall be entitled to all benefits and subject to all liabilities under such contracts and shall have the same right and liability to perform, to require performance, and sue and be sued thereon, and to modify or terminate such contracts by mutual consent or otherwise, as the commissioners of the district would have had.

The state soil conservation committee shall not entertain petitions for the discontinuance of any district nor conduct referenda upon such petitions nor make determinations pursuant to such petitions in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, more often than once in five years. [C39, §2603.12; C46, §160.10; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467A.10]

467A.11 Report to governor. The committee shall submit to the governor, no later than January 1 next preceding each biennial legislative session, a report which shall state the following: The number and acreage of districts in existence or in process of organization, together with an estimate of the number and probable acreage of the districts which may be organized during the ensuing biennial fiscal period; a statement of the balances of funds, if any, available to the committee as to the sums needed for its administrative and other expenses, and for allocation among the several districts during the ensuing biennial fiscal period. [C46, §160.11; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467A.11]

467A.12 Statement to comptroller. On or before September 1 next preceding each biennial legislative session, the state soil conservation committee shall submit to the state comptroller, on official estimate blanks furnished for such purposes, statements and estimates of the expenditure requirements for each fiscal year of the ensuing biennium, and a statement of the balance of funds, if any, available to the committee, and the estimates of the committee as to the sums needed for the administrative and other expenses of the committee and department. [C46, §160.12; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467A.12]

467A.14 Petition to form. When the landowners in a proposed subdistrict desire that a subdistrict be organized, they shall file a petition with the commissioners of the soil conservation district. The subdistricts are contiguous and in the same watershed but in no event shall it include any area located within the boundaries of an incorporated city or town. The petition shall set forth an intelligible description by congressional subdivision, or otherwise, of the land suggested for inclusion in the subdistrict and shall state whether the special annual tax or special benefit assessments will be used, or whether the use of both is contemplated. The petition shall contain a brief statement giving the reasons for organization, requesting that the proposed area be organized as a subdistrict and must be signed by sixty-five percent of the landowners in the proposed subdistrict. Land already in one subdistrict cannot be included in another. The soil conservation district commissioners shall review such petition and if found adequate shall arrange for a hearing thereon. [C58, 62, 66, 71, §467A.14]

a date, hour, and place for a hearing thereon and direct the secretary to cause notice to be given to the owners of each tract of land, or lot, within the proposed subdistrict as shown by the transfer books of the auditor's office, and to each lienholder, or encumbrancer, of any such lands as shown by the county records, and to all other persons whom it may concern, and without naming individuals all actual occupants of land in the proposed subdistrict, of the pendency and prayer of said petition and that all objections to establishment of said subdistrict for any reason must be made in writing and filed with the secretary of the soil conservation district at, or before, the time set for hearing. The soil conservation district commissioners shall consider and determine whether the operation of the subdistrict within the defined boundaries as proposed is desirable, practicable, feasible, and of necessity in the interest of health, safety, and public welfare. All interested parties shall have a right to attend such hearing and to be heard. The soil district commissioners may for good cause adjourn the hearing to a day certain which shall be announced at the time of adjournment and made a matter of record. If the soil district commissioners determine that the petition meets the requirements set forth herein and in section 467A.5, they shall declare that the subdistrict is duly organized and shall record such action in their official minutes together with an appropriate official name or designation for the subdistrict. [C58, 62, 66, 71, §467A.15]

467A.16 Publication of notice. The notice of hearing on the formation of a subdistrict shall be by publication once each week for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county (or district) the last of which shall be not less than ten days prior to the day set for the hearing on the petition. Proof of such service shall be made by affidavit of the publisher, and filed on file with the secretary of the district at the time the hearing begins. [C58, 62, 66, 71, §467A.16]

467A.17 Subdistrict in more than one district. If the proposed subdistrict lies in more than one soil conservation district, the petition may be presented to the commissioners of any one of such districts, and the commissioners of all such districts shall act jointly as a board of commissioners with respect to all matters concerning such subdistrict, including its formation. They shall organize as a single board for such purposes and shall designate its chairman, vice-chairman, and secretary-treasurer to serve for terms of one year. Such a subdistrict shall be formed in the same manner and shall have the same powers and duties as a subdistrict formed in one soil conservation district. [C58, 62, 66, 71, §467A.17]

467A.19 Governing body. The commissioners of a soil conservation district in which the subdistrict is formed shall be the governing body of the subdistrict. When a subdistrict lies in more than one soil conservation district, the combined board of commissioners shall be the governing body. The governing body of the subdistrict shall appoint three trustees living within the subdistrict to assist with the administration of the subdistrict. [C58, 62, 66, 71, §467A.19]

On or before July 10 of each year its governing body shall make an estimate of the amount it deems necessary to be raised by such special tax for the ensuing year and transmit said estimate in dollars to the board of supervisors of the county in which the subdistrict lies.

If portions of the subdistrict are in more than one county, then the governing body, as hereinbefore designated in such event, after arriving at the estimate in dollars deemed necessary for the entire subdistrict shall ratably apportion such amount between the counties and transmit and certify the prorated portion to the respective boards of supervisors of each of the counties.

The board or boards of supervisors shall upon receipt of certification from the governing body of the district make the necessary millage levy on the assessed valuation of all real estate within the boundaries of the subdistrict lying within their respective county to raise said amounts, but in no event to exceed four mills.

The special tax so levied shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes with like penalty for delinquency, with the proceeds therefrom to be kept in a separate account by the appropriate county treasurer or treasurers identified by the official name of the subdistrict and expenditures therefrom shall be made on requisition of the chairman and secretary of the governing body of the subdistrict. [C58, 62, 66, 71, §467A.20]

467A.21 Condemnation by subdistrict. A subdistrict of a soil conservation district may be formed by a vote of the county commissioners of the county in which such subdistrict shall be composed of land within a soil conservation district lying within the county or in more than one county, the governing body of the subdistrict shall have the authority to exercise the power of eminent domain in the same manner as other taxes with like penalty for delinquency, with the proceeds therefrom to be kept in a separate account by the appropriate county treasurer or treasurers identified by the official name of the subdistrict and expenditures therefrom shall be made on requisition of the chairman and secretary of the governing body of the subdistrict. [C58, 62, 66, 71, §467A.21]

467A.22 General powers applicable — warrants or bonds. A subdistrict organized under the provisions of this chapter shall have all of the powers of a soil conservation district in addition to other powers granted to the subdistrict in other sections of this chapter.

The governing body of the subdistrict, upon determination that benefits from works of improvement as set forth in the watershed work plan to be installed will exceed costs thereof, and that funds needed for purposes of the subdistrict require levy of a special benefit assessment as provided in section 467A.23, in lieu of the special annual tax as provided in section 467A.20, shall record its decision to use said taxing authority and shall have authority, upon majority vote of the said governing body and with the approval of the state soil conservation committee, to issue warrants or bonds payable in not more than forty semiannual installments in connection therewith, and to pledge and assign the proceeds of the special benefit assessment and other revenues of the subdistrict as security therefor. Such warrants and bonds of indebtedness shall be general obligations of the subdistrict, exempt from all taxes, state and local, and in no event shall such warrants and bonds constitute an indebtedness of the soil conservation district or the state of Iowa. [C62, 66, 71$467A.22]

ALTERNATE METHOD OF TAXATION FOR WATER-SHED PROTECTION AND FLOOD PREVENTION

467A.23 Agreement by fifty percent of landowners. After obtaining agreements to carry out recommended soil conservation measures and proper farm plans from owners of not less than fifty percent of the lands situated in the subdistrict, the governing body of the subdistrict shall have the authority to establish a special tax for the purpose of organization, construction, repair, alteration, enlargement, extension and operation of present and future works of improvement within the boundaries of said subdistrict. The governing body shall appoint three appraisers to assess benefits and classify the land affected by such improvement according to law and their best judgment, skill, and ability. If said appraisers or any of them fail or neglect to act or perform the duties in the time and as required of them by law, the governing body of the subdistrict shall appoint others with like qualifications to take their places and perform said duties. [C62, 66, 71$467A.23]

467A.24 Assessment for improvements. At the time of appointing said appraisers, the governing body shall fix the time within which said assessment, classification, and apportionment shall be made, which may be extended for good cause shown. Within twenty days after their appointment, they shall begin to inspect and classify all the lands within said district or any change, extension, enlargement, or relocation thereof in tracts of forty acres or less according to the legal or recognized subdivisions, in a graduated scale of benefits to be numbered according to the benefit to be received by each of such tracts from such improvement, and pursue said work continuously until completed and, when completed, shall make a full, accurate, and detailed report thereof and file the same with the governing body. The lands receiving the greatest benefit shall be marked on a scale of one hundred, and those benefited in a less degree with such percentage of one hundred as the benefits received bear in proportion thereto.

The amount of benefit appraised to each forty acres of land within the subdistrict shall be determined by the improvements within said subdistrict based upon the work plan as agreed upon by the subdistrict and furnished by the United States soil conservation service. [C62, 66, 71$467A.24]

467A.25 Report of appraisers. In the report of the appraisers so appointed they shall specify each tract of land by proper description, and the ownership thereof, as the same appears on the transfer books in the auditor's office. [C62, 66, 71$467A.25]

467A.26 Hearing. The governing body shall fix a time for a hearing within sixty days upon receiving the report of the appraisers, and the governing body shall cause notice to be served upon each person not less than ten days before said hearing whose name appears as owner, naming him, and also upon the person or persons in actual occupancy of any tract of land without naming him of the day and hour of such hearing, which notice shall be for the same time and served in the same manner as is provided for the establishment of a subdistrict, and shall state the amount of assessment of costs and expenses of organizing and construction apportioned to each owner upon each forty-acre tract or less, and that all objections thereto must be in writing and filed with the governing body at or before the time set for such hearing. [C62, 66, 71$467A.26]

467A.27 Determination by board. At the time fixed or at an adjourned hearing, the governing body shall hear and determine all objections filed to said report and shall fully consider the said report, and may affirm, increase, or diminish the percentage of benefits or the apportionment of costs and expenses made in said report against any body or tract of land in said subdistrict as may appear to the board to be just and equitable. [C62, 66, 71, §467A.27]

Referred to in §467A.41

467A.28 Appeal. Any person aggrieved may appeal from any final action of the governing body in relation to any matter involving his rights, to the district court of the county in which the proceeding was held. [C62, 66, 71, §467A.28]

Referred to in §467A.41

467A.29 Intercounty subdistricts. In subdistricts extending into two or more counties, appeals from final orders resulting from the joint action of the several governing bodies of such subdistrict may be taken to the district court of any county into which the district extends. [C62, 66, 71, §467A.29]

Referred to in §467A.41

467A.30 Notice of appeal. All appeals shall be taken within twenty days after the date of final action or order of the governing body from which such appeal is taken by filing with the auditor a notice of appeal, designating the court to which the appeal is taken, the order or action appealed from, and stating that the appeal will come on for hearing thirty days following perfection of the appeal with allowances of additional time for good cause shown. This notice shall be accompanied by an appeal bond with sureties to be approved by the auditor conditioned to pay all costs adjudged against the appellant and to abide the orders of the court. [C62, 66, 71, §467A.30]

Referred to in §467A.41

467A.31 Petition filed. Within twenty days after perfection of notice, the appellant shall file a petition setting forth the order or final action of the governing body appealed from and the grounds of his objections and his complaint, with a copy of his claim for damages or objections filed by him with the auditor. He shall pay to the clerk the filing fee as provided by law in other cases. A failure to pay the filing fee or to file such petition shall be deemed a waiver of the appeal and in such case the court shall dismiss the same. [C62, 66, 71, §467A.31]

Referred to in §467A.41

467A.32 Assessment certified. When the board or boards of supervisors shall receive a certification from the governing body of the district to make the necessary assessment on the real estate within the boundaries of the subdistrict lying within their respective county, this shall be construed as final action by the governing body. [C62, 66, 71, §467A.32]

467A.33 Assessments transmitted. The governing body upon receiving the reports from three appointed appraisers and after holding the hearings shall transmit and certify the amounts of assessments to the respective boards of supervisors which upon receipt of certification from the governing body of the district, make the necessary levy of such assessments as fixed by the governing body upon the land within such subdistrict and all assessments shall be levied at that time as a tax and shall bear interest at not more than four percent per annum from that date payable annually except as hereafter provided as to cash payments therefore within a specified time. The assessment so levied shall be kept in a separate account by the appropriate county treasurer or treasurers, identified by the official name of the subdistrict and expenditures therefrom shall be made on requisition of the chairman and secretary of the governing body of the subdistrict.

At no time will an assessment be made where the benefits accrued to the subdistrict do not exceed the cost of the improvements within the said subdistrict. [C62, 66, 71, §467A.33]

467A.34 Payment to county treasurer. All assessments for benefits shall be levied at one time against the property benefited and when levied and certified by the board or boards of supervisors shall be paid at the office of the county treasurer. Each person or corporation shall have the right within twenty days after the levy of assessments to pay his or its assessment in full without interest.

If any levy of assessments is not sufficient to meet the cost and expenses of organizing and construction apportioned to each owner upon each forty-acre tract or less, additional assessments may be made on the same classification as the previous ones. [C62, 66, 71, §467A.34]

467A.35 Installments. If the owner of any premises against which a levy exceeding twenty dollars has been made and certified shall, within thirty days from the date of such levy, agree in writing in a separate agreement, that in consideration of having a right to pay his assessment in installments, he will not make any objection as to the legality of his assessment for benefit, or the levy of the taxes against his property, then such owner shall have the following options:

1. To pay one half of the amount of such assessment at the time of filing such agreement and the remaining one half shall become due and payable one year from the date of filing such agreement. All such installments shall be without interest if paid at said times, otherwise said assessments shall bear interest from the date of the levy at the rate of four percent per annum, payable annually, and be collected as other taxes on real estate, with like penalty for delinquency.

2. To pay such assessments in not less than ten nor more than forty equal installments, the number to be fixed by the governing body of the subdistrict and interest at the rate fixed by the governing body of the subdistrict, not exceeding four percent per annum. The first installment of each assessment shall become due and payable at the October semiannual tax paying date after the date of filing such agreement, unless the agreement is filed with the county auditor less than thirty days prior to such October semiannual tax paying date; and in that event, the first installment shall become due and payable at the next succeeding October semiannual tax paying date. The second and each subsequent installment shall become due and payable at the October semiannual tax paying date each year thereafter. All such installments shall be collected with interest accrued on the unpaid balance to the October semiannual tax paying date and as other taxes on real estate, with like penalty for delinquency. [C62, 66, 71, §467A.35]

467A.36 Option by appellant. When an owner takes an appeal from the assessment against any of his land, the option to pay in installments whatever assessment is finally established against such land in said appeal shall continue, if within twenty days after the final determination of said appeal he file in the office of the auditor his written election to pay in installments, and within said period pay such installments as would have matured prior to that time if no appeal had been taken, together with all accrued interest on said assessment to the last preceding interest-paying date. [C62, 66, 71, §467A.36]

Referred to in §467A.41

467A.37 Status of classification. A classification of land for watershed purposes, when finally adopted, shall remain the basis of all future assessments for the purpose of said subdistrict, except as provided in section 467A.38. [C62, 66, 71, §467A.37]

467A.38 New classification. After a subdistrict has been established and the improvements thereof constructed and put in operation, if the governing body shall find that the original assessments are not equitable as a basis for the expenses of any enlargement or extension thereof which may have become necessary, they shall order a new classification of all lands in said subdistrict by resolution, and appoint three appraisers, which shall meet the same requirements as set forth in section 467A.23.

Upon the completion of the reclassification, those affected by such reclassification shall have the right to appeal as heretofore before. [C62, 66, 71, §467A.38]

Referred to in §467A.41

467A.41 Election of taxing methods. Subdistricts organized under the provisions of this chapter shall designate in the petition which of the taxing methods will be used or may stipulate that both methods are contemplated for use. Should the governing body of the subdistrict find it desirable to change from a special annual tax to special benefit assessments it may elect to do so and shall institute proceedings described in sections 467A.23 through 467A.40 and may divert any moneys already collected under section 467A.20, for the purposes authorized in this chapter. [C62, 66, 71, §467A.41]

467A.42 Soil and water conservation practices. In addition to the definitions established by section 467A.3, as used in sections 467A.43 through 467A.53, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Soil loss limit" means the maximum amount of soil loss due to erosion by water or wind, expressed in terms of tons per acre per year, which the commissioners of the respective soil conservation districts shall determine is acceptable in order to meet the objectives expressed in section 467D.1.

2. "Soil and water conservation practices" means any of the prctices designated in or pursuant to this subsection which serve to prevent erosion of soil by wind or water, in excess of applicable soil loss limits, from land used for agricultural or horticultural purposes only.

a. "Permanent soil and water conservation practices" means planting of perennial grasses, legumes, shrubs, or trees, the establishment of grassed waterways, and the construction of terraces, or other permanent soil and water practices approved by the state soil conservation committee.

b. "Temporary soil and water conservation practices" means planting of annual or biennial crops, use of strip-cropping, contour planting, minimum or mulch tillage, and any other cultural practices approved by the state soil conservation committee.

3. "Erosion control practices" means:

a. The construction or installation, and maintenance, of such structures or devices as are necessary to carry to a suitable outlet from the site of any building housing four or more residential units, any commercial or industrial development or any publicly or privately owned recreational or service facility of any kind, not served by a central storm sewer system, any water which:
§467A.42, SOIL CONSERVATION

(1) Would otherwise cause erosion in excess of the applicable soil loss limit; and
(2) Does not carry nor constitute sewage, industrial waste, or other waste as defined by section 455B.2.

b. The employment of temporary devices or structures, temporary seeding, fibre mats, plastic, straw, or other measures adequate to prevent erosion in excess of the applicable soil loss limits from the site of, or land directly affected by, the construction of any public or private street, road or highway, any residential, commercial, or industrial building or development, or any publicly or privately owned recreational or service facility of any kind, at all times prior to completion of such construction.

c. The establishment and maintenance of vegetation upon the right of way of any completed portion of any public street, road, or highway, or the construction or installation thereon of structures or devices, or other measures adequate to prevent erosion from the right of way in excess of the applicable soil loss limits. [64GA, ch 227,§29]

467A.43 Duty of property owners. To conserve the fertility, general usefulness, and value of the soil and soil resources of this state, and to prevent the injurious effects of soil erosion, it is hereby made the duty of the owners of real property in this state to establish and maintain soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices, as required by the regulations of the commissioners of the respective soil conservation districts. [64GA, ch 227,§30]

Referred to in §§467A.42, 467A.48

467A.44 Rules by commissioners — scope. The commissioners of each soil conservation district shall, with approval of and within time limits set by administrative order of the state soil conservation committee, adopt such reasonable regulations as are deemed necessary to establish a soil loss limit or limits for the district and provide for the implementation of the limit or limits, and may subsequently amend or repeal their regulations as they deem necessary. The commissioners may:

1. Classify land in the district on the basis of topography, soil characteristics, current use, and other factors affecting propensity to soil erosion.

2. Establish different soil loss limits for different classes of land in the district if in their judgment and that of the state soil conservation committee a lower soil loss limit should be applied to some land than can reasonably be applied to other land in the district, it being the intent of the general assembly that no land in the state be assigned a soil loss limit that cannot reasonably be applied to such land.

3. Require the owners of real property in the district to employ either soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices, but may not specify the particular practices to be employed so long as such owners voluntarily comply with the applicable soil loss limit or with an administrative order to bring erosion from land under their control with the applicable soil loss limit, and in no case may the commissioners require:

a. The employment of erosion control practices as defined in section 467A.42, subsection 3, on land used in good faith for agricultural or horticultural purposes only.

b. The employment of soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices on that portion of any public street, road or highway completed or under construction within the corporate limits of any city or town, which is or will become the traveled or surfaced portion of such street, road, or highway.

c. That any owner or operator of agricultural land refrain from fall plowing of land on which he intends to raise a crop during the next succeeding growing season, however on those lands which are prone to excessive wind erosion the commissioners may require that reasonable temporary measures be taken to minimize the likelihood of wind erosion so long as such measures do not unduly increase the cost of operation or the value of the soil which is commonly known as gumbo shall always be permitted. [64GA, ch 227,§31, ch 1097,§2]

467A.45 Submission of rules to committee — hearing. Regulations which the commissioners propose to adopt, amend, or repeal shall be submitted to the state soil conservation committee, in such form as the committee shall prescribe, for its approval. The committee may approve the regulations as submitted, or with such amendments as it deems necessary. The commissioners shall thereafter publish notice of hearing on the proposed regulations, as approved, in a newspaper of general circulation in the district, setting a date and time not less than ten nor more than thirty days after such publication when a hearing on the proposed regulations will be held at a specified place. The notice shall include the full text of the proposed regulations or shall state that the proposed regulations are on file and available for review at the office of the affected soil conservation district. [64GA, ch 227,§32, ch 1097,§3]

467A.46 Conduct of hearing. At the hearing, the commissioners or their designees shall explain, in reasonable detail, the reasons why adoption, amendment, or repeal of the regulations is deemed necessary or advisable. Any landowner, or any occupant of land who would be affected by the regulations, shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard for or against the proposed regulations. At the conclusion of the hearing, the commissioners shall announce and enter of record their decision whether to adopt or modify the proposed regulations. Any modification must be approved by the state soil conservation committee, which may at its discretion order the commissioners to republish the regulations and hold another hearing in the manner prescribed by this chapter. [64GA, ch 227,§33]

467A.47 Inspection of land on complaint. The commissioners of any soil conservation district shall inspect or cause to be inspected any land within the district, upon receipt of a written and signed complaint that soil erosion is occurring thereon in excess of the limits established by the district’s soil erosion control regulations. If they find that such excess soil erosion is so occurring on the land inspected, they shall issue an administrative order to the landowner or landowners of record, and to the occupant of the land if known to the commissioners, describing said land and stating as nearly as possible the extent to which soil erosion thereon exceeds the limits established by the district’s regulations. The order shall be delivered either by personal service or by restricted certified mail to each of the persons to whom it is directed, and shall:

1. In the case of erosion occurring on the site of any construction project or similar undertaking involving the removal of all or a major portion of the vegetation or other natural or man-made cover, exposing bare soil directly to water or wind, state a time not more than five days after service or mailing of the notice of the order when work necessary to establish or maintain erosion control practices must be commenced, and a time not more than thirty days after service or mailing of the notice of the order when the work is to be satisfactorily completed.

2. In all other cases, state a time not more than six months after service or mailing of the notice of the order, by which work needed to establish or maintain the necessary soil and water conservation practices or erosion control measures must be commenced, and a time not more than one year after the service or mailing of the notice of the order when the work is to be satisfactorily completed.

467A.48 Application for public cost-sharing funds. No owner or occupant of land in this state shall be required to establish any new permanent or temporary soil and water conservation practice unless public or other cost-sharing funds have been specifically approved for such land and actually made available to the owner or occupant in an amount equal to at least seventy-five percent of the cost of any permanent soil and water conservation practice, or an amount set by the state soil conservation committee for any temporary soil and water conservation practice. The state soil conservation committee shall review these requirements at least once each year, and may authorize soil conservation district commissioners to make the mandatory establishment of any specified soil and water conservation practice in any particular case conditional on a higher proportion of public cost-sharing than is required by this section. When the commissioners have been so authorized, they shall, in determining the amount of cost-sharing for establishment of a specified soil and water conservation practice to comply with an administrative order issued pursuant to section 467A.47, consider the extent to which the practice will contribute benefits to the public in relation to the benefits that will accrue to the individual owner or occupant of the land on which the practice is to be established. Evidence that an application for public or other cost-sharing funds, from a source or sources having authority to pay a portion of the cost of work needed to comply with an administrative order issued pursuant to section 467A.47, has been submitted to the proper officer or agency shall constitute commencement of such work within the meaning of sections 467A.43 through 467A.53. Upon receiving evidence of the submission of such application, the commissioners shall forward to the officer or agency to which the application was made a written request to receive notification of the disposition of such application. When notified of the approval of such application, the commissioners shall issue to the same parties who received the original administrative order, or their successors in interest, a supplementary order, to be delivered in the same manner as provided by sections 467A.43 through 467A.53, for delivery of original administrative orders. The supplementary order shall state a time, not more than six months after approval of the application for public cost-sharing funds, by which the work needed to comply with the original administrative order shall actually be commenced, and a time not more than one year thereafter when such work is to be satisfactorily completed. [64GA, ch 227,§35, ch 1097,§4]

467A.49 Petition for court order. The commissioners shall petition the district court for a court order requiring immediate compliance with an administrative order previously issued by the commissioners as provided in section 467A.47, if:

1. The work necessary to comply with the administrative order is not commenced on or before the date specified in such order, or in any supplementary order subsequently issued as provided in section 467A.48, unless in the judgment of the commissioners the failure to commence or complete the work as required by the administrative order is due to factors beyond the control of the person or persons to whom such order is directed and the person or persons can be relied upon to commence and complete the necessary work at the earliest possible time.
§467A.49, SOIL CONSERVATION

2. Such work is not being performed with due diligence, or is not satisfactorily completed by the date specified in the administrative order, or when completed does not reduce soil erosion from such land below the limits established by the soil conservation district’s regulations.

3. The person or persons to whom the administrative order is directed advise the commissioners that they do not intend to commence or complete such work. [64GA, ch 227, §36]

467A.50 Burden—court order. In any action brought under section 467A.49, the burden of proof shall be upon the commissioners to show that soil erosion is in fact occurring in excess of the applicable soil loss limits and that the defendant has not established or maintained soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices in compliance with the soil conservation district’s regulations. With respect to construction, repair, or maintenance of any public street, road, or highway, evidence that soil erosion control standards equivalent to or in excess of those currently imposed by the United States government on the project or like projects involving use of federal funds shall create a presumption of compliance with the applicable soil loss limit. Upon receiving satisfactory proof, the court shall issue an order directing the landowner or landowners to comply with the administrative order previously issued by the commissioners. The court may modify such administrative order if deemed necessary. Notice of the court order shall be given either by personal service or by restricted certified mail to each of the persons to whom the order is directed, who may within thirty days from the date of the court order appeal to the supreme court. Any person who fails to comply with a court order issued pursuant to this section within the time specified in such order, unless the order has been stayed pending an appeal, shall be deemed in contempt of court and may be punished accordingly. [64GA, ch 227, §37]

Referred to §§467A.42, 467A.46

467A.51 Entering on land. The commissioners and their authorized agents or employees shall have authority to enter upon any land in the district without the consent of the landowner or person in possession or control of the land, by the procedures and subject to the limitations prescribed in section 467D.24, when necessary in order to properly discharge their duties under this chapter. [64GA, ch 227, §38]

Referred to in §§467A.42, 467A.48

467A.52 Information on situtation by district board. When the board of any conservancy district informs the commissioners of a soil conservation district that the conservancy district is unable to proceed with construction of a planned internal improvement, because it has been found that the internal improvement would not be adequately protected against situtation due entirely or partially to failure to establish or maintain soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices within the soil conservation district, the commissioners of the soil conservation district shall determine as far as possible the particular lands where soil erosion which prevents the conservancy district from constructing the internal improvement is occurring and proceed in the same manner as when a complaint is received under section 467A.47. If after six months, the commissioners of the soil conservation district fail or refuse to control the soil erosion which prevents the conservancy district from constructing the internal improvement, the conservancy district directors may petition the district court of the county in which such soil conservation district is located for a court order directing the commissioners to proceed at once to control such erosion. The court shall afford the commissioners or their representative an opportunity to appear and show cause why such order should not be issued. [64GA, ch 227, §39]

467A.53 Co-operation with other agencies. Soil conservation districts are hereby authorized to enter into agreements with the federal government or any agency thereof, as provided by state law, or with the state of Iowa or any agency thereof, any other soil conservation district or conservancy district, or other political subdivision of this state, for co-operation in preventing, controlling, or attempting to prevent or control, soil erosion. Soil conservation districts may accept, as provided by state law, any money disbursed for soil erosion control purposes by the federal government or any agency thereof, and expend such money for the purposes for which it was received. Where construction of projects has been completed by the soil conservation district, subdistricts of soil conservation districts, conservancy districts, political subdivisions of the state, or other local agencies, or the federal government, or any department or agency thereof on private lands under the easement granted to the county, only the cost of maintenance may be assumed by the county. [C50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467B.5; 64GA, ch 227, §44]

467B.6 Estimate. In the proceedings to establish such a project the government engineer shall set forth in his report separately from other items, the amount of the cost of construction on county property and on private lands, and his estimate of the cost of the maintenance of the same.

If the plan is approved by all co-operating agencies and the project established as a flood or erosion control project the board of supervisors shall make a written record of any such co-operative arrangement and may use such part of the funds of the county now authorized by law and by this chapter as may be necessary to pay the amount agreed upon toward the construction, maintenance and cost of such project. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467B.6]

467B.7 Projects on private land. Any flood or soil erosion control, flood prevention, or the conservation, development, utilization, and disposal of water, projects built on private land with federal or other funds when dedicated to the county use, shall be maintained in the same manner as its own county-owned or controlled property. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467B.7]

467B.8 Conservation commissioners. In counties where soil conservation districts exist the commissioners in said county shall be responsible for the inspection of all flood and erosion control structures built on private land under easement to the county; shall furnish such technical assistance as they may have available in making estimates of needed repairs without cost to the county, and shall report any needed repair and the nature thereof to the county board of supervisors. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467B.8]

467B.9 Tax. The county board of supervisors may annually levy a tax not to exceed one-quarter mill on all agricultural lands in the county, the same to be used to acquire land or rights or interests therein by purchase or condemnation, and for repair, alteration, maintenance, and operation of the present and future works of improvement built on lands under the control or jurisdiction of the county, as provided for in this chapter. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467B.9]

467B.10 Assumption of obligations. This chapter contemplates that actual direction of the project, or projects, and the actual work done in connection therewith, will be assumed by the soil conservation district, subdistrict of a soil conservation district, conservancy district, or by the federal government and that the county or other state subdivisions or instrumentalities jointly will meet the obligation required for federal co-operation and may make proper commitment for the care and maintenance of the project after its completion for the general welfare of the public and residents of the respective counties. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467B.10]

467B.11 Highway law applicable. The counties in maintaining the structures or improvements made under such a project shall do so in a like manner and under like procedure as that used in the maintenance of its highways. Any co-operative agreements with other state subdivisions or instrumentalities shall conform with such an agreement as to the proportion of maintenance cost. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467B.11]

467B.13 Allocation to secondary road funds. Upon receipt of any such payments or payment by the county treasurer twenty-five percent of such amount shall be credited to the secondary road funds of the counties which are principally affected by the construction of such federal flood control projects, and the board of supervisors shall determine which roads of the county are deemed to be principally affected and the amounts which shall be expended from these funds derived from the federal government on such roads. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467B.13]

467B.14 Allocation to county board of education fund. Sixty-five percent of any such payments or payment received from the federal government shall be credited to the county board of education fund as created by section 273.13 and the county board of education shall determine the districts of the county which are principally affected in their activities by the federal flood control project involved and shall allocate to the general fund of each said school district the amount of such federal payments paid to the county board of education fund deemed to be the equitable share of each such district and the amount allocated to each school district shall be paid over by the county board of education to the treasurer of such school district.

The county board of education shall certify to the executive council of the state the amounts allocated to each school district in the previous year, on January second of the following year. The executive council of the state shall deduct this amount from any tax free land reimbursement claim filed that year under section 284.1; except that in no case shall the deduction result in an amount less than the total of the tax free land reimbursement plus any benefits payable to the school district other than the amounts specified in this paragraph. The remaining ten percent of any such payment received by the county treasurer from the federal government, or so much thereof as may be deemed necessary by the board of supervisors, shall be allocated to the local fire departments of the unincorporated villages, towns, townships and cities of the county which are principally affected by the federal flood control project involved, to be paid and prorated among them as determined by the board of supervisors. If the funds prorated to local fire departments in any county are less than ten percent of the total county share of such federal payments for any year, the amount which exceeds such prorations shall revert back to and be divided equally between the secondary road fund and the county board of education fund. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467B.14]

467B.15 Taxes canceled. The treasurer of any county wherein is situated any land acquired by the federal government for flood control projects is hereby authorized to cancel any taxes or tax assessments against any such land so acquired where the tax has been extended but has not become a lien thereon at the time of the acquisition thereof. [C58, 62, 66, 71, §467B.15]
SOIL CONSERVATION AND FLOOD CONTROL DISTRICTS

467C.1 Presumption of benefit. The conservation of the soil resources of the state of Iowa, the proper control of water resources of the state and the prevention of damage to property and lands through the control of floods, the drainage of surface waters, or the protection of lands from overflow shall be presumed to be a public benefit and conducive to the public health, convenience and welfare and essential to the economic well-being of the state. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467C.1]

467C.2 Board of supervisors to establish districts—strip coal mining. The board of supervisors of any county shall have jurisdiction, power and authority at any regular, special or adjourned session to establish, subject to the provisions of this chapter, districts having for their purpose soil conservation and the control of flood waters and to cause to be constructed as hereinafter provided, such improvements and facilities as shall be deemed essential for the accomplishment of the purpose of soil conservation and flood control. Such board shall also have jurisdiction, power and authority at any regular, special or adjourned session to establish, in the same manner that the districts hereinabove referred to are established, districts having for their purpose soil conservation in mining areas within the county, and provide that anyone engaged in removing the surface soil over any bed or strata of coal in such district for the purpose of obtaining such coal shall replace the surface soil as nearly as practicable to its original position, and provide that, upon abandonment of such removal operation, all surface soil shall be so replaced. This section shall apply only to surface soil so removed after July 4, 1949, and then only if it is essential for the accomplishment of the purpose of soil conservation and flood control within the purview of this chapter. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467C.2]

467C.4 Old districts combined. If any levee or drainage district or improvement established either by legal proceedings or by private parties shall desire to include in the activities of such district soil conservation or flood control projects, the board upon petition, as for the establishment of an original levee or drainage district, shall establish a new district covering and including such old district and improvement together with any additional lands deemed necessary. All outstanding indebtedness of the old levee or drainage district shall be assessed against the lands included therein. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467C.4]

467C.6 Chapters made applicable. In the organization, operation and financing of districts established under this chapter, the provisions of chapters 155 and 156 to 167, inclusive, shall apply. Wherever any of the provisions of said chapters refer to the word "drainage", the word shall be deemed to include in its meaning soil erosion and flood control or any combination of drainage, flood control and soil erosion control. The term "drainage district" shall be considered to include districts having as their purpose soil conservancy or flood control or any combination thereof, and the words "drainage certificates" or "drainage bonds" shall be deemed to include certificates or bonds issued in behalf of any district organized under the provisions of this chapter; and any procedure provided by these chapters in connection with the organization, financing and operation of any drainage district shall be applicable to the organization, financing and operation of districts organized under this chapter. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §467C.6]
467D.1 Policy. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the state of Iowa and the objectives of this chapter to preserve and protect the public interest in the soil and water resources of this state for future generations, and for this purpose to encourage, promote, facilitate, and where such public interest requires, to mandate the conservation and proper control and use of the soil and water resources of this state, by measures including but not limited to the control of floods, the control of erosion by water or by wind, the preservation of the quantity and quality of water for its optimum use for agricultural, irrigation, recreational, industrial, and domestic purposes, all of which shall be presumed conducive to the public health, convenience and welfare, both present and prospective. 467D.16 Plan — priorities — aid. The board shall prepare, in consultation with the council, a plan for accomplishment of the objectives of this chapter within the district. For this purpose the board may request and shall obtain from any state agency or political subdivision information which the agency or subdivision may have already collected which is pertinent to preparation of the plan, and may conduct such hearings as it deems necessary. The plan shall establish an order of priorities for carrying out projects necessary to accomplish the objectives of this chapter within the district. Conform as nearly as practicable to the comprehensive state-wide resources plan established by the council pursuant to section 455A.17 and shall reflect the following general policies:

1. First consideration shall be given to work needed at or near the source of the streams in the district, and on or along the tributaries thereto, to the greatest extent practicable.

2. Conservancy district funds shall not be expended for functions or improvements which are:

   a. The responsibility of other political subdivisions and are within their abilities, reasonable consideration being given to their other duties and obligations.

   b. Constructed or implemented, or planned for construction or implementation, on one or more tracts of privately owned land and primarily benefit those lands rather than other lands in the conservancy district. [64GA, ch 227,§16]

467D.17 Plan presented to council. The board shall adopt the plan by resolution and shall present the plan to the council not later than July 1st. The council shall within ninety days approve the plan as presented, or with such amendments as, in its discretion, it deems necessary to bring the district's plan into conformity with the comprehensive state-wide resources plan established by the council pursuant to section 455A.17. [64GA, ch 227,§17]

467D.18 Working program. The plan and the order of priorities established thereby shall constitute the working program of the district. The plan shall be reviewed from time to time and shall, when the consent of the council, be changed as deemed necessary as the result of experience gained in construction and maintenance of internal improvements of the district, and in operation of the district, or as the result of changed conditions. The board may initiate changes in the district plan on its own motion or at the direction of the council. [64GA, ch 227,§18]

467D.19 Implementation. After final approval of the plan, the board shall begin to implement the plan as expeditiously as possible, within the limitations of available appropriations and other financial resources. When implementation of the plan involves construction or improvement of any internal improvement by the district, the board may order the preparation of detailed plans and specifications, and a refined cost estimate. Upon completion of such plans, specifications and cost estimate to their satisfaction, the board shall adopt the same, subject to the approval of the council, and shall let the contract or contracts therefor in accordance with section 467D.20. [64GA, ch 227,§19]

467D.20 Bids on work. When the estimated total cost of construction, enlargement, alteration or repair of any internal improvement exceeds five thousand dollars, the district shall advertise for bids on the proposed improvement by two publications in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the district, the first of which shall be not less than fifteen days prior to the date set for receiving bids, and shall let the work to the lowest responsible bidder submitting a sealed proposal; provided that, if, in the judgment of the board, the bids received are not acceptable, all bids may be rejected and new bids requested. All bids must be accompanied, in a separate envelope, by a deposit of money or certified check, in an amount to be named in the advertisement for bids, as security that the bidder will enter into a contract in accordance with the terms of his bid. The board shall fix the bid security in an amount equal to at least five percent, but not more than ten percent of the estimated total cost of the work. The checks or deposits of money of the unsuccessful bidders shall be returned as soon as the successful bidder is determined, and the check... or deposit of money of the successful bidder shall be returned upon execution of the contract documents. [64GA, ch 227, §20]

467D.21 Protection against siltation. Any other provision of this chapter notwithstanding, no district shall let a contract for any internal improvement of any kind unless its engineer shall recommend, and the board shall find, that the proposed internal improvement would be adequately protected against siltation by soil and water conservation practices existing within the watershed of the internal improvement, or which would be developed as a part of the internal improvement, or that the nature of the internal improvement precludes the probability of damage due to siltation. [64GA, ch 227, §21]

467D.22 Procedure after finding. When the district's plan calls for an internal improvement which cannot be undertaken due to a finding that the internal improvement would not be adequately protected against siltation, the board shall undertake to effect the development of the needed soil and water conservation practices in the watershed of the proposed internal improvement by:

1. Consultation and co-operation with, and appropriate assistance to, the commissioners of any soil conservation district in the state.

2. Securing the establishment of, or repair or maintenance within, a subdistrict of a soil conservation district, a soil conservation and flood control district, a drainage district, a levee district, a sanitary district, or other appropriate special district, in the manner prescribed by law. [64GA, ch 227, §22]

467D.23 Erosion as nuisance—Injunction. Soil erosion resulting in or contributing to damage by siltation to any internal improvement of a conservancy district, or resulting in or contributing to damage to property not owned by the owner or occupant of the land on which such erosion is occurring, is hereby declared to be a nuisance. The board of the district whose internal improvement is so damaged, the commissioners of the soil conservation district within which such erosion is occurring, or the owner or owners of any property so damaged, may bring action to enjoin and abate any such nuisance as provided by chapter 657. It shall be an adequate defense to such an action that any defendant, prior to the time the cause of action arose, had submitted application for public cost-sharing funds pursuant to section 467A.48, or had established or maintained soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices approved by the commissioners of the soil conservation district in which the erosion complained of occurred, or had taken other reasonable and prudent measures to prevent excessive soil erosion, and that the erosion complained of was an isolated occurrence caused by a single prolonged or unusually heavy rainfall, unusually rapid melting of accumulated snow, severe windstorm, or other similar event beyond the control of the defendant. The remedy for any soil erosion which constitutes a nuisance under this section shall be limited to requiring that the owner or occupant of the land on which the erosion is occurring take such measures as are necessary to comply with the regulations of the soil conservation district in which the land is located, and the fine and jail sentence provided by section 657.3 shall not apply in any action arising under this section. [64GA, ch 227, §23]

467D.24 Surveys—soundings—drillings. The board, the commissioners of a soil conservation district, or an engineer or any other authorized person employed by the board or commissioners, may after thirty days' written notice by restricted certified mail addressed to the owner and also to the occupant, enter upon private land for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, drillings, appraisals, and examinations as deemed appropriate or necessary to determine the advisability or practicability of locating an internal improvement on said land or part thereof, or to determine whether soil erosion is occurring thereon which constitutes a nuisance under section 467D.23 or is in violation of the soil conservation district's regulations; provided, no soundings or drillings shall be made within twenty rods of the dwelling house or buildings on said land without the written consent of the owner. Such entry, after notice, shall not be deemed a trespass, and the board or commissioners may be aided by injunction to insure peaceful entry. The board shall pay actual damages caused by such entry, surveys, soundings, drillings, appraisals, or examinations. The amount of such damages, if any, shall be determined by agreement or in the manner provided for the award of damages in condemnation of land for conservancy district purposes. [64GA, ch 227, §24]

468.2 Lead or zinc bearing lands. Any person or corporation who by machinery, or by making drains or adit levels, or in any other way, shall rid any lead or zinc bearing lands or lead or zinc mines of water, thereby enabling the owners of mineral interests in said lands to make them productive and available for mining purposes, shall receive one-tenth of all the lead and zinc taken from said lands as compensation for said drainage. [C73, §1229; C97, §1968; S13, §1968; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7759; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §468.2]

Upon the failure or refusal of any owner of the mineral interests in said lands, or of any person taking the mineral therefrom to comply with the provisions of section 468.3, the person or corporation entitled to said compensation may recover the value of said mineral. If it shall appear that the defendant obstructed the plaintiff in the exercise of the right to examine such mines and to weigh such mineral, or concealed or secretly carried away any mineral taken from them, the court shall render judgment for double the amount proved to be due from such defendant. [C73, §1231; C97, §1970; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7761; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §468.4]

The payment or delivery of the one-tenth part of the mineral taken from any of said lands by any of the persons whose duty it is hereby made to pay or deliver the same, shall discharge the parties liable jointly with him, except liability to contribute among themselves. 468.6 Right of way. Any person or corporation engaged as aforesaid in draining such mines and lead or zinc bearing lands, when he or they shall find it necessary for the prosecution of their work, may procure the right of way upon, over, or under the surface of such mineral lands and the contiguous and neighboring lands, for the purpose of conveying the water from said mineral lands by troughs, pipes, ditches, water races, or tunnels, and the right to construct and use shafts and air holes in and upon the same, doing as little injury as possible in making said improvements. [C73, §1233; C97, §1972; S13, §1972; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7763; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §468.6]

When in any case two or more railroads cross each other at a common grade, or a railroad crosses a stream by swing or drawbridge, they may be equipped thereat with an interlocking switch system, or other suitable safety device rendering it safe for engines or trains to pass thereover without stopping. Any interlocking system or other safety device now or hereafter constructed or operated, which may be found by the state commerce commission, after inspection, to be unsafe or dangerous, may be condemned by the said commission, and the railroad company or companies required to reconstruct the same in accordance with the rules governing the construction, operation, and maintenance of interlocking plants adopted by said state commerce commission. For compensation it shall not demand or receive any greater sum than is accepted by it from any connecting railroad for a similar service. [C97,§2116; S13,§2116; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8039; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§479.4]

Every railway corporation owning or operating lines of railroad of more than seventeen miles in length within the limits of the state, shall maintain a service of not less than two passenger trains each way every twenty-four hours, over the entire length of each division of such line or lines, when so ordered by the state commerce commission. Passenger service of less than the number of trains provided herein shall be presumed to be unreasonable. [S13,§2116; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8040; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§479.5]

Referred to in §§479.32, 479.38

479.9 Preference prohibited—exception. It shall be unlawful for any common carrier to give any preference or advantage to, or entail any prejudice or disadvantage upon any particular person, company, firm, corporation, locality, or any class of business or traffic, by any rate, rule, regulation, or practice whatsoever. This provision shall not prevent any common carrier from giving preference as to time of shipping livestock, live poultry, uncured meats, fruits, vegetables, or other perishable property. [C97,§2125; SS15,§2125; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8044; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§479.9]

Any common carrier may be required to switch and transfer cars for another, for the purpose of being loaded or unloaded, upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the state commerce commission. [C97,§2125; SS15,§2125; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8045; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§479.10]

479.11 Unjust discrimination — exceptions. If any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter shall directly or indirectly, by any special rate, rebate, drawback, or other device, charge, demand, collect, or receive from any person or persons a greater or less compensation for any service rendered, or to be rendered, in the transportation of passengers or property subject to the provisions of this chapter, than it charges, demands, collects, or receives from any other person or persons for doing for him or them a like and contemporaneous service in the transportation of a like kind of traffic, such common carrier shall be guilty of unjust discrimination, which is hereby prohibited and declared to be unlawful; but this section shall not be construed as prohibiting a less rate per one hundred pounds in a carload lot than is charged, collected, or received for the same kind of freight in less than a carload lot. [C97, §2124; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8046; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §179.11] Referred to in §§479.12, 479.13

479.12 Reconsignment without charge. Upon request of the consignee it shall be the duty of any common carrier of freight to reconsign, re-bill, and reship from any place of destination within the state to any other place within the state any property in carload lots, whether accompanied by any person or not, brought to said place of destination over its own or other line and treat the same in all respects as an original shipment between such places, provided the charges to first place of destination are paid or secured to the satisfaction of such company. [§13, §2157-r; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8047; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §179.12] Referred to in §§479.12, 479.13

479.13 Charges to be reasonable. All charges made for any service rendered or to be rendered in the transportation of passengers or property in this state, or for the receiving, delivering, storage, or handling of such property, shall be reasonable and just, and every unjust and unreasonable charge for such service is prohibited and declared to be unlawful. [C97, §2123; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8048; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §179.13] Referred to in §§479.12, 479.13

479.14 Long and short haul—fair rate. No common carrier, subject to the provisions of this chapter, shall charge more for the transportation of persons or property to or from any point on its railroad than a fair and just rate or charge. No such common carrier, or carriers, shall charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of persons or of a like kind of property for a shorter than for a longer distance, over the same line or route in the same direction within this state, the shorter being included within the longer distance, or charge any greater compensation as a through rate than the aggregate of the intermediate rates; but this shall not be construed as authorizing any such common carrier or carriers to charge or receive as great a compensation for a shorter as for a longer distance or haul; provided that upon application to the state commerce commission such common carrier or carriers, in special cases, after investigation, be authorized by the state commerce commission to charge less for a longer than for a shorter distance for the transportation of persons or property; and the state commerce commission may from time to time prescribe the extent to which such designated common carrier or carriers may be relieved from the operation and requirement of this section; but, in exercising the authority conferred upon it in this proviso, the state commerce commission shall not permit the establishment of any charge to or from the more distant point that is not reasonably compensatory for the service performed; and, if a circuitous rail line or route is, because of such circuitry, granted authority to meet the charges of a more direct line or route to or from competitive points and to maintain higher charges to or from intermediate points on its line, the authority shall not include intermediate points as to which the haul of the petitioning line or route is not longer than that of the direct line or route between the competitive points. [C97, §2126; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8049; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §179.14] Referred to in §§479.12, 479.13

479.15 Pooling contracts. It shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter to enter into any contract, agreement, or combination with any other common carrier or carriers for the pooling of freight of different and competing railroads, or divide between them the aggregate or net proceeds of the earnings of such railroads, or any portion thereof; and in case of an agreement for the pooling of freights as aforesaid, each day of its continuance shall be a separate offense. [C73, §§1207-1209; C97, §2127; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8050; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §179.15] Referred to in §§479.12, 479.13

479.16 Continuous shipments. It shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter to enter into any combination, contract or agreement, expressed or implied, to prevent, by change of time schedules, carriage in different cars, or, by other means or device, the carriage of freights from being continuous from place of shipment to the place of destination in the state; and no break of bulk, stoppage, or interruption made by such common carrier shall prevent the carriage of freights from being treated as one continuous carriage from the place of shipment to the place of destination, unless such break, stoppage, or interruption was made in good faith for some necessary purpose, and without any intent to avoid or unnecessarily interrupt such continuous carriage, or to evade any of the provisions of this chapter. [C97, §2129; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8051; C16, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §179.16] Referred to in §§479.12, 479.13

479.17 Violations—treble damages. In case any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter shall do any cause, or permit to be done anything herein prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or shall omit to do anything in this chapter required to be done, it shall be liable to the person or persons injured thereby for three times the amount of damages sustained in consequence, together with costs of suit, and a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court, on appeal or otherwise, which shall be taxed and collected as part of the costs in the case; but in all cases demand in writing shall be made for the money damages sustained before action is brought for a recovery under this section, and no action shall be brought until the expiration of fifteen days after such demand. [C97,§2136; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8052; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§479.17]

Referred to in §§479.32, 479.38

479.18 Criminal liability. Except as otherwise specially provided for in this chapter, and unless relieved from the consequences of a violation of the law as provided herein, any common carrier subject to the provisions hereof, or, when such common carrier is a corporation, any director or officer thereof, or any receiver, trustee, lessee, agent, or person acting for or employed by such corporation, who, alone or with any other corporation, company, person, or party shall willfully do or cause to be done, or shall willfully suffer or permit to be done any act, matter, or thing in this chapter prohibited or declared to be unlawful, or who shall aid or abet therein, or shall willfully omit or fail to do any act, matter, or thing in this chapter required to be done, or shall cause or willingly suffer or permit any act, matter, or thing, so directed or required by the provisions of this chapter to be done, not to be so done; or shall aid or abet any such omission or failure, or shall be guilty of any infraction of the provisions of this chapter, or shall aid or abet therein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than five thousand nor less than five hundred dollars for each offense. [C97,§2132; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8053; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§479.18]

479.19 "Extortion" defined—penalty. If any railway corporation or carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter shall charge, collect, demand, or receive more than a fair and reasonable rate of toll or compensation for the transportation of passengers or freight of any description, or for the use and transportation of any railway car upon its track or any other point upon the same railway; or

4. Charge, collect, or receive from any person a higher or greater amount of toll or compensation than shall at the same time be charged, collected, or received for the transportation of any passenger or like quantity of freight of the same class being transported in the same direction over any portion of the same railway of equal distance; or

5. Charge, collect, or receive from any person for the transportation of any freight upon its railway a greater amount than shall at the same time be charged, collected, or received for the transportation of the like quantity of freight of the same class being transported from the same original point in the same direction over equal distances of the same railway; or

6. Charge, collect, or receive from any person for the use and transportation of any railway car or cars upon its railroad for any distance, a greater amount of toll or compensation than is at the same time charged, collected, or received from any other person for the use and transportation of any railway car of the same class or number, for a like purpose, being transported in the same direction over a greater distance of the same railway; or

7. Charge, collect, or receive from any person for the use and transportation of any railway car or cars upon its railroad for any distance, a greater amount of toll or compensation than is at the same time charged, collected, or received from any other person for the use and transportation of any railway car or cars of the same class for a like purpose, being transported from the same original point in the same direction, over an equal distance of the same railway—all such discriminating rates, charges, collections, or receipts, whether made

479.20 Discrimination—prima-facie evidence. If any such railway corporation shall:

1. Charge, collect, or receive for the transportation of any passenger or freight of any description upon its railroad, for any distance within the state, a greater amount of toll or compensation than is at the same time charged, collected or received for the transportation in the same direction of any passenger or like quantity of freight of the same class, over a greater distance of the same railway; or

2. Charge, collect, or receive at any point upon its road a greater rate of toll or compensation for receiving, handling, or delivering freight of the same class and quantity than it shall at the same time charge, collect, or receive at any other point upon the same railway; or

3. Charge, collect, or receive for the transportation of any passenger or freight of any description over its railway a greater amount as toll or compensation than shall at the same time be charged, collected, or received by it for the transportation of any passenger or like quantity of freight of the same class being transported in the same direction over any portion of the same railway of equal distance; or

4. Charge, collect, or receive from any person a higher or greater amount of toll or compensation than it shall at the same time charge, collect, or receive from any other person for receiving, handling, or delivering freight of the same class and like quantity at the same point upon its railway; or

5. Charge, collect, or receive from any person for the transportation of any freight upon its railway a higher or greater rate of toll or compensation than it shall at the same time charge, collect, or receive from any other person for the transportation of the like quantity of freight of the same class being transported from the same point in the same direction over equal distances of the same railway; or

6. Charge, collect, or receive from any person for the use and transportation of any railway car or cars upon its railroad for any distance, a greater amount of toll or compensation than is at the same time charged, collected, or received from any other person for the use and transportation of any railway car of the same class or number, for a like purpose, being transported in the same direction over a greater distance of the same railway; or 479.21 "Competition" no defense — exceptions. It shall not be a sufficient excuse or justification thereof on the part of said railway corporation that the station or point at which it shall charge, collect, or receive less compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of such passenger or freight, or for the use and transportation of such railway car the greater distance than for the shorter distance, is a station or point at which there exists competition with another railway or other transportation line.

Provided, however, where two or more railroads run into a city or village, one having a shorter mileage than the other from a given point through which they pass, terminate, or originate, the state commerce commission may permit the railroad or railroads having the longer mileage to meet the rate made by the shortest line at such city or village; and

Provided, further, that where an industry or any commodity now is, or may hereafter be, located within the state of Iowa, and which is competitive with an industry or commodity located without the state of Iowa, the state commerce commission may permit the railroad or railroads serving the industry within the state of Iowa to meet, individually, or jointly with other railroads, the freight and passenger rates established and charged by the railroad or railroads serving the industry located as aforesaid within the state of Iowa. [C97,§2115; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8056; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71.§479.21]

479.22 Other evidence. Sections 479.20 and 479.21 shall not be construed so as to exclude other evidence tending to show any unjust discrimination in freight or passenger rates. [C97,§2115; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8057; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71.§479.22]

479.23 Railways included. The provisions of sections 479.20 to 479.22, inclusive, shall apply to any railway, the branches thereof, and any road or roads which any railway corporation has the right, license or permission to use, operate or control, wholly or in part, within this state. [C97,§2115; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8058; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71.§479.23]

Referred to in §§479.23, 479.24, 479.25, 479.27, 479.32, 479.38

479.24 Exceptions. The provisions of sections 479.20 to 479.23, inclusive, shall not be so construed as to prevent railway corporations from issuing commutation, excursion, or thousand-mile tickets, if the same are issued alike to all applying therefor. [C97,§2115; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8059; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71.§479.24]

Referred to in §§479.25, 479.27, 479.32, 479.38

479.25 Switching charges. Nothing in sections 479.20 to 479.21, inclusive, shall be so construed as to prevent railroad companies or the state commerce commission from establishing schedules of reasonable charges applicable to switching services only, and which shall be independent of any schedule of charges which may be provided for any secular line haul freight service of common carriers. [C97,§2115; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8060; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71.§479.25]

Referred to in §§479.27, 479.32, 479.38

479.26 Discrimination as to quantity. For transporting freight over the same railroad for the same distance in the same direction, no common carrier shall charge, collect, demand, or receive more for transporting a car of freight than it charges, collects, demands, or receives per car for more than one car of a like class of freight; nor more for transporting a ton of freight than it charges, collects, demands, or receives per ton for more than one ton of freight but less than a carload of a like class; nor more for transporting one hundred pounds of freight than it charges, collects, demands, or receives per hundred for more than one hundred pounds of freight, but less than a ton of a like class. [C97,§2116; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8061; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71.§479.26]

[S13, §2155; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8076; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §479.42]

The commission shall from time to time, and as often as circumstances may require, change and revise such schedules, but the rates fixed shall not be higher than established by law. The commission shall give notice of its intention to revise or change such schedules, by publishing a notice thereof in two weekly newspapers published at the seat of government, for two consecutive weeks, and the last publication of such notice shall be at least ten days before the time fixed for considering the matter, and such notice shall contain, in general terms, a statement of the matters the commission proposes to consider, and the date when and the place where the matter will be taken up, and shall be addressed to all persons interested therein. The said commission after reasonable notice to the railroad company shall investigate and determine all matters in controversy and make such order as the facts in relation thereto will warrant. Any such order shall have the same force and effect as other orders made by said commission in other proceedings within its jurisdiction and shall be enforced in the same manner. Said certificates shall be assignable, and, when presented by any person holding the legal title thereto to the president, managing director, treasurer, or secretary of the railroad company receiving the taxes paid, as shown by such certificates, in sums of one hundred dollars or more of taxes, it shall issue or cause to be issued to said person the amount of stock of the company desiring the benefit from said taxes, to the amount of said certificate or certificates, and if the taxes paid as shown by said certificate or certificates amount in the aggregate to more or less than any certain number of shares of stock, then the holder thereof shall be entitled to receive the full number of shares of stock covered by said certificates, and may make up in money the balance of any share when the certificates held by him are not equal to one full share of such stock, which stock for such purpose shall be estimated at par. When it shall be proposed in the petition and notice calling an election to issue first mortgage bonds not exceeding the sum of eight thousand dollars per mile for a railroad of three feet gauge, and not exceeding the sum of eighteen thousand five hundred dollars per mile for the ordinary four feet and one-half inch gauge, it shall be lawful to issue bonds of the denomination of one hundred dollars in the same manner as is provided for the issue of stock, and in such case the petition and notice shall state the amount of bonds per mile to be issued, the rate of interest, and the time of payment of the interest and principal thereof; but the provisions of this section shall not be applicable to taxes that are voted and paid in aid of the construction of railroads that are interurban in character. where any taxes have been voted or levied upon the real or personal property in any township, town, or city to aid in the construction of any railroad, and the road in aid of which they were voted or levied has not been built, completed, or operated into or through such township, town, or city, it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of the county where said taxes have been voted and levied and still remain on the tax books to give the railway company in aid of which the tax was voted at least thirty days' notice in writing, to be served as original notices, of their intention to cancel such taxes, and thereupon to cause the same to be canceled and stricken from the tax books of the county, which cancellation shall remove all liens created by the levy thereof.

In all cases where the railway company to whom taxes have been voted neglects or refuses to receive such taxes, or to require or permit the same to be collected and certificates therefor to be issued, for the period of one year after they become due and collectible, and in all cases where taxes have been voted in aid of any railroad, and the conditions upon which the same were voted have not in fact been complied with, and the time in which said conditions were to be fulfilled has expired, the same shall be forfeited, and the county officers of the county in which they have been levied and entered upon the tax books shall enter cancellation thereof upon the proper records.

In all cases where any taxes to aid in the construction of any railroad may be voted upon the inducement or promise offered on the part of said railroad company, or any duly authorized agent thereof, for any rebates or exemptions from said tax or any part thereof, or any agreed price to be paid for the stock that may be issued in lieu of said tax, or a division of said tax, or any portion or percentage thereof, with any of the voters or taxpayers as an inducement to procure said tax to be voted, all taxes so procured to be voted shall be void. [C97, §2090; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8198; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §483.18]

483.19 Taxes paid in labor or supplies. Nothing contained in this chapter shall preclude any taxpayer who may contract with a railroad company for which taxes may be voted to pay his tax, or any part thereof, in labor upon the line of said railroad, or in material for its construction, or supplies furnished or money paid for the construction thereof, in pursuance of the terms and conditions stipulated in the notices of election, in lieu of a payment to the county treasurer. Upon presenting to the county treasurer a receipt from such railroad company or its duly authorized agent, specifying the amount of such payment, the same shall be credited by the treasurer on his tax, with the same effect at though paid to him in money, and when such receipts have been presented and credited they shall have the same validity in his settlement with the board of supervisors as the orders from the railroad company provided for in this chapter. Laborers shall have a lien upon any tax voted in aid of a railroad company for the amount due them for labor performed in the construction of said railroad. [C97, §2091; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8199; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §483.19]

INTERURBAN RAILWAYS IN CERTAIN CITIES

485.1 Use of other tracks—relocation—compensation. When any corporation has heretofore, or hereafter shall be authorized by any city of this state having not less than thirty thousand nor more than thirty-five thousand inhabitants according to the federal census of 1910, to construct and operate an interurban railway upon any of the streets of such city, and shall desire to extend, construct and operate its said interurban railway upon other streets of said city upon which railroad track or tracks are located, and shall be authorized by the city council of said city by resolution so to do, and such streets are so occupied by railroad tracks that it is not practicable to construct and operate said interurban railway thereon, the owners, lessees and operators of said railroad tracks are authorized and required, if practicable, to relocate such of their tracks on said streets as are necessary to permit of the construction and operation of said interurban railway, and if it is not practicable to relocate said railroad tracks, then the owners, lessees and operators are authorized and required to permit said interurban railway to use such of their said tracks as are necessary for the operation and carrying on of the business of said interurban railway, and to permit to be made such alterations in, attachments to and connections with said railroad tracks and to be installed and maintained such trolley system or other construction or equipment as will permit the use in common of said railroad tracks by said interurban railway for railway purposes and by the owners, lessees or other operators thereof for ordinary steam railway purposes.

Where it is practicable to relocate said railroad tracks, and it is also practicable to operate said interurban railway over said tracks without relocating the same, the owners, lessees and operators of such railroad tracks may elect to grant the use thereof to said interurban railway and permit to be made such alterations in, attachments to, and connections with the same and to the installation and maintenance of such trolley system or other construction or equipment as will permit the use in common of said railroad tracks by said interurban railway and the said owners, lessees, and operators thereof, and for the exercise of such other privileges as are granted such interurban railway under the provisions of this chapter.

485.2 Disputes—notice—hearing—procedure—modification of orders. If an agreement cannot be made between the said owner of said interurban railway and the owners, lessees, and operators of such railroad tracks for the relocation or use of such railroad tracks, or as to the alterations, attachments, and connections that shall be made therein or thereto, or as to the manner of the installation and maintenance of the trolley system or other construction or equipment such as will permit such common use of such tracks, or the terms and conditions of or the compensation to be paid for such relocation or use and the alterations or attachments to said railroad tracks and the exercise of such other privileges as are granted to such interurban railway under the provisions of this chapter, then all said matters shall be heard and determined by the state commerce commission upon petition to said commission by the owner of said interurban railway or other party to the controversy.

Upon filing of said petition said commission shall fix a time for the hearing thereof, and twenty days' notice of the filing of said petition and of the time fixed for the hearing thereof shall be given by the petitioner to the opposite parties. Said notice shall be served in the manner provided by law for the service of notices of the commencement of a civil action in the district court.

The commission shall have the power and, upon the demand of any party appearing in said proceeding, shall appoint a shorthand reporter who shall take the evidence offered or introduced upon the hearing, and the commission shall have power to require any party to said hearing to produce books, records, papers, or other documents material to said inquiry, and shall have the power to subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses.

All orders of the commission or revisions or modifications of said orders shall be subject to revision or modification by the commission upon application of any party to the original proceeding, made in the same manner and under the same procedure as is provided for applications for original orders, provided that there shall be no revisions or modification of any order for the relocation of railroad tracks or of compensation if the total compensation was fixed at one definite sum; provided, further, that in the event of additional cost of construction or additional cost of maintenance occasioned by viaducts, track elevation or depression, crossing gates, or other safety appliances or the installation of more expensive types of track construction, the compensation shall be subject to revision and modification in the manner and by the method as in this chapter provided. [SS15, §2033-h; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8231; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §485.2]

Any party to said proceeding may appeal to the district court of the county where said city is located from any order made by the state commerce commission under this chapter within twenty days from the date of the order appealed from.

Such appeal shall be taken and perfected by the party appealing by serving a notice in writing upon the other parties to said proceeding, specifying the order or part thereof appealed from, and by filing in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county to which said appeal is taken, a petition stating the general nature of the proceeding before the state commerce commission and of the order or part thereof appealed from, and that an appeal has been taken and asking the court to determine the matter in controversy.

Such petition and appeal shall be served and proof of service thereof made in the same manner as an original notice in a civil action, and shall be filed with the secretary of the state commerce commission. Service of such notice of appeal may be made upon any attorney appearing for any party in the proceedings before the state commerce commission with the same force and effect as if served upon such party.

Such petition filed in the office of the clerk of the district court to which an appeal is taken shall be entitled in the name of the interurban railway company as plaintiff and the other parties to the appeal as defendants.

Immediately after twenty days from the date of any order appealed from, said state commerce commission shall certify to the clerk of the district court to which such appeal is taken, a bond in such amount and upon such conditions as the district court to which such appeal is taken may, upon application of said interurban railway, require. [SS15, §2033-j; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8233; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §485.4]

The appeal shall not suspend any order appealed from, if the interurban railway company in whose behalf any order is made by the state commerce commission shall file in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county to which such appeal is taken, a bond in such amount and upon such conditions as the district court to which such appeal is taken may, upon application of said interurban railway, require. [SS15, §2033-j; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8233; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §485.4]

1. No wire or cable used to conduct electricity for light and power shall be erected or maintained on any pole or appliance attached to such pole, within a less distance than thirteen inches from the center line of such pole; nor shall any wire or cable be erected or maintained in the vicinity of any pole, and unattached thereto, within the distance of thirteen inches from the center line of such pole.

4. Nor shall any wire be erected or maintained running parallel, crossing, or attached to same pole at a less distance than seven feet from any wire carrying thirteen thousand volts or more.

5. No wire or cable carrying more than thirteen thousand volts of electricity shall be erected or maintained across or above any wire or cable carrying less than thirteen thousand volts at point of crossing without at all times maintaining approved methods of construction to prevent falling and coming in contact with wires of lesser voltage.

6. No guy wire or guy cable attached to any pole or appliance to which is attached any wire or cable used to conduct electricity for light and power shall be erected or maintained without causing such guy wire or guy cable to be kept effectively insulated by approved insulators placed in such wire or cable not less than nine feet, nor more than eleven feet, from each end thereof; provided, however, that the lower insulator shall not be less than eight feet, perpendicularly, from the ground.

7. No wire or cable shall be erected or maintained vertically on any wooden pole, without causing such wire or cable to be at all times incased in a casing of wooden material not less than three-quarters of an inch in thickness, or of other insulating material approved by the state commerce commission; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to any vertical wire which is more than thirteen inches from center line of pole.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association, or corporation including a municipal corporation to place, construct, keep, or maintain any fixture, appliance, or other thing contrary to the terms and provisions of this and section 485.5, and the state commerce commission is hereby empowered to enforce the provisions of this and section 485.5 with reference to such matter.

The state commerce commission is hereby authorized and empowered to make such other rules and regulations and fix standards of and for appliances and fixtures as may be deemed reasonably necessary from time to time for the purpose of protecting persons and property; and such order made by the commission shall be deemed reasonable and necessary and the burden of proof shall rest upon any complainant to prove the contrary.

The state commerce commission shall give reasonable notice of any order or requirement within the contemplation of this chapter and cause the same to be enforced by an action in equity.

The terms, conditions, and provisions of this and section 485.5 shall only apply to such interurban railway construction and conditions contemplated by section 485.1. [SS15, §2033-k; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8233; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §485.6]

ELECTRIC TRANSMISSION LINES

489.1 Franchise. No individual, company, or corporation shall construct, erect, maintain, or operate any transmission line, wire, or cable along, over, or across any public highway or grounds outside of cities and towns for the transmission, distribution, or sale of electric current, without first procuring from the state commerce commission a franchise granting authority so to do as in this chapter provided. [S13,§§1527-c, 2120-n; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8309; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§489.1]

Authorization in cities and towns, ch 386

489.2 Petition for franchise—informational meetings held. Any person, corporation, or company authorized to transact business in the state including cities and towns may file a verified petition asking for a franchise to erect, use, and maintain poles, wires, guy wires, towers, cables, conduits, and other fixtures and appliances necessary for conducting electric current for light, heat, or power over, along, and across any public lands, highways, streams, or the lands of any person, company, or corporation, and to acquire necessary interests in real estate for such purposes.

As conditions precedent to the filing of a petition with the commission requesting a franchise for a new transmission line, and not less than thirty days prior to the filing of such petition, the person, company, or corporation shall hold informational meetings in each county in which real property or rights therein will be affected. A member of the commission, the counsel of the commission, or a hearing examiner designated by the commission shall serve as the presiding officer at each meeting and present an agenda for such meeting which shall include a summary of the legal rights of the affected landowners. No formal record of the meeting shall be required.

The meeting shall be held at a location reasonably accessible to all persons, companies, or corporations which may be affected by the granting of the franchise.

The person, company, or corporation seeking the franchise for a new transmission line shall give notice of the informational meeting to each person, company, or corporation determined to be the landowner affected by the proposed project and any person, company or corporation in possession of or residing on the property. For the purposes of this section, "landowner" means a person, company, or corporation listed on the tax assessment rolls as responsible for the payment of real estate taxes imposed on the property and "transmission line" means any line carrying thirty-four point five kilovolts or more and extending a distance of not less than one mile across privately owned real estate.
The notice shall set forth the name of the applicant; state the applicant's principal place of business; state the general description and purpose of the proposed project; state the general nature of the right of way desired; provide a map showing the route of the proposed project; advise that the landowner has the right to be present at such meetings and to file objections with the commerce commission; designate the place and time of the meeting; be served not less than thirty days prior to the time set for the meeting by certified mail with return receipt requested; and be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county at least one week and not more than three weeks before the time of the meeting and such publication shall be considered notice to landowners whose residence is not known.

No person, company, or corporation seeking rights under this chapter shall negotiate or purchase any easements or other interests in land in any county known to be affected by the proposed project prior to the informational meeting. [§13, §2120-n; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8310; C40, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §489.2]

1. All petitions shall set forth:
   a. The name of the individual, company, or corporation asking for the franchise.
   b. The principal office or place of business.
   c. The starting points, routes, and termini of the proposed lines, accompanied with a map or plat showing such details.
   d. A general description of the public or private lands, highways, and streams over, across, or along which any proposed line will pass.
   e. General specifications as to materials and manner of construction.
   f. The maximum voltage to be carried over each line.
   g. Whether or not the exercise of the right of eminent domain will be used and, if so, a specific reference to the lands described in paragraph "d" which are sought to be subject thereto.
   h. An allegation that the proposed construction is necessary to serve a public use.

2. Petitions for transmission lines carrying thirty-four point five kilovolts or more and extending a distance of not less than one mile across privately owned real estate shall also set forth an allegation that the proposed construction represents a reasonable relationship to an overall plan of transmitting electricity in the public interest and substantiation of such allegations, including but not limited to, a showing of the following:
   a. The relationship of the proposed project to present and future economic development of the area.
   b. The relationship of the proposed project to comprehensive electric utility planning.
   c. The relationship of the proposed project to the needs of the public presently served and future projections based on population trends.
   d. The relationship of the proposed project to the existing electric utility system and parallel existing utility routes.
   e. The relationship of the proposed project to any other power system planned for the future.
   f. The possible use of alternative routes and methods of supply.
   g. The relationship of the proposed project to the present and future land use and zoning ordinances.
   h. The inconvenience or undue injury which may result to property owners as a result of the proposed project.

The commission may waive the proof required for such allegations which are not applicable to a particular proposed project.

The petition shall contain an affidavit stating that informational meetings were held in each county which the proposed project will affect and the time and place of each meeting. [§13, §2120-n; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8311; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §489.3; 64GA, ch 237, §1]

Referred to in §489.31

489.4 Franchise—hearing. The commission shall consider said petition and any objections filed thereto in the manner hereinafter provided. It shall examine the proposed route or cause any engineer selected by it to do so. If a hearing is held on the petition it may hear such testimony as may aid it in determining the propriety of granting such franchise. It may grant such franchise in whole or in part upon such terms, conditions, and restrictions, and with such modifications as to location and route as may seem to it just and proper. Before granting such franchise, the commission shall make a finding that the proposed line or lines are necessary to serve a public use and represents a reasonable relationship to an overall plan of transmitting electricity in the public interest. No franchise shall become effective until the petitioners shall pay, or file an agreement to pay, all costs and expenses of the franchise proceeding, whether or not objections are filed, including costs of inspections or examinations of the route, hearing, salaries, publishing of notice, and any other expenses reasonably attributable thereto. [§13, §2120-n; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8312, 8313; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§489.4, 489.5; C66, 71, §489.4]

489.5 Notice—objections filed. Upon the filing of such petition, the commission shall cause a notice, addressed to the citizens of each county through which the proposed line or lines will extend, to be published in a newspaper located in each such county for two consecutive weeks. Said notice shall contain a general statement of the contents and purpose of the petition, a general description of the lands and highways to be traversed by the proposed line or lines, and shall state that any objections thereto must be filed in writing... with the commission not later than twenty days after the date of last publication of the notice. Any person, company, city, town or corporation whose rights may be affected, shall have the right to file written objections to the proposed improvement or to the granting of such franchise; such objections shall be filed with the commission not later than twenty days after the date of last publication and shall state the grounds therefor. The commission may allow objections to be filed later in which event the applicant must be given reasonable time to meet such late objections. [§13, §2120-n; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§8312, 8313; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§489.4, 489.5; C66, 71, §189.5]

489.6 Taking under eminent domain. Upon the filing of such objections or when a petition involves the taking of property under the right of eminent domain the commission shall set the matter for hearing and fix a time and place therefor. Said hearing shall be not less than thirty days from the date of last publication and at the offices of the commission before which said matter is pending, unless a different place is specified in the notice thereof. Written notice of the time and place of such hearing shall be served by the commission, by ordinary mail, on the applicant, and those having filed objections. If no objections are filed as hereinbefore provided and the petition does not involve the taking of property under the right of eminent domain the commission may grant a franchise without hearing thereon, however, nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the commission from conducting a hearing if it deems it necessary.

Where a petition seeks the use of the right of eminent domain over specific parcels of real property, the commission shall prescribe the notice to be served upon the owners of record and parties in possession of said property over which the use of the right of eminent domain is sought.

When the commission grants a franchise to any person, company, or corporation for the construction, erection, maintenance, and operation of transmission lines, wires, and cables for the transmission of electricity, such person, company, or corporation shall be vested with the power of condemnation to such extent as the commission may approve and find necessary for public use. [C66, 71, §489.6; 64GA, ch 258, §1]

489.7 Form of franchise. The commerce counsel shall prepare a blank form of franchise for such purposes, which shall provide space for a general description of the improvement authorized thereby, the name and address of the person or corporation to whom granted, the general terms and conditions upon which it is granted, and such other things as may be necessary. This blank form shall be filled out and signed by the chairman of the commission which grants the franchise, and the official seal shall be attached. Such franchise shall be subject to such regulations and restrictions as the general assembly from time to time may prescribe, and to such rules, not inconsistent with statutes, as the state commerce commission may establish from time to time. [§13, §2120-n; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§8314; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §489.6; C66, 71, §189.7]

489.8 Valuation of franchise. No financial consideration shall be charged for such franchise. In fixing the value for rate-making purposes of the property of any person, company, or corporation owning it or operating under it no account shall be taken of, and no increased value shall be allowed for, any such franchise, except that the reasonable cost to the petitioners of obtaining said franchise may be included in the cost of constructing said line. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8315; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §189.7; C66, 71, §189.8]

489.9 Exclusive rights—duration of franchise. No exclusive right shall ever be given by franchise or otherwise to any person, company, corporation, town, or city to conduct electrical energy, or to place electric wires, along or over or across any public highway or public place or ground; and no franchise or privilege shall ever be granted for any such purpose for a longer period than twenty-five years. [C21, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8316; C46, 50, 54, 38, 62, §489.8; C66, 71, §189.9]

489.10 Franchise transferable—notice. When any such electric transmission line or lines are sold and transferred either by voluntary or judicial sale, such transfer shall carry with it the franchise under which the said improvement is owned, maintained, or operated. If a transfer of such franchise is made before the improvement for which it was issued is constructed, in whole or in part, such transfer shall not be effective till the person, company, or corporation to whom it was issued shall file in the office of the commission granting the franchise a notice in writing stating the date of such transfer and the name and address of the transferee. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§8317; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §489.9; C66, 71, §189.10]

489.11 Record of franchises. The commission shall keep a record of all such franchises granted and issued by it, when and to whom issued, with a general statement of the location, route, and termini of the transmission line or lines covered thereby. When any transfer of such franchise has been made as provided in this chapter, the commission shall also make note upon its record of the date of such transfer and the name and address of the transferee. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§8318; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §489.10; C66, 71, §189.11]

489.12 Acceptance of franchise. Any person, company, or corporation obtaining a franchise as in this chapter provided, or owning or operating under one, shall be conclusively held to an acceptance of the provisions thereof and of all laws relating to the regulation, supervision, or control thereof which are now in force or which may be hereafter enacted, and to have consented to such reasonable regulation as the commission may, from time to time, prescribe. The provisions of this chapter shall apply equally to assignees as well as to original owners. [S13, §2120-p; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8319; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §489.11; C66, 71, §489.12]

489.13 Extension of franchise—public notice. Any person, firm, or corporation owning a franchise granted under this chapter or previously existing law, desiring to acquire an extension of such franchise, may petition the commission in the manner provided for the granting of a franchise and the same proceeding shall be had as on an original application, including the assessing of costs provided by section 489.4 except that in the event the extension of franchise is sought for all lines in a given county or counties the published notice need not contain a general description of the lands and highways traversed by the lines, but in lieu thereof the petitioner may have on file at its offices in the county or counties affected a current, accurate map showing the location of the lines for which the franchise extension is sought, said map to be available for examination by any interested party, and the public notice shall advise the citizens of the county or counties affected of the location and availability of such map. If this alternate procedure is not followed then the publication of the description of the lands and highways traversed by the lines shall be done in the manner as in an original application for franchise. In any event an extension under this section will be granted only for a valid, existing franchise and the lands, roads or streams covered thereby over, through or upon which electric transmission lines have in fact been erected or constructed and are in use or operation at the time of the application for extension of franchise. Such petition shall be accompanied by the written consent of the applicant that the provisions of all laws relating to public utilities, franchises, and transmission lines, or to the regulation, supervision, or control thereof which are then in force or which may be thereafter enacted shall apply to its existing line or lines, franchises, and rights with the same force and effect as if such franchise had been granted or such lines had been constructed or rights had been obtained under the provisions of this chapter. [S13, §2120-o; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8320; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §489.12; C66, 71, §489.13]

489.14 Service furnished. Any city or town which owns or operates a system for the distribution of electric light or power, and which has obtained electric energy for such distribution from any person or firm or corporation owning or operating an electric light and power plant or transmission line, shall be entitled to have the service reasonably needed by such municipality and its patrons continued at and for a reasonable rate and charge and under reasonable rules of service. It shall be unlawful for the owner or operator of such light and power plant or transmission line to disconnect or discontinue such service (except during nonpayment of reasonable charges) so long as such operator holds or enjoys any franchise to go upon or use any public streets, highways, or grounds.

Until the municipality and the operator shall agree upon a rate or charge for such service the municipality shall pay and the operator shall accept the rate provided in the expired contract if any existed, and if none existed then the rate before paid. This shall be without prejudice, however, to the right of either party to test in court or before any lawfully constituted rate-making tribunal the reasonableness of such rate.

This section shall not apply if the original service to the municipality was given in case of emergency or for any other temporary purpose. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8321; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §489.13; C66, 71, §489.14]

489.15 Eminent domain—procedure—entering on land—reversion on nonuse. Any person, company, or corporation having secured a franchise as provided in this chapter, shall thereupon be vested with the right of eminent domain to such extent as the commission may approve, prescribe and find to be necessary for public use, not exceeding one hundred feet in width for right of way and not exceeding one hundred sixty acres in any one location, in addition to right of way, for the location of electric power generating plants and electric substations to carry out the purposes of said franchise; provided however, that where two hundred K V lines or higher voltage lines are to be constructed, the person, company, or corporation may apply to the commerce commission for a wider right of way not to exceed two hundred feet, and the commission may for good cause extend the width of such right of way for such lines to the person, company, or corporation applying for the same. The burden of proving the necessity for public use shall be on the person, company or corporation seeking the franchise. A homestead site, cemetery, orchard or schoolhouse location shall not be condemned for the purpose of erecting an electric power generating plant or electric substation. If agreement cannot be made with the private owner of lands as to damages caused by the construction of said transmission line, electric power generating plants or electric substations, the same proceedings shall be taken as provided for taking private property for works of internal improvement.

Any person, company or corporation proposing to construct a transmission line or other facility which involves the taking of property under the right of eminent domain and desiring to enter upon the land, which it proposes to appropriate, for the purpose of examining or surveying the same, shall first file with the Iowa state commerce commission, a written statement under oath setting forth the proposed routing of the line or facility including a description of the lands to be crossed, the names and addresses of owners, together with request that a permit be issued by said commission authorizing said person, company or corporation or its duly appointed representative to enter upon the land for the purpose of examining and surveying and to take and use thereon any vehicle and surveying equipment necessary in making the survey. Said commission shall within ten days after said request issue a permit, accompanied by such bond in such amount as the commission shall approve, to the person, company or corporation making said application, if in its opinion the application is made in good faith and not for the purpose of harassing the owner of the land. If the commission is of the opinion that the application is not made in good faith or made for the purpose of harassment to the owner of said lands, it shall set the matter for hearing and it shall be heard not more than twenty days after filing said application. Notice of the time and place of hearing shall be given by said commission, to the owner of said land by registered mail with a return receipt requested, not less than ten days preceding date of hearing.

Any person, company or corporation that has obtained a permit in the manner herein prescribed may enter upon said land or lands, as above provided, and shall be liable for actual damages sustained in connection with such entry. An action in damages shall be the exclusive remedy.

If an electric transmission line right of way, or any part thereof, is wholly abandoned for public utility purposes by the relocation of the transmission lines, is not used or operated for a period of five years, or if its construction has been commenced and work has ceased and has not in good faith been resumed for five years, the right of way shall revert to the person or persons who, at the time of the abandonment or reversion, are the owners of the tract from which such right of way was taken. Following such abandonment of right of way, the owner or holder of purported fee title to such real estate may serve notice upon the owner of such right of way easement, or his successor in interest, and upon any party in possession of said real estate, a written notice which shall (1) accurately describe the real estate, in question, (2) set out the facts concerning ownership of the fee, ownership of the right of way easement, and the period of abandonment, and (3) notify said parties that such reversion shall be complete and final, and that the easement or other right shall be forfeited, unless said parties shall, within one hundred twenty days after the completed service of notice, file an affidavit with the county recorder of the county in which the real estate is located disputing the facts contained in said notice.

Said notice shall be served in the same manner as an original notice under the Iowa rules of civil procedure, except that when notice is served by publication no affidavit therefor shall be required before publication. If no affidavit disputing the facts contained in the notice is filed within one hundred twenty days, the party serving the notice may file for record in the office of the county recorder a copy of the notice with proofs of service attached thereto or endorsed thereon, and when so recorded, the record shall be constructive notice to all persons of the abandonment, reversion, and forfeiture of such right of way.

489.16 Injury to person or property. In case of injury to any person or property by any such transmission line, negligence will be presumed on the part of the person or corporation operating said line in causing said injury, but this presumption may be rebutted by proof. Such presumption shall not exist in favor of employees of the person or corporation operating said transmission line who are charged with or engaged in the construction, reconstruction, repair, or maintenance thereof, unless otherwise provided by the employers liability and workmen's compensation laws of the state. [S13,§2120-q; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8322; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§489.14; C66, 71,§489.15]

489.17 Access to lines—damages. Individuals or corporations operating such transmission lines shall have reasonable access to the same for the purpose of constructing, reconstructing, enlarging, repairing, or locating the poles, wires, or construction and other devices used in or upon such line, but shall pay to the owner of such lands and of crops thereon all damages to said lands or crops caused by entering, using, and occupying said lands for said purposes. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the execution of an agreement between the person or company owning or operating such line and the owner of said land or crops with reference to the use thereof. [S13,§2120-t; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8324; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§489.16; C66, 71,§489.17]

489.18 Supervision of construction—location. The state commerce commission shall have power of supervision over the construction of said transmission line and over its future operation and maintenance. Said transmission line shall be constructed near and parallel to the right of way of the railways of the state or along the division lines of the lands, according to the government survey thereof, wherever the same is practicable and reasonable, and so as not to interfere with the use by the public of the highways or streams of the state, nor unnecessarily interfere with the use of any lands by the occupant thereof. [S13,§2120-r; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8225; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,§489.17; C66, 71,§489.18]

nary wear or other causes are no longer safe shall be removed and replaced by new wires, poles, or other devices, as the case may be, and all abandoned wires, poles, or other devices shall be at once removed. Where wires carrying current are carried across, either above or below wires used for other service, the said transmission line shall be constructed in such manner as to eliminate, so far as practicable, damages to persons or property by reason of said crossing. There shall also be installed sufficient devices to automatically shut off electric current through said transmission line whenever connection is made whereby current is transmitted from the wires of said transmission line to the ground, and there shall also be provided a safe and modern improved device for the protection of said line against lightning. The state commerce commission shall have power to make and enforce such further and additional rules relating to location, construction, operation and maintenance of said transmission line as may be reasonable. [S13,§2120-r; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8236; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62,§189.18; C66, 71,§189.19]

489.20 Distance from buildings. No transmission line shall be constructed, except by agreement, within one hundred feet of any dwelling house or other building, except where said line crosses or passes along a public highway or is located alongside or parallel with the right of way of any railway company. In addition to the foregoing, each person, company, or corporation shall conform to any other rules, regulations, or specifications established by the state commerce commission, in the construction, operation, or maintenance of such lines. [S13,§2120-r; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8237; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62,§489.19; C66, 71,§489.20]

489.21 Nonuser. Unless the improvement for which a franchise is granted is constructed in whole or in part within two years from the granting thereof, it shall be forfeited and the commission which granted the franchise shall cancel and revoke the same and make record thereof. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8232; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62,§489.21; C66, 71,§489.21]

489.22 Forfeiture for violations. If any person, company, or corporation shall violate the provisions of this chapter or any rule established for the construction, maintenance, or operation of such electric transmission line, and shall fail for ninety days after notice from the commission to comply therewith, such commission shall have power to cancel and annul such franchise and order the removal of such line.

Provided, however, that if proceedings are commenced within said ninety days in any court of competent jurisdiction to determine whether the provisions of this chapter, or whether any rule established for the construction or maintenance or operation of an electric transmission line, have been violated, or are legal and enforceable rules or provisions, no forfeiture shall be declared or become effective if within sixty days from the date of the final decree or judgment in such proceedings the said rule or provisions have been fully complied with and the cause of forfeiture removed. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8330; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62,§189.21; C66, 71,§189.22]

489.23 Prior franchises—legislative control. Any such franchise heretofore granted under previously existing law shall not be abrogated by the provisions of this chapter, but all such franchises and all franchises granted under the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to further legislative control. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8331; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62,§189.22; C66, 71,§189.23]

489.24 Violations. Any person, company, or corporation constructing or undertaking to construct or maintain any electric transmission line, without first procuring a franchise for such purpose in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall be fined in the sum of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars; and for violating any of the other provisions of this chapter relating to electric transmission lines or disobeying any order or rule made by the state commerce commission in relation thereto, shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars. [S13,§1527-d; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8332; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62,§489.23; C66, 71,§489.24]

489.25 Wire crossing railroads—supervision. The state commerce commission shall have general supervision over any and all wires whatsoever crossing under or over any railway track and shall make rules prescribing the manner in which such wires shall cross such track; but in no case shall the state commerce commission prescribe a less height for any wire than twenty-two feet above the top of the rails of any railroad track. [S13,§§2120-d-e, h; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8333; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62,§489.24; C66, 71,§489.25]

489.26 Wires across railroad right of way at highways. The state commerce commission shall prescribe the manner for the crossing of wires over and across railroad rights of way at highways and other places within the state. [S13,§2120-f; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8334; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62,§489.25; C66, 71,§489.26]

489.27 Wires—how strung. No corporation or person shall place or string any such wire for transmitting electric current or any wire whatsoever across any track of a railroad except in the manner prescribed by the state commerce commission. [S13,§2120-g; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§8335; C16, 50, 54, 58, 62,§489.26; C66, 71,§489.27]

formation where railroad tracks are crossed by wires contrary to, or not in compliance with, the rules prescribed by it. It shall order such change or changes to be made by the persons or corporations owning or operating such wires as may be necessary to make the same comply with said rules and within such reasonable time as it may prescribe. [§13, §2120-j; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8336; C16, 50, 51, 58, 62, §189.27; C66, 71, §489.28]

489.29 Penalty—enforcement. Any person or corporation who shall string or maintain any wire across any railroad track in this state at a different height or in a different manner from that prescribed by the state commerce commission shall forfeit and pay to the state the sum of one hundred dollars for each separate period of ten days during which such wire is so maintained. Such forfeiture shall be recovered in a civil action in the name of the state by the commerce counsel, or by the county attorney of the county in which such wire is situated, at the request of the state commerce commission. [§13, §2120-j; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8337; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §189.28; C66, 71, §489.29]

489.30 Crossing highway. Nothing in this chapter shall prevent any such individual or corporation having its high tension line on its own private right of way on both sides of any highway, from crossing such public highway under such rules and regulations as the state commerce commission may prescribe, and subject from time to time to legislative control as to duration and use. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8338; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §189.29; C66, 71, §489.30]

489.31 Temporary permits for lines less than one mile. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 489.1 any person, company or corporation proposing to construct an electric transmission line not exceeding one mile in length and which does not involve the taking of property under the right of eminent domain may obtain a temporary construction permit from the state commerce commission by proceeding in the manner hereinafter set forth. Said person, company or corporation shall first file with the state commerce commission a verified petition setting forth the requirements of section 489.3 subsection 1, paragraphs “a” through “h” with the further allegation that the petitioner is the nearest electric utility to the proposed point of service.

The petition shall also state that the filing thereof constitutes an application for a temporary construction permit and shall also have endorsed thereon the approval of the appropriate highway authority or railroad concerned if such line is to be constructed over, across or along a public highway or railroad.

Upon receipt of such petition the commission shall consider same and may grant a temporary construction permit in whole or in part or upon such terms, conditions and restrictions, and with such modifications as to location as may seem to it just and proper, however, no finding of public use will be made at the time of the issuance of the permit, such finding to be made, if substantiated by petitioner, at the subsequent consideration of the propriety of granting a franchise for the line subject to the permit. The signature of one commissioner on such permit shall be sufficient. The issuance of such permit shall constitute temporary authority for the permit holder to construct the line for which the permit is granted.

Upon the granting of such temporary construction permit the commission shall cause the publication of notice required by section 489.3 and all other requirements shall be complied with as in the manner provided for the granting of a franchise. If a hearing is required then the petitioner shall make a sufficient and proper showing that a franchise will be issued for the line. Any franchise issued will be subject to all applicable provisions of this chapter.

Notwithstanding anything foregoing, if the commission shall determine that a franchise should not be granted, or that further restrictions, conditions or modifications are required, or if the petitioner shall fail to make a sufficient and proper showing of the necessity for the granting of a franchise within six months of the granting of the temporary construction permit, the permit issued hereunder shall become null and void and the permit holder may be required to take such action deemed necessary by the commission to remove, modify or relocate the construction undertaken by virtue of the temporary permit issued hereunder. [C66, 71, §189.31; 64GA, ch 237, §2]

489.32 Rehearing and appeal. Any person, company, or corporation aggrieved by the action of the commission in granting or failing to grant a franchise under the provisions of this chapter, shall be entitled to the rehearing and appeal procedures provided in sections 490A.12 through 490A.19, inclusive. [C71, §489.32]
§490.1 Purpose and policy. It is hereby declared to be the purpose and policy of the legislature in enacting this law to confer upon the commerce commission the power and authority to supervise the transportation or transmission of any solid, liquid, or gaseous substance, except water, within or through this state by pipe line, whether specifically mentioned herein or not, and the power and authority to supervise the underground storage of gas, so as to protect the safety and welfare of the public in its use of any public or private highways, grounds, waters and streams of any kind in this state. [C35,§8338-fl4; C39,§8338.22; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§490.1; 64GA, ch 239,§1]

490.2 Definitions. The term “pipe line” insofar as this chapter is concerned shall include and mean any pipe, pipes or pipe lines used for the transportation or transmission of any solid, liquid, or gaseous substance, except water, within or through this state.

The term “pipe-line company”, insofar as this chapter is concerned shall include and mean any person, firm, copartnership, association, corporation or syndicate engaged in or organized for the purpose of owning, operating or controlling pipe lines for the transportation or transmission of any solid, liquid, or gaseous substance, except water, within or through this state.

The term “commission” when used in this chapter means the state commerce commission.

The term “underground storage” insofar as this chapter is concerned shall include and mean storage of gas in a subsurface stratum or formation of the earth. [C31,§8338-d1; C35, §8338-f15; C39,§8338.23; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§490.2; 64GA, ch 238,§2]

490.3 Conditions attending operation. No pipe-line company shall construct, maintain or operate any pipe line or lines under, along, over or across any public and/or private highways, grounds, waters or streams of any kind in this state except in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [C31, §8338-d2; C35, §8338-f16; C39,§8338.21; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§490.3]

490.4 Dangerous construction — inspection. The commission is vested with power and authority and it shall be its duty to supervise all pipe lines and underground storage and pipe-line companies and shall from time to time inspect and examine the construction, maintenance and the condition of said pipe lines and underground storage facilities and pipe-line companies and shall from time to time inspect and examine the construction, maintenance and the condition of said pipe lines and underground storage facilities and wherever such inspection shall determine that any pipe line and underground storage facilities or any apparatus, device or equipment used in connection therewith is unsafe and dangerous it shall immediately in writing notify said pipe-line company, constructing or operating said pipe line and underground storage facilities, device, apparatus or other equipment to repair or replace any defective or unsafe part or portion of said pipe line and underground storage facilities, device, apparatus or equipment.

A board of supervisors may, by majority vote, submit a request in writing to the commission requesting that the services of a qualified inspector be provided to adequately inspect pipe-line construction within that county. Upon receipt of the request, the commission shall make such inspector available. All costs of inspection shall be paid pursuant to section 490.14.

As a part of the inspection process, the inspector shall, if provided by the easement contract, ascertain that the trench excavation... has been filled in such a manner as to provide that the top soil has been replaced on top and all rocks and debris have been removed from the top soil.

Adequate inspection of underground improvements altered during construction of pipe lines shall be conducted at the time of the replacement or repair of such underground improvements.

All faulty construction, as determined by the inspector, shall be repaired immediately by the contractor operating for the pipe-line company and the cost of such repairs shall be paid by said contractor. If such repairs are not made by contractor, the commission shall proceed to collect under the provisions of section 490.27. [C31, §8338-d29; C35, §8338-f17; C39, §8338.25, C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §490.4; 64GA, ch 1099, §1]

490.5 Application for permit. Any pipe-line company engaging in its said business in this state shall file with the state commerce commission its verified petition asking for a permit to construct, maintain and operate its pipe line or lines along, over or across the public or private highways, grounds, waters and streams of any kind of this state. Any pipe-line company now owning or operating a pipe line in this state shall be issued a permit by the commission upon supplying the information as provided for in section 490.6.

Any pipe-line company engaging in its said business in this state and proposing to engage in underground storage of gas within this state shall file with the state commerce commission its verified petition asking for a permit to construct, maintain and operate facilities for the underground storage of gas to include the construction, placement, maintenance and operation of machinery, appliances, fixtures, wells, pipe lines, and stations necessary for the construction, maintenance and operation of such gas underground storage facilities.

As conditions precedent to the filing of a petition with the commission requesting a permit, and not less than thirty days prior to the filing of such petition, the person, company, or corporation shall hold informational meetings in each county in which real property or rights therein will be affected. A member of the commission, the counsel of the commission, or a hearing examiner designated by the commission shall serve as the presiding officer at each meeting and present an agenda for such meeting which shall include a summary of the legal rights of the affected landowners. No formal record of the meeting shall be required.

The meeting shall be held at a location reasonably accessible to all persons, companies, or corporations which may be affected by the granting of the permit.

The person, company, or corporation seeking the permit shall give notice of the informational meeting to each person, company, or corporation determined to be the landowner affected by the proposed project and any person, company or corporation in possession of or residing on the property. For the purposes of this section, "landowner" means a person, company, or corporation listed on the tax assessment rolls as responsible for the payment of real estate taxes imposed on the property and "pipe line" means any line transporting any solid, liquid, or gaseous substance, except water, under pressure in excess of one hundred fifty pounds per square inch and extending a distance of not less than five miles or future anticipated extension of an overall distance of five miles.

Such publication shall be considered notice to landowners whose residence is not known.

No person, company, or corporation seeking rights under this chapter shall negotiate or purchase any easements or other interests in land in any county known to be affected by the proposed project prior to the informational meeting. It may grant such permit in whole or in part upon such terms, conditions and restrictions as to safety requirements and as to location and route as may be determined by it to be just and proper. Provided, however, that before any permit shall be granted to any pipeline company proposing to engage in intrastate commerce, the commission shall, after a public hearing as provided in this chapter, determine whether the services proposed to be rendered will promote the public convenience and necessity, and an affirmative finding to such effect shall be a condition precedent to the granting of such permit. [C31, §8338-d10; C35, §8338-f25; C39, §8338-33; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §490.12]

Any pipe-line company having secured a permit for underground storage of gas as in this chapter provided shall be vested with the right of eminent domain to such extent as may be necessary and as prescribed and approved by said state commerce commission in order to appropriate for its use for the underground storage of gas any subsurface stratum or formation in any land which the commission shall have found to be suitable and in the public interest for the underground storage of gas, and in connection therewith may appropriate such other interests in property, as may be required adequately to examine, prepare, maintain and operate such underground gas storage facilities. The right of appropriation hereby granted shall be without prejudice to the rights of the owner of said lands or of other rights or interests therein to drill or bore through the underground stratum or formation so appropriated in such manner as shall comply with orders, rules and regulations of the commission issued for the purpose of protecting underground storage strata or formations against pollution and against the escape of gas therefrom and shall be without prejudice to the rights of the owner of said lands or other rights or interests therein as to all other uses thereof.

If agreement cannot be made with the private owner of lands as to damages caused by the construction of said pipe line and/or gas storage facilities, the same proceedings shall be taken as provided for taking private property for works of internal improvement.

Nothing in this chapter shall authorize the condemnation of a pipe line longitudinally on, over or under any railroad right of way or public highway, or at other than an approximate right angle to such railroad track or public highway without the consent of such railroad company, the highway commission or board of supervisors, as the case may be, nor shall any provision of this chapter authorize or give the right of condemnation or eminent domain for such purposes. [C31,§8338-d23; C35,§8338-f38; C39,§8338-46; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§490.25]
§490.26 Damages. Pipe-line companies operating pipe lines and/or a gas storage area shall have reasonable access to the same for the purpose of constructing, reconstructing, enlarging, repairing, or locating their pipes, pumps, pressure apparatus or other stations, wells, devices or equipment used in or upon such line or gas storage area, but shall pay to the owner of such lands for the right of entry thereon and the owner of crops thereon all damages caused by entering, using or occupying said lands for said purposes; and shall pay to the owner or owners of such lands all damages caused after the completion of construction of said pipe line on account of wash or erosion of the soil at or along the location of said pipe line by reason of the construction thereof upon said lands on account of the settling of the soil along and above said pipe line, provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the execution of an agreement between the pipe-line company and the owner of said land or crops with reference to the use thereof. [C31,§8338-d26; C35,§8338-f39; C39, §8338-47] C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§490.26

§490.27 Financial condition of permittee — bond. Before any permit is granted under the provisions of this chapter the applicant must satisfy the state commerce commission that the applicant has property within this state other than pipe lines, subject to execution of a value in excess of fifty thousand dollars, or said applicant must file and maintain with said commission a surety bond in the penal sum of fifty thousand dollars with surety approved by the commission, conditioned that said applicant will pay any and all damages legally recovered against it growing out of the construction or operation of its said pipe line and gas storage facilities in the state of Iowa. When such pipe-line company deposits its with said state commerce commission security satisfactory to said commission as a guaranty for the payment of said damages, or furnishes to said commission satisfactory proofs of its solvency and financial ability to pay said damages, the said pipe-line company shall be relieved of the said provisions requiring bond. [C31,§8338-d27; C35,§8338-f40; C39, §8338-48; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§490.27; 61GA, ch 1099,§2] Referred to in §490.4

§490.28 Venue—service of original notice. In all cases arising under this chapter the district court of any county, through which said pipe-line company is located, shall have jurisdiction; and service of original notice on the pipe-line company therein shall be had and made upon the chairman of the state commerce commission. [C31,§8338-d28; C35,§8338-f41; C39,§8338-49; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §490.28]

§490.29 Orders—enforcement. If said pipe-line company fails to obey an order within a time prescribed by the said state commerce commission that said order be obeyed, the state commerce commission may petition the district court of the county where said defective, unsafe, or dangerous portion of said pipe line, device, apparatus or equipment is located to compel compliance with its said order. If, after due trial of said action the court finds that said order is reasonable, equitable and just, it shall decree a mandatory injunction compelling obedience to and compliance with said order and may grant such other relief as may be just and proper. Appeal from said decree may be taken in the same manner as in other actions. [C31, §8338-d30; C35,§8338-f42; C39,§8338-50; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71,§490.29] Appeal in civil actions, ch 696

§490.31 Civil penalty. Any person who violates any provision of this chapter or any regulation issued pursuant to this chapter shall be subject to a civil penalty of not to exceed one thousand dollars for each violation. Each day that the violation continues shall constitute a separate offense. However, the maximum civil penalty shall not exceed two hundred thousand dollars for any related series of violations.

Any civil penalty may be compromised by the state commerce commission. In determining the amount of the penalty, or the amount agreed upon in compromise, the appropriateness of the penalty to the size of the business of the person charged, the gravity of the violation, and the good faith of the person charged in attempting to achieve compliance, after notification of a violation, shall be considered. The amount of the penalty, when finally determined, or the amount agreed upon in compromise, may be deducted from any sums owed by the state to the person charged, or may be recovered in a civil action. [C71, §490.31]

§490.32 Rehearing and appeal. Rehearing and appeal procedures for any person, company, or corporation aggrieved by the action of the commission in granting or failing to grant a permit under the provisions of this chapter shall be as provided in sections 490A.12 through 490A.19, inclusive. [C71, §490.32]

§490.33 Authorized federal aid. The state commerce commission may enter into agreements with and receive moneys from the United States department of transportation for the enforcement of the applicable standards of pipe-line safety as provided by Public Law 90-481, the Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act of 1968 (49 United States Code 1671-1684). [C71,§490.33]
CHAPTER 490A
PUBLIC UTILITY REGULATION
Referred to in §§490A.15, 490A.23

490A.1 Applicability of authority. The Iowa state commerce commission shall regulate the rates and services of public utilities to the extent and in the manner hereinafter provided.

As used in this chapter, "public utility" shall include any person, partnership, business association, or corporation, domestic or foreign, owning or operating any facilities for:

1. Furnishing gas by piped distribution system or electricity to the public for compensation.
2. Furnishing communications services to the public for compensation.
3. Furnishing water by piped distribution system to the public for compensation.

Mutual telephone companies in which at least fifty percent of the users are owners, telephone companies having less than two thousand stations, municipally-owned utilities, unincorporated villages which own their own distribution system, and co-operative corporations or associations shall not be subject to the rate regulation provided for in this chapter; provided, however, that nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to apply to municipally-owned water works or rural water districts incorporated and organized pursuant to chapters 357A and 501A. Telephone companies otherwise exempt from rate regulation and having telephone exchange facilities which cross state lines may elect, in writing, filed with the commission, to have their rates regulated by the commission. When such election, in writing, has been filed with the commission, the commission shall assume rate regulation jurisdiction over said companies. [C66, 71,§490A.1; 64GA, ch 1100,§1]

490A.2 Powers—rules. The commission shall have broad general powers to effect the purposes of this chapter notwithstanding the fact that certain specific powers are hereinafter set forth. The commission shall have authority to issue subpoenas and pay the same fees and mileage as are payable to witnesses in the courts of record of general jurisdiction and shall establish all needful, just and reasonable rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, to govern the exercise of its powers and duties. The practice and procedure before it, and to govern the form, contents and filing of reports, documents and other papers provided for in this chapter or in the commission’s rules and regulations. In the establishment, amendment, alteration or repeal of any such rules and regulations, the commission shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 17A.

The commission shall employ at rates of compensation consistent with current standards in industry such professionally trained engineers, accountants, attorneys, and skilled examiners and inspectors, secretaries, clerks, and other employees as it may find necessary for the full and efficient discharge of its duties and responsibilities as required by this chapter.

The commission is hereby authorized and empowered to intervene in any proceedings before the federal power commission or any other federal or state regulatory body when it finds that any decision of such tribunal would adversely affect the costs of any public utility service within the state of Iowa.

The commission shall have authority to inquire into the management of the business of all public utilities, and shall keep itself informed as to the manner and method in which the same is conducted, and may obtain from any public utility all necessary information to enable the commission to perform its duties. [C66, 71,§490A.2]

490A.3 Complaints—investigation. Every public utility shall furnish reasonably adequate service at rates and charges in accordance with tariffs filed with the commission. Whenever there is filed with the commission by any person or body politic, or filed by the commission upon its own motion, a written complaint requesting the commission to determine the reasonableness of the rates, charges, schedules, service, regulations, or anything done or omitted to be done by any public utility subject to this chapter, in contravention of the provisions thereof, such written complaint thus made shall be forwarded by the commission to such public utility which shall be called upon to satisfy the complaint or to answer the same in writing within a reasonable time to be specified by the commission. If such public utility shall not satisfy the commission with respect to the complaint within the time specified and there shall appear to be any reasonable ground for investigating said complaint, it shall be the duty of the commission to promptly initiate a formal proceeding. Such a formal proceeding may be initiated at any time by the commission on its own motion. Whenever such a proceeding has been initiated upon application or motion, the commission shall set the case for hearing and give such notice thereof as it deems appropriate. Whenever the commission, after a hearing held after reasonable notice, finds any public utility’s rates, charges, schedules, service or regulations to be unjust, unreasonable, discriminatory or otherwise in violation of any provision of law, the commission shall determine just, reasonable and nondiscriminatory rates, charges, schedules, service or regulations to be thereafter observed and enforced. [C66, §490A.3]

490A.4 Tariffs filed. Every public utility shall file with the commission tariffs showing the rates and charges for its public utility services and the rules and regulations under which such services were furnished, on April 1, 1963, which rates and charges shall be subject to investigation by the commission as provided in section 490A.3, and upon such investigation the burden of establishing the reasonableness of such rates and charges shall be upon the public utility filing the same. These filings shall be made under such rules as the commission may prescribe within such time and in such form as the commission may designate. In prescribing rules and regulations with respect to the form of tariffs, the commission shall, in the case of public utilities subject to regulation by any federal agency, give due regard to any corresponding rules and regulations of such federal agency, to the end that unnecessary duplication of effort and expense may be avoided so far as reasonably possible. Each public utility shall keep copies of its tariffs open to public inspection under such rules as the commission may prescribe.

Every rate, charge, rule and regulation contained in any filing made with the commission on or prior to July 4, 1963, shall be effective as of such date, subject, however, to investigation as herein provided. If any such filing is made prior to the time the commission prescribes rules as aforesaid, and if such filing does not comply as to form or substance with such rules, then the public utility which filed the same shall within a reasonable time after the adoption of such rules make a new filing or filings complying with such rules, which new filing or filings shall be deemed effective as of July 4, 1963. [C66, §490A.4]

490A.5 Adherence to schedules—discounts. No public utility subject to rate regulation shall directly or indirectly charge a greater or less compensation for its services than that prescribed in its tariffs, and no such public utility shall make or grant any unreasonable preferences or advantages as to rates or services to any person or subject any person to any unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit any public utility furnishing communications services from providing any service rendered by it without charge or at reduced rate to any of its active or retired officers, directors, or employees, or such officers, directors or employees of other public utilities furnishing communications services. Provided, however, said service is for personal use, and not for engaging in a business for profit. [C66, §190A.5]

490A.6 Change of rates—hearing. No public utility subject to rate regulation shall make effective any new or changed rate, charge, schedule or regulation except by filing the same with the commission at least thirty days prior to the effective date thereof. The commission, for good cause shown, may allow changes in rates, charges, schedules or regulations to become effective on less than thirty days’ notice.

All public utilities, including those exempted from rate regulation by the provisions of section 490A.1, shall give written notice of any proposed increase of any rate or charge to all affected customers served by the public utility at least thirty days prior to the effective date thereof. If the public utility is subject to rate regulation, the notice to affected customers shall also state that the customer has a right to file a written objection to such rate increase and that he may request the commission to hold a public hearing to determine if such rate increase should be allowed. The commission shall prescribe the manner and method that the written notice to each affected customer of the public utility shall be served.

Nothing in this chapter shall be taken to prohibit a public utility from establishing a sliding scale of rates and charges or from making provision for the automatic adjustment of rates and charges for public utility service provided that a schedule showing such sliding scale or automatic adjustment of rates and charges is first filed with the commission.

Whenever there is filed with the commission by any public utility subject to rate regulation any new or changed rates, charges, schedules or regulations, the commission may, prior to the effective date thereof, docket the case as a formal proceeding and set the case for hearing. The commission shall give such notice of such formal proceeding as it deems appropriate.

After the initiation of such formal proceedings and pending the final decision thereon, the commission may, at any time before they become effective, suspend the operation of such new or changed rates, charges, schedules or regulations, but not for a period longer than twelve months from the date when they would have become effective if not suspended.

However, a public utility shall have the right at any time after said rates, charges, schedules or regulations have been suspended for ninety days to place in effect any or all of such suspended rates, charges, schedules or regulations by filing with the commission a bond or other undertaking approved by the commission conditioned upon the refund in a manner to be prescribed by the commission of any amounts collected thereunder in excess of the amounts which would have been collected under rates, charges, schedules or regulations finally approved by the commission. The commission shall establish a rate of interest to be paid by a public utility to persons receiving refunds. Such rate of interest shall be not less than five percent per annum, nor more than nine percent per annum.

If, after hearing and decision on all issues presented for determination in such rate proceeding, the commission shall find the rates, charges, schedules or regulations of the utility to be unlawful, the same shall be set aside and the commission shall by order authorize and direct the utility to file rates, charges, schedules or regulations which, when approved by the commission and placed in effect, will satisfy the requirements of this chapter. The rates, charges, schedules or regulations so approved shall be lawful and effective unless changed as herein provided. In the event a petition for rehearing is filed or an appeal is taken from an order concerning rates, charges, schedules or regulations which are in effect under bond, those rates, charges, schedules or regulations may be continued in effect by the commission upon application or motion, the commission shall have such rates, charges, schedules or regulations to be thereafter observed and enforced.

490A.8 Utility charges and service. Every public utility is required to furnish reasonably adequate service and facilities. The charge made by any public utility for any heat, light, gas, water or power produced, transmitted, delivered or furnished, or communications services, or for any service rendered or to be rendered in connection therewith shall be reasonable and just, and every unjust or unreasonable charge for such service is prohibited and declared unlawful. In determining reasonable and just rates, the commission shall consider all factors relating to value and shall not be bound by rate base decisions or rulings made prior to the adoption of this chapter.

The commission, in determining the value of materials or services to be included in valuations or costs of operations for rate-making purposes, may disallow any unreasonable profit made in the sale of materials to or services supplied for any public utility an application requesting a refund. Such rate of interest shall be not less than five percent per annum, nor more than nine percent per annum.

If, after hearing and decision on all issues presented for determination in such rate proceeding, the commission shall find the rates, charges, schedules or regulations of the utility to be unlawful, the same shall be set aside and the commission shall by order authorize and direct the utility to file rates, charges, schedules or regulations which, when approved by the commission and placed in effect, will satisfy the requirements of this chapter. The rates, charges, schedules or regulations so approved shall be lawful and effective unless changed as herein provided. In the event a petition for rehearing is filed or an appeal is taken from an order concerning rates, charges, schedules or regulations which are in effect under bond, those rates, charges, schedules or regulations may be continued in effect by the commission upon application or motion, the commission shall have such rates, charges, schedules or regulations to be thereafter observed and enforced.

490A.9 Accounts rendered to commission. 1. Every public utility shall keep and render to the commission in the manner and form prescribed by the commission uniform accounts of all business transacted.

2. Every public utility engaged directly or indirectly in any other business than that of the production, transmission or furnishing of heat, light, water or power or furnishing communications services to the public shall, if required by the commission, keep and render separately to the commission in like manner and form the accounts of all such other business, in which case all the provisions of this chapter shall apply to the books, accounts, papers and records of such other business and all profits and losses may be taken into consideration by the commission if deemed relevant to the general fiscal condition of the public utility.

3. Every public utility is required to keep and render its books, accounts, papers and records accurately and faithfully in the manner and form prescribed by the commission, and to comply with all directions of the commission relating to such books, accounts, papers and records.

4. The commission shall consult with other state and federal regulatory bodies for the purpose of eliminating accounting discrepancies with regard to the keeping of public utility accounts before prescribing any system of accounts to be kept by the public utility. [C66, 71, §490A.9]

490A.10 Investigations—expense. Whenever the commission shall deem it necessary in order to carry out the duties imposed upon it by this chapter for the purpose of determining rate matters to investigate the books, accounts, practices, and activities of, or make appraisals of the property of any public utility, or to render any engineering or accounting services to any public utility, such public utility shall pay the expense reasonably attributable to such investigation, appraisal, or service. The commission shall ascertain such expenses, and shall render a bill therefor, by certified mail, to the public utility, either at the conclusion of the investigation, appraisal, or services, or from time to time during its progress, which bill shall constitute notice of said assessment and demand payment thereof. The total amount of such expense in any one calendar year, for which any public utility shall become liable, shall not exceed two-tenths of one percent of its gross operating revenues derived from intrastate public utility operations in the last preceding calendar year.

The commission shall annually, within ninety days after the close of each fiscal year, ascertain the total of its expenditures during each year which are reasonably attributable to the performance of its duties under this chapter and shall deduct therefrom all amounts chargeable directly to any specific utility under any law. The remainder shall be assessed by the commission to the several public utilities in proportion to their respective gross operating revenues during the last calendar year derived from intrastate public utility operations. For public utilities exempted from rate regulation under this chapter, the assessments under this paragraph shall not exceed one-tenth of one percent of the total gross operating revenues of such public utilities during such calendar year derived from intrastate public utility operations. For public utilities exempted from rate regulation under this chapter, the assessments under this paragraph shall be computed at one-half the rate used in computing the assessment for other utilities.

Each utility shall pay the commission the amount assessed against it within thirty days from the time the commission mails notice to it of the amount due unless it shall file with the commission objections in writing setting out the grounds upon which it claims that such assessment is excessive, erroneous, unlawful, or invalid. Upon the filing of such objections the commission shall set the matter down for hearing and issue its order in accordance with its findings in such proceeding, which order shall be subject to review in the manner provided in this chapter. All amounts collected by the commission pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be deposited with the state treasurer and credited to the general fund of the state. Such amounts shall be spent in accordance with the provisions of chapter 8. [C66, 71, §490A.10; 64GA, ch 15, §2]

490A.11 Telephone tolls determined. Whenever toll connection between the lines or facilities of two or more telephone companies has been made, or is demanded under the statutes of this state and the companies concerned cannot agree as to the terms and procedures under which toll communications shall be interchanged, the commission upon complaint in writing, after hearing had upon reasonable notice, shall determine such terms and procedures. [C66, 71, §490A.11]

490A.12 Rehearings before commission. Any party, as defined in the rules and regulations promulgated by the commission as provided in section 490A.2 hereof, to a proceeding before the commission may within twenty days after the entry of the order apply for a rehearing. The commission shall either grant or refuse an application for rehearing within twenty days after the filing of the application, or may, after giving the interested parties notice and opportunity to be heard and after consideration of all the facts, including those arising since the making of the order, abrogate or modify its order. A failure by the commission to act upon such application for rehearing within the above period shall be deemed a refusal thereof. Neither the filing of an application for rehearing nor the granting thereof shall stay the effectiveness of an order unless the commission so directs. [C66, 71, §490A.12]

Appeal to district court. Any party to any proceeding before the commission who is aggrieved by an order therein may take an appeal by serving a notice of appeal upon the adverse party or parties and the commission and by filing said notice of appeal with the clerk of the district court of any county wherein the order of the commission or some part thereof is to take effect. [C66, 71, §490A.13]

Time to appeal. If an application for rehearing has been filed, the appeal must be filed within thirty days after the application for rehearing has been refused or deemed refused because of the commission's failure to act thereon within the time hereinbefore specified. If an application for rehearing has not been filed, an appeal must be filed within thirty days after the entry of the commission's order. If an application for rehearing is granted, an appeal must be filed within thirty days after the entry of the commission's final order on rehearing. [C66, 71, §490A.14]

Transcript of papers. Upon appeal being taken, the secretary of the commission shall immediately make and certify to the district court a transcript of all papers, records and proceedings in connection with the matter including (unless there is a stipulation to the contrary) a transcript of all testimony, all exhibits or copies thereof, all pleadings, all orders, findings and opinions entered in the case. [C66, 71, §490A.15]

Referred to in §§489.32, 490.32

490A.16 No new evidence—exception. No new or additional evidence shall be introduced in the district court, but the case shall be determined by the court without a jury upon the record and evidence transferred; provided, however, that if any party shall apply to the court for leave to adduce additional evidence and shall show to the satisfaction of the court that such evidence is material and competent and that it could not have been offered before the commission or that such party was by the commission denied an opportunity to adduce it, the court shall order such evidence to be taken before the commission forthwith and shall stay further proceedings in the appeal pending return to the court of a record of such evidence. [C66, 71, §490A.16]

Referred to in §§489.32, 490.32

490A.17 Decision of court. The court may dismiss the appeal, modify or vacate the order complained of in whole or in part, or remand the matter to the commission for such further proceedings as justice may require. The court shall have jurisdiction to compel commission action unlawfully withheld or unreasonably delayed and the court shall have the power to set aside the commission action, findings and conclusions found to be:

1. Arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with law.
2. Contrary to constitutional right, power, privilege or immunity.
3. In excess of statutory jurisdiction, authority, or limitations, or short of statutory right.
4. Unsupported by substantial evidence in view of the entire record as submitted. [C66, 71, §490A.17]

Referred to in §§489.32, 490.32

490A.18 Relief pending appeal. During the pendency of an appeal the district court or supreme court may grant affirmative relief in whole or in part under bond or other undertaking and pending appeal on such terms as the court deems just, and in accordance with the practice of courts administering equity jurisprudence. [C66, 71, §490A.18]

Referred to in §§489.32, 490.32

490A.19 Appeal to supreme court. Any party may secure a review of any final judgment of the district court by appeal to the supreme court. Such appeal shall be taken in the manner provided by law governing appeals from the district court in other civil cases. [C66, 71, §490A.19]

Referred to in §§489.32, 490.32

PUBLIC UTILITY REGULATION, §490A.23

490A.20 Violations stopped. Whenever the commission shall be of the opinion that any public utility or any other person is violating this chapter or any order of the commission, the commission may commence an action in the district court for the county in which such violation is alleged to have occurred, to have such violation stopped and prevented by injunction, mandamus or other appropriate remedy. [C66, 71, §490A.20]

490A.21 Extent of jurisdiction. The jurisdiction and powers of the commission shall extend as hereinbefore provided to the utility business of public utilities operating within this state to the full extent permitted by the Constitution and laws of the United States. [C66, 71, §490A.21]

490A.22 Annual report. The Iowa state commerce commission shall include in its annual report required under sections 17.1 and 17.10 among other matters, to the extent such regulation is conferred upon the commission by this chapter, the following:

1. A complete financial report of receipts and expenditures, including list of public utilities and separately the amount of total fees and assessments paid by each.
2. A list of the applications, subject and disposition of each docket number under this chapter, including commission fees for such docket assessed by the commission. [C66, 71, §490A.22]

Annual report, §17.10

490A.23 Cities and towns—conflict of service. The application of section 397.28 to public utilities, as defined in this chapter, with respect to the regulating of rates and services of such public utilities to the extent such jurisdiction and powers are conferred upon the commission in this chapter is hereby repealed. All rights of municipal corporations to franchise and regulate use of streets, alleys and other public property, and all rights acquired by franchise or agreement shall be preserved in such municipalities, excepting only the duties and jurisdiction conferred upon the commission in this chapter. Whenever the corporate boundaries of any city or town are extended utility service, as defined in section 390A.1, shall be provided in such extended area by the public utility or the municipally owned utility serving such city or town immediately prior to the extension of such boundaries. In the event service is provided, in such extended area, at the time of the extension of the corporate boundaries, by a public utility which does not have a municipal franchise for such city or town, the facilities located within such extended area shall be purchased at the end of six years from the date the corporate boundaries shall have been extended by the franchised public utility of such city or town or by the municipal utility serving such city or town and the municipal franchised public utility or municipally owned utility shall furnish such service without interruption upon the acquisition thereof. The franchised or municipally owned utility shall pay to the utility serving in the annexed area the fair and reasonable value of its properties within such annexed area by exchange of other electric utility property outside such city or town on a fair and reasonable basis giving due consideration to revenue from and value of the respective properties. In the event the public utilities involved are unable to agree as to the terms of such exchange, either utility may file an application with the commission requesting that the commission determine such fair and reasonable terms for such exchange. After notice and hearing the commission shall determine fair and reasonable terms for such exchange, or in the event no appropriate properties can be exchanged the commission shall fix and determine the fair and reasonable value of the property within the annexed area, and such transfer shall be made as directed by the commission. Until such determination by the commission, the facilities shall remain in place and service to the public shall be maintained by the owner. However, the utility not having a municipal franchise and serving such annexed area shall not extend service to any additional points of delivery within such annexed area if the commission, after notice and hearing, with due consideration of any unnecessary duplication of facilities, shall determine that such extension is not in the public interest. Provided, however, that production, generation, high-voltage transmission facilities and high-voltage transformers owned by a utility in territory annexed to a city or town shall be exempt from the operation of this section, and provided further that if a public utility not having a municipal franchise at the time of the extension of the corporate boundaries subsequently acquires a municipal franchise as contemplated by chapter 397 within six years of the extension of the corporate boundaries such utility shall be exempt from the operation of this section. All other laws and parts of laws inconsistent with this chapter are hereby repealed; provided, however, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to repeal or impair any provision of chapter 397, except as expressly provided in this section with respect to section 397.28. [C66, 71, §490A.23]

490A.24 Overlapping service. No public utility shall construct or extend facilities or furnish or offer to furnish electric service to the point of delivery to any consumer already receiving electric service from another public utility. No public utility shall construct or extend facilities or furnish electric service to a prospective customer not presently being served unless its existing service facilities are nearer the proposed point of delivery than the service facilities of any other utility. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, any public utility may extend electric service and transmission lines to its own utility property and facilities or to another public utility for resale, or in case the public utility closest to or presently serving the delivery point consents thereto in writing or the commission after notice and hearing, and due consideration of the preference of the consumer, finds that service from a utility other than the closest utility is in the public interest. [C66, 71, §490A.21]

490A.26 Abandonment of service. No utility shall, except in cases of emergency, discontinue, reduce, or impair service to a community, or a part of a community, except for nonpayment of account or violation of rules and regulations, unless and until there shall have been first obtained from the commission permission to do so. [C66, 71, §490A.26]

3. Such surviving or new corporation shall have all the rights, privileges, immunities and powers and shall be subject to all the duties and liabilities of a corporation organized under this chapter.

5. Such surviving or new corporation shall thenceforth be responsible and liable for all the liabilities and obligations of each of the corporations so merged or consolidated; and any claim existing or action or proceeding pending by or against any of such corporations may be prosecuted to judgment as if such merger or consolidation had not taken place, or such surviving or new corporation may be substituted in its place. Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of any such corporation shall be impaired by such merger or consolidation.

6. In the case of a merger, the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation shall be deemed to be amended to the extent, if any, that changes in its articles of incorporation are stated in the articles of merger; and, in the case of a consolidation, the statements set forth in the articles of consolidation and which are required or permitted to be set forth in the articles of incorporation of corporations organized under this chapter shall be deemed to be the articles of incorporation of the new corporation.

7. The aggregate amount of the net assets of the merging or consolidating corporations which was available for the payment of dividends immediately prior to such merger or consolidation, to the extent that the amount thereof is not transferred to stated capital by the issuance of shares or otherwise, shall continue to be available for the payment of dividends by such surviving or new corporation. c. An agreement that it will promptly pay to the dissenting shareholders of any such domestic corporation the amount, if any, to which they shall be entitled under the provisions of this division with respect to the rights of dissenting shareholders.

Insofar as the state of Iowa is concerned, the effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations, if the surviving or new corporation is to be governed by the laws of this state. If the surviving or new corporation is to be governed by the laws of any state other than this state, the effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations except insofar as the laws of such other state provide otherwise.

If a shareholder of a corporation which is a party to a merger or consolidation shall file with such corporation, prior to or at the meeting of shareholders at which the plan of merger or consolidation is submitted to a vote, a written objection to such plan of merger or consolidation, and shall not vote in favor thereof, and such shareholder, within twenty days after the merger or consolidation is effected, shall make written demand on the surviving or new corporation for payment of the fair value of his shares as of the day prior to the date on which the vote was taken approving the merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation shall pay to such shareholder, upon surrender of his certificate or certificates representing said shares, such fair value thereof. Such demand shall state the number and class of the shares owned by such dissenting shareholder. Any shareholder failing to make demand within the twenty-day period shall be conclusively presumed to have consented to the merger or consolidation and shall be bound by the terms thereof.

If within thirty days after the date on which such merger or consolidation was effected the value of such shares is agreed upon between the dissenting shareholder and the surviving or new corporation payment therefor shall be made within ninety days after the date on which such merger or consolidation was effected, upon the surrender of his certificate or certificates representing said shares. Upon payment of the agreed value thereof or certificates representing said shares. Upon payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares, or in the surviving or new corporation. Such shares may be held and disposed of by the surviving or new corporation as it may see fit. Unless the dissenting shareholder shall file such petition within the time herein limited, such shareholder and all persons claiming under him shall be conclusively presumed to have approved and ratified the merger or consolidation and shall be bound by the terms thereof.

The right of a dissenting shareholder to be paid the fair value of his shares as herein provided shall cease if and when the corporation shall abandon the merger or consolidation.

Shares acquired by the corporation pursuant to the payment of the agreed value thereof or to the payment of judgment entered therefor as in this section provided may be held and disposed of by the corporation as it shall see fit. [C50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71, §191.112]

Stock without par value which is preferred as to dividends, or as to its distributive share of the assets of the corporation upon dissolution, may be made subject to redemption at such times and prices as may be determined in such articles of incorporation, or any amendment thereto. In the case of stock without par value which is preferred as to dividends or for its distributive share of the assets of the corporation upon dissolution, the amount of such preference shall be stated in the articles of incorporation, or any amend­ment thereto. [C31, 35,§8419-c1; C39,§8419.01; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71,§493.1]

In any such case in which stock having a par value shall have been issued with stock without par value for specified combined consideration, in determining the amount of the capital stock issued and represented by shares of stock without par value the then book value of such stock having a par value shall first be deducted from the amount of the money or actual value of the consideration determined as aforesaid, and the excess thereof, if any, shall be taken to be the amount of capital stock represented by the shares of stock without par value so issued. [C31, 35,§8419-c3; C39,§8419.03; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71,§493.3]

In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the board of directors in fixing and determining such sale value shall be conclusively as to the creditors and stockholders. Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to repeal the law as it now appears in sections 492.6, 492.7, and 192.8 [C31, 35,§8419-c1; C39,§8419.01; C46, 50, 51, 58, 62, 66, 71,§493.4]

§496A.4 General powers. Each corporation, unless otherwise stated in its articles of incorporation, shall have power:

1. To have perpetual succession by its corporate name unless a limited period of duration is stated in its articles of incorporation.
2. To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name.
3. To have a corporate seal which may be altered at pleasure, and to use the same by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed or affixed or in any other manner reproduced.
4. To purchase, take, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use and otherwise deal in and with, real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated.
5. To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.
6. To lend money and use its credit to assist its employees. A corporation shall not lend money to or use its credit to assist its directors without authorization in the particular case by its shareholders, but may lend money to and use its credit to assist any employee of the corporation or of a subsidiary including any such employee who is a director of the corporation, if the board of directors decides that such loan or assistance may benefit the corporation.
7. To purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares or other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, associations, partnerships or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States or of any other government, state, territory, governmental district or municipality or of any instrumentality thereof.
8. To make contracts and guaranties and incur liabilities, borrow money at such lawful rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property, franchises and income, and to guarantee the obligations of other persons.
9. To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.
10. To conduct its business, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted by this chapter within or without this state.
11. To elect or appoint officers and agents of the corporation, and define their duties and fix their compensation.
12. To make and alter bylaws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the corporation.
13. To make donations for the public welfare, or for religious, charitable, scientific or educational purposes.
14. To transact any lawful business which the board of directors shall find will be in aid of governmental authority.
15. To pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit-sharing plans, stock-bonus plans, stock-option plans and other incentive, insurance and welfare plans for any or all of its directors, officers and employees.
16. To cease its corporate activities and surrender its corporate franchise.
17. To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect its purposes.
18. To enter into general partnerships, limited partnerships, whether the corporation be a limited or general partner, joint ventures, syndicates, pools, associations and other arrangements for carrying on of any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized, jointly or in common with others.
19. To make indemnification to the following extent and under the following circumstances:
   a. To indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.
   b. To indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation... as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or another enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

c. To the extent that a director, officer, employee, or agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in paragraphs "a" and "b", or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

d. Any indemnification under paragraphs "a" and "b" (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that the indemnification of the director, officer, employee, or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in paragraphs "a" and "b". Such determination shall be made (1) by the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit, or proceeding, or (2) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (3) by the shareholders.

e. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit, or proceeding as authorized in the manner provided in paragraph "d" upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee, or agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this section.

The indemnification provided by this section shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person.

g. A corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this section. [C62, 66, §496A.4; 64GA, ch 1109, §§1, 9]

496A.5 Right of corporation to acquire and dispose of its own shares. A corporation shall have the right to purchase, take, receive, or otherwise acquire, hold, own, pledge, transfer, or otherwise dispose of its own shares, but purchases of its own shares, whether direct or indirect, shall be made only to the extent of surplus.

Notwithstanding the foregoing limitation, a corporation may purchase or otherwise acquire its own shares for the purpose of:

1. Eliminating fractional shares.
2. Collecting or compromising indebtedness to the corporation.
3. Paying dissenting shareholders entitled to payment for their shares under the provisions of this chapter.
4. Effecting, subject to the other provisions of this chapter, the retirement of its redeemable shares by redemption or by purchase at not to exceed the redemption price.

No purchase or payment for its own shares shall be made at a time when the corporation is insolvent or when such purchase or payment would make it insolvent. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.5]

496A.6 Defense of ultra vires. No act of a corporation and no conveyance or transfer of real or personal property to or by a corporation shall be invalid by reason of the fact that the corporation was without capacity or power to do such act or to make or receive such conveyance or transfer, but such lack of capacity or power may be asserted:

1. In a proceeding by a shareholder against the corporation to enjoin the doing of any act or acts or the transfer of real or personal property by or to the corporation. If the unauthorized acts or transfer sought to be enjoined are being, or are to be, performed or made pursuant to any contract to which the corporation is a party, the court may, if it deems the same to be equitable, set aside and enjoin the performance of such contract, without prejudice to the rights of persons not parties to the proceeding, and in so doing may allow to the corporation or to the other parties to the contract, as the case may be, compensation for the loss or damage sustained by either of them which may result from the action of the court in setting aside and enjoining the performance of such contract, but anticipated profits to be derived from the performance of the contract shall not be awarded by the court as a loss or damage sustained.

2. In a proceeding by the corporation, whether acting directly or through a receiver, trustee, or other legal representative, or through shareholders in a representative suit, against the incumbent or former officers or directors of the corporation.

3. In a proceeding by the attorney general, as provided in this chapter, to dissolve the corporation, or in a proceeding by the attorney general to enjoin the corporation from the transaction of unauthorized business. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.6]

§496A.6, BUSINESS CORPORATIONS

496A.7 Corporate name. The corporate name:

1. Shall contain the word “corporation”, “company”, “incorporated” or “limited” or shall contain an abbreviation of one of such words.

2. Shall not contain any word or phrase which indicates or implies that it is organized for any purpose other than one or more of the purposes contained in its articles of incorporation.

3. Shall not be the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state or any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, or a name the exclusive right to which is, at the time, reserved in the manner provided in this chapter, or the name of a corporation which has in effect a registration of its corporate name as provided in this chapter, or an assumed name which has been adopted by a domestic or a foreign corporation for use in this state in the manner provided by this chapter except that this provision shall not apply if the applicant files with the secretary of state either of the following:

   a. The written consent of such other corporation or holder of a reserved or registered name to use the same or deceptively similar name and one or more words are added to make such name distinguishable from the other name.

   b. A certified copy of final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the prior right of the applicant to the use of such name in this state. A corporation with which an other domestic or foreign corporation is merged, or which is formed by the reorganization or consolidation of one or more domestic or foreign corporations or upon a sale, lease or other disposition to or exchange with a domestic corporation of all or substantially all the assets of another domestic or foreign corporation, including its name or assumed name, may have the same name as that used in this state by any of such corporations if such other corporation was organized under the laws of or is authorized to transact business in this state.

4. Shall be the name under which the corporation shall transact business in this state unless the corporation also shall elect to adopt one or more assumed names as provided in this chapter.

5. A corporation may elect to adopt an assumed name that is not the same as or deceptively similar to the corporate name of any other domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state or of any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, or the same as or deceptively similar to any name registered or reserved under the provisions of this chapter.

Such election shall be made by filing with the secretary of state an application executed by an officer of the corporation, setting forth such assumed name and paying to the secretary of state a filing fee of twenty dollars.

If such assumed name complies with the provisions of this chapter the secretary of state shall issue a certificate authorizing the use of said name, but such certificate shall not confer any right to the use of said name as against any person having any prior right to the use thereof.

At the time annual license fees are payable under this chapter, a corporation which has elected to adopt an assumed name shall pay to the secretary of state an annual fee of five dollars for such assumed name. However, if the assumed name was filed and became effective in December of any year, the first annual fee of five dollars shall be paid at the time of filing of the annual report in the second year following such December.

If the corporation fails to pay the annual fee when due and payable, the secretary of state shall give notice to the corporation of such nonpayment by registered or certified mail; and if such fee together with a penalty of five dollars is not paid within sixty days after such notice is mailed, the right to use such assumed name shall cease.

A separate application and annual fee shall be filed and paid for each assumed name adopted by the corporation. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.7; 64GA, ch 1109, §2]

496A.8 Reserved name. The exclusive right to the use of a corporate name may be reserved by:

1. Any person intending to organize a corporation under this chapter.

2. Any domestic corporation intending to change its name.

3. Any foreign corporation intending to make application for a certificate of authority to transact business in this state.

4. Any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state and intending to change its name.

5. Any person intending to organize a foreign corporation and intending to have such corporation make application for a certificate of authority to transact business in this state.

The reservation shall be made by filing with the secretary of state an application to reserve a specified corporate name, executed by the applicant. If the secretary of state finds that the name is available for corporate use, he shall reserve the same for the exclusive use of the applicant for a period of ninety days.

The right to the exclusive use of a specified corporate name so reserved may be transferred to any other person or corporation by filing in the office of the secretary of state a notice of such transfer, executed by the applicant for whom the name was reserved, and specifying the name and address of the transferee. [C62, 66, 71, § 496A.8]

496A.9 Registered name. Any corporation organized and existing under the laws of any state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia may register its corporate name under this chapter, provided its corporate name is not the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state, or the name of any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, or any corporate name reserved or registered under this chapter.

Such registration shall be made by:

1. Filing with the secretary of state (a) an application for registration executed by the corporation by an officer thereof, setting forth the name of the corporation, the state or territory under the laws of which it is incorporated, the date of its incorporation, a statement that it is carrying on or doing business, and a brief statement of the business in which it is organized, and (b) a certificate setting forth that such corporation is in good standing under the laws of the state or territory wherein it is organized, executed by the secretary of state of such state or territory or by such other official as may have custody of the records pertaining to corporations, and

2. Paying to the secretary of state a registration fee in the amount of two dollars for each month, or fraction thereof, between the date of filing such application and December 31 of the calendar year in which such application is filed.

Such registration shall be effective until the close of the calendar year in which the application for registration is filed. [C62, 66, 71, § 496A.9]

496A.10 Renewal of registered name. A corporation which has in effect a registration of its corporate name, may renew such registration from year to year by annually filing an application for renewal setting forth the facts required to be set forth in an original application for registration and a certificate of good standing as required for the original registration and by paying a fee of twenty dollars. A renewal application may be filed between the first day of October and the thirty-first day of December in each year, and shall extend the registration for the following calendar year. [C62, 66, 71, § 496A.10]

496A.11 Registered office and registered agent. Each corporation shall have and continuously maintain in this state:

1. A registered office which may be, but need not be, the same as its place of business.

2. A registered agent or agents who may be either an individual or individuals resident in this state, the business office of whom shall be identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, having a business office identical with such registered office.

In addition to all other statutory provisions relating to venue, an action may be brought against any corporation in the county where its registered office is maintained; or, if a corporation fails to maintain a registered office in this state, then in any county within the state. [C62, 66, 71, § 496A.11]

496A.12 Change of registered office or registered agent. A corporation may change its registered office or change its registered agent or agents, or both office and agent or agents upon filing in the office of the secretary of state a statement setting forth:

1. The name of the corporation.

2. The address of its then registered office.

3. If the address of its registered office be changed, the address to which the registered office is to be changed.

4. The name of its then registered agent or agents.

5. If its registered agent or agents be changed, the name of its successor registered agent or agents.

6. That the address of its registered office and the address of the business office of its registered agent or agents, as changed, will be identical.

7. That such change was authorized by resolution duly adopted by its board of directors.

Such statement shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice-president, and verified by him. If the registered office is changed from one county to another, such statement shall be executed in duplicate. Such statement shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in his office, and the statement shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder; and if the registered office is changed from one county to another, the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the registered office was located prior to the filing of such statement in the office of the secretary of state, and in the office of the recorder of the county to which the registered office is changed.

If the registered office is changed from one county to another, the corporation shall also cause to be filed and recorded forthwith in the office of the recorder of the county to which such registered office is changed, its original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto, or copies thereof certified by the secretary of state, or its restated articles and all amendments thereto, or copies thereof certified by the secretary of state.

The change of address of registered office or the change of registered agent or agents or both registered office and agent or agents, as the case may be, shall become effective upon the filing of such statement by the secretary of state, but until such statement is recorded in the office of the recorder as above prescribed, service of process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served upon the person who was its registered agent at its registered office prior to the filing of such statement with the same effect and as if no change in registered office or registered agent had been made.

Any registered agent of a corporation may resign as such agent upon filing a written notice thereof, executed in duplicate, with the secretary of state, who shall record one copy and forthwith mail the other copy thereof to the corporation at its registered office. The copy recorded by the secretary of state shall be sent by him to the county recorder of the county in which the registered office is located for recording in his office. The appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expiration of thirty days after receipt of such notice by the secretary of state.

If a registered agent changes his or its business address to another place within the same county, he or it may change such address and the address of the registered office of any corporation of which he or it is a registered agent by filing a statement as required above for each corporation, or a single statement for all corporations named therein, except that it need be signed only by the registered agent or agents and need not be responsive to subsections 5 and 7 of this section, and must recite that a copy of the statement has been mailed to each such corporation. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.12]

496A.13 Service of process on corporation.

The registered agent so appointed by a corporation, or if more than one registered agent has been appointed by the corporation then any one of such agents, shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served.

Whenever a corporation shall fail to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this state, or whenever its registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the registered office, then the secretary of state shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any such process, notice, or demand may be served. Service on the secretary of state of any such process, notice, or demand shall be made by delivering it and leaving with him, his deputy, or with any person having charge of the corporation department of his office, duplicate copies of such process, notice or demand. In the event any such process, notice or demand is served on the secretary of state, he shall immediately cause one of the copies thereof to be forwarded by registered or certified mail, addressed to the corporation at its registered office. No corporation served in accordance with the procedure provided for by this paragraph shall be in default until thirty days have elapsed following such service on the secretary of state.

The secretary of state shall keep a record of all processes, notices and demands served upon him under this section, and shall record therein the time of such service and his action with reference thereto.

Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a corporation in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.13; 64GA, ch 1109, §3]

496A.14 Authorized shares. Each corporation shall have power to create and issue the number of shares stated in its articles of incorporation. Such shares may be divided into one or more classes, any or all of which classes may consist of shares with par value or shares without par value, with such designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights as shall be stated in the articles of incorporation. The articles of incorporation may limit or deny the voting rights of, or provide special voting rights for, the shares of any class to the extent not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

Without limiting the authority herein contained, a corporation, when so provided in its articles of incorporation, may issue shares of preferred or special classes:

1. Subject to the right of the corporation to redeem any of such shares at the price fixed by the articles of incorporation for the redemption thereof.

2. Entitling the holders thereof to cumulative, noncumulative or partially cumulative dividends.

3. Having preference over any other class or classes of shares as to the payment of dividends.

4. Having preference in the assets of the corporation over any other class or classes of shares upon the voluntary or involuntary liquidation of the corporation.

5. Convertible into shares of any other class or into shares of any series of the same or any other class, except a class having prior or superior rights and preferences as to dividends or distribution of assets upon liquidation, but shares without par value shall not be converted into shares with par value unless that part of the stated capital of the corporation represented by such shares without par value is, at the time of conversion, at least equal to the aggregate par value of the shares into which the shares without par value are to be converted or the amount of any such deficiency is transferred from surplus to stated capital. [C62, 66, §496A.14; 61GA, ch 1109, §4]

1. If the articles of incorporation so provide, the shares of any preferred or special class may be divided into and issued in series. If the shares of any such class are to be issued in series, then each series shall be so designated as to distinguish the shares thereof from the shares of all other series and classes. Any or all of the series of any such class and the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between different series may be fixed and determined by the articles of incorporation, but all shares of the same class shall be identical except as to the following relative rights and preferences, as to which there may be variations between different series:

a. The rate of dividend.

b. The price at and the terms and conditions on which shares may be redeemed.

c. The amount payable upon shares in event of involuntary liquidation.

d. The amount payable upon shares in event of voluntary liquidation.

e. Sinking fund provisions for the redemption or purchase of shares.

f. The terms and conditions on which shares may be converted, if the shares of any series are issued with the privilege of conversion.

g. Voting rights, if any.

2. If the articles of incorporation shall expressly vest authority in the board of directors, then, to the extent that the articles of incorporation shall not have established series and fixed and determined the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series, the board of directors shall have authority to divide any or all of such classes into series and, within the limitations set forth in this section and in the articles of incorporation, fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series so established.

In order for the board of directors to establish a series, where authority so to do is contained in the articles of incorporation, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the designation of the series and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof, or so much thereof as shall not be fixed and determined by the articles of incorporation.

Prior to the issue of any shares of a series established by resolution adopted by the board of directors, the corporation shall file in the office of the secretary of state a statement setting forth:

a. The name of the corporation.

b. A copy of the resolution establishing and designating the series, and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof.

c. The date of adoption of such resolution.

d. That such resolution was duly adopted by the board of directors.

Such statement shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of the officers signing such statement, and shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in his office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder.

Upon the filing of such statement by the secretary of state, the resolution establishing and designating the series and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof shall become effective and shall constitute an amendment of the articles of incorporation. [C62, 66, §496A.15]

496A.16 Subscriptions for shares. A subscription for shares of a corporation to be organized shall be irrevocable for a period of six months, unless otherwise provided by the terms of the subscription agreement or unless all of the subscribers consent to the revocation of such subscription.

Unless otherwise provided in the subscription agreement, subscriptions for shares, whether made before or after the organization of a corporation, shall be paid in full at such time, or in such installments and at such times, as shall be determined by the board of directors. Any call made by the board of directors for payment on subscriptions shall be uniform as to all shares of the same class or as to all shares of the same series, as the case may be. [C62, 66, §496A.16]

496A.17 Consideration for shares. Shares having a par value may be issued for such consideration expressed in dollars, not less than the par value thereof, as shall be fixed from time to time by the board of directors.

Shares without par value may be issued for such consideration expressed in dollars as may be fixed from time to time by the board of directors unless the articles of incorporation reserve to the shareholders the right to fix the consideration. In the event that such right be reserved as to any shares, the shareholders shall, prior to the issuance of such shares, fix the consideration to be received for such shares, by a vote of the holders of a majority of all shares entitled to vote thereon.

Treasury shares may be disposed of by the corporation for such consideration expressed in dollars as may be fixed from time to time by the board of directors.

That part of the surplus of a corporation which is transferred to stated capital upon the issuance of shares as a share dividend shall be deemed to be the consideration for the issuance of such shares.

In the event of the issuance of shares upon the conversion or exchange of indebtedness or shares, the consideration for the shares so issued shall be (1) the principal sum of, and accrued interest on, the indebtedness so exchanged or converted, or the stated capital then represented by the shares so exchanged or converted, (2) that part of the surplus, if any, transferred to stated capital upon the issuance of shares for the shares so exchanged or converted, and (3) any additional consideration paid to the corporation upon the issuance of shares for the indebtedness or shares so exchanged or converted. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.17]

496A.18 Payment for shares. The consideration for the issuance of shares may be paid, in whole or in part, in money, in other property, tangible or intangible, or in labor or services actually performed for the corporation. When payment of the consideration for which shares are to be issued shall have been received by the corporation, such shares shall be deemed to be fully paid and nonassessable.

Neither promissory notes of the subscriber nor future services shall constitute payment or part payment, for shares of a corporation.

In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the board of directors or the shareholders, as the case may be, as to the value of the consideration received for shares shall be conclusive. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.18]

496A.19 Stock rights and options. Subject to any provisions in respect thereof set forth in its articles of incorporation, a corporation may create and issue, whether or not in connection with the issuance and sale of any of its shares or other securities, rights or options entitling the holders thereof to purchase from the corporation shares of any class or classes. Such rights or options shall be evidenced in such manner as the board of directors shall approve and, subject to the provisions of the articles of incorporation, shall set forth the terms upon which, the time or times within which and the price or prices at which such shares may be purchased from the corporation upon the exercise of any such right or option. If such rights or options are to be issued to the directors, officers or employees, as such, of the corporation, or of any subsidiary thereof, their issuance shall be approved by a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon, at a duly constituted meeting or authorized by, and consistent with, a plan approved by such a vote of shareholders and, in every instance, such approval or plan shall be set forth or incorporated by reference in the instrument or instruments evidencing such rights or options. In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the board of directors as to the adequacy of the consideration received for such rights or options shall be conclusive.

The price or prices to be received for any shares having a par value shall not be less than the par value thereof. The provisions of this section shall not limit the right of the corporation to grant rights and options with respect to treasury shares. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.19]

496A.20 Determination of amount of stated capital. In case of the issuance by a corporation of shares having a par value, the consideration received therefor shall constitute stated capital to the extent of the par value of such shares, and the excess, if any, of such consideration shall constitute surplus.

In case of the issuance by a corporation of shares without par value, the entire consideration received therefor shall constitute stated capital unless the corporation shall determine as provided in this section that only a part thereof shall be stated capital. Within a period of sixty days after the issuance of any shares without par value, the board of directors may allocate to surplus any portion of the consideration received for the issuance of such shares. No such allocation shall be made of any portion of the consideration received for shares without par value having a preference in the assets of the corporation in the event of involuntary liquidation except the amount, if any, of such consideration in excess of such preference.

The stated capital of a corporation may be increased from time to time by resolution of the board of directors directing that all or a part of the surplus of the corporation be transferred to stated capital. The board of directors may direct that the amount of the surplus so transferred shall be deemed to be stated capital in respect of any designated class of shares. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.20]

496A.21 Expenses of organization, reorganization and financing. The reasonable charges and expenses of organization or reorganization of a corporation, and the reasonable expenses of and compensation for the sale or underwriting of its shares, may be paid or allowed by such corporation out of the consideration received by it in payment for its shares without thereby rendering such shares not fully paid and nonassessable. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.21]

496A.22 Certificates representing shares. The shares of a corporation shall be represented by certificates signed by such officers, employees or agents as are authorized by the articles of incorporation or bylaws to do so. If no contrary provision is made in the articles or bylaws, such certificates shall be signed by the president or a vice-president and the secretary or an assistant secretary of the corporation, and may be sealed with the seal of the corporation or a facsimile thereof. The signatures of the president or vice-president and the secretary or assistant secretary or other persons signing for the corporation upon a certificate may be facsimiles. If the certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent, or registered by a registrar, the signatures of the persons signing for such transfer agent or registrar also may be facsimiles. In case any officer or other authorized person who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon such certificate for the corporation shall have ceased to be such officer or employee or agent before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer or employee or agent at the date of its issue.
Every certificate representing shares issued by a corporation which is authorized to issue shares, of more than one class shall set forth upon the face or back of the certificate, or shall state that the corporation will furnish to any shareholder upon request and without charge, a full statement of the designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights of the shares of each class authorized to be issued and, if the corporation is authorized to issue any preferred or special class in series, the variations in the relative rights and preferences between the shares of such series so far as the same have been fixed and determined and the authority of the board of directors to fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of subsequent series.

Each certificate representing shares shall state upon the face thereof:

1. That the corporation is organized under the laws of this state.
2. The name of the person to whom issued.
3. The number and class of shares, and the designation of the series. If any, which such certificate represents.
4. The par value of each share represented by such certificate, or a statement that the shares are without par value.

No certificate shall be issued for any share until such share is fully paid. [C02, 66, 71, §196A.22; 64GA, ch 1109,§5]

496A.23 Issuance of fractional shares or scrip. A corporation may, (1) issue fractions of a share, (2) arrange for the disposition of fractional interests by those entitled thereto, (3) pay in cash the fair value of fractions of a share as of the time when those entitled to receive such fractions are determined, or (1) issue scrip in registered or bearer form which shall entitle the holder to receive a certificate for a full share upon the surrender of such scrip aggregating a full share. A certificate for a fractional share shall, but scrip shall not unless otherwise provided therein, entitle the holder to exercise voting rights, to receive dividends thereon, and to participate in any of the assets of the corporation in the event of liquidation. The board of directors may cause such scrip to be issued subject to the condition that it shall become void if not exchanged for certificates representing full shares before a specified date or subject to the condition that the shares for which such scrip is exchangeable may be sold by the corporation and the proceeds thereof distributed to the holders of such scrip, or subject to any other conditions which the board of directors may deem advisable. [C02, 66, 71,§196A.23]

496A.24 Liability of subscribers and shareholders. A holder of or subscriber to shares of a corporation shall be under no obligation to the corporation or its creditors with respect to such shares other than the obligation to pay to the corporation the full consideration for which such shares were issued or to be issued.

Any person becoming an assignee or transferee of shares or of a subscription for shares in good faith and without knowledge or notice that the full consideration therefor has not been paid shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its creditors for any unpaid portion of such consideration.

An executor, administrator, conservator, guardian, trustee, assignee for the benefit of creditors, or receiver shall not be personally liable to the corporation as a holder of or subscriber to shares of a corporation but the estate and funds in his hands shall be so liable.

No pledgee or other holder of shares as collateral security shall be personally liable as a shareholder. [C02, 66, 71,§196A.24]

496A.25 Shareholders' pre-emptive rights. Except to the extent limited or denied by this section or by the articles of incorporation, shareholders shall have a pre-emptive right to acquire unissued or treasury shares of securities convertible into such shares or carrying a right to subscribe to or acquire shares.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation:

1. No pre-emptive right shall exist:
   a. To acquire any shares issued to directors, officers or employees pursuant to approval by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon or when authorized by and consistent with a plan approved by such a vote of shareholders.
   b. To acquire any shares sold otherwise than for cash.

2. Holders of shares of any class that is preferred or limited as to dividends or assets shall not be entitled to any pre-emptive right.

3. Holders of shares of common stock shall not be entitled to any pre-emptive right to shares of any class that is preferred or limited as to dividends or assets or to any obligations, unless convertible into shares of common stock or carrying a right to subscribe to or acquire shares of common stock.

4. Holders of common stock without voting power shall have no pre-emptive right to shares of common stock with voting power.

5. The pre-emptive right shall be only an opportunity to acquire shares or other securities under such terms and conditions as the board of directors may fix for the purpose of providing a fair and reasonable opportunity for the exercise of such right. [C02, 66, 71, §196A.25; 64GA, ch 1109,§6]

496A.26 Bylaws. The initial bylaws of a corporation shall be adopted by its board of directors. The power to alter, amend or repeal the bylaws or adopt new bylaws shall be vested in the board of directors unless reserved to the shareholders by the articles of incorporation. The bylaws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the corporation not inconsistent with law or the articles of incorpora-
§496A.26, BUSINESS CORPORATIONS

The board of directors of any corporation may adopt emergency bylaws, subject to repeal or change by action of the shareholders, which shall, notwithstanding any different provision elsewhere in this chapter or in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, be operative during any emergency in the conduct of the business of the corporation resulting from an attack on the United States or any nuclear or atomic disaster. The emergency bylaws may make any provision that may be practical and necessary for the circumstances of the emergency, including provisions that:

1. A meeting of the board of directors may be called by any officer or director in such manner and under such conditions as shall be prescribed in the emergency bylaws;

2. The director or directors in attendance at the meeting, or any greater number fixed by the emergency bylaws, shall constitute a quorum; and

3. The officers or other persons designated on a list approved by the board of directors before the emergency, all in such order of priority and subject to such conditions and for such period of time (not longer than reasonably necessary after the termination of the emergency) as may be provided in the emergency bylaws or in the resolution approving the list, shall, to the extent required to provide a quorum at any meeting of the board of directors, be deemed directors for such meeting.

The board of directors, either before or during any such emergency, may provide, and from time to time modify, lines of succession in the event that during such an emergency any or all officers or agents of the corporation shall for any reason be rendered incapable of discharging their duties.

The board of directors, either before or during any such emergency, may, effective in the emergency, change the head office or designate several alternative head offices or regional offices, or authorize the officers so to do.

To the extent not inconsistent with any emergency bylaws so adopted, the bylaws of the corporation shall remain in effect during any such emergency and upon its termination the emergency bylaws shall cease to be operative.

Unless otherwise provided in emergency bylaws, notice of any meeting of the board of directors during any such emergency may be given only to such of the directors as it may be feasible to reach at the time and by such means as may be feasible at the time, including publication or radio.

To the extent required to constitute a quorum at any meeting of the board of directors during any such emergency, the officers of the corporation who are present shall, unless otherwise provided in emergency bylaws, be deemed, in order of rank and within the same rank in order of seniority, directors for such meeting.

No officer, director or employee acting in accordance with any emergency bylaws shall be liable except for willful misconduct. No officer, director or employee shall be liable for any action taken by him in good faith in such an emergency in furtherance of the ordinary business affairs of the corporation even though not authorized by the bylaws then in effect. [C62, 66, §496A.26]

496A.27 Meetings of shareholders. Meetings of shareholders may be held at such place within or without this state as may be stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no other place is stated or fixed, meetings shall be held at the registered office of the corporation.

An annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held at such time as may be stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If the annual meeting is not held within any eighteen-month period the district court of the county wherein the registered office of the corporation is located may, upon the written application of any shareholder, order an annual meeting to be held.

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the president, the board of directors, the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting, or such other officers or persons as may be provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. [C62, 66, §496A.27; 64GA. ch 1109, §7]

496A.28 Notice of shareholders’ meetings. Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten nor more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the president, the secretary, or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting.

If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer books of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. [C62, 66, §496A.28]

496A.29 Closing of transfer books and fixing record date. For the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend, or in order to make a determination of shareholders for any other proper purpose, the board of directors of a corporation may provide that the stock transfer books shall be closed for a stated period but not to exceed, in any case, fifty days. If the stock transfer books shall be closed for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, such books shall be closed for at least ten days immediately preceding such meeting. In lieu of closing the stock transfer books, the bylaws, or in the absence of an applicable provision in the articles of incorporation, may fix in advance a date as the record date for any such determination of shareholders, such date in any case to be not more than fifty days and, in case of a meeting of shareholders, not less than ten days prior to the date on which the particular action, requiring such determination of shareholders, is to be taken. If the stock transfer books are not closed and no record date is fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, or shareholders entitled to receive payment of a dividend, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed or the date on which the resolution of the board of directors declaring such dividend is adopted, as the case may be, shall be the record date for such determination of shareholders. When a determination of shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders has been made as provided in this section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.29]

496A.30 Voting list. The officer or agent having charge of the stock transfer books for shares of a corporation shall make, at least ten days before each meeting of shareholders, a complete record of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof, arranged in alphabetical order, with the address of and the number of shares held by each, which record, for a period of ten days prior to such meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office of the corporation and shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder at any time during usual business hours. Such record shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting. The original stock transfer books shall be prima-facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such record or transfer books or to vote at any meeting of shareholders.

Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at such meeting. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.30]

496A.31 Quorum of shareholders. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of shareholders. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the shareholders, unless the vote of a greater number or voting by classes is required by this chapter or the articles of incorporation or bylaws. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.31]

496A.32 Voting of shares. Each outstanding share, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, except as may be otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation.

If the articles of incorporation provide for more or less than one vote for any share on any matter, every reference in this chapter to a majority or other proportion of shares shall refer to such majority or other proportion of votes.

Neither treasury shares nor, unless the articles of incorporation otherwise provide, shares held by another corporation if a majority of the shares entitled to vote for the election of directors of such other corporation is held by the corporation, shall be voted at any meeting or counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares at any given time.

A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy.

At each election for directors every shareholder entitled to vote at such election shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares owned by him for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election he has a right to vote, or, if the articles of incorporation specifically permit cumulative voting, to cumulate his vote either by giving one candidate as many votes as the number of such directors multiplied by the number of his shares shall equal or by distributing such votes on the same principle among any number of such candidates.

Shares standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may prescribe, or, in the absence of such provision, as the board of directors of such corporation may determine.

Shares held by an administrator, executor, guardian or conservator may be voted by him, either in person or by proxy, without a transfer of such shares into his name. Shares standing in the name of a trustee may be voted by him, either in person or by proxy, without a transfer of such shares into his name.

Shares standing in the name of a receiver may be voted by such receiver, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver may be voted by such receiver without the transfer thereof into his name if authority so to do be contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver was appointed.

A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred.

On and after the date on which written notice of redemption of redeemable shares has been mailed to the holders thereof and a sum sufficient to redeem such shares has been deposited with a bank or trust company with irrevocable instruction and authority to pay the redemption price to the holders thereof upon surrender of certificates thereof, such shares shall not be entitled to vote on any matter and shall not be deemed to be outstanding shares.

Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a corporation in its articles of incorporation from limiting or denying the right to vote by proxy. [C62, 66, 71.§196A.32]

496A.33 Voting trust. Any number of shareholders of a corporation may create a voting trust for the purpose of conferring upon a trustee or trustees the right to vote or otherwise represent their shares, for a period of not to exceed twenty years, by entering into a written voting trust agreement specifying the terms and conditions of the voting trust, by depositing a counterpart of the agreement with the corporation at its registered office, and by transferring their shares to such trustee or trustees for the purposes of the agreement. Such trustee or trustees shall keep a record of the holders of voting trust certificates evidencing a beneficial interest in the voting trust, giving the names and addresses of all such holders and the number and class of the shares in respect of which the voting trust certificates held by each are issued, and shall deposit a copy of such record with the corporation at its registered office. The counterpart of the voting trust agreement and the copy of such record so deposited with the corporation shall be subject to the same right of examination by a shareholder of the corporation, in person or by agent or attorney, as are the books and records of the corporation, and such counterpart and such copy of such record shall be subject to examination by any holder of record of voting trust certificates, either in person or by agent or attorney, at any reasonable time for any proper purpose.

Agreements among shareholders regarding the voting of their shares shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with their terms. Such agreements shall not be subject to the provisions of this section regarding voting trusts. [C62, 66, 71.§196A.33]

496A.34 Board of directors—relationship or interest in contracts. The business and affairs of a corporation shall be managed by a board of directors consisting of one or more members, except as may be otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation. If any such provision is made in the articles of incorporation, the powers and duties conferred or imposed upon the board of directors by this chapter shall be exercised or performed to such extent and by such person or persons as shall be provided in the articles of incorporation. Directors need not be residents of this state or shareholders of the corporation unless the articles of incorporation so require. The articles of incorporation may prescribe other qualifications for directors. The board of directors shall have authority to fix the compensation of directors unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation.

No contract or other transaction between a corporation and one or more of its directors or any other corporation, firm, association or entity in which one or more of its directors are directors or officers or are financially interested, shall be either void or voidable because of such relationship or interest; or because such director or directors are present at the meeting of the board of directors or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction or because his or their votes are counted for such purpose, if any of the following occur:

1. The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the board of directors or committee which authorizes, approves or ratifies the contract or transaction by a vote or consent sufficient for the purpose without counting the votes or consents of such interested director.

2. The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote and they authorize, approve or ratify such contract or transaction by vote or written consent.

3. The contract or transaction is fair and reasonable to the corporation.

Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the board of directors or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves, or ratifies such contract or transaction. [C62, 66, 71.§196A.34]

496A.35 Number and election of directors. The number of directors shall be fixed by the bylaws, except as to the number constituting the initial board of directors, which number shall be fixed by the articles of incorporation. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to the bylaws, but no decrease shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. In the absence of a bylaw fixing the number of directors, the number shall be the same as that stated in the articles of incorporation. The names and addresses of the members of the first board of directors shall be stated in the articles of incorporation. Such persons shall hold office until the first annual meeting of shareholders, and until their successors shall have been elected and qualified. At the first annual meeting of shareholders and at each annual meeting thereafter the shareholders shall elect directors to hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting, except in case of the classification of directors as permitted by this chapter. Each director shall hold office for the term for which he is elected and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified, unless removed in accordance with provisions of this chapter.
Except as otherwise provided in articles of incorporation, any or all directors may be removed, with or without cause, at a meeting called expressly for that purpose by a vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors. In the case of a corporation having cumulative voting, if less than the entire board is to be removed, no one of the directors may be removed if the votes cast against his removal would be insufficient to elect him if then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire board of directors, or, if there be classes of directors, at an election of the class of directors of which he is a part. Whenever the holders of the shares of any class are entitled to elect one or more directors by the provisions of the articles of incorporation, the provisions of this section shall apply, in respect of the removal of a director or directors so elected, to the vote of the holders of the outstanding shares of that class and not to the vote of the outstanding shares as a whole. [C62, 66, 71,§496A.35]

496A.36 Classification of directors. In lieu of electing the whole number of directors annually, the articles of incorporation may provide that the directors be divided into either two or three classes, each class to be as nearly equal in number as possible, the term of office of directors of the first class to expire at the first annual meeting of shareholders after their election, that of the second class to expire at the second annual meeting after their election, and that of the third class, if any, to expire at the third annual meeting after their election. At each annual meeting after such classification the number of directors equal to the number of the class whose term expires at the time of such meeting shall be elected to hold office until the second succeeding annual meeting, if there be two classes, or until the third succeeding annual meeting, if there be three classes. No classification of directors shall be effective prior to the first annual meeting of shareholders. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.36]

496A.39 Executive committee. If the articles of incorporation or the bylaws so provide, the board of directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the full board of directors, may designate from among its members an executive committee and one or more other committees, each of which, to the extent provided in such resolution or in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws of the corporation, shall have and may exercise all the authority of the board of directors, but no such committee shall have the authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting a plan of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders a voluntary dissolution of the corporation or a revocation thereof, or amending the bylaws of the corporation. The designation of any such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the board of directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed by law. [C62, 66, 71,§496A.39]

496A.40 Place and notice of directors' meetings—telephone conference. Meetings of the board of directors, regular or special, may be held either within or without this state. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held with or without notice as prescribed in the bylaws. Special meetings of the board of directors shall be held upon such notice as is prescribed in the bylaws. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting unless required by the bylaws.

Unless otherwise restricted by the articles of incorporation or bylaws, members of the board of directors of any corporation, or any committee designated by such board, may participate in a meeting of such board or committee by conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this provision shall constitute presence in person at such meeting. [C62, 66, 71,§496A.40; 64GA, ch 1109,§8]
§496A.41 Dividends. The board of directors of a corporation may, from time to time, declare and the corporation may pay dividends on its outstanding shares in cash, property, or in its own shares, out of unreserved surplus, subject to the following provisions:

1. No dividend shall be declared or paid at a time when the corporation is insolvent or its net assets are less than its stated capital, or when the payment thereof would render the corporation insolvent or reduce its net assets below its stated capital, or when the declaration or payment thereof would be contrary to any restrictions contained in its articles of incorporation.

2. If the articles of incorporation of a corporation engaged in the business of exploiting natural resources so provide, dividends may be declared and paid in cash out of the depletion reserves, but each such dividend shall be identified as a distribution of such reserves and the amount per share paid from such reserves shall be disclosed to the shareholders receiving the same concurrently with the distribution thereof.

3. No dividend, except a dividend payable in its own shares, shall be declared or paid out of surplus arising from unrealized appreciation in value, or revaluation, of assets. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.41]

§496A.42 Distributions in partial liquidation. A corporation, from time to time, may distribute a portion of its assets, in cash or kind, to its shareholders as a liquidating dividend, in the following manner and subject to the following restrictions:

1. The board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending the payment of a liquidating dividend, specifying the class or classes of shareholders entitled thereto and the amount thereof, and directing that the question of such distribution be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

2. Written or printed notice stating that the purpose or one of the purposes of such meeting is to consider the question of such distribution shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders. If such meeting be an annual meeting, such purpose shall be included in the notice of such meeting.

3. At such meeting a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereat shall be taken by classes on the question of the proposed distribution. The affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class shall be required for the authorization of such distribution.

4. No such distribution shall be made at a time when the corporation is insolvent or when such distribution would render the corporation insolvent.

5. No such distribution shall be made to any class of shareholders unless all cumulative dividends accrued on preferred or special classes of shares entitled to preferential dividends shall have been fully paid.

6. No such distribution shall be made to any class of shareholders which will reduce the remaining net assets below the aggregate preferential amount payable in event of voluntary liquidation to the holders of shares having preferential rights to the assets of the corporation in the event of liquidation.

7. Each such distribution, when made, shall be identified as a liquidating dividend and the amount per share shall be disclosed to the shareholders receiving the same, concurrently with the payment thereof. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.42]

§496A.43 Provisions relating to actions by shareholders. No action shall be brought in this state by a shareholder in the right of a domestic or foreign corporation unless the plaintiff was a holder of shares or of voting trust certificates therefor at the time of the transaction of which he complains, or his shares or voting trust certificates thereafter devolved upon him by operation of law from a person who was a holder at such time. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.43]

§496A.44 Liability of directors and officers in certain cases. In addition to any other liabilities imposed by law upon directors and officers of a corporation:

1. Directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to the declaration of any dividend or other distribution of the assets of a corporation to its shareholders in willful or negligent violation of the provisions of this chapter or of any restrictions contained in the articles of incorporation, shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the amount of such dividend which is paid or the value of such assets which are distributed in excess of the amount of such dividend or distribution which could have been paid or distributed without a violation of the provisions of this chapter or of the restrictions in the articles of incorporation.

2. Directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to the purchase of its own shares in willful or negligent violation of the provisions of this chapter or of any restrictions contained in the articles of incorporation, shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the amount of consideration paid for such shares which is in excess of the maximum amount which could have been paid therefor without a violation of the provisions of this chapter or of the restrictions in the articles of incorporation.

3. The directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to any distribution of assets of a corporation to its shareholders during the liquidation of the corporation without the payment and discharge of, or making adequate provision for, all known debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the value of such assets which are distributed, to the extent that such debts, obligations and liabilities of the corporation are not thereafter paid and discharged.

A director of a corporation who is present at a meeting of its board of directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he shall file his written dissent to such action with the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered or certified mail to the secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

A director shall not be liable under subsections 1, 2, or 3 of this section if he relied and acted in good faith upon financial statements of the corporation, represented to him to be correct by the president or the officer of such corporation having charge of its books of account, or stated in a written report by an independent public or certified public accountant or firm of such accountants fairly to reflect the financial condition of such corporation, nor shall he be so liable if in good faith in determining the amount available for any such dividend or distribution he considered the assets to be of their book value. If an officer willfully or negligently submits an incorrect financial statement to a director or directors, and board of directors action, contrary to the provisions of this chapter or of any restrictions in the articles of incorporation, is taken in reliance thereon, he shall be liable to the same extent as if he were a director voting for or assenting to such action. No director or officer shall be deemed to be negligent within the meaning of this section if he exercised that diligence, care and skill which an ordinarily prudent man would exercise under similar circumstances.

Any director against whom a claim shall be asserted under or pursuant to this section for the payment of a dividend or other distribution of assets of a corporation and who shall be held liable thereon, shall be entitled to contribution from the shareholders who accepted or received any such dividend or assets, knowing such dividend or distribution to have been made or not inconsistent with the bylaws. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person.

All officers and agents of the corporation, as between themselves and the corporation, shall have such authority and perform such duties in the management of the corporation as may be provided in the bylaws, or as may be determined by resolution of the board of directors not inconsistent with the bylaws.

Subject to any restrictions contained in its articles of incorporation or bylaws, the signatures of the officers of any corporation organized under this chapter, on the bonds, notes, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness of any such corporation may be facsimiles and such facsimiles on such instruments shall be deemed the equivalent of and constitute the written signatures of such officers for all purposes including, but not limited to, the full satisfaction of any signature requirements of the laws of this state on the bonds, notes, debentures and other evidence of indebtedness of any such corporation. [C62. 66, 71.§496A.45; 64GA, ch 1109, §10]

496A.46 Removal of officers. Any officer or agent may be removed by the board of directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. Election or appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. [C62. 66, 71.§496A.46]

496A.47 Books and records. Each corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall keep minutes of the proceedings of its shareholders and board of directors; and shall keep at its registered office or principal place of business, or at the office of its transfer agent or registrar, a record of its shareholders, giving the name and addresses of all shareholders and the number and class of the shares held by each. The office of any transfer agent or registrar may be maintained within or without the state of Iowa. Any books, records and minutes may be in written form or in any other form capable of being converted into written form within a reasonable time.

Any person who shall have been a holder of record of shares or of voting trust certificates therefor at least six months immediately preceding his demand, or shall be the holder of record of, or the holder of record of voting trust certificates for, at least five percent of all of the outstanding shares of a corporation, upon written demand stating the purpose thereof, shall have the right to examine, in person, or by agent or attorney, at any reasonable time or times, for any proper purpose its relevant books and records of account, minutes, and record of shareholders and make extracts therefrom.

Any officer or agent who, or a corporation which, arbitrarily or in bad faith shall refuse to allow any such shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates, or his agent or attorney, so to examine and make extracts from its books and records of account, minutes and record of shareholders, for any proper purpose, shall be liable to such shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates in a penalty of ten percent of the value of the shares owned by such shareholder, or in respect of which such voting trust certificates are issued, but not to exceed five hundred dollars, in addition to any other damages or remedy afforded him by law, but the court may decrease the amount of such penalty on a finding of mitigating circumstances. It shall be a defense to any action for penalties under this section that the person suing therefor has within two years sold or offered for sale any list of shareholders or of holders of voting trust certificates for shares of such corporation or any other corporation or has aided or abetted any person in procuring any list of shareholders or of holders of voting trust certificates for any such purpose, or has improperly used any information secured through any prior examination of the books and records of account, or minutes, or record of shareholders or of holders of voting trust certificates for shares of such corporation or any other corporation, or was not acting in good faith or for a proper purpose in making his demand.

Nothing herein contained shall impair the power of any court of competent jurisdiction, upon proof by a shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates of proper purpose, irrespective of the period of time during which such shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates shall have been a shareholder of record or a holder of record of voting trust certificates, and irrespective of the number of shares held by him or represented by voting trust certificates held by him, to compel the production for examination by such shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates of the books and records of account, minutes and record of shareholders of a corporation.

Upon the written request of any shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates for shares of a corporation, the corporation shall mail to such shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates its most recent financial statements showing in reasonable detail its assets and liabilities and the results of its operations. [C62, 66, 71,$496A.47]

496A.48 Who may incorporate. One or more persons as defined in this chapter having capacity to contract, may act as incorporators of a corporation by signing, acknowledging and delivering to the secretary of state articles of incorporation for such corporation. [C62, 66, 71,$496A.48]

496A.49 Articles of incorporation. The articles of incorporation shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation and the chapter of the Code or session laws under which incorporated.

7. Any provision limiting or denying to shareholders the pre-emptive right to acquire additional shares of the corporation and any provision giving to shareholders the pre-emptive right to acquire treasury shares of the corporation.
8. Any provision, not inconsistent with law, which the incorporators elect to set forth in the articles of incorporation for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation, including any provision restricting the transfer of shares and any provision which under this chapter is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws.

shareholders or until their successors be elected and qualify.

11. The name and address of each incorporator.

12. The date on which the corporate existence shall begin, which may be any date identified by year, month and day not more than ninety days in the future. In the absence of any statement in the articles as to date of beginning of corporate existence, such existence shall commence on the date on which the secretary of state issues the certificate of incorporation.

13. Any provision not inconsistent with law or the purposes for which the corporation is organized, which the incorporators elect to set forth; or any provision limiting any of the corporate powers enumerated in this chapter.

It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers enumerated in this chapter. [C62, 66, 71. §496A.49]

Refered to in §524.1809

496A.50 Filing and recording of articles of incorporation. The articles of incorporation shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in his office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder. The secretary of state upon the filing of such articles shall issue a certificate of incorporation and send the same to the corporation or its representative. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.50]

496A.52 Notice of incorporation. A corporation shall cause to be published within three months from the date its corporate existence begins, one publication in some newspaper published within the county wherein the registered office of the corporation is located, a notice of incorporation which shall state:

If the notice of incorporation is not published within the time herein prescribed, but is subsequently published for the required time, and proof of the publication thereof is filed with the secretary of state, the acts of such corporation prior to as well as after such publication shall be valid. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.52]

496A.53 Procedure for filing and recording of documents. If in this chapter, it is required that any document be:

2. Recorded in the office of the secretary of state, the secretary of state, upon filing thereof, shall record the same;

3. Upon receipt thereof and upon receipt of recording fees due him, such county recorder shall record and index such instrument and endorse thereon the date of filing in such county and the book and page in which recorded. The recorder of each county shall keep in his office an alphabetically subdivided index book for articles of incorporation and other instruments the recording of which in his office is provided for by this chapter, which book shall have as a minimum, columns headed with "Name of Corporation," "Place of Registered Office," "Day, Month and Year of Filing" and the reference to the book and page or other record where recorded and shall make appropriate entries in said index for each such instrument recorded by him.

10. To create new classes of shares having rights and preferences either prior and superior or subordinate and inferior to the shares of any class then authorized, whether issued or unissued.

11. To cancel or otherwise affect the right of the holders of the shares of any class to receive dividends which have accrued but have not been declared.

12. To divide any preferred or special class of shares, whether issued or unissued, into series and fix and determine the designations of such series and the variances in the relative rights and preferences as between the shares of such series.

496A.56 Procedure to amend articles of incorporation. Amendments to the articles of incorporation shall be made in the following manner:

1. The board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment and, if shares have been issued, directing that it be submitted to a vote of a meeting of shareholders, which may be either the annual or a special meeting. If no shares have been issued, the amendment shall be adopted by resolution of the board of directors and the provisions for adoption by shareholders shall not apply. The resolution may incorporate the proposed amendment in restated articles of incorporation which contain a statement that except for the designated amendment the restated articles of incorporation correctly set forth without change the corresponding provisions of the articles of incorporation as amended, and that the restated articles of incorporation together with the designated amendment supersede the original articles of incorporation and all prior amendments. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, upon the written request of the holders of at least five percent of the shares entitled to vote on amendments to articles of incorporation, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the amendment proposed by such shareholders and directing that it be submitted to the next meeting of the shareholders held not less than ninety days after the date of the filing of the request of the shareholders with the secretary of the corporation.

2. Written or printed notice setting forth the proposed amendment or a summary of the changes to be effected thereby shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote thereon within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders. If the meeting be an annual meeting, the proposed amendment or such summary may be included in the notice of such annual meeting.

3. At such meeting a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon shall be taken on the proposed amendment or, to the extent permitted by the articles of incorporation, any modification or revision thereof which shall be proposed at the meeting, and shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon, unless any class of shares is entitled to vote thereon as a class, in which event it shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of each class of shares entitled to vote thereon as a class and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon.

Any number of amendments may be submitted to the shareholders, and voted upon by them at one meeting. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.57]

496A.57 Class voting on amendments. The holders of the outstanding shares of a class shall be entitled to vote as a class upon a proposed amendment, whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the provisions of the articles of incorporation, if the amendment would:

1. Increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of such class.
2. Increase or decrease the par value of the shares of such class.
3. Effect an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of all or part of the shares of such class.
4. Effect an exchange, or create a right of exchange, of all or any part of the shares of another class into the shares of such class.
5. Change the designations, preferences, limitations or relative rights of the shares of such class.
6. Change the shares of such class, whether with or without par value, into the same or a different number of shares, either with or without par value, of the same class or another class or classes.
7. Create a new class of shares having rights and preferences prior and superior to the shares of such class, or increase the rights and preferences, or the number of authorized shares of any class having rights and preferences prior or superior to the shares of such class.
8. In the case of a preferred or special class of shares, divide the unissued shares of such class into series and fix and determine the designation of such series and the variations in the relative rights and preferences between the shares of such series, or authorize the board of directors to do so.
9. Limit or deny the existing pre-emptive rights, if any, of the shares of such class.
10. Cancel or otherwise affect dividends on the shares of such class which have accrued but have not been declared. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.57]

496A.58 Articles of amendment. The articles of amendment shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of the officers signing such articles, and shall set forth:
1. The name of the corporation and the effective date of its incorporation; and its original name if different from the present name.
2. The amendment so adopted.
3. The date of the adoption of the amendment by the shareholders or by the board of directors where no shares have been issued.
4. The number of shares outstanding, and the number of shares entitled to vote thereon, and if the shares of any class are entitled to vote thereon as a class, the designation and number of outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon of each such class.
5. The number of shares voted for and against such amendment, respectively, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote thereon as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against such amendment, respectively, or if no shares have been issued, a statement to that effect.
6. If such amendment provides for an exchange, reclassification or cancellation of issued shares, and if the manner in which the same shall be effected is not set forth in the amendment, then a statement of the manner in which the same shall be effected.
7. If such amendment affects a change in the amount of stated capital, then a statement of the manner in which the same is effected and a statement, expressed in dollars, of the amount of stated capital as changed by such amendment.
8. The date on which the amendment shall become effective, which may be any date identical by year, month and day not more than ninety days in the future. In the absence of any statement in the articles of amendment as to the date on which the amendment shall become effective, such amendment shall become effective on the date on which the secretary of state issues the certificate of amendment. [C62, 66, 71, §196A.58; 61GA, ch 1109, §12]

§496A.59 Filing of articles of amendment. The articles of amendment shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in his office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder. The secretary of state upon the filing of the articles of amendment shall issue a certificate of amendment and send the same to the corporation or its representative. (C62, 66, 71, §196A.59)

§496A.60 Effect of certificate of amendment. Upon the issuance of the certificate of amendment by the secretary of state, the amendment shall become effective and the articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be amended accordingly unless the certificate in conformity with the provisions in the articles of amendment provides that it shall become effective on a stated day not more than ninety days in the future in which event the amendment shall without further action by either the corporation or the secretary of state become effective on the day so stated.

No amendment shall affect the existing rights of persons other than shareholders, or any existing cause of action in favor of or against such corporation, or any pending suit to which such corporation shall be a party; and, in the event the corporate name shall be changed by amendment, no suit brought by or against such corporation under its former name shall abate for that reason. [C62, 66, 71, §196A.60]

§496A.61 Restated articles of incorporation. A domestic corporation may at any time restate its articles of incorporation, which may be amended by such restatement, so long as its articles of incorporation as so restated contain only such provisions as might be lawfully contained in original articles of incorporation at the time of making such restatement, by the adoption of restated articles of incorporation, including any amendments to its articles of incorporation to be made thereby, in the following manner:

1. The board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed restated articles of incorporation, which may include an amendment or amendments to the corporation's articles of incorporation to be made thereby, and directing that such restated articles, including such amendment or amendments, be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

2. Written or printed notice setting forth the proposed restated articles or a summary of the provisions thereof shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote thereon within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders. If the meeting be an annual meeting, the proposed restated articles may be included in the notice of such annual meeting. If the restated articles include an amendment or amendments to the articles of incorporation to be made thereby, the notice shall separately set forth such amendment or amendments or a summary of the changes to be effected thereby.

3. At such meeting a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon shall be taken on the proposed restated articles. The proposed restated articles shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon, unless such restated articles include an amendment to the articles of incorporation to be made thereby which, if contained in a previously adopted amendment to articles of incorporation to be made without restatement of the articles of incorporation, would entitle a class of shares to vote as a class thereon, in which event the proposed restated articles shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of each class of shares entitled to vote thereon as a class, and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon.

Upon such approval, restated articles of incorporation shall be executed by the corporation by its president or vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing the same, and shall set forth, as then stated in the corporation's articles of incorporation and, if the restated articles of incorporation include an amendment or amendments to the articles of incorporation to be made thereby, as so amended:

a. The name of the corporation;

b. If its duration is for a limited period, the date of expiration;

c. The purpose which the corporation is authorized to pursue, or that the purpose which the corporation is authorized to pursue is, or include, the transaction of any or all lawful business for which the corporation may be incorporated under this chapter;

d. The aggregate number of shares which the corporation has authority to issue; if such shares consist of one class only, the par value of each of such shares, or a statement that all of such shares are without par value; or, if such shares are divided into classes, the number of shares of each class, and a statement of the par value of the shares of each such class or that such shares are without par value;

c. If the shares are divided into classes, the designation of each class and a statement of the preferences, voting rights, if any, limitations and relative rights in respect of the shares of each class;

d. If the shares of any preferred or special class are issuable in series, the designation of each series and a statement of the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series insofar as the same are fixed in the restated articles of incorporation, and a statement of any authority vested in the board of directors to establish series and fix and determine the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series;

g. Any provisions limiting or denying to shareholders the pre-emptive right to acquire additional shares of the corporation or giving to shareholders the pre-emptive right to acquire treasury shares of the corporation;

h. The date on which the restated articles of incorporation shall become effective, which may be any date identified by year, month and day not more than ninety days in the future. In the absence of any statement in the restated articles of incorporation as to the date on which the restated articles of incorporation shall become effective, such restated articles of incorporation shall become effective on the date on which the secretary of state issues the restated certificate of incorporation:

i. Any other provisions not inconsistent with law or the purposes which the corporation is authorized to pursue, which are set forth in the articles of incorporation; except that it shall not be necessary to set forth any statement with respect to the chapter of the Code or session laws under which the corporation was incorporated, its registered office, registered agent, directors, or incorporators, or the date on which its corporate existence began.

The restated articles of incorporation shall set forth also a statement that they correctly set forth the provisions of the articles of incorporation as theretofore or thereby amended, that they have been duly adopted as required by law and that they supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

The restated articles of incorporation shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in his office and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder.

The secretary of state upon filing the restated articles of incorporation shall issue a restated certificate of incorporation and send the same to the corporation or its representative.

Upon the issuance of the restated certificate of incorporation by the secretary of state, the restated articles of incorporation including any amendment or amendments to the articles of incorporation made thereby, shall become effective unless the certificate in conformity with a provision in the restated articles of incorporation provides that it shall become effective on a stated day not more than ninety days in the future in which event the restated articles of incorporation shall without further action by either the corporation or the secretary of state become effective on the day so stated and shall supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

No amendment shall affect the existing rights of persons other than shareholders, or any existing cause of action in favor of or against such corporation, or any pending suit to which such corporation shall be a party; and, in the event the corporate name shall be changed by amendment, no suit brought by or against such corporation under its former name shall be for that reason. [CG2, 66, 71, §196A.61; 61GA, ch 1109, §13]

§196A.62 Amendment of articles of incorporation in reorganization proceedings. Whenever a plan of reorganization of a corporation has been confirmed by decree or order of a court of competent jurisdiction in proceedings for the reorganization of such corporation, pursuant to the provisions of any applicable statute of the United States relating to reorganizations of corporations, the articles of incorporation of the corporation may be amended, in the manner provided in this section, in as many respects as may be necessary to carry out the plan and put it into effect, so long as the articles of incorporation as amended contain only such provisions as might be lawfully contained in original articles of incorporation at the time of making such amendment.

In particular and without limitation upon such general power of amendment, the articles of incorporation may be amended for such purpose so as to:

1. Change the corporate name, period of duration or corporate purposes of the corporation;

2. Repeal, alter or amend the bylaws of the corporation;

3. Change the aggregate number of shares, or shares of any class, which the corporation has authority to issue;

4. Change the preferences, limitations and relative rights in respect of all or any part of the shares of the corporation, and classify, recalculate or cancel all or any part thereof, whether issued or unissued;

5. Authorize the issuance of bonds, debentures or other obligations of the corporation, whether or not convertible into shares of any class or bearing warrants or other evidences of optional rights to purchase or subscribe for shares of any class, and fix the terms and conditions thereof; and

6. Constitute or reconstitute and classify or reclassify the board of directors of the corporation, and appoint directors and officers in place of or in addition to all or any of the directors or officers then in office.

Amendments to the articles of incorporation pursuant to this section shall be made in the following manner:

7. Articles of amendment approved by decree or order of such court shall be executed and verified in duplicate by such person or persons as the court shall designate or appoint for the purpose, and shall set forth the name of the corporation, the amendments of the articles of incorporation approved by the court, the date of the decree or order approving the articles of amendment, the title of the proceedings in which the decree or order was entered, and a statement that such decree or order was entered by a court having jurisdiction of the proceedings for the reorganization of the corporation pursuant to the provisions of an applicable statute of the United States.

8. The articles of amendment shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in his office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder. The secretary of state upon the filing of the articles of amendment shall issue a certificate of amendment and send the same to the corporation or its representative.

Upon the issuance of the certificate of amendment by the secretary of state, the amendment shall become effective and the articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be amended accordingly, without any action thereon by the directors or shareholders of the corporation and with the same effect as if the amendments had been adopted by unanimous action of the directors and shareholders of the corporation. [C62, 66, 71,§496A.62]

496A.63 Restriction on redemption or purchase of redeemable shares. No redemption or purchase of redeemable shares shall be made by a corporation when it is insolvent or when such redemption or purchase would render it insolvent, or which would reduce the net assets below the aggregate amount payable to the holders of shares having prior or equal rights to the assets of the corporation upon involuntary dissolution. [C62, 66, 71,§496A.63]

496A.64 Cancellation of redeemable shares by redemption. When redeemable shares of a corporation are redeemed by the corporation, the redemption shall effect a cancellation of such shares, and a statement of cancellation shall be filed as provided in this section. Thereupon such shares shall be restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares, unless the articles of incorporation provide that such shares when redeemed shall not be reissued, in which case the filing of the statement of cancellation shall constitute an amendment to the articles of incorporation and shall reduce the number of shares of the class so canceled which the corporation is authorized to issue by the number of shares so canceled.

The statement of cancellation shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of the officers signing such statement, and shall set forth:

2. The number of redeemable shares canceled through redemption, itemized by classes and series.
3. The aggregate number of issued shares, itemized by classes and series, after giving effect to such cancellation.
4. The amount, expressed in dollars, of the stated capital of the corporation after giving effect to such cancellation.
5. If the articles of incorporation provide that the canceled shares shall not be reissued, then the number of shares which the corporation has authority to issue, itemized by classes and series, after giving effect to such cancellation.

Such statement shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in his office, and if the same effects a reduction in its authorized shares the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder.

Upon the filing of such statement of cancellation, the stated capital of the corporation shall be deemed to be reduced by that part of the stated capital which was, at the time of such cancellation, represented by the shares so canceled.

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to forbid a cancellation of shares or a reduction of stated capital in any other manner permitted by this chapter. [C62, 66, 71,§496A.64]

496A.65 Cancellation of other reacquired shares. A corporation may at any time, by resolution of its board of directors, cancel all or any part of the shares of the corporation of any class reacquired by it, other than redeemable shares redeemed, and in such event a statement of cancellation shall be filed as provided in this section.

The statement of cancellation shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of the officers signing such statement, and shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation and the effective date of its incorporation; and its original name if different from the present name.
2. The number of reacquired shares canceled by resolution duly adopted by the board of directors, itemized by classes and series, and the date of its adoption.
3. The aggregate number of issued shares, itemized by classes and series, after giving effect to such cancellation.
4. The amount, expressed in dollars, of the stated capital of the corporation after giving effect to such cancellation.

Such statement shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in his office.

Upon the filing of such statement of cancellation, the stated capital of the corporation shall be deemed to be reduced by that part of the stated capital which was, at the time of such cancellation, represented by the shares so canceled, and the shares so canceled shall be restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares.

496A.66 Reduction of stated capital in certain cases. A reduction of the stated capital of a corporation, where such reduction is not accompanied by any action requiring an amendment of the articles of incorporation and not accompanied by a cancellation of shares, may be made in the following manner:

1. The board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the amount of the proposed reduction and the manner in which the reduction shall be effected, and directing that the question of such reduction be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

2. Written or printed notice, stating that the purpose or one of the purposes of such meeting is to consider the question of reducing the stated capital of the corporation in the amount and manner proposed by the board of directors, shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote thereon within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders.

3. At such meeting a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon shall be taken on the question of approving the proposed reduction of stated capital, which shall require for its adoption the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon.

When a reduction of the stated capital of a corporation has been approved as provided in this section, a statement shall be executed by the corporation in the following form:

4. The name of the corporation.

5. A copy of the resolution of the shareholders approving such reduction, and the date of its adoption.

6. The number of shares outstanding, and the number of shares entitled to vote.

7. The number of shares voted for and against such reduction, respectively.

8. A statement of the manner in which such reduction is effected, and a statement, expressed in dollars, of the amount of stated capital of the corporation after giving effect to such reduction.

Such statement shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in his office.

Upon the filing of such statement, the stated capital of the corporation shall be reduced as therein set forth.

No reduction of stated capital shall be made under the provisions of this section which would reduce the amount of the aggregate stated capital of the corporation to an amount equal to or less than the aggregate preferential amounts payable upon all issued shares having a preferential right in the assets of the corporation in the event of involuntary liquidation.

496A.67 Special provisions relating to surplus and reserves. A corporation may, by resolution of its board of directors, create a reserve or reserves out of its surplus for any proper purpose or purposes, and may abolish any such reserve in the same manner. Surplus of the corporation to the extent so reserved shall not be available for the payment of dividends or other distributions by the corporation except as expressly permitted by this chapter.

The board of directors of each corporation shall, by resolution adopted by each such board, approve a plan of merger setting forth:

1. The names of the corporations proposing to merge, and the name of the corporation into which they propose to merge, which is hereinafter designated as the surviving corporation.

2. The terms and conditions of the proposed merger.

3. The manner and basis of converting the shares of each merging corporation into shares or obligations or other securities of the surviving corporation or, in whole or in part, into cash, property or shares, obligations or other securities of any other corporation.

4. The date on which the merger shall become effective which may be any date identified by year, month and day not more than ninety days in the future. In the absence of any statement in the plan of merger as to the date on which the merger shall become effective, such merger shall become effective on the date on which the secretary of state issues the certificate of merger.

5. A statement of any changes in the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation to be effected by such merger.

6. Such other provisions with respect to the proposed merger as are deemed necessary or desirable.

The purchase by a corporation of all, or substantially all, of the assets of another corporation, domestic or foreign, followed by dissolution of the selling corporation, shall not, by itself, constitute a merger of such corporations.

496A.69 Procedure for consolidation. Any two or more domestic corporations may consolidate into a new corporation pursuant to a plan of consolidation approved in the manner provided in this chapter.

The board of directors of each corporation shall, by a resolution adopted by each such board, approve a plan of consolidation setting forth:

1. The names of the corporations proposing to consolidate, and the name of the new corporation into which they propose to consolidate, which is hereinafter designated as the new corporation.

2. The terms and conditions of the proposed consolidation.

3. The manner and basis of converting the shares of each corporation into shares or obligations or other securities of the new corporation, or, in whole or in part, into cash, property or shares, obligations or other securities of any other corporation.

4. The date on which the consolidation shall become effective which may be any date identified by year, month and day not more than ninety days in the future. In the absence of any statement in the plan of consolidation as to the date on which the consolidation shall become effective, such consolidation shall become effective on the date on which the secretary of state issues the certificate of consolidation.

5. With respect to the new corporation, all of the statements required to be set forth in articles of incorporation for corporations organized under this chapter.

6. Such other provisions with respect to the proposed consolidation as are deemed necessary or desirable. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.69]

§496A.70 Approval by shareholders. The board of directors of each corporation, upon approving such plan of merger or plan of consolidation, shall, by resolution, direct that the plan be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written or printed notice shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than twenty days before such meeting, in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders, and shall state the purpose of the meeting, whether the meeting be an annual or a special meeting. A copy or a summary of the plan of merger or plan of consolidation, as the case may be, shall be included in or enclosed with such notice.

At each such meeting, a vote of the shareholders shall be taken on the proposed plan of merger or consolidation. Each outstanding share of each such corporation shall be entitled to vote on the proposed plan of merger or consolidation, whether or not such share has voting rights under the provisions of the articles of incorporation of such corporation. The plan of merger or consolidation shall be approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each such corporation, unless any class of shares of any such corporation is entitled to vote as a class thereon, in which event, as to such corporation, the plan of merger or consolidation shall be approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon and of the total outstanding shares. Any class of shares of any such corporation shall be entitled to vote as a class if the plan of merger or consolidation, as the case may be, contains any provision which, if contained in a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation, would entitle such class of shares to vote as a class.

After such approval by a vote of the shareholders of each corporation, and at any time prior to the filing of the articles of merger or consolidation, the merger or consolidation may be abandoned pursuant to provisions therefor, if any, set forth in the plan of merger or consolidation.

Notwithstanding the voting requirements set forth in this section, unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, no vote of the shareholders of a constituent corporation surviving a merger shall be necessary to authorize a merger if (1) the plan of merger does not effect any amendment to the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation, and (2) the number of authorized unissued shares or treasury shares of any class of the surviving corporation to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger does not exceed fifteen percent of the shares of the surviving corporation of the same class outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.70]

§496A.71 Articles of merger or consolidation. Upon such approval, articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall be executed by each corporation by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of the officers of each corporation signing such articles, and shall set forth:

1. The plan of merger or the plan of consolidation.

2. As to each corporation, the number of shares outstanding, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the designation and number of outstanding shares of each such class.

3. As to each corporation, the number of shares voted for and against such plan, respectively, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against such plan, respectively. If a plan of merger is adopted by the constituent corporation surviving the merger, by action of its board of directors and without the vote of its shareholders pursuant to the provisions of section 496A.70, then that fact shall be stated in the articles of merger in lieu of the information as to voting of shares which would otherwise be required by this subsection.

The articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in his office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the recorder of each county in which the registered office of each domestic merging or consolidating corporation was located prior to the merger or consolidation and, if the new corporation into which the corporations have consolidated is a domestic corporation, in the office of the recorder of the county in which the registered office of the new corporation is located.

The secretary of state upon the filing of the articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall issue a certificate of merger or a certificate of consolidation and send the same to the surviving or new corporation as the case may be, or to its representative. [C62, 66, 71. §196A.71]

196A.72 Merger of subsidiary corporation

1. Any corporation owning at least ninety percent of the outstanding shares of each class of another corporation may merge such other corporation into itself without approval by a vote of the shareholders of other corporation. Its board of directors shall, by resolution, approve a plan of merger setting forth:

   a. The name of the subsidiary corporation and the name of the corporation owning at least ninety percent of its shares, which is hereinafter designated as the surviving corporation.

   b. The manner and basis of converting the shares of the subsidiary corporation into shares, obligations or other securities of the surviving corporation or of any other corporation, or in whole or in part, into cash or other property. A copy of such plan of merger shall be mailed to each shareholder of record of the subsidiary corporation other than the surviving corporation.

2. Articles of merger shall be executed by the surviving corporation by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of its officers signing such articles and shall set forth:

   a. The plan of merger:

   b. The number of outstanding shares of each class of the subsidiary corporation and the number of such shares of each class owned by the surviving corporation; and

   c. The date of the mailing to shareholders of the subsidiary corporation other than the surviving corporation of a copy of the plan of merger. If the surviving corporation is the owner of all of the issued shares of the other corporation, the plan of merger may contain in lieu of such statement as to mailing, a statement that the surviving corporation is the owner of all such issued shares and that the surviving corporation waived the mailing of a copy of the plan of merger.

The articles of merger shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in his office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder.

The secretary of state upon filing the articles of merger shall issue a certificate of merger, and send the same to the surviving corporation or its representative. [C62, 65, 71. §196A.72; 64GA, ch 1108, §114]

496A.73 Effect of merger or consolidation

Upon the issuance of the certificate of merger or the certificate of consolidation by the secretary of state, the merger or consolidation shall become effective unless the certificate in conformity with a provision in the articles of merger or articles of consolidation provides that it shall become effective on a stated day not more than ninety days in the future in which event the merger or consolidation shall without further action by either the corporation or the secretary of state become effective on the day so stated.

When such merger or consolidation has been effected:

1. The several corporations parties to the plan of merger or consolidation shall be a single corporation, which, in the case of a merger, shall be that corporation designated in the plan of merger as the surviving corporation, and, in the case of consolidation, shall be the new corporation provided for in the plan of consolidation.

3. Such surviving or new corporation, if to exist under the laws of this state, shall have all the rights, privileges, immunities and powers and shall be subject to all the duties and liabilities of a corporation organized under this chapter.

4. Such surviving or new corporation shall thenceforward hold and possess all the rights, privileges, immunities, and franchises, as well as all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due on whatever account, including subscriptions to shares and all other choses in action, and all and every other interest of or belonging to or due to each of the corporations so merged or consolidated, shall be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in such single corporation without further act or deed; and the title to any real estate, or any interest therein, vested in any of such corporations shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of such merger or consolidation.

5. Such surviving or new corporation shall thenceforth be responsible and liable for all the liabilities and obligations of each of the corporations so merged or consolidated; and any claim existing or action or proceeding pending by or against any of such corporations may be prosecuted as if such merger or consolidation had not taken place, or such surviving or new corporation may be substituted in its place. Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of any such corporation shall be impaired by such merger or consolidation.

6. In the case of a merger, the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation shall be deemed to be amended to the extent, if any, that changes in its articles of incorporation are stated in the plan of merger; and, in the case of a consolidation, the statements set forth in the articles of consolidation and which are required or permitted to be set forth in the articles of incorporation of corporations organized under this chapter shall be deemed to be the original articles of incorporation of the new corporation.

7. The aggregate amount of the net assets of the merging or consolidating corporations which was available for the payment of dividends immediately prior to such merger or consolidation, to the extent that the amount thereof is not transferred to stated capital by the issuance of shares or otherwise, shall continue to be available for the payment of dividends by such surviving or new corporation. [C62, 66, 71.§496A.73]

496A.74 Merger or consolidation of domestic and foreign corporations. One or more foreign corporations and one or more domestic corporations may be merged or consolidated in the following manner, if such merger or consolidation is permitted by the laws of the state under which each such foreign corporation is organized:

1. Each domestic corporation shall comply with the provisions of this chapter with respect to the merger or consolidation, as the case may be, of domestic corporations and each foreign corporation shall comply with the applicable provisions of the laws of the state under which it is organized.

2. If the surviving or new corporation, as the case may be, is to be governed by the laws of any state other than this state, it shall comply with the provisions of the laws of this state with respect to qualifications of foreign corporations if it is to transact business in this state, and in every case it shall file with the secretary of state of this state:

a. An agreement that it may be served with process in this state in any proceeding for the enforcement of any obligation of any domestic corporation which is a party to such merger or consolidation and in any proceeding for the enforcement of the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any such domestic corporation against the surviving or new corporation;

b. An irrevocable appointment of the secretary of state of this state as its agent to accept service of process in any such proceeding; and

c. An agreement that it will promptly pay to the dissenting shareholders of any such domestic corporation the amount, if any, to which they shall be entitled under the provisions of this chapter with respect to the rights of dissenting shareholders.

The effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations, if the surviving or new corporation is to be governed by the laws of this state. If the surviving or new corporation is to be governed by the laws of any state other than this state, the effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations except as far as the laws of such other state provide otherwise.

At any time prior to the filing of the articles of merger or consolidation, the merger or consolidation may be abandoned pursuant to the provisions therefor, if any, set forth in the plan of merger or consolidation.

The purchase by a corporation, domestic or foreign, of all, or substantially all, of the assets of another corporation, domestic or foreign, followed by dissolution of the selling corporation, shall not, by itself, constitute a merger of such corporations. [C62, 66, 71.§496A.74]

496A.75 Sale or other disposition of assets in regular course of business and mortgage or pledge of assets. The sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of a corporation, when made in the usual and regular course of the business of the corporation, and the mortgage or pledge of any or all of the property and assets of the corporation may be made upon such terms and conditions and for such considerations, which may consist in whole or in part of money or property, real or personal, including shares of any other corporation, domestic or foreign, as shall be authorized by its board of directors; and in such case no authorization or consent of the shareholders shall be required. [C62, 66, 71.§496A.75]

496A.76 Sale or other disposition of assets other than in regular course of business. A sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets, with or without the good will, of a corporation, if not made in the usual and regular course of its business, may be made upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration, which may consist in whole or in part of money or property, real or personal, including shares of any other corporation, domestic or foreign, as may be authorized in the following manner:

1. The board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending such sale, lease, exchange or other disposition and directing the submission thereof to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

2. Written or printed notice shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders, and, whether the meeting be an annual or a special meeting, shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the proposed sale, lease, exchange or other disposition.

3. At such meeting the shareholders may authorize such sale, lease, exchange or other disposition and may fix, or may authorize the board of directors to fix, any or all of the terms and conditions thereof and the consideration to be received by the corporation therefor. Such authorization shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote thereon, unless any class of shares is entitled to vote as a class thereon, in which event such authorization shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon and of the total outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon.

4. After such authorization by a vote of shareholders, the board of directors nevertheless, in its discretion, may abandon such sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of assets, subject to the rights of third parties under any contracts relating thereto, without further action or approval by shareholders. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.77]

1. Any plan of merger or consolidation to which the corporation is a party; or

2. Any sale or exchange of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation, otherwise than in the usual and regular course of its business.

A shareholder may dissent as to less than all of the shares registered in his name. In that event, his rights shall be determined as if the shares as to which he has dissented and his other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

This section shall not apply to the shareholders of the surviving corporation in a merger if such corporation is on the date of the filing of the articles of merger the owner of all outstanding shares of the other corporations, domestic or foreign, which are parties to the merger or if a vote of the shareholders of such corporation is not necessary to authorize such merger. Nor shall it apply to the holders of shares of any class or series if the shares of such class or series were registered on a national securities exchange on the date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of shareholders at which a plan of merger or consolidation or a proposed sale or exchange of property and assets is to be acted upon unless the articles of incorporation of the corporation shall otherwise provide. [C62, 68, 71, §496A.77]

496A.78 Rights of dissenting shareholders. Any shareholder electing to exercise such right of dissent shall file with the corporation, prior to or at the meeting of shareholders at which such proposed corporate action is submitted to a vote, a written objection to such proposed corporate action. If such proposed corporate action be approved by the required vote and such shareholder shall not have voted in favor thereof, such shareholder may, within ten days after the date on which the vote was taken, or if a corporation is to be merged without a vote of its shareholders into another corporation, any of its shareholders may, within ten days after the plan of such merger shall have been mailed to such shareholders make written demand on the corporation, or, in the case of a merger or consolidation, on the surviving or new corporation, domestic or foreign, for payment of the fair value of such shareholder's shares, and, if such proposed corporate action is effected, such corporation shall pay to such shareholder, upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing such shares, the fair value thereof as of the day prior to the date on which the vote was taken approving the proposed corporate action, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of such corporate action. Any shareholder failing to make demand within the ten-day period shall be bound by the terms of the proposed corporate action. If the proposed corporate action shall be abandoned or rescinded or the shareholders shall revoke the authority to effect such action, then the right of such shareholder to be paid the fair value of his shares shall cease and his status as a shareholder shall be restored, without prejudice to any corporate proceedings which may have been taken during the interim.

Within twenty days after such corporate action is effected, the corporation, or, in the case of a merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation, domestic or foreign, shall give written notice thereof to each dissenting shareholder who has made demand as herein provided, and shall make a written offer to each such shareholder to pay for such shares at a specified price deemed by such corporation to be the fair value thereof. Such notice and offer shall be accompanied by a balance sheet of the corporation the shares of which the dissenting shareholder holds, as of the latest available date and not more than twelve months prior to the making of such offer, and a profit and loss statement of such corporation for the twelve months' period ended on the date of such balance sheet.

If within thirty days after the date on which such corporate action was effected the fair value of such shares is agreed upon between any such dissenting shareholder and the corporation, payment therefor shall be made within ninety days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing such shares. Upon payment of the agreed value the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such share.

If within such period of thirty days the dissenting shareholder and the corporation do not agree, then the dissenting shareholder may, within sixty days after the expiration of the thirty-day period, file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction within the state and county thereof in which the registered office or principal place of business of the corporation is situated asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of such shares, and shall be entitled to judgment against the corporation for the amount of such fair value as of the day prior to the date on which such vote was taken approving such corporate action, together with interest thereon at the rate of five percent per annum to the date of such judgment. The action shall be prosecuted as an equitable action and the practice and procedure shall conform to the practice and procedure in equity cases. The judgment shall be payable only upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the corporation of the certificate or certificates representing such shares.

Upon payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares. Unless the dissenting shareholder shall file such petition within the time herein limited, such shareholder and all persons claiming under him shall be conclusively presumed to have approved and ratified the corporate action and shall be bound by the terms thereof.

Shares acquired by a corporation pursuant to payment of the agreed value therefor or to payment of the judgment entered therefor, as in this section provided, may be held and disposed of by such corporation as in the case of other treasury shares, except that, in the case of a merger or consolidation, they may be held and disposed of as the plan of merger or consolidation may otherwise provide. [C62, 66, 71, § 496A.79]

496A.79 Voluntary dissolution by incorporators. A corporation which has not commenced business and which has not issued any shares, may be voluntarily dissolved by its incorporators at any time after the date of the issuance of its certificate of incorporation, in the following manner:

1. Articles of dissolution shall be executed by a majority of the incorporators, and verified by them, and shall set forth:
   a. The name of the corporation.
   b. The date of issuance of its certificate of incorporation.
   c. That none of its shares has been issued.
   d. That the corporation has not commenced business.
   e. That the amount, if any, actually paid in on subscriptions for its shares, less any part thereof disbursed for necessary expenses, has been returned to those entitled thereto.
   f. That no debts of the corporation remain unpaid.
   g. That they elect that the corporation be dissolved.

2. The articles of dissolution shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in his office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder.

The secretary of state upon filing the articles of dissolution shall issue a certificate of dissolution and send the same to the incorporators or their representatives. Upon the issuance of such certificate of dissolution by the secretary of state, the existence of the corporation shall cease. [C62, 66, 71, § 496A.79]

496A.80 Voluntary dissolution by consent of shareholders. A corporation may be voluntarily dissolved by the written consent of all of its shareholders.

Upon the execution of such written consent, a statement of intent to dissolve shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, which statement shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. The names and respective addresses of its officers.
3. The names and respective addresses of its directors.
4. A copy of the written consent signed by all shareholders of the corporation.
5. A statement that such written consent has been signed by all shareholders of the corporation or signed in their names by their attorneys thereunto duly authorized. [C62, 66, 71, § 496A.80]

Referred to in §§ 524.130, 524.140

496A.81 Voluntary dissolution by act of corporation. A corporation may be dissolved by the act of the corporation, when authorized in the following manner:

1. The board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending that the corporation be dissolved, and directing that the question of such dissolution be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

2. Written or printed notice shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders, and, whether the meeting be an annual or special meeting, shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the advisability of dissolving the corporation.

3. At such meeting a vote of shareholders entitled to vote thereat shall be taken on a resolution to dissolve the corporation. Such resolution shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote upon the question of dissolution, unless any class of shares is entitled to vote as a class thereon, in which event the resolution shall require for its adoption the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon, and of the total outstanding shares entitled to vote upon the question of dissolution.

4. Upon the adoption of such resolution, a statement of intent to dissolve shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, which statement shall set forth:
   a. The name of the corporation.
   b. The names and respective addresses of its officers.
   c. The names and respective addresses of its directors.
   d. A copy of the resolution adopted by the shareholders authorizing the dissolution of the corporation.
   e. The number of shares outstanding, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the designation and number of outstanding shares of each such class.
   f. The number of shares voted for and against the resolution, respectively, and if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against the resolution, respectively. [CG2, 66, 71, §196A.81]

496A.82 Filing of statement of intent to dissolve. The statement of intent to dissolve, whether by consent of shareholders or by act of the corporation, shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in his office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder. [CG2, 66, 71, §196A.82]

496A.83 Effect of statement of intent to dissolve. He shall also certify, from time to time, the names of all corporations which have given other cause for dissolution as provided in this chapter, together with the facts pertinent thereto. Whenever the secretary of state shall certify the name of a corporation to the attorney general as having given any cause for dissolution the secretary of state shall by registered or certified mail concurrently send to the corporation at its registered office, a notice that such certification has been made and the grounds therefor. Proceedings under this section shall be brought in the county in which the registered office or the principal office of the corporation is situated.

It shall not be necessary to make shareholders parties to any such suit or proceeding unless relief is sought against them personally. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.94; 64GA, ch 1109, §15]

Prior to the date so fixed, the court may extend the time for the filing of claims. Any such action or proceeding by or against the corporation may be prosecuted or defended by the corporation in its corporate name. The shareholders, directors and officers shall have power to take such corporate or other action as shall be appropriate to protect such remedy, right or claim. If the period of duration of a corporation has expired, it may, subject to the provisions of subsection 11 of section 496A.142, amend its articles of incorporation at any time within five years after the date of such expiration so as to extend its period of duration.

No foreign corporation shall be entitled to procure a certificate of authority under this chapter to transact in this state any business which a corporation organized under this chapter is not permitted to transact. A foreign corporation shall not be denied a certificate of authority by reason of the fact that the laws of the state or country under which such corporation is organized governing its organization and internal affairs differ from the laws of this state, and nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed to authorize this state to regulate the organization or the internal affairs of such corporation.

496A.104 Powers of foreign corporation. A foreign corporation which shall have received a certificate of authority under this chapter shall, until a certificate of revocation or of withdrawal shall have been issued as provided in this chapter, enjoy the same, but no greater, rights and privileges as a domestic corporation organized for the purposes set forth in the application pursuant to which such certificate of authority is issued; and, except as in this chapter otherwise provided, shall be subject to the same duties, restrictions, penalties and liabilities now or hereafter imposed upon a domestic corporation of like character. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.104]

c. A certified copy of a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the prior right of such foreign corporation to the use of such name in this state.

The corporate name of such foreign corporation shall be the name under which the corporation shall transact its business in this state unless the corporation also shall elect to adopt one or more assumed names as provided in this chapter.

A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may elect to adopt an assumed name that is not the same as or deceptively similar to the corporate name of any domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state or of any other foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, or the same as or deceptively similar to any name registered or reserved under the provisions of this chapter.

Such election shall be made by filing with the secretary of state an application executed by an officer of the corporation, setting forth such assumed name and paying to the secretary of state a filing fee of twenty dollars.

If such assumed name complies with the provisions of this chapter, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate authorizing the use of said name, but such certificate shall not confer any right to the use of said name as against any person having any prior right to the use thereof.

At the time annual license fees are payable under this chapter, a foreign corporation which has elected to adopt an assumed name shall pay to the secretary of state an annual fee of five dollars for such assumed name. However, if the assumed name was filed and became effective in December of any year, the first annual fee of five dollars shall be paid at the time of filing of the annual report in the second year following such December.

If such corporation fails to pay the annual fee when due and payable, the secretary of state shall give notice to the corporation of such nonpayment by registered or certified mail; and if such fee together with a penalty of five dollars is not paid within sixty days after such notice is mailed, the right to use such assumed name shall cease.

A separate application and annual fee shall be filed and paid for each assumed name adopted by a foreign corporation. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.105; 61GA, ch 1109, §16]

Such application shall be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state and shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary and verified by one of the officers signing such application. Each registered agent so appointed by a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served.

Whenever a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state shall fail to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this state, or whenever any such registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the registered office, or whenever the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation shall be suspended or revoked, then the secretary of state shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any such process, notice or demand may be served. Service on the secretary of state of any such process, notice or demand shall be made by delivering to and leaving with him, his deputy or with any person having charge of the corporation department of his office, duplicate copies of such process, notice or demand. In the event any such process, notice or demand is served on the secretary of state, he shall immediately cause one of such copies thereof to be forwarded by registered or certified mail, addressed to the corporation at its principal office in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated. Process, notice or demand served on the secretary of state upon a foreign corporation in any other state or country shall be returnable in not less than thirty days.

The secretary of state shall keep a record of all processes, notices and demands served upon him under this section, and shall record there in the time of such service and his action with reference thereto.

Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice or demand, required or permitted by law to be served upon a foreign corporation in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

§496A.113 Amendment to articles of incorporation of foreign corporation. Whenever the articles of incorporation of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state are amended, such foreign corporation shall, within thirty days after such amendment becomes effective, file in the office of the secretary of state a copy of such amendment duly certified by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated; but the filing thereof shall not of itself enlarge or alter the purpose or purposes which such corporation is authorized to pursue in the transaction of business in this state, nor authorize such corporation to transact business in this state under any other name than the name set forth in its certificate of authority.

§496A.114 Merger of foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state. Whenever a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state shall be a party to a statutory merger permitted by the laws of the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated, and such corporation shall be the surviving corporation, it shall, within thirty days after such merger becomes effective, file with the secretary of state a copy of the articles of merger duly certified by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which such statutory merger was effected; and it shall not be necessary for such corporation to procure either a new or amended certificate of authority to transact business in this state unless the name of such corporation be changed thereby or unless the corporation desires to pursue in this state other or additional purposes than those which it is then authorized to transact in this state.

§496A.115 Amended certificate of authority. A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state shall procure an amended certificate of authority in the event it changes its corporate name, or desires to pursue in this state other or additional purposes than those set forth in its prior application for a certificate of authority, by making application therefore to the secretary of state.

The requirements in respect to the form and contents of such application, the manner of its execution, the filing of duplicate originals thereof with the secretary of state, the issuance of an amended certificate of authority and the effect thereof, shall be the same as in the case of an original application for a certificate of authority.

§496A.116 Withdrawal of foreign corporation. A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may withdraw from this

The certificate of withdrawal, together with the duplicate original of the application for withdrawal affixed thereto by the secretary of state, shall be returned to the corporation or its representative. Upon the issuance of such certificate of withdrawal, the authority of the corporation to transact business in this state shall cease. [C62, 66, §496A.117]

496A.118 Revocation of certificate of authority. The certificate of authority of a foreign corporation to transact business in this state may be revoked by the secretary of state upon the conditions prescribed in this section when:

1. The corporation has failed to file its annual report within the time required by this chapter, or has failed to pay any fees or penalties prescribed by this chapter when the same have become due and payable; or

2. The corporation has failed to appoint and maintain a registered agent in this state as required by this chapter; or

3. The corporation has failed, after change of its registered office or registered agent, to file in the office of the secretary of state a statement of such change as required by this chapter; or

4. The corporation has failed to file in the office of the secretary of state any amendment to its articles of incorporation or any articles of merger within the time prescribed by this chapter; or

5. A misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, report, affidavit, or other document submitted by such corporation pursuant to this chapter.

No certificate of authority of a foreign corporation shall be revoked by the secretary of state unless (a) he shall have given the corporation not less than sixty days' notice thereof by mail addressed to the principal office of the corporation in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated, and (b) the corporation shall fail prior to revocation to file such annual report, or pay such fees or penalties, or file the required statement of change of registered agent or registered office, or file such articles of amendment or articles of merger, or correct such misrepresentation. [C62, 66, §496A.118]

Upon the issuance of such certificate of revocation, the authority of the corporation to transact business in this state shall cease. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.119]

496A.120 Transacting business without certificate of authority. No foreign corporation transacting business in this state without a certificate of authority shall be permitted to maintain any action, suit or proceeding in any court of this state, until such corporation shall have obtained a certificate of authority, nor shall any action, suit or proceeding be maintained in any court of this state by any successor or assignee of such corporation on any right, claim or demand arising out of the trans- action of business by such corporation in this state, until a certificate of authority shall have been obtained by such corporation or by a corporation which has acquired all or substantially all of its assets; provided, however, that no foreign corporation transacting business in this state shall maintain any action, suit or proceeding in this state upon any contract made by it in this state prior to the effective date of this chapter unless prior to the making of such contract it shall have procured a permit to transact business in this state as required by the laws in force at the time of making such contract, which prohibition shall also apply to any assignee of such foreign corporation and to any person claiming under such assignee of such foreign corporation or under either of them.

The failure of a foreign corporation to obtain a certificate of authority to transact business in this state shall not impair the validity of any contract or act of such corporation, and shall not prevent such corporation from defending any action, suit or proceeding in any court of this state.

A foreign corporation which transacts business in this state without a certificate of authority shall be liable to this state, for the years or parts thereof during which it transacted business in this state without a certificate of authority, in an amount equal to all fees which would have been imposed by this chapter upon such corporation had it duly applied for and received a certificate of authority to transact business in this state as required by this chapter and thereafter filed all reports required by this chapter, plus all penalties imposed by this chapter for failure to pay such fees. The attorney general shall bring proceedings to recover all amounts due this state under the provisions of this section. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.120]

9. Such additional information as may be necessary or appropriate to enable the secretary of state to determine the proper amount of license fees payable by such corporation.

Such annual report shall be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state, and the information therein contained shall be given as of the first day of January of the year in which the report is due. It shall be executed by the corporation by its president, a vice-president, secretary, an assistant secretary, or treasurer, and verified by the officer executing the report, or, if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver, trustee, or assignee for benefit of creditors, it shall be executed on behalf of the corporation and verified by such receiver, trustee or assignee. Provided, that a domestic corporation having no stated capital, or a foreign corporation having no stated capital or no property in Iowa, shall pay an annual license fee of five dollars. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.126]

496A.127 Annual license fees payable by foreign corporations. At the time of filing its annual report, each foreign corporation having a permit to transact business in this state shall pay to the secretary of state an annual license fee for the calendar year, which shall be due on January 1, payable March 31, to be based on the sum total of the fair and reasonable value of all property employed and used in Iowa as of January 1 of the year in which the report is due, without deductions of sums due and owing by said foreign corporation. The annual license fee to be paid by said foreign corporation shall be based upon the sum so computed which shall be considered the stated capital in this state for the purpose of said annual license fee, and the fees to be paid thereon shall be computed by applying the schedule of annual license fees as in this chapter prescribed for domestic corporations.

A foreign corporation shall have the option, if it so elects, to pay its annual license fee upon its total stated capital, and said fee shall be computed by applying the schedule of annual license fees as in this chapter prescribed for domestic corporations.

Between the thirty-first day of March and the first day of June of each year, the secretary of state shall determine the annual license fee payable by each corporation, domestic and foreign, required to file an annual report in such year, and if any such corporation has failed to file its annual report within the time prescribed by this chapter, or has failed to pay the amount of the annual license fee so determined, shall assess against such corporation the unpaid annual license fee and the penalty or penalties prescribed by this chapter; and mail a written notice to each corporation against which such an assessment is made, addressed to such corporation at its registered office in this state, notifying the corporation (1) of the amount of additional license fee and penalty assessed against it; (2) that objections, if any, to such assessment shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of June of such year; and (3) that such license fee and penalty shall be payable to the secretary of state on the first day of July next succeeding the date of the notice. Failure to receive such notice shall not relieve the corporation of its obligations to pay the license fee and penalty assessed, or invalidate the assessment thereof. The secretary of state shall have the power to hear and determine objections to any such assessment and, after hearing to change and modify the same. In the event of any adjustment, the penalty shall be adjusted in accordance with the provisions of this chapter imposing such penalty. If the annual license fee determined to be payable shall be less than the amount theretofore paid by the corporation thereon, the excess shall be refunded, without interest by the secretary of state.

All annual license fees shall be due and payable on the thirty-first day of March of each year, and all assessments of annual license fees and penalties made by the secretary of state shall be due and payable on the first day of July. If the annual license fee payable by any corporation under the provisions of this chapter, together with all penalties assessed thereon, shall not be paid to the secretary of state on or before the thirty-first day of July of the year in which such fee is due and payable, the secretary of state shall certify such fact to the attorney general on or before the first day of November of such year, whereupon the attorney general may institute an action against such corporation in the name of
on, for the recovery of the amount of such license fee and penalties, together with the cost of suit, and prosecute the same to final judgment. [C62, 66, 71 §496A.128]

496A.129 Credit against annual license fees. Each domestic and foreign corporation which within twenty years prior to July 4, 1959, has paid a fee or fees to the secretary of state for the purposes hereinafter mentioned shall be entitled to a credit against annual license fees becoming due from such corporation pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, to be allowed and made available as hereinafter provided.

1. The fees on which said credit is based shall be, for each domestic corporation including each such corporation organized with a term of fifty years for the construction and operation or the operation alone of a steam railway, interurban railway or street railway, the total of all fees set forth in paragraphs “a” to “c” below, inclusive, excluding therefrom those set forth in paragraphs “f” to “g” below, inclusive:

a. All fees paid to the secretary of state within twenty years prior to July 4, 1959, by each such corporation as incorporation fees and fees for increase of capital stock paid pursuant to section 491.11 of the Code;

b. Filing fees for the filing of amendments increasing capital stock which fees were computed on the basis of the amount of increase of capital stock and which were paid pursuant to section 491.20;

c. Fees paid pursuant to section 491.20 by a corporation which was organized for a term of years and which became entitled to perpetual existence by an amendment to its articles of incorporation which amendment was filed under the authority of said section 491.20;

d. Periodic fees paid pursuant to section 491.30; and

e. Renewal fees referred to in section 491.25 and in section 491.28 which were paid in connection with the filing of an instrument or certificate which extended or renewed, for a term of years or perpetually, the existence of a corporation which previously had existence for a term of years, excluding, however, those fees mentioned in paragraph “f” below.

The following fees shall be excluded from those on which said credit is based:

f. That portion of all fees paid to the secretary of state as recording fees or certificate fees;

g. Fees paid for renewal pursuant to the provisions of section 2 of chapter 47* of the laws of the Fifty-seventh General Assembly;

h. All incorporation fees and other fees paid to the secretary of state prior to the last renewal or extension of corporate existence by a domestic corporation which both incorporated and renewed or extended its corporate existence within twenty years prior to July 4, 1959; and

i. That portion of all fees paid pursuant to section 491.28 constituting the penalty of ten percent required to be paid by a corporation, the existence of which has expired, and which has failed to renew its existence within the period prescribed by statute.

2. The fees on which said credit is based shall be, for each foreign corporation including those having a permit in this state for a term of fifty years for the construction and operation or the operation alone of a steam railway, interurban railway or street railway, the total of all fees set forth in paragraphs “a” to “c” below, inclusive, excluding therefrom those set forth in paragraphs “d” to “e” below:

a. All fees paid to the secretary of state pursuant to section 494.4 within twenty years prior to July 4, 1959, by such corporation as filing fees in connection with the qualification in this state of such corporation;

b. Renewal fees referred to in section 494.8 which were paid to the secretary of state within twenty years prior to July 4, 1959, in connection with the requalification of a foreign corporation; and

c. All fees paid to the secretary of state pursuant to section 494.5 within twenty years prior to July 4, 1959, by each such corporation for increase of money or property in use in this state.

The following fees shall be excluded from those on which said credit is based:

d. All qualification fees paid pursuant to section 494.4, all requalification fees paid pursuant to section 494.8 and all fees for increase of money or property in use in this state paid to the secretary of state pursuant to section 494.5, prior to the last qualification or prior to the last requalification as the case may be, by a foreign corporation which has qualified or requalified more than once in the last twenty years prior to July 4, 1959, or which has both qualified and requalified within the last twenty years prior to July 4, 1959; and

e. Fees paid for renewal pursuant to the provisions of section 3 of chapter 47 of the laws of the Fifty-seventh General Assembly.

Referred to in subsection 3(a)

3. The credit shall be computed as follows:

a. As to each domestic corporation having existence for a term of years and as to each domestic corporation having perpetual existence but required by section 491.30 to pay periodic fees every twenty years or every fifty years, and as to each foreign corporation the total amount of said credit shall be one-twentieth of the fees upon which said credit is based, as defined in subsection 1 or 2 above, as the case may be, multiplied by the number of full calendar years remaining between the year in which this chapter became effective and the year in which but for the adoption of this chapter, the corporation would again be required, if a domestic corporation organized for a term of years, to renew its existence and pay renewal fees under section 491.25 or if a domestic corporation having perpetual existence be required to pay periodic fees under section 491.30 or if a foreign corporation be required to requalify and pay fees therefor under section 494.8, subject to the limitation, however, that as to each domestic and foreign corporation organized for the construction and operation of a steam railway, interurban railway or street railway having a term of fifty years in this state or having a permit to transact business in this state for fifty years as the case may be, the amount of said credit shall not in any case be more than one-twentieth of the fees upon which said credit is based as defined in subsection 1 or 2 above multiplied by twenty.

b. Upon this chapter becoming effective, the secretary of state shall compute for each domestic and foreign corporation the total amount of said credit to which it is entitled under this section and shall enter the amount thereof on the records in his office relating to each such corporation.

c. Each year the secretary of state in determining the annual license fee payable by each corporation, domestic and foreign, without request by said corporation, shall apply against such annual license fee the remaining unused total credit to which such corporation is entitled or a portion thereof subject to the following limitations:

(1) The maximum amount of any such credit that may be applied against such annual license fee becoming due in any one year shall be an amount equal to fifty percent of the annual license fee becoming due from such domestic or foreign corporation in said year.

(2) The credit herein provided for may not be applied to the extent that it would reduce the annual license fee below the minimum of five dollars.

(3) The credit herein provided for shall be allowed only against annual license fees coming due under this chapter and paid to the secretary of state within twenty years after July 4, 1950.

(4) The credit herein provided for shall not be allowed against any portion of an annual license fee representing a penalty, whether the same be a penalty for failure to file annual report within the time prescribed by this chapter or a penalty for failure to pay annual license fee prior to delinquency thereof.

(5) The maximum amount of any such credit for any domestic corporation which adopts this chapter after July 4, 1963, shall be an amount equal to one-twentieth of the fees upon which said credit is based, as defined in subparagraph (1) above, multiplied by the number of full calendar years remaining between the year in which this chapter is adopted by such corporation and the year in which, but for the adoption of this chapter, the corporation would again be required to renew its existence and pay renewal fees under section 491.25 or to pay periodic fees under section 491.30. (C62, 66, 71 §496A.129)

If the amount of the annual license fee originally determined by the secretary of state shall thereafter be adjusted in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, the amount of the penalty shall be likewise adjusted to ten percent of the amount of the adjusted license fee. In no event shall such penalty be less than five dollars. The amount of the license fee and the amount of the penalty shall be separately stated in any notice to the corporation with respect thereto.

If any portion of the annual license fee determined to be payable in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall not have been paid on or before the thirty-first day of March, the same shall be deemed to be delinquent.

Each corporation, domestic or foreign, that fails or refuses to answer truthfully and fully within the time prescribed by this chapter interrogatories propounded by the secretary of state in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed to be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof may be fined in any amount not exceeding five hundred dollars.

The secretary of state may cancel the certificate of incorporation of any corporation that fails or refuses to file its annual report for any year prior to the first day of October of the year in which it is due or fails to pay prior to the first day of October any fees or penalties prescribed by this chapter by issuing a certificate of such cancellation at any time after the expiration of thirty days following the mailing to the corporation of notice of the certification to the attorney general of the failure of the corporation to file such annual report or pay such fees and penalties as required by section 496A.92, provided the corporation has not filed such annual report or paid such fees and penalties prior to the issuance of the certificate of cancellation. Upon the issuance of the certificate of cancellation, the secretary of state shall send the certificate to the corporation at its registered office and shall retain a copy thereof in the permanent records of his office.

Upon the issuance of the certificate of cancellation, the corporate existence of the corporation shall terminate, subject to right of reinstatement as herein provided, and the corporation shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up thereof or for securing reinstatement and the right of the corporation to the use of its name shall cease and such name shall thereupon be available to any other corporation or foreign corporation or for reservation, registration or use as a trade name as provided in this chapter. The cancellation of the certificate of incorporation of a corporation shall not take away or impair any remedy available to or against such corporation, its directors, officers or shareholders for any right or claim existing or any liability incurred prior to such cancellation, but no action or proceeding thereon may be prosecuted by such corporation until it shall have been reinstated. Any such action or proceeding against such corporation may be defended by the corporation, if it has not been reinstated, in its corporate name to which there shall be appended the word “Canceled” followed by the date of the issuance of the certificate of cancellation. Unless the corporation is reinstated, the corporation, upon the issuance of the certificate of cancellation, shall proceed to liquidate its business and affairs as provided by this chapter in cases of dissolution by consent of shareholders or by act of the corporation, provided, however, that the district court in a suit in equity shall have full power to liquidate the assets and business of such a corporation upon application by such corporation or in a suit by a shareholder or creditor of such corporation when such corporation fails to proceed promptly with such liquidation or to make application to the court therefor. A copy of the certificate of cancellation, certified by the secretary of state, shall be taken and received in all courts as prima-facie evidence of the cancellation of the certificate of incorporation as stated therein.

If the certificate of incorporation of a corporation has been canceled by the secretary of state as provided in this section for failure to file an annual report, or failure to pay fees or penalties, such corporation shall be reinstated by the secretary of state at any time within five years following the date of the issuance by the secretary of state of the certificate of cancellation upon:

1. The delivery by the corporation to the secretary of state for filing in his office of an application for reinstatement, executed by its president or vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary and verified by one of the officers signing such application, which shall set forth:
   a. The date of the issuance by the secretary of state of the certificate of cancellation;
   b. The name of the corporation at the time of the issuance of the certificate of cancellation and, if, at the time of the filing of the application for reinstatement, another corporation or foreign corporation is entitled to use such name or such name is then reserved or registered as provided in this chapter, the name of the corporation as changed, which shall be a name then available under the laws of this state; and
   c. The address, including street and number, if any, of the registered office of the corporation upon the reinstatement thereof, which shall be located in the same county in which the registered office of the corporation was located at the time of the issuance of the certificate of cancellation, and the name of its registered agent or agents at such address upon the reinstatement of the corporation;

2. The filing with the secretary of state by the corporation of all annual reports then due and theretofore becoming due;

3. The payment to the secretary of state by the corporation of all annual license fees and penalties then due and theretofore becoming due and an additional penalty of one hundred dollars.

The secretary of state, upon filing the application for reinstatement, shall issue a certificate of reinstatement and file and record the same in his office and, if the application for reinstatement shall set forth a change in the name of the corporation, as required by this section, the same shall constitute an amendment to the articles of incorporation of the corporation and the certificate of reinstatement shall set forth such fact and shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder. Upon the issuance of the certificate of reinstatement, the corporation shall be entitled to continue to act as a corporation for the unexpired portion of its corporate period as fixed by its articles of incorporation, provided, however, that the corporation shall not be entitled to use the name of the corporation at the time of the issuance of the certificate of cancellation if another corporation or foreign corporation is entitled to use such name or such name is then reserved or registered as provided in this chapter. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.130]

496A.131 Penalties imposed upon officers and directors. Each officer and director of a corporation, domestic or foreign, who willfully fails or refuses within the time prescribed by this chapter to answer truthfully and fully reasonable and proper interrogatories propounded to him by the secretary of state in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, or who signs any articles, statement, report, application or other document filed with the secretary of state which is known to such officer or director to be false in any material respect, shall be deemed to be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof may be fined in any amount not exceeding five hundred dollars. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.131]

496A.132 Interrogatories by secretary of state. The secretary of state may propound to any corporation, domestic or foreign, subject to the provisions of this chapter, and to any officer or director thereof, such interrogatories as may be reasonably necessary and proper to enable him to ascertain whether such corporation has complied with all the provisions of this chapter applicable to such corporation. Such interrogatories shall be answered within thirty days after the mailing thereof, or within such additional time as shall be fixed by the secretary of state, and the answers thereto shall be full and complete and shall be made in writing and under oath. If such interrogatories be directed to an individual they shall be answered by him, and if directed to a corporation they shall be answered by the president, vice-president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, secretary or assistant secretary thereof. The secretary of state need not file any document to which such interrogatories relate until such interrogatories be answered as herein provided, and not then if the answers thereto disclose that such document is not in conformity with the provisions of this chapter. The secretary of state shall certify to the attorney general, for such action as the attorney general may deem appropriate, all interrogatories and answers thereto which disclose a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.132]

496A.133 Information disclosed by interrogatories. Interrogatories propounded by the secretary of state and the answers thereto shall not be open to public inspection nor shall the secretary of state disclose any facts or information obtained therefrom except insofar as required in the performance of his official duties. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.133]

496A.134 Powers of secretary of state. The secretary of state shall have the power and authority reasonably necessary to enable him to administer this chapter efficiently and to perform the duties therein imposed upon him. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.134]

496A.135 Appeal from secretary of state. If the secretary of state shall fail to approve any articles of incorporation, amendment, merger, consolidation or dissolution, or any other document required by this chapter to be approved by the secretary of state before the same shall be filed in his office, he shall, within ten days after the delivery thereof to him, give written notice of his disapproval to the person or corporation, domestic or foreign, delivering the same, specifying the reasons therefor. From such disapproval such person or corporation may appeal to the district court of the county in which the registered office of such corporation is, or is proposed to be, situated by filing with the clerk of such court a petition setting forth a copy of the articles or other documents sought to be filed and a copy of the written disapproval thereof by the secretary of state; whereupon the matter shall be tried de novo by the court, and the court shall either sustain the action of the secretary of state or direct him to take such action as the court may deem proper. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.135]

496A.136 Certificates and certified copies to be received in evidence. All certificates issued by the secretary of state in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and copies of all documents filed or recorded in his office in accordance with the provisions of this chapter when certified by him, shall be taken and received in all courts, public offices, and official bodies as prima-facie evidence of the facts therein stated. A certificate by the secretary of state under the seal of his office, as to the existence or nonexistence of the facts relating to corporations which would not appear from a certified copy of any of the foregoing documents or certificates shall be taken and received in all courts, public offices, and official bodies as prima-facie evidence of the existence or nonexistence of the facts therein stated. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.136]

496A.137 Forms to be furnished by secretary of state. All reports required by this chapter to be filed in the office of the secretary of state shall be made on forms which shall be prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state. Forms for other documents to be filed in the office of the secretary of state may be furnished by the secretary of state on request therefor, but the use thereof, unless otherwise specifically prescribed in this chapter, shall not be mandatory. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.137]

496A.138 Voting requirements. Whenever, with respect to any action to be taken by the shareholders of a corporation, the articles of incorporation require the vote or concurrence of the holders of a greater or lesser proportion of the shares, or of any class or series thereof, then required by this chapter with respect to such action, the provisions of the articles of incorporation shall control. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.138]

496A.139 Waiver of notice. Whenever any notice is required to be given to any shareholder or director of a corporation under the provisions of this chapter or under the provisions of the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. [C62, 66, 71, §496A.139] Referred to in §496A.142(3)

Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote and may be stated as such in any articles or document filed with the secretary of state under this chapter. Such corporations shall continue to be governed by all laws of this state heretofore applicable thereto and as the same may hereafter be amended. This chapter shall not be construed as in derogation of or as a limitation on the powers to which such corporations may be entitled.

ness corporation Act, is hereby authorized to acquire, purchase, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of any bond, security or other evidences of indebtedness created by, or the shares of the capital stock of, development corporations, and while owners of said shares to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon, all without the approval of any regulatory agency of this state.

2. Any financial institution is hereby authorized to become a member of a development corporation and to make loans to such corporation.

3. Any financial institution which does not become a member of a development corporation shall not be permitted to acquire any shares of the capital stock of such development corporation.

4. Each financial institution which becomes a member of a development corporation is hereby authorized to acquire, purchase, hold, sell, assign, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, any bonds, securities or other evidences of indebtedness created by, or the shares of the capital stock of, the developmanship corporation, of which it is a member and while owners of such shares to exercise all rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including
the right to vote thereon, all without the approval of any regulatory agency of this state;
provided that the amount of the capital stock of any development corporation which may be acquired by any member pursuant to the authority granted herein, shall not exceed ten percent of the loan limit of such member. The amount of capital stock of a development corporation which any member is authorized to acquire pursuant to the authority granted herein, is in addition to the amount of capital stock in other corporations which such member may otherwise be authorized to acquire, provided, however, that no financial institution shall become a shareholder or member of more than one development corporation. [C66, 71,§496B.8]
496B.9 Loan procedures. A financial institution may request membership in a development corporation by making application to the board of directors thereof on such form and in such manner as such board of directors may require, and membership shall become effective upon acceptance of such application by said board. Each member of any development corporation shall make loans to such development corporation as and when called upon by that corporation to do so on such terms and conditions as shall be approved from time to time by the board of directors subject to the following:

1. All loan limits shall be established at the thousand dollar amount nearest the amount computed in accordance with the provisions of this section.

2. No loan to a development corporation shall be made if immediately thereafter the total amount of the obligations of the development corporation calling for the loan would exceed eight times the amount then paid in on the outstanding capital stock of such corporation.

3. The total amount outstanding at any one time on loans to a development corporation made by a member thereof when added to the amount of the investment in the capital stock of such corporation and held by such member, shall not exceed the lesser of:
   a. Twenty percent of the total amount then outstanding on loans to such development corporation by all members thereof, including in said total amount outstanding amounts validly called for loan but not yet loaned.
   b. The limit, to be determined as of the time such member becomes a member, on the basis of the audited balance sheet of such member at the close of its fiscal year immediately preceding its application for membership, as follows:
      (1) Banks and trust companies—two percent of the paid-in capital, surplus, and undivided profits.
      (2) Savings and loan associations—two percent of the general reserve account, surplus and undivided profits.
      (3) Stock life insurance companies—one percent of capital and unassigned surplus.
      (4) Mutual life insurance companies—one percent of the unassigned surplus.
      (5) All other insurance companies—one-tenth of one percent of the assets.
      (6) Other financial institutions—such limits as may be approved by the board of directors of the development corporation.

Provided that the lending limit of any one member shall not exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars.

4. Each call for loan shall be prorated among the members in substantially the same proportion that the adjusted loan limit of each member bears to the aggregate of the adjusted loan limits of all members. The adjusted loan limit of a member shall be the amount of such member’s loan limit, reduced by the balance of outstanding obligations of the corporation to such member and the investment in capital stock of the corporation held by such member at the time of such call.

5. All loans to a development corporation by a member shall be evidenced by registered bonds, debentures, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness of the development corporation, which shall be freely transferable by the registered holder thereof on the books of the corporation. [C66, §496B.9]

496B.10 Duration of membership. Membership in any development corporation shall be for the duration of the respective development corporation; provided, however, that upon written notice given to the development corporation five years in advance a member thereof may withdraw from membership in such corporation at the expiration date of such notice. Provided that a financial institution may at any time withdraw from membership without such notice in the event of its merger with another financial institution, after commencement of proceedings for voluntary or involuntary dissolution, receivership, or reorganization pursuant to or by operation of federal or state law or in the event of conversion from a state financial institution to a federal financial institution or the reverse. If there shall be a legislative amendment of this chapter affecting the rights and obligations of the members and shareholders or otherwise affecting the articles of incorporation of such corporation which shall not have been approved by the members and shareholders within the time set forth and in the manner provided in this chapter, any member not approving such amendment may immediately withdraw from membership upon giving written notice to the corporation not later than ninety days from the effective date of the amendment. A member shall not be obligated to make any loans to a development corporation pursuant to calls made subsequent to the withdrawal of said member therefrom. [C66, §496B.10]

496B.11 Powers of shareholders. The shareholders and the members of the development corporation shall have the following powers of such corporation:

1. Those powers granted in the Iowa business corporation Act which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

2. To determine the number and elect directors as provided herein.

3. To amend the articles of incorporation as provided herein.

4. To dissolve the corporation as provided herein.

5. To exercise such other of the powers of the corporation as may be conferred on the shareholders and the members by the bylaws. As to all matters requiring action by the shareholders and the members of the corporation, such shareholders and such members shall vote separately thereon by classes and, except as may be otherwise herein provided, approval of such matters shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes to which the shareholders present or represented at the meeting are entitled, and the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes to which the members present or represented at the meeting are entitled. Each shareholder shall have one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share of capital stock held by him, and each member shall have one vote, in person or by proxy, except that any member having a loan limit of more than one thousand dollars shall have one additional vote, in person or by proxy, for each additional one thousand dollars which such member is authorized to have outstanding on loans to the corporation at any one time as determined herein. [C66, 71, §496B.11]

496B.12 Articles amended. The articles of incorporation of any development corporation may be amended by the votes of the shareholders and the members thereof voting separately by classes. Any amendment shall require approval by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes to which the shareholders shall be entitled and two-thirds of the votes to which the members shall be entitled. No amendment, however, shall be made which: (1) is inconsistent with this chapter; (2) authorizes any additional class or classes of shares of capital stock; (3) eliminates or curtails the authority of the commission with respect to the corporation. Without the consent of each of the members affected, no amendment shall be made which: (1) increases the obligation of a member to make loans to the corporation; (2) makes any change in the principal amount, interest rate, maturity date, or in the security or credit position of any outstanding loan of a member to the corporation; (3) affects a member's right to withdraw from membership, as provided herein, or (4) affects a member's voting rights in the corporation. Within thirty days after any meeting at which amendment of any such articles has been adopted, articles of amendment signed and sworn to by the president, secretary and majority of the directors, setting forth such amendment and the due adoption thereof, shall be submitted to the chairman of the commission who shall examine them, and if he finds that they conform to the requirements of this chapter, shall so certify and endorse his approval thereof. Thereupon, the articles of amendment shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state in the manner set forth and as provided in the Iowa business corporation Act and no such amendment shall take effect until such articles of amendment shall have been approved and filed as aforesaid. Within sixty days after the effective date of any legislative amendment affecting the rights and obligations of the members and shareholders or otherwise affecting the articles of incorporation, the approval of such legislative amendment shall be voted on by the shareholders and the members of the development corporation at a meeting duly called for that purpose. If such legislative amendment is not approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes to which such shareholders shall be entitled and two-thirds of the votes to which such members shall be entitled, any such member voting against the approval of such legislative amendment shall have the right to withdraw from membership as provided in this chapter. Within thirty days after any meeting at which a legislative amendment affecting the articles of incorporation of a development corporation has been voted on, a certificate filed and sworn to by the secretary or other recording officer of such corporation setting forth the action taken at such meeting with respect to such amendment shall be submitted to the chairman of the commission and upon receipt of such approval shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state. [C66, 71, §496B.12]

496B.13 Board of directors. The board of directors shall consist of such number not less than fifteen as shall be determined in the first instance by the incorporators and thereafter annually by the members and the shareholders at each annual meeting or at any special meeting held in lieu of the annual meeting. At each annual meeting or at any special meeting held in lieu of the annual meeting, the members of each corporation shall elect two-thirds of the board of directors and the shareholders shall elect the remaining directors. The directors shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the corporation or special meeting held in lieu of the annual meeting after their election, and until their successors are elected and qualify unless sooner removed in accordance with the provisions of the bylaws. Any vacancy in the office of a director elected by the members shall be filled by the directors elected by the members, and any vacancy in the office of a director elected by the shareholders shall be filled by the directors elected by the shareholders.

Notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, officers and directors of insurance companies and other financial institutions may be members of the board of directors of any corporation organized for the purposes of this chapter to which the insurance company or other financial institution may make a loan or may make an investment. [C66, 71, §496B.13]

Referred to in §496B.2(4)

496B.14 Earned surplus set aside. Each year each development corporation shall set apart as earned surplus not less than ten percent of its net earnings for the preceding fiscal year until such surplus shall be equal in value to one-half of the amount paid in on the capital stock then outstanding. Whenever the amount of surplus established herein shall become impaired, it shall be built up again to the required amount in the manner provided for its original accumulation. Net earnings and surplus shall be determined by the board of directors, after providing for such reserves as said directors deem desirable, and the directors' determination made in good faith shall be conclusive on all persons. [C66, 71,§496B.14]

496B.15 Deposit of funds. No development corporation shall deposit any of its funds in any financial institution unless such institution has been designated as a depository by a vote of a majority of the directors present at any authorized meeting of the board of directors exclusive of any director who is an officer or director of the depository so designated. No development corporation shall receive money on deposit. [C66, 71,§496B.15]

496B.16 Reports to development commission. Each development corporation shall be subject to the examination of the commission and shall make reports of its condition not less than annually to the commission, which in turn shall make copies of such reports available to the commissioner of insurance and the superintendent of banking, and each development corporation shall also furnish such other information as may from time to time be required by the commission. [C66, 71,§496B.16]

496B.17 Certificate to do business. Upon the approval of the commission as required in this chapter and the issuance of a certificate as provided in the Iowa business corporation Act, a development corporation shall then be authorized to commence business and to issue stock thereof to the extent authorized in its articles of incorporation. [C66, 71,§496B.17]

496B.18 Securities law not applicable. No provision of chapter 502 shall apply to the shares of capital stock, bonds, debentures, notes, evidences of indebtedness, or any other securities of development corporations. [C66, 71,§496B.18]

496B.19 Dissolution. A development corporation may be dissolved upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes to which the shareholders thereof shall be entitled and two-thirds of the votes to which the members shall be entitled. Upon any dissolution of a development corporation, none of the corporation's assets shall be distributed to the shareholders until all sums due the members of the corporation as creditors thereof have been paid in full. [C66, 71,§496B.19]

PROFESSIONAL CORPORATIONS

496C.1 Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the “Iowa Professional Corporation Act”. [C71,§496C.1]

496C.2 Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions contained in the Iowa business corporation Act [chapter 496A] apply, and:

1. “Profession” means the profession of certified public accountant, architecture, chiropractic, dentistry, professional engineering, land surveying, law, medicine and surgery, optometry, osteopathy, osteopathic medicine and surgery, podiatry, or veterinary medicine.

2. “Professional corporation” means a corporation subject to this Act, except a foreign professional corporation.

3. “Foreign professional corporation” means a corporation organized under laws other than the laws of this state for a purpose for which a professional corporation may be organized under this chapter.

4. “Licensed” includes registered, certified, admitted to practice, or otherwise legally authorized under the laws of this state.

5. “Regulating board” means any board, commission, court, or governmental authority which, under the laws of this state, is charged with the licensing, registration, certification, admission to practice, or other legal authorization of the practitioners of any profession.

6. "Voluntary transfer" includes any sale, voluntary assignment, gift, pledge, or encumbrance; any voluntary change of legal or equitable ownership or beneficial interest; or any voluntary change of persons having voting rights with respect to any shares, except as proxies; but does not include any transfer of an individual's shares or other property to a guardian or conservator appointed for such individual or his property.

7. "Employees" or "agents" does not include clerks, stenographers, secretaries, bookkeepers, technicians, or other persons who are not usually and ordinarily considered by custom and practice to be practicing a profession, nor any other person who performs all his duties for the professional corporation under the direct supervision and control of one or more officers, employees, or agents of the professional corporation who are duly licensed in this state to practice a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice in this state. This chapter shall not be construed to require any such persons to be licensed to practice a profession if they are not required to be licensed under any other law of this state. [C71,§496C.2]

496C.3 Applicability of Iowa business corporation Act. The Iowa business corporation Act shall be construed as part of this chapter and shall apply to professional corporations, including, but not limited to, their organization, reports, fees, authority, powers, rights, and the regulation and conduct of their affairs. The provisions of the Iowa business corporation Act on foreign corporations shall apply to foreign professional corporations. The provisions of this chapter shall prevail over any inconsistent provisions of the Iowa business corporation Act or any other law. [C71,§496C.3]

496C.4 Purposes and powers. A professional corporation shall be organized only for the purpose of engaging in the practice of one specific profession, or two or more specific professions which could lawfully be practiced in combination by a licensed individual or a partnership of licensed individuals, and for the additional purpose of doing all lawful things which may be incidental to or necessary or convenient in connection with the practice of the profession or professions. The articles of incorporation shall state in substance that the purposes for which the corporation is organized are to engage in the general practice of a specified profession or professions, or one or more specified branches or divisions thereof, and to do all lawful things which may be incidental to or necessary or convenient in connection with the practice of the profession or professions. Each professional corporation, unless otherwise provided in its articles of incorporation or unless expressly prohibited by this chapter, shall have all powers granted to corporations by the Iowa business corporation Act. [C71,§496C.4]

496C.5 Corporate name. The corporate name of a professional corporation, the corporate name of a foreign professional corporation or its name as modified for use in this state, and any assumed name or trade name adopted by a professional corporation or foreign professional corporation shall contain the words "professional corporation" or the abbreviation "P.C.", and except for the addition of such words or abbreviation, shall be a name which could lawfully be used by a licensed individual or by a partnership of licensed individuals in the practice in this state of a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice. Each regulating board may by rule or regulation adopt additional requirements as to the corporate names and assumed or trade names of professional corporations and foreign professional corporations which are authorized to practice a profession which is within the jurisdiction of the regulating board. [C71,§496C.5]

496C.6 Who may incorporate. One or more individuals having capacity to contract, each of whom is licensed to practice in this state a profession which the professional corporation is to be authorized to practice, may act as incorporators of a professional corporation. [C71,§496C.6]

496C.7 Practice by professional corporation. Notwithstanding any other statute or rule of law, a professional corporation may practice a profession, but may do so in this state only through shareholders, directors, officers, employees, and agents who are licensed to practice the same profession in this state. In its practice of a profession, no professional corporation shall do any act which could not lawfully be done by individuals licensed to practice the profession which the professional corporation is authorized to practice. [C71,§496C.7]

496C.8 Professional regulation. No professional corporation shall be required to register with or to obtain any license, registration, certificate, or other legal authorization from any regulating board in order to practice a profession. Except as provided in this section, nothing in this chapter shall restrict or limit in any manner the authority or duties of any regulating board with respect to individuals practicing any profession which is within the jurisdiction of the regulating board, even if the individual is a shareholder, director, officer, employee, or agent of a professional corporation or foreign professional corporation and practices his profession through such corporation. [C71,§496C.8]

496C.9 Relationship and liability to persons served. This chapter does not modify any law applicable to the relationship between an individual practicing a profession and a person receiving professional services, including, but not limited to, any liability arising out of such practice and any law respecting privileged communications.

This chapter does not modify or affect the ethical standards or standards of conduct of any profession, including, but not limited to, any standards prohibiting or limiting the practice of the profession by a corporation or prohibiting or limiting the practice of two or more professions in combination. All such standards shall apply to the shareholders, directors, officers, employees, and agents through whom a professional corporation practices any profession in this state, to the same extent that the standards apply to an individual practitioner.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, the liability of the shareholders of a professional corporation, as shareholders, shall be limited in the same manner and to the same extent as in the case of a corporation organized under the Iowa business corporation Act. [C71, §496C.9]

496C.10 Issuance of shares. Shares of a professional corporation may be issued, and treasury shares may be disposed of, only to individuals who are licensed to practice in this state a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, the affirmative vote or consent in writing of all of the outstanding shareholders entitled to vote, or such lesser proportion as may be provided in the articles or bylaws, is necessary in order to authorize the issuance of any shares or the disposal of any treasury shares, and to fix the consideration for shares or treasury shares.

No shares of a professional corporation shall at any time be issued in, transferred into, or held in joint tenancy, tenancy in common, or any other form of joint ownership or co-ownership.

The Iowa securities law shall not be applicable to nor govern any transaction relating to any shares of a professional corporation. [C71, §496C.10]

496C.11 Transfer of shares. No shareholder or other person shall make any voluntary transfer of any shares in a professional corporation to any person, except to the professional corporation or to an individual who is licensed to practice in this state a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, the affirmative vote or consent in writing of all of the outstanding shareholders entitled to vote, or such lesser proportion as may be provided in the articles or bylaws, is necessary in order to authorize any voluntary transfer of any shares of a professional corporation.

The articles of incorporation or bylaws may contain any additional provisions restricting the transfer of shares. [C71, §496C.11]

496C.12 Convertible securities—stock rights and options. No professional corporation shall create or issue any securities convertible into shares of the professional corporation. The provisions of this chapter with respect to the issuance and transfer of shares and disposal of treasury shares apply to the creation, issuance, and transfer of any rights or options entitling the holder to purchase from a professional corporation any shares of the corporation, including treasury shares. Rights or options shall not be transferable, whether voluntarily, involuntarily, by operation of law, or in any other manner. Upon the death of the holder, or whenever the holder ceases to be licensed to practice in this state a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice, the rights or options shall expire. [C71, §496C.12]

496C.13 Voting trust—proxy. No shareholder of a professional corporation shall create or enter into a voting trust or any other agreement conferring upon any other person the right to vote or otherwise represent any shares of a professional corporation, and no such voting trust or agreement is valid or effective. Any proxy of a shareholder of a professional corporation shall be an individual licensed to practice in this state a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice. Any provision in any proxy instrument denying the right of the shareholder to revoke the proxy at any time or for any period of time is not valid or effective. This section does not otherwise limit the right of a shareholder to vote by proxy, but the articles of incorporation or bylaws may further limit or deny the right to vote by proxy. [C71, §496C.13]

496C.14 Required purchase by professional corporation of its own shares. Notwithstanding any other statute or rule of law, a professional corporation shall purchase its own shares as provided in this section; and the shareholders of a professional corporation and their executors, administrators, legal representatives, and successors in interest, shall sell and transfer the shares held by them as provided in this section.

The corporation may validly purchase its own shares even though its net assets are less than its stated capital, or even though by so doing its net assets would be reduced below its stated capital.

Upon the death of a shareholder, the professional corporation shall immediately purchase all shares held by the deceased shareholder.

In order to remain a shareholder of a professional corporation, a shareholder shall at all times be licensed to practice in this state a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice. Whenever any shareholder does not have or ceases to have this qualification, the corporation shall immediately purchase all shares held by that shareholder.

Whenever any person other than the shareholder of record becomes entitled to have shares of the corporation transferred into his name or to exercise voting rights, except as a proxy, with respect to shares of the corporation, the corporation shall immediately purchase such shares. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this section shall be applicable whether the event occurs as a result of the appointment of a guardian or conservator for a shareholder or his property, transfer of shares by operation of law, involuntary transfer of shares, judicial proceedings, execution, levy, bankruptcy proceedings, receivership proceedings, foreclosure or enforcement of a pledge or encumbrance, or any other situation or occurrence. However, this section does not apply to any voluntary transfer of shares as defined in this chapter.

Shares purchased by the corporation under the provisions of this section shall be transferred to the corporation as of the close of business on the date of the death or other event which requires purchase. The shareholder and his executors, administrators, legal representatives, or successors in interest, shall promptly do all things which may be necessary or convenient to cause transfer to be made as of the transfer date. However, the shares shall promptly be transferred on the stock transfer books of the corporation as of the transfer date, notwithstanding any delay in transferring or surrendering the shares or certificates representing the shares, and the transfer shall be valid and effective for all purposes as of the close of business on the transfer date. The purchase price for such shares shall be paid as provided in this chapter, but the transfer of shares to the corporation as provided in this section shall not be delayed or affected by any delay or default in making payment.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, purchase by the corporation is not required upon the occurrence of any event other than death of a shareholder, if the corporation is dissolved within sixty days after the occurrence of the event. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may provide that purchase is not required upon the death of a shareholder, if the corporation is dissolved within sixty days after the death.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws or in an agreement among all shareholders of the professional corporation:

1. The purchase price for shares shall be their book value as of the end of the month immediately preceding the death or other event which requires purchase. Book value shall be determined from the books and records of the professional corporation in accordance with the regular method of accounting used by the corporation, uniformly and consistently applied. Adjustments to book value shall be made, if necessary, to take into account work in process and accounts receivable. Any final determination of book value made in good faith by any independent certified public accountant or firm of certified public accountants employed by the corporation for the purpose shall be conclusive on all persons.

2. The purchase price shall be paid in cash as follows: Upon the death of a shareholder, thirty percent of the purchase price shall be paid within ninety days after death, and the balance shall be paid in three equal annual installments on the first three anniversaries of the death. Upon the happening of any other event referred to in this section, one-tenth of the purchase price shall be paid within ninety days after the date of such event, and the balance shall be paid in three equal annual installments on the first three anniversaries of the date of the event.

3. Interest from the date of death or other event shall be payable annually on principal payment dates, at the rate of six percent per annum on the unpaid balance of the purchase price.

4. All persons who are shareholders of the professional corporation on the date of death or other event, and their executors, administrators, and legal representatives, shall, to the extent the corporation fails to meet its obligations hereunder, be jointly liable for the payment of the purchase price and interest in proportion to their percentage of ownership of the corporation's shares, disregarding shares of the deceased or withdrawing shareholder.

5. The part of the purchase price remaining unpaid after the initial payment shall be evidenced by a negotiable promissory note, which shall be executed by the corporation and all shareholders liable for payment. Any person liable on the note shall have the right to prepay the note in full or in part at any time.

6. If the person making any payment is not reasonably able to determine which of two or more persons is entitled to receive a payment, or if the payment is payable to a person who is unknown, or who is under disability and there is no person legally competent to receive the payment, or who cannot be found after the exercise of reasonable diligence by the person making the payment, it shall be deposited with the treasurer of state and shall be subject to the provisions of the Iowa business corporation Act with respect to funds deposited with the treasurer of state upon the voluntary or involuntary dissolution of a corporation.

7. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, no part of the purchase price shall be required to be paid until the certificates representing such shares have been surrendered to the corporation.

8. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, payment of any part of the purchase price for shares of a deceased shareholder shall not be required until the executor or administrator of the deceased shareholder provides any indemnity, release, or other document from any taxing authority, which is reasonably necessary to protect the corporation against liability for estate, inheritance, and death taxes.
The articles of incorporation or bylaws or an agreement among all shareholders of a professional corporation may provide for a different purchase price, a different method of determining the purchase price, a different interest rate or no interest, and other terms, conditions, and schedules of payment.

The articles of incorporation or bylaws or an agreement among all shareholders of a professional corporation may provide for the optional or mandatory purchase of its own shares by the corporation in other situations, subject to any applicable law regarding such purchase. [C71, §496C.14]

§496C.15 Certificates representing shares. Each certificate representing shares of a professional corporation shall state in substance that the certificate represents shares in a professional corporation and is not transferable except as expressly provided in this chapter and in the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the corporation. [C71, §496C.15]

§496C.16 Management. All directors of a professional corporation and all officers of a professional corporation except assistant officers, shall at all times be individuals who are licensed to practice in this state a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice. No person who is not licensed shall have any authority or duties in the management or control of the corporation. If any director or any officer ceases to have this qualification, he shall immediately and automatically cease to hold the directorship or office. [C71, §496C.16]

§496C.17 Bylaws. The initial bylaws of a professional corporation shall be adopted by its board of directors. The power to alter, amend, or repeal the bylaws or adopt new bylaws is reserved to and vested in the shareholders unless granted to the board of directors by the articles of incorporation. [C71, §496C.17]

§496C.18 Merger or consolidation. No professional corporation shall merge or consolidate with any other corporation except another professional corporation subject to this chapter. Merger or consolidation shall not be permitted unless the surviving or new corporation is a professional corporation which complies with all requirements of this chapter. [C71, §496C.18]

§496C.19 Dissolution or liquidation. Violation of any provision of this chapter by a professional corporation or any of its shareholders, directors, or officers, shall be cause for its involuntary dissolution, or liquidation of its assets and business by the district court, as provided in the Iowa business corporation Act. Upon the death of the last remaining shareholder of a professional corporation, or whenever the last remaining shareholder is not licensed or ceases to be licensed to practice in this state a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice, or whenever any person other than the shareholder of record becomes entitled to have all shares of the last remaining shareholder of the corporation transferred into his name or to exercise voting rights, except as a proxy, with respect to such shares, the corporation shall not practice any profession and it shall be promptly dissolved. However, if prior to such dissolution all outstanding shares of the corporation are acquired by one or more persons licensed to practice in this state a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice, the corporation need not be dissolved and may practice the profession as provided in this chapter. [C71, §496C.19]

§496C.20 Foreign professional corporation. A foreign professional corporation may practice a profession in this state if it complies with the provisions of the Iowa business corporation Act on foreign corporations. The secretary of state may prescribe forms for such purpose.

A foreign professional corporation may practice a profession in this state only through shareholders, directors, officers, employees, and agents who are licensed to practice the profession in this state. The provisions of this chapter with respect to the practice of a profession by a professional corporation apply to a foreign professional corporation.

The certificate of authority of a foreign professional corporation may be revoked by the secretary of state as provided in the Iowa business corporation Act, if the foreign professional corporation fails to comply with any provision of this chapter.

This chapter shall not be construed to prohibit the practice of a profession in this state by an individual who is a shareholder, director, officer, employee, or agent of a foreign professional corporation, if the individual could lawfully practice the profession in this state in the absence of any relationship to a foreign professional corporation. The preceding sentence shall apply regardless of whether or not the foreign professional corporation is authorized to practice a profession in this state. [C71, §496C.20]

§496C.21 Annual report. Each annual report of a professional corporation or foreign professional corporation shall, in addition to the information required by the Iowa business corporation Act, set forth:

1. The name and address of each shareholder.

2. In the case of a professional corporation, a statement under oath whether or not all shareholders, directors, and officers, except assistant officers, of the corporation are licensed to practice in this state a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice, and whether or not all employees and agents of the corporation who practice a profession in this state on behalf of the corporation are licensed to practice the profession in this state.
