In the event of extraordinary services, however, the court may, upon petition and after hearing thereon, allow the conservator additional compensation. Such petition shall set out the extraordinary services rendered by the conservator. Compensation as conservator and a fee as attorney shall not be allowed to the same person. 633.620 Dual conservatorship proceedings not required. Sections 633.614 to 633.619 shall not be construed as requiring dual conservatorship proceedings of the property of the same person, but when a conservator is such, both as to moneys paid by the United States through the money received from the veterans administration and to other property of the ward, the accounts of the money received from the veterans administration shall be kept separate and apart from the accounts of other property. 2. Excess funds paid to the conservator may be invested in interest-bearing federally insured accounts, or in United States savings bonds, without approval of the court.

3. Moneys paid shall not be applied to the payment of obligations outlawed by the statute of limitations of any jurisdiction.

4. No money paid as a gratuity to a ward may be made the subject of a gift to third parties, except that the court may, on petition, authorize the application of said moneys to the assistance of a close relative after a finding that the veteran, if competent, would assist the relative to the extent of the order. [C31, 35, §§12644-c14-c15; C39, §§12644.14, 12644.15; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§672.14, 672.15; C66, 71, 73, §633.622]

633.634 Provisions applicable to all fiduciaries shall govern. The provisions of this Code applicable to all fiduciaries shall govern the appointment, qualification, oath and bond of guardians and conservators, except that a guardian shall not be required to give bond unless the court, for good cause, finds that the best interests of the ward require a bond. The court shall then fix the terms and conditions of such bond. [C51, §1496; R60, §2548;

[C66, 71, 73, §633.639]

Whenever any property of the ward not mentioned in the inventory comes into the possession, or to the knowledge, of the conservator, he shall file in the conservatorship a verified supplemental inventory within thirty days after the property comes into his possession, or becomes known to him; or he may include the property in his next accounting. The cost of such investigation, including a reasonable attorney fee, shall be taxed as part of the cost of the conservatorship. [C66, 71, 73, §633.648]

PART 4

TRANSFERRING, ENCUMBERING AND LEASING PROPERTY BY CONSERVATOR

633.652 Procedure applicable to personal representatives shall govern. Conservators shall have the power to sell, mortgage, exchange, pledge and lease real and personal property belonging to the ward, including the homestead and exempt personal property, when it appears to be to the best interests of the ward, in the same manner and by the same procedure that is provided in this Code for sale, mortgage, exchange, pledge and lease by personal representatives in administration of estates of decedents. [C51, §§1500-1508; R60, §§1453, 2552-2560; C73, §§2257-2265, 2276; C97, §§3206-3212, 3225; S13, §§3225; C24, 27, 31, §§12587-12596, 12628, 12644.21, -g2, -g3, -g4, -g5, C97, §§12587-12596, 12628, 12644.21, -12644.25; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§668.14-668.23, 670.16, 673.1-673.5; C66, 71, 73, §633.652]

Claims accruing before or after the appointment of the conservator, and whether arising in contract or tort or otherwise, after being allowed or established as provided in sections 633.654 to 633.656, shall be paid by the conservator from the assets of the conservatorship. [C66, 71, 73, §633.653]

633.654 Form and verification of claims—general requirements. No claim shall be allowed against the estate of a ward upon application of the claimant unless it shall be in writing, filed in duplicate with the clerk, stating the claimant’s name and address, and describing the nature and the amount thereof, if ascertainable. It shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the claimant, or of someone for him, that the amount is justly due, or if not due, when it will or may become due, that no payments have been made thereon which are not credited, and that there are no offsets to the same, to the knowledge of the affiant, except as therein stated. The duplicate of said claim shall be mailed by the clerk to the conservator or his attorney of record; however, valid contract claims arising in the ordinary course of the conduct of the business or affairs of the ward by the conservator may be paid by the conservator without requiring affidavit or filing. [C66, 71, 73,§633.654] Referred to in §§633.653, 633.664

633.655 Requirements when claim founded on written instrument. If a claim is founded upon a written instrument, the original of such instrument, or a copy thereof, with all endorsements, must be attached to the claim. The original instrument must be exhibited to the conservator or to the court, upon demand, unless it has been lost or destroyed, in which case, its loss or destruction must be stated in the claim. [C51,§1359; R60,§2391; C73,§2408; C97,§3338; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§11957, 11958; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§633.55, 633.54; C66, 71, 73,§633.655]
Referred to in §633.663

[C73,§2409; C97,§3339; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§11960, 11968; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§633.56; C66, 71, 73,§633.656]
Referred to in §633.655

633.660 Execution and levy prohibited. No execution shall issue upon, nor shall any levy be made against, any property of the estate of a ward under any judgment against the ward or a conservator, but the provisions of this section shall not be so construed as to prevent the enforcement of a mortgage, pledge or other lien upon property in an appropriate proceeding. [C66, 71, 73,§633.660]

633.661 Claims of conservators. If the conservator is a creditor of the ward, he shall file his claim as other creditors, and the court shall appoint some competent person as temporary conservator to represent the ward at the hearing on the conservator’s claim. The same procedure shall be followed in the case of coconservators where all such conservators are creditors of the ward; but if one of the coconservators is not a creditor of the ward, such disinterested conservator shall represent the ward at the hearing on any claim against the ward by a coconservator. [C51,§1369; R60,§2401; C73,§2417; C97,§3346; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§11968; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§635.64; C66, 71, 73,§633.661]

633.663 Waiver of statute of limitations by conservator. It shall be within the discretion of the conservator to determine whether or not the applicable statute of limitation shall be invoked to bar a claim which he believes to be just, and his decision as to the invoking of such statute shall be final. [C66, 71, 73,§633.663]

633.664 Liens not affected by failure to file claim. Nothing in sections 633.654 and 633.658 shall affect or prevent an action or proceeding to enforce any mortgage, pledge or other lien upon the property of the ward. [C66, 71, 73,§633.664]

633.665 Separate actions and claims. Any action pending against the ward at the time the conservator is appointed shall also be considered a claim filed in the conservatorship if notice of substitution is served on the conservator as defendant, and a duplicate of the proof of service of notice of such proceeding is filed in the conservatorship proceeding.

A separate action based on a debt or other liability of the ward may be commenced against the conservator as such in lieu of filing a claim in the conservatorship. Such an action shall be commenced by serving an original notice on the conservator and filing a duplicate of the proof of service of notice of such proceeding in the conservatorship proceeding. Such an action shall also be considered a claim filed in the conservatorship. Such an action may be commenced only in a county where the venue would have been proper if there were no conservatorship and the action had been commenced against the ward. [C66, 71, 73,§633.665]

633.666 Denial and contest of claims. The provisions of sections 633.438 through 633.448 shall be applicable to the denial and contest of claims against conservatorships, but shall not be applicable to actions continued or commenced under section 633.665. [C66, 71, 73,§633.666]

633.667 Payment of claims in insolvent conservatorships. When it appears that the assets in a conservatorship are insufficient to pay in full all the claims against such conservatorship, the conservator shall report such matter to the court, and the court shall, upon hearing, with notice to all persons who have filed claims in the conservatorship, make an order for the pro rata payment of claims among claimants the same as if, if any, as they would have if the ward were not under conservatorship. [R60,§1455; C73,§2278; C97,§3227; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12630; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§670.18; C66, 71, 73,§633.667]
PART 6

633.668 Conservator may make gifts. For good cause shown and under order of court, a conservator may make gifts on behalf of the ward out of the assets under a conservatorship to persons or religious, educational, scientific, charitable, or other nonprofit organizations to whom or to which such gifts were regularly made prior to the commencement of the conservatorship. The making of gifts out of such assets must not foreseeably impair the ability to provide adequately for the best interests of the ward. [C66, 71, 73, §633.668]

PART 7
GUARDIAN’S REPORT

633.669 Guardian’s report. Immediately after the appointment of the guardian, he shall make a report to the court advising the court as to the physical condition and whereabouts of the ward. 3. Within thirty days following the date of his removal.
4. Within sixty days following the date of the termination of the conservatorship under the provisions of section 633.675, unless that time is extended by the court.
5. At such other times as the court may order. [R60, §§2568, 2569; C73, §§2254, 2255; C97, §§8203, 8204; C24, 27, §§12597, 12598; C31, 35, §§12507, 12508, 12644-c11; C39, §§12507, 12508, 12627, 12644.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§668.24, 668.25, 672.11; C66, 71, 73, §633.670]

TRUSTS

§633.689 Powers of trustees. Unless it is otherwise provided by the will creating a testamentary trust, the instrument creating an express trust, or by an order or decree duly entered by a court of competent jurisdiction, a trustee shall have all the general powers of a fiduciary, including, but not limited to, the following powers:

1. To collect, receive and receipt for any principal or income, belonging to the trust estate, and to enforce, sue upon, defend against, prosecute, abandon, adjust, compromise, arbitrate or settle, any claim by or against the trust.

2. To acquire, manage, invest, reinvest, exchange, retain, grant options on, contract to sell, to sell at public auction or private sale, and, to convey, any or all property, real or personal, at any time, forming a part of the trust estate, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as shall be deemed by such trustee to be for the best interests of the trust.

3. To vote in person, or to execute proxies to vote, corporate shares belonging to the trust at all regular and special meetings of shareholders.

4. To borrow money for the benefit of the trust estate, and to secure loans by pledge or mortgage of trust property, upon good cause shown and subject to the approval and direction of the court.

5. To execute leases for a customary period for the type of real estate involved, not to extend beyond the termination date of the trust without the specific approval and direction of the court, provided that in any event, leases may be made for as long as one year.

6. To make payments to, or for the benefit of, any beneficiary in any of the following ways:
   a. Directly to the beneficiary;
   b. Directly for the maintenance, welfare, and education of the beneficiary;
   c. To the guardian or conservator of the beneficiary; or
   d. To anyone who at the time shall have the custody and care of the person of the beneficiary. A trustee shall not be obliged to see to the application of the funds so paid, but if the receipt of the person to whom the funds were paid shall constitute a full acquittance of the trustee.

7. To make any required division or distribution in whole or in part in money, securities, or other property, and in undivided interests therein, and to continue to hold any remaining undivided interest in trust.

8. To receive additional property from any source. [C66, 71, 73, §633.699]
633.700 Intermediate report of trustees. Unless specifically relieved from so doing, by the instrument creating the trust, or by order of the court, the trustee shall make a written report, under oath, to the court, once each year, and oftener, if required by the court. Such report shall state:

1. The period covered by the report.

2. All changes in beneficiaries since the last previous report.

3. Any changes in investments since the last previous report, including a list of all assets, and recommendations of the trustee for the retention or disposition of any property held by the trustee.

4. A detailed accounting for all cash receipts and disbursements, and for all property of the trust, unless such accounting shall be waived in writing by all beneficiaries. [C66, 71, 73, §633.700]

Reflected to in §633.701

633.701 Final report of trustee. Upon the partial or total termination of a trust, or upon the transfer of the trusteeship due to resignation, removal, dissolution, or other disqualification of the trustee of any trust pending in court, the trustee shall make a final report to the court, showing for the period since the filing of the last report the facts required for an intermediate report; provided, however, that unless specifically required by the court to do so, he shall not in any event, be required to report such facts for any period of time as to which he has, under any of the provisions of section 633.700, been expressly relieved from reporting. In any event, the final report of the trustee shall include the following:

1. The name and last known address of each beneficiary.

2. A statement as to those beneficiaries who are known to be minors or under any other legal disability.

3. Distributions made or to be made to each beneficiary at the time of such termination. [C66, 71, 73, §633.701]

Reflected to in §633.702

633.702 Notice of application for discharge. No final report of a trustee of a trust pending in court shall be approved, and no such trustee shall be discharged from further duty or responsibility upon final settlement, until notice of his application for discharge shall have been served upon all persons interested, in accordance with section 633.10, unless notice is waived. An order prescribing notice may be made before or after the filing of the final report. [C66, 71, 73, §633.702; 65GA, ch 1265, §9]

633.703 Discharge. Upon final settlement of a trust, an order shall be entered discharging the trustee from further duties and responsibilities. The order approving the final report shall constitute a waiver of the omission from the final report of any of the recitals required in section 633.701. [C66, 71, 73, §633.703]
4. Waiver and bar. Any assignment, conveyance, encumbrance, pledge or transfer of property or any interest therein or any contract therefor, or any written waiver of the right to disclaim or any acceptance of property or interest therein by an heir, next of kin, devisee, legatee, donee, person succeeding to a disclaimed interest, beneficiary or person designated to take pursuant to a power of appointment exercised by testamentary instrument, and any sale of property by execution, made before the expiration of the period in which a person may disclaim as provided in this section, bars the right to disclaim the property. The right to disclaim granted by this section shall exist irrespective of any limitation on the interest of the disclaimant in the nature of a spendthrift provision or similar restriction. A disclaimer, when filed and recorded as provided in this section or a written waiver of the right to disclaim, shall be binding upon the disclaimant or person waiving and all parties claiming by, through or under him. The right to disclaim shall follow the proceeds of a disposition of property by a fiduciary, and shall not affect the disposition. [C73, §633.704; 65GA, ch 1283, §10]

634.1 Applicability. This chapter shall apply only to trusts which are private foundations as defined in section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, charitable trusts as described in section 4947(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or split-interest trusts as described in section 4947(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. With respect to any such trust created after December 31, 1963, this chapter shall apply from such trust's creation. With respect to any such trust created before January 1, 1970, this chapter shall apply only to such trust's federal taxable years beginning after December 31, 1971. [C73, §634.1]

634.2 Statutory provisions as part of the trust. The trust instrument of each trust to which this chapter applies shall be deemed to contain provisions prohibiting the trustee from:

1. Engaging in any act of self-dealing, as defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4941(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

2. Retaining any excess business holdings, as defined in section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4943(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;

3. Making any investments which would jeopardize the carrying out of any of the exempt purposes of the trust, within the meaning of section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4944(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; and

4. Making any taxable expenditures, as defined in section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4945(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

However, this section shall not apply either to those split-interest trusts or to amounts thereof which are not subject to the prohibitions applicable to private foundations by reason of the provisions of section 4947 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. [C73, §634.2]

634.3 Distribution to avoid tax liability. [C73, §634.3]

634.4 Limitations. [C73, §634.4]

634.6 Statutory exception in trust. Nothing in this chapter shall limit the power of a person who creates a trust after July 1, 1971, or the power of a person who has retained or has been granted the right to amend a trust created before July 1, 1971, to include a specific provision in the trust instrument or an amendment to the trust instrument as the case may be, which provides that some or all of the provisions of sections 634.2 and 634.3 shall have no application to such trust. [C73, §634.6]
635.1 When applicable.

1. When the total value of the probate and nonprobate property of a decedent subject to the jurisdiction of this state including life insurance payable to the estate but not including other life insurance does not exceed ten thousand dollars, if the decedent dies intestate and is survived by a spouse or children or both, or if the decedent leaves a last will and testament and that will is admitted to probate but there is no present administration and the only beneficiaries are a spouse or children or both, then upon the petition of the spouse or a child of the decedent who is a resident of the state of Iowa, the clerk shall issue to the petitioner letters of appointment of executor or administrator for administration of a small estate.

2. When the total value of the probate and nonprobate property of a decedent subject to the jurisdiction of this state including life insurance payable to the estate but not including other life insurance does not exceed ten thousand dollars, if the decedent dies intestate without a surviving spouse or issue and with a surviving parent or parents, or if the decedent dies without a surviving spouse or issue and leaves a last will and testament and that will is admitted to probate but there is no present administration and the only beneficiaries are a spouse or children or both, then upon the petition of the spouse or a child of the decedent who is a resident of the state of Iowa, the clerk shall issue to the petitioner letters of appointment of executor or administrator for administration of a small estate. [65GA, ch 1266, §1]

635.2 Petition requirements. The petition for administration of a small estate must contain the following:

1. The name, domicile and date of death of the decedent.

2. The name and address of the surviving spouse, if any, the name and address of each child of the decedent, and the name and address of each parent of the decedent, if the parent is an heir or beneficiary of the decedent, unless none are beneficiaries under the will of the decedent.

3. Whether a will has been admitted without present administration.

4. A statement that the probate and nonprobate property of the decedent subject to the jurisdiction of this state including life insurance payable to the estate but not including other life insurance does not have an aggregate gross value of more than the amount permitted under the provisions of section 635.1.

5. A statement that petitioner agrees to be personally liable for the payment of debts and charges against the estate to the extent the assets of the estate would be subject to the payment of those debts and charges under estate administration other than for a small estate.

6. A statement that petitioner agrees to account to any personal representative for all assets of the estate coming into the possession of petitioner, if a personal representative is appointed for administration of the estate other than for a small estate. [65GA, ch 1266, §2]

The possessor of property shall be exonerated from any liability for the delivery of property to the personal representative and shall not be responsible for its disposition after the delivery. [65GA, ch 1266, §4]

635.5 Transfer of stock or securities. The letters of appointment are authority for the transfer of stock or other securities to the persons entitled by law to the stock or other securities as stated to the transfer agent by the personal representative for the small estate. The transfer agent shall be exonerated from all liability for making the transfer. [65GA, ch 1266, §5]

635.6 Property of perishable nature. The personal representative of a small estate may sell personal property of a perishable nature and personal property for which there is a regularly established market without order of

635.7 Report and inventory—showing greater gross value. The personal representative is required to file the report and inventory for which provision is made in section 633.361. Nothing in sections 635.1 to 635.3 shall exempt the personal representative from complying with the requirements of section 450.22 or the clerk from complying with the requirements of section 633.481. If the inventory and report shows assets subject to the jurisdiction of this state including life insurance payable to the estate but not including other life insurance which exceed the total gross value of ten thousand dollars, the clerk shall terminate the letters issued under section 635.1 without prejudice to the rights of persons who delivered property as permitted under section 635.3. The personal representative shall then be required to petition for administration of the estate. [65GA, ch 1266, §7]

Referred to in §§635.8, 635.10

635.8 Failure to terminate—liability. Unless an interested person petitions for administration of the estate on a basis other than for a small estate within one year after letters of administration are issued, if those letters of administration are not terminated under the provisions of section 635.7, any property of the estate shall then be free of debts and charges. However, the personal representative of the small estate shall not be exonerated from debts and charges of the estate and shall be subject to personal liability to the extent provided in section 635.2, subsection 5, for the period of time otherwise provided by law. [65GA, ch 1266, §8]

635.9 Petition for administration on other basis. At any time within one year after letters of administration are issued for a small estate, any interested person may petition for appointment of an executor or administrator for administration of the estate other than as a small estate. In that event the clerk shall notify the person holding letters of appointment for administration of a small estate by ordinary mail not less than ten days before a hearing on the petition. The notice shall be directed to the personal representative of the small estate at his last known address as reflected in the petition filed under section 635.2 or the report and inventory filed under section 633.361, whichever is filed later. [65GA, ch 1266, §9]

635.10 Effect of termination. If letters of administration of a small estate are terminated under section 635.7, the time period for estate proceedings under section 633.331 shall apply. [65GA, ch 1266, §10]

635.11 Statement in notice by clerk. If a petition for administration of a small estate is filed at the time a will is admitted to probate without administration, the clerk’s notice under section 633.305 shall state that a small estate administration is contemplated. [65GA, ch 1266, §11]
639.1 Method. The plaintiff in a civil action may cause the property of the defendant not exempt from execution to be attached at the commencement or during the progress of the proceeding, by pursuing the course hereinafter prescribed. [C51, §1846; R60, §3172; C73, §2949; C97, §3876; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12078; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §639.1]

639.2 Proceedings auxiliary. If it be subsequent to the commencement of the action, a separate petition or an amendment to the petition must be filed, and in all cases the proceedings relative to the attachment are to be deemed independent of the ordinary proceedings and only auxiliary thereto. [C51, §1847; R60, §3173; C73, §2950; C97, §3877; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12079; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §639.2]

639.3 Grounds. The petition or amendment to petition which asks an attachment, must in all cases be sworn to. It must state one or more of the following grounds:
1. That the defendant is a foreign corporation or acting as such.
2. That he is a nonresident of the state.
3. That he is about to remove his property.
§639.3, ATTACHMENT

out of the state without leaving sufficient remaining for the payment of his debts.
4. That he has disposed of his property, in whole or in part, with intent to defraud his creditors.
5. That the defendant is about to dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors.
6. That he has absconded, so that the ordinary process cannot be served upon him.
7. That he is about to remove permanently out of the county, and has property therein not exempt from execution, and that he re­fuses to pay or secure the plaintiff.
8. That he is about to remove permanently out of the state, and refuses to pay or secure the debt due the plaintiff.
9. That he is about to remove his property or a part thereof out of the county with intent to defraud his creditors.
10. That he is about to convert his property or a part thereof into money for the purpose of placing it beyond the reach of his creditors.
11. That he has property or rights in action which he conceals.
12. That the debt is due for property obtained under false pretenses. [C51,§1848; R60, §3174; C73,§2951; C97,§3878; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,
$12080; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.3]
639.4 Alternative statement of grounds. The causes for the attachment shall not be stated in the alternative. [R60,§3242; C73,§3021; C97,
§3878; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12081; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.4]
639.5 Issued on Sunday. Where the petition states, in addition to the other facts required, that the plaintiff will lose his claim unless the attachment issues and is served on Sunday, it may be issued and served on that day. [C73,
§2952; C97,§3878; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12082; C46,
50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.5]
639.6 On contract — amount due. If the plaintiff's demand is founded on contract, the amount, which must be more than five dollars in order to authorize an attachment. [C51,§1849; R60,§3175;
C73,§2953; C97,§3880; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12083;
C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.6]
639.7 Value of property attached. The amount thus sworn to is intended as a guide to the sheriff, who must, as nearly as the cir­cumstances of the case will permit, levy upon property fifteen percent greater in value than that amount. [C51,§1850; R60,§3176; C73,§2954;
C97,§3881; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12084; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.7]
639.8 Allowance of value in other cases. If the demand is not founded on contract, the original petition must be presented to some judge of the supreme or district court, or the judge of the court from which the issuance of a writ of attachment is sought, who shall make an allowance thereon of the amount in value of the property that may be attached. [C51,§1851; R60,§3177; C73,§2955; C97,§3882; C24,
27, 31, 35, 39,§12085; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.8]
639.9 For debts not due — grounds. The property of a debtor may be attached on debts not due, when nothing but time is wanting to fix an absolute indebtedness, and when the petition, in addition to that fact, states one or more of the following grounds:
1. That the defendant is about to dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors.
2. That he is about to remove or has removed from the state, and refuses to secure the payment of the debt when it falls due, and which removal or contemplated removal was not known to the plaintiff at the time the debt was contracted.
3. That the defendant has disposed of his property in whole or in part with intent to defraud his creditors.
4. That the debt was incurred for property obtained under false pretenses. [C51,§1852;
R60,§3178; C73,§2956; C97,§3883; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12086; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.9]
639.10 Appearance — judgment — perishable property. If, at the time of the service of the attachment, the claim upon which suit is brought is not due, the defendant need not appear in the action until the maturity of the debt, unless he elects to plead, in which event the cause shall stand for trial when it is reached in its regular order, and no final judgment shall be rendered therein before the maturity of the debt unless such election is made, but if perishable property is levied upon, it may be sold as in other attachment cases. [R60,§§3179, 3180; C73,§§2957, 2958; C97,§3884;
C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12087; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§639.10]
639.11 Bond. In all cases before it can be issued, the plaintiff must file with the clerk a bond for the use of the defendant, with sureties to be approved by such clerk, in a penalty at least double the value of the property sought to be attached, and in no case less than two hundred fifty dollars conditioned that the plaintiff will pay all damages which the defendant may sustain by reason of the wrongful suing out of the attachment. [C51,§1853;

654.2 Deeds of trust. Deeds of trust of real property may be executed as securities for the performance of contracts, and shall be considered as, and foreclosed like, mortgages. [C51, §2096; R60, §3673; C73, §§3318; C97, §4284; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12373; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §§654.2]

654.3 Venue. An action for the foreclosure of a mortgage of real property, or for the sale thereof under an encumbrance or charge thereon, shall be brought in the county in which the property to be affected, or some part thereof, is situated. [C73, §2578; C97, §§3493; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12374; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §§654.3]

The other will be discontinued at his cost. [C51, §2086; R60, §§3663; C73, §§3320; C97, §§4288; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12375; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §§654.4]

654.5 Judgment — sale and redemption. When a mortgage or deed of trust is foreclosed, the court shall render judgment for the entire amount found to be due, and must direct the mortgaged property, or so much thereof as is necessary, to be sold to satisfy the same, with interest and costs. A special execution shall issue accordingly, and the sale thereunder shall be subject to redemption as in cases of sale under general execution. [C51, §2084; R60, §§3661; C73, §§3321; C97, §4289; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12376; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §§654.5]

At any time prior to the sale, a person having a lien on the property which is junior to the mortgage will be entitled to an assignment of all the interest of the holder of the mortgage, by paying him the amount secured, with interest and costs, together with the amount of any other liens of the same holder which are paramount to his. He may then proceed with the foreclosure, or discontinue it, at his option. [C51, §2090; R60, §§3665; C73, §§3323; C97, §§4292; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12379; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §§654.8]

If the money secured by any such lien is not yet due, a rebate of interest, to be fixed by the court must be made by the holder, or his lien on such property will be postponed to those of a junior date, and if there are none such, the balance shall be paid to the mortgagor. 657.4 Process. When upon indictment, complaint, or civil action any person is found guilty of erecting, causing, or continuing a nuisance, the court before whom such finding is had may, in addition to the fine imposed, or if any, or to the judgment for damages or cost for which a separate execution may issue, order that such nuisance be abated or removed at the expense of the defendant, and, after inquiry into and estimating as nearly as may be the sum necessary to defray the expenses of such abatement, the court may issue a warrant therefor. [C51, §2763; R60, §§4113; C73, §4093; C97, §§5062; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§12398; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73; §657.4]

657.6 Stay of execution. Instead of issuing such warrant, the court may order the same to be stayed upon motion of the defendant, and upon his entering into an undertaking to the state, in such sum and with such surety as the court may direct, conditioned either that the defendant will discontinue said nuisance, or that, within a time limited by the court, and not exceeding six months, he will cause the same to be abated and removed, as either is directed by the court; and, upon his failure to perform the condition of his undertaking, the same shall be forfeited, and the court, upon being satisfied of such default, may order such warrant forthwith to issue, and action may be brought on such undertaking. [C51, §2765; R60, §§4415; C73, §4095; C97, §5064; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§12400; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66. 71, 73; §657.6]

657.7 Expenses — how collected. The expense of abating a nuisance by virtue of a warrant can be collected by the officer in the same manner as damages and costs are collected on execution, except that the materials of any buildings, fences, or other things that may be removed as a nuisance may be first levied upon and sold by the officer, and if any of the proceeds remain after satisfying the expense of the removal, such balance must be paid by the officer to the defendant, or to the owner of the property levied upon; and if said proceeds are not sufficient to pay such expenses, the officer must collect the residue thereof. [C51, §2766; R60, §§4416; C73, §4096; C97, §5085; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§12401; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73; §657.7]

S13,§4341, editorially divided

661.2 Discretion—exercise of. Where discretion is left to the inferior tribunal or person, the mandamus can only compel it to act, but cannot control such discretion. [C51,§2180; R60,§3763; C73,§3373; C97,§4341; S13,§4341; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12441; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§661.2]

C97,§4343, editorially divided

661.8 When order granted. The order of mandamus is granted on the petition of any private party aggrieved, without the concurrence of the prosecutor for the state, or on the petition of the state by the county attorney, when the public interest is concerned, and is in the name of such private party or of the state, as the case may be in fact brought. [R60,§3761; C73,§3377; C97,§4345; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12447; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§661.8]

661.9 Petition. The plaintiff in such action shall state his claim, and shall also state facts sufficient to constitute a cause for such claim, and shall also set forth that the plaintiff, if a private individual, is personally interested therein, and that he sustains and may sustain damage by the nonperformance of such duty, and that performance thereof has been demanded by him, and refused or neglected, and shall pray an order of mandamus commanding the defendant to fulfill such duty. [R60,§3762; C73,§3378; C97,§4346; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12448; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§661.9]

661.12 Injunction may issue— joinder. When the action is brought by a private person, it may be joined with a cause of action for such an injunction as may be obtained by ordinary proceedings, or with the causes of actions specified in this chapter, but no other joinder and no counterclaim shall be allowed. [R60,§4181; C73,§3380; C97,§4348; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12450; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§661.12]

JUDGMENT BY CONFESSION

676.1 Judgment by confession—how entered. A judgment by confession, without action, may be entered by the clerk of the district court. [C51§1837; R60§3397; C73§2894; C97§3813; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12668; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73§676.1]

676.2 For money only—contingent liability. The judgment can be only for money due or to become due, or to secure a person against contingent liabilities on behalf of the defendant, and must be for a specified sum. [C51§1838; R60§3398; C73§2895; C97§3814; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12669; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73§676.2]

676.3 Statement. A statement in writing must be made, signed, and verified by the defendant, and filed with the clerk, to the following effect:
1. If for money due or to become due, it must state concisely the facts out of which the indebtedness arose, and that the sum confessed therefor is justly due, or to become due, as the case may be.
2. If for the purpose of securing the plaintiff against a contingent liability, it must state concisely the facts constituting such liability, and must show that the sum confessed therefor does not exceed the same. [C51§1839; R60§3399; C73§2896; C97§3815; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12670; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73§676.3]

676.4 Judgment—execution. The clerk shall thereupon make an entry of judgment in his court record for the amount confessed and costs, and shall issue execution thereon as in other cases, when ordered by the party entitled thereto. [C51§1840; R60§3400; C73§2897; C97§3816; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12671; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73§676.4]

CHAPTER 677
OFFER TO CONFESS JUDGMENT

677.1 Offer to confess before action brought. Before an action for the recovery of money is brought against any person, he may go before the clerk of the county of his residence, or of that in which the person having the cause of action resides, and offer to confess judgment in favor of such person for a specified sum on such cause of action, as provided for in chapter 676. [R60§3403; C73§2898; C97§3817; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12672; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73§677.1]

677.2 Nonacceptance—costs. If such person, having had the same notice as if he were defendant in an action that the offer would be made, of its amount, and of the time and place of making it, refuses to accept it, and afterwards commences an action upon such cause, and does not recover more than the amount so offered to be confessed, he shall pay all the costs of the action. [R60§3403; C73§2898; C97, §3817; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12673; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73§677.2]
§677.3, OFFER TO CONFESS JUDGMENT

677.3 Effect of nonaccepted offer. On the trial thereof the offer shall not be treated as an admission of the cause of action or amount to which the plaintiff was entitled, nor be given in evidence. [R60, §3403; C73, §2905; C97, §3817; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12674; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §677.3]

677.4 Offer to confess after action brought. After an action for the recovery of money is brought, the defendant may offer in court to confess judgment for part of the amount given in evidence. [R60, §3403; C73, §2908; C97, §3818; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12675; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §677.4]

677.5 Nonacceptance — costs. If the plaintiff, being present, refuses to accept judgment for such sum in full of his demands in the action, or, having had three days' notice that the offer would be made, of its amount, and of the time of making it, fails to attend, and on the trial does not recover more than was offered to be confessed, he shall pay the costs of the defendant incurred after the offer. [R60, §3404; C73, §2909; C97, §3819; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12676; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §677.5]

677.6 Effect of nonaccepted offer. The offer shall not be treated as an admission of the cause of action or amount to which the plaintiff was entitled nor be given in evidence upon the trial. [R60, §3404; C73, §2909; C97, §3819; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12677; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §677.6]

677.7 Offer to confess after action brought. The defendant in an action for the recovery of money only may, at any time after service of notice and before the trial, serve upon the plaintiff or his attorney an offer in writing that, if he accepts the offer, and gives notice thereof to the defendant or his attorney within five days after it was served, or within three days if served in term time, and the defendant fails in his defense, the amount of recovery shall be assessed at a specified sum. [R60, §3406; C73, §2901; C97, §3820; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12682; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §677.7]

677.8 Acceptance — judgment. If the plaintiff accepts the offer, and gives notice thereof to the defendant or his attorney within five days after the offer is made, the offer, and an affidavit that the notice of acceptance was delivered in the time limited, may be filed by the plaintiff, or the defendant may file the acceptance with a copy of the offer, verified by affidavit; and in either case a minute of the offer and acceptance shall be entered upon the judge's calendar, and judgment shall be rendered by the court accordingly. [R60, §3405; C73, §2900; C97, §3815; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12679; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §677.8]

677.10 Costs. If the plaintiff fails to obtain judgment for more than was offered by the defendant, he cannot recover costs, but shall pay the defendant's costs from the time of the offer. [R60, §3405; C73, §2900; C97, §3819; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12681; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §677.10]

677.11 Conditional offer. 677.12 Acceptance — effect. If the plaintiff accepts the offer, and gives notice thereof to the defendant or his attorney within five days after it was served, or within three days if served in term time, and the defendant fails in his defense, the judgment shall be for the amount so agreed upon. [R60, §3406; C73, §2901; C97, §3820; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12683; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §677.12]

677.13 Nonacceptance — effect. If the plaintiff does not accept the offer, he shall prove the amount to be recovered as if the offer had not been made, and the offer shall not be given in evidence or mentioned on the trial, and if the amount recovered by the plaintiff does not exceed the sum mentioned in the offer, the defendant shall recover his costs incurred in the defense. [R60, §3406; C73, §2901; C97, §3820; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12684; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §677.13]

677.14 No cause for continuance. The making of any offer pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall not be cause for a continuance of the action or a postponement of the trial. [R60, §3407; C73, §2902; C97, §3821; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12685; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §677.14]

679.2 Written agreement. The parties themselves, or those persons who might lawfully have controlled a civil action in their behalf for the same subject matter, must sign and acknowledge a written agreement, specifying particularly what demands are to be submitted, the names of the arbitrators, and court by which the judgment on their award is to be rendered. [C51, §§2099, 2100; R60, §§3676, 3677; C73, §§3417; C97, §4386; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12696; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§679.2]

All the rules prescribed by law in cases of referees are applicable to arbitrators, except as herein otherwise expressed, or except as otherwise agreed upon by the parties. Any member of a board of arbitration, whether composed of one or more arbitrators may administer oaths to witnesses, and the board may accept, demand and call for such evidence as in equity and good conscience the board may deem material to the controversy upon the evidence which it is reported. [C51,§2103; R60,§3680; C73,§3420; C97,§4389; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12699; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§679.5]

[C51,§2108; R60,§3685; C73,§3425; C97,§4394; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12704; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§679.10]

679.11 Hearing in court. The award shall be entered on the docket of the court as an action is entered and shall be called up and acted upon in its order, but the court may require actual notice to be given to either party, when it appears necessary and proper, before proceeding to act on the award. [C51,§2109; R60,§3686; C73,§3426; C97,§4396; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12705; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§679.11]

679.13 Force and effect of award. When the award has been adopted, it shall be filed and entered on the records, and shall have the same force and effect as the verdict of a jury. Judgment may be entered and execution issued accordingly. [C51,§2111; R60,§3688; C73,§3428; C97,§4398; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12707; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§679.13] any bond or other engagement to abide an award. [C51,§2115; R60,§3692; C73,§3431; C97, §4401; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§12710; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§679.16]

CHAPTER 680

RECEIVERS

680.1 Appointment. On the petition of either party to a civil action or proceeding, wherein he shows that he has a probable right to, or interest in, any property which is the subject of the controversy, and that such property, or its rents or profits, are in danger of being lost or materially injured or impaired, and on such notice to the adverse party as the court shall prescribe, the court, if satisfied that the interests of one or both parties will be thereby promoted, and the substantial rights of neither unduly infringed, may appoint a receiver to take charge of and control such property under its direction during the pendency of the action, and may order and coerce the delivery of it to him. 681.4 Inventory—list of creditors. The assignor shall annex to such instrument an inventory, under oath, of his estate, real and personal, according to the best of his knowledge, and a list of his creditors and the amount of their respective demands, but such inventory shall not be conclusive as to the amount of the debtor's estate. [R60, §1828; C73, §2117; C97, §3072; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12723; C46, 50, 54, 55, 62, 66, 71, 73, §681.4]

[R60, §1828; C73, §2117; C97, §3072; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12725; C46, 50, 54, 55, 62, 66, 71, 73, §681.6]

681.7 Inventory and appraisement—bond. The assignee shall forthwith file with the clerk of the district court where such assignor resides a true and full inventory and valuation of said estate under oath, so far as the same has come to his knowledge, and shall then enter into bonds to said clerk, for the use of the creditors, in double the amount of the inventory and valuation, with one or more sureties to be approved by said clerk, for the faithful performance of said trust, and the assignee may thereupon proceed to perform any duty necessary to carry into effect the purpose of said assignment. The assignee shall forthwith give notice of such assignment by publication in some newspaper in the county, which shall be continued, once each week, at least six weeks, and forthwith send a notice by mail to each creditor of whom he shall be informed, directed to his usual place of residence, requiring such creditor to file in the office of the clerk of the district court within three months thereafter his claims under oath. 681.9 Claims filed. The claims of all creditors, clearly and distinctly stated and sworn to by the claimant, or by some person acquainted with the facts, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court within three months from the date of the first publication provided for in section 681.8, unless the court extends such time for all or some of such claimants, which it may do in its discretion where peculiar circumstances seem to justify such extension, but in no case shall such time be extended beyond nine months. [C97, §3075; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12728; C46, 50, 54, 55, 62, 66, 71, 73, §681.9]

The action shall be accorded reasonable priority for assignment to assure its prompt disposition. The court may order a trial by jury but if it does not, it shall hear the proofs and allegations of the parties in the case and render such judgment thereon as shall be just. [R60, §1832; C73, §2121; C97, §3077; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §12730; C46, 50, 54, 55, 62, 66, 71, 73, §681.11]

Referred to in §537.3501

713B.1 Definitions.
713B.2 Contract.
713B.3 Cancellation.

713B.4 Duties of seller.
713B.5 Effect on Indebtedness.
713B.6 Penalty.

713B.1 Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Door-to-door sale" means a sale, lease, or rental of consumer goods or services with a purchase price of twenty-five dollars or more, whether under single or multiple contracts, in which the seller or his representative personally solicits the sale, including those in response to or following an invitation by the buyer, and the buyer's agreement or offer to purchase is made at a place other than the place of business of the seller. Door-to-door sale does not include a transaction:
   a. Made pursuant to prior negotiations in the course of a visit by the buyer to a retail business establishment having a fixed permanent location where the goods are exhibited or the services are offered for sale on a continuing basis.
   b. In which the consumer is accorded the right of rescission by the provisions of the Consumer Credit Protection Act, title 15 United States Code section 1635, or rules issued pursuant to this chapter.
   c. In which the buyer has initiated the contract and the goods or services are needed to meet a bona fide immediate personal emergency of the buyer, and the buyer furnishes the seller with a separate dated and signed personal statement in the buyer's handwriting describing the situation requiring immediate remedy and expressly acknowledging and waiving the right to cancel the sale within three business days.
   d. Conducted and consummated entirely by mail or telephone; and without any other contact between the buyer and the seller or its representative prior to delivery of the goods or performance of the services.
   e. In which the buyer has initiated the contact and specifically requested the seller to visit his home for the purpose of repairing or performing maintenance upon the buyer's personal property. If in the course of such a visit, the seller sells the buyer the right to receive additional services or goods other than replacement parts necessarily used in performing the maintenance or in making the repairs, the sale of those additional goods or services would not fall within this exclusion.
   f. Pertaining to the sale or rental of real property, to the sale of insurance and prepaid health service plans, or to the sale of securities or commodities by a broker-dealer registered with the securities and exchange commission.

2. "Consumer goods or services" means goods or services purchased, leased, or rented primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, including courses of instruction or training regardless of the purpose for which they are taken.

3. "Seller" means any person engaged in the door-to-door sale of consumer goods or services.

4. "Place of business" means the main or permanent branch office or local address of a seller.

5. "Purchase price" means the total price paid or to be paid for the consumer goods or services, including all interest and service charges.

6. "Business day" means any calendar day except Saturday, Sunday, or public holiday, including holidays observed on Mondays. [65GA, ch 291, §1]

713B.2 Contract. Every seller shall furnish the buyer with a fully completed receipt or copy of any contract pertaining to a door-to-door sale at the time of its execution, which is in the same language as that principally used in the oral sales presentation and which shows the date of the transaction and contains the name and address of the seller, and in immediate proximity to the space reserved in the contract for the signature of the buyer or on the front page of the receipt if a contract is not used and in boldface type of a minimum size of ten points, a statement in substantially the following form:

“You, the buyer, may cancel this transaction at any time prior to midnight of the third business day after the date of this transaction. See the attached notice of cancellation form for an explanation of this right.” [65GA, ch 291,§2]

713B.3 Cancellation. Every seller shall furnish each buyer, at the time he signs the door-to-door sales contract or otherwise agrees to buy consumer goods or services from the seller, a completed form in duplicate, captioned “Notice of Cancellation”, which shall be attached to the contract or receipt and easily detachable, and which shall contain in ten point bold face type the following information and statements in the same language as that used in the contract:

If you cancel, you must make available to the seller at your residence, in substantially as good condition as when received, any goods delivered to you under this contract or sale; or you may if you wish, comply with the instructions of the seller regarding the return shipment of the goods at the seller’s expense and risk.

If you do not agree to return the goods to the seller or if the seller does not pick them up within twenty days of the date of your notice of cancellation, you may retain or dispose of the goods without any further obligation.

Rescission of any contract pursuant to this chapter or the failure to provide a copy of the contract to the buyer as required by this chapter shall void any contract, note, instrument, or other evidence of indebtedness executed or entered into in connection with the contract and shall constitute a complete defense in any action based on the contract, note, instrument or other evidence of indebtedness brought by the seller, his successors or assigns unless a successor or assignee of the seller after the seventh business day following the day the contract was signed has detrimentally relied upon a representation of the buyer that the contract has not been rescinded. This section shall not affect the rights of holders in due course of checks made by the buyer. [65GA, ch 291,§5]

713B.6 Penalty. Any seller who violates the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [65GA, ch 291,§6] Punishment, §687.7

"Obscene material" is any material depicting or describing the genitals, sex acts, masturbation, excretory functions or sado-masochistic abuse which the average person, taking the material as a whole and applying contemporary community standards with respect to what is suitable material for minors, would find appeals to the prurient interest and is patently offensive; and the material, taken as a whole, lacks serious literary, scientific, political or artistic value.
2. "Material" means any book, magazine, newspaper or other printed or written material or any picture, drawing, photograph, motion picture or other pictorial representation or any statute or other figure, or any recording, transcription or mechanical, chemical or electrical reproduction or any other articles, equipment, machines or materials.
3. "Disseminate" means to transfer possession, with or without consideration.

Such application for injunction is optional and not mandatory and shall not be construed as a prerequisite to criminal prosecution for a violation of sections 725.1 to 725.10. [65GA, ch 1267, §4]

725.5 Exemptions for public libraries and educational institutions. Nothing in sections 725.1 to 725.10 prohibits the use of appropriate material for educational purposes in any accredited school, or any public library, or in

Where a defendant is convicted and the fine under the foregoing schedule of weight violations exceeds one hundred dollars, the conviction shall be an indicable offense although section 753.16 is employed and whether the violation is charged upon uniform citation and complaint, indictment, or county attorney's information.

Such violations shall be called scheduled violations. [C73,§753.15; 65GA, ch 282,§78–80]

Referred to in §§321.236, 321.485, 753.13, 753.15, 753.18

Section 326.23 probably intended

753.16 Admission of scheduled violations.

1. In cases of scheduled violations, the defendant, before the time specified in the citation and complaint for appearance before the court, may sign the admission of violation on the citation and complaint and deliver or mail the citation and complaint, together with the minimum fine for the violation, plus five dollars costs, to a traffic violations office in the county. The office shall, if the offense is a moving violation, forward a copy of the citation and complaint and admission to the commissioner of public safety as required by section 321.207. Thereupon the defendant shall not be required to appear before the court. The admission shall constitute a conviction.

2. A defendant charged with a scheduled violation by information may obtain two copies of the information from the court and, before the time he is required to appear before the court, deliver or mail such copies, together with his admission, fine, and five dollars costs, to the traffic violations office in the county. The procedure, fine, and costs shall be the same as when the charge is by citation and complaint, with the admission and the number of the defendant's operator's or chauffeur's license placed upon the information.

3. When section 753.15 and this section are applicable but the officer does not deem it advisable to release the defendant and no court in the county is in session:

a. If the defendant wishes to admit the violation, the officer may release the defendant upon observing him mail the citation and complaint, admission, and minimum fine, together with five dollars costs, to a traffic violations office in the county, in an envelope furnished by the officer. The officer may allow the defendant to mail a check in the proper amount in lieu of cash. If the check is not paid by the drawee for any reason, the defendant may be held in contempt of court. The officer shall advise the defendant of the penalty for non-payment of the check.

b. If the defendant does not comply with paragraph "a" of this subsection, the officer may release the defendant upon observing him mail to a court in the county the citation and complaint and one and one-half times the minimum fine together with five dollars costs, or in lieu of one and one-half times the fine and the costs, a guaranteed arrest bond certificate as provided in section 321.1, subsection 71, as bail together with the following statement signed by the defendant:

"I agree that either (1) I will appear pursuant to this citation or (2) if I do not so appear the amount deposited as bail will be forfeited."

c. If the defendant does not comply with paragraph "a" or "b", or in any event when section 755.4 is applicable, the officer may arrest and confine the defendant if authorized by the latter section, and proceed with him according to chapter 757 or 758.

4. Any defendant who admits a scheduled violation may nevertheless appear before court. The procedure, costs, and fine, without suspension of the fine, after the hearing shall be the same as in the traffic violations office.

5. A defendant charged with a scheduled violation who does not fully comply with subsection 1, 2, 3, or 4 of this section before the time required to appear before the court must, at that time, appear before the court. If such defendant admits the violation, the procedure and fine, without suspension, after the hearing shall be the same before the court as before the traffic violations office with five dollars court costs, without prejudice, when applicable, to proceedings under section 321.487. [C73, §753.16; 65GA, ch 282,§81]

753.17 Required court appearance. Section 753.16 shall not apply to a scheduled violation:

1. When the violation charged involved an accident or injury.
2. When the officer believed the defendant did not have in force a valid operator's or chauffeur's license or permit.
3. When the officer believed the violation was hazardous or aggravated because of highway conditions, visibility, traffic, repetition, or other circumstances.

In such cases, the defendant shall appear before the court and regular procedure shall apply. If an information is used the officer shall endorse thereon, "Court appearance required.” If a citation and complaint is used, the officer shall strike out the space in which the defendant may admit the violation before a traffic violations office and shall endorse thereon “Court appearance required”. A defendant shall appear before the court for any nonscheduled violation either in person or by attorney. [C73, §753.17; 65GA, ch 282, §82]
§753.17, JURISDICTION OF PUBLIC OFFENSES

Referred to in §§321.236, 321.485, 753.13, 753.15, 753.18

753.18 Other penalties. If the defendant is convicted of a scheduled violation, the penalty shall be the scheduled fine, without suspension of the fine prescribed in section 753.15 together with costs assessed and distributed as prescribed by section 602.63, unless it appears from the evidence that the violation was of the type set forth in section 753.17, subsection 3, in which event the punishment shall be increased accordingly within the limits of law. [C73, §753.18; 65GA, ch 282, §83]

CHAPTER 754
PRELIMINARY INFORMATION AND WARRANTS OF ARREST

Referred to in §602.62

754.1 Definition. A complaint or preliminary information is a statement in writing, under oath or affirmation, made before a magistrate, or in his absence before the district court clerk or his deputy, of the commission or threatened commission of a public offense, and accusing someone thereof. Provided, however, that this section shall not apply to the uniform traffic citations and complaints under section 753.13. [C51, §2822; R60, §4530; C73, §4111; C97, §5101; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13458; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §754.1]

754.2 Form. The information may be substantially in the form required in criminal actions triable before a judicial magistrate. [C73, §4185; C97, §5182; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13459; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §754.2]

754.3 Filing—issuing warrant. When a preliminary information is made before a magistrate, or district court clerk or his deputy, charging the commission of some designated public offense triable on indictment in the county in which such magistrate, or district court clerk or his deputy, has local jurisdiction, by some person named therein, he may issue a warrant for the arrest of such person.

Whenever the preliminary information or complaint charges a misdemeanor the magistrate, or district court clerk or his deputy, may in his discretion issue a citation instead of a warrant of arrest. The citation shall set forth substantially the nature of the offense and shall command the person against whom the complaint was made to appear before the magistrate issuing the citation at a time and place stated therein.

The citation may be served in the same manner as an original notice in a civil action. If the person named in the citation is actually served as provided herein and fails without good cause to appear as commanded by the citation, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be punished as provided in section 753.9. Upon such failure to appear, the magistrate, or district court clerk or his deputy, shall issue a warrant of arrest for the offense originally charged. Failure to appear in response to a citation for a traffic violation shall be governed by section 321.487.

Except for citations for traffic violations, if after issuing a citation the magistrate, or district court clerk or his deputy, becomes satisfied that the person to whom such citation has been directed will not appear, he may at once issue a warrant of arrest without waiting for the date mentioned in the citation. A warrant or citation issued by a clerk or deputy shall be returnable before a magistrate for the county, or in his absence, before the nearest magistrate, whether the warrant is for a felony as under section 757.2 or for a misdemeanor. If a citation or warrant is issued by the clerk, the preliminary information shall be transmitted to the magistrate before whom the defendant is to appear. [C73, § 4185; C97, § 5182; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, § 13460; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, § 754.3; 65GA, ch 282, § 85]

Approval of warrant and expenses. [§ 79.12, 79.13]

He must deliver the warrant with the order thereon, together with the undertaking of bail, to the officer having the defendant in custody, who shall forthwith discharge him from arrest, and at once inform the magistrate issuing the warrant of his doings. [C51, §2833; R60, §4541; C73, §4193; C97, §5189; C46, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13484; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §757.5]

757.6 Failure to give bail. If bail be not forthwith given by the defendant as above provided, the magistrate or clerk must redeliver to the officer the warrant, and the officer must take the defendant before the magistrate who issued it at the place mentioned in the command thereof, or, if he be absent or unable to act, before the nearest or most accessible magistrate in the county in which the warrant was issued. [C51, §2834; R60, §4542; C73, §4194; C97, §5190; C46, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13485; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §757.6]

757.7 Proceedings after arrest. In all cases the defendant, when arrested, must be taken before the magistrate or clerk without unnecessary delay, and the officer must at the same time deliver to the magistrate or clerk the warrant, with his return thereon endorsed and subscribed by him with his official title. [C51, §2835; R60, §4543; C73, §4195; C97, §5191; C46, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13486; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §757.7]

757.8 Hearing before another magistrate. If the defendant be taken before a magistrate in the county in which the warrant was issued, other than the magistrate who issued it as hereinbefore provided, the affidavits on which the warrant was issued must be sent to such magistrate, or if they cannot be procured, the informant and his witnesses must be subpoenaed to make new affidavits. [C51, §2838; R60, §4544; C73, §4196; C97, §5192; C46, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13487; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §757.8]

758.1 Disposition of prisoner. When an arrest is made without a warrant, the person arrested shall, without unnecessary delay, be taken before the nearest available magistrate, and the grounds on which the arrest was made shall be stated to the magistrate by affidavit, subscribed and sworn to by the person making the statement, in the same manner as upon a preliminary information, as nearly as may be. [R60, §4566; C73, §4218; C97, §5208; C46, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13488; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §758.1]

758.2 Hearing before magistrate. If the magistrate finds that it will be more convenient for the witnesses on the part of the state that such trial or examination should be had before some other magistrate, he shall, by a written order, commit the person arrested to a peace officer, to be by him taken before the other magistrate, together with the order of commitment and affidavits, unless the person arrested give bail, when authorized, for his appearance, as in case of arrest under a warrant. [R60, §4568; C73, §4220; C97, §5209; C46, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13490; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §758.2]

758.3 Transfer for convenience. If the magistrate believes from the statements in the affidavit that the offense charged is triable in the county in which the arrest was made, and there is sufficient ground for a trial or preliminary examination, as the case may require, and it will not be inconvenient for the witnesses on the part of the state that it should be had before him, he shall proceed as if the person arrested had been brought before him on arrest under a warrant, and, if the case be one within his jurisdiction to try and determine, shall order an information to be filed against him. [R60, §4567; C73, §4219; C97, §5209; C46, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13489; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §758.3] charged is triable in a county different from that in which the arrest is made, and there is sufficient ground for a trial or preliminary examination, he shall, by a written order, commit the person arrested to a peace officer, to be by him taken before a magistrate in the county in which the offense is triable, and if the offense be a misdemeanor triable on indictment, shall fix in the order the amount of bail which the person arrested may give for his appearance at the district court of the county (naming it) in which the offense is indictable to answer to an indictment. If the offense charged be a bailable crime, the arrested person may give bail, conditioned as above provided, before a clerk of the district court. [R60, §4569; C73, §4221; C97, §5211; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13492; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §758.5]

§758.6 Bail—commitment—discharge. If bail be given before a magistrate, as provided in section 758.5, it may be either before the magistrate making the order, or the magistrate in the county in which the offense is triable before whom he is taken under the order, or a magistrate of any county through which he passes in going from the county in which the arrest was made to that in which the offense is triable, or, in any bailable case, before the clerk of the district court of either of said counties; and, when given, the magistrate or clerk taking the same shall make, on the order or provided by law; and the magistrate must deliver the affidavits and order of commitment to a peace officer, who shall proceed with the person arrested as directed by the order or provided by law; and the magistrate in the county in which the offense is triable, when the person arrested is brought before him, shall proceed as on an arrest under a warrant, and if the case be within his jurisdiction to try and determine, shall order an information to be filed against the person arrested. [R60, §4571; C73, §4223; C97, §5213; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13494; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §758.7]

§758.8 Proper magistrate to conduct hearing—bail. In the cases contemplated in sections 758.5 to 758.7, inclusive, the officer having the person arrested in custody, under the order, shall take him before the proper magistrate, in the county in which the offense is triable, which is most convenient for the witnesses on the part of the state; unless, in case of a misdemeanor triable on indictment as hereinbefore provided, the person arrested desires to give bail, in which case he shall take him before the most convenient magistrate in the county in which the offense with which he is charged is triable, or any county through which he passes in going from the county in which the arrest was made to the county in which the offense is triable, or before the clerk of the district court of either of said counties, for the purpose of giving bail. [R60, §4572; C73, §4224; C97, §5214; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13495; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §758.8]

In all cases, the peace officer, when he takes a person committed to him under an order as provided in this chapter before a magistrate or clerk of the district court, either for the purpose of giving bail, if bail be taken, or for trial or preliminary examination, must make his return on such order, and sign such return with his name of office, and deliver the same to the magistrate or clerk. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.1]

759.2 Arrest of fugitives. Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the provisions of the Constitution of the United States controlling, and any and all Acts of Congress enacted in pursuance thereof, it is the duty of the governor of this state to have arrested and delivered up to the executive authority of any other state of the United States any person charged in that state with treason, felony, or other crime, who has fled from justice and is found in this state. [C51, §3283; R60, §4522; C73, §4175; C97, §5172; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13502; C46, §759.6; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.2]

759.3 Demand in writing. No demand for the extradition of a person charged with crime in another state shall be recognized by the governor unless in writing alleging, except in cases arising under section 759.6, that the accused was present in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the alleged crime, and that thereafter he fled from the state, and accompanied by a copy of an indictment found or by information supported by affidavit in the state having jurisdiction of the crime, or by a copy of an affidavit made before a magistrate there, together with a copy of any warrant which was issued thereupon; or by a copy of a judgment of conviction or of a sentence imposed in execution thereof, together with a statement by the executive authority of the demanding state that the person claimed has escaped from confinement or has broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole. The indictment, information, or affidavit made before the magistrate must substantially charge the person demanded with having committed a crime under the law of that state; and the copy of indictment, information, affidavit, judgment of conviction or sentence must be authenticated by the executive authority making the demand. [R60, §4521; C73, §4174; C97, §5171; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13501; C46, §759.5; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.3]

759.4 Investigation by attorney general. When a demand shall be made upon the governor of this state by the executive authority of another state for the surrender of a person so charged with crime, the governor may call upon the attorney general or any prosecuting officer in this state to investigate or assist in investigating the demand, and to report to him the situation and circumstances of the person so demanded, and whether he ought to be surrendered. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.4]

759.5 Persons imprisoned in another state. When it is desired to have returned to this state a person charged in this state with a crime, and such person is imprisoned or is held under criminal proceedings then pending against him in another state, the governor of this state may agree with the executive authority of such other state for the extradition of such person before the conclusion of such proceedings or his term of sentence in such other state, upon condition that such person be returned to such other state at the expense of this state as soon as the prosecution in this state is terminated.

The governor of this state may also surrender on demand of the executive authority of any other state any person in this state who is charged in the manner provided in section 759.23 with having violated the laws of the state whose executive authority is making the demand, even though such person left the demanding state involuntarily. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.5]

Referred to in §§759.3, 759.13, 759.15

759.6 Criminal acts committed in third state. The governor of this state may also surrender on demand of the executive authority of any other state, any person in this state charged in such other state in the manner provided in section 759.3 with committing an act in this state, or in a third state, intentionally resulting in a crime in the state whose executive authority is making the demand, and the provisions of this chapter not otherwise inconsistent, shall apply to such cases, even though the accused was not in that state at the time of the commission of the crime, and has not fled therefrom. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.6]

Referred to in §§759.3, 759.13, 759.15

759.7 Warrant for arrest. If the governor decides that the demand should be complied with, he shall sign a warrant of arrest, which shall be sealed with the state seal, and be directed to any peace officer or other person whom he may think fit to entrust with the execution thereof. The warrant must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance. [C51, §3283; R60, §4522; C73, §4175; C97, §5172; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13502; C46, §759.8; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.7]

Referred to in §769.28
759.8 Authority of warrant. Such warrant shall authorize the peace officer or other person to whom directed to arrest the accused at any time and any place where he may be found within the state and to command the aid of all peace officers or other persons in the execution of the warrant, and to deliver the accused, subject to the provisions of this chapter to the duly authorized agent of the demanding state. [C51, §§3283, 3289; R60, §§4522, 4528; C73, §§4175, 4181; C97, §§5172, 5178; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§13502, 13508; C46, §§759.6, 759.12; C50, 54, 55, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.8] Referred to in §759.25

759.9 Authority of peace officer. Every such peace officer or other person empowered to make the arrest, shall have the same authority, in arresting the accused, to command assistance therein, as peace officers have by law in the execution of any criminal process directed to them, with like penalties against those who refuse their assistance. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.9]

759.10 Testing legality of arrest. No person arrested upon such warrant shall be delivered over to the agent whom the executive authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court of record in this state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his surrender and of the crime with which he is charged, and that he has the right to demand and procure legal counsel; and if the prison officer or his counsel shall state that he or they desire to test the legality of his arrest, the judge of such court of record shall fix a reasonable time to be allowed him within which to apply for a writ of habeas corpus. When such writ is applied for, notice thereof, and of the time and place of hearing thereon, shall be given to the prosecutor of the county in which the arrest is made and in which the accused is in custody, and to the said agent of the demanding state. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.10] Referred to in §759.25

759.11 Penalty for willful disobedience. Any officer who shall deliver to the agent for extradition of the demanding state a person in his custody under the governor's warrant, in willful disobedience to the last section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars or be imprisoned not more than thirty days. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.11]

759.12 Confinement in jail. The officer or persons executing the governor's warrant of arrest, or the agent of the demanding state to whom the prisoner may have been delivered may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which he may pass; and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the officer or person having charge of him is ready to proceed on his route, such officer or person being chargeable with the expense of keeping.

The officer or agent of a demanding state to whom a prisoner may have been delivered following extradition proceedings in another state, or to whom a prisoner may have been delivered after waiving extradition in such other state, and who is passing through this state with such a prisoner for the purpose of immediately returning such prisoner to the demanding state may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which he may pass; and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the officer or agent having charge of him is ready to proceed on his route, such officer or agent, however, being chargeable with the expense of keeping; provided, however, that such officer or agent shall produce and show to the keeper of such jail satisfactory written evidence of the fact that he is actually transporting such prisoner to the demanding state after a requisition by the executive authority of such demanding state. Such prisoner shall not be entitled to demand a new requisition while in this state. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§13512; C46, §§759.16; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.12]

759.13 Arrest on affidavit. Whenever any person within this state shall be charged on the oath of any credible person before any judge or magistrate of this state with the commission of any crime in any other state and, except in cases under section 759.6, with having fled from justice, or with having been convicted of a crime in that state and having escaped from confinement, or having broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole, or whenever complaint shall have been made before any judge or magistrate in this state setting forth on the affidavit of any credible person in another state that a crime has been committed in such other state and that the accused has been charged in such state with the commission of the crime, and, except in cases arising under section 759.6, has fled from justice, or with having been convicted of a crime in that state and having escaped from confinement, or having broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole and is believed to be in this state, the judge or magistrate shall issue a warrant directed to any peace officer commanding him to apprehend the person named therein, wherever he may be found in this state, and to bring him before the same or any other judge, magistrate or court who or which may be available in or convenient of access to the place where the arrest may be made, to answer the charge or complaint and affidavit, and a certified copy of the sworn charge or complaint and affidavit upon which the warrant is issued shall be attached to the warrant. [C51, §§3284; R60, §§4523; C73, §§1176; C97, §§5172; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§13503; C46, §§759.7; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.13]

759.14 Arrest without warrant. The arrest of a person may be lawfully made also by any peace officer or a private person, without a warrant upon reasonable information that the accused stands charged in the courts of a state with a crime punishable by death or imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, but when so arrested the accused must be taken before a judge or magistrate with all practicable speed and complaint must be made against him under oath setting forth the ground for the arrest as in the preceding section; and thereafter his answer shall be heard as if he had been arrested on a warrant. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.14]

759.15 Holding to await requisition. If from the examination before the judge or magistrate it appears that the person held is the person charged with having committed the crime alleged and, except in cases arising under section 759.6, that he has fled from justice, the judge or magistrate must, by warrant requisitioning the person held, commit him to the custody of the jail for such a time not exceeding thirty days and specified in the warrant, as will enable the arrest of the accused to be made under a warrant of the governor on a requisition of the executive authority of the state having jurisdiction of the offense, unless the accused give bail as provided in the next section, or until he shall be legally discharged. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.15]

759.16 Bail—exceptions. Unless the offense with which the prisoner is charged is shown to be an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment under the laws of the state in which it was committed, a judge or magistrate in this state may admit the person arrested to bail by bond, with sufficient sureties, and in such sum as he deems proper, conditioned for his appearance before him at a time specified in such bond, and for his surrender, to be arrested upon the warrant of the governor of this state. [C51, §3285, 3286; R60, §4524, 4525; C73, §§4177, 4178; C97, §§5174, 5175; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§13504, 13505; C46, §§759.8, 759.9; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.16]

Referred to in §759.17

759.17 Discharge or recommitment. If the accused is not arrested under warrant of the governor by the expiration of the time specified in the warrant or bond, a judge or magistrate may discharge him or may recommit him for a further period not to exceed sixty days, or a judge or magistrate judge may again take bail for his appearance and surrender, as provided in section 759.16, but within a period not to exceed sixty days after the date of such new bond. [C51, §3288; R60, §4527; C73, §4180; C97, §5177; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§13507; C46, §759.11; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.17]

759.18 Forfeiture of bond. If the prisoner is admitted to bail, and fails to appear and surrender himself according to the conditions of his bond, the judge, or magistrate by proper order, shall declare the bond forfeited and order his immediate arrest without warrant if he be within this state. Recovery may be had on such bond in the name of the state as in the case of other bonds given by the accused in criminal proceedings within this state. [C51, §3287; R60, §4526; C73, §4179; C97, §5176; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§13506; C46, §759.10; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.18]

759.19 Criminal prosecution pending. If a criminal prosecution has been instituted against such person under the laws of this state and is still pending the governor, in his discretion, either may surrender him on demand of the executive authority of another state or hold him until he has been tried and discharged or convicted and punished in this state. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.19]

759.20 Guilt or innocence of person held. The guilt or innocence of the accused as to the crime of which he is charged may not be inquired into by the governor or in any proceeding after the demand for extradition accompanied by a charge of crime in legal form as above provided shall have been presented to the governor, except as it may be involved in identifying the person held as the person charged with the crime. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.20]

759.21 Warrant recalled. The governor may recall his warrant of arrest or may issue another warrant whenever he deems proper. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.21]

759.22 Receiving person extradited. Whenever the governor of this state shall demand a person charged with crime or with escaping from confinement or breaking the terms of his bail, probation or parole in this state, from the executive authority of any other state, or from the chief justice or an associate justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia authorized to receive such demand under the laws of the United States, he shall issue a warrant under the seal of this state, to some agent, commanding him to receive the person so charged if delivered to him and convey him to the proper officer of the county in this state in which the offense was committed. [C51, §3282; R60, §4518; C73, §4171; C97, §5169; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13497; C46, §759.1; C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.22]

759.23 Application for extradition. When the return to this state of a person charged with crime in this state is required, the prosecuting attorney shall present to the governor his written application for a requisition for the return of the person charged, in which application shall be stated the name of the person so charged, the crime charged against him, the approximate time, place and circumstances of its commission, the state in which he is believed to be, including the location of the accused therein at the time the application is made and certifying that, in the opinion of the said prosecuting attorney the ends of justice require the arrest and return of the accused to this state for trial and that the proceeding is not instituted to enforce a private claim.
§759.23, UNIFORM CRIMINAL EXTRADITION ACT

When the return to this state is required of a person who has been convicted of a crime in this state and has escaped from confinement or broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole, the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the offense was committed, the parole board, or the warden of the institution or sheriff of the county, from which escape was made, shall present to the governor a written application for a requisition for the return of such person, in which application shall be stated the name of the person, the crime of which he was convicted, the circumstances of his escape from confinement or of the breach of the terms of his bail, probation or parole, the state in which he is believed to be, including the location of the person therein at the time application is made.

The application shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the indictment returned, or information and affidavit filed, or of the complaint made to the judge or magistrate, stating the offense with which the accused is charged, or of the judgment of conviction or of the sentence. One copy of the application, with the action of the governor indicated by endorsement thereon, and one of the certified copies of the indictment, complaint, information, and affidavits or of the judgment of conviction or of the sentence shall be filed in the office of the governor to remain of record in that office. The judge shall direct the officer having such person in custody to deliver forthwith to such person to the duly accredited agent or agents of the demanding state, and shall deliver or cause to be delivered to such agent or agents a copy of such consent; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit the rights of the accused person to return voluntarily and without formality to the demanding state, nor shall this waiver procedure be deemed to be an exclusive procedure or to limit the powers, rights or duties of the officers of the demanding state or of this state. [C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §759.25]

§759.26 State's rights not deemed waived. CHAPTER 759A
AGREEMENT ON DETAINERS COMPACT

759A.1 Agreement with other states. The agreement on detainers is hereby enacted into law and entered into by this state with all other jurisdictions legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

The contracting states solemnly agree that:

ARTICLE I

The party states find that charges outstanding against a prisoner, detainers based on untried indictments, informations or complaints, and difficulties in securing speedy trial of persons already incarcerated in other jurisdictions, produce uncertainties which obstruct programs of prisoner treatment and rehabilitation. Accordingly, it is the policy of the party states and the purpose of this agreement to encourage the expeditious and orderly disposition of such charges and determination of the proper status of any and all detainers based on untried indictments, informations or complaints. The party states also find that proceedings with reference to such charges and detainers, when emanating from another jurisdiction, cannot properly be had in the absence of co-operative procedures. It is the further purpose of this agreement to provide such co-operative procedures.

ARTICLE II

As used in this agreement:

a. "State" shall mean a state of the United States; the United States of America; a territory or possession of the United States; the District of Columbia; the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

b. "Sending state" shall mean a state in which a prisoner is incarcerated at the time that he initiates a request for final disposition pursuant to Article III hereof or at the time that a request for custody or availability is initiated pursuant to Article IV hereof.

c. "Receiving state" shall mean the state in which a person has entered upon a term of imprisonment in a penal or correctional institution of a party state, and whenever during the continuance of the term of imprisonment there is pending in any other party state any untried indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which a detainer has been lodged against the prisoner, he shall be brought to trial within one hundred eighty days after he shall have caused to be delivered to the prosecuting officer and the appropriate court of the prosecution officer's jurisdiction written notice of the place of his imprisonment and his request for a final disposition to be made of the indictment, information or complaint; Provided that for good cause shown in open court, the prisoner or his counsel being present, the court having jurisdiction of the matter may grant any necessary or reasonable continuance. The request of the prisoner shall be accompanied by a certificate of the appropriate official having custody of the prisoner, stating the term of commitment under which the prisoner is being held, the time already served, the time remaining to be served on the sentence, the amount of good time earned, the time of parole eligibility of the prisoner, and any decisions of the state parole agency relating to the prisoner.

b. The written notice and request for final disposition referred to in paragraph "a" hereof shall be given or sent by the prisoner to the warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of him, who shall promptly forward it together with the certificate to the appropriate prosecuting official and court by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested.

c. The warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of the prisoner shall promptly inform him of the source and contents of any detainer lodged against him and shall also inform him of his right to make a request for final disposition of the indictment, information or complaint on which the detainer is based.

d. Any request for final disposition made by a prisoner pursuant to paragraph "a" hereof shall operate as a request for final disposition of all untried indictments, informations or complaints on the basis of which detainers have been lodged against the prisoner from the state to whose prosecuting official the request for final disposition is specifically directed. The warden, commissioner of corrections or other official having custody of the prisoner shall forthwith notify all appropriate prosecuting officers and courts in the several jurisdictions within the state to which the prisoner's request for final disposition is being sent of the proceeding being initiated by the prisoner. Any notification sent pursuant to this paragraph shall be accompanied by copies of the prisoner's written notice, request, and the certificate. If trial is not had on any indictment, information or complaint contemplated hereby prior to the return of the prisoner to the original place of imprisonment, such indictment, information or complaint shall not be of any further force or effect, and the court shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice.

e. Any request for final disposition made by a prisoner pursuant to paragraph "a" hereof shall also be deemed to be a waiver of extradition with respect to any charge or proceeding contemplated thereby or included therein by reason of paragraph "d" hereof, and a waiver of extradition to the receiving state to serve any sentence there imposed upon him, after completion of his term of imprisonment in the sending state. The request for final disposition shall also constitute a consent by the prisoner to the production of his body in any court where his presence may be required in order to effectuate the purposes of this agreement and a further consent voluntarily to be returned to the original place of imprisonment in accordance with the provisions of this agreement. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the imposition of a concurrent sentence if otherwise permitted by law.

f. Escape from custody by the prisoner subsequent to his execution of the request for final disposition referred to in paragraph "a" hereof shall void the request.

ARTICLE IV
Referred to in Articles II, V and VI

a. The appropriate officer of the jurisdiction in which an untried indictment, information or complaint is pending shall be entitled to have a prisoner against whom he has lodged a detainer and who is serving a term of imprisonment in any party state made available in accordance with Article V "a" hereof upon presentation of a written request for temporary custody or availability to the appropriate authorities of the state in which the prisoner is incarcerated: Provided that the court having jurisdiction of such indictment, information or complaint shall have duly approved, recorded and transmitted the request; And provided further that there shall be a period of thirty days after receipt by the appropriate authorities before the request be honored, within which period the governor of the sending state may disapprove the request for temporary custody or availability, either upon his own motion or upon motion of the prisoner.

b. Upon receipt of the officer's written request as provided in paragraph "a" hereof, the appropriate authorities having the prisoner in custody shall furnish the officer with a certificate stating the term of commitment under which the prisoner is being held, the time already served, the time remaining to be served on the sentence, the amount of good time earned, the time of parole eligibility of the prisoner, and any decisions of the state parole agency relating to the prisoner. Said authorities simultaneously shall furnish all other officers and appropriate courts in the receiving state who have lodged detainers against the prisoner with similar certificates and with notices informing them of the request for custody or availability and of the reasons therefor.

c. In respect of any proceeding made possible by this Article, trial shall be commenced within one hundred twenty days of the arrival of the prisoner in the receiving state, but for good cause shown in open court, the prisoner or his counsel being present, the court having jurisdiction of the matter may grant any necessary or reasonable continuance.

d. Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed to deprive any prisoner of any right which he may have to contest the legality of his delivery as provided in paragraph "a" hereof, but such delivery may not be opposed or denied on the ground that the executive authority of the sending state has not affirmatively consented to or ordered such delivery.

e. If trial is not had on any indictment, information or complaint contemplated hereby prior to the prisoner's being returned to the original place of imprisonment pursuant to Article V "a" hereof, such indictment, information or complaint shall not be of any further force or effect, and the court shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice.

ARTICLE V
Referred to in Article IV (a,e)

a. In response to a request made under Article III or Article IV hereof, the appropriate authority in a sending state shall offer to deliver temporary custody of such prisoner to the appropriate authority in the state where such indictment, information or complaint is pending against such person in order that speedy and efficient prosecution may be had. If the request for final disposition is made by the prisoner, the offer of temporary custody shall accompany the written notice provided for in Article III of this agreement. In the case of a federal prisoner, the appropriate authority in the receiving state shall be entitled to temporary custody as provided by this agreement or to the prisoner's presence in federal custody at the place for trial, whichever custodial arrangement may be approved by the custodian.

b. The officer or other representative of a state accepting an offer of temporary custody shall present the following upon demand:

(1) Proper identification and evidence of his authority to act for the state into whose temporary custody the prisoner is to be given.

(2) A duly certified copy of the indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged and on the basis of which the request for temporary custody of the prisoner has been made.
c. If the appropriate authority shall refuse or fail to accept temporary custody of said person, or in the event that an action on the indictment, information or complaint on the basis of which the detainer has been lodged is not brought to trial within the period provided in Article III or Article IV hereof, the appropriate court of the jurisdiction where the indictment, information or complaint has been pending shall enter an order dismissing the same with prejudice, and any detainer based thereon shall cease to be of any force or effect.

d. The temporary custody referred to in this agreement shall be only for the purpose of permitting prosecution on the charge or charges contained in one or more untried indictments, informations or complaints which form the basis of the detainer or detainers or for prosecution on any other charge or charges arising out of the same transaction. Except for his attendance at court and while being transported to or from any place at which his presence may be required, the prisoner shall be held in a suitable jail or other facility regularly used for persons awaiting prosecution.

e. At the earliest practicable time consonant with the purposes of this agreement, the prisoner shall be returned to the sending state.

f. During the continuance of temporary custody or while the prisoner is otherwise being made available for trial as required by this agreement, time being served on the sentence shall continue to run but good time shall be earned by the prisoner only if, and to the extent that, the law and practice of the jurisdiction which imposed the sentence may allow.

g. For all purposes other than that for which temporary custody as provided in this agreement is exercised, the prisoner shall be deemed to remain in the custody of and subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and any escape from temporary custody may be dealt with in the same manner as an escape from the original place of imprisonment or in any other manner permitted by law.

h. From the time that a party state receives custody of a prisoner pursuant to this agreement until such prisoner is returned to the territory and custody of the sending state, the state in which the one or more untried indictments, informations or complaints are pending or in which trial is being had shall be responsible for the prisoner and shall also pay all costs of transporting, caring for, keeping and returning the prisoner. The provisions of this paragraph shall govern unless the states concerned shall have entered into a supplementary agreement providing for a different allocation of costs and responsibilities as between or among themselves. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

ARTICLE VI

a. In determining the duration and expiration dates of the time periods provided in Articles III and IV of this agreement, the running of said time periods shall be tolled whenever and for as long as the prisoner is unable to stand trial, as determined by the court having jurisdiction of the matter.

b. No provision of this agreement, and no remedy made available by this agreement, shall apply to any person who is adjudged to be mentally ill.

ARTICLE VII

Each state party to this agreement shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with the officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this agreement, and who shall provide, within and without the state, information necessary to the effective operation of this agreement.

ARTICLE VIII

This agreement shall enter into full force and effect as to a party state when such state has enacted the same into law. A state party to this agreement may withdraw herefrom by enacting a statute repealing the same. However, the withdrawal of any state shall not affect the status of any proceedings already initiated by inmates or by state officers at the time such withdrawal takes effect, nor shall it affect their rights in respect thereof.

ARTICLE IX

This agreement shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate its purposes. The provisions of this agreement shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this agreement is declared to be contrary to the Constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this agreement and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this agreement shall be held contrary to the Constitution of any party state hereto, the agreement shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters. [C66, 71, 73, §759A.1]

759A.2 Court defined. The phrase “appropriate court” as used in the agreement on detainers shall, with reference to the courts of this state, mean any court with criminal jurisdiction in the matter involved. [C66, 71, 73, §759A.2]

759A.4 Habitual criminals. Nothing in this chapter or in the agreement on detainers shall be construed to require the application of chapter 747 to any person on account of any conviction had in a proceeding brought to final disposition by reason of the use of this agreement. [C66, 71, 73, §759A.4]

759A.5 Escape in another state. Escape from custody while in another state, pursuant to this agreement on detainers shall constitute an offense against the laws of this state to the same extent and degree as an escape from the institution in which the prisoner was confined immediately prior to having been sent to another state pursuant to the provisions of the agreement on detainers and shall be punishable in the same manner as an escape from said institution. [C66, 71, 73, §759A.5]

759A.6 Transfer of custody. It shall be lawful and mandatory upon the warden or other official in charge of a penal or correctional institution in this state to give over the person of any inmate thereof whenever so required by the operation of the agreement on detainers. [C66, 71, 73, §759A.6]

759A.7 Detainer administrator. Pursuant to the agreement on detainers, the governor is hereby authorized to designate an officer or alternate who shall be the central administrator of and information agent for the agreement on detainers and who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall have power to formulate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms of the agreement, and shall serve subject to the pleasure of the governor. [C66, 71, 73, §759A.7]

759A.8 Copies of law transmitted. Copies of this chapter shall, upon its approval, be transmitted to the governor of each state, the attorney general, and the administrator of general services of the United States, and the council of state governments. [C66, 71, 73, §759A.8]

SECURITY TO KEEP THE PEACE

760.1 Public offense threatened—complaint—arrest. When complaint is made before a magistrate that any person has threatened to commit any public offense punishable by law, and such magistrate is satisfied that there is reason to fear the commission thereof, he may issue a warrant for the arrest of the person complained of; and the officer to whom the same shall be delivered for service shall forthwith arrest and bring the accused before such magistrate, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, before the nearest and most accessible magistrate of the same county. When the name of the person complained of is unknown, he may be designated in the warrant by any name, and the warrant issued in pursuance hereof may be executed by any peace officer in any county of the state. [R60, §§4447–4454; C73, §4115; C97, §5105; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13513; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §760.1] Approval of warrant and expenses, §§79.12, 79.13

When the person arrested is taken before a magistrate other than the one who issued the warrant, the peace officer who executed the same and who has charge of the person arrested must, at the same time, deliver to the magistrate before whom the person arrested is taken, the warrant, with his return endorsed and subscribed by him. The complaint and other affidavits, if any, on which the warrant was issued must be sent to the magistrate before whom the person arrested is taken, and, if they cannot be procured, the complainant and his witnesses, if any, must be subpoenaed, if necessary, by the magistrate before whom the person arrested is taken, to appear before him and make a new complaint and affidavits. 760.4 Discharge ordered—costs. If it appears that there is no just reason to fear the commission of the offense alleged to have been threatened, the person complained of must be discharged, and the complainant may be ordered to pay the costs of the proceeding if the magistrate regards the complaint as unfounded and frivolous, and, he shall transmit the complaint and affidavits, warrant, and order to the clerk of the district court of the county, who shall file the same, make a memorandum thereof in the judgment docket, and issue execution therefor immediately. [R60, §4457; C73, §4118; C97, §5108; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13516; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §760.4]

760.5 Defendant bound over—sureties. If there be just reason to fear the commission of the offense, the person complained of shall be required to enter into an undertaking, in such sum as the magistrate may direct, with one or more sufficient sureties, to abide the order of the district court of the county, and in the meantime to keep the peace toward the people of the state, and particularly toward the person against whom or whose property there is reason to fear the offense may be committed. [R60, §4458; C73, §4119; C97, §5109; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13517; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §760.5]

760.6 Committed to jail. If the undertaking required by section 760.5 be given, the party complained of must be discharged; if not, the magistrate must commit him to prison, specifying in the warrant the requirements to give security, the amount thereof, and the omission to give the same; if committed for not giving such undertaking, he may be discharged by a magistrate upon giving the required bonds. [R60, §§4459, 4460, 4464; C73, §§4120, 4121; C97, §5110; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13518; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §760.6]

760.9 Bond required on conviction. [R60, §4463; C73, §4124; C97, §5113; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13521; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §760.9]

760.10 Appearance—time of—forfeiture. A person who has entered into an undertaking to keep the peace, when required by a magistrate as hereinbefore provided, must appear within ninety days following the date of the undertaking, and if the complainant appear and the person bound by the undertaking does not appear, the court may forfeit his undertaking and order the same to be prosecuted, unless his default be excused. [R60, §4465; C73, §4125; C97, §5114; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13522; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §760.10]

760.11 Hearing—judgment—costs. If the principal in the undertaking appear, and the complainant does not appear, or if neither of the parties appear, the court shall enter an order discharging the undertaking; but if both parties appear, the court shall hear their proofs, and may require a new undertaking in such sum as it shall prescribe, for a period not exceeding one year, and may commit the defendant until the same be given. Judgment shall be entered against the party held to keep the peace for all the costs of the proceeding, but if it is made to appear to the court that the proceeding was instituted without probable cause, the court may render judgment against the complainant for such costs. [R60, §4466; C73, §4126; C97, §5115; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13523; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §760.11]

760.12 Breach of bond. An undertaking to keep the peace is broken by the forfeiture of the same by order of the court, as hereinbefore provided, or upon the conviction of the party bound for a breach of the peace. [R60, §4467; C73, §4127; C97, §5116; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13524; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §760.12]

After waiting a reasonable time for or on the appearance of counsel for defendant, the magistrate shall immediately proceed with the preliminary examination, or may allow the defendant to waive the same. 763.17 Conditions for release of defendant. 1. All bailable defendants shall be ordered released from custody pending judgment on their personal recognizance, or upon the execution of an unsecured appearance bond in an amount specified by the magistrate unless the magistrate determines, in the exercise of his discretion, that such a release will not reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required. When such determination is made, the magistrate shall, either in lieu of or in addition to the above methods of release, impose the first of the following conditions of release which will reasonably assure the appearance of the person for trial or, if no single condition gives that assurance, any combination of the following conditions:

a. Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person or organization agreeing to supervise him;

b. Place restrictions on the travel, association or place of abode of the defendant during the period of release;

c. Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount and the deposit with the clerk of the court in cash or other qualified security of a sum not to exceed ten percent of the amount of the bond, such deposit to be returned to the defendant upon the performance of the appearances as required in section 763.1;

d. Require the execution of a bail bond with sufficient surety, or the deposit of cash in lieu thereof, provided that, except as provided in section 763.2, bail initially given shall remain valid until final disposition of the offense. If the amount of bail is deemed insufficient by the court before whom the offense is pending, the court may order an increase thereof and the defendant must provide the additional undertaking, written or cash, to secure his release.

e. Impose any other condition deemed reasonably necessary to assure appearances as required, including a condition requiring that the defendant return to custody after specified hours.

2. In determining which conditions of release will reasonably assure appearance, the magistrate shall, on the basis of available information, take into account the nature and circumstances of the offense charged, the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character and mental condition, the length of his residence in the community, his record of convictions, and his record of appearance at court proceedings or of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at court proceedings.

3. A magistrate authorizing the release of a defendant under this section shall issue a written order containing a statement of the conditions imposed, if any, shall inform the defendant of the penalties applicable to violation of the conditions of his release and shall advise him that a warrant for his arrest will be issued immediately upon such violation.

4. A defendant who remains in custody twenty-four hours after bail or other conditions of release are imposed by a magistrate not a district court judge as a result of his inability to fulfill the conditions of release imposed shall be brought forthwith before the magistrate who imposed the conditions and informed of the defendant's right to have said conditions reviewed. If the defendant indicates that he desires such a review and is indigent and unable to retain legal counsel, the magistrate shall appoint an attorney to represent the defendant for the purpose of such review. Unless the conditions of release are amended and the defendant is thereupon released, the magistrate shall set forth in writing the reasons for requiring conditions imposed. A defendant who is ordered released by a magistrate other than a district court judge on a condition which required that he return to custody after specified hours shall, upon application, be entitled to review by the magistrate who imposed the condition in the same manner as a defendant who remains in full-time custody. In the event that the magistrate who imposed conditions of release is not available, any other magistrate in the district may review such conditions.

5. A magistrate ordering the release of the defendant on any conditions specified in this section may at any time amend his order to impose additional or different conditions or release, provided that, if the imposition of different or additional conditions results in the detention of the defendant as a result of his inability to meet such conditions, the provisions of subsection 4 shall apply. [C51, §3216-3218; R60, §4967; C73, §4573; C97, §5500; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13611; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §763.3; C71, 73, §763.17]

Referenced to in §§763.18, 763.19

763.18 Appeal from conditions of release.

1. A defendant who is detained, or whose release on a condition requiring him to return to custody after specified hours is continued, after review of his application pursuant to section 763.17, subsections 4 or 5, by a magistrate, other than a judge of the district court having original jurisdiction over the offense with which he is charged, may move the district court having jurisdiction over the county in which the offense is pending to amend the order. Said motion shall be promptly set for hearing and a record made thereof.

2. In any case in which a court denied a motion under subsection 1 to amend an order imposing conditions of release, or a defendant is detained after conditions of release have been imposed or amended upon such a motion, an appeal may be taken to the supreme court. The appeal shall be determined summarily without briefs on the record made in the district court. However, the defendant may elect to file briefs and may be heard in oral argument, in which case the prosecution shall have a right to respond as in an ordinary appeal from a criminal conviction. The supreme court may, on its own motion, order the parties to submit briefs and set the time in which such briefs shall be filed. [Short form, §773.33]

769.33 and 769.34 Repealed by 64GA, ch 1124, §282.
770.1 Drawing grand jurors. On the first secular Monday of the first month of each calendar quarter at which grand jurors are required to appear or at such alternative times as may be prescribed by the court, the names of the twelve persons constituting the panel of the grand jury, except such as may have died, removed from the county, or have been excused by the court, shall, unless otherwise ordered by the court, be placed by the clerk in a box, and after thoroughly mixing the same, he shall draw therefrom seven names, and the persons so drawn shall constitute the grand jury for that calendar quarter. Should any of the persons so drawn be excused or fail to attend on the day designated for their appearance, the clerk shall draw other names until the seven grand jurors are secured. [C51, §2881; R60, §§4608-4610; C73, §§4255-4257; C97, §5240; S13, §3240; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13678; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §770.1]

770.2 Additional drawings. If, for any reason, the number of grand jurors required is not secured from the twelve persons so constituting such panel, the clerk shall draw from the grand jury box such number of names as the court may direct, and from the persons whose names are so drawn the panel of the grand jury shall be filled, and the court shall issue a venire to secure their attendance. [C51, §2881; R60, §§4608, 4610; C73, §§4255, 4257; C97, §5240; S13, §3240; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13679; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §770.2]

770.3 Challenge to panel — motion. A defendant held to answer for a public offense may, before the grand jury is sworn, challenge the panel, only for the reason that it was not selected, drawn, or summoned as prescribed by law. A defendant indicted not having been held to answer, or having been so held after the impaneling of the grand jury, may for the same reasons object to the panel by motion, but the right to make such motion is waived by entering a plea to an indictment. [C51, §§2882, 2883, 2890; R60, §§4611, 4612, 4619; C73, §§4255, 4260, 4266; C97, §5241; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13680; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §770.3]

770.4 Joinder in challenges. When several persons are held to answer for one and the same offense, no challenge to the panel can be made unless they all join therein. [C51, §2890; R60, §4619; C73, §§4266; C97, §5242; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13681; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §770.4]

770.5 Grounds of challenge. A challenge to an individual grand juror may be made before the grand jury is sworn as follows: 1. By the state or the defendant, because the grand juror does not possess the qualifications required by law. 2. By the state only because: a. He is related either by affinity or consanguinity nearer than in the fifth degree, or stands in the relation of agent, clerk, servant, or employee, to any person held to answer for a public offense, whose case may come before the grand jury.

b. He is bail for anyone held to answer for a public offense, whose case may come before the grand jury.

c. He is defendant in a prosecution similar to any prosecution to be examined by the grand jury.

d. He is, or within one year preceding has been, engaged or interested in carrying on any business, calling, or employment the carrying on of which is a violation of law, and for which the juror may be indicted by the grand jury.

3. By the defendant only because: a. He is a prosecutor upon a charge against the defendant. b. He has formed or expressed such an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the prisoner as would prevent him from rendering a true verdict upon the evidence submitted on the trial. [C51, §§2882, 2884, 2880; R60, §§4611, 4613, 4619; C73, §§4255, 4259, 4261, 4266; C97, §5243; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13682; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §770.5]

770.6 Decided by the court. Challenges to the panel or to an individual grand juror must be decided by the court. [C51, §2886; R60, §4615; C73, §§4262; C97, §5244; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13683; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §770.6]
770.7 Effect of allowing challenge to panel.
If a challenge to the panel be allowed, the grand jury is prohibited from inquiring into the charge against the defendant by whom it was interposed, and, if it does so and finds an indictment, the court must set it aside.  [C51, §2887; R60,§4616; C73,§4263; C97,§5245; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13684; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §770.7]

770.8 Dismissal of jurors — new panels.
If a challenge to an individual grand juror be allowed, he shall not be present at or take any part in the consideration of the charge against the defendant.  If a challenge to the panel is allowed, or if by reason of challenges to individual grand jurors being allowed, or if for any cause at any time, the grand jury is reduced to a less number than seven, a new grand jury shall be impaneled to inquire into the charge against the defendant in whose behalf the challenge to the panel has been allowed, or the panel of the jury so reduced below the number required by law shall be filled as the case may be.  If a challenge is allowed to the panel, the names of jurors required to impanel a new jury shall be drawn from the grand jury list.  [C51,§2888; R60,§4617; C73,§4264; C97,§5246; S13,§5246; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13685; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§770.8]

770.9 Summoning additional jurors.
If such grand jury has been reduced to a less number than seven by reason of challenges to individual jurors being allowed, or from any other cause, the additional jurors required to fill the panel shall be summoned, first, from such of the twelve jurors originally summoned which were not drawn on the grand jury as first impaneled, or excused, and if they are exhausted, the additional number required shall be drawn from the grand jury list and the court shall, when necessary, issue a venire to secure the attendance of such additional jurors.  The persons so summoned shall serve only in the case, or cases, in which, by reason of challenges, or other causes, the regular panel is set aside or is insufficient in number to find an indictment.  [S13,§5246; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13686; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§770.9]

770.10 Effect of violation.
The grand jury must inform the court of any violation of sections 770.8 and 770.9, which offense shall be punished as a contempt.  [C51,§2894; R60,§4623; C73,§4265; C97,§5251; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13693; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§770.10]

770.11 Refilling panel.
If for any cause the number of grand jurors is reduced below twelve, the court may order the clerk to immediately draw from the grand jury list sufficient additional names to fill the panel, and such new grand jurors so drawn may, if so ordered by the court, serve as regular grand jurors for the county in which they are drawn for the remainder of the year.  [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13688; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§770.11]

770.12 Foreman appointed.
From the persons impaneled as grand jurors the court must appoint a foreman, or when the foreman already appointed is discharged, excused, or from any cause becomes unable to act, before the grand jury is finally discharged.  [C51, §2891; R60,§4620; C73,§4267; C97,§5248; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13689; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§770.12]

770.13 Oath of foreman.
The following oath must be administered to the foreman of the grand jury: “You, as foreman of the grand jury, shall diligently inquire and true presentment make of all public offenses against the people of this state, triable on indictment within this county, of which you have or can obtain legal evidence; you shall present no person through malice, hatred, or ill will, nor leave any unpressed through fear, favor, or affection, or for any reward, or the promise or hope thereof, but in all your presentments you shall present the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, according to the best of your skill and understanding.”  [C51,§2892; R60,§4621; C73,§4268; C97,§5249; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13690; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§770.13]

770.14 Oath of members.
The following oath must thereupon be administered to the other grand jurors: “The same oath which your foreman has now taken before you on his part, you and each of you shall well and truly observe on your part.”  [C51,§2893; R60,§4622; C73,§4269; C97,§5250; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13691; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§770.14]

770.15 General charge of court.
The grand jury, being impaneled and sworn, may be charged by the court, who shall give them such information as may be proper as to the nature of their duties, and any charges for public offenses returned to the court or likely to come before that body.  [C51,§2894; R60, §4623; C73,§4270; C97,§5251; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13692; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§770.15]

771.22 Effect of dismissal. Such dismissal of the charge does not prevent the same from being submitted to a grand jury as often as the court may direct; but without such direction it cannot be again submitted. [R60,§4644; C73,§4290; C97,§5273; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13723; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§771.22]

771.24 Disclosure required. Any member of the grand jury and the clerk thereof, and any officer of the court, may be required by the court or any legislative committee duly authorized to inquire into the conduct or acts of any state officer which might be the basis for impeachment proceedings, to disclose the testimony of a witness examined before the grand jury for the purpose of ascertaining whether it is consistent with that given by him before the court or legislative committee, or to disclose the same upon a charge of perjury against the witness, or when in the opinion of the court or legislative committee such disclosure is necessary in the administration of justice. [C51, §2908; R60,§4639; C73,§4285; C97,§5268; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13725; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§771.24]

Referred to in §771.23

771.25 Privilege of jurors. No grand juror shall be questioned for anything he may say or any vote he may give in the grand jury relative to a matter legally pending before it, except for perjury of which he may have been guilty in making an accusation, or in giving testimony to his fellow jurors. CHAPTER 772

FINDING AND PRESENTATION OF INDICTMENT

772.1 Vote necessary—endorsement.
772.2 Indictment at instance of private prosecutor.

772.3 Names of witnesses endorsed.
772.4 Minutes of evidence not public—copy.
772.5 Minutes used on resubmission.
772.1 Vote necessary—endorsement. An indictment cannot be found without the concurrence of five grand jurors. Every indictment must be endorsed "a true bill" and the endorsement signed by the foreman of the grand jury. [C51,§2910; R60,§4645; C73,§4291; C97, §5274; S13,§5274-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13727; C46, 50, 54, 58, 66, 71, 73,§772.1]

772.2 Indictment at instance of private prosecutor. When an indictment is found at the instance of a private prosecutor, the following must be added to the endorsement required by section 772.1, "found at the instance of" (here state the name of the person) and, in such case, if the prosecution fails, the court trying the cause may tax the costs against him, if satisfied from all the circumstances that the prosecution was malicious or without probable cause. [R60,§4646; C73,§4292; C97,§5275; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13728; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§772.2]

772.3 Names of witnesses endorsed. When an indictment is found, the names of all witnesses on whose evidence it is found must be endorsed thereon before it is presented in the court, and must be, with the minutes of the evidence of such witnesses, presented to the court by the foreman in the presence of the grand jury, and all of the same marked "filed" by the clerk, as provided in the chapter relating to the duties of the grand jury, and shall remain in his office as a record. [C51,§2913; R60,§4647; C73,§4293; C97,§5276; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13730; C46, 50, 54, 58, 66, 71, 73,§772.3]

772.4 Minutes of evidence not public—copy. Such minutes of evidence shall not be open for the inspection of any person except the judge of the court, the county attorney or his assistant or clerk, the defendant and his counsel, or the assistant or clerk of such counsel. The clerk of the court must, within two days after demand made, furnish the defendant or his counsel a copy thereof without charge, or permit the defendant’s counsel, or the clerk of such counsel, to take a copy. [C51,§2913; R60,§4647; C73,§4293; C97,§5277; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13731; C46, 50, 54, 58, 66, 71, 73,§772.4]

772.5 Minutes used on resubmission. When an indictment is held insufficient, and an order is made to resubmit the case to the same or another grand jury, or where the grand jury has ignored a bill and the same has been ordered back to the same or another grand jury for further investigation, it shall be unnecessary to summon the witnesses again before such jury in such cases, but the minutes of the testimony returned with the defective indictment or ignored bill or information shall be detached and returned to the grand jury; and thereupon, without more, such grand jury may find a bill and attach said minutes of the evidence thereto, and return said indictment therewith into court in the usual manner, and may in either case take additional testimony. [C97,§5278; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13732; C46, 50, 54, 58, 66, 71, 73,§772.5]
773.1 Definition. An indictment is an accusation in writing, found and presented by a grand jury legally impaneled and sworn to the court in which it is impaneled, charging that a person therein named has done some act, or been guilty of some omission, which by law is a public offense, punishable on indictment. [C51, §§2915; R60, §§4649; C73, §§4295; C97, §§5279; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13732; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §773.1]

B. of (here state the offense, e.g., treason, manslaughter, robbery, or larceny) and charge that (here the particulars of the offense, for instance, as set forth in section 773.35 may be added with the view to avoiding the necessity for a bill of particulars)."

773.3  Allegations of prior convictions. If the offense charged is one for which the defendant, if convicted, will be subject by reason of the Code, to an increased penalty because of prior convictions, the allegation of such convictions, if any, shall be contained in the indictment. A supplemental indictment shall be prepared for the purpose of trial of the facts of the current offense only, and shall satisfy all pertinent requirements of the Code, except that it shall make no mention, directly or indirectly, of the allegation of the prior convictions, and shall be the only indictment read or otherwise presented to the jury prior to conviction of the current offense. The effect of this section shall be to alter the procedure for trying, in one criminal proceeding, the offenses appropriate to its provisions, and not to alter in any manner the basic elements of an offense as provided by law. [C66, 71, 73, §773.3]

773.4 Contents of indictment. The indictment may charge, and is valid and sufficient if it charges, the offense for which the accused is being prosecuted in one or more of the following ways.

1. By using the name given to the offense by statute.

2. By stating so much of the definition of the offense, either in terms of the common law or of the statute defining the offense, or in terms of substantially the same meaning, as is sufficient to give the court and the accused notice of what offense is intended to be charged.

The indictment may refer to a section or subsection of any statute creating the crime charged therein, and in determining the validity or sufficiency of such indictment regard shall be had to such reference. [C51, §§2916; R60, §§4650, 4652, 4659; C73, §§4286, 4298, 4305; C97, §§5280, 5282, 5289; S13, §§5289; C24, 27, §13733, 13735, 13743; C31, 35, §13732-c2; C39, §13732.02; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §773.3; C66, 71, 73, §773.4]

Referred to in §§773.5, 773.6, 773.11-773.15, 773.17, 773.23, 773.30

773.5 Absence of particulars—effect. No indictment which charges the offense in accordance with the provisions of section 773.4 shall be held to be insufficient on the ground that it fails to inform the defendant of the particulars of the offense. [C31, 35, §13732-c3; C39, §13732.03; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §773.4; C66, 71, 73, §773.5]

773.6 Bill of particulars.

1. When an indictment charges an offense in accordance with the provisions of section 773.4, but such indictment together with the minutes of the evidence filed therewith fails to inform the defendant of the particulars of the offense sufficiently to enable him to prepare his defense, or to give him such information as he is entitled to under the Constitution of this state, the court may, of its own motion, and shall, at the request of the defendant, order the county attorney to furnish a bill of particulars containing such information as may be necessary for these purposes, or the county attorney may of his own motion furnish such bill of particulars.

2. When the court deems it to be in the interest of justice that facts not set out in the indictment or in the minutes of the evidence or in any previous bill of particulars, should be furnished to the defendant, it may order the county attorney to furnish a bill of particulars containing such facts. In determining whether such facts and, if so, what facts, should be so furnished the court shall consider the whole record of the case and the entire course of the proceedings against the defendant.

3. Supplemental bills of particulars or a new bill may be ordered by the court or furnished voluntarily under the conditions above stated.

1. Each supplemental bill shall operate to amend any and all previous bills and a new bill shall supersede any previous bill.

5. When any bill of particulars is furnished it shall be filed and become a part of the record and a copy of such bill shall be given to the defendant upon his request. [C31, 35, §13732-c4; C39, §13732.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §773.5; C66, 71, 73, §773.6.]

Referred to in §773.7

773.7 Setting aside indictment. If it appears from the bill of particulars furnished under section 773.6 that the particulars stated do not constitute the offense charged in the indictment, or that the defendant did not commit that offense, or that a prosecution for that offense is barred by the statute of limitations, the court may and on motion of defendant shall set aside the indictment unless the county attorney shall furnish another bill of particulars which so states the particulars as to show that the particulars constitute the offense charged in the indictment and that the offense was committed by the defendant and that it is not barred by the statute of limitations. [C31, 35, §13732-c5; C39, §13732.05; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §773.6; C66, 71, 73, §773.7.]

773.8 Identification of defendant.

1. In an indictment or bill of particulars it is sufficient for the purpose of identifying the defendant to state his true name, or to state the name, appellation or nickname by which he has been or is known, or, if no better way of identifying him is practicable, by stating a fictitious name, or describing him as a person whose name is unknown, or in any other manner. In stating the true name or the name by which the defendant has been or is known or a fictitious name, it is sufficient to state a surname, a surname and one or more given names, or a surname and one or more abbreviations or initials of a given name or names.

2. If the defendant is a corporation, it is sufficient to state the corporate name of such corporation, or any name or designation by which it has been or is known or by which it may be identified, without an averment that the corporation is a corporation or that it was incorporated according to law.

3. If in the course of the proceedings the true name of a person indicted otherwise than by his true name is disclosed by the defendant or in the proceedings before the court, it shall order the true name of the defendant to be inserted in the indictment and court record wherever his name appears otherwise therein, and the case shall proceed against him in his true name.

4. In no case is it necessary to prove that the true name of the defendant is unknown to the grand jury or prosecuting attorney. [C51, §2916; R60, §§4651, 4659, 4660; C73, §§4299, 4305, C97, §§5283, 5289; S13, §5289; C24, 27, §§13734, 13743; C31, 35, §13732-c9; C39, §13732.06; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §773.5; C66, 71, 73, §773.8.]

773.9 Time of commission of offense.

1. An indictment need contain no allegation of the time of the commission of the offense except in those cases in which time is a material ingredient of the offense.

2. The allegation in an indictment that the defendant committed the offense shall in all cases be considered an allegation that the offense was committed after it became an offense and before the finding of the indictment and within the period of limitations prescribed by law for the prosecution of the offense.

3. All allegations of the indictment and bill of particulars shall, unless stated otherwise, be deemed to refer to the same time. [C51, §2916; R60, §§4651, 4659, 4660; C73, §§4299, 4305; C97, §§5281, 5285, 5289; S13, §5289; C24, 27, §§13734, 13739, 13743; C31, 35, §13732-c7; C39, §13732.07; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §773.8; C66, 71, 73, §773.9.]

773.10 Place of commission of offense.

1. An indictment need contain no allegation of the place of the commission of the offense, except in those cases in which the place is a material ingredient of the offense.

2. The allegation in an indictment that the defendant committed the offense shall in all cases be considered an allegation that the offense was committed within the territorial jurisdiction of the court.

3. All allegations in the indictment and bill of particulars shall, unless stated otherwise, be deemed to refer to the same place. [C51, §§2916, 2920; R60, §§4651, 4659, 4660; C73, §§4297, 4305, 4306; C97, §§5281, 5285, 5289; S13, §5289; C24, 27, §§13734, 13743, 13749; C31, 35, §13732-c8; C39, §13732.08; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §773.9; C66, 71, 73, §773.10.]

773.11 Means. An indictment need contain no allegation of the means by which an offense was committed, unless such allegation is necessary to charge an offense under section 773.4. [C51, 35, §13732-c9; C39, §13732.09; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §773.10; C66, 71, 73, §773.11.]

773.12 Value. An indictment or bill of particulars need contain no allegation of the value or price of any property, unless such allegation is necessary to charge an indictable offense under section 773.4, and in such case it is sufficient to aver that the value or price of the property equals or exceeds the certain value or price which determines the offense. The facts which give the property such value need not be alleged. [C31, 35, §13732-c10; C39, §13732.10; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §773.11; C66, 71, 73, §773.12.]

773.13 Ownership.

1. An indictment need contain no allegation of the ownership of any property, unless such allegation is necessary to charge the offense under section 773.4.
2. An allegation in an indictment or bill of particulars of ownership of property is supported by proof of possession or right of possession of such property, and any statement in an indictment or bill of particulars which implies possession or right of possession is a sufficient allegation of ownership. [C31, 35, §13732-c11; C39, §13732.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §773.12; C66, 71, 73, §773.13]

773.14 Intent.
1. An indictment need contain no allegation of the intent with which an act was done, unless such allegation is necessary to charge the offense under section 773.4.

2. An allegation generally of an intent to defraud and injure is sufficient for the purpose of identifying any act done "feloniously" or "traitorously" or "unlawfully" or "with force and arms" or "with a strong hand", nor need it use any phrase of like kind otherwise to characterize the offense, nor need it allege that the offense was committed or the act done "burglariously", "willfully", "knowingly", "maliciously", or "negligently", nor need it otherwise characterize the manner of the commission of the offense unless such characterization is necessary to charge the offense under section 773.4. [C51, §2927; R60, §4667; C73, §4313; C97, §5298; C24, 27, §13756; C31, 35, §13732-c12; C39, §13732.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §773.13; C66, 71, 73, §773.14]

773.15 Immaterial allegations. An indictment need not allege that the offense was committed or the act done "feloniously" or "traitorously" or "unlawfully" or "with force and arms" or "with a strong hand", nor need it use any phrase of like kind otherwise to characterize the offense, nor need it allege that the offense was committed or the act done "burglariously", "willfully", "knowingly", "maliciously", or "negligently", nor need it otherwise characterize the manner of the commission of the offense unless such characterization is necessary to charge the offense under section 773.4.

1. In an indictment or bill of particulars it is sufficient to describe such place or thing by any term which in common understanding embraces such place or thing and does not include any place or thing which is not by law the subject of, connected with, the offense. [R60, §4656; C73, §4302; C97, §5290; C24, 27, §13749; C31, 35, §13732-c14; C39, §13732.13; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §773.15; C66, 71, 73, §773.16]

It is sufficient for the purpose of describing any group or association of persons not incorporated to state the true name of such group or association, or to state any name or designation by which the group or association has been or is known or by which it may be identified, or to state the names of all the persons in such group or association, or to state the name or names of one or more persons in such group or association, referring to the other or others as "another" or "others".

3. It is sufficient for the purpose of describing a corporation to state the corporate name of such corporation, or any name or designation by which it has been or is known, or by which it may be identified, without an averment that the corporation is a corporation or that it was incorporated according to law.

4. In no case is it necessary to aver or prove that the true name of any person, group or association of persons or any corporation is unknown to the grand jury or prosecuting attorney.

5. If in the course of the trial the true name of any person, group, or association of persons, or corporation, described otherwise than by the true name is disclosed by the evidence, the court shall cause the true name to be inserted in the indictment and court record wherever the name appears otherwise. [R60, §4656; C73, §4302; C97, §5290; C24, 27, §13740; C31, 35, §13732-c16; C39, §13732.16; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §773.17; C66, 71, 73, §773.18]

776.7 Motion sustained—defendant discharged. If the motion be granted, the court must order the defendant, if in custody, to be discharged; or, if admitted to bail, that his bail be exonerated; or, if he has deposited money instead of bail, that the money deposited be refunded to him, unless the court direct that the case be resubmitted to the same or another grand jury. 777.4 Method of demurring.

777.5 Issues—by whom tried.

777.6 Time of hearing demurrer.

777.8 Absolute discharge.

777.9 Resubmission.

777.11 Pleas to the indictment.
§777.1, Pleadings of Defendant

777.12 Plea of guilty—form—entry.
777.13 Other pleas—form—entry.
777.14 Failure to plead.
777.15 Withdrawal of plea of guilty.
777.16 Issues of fact—trial.
777.17 Plea of not guilty—evidence admissible.

777.1 Demurrer or plea. The only pleading on the part of the defendant is a demurrer or plea. [C51,§2955; R60,§4700; C73,§4345; C97,§5327; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13799; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.1]

777.2 Grounds of demurrer. The defendant may demur to the indictment when it appears upon its face, either:
1. That it does not substantially conform to the requirements of this Code, or
2. That the indictment contains matter which, if true, would constitute a legal defense or bar to the prosecution. [C51,§2955; R60,§4707; C73,§4352; C97,§5328; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13790; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.2]

777.3 Failure to demur—waiver. All objections to the indictment relating to matters of substance and form which might be raised by demurrer shall be deemed waived if not so raised by the defendant before the jury is sworn on the trial of the case. [S13,§5298; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13791; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.3]

Related provision, §773.45

777.4 Method of demurring. A demurrer to the indictment may be filed with the clerk or made in open court, and shall be entered of record substantially in the following form: "The defendant demurs to the indictment". [C51,§2951; R60,§§4701, 4708; C73,§§4346, 4353; C97,§5330; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13792; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.4]

777.5 Issues—by whom tried. An issue of law arises upon a demurrer to an indictment is incorrectly sustained because the indictment contains matter which is a legal defense or bar to the indictment, the judgment shall be final and the defendant must be discharged. If a demurrer to an indictment is incorrectly sustained, such error shall not act as a bar to further prosecution for the same offense. [R60,§4711; C73,§4356; C97,§5331; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13796; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.5]

777.6 Time of hearing demurrer. When a demurrer is filed or entered of record, it must be heard immediately, or at such time as the court may appoint. [C51,§2954; R60,§§4702, 4703; C73,§§4347, 4348; C97,§5329; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13793; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.6]

777.7 Jurisdiction in another county—procedure. If a demurrer is sustained on the ground that the offense charged was within the exclusive jurisdiction of another county in this state, the same proceedings shall be had as provided in case of the discharge of a jury for want of jurisdiction of the offense charged. [R60,§4710; C73,§4355; C97,§5331; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13795; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.7]

Discharge for want of jurisdiction, §780.29

777.8 Absolute discharge. If a demurrer is not sustained on any other ground, the defendant must be discharged and his bail exonerated, if bail has been given, unless the court is of opinion, on good cause shown, that the objection can be remedied or avoided in another indictment, in which case the court may order the cause to be resubmitted to the same or another grand jury, and the defendant may be held in custody, if not at large on bail, in which case the undertaking given shall remain in force. [R60,§4712; C73,§4357; C97,§5331; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13797; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.8]

777.9 Resubmission. If a demurrer is sustained on any other ground, the defendant must be discharged and his bail exonerated, if bail has been given, unless the court is of opinion, on good cause shown, that the objection can be remedied or avoided in another indictment, in which case the court may order the cause to be resubmitted to the same or another grand jury, and the defendant may be held in custody, if not at large on bail, in which case the undertaking given shall remain in force. [R60,§4712; C73,§4357; C97,§5331; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13797; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.9]

777.10 Pleading over—final judgment. If the demurrer is overruled, the defendant has a right to plead to the indictment; if he fails to do so, final judgment may be rendered against him on the demurrer, and, if necessary, a jury may be impaneled to inquire and ascertain the degree of the offense. [C51,§2955; R60,§4713; C73,§4358; C97,§5332; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13798; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.10]

777.11 Pleas to the indictment. There are but three pleas to the indictment—(1) guilty, (2) not guilty, or (3) of a former judgment of conviction or acquittal of the offense charged. [C51,§2957; R60,§4714; C73,§4359; C97,§5333; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13799; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.11]

777.12 Plea of guilty—form—entry. The plea of guilty can only be made in open court and by the defendant himself, and in the presence of legal counsel acting on behalf of the defendant if the defendant is charged with a felony in substantially the following form: "The defendant pleads that he is guilty of the offense charged in the indictment", and shall be entered of record substantially in the following form: "The defendant pleads that he is guilty of the offense charged in the indictment", and shall be entered of record. Before a plea of guilty or an entry of judgment, if the defendant has neither employed counsel nor been assigned counsel as provided in section 775.4 the court shall appoint counsel for the defendant if the defendant is charged with a felony. [R60,§§4715, 4716; C73,§§4360, 4361; C97,§5334; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§13800; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.12]

PLEADINGS OF DEFENDANT, §777.22

777.13 Other pleas—form—entry. The other pleas may be in writing, filed with the clerk, or made in open court, in substantially the following form: "The defendant pleads that he is not guilty of the offense charged in the indictment", or, "The defendant pleads that he has formerly been convicted (or acquitted, as the case may be) of the offense charged in the indictment by the judgment of the .......... court of .......... (naming it), rendered on the .......... day of .........., A. D. .... " (naming the time), which may be pleaded alone or with the plea of not guilty. The pleas shall be entered of record. [C51,§2957; R60,§4714, 4715; C73, §§4359, 4360; C97,§5335; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13801; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.13]

777.15 Withdrawal of plea of guilty. At any time before judgment, the court may permit the plea of guilty to be withdrawn and other plea or pleas substituted. [C51,§2961; R60, §4717; C73,§4362; C97,§5337; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13803; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.15]

777.16 Issues of fact—trial. An issue of fact arises on a plea of not guilty or of former conviction or acquittal, and no further pleading is necessary. Issues of fact must be tried by a jury, unless right to jury trial is waived by the defendant pursuant to section 780.23. [R60,§4702, 4704, 4705; C73,§4347, 4349, 4350; C97, §5338; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13804; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.16]

777.17 Plea of not guilty—evidence admissible. [C97,§5338; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13805; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.17]

777.18 Insanity or alibi defense—notice—continuance. Where the defendant pleads not guilty and proposes to show insanity as a defense, or that he relies on an alibi or that he was at some other place at the time of the alleged commission of the offense charged, he shall, at the time he pleads or at any time thereafter, not later than four days before trial, file a written notice of this purpose, setting forth the names of the witnesses, together with the address and occupation of each, and a statement of the substance of that which the defendant expects to prove by the testimony of each of said witnesses. If the defendant fails to file said notice less than four days before the case is set for trial, the state, on motion of the county attorney, shall be entitled to a continuance of said cause for not to exceed four days. 777.20 Conviction or acquittal—when a bar. [R60,§4719; C73,§4364; C97,§5339; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13807; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.20]

Constitution, Art. I,§12
See also Const., Art. I, §9

777.21 Prosecutions barred. When a defendant has been convicted or acquitted upon an indictment for an offense consisting of different degrees, the conviction or acquittal shall be a bar to another indictment for the offense charged in the former or for any lower degree of that offense, or for an offense necessarily included therein. [R60,§4720; C73,§4365; C97, §5340; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13808; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§777.21]

[C51, §3042; R60, §4839; C73, §4469; C97, §5410; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §13927; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §785.13]

The court may in its discretion reconvene the jury which heard the current offense or dismiss that jury and submit the issue of identity to another jury to be later impaneled. If the offender is found by the jury to be the person previously convicted, or if he acknowledges that he is such person, he shall be sentenced as prescribed in the Code. [C66, 71, 73, §785.16]

CHAPTER 787
NEW TRIAL

787.1 Definition.
787.2 Application—when made.
787.3 Grounds.
787.4 Effect of a new trial.
Definition. A new trial is a re-examination of the issue in the same court before another jury, after a verdict has been given. When the verdict has been decided by lot, or by means other than a fair expression of opinion on the part of all the jurors, the court may grant a new trial on its own motion. When the court has misdirected the jury in a material matter of law, the court may also, upon its own observation of any of these grounds, arrest the judgment on its own motion. When from any other cause the defendant has not received a fair and impartial trial, the court may grant a new trial. When the verdict is contrary to law or evidence; but no more than two new trials shall be granted for this cause alone.

Effect of a new trial. The granting of a new trial places the parties in the same position as if no trial had been had; all the testimony must be produced anew and the former verdict cannot be used or referred to either in the evidence or in argument.

This section retroactive to January 1, 1966; see 63GA, ch 1275, §13(4)
789A.1 Deferred judgment or suspended sentence—probation. The trial court may, upon a plea of guilty, verdict of guilty, or a special verdict upon which a judgment of conviction may be rendered, exercise either of the options contained in subsections 1 and 2. However, this section shall not apply to the crimes of treason, murder, or violation of section 204.401, subsection 1 or 2, to which section 204.409, subsection 2 is not applicable and which is not proved to be an accommodation offense under section 204.410.

1. With the consent of the defendant, the court may defer judgment and place the defendant on probation upon such terms and conditions as it may require. Upon fulfillment of the terms of probation the defendant shall be discharged without entry of judgment. Upon violation of the terms, the court may enter an adjudication of guilt and proceed as otherwise provided.

However, this subsection shall not be available if any of the following is true:

a. The defendant attempted to kill anyone during the commission of the offense.

b. The defendant purposefully inflicted or attempted to inflict a serious injury upon anyone during the commission of the offense. "Serious injury" means death, permanent disability or disfigurement, protracted loss or impairment of the function of any body member or organ, an injury requiring extended treatment or a prolonged healing period, a disabling mental illness requiring extended treatment or prolonged care, or an injury which at the time of deferment of judgment appears likely to result in any of the foregoing.

c. The defendant used, threatened to use or displayed in a threatening manner a dangerous weapon during the commission of the offense. "Dangerous weapon" means any instrument or device designed primarily for use in inflicting death or injury upon a human being or other living creature, and which is capable of inflicting death upon a human being when used in the manner for which it was designed. "Dangerous weapon" also includes any instrument or device of any sort whatsoever which is actually used in such a manner as to indicate that the defendant intends to inflict death or serious injury upon anyone and which, when so used, is capable of inflicting death upon a human being.

d. The defendant kidnapped any person for ransom during the commission of the offense.
e. During the commission of the offense the defendant committed rape or sodomy by force or threat of force, committed assault with intent to commit rape by force or threat of force, committed or attempted to commit rape of or sodomy with a child twelve years of age or under, or committed a violation of section 725.2 with respect to a child twelve years of age or under and which included any of the following: Force or threat of force, fondling or touching the child in a lewd manner, or soliciting a sexual act with the child.

f. The defendant has been previously convicted of a felony. "Felony" means a conviction in a court of this or any other state or of the United States, of an offense classified as a felony by the law under which he was convicted at the time of his conviction.

g. Prior to the commission of the offense the defendant had been granted a deferred judgment or similar relief, two or more times anywhere in the United States.

h. Prior to the commission of the offense the defendant had been granted a deferred judgment or similar relief in a felony prosecution anywhere in the United States within the preceding five years, measured from the date of granting of deferment of judgment to the date of commission of the offense.

Any deferment of judgment under this subsection shall be promptly reported to the supreme court administrator who shall maintain a permanent record thereof including the name of the defendant, the district court docket number, the nature of the offense, and the date of the deferment. Before granting deferment in any case, the court shall request of the supreme court administrator a search of the deferred judgment docket and shall consider any prior record of a deferment of judgment against the defendant. The permanent record provided for in this subsection shall constitute a confidential record exempted from public access under section 68A.7 and shall be available only to justices of the supreme court, district judges, district associate judges, and judicial magistrates requesting information pursuant to this subsection.

2. By record entry at time of or after sentencing, the court may suspend the sentence and place the defendant on probation upon such terms and conditions as it may require.

Before exercising either of the options contained in subsections 1 and 2, the court shall first determine which of them will provide... maximum opportunity for the rehabilitation of the defendant and protection of the community from further offenses by the defendant and others. In making this determination the court shall consider the age of the defendant, his prior record of convictions, if any, his employment circumstances, his family circumstances, the nature of the offense committed, whether a dangerous weapon or force was used in the commission of such offense, and such other factors as shall be appropriate. The court shall file a specific written statement of its reasons for and the facts supporting its decision to defer judgment or to suspend sentence and its decision on the length of probation. [§13,$5447-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,$3800; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,$247.20; 65GA, ch 295,$1] Referred to in §§602.16, 789A.2

789A.2 Length of probation. The length of the probation shall be for such term as the court may fix but not to exceed five years if the offense is a felony or not to exceed two years if the offense is a misdemeanor, unless the person is ordered placed under the supervision of the chief parole officer, in which case the term of probation shall be determined by the board of parole and the probation of the defendant shall be supervised by the chief parole officer.

The length of the probation shall not be less than one year and shall not be less than two years if the offense is a felony. However, the court may subsequently reduce the length of the probation if the court determines that the purposes of probation have been fulfilled, as provided in section 789A.6.

In determining the length of the probation, the court shall first determine what period is most likely to provide maximum opportunity for the rehabilitation of the defendant, to allow enough time to determine whether or not rehabilitation has been successful, and to protect the community from further offenses by the defendant and others. [§13,$5447-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,$3800; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,$247.20; 65GA, ch 295,$2] Referred to in §§789A.8

789A.3 Presentence investigation. Upon a plea of guilty, verdict of guilty, or special verdict upon which a judgment of conviction of any public offense may be rendered, the court shall receive from the state and from the defendant any information which may be offered which is relevant to the question of sentencing. The court may consider information from other sources, and shall,* if the offense is a felony, order a presentence investigation to be made.

The court may withhold execution of any judgment or sentence for such time as shall be reasonably necessary for an investigation with respect to deferment of judgment or suspension of sentence and probation. The investigation shall be made by a probation officer, by the agency in charge of parole agents, or by another appropriate agency, as determined by the court. [§13,$5447-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, $3800; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,$247.20; 65GA, ch 295,$3] *Amendment effective July 1, 1974; 65GA, ch 295,$15

789A.4 Presentence investigation and report. Whenever a presentence investigation is ordered by the court, the investigator shall promptly inquire into the defendant's characteristics, family and financial circumstances, needs, and potentialities; his criminal record and social history; the circumstances of the offense; the time the defendant has been in detention; and the harm to the victim, his immediate family, and the community. All local and state mental and correctional institutions, courts, and police agencies shall furnish to the investigator on request the defendant's criminal record and other relevant information. With the approval of the court, a physical examination of the defendant may be ordered, or the defendant may be committed to a psychiatric facility for an evaluation of his personality and mental health. The results of any such examination shall be included in the report of the investigator. [65GA, ch 295,$4]

789A.5 Report confidential. The court may, in its discretion, make the presentence investigation report or parts of it available to the defendant, or the court may make the report or parts of it available while concealing the identity of the person who provided confidential information. The report of any medical examination or psychiatric evaluation shall be made available to the attorney for the state and to the defendant upon request. Such reports shall be part of the record but shall be sealed and opened only on order of the court. In any case where the defendant is committed to the custody of the department of social services, a copy of the presentence investigation report shall be sent to the department at the time of commitment. [65GA, ch 295,$5]

789A.6 Discharge from probation. At any time that the court determines that the purposes of probation have been fulfilled, the court may order the discharge of any person from probation. At the expiration of the period of probation, in cases where the court fixes the term of probation, the court shall order the discharge of such person from probation, and the court shall forward to the governor a recommendation for or against restoration of citizenship rights to such person. A person who has been discharged from probation shall no longer be held to answer for his offense. Upon discharge from probation, if judgment has been deferred under section 789A.1, the court's written commitment to the deferred judgment shall be expunged. The record maintained by the supreme court administrator required by section 789A.1 shall not be expunged. The court's record shall never be expunged in any other circumstances except as provided in section 602.15. [§13,$5447-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,$3800; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,$247.20; 65GA, ch 295,$6] Referred to in §§602.15, 789A.2 §789A.7 Custody of court probationer—record to chief parole officer. When probation is granted under section 789A.1, the court shall order said person committed to the custody, care, and supervision:

1. Of any suitable resident of this state; or

2. Of the chief parole officer. The chief parole officer shall not, however, accept the custody, care and supervision of any person granted probation from a sentence to a term in a county jail or any other person who in the judgment of the chief parole officer could not be properly supervised.

In each case wherein the court shall order said person committed to the custody, care, and supervision of the chief parole officer, the clerk of the district court shall at once furnish the chief parole officer with certified copies of the indictment or information, the minutes of testimony given thereon, the judgment entry if judgment is not deferred, and the original mittimus. The county attorney shall at once advise the chief parole officer, by letter, that the defendant has been placed under the chief parole officer's supervision and give to the chief parole officer a detailed statement of the facts and circumstances surrounding the crime committed and the record and history of the defendant as may be known to him. If the defendant is confined in the county jail at the time of sentence, the court may order him held until arrangements are made by the chief parole officer for his employment and he has signed the necessary probation papers. If the defendant is not confined in the county jail at the time of sentence, the court may order him to remain in the county wherein he has been convicted and sentenced and report to the sheriff as to his whereabouts. [S13,§5447-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3801; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §247.21; 65GA, ch 295,§7]

§789A.8 Restitution.

1. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

a. "Victim" means any person who has suffered pecuniary damages as a result of the defendant's criminal activities. However, with respect to any part of a victim's pecuniary damages paid by an insurer, the insurer shall be regarded as the victim only if the insurer has no right of subrogation and the insured has no duty to pay the proceeds of restitution to the insurer.

b. "Pecuniary damages" means all damages which a victim could recover against the defendant in a civil action arising out of the same facts or event, except punitive damages and damages for pain, suffering, mental anguish, and loss of consortium. Without limitation, "pecuniary damages" includes damages for wrongful death.

c. "Criminal activities" includes any crime for which there is a plea of guilty, verdict of guilty, or special verdict upon which a judgment of conviction may be rendered and any other crime committed after July 1, 1972 which is admitted or not contested by the defendant, whether or not prosecuted. However, "criminal activities" does not include misdemeanors* under chapter 321.

*d. "Restitution" means full or partial payment of pecuniary damages to a victim.

2. It is the policy of this state that restitution be made by each violator of the criminal laws to the victims of his criminal activities to the extent that the violator is reasonably able to do so. This section shall be interpreted and administered to effectuate this policy.

3. If the trial court exercises either of the sentencing options under section 789A.1, the court shall require as a condition of probation that the defendant, in co-operation with the probation officer assigned to the defendant, promptly prepare a plan of restitution, including a specific amount of restitution to each victim and a schedule of restitution payments. If the defendant is presently unable to make any restitution but there is a reasonable possibility that the defendant may be able to do so at some time during his probation period, the plan of restitution shall also state the conditions under which or the event after which the defendant will make restitution. If the defendant believes that he will not be able to make any restitution, he shall so state and shall specify the reasons. If the defendant believes that no person suffered pecuniary damages as a result of the defendant's criminal activities, he shall so state.

4. The defendant's plan of restitution and the comments of his probation officer shall be submitted promptly to the court. The court shall enter an order approving the plan or modifying it and providing for restitution payments to the extent that the defendant is or may become reasonably able to make restitution, taking into account the factors enumerated in subsection 5. Compliance with the plan of restitution as approved or modified by the court shall be a condition of the defendant's probation. Restitution payments shall be made to the clerk unless otherwise directed by the court. The court thereafter may modify the plan at any time upon the defendant's request or upon the court's own motion. If the plan as approved or modified does not require full payment of pecuniary damages to all victims, or if the court determines that the defendant is not able and will not be able to make any restitution at any time during his probation period or that no person suffered pecuniary damages as a result of the defendant's criminal activities, the court shall file a specific written statement of its reasons for and the facts supporting its action or determination.

5. The probation officer when assisting the defendant in preparing the plan of restitution, and the court before approving or modifying the plan of restitution, shall consider the physical and mental health and condition of the defendant, his age, his education, his employment circumstances, his potential for employment and vocational training, his family circumstances, his financial condition, the number of victims, the pecuniary damages of each victim, what plan of restitution will most effectively aid the rehabilitation of the defendant, and such other factors as shall be appropriate. The probation officer shall attempt to determine the name and address of each victim and the amount of his pecuniary damages.

6. The clerk shall mail to each known victim a copy of the court's order approving or modifying the plan of restitution, including the court's statement, if any, under subsection 4.

7. At any time during the probation period the defendant may request and the court shall grant a hearing on any matter related to the plan of restitution.

8. Failure of the defendant to comply with subsection 3 or to comply with the plan of restitution as approved or modified by the court shall constitute a violation of the conditions of probation. Without limitation, the court may modify the plan of restitution or extend the period of time for restitution, but not beyond the maximum probation period specified in 789A.2.

9. This section and proceedings under this section shall not limit or impair the rights of victims to sue and recover damages from the defendant in a civil action. However, any restitution payment by the defendant to a victim shall be set off against any judgment in favor of the victim in a civil action arising out of the same facts or event. The fact that restitution was required or made shall not be admissible as evidence in a civil action unless offered by such defendant. [65GA, ch 295,§8] Referred to in §§247.6, 502.32

789A.9 Prosecutions prohibited. The action of any court in deferring judgment or conviction in a criminal case prior to August 15, 1973, is valid. No person previously prosecuted shall be tried, sentenced, or convicted based on the same facts as in a prior prosecution on the grounds that a sentence, conviction, or judgment as a result of that prosecution was deferred, and the deferment was later declared by the supreme court of this state to be unauthorized by law. This section shall not apply to any case in which an appeal was pending on June 1, 1973. [65GA, ch 295,§14]

If a defendant indicted for a public offense, whose trial has not been postponed upon his application, be not brought to trial within sixty days after the indictment is found, the court must order it to be dismissed, unless good cause to the contrary be shown. An accused not admitted to bail and unrepresented by legal counsel, shall not be deemed to have waived his privilege of dismissal or be held to make demand or request to enforce a guarantee of speedy trial, and the court on its own motion shall carry out the provisions of this section as to dismissal. [C51,§3248; R60,§5007; C73, §4613; C97,§5535; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§14023; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§795.1]

795.3 Discharge on undertaking. If the defendant be not indicted or tried as above provided, and sufficient reason therefor is shown, the court may order the prosecution continued and discharge the defendant from custody on his own undertaking, or on the undertaking of bail for his appearance to answer the charge at the time to which the same is continued, but no continuance under this section shall be extended for more than ninety days beyond the date within which the trial would otherwise be required. [C51,§3249; R60,§5008; C73,§4614; C97, §5536; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§14024; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§795.2]

795.4 Discharge on dismissal. If the court direct the prosecution to be dismissed, the defendant, if in custody, must be discharged, or his bail, if any, exonerated, and if money has been deposited instead of bail, it must be refunded to him. [R60,§5010; C73,§4615; C97, §5537; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§14025; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§795.3]

795.5 Dismissal by court—effect. The court, upon its own motion or the application of the county attorney, in the furtherance of justice, may order the dismissal of any pending criminal prosecution, the reasons therefor being stated in the order and entered of record, and no such prosecution shall be discontinued or abandoned in any other manner. Such a dismissal is a bar to another prosecution for the same offense if it is a misdemeanor; but it is not a bar if the offense charged be a felony. [C51,§§3249, 3252; R60,§§5008-5013; C73,§§4614-4619; C97,§5538; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§14026; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73,§795.5]
Sections 684.18 and 684.19 of the Code provide as follows:

684.18 Rules in civil actions. The supreme court shall have the power to prescribe all rules of pleading, practice and procedure, and the forms of process, writs and notices, for all proceedings of a civil nature in all courts of this state, for the purpose of simplifying the same, and of promoting the speedy determination of litigation upon its merits. Said rules shall neither abridge, enlarge, nor modify the substantive rights of any litigant.

684.19 Report to general assembly—enrollment. Any such rules and forms prescribed by the supreme court shall be reported by it to the general assembly within twenty days after the commencement of either regular session and shall take effect July 1 following the adjournment of such session, with such changes, if any, as may have been enacted at such session; and thereafter all laws in conflict therewith shall be of no further force or effect.

At adjournment of the general assembly where such report has been filed, an enrolled copy thereof, together with any changes, shall be made in substantially the same manner as Acts are enrolled. The enrolled copy shall be certified as to whether or not any action was taken by the general assembly and if any, what action, and thereupon it shall be filed with the secretary of state and bound with the Acts of the general assembly.

Pursuant to said sections the Supreme Court reported the following Rules of Civil Procedure effective July 4, 1943. The Rules as printed herein have the subsequent amendments incorporated therein.

DIVISION I OPERATION OF RULES

1. Applicability—effective date—statutes affected. These rules shall govern the practice and procedure in all courts of the state, except where they expressly provide otherwise, or statutes not affected hereby provide different procedure in particular courts or cases. [Report 1943]

DIVISION II
ACTIONS, JOINDER OF ACTIONS AND PARTIES

(A) Parties generally—capacity

2. Real party in interest. Every action must be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest. But an executor, administrator, guardian, trustee of an express trust; or a party with whom or in whose name a contract is made for another’s benefit, or a party specially authorized by statute, may sue in his own name without joining the party for whose benefit the action is prosecuted. [Report 1943]

3. Public bond. When a bond or other instrument given to the state, county, school or other municipal corporation, or to any officer or person, is intended for the security of the public generally, or of particular individuals, action may be brought thereon, in the name of any person intended to be thus secured, who has sustained an injury in consequence of a breach thereof, except when otherwise provided. [Report 1943]

4. Partnerships. Actions may be brought by or against partnerships as such; or against any or all partners with or without joining the firm. Judgment against a partnership may be enforced against partnership property and that of any partner served or appearing in the suit. A new action will lie on the original cause against any partner not so served or appearing. The court may order absent partners brought in. [Report 1943]

5. Foreign corporations. Foreign corporations may sue and be sued in their corporate name, except as prohibited by statute. [Report 1943]

6. Seduction. An unmarried female may sue for her own seduction. [Report 1943]

7. Assignees—exception. In cases not governed by the uniform commercial code the assignment of a thing in action shall be without prejudice to any defense, counterclaim or cause of action matured or not, if matured when pleaded, existing against the assignor in favor of the party pleading it. [Report 1943; amendment 1967]

8. Injury or death of a minor. A parent, or the parents, may sue for the expense and actual loss of services, companionship and society resulting from injury to or death of a minor child. [Report 1943; amendment 1973]

9. Actions by and against state. The state may sue in the same way as an individual. No security shall be required of it. [Report 1943; amendment 1974]

10. Married women—husband and wife. A married woman may sue or be sued without joining her husband. If both are sued, she may defend in her own right; and if either fails to defend, the other may defend for both. [Report 1943]

11. Desertion of family. When a husband has deserted his family, the wife may prosecute or defend in his name any action which he might have prosecuted or defended, and shall have the same powers and rights therein as he might have had; under like circumstances the husband shall have the same right. [Report 1943]

12. Minors—incompetents. An action of a minor or any person judicially adjudged incompetent shall be brought by his guardian if he have one; otherwise the minor may sue by a next friend, and the incompetent by a guardian appointed by the court for that purpose. The court may dismiss such action or substitute another guardian or friend for the ward’s benefit. [Report 1943]

13. Defense by incompetent, prisoner, etc. No judgment without a defense shall be entered against a party then a minor, or confined in a penitentiary, reformatory or any state hospital for the mentally ill, or one judicially adjudged incompetent, or whose physician certifies to the court that he appears to be mentally incapable of conducting his defense. Such defense shall be by guardian ad litem; but the regular guardian or the attorney appearing for a competent party may defend unless the court supersedes him by a guardian ad litem appointed in the ward’s interest. [Report 1943; amended, 58GA, ch 152,§199]

14. Guardian ad litem. If a party, served with original notice, appears to be subject to rule 13, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem for him, or substitute another, in the ward's interest. Application for such appointment or substitution may be by the ward, if competent, or a minor over fourteen years old; otherwise by his regular guardian or if there be none by any friend, or any party to the action. [Report 1943]

As to mental illness, etc., occurring pending suit, see rule 17.

For class actions, see rule 42.

For answer of guardian ad litem, see rule 71.

Referred to in R.C.P. 71, 298

See also ch 613

(B) Substitution of parties

15. Substitution at death—limitation. Any substitution of legal representatives or successors in interest of a deceased party, permitted by statute, made as parties thereto; or, if his right survives entirely to those already parties, the action shall continue among the surviving parties without substitution. [Report 1943]

See also ch 613

16. Transfer of interest. Transfer of an interest in a pending action shall not abate it, but may be the occasion for bringing in new parties. [Report 1943]

See also ch 613

17. Incapacity pending action. If, during pendency of an action, a party is judicially adjudged incompetent, or confined in any state hospital for the mentally ill, or if his physician certifies to the court that he appears to be mentally incapable of acting in his own behalf, his guardian shall be joined with him, or, if there be none the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for any party thus adjudged, confined or certified. [Report 1943; amended 55GA, ch 152, §200]

See also ch 613

18. Nonabatement in case of guardianship. When a guardianship shall cease by the death of the guardian, his removal, or otherwise, or by the decease of his ward, any action or proceeding then pending shall not abate, but his successor or the person for whom he was guardian, or the executor or administrator of such person, as the case may require, shall be substituted or joined as a party thereto; or, if no application is made for substitution, the court may, on its own motion, appoint a special guardian or administrator to represent the deceased party in the action. [Report 1943]

19. Majority of minor. If a minor party attains legal majority, he shall continue as a party in his own right. [Report 1943]

See also ch 613

20. Officers — representatives. When any public official, or any administrator, express trustee or other person in a representative capacity, ceases to be such while a party to a suit, the court may order his successor brought in and substituted for him. [Report 1943]

See also ch 611

RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE, Div. II

21. Notice to substituted party. The order for substitution shall fix the time when the substituted party shall appear, and the notice to be given him. In case of substitution of a legal representative of a deceased party the notice shall be served as in case of original notices. In all other cases a shorter time may be prescribed. [Report 1943]

See also ch 611

(C) Joinder—misjoinder and nonjoinder

22. Actions joined. A single plaintiff may join in the same action as many causes of action, legal or equitable, independent or alternative, as he may have against a single defendant. [Report 1943]

Referred to in R.C.P. 31

23. Multiple plaintiffs. Any number of persons who claim any relief, jointly, severally or alternatively, arising out of or respecting the same transaction, occurrence or series of transactions or occurrences, may join as plaintiffs in a single action, when it presents or involves any question of law or fact common to all of them. They may join in any causes of action, legal or equitable, independent or alternative, held by any one or more of them which arise out of such transaction, occurrence or series, and which present or involve any common question of law or fact. [Report 1943]

Referred to in R.C.P. 31

24. Permissive joinder of defendants. Any number of defendants may be joined in one action which asserts against them, jointly, severally or in the alternative, any right to relief in respect of, or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences, when any question of law or fact common to all of them is presented or involved. [Report 1943]

(a) Remedy for nonjoinder as plaintiff. Except as provided in this rule, all persons having a joint interest in any action shall be joined on the same side, but such persons failing to join as plaintiffs may be made defendants. This rule does not apply to class actions under rules 42-47, nor affect the options permitted by sections 613.1 and 613.2 of the Code.

(b) Definition of indispensable party. A party is indispensable if his interest is not severable, and his absence will prevent the court from rendering any judgment between the parties before it; or if notwithstanding his absence his interest would necessarily be inequitably affected by a judgment rendered between those before the court.

(c) Indispensable party not before court. If an indispensable party is not before the court, it shall order him brought in. When persons are not before the court who, although not indispensable, ought to be parties if complete relief is to be accorded between those already parties, and when necessary jurisdiction can be obtained by service of original notice in any manner provided by these rules or by statute, the court shall order their names added as parties and original notice served upon them. If such jurisdiction cannot be had except by their consent or voluntary appearance, the court may proceed with the hearing and determination of the cause, but the judgment rendered therein shall not affect their rights or liabilities. [Report 1943]

For method of bringing in parties see rule 34.

26. Parties partly interested. A party need not be interested in obtaining or defending against all the relief demanded. Judgment may be given respecting one or more parties according to their respective rights or liabilities. [Report 1943]

See rules 121 and 186.

27. Remedy for misjoinder.

(a) Parties. Misjoinder of parties is no ground for dismissal of the action, but parties may be dropped by order of the court on its own motion or that of any party at any stage of the action, on such terms as are just, or any claim against a party improperly joined may be severed and proceeded with separately.

For separate trials as to separate parties, see rule 186.

(b) Actions. The only remedy for improper joinder of actions shall be by motion. On such motion the court shall either order the causes docketed separately or strike those causes which should be stricken, always retaining at least one cause docketed in the original case. Before ruling on such motion, the party whose pleading is attacked may withdraw any of the causes claimed to be misjoined. [Report 1943]

28. Dependent remedies joined. An action heretofore cognizable only after another has been prosecuted to conclusion may be joined with the latter; and the court shall grant relief according to the substantive rights of the parties. But there shall be no joinder of any claim against an indemnitor or insurer with one against the indemnified party, unless a statute so provides. [Report 1943]

29. Compulsory counterclaims. A pleading must contain a counterclaim for every cause of action then matured, and not the subject of a pending action, held by the pleader against any opposing party and arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the basis of such opposing party’s claim, unless its adjudication would require the presence of indispensable parties of whom jurisdiction cannot be acquired. A final judgment on the merits shall bar such a counterclaim, although not pleaded. [Report 1943]

Indispensable parties are defined in rule 25 (b).

See also rules 72 and 74.

30. Permissive counterclalm. Unless prohibited by rule or statute, a party may counterclaim against an opposing party on any cause of action held by him when the action was originally commenced, and matured when pleaded. [Report 1943]

For prohibited counterclaims see Code sec. 613.2, on replevin and rule 275 on partition.

31. Joinder of counterclaims. A party pleading a counterclaim shall have the same right to join more than one cause of action as a plaintiff is granted under rules 22 and 23. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

32. Counterclaim not limited. A counterclaim may, but need not, diminish or defeat recovery sought by the opposing party. It may claim relief in excess of, or different from, that sought in the opponent’s pleadings. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

33. Cross-petitions. A cross-petition may be filed by one party against a coparty, on a cause of action arising out of a transaction or occurrence which is the basis of the original action or any counterclaim therein. It may include the claim that such coparty is, or may be, liable to cross-petitioner for all or part of a claim asserted in the principal action against the cross-petitioner. [Report 1913; amendment 1973]

31. Third party practice.

(a) When defendant may bring in third party. At any time after commencement of the action a defending party, as a third-party plaintiff, may file a cross-petition and cause an original notice to be served upon a person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the plaintiff’s claim against him. The third-party plaintiff need not obtain leave to make the service if he files the cross-petition not later than 10 days after he files his original answer. Otherwise he must obtain leave on motion upon notice to all parties to the action. The person served with the original notice, hereinafter called the third-party defendant, shall make his defenses to the third-party plaintiff’s claim as provided in rule 85 and his counterclaims against the third-party plaintiff as provided in rule 29 and cross-claims against other third-party defendants as provided in rule 33. The third-party defendant may assert against the plaintiff any defenses which the third-party plaintiff has to the plaintiff’s claim. The third-party defendant may also assert any claim against the plaintiff arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff’s claim against the third-party plaintiff, and the plaintiff thereupon shall assert his defenses as provided in rule 85 and his counter-claims under rule 29. Any party may move to strike the third-party claim or for its severance or for separate trial. A third-party defendant may proceed under this rule against any person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the claim made in the action against the third-party defendant.

(b) When plaintiff may bring in third party. When a counterclaim is asserted against a plaintiff, he may cause a third party to be brought in under circumstances which under this rule would entitle a defendant to do so. See also ch 613

(E) Interpleader

35. Right of interpleader. A person who is or may be exposed to multiple liability or vexatious litigation because of several claims against him for the same thing, may bring an equitable action of interpleader against all such claimants. Their claims or titles need not have a common origin, nor be identical, and may be adverse to, or independent of each other. Such person may dispute his liability, wholly or in part. [Report 1943]

See also ch 613

36. By defendants. A defendant to an action which exposes him to similar liability or litigation may obtain such interpleader by counterclaim or cross-petition. Any claimant not already before the court may be brought in to maintain or relinquish his claim to the subject of the action, and on his default after due service, the court may declare him barred or such claim. [Report 1943]

For procedure to bring in, see rule 34.
See also ch 613

37. Deposit—discharge. If a party initiating interpleader admits liability for, or nonownership of, any property or amount involved, the court may order it deposited in court or otherwise preserved, or secured by bond. After such deposit the court, on hearing all parties, may absolve the depositor from obligation to such parties as to the property or amount deposited, before determining the rights of the adverse claimants. [Report 1943]

Referred to in R.C.P. 28
See also ch 613

38. Substitution of claimant. If a defendant seeks an interpleader involving a third person, the latter may appear and make himself a defendant in lieu of the original defendant, who may then be discharged on complying with rule 37. [Report 1943]

See also ch 613

39. Injunction. After petition and returns of original notices are filed in an interpleader, the court may enjoin all parties before it from beginning or prosecuting any other suit as to the subject of the interpleader until its further order. [Report 1943]

For injunctions generally, see rules 320 et seq.
See also ch 613

40. Costs. Costs may be taxed against the unsuccessful claimant in favor of the successful claimant and the party initiating the interpleader. [Report 1943]
See also ch 613

41. Sheriff or officer — creditor. When a sheriff or other officer is sued for taking personal property under a writ, or for the property so taken, he may exhibit such writ to the court, with his affidavit that the property involved was taken under it. The attaching or execution creditor shall then be joined with the officer as a defendant; or may join on his own application. Any judgment against the officer and creditor shall provide that the latter's property be first exhausted to discharge it. [Report 1943]

See rule 224.
See also ch 613

(F) Class actions

42. Class actions. If the persons composing a class are so numerous that it is impracticable to bring all before the court, such number of them as will insure adequate representation of all may sue or be sued on behalf of all, where the character of the right involved is:

(a) Joint or common, or held primarily by one who has refused to enforce it, thereby entitling the class or its members to do so; or

(b) Several, and the action seeks to adjudicate claims which do, or may, affect specific property; or

(c) Several, and a common question of law or fact affects the several rights, and a common relief is sought. [Report 1943]

Referred to in R.C.P. 25(a), 45
See also ch 613

43. Virtual representation. Where persons composing a class which may be increased by others later born, do or may make a claim affecting specific property involved in an action to which all living members of the class are parties, any others later born shall also be deemed to have been parties to the action and bound by any decree rendered therein. [Report 1943]

Referred to in R.C.P. 25(a)
See also ch 613

44. Shareholder's actions. Shareholders in an incorporated or unincorporated association, who sue to enforce its rights because of its failure to do so, shall support their petition by affidavit, and allege their efforts to have the directors, trustees or other shareholders bring the action or enforce the right, or a sufficient reason for not making such effort. [Report 1943]

Referred to in R.C.P. 25(a)
See also ch 613

Rules of Civil Procedure, Div. II
45. Compromise or dismissal. No class action shall be compromised or voluntarily dismissed without approval of the court. [Report 1943]

For dismissal generally, see rule 215.

46. Adequate representation. Before final judgment in a class action, the court shall inquire and determine that the parties before it adequately represent the class. If it deems such representation inadequate, it may order new parties brought in. [Report 1943]

Referral to in R.C.P. 25(a)
See also ch 613

47. Default judgment. No judgment by default for lack of appearance shall be entered in a class action. If no member of the class appears, the court shall appoint an attorney to represent it, taxing his reasonable fees as costs in the case. [Report 1943]

DIVISION III

COMMENCEMENT OF ACTIONS

48. Commencing actions. A civil action is commenced by serving the defendant with an original notice. [Report 1943]

See also ch 617

49. Tolling limitations. For the purpose of determining whether an action has been commenced within the time allowed by statutes for limitation of actions, whether the limitation inheres in the statutes creating the remedy or not, the following shall be deemed a commencement of the action, to-wit:

(a) The delivery of the original notice to the sheriff of the proper county with the intent that it be served immediately (which intent shall be presumed unless the contrary appears).

(b) The filing of the original notice with the secretary of state as provided in section 617.3 provided that service is completed as required by said section.

(c) The filing of the original notice with the commissioner of public safety as provided by section 321.498 provided that service is completed as provided in said section. [Report 1943; amendment 1951; amendment 1974]

Time computed, §4.1(22)

50. Contents of original notice. The original notice shall be directed to the defendant, and signed by plaintiff or his attorney with the signer’s address. It shall name the plaintiff, the court, and the city or town, and county where the court convenes. It shall state either that the petition is on file in the office of the clerk of the court where the action is brought, or that it will be so filed by a stated date, which must not be more than ten days after service. It shall notify defendant to appear before said court within the specified number of days after service required by rule 53 or rule 54, and that unless he so appears, his default will be entered and judgment or decree rendered against him for the relief demanded in the petition. A copy of the petition may be attached; but if it is not or if the service is by publication, the notice shall contain a general statement of the cause or causes of action and the relief demanded, and, if for money, the amount thereof. See also ch 617

52. By whom served. Original notices may be served by any person who is neither a party nor the attorney for a party to the action. [Report 1943; amendment 1951]

See also ch 617

If served in any other manner, the defendant shall appear within twenty days after the day the original notice is served on him in all cases where:

(a) A copy of the petition is attached to the original notice; or

(b) The petition is on file when the notice is served, and the notice so states.

In all other cases the defendant shall appear within thirty days after the day such notice is served. Unless he so appears, he will be in default; but if he does appear, he shall have time to move or plead as provided in rule 85. [Report 1943; amendment 1951]

54. Special cases—appearance of garnishee.

(a) Any statute of Iowa which specially requires appearance by a particular defendant, or in a particular action, within a specified time, shall govern the time for appearance in such cases, rather than rule 53.
(b) The officer serving a writ of attachment or execution shall garnish such persons as the plaintiff may direct as supposed debtors, or having in possession property of the principal defendant, which shall be effected by a notice served in the manner and as an original notice in civil actions, forbidding his paying any debt owing such defendant, due or to become due, and requiring him to retain possession of all property of the defendant in his hands or under his control, to the end that the same may be dealt with according to law, and, unless answers are required to be taken as provided by statute, it shall cite the garnishee to appear in not less than ten days after service of the notice and at a time specified when court will be in session and a judge will be present, and answer such interrogatories as may be propounded, or he will be liable to pay any judgment which the plaintiff may obtain against the defendant. [Report 1943; amendment 1945]

Referred to in R.C.P. 50, 230
See also ch 617

55. Failure to file petition. If the petition is not filed as stated in the original notice served, any defendant may have the case dismissed as to him, without notice, at plaintiff's cost; and may docket it for this purpose by filing his copy of the original notice, if need be.

Dismissals under this rule shall be without prejudice, but if the plaintiff has previously dismissed an action against the same defendant in any court of any state of the United States, including or based on the same cause, such dismissal shall operate as an adjudication against him on the merits unless otherwise ordered by the court in the interest of justice. [Report 1943; amendment 1973]

For filing petition and copies, see rule 82.
See also ch 617

56. Personal service. Original notices are "served" by delivering a copy to the proper person. Personal service may be made as follows:

(c) Upon any person judicially adjudged incompetent but not confined in a state hospital for the mentally ill, by serving the guardian of his person or property, unless the notice is served on behalf of such guardian, or his spouse, or some person aged eighteen years or more who has his care and custody, or with whom he resides. DIVISION IV

PLEADINGS AND MOTIONS

67. Technical forms abolished. All common counts, general issues, demurrers, fictions and technical forms of action or pleading, are abolished. The form and sufficiency of all motions and pleadings shall be determined by these rules, construed and enforced to secure a just, speedy and inexpensive determination of all controversies on their merits. [Report 1943]
See also ch 619

68. Allowable pleadings. There shall be a petition and an answer; a reply to a counterclaim denominated as such; an answer to a cross-claim, if the answer contains a cross-claim; a third-party petition, if a person who was not an original party is summoned under the provisions of rule 34; and a third-party answer, if a third-party petition is served. [Report 1943; amendment 1974]

See also ch 619

69. Pleadings defined. “Pleadings” as used in this division do not include motions. They are the parties' written statements of their respective claims or defenses. They shall be clear, concise, and avoid repetition or prolixity. [Report 1943]
See also ch 619

70. Petition. The petition shall state whether it is at law or in equity, the facts constituting the cause or causes of action asserted, the relief demanded, and, if for money, the amount thereof. [Report 1943]
For title, signature, etc., see rule 78.
Referred to in §618.13
See also ch 619

71. Answers for ward. All answers by guardians or guardians ad litem, or filed under rule 14, shall state whether there is a return on file, showing that proper service has been had on the ward; and they shall deny all material allegations prejudicial to the ward. [Report 1943]
See also ch 619

72. Answer. The answer shall show on whose behalf it is filed, and specifically admit... or deny each allegation or paragraph of the petition, which denial may be for lack of information. It must state any additional facts deemed to show a defense. It may raise points of law appearing on the face of the petition to which it responds. It may contain as many defenses, legal or equitable, as the pleader may claim, which may be inconsistent. It may contain a counterclaim which must be in a separate division. [Report 1943]

For counterclaims, see rule 29 et seq. See also rules 79, 103, 105, 110 and 176.

See also ch 619

74. Cross-petition — Judgment. Any cross-petition under rules 33 and 34, and the answer and reply as to it, shall be governed by these rules. Where judgment in the original case can be entered without prejudice to the rights in issue under a cross-petition or counterclaim, it shall not be delayed thereby. [Report 1943; amendment 1973, 65GA, ch 315, §1]

See also rules 186, 221.

See also ch 619

75. Interventions. Any person interested in the subject matter of the litigation, or the success of either party to the action, or against both parties, may intervene at any time before trial begins, by joining with plaintiff or defendant or claiming adversely to both. [Report 1943]

Intervention in attachment, §639.60

See also ch 619

76. Manner. Every intervenor shall file a petition, and a separate copy for each party against whom he asserts a right. The clerk shall transmit such copy to the attorney for the adversary party, who shall, without further notice, move or plead thereto within seven days from the date of filing unless the court fixes a shorter time and notice thereof is given. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

Time computed, §4.1(22)

77. Disposition. The intervenor shall have no right to delay, and shall pay the costs of the intervention unless he prevails. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

78. Caption and signature. Each appearance, notice, motion, or pleading shall be captioned with the title of the case, naming the court, parties, and instrument, and shall bear the signature and address of the party or attorney filing it. After the petition, the caption need name only the first of several co-parties. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

79. Numbered divisions and paragraphs. Each separate cause of action or defense must be stated in a separately numbered division. Every pleading shall be separated into numbered paragraphs, each of which shall contain, as nearly as may be, a distinct statement. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

80. Verification abolished—affidavits.

(a) Pleadings need not be verified unless special statutes so require and, where a pleading is verified, it is not necessary that subsequent pleadings be verified unless special statutes so require. Counsel’s signature to every motion or pleading shall be deemed his certificate that there are good grounds for making the claims therein, and that it is not interposed for delay.

(b) Any motion asserting facts as the basis of the order it seeks, and any pleading seeking interlocutory relief, shall contain affidavit of the person or persons knowing the facts requisite to such relief. A similar affidavit shall be appended to all petitions which special statutes require to be verified. [Report 1943; amendment 1945]

Referred to in R.C.P. 233
See also R.C.P. 55
See also ch 619

81. Correcting or recasting pleadings. On its own motion or that of any party, the court may order any prolix, confused or multiple pleading, to be recast in a concise single document within such time as the order may fix. In like manner, it may order any pleading not complying with these rules to be corrected on such terms as it may impose. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

82. Service and filing of pleadings and other papers.

(a) When service required. Everything required by these rules to be filed, every order required by its terms to be served, every pleading subsequent to the original petition unless the court otherwise orders because of numerous defendants, every paper relating to discovery required to be served upon a party unless the court otherwise orders, every written motion other than one which may be heard ex parte, and every written notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment, designation of record on appeal, and similar paper shall be served upon each of the parties. No service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear except that pleadings asserting new or additional claims for relief against them shall be served upon them in the manner provided for service of original notice in rule 56.

In an action begun by seizure of property, in which no person need be or is named as defendant, any service required to be made prior to the filing of an answer, claim, or appearance shall be made upon the person having custody or possession of the property at the time of its seizure.
(b) Same: How made. Service upon a party represented by an attorney shall be made upon the attorney unless service upon the party himself is ordered by the court. Service upon the attorney or upon a party shall be made by delivering a copy to him or by mailing it to him at his last known address or, if no address is known, by leaving it with the clerk of court. Delivery of a copy within this rule means: handing it to the attorney or to the party; or leaving it at his office with his clerk or other person in charge thereof; or, if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein; or, if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at his dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein. Service by mail is complete upon mailing.

(c) Same: Numerous defendants. In any action in which there are unusually large numbers of defendants, the court, upon motion or of its own initiative, may order that service of the pleadings of the defendants and replies thereto need not be made as between the defendants and that any cross-claim, counterclaim, or matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense contained therein shall be deemed to be denied or avoided by all other parties and that the filing of any such pleading and service thereof upon the plaintiff constitutes due notice of it to the parties. A copy of every such order shall be served upon the parties in such manner and form as the court directs.

(d) Filing. All papers after the petition required to be served upon a party shall be filed with the court either before service or within a reasonable time thereafter. Whenever these rules require a filing within a certain time said filing shall be deemed timely if service is made within said time and filing is completed within a reasonable time thereafter.

(e) Filing with the court defined. The filing of pleadings and other papers with the court as required by these rules shall be made by filing them with the clerk of the court, except that the judge may permit the papers to be filed with him, in which event he shall note thereon the filing date and forthwith transmit them to the office of the clerk.

(f) Notice of orders or judgments. Immediately upon the entry of an order or judgment the clerk shall serve a notice of the entry by mail in the manner provided for in rule 82 upon each party who is not in default for failure to appear, and shall make a note in the docket of the mailing. Such mailing is sufficient notice for all purposes for which notice of the entry of an order is required by these rules; but any party may in addition serve a notice of such entry in the manner provided in rule 82 for the service of papers. Lack of notice of the entry by the clerk does not affect the time to appeal or relieve or authorize the court to relieve a party for failure to appeal within the time allowed, except as permitted in rule 333(a).

(g) Proof of service. Proof of service of all papers required or permitted to be served, shall be filed in the clerk's office promptly, and, in any event, before action is to be taken thereon by the court or the parties. The proof shall show the time and manner of service and may be by written acknowledgment of service, by certification of a member of the bar of this state, by affidavit of the person who served the papers, or by any other proof satisfactory to the court. [Report 1943; amendment 1974]

Referred to in §631.8 and R.C.P. 126, 177, 181, 215.1, 238

83. Enlargement; additional time after service by mail.

(a) Enlargement. When by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court for cause shown may at any time in its discretion (1) with or without motion or notice order the period enlarged if request therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order, or (2) upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period permit the act to be done where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but it may not extend the time for taking any action under rules 241, 243 and 244, except to the extent and under the conditions stated in them.

(b) Additional time after service by mail. Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceedings within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon him and the notice or paper is served upon him by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. [Report 1943; amendment 1974]

See also ch 619

84. Copy fees. A fee of ten cents per hundred words for each copy shall be taxed with the costs, to be the property of the attorney filing or serving the copy. [Report 1943; amendment 1974]

See also ch 619

85. Time to move or plead.

(a) Motions. Motions attacking a petition must be filed within seven days after the appearance date, unless some other motion allowed before answer is already on file; and then within seven days after such other motion is disposed of. All motions attacking subsequent pleadings must be filed within seven days after such pleading is filed.

(b) Pleading. Answer to a petition must be filed within seven days after the appearance date, unless a motion is then on file, in which event answer must be filed within seven days after such motion is so disposed of as to require answer.

(c) Reply. Reply must be filed, if at all, within seven days after the answer to which it responds, unless a motion attacking such answer is then on file, in which event, reply must be filed within seven days after such motion is so disposed of as to permit a reply.

(d) Answer or reply to amendments. Answer or reply to any amendment, or any substituted or supplemental pleading, must be filed within seven days, unless a motion attacking it is then on file, and then within seven days from the time the motion is so disposed of as to require or permit answer or reply. If the petition be amended before time for answering it, this rule shall not require answer to the amendment to be made prior to the time for answering the original petition.

(e) Shortening time. The court may order any motion or pleading to be filed within a shorter time than above, but cannot require a defendant to answer sooner than seven days after the appearance date.

(f) Extending time. For good cause, but not ex parte, the court may extend the time to answer or reply for not more than thirty days beyond the times above specified. For good cause but not ex parte, and upon such terms as the court prescribes, the court may grant a party the right to file a motion, answer or reply where the time to file same has expired.

(g) Petition for removal to federal court. The filing of a petition for removal to the federal court, accompanied by the bond required by the Removal Act, shall suspend the time for filing any motions or pleadings until an order of the federal court is filed in the state court, remanding the cause, or until it is made to appear the removal has not been perfected, whereupon the times hereinafore fixed for motions or pleadings shall begin anew. [Report 1943; amendment 1945]

86. Pleading over—election to stand. If a party is required or permitted to plead further by an order or ruling, the clerk shall forthwith mail or deliver notice of such order or ruling to the attorneys of record. Presence of counsel when the court announces such ruling or order shall be the equivalent of such mailing or delivery. Unless otherwise provided by order or ruling, such party shall file such further pleading within seven days after such mailing or delivery; and if such party fails to do so within such time, he thereby elects to stand on the record theretofore made. On such election, the ruling shall be deemed a final adjudication in the trial court without further judgment or order; reserving only such issues, if any, which remain undisposed of by such ruling and election. Time computed, §4.1(22)

87. Appearance alone. An appearance without motion or pleading shall have the effect only of submitting to the jurisdiction. The court shall have no power to treat such appearance as sufficient to delay or prevent a default or any other order which would be made in absence thereof, or of timely pleading. [Report 1943]

For time of pleading, see rule 85(a, b).
For defaults, see rule 230; for appearances, see rules 65, 66.

Referred to in R.C.P. 230
See also ch 619

88. Amendments. Any pleading may be amended before a pleading has been filed responding to it. The court, in furtherance of justice, may allow later amendments, including those to conform to the proof and which do not substantially change the claim or defense. The court may impose terms, or grant a continuance with or without terms, as a condition of such allowance. [Report 1943]

Amendment to cure defect, R.C.P. 249
See also ch 619

89. Making and construing amendments. All amendments must be on a separate paper, duly filed, without interlining or expunging prior pleadings. They will be construed as part of the original pleading which remains in effect, unless they are a complete substitute therefor. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

90. Supplemental pleading. A party may file a supplemental pleading alleging facts material to the case which have happened subsequent to the commencement of the action, or come to his knowledge since his prior pleading. This shall not be a waiver of the former pleading. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

91. Contract. Every pleading referring to a contract must state whether it is written or oral. If the contract is the basis of the action or defense, it must be set forth in full. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

92. Allegation of time or place. When time is not material, it need not be averred, and if averred, need not be proved. When it is material, the date or duration of a continuous act, must be alleged. The place need be alleged only when it is part of the substance of the issue. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

93. Exception. A claim in derogation of general law, or founded on any kind of exception, shall be so pleaded as to set forth such claim or exception. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

94. Judicial notice — statutes. Matters of which judicial notice is taken, including statutes of Iowa, need not be stated in any pleading. A pleading asserting any statute of another state, territory or jurisdiction of the United States, or a right derived therefrom, shall refer to such statute by plain designation.
and if such reference is made the court shall judicially notice such statute. [Report 1943; amendment 1963] See also ch 619

95. Unliquidated damages. No order shall require any pleading to itemize or apportion unliquidated damages claimed therein, nor to attribute any part thereof to any portion of the claim asserted. [Report 1943] See also ch 619

96. Malice. A party intending to prove malice to affect damages must aver the same. [Report 1943] See also ch 619

97. Negligence — mitigation. In an action by an employee against an employer, or by a passenger against a common carrier to recover for negligence, plaintiff need not plead or prove his freedom from contributory negligence, but defendant may plead and prove contributory negligence in mitigation of damages. [Report 1943] Contributory and comparative negligence, §479.124 See also ch 619

98. Permissible conclusions—denials thereof. Partnership, corporate or representative capacity; or corporate authority to sue or do business in Iowa; or performance of conditions precedent; or judgments of a court, board or officer of special jurisdiction, may be pleaded as legal conclusions, without averring the facts comprising them. It shall not be sufficient to deny such averment in terms contradicting it, but the facts relied on must be stated. [Report 1943] See also ch 619

99. Account—bill of particulars—denial. A pleading founded on an account shall contain a bill of particulars thereof, by consecutively numbered items, which shall define and limit the proof, and may be amended as other pleadings. A pleading controverting such account, must specify the items denied, and any items not thus specified shall be deemed admitted. [Report 1943] For affidavit required for default, see rule 232(a). See also ch 619

100. Denying signature. (a) By party. If a pleading copies a writing purporting to be signed by an adverse party, such signature shall be deemed genuine for all purposes in the case, unless such party shall not only deny it, but support his denial by his own affidavit that it is not his genuine or authorized signature. He may, on application made during his time to plead, procure an inspection of the original writing.

(b) By nonparty. If a pleading copies a nonnegotiable writing purporting to be signed by a nonparty to the action, such signature shall be deemed genuine, unless a party denies it, and supports his denial by affidavit, which denial, may be for lack of information. [Report 1943] See also ch 619

101. Defenses to be specially pleaded. Any defense that a contract or writing sued on is void or voidable, or was delivered in escrow, or which alleges any matter in justification, excuse, release or discharge, or which admits the facts of the adverse pleading but seeks to avoid their legal effect, must be specially pleaded. [Report 1943] See also ch 619

102. What admitted. Every fact pleaded and not denied in a subsequent pleading as permitted by these rules shall be deemed admitted except (1) allegations of value or amount of damage, (2) averments in a pleading to which no responsive pleading is required or permitted, and (3) facts not previously pleaded that are set forth in pleadings filed subsequent to the seventh day preceding the trial, all of which shall be deemed denied by operation of law. [Report 1943; amendment 1955; amendment 1974] See also ch 619

103. All defenses in answer. Every defense in bar or abatement, or to the jurisdiction after a general appearance, shall be made in the answer or reply, save as allowed by rule 104. No such defense shall overrule any other. But a party who presents and tries a defense in abatement alone, shall not thereafter be allowed to plead in bar. [Report 1943] See rules 72, 73, 104. See also ch 619

104. Exceptions. Every defense in law or fact to any pleading must be asserted in the pleading responsive thereto, if one is required, or if none is required, then at the trial, except that:

(a) Want of jurisdiction of the person, or insufficiency of the original notice, or its service must be raised by special appearance before any other appearance, motion or pleading is filed; and want of jurisdiction of the subject matter may be so raised; See also rule 66.

(b) Failure to state a claim on which any relief can be granted, may be raised by motion to dismiss such claim, filed before answer.

(c) Sufficiency of any defense may be raised by motion to strike it, filed before pleading to it.

(d) Such motions must specify wherein the pleading they attack is claimed to be insufficient. [Report 1943] Referred to in R.C.P. 103 See also ch 619

105. Separate adjudication of law points. The court may in its discretion, and must on application of either party, made after issues joined and before trial, separately hear and determine any point of law raised in any pleading which goes to the whole or any material part of the case. It shall enter an appropriate final order before trial of the remaining issues, adjudicating the point so determined, which shall not be questioned on the trial of any part of the case of which it does not dispose. If such ruling does not dispose of the whole case, it shall be deemed interlocutory for purposes of appeal. [Report 1943]

See also last sentence of rule 176.

See also ch 619

106. Variance—failure of proof. No variance between pleading and proof shall be deemed material unless it is shown to have misled the opposite party to his prejudice in maintaining his cause of action or defense. But where an allegation or defense is unproved in its general meaning, this shall not be held a mere variance but a failure of proof. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

107. Special action—proper remedy awarded. In any case of mandamus, certiorari, appeal to the district court, or for specific equitable relief, where the facts pleaded and proved do not entitle the petitioner to the specific remedy asked, but do show him entitled to another remedy, the court shall permit him on such terms, if any, as it may prescribe, to amend by asking for such latter remedy, which may be awarded. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

108. Lost pleading—substitution. If an original pleading is lost or withheld, the court may order a copy substituted, or a substituted pleading filed. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

109. Motion defined. A motion is an application made by any party or interested person for an order. It may contain several objects which grow out of, or are connected with, the action. It is not a "pleading". [Report 1943]

110. Failure to move—effect of overruling motion. No pleading shall be held sufficient for failure to move to strike or dismiss it. If such motion is filed and overruled, error in such ruling is not waived by pleading over or proceeding further; and the moving party may always question the sufficiency of the pleading during subsequent proceedings. [Report 1943]

See also R.C.P. 87
See also ch 619

111. Motions combined. Motions to strike, for a more specific statement, and to dismiss, shall be contained in a single motion and only one such motion assailing the same pleading shall be permitted, unless the pleading is amended thereafter. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

112. Motion for more specific statement. A party may move for a more specific statement of any matter not pleaded with sufficient definiteness to enable him to plead to it and for no other purpose. It shall point out the insufficiency claimed and particulars desired. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

113. Striking improper matter. Improper or unnecessary matter in a pleading may be stricken out on motion of the adverse party. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

114. Notice of motion days unnecessary. A party who has been served with original notice or has appeared, shall take notice of the regular motion day on which motions will be heard. [Report 1943; amended 1974]

For motion days and submission and determination of motions, see rule 117.

115. Discretionary notice. The court may require counsel to be appraised, in any manner it directs, of the time and place at which it will hear or act on any motion, application or other matter other than at the regular motion day or pursuant to general assignment. This rule shall be applied to expedite, not to delay, hearings and submissions. [Report 1943]

116. Proof of facts in motions. Evidence to sustain or resist a motion may be by affidavit or in any other form to which the parties agree or the court directs. The court may require any affiant to appear for cross-examination. [Report 1943]

Referred to in R.C.P. 167, 245

117. Motion days—disposition of motions.

(a) The chief judge of each judicial district shall provide by order for at least one motion day to be held each month in each county, when all motions made prior to trial on issues of fact on file five days or more shall be deemed submitted unless by other rule, statute or order of court entered for good cause shown another time for submission is fixed. Such motions not orally argued for any reason shall be deemed submitted without argument unless they are then, or have previously been, set down for argument at some time somewhere in the judicial district not more than ten days thereafter, when they must be submitted without further postponement. Each motion filed shall set out the specific points upon which it is based. A concise memorandum brief may be appended if it is desired to cite supporting rules, statutes or other authorities.

(b) The court may hear and rule on any motion prior to motion day so as not to delay completing the issues or trial of the case.

(c) The trial court shall rule on all motions within thirty days after their submission, unless it extends the time for reasons stated of record.

(d) A "motion" within this rule is any paper denominated as such, or any other matter requiring attention or order of court before the trial of the issues on their merits, including a special appearance and objections to interrogatories.

(e) The clerk of each court shall maintain a motion calendar on which every "motion" within the purview of "d", above, shall be entered. It shall be arranged to show (1) docket, page and cause number of action in which filed, (2) abbreviated title of the case with surname of the first-named party on each side, (3) counsel of record for parties, (4) denomination of the "motion," (5) date filed, (6) party by whom filed, (7) date entered on calendar, and (8) date of disposition by ruling, order or otherwise. Separate motion calendars for law, equity or other divisions may be maintained. [Report 1943; amendment 1945; amendment 1961; amendment 1967; amendment 1969]

Referred to in R.C.P. 238
See also ch 619

118. Specific rulings required. A motion, or other matter involving separate grounds or parts, shall be disposed of by separate ruling on each and not sustained generally. [Report 1943]

See also ch 619

119. Order defined. Every direction of the court, made in writing and not included in the judgment or decree, is an order. [Report 1943]

120. When and how entered. A judge may enter judgments, orders or decrees at any time after the matter has been submitted, effective when filed with the clerk, regardless of where signed. The clerk shall promptly mail or deliver notice of such entry, or copy thereof, to each party appearing, or to one of his attorneys. [Report 1943]

For entry of record, see rule 226.

DIVISION V
DISCOVERY AND INSPECTION

See also Court Rule 118.6

121. Discovery methods. Parties may obtain discovery by one or more of the following methods: deposition upon oral examination or written questions; written interrogatories; production of documents or things or permission to enter upon land or other property, for inspection and other purposes; physical and mental examinations; and requests for admissions. Unless the court orders otherwise under rule 123, the frequency of use of these methods is not limited. [Report 1943; amendment 1957; amendment 1967; amendment 1973]

Remnant of common law bill of discovery, §611.16
See also ch 619

122. Scope of discovery. Unless otherwise limited by order of the court in accordance with these rules, the scope of discovery is as follows:

(a) In general. Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter.

It is not ground for objection that the information sought will be inadmissible at the trial if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

(b) Insurance agreements. A party may obtain discovery of the existence and contents of any insurance agreement under which any person carrying on an insurance business may be liable to satisfy part or all of a judgment which may be entered in the action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy the judgment. Information concerning the insurance agreement is not by reason of disclosure admissible in evidence at trial. For purposes of this paragraph, an application for insurance shall not be treated as part of an insurance agreement.

(c) Trial preparation—materials. Subject to the provisions of subdivision “d” of this rule, a party may obtain discovery of documents and tangible things otherwise discoverable under subdivision “a” of this rule and prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for another party or by or for that other party’s representative (including his attorney, consultant, surety, indemnitor, insurer, or agent) only upon a showing that the party seeking discovery has substantial need of the materials in the preparation of his case and that he is unable without undue hardship to obtain the substantial equivalent of the materials by other means. In ordering discovery of such materials when the required showing has been made, the court shall protect against disclosure of the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions, or legal theories of an attorney or other representative of a party concerning the litigation.

A party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that person. Upon request, a person not a party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that person. If the request is refused, the person may move for a court order. The provisions of rule 134 “a” (4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion. For purposes of this paragraph, a statement previously made is

(1) A written statement signed or otherwise adopted or approved by the person making it, or
(2) A stenographic, mechanical, electrical, or other recording, or a transcription thereof, which is a substantially verbatim recital of an oral statement by the person making it and contemporaneously recorded.

(d) Trial preparation—experts. Except as provided in rule 133, discovery of facts known and opinions held by experts, otherwise discoverable under the provisions of subdivision
“a” of this rule and acquired or developed in anticipation of litigation or for trial, may be obtained only as follows:

1. A party may through interrogatories require any other party to identify each person whom the other party expects to call as an expert witness at trial, to state the subject matter on which the expert is expected to testify, and to state the substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a summary of the grounds for each opinion.

2. Upon motion, the court may order further discovery by other means, subject to such restrictions as to scope and such provisions, pursuant to subdivision “d” (3) of this rule, concerning fees and expenses as the court may deem appropriate.

3. A party may discover facts known or opinions held by an expert who has been retained or specially employed by another party in anticipation of litigation or preparation for trial and who is not expected to be called as a witness at trial, only as provided in rule 133 or upon a showing of exceptional circumstances under which it is impracticable for the party seeking discovery to obtain facts or opinions on the same subject by other means.

4. Unless manifest injustice would result, (A) the court shall require that the party seeking discovery pay the expert a reasonable fee for time spent in responding to discovery under subdivisions “d”(1) B and “d” (2) of this rule: and (B) with respect to discovery obtained under subdivision “d” (1) B of this rule the court may require, and with respect to discovery obtained under subdivision “d” (2) of this rule the court shall require, the party seeking discovery to pay the other party a fair portion of the fees and expenses reasonably incurred by the latter party in obtaining facts and opinions from the expert. [Report of 1943; amendment 1970; amendment 1973] Referred to in R.C.P. 121, 134(a, d), 148

124. Sequence and timing of discovery. Unless the court upon motion orders otherwise for the convenience of parties and witnesses and in the interests of justice, methods of discovery may be used in any sequence and the fact that a party is conducting discovery, whether by deposition or otherwise, shall not operate to delay any other party’s discovery. [Report 1943; amendment 1970; amendment 1973] Also see ch 619

125. Supplementation of responses. A party who has responded to a request for discovery with a response that was complete when made is under no duty to supplement his response to include information thereafter acquired, except as follows:

(a) A party is under a duty seasonably to supplement his response with respect to any question directly addressed to

1. The identity and location of persons having knowledge of discoverable matters, and

2. The identity of each person expected to be called as an expert witness at trial, the subject matter on which he is expected to testify, and the substance of his testimony.

(b) A party is under a duty seasonably to amend a prior response if he obtains information upon the basis of which

1. He knows that the response was incorrect when made, or

2. He knows that the response though correct when made is no longer true and the circumstances are such that a failure to amend the response is in substance a knowing concealment.

(c) A duty to supplement responses may be imposed by order of the court, agreement of the parties, or at any time prior to trial through new requests for supplementation of prior responses. [Report 1943; amendment 1970; amendment 1973] Also see ch 619
126. Interrogatories to parties.

(a) Availability—procedures for use. Except in small claims, any party may file written interrogatories to be answered by another party served or, if the other party is a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency, by any officer or agent, who shall furnish such information as is available to the party. Copies of interrogatories and answers shall be filed for each adverse party. Interrogatories may, without leave of court, be directed to the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the original notice upon that party.

The clerk shall deliver a copy of the interrogatories as provided in rule 82, unless a copy shall have been served with an original notice.

Each interrogatory shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath, unless it is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated in lieu of an answer. The answers are to be signed by the person making them. The party to whom the interrogatories are directed shall file the answers, and objections if any, within thirty days after they are filed, except that a defendant may file answers or objections within forty-five days after service of the original notice upon that defendant. The court may allow a shorter or longer time. The party submitting the interrogatories may move for an order under rule 131 "a" with respect to any objection to or other failure to answer an interrogatory. Copies of answers shall be delivered as provided in rule 82.

(b) Scope—use at trial. Interrogatories may relate to any matters which can be inquired into under rule 122, and the answers may be used to the extent permitted by the rules of evidence.

An interrogatory otherwise proper is not necessarily objectionable merely because an answer to the interrogatory involves an opinion or contention that relates to fact or the application of law to fact, but the court may order that such an interrogatory need not be answered until after designated discovery has been completed or until after a pretrial conference or other later time.

(c) Option to produce business records. Where the answer to an interrogatory may be derived or ascertained from the business-records of the party upon whom the interrogatory has been served or from an examination, audit or inspection of such business records, or from a compilation, abstract or summary based thereon, and the burden of deriving or ascertaining the answer is substantially the same for the party serving the interrogatory as for the party served, it is a sufficient answer to such interrogatory to specify the records from which the answer may be derived or ascertained and to afford to the party serving the interrogatory reasonable opportunity to examine, audit or inspect such records and to make copies, compilations, abstracts or summaries. [Report 1943; amendment 1957; amendment 1973]

Refered to in R.C.P. 134(a). d]

127. Requests for admission. A party may serve upon any other party a written request for the admission, for purposes of the pending action only, of the truth of any matters within the scope of rule 122 set forth in the request that relate to statement or opinions of fact or of the application of law to fact, including the genuineness of any documents described in the request. Copies of documents shall be served with the request unless they have been or are otherwise furnished or made available for inspection and copying. The request may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the original notice upon that party.

Each matter of which an admission is requested shall be separately set forth. The matter is admitted unless, within thirty days after service of the request, or within such shorter or longer time as the court may on motion allow, the party to whom the request is directed shall file a written answer or objection addressed to the matter, signed by the party or by his attorney, but, unless the court shortens the time, a defendant shall not be required to serve answers or objections before the expiration of forty-five days after service of the original notice upon him. If objection is made, the reasons therefor shall be stated. The answer shall specifically deny the matter or set forth in detail the reasons why the answering party cannot truthfully admit or deny the matter. A denial shall fully meet the substance of the requested admission, and when good faith requires that a party qualify his answer or deny only a part of the matter of which an admission is requested, he shall specify so much of it as is true and qualify or deny the remainder. An answering party may not give lack of information or knowledge as a reason for failure to admit or deny unless he states that he has made reasonable inquiry and that the information known or readily obtainable by him is insufficient to enable him to admit or deny. A party who considers that a matter of which an admission has been requested presents a genuine issue for trial may not, on that ground alone, object to the request; he may, subject to the provisions of rule 131 "c", deny the matter or set forth reasons why he cannot admit or deny it.

The party who has requested the admission may move to determine the sufficiency of the answers or objections. Unless the court determines that an objection is justified, it shall order that an answer be served. If the court determines that an answer does not comply with the requirements of this rule, it may order either that the matter is admitted or that an amended answer be served. The court may, in lieu of these orders, determine that final disposition of the request be made at a pretrial conference or at a designated time prior to trial. The provisions of rule 134 "a" (4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion. [Report 1943; amendment 1957; amendment 1973]

Referred to in R.C.P. 134(c)

128. Effect of admission. Any matter admitted under this rule is conclusively established in the pending action unless the court on motion permits withdrawal or amendment of the admission. Subject to the provisions of rule 138 governing amendment of a pretrial order, the court may permit withdrawal or amendment when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the party who obtained the admission fails to show that withdrawal or amendment will prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense on the merits. Any admission made by a party under this rule may be used as an evidentiary admission only in any other proceeding. [Report 1943; amendment 1957; amendment 1973]

129. Production of documents and things and entry upon land for inspection and other purposes. Any party may serve on any other party a request

(a) To produce and permit the party making the request, or someone acting on his behalf, to inspect and copy, any designated documents (including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, phonorecords, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained, translated, if necessary, by the respondent through detection devices into reasonably usable form), or to inspect and copy, test, or sample any tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of rule 122 and which are in the possession, custody or control of the party upon whom the request is served; or

(b) Except as otherwise provided by statute, to permit entry upon designated land or other property in the possession or control of the party upon whom the request is served for the purpose of inspection and measuring, surveying, photographing, testing, or sampling the property or any designated object or operation thereon, within the scope of rule 122. [Report 1943; amendment 1973]

Referred to in R.C.P. 130, 131, 134 (a, d), 140

130. Procedure under rule 129. The request may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the original notice upon that party. The request shall set forth the items to be inspected either by individual item or by category, and describe each item and category with reasonable particularity. The request shall specify a reasonable time, place, and manner of making the inspection and performing the related acts.

The party upon whom the request is served shall serve a written response within thirty days after the service of the request, except that a defendant may serve a response within forty-five days after service of the original notice upon that defendant. The court may allow a shorter or longer time. The response shall state with respect to each item or category, that inspection and related activities will be permitted as requested, unless the request is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated. If objection is made to part of an item or category, the part shall be specified. The party submitting the request may move for an order under rule 134 with respect to any objection to or other failure to respond to the request or any part thereof, or any failure to permit inspection as requested. [Report 1943; amendment 1973]

Referred to in R.C.P. 131, 140

131. Action for production or entry against persons not parties. Rules 129 and 130 do not preclude an independent action against a person not a party for production of documents and things and permission to enter upon land. [Report 1943; amendment 1957; amendment 1973]

Referred to in R.C.P. 181
See also ch 619

132. Physical and mental examination of persons. When the mental or physical condition (including the blood group) of a party, or of a person in the custody or under the legal control of a party, is in controversy, the court in which the action is pending may order the party to submit to a physical or mental examination by a physician or to produce for examination the person in his custody or legal control. The order may be made only on motion for good cause shown and upon notice to the person to be examined and to all parties and shall specify the time, place, manner, conditions, and scope of the examination and the person or persons by whom it is to be made. [Report 1943; amendment 1957; amendment 1973]

Referred to in R.C.P. 133, 134(b, 2), 181
See also ch 619

(a) If requested by the party against whom an order is made under rule 132 or the person examined, the party causing the examination to be made shall deliver to him a copy of a detailed written report of the examining physician setting out his findings, including results of all tests made, diagnosis and conclusions, together with like reports of all earlier examinations of the same condition. After delivery the party causing the examination shall be entitled upon request to receive from the party against whom the order is made a like report of any examination, previously or thereafter made, of the same condition, unless, in the case of a report of examination of a person not a party, the party shows that he is unable to obtain it. The court on motion may make an order against a party requiring delivery of a report on such terms as are just, and if a physician fails or refuses to make a report the court may exclude his testimony if offered at the trial.

(b) By requesting and obtaining a report of the examination so ordered or by taking the deposition of the examiner, the party examined waives any privilege he may have in that action or any other involving the same controversy, regarding the testimony of every other person who has examined or may thereafter examine him in respect of the same mental or physical condition.

(c) This rule applies to examination made by agreement of the parties, unless the agreement expressly provides otherwise. This rule does not preclude discovery of a report of an examining physician or the taking of a deposition of the physician in accordance with the provisions of any other rule or statute. [Report 1943; amendment 1973]

Referred to in R.C.P. 122(d), 181
See also ch 619

134. Failure to make discovery — consequences.

(a) Motion for order compelling discovery. A party, upon reasonable notice to other parties and all persons affected thereby, may apply for an order compelling discovery as follows:

(1) Appropriate court. An application for an order to a party may be made to the court in which the action is pending, or, on matters relating to a deposition, to the court in the district where the deposition is being taken. An application for an order to a deponent who is not a party shall be made to the court in the district where the deposition is being taken.

(2) Motion. If a deponent fails to answer a question propounded or submitted under rule 140 or 150, or a corporation or other entity fails to make a designation under rule 147 "e", or a party fails to answer an interrogatory submitted under rule 126, or if a party, in response to a request for inspection submitted under rule 129, fails to respond that inspection will be permitted as requested or fails to permit inspection as requested, the discovering party may move for an order compelling an answer, or a designation, or an order compelling inspection in accordance with the request. When taking a deposition on oral examination, the proponent of the question may complete or adjourn the examination before he applies for an order.

In ruling on such motion, the court may make such protective order as it would have been empowered to make on a motion pursuant to rule 123.

(3) Evasive or incomplete answer. For purposes of this subdivision an evasive or incomplete answer is to be treated as a failure to answer.

(4) Award of expenses of motion. If the motion is granted, the court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion or the party or attorney advising such conduct or both of them to pay to the moving party the reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining the order, including attorney's fees, unless the court finds that the opposition to the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

If the motion is denied, the court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the moving party or the attorney advising the motion or both of them to pay to the party or deponent who opposed the motion the reasonable expenses incurred in opposing the motion, including attorney's fees, unless the court finds that the making of the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

If the motion is granted in part and denied in part, the court may apportion the reasonable expenses incurred in relation to the motion among the parties and persons in a just manner.

(b) Failure to comply with order.

(1) Sanctions by court in district where deposition is taken. If a deponent fails to be sworn or to answer a question after being directed to do so by the court in the district in which the deposition is being taken, the failure may be considered a contempt of that court.

(2) Sanctions by court in which action is pending. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under rule 147 "e" to testify on behalf of a party fails to obey an order to provide or permit discovery, including an order made under subdivision "a" of this rule or rule 132, the court in which the action is pending may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others the following:

(A) An order that the matters regarding which the order was made or any other designated facts shall be taken to be established for the purposes of the action in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order;

(B) An order refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting him from introducing designated matters in evidence;

(C) An order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or dismissing the action or proceeding or any part thereof, or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient party;

(D) In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, an order treating as a contempt of court the failure to obey any orders except an order to submit to a physical or mental examination.

In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, the court shall require the party failing to obey the order or the attorney advising him or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

(e) Expenses on failure to admit. If a party fails to admit the genuineness of any document or the truth of any matter as requested under rule 127, and if the party requesting the admissions thereafter proves the genuineness of the document or the truth of the matter, he may apply to the court for an order requiring the other party to pay him the reasonable expenses incurred in making that proof, including reasonable attorney’s fees. The court shall make the order unless it finds that:

(1) The request was held objectionable pursuant to rule 127, or
(2) The admission sought was of no substantial importance, or
(3) The party failing to admit had reasonable ground to believe that he might prevail on the matter, or
(4) There was other good reason for the failure to admit.

(d) Failure of party to attend at own deposition, or serve answers to interrogatories or respond to request for inspection. If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under rule 147 “e” to testify on behalf of a party fails

(1) To appear before the officer who is to take his deposition, after being served with a proper notice, or
(2) To serve answers or objections to interrogatories submitted under rule 126, after proper service of the interrogatories, or
(3) To serve a written response to a request for inspection submitted under rule 129, after proper service of the request, the court in which the action is pending on motion may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others it may take any action authorized under paragraphs “A”, “B”, and “C” of subdivision “B” (2) of this rule. In lieu of any order or in addition thereto, the court shall require the party failing to act or the attorney advising him or both to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney’s fees, caused by the failure, unless the court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

The failure to act described in this subdivision may not be excused on the ground that the discovery sought is objectionable unless the party failing to act has applied for a protective order as provided by rule 123. [Report 1943; amendment 1957; amendment 1973]

See also ch 621

136. Pretrial conference. After issues are joined the court may in its discretion, and shall on written request of any attorney in the case, direct all attorneys in the action to appear before it for a conference to consider, so far as applicable to the particular case:

(a) The necessity or desirability of amending pleadings by formal amendment or pretrial order;
(b) Agreeing to admissions of facts, documents or records not really controverted, to avoid unnecessary proof;
(c) Limiting the number of expert witnesses;
(d) Setting any facts of which the court is to be asked to take judicial notice;
(e) Stating and simplifying the factual and legal issues to be litigated;
(f) Specifying all damage claims in detail as of the date of the conference;
(g) All proposed exhibits and mortality tables and proof thereof;
(h) Consolidation, separation for trial, and determination of points of law;
(i) Questions relating to voir dire examination of jurors and selection of alternate jurors, to serve if a juror becomes incapacitated;

137. Pretrial conference—record. On the request of any interested counsel or the court, the reporter must record the entire conference, or any designated part thereof. [Report 1943]

138. Orders. The court shall make an order reciting any action taken at the conference which will control the subsequent course of the action relative to matters it includes, unless modified to prevent manifest injustice. [Report 1943; amendment 1957]

Referred to in R.C.P. 128

See also ch 621

139. Restriction on orders. The court shall not, under any pretrial procedure or other rules, require a party to list or name the witnesses he expects to call to testify at the trial. [Report 1943; amendment 1957]

DIVISION VII
DEPOSITION AND PERPETUATION OF TESTIMONY

See also chapter 622 of the Code, Court Rule 118.6

(A) Depositions

140. Depositions upon oral examination.

(a) When depositions may be taken. After commencement of the action, any party may take the testimony of any person, including a party, by deposition upon oral examination. Leave of court, granted with or without notice, must be obtained only if the plaintiff seeks to take a deposition prior to the expiration of ten days after the appearance date for any defendant, except that leave is not required:

(1) If a defendant has served a notice of taking deposition or otherwise sought discovery, or

(2) If special notice is given as provided in subdivision "b" (2) of this rule. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by subpoena as provided in rule 153. The deposition of a person confined in prison may be taken only by leave of court on such terms as the court prescribes.

(b) Notice of examination—general requirements—special notice—nonstenographic recording—production of documents and things—deposition of organization.

(1) A party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give reasonable notice in writing to every other party to the action. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and, if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs. If a subpoena duces tecum is to be served on the person to be examined, the designation of the materials to be produced is to be set forth in the subpoena shall be attached to or included in the notice.

(2) Leave of court is not required for the taking of a deposition by plaintiff if the notice:

(A) States that the person to be examined is about to go out of the state and will be unavailable for examination unless his deposition is taken before expiration of the thirty-day period, and

(B) Sets forth facts to support the statement. The plaintiff's attorney shall sign the notice, and his signature constitutes a certification by him that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief the statement and supporting facts are true.

If a party shows that when he was served with notice under this subdivision "b" (2) he was unable through the exercise of diligence to obtain counsel to represent him at the taking of the deposition, the deposition may not be used against him.

(3) The court may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time for taking the deposition,

(4) The court may upon motion order that the testimony at a deposition be recorded by other than stenographic means, in which event the order shall designate the manner of recording, preserving, and filing the deposition, and may include other provisions to assure that the recorded testimony will be accurate and trustworthy. If the order is made, a party may nevertheless arrange to have a stenographic transcription made at his own expense.

(5) The notice to a party defendant may be accompanied by a request made in compliance with rules 129 and 130 for the production of documents and tangible things at the taking of the deposition. The procedure of rule 130 shall apply to the request.

(c) Failure to attend or to serve subpoena—expenses.

(1) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition fails to attend and proceed therewith and another party attends in person or by attorney pursuant to the notice, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney in attending, including reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) If the party giving the notice of the taking of a deposition of a witness fails to serve a subpoena upon him and the witness does not attend because of such failure, and if another party attends in person or by attorney because he expects the deposition of that witness to be taken, the court may order the party giving the notice to pay to such other party the reasonable expenses incurred by him and his attorney attending, including reasonable attorney's fees. Referred to in §29B.50, RCP 144(a, 2), 148

141. Restrictions. In small claims, depositions for discovery may not be taken unless leave of court is first obtained on notice and showing of just cause therefor and upon such terms as justice may require. [Report 1943; amendment 1957; amendment 1973]

Referred to in §29B.50, RCP 147
See also ch 622

142. Defaults—notice. If a party requires proof to obtain a judgment upon a default, he may take depositions, after serving notice on the attorney of record for the defaulted party, or, if none, on the clerk. Parties in default need not be given notice as to depositions taken under any other rule. [Report 1943]

Referred to in §29B.50
See also ch 622

143. Witness lists. Except as provided in rule 122, a party shall not be required to list the witnesses expected to be called at trial. [Report 1943; amendment 1957; amendment 1973]

Referred to in §29B.50
See also ch 622

144. Use of depositions. Any part of a deposition, so far as admissible under the rules of evidence, may be used upon the trial or at an interlocutory hearing or upon the hearing of a motion in the same action against any party who appeared when it was taken, or stipulated therefor, or had due notice thereof, either:

(a) To impeach or contradict deponent's testimony as a witness; or

(b) For any purpose if, when it was taken, deponent was a party adverse to the offeror, or was an officer, partner or managing agent of any adverse party which is not a natural person; or

(c) For any purpose, if the court finds that the offeror was unable to procure deponent's presence at the trial by subpoena; or that deponent is out of the state or more than one hundred miles distant from the trial, and such absence was not procured by the offeror; or that deponent is dead, or unable to testify because of age, illness, infirmity or imprisonment.

(d) On application and notice, the court may also permit a deposition to be used for any purpose, under exceptional circumstances making it desirable in the interests of justice; having due regard for the importance of witnesses testifying in open court. [Report 1943; amendment 1957]

Referred to in §29B.50, R.C.P. 145
See also ch 622

145. Effect of taking or using.

(a) If a party offers only part of a deposition, his adversary may require him to offer all of it relevant to the portion offered; and any other party may offer other relevant parts.

(b) A party does not make deponent his own witness by taking his deposition or using it solely under rules 144'"a" or 144'"b". A party introducing a deposition for any other purpose makes the deponent his witness, but may contradict his testimony by relevant evidence. [Report 1943]

Referred to in §29B.50
See also ch 622

146. Substituted parties—successive actions.

Substitution of parties does not prevent use of depositions previously taken and filed in the action. If an action is dismissed, depositions legally taken therein may be used in any subsequent action involving the same subject matter, between the same parties, their representatives or successors in interest. [Report 1943]

Referred to in §29B.50
See also ch 622

147. Oral examination—notice.

(a) Oral depositions may be taken only in this state, or outside it at a place within one hundred miles from the nearest Iowa point. But, on hearing, on notice, of a motion of a party desiring it, the court may order it orally taken at any other specified place, if the issue is sufficiently important and the testimony cannot reasonably be obtained on written interrogatories.

(b) The party taking an oral deposition must first serve reasonable notice on all other parties not in default for want of appearance, stating the time and place thereof and the name and address of the deponent, or if that is unknown, a description identifying him or the class or group to which he belongs. The court, on motion of any party so served, may for good cause enlarge or shorten the time.

(c) No subpoena is necessary to require the appearance of a party for a deposition. Service on the party or his attorney of record of notice of the taking of the deposition of the party or of an officer, partner or managing agent of any party who is not a natural person, as provided in "b" hereof, is sufficient to require the appearance of a deponent for the deposition.

(d) If the deponent is a party or the officer, partner or managing agent of a party which is not a natural person, the deponent shall be required to submit to examination in the county where the action is pending, unless otherwise ordered by the court, as provided in rule 141 "d".*

(e) A party may in his notice and in a subpoena name as the deponent a public or private corporation or a partnership or association or governmental agency and describe with reasonable particularity the matters on which examination is requested. In that event, the organization so named shall designate one or more officers, directors, or managing agents, or other persons who consent to testify on its behalf, and may set forth, for each person designated, the matters on which he will testify. A subpoena shall advise a nonparty organization of its duty to make such a designation. The persons so designated shall testify as to matters known or reasonably available to the organization. This paragraph does not preclude taking a deposition by any other procedure authorized in these rules. [Report 1943; amendment 1957; amendment 1973]

For manner of serving notice see rule 156. On objecting to notice see rule 158'"a".*

148. Conduct of oral examination.

(a) Examination and cross-examination—record of examination—oath—objections. Examination and cross-examination of witnesses may proceed as permitted at the trial. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally, or by someone acting under his direction and in his presence, record the testimony of the witness. The testimony shall be taken stenographically or recorded by any other means ordered in accordance with rule 140 "b"(4). If requested by one of the parties, the testimony shall be transcribed. All objections made at the time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to the objections. In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties may serve written questions in a sealed envelope on the party taking the deposition and he shall transmit them to the officer, who shall propound them to the witness and record the answers verbatim.

(b) Motion to terminate or limit examination. At any time during the taking of the deposition, on motion of a party or of the deponent and upon a showing that the examination is being conducted in bad faith or in such manner as unreasonably to annoy, embarrass, or oppress the deponent or party, the court in which the action is pending or the court in the district where the deposition is being taken may order the officer conducting the examination to cease forthwith from taking the deposition, or may limit the scope and manner of the taking of the deposition as provided in rule 123. If the order made terminates the examination, it shall be resumed thereafter only upon the order of the court in which the action is pending. Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order. The provisions of rule 134 apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion. [Report 1943; amendment 1957; amendment 1973]

Refer to in §29B.50, R.C.P. 151, 164

149. Reading and signing.

(a) No oral deposition reported and transcribed by an official court reporter or certified shorthand reporter of Iowa need be submitted to, read or signed by the deponent.

(b) Submission to witness—changes, signing. In other cases, when the testimony is fully transcribed the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and shall be read to or by him, unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. If "a" is not applicable, the deposition shall then be signed by the witness, unless the parties by stipulation waive the signing or the witness is ill or dead or cannot be found or refuses to sign. If the deposition is not signed by the witness within thirty days of its submission to him, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver or of the illness, death, or absence of the witness or the fact of the refusal to sign together with the reason, if any, given therefor; and the deposition may then be used as fully as though signed unless on a motion to suppress under rule 158(d) the court holds that the reason given for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part. [Report 1943; amendment 1963; amendment 1973]

Refer to in §29B.50, R.C.P. 151, 164

150. On written interrogatories.

(a) A party may take depositions on written interrogatories after first serving all other parties not in default for want of appearance with copies thereof and with a notice stating the name, or title, and address of the officer to take them, and the name and address of the deponents.

(b) The adversary parties may thereafter serve successive interrogatories on each other, but only as follows: Cross-interrogatories within ten days after the notice; redirect interrogatories within five days after the latter service; and recross interrogatories within three days thereafter. On application of any party, the court may, for good cause shown, shorten or enlarge the time for serving any such succeeding interrogatories.

(c) Within the time required for cross-interrogatories, the adverse party may elect instead, to appear and orally cross-examine, by serving notice thereof on the party taking the deposition. The latter shall then within five days serve the former with notice of the date, hour and place where the deposition will be taken, which shall allow a reasonable time to enable the adverse party to attend; and may also waive his original written interrogatories and examine the deponent orally. [Report 1943]

For manner of service see rule 156.

Refer to in §29B.50, R.C.P. 134(a), 155, 158, 164
See also ch 622

151. Answers to interrogatories. The party taking a deposition on written interrogatories shall promptly transmit a copy of the notice and all interrogatories to the officer designated in the notice. The officer shall promptly take deponent's answers thereto and complete the deposition, all as provided in rules 148 and 149, except that answers need not be taken stenographically. [Report 1943]

Refer to in §29B.50, R.C.P. 164
See also ch 622

152. Certification and return—copies.

(a) The officer shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by him and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. He shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope endorsed with the title of the action and marked "Deposition of (here insert name of witness)" and shall promptly file it with the court in which the action is pending or send it by registered or certified mail to the clerk thereof for filing. Documents and things produced for inspection during the examination of the witness shall, upon the request of a party, be marked for identification and annexed to and returned with the deposition, and may be
Div. VII, RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

155. Subpoena.
(a) On application of any party, or proof of service of a notice to take depositions under rule 147 or rule 150, the clerk of court where the action is pending shall issue subpoenas for persons named in and described in said notice or application. Subpoenas may also be issued as provided by statute:

(b) No resident of Iowa shall be thus subpoenaed to attend out of the county where he resides, or is employed, or transacts his business in person.

(c) A subpoena may also command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents or tangible things designated therein; but the court, upon motion promptly made by the person to whom the subpoena is directed, or by any other person stating an interest in the documents affected, and in any event at or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance therewith, may

(1) Quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable and oppressive or

(2) Condition denial of the motion upon the advancement by the person in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents or tangible things.

(a) Generally. Costs of taking and proceeding to procure a deposition shall be advanced by the party taking it, and he cannot use it in evidence until such costs are paid. The costs shall be noted in the return or certificate, and taxed by the clerk. The judgment shall award against the losing party only such portion of these costs as were necessarily incurred for testimony offered and admitted upon the trial.

(b) Failure to attend. The court may order the party taking a deposition to pay the adverse party his costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, for attending at the specified time and place for oral cross-examination (being entitled thereto), if the deposition is not then taken for absence of the party, or of the witness due to the party's failure to subpoena him.

158. Irregularities—objections.
(a) Notice. All objections to any notice of taking any depositions are waived unless promptly served in writing upon the party giving the notice.

(b) Officer. Objections to the officer's qualification to take a deposition is waived unless made before such taking begins, or as soon thereafter as objector knows it or could discover it with reasonable diligence.
(c) Interrogatories. All objections to the form of any written interrogatory served under rule 150 are waived unless the objector serves them on the interrogating party in the time allowed him for serving succeeding interrogatories and, as to the last interrogatories authorized, within three days after the service thereof.

(d) Taking deposition. Errors or irregularities occurring during an oral deposition as to any conduct or manner of taking it, or the oath, or the form of any question or answer; and any other errors which might thereupon have been cured, obviated or removed, are waived unless seasonably objected to when it is taken.

(e) Testimony. Except as above provided, testimony taken by deposition may be objected to at the trial on any ground which would require its exclusion if given by a witness in open court, and objections to testimony, or competency of a witness, need not be made prior to or during the deposition, unless the grounds thereof could then have been obviated or removed.

(f) Motion to suppress. All objections to the manner of transcribing the testimony, or to preparing, signing, certifying, sealing, endorsing, transmitting, filing the deposition, or the officer's dealing with it, are waived unless made by motion to suppress it, or the part complained of, filed with reasonable promptness after the objector knows of, or could with reasonable diligence discover, the defect. No such motion shall be sustained unless the defect is substantial and materially affects the right of some party. [Report 1943]

159. Common law preserved. The following rules do not limit the court's common law powers to entertain actions to perpetuate testimony. [Report 1943]

161. Notice. The petitioner shall thereafter serve a notice upon each person named in the petition as an expected adverse party, together with a copy of the petition, stating that the petitioner will apply to the court, at a time and place named therein, for the order described in the petition. At least twenty days before the date of hearing, the notice shall be served as provided for the service of original notices other than by publication; but if such service cannot with due diligence be so made upon any expected adverse party named in the petition, the court may make such order as is just for service by publication or otherwise, or the court upon a showing of extraordinary circumstances may prescribe a hearing upon less than twenty days' notice. [Report 1943]

162. Guardian ad litem. Before hearing the application, the court shall appoint some attorney to act as guardian ad litem for any party under legal disability or not personally served with notice, who shall cross-examine for his ward if any deposition is ordered, and unless an attorney has been so appointed the deposition shall not be admissible against such party in any subsequent action. [Report 1943]

163. When ordered—who not examined. If satisfied that the petition is not for the purpose of discovery, and that its allowance may prevent future delay or failure of justice, and that applicant is unable to bring the contemplated action or cause it to be brought, the court shall order the testimony perpetuated, designating the deponents, the subject matter of their examination, when, where and before whom their deposition shall be taken, and whether orally or on written interrogatories. [Report 1943]

164. Taking and filing testimony. Depositions shall be taken as directed in said order; and shall be otherwise governed by rules 148 to 153 and 158. For the purpose of applying these rules to depositions for perpetuating testimony, each reference therein to the court in which the application was filed shall be deemed to refer to the court in which the petition for such deposition was filed. Unless the court enlarges the time, all such depositions must be filed therein within thirty days after the date fixed for taking them, and if not so filed cannot be later received in evidence. [Report 1913]
165. Use—limitation. Any party to any later action involving any expected adverse party who was named in the application, and served with notice as hereinbefore required, or involving his privies or successors in interest, may use such deposition, or a certified copy thereof, if the deponent is dead or mentally ill or his attendance cannot be obtained. [Report 1943; 58GA, ch 152, §202]

166. Perpetuating testimony pending appeal. During the time allowed for taking an appeal from judgment of a court of record or during the pendency of such appeal, that court may, on motion, allow testimony to be perpetuated for use in the event of further proceedings before it. The motion shall state the name and address of each proposed deponent, the substance of his expected testimony, and the reason for perpetuating it. If the court finds such perpetuation is proper to avoid a failure or delay of justice, and the depositions are not sought for discovery, it may order them taken as in rules 163 and 164. When taken and filed as thus provided, they shall be used and treated as though they had been pending the trial of the action. [Report 1943]

DIVISION VIII

CHANGE OF VENUE

167. Grounds for change. On motion, the place of trial may be changed as follows:

(a) County. If the county where the case would be tried is a party and the motion is by an adverse party, the issue being triable by a jury, and a jury having been demanded;

(b) Interest of judge. Where the trial judge is directly interested in the action, or related by consanguinity or affinity within the fourth degree to any party so interested;

(c) Prejudice or influence. If the trial judge, or the inhabitants of the county, are so prejudiced against the moving party, or if an adverse party has such undue influence over such inhabitants, that the movant cannot obtain a fair trial. The motion in such case shall be supported by affidavit of the movant and three disinterested persons, none being his agent, servant, employee or attorney, nor related to him by consanguinity or affinity within the fourth degree. The other party shall have a reasonable time to file counter affidavits. Affiants may be examined pursuant to rule 116;

(d) Agreement. Pursuant to written agreement of the parties;

(e) Fraud in contract. A defendant, sued in a county where he does not reside, on a written contract expressly performable in such county, who has filed a sworn answer claiming fraud in the inception of said contract as a complete defense thereto, may have the case transferred to the county of his residence. Within ten days after the transfer is ordered, he must file a bond in an amount fixed by the court, with sureties approved by the clerk, for payment of all costs; and any judgment rendered against him shall include in such costs a reasonable amount fixed by the court for expenses incurred by plaintiff and his attorney by reason of the change. [Report 1943]

Referral to R.C.P. 168, 169, 171, 172, 174

168. Limitations. Change of venue shall not be allowed:

(a) In an appeal from a justice of the peace;

(b) Under rule 167“e” where the issues are triable to the court alone, except for prejudice of the judge;

(c) Until the issues are made up, unless the objection is to the judge;

(d) After a continuance, except for a cause arising since such continuance or not known to movant prior thereto;

(e) After one change, for any cause then existing, and known or ascertainable with reasonable diligence.

In no event shall more than two changes be allowed to any party. [Report 1943]

Referral to R.C.P. 169.

169. Subsequent change. Where the case is tried after a change of place of trial, and the jury disagrees or a new trial is granted, the court may in its discretion allow a subsequent change, under rule 167“a”, “b”, “c” or “d”; subject to rule 168. [Report 1943]

170. Of whole case. A change may be granted on motion of one of several coparties; and the whole cause shall then be transferred, unless separate trials are granted under rule 186. [Report 1943]

171. Where tried. Unless the change is under rule 167“e”, the court granting it shall order the trial held in a convenient county in the judicial district, or if the ground applies to all such counties, then of another judicial district. If the ground applies only to a judge, the court in its discretion may refuse a change and procure another judge to try the case where it was brought, or the supreme court may designate such other judge. [Report 1943]

172. Costs. Unless the change is under rule 167“d” or 167“e”, the order shall designate generally all costs occasioned by the change, which movant must pay before the change is perfected. Failure to make such payment within ten days from the order waives the change of venue. [Report 1943]

173. Transferring cause. When a change is ordered and the required costs paid, the clerk shall forthwith transmit to the proper court his transcript of the proceedings, with any original papers, of which he shall retain an authenticated copy. The case shall be docketed in the second court without fee and shall proceed. [Report 1943]

174. Jury fees. If trial is by a jury after change pursuant to rule 167 the court shall certify the amount of county expenses incurred for meals, lodging, mileage and fees of jurors and the county where the action was brought shall pay the county where it was tried the difference between the sum so certified and the jury fee taxable as a part of the costs in the action. [Report 1943; amendments 1961, 1963]

175. Action brought in wrong county.

(a) An action brought in the wrong county may be prosecuted there until termination, unless a defendant, before answer, moves for its change to the proper county. Whereupon the court shall order the change at plaintiff's costs, which may include reasonable compensation for defendant's trouble and expense, including attorney's fees, in attending in the wrong county.

(b) If all such costs are not paid within a time to be fixed by the court, or the papers are not filed in the proper court within twenty days after such order, the action shall be dismissed. [Report 1943]

DIVISION IX
TRIAL AND JUDGMENT
See also chapter 624 of the Code

(A) Trials

176. Trials and issues. A trial is a judicial examination of issues in an action, whether of law or fact. Issues arise where a pleading of one party maintains a claim controverted by an adverse party. Issues are either of law or fact. An issue of fact arises on a material allegation of fact in a pleading which is denied in an adversary's pleading or by operation of law. All other issues are issues of law which must be tried first. [Report 1943]

For allegations and denials of fact, see rules 70-76, 100.

For denials by operation of law, see e.g. rule 102.

For separate adjudication of law issue, see rule 105.

See also ch 624

177. Demand for jury trial.

(a) Jury trial is waived if not demanded according to this rule; but a demand once filed may not be withdrawn without consent of all parties not in default.

(b) A party desiring jury trial of an issue must make written demand therefor by filing a separate instrument clearly designating such demand not later than ten days after the last pleading directed to that issue. A copy thereof must be filed for each adverse party appearing and it shall be mailed or delivered by the clerk in the manner provided by rule 82.

(c) Unless limited to a specific issue, every such demand shall be deemed to include all issues triable to a jury. If a limited demand is filed, any other party may, within ten days thereafter or such shorter time as the court may order, file his demand for a jury trial of some or all other issues.

(d) Notwithstanding the failure of a party to demand a jury in an action in which such demand might have been made of right, the court, in its discretion on motion and for good cause shown, but not ex parte, and upon such terms as the court prescribes, may order a trial by jury of any or all issues. [Report 1943; amendment 1945; amendment 1961]

Referred to in R.C.P. 232
See also ch 624, §§633.447, 633.555
Time computed, §4.1 (22)

178. To court or jury. All issues shall be tried to the court except those for which a jury is demanded. Issues for which a jury is demanded shall be tried to a jury unless the court finds that there is no right thereto or all parties appearing at the trial waive a jury in writing or orally in open court. [Report 1943]

See also ch 624

178.1. Reporter's fee—small cases. No court reporter shall be provided in the trial of actions when the amount in controversy is shown by the pleadings is less than one thousand dollars, unless the party demanding one shall pay the clerk in advance the taxable fee of the reporter for one day, at the beginning of each day. Amounts so paid shall be taxed as costs in the case, unless otherwise ordered by the court. [Report 1961; amendment 1970]

See also ch 624

179. Findings by court.

(a) The court trying an issue of fact without a jury, whether by equitable or ordinary proceedings, shall find the facts in writing, separately stating its conclusions of law; and direct an appropriate judgment. No request for findings is necessary for purposes of review. Findings of a master shall be deemed those of the court to the extent it adopts them.

(b) On motion joined with or filed within the time allowed for a motion for new trial, the findings and conclusions may be enlarged or amended and the judgment or decree modified accordingly or a different judgment or decree substituted. But a party, on appeal, may challenge the sufficiency of the evidence to sustain any finding without having objected to it by such motion or otherwise. [Report 1943; amendment 1973]

Referred to in R.C.P. 335 "a"
See also ch 624

180. Exceptions unnecessary. Exceptions to rulings or orders of court are unnecessary whenever a matter has been called to the attention of the court, by objection, motion or otherwise and the court has ruled thereon. [Report 1943]
This rule has nothing to do with bills of exceptions to complete an otherwise incomplete record, for which see rule 241.

See also ch 624

181. Certificate of readiness for trial. If a certificate of readiness for trial of any action is filed, the action shall be entered on the Ready Calendar List. If parties stipulate for trial assignment, the certificate shall be filed with the stipulation.

A copy of the certificate must be filed for each adverse party appearing and it shall be mailed or delivered by the clerk in the manner provided by rule 82.

Objections must be filed, if at all, within seven days after the date of mailing or delivery of copy of certificate. Hearing thereon shall be held at the earliest practicable date and the action shall not be removed from the Ready Calendar List unless the objector establishes that it is not ready for trial notwithstanding reasonable diligence on his part, or other good cause is shown. [Report 1943; amendment 1961]

181.2. Trial assignments.

(a) Initial assignment day—actions having precedence. On each court day in each county or at such other times as the chief judge shall order the judges shall examine the pending criminal cases and those civil cases on the Ready Calendar List which have been certified by one of the parties for a period of twenty days and rule on all objections permitted under rule 181. In the event an examination of the papers in the case discloses that a case is ready for trial and the matters certified in the ready certificates have been completed, he shall place the case on a trial list for disposition at the next trial session to be held in that county and direct that notice be given the attorneys of record that said case is subject to trial at any time thereafter. By oral or written agreement of the parties the chief judge may specially assign a case for trial on a day certain. Any judge presiding at a trial session may make such assignment for a day certain during the session. Actions on the Ready Calendar List shall have precedence in the assignment for trial of civil and special actions, except those entitled to priority under a statute. No action shall have precedence if objections under rule 181 have been filed and not determined or if the time for filing such objections has not expired. Insofar as practicable, actions are to be assigned in the order in which the certificates of readiness were filed. The court may assign a case for trial even though no certificate of readiness for trial has been filed. Municipal courts shall provide for an initial assignment day and assign cases for trial.

(b) Trial sessions assigned. The chief judge shall designate trial sessions in the various counties in the district at such times as the business in each county shall require and shall assign a judge to try such cases as are placed on the trial list or assigned for trial under the provisions of this rule. The designation of trial sessions shall be as long in advance as is compatible with a speedy and efficient administration of justice and a minimum of conflict with previous commitments of time of parties, witnesses and attorneys. The chief judge shall direct that notice of the trial session so designated shall be given to attorneys of record in cases on the trial list. [Report 1961; amended by 62GA, ch 474,§1; amendment 1969]
181.3. Duty to notify court.
(a) Of settlements. Whenever a case assigned for trial has been settled it shall be the duty of the attorneys or parties appearing in person to so notify the court immediately.
(b) Of conflicting engagements and termination thereof. When a case assigned for trial is reached and an attorney of record therein is then actually engaged in a trial in another court, it shall be his duty to so inform the court who may hold the trial of such case in abeyance until the engagement is concluded. As soon as the attorney is free from such engagement it shall be his duty to notify the court immediately and stand ready to proceed with trial of the case. [Report 1961]

See also ch 624

182. Motions for continuance.
(a) Motions for continuance shall be filed without delay after the grounds therefor become known to the party or his counsel. Such a motion may be amended only to correct a clerical error.
(b) A case shall not lose its place on the calendar when a party applies for time to seek a continuance, unless it is then continued at the option of the other party at applicant’s costs, whereupon the clerk shall forthwith enter judgment for costs unless otherwise ordered by the court or agreed by the parties. [Report 1943]

That the motion need not be served, see rule 115.

See also ch 624

183. Causes for continuance.
(a) A continuance may be allowed for any cause not growing out of the fault or negligence of the applicant, which satisfies the court that substantial justice will be more nearly obtained. It shall be allowed if all parties so agree and the court approves.
(b) All such motions based on absence of evidence must be supported by affidavit of the party, his agent or attorney, and must show: (1) The name and residence of the absent witness, or, if unknown, that affiant has used diligence to ascertain them; (2) what efforts, constituting due diligence, have been made to obtain such witness or his testimony, and facts showing reasonable grounds to believe the testimony will be procured by the next term; (3) what particular facts, distinct from legal conclusions, affiant believes the witness will prove, and that he believes them to be true and knows of no other witness by whom they can be fully proved. If the court finds such motion sufficient, the adverse party may avoid the continuance by admitting that the witness if present, would testify to the facts therein stated, as the evidence of such witness. [Report 1943; amendment 1961]

See also ch 624

184. Objections—ruling—costs. The adverse party may at once, or within such reasonable time as the court allows, file specific written objections to the motion for continuance, which shall be part of the record. Where the defenses are distinct, the cause may be continued as to any one or more defendants. Every continuance shall be at the cost of the movant unless otherwise ordered by the court. [Report 1943]

See also ch 624

185. Consolidation. Unless some party shows he will be prejudiced thereby the court may consolidate separate actions which involve common questions of law or fact or order a single trial of any or all issues therein. In such cases it may make such orders concerning the proceedings as tend to avoid unnecessary cost or delay. [Report 1943; amendment 1955]

See also ch 619

186. Separate trials. In any action the court may, for convenience or to avoid prejudice, order a separate trial of any claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or of any separate issue of fact, or any number of any of them. Any claim against a party may be thus severed and proceeded with separately. [Report 1943]

As to separate adjudication of points of law, see rule 105.

187. Impaneling jury.
(a) Selection. The clerk shall prepare and deposit in a box separate ballots containing the names of all persons returned or added as jurors. At each jury trial he shall select sixteen jurors by closing and shaking the box to intermingle the ballots, and drawing them from the box without seeing the names. He shall list all jurors so drawn. Before drawing begins, either party may require that the names of all jurors be called, and have an attachment for those absent who are not engaged in other trials; but the court may wait for its return or not, in its discretion.
(b) Oath or examination. The prospective jurors shall be sworn. The parties may then examine those drawn. The court may conduct such examination as it deems proper. It may on its own motion exclude any juror.
(c) Challenges. Challenges are objections to trial jurors, and may be either to the panel or to an individual juror. Coparties at the trial cannot sever their peremptory challenges, but must join in them unless the court otherwise orders. The court shall determine the law and fact as to all challenges, and must either allow or deny them.
(d) To panel. Before any juror is sworn, either party may challenge the panel, in writing, distinctly specifying the grounds, which can be founded only on a material departure from the statutory requirements for drawing or returning the jury. On trial thereof, any officer, judicial or ministerial, whose irregularity is complained of, and any other person, may be examined concerning the facts speci-
(e) To juror. Challenge to an individual juror, peremptory or for cause, must be made before the jury is sworn to try the case. A juror peremptorily challenged must be excused without reasons being given. On demand of either party to a challenge for cause, the juror shall answer every question pertinent to the inquiry, and other evidence may be taken.

(f) For cause. A juror may be challenged by either party for any of the following causes: (1) Conviction of a felony; (2) want of any statutory qualification required to make him a competent juror; (3) physical or mental defects rendering him incapable of performing the duties of a juror; (4) consanguinity or affinity within the ninth degree to the adverse party; (5) being guardian, ward, master, servant, landlord or tenant of the adverse party, or a member of his family or in his employ; or being a client of any attorney engaged in the cause; (6) being a party adverse to the challenging party in any civil action; or having complained of or been accused by him in a criminal prosecution; (7) having already sat upon a trial of the same issues; (8) having served as a grand or trial juror in a criminal case based on the same transaction; (9) when it appears the juror has formed or expressed an unqualified opinion on the merits of the controversy, or shows a state of mind which will prevent him from rendering a just verdict; (10) being interested in a question like the issue to be tried; (11) having requested, directly, or indirectly, that his name be returned as a juror for the regular biennial period; (12) having served in the district court as a grand or petit juror during the last preceding calendar year.

Exemption from jury service is not a ground of challenge, but the privilege of the person exempt.

(g) Number—striking. Each side may peremptorily challenge three jurors and must strike off two but before the examination of the jury commences the court may in its discretion authorize and fix the number of additional peremptory challenges where there are two or more parties represented by different counsel. After all challenges for cause are completed, plaintiff and defendant shall alternately make or waive their peremptory challenges by appropriate notations on the jury list. Thereafter each side in like manner shall strike off two jurors from the list.

(h) Vacancies. After a peremptory challenge is exercised or a challenge for cause sustained, another juror shall be called and examined before further challenges are made, and shall be subject to being challenged or stricken as are other jurors.

(i) Jury sworn. The clerk shall read the names of the twelve jurors who remain on the list after all others have been challenged or stricken. These shall constitute the jury and shall be sworn substantially as follows:

"You and each of you do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will well and truly try the issues wherein ................. is plaintiff and ................. is defendant, and a true verdict render; and that you will do so solely on the evidence introduced and in accordance with the instructions of the court; so help you God." 188. Saturday a religious day. No juror whose religious faith requires him to keep the seventh day of the week can be compelled to attend on that day, prior to final submission of the case. [Report 1943]
See also ch 624

189. Alternate jurors. The court may panel one or two alternate jurors whose qualifications, powers, functions, facilities, and privileges shall be the same as regular jurors. After the regular jury is selected, the clerk shall draw the names of two more persons than are to serve under this rule, who shall be sworn and subject to examination and challenge for cause as provided in rule 187. Each party must then strike off one such name, and the one or two remaining shall be sworn to try the case with the regular jury, and sit at the trial. Alternate jurors shall, in the order they were drawn, replace any juror who becomes unable to act, or is disqualified, before the jury retires, and if not so needed shall then be discharged. [Report 1943]
See also ch 624

190. Returning ballots to box. When a jury is sworn, the ballots containing the names of those absent or excused from the trial shall be immediately returned to the box. Those containing the names of jurors sworn shall be set aside, and returned to the box immediately on the discharge of that jury. [Report 1943]
See also ch 624

191. Procedure after jury sworn. After the jury is sworn, the trial shall proceed in the following order:

(a) The party having the burden of proof on the whole action may briefly state his claim, and by what evidence he expects to prove it;

(b) The other party may similarly state his defense and evidence;

(e) The first above party must then produce his evidence; to be followed by that of the adverse party;

(d) The parties will be confined to rebutting evidence, unless the court in furtherance of justice, permits them to offer evidence in their original case;

(e) But one counsel on each side shall examine the same witness, unless otherwise permitted by the court. [Report 1943]
See also ch 624
192. Further testimony for mistake. At any time before final submission, the court may allow any party to offer further testimony to correct an evident oversight or mistake, imposing such terms as it deems just. [Report 1943]

193. Adjournments. After trial begins, the court may, in furtherance of justice, adjourn it for such time, and on such conditions as to costs or otherwise, as it deems just. [Report 1943]

For admonishing jury on adjournment, see rule 199 “a.”

See also ch 624

194. View. When the court deems proper, it may order an officer to conduct the jury in a body to view any real or personal property, or any place where a material fact occurred, and to show it to them. No other person shall speak to them during their absence on any subject connected with the trial. [Report 1943]

Similar provisions, §780.15

See also ch 624

195. Arguments. The parties may either submit the case or argue it. The party with the burden of the issue shall have the opening and closing arguments. In opening, he shall disclose all points he relies on, and if his closing argument refers to any new material point or fact not so disclosed, the adverse party may reply thereto, which shall close the argument. A party waiving opening argument is limited, in closing, to reply to the adverse argument; otherwise the adverse party shall have the closing argument. The court may limit the time for argument to itself, but not for arguments to the jury. [Report 1943]

See also ch 624

196. Instructions. The court shall instruct the jury as to the law applicable to all material issues in the case and such instructions shall be in writing, in consecutively numbered paragraphs, and shall be read to the jury without comment or explanation; provided, however, that in actions triable to a jury where the amount in controversy as shown by the pleadings is less than one thousand dollars, and in any action where the parties so agree, the instructions may be oral. At the close of the evidence, or such prior time as the court may reasonably fix, any party may file written requests that the jury be instructed as set forth in such requests. Before argument to the jury begins, the court shall furnish counsel with a preliminary draft of instructions which it expects to give on all controversial issues, which shall not be part of the record. Before jury arguments, the court shall give to each counsel a copy of its instructions in their final form, noting this fact of record and granting reasonable time for counsel to make objections, which shall be made and ruled on before arguments to the jury. Within such time, all objections to giving or failing to give any instruction must be made in writing or dictated into the record, out of the jury’s presence, specifying the matter objected to and on what grounds. No other grounds or objections shall be asserted thereafter, or considered on appeal. But if the court thereafter revises or adds to the instructions, similar specific objection to the revision or addition may be made in the motion for new trial, and if not so made shall be deemed waived. All instructions and objections, except as above provided, shall be part of the record. [Report 1943; amendment 1961; amendment 1970; amendment 1973; 65GA, ch 315,§2]

197. Additional instructions. While the jury is deliberating, the court may in its discretion further instruct the jury, in the presence of or after notice to counsel. 199. Separation and deliberation of jury.

(a) A jury once sworn shall not separate unless so ordered by the court, who must then advise them that it is the duty of each juror not to converse with any other juror or person, nor suffer himself to be addressed on the subject of the trial; and that, during the trial it is the duty of each juror to avoid, as far as possible, forming any opinion thereon until the cause is finally submitted to him.

(b) On final submission, the jury shall retire for deliberation, and be kept together in charge of an officer until they agree on a verdict or are discharged by the court, unless the court permits the jurors to separate temporarily overnight, on weekends or holidays, or in emergencies. During their deliberations, the officer in charge must not suffer any communication to be made to them, nor make any himself, except to ask them if they have agreed on a verdict, unless by order of court; nor communicate to any person the state of their deliberations, or the verdict agreed upon before it is rendered. 203. Rendering verdict and answering interrogatories.

(a) Number. Before a general verdict, special verdicts, or answers to interrogatories are returned, the parties may stipulate that the finding may be rendered by a stated majority of the jurors. In the absence of such stipulation, a general verdict, special verdicts, or answers to interrogatories may be rendered by five-sixths of the jurors. However, no general verdict, special verdict, or answers to interrogatories may be rendered by five-sixths of the jurors or less until the jurors have deliberated for a period of not less than six hours after the issues to be decided have been submitted to them.

(b) Return—poll. The jury agreeing on a general verdict, special verdicts, or answers to interrogatories shall bring the finding into court where it shall be read to the jury and inquiry made if it is the jury’s finding. A party may then require a poll, whereupon the court or clerk shall ask each juror if it is his finding. If the required number of jurors do not express agreement, the jury shall be sent out for further deliberation; otherwise, the finding is complete and the jury shall be discharged.

(c) Sealed. When, by consent of the parties and the court, the jury has been permitted to seal its finding and separates before it is rendered, such sealing is equivalent to a rendition and a recording thereof in open court, and such jury shall not be polled or permitted to disagree with respect thereto. 204. Form and entry of verdicts. General verdicts, special verdicts, and answers to interrogatories shall be in writing. When unanimous they shall be signed by the foreman chosen by the jury, and when they are not unanimous they shall be signed by all jurors concurring therein. They shall be sufficient in form if they express the intent of the jury. They shall be filed with the clerk and be entered of record after being put in form by the court if need be. [Report 1943; amendment 1973]

For judgment on verdict, see rule 223.
See also ch 624

205. Special verdicts. The court may require that the verdict consist wholly of special written findings on each issue of fact. It shall then submit in writing questions susceptible of categorical or brief answers, or forms of several special findings that the jury might properly make under the issues and evidence, or submit the issues and require the findings in any other appropriate manner. It shall so instruct the jury as to enable it to find upon each issue submitted. If the submission omits any issue of fact, any party not demanding submission of such issue before the jury retires waives jury trial thereof, and the court may find upon it; failing which, it shall be deemed found in accord with the judgment on the special verdict. The court shall direct such judgment on the special verdict and answers as is appropriate thereto. [Report 1943]

See also ch 624

206. Interrogatories. The jury in any case in which it renders a general verdict may be required by the court, and must be so required on the request of any party to the action, to find specially upon any particular questions of fact, to be stated to it in writing, which questions in fact shall be submitted to the attorneys of the adverse party before argument to the jury is commenced. The instructions shall be such as will enable the jury to answer the interrogatories and return the verdict. If both are harmonious, the court shall order the appropriate judgment. If the answers are consistent with each other, but any is inconsistent with the general verdict, the court may order judgment appropriate to the answers notwithstanding the verdict, or a new trial, or send the jury back for further deliberation. If the answers are inconsistent with each other, and any is inconsistent with the verdict, the court shall not order judgment, but either send the jury back or order a new trial. [Report 1943]

See federal rule 49

207. Reference. A “master” includes a referee, auditor or examiner. On a showing of exceptional conditions requiring it, the court may appoint a master as to any issues not to be tried to a jury. The clerk shall forthwith furnish the master with a copy of the order appointing him. [Report 1943]

See also ch 624

208. Compensation. The court shall fix the master’s compensation and order it paid or advanced by such parties, or from such fund or property, as it may deem just. Execution may issue on such order at the master’s demand. He shall not retain his reports as security for his compensation. [Report 1943]

See also ch 624
209. Powers. The order may specify or limit the master's powers or duties or the issue on which he is to report, or the time within which he shall hold hearings or file his report; or specify that he merely take and report evidence. But except as so limited he shall have and exercise power to regulate all proceedings before him; to administer oaths and to do all acts and take all measures appropriate for the efficient performance of his duties; to compel production before him of any witness or party, whom he may himself examine, or of any evidence on any matters embraced in the reference, and to rule on admissibility of evidence. He shall, on request, make a record of evidence offered and excluded. He may appoint a shorthand reporter whose fees shall be advanced by the requesting party. [Report 1943]

See also ch 624

210. Speedy hearing. Upon his appointment the master shall forthwith notify the parties of the time and place of their first meeting before him, which shall be within twenty days or such other time as the court's order may fix. If a party so notified fails to appear, the master may proceed ex parte, or, in his discretion, adjourn to a future day, giving notice thereof to the absent party. It is the duty of the master to proceed with all reasonable diligence; and the court, after notice to the master and the parties, may order him to expedite proceedings or make his report. [Report 1943]

See also ch 624

211. Witnesses. Any party may subpoena witnesses before a master as for trial in open court; and a witness failing to appear or testify without good cause shall be subject to the same punishment and consequences. [Report 1943]

See also ch 624

212. Accounts. The master may prescribe the form for submission of accounts which are in issue before him. In any proper case he may require or receive in evidence the statement of a certified public accountant who testifies as a witness. If any item submitted or stated is objected to, or shown insufficient in form, the master may require that a different form be furnished, or that the accounts or any item thereof be proved by oral testimony or written interrogatories of the accounting parties, or in such other manner as he directs. [Report 1943]

See also ch 624

213. Filing report. The master shall file with the clerk the original exhibits, and a transcript of the proceedings and evidence before him, if there be one, otherwise his summary thereof, with his report on the matters submitted to him in the order of reference, including separate findings and conclusions if so ordered. He may previously submit a draft of his report to counsel for their suggestions. [Report 1943]

See also ch 624

214. Disposition. The clerk shall forthwith mail notice of filing the report to all attorneys of record; and within ten days thereafter, unless the court enlarges the time, any party may file written objections to it. Application for action on said report, or objections, shall be by motion, to be heard on such notice as the court prescribes. The report shall have the same effect whether or not the reference was by consent; but where parties stipulate that the master’s findings shall be final, only questions of law arising upon the report shall thereafter be considered. The court shall accept the master’s findings of fact unless clearly erroneous; and may adopt, reject or modify the report wholly or in any part, or recommit it with instructions. [Report 1943]

See also ch 624

215. Voluntary dismissal. A party may, without order of court, dismiss his own petition, counterclaim, cross-petition or petition of intervention, at any time before the trial has begun. Thereafter a party may dismiss his action or his claim therein only by consent of the court which may impose such terms or conditions as it deems proper; and it shall require the consent of any other party asserting a counterclaim against the movant, unless that will still remain for an independent adjudication. A dismissal under this rule shall be without prejudice, unless otherwise stated; but if made by any party who has previously dismissed an action against the same defendant, in any court of any state or of the United States, including or based on the same cause, such dismissal shall operate as an adjudication against him on the merits, unless otherwise ordered by the court, in the interests of justice. 215.1. Uniform rule for dismissal for want of prosecution. It is the declared policy that in the exercise of reasonable diligence every civil and special action, except under unusual circumstances, shall be brought to issue and tried within one year from the date it is filed and docketed and in most instances within a shorter time.

All cases at law or in equity where the petition has been filed more than one year prior to July 15 of any year shall be for trial at any time prior to January 1 of the next succeeding year. The clerk shall prior to August 15 of each year give notice to counsel of record as provided in rule 82 of:

(a) the docket number,
(b) the names of parties,
(c) counsel appearing,
(d) date of filing petition, and the notice shall state that such case will be for trial and subject to dismissal if not tried prior to January 1 of the next succeeding year pursuant to this rule. All such cases shall be assigned and tried or dismissed without prejudice at plaintiff's costs unless satisfactory reasons for want of prosecution or grounds for continuance be shown by application and findings thereon after notice and not ex parte. This rule shall not apply to cases (a) pending on appeal from a court of record to a higher court or under order of submission to the court; (b) in which proceedings subsequent to judgment or decree are pending; (c) which have been stayed pursuant to the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act [40 Stat. L. 440; now covered by 50 USC App. §501 et seq.]; (d) which have been filed but in which plaintiff has been unable by due diligence to obtain service of original notice; (e) where a party is paying a claim pursuant to written stipulation on file or court order; and (f) awaiting the action of a referee, master or other court appointed officer; provided, however, that a finding as to "a" through "f" is made and entered of record.

No continuance under this rule shall be by stipulation of parties alone but must be by order of court. Where appropriate the order of continuance shall be to a date certain.

The trial court may, in its discretion, and shall upon a showing that such dismissal was the result of oversight, mistake or other reasonable cause, reinstate the action or actions so dismissed. Application for such reinstatement, setting forth the grounds therefor, shall be filed within six months from the date of dismissal. [Report 1961; amended by 61GA, ch 487,§2; amendment 1969]

See also ch 624

216. Involuntary dismissal. A party may move for dismissal of any action or claim against him or for any appropriate order of court, if the party asserting it fails to comply with these rules or any order of court. After the plaintiff has completed his evidence, a defendant may move for dismissal because plaintiff has shown no right to relief, under the law or facts, without waiving his right to offer evidence thereafter. [Report 1943; amendment 1967]

217. Effect of dismissal. All dismissals not governed by rule 215 or not for want of jurisdiction or improper venue, shall operate as adjudications on the merits unless they specify otherwise. [Report 1943]

218. Costs of previously dismissed action. Where a plaintiff sues on a cause of action that was previously dismissed against the same defendant in any court of any state or the United States the court may stay such suit until the costs of the prior action are paid. [Report 1943]

(B) Judgments generally

219. Judgment defined. Every final adjudication of any of the rights of the parties in an action is a judgment. [Report 1943]

The findings and judgment must distinguish between matter in abatement and bar; and a judgment in abatement and not on the merits must so declare. [Report 1943]

Bar or abatement, see also rule 103.

See also ch 624

221. As to some parties only. Where the action involves two or more parties, the court may, in its discretion, and though it has jurisdiction of them all, render judgment for or against some of them only, whenever the prevailing party would have been entitled thereto had the action involved him alone, or whenever a several judgment is proper; leaving the action to proceed as to the other parties. Judgment on the pleadings, etc. Any party may, at any time, on motion, have any judgment to which he is entitled under the uncontroverted facts stated in all the pleadings, or on any portion of his claim or defense which is not controverted, leaving the action to proceed as to any other matter of which such judgment does not dispose. (D) Summary judgments

237. On what claims. Summary judgment may be had under the following conditions and circumstances:

(a) For claimant. A party seeking to recover upon a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim or to obtain a declaratory judgment may, at any time after the appearance day or after filing of a motion for summary judgment by the adverse party, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in his favor upon all or any part thereof.

(b) For defending party. A party against whom a claim, counterclaim, or cross-claim is asserted or a declaratory judgment is sought may, at any time, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in his favor as to all or any part thereof.

(c) Motion and proceedings thereon. The motion shall be filed at least ten days before the time fixed for the hearing. The adverse party prior to the day of hearing may file opposing affidavits. The judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law.

A summary judgment, interlocutory in character, may be rendered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages.

(d) Case not fully adjudicated on motion. If on motion under this rule judgment is not rendered upon the whole case or for all the relief asked and a trial is necessary, the court at the hearing of the motion, by examining the pleadings and the evidence before it and by interrogating counsel, shall if practicable ascertain what material facts exist without substantial controversy and what material facts are actually and in good faith controverted. It shall thereupon make an order specifying the facts that appear without substantial controversy, including the extent to which the amount of damages or other relief is not in controversy, and directing such further proceedings in the action as are just. Upon the trial of the action the facts so specified shall be deemed established, and the trial shall be conducted accordingly.

(e) Form of affidavits—Further testimony—Defense required. Supporting and opposing affidavits shall be made on personal knowledge, shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, and shall show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein. Sworn or certified copies of all papers or parts thereof referred to in an affidavit shall be attached thereto or filed therewith. The court may permit affidavits to be supplemented or opposed by depositions, answers to interrogatories, further affidavits, or oral testimony. When a motion for summary judgment is made and supported as provided in this rule, an adverse party may not rest upon the mere allegations or denials of his pleading, but his response, by affidavits or as otherwise provided in this rule, must set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial. If he does not so respond, summary judgment, if appropriate, shall be entered against him.

(f) When affidavits are unavailable. Should it appear from the affidavits of a party opposing the motion that he cannot for reasons stated present by affidavit facts essential to justify his opposition, the court may refuse the application for judgment or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just.

(g) Affidavits made in bad faith. Should it appear to the satisfaction of the court at any time that any of the affidavits presented pursuant to this rule are presented in bad faith or solely for the purpose of delay, the court shall forthwith order the party employing them to pay to the other party the amount of the reasonable expenses which the filing of the affidavits caused him to incur, including reasonable attorney's fees, and any offending party or attorney may be adjudged guilty of contempt. See also ch 624

239. On motion in other cases. Judgments may be obtained on motion by sureties against principals or cosureties for money due because paid by them as such; by clients against attorneys, by plaintiffs in execution against sheriffs, constables or other officers for money or property collected by them, and for damages; and in all other cases specially authorized by statute. [Report 1943]

Referred to in R.C.P. 240
See also ch 624.925.19

240. Procedure. If motion under rule 239 is filed in an action already pending, the procedure shall be as in rule 237. Otherwise notice shall be served on the party against whom relief is sought at least ten days before the hearing thereof, stating when the motion will be filed and, in plain ordinary language, its nature and grounds, fixing the time and place of the hearing thereon. If the motion is not filed by the day specified it shall be deemed abandoned, if it is filed the court shall hear it at the time fixed in the notice without further pleadings, and give judgment according to the very right of the matter. [Report 1913; amendment 1967]

For declaratory judgments, a species of special action, see rule 261, et seq.
See also ch 624

Time computed, §4.1(22)
241. Bill of exceptions.

(a) When necessary. A bill of exceptions shall be necessary only to effect a showing of material portions of the record of the cause not shown by the court files, entries, or legally certified shorthand notes of the trial, if any.

(b) Affidavits. Not more than five affidavits in support of any exception may be filed with the bill. Controverting affidavits, not exceeding five, may be filed within seven days thereafter; the court, for good cause shown, may extend the time for filing such affidavits.

(c) Certification — judge — bystanders. The proposed bill of exceptions shall be promptly presented to the trial judge, who shall sign it if it fairly presents the facts. If he refuses, and counsel so certifies, and at least two bystanders attest in writing that the exceptions are correctly stated, the bill thus certified and attested shall be filed and become part of the record.

(d) Disability. Whenever the judge or master who tried the cause is for any reason unable to sign a bill of exceptions or certify the shorthand reporter's record, the same may be done by his successor, or by any judge of the court in which the proceeding was pending. [Report 1943]

242. New trial defined. A new trial is the re-examination in the same court of any issue of fact or part thereof, after a verdict, or master's report, or a decision of the court. [Report 1943]

243. Judgment notwithstanding verdict, etc. Any party may, on motion, have judgment in his favor despite an adverse verdict, or the jury's failure to return any verdict:

(a) If the pleadings of the opposing party omit to aver some material fact or facts necessary to constitute a complete cause of action or defense and the motion clearly specifies such failure or omission; or

(b) If the movant was entitled to have a verdict directed for him at the close of all the evidence, and moved therefor, and the jury did not return such verdict, the court may then either grant a new trial or enter judgment as though it had directed a verdict for the movant. [Report 1943]

244. New trial. The aggrieved party may, on motion, have an adverse verdict, decision or report or some portion thereof vacated and a new trial granted, for any of the following causes, but only if they materially affected his substantial rights:

(a) Irregularity in the proceedings of the court, jury, master, or prevailing party; or any order of the court or master or abuse of discretion which prevented the movant from having a fair trial;

(b) Misconduct of the jury or prevailing party;

(c) Accident or surprise which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against;

(d) Excessive or inadequate damages appearing to have been influenced by passion or prejudice;

(e) Error in fixing the amount of the recovery, whether too large or too small, in an action upon contract or for injury to or detention of property;

(f) That the verdict, report or decision is not sustained by sufficient evidence, or is contrary to law;

(g) Material evidence, newly discovered, which could not with reasonable diligence have been discovered and produced at the trial;

(h) Errors of law occurring in the proceedings, or mistakes of fact by the court;

(i) On any ground stated in rule 243, the motion specifying the defect or cause giving rise thereto. [Report 1943; amendment 1945]

For setting aside defaults, see rule 236; other new trials, see rules 251 and 252. [Report 1943]

245. Motion—affidavits. Motion under rules 243 and 244 shall be in writing; and if based on grounds stated in rule 244 "b", 244 "c", or 244 "g" may be sustained and controverted by affidavits and heard pursuant to rule 116. [Report 1943]

246. Stay. If motions under rule 243 or 244 or petition under rule 252 are timely filed, the court may, in its discretion and on such terms, if any, as it deems proper order a stay of any or all further proceedings, executions or process to enforce the judgment, pending disposition of such motion or petition. [Report 1943]

247. Time for motions and exceptions. Motions under rules 243 and 244 and bills of exception under rule 241 must be filed within ten days after the verdict, report or decision is filed, or the jury is discharged, as the case may be, unless the court, for good cause shown and not ex parte, grants an additional time not to exceed thirty days. [Report 1943]

248. Conditional rulings on grant of motion. Any motion may be filed under rule 243 or 244 without waiving the right to file or rely on any other of such motions.

(a) If the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict provided for in rule 243 is granted, the court shall also rule on the motion for a new trial, if any, by determining whether it should be granted if the judgment is thereafter vacated or reversed, and shall specify the grounds for granting or denying the motion for the new trial. If the motion for a new trial is thus conditionally granted, the order thereon does not affect the finality of the judgment. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally granted and the judgment is reversed on appeal, the new trial shall proceed unless otherwise ordered by the supreme court. In case the motion for a new trial has been conditionally granted and the judgment is reversed on appeal, the appellant on appeal may assert error in that denial; and if the judgment is reversed on appeal, subsequent proceedings shall be in accordance with the order of the supreme court.

(b) The party whose verdict has been set aside on motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict may file a motion for a new trial pursuant to rule 244, not later than ten days after the entry of the judgment notwithstanding the verdict. [Report 1943; amendment 1953; amendment 1973]

249. Issues tried by consent — amendment. In deciding motions under rule 243 or 244, the court shall treat issues actually tried by express or implied consent of the parties as though they had been pleaded. Either party may then amend to conform his pleadings to such issues and the evidence upon them; but failure so to amend shall not affect the result of the trial. [Report 1943]

Amendments generally, R.C.P. 88
See also ch 624

250. Conditional new trial. The court may permit a party to avoid a new trial under rule 243 or 244 by agreeing to such terms or conditions as it may impose, which shall then be shown of record and a judgment entered accordingly.

Any such term or condition or judgment entered pursuant thereto shall be deemed of no force and effect and the original judgment entered pursuant to rule 223 shall be deemed reinstated in the event of an appeal. [Report 1943; amendment 1953]

See also ch 624

251. Retrial after published notice.

(a) Retrial. Except in actions for divorce and annulment of marriage, if judgment is entered against a defendant who did not appear and was served only by publication and mailing, as provided in rule 60.1, he or any person legally representing him may apply for retrial within six months after entry of judgment, and on giving security for costs is then entitled to his defense and trial as though there were no judgment.

(b) New judgment. After such retrial, the court may confirm the judgment, or modify or set it aside and order a party to restore any money or property remaining in his possession under it, or to repay the value of any money or property he thus received. [Report 1943; amendment 1951]

(a) Petition. A petition for relief under rule 252 must be filed in the original action within one year after the rendition of the judgment or order involved. It shall state the grounds for relief, and, if it seeks a new trial, show that they could not have been discovered in time to proceed under rule 236 or 244, and were discovered afterwards. Unless the pleadings in the original action alleged a meritorious action or defense the petition shall do so. It shall be supported by affidavit as provided in rule 80"b".

(b) Notice. After filing the petition, and also within the year aforesaid, petitioner must serve the adverse party with an original notice which could not with reasonable diligence be served or published as provided in §647.2.

(c) Trial. The court shall promptly assign the petition for trial, not less than twenty days after notice is served. The petition shall stand denied without answer; otherwise the issues and pleadings, and form and manner of the trial shall be the same, as nearly as may be, as in the trial of an ordinary action to the court, and with the same right of appeal. No new cause of action shall be introduced.

260. Levy on personality. Levy on personality may be made under an attachment or general execution by either of the following methods, but no lien is created until compliance with one of them.

(a) By the officer taking possession of the property, and appending to the execution its exact description at length, with the date of the levy, and affixing his signature; or

The declaration may be either affirmative or negative in form or effect, and such declarations shall have the force and effect of a final decree. After a sale, each party, including holders of liens from which the property has been freed by the sale, shall have the same rights or interests in the proceeds as they had in the property sold, subject to a prior charge for costs. [Report 1943]

See also ch 651

277. Estate less than fee. The court shall make suitable provision as to the proceeds of any share held for life or years or in remainder, which may be done by appointing a trustee for the proceeds involved. [Report 1943]

See also ch 651

278. Division or sale. Property shall be partitioned by sale and division of the proceeds, unless a party prays for partition in kind by its division into parcels, and shows that such partition is equitable and practicable. But personalty which is subject to any lien on the whole or any part can only be partitioned by sale. [Report 1943]

See also ch 651

279. Decree. The decree shall establish the shares and interests of the owners in the property. A decree for partition in kind shall appoint three referees unless the parties agree on a smaller number. A decree ordering a sale shall appoint one or more referees, and three disinterested freeholders to appraise the property, and may direct either a public or private sale. All other matters involved in the cause, including those relating to liens, may be determined by the same decree, or later supplemental decree or decrees. [Report 1943]

Sale for less than appraisement, see rule 291.
See also ch 651

280. Liens. The court shall by supplemental decree, adjudge the nature, extent, priority or validity of any lien of any party, not previously determined, after causing the referees to give such notice to the interested parties as it may prescribe, and upon issues made up as the court directs. No partition in kind shall be had until after such adjudication; but a sale need not wait thereon, and the pendency of any such controversy shall not delay distribution of the proceeds to any party not affected by the lien. [Report 1943]

See also ch 651

281. Sale free of liens. Personalty must be sold free of liens. Real property must be sold free of all liens, except those which are held against the entire property sold. [Report 1943]

For initial or supplemental decree as to liens, see rules 279 and 280.
See also ch 651

282. Possession and preservation of property. The court may order the referee to lease or take possession of any property involved in the action. It may also preserve the property either by injunction or by any other appropriate provision for its care and custody. Expenses incurred under this rule, when allowed by the court, shall be part of the costs. [Report 1943]

See also ch 651

283. Referees to divide — oath — inability. Referees authorized to make partition in kind shall qualify by taking oath and need give no bond. If they are unable to make such division, they shall so report to the court, which will then order a sale of personal property without further notice. As to real estate, such report will be heard under rule 286, whereupon any further decree of sale or otherwise, may be made which is proper under the exigencies of the case. [Report 1943]

See also ch 651

284. Partition in kind. The referees who partition real estate in kind shall mark out each parcel by visible monuments, and file report thereof. They may employ a surveyor or assistants to aid them, if necessary, whose fees and expenses, when allowed by the court, shall be part of the costs. [Report 1943]

See also ch 651

See also ch 651
286. Report — notice — hearing. The court shall promptly fix a time and place of hearing thereon, and the referee shall give at least ten days' notice thereof in such manner as the court directs. On hearing, the court may approve, modify or disapprove the report, and refer it to the same or different referees or order a sale. [Report 1943]

Referred to in R.C.P. 283

287. Decree—recording.

(a) Decree—costs. On approving a partition in kind, the court shall enter a decree allotting each party the property or share set off to him, apportioning the costs among the allottees and entering judgment against each for his share thereof, which shall be a lien on the property allotted to him, and for which special execution may issue on demand of anyone interested.

Further as to costs, see rule 293.

(b) Recording. If the decree involves real estate, the clerk shall file with the recorder of his own county and each other county where any of the real estate lies, a certified transcript of so much of the decree as shows the book and page where it is recorded, the confirmation of the shares and interests in the property apportioned, the names of the parties found entitled to share therein, and an accurate description of each parcel allotted to each several owner. Such transcript shall be presented to the county auditor for transfer, and recorded in the deed records, and indexed as a conveyance of each parcel, with the name of the allottee as grantee and names of all other parties as grantors. [Report 1943]

Referred to in R.C.P. 283
See also ch 651

288. Referees to sell—bond. A referee to make sale shall qualify by taking oath. No bond shall be required before the referee conveys real estate unless he is to sell personally or take possession of real estate or is to receive a payment on the sale before conveyance, in which case, he shall give such bond as the court directs. Before conveying real estate, he shall also give bond for one hundred twenty-five percent of the total sale price, payable to the parties entitled to the proceeds, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties in connection with the sale and its proceeds. [Report 1943; amendment 1945]

See also ch 651

289. Sales—notice—expense—approval.

(a) Approval. All sales shall be subject to the approval of the court, unless it dispenses with approval of a public sale of personality, which may then be sold on full payment of the price bid.

(b) Expense. If authorized by the court, referees may advertise the sale beyond the required notice, or employ an auctioneer, clerk or assistant; and the expense thereof when allowed by the court, shall be part of the costs.

(c) Notice of public sale. The referees shall give notice of the time and place of any public sale, by two publications, at least six days apart, in some newspaper of general circulation in the county where the sale is to be held. The last publication shall be at least seven days prior to the sale in case of real estate, and at least four days prior thereto in case of personality. [Report 1943]

Notice, §625.74 et seq.
See also ch 651

(a) Generally. The referees shall report all proposed sales to the court, which in its discretion, may require a hearing thereon at a specified time and place, in which event the referees shall give notice to the interested parties as the court then directs.

(b) Notice mandatory. Such notice and hearing must be accorded to any party who, before the report is approved, files with the clerk, a duplicate request therefor, bearing his name and the address to which notice is to be sent. The clerk shall docket the request, and transmit the copy to any referee forthwith, or if none has been appointed, then as soon as appointment is made. The referee shall mail notice of the hearing to such party at his address shown in the request within a time prescribed by the court, which may direct that other parties be also notified. [Report 1943]

See also ch 651

291. Approving sale—conveyance. The court by express order may approve a private sale though it be for less than the appraised value. No real estate shall be conveyed until the sale is approved by the court; and no conveyance shall be made until the price is fully paid. [Report 1943]

See also ch 651

292. Deed — validity. A referee's deed, recorded in the county where the land lies, shall be valid against all subsequent purchasers, and against all persons interested at the time, who were parties to the proceeding. [Report 1943]

See also ch 651

293. Costs. All costs shall be advanced by the plaintiff, but eventually paid by all parties proportionately to their interests; except costs created by contests, which shall be taxed against the losing contestant unless otherwise ordered. No contest shall deprive plaintiff's attorney of the fee specified in rule 294. If partition is in kind, costs shall be adjudged, and may be collected as provided in rule 287"a". If partition is by sale, the costs shall be paid from the proceeds and deducted from the shares of the parties against whom they are taxed. These remedies for collecting costs shall be cumulative of other remedies. [Report 1943]

See also ch 651

294. Attorney fees. On partition of real estate, but not of personally, the court shall fix, and tax as costs, a fee in favor of plaintiff's attorney, which cannot exceed the following amount, computed on the sale price, or by appraisal if no sale is made:

1. On the first two hundred dollars or fraction thereof obtained, ten percent;
2. On the excess of two hundred to five hundred dollars, five percent;
3. On the excess of five hundred to one thousand dollars, three percent; and
4. On all sums in excess of one thousand dollars, two percent. Provided further that in contested partition cases, plaintiff's attorney shall receive such additional reasonable compensation as the court may allow, to be taxed as part of the costs. [Report 1943; amendment 1953]

Referred to in R.C.P. 293

See also ch 651

295. Other fees. Appraisers and referees in all partition suits, as well as any attorney employed by a referee with approval of the court, shall receive such reasonable compensation as the court allows, which shall be part of the costs. [Report 1943]

See also ch 651

296. Final reports. Unless all interested parties waive it in writing, the court shall fix a time and place of hearing the referee's final report, and prescribe the time and manner of notice which the referees shall give to all interested persons. [Report 1943]

See also ch 651

297. Paying small sums. Whenever a minor, having no legal guardian, is entitled to proceeds of a partition sale, not in excess of one thousand dollars, the court may order the referee discharged of all liability therefor, by paying them to the minor's parent or natural guardian, or the person with whom he resides, for the use of such minor, and taking a receipt therefor. [Report 1943; amendment 1961; amendment 1973]

See also ch 651 and §§633.108, 633.676, 633.678, 633.681

298. Unborn parties. When a person not in being may have a contingent or a prospective vested interest as a cotenant of real estate, the court shall have jurisdiction over the interest of such person, and shall appoint a suitable guardian ad litem, to act for him in such proceeding, and rules 12 to 14 shall apply in such cases. The decree of partition and the division or sale thereunder shall be of the same force and effect as to all such persons, or persons claiming by, through or under them, as though they were in being when the decree was entered, and the property or proceeds of the interest of such person shall be subject to the order of the court until the right thereto becomes fully vested. (b) A public officer who has done or suffered to be done, an act which works a forfeiture of his office; or
(c) Acting as a corporation in Iowa without being authorized by law so to act; or
(d) A corporation exercising powers not conferred by law, or doing or omitting acts, which work a forfeiture of its corporate rights or privileges; or
(e) A person or corporation claiming under a patent, permit, certificate of convenience and necessity or license of any nature which was granted by the state because of fraud, or mistake or ignorance of a material fact, or the terms of which have expired or been violated by the defendant, or which the defendant has in any manner forfeited. The action in such cases shall be to annul or vacate the patent, permit, certificate or license in question. [Report 1943]

See also ch 660

300. By whom brought.

(a) The county attorney of the county where the action lies may bring it in his discretion, and must do so when directed by the governor, general assembly or the supreme or district court, unless he may be a defendant, in which event the attorney general may, and shall when so directed, bring the action.

(b) If on demand of any citizen of the state, the county attorney fails to bring the action, the attorney general may do so, or such citizen may apply to the court where the action lies for leave to bring it. name them; and they may be made parties. [Report 1943]

See also ch 660

(a) The judgment shall determine all rights and claims of all parties respecting the matters involved, and shall include any provision necessary to enforce their rights as so determined, or to accomplish the objects of the decision.

(b) The judgment shall also determine which party, if any, is entitled to hold any office in controversy.

(c) If a party is unlawfully holding or exercising any office, franchise or privilege, or if a corporation has violated the law by which it exists or been guilty of any act or omission which amounts to a surrender or forfeiture of its privileges, the judgment shall oust such party from such office or franchise, or forfeit such privilege, and forbid such party to exercise or use any such office, franchise or privilege.

(d) If a party has merely exercised powers or privileges to which he was not entitled, but which does not warrant forfeiture under the law, the judgment shall prohibit him from the further exercise thereof. [Report 1943]

DIVISION XIV
CERTIORARI

306. When writ may issue. A writ of certiorari shall only be granted when specifically authorized by statute; or where an inferior tribunal, board or officer, exercising judicial functions, is alleged to have exceeded its, or his proper jurisdiction or otherwise acted illegally. [Report 1943]

307. Title. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the petitioner as plaintiff, against the inferior tribunal, board or officer as defendant. [Report 1943]

308. Other remedies. The writ shall not be denied or annulled because plaintiff has another plain, speedy or adequate remedy; but the relief by way of certiorari shall be strictly limited to questions of jurisdiction or illegality of the acts complained of, unless otherwise specially provided by statute. [Report 1943]

See also rule 107 as to treating petition as one for other proper relief.

309. The writ. The writ may be granted only by the district court unless it is directed to that court or a municipal or superior court; and then by the supreme court or a justice thereof. It shall be issued by the clerk of the court where the petition is filed, under its seal. It shall command the defendant to certify to that court, at a specified time and place, a transcript of so much of defendant's records and proceedings as are complained of in the petition or as may be pertinent thereto, together with the facts of the case, describing or referring to them or any of them with convenient certainty; and also to have then and there the writ. [Report 1943]

310. Stay—bond. The court or justice granting the writ may, in its or his discretion, stay the original proceedings, though no stay is asked. Such stay, when sought by plaintiff, can be granted only on his filing bond with penalty and conditions, including security for costs, prescribed by such court or justice, and sureties approved by it or its clerk. [Report 1943]

311. Notice of issuing writ. The writ may issue without notice on filing the petition, unless it is filed before a final order or decree in the original proceedings, or the plaintiff seeks a stay. Before issuing the writ in the latter cases, the court or justice shall, and in any case may in his discretion, fix a time and place for hearing and prescribe reasonable notice to defendant thereof. Such hearing shall be confined to the sufficiency of the petition, what records or proceedings shall be certified, and the terms of any bond to be given. [Report 1943]

312. Service of writ. Unless the defendant accepts service of the writ, it shall be served by a sheriff or deputy sheriff. If directed to a court, service shall be on a judge or clerk thereof; if to a board or other tribunal on its secretary, clerk or any member. Service shall be by delivery of the original writ; and a copy, with return of service, shall be returned to the office of its issuance. [Report 1943]

Personal service, R.C.P. 66

313. Return to writ—by whom. Where the writ is directed to a court, return thereto, if practicable, shall be made and signed by the judge whose action is complained of, otherwise by any judge of that court; where directed to an officer, he shall make and sign the return where directed to a board or tribunal, return thereto shall be made and signed by its presiding officer, or its clerk or secretary. [Report 1943]
314. Defective return. If the return is defective, the court or justice who issued the writ, on his own motion or that of any party, may order a further return; or compel obedience to the writ or to such order, by attachment or citation for contempt. [Report 1943]

315. Trial. When full return has been made, the court shall fix a time and place of hearing, and hear the parties upon the record made by the return. In its discretion, it may receive any transcript of the evidence taken in the original proceeding, and such other oral or written evidence as is explanatory of the matters contained in the return. Such transcript and additional evidence shall be considered for the sole purpose of determining the legality of the proceedings, and the sufficiency of the evidence before the original tribunal, board or officer to sustain its, or his action, unless otherwise specially provided by statute. [Report 1943]

316. Judgment limited. Unless otherwise specially provided by statute, the judgment on certiorari shall be limited to sustaining the proceedings below, or annulling the same wholly or in part, to the extent that they were illegal or in excess of jurisdiction, and prescribe the manner in which either party may proceed further, nor shall such judgment substitute a different or amended decree or order for that being reviewed. [Report 1943]

317. Nature of proceeding. The action shall be by ordinary proceedings, so far as applicable. [Report 1943]

318. Appeal. Appeal to the supreme court lies from a judgment of the district court in a certiorari proceeding, and will be governed by the rules applicable to appeals in ordinary actions. [Report 1943]

319. Limitation. No writ of certiorari shall issue or be sustained unless the petition is filed within thirty days from the time the inferior tribunal, board or officer exceeded its jurisdiction or otherwise acted illegally. [Report 1943; amendment 1973]

DIVISION XV

INJUNCTIONS

320. Independent or auxiliary remedy. An injunction may be obtained as an independent remedy by an action in equity, or as an auxiliary remedy in any action. In either case, the party applying therefor may claim damages or other relief in the same action. An injunction may be granted as part of the judgment; or may be granted by order at any prior stage of the proceedings, and is then known as a temporary injunction. [Report 1943]

321. Temporary—when allowed. A temporary injunction may be allowed:

(a) When the petition, supported by affidavit, shows the plaintiff is entitled to relief which includes restraining the commission or continuance of some act which would greatly or irreparably injure him, or,

(b) Where, during the litigation, it appears that a party is doing, procuring or suffering to be done, or threatens or is about to do, an act violating the other party's right respecting the subject of the action and tending to make the judgment ineffectual, or,

(c) In any case specially authorized by statute. [Report 1943]

322. Endorsing refusal. A court, or justice of the supreme court, refusing a temporary injunction shall endorse the refusal on the petition therefor. [Report 1943]

323. Statement re prior presentation. A petition seeking a temporary injunction shall state, or the attorney shall certify thereon, whether a petition for the same relief, or part thereof, has been previously presented to and refused by any court or justice, and if so, by whom and when. [Report 1943]

324. Outside district. No temporary injunction shall be granted by a district court different from the one where the action is, or will be, pending, except upon affidavit that the application therefor cannot be promptly made to the latter court. [Report 1943]

325. By whom granted. A temporary injunction may be granted by:

(a) The court in which the action is or will be pending;

(b) The supreme court or a justice thereof;

(c) Any other district court, when permitted by rule 324. [Report 1943]

326. Notice. Before granting a temporary injunction, the court may require reasonable notice of the time and place of hearing therefore to be given the parties to be enjoined. Such notice and hearing must be had for a temporary injunction to stop the general and ordinary business of a corporation, or the operations of a railway or of a municipal corporation, or the erection of a building or other work, or the board of supervisors of a county, or to restrain a nuisance. [Report 1943]

327. Bond. The order directing a temporary injunction must require that before the writ issues, a bond be filed, with a penalty to be specified in the order, which shall be one hundred twenty-five percent of the probable liability to be incurred. Such bond with sureties to be approved by the clerk, shall be conditioned to pay all damages which may be adjudged against the petitioner by reason of the injunction. But in actions for divorce, separate maintenance or annulment of marriage, the court in its discretion may waive any bond, or fix its penalty in any amount deemed just and reasonable [Report 1943]

*See ch 598

328. Dissolution. A party against whom a temporary injunction is issued without notice may, at any time, move the court where the action is pending to dissolve, vacate or modify it. Such motion shall be submitted to the court. But if the injunction was granted by a justice or court of a different district under rule 324, the court or justice that ordered it shall hear the motion, if it be shown by affidavit, that prompt hearing cannot be obtained in the court where the action is pending [Report 1943]

Referred to in §§2011, 2012

329. Enjoining proceedings or judgment—venue — bond. An action seeking to enjoin proceedings in a civil action or on a judgment or final order, must be brought in the county and court where such proceedings are pending or such judgment or order was obtained, unless that be the supreme court, in which case the action must be brought in the court from which appeal was taken. Any bond in such action must be further conditioned to pay or comply with such judgment or order, or to pay any judgment that may be recovered against the petitioner on the cause of action enjoined [Report 1943]

Referred to in §§2011, 2012

330. Violation as contempt. Violation of any provision of any temporary or permanent injunction shall constitute contempt and be punished accordingly [Report 1943]

Referred to in §§2011, 2012

DIVISION XVI

APPELLATE PROCEDURE

Referred to in R C P 371
(Supreme Court may amend rules in this division without report to general assembly except rules 331 to 339)

See also chapter 686 of the Code

331. From final judgment.

(a) All final judgments and decisions of courts of record, and any final adjudication in the trial court under rule 86 involving the merits or materially affecting the final decision, may be appealed to the supreme court, except as provided in this rule and in rule 333. For the purpose of this rule any order granting a new trial (not including an order setting aside a judgment by default other than in actions for divorce* or annulment) and any order denying a new trial shall be deemed a final decision. Any order setting aside a default decree of divorce* or annulment shall also be deemed a final decision.

(b) No interlocutory ruling or decision may be appealed, except as provided in rule 332, until after the final judgment or order. No error in such interlocutory ruling or decision is waived by pleading over, or proceeding to trial. An appeal from the final judgment, there may be assigned as error such interlocutory ruling or decision or any final adjudication in the trial court under rule 86 from which no appeal has been taken, where such ruling, decision, or final adjudication is shown to have substantially affected the rights of the complaining party [Report 1943, amendment 1945, amendment 1961]

332. From interlocutory orders.

(a) Any party aggrieved by an interlocutory ruling or decision, including one appearing specially whose objections to jurisdiction have been overruled, may apply to the supreme court or any justice thereof to grant an appeal in advance of final judgment. Such appeal may be granted, after notice, and hearing as provided in rules 347 and 353, on finding that such ruling or decision involves substantial rights which would materially affect the final decision, and that a determination of its correctness before trial on the merits will better serve the interests of justice. No such application is necessary where the appeal is, pursuant to rule 331, from a final adjudication in the trial court under rule 86.

(b) The order granting such appeal may be on terms of advancing it for prompt submission. It shall stay further proceedings below, and may require bond [Report 1943; amendment 1945]

Referred to in R C P 331, 335, 352, 371
See also ch 686 and Supreme Court rules

333. Amount in controversy. Except where the action involves an interest in real estate, no appeal shall be taken in any case where the amount in controversy, as shown by the pleadings, is less than one thousand dollars, unless the trial judge, within thirty days after the judgment or order is entered, certifies that the cause is one in which appeal should be allowed. The right of appeal is not affected by any remission of any part of the verdict or judgment [Report 1943, amendment 1969]

Referred to in R C P 331, 335, 352, 371
See also ch 686 and Supreme Court rules

334. Scope of review. Review in equity cases shall be de novo. In all other cases the supreme court shall constitute a court for correction of errors at law, and findings of fact in jury waived cases shall have the effect of a special verdict [Report 1943]

Referred to in R C P 353, 371
See also ch 686 and Supreme Court rules

335. Time for appeal.

(a) Appeals to the supreme court must be taken within, and not after, thirty days from the entry of the order, judgment or decree, unless a motion for new trial or judgment notwithstanding the verdict is filed as provided in rule 247 "b" by motion as provided in rule 179 "b", and then within thirty days after the entry of the ruling on such motion; provided however that where an application to the supreme court or any justice thereof to grant an appeal under rule 332 is made within thirty days from the date of such ruling or decision any appeal allowed upon such application shall be deemed timely taken.

Provided further that if the supreme court or any justice determines that the order or decision from which application to appeal under rule 332 is timely made is a final judgment or decision from which appeal would lie under rule 331 an appeal therefrom shall also be deemed timely taken and perfecte and when the order making such determination is filed with the clerk of the supreme court and the provisions of rule 336 "b" and "c" shall apply.

Provided however a cross-appeal may be taken within said thirty-day period, or in any event within five days after the appeal is taken.

(b) No appeal from a judgment, ruling or order taken after it has actually been made by the trial court shall be held insufficient because the clerk of the trial court has not recorded such judgment, ruling or order upon the court records at the time the appeal is taken, if it shall appear that such record has been made before the appendix to the briefs is filed with said clerk. Time computed, §4.1(23)

(a) Appeal other than those allowed by order under rule 332 or rule 335 is taken and perfected by filing a notice with the clerk of the court where the order, judgment or decree was entered, signed by the appellant or his attorney. It shall specify the parties taking the appeal, and the decree, judgment, order or part thereof appealed from. The clerk shall forthwith mail or deliver a copy of such notice to the attorneys for all parties of record other than appellant, or to any such party who has no attorney of record, at his last known address. No failure of the clerk to mail or deliver such notice shall affect the validity of the appeal.

(b) Interlocutory appeal under rule 332 shall be deemed taken and perfected when the order allowing it is filed with the clerk of the supreme court. No notice of such appeal is necessary. The time for any further proceeding on such appeal which would run from the notice of appeal shall run from the date such order is so filed.

(c) The clerk of the supreme court shall promptly transmit a copy of such order to the attorneys of record and the clerk of the trial court; but no delay in so doing shall affect the validity of the appeal if the copy is filed before the abstract on such appeal is filed under rule 340." 337. Supersedeas—bond.

(a) No appeal shall stay proceedings under a judgment or order unless appellant executes a bond with sureties, to be filed with and approved by the clerk of the court where the judgment or order was entered. The condition of such bond shall be that he will satisfy and perform the judgment if affirmed, or any judgment or order, not exceeding in amount or value, the obligation of the judgment or order appealed from, which the supreme court may render or order to be rendered by the trial court; and also all costs and damages adjudged against him on the appeal, and all rents of or damage to property during the pendency of the appeal, of which appellant is deprived by reason of the appeal. (b) If the judgment or order appealed from be for money, the penalty of such bond shall be one hundred twenty-five percent of the amount, including costs, unless, in exceptional cases, the trial court fix a larger amount; in all other cases, an amount sufficient to save appellant harmless from the consequences of the appeal; but in no event less than three hundred dollars.

(c) No appeal shall vacate or affect the judgment or order appealed from; but the clerk shall issue a written order requiring the appellant and all others to stay proceedings under it, or such part of it as has been appealed from, when the appeal bond is filed and approved. [Report 1943]

338. Bond—hearing on sufficiency. If any party to an appeal is aggrieved by the clerk’s approval of, or refusal to approve, a supersedeas bond tendered by appellant, he may apply to the trial court, on at least three days’ notice to the adverse party, to review the clerk’s action. Pending such hearing, the court may recall or stay all proceedings under the order or judgment appealed from. On such hearing, it shall itself determine the sufficiency of the bond, and if the clerk has not approved the bond, the court shall, by written order, fix its conditions and determine the sufficiency of the security; or if the court determines that a bond approved by the clerk is insufficient in security or defective in form, it shall discharge such bond and fix a time for filing a new one; all as appears by the circumstances shown at the hearing. [Report 1943]

339. Judgment on bond. If the supreme court affirms the judgment appealed from, it may, on motion of the appellee, render judgment against appellant and the sureties on the appeal bond for the amount of the judgment, with damages and costs; or may remand the-cause to the trial court for the determination of such damages and costs, and the entry of judgment on the bond. [Report 1943]

340. The record on appeal.

(a) Composition of record on appeal. The original papers and exhibits filed in the trial court, the transcript of proceedings, if any, and a certified copy of the docket and court calendar entries prepared by the clerk of trial court shall constitute the record on appeal in all cases.

Referred to in R.C.P. 336

(b) Transcript; duty of appellant to order; notice if partial transcript ordered. Within ten days after filing the notice of appeal, the appellant shall order from the reporter a transcript of such parts of the proceedings not already on file as he deems necessary for inclusion in the record. If the appellant intends to urge on appeal that a finding or conclusion is unsupported by the evidence or is contrary to the evidence, he shall include in the record a transcript of all evidence relevant to such finding or conclusion. Unless the entire transcript is to be included, the appellant shall, within the time above provided, file and serve on the appellee a description of the parts of the transcript which he intends to include in the record and a statement of the issues he intends to present on appeal. If the appellee deems a transcript of other parts of the proceedings to be necessary, he shall, within ten days after the service of the statement of appellant, file and serve on the appellant a designation of additional parts to be included. If the appellant shall within four days fail or refuse to order such parts, the appellee shall either order the parts or apply to the trial court for an order requiring the appellant to do so. At the time of order, the party so ordering must make satisfactory arrangements with the reporter for payment of the cost of the transcript.

The reporter's transcript shall be filed with the clerk of the trial court within the time fixed or allowed for docketing the appeal; and these rules relative to it shall also apply to bills of exceptions under rule 241. The cost of the transcript shall be taxed in the trial court.

(c) Statement of the evidence or proceedings when no report was made or when the transcript is unavailable. If no report of the evidence or proceedings at a hearing or trial was made, or if a transcript is unavailable, the appellant may prepare a statement of the evidence or proceedings from the best available means, including his recollection. The statement shall be served on the appellee, who may serve objections or propose amendments thereto within ten days after service. Thereupon the statement and any objections or proposed amendments shall be submitted to the trial court for settlement and approval and as settled and approved shall be included in the record on appeal.

(d) Agreed statement as the record on appeal. The parties may prepare and sign a statement of the case showing how the issues presented by the appeal arose and were decided in the trial court and setting forth only so many of the facts averred and proved or sought to be proved as are essential to a decision of the issues presented. It shall be filed in the office of the clerk of trial court and be certified to the supreme court within the time provided in rule 311 "b" as the record on appeal. Copies of the agreed statement shall be filed as the appendix required by rule 344.1.

(e) Correction or modification of the record. If any difference arises as to whether the record truly discloses what occurred in the trial court, the difference shall be submitted to and settled by that court and the record made to conform to the truth. If anything material to either party is omitted from the record by error or accident or is misstated therein, the parties by stipulation, or the trial court, either before or after the record is transmitted to the supreme court, or the supreme court, on proper suggestion or on its own initiative, may direct that the omission or misstatement be corrected, and if necessary that a supplemental record be certified and transmitted. All other questions as to the form and content of the record shall be presented to the supreme court.

341. Transmission of record.

(a) Time for transmission of docket entries. Within fourteen days after the filing of the notice of appeal, the clerk of the trial court shall transmit a certified copy of the docket and calendar entries in the proceeding below to the clerk of the supreme court and all parties or their attorneys. The clerk shall thereupon prepare a docket page and assign a number to the case.

(b) Transmission of remaining record. Upon receipt of the brief of the appellee, or at such earlier time as the parties may agree or the court may order, the appellant shall request the clerk of the trial court to transmit the remaining record to the clerk of the supreme court, including the transcript and the exhibits necessary for the determination of the appeal. After filing the notice of appeal the appellant shall comply with the provisions of rule 340 "b" and shall take any other action necessary to enable the clerk of trial court to assemble and transmit the record. If more than one appeal is taken, each appellant shall comply with the provisions of rule 340 "b" and this subdivision.

When request is made by either party for transmission to the supreme court of portions of the record in addition to the certified copy of the docket entries, the clerk of the trial court shall transmit the same to the clerk of the supreme court. The clerk of the trial court shall transmit with the record a list of the documents and exhibits identified with reasonable definiteness. Documents of unusual bulk or weight and physical exhibits other than documents shall not be transmitted by the clerk unless he is directed to do so by a party or by the clerk of the supreme court. A party must make advance arrangements with the clerks for the transportation and receipt of exhibits of unusual bulk or weight.

Transmission of the record is effected when the clerk of the trial court mails or otherwise forwards the record to the clerk of the supreme court. The clerk of the trial court shall indicate, by endorsement on the face of the record or otherwise, the date upon which it is transmitted to the supreme court.

(c) Retention of trial record in trial court. If the record or any part thereof is required in the trial court pending the appeal, the trial court may make an order to that effect, and the clerk of the trial court shall retain the record or parts thereof subject to the request of the supreme court, and shall transmit a copy of the order and of the docket entries together with such parts of the original record as the parties may designate and as the trial court shall allow.

(d) Portions of record not transmitted. Any parts of the record which have not been transmitted to the supreme court shall, on the order of the supreme court or on the request of any party, be transmitted to the supreme court by the clerk of the trial court. The parts of the record not transmitted to the supreme court shall nevertheless be part of the record on appeal for all purposes. [Report 1943; Court Order March 24, 1972]

342. Docketing appeal; filing record.

(a) Docketing the appeal. Within forty days after the filing of the notice of appeal unless the time is shortened or extended by an order entered under rule 345.1, the appellant shall pay the docket fee to the clerk of the supreme court, and the clerk thereupon enter the appeal upon the docket. If an appellant is authorized by trial court or supreme court to prosecute the appeal without payment of fees, the clerk shall enter the appeal upon the docket at the request of the party within the time provided above. An appeal shall be docketed under the title given to the action in the trial court, with the appellant identified as such, but if such title does not contain the name of the appellant, his name identified as appellant, shall be added to the title. The clerk of the supreme court shall immediately give notice to all parties or their attorneys of the date on which the appeal is entered on the docket.

(b) Certificate of Ordering Transcript. The Certificate of Ordering Transcript shall be signed by appellant or his attorney and shall include the name of the reporter and the date on which the transcript was ordered from said reporter. Such certificate shall be filed with the clerk of the supreme court within fourteen days after filing notice of appeal.

(c) Dismissal for failure to transmit or docket. If the appellant shall fail to cause timely transmission of the record or to pay the docket fee when required, any appellee may file a motion in the supreme court to dismiss the appeal. The motion shall be supported by a certificate of the clerk of the trial court showing the date and substance of the judgment or order from which the appeal was taken, the date on which the notice of appeal was filed, the expiration date of any order extending the time for transmitting the record, and by proof of service. The appellant may respond within fourteen days of such service. The clerk shall docket the appeal for the purpose of permitting the court to entertain the motion without requiring payment of the docket fee, but the appellant shall not be permitted to respond without payment of the fee unless he is otherwise exempt from payment.

(d) Trial court jurisdiction. After an appeal is taken, the filing with the clerk of the trial court of a stipulation in which all parties agree to a dismissal of an appeal shall restore jurisdiction to the trial court for the entry of an order of dismissal of the appeal, which will be a final adjudication. The clerk of the trial court shall forward a copy of such stipulation and order to the clerk of the supreme court.

(e) Limited remand. The supreme court during appeal or pending application for appeal may remand the cause to the trial court which shall have jurisdiction for such specific proceedings as may be directed by the supreme court. 343. Filing and service of briefs.

(a) Time for serving and filing briefs. The appellant shall serve and file his brief within fifty days after the date on which the appeal is docketed. The appellee shall serve and file his brief within thirty days after service of the brief of the appellant. The appellant may serve and file a reply brief within fourteen days after service of the brief of the appellee, but, except for good cause shown, a reply brief must be filed at least three days before argument. The supreme court may shorten the periods prescribed above for serving and filing briefs, either by rule for all cases or for classes of cases, or by order for specific cases.

(b) Number of copies to be filed and served. Eighteen copies of each brief shall be filed with the clerk of the supreme court, unless the court by order in a particular case shall direct a different number; and two copies shall be served on counsel for each party separately represented. If a party is allowed to file type-written ribbon and carbon copies of the brief, the original and three legible copies shall be filed with the clerk, and one copy shall be served on counsel for each party separately represented.

(c) Consequence of failure to file briefs. If an appellant fails to file his brief within the time provided by this rule, or within the time as extended, an appellee may move for dismissal of the appeal. If an appellee fails to timely file his brief, he will not be heard at oral argument except by permission of the court.

344. Briefs.

(a) Appellant's brief. The brief of the appellant shall contain under appropriate headings and in the order here indicated:

1. A table of contents, with page references, and a table of cases (alphabetically arranged), statutes and other authorities cited, with reference to the pages of the brief where they are cited.

2. A statement of the issues presented for review which shall include a complete list of all cases and statutes referred to in the argument covering the point. The cases which are considered to be the most pertinent and convincing, not exceeding four in number, shall be printed in bold-face type.

3. A statement of the case. The statement shall first indicate briefly the nature of the case, the course of proceedings, and its disposition in the court below. There shall follow a statement of the facts relevant to the issues presented for review, with appropriate references to the record (see subdivision "g").

4. An argument. The argument may be preceded by a summary. The argument shall contain the contents of the apppellant with respect to the issues presented, and the reasons therefor, with citations to the authorities, statutes and parts of the record relied on.

5. A short conclusion stating the precise relief sought.

(b) Appellee's brief. The brief of the appellee shall conform to the requirements of subdivision "a"(1)-(5), except that a statement of the issues or of the case need not be made unless the appellee is dissatisfied with the statement of the appellant.

(c) Reply brief. The appellant may file a brief in reply to the brief of the appellee, and if the appellee has cross-appealed, the appellee may file a brief in reply to the response of the appellant to the issues presented by the cross-appeal. No further briefs may be filed except with leave of court.

(d) References in briefs to parties. Counsel will be expected in their briefs and oral arguments to keep to a minimum references to parties by such designations as "appellant" and "appellee". It promotes clarity to use the designations used in the lower court, or the actual names of the parties, or descriptive terms such as "the employee", "the injured person", "the taxpayer", "the decedent", etc.

(e) References in briefs to legal authorities. In citing cases the names of parties must be given. In citing cases determined by this court, reference must be made to the volume and page where the case may be found in the Iowa Reports, if reported therein, and also in the North Western Reporter, if reported therein. In citing cases from other jurisdictions, reference must be made to the court that rendered the opinion and the volume and page where the same may be found in the National Reporter System, if reported therein. When textbooks are cited, the edition must be designated with the proper volume and page. In citing authorities references shall be made as follows: Codes, to section number; treatises, to section and page; all others, to specific page or pages relied upon.

(f) References in briefs to legal propositions. The following propositions are deemed so well established that authorities need not be cited in support of any of them:

1. Findings of fact in a law action, which means generally any action triable by ordinary proceedings, are binding upon the appellate court if supported by substantial evidence.

2. In considering the propriety of a motion for directed verdict the court views the evidence in the light most favorable to the party against whom the motion was made.

3. In ruling upon motions for new trial the trial court has a broad but not unlimited discretion in determining whether the verdict effectuates substantial justice between the parties.

4. The court is slower to interfere with the grant of a new trial than with its denial.

5. Ordinarily the burden of proof follows the pleading; that is, he who pleads and relies upon the affirmative of an issue must carry the burden of proving it.

6. In civil cases the burden of proof is measured by the test of preponderance of the evidence.

7. In equity cases, especially when considering the credibility of witnesses, the court gives weight to the fact findings of the trial court; but is not bound by them.

8. The party who so alleges must, unless otherwise provided by statute, prove negligence and proximate cause by a preponderance of the evidence.

9. A motorist upon a public highway has a right to assume that others using the road will obey the law, including statutes, rules of the road and necessity for due care, at least until he knows, or in the exercise of due care should have known otherwise.

(10) Generally questions of negligence, contributory negligence, and proximate cause are for the jury; it is only in exceptional cases that they may be decided as matters of law.

(11) Reformation of written instruments may be granted only upon clear, satisfactory and convincing evidence of fraud, deceit, duress, or mutual mistake.

(12) Written instruments affecting real estate may be set aside only upon evidence that is clear, satisfactory and convincing.

(13) In construing statutes the courts search for the legislative intent as shown by what the legislature said, rather than what it should or might have said.

(14) In the construction of written contracts, the cardinal principle is that the intent of the parties must control; and except in cases of ambiguity, this is determined by what the contract itself says.

(15) In child custody cases the first and governing consideration of the courts must be the best interest of the child.

(16) An issue may be proven by circumstantial evidence; but this evidence must be such as to make the theory of causation reasonably probable, not merely possible, and more probable than any other theory based on such evidence. Generally, however, it will be for the jury or other trier of the facts to say whether circumstantial evidence meets this test.

(17) Even when the facts are not in dispute or contradicted, if reasonable minds might draw different inferences from them, a jury question is engendered.

(g) References in briefs to the record. References in the briefs to parts of the record reproduced in the appendix filed with the brief of the appellant (see rule 344.1"c") shall be to the pages of the appendix at which those parts appear. If the appendix is prepared after the briefs are filed, references in the briefs to the record shall be made by one of the methods allowed by rule 344.1"c". If the record is reproduced in accordance with the provisions of rule 344.1"f", or if references are made in the briefs to parts of the record not reproduced, the references shall be to the pages of the parts of the record involved; e.g., Answer p. 7, Motion for Judgment p. 2, Transcript p. 231. Intelligible abbreviations may be used. If reference is made to evidence the admissibility of which is in controversy, reference shall be made to the pages of the appendix or of the transcript at which the evidence was identified, offered, and received or rejected.

(h) Length of briefs. Except by permission of the court principal briefs shall not exceed fifty pages of standard typographic printing or seventy pages of printing by any other process of duplicating or copying, exclusive of pages containing the table of contents, tables of citations and any addendum containing statutes, rules, regulations, etc. And except by permission of the court, reply briefs shall not exceed twenty-five pages of standard typographic printing or thirty-five pages of printing by any other process of duplicating or copying. All such permissions may be granted ex parte.

(1) Briefs in cross appeals. If a cross appeal is filed, the plaintiff in the court below shall be deemed the appellant for the purposes of this rule and rules 344.1 and 343, unless the parties otherwise agree or the court otherwise orders. The brief of the appellee shall contain the issues and argument involved in his appeal as well as the answer to the brief of the appellant.

(j) Multiple appellants or appellees. In cases involving more than one appellant or appellee, including cases consolidated for purposes of the appeal, any number of either may join in a single brief, and any appellant or appellee may adopt by reference any part of the brief of another. Parties may similarly join in reply briefs. [Report 1943; Court Order December 12, 1945; Court Order September 17, 1962; Court Order March 13, 1967; Court Order March 24, 1972]

344.1. Appendix to briefs.

(a) Duty of appellant: content; time; number. The appellant shall prepare and file an appendix to the briefs which shall contain: (1) the relevant docket entries in the proceeding below; (2) any relevant portions of the pleadings, transcript, instructions, findings, conclusions and opinion; (3) the judgment, order or decision in question; and (4) any other parts of the record to which the parties wish to direct the particular attention of the court. The fact that parts of the record are not included in the appendix shall not prevent the parties or the courts from relying on such parts.

Unless filing is to be deferred pursuant to the provisions of subdivision "c" of this rule, the appellant shall serve and file the appendix with his brief. Eighteen copies of the appendix shall be filed with the clerk of the supreme court and two copies shall be served on counsel for each party separately represented unless the court shall by rule or order direct the filing of a different number.

(b) Determination of contents: cost of producing. The parties are encouraged to agree as to the contents of the appendix. In the absence of agreement, the appellant shall, not later than ten days after the date on which the appeal is docketed, serve on the appellee a designation of the parts of the record which he intends to include in the appendix and a statement of the issues which he intends to present for review. If the appellee deems it necessary to direct the particular attention of the court to parts of the record not designated by the appellant, he shall, within ten days after receipt of the designation, serve upon the appellant a designation of those parts. The appellant shall include in the appendix the parts thus designated. In designating parts of the record for inclusion in the appendix, the parties shall have regard for the fact that the entire record is always available to the court for reference and examination and shall not engage in unnecessary designation.

Unless the parties otherwise agree, the cost of producing the appendix shall initially be paid by the appellant, but if the appellant considers that parts of the record designated by the appellee for inclusion are unnecessary for the determination of the issues presented he may so advise the appellee and the appellee shall advance the cost of including such parts. The cost of producing the appendix shall be taxed as costs in the case, but if either party shall cause matters to be unnecessarily included in the appendix the court may impose the cost of producing such parts on that party.

(c) Alternative method of designating contents. Preparation of the appendix may be deferred until after the briefs have been filed, and the appendix may be filed twenty-one days after service of the brief of the appellee. If the preparation and filing of the appendix is thus deferred, the provisions of subdivision "b" of this rule shall apply, except that the designations referred to therein shall be made by each party at the time his brief is served, and a statement of the issues presented shall be unnecessary.

If the deferred appendix authorized by this subdivision is employed, references in the briefs to the record may be to the pages of the parts of the record involved, in which event the original paging of each part of the record shall be indicated in the appendix by placing in brackets the number of each page at the place in the appendix where that page begins. Or if a party desires to refer in his brief directly to pages of the appendix, he may serve and file typewritten or page proof copies of his brief within the time required by rule 343"a", with appropriate references to the pages of the parts of the record involved. In that event, within fourteen days after the appendix is filed, he shall serve and file copies of the brief in the form prescribed by rule 344.2 containing references to the pages of the appendix in place of or in addition to the initial references to the pages of the parts of the record involved. No other changes may be made in the brief as initially served and filed, except that typographical errors may be corrected.

344.2. Form of briefs, the appendix and other papers.

(a) Form of briefs and the appendix. Briefs and appendices may be produced by standard typographic printing or by any duplicating or copying process which produces a clear black image on white paper. All appendices and briefs shall be printed on both sides of the sheet. Carbon copies of briefs and appendices may not be submitted without permission of the court. All printed matter must appear in at least eleven-point type on opaque, unglazed paper. Briefs and appendices shall be bound in volumes having pages eight and one-half by eleven inches and type matter six by nine inches. Margins on the bound side of the sheet shall be not less than one and one-eighth inches suitable for permanent binding procedures. Copies of the reporter's transcript and other papers reproduced in a manner authorized by this rule may be inserted in the appendix, but not in such manner as to prevent eventual uniform permanent binding. Such papers may be informally renumbered if necessary.

If briefs are produced by commercial printing or duplicating firms, or, if produced otherwise and the covers to be described are available, the cover of the brief of the appellee should be blue; that of the appellee, red; that of an intervenor or amicus curiae, green; that of any reply brief, gray. The cover of the appendix should be white. The front covers of the briefs and of the appendices shall contain: (1) the name of the court and the number of the case; (2) the title of the case (see rule 342"a"); (3) the nature of the proceeding in court (e.g., Appeal) and the name of the court (and the name of the judge who rendered the decision from which the appeal is taken), agency, or board below; (4) the title of the document (e.g., Brief for Appellant, Appendix); and (5) the name and addresses of counsel representing the party on whose behalf the document is filed.

(b) Form of other papers. Petitions for rehearing shall be produced in a manner prescribed by subdivision “a”. Motions and other papers may be produced in like manner, or they may be typewritten upon opaque, unglazed paper eight and one-half by eleven inches in size. Lines of typewritten text shall be double spaced. Consecutive sheets shall be attached at the left margin. Carbon copies may be used for filing and service if they are legible.

A motion or other paper addressed to the court shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the court, the title of the case, the file number, and a brief descriptive title indicating the purpose of the paper.

(c) Printing taxed as costs. The amount actually paid for printing or otherwise producing necessary copies of briefs, appendices, or copies of records authorized by these rules, exclusive of stenographic expense, shall be certified by the attorney, and if reasonable, taxed in the supreme court as costs. [Court Order March 24, 1972]

344.3 Requirements in contested child custody cases.

In appeals involving a contest as to custody of children, adoption, termination of parent-child relationship, and juvenile court proceedings affecting child placement, the times provided in rule 343(a) for filing briefs shall be reduced by one-half. Reply briefs are unnecessary. If filing of the appendix is deferred pursuant to rule 341.1(e), it shall be filed not more than fifteen days after service of the appellee’s brief. Court reporters shall give priority to transcription of the record in these cases over other civil transcript work. The appeals shall be accorded submission precedence over other civil cases. [Court Order November 4, 1974]

345. Dismissal for failure to prosecute.

When an appellant in either a docketed or nondocketed appeal fails to comply with the Iowa Rules of Civil Procedure and the rules of this court, the clerk shall notify the appellant and his counsel that upon the expiration of fifteen days from the date thereof the appeal will be dismissed for want of prosecution, unless prior to that date appellant remedies the default. Should the appellant fail to comply within said fifteen day period, the clerk shall then enter an order dismissing said appeal for want of prosecution, and shall issue a certified copy thereof to the clerk of the district court as and for the mandate. In no case shall the appellant be entitled to remedy his default after the same shall have been dismissed under this rule, unless by order of this court. The dismissal of an appeal shall not limit the authority of this court, in an appropriate case, to take disciplinary action against defaulting counsel.

The court may, whether or not notice of default is given, dismiss any appeal for failure to comply with the Iowa Rules of Civil Procedure or the rules of this court on motion of a party or upon its own motion. [Court Order March 24, 1972]

345.1 Supreme court: power to shorten or enlarge time. The supreme court upon its own motion or on motion of any litigant may shorten or enlarge the time prescribed by these rules or by its order for doing any act, or may permit an act to be done after the expiration of such time, but the court may not enlarge the time for filing a notice of appeal. [Court Order March 24, 1972]

346. Submission and oral argument. A party desiring to be heard orally shall so state at the end of his brief; and unless he does so he will be heard orally only in reply to his adversary’s oral argument, if any. The oral arguments shall conform to rules prescribed by the supreme court. [Report 1943]

Referring to in R.C.P. 353

347. Writs and orders in the supreme court.

(a) Writs and process. The supreme court shall issue all writs and processes necessary for the exercise and enforcement of its appellate jurisdiction and in the furtherance of its supervisory control over all inferior judicial tribunals and officers thereof throughout the state; and may enforce its mandates by fine and imprisonment, and imprisonment may be continued until obeyed.

(b) Orders. Every application for an order in the supreme court shall be in writing, served upon the adverse party or his attorney of record, with a notice that it will come on for hearing before the supreme court or a justice thereof at a stated time and place. By stipulation and arrangement with the court or justice the parties may fix the time and place of hearing.

(c) Hearings. No order shall be issued except upon reasonable notice and opportunity to make resistance, but if it be made to appear that great and irreparable loss would ensue if the matter were delayed, an order may be entered effective only until final order is made. The supreme court may hear oral arguments on an application for order if it deems them desirable; otherwise, the matter shall be submitted without oral argument. One or more justices may act for the court in such matters. [Report 1943]

348. Motions to dismiss or affirm.
(a) Appellee's motion to dismiss an appeal or to affirm must be in writing, supported by printed or typewritten brief, and served on appellant's counsel and filed with the clerk of the supreme court within twenty days after filing the record, if the grounds therefor then exist. If appellee desires to present the motion orally, he shall so request therein, and the court may make such order as it deems proper in regard thereto.
(b) The day immediately preceding the first day of each period, as fixed by the docket for the term, shall be and is hereby designated as motion day and, except when otherwise specially ordered by the court or a judge thereof, such motion day shall be and the same is hereby fixed as the time for submission of every such motion to dismiss, served and filed ten days or more prior thereto, and also every such motion to dismiss to which resistance has been filed. If the chief justice or the court determines oral argument is desirable, such motion shall be assigned for oral argument, otherwise it shall be assigned for submission on the briefs. The clerk shall forthwith notify each party of the time and manner of the submission.

(c) Appellant's resistance, if any, shall be served and filed not less than three days prior to the date fixed for such submission.

(d) The court may rule on the motion to dismiss or to affirm before requiring submission of the appeal or may order the motion submitted with the appeal. The time intervening between service of the motion and the court's order overruling the motion, or providing that it be submitted with the appeal, shall be excluded in determining the time within which the parties' respective briefs on the merits must be filed.

(e) If grounds for dismissal of an appeal or affirmance arise after the record is filed, appellee may file and serve such motion to dismiss or motion to affirm and supporting brief. The court shall then determine when and on what notice, the same shall be heard, and whether submission of the appeal shall be stayed and may make appropriate orders respecting the time for filing briefs on the merits. [Report 1943; Court Order December 12, 1945; Court Order March 6, 1956]

348.1 Affirmed or enforced without opinion. When the court determines that any one or more of the following circumstances exists and is dispositive of a matter submitted to the court for decision: (a) that a judgment of the district court is correct; (b) that the evidence in support of a jury verdict is sufficient; (c) that the order of an administrative agency is supported by substantial evidence; or (d) that no error of law appears; and the court also determines that the questions are not of sufficient importance to justify an opinion and that an opinion would have no precedential value, the judgment or order may be affirmed or enforced without opinion.

In such case, the court may in its discretion enter the following order: "AFFIRMED, See rule 348.1." [Court Order March 24, 1972]

349. Remands. When a judgment is reversed for error in overruling a motion to direct a verdict, or a motion for judgment under rule 243"b", or a motion to withdraw an issue from the consideration of the jury, and the granting of the motion would have terminated the case in favor of appellant, the supreme court may enter, or direct the trial court to enter final judgment as if such motion had been initially sustained; providing that, if it appears from the record that the material facts relating thereto were not fully developed at the trial, or if, in the opinion of the supreme court, the ends of justice will be served thereby, a new trial shall be awarded of such issue or of the whole case. [Report 1943; Court Order January 26, 1945]

350. Petition for rehearing.
(a) Time for filing: content; answer; action by court if granted. A petition for rehearing may be filed within fourteen days after filing of opinion unless the time is shortened or enlarged by order. The petition shall state with particularity the points of law or fact which in the opinion of the petitioner the court has overlooked or misapprehended and shall contain such argument in support of the petition as the petitioner desires to present. Oral argument in support of the petition will not be permitted. No answer to a petition for rehearing will be received unless requested by the court, but a petition for rehearing will ordinarily not be granted in the absence of such a request. If a petition for rehearing is granted the court may make a final disposition of the cause without reargument or may restore it to the calendar for reargument or resubmission or may make such other orders as are deemed appropriate under the circumstances of the particular case.

(b) Form of petition; length. The petition shall be in a form prescribed by rule 344.2"a" and copies shall be served and filed as prescribed by rule 344.2"b" for the service and filing of briefs. Except by permission of the court, a petition for rehearing shall not exceed ten pages of standard typographic printing or fifteen pages of printing by any other process of duplicating or copying. [Report 1943; Court Order March 24, 1972]

351. Procedendo. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, no procedendo shall issue for fifteen days after an opinion is filed, nor thereafter while a petition for rehearing, filed according to these rules, is pending. [Report 1943; Court Order March 24, 1972]
Refered to in R.C.P. 353
See also ch 686 and Supreme Court rules

352. Certiorari or appeal. If any case is brought to the supreme court by appeal or certiorari, and the court is of the opinion that the other of these remedies was the proper one, the case shall not be dismissed, but shall proceed as though the proper form of review had been sought.

A petition for writ of certiorari may under this rule be treated by the court as application to grant an appeal (as provided in rule 332) and conversely an application to grant an appeal may be treated as a petition for certiorari.

Provided, however, nothing in this rule shall operate to extend the time within which an appeal may be taken. [Report 1943; Court Order January 14, 1949]
Refered to in R.C.P. 353
See also ch 686 and Supreme Court rules

353. Filing and service.
(a) Filing. Papers required or permitted to be filed in the supreme court shall be filed with the clerk. Filing may be accomplished by mail addressed to the clerk, and shall be deemed filed on the day of mailing if the most expeditious form of delivery by mail, except special delivery, is utilized. If a motion rerequests relief which may be granted by a single judge, the judge may permit the motion to be filed with him, in which event he shall note thereon the date of filing and shall thereafter transmit it to the clerk.

(b) Service of all papers required. Copies of all papers filed by any party and not required by these rules to be served by the clerk shall, at or before the time of filing, be served by a party or person acting for him on all other parties to the appeal or review. Service on a party represented by counsel shall be made on counsel.

(c) Manner of service. Service may be personal or by mail. Personal service includes delivery of the copy to a clerk or other responsible person at the office of counsel. Service by mail is complete on mailing.

(d) Proof of service. Papers presented for filing shall contain an acknowledgment of service by the person served or proof of service in the form of a statement of the date and manner of service and of the names of the persons served, certified by the person who made service. Proof of service may appear on or be affixed to the papers filed. The clerk may permit papers to be filed without acknowlagement or proof of service but shall require such to be filed promptly thereafter.

(e) Additional time after service by mail.
Whenever a party is required or permitted to do an act within a prescribed period after service of a paper upon him and the paper is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period.

(a) In the event of the death or disability of a judge in the course of a proceeding at which he is presiding, or while a motion for new judge of the district may hear or act upon the same, and, if in his opinion he can proceed all or any of the issues, or make such disposition of the matter as the situation warrants.

(b) In the event of the death or disability decided motion, or case tried to him without a jury, any other judge of the district may be called in, or a judge from another district may review of the transcript or a reargument he can, in his opinion, sufficiently inform himself to enable him to render a decision, he shall do so; otherwise he may order a continuance, or any of the issues, or direct the recalling of any witnesses, or make such disposition of the chief justice of the supreme court. [Report 1943; amendment 1945]

See also ch 605

368. Appeal to district court from administrative body. Where appeal to the district court from an action or decision of any officer, body or board is provided for by statute and the statute does not provide for the formulation of the issues either before such officer, body or board, or in the district court, the appellant shall file a petition in the district court within ten days after perfecting the appeal, or within such time as may be prescribed by the court. The appellee shall file motion or an answer to such petition within ten days thereafter, or within such further time as may be prescribed by the court. Thereafter the rules of pleading and procedure in actions in the district court shall be applicable. [Report 1943]

370. General provisions, comments and footnotes.
(a) The past, present and future tense shall each include the others; the masculine, feminine and neuter gender shall include the others; and the singular and plural number shall each include the other.
(b) Rule and subdivision headings do not in any manner affect the scope, meaning or intent of the provisions of these rules.
(c) All references to sources, comments, and footnotes are incorporated solely for convenience in the use of the rules and do not form a part thereof. [Report 1943; amendment 1961]

371. Power of supreme court to change. The supreme court shall have power to revoke, change or supplement any of these rules which prescribe the procedure in that court. Under this power the court may revoke, change or supplement any rule in division XVI hereof except rules 331–339, inclusive. Any such change or addition shall take effect at such time as the court shall prescribe. [Report 1943]

372. Rules by trial courts. Each district, superior and municipal court, by action of a majority of its judges, may from time to time make and amend rules governing its practice and administration not inconsistent with these rules. A copy of all rules in effect July 4, 1961, and any amendments thereafter made by any such court shall be transmitted to the clerk of the supreme court. In all cases not provided for by rule courts may regulate their practice in any manner not inconsistent with these rules. [Report 1961; amendment 1969]

373. Purpose of administrative rules. The purpose of all rules for court administration shall be to provide for the administration of justice in an orderly, efficient and effective manner, in accordance with the highest standards of justice and judicial service. [Report 1969]

374. Supervision of courts. The supreme court, by and through the chief justice, shall exercise supervisory and administrative control over all trial courts in the state, and over the judges and other personnel thereof, including but not limited to authority to make and issue any order a chief judge may make under rule 377, or to modify, amend or revoke any such order or court schedules. [Report 1969]

375. Recall and transfer of judges. The supreme court by and through the chief justice may at any time order the recall of eligible retired judges for active service, and the transfer of active judges and other court personnel from one judicial district to another to provide a sufficient number of judges to handle the judicial business in all districts promptly and efficiently. [Report 1969]

376. Selection of chief judges. Not later than December 15 in each odd numbered year the chief justice, with the approval of the supreme court, shall appoint from the district judges of each district one of their number to serve as chief judge. Vacancies in the office of chief judge shall be filled in the same manner within thirty days after the vacancy occurs. 378. Court and trial sessions. Chief judges shall by order provide for:

(a) A court session by a district judge at least once each week in each county of the district, announced in advance in the form of a written or printed schedule, provided that, if in the opinion of the chief judge more efficient operations in the district will result, such court sessions may be at different intervals than once each week.

(b) Additional sessions in each county for the trial of cases, and other judicial matters, of such duration and frequency as will best serve to expeditiously dispose of pending cases ready for trial, and other pending judicial matters. [Report 1969]

Court Rule 1. The Rules of Civil Procedure prescribed by this court took effect July 4, 1943. From time to time thereafter such rules have been amended.

Organization and Assignment of Causes

Judges—Quorum. See Code sec. 684.1

(Court Rules 2, 3, 5, 7 and 8 are omitted.)

Court Rule 4. Causes may be advanced to an earlier period or term or passed to a later period as convenience or necessity may warrant and the right to oral argument shall not be affected thereby; said order of advancement may be without notice and by special or general order of the chief justice when the prompt filing of briefs makes an earlier submission date possible. If a cause involves a question of public importance or rights which are likely to be lost or greatly impaired by delay, the court may, in its discretion, upon motion duly served, order the submission of the cause in advance of the time at which it would otherwise be submitted.
Chief justice. See Code sec. 684.4

Court Rule 6. If the chief justice is absent or ill or from any other disability is unable to act and does not select some other member of the court to act as chief justice during his absence or disability the court shall select one of its other members to act during such time.

Terms of court. See Code sec. 684.5

Business at each term—docket. See Code sec. 684.6

Rules for assignment of causes. See Code sec. 684.9

Court Rule 9. The attorneys and guardians ad litem of the respective parties in the court below shall be deemed the attorneys and guardians ad litem of the same parties respectively in this court until others are retained or appointed and notice thereof is given the adverse party and the clerk of this court.

JURISDICTION

R. C. P. 331. From final judgment.

(a) All final judgments and decisions of courts of record, and any final adjudication in the trial court under rule 86 involving the merits or materially affecting the final decision, may be appealed to the supreme court, except as provided in this rule and in rule 335. For the purpose of this rule any order granting a new trial (not including an order setting aside a judgment by default other than in actions for divorce or annulment) and any order denying a new trial shall be deemed a final decision. Any order setting aside a default decree of divorce or annulment shall also be deemed a final decision.

(b) No interlocutory ruling or decision may be appealed, except as provided in rule 332, until after the final judgment or order. No error in such interlocutory ruling or decision is waived by pleading over, or proceeding to trial. On appeal from the final judgment, there may be assigned as error such interlocutory ruling or decision or any final adjudication in the trial court under rule 86 from which no appeal has been taken, where such ruling, decision, or final adjudication is shown to have substantially affected the rights of the complaining party.

R. C. P. 332. From interlocutory orders.

(a) Any party aggrieved by an interlocutory ruling or decision, including one appearing specially whose objections to jurisdiction have been overruled, may apply to the supreme court or any justice thereof to grant an appeal in advance of final judgment. Such appeal may be granted, after notice, and hearing as provided in rules 347 and 353, on finding that such ruling or decision involves substantial rights and will materially affect the final decision, and that a determination of its correctness before trial on the merits will better serve the interests of justice. No such application is necessary where the appeal is, pursuant to rule 331, from a final adjudication in the trial court under rule 86.

(b) The order granting such appeal may be on terms of advancing it for prompt submission. It shall stay further proceedings below, and may require bond.

R. C. P. 333. Amount in controversy. Except where the action involves an interest in real estate, no appeal shall be taken in any case where the amount in controversy, as shown by the pleadings, is less than one thousand dollars, unless the trial judge, within thirty days after the judgment or order is entered, certifies that the cause is one in which appeal should be allowed. The right of appeal is not affected by any remission of any part of the verdict or judgment.

R. C. P. 334. Scope of review. Review in equity cases shall be de novo. In all other cases the supreme court shall constitute a court for correction of errors at law; and findings of fact in jury-waived cases shall have the effect of a special verdict.

R. C. P. 335. Time for appeal.

(a) Appeals to the supreme court must be taken within, and not after, thirty days from the entry of the order, judgment or decree, unless a motion for new trial or judgment notwithstanding the verdict is filed as provided in rules 247 or a motion as provided in rule 179 “b”, and then within thirty days after the entry of the ruling on such motion; provided however that where an application to the supreme court or any justice thereof to grant an appeal under rule 332 is made within thirty days from the date of such ruling or decision any appeal allowed upon such application shall be deemed timely taken.

Provided further that if the supreme court or any justice determines that the order or decision from which application to appeal under rule 332 is timely made is a final judgment or decision from which appeal would lie under rule 331 an appeal therefrom shall also be deemed timely taken and perfected when the order making such determination is filed with the clerk of the supreme court and the provisions of rule 335 “b” and “c” shall apply.

Provided however a cross-appeal may be taken within said thirty-day period, or in any event within five days after the appeal is taken.
(b) No appeal from a judgment, ruling or order taken after it has actually been made by the trial court shall be held insufficient because the clerk of the trial court has not recorded such judgment, ruling or order upon the court records at the time the appeal is taken, if it shall appear that such record has been made before the appendix to the briefs is filed with said clerk.

Referred to in R.C.P. 336, 353, 371

Time for appealing in re constitutional test. See Code sec. 686.3

Coparties not joining. See Code sec. 686.4

Appeal from part of judgment or order—effect. See Code sec. 686.5

(a) Appeal other than those allowed by order under rule 332 or rule 335 is taken and perfected by filing a notice with the clerk of the court where the order, judgment or decree was entered, signed by the appellant or his attorney. It shall specify the parties taking the appeal, and the decree, judgment, order or part thereof appealed from. The clerk shall forthwith mail or deliver a copy of such notice to the attorneys for all parties of record other than appellant, or to any such party who has no attorney of record, at his last known address. No failure of the clerk to mail or deliver any notice shall affect the validity of the appeal.

(b) Interlocutory appeal under rule 332 shall be deemed taken and perfected when the order allowing it is filed with the clerk of the supreme court. No notice of such appeal is necessary. The time for any further proceeding on such appeal which would run from the notice of appeal shall run from the date such order is so filed.

(c) The clerk of the supreme court shall promptly transmit a copy of such order to the attorneys of record and the clerk of the trial court; but no delay in so doing shall affect the validity of the appeal if the copy is filed before the abstract on such appeal is filed under rule 340(a).

R. C. P. 337. Supersedeas—bond.

(a) No appeal shall stay proceedings under a judgment or order unless appellant executes a bond with sureties, to be filed with and approved by the clerk of the court where the judgment or order was entered. The condition of such bond shall be that he will satisfy and perform the judgment if affirmed, or any judgment or order, not exceeding in amount or value, the obligation of the judgment or order appealed from, which the supreme court may render or order to be rendered by the trial court; and also all costs and damages adjudged against him on the appeal, and all rents or damage to property during the pendency of the appeal, of which appellee is deprived by reason of the appeal.

Referred to in §321A.1(2)

(b) If the judgment or order appealed from be for money, the penalty of such bond shall be one hundred twenty-five percent of the amount, including costs, unless, in exceptional cases, the trial court fix a larger amount; in all other cases, an amount sufficient to save appellee harmless from the consequences of the appeal; but in no event less than three hundred dollars.

(c) No appeal shall vacate or affect the judgment or order appealed from; but the clerk shall issue a written order requiring the appellee and all others to stay proceedings under it, or such part of it as has been appealed from, when the appeal bond is filed and approved.

Referred to in §§321A.1(2), R.C.P. 336, 371

R. C. P. 338. Bond—hearing on sufficiency. If any party to an appeal is aggrieved by the clerk's approval of, or refusal to approve, a supersedeas bond tendered by appellant, he may apply to the trial court, on at least three days' notice to the adverse party, to review the clerk's action. Pending such hearing, the court may recall or stay all proceedings under the order or judgment appealed from. On such hearing, it shall itself determine the sufficiency of the bond, and if the clerk has not approved the bond, the court shall, by written order, fix its conditions and determine the sufficiency of the security; or if the court determines that a bond approved by the clerk is insufficient in security or defective in form, it shall discharge such bond and fix a time for filing a new one; all as appears by the circumstances shown at the hearing.

Referred to in R.C.P. 353, 371

R. C. P. 339. Judgment on bond. If the supreme court affirms the judgment appealed from, it may, on motion of the appellee, render judgment against appellant and the sureties on the appeal bond for the amount of the judgment, with damages and costs; or may remand the cause to the trial court for the determination of such damages and costs, and the entry of judgment on the bond.

Referred to in R.C.P. 353, 371

Execution recalled. See Code sec. 686.10

Surrender of property. See Code sec. 686.11

Bond for costs. See Code sec. 686.12

R. C. P. 340. The record on appeal.

(a) Composition of record on appeal. The original papers and exhibits filed in the trial court, the transcript of proceedings, if any, and a certified copy of the docket and court calendar entries prepared by the clerk of trial court shall constitute the record on appeal in all cases.

Referred to in R.C.P. 336

(b) Transcript; duty of appellant to order; notice if partial transcript ordered. Within ten days after filing the notice of appeal, the appellant shall order from the reporter a transcript of such parts of the proceedings not already on file as he deems necessary for inclusion in the record. If the appellant intends to urge on appeal that a finding or conclusion is unsupported by the evidence or is contrary to the evidence, he shall include in the record a transcript of all evidence relevant to such finding or conclusion. Unless the entire transcript is to be included, the appellant shall, within the time above provided, file and serve on the appellee a description of the parts of the transcript which he intends to include in the record and a statement of the issues he intends to present on appeal. If the appellee deems a transcript of other parts of the proceedings to be necessary, he shall, within ten days after the service of the statement of appellant, file and serve on the appellant a designation of additional parts to be included. If the appellant shall within four days fail or refuse to order such parts, the appellee shall either order the parts or apply to the trial court for an order requiring the appellant to do so. At the time of order, the party so ordering must make satisfactory arrangements with the reporter for payment of the cost of the transcript. The reporter’s transcript shall be filed with the clerk of the trial court within the time fixed or allowed for docketing the appeal; and these rules relative to it shall also apply to bills of exceptions under rule 241. The cost of the transcript shall be taxed in the trial court.

(c) Statement of the evidence or proceedings when no report was made or when the transcript is unavailable. If no report of the evidence or proceedings at a hearing or trial was made, or if a transcript is unavailable, the appellant may prepare a statement of the evidence or proceedings from the best available means, including his recollection. The statement shall be served on the appellee, who may serve objections or propose amendments thereof within ten days after service. Whereupon the statement and any objections or proposed amendments shall be submitted to the trial court for settlement and approval and as settled and approved shall be included in the record on appeal.

(d) Agreed statement as the record on appeal. The parties may prepare and sign a statement of the case showing how the issues presented by the appeal arose and were decided in the trial court and setting forth only so many of the facts averred and proved or sought to be proved as are essential to a decision of the issues presented. It shall be filed in the office of the clerk of trial court and be certified to the supreme court within the time provided in rule 341 "b" as the record on appeal. Copies of the agreed statement shall be filed as the appendix required by rule 344.1.

(e) Correction or modification of the record. If any difference arises as to whether the record truly discloses what occurred in the trial court, the difference shall be submitted to and settled by that court and the record made to conform to the truth. If anything material to either party is omitted from the record by error or accident or is misstated therein, the parties by stipulation, or the trial court, either before or after the record is transmitted to the supreme court, or the supreme court, on proper suggestion or on its own initiative, may direct that the omission or misstatement be corrected, and if necessary that a supplemental record be certified and transmitted. All other questions as to the form and content of the record shall be presented to the supreme court.

R. C. P. 341. Transmission of record.

(a) Time for transmission of docket entries. Within fourteen days after the filing of the notice of appeal, the clerk of the trial court shall transmit a certified copy of the docket and calendar entries in the proceeding below to the clerk of the supreme court and all parties or their attorneys. The clerk shall thereupon prepare a docket page and assign a number to the case.

(b) Transmission of remaining record. Upon receipt of the brief of the appellee, or at such earlier time as the parties may agree or the court may order, the appellant shall request the clerk of the trial court to transmit the remaining record to the clerk of the supreme court, including the transcript and the exhibits necessary for the determination of the appeal. After filing the notice of appeal the appellant shall comply with the provisions of rule 340 "b" and shall take any other action necessary to enable the clerk of trial court to assemble and transmit the record. If more than one appeal is taken, each appellant shall comply with the provisions of rule 340 "b" and this subdivision.

When request is made by either party for transmission to the supreme court of portions of the record in addition to the certified copy of the docket entries, the clerk of the trial court shall transmit the same to the clerk of the supreme court. The clerk of the trial court shall transmit with the record a list of the documents and exhibits identified with reasonable definiteness. Documents of unusual bulk or weight and physical exhibits other than documents shall not be transmitted by the clerk unless he is directed to do so by a party or by the clerk of the supreme court. A party must make advance arrangements with the clerks for the transportation and receipt of exhibits of unusual bulk or weight.

Transmission of the record is effected when the clerk of the trial court mails or otherwise forwards the record to the clerk of the supreme court. The clerk of the trial court shall indicate, by endorsement on the face of the record or otherwise, the date upon which it is transmitted to the supreme court.

(c) Retention of trial record in trial court. If the record or any part thereof is required in the trial court for use there pending the appeal, the trial court may make an order to that effect, and the clerk of the trial court shall retain the record or parts thereof subject to the request of the supreme court, and shall transmit a copy of the order and of the docket entries together with such parts of the original record as the parties may designate and as the trial court shall allow.

(d) Portions of record not transmitted. Any parts of the record which have not been transmitted to the supreme court shall, on the order of the supreme court or on the request of any party, be transmitted to the supreme court by the clerk of the trial court. The parts of the record not transmitted to the supreme court shall nevertheless be part of the record on appeal for all purposes.

Transmission. See Code sec. 686.7

Return of original papers. See Code sec. 686.8

R. C. P. 342. Docketing appeal; filing record.

(a) Docketing the appeal. Within forty days after the filing of the notice of appeal unless the time is shortened or extended by an order entered under rule 345.1, the appellant shall pay the docket fee to the clerk of the supreme court, and the clerk shall thereupon enter the appeal upon the docket. If an appellant is authorized by trial court or supreme court to prosecute the appeal without prepayment of fees, the clerk shall enter the appeal upon the docket at the request of the party within the time provided above. An appeal shall be docketed under the title given to the action in the trial court, with the appellant identified as such, but if such title does not contain the name of the appellant, his name identified as appellant, shall be added to the title. The clerk of the supreme court shall immediately give notice to all parties or their attorneys of the date on which the appeal is entered on the docket.

(b) Certificate of Ordering Transcript. The Certificate of Ordering Transcript shall be signed by appellant or his attorney and shall include the name of the reporter and the date on which the transcript was ordered from said reporter. Such certificate shall be filed with the clerk of the supreme court within fourteen days after filing notice of appeal.

(c) Dismissal for failure to transmit or docket. If the appellant shall fail to cause timely transmission of the record or to pay the docket fee when required, any appellee may file a motion in the supreme court to dismiss the appeal. The motion shall be supported by a certificate of the clerk of the trial court showing the date and substance of the judgment or order from which the appeal was taken, the date on which the notice of appeal was filed, the expiration date of any order extending the time for transmitting the record, and by proof of service. The appellee may respond within fourteen days of such service. The clerk shall docket the appeal for the purpose of permitting the court to entertain the motion without requiring payment of the docket fee, but the appellee shall not be permitted to respond without payment of the fee unless he is otherwise exempt from prepayment.

(d) Trial court jurisdiction. After an appeal is taken, the filing with the clerk of the trial court of a stipulation in which all parties agree to a dismissal of an appeal shall restore jurisdiction to the trial court for the entry of an order of dismissal of the appeal, which will be a final adjudication. The clerk of the trial court shall forward a copy of such stipulation and order to the clerk of the supreme court.

(e) Limited remand. The supreme court during appeal or pending application for appeal may remand the cause to the trial court which shall have jurisdiction for such specific proceedings as may be directed by the supreme court.

R. C. P. 343. Filing and service of briefs.

(a) Time for serving and filing briefs. The appellant shall serve and file his brief within fifty days after the date on which the appeal is docketed. The appellee shall serve and file his brief within thirty days after service of the brief of the appellant. The appellant may serve and file a reply brief within fourteen days after service of the brief of the appellee, but, except for good cause shown, a reply brief must be filed at least three days before argument. The supreme court may shorten the periods prescribed above for serving and filing briefs, either by rule for all cases or for classes of cases, or by order for specific cases.

(b) Number of copies to be filed and served. Eighteen copies of each brief shall be filed with the clerk of the supreme court, unless the court by order in a particular case shall direct a different number; and two copies shall be served on counsel for each party separately represented. If a party is allowed to file type-written, ribbon and carbon copies of the brief, the original and three legible copies shall be filed with the clerk, and one copy shall be served on counsel for each party separately represented.
(c) Consequence of failure to file briefs. If an appellant fails to file his brief within the time provided by this rule, or within the time as extended, an appellate may move for dismissal of the appeal. If an appellee fails to timely file his brief, he will not be heard at oral argument except by permission of the court.

Referred to in R.C.P. 344, 344.1, 344.8, 360, 363

(a) Appellant's brief. The brief of the appellant shall contain under appropriate headings and in the order here indicated:

1. A table of contents, with page references, and a table of cases (alphabetically arranged), statutes and other authorities cited, with reference to the pages of the brief where they are cited.

2. A statement of the issues presented for review which shall include a complete list of all cases and statutes referred to in the argument covering the point. The cases which are considered to be the most pertinent and convincing, not exceeding four in number, shall be printed in bold-face type.

3. A statement of the case. The statement shall first indicate briefly the nature of the case, the course of proceedings, and its disposition in the court below. There shall follow a statement of the facts relevant to the issues presented for review, with appropriate references to the record (see subdivision "g").

4. An argument. The argument may be preceded by a summary. The argument shall contain the contentions of the appellant with respect to the issues presented, and the reasons therefor, with citations to the authorities, statutes and parts of the record relied on.

5. A short conclusion stating the precise relief sought.

(b) Appellee's brief. The brief of the appellee shall conform to the requirements of subdivision "a" (1)–(5), except that a statement of the issues or of the case need not be made unless the appellee is dissatisfied with the statement of the appellant.

(c) Reply brief. The appellant may file a brief in reply to the brief of the appellee, and if the appellee has cross-appealed, the appellee may file a brief in reply to the response of the appellant to the issues presented by the cross-appeal. No further briefs may be filed except with leave of court.

(d) References in briefs to parties. Counsel will be expected in their briefs and oral arguments to keep to a minimum references to parties by such designations as "appellant" and "appellee". It promotes clarity to use the designations used in the lower court, or the actual names of the parties, or descriptive terms such as "the employee", "the injured person", "the taxpayer", "the decedent", etc.

(e) References in briefs to legal authorities. In citing cases the names of parties must be given. In citing cases determined by this court, reference must be made to the volume and page where the case may be found in the Iowa Reports, if reported therein, and also in the North Western Reporter, if reported therein. In citing cases from other jurisdictions, reference must be made to the court that rendered the opinion and the volume and page where the same may be found in the National Reporter System, if reported therein. When textbooks are cited, the edition must be designated with the proper volume and page. In citing authorities references shall be made as follows: Codes, to section number; treatises, to section and page; all others, to specific page or pages relied upon.

(f) References in briefs to legal propositions. The following propositions are deemed so well established that authorities need not be cited in support of any of them:

1. Findings of fact in a law action, which means generally any action triable by ordinary proceedings, are binding upon the appellate court if supported by substantial evidence.

2. In considering the propriety of a motion for directed verdict the court views the evidence in the light most favorable to the party against whom the motion was made.

3. In ruling upon motions for new trial the trial court has a broad but not unlimited discretion in determining whether the verdict effectuates substantial justice between the parties.

4. The court is slower to interfere with the grant of a new trial than with its denial.

5. Ordinarily the burden of proof follows the pleading; that is, he who pleads and relies upon the affirmative of an issue must carry the burden of proving it.

6. In civil cases the burden of proof is measured by the test of preponderance of the evidence.

7. In equity cases, especially when considering the credibility of witnesses, the court gives weight to the fact findings of the trial court; but is not bound by them.

8. The party who so alleges must, unless otherwise provided by statute, prove negligence and proximate cause by a preponderance of the evidence.

9. A motorist upon a public highway has a right to assume that others using the road will obey the law, including statutes, rules of the road and necessity for due care, at least until he knows, or in the exercise of due care should have known otherwise.

10. Generally questions of negligence, contributory negligence, and proximate cause are for the jury; it is only in exceptional cases that they may be decided as matters of law.

11. Reformation of written instruments may be granted only upon clear, satisfactory and convincing evidence of fraud, deceit, duress, or mutual mistake.

12. Written instruments affecting real estate may be set aside only upon evidence that is clear, satisfactory and convincing.
(13) In construing statutes the courts search for the legislative intent as shown by what the legislature said, rather than what it should or might have said.

(14) In the construction of written contracts, the cardinal principle is that the intent of the parties must control; and except in cases of ambiguity, this is determined by what the contract itself says.

(15) In child custody cases the first and governing consideration of the courts must be the best interest of the child.

(16) An issue may be proven by circumstantial evidence; but this evidence must be such as to make the theory of causation reasonably probable, not merely possible, and more probable than any other theory based on such evidence. Generally, however, it will be for the jury or other trier of the facts to say whether circumstantial evidence meets this test.

(17) Even when the facts are not in dispute or contradicted, if reasonable minds might draw different inferences from them, a jury question is engendered.

(g) References in briefs to the record. References in the briefs to parts of the record reproduced in the appendix filed with the brief of the appellant (see rule 344.1“a” shall be to the pages of the appendix at which those parts appear. If the appendix is prepared after the briefs are filed, references in the briefs to the record shall be made by one of the methods allowed by rule 344.1“c.” If the record is reproduced in accordance with the provisions of rule 344.1“f,” or if references are made in the briefs to parts of the record not reproduced, the references shall be to the pages of the parts of the record involved; e.g., Answer p. 7, Motion for Judgment p. 2, Transcript p. 231. Intelligible abbreviations may be used. If reference is made to evidence the admissibility of which is in controversy, reference shall be made to the pages of the appendix or of the transcript at which the evidence was identified, offered, and received or rejected.

(h) Length of briefs. Except by permission of the court principal briefs shall not exceed fifty pages of standard typographic printing or seventy pages of printing by any other process of duplicating or copying, exclusive of pages containing the table of contents, tables of citations and any addendum containing statutes, rules, regulations, etc. And except by permission of the court, reply briefs shall not exceed twenty-five pages of standard typographic printing or thirty-five pages of printing by any other process of duplicating or copying. All such permissions may be granted ex parte.

(i) Briefs in cross appeals. If a cross appeal is filed, the plaintiff in the court below shall be deemed the appellant for the purposes of this rule and rules 344.1 and 343, unless the parties otherwise agree or the court otherwise orders. The brief of the appellee shall contain the issues and argument involved in his appeal as well as the answer to the brief of the appellant.

(j) Multiple appellants or appellees. In cases involving more than one appellant or appellee, including cases consolidated for purposes of the appeal, any number of either may join in a single brief, and any appellant or appellee may adopt by reference any part of the brief of another. Parties may similarly join in reply briefs.

Referral: R.C.P. 333, Court Rule 118

R. C. P. 344.1. Appendix to briefs.

(a) Duty of appellant: content; time; number. The appellant shall prepare and file an appendix to the briefs which shall contain: (1) the relevant docket entries in the proceeding below; (2) any relevant portions of the pleadings, transcript, instructions, findings, conclusions and opinion; (3) the judgment, order or decision in question; and (4) any other parts of the record to which the parties wish to direct the particular attention of the court. The fact that parts of the record are not included in the appendix shall not prevent the parties or the courts from relying on such parts.

Unless filing is to be deferred pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (c) of this rule, the appellant shall serve and file the appendix with his brief. Eighteen copies of the appendix shall be filed with the clerk of the supreme court and two copies shall be served on counsel for each party separately represented unless the court shall by rule or order direct the filing of a different number.

(b) Determination of contents: cost of producing. The parties are encouraged to agree as to the contents of the appendix. In the absence of agreement, the appellant shall, not later than ten days after the date on which the appeal is docketed, serve on the appellee a designation of the parts of the record which he intends to include in the appendix and a statement of the issues which he intends to present for review. If the appellee deems it necessary to direct the particular attention of the court to parts of the record not designated by the appellant, he shall, within ten days after receipt of the designation, serve upon the appellant a designation of those parts. The appellant shall include in the appendix the parts thus designated. In designating parts of the record for inclusion in the appendix, the parties shall have regard for the fact that the entire record is always available to the court for reference and examination and shall not engage in unnecessary designation.

Unless the parties otherwise agree, the cost of producing the appendix shall initially be paid by the appellant, but if the appellant considers that parts of the record designated by the appellee for inclusion are unnecessary for the determination of the issues presented he may so advise the appellee and the appellee shall advance the cost of including such parts. The cost of producing the appendix shall be taxed as costs in the case, but if either party shall cause matters to be unnecessarily included in the appendix the court may impose the cost of producing such parts on that party.

(c) Alternative method of designating contents. Preparation of the appendix may be deferred until after the briefs have been filed, and the appendix may be filed twenty-one days after service of the brief of the appellee. If the preparation and filing of the appendix is thus deferred, the provisions of subdivision (b) of this rule shall apply, except that the designations referred to therein shall be made by each party at the time his brief is served, and a statement of the issues presented shall be unnecessary.

If the deferred appendix authorized by this subdivision is employed, references in the briefs to the record may be to the pages of the part of the record involved, in which event the original paging of each part of the record shall be indicated in the appendix by placing in brackets the number of each page at the place in the appendix where that page begins. Or if a party desires to refer in his brief directly to pages of the appendix, he may serve and file typewritten or page proof copies of his brief within the time required by rule 343 (a), with appropriate references to the pages of the parts of the record involved. In that event, within fourteen days after the appendix is filed, he shall serve and file copies of the brief in the form prescribed by rule 344.2 containing references to the pages of the appendix in place of or in addition to the initial references to the pages of the parts of the record involved. No other changes may be made in the brief as initially served and filed, except that typographical errors may be corrected.

Referred to in R.C.P. 344(g)

(d) Arrangement of the appendix. At the beginning of the appendix there shall be inserted a list of the parts of the record which it contains, in the order in which the parts are set out therein, with references to the pages of the appendix at which each part begins. The relevant docket entries shall be set out following the list of contents. Thereafter, other parts of the record shall be set out in chronological order. When matter contained in the reporter's transcript of proceedings is set out in the appendix, the page of the transcript at which such matter may be found shall be indicated in brackets immediately before the matter which is set out. Omissions in the text of papers or of the transcript must be indicated by asterisks. Immaterial formal matter (captions, subscriptions, acknowledgments, etc.) shall be omitted. A question and its answer may be contained in a single paragraph.

(e) Reproduction of exhibits. Exhibits designated for inclusion in the appendix may be contained in a separate volume, or volumes suitably indexed. Eighteen copies thereof shall be filed with the appendix and two copies shall be served on counsel for each party separately represented. The transcript of a proceeding before an administrative agency, board, commission or officer used in an action in the trial court may be regarded as an exhibit for the purpose of this subdivision.

(f) Hearing on original record without appendix. The supreme court may by rule applicable to all cases, or to classes of cases, or by order in specific cases, dispense with the requirement of an appendix and permit appeals to be heard on the original record, with such copies of the record, or relevant parts thereof, as the court may require.

R. C. P. 344.2. Form of briefs, the appendix and other papers.

(a) Form of briefs and the appendix. Briefs and appendices may be produced by standard typographic printing or by any duplicating or copying process which produces a clear black image on white paper. All appendices and briefs shall be printed on both sides of the sheet. Carbon copies of briefs and appendices may not be submitted without permission of the court. All printed matter must appear in at least eleven-point type on opaque, unglazed paper. Briefs and appendices shall be bound in volumes having pages eight and one-half by eleven inches and type matter six by nine inches. Margins on the bound side of the sheet shall be not less than one and one-eighth inches suitable for permanent binding procedures. Copies of the reporter's transcript and other papers reproduced in a manner authorized by this rule may be inserted in the appendix, but not in such manner as to prevent eventual uniform permanent binding. Such papers may be informally renumbered if necessary.

If briefs are produced by commercial printing or duplicating firms, or, if produced otherwise and the covers to be described are available, the cover of the brief of the appellant should be blue; that of the appellee, red; that of an intervener or amicus curiae, green; that of any reply brief, gray. The cover of the appendix should be white. The front covers of the briefs and of the appendices shall contain: (1) the name of the court and the number of the case; (2) the title of the case (see rule 342“a”); (3) the nature of the proceeding in court (e.g., Appeal) and the name of the court (and the name of the judge who rendered the decision from which the appeal is taken), agency, or board below; (4) the title of the document (e.g., Brief for Appellant, Appendix); and (5) the name and addresses of counsel representing the party on whose behalf the document is filed.

(b) Form of other papers. Petitions for rehearing shall be produced in a manner prescribed by subdivision “a”. Motions and other papers may be produced in like manner, or they may be typewritten upon opaque, unglazed paper eight and one-half by eleven inches in size. Lines of typewritten text shall be double spaced. Consecutive sheets shall be attached at the left margin. Carbon copies may be used for filing and service if they are legible.
A motion or other paper addressed to the court shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the court, the title of the case, the file number, and a brief descriptive title indicating the purpose of the paper.

(c) Printing taxed as costs. The amount actually paid for printing or otherwise producing necessary copies of briefs, appendices, or copies of records authorized by these rules, exclusive of stenographic expense, shall be certified by the attorney, and if reasonable, taxed in the supreme court as costs.

R. C. P. 345. Dismissal for failure to prosecute. When an appellant in either a docketed or nondocketed appeal fails to comply with the Iowa Rules of Civil Procedure and the rules of this court, unless by order notify the appellant and his counsel that upon the expiration of fifteen days from the date thereof the appeal will be dismissed for want of prosecution, unless prior to that date appellant remedies the default. Should the appellant fail to comply within said fifteen-day period, the clerk shall then enter an order dismissing said appeal for want of prosecution, and shall issue a certified copy thereof to the clerk of the district court as and for the mandate. In no case shall the appellant be entitled to remedy his default after the same shall have been dismissed under this rule, unless by order of this court. The dismissal of an appeal shall not limit the authority of this court, in an appropriate case, to take disciplinary action against defaulting counsel.

The court may, whether or not notice of default is given, dismiss any appeal for failure to comply with the Iowa Rules of Civil Procedure or the rules of this court on motion of a party or upon its own motion.

Court Rule 13.

(a) In all cases submitted with oral argument, appellant's opening argument and appellee's argument shall not exceed twenty-five minutes each. Appellant's reply shall not exceed ten minutes. The chief justice may extend or shorten the time for oral argument.

(b) The court may conclude, after appellant's reply brief has been filed or the time for such has expired, that even though there may be a substantial question, oral argument would not be of assistance or should be shortened. In such event counsel will be advised accordingly before submission.

(c) Failure to discuss in oral argument points properly made in the briefs shall not be deemed a waiver thereof. [Revised by Court Order December 30, 1971]

Court Rule 15. When an appeal is taken in a criminal case and the clerk's transcript of the record, required by section 793.6 of the Code, is filed with the clerk of this court, the cause shall be assigned for submission on such transcript, but the date set for such submission shall be not less than ninety days after the date the appeal was perfected as shown by such transcript.
Court Rule 15.1.
Notification of Right to Appeal in Criminal Cases.
Immediately after imposing sentence the court shall advise defendant of his right to appeal and the right of a person who is unable to pay the costs of appeal to apply to the court for appointment of counsel, the furnishing of a transcript of the evidence, the printing of the record and necessary briefs in his behalf as provided in Code sections 775.5 and 793.8.

Such notification shall advise defendant that filing a notice of appeal within the time and in the manner specified in Code sections 793.2 and 793.4 is jurisdictional and failure to comply with these provisions shall be deemed a voluntary waiver of defendant's right of appeal.

The trial court shall make compliance with this rule a matter of record. [Court Order July 10, 1967]

Court Rule 15.2.
(a) If a defendant in a criminal case appeals and desires to submit the appeal upon a printed abstract of the record, brief and argument he shall serve on the attorney general and file with the clerk of this court a notice to that effect within thirty days following the service and filing of the notice of appeal. In that event the appellant shall file the printed abstract of the record with the clerk of this court and serve a copy upon the attorney general within ninety days following the service and filing of the notice of appeal, unless, within such ninety days, additional time is granted by one or more justices of this court on application to it after at least ten days' notice, and opportunity to be heard, have been given the attorney general, and the cause shall then be reassigned for submission on a date at least ninety days subsequent to the filing of the printed abstract of the record.

(b) Appellant shall serve his brief and argument on the attorney general and file it with the clerk of this court within forty-five days after filing the abstract.

The state shall have thirty days after the filing of appellant's brief within which to deny the abstract, serve and file amendment thereto and brief and argument.

Appellant shall serve and file his reply brief, if any, within fifteen days after the state's brief is filed.

A denial by appellant of the state's additional abstract, if not confessed, will be disregarded unless sustained by a certification of the record.

(c) If the printed abstract or defendant's brief and argument is not filed within the time herein specified or any extension thereof this court shall on its own motion or on application of the state dismiss the appeal with prejudice.

(d) Counsel appointed to represent an indigent defendant should take note of and abide by Court Rule 16. [Court Order July 10, 1967; amended by Court Order June 12, 1969, effective September 1, 1969]

Referred to in Court Rule 16, 17

Court Rule 16.
(a) If counsel appointed to represent a convicted indigent defendant in an appeal to this court is convinced after conscientious investigation of the trial transcript that the appeal is frivolous and that he cannot, in good conscience, proceed with the appeal he may ask this court in writing to withdraw. This request must be accompanied by a brief referring to anything in the transcript that might arguably support the appeal.

(b) Prior to filing any request to withdraw from an appeal counsel shall advise his client in writing of the decision as to frivolity accompanied by a copy of counsel's application and brief and attach to the request return showing service thereof. Counsel's notice to his client shall further advise him that if he agrees with counsel's decision and does not desire to proceed further with the appeal, defendant shall within thirty days from service of this application and brief clearly and expressly communicate such desire in writing, signed by him, to this court.

(c) Receipt of such communication shall result in the appeal being forthwith dismissed.

(d) Counsel's notice to his client shall further advise him that in the event he desires to proceed with the appeal he shall within the time above provided give like communication to this court, raising any points he chooses; this court will then proceed, after a full examination of all the proceedings, to decide whether the appeal is wholly frivolous. If it so finds, it may grant counsel's request to withdraw and dismiss the appeal.

(e) In order to protect his client's rights, counsel desiring to withdraw shall within the time permitted by Rule 15.2 make application in the manner provided by that Rule for extension of time in which a printed abstract of the record may be filed in the event such record is required as hereinafter provided.

(f) However, if this court finds the legal points arguable on their merits, and therefore not frivolous, it may grant counsel's request to withdraw and will prior to submission of the appeal afford the indigent the assistance of new counsel, to be appointed by the trial court, who shall file a printed record, brief and argument. The brief shall urge any errors counsel believes to be meritorious after a conscientious examination of the record. Counsel shall also inform this court in the brief of the points his client urges and otherwise see that the case is reviewed in accordance with the rules relative to criminal appeals.

(g) Defendant's failure to communicate to this court within the time provided in this Rule or any extension thereof his disagreement with counsel's decision that the appeal is frivolous, or of defendant's desire to proceed with the appeal, shall be deemed an election by him to agree with counsel's decision.
(h) Failure to file the record or any argument within the time specified in Rule 15.2 or any extension thereof shall result in dismissal of defendant's appeal with prejudice. [Court Order July 10, 1967; amended by Court Order October 8, 1970]

Referred to in Court Rule 15.2

Court Rule 17. When the state appeals in a criminal case, Rule 15.2 shall govern the time and manner of filing abstracts, denials, amendments, and briefs and arguments, insofar as practicable. [Amended by Court Order October 8, 1970]

All printed abstracts, amendments, and briefs and arguments in criminal cases shall be served on the adverse party or his attorney of record and filed with the clerk of this court with such service. The Rules of Civil Procedure and these rules, relating to the printing of abstracts, printing and filing of arguments, petitions for rehearing, oral arguments, motions and resistances thereto, the certification of the record and the filing of decisions and opinions shall apply in criminal cases insofar as consistent with the provisions of the Code.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

R. C. P. 347. Writs and orders in the supreme court.

(a) Writs and process. The supreme court shall issue all writs and processes necessary for the exercise and enforcement of its appellate jurisdiction and in the furtherance of its supervisory control over all inferior judicial tribunals and officers thereof throughout the state; and may enforce its mandates by fine and imprisonment, and imprisonment may be continued until obeyed.

(b) Orders. Every application for an order in the supreme court shall be in writing, served upon the adverse party or his attorney of record, with a notice that it will come on for hearing before the supreme court or a justice thereof at a stated time and place. By stipulation and arrangement with the court or justice the parties may fix the time and place of hearing.

(c) Hearings. No order shall be issued except upon reasonable notice and opportunity to make resistance, but if it be made to appear that great and irreparable loss would ensue if the matter were delayed, an order may be entered effective only until final order is made. The supreme court may hear oral arguments on an application for order if it deems them desirable; otherwise, the matter shall be submitted without oral argument. One or more justices may act for the court in such matter.

Referred to in R.C.P. 332, 353, Court Rule 11

R. C. P. 348. Motions to dismiss or affirm.

(a) Appellee's motion to dismiss an appeal or motion to affirm must be in printing or typewriting, supported by printed or typewritten brief, and served on appellant's counsel and filed with the clerk of the supreme court within twenty days after filing the record, if the grounds therefor then exist. If appellee desires to present the motion orally, he shall so request therein, and the court may make such order as it deems proper in regard thereto.

(b) The day immediately preceding the first day of each period, as fixed by the docket for the term, shall be and is hereby designated as motion day and, except when otherwise specially ordered by the court or a judge thereof, such motion day shall be and the same is hereby fixed as the time for submission of every such motion to dismiss, served and filed ten days or more prior thereto, and also every such motion to dismiss to which resistance has been filed. If the chief justice or the court determines oral argument is desirable, such motion shall be assigned for oral argument, otherwise it shall be assigned for submission on the briefs. The clerk shall forthwith notify each party of the time and manner of the submission.

(c) Appellant's resistance, if any, shall be served and filed not less than three days prior to the date fixed for such submission.

(d) The court may rule on the motion to dismiss or motion to affirm before requiring submission of the appeal or may order the motion submitted with the appeal. The time intervening between service of the motion and the court's order overruling the motion, or providing that it be submitted with the appeal, shall be excluded in determining the time within which the parties' respective briefs on the merits must be filed.

(e) If grounds for dismissal of an appeal or affirmance arise after the record is filed, appellee may file and serve such motion to dismiss or motion to affirm and supporting brief. The court shall then determine when and on what notice, the same shall be heard, and whether submission of the appeal shall be stayed and may make appropriate orders respecting the time for filing briefs on the merits.

Referred to in R.C.P. 353

R. C. P. 348.1. Affirmed or enforced without opinion.

and is dispositive of a matter submitted to the court for decision: (a) that a judgment of the district court is correct; (b) that the evidence in support of a jury verdict is sufficient; (c) that the order of an administrative agency is supported by substantial evidence; or (d) that no error of law appears; and the court also determines that the questions are not of sufficient importance to justify an opinion and that an opinion would have no precedential value, the judgment or order may be affirmed or enforced without opinion.

In such case, the court may in its discretion enter the following order: “AFFIRMED, see rule 348.1.”

Referred to in R.C.P. 353

R. C. P. 349. Remands. When a judgment is reversed for error in overruling a motion to direct a verdict, or a motion for judgment under rule 243 “b”, or a motion to withdraw an issue from the consideration of the jury, and the granting of the motion would have terminated the case in favor of appellant, the supreme court may enter, or direct the trial court to enter final judgment as if such motion had been initially sustained; providing that, if it appears from the record that the material facts relating thereto were not fully developed at the trial, or if, in the opinion of the supreme court, the ends of justice will be served by court if granted.

Remand—process. See Code sec. 686.14

Restitution of property. See Code sec. 686.15

Title not affected. See Code sec. 686.16

Death of party—continuance. See Code sec. 686.17

Court Rule 19. Causes not fully argued at the period for which may be passed or continued upon stipulation of the parties. [Amended by Court Order December 30, 1971]

Court Rule 20. Each opinion shall show what judges participated therein.

R. C. P. 350. Petition for rehearing.

(a) Time for filing; content; answer; action by court if granted. A petition for rehearing may be filed within fourteen days after filing of opinion unless the time is shortened or enlarged by order. The petition shall state with particularity the points of law or fact which in the opinion of the petitioner the court has overlooked or misapprehended and shall contain such argument in support of the petition as the petitioner desires to present. Oral argument in support of the petition will not be permitted. No answer to a petition for rehearing will be received unless requested by the court, but a petition for rehearing will ordinarily not be granted in the absence of such a request. If a petition for rehearing is granted the court may make a final disposition of the cause without reargument or may restore it to the calendar for reargument or resubmission or may make such other orders as are deemed appropriate under the circumstances of the particular case.

(b) Form of petition; length. The petition shall be in a form prescribed by rule 344.2 “a”, and copies shall be served and filed as prescribed by rule 343 “b” for the service and filing of briefs. Except by permission of the court, a petition for rehearing shall not exceed ten pages of standard typographic printing or fifteen pages of printing by any other process of duplicating or copying.

Referred to in R.C.P. 353

R. C. P. 351. Procedendo. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, no procedendo shall issue for fifteen days after an opinion is filed, nor thereafter while a petition for rehearing, filed according to these rules, is pending.

Referred to in R.C.P. 353

R. C. P. 352. Certiorari or appeal. If any case is brought to the supreme court by appeal or certiorari, and the court is of the opinion that the other of these remedies was the proper one, the case shall not be dismissed, but shall proceed as though the proper form of review had been sought.

A petition for writ of certiorari may under this rule be treated by the court as application to grant an appeal (as provided in rule 332) and conversely an application to grant an appeal may be treated as a petition for certiorari.

Provided, however, nothing in this rule shall operate to extend the time within which an appeal may be taken.

Referred to in R.C.P. 353

R. C. P. 353. Filing and service.

(a) Filing. Papers required or permitted to be filed in the supreme court shall be filed with the clerk. Filing may be accomplished by mail addressed to the clerk, and shall be deemed filed on the day of mailing if the most expeditious form of delivery by mail, except special delivery, is utilized. If a motion requests relief which may be granted by a single judge, the judge may permit the motion to be filed with him, in which event he shall note thereon the date of filing and shall thereafter transmit it to the clerk.

(b) Service of all papers required. Copies of all papers filed by any party and not required by these rules to be served by the clerk shall, at or before the time of filing, be served by a party or person acting for him on all other parties to the appeal or review. Service on a party represented by counsel shall be made on counsel.
(c) Manner of service. Service may be personal or by mail. Personal service includes delivery of the copy to a clerk or other responsible person at the office of counsel. Service by mail is complete on mailing.

(d) Proof of service. Papers presented for filing shall contain an acknowledgment of service by the person served or proof of service in the form of a statement of the date and manner of service and of the names of the persons served, certified by the person who made service. Proof of service may appear on or be affixed to the papers filed. The clerk may permit papers to be filed without acknowledgment or proof of service but shall require such to be filed promptly thereafter.

(e) Additional time after service by mail. Whenever a party is required or permitted to do an act within a prescribed period after service of a paper upon him and the paper is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period.

(f) Applicability. This rule shall govern filing and service under rules 331 to 353 inclusive.

Referred to in R.C.P. 332; Court Rule 118

Court Rule 22. The clerk shall make the following distribution of all printed records, abstracts, amendments to abstracts, briefs, and arguments received under the foregoing rules: A copy to each judge of this court, the state law library, the law department of the State University, the law department of Drake University; the remainder shall be placed in the clerk's office, one copy to be kept permanently.

Court Rule 23. All taxable fees and costs shall abide the result of the appeal and be taxed to the unsuccessful party, unless otherwise ordered.

GRIEVANCE COMMISSIONERS

Court Rule 118 Complaint Procedure

118.1 Grievance commission. There is hereby created the Grievance Commission of the Supreme Court of Iowa whose members shall be the Committee on Grievances of the Iowa State Bar Association and their successors as confirmed by order of this court. Such members are appointed commissioners of this court. The grievance commission, or a duly appointed division thereof shall hold hearings and receive evidence concerning alleged violations, where ever such violations occur, of the Iowa Code of Professional Responsibility for Lawyers or laws of the United States, and the laws of the state of Iowa or any other state or territory within their respective jurisdictions by lawyers who are members of the bar of this court. The grievance commission shall have such other powers and duties as are provided in these rules.

118.2 Processing of complaints. The members of the Committee on Professional Ethics and Conduct of the Iowa State Bar Association and their successors, as confirmed by order of this court are appointed commissioners of this court to initiate or receive, and process complaints against any attorney licensed to practice law in this state for alleged violations of the Iowa Code of Professional Responsibility for Lawyers and laws of the United States or the state of Iowa. Upon completion of any such investigation the committee on professional ethics and conduct shall either dismiss the complaint made, or admonish or reprimand the complained against attorney, or file and prosecute the complaint before the grievance commission or any division thereof.

118.3 Reprimand. In event an attorney is reprimanded by the committee on professional ethics and conduct, a copy of the reprimand shall be filed with the clerk of the grievance commission who shall immediately forward a copy thereof, by restricted certified mail, to the attorney reprimanded, therein stating that he or she has thirty days from the date of recipient thereof to file exceptions thereto with the clerk of the grievance commission. If the attorney fails to file an exception such failure shall constitute a waiver of any further proceedings and a consent that the reprimand be final and public. In that event, the clerk of the grievance commission shall cause a copy of the reprimand to be forwarded to the clerk of this court, together with proof of the aforesaid service thereof and a statement that no exceptions had been filed within the time prescribed. This court shall thereupon cause the reprimand to be spread upon the records of the court as a public document. In event, however, the attorney concerned files timely exception to the reprimand, no report of the reprimand shall be made to the clerk of this court and the reprimand shall be stricken from the records. The committee on professional ethics and conduct may, however, proceed further with any complaint against such attorney before the grievance commission.
When a reprimand has been filed but exception is duly taken thereto such reprimand shall not be admissible in evidence in any hearing before the grievance commission.

118.4 Rules. The grievance commission and the committee on professional ethics and conduct shall each adopt reasonable rules prescribing the procedure to be followed in all disciplinary proceedings before each such body, which rules shall be subject to approval by this court.

118.5 Complaints. Every complaint filed against an attorney with the grievance commission shall be signed and sworn to by the chairman of the committee on professional ethics and conduct and served upon the attorney concerned as provided by the rules of the grievance commission. Such complaints shall be sufficiently clear and specific in their charges to reasonably inform the attorney against whom the complaint is made of the misconduct he or she is alleged to have committed. All complaints, motions, pleadings, records, reports, exhibits, evidence, and all other documents or things filed under this rule or received in evidence in a hearing before the grievance commission shall be filed with and preserved by the secretary of the grievance commission in Des Moines, Iowa, all of which shall at all times be available to this court or anyone designated by this court.
118.6 Discovery. In any disciplinary proceeding or action taken by the committee on professional ethics and conduct, discovery shall be permitted as provided in R.C.P. 121 to 134 inclusive; 140 and 141; and in 143 to 158. The attorney against whom a complaint has been filed, in addition to the restriction stated in R.C.P. 122 (a) shall not be required to answer an interrogatory pursuant to R.C.P. 126; a request for admission pursuant to R.C.P. 127; a question upon oral examination pursuant to R.C.P. 140; or a question upon written Interrogatories, pursuant to R.C.P. 150; if the answer would be self-discriminatory. In addition thereto, evidence and testimony may be perpetuated as provided in R.C.P. 159 to 166. If either party is to utilize discovery, it must be commenced within thirty days after the date the complaint was filed. The commission may permit amendments to the complaint to conform to the proof or to raise new matters as long as the respondent has notice thereof and a reasonable time to prepare his defense thereto prior to the date set for hearing. The grievance commission, or any division thereof, shall receive an application and may enter an order to enforce discovery or to perpetuate any evidence.

118.7 Hearing. After a complaint has been filed with the grievance commission and an answer filed thereto pursuant to its rules or the time provided for such answer has expired, the grievance commission shall immediately upon the expiration of thirty days from the date the complaint was filed set the matter for hearing and notify all parties thereof at least ten days prior to the date set for such hearing, by restricted certified mail or personal service. If neither party has commenced any discovery within thirty days of the filing of the complaint, the hearing date shall be set not less than forty-five days nor more than sixty days after the filing of the complaint. If a party has discovery, the hearing date shall be set not less than sixty days nor more than seventy-five days from the date the complaint is filed. The commission may grant reasonable continuances but only upon written application supported by affidavit. Proceedings and hearings before the grievance commission or any division thereof shall be confidential unless the attorney involved requests otherwise.

118.8 Subpoenas. The clerk of the district court of the county in which any disciplinary hearing is to be held shall issue subpoenas of all kinds upon request of the grievance commission, the complainant, or the attorney against whom a complaint has been filed. Any member of the grievance commission is hereby empowered to administer oaths to all witnesses, and shall cause such testimony to be officially reported by a court reporter. The grievance commission shall report to the supreme court of Iowa the failure or refusal of any person to attend or testify in response to any subpoena or any ruling of said commission.

118.9 Decision. At the conclusion of a hearing upon any complaint against an attorney the grievance commission shall dismiss the complaint, or reprimand the attorney, or recommend to this court that the license to practice law of the accused attorney be suspended or revoked. If the grievance commission reprimands the attorney or recommends suspension or revocation of the attorney's license, it shall report to this court, in writing, its findings of fact, conclusions of law, and recommendations. The commission may permit a reasonable time for the parties to file post hearing briefs and arguments. The disposition or report of the commission shall be made or filed with this court within thirty days of the date set for the filing of the last responsive brief and argument. If the commission cannot reasonably make its determination or file its report within such time limit, it shall report that fact and the reasons therefor to the parties and the clerk of this court. Any determination or report of the commission need only be concurred in by a majority of the commissioners sitting. Any commissioner has the right to file with this court his or her dissent from the majority determination or report. Such matter shall then stand for final disposition in this court. If the grievance commission dismisses the complaint, no report shall be made to this court, except as provided in rule 118.19. Any report of reprimand or recommendations for license suspension or revocation shall be a public document upon the filing thereof with the clerk of this court.

Referred to in Court Rule 118.11

118.10 Disposition by the supreme court. Any report filed by the grievance commission with this court shall be served upon the attorney concerned as provided by the rules of the grievance commission. Such report shall be entitled in the name of the complainant versus the accused attorney as the respondent. If no exceptions are filed or no appeal is taken as hereinafter provided in these rules, the court shall proceed to determine the matter.

118.11 Exceptions and appeal. The respondent shall have twenty days to file with the clerk of this court a statement of exceptions to such report filed by the grievance commission pursuant to rule 118.9 and to give notice of appeal therefrom to this court. Such appeal shall thereafter be reviewed de novo by this court upon the record made before the grievance commission, and shall proceed as provided for appeals of civil cases. The complainant, within twenty days after filing of final disposition of a case by the grievance commission may apply to this court for permission to appeal from a ruling, report, or recommendation of the grievance commission. This court may grant such appeal, but not ex parte, and if the appeal is granted, it shall proceed as provided in appeals of civil cases. If such appeal is from the grievance commission's dismissal of a complaint, or of any charge contained therein, such appeal shall remain confidential. In event, however, this court reverses or modifies the report of the grievance commission, such court order of reversal or modification shall become a public record.

118.12 Suspension. In event an order of this court provides for the suspension of the license of an attorney to practice law, such suspension shall continue for the minimum time specified in such order and until this court has approved the attorney's written application for reinstatement.

118.13 Application for reinstatement. An application for reinstatement from any suspension shall be filed with the clerk of this court not more than sixty days prior to expiration of such suspension or time fixed for making application therefor in accordance with the provisions of court rule 117. In addition thereto the applicant shall state, in said application, that he or she has complied in all respects with the orders and judgments of this court relating to the suspension. The applicant shall also submit to this court satisfactory proof of such he or she at time of the application, is of good moral character and in all respects worthy of the right to practice law.

118.14 Conviction of a crime. Upon receipt by this court of satisfactory evidence that an attorney had pled guilty to, or nolo contendere to, or has been convicted of a crime which would be grounds for license suspension or revocation, such attorney may be temporarily suspended from the practice of law by this court regardless of the pendency of an appeal. Not less than twenty days prior to the effective date of such suspension, the attorney concerned shall be notified, in writing directed by restricted certified mail to his last address as shown by the records accessible to this court, that he has a right to appear before one or more justices of this court at a specified time, at a designated place and show cause why such suspension should not take place. Any hearing so held shall be informal and the strict rules of evidence shall not apply. The decision rendered may simply state the conclusion and decision of the participating justice or justices and may be orally delivered to the attorney at the close of the hearing or sent to him in written form at a later time.

For good cause shown, this court may set aside an order temporarily suspending an attorney from the practice of law as hereinabove provided, upon application by such attorney and hearing thereon in accordance with court rule 117, but such reinstatement shall neither terminate a disciplinary proceeding then pending nor stand as a bar to any such proceeding thereafter instituted against such attorney.

An attorney temporarily suspended under the aforesaid provisions of this rule shall be promptly reinstated upon the filing of a good and sufficient certificate disclosing the under-lying conviction of a crime has been finally reversed or set aside, but such reinstatement shall neither terminate a disciplinary proceeding then pending nor stand as a bar to any such proceeding thereafter instituted against such attorney.

The clerk of any court in this state in which an attorney has pled guilty or nolo contendere to, or been convicted of a crime as aforesaid shall, within ten days thereafter transmit a certificate thereof to the clerk of this court.

118.15 Disbarment on consent. An attorney subject to investigation or a pending proceeding involving allegations of misconduct subject to disciplinary action may acquiesce in his or her disbarment, but only by delivering to the grievance commission an affidavit stating he or she consents to disbarment and that (1) the consent is freely and voluntarily given absent any coercion or duress, with full recognition of all implication attendant upon such consent; (2) he or she is aware of a presently pending investigation into, or proceeding involving allegations that there exist grounds for discipline the nature of which shall be specifically set forth; (3) he or she acknowledges the material facts so alleged are true; and (4) in event proceedings were instituted upon the matters under investigation, or if existent proceedings were pursued, he or she could not successfully defend against same.

Upon receipt of such affidavit the grievance commission shall cause same to be filed with the clerk of this court whereupon this court shall enter an order disbarring such attorney on consent.

Any order disbarring an attorney on consent shall be a matter of public record. However, the affidavit required as aforesaid shall not be publicly disclosed or made available for use in any other proceeding except upon order of this court.

118.16 Disability suspension. In event an attorney shall at any time in any jurisdiction be duly adjudicated a mentally incapacitated person, or an alcoholic, or a drug addict, or shall be committed to an institution or hospital for treatment thereof, the clerk of any court in Iowa in which any such adjudication or commitment is entered shall, within ten days thereafter, certify same to the clerk of this court.

Upon the filing of any such certificate or a like certificate from another jurisdiction this court may enter an order suspending the license of such attorney to practice law in this state until further order of this court. Not less than twenty days prior to the effective date of such suspension, the attorney concerned or his or her guardian and the director of the institution or hospital to which such attorney has been committed, if any, shall be notified, in writing directed by restricted certified mail to his last address as shown by the records accessible to this court, that he has a right to appear before one or more justices of this court at a specified time, at a designated place and show cause why such suspension should not take place. Any hearing so held shall be informal and the strict rules of evidence shall not apply. The decision rendered may simply state the conclusion and decision of the participating justice or justices and may be orally delivered to the attorney at the close of the hearing or sent to him in written form at a later time. A copy of such suspension order shall be given the suspended attorney, or to his or her guardian and the director of the institution or hospital to which such suspended attorney has been committed, if any, by restricted mail or personal service as this court may direct.

No attorney suspended due to disability under the aforesaid provisions of this rule may engage in the practice of law in this state until reinstated by order of this court. Any attorney so suspended shall be entitled to apply for reinstatement to active status once each year or at such shorter intervals as this court may, in the suspension order, provide or specify. An attorney suspended due to any aforesaid disability may be reinstated by this court upon a showing, by clear and convincing evidence, that the attorney’s disability has been removed and he or she is fully qualified to resume the practice of law. Upon the filing of an application for reinstatement this court may take or direct any action deemed necessary or proper to determine whether such suspended attorney’s disability has been removed, including a direction for an examination of the applicant by such qualified medical experts as this court shall designate. In its discretion this court may direct that the expenses of such an examination be paid by the petitioning attorney.

The filing of an application for reinstatement to active status by an attorney suspended due to disability shall constitute a waiver of any doctor-patient privilege with regard to any treatment of the petitioning attorney during the period of his or her disability. Such attorney shall also set forth in his or her application for reinstatement the name of every psychiatrist, psychologist, physician and hospital or any other institution by whom or in which the petitioning attorney has been examined or treated since the date of his or her suspension due to disability, and shall also furnish to this court written consent that any such psychiatrist, psychologist, physician and hospital or other institution by whom or in which the petitioner has been examined or treated as aforesaid may divulge any and all information and records requested by this court or any court-appointed medical experts.

Where an attorney has been suspended due to any aforesaid disability and thereafter, in proceedings duly had, he or she shall be judicially held to be competent or cured, this court may dispense with further evidence regarding removal of his or her disability and may order his or her reinstatement to active status upon such terms as are deemed reasonably proper and advisable.

118.17 Reciprocal discipline. Any attorney admitted to practice in this state, upon being subjected to professional disciplinary action in another jurisdiction or in any federal court, shall promptly advise the grievance commission, in writing, of such action. Upon being informed that an attorney admitted to practice in this state has been subjected to discipline in another jurisdiction or any federal court, the grievance commission shall obtain a certified copy of such disciplinary order and cause the same to be filed in the office of the clerk of this court.

Upon receipt of a certified copy of an order disclosing an attorney admitted to practice in this state has been disciplined in another jurisdiction or any federal court, this court shall promptly give notice thereof by restricted certified mail or personal service directed to such attorney containing: (1) A copy of said disciplinary order from the other jurisdiction or federal court, and (2) an order directing that such disciplined attorney inform this court, within thirty days after receipt of said notice, of any claim by such attorney that imposition of identical discipline in this state would be too severe, too lenient or otherwise unwarranted, giving the specific reasons therefore. A like notice shall be mailed to the committee on professional ethics and conduct of the Iowa State Bar Association. If either party so informs this court, the matter shall be set for hearing before five or more justices of this court and the parties notified thereof by restricted certified mail at least ten days prior to the date set. At such hearing a certified copy of the testimony, transcripts, exhibits, affidavits and other matters introduced into evidence in such jurisdiction or federal court shall be admitted into evidence as well as any findings of fact, conclusions of law, decision and orders decided or issued. Any such findings of fact shall be conclusive and not subject to readjudication. Thereafter, the court shall enter such findings, conclusions and orders that it deems appropriate. If neither party so informs this court within thirty days from service of notice issued pursuant to the foregoing provisions hereof, this court may impose the identical discipline, unless this court finds that on the face of the record upon which the discipline is predicated it clearly appears: (1) The disciplinary procedure was so lacking in notice and opportunity to be heard as to constitute a deprivation of due process; or (2) there was such infirmity of proof establishing misconduct as to give rise to the clear conviction that this court could not, conscientiously, accept as final the conclusion on that subject; or (3) the misconduct established warrants substantially different discipline in this state.

Where this court determines that any of the aforesaid factors exist, such order as is deemed appropriate may be entered by this court. Rule 117 shall apply to any subsequent reinstatement or reduction or stay of discipline.
118.18 Immunity. Complaints submitted to the grievance commission or testimony with respect thereto shall be privileged and no law suit predicated thereon may be instituted.

Members of the grievance commission, members of the committee on professional ethics and conduct, and their respective staffs shall be immune from suit for any conduct in the course of their official duties.

A true copy of any complaint against a member of the grievance commission or the committee on professional ethics and conduct involving alleged violations of the attorney's oath of office or of the Iowa Code of Professional Responsibility for Lawyers and laws of the United States or state of Iowa shall be promptly forwarded to the chief justice of this court.

118.19 Reports. The chairman of the grievance commission and the chairman of the committee on professional ethics and conduct shall, on July 1 of each year, submit to this court a report of the number of complaints received and processed during the prior period, a synopsis of each such complaint, and the disposition thereof. In event such disposition was by way of dismissal of the complaint, the name of the attorney charged shall be omitted, but a synopsis of the charges made and by whom and a report of disposition shall be included.

Referred to in Court Rule 118.9

118.20 Effective dates. These rules shall have prospective and retrospective application to all alleged violations, complaints, hearings, and dispositions thereof on which a hearing has not actually been commenced before the grievance commission prior to the effective date of these rules.

Court Rule 119

IOWA CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT

CANON 1

A Judge Should Uphold the Integrity and Independence of the Judiciary

An independent and honorable judiciary is indispensable to justice in our society. A judge should participate in establishing, maintaining, and enforcing, and should himself observe, high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary may be preserved. The provisions of this Code should be construed and applied to further that objective.

CANON 2

A Judge Should Avoid Impropriety and the Appearance of Impropriety in All His Activities

A. A judge should respect and comply with the law and should conduct himself at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary.

B. A judge should not allow his family, social, or other relationships to influence his judicial conduct or judgment. He should not lend the prestige of his office to advance the private interests of others; nor should he convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence him. He should not testify voluntarily as a character witness.

CANON 3

A Judge Should Perform the Duties of His Office Impartially and Diligently

The judicial duties of a judge take precedence over all his other activities. His judicial duties include all the duties of his office prescribed by law. In the performance of these duties, the following standards apply:

A. Adjudicative Responsibilities.

1. A judge should be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it. He should be unswayed by partisan interests, public clamor, or fear of criticism.

2. A judge should maintain order and decorum in proceedings before him.

3. A judge should be patient, dignified, and courteous to litigants, jurors, witnesses, lawyers, and others with whom he deals in his official capacity, and should require similar conduct of lawyers, and of his staff, court officials, and others subject to his direction and control.

4. A judge should accord to every person who is legally interested in a proceeding, or his lawyer, full right to be heard according to law, and except as authorized by law, neither initiate nor consider ex parte or other communications concerning a pending or impending proceeding. A judge, however, may obtain the advice of a disinterested expert on the law applicable to a proceeding before him if he gives notice to the parties of the person consulted and the substance of the advice, and affords the parties reasonable opportunity to respond.

5. A judge should dispose promptly of the business of the court.

6. A judge should abstain from public comment about a pending or impending proceeding in any court, and should require similar abstention on the part of court personnel subject to his direction and control. This subsection does not prohibit judges from making public statements in the course of their official duties or from explaining for public information the procedures of the court.
CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT

(7) A judge should prohibit broadcasting, televising, recording, or taking photographs in the courtroom and areas immediately adjacent thereto during sessions of court or recesses between sessions, except that a judge may authorize:

(a) The use of electronic or photographic means for the presentation of evidence, for the perpetuation of a record, or for other purposes of judicial administration;
(b) the broadcasting, televising, recording, or photographing of investitive, ceremonial, or naturalization proceedings;
(c) the photographic or electronic recording and reproduction of appropriate court proceedings under the following conditions:
   (I) the means of recording will not distract participants or impair the dignity of the proceedings;
   (II) the parties have consented, and the consent to being depicted or recorded has been obtained from each witness appearing in the recording and reproduction;
   (III) the reproduction will not be exhibited until after the proceeding has been concluded and all direct appeals have been exhausted; and
   (IV) the reproduction will be exhibited only for the instructional purposes in educational institutions.

B. Administrative Responsibilities.

(1) A judge should diligently discharge his administrative responsibilities, maintain professional competence in judicial administration, and facilitate the performance of the administrative responsibilities of other judges and court officials.

(2) A judge should require his staff and court officials subject to his direction and control to observe the standards of fidelity and diligence that apply to him.

(3) A judge should take or initiate appropriate disciplinary measures against a judge or lawyer for unprofessional conduct of which the judge may become aware.

(4) A judge should not make unnecessary appointments. He should exercise his power of appointment only on the basis of merit, avoiding nepotism and favoritism. He should not approve compensation of appointees beyond the fair value of services rendered.

C. Disqualification.

(1) A judge should disqualify himself in a proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned, including but not limited to instances where:

(a) he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;
(b) he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;
(c) he knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;
(d) he or his spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person;
   (I) is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;
   (II) is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding;
   (III) is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;
   (IV) is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding;
(2) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(3) For the purposes of this section:

(a) the degree of relationship is calculated according to the civil law system;
(b) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;
(c) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, advisor, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:
(I) ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a “financial interest” in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(II) an office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a “financial interest” in securities held by the organization;

(III) the proprietary interest of a policy holder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a “financial interest” in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(IV) ownership of government securities is a “financial interest” in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

D. Remittal of Disqualification. A judge disqualified by the terms of Canon 3C(1) (c) or Canon 3C(1) (d) may, instead of withdrawing from the proceeding, disclose on the record the basis of his disqualification. If, based on such disclosure, the parties and lawyers, independently of the judge’s participation, all agree in writing that the judge’s relationship is immaterial or that his financial interest is insubstantial, the judge is no longer disqualified, and may participate in the proceeding. The agreement, signed by all parties and lawyers, shall be incorporated in the record of the proceeding.

CANON 4

A Judge May Engage in Activities to Improve the Law, the Legal System, and the Administration of Justice

A judge, subject to the proper performance of his judicial duties, may engage in the following quasi-judicial activities, if in doing so he does not cast doubt on his capacity to decide impartially any issue that may come before him:

A. He may speak, write, lecture, teach, and participate in other activities concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

B. He may appear at a public hearing before an executive or legislative body or official on matters concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice, and he may otherwise consult with an executive or legislative body or official, but only on matters concerning the administration of justice.

C. He may serve as a member, officer, or director of an organization or governmental agency devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. He may serve such an organization in raising funds and may participate in their management and investment, but should not personally participate in public fund raising activities. He may make recommendations to public and private fund-granting agencies on projects and programs concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

CANON 5

A Judge Should Regulate His Extra-Judicial Activities to Minimize the Risk of Conflict with His Judicial Duties

A. Avocational Activities. A judge may write, lecture, teach, and speak on nonlegal subjects, and engage in the arts, sports, and other social and recreational activities, if such avocational activities do not detract from the dignity of his office or interfere with the performance of his judicial duties.

B. Civic and Charitable Activities. A judge may participate in civic and charitable activities that do not reflect adversely upon his impartiality or interfere with the performance of his judicial duties. A judge may serve as an officer, director, trustee, or nonlegal advisor of an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization not conducted for the economic or political advantage of its members, subject to the following limitations:

(1) A judge should not serve if it is likely that the organization will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him or will be regularly engaged in adversary proceedings in any court.

(2) A judge should not solicit funds for any educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization, or use or permit the use of the prestige of his office for that purpose, but he may be listed as an officer, director, or trustee of such an organization. He should not be a speaker or the guest of honor at an organization’s fund raising events, but he may attend such events.

(3) A judge should not give investment advice to such an organization, but he may serve on its board of directors or trustees even though it has the responsibility for approving investment decisions.

C. Financial Activities.

(1) A judge should refrain from financial and business dealings that tend to reflect adversely on his impartiality, interfere with the proper performance of his judicial duties, exploit his judicial position, or involve him in frequent transactions with lawyers or persons likely to come before the court on which he serves.

(2) Subject to the requirements of subsection (1), a judge may hold and manage investments, including real estate, and engage in other remunerative activity, but should not serve as an officer, director, manager, advisor, or employee of any business.

(3) A judge should manage his investments and other financial interests to minimize the number of cases in which he is disqualified. As soon as he can do so without serious financial detriment, he should divest himself of investments and other financial interests that might require frequent disqualification.

(4) Neither a judge nor a member of his family residing in his household should accept a gift, bequest, favor, or loan from anyone except as follows:

(a) a judge may accept a gift incident to a public testimonial to him; books supplied by publishers on a complimentary basis for official use; or an invitation to the judge and his spouse to attend a bar-related function or activity devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice;

(b) a judge or a member of his family residing in his household may accept ordinary social hospitality; a gift, bequest, favor, or loan from a relative; a wedding or engagement gift; a loan from a lending institution in its regular course of business on the same terms generally available to persons who are not judges; or a scholarship or fellowship awarded on the same terms applied to other applicants;

(c) a judge or a member of his family residing in his household may accept any other gift, bequest, favor, or loan only if the donor is not a party or other person whose interests have come or are likely to come before him, and, if its value exceeds $100, the judge reports it in the same manner as he reports compensation in Canon 6C.

(5) For the purposes of this section “member of his family residing in his household” means any relative of a judge by blood or marriage, or a person treated by a judge as a member of his family, who resides in his household.

(6) A judge is not required by this Code to disclose his income, debts, or investments, except as provided in this Canon and Canons 3 and 6.

(7) Information acquired by a judge in his judicial capacity should not be used or disclosed by him in financial dealings or for any other purpose not related to his judicial duties.

D. Fiduciary Activities. A judge should not serve as the executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or other fiduciary, except for the estate, trust, or person of a member of his family, and then only if such service will not interfere with the proper performance of his judicial duties. “Member of his family” includes a spouse, child, grandchild, parent, grandparent, or other relative or person with whom the judge maintains a close familial relationship. As a family fiduciary a judge is subject to the following restrictions:

(1) He should not serve if it is likely that as a fiduciary he will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him, or if the estate, trust, or ward becomes involved in adversary proceedings in the court on which he serves or one under its appellate jurisdiction.

(2) While acting as a fiduciary a judge is subject to the same restrictions on financial activities that apply to him in his personal capacity.

E. Arbitration. A judge should not act as an arbitrator or mediator.

F. Practice of Law. A judge should not practice law.

G. Extra-judicial Appointments. A judge should not accept appointment to a governmental committee, commission, or other position that is concerned with issues of fact or policy on matters other than the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. A judge, however, may represent his country, state, or locality on ceremonial occasions or in connection with historical, educational, and cultural activities.

Referred to in Canon 7

CANON 6
A Judge Should Regularly File Reports of Compensation Received for Quasi-Judicial and Extra-Judicial Activities

A judge may receive compensation and reimbursement of expenses for the quasi-judicial and extra-judicial activities permitted by this Code, if the source of such payments does not give the appearance of influencing the judge in his judicial duties or otherwise give the appearance of impropriety, subject to the following restrictions:

A. Compensation. Compensation should not exceed a reasonable amount nor should it exceed what a person who is not a judge would receive for the same activity.
B. Expense Reimbursement. Expense reimbursement should be limited to the actual cost of travel, food, and lodging reasonably incurred by the judge and, where appropriate to the occasion, by his spouse. Any payment in excess of such an amount is compensation.

C. Public Reports. A judge should report the date, place, and nature of any activity for which he received compensation, and the name of the payor and the amount of compensation so received. Compensation or income of a spouse attributable to the judge by operation of a community property law is not extra-judicial compensation to the judge. His report should be made at least annually and should be filed as a public document in the office of Clerk of the Supreme Court of Iowa by April 1 each year for the last preceding calendar year.

Referred to in Canon 5, 7

CANON 7
A Judge Should Refrain from Political Activity Inappropriate to His Judicial Office

A. Political Conduct in General.
(1) A judge should not:
(a) act as a leader or hold any office in a political organization;
(b) make speeches for a political organization or candidate or publicly endorse a candidate for public office;
(c) solicit funds for or pay an assessment or make a contribution to a political organization or candidate, attend political gatherings, or purchase tickets for political party dinners, or other functions.

(2) A judge should resign his office when he becomes a candidate either in a party primary or in a general election for a nonjudicial office, except that he may continue to hold his judicial office while being a candidate for election to or serving as a delegate in a state constitutional convention, if he is otherwise permitted by law to do so.

(3) A judge should not engage in any political activity except on behalf of measures to improve the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice except as provided in section B hereof.

B. Campaign Conduct.
(1) A judge who is a candidate for retention in judicial office:
(a) should maintain the dignity appropriate to judicial office, and should encourage members of his family to adhere to the same standards of political conduct that apply to him;
(b) should prohibit public officials or employees subject to his direction or control from doing for him what he is prohibited from doing under this Canon; and except to the extent authorized under subsection B(2), he should not allow any other person to do for him what he is prohibited from doing under this Canon;
(c) should not make pledges or promises of conduct in office other than the faithful and impartial performance of the duties of the office; announce his views on disputed legal or political issues; or misrepresent his identity, qualifications, present position, or other fact.

(2) A judge who is a candidate for retention in office without a competing candidate, and whose candidacy has drawn active opposition, may campaign in response thereto and may establish committees of responsible persons to obtain publicly stated support and campaign funds.

Compliance with the Code of Judicial Conduct
Anyone, whether or not a lawyer, who is an officer of a judicial system performing judicial functions, including an officer such as a special master or magistrate, is a judge for the purpose of this Code. All judges should comply with this Code except as provided below.

A. Part-time Judge. A part-time judge is a judge who serves on a continuing or periodic basis, but is permitted by law to devote time to some other profession or occupation and whose compensation for that reason is less than that of a full-time judge. A part-time judge:
(1) is not required to comply with Canon 5C(2), D, E, F, and G, and Canon 6C;
(2) should not practice law in the court on which he serves or in any court subject to the appellate jurisdiction of the court on which he serves, or act as a lawyer in a proceeding in which he has served as a judge or in any other proceeding related thereto.

B. Retired Judge. A retired judge who is eligible for recall to judicial service should comply with all the provisions of this Code except Canon 5G, but he should refrain from judicial service during the period of an extra-judicial appointment not sanctioned by 5G.

*Referee in bankruptcy and court commissioner omitted as not applicable in Iowa.
In the opinion of this court, the Code of Judicial Conduct only prohibits the practice of law by part-time magistrates in the part-time magistrate level of the district court in the county of his or her residence and in any other county to which he or she is regularly assigned to hold court. A part-time magistrate is not prohibited by the above-quoted portion of the Code from practicing law at the part-time magistrate level of the district court in any other county, or before the full-time magistrate level or any higher level of the district court in any county, or before the Supreme Court. A part-time magistrate may not act as lawyer in proceedings in which he or she has acted as magistrate or in Effective Date of Compliance

A person to whom this Code becomes applicable should arrange his affairs as soon as reasonably possible to comply with it. If, however, the demands on his time and the possibility of conflicts of interest are not substantial, a person who holds judicial office on the date this Code becomes effective may:

(a) continue to act as an officer, director, or nonlegal advisor of a family business;
(b) continue to act as an executor, administrator, trustee, or other fiduciary for the estate or person of one who is not a member of his family.

(A) A lawyer shall not prepare, cause to be prepared, use, or participate in the use of, any form of public communication that contains professionally self-laudatory statements calculated to attract lay clients; as used herein, “public communication” includes, but is not limited to, communication by means of television, radio, motion picture, newspaper, magazine, or book.

(B) A lawyer shall not publicize himself, his partner, or associate as a lawyer through newspaper or magazine advertisements, radio or television announcements, display advertisements in city or telephone directories, or other means of commercial publicity, nor shall he authorize or permit others to do so in his behalf except as permitted under DR 2-103. This does not prohibit limited and dignified identification of a lawyer as a lawyer as well as by name:

(1) In political advertisements when his professional status is germane to the political campaign or to a political issue.

(2) In public notices when the name and profession of a lawyer are required or authorized by law or are reasonably pertinent for a purpose other than the attraction of potential clients.

(3) In routine reports and announcements of a bona fide business, civic, professional, or political organization in which he serves as a director or officer.

DR 2-102 Professional Notices, Letterheads, Offices, and Law Lists.

(A) A lawyer or law firm shall not use professional cards, professional announcement cards, office signs, letterheads, telephone directory listings, law lists, legal directory listings, or similar professional notices or devices, except that the following may be used if they are in dignified form:

1. A professional card of a lawyer identifying him by name and as a lawyer, and giving his addresses, telephone numbers, the name of his law firm, and any information permitted under DR 2-105. A professional card of a law firm may also give the names of members and associates. Such cards may be used for identification but may not be published in periodicals, magazines, newspapers, or other media.

2. A brief professional announcement card stating new or changed associations or addresses, change of firm name, or similar matters pertaining to the professional office of a lawyer or law firm, which may be mailed to lawyers, clients, former clients, personal friends, and relatives. It shall not state biographical data except to the extent reasonably necessary to identify the lawyer or to explain the change in his association, but it may state the immediate past position of the lawyer. It may give the names and dates of predecessor firms in a continuing line of succession. It shall not state the nature of the practice except as permitted under DR 2-105.

The listing shall not be in distinctive form or type. A law firm may have a listing in the firm name separate from that of its members and associates. The listing in the classified section shall not be under a heading or classification other than "Attorneys" or "Lawyers," except that additional headings or classifications descriptive of the types of practice referred to in DR 2-105 are permitted.

A lawyer who assumes a judicial, legislative, or public executive or administrative post or office shall not permit his name to remain in the name of a law firm or to be used in professional notices of the firm during any significant period in which he is not actively and regularly practicing law as a member of the firm, and during such period other members of the firm shall not use his name in the firm name or in professional notices of the firm.

A lawyer shall not hold himself out as having a partnership with one or more other lawyers unless they are in fact partners.

A partnership shall not be formed or continued between or among lawyers licensed in different jurisdictions unless all enumerations of the members and associates of the firm on its letterhead and in other permissible listings make clear the jurisdictional limitations on those members and associates of the firm not licensed to practice in all listed jurisdictions; however, the same firm name may be used in each jurisdiction.

A lawyer who is engaged both in the practice of law and another profession or business shall not so indicate on his letterhead, office sign, or professional card, nor shall he identify himself as a lawyer in any publication in connection with his other profession or business.

(2) A lawyer may accept employment that results from his participation in activities designed to educate laymen to recognize legal problems, to make intelligent selection of counsel, or to utilize available legal services if such activities are conducted or sponsored by any of the offices or organizations enumerated in DR 2-103 (D) (1) through (5),* to the extent and under the conditions prescribed therein.

(3) A lawyer who is furnished or paid by any of the offices or organizations enumerated in DR 2-103 (D) (1), (2), or (5)* may represent a member or beneficiary thereof, to the extent and under the conditions prescribed therein.

(4) Without affecting his right to accept employment, a lawyer may speak publicly or write for publication on legal topics so long as he does not emphasize his own professional experience or reputation and does not undertake to give individual advice.

(5) If success in asserting rights or defenses of his client in litigation in the nature of a class action is dependent upon the joinder of others, a lawyer may accept, but shall not seek, employment from those contacted for the purpose of obtaining their joinder.

Court Rule 121 Client security and attorney disciplinary system.
PREAMBLE

WHEREAS, the Constitution of the State of Iowa, Article III, Section 1, declares:

"The powers of the government of Iowa shall be divided into three separate departments—the Legislative, the Executive, and the Judicial; and no person charged with the exercise of powers properly belonging to one of these departments shall exercise any function appertaining to either of the others, except in cases hereinafter expressly directed or permitted."

WHEREAS, this court is not only constitutionally vested with judicial power but charged by the constitution with exercising a supervisory control over all inferior judicial tribunals throughout the state, and,

WHEREAS, lawyers have the professional responsibility and role of officers of the judicial department and its courts and necessarily are subject to the discipline of those charged with the exercise of constitutional judicial power,

Therefore,

This court declares that it has inherent and exclusive power to supervise the conduct of attorneys who are its officers and to prescribe reasonable conditions upon which persons may be admitted and permitted to practice in the courts of this state. The supreme court in the exercise of this power has the duty to protect insofar as reasonably possible those persons who may be injured by attorney defalcations. [Court Order, December 5, 1973]

(f) Applications to the supreme court. The commission may apply to the supreme court for interpretations of these rules and of the extent of their powers thereunder and for advice regarding the proper administration of the fund. Interpretations of this court shall be obligatory when rendered.

(g) Treasurer's duties. The treasurer elected by the commission shall maintain the assets of the fund in a separate account and shall disburse moneys from the fund only upon the action of the commission pursuant to these rules. He shall file a bond annually with the commission with such surety as may be approved by it and in such amount as it may fix. Premiums on said bond shall be paid by the fund.

(h) Budget. At least sixty days prior to the commencement of each calendar year, the commission shall submit to this court its budget of operations of such year, which may be amended thereafter as necessity dictates.

(i) Payment to the fund, enforcement.

(1) As a condition to continuing membership in the bar of this court, including the right to practice law before Iowa courts, every bar member, except one to whom a certificate of exemption has been issued pursuant to the provisions of subsection (4) hereof, shall pay to the commission through the office of the assistant administrator the assessment hereinafter specified [subject to subsections (2), (3), and (5) below] annually after the adoption of this rule. Assessments shall be due on or before March 1 of each year, for that calendar year. The assessment for the calendar year 1974 shall be paid on or before March 1, 1974.
For the calendar year of the member's admission on examination to the bar of Iowa, and for the first calendar year thereafter... None.

For the calendar year of member's admission on motion to the bar of Iowa... $50.

For the years other than those heretofore exempted, up to and including the fifth calendar year following admission to the bar of Iowa... $50 annually.

For the years after the fifth calendar year following admission to the bar of Iowa... $100 annually.

In making any of the above calculations, time spent full time in the military service of the United States following admission to the Iowa Bar and during the years under consideration shall be excluded.

(2) Any member of the bar of this court may, at his or her election, instead of the fixed sum set forth in the above schedule, pay to the commission, as his or her assessment for the purposes of the fund for any particular calendar year, an amount equal to one percent of his or her net income derived from the practice of law in Iowa for the preceding calendar year, but in no event less than twenty-five dollars. Net income from the practice of law shall be for the purposes of this section that amount shown on the federal income tax return of such member for the appropriate year as "profit or loss from business or profession." The commission may require any member so electing to submit to the commission a copy of his or her federal income tax return for the appropriate year to substantiate the amount due hereunder.

(3) The commission shall determine the net value of the cash and securities in the fund as of December 1 of each year. Whenever the value of such assets shall equal $600,000 after deducting all claims and expenses for reimbursement against the fund, not disposed of at the date of valuation, and all expenses properly chargeable against the fund, the commission shall file with this court prior to December 31 of such year a certificate to that effect which shall be known as a certificate of sufficiency. When a certificate of sufficiency is filed with this court, the annual assessment of the fund for the next calendar year after the date of evaluation in said certificate shall be ten dollars for each member of the bar obligated under the above schedule to pay any amount and who has paid assessments to the fund in the total sum of two hundred dollars in prior years notwithstanding anything heretofore or hereinafter provided.

(4) A member of the bar of this court who is not engaged in the practice of law in the state of Iowa may be granted a certificate of exemption by the commission, and thereafter no assessment shall be required from such member unless he or she thereafter engages in the practice of law in the state of Iowa, in which case the certificate of exemption shall without further order of court stand revoked and the member shall file at once the statement required by rule 121.3(i)(6), below, and the questionnaire required by rule 121.4(b) and pay the assessment due. A member of the bar requesting a certificate of exemption shall file with the assistant administrator the statement required by rule 121.3(i)(6), below, and such part of the rule 121.4(b) questionnaire as the assistant administrator may deem necessary to enable him to determine the member's status. The practice of law as that term is employed in these rules includes the representation of others in any Iowa courts, the right to represent others in any Iowa courts, or to regularly prepare legal instruments, secure legal rights, advise others as to their legal rights or the effect of contemplated actions upon their legal rights, or to hold oneself out to so do; or to be one who instructs others in legal rights; or to be a judge or one who rules upon the legal rights of others unless neither the state nor federal law requires the person so judging or ruling to hold a license to practice law.

Referred to in Court Rule 121.4(b)(1)

(5) In lieu of the payments otherwise required by this rule, any member of the bar of this court who certifies in writing to the commission that he or she is a justice, judge, associate judge, or full-time magistrate of any court, or one who performs legal services only for a governmental unit, or one who performs legal services only for a particular person, firm or corporation (other than a professional legal corporation or a law firm) and stands in the legal capacity with such person, firm or corporation as an employee, shall pay to the commission the sum of twenty-five dollars annually during the time he or she is so engaged, provided that if under court rule 121.3(3) the commission has filed a certificate of sufficiency with the court then the annual assessment for each bar member referred to herein who has paid to the commission a total of two hundred dollars shall be reduced to ten dollars for each year that the certificate of sufficiency is filed by the commission. Provided, however, that a retired judge or justice recalled for temporary service shall not be required to pay an assessment or surrender his certificate of exemption.

(6) To facilitate the collection of the annual assessment provided for above, all members of the Iowa bar required by this rule to pay an assessment, and those exempted other than by (4), above, shall, on or before March 1 of each year, commencing March 1, 1974, file a statement, on a form prescribed by the assistant administrator, setting forth his or her date of admission to practice before this court, his or her current residence and office addresses, and such other information as the assistant administrator may from time to time direct. In addition to such statement, every bar member shall file a supplemental statement of any change in the information previously submitted within thirty days of such change. All persons admitted to practice before this court after January 1, 1974 shall file the statement required by this rule at the time of admission but no annual fee shall be payable until the time above provided.

Referred to in Court Rule 121.A(b)(1)

(7) Any attorney who fails to timely pay the assessment required under the above rule, or fails to file the statement or supplement thereto provided in the last subparagraph shall be summarily suspended, provided a notice of delinquency has been served upon him or her in the manner provided for the service of original notices in rule 56, Iowa rules of civil procedure, or has been forwarded to him or her by restricted certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to him or her at his or her last known address at least thirty days prior to such suspension. Following the suspension, the assistant administrator shall again notify the attorney in either of the manners above provided that his or her right to practice law in Iowa has been suspended.

Referred to in Court Rule 121.A(c)(1)

(8) Any person who has been suspended pursuant to these rules or who currently holds a certificate of exemption and who practices law or who holds himself or herself out as being authorized to practice law in this state is engaged in the unauthorized practice of law and may also be held in contempt of the court or may be subject to disciplinary action as provided by court rule 118.

(9) An attorney who has been summarily suspended under the provisions of this rule solely for failure to pay the annual assessment may be reinstated upon a showing such failure was not willful and upon paying the assessment prescribed for the period of his or her suspension. An attorney summarily suspended under these rules solely for failure to file the statement, or supplement, or questionnaire required by these rules may be reinstated upon a showing such failure was not willful and upon filing such statement, supplement or questionnaire.

(j) Claims.

(1) The commission shall consider for payment all claims resulting from the dishonest conduct of a member of the bar of this state acting either as an attorney or fiduciary, provided that:

a. Said conduct was engaged in while the attorney was a practicing member of the bar of this state and the claim arises out of the practice of law in this state;

b. Such defalcation or dishonest conduct occurred after January 1, 1974;

c. The claim is made within one year after the client's discovery of the loss; provided, however, such time limitation in unusual circumstances may be extended by the commission in its discretion for good cause shown;

d. The claim is made directly by or on behalf of the injured client or his personal representaive or, if a corporation, by or on behalf of itself or its successors in interest;

e. The commission is satisfied that there is no other source or collateral source for the reimbursement of the loss; and

f. Claims shall not be paid which arise out of an employer-employee relationship as distinguished from a lawyer-client relationship or a fiduciary relationship.

(2) The commission is invested with the power, which it shall exercise in its sole discretion, to determine whether a claim merits reimbursement from the fund, and if so, the amount of such reimbursement, the time, place and manner of its payment, the conditions upon which payment shall be made, and the order in which payment shall be made. The commission's powers in this respect may be exercised only by the affirmative vote of at least four commissioners. In making such determinations the commission shall consider among other appropriate factors, the following:

a. The amounts available and likely to become available to the fund for the payment of claims and the size and number of claims which are likely to be presented;

b. The total amount of reimbursable losses in previous years for which total reimbursement has not been made, if any, and the total assets of the fund;

c. The amount of the claimant's loss as compared to the amount of losses sustained by other eligible claimants;

d. The degree of hardship suffered by the claimant as a result of the loss;

e. The degree of negligence, if any, of the claimant which may have contributed to the loss;

f. The total amount of losses caused by defalcations of any one attorney or associated group of attorneys.

(3) The commission shall, by regulation approved by the court, fix the maximum amount which any one claimant may recover from the fund and the aggregate maximum amount which may be recovered because of the dishonest conduct of any one attorney.

(4) No claimant or any other person or organization shall have any right in the fund as third party beneficiary or otherwise. Reimbursement by claim on the fund shall be a matter of grace and not of right.

(5) The commission may require as a condition to payment that the claimant execute an assignment of claimant's right against the defauling lawyer.

(6) No claimant need be represented by counsel before the commission. No attorney representing a claimant shall receive a fee for his services from the fund. Any agreement for compensation between a claimant and any attorney retained for prosecution of the claim shall be subject to the approval of the commission.
(7) The commission may request individual lawyers, bar associations, and other organizations of lawyers to assist the commission in the investigation of claims.

(8) The payment or denial of any claim filed under the provisions of this rule shall be inadmissible as evidence in any disciplinary or contempt proceeding. [Court Order, December 5, 1973; amended by Court Order, April 22, 1974; amended by Court Order October 16, 1974]

(2) A failure to complete and return a questionnaire shall be dealt with as provided in court rule 121.4(c).

(c) Failure of bar members to co-operate.

(e) “Dishonest conduct” shall mean wrongful acts committed by a lawyer against a person in the manner of defalcation or embezzlement of money, or the wrongful taking or conversion of money, property or other things of value.

(3) The date or period of time during which the alleged loss was incurred.

(4) Name and address of the party requesting reimbursement.

(5) The general statement of facts relative to the request for reimbursement.

(a) The chairman shall cause each such application to be sent to the commissioners or other parties or organizations for investigation and report. A copy shall be served upon or sent by certified mail to the lawyer, at his last known address, who it is claimed committed the dishonest act. Whenever feasible, any lawyer to whom such application is referred shall not practice in the county wherein the alleged defalcating attorney practiced. From time to time, the chairman may request of the applicant further information with respect to the alleged claim.
(b) When, in the opinion of the person or persons to whom the application has been referred the application is clearly not for a reimbursable loss, no further investigation need be conducted, but a report with respect to such application shall be made to the commission.

(c) The person or persons to whom a report is referred for investigation shall conduct such investigation as to them seems necessary and desirable in order to determine whether the same is for a reimbursable loss and in order to guide the commissioners in determining the extent, if any, to which the claim shall be reimbursed from the fund. Any information so obtained by the person or persons shall be used solely by or for the commissioners and shall otherwise constitute confidential information.

(d) Reports with respect to applications shall be submitted by the person or persons to whom they have been referred for investigation to the chairman as soon as reasonably possible. The chairman shall summarize each report in detail as to him shall seem necessary and shall send to each member of the commission a copy of such summary.

(e) At the meetings of the commission the commissioners will conduct such investigation or review as seems necessary or desirable in order to determine whether the applications are for a reimbursable loss, and to guide the commissioners in determining the extent, if any, to which the applicant shall be reimbursed. After studying the summaries or applications to be processed, any commissioner may request that testimony be presented. Absent such recommendation or request, applications shall be processed on the basis of information contained in the report of the person or persons who investigated such application and in the summary. In all cases, the alleged defrauding attorney or his personal representative shall be given an opportunity to be heard by the commissioners if he or she so requests.

Sec. 4. Subrogation for reimbursement made. In the event reimbursement is made to a person or organization, the fund shall be subrogated to his or its rights in said amount and may bring such action as is deemed advisable against the lawyer, his assets or his estate, either in the name of the person, or in the name of the Clients' Security Trust Fund of the bar of Iowa. The party receiving funds shall be required to execute a subrogation agreement in said regard. Upon commencement of an action by the fund pursuant to its subrogation rights, it shall advise the reimbursed party at his or her last known address. That party may then join in such action to press a claim for his or her loss in excess of the amount of the above reimbursement, but the fund shall have first priority to any recovery on such suit.

Sec. 5. General purposes. In any given case, the commissioners may waive technical adherence to these regulations in order to achieve the objectives of the fund.

Sec. 6. General provisions. With the exception of reports of the commissioners to the supreme court no publicity shall be given to applications for reimbursement, payment made by the fund or to any action of the commissioners without the express prior approval of the supreme court. MORTALITY TABLES

The American Experience Table of Mortality was published in the Code of 1939. As stated in the heading to said table it is "no part of any statute and is set out as a convenience only to meet numerous requests therefor."

From information obtained from the Commissioner of Insurance and numerous experts on insurance law, the Code Editor is advised that the American Experience Table of Mortality is outmoded. Longevity has increased and greater scientific study has been made of the subject of mortality tables since that table was prepared. The results have been that new and more modern tables have been made which are known as the Commissioners 1941 Standard Ordinary Mortality Table and the Commissioners 1958 Standard Ordinary Mortality Table. The tables have been prepared under the supervision of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners and have been adopted by statute or by the approval of the Insurance Commissioners in practically all of the states including Iowa.

The Code Editor is authorized by the Commissioner of Insurance to say that they are approved by him and used and accepted by him in his official work. They are included herein as a matter of convenience to those who may have use for such tables.

See sections 508.36 and 508.37 of the Code for reference to other Mortality tables under the "Standard Valuation and Nonforfeiture Law". Also, see the State Revenue Department's table at the end of chapter 450 of the Code adopted pursuant to the Inheritance Tax Law.
