2. Upon written request of a consumer, the person to whom an obligation is owed pursuant to a consumer credit agreement shall provide a written statement of the dates and amounts of payments made within the twelve months preceding the month in which the request is received and the total amount unpaid as of the end of the period covered by the statement. The statement shall be provided without charge once during each year of the term of the obligation. If additional statements are requested the creditor may charge not in excess of three dollars for each additional statement.

3. After a consumer has fulfilled all obligations with respect to a consumer credit transaction, other than one pursuant to open-end credit, the person to whom the obligation was owed shall, upon request of the consumer, deliver or mail to the consumer written evidence acknowledging payment in full of all obligations with respect to the transaction.

4. A person entitled to notice under this section shall also be given a copy of any writing setting forth the terms of the debtor’s agreement and of any separate agreement of obligation signed by the person entitled to the notice.

§537.3208 Notice to cosigners and similar parties.

1. No natural person, other than the spouse of the consumer, is obligated as a cosigner, co-maker, guarantor, endorser, surety, or similar party with respect to a consumer credit transaction, unless before or contemporaneously with signing any separate agreement of obligation or any writing setting forth the terms of the debtor’s agreement, the person receives a separate written notice that contains a completed identification of the debt the person may have to pay and reasonably informs the person of the person’s obligation with respect to it.

2. A clear and conspicuous notice in substantially the following form complies with this section:

NOTICE
You agree to pay the debt identified below although you may not personally receive any property, services, or money. You may be sued for payment although the person who receives the property, services, or money is able to pay. This notice is not the contract that obligates you to pay the debt. Read the contract for the exact terms of your obligation.

IDENTIFICATION OF DEBT YOU MAY HAVE TO PAY (name of debtor)
(name of creditor)
(date)
(kind of debt)
I have received a copy of this notice
(Date) (Signed)

3. The notice required by this section need not be given to a seller, lessor, or lender who is obligated to an assignee of the seller’s, lessor’s, or lender’s rights.

4. A person entitled to notice under this section shall also be given a copy of any writing setting forth the terms of the debtor’s agreement and of any separate agreement of obligation signed by the person entitled to the notice.

§537.3209 Advertising.

1. A seller, lessor, or lender shall not advertise, print, display, publish, distribute, utter or broadcast, or cause to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, uttered or broadcast in any manner, any false, misleading, or deceptive statement or representation with regard to the rates, terms or conditions of credit with respect to a consumer credit transaction.

2. Advertising that complies with the Truth in Lending Act does not violate this section.
This section does not apply to the owner or personnel, as such, of any medium in which an advertisement appears or through which it is disseminated [C24, 27, 31, §9432, C35, §9438 f12, C39, §9438.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §536 12, C66, 71, 73, §536 12, 536A 20, C75 77, 79, 81, §537 3209]

537.3210 Prohibited statements relating to rates.
A creditor shall not state the rate of a finance charge to a consumer, in response to any inquiry, or in any advertisement, in the form of an add on or discount rate, or in any form other than the rate calculated according to the actuarial method as a percent per year on the unpaid balances of the amount financed, or the annual percentage rate required to be disclosed under the Truth in Lending Act [C75, 77, 79, 81, §537 3210]

537.3211 Notice of consumer paper
Every note which is a negotiable instrument pursuant to section 554 3104 taken in a consumer credit transaction, if the writing requires or provides for a signature of the consumer, shall conspicuously show on its face the following "This is a consumer credit transaction" [C75, 77, 79, 81, §537 3211]

537.3212 Notice of methods of financing and rates.
1 With respect to a consumer who has an open end credit account with a creditor, and with respect to a creditor which offers to some or all of its customers consumer credit sales of goods or services both pursuant to open end credit and not pursuant to open end credit, that creditor shall give written notice to that consumer of those alternative methods at the times provided in subsection 3. The notice shall be as provided in subsection 2. The notice required by this section shall conspicuously state the highest finance charge charged by that creditor to any consumer within the last calendar year for each type of credit sale. Such finance charge shall be stated as an annual percentage rate in such form as is required pursuant to section 537 3201 for each type of credit sale described in subsection 1, and the terms of repayment for each type of credit sale.
2 With respect to a consumer who has an open end credit account with a creditor, if the written notice is mailed with a periodic statement mailed to the account holder, and thereafter as provided in paragraph 'a'. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §537 3212]

PART 3
LIMITATIONS ON AGREEMENTS AND PRACTICES

537.3301 Security in consumer credit transactions.
1 With respect to a consumer credit sale, a seller may take a security interest in the property sold. In addition, a seller may take a security interest in goods upon which services are performed or in which goods are installed or to which they are annexed, or in land to which the goods are affixed or which is maintained, repaired or improved as a result of the sale of the goods or services, if in the case of a security interest in land the amount financed is one thousand dollars or more, or in the case of a security interest in goods if other amounts are three hundred dollars or more, or if the goods are household goods, or motor vehicles used by a consumer, the consumer's dependents, or the family with which the consumer resides, as transportation to and from a place of employment, one hundred dollars or more. Except as provided with respect to cross collateral under section 537 3302, a seller may not otherwise take a security interest in property to secure the debt arising from a consumer credit sale.
2 With respect to a consumer lease, a lessor may not take a security interest in property to secure the debt arising from the lease. This subsection does not apply to a security deposit for a consumer lease.
3 With respect to a supervised loan, a lender may not take a security interest, other than a purchase money security interest, in the clothing, one dining table and set of chairs, one refrigerator, one heating stove, one cooking stove, one radio, beds and bedding, one couch, two living room chairs, cooking utensils, or kitchenware used by the consumer, the consumer's dependents, or the family with whom the consumer resides.
4 A security interest taken in violation of this section is void [C75, 77, 79, 81, §537 3301]

537 3302 Cross-collateral.
1 In addition to contracting for a security interest pursuant to the provisions on security in consumer credit transactions under section 537 3301, a seller in a consumer credit sale may secure the debt arising from the sale by contracting for a security interest in another property if as a result of a prior sale the seller has an existing security interest in the other property. The seller may also contract for a security interest in the property sold in the subsequent sale as security for the previous debt.
2 If the seller contracts for a security interest in another property pursuant to this section, the rate of finance charge thereafter on the aggregate unpaid balances so secured may not exceed that permitted if the balances so secured were consolidated pursuant to the provisions on finance charge on consolidation under section 537 2505. The seller has a reasonable time after so contracting to make any adjustments required by this section. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §537 3302]

537 3303 Debt secured by cross-collateral.
1 If debts arising from two or more consumer credit sales, other than sales pursuant to open end credit, are secured by cross collateral or consolidated into one debt payable on a single schedule of payments, and the debt is secured by security interests taken with respect to one or more of the sales, payments received by the seller after the taking of the cross collateral or the consolidation are deemed, for the purpose of determining the amount of the debt secured by the various security interests, to have been first applied to the payment of the debts arising from the sales first made. To the extent debts are paid according to this section, security interests in items of property terminate as the debt originally incurred with respect to each item is paid.

2. Payments received by the seller upon an open end credit account are deemed, for the purpose of determining the amount of the debt secured by the various security interests, to have been applied first to the payment of finance charges in the order of their entry to the account and then to the payment of debts in the order in which the entries to the account showing the debts were made.

3. If the debts consolidated arose from two or more sales made on the same day, payments received by the seller are deemed, for the purpose of determining the amount of the debt secured by the various security interests, to have been applied first to the payment of the smallest debt.

537.3304 Use of multiple agreements.

1. With respect to a sale or loan other than a super vised loan, a creditor may not use multiple agreements in what is in substance a single transaction, with intent to obtain a higher finance charge than would otherwise be permitted by the provisions of article 2 of this chapter.

2. With respect to a supervised loan, a lender may not use multiple agreements with intent to obtain a higher finance charge than would otherwise be permitted. For the purposes of this subsection, multiple agreements are used if a lender allows any person, or husband and wife, to become obligated in any way under more than one loan agreement with the lender or with a person related to the lender.

3. The excess amount of finance charge obtained in violation of this section is an excessive charge for the purposes of the provisions on rights of parties in section 537 5201 and the provisions on civil actions by the administrator in section 537 6113.

537.3305 No assignment of earnings.

1. A creditor may not take an assignment of earnings of the consumer for payment or as security for payment of a debt arising out of a consumer credit transaction. An assignment of earnings in violation of this section is unenforceable by the assignee of the earnings and revocable by the consumer. This section does not prohibit a consumer from authorizing deductions in favor of a creditor if the authorization is revocable, the consumer is given a complete copy of the writing evidencing the authorization at the time the consumer signs it, and the writing contains on its face a conspicuous notice of the consumer's right to revoke the authorization.

2. A sale of unpaid earnings made in consideration of the payment of money to or for the account of the seller of the earnings is deemed to be a loan to the seller secured by an assignment of earnings.

537.3306 Authorization to confess judgment prohibited.

Unless executed after default on a claim arising out of a consumer credit transaction, authorization for a judgment by confession on that claim pursuant to chapter 676 is void. Any other authorization by a consumer for any person to confess judgment on the claim, whenever executed, is void.

537.3307 Certain negotiable instruments prohibited.

With respect to a consumer credit sale or consumer lease, the creditor may not take a negotiable instrument other than a check or credit union share draft dated not later than ten days after its issuance as evidence of the obligation of the consumer.

537.3308 Balloon payments.

1. Except as provided in subsection 2, if any scheduled payment of a consumer credit transaction is more than twice as large as the average of earlier scheduled payments, the consumer has the right to refinance the amount of that payment at the time it is due without penalty, as provided in section 537 2504. The terms of the refinancing shall be no less favorable to the consumer than the terms of the original transaction.

2. This section does not apply to any of the following.

   a. A consumer lease.
   b. A transaction pursuant to open end credit.
   c. A transaction to the extent that the payment schedule is adjusted to the seasonal or irregular income scheduled payments of obligations of the consumer.
   d. A transaction of a class defined by rule of the administrator as not requiring for the protection of the consumer his right to refinance as provided in this section.
   e. A consumer loan in which the amount financed exceeds five thousand dollars and is secured by an interest in land.

537.3309 Referral sales and leases.

A practice unlawful under section 714 16, subsection 2, paragraph "b", if done in connection with a consumer credit sale or consumer lease, is a violation of this chapter for which the consumer has a cause of action under section 537 5201, subsection 1. The administrator has all powers granted under article 6, part 1, to enforce the provisions of section 714 16, subsection 2, paragraph "b". If a consumer is induced by a violation of section 714 16, subsection 2, paragraph "b" to enter into a consumer credit sale or consumer lease, the agreement is unenforceable by the seller or lessor and the consumer, at the consumer's option, in addition to other remedies, may rescind the agreement or retain the goods delivered and the benefit of any services performed, without any obligation to pay for them.

537.3310 Limitations on executory transactions.
1 In a consumer credit transaction, if performance by a creditor is by delivery of goods, services or both, in four or more installments, either on demand of the consumer or by prearranged scheduled performance, the consumer shall have the right to cancel the obligation with respect to that part which has not been performed on the date of cancellation.
2 If the consumer exercises the right to cancel or, in any event, if the creditor attempts to exercise a right to accelerate, the creditor is entitled to recover only that part of the cash price and charges attributable to the part of the creditor's obligation which has been performed.
3 Cancellation under this section shall be effective when the consumer mails or delivers a written notice of cancellation.
4 Notwithstanding an agreement to the contrary, a creditor may not exercise a right to accelerate beyond the amount set forth in subsection 2.

537.3311 Discrimination prohibited.
A creditor shall not refuse to enter into a consumer credit transaction or impose finance charges or other terms or conditions more onerous than those regularly extended by that creditor to consumers of similar economic backgrounds because of the age, color, creed, national origin, political affiliation, race, religion, sex, marital status or disability of the consumer, or because the consumer receives public assistance, social security benefits, pension benefits or the like, or because of the exercise by the consumer of rights pursuant to this chapter or other provisions of law.
[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537 3311]

PART 4
LIMITATIONS ON CONSUMER'S LIABILITY

537.3401 Restriction on liability in consumer lease.
The obligation of a lessee upon expiration of a consumer lease may not exceed twice the average payment allocable to a monthly period under the lease. This limitation does not apply to charges for damages to the leased property or for other default.

537.3402 Limitation on default charges.
Except for reasonable expenses incurred in realizing on a security interest, the agreement with respect to a consumer credit transaction other than a consumer lease may not provide for any charges as a result of default by the consumer other than those authorized by this chapter. A provision in violation of this section is unenforceable.

537.3403 Card issuer subject to claims and defenses.
1 This section neither limits the liability of nor imposes liability on a card issuer as a manufacturer, supplier, seller, or lessor of property or services sold or leased pursuant to the credit card. This section may subject a card issuer to claims and defenses of a card holder against a seller or lessor arising from sales or leases made pursuant to the credit card.

2 A card issuer is subject to claims and defenses of a card holder against the seller or lessor arising from the sale or lease of property or services by a seller or lessor licensed, franchised, or permitted by the card issuer or a person related to the card issuer to do business under the trade name or designation of the card issuer or a person related to the card issuer, to the extent of the original amount owing to the card issuer with respect to the sale or lease of the property or services as to which the claim or defense arose.
3 Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a card issuer, including a lender credit card issuer, is subject to all claims and defenses of a card holder against the seller or lessor arising from the sale or lease of property or services pursuant to the credit card only if all of the following apply:
   a. The original amount owing to the card issuer with respect to the sale or lease of the property or services as to which the claim or defense arose exceeds fifty dollars.
   b. The residence of the cardholder and the place where the sale or lease occurred are in the same state or within one hundred miles of each other.
   c. The cardholder has made a good faith attempt to obtain satisfaction from the seller or lessor with respect to the claim or defense.
4 Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a card issuer, including a lender credit card issuer, is subject to claims and defenses only to the extent of the amount owing to the card issuer with respect to the sale or lease of the property or services as to which the claim or defense arose. Notice of the claim or defense may be given prior to the attempt to obtain satisfaction specified in subsection 3. Written notice is effective when mailed or delivered.
5 For the purpose of determining the amount owing to the card issuer with respect to the sale or lease upon an open end credit account, payments received for the account are deemed to have been first applied to the payment of finance charges in the order of their entry to the account and then to the payment of debts in the order in which the entries of the debts are made to the account.
6 Except as provided in section 537 1107, an agreement may not contain a provision to limit or waive the claims or defenses of a card holder under this section. A provision in violation of this subsection is unenforceable.

537.3404 Assignee subject to claims and defenses.
1 With respect to a consumer credit sale or consumer lease, an assignee of the rights of the seller or lessor is subject to all claims and defenses of the consumer against the seller or lessor arising from the sale or lease of property or services, notwithstanding that the assignee is a holder in due course of certain negotiable instruments issued in violation of the provisions prohibiting certain negotiable instruments in section 537 3307, unless the consumer has agreed in writing not to assert against an assignee a claim or defense arising out of such sale, and the consumer's contract has been assigned to an assignee not related to the seller who acquired the consumer's contract in good faith and for value and who gives the consumer notice.
of the assignment as provided in this subsection and who within thirty days after the mailing of the notice receives no written notice of the facts giving rise to the consumer's claim or defense. Such agreement not to assert a claim or defense is not valid if the assignee receives such written notice from the consumer within such thirty day period. The notice of assignment shall be in writing and addressed to the consumer at the consumer's address as stated in the contract, identify the contract, describe the property purchased by the consumer, state the names of the seller and consumer, the name and address of the assignee, the amount payable by the consumer and the number, amounts and due dates of the installments, and contain a conspicuous notice to the consumer that the consumer has thirty days from the date of the mailing of the notice to the consumer within which to notify the assignee in writing of any claims or defenses the consumer may have against the seller and that if written notification of any such claims or defenses is not received by the assignee within such thirty day period, the assignee will have the right to enforce the contract free of any claims or defenses the consumer may have against the seller. An assignee does not acquire a consumer's contract in good faith within the meaning of this subsection if the assignee has knowledge or, from the assignee's course of dealing with the seller or the assignee's records, notice of substantial complaints by other consumers of the seller's failure or refusal to perform the seller's contracts with them and of the seller's failure to remedy the seller's defaults within a reasonable time after the assignee notifies the seller of the complaints.

2. A claim or defense of a consumer specified in subsection 1 may be asserted against the assignee under this section only if the consumer has made a good faith attempt to obtain satisfaction from the seller or lessor with respect to the claim or defense, and only to the extent of the amount owing to the assignee with respect to the sale or lease of the property or services as to which the claim or defense arose, at the time the assignee has notice of the claim or defense. Notice of the claim or defense may be given prior to the attempt specified in this subsection. Written notice is effective when mailed or delivered.

3. For the purpose of determining the amount owing to the assignee with respect to the sale or lease
   a. Payments received by the assignee after the consolidation of two or more consumer credit sales, other than pursuant to open end credit, are deemed to have been first applied to the payment of the sales first made, and if the sales consolidated arose from sales made on the same day, payments are deemed to have been first applied to the smaller or smallest sale or sales.
   b. Payments received upon an open end credit account are deemed to have been first applied to the payment of finance charges in the order of their entry to the account and then to the payment of debts in the order in which the entries of the debts are made to the account.

4. Except as provided in section 537.1107, an agreement may not contain a provision to limit or waive the claims or defenses of a consumer under this section. A provision in violation of this subsection is unenforceable.

537.3405 Lender subject to defenses arising from sales and leases

1. A lender, other than the issuer of a lender credit card, who, with respect to a particular transaction, makes a consumer loan for the purpose of enabling a consumer to buy or lease from a particular seller or lessor property or services, is subject to all claims and defenses of the consumer against the seller or lessor arising from that sale or lease of the property or services if any of the following are applicable:
   a. The lender knows that the seller or lessor arranged for a commission, brokerage, or referral fee for the extension of credit by the lender.
   b. The lender is a person related to the seller or lessor unless the relationship is remote or is not a factor in the transaction.
   c. The seller or lessor guarantees the loan or otherwise assumes the risk of loss by the lender upon the loan.
   d. The lender directly supplies the seller or lessor with the contract document used by the consumer to evidence the loan, and the seller or lessor has knowledge of the credit terms and participates in the preparation of the document.
   e. The loan is conditioned upon the consumer's purchase or lease of the property or services from the particular seller or lessor, but the lender's payment of proceeds of the loan to the seller or lessor does not in itself establish that the loan was so conditioned.
   f. The lender otherwise knowingly participates with the seller in the sale. The fact that the lender takes a security interest in property sold in that sale, or makes the proceeds of the loan payable to the seller does not in itself constitute knowing participation in the sale.

2. A claim or defense of a consumer specified in subsection 1 may be asserted against the lender under this section only if the consumer has made a good faith attempt to obtain satisfaction from the seller or lessor with respect to the claim or defense and only to the extent of the amount owing to the lender with respect to the sale or lease of the property or services as to which the claim or defense arose at the time the lender has notice of the claim or defense. Notice of the claim or defense may be given prior to the attempt specified in this subsection. Written notice is effective when mailed or delivered.

3. For the purpose of determining the amount owing to the lender with respect to the sale or lease
   a. Payments received by the lender after the consolidation of two or more consumer loans, other than pursuant to open end credit, are deemed to have been first applied to the payment of the loans first made, and if the loans consolidated arose from loans made on the same day, payments are deemed to have been first applied to the smaller or smallest loan or loans.
   b. Payments received upon an open end credit account are deemed to have been first applied to the payment of finance charges in the order of their entry to the account and then to the payment of debts in the order in which the entries of the debts are made to the account.

4. Except as provided in section 537.1107, an agreement may not contain a provision to limit or waive the claims or defenses of a consumer under this section. A provision in violation of this section is unenforceable.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.3405]
HOME SOLICITATION SALES

537.3501 Door-to-door sales.
In a consumer credit sale or a sale in which the goods or services are paid for in whole or in part by a lender credit card or a consumer loan in which the lender is subject to defenses arising from the sale under section 537.3405, a consumer has, in addition to all the rights and remedies provided by chapter 82, a cause of action under section 537.5201, subsection 1, and the administrator has all powers granted under article 6, part 1, to enforce the provisions of chapter 713B.

ARTICLE 4
INSURANCE

537.4101 Scope — excess charges.
1 This article applies to insurance provided in relation to a consumer credit transaction.
2 A charge for insurance in excess of the rates promulgated by the commissioner of insurance, or otherwise made in violation of the law, including this chapter, or the rules promulgated by the commissioner of insurance, is an excess charge for purposes of determining rights of parties under section 537.5201, and authority of the administrator to bring civil action under section 537.6113.

ARTICLE 5
REMEDIES AND PENALTIES
LIMITATIONS ON CREDITORS REMEDIES

537.5101 Short title.
This article shall be known and may be cited as the “Iowa Consumer Credit Code — Remedies and Penalties.”

537.5102 Scope.
This part applies to actions or other proceedings to enforce rights arising from consumer credit transactions, to extortiate or unlawful extensions of credit, and to unconscionability.

537.5103 Creditor’s obligations on repossession — restriction on deficiency judgments.
1 This section applies to a consumer credit sale of goods or services and a consumer loan. A consumer is not liable for a deficiency unless the creditor has disposed of repossessed or surrendered goods in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner.
2 If the seller repossesses or voluntarily accepts surrender either of goods which were the subject of the sale and in which the seller has a security interest, or of goods which were not the subject of the sale but in which the seller has a security interest to secure a debt arising from a sale of goods or services or a combined sale of goods and services, the seller’s duty to dispose of the collateral is governed by the provisions on disposition of collateral in sections 554 9501 to 554 9507.
3 If a lender takes possession or voluntarily accepts surrender of goods in which the lender has a security interest to secure a debt arising from a consumer loan, the lender’s duty to dispose of the collateral is governed by the provisions on disposition of collateral in sections 554 9501 to 554 9507.

537.5104 No garnishment before judgment.
Prior to entry of judgment in an action against the consumer arising from a consumer credit transaction, the creditor may not attach unpaid earnings of the consumer, or earnings deposited in a financial institution by the consumer, by garnishment, attachment, or proceedings under chapter 630.

537.5105 Limitation on garnishment.
1 For the purposes of this part a “Disposable earnings” means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of amounts required by law to be withheld or assigned b “Garnishment” means any legal or equitable procedure through which the earnings of an individual are required to be withheld for payment of a debt 2 In addition to the provisions of section 642.21, the maximum part of the aggregate disposable earnings of an individual for any workweek which is subjected to garnishment to enforce payment of a judgment arising from a consumer credit transaction may not exceed the lesser of twenty-five percent of the individual’s disposable earnings for that week, or the amount by which the individual’s disposable earnings for that week exceed forty times the federal minimum hourly wage prescribed by the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, United States Code, title 29, section 206, subsection “a,” paragraph (1), in effect at the time the earnings are payable.
3 No court may make, execute, or enforce an order or process in violation of this section.
4 At any time after the entry of a judgment in favor of a creditor in an action against a consumer for debt arising from a consumer credit transaction, the consumer may file with the court a verified application for an order exempting from garnishment pursuant to that judgment for an appropriate period of time a greater portion or all of the consumer’s aggregate disposable earnings for a workweek or other applicable pay period than is provided for in subsection 2. The application shall designate the portion of the consumer’s earnings which are not exempt from garnishment under this section and other law, shall specify the period of time for which the additional exemption is sought, shall describe the judgment with respect to which the application is made, and shall state that the designated portion in addition to earnings that are exempt by law is necessary for the maintenance of the consumer or a family supported wholly or partly by the earnings. Upon the filing of a sufficient application under this subsection, the court may issue any temporary order staying enforcement of the judgment by garnishment that may be necessary under the circumstances, shall set a hearing on the application not less than five nor more than ten days from the date of the filing of the application, and shall cause notice of the application and the hearing date to be served on the judgment creditor or the judgment creditor’s attorney of record. At the hearing, if it appears to the court that all or any portion of the earnings sought to be additionally exempted are necessary for the maintenance of the consumer or a family supported wholly or partly by the earnings of the consumer for all or any part of the time requested in the application, the court shall issue an order granting the application to that extent, otherwise it shall deny the application. The order is subject to modification or vacation upon the further application of any party to it upon a showing of changed circumstances after a hearing upon notice to all interested parties.

537.5105 Garnishment.
The administrator has all powers granted under article 6, part 1, to enforce the provisions of section 642 21, in relation to a garnishment arising from a consumer credit transaction.

537.5107 Extortionate or unlawful extensions of credit.
If it is the understanding of the creditor and the debtor at the time an extension of credit is made that delay in making repayment or failure to make repayment could result in the use of violence or other criminal means to cause harm to the person, reputation or property of any person, the repayment of the extension of credit is unenforceable through civil judicial processes against the consumer.

537.5108 Unconscionability — inducement by unconscionable conduct — unconscionable debt collection.
1 With respect to a transaction that is, gives rise to, or leads the debtor to believe it will give rise to a consumer credit transaction, in an action other than a class action, that a person has engaged in, is engaging in, or is likely to engage in unconscionable conduct in collecting a debt arising from that transaction, the court may grant an injunction and award the consumer any actual damages he has sustained.
2 If it is claimed or appears to the court that the agreement or transaction or any term or part of it may be unconscionable, or that a person has engaged in, is engaging in, or is likely to engage in unconscionable conduct in collecting a debt, the parties shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present evidence as to the setting, purpose, and effect of the agreement or transaction or term or part thereof, or of the conduct, to aid the court in making the determination.
3 In applying subsection 1, consideration shall be given to each of the following factors, among others, as applicable:
   a Belief by the seller, lessor or lender at the time a transaction is entered into that there is no reasonable probability of payment in full of the obligation by the consumer or debtor.
   b In the case of a consumer credit sale or consumer lease, knowledge by the seller or lessor at the time of the sale or lease of the inability of the consumer to receive substantial benefits from the property or services sold or leased.
   c In the case of a consumer credit sale or consumer lease, gross disparity between the price of the property or services sold or leased and the value of the property or services measured by the price at which similar property or services are readily obtainable in credit transactions by like consumers.
   d The fact that the creditor contracted for or received separate charges for insurance with respect to a consumer credit sale or consumer loan with the effect of making the sale or loan, considered as a whole, unconscionable.
   e The fact that the seller, lessor or lender has knowingly taken advantage of the inability of the consumer or debtor reasonably to protect the consumer's or debtor's interests by reason of physical or mental infirmities, ignorance, illiteracy or inability to understand the language of the agreement, or similar factors.
   f The fact that the seller, lessor or lender has engaged in conduct with knowledge or reason to know that like conduct has been restrained or enjoined by a court in a civil action by the administrator against any person pursuant to the provisions on injunctions against fraudulent or unconscionable agreements or conduct in section 537 7103 shall be considered, among other factors, as applicable.
4 If in an action in which unconscionability is claimed the court finds unconscionability pursuant to subsection 1 or 2, the court shall award reasonable fees to the attorney for the consumer or debtor. If the court does not find unconscionability and the consumer or debtor claiming unconscionability has brought or maintained an action the consumer or debtor knew to be groundless, the court shall award reasonable fees to the attorney for the party against whom the claim is made. Reasonable attorney's fees shall be determined.
by the value of the time reasonably expended by the attorney on the unconscionability issue and not by the amount of the recovery on behalf of the prevailing party.

7 The remedies of this section are in addition to remedies otherwise available for the same conduct under law other than this chapter, but no double recovery of actual damages may be had.

8 For the purpose of this section, a charge or practice expressly permitted by this chapter is not in itself unconscionable.

537.5109 Default.

"Default" with respect to a consumer credit transaction and for the purposes of this article, means either of the following, if without justification under any law:

1 Failure to make a payment within ten days of the time required by agreement.

2 Failure to observe any other covenant of the transaction, breach of which materially impairs the condition, value or protection of or the creditor’s right in any collateral securing the transaction, or materially impairs the consumer’s prospect to pay amounts due under the transaction. The burden of establishing material impairment is on the creditor.

537.5110 Cure of default.

1 Notwithstanding any term or agreement to the contrary, the obligation of a consumer in a consumer credit transaction is enforceable by a creditor only after compliance with this section.

2 A creditor who believes in good faith that a consumer is in default may give the consumer written notice of the alleged default, and, if the consumer has a right to cure the default, shall give the consumer the notice of right to cure provided in section 537.5111 before commencing any legal action in any court on an obligation of the consumer and before repossessing collateral. However, this subsection and subsection 4 do not require a creditor to give notice of right to cure prior to the filing of a petition by a creditor seeking to enforce the consumer’s obligation in which attachment under chapter 639 is sought upon any of the grounds specified in section 639.3, subsections 3 to 12.

When property is attached without the giving of notice of right to cure as permitted by this subsection, the creditor immediately shall give notice of the attachment to the consumer in the same manner as prescribed by the rules of civil procedure for service of an original notice. The notice shall advise the consumer that the attachment may be discharged by the filing of a bond as provided in sections 639.42 and 639.45, or by the filing of a motion with the court to discharge the attachment pursuant to section 639.63. The notice required by this paragraph is in lieu of the notice requirements of sections 639.31 and 639.33.

When a motion is filed to discharge an attachment made without the giving of a prior notice of right to cure, the court shall hear the motion within three days of the filing of the motion to discharge. If the court finds that the attachment should not have been issued or should not have been levied on all or any part of the property held, the attachment shall be discharged in whole or in part and property wrongfully attached shall be returned to the consumer.

If the court finds that there was no probable cause to believe the grounds upon which the attachment was issued, the consumer may be awarded damages plus reasonable attorney’s fees to be determined by the court.

3 A consumer has a right to cure the default unless, in other than an insurance premium loan transaction, the creditor has given the consumer a proper notice of right to cure with respect to a prior default which occurred within three hundred sixty-five days of the present default, or the consumer has voluntarily surrendered possession of goods that are collateral and the creditor has accepted them in full satisfaction of any debt owing on the transaction in default.

4 If the consumer has a right to cure a default:

a A creditor shall not accelerate the maturity of the unpaid balance of the obligation, demand or take possession of collateral, otherwise than by accepting a voluntary surrender of it, or otherwise attempt to enforce the obligation until twenty days after a proper notice of right to cure is given.

b With respect to an insurance premium loan, a creditor shall not give notice of cancellation as provided in subsection 6 until thirteen days after a proper notice of right to cure is given.

c Until the expiration of the minimum applicable period after the notice is given, the consumer may cure the default by tendering either the amount of all unpaid installments due at the time of the tender, with out acceleration, plus any unpaid delinquency or deferral charges, or the amount stated in the notice of right to cure, whichever is less, or by tendering any performance necessary to cure any default other than nonpayment of amounts due, which is described in the notice of right to cure. The act of curing a default restores to the consumer the consumer’s rights under the agreement as though no default had occurred, except as provided in subsection 3.

5 This section and the provisions on waiver, agreements to forego rights, and settlement of claims under section 537.1107 do not prohibit a consumer from voluntarily surrendering possession of goods which are collateral and do not prohibit the creditor from thereafter enforcing the creditor’s security interest in the goods at any time after default.

6 If a default on an insurance premium loan is not cured, the lender may give notice of cancellation of each insurance policy or contract to be canceled. If given, the notice of cancellation shall be in writing and given to the insurer that issued the policy or contract and to the insured. The insurer, within two business days after receipt of the notice of cancellation together with a copy of the insurance premium loan agreement if not previously given to the insurer, shall give any notice of cancellation required by the policy or contract or by law and, within ten business days after the effective date of the cancellation, pay to the lender any premium unearned on the policy or contracts as of that effective date. Within ten business days after receipt of the unearned premium, the lender shall pay to the consumer indebted upon the insurance premium loan any excess of the unearned premium received over the amount owing by the consumer upon the insurance premium loan.

7 If a creditor in a consumer credit transaction commences an action for money judgment prior to giving the customer notice of right to cure as required by this section and fails to follow the procedures set out in this section, the court shall dismiss the action without prejudice. If the action was commenced as a small claim under chapter 631, the creditor shall not be found to be in violation of this section for purposes of section 537.5201 and the penalties provided in that section shall not apply if the creditor proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the creditor did not at the time of the violation have either knowledge or reason to know of the requirements of this section, and for this purpose the court shall consider all relevant evidence, including but not limited to the education or experience of the creditor with respect to the collection of debts arising from consumer credit transactions and any representation of the creditor by legal counsel and any legal advice rendered to the creditor with respect to the collection of debts arising from consumer credit transactions.

537.5111 Notice of right to cure.

1. The notice of right to cure shall be in writing and shall conspicuously state the name, address, and telephone number of the creditor to which payment is to be made, a brief identification of the credit transaction and of the consumer's right to cure the default, a statement of the nature of the right to cure the default, a statement of the nature of the alleged default, a statement of the total payment, including an itemization of any delinquency or deferral charges, or other performance necessary to cure the alleged default, and the exact date by which the amount must be paid or performance tendered.

2. Except as provided in subsection 4, a notice in substantially the following form complies with this section:

{name address and telephone number of creditor}

{account number if any} {brief identification of credit transaction}

You are now in default on this credit transaction. You have a right to correct this default until [date]

If you do so, you may continue with the contract as though you did not default. Your default consists of {describe default alleged}

Correction of the default: Before [date],

{describe the acts necessary for cure}

If you do not correct your default by the date stated above, we may exercise rights against you under the law. If you default again in the next year, we may exercise our rights without sending you another notice like this one. If you have questions, write or telephone [the creditor] promptly.

3. A creditor gives notice to the consumer under this part when the creditor delivers the notice to the consumer or mails the notice to the consumer at the consumer's residence as defined in section 537.1201, subsection 4.

4. If the consumer credit transaction is an insurance premium loan, the notice shall conform to the requirements of subsection 2, and a notice in substantially the form specified in that subsection complies with this subsection except for the following:

a. In lieu of a brief identification of the credit transaction, the notice shall identify the transaction as an insurance premium loan and each insurance policy or contract that may be canceled.

b. In lieu of the statement in the form of notice specified in subsection 2 that the creditor may exercise the creditor's rights under the law, the statement that each policy or contract, identified in the notice may be canceled.

c. The last paragraph of the form of notice specified in subsection 2 shall be omitted.

537.5112 Reserved.

537.5113 Venue.

An action by a creditor against a consumer arising from a consumer credit transaction shall be brought in the county of the consumer's residence as defined in section 537.1201, subsection 4, unless an action is brought to enforce an interest in land securing the consumer's obligation, in which case the action shall be brought in the county in which the land or a part of it is located. If the county of the consumer's residence has changed, the consumer upon motion may have the action removed to the county of the consumer's current residence. If the residence of the consumer is not within this state, the action may be brought in the county in which the sale, lease or loan was made. If the initial papers offered for filing in the action on their face show noncompliance with this section, they shall not be accepted by the clerk of the court.

537.5114 Complaint — proof.

1. In an action brought by a creditor against a consumer arising from a consumer credit transaction, the complaint shall allege the facts of the consumer's default, the amount to which the creditor is entitled, and an indication of how that amount was determined.

2. No default judgment shall be entered in the action in favor of the creditor unless the complaint is verified by the creditor, or unless sworn testimony, by affidavit or otherwise, is adduced showing that the creditor is entitled to the relief demanded.

§537.5201 Effect of violations on rights of parties.

1. The consumer has a cause of action to recover actual damages and in addition a right in an action other than a class action to recover from the person violating this chapter a penalty in an amount determined by the court not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, if a person has violated the provisions of this chapter relating to:
   - Authority to make supervised loans under section 537.2301
   - Restrictions on interests in land as security under section 537.2307
   - Limitations on the schedule of payments or loan terms for supervised loans under section 537.2308
   - Attorney's fees under section 537.2507
   - Charges for other credit transactions under section 537.2601
   - Disclosure with respect to consumer leases under section 537.3202
   - Notice to consumers under section 537.3203
   - Receipts, statements of account and evidences of payment under section 537.3206
   - Form of insurance premium loan agreement under section 537.3207
   - Notice to consignors and similar parties under section 537.3208
   - Restrictions on rates stated to the consumer under section 537.3210
   - Security in consumer credit transactions under section 537.3301
   - Prohibition against assignments of earnings under section 537.3305
   - Authorizations to confess judgment under section 537.3306
   - Certain negotiable instruments prohibited under section 537.3307
   - Referral sales and leases under section 537.3309
   - Limitations on executory transactions under section 537.3310
   - Prohibition against discrimination under section 537.3311
   - Limitations on default charges under section 537.3311
   - Card issuer subject to claims and defenses under section 537.3402
   - Assignees subject to claims and defenses under section 537.3403
   - Lenders subject to claims and defenses arising from sales and leases, under section 537.3405
   - Door to door sales under section 537.3406
   - Assurances of discontinuance under section 537.6109
   - Prohibitions against unfair debt collection practices under section 537.7103
   - Failure to provide a proper notice of cure or right to cure under sections 537.5110 and 537.5111
   - Failure to provide a notice of consumer paper under section 537.3211

2. A consumer is not obligated to pay a charge in excess of that allowed by this chapter, and has a right of refund of any excess charge paid. A refund may not be made by reducing the consumer's obligation by the amount of the excess charge unless the creditor has notified the consumer that the consumer may request a refund and the consumer has not so requested within thirty days thereafter. If the consumer has paid an amount in excess of the lawful obligation under the agreement, the consumer may recover the excess amount either from the person who made the excess charge or from an assignee of that person's rights who undertakes direct collection of payments from or enforcement of rights against consumers arising from the debt.

3. If a creditor has contracted for or received a charge in excess of that allowed by this chapter, or if a consumer is entitled to a refund and a person liable to the consumer refuses to make a refund within a reasonable time after demand, the consumer may recover from the creditor or the person liable, in an action other than a class action, the excess charge or refund and a penalty in an amount determined by the court not less than one hundred dollars or more than one thousand dollars. With respect to excess charges arising from sales or loans made pursuant to open end credit, no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than two years after the excess charge was made. With respect to excess charges arising from other consumer credit transactions, no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than one year after the due date of the last scheduled payment of the agreement.

4. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, no violation of this chapter impairs rights on a debt.

5. If an employer discharges an employee in violation of the provisions prohibiting discharge in section 642.21, subsection 2, paragraph "c", the employee may within two years bring a civil action for recovery of wages lost as a result of the violation and for an order requiring the reinstatement of the employee. Damages recoverable shall not exceed lost wages for six weeks.

6. A person is not liable for a penalty under subsection 1 or 3 if the person notifies the consumer of an error before the person receives from the consumer a written notice of the error or before the consumer has brought an action under this section, and the person corrects the error within forty-five days after notifying the consumer. If the violation consists of a prohibited agreement, giving the consumer a corrected copy of the writing containing the error is sufficient notification and correction. If the violation consists of an excess charge, correction shall be made by an adjustment or refund as provided in subsection 2. The administrator, and any official or agency of this state having supervisory authority over a person, shall give prompt notice to a person of any errors discovered pursuant to an examination or investigation of the transactions business, records and acts of the person.

7. A person may not be held liable in any action brought under this section for a violation of this chapter if the person shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the mainte nance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid the error

8 In an action in which it is found that a person has violated this chapter, the court shall award to the consumer the costs of the action and to his attorneys their reasonable fees. Reasonable attorney's fees shall be determined by the value of the time reasonably expended by the attorney and not by the amount of the recovery on behalf of the consumer.

§537.5202 Damages or penalties as setoff to obligation

Damages or penalties to which a consumer is entitled pursuant to this part may be setoff against the consumer's obligation, and may be raised as a defense to a suit on the obligation without regard to the time limitations prescribed by this part.

§537.5203 Civil liability for violation of disclosure provisions.

1 Except as otherwise provided in this section, a creditor who, in violation of the provisions of the Truth in Lending Act other than its provisions concerning advertising of credit terms, fails to disclose information to a person entitled to the information under this chapter is liable to that person, in other than a class action, in an amount equal to the sum of the following:
   a Twice the amount of the finance charge in connection with the transaction, but the liability pursuant to this paragraph shall be not less than one hundred dollars or more than one thousand dollars.
   b In the case of a successful action to enforce the liability under paragraph "a", the costs of the action together with reasonable attorney's fees as determined by the court.

2 A creditor has no liability under this section if within fifteen days after discovering an error, and prior to the institution of an action under this section or the receipt of written notice of the error, the creditor notifies the person concerned of the error and makes whatever adjustments in the appropriate account are necessary to assure that the person will not be required to pay a finance charge in excess of the amount or percentage rate actually disclosed. The administrator, and any official or agency of this state having supervisory authority over a creditor, shall give prompt notice to a creditor of any errors discovered pursuant to an examination or investigation of the transactions, business, records and acts of the creditor.

3 A creditor may not be held liable in any action brought under this section for a violation of this chapter if the creditor shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid the error.

4 Any action which may be brought under this section against the original creditor in any credit transaction involving a security interest in land may be maintained against any subsequent assignee of the original creditor where the assignee, its subsidiaries, or affiliates were in a continuing business relationship with the original creditor either at the time the credit was extended or at the time of the assignment, unless the assignment was involuntary, or the assignee shows by a preponderance of evidence that it did not have reasonable grounds to believe that the original creditor was engaged in violations of this chapter and that it maintained procedures reasonably adapted to apprise it of the existence of the violations.

5 An obligor or consumer has all rights under this chapter that he has under the provisions of the Truth in Lending Act concerning a right of rescission as to certain transactions, and a creditor or other person has all liabilities and defenses under this section that he has under the Truth in Lending Act.

6 No action pursuant to this section may be brought more than one year after the date of the occurrence of the violation.

7 In this section, creditor includes a person who in the ordinary course of business regularly extends or arranges for the extension of credit, or offers to arrange for the extension of credit, and includes the seller of an interest in land and the lender who makes a loan secured by an interest in land if, but for the rate of the finance charge made in the transaction, the sale or loan would be a consumer credit sale or consumer loan.

8 The liability of a creditor under this section is in lieu of and not in addition to the creditor's liability under the Truth in Lending Act. An action by a person with respect to a violation may not be maintained pursuant to this section if a final judgment has been rendered for or against that person with respect to the same violation pursuant to the Truth in Lending Act, and if a final judgment has been rendered in favor of a person pursuant to this section and thereafter a final judgment with respect to the same violation is rendered in favor of the same person pursuant to the Truth in Lending Act, a creditor liable under both judgments has a cause of action against that person for appropriate relief to the extent necessary to avoid double liability with respect to the same violation.

9 The administrator shall adopt rules to keep this section in harmony with the Truth in Lending Act. These rules supersede any provisions of this section which are inconsistent with the Truth in Lending Act as adopted by section 537 1302.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537 5203]

CRIMINAL PENALTIES

1 A person who willfully and knowingly makes charges in excess of those permitted by the provisions of article 2, part 4, applying to supervised loans, is guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

2 A person who, in violation of the provisions of this Act applying to authority to make supervised loans under section 537 2301, willfully and knowingly engages without a license in the business of making supervised loans, or of taking assignments of and undertaking direct collection of payments from and enforcement of rights against consumers arising from supervised loans, is guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

3 A person who willfully and knowingly engages in the business of entering into consumer credit transactions, or of taking assignments of rights against consumers arising therefrom and undertaking direct collection of payments or enforcement of these rights, without complying with the provisions of this chapter concerning notification under section 537 6202 or payment of fees under section 537 6203, is guilty of a simple misdemeanor

4 A person who willfully and knowingly violates the provisions of section 537 7103 is guilty of a serious misdemeanor

§537.5302 Disclosure violations.
A person is guilty of a serious misdemeanor, if the person willfully and knowingly does any of the following:
1 Gives false or inaccurate information or fails to provide information which the person is required to disclose under the provisions of the Truth in Lending Act
2 Uses any rate table or chart, the use of which is authorized by the provisions of the Truth in Lending Act, in a manner which consistently understates the annual percentage rate determined according to those provisions
3 Otherwise fails to comply with any requirement of the provisions on disclosure of the Truth in Lending Act
4 The criminal liability of a person under this section is in lieu of and not in addition to the person's criminal liability under the Truth in Lending Act

No prosecution of a person with respect to the same violation may be maintained pursuant to both this section and the Truth in Lending Act

ARTICLE 6
ADMINISTRATION
PART 1
POWERS AND FUNCTIONS OF ADMINISTRATOR

§537.6101 Short title.
This article shall be known and may be cited as the "Iowa Consumer Credit Code — Administration"

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537 6101]

§537.6102 Applicability.
This part applies to persons who
1 Participate in transactions, acts, practices or conduct to which this chapter applies pursuant to section 537 1201
2 Participate in this state in transactions, acts, practices or conduct to which this chapter would apply pursuant to section 537 1201, but for the residence of the consumer
3 Enter into or modify a sale of an interest in land or a loan secured by an interest in land, if, but for the rate of the finance charge, the sale, loan or modification would involve a consumer credit sale or consumer loan, but applies only for the purpose of authorizing the administrator to enforce the provisions on compliance with the Truth in Lending Act

§537.6103 Administrator.
Except as expressly provided in sections 537 6106 and 537 6108, "administrator" means the attorney general or the attorney general's designee

§537.6104 Powers of administrator — reliance on rules — duty to report.
1 The administrator, within the limitations provided by law, may a Receive and act on complaints
   b Take action designed to obtain voluntary compliance with this chapter c Commence proceedings on the administrator's own initiative
   d Counsel persons and groups on their rights and duties under this chapter
   e Establish programs for the education of consumers with respect to credit practices and problems
   f Make studies appropriate to effectuate the purposes and policies of this chapter and make the results available to the public g Maintain offices within this state
2 The administrator may enforce the Truth in Lending Act to the fullest extent provided by law
3 To keep the administrator's rules in harmony with the rules of administrators in other jurisdictions which enact the uniform consumer credit code, the administrator, so far as is consistent with the purposes, policies and provisions of this chapter, shall do both of the following:
   a Before adopting, amending and repealing rules, advise and consult with administrators in other jurisdictions which enact the uniform consumer credit code
   b In adopting, amending, and repealing rules, take into consideration the rules of administrators in other jurisdictions which enact the uniform consumer credit code
4 Except for refund of an excess charge, no liability is imposed under this chapter for an act done or omitted in conformity with a rule of the administrator notwithstanding that after the act or omission the rule is amended or repealed or determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason
5 The administrator shall report annually on or before January 1 to the general assembly on the operation of the consumer credit protection bureau and the other agencies of this state charged with administering this chapter, on the use of consumer credit in the state, and on the problems of persons of small means obtaining credit from persons regularly engaged in extending sales or loan credit. The purpose of making the report, the administrator may conduct research and make appropriate studies. The report shall include, for the consumer credit protection bureau and for other state agencies enforcing this chapter, a description of the examination and investigation procedures and policies, a statement of policies followed in deciding whether to investigate or examine the officers of credit suppliers subject to this chapter, a statement of the number and percentages of offices which are periodically investigated or examined, a statement of the types of consumer credit problems of both creditors and consumers which have come to the administrator's attention through the administrator's examination tions and investigations and the disposition of them under existing law, and recommendations, if any, for legislation to deal with those problems within the administrator's general jurisdiction, a statement of the extent to which the rules of the administrator pursuant to this chapter are not in harmony with the rules of administrators in other jurisdictions which enact the uniform consumer credit code and the reasons for the variations, and a general statement of the activities of the administrator's office and of others to promote the purposes of this chapter. The report shall not identify the creditors against whom action is taken.

537.6105 Administrative powers with respect to supervised financial organizations and supervised loan licensees.

1. With respect to supervised financial organizations subject to regulation under chapters 524, 533 and 534, and persons licensed under chapters 536 and 536A, the powers of examination and investigation as provided in sections 537.2305 and 537.6106, and administrative enforcement as provided in sections 537.2303 and 537.6108, shall be exercised by the official or agency to whose supervision the person is subject. All other powers of the administrator under this chapter may be exercised by the administrator with respect to such persons. In all actions or other court proceedings brought to enforce this chapter, the attorney general or the attorney general's designee shall participate.

2. If the administrator receives a complaint or other information concerning noncompliance with this chapter by a person specified in subsection 1, the administrator shall inform the official or agency having supervisory authority over that person. The administrator may obtain information about any such person from the officials or agencies supervising them.

3. The administrator and any official or agency of this state having supervisory authority over a supervised financial organization or a chapter 536 or 536A licensee are authorized and directed to consult and assist one another in maintaining compliance with this chapter. They may jointly pursue investigations, prosecute suits, and take other official action against violations of this chapter, as they deem appropriate, if either of them otherwise is empowered to take the action.

537.6106 Investigatory powers.

1. For purposes of this section, "administrator" means either the attorney general or the attorney general's designee, or the official or agency charged with enforcing this chapter against the person under investigation, as provided in section 537.6105, subsection 1. Except as provided in subsection 6, after notice and hearing the administrator may order a person to cease and desist from engaging in violations of this chapter. A person aggrieved by an order of the administrator may obtain judicial review of the order and the administrator may obtain an order of the district court for enforcement of the cease and desist order if the person prevails in the proceeding for review, or as provided in subsection 5. The proceeding for review or enforcement is initiated by filing a petition in the district court. Copies of the petition shall be served upon all parties of record.

2. Within thirty days after service of the petition for review upon the administrator, or within any further time the court may allow, the administrator shall transmit to the court the original or a certified copy of the entire record upon which the order is based, including any transcript of testimony, which need not be printed. By stipulation of all parties to the review proceeding, the record may be shortened. After hearing, the court may reverse or modify the order if the findings of fact of the administrator are clearly erroneous in view of the reliable, probative and substantial evidence on the whole record, or grant any temporary or testimony as to, any matter which is relevant to the investigation, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition, and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of relevant facts, or any other matter reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. In any civil action brought by the administrator as a result of such an investigation, the administrator shall be awarded the reasonable costs of making the investigation if the administrator prevails in the action.

2. If the person's records are located outside this state, the person at the person's option shall either make them available to the administrator at a convenient location within this state or pay the reasonable and necessary expenses for the administrator or the administrator's representative to examine them at the place where they are maintained. The administrator may designate representatives, including comparable officials of the state in which the records are located, to inspect them on the administrator's behalf.

3. Upon application by the administrator showing failure without lawful excuse to obey a subpoena or to give testimony and upon reasonable notice to all persons affected thereby, the district court shall grant an order compelling compliance.

4. The administrator shall not make public the name or identity of a person whose acts or conduct the administrator investigates pursuant to this section or the facts disclosed in the investigation, but this subsection does not prohibit disclosures in actions or enforcement proceedings pursuant to this chapter.

537.6108 Administrative enforcement orders.

1. For purposes of this section, "administrator" means either the attorney general or the attorney general's designee, or the official or agency charged with enforcing this chapter against the person under investigation, as provided in section 537.6105, subsection 1. Except as provided in subsection 6, after notice and hearing the administrator may order a person to cease and desist from engaging in violations of this chapter. A person aggrieved by an order of the administrator may obtain judicial review of the order and the administrator may obtain an order of the district court for enforcement of the cease and desist order if the person prevails in the proceeding for review, or as provided in subsection 5. The proceeding for review or enforcement is initiated by filing a petition in the district court. Copies of the petition shall be served upon all parties of record.

2. Within thirty days after service of the petition for review upon the administrator, or within any further time the court may allow, the administrator shall transmit to the court the original or a certified copy of the entire record upon which the order is based, including any transcript of testimony, which need not be printed. By stipulation of all parties to the review proceeding, the record may be shortened. After hearing, the court may reverse or modify the order if the findings of fact of the administrator are clearly erroneous in view of the reliable, probative and substantial evidence on the whole record, or grant any temporary relief or restraining order it deems just, and enter an order enforcing, modifying and enforcing as modified, or setting aside in whole or in part the order of the administrator, or remanding the case to the administrator for further proceedings.

3 An objection not urged at the hearing shall not be considered by the court unless the failure to urge the objection is excused for good cause shown. A party may move the court to remand the case to the administrator in the interest of justice for the purpose of producing additional specified and material evidence and seeking findings thereon upon good cause shown for the failure to allow the evidence before the administrator.

4 The jurisdiction of the court shall be exclusive and its final judgment or decree shall be subject to review by the supreme court in the same manner and form and with the same effect as in appeals from a final judgment or decree in an equitable proceeding. The administrator's copy of the testimony shall be available at reasonable times to all parties for examination without cost.

5 A proceeding for review under this section must be initiated within thirty days after a copy of the order of the administrator is received. If no proceeding is so initiated, the administrator may obtain a decree of the district court for enforcement of the cease and desist order upon a showing that the order was issued in compliance with this section, that no proceeding for review was initiated within thirty days after copy of the order was received, and that the person against whom the order was directed is subject to the jurisdiction of the court.

6 With respect to unconscionable agreements or fraudulent or unconscionable conduct by the respondent, the administrator may not issue an order pursuant to this section but may bring a civil action for an injunction under section 537.6111.

Assurance of discontinuance.

If it is claimed that a person has engaged in conduct which could be subject to an order by the administrator or by a court, the administrator may accept an assurance in writing that the person will not engage in the same or in similar conduct in the future. The assurance may include stipulations that the creditor will voluntarily pay the costs of investigation, or that an amount will be held in escrow as restitution to debtors aggrieved by future conduct of the creditor or as a reserve to cover costs of future investigation, or may include admissions of past specific acts by the creditor or admissions that those acts violated this chapter or other statutes. A violation of an assurance of discontinuance is a violation of this chapter.

Injunctions and other proceedings in equity.

The administrator may bring a civil action to restrain a person from violating this chapter and for other appropriate relief, including but not limited to the following:

a To prevent the use or employment by a person of practices prohibited by this chapter

b To reform contracts to conform to this chapter and to rescind contracts into which a creditor has induced a consumer to enter by conduct violating this chapter, even though the consumers are not parties to the action. An action under this section may be joined with an action under the provisions on civil actions by the administrator under section 537.6113.

Injunctions against unconscionable agreements and fraudulent or unconscionable conduct.

1 The administrator may bring a civil action to restrain a person to whom this part applies from engaging in any of the following courses of action:

a Making or enforcing unconscionable terms or provisions of consumer credit transactions

b Fraudulent or unconscionable conduct in inducing consumers to enter into consumer credit transactions

c Conduct of any of the types specified in paragraph "a" or "b" with respect to transactions that give rise to or that lead persons to believe they will give rise to consumer credit transactions

d Fraudulent or unconscionable conduct in the collection of debts arising from consumer credit transactions or from transactions which would have been consumer credit transactions if a finance charge was made or the obligation was payable in installments.

2 In an action brought pursuant to this section the court may grant relief only if it finds all of the following:

a That the defendant has made unconscionable agreements or has engaged in or is likely to engage in a course of fraudulent or unconscionable conduct.

b That the defendant's agreements have caused or are likely to cause, or the conduct of the defendant has caused or is likely to cause, injury to consumers or debtors.

c That the defendant has been able to cause or will be able to cause the injury primarily because the transactions involved are credit transactions.

3 In applying subsection 1, paragraph "a," "b," or "c," consideration shall be given to the factors specified in the provisions on unconscionability with respect to a transaction that is or gives rise to or that a person leads the debtor to believe will give rise to a consumer credit transaction, as provided in section 537.5108, subsection 3, among others.

4 In applying subsection 1, paragraph "d," violations of section 537.7103 shall be considered, among other factors, as applicable.

5 In an action brought pursuant to this section, a charge or practice expressly permitted by this chapter is not in itself unconscionable.

Temporary relief.

With respect to an action brought to enjoin violations of this chapter under section 537.6110 or unconscionable agreements or fraudulent or unconscionable conduct under section 537.6111, the administrator may apply to the court for appropriate temporary relief against a defendant, pending final determination of the action. The court may grant appropriate temporary relief.

§537.6113 Civil actions by administrator.

1 After demand, the administrator may bring a civil action against a person for all amounts of money, other than penalties, which a consumer or class of consumers has a right to recover explicitly granted by this chapter. The court shall order amounts recovered or recoverable under this subsection to be paid to each consumer or set off against his obligation. A consumer's action, other than a class action, takes precedence over a prior or subsequent action by the administrator with respect to the claim of that consumer. A consumer's class action takes precedence over a subsequent action by the administrator with respect to claims common to both actions but intervention by the administrator is authorized. An administrator's action on behalf of a class of consumers takes precedence over a consumer's subsequent class action with respect to claims common to both actions. Whenever an action takes precedence over another action under this subsection, the latter action may be stayed to the extent appropriate while the precedent action is pending and dismissed if the precedent action is dismissed with prejudice or results in a final judgment granting or denying the claim asserted in the precedent action. A defense available to a person in a civil action brought by a consumer is available to the person in a civil action brought under this subsection.

2 The administrator may bring a civil action against a person to recover a civil penalty of no more than five thousand dollars for repeatedly and intentionally violating this chapter. No civil penalty pursuant to this subsection may be imposed for violations of this chapter occurring more than two years before the action is brought or for making unconscionable agreements or engaging in a course of fraudulent or unconscionable conduct.

3 The administrator may bring a civil action against a person for failure to file notification in accordance with the provisions on notification in section 537.6202, or to pay fees in accordance with the provisions on fees in section 537.6203, to recover the fees the defendant has failed to pay plus interest at the rate of seven percent per annum and the administrator's reasonable costs in bringing the action, and a civil penalty in an amount determined by the court not to exceed the greater of three times the amount of fees the person has failed to pay or one thousand dollars.

PART 2
NOTIFICATION AND FEES

This part applies to all of the following:

1 Creditors engaged in consumer credit transactions and acts, practices, or conduct involving consumer credit transactions to which this chapter applies pursuant to section 537.1201, but not to those licensed, certificated, or otherwise authorized to engage in business by chapter 524, 533, 534, 536 or 536A.

2 Debt collectors, as defined in section 537.7102, subsection 3, to whose acts, practices, or conduct this chapter applies pursuant to section 537.1201.

§537.6202 Notification.
1 Persons subject to this part shall file notification with the administrator within thirty days after commencing business in this state, and, thereafter, on or before January 31 of each year. The notification must state all of the following:

a Name of the person;

b Every name in which business is transacted if different from the name of the person;

c Address of principal office, whether or not with in this state; d Address of all offices or retail stores, if any, in this state at which consumer credit transactions are entered into or acts, practices, or conduct involving consumer credit transactions are engaged in, or in the case of a person taking assignments of obligations, any offices or places of business within this state at which business is transacted or, in the case of debt collectors, any offices in this state for or at which debt collection is engaged in.

1 A debt collector shall not collect or attempt to collect a debt by means of an illegal threat, coercion or attempt to coerce The conduct described in each of the following paragraphs is an illegal threat, coercion or attempt to coerce within the meaning of this subsection a The use, or express or implicit threat of use, of force, violence or other criminal means, to cause harm to a person or to property of a person

b The false accusation or threat to falsely accuse a person of fraud or any other crime

c False accusations made to a person, including a credit reporting agency, or the threat to falsely accuse, that a debtor is willfully refusing to pay a just debt. However, a failure to reply to requests for payment and a failure to negotiate disputes in good faith are deemed willful refusal

d The threat to sell or assign to another an obligation of the debtor with an attending representation or implication that the result of the sale or assignment will be to subject the debtor to harsh, vindictive or abusive collection attempts

e The false threat that nonpayment of a debt may result in the arrest of a person or the seizure, garnishment, attachment or sale of property or wages of that person

f An action or threat to take an action prohibited by this chapter or any other law

2 A debt collector shall not oppress, harass or abuse a person in connection with the collection or attempted collection of a debt of that person or another person. The following conduct is oppressive, harassing or abusive within the meaning of this subsection a The use of profane or obscene language or language that is intended to abuse the hearer or reader and which by its utterance would tend to incite an immediate breach of the peace

b The placement of telephone calls to the debtor without disclosure of the name of the business or company the debt collector represents

c Causing expense to a person in the form of long distance telephone tolls, telegram fees or other charges incurred by a medium of communication by attempting to deceive or mislead persons as to the true purpose of the notice, letter, message or communication

d Causing a telephone to ring or engaging a person in telephone conversation repeatedly or continuously or at unusual hours or times known to be inconvenient, with intent to annoy, harass or threaten a person

3 A debt collector shall not disseminate information relating to a debt or debtor as follows

a The communication or threat to communicate or imply the fact of a debt to a person other than the debtor or a person who might reasonably be expected to be hable for the debt, except with the written permission of the debtor given after default. For the purposes of this paragraph, the use of language on envelopes indicating that the communication relates to the collection of a debt is a communication of the debt. However, this paragraph does not prohibit a debt collector from any of the following

(1) Notifying a debtor of the fact that he may report a debt to a credit bureau or engage an agent or an attorney for the purpose of collecting the debt
(2) Reporting a debt to a credit reporting agency or any other person reasonably believed to have a legitimate business need for the information
(3) Engaging an agent or attorney for the purpose of collecting a debt
(4) Attempting to locate a debtor whom the debt collector has reasonable grounds to believe has moved from the debtor’s residence, where the purpose of the communication is to trace the debtor, and the content of the communication is restricted to requesting information on the debtor’s location
(5) Communicating with the debtor’s employer or credit union not more than once during any three month period when the purpose of the communication is to obtain an employer’s or credit union’s debt counseling services for the debtor. In the event no response is received by the debt collector from a communication to the debtor’s employer or credit union the debt collector may make one inquiry as to whether the communication was received. In addition a debt collector may respond to any communications by a debtor’s employer or credit union
(6) Communicating with the debtor’s employer once during any one month period, if the purpose of the communication is to verify with an employer the fact of the debtor’s employment and if the debt collector does not disclose, except as permitted in subparagraph (5), information other than the fact that a debt exists. This subparagraph does not authorize a debt collector to disclose to an employer the fact that a debt is in default
(7) Communicating the fact of the debt not more than once in any three-month period, with the parents of a minor debtor, or with any trustee of any property of the debtor, conservator of the debtor or the debtor’s property, or guardian of the debtor. In addition, a debt collector may respond to inquiry from a parent, trustee, conservator or guardian
(8) Communicating with the debtor’s spouse with the consent of the debtor, or responding to inquiry from the debtor’s spouse
b The disclosure publication, or communication of information relating to a person’s indebtedness to another person, by publishing or posting a list of indebted persons, commonly known as “deadbeat lists”, or by advertising for sale a claim to enforce payment of a debt when the advertisement names the debtor
c The use of a form of communication to the debtor, except a telegram, an original notice or other court process, or an envelope displaying only the name and address of a debtor and the return address of the debt collector, intended or so designed as to display or convey information about the debt to another person other than the name, address, and phone number of the debt collector

4 A debt collector shall not use a fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading representation or means to collect or attempt to collect a debt or to obtain information concerning debtors. The following conduct is fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading within the meaning of this subsection a The use of a business, company or organization name while engaged in the collection of debts, other than the true name of the debtor’s business, company, or organization or the name of the business or company the debt collector represents b The failure to clearly disclose in all written communications made to collect or attempt to collect a debt or to obtain or attempt to obtain information about a debtor, that the debt collector is attempting to collect a debt and that information obtained will be used for that purpose, except where disclosure would tend to embarrass the debtor

c A false representation that the debt collector has information in his possession or something of value for the debtor, which is made to solicit or discover information about the debtor

d The failure to clearly disclose the name and full business address of the person to whom the claim has been assigned at the time of making a demand for money
e An intentional misrepresentation, or a representation which tends to create a false impression of the character, extent or amount of a debt, or of its status in a legal proceeding
f A false representation, or a representation which tends to create a false impression, that a debt collector is vouched for, bonded by, affiliated with, or an instrumentality, agency or official of the state or an agency of federal, state or local government

g The use or distribution or sale of a written communication which simulates or is falsely represented to be a document authorized, issued or approved by a court, an official or other legally constituted or authorized authority, or which tends to create a false impression about its source, authorization or approval
h A representation that an existing obligation of the debtor may be increased by the addition of attorney’s fees, investigation fees, service fees or other fees or charges, when in fact such fees or charges may not legally be added to the existing obligation

A false representation, or a representation which tends to create a false impression, about the status or true nature of, or services rendered by, the debt collector or the debt collector's business

5 A debt collector shall not engage in the following conduct to collect or attempt to collect a debt

a The seeking or obtaining of a written statement or acknowledgment in any form that specifies that a debtor's obligation is one chargeable upon the property of either husband or wife or both, under section 597 14, when the original obligation was not in fact so chargeable

b The seeking or obtaining of a written statement or acknowledgment in any form containing an affirmation of an obligation which has been discharged in bankruptcy, without clearly disclosing the nature and consequences of the affirmation and the fact that the debtor is not legally obligated to make the affirmation. However, this subsection does not prohibit the accepting of promises to pay that are voluntarily written and offered by a bankrupt debtor

c The collection of or the attempt to collect from the debtor a part or all of the debt collector's fee for services rendered, unless the debt collector is legally entitled to collect the fee from the debtor

d The collection of or the attempt to collect interest or other charge, fee or expense incidental to the principal obligation unless the interest or incidental charge, fee, or expense is expressly authorized by the agreement creating the obligation and is legally chargeable to the debtor, or is otherwise legally chargeable

e A communication with a debtor when the debt collector knows that the debtor is represented by an attorney and the attorney's name and address are known, or could be easily ascertained, unless the attorney fails to answer correspondence, return phone calls or discuss the obligation in question, within a reasonable time, or prior approval is obtained from the debtor's attorney or when the communication is a response in the ordinary course of business to the debtor's inquiry

6 A debt collector shall not use or distribute, sell or prepare for use, a written communication that violates or fails to conform to United States postal laws and regulations

CHAPTER 537A

CONTRACTS

537A.1 Seals abolished.

The use of private seals in written contracts, or other instruments in writing, by individuals, firms, or corporations that have not adopted a corporate seal, is hereby abolished, but the addition of a seal to any such instrument shall not affect its character or validity in any respect

[C51, §974, R60, §1823, C73, §2112, C97, §3068, S13, §3068, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9439; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §537 1, C75, 77, 79, 81, §537A 1] Corporate seals §558 2 et seq

537A.2 Consideration implied.

All contracts in writing, signed by the party to be bound or by the party's authorized agent or attorney, shall import a consideration

537A.3 Failure of consideration.

The want or failure, in whole or in part, of the consideration of a written contract may be shown as a defense, total or partial, except as provided in the Uniform Commercial Code, chapter 554

[C51, §976, R60, §1825, C73, §2114, C97, §3070, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9441; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, §537 3, C75, 77, 79, 81, §537A 3] Corporate seals §558 4 et seq

537A.4 Gaming contracts void — exceptions.

All promises, agreements, notes, bills, bonds, or other contracts, mortgages or other securities, when the whole or any part of the consideration thereof is for money or other valuable thing won or lost, laid, staked, or bet, at or upon any game of any kind or on any wager, are absolutely void and of no effect

This section does not apply to a contract for the operation of or for the sale or rental of equipment for games of skill or games of chance, if both the contract and the games are in compliance with chapter 99B

This section does not apply to wagering under the pari-mutuel method of wagering authorized by chapter 99D

This section does not apply to the sale, purchase or redemption of a ticket or share in the state lottery in compliance with chapter 99E or the sale, purchase or redemption of a share in the raffle conducted under section 28 113

1985 amendment to unnumbered paragraph 2 shall be stricken when chapter 99F is repealed on July 1 1990 85 Acts ch 33 §129

TENDER OF PAYMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Necessary fee for noting tender §77 19
Tender under offer to compromise ch 677

538.1 Demand required.
No cause of action shall accrue upon a contract for labor or the payment or delivery of property other than money, where the time of performance is not fixed, until a demand of performance has been made upon the maker and refused, or a reasonable time for performance thereafter allowed

538.2 Tender of labor or property.
When a contract for labor, or for the payment or delivery of property other than money, does not fix a place of payment, the maker may tender the labor or property at the place where the payee resided at the time of making the contract, or at the residence of the payee at the time of performance of the contract, or where any assignee of the contract resides when it becomes due, but if the property in such case is too ponderous to be conveniently transported, or if the payee had no known place of residence within the state at the time of making the contract, or if the assignee had no known place of residence within the state at the time of making the contract, or if the assignee of a written contract has no known place of residence within the state at the time of making the contract, or if the assignee of a written contract has no known place of residence within the state at the time of performance, the maker may tender the property at the place where the maker resided at the time of making the contract

538.3 Tender when contract assigned.
When the contract is contained in a written instru ment which is assigned before due, and the maker has notice thereof, the maker shall make the tender at the residence of the holder if the holder resides in the state and no farther from the maker than the payee did at the making thereof

538.4 Effect of tender.
A tender of the property, as above provided, discharges the maker from the contract, and the property becomes vested in the payee or the payee's assignee, and the payee or assignee may maintain an action therefor as in other cases But if the property tendered be perishable, or requires feeding, or other care, and no person is found to receive it when tendered, the person making the tender shall preserve, feed, or otherwise take care of the same, and shall have a lien thereon for the person's reasonable expenses and trouble in so doing

538.5 Tender when holder absent from state.
When an instrument for the payment of money is due and the holder is absent from the state or the holder's identity or whereabouts are unknown and the instrument does not provide for a place of payment, the maker may tender payment at the last known residence or place of business of the last known holder, and if there be no person there authorized to receive payment and give proper credit therefor, the maker shall be deemed to have tendered payment and interest shall cease on the date of deposit if 1 The maker deposits the amount due with the clerk of the district court in the county where the maker resided at the time of the making of the instru
CHAPTER 539

ASSIGNMENT OF ACCOUNTS AND NONNEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS

Assignment of thing in action, R.C.P. 7

539.1 Assignment of nonnegotiable instruments.
539.2 Assignment prohibited by instrument.
539.3 Assignment of open account.
539.4 Assignment of wages.
539.5 Priority.
539.6 Assignor liable.
539.7 to 539.15 Repealed by 61GA, ch 413, §10102.

539.1 Assignment of nonnegotiable instruments.

Bonds, due bills, and all instruments by which the maker promises to pay another, without words of negotiability, a sum of money, or by which the maker promises to pay a sum of money in property or labor, or to pay or deliver any property or labor, or acknowledges any money, labor, or property to be due, are assignable by endorsement on the instrument, or by other writing. The assignee, including a person who takes assignment for collection in the regular course of business, has a right of action on them in the assignee's own name, subject to any defense or counterclaim which the maker or debtor had against an assignor of the instrument before notice of the assignment. In case of conflict between this section and Uniform Commercial Code, sections 554.3805, 554.5116 or 554.9318, those sections control.

An offer in writing to pay a particular sum of money, or to deliver a written instrument or specific personal property, if not accepted, is equivalent to the actual tender of the money, instrument, or property, subject, however, to the condition contained in section 538.7; but if the party to whom the tender is made desires an inspection of the instrument or property tendered, other than money, before making the party's determination, it shall be allowed the party on request.

538.7 Nonacceptance of tender.

When a tender of money or property is not accepted by the party to whom it is made, the party making it may, if that party sees fit, retain it in possession; but if afterwards the party to whom the tender was made concludes to accept it and gives notice thereof to the other party, and the subject of the tender is not delivered to the accepting party within a reasonable time, the tender shall be of no effect.

538.8 Receipt — objection.

The person making a tender may demand a receipt in writing for the money or article tendered, as a condition precedent to the delivery thereof. The person to whom a tender is made must, at the time, make any objection which the person may have to the money, instrument, or property tendered, or the person will be deemed to have waived it.

539.4 Assignment of wages.
No sale or assignment, by the head of a family, of wages, whether the same be exempt from execution or not, shall be of any validity whatever unless the same be evidenced by a written instrument, and if married, unless the husband and wife sign and acknowledge the same joint instrument before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments. Provided, however, that no such assignment or order shall be effective or binding upon the employer unless the employer has in writing agreed to accept and pay said assignment or order. This section shall not apply to a wage assignment by an employee to an organization which represents the employee in labor relations with the employee's employer.

SURETIES

540.1 Requiring creditor to sue.
540.2 Refusal or neglect of creditor.

540.1 Requiring creditor to sue.
When any person bound as surety for another for the payment of money, or the performance of any other contract in writing, apprehends that the principal is about to become insolvent or remove permanently from the state without discharging the contract, the surety may, if a cause of action has accrued thereon, by writing, require the creditor to sue upon the same, or permit the surety to commence an action in such creditor's name and at the surety's cost.

Right of subrogation, §626 19

540.2 Refusal or neglect of creditor.
If the creditor refuses or neglects to bring an action for ten days after request, and does not permit the surety to do so, and to furnish the surety with a true copy of the contract or other writing therefor, and enable the surety to have the use of the original when requisite in such action, the surety shall be discharged.

540.3 Suit by surety.
When the surety commences such action, the surety shall give a bond to pay such costs as may be adjudged against the creditor, and the action shall be brought against all the obligors, but those joining in the request to the creditor shall make no defense thereto, but may be heard on the assessment of the damages.

540.4 Executor — official bonds.

The provisions of this chapter extend to the executor of a deceased surety and holder of the contract, but not to the official bonds of public officers, executors, or guardians.

§542.2 Powers and duties of the department
The department may exercise general supervision over the business operations of grain dealers The supervisory and regulatory powers authorized by this chapter shall be the responsibility of the warehouse division of the department The department may inspect or cause to be inspected any grain dealer operating in this state and may require the filing of reports pertaining to the operation of the dealer's business. The department shall adopt rules to provide for the efficient administration and regulation of the provisions of this chapter, and may designate an employee of the department to act for the department in any details connected with such administration, including the issuance of licenses and approval of grain dealers' bonds in the name of the department §542.3 License required — financial responsibility.

1 A person shall not engage in the business of a grain dealer in this state without having obtained a license issued by the department
2 The type of license required shall be determined as follows
a A class 1 license is required if the grain dealer purchases any grain by credit-sale contract, or if the value of grain purchased by the grain dealer from producers during the grain dealer's previous fiscal year exceeds five hundred thousand dollars Any other grain dealer may elect to be licensed as a class 1 grain dealer
b A class 2 license is required for any grain dealer not holding a class 1 license A class 2 licensee whose purchases from producers during a fiscal year exceed a limit of five hundred thousand dollars in value shall file within thirty days of the date the limit is reached a complete application for a class 1 license If a class 1 license is denied, the person immediately shall cease doing business as a grain dealer
3 An application for a license to engage in business as a grain dealer shall be filed with the department and shall be in a form prescribed by the department. The application shall include the name of the applicant, its principal officers if the applicant is a corporation or the active members of a partnership if the applicant is a partnership and the location of the principal office or place of business of the applicant
4 In order to receive and retain a class 1 license the following conditions must be satisfied
a The grain dealer shall have and maintain a net worth of at least fifty thousand dollars, or maintain a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit in the amount of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction thereof of net worth deficiency. However, a person shall not be licensed as a class 1 grain dealer if the person has a net worth of less than twenty-five thousand dollars.

The grain dealer shall submit, as required by the department, a financial statement that is accompanied by an unqualified opinion based upon an audit performed by a certified public accountant licensed in this state. However, the department may accept a qualification in an opinion that is unavoidable by any audit procedure that is permitted under generally accepted accounting principles. An opinion that is qualified because of a limited audit procedure or because the scope of an audit is limited shall not be accepted by the department. The grain dealer may elect, however, to submit a financial statement that is accompanied by the report of a certified public accountant licensed in this state that is based upon a review performed by the certified public accountant in lieu of the audited financial statement specified in this paragraph, and if a grain dealer makes this election the department shall require the grain dealer to be inspected not less than twice during each twelve-month period, but not more than five times in a twenty-four month period without good cause, in the manner provided in section 542.9. In addition, the department shall cause a grain dealer who makes this election to submit to the department, in a form and manner prescribed by the department, an interim financial statement no less than once in every three-calendar month period. If a grain dealer making the election engages in credit sale contracts, the grain dealer shall also comply with the provisions of section 542.15, subsection 8.

c. The grain dealer shall have and maintain current assets equal to at least ninety percent of current liabilities or provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit under the following conditions:

1. A grain dealer with current assets equal to at least forty-five percent of current liabilities may provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction of one thousand dollars of current assets that the grain dealer is lacking to meet the minimum requirement. However, the bond or irrevocable letter of credit shall not be used for longer than six consecutive months in a twelve-month period.

2. A grain dealer with current assets equal to less than forty-five percent of current liabilities may provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction of one thousand dollars of current assets that the grain dealer is lacking to meet the minimum requirement. However, the bond or irrevocable letter of credit shall not be used for longer than thirty consecutive days in a twelve-month period.

5. In order to receive and retain a class 2 license, the following conditions must be satisfied:

a. The grain dealer shall have and maintain a net worth of at least twenty-five thousand dollars, or maintain a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit in the amount of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction thereof of net deficiency. However, a person shall not be licensed as a class 2 grain dealer if the person has a net worth of less than ten thousand dollars.

b. The grain dealer shall submit, as required by the department, a financial statement that is accompanied by an unqualified opinion based upon an audit performed by a certified public accountant licensed in this state. However, the department may accept a qualification in an opinion that is unavoidable by any audit procedure that is permitted under generally accepted accounting principles. An opinion that is qualified because of a limited audit procedure or because the scope of an audit is limited shall not be accepted by the department. The grain dealer may elect, however, to submit a financial statement that is accompanied by the report of a certified public accountant licensed in this state that is based upon a review performed by the certified public accountant in lieu of the audited financial statement specified in this paragraph, and if a grain dealer makes this election the department shall cause the grain dealer to be inspected not less than twice during each twelve-month period, but not more than five times in a twenty-four month period without good cause, in the manner provided in section 542.9. In addition, the department shall cause a grain dealer who makes this election to submit to the department, in a form and manner prescribed by the department, an interim financial statement no less than once in every three-calendar month period. If a grain dealer making the election engages in credit sale contracts, the grain dealer shall also comply with the provisions of section 542.15, subsection 8.

c. The grain dealer shall have and maintain current assets equal to at least ninety percent of current liabilities or provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit under the following conditions:

1. A grain dealer with current assets equal to at least forty-five percent of current liabilities may provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction of one thousand dollars of current assets that the grain dealer is lacking to meet the minimum requirement. However, the bond or irrevocable letter of credit shall not be used for longer than six consecutive months in a twelve-month period.

2. A grain dealer with current assets equal to less than forty-five percent of current liabilities may provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction of one thousand dollars of current assets that the grain dealer is lacking to meet the minimum requirement. However, the bond or irrevocable letter of credit shall not be used for longer than thirty consecutive days in a twelve-month period.

6. The department shall adopt rules relating to the form and time of filing of financial statements. The department may require additional information or verification with respect to the financial resources of the applicant and the applicant’s ability to pay producers for grain purchased from them.

7. a. When the net worth or current ratio of a license in good standing is less than that required by this section, the grain dealer shall correct the deficiency or file a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit within thirty days of written notice by the department. Unless the deficiency is corrected or the deficiency bond or irrevocable letter of credit is filed within thirty days, the grain dealer license shall be suspended.

b If the department finds that the welfare of grain producers requires emergency action, and incorporates a finding to that effect in its order, immediate suspension of a license may be ordered notwithstanding the thirty-day period otherwise allowed by paragraph "a".

8. A deficiency bond or irrevocable letter of credit filed with the department pursuant to this section shall not be canceled by the issuer on less than ninety days notice by certified mail to the secretary of agriculture and the principal

Upon the filing of the application and compliance with the terms and conditions of this chapter and rules of the department, the department shall issue a license to the applicant. The license shall terminate on the thirtieth of June of each year. A grain dealer's license may be renewed annually by the filing of a renewal fee and a renewal application on a form prescribed by the department. An application for renewal shall be received by the department before the thirtieth of June. A grain dealer license which has terminated may be reinstated by the department upon receipt of a proper renewal application, the renewal fee, and the reinstatement fee as provided in section 542 6 if filed within thirty days from the date of termination of the grain dealer license. The department may cancel a license upon request of the licensee unless a complaint or information is filed against the licensee alleging a violation of a provision of this chapter.

If an applicant has had a license under chapter 542, 542A, or 543 revoked for cause within the past three years, or has been convicted of a felony involving violations of chapter 542, 542A, or 543, or is owned or controlled by a person who has had a license so revoked or who has been so convicted, the department may deny a license to the applicant.

542.6 Fees.

The department shall charge the following fees for deposit in the general fund:

1. For the issuance or renewal of a license for a grain dealer and for any inspection of a grain dealer, the fee shall be determined on the basis of dollar volume of all grain purchased the previous calendar year as follows:

a If the total purchased is one hundred thousand dollars or less, the license fee is forty dollars and the inspection fee is fifty dollars.

b If the total purchased is more than one hundred thousand dollars, but not more than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, the license fee is seventy dollars and the inspection fee is seventy-five dollars.

c If the total purchased is more than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, but not more than one million five hundred thousand dollars, the license fee is one hundred dollars and the inspection fee is one hundred twenty-five dollars.

d If the total purchased is more than one million five hundred thousand dollars, but not more than three million dollars, the license fee is one hundred seventy-five dollars and the inspection fee is one hundred fifty dollars.

e If the total purchased is more than three million dollars, but not more than four million seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, the license fee is three hundred dollars and the inspection fee is one hundred eighty-five dollars.

f If the total purchased is more than four million seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, but not more than nine million five hundred thousand dollars, the license fee is four hundred twenty-five dollars and the inspection fee is two hundred twenty-five dollars.

g If the total purchased is more than nine million five hundred thousand dollars, the license fee is five hundred seventy-five dollars and the inspection fee is two hundred sixty-five dollars.

If the applicant did not purchase grain the previous calendar year, the applicant shall pay the fee specified in paragraph "a." If during the license period the total grain actually purchased exceeds one hundred thousand dollars, the licensee shall notify the department and the license and inspection fee shall be adjusted accordingly. Subsequent adjustments shall be made as necessary. An applicant may elect licensing in any category of this subsection. New licenses issued for less than a full year shall be prorated from the date of application.

2. For an amendment to a license, the fee is ten dollars.

3. For a duplicate license, the fee is five dollars.

4. For reinstatement of a license, the fee is fifty dollars.

83 Acts, ch 18, §3

542.8 Payment.

A person licensed as a grain dealer shall pay the purchase price to the owner or the owner's agent for grain upon delivery or demand of the owner or agent, but not later than thirty days after delivery by the owner or agent unless in accordance with the terms of the credit sale contract that satisfies the requirements of this chapter.

As used in this section, "delivery" means the transfer of title to and possession of grain by the seller to the grain dealer or to another person in accordance with the agreement of the seller and the grain dealer, and "payment" means the actual payment or tender of payment by the grain dealer to the seller of the agreed purchase price, or in the case of disputes as to sales of grain, the undisputed portion of the purchase price without reduction for any separate claim of the grain dealer against the seller.

542.9 Inspection of premises, books and records.

The department may inspect the premises used by any grain dealer in the conduct of the dealer's business at any time, and the books, accounts, records, and papers of every grain dealer which pertain to grain purchases are subject to inspection by the department during ordinary business hours. The department shall cause the business premises and books, accounts, records, and papers of every grain dealer to be inspected not less than once during each twelve-month period, but not more than four times in a twenty-four month period without good cause. The transporter of grain in transit shall possess bills of lading or other documents covering the grain, and shall present them to any law enforcement officer or to a person designated as an enforcement officer under section 542.13 on demand. If there is good cause to believe that a person is engaged without a license in the business of a grain dealer in this state, the department may inspect the books, papers, and records of the person which pertain to grain purchases.

If the grain dealer does not maintain a place of business in this state, the department is not required to inspect the business premises of the grain dealer, and the grain dealer shall submit all books, records and papers relating to grain transactions occurring within this state to the department for purposes of an inspection required or permitted under this section at any reasonable time and place, including the offices of the department during regular business hours, as ordered by the department or the administrator of the warehouse division.

542.10 Suspension or revocation — notice.

The department may after hearing and upon information being filed with the department by the administrator of the warehouse division of the department or upon complaint filed by any person, suspend or revoke the license of any person licensed under this chapter for the violation of or failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or any rule adopted under this chapter. An information or a verified complaint stating the grounds for suspension or revocation shall be filed with the department in triplicate. The department shall notify the licensee of the complaint and furnish the licensee with a copy of the information or the complaint and a copy of the order of the department fixing the time for a hearing, which time shall be at least five days from the date of notification. If the department determines that the public good requires immediate action, the department may, upon the filing of the information or the complaint and without hearing, temporarily suspend a license pending the determination by it of the complaint. Judicial review of the actions of the department may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

The department may revoke a grain dealer's license upon information without hearing if a grain dealer fails to submit to inspection.

1. A person who knowingly submits false information to or knowingly withholds information from the department or any of its agents which is required to be submitted or maintained under this chapter, commits a fraudulent practice.

2. A person who engages in business as a grain dealer without obtaining a license, or who refuses to permit inspection of licensed premises, or books, accounts, records, or other documents required by this chapter, or who uses a scale ticket, or credit sale contract that fails to satisfy requirements established by the department commits a simple misdemeanor, except that a person who commits any of these offenses after having been found guilty of the same offense commits an aggravated misdemeanor.

3. Except as provided in subsections 1 and 2, a person who violates any provision of this chapter commits a simple misdemeanor. With respect to a continuing violation, each day that the violation continues is a separate offense.

4. A violation of this chapter, or a violation of chapter 714 or 715 involving the business of a grain dealer, may be restrained by an injunction in an action brought by the department.

542.12 Claims — notice of revocation.

Upon revocation, termination, or cancellation of a grain dealer license, any claim for the purchase price of grain against the grain dealer shall be made in writing and filed with the grain dealer and with the prosecutor of a deficiency bond or of an irrevocable letter of credit and with the department within one hundred twenty days after revocation. The notice shall state that the failure to make this timely claim relieves the issuer and the grain depositors and sellers of indemnity fund provided in chapter 543A of all obligations to the claimant.

Upon revocation of a grain dealer license, the department shall cause notice of the revocation to be published once each week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the state of Iowa and in a newspaper of general circulation within the county of the grain dealer's principal place of business when that dealer's principal place of business is located in the state of Iowa. The notice shall state the name and address of the grain dealer and the effective date of revocation. The notice shall also state that any claims against the grain dealer shall be made in writing and served by ordinary mail or delivered personally with in one hundred twenty days after revocation to the grain dealer, to the issuer of a deficiency bond or of an irrevocable letter of credit, and to the department, and the notice shall state that the failure to make a timely claim does not relieve the grain dealer from liability to the claimant.

542.13 Enforcement officers.
The department may designate by resolution certain of its employees in the warehouse division to be enforcement officers. Each person so designated shall have the authority of a peace officer to make arrests for violations of this chapter

542.14 No obligation of state.
Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to imply any guarantee or obligation on the part of the state of Iowa, or any of its agencies, employees or officials, either elective or appointive, in respect to any agreement or undertaking to which the provisions of this chapter relate

542.15 Credit-sale contracts.
1 A grain dealer shall not purchase grain by a credit-sale contract except as provided in this section
2 A grain dealer shall give written notice to the department prior to engaging in the purchase of grain by credit-sale contracts. Notice shall be on forms provided by the department. The notice shall contain the information required by the department.
3 All credit-sale contract forms in the possession of a grain dealer shall have been permanently and consecutively numbered at the time of printing of the forms. A grain dealer shall maintain an accurate record of all credit-sale contract forms and numbers obtained by that dealer. The record shall include the disposition of each numbered form, whether by execution, destruction, or otherwise.
4 A grain dealer who purchases grain by credit-sale contracts shall maintain books, records and other documents as required by the department to establish compliance with this section.
5 In addition to other information as may be required, a credit sale contract shall contain or provide for all of the following a The seller's name and address
   b The conditions of delivery
   c The amount and kind of grain delivered d The price per bushel or basis of value e The date payment is to be made
   f The duration of the credit sale contract, which shall not exceed twelve months from the date the contract is executed
6 Title to all grain sold by a credit sale contract is in the purchasing dealer as of the time the contract is executed, unless the contract provides otherwise. The contract must be signed by both parties and executed in duplicate. One copy shall be retained by the grain dealer and one copy shall be delivered to the seller. Upon revocation, termination, or cancellation of a grain dealer license, the payment date for all credit-sale contracts shall be advanced to a date not later than thirty days after the effective date of the revocation, termination, or cancellation, and the purchase price for all unpriced grain shall be determined as of the effective date of revocation, termination, or cancellation in accordance with all other provisions of the contract. However, if the business of the grain dealer is sold to another licensed grain dealer, credit sale contracts may be assigned to the purchaser of the business.
7 A grain dealer shall not purchase grain on credit during any time period in which the grain dealer's current assets are less than forty five percent of current liabilities.
8 A licensed grain dealer purchasing grain by credit sale contract and who does not submit a financial statement that is accompanied by an unqualified opinion based upon an audit performed by a certified public accountant licensed in this state shall at all times maintain grain, rights in grain, proceeds from the sale of grain, or a combination thereof totaling at least ninety percent of the dealer's obligation for grain purchased by credit sale contract. The required amount shall be evidenced or represented by one or more of the following:
   a Grain actually held by the dealer in licensed storage facilities.
   b Rights in grain evidenced or represented by one or more of the following:
      1 A warehouse receipt issued by a warehouse licensed under chapter 543 or under the United States Warehouse Act, or by other documentation acceptable as evidence of inventory under the United States Warehouse Act.
      2 Evidence of grain forwarded to another warehouse under provisions of section 543 39.
   c Sufficient proceeds from and of the grain evidenced or represented by one or more of the following:
      1 Cash on hand or cash held on account in federally or state chartered financial institutions.
      2 Short term investments held in time accounts with federally or state chartered financial institutions.
      3 Balances on grain margin accounts.
   d Credit sales contracts for grain shipped to a processor, terminal, or recognized grain merchandising entity, less any payment or advance that has been received provided that the price term of the contract remains open.
   e Other evidence or proceeds from or of grain acceptable to the department, including an irrevocable letter of credit.
For the purpose of computing the dollar value of inventories and credit sale obligations, the value of grain shall be figured at the then current market.
A grain dealer shall keep records of credit sale obligations and evidence of grain, rights in grain and the proceeds from or of grain so as to clearly indicate compliance with the requirements of this subsection.

542.16 Confidentiality of records.
Notwithstanding chapter 22, all financial statements of grain dealers under this chapter shall be kept confidential by the department and its agents and employees and are not subject to disclosure except as follows:
1 Upon waiver by the licensee
2 In actions or administrative proceedings commenced under this chapter or chapter 543
3 When required by subpoena or court order
4 Disclosure to law enforcement agencies in regard to the detection and prosecution of public offenses
5 When released to a bonding company approved §542.21
by the department, or released to the United States department of agriculture or any of its divisions 6 Where released at the request of the Iowa board of accountancy for licensee review and discipline in accordance with chapters 116 and 258A and subject to the confidentiality requirements of section 258A 6
[81 Acts, ch 180, §13]
83 Acts, ch 101, §1

542.17 Standardization of records and documents.
1 The department may adopt rules specifying the form, content and use of scale tickets, and credit sale contracts. All scale ticket forms in the possession of a grain dealer shall have been permanently and consecutively numbered at the time of printing. A grain dealer shall maintain an accurate record of all scale ticket numbers. The record shall include the disposition of each numbered form, whether issued, destroyed, or otherwise disposed of 2 A licensed grain dealer shall keep complete and accurate records of all grain transactions. Records for the previous six years shall be made available for inspection by the department
[81 Acts, ch 180, §14]

542.18 Bonded grain sellers.
1 A producer may apply to the department for a license to operate as a bonded grain seller. The application shall be on a form prescribed by the department
2 As a condition of the granting of a license under this section, the applicant shall file with the department a bond payable to the state of Iowa with a corporate surety approved by the department in a penal sum of twenty-five thousand dollars per license, conditioned that the grain seller owns or controls, free of hens, any grain offered for sale. A bond issued by a surety under this section shall not be canceled by the surety before at least ninety days' notice by certified mail to the department and the bonded grain seller.
The liability of a surety on any bond under this section shall not accumulate for each successive license period during which the bond is in force 3 The fee for a bonded grain seller's license shall be two hundred dollars per year. All licenses shall terminate on the thirtieth of June of each year. There shall be no financial or net worth requirements for bonded grain sellers. License fees for new licenses may be prorated by the department on a monthly basis 4 A producer who is licensed under this section shall not sell any grain except grain that is owned by the producer and that is produced on land owned, leased or operated by the producer, including land located outside of this state. Violation of this subsection is grounds for revocation of the license, and the violator shall be disqualified from relicensure under this section for a period of one year after the date the revocation is effective 5 This section does not require a person to be licensed to sell grain
[81 Acts, ch 180, §15]
86 Acts, ch 1152, §10

542.19 Co-operative agreements.
1 Notwithstanding the other provisions of this chapter, the department may enter into co-operative agreements with other states for the purpose of making available to those states the information acquired under the bonding, licensing, and examination procedures of this chapter 2 If a co-operative agreement is in effect under this section, the indemnification requirements of this chapter may be satisfied by a Filing with the department evidence of a bond or an irrevocable letter of credit on file with a state or of participation in an indemnity fund in a state with which Iowa has a co-operative agreement as provided for by this section b Indemnification proceeds shall be co-payable to the state of Iowa for the benefit of sellers of grain under this chapter
Indemnification proceeds required by this chapter may be made co-payable to any state with whom this state has entered into contracts or agreements as authorized by this section, for the benefit of sellers of grain in that state
[81 Acts, ch 180, §16]
86 Acts, ch 1152, §11

542.20 Shrinkage adjustments — disclosures — penalties.
1 A person who, in connection with the receipt of corn or soybeans for storage, processing, or sale, adjusts the scale weight of the grain to compensate for the moisture content of the grain shall compute the amount of the adjustment by multiplying the scale weight of the grain by that factor which results in a rate of adjustment of one and eighteen hundredths percent of weight per one percent of moisture content
The use of any rate of weight adjustment for moisture content other than the one prescribed by this subsection is a fraudulent practice. The person shall post on the business premises in a conspicuous place notice of the rate of adjustment for moisture content that is prescribed by this subsection. Failure to make this disclosure is a simple misdemeanor
2 A person who, in connection with the receipt of grain for storage, processing or sale, adjusts the quantity of the grain received to compensate for losses to be incurred during the handling, processing, or storage of the grain shall post on the business premises in a conspicuous place notice of the rate of adjustment to be made for this shrinkage. Failure to make the required disclosure is a simple misdemeanor 3 A person who adjusts the scale weight of corn or soybeans both for moisture content and for handling, processing, or storage losses may combine the two adjustment factors into a single factor and may use this resulting factor to compute the amount of weight adjustment in connection with storage, processing, or sale transactions, provided that the person shall post on the business premises in a conspicuous place a notice that discloses the moisture shrinkage factor prescribed by subsection 1, the handling shrinkage factor to be imposed, and the single factor that results from combining these factors. Failure to make the required disclosure is a simple misdemeanor

542.21 Custom livestock feeder.
A custom livestock feeder shall only purchase grain from a grain producer by making payment by cash, check, or other instrument that is payable on demand from a grain producer using a credit-sale contract as defined in section 542 1, subsection 5

A custom livestock feeder shall not purchase grain

CHAPTER 542A

GRAIN BARGAINING AGENTS

542A 1 “Bargaining agent” defined
542A 2 Permit required of bargaining agent
542A 3 Bargaining agent’s permit
542A 4 Bond required of bargaining agent
542A 5 Inspection of bargaining agent’s books and records
542A 6 Penalties — misdemeanor
542A 7 Suspension or revocation of permit

542A.1 “Bargaining agent” defined.
As used in this chapter, “bargaining agent” means a person, group, firm, association or corporation who bargains with buyers for the sale of grain for agricultural producers
As used in this chapter, “department” means the department of agriculture and land stewardship
Bargaining agent shall not mean a person selling grain as a farm manager, or an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or conservator of an estate A bargaining agent shall not take title to the grain but shall act only for or on behalf of the beneficiaries whose product the bargaining agent is offering for sale Unless the bargaining agent agreement provides that proceeds from sales of grain shall be paid directly to the agricultural producer by the buyer, the bargaining agent agreement shall provide that proceeds shall be paid to and held in trust for the beneficiaries to assure payment of the proceeds of sale The applicant for a bargaining agent permit or a renewal thereof shall pay a permit fee in the amount of twenty-five dollars The department may cancel a permit upon the request of a permittee

542A.4 Bond required of bargaining agent.
Any applicant for a permit to operate as a bargaining agent in accordance with this chapter, as a condition to the granting of the permit, shall file with the department proof of a bond which is in the form and with such surety or sureties as required by the department covering the fiduciary responsibility of those trustees responsible to the beneficiaries The bond shall be in a penal sum of fifty thousand dollars

542A.5 Inspection of bargaining agent’s books and records.
A bargaining agent’s books, accounts, records and papers of grain transactions, and all books, accounts, records and papers relating to trust funds or to funds required by this chapter to be held in trust, shall be subject to inspection by the department during ordinary business hours Where there is good cause to believe that a person is engaged without a permit in the business of a bargaining agent in this state, the department may inspect the books, papers and records of such person

542A.6 Penalties — misdemeanor.
Any person who engages in business as a bargaining agent without obtaining a permit or any person in violation of any other provision of sections 542A 1 to 542A 5, or any bargaining agent who refuses to permit inspection of books, accounts or records of grain transactions as provided in this chapter, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor. Each day that any violation continues shall constitute a separate offense. Any person violating the provisions of this chapter may be restrained by an injunction. The permit of any person who has been found after a hearing, to have willfully violated the provisions of this chapter may be suspended for a reasonable time or revoked by the department.

542A.7 Suspension or revocation of permit.
The department may after hearing and upon information being filed with the department by the administrator of the warehouse division of the department or upon complaint filed by any person, suspend or revoke a bargaining agent permit issued under this chapter for the violation of or failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or any rule adopted thereunder. An information or a verified complaint stating the grounds for suspension or revocation shall be filed with the department in triplicate. The department shall notify the permittee of the complaint and furnish the permittee with a copy of the information or the complaint and a copy of the order of the department fixing the time for a hearing, which time shall be at least five days from the date of notification. If the department determines that the public good requires immediate action, the department may, upon the filing of the information or the complaint and without hearing, temporarily suspend a permit pending the determination by it of the complaint. Judicial review of the actions of the department may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa Administrative Procedure Act.

The department may revoke a bargaining agent permit upon information without hearing if the permittee fails to have sufficient bond on file with the department, or if the permittee fails to submit to inspection.

Upon revocation of a permit, any claim of a creditor shall be filed against the former permittee within one hundred twenty days after the date of revocation. The department shall provide for giving notice to all agricultural producers under contract with the person holding the bargaining agent permit of the revocation of the permit.

§543.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter
1. "Department" means the department of agriculture and land stewardship
2. "Warehouse" shall mean any building, structure, or other protected enclosure in this state used or usable for the storage of agricultural products. Buildings used in connection with the operation of the warehouse shall be deemed to be a part of the warehouse
3. "Licensed warehouse" shall mean a warehouse for the operation of which the department has issued a license in accordance with the provisions of section 543 6
4. "Agricultural product" shall mean any product of agricultural activity suitable for storage in quantity, including refined or unrefined sugar and canned agricultural products and shall also mean any product intended for consumption in the production of other agricultural products, such as stock salt, binding twine, bran, cracked corn, soybean meal, commercial feeds, and cottonseed meal
5. "Grain" shall mean wheat, corn, oats, barley, rye, flaxseed, field peas, soybeans, grain sorghums, spelt, and similar agricultural products, as defined in the Grain Standards Act
6. "Bulk grain" shall mean grain which is not contained in sacks
7. "Person" shall mean an individual, corporation, partnership, or two or more persons having a joint or common interest in the same venture, and, except with respect to the privilege of operating a warehouse under this chapter, shall include the United States or Iowa state government, or any subdivision or agency of either
8. "Warehouse operator" means a person engaged in the business of operating or controlling a warehouse for the storing, shipping, handling or processing of agricultural products, but does not include an incidental warehouse operator
9. "Licensed warehouse operator" shall mean a warehouse operator who has obtained a license for the operation of a warehouse under the provisions of section 543 6
10. "Receiving and loadout charge" shall mean the charge made by the warehouse operator for receiving grain into and loading grain from the warehouse, exclusive of the warehouse operator's other charges
11. "Unlicensed warehouse operator" means a warehouse operator who retains grain in the warehouse not to exceed thirty days and is not licensed under the provisions of this chapter or Title VII, U.S.C.
12. "Scale weight ticket" means a load slip or other evidence, other than a receipt, given to a depositor by a warehouse operator licensed under this chapter upon initial delivery of the agricultural product to the warehouse
13. "Depositor" means any person who deposits an agricultural product in a warehouse for storage, handling, or shipment, or who is the owner or legal holder of an outstanding warehouse receipt, or who is lawfully entitled to possession of the agricultural product
14. "Station" means a warehouse located more than three miles from the central office of the warehouse
15. "Warehouse operator's obligation" means a sufficient quantity and quality of grain or other products for which a warehouse operator is licensed including company owned grain and grain of depositors as the warehouse operator's records indicate. For an unlicensed warehouse operator it means a sufficient quantity and quality to cover company owned and all deposits of grain for which actual payment has not been made. At no time may a warehouse operator have less grain or other agricultural products in the warehouse than the obligations to depositors, as determined by investigation of the warehouse operator's records
16. "Storage" means any grain or other agricultural products that have been received and have come under care, custody or control of a warehouse operator either for the depositor for which a contract of purchase has not been negotiated or for the warehouse operator operating the facility
17. "Open storage" means grain or agricultural products which are received by a warehouse operator from a depositor for which warehouse receipts have not been issued or a purchase made and the records documented accordingly
18. "Grain Standards Act" means the United States Grain Standards Act, as amended to and including January 1, 1977
19. "Official grain standards" means the standards of quality and condition of grain which establishes the grade, fixed and established by the secretary of agriculture under the Grain Standards Act
20. "Grain bank" means grain owned by a depositor and held temporarily by the warehouse operator for use in the formulation of feed or to be processed and returned to the depositor on demand
21. "License" means a license issued under this chapter
22. "Credit sale contract" means a contract for the sale of grain pursuant to which the sale price is to be paid more than thirty days after the delivery of the grain to the buyer, and includes but is not limited to those contracts commonly referred to as defer red-payment contracts, deferred pricing contracts, and price later contracts
23. "Incidental warehouse operator" means a person regulated under chapter 198 whose grain storage capacity does not exceed twenty five thousand bushels which is used exclusively for grain owned or grain which will be returned to the depositor for use in a feeding operation or as an ingredient in a customer formula feed, as defined in section 198 1
24. "Bond" means a bond issued by a surety company or an irrevocable letter of credit issued by a financial institution described in subsection 25
25. "Financial institution" means a bank or savings and loan association authorized by the state of Iowa or by the laws of the United States, which is a member of the federal deposit insurance corporation or the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, respectively

543.2 Duties and powers of the department

The department may exercise general supervision over the storage, warehousing, classifying according to grade or otherwise, weighing, and certification of agricultural products. The department may inspect or cause to be inspected any warehouse. Inspections may be made at times and for purposes as the department determines. Except as provided in section 543.6, the department shall cause every licensed warehouse and its contents to be inspected once in every twelve-month period. The department may require the filing of reports relating to a warehouse or its operation. If upon inspection a deficiency is found to exist as to the quantity or quality of agricultural products stored, as indicated on the warehouse operator’s books and records according to official grain standards, the department may require an employee of the department to remain at the licensed warehouse and supervise all operations involving agricultural products stored there under this chapter until the deficiency is corrected. The charge for the cost of maintaining an employee of the department at a warehouse to supervise the correction of a deficiency is one hundred fifty dollars per day.

The department may make available to the United States government, or any of its agencies, including the commodity credit corporation, the results of inspections made and inspection reports submitted to it by employees of the department, upon payment of charges as determined by the department, but the charges shall not be less than the actual cost of services rendered, as determined by the department. The department may enter into contracts and agreements for such purpose and shall keep a record of all money thus received. All such money shall be paid over to the treasurer of state as miscellaneous receipts. The department may classify any warehouse in accordance with its suitability for the storage of agricultural products and shall specify in any license issued for the operation of a warehouse the only type or types and the quantity of agricultural products which may be stored in the warehouse. The department may prescribe, within the limitations of this chapter, the duties of licensed warehouse operators with respect to the care of and responsibility for the contents of licensed warehouses. Grain grades shall be determined under the official grain standards. The department may from time to time publish data in connection with the administration of this chapter as may be of public interest.

543.3 Appointment of department as receiver.

1. The department in its discretion may, following summary suspension of a license under section 543.10, or following a suspension or revocation of a license as otherwise provided in section 543.10 or 543.11, file a verified petition in the district court requesting that the department be appointed as a receiver to take custody of commodities stored in the licensee’s warehouse and to provide for the disposition of those assets in the manner provided in this chapter and under the supervision of the court. The petition shall be filed in the county in which the warehouse is located. The district court shall appoint the department as receiver. Upon the filing of the petition the court shall issue ex parte such temporary orders as may be necessary to preserve or protect the assets in receivership, or the value thereof, and the rights of depositors, until a plan of disposition is approved.

2. A petition filed by the department under subsection 1 shall be accompanied by the department’s plan for disposition of stored commodities. The plan may provide for the pro rata delivery of part or all of the stored commodities to depositors holding warehouse receipts or unpriced scale weight tickets, or may provide for the sale under the supervision of the department of part or all of the stored commodities for the benefit of those depositors, or may provide for any combination thereof, as the department in its discretion determines to be necessary to minimize losses.

3. When a petition is filed by the department under subsection 1 the clerk of court shall set a date for hearing on the department’s proposed plan of disposition at a time not less than ten nor more than fifteen days after the date the petition is filed. Copies of the petition, the notice of hearing, and the department’s plan of disposition shall be served upon the licensee and upon the issuer of a deficiency bond or of an irrevocable letter of credit pursuant to section 543.6 in the manner required for service of an original notice. A delay in effecting service upon the licensee or issuer is not cause for denying the appointment of a receiver and is not grounds for invalidating any action or proceeding in connection with the appointment.

4. The department shall cause a copy of each of the documents served upon the licensee under subsection 3 to be mailed by ordinary mail to every person holding a warehouse receipt or unpriced scale weight ticket issued by the licensee, as determined by the records of the licensee or the records of the department. The failure of any person referred to in this subsection to receive the required notification shall not invalidate the proceedings on the petition for the appointment of a receiver or any portion thereof. Persons referred to in this subsection are not parties to the action unless admitted by the court upon application therefor.

5. When appointed as a receiver under this chapter, the department shall cause notification of the appointment to be published once each week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in each of the counties in which the licensee maintains a business location, and in a newspaper of general circulation in this state.

6. The department may designate an employee of the department to appear on behalf of the department in any proceedings before the court with respect to the receivership, and to exercise the functions of the department as receiver under this section and section 543.4, except that the department shall determine whether or not to petition for appointment as receiver, shall approve the proposed plan for disposition of stored commodities, shall approve the proposed plan for distribution of any cash proceeds, and shall approve the proposed final report.

7. The actions of the department in connection with petitioning for appointment as a receiver, and all actions pursuant to such appointment shall not be subject to the provisions of the administrative procedure Act
[C79, 81, §543 3]
86 Acts, ch 1152, §15

543.4 Powers and duties of receiver.
1. When the department is appointed as receiver under this chapter the issuer of a deficiency bond or of an irrevocable letter of credit pursuant to section 543.6 shall be joined as a party defendant by the department If required by the court, the issuer shall pay the indemnification proceeds or so much thereof as the court finds necessary into the court, and when so paid the issuer shall be absolutely discharged from any further liability under the bond or irrevocable letter of credit to the extent of the payment
2. When appointed as receiver under this chapter the department is authorized to give notice in the manner specified by the court to persons holding warehouse receipts or other evidence of deposit issued by the licensee to file their claims within one hundred twenty days after the date of appointment Failure to timely file a claim shall defeat the claim with respect to the issuer of a deficiency bond or of an irrevocable letter of credit, grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund created in chapter 543A, and any commodities or proceeds from the sale of commodities, except to the extent of any excess commodities or proceeds of sale remaining after all timely claims are paid in full
3. When the court approves the sale of commodities, the department shall employ a merchandiser to effect the sale of those commodities A person employed as a merchandiser must meet the following requirements:
   a. The person shall be experienced or knowledgeable in the operation of warehouses licensed under this chapter, and if the person has ever held a license issued under this chapter, the person shall never have had that license suspended or revoked
   b. The person shall be experienced or knowledgeable in the marketing of agricultural products
   c. The person shall not be the holder of a warehouse receipt or scale weight ticket issued by the licensee, and shall not have a claim against the licensee whether as a secured or unsecured creditor, and otherwise shall not have any pecuniary interest in the licensee or the licensee’s business The merchandiser shall be entitled to reasonable compensation as determined by the department, payable out of funds appropriated for operating expenses of the department

A sale of commodities shall be made in a commercially reasonable manner and under the supervision of the warehouse division of the department The department shall provide for the payment out of appropriations to the department of all expenses incurred in handling and disposing of commodities The department shall have authority to sell the commodities, any provision of chapter 554 to the contrary notwithstanding, and any commodities so sold shall be free of all liens and other encumbrances
4. The plan of disposition, as approved by the court, shall provide for the distribution of the stored commodities, or the proceeds from the sale of commodities, or the proceeds from any insurance policy, deficiency bond, or irrevocable letter of credit, less expenses incurred by the department in connection with the receivership, plus the proceeds from the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund in an amount determined pursuant to section 543A.3 to depositors as their interests are determined Distribution shall be without regard to any setoff, counterclaim, or storage lien or charge
5. The department may, with the approval of the court, continue the operation of all or any part of the business of the licensee on a temporary basis and take any other course of action or procedure which will serve the interests of the depositors
6. The department is entitled to reimbursement out of commodities or proceeds held in receivership for all expenses incurred as court costs or in handling and disposing of stored commodities, and for all other costs directly attributable to the receivership The right of reimbursement of the department is prior to any claims against the commodities or proceeds of sales of commodities, and constitutes a claim against a deficiency bond or irrevocable letter of credit
7. If the approved plan of disposition requires a distribution of cash proceeds, the department shall submit to the court a proposed plan of distribution of those proceeds Upon notice and hearing as required by the court, the court shall accept or modify the proposed plan When the plan is approved by the court and executed by the department, the department shall be discharged and the receivership terminated
8. At the termination of the receivership the department shall file a final report containing the details of its actions, together with such additional information as the court may require

543.5 Rules.
The department shall adopt rules as it deems necessary for the efficient administration of this chapter, and may designate an employee or officer of the department to act for the department in any details connected with administration, including the issuance of licenses and approval of deficiency bonds or irrevocable letters of credit in the name of the department, but not including matters requiring a public hearing or suspension or revocation of licenses

The department may adopt rules specifying the form, content and use of scale tickets, warehouse receipts, settlement sheets, daily position records, shipping ledgers, and other documents used by licensed warehouses All scale ticket forms and warehouse receipt forms in the possession of a warehouse operator shall have been permanently and consecutively numbered at the time of printing A warehouse operator shall maintain an accurate record of the numbers of these documents The record shall include the disposition of each form, whether issued, destroyed, or otherwise disposed of The department may by rule require this use of prenumbered forms and recording for documents other than scale tickets and warehouse receipts
[C24, 27, 31, §9271, C35, §9751 g3, C39, §9751.03; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §543 3, C79, 81, §543 5, 81 Acts, ch 180, §20]
86 Acts, ch 1152, §17

543.6 Issuance of license and financial responsibility.
1. The department is authorized, upon application to it, to issue to any warehouse operator or to any person about to become a warehouse operator a license or licenses for the operation of a warehouse or warehouses in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and such rules as may be made by the department under the authority of section 543.5. A single license to operate two or more warehouses located within a twenty-five mile radius of a central office may be issued.

2. The type of license required shall be determined as follows:
   a. A class 1 license is required if the storage capacity of a warehouse is more than one hundred thousand bushels.
   b. A class 2 license is required for a warehouse that is not required to have a class 1 license.

3. An application for a warehouse license shall be accompanied by a complete financial statement of the applicant setting forth the assets, liabilities and net worth of the applicant. The financial statement must be prepared according to normally accepted accounting principles. Assets shall be shown at original cost less depreciation. Upon written request, the department or a designated employee may allow asset valuations in accordance with a competent appraisal. Unpriced contracts shall be shown as a liability and valued at the applicable current market price of grain as of the date the financial statement is prepared.

4. In order to receive and retain a class 1 license, the following conditions must be satisfied:
   a. The warehouse operator shall have and maintain a net worth of at least twenty cents per bushel of warehouse capacity, or maintain a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit in the amount of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction thereof of net worth deficiency. However, a person shall not be licensed as a class 1 warehouse operator if the person has a net worth of less than twenty-five thousand dollars.
   b. The warehouse operator shall submit, as required by the department, a financial statement that is accompanied by an unqualified opinion based upon an audit performed by a certified public accountant licensed in this state. However, the department may accept a qualification in an opinion that is unavoidable by any audit procedure that is permitted under generally accepted accounting principles. An opinion that is qualified because of a limited audit procedure or because the scope of an audit is limited shall not be accepted by the department. The warehouse operator may elect, however, to submit a financial statement that is accompanied by the report of a certified public accountant licensed in this state that is based upon a review performed by the certified public accountant in lieu of the audited financial statement specified in this paragraph, and if a warehouse operator makes this election, the department shall cause the warehouse to be inspected not less than twice during each twelve-month period, but not more than five times in a twenty-four month period without good cause, in the manner provided in section 543.2. In addition, the department shall cause a warehouse operator who makes this election to submit to the department, in a form and manner prescribed by the department, an interim financial statement no less than once in every three-calendar-month period.

5. In order to receive and maintain a class 2 license, the following conditions must be satisfied:
   a. The warehouse operator shall have and maintain a net worth of at least twenty cents per bushel of warehouse capacity, or maintain a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit in the amount of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction thereof of net worth deficiency. However, if the person shall not be licensed as a class 2 warehouse operator if the person has a net worth of less than ten thousand dollars.
   b. The warehouse operator shall submit, as required by the department, a financial statement that is accompanied by an unqualified opinion based upon an audit performed by a certified public accountant licensed in this state. However, the department may accept a qualification in an opinion that is unavoidable by any audit procedure that is permitted under generally accepted accounting principles. An opinion that is qualified because of a limited audit procedure or because the scope of an audit is limited shall not be accepted by the department. The warehouse operator may elect, however, to submit a financial statement that is accompanied by the report of a certified public accountant licensed in this state that is based upon a review performed by the certified public accountant in lieu of the audited financial statement specified in this paragraph, and if a warehouse operator makes this election, the department shall cause the warehouse to be inspected not less than twice during each twelve-month period, but not more than five times in a twenty-four month period without good cause, in the manner provided in section 543.2. In addition, the department shall cause a warehouse operator who makes this election to submit to the department, in a form and manner prescribed by the department, an interim financial statement no less than once in every three-calendar-month period.

duly authorized representative of the applicant. In addition to any other information required by rule of the department the application shall include the following:

1. The name of the individual, partnership, or corporation making the application, the names of all partners if applicant is a partnership, and the names and titles of the principal officers if applicant is a corporation.

2. The principal office or place of business of the applicant.

3. A general description of each warehouse as to storage capacity, type of construction, mechanical equipment, if any, and condition.

4. The approximate location of each warehouse.

5. The type and quantity of agricultural product, or products intended to be stored in each warehouse.

6. A complete financial statement for use of the department in the administration of this chapter, as required by section 543.6.

7. A tariff on a form to be prescribed by the department, for storage, conditioning of stored products, and receiving and loadout charges.

543.8 License to specify type and quantity of products which may be stored.

The department shall determine with respect to each application for a license whether the warehouse or warehouses described in the application is or are suitable for the proper and safe storage of the particular agricultural product or products intended to be stored therein in the quantities specified in the application, provided that no warehouse shall be found to be suitable and safe for the storage of bulk grain unless such warehouse is equipped with a fixed or portable mechanical device of a type in common use as an adjunct to the movement of bulk grain. Each license issued for the operation of a single warehouse shall specify the type or types and quantities of agricultural products which may be stored in such warehouse. Each license issued to a warehouse operator for the operation of two or more warehouses shall specify with respect to each warehouse the type or types and quantities of agricultural product which may be stored in such warehouse. It shall be unlawful for any licensed warehouse operator to accept for storage or to store in any licensed warehouse any agricultural product or products other than the type or types and quantities specified in the license for the operation of such warehouse.

543.9 Amendment of license.

The department is authorized, upon its own motion, or upon receipt of written application, to amend any license previously issued by it, to change or modify the provisions as to the type and quantity of agricultural products which may be stored in the warehouse or warehouses in respect to which the license was originally issued. Application for amendments to licenses shall include the same information, except as to the financial condition of the applicant, as required by section 543.7 to be included in an original application. Applications for amendments of licenses shall be considered by the department on the same basis as applications for original licenses, and except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a license when amended shall have the same status, as of the date of the amendment, as though originally issued as amended.

543.10 Suspension or revocation of license.

The department is empowered after hearing before it and upon information being filed with the department by the duly authorized head of the warehouse division of the department or upon complaint filed by any person to suspend or revoke the license of anyone licensed under this chapter for the violation of or failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or any rule made in pursuance of the authority therefor granted under this chapter. An information or a verified complaint stating the grounds for suspension or revocation shall be filed with the department in triplicate, and thereupon the department shall serve the licensee complained against with a copy of the information or the complaint and a copy of the order of the department fixing the time for hearing thereon, which time shall be at least ten days from the date of service.

If upon the filing of the information or complaint the department finds that the licensee has failed to meet the warehouse operator's obligation or otherwise has violated or failed to comply with the provisions of this chapter or any rule promulgated under this chapter, and if the department finds that the public health, safety or welfare imperatively requires emergency action, then the department without hearing may order a summary suspension of the license in the manner provided in section 17A.18. When so ordered, a copy of the order of suspension shall be served upon the licensee at the time the information or complaint is served as provided in this section.

Judicial review of the actions of the department may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa Administrative Procedure Act.

543.11 Suspension or revocation for insufficient evidence of financial responsibility — notice.

1. When the department determines that insurance is not fully provided as required under section 543.15, it may require the licensed warehouse operator to provide additional evidence of insurance coverage so that the insurance conforms with the requirements of this chapter. If additional insurance is not provided within thirty days after receipt by the licensee of notice by certified mail, the license of the warehouse operator concerned shall be automatically suspended. If additional insurance is not filed within another ten days, the warehouse license shall be automatically revoked. When a license is revoked, the department shall notify each holder of an outstanding warehouse receipt and all known persons who have grain retained in open storage of the revocation. The department shall further notify each receipt holder and all known persons who have grain retained in open storage that the grain must be removed from the warehouse not later than the thirtieth day following the revocation. The notice shall be sent by ordinary mail to the last known address of each person having grain in storage as provided in this subsection.

2. If the department determines that the net worth of a licensed warehouse operator is not in compliance with the requirements of section 543.6, the department shall issue a notice to the warehouse operator and shall suspend the warehouse operator's license if the warehouse operator does not provide evidence of compliance within thirty days of the issuance of the notice. The department shall inspect the warehouse at the end of the thirty-day period. If evidence of compliance is not provided within sixty days of the issuance of the notice, the department shall revoke the warehouse operator's license, and shall again inspect the warehouse. If a license is revoked, the department shall give notice of the revocation to each holder of an outstanding warehouse receipt and to all known persons who have grain retained in open storage. The revocation notice shall state that the grain must be removed from the warehouse not later than the thirtieth day after the issuance of the revocation notice. The revocation notice shall be sent by ordinary mail to the last known address of each person having grain in storage as provided in this subsection. The department shall conduct a final inspection of the warehouse at the end of the thirty-day period following the issuance of the revocation notice.

3. When the department receives notice that a deficiency bond or irrevocable letter of credit is being canceled by the issuer, and determines that upon the cancellation the warehouse operation will not be in compliance with section 543.6, the department shall suspend the warehouse operator's license if a new deficiency bond or irrevocable letter of credit is not received by the department within sixty days of receipt by the department of the notice of cancellation. If a new deficiency bond or irrevocable letter of credit is not received by the department within thirty days following suspension, the warehouse operator's license shall be revoked. When a license is revoked, the department shall notify each holder of an outstanding warehouse receipt and all known persons who have grain retained in open storage of the revocation, and shall further notify each receipt holder and all known persons who have grain retained in open storage that the grain must be removed from the warehouse not later than the thirtieth day following revocation. The notice shall be sent by ordinary mail to the last known address of each person having grain in storage as provided in this subsection.

543.12 Participation in fund required.

A person licensed to operate a warehouse under this chapter shall participate in and comply with the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund provided in chapter 543A.

543.13 Form and amount of evidence of financial responsibility.

1. A warehouse operator who stores only agricultural products other than bulk grain shall have and maintain a net worth of at least ten percent of the value of the warehouse capacity, or maintain a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit in the amount of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction thereof of net worth deficiency. However, a person shall not be eligible for a license to store only agricultural products other than bulk grain if the person has a net worth of less than ten thousand dollars.

2. If the agricultural product or products intended to be stored by the warehouse operator, as specified in the application for a license or amended license, are other than bulk grain, the quantity of such product intended to be stored shall be valued at the fair market price on the date of filing the application, and the minimum amount of bond shall be determined with reference to such value as follows:

a. For intended storage of such products of a value less than twenty thousand dollars the minimum amount of the bond shall be three thousand dollars, plus one thousand dollars for each two thousand dollars, or fraction thereof, of value in excess of six thousand dollars up to twenty thousand dollars.

b. For intended storage of such products of a value not less than twenty thousand dollars and not more than fifty thousand dollars the minimum amount of the bond shall be ten thousand dollars plus one thousand dollars for each three thousand dollars, or fraction thereof, of value in excess of twenty thousand dollars up to fifty thousand dollars.

c. For intended storage of such products of a value not less than fifty thousand dollars the minimum amount of the bond shall be twenty thousand dollars plus one thousand dollars for each five thousand dollars, or fraction thereof, of value in excess of fifty thousand dollars.

3. A bond, deficiency bond, or irrevocable letter of credit on agricultural products other than bulk grain shall not be canceled by the issuer on less than one hundred twenty days' notice by certified mail to the department and the principal. When the department receives notice from an issuer that it has canceled the bond, deficiency bond, or irrevocable letter of credit on agricultural products other than bulk grain of a warehouse operator, the department shall automatically suspend the warehouse operator's authorization to store or accept for storage agricultural products other than bulk grain if a new bond, deficiency bond, or irrevocable letter of credit is not received by the department within sixty days of the issuance of the notice of cancellation. The department shall conduct an inspection of the licensee's warehouse immediately at the end of the sixty-day period. If a new bond, deficiency bond, or irrevocable letter of credit is not provided within ninety days of the issuance of the notice of cancellation, the department shall revoke the warehouse operator's authorization to store or accept for storage agricultural products other than bulk grain.

The department shall conduct a further inspection of the licensee's warehouse after the ninety-day period when an authorization to store or accept for storage agricultural products other than bulk grain is revoked.
the department shall give notice of the revocation to all known persons who have agricultural products other than bulk grain in storage, and shall notify them that the agricultural products other than bulk grain must be removed from the warehouse not later than one hundred twenty days after the issuance of the notice of cancellation. The revocation notice shall be sent by ordinary mail to the last known address of each person having agricultural products other than bulk grain in storage. The department shall cause a final inspection of the licensee’s warehouse after the end of the one hundred twenty-day period.

543.14 Suit — claims — notice of revocation.

A person injured by the breach of an obligation of a warehouse operator, for the performance of which a bond on agricultural products other than bulk grain, a deficiency bond, or an irrevocable letter of credit has been given under any of the provisions of this chapter, may sue on the bond on agricultural products other than bulk grain, deficiency bond, or irrevocable letter of credit in the person’s own name in a court of competent jurisdiction to recover any damages the person has sustained by reason of the breach.

Upon revocation, termination, or cancellation of a warehouse license, a claim against the warehouse operator shall be made in writing. The notice shall also state that any claims against the warehouse operator arising under this chapter shall be made in writing with the warehouse operator, with the issuer of a bond on agricultural products other than bulk grain, a deficiency bond, or an irrevocable letter of credit, and, if the claim relates to bulk grain, with the department within one hundred twenty days after revocation, termination, or cancellation. Failure to make a timely claim relieves the issuer and, if the claim relates to bulk grain, the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund provided in chapter 543A of all obligations to the claimant. Upon revocation of a warehouse license, the department shall cause notice of the revocation to be published once each week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in each of the counties in which the licensee maintains a business location and in a newspaper of general circulation within the state. The notice shall state the name and address of the warehouse operator and the effective date of revocation. The notice shall also state that any claims against the warehouse operator shall be made in writing and sent by ordinary mail to the warehouse operator, to the issuer of a bond on agricultural products other than bulk grain, deficiency bond, or an irrevocable letter of credit, and to the department within one hundred twenty days after revocation, and the notice shall state that the failure to make a timely claim does not relieve the warehouse operator from liability to the claimant. This paragraph does not apply if a receiver is appointed as provided in this chapter pursuant to a petition which is filed by the department prior to the expiration of one hundred twenty days after revocation, termination, or cancellation of the license.

543.15 Insurance required — exception.

All agricultural products in storage in a licensed warehouse and all agricultural products which have been deposited temporarily in a licensed warehouse pending storage or for purposes other than storage, shall be kept fully insured by the warehouse operator for the current value of the agricultural products against loss by fire, inherent explosion, or windstorm. The insurance shall be carried in an insurance company or companies authorized to do business in this state, and evidence of the insurance coverage in a form approved by the department shall be filed with the department. An insurance policy shall not be canceled by the insurance company on less than sixty days’ notice by certified mail to the department and the principal unless the policy is being replaced with another policy and evidence of the new policy is filed with the department at the time of cancellation of the policy on file. The insurance shall be provided by, and carried in the name of, the warehouse operator. Claimants against the insurance have precedence in the following order:

1. Holders of warehouse receipts other than the warehouse operator and owners of bulk grain other than the warehouse operator.
2. Owners of all other agricultural products as their interests appear.
3. Warehouse operators who have warehouse receipts.
4. Warehouse operators owners of bulk grain.

However, notwithstanding the insurance requirements set forth in this section, a licensed warehouse may exclude from the insurance coverage stored grain to which title is fully vested in the United States government or any of its subdivisions or agencies, provided that the licensed warehouse has on file with the United States government or any of its subdivisions or agencies a current and accepted uninsured storage rate under the provisions of their uniform grain storage agreement. The licensed warehouse shall file a copy of the current uninsured tariff rate with the department immediately upon acceptance of the uninsured rate by the United States government or any of its subdivisions or agencies.

543.16 License required for the storage of bulk grain.

It shall be unlawful for any person other than a licensed warehouse operator to place in storage or to accept for storage any bulk grain, and it shall be unlawful for any person to place bulk grain in storage in a warehouse other than a licensed warehouse. This section shall not apply to the acceptance and storage of bulk grain by a person bonded and licensed under the provisions of a federal law, if and to the extent that such person is authorized under federal law to accept and store bulk grain, but such person shall comply with all other provisions of this chapter which do not conflict with such federal law. This section shall not apply to the storage of bulk grain owned by the person storing the same.

1 Any grain which has been received at any licensed warehouse for which the actual sale price is not fixed and proper documentation made or payment made shall be construed to be grain held for storage within the meaning of this chapter. Grain may be held in open storage or placed on warehouse receipt. Warehouse receipts shall be issued for all grain held in open storage, within six months of delivery to the warehouse, unless the depositor has signed a statement that the depositor does not desire a warehouse receipt. The warehouse operator's tariff shall apply for any grain that is retained in open storage or under warehouse receipt.

2 Bulk grain deposited with a licensed warehouse operator for processing, cleaning, drying, shipping for the account of the depositor or any other purpose shall be removed within thirty days or such grain shall be determined as stored grain and the warehouse operator's tariff charges shall apply.

3 Grain received on a scale ticket which fails to have the price fixed and properly documented on the records of the warehouse operator shall be construed to be in open storage.

4 All bulk grain whether open storage or having been placed on warehouse receipt is covered by the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund created in chapter 543A.

5 Any grain which has been received at any unlicensed warehouse and for which the actual sale price has not been fixed and payment made within thirty days from receipt of the grain, unless covered by a credit-sale contract, shall be construed to be unlawful storage within the meaning of this chapter. Bulk grain received at any unlicensed warehouse for any other purpose must either be returned to the depositor or disposed of by order of the depositor within thirty days from date of actual deposit of the bulk grain.

6 If the depositor of bulk grain in an unlicensed warehouse fails to sell the grain or orders other disposition of the grain, the warehouse operator may purchase the grain, if otherwise allowed by law, on the thirtieth day after deposit at not less than the market price at the close of business on the thirtieth day or return the grain to the depositor by the thirtieth day.

7 Every licensed warehouse operator shall, on or before July 1 of each year, send a statement for each holder of a warehouse receipt covering grain held for more than one year at that warehouse to the holder's last known address. The statement shall show the amount of all grain held pursuant to warehouse receipt for such warehouse receipt holder and the amount of any storage charges held by the licensed warehouse operator against that grain. However, a licensed warehouse operator need not prepare this annual statement for a holder of a warehouse receipt, if the licensed warehouse operator prepares such statements monthly, quarterly, or for any other period more frequent than annually. Failure to prepare a statement required by this subsection is a simple misdemeanor. Violation of this section shall not constitute grounds for suspension, revocation, or modification of the license of any one licensed under this chapter.

543.18 Issuance of warehouse receipts.

For all agricultural products that become storage in a licensed warehouse, warehouse receipts signed by the licensed warehouse operator or the operator's authorized agent shall be issued by the licensed warehouse operator. Such warehouse receipts shall be in the form required or permitted by Uniform Commercial Code, sections 554 7202 and 554 7204, provided, however, that each receipt issued for agricultural products, in addition to the matters specified in Uniform Commercial Code, section 554 7202 shall embody in its written or printed terms:

1 The receiving and loadout charges which will be made by the warehouse operator.

2 The grade or other class of the agricultural products received and the standard or description in accordance with which such classification has been made, provided that such grade or other class shall be stated according to the official standard of the United States applicable to such agricultural products as the same may be fixed and promulgated, provided, further, that until such official standards of the United States for any agricultural product or products have been fixed and promulgated, the grade or other class thereof may be stated in accordance with any recognized standard or in accordance with such rules and regulations not inconsistent herewith as may be prescribed by the secretary of agriculture of the United States.

3 A statement that the receipt is issued subject to the Iowa warehouse Act and the rules and regulations prescribed pursuant to the Act.

4 Such other terms and conditions as may be required by rules of the department.

Warehouses that are not licensed pursuant to this chapter or by the United States government shall not issue warehouse receipts for agricultural products.

The original copy of every warehouse receipt shall be imprinted with the signature of the secretary of agriculture prior to issuance.

543.19 Rights and obligations with respect to warehouse receipts — lost receipts.

Insofar as not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, original or duplicate receipts issued by licensed warehouse operators shall be deemed to have been issued under the provisions of Uniform Commercial Code, chapter 554, article 7.

Duplicates and releases for lost, destroyed, or stolen warehouse receipts may be issued only in accordance with the provisions of section 554 7601.

543.20 Receipt by warehouse operator to self.

A licensed warehouse operator may issue a warehouse receipt for agricultural products owned by the warehouse operator and dispose of the title to or interest in such products through the medium of such receipt. Such receipt shall be of the same standing as though it had been issued to a person other than the licensed warehouse operator upon a rightful deposit of the products by such other person. Sections 543.18 and 543.19 shall be applicable to any such receipt. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §543.20]

543.21 Repealed by 61GA, ch 413, §10102.

543.22 Repealed by 67GA, ch 1170, §16.

543.23 Warehouse operator's obligation.
A warehouse operator shall maintain at all times sufficient quantity and quality of grain or other agricultural products to cover the warehouse operator's obligation. A warehouse operator shall not at any time have less grain or other agricultural products in the warehouse than the obligations to depositors. [81 Acts, ch 180, §29]

543.24 Confidentiality of records.
Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 22, all financial statements of warehouse operators under this chapter shall be kept confidential by the department and its agents and employees and are not subject to disclosure except as follows:
1. Upon waiver by the licensee.
2. In actions or administrative proceedings commenced under this chapter or chapter 542.
3. When required by subpoena or other court orders.
4. Disclosure to law enforcement agencies in regards to the detection and prosecution of public offenses.
5. Where released to a bonding company approved by the department or to the United States department of agriculture or any of its divisions.
6. Where released at the request of the Iowa board of accountancy for licensee review and discipline in accordance with chapters 116 and 258A and subject to the confidentiality requirements of section 258A.6. [81 Acts, ch 180, §30]

543.25 Shrinkage adjustments — disclosures — penalties.
1. A person who, in connection with the receipt of corn or soybeans for storage, processing, or sale, adjusts the scale weight of the grain to compensate for the moisture content of the grain shall compute the amount of the adjustment by multiplying the scale weight of the grain by that factor which results in a rate of adjustment of one and eighty-hundredths percent of weight per one percent of moisture content. The use of any rate of weight adjustment for moisture content other than the one prescribed by this subsection is a fraudulent practice. The person shall post on the business premises in a conspicuous place notice of the rate of adjustment for moisture content that is prescribed by this subsection. Failure to make this disclosure is a simple misdemeanor.
2. A person who, in connection with the receipt of grain for storage, processing or sale, adjusts the quantity of the grain received to compensate for losses to be incurred during the handling, processing, or storage of the grain shall post on the business premises in a conspicuous place notice of the rate of adjustment to be made for this shrinkage. Failure to make the required disclosure is a simple misdemeanor.
3. A person who adjusts the scale weight of corn or soybeans both for moisture content and for handling, processing, or storage losses may combine the two adjustment factors into a single factor and may use this resulting factor to compute the amount of weight adjustment in connection with storage, processing, or sale transactions, provided that the person shall post on the business premises in a conspicuous place a notice that discloses the moisture shrinkage factor prescribed by subsection 1, the handling shrinkage factor to be imposed, and the single factor that results from combining these factors. Failure to make the required disclosure is a simple misdemeanor. [81 Acts, ch 180, §31]

543.27 Discrimination.
Every warehouse operator conducting a warehouse licensed under this chapter shall receive for storage therein, so far as its authorized storage capacity permits, any product of the kind the operator is permitted by the operator's license to store, and which may be tendered to the operator in a suitable condition for warehousing, in the usual manner and in the ordinary and usual course of business, without making any discrimination between persons desiring to avail themselves of warehouse facilities. [C24, 27, 31, §9729; C35, §9751.11; C39, §9751.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §543.27]

543.28 Tariff rates.
A warehouse operator shall, at the time of application for a license, file a tariff with the department which shall contain rates to be charged for receiving, storage, and load-out of grain. The tariff shall be posted on the business premises in a conspicuous place notice of the rate of adjustment to be imposed, and the single factor that results from combining these factors. Failure to make the required disclosure is a simple misdemeanor.

A warehouse operator shall become effective at the time the license becomes effective. Storage charges shall commence on the date of delivery to the warehouse. Storage, receiving, or load-out charges other than those specified in the tariff may only be made if the charge is required by the terms of a written contract with the United States government or any of its subdivisions or agencies.

Grain deposited with the warehouse for the sole purpose of processing and redelivery to the depositor is subject only to the charges listed under the grain bank section of the tariff. Drying and cleaning of grain shall not be construed as processing.

A tariff may be amended at any time and is effective immediately, except that grain in store on the effective date of a storage charge increase does not assume the increased rate until the subsequent anniversary date of deposit. Any decrease in storage rates shall be effective immediately and shall be applicable to all grain in store on the effective date of the decrease.

A warehouse operator may file with the department and publish the supplemental tariff applicable only to grain meeting special descriptive standards or characteristics as set forth in the supplemental tariff. A supplemental tariff shall be in a form prescribed by the department and be posted adjacent to the warehouse tariff.
All tariff charges shall be nondiscriminatory within classes
[C24, 27, 31, §9737, C35, §9751 g18, C39, §9751.18; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §543.28]
86 Acts, ch 1103, §2

543.29 Repealed by 61GA, ch 413, §10102

543.30 Inspecting and grading.
Grain, flaxseed, or any other fungible agricultural product stored in a warehouse licensed under this chapter for which no separate compartment is provided, and its identity preserved, shall be inspected and graded

543.31 and 543.32 Repealed by 62GA, ch 387, §2, 3

543.33 Fees.
The department shall charge the following fees for deposit in the general fund
1 For the issuance or renewal of a warehouse license, the fee shall be determined on the basis of the storage capacity in bushels of grain as follows a If the total storage capacity is one hundred thousand bushels or less, the fee is thirty-five dollars
   b If the total storage capacity is more than one hundred thousand bushels, but not more than seven hundred fifty thousand bushels, the fee is seventy-five dollars
   c If the total storage capacity is more than seven hundred fifty thousand bushels, but not more than one million five hundred thousand bushels, the fee is one hundred fifteen dollars
   d If the total storage capacity is more than one million five hundred thousand bushels, but not more than three million bushels, the fee is one hundred fifty dollars
   e If the total storage capacity is more than three million bushels, but not more than four million seven hundred fifty thousand bushels, the fee is one hundred eighty-five dollars
   f If the total storage capacity is more than four million seven hundred fifty thousand bushels, but not more than nine million five hundred thousand bushels, the fee is two hundred twenty-five dollars
   g If the total storage capacity is more than nine million five hundred thousand bushels, but not more than one million five hundred thousand bushels, the fee is two hundred sixty-five dollars

2 For the issuance or renewal of a warehouse license for the storage of products other than bulk grain, the fee shall be determined as follows a For intended storage of products of a value of one hundred thousand dollars or less, a fee of sixty dollars
   b For intended storage of products of a value greater than one hundred thousand dollars but not greater than three hundred thousand dollars, a fee of one hundred dollars
   c For intended storage of products of a value in excess of three hundred thousand dollars, a fee of two hundred dollars

For each inspection of a warehouse or station for the purpose of licensing, a fee of twenty-five dollars, and for each additional warehouse or station under the same license, a fee of ten dollars

3 For each amendment of a license, a fee of ten dollars
4 For each amendment of a tariff, a fee of ten dollars
5 For a duplicate license, a fee of five dollars
6 For the reinstatement of a license, a fee of fifty dollars

New licenses issued for less than a year shall be prorated from the date of application
[C24, 27, 31, §9726, C35, §9751 g9, C39, §9751.10; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §543.34]
86 Acts, ch 1152, §29

543.35 Licensed warehouse operator to keep records.
Every licensed warehouse operator operating a licensed warehouse shall keep in a place of safety complete and correct records of the storage and withdrawal of all agricultural products handled in each warehouse which the warehouse operator is licensed to operate, and complete records of all original and duplicate receipts issued by, returned to and canceled by the warehouse operator, which records shall be available for the six previous years for inspection by the department

543.36 Penalties — injunction.
1 A person who knowingly withholds information from or knowingly submits false information to the department or any of its employees in a document or a book, account, or record required to be submitted or maintained under this chapter commits a fraudulent practice
2 A person who engages in business as a warehouse operator without obtaining a license, or who refuses to permit inspection of licensed premises, or books, accounts, records or other documents required by this chapter, or who uses a scale ticket, warehouse receipt or other document which fails to satisfy requirements established by the department commits a serious misdemeanor, except that a person who commits any of these offenses after having been found guilty of the same offense commits an aggravated misdemeanor
3 Except as provided in subsections 1 and 2, a person who violates any provision of this chapter commits a simple misdemeanor
4 A violation of this chapter, or a violation of chapter 714 or 715 involving the business of a warehouse operator, may be restrained by injunction in an action brought by the department
§543.37 Failure to pay fee.
Failure to pay the annual fee provided for in section 543.33 on or before June 30 of the year for which due shall cause a license to terminate. A warehouse license which has terminated may be reinstated by the department upon receipt of a proper renewal application, the renewal fee, and the reinstatement fee as provided for in section 543.33, if filed within thirty days from the date of termination of the warehouse license. The department may cancel the license upon request of the licensee unless a complaint or information is filed against the licensee alleging a violation of a provision of this chapter.

GRAIN DEPOSITORS AND SELLERS INDEMNIFICATION

543A 1 Definitions
543A 2 Persons participating in fund
543A 3 Grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund
543A 4 Indemnity fund board
543A 5 Adjustments to fee
543A 6 Claims against fund
543A 7 No obligation of state

543A.1 Definitions.
1. “Board” means the Iowa grain indemnity fund board created in section 543A 4.
2. “Department” means the department of agriculture and land stewardship.
3. “Depositor” means a person who deposits grain in a warehouse for storage, handling, or shipment, or who is the owner or legal holder of an outstanding warehouse receipt, or who is lawfully entitled to possession of the grain.
4. “Fund” means the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund created in section 543A 3.
5. “Grain” means wheat, corn, oats, barley, rye, flaxseed, field peas, soybeans, grain sorghums, spelt, and similar agricultural products, as defined in the Grain Standards Act, but does not include agricultural products other than bulk grain.
6. “Grain bank” means grain which is deposited in a warehouse until removed for the personal use of the depositor.
7. “Grain sold” means grain which crosses the scales of a grain dealer or warehouse operator other than for grain bank storage, and other grain purchased by a grain dealer. “Grain sold” includes the pledge or other encumbrance of grain as security for a loan extended under a federal price support loan program. The date of sale of grain which is security for a loan extended under a federal price support loan program is the date the grain is delivered to the warehouse operator. The purchase price of the grain is the principal amount of the loan extended and the purchase invoice for the grain is the documentation required for extension of the loan.
8. “Licensed grain dealer” means a person who has obtained a license to engage in the business of a grain dealer pursuant to section 542 3.
9. “Licensed warehouse operator” means the same as in section 543 1.
10. “Loss” means the amount of a claim held by a seller or depositor against a grain dealer or warehouse operator which has not been recovered through other legal and equitable remedies including the liquidation of assets.
11. “Seller” means a person who sells grain which the person has produced or caused to be produced to a licensed grain dealer, and includes a person who executes a credit sale contract as a seller.
86 Acts, ch 1152, §31

543A.2 Persons participating in fund.
All licensed grain dealers and licensed warehouse operators shall participate in the fund. In addition, a grain warehouse licensed under the United States Warehouse Act, 7 U S C 241, may participate in the...

fund and be subject to this chapter if a cooperative agreement exists both between the federal agency and the department and between the federal licensee and the department. The agreement between the department and the federal licensee shall be ratified each year the federal licensee elects to participate in the fund. A participating federally licensed grain warehouse shall meet the minimum net worth requirements of section 543A.5.

86 Acts, ch 1152, §32

543A.3 Grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund.

1. The grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund is created in the state treasury. The general fund of the state is not liable for claims presented against the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund under section 543A.6. The fund consists of a per-bushel fee on grain sold remitted by licensed grain dealers, licensed warehouse operators, and participating federally licensed grain warehouses; an annual fee charged to and remitted by licensed grain dealers, licensed warehouse operators, and participating federally licensed grain warehouses; sums collected by the department by legal action on behalf of the fund; and interest, property, or securities acquired through the use of moneys in the fund. The moneys collected under this section and deposited in the fund shall be used exclusively to indemnify depositors and sellers as provided in section 543A.6 and to pay the administrative costs of this chapter.

2. The grain dealer, warehouse operator, or participating federally licensed warehouse shall forward the per-bushel fee to the department in the manner and using the forms prescribed by the department. If the per-bushel fee has not been forwarded to the department by the date required by the department, the grain dealer, warehouse operator, or participating federally licensed warehouse is subject to an interest penalty for each day the grain dealer, warehouse operator, or participating federally licensed warehouse fails to forward the fee. Interest shall be simple interest, and shall be the maximum lawful rate of interest for the month the payment was due. If the per-bushel fee has not been forwarded to the department within thirty days after the payment was due, the grain dealer's or warehouse operator's license or the participating warehouse operator's cooperative agreement shall be suspended. The per-bushel fee shall be collected only once on each bushel of grain.

3. a. All licensed grain dealers, licensed warehouse operators, and participating federally licensed grain warehouses shall annually remit a fee to be deposited into the fund which is determined as follows:

(1) For class 1 grain dealers, five hundred dollars.

(2) For class 2 grain dealers, two hundred fifty dollars.

(3) For warehouse operators or participating federally licensed grain warehouses:

(a) For intended storage of bulk grain in any quantity less than twenty thousand bushels, forty-two dollars or fraction thereof in excess of twenty thousand bushels.

(b) For intended storage of bulk grain in any quantity not less than twenty thousand bushels and not more than fifty thousand bushels, seventy dollars or fraction thereof in excess of twenty thousand bushels.

(c) For intended storage of bulk grain in any quantity not less than fifty thousand bushels and not more than seventy thousand bushels, one hundred fifteen dollars plus four and a half dollars for each three thousand bushels or fraction thereof in excess of twenty thousand bushels.

(d) For intended storage of bulk grain in any quantity not less than seventy thousand bushels, one hundred thirty-seven and a half dollars plus two and three-quarters dollars for each five thousand bushels or fraction thereof in excess of seventy thousand bushels.

b. Payment of the required amount shall be made before the grain dealer's or warehouse operator's license is renewed, or before the participating federal licensee's agreement with the department is ratified.

4. A person who applies for a grain dealer's or warehouse operator's license or a federal licensee who elects to participate in the fund who has not previously paid the full fee required by subsection 3, shall pay that amount before the license is issued or the agreement is ratified.

5. All disbursements from the fund shall be paid by the treasurer of state pursuant to vouchers authorized by the department.

6. The administrative costs of this chapter shall be paid from the fund after approval of the costs by the board.

86 Acts, ch 1152, §33

See 86 Acts, ch 1246, §501(3) for permitted uses of interest.

543A.4 Indemnity fund board.

The Iowa grain indemnity fund board is established to advise the department on matters relating to the fund and to perform the duties provided in this chapter. The board is composed of the secretary of the department of agriculture or a designee who shall serve as president; the commissioner of insurance or a designee who shall serve as secretary; the state treasurer or a designee who shall serve as treasurer; and two representatives of the grain industry appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate, one of whom shall be a representative of grain dealers and sellers and one of whom shall be a representative of grain dealers and warehouse operators, each of whom shall be selected from a list of three nominations made by the secretary of agriculture. The term of membership of the grain industry representatives is three years, and the representatives are eligible for reappointment. The grain industry representatives are entitled to forty dollars per diem for each day spent in the performance of the duties of the board, plus actual expenses incurred in the performance of those duties. Three members of the board constitute a quorum, and the affirmative vote of three members is necessary for any action taken by the board, except that a lesser number may adjourn a meeting. A vacancy in the membership of the board does not impair the rights of a quorum to exercise all the rights and perform all the duties of the board.

1. The board shall review annually the debits of and credits to the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund created in section 543A.3 and shall make any adjustments in the per-bushel fee required under section 543A.3, subsection 2, and the dealer-warehouse fee required under section 543A.3, subsection 3 that are necessary to maintain the fund within the limits established under this section. Not later than the first day of May of each year, the board shall determine the proposed amount of the per-bushel fee based on the expected volume of grain on which the fee is to be collected and that is likely to be handled under this chapter. The per-bushel fee and the dealer-warehouse fee shall be adjusted on a pro rata basis. The board shall make any changes in the previous year’s fees in accordance with chapter 17A. Changes in the fees shall become effective on the following first day of July. The per-bushel fee shall not exceed one-quarter cent per bushel on all grains on which the fee is to be paid. Until the per-bushel fee is adjusted or waived as provided in this section, the per-bushel fee is one-quarter cent on all other grains on which the fee is paid.

2. If, at the end of any fiscal year, the assets of the fund exceed six million dollars, less any encumbered balances or pending or unsettled claims, the per-bushel fee required under section 543A.3, subsection 2, and the dealer-warehouse fee required under section 543A.3, subsection 3, shall be waived until the board reinstates the fees on a pro rata basis. The board shall reinstate the fee if the assets of the fund, less any unencumbered balances or pending or unsettled claims, are three million dollars or less.

1. When a depositor or seller has made a demand for settlement of an obligation concerning grain on which a fee was required to be remitted under section 543A.3 and the licensed grain dealer or licensed warehouse operator has failed to honor the demand, the depositor or seller, after providing the department with evidence of the demand and the dishonoring of the demand, may file a claim with the department for indemnification of damages from the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund to be measured as follows:

a. The board shall establish the dollar value of the loss incurred by a depositor holding a warehouse receipt or a scale weight ticket for grain that the depositor delivered to the licensed warehouse operator, and by a seller who has delivered grain sold on a credit-sale contract to a licensed grain dealer. The value shall be based on the average fair market price being paid to producers by the three licensed grain dealers nearest the warehouse operator or grain dealer for the grain on the earlier of the date of license suspension or the date on which the department received notice that the receipt, scale weight ticket, or credit-sale contract was dishonored by the licensed warehouse operator or licensed grain dealer. All depositors filing claims under this section shall be bound by the value determined by the board.

b. The dollar value of the loss incurred by a seller who has sold grain or delivered grain for sale or exchange and who is a creditor of the licensed grain dealer for all or part of the value of the grain shall be based on the amount stated on the obligation on the date of the sale.

2. The grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund is liable to a depositor or seller for a claim which arises on or after May 15, 1986, for ninety percent of the loss, as determined under subsection 1, but not more than one hundred fifty thousand dollars per claimant. The aggregate amount recovered by a depositor or seller under all remedies shall not exceed ninety percent of the value of the loss. If the moneys recovered by a depositor or seller under all remedies exceed ninety percent of the value of the loss, the depositor or seller shall reimburse the fund in the amount that exceeds ninety percent of the value of the loss.

3. The board shall determine the validity of all claims presented against the fund. A claim filed under this section for losses on grain other than grain stored in a warehouse operated by a licensed warehouse operator is not valid unless the seller has made a demand for settlement of the obligation within twelve months after the grain is priced or delivered for sale, whichever occurs later except that if the notice provided in section 542.12 has been given, the seller must make the demand for settlement of the obligation within one hundred twenty-day period. A depositor or seller whose claim has been refused by the board may appeal the refusal to the district court of Polk county or the district court of the county in which the depositor or seller resides. The department shall provide for payment from the fund to a depositor or seller whose claim has been found to be valid.

4. If at any time the fund does not contain sufficient assets to pay valid claims, the department shall hold those claims for payment until the fund again contains sufficient assets. Claims against the fund shall be paid in the order in which they are found to be valid. However, no claims shall be paid before the fund initially reaches one million dollars.

5. If a depositor or seller files an action for legal or equitable remedies in a state or federal court having jurisdiction in those matters that includes a claim against grain upon which the depositor or seller may file a claim against the fund at a later date, the depositor or seller shall also file with the department a copy of the action filed with the court. In the event of payment of a loss under this section, the department shall be subrogated to the extent of the amount of any payments to all rights, powers, privileges, and remedies of the depositor or seller against any person regarding the loss. The depositor or seller shall render all necessary assistance to aid the department in securing the rights granted in this section. No action or claim initiated by a depositor or seller and pending at the time of payment from the fund shall be compromised or settled without the consent of the department.

For liability limitations on indemnity fund see 86 Acts, ch 1152, §39

§543A.7 No obligation of state.

This chapter does not imply any guarantee or obligation on the part of the state of Iowa, or any of its agencies, employees, or officials, either elective or appointive, in respect of any agreement or undertaking to which this chapter relates.

86 Acts, ch 1152, §37
CHAPTER 544

UNIFORM PARTNERSHIP LAW

544.1 Short title.
This chapter may be cited as the “Uniform Partnership Act”
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544 1]

544.2 Definitions.
As used in this chapter the terms 1 “Court” includes every court and judge having jurisdiction in the case 2 “Business” includes every trade, occupation, or profession
3 “Person” includes individuals, partnerships, corporations, and other associations, trusts, trustees and other fiduciaries
4 “Bankrupt” includes bankrupt under the Federal Bankruptcy Act or insolvent under any state insolvent Act 5 “Conveyance” includes every assignment, lease, mortgage, or encumbrance
6 “Real property” includes land and any interest or estate in land
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544 2]

544.3 Interpretation of knowledge and notice.
1 A person has “knowledge” of a fact within the meaning of this chapter not only when the person has actual knowledge thereof, but also when the person has knowledge of such other facts as in the circum stances shows bad faith
2 A person has “notice” of a fact within the mean ing of this chapter when the person who claims the benefit of the notice a States the fact to the person, or b Delivers through the mail, or by other means of communication, a written statement of the fact to such person or to a proper person at the person’s place of business or residence
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544 3]

544.4 Rules of construction.
1 The rule that statutes in derogation of the com mon law are to be strictly construed shall have no application to this chapter 2 The law of estoppel shall apply under this chap ter
3 The law of agency shall apply under this chap ter
4 This chapter shall be so interpreted and construed as to effect its general purpose to make uni form the law of those states which enact it
5. This chapter shall not be construed so as to impair the obligations of any contract existing on July 1, 1971, nor to affect any action or proceedings begun or right accrued before that date.

544.5 Rules for cases not provided for in this chapter.

In any case not provided for in this chapter the rules of law and equity, including the law merchant, shall govern.

544.6 Partnership defined.

1. A partnership is an association of two or more persons to carry on a business for profit.

2. But any association formed under any other statute of this state, or any statute adopted by authority, other than the authority of this state, is not a partnership under this chapter, unless the association would have been a partnership in this state prior to the adoption of this chapter, but this chapter shall apply to limited partnerships except as far as the statutes relating to such partnerships are inconsistent here with.

544.7 Rules for determining the existence of a partnership.

In determining whether a partnership exists, these rules shall apply:

1. Except as provided by section 544 16, persons who are not partners as to each other are not partners as to third persons.

2. Joint tenancy, tenancy in common, tenancy by the entirety, joint property, common property, or part ownership does not of itself establish a partnership, whether such co-owners do or do not share any profits made by the use of the property.

3. The sharing of gross returns does not of itself establish a partnership, whether or not the persons sharing them have a joint or common right or interest in any property from which the returns are derived.

4. The receipt by a person of a share of the profits of a business is prima-facie evidence that the person is a partner in the business, but no such inference shall be drawn if such profits were received in payment of:

a. As a debt by installments or otherwise;

b. As wages of an employee or rent to a landlord;

c. As an annuity to a widow or representative of a deceased partner;

d. As interest on a loan, though the amount of payment vary with the profits of the business;

e. As the consideration for the sale of a good will of a business or other property by installments or otherwise.

544.8 Partnership property.

1. All property originally brought into the partnership stock or subsequently acquired by purchase or otherwise, on account of the partnership, is partnership property.

2. Unless the contrary intention appears, property acquired with partnership funds is partnership property.

3. Any estate in real property may be acquired in the partnership name. Title so acquired can be conveyed only in the partnership name.

4. A conveyance to a partnership in the partnership name, though without words of inheritance, passes the entire estate of the grantor unless a contrary intent appears.

544.9 Partner agent of partnership as to partnership business.

1. Every partner is an agent of the partnership for the purpose of its business, and the act of every partner, including the execution in the partnership name of any instrument, for apparently carrying on in the usual way the business of the partnership of which the partner is a member binds the partnership, unless the partner so acting has in fact no authority to act for the partnership in the particular matter, and the person with whom the partner is dealing has knowledge of the fact that the partner has no such authority.

2. An act of a partner which is not apparently for the carrying on of the business of the partnership in the usual way does not bind the partnership unless authorized by the other partners.

3. Unless authorized by the other partners or unless they have abandoned the business, one or more but less than all the partners have no authority to:

a. Assign the partnership property in trust for creditors or on the assignee's promise to pay the debts of the partnership;

b. Dispose of the good will of the business;

c. Do any other act which would make it impossible to carry on the ordinary business of a partnership;

d. Confess a judgment;

e. Submit a partnership claim or liability to arbitration or reference.

4. No act of a partner in contravention of a restriction on authority shall bind the partnership to persons having knowledge of the restriction.

544.10 Conveyance of real property of the partnership.

1. Where title to real property is in the partnership name, any partner may convey title to the property by a conveyance executed in the partnership name, but the partnership may recover such property unless the partner's act binds the partnership under the provisions of section 544 9, subsection 1, or unless the property has been conveyed by the grantee or a person claiming through the grantee to a holder for value without knowledge that the partner, in making the conveyance, has exceeded the partner's authority.

2. Where title to real property is in the name of the partnership, a conveyance executed by a partner, in the partner's own name, passes the equitable interest of the partnership, provided the act is within the authority of the partner under the provisions of section 544 9, subsection 1.

3. Where title to real property is in the name of one or more but not all the partners, and the record does not disclose the right of the partnership, the partners in whose name the title stands may convey title to the property, but the partnership may recover the property if the partners' act does not bind the partnership under the provisions of section 544 9, subsection 1, unless the purchaser or the purchaser's assignee, is a holder for value, without knowledge.

4 Where the title to real property is in the name of one or more or all the partners, or in a third person in trust for the partnership, a conveyance executed by a partner in the partnership name, or in the partner's own name, passes the equitable interest of the partnership, provided the act is one within the authority of the partner under the provisions of section 544.9, subsection 1

5 Where the title to real property is in the names of all the partners a conveyance executed by all the partners passes all their rights in the property [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.10]

544.11 Partnership bound by admission of partner.
An admission or representation made by any partner concerning partnership affairs within the scope of the partner's authority as conferred by this chapter is evidence against the partnership [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.11]

544.12 Partnership charged with knowledge of or notice to partner.
Notice to any partner of any matter relating to partnership affairs, and the knowledge of the partner acting in the particular matter, acquired while a partner or then present to the partner's mind, and the knowledge of any other partner who reasonably could and should have communicated it to the acting partner, operates as notice to or knowledge of the partnership, except in the case of a fraud on the partnership committed by or with the consent of that partner [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.12]

544.13 Partnership bound by partner's wrongful act.
Where, by any wrongful act or omission of any partner acting in the ordinary course of the business of the partnership or with the authority of the copartners, loss or injury is caused to any person, not being a partner in the partnership, or any penalty is incurred, the partnership is liable therefor to the same extent as the partner so acting or omitting to act [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.13]

544.14 Partnership bound by partner's breach of trust.
The partnership is bound to make good the loss
1 Where one partner acting within the scope of apparent authority receives money or property of a third person and misapplies it
2 Where the partnership in the course of its business receives money or property of a third person and the money or property so received is misapplied by any partner while it is in the custody of the partnership [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.14]

544.15 Nature of partner's liability.
All partners are liable
1 Jointly and severally for everything chargeable to the partnership under sections 544.13 and 544.14
2 Jointly for all other debts and obligations of the partnership, but any partner may enter into a separate obligation to perform a partnership contract [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.15]

544.16 Partner by estoppel.
1 When a person, by words spoken or written or by conduct, represents that person, or consents to any other representing that person to anyone, as a partner in an existing partnership or with one or more persons not actual partners, the person is liable to any person to whom the representation has been made, who has, on the faith of the representation, given credit to the actual or apparent partnership, and if the person has made a representation or consented to its being made in a public manner that person is liable to the person, whether the representation has or has not been made or communicated to the person so giving credit or with the knowledge of the apparent partner making the representation or consenting to its being made a When a partnership liability results, the person is liable as though the person were an actual member of the partnership
b When no partnership liability results, the person is liable jointly with the other persons, if any, so consenting to the contract or representation as to incur liability, otherwise separately
2 When a partnership has been thus represented to be a partner in an existing partnership, or with one or more persons not actual partners, the person is an agent of the persons consenting to the representation to bind them to the same extent and in the same manner as though the person were a partner in fact, with respect to persons who rely upon the representation Where all the members of the existing partnership consent to the representation, a partnership act or obligation results, but in all other cases it is the joint act or obligation of the person acting and the persons consenting to the representation [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.16]

544.17 Liability of incoming partner.
A person admitted as a partner into an existing partnership is liable for all the obligations of the partnership arising before the person's admission as though the person had been a partner when such obligations were incurred, except that this liability shall be satisfied only out of partnership property [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.17]

544.18 Rules determining rights and duties of partners.
The rights and duties of the partners in relation to the partnership shall be determined, subject to any agreement between them, by the following rules
1 Each partner shall be repaid the partner's contributions, whether by way of capital or advances to the partnership property and share equally in the profits and surplus remaining after all liabilities, including those to partners, are satisfied, and must contribute towards the losses, whether of capital or otherwise, sustained by the partnership according to the partner's share in the profits
2 The partnership must indemnify every partner in respect of payments made and personal liabilities reasonably incurred by the partner in the ordinary and proper conduct of its business, or for the preservation of its business or property
3 A partner, who in aid of the partnership makes any payment or advance beyond the amount of capital which the partner agreed to contribute, shall be paid interest from the date of the payment or advance
4 A partner shall receive interest on the capital contributed by the partner only from the date when repayment should be made
5 All partners have equal rights in the management and conduct of the partnership business

6 No partner is entitled to remuneration for acting in the partnership business, except that a surviving partner is entitled to reasonable compensation for the partner's services in winding up the partnership affairs

7 No person can become a member of a partnership without the consent of all the partners

8 Any difference arising as to ordinary matters connected with the partnership business may be decided by a majority of the partners, but no act in contravention of any agreement between the partners may be done rightfully without the consent of all the partners

544.19 Partnership books.
The partnership books shall be kept, subject to any agreement between the partners, at the principal place of business of the partnership, and every partner shall at all times have access to and may inspect and copy any of them

544.20 Duty of partners to render information.
Partners shall render on demand true and full information of all things affecting the partnership to any partner or the legal representative of any deceased partner or partner under legal disability

544.21 Partner accountable as a fiduciary.
1 Every partner must account to the partnership for any benefit, and hold as trustee for it any profits derived by the partner without the consent of the other partners from any transaction connected with the formation, conduct, liquidation of the partnership or use of its property

2 This section also applies to the representatives of a deceased partner engaged in the liquidation of the affairs of the partnership as the personal representatives of the last surviving partner

544.22 Right to an account.
Any partner shall have the right to a formal account as to partnership affairs
1 If the partner is wrongfully excluded from the partnership business or possession of its property by the copartners
2 If the right exists under the terms of any agreement
3 As provided by section 544 21
4 Whenever other circumstances render it just and reasonable

544.23 Continuation of partnership beyond fixed term.
1 When a partnership for a fixed term or particular undertaking is continued after the termination of such term or particular undertaking, without any express agreement, the rights and duties of the partners remain the same as they were at such termination, so far as is consistent with a partnership at will
2 A continuation of the business by the partners or such of them as habitually acted therein during the term, without any settlement or liquidation of the partnership affairs, is prima-facie evidence of a continuation of the partnership

544.24 Extent of property rights of a partner.
The property rights of a partner are 1 The partner's rights in specific partnership property
2 The partner's interest in the partnership
3 The partner's right to participate in the management

544.25 Nature of a partner's right in specific partnership property.
1 A partner is co-owner with the other partners of specific partnership property holding as a tenant in partnership

2 The incidents of this tenancy are such that a A partner, subject to the provisions of this chapter and to any agreement between the partners, has an equal right with the other partners to possess specific partnership property for partnership purposes, but the partner has no right to possess the property for any other purpose without the consent of the other partners
b A partner's right in specific partnership property is not assignable except in connection with the assignment of rights of all the partners in the same property
c A partner's right in specific partnership property is not subject to attachment or execution, except on a claim against the partnership When partnership property is attached for a partnership debt the partners, or any of them, or the representatives of a deceased partner, cannot claim any right under the homestead or exemption laws
d On the death of a partner the deceased partner's right in specific partnership property vests in the surviving partner or partners, except where the deceased was the last surviving partner, when the deceased partner's rights in the property vest in the deceased partner's legal representative Such surviving partner or partners, or the legal representative of the last surviving partner, has no right to possess the partnership property for any but a partnership purpose
e A partner's right in specific partnership property is not subject to dower, curtesy, or allowances to surviving spouses, heirs, or next of kin

544.26 Nature of partner's interest in the partnership.
A partner's interest in the partnership is the partner's share of the profits and surplus, and the same is personal property

544.27 Assignment of a partner's interest.
1 A conveyance by a partner of the partner's interest in the partnership does not of itself dissolve the partnership, nor as against the other partners in the absence of agreement, entitle the assignee, during the continuance of the partnership, to interfere in the management or administration of the partnership business or affairs, or to require any information or account of partnership transactions, or to inspect the partnership books, but it merely entitles the assignee to receive in accordance with the assignee's contract the profits to which the assigning partner would otherwise be entitled

2. In case of a dissolution of the partnership, the assignee is entitled to receive the assignee's interest and may require an account from the date only of the last account agreed to by all the partners.

[§544.28 Partner's interest subject to charging order.]

1. On due application to a competent court by any judgment creditor of a partner, the court which entered the judgment, order, or decree, or any other court, may charge the interest of the debtor partner in respect of the partnership, and make all other orders, directions, accounts and inquiries which the debtor partner might have made, or which the circumstances of the case may require.

2. The interest charged may be redeemed at any time before foreclosure, or in case of a sale being directed by the court may be purchased without thereby causing a dissolution:

a. With separate property, by any one or more of the partners, or

b. With partnership property, by any one or more of the partners with the consent of all the partners whose interests are not so charged or sold.

3. Nothing in this chapter shall be held to deprive a partner of the partner's right, if any, under the exemption laws, as regards the partner's interest in the partnership.

[§544.29 Dissolution defined.]

The dissolution of a partnership is the change in the relation of the partners caused by any partner ceasing to be associated in the carrying on as distinguished from the winding up of the business.

[§544.30 Partnership not terminated by dissolution.]

On dissolution the partnership is not terminated, but continues until the winding up of partnership affairs is completed.

[§544.31 Causes of dissolution.]

Dissolution is caused:

1. Without violation of the agreement between the partners:

a. By the termination of the definite term or particular undertaking specified in the agreement,

b. By the express will of any partner when no definite term or particular undertaking is specified,

c. By the express will of all the partners who have not assigned their interests or suffered them to be charged for their separate debts, either before or after the termination of any specified term or particular undertaking.

d. By the expulsion of any partner from the business bona fide in accordance with such a power conferred by the agreement between the partners,

2. In contravention of the agreement between the partners, where the circumstances do not permit a dissolution under any other provision of this section, by the express will of any partner at any time.

3. By any event which makes it unlawful for the business of the partnership to be carried on or for the members to carry it on in partnership.

4. By the death of any partner, unless the partnership agreement provides otherwise.

5. By the bankruptcy of any partner or the partnership.

6. By decree of court under section 544.32.

[§544.32 Dissolution by decree of court.]

The court shall decree a dissolution:

1. On application by or for a partner whenever:

a. A partner has been declared a mentally ill person in any judicial proceeding, or is shown to be of unsound mind,

b. A partner becomes in any other way incapable of performing that partner's part of the partnership contract.

c. A partner has been guilty of conduct as tends to affect prejudicially the carrying on of the business,

d. A partner willfully or persistently commits a breach of the partnership or agreement, or otherwise so behaves in matters relating to the partnership business that it is not reasonably practicable to carry on the business in partnership with that partner,

e. The business of the partnership can only be carried on at a loss,

f. Other circumstances render a dissolution equitable.

2. On application of the purchaser of a partner's interest under section 544.27 or 544.28:

a. After the termination of the specified term or particular undertaking,

b. At any time if the partnership was a partnership at will when the interest was assigned or when the charging order was issued.

[§544.33 General effect of dissolution on authority of partner.]

Except so far as may be necessary to wind up partnership affairs or to complete transactions begun but not then finished, dissolution terminates all authority of any partner to act for the partnership:

1. With respect to the partners,

a. When the dissolution is not by the act, bankruptcy or death of a partner, or

b. When the dissolution is by such act, bankruptcy or death of a partner, in cases where section 544.34 so requires.

2. With respect to persons not partners, as declared in section 544.35.

Where the dissolution is caused by the act, death or bankruptcy of a partner, each partner is liable to that §544.34 422

partner's copartners for that partner's share of any liability created by any partner acting for the partner ship as if the partnership had not been dissolved unless

1. The dissolution being by act of any partner, the partner acting for the partnership had knowledge of the dissolution, or
2. The dissolution being by the death or bankruptcy of a partner, the partner acting for the partnership had knowledge or notice of the death or bankruptcy.

544.35 Power of partner to bind partnership to third persons after dissolution.

1. After dissolution a partner can bind the partnership except as provided in subsection 3
   a. By any act appropriate for winding up partnership affairs or completing transactions unfinished at dissolution
   b. By any transaction which would bind the partnership if dissolution had not taken place, provided the other party to the transaction
      (1) Had extended credit to the partnership prior to dissolution and had no knowledge or notice of the dissolution, or
      (2) Though the other party had not so extended credit, had nevertheless known of the partnership prior to dissolution, and, having no knowledge or notice of dissolution, the fact of dissolution had not been advertised in a newspaper of general circulation in the place (or in each place if more than one) at which the partnership business was regularly carried on.
2. The liability of a partner under subsection 1, paragraph "b" of this section shall be satisfied out of partnership assets alone when such partner had been prior to dissolution
   a. Unknown as a partner to the person with whom the contract is made, and
   b. So far unknown and inactive in partnership affairs that the business reputation of the partnership could not be said to have been in any degree due to the partner's connection with it.
3. The partnership is in no case bound by any act of a partner after dissolution
   a. Where the partnership is dissolved because it is unlawful to carry on the business, unless the act is appropriate for winding up partnership affairs, or
   b. Where the partner has become bankrupt, or
   c. Where the partner has no authority to wind up partnership affairs, except by a transaction with one who
      (1) Had extended credit to the partnership prior to dissolution and had no knowledge or notice of the partner's want of authority, or
      (2) Had not extended credit to the partnership prior to dissolution, and, having no knowledge or notice of the partner's want of authority, the fact of the partner's want of authority has not been advertised in the manner provided for advertising the fact of dissolution in subsection 1, paragraph "b".
4. Nothing in this section shall affect the liability under section 544.16 of any person who after dissolution represents that person or consents to another representing that person as a partner in a partnership engaged in carrying on business.

544.36 Effect of dissolution on partner's existing liability.

1. The dissolution of the partnership does not of itself discharge the existing liability of any partner.
2. A partner is discharged from any existing liability upon dissolution of the partnership by an agreement to that effect between the partner, the partnership creditor and the person or partnership continuing the business, and such agreement may be inferred from the course of dealing between the creditor having knowledge of the dissolution and the person or partnership continuing the business.
3. Where a person agrees to assume the existing obligations of a dissolved partnership, the partners whose obligations have been assumed shall be discharged from any liability to any creditor of the partnership who, knowing of the agreement, consents to a material alteration in the nature or time of payment of the obligations.
4. The individual property of a deceased partner shall be liable for all obligations of the partnership incurred while the deceased partner was a partner but subject to the prior payment of the deceased partner's separate debts.

544.37 Right to wind up.

Unless otherwise agreed the partners who have not wrongfully dissolved the partnership or the legal representative of the last surviving partner, not bankrupt, has the right to wind up the partnership affairs, provided, however, that any partner, the partner's legal representative or the partner's assignee, upon cause shown, may obtain winding up by the court.

544.38 Rights of partners to application of partnership property.

1. When dissolution is caused in any way, except in contravention of the partnership agreement, each partner, as against the copartners and all persons claiming through them in respect of their interests in the partnership, unless otherwise agreed, may have the partnership property applied to discharge its liabilities, and the surplus applied to pay in cash the net amount owing to the respective partners. But if dissolution is caused by expulsion of a partner, bona fide under the partnership agreement and if the expelled partner is discharged from all partnership liabilities, either by payment or agreement under section 544.36, subsection 2, the expelled partner shall receive in cash only the net amount due the expelled partner from the partnership.
2. When dissolution is caused in contravention of the partnership agreement the rights of the partners shall be as follows
   a. Each partner who has not caused dissolution wrongfully shall have
      (1) All the rights specified in subsection 1, and
      (2) The right, as against each partner who has caused the dissolution wrongfully, to damages for breach of the agreement.
   b. The partners who have not caused the dissolution wrongfully, if they all desire to continue the business in the same name, either by themselves or jointly with others, may do so, during the agreed term for the partnership and for that purpose may possess the partnership property, provided they secure the payment by bond approved by the court, or pay to any partner who has caused the dissolution wrongfully, the value of that partner's interest in the partnership at the dissolution, less any damages recoverable under subsection 2, paragraph "a", subparagraph (2) of this section, and in like manner indemnify that partner against all present or future partnership liabilities

2 A partner who has caused the dissolution wrongfully shall have

(1) If the business is not continued under the provisions of subsection 2, paragraph "b" of this section, all the rights of a partner under subsection 1 of this section, subject to subsection 2, paragraph "a", subparagraph (2)

(2) If the business is continued under subsection 2, paragraph "b", of this section the right as against the copartners and all claiming through them in respect of their interests in the partnership, to have the value of the partner's interest in the partnership, less any damages caused to the copartners by the dissolution, ascertained and paid to the partner in cash, or the payment secured by bond approved by the court, and to be released from all existing liabilities of the partnership, but in ascertaining the value of the partner's interest the value of the good will of the business shall not be considered.

544.39 Rights where partnership is dissolved for fraud or misrepresentation.

Where a partnership contract is rescinded on the ground of the fraud or misrepresentation of one of the parties thereto, the party entitled to rescind is, without prejudice to any other right, entitled

1 To a lien on, or a right of retention of, the surplus of the partnership property after satisfying the partnership liabilities to third persons for any sum of money paid by the party for the purchase of an interest in the partnership and for any capital or advances contributed by the party, and

2 To stand, after all liabilities to third persons have been satisfied, in the place of the creditors of the partnership for any payments made by the party in respect of the partnership liabilities, and

3 To be indemnified by the person guilty of the fraud or making the representation against all debts and liabilities of the partnership.

544.40 Rules for distribution.

In settling accounts between the partners after dissolution, the following rules shall be observed, subject to any agreement to the contrary

1 The assets of the partnership are a The partnership property,

b The contributions of the partners necessary for the payment of all the liabilities specified in subsection 2

2 The liabilities of the partnership shall rank in order of payment, as follows a Those owing to creditors other than partners, b Those owing to partners other than for capital and profits,

c Those owing to partners in respect of capital,

d Those owing to partners in respect of profits

3 The assets shall be applied in order of their declaration in subsection 1 of this section to the satisfaction of the liabilities.

4 The partners shall contribute, as provided by section 544.18, subsection 1, the amount necessary to satisfy the liabilities, but if any, but not all of the partners are insolvent, or, not being subject to process, refuse to contribute, the other partners shall contribute their share of the liabilities, and, in the relative proportions in which they share the profits, the additional amount necessary to pay the liabilities.

5 An assignee for the benefit of creditors or any person appointed by the court shall have the right to enforce the contributions specified in subsection 4.

6 Any partner or the partner's legal representative shall have the right to enforce the contributions specified in subsection 4, to the extent of the amount which the partner has paid in excess of the partner's share of the liability.

7 The individual property of a deceased partner shall be liable for the contributions specified in subsection 4.

8 When partnership property and the individual properties of the partners are in possession of a court for distribution, partnership creditors shall have priority on partnership property and separate creditors on individual property, saving the rights of lien or secured creditors as heretofore.

9 Where a partner has become bankrupt or the partner's estate is insolvent the claims against the partner's separate property shall rank in the following order a Those owing to separate creditors,

b Those owing to partnership creditors,

c Those owing to partners by way of contribution.

544.41 Liability of persons continuing the business in certain cases.

1 When any new partner is admitted into an existing partnership, or when any partner retires and assigns, or the representative of the deceased partner assigns the deceased partner's rights in partnership property to two or more of the partners, or to one or more of the partners and one or more third persons, if the business is continued without liquidation of the partnership affairs, creditors of the first or dissolved partnership are also creditors of the partnership so continuing the business.

2 When all but one partner retire and assign, or the representative of a deceased partner assigns their rights in partnership property to the remaining partner, who continues the business without liquidation of partnership affairs, either alone or with others, creditors of the dissolved partnership are also creditors of the person or partnership so continuing the business.

3 When any partner retires or dies and the business of the dissolved partnership is continued as set forth in subsections 1 and 2 of this section, with the consent of the retired partners or the representative of the deceased partner, but without any assignment of the partner's right in partnership property, rights of creditors of the dissolved partnership and of the creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business shall be as if such assignment had been made.
4 When all the partners or their representatives assign their rights in partnership property to one or more third persons who promise to pay the debts and who continue the business of the dissolved partnership, creditors of the dissolved partnership are also creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business.

5 When any partner wrongfully causes a dissolution and the remaining partners continue the business under the provisions of section 544.38, subsection 2, paragraph “b”, either alone or with others, and without liquidation of the partnership affairs, creditors of the dissolved partnership are also creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business.

6 When a partner is expelled and the remaining partners continue the business either alone or with others, without liquidation of the partnership affairs, creditors of the dissolved partnership are also creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business.

7 The liability of a third person becoming a partner in the partnership continuing the business, under this section, to the creditors of the dissolved partnership shall be satisfied out of partnership property only.

8 When the business of a partnership after dissolution is continued under any conditions set forth in this section the creditors of the dissolved partnership, against the separate creditors of the retiring or deceased partner or the representative of the deceased partner, have a prior right to any claim of the retiring or deceased partner or the representative of the deceased partner against the person or partnership continuing the business, on account of the retired or deceased partner's interest or on account of any consideration promised for such interest or for that partner's right in partnership property.

9 Nothing in this section shall be held to modify any right of creditors to set aside any assignment on the ground of fraud.

10 The use by the person or partnership continuing the business of the partnership name, or the name of a deceased partner as part thereof, shall not of itself make the individual property of the deceased partner liable for any debts contracted by the person or partnership.

544.42 Rights of retiring or estate of deceased partner when the business is continued.

When any partner retires or dies, and the business is continued under any of the conditions set forth in section 544.41, subsections 1, 2, 3, 5 and 6, section 544.38, subsection 2, paragraph “b”, without any settlement of accounts as between the partner or the partner's estate and the person or partnership continuing the business, unless otherwise agreed, the partner or the partner's legal representative as against such persons may have the value of the partner's interest at the date of dissolution ascertained, and shall receive as an ordinary creditor an amount equal to the value of the partner's interest in the dissolved partnership with interest, or, at the partner's option or at the option of the partner's legal representative, in lieu of interest, the profits attributable to the use of the partner's right in the property of the dissolved partnership, provided that the creditors of the dissolved partnership as against the separate creditors or the representative of the retired or deceased partner, shall have priority on any claim arising under this section, as provided by section 544.41, subsection 8.

544.43 Accrual of actions.

The right to an account of the partner's interest shall accrue to any partner, or the partner's legal representative, as against the winding up partners or the surviving partners or the person or partnership continuing the business, at the date of dissolution, in the absence of any agreement to the contrary.

7  "Limited partnership" and "domestic limited partnership" mean a partnership formed by two or more persons under the laws of this state and having one or more general partners and one or more limited partners
8  "Partner" means a limited or general partner
9  "Partnership agreement" means a valid agreement, written or oral, of the partners as to the affairs of a limited partnership and the conduct of its business "Partnership interest" means a partner's share of the profits and losses of a limited partnership and the right to receive distributions of partnership assets.

545.102 Name.
The name of each limited partnership as set forth in its certificate of limited partnership
1 Shall contain the words “limited partnership” or the abbreviation “L.P.”
2 Shall not contain the name of a limited partner unless either or both of the following apply a That name is also the name of a general partner or the corporate name of a corporate general partner.
   b The business of the limited partnership had been carried on under that name before admission of that limited partner.
3 Shall not contain any word or phrase indicating or implying that the limited partnership is organized other than for a purpose stated in its certificate of limited partnership.
4 Shall not be the same as or deceptively similar to the name of a corporation or limited partnership organized under the laws of this state or licensed or registered as a foreign corporation or foreign limited partnership in this state or a name the exclusive right to which is, at the time, reserved in the manner provided in this chapter, without the written consent of the corporation or limited partnership which consent shall be filed with the secretary of state and provided the name is not identical.
5 Shall not contain either the word “corporation” or the word “incorporated” or an abbreviation of either.

545.103 Reservation of name.
1 The exclusive right to the use of a name may be reserved by any of the following:
   a A person intending to organize a limited partnership under this chapter and to adopt that name.
   b A domestic limited partnership or a foreign limited partnership registered in this state which, in either case, intends to adopt that name.
   c A foreign limited partnership intending to register in this state and adopt that name.
   d A person intending to organize a foreign limited partnership and intending to have it register in this state and adopt that name.
2 The reservation shall be made by filing with the secretary of state an application to reserve a specified name. If the secretary of state finds that the name is available for use by a domestic or foreign limited partnership, the secretary shall reserve the name for the exclusive use of the applicant for a period of ninety days. The right to the exclusive use of a reserved name may be transferred to any other person by filing in the office of the secretary of state a notice of the transfer, executed by the applicant for whom the name was reserved and specifying the name and address of the transferee.

545.104 Specified office and agent — service of process.
1 A limited partnership shall continuously maintain in this state both of the following:
   a An office, which may, but need not be, a place of its business in this state. The records required to be maintained by section 545.105 shall be kept at the office.
   b An agent for service of process on the limited partnership. The agent shall be either an individual resident of this state, a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation authorized to do business in this state.
2 In addition to other statutory provisions relating to venue, an action may be brought against a limited partnership in the county where its office is maintained or, if a limited partnership fails to maintain an office in this state, then in any county within the state.
3 An agent for service of process may resign as agent upon filing and recording in accordance with section 545.206 a written notice of resignation, executed in duplicate, with the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall forthwith mail a copy of the resignation to the limited partnership at its principal place of business. The appointment of the agent terminates upon the expiration of thirty days after receipt of the notice by the secretary of state.
4 If a limited partnership fails to appoint or maintain an agent for service of process or if its agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the address of the agent recorded with the secretary of state, then the secretary of state is an agent of the limited partnership upon whom any process, notice, or demand may be served. Service may be made by delivering to the secretary of state duplicate copies of the process, notice, or demand. If the process, notice, or demand is served on the secretary of state, the secretary of state shall immediately cause one of the copies to be forwarded by certified mail, addressed to the limited partnership at its principal place of business. A limited partnership served in accordance with this subsection is not in default until thirty days have elapsed following the service on the secretary of state.

The secretary of state shall keep a record of all processes, notices, and demands served upon the secretary of state under this subsection, and shall record the time of the service and the action taken. This subsection does not limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a limited partnership in any other manner permitted by law.

545.105 Records to be kept.
A limited partnership shall keep at the office required under section 545.104, subsection 1, all of the following:
1 A current list of the full name and last known business address of each partner.
2 A copy of the certificate of limited partnership and all amendments to the certificate together with any executed powers of attorney pursuant to which a certificate or amendment has been executed.
3 Copies of the limited partnership’s federal, foreign, and state certificates of incorporation and, if applicable, amendments thereto; copies of the limited partnership’s articles of limited partnership and all amendments thereto; copies of the invoices, notices, or demands served on the limited partnership at its principal place of business; and copies of any recorded instruments executed in connection with the limited partnership’s business.
state, and local income tax returns and reports, if any, for the three most recent years

4 Copies of any written partnership agreements in effect and of any financial statements of the limited partnership for the three most recent years

Any partner may inspect and copy the records required to be kept under subsections 1 to 4 provided that the partner's request to inspect and copy is reasonable and done at the partner's expense

545.106 Nature of business.
A limited partnership may carry on any business that a partnership without limited partners may carry on

545.107 Business transactions of partner with partnership.
Except as provided in the partnership agreement, a partner may lend money to and transact other business with the limited partnership and, subject to other applicable law, has the same rights and obligations with respect to such transactions as a person who is not a partner

ARTICLE 2
FORMATION — CERTIFICATE

545.201 Certificate of limited partnership.
1 In order to form a limited partnership two or more persons shall execute a certificate of limited partnership. The certificate shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state and set forth all of the following:
   a The name of the limited partnership
   b The general character of its business
   c The address of the office and the name and address of the agent for service of process required to be maintained by section 545 104, subsection 2, and the address of its principal place of business
   d The name and the business address of each partner, specifying separately the general partners and limited partners
   e The amount of cash and a description and statement of the agreed value of the other property or services contributed by each partner and which each partner has agreed to contribute in the future
   f The times at which or events on the happening of which any additional contributions agreed to be made by each partner are to be made
   g A power of a limited partner to grant the right to become a limited partner to an assignee of any part of the partner's partnership interest, and the terms and conditions of the power
   h If agreed upon, the time at which or the events on the happening of which a partner may withdraw from the limited partnership and the amount of, or the method of determining the amount of, the distribution to which the partner may be entitled respecting the partnership interest, and the terms and conditions of the termination and distribution
   i A right of a partner to receive distributions of property, including cash from the limited partnership j A right of a partner to receive, or of a general partner to make, distributions to a partner which include a return of all or any part of the partner's contribution k A time at which, or an event upon the happening of which, the limited partnership is to be dissolved and its affairs wound up
   l A right of the remaining general partners to continue the business on the happening of an event of withdrawal of a general partner
   m Other matters the partners determine to include in the certificate

2 A limited partnership is formed at the time of the filing of the certificate of limited partnership in the office of the secretary of state or at a later time specified in the certificate of limited partnership if, in either case, there has been substantial compliance with the requirements of this section

545.202 Amendment to certificate.
1 A certificate of limited partnership is amended by filing a certificate of amendment in the office of the secretary of state. The certificate of amendment shall set forth all of the following:
   a The name of the limited partnership
   b The date of filing the certificate of limited partnership
   c The amendment to the certificate of limited partnership
   d A change in the amount or character of the contribution of a partner, or in a partner's obligation to make a contribution e The admission of a new general partner
   f The continuation of the business under section 545 801 after an event of withdrawal of a general partner

2 Except as provided in subsection 5, within thirty days after the happening of any of the following events, an amendment to a certificate of limited partnership reflecting the occurrence of the event shall be filed:
   a A change in the amount or character of the contribution of a partner, or in a partner's obligation to make a contribution
   b The admission of a new general partner c The continuation of the business under section 545 801 after an event of withdrawal of a general partner

3 A general partner who becomes aware that a statement in a certificate of limited partnership was false when made or that any arrangements or other facts described have changed, making the certificate inaccurate in any respect, shall promptly amend the certificate. An amendment to show the admission of or a change of address of a limited partner shall be filed within twelve months of the admission or change of address.

4 A certificate of limited partnership may be amended at any time for any other proper purpose the general partners determine.

5 An amendment is not required to reflect distributions made pursuant to rights described in section 545 201, subsection 1, paragraph "j".

6 A limited partner is not liable because an amendment to a certificate of limited partnership has not been filed to reflect the occurrence of an event.
§545.202 428
referred to in subsection 2 if the amendment is filed within the thirty-day period specified in subsection 2.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9850, 9851; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §545.45, 545.46; 82 Acts, ch 1103, §202]

545.203 Cancellation of certificate.
A certificate of limited partnership shall be canceled upon the dissolution and the commencement of winding up of the partnership or at any other time there are no limited partners. A certificate of cancellation shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state and shall set forth all of the following:
1. The name of the limited partnership.
2. The date of filing of the partnership’s certificate of limited partnership.
3. The reason for filing the certificate of cancellation.
4. The effective date, which shall be a date certain, of cancellation if it is not to be effective upon the filing of the certificate.
5. Other information the general partners filing the certificate determine.

545.204 Execution of certificates.
1. Each certificate required by this chapter to be filed in the office of the secretary of state shall be executed in the following manner:
a. An original certificate of limited partnership shall be signed by all partners named in the certificate.
b. A certificate of amendment shall be signed by at least one general partner and by each other partner designated in the certificate as a new partner or whose contribution is described as having been increased.
c. A certificate of cancellation shall be signed by all general partners.
2. A person may sign a certificate by an attorney-in-fact.
3. The execution of a certificate by a general partner is the making of a statement under oath or affirmation in a matter in which statements under oath or affirmation are required, within the meaning of section 720.2.

545.205 Amendment or cancellation by judicial act.
If a person required by section 545.204 to execute a certificate of amendment or cancellation fails or refuses to do so, any other partner, or any assignee of a partnership interest, who is adversely affected by the failure or refusal may petition the Iowa district court for the county in which the office described in section 545.104 is located to direct the amendment or cancellation. If the court finds that the amendment or cancellation is proper and that a person so designated has failed or refused to execute the certificate, the court shall order the secretary of state to record an appropriate certificate of amendment or cancellation.

§545.206 Filing with secretary of state and county recorder.
A signed copy of the certificate of limited partnership and a signed copy of any certificate of amendment or cancellation or of any judicial decree of amendment or cancellation shall be delivered for filing and recording as provided in this subsection. A person who executes a certificate as an agent or fiduciary need not exhibit evidence of that authority as a prerequisite to filing. It is required that each document required to be filed and recorded be:
1. Filed in the office of the secretary of state. When the secretary of state finds that the document conforms to law and when all fees and taxes due have been paid, the secretary shall endorse on the document, the word “Filed”, and the month, day, and year of the filing and file the same in the secretary’s office.
2. Recorded in the office of the secretary of state at the time it is filed.
3. Filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder. The secretary of state upon recording the document shall forward the document to the county recorder of the county where the office is maintained under section 545.104 is located, and shall forward a copy certified as a true copy of the filed original to any other county recorder, if any, as is required by this chapter. Upon receipt of the document and upon receipt of the recording fees due, the county recorder shall record the copy and endorse the date of filing in the county, and the book and page in which recorded, on the copy. The recorder of each county shall keep in the recorder’s office an alphabetically subdivided index book for certificates of limited partnership and other instruments the recording of which in the recorder’s office is provided for by this chapter, which book shall have as a minimum, columns headed with “Name of Limited Partnership”, “Place of Office”, “Day, Month, and Year of Filing” and the reference to the book and page or other record where recorded and shall make appropriate entries in the index for each instrument recorded.
Upon the filing of a certificate of amendment or judicial decree of amendment in the office of the secretary of state, if as amended it is in substantial compliance with this chapter, the certificate of limited partnership is amended as set forth in the amendment. Upon the effective date of a certificate of cancellation or a judicial decree of cancellation, the certificate of limited partnership is canceled.

545.207 Liability for false statement in certificate.
If a certificate of limited partnership or certificate of amendment or cancellation contains a false statement, one who suffers loss by reliance on the statement may recover damages for the loss from either of the following:
1. A person who executes the certificate, or causes another to execute it on the person’s behalf, and knew, and a general partner who knew or should have known, the statement to be false at the time the certificate was executed.
2. A general partner who knows or should have known that an arrangement or other fact described in the certificate has changed, making the statement in accurate in any respect, within a sufficient time before the statement was relied upon reasonably to have en ablled that general partner to cancel or amend the cer tificate, or to file a petition for its cancellation or amendment under section 545.205

545.208 Notice.
The fact that a certificate of limited partnership is on file in the office of the secretary of state is notice that the partnership claims to be a limited partner ship, but it is not notice of any other fact
[82 Acts, ch 1103, §208]

ARTICLE 3
LIMITED PARTNERS

545.301 Admission of new limited partners.
1 After the filing of a limited partnership's origin nal certificate of limited partnership, a person may be admitted as a new limited partner under the following conditions a In the case of a person acquiring a partnership interest directly from the limited partnership, upon compliance with the partnership agreement or, if the partnership agreement does not so provide, upon the written consent of all partners
b In the case of an assignee of a partnership interest of a partner who has the power, as provided in section 545 704 to grant the assignee the right to become a limited partner, upon the exercise of that power and compliance with any conditions limiting the grant or exercise of the power
2 Under both paragraphs "a" and "b" of subsection 1, the person acquiring the partnership interest becomes a limited partner at the time specified in the certificate of limited partnership or, if a time is not specified, upon amendment of the certificate of limited partnership to show the partnership interest

545.302 Voting.
Subject to section 545 303, the partnership agree ment may grant all or a specified group of the limited partners the right to vote on a per capita or other basis upon any matter

545.303 Liability to third parties.
1 Except as provided in subsection 4, a limited partner is not liable for the obligations of a limited partnership unless the limited partner is also a general partner or, in addition to the exercise of the limited partner's rights and powers as a limited partner, the limited partner takes part in the control of the business. However, if the limited partner's participation in the control of the business is not substantially the same as the exercise of the powers of a general partner, the limited partner is liable only to persons who trans act business with the limited partnership with actual knowledge of the limited partner's participation in control
2 A limited partner does not participate in the control of the business within the meaning of subsection 1 solely by doing one or more of the following a Being a contractor for or an agent or employee of the limited partnership
b Being a contractor for or an agent, employee, director, officer, or a shareholder of or a limited partner of a general partner c Consulting with and advising a general partner with respect to the business of the limited partnership
d Acting as surety for the limited partnership
e Approving or disapproving an amendment to the partnership agreement
f Voting on one or more of the following matters
(1) The dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership
(2) The sale, exchange, lease, mortgage, pledge, or other transfer of all or substantially all the assets of the limited partnership other than in the ordinary course of its business
(3) The incurrence of indebtedness by the limited partnership other than in the ordinary course of its business
(4) A change in the nature of the business
(5) The removal of a general partner
3 The enumeration in subsection 2 does not mean that the possess or exercise of any other powers by a limited partner constitutes participation by the limited partner in the business of the limited partnership
4 A limited partner who knowingly permits the limited partner's name to be used in the name of the limited partnership, except under circumstances permitted by section 545 102, subsection 2, paragraph "a", is liable to creditors who extend credit to the limited partnership without actual knowledge that the limited partner is not a general partner

545.304 Person erroneously believing self to be a limited partner.
1 Except as provided in subsection 2, a person who makes a contribution to a business enterprise and erroneously but in good faith believes that the person has become a limited partner in the enterprise is not a general partner in the enterprise and is not bound by its obligations by reason of making the contribution, receiving distributions from the enterprise, or exercising any rights of a limited partner, if, on ascertaining the mistake, the person does either of the following a Causes an appropriate certificate of limited partnership or a certificate of amendment to be executed and filed, or b Withdraws from future equity participation in the enterprise 2 A person who makes a contribution of the kind described in subsection 1 is liable as a general partner to a third party who, believing the person to be a general partner, transacts business with the enterprise before an appropriate certificate is filed and before either of the following a The person withdraws and an appropriate certificate is filed to show the withdrawal b An appropriate certificate is filed to show the person's status as a limited partner and, in the case of an amendment, after expiration of the period for filing the amendment relating to the person as a limited partner under section 545 202
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9819; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §545 14, 82 Acts, ch 1103, §304]

§545.305 Information.
Each limited partner may 1 Inspect and copy the partnership records required to be maintained by section 545 105 and any of the partnership books
2 Obtain from the general partners upon reasonable demand the following a True and full information regarding the state of the business and financial condition of the limited partnership b Copies of the limited partnership's federal, state, and local tax returns
   c Other information regarding the affairs of the limited partnership as is just and reasonable
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9817; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §545 12, 82 Acts, ch 1103, §305]

GENERAL PARTNERS

§545.401 Admission of additional general partners.
After the filing of a limited partnership's original certificate of limited partnership, additional general partners shall be admitted only with the specific written consent of each general partner. However, if the certificate of limited partnership or the partnership agreement names a person to be admitted as a general partner upon the occurrence of a specified circumstance or at a specified time, the consent required is deemed to have been given.

§545.402 Events of withdrawal.
Except as otherwise agreed in writing by all partners at the time of the event, a person ceases to be a general partner of a limited partnership upon the happening of any of the following events:
1 The general partner withdraws from the limited partnership as provided in section 545 602
2 The general partner is removed as a general partner in accordance with the partnership agreement
3 Unless otherwise provided in the certificate of limited partnership, the general partner does any of the following a Makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors
   b Files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy
   c Is adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent
   d Files a petition or answer seeking for the general partner reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution, or similar relief under any statute, law, or regulation e Files an answer or other pleading admitting or failing to contest material allegations of a petition filed against the general partner in a proceeding of a nature specified in paragraph "d" f Seeks, consents to, or acquiesces in the appointment of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of the general partner or of all or a substantial part of the general partner's properties
4 Unless otherwise provided in the certificate of limited partnership, upon the expiration of the following time periods a One hundred twenty days after the commencement of a proceeding against the general partner seeking reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution, or similar relief, under any statute, law, or regulation, if the proceeding has not been dismissed within that time
   b Ninety days after the appointment without the general partner's consent or acquiescence of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of the general partner or of all or a substantial part of the general partner's property, if the appointment is not vacated or stayed within that time
   c If an appointment of the nature specified in paragraph "b" is stayed and if the appointment is not then vacated, ninety days after the expiration of the stay 5 If the general partner is a natural person when either of the following occur a The general partner dies
   b The district court finds the general partner in capable of managing the general partner's person or property 6 If the general partner is acting as a general partner by virtue of being a trustee of a trust, when the trust terminates. Substitution of a new trustee is not termination of the trust
7 If the general partner is a separate partnership, the dissolution and commencement of winding up of the separate partnership
8 If the general partner is a corporation, the filing of a certificate of dissolution for the corporation or revocation of the corporation's charter
9 In the case of an estate, the distribution by the fiduciary of the estate's entire interest in the partnership

§545.403 General powers and liabilities.
Except as provided in this chapter or in the partnership agreement, a general partner of a limited partnership has the rights and powers and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities of a general partner in a partnership without limited partners.

§545.404 Contributions by general partner.
A general partner of a limited partnership may make contributions to the partnership and share in the profits and losses of, and in distributions from, the limited partnership as a general partner. A general partner also may make contributions to and share in profits, losses, and distributions as a limited partner. A person who is both a general partner and a limited partner has the rights and powers, and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a general partner and, except as provided in the partnership agreement, also has the powers, and is subject to the restrictions, of a limited partner to the extent of the person's participation in the partnership as a limited partner.
§545.405 Voting. The partnership agreement may grant to all or certain identified general partners the right to vote on any basis, separately or with all or any class of the limited partners, on any matter.

ARTICLE 5 FINANCE

§545.501 Form of contribution. The contribution of a partner may be in cash, property, or services rendered, or a promissory note or other obligation to contribute cash or property or to perform services.

§545.502 Liability for contribution. Except as provided in the certificate of limited partnership, a partner is obligated to the limited partnership to perform a promise to contribute cash or property or to perform services even if the partner is unable to perform because of death, disability, or any other reason. If the partner does not make the contribution, the limited partnership may require the partner to contribute cash equal to that portion of the value, as stated in the certificate of limited partnership, of the stated contribution that has not been made.

§545.503 Sharing of profits and losses. The profits and losses of a limited partnership shall be allocated among the partners, and among classes of partners, in the manner provided in the partnership agreement. If the partnership agreement does not so provide, profits and losses shall be allocated on the basis of the value, as stated in the certificate of limited partnership, of the contributions made by each partner to the extent the contributions have been received by the partnership and have not been returned.

§545.504 Sharing of distributions. Distributions of cash or other assets of a limited partnership shall be allocated among the partners, and among classes of partners, in the manner provided in the partnership agreement. If the partnership agreement does not so provide, distributions shall be made on the basis of the value, as stated in the certificate of limited partnership, of the contributions made by each partner to the extent the contributions have been received by the partnership and have not been returned.

§545.601 Interim distributions. Except as provided in this article, a partner is entitled to receive distributions from a limited partnership before the partner's withdrawal from the limited partnership and before the dissolution and winding up of the partnership subject to the following conditions:

1. To the extent and at the times or upon the happening of the events specified in the partnership agreement.

2. If a distribution is a return of part of the partner's contribution under section 545.608, subsection 2, to the extent and at the times or upon the happening of the events specified in the certificate of limited partnership.

§545.602 Withdrawal of general partner. A general partner may withdraw from a limited partnership by giving written notice to the other partners, but, if the withdrawal violates the partnership agreement, in addition to its other remedies the limited partnership may recover from the withdrawing general partner damages for breach of the partnership agreement and offset the damages against the amount otherwise distributable to the partner.

§545.603 Withdrawal of limited partner. A limited partner may withdraw from a limited partnership at the time or upon the happening of events specified in the certificate of limited partnership and in accordance with the partnership agreement. If the certificate does not specify the time or the events upon the happening of which a limited partner may withdraw or a time for the dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership, a limited partner may withdraw upon not less than six months prior written notice directed or delivered to the partnership or to each general partner at the partner's address on the books of the limited partnership at its office in this state.

§545.604 Distribution upon withdrawal. Except as provided in this article, upon withdrawal a partner is entitled to receive any distribution to which the partner is entitled under the partnership agreement and, if not otherwise provided in the agreement, the partner is entitled to receive, within a reasonable time after withdrawal, the fair value of the partner's interest in the limited partnership as of the date of withdrawal, based upon the partner's right to share in distributions from the limited partnership.

§545.605 Distribution in kind. Except as provided in the certificate of limited partnership, a partner, regardless of the nature of the partner's contribution, has no right to demand and receive any distribution from a limited partnership in any form other than cash. Except as provided in the partnership agreement, a partner shall not be compelled to... accept a distribution of any asset in kind from a limited partnership to the extent that the percentage of the asset distributed to the partner exceeds a percentage of that asset which is equal to the percentage in which the partner shares in distributions from the limited partnership.

§545.606 Right to distribution.

When a partner becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the partner has the status of a creditor of the limited partnership and is entitled to all remedies available to a creditor with respect to the distribution.

§545.607 Limitations on distribution.

A partner shall not receive a distribution if, after the distribution, liabilities of the limited partnership other than liabilities to partners on account of their partnership interests will exceed the fair value of the partnership assets.

1. If a partner has received the return of a part of the partner's contribution without violation of the partnership agreement or this chapter, for one year after the return, the partner is liable to the limited partnership for the amount of the returned contribution to the extent necessary to discharge the limited partnership's liabilities to creditors who extended credit to the limited partnership during the period the contribution was held by the partnership.

2. If a partner has received the return of any part of the partner's contribution in violation of the partnership agreement or this chapter, for six years after the return, the partner is liable to the limited partnership for the amount of the contribution wrongfully returned.

3. A partner receives a return of contribution only to the extent that a distribution to the partner reduces the partner's share of the fair value, as specified in the certificate of limited partnership, of the partner's contribution which has not been distributed to the partner.

ARTICLE 7

ASSIGNMENT OF PARTNERSHIP INTERESTS

§545.701 Nature of partnership interest.

A partnership interest is personal property.

§545.702 Assignment of partnership interest.

Except as provided in the partnership agreement, a partnership interest is assignable in whole or in part.

An assignment of a partnership interest does not dissolve a limited partnership or entitle the assignee to become or to exercise any rights of a partner. An assignment entitles the assignee to receive, to the extent assigned, only the distribution to which the assignor would be entitled.

A judgment creditor of a partner may bring an action in the district court charging the partnership in interest of the partner with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment. To the extent the court so charges, the judgment creditor has only the rights of an assignee of the partnership interest. This chapter does not deprive a partner of the benefit of exemption laws applicable to the partner's interest.

§545.704 Right of assignee to become limited partner.

1. An assignee of a partnership interest, including an assignee of a general partner, may become a limited partner under any of the following conditions:
   a. When the certificate of limited partnership so provides, if the assignor gives the assignee the right to become a limited partner in the manner specified in the agreement.
   b. When the partnership agreement so provides, if persons required to consent to the assignee becoming a limited partner consent in the manner specified in the agreement.
   c. All partners other than the assignor of the interest consent to the assignee becoming a limited partner.

2. An assignee who has become a limited partner has, to the extent assigned, the rights and powers, and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a limited partner under the partnership agreement and this chapter. An assignee who becomes a limited partner also is liable for the obligations of the assignor to make and return contributions as provided in article 6 of this chapter. However, the assignee is not obligated for liabilities unknown to the assignee at the time the assignee became a limited partner and which could not be ascertained from the certificate of limited partnership.

3. The fact that an assignee of a partnership interest has become a limited partner does not release the assignor from the assignor's liability to the limited partnership under sections 545.207 and 545.502.

§545.705 Power of estate of deceased or incompetent partner.

If a partner who is an individual dies or a court of competent jurisdiction adjudges the partner incapable of managing the partner's person or property, the partner's executor, administrator, guardian, conservator, or other legal representative may exercise all the partner's rights for the purpose of settling the estate or administering the property, including any power the partner had to give an assignee the right to become a limited partner. If a partner is a corporation, trust, or other entity and is dissolved or terminated, the powers of that partner may be exercised by its legal representative or successor.

DISINOLUION

545.801 Nonjudicial dissolution.
1 A limited partnership is dissolved and its affairs shall be wound up when any of the following occur:
   a When events specified in the certificate of limited partnership occur;
   b When all partners consent in writing to the dissolution;
   c When a general partner withdraws unless at the time there is at least one other general partner and the certificate of limited partnership permits the business of the limited partnership to be carried on by the remaining partners;
   d When a decree of judicial dissolution is entered under section 545.802.
2 When a general partner withdraws, the limited partnership is not dissolved and is not required to dissolve under either of the following conditions:
   a If all partners previously have consented to the designation of a person as a general partner as provided in section 545.401;
   b If all partners, within ninety days after the withdrawal, agree in writing to continue the business of the limited partnership and to the appointment of one or more additional partners as necessary or desired.

545.802 Judicial dissolution.
On application by or for a partner, the district court for the county in which the office described in section 545.104 is located may decree dissolution of a limited partnership whenever it is not reasonably practicable to carry on the business of the limited partnership in conformity with the partnership agreement.

545.803 Winding up.
Except as provided in the partnership agreement, the general partners who have not wrongfully dissolved a limited partnership or, if none, the limited partners, may wind up the limited partnership's affairs. Also, upon application of a partner, a partner's legal representative, or a partner's assignee, the district court for the county in which the office described in section 545.104 is located may wind up the limited partnership's affairs.

545.804 Order of distribution of assets.
Upon the winding up of a limited partnership, the assets shall be distributed in the following order:
1 To creditors, including partners who are creditors, to the extent permitted by law, in satisfaction of liabilities of the limited partnership other than liabilities for distributions to partners under section 545.601 or 545.604;
2 Except as provided in the partnership agreement, to partners and former partners in satisfaction of liabilities for distributions under section 545.601 or 545.604;
3 Except as provided in the partnership agreement, to partners first for the return of their contributions and secondly respecting their partnership interests, in the proportions in which the partners share in distributions.

ARTICLE 9

FOREIGN LIMITED PARTNERSHIPS

545.901 Law governing.
The laws of the state under which a foreign limited partnership is organized govern its organization and internal affairs and the liability of its limited partners.
A foreign limited partnership shall not be denied registration by reason of a difference between those laws and the laws of this state.

545.902 Registration.
Before transacting business in this state, a foreign limited partnership shall register with the secretary of state. In order to register, a foreign limited partnership shall submit to the secretary of state an application for registration as a foreign limited partnership, signed and sworn to by a general partner and setting forth all of the following:
1 The name of the foreign limited partnership and, if different, the name under which it proposes to register and transact business in this state;
2 The state and date of its formation;
3 The general character of the business it proposes to transact in this state;
4 The name and address of an agent for service of process on the foreign limited partnership. The agent shall be either an individual resident of this state, a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation having a place of business in and authorized to do business in this state;
5 A statement that the secretary of state is the agent of the foreign limited partnership for service of process if an agent has not been appointed under subsection 4 or, if appointed, the agent's authority has been revoked, or if the agent cannot be found or served with the exercise of reasonable diligence;
6 The address of the office required to be maintained in the state of its organization by the laws of that state or, if such an office is not required, the address of the principal office of the foreign limited partnership;
7 If the certificate of limited partnership filed in the foreign limited partnership's state of organization is not required to include the names and business addresses of the partners, a list of those names and addresses.
§545.902

545.903 Issuance of registration.

1 If the secretary of state finds that an application for registration conforms to law and all requisite fees have been paid, the secretary shall do all of the following:
   a Endorse on the application the word "Filed" and the month, day, and year of the filing.
   b File and record the application in the secretary's office.
   c Issue a certificate of registration to transact business in this state.

2 The certificate of registration, together with the original of the application, shall be returned to the person who filed the application or the person's representative.

545.904 Name.

A foreign limited partnership may register with the secretary of state under any name that could be registered by a domestic limited partnership even if it is not the name under which it is registered in its state of organization.

545.905 Changes and amendments.

If a statement in the application for registration of a foreign limited partnership was false when made or an arrangement or other fact described has changed, making the application inaccurate in any respect, the foreign limited partnership shall promptly file in the office of the secretary of state a certificate, signed and sworn to by a general partner, correcting the statement.

545.906 Cancellation of registration.

A foreign limited partnership may cancel its registration by filing with the secretary of state a certificate of cancellation signed and sworn to by a general partner. A cancellation does not terminate the authority of the secretary of state to accept service of process on the foreign limited partnership with respect to causes of action arising out of the transaction of business in this state.

545.907 Transaction of business without registration.

1 A foreign limited partnership transacting business in this state shall not maintain a proceeding in the courts of this state until the partnership has registered in this state.

2 The failure of a foreign limited partnership to register in this state does not impair the validity of a contract or act of the foreign limited partnership or prevent the foreign limited partnership from defending a proceeding in the courts of this state.

3 A limited partner of a foreign limited partnership is not liable as a general partner of the foreign limited partnership solely by reason of having transacted business in the state without registration.

4 A foreign limited partnership, by transacting business in this state without registration, appoints the secretary of state as its agent for service of process with respect to causes of action arising out of the transaction of business in this state.

545.908 Actions by the attorney general.

The attorney general may bring an action to restrain a foreign limited partnership from transacting business in this state in violation of this chapter.

545.909 Resignation of agent for service of process.

An agent for service of process of a foreign limited partnership may resign as agent upon filing a written notice of the resignation, executed in duplicate, with the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall forthwith mail a copy of the resignation to the foreign limited partnership at its principal office or office required to be maintained in the state of its organization. The appointment of the agent terminates upon the expiration of thirty days after receipt of the notice by the secretary of state.

545.910 Service of process on foreign limited partnership.

If a foreign limited partnership fails to appoint or maintain an agent for service of process in this state or if its agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found, then service of process may be made upon the secretary of state in accordance with section 545.104, subsection 4.

ARTICLE 10

DERIVATIVE ACTIONS

545.1001 Right of action.

A limited partner has standing to bring an action to recover a judgment in the limited partnership's favor if general partners with authority to bring the action have refused to do so or if an effort to cause those general partners to bring the action is not likely to succeed.

545.1002 Proper plaintiff.

In a derivative action, the plaintiff shall be the partner at the time of bringing the action and shall have been a partner at the time the cause of action arose or shall have acquired the status of partner by operation of law or pursuant to the terms of the partnership agreement from a person who was a partner at the time the cause of action arose.

545.1003 Pleading.

In a derivative action, the petition shall set forth with particularity the effort of the plaintiff to secure initiation of the action by a general partner or the reasons for not making the effort.

545.1004 Expenses.
If a derivative action is successful, in whole or in part, or if anything is received by the plaintiff as a result of a judgment, compromise, or settlement of an action or claim, the court may award the plaintiff reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, and shall direct the plaintiff to remit to the limited partnership the remainder of those proceeds received by the plaintiff.

ARTICLE 11
MISCELLANEOUS

545.1101 Construction and application.
This chapter shall be applied and construed to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law with respect to limited partnerships among states enacting it.

REGISTRATION AND PROTECTION OF MARKS

548.1 Definitions.
As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:
1. "Applicant" means a person filing an application for registration of a mark under this chapter, the person's legal representative, successor, or assignee.
2. "Mark" means a word, name, symbol, device, or any combination of the foregoing in any form or arrangement used as a certification mark, collective mark, service mark, or trade mark.
   a. "Certification mark" means a mark used in connection with the goods or services of a person other than the certifier to indicate geographic origin, material, mode of manufacture, quality, accuracy, or other characteristics of the goods or services, or to indicate that the work or labor on the goods or services was performed by members of a union or other organization.
   b. "Collective mark" means a mark used by members of a co-operative, association, or other collective group or organization to identify goods or services and distinguish them from those of others, or to indicate membership in the collective group or organization.
   c. "Service mark" means a mark used by a person to identify services and to distinguish them from the services of others.
   d. "Trade mark" means a mark used by a person to identify goods and to distinguish them from the goods of others.
3. "Person" means an individual, corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, unincorporated association, two or more of any of the foregoing having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.
4. "Registrant" means a person issued a registration of a mark under this chapter, the person's legal representative, successor, or assignee.
5. "Trade name" means a word, name, symbol, device, or any combination of the foregoing in any form or arrangement used by a person to identify the person's business, vocation, or occupation, and distinguish it from others.
6. "Use" means:
   a. Placing a mark on goods or containers or associated displays, or on affixed tags or labels, and selling or otherwise distributing the goods in this state.
   b. Displaying a mark in connection with the sale or advertising of services rendered.

548.2 Registrability.
1. A mark shall not be registered if it:
   a. Consists of or comprises immoral, deceptive, or scandalous matter, or §548.6 Assignment.

Any mark registered under this chapter shall be assignable with the good will of the business in which the mark is used. A mark connected with a part of the good will of the business assignment, signed by the registrant, with the signature and verification of the applicant, is primarily merely a surname.

The signature and verification of the applicant, is primarily merely a surname.

The term of any registration in force on the date on which this chapter becomes effective shall not be affected by this chapter, but any registration in force on said date can only be renewed under this chapter.

§548.7 Cancellation.
The secretary of state shall cancel from the register:
1. Any registration under a prior law which has expired without being renewed under this chapter.
2. Any registration concerning which the secretary of state receives a voluntary request for cancellation from the registrant or the assignee of record.
3. Any registration granted under this chapter and not renewed in accordance with its provisions.
4. Any registration which a district court, in an action involving the registration and from which no appeal is or can be taken, finds:
   a. That the registered mark has been abandoned, or
   b. That the registrant is not the owner of the mark, or
   c. That the registration was granted contrary to the provisions of this chapter, or
   d. That the registration was obtained fraudulently, or e. That the registered mark has become incapable of serving as a mark, or
   f. That the registered mark is so similar to a mark registered in the United States patent office by another party to the litigation and not abandoned prior to the date of first use by the registrant under this chapter as to be likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception of purchasers. However, registration under this chapter shall not be canceled if the registrant has a concurrent registration for the mark in the United States patent office for an area including this state.
5. Any registration that a district court, from which no appeal is or can be taken, orders canceled on any ground.

§548.8 Classification.
The secretary of state shall establish a classification of goods and services for convenience in the administration of this chapter which shall not limit an applicant's or registrant's rights except as expressly provided by this chapter.

§548.9 Fraudulent registration.
Any person who, either on the person's own behalf or on behalf of any other person, shall procure the registration of any mark under this chapter by knowingly making any false or fraudulent representation or declaration or by any other fraudulent means is liable for the damages caused by the fraudulent registration and in an action to recover these damages the court shall order cancellation of the fraudulently obtained registration.

§548.10 Infringement.
Any person without the consent of the registrant uses any reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation of a mark registered under this chapter in a manner which is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception of purchasers; or reproduces, counterfeits, copies, or colorably imitates any registered mark and applies such reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation to labels, signs, prints, packages, wrappers, receptacles, or advertisements intended to be used in a manner which is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception of purchasers in this state; shall be liable in a civil action by the registrant of the mark, for any or all of the remedies provided in section 548.11.

1. The registrant of a mark that has been infringed may be granted an injunction against an infringer in accordance with the principles of equity. The court in its discretion may allow the registrant to recover the damages caused by the infringement or the profits of the infringer attributable to the infringement, or both. The court may order any counterfeits or imitations in the possession or under the control of an infringer to be destroyed and in exceptional cases the court may also award reasonable attorney fees to the prevailing party.
2. Likelihood of injury to business reputation or to a trade name valid at common law, or of dilution of the distinctive quality of a mark, whether registered or not registered under this chapter, shall be a ground for injunctive relief notwithstanding the absence of competition between the parties or the absence of confusion as to the source of goods or services.

§548.12 Defenses.
A registrant shall not use the letter "R" enclosed in a circle, thus ®, "Registered in the U. S. Patent Office" or "Reg. U. S. Patent Off." to give notice of registration under this chapter. Use of false notice of federal registration is an affirmative defense which precludes recovery of damages, profits, or injunctive relief under this chapter for the period during which false notice of federal registration is used.

§548.13 Application.
This chapter does not affect:
1. Rights, or the enforcement of rights, in marks or trade names acquired in good faith at any time at common law.
2. Rights, or the enforcement of rights in marks acquired under federal law.
3. Publishers, broadcasters, printers, or other persons engaged in the dissemination of information or reproduction of printed or pictorial matter who publish, broadcast, or reproduce material without knowledge of its infringing character.
4. Use of the Iowa certification mark as provided in section 15.108, subsection 2, paragraph "b".
5. Marks for dairy products, as provided for in sections 192.23 through 192.39, inclusive.

§551.3 Repealed by 66GA, ch 1056, §45

§551.4 Penalty. Any person, firm, company, association, or corporation violating any of the provisions of sections 551 1 and 551 2, and any officer, agent, or receiver of any firm, company, association, or corporation, or any member of the same, or any individual violating any of such provisions shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

§551.5 Contracts or agreements. All contracts or agreements made in violation of any of the provisions of sections 551 1 and 551 2 shall be void.

§551.6 Enforcement. It shall be the duty of the county attorneys, in their counties, and the attorney general, to enforce the provisions of sections 551 1 to 551 5, inclusive, by appropriate actions in courts of competent jurisdiction.

§551.7 Complaint — to whom made. If complaint shall be made to the secretary of state that any corporation authorized to do business in this state is guilty of unfair discrimination, within the terms of sections 551 1 and 551 2, it shall be the duty of the secretary of state to refer the matter to the attorney general who may, if the facts justify it in his judgment, institute proceedings in the courts against such corporation.

§551.8 Revocation of permit. If any corporation, foreign or domestic, authorized to do business in this state, is found guilty of unfair discrimination, within the terms of sections 551 1 and 551 2, it shall be the duty of the secretary of state to immediately revoke the permit of such corporation to do business in this state.

§551.9 Corporation to be enjoined. If after revocation of its permit such corporation, or any other corporation not having a permit and found guilty of having violated any of the provisions of sections 551 1 and 551 2, shall continue or attempt to do business in this state, it shall be the duty of the attorney general, by a proper suit in the name of the state of Iowa, to enjoin such corporation from transacting all business of every kind and character in said state.

§551.10 Cumulative remedies. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as repealing any other Act, or part of Act, but the remedies herein provided shall be cumulative to all other remedies provided by law.

§551.11 Exceptions. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any contract or agreement relating to any sale made to the state, its departments, commissions, agencies, boards and its governmental subdivisions.

§551.12 Price discrimination — sale or lease of motor vehicles.

1 As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires a "Motor vehicle" means a motor vehicle subject to registration under chapter 321 with a gross vehicle weight rating as defined in 49 C.F.R. 567.4(g)(3) of less than nine thousand pounds, but does not include a motor vehicle which is not a completed motor vehicle as defined in section 322 2, subsection 1, or a motor vehicle chassis, either of which is sold to a manufacturer and does not include a motor vehicle which is defined as a motor home in section 321 2, subsection 2, or a motor vehicle which is not a completed motor vehicle as defined in section 322 2, subsection 1.

d "Fleet buyer" means a person, except a rental company, which purchases and registers or leases ten or more new motor vehicles during any twelve-month period for use in the person's business.

e "Fleet buyer" means a person who buys a motor vehicle but does not include a fleet buyer, a rental company, or a dealer.

f "Retail lease" means a contract for the use of a motor vehicle by any person for a term of more than sixty days but does not include sales or leases to a fleet buyer.

g "Dealer" means a motor vehicle dealer licensed under chapter 322.

h "Manufacturer" means a manufacturer, distributor, or wholesaler licensed under chapter 322.

i "Incentive" means a discount, rebate, interest assistance, option, assistance pass through, and any other benefit provided to a dealer with respect to the acquisition, sale, or lease of a motor vehicle or to a motor vehicle purchaser by a manufacturer.

j "Price" means the dollar purchase price of a motor vehicle, including incentives.
A manufacturer shall not knowingly discriminate in price against Iowa purchasers or lessees of motor vehicles by selling or leasing a new motor vehicle to any dealer at a price lower than the lowest price at which the manufacturer offers to sell or lease any new motor vehicle of the same make and model similarly equipped to any other dealer.

This section does not apply to sales by manufacturers to dealers for resale to employees, retirees, officers or directors of a manufacturer or its affiliated companies, to any unit of government, to any charitable organization, or for any driver education program.

This section shall not be construed to prohibit a manufacturer from offering incentives to its dealers, dealer-affiliated leasing companies, fleet buyers or to retail buyers so long as the same or equivalent incentives are available to all dealers of the same line-make on a nondiscriminatory basis. If the manufacturer makes any incentive available to a dealer for resale or re lease to a rental company, the same or equivalent incentive must be made available to dealers for resale to retail buyers.

A person shall not knowingly provide, induce or receive a discrimination in price which is prohibited by this section.

If the attorney general determines that a person has engaged in, is engaging in, or is about to engage in any practice in violation of this section, the attorney general may:

a. Require the person to file on forms as the attorney general may prescribe a statement or report in writing under oath or otherwise, as to all the facts and circumstances concerning prohibited practices by the person, and any other information the attorney general may deem necessary;

b. Examine under oath any person in connection with the prohibited activity;

c. Examine any record, book, document, account, or paper or motor vehicle as the attorney general may deem necessary;

d. Pursuant to an order of a district court, impound any record, book, document, account, paper, or motor vehicle that is produced in accordance with this section, and retain possession of same until completion of all proceedings in connection with which the same are produced.

To accomplish the objectives and to carry out the duties prescribed by this section, the attorney general, in addition to other powers conferred, may issue subpoenas to any person, administer an oath or affirm to any person, conduct hearings in aid of any investigation or inquiry, prescribe forms and adopt rules as may be necessary.

Information or evidence provided the attorney general by a person pursuant to subsections 3 and 4 shall not be admitted in evidence, or used in any criminal prosecution. If a criminal prosecution under this section is instituted in a state court against a person who has provided information pursuant to subsection 4 and this subsection, the state shall have the burden of proof that the information so provided was not used in any manner to further the criminal investigation or prosecution.

In any civil action brought under this section, the attorney general shall have the right to require any defendant to give testimony, and no criminal prosecution based upon transactions or acts about which the defendant is questioned and required to give testimony shall be brought against the defendant.

Service by the attorney general of any notice requiring a person to file a statement or report, or of a subpoena upon any person, shall be made personally within this state, but if it cannot be obtained, substituted service may be made in the following manner:

a. Personal service outside this state

b. The mailing by registered mail to the last known place of business, residence, or abode within or without this state of the person for whom the same is intended;

c. As to any person other than a natural person, in the manner provided in the rules of civil procedure as if a petition had been filed;

d. The service as a district court may direct in lieu of personal service within this state.

If anyone fails or refuses to file a statement or report, or obey any subpoena issued by the attorney general, the attorney general may, after notice, apply to a district court and, after hearing, and upon meeting customary legal standards for obtaining relief, request an order:

a. Granting injunctive relief, restraining the sale of any motor vehicle by the person;

b. Dissolving a corporation created by or under the laws of this state or revoking or suspending the certificate of authority to do business in this state of a foreign corporation or revoking or suspending any other licenses, permits, or certificates issued pursuant to law to such person which are used to further the allegedly unlawful practice;

c. Granting any other relief as may be required until the person files the statement or report, or obeys the subpoena.

Whenever it appears to the attorney general that a person has engaged in, is engaging in or is about to engage in any practice declared to be unlawful by this section, and the proceedings would be in the public interest, the attorney general may seek and obtain in an action in a district court an injunction prohibiting the person from continuing the practices or engaging in or doing any unlawful acts upon meeting customary legal standards for obtaining relief.

In any action brought under this section, the attorney general is entitled to recover costs for the use of this state.

A person who is injured or threatened with injury by conduct prohibited under this section may bring suit to:

a. Prevent or restrain the conduct and remove the conduct’s effect by injunction or other equitable relief;

b. Recover actual damages resulting from the conduct;

c. Recover, at the court’s discretion, exemplary damages which do not exceed twice the actual damages awarded under paragraph “b” of this subsection if the trier of fact determines that the prohibited conduct is willful or flagrant;

d. Recover the necessary costs of bringing suit, including a reasonable attorney fee.
CHAPTER 551A

CIGARETTE SALES

551A.1 Short title.
This chapter shall be known and cited as the “Iowa Unfair Cigarette Sales Act.”
[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §551A 1]

551A.2 Definitions.
When used in any part of this chapter, the following words, terms and phrases shall have the meaning ascribed to them except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:
1 “Cigarettes” shall mean and include any roll for smoking, made wholly or in part of tobacco, irrespective of size or shape and whether or not such tobacco is flavored, adulterated or mixed with any other ingredient, the wrapper or cover of which is made of paper or any other substance or material except tobacco.
2 “Person” shall mean and include any individual, firm, association, company, partnership, corporation, joint stock company, club agency, syndicate, or anyone engaged in the sale of cigarettes.
3 “Wholesaler” means and includes any person who acquires cigarettes for the purpose of sale to retailers or to other persons for resale, and who maintains an established place of business when any part of the business is the sale of cigarettes at wholesale to persons licensed under this chapter, and where at all times a stock of cigarettes is available to retailers for resale.
4 “Retailer” means any person who is engaged in this state in the business of selling, or offering to sell, cigarettes at retail.
5 “Sale” and “sell” shall mean and include any transfer for a consideration, exchange, barter, gift, offer for sale and distribution in any manner or by any means whatsoever.
6 “Sell at wholesale”, “sale at wholesale”, and “wholesale sales” shall mean and include any sale or offer for sale made in the course of trade or usual conduct of the wholesaler’s business to a retailer for the purpose of resale.
7 “Sell at retail,” “sale at retail” and “retail sales” shall mean and include any sale or offer for sale for consumption or use made in the ordinary course of trade of the seller’s business.
8 “Basic cost of cigarettes” shall mean whichever of the two following amounts is lower: (a) the true invoice cost of cigarettes to the wholesaler or retailer, as the case may be, or (b) the lowest replacement cost of cigarettes to the wholesaler or retailer in the quantity last purchased, less, in either case, all trade discounts and customary discounts for cash, plus one half of the full face value of any stamps which may be required by any cigarette tax act of this state.
9 “Cost to wholesaler” shall mean the basic cost of the cigarettes plus the cost of doing business by the wholesaler, as defined in this chapter.
10 “Cost to the retailer” shall mean the basic cost of the cigarettes involved in the retailer’s transactions plus the cost of doing business by the retailer as defined in this chapter.
11 If any retailer in connection with the retailer’s purchase of any cigarettes shall receive the discounts ordinarily allowed upon purchases by a retailer and in whole or in part discounts ordinarily allowed upon purchases by a wholesaler, the cost of doing business by the retailer with respect to the said cigarettes shall be, in the absence of proof of a lesser or higher cost, the sum of the cost of doing business by the retailer and, to the extent that the retailer shall have received the full discounts allowed to a wholesaler, the cost of doing business by a wholesaler as hereinafore defined in subsection 9, paragraph (b).
83 Acts, ch 165, §3-5

551A.3 Sales at less than cost — penalty.
1 It shall be unlawful for any wholesaler or retailer to offer to sell, or sell, at wholesale or retail, cigarettes at less than cost to such wholesaler or retailer, as the case may be, as defined in this chapter. Any wholesaler or retailer who violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

2. Evidence of advertisement, offering to sell, or sale of cigarettes by any wholesaler or retailer at less than cost to the wholesaler or retailer as defined by this chapter shall be evidence of a violation of this chapter.

551A.4 Combination sales.

In all offers for sale or sales involving cigarettes and any other item at a combined price, and in all offers for sale, or sales, involving the giving of any gift or concession of any kind whatsoever (whether it be coupons or otherwise), the wholesaler's or retailer's combined selling price shall not be below the cost to the wholesaler or the cost to the retailer, respectively, of the total of all articles, products, commodities, gifts and concessions included in such transactions. If any such articles, products, commodities, gifts or concessions shall not be cigarettes, the basic cost thereof shall be determined in like manner as provided in section 551A 2, subsection 8.

551A.5 Sales by a wholesaler to a wholesaler.

When one wholesaler sells cigarettes to any other wholesaler, the former shall not be required to include in the selling price to the latter, the cost to the wholesaler, as defined by section 551A 2, but the latter wholesaler, upon resale to a retailer, shall be subject to the provisions of the said section.

551A.6 Sales exceptions.

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to a sale at wholesale or a sale at retail made (1) in an isolated transaction, (2) where cigarettes are offered for sale, or sold, in a bona fide clearance sale for the purpose of discontinuing trade in such cigarettes and said offer to sell, or sale shall state the reason therefor and the quantity of such cigarettes offered for sale, or to be sold, (3) where cigarettes are offered for sale, or sold as imperfect or damaged, and said offer to sell, or sale shall state the reason therefor and the quantity of such cigarettes offered for sale, or to be sold.

551A.7 Transactions permitted to meet lawful competition.

1. Any wholesaler may advertise, offer to sell or sell cigarettes at a price made in good faith to meet the price of a competitor who is selling the same article at the cost to the competing wholesaler as defined by this chapter. Any retailer may offer to sell or sell cigarettes at a price made in good faith to meet the price of a competitor who is selling at the cost to the said competing retailer as defined in this chapter. The price of cigarettes offered for sale, or sold under the exceptions specified in section 551A 6 shall not be considered the price of a competitor and shall not be used as a basis for establishing prices below cost, nor shall the price established at a bankruptcy or forced sale be considered the price of a competitor within the purview of this section.

2. In the absence of proof of the actual cost to a competing wholesaler or to a competing retailer, as the case may be, such cost shall be the lowest cost to wholesalers or the lowest cost to retailers, as the case may be, within the same trading area as determined by a cost survey made pursuant to section 551A 8, subsection 2.

551A.8 Cost determined.

1. Admissible evidence. In determining cost to the wholesaler and cost to the retailer the court shall receive and consider as bearing on the bona fides of such cost, evidence that any person complained against under any of the provisions of this chapter purchased the cigarettes involved in the complaint before the court, at a fictitious price, or upon terms, or in such a manner, or under such invoices, as to conceal the true cost, discounts or terms of purchase, and shall also receive and consider as bearing on the bona fides of such cost, evidence of the normal, customary and prevailing terms and discounts in connection with other sales of a similar nature in the trade area or state.

2. Cost survey. Where a cost survey pursuant to recognized statistical and cost accounting practices has been made for the trading area in which a violation of this chapter is committed or charged to determine and establish the lowest cost to wholesalers or the lowest cost to retailers within the area, the cost survey shall be deemed competent evidence in any action or proceeding under this chapter to establish actual cost to the wholesaler or actual cost to the retailer complained against. In such surveys to determine cost to the wholesaler or retailer there shall be included in the cost of doing business without limitation, labor, rent, depreciation, sales costs, compensation, maintenance of equipment, cartage, licenses, taxes, insurance and other expenses.

551A.9 Sales outside ordinary channels of business — effect.

In establishing the basic cost of cigarettes to a wholesaler or a retailer, it shall not be permissible to use the invoice cost or the actual cost of any cigarettes purchased at a forced, bankruptcy, or close out sale, or other sale outside of the ordinary channels of trade.

551A.10 Injunction.

The director of revenue and finance, or any person or persons injured by any violation, or who would suffer injury from any threatened violation of this chapter, may maintain an action in any equity court to enjoin such actual or threatened violation. If a violation or threatened violation of this chapter shall be established, the court shall enjoin such violation or threatened violation, and, in addition thereto, the court shall assess in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant the costs of suit including reasonable attorney's fees. Where alleged and proved, the plaintiff, in addition to such injunctive relief and costs of suit, including reasonable attorney's fees, shall be entitled to recover from the defendant the actual damages sustained by the plaintiff.

The director of revenue and finance may adopt rules for the enforcement of this chapter and the director is empowered to and may from time to time undertake and make or cause to be made such cost surveys for the state or such trading area or areas as the director shall deem necessary and it shall be permissible to use such cost survey as provided in section 551A.7, subsection 2 and section 551A.8, subsection 2.

The director of revenue and finance may, upon notice and after hearing, suspend or revoke any permit issued under the provisions of the cigarette tax chapter and the rules of the director promulgated thereunder, for failure of the permit holder to comply with any provision of this unfair cigarette sales chapter or any rule adopted thereunder. The suspension or revocation of a permit shall be for a period of not less than six months from the date of suspension or revocation, and no permit shall be issued for the location designated in the suspended or revoked permit, during the period of suspension or revocation.

Judicial review of the actions of the director may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act, and section 422.55.

CHAPTER 552

BUCKET SHOPS

Repealed by 66GA, ch 1056, §45

CHAPTER 553

IOWA COMPETITION LAW

553.1 Short title.

This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Iowa Competition Law".
[C77, 79, 81, §553.1]

553.2 Construction.

This chapter shall be construed to complement and be harmonized with the applied laws of the United States which have the same or similar purpose as this chapter. This construction shall not be made in such a way as to constitute a delegation of state authority to the federal government, but shall be made to achieve uniform application of the state and federal laws prohibiting restraints of economic activity and monopolistic practices.

553.3 Definitions.

As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:
1. "Commodity" means tangible or intangible property, real, personal, or mixed.
2. "Enterprise" means a business, commercial or professional entity, including a corporation, partnership, limited partnership, professional corporation, proprietorship, incorporated or unincorporated association, or other form of organization.
3. "Government agency" means the state, its political subdivisions, and any public agency supported in whole or in part by taxation.
4. "Person" means a natural person, estate, trust, enterprise or government agency.
5. "Price" includes the terms and conditions of sale, rental, rate, fee, or any other form of payment for a commodity or service

6 "Relevant market" means the geographical area of actual or potential competition in a line of commerce, all or any part of which is within this state.

7 "Service" means any activity which is performed in whole or part for financial gain.

8 "Trade or commerce" means any economic activity involving or relating to any commodity, service, or business activity.

§553 4 Restraint prohibited.

A contract, combination, or conspiracy between two or more persons shall not restrain or monopolize trade or commerce in a relevant market.

A person shall not attempt to establish or establish, maintain, or use a monopoly of trade or commerce in a relevant market for the purpose of excluding competition or of controlling, fixing, or maintaining prices.

This chapter shall not be construed to prohibit

1 The activities of any labor organization, individual members of such an organization, or group of such organizations, of any employer or group of employers, or of any groups of employees, if these activities are directed solely to legitimate labor objectives which are permitted under the laws of either this state or the United States.

2 The activities of any agricultural or horticultural organization, whether incorporated or unincorporated, or of the individual members of such organizations, if these activities carry out the legitimate objectives of such organizations, to the extent permitted under the laws of either this state or the United States.

3 The activities of persons engaged in the production of agricultural products when these persons act together in associations, corporate or otherwise, with or without capital stock, in collectively processing, preparing for market, handling, and marketing the products of these persons, to the extent permitted under the laws of either this state or the United States.

These associations may have marketing and purchasing agencies in common and their members may make the necessary contracts and agreements to effect such purposes. However, such associations must be operated for the mutual benefit of the members of these associations acting as producers to qualify under this subsection.

4 The activities or arrangements expressly approved or regulated by any regulatory body or officer acting under authority of this state or of the United States.

5 The activities of a city or county, or an administrative or legal entity created by a city or county, when acting within its statutory or constitutional home rule powers and to the same extent that the activities would not be prohibited if undertaken by the state.

§553 7 Attorney general to enforce.

The attorney general, with such assistance as may be required from time to time of the county attorneys in their respective counties, shall institute all criminal and civil actions and proceedings brought under this Act in the name of the state.

§553 8 Venue.

A suit or proceeding brought under this chapter may be brought in the county where the cause of action arose, where any defendant resides or transacts business, or where an act in furtherance of the conduct prohibited by this chapter occurred.

1 If the attorney general has reasonable cause to believe that a person has engaged in or is engaging in conduct prohibited by this chapter, the attorney general shall make such investigation as is deemed necessary and may, prior to the commencement of a suit against this person under this chapter a Issue written demand on this person, its officers, directors, partners, or fiduciaries, or employees to compel their attendance before the attorney general and examine them under oath, b Issue written demand to produce, examine, and copy a document or tangible item in the possession of this person or its officers, directors, partners, or fiduciaries,

c Upon an order of a district court, pursuant to a showing that such is reasonably necessary to an investigation being conducted under this section

(1) Compel the attendance of any other person before the attorney general and examine this person under oath,

(2) Require the production, examination, and copying of a document or other tangible item in the possession of such person, and,

(3) Upon an order of a district court, impound a document or other tangible item produced pursuant to this section and retain possession of it until the completion of all proceedings arising out of the investigation of such item.

2 A written demand or court order issued pursuant to this section shall contain the following information, as applicable a A reference to this chapter and a general description of the subject matter being investigated, b The date, time and place at which any person is to appear or to produce documents or other tangible items, c Where the production of documents or other tangible items is required, a description of such documents or items by class with sufficient clarity so that they may be reasonably identified

3 Any procedure, testimony taken, or material produced under this section shall be sealed by the court and be kept confidential by the attorney general, until an action is filed against a person under this chapter for the violation under investigation, unless confidentiality is waived by the person being investigated and the person who has testified, answered interrogatories, or produced material, or unless disclosure is authorized by the court for the purposes of interstate cooperation in enforcing this chapter and similar state and federal laws.

4 This chapter shall not be construed to limit or abridge statutory or constitutional limitations on self-incrimination.

5 Evidence obtained from a natural person pursuant to the provisions of this section shall not be introduced in a subsequent criminal prosecution of this person. However, evidence obtained from a natural person pursuant to a grand jury proceeding may be so introduced.

553.12 Remedies.

1 Prevent or restrain conduct prohibited under this chapter and remove the conduct's effect by injunction, divestiture, divolvement, dissolution of domestic enterprises right to do business in this state, compelling the forfeiture or restraint of the issuance of a certificate of incorporation, permit to transact business, license, or franchise, or granting other equitable relief. The state may bring suit under this section without posting bond.

2 Recover actual damages resulting from conduct prohibited under this chapter.

3 Recover, at the court's discretion, exemplary damages which do not exceed twice the actual damages awarded under subsection 2, from a person other than a city or county or legal entity created by a city or county, if:

a The trier of fact determines that the prohibited conduct is willful or flagrant, and,

b The person bringing suit is not the state.

4 Recover the necessary costs of bringing suit, including a reasonable attorney fee. However, the state may not recover any attorney fee.

[C77, 79, 81, §553 12]

553.13 Civil penalty.

In addition to suit under section 553 12, the state may bring suit to assess a civil penalty against an enterprise whose conduct is prohibited under this chapter. The suit may be tried to the jury and the civil penalty provided for in this section shall be imposed by the court. The civil penalty assessed shall not exceed ten percent of the total value of the specific commodities by their brand, make, and size or of services either of which were the subject of the prohibited conduct sold in the relevant market in this state by the enterprise in each year in which this conduct occurred, but this penalty shall not exceed one hundred fifty thousand dollars. In computing this penalty, only the four most recent years in which the prohibited conduct occurred, as of commencement of suit under this section, shall be used in the computation.

553.14 Criminal penalties.

A person or a natural person having substantial control over an enterprise who knowingly and willfully engages in conduct prohibited by this chapter shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

A person having substantial control over an enterprise who knowingly and willfully engages in conduct prohibited by this chapter shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

[C97, §5062, S13, §5062, 5067-c, 5077-a5, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9908, 9918, 9926; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §553 3, 553 13, 553 21, C77, 79, 81, §553 14]

§553.15 Election of remedies.
The bringing of suit to assess a civil penalty against a person by filing a petition shall be an election of remedies to not bring a criminal prosecution against this person. The bringing of a criminal prosecution against a person by filing an information or returning an indictment shall be an election of remedies to not bring suit to assess a civil penalty against this person. [C77, 79, 81, §553.15]

553.16 Limitations.
1. Suit by the state to assess a civil penalty or to obtain a criminal conviction under this chapter must be commenced within four years after the cause of action accrues or, if there is fraudulent concealment of this cause of action, within four years after the cause of action becomes known, whichever period is later.
2. Suit under section 553.12 must be commenced within four years after the cause of action accrues or, if there is a fraudulent concealment of this cause of action, within four years after the cause of action becomes known, whichever period is later. However, if this cause is based, in whole or part, on the same set of facts as alleged in a suit brought under section 553.13, this period shall be suspended until one year after the suit brought under section 553.13 is concluded. [C77, 79, 81, §553.16]

553.17 Prima-facie evidence.
A final decree or judgment, other than a consent decree or consent judgment entered before trial, in a suit brought by the state is prima-facie evidence against the defendant in a suit brought by any person other than the state under section 553.12 as to all matters respecting which this decree or judgment would be an estoppel between the state and the defendant. This section shall not affect the application of collateral estoppel or issue preclusion. [C77, 79, 81, §553.17]

553.18 Debarment.
A contractor or supplier of goods or services to the state or a governmental agency, and the enterprise for which the illegal action was taken, convicted under this chapter, or convicted under the laws of any other state or the federal government for actions which would constitute a violation of this chapter, are prohibited from bidding on a governmental contract for one year from the date of conviction, unless the state or governmental agency accepting bids expressly allows the contractor or supplier to bid after being informed of the conviction. 84 Acts, ch 1143, §2

GENERAL PROVISIONS

PART 1

SHORT TITLE CONSTRUCTION APPLICATION AND SUBJECT MATTER OF THE CHAPTER

§554.1101 Short title.
This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Uniform Commercial Code.

§554.1102 Purposes — rules of construction — variation by agreement.
1 The chapter shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its underlying purposes and policies.
2 Underlying purposes and policies of this chapter are:
   a to simplify, clarify and modernize the law governing commercial transactions, b to permit the continued expansion of commercial practices through custom, usage and agreement of the parties, c to make uniform the law among the various jurisdictions.
3 The effect of provisions of this chapter may be varied by agreement, except as otherwise provided in this chapter and except that the obligation of good faith, diligence, reasonableness and care prescribed by this chapter may not be disclaimed by agreement but the parties may by agreement determine the standards by which the performance of such obligations is to be measured if such standards are not manifestly unreasonable.
4 The presence in certain provisions of this chapter of the words "unless otherwise agreed" or words of similar import does not imply that the effect of other provisions may not be varied by agreement under subsection 3.
5 In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:
   a words in the singular number include the plural, and in the plural include the singular, b words of the masculine gender include the feminine and the neuter, and when the sense so indicates words of the neuter gender may refer to any gender.

§554.1103 Supplementary general principles of law applicable.
Unless displaced by the particular provisions of this chapter, the principles of law and equity, including the law merchant and the law relative to capacity to contract, principal and agent, estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other validating or invalidating cause shall supplement its provisions.

§554.1104 Construction against implicit repeal.
This chapter, being a general act intended as a unified coverage of its subject matter, no part of it shall be deemed to be impliedly repealed by subsequent legislation if such construction can reasonably be avoided.

1 Except as provided hereafter in this section, when a transaction bears a reasonable relation to this state and also to another state or nation the parties may agree that the law either of this state or of such other state or nation shall govern their rights and duties. Failing such agreement this chapter applies to transactions bearing an appropriate relation to this state.
2 Where one of the following provisions of this chapter specifies the applicable law, that provision governs and a contrary agreement is effective only to the extent permitted by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) so specified.

Rights of creditors against sold goods Section 554.2402
Applicability of the Article on Bank Deposits and Collections Section 554.4102
Bulk transfers subject to the Article on Bulk Transfers Section 554.6102
Applicability of the Article on Investment Securities Section 554.8106 Perfection provisions of the Article on Secured Transactions, section 554.9103

§554.1106 Preservation of old transition provision

§554.1107 Transition to this chapter as amended — general rule

§554.1108 Presumption that rule of law continues unchanged

554.1106 Remedies to be liberally administered.
1 The remedies provided by this chapter shall be liberally administered to the end that the aggrieved party may be put in as good a position as if the other party had fully performed but neither consequential or special nor nominal damages may be had except as specifically provided in this chapter or by other rule of law
2 Any right or obligation declared by this chapter is enforceable by action unless the provision declaring it specifies a different and limited effect [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10001; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554 73, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 1106]

554.1107 Waiver or renunciation of claim or right after breach.
Any claim or right arising out of an alleged breach can be discharged in whole or in part without consideration by a written waiver or renunciation signed and delivered by the aggrieved party [S13, §3060 a118, -a122, SS15, §3060 a120, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9579, 9581, 9583; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541 119, 541 121, 541 123, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 1107]

554.1108 Severability.
If any provision or clause of this chapter or application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are declared to be severable [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 1108]

554.1109 Section captions.
Section captions are parts of this chapter [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 1109]

554.1110 Rules for filing and indexing.*
The secretary of state shall make and promulgate rules for all filing and indexing pursuant to this chapter and chapter 555 including but not limited to rules on whether statements and documents shall be indexed in real estate records [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 1110]

22 “Insolvency proceedings” includes any assignment for the benefit of creditors or other proceedings intended to liquidate or rehabilitate the estate of the person involved.

23 A person is “insolvent” who either has ceased to pay that person’s debts in the ordinary course of business or cannot pay that person’s debts as they become due or is insolvent within the meaning of the federal bankruptcy law.

24 “Money” means a medium of exchange authorized or adopted by a domestic or foreign government as a part of its currency.

25 A person has “notice” of a fact when:
   a. the person has actual knowledge of it, or
   b. the person has received a notice or notification of it, or
   c. from all the facts and circumstances known to the person at the time in question the person has reason to know that it exists. A person “knows” or has “knowledge” of a fact when that person has actual knowledge of it “Discover” or “learn” or a word or phrase of similar import refers to knowledge rather than to reason to know. The time and circumstances under which a notice or notification may cease to be effective are not determined by this chapter.

26 A person “notifies” or “gives” a notice or notification to another by taking such steps as may be reasonably required to inform the other in ordinary course whether or not such other actually comes to know of it. A person “receives” a notice or notification when:
   a. it comes to that person’s attention, or
   b. it is duly delivered at the place of business through which the contract was made or at any other place held out by that person as the place for receipt of such communications.

27 Notice, knowledge or a notice or notification received by an organization is effective for a particular transaction from the time when it is brought to the attention of the individual conducting that transaction, and in any event from the time when it would have been brought to that individual’s attention if the organization had exercised due diligence. An organization exercises due diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the person conducting the transaction and there is reasonable compliance with the routines. Due diligence does not require an individual acting for the organization to communicate information unless such communication is part of that individual’s regular duties or unless the individual has reason to know of the transaction and that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.

28 “Organization” includes a corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

29 “Party”, as distinct from “third party”, means a person who has engaged in a transaction or made an agreement within this chapter.

30 “Person” includes an individual or an organization (See section 554.1102).

31 “Presumption” or “presumed” means that the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact presumed unless and until evidence is introduced which would support a finding of its nonexistence.

32 “Purchase” means any voluntary transaction creating an interest in property, including taking by sale, discount, negotiation, mortgage, pledge, voluntary lien, issue, reissue or gift.

33 “Purchaser” means a person who takes by purchase.

34 “Remedy” means any remedial right to which an aggrieved party is entitled with or without resort to a tribunal.

35 “Representative” includes an agent, an officer of a corporation or association, and a trustee, executor or administrator of an estate, or any other person empowered to act for another.

36 “Rights” includes remedies.

37 “Security interest” means an interest in personal property or fixtures which secures payment or performance of an obligation. The retention or reservation of title by a seller of goods notwithstanding shipment or delivery to the buyer (section 554.2401) is limited in effect to a reservation of a “security interest.” The term also includes any interest of a buyer of accounts or chattel paper which is subject to Article 9 of the Special property interest of a buyer of goods on identification of such goods to a contract for sale under section 554.2401 is not a “security interest”, but a buyer may also acquire a “security interest” by complying with Article 9. Unless a lease or consignment is intended as security, reservation of title thereunder is not a “security interest” but a consignment is in any event subject to the provisions on consignment sales (section 554.2326). Whether a lease is intended as security is to be determined by the facts of each case, however, (a) the inclusion of an option to purchase does not of itself make the lease one intended for security, and (b) an agreement that upon compliance with the terms of the lease the lessee shall become or have the option to become the owner of the property for no additional consideration or for a nominal consideration does make the lease one intended for security.
§554.1206  Time — reasonable time — "seasonably".
1 Whenever this chapter requires any action to be taken within a reasonable time, any time which is not manifestly unreasonable may be fixed by agreement.
2 What is a reasonable time for taking any action depends on the nature, purpose and circumstances of such action.
3 An action is taken "seasonably" when it is taken at or within the time agreed or if no time is agreed at or within a reasonable time.

2 A usage of trade is any practice or method of dealing having such regularity of observance in a place, vocation or trade as to justify an expectation that it will be observed with respect to the transaction in question. The existence and scope of such a usage are to be proved as facts if it is established that such a usage is embodied in a written trade code or similar writing. The interpretation of the writing is for the court.
3 A course of dealing between parties and any usage of trade in the vocation or trade in which they are engaged or of which they are or should be aware give particular meaning to and supplement or qualify terms of an agreement.
4 The express terms of an agreement and an applicable course of dealing or usage of trade shall be construed wherever reasonable as consistent with each other, but when such construction is unreasonable express terms control both course of dealing and usage of trade and course of dealing controls usage of trade.
5 An applicable usage of trade in the place where any part of performance is to occur shall be used in interpreting the agreement as to that part of the performance.
6 Evidence of a relevant usage of trade offered by one party is not admissible unless and until that party has given the other party such notice as the court finds sufficient to prevent unfair surprise to the latter.

§554.1204  Time — reasonable time — "seasonably".
1 Whenever this chapter requires any action to be taken within a reasonable time, any time which is not manifestly unreasonable may be fixed by agreement.
2 What is a reasonable time for taking any action depends on the nature, purpose and circumstances of such action.
3 An action is taken "seasonably" when it is taken at or within the time agreed or if no time is agreed at or within a reasonable time.

2 A usage of trade is any practice or method of dealing having such regularity of observance in a place, vocation or trade as to justify an expectation that it will be observed with respect to the transaction in question. The existence and scope of such a usage are to be proved as facts if it is established that such a usage is embodied in a written trade code or similar writing. The interpretation of the writing is for the court.
3 A course of dealing between parties and any usage of trade in the vocation or trade in which they are engaged or of which they are or should be aware give particular meaning to and supplement or qualify terms of an agreement.
4 The express terms of an agreement and an applicable course of dealing or usage of trade shall be construed wherever reasonable as consistent with each other, but when such construction is unreasonable express terms control both course of dealing and usage of trade and course of dealing controls usage of trade.
5 An applicable usage of trade in the place where any part of performance is to occur shall be used in interpreting the agreement as to that part of the performance.
6 Evidence of a relevant usage of trade offered by one party is not admissible unless and until that party has given the other party such notice as the court finds sufficient to prevent unfair surprise to the latter.

§554.1206  Statute of frauds for kinds of personal property not otherwise covered.
1 Except in the cases described in subsection 2 of this section a contract for the sale of personal property is not enforceable by way of action or defense beyond five thousand dollars in amount or value of remedy unless there is some writing which indicates that a contract for sale has been made between the parties at a defined or stated price, reasonably identifies the subject matter, and is signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by that party's authorized agent.
2 Subsection 1 of this section does not apply to contracts for the sale of goods (section 554.2201) nor of securities (section 554 8319) nor to security agreements (section 554 9203).

554 1207 Performance or acceptance under reservation of rights.
A party who with explicit reservation of rights performs or promises performance or assents to performance in a manner demanded or offered by the other party does not thereby prejudice the rights reserved. Such words as "without prejudice", "under protest" or the like are sufficient.

554 1208 Option to accelerate at will.
A term providing that one party or that party's successor in interest may accelerate payment or performance or require collateral or additional collateral "at will" or "when the party deems itself insecure" or in words of similar import shall be construed to mean that that party shall have power to do so only if that party in good faith believes that the prospect of payment or performance is impaired. The burden of establishing lack of good faith is on the party against whom the power has been exercised.

An obligation may be issued as subordinated to payment of another obligation of the person obligated, or a creditor may subordinate the creditor's right to payment of an obligation by agreement with either the person obligated or another creditor of the person obligated. Such a subordination does not create a security interest as against either the common debtor or a subordinated creditor. This section shall be construed as declaring the law as it existed prior to the enactment of this section and not as modifying it.

4 In addition Article 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this Article

1 “Merchant” means a person who deals in goods of the kind or otherwise by the person’s occupation holds that person out as having knowledge or skill peculiar to the practices or goods involved in the transaction or to whom such knowledge or skill may be attributed by the person’s employment of an agent or broker or other intermediary by whom the intermediary’s occupation holds the intermediary out as having such knowledge or skill.
2 “Financing agency” means a bank, finance company or other person who in the ordinary course of business makes advances against goods or documents of title or who by arrangement with either the seller or the buyer intervenes in ordinary course to make or collect payment due or claimed under the contract for sale, as by purchasing or paying the seller’s draft or making advances against it or by merely taking it for collection whether or not documents of title accompany the draft. “Financing agency” includes also a bank or other person who similarly intervenes between persons who are in the position of seller and buyer in respect to the goods (section 554 2707).
3 “Between merchants” means in any transaction with respect to which both parties are chargeable with the knowledge or skill of merchants.

1 “Goods” means all things (including specially manufactured goods) which are movable at the time of identification to the contract for sale other than the money in which the price is to be paid, investment securities (Article 8) and things in action. “Goods” also includes the unborn young of animals and growing crops and other identified things attached to realty as described in the section on goods to be severed from realty (section 554 2107).
2 Goods must be both existing and identified before any interest in them can pass. Goods which are not both existing and identified are “future” goods. A purported present sale of future goods or of any interest therein operates as a contract to sell.
3 There may be a sale of a part interest in existing identified goods.

4 An undivided share in an identified bulk of fungible goods is sufficiently identified to be sold although the quantity of the bulk is not determined. Any agreed proportion of such a bulk or any quantity thereof agreed upon by number, weight or other measure may to the extent of the seller’s interest in the bulk be sold to the buyer who then becomes an owner in common. 5 “Lot” means a parcel or a single article which is the subject matter of a separate sale or delivery, whether or not it is sufficient to perform the contract.
6 “Commercial unit” means such a unit of goods as by commercial usage is a single whole for purposes of sale and division of which materially impairs its character or value on the market or in use. A commercial unit may be a single article (as a machine) or a set of articles (as a suite of furniture or an assortment of sizes) or a quantity (as a bale, gross, or carload) or any other unit treated in use or in the relevant market as a single whole.

1 In this Article unless the context otherwise requires “contract” and “agreement” are limited to those relating to the present or future sale of goods. “Contract for sale” includes both a present sale of goods and a contract to sell goods at a future time. A “sale” consists in the passing of title from the seller to the buyer for a price (section 554 2401). A “present sale” means a sale which is accomplished by the making of the contract.
2 Goods or conduct including any part of a performance are “conforming” or conform to the contract when they are in accordance with the obligations under the contract.
3 “Termination” occurs when either party pursuant to a power created by agreement or law puts an end to the contract otherwise than for its breach. On “termination” all obligations which are still executory on both sides are discharged but any right based on prior breach or performance survives.
4 “Cancellation” occurs when either party puts an end to the contract for breach by the other and its effect is the same as that of “termination” except that the canceling party also retains any remedy for breach of the whole contract or any unperformed balance.

§554.2107 Goods to be severed from realty: recording.
1 A contract for the sale of minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or a structure or its materials to be removed from realty is a contract for the sale of goods within this Article if they are to be severed by the seller but until severance a purported present sale thereof which is not effective as a transfer of an interest in land is effective only as a contract to sell.
2 A contract for the sale apart from the land of growing crops or other things attached to realty and capable of severance without material harm thereon but not described in subsection 1 or of timber to be cut is a contract for the sale of goods within this Article.
whether the subject matter is to be severed by the buyer or by the seller even though it forms part of the realty at the time of contracting, and the parties can by identification effect a present sale before severance

3. The provisions of this section are subject to any third party rights provided by the law relating to realty records, and the contract for sale may be executed and recorded as a document transferring an interest in land and shall then constitute notice to third parties of the buyer's rights under the contract for sale.

FORM FORMATION AND READJUSTMENT
OF CONTRACT

554.2201 Formal requirements — statute of frauds.

1. Except as otherwise provided in this section a contract for the sale of goods for the price of five hundred dollars or more is not enforceable by way of action or defense unless there is some writing sufficient to indicate that a contract for sale has been made between the parties and signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by that party's authorized agent or broker. A writing is not insufficient because it omits or incorrectly states a term agreed upon but the contract is not enforceable under this paragraph beyond the quantity of goods shown in such writing.

2. Between merchants if within a reasonable time a writing in confirmation of the contract and sufficient against the sender is received and the party receiving it has reason to know its contents, it satisfies the requirements of subsection 1 against such party unless written notice of objection to its contents is given within ten days after it is received.

3. A contract which does not satisfy the requirements of subsection 1 but which is valid in other respects is enforceable.

a. If the goods are to be specially manufactured for the buyer and are not suitable for sale to others in the ordinary course of the seller's business and the seller, before notice of repudiation is received and under circumstances which reasonably indicate that the goods are for the buyer, has made either a substantial beginning of their manufacture or commitments for their procurement, or

b. If the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party's pleading, testimony or otherwise in court that a contract for sale was made, but the contract is not enforceable under this provision beyond the quantity of goods admitted, or

c. With respect to goods for which payment has been made and accepted or which have been received and accepted (section 554 2606).

554.2202 Final written expression — parol or extrinsic evidence.

Terms with respect to which the confirmatory memorandum of the parties agree or which are otherwise set forth in a writing intended by the parties as a final expression of their agreement with respect to such terms as are included therein may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior agreement or of a contemporaneous oral agreement but may be explained or supplemented

a. By course of dealing or usage of trade (section 554 1205) or by course of performance (section 554 2208), and

b. By evidence of consistent additional terms unless the court finds the writing to have been intended also as a complete and exclusive statement of the terms of the agreement.

554.2203 Seals inoperative.

The affixing of a seal to a writing evidencing a contract for sale or an offer to buy or sell goods does not constitute the writing a sealed instrument and the law with respect to sealed instruments does not apply to such a contract or offer.

554.2204 Formation in general.

1. A contract for sale of goods may be made in any manner sufficient to show agreement, including conduct by both parties which recognizes the existence of such a contract.

2. An agreement sufficient to constitute a contract for sale may be found even though the moment of its making is undetermined.

3. Even though one or more terms are left open a contract for sale does not fail for indefiniteness if the parties have intended to make a contract and there is a reasonably certain basis for giving an appropriate remedy.

554.2205 Firm offers.

An offer by a merchant to buy or sell goods in a signed writing which by its terms gives assurance that it will be held open is not revocable, for lack of consideration, during the time stated or if no time is stated for a reasonable time, but in no event may such period of irrevocability exceed three months, but any such term of assurance on a form supplied by the offeror may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior agreement or of a contemporaneous oral agreement.

554.2206 Offer and acceptance in formation of contract.

1. Unless otherwise unambiguously indicated by the language or circumstances

a. An offer to make a contract shall be construed as inviting acceptance in any manner and by any medium reasonably in the circumstances,

b. An order or other offer to buy goods for prompt or current shipment shall be construed as inviting acceptance either by a prompt promise to ship or by the prompt or current shipment of conforming or nonconforming goods, but such a shipment of nonconforming goods does not constitute an acceptance if the seller seasonably notifies the buyer that the shipment is offered only as an accommodation to the buyer.

2. Where the beginning of a requested perform
554.2207 Additional terms in acceptance or confirmation.

1. A definite and seasonable expression of acceptance or a written confirmation which is sent within a reasonable time operates as an acceptance even though it states terms additional to or different from those offered or agreed upon, unless acceptance is expressly made conditional on assent to the additional or different terms.

2. The additional terms are to be construed as proposals for addition to the contract. Between merchants such terms become part of the contract unless:
   a. the offer expressly limits acceptance to the terms of the offer;
   b. they materially alter it; or
   c. notification of objection to them has already been given or is given within a reasonable time after notice of them is received.

3. Conduct by both parties which recognizes the existence of a contract is sufficient to establish a contract for sale although the writings of the parties do not otherwise establish a contract. In such case the terms of the particular contract consist of those terms on which the writings of the parties agree, together with any supplementary terms incorporated under any other provisions of this chapter.

554.2208 Course of performance or practical construction.

1. Where the contract for sale involves repeated occasions for performance by either party with knowledge of the nature of the performance and opportunity for objection to it by the other, any course of performance accepted or acquiesced in without objection shall be relevant to determine the meaning of the agreement.

2. The express terms of the agreement and any such course of performance, as well as any course of dealing and usage of trade, shall be construed whenever reasonable as consistent with each other; but when such construction is unreasonable, express terms shall control course of performance and course of performance shall control both course of dealing and usage of trade (section 554.1205).

3. Subject to the provisions of the next section on modification and waiver, such course of performance shall be relevant to show a waiver or modification of any term inconsistent with such course of performance.

554.2209 Modification, rescission and waiver.

1. An agreement modifying a contract within this Article needs no consideration to be binding.

2. A signed agreement which excludes modification or rescission except by a signed writing cannot be otherwise modified or rescinded, but except as between merchants such a requirement on a form supplied by the merchant must be separately signed by the other party.

3. The requirements of the statute of frauds section of this Article (section 554.2201) must be satisfied if the contract as modified is within its provisions.

4. Although an attempt at modification or rescission does not satisfy the requirements of subsection 2 or 3 it can operate as a waiver.

5. A party who has made a waiver affecting an executory portion of the contract may retract the waiver by reasonable notification received by the other party that strict performance will be required of any term waived, unless the retraction would be unjust in view of a material change of position in reliance on the waiver.

554.2210 Delegation of performance — assignment of rights.

1. A party may perform that party's duty through a delegate unless otherwise agreed or unless the other party has a substantial interest in having the original promisor perform or control the acts required by the contract. No delegation of performance relieves the party delegating of any duty to perform or any liability for breach.

2. Unless otherwise agreed all rights of either seller or buyer can be assigned except where the assignment would materially change the duty of the other party, or increase materially the burden of risk imposed on the other party by the contract, or impair materially the other party's chance of obtaining return performance. A right to damages for breach of the whole contract or a right arising out of the assignor's due performance of the assignor's entire obligation can be assigned despite agreement otherwise.

3. Unless the circumstances indicate the contrary a prohibition of assignment of "the contract" is to be construed as barring only the delegation to the assignee of the assignor's performance.

4. An assignment of "the contract" or of "all my rights under the contract" or an assignment in similar general terms is an assignment of rights and unless the language or the circumstances (as in an assignment for security) indicate the contrary, it is a delegation of performance of the duties of the assignor and its acceptance by the assignee constitutes a promise by the assignee to perform those duties. This promise is enforceable by either the assignor or the other party to the original contract.

5. The other party may treat any assignment which delegates performance as creating reasonable grounds for insecurity and may without prejudice to that party's rights against the assignor demand assurances from the assignee (section 554.2609).

GENERAL OBLIGATION AND CONSTRUCTION

OF CONTRACT

554.2301 General obligations of parties.

The obligation of the seller is to transfer and deliver and that of the buyer is to accept and pay in accord-
§554.2301

Unconscionable contract or clause.

1 If the court as a matter of law finds the contract or any clause of the contract to have been unconscionable at the time it was made the court may refuse to enforce the contract, or it may enforce the remainder of the contract without the unconscionable clause, or it may so limit the application of any unconscionable clause as to avoid any unconscionable result.

2 When it is claimed or appears to the court that the contract or any clause thereof may be unconscionable the parties shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present evidence as to its commercial setting, purpose and effect to aid the court in making the determination.

Allocation or division of risks.

Where this Article allocates a risk or a burden as between the parties “unless otherwise agreed”, the agreement may not only shift the allocation but may also divide the risk or burden.

Price payable in money, goods, realty, or otherwise.

1 The price can be made payable in money or otherwise. If it is payable in whole or in part in goods each party is a seller of the goods which that party is to transfer.

2 Even though all or part of the price is payable in money or otherwise in an interest in realty the transfer of the goods and the seller's obligations with reference to them are subject to this Article, but not the transfer of the interest in realty or the transferor's obligations in connection therewith.

Open price term.

1 The parties if they so intend can conclude a contract for sale even though the price is not settled. In such a case the price is a reasonable price at the time of delivery if:

a nothing is said as to price, or b the price is left to be agreed by the parties and they fail to agree, or c the price is to be fixed in terms of some agreed market or other standard as set or recorded by a third person or agency and it is not so set or recorded

2 A price to be fixed by the seller or by the buyer means a price for that party to fix in good faith.

3 When a price left to be fixed otherwise than by agreement of the parties fails to be fixed through fault of one party the other may at that party's option treat the contract as canceled or fix a reasonable price.

4 Where, however, the parties intend not to be bound unless the price be fixed or agreed and it is not fixed or agreed there is no contract. In such a case the buyer must return any goods already received or if unable so to do must pay their reasonable value at the time of delivery and the seller must return any portion of the price paid on account.

Output, requirements and exclusive dealings.

1 A term which measures the quantity by the output of the seller or the requirements of the buyer means such actual output or requirements as may occur in good faith, except that no quantity unreasonably disproportionate to any stated estimate or in the absence of a stated estimate to any normal or otherwise comparable prior output or requirements may be tendered or demanded.

2 A lawful agreement by either the seller or the buyer for exclusive dealing in the kind of goods concerned imposes unless otherwise agreed an obligation by the seller to use best efforts to supply the goods and by the buyer to use best efforts to promote their sale.

Delivery in single lot or several lots.

Unless otherwise agreed all goods called for by a contract for sale must be tendered in a single delivery and payment is due only on such tender but where the circumstances give either party the right to make or demand delivery in lots the price if it can be apportioned may be demanded for each lot.

Absence of specified place for delivery.

Unless otherwise agreed a the place for delivery of goods is the seller's place of business or if the seller has none the seller's residence, but:

b in a contract for sale of identified goods which to the knowledge of the parties at the time of contracting are in some other place, that place is the place for their delivery, and:

c documents of title may be delivered through customary banking channels.

Absence of specific time provisions — notice of termination.

1 The time for shipment or delivery or any other action under a contract if not provided in this Article or agreed upon shall be a reasonable time.

2 Where the contract provides for successive performances but is indefinite in duration it is valid for a reasonable time but unless otherwise agreed may be terminated at any time by either party.

3 Termination of a contract by one party except on the happening of an agreed event requires that reasonable notice be received by the other party and an agreement dispensing with notification is in effect if its operation would be unconscionable.

Open time for payment or running of credit — authority to ship under reservation.

Unless otherwise agreed:

a payment is due at the time and place at which the buyer is to receive the goods even though the place of shipment is the place of delivery, and

b if the seller is authorized to send the goods the seller may ship them under reservation, and may tend the documents of title, but the buyer may inspect the goods after their arrival before payment is due unless such inspection is inconsistent with the terms of the contract (section 554 2513), and c if delivery is authorized and made by way of documents of title otherwise than by subsection "b" then payment is due at the time and place at which the buyer is to receive the documents regardless of where the goods are to be received, and

d where the seller is required or authorized to ship the goods on credit the credit period runs from the time of shipment but postdating the invoice or delaying its dispatch will correspondingly delay the starting of the credit period

554.2311 Options and co-operation respecting performance.

1 An agreement for sale which is otherwise sufficiently definite (subsection 3 of section 554 2204) to be a contract is not made invalid by the fact that it leaves particulars of performance to be specified by one of the parties. Any such specification must be made in good faith and within limits set by commercial reasonableness.

2 Unless otherwise agreed specifications relating to assortment of the goods are at the buyer’s option and except as otherwise provided in subsections 1 "c" and 3 of section 554 2319 specifications or arrangements relating to shipment are at the seller’s option.

3 Where such specification would materially affect the other party’s performance but is not reasonably made or where one party’s co-operation is necessary to the agreed performance of the other but is not reasonably forthcoming the other party in addition to all other remedies a is excused for any resulting delay in that party’s own performance, and

b may also either proceed to perform in any reasonable manner or after the time for a material part of that party’s own performance treat the failure to specify or to co-operate as a breach by failure to deliver or accept the goods

554.2312 Warranty of title and against infringement — buyer’s obligation against infringement.

1 Subject to subsection 2 there is in a contract for sale a warranty by the seller that a the title conveyed shall be good, and its transfer rightful, and

b the goods shall be delivered free from any security interest or other lien or encumbrance of which the buyer at the time of contracting has no knowledge.

2 A warranty under subsection 1 will be excluded or modified by specific language or by circumstances which give the buyer reason to know that the person selling does not claim title or that the person selling is purporting to sell only such right or title as the person selling or a third person may have

3 Unless otherwise agreed a seller who is a merchant regularly dealing in goods of the kind warrants that the goods shall be delivered free of the rightful claim of any third person by way of infringement or the like but a buyer who furnishes specifications to the seller must hold the seller harmless against any such claim which arises out of compliance with the specifications.

554.2313 Express warranties by affirmation, promise, description, sample.

1 Express warranties by the seller are created as follows

a Any affirmation of fact or promise made by the seller to the buyer which relates to the goods and becomes part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the goods shall conform to the affirmation or promise.

b Any description of the goods which is made part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the goods shall conform to the description.

c Any sample or model which is made part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the whole of the goods shall conform to the sample or model.

2 It is not necessary to the creation of an express warranty that the seller use formal words such as “warrant” or “guarantee” or that the seller have a specific intention to make a warranty, but an affirmation merely of the value of the goods or a statement purporting to be merely the seller’s opinion or commendation of the goods does not create a warranty.

554.2314 Implied warranty: merchantability — usage of trade.

1 Unless excluded or modified (section 554 2316), a warranty that the goods shall be merchantable is implied in a contract for their sale if the seller is a merchant with respect to goods of that kind. Under this section the serving for value of food or drink to be consumed either on the premises or elsewhere is a sale.

2 Goods to be merchantable must be at least such as a pass without objection in the trade under the contract description, and b in the case of fungible goods, are of fair average quality within the description, and c are fit for the ordinary purposes for which such goods are used, and d run, within the variations permitted by the agreement of even kind, quality and quantity within each unit and among all units involved, and e are adequately contained, packaged, and labeled as the agreement may require, and f conform to the promises or affirmations of fact made on the container or label if any.

3 Unless excluded or modified (section 554 2316) other implied warranties may arise from course of dealing or usage of trade.

Limitation §613 18

554.2315 Implied warranty — fitness for particular purpose.

Where the seller at the time of contracting has reason to know any particular purpose for which the goods are required and that the buyer is relying on the seller's skill or judgment to select or furnish suitable goods, there is unless unless excluded or modified under the next section an implied warranty that the goods shall be fit for such purpose

554.2318 Third party beneficiaries of warranties express or implied.
A seller's warranty whether express or implied extends to any person who may reasonably be expected to use, consume or be affected by the goods and who is injured by breach of the warranty. A seller may not exclude or limit the operation of this section with respect to injury to the person of an individual to whom the warranty extends

1 Unless otherwise agreed the term F O B (which means "free on board") at a named place, even though used only in connection with the stated price, is a delivery term under which a when the term is F O B the place of shipment, the seller must at that place ship the goods in the manner provided in this Article (section 554 2504) and bear the expense and risk of putting them into the possession of the carrier, or b when the term is F O B the place of destination, the seller must at the seller's own expense and risk transport the goods to that place and there tender delivery of them in the manner provided in this Article (section 554 2504) and bear the expense and risk of putting them into the possession of the buyer, or c when under either "a" or "b" the term is also F A S vessel, car or other vehicle, the seller must in addition at the seller's own expense and risk load the goods on board. If the term is F O B vessel the buyer must name the vessel and in an appropriate case the seller must comply with the provisions of this Article on the form of bill of lading (section 554 2323)

2 Unless otherwise agreed the term F A S vessel (which means "free alongside") at a named port, even though used only in connection with the stated price, is a delivery term under which the seller must

a at the seller's own expense and risk deliver the goods alongside the vessel in the manner usual in that port or on a dock designated and provided by the buyer, and

b obtain and tender a receipt for the goods in exchange for which the carrier is under a duty to issue a bill of lading

3 Unless otherwise agreed in any case falling with in subsection 1 "a" or "c" or subsection 2 the buyer must seasonably give any needed instructions for making delivery, including when the term is F A S or F O B the loading berth of the vessel and in an appropriate case its name and sailing date. The seller may treat the failure of needed instructions as a failure of cooperation under this Article (section 554 2311). The seller may also at the seller's option move the goods in any reasonable manner preparatory to delivery or shipment

4 Under the term F O B vessel or F A S unless otherwise agreed the buyer must make payment against tender of the required documents and the seller may not tender nor the buyer demand delivery of the goods in substitution for the documents

1 The term C.I.F. means that the price includes in a lump sum the cost of the goods and the insurance and freight to the named destination. The term C & F or C.F. means that the price so includes cost and freight to the named destination.

2 Unless otherwise agreed and even though used only in connection with the stated price and destination, the term C.I.F. destination or its equivalent requires the seller at the seller's own expense and risk to:
   a put the goods into the possession of a carrier at the port for shipment and obtain a negotiable bill or bills of lading covering the entire transportation to the named destination, and b load the goods and obtain a receipt from the carrier (which may be contained in the bill of lading) showing that the freight has been paid or provided for, and c obtain a policy or certificate of insurance, including any war risk insurance, of a kind and on terms then current at the port of shipment in the usual amount, in the currency of the contract, shown to cover the same goods covered by the bill of lading and providing for payment of loss to the order of the buyer or for the account of whom it may concern, but the seller may add to the price the amount of the premium for any such war risk insurance, and d prepare an invoice of the goods and procure any other documents required to effect shipment or to comply with the contract, and e forward and tender with commercial promptness all the documents in due form and with any endorsement necessary to perfect the buyer's rights.

3 Unless otherwise agreed the term C & F or its equivalent has the same effect and imposes upon the seller the same obligations and risks as a C.I.F. term except the obligation as to insurance.

4 Under the term C.I.F. or C & F unless otherwise agreed the buyer must make payment against tender of the required documents and the seller may not tender nor the buyer demand delivery of the goods in substitution for the documents.

C.I.F. or C. & F. — "net landed weights" — "payment on arrival" — warranty of condition on arrival.

Under a contract containing a term C.I.F. or C & F

1 Where the price is based on or is to be adjusted according to "net landed weights", "delivered weights", "out turn" quantity or quality or the like, unless otherwise agreed the seller must reasonably estimate the price. The payment due on tender of the documents called for by the contract is the amount so estimated, but after final adjustment of the price a settlement must be made with commercial promptness.

2 An agreement described in subsection 1 or any warranty of quality or condition of the goods on arrival places upon the seller the risk of ordinary deterioration, shrinkage and the like in transportation but has no effect on the place or time of identification to the contract for sale or delivery or on the passing of the risk of loss.

3 Unless otherwise agreed where the contract provides for payment on or after arrival of the goods the seller must before payment allow such preliminary in-spection as is feasible, but if the goods are lost or destroyed or if the documents are not tendered or payment is not made when due the seller must notify the buyer thereof.

C.I.F. or C. & F. — "net landed weights" or "delivered weights" — "payment on arrival" — warranty of condition on arrival.

Under a contract containing a term C.I.F. or C & F

1 Where the price is based on or is to be adjusted according to "net landed weights", "delivered weights", "out turn" quantity or quality or the like, unless otherwise agreed the seller must reasonably estimate the price. The payment due on tender of the documents called for by the contract is the amount so estimated, but after final adjustment of the price a settlement must be made with commercial promptness.

2 An agreement described in subsection 1 or any warranty of quality or condition of the goods on arrival places upon the seller the risk of ordinary deterioration, shrinkage and the like in transportation but has no effect on the place or time of identification to the contract for sale or delivery or on the passing of the risk of loss.

3 Unless otherwise agreed where the contract provides for payment on or after arrival of the goods the seller must before payment allow such preliminary in-spection as is feasible, but if the goods are lost or destroyed or if the documents are not tendered or payment is not made when due the seller must notify the buyer thereof.

Delivery "ex-ship".

1 Unless otherwise agreed a term for delivery of goods "ex ship" (which means from the carrying vessel) or in equivalent language is not restricted to a particular ship and requires delivery from a ship which has reached a place at the named port of destination where goods of the kind are usually discharged.

2 Under such a term unless otherwise agreed:
   a the seller must discharge all liens arising out of the carriage and furnish the buyer with a direction which puts the carrier under a duty to deliver the goods, and b the risk of loss does not pass to the buyer until the goods leave the ship's tackle or are otherwise properly unloaded.

Form of bill of lading required in overseas shipment — "overseas".

1 Where the contract contemplates overseas shipment and contains a term C.I.F. or C & F or FOB vessel, the seller unless otherwise agreed must obtain a negotiable bill of lading stating that the goods have been loaded on board or, in the case of a term C.I.F. or C & F, received for shipment.

2 Where in a case within subsection 1 a bill of lading has been issued in a set of parts, unless otherwise agreed if the documents are not to be sent from abroad the buyer may demand tender of the full set, otherwise only one part of the bill of lading need be tendered. Even if the agreement expressly requires a full set:
   a a due tender of a single part is acceptable within the provisions of this Article on cure of improper delivery (subsection 1 of section 554.2508), and b even though the full set is demanded, if the documents are sent from abroad the person tendering an incomplete set may nevertheless require payment upon furnishing an indemnity which the buyer in good faith deems adequate.

3 A shipment by water or by air or a contract contemplating such shipment is "overseas" in so far as by usage of trade or agreement it is subject to the commercial, financing or shipping practices characteristic of international deep water commerce.

"No arrival, no sale" term.

Under a term "no arrival, no sale" or terms of like meaning, unless otherwise agreed, a the seller must properly ship conforming goods and if they arrive by any means the seller must tender them on arrival but the seller assumes no obligation that the goods will arrive unless the seller has caused the nonarrival, and b where without fault of the seller the goods are in part lost or have so deteriorated as no longer to conform to the contract or arrive after the contract time, the buyer may proceed as if there had been casualty to identified goods (section 554.2613).

554.2325 "Letter of credit" term — "confirmed credit".

1. Failure of the buyer seasonably to furnish an agreed letter of credit is a breach of the contract for sale.
2. The delivery to seller of a proper letter of credit suspends the buyer's obligation to pay. If the letter of credit is dishonored, the seller may on reasonable notification to the buyer require payment directly from the buyer.
3. Unless otherwise agreed the term "letter of credit" or "banker's credit" in a contract for sale means an irrevocable credit issued by a financing agency of good repute and, where the shipment is overseas, of good international repute. The term "confirmed credit" means that the credit must also carry the direct obligation of such an agency which does business in the seller's financial market.

554.2326 Sale on approval and sale or return — consignment sales and rights of creditors.

1. Unless otherwise agreed, if delivered goods may be returned by the buyer even though they conform to the contract, the transaction is
   a. a "sale on approval" if the goods are delivered primarily for use, and
   b. a "sale or return" if the goods are delivered primarily for resale.
2. Except as provided in subsection 3, goods held on approval are not subject to the claims of the buyer's creditors until acceptance; goods held on sale or return are subject to such claims while in the buyer's possession.
3. Where goods are delivered to a person for sale and such person maintains a place of business at which that person deals in goods of the kind involved, under a name other than the name of the person making delivery, then with respect to claims of creditors of the person conducting the business the goods are deemed to be on sale or return. The provisions of this subsection are applicable even though an agreement purports to reserve title to the person making delivery until payment or resale or uses such words as "on consignment" or "on memorandum". However, this subsection is not applicable if the person making delivery
   a. complies with an applicable law providing for a consignor's interest or the like to be evidenced by a sign, or
   b. establishes that the person conducting the business is generally known by creditors of the person conducting the business to be substantially engaged in selling the goods of others, or
   c. complies with the filing provisions of the Article on Secured Transactions (Article 9).
4. Any "or return" term of a contract for sale is to be treated as a separate contract for sale within the statute of frauds section of this Article (section 554.2201) and as contradicting the sale aspect of the contract within the provisions of this Article on parol or extrinsic evidence (section 554.2202).

554.2327 Special incidents of sale on approval and sale or return.

1. Under a sale on approval unless otherwise agreed
   a. although the goods are identified to the contract the risk of loss and the title do not pass to the buyer until acceptance; and
   b. use of the goods consistent with the purpose of trial is not acceptance but failure seasonably to notify the seller of election to return the goods is acceptance, and if the goods conform to the contract acceptance of any part is acceptance of the whole; and
   c. after due notification of election to return, the return is at the seller's risk and expense but a merchant buyer must follow any reasonable instructions.
2. Under a sale or return unless otherwise agreed
   a. the option to return extends to the whole or any commercial unit of the goods while in substantially their original condition, but must be exercised seasonably; and
   b. the return is at the buyer's risk and expense.

554.2328 Sale by auction.

1. In a sale by auction if goods are put up in lots each lot is the subject of a separate sale.
2. A sale by auction is complete when the auctioneer so announces by the fall of the hammer or in other customary manner. Where a bid is made while the hammer is falling in acceptance of a prior bid the auctioneer may in the auctioneer's discretion reopen the bidding or declare the goods sold under the bid on which the hammer was falling.
3. Such a sale is with reserve unless the goods are in explicit terms put up without reserve. In an auction with reserve the auctioneer may withdraw the goods at any time until the auctioneer announces completion of the sale. In an auction without reserve, after the auctioneer calls for bids on an article or lot, that article or lot cannot be withdrawn unless no bid is made within a reasonable time. In either case a bidder may retract the bidder's bid until the auctioneer's announcement of completion of the sale, but a bidder's retraction does not revive any previous bid.
4. If the auctioneer knowingly receives a bid on the seller's behalf or the seller makes or procures such a bid, and notice has not been given that liberty for such bidding is reserved, the buyer may at the buyer's option avoid the sale or take the goods at the price of the last good faith bid prior to the completion of the sale. This subsection shall not apply to any bid at a forced sale.

PART 4

TITLE, CREDITORS, AND GOOD FAITH PURCHASERS

554.2401 Passing of title — reservation for security — limited application of this section.

Each provision of this Article with regard to the rights, obligations and remedies of the seller, the buyer, purchasers or other third parties applies irrespective of title to the goods except where the provision refers to such title. Insofar as situations are not covered by the other provisions of this Article and matters concerning title become material the following rules apply:

1. Title to goods cannot pass under a contract for sale prior to their identification to the contract (section 554.2501), and unless otherwise explicitly agreed the buyer acquires by their identification a special property as limited by this chapter. Any retention or reservation by the seller of the title (property) in goods shipped or delivered to the buyer is limited in effect to a reservation of a security interest. Subject to these provisions and to the provisions of the Article on Secured Transactions (Article 9), title to goods passes from the seller to the buyer in any manner and on any conditions explicitly agreed on by the parties.

2. Unless otherwise explicitly agreed title passes to the buyer at the time and place at which the seller completes the seller's performance with reference to the physical delivery of the goods, despite any reservation of a security interest and even though a document of title is to be delivered at a different time or place; and in particular and despite any reservation of a security interest by the bill of lading
   a. if the contract requires or authorizes the seller to send the goods to the buyer but does not require the seller to deliver them at destination, title passes to the buyer at the time and place of shipment; but
   b. if the contract requires delivery at destination, title passes on tender there.

3. Unless otherwise explicitly agreed where delivery is to be made without moving the goods,
   a. if the seller is to deliver a document of title, title passes at the time when and the place where the seller delivers such documents; or
   b. if the goods are at the time of contracting already identified and no documents are to be delivered, title passes at the time and place of contracting.

4. A rejection or other refusal by the buyer to receive or retain the goods, whether or not justified, or a justified revocation of acceptance revests title to the goods in the seller. Such revesting occurs by operation of law and is not a "sale".

554.2402 Rights of seller's creditors against sold goods.

1. Except as provided in subsections 2 and 3, rights of unsecured creditors of the seller with respect to goods which have been identified to a contract for sale are subject to the buyer's rights to recover the goods under this Article (sections 554.2502 and 554.2716).

2. A creditor of the seller may treat a sale or an identification of goods to a contract for sale as void if as against the creditor a retention of possession by the seller is fraudulent under any rule of law of the state where the goods are situated, except that retention of possession in good faith and current course of trade by a merchant-seller for a commercially reasonable time after a sale or identification is not fraudulent.

3. Nothing in this Article shall be deemed to impair the rights of creditors of the seller
   a. under the provisions of the Article on Secured Transactions (Article 9); or
   b. where identification to the contract or delivery is made not in current course of trade but in satisfac-

554.2501 Insurable interest in goods — manner of identification of goods.

1. The buyer obtains a special property and an insurable interest in goods by identification of existing goods as to goods to which the contract refers even though the goods so identified are nonconforming and the buyer has an option to return or reject them. Such identification can be made at any time and in any manner explicitly agreed to by the parties. In the absence of explicit agreement identification occurs a when the contract is made if it is for the sale of goods already existing and identified, b if the contract is for the sale of future goods other than those described in paragraph "c", when goods are shipped, marked or otherwise designated by the seller as goods to which the contract refers,

c when the crops are planted or otherwise become growing crops or the young are conceived if the contract is for the sale of unborn young to be born within twelve months after contracting or for the sale of crops to be harvested within twelve months or the next normal harvest season after contracting whichever is longer

2 The seller retains an insurable interest in goods so long as title to or any security interest in the goods remains in the seller and where the identification is by the seller alone the seller may until default or insolvency or notification to the buyer that the identification is final substitute other goods for those identified

3 Nothing in this section impairs any insurable interest recognized under any other statute or rule of law

554.2502 Buyer's right to goods on seller's insolvency.

1 Subject to subsection 2 and even though the goods have not been shipped a buyer who has paid a part or all of the price of goods in which the buyer has a special property under the provisions of the immediately preceding section may on making and keeping good a tender of any unpaid portion of their price recover them from the seller if the seller becomes insolvent within ten days after receipt of the first installment on their price

2 If the identification creating the buyer's special property has been made by the buyer, the buyer acquires the right to recover the goods only if they conform to the contract for sale

554.2503 Manner of seller's tender of delivery.

1 Tender of delivery requires that the seller put and hold conforming goods at the buyer's disposition and give the buyer any notification reasonably necessary to enable the buyer to take delivery. The manner, time and place for tender are determined by the agreement and this Article, and in particular a tender must be at a reasonable hour, and if it is of goods they must be kept available for the period reasonably necessary to enable the buyer to take possession, but
b unless otherwise agreed the buyer must furnish facilities reasonably suited to the receipt of the goods
2 Where the case is within the next section respecting shipment tender requires that the seller comply with its provisions
3 Where the seller is required to deliver at a particular destination tender requires that the seller comply with subsection 1 and also in any appropriate case tender documents as described in subsections 4 and 5 of this section 4 Where goods are in the possession of a bailee and are to be delivered without being moved a tender requires that the seller either tender a negotiable document of title covering such goods or procure acknowledgment by the bailee of the buyer's right to possession of the goods, but
b tender to the buyer of a nonnegotiable document of title or of a written direction to the bailee to deliver is sufficient tender unless the buyer seasonably objects, and receipt by the bailee of notification of the buyer's rights fixes those rights as against the bailee and all third persons, but risk of loss of the goods and of any failure by the bailee to honor the nonnegotiable document of title or to obey the direction remains on the seller until the buyer has had a reasonable time to present the document or direction, and a refusal by the bailee to honor the document or to obey the direction defeats the tender 5 Where the contract requires the seller to deliver documents a the seller must tender all such documents in correct form except as provided in this Article with respect to bills of lading in a set (subsection 2 of section 554 2323), and b tender through customary banking channels is sufficient and dishonor of a draft accompanying the documents constitutes nonacceptance or rejection

554.2504 Shipment by seller.

Where the seller is required or authorized to send the goods to the buyer and the contract does not require the seller to deliver them at a particular destination, then unless otherwise agreed the seller must put the goods in the possession of such a carrier and make such a contract for their transportation as may be reasonable having regard to the nature of the goods and other circumstances of the case, and b obtain and promptly deliver or tender in due form any document necessary to enable the buyer to obtain possession of the goods or otherwise required by the agreement or by usage of trade, and c promptly notify the buyer of the shipment Failure to notify the buyer under paragraph "c" or to make a proper contract under paragraph "a" is a ground for rejection only if material delay or loss ensues

554.2505 Seller's shipment under reservation.

1 Where the seller has identified goods to the contract by or before shipment a the seller's procurement of a negotiable bill of lading to the seller's own order or otherwise reserves in the seller a security interest in the goods The seller's procurement of the bill to the order of a financing agency or of the buyer indicates in addition only the seller's expectation of transferring that interest to the person named
b a nonnegotiable bill of lading to the seller or the seller's nominee reserves possession of the goods as security but except in a case of conditional delivery (subsection 2 of section 554 2507) a nonnegotiable bill of lading naming the buyer as consignee reserves no security interest even though the seller retains possession of the bill of lading
2 When shipment by the seller with reservation of a security interest is in violation of the contract for sale it constitutes an improper contract for transportation within the preceding section but impairs neither the rights given to the buyer by shipment and identification of the goods to the contract nor the seller's powers as a holder of a negotiable document [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9949; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554 21, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 2505]

554.2506 Rights of financing agency.
1 A financing agency by paying or purchasing for value a draft which relates to a shipment of goods acquires to the extent of the payment or purchase and in addition to its own rights under the draft and any document of title securing it any rights of the shipper in the goods including the right to stop delivery and the shipper's right to have the draft honored by the buyer
2 The right to reimbursement of a financing agency which has in good faith honored or purchased the draft under commitment to or authority from the buyer is not impaired by subsequent discovery of defects with reference to any relevant document which was apparently regular on its face

554.2507 Effect of seller's tender — delivery on condition.
1 Tender of delivery is a condition to the buyer's duty to accept the goods and, unless otherwise agreed, to the buyer's duty to pay for them. Tender entitles the seller to acceptance of the goods and to payment according to the contract
2 Where payment is due and demanded on the delivery to the buyer of goods or documents of title, the buyer's right as against the seller to retain or dispose of them is conditional upon the buyer's making the payment due

554.2508 Cure by seller of improper tender or delivery — replacement.
1 Where any tender or delivery by the seller is rejected because nonconforming and the time for performance has not yet expired, the seller may seasonably notify the buyer of the seller's intention to cure and may then within the contract time make a conforming delivery
2 Where the buyer rejects a nonconforming tender which the seller had reasonable grounds to believe would be acceptable with or without money allowance the seller may if the seller seasonably notifies the buyer have a further reasonable time to substitute a conforming tender

554.2509 Risk of loss in the absence of breach.
1 Where the contract requires or authorizes the seller to ship the goods by carrier a if it does not require the seller to deliver them at a particular destination, the risk of loss passes to the buyer when the goods are duly delivered to the carrier even though the shipment is under reservation (section 554 2505), but
b if it does require the seller to deliver them at a particular destination and the goods are there duly tendered while in the possession of the carrier, the risk of loss passes to the buyer when the goods are there duly so tendered as to enable the buyer to take delivery
2 Where the goods are held by a bailee to be delivered without being moved, the risk of loss passes to the buyer a on the buyer's receipt of a negotiable document of title covering the goods, or b on acknowledgment by the bailee of the buyer's right to possession of the goods, or c after the buyer's receipt of a nonnegotiable document of title or other written direction to deliver, as provided in subsection 4 "b" of section 554 2503
3 In any case not within subsection 1 or 2, the risk of loss passes to the buyer on the buyer's receipt of the goods if the seller is a merchant, otherwise the risk passes to the buyer on tender of delivery
4 The provisions of this section are subject to contrary agreement of the parties and to the provisions of this Article on sale on approval (section 554 2327) and on effect of breach on risk of loss (section 554 2510)

554.2510 Effect of breach on risk of loss.
1 Where a tender or delivery of goods so fails to conform to the contract as to give a right of rejection the risk of their loss remains on the seller until cure or acceptance
2 Where the buyer rightfully revokes acceptance the buyer may to the extent of any deficiency in the buyer's effective insurance coverage treat the risk of loss as having rested on the seller from the beginning
3 Where the buyer as to conforming goods already identified to the contract for sale repudiates or is otherwise in breach before risk of their loss has passed to the buyer, the seller may to the extent of any deficiency in the seller's effective insurance coverage treat the risk of loss as resting on the buyer for a commercially reasonable time

554.2511 Tender of payment by buyer — payment by check.
1 Unless otherwise agreed tender of payment is a condition to the seller's duty to tender and complete any delivery
2 Tender of payment is sufficient when made by any means or in any manner current in the ordinary course of business unless the seller demands payment in legal tender and gives any extension of time reasonably necessary to procure it
3 Subject to the provisions of this chapter on the effect of an instrument on an obligation (section 554 3802), payment by check is conditional and is defeasible as between the parties by dishonor of the check on due presentment
554.2512 Payment by buyer before inspection.

1. Where the contract requires payment before inspection nonconformity of the goods does not excuse the buyer from so making payment unless
   a. the nonconformity appears without inspection; or
   b. despite tender of the required documents the circumstances would justify injunction against honor under the provisions of this chapter (section 554.5114).

2. Payment pursuant to subsection 1 does not constitute an acceptance of goods or impair the buyer's right to inspect or any of the buyer's remedies.

554.2513 Buyer's right to inspection of goods.

1. Unless otherwise agreed and subject to subsection 3, where goods are tendered or delivered or identified to the contract for sale, the buyer has a right before payment or acceptance to inspect them at any reasonable place and time and in any reasonable manner. When the seller is required or authorized to send the goods to the buyer, the inspection may be after their arrival.

2. Expenses of inspection must be borne by the buyer but may be recovered from the seller if the goods do not conform and are rejected.

3. Unless otherwise agreed and subject to the provisions of this Article on C.I.F. contracts (subsection 3 of section 554.2321), the buyer is not entitled to inspect the goods before payment of the price when the contract provides
   a. for delivery "C.O.D." or on other like terms; or
   b. for payment against documents of title, except where such payment is due only after the goods are to become available for inspection.

4. A place or method of inspection fixed by the parties is presumed to be exclusive but unless otherwise expressly agreed it does not postpone identification or shift the place for delivery or for passing the risk of loss. If compliance becomes impossible, inspection shall be as provided in this section unless the place or method fixed was clearly intended as an indispensable condition failure of which avoids the contract.

554.2514 When documents deliverable on acceptance — when on payment.

Unless otherwise agreed documents against which a draft is drawn are to be delivered to the drawee on acceptance of the draft if it is payable more than three days after presentment; otherwise, only on payment.

554.2515 Preserving evidence of goods in dispute.

In furtherance of the adjustment of any claim or dispute
   a. either party on reasonable notification to the other and for the purpose of ascertaining the facts and preserving evidence has the right to inspect, test and sample the goods including such of them as may be in the possession or control of the other; and
   b. the parties may agree to a third party inspection or survey to determine the conformity or condition of the goods and may agree that the findings shall be binding upon them in any subsequent litigation or adjustment.

2. When the buyer sells goods under subsection 1, that buyer is entitled to reimbursement from the seller or out of the proceeds for reasonable expenses of carrying on and selling them, and if these expenses include no selling commission then to such commission as is usual in the trade or if there is none to a reasonable sum not exceeding ten percent on the gross proceeds.

3. In complying with this section the buyer is held only to good faith and good faith conduct hereunder is neither acceptance nor conversion nor the basis of an action for damages.

554.2604 Buyer’s options as to salvage of rightfully rejected goods.

Subject to the provisions of the immediately preceding section on permissible if the seller gives no instructions within a reasonable time after notification of rejection the buyer may store the rejected goods for the seller’s account or reship them to the seller or resell them for the seller’s account with reimbursement as provided in the preceding section. Such action is not acceptance or conversion.

554.2605 Waiver of buyer’s objections by failure to particularize.

1. The buyer’s failure to state in connection with rejection a particular defect which is ascertainable by reasonable inspection precludes the buyer from relying on the unstated defect to justify rejection or to establish breach.
   a. where the seller could have cured it if stated seasonably, or
   b. between merchants when the seller has after rejection made a request in writing for a full and final written statement of all defects on which the buyer proposes to rely.

2. Payment against documents made without reservation of rights precludes recovery of the payment for defects apparent on the face of the documents.

554.2606 What constitutes acceptance of goods.

1. Acceptance of goods occurs when the buyer:
   a. after a reasonable opportunity to inspect the goods signifies to the seller that the goods are conforming or that the buyer will take or retain them in spite of their nonconformity, or
   b. fails to make an effective rejection (subsection 1 of section 554 2602), but such acceptance does not occur until the buyer has had a reasonable opportunity to inspect them, or
   c. does any act inconsistent with the seller’s own express, if such act is wrongful as against the seller it is an acceptance only if ratified by the seller.

2. Acceptance of a part of any commercial unit is acceptance of that entire unit.

554.2607 Effect of acceptance — notice of breach — burden of establishing breach after acceptance — notice of claim or litigation to person answerable over.

1. The buyer must pay at the contract rate for any goods accepted.

2. Acceptance of goods by the buyer precludes rejection of the goods accepted and if made with knowledge of a nonconformity cannot be revoked because of it unless the acceptance was on the reasonable assumption that the nonconformity would be seasonably cured but acceptance does not of itself impair any other remedy provided by this Article for nonconformity.

3. Where a tender has been accepted:
   a. the buyer must within a reasonable time after the buyer discovers or should have discovered any breach notify the seller of breach or be barred from any remedy, and
   b. if the claim is one for infringement or the like (subsection 3 of section 554 2312) and the buyer is sued as a result of such a breach the buyer must so notify the seller within a reasonable time after the buyer receives notice of the litigation or be barred from any remedy over for liability established by the litigation.

4. The burden is on the buyer to establish any breach with respect to the goods accepted.

5. Where the buyer is sued for breach of a warranty or other obligation for which the buyer’s seller is answerable over:
   a. the buyer may give the buyer’s seller written notice of the litigation. If the notice states that the seller may come in and defend and that if the seller does not do so the seller will be bound in any action against the seller by the buyer’s buyer by any determination of fact common to the two litigations, then unless the seller after reasonable receipt of the notice does come in and defend the seller is so bound.
   b. if the claim is one for infringement or the like (subsection 3 of section 554 2312) the original seller may demand in writing that the seller’s buyer turn over to the seller control of the litigation including settlement or else be barred from any remedy over and if the seller agrees to bear all expense and to satisfy any adverse judgment, then unless the buyer after reasonable receipt of the demand does turn over control the buyer is so barred.

6. The provisions of subsections 3, 4 and 5 apply to any obligation of a buyer to hold the seller harmless against infringement or the like (subsection 3 of section 554 2312).

554.2608 Revocation of acceptance in whole or in part.

1. The buyer may revoke the buyer’s acceptance of a lot or commercial unit whose nonconformity substantially impairs its value to the buyer if the buyer has accepted it:
   a. on the reasonable assumption that its nonconformity would be cured and it has not been seasonably cured, or
   b. without discovery of such nonconformity if the buyer’s acceptance was reasonably induced either by the difficulty of discovery before acceptance or by the seller’s assurances.

2. Revocation of acceptance must occur within a reasonable time after the buyer discovers or should have discovered the ground for it and before any substantial change in condition of the goods which is not caused by their own defects. It is not effective until the buyer notifies the seller of it.

3 A buyer who so revokes has the same rights and duties with regard to the goods involved as if the buyer had rejected them.

1 A contract for sale imposes an obligation on each party that the other's expectation of receiving due performance will not be impaired. When reasonable grounds for insecurity arise with respect to the performance of either party the other may in writing demand adequate assurance of due performance and until that party receives such assurance may if commercially reasonable suspend any performance for which that party has not already received the agreed return.

2 Between merchants the reasonableness of grounds for insecurity and the adequacy of any assurance offered shall be determined according to commercial standards.

3 Acceptance of any improper delivery or payment does not prejudice the aggrieved party's right to demand adequate assurance of future performance.

4 After receipt of a justified demand failure to provide within a reasonable time not exceeding thirty days such assurance of due performance as is adequate under the circumstances of the particular case is a repudiation of the contract.

§554.2610 Anticipatory repudiation.

When either party repudiates the contract with respect to a performance not yet due the loss of which will substantially impair the value of the contract to the other, the aggrieved party may:

a for a commercially reasonable time await performance by the repudiating party, or b resort to any remedy for breach (section 554 2703 or 554 2711), even though the aggrieved party has notified the repudiating party that the aggrieved party would await the latter's performance and has urged retraction, and c in either case suspend the aggrieved party's own performance or proceed in accordance with the provisions of this Article on the seller's right to identify goods to the contract notwithstanding breach or to salvage unfinished goods (section 554 2704).

1 Until the repudiating party's next performance is due the repudiating party can retract the repudiation unless the aggrieved party has since the repudiation canceled or materially changed the aggrieved party's position or otherwise indicated that the aggrieved party considers the repudiation final.

2 Retraction may be by any method which clearly indicates to the aggrieved party that the repudiating party intends to perform, but must include any assurance justifiably demanded under the provisions of this Article (section 554 2609).

3 Retraction reinstates the repudiating party's rights under the contract with due excuse and allow ance to the aggrieved party for any delay occasioned by the repudiation.

1 An "installment contract" is one which requires or authorizes the delivery of goods in separate lots to be separately accepted, even though the contract contains a clause "each delivery is a separate contract" or its equivalent.

2 The buyer may reject any installment which is nonconforming if the nonconformity substantially impairs the value of that installment and cannot be cured or if the nonconformity is a defect in the required documents, but if the nonconformity does not fail within subsection 3 and the seller gives adequate assurance of its cure the buyer must accept that installment.

3 Whenever nonconformity or default with respect to one or more installments substantially impairs the value of the whole contract there is a breach of the whole. But the aggrieved party reinstates the contract if the aggrieved party accepts a nonconforming installment without seasonably notifying of cancellation or if the aggrieved party brings an action with respect only to past installments or demands performance as to future installments.

§554.2613 Casualty to identified goods.

Where the contract requires for its performance goods identified when the contract is made and the goods suffer casualty without fault of either party before the risk of loss passes to the buyer, or in a proper case under a "no arrival, no sale" term (section 554 2324) then:

a if the loss is total the contract is avoided, and

b if the loss is partial or the goods have so deteriorated as no longer to conform to the contract the buyer may nevertheless demand inspection and at the buyer's option either treat the contract as avoided or accept the goods with due allowance from the contract price for the deterioration or the deficiency in quality but without further right against the seller.

1 Where without fault of either party the agreed berthing, loading, or unloading facilities fail or an agreed type of carrier becomes unavailable or the agreed manner of delivery otherwise becomes commercially impracticable but a commercially reasonable substitute is available, such substitute performance must be tendered and accepted.

2 If the agreed means or manner of payment fails because of domestic or foreign governmental regulation, the seller may withhold or stop delivery unless the buyer provides a means or manner of payment which is commercially a substantial equivalent. If delivery has already been taken, payment by the means or in the manner provided by the regulation discharges the buyer's obligation unless the regulation is discriminatory, oppressive or predatory.

554.2615 Excuse by failure of presupposed conditions.

Except so far as a seller may have assumed a greater obligation and subject to the preceding section on substituted performance

- Delay in delivery or nondelivery in whole or in part by a seller who complies with paragraphs "b" and "c" is not a breach of the seller's duty under a contract for sale if performance as agreed has been made impracticable by the occurrence of a contingency the nonoccurrence of which was a basic assumption on which the contract was made or by compliance in good faith with any applicable foreign or domestic governmental regulation or order whether or not it later proves to be invalid

- Where the causes mentioned in paragraph "a" affect only a part of the seller's capacity to perform, the seller must allocate production and deliveries among the seller's customers but may at the seller's option include regular customers not then under contract as well as the seller's own requirements for further manufacture. The seller may so allocate in any manner which is fair and reasonable

- The seller must notify the buyer seasonably that there will be delay or nondelivery and, when allocation is required under paragraph "b", of the estimated quota thus made available for the buyer

554.2616 Procedure on notice claiming excuse.

1 Where the buyer receives notification of a material or indefinite delay or an allocation justified under the preceding section the buyer may by written notification to the seller as to any delivery concerned, and where the prospective deficiency substantially impairs the value of the whole contract under the provisions of this Article relating to breach of installment contracts (section 554 2612), then also as to the whole:

- Terminate and thereby discharge any unexecuted portion of the contract, or

- Modify the contract by agreeing to take the buyer's available quota in substitution

2 If after receipt of such notification from the seller the buyer fails so to modify the contract within a reasonable time not exceeding thirty days the contract lapses with respect to any deliveries affected.

3 The provisions of this section may not be negated by agreement except insofar as the seller has assumed a greater obligation under the preceding section

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 2616]

PART 7

REMEDIES

554.2701 Remedies for breach of collateral contracts not impaired.

Remedies for breach of any obligation or promise collateral or ancillary to a contract for sale are not impaired by the provisions of this Article

554.2702 Seller's remedies on discovery of buyer's insolvency.

1 Where the seller discovers the buyer to be insolvent the seller may refuse delivery except for cash including payment for all goods theretofore delivered under the contract, and stop delivery under this Article (section 554 2705)

2 Where the seller discovers that the buyer has received goods on credit while insolvent the seller may reclaim the goods upon demand made within ten days after the receipt, but if misrepresentation of solvency has been made to the particular seller in writing within three months before delivery the ten day limitation does not apply. Except as provided in this subsection the seller may not base a right to reclaim goods on the buyer's fraudulent or innocent misrepresentation of solvency or of intent to pay

3 The seller's right to reclaim under subsection 2 is subject to the rights of a buyer in ordinary course or other good faith purchaser under this Article (section 554 2403). Successful reclamation of goods excludes all other remedies with respect to them

554.2703 Seller's remedies in general.

Where the buyer wrongfully rejects or revokes acceptance of goods or fails to make a payment due on or before delivery or repudiates with respect to a part or the whole, then with respect to any goods directly affected and if the breach is of the whole contract (section 554 2612), then also with respect to the whole undelivered balance, the aggrieved seller may

- Withhold delivery of such goods,

- Stop delivery by any bailee as hereafter provided (section 554 2705),

- Proceed under the next section respecting goods still unidentified to the contract,

- Resell and recover damages as hereafter provided (section 554 2706),

- Recover damages for nonacceptance (section 554 2708) or in a proper case the price (section 554 2709),

- Cancel

554.2704 Seller's right to identify goods to the contract notwithstanding breach or to salvage unfinished goods.

1 An aggrieved seller under the preceding section may

- Identify to the contract conforming goods not already identified if at the time the seller learned of the breach they are in the seller's possession or control,

- Treat as the subject of resale goods which have demonstrably been intended for the particular contract even though those goods are unfinished

2 Where the goods are unfinished an aggrieved seller may in the exercise of reasonable commercial judgment for the purposes of avoiding loss and of effective realization either complete the manufacture and wholly identify the goods to the contract or cease manufacture and resell for scrap or salvage value or proceed in any other reasonable manner

Seller's stoppage of delivery in transit or otherwise.

1 The seller may stop delivery of goods in the possession of a carrier or other bailee when the seller discovers the buyer to be insolvent (section 554 2702) and may stop delivery of carload, truckload, planeload or larger shipments of express or freight when the buyer repudiates or fails to make a payment due before delivery or if for any other reason the seller has a right to withhold or reclaim the goods

2 As against such buyer the seller may stop delivery until a receipt of the goods by the buyer, or b acknowledgment to the buyer by any bailee of the goods except a carrier that the bailee holds the goods for the buyer, or c such acknowledgment to the buyer by a carrier by reshipment or as warehouse operator, or d notification to the buyer of any negotiable document of title covering the goods

3 a To stop delivery the seller must so notify as to enable the bailee by reasonable diligence to prevent delivery of the goods

b After such notification the bailee must hold and deliver the goods according to the directions of the seller but the seller is liable to the bailee for any ensuing charges or damages

c If a negotiable document of title has been issued for goods the bailee is not obliged to obey a notification to stop until surrender of the document

d A carrier who has issued a nonnegotiable bill of lading is not obliged to obey a notification to stop received from a person other than the consignor §554.2706 Seller's resale including contract for resale.

Under the conditions stated in section 554 2703 on seller's remedies, the seller may resell the goods concerned or the undelivered balance thereof Where the resale is made in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner the seller may recover the difference between the resale price and the contract price together with any incidental damages allowed under the provisions of this Article (section 554 2710), but less expenses saved in consequence of the buyer's breach

2 Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3 or unless otherwise agreed resell may be at public or private sale including sale by way of one or more contracts to sell or of identification to an existing contract of the seller Sale may be as a unit or in parcels and at any time and place and on any terms but every aspect of the sale including the method, manner, time, place and terms must be commercially reasonable The resale must be reasonably identified as referring to the broken contract, but it is not necessary that the goods be in existence or that any or all of them have been identified to the contract before the breach

3 Where the resale is at private sale the seller must give the buyer reasonable notification of the seller's intention to resell

4 Where the resale is at public sale

a only identified goods can be sold except where there is a recognized market for a public sale of futures in goods of the kind, and

b it must be made at a usual place or market for public sale if one is reasonably available and except in the case of goods which are perishable or threaten to decline in value speedily the seller must give the buyer reasonable notice of the time and place of the resale, and c if the goods are not to be within the view of those attending the sale the notification of sale must state the place where the goods are located and provide for their reasonable inspection by prospective bidders, and

d the seller may buy

5 A purchaser who buys in good faith at a resale takes the goods free of any rights of the original buyer even though the seller fails to comply with one or more of the requirements of this section

6 The seller is not accountable to the buyer for any profit made on any resale A person in the position of a seller (section 554 2707) or a buyer who has rightfully rejected or justifiably revoked acceptance must account for any excess over the amount of that person's security interest, as hereinafter defined (subsection 3 of section 554 2711)

554.2707 "Person in the position of a seller".

1 A "person in the position of a seller" includes as against a principal an agent who has paid or become responsible for the price of goods on behalf of the agent's principal or anyone who otherwise holds a security interest or other right in goods similar to that of a seller

2 A person in the position of a seller may as provided in this Article withhold or stop delivery (section 554 2705) and resell (section 554 2706) and recover incidental damages (section 554 2710)

554.2708 Seller's damages for nonacceptance or repudiation.

1 Subject to subsection 2 and to the provisions of this Article with respect to proof of market price (section 554 2723), the measure of damages for nonacceptance or repudiation by the buyer is the difference between the market price at the time and place for tender and the unpaid contract price together with any incidental damages provided in this Article (section 554 2710), but less expenses saved in consequence of the buyer's breach

2 If the measure of damages provided in subsection 1 is inadequate to put the seller in as good a position as performance would have done then the measure of damages is the profit (including reasonable overhead) which the seller would have made from full performance by the buyer, together with any incidental damages provided in this Article (section 554 2710), due allowance for costs reasonably incurred and due credit for payments or proceeds of resale

554.2709 Action for the price.
1 When the buyer fails to pay the price as it becomes due the seller may recover, together with any incidental damages under the next section, the price of goods accepted or of conforming goods lost or damaged within a commercially reasonable time after risk of their loss has passed to the buyer, and
2 Where the buyer sues for the price the seller must hold for the buyer any goods which have been identified to the contract and are still in the seller's control except that if resale becomes possible the seller may resell them at any time prior to the collection of the judgment. The net proceeds of any such resale must be credited to the buyer and payment of the judgment entitles the buyer to any goods not resold.
3 After the buyer has wrongfully rejected or revoked acceptance of the goods or has failed to make a payment due or has repudiated (section 554.2610), a seller who is held not entitled to the price under this section shall nevertheless be awarded damages for nonacceptance under the preceding section.

554.2710 Seller's incidental damages.
Incidental damages to an aggrieved seller include any commercially reasonable charges, expenses or commissions incurred in stopping delivery, in the transportation, care and custody of goods after the buyer's breach, in connection with return or resale of the goods or otherwise resulting from the breach.

554.2711 Buyer's remedies in general — buyer's security interest in rejected goods.
1 Where the seller fails to make delivery or repudiates or the buyer rightfully rejects or justifiably revokes acceptance then with respect to any goods involved, and with respect to the whole if the breach goes to the whole contract (section 554.2612), the buyer may cancel and whether or not the buyer has done so may in addition to recovering so much of the price as has been paid a “cover” and have damages under the next section as to all the goods affected whether or not they have been identified to the contract, or b recover damages for nondelivery as provided in this Article (section 554 2713).
2 Where the seller fails to deliver or repudiates the buyer may also a if the goods have been identified recover them as provided in this Article (section 554 2502), or b in a proper case obtain specific performance or replevy the goods as provided in this Article (section 554 2716).
3 On rightful rejection or justifiable revocation of acceptance a buyer has a security interest in goods in the buyer's possession or control for any payments made on their price and any expenses reasonably incurred in their inspection, receipt, transportation, care and custody and may hold such goods and resell them in like manner as an aggrieved seller (section 554 2706).

554.2712 “Cover” — buyer's procurement of substitute goods.
1 After a breach within the preceding section the buyer may “cover” by making in good faith and without unreasonable delay any reasonable purchase of or contract to purchase goods in substitution for those due from the seller.
2 The buyer may recover from the seller as damages the difference between the cost of cover and the contract price together with any incidental or consequential damages as hereinafter defined (section 554 2715), but less expenses saved in consequence of the seller's breach.
3 Failure of the buyer to effect cover within this section does not bar the buyer from any other remedy.

554.2713 Buyer's damages for nondelivery or repudiation.
1 Subject to the provisions of this Article with respect to proof of market price (section 554 2723), the measure of damages for nondelivery or repudiation by the seller is the difference between the market price at the time when the buyer learned of the breach and the contract price together with any incidental and consequential damages provided in this Article (section 554 2715), but less expenses saved in consequence of the seller's breach.
2 Market price is to be determined as of the place for tender or, in cases of rejection after arrival or revocation of acceptance, as of the place of arrival.

554.2714 Buyer's damages for breach in regard to accepted goods.
1 Where the buyer has accepted goods and given notification (subsection 3 of section 554 2607) the buyer may recover as damages for any nonconformity of tender the loss resulting in the ordinary course of events from the seller's breach as determined in any manner which is reasonable.
2 The measure of damages for breach of warranty is the difference at the time and place of acceptance between the value of the goods accepted and the value they would have had if they had been as warranted, unless special circumstances show proximate damages of a different amount.
3 In a proper case any incidental and consequential damages under the next section may also be recovered.

554.2715 Buyer's incidental and consequential damages.
1 Incidental damages resulting from the seller's breach include expenses reasonably incurred in inspection, receipt, transportation and care and custody of goods rightfully rejected, any commercially reasonable charges, expenses or commissions in connection.
§554.2715  with effecting cover and any other reasonable expense incident to the delay or other breach

2 Consequential damages resulting from the seller's breach include a any loss resulting from general or particular requirements and needs of which the seller at the time of contracting had reason to know and which could not reasonably be prevented by cover or otherwise, and

b injury to person or property proximately resulting from any breach of warranty

1 Specific performance may be decreed where the goods are unique or in other proper circumstances

2 The decree for specific performance may include such terms and conditions as to payment of the price, damages, or other relief as the court may deem just

3 The buyer has a right of replevin for goods identified to the contract if after reasonable effort the buyer is unable to effect cover for such goods or the circumstances reasonably indicate that such effort will be unavailing or if the goods have been shipped under reservation and satisfaction of the security interest in them has been made or tendered

§554.2717 Deduction of damages from the price.

The buyer on notifying the seller of the buyer's intention to do so may deduct all or any part of the damages resulting from any breach of the contract from any part of the price still due under the same contract

§554.2718 Liquidation or limitation of damages — deposits.

1 Damages for breach by either party may be liquidated in the agreement but only at an amount which is reasonable in the light of the anticipated or actual harm caused by the breach, the difficulties of proof of loss, and the inconvenience or nonfeasibility of otherwise obtaining an adequate remedy. A term fixing an unreasonably large liquidated damages is void as a penalty

2 Where the seller justifiably withholds delivery of goods because of the buyer's breach, the buyer is entitled to restitution of any amount by which the sum of the buyer's payments exceeds a the amount to which the seller is entitled by virtue of terms liquidating the seller's damages in accordance with subsection 1, or b in the absence of such terms, twenty percent of the value of the total performance for which the buyer is obligated under the contract or five hundred dollars, whichever is smaller

3 The buyer's right to restitution under subsection 2 is subject to offset to the extent that the seller establishes a a right to recover damages under the provisions of this Article other than subsection 1, and

b the amount or value of any benefits received by the buyer directly or indirectly by reason of the contract

4 Where a seller has received payment in goods their reasonable value or the proceeds of their resale shall be treated as payments for the purposes of subsection 2, but if the seller has notice of the buyer's breach before reselling goods received in part performance, the seller's resale is subject to the conditions laid down in this Article on resale by an aggrieved seller

1 Subject to the provisions of subsections 2 and 3 of this section and of the preceding section on liquidation and limitation of damages, the agreement may provide for remedies in addition to or in substitution for those provided in this Article and may limit or alter the measure of damages recoverable under this Article, as by limiting the buyer's remedies to return of the goods and repayment of the price or to repair and replacement of nonconforming goods or parts, and

b resort to a remedy as provided is optional unless the remedy is expressly agreed to be exclusive, in which case it is the sole remedy

2 Where circumstances cause an exclusive or limited remedy to fail of its essential purpose, remedy may be had as provided in this chapter

3 Consequential damages may be limited or excluded unless the limitation or exclusion is unconscionable. Limitation of consequential damages for injury to the person in the case of consumer goods is prima facie unconscionable but limitation of damages where the loss is commercial is not §554.2720 Effect of "cancellation" or "rescission" on claims for antecedent breach.

Unless the contrary intention clearly appears, expressions of "cancellation" or "rescission" of the contract or the like shall not be construed as a renunciation or discharge of any claim in damages for an antecedent breach

§554.2721 Remedies for fraud.

Remedies for material misrepresentation or fraud include all remedies available under this Article for nonfraudulent breach. Neither rescission or a claim for rescission of the contract for sale nor rejection or return of the goods shall bar or be deemed inconsistent with a claim for damages or other remedy

§554.2722 Who can sue third parties for injury to goods.

Where a third party so deals with goods which have been identified to a contract for sale as to cause action of any remedy afforded by this Article on resale by an aggrieved seller

[a] a right of action against the third party is in either party to the contract for sale who has title to or a security interest or a special property or an insurable interest in the goods; and if the goods have been destroyed or converted a right of action is also in the party who either bore the risk of loss under the contract for sale or has since the injury assumed that risk as against the other;

b if at the time of the injury the party plaintiff did not bear the risk of loss as against the other party to the contract for sale and there is no arrangement between them for disposition of the recovery, the plain­ tiff's suit or settlement is, subject to plaintiff's own interest, as a fiduciary for the other party to the contract;

c either party may with the consent of the other sue for the benefit of whom it may concern.

§554.2723 Proof of market price — time and place.
1. If an action based on anticipatory repudiation comes to trial before the time for performance with respect to some or all of the goods, any damages based on market price (section 554.2708 or 554.2713) shall be determined according to the price of such goods prevailing at the time when the aggrieved party learned of the repudiation.

2. If evidence of a price prevailing at the times or places described in this Article is not readily available the price prevailing within any reasonable time before or after the time described or at any other place which in commercial judgment or under usage of trade would serve as a reasonable substitute for the one described may be used, making any proper allowance for the cost of transporting the goods to or from such other place.

3. Evidence of a relevant price prevailing at a time or place other than the one described in this Article offered by one party is not admissible unless and until that party has given the other party such notice as the court finds sufficient to prevent unfair surprise.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2723]

§554.2724 Admissibility of market quotations.
If the prevailing price or value of goods regularly bought and sold in an established commodity market is in issue, reports in official publications or trade journals or in newspapers or periodicals of general circulation published as the reports of that market are admissible in evidence. The circumstances of the preparation of such a report may be shown to affect its weight but not its admissibility. Reports are also admissible under Iowa rule of evidence 803(17).

§554.2725 Statute of limitations in contracts for sale.*
1. By the original agreement the parties may redo the period of limitation to not less than one year but may not extend it.

2. A cause of action accrues when the breach occurs, regardless of the aggrieved party's lack of knowldge of the breach. A breach of warranty occurs when tender of delivery is made, except that where a warrant­ ty explicitly extends to future performance of the goods and discovery of the breach must await the time of such performance the cause of action accrues when the breach is or should have been discovered.

3. Where an action commenced within the time limited by law* or by agreement as provided in subsection 1 is so terminated as to leave available a remedy by another action for the same breach such other action may be commenced after the expiration of the time limited and within six months after the termination of the first action unless the termination resulted from voluntary discontinuance or from dismissal for failure or neglect to prosecute.

4. This section does not alter the law on tolling of the statute of limitations nor does it apply to causes of action which have accrued before this chapter becomes effective.

4 In addition Article 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this Article

[S13, §3060 a1, a125, a191, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9461, 9589, 9652; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541 1, 541 129, 541 192, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 3102]

1 This Article does not apply to money, documents of title or investment securities

2 The provisions of this Article are subject to the provisions of the Article on Bank Deposits and Collections (Article 4) and Secured Transactions (Article 9) [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 3103]

§554.3104 Form of negotiable instruments — "draft" — "check" — "certificate of deposit" — "note".

1 Any writing to be a negotiable instrument with in this Article must a be signed by the maker or drawer, and b contain an unconditional promise or order to pay a sum certain in money and no other promise, order, obligation or power given by the maker or drawer except as authorized by this Article, and c be payable on demand or at a definite time, and

d be payable to order or to bearer

2 A writing which complies with the requirements of this section is a a "draft" ("bill of exchange") if it is an order, b a "check" if it is a draft drawn on a bank and payable on demand, c a "certificate of deposit" if it is an acknowledgment by a bank of receipt of money with an engagement to repay it,

d a "note" if it is a promise other than a certificate of deposit

3 As used in other Articles of this chapter, and as the context may require, the terms "draft", "check", "certificate of deposit" and "note" may refer to instruments which are not negotiable within this Article as well as to instruments which are so negotiable

554.3105 When promise or order unconditional.

1 A promise or order otherwise unconditional is not made conditional by the fact that the instrument a is subject to implied or constructive conditions, or b states its consideration, whether performed or promised, or the transaction which gave rise to the instrument, or that the promise or order is made or the instrument matures in accordance with or "as per" such transaction, or c refers to or states that it arises out of a separate agreement or refers to a separate agreement for rights as to prepayment or acceleration, or d states that it is drawn under a letter of credit, or e states that it is secured, whether by mortgage, reservation of title or otherwise, or f indicates a particular account to be debited or any other fund or source from which reimbursement is expected, or g is limited to payment out of a particular fund or the proceeds of a particular source, if the instrument is issued by a government or governmental agency or unit, or

h is limited to payment out of the entire assets of a partnership, unincorporated association, trust or estate by or on behalf of which the instrument is issued

2 A promise or order is not unconditional if the instrument a states that it is subject to or governed by any other agreement, or b states that it is to be paid only out of a particular fund or source except as provided in this section

554.3106 Sum certain.

1 The sum payable is a sum certain even though it is to be paid a with stated interest or by stated installments, or b with stated different rates of interest before and after default or a specified date, or c with a stated discount or addition if paid before or after the date fixed for payment, or d with exchange or less exchange, whether at a fixed rate or at the current rate, or e with costs of collection or an attorney’s fee or both upon default

2 Nothing in this section shall validate any term which is otherwise illegal
[S13, §3060 a2, a6, C46, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9462, 9466; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541 2, 541 6, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 3106]

1 An instrument is payable in money if the medium of exchange in which it is payable is money at the time the instrument is made. An instrument payable in “currency” or “current funds” is payable in money
2 A promise or order to pay a sum stated in a foreign currency is for a sum certain in money and, unless a different medium of payment is specified in the instrument, may be satisfied by payment of that number of dollars which the stated foreign currency will purchase at the buying sight rate for that currency on the day on which the instrument is payable or, if payable on demand, on the day of demand. If such an instrument specifies a foreign currency as the medium of payment the instrument is payable in that currency

§554.3108 Payable on demand.
Instruments payable on demand include those payable at sight or on presentation and those in which no time for payment is stated
[S13, §3060 a7, C46, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9467; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541 7, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 3108]

§554.3109 Definite time.
1 An instrument is payable at a definite time if by its terms it is payable a on or before a stated date or at a fixed period after a stated date, b at a fixed period after sight, or c at a definite time subject to any acceleration, or d at a definite time subject to extension at the option of the holder, or to extension to a further definite time at the option of the maker or acceptor or automatically upon or after a specified act or event
2 An instrument which by its terms is otherwise payable only upon an act or event uncertain as to time of occurrence is not payable at a definite time even though the act or event has occurred

1 An instrument is payable to order when by its terms it is payable to the order or assigns of any person therein specified with reasonable certainty, or to that person or that person’s order, or when it is conspicuously designated on its face as “exchange” or the like and names a payee. It may be payable to the order of a the maker or drawer, or b the drawee, or c a payee who is not maker, drawer, or drawee, or d two or more payees together or in the alternative, or e an estate, trust or fund, in which case it is payable to the order of the representative of such estate, trust or fund or that representative’s successors, or f an office, or an officer by title as such in which case it is payable to the principal but the incumbent of the office or the incumbent’s successors may act as if the incumbent or the successors were the holder, or g a partnership or unincorporated association, in which case it is payable to the partnership or association and may be endorsed or transferred by any person thereto authorized
2 An instrument not payable to order is not made payable by such words as “payable upon return of this instrument properly endorsed”
3 An instrument made payable both to order and to bearer is payable to order unless the bearer words are handwritten or typewritten

§554.3111 Payable to bearer.
An instrument is payable to bearer when by its terms it is payable to a bearer or the order of bearer, or b a specified person or bearer, or c “cash” or the order of “cash”, or any other indication which does not purport to designate a specific payee

§554.3112 Terms and omissions not affecting negotiability.
1 The negotiability of an instrument is not affected by a the omission of a statement of any consideration or of the place where the instrument is drawn or payable, or b a statement that collateral has been given to secure obligations either on the instrument or otherwise of an obligor on the instrument or that in case of default on those obligations the holder may realize on or dispose of the collateral, or c a promise or power to maintain or protect collateral or to give additional collateral, or d a term authorizing a confession of judgment on the instrument if it is not paid when due, or e a term purporting to waive the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or protection of any obligor, or f a term in a draft providing that the payee by endorsing or cashing it acknowledges full satisfaction of an obligation of the drawer, or g a statement in a draft drawn in a set of parts (section 554.3801) to the effect that the order is effective only if no other part has been honored
2 Nothing in this section shall validate any term which is otherwise illegal
[S13, §3060 a5, a6, C46, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9465, 9466; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541 5, 541 6, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 3112]

§554.3113 Seal.
An instrument otherwise negotiable is within this Article even though it is under a seal
[S13, §3060 a5, a6, C46, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9465, 9466; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541 5, 541 6, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 3113]

§554.3114 Date, antedating, postdating.
1 The negotiability of an instrument is not affected by the fact that it is undated, antedated or postdated

2 Where an instrument is antedated or postdated the time when it is payable is determined by the stated date if the instrument is payable on demand or at a fixed period after date

3 Where the instrument or any signature thereon is dated, the date is presumed to be correct

2 Where an instrument is antedated or postdated the date is presumed to be correct

554.3114 Postdated is dated, the date is presumed to be correct

554.31115 Incomplete instruments.

1 When a paper whose contents at the time of signing show that it is intended to become an instrument is signed while still incomplete in any necessary respect it cannot be enforced until completed, but when it is completed in accordance with authority given it is effective as completed

2 If the completion is unauthorized the rules as to material alteration apply (section 554-3407), even though the paper was not delivered by the maker or drawer, but the burden of establishing that any completion is unauthorized is on the party so asserting 554.3116 Instruments payable to two or more persons.

An instrument payable to the order of two or more persons a if in the alternative is payable to any one of them and may be negotiated, discharged or enforced by any of them who has possession of it,

b if not in the alternative is payable to all of them and may be negotiated, discharged or enforced only by all of them

554.3119 Other writings affecting instrument.

1 As between the obligor and the obligor's immediate obligee or any transferee the terms of an instrument may be modified or affected by any other written agreement executed as a part of the same transaction, except that a holder in due course is not affected by any limitation of the holder's rights arising out of the separate written agreement if the holder had no notice of the limitation when the holder took the instrument

2 A separate agreement does not affect the negotiability of an instrument

554.3120 Instruments "payable through" bank.

An instrument which states that it is "payable through" a bank or the like designates that bank as a collecting bank to make presentment but does not of itself authorize the bank to pay the instrument 554.3121 Instruments payable at bank.

A note or acceptance which states that it is payable at a bank is not of itself an order or authorization to the bank to pay it 554.3122 Accrual of cause of action.

1 A cause of action against a maker or an acceptor accrues a in the case of a time instrument on the day after maturity, b in the case of a demand instrument upon its date or, if no date is stated, on the date of issue

c Words control figures except that if the words are ambiguous figures control

d Unless otherwise specified a provision for interest means interest at the judgment rate at the place of payment from the date of the instrument, or if it is undated from the date of issue

e Unless the instrument otherwise specifies two or more persons who sign as maker, acceptor or drawer or endorser and as a part of the same transaction are jointly and severally liable even though the instrument contains such words as "I promise to pay"

f Unless otherwise specified consent to extension authorizes a single extension for not longer than the original period A consent to extension, expressed in the instrument, is binding on secondary parties and accommodation makers A holder may not exercise the holder's option to extend an instrument over the objection of a maker or acceptor or other party who in accordance with section 554-3604 tenders full payment when the instrument is due 554.3117 Instruments payable with words of description.

An instrument made payable to a named person with the addition of words describing that person a as agent or officer of a specified person is payable to the agent's or officer's principal but the agent or officer may act as if the agent or officer were the holder, b as any other fiduciary for a specified person or purpose is payable to the payee and may be negotiated, discharged or enforced by the payee, c in any other manner is payable to the payee unconditionally and the additional words are without effect on subsequent parties 554.3118 Ambiguous terms and rules of construction.

The following rules apply to every instrument a Where there is doubt whether the instrument is a draft or a note the holder may treat it as either A draft drawn on the drawer is effective as a note

b Handwritten terms control typewritten and printed terms, and typewritten control printed 4 Unless an instrument provides otherwise, interest runs at the rate provided by law for a judgment in the case of a maker, acceptor or other primary obligor of a demand instrument, from the date of demand, in all other cases from the date of accrual of the cause of action.

PART 2
TRANSFER AND NEGOTIATION

554.3201 Transfer — right to endorsement.
1 Transfer of an instrument vests in the transferee such rights as the transferor has therein, except that a transferee who has been a party to any fraud or illegality affecting the instrument or who as a prior holder had notice of a defense or claim against it cannot not improve the transferee's position by taking from a later holder in due course.
2 A transfer of a security interest in an instrument vests in the transferee the right of section 554.3205 to have the transferee become a holder in due course if the transferee otherwise complies with the requirements of section 554.3302 on what constitutes a holder in due course if the transferee otherwise complies with the requirements of section 554.3302 on what constitutes a holder in due knowledge that a fiduciary or other person has negotiated the instrument in any transaction for that person's own benefit or otherwise in breach of duty (subsection 2 of section 554.3304)

554.3207 Negotiation effective although it may be rescinded.

1 Negotiation is effective to transfer the instrument although the negotiation is a made by an infant, a corporation exceeding its powers, or any other person without capacity, or b obtained by fraud, duress or mistake of any kind, or c part of an illegal transaction, or d made in breach of duty
2 Except as against a subsequent holder in due course such negotiation is in an appropriate case subject to rescission, the declaration of a constructive trust or any other remedy permitted by law

554.3208 Reacquisition.

Where an instrument is returned to or reacquired by a prior party the prior party may cancel any endorsement which is not necessary to the prior party's title and resell or further negotiate the instrument, but any intervening party is discharged as against the reacquiring party and subsequent holders not in due course and if that intervening party's endorsement has been canceled is discharged as against subsequent holders in due course as well

554.3301 Rights of a holder.

The holder of an instrument whether or not that holder is the owner may transfer or negotiate it and, except as otherwise provided in section 554.3603 on payment or satisfaction, discharge it or enforce payment in the holder's own name

554.3302 Holder in due course.

1 A holder in due course is a holder who takes the instrument a for value, and b in good faith, and c without notice that it is overdue or has been dishonored or of any defense against or claim to it on the part of any person
2 A payee may be a holder in due course
3 A holder does not become a holder in due course of an instrument a by purchase of it at judicial sale or by taking it under legal process, or b by acquiring it in taking over an estate, or c by purchasing it as part of a bulk transaction not in regular course of business of the transferor

4 A purchaser of a limited interest can be a holder in due course only to the extent of the interest purchased

554.3303 Taking for value

A holder takes the instrument for value a to the extent that the agreed consideration has been performed or that the holder acquires a security interest in or a lien on the instrument otherwise than by legal process, or b when the holder takes the instrument in payment of or as security for an antecedent claim against any person whether or not the claim is due, or c when the holder gives a negotiable instrument for it or makes an irrevocable commitment to a third person

554.3304 Notice to purchaser.

1 The purchaser has notice of a claim or defense if a the instrument is so incomplete, bears such visible evidence of forgery or alteration, or is otherwise so irregular as to call into question its validity, terms or ownership or to create an ambiguity as to the party to pay, or b the purchaser has notice that the obligation of any party is voidable in whole or in part, or that all parties have been discharged
2 The purchaser has notice of a claim against the instrument when the purchaser has knowledge that a fiduciary has negotiated the instrument in payment of or as security for the fiduciary's own debt or in any transaction for the fiduciary's own benefit or otherwise in breach of duty
3 The purchaser has notice that an instrument is overdue if the purchaser has reason to know a that any part of the principal amount is overdue or that there is an uncured default in payment of another instrument of the same series, or b that acceleration of the instrument has been made, or c that the purchaser is taking a demand instrument after demand has been made or more than a reasonable length of time after its issue A reasonable time for a check drawn and payable within the states and territories of the United States and the District of Columbia is presumed to be thirty days 4 Knowledge of the following facts does not of itself give the purchaser notice of a defense or claim a that the instrument is antedated or postdated, b that it was issued or negotiated in return for an executory promise or accompanied by a separate agreement, unless the purchaser has notice that a defense or claim has arisen from the terms thereof,
   c that any party has signed for accommodation, §554.3403

that an incomplete instrument has been completed, unless the purchaser has notice of any improper completion.

that any person negotiating the instrument is or was a fiduciary, that there has been default in payment of interest on the instrument or in payment of any other instrument, except one of the same series

5  The filing or recording of a document does not of itself constitute notice within the provisions of this Article to a person who would otherwise be a holder in due course

6  To be effective notice must be received at such time and in such manner as to give a reasonable opportunity to act on it

§554.3305  Rights of a holder in due course

To the extent that a holder is a holder in due course the holder takes the instrument free from

1  all claims to it on the part of any person, and

2  all defenses of any party to the instrument with whom the holder has not dealt except a  infancy, to the extent that it is a defense to a simple contract, and b  such other incapacity, or duress, or illegality of the transaction, as renders the obligation of the party a nullity, and c  such misrepresentation as has induced the party to sign the instrument with neither knowledge nor reasonable opportunity to obtain knowledge of its character or its essential terms, and d  discharge in insolvency proceedings, and e  any other discharge of which the holder has notice when the holder takes the instrument

§554.3306  Rights of one not holder in due course.

Unless a person has the rights of a holder in due course any person takes the instrument subject to a  all valid claims to it on the part of any person, and b  all defenses of any party which would be available in an action on a simple contract, and c  the defenses of want or failure of consideration, nonperformance of any condition precedent, non delivery, or delivery for a special purpose (section 554 3408), and

d  the defense that that person or a person through whom that person holds the instrument acquired it by theft, or that payment or satisfaction to such holder would be inconsistent with the terms of a restrictive endorsement  The claim of any third person to the instrument is not otherwise available as a defense to any party liable thereon unless the third person defends the action for such party

§554.3307  Burden of establishing signatures, defenses and due course.

1  Unless specifically denied in the pleadings each signature on an instrument is admitted When the effectiveness of a signature is put in issue a  the burden of establishing it is on the party claiming under the signature, but

b  the signature is presumed to be genuine or authorized except where the action is to enforce the obligation of a purported signer who has died or become incompetent before proof is required

2  When signatures are admitted or established, production of the instrument entitles a holder to recover on it unless the defendant establishes a defense

3  After it is shown that a defense exists a person claiming the rights of a holder in due course has the burden of establishing that that person or some person under whom that person claims is in all respects a holder in due course

LIABILITY OF PARTIES

§554.3401  Signature.

1  No person is liable on an instrument unless the person's signature appears thereon

2  A signature is made by use of any name, including any trade or assumed name, upon an instrument, or by any word or mark used in lieu of a written signature

§554.3402  Signature in ambiguous capacity.

Unless the instrument clearly indicates that a signature is made in some other capacity it is an endorsement

§554.3403  Signature by authorized representative.

1  A signature may be made by an agent or other representative, and the agent's or other representative's authority to make it may be established as in other cases of representation  No particular form of appointment is necessary to establish such authority

2  An authorized representative who signs that representative's own name to an instrument a  is personally obligated if the instrument neither names the person represented nor shows that the representative signed in a representative capacity, b  except as otherwise established between the immediate parties, is personally obligated if the instrument names the person represented but does not show that the representative signed in a representative capacity

3  Except as otherwise established the name of an §554.3403

organization preceded or followed by the name and office of an authorized individual is a signature made in a representative capacity.

554.3404 Unauthorized signatures.

1. Any unauthorized signature is wholly inoperative as that of the person whose name is signed unless that person ratifies it or is precluded from denying it; but it operates as the signature of the unauthorized signer in favor of any person who in good faith pays the instrument or takes it for value.

2. Any unauthorized signature may be ratified for all purposes of this Article. Such ratification does not of itself affect any rights of the person ratifying against the actual signer.

554.3405 Impostors — signature in name of payee.

1. An endorsement by any person in the name of a named payee is effective if

a. an impostor by use of the mails or otherwise has induced the maker or drawer to issue the instrument to the impostor or the impostor's confederate in the name of the payee; or

b. a person signing as or on behalf of a maker or drawer intends the payee to have no interest in the instrument; or

c. an agent or employee of the maker or drawer has supplied the maker or drawer with the name of the payee intending the latter to have no such interest.

2. Nothing in this section shall affect the criminal or civil liability of the person so endorsing.

554.3406 Negligence contributing to alteration or unauthorized signature.

Any person whose negligence substantially contributes to a material alteration of the instrument or to the making of an unauthorized signature is precluded from asserting the alteration or lack of authority against a holder in due course or against a drawee or other payor who pays the instrument in good faith and in accordance with the reasonable commercial standards of the drawee's or payor's business.

554.3407 Alteration.

1. Any alteration of an instrument is material which changes the contract of any party thereto in any respect, including any such change in

a. the number or relations of the parties; or

b. an incomplete instrument, by completing it otherwise than as authorized; or

c. the writing as signed, by adding to it or by removing any part of it.

2. As against any person other than a subsequent holder in due course

a. alteration by the holder which is both fraudulent and material discharges any party whose contract is thereby changed unless that party assents or is precluded from asserting the defense;

b. no other alteration discharges any party and the instrument may be enforced according to its original tenor, or as to incomplete instruments according to the authority given.

3. A subsequent holder in due course may in all cases enforce the instrument according to its original tenor, and when an incomplete instrument has been completed, that holder may enforce it as completed.

554.3408 Consideration.

Want or failure of consideration is a defense as against any person not having the rights of a holder in due course (section 554.3305), except that no consideration is necessary for an instrument or obligation thereon given in payment of or as security for an antecedent obligation of any kind. Nothing in this section shall be taken to displace any statute outside this chapter under which a promise is enforceable notwithstanding lack or failure of consideration. Partial failure of consideration is a defense pro tanto whether or not the failure is in an ascertained or liquidated amount.

554.3409 Draft not an assignment.

1. A check or other draft does not of itself operate as an assignment of any funds in the hands of the drawee available for its payment, and the drawee is not liable on the instrument until the drawee accepts it.

2. Nothing in this section shall affect any liability in contract, tort or otherwise arising from any letter of credit or other obligation or representation which is not an acceptance.

554.3410 Definition and operation of acceptance.

1. Acceptance is the drawee's signed engagement to honor the draft as presented. It must be written on the draft, and may consist of the drawee's signature

2. A draft may be accepted although it has not been signed by the drawer or is otherwise incomplete or is overdue or has been dishonored.

3. Where the draft is payable at a fixed period after sight and the acceptor fails to date the acceptor's acceptance the holder may complete it by supplying a date in good faith.

[S13, §3060-a132, -a133, -a134, -a135, -a136, -a137, -a138, -a161, -a162, -a163, -a164, -a165, -a166, -a167, -a168, -a169, -a170; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9593–9599, 9622–9631; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.133–541.139, 541.162–541.171; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3410]
554.3411 Certification of a check.
1 Certification of a check is acceptance. Where a holder procures certification the drawer and all prior endorsers are discharged.
2 Unless otherwise agreed a bank has no obligation to certify a check.
3 A bank may certify a check before returning it for lack of proper endorsement. If it does so the drawer is discharged.

554.3412 Acceptance varying draft.
1 Where the drawee's proffered acceptance in any manner varies the draft as presented the holder may refuse the acceptance and treat the draft as dishonored in which case the drawer is entitled to have the drawer's acceptance canceled.
2 The terms of the draft are not varied by an acceptance to pay at any particular bank or place in the United States, unless the acceptance states that the draft is to be paid only at such bank or place.
3 Where the holder assents to an acceptance varying the terms of the draft each drawer and endorser who does not affirmatively assent is discharged.

554.3413 Contract of maker, drawer and acceptor.
1 The maker or acceptor engages that that person will pay the instrument according to its tenor at the time of that person's engagement or as completed pursuant to section 554 3115 on incomplete instruments.
2 The drawer engages that upon dishonor of the draft and any necessary notice of dishonor or protest the drawer will pay the amount of the draft to the holder or to any endorser who takes it up. The drawer may disclaim this liability by drawing without recourse.
3 By making, drawing or accepting the party admits as against all subsequent parties including the drawee the existence of the payee and the payee's tenor capacity to endorse.

554.3414 Contract of endorser—order of liability.
1 Unless the endorsement otherwise specifies (as by such words as "without recourse") every endorser engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor and protest the endorser will pay the instrument according to its tenor at the time of the endorser's endorsement to the holder or to any subsequent endorser who takes it up, even though the endorser who takes it up was not obligated to do so.
2 Unless they otherwise agree endorsers are liable to one another in the order in which they endorse, which is presumed to be the order in which their signatures appear on the instrument.

554.3415 Contract of accommodation party.
1 An accommodation party is one who signs the instrument in any capacity for the purpose of lending that party's name to another party to it.
2 When the instrument has been taken for value before it is due the accommodation party is liable in the capacity in which that party has signed even though the taker knows of the accommodation.
3 As against a holder in due course and without notice of the accommodation, oral proof of the accommodation is not admissible to give the accommodation party the benefit of discharges dependent on that party's character as such. In other cases the accommodation character may be shown by oral proof.
4 An endorsement which shows that it is not in the chain of title is notice of its accommodation character.
5 An accommodation party is not liable to the party accommodated, and if the accommodation party pays the instrument has a right of recourse on the instrument against such party.

[C73, §2094, C97, §3053, S13, §3053, 3060 a28, a29, a64, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9488, 9489, 9524, 9545; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541 28, 541 29, 541 64, 541 85, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 3415]

1 "Payment guaranteed" or equivalent words added to a signature mean that the signer engages that if the instrument is not paid when due the signer will pay it according to its tenor without resort by the holder to any other party.
2 "Collection guaranteed" or equivalent words added to a signature mean that the signer engages that if the instrument is not paid when due the signer will pay it according to its tenor, but only after the holder has reduced the holder's claim against the maker or acceptor to judgment and execution. If the accommodation party the benefit of discharges dependent on that party's character as such. In other cases the accommodation character may be shown by oral proof.
3 Words of guaranty which do not otherwise specify guarantee payment.
4 No words of guaranty added to the signature of a sole maker or acceptor affect the sole maker's or acceptor's liability on the instrument. Such words added to the signature of one of two or more makers or acceptors create a presumption that the signature is for the accommodation of the others.
5 When words of guaranty are used presentment, notice of dishonor and protest are not necessary to charge the user.
6 Any guaranty written on the instrument is enforceable notwithstanding any statute of frauds.

554.3417 Warranties on presentment and transfer.
1 Any person who obtains payment or acceptance and any prior transferor warrants to a person who in good faith pays or accepts that a the person obtaining payment or acceptance and any prior transferor has a good title to the instrument or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title, and b the person obtaining payment or acceptance and any prior transferor has no knowledge that the signature of the maker or drawer is unauthorized, except that this warranty is not given by a holder in due course acting in good faith
2 to a maker with respect to the maker's own signature, or
3 to a drawer with respect to the drawer's own signature, whether or not the drawer is also the drawee, or 4 to an acceptor of a draft if the holder in due course took the draft after the acceptance or obtained the acceptance without knowledge that the drawer's signature was unauthorized, and c the instrument has not been materially altered, except that this warranty is not given by a holder in due course acting in good faith
1 to the maker of a note, or
2 to the drawer of a draft whether or not the drawer is also the drawee, or 3 to the acceptor of a draft with respect to an alteration made prior to the acceptance if the holder in due course took the draft after the acceptance, even though the acceptance provided “payable as originally drawn” or equivalent terms, or 4 to the acceptor of a draft with respect to an alteration made after the acceptance
2 Any person who transfers an instrument and receives consideration warrants to that person's transferee and if the transfer is by endorsement to any subsequent holder who takes the instrument in good faith that a the transferor has a good title to the instrument or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title and the transfer is otherwise rightful, and b all signatures are genuine or authorized, and c the instrument has not been materially altered, and d no defense of any party is good against the transferor, and e the transferor has no knowledge of any insolvent proceeding instituted with respect to the maker or acceptor or the drawer of an unaccepted instrument
3 By transferring "without recourse" the transfer or limits the obligation stated in subsection 2 "d" to a warranty that the transferor has no knowledge of such a defense
4 A selling agent or broker who does not disclose the fact that the agent or broker is acting only as such gives the warranties provided in this section, but if that agent or broker makes such disclosure warrants only that agent's or broker's good faith and authority [S13, §3060-a65,-a69, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9525, 9529; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541 65, 541 69, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 3417]

§554.3418 Finality of payment or acceptance.
Except for recovery of bank payments as provided in the Article on Bank Deposits and Collections (Article 4) and except for liability for breach of warranty on presentment under the preceding section, payment or acceptance of any instrument is final in favor of a holder in due course, or a person who has in good faith changed that person's position in reliance on the payment

554.3419 Conversion of instrument — innocent representative.
1 An instrument is converted when a a drawee to whom it is delivered for acceptance refuses to return it on demand, or b any person to whom it is delivered for payment refuses on demand either to pay or to return it, or c it is paid on a forged endorsement
2 In an action against a drawee under subsection 1 the measure of the drawee's liability is the face amount of the instrument In any other action under subsection 1 the measure of liability is presumed to be the face amount of the instrument
3 Subject to the provisons of this chapter concerning restrictive endorsements a representative, including a depository or collecting bank, who has in good faith and in accordance with the reasonable commercial standards applicable to the business of such representative dealt with an instrument or its proceeds on behalf of one who was not the true owner is not liable in conversion or otherwise to the true owner beyond the amount of any proceeds remaining in that representative's hands
4 An intermediary bank or payor bank which is not a depository bank is not liable in conversion solely by reason of the fact that proceeds of an item endorsed restrictively (sections 554 3205 and 554 3206) are not paid or applied consistently with the restrictive endorsement of an endorser other than its immediate transferor [S13, §3060-a137, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9598; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541 138, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 3419]

PART 5 PRESENTMENT NOTICE OF DISHONOR AND PROTEST

554.3501 When presentment, notice of dishonor, and protest necessary or permissible.
1 Unless excused (section 554 3511) presentment is necessary to charge secondary parties as follows a presentment for acceptance is necessary to charge the drawer and endorsers of a draft where the draft so provides, or is payable elsewhere than at the residence or place of business of the drawee, or its date of payment depends upon such presentment The holder may at the holder's option present for acceptance any other draft payable at a stated date, b presentment for payment is necessary to charge any endorser, c in the case of any drawer, the acceptor of a draft payable at a bank or the maker of a note payable at a bank, presentment for payment is necessary, but failure to make presentment discharges such drawer, acceptor or maker only as stated in section 554 3502 subsection 1 "b" 2 Unless excused (section 554 3511) a notice of any dishonor is necessary to charge any endorser, b in the case of any drawer, the acceptor of a draft payable at a bank or the maker of a note payable at a bank, notice of any dishonor is necessary, but failure to give such notice discharges such drawer, acceptor or maker only as stated in section 554.3502 subsection 1 "b"

3 Unless excused (section 554.3511) protest of any dishonor is necessary to charge the drawer and endorsers of any draft which on its face appears to be drawn or payable outside of the states, territories, dependences and possessions of the United States, the District of Columbia and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. The holder may at the holder's option make protest of any dishonor of any other instrument and in the case of a foreign draft may on insolvency of the acceptor before maturity make protest for better security.

4 Notwithstanding any provision of this section, neither presentment nor notice of dishonor nor protest is necessary to charge an endorser who has endorsed an instrument after maturity 554.3502 Unexcused delay — discharge.

1 Where without excuse any necessary presentment or notice of dishonor is delayed beyond the time when it is due

a any endorser is discharged, and

b any drawer or the acceptor of a draft payable at a bank or the maker of a note payable at a bank who because the drawee or payor bank becomes insolvent during the delay is deprived of funds maintained with the drawee or payor bank to cover the instrument may discharge that person's liability by written assignment to the holder of that person's rights against the drawee or payor bank in respect of such funds, but such drawer, acceptor or maker is not otherwise discharged

2 Where without excuse a necessary presentment is delayed beyond the time when it is due any drawer or endorser is discharged

554.3503 Time of presentment.

1 Unless a different time is expressed in the instrument the time for any presentment is determined as follows a where an instrument is payable at or a fixed period after a stated date any presentment for acceptance must be made on or before the date it is payable,

b where an instrument is payable after sight it must either be presented for acceptance or negotiated within a reasonable time after date or issue whichever is later, c where an instrument shows the date on which it is payable presentment for payment is due on that date, d where an instrument is accelerated presentment for payment is due within a reasonable time after the acceleration, e with respect to the liability of any secondary party presentment for acceptance or payment of any other instrument is due within a reasonable time after such party becomes liable thereon

2 A reasonable time for presentment is determined by the nature of the instrument, any usage of banking or trade and the facts of the particular case. In the case of an uncertified check which is drawn and payable within the United States and which is not a draft drawn by a bank the following are presumed to be reasonable periods within which to present for payment or to initiate bank collection a with respect to the liability of the drawer, thirty days after date or issue whichever is later, and

b with respect to the liability of an endorser, seven days after the endorser's endorsement

3 Where any presentment is due on a day which is not a full business day for either the person making presentment or the party to pay or accept presentment is due on the next following day which is a full business day for both parties

4 Presentment to be sufficient must be made at a reasonable hour, and if at a bank during its banking day

[C73, §2094, C97, §3053, S13, §3053, 9605 a71, -a72, a75, -a85, a86, -a144, -a145, -a146, a186, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9531, 9532, 9535, 9545-9547, 9605-9607, 9647; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541 71, 74, 71 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 3503]

554.3504 How presentment made.

1 Presentment is a demand for acceptance or payment made upon the maker, acceptor, drawer, or other payor by or on behalf of the holder

2 Presentment may be made a by mail, in which event the time of presentment is determined by the time of receipt of the mail, or b through a clearing house, or c at the place of acceptance or payment specified in the instrument or if there be none at the place of business or residence of the party to accept or pay. If neither the party to accept or pay nor anyone authorized to act for that party is present or accessible at such place presentment is excused

3 It may be made a to any one of two or more makers, acceptors, drawer or other payors, or b to any person who has authority to make or refuse the acceptance or payment

4 A draft accepted or a note made payable at a bank in the United States must be presented at such bank

5 In the cases described in section 554.4210 presentment may be made in the manner and with the result stated in that section

554.3505 Rights of party to whom presentment is made.

1 The party to whom presentment is made may without dishonor require a exhibition of the instrument, and §554.3505 490

b reasonable identification of the person making presentment and evidence of that person's authority to make it if made for another, and c that the instrument be produced for acceptance or payment at a place specified in it, or if there be none at any place reasonable in the circumstances, and d a signed receipt on the instrument for any partial or full payment and its surrender upon full payment

2 Failure to comply with any such requirement invalidates the presentment but the person presenting has a reasonable time in which to comply and the time for acceptance or payment runs from the time of compliance

554.3506 Time allowed for acceptance or payment.

1 Acceptance may be deferred without dishonor until the close of the next business day following presentment. The holder may also in a good faith effort to obtain acceptance and without either dishonor of the instrument or discharge of secondary parties allow postponement of acceptance for an additional business day

2 Except as a longer time is allowed in the case of documentary drafts drawn under a letter of credit, and unless an earlier time is agreed to by the party to pay, payment of an instrument may be deferred without dishonor pending reasonable examination to determine whether it is properly payable, but payment must be made in any event before the close of business on the day of presentment

554.3507 Dishonor — holder's right of recourse — term allowing re-presentment.

1 An instrument is dishonored when a a necessary or optional presentment is duly made and due acceptance or payment is refused or cannot be obtained within the prescribed time or in case of bank collections the instrument is seasonably returned by the midnight deadline (section 554 4301), or b presentment is excused and the instrument is not duly accepted or paid

2 Subject to any necessary notice of dishonor and protest, the holder has upon dishonor an immediate right of recourse against the drawers and endorsers

3 Return of an instrument for lack of proper endorsement is not dishonor

4 A term in a draft or an endorsement thereof allowing a stated time for re-presentment in the event of any dishonor of the draft by nonacceptance if a time draft or by nonpayment if a sight draft gives the holder as against any secondary party bound by the term an option to waive the dishonor without affecting the liability of the secondary party and the holder may present again up to the end of the stated time

5 The holder of a dishonored instrument may assert against the maker of that instrument a surcharge of not more than ten dollars for each dishonored instrument. The surcharge authorized by this section shall not be assessed unless the holder clearly and conspicuously posts a notice at the usual place of payment, or in the billing statement of the holder, stating that a surcharge will be assessed and the amount of the surcharge. However, such a surcharge shall not be assessed against the maker if the reason for the dishonor of the instrument is that the maker has stopped payment pursuant to section 554 4403

[C73, §2094, C97, §3063, S13, §3063, 3060 a63, a149, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9543, 9545, 9810; C46, §541 85, 541 85, 541 150, 541 201, C50, 54, 58, 62, §541 83, 541 85, 541 150, 541 201, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 3507]

554.3508 Notice of dishonor.

1 Notice of dishonor may be given to any person who may be liable on the instrument by or on behalf of the holder or any party who has personally received notice. Any other party who can be compelled to pay the instrument in addition to an agent or bank in whose hands the instrument is dishonored may give notice to the agent's or bank's principal or customer or to an other agent or bank from which the instrument was received

2 Any necessary notice must be given by a bank before its midnight deadline and by any other person before midnight of the third business day after dishon or receipt of notice of dishonor

3 Notice may be given in any reasonable manner. It may be oral or written and in any terms which identify the instrument and state that it has been dishonored. A misdescription which does not mislead the party notified does not vitiate the notice. Sending the instrument bearing a stamp, ticket or writing stating that acceptance or payment has been refused or sending a notice of debit with respect to the instrument is sufficient

4 Written notice is given when sent although it is not received

5 Notice to one partner is notice to each although the firm has been dissolved

6 When any party is in insolvency proceedings instituted after the issue of the instrument notice may be given either to the party or to the representative of the party's estate

7 When any party is dead or incompetent notice may be sent to the party's last known address or given to the party's personal representative

8 Notice operates for the benefit of all parties who have rights on the instrument against the party notified

[S13, §3060 a90, a91, a92, a93, a94, a95, a96, a97, a98, a99, -a100, a101, a102, -a103, a104, a105, a106, -a107, a108, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9551-9552; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541 91-541 109, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 3508]

554.3509 Protest — noting for protest.

1 A protest is a certificate of dishonor made under the hand and seal of a United States consul or vice consul or a notary public or other person authorized to certify dishonor by the law of the place where dishonor occurs. It may be made upon information satisfactory to such person

2 The protest must identify the instrument and certify either that due presentment has been made or the reason why it is excused and that the instrument has been dishonored by nonacceptance or nonpayment.

3 The protest may also certify that notice of dishonor has been given to all parties or to specified parties.

4 Subject to subsection 5 any necessary protest is due by the time that notice of dishonor is due.

5 If, before protest is due, an instrument has been noted for protest by the officer to make protest, the protest may be made at any time thereafter as of the date of the noting.

554.3510 Evidence of dishonor and notice of dishonor.

The following are admissible as evidence and create a presumption of dishonor and of any notice of dishonor or therein shown:

a a document regular in form as provided in the preceding section which purports to be a protest, b the purported stamp or writing of the drawee, payor bank or presenting bank on the instrument or accompanying it stating that acceptance or payment has been refused for reasons consistent with dishonor, c any book or record of the drawee, payor bank, or any collecting bank kept in the usual course of business which shows dishonor, even though there is no evidence of who made the entry.

554.3511 Waived or excused presentment, protest or notice of dishonor or delay therein.

1 Delay in presentment, protest or notice of dishonor is excused when the party is without notice that it is due or when the delay is caused by circumstances beyond the party's control and the party exercises reasonable diligence after the cause of the delay ceases to operate.

2 Presentment or notice or protest as the case may be is entirely excused when a the party to be charged has waived it expressly or by implication either before or after it is due, or b such party has personally dishonored the instrument or has countermanded payment or otherwise has no reason to expect or right to require that the instrument be accepted or paid, or c by reasonable diligence the presentment or protest cannot be made or the notice given.

3 Presentment is also entirely excused when a the maker, acceptor or drawee of any instrument except a documentary draft is dead or in insolvency proceedings instituted after the issue of the instrument, or b acceptance or payment is refused but not for want of proper presentment.

4 Where a draft has been dishonored by nonacceptance a later presentment for payment and any notice of dishonor and protest for nonpayment are excused unless in the meantime the instrument has been accepted.

5 A waiver of protest is also a waiver of presentment and of notice of dishonor even though protest is not required.

6 Where a waiver of presentment or notice or protest is embodied in the instrument itself it is binding upon all parties, but where it is written above the signature of an endorser it binds the endorser only.

554.3601 Discharge of parties.

1 The extent of the discharge of any party from liability on an instrument is governed by the sections on a payment or satisfaction (section 554.3603), or

b tender of payment (section 554.3604), or

c cancellation or renunciation (section 554.3605), or

d impairment of right of recourse or of collateral (section 554.3606), or e reacquisition of the instrument by a prior party (section 554.3208), or

f fraudulent and material alteration (section 554.3407), or g certification of a check (section 554.3411), or

h acceptance varying a draft (section 554.3412), or

i unexcused delay in presentment or notice of dishonor or protest (section 554.3502).

2 Any party is also discharged from the party's liability on an instrument to another party by any other act or agreement with such party which would discharge the party's simple contract for the payment of money.

3 The liability of all parties is discharged when any party who has personally no right of action or recourse on the instrument

a reacquires the instrument in that party's own right, or

b is discharged under any provision of this Article, except as otherwise provided with respect to discharge for impairment of recourse or of collateral (section 554.3606).

554.3602 Effect of discharge against holder in due course.

No discharge of any party provided by this Article is effective against a subsequent holder in due course unless the holder has notice thereof when the holder takes the instrument.

PART 6

DISCHARGE

554.3601 Discharge of parties.

1 The extent of the discharge of any party from liability on an instrument is governed by the sections on a payment or satisfaction (section 554.3603), or

b tender of payment (section 554.3604), or

c cancellation or renunciation (section 554.3605), or

d impairment of right of recourse or of collateral (section 554.3606), or e reacquisition of the instrument by a prior party (section 554.3208), or

f fraudulent and material alteration (section 554.3407), or

g certification of a check (section 554.3411), or

h acceptance varying a draft (section 554.3412), or

i unexcused delay in presentment or notice of dishonor or protest (section 554.3502).

2 Any party is also discharged from the party's liability on an instrument to another party by any other act or agreement with such party which would discharge the party's simple contract for the payment of money.

3 The liability of all parties is discharged when any party who has personally no right of action or recourse on the instrument

a reacquires the instrument in that party's own right, or

b is discharged under any provision of this Article, except as otherwise provided with respect to discharge for impairment of recourse or of collateral (section 554.3606).

554.3602 Effect of discharge against holder in due course.

No discharge of any party provided by this Article is effective against a subsequent holder in due course unless the holder has notice thereof when the holder takes the instrument.

§554.3603  Payment or satisfaction.
1. The liability of any party is discharged to the extent of the party's payment or satisfaction to the holder even though it is made with knowledge of a claim of another person to the instrument unless prior to such payment or satisfaction the person making the claim either supplies indemnity deemed adequate by the party seeking the discharge or enjoins payment or satisfaction by order of a court of competent jurisdiction in an action in which the adverse claimant and the holder are parties. This subsection does not, however, result in the discharge of the liability
a. of a party who in bad faith pays or satisfies a holder who acquired the instrument by theft or who (unless having the rights of a holder in due course) holds through one who so acquired it; or
b. of a party (other than an intermediary bank or a payor bank which is not a depositary bank) who pays or satisfies the holder of an instrument which has been restrictively endorsed in a manner not consistent with the terms of such restrictive endorsement.
2. Payment or satisfaction may be made with the consent of the holder by any person including a stranger to the instrument. Surrender of the instrument to such a person gives that person the rights of a transferee (section 554.3201).

1. Any party making tender of full payment to a holder when or after it is due is discharged to the extent of all subsequent liability for interest, costs and attorney's fees.
2. The holder's refusal of such tender wholly discharges any party who has a right of recourse against the party making the tender.
3. Where the maker or acceptor of an instrument payable otherwise than on demand is able and ready to pay at every place of payment specified in the instrument when it is due, it is equivalent to tender.

§554.3605  Cancellation and renunciation.
1. The holder of an instrument may even without consideration discharge any party
a. in any manner apparent on the face of the instrument or the endorsement, as by intentionally canceling the instrument or the party's signature by destruction or mutilation, or by striking out the party's signature; or
b. by renouncing that holder's rights by a writing signed and delivered or by surrender of the instrument to the party to be discharged.
2. Neither cancellation nor renunciation without surrender of the instrument affects the title thereto.

§554.3606  Impairment of recourse or of collateral.
1. The holder discharges any party to the instrument to the extent that without such party's consent the holder
a. without express reservation of rights releases or agrees not to sue any person against whom the party has to the knowledge of the holder a right of recourse or agrees to suspend the right to enforce against such person the instrument or collateral or otherwise discharges such person, except that failure or delay in effecting any required presentment, protest or notice of dishonor with respect to any such person does not discharge any party as to whom presentment, protest or notice of dishonor is effective or unnecessary; or
b. unjustifiably impairs any collateral for the instrument given by or on behalf of the party or any person against whom the party has a right of recourse.
2. By express reservation of rights against a party with a right of recourse the holder preserves
a. all the holder's rights against such party as of the time when the instrument was originally due; and
b. the right of the party to pay the instrument as of that time; and
b. all rights of such party to recourse against others.

[S13, SS15, §3060-a120; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9581; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.121; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3606]

PART 7  ADVISCE OF INTERNATIONAL SIGHT DRAFT

§554.3701  Letter of advice of international sight draft.
1. A "letter of advice" is a drawer's communication to the drawee that a described draft has been drawn.
2. Unless otherwise agreed when a bank receives from another bank a letter of advice of an international sight draft the drawee bank may immediately debit the drawer's account and stop payment or otherwise dispose of the amount and creates no trust or interest in favor of the holder.

3. Unless otherwise agreed and except where a draft is drawn under a credit issued by the drawee, the drawee of an international sight draft owes the drawer no duty to pay an unadvised draft but if it does so and the draft is genuine, may appropriately debit the drawer's account.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3701]

PART 8  MISCELLANEOUS

§554.3801  Drafts in a set.
1. Where a draft is drawn in a set of parts, each of which is numbered and expressed to be an order only if no other part has been honored, the whole of the parts constitutes one draft but a taker of any part may become a holder in due course of the draft.
2. Any person who negotiates, endorses or accepts a single part of a draft drawn in a set thereby becomes liable to any holder in due course of that part as if it were the whole set, but as between different holders in due course to whom different parts have been negotiated the holder whose title first accrues has all rights to the draft and its proceeds.

3. As against the drawee the first presented part of a draft drawn in a set is the part entitled to payment, or if a time draft to acceptance and payment. Acceptance of any subsequently presented part renders the drawee liable thereon under subsection 2. With respect to both to a holder and to the drawer payment of a subsequently presented part of a draft payable at sight has the same effect as payment of a check notwithstanding an effective stop order (section 554.4407).

4. Except as otherwise provided in this section, where any part of a draft in a set is discharged by payment or otherwise the whole draft is discharged.

§554.3802 Effect of instrument on obligation for which it is given.

1. Unless otherwise agreed where an instrument is taken for an underlying obligation
   a. the obligation is pro tanto discharged if a bank is drawer, maker or acceptor of the instrument and there is no recourse on the instrument against the underlying obligor; and
   b. in any other case the obligation is suspended pro tanto until the instrument is due or if it is payable on demand until its presentment. If the instrument is dishonored action may be maintained on either the instrument or the obligation; discharge of the underlying obligor on the instrument also discharges that obligor on the obligation.

2. The taking in good faith of a check which is not postdated does not of itself extend the time on the original obligation as to discharge a surety.

§554.3803 Notice to third party.

Where a defendant is sued for breach of an obligation for which a third person is answerable under this Article the defendant may give the third person written notice of the litigation, and the person notified may then give similar notice to any other person who is answerable over to that third party under this Article. If the notice states that the person notified may come in and defend and that if the person notified does not so the person notified will in any action against the person notified by the person giving the notice be bound by any determination of fact common to the two litigations, then unless after seasonable receipt of the notice the person notified does come in and defend the person notified is bound.

§554.3804 Lost, destroyed or stolen instruments.

The owner of an instrument which is lost, whether by destruction, theft or otherwise, may maintain an action in the owner's own name and recover from any party liable thereon upon due proof of the owner's ownership, the facts which prevent the owner's pro-

§554.3806 Civil remedy for dishonor of a check, draft or order.

1. In a civil action against a person who makes a check, draft or order for the payment of money which has been dishonored for lack of funds or credit or because the maker has no account with the drawee, the plaintiff may recover from the defendant damages triple the amount for which the dishonored check, draft or order is drawn. However, damages under this section shall not exceed by more than five hundred dollars the amount of the check, draft or order and may be awarded only if all the following are true:
   a. The plaintiff made written demand by restricted certified mail of the defendant for payment of the amount of the check, draft, or order not less than thirty days before commencing the action.
   b. The defendant has failed to tender to the plaintiff, prior to commencement of the action, an amount of money not less than the amount demanded.
   c. The plaintiff clearly and conspicuously posted a notice at the usual place of payment, or in a billing statement of the plaintiff, stating that civil damages pursuant to this section would be sought upon dishonor.

2. In an action for damages pursuant to subsection 1, if the court or jury determines that the failure of the defendant to satisfy the dishonored check was due to economic hardship, the court or jury may waive all or part of the allowable civil damages. However, if the court or jury waives all or part of the civil damages, the court or jury shall render judgment against the defendant in the amount of the dishonored check, draft or order and the actual costs incurred by the plaintiff in bringing the action.

3. This section does not apply if the reason for the dishonor of the check, draft or order is that the maker has stopped payment pursuant to section 554.4403 because of a bona fide dispute between the maker and the holder relating to the consideration for which the check, draft, or order was given.

4. In actions brought pursuant to this section, no additional award pursuant to section 625.22 shall be made.

ARTICLE 4

BANK DEPOSITS AND COLLECTIONS

PART 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS AND DEFINITIONS
§554.4101 Short title.
This Article shall be known and may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code - Bank Deposits and Collections
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4101]

1 To the extent that items within this Article are also within the scope of Articles 3 and 8, they are subject to the provisions of those Articles. In the event of conflict the provisions of this Article govern those of Article 3 but the provisions of Article 8 govern those of this Article.
2 The liability of a bank for action or nonaction with respect to any item handled by it for purposes of presentment, payment or collection is governed by the law of the place where the bank is located. In the case of action or nonaction by or at a branch or separate office of a bank, its liability is governed by the law of the place where the branch or separate office is located

1 The effect of the provisions of this Article may be varied by agreement except that no agreement can disclaim a bank’s responsibility for its own lack of good faith or failure to exercise ordinary care or can limit the measure of damages for such lack or failure, but the parties may by agreement determine the standards by which such responsibility is to be measured if such standards are not manifestly unreasonable.
2 Federal Reserve regulations and operating letters, clearing house rules, and the like, have the effect of agreements under subsection 1, whether or not specifically assented to by all parties interested in items handled.
3 Action or nonaction approved by this Article or pursuant to Federal Reserve regulations or operating letters constitutes the exercise of ordinary care and, in the absence of special instructions, action or nonaction consistent with clearing house rules and the like or with a general banking usage not disapproved by this Article, prima facie constitutes the exercise of ordinary care.
4 The specification or approval of certain procedures by this Article does not constitute disapproval of other procedures which may be reasonable under the circumstances.
5 The measure of damages for failure to exercise ordinary care in handling an item is the amount of the item reduced by an amount which could not have been realized by the use of ordinary care, and where there is bad faith it includes other damages, if any, suffered by the party as a proximate consequence.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4103]

§554.4104 Definitions and index of definitions.
1 In this Article unless the context otherwise requires a “Account” means any account with a bank and includes a checking, time, interest or savings account.
b “Afternoon” means the period of a day between noon and midnight.
c “Banking day” means that part of any day on which a bank is open to the public for carrying on substantially all of its banking functions.
d “Clearing house” means any association of banks or other payors regularly clearing items.
e “Customer” means any person having an account with a bank or for whom a bank has agreed to collect items and includes a bank carrying an account with another bank.
f “Documentary draft” means any negotiable or nonnegotiable draft with accompanying documents, securities or other papers to be delivered against honor of the draft.
g “Item” means any instrument for the payment of money even though it is not negotiable but does not include money.
h “Midnight deadline” with respect to a bank is midnight on its next banking day following the banking day on which it receives the relevant item or notice or from which the time for taking action commences to run, whichever is later.
i “Properly payable” includes the availability of funds for payment at the time of decision to pay or dishonor.
j “Settle” means to pay in cash, by clearing house settlement, in a charge on credit or by remittance, or otherwise as instructed. A settlement may be either provisional or final.
k “Suspends payments” with respect to a bank means that it has been closed by order of the supervisory authorities, that a public officer has been appointed to take it over or that it ceases or refuses to make payments in the ordinary course of business.

4 In addition Article 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this Article

554.4105 “Depositary bank” — “intermediary bank” — “collecting bank” — “payor bank” — “presenting bank” — “remitting bank”.

In this Article unless the context otherwise requires a “Depositary bank” means the first bank to which an item is transferred for collection even though it is also the payor bank, b “Payor bank” means a bank by which an item is payable as drawn or accepted, c “Intermediary bank” means any bank to which an item is transferred in course of collection except the depositary or payor bank, d “Collecting bank” means any bank handling the item for collection except the payor bank, e “Presenting bank” means any bank presenting an item except a payor bank, f “Remitting bank” means any payor or intermediary bank remitting for an item
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 4105]

554.4106 Separate office of a bank.

A branch or separate office of a bank is a separate bank for the purpose of computing the time within which and determining the place at or to which action may be taken or notices or orders shall be given under this Article and under Article 3

554.4107 Time of receipt of items.

1 For the purpose of allowing time to process items, prove balances and make the necessary entries on its books to determine its position for the day, a bank may fix an afternoon hour of two PM or later as a cutoff hour for the handling of money and items and the making of entries on its books.
2 Any item or deposit of money received on any day after a cutoff hour so fixed or after the close of the banking day may be treated as being received at the opening of the next banking day

554.4108 Delays

1 Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank in good faith effort to secure payment may in the case of specific items and with or without the approval of any person involved, waive, modify or extend time periods imposed or permitted by this chapter for a period not in excess of an additional banking day without discharge of secondary parties and without liability to its transferor or any prior party
2 Delay by a collecting bank or payor bank beyond time limits prescribed or permitted by this chapter or by instructions is excused if caused by interruption of communication facilities, suspension of payments by another bank, war, emergency conditions or other circumstances beyond the control of the bank provided it exercises such diligence as the circumstances require

554.4109 Process of posting.

The “process of posting” means the usual procedure followed by a payor bank in determining to pay an item and in recording the payment including one or more of the following or other steps as determined by the bank a verification of any signature,
b ascertaining that sufficient funds are available,
c affixing a “paid” or other stamp,
d entering a charge or entry to a customer’s account,
e correcting or reversing an entry or erroneous action with respect to the item
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 4109]

COLLECTION OF ITEMS DEPOSITARY AND COLLECTING BANKS

554.4201 Presumption and duration of agency status of collecting banks and provisional status of credits — applicability of Article — item endorsed “pay any bank”.

1 Unless a contrary intent clearly appears and prior to the time that a settlement given by a collecting bank for an item is or becomes final (subsection 2 of section 554 4211 and sections 554 4212 and 554 4213) the bank is an agent or subagent of the owner of the item and any settlement given for the item is provisional. This provision applies regardless of the form of endorsement or lack of endorsement and even though credit given for the item is subject to immediate withdrawal as of right or is in fact withdrawn, but the continuance of ownership of an item by its owner and any rights of the owner to proceeds of the item are subject to rights of a collecting bank such as those resulting from outstanding advances on the item and valid rights of setoff. When an item is handled by banks for purposes of presentment, payment and collection, the relevant provisions of this Article apply even though action of parties clearly establishes that a particular bank has purchased the item and is the owner of it.
2 After an item has been endorsed with the words “pay any bank” or the like, only a bank may acquire the rights of a holder a until the item has been returned to the customer initiating collection, or b until the item has been specially endorsed by a bank to a person who is not a bank
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 4201]

554.4202 Responsibility for collection — when action seasonable.

1 A collecting bank must use ordinary care in a presenting an item or sending it for presentment, and b sending notice of dishonor or nonpayment or returning an item other than a documentary draft to the bank’s transferor or directly to the depositary bank under subsection 2 of section 554 4212 after learning that the item has not been paid or accepted, as the case may be, and c settling for an item when the bank receives final settlement, and d making or providing for any necessary protest, and §554.4202 496

2 e notifying its transferor of any loss or delay in transit within a reasonable time after discovery thereof.

2 A collecting bank taking proper action before its midnight deadline following receipt of an item, notice or payment acts seasonably, taking proper action within a reasonably longer time may be reasonable but the bank has the burden of so establishing.

3 Subject to subsection 1 "a" a bank is not liable for the insolvency, neglect, misconduct, mistake or default of another bank or person or for loss or destruction of an item in transit or in the possession of others.

554.4203 Effect of instructions.

Subject to the provisions of Article 3 concerning conversion of instruments (section 554 3419) and the provisions of both Article 3 and this Article concerning restrictive endorsements only a collecting bank's transferor can give instructions which affect the bank or constitute notice to it and a collecting bank is not liable to prior parties for any action taken pursuant to such instructions or in accordance with any agreement with its transferor.

554.4204 Methods of sending and presenting — sending direct to payor bank.

1 A collecting bank must send items by reasonably prompt methods taking into consideration any relevant instructions, the nature of the item, the number of such items on hand, and the cost of collection involved and the method generally used by it or others to present such items.

2 A collecting bank may send

a. any item direct to the payor bank,

b. any item to any nonbank payor if authorized by its transferor, and

c. any item other than documentary drafts to any nonbank payor, if authorized by Federal Reserve regulation or operating letter, clearing house rule or the like.

3 Presentment may be made by a presenting bank at a place where the payor bank has requested that presentment be made.

554.4205 Supplying missing endorsement — no notice from prior endorsement.

1 A depositary bank which has taken an item for collection may supply any endorsement of the customer which is necessary to title unless the item contains the words "payee's endorsement required" or the like. In the absence of such a requirement a statement placed on the item by the depositary bank to the effect that the item was deposited by a customer or credited to the customer's account is effective as the customer's endorsement.

2 An intermediary bank, or payor bank which is not a depositary bank, is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by a restrictive endorsement on any person except the bank's immediate transferor.

554.4206 Transfer between banks.

Any agreed method which identifies the transferor bank is sufficient for the item's further transfer to another bank.

554.4207 Warranties of customer and collecting bank on transfer or presentment of items — time for claims.

1 Each customer or collecting bank who obtains payment or acceptance of an item and each prior customer and collecting bank warrants to the payor bank or other payor who in good faith pays or accepts the item that

a. that customer or collecting bank has a good title to the item or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title, and

b. that customer or collecting bank has no knowledge that the signature of the maker or drawer is unauthorized, except that this warranty is not given by any customer or collecting bank that is a holder in due course and acts in good faith.

1 to a maker with respect to the maker's own signature, or

ii to a drawer with respect to the drawer's own signature, whether or not the drawer is also the drawer.

2 to a presenter of a draft whether or not the drawer is also the drawer, or iii to an acceptor of an item if the holder in due course took the item after the acceptance or obtained the acceptance without knowledge that the drawer's signature was unauthorized, and

iv the items have not been materially altered, except that this warranty is not given by any customer or collecting bank that is a holder in due course and acts in good faith.

1 to the maker of a note, or

2 to the presenter of a draft whether or not the drawer is also the drawer, or

3 to the acceptor of an item if the holder in due course took the item after the acceptance, even though the acceptance provided "payable as originally drawn" or equivalent terms, or

4 to the acceptor of an item with respect to an alteration made after the acceptance.

2 Each customer and collecting bank who transfers an item and receives a settlement or other consideration for it warrants to that customer's and collecting bank's transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank who takes the item in good faith that

a. that customer and collecting bank has a good title to the item or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title and the transfer is otherwise rightful, and

b. all signatures are genuine or authorized, and

c. the item has not been materially altered, and

d. no defense of any party is good against that customer and collecting bank, and

e. that customer and collecting bank has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding instituted with respect to the maker or acceptor or the drawer of an unaccepted item.

In addition each customer and collecting bank so transferring an item and receiving a settlement or other consideration engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor and protest that customer and collecting bank will take up the item.

3 The warranties and the engagement to honor set forth in the two preceding subsections arise notwith standing the absence of endorsement or words of guaranty or warranty in the transfer or presentment and a collecting bank remains liable for their breach despite remittance to its transferor. Damages for breach of such warranties or engagement to honor shall not exceed the consideration received by the customer or collecting bank responsible plus finance charges and expenses related to the item, if any.

4 Unless a claim for breach of warranty under this section is made within a reasonable time after the person claiming learns of the breach, the person liable is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in making claim.

554.4208 Security interest of collecting bank in items, accompanying documents and proceeds.

1 A bank has a security interest in an item and any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either a in case of an item deposited in an account to the extent to which credit given for the item has been withdrawn or applied, b in case of an item for which it has given credit available for withdrawal as of right, to the extent of the credit given whether or not the credit is drawn upon and whether or not there is a right of charge-back, or c if it makes an advance on or against the item
   2 When credit which has been given for several items received at one time or pursuant to a single agreement is withdrawn or applied in part the security interest remains upon all the items, any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either. For the purpose of this section, credits first given are first withdrawn
   3 Receipt by a collecting bank of a final settlement for an item is a realization on its security interest in the item, accompanying documents and proceeds. To the extent and so long as the bank does not receive a final settlement for the item or give up possession of the item or accompanying documents for purposes other than collection, the security interest continues and is subject to the provisions of Article 9 except that a no security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable (subsection 1 “b” of section 554 9203), and b no filing is required to perfect the security interest, and c the security interest has priority over conflicting perfected security interests in the item, accompanying documents or proceeds

554.4209 When bank gives value for purposes of holder in due course.

For purposes of determining its status as a holder in due course, the bank has given value to the extent that it has a security interest in an item provided that the bank otherwise complies with the requirements of section 554 3302 on what constitutes a holder in due course

554.4210 Presentment by notice of item not payable by, through or at a bank — liability of secondary parties.

1 Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank may present an item not payable by, through or at a bank by sending to the party to accept or pay a written notice that the bank holds the item for acceptance or payment. The notice must be sent in time to be received on or before the day when presentment is due and the bank must meet any requirement of the party to accept or pay under section 554 3505 by the close of the bank’s next banking day after it knows of the requirement.

2 Where presentment is made by notice and neither honor nor request for compliance with a requirement under section 554 3505 is received by the close of business on the day after maturity or in the case of demand items by the close of business on the third banking day after notice was sent, the presenting bank may treat the item as dishonored and charge any secondary party by sending the secondary party notice of the facts.

554.4211 Media of remittance — provisional and final settlement in remittance cases.

1 A collecting bank may take in settlement of an item a a check of the remitting bank or of another bank on any bank except the remitting bank, or b a cashier’s check or similar primary obligation of a remitting bank which is a member of or clears through a member of the same clearing house or group as the collecting bank, or c appropriate authority to charge an account of the remitting bank or of another bank with the collecting bank, d if the item is drawn upon or payable by a person other than a bank, a cashier’s check, certified check or other bank check or obligation

2 If before its midnight deadline the collecting bank properly dishonors a remittance check or authorization to charge on itself or presents or forwards for collection a remittance instrument of or on another bank which is of a kind approved by subsection 1 or has not been authorized by it, the collecting bank is not liable to prior parties in the event of the dishonor of such check, instrument or authorization.

3 A settlement for an item by means of a remittance instrument or authorization to charge is or becomes a final settlement as to both the person making and the person receiving the settlement.
   a if the remittance instrument or authorization to charge is of a kind approved by subsection 1 or has not been authorized by the person receiving the settlement and in either case the person receiving the settlement acts seasonably before its midnight deadline in presenting, forwarding for collection or paying the instrument or authorization, — at the time the remittance instrument or authorization is finally paid by the payor by which it is payable.
   b if the person receiving the settlement has authorized remittance by a nonbank check or obligation or by a cashier’s check or similar primary obligation of or a check upon the payor or other remitting bank which is not of a kind approved by subsection 1 "b", — at the time of receipt of such remittance check or obligation, or c if in a case not covered by subparagraphs "a" or "b" the person receiving the settlement fails to seasonably present, forward for collection, pay or return a remittance instrument or authorization to it to charge before its midnight deadline, — at such midnight deadline

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 4211]

554.4212 Right of charge-back or refund.

1 If a collecting bank has made provisional settlement with its customer for an item and itself fails by reason of dishonor, suspension of payments by a bank or otherwise to receive a settlement for the item which is or becomes final, the bank may revoke the settlement given by it, charge back the amount of any credit given for the item to its customer's account or obtain refund from its customer whether or not it is able to return the items if by its midnight deadline or within a longer reasonable time after it learns the facts it returns the item or sends notification of the facts.

These rights to revoke, charge back and obtain refund terminate if and when a settlement for the item received by the bank is or becomes final (subsection 3 of section 554 4211 and subsections 2 and 3 of section 554 4213)

2 Within the time and manner prescribed by this section and section 554 4301, an intermediary or payor bank as the case may be, may return an unpaid item to the presenting bank or the closed bank's customer within a longer reasonable time after it learns the facts it returns the item or sends notification of the facts.

These rights to revoke, charge back and obtain refund
terminate if and when a settlement for the item received by the bank is or becomes final (subsection 3 of section 554 4211 and subsections 2 and 3 of section 554 4213)

3 A depositary bank which is also the payor may charge back the amount of an item to its customer's account or obtain refund in accordance with the section governing return of an item received by a payor bank for credit on its books (section 554 4301)

4 The right to charge back is not affected by a prior use of the credit given for the item, or b failure by any bank to exercise ordinary care with respect to the item but any bank so failing remains liable

5 A failure to charge-back or claim refund does not affect other rights of the bank against the customer or any other party

6 If credit is given in dollars as the equivalent of the value of an item payable in a foreign currency the dollar amount of any charge back or refund shall be calculated on the basis of the buying sight rate for the foreign currency prevailing on the day when the person entitled to the charge back or refund learns that it will not receive payment in ordinary course

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 4212]

554.4213 Final payment of item by payor bank — when provisional debits and credits become final — when certain credits become available for withdrawal.

1 An item is finally paid by a payor bank when the bank has done any of the following, whichever happens first

  a paid the item in cash, or b settled for the item without reserving a right to revoke the settlement and without having such right under statute, clearing house rule or agreement, or c completed the process of posting the item to the indicated account of the drawer, maker or other pertson to be charged therewith, or d made a provisional settlement for the item and failed to revoke the settlement in the time and manner permitted by statute, clearing house rule or agreement

Upon a final payment under subparagraphs "b," "c" or "d" the payor bank shall be accountable for the amount of the item

2 If provisional settlement for an item between the presenting and payor banks is made through a clearing house or by debits or credits in an account between them, then to the extent that provisional debits or credits for the item are entered in accounts between the presenting and payor banks or between the presenting and successive prior collecting banks seratim, they become final upon final payment of the item by the payor bank

3 If a collecting bank receives a settlement for an item which is or becomes final (subsection 3 of section 554 4211, subsection 2 of this section) the bank is accountable to its customer for the amount of the item and any provisional credit given for the item in an account with its customer becomes final

4 Subject to any right of the bank to apply the credit to an obligation of the customer, credit given by a bank for an item in an account with its customer becomes available for withdrawal as of right

  a in any case where the bank has received a provisional settlement for the item, — when such settlement becomes final and the bank has had a reasonable time to learn that the settlement is final, b in any case where the bank is both a depositary bank and a payor bank and the item is finally paid, — at the opening of the bank's second banking day following receipt of the item

5 A deposit of money in a bank is final when made but, subject to any right of the bank to apply the deposit to an obligation of the customer, the deposit becomes available for withdrawal as of right at the opening of the bank's next banking day following recept of the deposit

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 4213]

554.4214 Insolvency and preference.

1 Any item in or coming into the possession of a payor or collecting bank which suspends payment and which item is not finally paid shall be returned by the receiver, trustee or agent in charge of the closed bank
to the presenting bank or the closed bank's customer

2 If a payor bank finally pays an item and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer or the presenting bank which settlement is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against the payor bank

3 If a payor bank gives or a collecting bank gives or receives a provisional settlement for an item and thereafter suspends payments, the suspension does not prevent or interfere with the settlement becoming final if such finality occurs automatically upon the lapse of certain time or the happening of certain events (subsection 3 of section 554 4211, subsections 1 "d", 2 and 3 of section 554 4213)
4 If a collecting bank receives from subsequent parties settlement for an item which settlement is or becomes final and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer which is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against such collecting bank
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 4214]

PART 3

COLLECTION OF ITEMS - PAYOR BANKS

554.4301 Deferred posting — recovery of payment by return of items — time of dishonor.
1 Where an authorized settlement for a demand item (other than a documentary draft) received by a payor bank otherwise than for immediate payment over the counter has been made before midnight of the banking day of receipt the payor bank may revoke the settlement and recover any payment if before it has made final payment (subsection 1 of section 554 4213) and before its midnight deadline a returns the item, or b sends written notice of dishonor or nonpayment if the item is held for protest or is otherwise unavailable for return, and the item or notice includes the reason for dishonor or nonpayment 2 If a demand item is received by a payor bank for credit on its books it may return such item or send notice of dishonor and may revoke any credit given or recovered the amount thereof withdrawn by its customer according to a the original tenor of the customer's altered item, or b the original tenor of the customer's completed item, or c settled for the item without reserving a right to revoke the settlement and without having such right under statute, clearing house rule or agreement, d completed the process of posting the item to the indicated account of the drawer, maker or other person to be charged therewith or otherwise has evidenced by examination of such indicated account and by action its decision to pay the item, or e become accountable for the amount of the item under subsection 1 "d" of section 554 4213 and section 554 4302 dealing with the payor bank's responsibility for late return of items
2 Subject to the provisions of subsection 1 items may be accepted, paid, certified or charged to the indicated account of its customer in any order convenient to the bank
[C31, 35, §9266 d1, C39, §9266; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §528 62, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 4303]

PART 4

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN PAYOR BANK AND ITS CUSTOMER

554.4302 Payor bank's responsibility for late return of item.
In the absence of a valid defense such as breach of a presentment warranty (subsection 1 of section 554 4207), settlement effected or the like, if an item is presented on and received by a payor bank the bank is accountable for the amount of a a demand item other than a documentary draft whether properly payable or not if the bank, in any case where it is not also the depositary bank, retains the item beyond midnight of the banking day of receipt without settling for it or, regardless of whether it is also the depositary bank, does not pay or return the item or send notice of dishonor until after its midnight deadline, or b any other properly payable item unless within the time allowed for acceptance or payment of that item the bank either accepts or pays the item or returns it and accompanying documents
wrongful dishonor is a question of fact to be determined in each case.

554.4403 Customer's right to stop payment — burden of proof of loss.
1 A customer may by order to the customer's bank stop payment of any item payable for the customer's account but the order must be received at such time and in such manner as to afford the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it prior to any action by the bank with respect to the item described in section 554 4303.
2 An oral order is binding upon the bank only for fourteen calendar days unless confirmed in writing within that period. A written order is effective for only six months unless renewed in writing.
3 The burden of establishing the fact and amount of loss resulting from the payment of an item contrary to a binding stop payment order is on the customer.

554.4404 Bank not obligated to pay check more than six months old.
A bank is under no obligation to a customer having a checking account to pay a check, other than a certified check, which is presented more than six months after its date, but it may charge its customer's account for a payment made thereafter in good faith.

554.4405 Death or incompetence of customer.
1 A payor or collecting bank's authority to accept, pay or collect an item or to account for proceeds of its collection if otherwise effective is not rendered ineffective by incompetence of a customer of either bank existing at the time the item is issued or its collection is undertaken if the bank does not know of an adjudication of incompetence. Neither death nor incompetence of a customer revokes such authority to accept, pay, collect or account until the bank knows of the fact of death or of an adjudication of incompetence and has reasonable opportunity to act on it.
2 Even with knowledge a bank may for ten days after the date of death pay or certify checks drawn on or prior to that date unless ordered to stop payment by a person claiming an interest in the account.

554.4406 Customer's duty to discover and report unauthorized signature or alteration.
1 When a bank sends to its customer a statement of account accompanied by items paid in good faith in support of the debit entries or holds the statement and items pursuant to a request or instructions of its customer or otherwise in a reasonable manner makes the statement and items available to the customer, the customer must exercise reasonable care and promptness to examine the statement and items to discover the customer's unauthorized signature or any alteration on an item and must notify the bank promptly after discovery thereof.
2 If the bank establishes that the customer failed with respect to an item to comply with the duties imposed on the customer by subsection 1 the customer is precluded from asserting against the bank:
   a. the customer's unauthorized signature or any alteration on the item if the bank also establishes that it suffered a loss by reason of such failure, and
   b. an unauthorized signature or alteration by the same wrongdoer on any other item paid in good faith by the bank after the first item and statement was available to the customer for a reasonable period not exceeding fourteen calendar days and before the bank receives notification from the customer of any such unauthorized signature or alteration.
3 The preclusion under subsection 2 does not apply if the customer establishes lack of ordinary care on the part of the bank in paying the item(s).
4 Without regard to care or lack of care of either the customer or the bank a customer who does not within one year from the time the statement and items are made available to the customer (subsection 1) discover and report the customer's unauthorized signature or any alteration on the face or back of the item or does not within three years from that time discover and report any unauthorized endorsement is precluded from asserting against the bank such unauthorized signature or endorsement or such alteration.
5 If under this section a payor bank has a valid defense against a claim of a customer upon or resulting from payment of an item and waves or fails upon request to assert the defense the bank may not assert against any collecting bank or other prior party presenting or transferring the item a claim based upon the unauthorized signature or alteration giving rise to the customer's claim.

554.4407 Payor bank's right to subrogation on improper payment.
If a payor bank has paid an item over the stop payment order of the drawer or maker or otherwise under circumstances giving a basis for objection by the drawer or maker, to prevent unjust enrichment and only to the extent necessary to prevent loss to the bank by reason of its payment of the item, the payor bank shall be subrogated to the rights:
   a. of any holder in due course on the item against the drawer or maker, and
   b. of the payee or any other holder of the item against the drawer or maker either on the item or under the transaction out of which the item arose, and
   c. of the drawer or maker against the payee or any other holder of the item with respect to the transaction out of which the item arose.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 4407]

PART 5

COLLECTION OF DOCUMENTARY DRAFTS

554.4501 Handling of documentary drafts — duty to send for presentment and to notify customer of dishonor.
A bank which takes a documentary draft for collection must present or send the draft and accompanying documents for presentment and upon learning that the draft has not been paid or accepted in due course must seasonably notify its customer of such fact even though it may have discounted or bought the draft or extended credit available for withdrawal as of right

§554.5103 Definitions.

1 In this Article unless the context otherwise requires a “Credit” or “letter of credit” means an engagement by a bank or other person made at the request of a customer and of a kind within the scope of this Article (section 554.5102) that the issuer will honor drafts or other demands for payment upon compliance with the conditions specified in the credit. A credit may be either revocable or irrevocable. The engagement may be either an agreement to honor or a statement that the bank or other person is authorized to honor

b A “documentary draft” or a “documentary demand for payment” is one honor of which is condition upon the presentation of a document or documents. “Document” means any paper including document of title, security, invoice, certificate, notice of default and the like

c An “issuer” is a bank or other person issuing a credit

d A “beneficiary” of a credit is a person who is entitled under its terms to draw or demand payment

e An “advising bank” is a bank which gives notification of the issuance of a credit by another bank

f A “confirming bank” is a bank which engages either that it will itself honor a credit already issued by another bank or that such a credit will be honored by the issuer or a third bank

g A “customer” is a buyer or other person who causes an issuer to issue a credit. The term also includes a bank which procures issuance or confirmation on behalf of that bank’s customer

554.5104 Formal requirements — signing.

1 Except as otherwise required in subsection 1 "e" of section 554 5102 on scope, no particular form of phrasing is required for a credit A credit must be in writing and signed by the issuer and a confirmation must be in writing and signed by the confirming bank A modification of the terms of a credit or confirmation must be signed by the issuer or confirming bank

2 A telegram may be a sufficient signed writing if it identifies its sender by an authorized authentication The authentication may be in code and the authorized naming of the issuer in an advice of credit is a sufficient signing

554.5105 Consideration.

No consideration is necessary to establish a credit or to enlarge or otherwise modify its terms

554.5106 Time and effect of establishment of credit.

1 Unless otherwise agreed a letter of credit is established a as regards the customer as soon as a letter of credit is sent to the customer or the letter of credit or an authorized written advice of its issuance is sent to the beneficiary, and b as regards the beneficiary when the beneficiary receives a letter of credit or an authorized written advice of its issuance

2 Unless otherwise agreed once an irrevocable credit is established as regards the customer it can be modified or revoked only with the consent of the customer and once it is established as regards the beneficiary it can be modified or revoked only with the beneficiary's consent

3 Unless otherwise agreed after a revocable credit is established it may be modified or revoked by the issuer without notice to or consent from the customer or beneficiary

4 Notwithstanding any modification or revocation of a revocable credit any person authorized to honor or negotiate under the terms of the original credit is entitled to reimbursement for or honor of any draft or demand for payment duly honored or negotiated before receipt of notice of the modification or revocation and the issuer in turn is entitled to reimbursement from its customer

554.5107 Advice of credit — confirmation — error in statement of terms.

1 Unless otherwise specified an advising bank by advising a credit issued by another bank does not as assume any obligation to honor drafts drawn or demands for payment made under the credit but it does assume obligation for the accuracy of its own statement

2 A confirming bank by confirming a credit becomes directly obligated on the credit to the extent of its confirmation as though it were its issuer and acquires the rights of an issuer

3 Even though an advising bank incorrectly advises the terms of a credit it has been authorized to advise the credit is established as against the issuer to the extent of its original terms

4 Unless otherwise specified the customer bears as against the issuer all risks of transmission and reasonable translation or interpretation of any message relating to a credit

554.5108 "Notation credit" — exhaustion of credit.

1 A credit which specifies that any person pur chasing or paying drafts drawn or demands for payment made under it must note the amount of the draft or demand on the letter or advice of credit is a "notation credit"

2 Under a notation credit a a person paying the beneficiary or purchasing a draft or demand for payment from the beneficiary acquires a right to honor only if the appropriate notation is made and by transferring or forwarding for honor of the documents under the credit such a person warrants to the issuer that the notation has been made, and b unless the credit or a signed statement that an appropriate notation has been made accompanies the draft or demand for payment the issuer may delay honor until evidence of notation has been procured which is satisfactory to it but its obligation and that of its customer continue for a reasonable time not exceeding thirty days to obtain such evidence

3 If the credit is not a notation credit a the issuer may honor complying drafts or demands for payment presented to it in the order in which they are presented and is discharged pro tanto by honor of any such draft or demand, b as between competing good faith purchasers of complying drafts or demands the person first purchasing has priority over a subsequent purchaser even though the later purchased draft or demand has been first honored

554.5109 Issuer's obligation to its customer.

1 An issuer's obligation to its customer includes good faith and observance of any general banking usage but unless otherwise agreed does not include liability or responsibility a for performance of the underlying contract for sale or other transaction between the customer and the beneficiary, or b for any act or omission of any person other than itself or its own branch or for loss or destruction of a draft, demand or document in transit or in the possession of others, or §554.5110 Availability of credit in portions — presenter's reservation of lien or claim.

1. Unless otherwise specified a credit may be used in portions in the discretion of the beneficiary.

2. Unless otherwise specified a person by presenting a documentary draft or demand for payment under a credit relinquishes upon its honor all claims to the documents and a person by transferring such draft or demand or causing such presentment authorizes such relinquishment. An explicit reservation of claim makes the draft or demand noncomplying.

§554.5111 Warranties on transfer and presentment.

1. Unless otherwise agreed the beneficiary by transferring or presenting a documentary draft or demand for payment warrants to all interested parties arising under Articles 3, 4, 7 and 8.

2. Unless otherwise agreed a negotiating, advising, confirming, collecting or issuing bank presenting or transferring a draft or demand for payment under a credit warrants only the matters warranted by the collecting bank under Article 4 and any such bank transferring a document warrants the matters warranted by an intermediary under Articles 7 and 8.

§554.5112 Time allowed for honor or rejection — withholding honor or rejection by consent — “presenter”.

1. A bank to which a documentary draft or demand for payment is presented under a credit may without dishonor of the draft, demand or credit:
   a. defer honor until the close of the third banking day following receipt of the documents, and
   b. further defer honor if the presenter has expressly or impliedly consented thereto.

   Failure to honor within the time here specified constitutes dishonor of the draft or demand and of the credit except as otherwise provided in subsection 4 of section 554.5114 on conditional payment.

2. Upon dishonor the bank may unless otherwise instructed fulfill its duty to return the draft or demand and the documents by holding them at the disposal of the presenter and sending the presenter an advice to that effect.

3. “Presenter” means any person presenting a draft or demand for payment for honor under a credit even though that person is a confirming bank or other correspondent which is acting under an issuer's authorization.

§554.5113 Indemnities.

1. A bank seeking to obtain (whether for itself or another) honor, negotiation or reimbursement under a credit may give an indemnity to induce such honor, negotiation or reimbursement.

2. An indemnity agreement inducing honor, negotiation or reimbursement:
   a. unless otherwise explicitly agreed applies to defects in the documents but not in the goods, and
   b. unless a longer time is explicitly agreed expires at the end of ten business days following receipt of the documents by the ultimate customer unless notice of objection is sent before such expiration date. The ultimate customer may send notice of objection to the person from whom that customer received the documents and any bank receiving such notice is under a duty to send notice to its transferor before its midnight deadline.

§554.5114 Issuer's duty and privilege to honor — right to reimbursement.

1. An issuer must honor a draft or demand for payment which complies with the terms of the relevant credit regardless of whether the goods or documents conform to the underlying contract for sale or other contract between the customer and the beneficiary. The issuer is not excused from honor of such a draft or demand by reason of an additional general term that all documents must be satisfactory to the issuer, but an issuer may require that specified documents must be satisfactory to it.

2. Unless otherwise agreed when documents appear on their face to comply with the terms of a credit but a required document does not in fact conform to the warranties made on negotiation or transfer of a document of title (section 554.7502) or of a security (section 554.8306) or is forged or fraudulent or there is fraud in the transaction:
   a. the issuer must honor the draft or demand for payment if honor is demanded by a negotiating bank of other holder of the draft or demand which has taken the draft or demand under the credit and under circumstances which would make it a holder in due course (section 554.3302) and in an appropriate case would make it a person to whom a document of title has been duly negotiated (section 554.7502) or a bona fide purchaser of a security (section 554.8302), and
   b. in all other cases as against its customer, an issuer acting in good faith may honor the draft or demand for payment despite notification from the customer of fraud, forgery or other defect not apparent on the face of the documents but a court of appropriate jurisdiction may enjoin such honor.

3. Unless otherwise agreed an issuer which has duly honored a draft or demand for payment is entitled to immediate reimbursement of any payment made under the credit and to be put in effectively available funds not later than the day before maturity of any acceptance made under the credit.

4. When a credit provides for payment by the issuer on receipt of notice that the required documents are in the possession of a correspondent or other agent of the issuer:
   a. any payment made on receipt of such notice is conditional, and b the issuer may reject documents which do not comply with the credit if it does so within three banking days following its receipt of the documents, and c in the event of such rejection, the issuer is entitled by charge-back or otherwise to return of the payment made.

5 In the case covered by subsection 4 failure to reject documents within the time specified in subparagraph "b" constitutes acceptance of the documents and makes the payment final in favor of the beneficiary.

1 When an issuer wrongfully dishonors a draft or demand for payment presented under a credit the person entitled to honor has with respect to any documents the rights of a person in the position of a seller (section 554 2707) and may recover from the issuer the face amount of the draft or demand together with incidental damages under section 554 2710 on seller's incidental damages and interest but less any amount realized by resale or other use or disposition of the subject matter of the transaction. In the event no resale or other utilization is made the documents, goods or other subject matter involved in the transaction must be turned over to the issuer on payment of judgment.

2 When an issuer wrongfully cancels or otherwise repudiates a credit before presentment of a draft or demand for payment drawn under it the beneficiary has the rights of a seller after anticipatory repudiation by the buyer under section 554 2610 if the beneficiary learns of the repudiation in time reasonably to avoid procurement of the required documents. Otherwise the beneficiary has an immediate right of action for wrongful dishonor.

§554.5116 Transfer and assignment.

1 The right to draw under a credit can be transferred or assigned only when the credit is expressly designated as transferable or assignable.

2 Even though the credit specifically states that it is nontransferable or nonassignable the beneficiary may before performance of the conditions of the credit assign the beneficiary's right to proceed. Such an assignment is an assignment of an account under Article 9 on Secured Transactions and is governed by that Article except that a the assignment is ineffective until the letter of credit or advice of credit is delivered to the assignee which delivery constitutes perfection of the security interest under Article 9, and

b the issuer may honor drafts or demands for payment drawn under the credit until it receives a notification of the assignment signed by the beneficiary which reasonably identifies the credit involved in the assignment and contains a request to pay the assignee, and c after what reasonably appears to be such a notification has been received the issuer may without dishonor refuse to honor or pay even to a person otherwise entitled to honor until the letter of credit or advice of credit is exhibited to the issuer.

3 Except where the beneficiary has effectively as signed the beneficiary's right to draw or the beneficiary's right to proceed, nothing in this section limits the beneficiary's right to transfer or negotiate drafts or demands drawn under the credit.

§554.5117 Insolvency of bank holding funds for documentary credit.

1 Where an issuer or an advising or confirming bank or a bank which has for a customer procured issuance of a credit by another bank becomes insolvent before final payment under the credit and the credit is one to which this Article is made applicable by paragraphs "a" or "b" of section 554 5102 subsection 1 on scope, the receipt or allocation of funds or collateral to secure or meet obligations under the credit shall have the following results:

a to the extent of any funds or collateral turned over after or before the insolvency as indemnity against or specifically for the purpose of payment of drafts or demands for payment drawn under the designated credit, the drafts or demands are entitled to payment in preference over depositors or other general creditors of the issuer or bank, and

b on expiration of the credit or surrender of the beneficiary's rights under it unused any person who has given such funds or collateral is similarly entitled to return thereof, and c a change to a general or current account with a bank if specifically consented to for the purpose of indemnity against or payment of drafts or demands for payment drawn under the designated credit falls under the same rules as if the funds had been drawn out in cash and then turned over with specific instructions.

2 After honor or reimbursement under this section the customer or other person for whose account the insolvent bank has acted is entitled to receive the documents involved.

ARTICLE 6

BULK TRANSFERS

§554.6101 Short title.

This Article shall be known and may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code — Bulk Transfers.

§554.6102 "Bulk transfers" — transfers of equipment — enterprises subject to this Article — bulk transfers subject to this Article.

1 A "bulk transfer" is any transfer in bulk and not in the ordinary course of the transferee's business of a major part in value of the materials, supplies, merchandise or other inventory (section 554 9109) of an enterprise subject to this Article.

2 A transfer of a substantial part of the equipment (section 554 9109) of such an enterprise is a bulk transfer if it is made in connection with a bulk transfer of inventory, but not otherwise.

3 The enterprises subject to this Article are all those whose principal business is the sale of merchandise from stock, including those who manufacture what they sell.
4 Except as limited by the following section all bulk transfers of goods located within this state are subject to this Article
[S13, §2911 c, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10009; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §555 2, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 6102]

554.6103 Transfers excepted from this Article.
The following transfers are not subject to this Article
1 Those made to give security for the performance of an obligation,
2 General assignments for the benefit of all the creditors of the transferor, and subsequent transfers by the assignee thereunder,
3 Transfers in settlement or realization of a lien or other security interest,
4 Sales by executors, administrators, receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or any public officer under judicial process,
5 Sales made in the course of judicial or administrative proceedings for the dissolution or reorganization of a corporation and of which notice is sent to the creditors of the corporation pursuant to order of the court or administrative agency,
6 Transfers to a person maintaining a known place of business in this state who becomes bound to pay the debts of the transferor in full and gives public notice of that fact, and who is solvent after becoming so bound,
7 A transfer to a new business enterprise organized to take over and continue the business, if public notice of the transaction is given and the new enterprise assumes the debts of the transferor and the transferor receives nothing from the transaction except an interest in the new enterprise junior to the claims of creditors,
8 Transfers of property which is exempt from execution
   Public notice under subsection 6 or subsection 7 may be given by publishing once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation where the transferor had its principal place of business in this state an advertisement including the names and addresses of the transferor and transferee and the effective date of the transfer
[S13, §2911 c, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10010; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §555 3, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 6103]

554.6104 Schedule of property, list of creditors.
1 Except as provided with respect to auction sales (section 554 6108), a bulk transfer subject to this Article is ineffective against any creditor of the transferor unless a The transferee requires the transferor to furnish a list of the transferor's existing creditors prepared as stated in this section, and b The parties prepare a schedule of the property transferred sufficient to identify it, and c The transferee preserves the list and schedule for six months next following the transfer and permits inspection of either or both and copying therefrom at all reasonable hours by any creditor of the transferor, or files the list and schedule in the office of the record-er in the county or counties where the goods are located 2 The list of creditors must be signed and sworn to or affirmed by the transferor or the transferor's agent. It must contain the names and business addresses of all creditors of the transferor, with the amounts when known, and also the names of all persons who are known to the transferor to assert claims against the transferor even though such claims are disputed. If the transferor is the obligor of an outstanding issue of bonds, debentures or the like as to which there is an indenture trustee, the list of creditors need include only the name and address of the indenture trustee and the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the issue

554.6105 Notice to creditors.
In addition to the requirements of the preceding section, any bulk transfer subject to this Article except one made by auction sale (section 554 6108) is ineffective against any creditor of the transferor unless at least ten days before the transferee takes possession of the goods or pays for them, whichever happens first, the transferee gives notice of the transfer in the manner and to the persons hereafter provided (section 554 6107)
[S13, §2911 a, b, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10008; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §555 1, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 6105]

554.6106 Reserved

554.6107 The notice.
1 The notice to creditors (section 554 6105) shall state a that a bulk transfer is about to be made, and b the names and business addresses of the transferor and transferee, and all other business names and addresses used by the transferee within three years past so far as known to the transferee, and c whether or not all the debts of the transferor are to be paid in full as they fall due as a result of the transaction, and if so, the address to which creditors should send their bills
2 If the debts of the transferor are not to be paid in full as they fall due or if the transferee is in doubt on that point then the notice shall state further a the location and general description of the property to be transferred and the estimated total of the transferor's debts, b the address where the schedule of property and list of creditors (section 554 6104) may be inspected, c whether the transfer is to pay existing debts and if so the amount of such debts and to whom owing,
   d whether the transfer is for new consideration and if so the amount of such consideration and the time and place of payment
3 The notice in any case shall be delivered personally or sent by registered or certified mail to all the persons shown on the list of creditors furnished by the transferor (section 554 6104) and to all other persons who are known to the transferee to hold or assert §554.6108 Auction sales — “auctioneer”.

1. A bulk transfer is subject to this Article even though it is by sale at auction, but only in the manner and with the results stated in this section.

2. The transferor shall furnish a list of the transferor's creditors and assist in the preparation of a schedule of the property to be sold, both prepared as before stated (section 554 6104).

3. The person or persons other than the transferor who direct, control or are responsible for the auction are collectively called the "auctioneer." The auctioneer shall

   a. receive and retain the list of creditors and prepare and retain the schedule of property for the period stated in this Article (section 554 6104),

   b. give notice of the auction personally or by registered or certified mail at least ten days before it occurs to all persons shown on the list of creditors and to all other persons who are known to the auctioneer to hold or assert claims against the transferor.

4. Failure of the auctioneer to perform any of these duties does not affect the validity of the sale or the title to all persons shown on the list of creditors and to all other persons who are known to the auctioneer to hold or assert claims against the transferor.

$554.6109 What creditors protected.

The creditors of the transferor mentioned in this Article are those holding claims based on transactions or events occurring before the bulk transfer, but if the auctioneer knows that the auction constitutes a bulk transfer such failure renders the auctioneer liable to the creditors of the transferor as a class for the sums owing to them from the transferor up to but not exceeding the net proceeds of the auction if the auctioneer consists of several persons their liability is joint and several.

When the title of a transferee to property is subject to a defect by reason of the transferee's noncompliance with the requirements of this Article, then

1. A purchaser of any of such property from such transferee who pays no value or who takes with notice of such noncompliance takes subject to such defect,

2. A purchaser for value in good faith and without such notice takes free of such defect.

$554.6111 Limitation of actions and levies.

No action under this Article shall be brought nor levy made more than six months after the date on which the transferee took possession of the goods unless the transfer has been concealed. If the transfer has been concealed, actions may be brought or levies made within six months after its discovery.

4 In addition Article 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this Article.

554.7103 Relation of Article to treaty, statute, tariff, classification or regulation.

To the extent that any treaty or statute of the United States, regulatory statute of this state or tariff, classification or regulation filed or issued pursuant thereto is applicable, the provisions of this Article are subject thereto.

554.7104 Negotiable and nonnegotiable warehouse receipt, bill of lading or other document of title.

1 A warehouse receipt, bill of lading or other document of title is negotiable a if by its terms the goods are to be delivered to bearer or to the order of a named person, or b where recognized in overseas trade, if it runs to a named person or assigns.

2 Any other document is nonnegotiable A bill of lading in which it is stated that the goods are consigned to a named person is not made negotiable by a provision that the goods are to be delivered only against a written order signed by the same or another named person.

554.7105 Construction against negative implication.

The omission from either Part 2 or Part 3 of this Article of a provision corresponding to a provision made in the other Part does not imply that a corresponding rule of law is not applicable.

554.7203 Liability for nonreceipt or misdescription.

A party to or purchaser for value in good faith of a document of title other than a bill of lading relying in either case upon the description therein of the goods may recover from the issuer damages caused by the omission to a person injured thereby a the location of the warehouse where the goods are stored, b the date of issue of the receipt, c the consecutive number of the receipt, d a statement whether the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, to a specified person, or to a specified person or that person's order, e the rate of storage and handling charges, except that where goods are stored under a field warehousing arrangement a statement of that fact is sufficient on a nonnegotiable receipt, f a description of the goods or of the packages containing them, g the signature of the warehouse operator, which may be made by the warehouse operator's authorized agent, h if the receipt is issued for goods of which the warehouse operator is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, the fact of such ownership, and i a statement of the amount of advances made and of liabilities incurred for which the warehouse operator claims a lien or security interest (section 554.7209) If the precise amount of such advances made or of such liabilities incurred is, at the time of the issue of the receipt, unknown to the warehouse operator or to the warehouse operator's agent who issues it, a statement of the fact that advances have been made or liabilities incurred and the purpose thereof is sufficient.

3 A warehouse operator may insert in the receipt any other terms which are not contrary to the provisions of this chapter and do not impair the warehouse operator's obligation of delivery (section 554.7403) or duty of care (section 554.7204) Any contrary provisions shall be ineffective.

554.7202 Form of warehouse receipt — essential terms — optional terms.

1 A warehouse receipt need not be in any particular form.

2 Unless a warehouse receipt embodies within its written or printed terms each of the following, the warehouse operator is liable for damages caused by the omission to a person injured thereby a the location of the warehouse where the goods are stored, b the date of issue of the receipt, c the consecutive number of the receipt, d a statement whether the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, to a specified person, or to a specified person or that person's order, e the rate of storage and handling charges, except that where goods are stored under a field warehousing arrangement a statement of that fact is sufficient on a nonnegotiable receipt, f a description of the goods or of the packages containing them, g the signature of the warehouse operator, which may be made by the warehouse operator's authorized agent, h if the receipt is issued for goods of which the warehouse operator is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, the fact of such ownership, and i a statement of the amount of advances made and of liabilities incurred for which the warehouse operator claims a lien or security interest (section 554.7209) If the precise amount of such advances made or of such liabilities incurred is, at the time of the issue of the receipt, unknown to the warehouse operator or to the warehouse operator's agent who issues it, a statement of the fact that advances have been made or liabilities incurred and the purpose thereof is sufficient.

3 A warehouse operator may insert in the receipt any other terms which are not contrary to the provisions of this chapter and do not impair the warehouse operator's obligation of delivery (section 554.7403) or duty of care (section 554.7204) Any contrary provisions shall be ineffective.
§554.7204 Duty of care — contractual limitation of warehouse operator's liability.

1 A warehouse operator is liable for damages for loss of or injury to the goods caused by the warehouse operator's failure to exercise such care in regard to them as a reasonably careful person would exercise under like circumstances but unless otherwise agreed the warehouse operator is not liable for damages which could not have been avoided by the exercise of such care.

2 Damages may be limited by a term in the warehouse receipt or storage agreement limiting the amount of liability in case of loss or damage, and setting forth a specific liability per article or item, or value per unit of weight, beyond which the warehouse operator shall not be liable, provided, however, that such liability may on written request of the bailor at the time of signing such storage agreement or within a reasonable time after receipt of the warehouse receipt be increased on part or all of the goods thereafter, in which event increased rates may be charged based on such increased valuation, but that no such increase shall be permitted contrary to a lawful limitation of liability contained in the warehouse operator's tariff, if any. No such limitation is effective with respect to the warehouse operator's liability for conversion to the warehouse operator's own use.

3 Reasonable provisions as to the time and manner of presenting claims and instituting actions based on the bailment may be included in the warehouse receipt or tariff.

§554.7205 Title under warehouse receipt defeated in certain cases.

A buyer in the ordinary course of business of fungible goods sold and delivered by a warehouse operator who is also in the business of buying and selling such goods takes free of any claim under a warehouse receipt even though it has been duly negotiated.

1 A warehouse operator may on notifying the person on whose account the goods are held and any other person known to claim an interest in the goods require payment of any charges and removal of the goods from the warehouse at the termination of the period of storage fixed by the document, or, if no period is fixed, within a stated period not less than thirty days after the notification. If the goods are not removed before the date specified in the notification, the warehouse operator may sell them in accordance with the provisions of the section on enforcement of a warehouse operator's lien (section 554 7210).

2 If a warehouse operator in good faith believes that the goods are about to deteriorate or decline in value to less than the amount of the warehouse operator's lien within the time prescribed in subsection 1 for notification, advertisement and sale, the warehouse operator may specify in the notification any reasonable shorter time for removal of the goods and in case the goods are not removed, may sell them at public sale held not less than one week after a single advertisement or posting.

3 If as a result of a quality or condition of the goods of which the warehouse operator had no notice at the time of deposit the goods are a hazard to other property or to the warehouse or to persons, the warehouse operator may sell the goods at public or private sale without advertisement on reasonable notification to all persons known to claim an interest in the goods. If the warehouse operator after a reasonable effort is unable to sell the goods the warehouse operator may dispose of them in any lawful manner and shall incur no liability by reason of such disposition.

4 The warehouse operator must deliver the goods to any person entitled to them under this Article upon due demand made at any time prior to sale or other disposition under this section.

5 The warehouse operator may satisfy the warehouse operator's lien from the proceeds of any sale or disposition under this section but must hold the balance for delivery on the demand of any person to whom the warehouse operator would have been bound to deliver the goods.

§554.7207 Goods must be kept separate — fungible goods.

1 Unless the warehouse receipt otherwise provides, a warehouse operator must keep separate the goods covered by each receipt so as to permit at all times identification and delivery of those goods except that different lots of fungible goods may be commingled.

2 Fungible goods so commingled are owned in common by the persons entitled thereto and the warehouse operator is severally liable to each owner for such owner's share. Where because of overissue a mass of fungible goods is insufficient to meet all the receipts which the warehouse operator has issued against it, the persons entitled include all holders to whom over-issued receipts have been duly negotiated.

§554.7208 Altered warehouse receipts.

Where a blank in a negotiable warehouse receipt has been filled in without authority, a purchaser for value and without notice of the want of authority may treat the insertion as authorized. Any other unauthorized alteration leaves any receipt enforceable against the issuer according to its original tenor.

1 A warehouse operator has a lien against the bailor on the goods covered by a warehouse receipt or on the proceeds thereof in the warehouse operator's possession for charges for storage or transportation (including demurrage and terminal charges), insurance, labor, or charges present or future in relation to the goods, and for expenses necessary for preservation of the goods or reasonably incurred in their sale pursuant to law. If the person on whose account the goods are held is liable for like charges or expenses in relation to other goods whenever deposited and it is stated in the receipt that a lien is claimed for charges and expenses in relation to other goods, the warehouse operator also has a lien against that person for such charges and expenses whether or not the other goods have been delivered by the warehouse operator. But against a person to whom a negotiable warehouse receipt is duly negotiated a warehouse operator's lien is limited to charges in an amount or at a rate specified on the receipt or if no charges are so specified then to a reasonable charge for storage of the goods covered by the receipt subsequent to the date of the receipt.

2 The warehouse operator may also reserve a security interest against the bailor for a maximum amount specified on the receipt for charges other than those specified in subsection 1, such as for money advanced and interest. Such a security interest is governed by the Article on Secured Transactions (Article 9).

3 a) A warehouse operator's lien for charges and expenses under subsection 1 or a security interest under subsection 2 is also effective against any person who so entrusted the bailor with possession of the goods that a pledge of them by the bailor to a good faith purchaser for value would have been valid but is not effective against a person as to whom the document confers no right in the goods covered by it under section 554.7503.

b) A warehouse operator's lien on household goods for charges and expenses in relation to the goods under subsection 1 is also effective against all persons if the depositor was the legal possessor of the goods at the time of deposit. "Household goods" means furniture, furnishings and personal effects used by the depositor in a dwelling.

4 A warehouse operator loses the warehouse operator's lien on any goods which the warehouse operator voluntarily delivers or unjustifiably refuses to deliver.

[R60, §1898, 1899, C73, §2177, 2178, C97, §3130, S13, §3138 a27, a28, a29, a30, a31, a32, C24, 27, 31, §9687-9692, 9741, 10326, C59, §9687-9692, 9751, 924, 10326, C59, §9687-9692, 9751.24, 10326; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §542 27 542 32, 543 24, 543 25, 575 2, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7209]

554.7210 Enforcement of warehouse operator's lien.

1 Except as provided in subsection 2, a warehouse operator's lien may be enforced by public or private sale of the goods in block or in parcels, at any time or place and on any terms which are commercially reasonable, after notifying all persons known to claim an interest in the goods. Such notification must include a statement of the amount due, the nature of the proposed sale and the time and place of any public sale. The fact that a better price could have been obtained by a sale at a different time or in a different method from that selected by the warehouse operator is not of itself sufficient to establish that the sale was not made in a commercially reasonable manner. If the warehouse operator either sells the goods in the usual manner in any recognized market therefor, or if the warehouse operator sells at the price current in such market at the time of the warehouse operator's sale, or if the warehouse operator has otherwise sold in conformity with commercially reasonable practices among dealers in the type of goods sold, the warehouse operator has sold in a commercially reasonable manner. A sale of more goods than apparently necessary to be offered to insure satisfaction of the obligation is not commercially reasonable except in cases covered by the preceding sentence.

2 A warehouse operator's lien on goods other than goods stored by a merchant in the course of the merchant's business may be enforced only as follows:

a) All persons known to claim an interest in the goods must be notified.

b) The notification must be delivered in person or sent by registered or certified letter to the last known address of any person to be notified.

c) The notification must include an itemized statement of the claim, a description of the goods subject to the lien, a demand for payment within a specified time not less than ten days after receipt of the notification, and a conspicuous statement that unless the claim is paid within that time the goods will be advertised for sale and sold by auction at a specified time and place.

d) The sale must conform to the terms of the notification.

e) The sale must be held at the nearest suitable place to that where the goods are held or stored.

f) After the expiration of the time given in the notification, an advertisement of the sale must be published once a week for two weeks consecutively in a newspaper of general circulation where the sale is to be held. The advertisement must include a description of the goods, the name of the person on whose account they are being held, and the time and place of the sale. The sale must take place at least fifteen days after the first publication. If there is no newspaper of general circulation where the sale is to be held, the advertisement must be posted at least ten days before the sale in not less than six conspicuous places in the neighborhood of the proposed sale.

3 Before any sale pursuant to this section any person claiming a right in the goods may pay the amount necessary to satisfy the lien and the reasonable expenses incurred under this section. In that event the goods must not be sold, but must be retained by the warehouse operator subject to the terms of the receipt and this Article.

4 The warehouse operator may buy at any public sale pursuant to this section.

5 A purchaser in good faith of goods sold to enforce a warehouse operator's lien takes the goods free of any rights of persons against whom the lien was valid, despite noncompliance by the warehouse operator with the requirements of this section.

6 The warehouse operator may satisfy the warehouse operator's lien from the proceeds of any sale pursuant to this section but must hold the balance, if any, for delivery on demand to any person to whom the warehouse operator would have been bound to deliver the goods.

7 The rights provided by this section shall be in addition to all other rights allowed by law to a creditor against the creditor's debtor.

8 Where a lien is on goods stored by a merchant in the course of the merchant's business the lien may be enforced in accordance with either subsection 1 or 2

9 The warehouse operator is liable for damages caused by failure to comply with the requirements for sale under this section and in case of willful violation is liable for conversion [R60, §1899-1904, C73, §2177-2181, C97, §3130-3133, S13, §3131, 3138-a33, a35, a36, C24, 27, 11, §9693, 9695, 9696, 9741, 10327-10330, 10333-10335, C35, §9693, 9695, 9696, 9751 g24, 10327-10330, 10333-10335, C39, §9646, 9693, 9695, 9751 24, 10327, 10330, 10333-10335; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §542 33, 542 35, 542 36, 543 24-543 26, 575 3-575 6, 575 9-575 11, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7210]

PART 3

BILLS OF LADING SPECIAL PROVISIONS

554.7301 Liability for nonreceipt or misdescription — "said to contain" — "shipper's load and count" — improper handling.

1 A consignee of a negotiable bill who has given value in good faith or a holder to whom a negotiable bill has been duly negotiated relying in either case upon the description therein of the goods, or upon the date therein shown, may recover from the issuer damages caused by the misdating of the bill or the nonreceipt or misdescription of the goods, except to the extent that the document indicates that the issuer does not know whether any part or all of the goods in fact were received or conform to the description, as where the description is in terms of marks or labels or kind, quantity, or condition or the receipt or description is qualified by "contents or condition of contents of packages unknown", "said to contain", "shipper's weight, load and count" or the like, if such indication be true.

2 When goods are loaded by an issuer who is a common carrier, the issuer must count the packages of goods if package freight and ascertain the kind and quantity if bulk freight. In such cases "shipper's weight, load and count" or other words indicating that the description was made by the shipper are ineffective except as to freight concealed by packages.

3 When bulk freight is loaded by a shipper who makes available to the issuer adequate facilities for weighing such freight, an issuer who is a common carrier must ascertain the kind and quantity within a reasonable time after receiving the written request of the shipper to do so. In such cases "shipper's weight" or other words of like purport are ineffective.

4 The issuer may by inserting in the bill the words "shipper's weight, load and count" or other words of like purport indicate that the goods were loaded by the shipper, and if such statement be true the issuer shall not be liable for damages caused by the improper loading. But their omission does not imply liability for such damages.

5 The shipper shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the issuer the accuracy at the time of shipment of the description, marks, labels, number, kind, quantity, condition and weight, as furnished by the shipper, and the shipper shall indemnify the issuer against damage caused by inaccuracies in such particulars. The right of the issuer to such indemnity shall in no way limit the issuer's responsibility and liability under the contract of carriage to any person other than the shipper [S13, §2074 b, 3138-b22, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8267, 10980; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §487 23, 613 6, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7301]

554.7302 Through bills of lading and similar documents.

1 The issuer of a through bill of lading or other document embodying an undertaking to be performed in part by persons acting as its agents or by connecting carriers is liable to anyone entitled to recover on the document for any breach by such other persons or by a connecting carrier of its obligation under the document but to the extent that the bill covers an undertaking to be performed overseas or in territory not contiguous to the continental United States or an undertaking including matters other than transportation this liability may be varied by agreement of the parties.

2 Where goods covered by a through bill of lading or other document embodying an undertaking to be performed in part by persons other than the issuer are received by any such person, that person is subject with respect to that person's own performance while the goods are in that person's possession to the obligation of the issuer. That person's obligation is discharged by delivery of the goods to another such person pursuant to the document, and does not include liability for breach by any other such persons or by the issuer.

3 The issuer of such through bill of lading or other document shall be entitled to recover from the connecting carrier or such other person in possession of the goods when the breach of the obligation under the document occurred, the amount it may be required to pay to anyone entitled to recover on the document therefor, as may be evidenced by any receipt, judgment, or transcript thereof, and the amount of any expense reasonably incurred by it in defending any action brought by anyone entitled to recover on the document therefor [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7302]

554.7303 Division — reconsignment — change of instructions.

1 Unless the bill of lading otherwise provides, the carrier may deliver the goods to a person or destination other than that stated in the bill or may otherwise dispose of the goods on instructions from

- the holder of a negotiable bill, or
- the consignor on a negotiable bill with standing contrary instructions from the consignee, or
- the consignee on a nonnegotiable bill in the absence of contrary instructions from the consignor, if the goods have arrived at the billed destination or if the consignee is in possession of the bill, or
- the consignee on a negotiable bill if the consignee is entitled as against the consignor to dispose of them.

2 Unless such instructions are noted on a negotiable bill of lading, a person to whom the bill is duly negotiated can hold the bailee according to the original terms [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7303]
554.7304  Bills of lading in a set.
1  Except where customary in overseas transportation, a bill of lading must not be issued in a set of parts. The issuer is liable for damages caused by violation of this subsection.
2  Where a bill of lading is lawfully drawn in a set of parts, each of which is numbered and expressed to be valid only if the goods have not been delivered against any other part, the whole of the parts constitute one bill.
3  Where a bill of lading is lawfully issued in a set of parts and different parts are negotiated to different persons, the title of the holder to whom the first due negotiation is made prevails as to both the document and the goods even though any later holder may have received the goods from the carrier in good faith and discharged the carrier's obligation by surrender of the later holder's part.
4  Any person who negotiates or transfers a single part of a bill of lading drawn in a set is liable to holders of that part as if it were the whole set.
5  The bailee is obliged to deliver in accordance with Part 4 of this Article against the first presented part of a bill of lading lawfully drawn in a set. Such delivery discharges the bailee's obligation on the whole bill.
[S13, §3138 b5, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8250; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §487 6, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7304]

554.7305  Destination bills.
1  Instead of issuing a bill of lading to the consignee or at the place of shipment a carrier may at the request of the consignor procure the bill to be issued at destination or at any other place designated in the request.
2  Upon request of anyone entitled as against the carrier to control the goods while in transit and on surrender of any outstanding bill of lading or other receipt covering such goods, the issuer may procure a substitute bill to be issued at any place designated in the request.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7305]

554.7306  Altered bills of lading.
An unauthorized alteration or filling in of a blank in a bill of lading leaves the bill enforceable according to its original tenor.
[S13, §3138 b15, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8260; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §487 16, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7306]

554.7307  Lien of carrier.
1  A carrier has a lien on the goods covered by a bill of lading for charges subsequent to the date of its receipt of the goods for storage or transportation (including demurrage and terminal charges) and for expenses necessary for preservation of the goods incident to their transportation or reasonably incurred in their sale pursuant to law. But against a purchaser for value of a negotiable bill of lading a carrier's lien is limited to charges stated in the bill or the applicable tariffs, or if no charges are stated then to a reasonable charge.
2  A lien for charges and expenses under subsection 1 on goods which the carrier was required by law to receive for transportation is effective against the consignor or any person entitled to the goods unless the carrier had notice that the consignor lacked authority to subject the goods to such charges and expenses. Any other lien under subsection 1 is effective against the consignor and any person who permitted the bailor to have control or possession of the goods unless the carrier had notice that the bailor lacked such authority.
3  A carrier loses the carrier's lien on any goods which the carrier voluntarily delivers or which the carrier unjustifiably refuses to deliver.

554.7308  Enforcement of carrier's lien.
1  A carrier's lien may be enforced by public or private sale of the goods, in bloc or in parcels, at any time or place and on any terms which are commercial or reasonable, after notifying all persons known to claim an interest in the goods. Such notification must include a statement of the amount due, the nature of the proposed sale and the time and place of any public sale. The fact that a better price could have been obtained by a sale at a different time or in a different manner from that selected by the carrier is not of itself sufficient to establish that the sale was not made in a commercially reasonable manner. If the carrier either sells the goods in the usual manner in any recognized market therefor or if the carrier sells at the price current in such market at the time of the carrier's sale or if the carrier has otherwise sold in conformity with commercially reasonable practices among dealers in the type of goods sold the carrier has sold in a commercially reasonable manner. A sale of more goods than apparently necessary to be offered to ensure satisfaction of the obligation is not commercially reasonable except in cases covered by the preceding sentence.
2  Before any sale pursuant to this section any person claiming a right in the goods may pay the amount necessary to satisfy the lien and the reasonable expenses incurred under this section. In that event the goods must not be sold, but must be retained by the carrier subject to the terms of the bill and this Article.
3  The carrier may buy at any public sale pursuant to this section.
4  A purchaser in good faith of goods sold to enforce a carrier's lien takes the goods free of any rights of persons against whom the lien was valid, despite noncompliance by the carrier with the requirements of this section.
5  The carrier may satisfy the carrier's lien from the proceeds of any sale pursuant to this section but must hold the balance, if any, for delivery on demand to any person to whom the carrier would have been bound to deliver the goods.
6  The rights provided by this section shall be in addition to all other rights allowed by law to a creditor against the creditor's debtor.
7  A carrier's lien may be enforced in accordance with either subsection 1 or the procedure set forth in subsection 2 of section 554 7210.
8  The carrier is liable for damages caused by failure to comply with the requirements for sale under this section and in case of willful violation is liable for
PART 4
WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS AND BILLS OF LADING
GENERAL OBLIGATIONS

554.7401 Irregularities in issue of receipt or bill or conduct of issuer.

The obligations imposed by this Article on an issuer apply to a document of title regardless of the fact that a the document may not comply with the requirements of this Article or of any other law or regulation regarding its issue, form or content, or b the issuer may have violated laws regulating the conduct of the issuer's business, or c the goods covered by the document were owned by the bailee at the time the document was issued, or d the person issuing the document does not come within the definition of warehouse operator if it purports to be a warehouse receipt.

554.7402 Duplicate receipt or bill — overissue.

Neither a duplicate nor any other document of title purporting to cover goods already represented by an outstanding document of the same issuer confers any right in the goods, except as provided in the case of bills in a set, overissue of documents for fungible goods and substitutes for lost, stolen or destroyed documents. But the issuer is liable for damages caused by the issuer's overissue or failure to identify a duplicate document as such by conspicuous notation on its face.

554.7403 Obligation of warehouse operator or carrier to deliver — excuse.

1 The bailee must deliver the goods to a person entitled under the document who complies with sub sections 2 and 3, unless and to the extent that the bailee establishes any of the following a delivery of the goods to a person whose receipt was rightful as against the claimant, b damage to or delay, loss or destruction of the goods for which the bailee is not liable, but the burden of establishing negligence in such cases is on the person entitled under the document, c previous sale or other disposition of the goods in lawful enforcement of a lien or on the warehouse operator's lawful termination of storage, d the exercise by a seller of the seller's right to stop delivery pursuant to the provisions of the Article on Sales (section 554.2705), e a diversion, reconsignment or other disposition pursuant to the provisions of this Article (section 554.7303) or tariff regulating such right, f release, satisfaction or any other fact affecting a personal defense against the claimant, g any other lawful excuse.

2 A person claiming goods covered by a document of title must satisfy the bailee's lien where the bailee so requests or where the bailee is prohibited by law from delivering the goods until the charges are paid.

3 Unless the person claiming is one against whom the document confers no right under section 554.7503, subsection 1, that person must surrender for cancellation or notation of partial deliveries any outstanding negotiable document covering the goods, and the bailee must cancel the document or conspicuously note the partial delivery thereon or be liable to any person to whom the document is duly negotiated.

4 Person entitled under the document" means holder in the case of a negotiable document, or the person to whom delivery is to be made by the terms of or pursuant to written instructions under a nonnegotiable document.

554.7404 No liability for good faith delivery pursuant to receipt or bill.

A bailee who in good faith including observance of reasonable commercial standards has received goods and delivered or otherwise disposed of them according to the terms of the document of title or pursuant to this Article is not liable therefor. This rule applies even though the person from whom the bailee received the goods had no authority to procure the document or to dispose of the goods and even though the person to whom the bailee delivered the goods had no authority to receive them.
554.7501 Form of negotiation and requirements of "due negotiation.

1. A negotiable document of title running to the order of a named person is negotiated by that person's endorsement and delivery. After that person's endorsement in blank or to bearer any person can negotiate it by delivery alone.

2. A negotiable document of title is also negotiated by delivery alone when by its original terms it runs to bearer.

3. Negotiation of a negotiable document of title after it has been endorsed to a specified person requires endorsement by the special endorsee as well as delivery.

4. A negotiable document of title is "duly negotiated" when it is negotiated in the manner stated in this section to a holder who purchases it in good faith without notice of any defense against or claim to it on the part of any person and for value, unless it is established that the negotiation is not in the regular course of business or financing or involves receiving the document in settlement or payment of a money obligation.

5. Endorsement of a nonnegotiable document neither makes it negotiable nor adds to the transferee's rights.

6. The naming in a negotiable bill of a person to be notified of the arrival of the goods does not limit the negotiability of the bill nor constitute notice to a purchaser thereof of any interest of such person in the goods.

554.7502 Rights acquired by due negotiation.

1. Subject to the following section and to the provisions of section 554 7205 on fungible goods, a holder to whom a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated acquires thereby:

(a) the document,

(b) the goods,

(c) all rights accruing under the law of agency or estoppel, including rights to goods delivered to the bailee after the document was issued, and

(d) the direct obligation of the issuer to hold or deliver the goods according to the terms of the document free of any defense or claim by the issuer except those arising under the terms of the document or under this Article. In the case of a delivery order the bailee's obligation accrues only upon acceptance and the obligation acquired by the holder is that the issuer and any endorser will procure the acceptance of the bailee.

2. Subject to the following section, title and rights so acquired are not defeated by any stoppage of the goods represented by the document or by surrender of such goods by the bailee, and are not impaired even though the negotiation or any prior negotiation constituted a breach of duty or even though any person has been deprived of possession of the document by misrepresentation, fraud, accident, mistake, duress, loss, theft or conversion, or even though a previous sale or other transfer of the goods or document has been made to a third person.

554.7503 Document of title to goods defeated in certain cases.

1. A document of title confers no right in goods against a person who before issuance of the document had a legal interest or a perfected security interest in them and who neither:

(a) delivered or entrusted them or any document of title covering them to the bailee or the bailor's nominee, nor

(b) had with actual or apparent authority to ship, store or sell or with power to obtain delivery under this Article any interest in the goods represented by the document or by surrender of the goods.

2. Subject to the following section, title and rights so acquired are not defeated by any stoppage of the goods represented by the document or by surrender of such goods by the bailee, and are not impaired even though the negotiation or any prior negotiation constituted a breach of duty or even though any person has been deprived of possession of the document by misrepresentation, fraud, accident, mistake, duress, loss, theft or conversion, or even though a previous sale or other transfer of the goods or document has been made to a third person.

3. Subject to the following section, title and rights so acquired are not defeated by any stoppage of the goods represented by the document or by surrender of such goods by the bailor's nominee, nor

(a) delivered or entrusted them or any document of title covering them to the bailee or the bailor's nominee, nor

(b) acquiesced in the procurement by the bailor or the bailor's nominee of any document of title.
§554.7504 514

b by a buyer from the transferor in ordinary course of business if the bailee has delivered the goods to the buyer or received notification of the buyer's rights, or c as against the bailee by good faith dealings of the bailee with the transferor
3 A diversion or other change of shipping instructions by the consignor in a nonnegotiable bill of lading which causes the bailee not to deliver to the consignee defeats the consignee's title to the goods if they have been delivered to a buyer in ordinary course of business and in any event defeats the consignee's rights against the bailee
4 Delivery pursuant to a nonnegotiable document may be stopped by a seller under section 554 2705, and subject to the requirement of due notification there provided. A bailee honoring the seller's instructions is entitled to be indemnified by the seller against any resulting loss or expense

§554.7505 Endorser not a guarantor for other parties.
The endorsement of a document of title issued by a bailee does not make the endorser liable for any default by the bailee or by previous endorsers §554.7506 Delivery without endorsement — right to compel endorsement.

The transference of a negotiable document of title has a specifically enforceable right to have the transferee's transferor supply any necessary endorsement but the transfer becomes a negotiation only as of the time the endorsement is supplied §554.7507 Warranties on negotiation or transfer of receipt or bill.

Where a person negotiates or transfers a document of title for value otherwise than as a mere intermediary under the next following section, then unless otherwise agreed that person warrants to that person's immediate purchaser only in addition to any warranty made in selling the goods a that the document is genuine, and b that that person has no knowledge of any fact which would impair its validity or worth, and c that that person's negotiation or transfer is rightful and fully effective with respect to the title to the document and the goods it represents §554.7508 Warranties of collecting bank to documents.

A collecting bank or other intermediary known to be entrusted with documents on behalf of another or with collection of a draft or other claim against delivery of documents warrants by such delivery of the documents only its own good faith and authority. This rule applies even though the intermediary has purchased or made advances against the claim or draft to be collected.

§554.7509 Receipt or bill: When adequate compliance with commercial contract.
The question whether a document is adequate to fulfill the obligations of a contract for sale or the conditions of a credit is governed by the Articles on Sales (Article 2) and on Letters of Credit (Article 5)

PART 6
WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS AND BILLS OF LADING
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§554.7601 Lost and missing documents.
1 If a document has been lost, stolen or destroyed, a court may order delivery of the goods or issuance of a substitute document and the bailee may without liability to any person comply with such order. If the document was negotiable the claimant must post security approved by the court to indemnify any person who may suffer loss as a result of nonsurrender of the document. If the document was not negotiable, such security may be required at the discretion of the court. The court may also in its discretion order payment of the bailee's reasonable costs and counsel fees
2 A bailee who without court order delivers goods to a person claiming under a missing negotiable document is liable to any person injured thereby, and if the delivery is not in good faith becomes liable for conversion. Delivery in good faith is not conversion if made in accordance with a filed classification or tariff or, where no classification or tariff is filed, if the claimant posts security with the bailee in an amount at least double the value of the goods at the time of posting to indemnify any person injured by the delivery who files a notice of claim within one year after the delivery
3 If a warehouse receipt has been lost or destroyed, the warehouse operator shall issue a duplicate upon request of a An affidavit that the warehouse receipt has been lost or destroyed
b A bond in an amount at least double the value of the goods at the time of posting the bond, to indemnify any person injured by issuance of the duplicate warehouse receipt who files a notice of claim within one year after delivery of the goods
A duplicate warehouse receipt shall be plainly marked to indicate that it is a duplicate. A receipt plainly marked as a duplicate is a representation and warranty by the warehouse operator that the duplicate receipt is an accurate copy of an original receipt properly issued and canceled at the date of the issue of the duplicate, but shall impose upon the warehouse operator no other liability
A warehouse operator who in good faith delivers goods to the holder of a duplicate receipt issued in accordance with this subsection is liable to any person injured by the delivery, but only to the extent of the security posted in accordance with paragraph "b" of this subsection.

4. If a warehouse receipt has been lost or destroyed, the depositary may either remove the goods from the warehouse or sell the goods to the warehouse operator after executing a lost warehouse receipt in accordance with Iowa state commerce commission. The form shall include an affidavit stating that the warehouse receipt has been lost or destroyed, and the depositary’s undertaking to indemnify the warehouse operator for any loss incurred as a result of the loss or destruction of the warehouse receipt. The form shall be filed with the commerce commission.

5. If a warehouse receipt has been lost or destroyed by a warehouse operator after delivery of the goods, or purchase of the goods by the warehouse operator, the warehouse operator shall execute and file with the Iowa state commerce commission a notarized affidavit stating that the warehouse receipt has been lost or destroyed by the warehouse operator after delivery or purchase of the goods by the warehouse operator. The form of the affidavit shall be prescribed by the Iowa state commerce commission.

Except where the document was originally issued upon delivery of the goods by a person who had no power to dispose of them, no lien attaches by virtue of any judicial process to goods in the possession of a bailee for which a negotiable document of title is outstanding unless the document be first surrendered to the bailee or its negotiation enjoined, and the bailee shall not be compelled to deliver the goods pursuant to process until the document is surrendered to the bailee or impounded by the court. One who purchases the document for value without notice of the process or injunction takes free of the lien imposed by judicial process.

[S13, §3138-a25, b23, b24, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8268, 8269, 9685, 9968, 9969; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §487 24, 487 25, 542 25, 554 40, 554 41, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7602]

§554.7603 Conflicting claims — interpleader.

If more than one person claims title or possession of the goods, the bailee is excused from delivery until the bailee has had a reasonable time to ascertain the validity of the adverse claims or to bring an action to compel all claimants to interplead and may compel such interpleader, either in defending an action for nondelivery of the goods, or by original action, whichever is appropriate.

§554.8103 Issuer's lien.
A lien upon a security in favor of an issuer thereof is valid against a purchaser only if the right of the issuer to such lien is noted conspicuously on the security [C50, 54, 58, 62, §493A 15, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8103]

§554.8104 Effect of overissue — "overissue."
1 The provisions of this Article which validate a security or compel its issue or reissue do not apply to the extent that validation, issue or reissue would result in overissue, but:

a if an identical security which does not constitute an overissue is reasonably available for purchase, the person entitled to issue or validation may compel the issuer to purchase and deliver such a security to that person at the same price that person holds, or b if a security is not so available for purchase, the person entitled to issue or validation may recover from the issuer the price that person or the last purchaser for value paid for it with interest from the date of that person's demand.

2 "Overissue" means the issue of securities in excess of the amount which the issuer has corporate power to issue [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8104]

§554.8105 Securities negotiable — presumptions.
1 Securities governed by this Article are negotiable instruments.
2 In any action on a security:

a unless specifically denied in the pleadings, each signature on the security or in a necessary endorsement is admitted.

b when the effectiveness of a signature is put in issue the burden of establishing it is on the party claiming under the signature but the signature is presumed to be genuine or authorized,

c when signatures are admitted or established production of the instrument entitles a holder to recover on it unless the defendant establishes a defense or a defect going to the validity of the security, and

d after it is shown that a defense or defect exists the plaintiff has the burden of establishing that the plaintiff or some person under whom the plaintiff claims is a person against whom the defense or defect is ineffective (section 554 8202) [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8105]

§554.8106 Applicability.
The validity of a security and the rights and duties of the issuer with respect to registration of transfer are governed by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction of organization of the issuer [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8106]

§554.8107 Securities deliverable — action for price.
1 Unless otherwise agreed and subject to any applicable law or regulation respecting short sales, a person obligated to deliver securities may deliver any security of the specified issue in bearer form or registered in the name of the transferee or endorsed to the transferee or in blank:

2 When the buyer fails to pay the price as it comes due under a contract of sale the seller may recover the price:

a of securities accepted by the buyer, and b of other securities if efforts at their resale would be unduly burdensome or if there is no readily available market for their resale [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8107]

PART 2
ISSUE — ISSUER

§554.8201 "Issuer."
1 With respect to obligations on or defenses to a security "issuer" includes a person who:

a places or authorizes the placing of that person's name on a security (otherwise than as authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or the like) to evidence that it represents a share, participation or other interest in that person's property or in an enterprise or to evidence that person's duty to perform an obligation evidenced by the security, or b directly or indirectly creates fractional interests in that person's rights or property which fractional interests are evidenced by securities, or c becomes responsible for or in place of any other person described as an issuer in this section.

2 With respect to obligations on or defenses to a security a guarantor is an issuer to the extent of the guarantor's guaranty whether or not the guarantor's obligation is noted on the security.

3 With respect to registration of transfer (Part 4 of this Article) "issuer" means a person on whose behalf half transfer books are maintained [S13, §3060 a29, -a60, -a61, -a62, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9489, 9520–9522; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541 29, 541 60–541 62, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8201]
554.8202 Issuer’s responsibility and defenses — notice of defect or defense.

1 Even against a purchaser for value and without notice, the terms of a security include those stated on the security and those made part of the security by reference to another instrument, indenture or document or to a constitution, statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order or the like to the extent that the terms so referred to do not conflict with the stated terms. Such a reference does not of itself charge a purchaser for value with notice of a defect going to the validity of the security even though the security expressly states that a person accepting it admits such notice.

2 a A security other than one issued by a government or governmental agency or unit even though issued with a defect going to its validity is valid in the hands of a purchaser for value and without notice of the particular defect unless the defect involves a violation of constitutional provisions in which case the security is valid in the hands of a subsequent purchaser for value and without notice of the defect.

b The rule of subparagraph "a" applies to an issuer which is a government or governmental agency or unit only if either there has been substantial compliance with the legal requirements governing the issue or the issuer has received a substantial consideration for the issue as a whole or for the particular security and a stated purpose of the issue is one for which the issuer has power to borrow money or issue the security.

3 Except as otherwise provided in the case of certain unauthorized signatures on issue (section 554.8205), lack of genuineness of a security is a complete defense even against a purchaser for value and without notice.

4 All other defenses of the issuer including non delivery and conditional delivery of the security are ineffective against a purchaser for value who has taken without notice of the particular defense.

5 Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the right of a party to a "when, as and if issued" or a "when distributed" contract to cancel the contract in the event of a material change in the character of the security which is the subject of the contract or in the plan or arrangement pursuant to which such security is to be issued or distributed.

[S13, §3060-a16, -a23, -a28, -a56, -a57, a60, a61, -a62, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9476, 9483, 9488, 9516, 9517, 9520–9522; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541 16, 541 23, 541 28, 541 56, 541 57, 541 60 541 62, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8202]

554.8203 Staleness as notice of defects or defenses.

1 After an act or event which creates a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation evidenced by the security or which sets a date on or after which the security is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange, a purchaser is charged with notice of any defect in its issue or defense of the issuer.

a if the act or event is one requiring the payment of money or the delivery of securities or both on presentation or surrender of the security and such funds or securities are available on the date set for payment or exchange and the purchaser takes the security more than one year after that date, and

b if the act or event is not covered by paragraph "a" and the purchaser takes the security more than two years after the date set for surrender or presentation or the date on which such performance became due.

2 A call which has been revoked is not within subsection 1.

554.8204 Effect of issuer’s restrictions on transfer.

Unless noted conspicuously on the security a restriction on transfer imposed by the issuer even though otherwise lawful is ineffective except against a person with actual knowledge of it.

554.8205 Effect of unauthorized signature on issue.

An unauthorized signature placed on a security prior to or in the course of issue is ineffective except that the signature is effective in favor of a purchaser for value and without notice of the lack of authority if the signature has been done by a an authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or other person entrusted by the issuer with the signing of the security or of similar securities or their immediate preparation for signing, or b an employee of the issuer or of any of the foregoing entrusted with responsible handling of the security.

554.8206 Completion or alteration of instrument.

1 Where a security contains the signatures necessary to its issue or transfer but is incomplete in any other respect a any person may complete it by filling in the blanks as authorized, and b even though the blanks are incorrectly filled in, the security as completed is enforceable by a purchaser who took it for value and without notice of such incorrectness.

2 A complete security which has been improperly altered even though fraudulently remains enforceable but only according to its original terms.

[S13, §3060-a14, a15, -a124, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9474, 9475, 9585; C46, §541 14, 541 15, 541 25, C50, 54, 58, 62, §493A 16, 541 14, 541 15, 541 125, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8206]

554.8207 Rights of issuer with respect to registered owners.

1 Prior to due presentment for registration of transfer of a security in registered form the issuer or indenture trustee may treat the registered owner as the person exclusively entitled to vote, to receive notices and otherwise to exercise all the rights and powers of an owner.

2 Nothing in this Article shall be construed to affect the liability of the registered owner of a security for calls, assessments or the like.

§554.8208  Effect of signature of authenticating trustee, registrar or transfer agent.

1. A person placing that person's signature upon a security as authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or the like warrants to a purchaser for value without notice of the particular defect that:
   a. the security is genuine, and
   b. that person's own participation in the issue of the security is within that person's capacity and within the scope of the authorization received by that person from the issuer, and
   c. that person has reasonable grounds to believe that the security is in the form and within the amount the issuer is authorized to issue.

2. Unless otherwise agreed, a person by so placing that person's signature does not assume responsibility for the validity of the security in other respects.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8208]

PART 3  PURCHASE

§554.8301  Rights acquired by purchaser — “adverse claim” — title acquired by bona fide purchaser.

1. Upon delivery of a security the purchaser acquires the rights in the security which the purchaser's transferor had or had actual authority to convey except that a purchaser who has personally been a party to any fraud or illegality affecting the security or who as a prior holder had notice of an adverse claim cannot improve that purchaser's position by taking from a later bona fide purchaser “Adverse claim” includes a claim that a transfer was or would be wrongful or that a particular adverse person is the owner of or has an interest in the security.

2. A bona fide purchaser in addition to acquiring the rights of a purchaser also acquires the security free of any adverse claim.

3. A purchaser of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased.

[S13, §3060-a52, a57, -a58, a59, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9512, 9517–9519; C46, §541 52, 541 57 541 59, C50, 54, 58, 62, §493A 4, 493A 7, 541 52, 541 57 541 59, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8301]

§554.8302  “Bona fide purchaser.”

A “bona fide purchaser” is a purchaser for value in good faith and without notice of any adverse claim who takes delivery of a security in bearer form or of one in registered form issued to that purchaser or endorsed to that purchaser or in blank.

§554.8303  “Broker.”

“Broker” means a person engaged for all or part of the person's time in the business of buying and selling securities, who in the transaction concerned acts for, or buys a security from or sells a security to a custom er. Nothing in this Article determines the capacity in which a person acts for purposes of any other statute or rule to which such person is subject.

§554.8304  Notice to purchaser of adverse claims.

1. A purchaser (including a broker for the seller or buyer but excluding an intermediary bank) of a security is charged with notice of adverse claims if:
   a. the security whether in bearer or registered form has been endorsed “for collection” or “for surrender” or for some other purpose not involving transfer, or
   b. the security is in bearer form and has on it an unambiguous statement that it is the property of a person other than the transferor. The mere writing of a name on a security is not such a statement.

2. The fact that the purchaser (including a broker for the seller or buyer) has notice that the security is held for a third person or is registered in the name of or endorsed by a fiduciary does not create a duty of inquiry into the rightfulness of the transfer or constitute notice of adverse claims. If, however, the purchaser (excluding an intermediary bank) has knowledge that the proceeds are being used or that the transaction is for the individual benefit of the fiduciary or otherwise in breach of duty, the purchaser is charged with notice of adverse claims.

§554.8305  Staleness as notice of adverse claims.

An act or event which creates a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation evidenced by the security or which sets a date on or after which the security is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange does not of itself constitute any notice of adverse claims except in the case of a purchase:

a. after one year from any date set for such pre sentment or surrender for redemption or exchange, or

b. after six months from any date set for payment of money against presentation or surrender of the security if funds are available for payment on that date.

§554.8306  Warranties on presentment and transfer.

1. A person who presents a security for registra tion of transfer or for payment or exchange warrants to the issuer that the person is entitled to the registra tion, payment or exchange. But a purchaser for value without notice of adverse claims who receives a new, reissued or reregistered security on registration or transfer warrants only that that purchaser has no knowledge of any unauthorized signature (section 554 8311) in a necessary endorsement.

2. A person by transferring a security to a purchas er for value warrants only that:
   a. the person's transfer is effective and rightful, and
   b. the security is genuine and has not been materi ally altered, and
   c. the person knows no fact which might impair the validity of the security.

3. Where a security is delivered by an intermediary known to be entrusted with delivery of the security on behalf of another or with collection of a draft or other claim against such delivery, the intermediary by such delivery warrants only the intermediary's own good faith and authority even though the intermediary has purchased or made advances against the claim to be collected against the delivery

4 A pledgee or other holder for security who redeems the security received, or after payment and on order of the debtor delivers that security to a third person makes only the warranties of an intermediary under subsection 3

5 A broker gives to the broker's customer and to the issuer and a purchaser the warranties provided in this section and has the rights and privileges of a purchaser under this section. The warranties of and in favor of the broker acting as an agent are in addition to applicable warrants given by and in favor of the broker's customer.

554.8307 Effect of delivery without endorsement — right to compel endorsement.

Where a security in registered form has been delivered to a purchaser without a necessary endorsement the purchaser may become a bona fide purchaser only as of the time the endorsement is supplied, but against the transferor the transfer is complete upon delivery and the purchaser has a specifically enforceable right to have any necessary endorsement supplied.

[S13, §3060-a49, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9509; C46, §541 49, C50, 54, 58, 62, §493A 9, 541 49, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8307]

554.8308 Endorsement, how made — special endorsement — endorser not a guarantor — partial assignment.

1 An endorsement of a security in registered form is made when an appropriate person signs on it or on a separate document an assignment or transfer of the security or a power to assign or transfer it or when the signature of such person is written without more upon the back of the security.

2 An endorsement may be in blank or special. A special endorsement specifies the person to whom the security is to be transferred, or who has power to transfer it. A holder may convert a blank endorsement into a special endorsement.

3 "An appropriate person" in subsection 1 means a the person specified by the security or by special endorsement to be entitled to the security, or b where the person so specified is described as a fiduciary but is no longer serving in the described capacity, — either that person or that person's successor, or c where the security or endorsement so specifies more than one person as fiduciaries and one or more are no longer serving in the described capacity, the remaining fiduciary or fiduciaries, whether or not a successor has been appointed or qualified, or d where the person so specified is an individual and is without capacity to act by virtue of death, incompetence, infancy or otherwise, — that person's executor, administrator, guardian or like fiduciary, or e where the security or endorsement so specifies more than one person as tenants by the entirety or with right of survivorship and by reason of death cannot sign, — the survivor or survivors, or f a person having power to sign under applicable law or controlling instrument, or g to the extent that any of the foregoing persons may act through an agent, — that person's authorized agent.

4 Unless otherwise agreed upon by the endorser's endorsement assumes no obligation that the security will be honored by the issuer.

5 An endorsement purporting to be only of part of a security representing units intended by the issuer to be separately transferable is effective to the extent of the endorsement.

6 Whether the person signing is appropriate is determined as of the date of signing and an endorsement by such a person does not become unauthorized for the purposes of this Article by virtue of any subsequent change of circumstances.

7 Failure of a fiduciary to comply with a controlling instrument or with the law of the state having jurisdiction of the fiduciary relationship, including any law requiring the fiduciary to obtain court approval of the transfer, does not render the fiduciary's endorsement unauthorized for the purposes of this Article.

554.8309 Effect of endorsement without delivery.

An endorsement of a security whether special or in blank does not constitute a transfer until delivery of the security on which it appears or if the endorsement is on a separate document until delivery of both the document and the security.

[S13, §3060-a30, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9490; C46, §541 30, C50, 54, 58, 62, §493A 1, 493A 10, 541 30, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 81, §554 8309]

554.8310 Endorsement of security in bearer form.

An endorsement of a security in bearer form may give notice of adverse claims (section 554 8304) but does not otherwise affect any right to registration the holder may possess.

554.8311 Effect of unauthorized endorsement.

Unless the owner has ratified an unauthorized endorsement or is otherwise precluded from asserting its ineffectiveness

a the owner may assert its ineffectiveness against the issuer or any purchaser other than a purchaser for value and without notice of adverse claims who has in good faith received a new, reissued or reregistered security on registration of transfer, and

b an issuer who registers the transfer of a security upon the unauthorized endorsement is subject to liability for improper registration (section 554 8404)

[S13, §3060 a23, C24, 27, 31, §9483, C35, §8385-d2, 9483, C39, §8385.2, 9483; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §491 49, 541 23, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8311]
§554.8312 Effect of guaranteeing signature or endorsement.
1 Any person guaranteeing a signature of an endorser of a security warrants that at the time of signing a the signature was genuine, and b the signer was an appropriate person to endorse (section 554 8308), and c the signer had legal capacity to sign. But the guarantor does not otherwise warrant the rightfulness of the particular transfer 2 Any person may guarantee an endorsement of a security and by so doing warrants not only the signature (subsection 1) but also the rightfulness of the particular transfer in all respects. But no issuer may require a guarantee of endorsement as a condition to registration of transfer
3 The foregoing warranties are made to any person taking or dealing with the security in reliance on the guarantee and the guarantor is liable to such person for any loss resulting from breach of the warranties §554.8313 When delivery to the purchaser occurs — purchaser's broker as holder.

1 Delivery to a purchaser occurs when a the purchaser or a person designated by the purchaser acquires possession of a security, or b the purchaser's broker acquires possession of a security specially endorsed to or issued in the name of the purchaser, or c the purchaser's broker sends the purchaser confirmation of the purchase and also by book entry or otherwise identifies a specific security in the broker's possession as belonging to the purchaser, or d with respect to an identified security to be delivered while still in the possession of a third person when that person acknowledges that that person holds for the purchaser; or e appropriate entries on the books of a clearing corporation are made under section 554 8320
2 The purchaser is the owner of a security held for the purchaser by the purchaser's broker, but is not the holder except as specified in subparagraphs "b", "c", and "e" of subsection 1 Where a security is part of a fungible bulk the purchaser is the owner of a proportionate property interest in the fungible bulk
3 Notice of an adverse claim received by the broker or by the purchaser after the broker takes delivery as a holder for value is not effective either as to the broker or as to the purchaser. However, as between the broker and the purchaser the purchaser may demand delivery of an equivalent security as to which no notice of an adverse claim has been received §554.8314 Duty to deliver, when completed.

1 Unless otherwise agreed where a sale of a security is made on an exchange or otherwise through brokers a the selling customer fulfills that customer's duty to deliver when that customer places such a security in the possession of the selling broker or of a person designated by the broker or if requested causes an acknowledgment to be made to the selling broker that it is held for that broker, and
   b the selling broker including a correspondent broker acting for a selling customer fulfills that broker's duty to deliver by placing the security or a like security in the possession of the buying broker or a person designated by the buying broker or by effecting clearance of the sale in accordance with the rules of the exchange on which the transaction took place
2 Except as otherwise provided in this section and unless otherwise agreed, a transferor's duty to deliver a security under a contract of purchase is not fulfilled until the transferor places the security in form to be negotiated by the purchaser in the possession of the transferor or of a person designated by the transferor or at the purchaser's request causes an acknowledgment to be made to the purchaser that it is held for the purchaser. Unless made on an exchange a sale to a broker purchasing for the broker's own account is within this subsection and not within subsection 1

§554.8315 Action against purchaser based upon wrongful transfer.
1 Any person against whom the transfer of a security is wrongful for any reason, including the person's incapacity, may against anyone except a bona fide purchaser reclaim possession of the security or obtain possession of any new security evidencing all or part of the same rights or have damages
2 If the transfer is wrongful because of an unauthorized endorsement, the owner may also reclaim or obtain possession of the security or new security even from a bona fide purchaser if the ineffectiveness of the purported endorsement can be asserted against the purchaser under the provisions of this Article on unauthorized endorsements (section 554 8311)
3 The right to obtain or reclaim possession of a security may be specifically enforced and its transfer enjoined and the security impounded pending the litigation

§554.8316 Purchaser's right to requisites for registration of transfer on books.
Unless otherwise agreed the transferor must on due demand supply the transferor's purchaser with any proof of the transferor's authority to transfer or with any other requisite which may be necessary to obtain registration of the transfer of the security but if the transfer is not for value a transferor need not do so unless the purchaser furnishes the necessary expenses. Failure to comply with a demand made within a reasonable time gives the purchaser the right to reject or rescind the transfer

1 No attachment or levy upon a security or any share or other interest evidenced thereby which is outstanding shall be valid until the security is actually seized by the officer making the attachment or levy but a security which has been surrendered to the issuer may be attached or levied upon at the source
2 A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a security shall be entitled to such aid from courts of appropriate jurisdiction, by injunction or otherwise, in reaching such security or in satisfying the claim by means there of as is allowed at law or in equity in regard to property which cannot readily be attached or levied upon by ordinary legal process

§554.8318 No conversion by good faith delivery.
An agent or bailee who in good faith (including observance of reasonable commercial standards if the agent or bailee is in the business of buying, selling or otherwise dealing with securities) has received securities and sold, pledged or delivered them according to the instructions of the agent’s or bailee’s principal is not liable for conversion or for participation in breach of fiduciary duty although the principal had no right to dispose of them.

§554.8319 Statute of frauds.
A contract for the sale of securities is not enforceable by any action on the contract unless one of the following is shown to be true:

a. the security was signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or his authorized agent or broker sufficient to indicate that a contract has been made for sale of issued securities at a defined or stated price, or
b. delivery of the security has been accepted or payment has been made but the contract is enforceable under this provision only to the extent of such delivery or payment, or
c. within a reasonable time a writing in confirmation of the sale or purchase and sufficient against the sender under paragraph “a” has been received by the party against whom enforcement is sought and that party has failed to send written objection to its contents within ten days after its receipt, or
d. the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party’s pleading, testimony or otherwise in court that a contract was made for sale of issued securities at a defined or stated price.

§554.8320 Transfer or pledge within a central depository system.
1 If a security
a. is in the custody of a clearing corporation or of a custodian bank or of a nominee of either subject to the instructions of the clearing corporation, and
b. is in bearer form or endorsed in blank by an appropriate person or registered in the name of the clearing corporation or custodian bank or of a nominee of either, and
c. is shown on the account of a transferor or pledgor on the books of the clearing corporation, then, in addition to other methods, a transfer or pledge of the security or any interest therein may be effectuated by the making of appropriate entries on the books of the clearing corporation reducing the account of the transferor or pledgor and increasing the account of the transferee or pledgee by the amount of the obligation or the number of shares or rights transferred or pledged.

2 Under this section entries may be with respect to like securities or interests therein as a part of a fungible bulk and may refer merely to a quantity of a particular security without reference to the name of the registered owner, certificate or bond number or the like and, in appropriate cases, may be on a net basis taking into account other transfers or pledges of the same security.

3 A transfer or pledge under this section has the effect of a delivery of a security in bearer form or duly endorsed in blank (section 554 8301) representing the amount of the obligation or the number of shares or rights transferred or pledged. If a pledge or the creation of a security interest is intended, the making of entries has the effect of a taking of delivery by the pledgee or a secured party (sections 554 9304 and 554 9305). A transferee or pledgee under this section is a holder.

4 A transfer or pledge under this section does not constitute a registration of transfer under Part 4 of this Article.

5 That entries made on the books of the clearing corporation as provided in subsection 1 are not appropriate does not affect the validity or effect of the entries nor the liabilities or obligations of the clearing corporation to any person adversely affected thereby.

PART 4
REGISTRATION

§554.8401 Duty of issuer to register transfer.
1 Where a security in registered form is presented to the issuer with a request to register transfer, the issuer is under a duty to register the transfer as requested if
a. the security is endorsed by the appropriate person or persons (section 554 8308), and
b. reasonable assurance is given that those endorsements are genuine and effective (section 554 8402), and
c. the issuer has no duty to inquire into adverse claims or has discharged any such duty (section 554 8403), and

2. An issuer under a duty to register a transfer of a security the issuer is also liable to the person presenting it for registration or that person’s principal for loss resulting from any unreasonable delay in registration or from failure or refusal to register the transfer.

§554 8402 Assurance that endorsements are effective.
1 The issuer may require the following assurance that each necessary endorsement (section 554 8308) is genuine and effective.
§554.8402

In all cases, a guarantee of the signature (subsection 1 of section 554.8312) of the person endorsing, and b where the endorsement is by an agent, appropriate assurance of authority to sign, c where the endorsement is by a fiduciary appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency, d where there is more than one fiduciary, reasonable assurance that all who are required to sign have done so, e where the endorsement is by a person not covered by any of the foregoing; assurance appropriate to the case corresponding as nearly as may be to the foregoing

2 A "guarantee of the signature" in subsection 1 means a guarantee signed by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the issuer to be responsible. The issuer may adopt standards with respect to responsibility provided such standards are not manifestly unreasonable.

3 "Appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency" in subsection 1 means a in the case of a fiduciary appointed or qualified by a court, a certificate issued by or under the direction of the court and dated within one hundred eighty days before the date of presentation for transfer, or b in any other case, a copy of a document showing the appointment or a certificate issued by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the issuer to be responsible or, in the absence of such a document or certificate, other evidence reasonably deemed by the issuer to be appropriate. The issuer may adopt standards with respect to such evidence provided such standards are not manifestly unreasonable. The issuer is not charged with notice of the contents of any document obtained pursuant to this paragraph "b" except to the extent that the contents relate directly to the appointment or incumbency.

4 The issuer may elect to require reasonable assurance beyond that specified in this section but if it does so and for a purpose other than that specified in subsection 3 "b" both requires and obtains a copy of a will, trust, indenture, articles of copartnership, bylaws, or other controlling instrument it is charged with notice of all matters contained therein affecting the transfer.

554.8403 Limited duty of inquiry

1 An issuer to whom a security is presented for registration is under a duty to inquire into adverse claims if a a written notification of an adverse claim is received at a time and in a manner which affords the issuer a reasonable opportunity to act on it prior to the issuance of a new, reissued or registered security and the notification identifies the claimant, the registered owner and the issue of which the security is a part and provides an address for communications directed to the claimant, or b the issuer is charged with notice of an adverse claim from a controlling instrument which it has elected to require under subsection 4 of section 554.8402

2 The issuer may discharge any duty of inquiry by any reasonable means, including notifying an adverse claimant by registered or certified mail at the address furnished by the adverse claimant or if there be no such address at the adverse claimant's residence or regular place of business that the security has been presented for registration of transfer by a named person and that the transfer will be registered unless within thirty days from the date of mailing the notification, either a an appropriate restraining order, injunction or other process issues from a court of competent jurisdiction, or b an indemnity bond sufficient in the issuer's judgment to protect the issuer and any transfer agent, registrar or other agent of the issuer involved, from any loss which it or they may suffer by complying with the adverse claim filed with the issuer

3 Unless an issuer is charged with notice of an adverse claim from a controlling instrument it has elected to require under subsection 4 of section 554.8402 or receives notification of an adverse claim under subsection 1 of this section, where a security presented for registration is endorsed by the appropriate person or persons the issuer is under no duty to inquire into adverse claims. In particular a an issuer registering a security in the name of a person who is a fiduciary or who is described as a fiduciary is not bound to inquire into the existence, extent, or correct description of the fiduciary relationship and thereafter the issuer may assume without inquiry that the newly registered owner continuously is the fiduciary until the issuer receives written notice that the fiduciary is no longer acting as such with respect to the particular security, b an issuer registering transfer on an endorsement by a fiduciary is not bound to inquire whether the transfer is made in compliance with a controlling instrument or with the law of the state having jurisdiction of the fiduciary relationship, including any law requiring the fiduciary to obtain court approval of the transfer, and c the issuer is not charged with notice of the contents of any court record or file or other recorded or unrecorded document even though the document is in its possession and even though the transfer is made on the endorsement of a fiduciary to the same fiduciary or to the fiduciary's nominee.

554.8404 Liability and nonliability for registration

1 Except as otherwise provided in any law relating to the collection of taxes, the issuer is not liable to the owner or any other person suffering loss as a result of the registration of a transfer of a security if a there were on or with the security the necessary endorsements (section 554.8308), and

b the issuer had no duty to inquire into adverse claims or has discharged any such duty (section 554.8403)

2 Where an issuer has registered a transfer of a security to a person not entitled to it the issuer on demand must deliver a like security to the true owner unless a the registration was pursuant to subsection 1, or b the owner is precluded from asserting any claim.

for registering the transfer under subsection 1 of the following section, or c such delivery would result in overissue, in which case the issuer's liability is governed by section 554.8104
   [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.8404]

554.8405 Lost, destroyed and stolen securities.
   1 Where a security has been lost, apparently destroyed or wrongfully taken and the owner fails to notify the issuer of that fact within a reasonable time after the owner has notice of it and the issuer registers a transfer of the security before receiving such a notification, the owner is precluded from asserting against the issuer any claim for registering the transfer under the preceding section or any claim to a new security under this section
   2 Where the owner of a security claims that the security has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken, the issuer must issue a new security in place of the original security if the owner a requests before the issuer has notice that the security has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, and b files with the issuer a sufficient indemnity bond, and c satisfies any other reasonable requirements imposed by the issuer
   3 If, after the issue of the new security, a bona fide purchaser of the original security presents it for registration of transfer, the issuer must register the transfer unless registration would result in overissue, in which event the issuer's liability is governed by section 554.8104. In addition to any rights on the indemnity bond, the issuer may recover the new security from the person to whom it was issued or any person taking under the person to whom it was issued except a bona fide purchaser

554.8406 Duty of authenticating trustee, transfer agent or registrar.
   1 Where a person acts as authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar, or other agent for an issuer in the registration of transfers of its securities or in the issue of new securities or in the cancellation of surrendered securities a that person is under a duty to the issuer to exercise good faith and due diligence in performing that person's functions, and b that person has with regard to the particular functions that person performs the same obligation to the holder or owner of the security and has the same rights and privileges as the issuer has in regard to those functions
   2 Notice to an authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar or other such agent is notice to the issuer with respect to the functions performed by the agent

ARTICLE 9
SECURED TRANSACTIONS — SALES OF ACCOUNTS AND CHATTEL PAPER
PART 1
SHORT TITLE APPLICABILITY AND DEFINITIONS

554.9101 Short title.
   This Article shall be known and may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code — Secured Transactions [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9101]

554.9102 Policy and subject matter of Article.
   1 Except as otherwise provided in section 554.9104 on excluded transactions, this Article applies a to any transaction (regardless of its form) which is intended to create a security interest in personal property or fixtures including goods, documents, instruments, general intangibles, chattel paper or accounts, and also b to any sale of accounts or chattel paper
   2 This Article applies to security interests created by contract including pledge, assignment, chattel mortgage, chattel trust, trust deed, factor's lien, equipment trust, conditional sale, trust receipt, other lien or title retention contract and lease or consignment intended as security. This Article does not apply to statutory liens except as provided in section 554.9310
   3 The application of this Article to a security interest in a secured obligation is not affected by the fact that the obligation is itself secured by a transaction or interest to which this Article does not apply [C73, §1922, 3307, C97, §2053, 2905, 4273, 4285, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10016, 10032, 10039, 12352, 12364; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §556 4, 556 21, 556 28, 652 1, 653 1, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9102]

554.9103 Perfection of security interests in multiple state transactions.
   1 Documents, instruments and ordinary goods a This subsection applies to documents and instruments and to goods other than those covered by a certificate of title described in subsection 2, mobile goods described in subsection 3, and minerals described in subsection 5
      b Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of a security interest in collateral are governed by the law of the jurisdiction where the collateral is when the last event occurs on which is based the assumption that the security interest is perfected or unperfected
      c If the parties to a transaction creating a security interest in goods in one jurisdiction understand at the time that the security interest attaches that the goods will be kept in another jurisdiction, then the law of the other jurisdiction governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of the security interest from the time it attaches until thirty days after the debtor receives possession of the goods and thereafter if the goods are taken to the other jurisdiction before the end of the thirty-day period d When collateral is brought into and kept in this state while subject to a security interest perfected under the law of the jurisdiction from which the collateral was removed, the security interest remains per-

554.9105 Definitions and index of definitions.

1 In this Article unless the context otherwise requires:
 a "Account debtor" means the person who is obligated on an account, chattel paper or general intangible.
 b "Chattel paper" means a writing or writings which evidence both a monetary obligation and a security interest in or a lease of specific goods, but a charter or other contract involving the use or hire of a vessel is not chattel paper When a transaction is evidenced both by such a security agreement or a lease and by an instrument or a series of instruments, the group of writings taken together constitutes chattel paper, c "Collateral" means the property subject to a security interest, and includes accounts and chattel paper which have been sold, d "Debtor" means the person who owes payment or other performance of the obligation secured, whether or not the person owns or has rights in the collateral, and includes the seller of accounts or chattel paper. Where the debtor and the owner of the collateral are not the same person, the term "debtor" means the owner of the collateral in any provision of the Article dealing with the collateral, the obligor in any provision dealing with the obligation, and may include both where the context so requires,
 e "Deposit account" means a demand, time, savings, passbook or like account maintained with a bank, savings and loan association, credit union or like organization, other than an account evidenced by a certificate of deposit, f "Document" means document of title as defined in the general definitions of Article 1 (section 554.1201), and a receipt of the kind described in section 554.7201, subsection 2, g "Encumbrance" includes real estate mortgages and other hens on real estate and all other rights in real estate that are not ownership interests, h "Goods" include all things which are movable at the time the security interest attaches or which are fixtures (section 554.9313), but do not include money, documents, instruments, accounts, chattel paper, general intangibles or minerals or the like (including oil and gas) before extraction "Goods" also include standing timber which is to be cut and removed under a conveyance or contract for sale, the unborn young of animals and growing crops, i "Instrument" means a negotiable instrument (defined in section 554.3104), or a security (defined in section 554.8102) or any other writing which evidences a right to the payment of money and is not itself a security agreement or lease and is of a type which is in ordinary course of business transferred by delivery with any necessary endorsement or assignment, j "Mortgage" means a consensual interest created by a real estate mortgage, a trust deed on real estate, or the like,
 k An advance is made "pursuant to commitment" if the secured party has bound itself to make it, whether or not a subsequent event of default or other event not within the secured party's control has relieved or may relieve the secured party from the secured party's obligation, l "Security agreement" means an agreement which creates or provides for a security interest, m "Secured party" means a lender, seller or other person in whose favor there is a security interest, including a person to whom accounts or chattel paper have been sold. When the holders of obligations issued under an indenture of trust, equipment trust agreement or the like are represented by a trustee or other person, the representative is the secured party, n "Transmitting utility" means any person primarily engaged in the railroad, street railway or trolley bus business, the electric or electronics communications transmission business, the transmission of goods by pipeline, or the transmission or the production and transmission of electricity, steam, gas or water, or the provision of sewer service.

554.9106 Definitions: "Account" — "general intangibles."

"Account" means any right to payment for goods sold or leased or for services rendered which is not evidenced by an instrument or chattel paper, whether or not it has been earned by performance "General intangibles" means any personal property (including things in action) other than goods, accounts, chattel paper, documents, instruments and money. All rights to payment earned or unearned under a charter or other contract involving the use or hire of a vessel and all rights incident to the charter or contract are accounts.

554.9107 Definitions: "Purchase money security interest."

A security interest is a "purchase money security interest" to the extent that it is a. taken or retained by the seller of the collateral to secure all or part of its price, or

b. taken by a person who by making advances or incurring an obligation gives value to enable the debtor to acquire rights in or the use of collateral if such value is in fact so used.

554.9108 When after-acquired collateral not security for antecedent debt.

Where a secured party makes an advance, incurring an obligation, releases a perfected security interest, or otherwise gives new value which is to be secured in whole or in part by after acquired property the secured party's security interest in the after acquired collateral shall be deemed to be taken for new value and not as security for an antecedent debt if the debtor acquires the debtor's rights in such collateral either in the ordinary course of the debtor's business or under a contract of purchase made pursuant to the security agreement within a reasonable time after new value is given.

554.9109 Classification of goods — “consumer goods” — “equipment” — “farm products” — “inventory”.

Goods are

1. "consumer goods" if they are used or bought for use primarily for personal, family or household purposes,
2. "equipment" if they are used or bought for use primarily in business (including farming or a profession) or by a debtor who is a nonprofit organization or a governmental subdivision or agency or if the goods are not included in the definitions of inventory, farm products or consumer goods.
3. “farm products” if they are crops or livestock or supplies used or produced in farming operations or if they are products of crops or livestock in their unmanufactured states (such as ginned cotton, wool clip, maple syrup, milk and eggs), and if they are in the possession of a debtor engaged in raising, fattening, grazing or other farming operations. If goods are farm products they are neither equipment nor inventory.
4. “inventory” if they are held by a person who holds them for sale or lease or to be furnished under contracts of service or if that person has so furnished them, or if they are raw materials, work in process or materials used or consumed in a business. Inventory of a person is not to be classified as that person's equipment.

554.9112 Where collateral is not owned by debtor.

Unless otherwise agreed, when a secured party knows that collateral is owned by a person who is not the debtor, the owner of the collateral is entitled to receive from the secured party any surplus under section 554 9502, subsection 2, or under section 554 9504, subsection 1, and is not liable for the debt or for any deficiency after resale, and the owner has the same rights as the debtor.

a. to receive statements under section 554 9208.
b. to receive notice of and to object to a secured party's proposal to retain the collateral in satisfaction of the indebtedness under section 554 9505.
c. to redeem the collateral under section 554 9506.
d. to obtain injunctive or other relief under section 554 9507, subsection 1, and

e. to recover losses caused to the owner under section 554 9208, subsection 2.

554.9113 Security interests arising under Article on sales.

A security interest arising solely under the Article on Sales (Article 2) is subject to the provisions of this Article except that to the extent that and so long as the debtor does not have or does not lawfully obtain possession of the goods

a. no security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable, and
b. no filing is required to perfect the security interest, and §554.9114 Consignment.
1. A person who delivers goods under a consignment which is not a security interest and who would be required to file under this Article by section 554.2326, subsection 3, paragraph "c", has priority over a secured party who is or becomes a creditor of the consignee and who would have a perfected security interest in the goods if they were the property of the consignee, and also has priority with respect to identifiable cash proceeds received on or before delivery of the goods to a buyer, if

   a. the consignor complies with the filing provision of the Article on Sales with respect to consignments (section 554.2326), subsection 3, paragraph "c" before the consignee receives possession of the goods, and
   b. the consignor gives notification in writing to the holder of the security interest if the holder has filed a financing statement covering the same types of goods before the date of the filing made by the consignor, and
   c. the holder of the security interest receives the notification within five years before the consignee receives possession of the goods, and
   d. the notification states that the consignor expects to deliver goods on consignment to the consignee, describing the goods by item or type.

2. In the case of a consignment which is not a security interest and in which the requirements of the preceding subsection have not been met, a person who delivers goods to another is subordinate to a person who would have a perfected security interest in the goods if they were the property of the debtor [C75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9114]

PART 2

VALIDITY OF SECURITY AGREEMENT AND RIGHTS OF PARTIES THERETO

§554.9201 General validity of security agreement.

Except as otherwise provided by this chapter a security agreement is effective according to its terms between the parties, against purchasers of the collateral and against creditors. Nothing in this Article validates any charge or practice illegal under any statute or regulation thereunder governing usury, small loans, retail installment sales, or the like, or extends the application of any such statute or regulation to any transaction not otherwise subject thereto [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9201]

§554.9202 Title to collateral immaterial.

Each provision of this Article with regard to rights, obligations and remedies applies whether title to collateral is in the secured party or in the debtor [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9202]

§554.9203 Attachment and enforceability of security interest — proceeds, formal requisites

1. Subject to the provisions of section 554.4208 on the security interest of a collecting bank and section 554.9113 on a security interest arising under the Article on Sales, a security interest is not enforceable against the debtor or third parties with respect to the collateral and does not attach unless

   a. the collateral is in the possession of the secured party pursuant to agreement, or the debtor has signed a security agreement which contains a description of the collateral and in addition, when the security interest covers crops growing or to be grown or timber to be cut, a description of the land concerned, and
   b. value has been given, and
   c. the debtor has rights in the collateral

2. A security interest attaches when it becomes enforceable against the debtor with respect to the collateral. Attachment occurs as soon as all of the events specified in subsection 1 have taken place unless explicit agreement postpones the time of attaching

3. Unless otherwise agreed a security agreement gives the secured party the rights to proceeds provided by section 554.9306.

4. A transaction, although subject to this Article, is also subject to chapters 322, 534, 535, 536, 536A and section 524.906, and the Iowa consumer credit code, where applicable, and in the case of conflict between the provisions of this Article and those statutes, the provisions of those statutes control. Failure to comply with any applicable statute has only the effect which is specified therein [C66, 71, 73, §554.9203, 554.9204 (1, 2), C75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9203]

§554.9204 After-acquired property — future advances.

1. Except as provided in subsection 2, a security agreement may provide that any or all obligations covered by the security agreement are to be secured by after-acquired collateral, including after-acquired collateral which also constitutes identifiable noncash proceeds.

2. No security interest attaches under an after-acquired property clause to consumer goods other than accessions (section 554.9314) when given as additional security unless the debtor acquires rights in them within ten days after the secured party gives value.

3. Obligations covered by a security agreement may include future advances or other value whether or not the advances or value are given pursuant to commitment (section 554.9105, subsection 1) [C58, 62, §539.9, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9204]

§554.9205 Use or disposition of collateral without accounting permissible.

A security interest is not invalid or fraudulent against creditors by reason of liberty in the debtor to use, commingle or dispose of all or part of the collateral (including returned or repossessed goods) or to collect or compromise accounts or chattel paper, or to accept the return of goods or make repossessions, or to use, commingle or dispose of proceeds, or by reason of the failure of the secured party to require the debtor to account for proceeds or replace collateral. This section does not relax the requirements of possession where perfection of a security interest depends upon possession of the collateral by the secured party or by a bailee [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9205]
554.9206 Agreement not to assert defenses against assignee — modification of sales warranties where security agreement exists.

1 Subject to any statute or decision which establishes a different rule for buyers or lessees of consumer goods, an agreement by a buyer or lessee that the buyer or lessee will not assert against an assignee any claim or defense which the buyer or lessee may have against the seller or lessor is enforceable by an assignee who takes that assignee’s assignment for value, in good faith and without notice of a claim or defense, except as to defenses of a type which may be asserted against a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument under the Article on Commercial Paper (Article 3). A buyer who as part of one transaction signs both a negotiable instrument and a security agreement makes such an agreement.

2 When a seller retains a purchase money security interest in goods the Article on Sales (Article 2) governs the sale and any disclaimer, limitation or modification of the seller’s warranties.

554.9207 Rights and duties when collateral is in secured party’s possession.

1 A secured party must use reasonable care in the custody and preservation of collateral in the secured party’s possession. In the case of an instrument or chattel paper reasonable care includes taking necessary steps to preserve rights against prior parties unless otherwise agreed.

2 Unless otherwise agreed, when collateral is in the secured party’s possession:
   a reasonable expenses (including the cost of any insurance and payment of taxes or other charges) incurred in the custody, preservation, use or operation of the collateral are chargeable to the debtor and are secured by the collateral, b the risk of accidental loss or damage is on the debtor to the extent of any deficiency in any effective insurance coverage, c the secured party may hold as additional security any increase or profits (except money) received from the collateral, but money so received, unless remitted to the debtor, shall be applied in reduction of the secured obligation, d the secured party must keep the collateral identifiable but fungible collateral may be commingled, e the secured party may repledge the collateral upon terms which do not impair the debtor’s right to redeem it.

3 A secured party is liable for any loss caused by the secured party’s failure to meet any obligation imposed by the preceding subsections but does not lose the secured party’s security interest.

4 A secured party may use or operate the collateral for the purpose of preserving the collateral or its value or pursuant to the order of a court of appropriate jurisdiction or, except in the case of consumer goods, in the manner and to the extent provided in the security agreement.

554.9208 Request for statement of account or list of collateral.

1 A debtor may sign a statement indicating what the debtor believes to be the aggregate amount of unpaid indebtedness as of a specified date and may send it to the secured party with a request that the statement be approved or corrected and returned to the debtor. When the security agreement or any other record kept by the secured party identifies the collateral, a debtor may similarly request the secured party to approve or correct a list of the collateral.

2 The secured party must comply with such a request within two weeks after receipt by sending a written correction or approval. If the secured party claims a security interest in all of a particular type of collateral owned by the debtor the secured party may indicate that fact in that reply and need not approve or correct an itemized list of such collateral. If the secured party without reasonable excuse fails to comply the secured party is liable for any loss caused to the debtor thereby, and if the debtor has properly included in the debtor’s request a good faith statement of the obligation or a list of the collateral or both the secured party may claim a security interest only as shown in the statement against persons misled by the secured party’s failure to comply. If the secured party no longer has an interest in the obligation or collateral at the time the request is received the secured party must disclose the name and address of any successor in interest known to the secured party and is liable for any loss caused to the debtor as a result of failure to disclose. A successor in interest is not subject to this section until a request is received by the successor in interest.

3 A debtor is entitled to such a statement once every six months without charge. The secured party may require payment of a charge not exceeding ten dollars for each additional statement furnished.

[C58, 62, §539 11, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 9208]

PART 3

RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES — PERFECTED AND UNPERFECTED SECURITY INTERESTS — RULES OF PRIORITY

554.9301 Persons who take priority over unperfected security interests — right of “lien creditor”.

1 Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, an unperfected security interest is subordinate to the rights of:
   a persons entitled to priority under section 554 9312, b a person who becomes a lien creditor before the security interest is perfected,
   c in the case of goods, instruments, documents, and chattel paper, a person who is not a secured party and who is a transferee in bulk or other buyer not in ordinary course of business, or is a buyer of farm products in ordinary course of business, to the extent that that person gives value and receives delivery of the collateral without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected.
   d in the case of accounts, and general intangibles, a person who is not a secured party and who is a transferee to the extent that that person gives value...
without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected

2 If the secured party files with respect to a purchase money security interest before or within twenty days after the debtor receives possession of the collateral, the secured party takes priority over the rights of a transferee in bulk or of a lien creditor which arise between the time the security interest attaches and the time of filing.

A "lien creditor" means a creditor who has acquired a lien on the property involved by attachment, levy or the like and includes an assignee for benefit of creditors from the time of assignment, and a trustee in bankruptcy from the date of the filing of the petition or a receiver in equity from the time of appointment.

A person who becomes a lien creditor while a security interest is perfected takes subject to the security interest only to the extent that it secures advances made before the person becomes a lien creditor or within forty-five days thereafter or made without knowledge of the lien or pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the lien.

§554.9302 Perfection of security interest in instruments, documents, and goods covered by documents — perfection by permissive filing — temporary perfection without filing or transfer of possession.

A security interest in chattel paper or negotiable documents may be perfected by filing. A security interest in money or instruments (other than instruments which constitute part of chattel paper) can be perfected only by the secured party’s taking possession, except as provided in subsections 4 and 5 of this section,

1 A security interest in chattel paper or negotiable documents may be perfected by filing.

2 During the period that goods are in the possession of the issuer of a negotiable document thereto, a security interest in the goods is perfected by perfecting a security interest in the document, and any security interest in the goods otherwise perfected during such period is subject thereto.

3 A security interest in goods in the possession of a bailee other than one who has issued a negotiable document therefor is perfected by issuance of a document in the name of the secured party or by the bailee’s receipt of notification of the secured party’s interest or by filing as to the goods.

b the following statutes of this state, sections 321 18, 321 20 and 321 50, but during any period in which collateral is inventory held for sale by a person who is in the business of selling goods of that kind, the filing provisions of this Article (Part 4) apply to a security interest in that collateral created by that person as debtor, or a certificate of title statute of another jurisdiction under the law of which indication of a security interest on the certificate is required as a condition of perfection (section 554 9103, subsection 2).

4 Compliance with a statute or treaty described in subsection 3 is equivalent to the filing of a financing statement under this Article, and a security interest in property subject to the statute or treaty can be perfected only by compliance therewith except as provided in section 554 9103 on multiple state transactions. Duration and renewal of perfection of a security interest perfected by compliance with the statute or treaty are governed by the provisions of the statute or treaty, in other respects the security interest is subject to this Article.

§554.9303 When security interest is perfected — continuity of perfection.

A security interest is perfected when it has attached and when all of the applicable steps required for perfection have been taken. Such steps are specified in sections 554 9302, 554 9304, 554 9305 and 554 9306. If such steps are taken before the security interest attaches, it is perfected at the time when it attaches.

If a security interest is originally perfected in any way permitted under this Article and is subsequently perfected in some other way under this Article, without an intermediate period when it was unperfected, the security interest shall be deemed to be perfected continuously for the purposes of this Article.

§554.9304 Perfection of security interest in chattel paper or negotiable documents — perfection by permissive filing — temporary perfection without filing or transfer of possession.

1 A security interest in chattel paper or negotiable documents may be perfected by filing. A security interest in money or instruments (other than instruments which constitute part of chattel paper) can be perfected only by the secured party’s taking possession, except as provided in subsections 4 and 5 of this section.

2 During the period that goods are in the possession of the issuer of a negotiable document thereto, a security interest in the goods is perfected by perfecting a security interest in the document, and any security interest in the goods otherwise perfected during such period is subject thereto.

3 A security interest in goods in the possession of a bailee other than one who has issued a negotiable document therefor is perfected by issuance of a document in the name of the secured party or by the bailee’s receipt of notification of the secured party’s interest or by filing as to the goods.
4 A security interest in instruments or negotiable documents is perfected without filing or the taking of possession for a period of twenty-one days from the time it attaches to the extent that it arises for new value given under a written security agreement.

5 A security interest remains perfected for a period of twenty-one days without filing where a secured party having a perfected security interest in an instrument, a negotiable document or goods in possession of a bailee other than one who has issued a negotiable document therefor
   a makes available to the debtor the goods or documents representing the goods for the purpose of ultimate sale or exchange or for the purpose of loading, unloading, storing, shipping, transshipping, manufacturing, processing or otherwise dealing with them in a manner preliminary to their sale or exchange, but priority between conflicting security interests in the goods is subject to section 554-9312, subsection 3, or b delivers the instrument to the debtor for the purposes of ultimate sale or exchange or of presentation, collection, renewal or registration of transfer

6 After the twenty-one day period in subsections 4 and 5 perfection depends upon compliance with applicable provisions of this Article

554.9305 When possession by secured party perfects security interest without filing.

A security interest in letters of credit and advices of availability may be perfected by the secured party's taking possession of the collateral. If such collateral other than goods covered by a negotiable document is held by a bailee, the secured party is deemed to have possession from the time the bailee receives notification of the secured party's interest. A security interest is perfected by possession from the time possession is taken without relation back and continues only so long as possession is retained, unless otherwise specified in this Article. The security interest may be otherwise perfected as provided in this Article before or after the period of possession by the secured party.

554.9306 "Proceeds" — secured party's rights on disposition of collateral.

1 "Proceeds" include whatever is received upon the sale, exchange, collection or other disposition of collateral or proceeds. Insurance payable by reason of loss or damage to the collateral is proceeds, except to the extent that it is payable to a person other than a party to the security agreement. Money, checks, deposit accounts and the like are "cash proceeds." All other proceeds are "noncash proceeds.

2 Except where this Article otherwise provides, a security interest continues in collateral notwithstanding sale, exchange or other disposition thereof unless the disposition was authorized by the secured party in the security agreement or otherwise, and also continues in any identifiable proceeds including collections received by the debtor.

3 The security interest in proceeds is a continuously perfected security interest if the interest in the original collateral was perfected but it ceases to be a perfected security interest and becomes unperfected ten days after receipt of the proceeds by the debtor unless a a filed financing statement covers the original collateral and the proceeds are identifiable cash proceeds, or b a filed financing statement covers the original collateral and the proceeds are identifiable noncash proceeds, or c the security interest in the proceeds is perfected before the expiration of the ten day period.

Except as provided in this section, a security interest in proceeds can be perfected only by the methods or under the circumstances permitted in this Article for original collateral of the same type.

4 In the event of insolvency proceedings instituted by or against a debtor, a secured party with a perfected security interest in proceeds has a perfected security interest only in the following proceeds:
   a identifiable cash proceeds and in separate deposit accounts containing only proceeds, b identifiable cash proceeds in the form of money which is neither commingled with other money nor deposited in a deposit account prior to the insolvency proceedings, c identifiable cash proceeds in the form of checks and the like which are not deposited in a deposit account prior to the insolvency proceedings, and d in all cash and deposit accounts of the debtor, in which proceeds have been commingled with other funds, but the perfected security interest under this paragraph "d" is i subject to any right of setoff, and ii limited to an amount not greater than the amount of any cash proceeds received by the debtor within ten days before the institution of the insolvency proceedings less the sum of (I) the payments to the secured party on account of cash proceeds received by the debtor during such period and (II) the cash proceeds received by the debtor during such period to which the secured party is entitled under paragraphs "a" through "c" of this subsection 4.

5 If a sale of goods results in an account or chattel paper which is transferred by the seller to a secured party, and if the proceeds are returned to or are repossessed by the seller or the secured party, the following rules determine priorities:
   a If the proceeds were collateral at the time of sale for an indebtedness of the seller which is still unpaid, the original security interest attaches again to the goods and continues as a perfected security interest if it was perfected at the time when the goods were sold. If the security interest was originally perfected by a filing which is still effective, nothing further is required to continue the perfected status. In any other case, the secured party must take possession of the returned or repossessed goods or must file
   b An unpaid transferee of the chattel paper has a §554.9307  Protection of buyers of goods.

1  Except as provided in the federal Food Security Act of 1985, Pub L No 99 198, §1324, a buyer in ordinary course of business as defined in section 554 1201, subsection 9, takes free of a security interest created by that person's seller even though the security interest is perfected and even though the buyer knows of its existence. For purposes of this section, a buyer or buyer in ordinary course of business includes any commission merchant, selling agent, or other person engaged in the business of receiving livestock as defined in section 189A 2 on commission for or on behalf of another.

2  In the case of consumer goods, a buyer takes free of a security interest even though perfected if the buyer buys without knowledge of the security interest, for value and for the buyer's own personal, family or household purposes unless prior to the purchase the secured party has filed a financing statement covering such goods.

3  A buyer other than a buyer in ordinary course of business (subsection 1 of this section) takes free of a security interest to the extent that it secures future advances made after the secured party acquires knowledge of the purchase, or more than forty-five days after the purchase, whichever first occurs, unless made pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the purchase and before the expiration of the forty-five day period.

4  A secured party may request the buyer to issue any check for payment or partial payment of a good subject to a security interest jointly in the name of both the seller and the secured party only if the secured party has included in the documents creating the security interest a written provision that a joint check would be requested or required and if the provision has been specifically signed and dated by the person granting the security interest.

5  If the documents creating a security interest contain the provisions permitted pursuant to subsection 4 and meet the requirements of subsection 4, the debtor is engaged in farming operations, and the debtor sells the farm products subject to a security interest created by the debtor to a buyer not included on the list as a potential buyer, then the debtor is subject to a civil penalty of the greater of either five thousand dollars or fifteen percent of the value or benefits received by the debtor for the farm product described in the security agreement. The penalty shall be deposited in the state general fund. However, if the secured party can demonstrate in state district court upon application by the secured party that the secured party has sustained a monetary loss as a result of the debtor selling to a person other than a person on the list of potential buyers and does not reasonably expect to be able to collect under the security agreement, then to the extent that the secured party can prove by competent evidence the amount of the monetary loss and the inability to collect under the security agreement, the court shall award the secured party so much of the civil penalty as necessary to cover the secured party's loss. However, if the secured party does ultimately recover under the security agreement, then the secured party shall remit to the state general fund the moneys collected under this subsection to the extent of the recovery. The penalty provided in this subsection shall not be imposed on the debtor if the debtor has complied with any of the following:

   (1) Notified the secured party in writing of the identity of the buyer at least seven days prior to the sale.

   (2) Accounted to the secured party for the proceeds of the sale not later than ten days after the sale.

   (3) Acted in conformity with a written agreement between the secured party and the debtor regarding prior notification of a sale or payment of the proceeds.

   b  In addition to the civil penalty provided in this section, a debtor who sells a farm product subject to a security interest created by the debtor to a buyer not included on the list as a potential buyer may also be guilty of committing theft pursuant to section 714 1, subsection 5.

   c  The civil penalty provided in paragraph "a" is in lieu of and not in addition to any penalty imposed under Pub L No 99 198, §1324. If a debtor is required to pay a fine or penalty under Pub L No 99 198, §1324 and the debtor has previously been required to pay a civil penalty pursuant to paragraph "a", then the debtor is entitled to a reimbursement of any monies required to be paid due to a violation of paragraph "a".

6  A secured party is subject to the following civil penalties that shall be paid to the state general fund:

   a  Two hundred dollars for each person the secured party notified pursuant to Pub L No 99 198, §1324 as a potential buyer that the security interest has been terminated within fifteen days after all obligations for which the security interest was granted have been fulfilled, unless the debtor signs a written statement after the obligations secured by the security interest have been fulfilled waving the requirement of the secured party to provide notice to potential buyers that the obligation has been fulfilled.

   b  Two hundred dollars for each person the secured party has sent a written notice pursuant to Pub L No 99-198, §1324 who was not either of the following:

      (1) Listed by the debtor as a potential buyer.

      (2) A person who was identified by the debtor pursuant to subsection 5, paragraph "a", subparagraph (1), except that the penalty imposed pursuant to this paragraph "b" shall not apply if the debtor does in fact sell all or part of the farm product subject to the security interest to the person to whom the notice was sent.

   c  A potential buyer who receives a written no notice pursuant to Pub. L. No. 99-198, §1324, shall not publicly display or disseminate the written notice or information based upon the written notice.

b. A potential buyer who violates paragraph "a" is liable for a civil penalty in an amount of two hundred dollars. The penalty shall be paid to the state general fund.

8. a. In addition to any civil penalty imposed pursuant to subsections 6 and 7, a person who violates subsection 6 or 7 is liable to the debtor for any loss caused by the person resulting from the violation that the debtor can prove in court. The person may also recover from the person violating subsection 6 or 7 a penalty in an amount determined by the court not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars.

b. In an action in which it is found that a person has violated subsection 5, 6, or 7, the court shall award to the secured party under subsection 5 or the debtor under subsections 6 and 7 the court costs and to that party's attorneys their reasonable fees. Reasonable attorneys' fees shall be determined by the value of the time reasonably expended by the attorney and not by the amount of recovery on behalf of the secured party or debtor.

9. For purposes of Pub. L. No. 99-198, §1324, and this section, a written notice shall be considered to be received by the person to whom it was sent if the notice is mailed by registered mail with the proper postage and properly addressed to the person to whom it was sent. The refusal of a person to whom a notice is sent to accept delivery of the notice shall be considered receipt.

554.9308 Purchase of chattel paper and instruments. A purchaser of chattel paper or an instrument who gives new value and takes possession of it in the ordinary course of the purchaser's business has priority over a security interest in the chattel paper or instrument.

a. which is perfected under section 554.9304 (permissive filing and temporary perfection) or under section 554.9306 (perfection as to proceeds) if the purchaser acts without knowledge that the specific paper or instrument is subject to a security interest; or

b. which is claimed merely as proceeds of inventory subject to a security interest (section 554.9306) even though the purchaser knows that the specific paper or instrument is subject to the security interest.

554.9309 Protection of purchasers of instruments and documents.

Nothing in this Article limits the rights of a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument (section 554.3302) or a holder to whom a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated (section 554.7501) or a bona fide purchaser of a security (section 554.8301) and such holders or purchasers take priority over an earlier security interest even though perfected. Filing under this Article does not constitute notice of the security interest to such holders or purchasers.

554.9310 Priority of certain liens arising by operation of law.

When a person in the ordinary course of the person's business furnishes services or materials with respect to goods subject to a security interest, a lien upon goods in the possession of such person given by statute or rule of law for such materials or services takes priority over a perfected security interest unless the lien is statutory and the statute expressly provides otherwise.

554.9311 Alienability of debtor's rights: judicial process.

The debtor's rights in collateral may be voluntarily or involuntarily transferred (by way of sale, creation of a security interest, attachment, levy, garnishment or other judicial process) notwithstanding a provision in the security agreement prohibiting any transfer or making the transfer constitute a default.

554.9312 Priorities among conflicting security interests in the same collateral.

1. The rules of priority stated in other sections of this Part and in the following sections shall govern when applicable: section 554.4208 with respect to the security interests of collecting banks in items being collected, accompanying documents and proceeds; section 554.9103 on security interests related to other jurisdictions; section 554.9114 on consignments.

2. A perfected security interest in crops for new value given to enable the debtor to produce the crops during the production season and given not more than three months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise takes priority over an earlier perfected security interest to the extent that such earlier interest secures obligations due more than six months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise, even though the person giving new value had knowledge of the earlier security interest.

3. A perfected purchase money security interest in inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same inventory and also has priority in identifiable cash proceeds received on or before the delivery of the inventory to a buyer if

a. the purchase money security interest is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

b. the purchase money secured party gives notification in writing to the holder of the conflicting security interest if the holder had filed a financing statement covering the same types of inventory (1) before the date of the filing made by the purchase money secured party, or (2) before the beginning of the twenty-one-day period where the purchase money security interest is temporarily perfected without filing or possession (section 554.9304, subsection 5); and
c. the holder of the conflicting security interest receives the notification within five years before the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

d. the notification states that the person giving the notice has or expects to acquire a purchase money security interest in inventory of the debtor, describing such inventory by item or type.
4 A purchase money security interest in collateral other than inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same collateral or its proceeds if the purchase money security interest is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the collateral or within twenty days thereafter.

5 In all cases not governed by other rules stated in this section (including cases of purchase money security interests which do not qualify for the special priorities set forth in subsections 3 and 4 of this section), priority between conflicting security interests in the same collateral shall be determined according to the following rules:

a. Conflict ing security interests rank according to priority in time of filing or perfection. Priority dates from the time a filing is made covering the collateral or the time the security interest is first perfected, whichever is earlier, provided that there is no period thereafter when there is neither filing nor perfection.

b. So long as conflicting security interests are unperfected, the first to attach has priority.

6 For the purposes of subsection 5 a date of filing or perfection as to collateral is also a date of filing or perfection as to proceeds.

7 If future advances are made while a security interest is perfected by filing or the taking of possession, the security interest has the same priority for the purposes of subsection 5 with respect to the future advances as it does with respect to the first advance. If a commitment is made before or while the security interest is so perfected, the security interest has the same priority with respect to advances made pursuant thereto. In other cases a perfected security interest has priority from the date the advance is made.

554.9313 Priority of security interests in fixtures.

1. In this section and in the provisions of Part 4 of this Article referring to fixture filing, unless the context otherwise requires:

a. Goods are "fixtures" when they become so related to particular real estate that an interest in them arises under real estate law.

b. A "fixture filing" is the filing in the office where a mortgage on the real estate would be filed or recorded of a financing statement covering goods which are or are to become fixtures and conforming to the requirements of section 554.9402, subsection 5.

c. A mortgage is a "construction mortgage" to the extent that it secures an obligation incurred for the construction of an improvement on land including the acquisition cost of the land, if the recorded writing so indicates.

2. A security interest under this Article may be created in goods which are fixtures or may continue in goods which become fixtures, but no security interest exists under this Article in ordinary building materials incorporated into an improvement on land.

3. This Article does not prevent creation of an encumbrance upon fixtures pursuant to real estate law.

4. A perfected security interest in fixtures has priority over the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate where:

a. The security interest is a purchase money security interest, the interest of the encumbrancer or owner arises before the goods become fixtures, the security interest is perfected by a fixture filing before the goods become fixtures or within ten days thereafter, and the debtor has an interest of record in the real estate or is in possession of the real estate, or

b. The security interest is perfected by a fixture filing before the interest of the encumbrancer or owner is of record, the security interest has priority over any conflicting interest of a predecessor in title of the encumbrancer or owner, and the debtor has an interest of record in the real estate or is in possession of the real estate, or

c. The fixtures are readily removable equipment or readily removable replacements of domestic appliances which are consumer goods, and before the goods become fixtures the security interest is perfected by any method permitted by this Article including section 554.9302, subsection 1, paragraph "d" or

d. The conflicting interest is a lien on the real estate obtained by legal or equitable proceedings after the security interest was perfected by any method permitted by this Article including section 554.9302, subsection 1, paragraph "d".

5. A security interest in fixtures, whether or not perfected, has priority over the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate where:

a. The encumbrancer or owner has consented in writing to the security interest or has disclaimed an interest in the goods as fixtures, or

b. The debtor has a right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or owner. If the debtor's right terminates, the priority of the security interest continues for a reasonable time.

6. Notwithstanding paragraph "a" of subsection 4 but otherwise subject to subsections 4 and 5, a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to a construction mortgage recorded before the goods become fixtures if the goods become fixtures before the completion of the construction. To the extent that it is given to refinance a construction mortgage, a mortgage has this priority to the same extent as the construction mortgage.

7. In cases not within the preceding subsections, a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the related real estate who is not the debtor.

8. When the secured party has priority over all owners and encumbrancers of the real estate, the secured party may, on default, subject to the provisions of Part 5, remove the secured party's collateral from the real estate but the secured party must reimburse any encumbrancer or owner of the real estate who is not the debtor and who has not otherwise agreed for the cost of repair of any physical injury, but not for any diminution in value of the real estate caused by the absence of the goods removed or by any necessity of replacing them. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the secured party gives adequate security for the performance of this obligation.

554.9314 Accessions.

1. A security interest in goods which attaches before they are installed in or affixed to other goods takes priority as to the goods installed or affixed (called in this section "accessions") over the claims of all persons to the whole except as stated in subsection 3 and subject to section 554.9315, subsection 1.

2. A security interest which attaches to goods after they become part of a whole is valid against all persons subsequently acquiring interests in the whole except as stated in subsection 3 but is invalid against any person with an interest in the whole at the time the security interest attaches to the goods who has not in writing consented to the security interest or disclaimed an interest in the goods as part of the whole.

3. The security interests described in subsections 1 and 2 do not take priority over

a. a subsequent purchaser for value of any interest in the whole; or

b. a creditor with a lien on the whole subsequently obtained by judicial proceedings; or

c. a creditor with a prior perfected security interest in the whole to the extent that the creditor makes subsequent advances; if the subsequent purchase is made, the lien by judicial proceedings obtained or the subsequent advances under the prior perfected security interest is made or contracted for without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected. A purchaser of the whole at a foreclosure sale other than the holder of a perfected security interest purchasing at that holder's own foreclosure sale is a subsequent purchaser within this section.

4. When under subsections 1 or 2 and 3 a secured party has an interest in accessions which has priority over the claims of all persons who have interests in the whole, that person may on default subject to the provisions of Part 5 remove that person's collateral from the whole but that person must reimburse any encumbrancer or owner of the whole who is not the debtor and who has not otherwise agreed for the cost of repair of any physical injury but not for any diminution in value of the whole caused by the absence of the goods removed or by any necessity for replacing them. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the secured party gives adequate security for the performance of this obligation.

554.9315 Priority when goods are commingled or processed.

1. If a security interest in goods was perfected and subsequently the goods or a part thereof have become part of a product or mass, the security interest continues in the product or mass if

a. the goods are so manufactured, processed, assembled or commingled that their identity is lost in the product or mass; or

b. a financing statement covering the original goods also covers the product into which the goods have been manufactured, processed or assembled.

In a case to which paragraph "b" applies, no separate security interest in that part of the original goods which has been manufactured, processed or assembled into the product may be claimed under section 554.9314.

2. When under subsection 1 more than one security interest attaches to the product or mass, they rank equally according to the ratio that the cost of the goods to which each interest originally attached bears to the cost of the total product or mass.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9315]

554.9316 Priority subject to subordination.

Nothing in this Article prevents subordination by agreement by any person entitled to priority.

554.9317 Secured party not obligated on contract of debtor.

The mere existence of a security interest or authority given to the debtor to dispose of or use collateral does not impose contract or tort liability upon the secured party for the debtor's acts or omissions.

554.9318 Defenses against assignee — modification of contract after notification of assignment — term prohibiting assignment ineffective — identification and proof of assignment.

1. Unless an account debtor has made an enforceable agreement not to assert defenses or claims arising out of a sale as provided in section 554.9206 the rights of an assignee are subject to

a. all the terms of the contract between the account debtor and assignor and any defense or claim arising therefrom; and

b. any other defense or claim of the account debtor against the assignor which accrues before the account debtor receives notification of the assignment.

2. So far as the right to payment or a part thereof under an assigned contract has not been fully earned by performance, and notwithstanding notification of the assignment, any modification of or substitution for the contract made in good faith and in accordance with reasonable commercial standards is effective against an assignee unless the account debtor has otherwise agreed but the assignee acquires corresponding rights under the modified or substituted contract. The assignment may provide that such modification or substitution is a breach by the assignor.

3. The account debtor is authorized to pay the assignor until the account debtor receives notification that the amount due or to become due has been assigned and that payment is to be made to the assignee. A notification which does not reasonably identify the rights assigned is ineffective. If requested by the account debtor, the assignee must seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the assignment has been made and unless the assignee does so the account debtor may pay the assignor.

4. A term in any contract between an account debtor and an assignor is ineffective if it prohibits assignment of an account or prohibits creation of a security interest in a general intangible for money due or to become due or requires the account debtor's consent to such assignment or security interest.

PART 4

FILING

554.9401 Place of filing — erroneous filing — removal of collateral.

1. The proper place to file in order to perfect a security interest is as follows:
a when the collateral is timber to be cut or is minerals or the like (including oil and gas), or accounts subject to section 554 9103, subsection 5, or when the financing statement is filed as a fixture filing (section 554 9313) and the collateral is goods which are or are to become fixtures, then in the office where a mortgage on the real estate would be filed or recorded,
b when the collateral is consumer goods and when the debtor resides in this state, then in the office of the recorder in the county of the debtor’s residence, c in all other cases, in the office of the secretary of state.

2 A filing which is made in good faith in an im proper place or not in all of the places required by this section is nevertheless effective with regard to any collateral as to which the filing complied with the requirements of this Article and is also effective with regard to collateral covered by the financing statement against any person who has knowledge of the contents of such financing statement.

3 A filing which is made in the proper place in this state continues effective even though the debtor’s residence or place of business or the location of the collateral or its use, whichever controlled the original filing, is thereafter changed.

4 The rules stated in section 554 9103 determine whether filing is necessary in this state.

5 Notwithstanding the preceding subsections, and subject to section 554 9302, subsection 3, the proper place to file in order to perfect a security interest in collateral, including fixtures, of a transmitting utility is the office of the secretary of state. This filing constitutes a fixture filing (section 554 9313) as to the collateral described therein which is or is to become fixtures.

§554.9402 Formal requisites of financing statement — amendments — mortgage as financing statement.

1 A financing statement is sufficient if it gives the names of the debtor and the secured party, is signed by the debtor, gives an address of the secured party from which information concerning the security interest may be obtained, gives a mailing address of the debtor and contains a statement indicating the types, or describing the items, of collateral. A financing statement may be filed before a security agreement is made or a security interest otherwise attaches. When the financing statement covers crops growing or to be grown, the statement must also contain a description of the real estate concerned. When the financing statement covers timber to be cut or covers minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to section 554 9103, subsection 5, or when the financing statement is filed as a fixture filing (section 554 9313) and the collateral is goods which are or are to become fixtures, the statement must also comply with subsection 5. A copy of the security agreement is sufficient as a financing statement if it contains the above information and is signed by the debtor. A carbon, photographic or other reproduction of a security agreement or a financing statement is sufficient as a financing statement if the security agreement so provides or if the original has been filed in this state.

2 A financing statement which otherwise com plies with subsection 1 is sufficient when it is signed by the secured party instead of the debtor if it is filed to perfect a security interest in:

a collateral already subject to a security interest in another jurisdiction when it is brought into this state or when the debtor’s location is changed to this state.

Such a financing statement must state that the collateral was brought into this state or that the debtor’s location was changed to this state under such circumstances, or b proceeds under section 554 9306 if the security interest in the original collateral was perfected. Such a financing statement must describe the original collateral, or c collateral as to which the filing has lapsed, or d collateral acquired after a change of name, identity or corporate structure of the debtor (subsection 7).

3 A form substantially as follows is sufficient to comply with subsection 1.

Name of debtor (or assignor)

Address

Name of secured party (or assignee)

Address

(1) This financing statement covers the following types (or items) of property (Describe)

(2) If collateral is crops) The above described crops are growing or are to be grown on (Describe Real Estate)

(3) If applicable) The above goods are to become fixtures on Where appropriate either add or substitute “The above timber is standing on “ or “The above minerals or the like (including oil and gas) are located on “ or “The above accounts will be financed at the wellhead or minehead of the well or mine located on “ or any or all of these (Describe Real Estate) and this financing statement is to be filed for record in the real estate records (If the debtor does not have an interest of record) The name of a record owner is

(4) If products of collateral are claimed) Products of the collateral are also covered (use whichever is applicable)

Signature of Debtor (or Assignor)

Signature of Secured Party (or Assignee)

4 Except as provided in this subsection, a financing statement may be amended by filing a writing signed by both the debtor and the secured party. However, an amendment is sufficient when it is signed only by the secured party if it is filed to show a change of the name of the secured party. An amendment showing only a change of the name of the secured party shall be filed without fee. An amendment does not extend the period of effectiveness of a financing statement. If any amendment adds collateral, it is effective as to the added collateral only from the filing date of the amendment. In this Article, unless the context otherwise requires, the term "financing statement" means the original financing statement and any amendments.

5. A financing statement covering timber to be cut or covering minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to section 554 9103, subsection 5, or any or all of these, from the date of its recording if (a) the goods are described in the mortgage by item or type, (b) the goods are or are to become fixtures or timber to be cut, or minerals or the like (including oil and gas), or accounts subject to section 554 9103, subsection 5, or any or all of these, which are related to the real estate described in the mortgage, (c) the mortgage complies with the requirements for a financing statement in this section other than a recital that it is to be filed in the real estate records, and (d) the mortgage is duly recorded. No fee with reference to the financing statement is required other than the regular recording and satisfaction fees with respect to the mortgage.

6. A mortgage is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing or a filing covering timber to be cut, or minerals or the like (including oil and gas), or accounts subject to section 554 9103, subsection 5, or any or all of these, from the date of its recording if (a) the goods are described in the mortgage by item or type, (b) the goods are or are to become fixtures or timber to be cut, or minerals or the like (including oil and gas), or accounts subject to section 554 9103, subsection 5, or any or all of these, which are related to the real estate described in the mortgage, (c) the mortgage complies with the requirements for a financing statement in this section other than a recital that it is to be filed in the real estate records, and (d) the mortgage is duly recorded. No fee with reference to the financing statement is required other than the regular recording and satisfaction fees with respect to the mortgage.

7. A financing statement sufficiently shows the name of the debtor if it gives the individual, partnership or corporate name of the debtor, whether or not it adds other trade names or the names of partners. Where the debtor so changes the debtor's name or in the case of an organization its name, identity or corporate structure that a filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading, the filing is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor more than four months after the change, unless a new appropriate financing statement is filed before the expiration of that time. A filed financing statement remains effective with respect to collateral transferred by the debtor even though the secured party knows of the transfer.

8. A financing statement substantially complying with the requirements of this section is effective even though it contains minor errors which are not seriously misleading.

1 Presentation for filing of a financing statement and tender of the filing fee or acceptance of the statement by the filing officer constitutes filing under this Article.

2 Except as provided in subsection 6, a filed financing statement is effective for a period of five years from the date of filing. The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of the five-year period unless a continuation statement is filed prior to the lapse. If a security interest perfected by filing exists at the time insolvency proceedings are commenced by or against the debtor, the security interest remains perfected until termination of the insolvency proceedings and thereafter for a period of sixty days or until expiration of the five-year period, whichever occurs later. Upon lapse the security interest becomes unperfected, unless it is perfected without filing. If the security interest becomes unperfected upon lapse, it is deemed to have been unperfected as against a person who became a purchaser or lien creditor before lapse.

3 A continuation statement may be filed by the secured party within six months prior to the expiration of the five-year period specified in subsection 2. Any such continuation statement must be signed by the secured party, identify the original statement by file number and state that the original statement is still effective. A continuation statement signed by a person other than the secured party of record must be accompanied by a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record and complying with section 554 9405, subsection 2, including payment of the required fee. Upon timely filing of the continuation statement, the effectiveness of the original statement is continued for five years after the last date to which the filing was effective whereupon it lapses in the same manner as provided in subsection 2 unless another continuation statement is filed prior to such lapse. Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the original statement. Unless a statute on disposition of public records provides otherwise, the filing officer may remove a statement from the files and destroy it immediately if the filing officer has retained a microfilm or other photographic record, or in other cases after one year after the lapse.

4 Except as provided in subsection 7, a filing officer shall mark each statement with a file number and with the date and hour of filing and shall hold the statement or a microfilm or other photographic copy thereof for public inspection. In addition the filing officer shall index the statements according to the name of the debtor and shall note in the index the file number and the address of the debtor given in the statement.

5 The uniform fee for filing and indexing and for stamping a copy furnished by the secured party to show the date and place of filing shall be as follows:
   a. Four dollars for an original financing statement if the statement is in the standard form prescribed by the secretary of state, and otherwise five dollars.
   b. Four dollars for a continuation statement if the statement is in the standard form prescribed by the secretary of state, and otherwise five dollars.

6 If the debtor is a transmitting utility (section 554 9401, subsection 5), and a filed financing statement so states, or if a filed financing statement relates to a lien, pledge, or security interest incident to bonds.
issued under chapter 419 and the filed financing statement so states, it is effective until a termination statement is filed. A real estate mortgage which is effective as a fixture filing under section 554.9402, subsection 6, remains effective as a fixture filing until the mortgage is released or satisfied of record or its effectiveness otherwise terminates as to the real estate.

7. When a financing statement covers timber to be cut or covers minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to section 554.9103, subsection 5, or is filed as a fixture filing, it shall be filed for record and the filing officer shall index it under the names of the debtor and any owner of record shown on the financing statement in the same fashion as if they were the mortgagors in a mortgage of the real estate described, and, to the extent that the law of this state provides for indexing of mortgages under the name of the mortgagor, under the name of the secured party as if the secured party were the mortgagee thereunder, or where indexing is by description in the same fashion as if the financing statement were a mortgage of the real estate described.

554.9404 Termination statement.

1. If a financing statement covering consumer goods is filed on or after January 1, 1975, then within one month or within ten days following written demand by the debtor after there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations, or otherwise give value, the secured party must file with each filing officer with whom the financing statement was filed, a termination statement to the effect that the secured party no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number. If a financing statement covering farm products is filed, then within sixty days, or within ten days following written demand by the debtor, after there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations, or otherwise give value, the secured party shall file with each filing officer with whom the financing statement was filed, a termination statement to the effect that the secured party no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number. In other cases if there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations, or otherwise give value, the secured party must on written demand by the debtor send the debtor, for each filing officer with whom the financing statement was filed, a termination statement to the effect that the secured party no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number. A termination statement signed by a person other than the secured party of record must be accompanied by a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record complying with section 554.9405, subsection 2, including payment of the required fee. If the affected secured party fails to file a termination statement as required by this subsection, or to send such a termination statement within ten days after proper demand for it, the affected secured party is liable to the debtor for one hundred dollars, and in addition for any loss caused to the debtor by the failure.

2. On presentation to the filing officer of such a termination statement the filing officer must note it in the index. If the filing officer has received the termination statement in duplicate, the filing officer shall return one copy of the termination statement to the secured party stamped to show the time of receipt thereof.

3. There shall be no fee for filing a termination statement.

554.9405 Assignment of security interest — duties of filing officer — fees.

1. A financing statement may disclose an assignment of a security interest in the collateral described in the financing statement by indication in the financing statement of the name and address of the assignee or by an assignment itself or a copy thereof on the face or back of the statement. On presentation to the filing officer of such a financing statement the filing officer shall mark the same as provided in section 554.9403, subsection 4. The uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data for a financing statement so indicating an assignment on a form conforming to standards prescribed by the secretary of state shall be four dollars, or if such statement otherwise conforms to the requirements of this section, five dollars.

2. A secured party may assign of record all or a part of the rights under a financing statement by the filing in the place where the original financing statement was filed of a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record and setting forth the name of the secured party of record and the debtor, the file number and the date of filing of the financing statement and the name and address of the assignee and containing a description of the collateral assigned. A copy of the assignment is sufficient as a separate statement if it complies with the preceding sentence. On presentation to the filing officer of such a separate statement, the filing officer shall mark such separate statement with the date and hour of the filing. The filing officer shall note the assignment on the index of the financing statement, or in the case of a fixture filing, or a filing covering timber to be cut, or covering minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to section 554.9103, subsection 5, the filing officer shall index the assignment under the name of the assignor as grantor and, to the extent that the law of this state provides for indexing the assignment of a mortgage under the name of the assignee, the filing officer shall index the assignment of the financing statement under the name of the assignee. The uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data about such a separate statement of assignment on a form conforming to standards prescribed by the secretary of state shall be four dollars, §554.9405 or if such statement otherwise conforms to the requirements of this section, five dollars. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, an assignment of record of a security interest in a fixture contained in a mortgage effective as a fixture filing (section 554.9402, subsection 6), may be made only by an assignment of the mortgage in the manner provided by the law of this state other than this chapter.

For financing statements covering fixture filings, changes in the filings, and termination of the filings, an additional fee shall be charged for recording in an amount specified in section 331.604.

3. After the disclosure or filing of an assignment under this section, the assignee is the secured party of record.

554.9406 Release of collateral — duties of filing officer — fees.

A secured party of record may by a signed statement release all or a part of any collateral described in a filed financing statement. The statement of release is sufficient if it contains a description of the collateral being released, the name and address of the debtor, the name and address of the secured party, and the file number of the financing statement. A statement of release signed by a person other than the secured party of record must be accompanied by a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record and complying with section 554.9405, subsection 2, including payment of the required fee. Upon presentation of such a statement of release the filing officer shall mark the statement with the hour and date of filing and shall note the same upon the margin of the index of the filing of the financing statement.

The uniform fee for filing and noting such a statement of release is five dollars. The uniform fee for a certificate is one dollar.

554.9407 Information from filing officer.

1. If the person filing any financing statement, termination statement, statement of assignment, or statement of release, furnishes the filing officer a copy thereof, the filing officer shall upon request note upon the copy the file number and date and hour of the filing of the original and deliver or send the copy to such person.

2. Upon a verbal request of a person, the filing officer shall verbally give information concerning a presently effective financing statement. The uniform fee for responding to a verbal request is four dollars. The requesting party may request a certificate from the filing officer confirming the information given. The uniform fee for a certificate is one dollar.

3. Upon written request of any person, the filing officer shall issue a certificate showing whether there is on file the date and hour stated therein, any presently effective financing statement or verified lien statement under chapter 570A naming a particular debtor and any financing statement or verified lien statement changes and if there are, giving the date and hour of filing of each such filing and the names and addresses of each secured party therein. The uniform fee for such a certificate shall be four dollars if the request for the certificate is on a form conforming to standards prescribed by the secretary of state; otherwise, five dollars. Upon request and the payment of the appropriate fee the filing officer shall furnish a certified copy of any filed financing statement or financing statement changes or verified lien statement or lien statement changes for a uniform fee of one dollar per page.

4. Charging no more than a reasonable estimate of cost, in the secretary of state's or county recorder's discretion the secretary of state or a county recorder may adopt one or more of the following methods of providing information concerning public filings in that office to persons with an interest in this information that is related exclusively to the purposes of this Article:

a. Subscription daily, weekly or monthly written summaries;

b. Granting suitable space for the preparation of written summaries and the provision of telephone service by those persons deemed by the secretary of state or a county recorder to have a legitimate interest in regular examination of the secretary of state's or the county recorder's public files; or

c. Any other appropriate method of disseminating information. Except with respect to willful misconduct, the state of Iowa, the secretary of state, a county, a county recorder and their employees and agents are immune from liability as a result of errors or omissions in information supplied pursuant to this subsection.

554.9408 Financing statements covering consigned or leased goods.

A consignor or lessor of goods may file a financing statement using the terms “consignor”, “consignee”, “lessor”, “lessee” or the like instead of the terms specified in section 554.9402. The provisions of this Part shall apply as appropriate to such a financing statement but its filing shall not of itself be a factor in determining whether or not the consignment or lease is intended as security (section 554.1201, subsection 37). However, if it is determined for other reasons that the consignment or lease is so intended, a security interest of the consignor or lessor which attaches to the consigned or leased goods is perfected by such filing.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9408]

PART 5

DEFAULT

554.9501 Default — procedure when security agreement covers both real and personal property.

1. When a debtor is in default under a security agreement, a secured party has the rights and remedies provided in this Part and except as limited by subsection 3 those provided in the security agreement. The secured party may reduce the secured party's claim to judgment, foreclose or otherwise enforce the security interest by any available judicial procedure. If the collateral is documents the secured party may proceed either as to the documents or as to the goods covered thereby. A secured party in possession has the rights, remedies and duties provided in section 554.9207. The rights and remedies referred to in this subsection are cumulative.

2. After default, the debtor has the rights and remedies provided in this Part, those provided in the security agreement and those provided in section 554.9207.

3. To the extent that they give rights to the debtor and impose duties on the secured party, the rules stated in the subsections referred to below may not be waived or varied except as provided with respect to compulsory disposition of collateral (section 554.9504, subsection 3 and section 554.9505) and with respect to redemption of collateral (section 554.9506) but the parties may by agreement determine the standards by which the fulfillment of these rights and duties is to be measured if such standards are not manifestly unreasonable:
   a. subsection 2 of section 554.9502 and subsection 2 of section 554.9504 insofar as they require accounting for surplus proceeds of collateral;
   b. subsection 3 of section 554.9504 and subsection 1 of section 554.9505 which deal with disposition of collateral;
   c. subsection 2 of section 554.9505 which deals with acceptance of collateral as discharge of obligation;
   d. section 554.9506 which deals with redemption of collateral;
   e. subsection 1 of section 554.9507 which deals with the secured party's liability for failure to comply with this Part.

4. If the security agreement covers both real and personal property, the secured party may proceed under this Part as to the personal property or may proceed as to both the real and the personal property in accordance with the secured party's rights and remedies in respect of the real property in which case the provisions of this Part do not apply.

5. When a secured party has reduced the secured party's claim to judgment the lien of any levy which may be made upon the secured party's collateral by virtue of any execution based upon the judgment shall relate back to the date of the perfection of the security interest in such collateral. A judicial sale, pursuant to such execution, is a foreclosure of the security interest by judicial procedure within the meaning of this section, and the secured party may purchase at the sale and thereafter hold the collateral free of any other requirements of this Article.

6. A creditor, as defined in section 654A.1, shall not initiate a proceeding under this chapter against a borrower subject to section 654A.4 to enforce a secured interest in agricultural property, as defined in section 654A.1, which is subject to chapter 654A and which is subject to a secured debt of twenty thousand dollars or more unless the person receives a mediation release under section 654A.11, or unless the court determines after notice and hearing that the time delay required for the mediation would cause the person to suffer irreparable harm.

554.9502 Collection rights of secured party.

1. When so agreed and in any event on default the secured party is entitled to notify an account debtor or the obligor on an instrument to make payment to the secured party whether or not the assignor was theretofore making collections on the collateral, and also to take control of any proceeds to which the secured party is entitled under section 554.9306.

2. A secured party who by agreement is entitled to charge back uncollected collateral or otherwise to full or limited recourse against the debtor and who undertakes to collect from the account debtors or obligors must proceed in a commercially reasonable manner and may deduct the secured party's reasonable expenses of realization from the collections. If the security agreement secures an indebtedness, the secured party must account to the debtor for any surplus, and unless otherwise agreed, the debtor is liable for any deficiency. But, if the underlying transaction was a sale of accounts or chattel paper, the debtor is entitled to any surplus or is liable for any deficiency only if the security agreement so provides.

554.9503 Secured party's right to take possession after default.

Unless otherwise agreed a secured party has on default the right to take possession of the collateral. In taking possession a secured party may proceed without judicial process if this can be done without breach of the peace or may proceed by action. If the security agreement so provides the secured party may require the debtor to assemble the collateral and make it available to the secured party at a place to be designated by the secured party which is reasonably convenient to both parties. Without removal a secured party may render equipment unusable, and may dispose of collateral on the debtor's premises under section 554.9504.

554.9504 Secured party's right to dispose of collateral after default — effect of disposition.

1. A secured party after default may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any or all of the collateral in its then condition or following any commercially reasonable preparation or processing. Any sale of goods is subject to the Article on Sales (Article 2). The proceeds of disposition shall be applied in the order following to

a. the reasonable expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for sale or lease, selling, leasing and the like and, to the extent provided for in the agreement and not prohibited by law, the reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses incurred by the secured party;

b the satisfaction of indebtedness secured by the security interest under which the disposition is made,
c the satisfaction of indebtedness secured by any subordinate security interest or lien in the collateral if written notification of demand therefor is received before distribution of the proceeds is completed If requested by the secured party, the holder of a subordinate security interest or lien must seasonably furnish reasonable proof of that holder's interest, and unless the holder does so, the secured party need not comply with that holder's demand
2 If the security interest secures an indebtedness, the secured party must account to the debtor for any surplus, and, unless otherwise agreed, the debtor is liable for any deficiency But if the underlying transaction was a sale of accounts or chattel paper, the debtor is entitled to any surplus or is liable for any deficiency only if the security agreement so provides
3 Disposition of the collateral may be by public or private proceedings and may be made by way of one or more contracts Sale or other disposition may be as a unit or in parcels and at any time and place and on any terms but every aspect of the disposition including the method, manner, time, place and terms must be commercially reasonable Unless collateral is perishable or threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market, reasonable notification of the time and place of any public sale or reasonable notification of the time after which any private sale or other intended disposition is to be made shall be sent by the secured party to the debtor, if the debtor has not signed after default a statement renouncing or modifying the debtor's right to notification of sale In the case of consumer goods no other notification need be sent In other cases notification shall be sent to any other secured party from whom the secured party has received (before sending the notification to the debtor or before the debtor's renunciation of the debtor's rights) written notice of a claim of an interest in the collateral The secured party may buy at any public sale and if the collateral is of a type customarily sold in a recognized market, or is of a type which is the subject of widely distributed standard price quotations the secured party may buy at private sale
4 When collateral is disposed of by a secured party after default, the disposition transfers to a purchaser for value all of the debtor's rights therein, discharges the security interest under which it is made and any security interest or lien subordinate thereto The purchaser takes free of all such rights and interests even though the secured party fails to comply with the requirements of this Part or any judicial proceedings a in the case of a public sale, if the purchaser has no knowledge of any defects in the sale and if the purchaser does not buy in collusion with the secured party, other bidders or the person conducting the sale, or b in any other case, if the purchaser acts in good faith
5 A person who is liable to a secured party under a guaranty, endorsement, repurchase agreement or the like and who receives a transfer of collateral from the secured party or is subrogated to the secured party's rights has thereafter the rights and duties of the secured party Such a transfer of collateral is not a sale or disposition of the collateral under this Article

Compulsory disposition of collateral — acceptance of the collateral as discharge of obligation.
1 If the debtor has paid sixty percent of the cash price in the case of a purchase money security interest in consumer goods or sixty percent of the loan in the case of another security interest in consumer goods, and has not signed after default a statement renouncing or modifying the debtor's rights under this Part a secured party who has taken possession of collateral must dispose of it under section 554.9504 and if the secured party fails to do so within ninety days after the secured party takes possession the debtor at the debtor's option may recover in conversion or under section 554.9507, subsection 1, on secured party's liability
2 In any other case involving consumer goods or any other collateral a secured party in possession may, after default, propose to retain the collateral in satisfaction of the obligation Written notice of such proposal shall be sent to the debtor if the debtor has not signed after default a statement renouncing or modifying the debtor's rights to notice and to object to retention of the collateral in full satisfaction of the obligation, under this subsection In the case of consumer goods no other notice need be given In other cases notice shall be sent to any other secured party or lienor from whom the secured party has received (before sending the notice to the debtor or before the debtor's renunciation of the debtor's rights) written notice of a claim of an interest in the collateral If the secured party receives objection in writing from a person entitled to be sent notification within twenty-one days after the notice was sent, the secured party must dispose of the collateral under section 554.9504 In the absence of such written objection the secured party may retain the collateral in satisfaction of the debtor's obligation Retention of the collateral discharges the security interest of the secured party and discharges any security interest or lien subordinate to the security interest of the secured party

Debtor's right to redeem collateral.
At any time before the secured party has disposed of collateral or entered into a contract for its disposition under section 554.9504 or before the obligation has been discharged under section 554.9505, subsection 2, the debtor or any other secured party or lienor may unless otherwise agreed in writing after default redeem the collateral by tendering fulfillment of all obligations secured by the collateral as well as the expenses reasonably incurred by the secured party in retaking, holding and preparing the collateral for disposition, in arranging for the sale, and to the extent provided in the agreement and not prohibited by law, the secured party's reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses 554.9507 Secured party's liability for failure to comply with this Part.

1 If it is established that the secured party is not proceeding in accordance with the provisions of this Part disposition may be ordered or restrained on appropriate terms and conditions. If the disposition has occurred the debtor or any person entitled to notification or whose security interest has been made known to the secured party prior to the disposition has a right to recover from the secured party any loss caused by a failure to comply with the provisions of this Part. If the collateral is consumer goods, the debtor has a right to recover in any event an amount not less than the credit service charge plus ten percent of the principal amount of the debt or the time price differential plus ten percent of the cash price.

2 The fact that a better price could have been obtained by a sale at a different time or in a different method from that selected by the secured party is not of itself sufficient to establish that the sale was not made in a commercially reasonable manner. If the secured party either sells the collateral in the usual manner in any recognized market therefor or if the secured party sells at the price current in such market at the time of the secured party's sale or if the secured party has otherwise sold in conformity with reasonable commercial practices among dealers in the type of property sold the secured party has sold in a commercially reasonable manner. The principles stated in the two preceding sentences with respect to sales also apply as may be appropriate to other types of disposition. A disposition which has been approved in any judicial proceeding or by any bona fide creditors’ committee or representative of creditors shall conclusively be deemed to be commercially reasonable, but this sentence does not indicate that any such approval must be obtained in any case nor does it indicate that any disposition not so approved is not commercially reasonable.

554.10104 Laws not repealed.

1 The Article on Documents of Title (Article 7) does not repeal or modify any laws prescribing the form or contents of documents of title or the services or facilities to be afforded by bailees, or otherwise regulating bailees’ businesses in respects not specifically dealt with herein, but the fact that such laws are violated does not affect the status of a document of title which otherwise complies with the definition of a document of title (section 554.1201).

2 This chapter does not repeal sections 633.130 to 633.138 and if in any respect there is any inconsistency between those sections and the Article of this chapter on investment securities (Article 8) the provisions of the said sections shall control.

554.10105 Secretary of state exempted from personal liability.

The secretary of state, the secretary's employees or agents are hereby exempted from all personal liability as a result of errors or omissions in the performance of any duty required by the Uniform Commercial Code, chapter 554, except in cases of willful negligence. In the event of such error or omission the state of Iowa shall be liable in respect to such claims in the same manner, and to the same extent as a private individual under like circumstances. Immunity of the state from suit and liability in such case is waived to the extent provided in chapter 25A and said chapter shall govern the extent of liability and the practice and procedure necessary to establish any liability of the state.

ARTICLE 11
EFFECTIVE DATE OF 1974 AMENDMENTS

554.11101 Effective date.

Division 2 of this Act (55GA, chapter 1249), sections 9 to 72, the Iowa amendments to the Uniform Commercial Code pertaining principally to security interests, and related amendments, shall become effective at 12:01 a.m. on January 1, 1975.

554.11102 Preservation of old transition provision

The provisions of Article 10 of this chapter, sections 554.10101 to 554.10105, shall continue to apply to this chapter as amended and for this purpose this chapter prior to amendment and this chapter as amended shall be considered one continuous statute.

554.11103 Transition to this chapter as amended — general rule.

Transactions validly entered into after July 4, 1966, and before January 1, 1975, which were subject to the provisions of this chapter prior to amendment and which would be subject to this chapter as amended if they had been entered into on or after January 1, 1975, and the rights, duties and interests flowing from such transactions remain valid after January 1, 1975, and may be terminated, completed, consummated or en forced as required or permitted by this chapter as amended. Security interests arising out of such transactions which are perfected on January 1, 1975, shall remain perfected until they lapse or are terminated as provided in this chapter as amended, and may be continued as permitted by this chapter as amended, except as stated in section 554.11105.

554.11104 Transition provision on change of requirement of filing.

A security interest for the perfection of which filing or the taking of possession was required under this chapter prior to amendment and which attached prior to January 1, 1975, but was not perfected shall be deemed perfected on January 1, 1975, if this chapter as amended permits perfection without filing or the taking of possession, or authorizes filing in the office or offices where a prior ineffective filing was made.

554.11105 Transition provision on change of place of filing.

1 Except as provided in subsection 5, a filed financing or continuation statement which has not lapsed or been terminated prior to January 1, 1975, shall remain effective for the period provided in this chapter prior to amendment, but not less than five years after the filing.

2 Except as provided in subsection 5, with respect to any collateral acquired by the debtor subsequent to January 1, 1975, any effective financing statement or continuation statement described in this section shall apply only if the filing or filings are in the office or offices that would be appropriate to perfect the security interests in the new collateral under this chapter as amended.

3 The effectiveness of any financing statement or continuation statement filed prior to January 1, 1975, may be continued by a continuation statement as permitted by this chapter as amended, except that if this chapter as amended requires a filing in an office where there was no previous financing statement, a new financing statement conforming to either section 554.9402 or subsection 8 shall be filed in that office.

4 If the record of a mortgage of real estate would have been effective as a fixture filing or a filing covering timber to be cut, or minerals or the like (including oil and gas), or accounts subject to section 554.9103, subsection 5, or any or all of these, of goods described therein if this chapter as amended had been in effect on the date of recording the mortgage, the mortgage shall be deemed effective as a fixture filing as to such goods under section 554.9402, subsection 6, on January 1, 1975, and the mortgage shall be deemed effective as a filing covering timber to be cut or minerals or the like (including oil and gas), or accounts subject to section 554.9103, subsection 5, or any or all of these, on July 1, 1976.

5 If collateral consists of equipment used in farming operations, or farm products, or accounts, contract rights, or general intangibles arising from or relating to the sale of farm products by a farmer, the place of effective filing is as follows:

a Filings in the office of a county recorder which have not lapsed or been terminated prior to January 1, 1975, retain their effectiveness unless subsequently lapsed or terminated until January 1, 1980, however, on or after January 1, 1975, continuation statements are not to be filed in the office of a county recorder, and effectiveness can be continued only through the filing in the office of the secretary of state of a financing statement which complies with section 554.9402 or, if filed before January 1, 1980, with subsection 8, the effectiveness of such financing statements is to be continued through continuation statements which comply with section 554.9403, subsection 3, a prior county filing ordinarily may be continued in the office of the secretary of state only in the final six months of its effectiveness at the county level, however, if there were multiple filings in different counties with respect to the same secured transaction, the multiple filings may be consolidated into a single filing in the office of the secretary of state if any one of the multiple county filings is in the final six months of its effectiveness at the county level.

b On or after January 1, 1975, initial financing statements must be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and must conform to section 554.9402, and on or after January 1, 1980, all filings must be in the office of the secretary of state and must conform to either section 554.9402 or subsection 8.

6 If collateral consists of fixtures, timber to be cut, minerals or the like (including oil and gas), or accounts subject to subsection 5 of section 554.9103, filings in the Uniform Commercial Code files of a county recorder which have not lapsed or been terminated prior to January 1, 1975, retain their effectiveness unless subsequently lapsed or terminated until January 1, 1980, however, on or after July 1, 1976, continuation statements in the form of financing statements which are to be recorded in the land records and cross-indexed in the Uniform Commercial Code files of the county recorder can be filed without regard to the remaining period of effectiveness of the prior filing, financing statements used to continue the effectiveness of prior county land related filings must comply either with section 554.9402, or with subsection 8.

7 If a security interest is perfected or has priority on January 1, 1975, as to any persons or as to certain persons without any filing or recording, and if the filing of a financing statement would be required for the perfection or priority of the security interest against those persons under this chapter as amended, the perfection and priority rights of the security interest continue until three years after January 1, 1975. The perfection will then lapse unless a financing statement which complies with either section 554.9402 or subsection 8 of this section has been filed or unless the security interest has been perfected otherwise than by filing. The effectiveness of such financing statements is to be continued through continuation statements which comply with section 554.9403, subsection 3.

8 Where indicated by this section, a financing statement which otherwise complies with section 554.9402 may be signed by either the secured party or the debtor provided that the financing statement is accompanied by a carbon, photocopy, or other suitable reproduction of an effective prior filing, and evidence of proper prior filing, and states that the prior filing is still effective. Insofar as subsection 7 authorizes perfection by filing of security interests which have been perfected without filing under section 554 9302, subsection 1, paragraph "c," prior to amendment, a financing statement which otherwise complies with section 554 9402 may be signed by either the secured party or the debtor provided that the financing statement identifies the security agreement and states that the security interest was perfected without filing under section 554 9302, subsection 1, paragraph "c," prior to amendment.

554.11106 Reserved

554.11107 Transition provisions as to priorities.

Except as otherwise provided in this Article, this chapter prior to amendment shall apply to any questions of priority if the positions of the parties were fixed prior to January 1, 1975. In other cases questions of priority shall be determined by this chapter as amended.

CHAPTER 554A

LIVESTOCK WARRANTY EXEMPTION

554A.1 Livestock sales — when exempt from implied warranty

Notwithstanding section 554 2316, subsection 2, all implied warranties arising under sections 554 2314 and 554 2315 are excluded from a sale of cattle, hogs, sheep and horses if the following information is disclosed to the prospective buyer or the buyer’s agent in advance of the sale, and if confirmed in writing at or before the time of acceptance of the livestock when confirmation is requested by the buyer or the buyer’s agent:

a. That the animals to be sold have been inspected in accordance with existing federal and state animal health regulations and found apparently free from any infectious, contagious, or communicable disease

b. One of the following, as applicable

(1) Except when the livestock have been confined with livestock from another source or assembled within the meaning of subparagraph 2 of this paragraph, the name and address of the present owner, and whether or not that owner has owned all of the livestock for at least thirty days.

(2) If the livestock have been confined with livestock from another source or assembled from two or more sources within the previous thirty days, the livestock shall be represented as being “assembled livestock.” As used in this subparagraph, “confined with livestock from another source” means the placement of livestock in a livestock auction market, yard, or other unitary facility in which livestock from another source are confined, but does not include livestock confined at the facility where the sale takes place if such confinement is for less than forty eight hours prior to the day of sale, provided that livestock which are not sold after being confined with livestock from another source at a facility and offered for sale shall be deemed “assembled livestock” for the thirty day period following the day when offered for sale.

If the livestock are represented as being “assembled livestock”, the name and address of the present owner shall be disclosed.

In the case of an auction sale, the disclosure required by this subsection shall be made verbally immediately before the sale by the owner, an agent for the owner, or the person who is conducting the auction of the lot of livestock in question. Warranties shall be implied to the person who is conducting the auction only if the disclosure contains representations which that person knew or had reason to know were untrue.

CHAPTER 555
SECURED TRANSACTIONS OF TRANSMITTING UTILITIES

555.1 Definitions.
As used in this chapter “transmitting utility” has the same meaning as defined in the Uniform Commercial Code, section 554 9105, subsection 1, paragraph “n.” Security interests filed pursuant to this chapter prior to January 1, 1975, which have not been terminated, are deemed to be filed in accordance with section 554 9401, subsection 5
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §555 1]

555.2 Security interest.
A security interest in rolling stock of a transmitting utility may be perfected either as provided in the Uniform Commercial Code, chapter 554, or as provided in the Interstate Commerce Act, 49 U.S.C., section 20 “c.”
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §555 2]

555.3 Recording mortgage or deed of trust upon real estate.
Any mortgage or deed of trust upon real estate executed by a transmitting utility may provide that property of the transmitting utility, whether owned at the time of the execution of the instrument or subsequently acquired, shall secure the obligations covered by the instrument. Recording the instrument in the office of the recorder of each county in which such property, or any part thereof, described in the instrument is situated shall give constructive notice to all persons of the creation of the mortgage or deed of trust from the time of recording or, in the case of subsequently acquired real estate, from the time of acquisition

556.4 Repealed by 84 Acts, ch 1266, §23
556.1 Definitions and use of terms.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires

1 "Banking organization" means any bank, trust company, savings bank, industrial bank, land bank, safe deposit company, or a private banker engaged in business in this state

2 "Business association" means any corporation other than a public corporation, joint stock company, business trust, partnership, or any association for business purposes of two or more individuals

3 "Financial organization" means any savings and loan association, building and loan association, credit union, co-operative bank or investment company, engaged in business in this state

4 "Holder" means any person in possession of property subject to this chapter belonging to another, or who is trustee in case of a trust, or is indebted to another on an obligation subject to this chapter

5 "Life insurance corporation" means any association or corporation transacting within this state the business of insurance on the lives of persons or insurance appertaining thereto, including, but not by way of limitation, endowments and annuities

6 "Owner" means a depositor in case of a deposit, a beneficiary in case of a trust, a creditor, claimant, or payee in case of other choses in action, or any person having a legal or equitable interest in property subject to this chapter, or that person's legal representative

7 "Person" means any individual, business association, government or political subdivision, public corporation, public authority, estate, trust, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity

8 "Utility" means any person who owns or operates within this state, for public use, any plant, equipment, property, franchise, or license for the transmission of communications or the production, storage, transmission, sale, delivery, or furnishing of electricity, water, steam, or gas

556.2 Property held by banking or financial associations or by business associations.

The following property held or owing by a banking or financial association or by a business association is presumed abandoned

1 Any demand, savings, or matured time deposit made in this state with a banking organization, together with any interest or dividend, excluding any charges that may lawfully be withheld, unless the owner has, within five years

a Increased or decreased the amount of the deposit, or presented the passbook or other similar evidence of the deposit for the crediting of interest

b Corresponded in writing with the banking organization concerning the deposit

c Otherwise indicated an interest in the deposit as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the banking organization. Such memorandum shall be dated and may have been prepared by the banking organization, in which case it shall be signed by an officer of the bank, or it may have been prepared by the owner

d Had another relationship with the bank in which the owner has

(1) Communicated in writing with the bank

(2) Otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file prepared by an employee of the bank and if the bank communicates in writing with the owner with regard to the property that would otherwise be abandoned under this subsection at the address to which communications regarding the other relationship are regularly sent

e Been sent any written correspondence, notice or information by first class mail regarding the deposit by the banking organization on or after July 1, 1985, if the correspondence, notice or information is not returned to the bank organization for nondelivery and if the bank organization maintains a record of all returned mail

2 Any funds paid in this state toward the purchase of shares or other interest in a financial organization or any deposit made in this state, and any interest or dividends, excluding any charges that may lawfully be withheld, unless the owner has within five years

a Increased or decreased the amount of the funds or deposit, or presented an appropriate record for the crediting of interest or dividends

b Corresponded in writing with the financial organization concerning the funds or deposit

c Otherwise indicated an interest in the funds or deposit as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the financial organization. Such memorandum shall be dated and may have been prepared by the financial organization, in which case it shall be signed by an officer of the financial organization, or it may have been prepared by the owner

d Had another relationship with the financial or organization in which the owner has

(1) Communicated in writing with the financial organization

(2) Otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file prepared by an employee of the financial organization and if the financial organization communicates in writing with the owner with regard to the property that would otherwise be abandoned under this subsection at the address to which communications regarding the other relationship are regularly sent

e. Been sent any written correspondence, notice or information by first class mail regarding the funds or deposits by the financial organization on or after July 1, 1985, if the correspondence, notice or information is not returned to the financial organization for non-delivery and if the financial organization maintains a record of all returned mail.

3. Any property described in subsections 1 and 2 which is automatically renewable is matured for purposes of subsections 1 and 2 upon the expiration of its initial time period, but in the case of any renewal to which the owner consents at or about the time of renewal by communicating in writing with the banking or financial organization or otherwise indicating consent as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file prepared by an employee of the organization, the property is matured upon the expiration of the last time period provided for which consent was given. If at the time period for delivery in section 556.13, a penalty or forfeiture in the payment of interest would result from the delivery of the property, the time period for delivery is extended until the time when no penalty or forfeiture would result.

4. Any sum payable on checks certified in this state or on written instruments issued in this state on which a banking or financial organization or business association is directly liable, including, by way of illustration but not of limitation, certificates of deposit, drafts, money orders, and traveler's checks, that, with the exception of traveler's checks, has been outstanding for more than five years from the date it was payable, or from the date of its issuance if payable on demand, or, in the case of traveler's checks, that has been outstanding for more than fifteen years from the date of its issuance, unless the owner has within five years, or within fifteen years in the case of traveler's checks, corresponded in writing with the banking or financial organization or business association concerned, or otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file with the banking or financial organization or business association. The memorandum shall be dated and may have been prepared by the banking or financial organization or business association, or a member of the business association, or it may have been prepared by the owner.

5. Any funds or other personal property, tangible or intangible, removed from a safe deposit box or any other safekeeping repository or agency or collateral deposit box in this state on which the lease or rental period has expired due to nonpayment of rental charges or other reason, or any surplus amounts arising from the sale thereof pursuant to law, that have been unclaimed by the owner for more than five years from the date on which the lease or rental period expired.

6. A banking organization or financial organization shall send to the owner of each account, to which none of the actions specified in paragraphs "a" through "d" of subsection 1 or "a" through "d" of subsection 2 have occurred during the preceding five calendar years, a notice by certified mail stating in substance the following:

"According to our records, we have had no contact with you regarding (describe account) for more than five years. Under Iowa law, if there is a period of five years without contact, we may be required to transfer this account to the custody of the treasurer of state of Iowa as unclaimed property. You may prevent this by taking some action, such as a deposit or withdrawal, which indicates your interest in this account or by signing this form and returning it to us.

I desire to keep the above account open and active.

Your signature"

The notice required under this section shall be mailed within thirty days of the lapse of the five-year period in which there is no activity. The cost of the certified mail of the notice required in this section may be deducted from the account by the banking or financial organization.

[85 Acts, ch 233, §1-3]

556.3 Unclaimed funds held by life insurance corporations.

1. "Unclaimed funds," as defined in this section, held and owing by a life insurance corporation shall be presumed abandoned if the last known address, according to the records of the corporation, of the person entitled to the funds is within this state. If a person other than the insured or annuitant is entitled to the funds and no address of such person is known to the corporation or if it is not definite and certain from the records of the corporation what person is entitled to the funds, it is presumed that the last known address of the person entitled to the funds is the same as the last known address of the insured or annuitant according to the records of the corporation.

2. "Unclaimed funds," as used in this section, means all moneys held and owing by any life insurance corporation unclaimed and unpaid for more than five years after the moneys became due and payable as established from the records of the corporation under any life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract which has matured or terminated. A life insurance policy not matured by actual proof of the death of the insured is deemed to be matured and the proceeds thereof are deemed to be due and payable if the policy was in force when the insured attained the limiting age under the mortality table on which the reserve is based and shall be presumed abandoned and to be unclaimed funds as defined in this section if unclaimed and unpaid for more than two years thereafter, unless the person appearing entitled thereto has within the two-year period assigned, readjusted, or paid premiums on the policy, or subjected the policy to loan or corresponded in writing with the life insurance corporation concerning the policy. Moneys otherwise payable according to the records of the corporation are deemed due and payable although the policy or contract has not been surrendered as required.

556.4 Deposits and refunds held by utilities.

The following funds held or owing by any utility are presumed abandoned:

1. Any deposit made by a subscriber with a utility to secure payment for, or any sum paid in advance for, utility services to be furnished in this state, less any lawful deductions, that has remained unclaimed by the person appearing on the records of the utility entitled to the deposit for more than two years after the termination of the services for which the deposit or advance payment was made.

2. Any sum which a utility has been ordered to refund and which was received for utility services rendered in this state, together with any interest on the refund, less any lawful deductions, that has remained unclaimed by the person appearing on the records of the utility entitled to the refund for more than two years after the date it became payable in accordance with the final determination or order providing for the refund.

556.5 Stocks and other intangible interests in business associations.

1. Except as provided in subsections 2 and 5, stock or other intangible ownership interest in a business association, the existence of which is evidenced by records available to the association, is presumed abandoned and, with respect to the interest, the association is the holder, if a dividend, distribution, or other sum payable as a result of the interest has remained unclaimed by the owner for seven years and the owner within seven years has not:

a. Communicated in writing with the association regarding the interest or a dividend, distribution, or other sum payable as a result of the interest.

b. Otherwise communicated with the association regarding the interest or a dividend, distribution, or other sum payable as a result of the interest, as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file with the association prepared by an employee of the association.

2. At the expiration of a seven-year period following the failure of the owner to claim a dividend, distribution, or other sum payable to the owner as a result of the interest, the interest is not presumed abandoned unless there have been at least seven dividends, distributions, or other sums paid during the period, none of which has been claimed by the owner. If seven dividends, distributions, or other sums are paid during the seven-year period, the period leading to a presumption of abandonment commences on the date payment of the first unclaimed dividend, distribution, or other sum became due and payable. If seven dividends, distributions, or other sums are not paid during the presumptive period, the period continues to run until there have been seven dividends, distributions, or other sums that have not been claimed by the owner.

3. The running of the seven-year period of abandonment ceases immediately upon the occurrence of a communication referred to in subsection 1. If any future dividend, distribution, or other sum payable to the owner as a result of the interest is subsequently not claimed by the owner, a new period of abandonment commences and relates back to the time a subsequent dividend, distribution, or other sum became due and payable.

4. At the time an interest is presumed abandoned under this section, any dividend, distribution, or other sum then held for or owing to the owner as a result of the interest, and not previously abandoned, is presumed abandoned.

5. This section does not apply to any stock or other intangible ownership of interest enrolled in a plan that provides for the automatic reinvestment of dividends, distributions, or other sums payable as a result of the interest unless the records available to the treasurer of state show, with respect to any intangible ownership interest not enrolled in the reinvestment plan, that the owner has not within seven years communicated in any manner described in subsection 1.

6. Any stock or other certificate of ownership, or any dividend, profit, distribution, interest, payment on principal, or other sum held or owing by a business association for or to a shareholder, certificate holder, member, bondholder, or other security holder, or a participating patron of a cooperative, who has not claimed it, or corresponded in writing with the business association concerning it, within five years after the date prescribed for payment or delivery, is presumed abandoned.

84 Acts, ch 1295, §9; 85 Acts, ch 195, §50

556.6 Property of business associations and banking or financial organizations held in course of dissolution.

Except as provided in section 496A.101, all intangible personal property distributable in the course of a voluntary dissolution of a business association, banking organization, or financial organization organized under the laws of or created in this state, that is unclaimed by the owner within one year after the date for final distribution, is presumed abandoned.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §556.6]

84 Acts, ch 1295, §10

556.7 Property held by fiduciaries.

All intangible personal property and any income or increment thereon, held in a fiduciary capacity for the benefit of another person is presumed abandoned unless the owner has, within five years after it becomes payable or distributable, increased or decreased the principal, accepted payment of principal or income, corresponded in writing concerning the property, or otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the fiduciary which shall have been dated and may have been prepared by the fiduciary or by the owner:

1. If the property is held by a banking organization or a financial organization, or by a business association organized under the laws of or created in this state; or

2. If it is held by a business association, doing business in this state, but not organized under the laws of or created in this state, and the records of the business association indicate that the last known address of the person entitled thereto is in this state; or

3. If it is held in this state by any other person.

er person.
All intangible personal property, not otherwise covered by this chapter, including any income or inc­ crement thereon and deducting any lawful charges, that is held or owing in this state in the ordinary course of the holder's business and has remained unclaimed by the owner for more than three years after 556.10  Reciprocity for property presumed abandoned or escheated under the laws of another state.

If specific property which is subject to the provisions of sections 556 2, 556 5, 556 6, 556 7 and 556 9 is held for or owed or distributable to an owner whose last known address is in another state by a holder who is subject to the jurisdiction of that state, the specific property is not presumed abandoned in this state and subject to this chapter if 1  It may be claimed as abandoned or escheated under the laws of such other state, and 2  The laws of such other state make reciprocal provision that similar specific property is not presumed abandoned or escheatable by such other state when held for or owed or distributable to an owner whose last known address is within this state by a holder who is subject to the jurisdiction of this state
[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §556 10]

556.11  Report of abandoned property.
1  Every person holding funds or other property, tangible or intangible, presumed abandoned under this chapter shall report to the state treasurer with respect to the property as hereinafter provided:
2  The report shall be verified and shall include a  Except with respect to traveler's checks and money orders, the name, if known, and last known address, if any, of each person appearing from the records of the holder to be the owner of any property of the value of twenty five dollars or more presumed abandoned under this chapter
b  In case of unclaimed funds of life insurance corporations, the full name of the insured or annuitant and the insured's or annuitant's last known address according to the life insurance corporation's records a The nature and identifying number, if any, or description of the property and the amount appearing from the records to be due, except that items of value under twenty-five dollars each may be reported in ag gregate
      d The date when the property became payable, demandable, or returnable, and the date of the last transaction with the owner with respect to the proper­ ey

er's satisfaction within sixty-five days from the date of the second published notice, the abandoned property will be placed not later than eighty-five days after such publication date in the custody of the state treasurer to whom all further claims must thereafter be directed.

3 The state treasurer is not required to publish in such notice any item of less than twenty-five dollars unless the treasurer deems such publication to be in the public interest.

4 Within one hundred twenty days from the receipt of the report required by section 556.11, the state treasurer shall mail a notice to each person having an address listed therein who appears to be entitled to property of the value of twenty-five dollars or more presumed abandoned under this chapter.

5 The mailed notice shall contain:
   a A statement that, according to a report filed with the state treasurer, property is being held to which the addressee appears entitled.
   b The name and address of the person holding the property and any necessary information regarding changes of name and address of the holder.
   c A statement that, if satisfactory proof of claim is not presented by the owner to the holder by the date specified in the published notice, the property will be placed in the custody of the state treasurer to whom all further claims must be directed.

6 This section is not applicable to sums payable on traveler's checks or money orders presumed abandoned under section 556.2.

556.13 Payment or delivery of abandoned property.

Every person who has filed a report under section 556.11, within twenty days after the time specified in section 556.12 for claiming the property from the holder, or in the case of sums payable on traveler's checks or money orders presumed abandoned under section 556.2 or property for which the holder is not required to report the name of the owner shall, at the time of filing the report, pay or deliver to the treasurer of state all abandoned property specified in this report, except that, if the owner establishes the owner's right to receive the abandoned property to the satisfaction of the holder within the time specified in section 556.12, or if it appears that for some other reason the presumption of abandonment is erroneous, the holder need not pay or deliver the property, which will no longer be presumed abandoned, to the treasurer of state, but in lieu thereof shall file a verified written explanation of the proof of claim or of the error in the presumption of abandonment.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81 §556.13]
84 Acts, ch 1295, §16

556.14 Relief from liability by payment or delivery.

1 Upon the payment or delivery of property to the treasurer of state, the state assumes custody and responsibility for the safekeeping of the property. A person who pays or delivers property to the treasurer of state in good faith is relieved of all liability to the extent of the value of the property paid or delivered for any claim then existing or which may arise or be made in respect to the property.

2 If the holder pays or delivers property to the treasurer of state in good faith and thereafter another person claims the property from the holder or another state claims the money or property under its laws relating to escheat or abandoned or unclaimed property, the treasurer of state, upon written notice of the claim, shall defend the holder against any liability on the claim.

3 The holder of an interest under section 556.5 shall deliver a duplicate certificate or other evidence of ownership if the holder does not issue certificates of ownership to the treasurer of state. Upon delivery of a duplicate certificate to the treasurer of state, the holder and any transfer agent, registrar, or other person acting for or on behalf of a holder in executing or delivering the duplicate certificate is relieved of all liability in accordance with subsections 1 and 2 to every person, including any person acquiring the original certificate or the duplicate of the certificate issued to the treasurer of state, for any losses or damages resulting to any person by the issuance and delivery to the treasurer of state of the duplicate certificate.

4 A holder who has paid money to the treasurer of state under this chapter may make payment to any person appearing to the holder to be entitled to pay ment and upon filing proof of payment and proof that the payee is entitled thereto, the treasurer of state shall reimburse the holder for the payment without imposing any fee or other charge. If reimbursement is sought for payment made on a negotiable instrument, including a traveler's check or money order, the holder must be reimbursed under subsection upon filing proof that the instrument was duly presented and that payment was made to a person who appeared to the holder to be entitled to payment. The holder must be reimbursed for payment made under this subsection even if the payment was made to a person whose claim was barred under section 556.16.

5 A holder who has delivered property including a certificate of any interest in a business association, other than money, to the treasurer of state may reclaim the property if the property is still in the possession of the treasurer of state without paying any fee or other charge, upon filing proof that the owner has claimed the property from the holder.

6 The treasurer of state may accept the holder's affidavit as sufficient proof of the facts that entitle the holder to recover money and property under this section.

7 For purposes of this section, "good faith" means that:

   a Payment or delivery was made in a reasonable attempt to comply with this chapter.

   b The person delivering the property was not a fiduciary then in breach of trust in respect to the property and had a reasonable basis for believing, based on the facts then known to the person, that the property was abandoned for the purposes of this chapter.

   c There is no showing that the records pursuant to which the delivery was made did not meet reasonable commercial standards of practice in the industry.

84 Acts, ch 1295, §17

556.15 Income accruing after payment or delivery.

When property other than money is paid or delivered to the treasurer of state under this chapter, the §556.15 Owner is entitled to receive from the treasurer of state any dividends, interest, or other increments realized or accruing on the property at or before liquidation or conversion into money.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §556.15]
84 Acts, ch 1295, §18

556.16 Periods of limitation not a bar.

The expiration of any period of time specified by statute or court order, during which an action or proceeding may be commenced or enforced to obtain payment of a claim for money or recovery of property, shall not prevent the money or property from being presumed abandoned property, nor affect any duty to file a report required by this chapter or to pay or deliver abandoned property to the state treasurer.

556.17 Sale of abandoned property.

1. All abandoned property other than money delivered to the state treasurer under this chapter shall be held for at least one year after the delivery be sold by the treasurer to the highest bidder at public sale in whatever city in the state affords in the treasurer's judgment the most favorable market for the property involved. The state treasurer may decline the highest bid and reoffer the property for sale if the treasurer considers the price bid insufficient. The treasurer need not offer any property for sale if, in the treasurer's opinion, the probable cost of sale exceeds the value of the property.

2. Any sale held under this section shall be preceded by a single publication of notice thereof at least three weeks in advance of sale in an English language newspaper of general circulation in the county where the property is to be sold.

3. The purchaser at any sale conducted by the state treasurer pursuant to this chapter shall receive title to the property purchased, free from all claims of the owner or prior holder thereof and of all persons claiming through or under them. The state treasurer shall execute all documents necessary to complete the transfer of title.

4. Unless the treasurer of state considers it to be in the best interest of the state to do otherwise, all securities, other than those presumed abandoned under section 556.5, delivered to the treasurer of state must be held for at least one year before the treasurer of state may sell them.

5. Unless the treasurer of state considers it to be in the best interest of the state to do otherwise, all securities presumed abandoned under section 556.5 and delivered to the treasurer of state must be held for at least three years before the treasurer of state may sell them. If the treasurer of state sells any securities delivered pursuant to section 556.5 before the expiration of the three-year period, any person making a claim pursuant to this chapter before the end of the three-year period is entitled to either the proceeds of the sale of the securities or the market value of the securities at the time the claim is made, whichever amount is greater, less any deduction for fees pursuant to section 556.18, subsection 2. A person making a claim under this chapter after the expiration of this period is entitled to receive either the securities delivered to the treasurer of state by the holder, if they still remain in the hands of the treasurer of state, or the proceeds received from the sale, less any amounts deducted pursuant to section 556.18, subsection 2, but no person has any claim under this chapter against the state, the holder, any transfer agent, registrar, or other person acting for or on behalf of a holder for any appreciation in the value of the property occurring after delivery by the holder to the treasurer of state.

556.18 Deposit of funds.

1. Except as provided in subsection 3, all funds received under this chapter, including the proceeds from the sale of abandoned property under section 556.17, shall be deposited by the treasurer of state in the general funds of the state. However, the treasurer of state shall retain in a separate trust fund an amount not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars from which the treasurer of state shall make prompt payment of claims duly allowed under section 556.20. Before making the deposit, the treasurer of state shall record the name and last known address of each person appearing from the holders' reports to be entitled to the abandoned property and of the name and last known address of each insured person or annuitant, and with respect to each policy or contract listed in the report of a life insurance corporation, its number, the name of the corporation, and the amount due. The record shall be available for public inspection at all reasonable business hours.

2. Before making any deposit to the credit of the general funds, the state treasurer may deduct:
   a. Any costs in connection with sale of abandoned property.
   b. Any costs of mailing and publication in connection with any abandoned property.
   c. Reasonable service charges.

3. After July 1, 1983, the treasurer of state shall credit all funds received under section 556.4, after a proportional amount has been deducted for the trust fund under subsection 1 and any costs have been deducted under subsection 2, to the energy research and development fund created under section 93.14.

556.19 Claim for abandoned property paid or delivered.

Any person claiming an interest in any property delivered to the state under this chapter may file a claim thereto or to the proceeds from the sale thereof on the form prescribed by the state treasurer.

556.20 Determination of claims.

1. The state treasurer shall consider any claim filed under this chapter and may hold a hearing and receive evidence concerning it. If a hearing is held, the treasurer shall prepare a finding and a decision in writing on each claim filed, stating the substance of any evidence heard by the treasurer and the reasons for the treasurer's decision. The decision shall be a public record.

2. If the claim is allowed, the state treasurer shall make payment forthwith. The claim shall be paid without deduction for costs of notices or sale or for service charges.

Property received before July 1, 1970, 87 Acts, ch 191, §16 556.21 Judicial action upon determinations.
Any person aggrieved by a decision of the state treasurer or as to whose claim the treasurer has failed to act within ninety days after the filing of the claim, may commence an action in the district court to establish that person's claim. The proceeding shall be brought within ninety days after the decision of the treasurer or within one hundred eighty days from the filing of the claim if the treasurer fails to act. The action shall be tried de novo without a jury 556.22 Election to take payment or delivery.

The state treasurer, after receiving reports of property deemed abandoned pursuant to this chapter, may decline to receive any property reported which the treasurer deems to have a value less than the cost of giving notice and holding sale, or the treasurer may, if the treasurer deems it desirable because of the small sum involved, postpone taking possession until a sufficient sum accumulates. Unless the holder of the property is notified to the contrary within one hundred twenty days after filing the report required under section 556.11, the state treasurer shall be deemed to have elected to receive the custody of the property

556.23 Examination of records.
The treasurer of state may at reasonable times and upon reasonable notice examine the records of any person if the treasurer of state has reason to believe that the person has failed to report property that should have been reported pursuant to this chapter. If an examination of the records of a person results in the disclosure of property reportable and deliverable under this chapter, the treasurer of state may assess the cost of the examination against the holder at a rate not to exceed one hundred dollars a day for each examiner, but in no case may the charges exceed the value of the property found to be reportable and deliverable
[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §556.23]
84 Acts, ch 1295, §22

556.24 Proceeding to compel delivery of abandoned property.
If any person refuses to deliver property to the state treasurer as required under this chapter, the treasurer shall bring an action in a court of appropriate jurisdiction to enforce such delivery
[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §556.24]

556.25 Interest and penalties.
1 A person who fails to pay or deliver property within the time prescribed by this chapter shall pay the treasurer of state interest at the annual rate of eighteen percent on the property or value of the property from the date the property should have been paid or delivered but in no event prior to July 1, 1984
2 A person who willfully fails to pay or deliver property to the treasurer of state as required under this chapter shall pay a civil penalty equal to twenty-five percent of the value of the property that should have been paid or delivered
[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §556.25]

556.26 Rules.
The state treasurer is hereby authorized to make necessary rules to carry out the provisions of this chapter
[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §556.26]

556.27 Effect of laws of other states.
This chapter shall not apply to any property that has been presumed abandoned or escheated under the laws of another state prior to July 1, 1967

556.28 Interstate agreements and cooperation.
1 The treasurer of state may enter into agreements with other states to exchange information needed to enable this or another state to audit or otherwise determine unclaimed property that it or another state may be entitled to subject to a claim of custody. The treasurer of state by rule may require the reporting of information needed to enable compliance with agreements made pursuant to this section and prescribe the form
2 To avoid conflicts between the treasurer of state's procedures and the procedures of unclaimed property administrators in other jurisdictions that enact the uniform unclaimed property Act, the treasurer of state, so far as is consistent with the purposes, policies, and provisions of this chapter, before adopting, amending or repealing rules, shall advise and consult with the unclaimed property administrators in other jurisdictions that enact substantially the uniform unclaimed property Act and take into consideration the rules of unclaimed property administrators in other jurisdictions that enact the uniform unclaimed property Act
3 The treasurer of state may join with other states to seek enforcement of this chapter against any person who is or may be holding property reportable under this chapter
4 At the request of another state, the attorney general of this state may bring an action in the name of the unclaimed property administrator of the other state in any court of competent jurisdiction to enforce the unclaimed property laws of the other state against a holder in this state of property subject to escheat or a claim of abandonment by the other state, if the other state has agreed to pay expenses incurred by the attorney general in bringing the action
5 The treasurer of state may request that the attorney general of another state or any other person bring an action in the name of the unclaimed property administrator in the other state. The state shall pay all expenses including attorney's fees in any action under this subsection. Any expenses paid pursuant to this subsection may not be deducted from the amount that is subject to the claim by the owner under this chapter

UNSOLICITED GOODS, WARES AND MERCHANDISE

556A.1 Gift of unsolicited goods.

Unless otherwise agreed, where unsolicited goods are mailed to a person, that person has a right to accept delivery of such goods as a gift only, and is not bound to return such goods to the sender. If such unsolicited goods are either addressed to or intended for the recipient, the recipient may use them or dispose of them in any manner without any obligation to the sender, and in any action for goods sold and delivered, or in any action for the return of the goods, it shall be a complete defense that the goods were mailed voluntarily and that the defendant did not actually order or request such goods, either orally or in writing. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §556A.1]

CHAPTER 556B
ABANDONED MOTOR VEHICLES OR OTHER PROPERTY

556B.1 Removal — notice to sheriff.

1. The owner or other lawful possessor of real property may remove or cause to be removed any motor vehicle or other personal property which has been unlawfully parked or placed on that real property, and may place or cause such personal property to be placed in storage until the owner of the same pays a fair and reasonable charge for towing, storage or other expense incurred. The real property owner or possessor, or the owner's or possessor's agent, shall not be liable for damages caused to the personal property by the removal or storage unless the damage is caused willfully or by gross negligence.

2. The real property owner or possessor shall notify the sheriff of the county where the real property is located of the removal of the motor vehicle or other personal property. If the owner of the motor vehicle or other personal property can be determined, the owner shall be notified of the removal by the sheriff by certified mail, return receipt requested. If the owner cannot be identified, notice by one publication in one newspaper of general circulation in the area where the personal property was parked or placed is sufficient to meet all notice requirements under this section. If the personal property has not been reclaimed by the owner within six months after notice has been effected, it may be sold by the sheriff at public or private sale. The net proceeds after deducting the cost of the sale shall be applied to the cost of removal and storage of the property, and the remainder, if any, shall be paid to the county treasurer.

CHAPTER 556C

RIGHTS TO DIES, MOLDS AND FORMS

556C.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter unless the context requires otherwise:

1. "Customer" means a person who causes a molder to fabricate, cast, or otherwise make a die, mold, or form to be used for the manufacture of plastic products.

2. "Molder" means a person, including but not limited to a tool or die maker, who fabricates, casts, or otherwise makes a die, mold, or form to be used for the manufacture of plastic products.

84 Acts, ch 1066, §1

556C.2 Rights to dies, molds, or forms.

1. In the absence of an agreement to the contrary, the customer has all rights and title to a die, mold, or form in the possession of the molder as provided in this section.

2. If a customer does not claim possession from a molder of a die, mold, or form within three years following the last use of the die, mold, or form, all rights and title to the die, mold, or form are transferred to the molder for the purpose of destroying or disposing of the die, mold, or form.

3. The molder shall notify the customer by certified mail sent to the customer's last known address at least ninety days prior to the transfer provided in subsection 2. The notice shall indicate that all rights and title to the die, mold, or form will be transferred pursuant to this section.

4. If the customer does not respond in person or by mail within ninety days following the date the notice was sent or does not make other contractual arrangements with the molder for storage of the die, mold, or form the rights and title of the customer to the die, mold, or form shall transfer to the molder. After a transfer has occurred the molder may destroy or otherwise dispose of the particular die, mold, or form as the molder's own property without liability to the customer. This section does not affect the right of the customer under federal patent or copyright law or a state or federal law relating to unfair competition.

Three-year waiting period begins on July 1, 1984, in the case of dies, molds and forms in possession of the molder on that date, 84 Acts, ch 1066, §3
CHAPTER 556D

CONSIGNMENTS BETWEEN ARTISTS AND ART DEALERS

Chapter 556D does not apply to a contract executed prior to July 1, 1986, unless either the parties agree or the contract is extended or renewed after that date.

556D.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

1. "Artist" means the person who creates a work of fine art or, if such person is deceased, the person's personal representative.

2. "Fine art" means a painting, sculpture, drawing, mosaic, photograph, work of graphic art, including an etching, lithograph, offset print, silk screen, or work of graphic art of like nature, a work of calligraphy, or a work in mixed media, including a collage, assemblage, or any combination of these art media which is one of a kind or is available in a limited issue or series. "Fine art" also means crafts which include work in clay, textiles, fiber, wood, metal, plastic, glass, or similar materials which is one of a kind or is available in a limited issue or series.

3. "Art dealer" means a person engaged in the business of selling works of fine art, in a shop or gallery devoted in the majority to works of fine art, other than a person engaged in the business of selling goods of general merchandise or at a public auction.

4. "Consignment" means a delivery of a work of fine art under which no title to, estate in, or right to possession superior to that of the consignor vests in the consignee, notwithstanding the consignee's power or authority to transfer and convey to a third person all of the right, title, and interest of the consignor in and to the fine art.

5. "Stated value" means the amount agreed to be paid to the consignor.

556D.2 Consignment.

If an artist delivers or causes to be delivered a work of fine art of the artist's own creation to an art dealer in this state for the purpose of exhibition or sale on a commission, fee, or other basis of compensation, the delivery to and acceptance of the work of fine art by the art dealer is a consignment, unless the delivery to the art dealer is an outright sale for which the artist receives or has received full compensation upon delivery.

When an art dealer accepts a work of fine art for the purposes of sale or exhibition and sale to the public on a commission, fee, or other basis of compensation, there shall be a contract or agreement between the artist and art dealer which shall include the following provisions:

1. That the amount of the proceeds due the artist from the sale of the work of fine art shall be delivered to the artist at a time agreed upon by the artist and the art dealer.

2. That the art dealer shall be responsible for the stated value of the work of fine art in the event of the loss of or damage to the work of fine art while it is in the possession of the art dealer.

3. That the work of fine art shall be sold by the art dealer only for the amount agreed upon by the artist in the contract or agreement, and that the art dealer will take only the commission or fee agreed upon.

4. That the work of fine art may be used or displayed by the art dealer or any other person only with the prior written consent of the artist. The artist may require that the artist be acknowledged in the use of the work of fine art.

556D.3 Conditions of consignment.

The following apply to consignment:

1. The art dealer, after delivery of the work of fine art, becomes an agent of the artist for the purpose of sale or exhibition of the consigned work of fine art.

2. The work of fine art shall be held in trust by the consignee for the benefit of the artist and is not subject to claim by a creditor of the consignee.

3. The consignee is responsible for the loss of or damage to the work of fine art, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon in writing between the artist and art dealer in which case the art dealer shall be required to exercise all due diligence and care with regard to the work of fine art. In case of a waiver, the burden shall be on the dealer to demonstrate the waiver was entered into in good faith.

4. The proceeds from the sale of the work of fine art shall be held in trust by the consignee for the benefit of the artist. The proceeds shall first be applied to pay any balance due the artist unless the artist expressly agrees otherwise in writing.
556D.4 Consignment — trust arrangement.
A consignment remains trust property, even if purchased by the art dealer, until the price is paid in full to the artist. If the work is resold to a bona fide purchaser before the artist has been paid in full, the proceeds of the resale received by the art dealer constitute funds held in trust for the benefit of the artist to the extent necessary to pay any balance still due to the artist and the trusteeship continues until the fiduciary obligation of the art dealer with respect to the transaction is discharged in full.
86 Acts, ch 1233, §4

556D.5 Waiver provision void.
A provision of a contract or agreement where the art dealer waives a provision of this chapter is void.
86 Acts, ch 1233, §5
TITLE XXV
REAL PROPERTY

CHAPTER 557
REAL PROPERTY IN GENERAL

GENERAL PRINCIPLES

557.1 Who deemed seized.
All persons owning real estate not held by an adverse possession shall be deemed to be seized and possessed of the same 557.2 Estate in fee simple.

The term "heirs" or other technical words of inheritance are not necessary to create and convey an estate in fee simple 557.3 Conveyance passes grantor's interest.

Every conveyance of real estate passes all the interest of the grantor therein, unless a contrary intent can be reasonably inferred from the terms used 557.4 After-acquired interest — exception.

Where a deed purports to convey a greater interest than the grantor was at the time possessed of, any after-acquired interest of such grantor, to the extent of that which the deed purports to convey, inures to the benefit of the grantee. But if the spouse of such grantor joins in such conveyance for the purpose of relinquishing dower or homestead only, and subsequently acquires an interest therein as above defined, it shall not be held to inure to the benefit of the grantee 557.5 Adverse possession.

Adverse possession of real estate does not prevent any person from selling that person's interest in the same 557.6 Future estates.

Estates may be created to commence at a future day

557.7 Contingent remainders.
A contingent remainder shall take effect, notwithstanding...
standing any determination of the particular estate, in the same manner in which it would have taken effect if it had been an executory devise or a springing or shifting use, and shall, as well as such limitations, be subject to the rule respecting remoteness known as the rule against perpetuities, exclusive of any other supposed rule respecting limitations to successive generations or double possibilities.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10046; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.7]

557.8 Applicability.
Section 557.7, except so far as declaratory of existing law, shall apply only to instruments executed on or after July 1, 1925, and to wills and codicils revived or confirmed by a will or codicil executed on or after said date.

557.9 Defeating expectant estate.
No expectant estate shall be defeated or barred by an alienation or other act of the owner of the precedent estate, nor by the destruction of such precedent estate by disseizin, forfeiture, surrender, or merger; provided that on the petition of the life tenant, with the consent of the holder of the reversion, the district court may order the sale of the property in such estate and the proceeds shall be subject to the order of court until the right thereto becomes fully vested. The proceedings shall be as in an action for partition.

557.10 Declarations of trust.
Declarations or creations of trusts or powers in relation to real estate must be executed in the same manner as deeds of conveyance; but this provision does not apply to trusts resulting from the operation or construction of law.

[C51, §1205; R60, §2213; C73, §1934; C97, §2918; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10049; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.10] Statute of frauds, §622.32

557.11 Conveyances by married persons.
A married person may convey or encumber any real estate or interest therein belonging to the person, and may control the same, or contract with reference thereto, to the same extent and in the same manner as other persons.

557.12 Conveyances by husband and wife.
Every conveyance made by a husband and wife shall be sufficient to pass any and all right of either in the property conveyed, unless the contrary appears on the face of the conveyance.

[R60, §2255; C73, §1936; C97, §2920; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10051; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.12]

557.13 Covenants — spouse not bound.
Where either the husband or wife joins in a conveyance of real estate owned by the other, the husband or wife so joining shall not be bound by the covenants of such conveyance, unless it is expressly so stated on the face thereof.

557.14 Title and possession of mortgagor.
In absence of stipulations to the contrary, the mortgagor of real estate retains the legal title and right of possession thereto.

557.15 Tenancy in common.
Conveyances to two or more in their own right create a tenancy in common, unless a contrary intent is expressed.

557.16 Cotenant liable for rent.
In all cases in which any real estate is now or shall be hereafter held by two or more persons as tenants in common, and one or more of said tenants shall have been or shall hereafter be in possession of said real estate, it shall be lawful for any one or more of said tenants in common, not in possession, to sue for and recover from such tenants in possession, their proportionate part of the rental value of said real estate for the time, not exceeding a period of five years, such real estate shall have been in possession as aforesaid.

557.17 Partition — cotenant charged with rent.
In case of partition of such real estate held in common as aforesaid, the parties in possession shall have deducted from their distributive shares of said real estate the rental value thereof to which their cotenants are entitled.

557.18 Vendor's lien.
No vendor's lien for unpaid purchase money shall be enforced in any court of this state after a conveyance procured through the fraud or collusion of the vendee, unless such lien is reserved by conveyance, mortgage, or other instrument duly acknowledged and recorded, or unless such conveyance by the vendee is made after suit by the vendor, the vendor's executor, or assigns to enforce such lien.

557.19 Fraudulent conveyances.
Nothing in section 557.18 shall be construed to deprive a vendor of any remedy now existing against conveyance procured through the fraud or collusion of the vendee therein, or persons purchasing of such vendees with notice of such fraud or lien.

§557.20 Rule in Shelley's case.
The rule or principle of the common law known as the rule in Shelley's case is hereby abolished and is declared not to be a part of the law of this state.
[S13, §2924-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10059; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.20]

§557.21 Devise, bequest, or conveyance not enlarged.
No express devise, bequest, or conveyance of an estate for life, or other limited estate in real or personal property shall be enlarged or construed to pass any greater estate to the devisee, legatee, or grantee thereof by reason of any devise, bequest, or conveyance to the heirs, heirs of the body, children, or issue of such devisee, legatee, or grantee; but this section shall not in any manner or under any circumstances be so construed as to impair or affect the vested rights of any person in or to any lands or estates acquired prior to July 4, 1907.
[S13, §2924-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10060; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.21]

oper or lender who acquires an interest in a time-share interval 10 "Time share estate" means an ownership or leasehold estate in property devoted to a time share fee or a time-share lease 11 "Time share instrument" means a document by whatever name denominated creating or regulating time share programs, but excluding any law, ordi nance, or government regulation 12 "Time share interval" means a time share estate or a time share use 13 "Time share program" means an arrangement for time-share intervals in a time share project in which the use, occupancy or possession of real proper­ty circulates among purchasers of the time share intervals according to a fixed or floating time schedule on a periodic basis occurring over a period of time 14 "Time share project" means the entire real property that is subject to a time share program 15 "Time share use" means a contractual right of exclusive occupancy which does not fall within the definition of a time share estate including, but is not limited to, a vacation license, prepaid hotel reservation, club membership, limited partnership or vaca­tion bond 16 "Unit" means the real property or the real property improvement in a time share project which is divided into time share intervals
85 Acts, ch 155, §2

557A.3 Applicability to time-share programs located out-of-state
1 Sections 557A 4 to 557A 10 apply only to time share programs located in Iowa
2 Sections 557A 1 and 557A 2, and 557A 11 to 557A 20 apply to any time share program, wherever located, which is marketed in Iowa
85 Acts, ch 155, §3

557A.4 Action for partition.
An action for partition of a unit shall not be main­tained except as permitted by the time share instrument
85 Acts, ch 155, §4

557A 5 Status of time-share estates.
1 A time-share estate is an estate in real property and has the character and incidents of an estate in fee simple at common law or an estate for years if a lease­ hold, except as expressly modified by this chapter 2 A document transferring or encumbering a time share estate shall not be rejected for recordation because of the nature or duration of the estate 3 For purposes of title, each time share estate constitutes a separate estate or interest in property except for real property tax purposes
85 Acts, ch 155, §5

557A.6 Creation of time-share estates.
Project instruments and time share instruments creating time share estates shall contain the following 1 The name of the county in which the property is situated 2 The legal description, street address, or other description sufficient to identify the property 3 Identification of units and time periods by letter, name, number, or a combination 4 Identification of time share estates and, when applicable, the method by which additional time share estates may be created 5 The formula, fraction, or percentage of the common expenses and any voting rights assigned to each time-share estate and, when applicable, to each unit that is not subject to the time share program 6 Any restrictions on the use, occupancy, alteration or alienation of time-share intervals 7 The dates and conditions under which a partition may occur
8 The ownership interest, if any, of personal property and provisions for care and replacement of the personal property
§557A.6

9 Any other matters the developer deems appropriate
85 Acts, ch 155, §6

557A.7 Arrangements for management and operation of a time-share estate program.

The time share instruments for a time-share estate program shall prescribe reasonable arrangements for management and operation of the program and for the maintenance, repair, and furnishing of units, which shall include, but not be limited to, provisions for the following

1 Creation of an association of time share estate owners
2 Adoption of bylaws for organizing and operating the association
3 Payment of costs and expenses of operating the time share program and owning and maintaining the units
4 Employment and termination of employment of the managing agent
5 Preparation and dissemination to time share estate owners of an annual budget and of operating statements and other financial information concerning the time share program
6 Adoption of standards and rules of conduct for the use and occupancy of units by time share estate owners
7 Procedures for imposing and collecting assessments from time-share estate owners to defray the expenses of management of the time share program and maintenance of the units
8 Comprehensive general liability insurance for death, bodily injury, and property damage arising out of, or in connection with, the use of units by time share estate owners, their guests, and other users
9 Methods for providing compensating use periods or monetary compensation to a time share estate owner if a unit cannot be made available for the period to which the time share estate owner is entitled by schedule or by confirmed reservation
10 Procedures for imposing a monetary penalty or suspension of a time share estate owner’s rights and privileges in the time-share program for failure of the owner to comply with the time-share instruments or the rules of the association with respect to the use of the units
11 Employment of attorneys, accountants, and other professional persons as necessary to assist in the management of the time share program and the units
85 Acts, ch 155, §7

557A.8 Developer control period.

1 The time share instruments for a time share estate program may provide for a period of time, known as the developer control period, during which the developer or a managing agent selected by the developer shall manage the time share program and the units in the time share program
2 If the time share instruments for a time-share estate program provide for the establishment of a developer control period, they shall include, but not be limited to, provisions for the following a Termination of the developer control period by action of the association b Termination of contracts for goods and services for the time share program entered into during the developer control periods

c Termination of contract for managing agent entered into during developer control period
d A regular accounting by the developer to the association as to all matters that significantly affect the interests of owners in the time share program
85 Acts, ch 155, §8

557A.9 Creation of time-share uses.

Project instruments and time share instruments creating time share uses shall contain the following

1 Identification by name of the time-share project and street address or other description sufficient to identify the property where the time share project is situated. The address shall be the street address if available
2 Identification of the time periods, type of units, and the units that are in the time share program and the length of time that the units are committed to the time share program
3 In case of a time share project, identification of which units are in the time-share program and the method by which any units may be added, deleted, or substituted
4 Any other matters that the developer deems appropriate
85 Acts, ch 155, §9

557A.10 Arrangement for management and operation of a time-share use program.

The time share instruments for a time share use program shall prescribe reasonable arrangements for management and operation of the program and for the maintenance, repair, and furnishing of units which shall include, but not be limited to, provisions for the following

1 Standards and procedures for upkeep, repair, and interior furnishing of units and for providing of janitorial, cleaning, linen, and similar services to the units during use periods
2 Adoption of standards and rules of conduct governing the use and occupancy of units by time-share use owners
3 Payment of the costs and expenses of operating the time share program
4 Selection of a managing agent to act on behalf of the developer
5 Preparation and dissemination to time-share use owners of an annual budget and operating statements and other financial information concerning the time-share program
6 Procedures for establishing the rights of time share use owners to the use of units by prearrangement or under a first reserved, first served priority system
7 Organization of a management advisory board consisting of time-share use owners including an enumeration of rights and responsibilities of the advisory board
8 Procedures for imposing and collecting assessment or use fees from time-share use owners as necessary to defray costs of management of the time share program and in providing materials and services to the units
9 Comprehensive general liability insurance for death, bodily injury, and property damage arising out of, or in connection with, the use of units by time-share use owners, their guests, and other users.

10 Methods for providing compensating use periods or monetary compensation to a time-share use owner if a unit cannot be made available for the period to which the owner is entitled by schedule or by a confirmed reservation.

11 Procedures for imposing a monetary penalty or suspension of a time-share use owner's rights and privileges in the time-share program for failure of the owner to comply with the time-share instruments or the rules established by the developer with respect to the use of the units. The time-share use owner shall be given notice and the opportunity to refute or explain the charges in person or in writing to the management advisory board before a decision to impose discipline is rendered.

12 Procedures for disclosure at cost to requesting time-share use owners of a list of the names and mailing addresses of all current time-share owners in the time-share program.

85 Acts, ch 155, §10

§557A.11 Disclosure requirements.

1 A developer or an agent of a developer of a time-share program shall provide a current property report to a purchaser not later than ten days after the purchaser signs a purchase agreement. Prior to any sale or solicitation for sale of a time-share interval, a copy of all disclosure materials required to be given to a purchaser by this section and section 557A.12 shall be filed with the board. The property report shall contain the following:

(a) A cover sheet of the same approximate size and shape as the majority of the disclosure materials required in this section, bearing the title “Property Report” and containing the name and location of the time-share project, the name and business address of the developer and the name and business address of the developer’s agent. Following this information, on the front of the cover sheet, but set apart from it, there shall appear three statements in boldface type, or capital letters no smaller than the largest type on the page, in the following wording:

“(1) These are the legal documents covering your rights and responsibilities as a time-share interval owner. If you do not understand any provisions contained in them, you should obtain professional advice.

(2) These disclosure materials given to you as required by law may be relied upon as correct and binding. Oral statements may not be legally binding.

(3) You may at any time within (developer or developer’s agent shall insert a number, not less than five, designating the rescission period) business days following receipt of a current property report, cancel in writing the purchase agreement and receive a full refund of any deposits made.

(4) The filing of this document with the board does not constitute approval of the sale or lease, or offer for sale or lease, by the state, board, or any officer thereof, or indicate that the state, board, or any officer thereof has in any way passed upon the merits of the offering.”

(b) A general description of the units including, but not limited to, the developer’s schedule of approximate commencement and completion of all buildings, units, and amenities, or if completed, a statement that they have been completed.

(c) As to all units offered by the developer in the same time-share project

(1) The types and number of units.

(2) Identification of units that are subject to time-share intervals.

(3) The estimated number of units that may be come subject to time-share intervals.

(d) A brief description of the time-share project.

(e) If applicable, any current budget and a projected budget to be used for the time-share intervals for one year after the date of the first transfer to a purchaser. The budget shall include, but is not limited to

(1) A statement of the amount, or a statement that there is no amount, included in the budget as a reserve for repairs and replacement.

(2) The projected liability for common expense, if any, by category of expenditures for the time-share intervals.

(3) A statement of any services not reflected in the budget that the developer provides, or expenses that the developer pays and which, upon completion of the project or the commencement of association control, would be payable by purchasers as part of their annual share of common expenses.

(f) Any initial or special fee due from the purchaser at closing, together with a description of the purpose and method of calculating the fee.

(g) A description of any liens, defects, or encumbrances on or affecting the title to the time-share intervals.

(h) A description in general terms of any financing offered by the developer and a statement that documents showing specific terms and conditions of financing will be furnished upon request.

(i) A statement of any pending lawsuits material to the time-share intervals of which a developer has actual knowledge.

(j) Any restraints on alienation of any number or portion of any time-share intervals of which a developer has actual knowledge.

(k) A description of the insurance coverage, or a statement that there is no insurance coverage, provided for the benefit of time-share interval owners.

(l) Any current or expected fees or charges to be paid by time-share interval owners for the use of any amenities or facilities related to the property.

(m) The extent to which financial arrangements have been provided for completion of all promised improvements.

(n) The extent to which a unit may become subject to a tax or other lien arising out of claims against other owners of the same unit.

2 If the time-share program has been registered under a law or rule of another state of the United States, which registration has a similar goal in the protection of prospective purchasers of time-share programs, the developer may substitute for the property report required by subsection 1 an abbreviated property report which consists of a first page to which have been attached the disclosure materials required by the other registering jurisdiction.

(a) In addition to the information required to be included on the cover page under subsection 1, paragraph "a", the cover page of the abbreviated report shall contain the following conspicuously noted language:
§557A.11

"PROPERTY REPORT OF
(Name of time share program)
IMPORTANT NOTE TO PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS

The attached information has been provided by (name of time-share program) under the laws of Iowa and (other registering jurisdiction) Read it carefully before you spend any money.

b If the board finds that some states do not have disclosure requirements adequate to protect prospective purchasers in this state, the board may adopt rules identifying those states and requiring the amending of the language of the first page of the abbreviated property report or the abbreviated property report from those states to insure adequate disclosure.

3 The developer shall pay a filing fee in an amount set by rule by the board when filing the property report required in subsection 1 or 2.

4 At the same time as the developer files the property report or abbreviated property report, the developer shall provide the board with a list of the names, addresses and phone numbers of all persons authorized to sell time-share intervals on the developer's behalf in Iowa. This list shall be periodically updated as the board may by rule require.

85 Acts, ch 155, §11, 86 Acts, ch 1237, §36

557A.12 Additional disclosure requirements relating to exchange programs.

1 When the owners of time-share intervals are to be permitted or required to become members of or participate in any program for the exchange of occupancy rights among themselves or with the owners of time-share intervals of other time share projects or both, the developer or an agent of a developer of a time share program, in addition to the property report required by section 557A 11 and within the same time limitation, shall provide the following disclosure materials to a purchaser:

a The name, address and telephone number of the exchange agent and a statement as to whether that person is an affiliate of the developer.

b Whether membership or participation, or both, in the exchange program are voluntary or mandatory.

c The expenses, or ranges of expenses, charged to the time-share interval owners for membership in the exchange program including the expenses, if any, of exchanging as of a date not more than one year before the property report is delivered to the purchaser, and the name of the person to whom those expenses are payable.

d Whether and how any of the expenses specified in paragraph "c" may be altered and, if any of them are to be fixed on a case-by-case basis, the manner in which they are to be fixed in each case.

2 Subsection 1 shall not apply if information on all exchange programs has been included pursuant to law or rule of the other registering jurisdiction in an abbreviated property report prepared pursuant to section 557A 11, subsection 2.

85 Acts, ch 155, §12

557A.13 Exemptions from disclosure requirements.

A person shall not be required to provide disclosure documents, as required in sections 557A 11 and 557A 12, in the following cases:

1 A transfer of a time-share interval by a time-share interval owner other than a developer or a developer's agent.

2 A disposition of units in a time share project pursuant to a court order.

3 A disposition of units in a time-share project by a government or governmental agency.

4 A disposition of units in a time-share project by a foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure.

5 A disposition to a person acquiring the time-share interval for other than personal use.

6 A disposition of a time share interval in a time share project situated wholly outside this state if all solicitations, negotiations, and contracts took place wholly outside the state and the contract was executed wholly outside this state.

7 A gratuitous transfer of a time-share interval.

557A.14 Purchaser's and developer's rights relating to property report.

1 A purchaser may at any time within five business days following the receipt of all information required in sections 557A 11 and 557A 12 rescind in writing a contract of sale without stating any reason and without any liability on the purchaser's part. All payments made by the purchaser before rescission shall be refunded within thirty days after receipt of the notice of rescission as provided in subsection 3.

2 The developer may cancel the contract of purchase without penalty to either person at any time within five business days after the receipt by the purchaser of the disclosure materials required in sections 557A 11 and 557A 12. The developer shall return all payments made and the purchaser shall return all materials received in good condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted. If the materials are not returned, the developer may deduct their cost and return the balance to the purchaser.

3 If either person elects to cancel a contract pursuant to subsection 1 or 2, the person may do so by hand delivery or personal service, or electronic or prepaid United States mail to the other person or to the person's agent for service of process.

4 Material furnished under sections 557A 11 and 557A 12 may not be changed or amended following delivery to a purchaser without the prior approval of the purchaser, if the change or amendment would materially affect the rights of the purchaser. A copy of amendments shall be delivered promptly to the purchaser.

5 A developer who makes a false or misleading statement of fact that reasonably could affect the purchaser's decision to enter into the contract of sale, or omits to include a fact, in the information required to be disclosed under sections 557A 11 and 557A 12 shall be liable to the purchaser for damages, and, at the election of the purchaser, the misrepresentation shall be sufficient to void the contract for sale.

6 Rights of purchasers under this section shall not be waived in the contract of sale and an attempt to waive is void.

§557A.15 Release from liens

1 Unless the purchaser expressly agrees, prior to the transfer other than by deed in lieu of foreclosure of a time share interval, to take subject to or assume a lien, the developer shall record or furnish to the purchaser releases of all liens affecting that time share interval, or shall provide a surety bond or insurance against the lien.

2 If a lien, other than an underlying mortgage or deed of trust, becomes effective against more than one time share interval in a time share project, a time share interval owner is entitled to a release of the owner's time share interval from the lien upon payment of the amount of the lien attributable to the owner's time share interval. The amount of the payment shall be proportionate to the ratio that the time share interval owner's liability bears to the liabilities of all time share interval owners whose interests are subject to the lien. Upon receipt of payment, the lienholder shall promptly deliver to the time share interval owner a release of the lien covering the time share interval. After payment, the managing entity shall not assess or have a lien against that time share interval for any portion of the expenses incurred in connection with that lien. The time share interval owner and the lienholder may enter into an alternative arrangement.

§557A.16 Enforcement and cause of action.

1 Violations of this chapter, unfair methods of competition, and deceptive or unfair acts or practices, in the offer or sale of a time share are unlawful. Enforcement shall be as provided in section 714.16. The terms "unfair methods of competition" and "deceptive or unfair acts or practices" include, but are not limited to, the following acts:

a Misrepresenting or failing to disclose any material fact concerning a time share
b Failing to honor and comply with all provisions of a time share instrument entered into with a purchaser
c Including any time share instrument provisions purporting to waive any right or benefit provided for purchasers under this chapter
d Receiving from a prospective purchaser any money or other valuable consideration before the purchaser signs a time share instrument
e Misrepresenting the amount of time or period of time the time share unit will be available to a purchaser
f Misrepresenting the location of the offered time share unit
g Misrepresenting the size, nature, extent, qualities, or characteristics of the offered time share unit h Misrepresenting the nature or extent of any services incident to the time-share unit
i Misrepresenting the conditions under which a purchaser may exchange occupancy rights to a time share unit in one location for occupancy rights to a time share unit in another location

2 If a developer or any other person subject to this chapter violates any provision of this chapter or any provision of the project or time share instruments, any person or class of persons damaged or otherwise adversely affected by the violation shall have a claim for appropriate relief, which shall be brought in the county in which the time-share project is located or was offered or sold, in which the time-share offeror or time share salesperson resides or is doing business upon tender of the time share interest sold, or in which the contract was made. The court may order the developer or other person subject to this chapter to refund the purchaser the full amount paid by the purchaser, with prejudgment interest, less a portion of the amount paid representing the portion of any benefit the purchaser actually received or had the right to receive during the time preceding the tender. In all cases, the court may provide equitable relief it considers necessary or proper. The court may also award the person or class of persons reasonable attorney's fees. This action does not limit any other remedy of the purchaser.

§557A.17 Blanket mortgage or other liens affecting a time-share interval at time of first conveyance.

The developer whose project is subject to an underlying blanket lien or encumbrance shall protect nondefaulting purchasers from foreclosure by the lienholder by obtaining from the lienholder written assurances that the lienholder will not foreclose on nondefaulting purchasers. These written assurances may be in the form of a nondisturbance clause, subordination agreement, or partial release of the lien as the time share intervals are sold, or the developer may obtain the agreement of the lienholder to take the project, in the event of default by the developer, subject to the rights of the nondefaulting purchasers by entering into a financing plan or escrow agreement sufficient to protect the lienholder's interest.

§557A.18 Financing of time-share programs.

In the financing of a time share program, the developer shall retain financial records of the schedule of payments required to be made and the payments made to any person or entity which is the holder of an underlying blanket mortgage, deed of trust, contract of sale, or other lien or encumbrance. Any transfer of the developer's interest in the time share program to a person other than purchaser of a unit shall be subject to the obligations of the developer.

Any purchaser who fails to object and specify the invalidity or defect contained in the time share instrument within sixty days after receipt of written notice that the developer has assigned the receivables to the lienholder may not claim that the time share instrument is invalid, void, or voidable in any subsequent action for enforcement of the collection of the receivables by the lienholder. The notice shall be by certified mail or personal delivery and state that the developer has assigned the receivables to the lienholder and that the purchaser has sixty days within which to object and specify the invalidity or defect contained within such instrument. Any objection shall be written and delivered by certified mail or personal delivery to the lienholder.

§557A.19 Lienholder's rights. Any purchaser who fails to object and specify the invalidity or defect contained in the time share instrument within sixty days after receipt of written notice that the developer has assigned the receivables to the lienholder may not claim that the time share instrument is invalid, void, or voidable in any subsequent action for enforcement of the collection of the receivables by the lienholder. The notice shall be by certified mail or personal delivery and state that the developer has assigned the receivables to the lienholder and that the purchaser has sixty days within which to object and specify the invalidity or defect contained within such instrument. Any objection shall be written and delivered by certified mail or personal delivery to the lienholder.

§557A.19 Lienholder's rights. Any purchaser who fails to object and specify the invalidity or defect contained in the time share instrument within sixty days after receipt of written notice that the developer has assigned the receivables to the lienholder may not claim that the time share instrument is invalid, void, or voidable in any subsequent action for enforcement of the collection of the receivables by the lienholder. The notice shall be by certified mail or personal delivery and state that the developer has assigned the receivables to the lienholder and that the purchaser has sixty days within which to object and specify the invalidity or defect contained within such instrument. Any objection shall be written and delivered by certified mail or personal delivery to the lienholder.
§557A.20  Selling time-share estates — license required.
A person engaged in the business or occupation of selling time-share estates for a fee or a commission shall obtain a real estate license pursuant to chapter 117.

CHAPTER 558
CONVEYANCES

558.1  “Instruments affecting real estate” defined — revocation.
All instruments containing a power to convey, or in any manner relating to real estate, including certified copies of petitions in bankruptcy with or without the schedules appended, of decrees of adjudication in bankruptcy, and of orders approving trustees’ bonds in bankruptcy, shall be held to be instruments affecting the same, and no such instrument, when certified and recorded as in this chapter prescribed, can be revoked as to third parties by any act of the parties by whom it was executed, until the instrument containing such revocation is acknowledged and filed for record in the same office in which the instrument containing such power is recorded, except that Uniform Commercial Code financing statements and financing statement.
changes need not be thus acknowledged.

558.4 Repealed by 65GA, ch 279, §1.

558.5 Contract for deed — presumption of abandonment.
When the record shows that a contract or bond for a deed has been given prior to January 1, 1970, and the record discloses no performance of the same and that more than ten years have elapsed since the contract by its terms was to be performed, the contract shall be deemed abandoned and of no effect and the land shall be freed from any lien or defect on account of the contract.

558.7 Assignment of certificate of entry deeded deed.
When the record shows:
1. That the original entry, certificate of entry, receipt, or duplicate thereof has been assigned;
2. That prior or subsequent to such assignment, the United States or state issued a patent or conveyance to the assignor;
3. That no deed of conveyance appears on record from the person who made the original entry or assignee to the assignee; and
4. That the present record owner holds title under such assignment; such assignment shall have the same force and effect as a deed of conveyance and shall be conclusively presumed to carry all right, title, and interest of the patentee of said real estate, the same as though a deed of conveyance had been subsequently executed by the patentee or assignor to a subsequent grantor.
[S13, §2963-n; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10072; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §558.7]

558.8 Affidavits explanatory of title — presumption.
Affidavits explaining any defect in the chain of title to any real estate may be recorded as instruments affecting the same, but no one except the owner in possession of such real estate shall have the right to file such affidavit. Such affidavit or the record thereof, including all such affidavits now of record, shall raise a presumption from the date of recording that the purported facts stated therein are true; after the lapse of three years from the date of such recording, such presumption shall be conclusive.
[C51, §1226; R60, §2234; C73, §1969; C97, §2957;
S13, §2963-i; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10073; C46, 50, 54,
58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §558.8]

558.9 Railroad land grants — duty to record.
Every railroad company which owns or claims real estate in this state, granted by the government of the United States or this state to aid in the construction of its railroad, where it has not already done so, shall place on file and cause to be recorded, in each county wherein the real estate granted is situated, evidence of its title or claim of title, whether the same consists of patents from the United States, certificates from the secretary of the interior, or governor of this state, or the proper land office of the United States or this state. Where no patent was issued, reference shall be made in said certificate to the Acts of Congress, and the acts of the legislature of this state, granting such lands, giving the date thereof, and date of their approval under which claim of title is made.
58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §558.9]

558.10 Patents covering land in different counties.
Where the certificate of the secretary of the interior or the patents cover real estate situated in more than one county, the secretary of state shall, upon the application of any railroad company or its grantee, prepare and furnish, to be recorded, a list of all the real estate situated in any one county so granted, patented, or certified; and all such evidences of title shall be entered by the auditor upon the index, transfer, and plat books.
[C97, §2939; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10075; C46, 50, 54,
58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §558.10]

558.11 Record — constructive notice.
The evidence of title shall be filed with the recorder of deeds of the county in which the real estate is situated, who shall record the same, and place an abstract thereof upon the index of deeds. The recording thereof shall be constructive notice to all persons, as provided in other cases of entries upon said index, and the recorder shall receive the same fees therefor as for recording other instruments.
[C97, §2940; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10076; C46, 50, 54,
58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §558.11]

Fees, §331.604

558.12 Transcript of instruments.
Any person interested therein may procure from any recorder in this state a transcript of any instrument affecting real estate which is of record in that recorder's office. Such transcript shall be certified by the recorder, and the clerk of the district court shall certify under the seal of the clerk's office to the signature of such recorder and the recorder's official character.

558.13 Transcript recorded.

A transcript of the record of any instrument affecting real estate, certified as provided in section 558.12, shall be entitled to record in the office of the recorder of any other county in which is situated any of the real estate affected by such instrument. The effect of the recording of transcript shall be the same as the recording of the original instrument.

558.14 Grantor described as "spouse" or "heir" — presumption.

All conveyances or the record title thereof of real estate executed prior to January 1, 1950, wherein the grantor or grantors described herself, himself, or themselves as the surviving spouse, heir at law, heirs at law, surviving spouse and heir at law, or surviving spouse and heirs at law, of some person deceased in whom the record title or ownership of said real estate previously vested, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts so recited as far as they relate to the right of the grantor or grantors to convey, as fully as if the record title of said grantor or grantors had been established by due probate proceedings in the county wherein the real estate is situated.

558.15 Notarial seals of nonresidents — presumption.

Any notarial seal purporting to have been affixed to any instrument in writing, by any notary public residing elsewhere than in this state, shall be prima-facie evidence that the words thereon engraved conform to the requirements of the law of the place wherein such certificate purports to have been made.

558.16 and 558.17 Repealed by 81 Acts, ch 117, §1097.

558.18 Certification — effect.

When any such records are copied, the officer to whose office the original records belong shall compare the copy so made with the original, and when found correct, shall attach the officer's certificate in each volume or book of such copied records, to the effect that the officer has compared such copies with the original and they are true and correct, and such copied records shall thereupon have the same force and effect in all respects as the original records.

558.19 Forms of conveyance.

The following or other equivalent forms of conveyance, varied to suit circumstances, are sufficient for the purposes herein contemplated:

1 FOR A QUITCLAIM DEED

For the consideration of .......................... dollars, I hereby quitclaim to .......................... all my interest in the following tract of real estate (describing it).

2 FOR A DEED IN FEE SIMPLE WITHOUT WARRANTY

For the consideration of .......................... dollars, I hereby convey to .......................... the following tract of real estate (describing it).

3 FOR A DEED IN FEE WITH WARRANTY

The same as the last preceding form, adding the words: "And I warrant the title against all persons whomsoever" (or other words of warranty, as the party may desire).

4 FOR A MORTGAGE

The same as deed of conveyance, adding the following: "To be void upon condition that I pay," etc.

[C51, §1217; R60, §2226; C73, §1956; C97, §2958; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10084; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §558.19]

558.20 Acknowledgments within state.

The acknowledgment of any deed, conveyance, or other instrument in writing by which real estate in this state is conveyed or encumbered, if made within this state, must be before some court having a seal, or some judge or clerk thereof, or some county auditor, or judicial magistrate or district associate judge within the county, or notary public within the state. Each of the officers above named is authorized to take and certify acknowledgments of all written instruments, authorized or required by law to be acknowledged.

558.21 Acknowledgments outside of state.

When made out of the state but within the United States, it shall be before a judge of a court of record, or officer holding the seal thereof, or a commissioner appointed by the governor of this state to take the acknowledgment of deeds, or some notary public, or justice of the peace.

[R60, §2245; C73, §1956; C97, §2943; S13, §2943; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10086; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §558.21]

558.22 Certificate of authenticity.

When made out of the state but within the United States and before a judge, or justice of the peace, a certificate, under the official seal of the clerk or other proper certifying officer of a court of record of the county or district, or of the secretary of state of the state or territory within which such acknowledgment was taken, under the seal of the secretary's office, of the official character of said judge, or justice, and of the genuineness of the judge's or justice's signature, shall accompany said certificate of acknowledgment.

558.23 Authorized foreign officials.

The proof or acknowledgment of any deed or other written instrument required to be proved or acknowledged in order to entitle the same to be recorded or read in evidence, when made by any person without this state and within any other state, territory, or district of the United States, may also be made before any officer of such state, territory, or district authorized by the laws thereof to take the proof and acknowledgment of deeds; and when so taken and certified as provided in section 558.24, may be recorded in this state, and read in evidence in the same manner and with like effect as proofs and acknowledgments taken before any of the officers named in section 558.21.

558.24 Certificate of authenticity — evidence and recordation.

To entitle any conveyance or written instrument, acknowledged or proved under section 558.23, to be read in evidence or recorded in this state, there shall be subjoined or attached to the certificate of proof or acknowledgment signed by such officer a certificate of the secretary of state of the state or territory in which such officer resides, under the seal of such state or territory, or a certificate of the clerk of a court of record of such state, territory, or district in the county in which said officer resides or in which the officer took such proof or acknowledgment, under the seal of such court. Such certificate shall comply substantially with section 558.25.

558.25 Form of authentication.

The following form of authentication of the proof or acknowledgment of a deed or other written instrument, when taken without this state and within any other state, territory, or district of the United States, or any form substantially in compliance with the foregoing provisions of this chapter, shall be used:

(Begin with a caption specifying the state, territory, or district, and county or place where the authentication is made.)

"I, ................................, clerk of the ................. court in and for said county, which court is a court of record, having a seal (or I, ................................, secretary of state of such state or territory), do hereby certify that ................................, by and before whom the foregoing acknowledgment or proof was taken, was at the time of taking the same ................................., (Name of office held) residing or authorized to act in said county, and was duly authorized by the laws of said state, territory, or district to take and certify acknowledgments or proofs of deeds of land in said state, territory, or district, and that said conveyance and the acknowledgment thereof are in due form of law; and, further, that I am well acquainted with the handwriting of said ................................, and that I verily believe that the signature to said certificate of acknowledgment or proof is genuine. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the said court or state this ............ day of .............., A.D. 19 ............"

558.26 Acknowledgments by military or naval officers.

In addition to the acknowledgment of instruments in the manner and form and as otherwise authorized by law, any person serving in or with the armed forces of the United States may acknowledge the same wherever located before any commissioned officer in active service of the armed forces of the United States with the rank of second lieutenant or higher in the army or marine corps, or ensign or higher in the navy or United States coast guard. Neither the instrument nor the acknowledgment shall be rendered invalid by the failure to state therein the place of execution or acknowledgment. No authentication of the officer's certificate of acknowledgment shall be required, but the officer taking the acknowledgment shall endorse thereon or attach thereto a certificate substantially in the following form:

On this the ............ day of .............., 19 ............ before me, ................................, the undersigned commissioned officer, personally appeared ................................................................., known to me (or satisfactorily proven) to be serving in or with the armed forces of the United States and to be the person whose name is subscribed to the within instrument and acknowledged that ................................................................. that person ......................................... executed the same as ................................................ voluntary act and deed.

Signature of officer.
.................................................................
Rank of officer and command to which attached.

Such acknowledgments executed according to the above provisions shall be deemed of the same force and effect as acknowledgments executed before officers authorized to accept acknowledgments.

Any acknowledgments made before March 30, 1943, by any person serving in or with the armed forces of the United States in the manner as prescribed by this section, or substantially so, are hereby legalized and considered sufficient.

558.27 Acknowledgments outside United States.

When the acknowledgment is made without the United States, it may be before any ambassador, minister, secretary of legation, consul, vice consul, chargé d'affaires, consular agent, or any other officer of the United States in a foreign country who is authorized to issue certificates under the seal of the United States.

558.28 Authorized foreign officials.

Said instruments may also be acknowledged or proved without the United States before any officer of a foreign country who is authorized by the laws thereof to certify to the acknowledgments of written documents.
[C73, §1957; C97, §2947; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10092; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §558.28]
558.29 Certificate of authenticity — foreign officials.

The certificate of acknowledgment by a foreign officer must be authenticated by one of the above-named officers of the United States, whose official written statement that full faith and credit is due to the certificate of such foreign officer shall be deemed sufficient evidence of the qualification of said officer to take acknowledgments and certify thereto, and of the genuineness of that officer's signature, and seal if the officer has any.

558.30 Certificate of acknowledgment — verification.

The court or officer taking the acknowledgment must endorse upon the deed or instrument a certificate setting forth the following particulars:

1. The title of the court or person before whom the acknowledgment was made.
2. That the person making the acknowledgment was known to the officer taking the acknowledgment to be the identical person whose name is affixed to the deed as grantor, or that such identity was proved by at least one credible witness, naming that witness.
3. That such person acknowledged the execution of the instrument to be that person's voluntary act and deed.

558.31 Proof of execution and delivery in lieu of acknowledgment.

Proof of the due and voluntary execution and delivery of a deed or other instrument may be made before any officer authorized to take acknowledgments, by one competent person other than the vendee or other person to whom the instrument is executed, in the following cases:

1. If the grantor dies before making the acknowledgment.
2. If the grantor's attendance cannot be procured.
3. If, having appeared, the grantor refuses to acknowledge the execution of the instrument.

[C51, §1220, 1221; R60, §2228; C73, §1959; C97, §2949; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10095; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §558.31]

558.32 Contents of certificate.

The certificate endorsed by the officer upon a deed or other instrument thus proved must state:

1. The title of the officer taking the proof.
2. That it was satisfactorily proved that the grantor was dead, or that for some other reason the grantor's attendance could not be procured in order to make the acknowledgment, or that, having appeared, the grantor refused to acknowledge the same.
3. The name of the witness by whom proof was made, and that it was proved by the witness that the instrument was executed and delivered by the person whose name is thereunto subscribed as a party.

558.33 Subpoenas.

An officer having power to take the proof hereinbefore contemplated may issue the necessary subpoenas, and compel the attendance of witnesses residing within the county, in the manner provided for the taking of depositions.

558.34 Use of seal.

The certificate of proof or acknowledgment may be given under seal or otherwise, according to the mode by which the officer making the same usually authenticates the officer's formal acts.

558.35 Married persons.

The acknowledgment of a married person, when required by law, may be taken in the same form as if the person were sole, and without any examination separate and apart from the person's spouse.

558.36 Attorney in fact.

The execution of any deed, mortgage, or other instrument in writing, executed by any attorney in fact, may be acknowledged by the attorney executing the same.

558.37 Certificate of acknowledgment — attorney in fact.

The person taking the acknowledgment must endorse upon such instrument a certificate, setting forth the following particulars:

1. The title of the person before whom the acknowledgment was taken.
2. That the person making the acknowledgment was known to the officer taking the acknowledgment to be the identical person whose name is subscribed to the instrument as attorney for the grantor therein named, or that such identity was proved to the officer by at least one credible witness, personally known by the officer and therein named.
3. That such person acknowledged said instrument to be the act and deed of the grantor therein named by that person, as such attorney thereunto appointed, voluntarily done and executed.

558.38 Officers of corporation.

If the acknowledgment is made by the officers of a corporation, the certificate shall show that such persons as such officers, naming the office of each person, acknowledged the execution of the instrument as provided in section 558.39.

[C97, §2954; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10102; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §558.38]

Employee of corporation as notary, §77 10
Forms of acknowledgment.

The following forms of acknowledgment shall be sufficient in the cases to which they are respectively applicable. In each case where one of these forms is used, the name of the state and county where the acknowledgment is taken shall precede the body of the certificate, and the signature and official title of the officer shall follow it as indicated in the first form and shall constitute a part of the certificate, and the seal of the officer shall be attached when necessary under the provisions of this chapter. No certificate of acknowledgment shall be held to be defective on account of the failure to show the official title of the officer making the certificate if such title appears either in the body of such certificate or in connection therewith, or with the signature thereto.

558.43 Definitions.
As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires 1 "Nonresident alien" means a An individual who is not a citizen of the United States and who is not domiciled in the United States
 b A corporation incorporated under the law of any foreign country
 c A corporation organized in the United States, beneficial ownership of which is held, directly or indirectly, by nonresident alien individuals d A trust organized in the United States or elsewhere if beneficial ownership is held, directly or indirectly, by nonresident alien individuals
 e A partnership or limited partnership organized in the United States or elsewhere if beneficial ownership is held, directly or indirectly, by nonresident alien individuals

2 The term "beneficial ownership" includes interests held by a nonresident alien individual directly or indirectly holding or acquiring a ten percent or greater share in the partnership, limited partnership, corporation or trust, or directly or indirectly through two or more such entities. In addition, the term beneficial ownership shall include interests held by all nonresi dent alien individuals if the nonresident alien individuals in the aggregate directly or indirectly hold or acquire twenty five percent or more of the partnership, limited partnership, corporation or trust

3. The term "conveyance" means all deeds and all contracts for the conveyance of an estate in real property except those contracts to be fulfilled within six months from date of execution thereof.

4. "Agricultural land" means agricultural land as defined in section 172C 1.

558.44 Mandatory recordation of conveyances and leases of agricultural land.

Every conveyance or lease of agricultural land, except leases not to exceed five years in duration with renewals, conveyances or leases made by operation of law, and distributions made from estates to heirs or devisees shall be recorded by the grantee or lessee with the county recorder not later than one hundred eighty days after the date of conveyance or lease.

For an instrument of conveyance of agricultural land deposited with an escrow agent, the fact of deposit of that instrument of conveyance with the escrow agent as well as the name and address of the grantor and grantee shall be recorded, by a document executed by the escrow agent, with the county recorder not later than one hundred eighty days from the date of the deposit with the escrow agent. For an instrument of conveyance of agricultural land delivered by an escrow agent, that instrument shall be recorded with the county recorder not later than one hundred eighty days from the date of delivery of the instrument of conveyance by the escrow agent.

At the time of recordation of the conveyance or lease of agricultural land, except a lease not exceeding five years in duration with renewals, conveyances or leases made by operation of law and distributions made from estates of decedents to heirs or devisees, to a nonresident alien as grantee or lessee, such conveyance or lease shall disclose, in an affidavit to be recorded therewith as a precondition to recordation, the name, years in duration with renewals, conveyances or leases made by operation of law and distributions made from estates to heirs or devisees which have a class of equity securities registered with the United States securities and exchange commission which has a class of equity securities registered with the United States securities and exchange commission under section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended to January 1, 1978, need only state that fact on the affidavit.

Failure to record a conveyance or lease of agricultural land required to be recorded by this section by the grantee or lessee within the specified time limit is punishable by a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars per day for each day of violation. The county recorder shall record a conveyance or lease of agricultural land presented for recording even though not presented within one hundred eighty days after the date of conveyance or lease. The county recorder shall forward to the county attorney a copy of each such conveyance or lease of agricultural land recorded more than one hundred eighty days from the date of conveyance. The county attorney shall initiate action in the district court to enforce the provisions of this section. Failure to timely record shall not invalidate an otherwise valid conveyance or lease.

If a real estate contract or lease is required to be recorded under this section, the requirement is satisfied by recording either the entire real estate contract or lease or a memorandum of the contract or lease containing at least the names and addresses of all parties named in the contract or lease, a description of all real property and interests therein subject to the contract or lease, the length of the contract or initial term of the lease, and in the case of a lease a statement as to whether any of the named parties have or are subject to renewal rights, and if so, the event or condition upon which renewal occurs, the number of renewal terms and the length of each, and in the case of a real estate contract a statement as to whether the seller is entitled to the remedy of forfeiture and as to the dates upon which payments are due. This unnumbered paragraph is effective July 1, 1980 for all contracts and leases of agricultural land made on or after July 1, 1980.

The provisions of this section except as otherwise provided, are effective July 1, 1979, for all conveyances and leases of agricultural land made on or after July 1, 1979.

558.45 Notation of assignment or release on index.

Where any mortgage, contract, or other instrument constituting an encumbrance upon real estate shall be assigned or released by a separate instrument it shall be the duty of the recorder to make a notation in red ink on the index and cross index where such instrument was originally indexed, indicating the nature of such assignment or release and the book and page where the same is recorded.

558.48 Reserved.

558.49 Index books.

The recorder must keep index books, the pages of which are so divided as to show in parallel columns:

1. Each grantor
2. Each grantee
3. The time when the instrument was filed
4. The date of the instrument
5. The nature of the instrument
6. The book and page where the record thereof may be found.

7. The description of the real estate conveyed.

§558.68 Perpetuities.
1. A nonvested interest in property is not valid unless it must vest, if at all, within twenty-one years after one or more lives in being at the creation of the interest and any relevant period of gestation.
2. a In determining whether a nonvested interest would violate the rule against perpetuities in subsection 1, the period of the rule shall be measured by actual events rather than by possible events, in any case in which that would validate the interest. For this purpose, if an examination of the facts in existence at the time the period of the rule begins to run reveals a life or lives in being within twenty-one years after whose deaths the nonvested interest will necessarily vest, if it ever vests, that life or lives are the measuring lives for purposes of the rule against perpetuities with respect to that nonvested interest and that nonvested interest is valid under the rule.
b. If no such life or lives can be ascertained at the time the period of the rule begins to run, the measuring lives for purposes of the rule are all of the following:
   (1) The creator of the nonvested interest, if the period of the rule begins to run in the creator’s lifetime.
   (2) Those persons alive when the period begins to run, if reasonable in number, who have been selected by the creator of the interest to measure the validity of the nonvested interest or, if none, those persons, if reasonable in number, who have a beneficial interest whether vested or nonvested in the property in which the nonvested interest exists, the grandparents of all such beneficiaries and the issue of such grandparents alive when the period of the rule begins to run, and those persons who are the potential appointees of a special power of appointment exercisable over the property in which the nonvested interests exist who are the grandparents or issue of the grandparents of the donee of the power and alive when the period of the rule begins to run.
   (3) Those other persons alive when the period of the rule begins to run, if reasonable in number, who are specifically mentioned in describing the beneficiaries of the property in which the nonvested interest exists.
   (4) The donee of a general or special power of appointment if the donee is alive when the period of the rule begins to run and if the exercise of that power could affect the nonvested interest.
3. A nonvested interest that would violate the rule against perpetuities whether its period is measured by actual or by possible events shall be judicially reformed to most closely approximate the intention of the creator of the interest in order that the nonvested interest will vest, even though it may not become possessory, within the period of the rule.
4. This section is applicable to all nonvested interests created on, before, or after July 1, 1983.

559.1 Release by donee of power.

A power to appoint which is exercisable by deed, by will, by deed or will, or otherwise, in whole or to any extent in favor of the donee of the power, the donee's estate, the donee's creditors, the creditors of the donee's estate, or others, is releasable, either with or without consideration, by written instrument executed by the donee. If such instrument shall be executed and acknowledged in the manner provided for the execution and acknowledgment of instruments affecting real estate and recorded with the county recorder in the county in which the donee of the power resides or the county of last residence of the donor of the power of the county in which any real estate which may be subject to the power is located, such recording shall be deemed a sufficient delivery of such release.

A power to appoint described herein is releasable with respect to the whole or any part of the property subject to such power and is also releasable in such manner as to reduce or limit the persons or objects, or classes of persons or objects in whose favor such power would otherwise be exercisable.

It is hereby declared that such releases are in accordance with the public policy of this state and are valid and effectual whether heretofore or hereafter made.

559.2 Definition — scope of power.

The term "power to appoint" as used in section 559 1, shall mean and include all powers which are in substance and effect powers of appointment, regardless of the language used in creating them and whether they are (1) general, special or otherwise, (2) vested, contingent or conditional, (3) in gross, appendant, simply collateral, in trust or in the nature of a trust or otherwise, (4) exercisable by an instrument amending, revoking, altering or terminating a trust or an estate, or an interest thereunder or otherwise, (5) exercisable presently or in the future, (6) exercisable in an individual or a fiduciary capacity whether alone or in conjunction with one or more other persons or corporations, (7) powers to invade or consume property, or (8) powers remaining after one or more partial releases have heretofore or hereafter been made with respect to a power to appoint.

559.3 Release by one donee exclusive of others.

If a power to appoint is or may be exercisable by two or more persons either in an individual or fiduciary capacity in conjunction with one another or successively, a release or disclaimer of the power in whole or in part executed by any one of the donees of the power shall be effective to release or disclaim, to the extent therein provided, all right of such person to exercise or to participate in the exercise of the said power, but unless the instrument creating the power otherwise provides, shall not prevent or limit the exercise or participation in the exercise thereof by the other donee or donees.

559.4 Limiting release.

A release of a power to appoint may also be made for life or lives or for a specified period of time.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §559 4]

559.5 Disclaimer.

A donee of a power to appoint may disclaim the same at any time, wholly or in part, in the same manner and to the same extent as the donee might release it.

559.6 Delivery.

A release or disclaimer may be delivered to any of the following: (1) Any person who could be adversely affected by the exercise of the power, (2) any trustee of the property to which the power relates, or (3) any person specified for such purpose in the instrument creating the power, or (4) the county recorder as provided in section 559 1.

559.7 Other lawful means.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall prevent the release of any power to appoint or the disclaimer thereof in any lawful manner.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §559 7]

559.8 Declaration of common law.

This chapter shall be deemed declaratory of the common law of this state and it shall be liberally con-
CHAPTER 560

OCCUPYING CLAIMANTS

See also reference in §567 7

560.1 Right to improvements.
Where an occupant of real estate has color of title thereto and has in good faith made valuable improvements thereon, and is thereafter adjudged not to be the owner, no execution shall issue to put the owner of the land in possession of the same, after the filing of a petition as hereinafter provided, until the provisions of this chapter have been complied with 560.2 “Color of title” defined.

Persons of each of the classes herenumbrat ed shall be deemed to have color of title within the meaning of this chapter, but nothing contained herein shall be construed as giving a tenant color of title against the tenant’s landlord

1 Purchaser at judicial or tax sale A purchaser in good faith at any judicial or tax sale made by the proper officer, whether said officer had sufficient authority to make said sale or not, unless want of authority in such officer was known to the purchaser at the time of the sale

2 Occupancy for five years A person who has alone or together with those under whom the person claims, occupied the premises for a period of five years continuously

3 Occupancy and improvements A person whose occupancy of the premises has been for a shorter period than five years, if during such occupancy the occupant or those under whom the person claims have, with the knowledge or consent of the real owner, express or implied, made any valuable improvements thereon

4 Occupancy and payment of taxes A person whose occupancy of the premises has been for a shorter period than five years, if such occupant or those under whom the person claims have at any time during such occupancy paid the ordinary county taxes thereon for any one year, and two years have elapsed without a repayment or offer of repayment of the same by the owner thereof, and such occupancy has continued to the time the action is brought by which the recovery of the real estate is obtained

5 Occupancy under state or federal law or contract A person who has settled upon any real estate and occupied the same for three years under or by virtue of any law, or contract with the proper officers of the state or of the United States for the purchase thereof and shall have made valuable improvements thereon

560.3 Petition — trial — appraisement.
The petition of the occupant must set forth the grounds upon which the occupant seeks relief, and state as accurately as practicable the value of the real estate, exclusive of the improvements made thereon by the claimant or the claimant’s grantors, and the value of such improvements The issue joined thereon must be tried as in ordinary actions and the value of the real estate and of such improvements separately ascertained 560.4 Rights of parties to property.

The owner of the land may thereupon pay to the clerk of the court for the benefit of the occupying claimant, the appraised value of the improvements and take the property and an execution may issue for the purpose of putting the owner of the land in posses-560.6 Waste by claimant.
§561.3

If the occupying claimant has committed any injury to the real estate by cutting timber or otherwise, the owner may set the same off against any claim for improvements made by such claimant.

560.7 Option to remove improvements.

Any person having improvements on any real estate granted to the state in aid of any work of internal improvement, whose title thereto is questioned by another, may remove such improvements without other injury to such real estate at any time before that person is evicted therefrom, or that person may have the benefit of this chapter by proceeding as herein directed.

[C73, §1987, C97, §2971, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10134; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §560 5]

CHAPTER 561

HOMESTEAD

561.1 “Homestead” defined.

The homestead must embrace the house used as a home by the owner, and, if the owner has two or more houses thus used, the owner may select which the owner will retain. It may contain one or more contiguous lots or tracts of land, with the building and other appurtenances thereon, habitually and in good faith used as part of the same homestead.

561.2 Extent and value.

If within a city plat, it must not exceed one half acre in extent, otherwise it must not contain in the aggregate more than forty acres, but if, in either case, its value is less than five hundred dollars, it may be enlarged until it reaches that amount.

[C51, §1252, R60, §2284, C73, §1996, C97, §2978, S13, §2978, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10136; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §561 2]

561.3 Dwelling and appurtenances.

It must not embrace more than one dwelling house, or any other buildings except such as are properly appurtenant thereto, but a shop or other building situated thereon, actually used and occupied by the owner in the prosecution of the owner's ordinary business, and not exceeding three hundred dollars in value, is appurtenant thereto.

561.4 Selecting — platting.

The owner, husband, or wife, may select the homestead and cause it to be platted, but a failure to do so shall not render the same liable when it otherwise would not be, and a selection by the owner shall control. When selected, it shall be designated by a legal description, or if incapable thereof it shall be marked off by permanent, visible monuments, and the description thereof shall give the direction and distance of the starting point from some corner of the dwelling, which description, with the plat, shall be filed and recorded by the recorder of the proper county in the homestead book, which shall be, as nearly as may be, in the form of the record books for deeds, with an index kept in the same manner.

561.5 Platted by officer having execution.

Should the homestead not be platted and recorded at the time levy is made upon real property in which a homestead is included, the officer having the execution shall give notice in writing to said owner, and the spouse of such owner, if found within the county, to plat and record the same within ten days after service thereof; after which time said officer shall cause said homestead to be platted and recorded as above, and the expense thereof shall be added to the costs in the case.

[C51, §1254; R60, §2286; C73, §1998; S13, §2979; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10139; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §561.5]

561.6 Plating under order of court.

Upon application made to the district court by any creditor of the owner of the homestead, or other person interested therein, such court shall hear the cause upon the proof offered, and fix and establish the boundaries thereof, and the judgment therein shall be filed and recorded in the manner provided in section 561.5.

561.7 Changes — nonconsenting spouse.

The owner may, from time to time, change the limits of the homestead by changing the metes and bounds, as well as the record of the plat and description, or vacate it.

Such changes shall not prejudice conveyances or liens made or created previously thereto.

No such change of the entire homestead, made without the concurrence of the other spouse, shall affect that spouse's rights, or those of the children.

561.8 Referees to determine exemption.

When a disagreement takes place between the owner and any person adversely interested, as to whether any land or buildings are properly a part of the homestead, the sheriff shall, at the request of either party, summon nine disinterested persons having the qualifications of jurors. The parties then, commencing with the owner, shall in turn strike off one person each, until three remain. Should either party fail to do so, the sheriff may act for that person, and the three as referees shall proceed to examine and ascertain all the facts of the case, and report the same, with their opinion thereon, to the court from which the execution or other process may have issued within thirty days after their qualification as referees.

561.9 Referring back — marking off — costs.

The court in its discretion may refer the whole or any part of the matter back to the same or other referees, to be selected in the same manner, or as the parties agree, giving them directions as to the report required of them. When the court is sufficiently advised in the case, it shall make its decision, and may direct the homestead to be marked off anew, or a new plat and description to be made and recorded, and take such other steps as shall be lawful and expedient in attaining the purpose of this chapter. It shall also award costs in accordance with the practice in other cases, as nearly as may be.

561.10 Change of circumstances.

The extent or appurtenances of the homestead thus established may be called in question in like manner, whenever a change in value or circumstances will justify such new proceedings.

561.11 Occupancy by surviving spouse.

Upon the death of either spouse, the survivor may continue to possess and occupy the whole homestead until it is otherwise disposed of according to law, but the setting off of the distributive share of the survivor in the real estate of the deceased shall be such a disposal of the homestead as is herein contemplated.

561.12 Life possession in lieu of dower.

The survivor may elect to retain the homestead for life in lieu of such share in the real estate of the deceased.

561.13 Conveyance or encumbrance.

A conveyance or encumbrance of, or contract to convey or encumber the homestead, if the owner is married, is not valid, unless and until the spouse of the owner executes the same or a like instrument, or a power of attorney for the execution of the same or a like instrument, and the instrument or power of attorney sets out the legal description of the homestead. However, when the homestead is conveyed or encumbered along with or in addition to other real estate, it is not necessary to particularly describe or set aside the tract of land constituting the homestead, whether the homestead is exclusively the subject of the contract or not, but the contract may be enforced as to real estate other than the homestead at the option of the purchaser or encumbrancer. If a spouse who holds only homestead and inchoate dower rights in the homestead specifically relinquishes homestead rights in an instrument, it is not necessary for the spouse to join in the granting clause of the same or a like instrument.

If a homestead exemption waiver is contained in a written contract, the contract must contain a statement in substantially the following form, in boldface type of a minimum size of ten points, and be signed and dated by the person waiving the exemption at the time of the execution of the contract:

"I understand that homestead property is in many cases protected from the claims of creditors and exempt from judicial sale; and that by signing this contract, I voluntarily give up my right to this protection for this property with respect to claims based upon this contract."

86 Acts, ch 1214, §8

Legislative findings, 86 Acts, ch 1214, §1

561.19 Exemption in hands of issue.

Where the homestead descends to the issue of either spouse the same shall be held by such issue exempt from any antecedent debts of their parents or their own, except those of the owner thereof contracted prior to its acquisition.

561.20 New homestead exempt.

Where there has been a change in the limits of the homestead, or a new homestead has been acquired with the proceeds of the old, the new homestead, to the extent in value of the old, is exempt from execution in all cases where the old or former one would have been.

561.21 Debts for which homestead liable.

The homestead may be sold to satisfy debts of each of the following classes:

1. Those contracted prior to its acquisition, but then only to satisfy a deficiency remaining after exhausting the other property of the debtor, liable to execution.
2. Those created by written contract by persons having the power to convey, expressly stipulating that it shall be liable, but then only for a deficiency remaining after exhausting all other property pledged by the same contract for the payment of the debt.
3. Those incurred for work done or material furnished exclusively for the improvement of the homestead.
4. If there is no survivor or issue, for the payment of any debts to which it might at that time be subjected.

561.16 Exemption.

The homestead of every person is exempt from judicial sale where there is no special declaration of statute to the contrary, provided that persons who reside together as a single household unit are entitled to claim in the aggregate only one homestead to be exempt from judicial sale. For purposes of this section, "household unit" means all persons of whatever ages, whether or not related, who habitually reside together in the same household as a group.

561.17 Repealed by 81 Acts, ch 182, §5.

561.18 Descent.

If there be no survivor, the homestead descends to the issue of either spouse according to the rules of descent, unless otherwise directed by will.

[C51, §1264; R60, §2296; C73, §2008; C97, §2985; C46, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10152; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §561.18]

561.15 Removal of spouse or children.

Neither spouse can remove the other nor the children from the homestead without the consent of the other.

[C51, §1462; R60, §2298; C73, §2010; C97, §2987; C46, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10148; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §561.15]
CHAPTER 562
OWNER/LESSOR AND TENANT/LESSEE

562.1 Apportionment of rent.
The executor of a tenant for life who leases real estate so held, and dies on or before the day on which the rent is payable, and a person entitled to rent dependent on the life of another may recover the proportion of rent which had accrued at the time of the death of such life tenant.

562.2 Double rental value — liability.
A tenant serving notice of intention to quit leased premises at a time named, and holding over after the time, and a tenant or the tenant's assignee willfully holding over after the term, and after notice to quit, shall pay double the rental value of the leased premises during the time the tenant holds over to the person entitled to the rent.

Forcible entry provisions, §648 3 and 648 4

562.3 Attornment to stranger.
The payment of rent, or delivery of possession of leased premises, to one not the lessor, is void, and shall not affect the rights of such lessor, unless made with the lessor’s consent, or in pursuance of a judgment or decree of court or judicial sale to which the lessor was a party.

562.4 Tenant at will — notice to terminate.
A person in the possession of real estate, with the assent of the owner, is presumed to be a tenant at will until the contrary is shown, and thirty days’ notice in writing must be served upon either party or a successor of the party before termination of the tenancy. However, if a rent is reserved payable at intervals of less than thirty days, the length of notice need not be greater than the interval.

Three day forcible entry notice, §648 3 and 648 4

562.7 Notice — how and when served.
Written notice shall be served upon either party or a successor of the party by using one of the following methods:
1. By delivery of the notice, on or before September 1, with acceptance of service to be signed by the party to the lease or a successor of the party, receiving the notice

2 By serving the notice, on or before September 1, personally, or if personal service has been tried and cannot be achieved, by publication, on the same conditions, and in the same manner as is provided for the service of original notices, except that when the notice is served by publication no affidavit is required. Service by publication is completed on the day of the last publication.

3 By mailing the notice before September 1 by certified mail. Notice served by certified mail is made and completed when the notice is enclosed in a sealed envelope, with the proper postage on the envelope, addressed to the party or a successor of the party at the last known mailing address and deposited in a mail receptacle provided by the United States postal service.

[C73, §2016, C97, §2991, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10162; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §562 7]

83 Acts, ch 132, §4
Forcible entry provisions §648 3 and 648 4

562.8 Termination of life estate — farm tenancy.

Upon the termination of a life estate, a farm tenancy granted by the life tenant shall continue until the following March 1 except that if the life estate terminates between September 1 and the following March 1 inclusively, then the farm tenancy shall continue for that year as provided by section 562 6 and continue until the holder of the successor interest serves notice of termination of the interest in the manner provided by section 562 7. However, if the lease is binding upon the holder of the successor interest by the provision of a trust or by specific commitment of the holder of the successor interest, the lease shall terminate as provided by that provision or commitment.

[C79, 81, §562 8]
83 Acts, ch 132, §5

562.9 Termination of life estate — nonfarm tenancy.

Upon the termination of a life estate, a tenancy granted by the life tenant which is not a farm tenancy shall continue until the following March 1 except that if the life estate terminates between September 1 and the following March 1 inclusively, then the tenancy shall continue for that year as provided by section 562 6 and continue until the holder of the successor interest serves notice of termination of the tenancy in the manner provided by section 562 7. However, if the lease is binding upon the holder of the successor interest by the provision of a trust or by specific commitment of the holder of the successor interest, the lease shall terminate as provided by that provision or commitment.

PART 1
SHORT TITLE, CONSTRUCTION, APPLICATION, AND SUBJECT MATTER OF THE ACT

562A.1 Short title.
This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the “Uniform Residential Landlord and Tenant Act.” [C79, 81, §562A 1]

562A.2 Purposes — rules of construction.
1 This chapter shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its underlying purposes and policies.
2 Underlying purposes and policies of this chapter are:
   a To simplify, clarify, modernize and revise the law governing the rental of dwelling units and the rights and obligations of landlord and tenant, and b To encourage landlord and tenant to maintain and improve the quality of housing
   c To ensure that the right to the receipt of rent is inseparable from the duty to maintain the premises. [C79, 81, §562A 2]

562A.3 Supplementary principles of law applicable.
Unless displaced by the provisions of this chapter, the principles of law and equity in this state, including the law relating to capacity to contract, mutuality of obligations, principal and agent, real property, public health, safety and fire prevention, estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other validating or invalidating cause, shall supplement its provisions. [C79, 81, §562A 3]

562A.4 Administration of remedies — enforcement.
1 The remedies provided by this chapter shall be administered so that the aggrieved party may recover appropriate damages. The aggrieved party has a duty to mitigate damages.
2 A right or obligation declared by this chapter is enforceable by action unless the provision declaring it specifies a different and limited effect. [C79, 81, §562A 4]

PART 2
SCOPE AND JURISDICTION

562A.5 Exclusions from application of chapter.
Unless created to avoid the application of this chapter, the following arrangements are not governed by this chapter:
1 Residence at an institution, public or private, if incidental to detention or the provision of medical, geriatric, educational, counseling, religious, or similar service.
2 Occupancy under a contract of sale of a dwelling unit or the property of which it is a part, if the occupant is the purchaser or a person who succeeds to the purchaser’s interest.
3 Occupancy by a member of a fraternal or social organization in the portion of a structure operated for the benefit of the organization
4 Transient occupancy in a hotel, motel or other similar lodgings
5 Occupancy by an employee of a landlord whose right to occupancy is conditional upon employment in and about the premises
6 Occupancy by an owner of a condominium unit or a holder of a proprietary lease in a co-operative 7 Occupancy under a rental agreement covering premises used by the occupant primarily for agricultural purposes
[C79, 81, §562A 5]

PART 3
GENERAL DEFINITIONS AND PRINCIPLES OF INTERPRETATION — NOTICE

562A.6 General definitions.
Subject to additional definitions contained in subsequent articles of this chapter which apply to specific articles or its parts, and unless the context otherwise requires, in this chapter
1 "Building and housing codes" include a law, ordinance, or governmental regulation concerning fitness for habitation, or the construction, maintenance, operation, occupancy, use, or appearance of a premise or dwelling unit
2 "Dwelling unit" means a structure or the part of a structure that is used as a home, residence, or sleeping place
3 "Good faith" means honesty in fact in the conduct of the transaction concerned
4 "Landlord" means the owner, lessor, or sublessor of the dwelling unit or the building of which it is a part, and it also means a manager of the premises who fails to disclose as required by section 562A 13
5 "Business" includes a corporation, government, governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, and any other legal or commercial entity
6 "Owner" means one or more persons, jointly or severally, in whom is vested a All or part of the legal title to property, or b All or part of the beneficial ownership and a right to present use and enjoyment of the premises, and the term includes a mortgagee in possession 7 "Premises" means a dwelling unit and the structure of which it is a part and facilities and appurtenances of it and grounds, areas and facilities held out for the use of tenants generally or whose use is promised to the tenant
8 "Rent" means a payment to be made to the landlord under the rental agreement
9 "Rental agreement" means an agreement written or oral, and a valid rule, adopted under section 562A 18, embodying the terms and conditions concerning the use and occupancy of a dwelling unit and premises
10 "Rental deposit" means a deposit of money to secure performance of a residential rental agreement, other than a deposit which is exclusively in advance payment of rent
11 "Roomer" means a person occupying a dwelling unit that lacks a major bathroom or kitchen facility, in a structure where one or more major facilities are used in common by occupants of the dwelling unit and other dwelling units. Major facility in the case of a bathroom means toilet, or either a bath or shower, and in the case of a kitchen means refrigerator, stove or sink
12 "Single family residence" means a structure maintained and used as a single dwelling unit. Notwithstanding that a dwelling unit shares one or more walls with another dwelling unit, it is a single family residence if it has direct access to a street or thoroughfare and shares neither heating facilities, hot water equipment, nor any other essential facility or service with another dwelling unit
13 "Tenant" means a person entitled under a rental agreement to occupy a dwelling unit to the exclusion of another 14 "Reasonable attorney’s fees" means fees determined by the time reasonably expended by the attorney and not by the amount of the recovery on behalf of the tenant or landlord
[C79, 81, §562A 6]

562A.7 Unconscionability.
1 If the court, as a matter of law, finds that a A rental agreement or any provision of it was unconscionable when made, the court may refuse to enforce the agreement, enforce the remainder of the agreement without the unconscionable provision, or limit the application of an unconscionable provision to avoid an unconscionable result
   b A settlement in which a party waives or agrees to forego a claim or right under this chapter or under a rental agreement was unconscionable at the time it was made, the court may refuse to enforce the settlement, enforce the remainder of the settlement without the unconscionable provision, or limit the application of an unconscionable provision to avoid any unconscionable result
2 If unconscionability is put into issue by a party or by the court upon its own motion the parties shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present evidence as to the setting, purpose, and effect of the rental agreement or settlement to aid the court in making the determination
[C79, 81, §562A 7]

562A.8 Notice.
1 A person has notice of a fact if such person has actual knowledge of it, has received a notice or notification of it or, if from all the facts and circumstances known to that person at the time in question, such person has reason to know that it exists. A person "knows" or "has knowledge" of a fact if such person has actual knowledge of it
2 A person "notifies" or "gives" a notice or notification to another by taking steps reasonably calculated to inform the other in ordinary course whether or not the other actually comes to know of it. A person "receives" a notice or notification when it comes to that person's attention or in the case of the landlord, it is delivered at the place of business of the landlord through which the rental agreement was made or at a place held out by the landlord as the place for receipt of the communication or, when in the case of the tenant, it is delivered in hand to the tenant or mailed by registered or certified mail to such person at the place held out by such person as the place for receipt of the communication, or in the absence of such designation, to such person's last known place of residence 3 "Notice," knowledge or a notice or notification received by an organization is effective for a particular transaction from the time it is brought to the attention of the individual conducting that transaction, and in any event from the time it would have been brought to the attention of such person if the organization had exercised reasonable diligence
[C79, 81, §562A 8]

PART 4
GENERAL PROVISIONS

562A.9 Terms and conditions of rental agreement.
1 The landlord and tenant may include in a rental agreement, terms and conditions not prohibited by this chapter or other rule of law including rent, term of the agreement, and other provisions governing the rights and obligations of the parties 2 In absence of agreement, the tenant shall pay as rent the fair rental value for the use and occupancy of the dwelling unit
3 Rent shall be payable without demand or notice at the time and place agreed upon by the parties Un less otherwise agreed, rent is payable at the dwelling unit and periodic rent is payable at the beginning of any term of one month or less and otherwise in equal monthly installments at the beginning of each month Unless otherwise agreed, rent shall be uniformly ap portionable from day-to-day 4 Unless the rental agreement fixes a definite term, the tenancy shall be week-to-week in case of a roomer who pays weekly rent, and in all other cases month-to-month
[C79, 81, §562A 9]

562A.10 Effect of unsigned or undelivered rental agreement.
1 If a landlord does not sign and deliver a written rental agreement signed and delivered to the landlord by the tenant, acceptance of rent without reservation by the landlord gives the rental agreement the same effect as if it had been signed and delivered by the landlord 2 If a tenant does not sign and deliver a written rental agreement signed and delivered to the tenant by the landlord, acceptance of possession without reservation gives the rental agreement the same effect as if it had been signed and delivered by the tenant 3 If a rental agreement given effect by the operation of this section provides for a term longer than one year, it is effective only for one year
[C79, 81, §562A 10]

562A.11 Prohibited provisions in rental agreements.
1 A rental agreement shall not provide that the tenant or landlord
a Agrees to waive or to forego rights or remedies under this chapter provided that this restriction shall not apply to rental agreements covering single family residences on land assessed as agricultural land and located in an unincorporated area, b Authorizes a person to confess judgment on a claim arising out of the rental agreement, c Agrees to pay the other party's attorney fees, or d Agrees to the exculpation or limitation of any liability of the other party arising under law or to in demnify the other party for that liability or the costs connected therewith
2 A provision prohibited by subsection 1 included in a rental agreement is unenforceable If a landlord willfully uses a rental agreement containing provisions known by the landlord to be prohibited, a tenant may recover actual damages sustained by the tenant and not more than three months' periodic rent and reasonable attorney's fees
[C79, 81, §562A 11]

ARTICLE II
LANDLORD OBLIGATIONS

562A.12 Rental deposits.
1 A landlord shall not demand or receive as rental deposit and prepaid rent an amount or value in excess of two months' rent
2 All rental deposits shall be held by the landlord for the tenant, who is a party to the agreement, in a bank or savings and loan association or credit union which is insured by an agency of the federal government Rental deposits shall not be commingled with the personal funds of the landlord Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 117, all rental deposits may be held in a trust account, which may be a common trust account and which may be an interest bearing account Any interest earned on a rental deposit during the first five years of a tenancy shall be the property of the landlord
3 A landlord shall, within thirty days from the date of termination of the tenancy and receipt of the tenant a written statement showing the specific reason for withholding of the rental deposit or any portion thereof If the rental deposit or any portion of the rental deposit is withheld for the restoration of the dwelling unit, the statement shall specify the nature of the damages The landlord may withhold from the rental deposit only such amounts as are reasonably necessary for the following reasons a To remedy a tenant's default in the payment of rent or of other funds due to the landlord pursuant to the rental agreement
b To restore the dwelling unit to its condition at the commencement of the tenancy, ordinary wear and tear excepted
c To recover expenses incurred in acquiring possession of the premises from a tenant who does not act in good faith in failing to surrender and vacate the premises upon noncompliance with the rental agreement and notification of such noncompliance pursuant to this chapter
In an action concerning the rental deposit, the burden of proving, by a preponderance of the evidence, under this chapter and under the rental agreement and expenditure or making available for that purpose all rent collected from the premises
4 The landlord or any person authorized to enter into a rental agreement on the landlord's behalf shall fully explain utility rates, charges and services to the prospective tenant before the rental agreement is signed unless paid by the tenant directly to the utility company
5 Each tenant shall be notified, in writing, of any rent increase at least thirty days before the effective date. Such effective date shall not be sooner than the expiration date of original rental agreement or any renewal or extension thereof
[C79, 81, §562A 13]

562A.14 Landlord to supply possession of dwelling unit.
At the commencement of the term, the landlord shall deliver possession of the premises to the tenant in compliance with the rental agreement and section 562A 15. The landlord may bring an action for posses sion against a person wrongfully in possession and may recover the damages provided in section 562A 34, subsection 3
[C79, 81, §562A 14]

562A.15 Landlord to maintain fit premises.
1 The landlord shall
   a Comply with the requirements of applicable building and housing codes materially affecting health and safety
   b Make all repairs and do whatever is necessary to put and keep the premises in a fit and habitable condi tion
   c Keep all common areas of the premises in a clean and safe condition. The landlord shall not be liable for any injury caused by any objects or materials which belong to or which have been placed by a tenant in the common areas of the premises used by the ten ant
   d Maintain in good and safe working order and condition all electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilating, air conditioning, and other facilities and appliances, including elevators supplied or required to be supplied by the landlord
   e Provide and maintain appropriate receptacles and conveniences, accessible to all tenants, for the cen tral collection and removal of ashes, garbage, rubbish, and other waste incident to the occupancy of the dwelling unit and arrange for their removal f Supply running water and reasonable amounts of hot water at all times and reasonable heat, except where the building that includes the dwelling unit is not required by law to be equipped for that purpose, or the dwelling unit is so constructed that heat or hot water is generated by an installation within the exclu sive control of the tenant and supplied by a direct public utility connection

If the duty imposed by paragraph "a" of this subsec tion is greater than a duty imposed by another para graph of this subsection, the landlord's duty shall be determined by reference to paragraph "a" of this subsec tion
2 The landlord and tenant of a single family resi dence may agree in writing that the tenant perform the the reason for withholding all or any portion of the rental deposit shall be on the landlord 4 A landlord who fails to provide a written statement within thirty days of termination of the tenancy and receipt of the tenant's mailing address or delivery instructions shall forfeit all rights to withhold any por tion of the rental deposit. If no mailing address or instructions are provided to the landlord within one year from the termination of the tenancy the rental deposit shall revert to the landlord and the tenant will be deemed to have forfeited all rights to the rental deposit

5 Upon termination of a landlord's interest in the dwelling unit, the landlord or an agent of the landlord shall, within a reasonable time, transfer the rental de posit, or any remainder after any lawful deductions to the landlord's successor in interest and notify the ten ant of the transfer and of the transferee's name and address or return the deposit, or any remainder after any lawful deductions to the tenant Upon the termination of the landlord's interest in the dwelling unit and compliance with the provisions of this subsection, the landlord shall be relieved of any further liability with respect to the rental deposit 6 Upon termination of the landlord's interest in the dwelling unit, the landlord's successor in interest shall have all the rights and obligations of the landlord with respect to the rental deposits, except that if the tenant does not object to the stated amount within twenty days after written notice to the tenant of the am ount of rental deposit being transferred or as sumed, the obligations of the landlord's successor to return the deposit shall be limited to the amount con tained in the notice. The notice shall contain a stamped envelope addressed to landlord's successor and may be given by mail or by personal service 7 The bad faith retention of a deposit by a land lord, or any portion of the rental deposit, in violation of this section shall subject the landlord to punitive damages not to exceed two hundred dollars in addition to actual damages
8 The court may, in any action on a rental agree ment, award reasonable attorney fees to the prevai ling party
[C75, 77, §562 9 562 14, C79, 81, §562A 12]

562A.13 Disclosure.
1 The landlord or a person authorized to enter into a rental agreement on behalf of the landlord shall disclose to the tenant in writing at or before the com mence ment of the tenancy the name and address of a The person authorized to manage the premises b An owner of the premises or a person authorized to act for and on behalf of the owner for the purpose of service of process and for the purpose of receiving and receipting for notices and demands 2 The information required to be furnished by this section shall be kept current and this section ex tends to and is enforceable against a successor land lord, owner, or manager
3 A person who fails to comply with subsection 1 becomes an agent of each person who is a landlord for the purpose of a Service of process and receiving and receipting for notices and demands
   b Performing the obligations of the landlord

§562A.15 landlord's duties specified in paragraphs 'e' and "f" of subsection 1 and also specified repairs, maintenance tasks, alterations, and remodeling, but only if the transaction is entered into in good faith

3 The landlord and tenant of a dwelling unit other than a single family residence may agree that the tenant is to perform specified repairs, maintenance tasks, alterations, or remodeling only a If the agreement of the parties is entered into in good faith and is set forth in a separate writing signed by the parties and supported by adequate consideration, b If the agreement does not diminish or affect the obligation of the landlord to other tenants in the premises

4 The landlord shall not treat performance of the separate agreement described in subsection 3 as a condition to an obligation or performance of a rental agreement
   [C79, 81, §562A 15]

§562A.16 Limitation of liability.

1 Unless otherwise agreed, a landlord, who conveys premises that include a dwelling unit subject to a rental agreement in a good faith sale to a bona fide purchaser, is relieved of liability under the rental agreement and this chapter as to events occurring subsequent to written notice to the tenant of the conveyance

2 A manager of premises that includes a dwelling unit is relieved of liability under the rental agreement and this chapter as to events occurring after written notice to the tenant of the termination of the person's management
   [C79, 81, §562A 16]

ARTICLE III
TENANT OBLIGATIONS

§562A.17 Tenant to maintain dwelling unit.

The tenant shall

1 Comply with all obligations primarily imposed upon tenants by applicable provisions of building and housing codes materially affecting health and safety

2 Keep that part of the premises that the tenant occupies and uses as clean and safe as the condition of the premises permit

3 Dispose from the tenant's dwelling unit all ashes, rubbish, garbage, and other waste in a clean and safe manner

4 Keep all plumbing fixtures in the dwelling unit or used by the tenant as clean as their condition permits

5 Use in a reasonable manner all electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilating, air conditioning and other facilities and appliances including elevators in the premises

6 Not deliberately or negligently destroy, deface, damage, impair or remove a part of the premises or knowingly permit a person to do so

7 Act in a manner that will not disturb a neighbor's peaceful enjoyment of the premises
   [C79, 81, §562A 17]

§562A.18 Rules.

A landlord, from time to time, may adopt rules, however described, concerning the tenant's use and occupancy of the premises A rule is enforceable against the tenant only if it is written and if

1 Its purpose is to promote the convenience, safety, or welfare of the tenants in the premises, preserve the landlord's property from abusive use, or make a fair distribution of services and facilities held out for the tenants generally

2 It is reasonably related to the purpose for which it is adopted

3 It applies to all tenants in the premises in a fair manner

4 It is sufficiently explicit in its prohibition, direction, or limitation of the tenant's conduct to fairly inform the tenant of what the tenant must or must not do to comply

5 It is not for the purpose of evading the obligations of the landlord

6 The tenant has notice of it at the time the tenant enters into the rental agreement

A rule adopted after the tenant enters into the rental agreement is enforceable against the tenant if reasonable notice of its adoption is given to the tenant and it does not work a substantial modification of the rental agreement

§562A.19 Access.

1 The tenant shall not unreasonably withhold consent to the landlord to enter into the dwelling unit in order to inspect the premises, make necessary or agreed repairs, decorations, alterations, or improvements, supply necessary or agreed services, or exhibit the dwelling unit to prospective or actual purchasers, mortgagees, tenants, workers, or contractors

2 The landlord may enter the dwelling unit without consent of the tenant in case of emergency

3 The landlord shall not abuse the right of access or use it to harass the tenant Except in case of emergency or if it is impracticable to do so, the landlord shall give the tenant at least twenty four hours' notice of the landlord's intent to enter and enter only at reasonable times

4 The landlord does not have another right of access except by court order, and as permitted by sections 562A 28 and 562A 29, or if the tenant has abandoned or surrendered the premises
   [C79, 81, §562A 19]

§562A.20 Tenant to use and occupy.

Unless otherwise agreed, the tenant shall occupy the dwelling unit only as a dwelling unit and uses it thereto The rental agreement may require that the tenant notify the landlord of an anticipated extended absence from the premises not later than the first day of the extended absence

ARTICLE IV REMEDIES
PART 1
TENANT REMEDIES
§562A.21 Noncompliance by the landlord — in general.
1 Except as provided in this chapter, if there is a material noncompliance by the landlord with the rental agreement or a noncompliance with section 562A 15 materially affecting health and safety, the tenant may elect to commence an action under this section and shall deliver a written notice to the landlord specifying the acts and omissions constituting the breach and that the rental agreement will terminate upon a date not less than thirty days after receipt of the notice if the breach is not remedied in fourteen days, and the rental agreement shall terminate and the tenant shall surrender as provided in the notice subject to the following:
   a If the breach is remediable by repairs or the payment of damages or otherwise, and if the landlord adequately remedies the breach prior to the date specified in the notice, the rental agreement shall not terminate;
   b If substantially the same act or omission which constituted a prior noncompliance of which notice was given recurs within six months, the tenant may terminate the rental agreement upon at least fourteen days' written notice specifying the breach and the date of termination of the rental agreement unless the landlord has exercised due diligence and effort to remedy the breach which gave rise to the noncompliance;
   c The tenant may not terminate for a condition caused by the deliberate or negligent act or omission of the landlord, a member of the tenant's family, or other person on the premises with the tenant's consent.
2 Except as provided in this chapter, the tenant may recover damages and obtain injunctive relief for any noncompliance by the landlord with the rental agreement or section 562A 15 unless the landlord demonstrates affirmatively that the landlord has exercised due diligence and effort to remedy any noncompliance, and that any failure by the landlord to remedy any noncompliance was due to circumstances reasonably beyond the control of the landlord. If the landlord's noncompliance is willful the tenant may recover reasonable attorney's fees.
3 The remedy provided in subsection 2 is in addition to any right of the tenant arising under subsection 1.
4 If the rental agreement is terminated, the landlord shall return all prepaid rent and security recoverable by the tenant under section 562A 12.
[C79, 81, §562A 21]

§562A.22 Failure to deliver possession.
1 If the landlord fails to deliver possession of the dwelling unit to the tenant as provided in section 562A 14, rent abates until possession is delivered and the tenant shall a Upon at least five days' written notice to the landlord, terminate the rental agreement and upon termination the landlord shall return all prepaid rent and security, or b Demand performance of the rental agreement by the landlord and, if the tenant elects, maintain an action for possession of the dwelling unit against the landlord or a person wrongfully in possession and recover the damages sustained by the tenant.
2 If a landlord's failure to deliver possession is willful and not in good faith, a tenant may recover from the landlord the actual damages sustained by the tenant and reasonable attorney's fees.
[C79, 81, §562A 22]

§562A.23 Wrongful failure to supply heat, water, hot water or essential services.
1 If contrary to the rental agreement or section 562A 15 the landlord deliberately or negligently fails to supply running water, hot water, or heat, or essential services, the tenant may give written notice to the landlord specifying the breach and may a Procure reasonable amounts of hot water, running water, heat and essential services during the period of the landlord's noncompliance and deduct their actual and reasonable cost from the rent;
   b Recover damages based upon the diminution in the fair rental value of the dwelling unit, or c Recover any rent already paid for the period of the landlord's noncompliance which shall be reimbursed on a pro rata basis.
2 If the tenant proceeds under this section, the tenant may not proceed under section 562A 21 as to that breach.
3 The rights under this section do not arise until the tenant has given notice to the landlord or if the condition was caused by the deliberate or negligent act or omission of the tenant, a member of the tenant's family, or other person on the premises with the consent of the tenant.
[C79, 81, §562A 23]

§562A.24 Landlord's noncompliance as defense to action for possession or rent.
1 In an action for possession based upon nonpayment of the rent or in an action for rent where the tenant is in possession, the tenant may counterclaim for an amount which the tenant may recover under the rental agreement or this chapter. In that event the court from time to time may order the tenant to pay into court all or part of the rent accrued and thereafter accruing, and shall determine the amount due to each party. The party to whom a net amount is owed shall be paid first from the money paid into court, and the balance by the other party. If rent does not remain due after application of this section, judgment shall be entered for the tenant in the action for possession. If the defense or counterclaim by the tenant is without merit and is not raised in good faith the landlord may recover reasonable attorney's fees.
2 In an action for rent where the tenant is not in possession, the tenant may counterclaim as provided in subsection 1, but the tenant is not required to pay any rent into court.
[C79, 81, §562A 24]

§562A.25 Fire or casualty damage.
1 If the dwelling unit or premises are damaged or destroyed by fire or casualty to an extent that enjoyment of the dwelling unit is substantially impaired, the tenant may a Immediately vacate the premises and notify the landlord in writing within fourteen days of the tenant's intention to terminate the rental agreement, in which case the rental agreement terminates as of the date of vacating, or b If continued occupancy is lawful, vacate a part of the dwelling unit rendered unusable by the fire or casualty, in which case the tenant’s liability for rent is reduced in proportion to the diminution in the fair rental value of the dwelling unit.

2. If the rental agreement is terminated, the landlord shall return all prepaid rent and security recoverable under section 562A.12. Accounting for rent in the event of termination or apportionment is to occur as of the date of the casualty.

562A.26 Tenants remedies for landlord’s unlawful ouster, exclusion, or diminution of service.

If the landlord unlawfully removes or excludes the tenant from the premises or willfully diminishes services to the tenant by interrupting or causing the interruption of electric, gas, water or other essential service to the tenant, the tenant may recover possession or terminate the rental agreement and, in either case, recover the actual damages sustained by the tenant and reasonable attorney’s fees. If the rental agreement is terminated, the landlord shall return all prepaid rent and security.

[C79, §562A 26]

PART 2

LANDLORD REMEDIES

562A.27 Noncompliance with rental agreement — failure to pay rent.

1. Except as provided in this chapter, if there is a material noncompliance by the tenant with the rental agreement or a noncompliance with section 562A.17 material affecting health and safety, the landlord may deliver a written notice to the tenant specifying the acts and omissions constituting the breach and that the rental agreement will terminate upon a date not less than thirty days after receipt of the notice if the breach is not remedied in fourteen days, and the rental agreement shall terminate as provided in the notice subject to the provisions of this section. If the breach is remediable by repair or the payment of damages or otherwise and the tenant adequately remedies the breach prior to the date specified in the notice, the rental agreement shall not terminate. If substantially the same act or omission which constituted a prior noncompliance of which notice was given recurs within six months, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement upon least fourteen days’ written notice specifying the breach and the date of termination of the rental agreement.

2. If rent is unpaid when due and the tenant fails to pay rent within three days after written notice by the landlord of nonpayment and the landlord’s intention to terminate the rental agreement if the rent is not paid within that period of time, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement.

3. Except as provided in this chapter, the landlord may recover damages and obtain injunctive relief for noncompliance by the tenant with the rental agreement or section 562A.17 unless the tenant demonstrates affirmatively that the tenant has exercised due diligence and effort to remedy any noncompliance, and that the tenant’s failure to remedy any noncompliance was due to circumstances beyond the tenant’s control. If the tenant’s noncompliance is willful, the landlord may recover reasonable attorney’s fees.

4. In any action by a landlord for possession based upon nonpayment of rent, proof by the tenant of the following shall be a defense to any action or claim for possession by the landlord, and the amounts expended by the claimant in correcting the deficiencies shall be deducted from the amount claimed by the landlord as unpaid rent.

a. That the landlord failed to comply either with the rental agreement or with section 562A.15, and

b. That the tenant notified the landlord at least fourteen days prior to the due date of the tenant’s rent payment of the tenant’s intention to correct the condition constituting the breach referred to in paragraph “a” of this subsection at the landlord’s expense, and

c. That the reasonable cost of correcting the condition constituting the breach is equal to or less than one month’s periodic rent, and

d. That the tenant in good faith caused the condition constituting the breach to be corrected prior to receipt of written notice of the landlord’s intention to terminate the rental agreement for nonpayment of rent.

562A.28 Failure to maintain.

If there is noncompliance by the tenant with section 562A.17, materially affecting health and safety, that can be remedied by repair or replacement of a damaged item or cleaning, and the tenant fails to comply as promptly as conditions require in case of emergency or within fourteen days after written notice by the landlord specifying the breach and requesting that the tenant remedy it within that period of time, the landlord may enter the dwelling unit and cause the work to be done in a competent manner and submit an itemized bill for the actual and reasonable cost or the fair and reasonable value of it as rent on the next date when periodic rent is due, or if the rental agreement has terminated, for immediate payment.

[C79, §562A 28]

85 Acts, ch 67, §50

562A.29 Remedies for absence, nonuse and abandonment.

1. If the rental agreement requires the tenant to give notice to the landlord of an anticipated extended absence as provided in section 562A.20, and the tenant willfully fails to do so, the landlord may recover actual damages from the tenant.

2. During an absence of the tenant in excess of fourteen days, the landlord may enter the dwelling unit at times reasonably necessary.

3. If the tenant abandons the dwelling unit, the landlord shall make reasonable efforts to rent it at a fair rental. If the landlord rents the dwelling unit for a term commencing prior to the expiration of the rental agreement, it is deemed to be renewed as of the date the new tenancy begins. The rental agreement is deemed to be terminated by the landlord as of the date the landlord has notice of the abandonment, if the landlord fails to use reasonable efforts to rent the dwelling unit at a fair rental or if the landlord accepts the abandonment as a surrender. If the tenancy is from month to-month, or week to-week, the term of the rental agreement for this purpose shall be deemed to be a month or a week, as the case may be.

[C79, 81, §562A 29]

§562A.30 Waiver of landlord's right to terminate.
Acceptance of performance by the tenant that varies from the terms of the rental agreement or rules subsequently adopted by the landlord constitutes a waiver of the landlord's right to terminate the rental agreement for that breach, unless otherwise agreed after the breach has occurred.

[C79, 81, §562A 30]

§562A.31 Landlord liens — distress for rent.
1. A lien on behalf of the landlord on the tenant's household goods is not enforceable unless perfected before January 1, 1979.
2. Distraint for rent is abolished.

[C79, 81, §562A 31]

§562A.32 Remedy after termination.
If the rental agreement is terminated, the landlord may have a claim for possession and for rent and a separate claim for actual damages for breach of the rental agreement and reasonable attorney's fees as provided in section 562A 27.

[C79, 81, §562A 32]

§562A.33 Recovery of possession limited.
A landlord may not recover or take possession of the dwelling unit by action or otherwise, including willful diminution of services to the tenant by interrupting or causing the interruption of electric, gas, water or other essential service to the tenant, except in case of abandonment, surrender, or as permitted in this chapter.

[C79, 81, §562A 33]

PART 3
PERIODIC TENANCY — HOLDOVER — ABUSE OF ACCESS

§562A.34 Periodic tenancy — holdover remedies.
1. The landlord or the tenant may terminate a week to week tenancy by a written notice given to the other at least ten days prior to the termination date specified in the notice.
2. The landlord or the tenant may terminate a month-to-month tenancy by a written notice given to the other at least thirty days prior to the periodic rental date specified in the notice.
3. If the tenant remains in possession without the landlord's consent after expiration of the term of the rental agreement or its termination, the landlord may bring an action for possession and if the tenant's hold over is willful and not in good faith the landlord, in addition, may recover the actual damages sustained by the landlord and reasonable attorney's fees. If the landlord consents to the tenant's continued occupancy, section 562A 9, subsection 4 applies.

[C79, 81, §562A 34]

§562A.35 Landlord and tenant remedies for abuse of access.
1. If the tenant refuses to allow lawful access, the landlord may obtain injunctive relief to compel access, or terminate the rental agreement. In either case, the landlord may recover actual damages and reasonable attorney's fees.
2. If the landlord makes an unlawful entry or a lawful entry in an unreasonable manner or makes repeated demands for entry otherwise lawful but which have the effect of unreasonably harassing the tenant, the tenant may obtain injunctive relief to prevent the recurrence of the conduct, or terminate the rental agreement. In either case, the tenant may recover actual damages not less than an amount equal to one month's rent and reasonable attorney's fees.

[C79, 81, §562A 35]

ARTICLE V
RETALIATORY ACTION

§562A.36 Retaliatory conduct prohibited.
1. Except as provided in this section, a landlord may not retaliate by increasing rent or decreasing services or by bringing or threatening to bring an action for possession after:
   a. The tenant has complained to a governmental agency charged with responsibility for enforcement of a building or housing code of a violation applicable to the premises materially affecting health and safety;
   b. The tenant has complained to the landlord of a violation under section 562A 15, or
   c. The tenant has organized or become a member of a tenants' union or similar organization.
2. If the landlord acts in violation of subsection 1 of this section, the tenant may recover from the landlord the actual damages sustained by the tenant and reasonable attorney's fees, and has a defense in action against the landlord for possession. In an action by or against the tenant, evidence of a good faith complaint within one year prior to the alleged act of retaliation creates a presumption that the landlord's conduct was in retaliation. The presumption does not arise if the tenant made the complaint after notice of a proposed rent increase or diminution of services. Evidence by the landlord that legitimate costs and charges of owning, maintaining, or operating a dwelling unit have increased shall be a defense against the presumption of retaliation when a rent increase is commensurate with the increase in costs and charges. "Presumption" means that the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact presumed unless and until evidence is introduced which would support a finding of its nonexistence.
3. Notwithstanding subsections 1 and 2 of this section, a landlord may bring an action for possession if:
   a. The violation of the applicable building or housing code was caused primarily by lack of reasonable care by the tenant or other person in the tenant's household or upon the premises with the tenant's consent;
   b. The tenant is in default in rent, or
   c. Compliance with the applicable building or housing code requires alteration, remodeling, or demolition which would effectively deprive the tenant of use of the dwelling unit. The maintenance of the action §562A.36 does not release the landlord from liability under section 562A 21, subsection 2
[C79, 81, §562A 36]

562B.2 Purposes.
Underlying purposes and policies of this chapter are 1 To simplify, clarify and establish the law governing the rental of mobile home spaces and rights and obligations of landlord and tenant
2 To encourage landlord and tenant to maintain and improve the quality of mobile home living
[C79, 81, §562B 2]
§562B.3 Supplementary principles of law applicable.
Unless displaced by the provisions of this chapter, the principles of law and equity, including the law relating to capacity to contract, mutuality of obligations, principal and agent, real property, public health, safety and fire prevention, estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, bankruptcy or other validating or invalidating cause supplement its provisions.
[C79, 81, §562B 3]

§562B.4 Administration of remedies — enforcement.
1 The remedies provided by this chapter shall be so administered that the aggrieved party may recover appropriate damages. The aggrieved party has a duty to mitigate damages.
2 Any right or obligation declared by this chapter is enforceable by action unless the provision declaring it specifies a different and limited effect.
[C79, 81, §562B 4]

§562B.5 Exclusions from application of chapter.
The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to an occupancy in or operation of public housing as authorized, provided or conducted pursuant to chapter 403A, or pursuant to any federal law or regulation with which it might conflict.
[C79, 81, §562B 5]

§562B.6 Jurisdiction and service of process.
1 The appropriate district court of this state may exercise jurisdiction over a landlord or tenant with respect to conduct in this state governed by this chapter or with respect to any claim arising from a transaction subject to this chapter. An action under this chapter may be brought as a small claim pursuant to the provisions of chapter 631. In addition to any other method provided by rule or by statute, personal jurisdiction over a landlord or tenant may be acquired in a civil action or proceeding instituted in the appropriate district court by the service of process in the manner provided by this section.
2 If a landlord is not a resident of this state or is a corporation not authorized to do business in this state and engages in conduct in this state governed by this chapter, or engages in a transaction subject to this chapter, the landlord shall designate an agent upon whom service of process may be made in this state. The agent shall be a resident of this state or a corporation authorized to do business in this state. The designation shall be in writing and filed with the secretary of state. If no designation is made and filed or if process cannot be served in this state upon the designated agent, process may be served upon the secretary of state. The defendant shall appear and answer within thirty days after completion thereof in the manner and under the same penalty as if defendant had been personally served with the summons. An affidavit of compliance with this section shall be filed with the clerk of the district court on or before the return day of the process, or within any further time the court allows.
[C79, 81, §562B 6]

§562B.7 General definitions.
Subject to additional definitions contained in subsequent sections of this chapter which apply to specific sections thereof, and unless the context otherwise requires, in this chapter:
1 “Building and housing codes” include any law, ordinance or governmental regulation concerning fitness for habitation, or the construction, maintenance, operation, occupancy, use or appearance of any mobile home park, dwelling unit or mobile home space.
2 “Dwelling unit” excludes real property used to accommodate a mobile home.
3 “Landlord” means the owner, lessor or sublessor of a mobile home park and it also means a manager of the mobile home park who fails to disclose as required by section 562B 14.
4 “Mobile home” means any vehicle without motive power used or so manufactured or constructed as to permit its being used as a conveyance upon the public streets and highways and so designed, constructed, or reconstructed as will permit the vehicle to be used as a place for human habitation by one or more persons, but shall also include any such vehicle with motive power not registered as a motor vehicle in Iowa.
5 “Mobile home space” means a parcel of land for rent which has been designed to accommodate a mobile home and provide the required sewer and utility connections.
6 “Business” includes a corporation, government, governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two or more persons having a common interest and any other legal or commercial entity which is a landlord, owner, manager or constructive agent pursuant to section 562B 14.
7 “Owner” means one or more persons, jointly or severally, in whom is vested all or part of the legal title to property or all or part of the beneficial ownership and a right to present use and enjoyment of the mobile home park. The term includes a mortgagee in possession.
8 “Mobile home park” shall mean any site, lot, field or tract of land upon which two or more occupied mobile homes are harbored, either free of charge or for revenue purposes, and shall include any building, structure, tent, vehicle or enclosure used or intended for use as part of the equipment of such mobile home park.
9 “Rent” means a payment to be made to the landlord under the rental agreement.
10 “Rental agreement” means agreements, written or those implied by law, and valid rules and regulations adopted under section 562B 19 embodying the terms and conditions concerning the use and occupancy of a mobile home space.
11 “Rental deposit” means a deposit of money to secure performance of a mobile home space rental agreement under this chapter other than a deposit which is exclusively in advance payment of rent

12 “Tenant” means a person entitled under a rental agreement to occupy a mobile home space to the exclusion of others

[C79, 81, §562B 7]

562B.8 Unconscionability.

1 If the court, as a matter of law, finds that a A rental agreement or any provision thereof was unconscionable when made, the court may refuse to enforce the agreement, enforce the remainder of the agreement without the unconscionable provision, or limit the application of any unconscionable provision to avoid an unconscionable result

b A settlement in which a party waives or agrees to forego a claim or right under this chapter or under a rental agreement was unconscionable at the time it was made, the court may refuse to enforce the settlement, enforce the remainder of the settlement without the unconscionable provision, or limit the application of any unconscionable provision to avoid any unconscionable result

2 If unconscionability is put into issue by a party or by the court upon its own motion the parties shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present evidence as to the setting, purpose and effect of the rental agreement or settlement to aid the court in making the determination

562B.9 Notice.

1 A person has notice of a fact if that person has actual knowledge of it, has received a notice or notification of it or, from all the facts and circumstances known to that person at the time in question, has reason to know that it exists A person “knows” or “has knowledge” of a fact if that person has actual knowledge of it

a Person “receives” a notice or notification when it comes to that person’s attention, or in the case of the landlord, it is delivered in hand or mailed by registered mail to the place of business of the landlord through which the rental agreement was made or at any place held out by the landlord as the place for receipt of the communication or delivered to any individual who is designated as an agent by section 562B 14 or, in the case of the tenant, it is delivered in hand to the tenant or mailed by registered mail return receipt requested to the tenant at the place held out by the tenant as the place for receipt of the communication or, in the absence of such designation, to the tenant’s last known place of residence other than the landlord’s mobile home or space

3 “Notice”, knowledge, or a notice or notification received by an organization is effective for a particular transaction from the time it is brought to the attention of the individual conducting the transaction and in any event from the time it would have been brought to that person’s attention if the organization had exercised reasonable diligence, but such knowledge shall be subject to proof

562B.10 Terms and conditions of rental agreement.

1 The landlord and tenant may include in a rental agreement terms and conditions not prohibited by this chapter or other rule of law including rent, term of the agreement and other provisions governing the rights and obligations of the parties

2 The tenant shall pay as rent the amount stated in the rental agreement. In the absence of a rental agreement, the tenant shall pay as rent the fair rental value for the use and occupancy of the mobile home space

3 Rent shall be payable without demand or notice at the time and place agreed upon by the parties. Unless otherwise agreed periodic rent is payable at the beginning of any term and thereafter in equal monthly installments. Rent shall be uniformly apportionable from day to day.

4 Rental agreements shall be for a term of one year unless otherwise specified in the rental agreement. Rental agreements shall be canceled by at least sixty days’ written notice given by either party. A landlord shall not cancel a rental agreement solely for the purpose of making the tenant’s mobile home space available for another mobile home.

5 If a tenant should die, the surviving joint tenant or tenant in common in the mobile home shall continue as tenant with all rights, privileges and liabilities as the original tenant.

6 If a tenant who was sole owner of a mobile home dies during the term of a rental agreement then that person’s heirs or legal representative or the landlord shall have the right to cancel the tenant’s lease by giving sixty days’ written notice to the person’s heirs or legal representative or to the landlord, whichever is appropriate, and the heirs or the legal representative shall have the same rights, privileges and liabilities of the original tenant.

7 Improvements, except a natural lawn, purchased and installed by a tenant on a mobile home space shall remain the property of the tenant even though affixed to or in the ground and may be removed or disposed of by the tenant prior to the termination of the tenancy, provided that a tenant shall leave the mobile home space in substantially the same or better condition than upon taking possession

562B.11 Prohibited provisions in rental agreements.

1 A rental agreement shall not provide that the tenant or landlord does any of the following a Agrees to waive or to forego rights or remedies under this chapter

b Agrees to pay the other party’s attorney fees

c Agrees to the exculpation or limitation of any liability of the other party arising under law or to indemnify the other party for that liability or the costs connected therewith

d Agrees to a designated agent for the sale of tenant’s mobile home

2 A provision prohibited by subsection 1 of this section included in a rental agreement is unenforceable. If a landlord or tenant knowingly uses a rental agreement without the unconscionable provision, or limit the application of any unconscionable provision to avoid an unconscionable result agreement containing provisions known to be prohibited by this chapter, the other party may recover actual damages sustained.

Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a rental agreement from requiring a tenant to maintain liability insurance which names the landlord as an insured as relates to the mobile home space rented by the tenant.

[C79, 81, §562B 11]

562B.12 Separation of rents and obligations to maintain property forbidden

A rental agreement, assignment, conveyance, trust deed or security instrument shall not permit the receipt of rent, unless the landlord has agreed to comply with section 562B 16, subsection 1.

[C79, 81, §562B 12]

DIVISION II

LANDLORD OBLIGATIONS

562B.13 Rental deposits.

1 A landlord shall not demand or receive as rental deposit an amount or value in excess of two months’ rent.

2 All rental deposits shall be held by the landlord for the tenant, who is a party to the agreement, in a bank, credit union or savings and loan association which is insured by an agency of the federal government. Rental deposits shall not be commingled with the personal funds of the landlord. All rental deposits may be held in a trust account, which may be a common trust account and which may be an interest bearing account. Any interest earned on a rental deposit shall be the property of the landlord.

3 A landlord shall, within thirty days from the date of termination of the tenancy and receipt of the tenant’s mailing address or delivery instructions, return the rental deposit to the tenant or furnish to the tenant a written statement showing the specific reason for withholding of the rental deposit or any portion thereof. If the rental deposit or any portion of the rental deposit is withheld for the restoration of the mobile home space, the statement shall specify the nature of the damages. The landlord may withhold from the rental deposit only such amounts as are reasonably necessary for the following reasons:

a. To remedy a tenant’s default in the payment of rent or of other funds due to the landlord pursuant to the rental agreement.

b. To restore the mobile home space to its condition at the commencement of the tenancy, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

c. In an action concerning the rental deposit, the burden of proving, by a preponderance of the evidence, the reason for withholding all or any portion of the rental deposit shall be on the landlord.

5 A landlord who fails to provide a written statement within thirty days of termination of the tenancy and receipt of the tenant’s mailing address or delivery instructions shall forfeit all rights to withhold any portion of the rental deposit. If no mailing address or instructions are provided to the landlord within one year from the termination of the tenancy the rental deposit shall revert to the landlord and the tenant will be deemed to have forfeited all rights to the rental deposit.

6 Upon termination of a landlord’s interest in the mobile home park, the landlord or the landlord’s agent shall, within a reasonable time, transfer the rental deposit, or any remainder after any lawful deductions to the landlord’s successor in interest and notify the tenant of the transfer and of the transferee’s name and address or return the deposit, or any remainder after any lawful deductions to the tenant.

Upon the termination of the landlord’s interest in the mobile home park and compliance with the provisions of this subsection, the landlord shall be relieved of any further liability with respect to the rental deposit.

7 Upon termination of the landlord’s interest in the mobile home park, the landlord’s successor in interest shall have all the rights and obligations of the landlord with respect to the rental deposits, except that if the tenant does not object to the stated amount within twenty days after written notice to the tenant of the amount of rental deposit being transferred or assumed, the obligations of the landlord’s successor to return the deposit shall be limited to the amount contained in the notice. The notice shall contain a stamped envelope addressed to the landlord’s successor and may be given by mail or by personal service.

8 The bad faith retention of a deposit by a landlord, or any portion of the rental deposit, in violation of this section shall subject the landlord to punitive damages not to exceed two hundred dollars in addition to actual damages.

562B.14 Disclosure and tender of written rental agreement.

1 The landlord shall offer the tenant the opportunity to sign a written agreement for a mobile home space.

2 The landlord or any person authorized to enter into a rental agreement on the landlord’s behalf shall disclose to the tenant within twenty days after written notice to the tenant the nature of the damages. The landlord may withhold from the rental deposit only such amounts as are reasonably necessary for the following reasons:

a. To remedy a tenant’s default in the payment of rent or of other funds due to the landlord pursuant to the rental agreement.

b. To restore the mobile home space to its condition at the commencement of the tenancy, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

c. In an action concerning the rental deposit, the burden of proving, by a preponderance of the evidence, the reason for withholding all or any portion of the rental deposit shall be on the landlord.

5 A landlord who fails to provide a written statement within thirty days of termination of the tenancy and receipt of the tenant’s mailing address or delivery instructions shall forfeit all rights to withhold any portion of the rental deposit. If no mailing address or instructions are provided to the landlord within one year from the termination of the tenancy the rental deposit shall revert to the landlord and the tenant will be deemed to have forfeited all rights to the rental deposit.

6 Upon termination of a landlord’s interest in the mobile home park, the landlord or the landlord’s agent shall, within a reasonable time, transfer the rental deposit, or any remainder after any lawful deductions to the landlord’s successor in interest and notify the tenant of the transfer and of the transferee’s name and address or return the deposit, or any remainder after any lawful deductions to the tenant.

7 Upon termination of the landlord’s interest in the mobile home park, the landlord’s successor in interest shall have all the rights and obligations of the landlord with respect to the rental deposits, except that if the tenant does not object to the stated amount within twenty days after written notice to the tenant of the amount of rental deposit being transferred or assumed, the obligations of the landlord’s successor to return the deposit shall be limited to the amount contained in the notice. The notice shall contain a stamped envelope addressed to the landlord’s successor and may be given by mail or by personal service.

8 The bad faith retention of a deposit by a landlord, or any portion of the rental deposit, in violation of this section shall subject the landlord to punitive damages not to exceed two hundred dollars in addition to actual damages.

agreement to the tenant and the tenant must sign and deliver to the landlord one fully executed copy of such rental agreement within ten days after the agreement is executed. Noncompliance with this subsection shall be deemed a material noncompliance by the landlord or the tenant, as the case may be, of the rental agreement.

6 The landlord or any person authorized to enter into a rental agreement on the landlord's behalf shall provide a written explanation of utility rates, charges and services to the prospective tenant before the rental agreement is signed unless the utility charges are paid by the tenant directly to the utility company.

7 Each tenant shall be notified, in writing, of any rent increase at least sixty days before the effective date. Such effective date shall not be sooner than the expiration date of the original rental agreement or any renewal or extension thereof.

§562B.15 Landlord to deliver possession of mobile home space.

At the commencement of the term the landlord shall deliver possession of the mobile home space to the tenant in compliance with the rental agreement and section 562B 16. The landlord may bring an action for possession against any person wrongfully in possession and may recover the damages provided in section 562B 31.

§562B.16 Landlord to maintain fit premises.

1 The landlord shall:

a. Comply with the requirements of all applicable city, county and state codes materially affecting health and safety which are primarily imposed upon the landlord;

b. Make all repairs and do whatever is necessary to put and keep the mobile home space in a fit and habitable condition;

c. Keep all common areas of the mobile home park in a clean and safe condition;

d. Maintain in good and safe working order and condition all facilities supplied or required to be supplied by the landlord;

e. Provide for removal of garbage, rubbish, and other waste from the mobile home park;

f. Furnish outlets for electric, water and sewer services;

g. Dispose from the tenant's mobile home space all rubbish, garbage and other waste in a clean and safe manner;

h. Not deliberately or negligently destroy, deface, damage, impair or remove any part of the mobile home park or knowingly permit any person to do so;

i. Act and require other persons in the mobile home park with the tenant's consent to act in a manner that will not disturb the tenant's neighbors' peaceful enjoyment of the mobile home park.

[C79, 81, §562B 18]

562B.17 Limitation of liability.

1 A landlord who conveys a mobile home park in a good faith sale to a bona fide purchaser is relieved of liability under the rental agreement and this chapter as to events occurring subsequent to written notice to the tenant of the conveyance.

2 A manager of a mobile home park is relieved of liability under the rental agreement and this chapter as to events occurring after written notice to the tenant of the termination of the person's management, except such notice shall not terminate any agreement or legal liability arising prior to the notice.

[C79, 81, §562B 17]

DIVISION III

§562B.18 Tenant to maintain mobile home space — notice of vacating.

A tenant shall maintain the mobile home space in as good a condition as when the tenant took possession and shall:

1 Comply with all obligations primarily imposed upon tenants by applicable provisions of city, county and state codes materially affecting health and safety;

2 Keep that part of the mobile home park that the tenant occupies and uses reasonably clean and safe;

3 Dispose from the tenant's mobile home space all rubbish, garbage and other waste in a clean and safe manner;

4 Not deliberately or negligently destroy, deface, damage, impair or remove any part of the mobile home park or knowingly permit any person to do so;

5 Act and require other persons in the mobile home park with the tenant's consent to act in a manner that will not disturb the tenant's neighbors' peaceful enjoyment of the mobile home park.

[C79, 81, §562B 18]

562B.19 Rules and regulations.

1 A landlord may adopt rules or regulations, however described, concerning the tenant's use and occupancy of the mobile home park. Such rules or regulations are enforceable against the tenant only if they are written and if:

a. Their purpose is to promote the convenience, safety or welfare of the tenants in the mobile home park, to preserve the landlord's property from abuse, to make a fair distribution of services and facilities held out for the tenants generally, or to facilitate mobile home park management;

b. They are reasonably related to the purpose for which adopted;

c. They apply to all tenants in the mobile home park in a fair manner;

d. They are sufficiently explicit in prohibition, direction or limitation of the tenant's conduct to fairly inform that person of what must or must not be done to comply;

e. They are not for the purpose of evading the obligations of the landlord;

f. The prospective tenant is given a copy of them before the rental agreement is entered into.

2 Notice of all such additions, changes, deletions or amendments shall be given to all mobile home ten
30. Any rule or condition of occupancy which is unfair and deceptive or which does not conform to the requirements of this chapter shall be unenforceable. A rule or regulation adopted after the tenant enters into the rental agreement is enforceable against the tenant only if it does not work a substantial modification of that person’s rental agreement.

31. A landlord shall not

a. Deny rental unless the tenant or prospective tenant cannot conform to park rules and regulations.

b. Require any person as a precondition to renting, leasing or otherwise occupying or removing from a mobile home space in a mobile home park to pay an entrance or exit fee of any kind unless for services actually rendered or pursuant to a written agreement.

c. Deny any resident of a mobile home park the right to sell that person’s mobile home at a price of the person’s own choosing, but may reserve the right to approve the purchaser of such mobile home as a tenant but such permission may not be unreasonably withheld.

d. Require a commission or fee with respect to the price realized by the tenant selling the tenant’s mobile home, unless the park owner or operator has acted as agent for the mobile home owner pursuant to a written agreement.

e. Require tenant to furnish permanent improvements which cannot be removed without damage thereto or to the mobile home space by tenant at expiration of the rental agreement.

f. Prohibit meetings between tenants in the mobile home park relating to mobile home living and affairs thereon or to the mobile home space by tenant at expiration of the rental agreement.

32. The tenant may not terminate for a condition caused by the deliberate or negligent act or omission of the landlord.

33. The remedy provided in subsection 2 of this section is in addition to any right of the tenant arising under subsection 1 of this section.

Except as provided in this chapter, if there is a material noncompliance by the landlord with the rental agreement, the tenant may deliver a written notice to the landlord specifying the acts and omissions constituting the breach and that the rental agreement will terminate upon a date not less than thirty days after receipt of the notice if the breach is not remedied in fourteen days. If there is a noncompliance by the landlord with section 562B 16 materially affecting health and safety, the tenant may deliver a written notice to the landlord specifying the acts and omissions constituting the breach and that the rental agreement will terminate upon a date not less than thirty days after receipt of the notice if the breach is not remedied in fourteen days. The rental agreement shall terminate and the mobile home space shall be vacated as provided in the notice subject to the following:

a. If the breach is remediable by repairs or the payment of damages or otherwise and the landlord adequately remedies the breach prior to the date specified in the notice, the rental agreement will not terminate.

b. The tenant may not terminate for a condition caused by the deliberate or negligent act or omission of the tenant, a member of the tenant’s family or other person in the mobile home park with the tenant’s consent.

2. Except as provided in this chapter, the tenant may recover damages, and obtain injunctive relief for any noncompliance by the landlord with the rental agreement or with section 562B 16.3. The remedy provided in subsection 2 of this section is in addition to any right of the tenant arising under subsection 1 of this section.

562B.23 Failure to deliver possession.

1. If the landlord fails to deliver physical possession of the mobile home space to the tenant as provided in section 562B 15, rent abates until possession is delivered and the tenant may do either of the following:

a. Upon written notice to the landlord, terminate the rental agreement and at that time the landlord shall return all deposits.

b. Demand performance of the rental agreement by the landlord and, if the tenant elects, maintain an action for possession of the mobile home space against the landlord and recover the damages sustained by the tenant plus reasonable attorney’s fees and court costs.

2. If the landlord delivers physical possession to the tenant but fails to comply with section 562B 16 at the time of delivery, rent shall not abate. The tenant may also proceed with the remedies provided for in section 562B 22.

562B.24 Tenant’s remedies for landlord’s unlawful ouster, exclusion or diminution of services.

If the landlord unlawfully removes or excludes the tenant from the mobile home park or willfully dimin...
562B.25 Noncompliance with rental agreement by tenant — failure to pay rent.
1. Except as provided in this chapter, if there is a material noncompliance by the tenant with the rental agreement, the landlord may deliver a written notice to the tenant specifying the acts and omissions constituting the breach and that the rental agreement will terminate upon a date not less than thirty days after receipt of the notice if the breach is not remedied in fourteen days. If there is a noncompliance by the tenant with section 562B.18 materially affecting health and safety, the landlord may deliver a written notice to the tenant specifying the acts and omissions constituting the breach and that the rental agreement will terminate upon a date not less than thirty days after receipt of the notice if the breach is not remedied in fourteen days. However, if the breach is remediable by repair or the payment of damages or otherwise, and the tenant adequately remedies the breach prior to the date specified in the notice, the rental agreement will not terminate.
2. If rent is unpaid when due and the tenant fails to pay rent within three days after written notice by the landlord of nonpayment and of the landlord's intention to terminate the rental agreement if the rent is not paid within that period of time, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement.
3. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the landlord may recover damages, obtain injunctive relief or recover possession of the mobile home space pursuant to an action in forcible detainer for any material noncompliance by the tenant with the rental agreement or with section 562B.18.
4. The remedy provided in subsection 3 of this section is in addition to any right of the landlord arising under subsection 1 of this section.

562B.26 Failure to maintain by tenant.
If there is noncompliance by the tenant with section 562B.18 materially affecting health and safety that can be remedied by repair, replacement of a damaged item or cleaning and the tenant fails to comply as promptly as conditions require in case of emergency or within fourteen days after written notice by the landlord specifying the breach and requesting that the tenant remedy it within that period of time, the landlord may enter the mobile home space, and cause the work to be done in a skilful manner and submit an itemized bill for the actual and reasonable cost or the fair and reasonable value thereof as additional rent on the next date when periodic rent is due, or if the rental agreement was terminated, for immediate payment.

562B.27 Remedies for abandonment — required registration.
1. If a tenant abandons a mobile home on a mobile home space, the landlord shall notify the legal owner or lienholder of the mobile home and communicate to that person that the person is liable for any costs incurred for the mobile home space, including rent and utilities due and owing. However, the person is only liable for costs incurred ninety days before the landlord's communication. After the landlord's communication, costs for which liability is incurred shall then become the responsibility of the legal owner or lienholder of the mobile home. If the mobile home may not be removed from the mobile home space without a signed written agreement from the landlord showing clearance for removal, showing that all debts are paid in full, or an agreement reached with the legal owner and the landlord.
2. A required standardized registration form shall be filled out by each tenant, upon the rental of a mobile home space, showing the mobile home make, year, serial number and license number and also showing if the mobile home is paid for, if there is a lien on the mobile home, and if so the lienholder, and who is the legal owner of the mobile home. The registration cards or forms shall be kept on file with the landlord as long as the mobile home is on the mobile home space within the mobile home park. The tenant shall give notice to the landlord within ten days of any new lien, changes of existing lien or settlement of lien.

562B.28 Waiver of landlord's right to terminate.
Acceptance of performance by the tenant that varied from the terms of the rental agreement or rules subsequently adopted by the landlord constitutes a waiver of the landlord's right to terminate the rental agreement for that breach, unless otherwise agreed after the breach has occurred.

562B.29 Repealed by 81 Acts, ch 183, §3.

562B.30 Periodic tenancy — holdover remedies.
1. The landlord may terminate a tenancy only as provided in this chapter.
2. Notwithstanding section 648.19, if the tenant remains in possession without the landlord's consent after expiration of the term of the rental agreement or its termination, the landlord may bring an action for possession and recover actual damages. If the tenant's holdover is willful and not in good faith the landlord in addition may recover an amount not to exceed two months' periodic rent and twice the actual damages sustained by the landlord. In any event, the landlord may recover reasonable attorney's fees and court costs.

562B.31 Landlord and tenant remedies for abuse of access to mobile home space.
1. If the tenant refuses to allow lawful access to the mobile home space, the landlord may terminate the rental agreement and may recover actual damages.
2. If the landlord makes an unlawful entry or a lawful entry to the mobile home space in an unreasonable manner or makes repeated demands for entry otherwise lawful but which have the effect of unreasonably harassing the tenant, the tenant may obtain injunctive relief to prevent the recurrence of the conduct or terminate the rental agreement. In either case, the tenant may recover actual damages not less than an amount equal to one month's rent plus attorney's fees.

[C79, 81, §562B 31]

562B.32 Retaliatory conduct prohibited.
1 Except as provided in this section, a landlord shall not retaliate by increasing rent or decreasing services or by bringing or threatening to bring an action for possession or by failing to renew a rental agreement after any of the following:
   a The tenant has complained to a governmental agency charged with responsibility for enforcement of a building or housing code of a violation applicable to the mobile home park materially affecting health and safety. For this subsection to apply, a complaint filed with a governmental body must be in good faith.
   b The tenant has complained to the landlord of a violation under section 562B 16.
   c The tenant has organized or become a member of a tenant's union or similar organization.
   d For exercising any of the rights and remedies pursuant to this chapter.

2 If the landlord acts in violation of subsection 1 of this section, the tenant is entitled to the remedies provided in section 562B 24 and has a defense in an action for possession. In an action by or against the tenant, evidence of a complaint within six months prior to the alleged act of retaliation creates a presumption that the landlord's conduct was in retaliation. The presumption does not arise if the tenant made the complaint after notice of termination of the rental agreement. For the purpose of this subsection, "presumption" means that the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact presumed unless and until evidence is introduced which would support a finding of its nonexistence.

3 Notwithstanding subsections 1 and 2 of this section, a landlord may bring an action for possession if either of the following occurs:
   a The violation of the applicable building or housing code was caused primarily by lack of reasonable care by the tenant or other person in the household or upon the premises with the tenant's consent.
   b The tenant is in default of rent three days after rent is due. The maintenance of the action does not release the landlord from liability under section 562B 22, subsection 2.

CHAPTER 563
WALLS IN COMMON

563.1 Resting wall on neighbor's land.
Where building lots have been surveyed and plats thereof recorded, anyone who is about to build contiguous to the land of another may, if there be no wall on the line between them, build a brick, reinforced concrete, or stone wall thereon, when the whole thickness of such wall above the cellar wall does not exceed eighteen inches exclusive of the plastering, and rest one-half thereof on the adjoining land, but the adjoining owner shall not be compelled to contribute to the expense of building said wall.

563.2 Contribution by adjoining owner.
If the adjoining owner contributes one-half of the expense of building such wall, then it is a wall in common between them, but if the adjoining owner refuses to contribute, the adjoining owner shall have the right to make it a wall in common by paying to the person who erected or maintained it one half of its appraised value at the time of using it.

563.3 Openings in walls.
No wall shall be built by any person partly on the land of another with any openings therewen, and every §563.3  sepa-rating wall between buildings shall, as high as the upper part of the first story, be presumed to be a wall in common, if there be no titles, proof, or mark to the contrary, and if any wall is erected which, under the provisions of this chapter, becomes, or may become, at the option of another, a wall in common, such person shall not be compelled to contribute to the expense of closing any openings therein, but shall be done at the expense of the owner of such wall.

§563.4  Repairs — apportionment.

The repairs and rebuilding of walls in common are to be made at the expense of all who have a right to them, and in proportion to the interest of each therein, but every coproprietor of a wall in common may be exonerated from contributing to the same by giving up the coproprietor’s right in common, if no building belonging to that person is actually supported by such wall.

§563.5  Beams, joists and flues.

Every coproprietor may build against a wall held in common, and cause beams or joists to be placed thereon, and in proportion to the interest of each therein, but no evidence thereof shall be competent unless in writing, signed by the parties thereto or their lawfully authorized agents, or the guardian of either, if a minor, who shall have full authority to act for the guardian’s ward in all matters relating to walls in common without an order of court therefor.

§563.6  Increasing height of wall.

Every coproprietor may increase the height of a wall in common at the coproprietor’s sole expense, and the additional thickness of the wall must be placed entirely on that person’s own land.

§563.7  Rebuilding in order to heighten.

If the wall so held in common cannot support the wall to be raised upon it, one who wishes to have it made higher must rebuild it anew and at that person’s own expense, and the additional thickness of the wall must be placed entirely on that person’s own land.

§563.8  Heightened wall made common.

The person who did not contribute to the heightening of a wall held in common may cause the raised part to become common by paying one-half of the appraised value of raising it, and half the value of the ground occupied by the additional thickness thereof, if any ground was so occupied.

§563.9  Paying for share of adjoining wall.

Every coproprietor joining a wall has the right of making it a wall in common, in whole or in part, by repaying to the owner thereof one-half of its value, or one-half of the part which the proprietor wishes to hold in common, and one-half of the value of the ground on which it is built, if the person who has built it has laid the foundation entirely upon the person’s own ground.

§563.10  Openings in walls — fixtures.

Adjoining owners of walls held in common shall not make openings or cavities therein, nor affix nor attach thereto any work or structure, without the consent of the other, or upon the other’s refusal, without having taken all necessary precautions to guard against injury to the rights of the other, to be ascertained by persons skilled in building.

§563.11  Disputes — delay — bonds.

No dispute between adjoining owners as to the amount to be paid by one or the other, by reason of any of the matters provided in this chapter, shall delay the execution of the provisions of the same, if the party on whom the claim is made shall enter into bonds, with security, to the satisfaction of the clerk of the district court of the proper county, conditioned that that party shall pay to the claimant whatever may be found to be due on the settlement of the matter between them, either in a court of justice or elsewhere; upon the presentation of such a bond, the clerk shall endorse approval thereon, and retain the same until demanded by the party for whose benefit it is executed.

§563.12  Special agreements — evidence.

This chapter shall not prevent adjoining proprietors from entering into special agreements about walls on the lines between them, but no evidence thereof shall be competent unless in writing, signed by the parties thereto or their lawfully authorized agents, or the guardian of either, if a minor, who shall have full authority to act for the guardian’s ward in all matters relating to walls in common without an order of court therefor.

CHAPTER 564

EASEMENTS

564.1 Adverse possession — "use" as evidence.

In all actions hereafter brought, in which title to any easement in real estate shall be claimed by virtue of adverse possession thereof for the period of ten years, the use of the same shall not be admitted as evidence that the party claimed the easement as the party's right, but the fact of adverse possession shall be established by evidence distinct from and independent of its use, and that the party against whom the claim is made had express notice thereof; and these provisions shall apply to public as well as private claims.

564.2 Light and air.

Whoever has erected, or may erect, any house or other building near the land of another person, with windows overlooking such land, shall not, by the mere continuance of such windows, acquire any easement of light or air, so as to prevent the erection of any building on such land.

564.3 Footway.

No right of footway, except claimed in connection with a right to pass with carriages, shall be acquired by prescription or adverse use for any length of time.

564.4 Notice to prevent acquisition.

When any person is in the use of a way, privilege, or other easement in the land of another, the owner of the land in such case may give notice in writing to the person claiming or using the way, privilege, or easement of the owner's intention to dispute any right arising from such claim or use.

564.5 Effect of notice.

Said notice, when served and recorded as hereinafter provided, shall be an interruption of such use, and prevent the acquiring of any right thereto by the continuance thereof.

564.6 Notice, service and record.

Said notice, signed by the owner of the land, the owner's agent, or guardian, may be served in the same manner as in a civil action, upon the party, the party's agent, or guardian, if within this state, otherwise on the tenant or occupant, if there be any, and it, with the return thereof, shall be recorded within three months thereafter in the recorder's office of the county in which the land is situated.

564.7 Evidence.

A certified copy of such record of said notice and the officer's return thereon shall be evidence of the notice and the service thereof.

564.8 Action to establish.

When notice is given to prevent the acquisition of a right to a way or other easement, it shall be considered so far a disturbance thereof as to enable the party claiming to bring an action for disturbing the same in order to try such right, and if the plaintiff in the action prevails, the plaintiff shall recover costs.

[C73, §2038; C97, §3011; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10182; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §564.8]
CHAPTER 564A
ACCESS TO SOLAR ENERGY

564A.1 Purpose.
It is the purpose of this chapter to facilitate the orderly development and use of solar energy by establishing and providing certain procedures for obtaining access to solar energy [81 Acts, ch 184, §3]

564A.2 Definitions.
As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires
1 “Solar access easement” means an easement recorded under section 564A 7, the purpose of which is to provide continued access to incident sunlight necessary to operate a solar collector
2 “Solar energy” means energy emitted from the sun and collected in the form of heat or light by a solar collector
3 “Solar collector” means a device or structural feature of a building that collects solar energy and that is part of a system for the collection, storage, and distribution of solar energy. For purposes of this chapter, a greenhouse is a solar collector
4 “Development of property” means construction, landscaping, growth of vegetation, or other alteration of property that interferes with the operation of a solar collector
5 “Dominant estate” means that parcel of land to which the benefits of a solar access easement attach 6 “Servient estate” means land burdened by a solar access easement, other than the dominant estate
7 “Solar access regulatory board” means the board designated by a city council or county board of supervisors under section 564A 3 to receive and act on applications for a solar access easement or in the absence of a specific designation, the district court having jurisdiction in the area where the dominant estate is located. Notwithstanding chapter 602 the jurisdiction of the district court established in this subsection may be exercised by district associate judges [81 Acts, ch 184, §4]

564A.3 Designation.
The city council or the county board of supervisors may designate a solar access regulatory board to receive and act on applications for a solar access easement. The board designated by the city council may be a board of adjustment having jurisdiction in the city, the city council itself, or any board with at least three members. The board designated by the county board of supervisors may be a board of adjustment having jurisdiction in the county, the board of supervisors itself, or any other board with at least three members. The jurisdiction of a board designated by the city council extends to applications when the dominant estate is located in the city. The jurisdiction of a board designated by the county board of supervisors extends to applications when the dominant estate is located in the county but outside the city limits of a city. In the absence of the designation of a specific board under this section, the district court having jurisdiction in the area where the dominant estate is located shall receive and act on applications submitted under section 564A 4 and to that extent shall serve as the solar access regulatory board for purposes of this chapter. Notwithstanding chapter 602 the jurisdiction of the district court established in this section may be exercised by district associate judges [81 Acts, ch 184, §5]

564A.4 Application for solar access easement.
1 An owner of property may apply to the solar access regulatory board designated under section 564A 3 for an order granting a solar access easement. The application must be filed before installation or construction of the solar collector. The application shall state the following a A statement of the need for the solar access easement by the owner of the dominant estate
   b A legal description of the dominant and servient estates
   c The name and address of the dominant and servient estate owners of record d A description of the solar collector to be used e The size and location of the collector, including heights, its orientation with respect to south, and its slope from the horizontal shown either by drawings or in words
   f An explanation of how the applicant has done everything reasonable, taking cost and efficiency into account, to design and locate the collector in a manner to minimize the impact on development of servient estates
   g A legal description of the solar access easement which is sought and a drawing that is a spatial representation of the area of the servient estate burdened by the easement illustrating the degrees of the vertical and horizontal angles through which the easement extends over the burdened property and the points from which those angles are measured

1. A statement that the applicant has attempted to voluntarily negotiate a solar access easement with the owner of the servient estate and has been unsuccessful in obtaining the easement voluntarily

2. A statement that the space to be burdened by the solar access easement is not obstructed at the time of filing of the application by anything other than vegetation that would shade the solar collector

3. Upon receipt of the application the solar access regulatory board shall determine whether the application is complete and contains the information required under subsection 1. The board may return an application for correction of any deficiencies. Upon acceptance of an application the board shall schedule a hearing. The board shall cause a copy of the application and a notice of the hearing to be served upon the owners of the servient estates in the manner provided for service of original notice and at least twenty days prior to the date of the hearing. The notice shall state that the solar access regulatory board will determine whether and to what extent a solar access easement will be granted, that it will determine the compensation that may be awarded to the servient estate owner if the solar access easement is granted and that the servient estate owner has the right to contest the application before the board.

4. The applicant shall pay all costs incurred by the solar access regulatory board in copying and mailing the application and notice.

5. An application for a solar access easement submitted to the district court acting as the solar access regulatory board under this chapter is not subject to the small claims procedures under chapter 631.

564A.5 Decision.

1. After the hearing on the application, the solar access regulatory board shall determine whether to issue an order granting a solar access easement. The board shall grant a solar access easement if the board finds that there is a need for the solar collector, that the space burdened by the easement was not obstructed by anything except vegetation that would shade the solar collector at the time of filing of the application, that the proposed location of the collector minimizes the impact of the easement on the development of the servient estate and that the applicant tried and failed to negotiate a voluntary easement. However, the board may refuse to grant a solar access easement upon a finding that the easement would require the removal of trees that provide shade or a windbreak to a residence on the servient estate. The board shall not grant a solar access easement upon a servient estate if the board finds that the owner, at least sixty months prior to the filing of the application, has made a substantial financial commitment to build a structure that will shade the solar collector. In issuing its order granting the solar access easement, the board may impose conditions on the location of the solar collector that will minimize the impact upon the servient estate.

2. The solar access regulatory board shall grant a solar access easement only within the area that is within three hundred feet of the center of the north ernmost boundary of the collector and is south of a line drawn east and west tangent to the northernmost boundary of the collector.

3. The solar access regulatory board shall determine the amount of compensation that is to be paid to the owners of the servient estate for the impairment of the right to develop the property. Compensation shall be based on the difference between the fair market value of the property prior to and after granting the solar access easement. The parties shall be notified of the board's decision within thirty days of the date of the hearing. The owner of the servient estate shall have thirty days from the date of notification of the board's decision to deposit the compensation with the board. Upon receipt of the compensation, the board shall issue an order granting the solar access easement to the owner of the servient estate and remit the compensation awarded to the owners of the servient estate.

4. When the order granting the solar access easement is issued, the owner of the servient estate shall have it recorded in the office of the county recorder who shall record the solar access easement and list the owner of the servient estate as grantor and the owner of the servient estate as grantee in the deed index. The solar access easement after being recorded shall be considered an easement appurtenant in or on the servient estate.

564A.6 Removal of easement.

The owner of a servient estate may apply to the solar access regulatory board or may petition the district court for an order removing a solar access easement granted by a solar access regulatory board under this chapter under any of the following conditions:

1. If the solar collector is not installed and made operational within two years of recording the easement under section 564A.

2. If the servient estate owner ceases to use the solar collector for more than one year.

3. If the solar collector is destroyed or removed and not replaced within one year.

The procedure for filing an application with the solar access regulatory board under this section and for notice and hearings on the application shall be the same as that prescribed for an application for granting a solar access easement. An order issued by the district court or the solar access regulatory board removing a solar access easement may provide for the return by the servient estate owner of compensation paid by the servient estate owner for the solar access easement after the deduction of reasonable expenses incurred by the servient estate owner in proceedings for the granting and removal of the easement.

564A.7 Solar access easements.

1. Persons, including public bodies, may voluntarily agree to create a solar access easement. A solar access easement whether obtained voluntarily or pursuant to the order of a solar access regulatory board is subject to the same recording and conveyance requirements as other easements.

2. A solar access easement shall be created in writing and shall include the following:
   (a) The legal description of the dominant and servient estates
   (b) A legal description of the space which must remain unobstructed expressed in terms of the degrees of the vertical and horizontal angles through which the solar access easement extends over the burdened property and the points from which these angles are measured

3. In addition to the items required in subsection 2, the solar access easement may include, but the contents are not limited to, the following:
   (a) Any limitations on the growth of existing and future vegetation or the height of buildings or other potential obstructions of the solar collector
   (b) Terms or conditions under which the solar access easement may be abandoned or terminated
   (c) Provisions for compensating the owner of the property benefiting from the solar access easement in the event of interference with the enjoyment of the solar access easement, or for compensating the owner of the property subject to the solar access easement for maintaining that easement

[81 Acts, ch 184, §9]

CHAPTER 565

GIFTS

565.1 Churches may lease.
Church organizations, occupying real property granted to them by the territory or state, may lease the same for business purposes, and occupy other real property with their church edifices, but all of the income derived from such leased real property shall be devoted to maintaining the religious exercises and or dinance of the church to which the grant was originally made, and to no other purpose, and such churches and their affairs shall remain in the control of boards of trustees regularly chosen in accordance with their charters

565.2 Taxation.
Real property so leased shall in all cases be subject to taxation, the same as the real property of natural persons

[C73, §1921, C97, §2902, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10184; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §565 2]

Tax exemptions generally §427 1

565.3 Gifts to state.
A gift, devise, or bequest of property, real or personal, may be made to the state, to be held in trust for and applied to any specified purpose within the scope of its authority, but the same shall not become effectual to pass the title in such property unless accepted by the governor on behalf of the state

565.12 Condition as to annuity 565.13 Annuity tax
565.14 Repealed by 81 Acts, ch 117, §1097
565.15 Surplus of tax

564A.8 Restrictive covenants.
City councils and county boards of supervisors may include in ordinances relating to subdivisions a provision prohibiting deeds for property located in new subdivisions from containing restrictive covenants that include unreasonable restrictions on the use of solar collectors

564A.9 Assistance to local government bodies and the public.
The department of natural resources shall make available information and guidelines to assist local government bodies and the public to understand and use the provisions of this chapter. The information and guidelines shall include an application form for a solar access easement, instructions and aids for preparing and recording solar access easements and model ordinances that promote reasonable access to solar energy

[81 Acts, ch 184, §11]
§565.15 SURPLUS OF TAX.

Any amount collected by a tax so levied and which is not required for the payment of such annuity shall be used for the purposes for which such gift or bequest is made and may be transferred to such fund as will enable it to be used for such purpose.

CHAPTER 565B
TRANSFERS TO MINORS

565B.1 Definitions

In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:
1. "Adult" means an individual who has attained the age of twenty-one years.
2. "Benefit plan" means an employer's plan for the benefit of an employee or partner.
3. "Broker" means a person lawfully engaged in the business of effecting transactions in securities or commodities for the person's own account or for the account of others.
4. "Conservator" means a person appointed or qualified by a court to act as general, limited, or temporary guardian of a minor's property or a person legally authorized to perform substantially the same functions.
5. "Court" means the supreme court, court of appeals, district courts, and other courts the general assembly establishes.
6. "Custodial property" means both of the following:
   a. Any interest in property transferred to a custodian under this chapter.
   b. The income from and proceeds of that interest in property.
7. "Custodian" means a person so designated under section 565B 9 or a successor or substitute custodian designated under section 565B 18.
8. "Financial institution" means a bank, trust company, savings institution, or credit union, chartered and supervised under state or federal law.
9. "Legal representative" means an individual's personal representative or conservator.
10. "Member of the minor's family" means the minor's parent, stepparent, spouse, grandparent, brother, sister, uncle, or aunt, whether of the whole or half blood or by adoption.
11. "Minor" means an individual who has not attained the age of twenty-one years.
12. "Personal representative" means an executor, administrator, successor personal representative, special administrator, or temporary administrator of a decedent's estate or a person legally authorized to perform substantially the same functions.
13. "State" includes any state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and any territory or possession subject to the legislative authority of the United States.
15. "Transferor" means a person who makes a transfer under this chapter.
16. "Trust company" means a financial institution, corporation, or other legal entity, authorized to exercise general trust powers.

86 Acts, ch 1035, §1

565B.2 Scope and jurisdiction.

1. This chapter applies to a transfer that refers to this chapter in the designation under section 565B 9, subsection 1, by which the transfer is made if at the time of the transfer, the transferor, the minor, or the custodian is a resident of this state or the custodial property is located in this state. The custodianship so created remains subject to this chapter despite a subsequent change in residence of a transferor, the minor, or the custodian, or the removal of custodial property from this state.
2. A person designated as custodian under this chapter is subject to personal jurisdiction in this state with respect to any matter relating to the custodianship.
3. A transfer that purports to be made and which is valid under the uniform transfer to minors Act, the uniform gifts to minors Act, or a substantially similar Act, of another state is governed by the law of the designated state and may be executed and is enforceable in this state if at the time of the transfer, the transferor, the minor, or the custodian is a resident of the designated state or the custodial property is located in the designated state.

565B.3 Nomination of custodian.
1. A person having the right to designate the recipient of property transferable upon the occurrence of a future event may revocably nominate a custodian to receive the property for a minor beneficiary upon the occurrence of the event by naming the custodian, followed in substance by the words: “as custodian for ................. (name of minor) under the Iowa Uniform Transfers to Minors Act”. The nomination may name one or more persons as substitute custodians to whom the property must be transferred, in the order named, if the first nominated custodian dies before the transfer or is unable, declines, or is ineligible to serve. The nomination may be made in a will, a trust, a deed, an instrument exercising a power of appointment, or in a writing designating a beneficiary of contractual rights which is registered with or delivered to the payor, issuer, or other obligor of the contractual rights.

2. A custodian nominated under this section must be a person to whom a transfer of property of that kind may be made under section 565B.9, subsection 1.

3. The nomination of a custodian under this section does not create custodial property until the nominating instrument becomes irrevocable or a transfer to the nominated custodian is completed under section 565B.9. Unless the nomination of a custodian has been revoked, upon the occurrence of the future event the custodianship becomes effective and the custodian shall enforce a transfer of the custodial property pursuant to section 565B.9.

86 Acts, ch 1035, §3

565B.4 Transfer by gift or exercise of power of appointment.
A person may make a transfer by irrevocable gift to, or the irrevocable exercise of a power of appointment in favor of, a custodian for the benefit of a minor pursuant to section 565B.9.

86 Acts, ch 1035, §4

565B.5 Transfer authorized by will or trust.
1. A personal representative or trustee may make an irrevocable transfer pursuant to section 565B.9 to a custodian for the benefit of a minor as authorized in the governing will or trust.

2. If the testator or settlor has nominated a custodian under section 565B.3 to receive the custodial property, the transfer must be made to that person.

3. If the testator or settlor has not nominated a custodian under section 565B.3, or all persons so nominated as custodian die before the transfer or are unable, decline, or are ineligible to serve, the personal representative or the trustee, as the case may be, shall designate the custodian from among those eligible to serve as custodian for property of that kind under section 565B.9, subsection 1.

4. A personal representative or trustee making a distribution under this section may do so without court order and, after effecting the distribution, is relieved of all accountability as a personal representative or trustee with respect to the property distributed.

86 Acts, ch 1035, §5

565B.6 Other transfers by fiduciary.
1. Subject to subsection 3, a personal representative or trustee may make an irrevocable transfer to another adult or trust company as custodian for the benefit of a minor pursuant to section 565B.9, in the absence of a will or under a will or trust that does not contain an authorization to do so.

2. Subject to subsection 3, a conservator may make an irrevocable transfer to another adult or trust company as custodian for the benefit of a minor pursuant to section 565B.9.

3. A transfer under subsection 1 or 2 may be made only if all of the following are true:
   a. The personal representative, trustee, or conservator considers the transfer to be in the best interest of the minor.
   b. The transfer is not prohibited by or inconsistent with provisions of the applicable will, trust agreement, or other governing instrument.
   c. The transfer is authorized by the court if all transfers (including the transfer to be made and prior transfers) exceed ten thousand dollars in value. Transfers by a personal representative, trustee, or conservator shall not be aggregated, but each personal representative, trustee, or conservator shall be treated separately.

4. A personal representative, trustee, or conservator making a distribution under this section is relieved of all accountability as a personal representative, trustee, or conservator with respect to the property once the property has been distributed.

86 Acts, ch 1035, §6

565B.7 Transfer by obligor.
1. Subject to subsections 2 and 3, a person not subject to section 565B.5 or 565B.6 who holds property of, or owes a liquidated debt to, a minor not having a conservator, may make an irrevocable transfer to a custodian for the benefit of the minor pursuant to section 565B.9.

2. If a person having the right to do so under section 565B.3 has nominated a custodian under that section to receive the custodial property, the transfer must be made to that person.

3. If no custodian has been nominated under section 565B.3, or all persons so nominated as custodian die before the transfer or are unable, decline, or are ineligible to serve, a transfer under this section may be made to an adult member of the minor’s family or to a trust company unless the property exceeds ten thousand dollars in value.

4. A person making a distribution under this section is relieved of all accountability with respect to the property once the property has been distributed.

86 Acts, ch 1035, §7

565B.8 Receipt for custodial property.
A written acknowledgement of delivery by a custodian constitutes a sufficient receipt and discharge for custodial property transferred to the custodian pursuant to this chapter.

86 Acts, ch 1035, §8
§565B.9 Manner of creating custodial property and effecting transfer — designation of initial custodian — control.

1. Custodial property is created and a transfer is made whenever
   a. An uncertificated security or a certificated security in registered form is either
      (1) Registered in the name of the transferor, an adult other than the transferee, or a trust company, followed in substance by the words “as custodian for (name of minor) under the Iowa Uniform Transfers to Minors Act”, or
      (2) Delivered if in certificated form, or any document necessary for the transfer of an uncertificated security is delivered, together with any necessary endorsement to an adult other than the transferee or to a trust company as custodian, accompanied by an instrument in substantially the form set forth in subsection 2,
   b. Money is paid or delivered to a broker or financial institution for credit to an account in the name of the transferor, an adult other than the transferee, or a trust company, followed in substance by the words “as custodian for (name of minor) under the Iowa Uniform Transfers to Minors Act”,
   c. The ownership of a life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract is either
      (1) Registered with the issuer in the name of the transferee, an adult other than the transferee, or a trust company, followed in substance by the words “as custodian for (name of minor) under the Iowa Uniform Transfers to Minors Act”,
      (2) Assigned in writing delivered to an adult other than the transferee or to a trust company whose name in the assignment is followed in substance by the words “as custodian for (name of minor) under the Iowa Uniform Transfers to Minors Act”,
   d. An irrevocable exercise of a power of appoint ment or an irrevocable present right to future payment under a contract is the subject of a written notification delivered to the payor, issuer, or other obligor that the right is transferred to the transferee, an adult other than the transferee, or a trust company, whose name in the notification is followed in substance by the words “as custodian for (name of minor) under the Iowa Uniform Transfers to Minors Act”,
   e. An interest in real property is recorded in the name of the transferee, an adult other than the transferee, or a trust company, followed in substance by the words “as custodian for (name of minor) under the Iowa Uniform Transfers to Minors Act”,
   f. An interest in any property not described in paragraphs “a” through “e” is transferred to an adult other than the transferee or to a trust company by a written instrument in substantially the form set forth in subsection 2
   An interest in any property as used in this paragraph does not include a certificate of title issued by a department or agency of a state or of the United States which evidences title to tangible personal property
   2. An instrument in the following form satisfies the requirements of subsection 1, paragraph “a”, sub paragraph (2), and paragraph “f”

“TRANSFER UNDER THE IOWA UNIFORM TRANSFERS TO MINORS ACT

I, (name of transferor or name and representative capacity if a fiduciary) hereby transfer to (name of custodian), as custodian for (name of minor) under the Iowa Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, the following (insert a description of the custodial property sufficient to identify it)

Dated

(signature)

(name of custodian) acknowledges receipt of the property described above as custodian for the minor named above under the Iowa Uniform Transfers to Minors Act

Dated

(signature of custodian)"

3. A transferor shall place the custodian in control of the custodial property as soon as practicable

86 Acts, ch 1035, §9

§565B.10 Single custodianship.

A transfer may be made only for one minor, and only one person may be the custodian. All custodial property held under this chapter by the same custodian for the benefit of the same minor constitutes a single custodianship

86 Acts, ch 1035, §10

§565B.11 Validity and effect of transfer.

1. The validity of a transfer made in a manner prescribed in this chapter is not affected by a. The failure of the transferor to comply with section 565B.9, subsection 3, concerning possession and control,
   b. The designation of an ineligible custodian, except designation of the custodian in the case of property for which the transferor is ineligible to serve as custodian under section 565B.9, subsection 1, or
   c. The death or incapacity of a person nominated under section 565B.3 or designated under section 565B.9 as custodian or the disclaimer of the office by that person
   2. A transfer made pursuant to section 565B.9 is irrevocable, and the custodial property is indefeasibly vested in the minor, but the custodian has all the rights, powers, duties, and authority provided in this chapter, and neither the minor nor the minor’s legal representative has any right, power, duty, or authority with respect to the custodial property except as provided in this chapter
   3. By making a transfer, the transferor incorpo rates in the disposition all the provisions of this chapter and grants to the custodian and to any third person dealing with a person designated as custodian the respective powers, rights, and immunities provided in this chapter

565B.12 Care of custodial property.

1. A custodian shall
   a. Take control of custodial property,
   b. Register or record title to custodial property if appropriate, and
   c. Collect, hold, manage, invest, and reinvest custodial property.

2. In dealing with custodial property, a custodian shall observe the standard of care that would be observed by a prudent person dealing with property of another and is not limited by any other statute restricting investments by fiduciaries. If a custodian has a special skill or expertise or is named custodian on the basis of representations of a special skill or expertise, the custodian shall use that skill or expertise. However, a custodian, at the custodian's discretion and without liability to the minor or the minor's estate, may retain any custodial property received from a transferor.

3. A custodian may invest in or pay premiums on life insurance or endowment policies on
   a. The life of the minor, only if the minor or the minor's estate is the sole beneficiary, or
   b. The life of another person in whom the minor has an insurable interest, only to the extent that the minor, the minor's estate, or the custodian in the capacity of custodian, is the irrevocable beneficiary.

4. A custodian at all times shall keep custodial property separate and distinct from other property in a manner sufficient to identify it clearly as custodial property of the minor. Custodial property consisting of an undivided interest is so identified if the minor's interest is held as a tenant in common and is fixed. Custodial property subject to recordation is so identified if it is recorded, and custodial property subject to registration is so identified if it is either registered, or held in an account designated, in the name of the custodian, followed in substance by the words "as a custodian for (name of minor) under the Iowa Uniform Transfers to Minors Act".

5. A custodian shall keep records of all transactions with respect to custodial property, including information necessary for the preparation of the minor's tax returns, and shall make them available for inspection at reasonable intervals by a parent or the legal representative of the minor or by the minor if the minor has attained the age of fourteen years.

66 Acts, ch 1035, §12

565B.13 Powers of custodian.

1. A custodian, acting in a custodial capacity, has all the rights, powers, and authority over custodial property that unemancipated adult owners have over their own property, but a custodian may exercise those rights, powers, and authority in that capacity only.

2. This section does not relieve a custodian from liability for breach of section 565B.12.

66 Acts, ch 1035, §13

565B.14 Use of custodial property.

1. A custodian may deliver or pay to the minor or expend for the minor's benefit so much of the custodial property as the custodian considers advisable for the use and benefit of the minor, without court order and without regard to a. The duty or ability of the custodian personally or of any other person to support the minor, or
   b. Any other income or property of the minor which may be applicable or available for that purpose.

2. On petition of an interested person or the minor if the minor has attained the age of fourteen years, the court may order the custodian to deliver or pay to the minor or expend for the minor's benefit so much of the custodial property as the court considers advisable for the use and benefit of the minor.

96 Acts, ch 1035, §14

565B.15 Custodian's expenses, compensation, and bond.

1. A custodian is entitled to reimbursement from custodial property for reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of the custodian's duties.

2. Except for one who is a transferor under section 565B.4, a custodian has a noncumulative election during each calendar year to charge reasonable compensation for services performed during that year.

3. Except as provided in section 565B.18, subsection 6, a custodian need not give a bond.

66 Acts, ch 1035, §15

565B.16 Exemption of third person from liability.

A third person in good faith and without court order may act on the instructions of or otherwise deal with any person purporting to make a transfer or purporting to act in the capacity of a custodian and, in the absence of knowledge, is not responsible for determining

1. The validity of the purported custodian's designation,

2. The propriety of, or the authority under this chapter for, any act of the purported custodian,

3. The validity or propriety under this chapter of any instrument or instructions executed or given either by the person purporting to make a transfer or by the purported custodian, or

4. The propriety of the application of any property of the minor delivered to the purported custodian.

66 Acts, ch 1035, §16

565B.17 Liability to third persons.

1. A claim based on
   a. A contract entered into by a custodian acting in a custodial capacity,

2. An obligation arising from the ownership or control of custodial property, or

3. A tort committed during the custodianship, may be asserted against the custodial property by proceeding against the custodian in the custodial capacity, whether or not the custodian or the minor is personally liable therefor.

2. A custodian is not personally liable
   a. On a contract properly entered into in the custodial capacity unless the custodian fails to reveal that capacity and to identify the custodianship in the contract, or

3. For an obligation arising from control of custodial property or for a tort committed during the custodianship unless the custodian is personally at fault.
§565B.17

3. A minor is not personally liable for an obligation arising from ownership of custodial property or for a tort committed during the custodianship unless the minor is personally at fault.

86 Acts, ch 1035, §17

565B.18 Renunciation, resignation, death, or removal of custodian — designation of successor custodian.

1. A person nominated under section 565B.3 or designated under section 565B.9 as custodian may decline to serve by delivering a valid disclaimer to the person who made the nomination or to the transferor or the transferor’s legal representative. If the event giving rise to a transfer has not occurred and no substitute custodian able, willing, and eligible to serve was nominated under section 565B.3, the person who made the nomination may nominate a substitute custodian under section 565B.3; otherwise, the transferor or the transferor’s legal representative shall designate a substitute custodian at the time of the transfer, in either case from among the persons eligible to serve as custodian for that kind of property under section 565B.9, subsection 1. The custodian so designated has the rights of a successor custodian.

2. A custodian at any time may designate a trust company or an adult other than a transferor under section 565B.4 as successor custodian by executing and dating an instrument of designation before a subscribing witness other than the successor. If the instrument of designation does not contain or is not accompanied by the resignation of the custodian, the designation of the successor does not take effect until the custodian resigns, dies, becomes incapacitated, or is removed.

3. A custodian may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the minor if the minor has attained the age of fourteen years and to the successor custodian and by delivering the custodial property to the successor custodian.

4. If a custodian is ineligible, dies, or becomes incapacitated without having effectively designated a successor and the minor has attained the age of fourteen years, the minor may designate as successor custodian, in the manner prescribed in subsection 2, an adult member of the minor’s family, a conservator of the minor, or a trust company. If the minor has not attained the age of fourteen years or fails to act within sixty days after the ineligibility, death, or incapacity, the conservator of the minor becomes successor custodian. If the minor has no conservator or the conservator declines to act, the transferor, the legal representative of the transferor or of the custodian, an adult member of the minor’s family, or any other interested person may petition the court to designate a successor custodian.

5. A custodian who declines to serve under subsection 1 or resigns under subsection 3, or the legal representative of a deceased or incapacitated custodian, as soon as practicable, shall put the custodial property and records in the possession and control of the successor custodian. The successor custodian by action may enforce the obligation to deliver custodial property and records and becomes responsible for each item as received.

6. A transferor, the legal representative of a transferor, an adult member of the minor’s family, a guardi-
2. This chapter applies to all transfers made before July 1, 1986, in a manner and form prescribed in chapter 565A, Code 1985, the Iowa uniform gifts to minors Act, except insofar as the application impairs constitutionally vested rights.
86 Acts, ch 1035, §22
Effect of repeal of ch 565A: 96 Acts, ch 1035, §26

565B.23 Uniformity of application and construction.
This chapter shall be applied and construed to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law with respect to the subject of this chapter among states enacting it.
86 Acts, ch 1035, §23

566.1 Trustee appointed — trust funds.
The owners of, or any party interested in, any cemetery may, by petition presented to the district court of the county where the cemetery is situated, have a trustee appointed with authority to receive any and all moneys or property that may be donated for and on account of said cemetery and to invest, manage, and control same under the direction of the court; but the trustee shall not be authorized to receive any gift, except with the understanding that the principal sum is to be a permanent fund, and only the net proceeds therefrom to be used in carrying out the purpose of the trust created, and all such funds shall be exempt from taxation.

566.2 Requisites of petition.
Such petition may state the amount proposed to be placed in such trust fund, the manner of investment thereof, the provisions made for the disposition of any surplus income not required for the care and upkeep of the property described in such petition.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10198; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566.2]
§566.3 Approval of court — surplus fund.
Such provisions shall all be subject to the approval of the court and when so approved the trust fund and the trustee thereof shall, at all times, be subject to the orders and control of the court and such surplus arising from said fund shall not be used except for charitable, eleemosynary, or public purposes under the direction of the court.

§566.4 Receipt — cemetery record.
Every such trustee shall execute and deliver to the donor a receipt showing the amount of money or other property received, and the use to be made of the net proceeds from same, duly attested by the clerk of the court granting letters of trusteeship, and a copy thereof, signed by the trustee and so attested, shall be filed with and recorded by the clerk in a book to be known as the cemetery record, in which shall be recorded all reports and other papers, including orders made by the court relative to cemetery matters.

§566.5 Investments.
Any such trustee shall have authority to receive and invest all moneys and property, so donated or bequeathed, and that portion of cemetery lot sales and permanent charges made against cemetery lots which has been set aside in a perpetual care fund, in such authorized investments and in the manner prescribed in section 682.23 or as the same may be hereafter amended.
[S13, §254-a6; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10202, 10203; C46, 50, 54, 58, §566.5, 566-6; C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566.5]

§566.6 Repealed by 58GA, ch 343, §1. See §566.5.

§566.7 Bond — approval — oath.
Every such trustee before entering upon the discharge of the trustee's duties or at any time thereafter when required by the court, must give bond in such penalty as may be required by the court, approved by the clerk, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the trustee's duties, and take and subscribe an oath the same in substance as the condition of the bond, which bond and oath must be filed with the clerk.
[S13, §254-a7; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10204; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566.7]

§566.8 Clerk — duty of.
It shall be the duty of the clerk at the time of filing each such receipt, to at once advise the court as to the amount of the principal fund in the hands of such trustee, the amount of bond filed, and whether it is good and sufficient for the amount given.

§566.9 Compensation — costs.
Such trustee shall serve without compensation, but may, out of the income received, pay all proper items of expense incurred in the performance of the trustee's duties, including cost of bond, if any.
[S13, §254-a9; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10206; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566.9]

§566.10 Annual report.
Such trustee shall make full report of the trustee's doings in the month of January following appointment and in January of each successive year. In each of said reports the trustee shall apportion the net proceeds received from the sum total of the permanent fund and make proper credit to each of the separate funds assigned to the trustee in trust.
[S13, §254-a10; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10207; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566.10]

§566.11 Removal — vacancy filled.
Any such trustee may be removed by the court at any time for cause, and in the event of removal or death, the court must appoint a new trustee and require the new trustee's predecessor or the predecessor's personal representative to make full accounting.
[S13, §254-a11; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10208; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566.11]

§566.12 County auditor as trustee.
In case no trustee is appointed, or if so appointed does not qualify, then such funds, or any funds donated by any person or estate to improvement of cemeteries, unless otherwise provided by law, shall be placed in the hands of the county auditor, who shall receive for, loan, and make annual reports of such funds in such manner as provided in this chapter.
[SS15, §254-a12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10209; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566.12]

§566.13 Accounting.
The said auditor shall annually turn over the accrued interest in the auditor's hands to the cemetery association or other person having control of the cemetery entitled thereto, who shall use the same in carrying out the provisions of said trust, and who shall file a written report annually with the county auditor.
[SS15, §254-a12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10210; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566.13]

MANAGEMENT BY MUNICIPALITIES

§566.14 Municipal corporation as trustee.
Counties, cities, irrespective of their form of government, boards of trustees of cities to whom the management of municipal cemeteries has been transferred by ordinance, and civil townsips wholly outside of any city, shall be and they are hereby created trustees in perpetuity, and are required to accept, receive, and expend all moneys and property donated or left to them by bequest, and that portion of cemetery lot sales or permanent charges made against cemetery lots which has been set aside in a perpetual care fund, to be used in caring for the property of the donor, or lot owner who by purchase or otherwise has provided for the perpetual care of a cemetery lot in any cemetery, or in accordance with the terms of such donation, bequest, or agreement for sale and purchase of a cemetery lot, and the money or property thus received shall be used for no other purpose.
[S13, §740; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10211; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566.14]
566.15 Authority to invest funds.

The board of supervisors, mayor and council, or board of trustees, as the case may be, shall have authority to receive and invest all moneys and property, so donated or bequeathed, and that portion of cemetery lot sales and permanent charges made against cemetery lots which has been set aside in a perpetual care fund in such authorized investments and in the manner prescribed in section 682.23, or as the same may be hereafter amended. Such money must be invested at the market value of such securities, and they shall use the income from such investment in caring for the property of the donor in any cemetery, or as shall be provided in the terms of such gift or donations or agreement for sale and purchase of a cemetery lot.

566.16 Resolution of acceptance — interest.

Before any part of the principal may be so invested or used, the county, city, board of trustees of a city to whom the management of a municipal cemetery has been transferred by ordinance, or civil township shall, by resolution, accept the donation or bequest, and that portion of cemetery lot sales or permanent charges made against cemetery lots which is to be used for perpetual care of cemetery lots, and, by resolution, shall provide for the payment of interest annually to the appropriate fund, or to the cemetery association, or to the person having charge of the cemetery, to be used in caring for or maintaining the individual property of the donor in the cemetery, or lots which have been sold if provision was made for perpetual care, all in accordance with the terms of the donation or bequest, or the terms of the sale or purchase of a cemetery lot.

In case there is no cemetery association then the income from said fund shall be expended under the direction of the board of supervisors in accordance with the terms of said donation or bequest, or the terms of the sale or purchase of a cemetery lot.

[S13, §740; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10213; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §566.16; 81 Acts, ch 117, §1091]

566.17 Delegates to conventions.

A township having a cemetery under its control may delegate not to exceed two officials from each cemetery controlled to attend meetings of cemetery officials, and certain expenses, including association dues, not to exceed twenty-five dollars, of the delegates may be paid out of the cemetery fund of the township.

[C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §566.17; 81 Acts, ch 117, §1092]

566.18 Subscribing to publications.

The cemetery officials of every township having a cemetery under its control may subscribe to one or more publications devoted exclusively to cemetery management, and the subscriptions may be paid out of the cemetery fund of the township.

[C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §566.18; 81 Acts, ch 117, §1093]

566.19 Settlement of estates — maintenance fund.

The court in which the estate of any deceased person is administered, before final distribution, may allow and set apart from such estate, a sum sufficient to provide an income adequate to perpetual pay for the care and upkeep of the cemetery lot upon which the body of the deceased is buried, except where perpetual care has otherwise been provided for. The sum so allowed and set apart shall be paid to a trustee as provided by this chapter.

[C27, 31, 35, §10213-a1; C39, §10213.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566.19]

566.20 Reversion.

The ownership or right in or to an unoccupied cemetery lot or portion thereof shall upon abandonment revert to the person or corporation having ownership and charge of the cemetery containing such lots.

[C31, 35, §10213-d1; C39, §10213.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566.20]

566.21 Presumption of abandonment.

The continued failure to maintain or care for a cemetery lot for a period of ten years shall create and establish the presumption that the same has been abandoned.

[C31, 35, §10213-d2; C39, §10213.3; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566.21]

566.22 Notice of abandonment.

Abandonment shall not be deemed complete unless after such ten-year period there shall have been given by the reversionary owner to the recorded owner, or if the recorded owner is deceased or the recorded owner's whereabouts are unknown, to the heirs of such deceased, notice declaring the lot to be abandoned.

[C31, 35, §10213-d3; C39, §10213.4; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566.22]

566.23 Service of notice.

The notice may be served personally on the owner or the owner's heirs, or may be served by the mailing of the notice by certified mail to the owner, or the owner's heirs as the case may be, to their last known address. In the event that the address of the owner or the owner's heirs cannot be ascertained, then notice of such abandonment shall be by one publication in the official newspaper of the county, in which the cemetery is located.

[C31, 35, §10213-d4; C39, §10213.5; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566.23]

566.24 Notice of nonabandonment — effect.

If within one year from the time of serving such notice the recorded owner or the owner's heirs shall pay the past due annual care charges against the lot, then shall the presumption of abandonment no longer exist.

§566.25  Reversioner’s right to sell.
In case the abandonment has been complete as herein provided the reversionary owner of the abandoned lot or portion thereof may sell the same and convey title thereto.
[C31, 35, §10213-d6, C39, §10213.7; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566 25]

§566.26  Use of fund.
Any funds realized from the sale of such lots or portions thereof shall constitute a fund to be used solely for the perpetual care and upkeep of such lot or portion of lot so sold and likewise any occupied portion thereof.
[C31, 35, §10213 d7, C39, §10213.8; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566 26]

§566.27  Applicability of statute.
Sections 566 20 to 566 26 shall not apply to a cemetery lot or tract for which perpetual care has been provided by will, by order of court or by contract with the original grantor.
[C31, 35, §10213 d8, C39, §10213.9; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566 27]

PROTECTION OF SITES MEMORIALS

§566.31  Burial sites.
If a governmental subdivision or agency is notified of the existence of a marked burial site within its jurisdiction, and the burial site is not otherwise provided for under this chapter or chapter 305A or 566A, it shall as soon as practicable notify the owner of the land upon which the burial site is located of the site’s existence and location. The notification shall include an explanation of the provisions contained within section 566.32.
86 Acts, ch 1030, §1

§566.32  Disturbance of burial sites — penalty.
A person who knowingly and without authorization removes, destroys, or otherwise disturbs a burial site for which the person received notification under section 566.31 commits a simple misdemeanor.
86 Acts, ch 1030, §2

§566.33  Protection and preservation of burial sites.
A governmental subdivision or agency having a burial site within its jurisdiction, for which protection or preservation is not otherwise provided, shall preserve and protect the burial site as necessary to restore or maintain its physical integrity as a burial site. The governmental subdivision or agency may enter into an agreement with a public or private organization interested in historical preservation to delegate to the organization the responsibility for the protection and preservation of the burial site.
86 Acts, ch 1030, §3

§566.34  Confiscation and return of memorials.
A law enforcement officer having reason to believe that a grave memorial or burial memorial is in the possession of a person without authorization or right to possess the memorial may take possession of the memorial from that person and turn it over to the officer’s agency.
If a law enforcement agency determines that a memorial it has taken possession of rightfully belongs on a grave or burial site, the agency shall return the memorial to the site, or make arrangements with the agency having jurisdiction over the grave or burial site for the return of the memorial.

CEMETERY REGULATIONS

566A 1  Applicability of chapter
566A 2  Designation
566A 3  Guarantee fund
566A 4  Application to prior cemeteries
566A 5  Nonperpetual care cemeteries
566A 6  Perpetual care cemeteries
566A 7  Commission or bonus unlawful 566A 8  Discrimination prohibited
566A 9  Penalty
566A 10  Extent of offenses
566A 11  Speculation prohibited

566A.1  Applicability of chapter.
Any corporation or other form of organization orga in the business in the state of Iowa, of the ownership, maintenance or operation of a cemetery, providing lots or other interment space therein for the remains of human bodies, except such organizations which are churches or religious or established fraternal societies, or incorporated cities or other political subdivisions of the state of Iowa owning, maintaining or operating cemeteries, shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter.

566A.2 Designation.

All such organizations subject to the provisions of this chapter shall be, for the purposes hereof, designated either as “perpetual care cemeteries” or “nonperpetual care cemeteries.”

566A.3 Guarantee fund.

Any such organization subject to the provisions of this chapter which is organized or commences business in the state of Iowa after July 4, 1953 and desires to operate as a perpetual care cemetery shall, before selling or disposing of any interment space or lots, establish a minimum perpetual care and maintenance guarantee fund of twenty-five thousand dollars in cash. The perpetual care and maintenance guarantee fund shall be permanently set aside in trust to be administered under the jurisdiction of the district court of the county wherein the cemetery is located. The district court so having jurisdiction shall have full jurisdiction over the approval of trustees, reports and accounting of trustees, amount of surety bond required, and investment of funds. Only the income from such fund shall be used for the care and maintenance of the cemetery for which it was established.

To continue to operate as a perpetual care cemetery, any such organization shall set aside and deposit in the perpetual care fund not less than the following amounts for lots of interment space thereafter sold or disposed of:

1. A minimum of twenty percent of the gross selling price with a minimum of twenty dollars for each adult burial space, whichever is the greater.
2. A minimum of twenty percent of the gross selling price for each child's space with a minimum of five dollars for each space up to forty-two inches in length, or ten dollars for each space up to sixty inches in length, whichever is the greater.
3. A minimum of twenty percent of the gross selling price with a minimum of one hundred dollars for each crypt in a public mausoleum, whichever is the greater.
4. A minimum of twenty percent of the gross selling price with a minimum of ten dollars for each inurnment niche in a public columbarium.

The initial perpetual care fund established for any cemetery shall remain in an irrevocable trust fund until such time as this fund has reached fifty thousand dollars, when it may be withdrawn at the rate of one thousand dollars from the original twenty-five thousand dollars for each additional three thousand dollars added to the fund, until all of the twenty-five thousand dollars has been withdrawn.

566A.4 Application to prior cemeteries.

An organization subject to this chapter which was organized and engaged in business prior to July 4, 1953 is a perpetual care cemetery if it at all times subsequent to that date complies with the requirements of a perpetual care cemetery as set forth in section 566A.3.

[C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566A.4]

83 Acts, ch 101, §116

566A.5 Nonperpetual care cemeteries.

All other organizations subject to the provisions of this chapter shall be nonperpetual care cemeteries.

Each nonperpetual care cemetery shall post in a conspicuous place in the office or offices where sales are conducted a legible sign stating: “This is a nonperpetual care cemetery”. The lettering of this sign shall be of suitable size so it is easily read at a distance of fifty feet.

Each nonperpetual care cemetery shall also have printed or stamped at the head of all its contracts, deeds, statements, letterheads and advertising material, the legend: “This is a nonperpetual care cemetery”, and shall not sell any lot or interment space therein unless the purchaser thereof is informed that the cemetery is a nonperpetual care cemetery.

566A.6 Perpetual care cemeteries.

A nonperpetual care cemetery after July 4, 1953, may become a perpetual care cemetery by placing in the perpetual care trust fund twenty-five thousand dollars or five thousand dollars per acre of all property sold, whichever is the greater, and by complying with the requirements for a perpetual care cemetery as provided in section 566A.3.

[C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566A.6]

83 Acts, ch 101, §117

566A.7 Commission or bonus unlawful.

It shall be unlawful for any organization subject to the provisions of this chapter to pay or offer to pay to, or for any person, firm or corporation to receive directly or indirectly a commission or bonus or rebate or other thing of value, for or in connection with the sale of any interment space, lot or part thereof, in any cemetery described in section 566A.1 of this chapter. The provisions of this section shall not apply to a person regularly employed and supervised by such organization.

566A.8 Discrimination prohibited.

It shall be unlawful for any organization subject to the provisions of this chapter to deny the privilege of interment of the remains of any deceased person in any cemetery described in section 566A.1 of this chapter solely because of the race or color of such deceased person. Any contract, agreement, deed, covenant, restriction or charter provision at any time entered into, or bylaw, rule or regulation adopted or put in force, either subsequent or prior to July 4, 1953, authorizing, permitting or requiring any organization subject to the provisions of this chapter to deny such privilege of interment because of race or color of such deceased person is hereby declared to be null and void and in conflict with the public policy of this state. No organization subject to the provisions of this chapter or any director, officer, agent, employee or trustee thereof or therefor, shall be liable for damages or other relief, or be subjected to any action in any court otherwise having jurisdiction in the premises by reason of refusing to commit any act declared unlawful herein.

§566A.9 Penalty.
Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this chapter, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

[C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566A 9]

566A.10 Extent of offenses.
Each day any person, firm or corporation violates any provision of this chapter, except the commission of any act declared unlawful in section 566A 7 or section 566A 8, shall be deemed to be a separate and distinct offense.

[C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566A 10]

566A.11 Speculation prohibited.
No organization subject to the provisions of this chapter nor any person representing it in a sales capacity shall advertise or represent, in connection with the sale or attempted sale of any interment space, that the same is or will be a desirable speculative investment for resale purposes.

[C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §566A 11]

CHAPTER 567
NONRESIDENT ALIENS — LAND OWNERSHIP

567.1 Definitions.
For the purpose of this chapter:
2. "Nonresident alien" means an individual who is not a citizen of the United States and who has not been classified as a permanent resident alien by the United States immigration and naturalization service.
3. "Farming" means the cultivation of land for the production of agricultural crops, the raising of poultry, the production of eggs, the production of milk, the production of fruit or other horticultural crops, grazing or the production of livestock. Farming includes the production of timber, forest products, nursery products, or sod. Farming does not include a contract where a processor or distributor of farm products or supplies provides spraying, harvesting, or other farm services.
4. "Foreign business" means a corporation incorporated under the laws of a foreign country, or a business entity whether or not incorporated, in which a majority interest is owned directly or indirectly by nonresident aliens. Legal entities, including but not limited to trusts, holding companies, multiple corporations and other business arrangements, do not affect the determination of ownership or control of a foreign business.
5. "Foreign government" means a government other than the government of the United States, its states, territories or possessions.

567.2 Alien rights.
A nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government may acquire, by grant, purchase, devise or descent, real property, except agricultural land or any interest in agricultural land in this state, and may own, hold, devise or alienate the real property, and shall incur the same duties and liabilities in relation thereto as a citizen and resident of the United States.

[C97, §1641, S13, §1641, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8403; C46, 50, §491 67, C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §491 67, 567 8, C81, §567 2]

567.3 Restriction on agricultural land holdings.
1. A nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government, or an agent, trustee or fiduciary thereof, shall not purchase or otherwise acquire agricultural land in this state. A nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government, or an agent, trustee or fiduciary thereof, which owns or holds agricultural land in this state on January 1, 1980, may continue to own or hold the land, but shall not purchase or otherwise acquire additional agricultural land in this state.
2 A person who acquires agricultural land in violation of this chapter or who fails to convert the land to the purpose other than farming within five years, as provided for in this chapter, remains in violation of this chapter for as long as the person holds an interest in the land.

3 The restriction set forth in subsection 1 of this section does not apply to the following:
   a Agricultural land acquired by devise or descent
   b A bona fide encumbrance on agricultural land taken for purposes of security.
   c Agricultural land acquired by a process of law in the collection of debts, by deed in lieu of foreclosure, pursuant to a forfeiture of a contract for deed, or by any procedure for the enforcement of a lien or claim on the land, whether created by mortgage or otherwise.

However, agricultural land so acquired shall be sold or otherwise disposed of within two years after title is transferred. Pending the sale or disposition, the land shall not be used for any purpose other than farming, and the land shall not be used for farming except under lease to an individual, trust, corporation, partnership or other business entity not subject to the restriction on the increase in agricultural land holdings imposed by section 172C 4.

Agricultural land which has been acquired pursuant to this paragraph shall not be acquired or utilized by the nonresident alien, foreign business, or foreign government, or an agent, trustee, or fiduciary thereof, under either paragraph "d" or paragraph "e".

d Agricultural land acquired for research or experimental purposes, if commercial sales from the agricultural land are incidental to the research and experimental objectives of the nonresident alien, foreign business, or foreign government, or an agent, trustee, or fiduciary thereof, and if the agricultural land is used for the testing, development, or production of seeds, animals, or plants for sale or resale to farmers, or for incidental activities. Commercial sales are incidental to research and experimental objectives when they are less than twenty-five percent of the gross sales of the primary product of the research or experimentation.

An interest in agricultural land, not to exceed three hundred twenty acres, acquired for an immediate or pending use other than farming. However, a nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government, or an agent, trustee or fiduciary thereof, who lawfully owns over three hundred twenty acres on January 1, 1980, may continue to own or hold the land, but shall not purchase or otherwise acquire additional agricultural land in this state except by devise or descent from a nonresident alien. Pending the development of the agricultural land for purposes other than farming, the land shall not be used for farming except under lease to an individual, trust, corporation, partnership or other business entity not subject to the restriction on the increase in agricultural land holdings imposed by section 172C 4.

4 A nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government, or an agent, trustee or fiduciary thereof shall not transfer title to or interest in agricultural land to a nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government, or an agent, trustee or fiduciary thereof except by devise or descent.

567.4 Development of land acquired for nonfarming purposes.

Development of the agricultural land which is not subject to the restrictions of section 567 3, subsections 1 and 2, because the land or interest in the land was acquired for an immediate or pending use other than farming, shall convert the land to the purpose other than farming, within five years after the acquisition of the agricultural land or the acquisition of the interest in the agricultural land.

[86 Acts, ch 1214, §9]

567.5 Land acquired by devise or descent.

A nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government, or an agent, trustee or fiduciary thereof, which acquires agricultural land or an interest in agricultural land, by devise or descent after January 1, 1980, shall divest itself of all right, title and interest in the land within two years from the date of acquiring the land or interest. This section shall not require divestment of agricultural land or an interest in agricultural land, acquired by devise or descent from a nonresident alien, if such land or an interest in such land was acquired by any nonresident alien prior to July 1, 1979.

[C73, §1909, C97, §2889, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10214; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §567 1, C81, §567 5]

567.6 Change of status — divestment.

A person or business which purchases or otherwise acquires agricultural land in this state except by devise or descent, after January 1, 1980, and whose status changes so that it becomes a foreign business or nonresident alien subject to this chapter, shall divest itself of all right, title and interest in the land within two years from the date that its status changed.

567.7 Registration.

A nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government, or an agent, trustee or fiduciary thereof, which owns an interest in agricultural land within this state on or after January 1, 1980, shall register the agricultural land with the secretary of state. The registration shall be made within sixty days after January 1, 1980, or within sixty days after acquiring the land or the interest in land, whichever time is the later. The registration shall be in the form and manner prescribed by the secretary and shall contain the name of the owner and the location and number of acres of the agricultural land by township and county. If the owner of the agricultural land or owner of the interest in agricultural land is an agent, trustee or fiduciary of a nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government, the registration shall also include the name of any principal for whom that land, or interest in that land was purchased as agent.

567.8 Reports.

A nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government, or an agent, trustee or fiduciary thereof, which owns an interest in agricultural land within this state on or after January 1, 1980, shall register the agricultural land with the secretary of state. The registration shall include the name of the owner and the location and number of acres of the agricultural land by township and county. If the owner of the agricultural land or owner of the interest in agricultural land is an agent, trustee or fiduciary of a nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government, the registration shall also include the name of any principal for whom that land, or interest in that land was purchased as agent.
§567.8
ernment, or an agent, trustee or fiduciary thereof, who acquires agricultural land not subject to the restrictions of section 567.3 because the land was acquired for an immediate or pending use other than farming, shall file a report with the secretary of state before March 31 of each year. The report shall be in the form and manner prescribed by the secretary and shall contain the following:

1. The name of the owner of the agricultural land or owner of the interest in the agricultural land
2. If the owner of the agricultural land or interest in agricultural land is an agent, trustee or fiduciary of a nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government, the name of any principal for whom that land or interest in that land was acquired as agent
3. The location and number of acres of the agricultural land by township and county
4. The date the agricultural land or interest in agricultural land was acquired
5. The immediate or pending use other than farming, for which the agricultural land or interest in agricultural land was acquired and the status of the land’s development for the purpose other than farming
6. The present use of the agricultural land

[C77, 79, §567.9, C81, §567.8]

567.9 Enforcement.

1. If the secretary of state finds that a nonresident alien, foreign business, foreign government, or an agent, trustee, or other fiduciary thereof, has acquired or holds title to or interest in agricultural land in this state in violation of this chapter or has failed to timely register as required under section 567.7, or has failed to timely report as required under section 567.8, the secretary shall report the violation to the attorney general.

2. Upon receipt of the report from the secretary of state, the attorney general shall initiate an action in the district court of any county in which the land is located.

3. Upon receipt of the report from the secretary of state, the attorney general shall issue a notice of the pendency of the action with the recorder of deeds of each county in which the land is located.

4. If the court finds that the land in question has been acquired or held in violation of this chapter or the required registration has not been timely filed, it shall enter an order so declaring and shall file a copy of the order with the recorder of deeds of each county in which any portion of the land is located.

567.10 Escheat.

If the court finds that the land in question has been acquired in violation of this chapter or that the land has not been converted to the purpose other than farming within five years as provided for in this chapter, the court shall declare the land escheated to the state. When escheat is decreed by the court, the clerk of court shall notify the governor that the title to the real estate is vested in the state by decree of the court. Any real estate, the title to which is acquired by the state under this chapter, shall be sold in the manner provided by law for the foreclosure of a mortgage on real estate for default of payment, the proceeds of the sale shall be used to pay court costs, and the remaining funds, if any, shall be paid to the person divested of the property but only in an amount not exceeding the actual cost paid by the person for that property. Proceeds remaining after the payment of court costs and the payment to the person divested of the property shall become a part of the funds of the county or counties in which the land is located, in proportion to the part of the land in each county.

[C97, §2891, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10218; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §567.5, C81, §567.10]

567.11 Penalty — failure to timely file.

A nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government, or an agent, trustee or other fiduciary thereof, who fails to timely file the registration as required by section 567.7, or who fails to timely file a report required by section 567.8 shall, for each offense, be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars.

[C81, §567.11]
§568.1 Sale authorized.

All land between high-water mark and the center of the former channel of any navigable stream, where such channel has been abandoned, so that it is no longer capable of use, and is not likely again to be used for the purposes of navigation, and all land within such abandoned river channels, and all bars or islands in the channels of navigable streams not heretofore surveyed or platted by the United States or the state of Iowa, and all within the jurisdiction of the state of Iowa shall be sold and disposed of in the manner hereinafter provided.

§568.2 Application by county auditor.

It shall be the duty of the county auditor to file written application with the secretary of state, asking that the land be surveyed, appraised, and sold, whenever the auditor is satisfied that such land is of the character contemplated by section 568.1.

[S13, §2900-a3; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10222; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §568.2]

§568.3 Application by prospective purchaser.

If the county auditor fails or neglects to make such application, then any person desiring to purchase such land may file a written application with the secretary of state, asking that such land be surveyed, appraised, and sold, whenever the auditor is satisfied that such land is of the character contemplated by section 568.1.

§568.4 Form of application.

The said application whether made by the county auditor or by a person desiring to purchase the land, shall contain an accurate description thereof, stating whether the land is abandoned river channel, or land within such abandoned river channel, or an island or a sand bar in a navigable stream, and giving the number of township and range in which it is located, and the section numbers if possible, and also the estimated acreage.

[S13, §2900-a3; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10224; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §568.4]

§568.5 Survey.

Upon receiving such application, it shall be the duty of the secretary of state to order a complete survey of such land to be made by the county surveyor of the county wherein the land is situated, and in case of the refusal or inability of such county surveyor to make such survey the secretary of state shall appoint some other competent surveyor to make such survey. The said application whether made by the county auditor or by a person desiring to purchase the land, shall contain an accurate description thereof, stating whether the land is abandoned river channel, or land within such abandoned river channel, or an island or a sand bar in a navigable stream, and giving the number of township and range in which it is located, and the section numbers if possible, and also the estimated acreage.

§568.6 Report of survey.

When such survey is made, a full report thereof, with field notes, shall be filed with the clerk of the state land office, which report and field notes shall constitute the official survey of such land.

[S13, §2900-a4; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10226; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §568.6]

§568.7 Appraisal.

Upon the filing of such report, with the accompanying field notes, the secretary of state shall thereupon appoint a commission of three disinterested freeholders of the county wherein the land is situated, to view the land and make appraisement of the value thereof, which appraisement shall be returned and filed with the clerk of the state land office in the office of the secretary of state.

The secretary of state, if the secretary deems it necessary, may either go in person or send the clerk of the state land office into the county to make proper selection of the said commissioners.

§568.8 Contract for survey.

The secretary of state shall make a contract with some surveyor for making such survey; the surveyor to furnish all the chainpersons and other attendants and pay all necessary expenses, which contract before it becomes binding shall be submitted to and approved by the executive council.

[S13, §2900-a6; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10228; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §568.8]

§568.9 Commissioners' compensation and expenses.

Commissioners, for their services in making such appraisement shall be paid a forty-dollar per diem and shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses. All per diem moneys paid to the commissioners shall be paid from funds appropriated to the secretary of state.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10229; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §568.9]

§568.10 Sale — how effected — rights of occupants.

Such lands shall be sold in the following manner: Any person who has in fact lived upon any such land and occupied the same, as a home, continuously for a period of three or more years immediately prior to the time of the appraisement thereof, and such occupancy has been in good faith for the purpose of procuring title thereto, whenever by law such title could be vested in the occupant by purchase from the proper authority, or any person who has acquired possession of such land by inheritance, or by purchase made in good faith from a former occupant, or occupants, whose occupancy dates back over a period of three years prior to the date of appraisement of the land, shall have first right to purchase such land at the appraised value; provided such bona fide occupant shall file an application for the purchase thereof at the appraised value with the secretary of state within sixty days after the day the appraisement is made, and shall accompany such application with affidavits showing proof of such bona fide occupancy. If no application has been filed by such bona fide occupant within the sixty-day period above provided, then the secretary of state shall advertise the sale of such land once each week for four consecutive weeks in two newspapers of general circulation published in the county wherein the land is situated, and proof of publication shall be filed with the secretary of state. The sale shall be made upon written bids addressed to the secretary of state and the advertisements shall fix the time when such bids will be received and opened. All bids shall be opened by the secretary of state or by the clerk of the state land office at the time fixed, and the land thereupon may be sold to the highest bidder and at not less than the appraised value.

Any such sale shall be subject to the permanent right of a utility association, company or corporation to continue in possession of a right of way for its underground and aereal plant, including cables, wires, poles, fixtures, piers and abutments, where such right of way has existed on lands which have become subject to sale under section 568.1.

[S13, SS15, §2900-a7; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10230; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §568.10]

568.11 Lease authorized — lands readvertised — sale. If no application is filed for the purchase of the land within the sixty-day period by a bona fide occupant, and if no bids are received for the purchase thereof, on or before the date of the sale as advertised, then the secretary of state is authorized to lease the land for a period of from one to five years, upon as favorable terms as the secretary can obtain. At the expiration of such lease the secretary shall readvertise the land for sale in the manner provided in section 568.10. If no bids for the purchase of the land are received on the date of the second advertised sale, then the secretary of state shall submit the matter to the executive council, and they may either order the land reappraised in the manner provided in section 568.7, and then advertised and sold in the manner provided in section 568.10, or if they deem it advisable, they may authorize the secretary of state to sell the land for less than the appraised value. In such event the secretary of state shall readvertise the land for sale in the manner provided in section 568.10, and such advertisement shall also state that the land will be sold to the highest bidder without restrictions as to the appraised value.

568.12 Deed or patent. When, upon full compliance with the conditions of this chapter, any person shall become entitled to a deed or patent for any land, a deed or patent shall thereupon be executed and delivered to such person by the governor, on behalf of the state, duly attested with the seal of the state attached thereto, which deed shall, in addition to the usual formalities, also recite the name of the party making application to have the land surveyed, appraised, and sold, the date and the amount of the appraisement, the name of the party making final payment and entitled to a deed therefor, whether as bona fide occupant or as highest bidder, and also that such deed is given for the purpose of conveying such title and interest in the land as the state may at the time own and possess, and has the right to convey. A record of such conveyance shall be made and kept by the clerk of the state land office of the secretary of state.

568.13 Previous survey. When any such land shall be found to have been previously surveyed under and by virtue of any order of a court of record, and the record of such survey has been duly made and preserved, then and in that event, in the discretion of the secretary of state, a duly certified transcript of such record, together with the field notes accompanying the same, if obtainable, may be filed with the clerk of the state land office in the office of secretary of state, and when so filed shall obviate the necessity for any further survey of such land except when such survey becomes necessary for the purpose of execution of conveyance thereof, and the record of such transcript, when filed, shall constitute the official survey of such land.

568.14 Boundary commission. If in any proceeding contemplated by the provisions of this chapter, it shall become necessary to determine the boundary line between this state and either of the states adjoining, the matter shall then be at once referred to the executive council, who shall thereupon proceed to confer with the proper authority of such adjoining state, and if the co-operation of the proper authority of such adjoining state shall be obtained, then the executive council shall appoint a commission of three disinterested, competent persons, who shall, in conjunction with the parties acting for such adjoining state, have authority to ascertain and locate the true boundary line between this state and such adjoining state, so far as the particular land under consideration at the time is concerned. The report of the commissioners with a statement of their findings shall be submitted to the executive council, who shall file the same with the clerk of the state land office in the office of the secretary of state. The line so ascertained and located shall constitute the true and permanent boundary line between this state and such other state to the extent such line shall be so ascertainable and located.

568.15 How constituted. The members of the commission shall be selected with reference to their fitness for the duties required and at least one of them shall be a competent surveyor and civil engineer.

568.16 Purchase money refunded.
If the grantee of the state, or the grantee's successors, administrators, or assigns, shall be deprived of the land conveyed by the state under this chapter by the final decree of a court of record for the reason that the conveyance by the state passed no title whatever to the land therein described, because title thereto had previously for any reason been vested in others, then the money so paid the state for the said land shall be refunded by the state to the person or persons entitled thereto, provided the said grantee, or the grantee's successors, administrators, or assigns, shall file a certified copy of the transcript of the said final decree with the executive council within one year from the date of the issuance of such decree, and shall also file satisfactory proof with the executive council that the action over the title to the land was commenced within ten years from the date of the issuance of patent or deed by the state. The amount of money to be refunded under the provisions of this section shall be certified by the executive council to the director of revenue and finance, who shall draw a warrant therefor, and the same shall be paid out of the general fund.

568.17 Sales and leases for cash.
All sales and leases of land under the provisions of this chapter shall be for cash. All money received for such sales and leases shall be paid into the state treasury by the secretary of state.

568.18 Good faith possession — preference.
If any lands in the present or in any former channel of any navigable river, or island therein, or any lands formed by accretion or avulsion in consequence of the changes of the channel of any such river, have been for ten years or more in the possession of any person, company, or corporation, or of its grantees or predecessors in interest, and the person, company, or corporation so in possession, or its grantors or predecessors in interest, have paid state or county taxes upon said lands for a period of five years, and have in good faith and under bona fide claim of ownership, the person, company or corporation so in possession, or its grantees or predecessors in interest, have paid state or county taxes upon said lands for a period of five years, and have in good faith and under bona fide claim of title made valuable improvements thereon, and also in any other case where, in the judgment of the executive council, the person in possession of any land subject to the provisions of this chapter, has, in equity and good conscience, a substantial interest therein, then the said lands shall be sold to the person, company, or corporation so in possession thereof as hereinafter provided.

568.19 Notice — action to determine title and value — patent.
When any person, company, or corporation so in possession of any such lands shall give to the secretary of state written notice of its claim, or whenever the executive council shall deem it advisable, it shall be the duty of the attorney general to bring an action in equity, in the district court of the county in which said lands are situated, against the party in possession thereof to determine the title of the state to such lands, and the value thereof, exclusive of improvements made thereon by the occupant or by its granteors or predecessors in interest. If the person, company, or corporation in possession of such land shall, after the court has determined the value thereof as herein provided, tender to the secretary of state the amount adjudged to be the value of said lands, exclusive of improvements made thereon by the occupant or by its granteors or predecessors in interest, a deed or patent of such land shall be executed by the governor, attested by the secretary of state, and delivered to the person, company, or corporation making such tender, as provided by law. If the person, company, or corporation so in possession shall fail to pay to the state the amount so adjudged within six months after the final determination of the action so brought by the state, then said lands shall be subject to the other provisions of this chapter.

568.20 Withholding patent — deposit money refunded.
If the land described in any application is covered by the provisions of sections 568.18 and 568.19, and notice thereof is given to the secretary of state as provided in section 568.19, no deed or patent of such land, or any part thereof, shall be executed or issued until the title thereto shall have been established by the court as herein provided. If the party making such application, or the party's assignee, does not desire to prosecute the application, or if the party or assignee does not purchase the land under this chapter, then all of the money deposited by the party or assignee with the secretary of state under the provisions of this chapter shall be repaid to said applicant by the secretary of state; and if any part of the money so deposited has been expended by the secretary of state, then the amount so expended shall be certified by the secretary of state to the director of revenue and finance, who shall draw a warrant upon the general fund in favor of the person entitled thereto.

568.21 Sale or lease authorized.
The executive council of the state is hereby authorized and empowered to sell, convey, lease, or demise any of the islands belonging to the state which are within the meandered banks of rivers in the state, and to execute and deliver a patent or lease thereof. Nothing in this and sections 568.22 to 568.25 shall be construed to apply to islands in the Mississippi or Missouri rivers.

[S13, §2900-a28; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10241; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §568.21]

568.22 Survey — appraisement — sale.
Before a sale of any island is made under the provisions of section 568.21, the executive council shall cause a survey and plat of such island to be made, showing its location and area, and the plat and notes of such survey shall be filed with the secretary of state. The land composing the island shall then be appraised by a commission appointed by the governor, consisting of three disinterested freeholders of the state, who shall report their appraisement to the executive council. The sale of the island shall then be advertised once each week for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county where the island is located, and proof of such publication filed with the executive council. The sale shall be made upon written bids addressed to the executive council, and the advertisement shall fix the time when such bids will be received and opened. All bids shall be opened by the executive council at the time fixed, and the island may thereupon be sold to the highest bidder and at not less than its appraised value.

568.23 Lease.

If it shall be deemed expedient to lease any such island, a lease thereof may be made upon written bids addressed to the executive council, and the island proposed to be leased shall be surveyed and platted, and notice of the leasing thereof and of the receiving and opening of bids shall be published, in the manner provided in section 568.22, but no appraisement shall be necessary. Upon the opening of the bids received by the executive council it may make a lease of such island to the highest bidder for such term as is deemed advisable.

568.24 Sales and leases for cash — expenses.

All sales and leases must be for cash, and the money received therefor shall be paid into the state treasury. All expenses incurred in making the survey, plat, appraisement, sale, or lease of any such island shall be certified by the executive council to the director of revenue and finance, who shall draw a warrant upon the state treasury for the amount, and the same shall be paid from the general fund.

568.25 Patent or lease.

When any sale or lease of any island belonging to the state is made by the executive council as herein provided, the governor shall execute and deliver to the purchaser or lessee a patent or a lease thereof, as the case may be, duly attested by the seal of the state.

CHAPTER 569

ACQUISITION OF TITLE BY STATE OR MUNICIPAL CORPORATION

569.1 Right to receive conveyance.

When it becomes necessary, to secure the state or any county or other municipal corporation thereof from loss, to take real estate on account of a debt by bidding the same in at execution sale or otherwise, the conveyance shall vest in the grantee as complete a title as if it were a natural person.

569.2 Bidding in at execution sale.

Such real estate shall be bid in, if for the state, by the attorney general, if for the county, by the county attorney, and if for any other municipal corporation, by its attorney or agent appointed for that purpose, the proceeds of any such real estate, when sold, to be covered into the state, county, or municipal treasury, as the case may be, for the use of the general or the special fund to which it rightfully belongs.

569.3 Amount of bid.

When real estate is sold as above provided, the fair and reasonable value shall be bid therefor, unless in excess of the judgment, interest, costs, and accruing costs, in which case the bid shall be for such sum only.

569.4 Costs and expenses.

In all cases in which the state becomes the purchaser of real estate under the provisions of this chapter, the costs and expenses attending such purchases shall be audited and allowed by the director of revenue and finance, and paid out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, upon the director's warrant, and charged to the fund to which the indebtedness belonged upon which such real estate was taken.

If the real estate is purchased by a county, the costs and expenses shall be audited by the board of supervisors and paid out of the county treasury, upon a warrant drawn by the auditor on the treasurer, from the fund to which the debt belonged upon which said real estate was purchased.

If the real estate is purchased by any other municipal corporation, then the costs shall be audited and paid by it in the same manner as other claims against it are audited and paid.

569.5 Management.
When the title to real estate becomes vested in the state, or in a county or municipality under this chapter, or by conveyance under the statutes relating to taxation, the executive council, board of supervisors, or other governing body, as the case may be, shall manage, control, protect by insurance, lease, or sell said real estate on such terms, conditions, or security as said governing body may deem best.

[C73, §1914–1917, 1919; C97, §2898, 2899; C24, 27, 31, §10250–10252, 10254–10256; C35, §10260-e1; C39, §10260.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §569.5]

569.6 Costs, expenses and proceeds.
The cost and expense resulting from the exercise of said powers shall be paid from the fund to which said real estate belongs and the proceeds of a lease or sale shall be credited to said fund.

[C73, §1914–1917, 1919; C97, §2898, 2899; C24, 27, 31, §10250–10252, 10254–10256; C35, §10260-e2; C39, §10260.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §569.6]

569.7 Execution of deeds and leases.
The said governing body may appoint its chairperson, president, or other member to execute and acknowledge, for and on behalf of the state, county, or municipality, leases and deeds of conveyance, but said instruments when executed shall be approved by the said body and said approval spread upon its minutes with the yeas and nays vote thereon. A transcript of said minutes certified by the secretary of said body shall be entitled to be recorded in the same manner as the approved instrument is entitled to be recorded.

569.8 Title under tax deed—sale—apportionment of proceeds.
1. Disposition by a county of property acquired by tax deed shall comply with the requirements of section 331.361, subsection 2.
2. When title to property acquired by tax deed is transferred, the auditor shall immediately record the deed and the assessor shall enter the property to be assessed following the assessment date.
3. Property the county holds by tax deed shall not be assessed or taxed until transferred.
4. The transfer of property acquired by tax deed gives the purchaser free title as to past general taxes, and special taxes which are past due on any special assessment already certified to the county.
5. After deducting any expense the county incurred in the sale, the proceeds of the sale including penalty, interest and costs shall be divided and proportioned to the several taxing districts for general taxes and special assessments owed to the taxing districts in the proportion that the amounts of general taxes and special assessments owed to each taxing district are of the total amount of general taxes and special assessments owed to all taxing districts.

[C35, §10260-g1; C39, §10260.4; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §81, §569.8; 81 Acts, ch 117, §1094]
570.1 Lien created — property subjected.
A landlord shall have a lien for the rent upon all crops grown upon the leased premises, and upon any other personal property of the tenant which has been used or kept thereon during the term and which is not exempt from execution.

570.2 Duration of lien.
Such lien shall continue for the period of one year after a year's rent, or the rent of a shorter period, falls due. But in no case shall such lien continue more than six months after the expiration of the term.

570.3 Limitation on lien in case of sale under judicial process.
In the event that a stock of goods or merchandise, or a part thereof, subject to a landlord's lien, shall be sold under judicial process, order of court, or by an assignee under a general assignment for benefit of creditors, the lien of the landlord shall not be enforceable against said stock or portion thereof, except for rent due for the term already expired, and for rent to be paid for the use of demised premises for a period not exceeding six months after date of sale, any agreement of the parties to the contrary notwithstanding.

570.4 Limitation on lien in case of crop failure.
In cases of farm leases involving the rental of farm lands of forty acres or more, where the tenant has defaulted in the payment of the rent and suit has been commenced aided by landlord's attachment for the enforcement of the landlord's lien, the defendant may file as a defense that the default or inability to pay is caused or brought about by reason of drought, flood, hail, storms, or other climatic conditions or infestation of pests affecting the crops in controversy. When such a defense has been filed, the issue as to the cause for the default shall be triable as an equitable action. Upon the hearing, if the court finds that the default or inability to pay is due to drought, flood, hail, storm, or other climatic conditions or infestation of pests affecting the crops in controversy, the court may enter a decree pursuant thereto with the court's finding of fact. Where a decree has been entered finding that the inability to pay was brought about by any of the conditions named in this section, the landlord's lien shall be confined to all of the crops grown and raised upon the premises and to all increase in livestock and hogs raised upon the premises.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to any farm leases executed prior to July 4, 1941.

570.5 Enforcement — proceeding by attachment.
The lien may be enforced by the commencement of an action, within the period above prescribed, for the rent alone, in which action the landlord shall be entitled to a writ of attachment, upon filing with the clerk a verified petition, stating that the action is commenced to recover rent accrued within one year previous thereto upon premises described in the petition; and the procedure thereunder shall be the same, as nearly as may be, as in other cases of attachment, except no bond shall be required.
570.6 Lien upon additional property.
If a lien for rent is given in a written lease or other instrument upon additional property, it may be enforced in the same manner as a landlord's lien and in the same action.

570.7 Action by tenant to recover property.
An action brought by a tenant, the tenant's assignee or undertenant, to recover the possession of specific personal property taken under landlord's attachment, may be against the party who sued out the attachment, and the property claimed in such action may, under the writ therefor, be taken from the officer who seized it, when the officer has no other claim to hold it than that derived from the writ.

570A.1 Definitions.
As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:
1. "Agricultural chemical" means a fertilizer or agricultural chemical which is applied to crops or land which is used for the raising of crops, including but not limited to fertilizer as defined in section 200 3, and pesticide as defined in section 206 2.
2. "Agricultural purpose" means a purpose related to the production, harvest, marketing, or transportation of agricultural products by a person who cultivates, plants, propagates or nurtures the agricultural products including agricultural, horticultural, viticultural, and dairy products, livestock, wildlife, poultry, bees, forest products, fish and shellfish, and any other products raised or produced on farms.
3. "Agricultural supply dealer" means a person engaged in the retail sale of agricultural chemicals, seed, feed, or petroleum products used for an agricultural purpose.
4. "Certified request" means a request delivered by registered or certified mail, or a request delivered in writing signed and dated by the respective parties.
5. "Farmer" means a person engaged in a business which has an agricultural purpose.
6. "Feed" means a commercial feed, feed ingredient, mineral feed, drug, animal health product, or customer formula feed which is used for the feeding of livestock, including but not limited to feed as defined in section 198 3.

7 "Financial history" means the record of a person's current loans, the date of a person's loans, the amount of the loans, the person's payment record on the loans, current hens against the person's property, and the person's most recent financial statement.

8 "Financial institution" means a bank, credit union, insurance company, mortgage banking company or savings and loan association, industrial loan company, production credit association, farmer's home administration, or like institution which operates or has a place of business in this state.

9 "Labor" means labor performed in the application, delivery, or preparation of a product defined in subsections 1, 6, 12, and 14.

10 "Letter of credit" means an engagement by a financial institution to honor drafts or other demands for payment.

11 "Livestock" means cattle, sheep, swine, poultry, or other animals or fowl.

12 "Petroleum product" means a motor fuel or special fuel which is used in the production of crops and livestock, including but not limited to motor fuel as defined in section 324.

13 "Sale on a credit basis" means a transaction in which the purchase price is due on a date after the date of the sale.

14 "Seed" means agricultural seeds which are used in the production of crops, including but not limited to agricultural seed as defined in section 199.

570A.2 Financial institution memorandum to agricultural supply dealers.

1 Upon the receipt of a certified request of an agricultural supply dealer, prior to or upon a sale on a credit basis of agricultural chemicals, seed, feed, or petroleum products to a farmer, a financial institution which has either a security interest in collateral owned by the farmer or an outstanding loan to the farmer for agricultural purposes shall issue within four business days a memorandum which states whether or not the farmer has a sufficient net worth or line of credit to assure payment of the purchase price on the terms of the sale.

The certified request submitted by the agricultural supply dealer shall state the amount of the purchase and the terms of sale and shall be accompanied by a waiver of confidentiality signed by the farmer and a fifteen dollar fee. The waiver of confidentiality and the certified request may be combined and submitted as one document. If the financial institution states in its memorandum that the farmer has a sufficient net worth or line of credit to assure payment of the purchase price, the memorandum is an irrevocable and unconditional letter of credit to the benefit of the agricultural supply dealer for a period of sixteen months following the date of perfection of the memorandum pursuant to section 570A.4. If the memorandum from the financial institution is incomplete, or if the memorandum from the financial institution states that the farmer does not have a sufficient net worth or line of credit to assure payment of the purchase price, the agricultural supply dealer may decide to make the sale and secure the lien provided in section 570A.3.

3 Upon an action to enforce a lien secured under section 570A.3 against the interest of a financial institution secured to the same collateral as that of the lien, it shall be an affirmative defense to a financial institution and complete proof of the superior priority of the financial institution's lien that the financial institution either did not receive a certified request and a waiver signed by the farmer, or received the request and a waiver signed by the farmer and provided the full and complete relevant financial history which it held on the farmer making the purchase from the agricultural supply dealer on which the lien is based and that financial history reasonably indicated that the farmer did not have a sufficient net worth or line of credit to assure payment of the purchase price.

570A.3 Lien created.

1 An agricultural supply dealer furnishing an agricultural chemical, seed, or petroleum product to a farmer has a lien for the retail cost of the agricultural chemical, seed, or petroleum product, including labor furnished. The lien attaches to all crops which are produced upon the land to which the agricultural chemical was applied, or produced from seed furnished, or produced using the petroleum product furnished, for a period of sixteen months following the date of perfection of the lien pursuant to section 570A.4. However, the lien does not attach to that portion of the crops of a farmer who has paid all amounts due from the farmer for the retail cost, including labor, of the agricultural chemical, seed, or petroleum product provided.

2 An agricultural supply dealer furnishing feed to a farmer has a lien for the unpaid amount of the retail cost of the feed, including labor. The lien attaches to all livestock consuming the feed. However, the lien does not attach to that portion of the livestock of a farmer who has paid all amounts due from the farmer for the retail cost, including labor, of the feed.

570A.4 Perfection of lien.

1 In order to perfect the lien created by section 570A.3, the agricultural supply dealer entitled to the lien shall file a verified lien statement with the office of the secretary of state. The lien statement may be filed at the time the agricultural chemical, seed, feed, or petroleum product is purchased or delivered but not later than thirty-one days after the first date on which payment is due under the terms of payment agreed to by the farmer and the agricultural supply dealer. The lien statement shall disclose all of the following:

a The name and address of the agricultural supply dealer claiming the lien.
570A.5 Priority of lien.

1. A lien perfected under this chapter is superior to a lien or security interest which attaches subsequent to the time the lien statement is filed with the secretary of state, except liens which arise under this chapter or under chapters 570 and 571.

2. A lien perfected under this chapter is equal to a lien or security interest which is of record or which is perfected prior to the time the lien statement is filed with the secretary of state except as provided in section 570A.2, subsection 3.

3. A lien perfected under this chapter for the purposes of feed will continue to be perfected in the livestock and is assigned and follows the assignment of the debt for which it is claimed.

4. Where a right or duty exists for purposes of enforcement of the lien created under chapter 554, article 9, part 5 is contingent upon the existence of express language in a security agreement, or may be waived by express language in a security agreement, the requisite language is deemed not to exist for purposes of enforcement of the lien created by this chapter.

84 Acts, ch 1072, §4; 85 Acts, ch 204, §4

570A.6 Enforcement of lien.

The holder of a lien perfected under this chapter may enforce the lien in the manner provided in chapter 554, article 9, part 5, for the enforcement of security interests. For purposes of enforcement of the lien, the lienholder is deemed to be the secured party, and the farmer for whom the agricultural chemical, seed, feed, or petroleum product was furnished is deemed to be the debtor, and each has the respective rights and duties of a secured party and a debtor as provided in chapter 554, article 9, part 5. Where a right or duty under chapter 554, article 9, part 5 is contingent upon the existence of express language in a security agreement, or may be waived by express language in a security agreement, the requisite language is deemed not to exist for purposes of enforcement of the lien created by this chapter.

84 Acts, ch 1072, §6

570A.7 Enforcement actions.

An action to enforce a lien arising under this chapter may be commenced in the district court after the lien is perfected. The action may be brought in any county in which some part of the crop and livestock or animals is located. The action shall be by equitable proceedings, and no other cause of action shall be joined with it. A lien statement may be amended by leave of the court in furtherance of justice, except as to the amount demanded. An action to enforce a lien under this chapter may be brought within one year after the date the lien statement is filed and not afterward.

84 Acts, ch 1072, §7

570A.8 Demand for bringing suit.

1. A person who has an interest in crops or livestock to which a lien has attached under this chapter may serve upon the lienholder a written demand that the lienholder commence an action to enforce the lien within thirty days after the date of service. The written demand shall be served in the same manner provided for service of an original notice. If the lienholder fails to commence an action within thirty days after being served with the written demand, the lien and all benefits of the lien are extinguished.

2. Return of service of the written demand specified in subsection 1 shall be filed with the secretary of state.

3. The lienholder shall file with the secretary of state a file stamped copy of the petition to enforce the lien within thirty days of commencing the action. Failure to file the copy of the petition will cause the verified lien statement to lapse.

84 Acts, ch 1072, §8

570A.9 Assignment of lien.

A lien which has been perfected under this chapter is assignable, and follows the assignment of the debt for which it is claimed.

84 Acts, ch 1072, §9

570A.10 Acknowledgment of satisfaction.

When a lien under this chapter is satisfied by payment of the claim, the lienholder shall acknowledge the satisfaction of the claim in writing to the secretary of state. If the lienholder failed to file an acknowledgment of satisfaction with the secretary of state within thirty days after written demand by a person having an interest in the crop or livestock, the lienholder is liable to the person for a penalty of twenty five dollars, plus actual damages incurred as a result of the failure, plus attorney fees and court costs
84 Acts, ch 1072, §10

570A.11 Rights and remedies.
The rights and remedies provided for in this chapter are in addition to and not in lieu of the rights and remedies provided for in chapter 572
84 Acts, ch 1072, §11

THRESHER’S OR CORNSHELLER’S LIEN

571.1 Nature of lien.
Any person, firm, corporation, or association engaged in operating a machine for the threshing, baling, or combining of any kind of grain or seed, or for the baling of hay, straw, or any other farm product whether done by stationary or movable baler, or for the mechanical husking or shelling of corn, or for doing custom threshing, combining, mechanical husking, baling, or corn shelling for hire, shall have a first lien on grain and seed threshed, or any farm product baled, or on corn shelled or husked, for the reasonable value of such services
[C35, §10269, e1, C39, §10269.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §571.1]

571.2 Priority of lien
Said lien shall be prior and superior to any land-lord’s lien or security interest upon said grain, seed, or corn
[C35, §10269-e2, C39, §10269.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §571.2]

571.3 Preservation of lien.
In order to preserve the lien the person entitled to the lien must, within ten days from the completion of the work for which the lien is claimed, file in the office of the secretary of state an itemized and verified statement setting forth the services rendered, the number of bushels of grain threshed or corn shelled, the value of the services, the name of the person for whom the services were rendered and the place where the servces were rendered, and the secretary of state shall note the filing of the verified statement under this section in the manner provided by chapter 554 and shall charge a four dollar filing fee if the statement is on the standard form prescribed by the secretary of state, and

[C35, §10269-e3, C39, §10269.3; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §571.3]
86 Acts, ch 1033, §1

571.4 Enforcement — time limit.
Proceedings to enforce said lien must be brought within thirty days after the filing of the verified statement and cannot be brought after the lapse of the thirty days The lienholder shall file with the secretary of state a file stamped copy of the petition to enforce the lien immediately upon commencing the action
[C35, §10269-e4, C39, §10269.4; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §571.4]
86 Acts, ch 1033, §2

571.5 Foreclosure of lien.
Said lien may be foreclosed in the manner provided in Uniform Commercial Code, chapter 554, Article 9,
Part 5
[C35, §10269-e5, C39, §10269.5; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,
66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §571.5]

571.6 Acknowledgment of satisfaction.
When a lien under this chapter is satisfied by payment of the claim, the lienholder shall acknowledge the satisfaction of the claim in writing to the secretary of state If the lienholder failed to file an acknowldgment of satisfaction with the secretary of state within thirty days after written demand by a person having an interest in the crop, the lienholder is liable to the person for a penalty of twenty-five dollars, plus actual damages incurred as a result of the failure, plus attorney fees and court costs

CHAPTER 572
MECHANIC’S LIEN

572.1 Definitions and rules of construction.
For the purpose of this chapter
1 “Owner” shall include every person for whose use or benefit any building, erection, or other improvement is made, having the capacity to contract, including guardians
2 “Subcontractor” shall include every person furnishing material or performing labor upon any building, erection, or other improvement, except those having contracts therefor directly with the owner, the owner’s agent, or trustee
3 “Building” shall be construed as if followed by the words “erection, or other improvement upon land”
4 “Material” shall in addition to its ordinary meaning embrace and include machinery, fixtures, trees, evergreens, vines, plants, shrubs, tubers, bulbs, hedges, bushes, sod, soil, dirt, mulch, peat, fertilizer, fence wire, fence material, fence posts, tile, and the use of forms, accessories, and equipment
5 “Owner occupied dwelling” means the home stead of an owner, as defined in section 561 1, and without respect to the value limitations in section 561 3, and actually occupied by the owner or the spouse of the owner, or both “Owner occupied dwelling” includes a newly constructed dwelling to be occupied by the owner as a homestead, or a dwelling that is under construction and being built by or for an owner who will occupy the dwelling as a homestead
6 “Improvement” shall include every improvement or alteration to a building or land, whether of an internal or external nature.

572.2 Persons entitled to lien.
Every person who shall furnish any material or labor for, or perform any labor upon, any building or land for improvement, alteration, or repair thereof, and those engaged in the construction or repair of any work of internal or external improvement, and those engaged in grading, sodding, installing nursery stock, landscaping, sidewalk building, fencing on any land or lot, by virtue of any contract with the owner, the owner’s agent, trustee, contractor, or subcontractor shall have a lien upon such building or improvement, and land belonging to the owner on which the same is situated or upon the land or lot so graded, landscaped, fenced, or otherwise improved, altered, or repaired, to secure payment for material or labor furnished or performed.

572.3 Collateral security before completion of work.
No person shall be entitled to a mechanic’s lien who, at the time of making a contract for furnishing material or performing labor, or during the progress of the work, shall take any collateral security of any kind.

572.4 Security after completion of work.
After the completion of such work, the taking of security of any kind shall not affect the right to establish a mechanic's lien unless such new security shall, by express agreement, be given and received in lieu of such lien

[C97, §3088, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10273; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §572 4]

572.5 Extent of lien.
The entire land upon which any building or improvement is situated, including that portion not covered therewith, shall be subject to a mechanic’s lien to the extent of the interest therein of the person for whose benefit such material was furnished or labor performed

572.6 In case of leasehold interest.
When the interest of such person is only a leasehold, the forfeiture of the lease for the nonpayment of rent, or for noncompliance with any of the other conditions therein, shall not forfeit or impair the mechanic’s lien upon such building or improvement, but the same may be sold to satisfy such lien, and removed by the purchaser within thirty days after the sale thereof

572.7 In case of internal improvement.
When the lien is for material furnished or labor performed in the construction, repair, or equipment of any railroad, canal, viaduct, or other similar improvement, said lien shall attach to the erections, excavations, embankments, bridges, roadbeds, rolling stock, and other equipment and to all land upon which such improvements or property may be situated, except the easement or right of way

[C73, §2132, C97, §3091, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10276; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §572 7]

572.8 Perfection of lien.
A person shall perfect a mechanic's lien by filing with the clerk of the district court of the county in which the building, land, or improvement to be charged with the lien is situated a verified statement of account of the demand due the person, after allowing all credits, setting forth

1. The time when such material was furnished or labor performed, and when completed
2. The correct description of the property to be charged with the lien
3. The name and last known mailing address of the owner, agent, or trustee of the property

Upon the filing of the lien, the clerk of court shall mail a copy of the lien to the owner, agent, or trustee

If the statement of the lien consists of more than one page, the clerk may omit such pages as consist solely of an accounting of the material furnished or labor performed in this case, the clerk shall attach a notification that pages of accounting were omitted and may be inspected in the clerk's office

572.9 Time of filing.
The statement or account required by section 572 8 shall be filed by a principal contractor within ninety days, and by a subcontractor within sixty days, from the date on which the last of the material was furnished or the last of the labor was performed. A failure to file the same within said periods shall not defeat the lien, except as otherwise provided in this chapter

572.10 Perfecting subcontractor's lien after lapse of sixty days.
After the lapse of the sixty days prescribed in section 572 9, a subcontractor may perfect a mechanic’s lien by filing a claim with the clerk of the district court and giving written notice thereof to the owner, the owner's agent, or trustee. Such notice may be served by any person in the manner original notices are required to be served. If the party to be served, the party’s agent, or trustee, is out of the county wherein the property is situated, a return of that fact by the person charged with making such service shall constitute sufficient service from and after the time it was filed with the clerk of the district court

572.11 Extent of lien filed after sixty days.
Liens perfected under section 572 10 shall be enforced against the property or upon the bond, if given, by the owner, as hereinafter provided, only to the extent of the balance due from the owner to the contractor at the time of the service of such notice, but if the bond was given by the contractor, or person contracting with the subcontractor filing the claim for a lien, such bond shall be enforced to the full extent of the amount found due the subcontractor

572.12 Time of filing against railway.
Where a lien is claimed upon a railway, the subcontractor shall have sixty days from the last day of the month in which such labor was done or material furnished within which to file the claim therefor

572.13 Liability of owner to original contractor.
No owner of any building, land, or improvement upon which a mechanic’s lien of a subcontractor may be filed, shall be required to pay the original contractor for compensation for work done or material furnished for said building, land, or improvement until the expiration of sixty days from the completion of said building, or improvement unless the original contractor shall furnish to the owner

1. Receipts and waivers of claims for mechanics' liens, signed by all persons who furnished any material or performed any labor for said building, land, or improvement, or
A good and sufficient bond to be approved by said owner, conditioned that said owner shall be held harmless from any loss which the owner may sustain by reason of the filing of mechanics' liens by subcontractors.

572.14 Liability to subcontractor after payment to original contractor.
1. Except as provided in subsection 2, payment to the original contractor by the owner of any part or all of the contract price of the building or improvement before the lapse of the sixty days allowed by law for the filing of a mechanic's lien by a subcontractor, does not relieve the owner from liability to the subcontractor for the full value of any material furnished or labor performed upon the building, land, or improvement if the subcontractor files a lien within the time provided by law for its filing.

2. In the case of an owner-occupied dwelling, a mechanic's lien perfected under this chapter is enforceable only to the extent of the balance due from the owner to the principal contractor at the time written notice, in the form specified in subsection 3, is served on the owner. This notice may be served by delivering it to the owner or the owner's spouse personally, or by mailing it to the owner by certified mail with restricted delivery and return receipt to the person mailing the notice, or by personal service as provided in the rules of civil procedure.

3. The written notice required for purposes of subsection 2 shall contain the name of the owner, the address of the property charged with the lien, the name, address and telephone number of the lien claimant, and the following statement:

"The person named in this notice is providing labor or materials or both in connection with improvements to your residence or real property. Chapter 572 of the Code of Iowa may permit the enforcement of a lien against this property to secure payment for labor and materials supplied. You are not required to pay more to the person claiming the lien than the amount of money due from you to the person with whom you contracted to perform the improvements. You should not make further payments to your contractor until the contractor presents you with a waiver of the lien claimed by the person named in this notice. If you have any questions regarding this notice, you should call the person named in this notice at the phone number listed in this notice or contact an attorney. You should obtain answers to your questions before you make any payments to the contractor."

572.15 Discharge of subcontractor's lien — bond.

A mechanic's lien may be discharged at any time by the owner, principal contractor, or intermediate subcontractor filing with the clerk of the district court of the county in which the property is located a bond in twice the amount of the sum for which the claim for the lien is filed, with surety or sureties, to be approved by the clerk, conditioned for the payment of any sum for which the claimant may obtain judgment upon the claim. This section applies to any mechanic's lien perfected under this chapter that has not been discharged as of March 21, 1986, as well as any mechanic's lien filed on or after March 21, 1986.

572.16 Rule of construction.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require the owner to pay a greater amount or at an earlier date than is provided in the owner's contract with the principal contractor, unless said owner pays a part or all of the contract price to the original contractor before the expiration of the sixty days allowed by law for the filing of a mechanic's lien by a subcontractor, provided that in the case of an owner occupied dwelling, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require the owner to pay a greater amount or at an earlier date than is provided in the owner's contract with the principal contractor, unless the owner pays a part or all of the contract price to the principal contractor after receipt of notice under section 572 14, subsection 2.

[C97, §3093, S13, §3093, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10285; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §572 16, 81 Acts, ch 186, §3]

572.17 Priority of mechanics' liens between mechanics.

Mechanics' liens shall have priority over each other in the order of the filing of the statements or accounts as herein provided.

572.18 Priority over other liens — priority of certain construction mortgage liens.

Mechanics' liens shall be preferred to all other liens which may attach to or upon a building or improvement and to the land upon which it is situated, except liens of record prior to the time of the original commencement of the work or improvements. However, construction mortgage liens shall be preferred to all mechanics' liens of claimants who commenced their work or improvement subsequent to the date of the recording of the construction mortgage lien. For purposes of this section, a lien is a "construction mortgage lien" to the extent that it secures loans or advancements made to directly finance work or improvements upon the real estate which secures the lien. The rights of purchasers, encumbrancers, and other persons who acquire interests in good faith and for a valuable consideration, and without notice, after the expiration of the time for filing claims for mechanics' liens, are prior to the claims of all contractors or subcontractors who have not, at the dates such rights and interests were acquired, filed their claims for such liens.

572.19 Priority over garnishments of the owner.
Mechanics’ liens shall take priority of all garnishments of the owner for the contract debts, whether made prior or subsequent to the commencement of the furnishing of the material or performance of the labor, without regard to the date of filing the claim for such lien.
[C97, §3095, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10288; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §572 19]

572.20 Priority as to buildings over prior liens upon land.
Mechanics’ liens, including those for additions, repairs, and betterments, shall attach to the building or improvement for which the material or labor was furnished or done, in preference to any prior lien, encumbrance, or mortgage upon the land upon which such building or improvement was erected or situated.

572.21 Foreclosure of mechanic’s lien when lien on land.
In the foreclosure of a mechanic’s lien where there is a prior lien, encumbrance, or mortgage upon the land the following regulations shall govern:
1. Lien on original and independent building or improvement. If such material was furnished or labor performed in the construction of an original and independent building or improvement commenced before the attaching or execution of such prior lien, encumbrance, or mortgage, the court may, in its discretion, order such building or improvement to be sold separately under execution, and the purchaser may remove the same in such reasonable time as the court may fix.
   If the court shall find that such building or improvement should not be sold separately, it shall take an account of and ascertain the separate values of the land, and the building or improvement, and order the whole sold, and distribute the proceeds of such sale so as to secure to the prior lien, encumbrance, or mortgage priority upon the land, and to the mechanic’s lien priority upon the building or improvement.
2. Lien on existing building or improvement for repairs or additions. If the material furnished or labor performed was for additions, repairs, or betterments upon any building or improvement, the court shall take an accounting of the values before such material was furnished or labor performed, and the enhanced value caused by such additions, repairs, or betterments, and upon the sale of the premises, distribute the proceeds of such sale so as to secure to the prior lien, encumbrance, or mortgage priority upon the land and improvements as they existed prior to the attaching of the mechanic’s lien, and to the mechanic’s lienholder priority upon the enhanced value caused by such additions, repairs, or betterments. In case the premises do not sell for more than sufficient to pay off the prior mortgage or other lien, the proceeds shall be applied on the prior mortgage or other liens.

572.22 Record of claim.
The clerk of the court shall endorse upon every claim for a mechanic’s lien filed in the clerk’s office the date and hour of filing and make an abstract thereof in the mechanic’s lien book kept for that purpose. Said book shall be properly indexed and shall contain the following items concerning each claim:
   1. The name of the person by whom filed;
   2. The date and hour of filing;
   3. The amount thereof;
   4. The name of the person against whom filed;
   5. The description of the property to be charged therewith.
[R60, §1852, C73, §2138, C97, §3100, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10291; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §572 22]

572.23 Acknowledgment of satisfaction of claim.
When a mechanic’s lien is satisfied by payment of the claim, the claimant shall acknowledge satisfaction thereof upon the mechanic’s lien book, or otherwise in writing, and, if the claimant neglects to do so for thirty days after demand in writing, the claimant shall forfeit and pay twenty-five dollars to the owner or contractor, and be liable to any person injured to the extent of the injury.
[R60, §1867–1869, C73, §2145, C97, §3101, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10292; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §572 23]

572.24 Time of bringing action — court.
An action to enforce a mechanic’s lien, or an action brought upon any bond given in lieu thereof, may be commenced in the district court after said lien is perfected.
[R60, §1856, C73, §2142, 2143, C97, §3098, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10293; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §572 24]

572.25 Place of bringing action.
An action to enforce a mechanic’s lien shall be brought in the county in which the property to be affected, or some part thereof, is situated.
[C73, §2142, 2578, C97, §3098, 3493, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10294; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §572 25]

572.26 Kinds of action — amendment.
An action to enforce a mechanic’s lien shall be by equitable proceedings, and no other cause of action shall be joined therewith.
Any lien statement may be amended by leave of court in furtherance of justice, except as to the amount demanded.
[C51, §985, R60, §4183, C73, §2510, C97, §3429, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10286; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §572 26]

572.27 Limitation on action.
An action to enforce a mechanic’s lien may be brought within two years from the expiration of the sixty or ninety days, as the case may be, for filing the claim as provided in this chapter and not afterwards.
[C51, §984, R60, §1865, C73, §2529, C97, §3447, S13, §3447, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10296; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §572 27]
572.28  Demand for bringing suit.
Upon the written demand of the owner, the owner’s agent, or contractor, served on the lienholder requiring the lienholder to commence action to enforce the lien, such action shall be commenced within thirty days thereafter, or the lien and all benefits derived there from shall be forfeited
[C73, §2143, C97, §3099, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10297;
C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §572 28]

572.29  Assignment of lien.
A mechanic’s lien is assignable, and shall follow the assignment of the debt for which it is claimed
[C97, §3099, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10298; C46, 50, 54,
58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §572 29]

572.30  Action by subcontractor or owner against con­ tactor.
Unless otherwise agreed, a principal contractor who engages a subcontractor to supply labor or materials or both for improvements, alterations or repairs to a specific owner occupied dwelling shall pay the subcontactor in full for all labor and materials supplied with in thirty days after the date the principal contractor receives full payment from the owner. If a principal contractor fails without due cause to pay a subcontractor as required by this section, the subcontractor, or the owner by subrogation, may commence an action against the contractor to recover the amount due and the court may, in addition to actual damages, award exemplary damages against the contractor in an amount not exceeding fifty percent of the amount due the subcontractor, or the owner by subrogation, for the labor and materials supplied
[81 Acts, ch 186, §4]
§572.30 Code 1981 transferred to §572.30 in Code 1983

572.31  Co-operative and condominium housing.
A lien arising under this chapter as a result of the construction of an apartment house or apartment building which is owned on a co-operative basis under chapter 499A, or which is submitted to a horizontal property regime under chapter 499B, is not enforceable, notwithstanding any contrary provision of this chapter, as against the interests of an owner in an owner occupied dwelling unit contained in the apart­ mont house or apartment building acquired in good faith and for valuable consideration, unless a lien statement specifically describing the dwelling unit is filed under section 572.8 within the applicable time period specified in section 572.9, but determined from the date on which the last of the material was supplied or the last of the labor was performed in the construction of that dwelling unit
[C81, §572.30]

572.32  Attorney fees.
In a court action to enforce a mechanic’s lien, if the plaintiff furnished labor or materials directly to the defendant, the plaintiff, if successful, shall be awarded reasonable attorney fees
83 Acts, ch 106, §1

572.33  Requirement of notification.
Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, a claim by a person furnishing only materials to a sub­ contractor who is furnishing only materials shall not be entitled to a lien under this chapter unless the person furnishing materials had notified the principal contractor within thirty days of the furnishing of the materials and the lien claim is supported by a certified statement that the principal contractor had been notified within thirty days after the materials were furnished. This requirement is in addition to all other requirements of this chapter.

573.1 Terms defined.

For the purpose of this chapter
1. "Public corporation" shall embrace the state, and all counties, cities, public school corporations, and all officers, boards, or commissions empowered by law to enter into contracts for the construction of public improvements.

2. "Public improvement" is one, the cost of which is payable from taxes or other funds under the control of the public corporation, except in cases of public improvement for drainage or levee purposes the provisions of the drainage law in cases of conflict shall govern.

3. "Construction", in addition to its ordinary meaning, includes repair, alteration and demolition.

4. "Material" shall, in addition to its ordinary meaning, embrace feed, gasoline, kerosene, lubricating oils and greases, provisions and fuel, and the use of forms, accessories, and equipment, but shall not include personal expenses or personal purchases of employees for their individual use.

5. "Service" shall, in addition to its ordinary meaning, include the furnishing to the contractor of workers' compensation insurance, and premiums and charges for such insurance shall be considered a claim for service.

573.2 Public improvements — bond and conditions.

Contracts for the construction of a public improvement shall, when the contract price equals or exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars, be accompanied by a bond, with surety, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, and for the fulfillment of other requirements as provided by law. The bond may also be required when the contract price does not equal that amount. However, if a contractor provides a performance or maintenance bond as required by a public improvement contract governed by this chapter and subsequently the surety company becomes insolvent and the contractor is required to purchase a new bond, the contractor may apply for reimbursement from the governmental agency that required a second bond and the claims shall be reimbursed from funds allocated for road construction purposes.

573.3 Bond mandatory.

The obligation of the public corporation to require, and the contractor to execute and deliver said bond, shall not be limited or avoided by contract.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10301; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573 3]

573.4 Deposit in lieu of bond.

A deposit of money, a certified check on a solvent bank of the county in which the improvement is to be located, a credit union certified share draft, state or federal bonds, bonds issued by a city, school corporation, or county of this state, or bonds issued on behalf of a drainage or highway paving district of this state may be received in an amount equal to the amount of the bond and held in lieu of a surety on the bond, and when so received the securities shall be held on the terms and conditions applicable to a surety.

573.5 Amount of bond.

Said bond shall run to the public corporation. The amount thereof shall be fixed, and the bond approved, by the official board or officer empowered to let the contract, in an amount not less than seventy-five percent of the contract price, and sufficient to comply with all requirements of said contract and to insure the fulfillment of every condition, expressly or impliedly embraced in said bond, except that in contracts where no part of the contract price is paid until after the completion of the public improvement the amount of said bond may be fixed at not less than twenty-five percent of the contract price.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10303; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573 5]

573.6 Subcontractors on public improvements.

The following provisions shall be held to be a part of every bond given for the performance of a contract for the construction of a public improvement, whether said provisions be inserted in such bond or not, to wit:

1. The principal and sureties on this bond hereby agree to pay to all persons, firms, or corporations having contracts directly with the principal or with subcontractors, all just claims due them for labor, services, or materials furnished, in the performance of the contract. When the same are not satisfied out of the portion of the contract price which the public corporation is required to retain until completion of the public improvement, the principal and sureties shall not be liable to said persons, firms, or corporations unless the claims of said claimants against said portion of the contract price shall have been established as provided by law.

2. Every surety on this bond shall be deemed and held, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding, to consent without notice.

a. To any extension of time to the contractor in which to perform the contract.

b. To any change in the plans, specifications, or contract, when such change does not involve an increase of more than twenty percent of the total contract price, and shall then be released only as to such excess increase.

c. That no provision of this bond or of any other contract shall be valid which limits to less than one year from the time of the acceptance of the work the right to sue on this bond for defects in the quality of the work or material not discovered or known to the obligee at the time such work was accepted.

[S13, §1527-s18, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10304; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573 6]

573.7 Claims for material or labor.

Any person, firm, or corporation who has, under a contract with the principal contractor or with subcontractors, performed labor, or furnished material, service, or transportation, in the construction of a public improvement, may make a claim for the material furnished, the services performed, or the labor rendered, and such claim shall be considered a claim for the fulfillment of every condition, expressly or impliedly embraced in the bond.
improvement, may file, with the officer, board, or commission authorized by law to let contracts for such improvement, an itemized, sworn, written statement of the claim for such labor, or material, service, or transportation.

A person furnishing only materials to a subcontractor who is furnishing only materials is not entitled to a claim against the retainage or bond under this chapter and is not an obligee or person protected under the bond pursuant to section 573.6.

[C97, §3102; S13, §1989-a57; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10305; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573.7]

83 Acts, ch 55, §1

573.8 Highway improvements.

In case of highway improvements by the county, claims shall be filed with the county auditor of the county letting the contract. In case of contracts for improvements on the farm-to-market highway system paid from farm-to-market funds, claims shall be filed with the auditor of the state department of transportation.

But no claims filed for credit extended for the personal expenses or personal purchases of employees for their individual use shall cause any part of the unpaid funds of the contractor to be withheld.

573.9 Officer to endorse time of filing claim.

The officer shall endorse over the officer's official signature upon every claim filed with the officer, the date and hour of filing.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10307; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573.9]

573.10 Time of filing claims.

Claims may be filed with said officer as follows:

1. At any time before the expiration of thirty days immediately following the completion and final acceptance of the improvement.

2. At any time after said thirty-day period, if the public corporation has not paid the full contract price as herein authorized, and no action is pending to adjudicate rights in and to the unpaid portion of the contract price.

[C97, §3102; S13, §1989-a57; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10308; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573.10]

573.11 Claims filed after action brought.

The court may permit claims to be filed with it during the pendency of the action hereinafter authorized, if it be made to appear that such belated filing will not materially delay the action.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10309; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573.11]

573.12 Retention from payments on contracts.

Payments made under contracts for the construction of public improvements, unless provided otherwise by law, shall be made on the basis of monthly estimates of labor performed and material delivered, as determined by the project architect or engineer. The public corporation shall retain from each monthly payment five percent of that amount which is determined to be due according to the estimate of the architect or engineer.

[S13, §1989-a57; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10310; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573.12; 81 Acts, ch 127, §3]

573.13 Inviolability and disposition of fund.

No public corporation shall be permitted to plead noncompliance with section 573.12, and the retained percentage of the contract price, which in no case shall be less than five percent shall constitute a fund for the payment of claims for materials furnished and labor performed on said improvement, and shall be held and disposed of by the public corporation as hereinafter provided.

573.14Retention of unpaid funds.

Said fund shall be retained by the public corporation for a period of thirty days after the completion and final acceptance of the improvement. If at the end of said thirty-day period claims are on file as herein provided the public corporation shall continue to retain from said unpaid funds a sum not less than double the total amount of all claims on file.

The public corporation shall order payment of any amount due the contractor to be made in accordance with the terms of the contract. Failure to make payment within seventy days after the work under the contract has been completed and if the work has been accepted and all required materials, certifications, and other documentations required to be submitted by the contractor and specified by the contract have been furnished the awarding public corporation by the contractor, shall cause interest to accrue on the amount unpaid to the benefit of the unpaid party. Interest shall accrue during the period commencing the thirty-first day following the completion of work and satisfaction of the other requirements of this subsection and ending on the date of payment. The rate of interest shall be determined by the period of time during which interest accrues, and shall be the same as the rate of interest that is in effect under section 453.6, as of the day interest begins to accrue, for a deposit of public funds for a comparable period of time. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall abridge any of the rights set forth in section 573.16. Interest shall not accrue on funds retained by the public corporation to satisfy the provisions of this section regarding claims on file. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply if the public corporation has entered into a contract with the federal government or accepted a federal grant which is governed by federal law or rules that are contrary to the provisions of this chapter.

573.15 Exception.

No part of the unpaid fund due the contractor shall be retained as provided in this chapter on claims for material furnished, other than materials ordered by the general contractor or the general contractor's authorized agent, unless such claims are supported by a certified statement that the general contractor had been notified within thirty days after the materials are furnished or by itemized invoices rendered to contractor during the progress of the work, of the amount, kind, and value of the material furnished for use upon the said public improvement, and no part of such unpaid fund due the contractor shall be retained as provided in this chapter because of the commencement of any action by the contractor against the state department of transportation under authority granted in section 613.11.

573.16 Optional and mandatory actions — bond to release.

The public corporation, the principal contractor, any claimant for labor or material who has filed a claim, or the surety on any bond given for the performance of the contract, may, at any time after the expiration of thirty days, and not later than sixty days, following the completion and final acceptance of said improvement, bring action in equity in the county where the improvement is located to adjudicate all rights to said fund, or to enjoin liability on said bond.

Provided that upon written demand of the contractor served on the person or persons filing said claims requiring the claimant to commence action in court to enforce the claim in the manner as prescribed for original notices, such action shall be commenced within thirty days thereafter, otherwise such retained and unpaid funds due the contractor shall be released; and it is further provided that, after such action is commenced, upon the general contractor filing with the public corporation or person withholding such funds, a surety bond in double the amount of the claim in controversy, conditioned to pay any final judgment rendered for such claims so filed, said public corporation or person shall pay to the contractor the amount of such funds so withheld.

Action against surety, §616.15
Manner of service, R C P 49.64

573.17 Parties.

The official board or officer letting the contract, the principal contractor, all claimants for labor and material who have filed their claim, and the surety on any bond given for the performance of the contract shall be joined as plaintiffs or defendants.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10314; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573.17]

573.18 Adjudication — payment of claims.

The court shall adjudicate all claims. Payments from said retained percentage, if still in the hands of the public corporation, shall be made in the following order:

1. Costs of the action.
2. Claims for labor.
3. Claims for materials.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10315; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573.18]

573.19 Insufficiency of funds.

When the retained percentage aforesaid is insufficient to pay all claims for labor or materials, the court shall, in making distribution under section 573.18, order the claims in each class paid in the order of filing the same.

[C97, §3102; S13, §1989-a57; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10316; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573.19]

573.20 Converting property into money.

When it appears that the unpaid portion of the contract price for the public improvement, or a part thereof, is represented in whole or in part, by property other than money, or if a deposit has been made in lieu of a surety, the court shall have jurisdiction thereof, and may cause the same to be sold, under such procedure as it may deem just and proper, and disburse the proceeds as in other cases.

573.21 Attorney fees.

The court may tax, as costs, a reasonable attorney fee in favor of any claimant for labor or materials who has, in whole or in part, established a claim.

[C97, §3103; S13, §1989-a58; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10318; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573.21]

573.22 Unpaid claimants — judgment on bond.

If, after the said retained percentage has been applied to the payment of duly filed and established claims, there remain any such claims unpaid in whole or in part, judgment shall be entered for the amount thereof against the principal and sureties on the bond. In case the said percentage has been paid over as herein provided, judgment shall be entered against the principal and sureties on all such claims.

573.23 Abandonment of public work — effect.

When a contractor abandons the work on a public improvement or is legally excluded therefrom, the improvement shall be deemed completed for the purpose of filing claims as herein provided, from the date of the official cancellation of the contract. The only fund available for the payment of the claims of persons for labor performed or material furnished shall be the amount then due the contractor, if any, and if said amount be insufficient to satisfy said claims, the claimants shall have a right of action on the bond given for the performance of the contract.

573.24 Notice of claims to state department of transportation.

If payment for such improvement is to be made in whole or in part from the primary road fund, the county auditor shall immediately notify the state department of transportation of the filing of all claims.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10321; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573.24]
§573A.4 Filing of claim — effect.

The filing of any claim shall not work the withholding of any funds from the contractor except the retained percentage, as provided in this chapter.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10322; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573.25]

§573.26 Public corporation — action on bond.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as limiting in any manner the right of the public corporation to pursue any remedy on the bond given for the performance of the contract.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10323; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573.26]

CHAPTER 573A

EMERGENCY STOPPAGE OF PUBLIC CONTRACTS

573A.1 National emergency.

In the event work or construction upon a public improvement is stopped directly or indirectly by or as the result of an order or action of any federal or state authority or of any court because of the occurrence or existence of a situation which the president or the Congress of the United States has declared to be national emergency, and the circumstances or conditions are such that it is and will be impracticable to proceed with such work or construction, then the public corporation and the contractor or contractors may, by written agreement terminate said contract. Such an agreement shall include the terms and conditions of the termination of the contract and provision for the payment of compensation or money, if any, which any party shall pay to the other, or any other person, firm or corporation under the facts and circumstances in the case.

573A.2 Termination of contracts.

Whenever a public corporation and a contractor or contractors, have entered into a contract for the construction of a public improvement, and any party to such contract desires to terminate said contract because of the occurrence of the event and under the circumstances stated in section 573A.1, and another party thereto will not agree to such termination, or said parties having agreed upon the termination of the contract cannot agree upon the terms and conditions thereof, then any party may have the issues in dispute determined in the manner hereinafter provided.

573A.3 Determination of dispute.

Any party to the contract may have the issue in dispute determined by filing in the district court of the county in which the public improvement or any part thereof is located a verified petition which shall allege in detail the ultimate facts upon which the petitioner relies for the termination of such contract. All subcontractors and the sureties upon all bonds given in connection with the contract and subcontracts shall be made parties to the proceeding.

573A.4 Rules applicable.

The rules of civil procedure shall be applicable to such action. The cause shall be tried forthwith in equity, and the court shall give such cases preference over other cases, except criminal cases.

[C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573A.4]
§573A.5 Jurisdiction.
The district court shall have jurisdiction of the issue which is thus presented, and of all parties including any public corporation as defined in this chapter. The court shall make findings and render its judgment determining the issues involved in accordance with the purpose and spirit of this chapter.
[C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573A 5]

§573A.6 Appeal.
Any party aggrieved by the findings and judgment of the district court may appeal to the supreme court as in other cases and the case shall be given preference over other cases in the supreme court.
[C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573A 6]

§573A.7 Order of court.
If the court determines that said contract should be terminated, or if the parties have agreed to its termination, the court shall include in its order:
1. The terms and conditions imposed upon each party to the contract, including the extent of the liability of the sureties upon any bond,
2. The protective requirements, if any be deemed necessary, to protect the property, and provision for the payment of the cost thereof,
3. The determination of the relative rights of the parties involved, including the compensation or payments, if any, which any party shall pay to any other person, firm or corporation under the facts and circumstances of the case.
If the court determines that the contract shall not be terminated, it shall state in its order the reasons therefor. The court shall adjust and assess the costs in such manner as may be equitable and fair under the circumstances.
[C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573A 7]

§573A.8 Limit of payment.
In no event shall the public corporation pay or be required to pay compensation or moneys in excess of the total compensation stated in the contract for the construction of the public improvement.
[C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573A 8]

§573A.9 Application of statute.
The provisions of this chapter shall not apply unless it is specifically contracted for between the contracting parties.
[C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573A 9]

§573A.10 Definitions.
For the purposes of this chapter:
1. "Public corporation" shall embrace the state, and all counties, cities, public school corporations, drainage districts, and all officers, boards or commissions empowered by law to enter into contracts for the construction of public improvements.
2. "Public improvement" is one, the cost of which is payable from taxes or other funds under the control of the public corporation.
3. "Construction" shall, in addition to its ordinary meaning, embrace repair and alteration.
[C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §573A 10]

CHAPTER 574
MINER’S LIEN

574.1 Nature of miner’s lien.
Every laborer or miner who shall perform labor in opening, developing, or operating any coal mine shall have a lien for the full value of such labor upon all the property of the person, firm, or corporation owning or operating such mine and used in the construction or operation thereof, including real estate and personal property. Such lien shall be secured and enforced in the same manner as a mechanic’s lien.
[C97, §3105, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10324; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §574 1]

CHAPTER 577

ARTISAN'S LIEN

577.1 Nature of lien.

Any person who renders any service or furnishes any material in the making, repairing, improving, or enhancing the value of any manmade personal property, with the assent of the owner, express or implied, shall have a lien thereon for the agreed or reasonable compensation for the service and material while such property is lawfully in the person's possession, which possession the person may retain until such compensation is paid, but such lien shall be subject to all prior liens of record, unless notice is given to all lienholders of record and written consent is obtained from all lienholders of record to the making, repairing, improving, or enhancing the value of any manmade personal property and in this event the lien created under this section shall be prior to liens of record.

CHAPTER 578
COLD STORAGE LOCKER LIEN
Regulation and licensing, ch 172

578.1 Storage lien. Every lessor owning or operating a refrigerated locker plant or plants, shall have a lien upon all property of every kind in its possession for all reasonable charges and rents thereon and for the handling, keeping, and caring for the same.

578.2 Enforcement of lien. Said lien may be foreclosed in the manner provided in the Uniform Commercial Code, section 554.7308.

CHAPTER 578A
SELF-SERVICE STORAGE FACILITY LIEN

578A.1 Short title. This Act shall be known as the “Iowa Self-Service Storage Facility Lien Act”.

578A.2 Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

1. “Self-service storage facility” means real property designed and used for the purpose of renting or leasing individual storage space to occupants who are to have access to the space for the purpose of storing personal property. If an owner issues a warehouse receipt, bill of lading, or other document of title for the personal property stored, the owner and the occupant are subject to chapter 554, article 7 and this chapter does not apply.

2. “Owner” means the owner, operator, lessor, or sublessor of a self-service storage facility, the agent, or any other person authorized by the owner to manage the facility, or to receive rent from an occupant under a rental agreement.

3. “Occupant” means a person, in privity with the owner, entitled to the use to the exclusion of others of the storage space at a self-service storage facility pursuant to privity with the owner.

4. “Rental agreement” means an agreement or lease, written or oral, between the owner and occupant, that establishes or modifies the terms, conditions, rules, or any other provisions concerning the use and occupancy of a self service storage facility

5 "Personal property" means movable property not affixed to land, and includes, but is not limited to goods, merchandise, and household items

6 "Last known address" means that address provided by the occupant in the latest rental agreement, or the address provided by the occupant by certified mail in a subsequent written notice of a change of address

7 "Possessory lien" means a lien on a personal property that is valid only while the property is in the possession of the person asserting the lien or an agent of the person

578A.3 Lien.
The owner of a self service storage facility and the heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns have a possessory lien upon all personal property located at a self service storage facility for rent, labor, or other reasonable charges, in relation to the storage of the personal property, and for expenses necessary for its preservation, or expenses reasonably incurred in its sale or other disposition pursuant to this chapter.
The lien provided for in this section shall not have priority over a lien or security interest perfected prior to the time the personal property is placed within or upon the self service facility. The lien attaches as of the date the personal property is brought to the self service storage facility.

84 Acts, ch 1130, §3

578A.4 Enforcement of lien.
An owner's lien for a claim which has become due may be satisfied as follows

1. The occupant shall be notified by delivering in person with acceptance to be signed by the occupant or by mailing by certified mail to the last known address of the occupant, a notice which shall include:
   a. An itemized statement of the owner's claim showing the amount due at the time of the notice and the date when the amount became due
   b. A brief and general description of the personal property subject to the lien. The description shall be reasonably adequate to permit the person notified to identify it, except that any container including a trunk, value, or box that is locked, fastened, sealed, or tied in a manner which deters immediate access to its contents shall be described as such without describing its contents
   c. A statement that the occupant is denied access to the personal property, if a denial is permitted under the rental agreement. The statement shall provide the name, street address, and telephone number of the owner, or the owner's designated agent, whom the occupant may contact to respond to this notice
   d. A demand for payment within a specified time not less than fourteen days after delivery of the notice
   e. A conspicuous statement that unless the claim is paid within the time stated in the notice, the personal property will be advertised for sale or other disposition, and will be sold or otherwise disposed of at a specified time and place

2. A notice mailed by certified mail pursuant to subsection 1 is made and completed when the notice is enclosed in a sealed envelope with the proper post age on the envelope, addressed to the occupant or successor at the last known address, and deposited in a mail receptacle provided by the United States postal service.

3. After the expiration of the time given in the notice, an advertisement of the sale or other disposition shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the self service storage facility is located. The advertisement shall include:
   a. A brief and general description of the personal property reasonably adequate to permit its identification as provided for in subsection 1, paragraph b
   b. The address of the self-service storage facility, the number, if any, of the space where the personal property is located, and the name of the occupant
   c. The time, place, and manner of the sale or other disposition. The sale or other disposition shall take place not sooner than fifteen days after the first publication. If there is no newspaper of general circulation where the self service storage facility is located, the advertisement shall be posted at least ten days before the date of the sale or other disposition in at least six conspicuous places in the neighborhood where the self service storage facility is located.

4. A sale or other disposition of the personal property shall conform to the terms of the notification provided for in this section.

5. A sale or other disposition of the personal property shall be held at the self service storage facility, or at the nearest suitable place to where the personal property is held or stored.

6. Before a sale or other disposition of personal property is made pursuant to this section, the occupant may pay the amount necessary to satisfy the lien, and the reasonable expenses incurred under this section, and redeem the personal property. Upon receipt of such payment, the owner shall return the personal property.

7. A purchaser in good faith of the personal property sold to satisfy the lien takes the property free of any rights of persons against whom the lien was valid, despite noncompliance by the owner with the requirements of this section. The purchaser shall apply for a new title to a vehicle by the procedures outlined in section 321.47. For all other property which has a written title, the purchaser shall follow the applicable procedures for the property for the transfer of title by operation of law.

8. In the event of a sale under this section, the owner may satisfy the lien from the proceeds of the sale, but shall hold the balance in a segregated escrow account for a period of ninety days for delivery on demand to the occupant. If the occupant does not claim the balance within ninety days, the moneys shall be paid to the county treasurer in the county where the facility is located. The county treasurer shall hold the money for a period of two years. If a claim is not made by the owner for the funds, then the funds shall be come the property of the county. There shall be no further recourse by any person against the owner for an action pursuant to this section.

§578A.5 Supplemental nature of chapter.
This chapter does not impair or affect the right of parties to create liens by special contract or agreement, nor does it affect or impair other liens arising at common law or in equity, or by a statute of this state.
84 Acts, ch 1130, §5

§578A.6 Facility not residence or warehouse.
An occupant shall not use a self-service storage facility for residential purposes. A self-service storage facility is not a warehouse as defined in chapter 554.

CHAPTER 579
LIEN FOR CARE OF STOCK AND STORAGE OF BOATS AND MOTOR VEHICLES

579.1 Nature of lien.
Livery and feed stable keepers, herders, feeders, keepers of stock and of places for the storage of motor vehicles, boats and boat engines and boat motors shall have a lien on all property coming into their hands, as such, for their charges and the expense of keeping, but such lien shall be subject to all prior liens of record.
[C97, §3137; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10345; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §579.1]
Bond to release, ch. 584

579.2 Satisfaction of lien by sale.
If such charges and expenses are not paid, the lienholder may sell said stock and property at public auction, after giving to the owner or claimant, if found within the county, ten days' notice in writing of the time and place of such sale and also by posting written notices thereof in three public places in the township where said stock and property were kept or received.
[C97, §3137; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10346; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §579.2]
Attachment to enforce, §640

579.3 Disposal of proceeds.
Out of the proceeds of such sale the lienholder shall pay all of the charges and expenses of keeping said stock and property, together with the costs and expenses of said sale, and the balance shall be paid to the owner or claimant of the stock and property.
[C97, §3137; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10347; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §579.3]

CHAPTER 580
LIEN FOR SERVICES OF ANIMALS

580.1 Nature of lien — forfeiture.
580.2 Period of lien — sale or removal.
580.3 Sale or removal prohibited — penalty.
580.4 Affidavit of foreclosure.
580.5 Possession and notice.
580.6 Service of notice.
580.7 Joinder of liens.
580.8 Sale — application of proceeds.
580.9 Right of contest — injunction.
580.1 Nature of lien — forfeiture.
The owner or keeper of any stallion, bull or jack kept for public service, or any person, firm, or association which invokes pregnancy of animals for the public by means of artificial insemination shall have a prior lien on the progeny of such stallion, bull, artificial insemination or jack, to secure the amount due such owner, artificial inseminator or keeper for the service resulting in such progeny, but no such lien shall obtain where the owner or keeper misrepresents the animal by a false or spurious pedigree, or fails to substantially comply with the laws of Iowa relating to such animals.

[§13, §2341-s; C24, 27, 31, §2967; C35, §10347-a1; C39, §10347.01; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §580.1]

580.2 Period of lien — sale or removal.
The lien herein provided for shall attach at the birth of such progeny and shall remain in force on such progeny for one year and shall not be lost by reason of any sale, exchange, or removal from the county of the animals subject to such lien.

[§13, §2341-t; C24, 27, 31, §2968; C35, §10347-a2; C39, §10347.02; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §580.2]

580.3 Sale or removal prohibited — penalty.
It shall be unlawful to sell, exchange, or remove permanently from the county any animal subject to the lien herein provided for, without the written consent of the holder of such lien, and any person violating this provision, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

[C24, 27, 31, §2973; C35, §10347-a7; C39, §10347.07; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §580.7]

580.4 Affidavit of foreclosure.
Liens may be enforced by the holder filing with the sheriff of the county in which the progeny is kept, an affidavit which shall, in addition to a demand for foreclosure, contain:

1. A description of the stallion, bull or jack, when used and of the dam and its progeny.
2. The time and terms of said service.
3. A statement of the amount due for said service.

[§13, §2341-u; C24, 27, 31, §2974; C35, §10347-a8; C39, §10347.08; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §580.8]

580.5 Possession and notice.
The sheriff shall, under said affidavit, take immediate possession of said progeny, and give written notice of the sale thereof, which notice shall contain:

1. A copy of the said affidavit.
2. The date and hour when, and the particular place at which, said property will be sold.

[§13, §2341-v; C24, 27, 31, §2975; C35, §10347-a9; C39, §10347.09; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §580.9]

CHAPTER 581

VETERINARIAN’S LIEN

581.1 Nature of lien.
Every veterinarian, licensed and registered in accordance with chapter 169, shall have a lien for the actual and reasonable value of any product used and for the actual and reasonable value of any professional service rendered by the veterinarian in connection with livestock, providing claim for said lien is filed as hereinafter provided.
[C35, §10347-f1; C39, §10347.10; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §581.1]

581.2 Priority.
Said lien shall have priority over all other liens and encumbrances upon said livestock if filed as hereinafter provided.
[C35, §10347-f2; C39, §10347.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §581.2]

581.3 Statement — filing.
Any veterinarian entitled to a lien under this chapter shall make an account in writing, duly verified, stating the kind and number and a particular description of livestock upon which such services were rendered, the amount and kind of product used and the actual and reasonable value of such services and products and the name of the person or persons for whom such services were rendered and file the same in the office of the clerk of the district court in the county in which the person or persons owning such livestock resides, within sixty days after the day on which said services were rendered. Said lien shall be effective from the date of filing.
[C35, §10347-f3; C39, §10347.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §581.3]

581.4 Enforcement.
The lienholder may enforce the lien by a suit in equity.
[C35, §10347-f4; C39, §10347.13; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §581.4]

CHAPTER 582

HOSPITAL LIEN

582.1 Nature of lien.
Every association, corporation, county, or other institution, including a municipal corporation, maintaining a hospital in the state, which shall furnish medical or other service to any patient injured by reason of an accident not covered by the workers' compensation Act, shall, if such injured party shall assert or maintain a claim against another for damages on account of such injuries, have a lien upon that part going or belonging to such patient of any recovery or sum had or collected or to be collected by such patient, or by the patient's heirs or personal representatives in the case of the patient's death, whether by judgment or by settlement or compromise to the amount of the reasonable and necessary charges of such hospital for the treatment, care, and maintenance of such patient in such hospital up to the date of payment of such damages; provided, however, that this lien shall not in any way prejudice or interfere with any lien or contract which may be made by such patient or the patient's...
heirs or personal representatives with any attorney or attorneys for handling the claim on behalf of such patient, the patient’s heirs, or personal representatives; provided, further, that the lien herein set forth shall not be applied or considered valid against anyone coming under the workers’ compensation Act in this state.

[C35, §10347-f5; C39, §10347.14; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §582.1]

Workers’ compensation, ch 85

582.2 Written notice of lien.

No such lien shall be effective, however, unless a written notice containing the name and address of the injured person, the date of the accident, the name and location of the hospital, and the name of the person or persons, firm or firms, corporation or corporations alleged to be liable to the injured party for the injuries received, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which such hospital is located, prior to the payment of any moneys to such injured person, the person’s attorneys or legal representative, as compensation for such injuries; nor unless the hospital shall also mail, postage prepaid, a copy of such notice with a statement of the date of filing thereof to the person or persons, firm or firms, corporation or corporations alleged to be liable to such hospital for the amount which such hospital was entitled to receive as aforesaid; any such association, corporation, or other institution maintaining such hospital may, within such period, enforce its lien by a suit at law against such person or persons, firm or firms, corporation or corporations making any such payment.

[C35, §10347-f7; C39, §10347.16; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §582.3]

582.4 Lien book — fees.

Every clerk of the district court shall, at the expense of the county, provide a suitable well-bound book to be called the hospital lien docket in which, upon the filing of any lien claim under the provisions of this chapter, the clerk shall enter the name of the injured person, the date of the accident, and the name of the hospital or other institution making the claim. Said clerk shall make a proper index of the same in the name of the injured person and such clerk shall collect a fee of two dollars for filing each claim.

[C35, §10347-f8; C39, §10347.17; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §582.4]
§583.2 Nature of hotelkeeper's lien.
A hotelkeeper shall have a lien upon the baggage of any guest, which may be in that hotel, for:
1. The accommodations and keep of said guest.
2. The money paid for or advanced to said guest.
3. The extras and other things furnished said guest.
[C97, §3138; S13, §3138; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10349;
C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §583.2]

583.3 Enforcement of claim by ordinary action.
The hotelkeeper may take and retain possession of all baggage and may enforce the claim by an ordinary action. Said baggage shall be subject to attachment and execution for the reasonable charges of the hotel-keeper against the guest, and for the costs of enforcing the lien thereon.
[C97, §3138; S13, §3138; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10350;
C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §583.3]

583.4 Satisfaction of lien by sale.
If the hotelkeeper does not proceed by an ordinary action the hotelkeeper shall retain the baggage upon which the hotelkeeper has a lien for a period of ninety days, at the expiration of which time, if such lien is not satisfied, the hotelkeeper may sell such baggage at public auction after giving ten days' notice of the time and place of sale in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the hotel is situated, and also by mailing a copy of such notice addressed to said guest at the place of residence registered by the guest in the register of the hotel.
[C97, §3138; S13, §3138; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10351;
C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §583.4]

583.5 Disposal of proceeds — statement.
From the proceeds of said sale the hotelkeeper shall satisfy the lien, the reasonable expense of storage, and the costs for enforcing the lien, and any remaining balance shall, on demand within six months, be paid to the guest, and if not demanded within said period of time, said balance shall be deposited by the hotel-keeper with the county treasurer of the county in which the hotel is situated, together with:
1. A statement of the hotelkeeper's claim and the costs of enforcing same.
2. A copy of the published notice of sale.
3. A statement of the amounts received for the goods sold at said sale.
[C97, §3138; S13, §3138; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10352;
C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §583.5]

CHAPTER 584
RELEASE OF LIENS BY BOND

584.1 Liens subject to release.
584.2 Requirements of bond.
584.3 Effect of bond.
584.4 Action on bond.

584.1 Liens subject to release.
An owner of personal property in this state who disputes, either the existence, on such property, of a common law or statutory lien, or the amount of any such lien, may release such lien, if any, and become entitled to the immediate possession of said property by filing a bond as hereinafter provided.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10354; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66,
71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §584.1]

584.2 Requirements of bond.
Said bond shall be in an amount equal to twice the amount of the lien claimed, shall have one or more sureties, shall be approved by and filed with the clerk of the district court of the county where the property is being held under the claimed lien, and shall be conditioned to pay claimant any sum found to be due and also found to have been a lien on said property at the time the bond is filed.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10355; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66,
71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §584.2]

584.3 Effect of bond.
When said bond is filed and claimant is given written notice of such filing, the said lien, if any, shall stand released, and the owner shall be entitled to the immediate possession of said property.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10356; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66,
71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §584.3]
§584.4 Action on bond.

An action upon said bond shall be brought in the county where the owner of the property resides; when the said owner is a nonresident of this state, the action shall be brought in the county where the bond is filed. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10357; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §584.4]
585.1 Publication prior to passage.

No bill which seeks to legalize the official proceedings of any board of supervisors, board of school directors, or city council, or which seeks to legalize any warrant or bond issued by any of said official bodies, shall be placed on passage in either house or senate until such bill as introduced shall have been published in full in some newspaper published within the territorial limits of the public corporation whose proceedings, warrants, or bonds are proposed to be legalized, nor until proof of such publication shall have been filed with the chief clerk of the house, and with the secretary of the senate, and a brief minute of such filing entered on the respective journals

Additional requirements §17 19

585.2 Place of publication in certain cases.

In case no newspaper is published within such territorial limits, the publication required by this chapter shall be made in one newspaper of general circulation published within the county

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10359; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §585.2]

585.3 Caption of publication.

The publication required by this chapter shall be made under the following caption or heading, to wit: "Proposed bill for the legalization of the proceedings of (name of official body)"

If the proposed bill be for the legalization of the bonds or warrants of the public corporation, the caption shall be modified accordingly

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10360; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §585.3]

585.4 Cost of publication.

If the bill be introduced at the instance of the public body whose proceedings, bonds, or warrants are sought to be legalized, the cost of the aforesaid publication may be paid from the general fund of the public corporation

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10361; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §585.4]

Cost of printing §17 19

585.5 Subsequent amendment — effect.

The amendment of the proposed bill after its publication as aforesaid shall not affect its legality, provided the subject matter of the bill is not substantially changed

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10362; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §585.5]

NOTARIES PUBLIC AND ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

§586.1 Specific defects legalized.

The following acts and instruments are hereby legalized and declared to be as valid as though all defects and irregularities therein as set forth below had never existed; nothing in this section, however, shall affect pending litigation:

1. Official acts performed before 1970 by notaries public during the time that they held over in office without qualifying after the expiration of the preceding term, if such notaries public have since qualified.

2. Acknowledgments taken before 1970 by notaries public outside their jurisdiction.

3. Acknowledgments taken and oaths administered by mayors under section 691, Code 1897, or section 1216 of subsequent Codes to and including the Code of 1939 and section 78.2 to and including Code of 1966, in proceedings not connected with their offices.

4. Acknowledgments of deeds, mortgages, permanent school fund mortgages and contracts taken and certified before 1970 by any county auditor, deputy county auditor, or deputy clerk of the district court although such officer was not authorized to take the acknowledgments at the time they were taken.

5. Acknowledgments taken and certified as provided by the Code of 1873, which were taken and certified after September 29, 1897, and prior to April 14, 1898, by officers having authority under the Code of 1873 to take and certify acknowledgments, as though such acknowledgments were taken and certified according to the provisions of the Code of 1897, and as though the officers were authorized to take and certify acknowledgments.

6. Acknowledgments taken, certified, and recorded before 1970 in the proper counties, and which are defective only in the form of the certificate of the officer taking the acknowledgment or because made before an official not qualified to take such acknowledgment but who was qualified to take acknowledgments generally.

7. Acknowledgments taken outside the United States before 1970 by officers authorized by section 10092, Codes 1924 to 1939 and section 558.28, Code 1946 to and including the Code of 1966, to take such acknowledgments, whether or not a certificate of authenticity as provided by section 10093, Codes of 1924 to 1939 and section 558.29, Code 1946 to and including the Code of 1966, is attached to such instrument; and the certificate of acknowledgment of such officer is hereby made conclusive evidence that such officer was duly qualified to make such certificate of acknowledgment.

8. Any instrument affecting real estate executed before 1970 by an attorney in fact for the grantor where a duly executed and sufficient power of attorney was on file in the county where the land was situated, although the instrument was executed and acknowledged in the form of "A, attorney in fact for B", instead of "B, by A, the attorney in fact for B"; or if such instrument is duly recorded and there is no record in the county where the land is situated of a power of attorney authorizing the attorney in fact to so act.

9. Any written instrument and the recording thereof, recorded prior to 1970 in the office of the recorder of the proper county, although there is attached to the instrument a defective certificate of acknowledgment.

CHAPTER 587
JUDGMENTS AND DECREES LEGALIZED

587.1 Decrees against unknown claimants.

All decrees of court obtained in actions against unknown defendants in which the notice was entitled in the initial or initials of the plaintiff instead of the plaintiff's full given name are legalized, and the decrees have the same force and effect as if the notice had been entitled in the full name of the plaintiff as was provided for in section 3538, Code of 1897, and in section 3538 of the supplement to the Code of 1913.

[SS15, §3540-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10375; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §587.1]
85 Acts, ch 67, §52

587.2 Certain publications of original notices.

No action in which unknown persons were made parties defendant pursuant to the requirements of section 3538, supplemental supplement to the Code 1915, and in which notice of such action was given by publication between July 1, 1913, and July 1, 1915, for four consecutive weeks, the last publication being ten days prior to the first day of the term for which said action was brought as shown by proof on file in the office of the clerk of the court where said action was pending, shall be held ineffectual, void, or insufficient because the records fail to show that the court or judge approved said notice before publication or failed to endorse approval on said notice or failed to designate in which paper said notice should be published as required by section 3539, Code of 1897.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10376; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §587.2] 587.3 Original notices failing to name term.

All judgments and decrees heretofore made legal and held to have the same force and effect as though the service of such original notice had been made on the minor or ward within the state of Iowa.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10377; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §587.4]

587.4 Decrees for sale of real estate by guardian.

In all cases where decrees and orders of court have been obtained for the sale of real estate by a guardian prior to January 1, 1969, where the original notice shows that service of notice pertaining to the sale of such real estate was made on the minor or ward outside of the state of Iowa, such services of notices are hereby legalized. All decrees so obtained as aforesaid are hereby legalized and held to have the same force and effect as though the service of such original notice had been made on the minor or ward within the state of Iowa.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10377; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §587.4] years in the county in which the real estate is situated shall, at the expiration of ten years from date of filing, entering, or recording thereof, have the same force and effect as is above given to those now in effect more than ten years

[S13, §2963-m, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10378; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §587.5]

§587.6 Judgments in probate by circuit courts.

In all cases where matters or proceedings in probate have been heard by the circuit courts or judges outside the county in which such matters or proceedings were pending, and in all cases where orders and judgments in probate matters and proceedings have been made by the circuit courts and judges outside the county in which such proceeding or matter was pending, and where such hearing was had or order or judgment made within the circuit to which the county belonged in which such proceeding or matter was pending, and where such hearing was had or order or judgment shall be held and deemed to be of the same validity and force and effect as if such hearing was had or such order or judgment was made within the circuit to which the county belonged in which such proceeding or matter was pending, and all title and rights acquired under such orders and judgments shall be held and deemed to be of the same legal force and effect and to be as valid as if such order or judgment had been made within the county in which the proceeding or matter was pending

§587.7 Judgments or decrees quieting title.

No existing judgment or decree quieting title to real estate as against defects arising prior to January 1, 1966, and purporting to sustain the record title shall, at the expiration of ten years from date of filing, entering, or recording thereof, have the same force and effect as the affidavit of nonresidence, as provided in said section, was filed at the time of or prior to the first publication of such notice. All decrees so obtained, as aforesaid, are hereby legalized and held to have the same force and effect as though the affidavit of nonresidence had been filed, as by law required

§587.9 Decrees in general — affidavit of publication.

In all cases where decrees of court have been obtained prior to January 1, 1969, in which the proof of publication of the original notice has been made by the affidavit of the editor of the newspaper or the publisher, manager, cashier, or supervisor thereof in which such original notice was published, the same are hereby legalized and such decrees shall have the same force and effect as though the affidavit of the publisher or supervisor of the newspaper in which such original notice was published had been filed as provided by section 3536, Code of 1897, or section 11085, Codes of 1924, 1927, 1931, 1935, 1939 and rule of civil procedure, number 60, Code 1946, that all decrees obtained as aforesaid are hereby legalized and held to have the same force and effect as though the proof of the publication on the original notice had been made by the affidavit of the publisher or supervisor of the newspaper in which such original notice was published

§587.10 Affidavit of publication of notice by assistant publisher.

All affidavits of proof of publication of any notice or original notice made by the assistant publisher of any newspaper of general circulation, which were executed and filed prior to January 1, 1970, are hereby legalized, declared valid, binding, and of full force and effect

[C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §587.10]

§587.11 Annulment of marriages — service by publication.

All decrees of the courts of this state made and entered of record in actions brought to annul a marriage in which the service of the original notice was made by publication in the manner provided by law for actions for divorce are hereby legalized and validated as fully and to the same extent as if the statute at the time such suit was instituted had provided for service of the original notice by publication in the time and manner aforesaid

[S13, §3167 a, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10385; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §587.11]

§587.12 Service by publication under rule 60.

1 In all actions or in proceedings in probate where an order, judgment or decree has been entered prior to July 1, 1970, based upon service of notice by publication as provided by rule 60 of the Iowa rules of civil procedure or any statute authorizing publication of notice or upon service of notice by publication or posting pursuant to authorization or direction of any court of competent jurisdiction in the state of Iowa, all such orders, judgments or decrees are hereby declared valid and of full force and effect, unless an action shall be commenced within the time provided in subsection 2 hereof to question such order, judgment or decree, or any right or status created, confirmed or existing thereunder.

2. No action shall be maintained in any court to question any such order, judgment or decree, or any right or status created, confirmed or existing thereunder unless such action shall be commenced within one year from July 1, 1970.

3. The provisions of section 614.8 as to the rights of minors and insane persons and any other provision of law fixing or extending the time within which actions may be commenced shall not be applicable to extend the time within which any such action shall be commenced beyond one year after July 1, 1970.

CHAPTER 588
EXECUTION SALES LEGALIZED

588.1 Failure to make proper entries.

All execution sales heretofore had wherein the execution officer has failed to endorse on the execution the day and hour when received, the levy, sale, or other act done by virtue thereof, with the date thereof, the dates and amounts of any receipts or payment in satisfaction thereof at the time of the receipt or act done, or has failed to endorse thereon, an exact description of the property levied upon at length with the date of levy, be and the same are hereby legalized and declared to be legal and valid as if all of the provisions of laws as required by sections 11664 to 11668.1 [Code 1939], both inclusive, had been in all respects strictly and fully complied with.

[C35, §10383-e1; C39, §10383.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,
66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §588.1]

588.2 Homestead selection — deficiency.

All execution sales of real estate heretofore had in which the execution officer has failed to serve notice upon the titleholders in possession to select their homestead or has defectively served such notice or, having served such notice, has, upon the failure of defendants to select a homestead, neglected to plat the same or has defectively platted the same, or where said execution officer in such sales has offered the property en masse without first offering the same in the least legal subdivisions, or where said officer has failed to offer property, including the homestead, first separately in least legal subdivisions exclusive of homest-stead, then offering all property en masse, exclusive of the homestead, then offering the homestead separately, then offering all of the property for sale, en masse, be and the same are hereby legalized and declared to be legal and valid in all particulars as if all of the provisions of the law had been in all respects strictly and fully complied with at the time of said acts or said sales.

[C39, §10383.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §588.2]
CHAPTER 589

REAL PROPERTY LEGALIZING ACTS

Dubuque and Pacific R R lands, see §10 12

589.1 Acknowledgments — seal not affixed.
All deeds, mortgages, or other instruments in writing for the conveyance of lands which have been made and executed before July 1, 1970, and the officer taking the acknowledgment has not affixed the officer's seal to the acknowledgment; the acknowledgment is, nevertheless, good and valid in law and equity, anything in any law passed before July 1, 1970, to the contrary notwithstanding.

[S13, §2942-2; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10384; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §589.1]

589.2 Conveyances by county.
All deeds executed before July 1, 1970, by a court or the chairperson of the board of supervisors of a county, and to which the officer executing the deed has failed or omitted to affix the county seal, and all deeds where the clerk has failed or omitted to countersign when required so to do, are legalized and valid as though the law had in all respects been fully complied with.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10385; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §589.2]

589.3 Absence of or defective acknowledgments.
Any instrument in writing affecting the title to real estate within the state of Iowa, to which is attached no certificate of acknowledgment, or to which is attached a defective certificate of acknowledgment, which was, prior to January 1, 1970, recorded or spread upon the records in the office of the recorder of the county in which the real estate described in the instrument is located, is, together with the recording and the record of the recording, valid, legal, and binding as if the instrument had been properly acknowledged and legally recorded.

[S13, SS15, §2963-2; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10386; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §589.3]
84 Acts, ch 1090, §3

589.4 Acknowledgments by corporation officers.
The acknowledgments of all deeds, mortgages, or other instruments in writing taken or certified before July 1, 1970, which instruments have been recorded in the recorder's office of any county of this state, including acknowledgments of instruments made by a corporation, or to which the corporation was a party, or under which the corporation was a beneficiary, and which have been acknowledged before or certified by a notary public who was at the time of the acknowledgment or certifying a stockholder or officer in the corporation, are legal and valid official acts of the notaries public, and entitle the instruments to be recorded, anything in the laws of the state of Iowa in regard to acknowledgments to the contrary notwithstanding. This section does not affect pending litigation.

84 Acts, ch 1090, §4

589.5 Acknowledgments by stockholders.
All deeds and conveyances of lands within this state executed before July 1, 1970, but which have been acknowledged or proved according to and in compliance with the laws of this state before a notary public or other official authorized by law to take acknowledgments who was, at the time of the acknowledgment, an officer or stockholder of a corporation interested in the deed or conveyance, or otherwise interested in the deeds or conveyances, are, if otherwise valid, valid in law as though acknowledged or proved before an officer not interested in the deeds or conveyances, and if recorded before July 1, 1970, in the respective counties in which the lands are, the records are valid in law as though the deeds and conveyances, so acknowledged or proved and recorded, had, prior to being recorded, been acknowledged or proved before an officer having no interest in the deeds or conveyances.

§589.6 Instruments affecting real estate.

All instruments in writing executed by a corporation prior to July 1, 1970, conveying, encumbering, or affecting real estate, including releases, satisfactions of mortgages, judgments, or any other liens by entry of the release or satisfaction upon the page where the lien appears recorded or entered, where the corporate seal of the corporation has not been affixed or attached, and which are otherwise legally and properly executed, are legal, valid, and binding as though the corporate seal had been attached or affixed.

§589.7 Repealed by 68GA, ch 133, §13

§589.8 Mortgages, trust deeds and realty liens — releases before July 1, 1970.

A release or satisfaction of a mortgage or trust deed, or of an instrument in writing creating a lien upon real estate where the release or satisfaction has been recorded in the recorder’s office of the county in this state, or upon the margin of the record, where the original instrument was recorded and which release or satisfaction was made by an individual, association, copartnership, assignee, corporation, attorney in fact, or by a resident or foreign executor, administrator, referee, receiver, trustee, guardian, or commissioner, and which release or satisfaction was executed, filed, and recorded prior to July 1, 1970, is valid, legal and binding, any defects in the execution, acknowledged, recording, filing, or otherwise of the releases or satisfactions to the contrary notwithstanding.

§589.9 Marginal releases of school-fund mortgages.

The release or satisfaction of a school-fund mortgage entered on the margin of the record of the mortgage by the auditor of the county prior to July 1, 1970, is legalized as though the auditor had, at the time of entering the release or satisfaction, the same power thereafter conferred upon the auditor by chapter 53 of the Acts of the Twenty-fifth General Assembly.

§589.10 Marginal assignment of mortgage or lien.

If an assignment of a mortgage or other recorded lien on real estate has been made before July 1, 1970, by written assignment on the margin of the record where the mortgage or other lien has been recorded or entered, the assignment passed all the right, title, and interest in the real estate, which the assignor at the time had, with like force and effect as if the assignment had been made by separate instrument duly acknowledged and recorded, and an assignment or a duly authenticated copy of an assignment when accompanied by a duly authenticated copy of the record of the instrument or lien it purports to assign, is admissible in evidence as provided by law for the admission of the records of deeds and mortgages.

§589.11 Conveyances by fiduciaries

If, prior to the year 1970, an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, assignee, receiver, referee, or commissioner, acting in that capacity in this or any state, has conveyed in the trust capacity real estate lying in this state and the conveyance has been of record since prior to January 1, 1970, in the county where the real estate so conveyed is located and which conveyance purports to sustain the title in the present record owner, the conveyance is not void or insufficient because due and legal notice of all proceedings with reference to the making of the conveyance was not served upon all interested or necessary parties, or that the executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, assignee, receiver, referee, or commissioner was not appointed or qualified in the state of Iowa prior to the making of the conveyance, or the record fails to disclose compliance with any law, and all such conveyances are valid, legal, and binding. Allotments by referees in partition are conveyances within the meaning of this section.

§589.12 Sheriff’s deeds.

A foreclosure proceeding or sale of real estate on execution prior to January 1, 1970, if a sheriff’s deed was executed which purports to sustain the record title is not ineffectual on account of the failure of the record to show that any of the steps in obtaining the judgment or in the sale of the property were complied with. The proceedings are legalized as of the record that showed that the law has been complied with.

§589.13 Sheriff’s deed executed by deputy.

All conveyances of land in this state, executed in this state by a deputy sheriff, and properly recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county where the land is located, prior to January 1, 1970, have the same force and effect as though the conveyance had been executed by the sheriff.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10397; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §589.13]

84 Acts, ch 1090, §12

589.14 Defective tax deeds.

A sale of real property for taxes made prior to January 1, 1970, in which the tax deed was executed and the deed purports to sustain the record title, is not ineffectual because of the failure of the record to show that any of the steps in the sale and deeding of the property were complied with and these proceedings are legalized and valid as if the record showed that the law had been complied with.

[S13, §2963-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10398; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §589.14]

589.15 Tax deeds legalized.

That in all instances where tax deeds have been issued by county treasurers in the absence of the report and entry required by section 7283 of the Code, 1939, or corresponding sections of earlier Codes relating to collection of costs of serving notices, such tax deeds shall not by reason of omission to make such report and entry be held invalid, but are hereby legalized. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as curing any other defect in tax deeds than that herein specifically described. Nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to affect pending litigation.

[C35, §10398-g1; C39, §10398; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §589.15]

589.16 Tax sales legalized.

In all instances where a county treasurer heretofore conducted a tax sale at the time provided in section 7259 or section 7262, both of the Code, 1935, sales made at such tax sale or any adjournment thereof shall not be held invalid by reason of the failure of the county treasurer to have brought forward the delinquent tax of prior years upon the current tax lists in use by the said county treasurer at the time of conducting the sale, or by reason of the failure of the county treasurer to have offered all the property unsold before each adjournment of said sale and said tax sales are hereby legalized and declared valid notwithstanding the provisions of section 7193 and section 7259, both of the Code, 1935, provided the delinquent taxes for which the said real estate was sold had been brought forward upon the current tax list of the year preceding the year in which the said tax sale was conducted. Provided, however, that no tax sale so legalized and validated shall affect a special assessment if the same continues to remain a lien notwithstanding a tax deed now or hereafter issued pursuant to such tax sale.

[C39, §10398; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §589.16]

589.16A Defect in sale proceeding.

An action shall not be commenced after July 1, 1987, which asserts a claim against any real estate sold at a tax sale, based upon any defect in the tax sale proceeding, including the inadequacy of the notice of tax sale or the inadequacy of the notice of the expiration of the redemption period, where the tax sale was made prior to July 1, 1986.

86 Acts, ch 1139, §10

589.17 Conveyances by spouse under power.

A conveyance of real estate made before July 1, 1970, in which the husband or wife conveyed or contracted to convey the inchoate right of dower through the other spouse, acting as the attorney in fact, by virtue of a power of attorney executed by the spouse, the power of attorney not having been executed as a part of a contract of separation, are not invalid as contravening section 3154 of the Code of 1897, or section 10447 of subsequent Codes to and including the Code of 1939, but all such conveyances are legalized and effective.

[S'02, §2942-f; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10399; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §589.17]

84 Acts, ch 1090, §14

589.18 Conveyances by foreign executors.

All conveyances of real property made prior to January 1, 1970, by executors or trustees under foreign wills and prior to the date upon which the will was admitted to probate in Iowa or prior to the expiration of three months after the recording of a duly authenticated copy of the will, original record of appointment, qualification, and bond as required by section 3295 of the Code of 1897 or sections 11878 to 11881, inclusive, of subsequent Codes to and including the Code of 1939, and in which the will was, subsequent to the conveyance, probated in Iowa, and in which a duly authenticated copy of the will, original record of appointment, qualification, and bond as required by those sections was, subsequent to the conveyance, made a matter of record as provided in those sections, are legalized and valid in law and in equity as though the will had been probated in Iowa prior to the conveyance and as though the sections had been strictly complied with. However, this section does not affect pending litigation.

[S13, §3295-c; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10401; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §589.18]

589.19 Conveyances under school-fund foreclosures.

If the title to real estate has been conveyed prior to January 1, 1970, by the sheriff of a county pursuant to sheriff’s sale under the foreclosure of permanent school-fund mortgages to the state, or to the state for the use of the school fund, or to the county for the school fund; and the land has been sold under authority of the board of supervisors of the county and conveyed under its authority, prior to January 1, 1970, and the full purchase price paid and credited to, and used by, the county for the permanent school fund of the county, all right, title, or interest of the state in and to the real estate is relinquished and quitclaimed to the purchaser or the purchaser’s grantees forever, and the title confirmed in the purchaser, or the purchaser’s grantees insofar as the erroneous conveyance is concerned.

[C51, 35, §10401-c1; C39, §10401.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §589.19]

589.20 Conveyances according to law of other states.
All deeds and conveyances of lands lying and being within this state heretofore executed and which said deeds have been acknowledged or proved according to and in compliance with the laws and usages of the state, territory, or country in which said deeds or conveyances were acknowledged and proved are hereby declared effectual and valid in law to all intents and purposes as though the same acknowledgments had been taken or proof of execution made within this state and in pursuance of the acts and laws thereof, and such deeds so acknowledged or proved as aforesaid shall be admitted to be legally recorded in the respective counties in which such lands may be, anything in the laws of Iowa to the contrary notwithstanding.

Prior to January 1, 1970, by administrators, executors, or administrators, executors, or conveyances have been recorded within this state and in compliance with the laws and usages of such state, territory, or country and which deeds and conveyances have been recorded within this state and are hereby confirmed and declared effectual and valid in law and to all intents and purposes as though the said deeds or conveyances so acknowledged or proved and recorded had prior to being recorded been acknowledged or proved within this state.

This Act* shall apply to all deeds, mortgages, and conveyances made, filed, recorded, and proved as contemplated in section 1 of this Act prior to January 1, 1884.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10402; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §589 20]

589.21 Releases and discharges.
All releases and discharges of judgments, mortgages, or deeds of trust affecting property in this state made prior to January 1, 1970, by administrators, executors, or guardians appointed by the court of any other state or country without complying with section 3308 of the Code of 1897 and sections 11897 to 11899, inclusive, of subsequent Codes to and including the Code of 1931, are legalized, valid and effective in law and in equity as though the sections had been strictly followed. However, this section does not affect pending litigation.

CHAPTER 590

WILLS — LEGALIZING ACTS

590.1 Notice of appointment of executors.

590.2 Notice of hearing in probate.

590.1 Notice of appointment of executors.

In all instances prior to January 1, 1964, where executors or administrators have failed to publish notice of their appointment as required by section 3304, Code of 1897, and section 11890, Codes of 1924 to 1939, inclusive, and section 633.46, Codes 1946 to 1962, inclusive, but have published a notice of appointment, such notice of appointment is hereby legalized and shall have the same force and effect as though the same had been published as directed by the court or clerk.

In all instances where more than five years have passed since the appointment of a personal representative or probate of a will without administration, where administrators have failed to publish notice of their appointment as required by section 633.230, and executors have failed to publish a notice of admission of the will to probate and their appointment as required by sections 633.304 and 633.305, but have published a notice of appointment or notice of admission of the will to probate and of the appointment of the executor, such notice of appointment or notice of admission of the will to probate and of the appointment of the executor, is hereby legalized and shall have the same force and effect as though the same had been published as required.

590.2 Notice of hearing in probate.

In all instances prior to January 1, 1964, where the clerk of the district court of any county failed to publish notice of the time fixed for hearing the probate of any will filed in such county as required by section 11865 of the Code [1924 to 1939, inclusive], and section 633.20, Codes 1946 to 1962, inclusive, but did publish a notice of the time fixed for such hearing signed by the clerk and addressed to whom it may concern in a daily or weekly newspaper printed in the county where the will was filed, such notice of time fixed for the hearing of the probate of such will is hereby legalized and shall have the same force and effect as though the same had been published in strict conformity with the requirements of said section.

[C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §590.2]
CHAPTER 591
CORPORATIONS LEGALIZED

591.1 Defective publication.
Corporations heretofore incorporated under the laws of the state which have caused notice of their incorporation to be published once each week for four consecutive weeks in some daily, semiweekly or triweekly newspaper, instead of causing the same to be published in each issue of such newspaper for four consecutive weeks, are hereby legalized and are declared legal incorporations the same as though the law had been complied with in all respects in regard to the publication of notice.
[S13, §1613-a, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10408; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §591 1]

591.2 Publication after required time.
In all instances where the incorporators of corporations organized in this state for pecuniary profit have omitted to publish notice of such incorporation within three months after the date of the certificates of incorporation issued by the secretary of state, but did publish such notices thereafter in the manner and form as required by law, such notices of incorporation are hereby legalized and shall have the same force and effect as though published within said period of three months.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10409; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §591 2]

591.3 Filing of renewals after required time.
In all instances where proper action has been taken prior to July 1, 1959, by the stockholders for renewal of any corporation for pecuniary profit and the certificate showing such proceedings, together with the articles of incorporation, have been filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder and later in the office of the secretary of state, or have been filed and recorded in the office of the secretary of state and later in the office of the county recorder, although there has been failure to file such certificates and articles of incorporation in either or both of the said offices within the time specified therefor by law, such renewals are hereby legalized and shall have the same force and effect as though the filings of the said documents in the said offices had been made within the periods prescribed by statute.
[SS15, §1618 1a, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10410; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §591 3]

591.4 Defective notice or acknowledgment, etc.
In all instances where the incorporators of corporations organized in the state prior to January 1, 1959, have failed to publish notices of such incorporation within three months from and after the date of the certificates of incorporation issued by the secretary of state, but did publish such notices within three months after the date required by law in such cases in manner and form as required by law, and in all instances where the number of incorporators or the signatures or acknowledgment thereof were less than the number required by law, or the articles of incorporation were otherwise defective, but where the incorporation or association has thereafter been conducted with the requisite number of stockholders or members, such notices of incorporation and the incorporation of corporations or associations so defectively incorporated are in each and every case hereby legalized and all the corporate acts of all such corporations and associations are hereby legalized in all respects.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10411; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §591 4]

591.5 Notices of incorporation.
In all instances where the incorporators of corporations for pecuniary profit have omitted to publish notice of incorporation within three months from the date of the certificate of incorporation issued by the secretary of state, but have published notice thereafter in manner and form as by law required, such notices are hereby legalized and shall have the same force and effect as though published within said period of three months, as to all acts of said corporation from the date of said completed publication.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10412; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §591 5]
591.6 Amended articles and change of name.
Any corporation, organized under chapter 2 of Title IX, Code of 1897, or chapter 394, Codes of 1924, 1927, 1931, 1935 and 1939, or chapter 504, Codes of 1946, 1950, 1954 and 1958, which shall have heretofore adopted articles of incorporation or changed its name or amended its articles, and some question has arisen as to whether such articles, change in name or amendment was adopted by a majority of the members of such corporation as required by section 1651, Code of 1897, and section 8593, Codes of 1924, 1927, 1931, 1935 and 1939, and section 504 19, Codes of 1946, 1950, 1954 and 1958, and such corporation shall have been engaged in the exercise of its corporate functions for the period of at least three years, such articles, change in name or amendment shall be held and considered to have been duly adopted by a majority of all the members of such corporation and are hereby legalized and made valid.

591.7 Co-operative associations or corporations.
In all instances where co-operative associations or corporations have been organized under the law as it appears in chapter 399, Code of 1927, where such associations or corporations have filed the original articles rather than a verified copy with the county recorder or where the secretary of state failed to certify the filing and acceptance of such articles, or where the certificate of the secretary of state contained a facsimile signature rather than the true signature of the secretary of state, or where there is any defect in the articles, notice, procedure or otherwise, the incorporation of such corporation or association and all of the corporate acts thereof are hereby legalized in all respects.

[C31, §10413 cl, C39, §10413.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §591.7]

591.8 Defective organization or renewal.
In all cases wherein a corporation organized or purporting to have been organized under the laws of this state has adopted articles of incorporation or other instrument of similar import and has functioned as a corporation in carrying out the objects and purposes set forth therein and in the transaction of its business, but has failed to file its articles of incorporation or such other instrument with the secretary of state, or otherwise to comply with the laws of this state relating to the organization of corporations, or to take appropriate action for the renewal of its existence within the period limited by law, and has, subsequent thereto, filed in the office of the secretary of state its renewal articles of incorporation and a certificate of the adoption thereof, paid all fees in connection therewith and has heretofore received a certificate from the secretary of state renewing and extending its corporate existence, the acts, franchises, rights, privileges and corporate existence of any such corporation are hereby legalized and validated and shall have the same force and effect as if all the laws of this state relating to the organization of corporations and the renewal of their corporate existence had been strictly complied with.

[C31, §10413 d1, C39, §10413.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §591.8]

591.9 Interstate bridges — merger and consolidation.
In all cases wherein any corporation organized or purporting to have been organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of constructing or operating a bridge or both, one extremity of which shall rest in an adjacent state, has attempted to merge or consolidate its stock, property, franchises, assets and liabilities with the stock, property, franchises, assets and liabilities of a corporation organized or purporting to have been organized for a similar purpose under the laws of such adjacent state, and such corporations have in fact united and combined their stock, property, franchises, assets and liabilities, such merger or consolidation, together with the action taken in effecting such merger or consolidation, is hereby legalized and validated, and such corporations so merging or consolidating shall be deemed to have become one corporation under such name as shall have been agreed upon, and such corporation shall be deemed on the date of such merger or consolidation to have succeeded to all the property, rights, privileges, assets and franchises and to have assumed all of the liabilities of such merging or consolidating corporations.

591.10 Failure to publish notice of renewal.
In all instances where there has been an omission to publish notice of renewal within three months after the filing of the certificate and articles of incorporation with the secretary of state as provided in section 491 20, Code 1954, but such notice was published thereafter in the manner and form as required by law and proof of publication filed in the office of the secretary of state, such notices are hereby legalized and shall have the same force and effect as though published within said period of three months and proper proof of publication thereof was filed.

591.11 Failure to publish notice of amendment.
In all instances where notices of amendments to articles of incorporation have not been published within three months after the filing with and approval by the secretary of state of such amendments, as provided in section 491 20 of the Code 1954, but such notices have been thereafter published in the form and manner as required by law and proof of publication filed with the secretary of state, such notices are hereby legalized and shall have the same force and effect as though published within said period of three months and proper proof of publication filed with the secretary of state.

591.12 Effect of foregoing statutes.
Sections 591 1 to 591 11 hereof shall not affect pending litigation and shall not operate to revive rights or claims previously barred, and shall not permit an action to be brought or maintained upon any claim or cause of action which was barred by any statute which was in force prior to July 4, 1955.

[C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §591.12]

591.13 Corporation stock — certificates of information.
§591.13

In all instances in which corporations, incorporated under the laws of this state, have properly issued any of their capital stock prior to July 4, 1951, and have filed in the office of secretary of state certificates relative thereto containing the specific information required by statute at the time of the issuance of said stock, although there has been failure to file such certificates in said office within the time specified therefor by law, such filings are hereby legalized and shall be held to have the same force and effect as though the filings of the said certificates had been made within the period prescribed by the statute then in effect.

[C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §591.13]

§591.14 Failure to file certificate — penalty.

Any corporation organized under the laws of this state which failed to file with the office of secretary of state a certificate relative to any issuance of its capital stock prior to July 4, 1951, containing the specific information required by statute at the time of such issuance of stock may file with the office of the secretary of state subsequent to July 4, 1955, a certificate of issuance of said stock upon first paying to the secretary of state a penalty of ten dollars when said certificate is offered for filing and, provided that the penalty herein provided for is first paid and that said certificate contains the specific information required by section 492.9, said certificate when so filed shall be received by the secretary of state as a compliance with the statutes requiring the filing of such certificates in effect at the time of the issuance of said stock and shall be held to have the same force and effect as though the filing of said certificate had been made within the period prescribed by statute then in effect.

§591.15 Failure to publish notice of incorporation or amendment.

In all instances where the incorporators, stockholders and directors of corporations organized in this state for pecuniary profit have omitted to publish notice of incorporation or notice of amendments to articles of incorporation within three months after the date of the certificates of incorporation issued by the secretary of state or approval by the secretary of state of such amendments, but have published such notices of incorporation or notices of amendments to articles of incorporation and filed proper proof of publication with the secretary of state prior to July 4, 1963, such notices of incorporation and notices of amendments to articles of incorporation are hereby legalized and shall have the same force and effect as though published within said period of three months.

§591.16 Nonprofit corporate renewal legalized.

In all cases wherein any corporation organized under chapter 2 of Title IX, Code of 1897, or chapter 394 of the Codes of 1924, 1927, 1931, 1935 and 1939, or chapter 504 of the Codes of 1946, 1950, 1954, 1958 and 1962, or purporting to have been organized, reincorporated or renewed thereunder, whose articles of incorporation, either original or on renewal or reincorporation, are filed with the secretary of state has thereafter taken action to reincorporate or renew its period of existence and has filed with the secretary of state articles of incorporation on renewal or reincorporation with a certificate or proof of the adoption thereof and has paid all fees in connection therewith and has heretofore received a certificate from the secretary of state approving said articles of incorporation filed on renewal or reincorporation, the acts, franchises, rights, privileges and corporate existence of any such corporation for the period provided by any such renewal or reincorporation but not in excess of the period permitted by law and the articles of incorporation adopted on such renewal or reincorporation, as filed in the office of the secretary of state, are hereby legalized and validated and shall have the same force and effect as if all the laws of this state relating to the organization or reincorporation of such corporations and the renewal of their corporate existence by reincorporation or renewal had been strictly complied with.

This section shall not operate to revive rights or claims previously barred and shall not permit an action to be brought or maintained upon any claim or cause of action which was barred by any statute which was in force prior to the effective date of this section.

§591.17 Nonprofit corporations legalized.

In all instances where corporations not for pecuniary profit have heretofore adopted renewal articles of incorporation or articles of reincorporation and there has been a failure to set forth therein the time of the annual meeting or the time of the annual meeting of the trustees or directors and such renewal articles of incorporation or articles of reincorporation are otherwise complete and in compliance with the law as set forth in section 504.1, such renewal articles of incorporation or articles of reincorporation are hereby legalized and validated and shall be held to have the same force and effect as though all of such provisions had been complied with in all respects.

In all instances where corporations not for pecuniary profit have adopted renewal articles of incorporation or articles of reincorporation and the certificate thereof shall not have been signed and acknowledged by the three or more persons who shall have adopted the same but such documents shall have been signed and acknowledged by one or more officers of the corporation or of its board of directors or trustees, such certificates of renewal are hereby legalized and validated and shall be held to be in full force and effect.

592.3 City and town plats
In all cases where, prior to January 1, 1970, any person has laid out any parcel of land into town or city lots and the plat of the lots has been recorded and the plat appears to be insufficient because of failure to show certificates of the county clerk of the district court, county treasurer, or county recorder, or the affidavit and bond, if any, and the certificate of approval of the local governing body or because the certificates are defective, or because of a failure to fully comply with all of the provisions of chapter 409 of the Code of 1966 as amended to December 31, 1969, or corresponding statutes of earlier Codes, or because the plat failed to show signatures or acknowledgment of proprietors as provided by law, or because the acknowledgment was defective, and subsequent to the platting, lots or subdivisions of the lots have been sold and conveyed, all such said plats which have not been validated, are legalized as of the date of the recording of the plat, the same as though all certificates have been attached and all the other necessary steps taken as provided by law, and the record of the plat shall be conclusive evidence that the person was the proprietor of the tract of land and the owner of the tract at the time of the platting, and that the tract of land was free and clear of all encumbrances unless an affidavit to the contrary was filed at the time of recording the plat. After July 1, 1981, no action shall be brought on any cause arising after December 31, 1949, and before January 1, 1970, to establish, enforce, or recover any right, title, interest, lien, or condition existing at the time of the platting after December 31, 1949, and before January 1, 1970, and adverse to a clear and unqualified title in fee simple in the owner unless on or before July 1, 1981, there is filed in the office of county recorder of the county where the real estate involved is located a written statement, acknowledged by the claimant, definitely describing the real estate involved, stating the nature and extent of the right or interest claimed, and stating the facts upon which the claim is based.

TITLE XXVIII
DOMESTIC RELATIONS

MARRIAGE

595.1 Contract.
Marriage is a civil contract, requiring the consent of the parties capable of entering into other contracts, except as herein otherwise declared.
[C51, §1463, R60, §2515, C73, §2185, C97, §3139, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10427; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §595 1]

595.2 Age.
A marriage between a male and a female each eighteen years of age or older is valid. A marriage between a male and a female either or both of whom have not attained that age may be valid under the circumstances prescribed in this section.

1 If either party to a marriage falsely represents himself or herself to be eighteen years of age or older at or before the time the marriage is solemnized, the marriage is valid unless the person who falsely represented his or her age chooses to void the marriage by making his or her true age known and verified by a birth certificate or other legal evidence of age in an annulment proceeding initiated at any time before he or she reaches his or her eighteenth birthday. A child born of a marriage voided under this subsection is legitimate.

2 A marriage license may be issued to a male and a female either or both of whom are sixteen or seven years of age if:
   a The parents of the underaged party or parties certify in writing that they consent to the marriage. If one of the parents of any underaged party to a proposed marriage is dead or incompetent the certificate may be executed by the other parent, if both parents are dead or incompetent the guardian of the underaged party may execute the certificate, and if the parents are divorced the parent having legal custody may execute the certificate.
   b The certificate of consent of the parents, parent or guardian is approved by a judge of the district court or, if both parents of any underaged party to a proposed marriage are dead, incompetent or cannot be located and the party has no guardian, the proposed marriage is approved by a judge of the district court. A judge shall grant approval under this subsection only if the judge finds the underaged party or parties capable of assuming the responsibilities of marriage and that the marriage will serve the best interest of the underaged party or parties. Pregnancy alone does not establish that the proposed marriage is in the best interest of the underaged party or parties. Pregnancy alone does not establish that the proposed marriage is in the best interest of the underaged party or parties, however, if pregnancy is involved the court records which pertain to the fact that the female is pregnant shall be sealed and available only to the parties to the marriage or proposed marriage or to any interested party securing an order of the court.
   c If a parent or guardian withholds consent, the judge upon application of a party to the marriage shall determine if the consent has been unreasonably withheld. If the judge so finds, the judge shall proceed to review the application under paragraph "b" of this subsection.

§595.3 License.
Previous to the solemnization of any marriage, a license for that purpose must be obtained from the clerk of the district court. Such license must not be granted in any case:
1. Where either party is under the age necessary to render the marriage valid.
2. Where either party is under eighteen years of age, unless the marriage is approved by a judge of the district court as provided by section 595.2, subsection 2.
3. Where either party is disqualified from making any civil contract.
4. Where the parties are within the degrees of consanguinity or affinity in which marriages are prohibited by law.
5. Where either party is mentally ill or retarded, a mental retardate, or under guardianship as an incompetent.

§595.4 Age and qualification — verified application — waiting period — exception.
Previous to the issuance of any license to marry, the parties desiring such license shall sign and file a verified application with the clerk of the court which application either may be mailed to the parties at their request or may be signed by them at the office of the clerk of the district court in the county in which the license is to be issued. Such application shall set forth at least one affidavit of some competent and disinterested person stating such facts as to age and qualification of the parties as the clerk may deem necessary to determine the competency of the parties to contract a marriage. Upon the filing of the application for a license to marry, the clerk of the district court shall file the application in a record kept for that purpose.

After expiration of three days from the date of filing the application by the parties, the clerk shall issue the license if the clerk is satisfied as to the competency of the parties to contract a marriage. If the license has not been issued within one year from the date of the application, the application is void.

A license to marry may be issued prior to the expiration of three days from the date of filing the application for the license in cases of emergency or extraordinary circumstances. An order authorizing the issuance of a license may be granted by a judge of the district court under conditions of emergency or extraordinary circumstances upon application of the parties filed with the clerk of court. No such order may be granted unless the parties have filed an application for a marriage license in a county within the judicial district. An application for such an order shall be made on forms furnished by the clerk at the same time the application for the license to marry is made. If after examining the application for the marriage license the clerk is satisfied as to the competency of the parties to contract a marriage, the clerk shall refer the parties to a judge of the district court for action on the application for an order authorizing the issuance of a marriage license prior to expiration of three days from the date of filing the application for the license. The judge shall, if satisfied as to the existence of an emergency or extraordinary circumstances, grant an order authorizing the issuance of a license to marry prior to the expiration of three days from the date of filing the application for the license to marry. The clerk shall issue a license to marry upon presentation by the parties of the order authorizing a license to be issued. A fee of five dollars shall be paid to the clerk at the time the application for the order is made, which fee is in addition to the fee prescribed by law for the issuance of a marriage license.

§595.5 Surname adopted.
Upon marriage either party may request on the application for a marriage license a name change to that of the other party or to some other surname mutually agreed upon by the parties. The names used on the marriage license shall become the legal names of the parties to the marriage. The marriage license shall contain a statement that when a name change is requested and affixed to the marriage license, the new name is the legal name of the requesting party. If a party requests a name change, other than a change of surname to that of the other spouse or to a hyphenated combination of the surnames of both spouses, the party shall request approval of the court pursuant to chapter 674 and submit to the court the information required by section 674.2, and upon approval of the court and solemnization of the marriage, the clerk of court shall send a certified copy of the return of marriage to the recorder's office in every county in this state where real property is owned by either of the parties. The judge may approve the name change. The new names and the immediate former names shall appear on the return of marriage, and the return of marriage shall be recorded in the miscellaneous records in the recorder's office. An individual can have only one legal name at any one time.

§595.6 Filing and record required.
The affidavit or certificate, in each case, shall be filed by the clerk and constitute a part of the records of the clerk's office. A memorandum of the affidavit or certificate shall also be entered in the license book.

§595.7 Delivery of blank with license.
When a license is issued the clerk shall deliver to the applicant a blank return for the marriage, and give such instructions relative thereto as will insure a complete and accurate return.

§595.8 Repealed by 66GA, ch 244, §5.

§595.9 Violations.
If a marriage is solemnized without procuring a license, the parties married, and all persons aiding them, are guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

595.10 Who may solemnize.
Marriages may be solemnized by:
1. A judge of the supreme court, court of appeals, or district court, including a district associate judge, or a judicial magistrate.
2. A person ordained or designated as a leader of the person's religious faith.

595.11 Nonstatutory solemnization — forfeiture.
Marriages solemnized, with the consent of parties, in any manner other than that prescribed in this chapter, are valid; but the parties, and all persons aiding or abetting them, shall pay to the treasurer of state for deposit in the general fund of the state the sum of fifty dollars each: but this shall not apply to the person conducting the marriage ceremony, if within fifteen days thereafter the person makes the required return to the clerk of the district court.

595.12 Fee and expenses.
1. A judge or magistrate authorized to solemnize a marriage under section 595.10, subsection 1, may charge a reasonable fee for officiating and making return for each marriage solemnized at a time other than regular judicial working hours. In addition the judge or magistrate may charge the parties to the marriage for expenses incurred in solemnizing the marriage. No judge or magistrate shall make any charge for solemnizing a marriage during regular judicial working hours. The supreme court shall adopt rules prescribing the maximum fee and expenses that the judge or magistrate may charge.
2. A minister authorized to solemnize a marriage under section 595.10, subsection 2, may charge a reasonable fee for each marriage solemnization and making return in an amount agreed to by the parties.

595.13 Certificate — return.
After the marriage has been solemnized, the officiating minister or magistrate shall:
1. Give each of the parties a certificate of the same.
2. Make return of such marriage within fifteen days to the clerk of the district court, who issued the marriage license upon the blank provided for that purpose.
[C51, §1473, 1476; R60, §2525, 2528; C73, §2194,

595.14 Repealed by 65GA, ch 281, §1.

595.15 Inadequate return.
If the return of a marriage is not complete in every particular as required by the forms specified in section 144.12, the clerk shall require the person making the same to supply the omitted information.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10441; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66,
71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §595.15]

595.16 Spouse responsible for return.
When a marriage is consummated without the services of a cleric or magistrate, the required return thereof may be made to the clerk by either spouse.

597.3 Remedy by one against the other.
Should the husband or wife obtain possession or control of property belonging to the other before or after marriage, the owner of the property may maintain an action therefor, or for any right growing out of the same, in the same manner and extent as if they were unmarried.

[C73, §2204, C97, §3155, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10448; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §597 3]

597.4 Conveyances to each other.
A conveyance, transfer, or lien, executed by either husband or wife to or in favor of the other, shall be valid to the same extent as between other persons.

[C73, §2206, C97, §3157, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10449; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §597 4]

597.5 Attorney in fact.
A husband or wife may constitute the other spouse as his attorney in fact, to control and dispose of the husband's or wife's property for their mutual benefit, and may revoke the appointment, the same as other persons.

[C73, §2210, C97, §3161, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10450; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §597 5]

597.6 Mental illness — conveyance of property.
Where either the husband or wife is mentally ill and incapable of executing a deed or mortgage relinquishing, conveying, or encumbering the husband's or wife's right to the real property of the other, including the homestead, the other may petition the district court of the county of that spouse's residence or the county where the real estate to be conveyed or encumbered is situated, setting forth the facts and praying for an order authorizing the applicant or some other person to execute a deed or mortgage and relinquish or encumber the interest of the mentally ill person in said real estate.

[R60, §1500, C73, §2216, C97, §3167, S13, §3167, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10451; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §597 6]

597.7 Proceedings.
The petition shall be verified by the petitioner, and filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the proper county, notice of which shall be given as in other cases. Upon completed service, the court shall appoint some responsible attorney thereof guardian for the person alleged to be mentally ill, who shall ascertain the propriety, good faith, and necessity of the prayer of the petitioner, and may resist the application by making any legal or equitable defense there to, and the guardian shall be allowed by the court a reasonable compensation to be paid as the other costs.

[R60, §1501, C73, §2217, C97, §3168, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10452; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §597 7]

597.8 Decree.

Upon the hearing of the petition the court, if satisfied that it is made in good faith by the petitioner, and the petitioner is a proper person to exercise the power and make the conveyance or mortgage, and it is necessary and proper, shall enter a decree authorizing the execution of the conveyance or mortgage for and in the name of such husband or wife by such person as the court may appoint.

[R60, §1502, C73, §2218, C97, §3169, S13, §3169, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10453; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §597 8]

597.9 Conveyances — revocation.

All deeds executed as provided in this chapter shall convey the interest of such mentally ill person in the real estate described, but such power shall cease and be revoked as soon as that person shall again be in good mental health and apply to the court therefor, but such revocation shall not affect conveyances previously made.

[R60, §1503, C73, §2219, C97, §3170, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10454; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §597 9]

597.10 Abandonment of either — proceedings.

In case the husband or wife abandons the other for one year, or leaves the state and is absent therefrom for such term, without providing for the maintenance and support of the family, or is confined in jail or the penitentiary for such period, the district court of the county where the abandoned party resides may, on application by petition setting forth the facts, authorize the applicant to manage, control, sell, and encumber the property of the guilty party for the support and maintenance of the family and for the purpose of paying debts. Notice of such proceedings shall be given as in ordinary actions, and anything done under or by virtue of the order or decree of the court shall be valid to the same extent as if the same was done by the party owning the property.

597.11 Contracts and sales binding.

All contracts, sales, or encumbrances made by either husband or wife under the provisions of section 597 10 shall be binding on both, and during such absence or confinement the person acting under such power may sue and be sued thereon, and for all acts done the property of both shall be liable, and execution may be levied or attachment issued accordingly.

597.12 Nonabatement of action.

No action or proceedings shall abate or be affected by the return or release of the person absent or confined, but the person may be permitted to prosecute or defend jointly with the other.

[C73, §2208, C97, §3159, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10457; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §597 12]

597.13 Annulment of decree.

The husband or wife affected by the proceedings contemplated in sections 597 10 to 597 12 may obtain an annulment thereof, upon filing a petition therefor and serving a notice on the person in whose favor the same was granted, as in ordinary actions, but the setting aside of such decree or order shall not affect any act done thereunder.

[C51, 1460, R60, §2512, C73, §2209, C97, §3160, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10458; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §597 13]

597.14 Family expenses.

The reasonable and necessary expenses of the family and the education of the children are chargeable upon the property of both husband and wife, or either of them, and in relation thereto they may be sued jointly or separately.

[C51, §1455, R60, §2507, C73, §2214, C97, §3165, S13, §3165, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10459; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §597 14]

597.15 Custody of children.

If one spouse abandons the other spouse, the abandoned spouse is entitled to the custody of the minor children, unless the district court, upon application for that purpose, otherwise directs, or unless a custody decree is entered in accordance with chapter 598A. In this section “abandon” does not include

1. The departure of a spouse due to physical or emotional abuse
2. The departure of a spouse accompanied by the minor children

[C51, §1462, R60, §2514, C73, §2215, C97, §3166, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10460; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §597 15]

597.16 Wages of married person — actions by.

A married person may receive the wages for the person’s personal labor, and maintain an action thereon in the person’s own name, and hold the same in the person’s own right, and may prosecute and defend all actions for the preservation and protection of the person’s rights and property, as if unmarried.

§597.18 Contracts of married person.
Contracts may be made by a married person and liabilities incurred, and the same enforced by or against the person, to the same extent and in the same manner as if the person were unmarried
[C51, §1454, R60, §2506, C73, §2213, C97, §3164, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10466; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §597 18]

§597.19 Spouse not liable for torts of other spouse.
For civil injuries committed by a married person, damages may be recovered from the person alone, and the partner shall not be liable therefor, except in cases where the partner would be jointly liable if the marriage did not exist
[C73, §2205, C97, §3156, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10467; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §597 19]

CHAPTER 598

DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

598.1 Definitions.
As used in this chapter
1 "Dissolution of marriage" means a termination of the marriage relationship and shall be synonymous with the term "divorce"
2 "Support" or "support payments" means an amount which the court may require either of the parties to pay under a temporary order or a final judgment or decree, and may include alimony, child support, maintenance, and any other term used to describe these obligations. The obligations may include support for a child who is between the ages of eighteen and twenty two years who is regularly attending an accredited school in pursuance of a course of study leading to a high school diploma or its equivalent, or regularly attending a course of vocational-technical training either as a part of a regular school program or under special arrangements adapted to the individual person's needs, or is, in good faith, a full time student in a college, university, or area school, or has been accepted for admission to a college, university, or area school and the next regular term has not yet begun, or a child of any age who is dependent on the parties to the dissolution proceedings because of physical or mental disability
3 "Minor child" means any person under legal age
4 "Joint custody" or "joint legal custody" means an award of custody of a minor child to both parents under which both parents have rights and responsibilities toward the child and under which neither parent has rights superior to those of the other parent. The court may award physical care to one parent only.

5. "Physical care" means the right and responsibility to maintain the principal home of the minor child and provide for the routine care of the child.

6. "Best interest of the child" includes, but is not limited to, the opportunity for maximum continuous physical and emotional contact possible with both parents, unless direct physical or significant emotional harm to the child may result from this contact. Refusal by one parent to provide this opportunity without just cause shall be considered harmful to the best interest of the child.

§598.4 Caption of petition for dissolution.

The petition for dissolution of marriage shall be captioned substantially as follows:

In the District Court of the State of Iowa
In and For ............ County

In Re the Marriage of ............ and ............

Upon the Petition of ............ Petition for Dissolution of Marriage (Petitioner) ............ and Concerning ............
(Respondent)

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §598.4]

§598.5 Contents of petition.

The petition for dissolution of marriage shall:

1. State the name, birth date, address and county of residence of the petitioner and the name and address of the petitioner's attorney.

2. State the place and date of marriage of the parties.

3. State the name, birth date, address and county of residence, if known, of the respondent.

4. State the name and age of each minor child by date of birth whose welfare may be affected by the controversy.

5. State whether or not a separate action for dissolution of marriage has been commenced by the respondent and whether such action is pending in any court in this state or elsewhere.

6. Allege that the petition has been filed in good faith and for the purposes set forth therein.

7. Allege that there has been a breakdown of the marriage relationship to the extent that the legitimate objects of matrimony have been destroyed and there remains no reasonable likelihood that the marriage can be preserved.

8. Set forth any application for temporary support of the petitioner and any children without enumerating the amounts thereof.

9. Set forth any application for permanent alimony or support, child custody, or disposition of property, as well as attorneys' fees and suit money, without enumerating the amounts thereof.

10. State whether the appointment of a conciliator pursuant to section 598.16 may preserve the marriage.

§598.9 Residence — failure of proof.

If the averments as to residence are not fully proved, the hearing shall proceed no further, and the action be dismissed by the court

[C73, §2222, C97, §3173, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10473; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §598 6, C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §598 9]

598.10 Repealed by 66GA, ch 1228, §10

598.11 Temporary orders.

The court may order either party to pay the clerk a sum of money for the separate support and maintenance of the other party and the children to enable such party to prosecute or defend the action. The court may on its own motion and shall upon application of either party or an attorney appointed under section 598.12 determine the temporary custody of any minor child whose welfare may be affected by the filing of the petition for dissolution.

The court may make such an order when a claim for temporary support is made by the petitioner in the petition, or upon application of either party, after service of the original notice and when no application is made in the petition, however, no such order shall be entered until at least five days’ notice of hearing, and opportunity to be heard, is given the other party. Appearance by an attorney or the respondent for such hearing shall be deemed a special appearance for the purpose of such hearing only and not a general appearance. An order entered pursuant to this section shall contain the names, birth dates, addresses, and counties of residence of the petitioner and respondent.

85 Acts, ch 178, §5

598.12 Attorney for minor child.

1. The court may appoint an attorney to represent the interests of the minor child or children of the parties. The attorney shall be empowered to make independent investigations and to cause witnesses to appear and testify before the court on matters pertinent to the interests of the children.

2. The court may require that the department of human services or an appropriate agency make an investigation of both parties regarding the home conditions, parenting capabilities, and other matters pertinent to the best interests of the child or children in a dispute concerning custody of the child or children. The investigation report completed by the department of human services or an appropriate agency shall be submitted to the court and available to both parties. The investigation report completed by the department of human services or an appropriate agency shall be a part of the record unless otherwise ordered by the court.

3. The court shall enter an order in favor of the attorney, the department of human services, or an appropriate agency for fees and disbursements, which amount shall be charged against the party responsible for court costs unless the court determines that the party responsible for costs is indigent in which event the fees shall be borne by the county.

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

598.13 Financial statements filed.

Both parties shall disclose their financial status. A showing of special circumstances shall not be required before the disclosure is ordered. A statement of net worth set forth by affidavit on a form prescribed by the supreme court and furnished without charge by the clerk of the district court shall be filed by each party prior to the dissolution hearing, unless waived by both parties.

Failure to comply with the requirements of this section constitutes failure to make discovery as provided in rule of civil procedure 134

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §598 13]

The form of affidavit prescribed by the Supreme Court is published in the companion to Iowa Court Rules.

598.14 How temporary order made—changes.

In making temporary orders, the court shall take into consideration the age of the applicant, the physical and pecuniary condition of the parties, and other matters as are pertinent, which may be shown by affidavits, as the court may direct. The hearing on the application shall be limited to matters set forth in the application, the affidavits of the parties, and the required statements of income. The court shall not hear any other matter relating to the parties, respondent’s answer, or any pleadings connected with the petition or answer.

After notice and hearing subsequent changes in temporary orders may be made by the court on application of either party demonstrating a substantial change in the circumstances occurring subsequent to the issuance of such order. If the order is not so modified it shall continue in force and effect until the action is dismissed or a decree is entered dissolving the marriage.

[C73, §2228, C97, §3179, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10480; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §598 18, C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §598 14]

85 Acts, ch 99, §9, 85 Acts, ch 195, §52

598.15 Attachment.

The petition may be presented to the court for the allowance of an order of attachment, which, by endorsement thereon, may direct such attachment and fix the amount for which it may issue, and the amount of the bond, if any, that shall be given. Any property endorsement thereon shall be held to satisfy the judgment or decree of the court, but may be discharged or released as in other cases.

[C73, §2227, C97, §3178, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10479; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §598 12, C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §598 15]

598.16 Conciliation.

A majority of the judges in any judicial district, with the co-operation of any county board of social welfare in such district, may establish a domestic relations division of the district court of the county where such board is located. Said division shall offer counseling and related services to persons before such court.

Upon the application of the petitioner in the petition or by the respondent in the responsive pleading thereto or, within twenty days of appointment, of an attorney appointed under section 598.12, the court shall require the parties to participate in conciliation efforts for a period of sixty days from the issuance of an order setting forth the conciliation procedure and the conciliator

At any time upon its own motion or upon the application of a party the court may require the parties to participate in conciliation efforts for sixty days or less following the issuance of such an order.

Every order for conciliation shall require the conciliator to file a written report by a date certain which shall state the conciliation procedures undertaken and such other matters as may have been required by the court. The report shall be a part of the record unless otherwise ordered by the court. Such conciliation procedure may include, but is not limited to, referrals to the domestic relations division of the court, if established, public or private marriage counselors, family service agencies, community health centers, physicians and clergy.

The costs of conciliation procedures shall be paid in full or in part by the parties and taxed as court costs, however, if the court determines that the parties will be unable to pay the costs without prejudicing their financial ability to provide themselves and any minor children with economic necessities, the costs may be paid in full or in part by the county.

Persons providing counseling and other services pursuant to this section are not court employees, but are subject to court supervision.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §598 16]

598.17 Dissolution of marriage — evidence.

A decree dissolving the marriage may be entered when the court is satisfied from the evidence presented that there has been a breakdown of the marriage relationship to the extent that the legitimate objects of matrimony have been destroyed and there remains no reasonable likelihood that the marriage can be preserved. The decree shall state that the dissolution is granted to the parties, and shall not state that it is granted to only one party.

If at the time of trial petitioner fails to present satisfactory evidence that there has been a breakdown of the marriage relationship to the extent that the reasonable likelihood that the marriage can be preserved, the respondent may then proceed to present such evidence as though the respondent had filed the original petition.

No marriage dissolution granted due to the mental illness of one of the spouses shall relieve the other spouse of any obligation imposed by law as a result of the marriage for the support of the mentally ill spouse. The court may make an order for such support or may waive the support obligation when satisfied from the evidence that it would create an undue hardship on the obliged spouse or that spouse's other dependents.

598.18 Recrimination not a bar to dissolution of marriage.

If, upon the trial of an action for dissolution of marriage, both of the parties are found to have committed an act or acts which would support or justify a decree of dissolution of marriage, such dissolution may be decreed, and the acts of one party shall not negate the acts of the other, nor serve to bar the dissolution decree in any way.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §598 18]

598.19 Waiting period before decree.

No decree dissolving a marriage shall be granted in any proceeding before ninety days shall have elapsed from the day the original notice is served, or from the last day of publication of notice, or from the date that waiver or acceptance of original notice is filed or until after conciliation is completed, whichever period shall be longer. However, the court may in its discretion, on written motion supported by affidavit setting forth grounds of emergency or necessity and facts which satisfy the court that immediate action is warranted or required to protect the substantive rights or interests of a party or person who might be affected by the decree, hold a hearing and grant a decree dissolving the marriage prior to the expiration of the applicable period, provided that requirements of notice have been complied with. In such case the grounds of emergency or necessity and the facts with respect thereto shall be recited in the decree unless otherwise ordered by the court. The court may enter an order finding the respondent in default and waiving conciliation when the respondent has failed to file an appearance within the time set forth in the original notice.

598.20 Forfeiture of marital rights.

When a dissolution of marriage is decreed the parties shall forfeit all rights acquired by marriage which are not specifically preserved in the decree. This provision shall not obviate any of the provisions of section 598 21.

[C51, §1486, C73, §2230, C97, §3181, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10483; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §598 16, C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §598 20]

598.21 Orders for disposition and support.

1 Upon every judgment of annulment, dissolution or separate maintenance the court shall divide the property of the parties and transfer the title of the property accordingly. The court may protect and promote the best interests of children of the parties by setting aside a portion of the property of the parties in a separate fund or conservatorship for the support, maintenance, education and general welfare of the minor children. The court shall divide all property, except inherited property or gifts received by one party, equitably between the parties after considering all of the following:

a The length of the marriage

b The property brought to the marriage by each party

c The contribution of each party to the marriage, giving appropriate economic value to each party's contribution in homemaking and child care services

d The age and physical and emotional health of the parties

e The contribution by one party to the education, training or increased earning power of the other

f The earning capacity of each party, including educational background, training, employment skills, work experience, length of absence from the job market, custodial responsibilities for children and the time and expense necessary to acquire sufficient education or training to enable the party to become self-supporting at a standard of living reasonably comparable to that enjoyed during the marriage.
§598.21

The desirability of awarding the family home or the right to live in the family home for a reasonable period to the party having custody of the children, or if the parties have joint legal custody, to the party having physical care of the children.

The amount and duration of an order granting support payments to either party pursuant to subsection 3 and whether the property division should be in lieu of such payments.

Other economic circumstances of each party, including pension benefits, vested or unvested, and future interests.

The tax consequences to each party.

Any written agreement made by the parties concerning property distribution.

The provisions of an antenuptial agreement.

Other factors the court may determine to be relevant in an individual case.

Property inherited by either party or gifts received by either party prior to or during the course of the marriage is the property of that party and is not subject to a property division under this section except upon a finding that refusal to divide the property is inequitable to the other party or to the children of the marriage.

Upon every judgment of annulment, dissolution or separate maintenance, the court may grant an order requiring support payments to either party for a limited or indefinite length of time after considering all of the following:

- The length of the marriage.
- The age and physical and emotional health of the parties.
- The distribution of property pursuant to subsection 1.
- The educational level of each party at the time of marriage and at the time the action is commenced.
- The earning capacity of the party seeking maintenance, including educational background, training, employment skills, work experience, length of absence from the job market, responsibilities for children under either an award of custody or physical care, and the time and expense necessary to acquire sufficient education or training to enable the party to find appropriate employment.
- The feasibility of the party seeking maintenance becoming self-supporting at a standard of living reasonably comparable to that enjoyed during the marriage, and the length of time necessary to achieve this goal.
- The tax consequences to each party.
- Any mutual agreement made by the parties concerning financial or service contributions by one party with the expectation of future reciprocation or compensation by the other party.
- The provisions of an antenuptial agreement.
- Other factors the court may determine to be relevant in an individual case.

Upon every judgment of annulment, dissolution or separate maintenance, the court may order either parent or both parents to pay an amount reasonable and necessary for support of a child. Consideration shall be given to the child's need for close contact with both parents and recognition of joint parental responsibility for the welfare of a minor child. In any order requiring payments for support of a minor child, the court shall consider the following:

a. The financial resources of the child.

b. The financial resources of both parents.

c. The standard of living the child would have enjoyed had there not been an annulment, dissolution or separate maintenance.

d. The desirability that the party awarded either sole custody or, in the case of joint custody, physical care remain in the home as a full-time parent.

e. The cost of day care if the party awarded either sole custody or, in the case of joint custody, physical care works outside the home, or the value of the child care services performed by the party if the party remains in the home.

f. The physical and emotional health needs of the child.

g. The child's educational needs.

h. The tax consequences to each party.

i. Other factors the court may determine to be relevant in an individual case.

5 The court may protect and promote the best interests of a minor child by setting aside a portion of the child support which either party is ordered to pay in a separate fund or conservatorship for the support, education and welfare of the child.

6 The court may provide for joint custody of the children by the parties pursuant to section 598.41. All orders relating to custody of a child are subject to chapter 598A.

7 Ordinarily made pursuant to this section need mention only those factors relevant to the particular case for which the orders are made but shall contain the names, birth dates, addresses, and counties of residence of the petitioner and respondent.

8 The court may subsequently modify orders made under this section when there is a substantial change in circumstances. In determining whether there is a substantial change in circumstances, the court shall consider the following:

a. Changes in the employment, earning capacity, income or resources of a party.

b. Receipt by a party of an inheritance, pension or other gift.

c. Changes in the medical expenses of a party.

d. Changes in the number or needs of dependents of a party.

e. Changes in the physical or emotional health of a party.

f. Changes in the residence of a party.

Remarriage of a party.

h. Possible support of a party by another person.

i. Changes in the physical, emotional or educational needs of a child whose support is governed by the order.

j. Contempt by a party of existing orders of court.

k. Other factors the court determines to be relevant in an individual case. A modification of a support order entered under chapter 252A, chapter 675, or this chapter between parties to the order is void unless the modification is approved by the court, after proper notice and opportunity to be heard is given to all parties to the order, and entered as an order of the court. If support payments have been assigned to the department of human services pursuant to section 239.3, the department shall be considered a party to the support order. Modifications of orders pertaining to child custody shall be made pursuant to chapter 598A. If the petition for a modification of an order pertaining to child custody asks either for joint custody or that joint custody be modified to an award of sole custody, the modification, if any, shall be made pursuant to section 598.41.

If the court orders a transfer of title to real property, the clerk of court shall issue a certificate under chapter 558 relative to each parcel of real estate affected by the order and immediately deliver the certificate for recording to the county recorder of the county in which the real estate is located. Any fees assessed shall be included as part of the court costs; however, the certificates shall be recorded whether the costs are paid or not. The county recorder shall deliver the certificates to the county auditor as provided in section 558.65, subsection 1.

598.22 Support payments — clerk of court — collection services center — defaults — security.

This section applies to all initial or modified orders for support entered under this chapter, chapter 234, 252A, 252C, 675, or any other chapter of the Code. All orders or judgments for support entered on or before March 31, 1987, shall direct the payment of those sums to the clerk of the district court for the use of the person for whom the payments have been awarded. All orders or judgments for support entered on or after April 1, 1987, shall direct the payment of those sums to the collection services center established pursuant to section 252B.13. Payments to persons other than the clerk of the district court and the collection services center do not satisfy the support obligations created by the orders or judgments, except as provided for trusts in section 252D.1, 598.23, or this section or for tax refunds or rebates in section 602.8102, subsection 47.

Upon a finding of previous failure to pay child support, the court may order the person obligated for permanent child support to make an assignment of periodic earnings or trust income to the clerk of court or the collection services center established pursuant to section 252B.13. The assignment of periodic earnings ordered by the court shall not exceed the amount set forth in 15 U.S.C. §1673(b)(1982). The assignment is binding on the employer, trustee, or other payor of the funds two weeks after service upon that person of notice that the assignment has been made. The payor shall withhold from the earnings or trust income payable to the person obligated the amount specified in the assignment and shall transmit the payments to the clerk or the collection services center, as appropriate.

However, for trusts governed by the federal Retirement Equity Act of 1984, Pub. L. No. 98-397, the payor shall transmit the payments to the alternate payee in accordance with the federal Act. The payor may deduct from each payment a sum not exceeding two dollars as a reimbursement for costs. An employer who dismisses an employee due to the entry of an assignment order commits a simple misdemeanor.

An order or judgment entered by the court for temporary or permanent support or for an assignment shall be filed with the clerk. The orders have the same force and effect as judgments when entered in the judgment docket and lien index and are records open to the public. The clerk or the collection services center, as appropriate, shall disburse the payments received pursuant to the orders or judgments within ten working days of the receipt of the payments. All monies received or disbursed under this section shall be entered in a record book kept by the clerk, or the collection services center, as appropriate, which shall be open to the public. The clerk or the collection services center shall not enter any moneys paid in the record book if not paid directly to the clerk or the center, as appropriate, except as provided for trusts in section 252D.1, 598.23 or this section or for tax refunds or rebates in section 602.8102, subsection 47.

If the sums ordered to be paid in a support payment order are not paid to the clerk or the collection services center, as appropriate, at the time provided in the order or judgment, the clerk or the collection services center, as appropriate, shall certify a default to the court which may, on its own motion, proceed as provided in section 598.23.

Prompt payment of sums required to be paid under sections 598.11 and 598.21 shall be the essence of such orders or judgments and the court may act pursuant to section 598.23 regardless of whether the amounts in default are paid prior to the contempt hearing. Upon entry of an order for support or upon the failure of a person to make payments pursuant to an order for support, the court may require the person to provide security, a bond, or other guarantee which the court determines is satisfactory to secure the payment of the support. Upon the person's failure to pay the support under the order, the court may declare the security, bond, or other guarantee forfeited.

598.23 Contempt proceedings — alternatives to jail sentence.

1. If a person against whom a temporary order or final decree has been entered willfully disobeys the order or decree, the person may be cited and punished by the court for contempt and be committed to the county jail for a period of time not to exceed thirty days for each offense.

2. The court may, as an alternative to punishment for contempt, make an order which, according to the subject matter of the order or decree involved, does the following:

a. Directs the defaulting party to assign trust income, or a sufficient amount in salary or wages due or to become due in the future from an employer or successor employers, to the clerk of the court where the order or judgment was granted for the purpose of paying the sums in default as well as the payments to be made in the future. However, for trusts governed by the federal Retirement Equity Act of 1984, Pub. L. No. 98-397, payments shall be made to the alternate payee in accordance with the federal Act. If the assignment is of salary or wages due, the amount assigned shall not exceed the amount set forth in 15 U.S.C. §1673(b)(1982) and the assignment order is binding upon the employer only for those amounts that represent child support and only upon receipt by the employer of a copy of the order, signed by the employee. For each payment deducted in compliance with the direction, the payor may deduct a sum not exceeding two dollars as a reimbursement for costs. Compliance by a payor with the court’s order shall operate as a discharge of the payor’s liability to the payee as to the affected portion of the payee’s wages or trust income. An employer who dismisses an employee due to the entry of an assignment order commits a simple misdemeanor.

§598.25 Termination of jurisdiction of court granting marriage dissolution decree.

Whenever a proceeding is initiated in a court for adoption involving the children of parents or guardians whose marriage has been dissolved, or for modification of a judgment of alimony, child support, or custody granted in an action for dissolution of marriage, the following requirements must be met if such proceedings are initiated in a court other than the court which granted the dissolution decree:

1. The party initiating such proceedings must present to the court the names and addresses of the parties to the dissolution decree if known, as well as the name and place of the court which granted the dissolution decree and the date of the decree.

2. The court in which the proceedings are initiated shall cause notice of such proceedings to be served upon the parties to the original action unless either or both parties are deceased.

Such court, or either of the parties to the dissolution decree, may request that a copy of the transcript of the proceedings of the court which granted the dissolution decree be made available for consideration in the new proceedings.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §598 25]

§598.26 Record — impounding — violation indictable.

The record and evidence in each case of marriage dissolution shall be kept pursuant to the following provisions:

1. Until a decree of dissolution has been entered, the record and evidence shall be closed to all but the court and its officers. No officer or other person shall permit a copy of any of the testimony, or pleadings, or the substance thereof, to be made available to any person other than a party to the action or a party’s attorney. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prohibit publication of the original notice as provided by the rules of civil procedure.

2. The court shall, in the absence of objection by another party, grant a motion by a party to require the sealing of an answer to an interrogatory or of a financial statement filed pursuant to section 598.13. The court may in its discretion grant a motion by a party to require the sealing of any other information which is part of the record of the case except for court orders, decrees and any judgments. If the court grants a motion to require the sealing of information in the case, the sealed information shall not thereafter be made available to any person other than a party to the action or a party’s attorney except upon order of the court for good cause shown.

3. If the action is dismissed, judgment for costs shall be entered in the judgment docket and lien index The clerk shall maintain a separate docket for dissolution of marriage actions.

4. Violation of the provisions of this section shall be a serious misdemeanor.

§598.29 Annulling illegal marriage — causes.

Marriage may be annulled for the following causes:

1. Where the marriage between the parties is prohibited by law.

2. Where either party was impotent at the time of marriage.

3. Where either party had a husband or wife living at the time of the marriage, provided they have not, with a knowledge of such fact, lived and cohabited together after the death or marriage dissolution of the former spouse of such party.

4. Where either party was mentally ill or a mental retardate at the time of the marriage.

598.31 Children — legitimacy.

Children born to the parties, or to the wife, in a marriage relationship which may be terminated or annulled pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be legitimate as to both parties, unless the court shall decree otherwise according to the proof [C73, §2234, 2235, C97, §3185, 3186, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10489, 10490; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §598 22, 598 23, C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §598 31]

598.32 Annulment — compensation.

In case either party entered into the contract of marriage in good faith, supposing the other to be capable of contracting, and the marriage is declared a nullity, such fact shall be entered in the decree, and the court may decree such innocent party compensation as in case of dissolution of marriage [C73, §2236, C97, §3187, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10491; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §598 24, C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §598 32]

598.33 Order to vacate.

Notwithstanding section 561 15, the court may order either party to vacate the homestead pending entry of a decree of dissolution upon a showing that the other party or the children are in imminent danger of physical harm if the order is not issued [C81, §598 33]

598.34 Recipients of public assistance — assignment of support payments.

A person entitled to periodic support payments pursuant to an order or judgment entered in an action for dissolution of marriage, who is also a recipient of public assistance, is deemed to have assigned the person’s rights to the support payments, to the extent of public assistance received by the person, to the department of human services. The department shall immediately notify the clerk of court by mail when a person entitled to support payments has been determined to be eligible for public assistance. Upon notification by the department that a person entitled to periodic support payments pursuant to this chapter is receiving public assistance, the clerk of court shall make a notation of the fact of assignment in the judgment docket and index. The notation constitutes constructive notice of the assignment. The clerk of court shall forward support payments received pursuant to section 598 22, to which the department is entitled, to the department, which may secure support payments in default through proceedings provided for in chapter 252A or section 598 24.

The clerk shall furnish the department with copies of all orders or decrees awarding support to parties having custody of minor children when the parties are receiving public assistance [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §598 34, 82 Acts, ch 1237, §4] 83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

598.35 Grandparents visitation rights.

The grandparents of a child may petition the district court for grandchild visitation rights when

1 The parents of the child are divorced, or 2 A petition for dissolution of marriage has been filed by one of the parents of the child, or 3 The parent of the child, who is the child of the grandparents, has died, or 4 The child has been placed in a foster home

A petition for grandchild visitation rights shall be granted only upon a finding that the visitation is in the best interests of the child [C75, 77, 79, 81, §598 35]

598.36 Attorney fees in proceeding to modify order or decree.

In a proceeding for the modification of an order or decree under this chapter the court may award attorney fees to the prevailing party in an amount deemed reasonable by the court [84 Acts, ch 1211, §1]

598.37 to 598.40 Reserved

598.41 Custody of children.

1 The court, insofar as is reasonable and in the best interest of the child, shall order the custody award, including liberal visitation rights where appropriate, which will assure the child the opportunity for the maximum continuing physical and emotional contact with both parents after the parents have separated or dissolved the marriage, unless direct physical harm or significant emotional harm to the child, other children, or a parent is likely to result from such contact with one parent, and which will encourage parents to share the rights and responsibilities of raising the child. The court shall consider the denial by one parent of the child's opportunity for maximum continuing contact with the other parent, without just cause, a significant factor in determining the proper custody arrangement. Unless otherwise ordered by the court in the custody decree, both parents shall have legal access to information concerning the child, including but not limited to medical, educational and law enforcement records.

2 On the application of either parent, the court shall consider granting joint custody in cases where the parents do not agree to joint custody. If the court does not grant joint custody under this subsection, the court shall cite clear and convincing evidence, pursuant to the factors in subsection 3, that joint custody is unreasonable and not in the best interest of the child to the extent that the legal custodial relationship between the child and a parent should be severed. Before ruling upon the joint custody petition in these cases, the court may require the parties to participate in custody mediation counseling to determine whether joint custody is in the best interest of the child. The court may require the child's participation in the mediation counseling insofar as the court determines the child's participation is advisable.

The costs of custody mediation counseling shall be paid in full or in part by the parties and taxed as court costs.

3 In considering what custody arrangement under subsection 2 is in the best interest of the minor child, the court shall consider the following factors:

   a Whether each parent would be a suitable custodian for the child
   b Whether the psychological and emotional needs and development of the child will suffer due to lack of contact with and attention from both parents
   c Whether the parents can communicate with each other regarding the child’s needs Whether both parents have actively cared for the child before and since the separation.

e. Whether each parent can support the other parent’s relationship with the child.

f. Whether the custody arrangement is in accord with the child’s wishes or whether the child has strong opposition, taking into consideration the child’s age and maturity.

g. Whether one or both the parents agree or are opposed to joint custody.

h. The geographic proximity of the parents.

i. Whether the safety of the child, other children, or the other parent will be jeopardized by the awarding of joint custody or by unsupervised or unrestricted visitation.

4. Subsection 3 shall not apply when parents agree to joint custody.

5. Joint legal custody does not require joint physical care. When the court determines such action would be in the best interest of the child, physical care may be given to one joint custodial parent and not to the other. If one joint custodial parent is awarded physical care, the court shall hold that parent responsible for providing for the best interest of the child. However, physical care given to one parent does not affect the other parent’s rights and responsibilities as a legal custodian of the child. Rights and responsibilities as legal custodian of the child include, but are not limited to, equal participation in decisions affecting the child’s legal status, medical care, education, extracurricular activities, and religious instruction.

6. When the parent awarded custody or physical care of the child cannot act as custodian or caretaker because the parent has died or has been judicially adjudged incompetent, the court shall award custody including physical care of the child to the surviving parent unless the court finds that such an award is not in the child's best interest.

CHAPTER 598A

UNIFORM CHILD-CUSTODY JURISDICTION

Enactment of §598 41, subsection 1, constitutes a substantial change in circumstances authorizing a court to modify a child custody order, 84 Acts, ch 1088, §6

598A.1 Legislative intent.

The general purposes of this chapter are to:

1. Avoid jurisdictional competition and conflict with courts of other states in matters of child custody, which have in the past resulted in the shifting of children from state to state with harmful effects on their well-being.

2. Promote co-operation with the courts of other states to the end that a custody decree is rendered in the state which can best decide the case in the interest of the child.

3. Assure that litigation concerning the custody of a child takes place ordinarily in the state with which the child and the family have the closest connection and where significant evidence concerning the child’s care, protection, training, and personal relationships is most readily available, and that courts of this state decline the exercise of jurisdiction when the child and the family have a closer connection with another state.
4 Discourage continuing controversies over child custody, in the interest of greater stability of home environment and of secure family relationships for the child
5 Deter abductions and other unilateral removals of children undertaken to obtain custody awards
6 Avoid relitigation of custody decisions of other states in this state insofar as feasible
7 Facilitate the enforcement of custody decrees of other states
8 Promote and expand the exchange of information and other forms of mutual assistance between the courts of this state and those of other states concerned with the same child
9 Make uniform the law of those states which enact it

This chapter shall be construed to promote the general purposes stated in this section

598A.2 Definitions.
As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires
1 "Contestant" means a person, including a parent, who claims a right to custody or visitation rights with respect to a child
2 "Custody determination" means a court decision and court orders and instructions providing for the custody of a child, including visitation rights, it does not include a decision relating to child support or any other monetary obligation of any person
3 "Custody proceeding" includes proceedings in which a custody determination is one of several issues, such as an action for divorce or separation, and includes child neglect and dependency proceedings
4 "Decree" or "custody decree" means a custody determination contained in a judicial decree or order made in a custody proceeding, and includes an initial decree and a modification decree
5 "Home state" means the state in which the child, immediately preceding the time involved, lived with the child's parents, a parent, or a person acting as parent, for at least six consecutive months, and in the case of a child less than six months old the state in which the child lived from birth with any of the persons mentioned. Periods of temporary absence of any of the named persons are counted as part of the six-month or other period
6 "Initial decree" means the first custody decree concerning a particular child
7 "Modification decree" means a custody decree which modifies or replaces a prior decree, whether made by the court which rendered the prior decree or by another court
8 "Physical custody" means actual possession and control of a child
9 "Person acting as parent" means a person, other than a parent, who has physical custody of a child and who has either been awarded custody by a court or claims a right to custody
10 "State" means any state, territory, or possession of the United States, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the District of Columbia

[C79, 81, §598A 2]

598A.3 Jurisdiction.
1 A court of this state which is competent to decide child custody matters has jurisdiction to make a custody determination by initial or modification decree if:
a This state is the home state of the child at the time of commencement of the proceeding, or had been the child's home state within six months before commencement of the proceeding and the child is absent from this state because of removal or retention by a person claiming custody or for other reasons, and a parent or person acting as parent continues to live in this state, or b It is in the best interest of the child that a court of this state assume jurisdiction because the child and the child's parents, or the child and at least one contestant, have a significant connection with this state, and there is available in this state substantial evidence concerning the child's present or future care, protection, training, and personal relationships, or c The child is physically present in this state, and the child has been abandoned or it is necessary in an emergency to protect the child because the child has been subjected to or threatened with mistreatment or abuse or is otherwise neglected or dependent, or d It appears that no other state would have jurisdiction under prerequisites substantially in accordance with paragraph "a", "b", or "c", or another state has declined to exercise jurisdiction on the ground that this state is the more appropriate forum to determine the custody of the child, and it is in the best interest of the child that this court assume jurisdiction
2 Except under paragraphs "c" and "d" of subsection 1, physical presence in this state of the child, or of the child and one of the contestants, is not alone sufficient to confer jurisdiction on a court of this state to make a custody determination
3 Physical presence of the child, while desirable, is not a prerequisite for jurisdiction to determine custody

598A.4 Notice — to whom.
Before making a decree under this chapter, reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard shall be given to the contestants, any parent whose parental rights have not been previously terminated, and any person who has physical custody of the child If any of these persons is outside this state, notice and opportunity to be heard shall be given pursuant to section 598A 5

[C79, 81, §598A 4]

598A.5 Notice — methods.
Notice required for the exercise of jurisdiction over a person outside this state shall be given in a manner reasonably calculated to give actual notice, and may be
1 By personal delivery outside this state in the manner prescribed for service of process within this state,
2 In the manner prescribed by the law of the place in which the service is made for service of process in that place in an action in any of its courts of general jurisdiction,
3 By publication and mailing in accordance with Iowa rules of civil procedure 60 to 63, or
4. As directed by the court.
   Notice under this section shall be served, mailed, delivered, or last published at least twenty days before any hearing in this state.
   Proof of service outside this state may be made by affidavit of the individual who made the service, or in the manner prescribed by the law of this state, the order pursuant to which the service is made, or the law of the place in which the service is made.
   Notice is not required if a person submits to the jurisdiction of the court.
   [C79, 81, §598A.5]

598A.6 Jurisdiction withheld.
   A court of this state shall not exercise its jurisdiction under this chapter if at the time of filing the petition a proceeding concerning the custody of the child was pending in a court of another state exercising jurisdiction substantially in conformity with this chapter, unless the proceeding is stayed by the court of the other state because this state is a more appropriate forum or for other reasons.
   Before hearing the petition in a custody proceeding, the court shall examine the pleadings and other information supplied by the parties under section 598A.9 and shall consult the child-custody registry established under section 598A.16 concerning the pendency of proceedings with respect to the child in other states. If the court has reason to believe that proceedings may be pending in another state it shall direct an inquiry to the state court administrator or other appropriate official of the other state.
   If the court is informed during the course of the proceeding that a proceeding concerning the custody of the child was pending in another state before the court assumed jurisdiction, it shall stay the proceeding and communicate with the court in which the other proceeding is pending, to the end that the issue may be litigated in the more appropriate forum and that information may be exchanged in accordance with sections 598A.19 to 598A.22. If a court of this state has made a custody decree before being informed of a pending proceeding in a court of another state, it shall immediately inform that court of the fact. If the court is informed that a proceeding was commenced in another state after it assumed jurisdiction, it shall likewise inform the other court, to the end that the issues may be litigated in the more appropriate forum.
   [C79, 81, §598A.6]

598A.7 Inconvenient forum.
   1. A court which has jurisdiction under this chapter to make an initial or modification decree may decline to exercise its jurisdiction any time before making a decree if it finds that it is an inconvenient forum to make a custody determination under the circumstances of the case, and that a court of another state is a more appropriate forum.
   2. A finding of inconvenient forum may be made upon the court's own motion or upon motion of a party or a guardian ad litem or other representative of the child.
   3. In determining if it is an inconvenient forum, the court shall consider if it is in the interest of the child that another state assume jurisdiction. For this purpose it may take into account the following factors, among others:
      a. Whether another state is or recently was the child's home state.
      b. Whether another state has a closer connection with the child and the child's family or with the child and one or more of the contestants.
      c. Whether substantial evidence concerning the child's present or future care, protection, training, and personal relationships is more readily available in another state.
      d. Whether the parties have agreed on another forum which is no less appropriate.
      e. Whether the exercise of jurisdiction by a court of this state would contravene any of the purposes stated in section 598A.1.
   4. Before determining whether to decline or retain jurisdiction, the court may communicate with a court of another state and exchange information pertinent to the assumption of jurisdiction by either court, with a view to assuring that jurisdiction will be exercised by the more appropriate court and that a forum will be available to the parties.
   5. If the court finds that it is an inconvenient forum and that a court of another state is a more appropriate forum, it may dismiss the proceedings, or it may stay the proceedings upon condition that a custody proceeding be promptly commenced in another named state, or upon any other conditions which may be just and proper, including the condition that a moving party give consent and submit to the jurisdiction of the other forum.
   6. The court may decline to exercise its jurisdiction under this chapter if a custody determination is incidental to an action for divorce or another proceeding, while retaining jurisdiction over the divorce or other proceeding.
   7. If it appears to the court that it is clearly an inappropriate forum, it may require the party who commenced the proceedings to pay, in addition to the costs of the proceedings in this state, necessary travel and other expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by other parties or their witnesses. Payment is to be made to the clerk of the court for remittance to the proper party.
   8. Upon dismissal or stay of proceedings under this section, the court shall inform the court found to be the more appropriate forum of this fact, or if the court which would have jurisdiction in the other state is not known, shall transmit the information to the court administrator or other appropriate official for forwarding to the appropriate court.
   9. Any communication received from another state informing this state of a finding of inconvenient forum because a court of this state is the more appropriate forum shall be filed in the custody registry of the appropriate court. Upon assuming jurisdiction, the court of this state shall inform the original court of this fact.
   [C79, 81, §598A.7]

598A.8 Jurisdiction declined by reason of conduct.
   1. If the petitioner for an initial decree has wrongfully taken the child from another state or has engaged in similar reprehensible conduct, the court may decline to exercise jurisdiction if this is just and proper under the circumstances.
   2. Unless required in the interest of the child, the

CHAPTER 599

MINORS

599.1 Period of minority.
The period of minority extends to the age of eighteen years, but all minors attain their majority by marriage.
[C51, §1487; R60, §2539; C73, §2237; C97, §3188; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10492; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §599.1]

599.2 Contracts — disaffirmance.
A minor is bound not only by contracts for necessaries, but also by the minor’s other contracts, unless the minor disaffirms them within a reasonable time after attaining majority, and restores to the other party all money or property received by the minor by virtue of the contract, and remaining within the minor’s control at any time after attaining majority except as otherwise provided.
[C51, §1488; R60, §2540; C73, §2238; C97, §3189; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10493; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §599.2]

599.3 Misrepresentations — engaging in business.
No contract can be thus disaffirmed in cases where, on account of the minor’s own misrepresentations as to the minor’s majority, or from the minor’s having engaged in business as an adult, the other party had good reason to believe the minor capable of contracting.
[C51, §1489; R60, §2541; C73, §2239; C97, §3190; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10494; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §599.3]

599.4 Payments.
Where a contract for the personal services of a minor has been made with the minor alone, and the services are afterwards performed, payment therefor made to the minor, in accordance with the terms of the contract, is a full satisfaction therefor, and the parent or guardian cannot recover a second time.
[C51, §1490; R60, §2542; C73, §2240; C97, §3191; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10495; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §599.4]

599.5 Veterans minority disabilities.
The disability of minority of any person otherwise eligible for guaranty or insurance of a loan pursuant to the Servicemen’s Readjustment Act of 1944*, as amended and of the minor spouse of any eligible veteran, irrespective of age, in connection with any transaction entered into pursuant to said Act, as amended, is hereby removed for all purposes in connection with such transaction, including, but not limited to, incurring of indebtedness or obligations, and acquiring, encumbering, selling, releasing or conveying property or any interest therein, and litigating or settling controversies arising therefrom, if all or part of any obligations incident to such transaction be guaranteed or insured by the administrator of veterans affairs pursuant to such Act; provided, nevertheless, that this section shall not be construed to impose any other or greater rights or liabilities than would exist if such person and such spouse were under no such disability.
[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §599.5]

599.6 Donation of blood by minors.
A person who is seventeen years of age or older may consent to donate blood in a voluntary and noncompensatory blood program without the permission of a parent or guardian. The consent is not subject to later disaffirmance because of minority.

CHAPTER 600
ADOPTION

Adoption records prior to January 1, 1977 See 66GA ch 1229 §26

§600.1 Construction.

This chapter shall be construed liberally. The welfare of the person to be adopted shall be the paramount consideration in interpreting this division. However, the interests of the adopting parents shall be given due consideration in this interpretation.

Enacted as sections 600-1 to 600-16 Code 1977

§600.2 Definitions.

2. "Investigator" means a natural person who is certified or approved, by the department as being capable of conducting an investigation under section 600-8

Enacted as sections 600-1 to 600-16 Code 1977

§600.3 Commencement of adoption action — jurisdiction — forum non conveniens.

1. An action for the adoption of any natural person shall be commenced by the filing of an adoption petition, as prescribed in section 600-5, in the court of the county in which an adult person to be adopted is domiciled or resides, or in the court of the county in which the guardian of a minor person to be adopted or the petitioner is domiciled or resides.

2. An adoption petition shall not be filed until a termination of parental rights has been accomplished except in the following cases:

a. No termination of parental rights is required if the person to be adopted is an adult.

b. If the stepparent of the child to be adopted is the adoption petitioner, the parent-child relationship between the child and the parent who is not the spouse of the petitioner may be terminated as part of the adoption proceeding by the filing of that parent's consent to the adoption.

3. If upon filing of the adoption petition or at any later time in the adoption action the court finds that in the interest of substantial justice the adoption action should be conducted in another court, it may transfer, stay, or dismiss the adoption action on any conditions that are just.

Enacted as sections 600-1 to 600-16 Code 1977

§600.4 Qualifications to file adoption petition.

Any person who may adopt may file an adoption petition under section 600-3. The following persons may adopt:

1. An unmarried adult.

2. Husband and wife together.

3. A husband or wife separately if the person to be adopted is not the other spouse and if the adopting spouse:

a. Is the stepparent of the person to be adopted,

b. Has been separated from the other spouse by reason of the other spouse's abandonment as prescribed in section 597-10, or

c. Is unable to petition with the other spouse because cause of the prolonged and unexplained absence, unavailability, or incapacity of the other spouse, or because of an unreasonable withholding of joinder by the other spouse, as determined by the court under section 600.5, subsection 7

[R60, §2600, C73, §2307, C97, §3250, C24, §10496, C27, 31, 35, §10501 b1, C39, §10501.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §600 1, C77, 79, 81, §600 4]

600.5 Contents of an adoption petition.
An adoption petition shall be signed and verified by the petitioner, shall be filed with the court designated in section 600.3, and shall state
1 The name, as it appears on the birth certificate or in a verified birth record or as it appears as a result of marriage, and the residence or domicile of the person to be adopted
2 The date and place of birth of the person to be adopted
3 Any new name requested to be given the person to be adopted
4 The name, residence, and domicile of any guardian or custodian of the person to be adopted and the name, residence, and domicile of that person’s guardian ad litem if one is appointed for the adoption proceeding
5 The name, residence, and domicile of the petitioner, if this is not required to be stated under subsection 4 of this section, and the date or expected date on which the person to be adopted, if a minor, began or will begin living with the petitioner
6 The name, residence, and domicile of any parent of the person to be adopted
7 A designation of the particular provision in section 600.4 under which the petitioner is qualified to adopt and, if under section 600.4, subsection 3, paragraph “c”, a request that the court approve the petitioner’s qualification to adopt
8 A description and estimate of the value of any property owned by or held for the person to be adopted
9 A description of the facilities and resources, including those provided under a subsidy agreement pursuant to sections 600.17 to 600.22, that the petitioner is willing and able to supply for the nurture and care of any minor person to be adopted
10 When and where termination of parental rights pertaining to the person to be adopted has occurred, if termination was required under section 600.3

[R60, §2600, C73, §2307, C97, §3250, C24, §10496, C27, 31, 35, §10501 b1, C39, §10501.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §600 1, C77, 79, 81, §600 5]

600.6 Attachments to an adoption petition.
An adoption petition shall have attached to it the following
1 A certified copy of the birth certificate showing parentage of the person to be adopted or, if such certificate is not available, a verified birth record
2 A copy of any order terminating parental rights with respect to the person to be adopted
3 Any written consent and verified statement required under section 600.7, except the consent required under subsection 1, paragraph “d”, of that section
4 Any preplacement investigation report that has been prepared at the time of filing pursuant to section 600.8

[R60, §2601, C73, §2308, C97, §3251, C24, §10497, C27, 31, 35, §10501 b3, C39, §10501.3; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §600 3, C77, 79, 81, §600 6]

600.7 Consents to the adoption.
1 An adoption petition shall not be granted unless the following persons consent to the adoption or unless the court makes a determination under subsection 4 a Any guardian of the person to be adopted
   b The spouse of a petitioner who is a stepparent c The spouse of a petitioner who is separately petitioning to adopt an adult person
   d The person to be adopted if that person is fourteen years of age or older 2 A consent to the adoption shall be in writing, shall name the person to be adopted and the petitioner, shall be signed by the person consenting, and shall be made in the following manner:
   a If by any minor person to be adopted who is fourteen years of age or older, in the presence of the court in which the adoption petition is filed
   b If by any other person, either in the presence of the court in which the adoption petition is filed or before a notary public
3 A consent to the adoption may be withdrawn prior to the issuance of an adoption decree under section 600.13 by the filing of an affidavit of consent withdrawal with the court. Such affidavit shall be treated in the same manner as an attached verified statement as treated under subsection 4
4 If any person required to consent under this section refuses to or cannot be located to give consent, the petitioner may attach to the petition a verified statement of such refusal or lack of location. The court shall then determine, at the adoption hearing prescribed in section 600.12, whether, in the best interests of the person to be adopted and the petitioner, any particular consent shall be unnecessary to the granting of an adoption petition.

[R60, §2600, 2601, C73, §2307, 2308, C97, §3250, 3251, C24, §10496, 10497, C27, 31, 35, §10501-b1, 10501 b3, C39, §10501.1, 10501.3; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §600 1, 600 3, C77, 79, 81, §600 7]

600.8 Placement investigations and reports.
1 A preplacement investigation shall be directed to and a report of this investigation shall answer the following
   (1) Whether the home of the prospective adoption petitioner is a suitable one for the placement of a minor person to be adopted
   (2) How the prospective adoption petitioner’s emotional maturity, finances, health, relationships, and any other relevant factor may affect the petitioner’s ability to accept, care, and provide a minor person to be adopted with an adequate environment as that person matures
   b A postplacement investigation and a report of this investigation shall
   (1) Verify the allegations of the adoption petition and its attachments and of the report of expenditures required under section 600.9
   (2) Evaluate the progress of the placement of the minor person to be adopted
(3) Determine whether adoption by the adoption petitioner may be in the best interests of the minor person to be adopted.

c. A background information investigation and a report of this investigation shall not disclose the identity of the natural parents of the minor person to be adopted and shall answer the following:

   (1) What is the complete family medical history of the person to be adopted, including any known genetic, metabolic, or familial disorders?

   (2) What is the complete medical and developmental history of the person to be adopted?

2. A preplacement investigation and report of the investigation shall be completed and the prospective adoption petitioner approved for a placement by the person making the investigation prior to any agency or independent placement of a minor person in the petitioner's home in anticipation of an ensuing adoption. A report of a preplacement investigation that has approved a prospective adoption petitioner for a placement shall not authorize placement of a minor person with that petitioner after one year from the date of the report's issuance. However, if the prospective adoption petitioner is a relative within the fourth degree of consanguinity who has assumed custody of a minor person to be adopted, a preplacement investigation of this petitioner and a report of the investigation may be completed at a time established by the court or may be waived as provided in subsection 12.

b. If the person making the investigation does not approve a prospective adoption petitioner under paragraph "a" of this subsection, the person investigated may appeal the disapproval as a contested case to the commissioner of human services. Judicial review of any adverse decision by the commissioner may be sought pursuant to chapter 17A.

3. The department, an agency or an investigator shall conduct all investigations and reports required under subsection 2 of this section.

4. A postplacement investigation and a background information investigation and the reports of these investigations shall be completed and the reports filed with the court prior to the holding of the adoption hearing prescribed in section 600.12. Upon the filing of an adoption petition pursuant to section 600.5, the court shall immediately appoint the department, an agency, or an investigator to conduct and complete the postplacement and background information investigations and reports. In addition to filing the background information report with the court prior to the holding of the adoption hearing, the department, agency, or investigator appointed to conduct the background information investigation shall complete the background information investigation and report and furnish a copy to the adoption petitioner within thirty days after the filing of the adoption petition. Any person, including a juvenile court, who has gained relevant background information concerning a minor person subject to an adoption petition shall, upon request, fully cooperate with the conducting of the background information investigation and report by disclosing any relevant background information, whether contained in sealed records or not.

5. Any person conducting an investigation under subsections 3 and 4 may, in the investigation or subsequent report, include, utilize, or rely upon any reports, studies, or examinations to the extent they are relevant.

6. Any person conducting an investigation under subsections 3 and 4 may charge a fee which does not exceed the reasonable cost of the services rendered and which is based on a sliding scale schedule relating to the investigated person's ability to pay.

7. Any investigation or report required under this section shall not apply when the person to be adopted is an adult or when the prospective adoption petitioner or adoption petitioner is a stepparent of the person to be adopted. However, in the case of a stepparent adoption, the court, upon the request of an interested person or on its own motion stating the reasons therefor of record, may order an investigation or report pursuant to this section.

8. Any person designated to make an investigation and report under this section may request an agency or state agency, within or outside this state, to conduct a portion of the investigation or the report, as may be appropriate, and to file a supplemental report of such investigation or report with the court. In the case of the adoption of a minor person by a person domiciled or residing in any other jurisdiction of the United States, any investigation or report required under this section which has been conducted pursuant to the standards of that other jurisdiction shall be recognized in this state.

9. The department may investigate, on its own initiative or on order of the court, any placement made or adoption petition filed under this chapter or chapter 600A and may report its resulting recommendation to the court.

10. The department or an agency or investigator may conduct any investigations required for an interstate or interagency placement. Any interstate investigations or placements shall follow the procedures and regulations under the interstate compact on the placement of children. Such investigations and placements shall be in compliance with the laws of the states involved.

11. Any person who assists in or impedes the placement or adoption of a minor person in violation of the provisions of this section shall be, upon conviction, guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

12. Any investigation and report required under subsection 1 of this section may be waived by the court if the adoption petitioner is related within the fourth degree of consanguinity to the person to be adopted.

600.9 Report of expenditures.

1. An adoption petitioner of a minor person shall file with the court, prior to the adoption hearing, a full accounting of all disbursements of any thing of value paid or agreed to be paid by or on behalf of the petitioner in connection with the petitioned adoption. This accounting shall be made by a report prescribed by the court. The report shall be signed and verified by the petitioner and shall show any expenses incurred in connection with:

   a. The birth of the minor person to be adopted.

   b. Placement of the minor person with the adoption petitioner.
600.13 Adoption decrees.

1 At the conclusion of the adoption hearing, the court shall a Issue a final adoption decree, b Issue an interlocutory adoption decree, or,
   c Dismiss the adoption petition if the requirements of this Act have not been met or if dismissal of the adoption petition is in the best interest of the person whose adoption has been petitioned. Upon dismissal, the court shall determine who is to be guardian or custodian of a minor child, including the adoption petitioner if it is in the best interest of the minor person whose adoption has been petitioned.

2 An interlocutory adoption decree automatically becomes a final adoption decree at a date specified by the court in the interlocutory adoption decree, which date shall not be less than one hundred eighty days nor more than three hundred sixty days from the date the interlocutory decree is issued. However, an interlocutory adoption decree may be vacated prior to the date specified for it to become final. Also, the court may provide in the interlocutory adoption decree for further observation, investigation, and report of the conditions of and the relationships between the adoption petitioner and the person petitioned to be adopted.

3 If an interlocutory adoption decree is vacated under subsection 2, it shall be void from the date of issuance and the rights, duties, and liabilities of all persons affected by it shall, unless they have become vested, be governed accordingly. Upon vacation of an interlocutory adoption decree, the court shall proceed under the provisions of subsection 1, paragraph "c".

4 A final adoption decree terminates any parental rights, except those of a spouse of the adoption petitioner, existing at the time of its issuance and establishes the parent-child relationship between the adoption petitioner and the person petitioned to be adopted. Unless otherwise specified by law, such parent-child relationship shall be deemed to have been created at the birth of the child.

5 An interlocutory or a final adoption decree shall be entered with the clerk of the court. Such decree shall set forth any facts of the adoption petition which have been proven to the satisfaction of the court and any other facts considered to be relevant by the court and shall grant the adoption petition. If so designated in the adoption decree, the name of the adopted person shall be changed by issuance of that decree. The clerk of the court shall, within thirty days of issuance, deliver one certified copy of any adoption decree to the petitioner, one copy of any adoption decree to the department and any agency or person making an independent placement who placed a minor person for adoption, and one certification of adoption as prescribed in section 14419 to the state registrar of vital statistics. Upon receipt of the certification, the state registrar shall prepare a new birth certificate pursuant to section 14423 and deliver to the parents named in the decree and any adult person adopted by the decree a copy of the new birth certificate. The parents shall pay the fee prescribed in section 14446. If the person adopted was born outside the state, the state registrar shall forward the certification of adoption to the appropriate agency in the state or foreign nation of birth. A copy of any interlocutory adoption decree vacating a portion of the permanent termination of parental rights shall be delivered and another birth certificate shall be prepared in the same manner as a certification of adoption is delivered and the birth certificate was originally prepared.

600.14 Appeal.

An appeal from any final order or decree rendered under this chapter or chapter 600A shall be taken in the same manner as an appeal is taken from a final judgment under the rules of civil procedure. However, a rule of civil procedure provision regarding a minimum amount of value in controversy shall not bar an adoption appeal. The supreme court shall review an adoption appeal de novo.

[C77, 79, 81, §600 14]

600.15 Foreign and international adoptions.

1 a A decree establishing a parent-child relationship by adoption which is issued pursuant to due process of law by a court of any other jurisdiction in or outside the United States shall be recognized in this state.

b A decree terminating a parent-child relationship which is issued pursuant to due process of law by a court of any other jurisdiction in the United States shall be recognized in this state.

c A document certified by the department as being proper evidence of termination of parental rights in a jurisdiction outside the United States shall be recognized in this state.

2 If there is a proxy adoption in the minor person’s country of origin, a further adoption must occur in the state where the adopting parents reside in accordance with the adoption laws of that state.

3 The department may provide necessary assistance to an eligible citizen of Iowa who desires to, in accordance with the immigration laws of the United States, make an international adoption. For any such assistance, the department may charge a fee which does not exceed the reasonable cost of services rendered and which is based on a sliding scale relating to the investigated person’s ability to pay.

4 Any rules of the department relating to placement of a minor child for adoption which are more restrictive than comparable rules of agencies making international placements and laws of the United States shall not be enforced by the department in an international adoption.

[C77, 79, 81, §600 15]

600.16 Termination and adoption record.

1 Any information compiled under section 600 8, subsection 1, paragraph “c”, subparagraphs (1) and (2) shall be made available at any time by the clerk of the court, the department, or any agency which made the placement to a The adopting parents

b The adopted person, provided that person is an adult at the time the request for information is made

c Any person approved by the department if the person uses this information solely for the purposes of conducting a legitimate research project or of treating a patient in a medical facility.

Information regarding an adopted person’s existing medical and developmental history and family medical history, which meets the definition of background in formation in section 600 8, subsection 1, paragraph “c”, but which was compiled prior to July 1, 1976, shall be made available as provided in this subsection. However, the identity of the adopted person’s natural parents shall not be disclosed.

2 The permanent termination of parental rights record of the juvenile court under chapter 600A and the permanent adoption record of the court shall be sealed by the clerk of the juvenile court and the clerk of court, as appropriate, when they are complete and after the time for appeal has expired. All papers and records pertaining to a termination of parental rights under chapter 600A and to an adoption, whether a part of the permanent termination and adoption records of the juvenile court and of the court or on file with a guardian, guardian ad litem, custodian, person who placed a minor person, or the department shall not be open to inspection and the identity of the natural parents of an adopted person shall not be revealed. However, an agency involved in placement shall contact the adopting parents or the adult adopted child regarding the eligibility of the adopted child for benefits based on entitlement of benefits or inheritance from the terminated natural parents. Also, the clerk of the court shall, upon application to and order of the court for good cause shown, open the permanent adoption record of the court for the adopted person who is an adult and reveal the names of either or both of the natural parents. A natural parent may file an affidavit requesting that the court reveal or not reveal the par ent's name The court shall consider any such affidavit in determining whether there is good cause to order opening of the records. If the adopted person who applies for revelation of the natural parents' name has a sibling who is a minor and who has been adopted by the same parents, the court may deny such application on the grounds that revelation to the applicant may also indirectly and harmfully permit the same revelation to the applicant's minor sibling. To facilitate the natural parents in filing such affidavit, the department shall, upon request of such parent, file an affidavit in the court in which the adoption records have been sealed.

3 Notwithstanding any other provision in this section, the juvenile court or court may, upon competent medical evidence, open termination or adoption records if opening is shown to be necessary to save the life of or prevent irreparable physical harm to an adopted person or the person's offspring. The juvenile court or court shall make every reasonable effort to prevent the identity of the natural parents from becoming revealed under this subsection to the adopted person. The juvenile court or court may, however, permit revelation of the identity of the natural parents to medical personnel attending the adopted person or the person's offspring. These medical personnel shall make every reasonable effort to prevent the identity of the natural parents from becoming revealed to the adopted person.

4 Any person, other than the adopting parents or the adopted person, who discloses information in violation of the provisions of this section shall be, upon conviction, guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

[C46, §600.9, C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §600.9, 600.10, C77, 79, 81, §600.16]

600.17 Financial assistance.

The department of human services shall, within the limits of funds appropriated to the department of human services and any gifts or grants received by the department for this purpose, provide financial assistance to any person who adopts a physically or mentally handicapped, older, or otherwise hard to place child, if the adoptive parent has the capability of providing a suitable home for the child but the need for special services or the costs of maintenance are beyond the economic resources of the adoptive parent.

1 Financial assistance shall not be provided when the special services are available free of cost to the adoptive parent or are covered by an insurance policy of the adoptive parent.

2 "Special services" means any medical, dental, therapeutic, educational, or other similar service or appliance required by an adopted child by reason of a mental or physical handicap.

[C73, 75, §600.11, C77, 79, 81, §600.17]

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

600.18 Determination of assistance.

Any prospective adoptive parent desiring financial assistance shall state this fact in the petition for adoption. The department of human services shall investigate the person petitioning for adoption and the child and shall file with the court a statement of whether the department will provide assistance as provided in sections 600.17 to 600.22, the estimated amount, extent, and duration of assistance, and any other information the court may order.

If the department of human services is unable to determine that an insurance policy will cover the costs of special services, it shall proceed as if no policy existed, for the purpose of determining eligibility to receive assistance. The department shall, to the amount of financial assistance given, be subrogated to the rights of the adoptive parent in the insurance contract.

600.19 Amount of assistance.

The amount of financial assistance for maintenance shall not exceed the amount the department would normally spend for foster care of the child. The amount of financial assistance for special services shall not exceed the amount the department would normally spend if it were to provide these services.

[C73, 75, §600.13, C77, 79, 81, §600.19]

600.20 Availability of assistance.

Financial assistance shall be available only if the child to be adopted was under the guardianship of the state, county, or a licensed child-placing agency immediately prior to adoption. The one hundred eighty-day period of residence in the proposed home required in section 600.10 shall not apply to this section.

[C73, 75, §600.14, C77, 79, 81, §600.20]

600.21 Termination of assistance.

Financial assistance shall terminate when the need for assistance no longer exists. Financial assistance shall not extend beyond the adopted child's twenty-first birthday.

[C73, 75, §600.15, C77, 79, 81, §600.21]

600.22 Rules.

The department of human services shall adopt rules in accordance with the provisions of chapter 17A, which are necessary for the administration of sections 600.17 to 600.21.

600.23 Vietnamese refugee children. Repealed by 84 Acts, ch 1219, §41

600.24 Access to records.

The department may allow access to adoption records held by it or an agency if:

a. The records were compiled prior to January 1, 1977.

b. The identity of the natural parents of the adopted person is concealed from the person gaming access to the records.

c. The person gaming access to the records uses them solely for the purposes of conducting a legitimate research project or of treating a patient in a medical facility.

[C79, 81, §600.24]

600.25 Pending parental rights unaffected.

A termination of parental rights proceeding or an adoption proceeding pending on January 1, 1977, or a release of parental rights or affidavit of consent or consent to adopt properly given prior to January 1, 1977 shall not be affected by the provisions of chapter 600A.

[C79, 81, §600 25]

CHAPTER 600A

TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS

Proceedings prior to January 1, 1977 see §600 25

600A.1 Construction.

This chapter shall be construed liberally. The welfare of the child subject to the proceedings of this chapter shall be the paramount consideration in interpreting this chapter. However, the interests of the parents of this child or any natural person standing in the place of the parents to this child shall be given due consideration in this interpretation.

[C77, 79, 81, §600A 1]

600A.2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

1. “Child” means a son or daughter of a parent, whether by birth or adoption;
2. “Parent” means a father or mother of a child, whether by birth or adoption;
3. “Parent child relationship” means the relationship between a parent and a child recognized by the law as conferring certain rights and privileges and imposing certain duties. The term extends equally to every child and every parent, regardless of the marital status of the parents of the child. The rights, duties, and privileges recognized in the parent-child relationship include those which are maintained by a guardian, custodian, and guardian ad litem;
4. “Termination of parental rights” means a complete severance and extinguishment of a parent-child relationship between one or both living parents and the child;
5. “Natural parent” means a parent who has been a biological party to the procreation of the child;
6. “Stepparent” means a person who is the spouse of a parent in a parent-child relationship, but who is not a parent in that parent-child relationship;
7. “Guardian” means a person who is not the parent of a minor child, but who has been appointed by a court or juvenile court having jurisdiction over the minor child to make important decisions which have permanent effect on the life and development of that child and to promote the general welfare of that child. A guardian may be a court or a juvenile court. Guardian does not mean conservator, as defined in section 633.3, although a person who is appointed to be a guardian may also be appointed to be a conservator;

8. “Custodian” means a stepparent or a relative within the fourth degree of consanguinity to a minor child who has assumed responsibility for that child, a person who has accepted a release of custody, or a person appointed by a court or juvenile court having jurisdiction over a child. The rights and duties of a custodian with respect to a minor child shall be as follows:
   a. To consent to marriage, enlistment in the armed forces of the United States, or medical, psychiatric or surgical treatment;
   b. To serve as custodian, unless another person has been appointed custodian;
   c. To make reasonable visitations if the guardian does not have physical possession or custody of the minor child;
   d. To consent to adoption and to make any other decision that the parents could have made when the parent-child relationship existed;
8. “Custodian” means a stepparent or a relative within the fourth degree of consanguinity to a minor child who has assumed responsibility for that child, a person who has accepted a release of custody, or a person appointed by a court or juvenile court having jurisdiction over a child. The rights and duties of a custodian with respect to a child shall be as follows:
   a. To consent to marriage, enlistment in the armed forces of the United States, or medical, psychiatric or surgical treatment;
   b. To serve as custodian, unless another person has been appointed custodian;
   c. To provide food, clothing, housing, and ordinary medical care for that child;
   d. To consent to emergency medical care, including surgery.
600A.5 Petition for termination.

1. The following persons may petition a juvenile court for termination of parental rights under this chapter if the child of the parent-child relationship is born or expected to be born within one hundred eighty days of the date of petition filing:
   a. A parent or prospective parent of the parent-child relationship
   b. A custodian or guardian of the child

2. A petition for termination of parental rights shall be filed with the juvenile court in the county in which the guardian or custodian of the child resides or the child, the natural mother or the pregnant woman is domiciled. If a juvenile court has made an order

600A.4 Relationship unaltered — release of custody — voluntariness of release.

1. A parent shall not permanently alter the parent-child relationship, except as ordered by a juvenile court or court. However, custody of a minor child may be assumed by a stepparent or a relative of that child within the fourth degree of consanguinity or transferred by an acceptance of a release of custody. A person who assumes custody or an agency which accepts a release of custody under this section becomes, upon assumption or acceptance, the custodian of the minor child.

2. A release of custody
   a. Shall be accepted only by an agency or a person making an independent placement
   b. Shall not be accepted by a person who in any way intend to adopt the child who is the subject of the release
   c. Shall be in writing
   d. Shall be signed, not less than seventy two hours after the birth of the child to be released, by all living parents

600A.3 Exclusivity.

Termination of parental rights shall be accomplished only according to the provisions of this chapter. However, termination of parental rights between an adult child and the child’s parents may be accomplished by a decree of adoption establishing a new parent-child relationship.
pertaining to a minor child under chapter 232, division III and that order is still in force, the termination proceedings shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of chapter 232, division IV.

3 A petition for termination of parental rights shall include the following:
   a. The legal name, age and domicile, if any, of the child
   b. The names, residences, and domicile of any
      (1) Living parents of the child
      (2) Guardian of the child
      (3) Custodian of the child
      (4) Guardian ad litem of the child
      (5) Petitioner
   c. A plain statement of the facts and grounds in section 600A 8, subsections 1 to 4, which indicate that the parent child relationship should be terminated
   d. A plain statement explaining why the petitioner does not know any of the information required under paragraphs "a" and "b" of this subsection
   e. The signature and verification of the petitioner.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, §232 42, 232 43, C77, 79, 81, §600A 5]

600A.6 Notice of termination hearing.

1 A termination of parental rights under this chapter shall, unless provided otherwise in this section, be ordered only after notice has been served on all necessary parties and these parties have been given an opportunity to be heard before the juvenile court except that notice need not be served on the petitioner or on any necessary party who is spouse of the petitioner. "Necessary party" means any person whose name, residence, and domicile are required to be included on the petition under section 600A 5, subsection 3, paragraphs "a" and "b" except a natural parent who has been convicted of having sexually abused the other natural parent while not cohabiting with that parent as husband and wife, thereby producing the birth of the child who is the subject of the termination proceedings.

2 Prior to the service of notice on the necessary parties, the juvenile court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for a minor child if the child does not have a guardian or if the interests of the guardian conflict with the interests of the child. Such guardian ad litem shall be a necessary party under subsection 1 of this section.

3 Notice under this section may be served personally or constructively, as specified under subsections 4, 5, and 6. This notice shall state:
   a. The time and place of the hearing on termination of parental rights.
   b. A clear statement of the purpose of the action and hearing.

4 A necessary party whose identity and location or address is known shall be served in accordance with the rules of civil procedure relating to an original notice where not inconsistent with the provisions of this section. Notice pursuant to rule of civil procedure 56 1 shall be served not less than seven days prior to the hearing on termination of parental rights. Notice by certified mail restricted delivery shall be sent not less than fourteen days prior to the hearing on termination of parental rights. A notice by certified mail restricted delivery which is refused by the necessary party being noticed shall be sufficient notice to that party under this section. Acceptance of notice by the necessary party shall satisfy the requirements of this subsection.

5 A necessary party whose identity is known but whose location or address is unknown may be served by published notice. Such notice shall be served according to the rules of civil procedure relating to an original notice where not inconsistent with the provisions of this section. In addition to the requirements of subsection 3, such notice shall include only the name of the unlocated necessary party being noticed. Notice by publication shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks, the last publication to be not less than seven days prior to the hearing on termination of parental rights.

6 The juvenile court shall require that every reasonable effort is made to identify, locate, and notice an unidentified necessary party. A reasonable effort to notice such party shall not be by published notice which includes the name of any identified necessary party. If the juvenile court reasonably concludes, upon a proper showing, that the identity and location of the necessary party has not been determined, the juvenile court shall, upon proper findings and order entered of record, dispense with notice to this necessary party.

7 Proof of service of notice in the manner prescribed shall be filed with the juvenile court prior to the hearing on termination of parental rights.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, §232 44, 232 45, C77, 79, 81, §600A 6]

600A.7 Termination hearing — forum non conveniens.

1 The hearing on termination of parental rights shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of sections 232 91 to 232 96 and otherwise in accordance with the rules of civil procedure. Such hearing shall be held no earlier than one week after the child is born.

2 Relevant information, including that contained in reports, studies or examinations and testified to by interested persons, may be admitted into evidence at the hearing and relied upon to the extent of its probative value. When such information is so admitted, the person submitting it or testifying shall be subject to both direct and cross-examination by a necessary party.

600A.8 Grounds for termination.

The juvenile court shall base its findings and order under section 600A 9 on clear and convincing proof. The following shall be, either separately or jointly, grounds for ordering termination of parental rights:

1 A parent has signed a release of custody pursuant to section 600A 4 and the release has not been revoked.

2 A parent has petitioned for the parent's termination of parental rights pursuant to section 600A 5.

3 A parent has abandoned the child.
4 A parent has been ordered to contribute to the support of the child or financially aid in the child's birth and has failed to do so without good cause.
5 A parent does not object to the termination after having been given proper notice and the opportunity to object.
6 A parent does not object to the termination although every reasonable effort has been made to identify, locate and give notice to that parent as required in section 600A.6.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, §232.41, C77, 79, 81, §600A.8]

600A.9 Termination findings and order — vacation of order.
1 Subsequent to the hearing on termination of parental rights under this chapter, the juvenile court shall make a finding of facts and shall a Order the petition dismissed, or, b Order the petition granted. The juvenile court shall appoint a guardian and a custodian or a guardian only. An order issued under this paragraph shall include the finding of facts. Such finding shall specify the factual basis for terminating the parent-child relationship and shall specify the ground or grounds upon which the termination is ordered.
2 If an order is issued under subsection 1, paragraph "a" of this section, the juvenile court shall retain jurisdiction to change a guardian or custodian and to allow a terminated parent to request vacation of the termination order if the child is not on placement for adoption or a petition for adoption of the child is not on file. The juvenile court shall grant the vacation request only if it is in the best interest of the child.

3 A copy of any order made under this section shall be sent by the clerk of the juvenile court to a The department
   b The petitioner
   c The parents whose rights have been terminated if they request such copies d Any guardian, custodian, or guardian ad litem of the child.

600A.10 Grandparent visitation rights.
A grandparent of a child may petition the district court for grandchild visitation rights when any of the following circumstances occur:
1 The parent of the child, who is the child of the grandparent, has died.
2 The child has been placed in a foster home.
3 The parental rights of the parent of the child, who is the child of the grandparent, are terminated pursuant to section 232.117 or 600A.9 or a petition to terminate parental rights has been filed pursuant to section 232.111 or 600A.5.

A petition for grandchild visitation rights shall be granted only upon a finding that the visitation rights are in the best interest of the child and would not unduly disrupt the child's relationship with the person who has custody of the child, including an adoptive parent.

See also §598.35.
601A.1 Citation.
This chapter may be known and may be cited as the “Iowa Civil Rights Act of 1965.”

[C66, 71, §105A 1, C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §601A 1]

601A.2 Definitions.
When used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Court” means the district court in and for the judicial district of the state of Iowa in which the alleged unfair or discriminatory practice occurred or any judge of said court if the court is not in session at that time.

2. “Person” means one or more individuals, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, receivers, and the state of Iowa and all political subdivisions and agencies thereof.

3. “Employment agency” means any person undertaking to procure employees or opportunities to work for any other person or any person holding itself to be equipped to do so.

4. “Labor organization” means any organization which exists for the purpose in whole or in part of collective bargaining, of dealing with employers concerning grievances, terms, or conditions of employment, or of other mutual aid or protection in connection with employment.

5. “Employer” means the state of Iowa or any political subdivision, board, commission, department, institution, or school district thereof, and every other person employing employees within the state.

6. “Employee” means any person employed by an employer.

7. “Unfair practice” or “discriminatory practice” means those practices specified as unfair or discriminatory in sections 601A 6, 601A 7, 601A 8, 601A 9, 601A 10 and 601A 11.

8. “Commission” means the Iowa state civil rights commission created by this chapter.

9. “Commissioner” means a member of the commission.

10. “Public accommodation” means each and every... place, establishment, or facility of whatever kind, nature, or class that caters or offers services, facilities, or goods for a fee or charge to nonmembers of any organization or association utilizing the place, establishment, or facility, provided that any place, establishment, or facility that caters or offers services, facilities, or goods to the nonmembers gratuitously shall be deemed a public accommodation if the accommodation receives governmental support or subsidy. Public accommodation shall not mean any bona fide private club or other place, establishment, or facility which is by its nature distinctly private, except when such distinctly private place, establishment, or facility caters or offers services, facilities, or goods to the nonmembers for fee or charge or gratuitously, it shall be deemed a public accommodation during such period.

"Public accommodation" includes each state and local government unit or tax-supported district of whatever kind, nature, or class that offers services, facilities, benefits, grants or goods to the public, gratuitously or otherwise. This paragraph shall not be construed by negative implication or otherwise to restrict any part or portion of the pre-existing definition of the term "public accommodation".

11. "Disability" means the physical or mental condition of a person which constitutes a substantial handicap. In reference to employment, under this chapter, "disability" also means the physical or mental condition of a person which constitutes a substantial handicap, but is unrelated to such person's ability to engage in a particular occupation.

601A.3 Commission appointed.

The Iowa state civil rights commission shall consist of seven members appointed by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate. Appointments shall be made to provide geographical area representation insofar as practicable. No more than four members of the commission shall belong to the same political party. Members appointed to the commission shall serve for four-year staggered terms beginning and ending as provided by section 69.19.

Vacancies on the commission shall be filled by the governor by appointment for the unexpired part of the term of the vacancy. Any commissioner may be removed from office by the governor for cause.

The governor subject to confirmation by the senate shall appoint a director who shall serve as the executive officer of the commission.

601A.4 Compensation and expenses — rules.

Commissioners shall be paid a forty-dollar per diem and shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred while on official commission business. All per diem and expense moneys paid to commissioners shall be paid from funds appropriated to the commission. The commission shall adopt, amend or rescind such rules as shall be necessary for the conduct of its meetings. A quorum shall consist of four commissioners.

601A.5 Powers and duties.

The commission shall have the following powers and duties:

1. To prescribe the duties of a director and appoint and prescribe the duties of such investigators and other employees and agents as the commission shall deem necessary for the enforcement of this chapter.

2. To receive, investigate, and finally determine the merits of complaints alleging unfair or discriminatory practices.

3. To investigate and study the existence, character, causes, and extent of discrimination in public accommodations, employment, apprenticeship programs, on-the-job training programs, vocational schools, credit practices, and housing in this state and to attempt the elimination of such discrimination by education and conciliation.

4. To seek a temporary injunction against a respondent when it appears that a complainant may suffer irreparable injury as a result of an alleged violation of this chapter. A temporary injunction may only be issued ex parte, if the complaint filed with the commission alleges discrimination in housing. In all other cases a temporary injunction may be issued only after the respondent has been notified and afforded the opportunity to be heard.

5. To hold hearings upon any complaint made against a person, an employer, an employment agency, or a labor organization, or the employees or members thereof, to subpoena witnesses and compel their attendance at such hearings, to administer oaths and to take the testimony of any person under oath, and to compel such person, employer, employment agency, or labor organization, or employees or members thereof to produce for examination any books and papers relating to any matter involved in such complaint. The commission shall issue subpoenas for witnesses in the same manner and for the same purposes on behalf of the respondent upon the respondent's request. Such hearings may be held by the commission, by any commissioner, or by any hearing examiner appointed by the commission. If a witness either fails or refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the commission, the commission may petition the district court having jurisdiction for issuance of a subpoena and the court shall in a proper case issue the subpoena. Refusal to obey such subpoena shall be subject to punishment for contempt.

6. To issue such publications and reports of investigations and research as in the judgment of the commission shall tend to promote good will among the various racial, religious, and ethnic groups of the state and which shall tend to minimize or eliminate discrimination in public accommodations, employment, apprenticeship and on-the-job training programs, vocational schools, or housing because of race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion, ancestry or disability.

7. To prepare and transmit to the governor and to the general assembly from time to time, but not less often than once each year, reports describing its proceedings, investigations, hearings conducted and the outcome thereof, decisions rendered, and the other work performed by the commission.

8. To make recommendations to the general assembly for such further legislation concerning discrimination because of race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion, ancestry or disability as it may deem necessary and desirable

9 To co-operate, within the limits of any appropriations made for its operation, with other agencies or organizations, both public and private, whose purposes are consistent with those of this chapter, and in the planning and conducting of programs designed to eliminate racial, religious, cultural, and intergroup tensions

10 To adopt, publish, amend, and rescind regulations consistent with and necessary for the enforcement of this chapter

11 To receive, administer, dispense and account for any funds that may be voluntarily contributed to the commission and any grants that may be awarded the commission for furthering the purposes of this chapter

12 To defer a complaint to a local civil rights commission under commission rules promulgated pursuant to chapter 17A [C66, 71, §105A 5, C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §601A 5]

601A.6 Unfair employment practices.

1 It shall be an unfair or discriminatory practice for any

a Person to refuse to hire, accept, register, classify, or refer for employment, to discharge any employee, or to otherwise discriminate in employment against any applicant for employment or any employee because of the age, race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion or disability of such applicant or employee, unless based upon the nature of the occupation. If a disabled person is qualified to perform a particular occupation, by reason of training or experience, the nature of that occupation shall not be the basis for exception to the unfair or discriminating practices prohibited by this subsection

b Labor organization or the employees, agents or members thereof to refuse to admit to membership any applicant, to expel any member, or to otherwise discriminate against any applicant for membership or any member in the privileges, rights, or benefits of such membership because of the age, race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion or disability of such applicant or member

c Employer, employment agency, labor organization, or the employees, agents, or members thereof to directly or indirectly advertise or in any other manner indicate or publicize that individuals of any particular age, race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion or disability are unwelcome, objectionable, not acceptable, or not solicited for employment or membership unless based on the nature of the occupation. If a disabled person is qualified to perform a particular occupation by reason of training or experience, the nature of that occupation shall not be the basis for exception to the unfair or discriminating practices prohibited by this subsection

An employer, employment agency, or their employees, servants or agents may offer employment or advertisement for employment to only the disabled, when other applicants have available to them, other employment compatible with their ability which would not be available to the disabled because of their handicap. Any such employment or offer of employment shall not discriminate among the disabled on the basis of race, color, creed, sex or national origin

2 This section shall not prohibit discrimination on the basis of the age, race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion or disability of such applicant or employee because of race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion or disability of such applicant or employee

3 Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, a state or federal program designed to benefit a specific class of disabled persons, such as a state or federal program designed to benefit disabled persons of a particular race, shall not be considered as a discriminatory practice

4 This section shall not apply to age classifications which serve a bona fide public purpose

5 This section shall not apply to a Any employer who regularly employs less than four individuals For purposes of this subsection, individuals who are members of the employer’s family shall not be counted as employees

b The employment of individuals for work within the home of the employer if the employer or members of the employer’s family reside therein during such employment

c The employment of individuals to render personal service to the person of the employer or members of the employer’s family

d Any bona fide religious institution or its educational facility, association, corporation or society with respect to any qualifications for employment based on religion when such qualifications are related to a bona fide religious purpose. A religious qualification for an educational facility or religious institution, or a bona fide religious purpose. A religious qualification for a membership or the employees, agents or members thereof to refuse to admit to membership any applicant, to expel any member, or to otherwise discriminate against any applicant for membership or any member in the privileges, rights, or benefits of such membership because of the age, race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion or disability of such applicant or member

e The employment of individuals for work within the home of the employer if the employer or members of the employer’s family reside therein during such employment 601A.7 Unfair practices accommodation or services.

1 It shall be an unfair or discriminatory practice for any

a To refuse or deny to any person because of age, race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion or disability the accommodations, advantages, facilities, services, or privileges thereof, or otherwise to discriminate against any person because of race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion or disability in the furnishing of such accommodations, advantages, facilities, services, or privileges

b To directly or indirectly advertise or in any other manner indicate or publicize that the patronage of persons of any particular race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion or disability is unwelcome, objectionable, not acceptable, or not solicited

a Any bona fide religious institution with respect to any qualifications the institution may impose based on religion when such qualifications are related to a bona fide religious purpose

b The rental or leasing to transient individuals of less than six rooms within a single housing accommodation by the occupant or owner of such housing ac 601A.8 Unfair or discriminatory practices — housing.

It shall be an unfair or discriminatory practice for any owner, or person acting for an owner, of rights to housing or real property, with or without compensation, including but not limited to persons licensed as real estate brokers or salespersons, attorneys, auctioneers, agents or representatives by power of attorney or appointment, or any person acting under court order, deed of trust, or will

1 To refuse to sell, rent, lease, assign, or sublease any real property or housing accommodation or part, portion or interest therein, to any person because of the race, color, creed, sex, religion, national origin or disability of such person

2 To discriminate against any person because of the person's race, color, creed, sex, religion, national origin or disability, in the terms, conditions or privileges of the sale, rental, lease assignment, or sublease of any real property or housing accommodation or any part, portion or interest therein

3 To directly or indirectly advertise, or in any other manner indicate or publicize that the purchase, rental, lease, assignment, or sublease of any real property or housing accommodation or any part, portion or interest therein, by persons of any particular race, color, creed, sex, religion, national origin or disability is unwelcome, objectionable, not acceptable or not solicited

4 To discriminate against the lessee or purchaser of any real property or housing accommodation or part, portion or interest of the real property or housing accommodation, or against any prospective lessee or purchaser of the property or accommodation, because of the race, color, creed, religion, sex, disability, age or national origin of persons who may from time to time be present in or on the lessee's or owner's premises for lawful purposes at the invitation of the lessee or owner as friends, guests, visitors, relatives or in any similar capacity

[C71, §105A 13, C73, §601A 13, C75, 77, 79, 81, §601A 8]

601A.9 Unfair or discriminatory practices — education.

It is an unfair or discriminatory practice for any educational institution to discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion, or disability in any program or activity. Such discriminatory practices shall include but not be limited to the following practices

1 Exclusion of a person or persons from participation in, denial of the benefits of, or subjection to discrimination in any academic, extracurricular, research, occupational training, or other program or activity except athletic programs,

2 Denial of comparable opportunity in intramural and interscholastic athletic programs,

3 Discrimination among persons in employment and the conditions of employment,

4 On the basis of sex, the application of any rule concerning the actual or potential parental, family or marital status of a person, or the exclusion of any person from any program or activity or employment because of pregnancy or related conditions dependent upon the physician's diagnosis and certification

For the purpose of this section "educational institution" includes any preschool, elementary, secondary, or merged area school, area education agency, or post secondary college or university and their governing boards. This section does not prohibit an educational institution from maintaining separate toilet facilities, locker rooms or living facilities for the different sexes so long as comparable facilities are provided. Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting any bona fide religious institution from imposing qualifications based on religion when such qualifications are related to a bona fide religious purpose or any institution from admitting students of only one sex 601A.10 Unfair credit practices.

[C71, 81, §601A 9]

It shall be an unfair or discriminatory practice for any

1 Creditor to refuse to enter into a consumer credit transaction or impose finance charges or other terms or conditions more onerous than those regularly extended by that creditor to consumers of similar economic backgrounds because of age, color, creed, national origin, race, religion, marital status, sex, or physical disability

2 Person authorized or licensed to do business in this state pursuant to chapter 524, 533, 534, 536, or 536A to refuse to loan or extend credit or to impose terms or conditions more onerous than those regularly extended to persons of similar economic backgrounds because of age, color, creed, national origin, race, religion, marital status, sex, or physical disability

3 Creditor to refuse to offer credit life or health and accident insurance because of color, creed, national origin, race, religion, marital status, age, physical disability or sex. Refusal by a creditor to offer credit life or health and accident insurance based upon the age or physical disability of the consumer shall not be an unfair or discriminatory practice if such denial is based solely upon bona fide underwriting considerations not prohibited by title XX

The provisions of this section shall not be construed by negative implication or otherwise to narrow or restrict any other provisions of this chapter

[C71, 81, §601A 9, C73, 81, §601A 10]

601A.11 Aiding or abetting.

It shall be an unfair or discriminatory practice for

1 Any person to intentionally aid, abet, compel, or coerce another person to engage in any of the practices declared unfair or discriminatory by this chapter

2 Any person to discriminate against another person in any of the rights protected against discrimination on the basis of age, race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion or disability by this chapter because such person has lawfully opposed any practice forbidden under this chapter, obeys the provisions of this chapter, or has filed a complaint, testified, or assisted in any proceeding under this chapter. An employer, employment agency, or their employees, servants or agents may offer employment or advertise for employment to only the disabled, when other applicants have available to them other employment compatible with their ability which would not be available to the disabled because of their handicap. Any such employment or offer of employment shall not discriminate among the disabled on the basis of race, color, creed, sex or national origin.

[C66, 71, §105A 8, C73, §601A 8, C75, 77, §601A 10, C79, 81, §601A 11]

§601A.12 Exceptions.
The provisions of section 601A 8 shall not apply to:

1. Any bona fide religious institution with respect to any qualifications it may impose based on religion, when such qualifications are related to a bona fide religious purpose.

2. The rental or leasing of a housing accommodation in a building which contains housing accommodations for not more than two families living independently of each other, if the owner or members of the owner’s family reside in one of such housing accommodations.

3. The rental or leasing of less than six rooms with in a single housing accommodation by the occupant or owner of such housing accommodation, if the occupant or owner or members of that person’s family reside therein.

4. Restrictions based on sex on the rental or leasing of housing accommodations by nonprofit corporations.

5. The rental or leasing of a housing accommodation within which residents of both sexes must share a common bathroom facility on the same floor of the building.

[C71, §105A 14, C73, §601A 14, C75, 77, §601A 11, C79, 81, §601A 12]

§601A.13 Exceptions for retirement plans, abortion coverage, life, disability and health benefits.
The provisions of this chapter relating to discrimination because of age do not apply to a retirement plan or benefit system of an employer unless the plan or system is a mere subterfuge adopted for the purpose of evading this chapter.

1. However, a retirement plan or benefit system shall not require the involuntary retirement of a person under the age of seventy because of that person’s age. This paragraph does not prohibit the following:

a. The involuntary retirement of a person who has attained the age of sixty-five and has for the two prior years been employed in a bona fide executive or high policy-making position and who is entitled to an immediate, nonforfeitable annual retirement benefit from a pension, profit-sharing, savings or deferred compensation plan of the employer which equals twenty thousand dollars. This retirement benefit test may be adjusted according to the regulations prescribed by the United States secretary of labor pursuant to Public Law 95 256, section 3.

b. The involuntary retirement of a person covered by a collective bargaining agreement which was entered into by a labor organization and was in effect on September 1, 1977. This exemption does not apply after the termination of that agreement or January 1, 1980, whichever first occurs.

2. A health insurance program provided by an employer may exclude coverage of abortion, except where the life of the mother would be endangered if the fetus were carried to term or where medical complications have arisen from an abortion.

3. An employee welfare plan may provide life, disability or health insurance benefits which vary by age based on actuarial differences if the employer contributes equally for all the participating employees or may provide for employer contributions differing by age if the benefits for all the participating employees do not vary by age.

84 Acts, ch 1011, §1

§601A.14 Promotion or transfer.
After a handicapped individual is employed, the employer shall not be required under this chapter to promote or transfer such handicapped person to another job or occupation, unless, prior to such transfer, such handicapped person by training or experience is qualified for such job or occupation. Any collective bargaining agreement between an employer and labor organization shall contain this section as part of such agreement.

[C73, §601A 16, C75, 77, §601A 13, C79, 81, §601A 14]

§601A.15 Complaint — hearing.

1. Any person claiming to be aggrieved by a discriminatory or unfair practice, in person or by an attorney, make, sign, and file with the commission a verified, written complaint in triplicate which shall state the name and address of the person, employer, employment agency, or labor organization alleged to have committed the discriminatory or unfair practice of which complained, shall set forth the particulars thereof, and shall contain such other information as may be required by the commission. The commission, a commissioner, or the attorney general may in like manner make, sign, and file such complaint.

2. Any place of public accommodation, employer, labor organization, or other person who has any employees or members who refuse or threaten to refuse to comply with the provisions of this chapter may file with the commission a verified written complaint in triplicate asking the commission for assistance to obtain their compliance by conciliation or other remedial action.

3. a. After the filing of a verified complaint, a true copy shall be served within twenty days by certified mail on the person against whom the complaint is filed. An authorized member of the commission staff shall make a prompt investigation and shall issue a recommendation to a hearing officer under the jurisdiction of the commission, who shall then issue a determination of probable cause or no probable cause.

b. For purposes of this chapter, a hearing officer issuing a determination of probable cause or no probable cause under this section shall be exempt from the provisions of section 17A 17.

c. If the hearing officer concurs with the investigating official that probable cause exists regarding the allegations of the complaint, the staff of the commission shall promptly endeavor to eliminate the dis criminatory or unfair practice by conference, conciliation, and persuasion. If the hearing officer finds that no probable cause exists, the hearing officer shall issue a final order dismissing the complaint and shall promptly mail a copy to the complainant and to the respondent by certified mail. A finding of probable cause shall not be introduced into evidence in an action brought under section 601A.16.

d. The commission staff must endeavor to eliminate the discriminatory or unfair practice by conference, conciliation, and persuasion for a period of thirty days following the initial conciliation meeting between the respondent and the commission staff after a finding of probable cause. After the expiration of thirty days, the director may order the conciliation conference and persuasion procedure provided in this section to be bypassed when the director determines the procedure is unworkable by reason of past patterns and practices of the respondent, or a statement by the respondent that the respondent is unwilling to continue with the conciliation. The director must have the approval of a commissioner before bypassing the conciliation, conference and persuasion procedure. Upon the bypassing of conciliation, the director shall state in writing the reasons for bypassing.

4. The members of the commission and its staff shall not disclose the filing of a complaint, the information gathered during the investigation, or the endeavors to eliminate such discriminatory or unfair practice by conference, conciliation, and persuasion, unless such disclosure is made in connection with the conduct of such investigation.

5. When the director is satisfied that further endeavor to settle a complaint by conference, conciliation, and persuasion is unworkable and should be bypassed, and the thirty-day period provided for in subsection 3 has expired without agreement, the director with the approval of a commissioner, shall issue and cause to be served a written notice specifying the charges in the complaint as they may have been amended and the reasons for bypassing conciliation, if the conciliation is bypassed, and requiring the respondent to answer the charges of the complaint at a hearing before the commission, a commissioner, or a person designated by the commission to conduct the hearing, hereafter referred to as the hearing officer, and at a time and place to be specified in the notice.

6. The case in support of such complaint shall be presented at the hearing by one of the commission's attorneys or agents. The investigating official shall not participate in the hearing except as a witness nor participate in the deliberations of the commission in such case.

7. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 17A for contested cases. The burden of proof in such a hearing shall be on the commission.

8. If upon taking into consideration all of the evidence at a hearing, the commission determines that the respondent has engaged in a discriminatory or unfair practice, the commission shall state its findings of fact and conclusions of law and shall issue an order requiring the respondent to cease and desist from the discriminatory or unfair practice and to take the necessary remedial action as in the judgment of the commission will carry out the purposes of this chapter. A copy of the order shall be delivered to the respondent, the complainant, and to any other public officers and persons as the commission deems proper.

a. For the purposes of this subsection and pursuant to the provisions of this chapter "remedial action" includes but is not limited to the following:

1. Hiring, reinstatement or upgrading of employees with or without pay. Interim earned income and unemployment compensation shall operate to reduce the pay otherwise allowable.

2. Admission or restoration of individuals to a labor organization, admission to or participation in a guidance program, apprenticeship training program, on-the-job training program or other occupational training or retraining program, with the utilization of objective criteria in the admission of individuals to such programs.

3. Admission of individuals to a public accommodation or an educational institution.

4. Sale, exchange, lease, rental or sublease of real property to an individual.

5. Extension to all individuals of the full and equal enjoyment of the advantages, facilities, privileges, and services of the respondent denied to the complainant because of the discriminatory or unfair practice.

6. Reporting as to the manner of compliance.

7. Posting notices in conspicuous places in the respondent's place of business in form prescribed by the commission and inclusion of notices in advertising material.

8. Payment to the complainant of damages for an injury caused by the discriminatory or unfair practice which damages shall include but are not limited to actual damages, court costs and reasonable attorney fees.

b. In addition to the remedies provided in the preceding provisions of this subsection, the commission may issue an order requiring the respondent to cease and desist from the discriminatory or unfair practice and to take such affirmative action as in the judgment of the commission will carry out the purposes of this chapter as follows:

1. In the case of a respondent operating by virtue of a license issued by the state or a political subdivision or agency, if the commission, upon notice to the respondent with an opportunity to be heard, determines that the respondent has engaged in a discriminatory or unfair practice and that the practice was authorized, requested, commanded, performed or recklessly tolerated by the board of directors of the respondent or by an officer or executive agent acting within the scope of the officer's or agent's employment, the commission shall so certify to the licensing agency. Unless the commission finding of a discriminatory or unfair practice is reversed in the course of judicial review, the finding of discrimination is binding on the licensing agency. If a certification is made pursuant to this subsection, the licensing agency may initiate licensee disciplinary procedures.

2. In the case of a respondent who is found by the commission to have engaged in a discriminatory or unfair practice in the course of performing under a contract or subcontract with the state or political subdivision or agency, if the practice was authorized, requested, commanded, performed, or knowingly or recklessly tolerated by the board of directors of the respondent or by an officer or executive agent acting within the scope of the officer's or agent's employment, the commission shall so certify to the contracting agency. Unless the commission's finding of a discriminatory or unfair practice is reversed in the course of judicial review, the finding of discrimination is binding on the contracting agency.

3. Upon receiving a certification made under this subsection, a contracting agency may take appropriate action to terminate a contract or portion thereof previously entered into with the respondent, either absolutely or on condition that the respondent carry out a program of compliance with the provisions of this chapter, and assist the state and all political subdivisions and agencies thereof to refrain from entering into further contracts.

c. The election of an affirmative order under paragraph "b" of this subsection shall not bar the election of affirmative remedies provided in paragraph "a" of this subsection.

9. The terms of a conciliation agreement reached with the respondent may require the respondent to refrain from future action on the complaint, either absolutely or on condition that the respondent carry out a program of compliance with the provisions of this chapter, and assist the state and all political subdivisions and agencies thereof to refrain from entering into further contracts.

10. If, upon taking into consideration all of the evidence at a hearing, the commission finds that a respondent has not engaged in any such discriminatory or unfair practice, the commission shall issue an order denying relief and stating the findings of fact and conclusions of the commission, and shall cause a copy of the order denying relief to be served by certified mail on the respondent and his principal place of business, or in the county in which the alleged unfair or discriminatory practice occurred.

11. The commission shall establish rules to govern, expedite, and effectuate the procedures established by this chapter and its own actions thereunder.

12. A claim under this chapter shall not be maintained unless a compliant is filed with the commission within one hundred eighty days after the alleged discriminatory or unfair practice occurred.

[C66, 71, §105A 9, C73, §601A 9, C75, 77, §601A 14, C79, 81, §601A 15]

601A.16 One hundred twenty-day administrative release.

1. A person claiming to be aggrieved by an unfair or discriminatory practice must initially seek an administrative relief by filing a complaint with the commission in accordance with section 601A 15. This provision also applies to persons claiming to be aggrieved by an unfair or discriminatory practice committed by the state or an agency or political subdivision of the state, notwithstanding the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. A complainant after the proper filing of a complaint with the commission may subsequently commence an action for relief in the district court if all of the following conditions have been satisfied:

a. The complainant has timely filed the complaint with the commission as provided in section 601A 15, subsection 12, and

b. The complaint has been on file with the commission for at least one hundred twenty days and the commission has issued a release to the complainant pursuant to subsection 2 of this section.

2. Upon a request by the complainant, and after the expiration of one hundred twenty days from the timely filing of a complaint with the commission, the commission shall issue to the complainant a release stating that the complainant has a right to commence an action in the district court. A release under this subsection shall not be issued if a finding of no probable cause has been made on the complaint by the hearing officer charged with that duty under section 601A 15, subsection 3, or a conciliation agreement has been executed under section 601A 15, or the commission has served notice of hearing upon the respondent pursuant to section 601A 15, subsection 5.

3. An action authorized under this section is barred unless commenced within ninety days after issuance by the commission of a release under subsection 2 of this section. If a complainant obtains a release from the commission under subsection 2 of this section, the commission is barred from further action on that complaint.

4. Venue for an action under this section shall be in the county in which the respondent resides or has its principal place of business, or in the county in which the alleged unfair or discriminatory practice occurred.

5. The district court may grant any relief in an action under this section which is authorized by section 601A 15, subsection 8 to be issued by the commission. The district court may also award the respondent reasonable attorney's fees and court costs when the court finds that the complainant's action was frivolous.

6. It is the legislative intent of this chapter that every complaint be at least preliminarily screened during the first one hundred twenty days.

This section does not authorize administrative closures if an investigation is warranted.

601A.17 Judicial review — enforcement.

1. Judicial review of the actions of the commission may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, petition for judicial review may be filed in the district court in which an enforcement proceeding under subsection 2 may be brought.

For purposes of the time limit for filing a petition for judicial review under the Iowa administrative procedure Act, specified by section 17A 19, the issuance of a final decision of the commission under this chapter occurs on the date notice of the decision is mailed by certified mail, to the parties.

Notwithstanding the time limit provided in section 17A 19, subsection 3, a petition for judicial review of no-probable cause decisions and other final agency actions which are not of general applicability must be filed within thirty days of the issuance of the final agency action.

2. The commission may obtain an order of court for the enforcement of commission orders in a proceeding as provided in this section. Such an enforcement proceeding shall be brought in the district court of the district in the county in which the alleged discriminatory or unfair practice which is the subject of the commission's order was committed, or in which any respondent required in the order to cease or desist from a discriminatory or unfair practice or to take other affirmative action resides, or transacts business.

3. Such an enforcement proceeding shall be initiated by the filing of a petition in such court and the service of a copy thereof upon the respondent. Thereupon the commission shall file with the court a transcript of the record of the hearing before it. The court shall have power to grant such temporary relief or restraining order as it deems just and proper, and to make and enter upon the pleadings, testimony, and proceedings set forth in such transcript an order enforcing, modifying, and enforcing as so modified, or setting aside the order of the commission, in whole or in part.

4. An objection that has not been urged before the commission shall not be considered by the court in an enforcement proceeding, unless the failure or neglect to urge such objection shall be excused because of extraordinary circumstances.

5. Any party to the enforcement proceeding may move the court to remit the case to the commission in whole or in part.

6. In the enforcement proceeding the court shall determine its order on the same basis as it would in a proceeding reviewing commission action under section 17A 19, subsection 8.

7. The commission's copy of the testimony shall be available to all parties for examination at all reasonable times, without cost, and for the purpose of judicial review of the commission's orders.

8. The commission may appear in court by its own attorney.

9. Petitions filed under this section shall be heard expeditiously and determined upon the transcript filed without requirement for printing.

10. If no proceeding to obtain judicial review is instituted within thirty days from the service of an order of the commission under section 601A 15, the commission may obtain an order of the court for the enforcement of such order upon showing that respondent is subject to the jurisdiction of the commission and resides or transacts business within the county in which the petition for enforcement is brought.

601A.19 Local laws may implement this chapter.

Nothing contained in any provision of this chapter shall be construed as indicating an intent on the part of the general assembly to occupy the field in which this chapter operates to the exclusion of local laws not inconsistent with this chapter that deal with the same subject matter.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as indicating an intent to prohibit an agency of local government having as its purpose the investigation and resolution of violations of this chapter from developing procedures and remedies necessary to ensure the protection of rights secured by the Iowa civil rights Act. An agency of local government and the Iowa civil rights commission shall cooperate in the sharing of data and research, and coordinate investigations and conciliations in order to eliminate needless duplication.

The commission may designate an agency of local government as a referral agency. A local agency shall not be designated a referral agency unless the ordinance creating it provides the same rights and remedies as are provided in this chapter. The commission shall establish by rules the procedures for designating a referral agency and the qualifications to be met by a referral agency.

A complainant who files a complaint with a referral agency having jurisdiction shall be prohibited from filing a complaint with the commission alleging violations based upon the same acts or practices cited in the original complaint, and a complainant who files a complaint with the commission shall be prohibited from filing a complaint with the referral agency alleging violations based upon the same acts or practices cited in the original complaint. However, the commission in its discretion may refer a complaint filed with the commission to a referral agency having jurisdiction over the parties for investigation and resolution, and a referral agency in its discretion may refer a complaint filed with that agency to the commission for investigation and resolution. The commission may promulgate rules establishing the procedures for referral of complaints. A referral agency may refuse to accept a case referred to it by the commission if the referral agency is unable to effect proper administration of the complaint. It shall be the burden of the referral agency to demonstrate that it is unable to properly administer that complaint.

A final decision by a referral agency shall be subject to judicial review as provided in section 601A 17 in the same manner and to the same extent as a final decision of the commission.

The referral of a complaint by the commission to a referral agency or by a referral agency to the commission shall not affect the right of a complainant to commence an action in the district court under section 601A.16. [C66, 71, §105A.12; C73, §601A.12; C75, 77, §601A.17; C78, 81, §601A.19]

CHAPTER 601B

COMMISSION FOR THE BLIND

Repealed by 86 Acts, ch 1245 §1265, see §601K et seq

CHAPTER 601C

OPERATION OF FOOD SERVICE IN PUBLIC BUILDINGS

601C.1 Public policy.
It is the policy of this state to provide maximum opportunities for training blind persons, helping them to become self-supporting and demonstrating their capabilities. This chapter shall be construed to carry out this policy.
[C71, §93C.1; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §601C.1]

601C.2 Definitions.
For the purposes of this chapter:
1. "Public office building" means the state capitol, all county courthouses, all city halls, and all buildings used primarily for governmental offices of the state or any county or city. It does not include public schools or buildings at institutions of the state board of regents or the state department of human services.
2. "Food service" includes restaurant, cafeteria, snack bar, vending machines for food and beverages, and goods and services customarily offered in connection with any of these. It does not include goods and services offered by a veteran's newsstand under section 331.361, subsection 4.
[C71, §93C.2; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §601C.2; 81 Acts, ch 117, §1095]
83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

601C.3 Agreement with commission for blind.
A governmental agency which proposes to operate or continue a food service in a public office building shall first attempt in good faith to make an agreement for the commission for the blind to operate the food service without payment of rent. The governmental agency shall not offer or grant to any other party a contract or concession to operate such food service unless the governmental agency determines in good faith that the commission for the blind is not willing to or cannot satisfactorily provide such food service. This chapter shall not impair any valid contract existing on July 1, 1969, and shall not preclude renegotiation of such contract on the same terms and with the same parties.
[C71, §93C.3; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §601C.3]

601C.4 Other public buildings.
With respect to all state, county, municipal, and school buildings which are not subject to section 601C.3, the governmental agency in charge of the building shall consider allowing the commission for the blind to operate any existing or proposed food service in the building, and shall discuss such operation with the commission for the blind upon its request.
[C71, §93C.4; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §601C.4]
CHAPTER 601D

RIGHTS OF BLIND, PARTIALLY BLIND AND PHYSICALLY DISABLED

601D.1 Participation by handicapped.
It is the policy of this state to encourage and enable the blind, the partially blind and the physically disabled to participate fully in the social and economic life of the state and to engage in remunerative employment.

601D.2 Public employment.
The blind, the partially blind and the physically disabled shall be employed in the state service, the service of the political subdivisions of the state, the public schools, and all other employment supported in whole or in part by public funds, on the same terms and conditions as the able bodied, unless it is shown that the particular disability prevents the performance of the work required.

601D.3 Free use of public facilities.
The blind, the partially blind and the physically disabled have the same right as the able bodied to the full and free use of the streets, highways, sidewalks, walkways, public buildings, public elevators, public facilities and other public places.

601D.4 Accommodations.
The blind, the partially blind and the physically disabled are entitled to full and equal accommodations, facilities, and privileges of all common carriers, airplanes, motor vehicles, railroad trains, motorbuses, streetcars, boats, other public conveyances or modes of transportation, hotels, lodging places, eating places, places of public accommodation, amusement, or resort, and other places to which the general public is invited, subject only to the conditions and limitations established by law and applicable alike to all persons.

601D.5 Use of guide dogs.
Every blind or partially blind person shall have the right to be accompanied by a guide dog, under control and especially trained for the purpose, in any of the places listed in sections 601D.3 and 601D.4 without being required to make additional payment for the guide dog. A landlord shall waive lease restrictions on the keeping of a guide dog for a blind person. The blind person is liable for damage done to the premises or facilities by a guide dog.

601D.6 Failure to use cane or dog not negligence.
A blind or partially blind pedestrian not carrying a cane or using a guide dog in any place shall have all of the rights and privileges conferred by law upon other persons, and the failure of a blind or partially blind pedestrian to carry a cane or to use a guide dog in any place shall not be held to constitute or be evidence of contributory negligence.

601D.7 Penalty for denying rights.
Any person, firm, or corporation, or the agent of any person, firm, or corporation, who denies or interferes with the rights of any person under this chapter shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

601D.8 White cane safety day.
The governor shall annually take suitable public notice of October 15 as white cane safety day. The governor shall issue a proclamation commenting upon the significance of the white cane, calling upon the citizens to observe the provisions of this chapter and sections 321 332 and 321 333 and to take precautions necessary for the safety of the disabled, reminding the citizens of the policies herein declared and urging the citizens to cooperate in giving effect to them, and emphasizing the need of the citizens to be aware of the presence of disabled persons in the community and to offer assistance to disabled persons upon appropriate occasions.

601D.9 Curb cuts and ramps for handicapped.
Curbs constructed along any public street in this state, when the street is paralleled or intersected by sidewalks, or when city ordinances or other lawful regulations will require the construction of sidewalks in parallel to or intersecting the street, shall be constructed with not less than two curb cuts or ramps per lineal block which shall be located on or near the crosswalks at intersections. Each curb cut or ramp shall be at least thirty inches wide, shall be sloped at not greater than one inch of rise per twelve inches lineal distance, except that a slope no greater than one inch of rise per eight inches lineal distance may be used where necessary, shall have a nonskid surface, and shall otherwise be so constructed as to allow reasonable access to the crosswalk for physically handicapped persons using the sidewalk.

2 The requirements of subsection 1 shall apply after January 1, 1975 to all new curbs constructed and to all replacement curbs constructed at any point along a public street which gives reasonable access to a crosswalk.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §601D 9]

601D.10 Use of hearing dog.

A deaf person has the right to be accompanied by a hearing dog, under control and especially trained at a recognized training facility to assist the deaf by responding to sound, in any place listed in sections 601D 3 and 601D 4 without being required to make additional payment for the hearing dog. A landlord shall waive lease restrictions on the keeping of dogs for a deaf person with a hearing dog. The deaf person is liable for damage done to any premise or facility by a hearing dog.

A person who denies or interferes with the right of a deaf person under this section is, upon conviction, guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §601D 9]

CHAPTER 601E

DISTRESS FLAGS AND IDENTIFICATION DEVICES FOR HANDICAPPED

601E 1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1 "Handicapped person" means a Any person who has impairments that, for all practical purposes, confine that person to a wheelchair
   b Any person who has impairments that cause that person to walk with difficulty and insecurity including, but not limited to, a person using braces or crutches, amputees, arthritics, spastics, and any person with a pulmonary or cardiac problem who is semiambulatory

2 "Distress flag" means a white flag made of reflective material, seven and one half inches in width and thirteen inches in length, with an irregular one half inch red border and a red letter "H" centered thereon, approved and issued by the director of transportation.

3 "Department" means the state department of transportation.

4 "Director" means the director of transportation.

5 "Handicapped identification device" means an identification device bearing the international symbol of accessibility issued by the department.

6 "Handicapped parking space" means a parking space designated for use by only motor vehicles displaying a handicapped identification device that meets the requirements of section 601E 10.

[C73, 75, 77, 81, §601E 1, 81 Acts, ch 49, §4, 5]

601E.2 Disabled motor vehicle — display of flag.

A person whose motor vehicle is disabled, may use or display a distress flag as a distress signal if the person is a handicapped person and has been issued a permit and a distress flag as provided in section 601E 3.

[C73, 75, 77, 81, §601E 2, 81 Acts, ch 49, §6]

601E.3 Application — issuance of flag.

Any person desiring a distress flag for use as provided in section 601E 2 shall apply to the department upon an application form furnished by the department, providing the applicant's name, address, date of birth, a physician's signature attesting to the disability and information on the type of physical apparatus needed to operate a motor vehicle, if any, and information relating to the applicant's handicap required by the director. Upon determination by the director that the applicant qualifies as a handicapped person as defined in section 601E 1 and the payment of a fee, the director shall issue the applicant a permit to use a distress flag. The director shall determine the fee for the distress flag except that the fee shall not exceed the cost of the flag to the department. Each distress flag shall be numbered and in the event of its loss or destruction, the director may issue a duplicate upon payment of the fee. The director shall maintain a record of all applicants and those qualified applicants receiving permits and distress flags.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §601E.3, 81 Acts, ch 49, §7]

601E.4 Return of flag.

If a person who has been issued a permit and distress flag under this chapter becomes disqualified as a handicapped person, the person shall return the permit and the distress flag to the department.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §601E.4, 81 Acts, ch 49, §8]

601E.5 Penalty.

Any person who is not a handicapped person and uses a distress flag as provided in this chapter or for any other purpose is guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §601E.5, 81 Acts, ch 49, §9]

601E.6 Handicapped identification devices.

1. A handicapped identification device may be displayed in a motor vehicle being used by a handicapped person, either as operator or passenger. The devices shall be of uniform design and fabricated of durable material, suitable for display from within the passenger compartment of a motor vehicle, and readily transferable from one vehicle to another. They shall be acquired by the department and sold at cost, not to exceed five dollars, to handicapped persons upon application on forms prescribed by the department. Before delivering a handicapped identification device to a purchaser, the department shall permanently affix to the device a unique number which may be used in the department to identify that individual purchaser.

A handicapped person who has been issued registration plates as a disabled veteran under the provisions of section 321A 105 may apply to the department for handicapped identification stickers to be affixed to the plates. The handicapped identification stickers shall bear the international symbol of accessibility. The handicapped identification stickers shall be acquired by the department and sold at cost, not to exceed five dollars, to eligible handicapped persons upon application on forms prescribed by the department.

A handicapped identification sticker affixed to a registration plate issued to a disabled veteran under section 321A 166, subsection 6, and a handicapped registration plate issued under section 321A 34, subsection 7, are also valid handicapped identification devices.

A handicapped identification device or sticker shall only be issued if the applicant files with the department a statement from a physician licensed under chapter 148, 150, or 150A, written on the physician’s stationery, stating the nature of the applicant’s handicap and such additional information as required by rules adopted by the department under subsection 3. This paragraph does not apply to handicapped identification devices issued to nonhandicapped individuals, government agencies, or private organizations under subsection 3, paragraph "d".

2. A city or other political subdivision which provides on street parking areas or off-street parking facilities shall set aside at least six tenths of one percent of the metered parking spaces as handicapped parking spaces. A person may also set aside handicapped parking spaces on the person's property provided each parking space is clearly and prominently designated as a handicapped parking space. The use of a handicapped parking space by a motor vehicle not displaying a handicapped identification device, or by a motor vehicle displaying such a device but not being used by a handicapped person, as operator or passenger, is a misdemeanor for which a fine may be imposed upon the owner, operator, or lessee of the motor vehicle. The fine for each violation is fifteen dollars.

Proof of conviction of three or more violations involving improper use of the same handicapped identification device is grounds for revocation by the department of the holder's privilege to use the device.

3. The department shall promulgate rules:

a. Establishing procedure for applying to the department for issuance of a permanent or temporary handicapped identification device and handicapped identification stickers under this section;

b. Requiring persons who seek permanent handicapped identification devices or handicapped identification stickers to furnish evidence upon initial application that they are permanently handicapped, and requiring persons who seek temporary handicapped identification devices to furnish evidence upon initial application that they are physically handicapped and, in addition, to furnish evidence at three month intervals that they remain physically handicapped;

c. Governing the manner in which handicapped identification devices and stickers are to be displayed in or on motor vehicles;

d. Establishing procedure and proof requirements for application to the department for issuance of a handicapped identification device to nonhandicapped individuals, government agencies, or private organizations which are engaged in providing transportation services for handicapped persons;

4. Handicapped identification devices issued by other states to their handicapped citizens shall be valid handicapped identification devices in this state.

86 Acts, ch 1225, §3–7

1986 amendment to subsection 3 paragraph b reducing interval from six months to three months applies to identification devices issued on or after July 1, 1986.

[C77, 79, 81, §601E.6, 81 Acts, ch 49, §10, 11]

601E.7 and 601E.8 Reserved.

601E.9 Handicapped parking sign.

The handicapped parking sign shall bear the internationally recognized symbol of accessibility. If a person who owns or leases real property in a city is required to provide handicapped parking spaces, the city shall provide the signs for the person. The signs shall be provided upon request at cost.

[81 Acts, ch 49, §12]

601E.10 Handicapped parking space — location — requirements.

1. Parking spaces for handicapped persons and accessible loading zones that serve a particular building shall be located on the shortest accessible route to an entrance to the building.
2 A handicapped parking space designated after July 1, 1981, shall meet the following requirements:
   a Each space shall be at least one hundred forty-four inches wide, or, if two or more spaces are adjacent to each other, each space shall be at least one hundred twenty inches wide with at least a forty-eight inch walkway between each space.
   b Each space shall be clearly designated as a handicapped parking space by the display of the international symbol of accessibility.
   c The requirements of this subsection which specify the dimensions of a handicapped parking space shall not apply to metered on street parking spaces.
   d A variance to the space and location requirements may be granted by cities.

[81 Acts, ch 49, §12]

CHAPTER 601F

GOVERNOR'S COMMITTEE ON EMPLOYMENT OF HANDICAPPED

Repealed by 86 Acts ch 1245 §1265 see §601K 74 et seq

CHAPTER 601G

CITIZENS' AIDE

601G.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:
1 “Person” means an individual, aggregate of individuals, corporation, partnership, or unincorporated association.
2 “Agency” means all governmental entities, departments, boards, commissions, councils or institutions, and any officer, employee or member thereof acting or purporting to act in the exercise of official duties, but it does not include:
   a Any court or judge or appurtenant judicial staff.
   b The members, committees, or permanent or temporary staffs of the Iowa general assembly.
   c The governor of Iowa or the governor's personal staff.
   d Any instrumentality formed pursuant to an interstate compact and answerable to one state.

3 “Officer” means any officer of an agency.
4 “Employee” means any employee of an agency.
5 “Administrative action” means any policy or action taken by an agency or failure to act pursuant to law.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §601G 1]

601G.2 Office established.

The office of citizens' aide is established.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §601G 2]

601G.3 Appointment — vacancy.

The citizens' aide shall be appointed by the legislative council with the approval and confirmation of a constitutional majority of the senate and with the approval and confirmation of a constitutional majority of the house of representatives. The legislative council shall fill a vacancy in this office in the same manner.
as the original appointment. If the appointment or vacancy occurs while the general assembly is not in session, such appointment shall be reported to the senate and the house of representatives within thirty days of their convening at their next regular session for approval and confirmation.

The citizens' aide shall employ and supervise all employees under the citizens' aide's direction in such positions and at such salaries as shall be authorized by the legislative council. The legislative council shall hear and act upon appeals of aggrieved employees of the office of the citizens' aide.

[73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §601G.3]

601G.4 Citizen of United States and resident of Iowa.
The citizens' aide shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of the state of Iowa, and shall be qualified to analyze problems of law, administration and public policy.

601G.5 Term — removal.
The citizens' aide shall hold office for four years from the first day in July of the year of approval by the senate and the house of representatives, and until a successor is appointed by the legislative council, unless the citizens' aide can no longer perform the official duties, or is removed from office. The citizens' aide may at any time be removed from office by constitutional majority vote of the two houses of the general assembly or as provided by chapter 66. If a vacancy occurs in the office of citizens' aide, the deputy citizens' aide shall act as citizens' aide until the vacancy is filled by the legislative council.

601G.6 Deputy — assistant for penal agencies.
The citizens' aide shall designate one of the members of the staff as the deputy citizens' aide, with authority to act as citizens' aide when the citizens' aide is absent from the state or becomes disabled. The citizens' aide may delegate to members of the staff any of the citizens' aide's authority or duties except the duty of formally making recommendations to agencies or reports to the governor or the general assembly.
The citizens' aide shall appoint an assistant who shall be primarily responsible for investigating complaints relating to penal or correctional agencies.

[73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §601G.6]

601G.7 Prohibited activities.
Neither the citizens' aide nor any member of the staff shall:
1. Hold another public office of trust or profit under the laws of this state other than the office of notary public.
2. Engage in other employment for remuneration with an agency against which a complaint may be filed under this chapter or that could create a conflict of interest or interfere in the performance of the person's duties under this chapter.
3. Knowingly engage in or maintain any business transactions with persons employed by agencies against whom complaints may be made under the provisions of this chapter.
4. Be actively involved in partisan affairs.

[73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §601G.7]

601G.8 Closed files.
The citizens' aide may maintain secrecy in respect to all matters including the identities of the complainants or witnesses coming before the citizens' aide, except that the general assembly, any standing committee of the general assembly or the governor may require disclosure of any matter and shall have complete access to the records and files of the citizens' aide. The citizens' aide may conduct private hearings.

[73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §601G.8]

601G.9 Powers.
The citizens' aide may:
1. Investigate, on complaint or on the citizens' aide's own motion, any administrative action of any agency, without regard to the finality of the administrative action, except that the citizens' aide shall not investigate the complaint of an employee of an agency in regard to that employee's employment relationship with the agency. A communication or receipt of information made pursuant to the powers prescribed in this chapter shall not be considered an ex parte communication as described in the provisions of section 17A.17.
2. Prescribe the methods by which complaints are to be made, received, and acted upon; determine the scope and manner of investigations to be made; and, subject to the requirements of this chapter, determine the form, frequency, and distribution of the conclusions and recommendations of the citizens' aide.
3. Request and receive from each agency assistance and information as necessary in the performance of the duties of the office. The citizens' aide may examine the records and documents of any agency unless its custodian demonstrates that the examination would violate federal law or result in the denial of federal funds to the agency. If the document sought is required by law to be kept confidential, the agency may refuse access until the citizens' aide demonstrates that the document is relevant or material to an investigation authorized under subsection 1. If the citizens' aide is provided access to the confidential document, the citizens' aide is subject to the same policies and penalties regarding the confidentiality of the document as an employee of the agency. The citizens' aide may enter and inspect premises within any agency's control.
4. Issue a subpoena to compel any person to appear, give sworn testimony, or produce documentary or other evidence relevant to a matter under inquiry. The citizens' aide, deputies, and assistants of the citizens' aide may administer oaths to persons giving testimony before them. If a witness either fails or refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the citizens' aide, the citizens' aide may petition the district court having jurisdiction for an order directing obedience to the subpoena. If the court finds that the subpoena should be obeyed, it shall enter an order requiring obedience to the subpoena, and refusal to obey the court order is subject to punishment for contempt.

601G.10 No charge for services.
No monetary or other charge shall be levied upon any person as a prerequisite to presentation of a complaint to the citizens’ aide.
[C73, 77, 79, 81, §601G.10]

601G.11 Subjects for investigations.
An appropriate subject for investigation by the office of the citizens’ aide is an administrative action that might be:
1. Contrary to law or regulation.
2. Unreasonable, unfair, oppressive, or inconsistent with the general course of an agency’s functioning, even though in accordance with law.
3. Based on a mistake of law or arbitrary in ascertainments of fact.
4. Based on improper motivation or irrelevant consideration.
5. Unaccompanied by an adequate statement of reasons. The citizens’ aide may also be concerned with strengthening procedures and practices which lessen the risk that objectionable administrative actions will occur.
[C73, 77, 79, 81, §601G.11]

601G.12 Complaints investigated.
The citizens’ aide may receive a complaint from any source concerning an administrative action. The citizens’ aide shall conduct a suitable investigation into the administrative actions complained of unless the citizens’ aide finds substantiating facts that:
1. The complaint has available another remedy or channel of complaint which the complainant could reasonably be expected to use.
2. The grievance pertains to a matter outside the citizens’ aide power.
3. The complaint has no substantive or procedural interest which is directly affected by the matter complained about.
4. The complaint is trivial, frivolous, vexatious, or not made in good faith.
5. Other complaints are more worthy of attention.
6. The citizens’ aide resources are insufficient for adequate investigation.
7. The complaint has been delayed too long to justify present examination of its merit.
The citizens’ aide may decline to investigate a complaint, but shall not be prohibited from inquiring into the matter complained about or into related problems at some future time.
[C73, 77, 79, 81, §601G.12]

601G.13 No investigation — notice to complainant.
If the citizens’ aide decides not to investigate, the complainant shall be informed of the reasons for the decision. If the citizens’ aide decides to investigate, the complainant and the agency shall be notified of the decision. After completing consideration of a complaint, whether or not it has been investigated, the citizens’ aide shall without delay inform the complainant of the fact, and if appropriate, shall inform the administrative agency involved. The citizens’ aide shall on request of the complainant, and as appropriate, report the status of the investigation to the complainant.
[C73, 77, 79, 81, §601G.13; 82 Acts, ch 1026, §2]

601G.14 Institutionalized complainants.
A letter to the citizens’ aide from a person in a correctional institution, a hospital, or other institution under the control of an administrative agency shall be immediately forwarded, unopened to the citizens’ aide by the institution where the writer of the letter is a resident. A letter from the citizens’ aide to such a person shall be immediately delivered, unopened to the person.
[C73, 77, 79, 81, §601G.14]

601G.15 Reports critical of agency or officer.
Before announcing a conclusion or recommendation that criticizes an agency or any officer or employee, the citizens’ aide shall consult with that agency, officer or employee, and shall attach to every report sent or made under the provisions of this chapter a copy of any unedited comments made by or on behalf of the officer, employee, or agency.
[C73, 77, 79, 81, §601G.15]

601G.16 Recommendations to agency.
If, having considered a complaint and whatever material the citizens’ aide deems pertinent, the citizens’ aide finds substantiating facts that:
1. A matter should be further considered by the agency;
2. An administrative action should be modified or canceled;
3. A rule on which an administrative action is based should be altered;
4. Reasons should be given for an administrative action; or
5. Any other action should be taken by the agency, the citizens’ aide shall state the recommendations to the agency. If the citizens’ aide requests, the agency shall, within twenty working days notify the citizens’ aide of any action taken on the recommendations or the reasons for not complying with them.
If the citizens’ aide believes that an administrative action has occurred because of laws of which results are unfair or otherwise objectionable, the citizens’ aide shall notify the general assembly concerning desirable statutory change.
[C73, 77, 79, 81, §601G.16]

601G.17 Publication of conclusions.
The citizens’ aide may publish the conclusions, recommendations, and suggestions and transmit them to the governor, the general assembly or any of its committees. When publishing an opinion adverse to an administrative agency or official the citizens’ aide shall, unless excused by the agency or official affected, include with the opinion any unedited reply made by the agency.
Any conclusions, recommendations, and suggestions so published may at the same time be made available to the news media or others who may be concerned.
[C73, 77, 79, 81, §601G.17]

601G.18 Report to general assembly.
The citizens’ aide shall by April 1 of each year submit an economically designed and reproduced report to the general assembly and to the governor concerning the exercise of the citizens’ aide functions during the preceding calendar year. In discussing matters with which the citizens' aide has been concerned, the citizens' aide shall not identify specific persons if to do so would cause needless hardship. If the annual report criticizes a named agency or official, it shall also include unedited replies made by the agency or official to the criticism, unless excused by the agency or official affected.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §601G.18; 82 Acts, ch 1026, §3]

601G.19 Disciplinary action recommended.
If the citizens' aide believes that any public official, employee or other person has acted in a manner warranting criminal or disciplinary proceedings, the citizens' aide shall refer the matter to the appropriate authorities.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §601G.19]

601G.20 Immunities.
No civil action, except removal from office as provided in chapter 66, or proceeding shall be commenced against the citizens' aide or any member of the staff for any act or omission performed pursuant to the provisions of this chapter unless the act or omission is actuated by malice or is grossly negligent, nor shall the citizens' aide or any member of the staff be compelled to testified in any court with respect to any matter involving the exercise of the citizens' aide's official duties except as may be necessary to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

601G.21 Witnesses.
A person required by the citizens' aide to provide information shall be paid the same fees and travel allowances as are extended to witnesses whose attendance has been required in the district courts of this state. Officers and employees of an agency shall not be entitled to such fees and allowances. A person who, with or without service of compulsory process, provides oral or documentary information requested by the citizens' aide shall be accorded the same privileges and immunities as are extended to witnesses in the courts of this state, and shall also be entitled to be accompanied and advised by counsel while being questioned.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §601G.21]

601G.22 Penalties.

CHAPTER 601J
TRANSPORTATION PROGRAMS

601J.1 Definitions.
For purposes of this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:
1. "Transportation disadvantaged persons" means persons who are physically or mentally handicapped, persons who are determined by the department to be economically disadvantaged and other persons or groups determined by the department to be disadvantaged in terms of the transportation services that are available to them.
2. "Department" means the state department of transportation.
3. "Federal aid" means any federal grants, loans, or other federal assistance whether or not state or local funds are required to match or contribute toward the costs of the program for which the aid is available.
4. "Private aid" means any grants, loans, or other assistance available from nonprofit corporations, foundations, and all private or nongovernmental sources, whether or not state or local funds are required to match or contribute toward the costs of the program for which the aid is available.
5. "Public transit system" means an urban or regional transit system providing transit services accessible to the general public and receiving federal, state or local tax support.
6. "Urban transit system" means a system designated by the department in which motor buses are operated primarily upon the streets of cities for the transportation of passengers who present themselves for transportation without discrimination up to the limit of the capacity of each motor bus. "Urban transit system" also includes motor buses operated upon the streets of adjoining cities, whether interstate or intrastate for the transportation of passengers without discrimination up to the limit of the capacity of each motor bus. A privately chartered bus service or interurban carrier subject to the jurisdiction of the state department of transportation is not an urban transit system.
7. "Regional transit system" means a public transit system serving one county or all or part of a multicounty area whose boundaries correspond to the same boundaries as those of the regional planning areas designated by the governor except as agreed upon by the county and the department. Each county, through the county board of supervisors, within the region shall be responsible for determining the service and funding within its own county. However, the administration and overhead support services for the regional transit system shall be consolidated into one existing or new agency to be mutually agreed upon by the participating members.
8. "Transportation" means the movement of individuals in a four or more wheeled motorized vehicle designed to carry passengers, including a car, van, or bus, between one geographic point and another geographic point. "Transportation" does not include emergency or incidental transportation or transportation conducted by the department of human services at its institutions.

601J.2 Technical assistance.
The department shall, at the request of a state agency, political subdivision, or public transit system or organization affected by this chapter, provide them the following technical transportation assistance:
1. An evaluation of existing public transit systems, including but not limited to an evaluation of rolling stock, the costs of operation including the costs of fuel, maintenance and personnel and the development of common management and operating systems and procedures.
2. An analysis of existing urban and rural transit system services provided for transportation disadvantaged persons and the service needs of transportation disadvantaged persons, including an evaluation of specialized equipment required to meet the service needs of transportation disadvantaged persons.
3. An analysis of existing urban and rural transit system services provided for transportation disadvantaged persons and the service needs of transportation disadvantaged persons, including an evaluation of specialized equipment required to meet the service needs of transportation disadvantaged persons.
4. An evaluation of existing public transit systems, including but not limited to an evaluation of rolling stock, the costs of operation including the costs of fuel, maintenance and personnel and the development of common management and operating systems and procedures.
5. An analysis of existing urban and rural transit system services provided for transportation disadvantaged persons and the service needs of transportation disadvantaged persons, including an evaluation of specialized equipment required to meet the service needs of transportation disadvantaged persons.
6. An analysis of existing urban and rural transit system services provided for transportation disadvantaged persons and the service needs of transportation disadvantaged persons, including an evaluation of specialized equipment required to meet the service needs of transportation disadvantaged persons.

601J.3 Fiscal and service plan.

601J.4 Federal, state, local and private aid — report.

601J.5 Coordination of transportation services.

601J.6 Public transit assistance fund established.
601J.3 Fiscal and service plan.

The department shall at the request of a political subdivision, or public and private providers of transportation services affected by this chapter assist the providers in the development of a fiscal and service plan which may be used by them to co-ordinate and consolidate all forms of urban and rural transportation services except public school transportation, including but not limited to, the following:

1. Senior citizen transportation.
2. Head start transportation.
3. Handicapped services.
4. Cab companies.
5. Common carriers.
6. Transportation services provided by private nonprofit agencies to their clients or the general public.

601J.4 Federal, state, local and private aid — report.

1. The department shall compile and maintain current information on available and pending federal, state, local, and private aid affecting urban and rural public transit programs. Public, private, and private nonprofit organizations applying for or receiving federal, state or local aid for providing transit services shall provide a copy of their fiscal year operating budget annually prior to June 1 depicting funds used for public transit programs and such other information as the department may require prior to receiving any federal or state funds or any aid from a political subdivision of the state. The operating budget shall list all of the funding sources of the organization along with the listing of funds expended by that organization during the preceding fiscal year. The department, in cooperation with the regional planning agencies as the responsible agency for annual updating the regional transit development programs, shall compile this information annually. Any state agency or organization administering funds for transit services is required to submit all funding requests through the regional and state clearinghouse and the state department of transportation. Any organization, state agency, political subdivision, and public transit system, except public school transportation, receiving federal, state or local aid to provide or contract for public transit services or transportation to the general public and specific client groups, must coordinate and consolidate funding and resulting service, to the maximum extent possible, with the urban or regional transit system.

2. Upon request, the department shall provide assistance to political subdivisions, state agencies, and organizations affected by this chapter for federal aid applications for urban and rural transit system program aid. The department, in cooperation with the regional planning agencies, shall maintain current information reflecting the amount of federal, state and local aid received by the public and private nonprofit organizations providing public transit services and the purpose for which the aid is received. The department shall annually prepare a report to be submitted to the general assembly, the department of management, and to the governor, prior to February 1 of each year, stating the receipts and disbursements made during the preceding fiscal year and the adequacy of programs financed by federal, state, local, and private aid in the state. The department shall analyze the programs financed and recommend methods of avoiding duplication and increasing the efficacy of programs financed. The department shall receive comments from the department of human services, department of elder affairs, and the officers and agents of the state and local government units relative to the department's analysis. The department shall use the following criteria to adopt rules to determine compliance with and exceptions to subsection 1:

a. Elimination of duplicative and inefficient administrative costs, policies and management.

b. Utilization of resources for transportation services effectively and efficiently.

c. Elimination of duplicative and inefficient transportation services.

d. Development of transportation services which meet the needs of the general public and insurance available to the needs of transportation disadvantaged persons.

e. Protection of the rights of private enterprise.

f. Coordination of planning for transportation services at the urban and regional level by all agencies or organizations receiving public funds that are purchasing or providing transportation services.

g. Management of equipment and facilities purchased with public funds so that efficient and routine maintenance and replacement is accomplished.

h. Training of transit management, drivers and maintenance personnel to provide safe, efficient, and economical transportation services.

Eligibility to receive or expend federal, state or local funds for transportation services by all agencies or organizations purchasing or providing these services shall be contingent upon compliance with these criteria as determined by the department, except that services provided by or purchased by the department of human services, which include transportation, shall be subject to section 601J.5, subsection 3, paragraph "c".

3. The department shall receive and distribute federal aid to political subdivisions unless precluded by federal statute, however the department shall not retain or redirect any portion of funds received by the department for a particular political subdivision. The department may designate the political subdivision as the direct recipient of federal aid.

601J.5 Coordination of transportation services.

The department of human services, department of elder affairs, and the officers and agents of other state and local governmental units shall assist the department in carrying out section 601J.4, subsections 1 and 2, insofar as the functions of these respective officers and departments are concerned with the health, welfare and safety of any recipient of transportation services.

1. Prior to July 1, 1985 all agencies or organizations purchasing or providing transportation services, except public school transportation, with federal, state or local funds shall comply with section 601J.4.

2. Any agency or organization found to be in non compliance with section 601J.4 shall be notified in writing by the department of those activities which are not in compliance. The notice shall also provide for a period of thirty days during which compliance with section 601J.4 can be accomplished without penalty or sanction.

3. If noncompliant activities continue after the period of thirty days, the department shall, in cooperation with the attorney general and the director of revenue and finance, initiate the following actions:
   a. If the activities that are not in compliance with section 601J.4 are funded with state or federal funds which are administered by the state and can be used by agencies or organizations that are in compliance with section 601J.4, then upon notice by the department, the director of revenue and finance shall not permit the expenditure of ten percent of the funds during fiscal year 1986, an additional twenty percent of funds during the following year, an additional thirty percent during the third year, and the remaining funds in the fourth year that the activities remain in non compliance. Any funds retained by the director of revenue and finance shall be distributed to agencies and organizations eligible to receive the funds for transportation purposes.
   b. If the activities that are not in compliance with section 601J.4 are funded with state, federal or local funds which are not administered by the state or can not be used by agencies or organizations that are in compliance with section 601J.4, then upon notice by the department, the attorney general shall file an action to enjoin agencies or organizations from expending funds for transportation purposes until and unless compliance with section 601J.4 is achieved. If federal funds are involved in such cases, then the attorney general shall notify the responsible federal agency of the actions and request its cooperation.
   c. The department of human services shall not purchase services from any provider which has been denied a certificate of compliance with this chapter from the department.
   d. The department shall establish an appeal process under chapter 17A which allows those agencies or organizations determined to not be in compliance with this chapter an opportunity for a timely hearing before the department.

e. The department shall, in accordance with chapter 17A, adopt and enforce rules setting minimum standards for determination of compliance and certification. The rules and standards required by this section shall be formulated in consultation with all affected state agencies, local government units with professional and consumer groups affected, and shall be designed to further the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter.

84 Acts, ch 1200, §6

§601J.6 Public transit assistance fund established.

1. There is established a public transit assistance fund in the office of the treasurer of state. Moneys in this fund shall be expended for providing assistance to public transit for the development, improvement, and maintenance of public transit systems. Unencumbered moneys appropriated by the general assembly for the implementation of a state assistance plan shall be deposited in the public transit assistance fund. Moneys received by the department by agreements, grants, gifts, or other means from individuals, companies or other business entities, or cities and counties for the purposes stated in this section shall be credited to the public transit assistance fund.

2. The department may enter into agreements with public transit systems, the United States government, cities, counties, business entities, or other persons for carrying out the purposes of this section.

3. The department may accept federal funds to carry out this section. Federal funds received under this section are appropriated for the purposes set forth in the federal grants.

4. Moneys deposited in the public transit assistance fund are not subject to sections 8.33 and 8.39.

5. Notwithstanding chapter 8, funds appropriated for public transit purposes to implement a state assistance plan shall be allocated in whole or in part to a public transit system prior to the time actual expenditures are incurred if the allocation is first approved by the department. A public transit system shall make application for advance allocations to the department specifically stating the reasons why an advance allocation is required and this allocation shall be included in the total to be audited.

SUBCHAPTER 6
DIVISION OF COMMUNITY ACTION AGENCIES

§601K.91 Definitions.

For purposes of this subchapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Community action agency” means a public agency or a private nonprofit agency which is authorized under its charter or bylaws to receive funds to administer community action programs and is designated by the governor to receive and administer the funds.
2. “Community action program” means a program conducted by a community action agency which includes projects to provide a range of services to improve the conditions of poverty in the area served by the community action agency.
3. “Administrator” means the administrator of the division of community action agencies of the department of human rights.
4. “Delegate agency” means a subgrantee or contractor selected by the community action agency.
5. “Division” means the division of community action agencies of the department of human rights.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1240

§601K.92 Director duties.

The administrator shall:

1. Administer the division.
2. Implement programs required in the division.
3. Adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A for the administration of the division.
4. Issue an annual report to the governor and general assembly on January 15 of each year.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1241

§601K.93 Establishment of community action agencies.

The division shall recognize and assist in the designation of certain community action agencies to assist in the delivery of community action programs. These programs shall include, but not be limited to, outreach, low-income energy assistance, and weatherization.
programs. If a community action agency is in effect and currently serving an area, that community action agency shall become the designated community action agency for that area. If there is not a designated community action agency in the area a city council or county board of supervisors or any combination of one or more councils or boards may establish a community action agency and may apply to the division for recognition. The council or board of the combination may adopt an ordinance or resolution establishing a community action agency if a community action agency has not been designated. It is the purpose of the division of community action agencies to strengthen, supplement, and coordinate efforts to develop the full potential of each citizen by recognizing certain community action agencies and the continuation of certain community based programs delivered by community action agencies.

601K.94 Community action agency board.

1 A recognized community action agency shall be governed by a board of directors composed of at least fifteen members but not more than thirty-three members. The board membership shall be as follows:
   a One third shall be persons who are currently on a city council or board of supervisors or designees of such persons
   b One third shall be persons who according to federal guidelines have incomes at or below poverty level and are elected by such persons, or are representatives elected by such persons c One third shall be persons who are members or representatives of businesses, industry, labor, religious, welfare, and educational organizations, or other major interest groups. The term of such person shall not be more than three years. Such person shall not serve more than two consecutive terms and shall be elected by a majority of the board members serving pursuant to paragraphs "a" and "b".

2 Notwithstanding subsection 1, a public agency shall establish an advisory board or may contract with a delegate agency to assist the governing board. The advisory board or delegate agency board shall be composed of the same type of membership as a board of directors for community action agencies under section 601K.95. However, the public agency acting as the community action agency shall determine annual program budget requests.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1243

601K.95 Duties of board.

1 The governing board, delegate agency board, or advisory board shall a Provide for
      (1) Comprehensive planning of the community action agency
      (2) Local needs assessment surveys conducted by the community action agency
   b Approve overall program plans and priorities developed by the community action agency
   c Receive and administer funds and contributions from private or public sources which may be used to support community action programs
   d Secure assistance available from public and private sources
   e Establish effective procedures by which the concerned low income persons and area residents may influence the community action programs affecting them by providing for methods of participation in the implementation of the community action programs and by providing technical support to assist persons to secure assistance available from public and private sources
   f Encourage and support self help, volunteer, business, labor, and other groups and organizations to assist public officials and agencies in supporting a community action program which results in the additional use of private resources while developing new employment opportunities, encouraging investments which have an impact on reducing poverty among the poor in areas of concentrated poverty, and providing methods by which low income persons can work with private organizations, businesses, and institutions in seeking solutions to problems of common concern.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1245

601K.96 Duties of community action agency.

A community action agency or delegate agency shall

1 Plan for a community action program by establishing priorities among projects, activities, and areas to provide for the most efficient use of possible resources

2 Obtain and administer assistance from available sources on a common or cooperative basis, in an attempt to provide additional opportunities to low-income persons

3 Establish effective procedures by which the concerned low income persons and area residents may influence the community action programs affecting them by providing for methods of participation in the implementation of the community action programs and by providing technical support to assist persons to secure assistance available from public and private sources.

601K.97 Administration.

A community action agency or a delegate agency may administer the components of a community action program when the program is consistent with plans and purposes and applicable law. The community action programs may be projects which are eligible for assistance from any source. The programs shall be developed to meet local needs and may be designed to meet eligibility standards of a federal or state program providing assistance to a plan to meet local needs.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1246

601K.98 Audit.

Each community action agency shall be audited annually but shall in no case be required to obtain a duplicate audit to meet the requirements of this section. In lieu of an audit by the auditor of state, the community action agency may contract with or employ a certified public accountant to conduct the audit, pursuant to the applicable terms and conditions prescribed by sections 1118 and 1119 and an audit for which prescribed by the auditor of state. Copies of each audit shall be furnished to the division within three months following the annual audit.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1247

601K.99 Allocation of financial assistance.

The administrator shall provide financial assistance for community action agencies to implement community action programs, as permitted by the community service block grant, administer the low income energy assistance block grants, department of energy funds for weatherization received in Iowa, and other possible funding sources.

If a political subdivision is the agency, the financial assistance shall be allocated to the political subdivision.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1248

601K.100 Report to general assembly.

The administrator shall report annually to the general assembly regarding the community action programs conducted within the state.

12 The supreme court
13 The court of appeals
14 The district court
15 The clerks of all of the courts of this state

PART 2
ADMINISTRATION

602.1201 Supervision and administration.
The supreme court has supervisory and administrative control over the department and over all judicial officers and court employees.
83 Acts, ch 186, §1102, 10201
Gradual implementation and transition provisions see article 11 of this chapter and Temporary Court Transition Rule 1-1 et seq 602.1202 Judicial council.

A judicial council is established, consisting of the chief judges of the judicial districts, the chief judge of the court of appeals, and the chief justice who shall be the chairperson. The council shall convene not less than twice each year at times and places as ordered by the chief justice. The council shall advise the supreme court with respect to the supervision and administration of the department.
83 Acts, ch 186, §1201, 10201
Transition provisions see article 11 of this chapter and Temporary Court Transition Rule 1-2 et seq

602.1203 Personnel conferences.
The chief justice may order conferences of judicial officers or court employees on matters relating to the administration of justice or the affairs of the department.
83 Acts, ch 186, §1203, 10201

602.1204 Procedures for department.
1 The supreme court shall prescribe procedures for the orderly and efficient supervision and administration of the department. These procedures shall be executed by the chief justice.
2 The state court administrator may issue directives relating to the management of the department. The subject matters of these directives shall include, but need not be limited to, fiscal procedures, the judicial retirement system, and the collection and reporting of statistical and other data. The directives shall provide for an affirmative action plan which shall be based upon guidelines provided by the Iowa state civil rights commission. In addition, when establishing salaries and benefits the state court administrator shall not discriminate in the employment or pay between employees on the basis of gender by paying wages to employees at a rate less than the rate at which wages are paid to employees of the opposite gender for work of comparable worth. As used in this section “comparable worth” means the value of work as measured by the composite of the skill, effort, responsibility, and working conditions normally required in the performance of work.

3. The supreme court shall compile and publish all procedures and directives relating to the supervision and administration of the internal affairs of the department, and shall distribute a copy of the compilation and all amendments to each operating component of the department. Copies also shall be distributed to agencies referred to in section 18.97 upon request.

4. The supreme court shall accept bids for the printing of court forms from both public and private enterprises and shall attempt to contract with both public and private enterprises for a reasonable portion of the court forms.

38 Acts, ch 186, §1204, 10201
Transition provisions, see article 11 of this chapter, and Temporary Court Transition Rules especially Rules 13 and 81

602.1205 Procedures for courts.
1. The supreme court shall prescribe procedures for the orderly and efficient administration of the judicial business of the courts. These procedures shall be executed by the chief justice.

2. Procedures for the district court shall provide for a court session at least once each week in each county to be fixed in advance and announced in the form of a printed schedule. However, court sessions may be at intervals other than once each week if in the opinion of the chief judge more efficient operations in the district will result. The procedures shall also provide for additional sessions for the trial of cases in each county at a frequency which will promptly dispose of the cases that are ready for trial.

38 Acts, ch 186, §1205, 10201
Transition provisions see article 11 of this chapter and Temporary Court Transition Rules

602.1206 Rules for judges and attorneys.
1. The supreme court shall prescribe rules as necessary to supervise the conduct of attorneys and judicial officers. These rules shall be executed by the chief justice.

2. Supreme court rules shall be published as provided in section 14.12, subsection 7.

38 Acts, ch 186, §1206, 10201

602.1207 Report of the condition of the judicial department.

The chief justice shall communicate the condition of the department by message to each general assembly, and may recommend matters the chief justice deems appropriate.

38 Acts, ch 186, §1207, 10201

602.1208 State court administrator.
1. The supreme court, by majority vote, shall appoint a state court administrator and may remove the administrator for cause.

2. The state court administrator is the principal administrative officer of the judicial department, subject to the immediate direction and supervision of the chief justice.

3. The state court administrator shall employ staff as necessary to perform the duties of the administrator, subject to the approval of the supreme court and budget limitations. The administrator shall implement the comparable worth directives issued under section 602.1204, subsection 2 in all court employment decisions.

4. All judicial officers and court employees shall comply with procedures and requests of the state court administrator with respect to information and statistical data bearing on the state of the dockets of the courts, the progress of court business, and other matters reflecting judicial business and the expenditure of moneys for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system.

38 Acts, ch 186, §1208, 10201
Transition provisions see article 11 of this chapter and Temporary Court Transition Rules 602.1209 General duties of the state court administrator.

The state court administrator shall:

1. Manage the judicial department.

2. Administer funds appropriated to the department.

3. Authorize the filling of vacant court-employee positions, review the qualifications of each person to be employed within the department, and assure that affirmative action goals are being met by the department. The state court administrator shall not approve the employment of a person when either the proposed terms and conditions of employment or the qualifications of the individual do not satisfy personnel policies of the department.

4. Supervise the employees of the supreme court and court of appeals, and the clerk of the supreme court.

5. Administer the judicial retirement system as provided in article 9.

6. Collect and compile information and statistical data, and submit reports relating to judicial business and other matters relating to the department.

7. Formulate and submit recommendations for improvement of the judicial system, with reference to the structure of the department and its organization and methods of operation, the selection, compensation, number, and tenure of judicial officers and court employees, and other matters as directed by the chief justice or the supreme court.

8. Call conferences of district court administrators as necessary in the administration of the department.

9. Provide a secretary and clerical services for the board of examiners of shorthand reporters under article 3.

10. Act as executive secretary of the commission on judicial qualifications under article 2.

11. Act as custodian of the bonds and oaths of office of judicial officers and court employees.

12. Issue vouchers for the payment of per diem and expenses from funds appropriated for purposes of articles 2, 3, and 10.
§602.1209

13. Collect and account for fees paid to the board of examiners of shorthand reporters under article 3.
14. Collect and account for fees paid to the board of examiners under article 3.
15. Perform other duties as assigned by the supreme court, or the chief justice, or by law.
83 Acts, ch 186, §1209, 10201

Transition provisions, see articles 11 of this chapter, and Temporary Court Transition Rules, especially Rules 14 and 114

602.1210 Selection of chief judges.

Not later than December 15 in each odd-numbered year the chief justice shall appoint chief judges of the judicial districts, subject to the approval of the supreme court. The chief judge of a judicial district shall be appointed from those district judges who are serving within the district. A chief judge shall serve for a two-year term and is eligible for reappointment. The supreme court, by majority vote, may remove a person from the position of chief judge. Vacancies in the office of chief judge shall be filled in the same manner. An order appointing a chief judge shall be filed with the clerk of the supreme court, who shall mail a copy to the clerk of the district court in each county in the judicial district.
83 Acts, ch 186, §1210, 10201

602.1211 Duties of chief judges.

1. In addition to judicial duties, a chief judge of a judicial district shall supervise all judicial officers and court employees serving within the district. The chief judge shall by order fix the times and places of holding court, and shall designate the respective presiding judges, supervise the performance of all administrative and judicial business of the district, allocate the workloads of district associate judges and magistrates, and conduct judicial conferences to consider, study, and plan for improvement of the administration of justice.
2. A chief judge shall not attempt to direct or influence a judicial officer in a judicial ruling or decision.
3. A chief judge may appoint from among the other district judges of the district one or more assistants to serve throughout the judicial district. A chief judge may remove a person from the position of assistant. An assistant shall have administrative duties as specified in court rules or in the order of appointment. An appointment or removal shall be made by judicial order and shall be filed with the clerk of the district court in each county in the judicial district.
4. A chief judge may designate other public officers to accept bond money or security under section 811.2 at times when the office of the clerk of court is not open.

602.1212 Judges for public utility rate cases.

1. The supreme court shall designate at least one district judge in each judicial district in the state who shall be subject to assignment by the chief justice to preside as necessary in this state in judicial review proceedings referred to in section 476.13, subsection 2. Designations shall be made on the basis of qualifications and experience, and shall be for the purpose of developing a pool of district judges who will have the knowledge and experience needed to expedite judicial review proceedings in those cases.
2. Upon receipt of notice from a district court clerk under section 476.13, subsection 2, the chief justice of the supreme court shall assign one of the district judges selected under subsection 1 to preside at the judicial review proceeding under section 476.13.
83 Acts, ch 127, §43

602.1213 District judicial conferences.

1. The district judges within a judicial district may convene as an administrative body as necessary to:
   a. Prescribe local court procedures, subject to the approval of the supreme court.
   b. Advise the chief judge respecting supervision and administration of the judicial district.
   c. Exercise other duties, as established by law or by the supreme court.
2. A district judicial conference shall act by majority vote of its members.
83 Acts, ch 186, §1212, 10201

602.1214 District court administrator.

1. The chief judge of a judicial district shall appoint a district court administrator and may remove the administrator for cause.
2. The district court administrator shall assist the chief judge in the supervision and administration of the judicial district.
3. The district court administrator shall assist the state court administrator in the implementation of policies of the department and in the performance of the duties of the state court administrator.
4. The district court administrator shall employ and supervise all employees of the district court except court reporters, clerks of the district court, employees of the clerks of the district court, juvenile court officers, and employees of juvenile court officers.
5. The district court administrator shall comply with policies of the department and the judicial district.
6. The supreme court shall establish the qualifications for appointment as a district court administrator.
83 Acts, ch 186, §1213, 10201; 85 Acts, ch 67, §59
See article 11 of this chapter and Temporary Court Transition Rule 41

602.1215 Clerk of the district court.

1. The district judges of each judicial election district shall by majority vote appoint persons to serve as clerks of the district court, one for each county within the judicial election district. A person does not qualify for appointment to the office of clerk of the district court unless the person is at the time of application a resident of the county in which the vacancy exists. A clerk of the district court may be removed from office for cause by a majority vote of the district judges of the judicial election district. Before removal, the clerk of the district court shall be notified of the cause for removal.
2. The clerk of the district court has the duties specified in article 8, and other duties as prescribed by law or by the supreme court.
3. The clerk of the district court shall assist the state court administrator and the district court administrator in carrying out the rules, directives, and procedures of the department and the judicial district.
4. The clerk of the district court shall comply with rules, directives, and procedures of the department and the judicial district.
83 Acts, ch 186, §1214, 10201

Transition provisions, see article 11 of this chapter and Temporary Court Transition Rules

Removal not applicable to clerks elected in 1984 for term ending December 31, 1986, Temporary Court Transition Rule 6.2
Appointments of clerks applicable July 1, 1986, Temporary Court Transition Rule 6.9
See also Rule 6.1
602.1216 Retention of clerks of the district court.

A clerk of the district court shall stand for retention in office, in the county of the clerk’s office, upon the petition of ten percent of all eligible and registered electors in the county to the state commissioner of elections, at the judicial election in 1988 and every four years thereafter, under sections 46.17 through 46.24. A clerk who is not retained in office is ineligible to serve as clerk, in the county in which the clerk was not retained, for the four years following the retention vote.

83 Acts, ch 186, §1216, 10201

602.1217 Chief juvenile court officer.

1 The district judges within a judicial district, by majority vote, shall appoint a chief juvenile court officer and may remove the officer for cause.

2 The chief juvenile court officer is subject to the immediate supervision and direction of the chief judge of the judicial district.

3 The chief juvenile court officer, in addition to performing the duties of a juvenile court officer, shall supervise juvenile court officers and administer juvenile court services within the judicial district in accordance with law and with the rules, directives, and procedures of the department and the judicial district.

4 The chief juvenile court officer shall assist the state court administrator and the district court administrator in implementing rules, directives, and procedures of the department and the judicial district.

5 A chief juvenile court officer shall have other duties as prescribed by the supreme court or by the chief judge of the judicial district.

83 Acts, ch 186, §1217, 10201

602.1218 Removal for cause.

Inefficiency, insubordination, incompetence, failure to perform assigned duties, inadequacy in performance of assigned duties, narcotics addiction, dishonesty, unrelieved alcoholism, negligence, conduct which adversely affects the performance of the individual or of the department, conduct unbecoming a public employee, misconduct, or any other just and good cause constitutes cause for removal.

83 Acts, ch 186, §1217, 10201

PART 3

BUDGETING AND FUNDING

602.1301 Budget and fiscal procedures.

1 The supreme court shall prepare an annual operating budget for the department, and shall submit a budget request to the general assembly for the fiscal period for which the general assembly is appropriating funds.

2 a As early as possible, but not later than December 1, the supreme court shall submit to the legislative fiscal bureau the annual budget request and detailed supporting information for the judicial department. The submission shall be designed to assist the legislative fiscal bureau in its preparation for legislative consideration of the budget request. The information submitted shall contain and be arranged in a format substantially similar to part II of the governor’s budget message as specified in section 8.22.

b Before December 1, the supreme court shall submit to the director of management an estimate of the total expenditure requirements of the judicial department. The director of management shall submit this estimate received from the supreme court to the governor for inclusion without change in the governor’s proposed budget for the succeeding fiscal year. The estimate shall also be submitted to the chairpersons of committees on appropriations.

3 The state court administrator shall prescribe the procedures to be used by the operating components of the department with respect to the following:

a The preparation, submission, review, and revision of budget requests.

b The allocation and disbursement of funds appropriated to the department.

c The purchase of forms, supplies, equipment, and other property.

d Other matters relating to fiscal administration.

4 The state court administrator shall prescribe practices and procedures for the accounting and internal auditing of funds of the department, including uniform practices and procedures to be used by judicial officers and court employees with respect to all funds, regardless of source.

602.1302 State funding.

1 Except as otherwise provided by section 602.1303 or other applicable law, the expenses of operating and maintaining the department shall be paid out of the general fund of the state from funds appropriated by the general assembly for the department. State funding shall be phased in as provided in section 602.1110.

2 The state shall provide suitable office space for a public defender if established for a county.

3 The supreme court may accept federal funds to be used in the operation of the department, but shall not expend any of these funds except pursuant to appropriation of the funds by the general assembly.

4 A revolving fund is created in the state treasury for the payment of jury and witness fees and mileage by the department. The department shall deposit any reimbursements to the state for the payment of jury and witness fees and mileage in the revolving fund. Notwithstanding section 8.33, unencumbered and unobligated receipts in the revolving fund at the end of a fiscal year do not revert to the general fund of the state. The department shall on or before February 1 file a financial accounting of the moneys in the revolving fund with the legislative fiscal bureau. The accounting shall include an estimate of disbursements from the revolving fund for the remainder of the fiscal year and for the next fiscal year.

602.1303 Local court property used for public defender

The local court property devoted for use of the public defender shall be handled as provided in section 602.1110 for state court property. The property shall cease to be handled as provided in section 602.1110 for the term of office of the judge commissioning the public defender and for one year thereafter.
602.1303 Local funding.

1. A county or city shall provide the district court for the county with physical facilities, including heat, water, electricity, maintenance, and custodial services, as follows:
   a. A county shall provide courtrooms, offices, and other physical facilities which in the judgment of the board of supervisors are suitable for the district court, and for judicial officers of the district court, the clerk of the district court, juvenile court officers, and other court employees.
   b. If court is held in a city other than the county seat, the city shall provide courtrooms and other physical facilities which in the judgment of the city council are suitable.

2. A county shall pay the expenses of the members of the county magistrate appointing commission as provided in section 602.6501.

3. A county shall pay the compensation and expenses of the jury commission and assistants under chapter 607A.

4. A county shall provide the district court with bailiff and other law enforcement services upon the request of a judicial officer of the district court.

5. A county shall pay the costs incurred in connection with the administration of juvenile justice under section 232.141.

6. A county shall pay the costs and expenses incurred in connection with grand juries.

7. A county or city shall pay the costs of its depositions and transcripts in criminal actions prosecuted by that county or city and shall pay the court fees and costs provided by law in criminal actions prosecuted by that county or city under county or city ordinance. A county or city shall pay witness fees and mileage in trials of criminal actions prosecuted by the county or city under county or city ordinance.

8. A county shall pay the fees and expenses allowed under sections 815.2 and 815.3.

602.1304 Revenues.

Except as provided in article 8, all fees and other revenues collected by judicial officers and court employees shall be paid into the general fund of the state.

602.1305 Distribution of revenues of the district court.

All fees, costs, forfeited bail, and other court revenues collected by the district court shall be distributed as provided in article 8.

602.1401 Personnel system.

1. The supreme court shall establish, and may amend, a personnel system and a pay plan for court employees. The personnel system shall include a designation by position title, classification, and function of each position or class of positions within the department. Reasonable efforts shall be made to accommodate the individual staffing and management practices of the respective clerks of the district court. The personnel system, in the employment of court employees, shall not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion, physical disability, or political party preference. The supreme court, in establishing the personnel system, shall implement the comparable worth directives issued by the state court administrator under section 602.1204, subsection 2.

2. The supreme court shall compile and publish all documents that establish the personnel system, and shall distribute a copy of the compilation and all amendments to each operating component of the department.

3. The state court administrator is the public employer of judicial department employees for purposes of chapter 20, relating to public employment relations.

For purposes of chapter 20, the certified representative, which on July 1, 1983 represents employees who become judicial department employees as a result of 1983 Iowa Acts, chapter 186, shall remain the certified representative when the employees become judicial department employees and thereafter, unless the public employee organization is decertified in an election held under section 20.15 or amended or absorbed into another certified organization pursuant to chapter 20. Collective bargaining negotiations shall be conducted on a statewide basis and the certified employee organizations which engage in bargaining shall negotiate on a statewide basis, although bargaining units shall be organized by judicial district. The public employment relations board shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A to implement this subsection.

4. The supreme court may establish reasonable classes of employees and a pay plan for the classes of employees as necessary to accomplish the purposes of the personnel system.

602.1402 Personnel control.

The employment of court employees within an operating component of the judicial department is subject to prior authorization by the supreme court, and to approval by the state court administrator under section 602.1209.

602.1501 Judicial salaries.

1. The chief justice and each justice of the supreme court shall receive the salary set by the general assembly.

2. The chief judge and each judge of the court of appeals shall receive the salary set by the general assembly.
3. The chief judge of each judicial district and each district judge shall receive the salary set by the general assembly.

4. District associate judges shall receive the salary set by the general assembly. However, an alternate district associate judge whose appointment is authorized under section 602.6303 shall receive a salary for each day of actual duty equal to a district associate judge's daily salary.

5. Magistrates shall receive the salary set by the general assembly, subject to section 602.6402.

83 Acts, ch 186, §1501, 10201

602.1502 State court administration salaries.
1. The supreme court shall set the compensation of the state court administrator, deputy administrator, and research director within the funds appropriated by the general assembly.

2. The state court administrator, with the approval of the supreme court, shall set the salaries of assistants and employees of the office of the state court administrator within the funds appropriated by the general assembly.

3. The state court administrator, subject to the approval of the supreme court, shall set the salaries of law clerks, secretaries, and other employees of the supreme court or the court of appeals.

83 Acts, ch 186, §1502, 10201

602.1503 Appellate court employee salaries.
1. The supreme court shall set the salary of the clerk of the supreme court within the funds appropriated by the general assembly.

2. The clerk of the supreme court, subject to the approval of the supreme court, shall set the salaries of deputies and employees in the offices of the clerk of the supreme court and the clerk of the court of appeals.

3. The state court administrator, subject to the approval of the supreme court, shall set the salaries of law clerks, secretaries, and other employees of the supreme court or the court of appeals.

83 Acts, ch 186, §1503, 10201

602.1504 District court administration salaries.
1. The chief judge of a judicial district shall set the salary of the district court administrator within the funds appropriated by the general assembly and in accordance with the pay plan established under section 602.1401.

2. The salaries of law clerks, secretaries, and other employees under the supervision of the district court administrator shall be set by the district court administrator, subject to the approval of the chief judge of the judicial district.

83 Acts, ch 186, §1504, 10201

602.1505 District court clerk offices — salary limitation.
1. The chief judge of each judicial district shall set the salaries of the clerks of the district court within the judicial district. A clerk of the district court shall not receive a salary in excess of the highest salary paid to the county auditor, the county treasurer, or the county recorder in the county in which the clerk serves.

2. The annual salary of a deputy to a clerk of the district court shall not exceed eighty percent of the annual salary of the clerk of the district court.

3. A clerk of the district court shall set the salaries of the deputy clerks and employees of that office, subject to subsection 2 and to the approval of the chief judge of the judicial district.

602.1506 Juvenile court officers and staff.
1. The chief judge of the judicial district shall set the salaries for the chief juvenile court officer and other juvenile court officers employed in the district.

2. The chief juvenile court officer shall set the salaries of secretarial, clerical, and other staff employed by the juvenile court in the judicial district, subject to the approval of the chief judge of the judicial district.

83 Acts, ch 186, §1506, 10201

602.1507 Court reporter salaries.
1. The supreme court shall set the salary of each full-time court reporter of the district court based on the reporter's experience within the funds appropriated by the general assembly. A salary increase under this subsection is effective on the employment anniversary of the court reporter.

2. Each district judge and district associate judge, upon appointing a full-time court reporter, shall certify the name and address of the reporter and the date upon which the reporter’s term of service begins to the state court administrator.

3. Court reporters who are employed on an emergency basis in the district court shall be paid not more than their usual and customary fees, while employed by the court. Payments shall be made at least once each month.

4. Court reporters shall be paid compensation for transcribing their notes as provided in section 602.3202, but shall not work on outside depositions during the hours for which they are compensated as a court employee.

83 Acts, ch 186, §1507, 10201

Transition provisions, see article 11 of this chapter, and Temporary Court Transition Rule 3.1

602.1508 Compensation of referees.
Referees and other persons referred to in section 602.6602 shall receive a salary or other compensation as set by the supreme court.

83 Acts, ch 186, §1508, 10201

Transition provisions, see article 11 of this chapter, and Temporary Court Transition Rules 8.1 and 8.4

602.1509 Expenses.
1. When a judicial officer, court employee, or other person providing professional services to the courts is required to travel in the discharge of official duties, the person shall be paid actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of duties, not to exceed a maximum amount established by the supreme court. The supreme court shall prescribe procedures to establish the maximum amount, terms, and conditions for reimbursement of the expenses.

2. The supreme court may authorize juvenile court officers to receive a monthly allowance for use of an automobile in the discharge of official duties in lieu of receiving an expense reimbursement based on mileage.

83 Acts, ch 186, §1509, 10201

Transition provisions, see article 11 of this chapter, and Temporary Court Transition Rule 1.10

602.1510 Bond expense.
The cost of a bond that is required of a judicial officer or court employee in the discharge of duties shall be paid by the department.

83 Acts, ch 186, §1510, 10201

Transition provisions, see article 11 of this chapter, and Temporary Court Transition Rule 1.11 §602.1511 Board of examiners for shorthand reporters.
Members of the board of examiners for certified shorthand reporters appointed under article 3 shall receive actual and necessary expenses pursuant to section 602.1509 and per diem compensation for each day actually engaged in the discharge of duties.

§602.1512 Commission on judicial qualifications.
The members of the commission on judicial qualifications established under section 602.2102, other than the judicial member, shall receive per diem compensation for each day that they are actually engaged in the performance of duties. All of the members shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses pursuant to section 602.1509.

§602.1513 Per diem compensation.
The supreme court shall set the per diem compensation under sections 602.1511 and 602.1512 at forty dollars per day.

PART 6
GENERAL PROVISIONS

§602.1601 Judicial proceedings public.
All judicial proceedings shall be public, unless otherwise specially provided by statute or agreed to by the parties.

§602.1602 Sunday — permissible acts.
A court shall not be opened on Sunday and judicial business shall not be transacted on Sunday, except to:

§602.1603 Judge to be attorney.
A person is not eligible for, and shall not hold the office of supreme court justice, court of appeals judge, district judge, or district associate judge unless admitted to the practice of law in this state.

§602.1604 Judges shall not practice law.
While holding office, a supreme court justice, court of appeals judge, district judge, or district associate judge shall not practice as an attorney or counselor or give advice in relation to any action pending or about to be brought in any of the courts of the state. A person whose appointment as an alternate district associate judge is authorized under section 602.6303 may practice law except when actually serving as a district associate judge.

§602.1605 Special conditions for magistrates.
1. A magistrate shall not accept any compensation, fee, or reward from or on behalf of any one for services rendered in the conduct of official business except the compensation provided by law.
2. If a magistrate who practices law appears as counsel for a client in a matter that is within the jurisdiction of a magistrate, that matter shall be heard only by a district judge or a district associate judge. A disqualification under this section shall be had upon motion of the magistrate or of any party, either orally or in writing, and the clerk of the district court shall reassign the matter to a proper judicial officer.

§602.1606 Judicial officer disqualified.
A judicial officer is disqualified from acting in a proceeding, except upon the consent of all of the parties, if any of the following circumstances exists:
1. The judicial officer has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding.
2. The judicial officer served as a lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom the judicial officer previously practiced law served during that association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judicial officer or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning the matter.
3. The judicial officer knows that the officer, individually or as a fiduciary, or the officer’s spouse or a person related to either of them by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree or the spouse of such a person has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or has any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding.
4. The judicial officer or the officer’s spouse, or a person related to either of them by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree or the spouse of such a person, is a party to the proceeding, or an officer, director, or trustee of a party, or is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding, or is known by the judicial officer to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding, or is, to the judicial officer’s knowledge, likely to be a material witness in the proceeding.

A judicial officer shall disclose to all parties in a proceeding any existing circumstances in subsections 1 through 4 before the parties consent to the judicial officer’s presiding in the proceeding.

§602.1607 Court employees shall not practice law.
A full-time court employee shall not practice as an attorney or counselor of law.

§602.1608 Salaries exclusive.
Court employees shall not accept any compensation, fee, or reward for services rendered in connection with duties of court employment except the compensation provided by law.

Transition provisions see article 11 of this chapter and Temporary Court Transition Rules.

Transition provisions see article 11 of this chapter and Temporary Court Transition Rules.
602.1609 Compliance with gift law.
Judicial officers and court employees shall comply with rules adopted by the supreme court under section 68B.11 with respect to the reporting of gifts received. Violations are subject to the criminal penalties provided in that section.
83 Acts, ch 186, §1609, 10201
Transition provisions, see article 11 of this chapter, and Temporary Court Transition Rules

602.1610 Mandatory retirement.
1. Judicial officers shall cease to hold office upon reaching the mandatory retirement age.
   a. The mandatory retirement age is seventy-five years for all justices of the supreme court and district judges holding office on July 1, 1965.
   b. The mandatory retirement age is seventy-two years for all justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals, and district judges appointed to office after July 1, 1965.
   c. The mandatory retirement age is seventy-two years for all district associate judges and judicial magistrates.
2. The mandatory retirement age for employees of the judicial department is as provided in section 97B.46.
   83 Acts, ch 186, §1610, 10201

602.1611 Judicial retirement programs.
1. Judges of the supreme court and court of appeals, district judges, and district associate judges are members of the judicial retirement system established in article 9, part 1, and are not members of the public employees' retirement system established in chapter 97B, except as provided in paragraphs "a" and "b".
   a. District associate judges who exercised the election under section 602.1115, subsection 1, are members of the public employees' retirement system and are not members of the judicial retirement system.
   District associate judges who exercised the election under section 602.1115, subsection 2, are members of the judicial retirement system and are inactive members of the public employees' retirement system.
   b. District associate judges appointed after June 30, 1984, judges of the supreme court and court of appeals, and district judges, who were vested members of the public employees' retirement system at the time they became members of the judicial retirement system, and whose contributions in the public employees' retirement system were not refunded to them prior to the repeal of section 97B.69, are members of the judicial retirement system and are inactive vested members of the public employees' retirement system until they become qualified to receive retirement benefits from the judicial retirement system and become retired members of the public employees' retirement system.
2. Alternate district associate judges whose appointment is authorized under section 602.6303 are not members of either the judicial retirement system or the public employees' retirement system.
3. Magistrates may elect to be members of the Iowa public employees' retirement system upon filing in writing with the department of personnel as provided in section 97B.41, subsection 3, paragraph "b," subparagraph (6).

602.1612 Temporary service by retired judges.
1. Justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals, district judges, and district associate judges who are retired by reason of age or who are drawing benefits under section 602.9106, and senior judges who have retired under section 602.9207 or who have relinquished senior judgeship under section 602.9208, subsection 1, may with their consent be assigned by the supreme court or by the chief judge in the case of district associate judges to temporary judicial duties on a court in this state. A retired justice or judge shall not be assigned to temporary judicial duties on any court superior to the highest court to which that justice or judge had been appointed prior to retirement, and shall not be assigned for temporary duties with the supreme court or the court of appeals except in the case of a temporary absence of a member of one of those courts.
2. A retired justice or judge shall not engage in the practice of law unless the justice or judge files an election to practice law with the clerk of the supreme court. Upon electing to practice law, the justice or judge is ineligible for assignment to temporary judicial duties at any time.
3. While serving under temporary assignment, a retired justice or judge shall be paid the compensation and expense reimbursement provided by law for justices or judges on the court to which assigned, but shall not receive annuity payments under the judicial retirement system and a district associate judge covered under chapter 97B shall receive monthly benefits under that chapter only if the district associate judge has attained the age of seventy years.
4. A retired justice or judge may be authorized by the order of assignment to appoint a temporary court reporter, who shall receive the compensation and expense reimbursement provided by law for a regular court reporter in the court to which the justice or judge is assigned.
5. An order of assignment shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court on which the justice or judge is to serve.
   83 Acts, ch 186, §1612, 10201
   Retired judicial magistrates, §602.1114

602.1613 Court employee retirement.
Court employees are members of the Iowa public employees' retirement system under chapter 97B, except as otherwise provided in chapter 97B or this chapter.

ARTICLE 2
DISCIPLINE AND REMOVAL OF JUDICIAL OFFICERS
PART 1
SUPREME COURT ACTION

602.2101 Authority.
The supreme court may retire, discipline, or remove a judicial officer from office for cause as provided in this part.
83 Acts, ch 186, §3101, 10201
§602.2102 Commission on judicial qualifications.
1 A seven-member “Commission on Judicial Qualifications” is established. The commission consists of one district judge and two members who are practicing attorneys in Iowa and who do not belong to the same political party, to be appointed by the chief justice, and four electors of the state who are not attorneys, no more than two of whom belong to the same political party, to be appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate. The commission members shall serve for six year terms, are ineligible for a second term, and except for the judicial member shall not hold any other office of and shall not be employed by the United States or the state of Iowa or its political subdivisions. Members appointed by the chief justice shall serve terms beginning January 1 of the year for which the appointments are made and members appointed by the governor shall serve staggered terms beginning and ending as provided by section 69.19. Vacancies shall be filled by appointment by the chief justice or governor as provided in this subsection, for the unexpired portion of the term.
2 If the judicial member is the subject of a charge before the commission, the chief justice shall appoint a district judge of another judicial district to act as the judicial member of the commission until the person charged is exonerated, or for the unexpired portion of the term if the person charged is not exonerated. If the judicial member is a resident judge of the same judicial district as the judicial officer who is the subject of a charge before the commission, the chief justice shall appoint a district judge of another judicial district to act as the judicial member during that proceeding.
3 The commission shall select its own chairperson, and the state court administrator or a designee of the state court administrator is the executive secretary of the commission.
83 Acts, ch 186, §3102, 10201

§602.2103 Operation of commission.
A quorum of the commission is four members. Only those commission members that are present at commission meetings or hearings may vote. An application by the commission to the supreme court to retire, discipline, or remove a judicial officer, or an action by the commission which affects the final disposition of a complaint, requires the affirmative vote of at least four commission members. Notwithstanding chapter 21 and chapter 22, all records, papers, proceedings, meetings, and hearings of the commission are confidential, but if the commission applies to the supreme court to retire, discipline, or remove a judicial officer, the application and all of the records and papers in that proceeding are public documents.
83 Acts, ch 186, §3103, 10201

§602.2104 Procedure before commission.
1 Charges before the commission shall be in writing but may be simple and informal. The commission shall investigate each charge as indicated by its gravity. If the charge is groundless, it shall be dismissed by the commission. If the charge appears to be substantiated but does not warrant application to the supreme court, the commission may dispose of it informally by conference with or communication to the judicial officer involved. If the charge appears to be substantiated and if proved would warrant application to the supreme court, notice shall be given to the judicial officer and a hearing shall be held before the commission. The commission may employ investigative personnel, in addition to the executive secretary, as it deems necessary.
2 In case of a hearing before the commission, written notice of the charge and of the time and place of hearing shall be mailed to the judicial officer at the officer’s residence at least twenty days prior to the time set for hearing. Hearing shall be held in the county where the judicial officer resides unless the commission and the judicial officer agree to a different location. The judicial officer shall continue to perform judicial duties during the pendency of the charge, unless otherwise ordered by the commission. The commission has subpoena power on behalf of the state and the judicial officer, and disobedience of the commission’s subpoena is punishable as contempt in the district court for the county in which the hearing is held. The attorney general shall prosecute the charge before the commission on behalf of the state. The judicial officer may defend and has the right to participate in person and by counsel, to cross examine, to be confronted by the witnesses, and to present evidence in accordance with the rules of civil procedure. A complete record shall be made of the evidence by a court reporter. In accordance with its findings on the evidence, the commission shall dismiss the charge or make application to the supreme court to retire, discipline, or remove the judicial officer.
83 Acts, ch 186, §3104, 10201

§602.2105 Rules.
The commission shall prescribe rules for its operation and procedure.
83 Acts, ch 186, §3105, 10201

§602.2106 Procedure before supreme court.
1 If the commission submits an application to the supreme court to retire, discipline, or remove a judicial officer, the commission shall promptly file in the supreme court a transcript of the hearing before the commission. The statutes and rules relative to proceedings in appeals of equity suits apply.
2 The attorney general shall prosecute the proceedings in the supreme court on behalf of the state, and the judicial officer may defend in person and by counsel.
3 Upon application by the commission, the supreme court may do either of the following:
a Retire the judicial officer for permanent physical or mental disability which substantially interferes with the performance of judicial duties.
b Discipline or remove the judicial officer for persistent failure to perform duties, habitual intemperance, willful misconduct in office, conduct which brings judicial office into disrepute, or substantial violation of the canons of judicial ethics. Discipline may include suspension without pay for a definite period of time not to exceed twelve months.
4 If the supreme court finds that the application should be granted in whole or in part, it shall render the decree that it deems appropriate.
83 Acts, ch 186, §3106, 10201
602.2107 Civil immunity.

The making of charges before the commission, the giving of evidence or information before the commission or to an investigator employed by the commission, and the presentation of transcripts, extensions of evidence, briefs, and arguments in the supreme court are privileged in actions for defamation.

83 Acts, ch 186, §3107, 10201

PART 2

OTHFR PROCEEDINGS

602.2201 Impeachment.

Judicial officers may be removed from office by impeachment pursuant to chapter 68.

83 Acts, ch 186, §3201, 10201

ARTICLE 3

CERTIFICATION AND REGULATION OF SHORTHAND REPORTERS

PART 1

CERTIFICATION

602.3101 Board of examiners.

1 A five-member board of examiners of shorthand reporters is established, consisting of three certified shorthand reporters and two persons who are not certified shorthand reporters and who shall represent the general public. Members shall be appointed by the supreme court. A certified member shall be actively engaged in the practice of certified shorthand reporting and shall have been so engaged for five years preceding appointment, the last two of which shall have been in Iowa. Professional associations or societies composed of certified shorthand reporters may recommend the names of potential board members to the supreme court, but the supreme court is not bound by the recommendations. A board member shall not be required to be a member of a professional association or society composed of certified shorthand reporters.

2 The state court administrator or a designee of the state court administrator shall act as secretary to the board.

83 Acts, ch 186, §4101, 10201

602.3102 Terms of office.

Appointments shall be for three-year terms and each term shall commence on July 1 of the year in which the appointment is made. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the supreme court. Members shall serve a maximum of three terms or nine years, whichever is less.

83 Acts, ch 186, §4102, 10201

602.3103 Public members.

The public members of the board may participate in administrative, clerical, or ministerial functions incident to giving the examination, but shall not determine the content of the examination or determine the correctness of the answers.

83 Acts, ch 186, §4103, 10201

602.3104 Meetings.

The board of examiners shall fix stated times for the examination of the candidates and shall hold at least one meeting each year at the seat of government. A majority of the members of the board constitutes a quorum of the board.

83 Acts, ch 186, §4104, 10201

602.3105 Applications.

Applications for certification shall be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the board and shall not require that the applicant contain a photograph of the applicant. An applicant shall not be denied certification because of age, citizenship, sex, race, religion, marital status, or national origin although the application may require citizenship information. The board may consider the past felony record of an applicant only if the felony conviction relates directly to the practice of certified shorthand reporting. Character references may be required, but shall not be obtained from certified shorthand reporters.

83 Acts, ch 186, §4105, 10201

602.3106 Fees.

1 The supreme court shall set the fees for examination and for certification. The fee for examination shall be based on the annual cost of administering the examinations. The fee for certification shall be based upon the administrative costs of sustaining the board, which shall include but shall not be limited to the cost for per diem, expenses, and travel for board members, and office facilities, supplies, and equipment.

2 The state court administrator shall collect and account for all fees payable to the board.

83 Acts, ch 186, §4106, 10201

602.3107 Examinations.

The board may administer as many examinations per year as necessary, but shall administer at least one examination per year. The scope of the examinations and the methods of procedure shall be prescribed by the board. A written examination may be conducted by representatives of the board. Examinations in theory shall be in writing and the identity of the person taking the examination shall be concealed until after the examination papers have been graded. For examinations in practice, the identity of the person taking the examination also shall be concealed as far as possible. Applicants who fail the examination once may take the examination at the next scheduled time. Thereafter, the applicant may be allowed to take the examination at the discretion of the board. An applicant who has failed the examination may request in writing information from the board concerning the examination grade and subject areas or questions which the applicant failed to answer correctly. The board shall provide the information. However, if the board administers a uniform, standardized examination, the board is only required to provide the examination grade and other information concerning the applicant's examination results that is available to the board.

83 Acts, ch 186, §4107, 10201
§602.3201  Unlawful use of title.
A person who is certified by the board is a certified shorthand reporter. A person who is not certified by the board shall not assume the title of certified shorthand reporter, or use the abbreviation C S R , or any words, letters, or figures to indicate that the person is a certified shorthand reporter.

83 Acts, ch 186, §4201, 10201

§602.3202  Transcript fee.
Certified shorthand reporters are entitled to receive compensation for transcribing their official notes as set by rule of the supreme court, to be paid for in all cases by the party ordering the transcription.

83 Acts, ch 186, §4202, 10201

§602.3203  Revocation or suspension.
A certification may be revoked or suspended if the person is guilty of any of the following acts or offenses:
1. Fraud in procuring a license
2. Professional incompetency
3. Knowingly making misleading, deceptive untrue, or fraudulent representations in the practice of shorthand reporting, or engaging in unethical conduct or in a practice that is harmful or detrimental to the public.
4. Proof of actual injury need not be established
5. Conviction of a felony related to the practice of shorthand reporting or conviction of a felony that would affect the ability to practice shorthand reporting.
6. A copy of the record of conviction or plea of guilty is conclusive evidence
7. Use of untruthful or improbable statements in advertisements

83 Acts, ch 186, §4203, 10201

PART 3
FENAL PROVISIONS

§602.3301  Misuse of confidential information — penalty.
1. A member of the board shall not disclose information relating to the following:
   a. Criminal history or prior misconduct of the applicant
   b. The contents of the examination
   c. Examination results other than final scores except for information about the results of an examination which is given to the person who took the examination
2. A member of the board who willfully communicates or seeks to communicate information referred to in subsection 1, or a person who willfully requests, obtains, or seeks to obtain information referred to in subsection 1, is guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

83 Acts, ch 186, §4301, 10201
These rules shall contain, but need not be limited to, a specification of the grounds upon which further review may, in the discretion of the supreme court, be granted. These rules are subject to section 602.4202.
§ 602.4103 Chief justice.
The justices of the supreme court shall select one justice as chief justice, to serve during that justice's term of office. The chief justice is eligible for reelection. The chief justice shall appoint one of the other justices to act during the absence or inability of the chief justice to act, and when so acting the appointee has all the rights, duties, and powers of the chief justice.

§ 602.4104 Divisions — full court.
1. The supreme court may be divided into divisions of three or more justices in the manner it prescribes by rule. The divisions may hold open court separately and cases may be submitted to each division separately, in accordance with these rules.
2. The supreme court shall prescribe rules for the submission of a case or petition for rehearing whenever differences arise between members of divisions or whenever the chief justice orders or directs the submission of the question or petition for rehearing by the whole court.
3. The supreme court shall prescribe rules to provide for the submission of cases to the entire bench or to the separate divisions.

§ 602.4105 Time and place court meets.
The supreme court shall hold court at the seat of state government and elsewhere as the court orders, and at the times the court orders.

§ 602.4106 Opinions — reports.
1. The decisions of the court on all questions passed upon by it, including motions and points of practice, shall be specifically stated, and shall be accompanied with an opinion upon those which are deemed of sufficient importance, together with any dissents, which dissents may be stated with or without an opinion. All decisions and opinions shall be in writing and filed with the clerk, except that rulings upon motions may be entered upon the announcement book.
2. The records and reports for each case shall show whether a decision was made by a full bench, and whether any, and if so which, of the judges dissented from the decision.
3. The supreme court may publish reports of its official opinions, or it may direct that publication of the opinions by a private publisher shall be considered the official reports.
4. If the decision, in the judgment of the court, is not of sufficient general importance to be published, it shall be so designated, in which case it shall not be included in the reports, and no case shall be reported except by order of the full bench.

§ 602.4107 Divided court.
When the supreme court is equally divided in opinion, the judgment of the court below shall stand affirmed, but the decision of the supreme court is of no further force or authority. Opinions may be filed in these cases.

§ 602.4108 Attendance of sheriff of Polk county.
The court may require the attendance and services of the sheriff of Polk county at any time.

§ 602.4201 Rules of procedure.
1. The supreme court may prescribe all rules of pleading, practice, evidence, and procedure, and the forms of process, writs, and notices, for all proceedings in all courts of this state, for the purposes of simplifying the proceedings and promoting the speedy determination of litigation upon its merits. Rules are subject to section 602.4202.
2. Rules of appellate procedure relating to appeals to and review by the supreme court, discretionary review by the courts of small claims actions, review by the supreme court by writ of certiorari to inferior courts, appeal to or review by the court of appeals of a matter transferred to that court by the supreme court, and further review by the supreme court of decisions of the court of appeals, shall be known as “Rules of Appellate Procedure”, and shall be published as provided in section 14.12, subsection 7.

§ 602.4202 Rulemaking procedure.
1. The supreme court shall submit a rule or form prescribed by the supreme court under section 602.4201 or pursuant to any other rulemaking authority specifically made subject to this section to the legislative council and shall at the same time report the rule or form to the chairpersons and ranking members of the senate and house committees on judiciary. The legislative service bureau shall make recommendations to the supreme court on the proper style and format of rules and forms required to be submitted to the legislative council under this subsection.
2. A rule or form submitted as required under subsection 1 takes effect sixty days after submission to the legislative council, or at a later date specified by the supreme court, unless the legislative council, within sixty days after submission and by a majority vote of its members, delays the effective date of the rule or form to a date as provided in subsection 3.
3. The effective date of a rule or form submitted during the period of time beginning February 15 and ending February 14 of the next calendar year may be delayed by the legislative council until May 1 of that next calendar year.
4. A rule or form submitted as required under subsection 1 and effective on or before July 1 shall be bound with the Acts of the general assembly meeting in regular session in the calendar year in which the July 1 falls.
5. If the general assembly enacts a bill changing a rule or form, the general assembly's enactment supersedes a conflicting provision in the rule or form as submitted by the supreme court.

83 Acts, ch 186, §5202, 10201; 85 Acts, ch 197, §14

PART 3
ADMINISTRATION

602.4301 Clerk of supreme court.
1. The supreme court shall appoint a clerk of the supreme court and may remove the clerk for cause.
2. The clerk of the supreme court shall have an office at the seat of government, shall keep a complete record of the proceedings of the court, and shall not allow an opinion filed in the office to be removed. Opinions shall be open to examination and, upon request, may be copied and certified. The clerk promptly shall announce by mail to one of the attorneys on each side any ruling made or decision rendered, shall record every opinion rendered as soon as filed, shall mail a copy of each opinion rendered to each attorney of record and to each party not represented by counsel, and shall perform all other duties pertaining to the office of clerk.
3. The clerk of the supreme court shall collect and account to the state court administrator for all fees received by the supreme court.
4. The clerk of the supreme court shall give bond as provided in chapter 64.

83 Acts, ch 186, §5301, 10201

602.4302 Deputy clerk — staff.
1. The clerk of the supreme court may appoint a deputy clerk of the supreme court. In the absence or disability of the clerk, the deputy shall perform the duties of the clerk.
2. The clerk of the supreme court may employ necessary staff, as authorized by the supreme court.

83 Acts, ch 186, §5302, 10201

602.4303 Supreme court fees.
1. The supreme court shall by rule prescribe fees for the services of the court and clerk of the supreme court.
2. Rules prescribed under this section are subject to section 602.4202.
3. If any of the fees are not paid in advance, execution may issue for them, except for fees payable by the county or the state.

83 Acts, ch 186, §5303, 10201

602.4304 Supreme court staff.
1. The supreme court may appoint not more than nine attorneys or graduates of a reputable law school to act as legal assistants to the justices of the supreme court.
2. The supreme court may employ other professional and clerical staff as necessary to accomplish the judicial duties of the court.

83 Acts, ch 186, §5304, 10201

602.4305 Limitation on expenses.
A justice of the supreme court may choose whether to reside at the seat of government or elsewhere. The court administrator may approve necessary travel and actual expenses, incurred by a justice of the supreme court for attendance at oral arguments and judicial conferences, not to exceed the maximum amount established by the supreme court pursuant to section 602.1509.

83 Acts, ch 186, §5305, 10201

ARTICLE 5
COURT OF APPEALS
PART 1
GENERAL PROVISIONS

602.5101 Court of appeals.
The Iowa court of appeals is established as an intermediate court of appeals. The court of appeals is a court of record.

83 Acts, ch 186, §6101, 10201

602.5102 Judges — quorum.
1. The court of appeals consists of six judges; three judges of the court of appeals constitute a quorum.
2. Judges of the court of appeals shall be nominated and appointed and shall stand for retention in office as provided in chapter 46. Judges of the court of appeals shall qualify for office as provided in chapter 63.
3. A person appointed as a judge of the court of appeals must satisfy all requirements for a justice of the supreme court.
4. The court of appeals may be divided into divisions of three or more judges in a manner as it may prescribe by rule. The divisions may hold open court separately and cases may be submitted to each division separately in accordance with rules the court may prescribe. The rules shall provide for submitting a case or petition for rehearing or hearing en banc at the discretion of the chief judge or at the request of a specified number of judges designated in the rules. The court of appeals shall prescribe all rules necessary to provide for the submission of cases to the whole court or to a division.

83 Acts, ch 186, §6102, 10201; 83 Acts, ch 204, §11, 12

602.5103 Jurisdiction.
1. The jurisdiction of the court of appeals is coextensive with the state. The court of appeals has appellate jurisdiction only in cases in chancery, and constitutes a court for the correction of errors at law.
2. The court of appeals has subject matter jurisdiction to review the following matters:
   a. Civil actions and special civil proceedings, whether at law or in equity.
   b. Criminal actions.
   c. Postconviction remedy proceedings.
   d. A judgment of a district judge in a small claims action.
3. The jurisdiction of the court of appeals with respect to actions and parties is limited to those matters for which an appeal or review proceeding properly has been brought before the supreme court, and for which the supreme court pursuant to section 602.4102 has entered an order transferring the matter to the court of appeals.

4. The court of appeals and judges of the court may issue writs and other process necessary for the exercise and enforcement of the court's jurisdiction, but a writ, order, or other process issued in a matter that is not before the court pursuant to an order of transfer issued by the supreme court is void.

83 Acts, ch 186, §6103, 10201

602.5104 Sessions — location.

The court of appeals shall meet at the seat of state government at the times specified by order of the supreme court. Court sessions shall be held in the courtroom of the supreme court at the statehouse.

83 Acts, ch 186, §6104, 10201

602.5105 Chief judge.

1. At the first meeting in each odd-numbered year the judges of the court of appeals by majority vote shall designate one judge as chief judge, to serve for a two-year term. A vacancy in the office of chief judge shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by majority vote of the judges of the court of appeals, after any vacancy on the court has been filled.

2. The chief judge shall supervise the business of the court and shall preside when present at a session of the court.

3. If the chief judge desires to be relieved of the duties of chief judge while retaining the status of judge of the court of appeals, the chief judge shall notify the chief justice and the other judges of the court of appeals. The office of chief judge shall be deemed vacant, and shall be filled as provided in this section.

4. In the absence of the chief judge, the duties of the chief judge shall be exercised by the judge next in precedence. Judges of the court of appeals other than the chief judge have precedence according to the length of time served on that court. Of several judges having equal periods of time served, the eldest has precedence.

602.5106 Decisions of the court — finality.

1. The court of appeals may affirm, modify, vacate, set aside, or reverse any judgment, order, or decree of the district court or other tribunal which is under the jurisdiction of the court, and may remand the cause and direct the entry of an appropriate judgment, order, or decree, or require further proceedings to be had as is just. If the judges are equally divided on the ultimate decision, the judgment, order, or decree shall be affirmed.

2. A decision of the court of appeals is final and shall not be reviewed by any other court except upon the granting by the supreme court of an application for further review as provided in section 602.4102. Upon the filing of the application, the judgment and mandate of the court of appeals is stayed pending action of the supreme court or until the expiration of the time specified in section 602.4102, subsection 4.

83 Acts, ch 186, §6106, 10201

602.5107 Rules.

The court of appeals, subject to the approval of the supreme court, may prescribe rules for the conduct of business of the court of appeals. Rules prescribed shall not abridge, enlarge, or modify a substantive right.

83 Acts, ch 186, §6107, 10201

602.5108 When decisions effective.

A decision of the court of appeals shall be in writing, and shall be effective, except as provided in section 602.5106, subsection 2, when the decision of the court is filed with the clerk of the supreme court.

83 Acts, ch 186, §6108, 10201

602.5109 Process — style — seal.

1. Process of the court of appeals shall be styled: "In the Court of Appeals of Iowa".

2. The supreme court may adopt a seal for the court of appeals. Upon adoption, the clerk of the supreme court shall file a facsimile and description of the design in the office of the secretary of state. Judicial notice shall be taken of the official seal of the court of appeals.

83 Acts, ch 186, §6109, 10201

602.5110 Records.

The records of the court of appeals shall be kept by the clerk of the supreme court, and at the same place as, but segregated from the records of the supreme court. Records of the court of appeals shall be maintained in the same manner as records of the supreme court under article 4.

83 Acts, ch 186, §6110, 10201

602.5111 Publication of opinions.

The state court administrator shall cause the publication of opinions of the judges of the court of appeals in accordance with rules prescribed by the supreme court. Section 602.4106 applies to decisions of the court of appeals. The state court administrator shall cause the publication of abstracts of all decisions for which written opinions are not published.

83 Acts, ch 186, §6111, 10201

602.5112 Fees — costs.

Costs to be collected and awarded in the court of appeals shall be as prescribed from time to time by the supreme court. Fees and costs may be awarded to a party to the appeal in the discretion of the court of appeals. A fee shall not be charged for the docketing of a matter in the court of appeals upon transfer from the supreme court.

83 Acts, ch 186, §6112, 10201

PART 2

ADMINISTRATION

602.5201 Clerk of court.

1. The clerk of the supreme court or a deputy of that clerk shall act as clerk of the court of appeals. The clerk of the court of appeals shall keep a complete record of the proceedings of that court, shall collect the fees and costs prescribed by the supreme court, and shall account for all receipts and disbursements of the court of appeals.
The clerk of the supreme court, subject to the approval of the supreme court, may employ additional staff for the performance of duties relating to the court of appeals.

602.5201

83 Acts, ch 186, §6201, 10201

602.5202 Secretary to judge.

Each judge of the court of appeals may employ one personal secretary.

602.5203 Law clerks.

The court of appeals may employ not more than six attorneys or graduates of a reputable law school to act as legal assistants to the court.

602.5204 Physical facilities.

The state court administrator shall obtain suitable facilities for the court of appeals at the seat of state government. To the extent practicable, the court administrator shall utilize existing supreme court facilities.

602.5205 Limitation on expenses.

1. Each judge of the court of appeals shall be provided personal office space and equipment, and facilities for a secretary and law clerk at the seat of state government only. Each judge may choose whether to reside at the seat of government or elsewhere. The court administrator may approve necessary travel and actual expenses, incurred by a judge of the court of appeals for attendance at oral arguments and judicial conferences, not to exceed the maximum amount established by the supreme court pursuant to section 602.1509.

2. State funds shall not be used for securing or maintaining facilities for court of appeals judges or employees at any place other than the seat of state government.

602.6101 Unified trial court.

A unified trial court is established. This court is the "Iowa District Court." The district court has exclusive, general, and original jurisdiction of all actions, proceedings, and remedies, civil, criminal, probate, and juvenile, except in cases where exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction is conferred upon some other court, tribunal, or administrative body. The district court has all the power usually possessed and exercised by trial courts of general jurisdiction, and is a court of record.

602.6102 Appeals and writs of error.

The district court has jurisdiction in appeals and writs of error taken in civil and criminal actions and special proceedings authorized to be taken from tribunals, boards, or officers under the laws of this state, and has general supervision thereof, in all matters, to prevent and correct abuses where no other remedy is provided.

602.6103 Court in continuous session.

The district court of each judicial district shall be in continuous session in all of the several counties comprising the district.

602.6104 Judicial officers.

1. The jurisdiction of the Iowa district court shall be exercised by district judges, district associate judges, and magistrates.

2. Judicial officers of the district court shall not sit together in the trial of causes nor upon the hearings of motions for new trials. They may hold court in the same county at the same time.

602.6105 Places of holding court — magistrate schedules.

1. Courts shall be held at the places in each county designated by the chief judge of the judicial district, except that the determination of actions, special proceedings, and other matters not requiring a jury may be done at some other place in the district with the consent of the parties.

2. In any county having two county seats, court shall be held at each, and, in the county of Pottawattamie, court shall be held at Avoca, as well as at the county seat.

3. The chief judge of a judicial district shall designate times and places for magistrates to hold court to ensure accessibility of magistrates at all times throughout the district. The schedule of times and places of availability of magistrates and any schedule changes shall be disseminated by the chief judge to the peace officers within the district.

602.6106 Sessions not at county seats — effect — duty of clerk.

When court is held at a place that is not the county seat, all of the provisions of the Code relating to district courts are applicable, except as follows. All proceedings in the court have, within the territory over which the court has jurisdiction, the same force and effect as though ordered in the court at the county seat, but transcripts of judgments and decrees, levies of writs of attachment upon real estate, mechanics' liens, lis pendens, sales of real estate, redemption, satisfactions of judgments and mechanics' liens, and dismissals or decrees in lis pendens, together with all other matters affecting titles to real estate, shall be certified by the deputy clerk to the clerk of district court at the county seat who shall immediately enter them upon the records at the county seat.

602.6107 Judicial districts.

For all judicial purposes except as provided in section 602.6109, the state is divided into eight judicial districts as follows.
1 The first district consists of the counties of Dubuque, Delaware Clayton Allamakee, Winneshiek, Chickasaw Fayette, Buchanan, Black Hawk Howard, and Grundy.

2 The second district consists of the counties of Mitchell Floyd, Butler Bremer Worth, Winnebago, Hancock Cerro Gordo, Franklin Wright Humboldt, Pocahontas Sac Calhoun Webster, Hamilton, Carroll Greene Hardin, Marshall, Story and Boone.

3 The third district consists of the counties of Kosuth Emmet Dickinson Osceola Lyon O'Brien, Clay Palo Alto, Cherokee, Buena Vista, Plymouth Sioux, Woodbury, Ida Monona and Crawford.

4 The fourth district consists of the counties of Harrison, Shelby, Audubon, Pottawattamie Cass Mills, Montgomery, Fremont and Page.

5 The fifth district consists of the counties of Guthrie, Dallas, Polk, Jasper, Madison, Warren, Marion, Adair, Adams, Union Clarke Lucas, Taylor, Ringgold, Decatur and Wayne.

6 The sixth district consists of the counties of Tama, Benton, Linn, Jones, Iowa, and Johnson.

7 The seventh district consists of the counties of Jackson Clinton, Cedar, Scott, and Muscatine.

602.6108 Reassignment of personnel.

The chief justice of the supreme court shall assign judicial officers and court employees from one judicial district to another, on a continuing basis if need be, in order to handle the judicial business in all districts promptly and efficiently at all times.

602.6109 Judicial election districts.

1 Judicial election districts are established for purposes of nomination, appointment, and retention of district judges and for other purposes specifically provided by law.

2 The judicial election districts are as follows:

   a Election district 1A consists of the counties of Dubuque, Delaware, Clayton, Allamakee, and Winneshiek.
   b Election district 1B consists of the counties of Chickasaw, Fayette, Buchanan, Black Hawk, Howard, and Grundy.
   c Election district 2A consists of the counties of Mitchell, Floyd, Butler, Bremer, Worth, Winnebago, Hancock, Cerro Gordo, and Franklin.
   d Election district 2B consists of the counties of Wright, Humboldt, Pocahontas, Sac, Calhoun, Webster, Hamilton, Carroll, Greene, Hardin, Marshall, Story, and Boone.
   e Election district 3A consists of the counties of Kosuth, Emmet, Dickinson, Osceola, Lyon, O'Brien, Clay, Palo Alto, Cherokee, and Buena Vista.
   f Election district 3B consists of the counties of Plymouth, Sioux, Woodbury, Ida, Monona, and Crawford.
   g Election district 4 consists of the fourth judicial district, as established by section 602.6107.
   h Election district 5A consists of the counties of Guthrie, Dallas, Jasper, Madison, Warren and Marion.
   i Election district 5B consists of the counties of Adair, Adams, Union, Clarke, Lucas, Taylor, Ringgold, Decatur and Wayne.
   j Election district 5C consists of Polk county.
   k Election district 6 consists of the sixth judicial district, as established by section 602.6107.
   l Election district 7 consists of the seventh judicial district, as established by section 602.6107.
   m Election district 8A consists of the counties of Poweshiek, Mahaska, Keokuk, Washington, Monroe, Wapello, Jefferson, Appanoose, Davis, and Van Buren.
   n Election district 8B consists of the counties of Louisa, Henry, Des Moines, and Lee.

83 Acts ch 186 §7107, 10201

83 Acts ch 186 §7108, 10201

602.6201 Office of district judge — apportionment.

1 District judges shall be nominated and appointed and shall stand for retention in office as provided in chapter 46. District judges shall qualify for office as provided in chapter 63.

2 A district judge must be a resident of the judicial election district in which appointed and retained. Subject to the provision for reassignment of judges under section 602.6108, a district judge shall serve in the district of the judge's residence while in office, regard less of the number of judgeships to which the district is entitled under subsection 3.

3 A judicial election district containing a city of fifty thousand or more population is entitled to the number of judgeships equal to the average, rounded to the nearest whole number, of the following two quotients, each rounded to the nearest hundredth:

   (1) The combined civil and criminal filings in the election district divided by five hundred fifty.
   (2) The election district's population divided by forty thousand. However, the seat of government is entitled to one additional judgeship.

a All other judicial election districts are entitled to the number of judgeships equal to the average, rounded to the nearest whole number, of the following two quotients, each rounded to the nearest hundredth:

   (1) The combined civil and criminal filings in the election district divided by four hundred fifty.
   (2) The election district's population divided by forty thousand.

b The filings included in the determinations to be made under this subsection shall not include small claims or nonindictable misdemeanors, and shall not include either civil actions for money judgment where the amount in controversy does not exceed five thousand dollars or indictable misdemeanors or felony violations of section 321.3, which were assigned to district associate judges and magistrates as shown on their administrative reports, but shall include appeals from decisions of nonmagistrate district associate judges, and district judges sitting as magistrates. The figures on filings shall be the average for the latest available previous three year period and when current census figures on population are not available, figures shall be taken from the Iowa Department of Public Health computations.

4 For purposes of this section, a vacancy means the death, resignation, retirement, or removal of a district judge, or the failure of a district judge to be retained in office at the judicial election, or an increase in judgeships under this section.

5 In those judicial election districts having more district judges than the number of judgeships specified by the formula in subsection 3, vacancies shall not be filled.

6 In those judicial election districts having fewer or the same number of district judges as the number of judgeships specified by the formula in subsection 3, vacancies shall be filled as they occur.

7 In those judicial districts that contain more than one judicial election district, a vacancy in a judicial election district shall not be filled if the total number of district judges in all judicial election districts within the judicial district equals or exceeds the aggregate number of judgeships to which all of the judicial election districts of the judicial district are authorized.

8 Vacancies shall not be filled in a judicial election district which becomes entitled to fewer judgeships under subsection 3, but an incumbent district judge shall not be removed from office because of a reduction in the number of authorized judgeships.

9 During February of each year, and at other times as appropriate, the state court administrator shall make the determinations required under this section, and shall notify the appropriate nominating commissions and the governor of appointments that are required.

10 Notwithstanding the formula for determining the number of judgeships in this section, the number of district judges shall not exceed one hundred during the period commencing January 1, 1987.

83 Acts, ch 186, §7201, 10201, 86 Acts, ch 1012, §1, 86 Acts, ch 1148, §1, 2

See Code editor’s note 1 at §8 1 at the end of Vol III

§602.6201  Number and apportionment of district associate judges.

There shall be one district associate judge in counties having a population, according to the most recent federal decennial census, of more than thirty-five thousand and less than eighty thousand, two in counties having a population of more than eighty thousand and less than one hundred twenty-five thousand, three in counties having a population of more than one hundred twenty-five thousand and less than two hundred thousand, and four in counties having a population of two hundred thousand or above. A district associate judge appointed pursuant to section 602.6302 or 602.6303 shall not be counted for purposes of this section.

§602.6302  Appointment of district associate judge in lieu of magistrates.

1 The chief judge of the judicial district, subject to the limitations of this section, may designate by order that a district associate judge be appointed pursuant to this section in lieu of magistrates appointed under section 602.6403. However, the designation shall not be made unless the county in which the district associate judge is to be appointed, or the counties in which the district associate judge is to be appointed in combination, have an apportionment of three or more magistrates and the designation shall not be made if the designation would result in the lack of a resident district associate judge or magistrate in one or more of the counties.

The order of substitution may be made only upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the district judges in that judicial election district, or in the case of an appointment involving more than one judicial election district of the same judicial district a majority of the district judges in each judicial election district, and only upon a finding by a majority of those district judges that the substitution would provide a more speedy and efficient performance of judicial business within that judicial election district.

An order of substitution shall not take effect unless a copy of the order is received by the chairperson of the county magistrate appointing commission or commissions no later than the thirty-first day of March of the year in which the substitution is to take effect. A copy of the order also shall be sent to the state court administrator.

2 For a county in which a substitution order is in effect, the number of magistrates actually appointed pursuant to section 602.6403 shall be reduced by three for each district associate judge substituted under this section. However, if the substitution order is for a district associate judge appointed to more than one county, the reduction of three magistrates shall be as provided in the order of the chief judge of the judicial district Upon a subsequent reduction in the apportionment of magistrates to the county or counties, the magistrate appointing commission shall further reduce the number of magistrates appointed.

3 a Except as provided in subsections 1 and 2, a substitution shall not increase or decrease the number of magistrates authorized by this article.

b A substitution pursuant to this section shall not be made if the effect would be to remove a magistrate from office prior to the expiration of the magistrate’s term.

c A substitution shall not be made where the apportionment of magistrates to a county is insufficient to permit the full reduction in appointments of magistrates as required by subsection 2.

4 If an apportionment by the state court administrator pursuant to section 602.6401 reduces the number of magistrates in the county or counties to less than the number required to be apportioned to allow a substitution order pursuant to subsection 1, or if a majority of the district judges in the judicial election district or districts determines that a substitution is no longer desirable, the substitute office shall be terminated. However, a reversion pursuant to this subsection, irrespective of cause, shall not take effect until the substitute district associate judge fails to be retained in office at a judicial election or otherwise leaves office, whether voluntarily or involuntarily. Upon the termination of office of that district associate judge, appointments shall be made pursuant to section 602.6403 as necessary to reestablish terms of office as provided in section 602.6403, subsection 4.

602.6303 Alternate district associate judge.

1 In a county having only one district associate judge, the county magistrate appointing commission, by majority vote, may authorize that an alternate district associate judge be appointed.

2 A person whose appointment is authorized under this section shall be designated as an alternate and is subject to this section.

3 An alternate district associate judge shall serve initial and regular terms and shall stand for retention in office in the same manner as regular district associate judges. However, a vacancy in the office of alternate district associate judge shall not be filled unless the conditions of subsection 1 are satisfied after the vacancy occurs.

4 The chief judge of the judicial district may order that the alternate temporarily sit in place of the regular district associate judge while the latter is unable to act. The words “unable to act” mean a temporary absence from court duties, including a reasonable vacation period.

5 The appointment of an alternate district associate judge does not affect the rights, duties, or remuneration of the regularly appointed district associate judge, and the appointment of an alternate does not affect the number or apportionment of district associate judges authorized by this part.

83 Acts, ch 186, §7303, 10201.

602.6304 Appointment of district associate judges.

1 The district associate judges authorized by sections 602.6301, 602.6302, and 602.6303 shall be appointed by the district judges of the judicial election district from persons nominated by the county magistrate appointing commission. In the case of a district associate judge to be appointed to more than one county, the appointment shall be from persons nominated by the county magistrate appointing commissions acting jointly and in the case of a district associate judge to be appointed to more than one judicial election district of the same judicial district, the appointment shall be by a majority of the district judges in each judicial election district.

2 In November of any year in which an impending vacancy is created because a district associate judge is not retained in office pursuant to a judicial election, the county magistrate appointing commission shall publicize notice of the vacancy in at least two publications in the official county newspaper. The commission shall accept applications for consideration for nomination as district associate judge for a minimum of fifteen days prior to certifying nominations. The commission shall consider the applications and shall, by majority vote, certify to the chief judge of the judicial district the names of three applicants who are nominated by the commission for the vacancy. If there are three or fewer applicants the commission shall certify all applicants who meet the statutory qualifications. Nominees shall be chosen solely on the basis of the qualifications of the applicants, and political affiliation shall not be considered.

3 Within thirty days after a county magistrate appointing commission receives notification of an actual or impending vacancy in the office of district associate judge, other than a vacancy referred to in subsection 2, the commission shall certify to the chief judge of the judicial district the names of three applicants who are nominated by the commission for the vacancy. The commission shall publicize notice of the vacancy in at least two publications in the official county newspaper. The commission shall accept applications for consideration for nomination as district associate judge for a minimum of fifteen days prior to certifying nominations. The commission shall consider the applications and shall, by majority vote, certify to the chief judge of the judicial district the names of three applicants who are nominated by the commission for the vacancy. If there are three or fewer applicants the commission shall certify all applicants who meet the statutory qualifications. Nominees shall be chosen solely on the basis of the qualifications of the applicants, and political affiliation shall not be considered.

4 Within fifteen days after the chief judge of a judicial district has received the list of nominees to fill a vacancy in the office of district associate judge, the district judges in the judicial election district shall, by majority vote, appoint one of those nominees to fill the vacancy.

5 The supreme court may prescribe rules of procedure to be used by county magistrate appointing commissions when exercising the duties specified in this section.

§602.6305 Term, retention, qualifications.

1 District associate judges shall serve initial terms and shall stand for retention in office within the judicial election districts of their residences at the judicial election in 1982 and every four years thereafter, under sections 46.17 to 46.24.

2 A person does not qualify for appointment to the office of district associate judge unless the person is at the time of appointment a resident of the county in which the vacancy exists, and unless the person is licensed to practice law in Iowa, and unless the person will be able, measured by the person's age at the time of appointment, to complete the initial term of office plus a four year term of office prior to reaching age seventy-two.

3 A district associate judge must be a resident of a county in which the office is held during the entire term of office. A district associate judge shall serve within the judicial district in which appointed, as directed by the chief judge, and is subject to reassignment under section 602.6108.

4 District associate judges shall qualify for office as provided in chapter 63 for district judges.

83 Acts, ch 186, §7305, 10201, 86 Acts, ch 1015, §5

§602.6306 Jurisdiction, procedure, appeals.

1 District associate judges have the jurisdiction provided in section 602.6405 for magistrates, and when exercising that jurisdiction shall employ magistrates' practice and procedure.

2 District associate judges also have jurisdiction in civil actions for money judgment where the amount in controversy does not exceed five thousand dollars, jurisdiction of indictable misdemeanors, and felony violations of section 821.1-2, and the jurisdiction provided in section 602.7101 when designated as a judge of the juvenile court. While presiding in these subject matters, a district associate judge shall employ district judges' practice and procedure.

3 When a district judge is unable to serve as a result of temporary incapacity, a district associate judge may, by order of the chief judge of the judicial district enrolled in the records of the clerk of the district court, temporarily exercise any judicial authority within the jurisdiction of a district judge during the time of incapacity with respect to the matters or classes of matters specified in that order.

4 Appeals from judgments or orders of district associate judges while exercising the jurisdiction of magistrates shall be governed by the laws relating to appeals from judgments and orders of magistrates. Appeals from judgments or orders of district associate judges while exercising any other jurisdiction shall be governed by the laws relating to appeals from judgments or orders of district judges.

PART 4

MAGISTRATES

§602.6401 Number and apportionment.

1 One hundred ninety-one magistrates shall be apportioned among the counties as provided in this section. Magistrates appointed pursuant to section 602.6402 shall not be counted for purposes of this section.

2 During February of each odd numbered year, the state court administrator shall apportion magistrate offices among the counties in accordance with the following criteria:

   a. The number and type of proceedings contained in the administrative reports required by section 602.6606.

   b. The existence of either permanent, temporary, or seasonal populations not included in the current census figures.

   c. The geographical area to be served.

   d. Any outstanding number of cases over which magistrates have jurisdiction that were pending at the end of the preceding year.

   e. The number and types of juvenile proceedings handled by district associate judges.

   3 Notwithstanding subsection 2, each county shall be allotted at least one resident magistrate.

   4 During March of each odd numbered year, the state court administrator shall give notice to the clerks of the district court and to the chief judges of the judicial districts of the number of magistrates to which each county is entitled.

83 Acts, ch 186, §7401, 10201

§602.6402 Additional magistrate allowed.

In those counties which are allotted one magistrate under section 602.6401 or which are restricted to one magistrate by section 602.6302, the county magistrate appointing commission may, by majority vote, decide to appoint one additional magistrate. If a county appoints an additional magistrate under this section, each of the two magistrates shall receive one-half of the regular salary of a magistrate.

§602.6403 Appointment and qualification of magistrates.

1 In April of each year in which magistrates' terms expire, the county magistrate appointing commission shall appoint, except as otherwise provided in section 602.6302, the number of magistrates apportioned to the county by the state court administrator under section 602.6401, and may appoint an additional magistrate when allowed by section 602.6402. The commission shall not appoint more magistrates than are authorized for the county by this article.

2 The magistrate appointing commission for each county shall prescribe the contents of an application for an appointment pursuant to this section. The commission shall publicize notice of any vacancy to be filled in at least two publications in the official county newspaper. The commission shall accept applications for a minimum of fifteen days prior to making an appointment, and shall make available during that period of time any printed application forms of the commission prescribes.

3 Within thirty days following receipt of notification of a vacancy in the office of magistrate, the commission shall appoint a person to the office to serve the remainder of the unexpired term. For purposes of this section, vacancy means a death, resignation, retirement, or removal of a magistrate, or an increase in the number of positions authorized.
4 The term of office of a magistrate is two years, commencing July 1 of each odd-numbered year.

5 The commission shall promptly certify the names and addresses of appointees to the clerk of the district court and to the chief judge of the judicial district. The clerk of the district court shall certify to the state court administrator the names and addresses of these appointees.

6 Before assuming office, a magistrate shall subscribe and file in the office of the state court administrator the oath of office specified in section 63.6.

7 Annually, the state court administrator shall cause a school of instruction to be conducted for magistrates, and each magistrate shall attend prior to the time of taking office unless excused by the chief justice for good cause. A magistrate appointed to fill a vacancy shall attend the first school of instruction that is held following the appointment, unless excused by the chief justice for good cause.

83 Acts, ch 186, §7403, 10201

§602.6404 Qualifications.

1 A magistrate shall be an elector of the county of appointment during the magistrate’s term of office. A magistrate shall serve within the judicial district in which appointed, as directed by the chief judge, provided that the chief judge may assign a magistrate to hold court outside of the county of the magistrate’s residence only if it is necessary for the orderly administration of justice. A magistrate is subject to reassignment under section 602.6108.

2 A person is not qualified for appointment as a magistrate unless the person can complete the entire term of office prior to reaching age seventy-two.

3 A person is not required to be admitted to the practice of law in this state as a condition of being appointed to the office of magistrate, but the magistrate appointing commission shall first consider applicants who are admitted to practice law in this state when selecting persons for the office of magistrate.

83 Acts, ch 186, §7404, 10201

§602.6405 Jurisdiction — procedure.

1 Magistrates have jurisdiction of simple misdemeanors, including traffic and ordinance violations, and preliminary hearings, search warrant proceedings, and small claims. They also have jurisdiction to exercise the powers specified in sections 644.2 and 644.12, and to hear complaints or preliminary informations, issue warrants, order arrests, make commitments, and take bail. They also have jurisdiction over violations of section 123.47 and section 123.49, subsection 2, paragraph “h.”

2 The criminal procedure before magistrates is as provided in chapters 804, 806, 808, 811, 820 and 821 and rules of criminal procedure 1, 2, 5, 7, 8, and 32 to 56. The civil procedure before magistrates shall be as provided in chapters 631 and 648.

83 Acts, ch 186, §7405, 10201, 84 Acts, ch 1275, §7

PART 5

MAGISTRATE APPOINTING COMMISSIONS

§602.6501 Composition of county magistrate appointing commissions.

1 A magistrate appointing commission is established in each county. The commission shall be composed of the following members:

a. A district judge designated by the chief judge of the judicial district to serve until a successor is designated.

b. Three members appointed by the board of supervisors, or the lesser number provided in section 602.6503, subsection 1.

c. Two attorneys elected by the attorneys in the county, or the lesser number provided in section 602.6504, subsection 1.

2 The clerk of the district court shall maintain a permanent record of the name, address, and term of office of each commissioner.

3 A member of a magistrate appointing commission shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses reasonably incurred in the performance of official duties. Reimbursements are payable by the county in which the member serves, upon certification of the expenses to the county auditor by the clerk of the district court. The district judges of each judicial district may prescribe rules for the administration of this subsection.

83 Acts, ch 186, §7501, 10201, 84 Acts, ch 1219, §36

§602.6502 Member of commission not to be appointed to office.

A member of a county magistrate appointing commission shall not be appointed to the office of magistrate, and shall not be nominated for or appointed to the office of district associate judge.

83 Acts, ch 186, §7502, 10201

§602.6503 Commissioners appointed by a county.

1 The board of supervisors of each county shall appoint three members to the magistrate appointing commission for the county for six-year terms beginning January 1, 1979 and each sixth year thereafter. However, if there is only one attorney elected pursuant to section 602.6504, the board of supervisors shall only appoint two commissioners, and if no attorney is elected, the board of supervisors shall only appoint one commissioner.

2 The board of supervisors shall not appoint an attorney or an active law enforcement officer to serve as a commissioner.

3 The county auditor shall certify to the clerk of the district court the name, address, and expiration date of term for all appointees of the board of supervisors.

83 Acts, ch 186, §7503, 10201

§602.6504 Commissioners elected by attorneys.

1 The resident attorneys of each county shall elect two resident attorneys of the county to the magistrate appointing commission for six-year terms beginning on January 1, 1979, and each sixth year thereafter. An election shall be held in December preceding the commencement of new terms. The attorneys in a county may elect only one commissioner if there is only one who is qualified and willing to serve and if there are no resident attorneys in a county or none is willing to serve as a commissioner, none shall be elected.
2 A county attorney shall not be elected to the commission
3 An attorney is eligible to vote in elections of magistrate appointing commissioners within a county if eligible to vote under sections 46.7 and 46.8, and if a resident of the county
4 In order to be placed on the ballot for county magistrate appointing commission, an eligible attorney elector shall file a nomination petition in the office of the clerk of court on or before November 30 of the year in which the election for attorney positions is to occur. This subsection does not preclude write in votes at the time of the election
5 When an election of magistrate appointing commissioners is to be held, the clerk of the district court for each county shall cause to be mailed to each eligible attorney a ballot that is in substantially the following form

BALLOT

County Magistrate Appointing Commission

To be cast by the resident members of the bar of county

Vote for (state number) for county judicial magistrate appointing commissioner(s) for term commencing

To be counted, this ballot must be completed and mailed or delivered to clerk of the district court, no later than December 31, 19__

(Or the appropriate date in case of an election to fill a vacancy)

83 Acts, ch 186, §7504, 10201, 86 Acts, ch 1119, §3

§602.6505 Vacancy.

A vacancy in the office of magistrate appointing commissioner shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as the original appointment was made

83 Acts, ch 186, §7505, 10201

PART 6

DISTRICT COURT ADMINISTRATION

§602.6601 Court attendants.

1 The district court administrator of each judicial district shall employ and supervise court attendants as authorized by the chief judge
2 A court attendant shall assist judicial officers during proceedings in court and shall perform other duties as prescribed by the supreme court or by the chief judge of the judicial district

83 Acts, ch 186, §7601, 10201

§602.6602 Referees and special masters.

A person who is appointed as a referee or special master, or who otherwise is appointed by a court pursuant to law or court rule to exercise a judicial function, is subject to the supervision of the judicial officer making the appointment

83 Acts, ch 186, §7602, 10201

§602.6603 Court reporters.

1 Each district judge shall appoint a court reporter who shall, upon the request of a party in a civil or criminal case, report the evidence and proceedings in the case, and perform all duties as provided by law
2 Each district associate judge may appoint a court reporter, subject to the approval of the chief judge of the judicial district
3 If a district judge determines that it is necessary to employ an additional court reporter because of an extraordinary volume of work, or because of the temporary illness or incapacity of a regular court reporter, the district judge may appoint a temporary court reporter who shall serve as required by the district judge
4 If a regularly appointed court reporter becomes disabled, or if a vacancy occurs in a regularly appointed court reporter position, the judge may appoint a competent uncertified shorthand reporter for a period of time of up to six months, upon verification by the chief judge that a diligent but unsuccessful search has been conducted to appoint a certified shorthand reporter to the position and, in a disability case, that the regularly appointed court reporter is disabled. An uncertified shorthand reporter shall not be reappointed to the position unless the reporter becomes a certified shorthand reporter within the period of appointment under this subsection.
5 Except as provided in subsection 4, a person shall not be appointed to the position of court reporter of the district court unless the person has been certified as a shorthand reporter by the board of examiners under article 3
6 Each court reporter shall take an oath faithfully to perform the duties of office, which shall be filed in the office of the clerk of district court
7 A court reporter may be removed for cause with due process by the judicial officer making the appointment
8 If a judge dies, resigs, retires, is removed from office, becomes disabled, or fails to be retained in office and the judicial vacancy is eligible to be filled, a court reporter appointed by the judge is entitled to serve as a court reporter, as directed by the chief judge or the chief judge's designee, until the successor judge appoints a successor court reporter. The court reporter shall be paid the reporter's regular salary during the period of time until a successor court reporter is appointed or until the currently appointed court reporter is reappointed

§602.6604 Dockets.

1 The clerk of the district court shall furnish a magistrate, district associate judge, or district judge acting as a magistrate, with a docket in which the officer shall enter all proceedings except small claims. The docket shall be indexed and shall contain for each case the title and nature of the action, the place of hearing, appearances, and notations of the documents filed with the judicial officer, the proceedings in the case and orders made, the verdict and judgment including costs, any satisfaction of the judgment, wheth er the judgment was certified to the clerk of the district court, whether an appeal was taken, and the amount of any appeal bond.

2 The judge of a judicial district may order that criminal proceedings which are within the jurisdiction of magistrates and district associate judges be combined into centralized dockets for the county if the chief judge determines that administration could be improved by this procedure. When so ordered, a centralized docket shall be maintained in lieu of individual dockets, and the clerk of the district court shall compile a centralized docket in the manner prescribed for an individual docket. The chief judge may assign actions and proceedings on centralized dockets to judicial officers having jurisdiction as the chief judge deems necessary.

602.6605 Funds, reports.

Each magistrate, and each district associate judge and district judge acting as a magistrate, shall file once each month with the clerk of the district court an itemized statement of all cases disposed of and all funds received and disbursed per case, and at least monthly shall remit all funds received to the clerk. The clerk shall provide adequate clerical assistance to judicial officers to carry out this section.

83 Acts, ch 186, §7605, 10201

602.6606 Administrative reports.

Each magistrate, and each district associate judge and district judge acting as a magistrate, shall report all judicial business handled to the clerk of the district court and to the chief judge of the judicial district. Reports shall be in the form and filed at the times prescribed by the state court administrator. The administrator may require the clerk to forward copies of individual reports or require a consolidated report for the county.

83 Acts, ch 186, §7606, 10201

602.6607 Control of records — vacancies.

Whenever a magistrate, or a district associate judge or district judge acting as a magistrate, leaves office, all funds, dockets, and records relating to the vacated office shall be delivered by the judicial officer to the clerk who issued the docket.

83 Acts, ch 186, §7607, 10201

PART 7
SPECIAL PROVISIONS

602.6701 Circuit court records.

1 The district court shall succeed to and have jurisdiction over the records of the circuit court, and may enforce all judgments, decrees, and orders of the circuit court in the same manner and to the same extent as it exercises jurisdiction over its own records.

2 Transcripts and process from the judgments, decrees, and records of the circuit court shall be issued by the clerk of the district court, and under the seal of the clerk’s office.

83 Acts, ch 186, §7701, 10201

602.6702 Counties bordering on Missouri river.

The jurisdiction of the courts of the state in all civil and criminal actions and proceedings, shall extend in counties bordering on the Missouri river to the boundary of the state as provided in the compact with the state of Nebraska, and to all lands and territory lying along the river which have been adjudged by the United States supreme court or the supreme court of this state to be within the state of Iowa, and to the other lands and territory along the river over which the courts of this state have exercised jurisdiction.

602.8104 Records and books.

1 The records of the court consist of the original papers filed in all proceedings.
2 The following books shall be kept by the clerk:
   a A record book which contains the entries of the proceedings of the court and which has an index referring to each proceeding in each cause under the names of the parties, both plaintiff and defendant, and under the name of each person named in either party.
   b A judgment docket which contains an abstract of the judgments having separate columns for the names of the parties, the date of the judgment, the damages recovered, costs, the date of the issuance and return of executions, the entry of satisfaction, and other memoranda. The docket shall have an index containing the information specified in paragraph "a".

3 Other than as specified in paragraphs "a" through "c", a fee book in which is listed in detail the costs and fees in each action or proceeding under the title of the action or proceeding. The fee book shall also have an index containing the information specified in paragraph "a".
4 A sale book in which the following matters relating to a judgment under which real property is sold, are entered after the return of execution:
   (1) The title of the action.
   (2) The date of judgment.
   (3) The amount of damages recovered.
   (4) The total amount of costs.
   (5) The officer's return in full. The sale book shall have an index containing the information specified in paragraph "a".
5 An encumbrance book in which the sheriff shall enter a statement of the levy of each attachment on real estate.
6 An appearance docket in which the titles of all actions or special proceedings shall be entered. The actions or proceedings shall be numbered consecutively in the order in which they commence and shall include the full names of the parties, plaintiffs and defendants, as contained in the petition or as subsequently made parties by a pleading, proceeding, or order. The entries provided for in this paragraph and paragraphs "b" and "c" may be combined in one book, the combination docket, which shall also have an index containing the information specified in paragraph "a".
7 A lien book in which an index of all liens in the court are kept.
8 A record of official bonds as provided in section 64 24.
9 A cemetery record as provided in section 566 4.
10 A hospital lien docket as provided in section 582 4.
11 A marriage license book as provided in section 595 6.
12 A book of surety company certificates and rejections as provided in section 682 13.
13 A book in which the deposits of funds, money, and securities kept by the clerk are recorded as provided in section 682 27.

§602.8104 General powers

The clerk may:
1 Administer oaths and take affirmations as provided in section 78 1.
2 Reproduce original records of the court by any reasonably permanent legible means including, but not limited to, reproduction by photography, photostatting, microfilming, and computer cards. The reproduction shall include proper indexing. The reproduced record has the same authenticity as the original record.
3 After the original record is reproduced and after approval of a majority of the judges of the district court by court order, destroy the original records in cluding, but not limited to, docket, journals, scrapbooks, files, and marriage license applications. The order shall state the specific records which are to be destroyed. An original court file shall not be destroyed until after ten years from the date a decree or judgment is signed and entered of record and after the contents have been reproduced, but if the matter is dismissed with prejudice before judgment or decree, the original file may be destroyed one year from the date of the dismissal and after its reproduction is authorized and completed as provided in this subsection. As used in this subsection and subsection 4, "destroy" includes the transmission of the original records which are of general historical interest to any recognized historical society or association.
4 Destroy the following original records without prior court order or reproduction except as otherwise provided in this subsection:
   a Records including, but not limited to, docket, journals, scrapbooks, and files including court reporters' notes, forty years after final disposition of the case. However, judgments, decrees, stipulations, records in criminal proceedings, probate records, and orders of court shall not be destroyed unless they have been reproduced as provided in this subsection.
   b Administration records, after five years, including, but not limited to, warrants, subpoenas, clerks' certificates, statements, praecipes, and depositions.
   c Records, docket, and court files of civil and criminal actions heard in the municipal court which were transferred to the clerk, other than juvenile and adoption proceedings, after a period of twenty years from the date of filing of the actions.
   d Original court files on dissolutions of marriage, one year after dismissal by the parties or under RCP 215, IA Ct Rules, 2nd ed.
   e Small claims files, one year after dismissal with or without prejudice.
   f Uniform traffic citations in the magistrate court or traffic and scheduled violations office, one year after final disposition.
5 Invest money which is paid to the clerk to be paid to any other person in a savings account of a supervised financial organization as defined in section 537 1301, subsection 41, except a credit union operating pursuant to chapter 533. The provisions of chapter 453 relating to the deposit and investment of public funds apply to the deposit and investment of the money except that a supervised financial organization other than a credit union may be designated as a depository and the money shall be available upon demand. The interest earnings shall be paid into the general fund of the state, except as otherwise provided by law.
83 Acts, ch 186, §9103, 10201.
See article 11 of this chapter and Temporary Court Transition Rule 6 19.
602.8105 Fees — collection and disposition.

1. The clerk shall collect the following fees:
   - For filing and docketing a petition other than for modification of a dissolution decree filed within one hundred eighty days of the date of the entering of the dissolution decree, or an appeal or writ of error, thirty five dollars. Four dollars of the fee shall be deposited in the court revenue distribution account established under section 602 8108, and thirty one dollars of the fee shall be deposited in the judicial retirement fund established in section 602 9104 to be used to pay retirement benefits of the judicial retirement system, and the remainder shall be deposited in the general fund of the state. In counties having a population of one hundred thousand or over, an additional five dollars shall be charged and collected, to be known as the journal publication fee and used for the purposes provided for in section 618 13.
   - For payment in advance of various services and docketing procedures, excluding those for small claims actions and small claims actions on appeal and simple misdemeanor actions and simple misdemeanor actions on appeal, twenty five dollars.
   - In small claims actions, in addition to the filing fee specified in section 631 6, the following fees shall be charged for the following services:
     1. For a cause tried by the court, two dollars and fifty cents.
     2. For an equity case, three dollars.
     3. For an injunction or other extraordinary process or order, five dollars.
     4. For a cause continued on application of a party by affidavit, two dollars.
     5. For a continuance, one dollar.
     6. For entering a final judgment or decree, one dollar and fifty cents.
     7. For taxing costs, one dollar.
     8. For issuing an execution or other process after judgment or decree, two dollars.
     9. For filing and docketing a transcript of judgment from another county, one dollar.
     10. For entering a rule or order, one dollar.
     11. For issuing a writ or order, not including subpoenas, two dollars.
     12. For entering a judgment by confession, two dollars.
     13. For entering a satisfaction of a judgment, one dollar.
     14. For a copy of records or papers filed in the clerk's office, transcripts, and making a complete record, fifty cents for each one hundred words.
     15. For taking and approving a bond and sureties on the bond, two dollars.
   - For filing, entering, and endorsing a mechanic's lien, three dollars, and if a suit is brought, the fee is taxable as other costs in the action.
   - For filing and entering an agricultural supply dealer's lien, three dollars.
   - For filing and entering any statutory lien not specifically enumerated in this section, three dollars.
   - For a certificate and seal, two dollars.
   - For receiving and filing a declaration of intention and issuing a duplicate, two dollars.
   - For making, filing, and docketing the petition of an alien for admission as a citizen of the United States and for the final hearing, four dollars, and for entering the final order and the issuance of the certificate of citizenship, if granted, four dollars.
   - In addition to the fees required in paragraph "h", the petitioner shall, upon the filing of a petition to become a citizen of the United States, deposit with the clerk money sufficient to cover the expense of subpoena and paying the legal fees of witnesses for whom the petitioner may request a subpoena, and upon the final discharge of the witnesses they shall receive, if they demand them from the clerk, the customary and usual witness fees from the moneys collected, and the residue, if any, except the amount necessary to pay the cost of serving the subpoenas, shall be returned by the clerk to the petitioner.
   - For a certificate and seal to an application to procure a pension, bounty, or back pay for a soldier or other person, no charge.
   - For making out a transcript in a criminal case appealed to the supreme court, for each one hundred words, fifty cents.
   - In criminal cases, the same fees for the same services as in civil cases, to be paid by the county or city, which has the duty to prosecute the criminal action, payable as provided in section 602 8109. When judgment is rendered against the defendant, costs collected from the defendant shall be paid to the county or city which has the duty to prosecute the criminal action to the extent necessary for reimbursement for fees paid. However, the fees which are payable by the county to the clerk of the district court for services rendered in criminal actions prosecuted under state law and the court costs taxed in connection with the trial of those criminal actions or appeals from the judgments in those criminal actions are waived.
   - For issuing a marriage license, fifteen dollars. The clerk of the district court shall remit to the treasurer of state five dollars for each marriage license issued. The treasurer of state shall deposit the funds received in the general fund of the state. For issuing an application for an order of the district court authorizing the issuance of a license to marry prior to the expiration of three days from the date of filing the application for the license, five dollars.
   - For entering a final decree of dissolution of marriage, fifteen dollars. The fees shall be deposited in the general fund of the state. It is the intent of the general assembly that the funds generated from the dissolution fees be appropriated and used for sexual assault and domestic violence centers.
   - For certifying a change in title of real estate, two dollars.
   - In addition to all other fees, for making a complete record in cases where a complete record is required by law or directed by an order of the court, for every one hundred words, twenty cents.
   - For providing transcripts, certificates, other documents, and services in probate matters, the fees specified in section 633 31.
   - The jury fee and court reporter fee specified in chapter 625.
   - For filing and docketing a transcript of judgment from another county, two dollars.
   - For entering a judgment by confession, two dollars.
u Other fees provided by law
2 The fees collected by the clerk as provided in subsection 1 shall be deposited in the court revenue distribution account established under section 602.8108, except as otherwise provided by that section or by applicable law
3 The clerk shall keep an accurate record of the fees collected in a fee book, and make a quarterly report of the fees collected to the supreme court
4 The clerk shall pay to the treasurer of state on the first Monday which is not a holiday in January and July of each year all fees which have come into the clerk's possession since the date of the preceding payment, which do not belong to the clerk's office, and which are unclaimed. The clerk shall give the treasurer the title of the cause and style of the court in which the suit is pending, the names of the witnesses, jurors, officers, or other persons involved in the action, and the amount of money to which each of the persons is entitled. The treasurer of state shall deposit the funds in the general fund of the state as state revenue, provided that fees so deposited shall be paid to the persons entitled to them upon proper and timely demand. If payment of a fee is demanded, with proper proof, by the person entitled to it within five years from the date that the money is paid to the treasurer, the director of revenue and finance shall issue a warrant to pay the claim. If a person entitled to unclaimed fees does not demand payment within the five years, all rights to the fees or interest in the fees are waived and payment shall not be made.

602.9104 Deductions from judges' salaries — contributions by state.

1 A judge to whom this article applies, shall be paid an amount equal to ninety six percent of the basic salary of the judge as set by the general assembly. An amount equal to four percent of the basic salary of the judge as set by the general assembly is designated as the judge's contribution to the judicial retirement fund, and shall be paid by the state in the manner provided in subsection 2.

2 The amount designated in subsection 1 as the judge's contribution to the judicial retirement fund shall be paid by the department of revenue and finance from the general fund of the state to the court administrator for deposit with the treasurer of state to the credit of the judicial retirement fund. Moneys in the fund are appropriated for the payment of annuities, refunds, and allowances provided by this article, except that the amount of the appropriations affecting payment of annuities, refunds, and allowances to judges of the municipal and superior court is limited to that part of the fund accumulated for their benefit as provided in this article. The corpus and income of the fund shall be used only for the exclusive benefit of the judges covered under this article or their survivors.

3 A judge covered under this article is deemed to consent to the reduction in basic salary as provided in subsection 1.

4 The state shall contribute an amount equal to three percent of the basic salary of all judges covered under this article, or such sums as may be necessary over the amount contributed by the judges to finance the system, but only to the extent that the system applies to them.

602.9106 Retirement.

Any person who shall have become separated from service as a judge of any of the courts included in this article and who has had an aggregate of at least six years of service as a judge of one or more of such courts and shall have attained the age of sixty five years or who has had twenty years of consecutive service as a judge of one or more of said courts, and who shall have otherwise qualified as provided in this article, shall be entitled to an annuity as hereinafter provided:

1 Transferred from section 605A 6 Code 1983

602.9107 Amount of annuity.

1 The annual annuity of a judge under this system is an amount equal to three percent of the judge's average annual basic salary for the judge's last three years as a judge of one or more of the courts included in this article, multiplied by the judge's years of service as a judge of one or more of the courts for which contributions were made to the system. However, an annual annuity shall not exceed an amount equal to fifty percent of the basic annual salary which the judge is receiving at the time the judge becomes separated from service. Forfeitures shall not be used to increase the annuities a judge or survivor would otherwise receive under the system.

2 A judge shall not receive under this article in any calendar year an annuity benefit which, if received in the form of a straight life annuity with no ancillary benefits, exceeds the lesser of the following:

   a A dollar limitation of ninety thousand dollars adjusted each January 1 to the dollar limitation determined by the federal commissioner of internal revenue pursuant to section 415(d) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

   b A compensation limit of one hundred percent of the average compensation paid to the judge during those three consecutive calendar years as a judge of one or more of the courts included in this article which give the highest average.

The limitations of this subsection do not apply to an annuity benefit which is less than ten thousand dollars.

3 The limitations in subsection 2 shall be adjusted as follows:

   a If the annuity begins prior to the sixty second birthday of the judge, the dollar limitation shall be equal to an annual annuity benefit which is equal to the actuarial equivalent of an annuity benefit commencing on the sixty second birthday of the judge, but not below seventy five thousand dollars.

   b If the annuity begins after the sixty fifth birthday of the judge, the dollar limitation shall be equal to an annual annuity benefit which is the actuarial equivalent of an annuity benefit commencing on the sixty fifth birthday of the judge.

   c If the annuity begins prior to the judge having ten years of creditable service, the dollar limitation, the one hundred percent of average compensation limitation, and the exception for an annuity benefit which is less than ten thousand dollars, shall be reduced by a fraction, the numerator of which is the total years and months of creditable service, and the denominator of which is ten.

For purposes of the limitations of this subsection, the actuarial equivalent shall be determined from actuarial tables using the 1983 group annuity table for males and five percent interest compounded annually. The value of the joint and survivorship feature of an annuity shall not be taken into account in applying the limitations of this section.

4 This section is intended to meet the requirements of section 415 of the United States Internal Revenue Code and shall be construed in accordance with that section, and shall, by this reference, incorporate any subsequent changes to that section which apply to the judicial retirement system.

602.9110 Other public employment prohibited.

No annuity shall be paid to any person, except a... survivor, entitled to receive an annuity hereunder while the person is serving as a state officer or employee.

However, this section does not prohibit the payment of an annuity to a senior judge while serving as provided in section 602.9206.

§602.9110 Transferred from section 605A.10, Code 1983

602.9111 Investment of fund.
So much of the judicial retirement fund as may not be necessary to be kept on hand for the making of disbursements under this article shall be invested by the treasurer of state in bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued, assumed, or guaranteed by the United States of America, or by any agency or instrumentality thereof or in any investments authorized for the Iowa public employees' retirement system in section 97B.7, subsection 2, paragraph "b", and the earnings therefrom shall be credited to said fund.

Investment management expenses shall be charged to the investment income of the fund and there is appropriated from the fund an amount required for the investment management expenses. The court administrator shall report the investment management expenses for the fiscal year as a percent of the market value of the system.

602.9112 Voluntary retirement for disability.
Any judge of the supreme, district or municipal court, including a district associate judge, or a judge of the court of appeals, who shall have served as a judge of one or more of such courts for a period of six years in the aggregate and who believes the judge has become permanently incapacitated, physically or mentally, to perform the duties of the judge's office may personally or by the judge's next friend or guardian file with the court administrator a written application for retirement. The application shall be filed in duplicate and accompanied by an affidavit as to the duration and particulars of the judge's service and the nature of the judge's incapacity. The court administrator shall forthwith transmit one copy of the application and affidavit to the chief justice who shall request the attorney general in writing to cause an investigation to be made relative to the claimed incapacity and report back the results thereof in writing. If the chief justice finds from the report of the attorney general that the applicant is permanently incapacitated, physically or mentally, to perform the duties of the applicant's office the chief justice shall by endorsement thereon declare the applicant retired, and the office vacant, and shall file the report in the office of the court administrator, and a copy in the office of the secretary of state. From the date of such filing the applicant shall be deemed retired from the applicant's office and entitled to the benefits of this article to the same extent as if the applicant had retired under the provisions of section 602.9106.

Transferred from section 605A 13, Code 1984

602.9114 Forfeiture of benefits — refund.
If a judge covered under this part is removed for cause other than permanent disability the judge and the judge's survivor shall forfeit the right to any retirement benefits under the system but the total amount in the judge's individual account shall be returned to the judge or the judge's legal representatives within one year of the removal.

602.9115 Annuity for survivor of annuitant.
The survivor of a judge who was qualified for retirement compensation under the system at the time of the judge's death, is entitled to receive an annuity of one-half of the amount of the annuity the judge was receiving or would have been entitled to receive at the time of the judge's death, or if the judge died before age sixty-five, then one-half of the amount the judge would have been entitled to receive at age sixty-five based on the judge's years of service for which contributions were made to the system. The annuity shall begin on the judge's death or upon the survivor's reaching age sixty, whichever is later. However, a survivor less than sixty years old may elect to receive a decreased retirement annuity to begin on the judge's death by filing a written election with the state court administrator. The election is subject to the approval of the state court administrator. The amount of the decreased retirement annuity shall be the actuarial equivalent of the amount of the annuity otherwise payable to the survivor under this section.

For the purposes of this article "survivor" means the surviving spouse of a person who was a judge, if married to the judge for at least one year preceding the judge's death.

If the judge dies leaving a survivor but without receiving in annuities an amount equal to the judge's credit, the balance shall be credited to the account of the judge's survivor, and if the survivor dies without receiving in annuities an amount equal to the balance, the amount remaining shall be paid to the survivor's legal representatives within one year of the survivor's death.

602.9115A Optional annuity for judge and survivor.
In lieu of the annuities and refunds provided for judges and judges' survivors under sections 602.9107, 602.9108, 602.9115, 602.9204, 602.9208, and 602.9209, judges may elect to receive an optional retirement annuity during the judge's lifetime and have the optional retirement annuity, or a designated fraction of the optional retirement annuity, continued and paid to the judge's survivor after the judge's death and during the lifetime of the survivor.

The judge shall make the election request in writing to the state court administrator prior to retirement.
The election is subject to the approval of the state court administrator. The judge may revoke the election prior to retirement by written request to the state court administrator but cannot revoke the election after retirement.

The optional retirement annuity shall be the actuarial equivalent of the amounts of the annuities payable to judges and survivors under sections 602.9107, 602.9115, 602.9204, 602.9208, and 602.9209. The actuarial equivalent shall be based on the mortality and interest assumptions set out in section 602.9107, subsection 3.

If the judge dies without a survivor, prior to retirement or prior to receipt in annuities of an amount equal to the total amount remaining to the judge's credit at the time of separation from service, the election is null and void and the refunding provisions of section 602.9108 apply.

If the judge dies with a survivor prior to retirement, the election remains valid and the survivor is entitled to receive the annuity beginning at the death of the judge.

If the judge dies with a survivor and the survivor subsequently dies prior to receipt in annuities by both the judge and the survivor of an amount equal to the total amount remaining to the judge's credit at the time of separation from service, the election remains valid and the refunding provision of section 602.9115 applies.

602.9116 Actuarial valuation.

The court administrator shall cause an actuarial valuation to be made of the assets and liabilities of the judicial retirement fund at least once every four years commencing with the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1981. The court administrator shall adopt mortality tables and other necessary factors for use in the actuarial calculations required for the valuation upon the recommendation of the actuary. Following the actuarial valuation, the court administrator shall determine the condition of the system and shall report its findings and recommendations to the general assembly.

The cost of the actuarial valuation shall be paid from the judicial retirement fund.

PART 2

IOWA SENIOR JUDGE ACT

602.9201 Short title.

This part may be cited and referred to as the Iowa senior judge Act.

602.9202 Definitions.

As used in this part unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Senior judge" means a supreme court judge, court of appeals judge, district court judge or district associate judge who meets all of the following requirements:
   a. Has not been or removed from the roster of senior judges under sections 602.9207 or 602.9208;
   b. Has been retired from office on or after July 1, 1977;
   c. Has not engaged in the practice of law after retirement.

2. "Retired senior judge" means a senior judge who has been retired from a senior judgeship as provided in section 602.9207.

3. "Roster of senior judges" means the roster maintained by the clerk of the supreme court under section 602.9203, subsection 3.

4. "Twelve month period" means each successive one year period commencing on the date a retired judge becomes a senior judge and while the judge continues to be a senior judge.

[C81, §605A 22] Transferred from section 605A 22 Code 1983

602.9203 Senior judgeship requirements.

1. A supreme court judge, court of appeals judge, district judge or district associate judge, who qualifies under subsection 2 may become a senior judge by filing with the clerk of the supreme court a written election in the form specified by the court administrator. The election shall be filed within six months of the date of retirement.

2. A judicial officer referred to in subsection 1 qualifies for a senior judgeship if the judicial officer meets all of the following requirements:
   a. Retires from office on or after July 1, 1977, whether or not the judicial officer is of mandatory retirement age.
   b. Meets the minimum requirements for entitlement to an annuity as specified in section 602.9106.
   c. Agrees in writing on a form prescribed by the court administrator to be available as long as the judicial officer is a senior judge to perform judicial duties as assigned by the supreme court for an aggregate period of thirteen weeks out of each successive twelve month period.
   d. Submits evidence to the satisfaction of the supreme court that as of the date of retirement the judicial officer does not suffer from a permanent physical or mental disability which would substantially interfere with the performance of duties agreed to under paragraph "c" of this subsection.
   e. Submits evidence to the satisfaction of the supreme court that since the date of retirement the judicial officer has not engaged in the practice of law.

3. The clerk of the supreme court shall maintain a book entitled "Roster of Senior Judges", and shall enter in the book the name of each judicial officer who files a timely election under subsection 1 and qualifies under subsection 2. A person shall be a senior judge upon entry of the person's name in the roster of senior judges and until the person becomes a retired senior judge as provided in section 602.9207, or until the person's name is stricken from the roster of senior judges as provided in section 602.9208, or until the person dies.

4. The supreme court shall cause each senior judge on the roster to actually perform judicial duties during each successive twelve month period.

5. A judicial officer referred to in subsection 1 who retired from office on or after the date specified in subsection 2 and before July 1, 1979, may become a senior judge by filing with the clerk of court not later than thirty days after July 1, 1979, a written election in the form specified by the court administrator. If prior to July 1, 1979, the judicial officer filed an election to practice law under section 602.1612, the filing of an election under this subsection revokes the election.
§602.9203

Annuity of senior judge and retired senior judge.

A senior judge or a retired senior judge shall not be paid a salary. A senior judge or retired senior judge shall be paid an annuity under the judicial retirement system in the manner provided in section 602.9109, but computed under this section in lieu of section 602.9107, as follows: The annuity paid to a senior judge or retired senior judge shall be an amount equal to three percent of the current basic salary, as of the time each payment is made, of the office in which the senior judge last served as a judge before retirement as a judge or senior judge, multiplied by the judge's years of service prior to retirement as a judge of one or more of the courts included under this article, for which contributions were made to the system, except the annuity of the senior judge or retired senior judge shall not exceed fifty percent of the current basic salary.

Practice of law prohibited.

A senior judge shall not practice law.

[C81, §605A.25]
Transferred from section 605A 25, Code 1983

Temporary service by senior judge.

Section 602.1612 does not apply to a senior judge but does apply to a retired senior judge. During the tenure of a senior judge, if the judge is able to serve, the judge may be assigned by the supreme court to temporary judicial duties on courts of this state without salary for an aggregate of thirteen weeks out of each twelve-month period, and for additional weeks with the judge's consent. A senior judge shall not be assigned to judicial duties on a court superior to the highest court to which the judge was appointed prior to retirement, and shall not be assigned to the court of appeals or the supreme court except to serve in the temporary absence of a member of that court. While serving on temporary assignment, a senior judge has and may exercise all of the authority of the office to which the judge is assigned, shall continue to be paid the judge's annuity as senior judge, shall be reimbursed for the judge's actual expenses to the extent expenses of a district judge are reimbursable under section 602.1509, may, if permitted by the assignment order, appoint a temporary court reporter, who shall be paid the remuneration and reimbursement for actual expenses provided by law for a reporter in the court to which the senior judge is assigned, and, if assigned to the court of appeals or the supreme court, shall be given the assistance of a law clerk and a secretary designated by the court administrator of the judicial department from the court administrator's staff. Each order of temporary assignment shall be filed with the clerks of court at the places where the senior judge is to serve.

A senior judge also shall be available to serve in the capacity of administrative hearing officer under chapter 17A upon the request of an agency, and the supreme court may assign a senior judge for temporary duties as a hearing officer. A senior judge shall not be required to serve a period of time as a hearing officer which, when added to the period of time being served by the person as a judge, if any, would exceed the maximum period of time the person agreed to serve pursuant to section 602.9203, subsection 2.

[C81, §605A.26]
Transferred from section 605A 26, Code 1983

Retirement of senior judge.

1. A senior judge shall cease to be a senior judge upon completion of the twelve-month period during which the judge attains seventy-eight years of age. The clerk of the supreme court shall make a notation of the retirement of a senior judge in the roster of senior judges, at which time the senior judge shall become a retired senior judge.

2. A senior judge is subject to retirement under article 2, part 1 for the causes specified in section 602.2106, subsection 3, paragraph "a". A senior judge may request and be granted retirement in the manner provided in section 602.9112. When a senior judge is retired as provided in this subsection the clerk of the supreme court shall make a notation of the retirement of the senior judge in the roster of senior judges, at which time the senior judge shall become a retired senior judge.

[C81, §605A.27]
Transferred from section 605A 27, Code 1983

Relinquishment of senior judgeship — removal for cause — retirement annuity.

1. A senior judge, at any time prior to the end of the twelve-month period during which the judge attains seventy-eight years of age, may submit to the clerk of the supreme court a written request that the judge's name be stricken from the roster of senior judges. Upon the receipt of the request the clerk shall strike the name of the person from the roster of senior judges, at which time the person shall cease to be a senior judge. A person who relinquishes a senior judgeship as provided in this subsection may be assigned to temporary judicial duties as provided in section 602.1612.

2. A senior judge is subject to removal under the provisions of article 2, part 1 for any of the causes specified in section 602.2106, subsection 3, paragraph "b". When a person is removed from a senior judgeship as provided in this subsection the clerk of the supreme court shall strike the name of the person from the roster of senior judges, at which time the person shall cease to be a senior judge.

3. A person who relinquishes a senior judgeship in the manner provided in subsection 1 shall be paid a retirement annuity that commences on the effective date of the relinquishment and shall be based upon the number of years the person served as a senior judge. A person who serves six or more years as a senior judge shall be paid a retirement annuity that is in an amount equal to the amount of the annuity the person is receiving on the effective date of the relinquishment in lieu of an amount determined according to section 602.9204. If the person serves less than six years as a senior judge, the person shall be paid a retirement annuity that is in an amount equal to an amount determined according to section 602.9207 added to an amount equal to the number of years the person served as a senior judge, divided by six, multiplied by the difference between the amount of the annuity the person is receiving on the effective date of the relinquishment and the amount determined according to section 602.9107. A person who is removed from a senior judgeship as provided in subsection 2 shall be paid a retirement annuity that commences on the effective date of the removal and is in an amount determined according to section 602.9107 in lieu of section 602.9204, and any service and annuity of the person as a senior judge is disregarded.

602.9209 Survivor's annuity.
1. A survivor of a senior judge, a retired senior judge, or a person who relinquished a senior judgeship under section 602.9208, subsection 1, shall be paid an annuity in lieu of that specified in section 602.9115, which is equal to one half the amount of the annuity the senior judge, retired senior judge, or person who relinquished a senior judgeship was receiving at the time of death, provided the survivor is qualified under section 602.9115 to receive an annuity.
2. A survivor of a person whose name is stricken from the roster of senior judges because of removal from a senior judgeship under section 602.9208, subsection 2, shall be paid an annuity equal to one half of the amount the person was receiving at the time of death, provided the survivor is qualified under section 602.9115 to receive an annuity.

602.10103 Board of law examiners.
The board of law examiners shall consist of five persons admitted to practice law in this state and two persons not admitted to practice law in this state who shall represent the general public.

602.10104 Examinations.
Every applicant shall be examined by the board concerning the applicant's learning and skill in the law. The sufficiency of the education of the applicant may be determined by written examination or in such other manner as the board shall prescribe. The board shall hold at least one meeting each year at the seat of government. Examinations shall be given as often as deemed necessary as determined by the court, but shall be conducted at least one time per year. All examinations in theory shall be in writing and the identity of the person taking the examination shall be concealed until after the examination papers have been graded. For examinations in practice, the identity of the person taking the examination shall also be concealed as far as possible.

An applicant who fails the examination once shall be allowed to take the examination at the next scheduled time. Thereafter, the applicant shall be allowed to take the examination at the discretion of the court. An applicant who has failed the examination may request in writing information from the court concerning the applicant's examination grade and subject areas or questions which the applicant failed to answer correctly, except that if the court administers a uniform, standardized examination, the court shall not be required to provide the examination grade and such other information concerning the applicant's examination results which are available to the court.

602.10102 Qualifications for admission.
Every applicant for such admission shall be a person of honesty, integrity, trustworthiness, truthfulness and one who appreciates and will adhere to a code of conduct for lawyers as adopted by the supreme court. The applicant shall be an inhabitant of this state, and shall have actually and in good faith pursued a regular course of study of the law and shall have graduated from some reputable law school. The application form shall not contain a recent photograph of the applicant.

An applicant shall not be ineligible for registration because of age, citizenship, sex, race, religion, marital status or national origin although the application form may require citizenship information. The board may consider the past record of guilty pleas and convictions of public offenses of an applicant. Character references may be required, however, such references shall not be restricted to lawyers.

602.10105 Term of office.

Appointments shall be for three-year terms and shall commence on July 1 of the year in which the appointment is made. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment of the supreme court. Members shall serve no more than three terms or nine years, whichever is less. [S13, §311-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10911; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §610.5]

Transferred from section 610.5, Code 1983

602.10106 Oath — compensation.

The members thus appointed shall take and subscribe an oath to be administered by one of the judges of the supreme court to faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of the office. The members shall, in addition to receiving actual and necessary expenses, set the per diem compensation for themselves and the temporary examiners appointed under section 602.10107 at a rate not exceeding forty dollars per diem for each day actually engaged in the discharge of their duties. Such duties shall include the traveling to and from the place of examination, the preparation and conducting of examinations, and the reading of the examination papers. The per diem authorized under this section shall be reasonably apportioned in relation to the funds appropriated to the board. [S13, §311-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10912; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §610.6]

Transferred from section 610.6, Code 1983

602.10107 Temporary appointments — expenses.

The supreme court may appoint from time to time, when necessary, temporary examiners to assist the board, who shall receive their actual and necessary expenses to be paid from funds appropriated to the board. The members of the board authorized to grade examinations shall make the final decision on passage or failure of each applicant, subject to the rules of the supreme court. The board shall, also, recommend to the supreme court for admission to practice law in this state all applicants who pass the examination and who meet the requisite character requirements. The supreme court shall make the final decision in determining who shall be admitted. [S13, §311-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10913; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §610.7]

Transferred from section 610.7, Code 1983

602.10108 Fees.

The board shall set the fees for examination and for admission. The fees for examination shall be based upon the annual cost of administering the examinations. The fees for admission shall be based upon the costs of conducting an investigation of the applicant and the administrative costs of sustaining the board, which shall include but shall not be limited to:

1. Expenses and travel for board members and temporary examiners.
2. Office facilities, supplies, and equipment.
3. Clerical assistance.

Fees shall be collected by the board and transmitted to the treasurer of state who shall deposit the fees in the general fund of the state. [S13, §311-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10914; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §610.8]

Transferred from section 610.8, Code 1983

602.10109 Practitioners from other states.

Any person who is a resident of this state, and has been admitted to the bar of any other state in the United States or the District of Columbia, may, in the discretion of the court, be admitted to practice in this state without examination or proof of a period of study. The person, in the application for admission to practice law in this state, in addition to all other requirements stated in this chapter, shall establish that the person has practiced law for five full years under license in such jurisdiction within the seven years immediately preceding the date of application and still holds a license to practice law. The teaching of law as a full-time instructor in a recognized law school in this state or some other state shall for the purpose of this section be deemed the practice of law. Any person who has discharged actual legal duties as a member of the armed services of the United States shall be deemed to have practiced law for the purposes of this section if certified to as such by the judge advocate general of the service. The court may charge an investigation fee based upon the cost of conducting the investigation as determined by the court. 602.10112 Duties of attorneys and counselors.

It is the duty of an attorney and counselor:

1. To maintain the respect due to the courts of justice and judicial officers.
2. To counsel or maintain no other actions, proceedings, or defenses than those which appear to the attorney or counselor legal and just, except the defense of a person charged with a public offense.

3. To employ, for the purpose of maintaining the causes confided to the attorney or counselor, such means only as are consistent with truth, and never to seek to mislead the judges by any artifice or false statement of fact or law.

4. To maintain inviolate the confidence, and, at any peril to the attorney or counselor, to preserve the secret of a client.

5. To abstain from all offensive personalities, and to advance no fact prejudicial to the honor or reputation of a party or witness, unless required by the justice of the cause with which the attorney or counselor is charged.

6. Not to encourage either the commencement or continuance of an action or proceeding from any motive of passion or interest.

7. Never to reject for any consideration personal to the attorney or counselor the cause of the defenseless or oppressed.

An attorney and counselor who is guilty of deceit or collusion, or consents thereto, with intent to deceive a court or judge or a party to an action or proceeding, is liable to be disbarred, and shall forfeit to the injured party treble damages to be recovered in a civil action.

602.10114 Authority.

An attorney and counselor has power to:

1. Execute in the name of a client a bond, or other written instrument, necessary and proper for the prosecution of an action or proceeding about to be or already commenced, or for the prosecution or defense of any right growing out of an action, proceeding, or final judgment rendered therein.

2. Bind a client to any agreement, in respect to any proceeding within the scope of the attorney's or counselor's proper duties and powers; but no evidence of any such agreement is receivable, except the statement of the attorney in person, the attorney's or counselor's written agreement signed and filed with the clerk, or an entry thereof upon the records of the court.

3. Receive money claimed by a client in an action or proceeding during the pendency thereof, or afterwards, unless the attorney or counselor has been previously discharged by the client, and, upon payment thereof, and not otherwise, to discharge the claim or acknowledge satisfaction of the judgment.

C51, §1616; R60, §2706; C73, §213; C97, §319; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10922; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §610.16

Transferred from section 610.16, Code 1983

602.10115 Proof of authority.

The court may, on motion of either party and on the showing of reasonable grounds therefor, require the attorney for the adverse party, or for any one of the several adverse parties, to produce or prove by the attorney's own oath, or otherwise, the authority under which the attorney appears, and, until the attorney does so, may stay all proceedings by the attorney on behalf of the parties for whom the attorney assumes to appear.

602.10116 Attorney's lien — notice.

An attorney has a lien for a general balance of compensation upon:

1. Any papers belonging to a client which have come into the attorney's hands in the course of professional employment.

2. Money in the attorney's hands belonging to a client.

3. Money due a client in the hands of the adverse party, or attorney of such party, in an action or proceeding in which the attorney claiming the lien was employed, from the time of giving notice in writing to such adverse party, or attorney of such party, if the money is in the possession or under the control of such attorney, which notice shall state the amount claimed, and, in general terms, for what services.

4. After judgment in any court of record, such notice may be given, and the lien made effective against the judgment debtor, by entering the same in the judgment or combination docket, opposite the entry of the judgment.

602.10119 Unlawful retention of money.

An attorney who receives the money or property of a client in the course of the attorney's professional business, and refuses to pay or deliver it in a reason-602.10120 Excuse for nonpayment.
When the attorney claims to be entitled to a lien upon the money or property, the attorney is not liable to the penalties of section 602.10119 until the person demanding the money proffers sufficient security for the payment of the amount of the attorney's claim, when it is legally ascertained. Nor is the attorney in any case liable as aforesaid, provided the attorney gives sufficient security that the attorney will pay over the whole or any portion thereof to the claimant when the claimant is found entitled thereto.

602.10121 Revocation of license.
The supreme court may revoke or suspend the license of an attorney to practice law in this state.

602.10122 Grounds of revocation.
The following are sufficient causes for revocation or suspension:
1. When the attorney has been convicted of a felony. The record of conviction is conclusive evidence.
2. When the attorney is guilty of a willful disobedience or violation of the order of the court, requiring the attorney to do or forbear an act connected with or in the course of the attorney's profession.
3. A willful violation of any of the duties of an attorney or counselor as hereinbefore prescribed.
4. Doing any other act to which such a consequence is by law attached.
5. Soliciting legal business for the attorney or office, either by the attorney or representative. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent or prohibit listing in legal or other directories, law lists and other similar publications, or the publication of professional cards in any such lists, directories, newspapers or other publication.

602.10123 Proceedings.
The proceedings to remove or suspend an attorney may be commenced by the direction of the court or on motion of any individual. In the former case, the court must direct some attorney to draw up the accusation; in the latter, the accusation must be drawn up and sworn to by the person making it.

602.10124 Costs.
If an action is commenced by direction of the court, the costs shall be taxed and disposed of as in criminal cases; provided that no allowance shall be made in such case for the payment of attorney fees.

602.10125 Order for appearance — notice — service.
If the court deems the accusation sufficient to justify further action, it shall cause an order to be entered requiring the accused to appear and answer in the court where the accusation has been filed on the day fixed in the order, and shall cause a copy of the accusation and order to be served upon the accused personally.

602.10126 Copy of accusation — duty of clerk.
The clerk of the district court shall immediately certify to the clerk of the supreme court a copy of the accusation.

602.10127 Notice to attorney general — duty.
Thereupon the chief justice of the supreme court shall notify the attorney general of such accusation and cause a copy thereof to be delivered to the attorney general, and it shall thereupon become the duty of the attorney general to superintend either through the attorney general's office, or through a special assistant to be designated by the attorney general, the prosecution of such charges.

602.10128 Trial court.
The supreme court shall designate three district judges to sit as a court to hear and decide such charges.

602.10129 Time and place of hearing.
The hearing shall be at such time as the chief justice of the supreme court may designate, and shall be held within the county where the accusation was originally filed.

602.10130 Determination of issues.
The determination of all issues shall be heard before the said judges selected by the supreme court as herein provided for.
602.10101 Record and judgment.
The records and judgment at such trial shall constitute a part of the records of the district court in the county in which the accusations are originally filed.
[C27, 31, 35, §10934-8; C39, §10934-7; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §610.33]
Transferred from section 610.33, Code 1983

602.10131 Record and judgment.
The records and judgment at such trial shall constitute a part of the records of the district court in the county in which the accusations are originally filed.
[C27, 31, 35, §10934-8; C39, §10934-7; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §610.33]
Transferred from section 610.33, Code 1983

602.10132 Pleadings — evidence — preservation.
To the accuser, the accused may plead or demur and the issues joined thereon shall in all cases be tried by said judges so selected and all of the evidence at such trial shall be reduced to writing, filed and preserved.
[C51, §1624; R60, §2714; C73, §221; C97, §327; C24, §10934; C27, 31, 35, §10934-8; C39, §10934-8; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §610.34]
Transferred from section 610.34, Code 1983

602.10133 Costs and expenses.
The court costs incident to such proceedings, and the reasonable expense of said judges in attending said hearing after being approved by the supreme court shall be paid as court costs by the executive council.
[C27, 31, 35, §10934-8; C39, §10934-9; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §610.35]
Transferred from section 610.35, Code 1983

602.10134 Plea of guilty or failure to plead.
If the accused plead guilty, or fail to answer, the court shall proceed to render such judgment as the case requires.

Transferred from section 610.36, Code 1983

602.10135 Appeal.
In case of a removal or suspension being ordered, an appeal therefrom lies to the supreme court, to be there considered and finally acted upon. A judgment of acquittal by a court of record is final.
[C51, §1626; R60, §2716; C73, §223; C97, §329; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10936; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §610.37]
Transferred from section 610.37, Code 1983

602.10136 Certification of judgment.
When a judgment has been entered in any court of record in the state revoking or suspending the license of any attorney at law to practice in the said court, the clerk of the court in which the judgment is rendered shall immediately certify to the clerk of the supreme court the order or judgment of the court in said cause.
[S13, §329-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10937; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §610.38]
Transferred from section 610.38, Code 1983

602.10137 Renewals.
The right to practice law in this state shall be renewed in multiyear intervals by the supreme court upon such conditions as the court shall determine. Any moneys received from those persons admitted to practice law and which are designated for a client security fund or similar fund created by the supreme court shall be separately retained and administered by said court in accordance with rules promulgated by it.
[C75, 77, 79, 81, §610.45]
Transferred from section 610.45, Code 1983

602.10138 Client security fund not an insurance company.
A client security fund established by the supreme court is not an insurance company and the insurance laws of this state and the rules of the commissioner of insurance are not applicable to such a client security fund.

ARTICLE 11
TRANSITION PROVISIONS
(Oversee IV of 83 Acts, ch 196)
Possible state delay in assumption, 83 Acts, ch 1246, §405

602.11101 Implementation by court component.
The state shall assume responsibility for components of the court system according to the following schedule:
1. On October 1, 1983 the state shall assume the responsibility for and the costs of jury fees and mileage as provided in section 607A.8 and on July 1, 1984 the state shall assume the responsibility for and the costs of jury fees and mileage assessed against the prosecution in criminal actions prosecuted under state law as provided in sections 622.69 and 622.72.
2. Court reporters shall become court employees on July 1, 1984. The state shall assume the responsibility for and the costs of court reporters on July 1, 1984.

3. Bailiffs who perform services for the court, other than law enforcement services, shall become court employees on January 1, 1985, and shall be called court attendants. The state shall assume the responsibility for and the costs of court attendants on January 1, 1985. Section 602.6601 takes effect on January 1, 1985.

4. Juvenile probation officers shall become court employees on July 1, 1985. The state shall assume the responsibility for and the costs of juvenile probation officers on July 1, 1985.

Until July 1, 1985 the county shall remain responsible for the compensation of and operating costs for juvenile probation officers. Effective July 1, 1985 the state shall assume the responsibility for the compensation of juvenile court referees.

5. Clerks of the district court shall become court employees on July 1, 1986. The state shall assume the responsibility for and the costs of the offices of the clerks of the district court on July 1, 1986. Persons who are holding office as clerks of the district court on July 1, 1986 are entitled to continue to serve in that capacity until the expiration of their respective terms of office. The district judges of a judicial election district shall give first and primary consideration for appointment of a clerk of the district court to serve the court beginning in 1989 to a clerk serving on and after July 1, 1986 until the expiration of the clerk’s elected term of office. A vacancy in the office of clerk of the district court occurring on or after July 1, 1986 shall be filled as provided in section 602.1215.

Until July 1, 1986 the county shall remain responsible for the compensation of and operating costs for court employees not presently designated for state financing and for miscellaneous costs of the judicial department related to furnishings, supplies, and equipment purchased, leased, or maintained for the use of judicial officers, referees, and their staff. Effective July 1, 1986 the state shall assume the responsibility for the compensation of and operating costs for court employees presently designated for state financing and for miscellaneous costs of the judicial department related to furnishings, supplies, and equipment purchased, leased, or maintained for the use of judicial officers, referees, and their staff. However, the county shall at all times remain responsible for the provision of suitable courtrooms, offices, and other physical facilities pursuant to section 602.1303, subsection 1, including paint, wall covering, and fixtures in the facilities.

Until July 1, 1986 the county shall remain responsible for the compensation of and operating costs for probate referees and judicial hospitalization referees and their staffs. Effective July 1, 1986 the state shall assume the responsibility for the compensation of and operating costs for probate referees and judicial hospitalization referees and their staffs.

Until July 1, 1986 the county shall remain responsible for necessary fees and costs related to certain court reporters. Effective July 1, 1986 the state shall assume the responsibility for necessary fees and costs related to certain court reporters.

6. The state shall assume the responsibility for the costs of indigent defense on July 1, 1987. However, an attorney appointed to represent an indigent person pursuant to section 331.777 is not a court employee, as defined in section 602.1101, subsection 5, and the judicial department does not have supervisory power over personnel of public defender offices established pursuant to section 331.776.

7. The county shall remain responsible for the court-ordered costs of conciliation procedures under section 598.16.

For the period beginning July 1, 1983, and ending June 30, 1987, the provisions of division I (articles 1 through 10) take effect only to the extent that the provisions do not conflict with the scheduled state assumption of responsibility for the components of the court system, and the amendments and repeals of divisions II and III take effect only to the extent necessary to implement that scheduled state assumption of responsibility. If an amendment or repeal to a Code section in division II or III is not effective during the period beginning July 1, 1983, and ending June 30, 1987, the Code section remains in effect for that period. On July 1, 1987, this Act* takes effect in its entirety.

However, if the state does not fully assume the costs for a fiscal year of a component of the court system in accordance with the scheduled assumption of responsibility, the state shall not assume responsibility for that component, and the schedule of state assumption of responsibility shall be delayed. The delayed schedule of state assumption of responsibility shall again be followed for the fiscal year in which the state fully assumes the costs of that component. For the fiscal year for which the state’s assumption of the responsibility for a court component is delayed, the clerk of the district court shall not reduce the percentage remittance to the counties from the court revenue distribution account under section 602.8108. The clerk shall resume the delayed schedule of reductions in county remittances for the fiscal year in which the state fully assumes the costs of that component. If the schedules of state assumption of responsibility and reductions in county remittances are delayed, the transition period beginning July 1, 1983, and ending June 30, 1987 is correspondingly lengthened, and this Act* takes effect in its entirety only at the end of the lengthened transition period.

The supreme court shall prescribe temporary rules, prior to the dates on which the state assumes responsibility for the components of the court system, as necessary to implement the administrative and supervisory provisions of this Act*, and as necessary to determine the applicability of specific provisions of this Act* in accordance with the scheduled state assumption of responsibility for the components of the court system.

See Temporary Court Transition Rules, chapter 2, for state assumption of jury and witness fees.

*See 83 Acts, ch 186

Subsection 5, new unnumbered paragraph 4, applies retroactively to July 1, 1983; 85 Acts, ch 197, §48

Counties and supreme court to be notified by February 15, 1987, of possible delay in state assumption of responsibility for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1987; 86 Acts, ch 1246, §46 602.11102 Accrued employee rights.

1 Persons who were paid salaries by the counties or judicial districts immediately prior to becoming state employees as a result of this chapter shall not forfeit accrued vacation, accrued sick leave, or longevity, except as provided in this section.

2 As a part of its rulemaking authority under section 602.11101, the supreme court, after consulting with the state comptroller, shall prescribe rules to provide for the following:

a Each person referred to in subsection 1 shall have to the person's credit as a state employee commencing on the date of becoming a state employee the number of accrued vacation days that was credited to the person as a county employee as of the end of the day prior to becoming a state employee.

b Each person referred to in subsection 1 shall have to the person's credit as a state employee commencing on the date of becoming a state employee the number of accrued days of sick leave that was credited to the person as a county employee as of the end of the day prior to becoming a state employee. However, the number of days of sick leave credited to a person under this subsection and eligible to be taken when sick or eligible to be received upon retirement shall not respectively exceed the maximum number of days, if any, or the maximum dollar amount as provided in section 79.23 that state employees generally are entitled to accrue or receive according to rules in effect as of the date the person becomes a state employee.

c Commencing on the date of becoming a state employee, each person referred to in subsection 1 is entitled to claim the person's most recent continuous period of service in full-time county or judicial district employment as full-time state employment for purposes of determining the number of days of vacation which the person is entitled to earn each year. The actual vacation benefit, including the limitation on the maximum accumulated vacation leave, shall be determined as provided in section 79.1 according to rules in effect for state employees of comparable longevity, irrespective of any greater or lesser benefit as a county employee.

d Notwithstanding paragraphs "b" and "c", for the period beginning July 1, 1984, and ending June 30, 1986, court reporters who become state employees as a result of this chapter are not subject to the sick leave and vacation accrual limitations generally applied to state employees. However, court reporters are subject to the maximum dollar limitation upon retirement as provided in section 79.23.

602.11103 Life, health, and disability insurance.

Persons who were covered by county employee life insurance and accident and health insurance plans prior to becoming state employees as a result of this chapter shall be permitted to apply prior to becoming state employees for life insurance and health and accident insurance plans that are available to state employees so that those persons do not suffer a lapse of insurance coverage as a result of this chapter. The supreme court, after consulting with the state comptroller, shall prescribe rules and distribute application forms and take other actions as necessary to enable those persons to elect to have insurance coverage that is in effect on the date of becoming state employees.

The actual insurance coverage available to a person shall be determined by the plans that are available to state employees, irrespective of any greater or lesser benefits as a county or judicial district employee.

Commencing on the date of becoming a state employee, each person referred to in this section is entitled to claim the person's most recent continuous period of service in full-time county or judicial district employment as full-time state employment for purposes of determining disability benefits as provided in section 79.20 according to rules in effect for state employees of comparable longevity, irrespective of any greater or lesser benefit as a county or judicial district employee.

602.11104 Compensation and benefits. Repealed by 84 Acts, ch 1301, §17

602.11105 Hiring moratorium.

1 Commencing one year prior to each category of employees becoming state employees as a result of this Act*, new employees shall not be hired and vacancies shall not be filled, except as provided in subsection 2, with respect to any of the following agencies or positions:

a Offices of the clerks of the district court

b District court administrators

c Juvenile probation offices

d Court reporters

e Any other position of employment that is supervised by a district court judicial officer or by a person referred to or employed in an office referred to in paragraph "a", "b", "c", or "d"

2 A new employee position or vacancy that is subject to subsection 1 may be filled upon approval by the chief judge of the judicial district. The employer seeking to fill the new position or vacancy shall submit a request to the chief judge in the form prescribed by the supreme court, and shall be governed by the decision of the chief judge. The chief judge shall obtain the advice of the district judges of the judicial district respecting decisions to be made under this subsection.

602.11106 Employee reclassification moratorium.

Commencing one year prior to counties employees becoming state employees as a result of this Act*, the county employees shall not be promoted or demoted, shall not be subject to a reduction in salary or a reduction in other employee benefits, except after approval by the chief judge of the judicial district. An employer wishing to take any of these actions shall apply to the chief judge a writing that discloses the proposed action, the reasons for the action, and the statutory or other authority for the action. The chief judge shall not approve any proposed action that is in violation of an employee's rights or that is extraordinary when compared with customary practices and procedures of the employer. The chief judge shall obtain the advice of the district judges of the judicial district respecting decisions to be made under this section.

§602.11107 Court property.

1 Commencing on the date when each category of employees becomes state employees as a result of this Act,* public property referred to in subsection 2 that on the day prior to that date is in the custody of a person or agency referred to in subsection 3 shall not become property of the judicial department but shall be devoted for the use of the judicial department in its course of business. The judicial department shall only be responsible for maintenance contracts or contracts for purchase entered into by the judicial department. Upon replacement of the property by the judicial department, the property shall revert to the use of the appropriate county. However, if the property is personal property of a historical nature, the property shall not become property of the judicial department, and the county shall make the property available to the judicial department for the department's use within the county courthouse until the court no longer wishes to use the property, at which time the property shall revert to the use of the appropriate county.

2 This section applies to the following property:
   a Books, accounts and records that pertain to the operation of the district court.
   b Forms, materials, and supplies that are consumed in the usual course of business.
   c Tables, chairs, desks, lamps, curtains, window blinds, rugs and carpeting, flags and flag standards, pictures and other wall decorations, and other similar furnishings.
   d Typewriters, adding machines, desk calculators, cash registers and similar business machines, reproduc tion machines and equipment, microfiche projectors, tape recorders and associated equipment, microphones, amplifiers and speakers, film projectors and screens, overhead projectors, and similar personal property.
   e Filing cabinets, shelves, storage cabinets, and other property used for storage.
   f Books of statutes, books of ordinances, books of judicial decisions, and reference books, except those that are customarily held in a law library for use by the public.
   g All other personal property that is in use in the operation of the district court.

3 This section applies to the following persons and agencies:
   a Clerks of the district court.
   b Judicial officers.
   c District court administrators.
   d Juvenile probation officers.
   e Court reporters.
   f Persons who are employed by a person referred to in paragraphs "a" through "e".

4 Subsections 1 through 3 do not apply to electronic data storage equipment, commonly referred to as computers, or to computer terminals or any machinery, equipment, or supplies used in the operation of computers.

   Those counties that were providing computer services to the district court shall continue to provide these services until the general assembly provides otherwise. The state shall reimburse these counties for the cost of providing these services. Each county providing computer services to the district court shall submit a bill for these services to the supreme court at the end of each calendar quarter. Reimbursement shall be payable from funds appropriated to the supreme court for operating expenses of the district court, and shall be paid within thirty days after receipt by the supreme court of the quarterly billing.

5 Personal property of a type that is subject to subsections 1 through 3 shall be subject to the control of the chief judge of the judicial district commencing on the date when each category of employees becomes state employees as a result of this Act. On and after that date the chief judge of the judicial district may issue necessary orders to preserve the use of the property by the district court.

   Commencing on that date, the chief judge, subject to the direction of the supreme court, shall establish and maintain an inventory of property used by the district court.

§602.11108 Collective bargaining.

A person who becomes a state employee as a result of this chapter is a public employee, as defined in section 20.3, subsection 3, for purposes of chapter 20. The person may bargain collectively on and after July 1, 1983 as provided by law for a court employee. However, if the person is subject to a collective bargaining agreement negotiated prior to July 1, 1983, the person is entitled to the rights and benefits obtained by the person pursuant to that collective bargaining agreement.

   If the person is subject to a collective bargaining agreement negotiated by a public employer other than the state court administrator on or after July 1, 1983, the person is not entitled to any rights or benefits obtained by the person pursuant to that collective bargaining agreement.

   Commencing one year prior to each category of employees becoming state employees, the state court administrator shall assume the position of public employer of those employees of that category. The state court administrator shall negotiate a collective bargaining agreement with those employees to be effective upon the date those employees become state employees as a result of this chapter.

§602.11110 Judgeships for election districts 5A and 5C.

As soon as practicable after January 1, 1985, the supreme court administrator shall recomputed the number of judgeships to which judicial election districts 5A and 5C are entitled. Notwithstanding section 602.6201, subsection 2, the seventeen incumbent district judges in judicial election district 5A on December 31, 1984 may reside in either judicial election district 5A or 5C beginning January 1, 1985. The supreme court administrator shall apportion to judicial election district 5C the incumbent district judges who were appointed to replace district judges residing in Polk county on January 1, 1985 who are not appointed to fill newly created judgeships while residing in Polk county. The incumbent district judges residing in Polk county on January 1, 1985 who are not so appointed to judicial election district 5C shall be reapportioned to judicial election district 5C, in the order of their seniority as district judges, as soon as the first vacancies occur.
in judicial election district 5C due to death, resignation, retirement, removal or failure of retention. Such a reapportionment constitutes a vacancy in judicial election district 5A for purposes of section 602 6201. Notwithstanding section 602 6201, subsection 2, the seventeen incumbent district judges in judicial election district 5A on December 31, 1984 shall stand for retention in the judicial election district to which the district judges are apportioned or reapportioned under this section. Commencing on January 1, 1985, vacancies within judicial election districts 5A and 5C shall be determined and filled under section 602 6201, sub sections 4 through 8. For purposes of the recomputations, the supreme court administrator shall determine the average case filings for the latest available three year period by reallocating the actual case filings during the three year period to judicial election districts 5A and 5C as if they existed throughout the three year period.

83 Acts, ch 186, §10201, 10310, 85 Acts, ch 197, §35

602.11111 Judicial nominating commissions for election districts 5A and 5C.

The membership of district judicial nominating commissions for judicial election districts 5A and 5C shall be as provided in chapter 46 subject to the following transition provisions:

1. Those judicial nominating commissioners of judicial election district 5A who are residents of Polk county shall be disqualified from serving in election district 5A on January 1, 1985, and their offices shall be deemed vacant. The vacancies thus created shall be filled as provided in section 465 for the remainder of the unexpired terms.

2. After January 1, 1985 the governor shall appoint five eligible electors of judicial election district 5C to the district judicial nominating commission for terms commencing immediately upon appointment. Two of the appointees shall serve terms ending January 31, 1988, two of the appointees shall serve terms ending January 31, 1990, and the remaining appointee shall serve a term ending January 31, 1992, as determined by the governor. At the end of these terms and each six years thereafter the governor shall appoint commissioners pursuant to section 463.

3. After January 1, 1985 elective judicial nominating commissioners for judicial election district 5C shall be elected as provided in chapter 46 to terms of office commencing immediately upon election. One of those elected shall serve a term ending January 31, 1988, two shall serve terms ending January 31, 1990, and two shall serve terms ending January 31, 1992, as determined by the drawing of lots by the persons elected. At the end of these terms and every six years thereafter elective commissioners shall be elected pursuant to chapter 46.

602.11112 Fifth judicial election district.

The provisions of section 602 6109 relating to the division of the fifth judicial district into judicial election districts 5A, 5B, and 5C take effect January 1, 1985.

83 Acts ch 186, §10201, 10312

602.11113 Bailiffs employed as court attendants.

Persons who were employed as bailiffs and who were performing services for the court, other than law enforcement services, immediately prior to the effective date of section 602 6601, shall be employed by the district court administrators as court attendants under section 602 6601 on the effective date of that section.

83 Acts, ch 186, §10201, 10313

602.11114 Temporary service by certain retired judicial magistrates.

Persons who retired before January 1, 1981 and who were judicial magistrates at the time of retirement and who meet the qualifications of a district associate judge are considered to be district associate judges for the purposes of section 602 1612.

83 Acts, ch 186, §10201, 10314

602.11115 District associate judges' retirement.

If a full time judicial magistrate who became a district associate judge on January 1, 1981 pursuant to statute or a person who was appointed a district associate judge between January 1, 1981 and June 30, 1984 is a member of the Iowa public employees' retirement system on June 30, 1984, the district associate judge may elect, by informing the state court administrator by June 30, 1984, one of the following retirement benefit options to be effective July 1, 1984:

1. To remain covered under the Iowa public employees' retirement system pursuant to chapter 97B.

2. To commence coverage under the judicial retirement system pursuant to article 9, part 1, effective July 1, 1984, but to become an inactive member of the Iowa public employees' retirement system pursuant to chapter 97B and remain eligible for benefits under section 97B 49 for the period of membership service under chapter 97B.

3. To commence coverage under the judicial retirement system pursuant to article 9, part 1, retroactive to the date the district associate judge became a district associate judge or a full time judicial magistrate, whichever was earlier, and to cease to be a member of the Iowa public employees' retirement system, effective July 1, 1984. The department of personnel shall transmit by January 1, 1985 to the state court administrator for deposit in the judicial retirement fund the district associate judge's accumulated contributions as defined in section 97B 41, subsection 12 for the judge's period of membership service as a district associate judge or full time judicial magistrate, or both. Before July 1, 1986, or at retirement previous to that date, a district associate judge who becomes a member of the judicial retirement system pursuant to this subsection shall contribute to the judicial retirement fund an amount equal to the difference between four percent of the district associate judge's total basic salary for the entire period of service before July 1, 1984 as a district associate judge or judicial magistrate, or both. Before July 1, 1986, or at retirement previous to that date, a district associate judge who becomes a member of the judicial retirement system pursuant to this subsection shall contribute to the judicial retirement fund an amount equal to the difference between four percent of the district associate judge's total basic salary for the entire period of service before July 1, 1984 as a district associate judge or judicial magistrate, or both. Before July 1, 1986, or at retirement previous to that date, a district associate judge who becomes a member of the judicial retirement system pursuant to this subsection shall contribute to the judicial retirement fund an amount equal to the difference between four percent of the district associate judge's total basic salary for the entire period of service before July 1, 1984 as a district associate judge or judicial magistrate, or both. Before July 1, 1986, or at retirement previous to that date, a district associate judge who becomes a member of the judicial retirement system pursuant to this subsection shall contribute to the judicial retirement fund an amount equal to the difference between four percent of the district associate judge's total basic salary for the entire period of service before July 1, 1984 as a district associate judge or judicial magistrate, or both. Before July 1, 1986, or at retirement previous to that date, a district associate judge who becomes a member of the judicial retirement system pursuant to this subsection shall contribute to the judicial retirement fund an amount equal to the difference between four percent of the district associate judge's total basic salary for the entire period of service before July 1, 1984 as a district associate judge or judicial magistrate, or both.
under the judicial retirement system for the period of service for which contributions at the four percent level are made.

JURIES

See also R C P 187 and R Cr P 17

607A.1 Declaration of policy.
It is the policy of this state that all persons be selected at random from a fair cross section of the population of the area served by the court, and that a person shall have both the opportunity in accordance with the provisions of law to be considered for jury service in this state and the obligation to serve as a juror when selected.
86 Acts, ch 1108, §9

607A.2 Prohibition of discrimination.
A person shall not be excluded from jury service or from consideration for jury service in this state on account of age if the person is eighteen years of age or older, race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion, economic status, physical disability, or occupation.
86 Acts, ch 1108, §10

607A.3 Definitions.
As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:
1. “Clerk” means clerk of the district court, deputy clerk, or the clerk's designee.
2. “Court” means the district court of this state and includes, when the context requires, a judicial officer as defined in section 602 1101.
3. “Juror” means any person selected for service on either the grand or petit jury who attends court.
when originally instructed to report or is deferred to a future date uncertain, or is on call and available to report to court when so needed and so requested by the court.

4. "Jury wheel" means a physical device or electronic data processing system for storage of the names and addresses of persons residing in a county as identified pursuant to section 607A.22.

5. "Motor vehicle operators list" means the official records maintained by the state of the names and addresses of those individuals in the respective counties retaining valid motor vehicle operator's licenses on or before October 15 of each general election year.

6. "Panel" means those jurors drawn or assigned for service to a courtroom, judge, or trial.

7. "Pool" means the sum total of prospective jurors reporting for service and not drawn or assigned to a courtroom, judge, or trial.

8. "Random selection" means the selection of names in a manner immune to any subjective bias so that no recognizable class of the population from which names are being selected can be purposefully included or excluded.

9. "Source lists" means the voter registration list, the motor vehicle operators list and other comprehensive lists of persons residing in a county as identified by the court.

10. "Voter registration list" means the official records maintained by the state of the names and addresses of persons registered to vote on or before October 15 of each general election year.

11. "Term of service" means the period of time a juror is requested to serve.

12. "Master list" means the list of names taken from the source lists for possible jury service.

607A.4 Jury service — minimum qualifications — disqualification — documentation.

1. To serve or to be considered for jury service, a person must possess the following minimum qualifications:

   a. Be eighteen years of age or older
   b. Be a citizen of the United States
   c. Be able to understand the English language in a written, spoken, or manually signed mode.
   d. Be able to receive and evaluate information such that the person is capable of rendering satisfactory juror service

2. However, a person possessing the minimum qualifications for service or consideration for service may be disqualified for service or consideration for service if the person has, directly or indirectly, requested to be placed on a list for juror service.

3. A person who claims disqualification for any of the grounds identified in this section may, upon the person's own volition, or shall, upon the court's volition, submit a writing to the court's satisfaction, documentation that verifies disqualification from juror service.

607A.5 Automatic excuse from jury service.

A person shall be excused from jury service if the person submits written documentation verifying, to the court's satisfaction, that the person is solely responsible for the daily care of a permanently disabled person living in the person's household and that the performance of juror service would cause substantial risk of injury to the health of the disabled person. However, if the person is regularly employed at a location other than the person's household, the person shall not be excused under this section.

607A.6 Discretionary excuse from jury service.

The court may defer a term of grand or petit juror service upon a finding of hardship, inconvenience, or public necessity, however the juror may be required to serve at a later date established by the court. The court may excuse a person from grand juror service, considering the length of grand juror service, in part or in full, upon a finding that such service would threaten the person's economic, physical, or emotional well-being, or the well-being of another person who is dependent upon the person, or other similar findings of extreme hardship. The courts shall exercise this authority strictly. However, in exercising this authority the court shall allow the employer of the person being asked to serve to give testimony in support of a request by the person for deferral or excuse. The court may dismiss a juror at any time in the interest of justice.

607A.7 False excuse — prohibited requests — penalty.

A person who knowingly makes a false affidavit, statement, or claim, for the purpose of relieving the person or another person from juror service, or a person who requests the court to select the person as a juror for a particular case, commits contempt.

607A.8 Fees and expenses for jurors.

Grand jurors and petit jurors in all courts shall receive ten dollars as compensation for each day's service or attendance including attendance required for the purpose of being considered for service, reimbursement for mileage expenses at the rate specified in section 79.9 or section 602.1509 for each mile traveled each day to and from their residences to the place of service or attendance, and reimbursement for actual expenses of parking, as determined by the clerk. A juror shall not receive reimbursement for mileage expenses or actual expenses of parking when the juror travels in a vehicle for which another juror is receiving reimbursement for mileage and parking expenses.

607A.9 Ex officio commissions.

In counties utilizing a jury commission for the drawing of jurors, the clerk of the district court, the county auditor, and the county recorder shall ex officio constitute the jury commission but shall receive no extra compensation for acting as jury commissioners. If any of the above offices have been consolidated, the chief judge of the judicial district shall select another elected county officer to serve as a jury commissioner.

607A.10 Appointive jurors — master list.

In each county the judges of the district court of the judicial district in which the county is located shall, on or before October 1 of each year in which the general election is held, appoint three competent electors as a jury commission to draw up the master list for the two years beginning January 1 after the election. The names for the master list shall be taken from the source lists. If all of the source lists are not used to draw up the master list, then the names drawn must be selected in a random manner.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §18

607A.11 Limitation on appointment.

More than two members of the appointive commission shall not be residents of the city in which the courthouse of the county in which they are appointed, is located, and a person shall not be appointed who has solicited the appointment, nor shall any county officer or attorney at law be appointed a member of the commission.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §19

607A.12 Manner of appointment.

The appointment shall be in writing signed by three judges of the judicial district and shall be filed and made a matter of record in the office of the clerk of the district court.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §20

607A.13 Clerk to notify.

The clerk of the district court shall at once notify each appointive commissioner of the appointment.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §21

607A.14 Vacancy.

If a vacancy occurs in the appointive commission through death, removal or inability of a member of the commission to act, the judge or judges of the judicial district shall appoint a person to act during the remainder of the unexpired term.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §22

607A.15 Qualification — tenure.

The appointive commissioners shall qualify on or before the tenth day of October, following their appointment, by taking the oath of office required of civil officers. The oath shall be subscribed by them and filed in the office of the clerk of the district court. They shall hold office for the term of two years and until their successors are duly appointed and qualified.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §23

607A.16 Instructions to appointive commission.

The judges of the district court shall give instructions to appointive jury commissioners at the time of their appointment as to their duties, and shall call their attention to sections 607A 1, 607A 2, 607A 4 and 607A 22.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §24

607A.17 Compensation and expenses.

Each appointive commissioner shall, in addition to actual expenses, receive a compensation of ten dollars for each day employed by the appointive commissioner in the discharge of the appointive commissioner’s official duties.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §25

607A.18 Assistants.

The commissioners may employ assistants in preparing the jury lists as they may deem necessary, and the board of supervisors shall allow reasonable compensation to the assistants.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §26

607A.19 Jury commissions not required.

In counties utilizing electronic data processing techniques and equipment for the drawing of jurors, ex officio or appointive jury commissions need not be appointed provided that proper records are retained by the jury manager that document, to the court’s satisfaction, that the procedures utilized to randomly select the names of the prospective petit and grand jurors meet the requirements of this chapter. The decision to use electronic data processing techniques and equipment in lieu of a jury commission shall be made by the chief judge of the judicial district in which the county is located.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §27

607A.20 Jury manager.

If the chief judge of the judicial district uses electronic data processing techniques and equipment for the drawing of jurors in lieu of a jury commission, the chief judge shall, after consultation with the clerk, district court administrator and county auditor, appoint an individual to serve as the jury manager for the county. The jury manager shall be responsible for the implementation of this chapter for the county. The jury manager shall update the master list from the source lists at least once every two years beginning January 1 after the general election is held.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §28

607A.21 Jury lists.

The appointive jury commission or jury manager shall prepare, select and return, on blank lists furnished by the county, the following:

1. The list of grand jurors. A list of names and addresses of one hundred and fifty persons from which to draw grand jurors.
2. The list of petit jurors. A list of names and addresses of persons selected from the source lists equal to the number of names necessary to provide jurors needed by the court, with the number to be determined by the jury commission or jury manager.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §29

607A.22 Use of source lists — information provided.

The appointive jury commission or the jury manager shall use all of the following source lists in preparing grand and petit jury lists:

1. The current voter registration list.
2. The current motor vehicle operators list.
3. Any other current comprehensive list of persons residing in the county, including but not limited to the lists of public utility customers, which the appointive jury commission or jury manager determines are usable for the purpose of a juror source list.

The applicable state and local government officials shall furnish, upon request, the appointive jury commission or jury manager with copies of lists necessary for the formulation of source lists at no cost to the commission, manager, or county.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §30
§607A.23 Judicial division of county.
In counties which are divided for judicial purposes, and in which court is held at more than one place, each division shall be treated as a separate county, and the grand and petit jurors, selected to serve in the respective courts, shall be drawn from the division of the county in which the court is held and at which the persons are required to serve.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §31

607A.24 Certification.
The jury lists required to be prepared by this chapter shall be certified by the appointive jury commission or the jury manager in substantially the following form:

We/I, ______, constituting the jury commission/jury manager for ______ county, certify that the foregoing lists do not, to our/my knowledge and belief, contain the name of any person who is not qualified for jury service under Iowa Code section 607A 4 and that the lists were selected in compliance with Iowa Code sections 607A 1, 607A 2, and 607A 21 through 607A 23.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §32

607A.25 Filing of lists.
The appointive jury commission or jury manager, after certifying the jury lists, shall place the lists in sealed containers, and deposit the lists in the office of the clerk or jury manager who shall keep them in a secure area. The lists may also be stored by means of electronic data processing procedures and equipment.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §33

607A.26 Preservation of records.
The clerk or jury manager shall preserve all records and lists compiled and maintained in connection with the selection and service of jurors for four years, or for any longer period ordered by the chief judge of the judicial district.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §34

607A.27 Preparation for drawing of panels.
The names entered upon the appointive jury commission's or jury manager's lists and deposited in the office of the clerk or jury manager constitute the grand and petit master lists, from which grand and petit jurors shall be drawn.

Within ten days after the lists are deposited in the office of the clerk or jury manager, the clerk or jury manager shall do either of the following:

1. Prepare from the lists separate ballots, uniform in size, shape, and appearance, and folded to conceal information on the ballot. The ballots for grand and petit jurors shall be kept separate and each ballot shall contain the name and place of residence of each prospective juror.
2. Use electronic data processing equipment for the storage of names of the grand and petit jurors. The numerical division required in section 607A 21 need not be used when a jury wheel is used for the preparation of the lists.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §35

607A.28 Ballot boxes — sealed and custody — security of programs.

In counties using an ex officio jury commission, the ballots containing the names of the grand and petit jurors shall be deposited in separate boxes which shall be plainly marked to show the class of jurors whose names are contained in each box, and shall have only one aperture through which a hand may be inserted. The boxes shall then be sealed by the auditor, in the presence of the clerk, and deposited with the clerk or jury manager.

In counties using a jury manager, the lists containing the names of the grand and petit jurors shall be stored electronically or manually processed by the jury manager and shall be accessible to only the manager or the manager's designee.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §36

607A.29 Length of service.
In any two-year period, a person shall not be required:
1. To serve or attend court for prospective juror service for more than a term of service ordered by the court, not to exceed three months, unless necessary to complete service in a particular case.
2. To serve on more than one grand jury.
3. To serve or attend as both a grand and a petit juror.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §37

607A.30 Time of drawing.
In counties using an ex officio jury commission, the required number of jurors shall be drawn by the commission, or a majority of its members, at the office of the clerk at a time agreed to by the commissioners.

In counties using a jury manager, the manager shall arrange for the selection of the required number of jurors at a time and place chosen by the manager.

The chief judge of the judicial district may by order prescribe the time for the drawing by the ex officio commission or the manager.

The jurors thus selected constitute the jury pool and shall be notified by the clerk or jury manager by regular mail when called.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §38

607A.31 Notice of drawing.
In counties using ex officio jury commissions, the clerk, at least five days prior to the day for drawing, shall notify in writing the other jury commissioners of the time and place of the drawing.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §39

607A.32 Absence of commissioner.
In counties using an ex officio jury commission, in the absence or inability to act of any one of the commissioners, the jury commissioner's deputy or designee shall act as the commissioner.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §40

607A.33 Details of drawing.
1. In counties using an ex officio jury commission, at the time of drawing the appropriate ballot box shall first be thoroughly shaken in the presence of the commissioners attending the drawing. Next, the seal on the opening of the box shall be broken in the presence of the commissioners. A commissioner shall then, without looking at the ballots, successively draw the required number of names from the box, and successively pass the ballots to another commissioner, who shall open the ballots as they are drawn, and read aloud the names on the ballots, and enter the names in writing on the appropriate list.

2. In counties using a jury manager, a computerized program for the random selection and printing of the names may be used to draw the required number of jurors needed.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §41

607A.34 Resealing of box.
In counties using an ex officio jury commission, after the required number of grand or petit jurors have been drawn in the manner provided, and their names entered on the lists, the ballot box or boxes shall again be sealed by the commissioners and returned to the custody of the clerk.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §42

607A.35 Filing list — notice to report.
After the list or lists have been drawn in the manner provided in section 607A.33, the list or lists shall be filed in the office of the clerk or jury manager and immediately upon the request of the court the clerk or manager shall issue a notice to report, by regular mail, to the persons so drawn to appear at the courthouse at times as the court prescribes, for service as petit or grand jurors.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §43

607A.36 Contempt.
If a person fails to appear when notified to report or at a regularly scheduled meeting, without providing a sufficient cause, the court may issue an order requiring the person to appear and show cause why the person should not be punished for contempt, and unless the person provides a sufficient cause for the failure, the person may be punished for contempt.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §44

607A.37 Cancellation for illegality.
If the court determines that the petit or grand jurors have been illegally selected, drawn, or notified to report, the court may set aside the order under which the jurors were notified and direct that a new drawing, selection and notification of a sufficient number of replacement jurors take place. In that case, the ex officio jury commission shall meet at the office of the clerk, at the time the court directs, and proceed in the manner provided for the drawing of the original panel, to draw the required number of replacement jurors.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §45

607A.38 Discharged jurors — notification.
Jurors who have been discharged for any reason may, during the calendar quarter, be instructed to again report if the business of the court necessitates such action.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §46

607A.39 Additional jurors.
The court may order as many additional jurors drawn for a pool or panel as the court deems necessary.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §47

607A.40 Discharge of panel.
The court may at any time discharge the panel of jurors, or any part of it, and order a new panel, or the number of jurors as deemed necessary, to be drawn.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §48

607A.41 Method of subsequent drawing.
The names of the jurors drawn under sections 607A.39 and 607A.40 shall be drawn by the ex officio commission or the jury manager in the manner provided for the drawing of an original pool or panel.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §49

607A.42 Disposition of names drawn.
The names of prospective jurors who have been drawn and are eligible to serve on the petit or grand jury and who do not serve shall be omitted from the respective ballot box or selection program.

At the discretion of the court, the jury manager, or the clerk, a person excused from service on one panel may be required to serve on a succeeding panel if the reason for the person’s being excused is authorized under section 607A.6. In counties using an ex officio jury commission, the ballots of jurors who appear and serve during any term of service shall be destroyed. In counties using a jury manager, the names of jurors who appear and serve during any term of service shall be stricken from the selection program.

607A.43 Correcting illegality in original lists.
If the court for any reason determines that there has been such substantial failure to comply with the law relative to selection, preparation, or return of grand or petit lists that lawful grand or petit jurors cannot be drawn, or that the lists are exhausted or insufficient for the needs of the court, the court shall order the ex officio jury commission or the jury manager to convene at a fixed time and place to prepare lists in lieu of the lists which have been found to be illegal, or an additional list or lists as the court deems necessary.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §51

607A.44 Notice to ex officio jury commission or jury manager.
If the commission or manager is required to meet for the purpose of drawing jurors under the order of the court, the clerk shall at once notify each commissioner or the jury manager of the order, if appropriate, and the time and place fixed for the meeting and, if necessary, the court may order the notice to be served by the sheriff.

86 Acts, ch 1108, §52

607A.45 Employer prohibited from penalizing employee — penalty — action for lost wages.
1. An employer shall not deprive an employee of employment or threaten or otherwise coerce an employee with respect to the employee’s employment because the employee receives a notice to report, responds to the notice, serves as a juror, or attends court for prospective juror service. An employer who violates this subsection commits contempt.

2. If an employer discharges an employee in violation of subsection 1, the employee may within sixty days of the discharge bring a civil action for the recov—ery of wages lost as a result of the violation and for an order requiring the reinstatement of the employee. Damages recoverable shall not exceed lost wages for a period of six weeks. If the employee prevails, the employee shall be allowed reasonable attorney fees as determined by the court.

DEFERRAL OF COSTS IN CIVIL AND CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

(In forma pauperis)

610.1 Affidavit — contents — tolling of limitations.

A court of the district court, court of appeals, or supreme court shall authorize the commenced, prosecution, or defense of a suit, action, proceeding, or appeal, whether civil or criminal, without the prepayment of fees, costs, or security upon a showing that the person is unable to pay such costs or give security. The person shall submit an affidavit stating the nature of the suit, action, proceeding, or appeal and the affiant’s belief that there is an entitlement to redress. Such affidavit shall also include a brief financial statement showing the person’s inability to pay costs, fees, or give security. Any authorization to proceed without prepayment of fees, costs, or security under this chapter may be made by the court without hearing. The filing of an affidavit to proceed without the prepayment of fees, costs, or security tolls the applicable statute of limitations. Upon the denial of an application and affidavit to proceed without the prepayment of fees, costs, or security, the person shall have the remainder of the limitations period in which to pay fees, costs, or give security.

610.4 Order to pay fees, costs, or security — dismissal for failure

610.5 Penalty

86 Acts, ch 1108, §54
610.2 Directions by court.
When an affidavit pursuant to this chapter is filed with the court in a civil or criminal action, the court shall direct the appropriate officers of the court to issue and serve all necessary writs, process, and proceedings.
86 Acts, ch 1088, §2

610.3 Deferral of costs.
When an affidavit is filed and a civil or criminal proceeding is instituted, the court shall order that all fees, costs, and security be deferred until final disposition of the proceeding.
86 Acts, ch 1088, §3

610.4 Order to pay fees, costs, or security — dismissal for failure.
If after entry of an order authorizing prosecution of the case without prepayment of fees, costs, or security, the court finds that the affidavit of inability to pay was without merit, the court may order the person to pay the fees, costs, or security within fourteen days or the case will be dismissed.
86 Acts, ch 1088, §4

610.5 Penalty.
A person who knowingly and wrongfully invokes the privileges of this chapter without just cause, or who knowingly makes a false statement regarding the person's inability to pay fees, costs, or security, is guilty of perjury and shall be punished as provided in section 720.2.
86 Acts, ch 1088, §5
TITLE XXXI
GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO CIVIL PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE

Rules of procedure for trials and appeals of civil cases are published in the compilation Iowa Court Rules.

CHAPTER 611
FORMS OF ACTIONS

611.1 "Proceedings" classified.
Every proceeding in court is an action, and is civil, special, or criminal
[R60, §2605, C73, §2504, C97, §3424, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10938; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 1]

611.2 Civil and special actions.
A civil action is a proceeding in a court of justice in which one party, known as the plaintiff, demands against another party, known as the defendant, the enforcement or protection of a private right, or the prevention or redress of a private wrong. It may also be brought for the recovery of a penalty or forfeiture.
Every other proceeding in a civil case is a special action.
[R60, §2606, 2607, 2609, C73, §2505, 2506, C97, §3425, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10939; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 2]

611.3 Forms of action.
All forms of action are abolished, but proceedings in civil actions may be of two kinds, ordinary or equitable.
[R60, §2608, 2610, C73, §2507, C97, §3426, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10940; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 3]

611.4 Equitable proceedings.
The plaintiff may prosecute an action by equitable proceedings in all cases where courts of equity, before the adoption of this Code, had jurisdiction, and must so proceed in all cases where such jurisdiction was exclusive.
[R60, §2611, C73, §2508, C97, §3427, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10941; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 4]

611.5 Action on note and mortgage.
An action on a note, together with a mortgage or deed of trust for the foreclosure of the same, shall be by equitable proceedings. An action on the bond or note alone, without regard thereto to the mortgage or deed of trust, shall be by ordinary proceedings.
[R60, §4179, C73, §2509, C97, §3428, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10942; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 5]
Actions on certain judgments prohibited ch 615
Related provision §654 4

611.6 Ordinary proceedings.
In all other cases, unless otherwise provided, the plaintiff must prosecute an action by ordinary proceedings.
[R60, §2612, C73, §2513, C97, §3431, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10943; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 6]
611.7 Error — effect of.
An error of the plaintiff as to the kind of proceedings adopted shall not cause the abatement or dismissal of the action, but merely a change into the proper proceedings, and a transfer to the proper docket

611.8 Correction by plaintiff.
Such error may be corrected by the plaintiff without motion at any time before the defendant has answered, or afterwards on motion in court

[R60, §2614, C73, §2515, C97, §3433, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10945; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 8]

611.9 Correction on motion.
The defendant may have the correction made by motion at or before the filing of an answer, where it appears by the provisions of this Code wrong proceedings have been adopted

[R60, §2615, 2616, C73, §2516, C97, §3434, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10948; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 9]

611.10 Equitable issues.
Where the action has been properly commenced by ordinary proceedings, either party shall have the right, by motion, to have any issue heretofore exclusively cognizable in equity tried in the manner hereafter prescribed in cases of equitable proceedings, and if all the issues were such, though none were exclusively so, the defendant shall be entitled to have them all tried as in cases of equitable proceedings

[R60, §2617, C73, §2517, C97, §3435, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10947; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 10]

611.11 Court may order change.
If there is more than one party plaintiff or defendant, who fail to unite on the kind of proceedings to be adopted, the court, on its own motion, may direct such proceedings to be changed to the same extent as if the parties had united in asking it to be done

[C73, §2518, C97, §3436, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10948; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 11]

611.12 Errors waived.
An error as to the kind of proceedings adopted in the action is waived by a failure to move for its correction at the time and in the manner prescribed in this chapter, and all errors in the decisions of the court are waived unless excepted to at the time, save final judgments and interlocutory or final decrees entered of record

[R60, §2619, C73, §2519, C97, §3437, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10949; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 12]

611.13 Uniformity of procedure.
The provisions of this Code concerning the prosecution of a civil action apply to both ordinary and equitable proceedings unless the contrary appears, and shall be followed in special actions not otherwise regulated, so far as applicable

[C51, §2516, R60, §2620, 4173, C73, §2520, C97, §3438, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10950; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 13]

611.14 Title of cause.
The title of the cause shall not be changed in any of its stages of transit from one court to another

[R60, §2949, C73, §2721, C97, §3631, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10951; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 14]

611.15 Judgments annulled in equity.
Judgment obtained in an action by ordinary proceedings shall not be annulled or modified by any order in an action by equitable proceedings, except for a defense which has arisen or been discovered since the judgment was rendered But such judgment does not prevent the recovery of any claim, though such claim might have been used by way of counterclaim in the action on which the judgment was recovered

[R60, §2621, C73, §2522, C97, §3440, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10952; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 15]

See R.C.P. 29

611.16 Action to obtain discovery.
No action to obtain a discovery shall be brought, except, where a person or corporation is liable either jointly or severally with others by the same contract, an action may be brought against any parties who are liable, to obtain discovery of the names and residences of the others

[R60, §4127, C73, §2523, C97, §3441, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10953; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 16]

611.17 Petition for discovery.
In such action the plaintiff shall state in the petition, in effect, that the plaintiff has used due diligence, without success, to obtain the information asked to be discovered, and that the plaintiff does not believe the parties to the contract who are known to the plaintiff have property sufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's claim The petition shall be verified

[R60, §4127, C73, §2523, C97, §3441, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10954; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 17]

611.18 Costs.
The cost of such action shall be paid by the plaintiff unless the discovery be resisted

[R60, §4127, C73, §2523, C97, §3441, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10955; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 18]

611.19 Successive actions.
Successive actions may be maintained upon the same contract or transaction whenever, after the former action, a new cause of action has arisen thereon or therefrom

[R60, §4128, C73, §2524, C97, §3442, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10956; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 19]

611.20 Actions survive.
All causes of action shall survive and may be brought notwithstanding the death of the person entitled or liable to the same

[C51, §2502, R60, §3467, C73, §2525, C97, §3443, §611.20

C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10957; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 20

611.21 Civil remedy not merged in crime.
The right of civil remedy is not merged in a public offense and is not restricted for other violation of law, but may in all cases be enforced independently of and in addition to the punishment of the former
[C51, §2500, R60, §4110, C73, §2526, C97, §3444, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10958; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 21]
85 Acts, ch 197, §36

611.22 Actions by or against legal representatives — substitution.
Any action contemplated in sections 611 20 and 611 21 may be brought, or the court, on motion, may allow the action to be continued, by or against the legal representatives or successors in interest of the deceased. Such action shall be deemed a continuing one, and to have accrued to such representative or successor at the time it would have accrued to the deceased if the deceased had survived. If such is continued against the legal representative of the defendant, a notice shall be served on the legal representative as in case of original notices
[C51, §1699, R60, §4111, C73, §2527, C97, §3445, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10959; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §611 22]

613.11 Actions against department of transportation.

The state of Iowa hereby waives immunity from suit and consents to the jurisdiction of any court in which an action is brought against the state department of transportation respecting any claim, right, or controversy arising out of the work performed, or by virtue of the provisions of any construction contract entered into by the department. Such action shall be heard and determined pursuant to rules otherwise applicable to civil actions brought in the particular court having jurisdiction of the suit and the parties to the suit shall have the right of appeal from any judgment, decree, or decision of the trial court to the appropriate appellate court under applicable rules of appeal
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §613 11]

613.12 Venue.

Any such action shall name the Iowa state department of transportation as defendant and the venue for trial shall be in the county, or in the federal court district, where all or part of the construction work was performed
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §613 12]

613.13 Service of notice.

Service upon the state of Iowa shall be made by serving an original notice or summons, with a copy of the petition attached, upon any member of the Iowa state department of transportation in the manner provided for the service of original notices in actions brought in the district courts of the state of Iowa, or by serving summonses upon any member of the said department in the manner provided for service of summons in actions brought in United States district courts, except only that the state shall be required to appear within thirty days after the day such notice or summons is served upon a member of the said department

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §613 13]

613.14 Limitation.

Actions against the state of Iowa authorized under the provisions of section 613 11 may be instituted within three years from the date of the completion or acceptance of the work, whichever date is later, except that this should not apply to contracts completed and accepted and for which final payment was made previous to July 4, 1963

613.15 Injury or death of spouse — measure of recovery.

In any action for damages because of the wrongful or negligent injury or death of a woman, there shall be no disabilities or restrictions, and recovery may be had on account thereof in the same manner as in cases of damage because of the wrongful or negligent injury or death of a man. In addition she, or her administrator for her estate, may recover for physician's services, nursing and hospital expense, and in the case of both women and men, such person, or the appropriate administrator, may recover the value of services and support as spouse or parent, or both, as the case may be, in such sum as the jury deems proper, provided, however, recovery for these elements of damage may not be had by the spouse and children, as such, of any person who, or whose administrator, is entitled to recover same.

§613.16 Parental responsibility for actions of children.
1. The parent or parents of an unemancipated minor child under the age of eighteen years shall be liable for actual damages to person or property caused by unlawful acts of such child. However, a parent who is not entitled to legal custody of the minor child at the time of the unlawful act shall not be liable for such damages.
2. The legal obligation of the parent or parents of an unemancipated minor child under the age of eighteen years to pay damages shall be limited as follows:
   a. Not more than one thousand dollars for any one act.
   b. Not more than two thousand dollars, payable to the same claimant, for two or more acts.
3. The word “person” for the purpose of this section shall include firm, association, partnership or corporation.
4. When an action is brought on parental responsibility for acts of their children, the parents shall be named as defendants therein and, in addition, the minor child shall be named as a defendant. The filing of an answer by the parents shall remove any requirement that a guardian ad litem be required.

§613.17 Emergency assistance in an accident.
Any person, who in good faith renders emergency care or assistance without compensation shall not be liable for any civil damages to person or property caused by such acts or omissions occurring at the place of an emergency or accident or while the person is in transit to or from the emergency or accident or while the person is at or being moved to or from an emergency shelter unless such acts or omissions constitute recklessness. For purposes of this section, if a volunteer fire fighter, a volunteer operator or attendant of an ambulance or rescue squad service, a volunteer paramedic, or a volunteer emergency medical technician receives nominal compensation not based upon the value of the services performed, that person shall be considered to be receiving no compensation. The operation of a motor vehicle in compliance with section 321.231 by a volunteer fire fighter, volunteer operator or attendant of an ambulance or rescue squad service, a volunteer paramedic, or volunteer emergency medical technician shall be considered rendering emergency care or assistance for purposes of this section.

§613.18 Limitation on products liability of nonmanufacturers.
1. A person who is not the assembler, designer, or manufacturer, and who wholesales, retails, distributes, or otherwise sells a product is:
   a. Immune from any suit based upon strict liability in tort or breach of implied warranty of merchantability which arises solely from an alleged defect in the original design or manufacture of the product.
   b. Not liable for damages based upon strict liability in tort or breach of implied warranty of merchantability for the product upon proof that the manufacturer is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state and has not been judicially declared insolvent.
2. A person who is a retailer of a product and who assembles a product, such assembly having no causal relationship to the injury from which the claim arises, is not liable for damages based upon strict liability in tort or breach of implied warranty of merchantability which arises from an alleged defect in the original design or manufacture of the product upon proof that the manufacturer is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state and has not been judicially declared insolvent.
3. An action brought pursuant to this section, where the claimant certifies that the manufacturer of the product is not yet identifiable, tolls the statute of limitations against such manufacturer until such time as discovery in the case has identified the manufacturer.

CHAPTER 613A
TORT LIABILITY OF GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISIONS

Comparative fault, see chapter 668

613A.1 Definitions
613A.2 Liability imposed.
§613A.1 Definitions.
As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the following meanings:
1. "Municipality" means city, county, township, school district, and any other unit of local government except soil conservation districts as defined in section 467A.3, subsection 1 and water resource districts as defined in section 467D.2, subsection 1.
2. "Governing body" means the council of a city, county board of supervisors, board of township trustees, local school board, and other boards and commissions exercising quasi legislative, quasi executive, and quasi judicial power over territory comprising a municipality.
3. "Tort" means every civil wrong which results in wrongful death or injury to person or injury to property or injury to personal or property rights and includes but is not restricted to actions based upon negligence, error or omission, nuisance, breach of duty, whether statutory or other duty or denial or impairment of any right under any constitutional provision, statute or rule of law.
4. "Officer" includes but is not limited to the members of the governing body.
5. "Employee" includes but is not limited to the employees of the governing body.

§613A.2 Liability imposed.
Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, every municipality is subject to liability for its torts and those of its officers and employees, acting within the scope of their employment or duties, whether arising out of a governmental or proprietary function.

For the purposes of this chapter, employee includes a person who performs services for a municipality whether or not the person is compensated for the services, unless the services are performed only as incidental to the person's attendance at a municipality function.

§613A.3 Actual knowledge of defect as defense.
In any action subject to the provisions of this chapter, an affirmative showing that the injured party had actual knowledge of the existence of the alleged obstrucion, disrepair, defect, accumulation, or nuisance at the time of the occurrence of the injury, and a further showing that an alternate safe route was available and known to the injured party, shall constitute a defense to the action.

§613A.4 Claims exempted.
The liability imposed by section 613A.2 shall have no application to any claim enumerated in this section. As to any such claim, a municipality shall be liable only to the extent liability may be imposed by the express statute dealing with such claims and, in the absence of such express statute, the municipality shall be immune from liability.

1. Any claim by an employee of the municipality which is covered by the Iowa workers' compensation law.
2. Any claim in connection with the assessment or collection of taxes.
3. Any claim based upon an act or omission of an officer or employee of the municipality, exercising due care, in the execution of a statute, ordinance, or regulation whether the statute, ordinance or regulation is valid, or based upon the exercise or performance or the failure to exercise or perform a discretionary function or duty on the part of the municipality or an officer or employee of the municipality, whether or not the discretion is abused.
4. Any claim against a municipality as to which the municipality is immune from liability by the provisions of any other statute or where the action based upon such claim has been barred or abated by operation of statute or rule of civil procedure.
5. Any claim for punitive damages.
6. Any claim for damages caused by a municipality's failure to discover a latent defect in the course of an inspection.
7. Any claim based upon or arising out of a claim of negligent design or specification, negligent adoption of design or specification, or negligent construction or reconstruction of a highway, secondary road, or street as defined in section 321.1, subsection 48, that was constructed or reconstructed in accordance with a generally recognized engineering or safety standard, criteria, or design theory in existence at the time of the construction or reconstruction of a highway, secondary road, or street, to new, changed, or altered design standards. In respect to highways and roads, sealcoating, patching, resurfacing, ditching, drainage, repairing, grading, rock, blading, or maintaining an existing highway or road does not constitute construction or reconstruction. This subsection shall not apply to claims based upon gross negligence.
8. Any claim based upon or arising out of a claim of negligent design or specification, negligent adoption of design or specification, or negligent construction or reconstruction of a public improvement as defined in section 394.37, subsection 1, or other public facility that was constructed or reconstructed in accordance with a generally recognized engineering or safety standard, criteria, or design theory in existence at the time of the construction or reconstruction. A claim under this chapter shall not be allowed for failure to upgrade, improve, or alter any aspect of an existing public improvement or other public facility to new, changed, or altered design standards. This subsection shall not apply to claims based upon gross negligence. This subsection takes effect July 1, 1984 and applies to all cases tried or retried on or after July 1, 1984.

9. Any claim based upon an act or omission by an officer or employee of the municipality or the municipality's governing body, in the granting, suspension, or revocation of a license or permit, where the damage was caused by the person to whom the license or permit was issued, unless the act of the officer or employee constitutes actual malice or a criminal offense.

10. Any claim based upon an act or omission of an officer or employee of the municipality, whether by issuance of permit, inspection, investigation, or otherwise, and whether the statute, ordinance, or regulation is valid, if the damage was caused by a third party, event, or property not under the supervision or control of the municipality, unless the act or omission of the officer or employee constitutes actual malice or a criminal offense.

The remedy against the municipality provided by section 613A.2 shall hereafter be exclusive of any other civil action or proceeding by reason of the same subject matter against the officer, employee or agent whose act or omission gave rise to the claim, or the officer's, employee's, or agent's estate.

613A.7 Insurance.

The governing body of any municipality may purchase a policy of liability insurance insuring against all or any part of liability which might be incurred by such municipality or its officers, employees and agents under the provisions of section 613A.2 and section 613A.8 and may similarly purchase insurance covering torts specified in section 613A.4. The governing body of any municipality may adopt a self-insurance program, including but not limited to the investigation and defense of claims, the establishment of a reserve fund for claims, the payment of claims, and the administration and management of the self-insurance program, to cover all or any part of the liability. The governing body of any municipality may enter into insurance agreements obligating the municipality to make payments beyond its current budget year to provide or procure such policies of insurance, self-insurance program, or local government risk pool. The premium costs of such insurance, the costs of such a self-insurance program, the costs of a local government risk pool, and the amounts payable under any such insurance agreements may be paid out of the general fund or any available funds or may be levied in excess of any tax limitation imposed by statute. Any independent or autonomous board or commission in the municipality having authority to disburse funds for a particular municipal function without approval of the governing body may similarly enter into insurance agreements, procure liability insurance, adopt a self-insurance program, or join a local government risk pool within the field of its operation. The procurement of such insurance constitutes a waiver of the defense of governmental immunity as to those exceptions listed in section 613A.4 to the extent stated in such policy but shall have no further effect on the liability of the municipality beyond the scope of this chapter, but if a municipality adopts a self-insurance program or joins and pays funds into a local government risk pool such action does not constitute a waiver of the defense of governmental immunity as to the exceptions listed in section 613A.4. The existence of any insurance which covers in whole or in part any judgment or award which may be rendered in favor of the plaintiff, or lack of any such insurance, shall not be material in the trial of any action brought against the governing body of any municipality, or its officers, employees or agents and any reference to such insurance, or lack of same, shall be grounds for a mistrial. A self-insurance program or local government risk pool is not insurance and is not subject to regulation under chapters 505 through 523C.

§613A.8 Officers and employees defended.
The governing body shall defend its officers and employees, whether elected or appointed and shall save harmless and indemnify the officers and employees against any tort claim or demand, whether ground less or otherwise, arising out of an alleged act or omission occurring within the scope of their employment or duties. However, the duty to save harmless and indemnify does not apply to awards for punitive damages. The exception for punitive damages does not prohibit a governing body from purchasing insurance to protect its officers and employees from punitive damages. The duty to save harmless and indemnify does not apply and the municipality is entitled to restitution by an officer or employee if, in an action commenced by the municipality against the officer or employee, it is determined that the conduct of the officer or employee upon which the tort claim or demand was based constituted a willful and wanton act or omission. Any independent or autonomous board or commission of a municipality having authority to disburse funds for a particular municipal function without approval of the governing body shall similarly defend, save harmless and indemnify its officers and employees against tort claims or demands.
The duties to defend and to save harmless and indemnify shall apply whether or not the municipality is a party to the action and shall include but not be limited to cases arising under title 42 United States Code section 1983.

In the event the officer or employee fails to cooperate in the defense against the claim or demand, the municipality shall have a right of indemnification against that officer or employee.

§613A.9 Compromise and settlement.
The governing body of any municipality may compromise, adjust and settle tort claims against the municipality, its officers, employees and agents, for damages under sections 613A 2 or 613A 8 and may appropriate money for the payment of amounts agreed upon.
[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §613A 9]

§613A.10 Tax to pay judgment or settlement.
When a final judgment is entered against or a settlement is made by a municipality for a claim within the scope of section 613A 2 or 613A 8, payment shall be made and the same remedies shall apply in the case of nonpayment as in the case of other judgments against the municipality. If said judgment or settlement is unpaid at the time of the adoption of the annual budget, it shall budget an amount sufficient to pay the judgment or settlement together with interest accruing thereon to the expected date of payment. Such tax may be levied in excess of any limitation imposed by statute.
[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §613A 10]

§613A.11 Claims not retrospective.
This chapter shall have no application to any occurrence or injury claim or action arising prior to January 1, 1968.
[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §613A 11]

§613A.12 Officers and employees — personal liability.
All officers and employees of municipalities are not personally liable for claims which are exempted under section 613A 4, except claims for punitive damages, and actions permitted under section 85 20. An officer or employee of a municipality is not liable for punitive damages as a result of acts in the performance of a duty, unless actual malice or willful, wanton and reckless misconduct is proven.

CHAPTER 614
LIMITATIONS OF ACTIONS
Method of computing time §4 1(22)
614.1 Period.

Actions may be brought within the times herein limited, respectively, after their causes accrue, and not afterwards, except when otherwise specially declared

1 Penalties or forfeitures under ordinance Those to enforce the payment of a penalty or forfeiture under an ordinance, within one year

2 Injuries to person or reputation — relative rights — statute penalty Those founded on injuries to the person or reputation, including injuries to relative rights, whether based on contract or tort, or for a statute penalty, within two years

3 Against sheriff or other public officer Those against a sheriff or other public officer for the nonpayment of money collected on execution within three years of collection

4 Unwritten contracts — injuries to property — fraud — other actions Those founded on unwritten contracts, those brought for injuries to property, or for relief on the ground of fraud in cases heretofore solely cognizable in a court of chancery, and all other actions not otherwise provided for in this respect, within five years, except as provided by subsections 8 and 10

5 Written contracts — judgments of courts not of record — recovery of real property Those founded on written contracts, or on judgments of any courts except those provided for in the next subsection, and those brought for the recovery of real property, within ten years

6 Judgments of courts of record Those founded on a judgment of a court of record, whether of this or of any other of the United States, or of the federal courts of the United States, within twenty years

7 Judgment quieting title No action shall be brought to set aside a judgment or decree quieting title to real estate unless the same shall be commenced within ten years from and after the rendition thereof

8 Wages Those founded on claims for wages or for a liability or penalty for failure to pay wages, within two years

9 Malpractice Those founded on injuries to the person or wrongful death against any physician and surgeon, osteopath, osteopathic physician and surgeon, dentist, podiatrist, optometrist, pharmacist, chiropractor, or nurse, licensed under chapter 147, or a hospital licensed under chapter 135B, arising out of patient care, within two years after the date on which the claimant knew, or through the use of reasonable diligence should have known, or received notice in writing of the existence of, the injury or death for which damages are sought in the action, whichever of the dates occurs first, but in no event shall any action be brought more than six years after the date on which occurred the act or omission or occurrence alleged in the action to have been the cause of the injury or death unless a foreign object unintentionally left in the body caused the injury or death

10 Secured interest in farm products Those founded on a secured interest in farm products, within two years from the date of sale of the farm products against the secured interest of the creditor

11 Improvements to real property In addition to limitations contained elsewhere in this section, an action arising out of the unsafe or defective condition of an improvement to real property based on tort and implied warranty and for contribution and indemnity, and founded on injury to property, real or personal, or injury to the person or wrongful death, shall not be brought more than fifteen years after the date on which occurred the act or omission of the defendant alleged in the action to have been the cause of the injury or death. However, this subsection does not bar an action against a person solely in the person's capacity as an owner, occupant, or operator of an improvement to real property

Tolling limitations. See R.C.P. 55.

614.6 Nonresident or unknown defendant.

The period of limitation above described shall be computed omitting any time when:

1. The defendant is a nonresident of the state, or
2. In those cases involving personal injuries or death resulting from a felony or indictable misdemeanor, while the identity of the defendant is unknown after diligent effort has been made to discover it. The provisions of this section shall be effective January 1, 1970, and to this extent the provisions are retroactive.

614.7 Bar in foreign jurisdiction.

When a cause of action has been fully barred by the laws of any country where the defendant has previously resided, such bar shall be the same defense here as though it had arisen under the provisions of this chapter; but this section shall not apply to causes of action arising within this state.

[C51, §1665; R60, §2746; C73, §2534; C97, §3452; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11014; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §614.7]

614.8 Minors and mentally ill persons.

The time limited for actions herein, except those brought for penalties and forfeitures, shall be extended in favor of minors and mentally ill persons, so that they shall have one year from and after the termination of such disability within which to commence said action.

[C51, §1666; R60, §2747; C73, §2535; C97, §3453; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11015; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §614.8]

614.9 Exception in case of death.

If the person having a cause of action dies within one year next previous to the expiration of the limitation above provided for, such limitation shall not apply until one year after such death.

[C51, §1667; R60, §2748; C73, §2536; C97, §3454; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11016; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §614.9]

614.10 Failure of action.

If, after the commencement of an action, the plaintiff, for any cause except negligence in its prosecution, fails therein, and a new one is brought within six months thereafter, the second shall, for the purposes herein contemplated, be held a continuation of the first.

[C51, §1668; R60, §2749; C73, §2537; C97, §3455; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11017; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §614.10]

614.11 Admission in writing — new promise.

Causes of action founded on contract are revived by an admission in writing, signed by the party to be charged, that the debt is unpaid, or by a like new promise to pay the same.

[C51, §1670; R60, §2751; C73, §2539; C97, §3456; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11018; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §614.11]

614.12 Counterclaim.

A counterclaim may be pleaded as a defense to any cause of action, notwithstanding it is barred by the provisions of this chapter, if it was the property of the party pleading it at the time it became barred, and was not barred at the time the claim sued on originated; but no judgment thereon, except for costs, can be rendered in favor of the party so pleading it.

[R60, §2752; C73, §2540; C97, §3457; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11019; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §614.12]

614.13 Injunction.

When the commencement of an action shall be stayed by injunction or statutory prohibition, the time of the continuance of such injunction or prohibition shall not be part of the time limited for the commencement of the action, except as herein otherwise provided.

[C73, §2541; C97, §3458; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11020; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §614.13]
SPECIAL LIMITATIONS

614.14 Recovery by beneficiary of trust.
In all cases where a deed of trust or declaration of trust has been executed and the real estate affected by the deed or declaration has been conveyed by the trustee or the surviving spouse or heirs of the trustee and the conveyance was recorded in the proper county prior to January 1, 1970, and the interest of the beneficiary of the trust in the real estate has not been conveyed or established by proper proceedings in court, by the beneficiary, an action, suit or proceeding shall not be commenced or maintained to foreclose the same, or to establish or recover the interest of the beneficiary in the real estate, or of the surviving spouse or heirs of the beneficiary, unless the action, suit, or proceeding is commenced by filing petition and service of notice not later than March 1, 1981.

614.15 Spouse failing to join in conveyance.
In all cases where the holder of the legal or equitable title or estate to real estate situated within this state, prior to January 1, 1970, conveyed the real estate or any interest in the real estate by deed, mortgage, or other instrument, and the spouse failed to join in the conveyance, the spouse or the heirs at law, personal representatives, devisees, grantees, or assigns of the spouse are barred from recovery unless suit is brought and the judgment is commenced by filing petition and service of notice as provided by section 617 13.

[C13, §3447-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11022; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §614 15]

614.16 Interpretative clause.
Sections 614 14 and 614 15 do not affect litigation pending on July 1, 1980, nor do they operate to revive or permit an action to be brought or maintained upon any claim or cause of action which is barred by a statute in force prior to July 1, 1980.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11023; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §614 16]

614.17 Claims to real estate antedating 1970.
An action based upon a claim arising or existing prior to January 1, 1970, shall not be maintained, either at law or in equity, in any court to recover real estate in this state or to recover or establish any interest in or claim to real estate, legal or equitable, against the holder of the record title to the real estate in possession, when the holder of the record title and the holder's immediate or remote grantors are shown by the record to have held chain of title to the real estate since January 1, 1970, unless the claimant in person, or by the claimant's attorney or agent, or if the claimant is a minor or under legal disability, by the claimant's guardian, trustee, or either parent, within one year from and after July 1, 1980, files in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county in which the real estate is situated, a statement in writing, which is duly acknowledged, definitely describing the real estate involved, the nature and extent of the right or interest claimed, and stating the facts upon which the claim is based.

For the purposes of this section and sections 614 18 to 614 20 a person who holds title to real estate by will or descent from a person who held the title of record to the real estate at the date of that person's death or who holds title by decree or order of a court, or under a tax deed, trustee's, receiver's, guardian's, executor's, administrator's, receiver's, assignee's, master's in chancery, or sheriff's deed, holds chain of title the same as though holding by direct conveyance.

For the purposes of this section, such possession of real estate may be shown of record by affidavits showing the possession, and when the affidavits have been filed and recorded, it is the duty of the recorder to enter upon the margin of the record, a certificate to the effect that the affidavits were filed by the owner in possession, as named in the affidavits, or by the owner's attorney in fact, as shown by the records and in like manner, the affidavits may be filed and recorded where any action was barred on any claim by this section as in force prior to July 1, 1980.

614.18 Claim indexed.
Any such claim so filed, shall be indexed under the description of the real estate involved in a book set apart and specially designed for that purpose to be known as the "claimant's book" and kept in the office of the recorder of the county where such real estate is situated, and said statement, when so indexed, shall be recorded as other instruments affecting real estate.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11025; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §614 18]

614.19 Minors and insane.
The provisions of sections 614 8 as to the rights of minors and insane persons shall not be applicable against the provisions of sections 614 17, 614 18, and 614 20.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §11026; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §614 19]

614.20 Limitation on Act.
Sections 614 17 to 614 19 do not limit or extend the time within which actions by a spouose to recover dower or distributive share in real estate within this state may be brought or maintained under the provisions of section 614 15, nor do they limit or extend the time within which actions may be brought or maintained to foreclose or enforce any real estate mortgage, bond for deed, trust deed, or contract for the sale or conveyance of real estate under the provisions of section 614 21, nor do they revive or permit an action to be brought or maintained upon any claim or cause of action which is barred by a statute which is in force prior to July 1, 1980, nor do they affect litigation pending on July 1, §614.20  1980.
