1. An environmental protection commission is created, which consists of nine members appointed by the governor for staggered terms of four years beginning and ending as provided in section 69.19. Commission appointees are subject to senate confirmation. The members shall be electors of the state and have knowledge of the subjects embraced in chapter 455B. The appointments shall be based upon the training, experience, and capacity of the appointees, and not based upon political considerations, other than as provided in section 69.16. The membership of the commission shall be as follows:
   a. Three members actively engaged in livestock and grain farming.
   b. A member actively engaged in the business of finance or commerce.
   c. A member actively engaged in the management of a manufacturing company.
   d. Four members who are electors of the state.
   2. A vacancy on the commission shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as the original appointment was made.
   3. The members of the commission shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary travel and related expenses incurred in the discharge of official duties. Each member of the commission may also be eligible to receive compensation as provided in section 7E.6.
   4. The commission shall hold an organizational meeting within thirty days of the beginning of a new regular term for one or more of its members. The commission shall organize by electing a chairperson, vice chairperson, secretary, and any other officers deemed necessary or desirable. The commission shall meet at least quarterly throughout the year.

5. A majority of the members of the commission is a quorum, and a majority of a quorum may act in any matter within the jurisdiction of the commission, unless a more restrictive rule is adopted by the commission.

6. Except as otherwise provided by law, the commission shall:
   a. Establish policy for the department and adopt rules, pursuant to chapter 17A, necessary to provide for the effective administration of chapter 455B, 455C, or 469.
   b. Hear appeals in contested cases pursuant to chapter 17A on matters relating to actions taken by the director under chapter 83*, 83A*, 84, 93, 455B, 455C, or 469.
   c. Approve or disapprove the issuance of hazardous waste disposal site licenses under chapter 455B.

455A.7 Divisions created — deputy director and administrators appointed by director.

1. The following divisions are created within the department:
   a. Parks and preserves division which is responsible for programs relating to water access development, state parks and recreation areas, and preserves.
   b. Forests and forestry division which is responsible for administering programs relating to state forests and forestry and for the operation of the state nursery under section 107.20.
   c. Fish and wildlife division which is responsible for programs relating to wildlife, law enforcement, fisheries, and land acquisition and management.
   d. Energy and geological resources division which is responsible for programs relating to energy, geological survey, and oil and gas production.
   e. Environmental protection division which is responsible for programs relating to wastewater treatment, water supply, hazardous wastes, air and land, and field services.
   f. Coordination and information division which has the responsibility for legal services, governmental liaison, information and education, and planning.
   g. Administrative services division which is responsible for finance, budget and grants, administrative support, data processing, licensing, and construction services.
   h. Additional divisions deemed necessary for the effective and efficient administration of the department.

2. The director shall appoint a deputy director who shall be in charge of the department in the absence of the director. The appointment shall be based on the appointee’s training, experience, and capabilities.

3. The director shall appoint an administrator for each division created under subsection 1. The director shall make the appointment based on the appointee’s training, experience, and capabilities. Each administrator has the responsibility of administering the programs assigned the division under subsection 1 and other programs assigned by the director. Each administrator shall carry out the duties and responsibilities of office under the general direction and supervision of the director.

455B.103 Director's duties

The director shall

1. Recommend to the commission the adoption of rules that are necessary for the effective administration of the department.

2. Recommend to the commission the adoption of rules to implement the programs and services assigned to it.

3. Contract, with the approval of the commission, with public agencies of this state to provide all laboratory, scientific field measurement and environmental quality evaluation services necessary to implement the provisions of this chapter. If the director finds that public agencies of this state cannot provide the laboratory, scientific field measurement and environmental evaluation services required by the department, the director may contract, with the approval of the commission, with any other public or private persons or agencies for such services or for scientific or technical services required to carry out the programs and services assigned to the department.

4. Conduct investigations of complaints received directly or referred by the commission created in section 455A.6 or other investigations deemed necessary. While conducting an investigation, the director may enter at any reasonable time in and upon any private or public property to investigate any actual or possible violation of this chapter or the rules or standards adopted under this chapter. However, the owner or person in charge shall be notified.

a. If the owner or occupant of any property refuses admission thereto, or if prior to such refusal the director demonstrates the necessity for a warrant, the director may make application under oath or affirmation to the district court of the county in which the property is located for the issuance of a search warrant.

b. In the application the director shall state that an inspection of the premises is mandated by the laws of this state or that a search of certain premises, areas, or things designated in the application may result in evidence tending to reveal the existence of violations of public health, safety, or welfare requirements imposed by statutes, rules or ordinances established by the state or a political subdivision thereof. The application shall describe the area, premises, or thing to be searched, give the date of the last inspection if known, give the date and time of the proposed inspection, declare the need for such inspection, and notice of desire to make an inspection has been given to affected persons and that admission was refused if that be the fact, and state that the inspection has no purpose other than to carry out the purpose of the statute, ordinance, or regulation pursuant to which inspection is to be made. If an item of property is sought by the director it shall be identified in the application.

c. If the court is satisfied from the examination of the applicant, and of other witnesses, if any, and of the allegations of the application of the existence of the grounds of the application, or that there is probable cause to believe their existence, the court may issue such search warrant.

d. In making inspections and searches pursuant to the authority of this division, the director must execute the warrant.

(1) Within ten days after its date.

(2) In a reasonable manner and any property seized shall be treated in accordance with the provisions of chapters 808 and 809.

(3) Subject to any restrictions imposed by the statute, ordinance or regulation pursuant to which inspection is made.

5. Accept, receive and administer grants or other funds or gifts from public or private agencies, including the federal government, for the abatement, prevention, or control of pollution, or other environmental programs, subject to the approval of the commission.

6. Represent the state in all matters pertaining to plans, procedures, negotiations, and agreements for interstate compacts relating to the control of pollution or the protection or enhancement of the environment.

Any agreement is subject to the approval of the commission.

455B.104 Water, air and waste management commission. Repealed by 86 Acts, ch 1245, §18990

455B.105 Powers and duties of the commission.

The commission shall

1. Establish policy for the implementation of programs under its jurisdiction. The commission shall appoint advisory committees to advise the commission and the director in carrying out their respective powers and duties.

2. Advise, consult, and cooperate with other agencies of the state, political subdivisions, and any other public or private agency to promote the orderly, efficient, and effective accomplishment of its responsibilities.

3. Adopt, modify, or repeal rules necessary to implement this chapter and the rules deemed necessary for the effective administration of the department. When the commission proposes or adopts rules to implement a specific federal environmental program and the rules impose requirements more restrictive than the federal program being implemented requires, the commission shall identify in its notice of intended action or adopted rule preamble each rule that is more restrictive than the federal program requires and shall state the reasons for proposing or adopting the more restrictive requirement. In addition, the commission shall include with its reasoning a financial impact statement detailing the general impact upon the affected parties. It is the intent of the general assembly that the commission exercise strict oversight of the operations of the department. The rules shall include departmental policy relating to the disclosure of information on a violation or alleged violation of the rules, standards, permits or orders issued by the department and keeping of confidential information obtained by the department in the administration and enforcement of this chapter. Rules adopted by the executive committee before January 1, 1981 shall remain effective until modified or rescinded by action of the commission.

4 Approve the departmental budget request prior to submission to the department of management. The commission may increase, decrease, or strike any proposed expenditure within the departmental budget request before granting approval.

5 Issue orders and directives necessary to insure integration and coordination of the programs administered by the department.

6 Make a concise annual report to the governor and the general assembly, which report shall contain information relating to the accomplishments and status of the programs administered by the department and include recommendations for legislative action which may be required to protect or enhance the environment or to modernize the operation of the department or any of the programs or services assigned to the department and recommendations for the transfer of powers and duties of the department as deemed advisable by the commission. The annual report shall conform to the provisions of section 17 3.

7 Approve all contracts and agreements under this chapter between the department and other public or private persons or agencies.

8 Obtain an adequate public employees fidelity bond to cover those officers and employees of the department accountable for property or funds of this state.

9 Hold public hearings, except when the evidence to be received is confidential pursuant to this chapter or chapter 22, necessary to carry out its powers and duties. The commission may issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence pertinent to the hearing. A subpoena shall be issued and enforced in the same manner as provided in civil actions.

10 Upon request of at least four members of the commission before adopting or modifying a rule, the director shall prepare and publish with the notice required under section 17A 4, subsection 1, paragraph "a", a comprehensive estimate of the economic impact of the proposed rule or modification.

11 Appoint a water coordinator who shall coordinate requests from the public for information or assistance relating to the administration of water resources laws and programs and the resolution of water-related problems.

12 a Adopt, by rule, procedures and forms necessary to implement the provisions of this chapter relating to permits or conditional permits. The commission may also adopt, by rule, a schedule of fees for permit and conditional permit applications and a schedule of fees which may be periodically assessed for administration of permits and conditional permits. In determining the fee schedules, the commission shall consider

(1) The state's reasonable cost of reviewing applications, issuing permits and conditional permits, and checking compliance with the terms of the permits.

(2) The relative benefits to the applicant and to the public of permit and conditional permit review, issuance, and monitoring compliance.

It is the intention of the legislature that permit fees shall not cover any costs connected with correcting violations of the terms of any permit and shall not impose unreasonable costs on any municipality.

(3) The typical costs of the particular types of projects or activities for which permits or conditional permits are required, provided that in no circumstances shall fees be in excess of the actual costs to the department.

b The fees collected by the department under this subsection shall be remitted to the treasurer of state and credited to the general fund of the state.

§455B.109 Schedule of fines — minor violations.

1 The commission may establish, by rule, a schedule or range of civil penalties which may be administratively assessed. The schedule shall provide procedures and criteria for the administrative assessment of penalties of not more than one thousand dollars for minor violations of this chapter or rules, permits or orders adopted or issued under this chapter. In adopting a schedule or range of penalties and in proposing or assessing a penalty, the commission and director shall consider among other relevant factors the following:

a The costs saved or likely to be saved by noncompliance by the violator.

b The gravity of the violation.

c The degree of culpability of the violator.

d The maximum penalty authorized for that violation by this chapter. Penalties may be administratively assessed only after an opportunity for a contested case hearing which may be combined with a hearing on the merits of the alleged violation.

Major violations, violations not fitting within the schedule, or violations which the commission determines should be referred to the attorney general for legal action shall not be governed by the schedule established under this subsection.

2. If the commission establishes a schedule for minor violations, the commission shall provide, by rule, a procedure for the screening of alleged violations to determine which cases may be appropriate for the administrative assessment of penalties. However, the screening procedure shall not limit the discretion of the department to refer any case to the attorney general for legal action.

3. A penalty shall be paid within thirty days of the date the order assessing the penalty becomes final. When a person against whom a civil penalty is assessed under this section seeks timely judicial review of an order imposing the penalty as provided under chapter 17A, the order is not final for the purposes of this section until all judicial review processes are completed. Additional judicial review may not be sought after the order becomes final. A person who fails to timely pay a civil penalty assessed by a final order of the department shall pay, in addition, interest at the rate of one and one-half percent of the unpaid balance of the assessed penalty for each month or part of a month that the penalty remains unpaid. The attorney general shall institute, at the request of the department, summary proceedings to recover the penalty and any accrued interest.

4. All civil penalties assessed by the department and interest on the penalties shall be deposited in the general fund of the state.

5. This section does not require the commission or the director to pursue an administrative remedy before seeking a remedy in the courts of this state.

84 Acts, ch 1159, §1; 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899

455B.111 Citizen actions.

1. Except as provided in subsection 2, a person with standing as provided in subsection 3 may commence a civil action in district court on the person's own behalf against any of the following:
   a. A person, including the state of Iowa, for violating any provision of this chapter or a rule adopted pursuant to this chapter.
   b. The director, the commission, or any official or employee of the department where there is an alleged failure to perform any act or duty under this chapter or a rule adopted pursuant to this chapter which is not a discretionary act or duty.

2. An action shall not be commenced pursuant to subsection 1, paragraph "a", unless the person commencing the action has provided the director and the alleged violator with a written notice at least sixty days prior to commencing the action. The written notice shall specify the nature of the violation and that legal action is contemplated under this section if the violation is not abated and, if necessary, remedial action is not taken. The state may intervene in such an action as a matter of right. In addition, an action shall not be commenced pursuant to subsection 1, paragraph "a", if the department or the state has commenced and is actively prosecuting a civil action or is actively negotiating an out-of-court settlement to require abatement of the violation and, if necessary, remediation of damages. However, any person may intervene as a matter of right in such an action.

3. A person shall have standing to commence an action pursuant to subsection 1 or to intervene in an action pursuant to subsection 2 if the person is adversely affected by the alleged violation or the alleged failure to perform a duty or act.

4. In an action commenced pursuant to subsection 1, the court may award costs of litigation, including reasonable attorney and expert witness fees, to any party.

5. This section does not restrict any right under statutory or common law of a person or class of person to seek enforcement of provisions of this chapter or a rule adopted pursuant to this chapter or seek other relief permitted under the law.

455B.112 Actions by attorney general.

In addition to the duty to commence legal proceedings at the request of the director or commission under this chapter, the attorney general may institute civil or criminal proceedings, including an action for injunction, to enforce the provisions of this chapter including orders or permits issued or rules adopted under this chapter.

DIVISION II

AIR QUALITY

455B.131 Definitions.

455B.131 Definitions.

When used in this division II, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Air contaminant" means dust, fume, mist, smoke, other particulate matter, gas, vapor (except water vapor), odorous substance, radioactive substance, or any combination thereof.

2. "Air contaminant source" means any and all sources of emission of air contaminants whether privately or publicly owned or operated.

Air contaminant source includes, but is not limited to, all types of businesses, commercial and industrial plants, works, shops, and stores, heating and power plants and stations, buildings and other structures of all types including single and multiple family residences, office buildings, hotels, restaurants, schools, hospitals, churches and other institutional buildings, automobiles, trucks, tractors, buses, aircraft, and other motor vehicles, garages, vending and service locations and stations, railroad locomotives, ships, boats, and other water-borne craft, portable fuel-burning equipment, indoor and outdoor incinerators of all types, refuse dumps and piles, and all stack and other chimney outlets from any of the foregoing.

An air contaminant source does not include a fire truck or other fire apparatus operated by an organized fire department.

3. "Air pollution" means presence in the outdoor atmosphere of one or more air contaminants in sufficient quantities and of such characteristics and dura-§455B.133

Duties.

The commission shall

1. Develop comprehensive plans and programs for the abatement, control, and prevention of air pollution in this state, recognizing varying requirements for different areas in the state. The plans may include emission limitations, schedules and timetables for compliance with the limitations, measures to prevent the significant deterioration of air quality and other measures as necessary to assure attainment and maintenance of ambient air quality standards.

2. Adopt, amend, or repeal rules pertaining to the evaluation, abatement, control, and prevention of air pollution. The rules may include those that are necessary to obtain approval of the state implementation plan under section 110 of the federal Clean Air Act as amended through January 1, 1979.

3. Adopt, amend, or repeal ambient air quality standards for the atmosphere of this state on the basis of providing air quality necessary to protect the public health and welfare.

4. Adopt, amend or repeal emission limitations or standards relating to the maximum quantities of air contaminants that may be emitted from any air contaminant source. The standards or limitations adopted under this section shall not exceed the standards or limitations promulgated by the administrator of the United States environmental protection agency or the requirements of the federal Clean Air Act as amended to January 1, 1979. This does not prohibit the commission from adopting a standard for a source or class of sources for which the United States environmental protection agency has not promulgated a standard.

b (1) The commission shall establish standards of performance unless in the judgment of the commission it is not feasible to adopt or enforce a standard of performance. If it is not feasible to adopt or enforce a standard of performance, the commission may adopt a design, equipment, material, work practice or operational standard, or combination of those standards in order to establish reasonably available control technology or the lowest achievable emission rate in nonattainment areas, or in order to establish best available control technology in areas subject to prevention of significant deterioration review, or in order to adopt the emission limitations promulgated by the administrator of the United States environmental protection agency under section 111 or 112 of the federal Clean Air Act as amended to January 1, 1979.

(2) If a person establishes to the satisfaction of the commission that an alternative means of emission limitation will achieve a reduction in emissions of an air pollutant at least equivalent to the reduction in emissions of the air pollutant achieved under the design, equipment, material, work practice or operational standard, the commission shall amend its rules to permit the use of the alternative by the source for purposes of compliance with this paragraph with respect to the pollutant.

(3) A design, equipment, material, work practice or operational standard promulgated under this paragraph shall be promulgated in terms of a standard of performance when it becomes feasible to promulgate and enforce the standard in those terms.

b (4) For the purpose of this paragraph, the phrase "not feasible to adopt or enforce a standard of performance" refers to a situation in which the commission determines that the application of measurement methodology to a particular class of sources is not practicable due to technological or economic limitations.

c If the maximum standards for the emission of sulphur dioxide from solid fuels have to be reduced in an area to meet ambient air quality standards, a contract for coal produced in Iowa and burned by a facility in that area that met the sulphur dioxide emission standards in effect at the time the contract went into effect shall be exempted from the decreased requirement until the expiration of the contract period or December 31, 1983, whichever first occurs, if there is any other reasonable means available to satisfy the ambient air quality standards. To qualify under this subsection, the contract must be recorded with the county recorder of the county where the burning facility is located within thirty days after the signing of the contract.

c The degree of emission limitation required for control of an air contaminant under an emission standard shall not be affected by that part of the stack height of a source that exceeds good engineering practice, as defined in rules, or any other dispersion technique. This paragraph shall not apply to stack heights in existence before December 30, 1970, or dispersion techniques implemented before that date.
5 Classify air contaminant sources according to levels and types of emissions, and other characteristics which relate to air pollution The commission may require, by rule, the owner or operator of any air contaminant source to establish and maintain such records, make such reports, install, use and maintain such monitoring equipment or methods, sample such emissions in accordance with such methods at such locations and intervals, and using such procedures as the commission shall prescribe, and provide such other information as the commission may reasonably require Such classifications may be for application to the state as a whole, or to any designated area of the state, and shall be made with special reference to effects on health, economic and social factors, and physical effects on property

6 a Require, by rules, notice of the construction of any air contaminant source which may cause or contribute to air pollution, and the submission of plans and specifications to the department, or other information deemed necessary, for the installation of air contaminant sources and related control equipment The rules shall allow the owner or operator of a major stationary source to elect to obtain a conditional permit in lieu of a construction permit The rules relating to a conditional permit for an electric power generating facility subject to chapter 476A and other major stationary sources shall allow the submission of engineering descriptions, flow diagrams and schematics that quantitatively and qualitatively identify emission streams and alternative control equipment that will provide compliance with emission standards Such rules shall not specify any particular method to be used to reduce undesirable levels of emissions, nor type, design, or method of installation of any equipment to be used to reduce such levels of emissions, nor the type, design, or method of installation or type of construction of any manufacturing processes or kinds of equipment, nor specify the kind or composition of fuels permitted to be sold, stored, or used unless authorized by subsection 4 of this section

b The commission may give technical advice pertaining to the construction or installation of the equipment or any other recommendation

c Commission rules establishing maximum permissible sulfate content shall not apply to an expansion of new or modified air contaminant sources and related control equipment that will meet the emission limitations established in the conditional permit

d All applications for permits other than conditional permits for electric generating facilities shall be subject to such notice and public participation as may be provided by rule by the commission Upon denial or limitation of a permit other than a conditional permit for an electric generating facility, the applicant shall be notified of such denial and informed of the reason or reasons therefor, and such applicant shall be entitled to a hearing before the commission

e (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of division II of this chapter, the following siting requirements shall apply to anaerobic lagoons.

Anaerobic lagoons which are used in connection with animal feeding operations containing less than six hundred twenty-five thousand pounds live animal weight capacity of animal species other than beef cattle or containing less than one million six hundred thousand pounds live animal weight capacity of beef cattle shall be located at least one thousand two hundred fifty feet from a residence not owned by the owner of the feeding operation or from a public use area other than a public road Anaerobic lagoons, which are used in connection with animal feeding operations containing six hundred twenty-five thousand pounds or more live animal weight capacity of animal species other than beef cattle or containing one million six hundred thousand pounds live animal weight capacity of beef cattle, shall be located at least one thousand two hundred fifty feet from a residence not owned by the owner of the feeding operation or from a public use area other than a public road For the purpose of this paragraph the determination of live animal weight capacity shall be based on the average animal weight capacity during a production cycle and the maximum animal capacity of the animal feeding operation These separation distances apply to the construction of new facilities and the expansion of existing facilities with industrial treatment of wastewater where the average wastewater discharge flow is one hundred thousand gallons per day or less shall be located at least one thousand two hundred fifty feet from a residence not owned by the owner of the lagoon or from a public use area other than a public road. Anaerobic lagoons which are used in connection with industrial treatment of wastewater where the average wastewater discharge flow is greater than one hundred thousand gallons per day shall be located at least one thousand eight hundred seventy five feet from a residence not owned by the owner of the lagoon or from a public use area other than a public road. These separation distances apply to the construction of new facilities and the expansion of existing facilities.

2. A person may build or expand an anaerobic lagoon closer to a residence not owned by the owner of the anaerobic lagoon or to a public use area than is otherwise permitted by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph if the affected landowners enter into a written agreement with the anaerobic lagoon owner to waive the separation distances under such terms the parties negotiate. The written agreement becomes effective only upon recording in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county in which the residence is located.

4. Determine by field studies and sampling the quality of atmosphere and the degree of air pollution in this state or any part thereof.

5. Conduct and encourage studies, investigations, and research relating to air pollution and its causes, effects, abatement, control, and prevention.

6. Provide technical assistance to political subdivisions of this state requesting such aid for the furtherance of air pollution control.

7. Collect and disseminate information, and conduct educational and training programs, relating to air pollution and its abatement, prevention, and control.

8. Consider complaints of conditions reported to, or considered likely to, constitute air pollution, and investigate such complaints upon receipt of the written petition of any state agency, the governing body of a political subdivision, a local board of health, or twenty-five affected residents of the state.

9. Issue orders consistent with rules to cause the abatement or control of air pollution. In making the orders, the director shall consider the facts and circumstances bearing upon the reasonableness of the emissions involved, including but not limited to, the character and degree of injury to, or interference with, the protection of health and the physical property of the public, the practicability of reducing or limiting the emissions from the air pollution source, and the suitability or unsuitability of the air pollution source to the area where it is located. An order may include advisory recommendations for the control of emissions from an air contaminant source and the reduction of the emission of air contaminants.

10. Encourage voluntary cooperation by persons or affected groups in restoring and preserving a reasonable quality of air within the state.

11. Encourage political subdivisions to handle air pollution problems within their respective jurisdictions.

12. Review and evaluate air pollution control programs conducted by political subdivisions of the state with respect to whether the programs are consistent with the provisions of division II of this chapter and rules adopted by the commission.

13. Hold public hearings, except when the evidence to be received is confidential pursuant to section 455B.137, necessary to accomplish the purposes of division II of this chapter. The director may issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence pertinent to the hearings. A subpoena shall be issued and enforced in the same manner as in civil actions.

455B.135 Limit on authority.

Nothing contained in this division II shall be deemed to grant to the department or the director any authority or jurisdiction with respect to air pollution existing solely within residences, or solely within commercial and industrial plants, works, or shops under the jurisdiction of chapters 88 and 91, or to affect the relations between employers and employees with respect to, or arising out of, any condition of air pollution.

455B.136 Assistance on demand.

The department and the director may request and receive assistance from any other agency, department, or educational institution of the state, or political subdivision thereof, when it is deemed necessary or beneficial by the department or the director. The department may reimburse such agencies for special expense resulting from expenditures not normally a part of the operating expenses of any such agency.

455B.137 Privileged information.

Information received by the department or any employees of the department through filed reports, inspections, or as otherwise authorized in this division II concerning trade secrets, secret industrial processes, or other privileged communications, except emission data, shall not be disclosed or opened to public inspection, except as may be necessary in a proceeding concerning a violation of said division or of any rules promulgated thereunder, or as otherwise authorized or ordered by appropriate court action or proceedings. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the director from compiling or publishing analyses or summaries relating to the general condition of the atmosphere, provided that such analyses or summaries do not reveal any information otherwise confidential under this section.

455B.138 Resolution of violations — appeal.

1. When the director has evidence that a violation of any provision of division II of this chapter, or rule, standard or permit established or issued under division II has occurred, the director shall notify the alleged violator and, by informal negotiation, attempt to resolve the problem. If the negotiations fail to resolve the problem within a reasonable period of time, the director shall issue an order directing the violator to prevent, abate or control the emissions or air pollution involved. The order shall prescribe the date by which the violation shall cease and may prescribe timetables for necessary action to prevent, abate or control the emissions of air pollution. The order may be appealed to the commission.

2. After the hearing on appeal, the commission may affirm, modify or rescind the order of the director.

3. The director shall keep a complete record of the hearings and proceeding and the record shall be open to public inspection, subject to section 455B.137. Upon request, a copy of the transcript shall be furnished to the violator or alleged violator at the violator's or alleged violator's expense.

4. An appeal to the commission under this section shall be conducted as a contested case under chapter 17A.

455B.139 Emergency orders.

If the director has evidence that any person is causing air pollution and that such pollution creates an emergency requiring immediate action to protect the public health and safety, or property, the director may, without notice, issue an emergency order requiring such person to reduce or discontinue immediately the emission of air contaminants. A copy of the emergency order shall be served by personal service. An emergency order issued by the director may be appealed to the commission. After hearing on appeal, the commission may affirm, modify or rescind the order of the director.

455B.140 Judicial review.

Judicial review of actions of the commission or of the director may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa Administrative Procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, petitions for judicial review may be filed in the district court of the county in which the alleged offense was committed.

455B.141 Legal action.

If action to prevent, control, or abate air pollution is not taken in accordance with the rules established, or orders issued by the department, or if the director has evidence that an emergency exists by reason of air pollution which requires immediate action to protect the public health or property, the attorney general, at the request of the director, shall commence legal action, in the name of the state, for an injunction to prevent any further or continued violation of such rule or order.

455B.142 Burden of proof.

In all proceedings with respect to any alleged violation of the provisions of this division II or any rule established by the commission, the burden of proof shall be upon the department except in an action for an injunction as provided in section 455B.141.

455B.143 Variance.

Any person who owns or operates any plant, building, structure, process, or equipment may apply for a variance from the rules or standards adopted by the department by filing an application with the department. The application shall be accompanied by such information and data required by the department.

1. The director shall promptly investigate the application and approve or disapprove the application. The director may grant a variance if the director finds that:

   a. The emissions occurring or proposed to occur do not endanger or tend to endanger human health or safety or property; and

   b. Compliance with the rules or standards from which the variance is sought will produce serious hardship without equal or greater benefits to the public.

2. The applicant may request a review hearing before the department if the application is denied.

3. In determining under what conditions and to what extent a variance may be granted, the director shall give due recognition to the progress which the applicant has made toward eliminating or preventing air pollution. In such a case, the director shall consider the reasonableness of the request, conditioned upon such applicant effecting a partial abatement of the particular air pollution within a reasonable period of time, or the director may prescribe other requirements with which such applicant shall comply.

4. The director may grant a variance for a specified period of time, not exceeding one year, and the director may further specify that the applicant make periodic reports specifying the progress that has been made toward compliance with any rule for which the variance was granted. A variance may be extended from year to year by affirmative action of the director.

5. The director shall maintain a record of each variance granted specifying the reasons for its issuance or extension.

455B.144 Local control program.

1. Any political subdivision may conduct an air pollution control program within the boundaries of its jurisdiction, or may jointly conduct an air pollution control program with other political subdivisions of this state or of other states, except that every joint program shall be established and administered as provided in chapter 28E. In conducting such programs, political subdivisions may adopt and enforce rules or standards to secure and maintain adequate air quality within their respective jurisdictions.

2. If the board of supervisors in any county establishes an air pollution control program and has obtained a certificate of acceptance, the agency implementing the program may regulate air pollution within the county including any incorporated areas therein until such incorporated areas obtain a certificate of acceptance as a joint or separate agency.

455B.145 Acceptance of local program.
When an air pollution control program conducted by a political subdivision, or a combination thereof, is deemed upon review as provided in section 455B.134, to be consistent with the provisions of this division II or the rules established thereunder, the director shall accept such program in lieu of state administration and regulation of air pollution within the political subdivisions involved. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the director to take emergency action under the provisions of sections 455B.139 and 455B.141 or to administer a part of the local program that has been suspended.

1. In evaluating an air pollution control program, consideration shall be given to whether such program provides for the following:
   a. Ordinances, rules and standards establishing requirements consistent with, or more strict than, those imposed by this division II or rules and standards adopted by the department.
   b. Enforcement of such requirements by appropriate administrative and judicial process.
   c. Administrative organization, staff, financial and other resources necessary to administer an efficient and effective program.
   d. Location of emission monitoring devices in areas of the political subdivision in compliance with uniform state standards adopted by the department. The department shall adopt uniform state standards for the location of emission monitoring devices specifying such intervals and such procedures to provide a reasonably consistent measurement of emissions from air contaminant sources regardless of the political subdivision of the state in which the sources may be located.

2. Upon acceptance of a local air pollution control program, the director shall issue a certificate of acceptance to the appropriate local agency.
   a. Any political subdivision desiring a certificate of acceptance shall apply to the department on forms prescribed by the director.
   b. The director shall promptly investigate the application and approve or disapprove the application. The director may conduct a public hearing before action is taken to approve or disapprove. If the director disapproves issuing a certificate, the political subdivision may appeal the action to the department of inspections and appeals. At the hearing on appeal, the department of inspections and appeals shall decide whether the local program is substantially consistent with the provisions of this division II, or rules adopted thereunder, and whether the local program is being enforced. The burden of proof shall be upon the political subdivision.
   c. If the director determines at any time that a local air pollution program is being conducted in a manner inconsistent with the substantive provisions of this division II or the rules adopted thereunder, the director shall notify the political subdivision, citing the deviations from the acceptable standards and the corrective measures to be completed within a reasonable amount of time. If the corrective measures are not implemented as prescribed, the director shall suspend in whole or in part the certificate of acceptance of such political subdivision and shall administer the regulatory provisions of said division in whole or in part within the political subdivision until the appropriate standards are met. Upon receipt of evidence that necessary corrective action has been taken, the director shall reinstate the suspended certificate of acceptance, and the political subdivision shall resume the administration of the local air pollution control program within its jurisdiction. In cases where the certificate of acceptance is suspended, the political subdivision may appeal the suspension to the department of inspections and appeals.
   d. Nothing in this division II shall be construed to supersede the jurisdiction of any local air pollution control program in operation on the first of January, 1973, except that any such program shall meet all requirements of said division.

455B.146 Civil action for compliance.
If any order, permit or rule of the department is being violated, the attorney general shall, at the request of the department or the director, institute a civil action in any district court for injunctive relief to prevent any further violation of the order, permit or rule, or for the assessment of a civil penalty as determined by the court, not to exceed five thousand dollars per day for each day such violation continues, or both such injunctive relief and civil penalty.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899, 1899B

455B.147 Failure — procedure.
1. If the director fails to take action within sixty days after an application for a variance is made, or if the department fails to enter a final order or determination within sixty days after the final argument in hearing on appeal, the person seeking the action may treat the failure to act as a grant of the requested variance, or of a finding favorable to the respondent in hearing on appeal, as the case may be.

2. If the director fails to take action within one hundred twenty days after a completed application for a construction permit is made, or if the department fails to enter a final order or determination within sixty days after the final argument in a hearing on appeal of the permit, the person seeking the action may treat the failure to act as a grant of the requested permit, or of a finding favorable to the respondent in a hearing on appeal, as the case may be.

3. The section shall not apply to an application for a conditional permit for an electrical power generating facility subject to chapter 476A.

455B.149 Energy or economic emergency.
1. Upon application by the owner or operator of a fuel-burning stationary source, and after notice and opportunity for public hearing, the commission may petition the president, under section 110, subsection "f," paragraph 1 of the federal Clean Air Act as amended to January 1, 1979, for a determination that a national or regional energy emergency exists. If the president determines an emergency exists, the commission may suspend any requirement of this division or a rule or permit issued under this division. A temporary emergency suspension under this subsection shall be issued only if there exists in the vicinity of the source a temporary emergency involving high levels of unemployment or loss of necessary energy supplies for residential buildings and if the unemployment or loss can be totally or partially alleviated by the suspension. Only one suspension may be issued for a source on the basis of the same set of circumstances or on the basis of the same emergency. A suspension shall remain in effect for a maximum of four months. The commission may include in a suspension a provision directing the director to delay for a period identical to the period of the suspension a compliance schedule or increment of progress to which the source is subject under section 455B.138, if the source is unable to comply with the schedule or increment solely because of the conditions on the basis of which the suspension was issued.

2. If a plan revision has been submitted to the administrator of the United States environmental protection agency under section 110 of the federal Clean Air Act as amended to January 1, 1979, and if the commission determines that the revision meets the requirements of that section and the revision is necessary to prevent the closing of an air contaminant source for one year or more and to prevent substantial increases in unemployment which would result from the closing, and if the administrator has not approved or disapproved within the required four-month period, the commission may issue a temporary emergency suspension of the part of the applicable implementation plan which is proposed to be revised with respect to the source. The determination under this subsection shall not be made with respect to a source which would close without regard to whether or not the proposed plan revision is approved. A temporary emergency suspension issued under this subsection shall remain in effect for a maximum of four months. A temporary emergency suspension under this subsection may include a provision directing the director to delay for a period identical to the period of the suspension a compliance schedule or increment of progress to which the source is subject under section 119 of the federal Clean Air Act as in effect prior to August 7, 1977, or section 113, subsection "d" of the federal Clean Air Act as amended to January 1, 1979, upon a finding that the source is unable to comply with the schedule or increment solely because of the conditions on the basis of which a suspension was issued under this subsection.

DIVISION III

PART 1

GENERAL

455B.171 Definitions.

When used in this part 1 of division III, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Sewage" means the water-carried waste products from residences, public buildings, institutions, or other buildings, including the bodily discharges from human beings or animals together with such ground water infiltration and surface water as may be present.

2. "Industrial waste" means any liquid, gaseous, radioactive, or solid waste substance resulting from any process of industry, manufacturing, trade or business or from the development of any natural resource.

3. "Other waste" means heat, garbage, municipal refuse, lime, sand, ashes, offal, oil, tar, chemicals and all other wastes which are not sewage or industrial waste.

4. "Water pollution" means the contamination or alteration of the physical, chemical, biological, or radiological integrity of any water of the state by a source resulting in whole or in part from the activities of humans, which is harmful, detrimental, or injurious to public health, safety, or welfare, to domestic, commercial, industrial, agricultural, or recreational use or to livestock, wild animals, birds, fish, or other aquatic life.

5. "Sewer system" means pipelines or conduits, pumping stations, force mains, vehicles, vessels, conveyances, injection wells, and all other constructions, devices and appliances appurtenant thereto used for conducting sewage or industrial waste or other wastes to a point of ultimate disposal or disposal to any water of the state. To the extent that they are not subject to section 402 of the federal Water Pollution Control Act, ditches, pipes, and drains that serve only to collect, channel, direct, and convey nonpoint runoff from precipitation are not considered as sewer systems for the purposes of this Act.*

6. "Treatment works" means any plant, disposal field, lagoon, holding or flow-regulating basin, pumping station, or other works installed for the purpose of treating, stabilizing or disposing of sewage, industrial waste or other wastes.

7. "Disposal system" means a system for disposing of sewage, industrial waste and other wastes and includes sewer systems, treatment works, point sources and dispersal systems.

9. "Water of the state" means any stream, lake, pond, marsh, watercourse, waterway, well, spring, reservoir, aquifer, irrigation system, drainage system, and any other body or accumulation of water, surface or underground, natural or artificial, public or private, which are contained within, flow through or border upon the state or any portion thereof.

10. "Person" means any agency of the state or federal government or institution thereof, any municipality, governmental subdivision, interstate body, public or private corporation, individual, partnership, or other entity and includes any officer or governing or managing body of any municipality, governmental subdivision, interstate body, or public or private corporation.
11 "Effluent standard" means any restriction or prohibition on quantities, rates, and concentrations of chemical, physical, biological, radiological and other constituents which are discharged from point sources into any water of the state including an effluent limitation, a standard of performance for a new source, a toxic effluent standard or other limitation

12 "Point source" means any discernible, confined, and discrete conveyance, including but not limited to any pipe, ditch, channel, tunnel, conduit, well, discrete fissure, container, rolling stock, concentrated animal feeding operation, or vessel or other floating craft, from which pollutants are or may be discharged

13 "Pollutant" means sewage, industrial waste or other waste

14 "New source" means any building, structure, facility or installation, from which there is or may be the discharge of a pollutant, the construction of which is commenced after the publication of proposed federal rules prescribing a standard of performance which will be applicable to such source, if such standard is promulgated

15 "Schedule of compliance" means a schedule of remedial measures including an enforceable sequence of actions or operations leading to compliance with any effluent standard, water quality standard, or any other requirement of this part of this division or any rule promulgated pursuant thereto

16 "Sewer extension" means pipelines or conduits constituting main sewers, lateral sewers or trunk sewers used for conducting pollutants to a larger interceptor sewer or to a point of ultimate disposal

17 "Water supply distribution system extension" means any extension to the pipelines or conduits which carry water directly from the treatment facility, source or storage facility to the consumer’s service connection

18 "Production capacity" means the amount of potable water which can be supplied to the distribution system in a twenty four hour period

19 "Public water supply system" means a system for the provision to the public of piped water for human consumption, if the system has at least fifteen service connections or regularly serves at least twenty-five individuals The term includes any source of water and any collection, treatment, storage, and distribution facilities under control of the operator of the system and used primarily in connection with the system, and any collection or pretreatment storage facilities not under such control which are used primarily in connection with the system

20 "Maximum contaminant level" means the maximum permissible level of any physical, chemical, biological or radiological substance in water which is delivered to any user of a public water supply system

21 "Private water supply" means any water supply for human consumption which has less than fifteen service connections and regularly serves less than twenty five individuals

22 "Private sewage disposal system" means a system for the treatment or disposal of domestic sewage which is not a private sewage disposal system and which is not owned by a city, a sanitary sewer district, or a designated and approved management agency under section 1288 of the federal Water Pollution Control Act (33 U.S.C. §1288)

24 "Abandoned well" means a water well which is no longer in use or which is in such a state of disrepair that continued use for the purpose of accessing groundwater is unsafe or impracticable

25 "Contractor" means a person engaged in the business of well construction or reconstruction

26 "Reconstruction" of a water well means replacement or removal of all or a portion of the casing of the water well

27 "Water well" means an excavation that is drilled, cored, bored, augered, washed, driven, dug, jetted or otherwise constructed for accessing groundwater "Water well" does not include an open ditch or drain tiles

28 "Construction" of a water well means the physical act or process of making the water well including, but not limited to, siting, excavation, construction, and the installation of equipment and materials necessary to maintain and operate the well

29 A local board of health is the agency to regulate, abate, or control water pollution and to conduct the public water supply program

30 The department is the state agency designated to carry out the state responsibilities related to private water supplies and private sewage disposal systems for the protection of the health of the citizens of this state The commission shall adopt minimum standards and provide model standards for private water supplies and private sewage disposal facilities for use of the local boards of health Each local board of health is the agency to regulate private water supplies and private sewage disposal systems, but the department shall maintain jurisdiction over discharges to a water of the state Each local board of health shall adopt standards relating to the design and construction of private water supplies and private sewage disposal facilities, which standards shall not be lower than the minimum standards adopted by the commission

3 a The department is the state agency to regulate the construction, reconstruction and abandonment of all of the following water wells

(1) Those used as part of a public water supply system as defined in section 455B 171

(2) Those used for the withdrawal of water for which a permit is required pursuant to section 455B 268, subsection 1

(3) Those used for the purpose of monitoring groundwater quantity and quality required or installed pursuant to directions or regulations of the department

b A local board of health is the agency to regulate the construction, reconstruction and abandonment of water wells not otherwise regulated by the department The local board of health shall not adopt standards relative to the construction, reconstruction and abandonment of wells less stringent than those adopted by the department.

4. The department is the state agency to regulate the registration of water well contractors pursuant to section 455B.187.

5. Pursuant to chapter 28E, the department may delegate its authority for regulation of the construction, reconstruction and abandonment of water wells specified in subsection 3 or the registration of water well contractors specified in subsection 4 to boards of health or other agencies which have adequate authority and ability to administer and enforce the requirements established by law or rule.

455B.173 Duties.

The commission shall:

1. Develop comprehensive plans and programs for the prevention, control and abatement of water pollution.

2. Establish, modify or repeal water quality standards, pretreatment standards and effluent standards. The effluent standards may provide for maintaining the existing quality of the water of the state where the quality thereof exceeds the requirements of the water quality standards.

If the federal environmental protection agency has promulgated an effluent standard or pretreatment standard pursuant to section 301, 306 or 307 of the federal Water Pollution Control Act, a pretreatment or effluent standard adopted pursuant to this section shall not be more stringent than the federal effluent or pretreatment standard for such source. This section may not preclude the establishment of a more restrictive effluent limitation in the permit for a particular point source if the more restrictive effluent limitation is necessary to meet water quality standards, the establishment of an effluent standard for a source or class of sources for which the federal environmental protection agency has not promulgated standards pursuant to section 301, 306 or 307 of the federal Water Pollution Control Act. Except as required by federal law or regulation, the commission shall not adopt an effluent standard more stringent with respect to any pollutant than is necessary to reduce the concentration of that pollutant in the effluent to the level due to natural causes, including the mineral and chemical characteristics of the land, existing in the water of the state to which the effluent is discharged. Notwithstanding any other provision of this part of this division, any new source, the construction of which was commenced after October 18, 1972, and which was constructed as to meet all applicable standards of performance for the new source or any more stringent effluent limitation required to meet water quality standards, shall not be subject to any more stringent effluent limitations during a ten-year period beginning on the date of completion of construction or during the period of depreciation or amortization of the pollution control equipment for the facility for the purposes of section 167 and 169 or both sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, whichever period ends first.

3. Establish, modify or repeal rules relating to the location, construction, operation, and maintenance of disposal systems and public water supply systems and specifying the conditions under which the director shall issue, revoke, suspend, modify or deny permits for the operation, installation, construction, addition to or modification of any disposal system or public water supply system, or for the discharge of any pollutant or for the disposal of water wastes resulting from poultry and livestock operations. The rules specifying the conditions under which the director shall issue permits for the construction of an electric power generating facility subject to chapter 476A shall provide for issuing a conditional permit upon the submission of engineering descriptions, flow diagrams and schematics that qualitatively and quantitatively identify effluent streams and alternative disposal systems that will provide compliance with effluent standards or limitations.

No rules shall be adopted which regulate the hiring or firing of operators of disposal systems or public water supply systems except rules which regulate the certification of operators as to their technical competency.

A publicly owned treatment works whose discharge meets the final effluent limitations which were contained in its discharge permit on the date that construction of the publicly owned treatment works was approved by the department shall not be required to meet more stringent effluent limitations for a period of ten years from the date the construction was completed and accepted but not longer than twelve years from the date that construction was approved by the department.

4. Co-operate with other state or interstate water pollution control agencies in establishing standards, objectives, or criteria for the quality of interstate waters originating or flowing through this state.

5. Establish, modify or repeal rules relating to drinking water standards for public water supply systems. Such standards shall specify maximum contaminant levels or treatment techniques necessary to protect the public health and welfare. The drinking water standards must assure compliance with federal drinking water standards adopted pursuant to the federal Safe Drinking Water Act.

6. Establish, modify or repeal rules relating to inspection, monitoring, record keeping and reporting requirements for the owner or operator of any public water supply or any disposal system or of any source which is an industrial user of a publicly or privately owned disposal system.

7. Adopt a statewide plan for the provision of safe drinking water under emergency circumstances. All public agencies, as defined in chapter 28E, shall cooperate in the development and implementation of the plan. The plan shall detail the manner in which the various state and local agencies shall participate in the response to an emergency. The department may enter into any agreement, subject to approval of the commission, with any state agency or unit of local government or with the federal government which may be necessary to establish the role of such agencies in regard to the plan. This plan shall be co-ordinated with disaster emergency plans.

8. Formulate and adopt specific and detailed statewide standards pursuant to chapter 17A for review of plans and specifications and the construction of sewer systems and water supply distribution systems and extensions to such systems not later than October 1, 1977. The standards shall be based on criteria contained in the “Recommended Standards for Sewage Works” and “Recommended Standards for Water Works” (Ten States Standards) as adopted by the Great Lakes-Upper Mississippi River board of state sanitary engineers, design manuals published by the department, applicable federal guidelines and standards, standard textbooks, current technical literature and applicable safety standards. The material standards for polyvinyl chloride pipe shall not exceed the specifications for polyvinyl chloride pipe in designations D-1784-69, D-2241-73, D-2564-76, D-2672-76, D-3036-73 and D-3139-73 of the American society of testing and material. The rules adopted which directly pertain to the construction of sewer systems and water supply distribution systems and the review of plans and specifications for such construction shall be known respectively as the Iowa Standards for Sewer Systems and the Iowa Standards for Water Supply Distribution Systems and shall be applicable in each governmental subdivision of the state. Exceptions shall be made to the standards so formulated only upon special request to and receipt of permission from the department. The department shall publish the standards and make copies of such standards available to governmental subdivisions and to the public.

9. Adopt, modify or repeal rules relating to the construction and reconstruction of water wells, the proper abandonment of wells, and the registration of water well contractors. The rules shall include those necessary to protect the public health and welfare, and to protect the waters of the state. The rules may include, but are not limited to, establishing fees for registration of water well contractors, requiring the submission of well driller’s logs, formation samples or well cuttings, water samples, information on test pumping and requiring inspections. Fees shall be based upon the reasonable cost of conducting the water well contractor registration program.

455B.174 Director's duties.

The director shall:

1. Conduct investigations of alleged water pollution or of alleged violations of this part of this division or any rule adopted or any permit issued pursuant thereto upon written request of any state agency, political subdivision, local board of health, twenty-five residents of the state, as directed by the department, or as may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of this part of this division.

2. Conduct periodic surveys and inspection of the construction, operation, self-monitoring, record keeping and reporting of all public water supply systems and all disposal systems except as provided in section 455B.183.

3. Take any action or actions allowed by law which, in the director's judgment, are necessary to enforce or secure compliance with the provisions of this part of this division or of any rule or standard established or permit issued pursuant thereto.

4. Approve or disapprove the plans and specifications for the construction of disposal systems or public water supply systems except for those sewer extensions and water supply distribution system extensions which are reviewed by a city or county public works department as set forth in section 455B.183. The director shall issue, revoke, suspend, modify or deny permits for the operation, installation, construction, addition to or modification of any disposal system or public water supply system except for sewer extensions and water supply distribution system extensions which are reviewed by a city or county public works department as set forth in section 455B.183. The director shall also issue, revoke, suspend, modify or deny permits for the discharge of any pollutant. The permits shall contain conditions and schedules of compliance as necessary to meet the requirements of this part of this division and the federal Water Pollution Control Act. A permit shall not be issued to operate or discharge from any disposal system unless the conditions of the permit assure that any discharge from the disposal system meets or will meet all applicable state and federal water quality standards and effluent standards and the issuance of the permit is not otherwise prohibited by the federal Water Pollution Control Act. All applications for discharge permits are subject to public notice and opportunity for public participation including public hearing as the department may by rule require. The director shall promptly notify the applicant in writing of the director's action and, if the permit is denied, state the reasons for denial. The applicant may appeal to the department of inspections and appeals from the denial of a permit or from any condition in any permit if the applicant files notice of appeal with the director within thirty days of the notice of denial or issuance of the permit. The director shall notify the applicant within thirty days of the time and place of the hearing.

Copies of all forms or other paper instruments required to be filed during on-site inspections or investigations shall be given to the owner or operator of the disposal system or public water supply system being investigated or inspected before the inspector or investigator leaves the site. Any other report, statement, or instrument shall not be filed with the department unless a copy is sent by ordinary mail to the owner or operator of the disposal system or public water supply system within ten working days of the filing. If an inspection or investigation is done in co-operation with another state department, the department involved and the areas inspected shall be stated.

The director shall also issue or deny conditional permits for the construction of disposal systems for electric power generating facilities subject to chapter 476A. All applications for conditional permits shall be subject to such notice and opportunity for public participation as may be required by the department and as may be consistent with chapter 476A and any agreement pursuant thereto under chapter 25E. The applicant or an intervenor may appeal to the department from the denial of a conditional permit or any of its conditions. For the purposes of chapter 476A, the issu-ancence or denial of a conditional permit by the director or the department upon appeal shall be a determination that the electric power generating facility does or does not meet the permit and licensing requirements of the department. The issuance of a conditional permit shall not relieve the applicant of the responsibility to submit final and detailed construction plans and drawings and an application for a construction permit for a disposal system that will meet the effluent limitations in the conditional permit.

5. Conduct random inspections of work done by city and county public works departments to ensure such public works departments are complying with this Act*. If a city or county public works department is not complying with section 455B.183 in reviewing plans and specifications or in granting permits or both, the department shall perform these functions in that jurisdiction until the city or county public works department is able to perform them. Performance of these functions in a jurisdiction by a local public works department shall not be suspended or revoked until after notice and opportunity for hearing as provided in chapter 17A.

The department shall give technical assistance to city and county public works departments upon request of such local public works departments.

455B.175 Violations.

If there is substantial evidence that any person has violated or is violating any provision of this part of this division, or of any rule or standard established or permit issued pursuant thereto; then:

1. The director may issue an order directing the person to desist in the practice which constitutes the violation or to take such corrective action as may be necessary to ensure that the violation will cease. The person to whom such order is issued may cause to be commenced a contested case within the meaning of the Iowa administrative procedure Act by filing with the director within thirty days a notice of appeal to the commission. On appeal the commission may affirm, modify or vacate the order of the director; or

2. If it is determined by the director that an emergency exists respecting any matter affecting or likely to affect the public health, the director may issue any order necessary to terminate the emergency without notice and without hearing. Any such order shall be binding and effective immediately and until such order is modified or vacated at a hearing before the commission or by a court; or

3. The director, with the approval of the commission, may request the attorney general to institute legal proceedings pursuant to section 455B.191.

455B.176 Criteria considered.

In establishing, modifying, or repealing water quality standards the commission shall base its decision upon data gathered from sources within the state regarding the following:

1. The protection of the public health;
2. The size, depth, surface area covered, volume, direction and rate of flow, stream gradient, and temperature of the affected water of the state;
3. The character and uses of the land area bordering the affected water of the state;
4. The uses which have been made, are being made, or may be made of the affected water of the state for public, private, or domestic water supplies, irrigation; livestock watering; propagation of wildlife, fish, and other aquatic life; bathing, swimming, boating, or other recreational activity; transportation; and disposal of sewage and wastes;
5. The extent of contamination resulting from natural causes including the mineral and chemical characteristics;
6. The extent to which floatable or settleable solids may be permitted;
7. The extent to which suspended solids, colloids, or a combination of solids with other suspended substances may be permitted;
8. The extent to which bacteria and other biological organisms may be permitted;
9. The amount of dissolved oxygen that is to be present and the extent of the oxygen demanding substances which may be permitted;
10. The extent to which toxic substances, chemicals or deleterious conditions may be permitted.
11. The economic costs and benefits. The goal shall be a reasonable balance between total costs to the people and to the economy, and the resultant benefits to the people of Iowa.

455B.177 Declaration of policy.

1. The general assembly finds and declares that because the federal Water Pollution Control Act, provides for a permit system to regulate the discharge of pollutants into the waters of the United States and provides that permits may be issued by states which are authorized to implement that Act, it is in the interest of the people of Iowa to enact this Act* in order to authorize the state to implement the federal Water Pollution Control Act, and federal regulations and guidelines issued pursuant to that Act.

2. The general assembly further finds and declares that because the federal Safe Drinking Water Act, Public Law 93-523, provides for the implementation of said Act by states which have adequate authority to so do, it is in the interest of the people of Iowa to implement the provisions of the federal Safe Drinking Water Act and federal regulations and guidelines issued pursuant thereto.

455B.178 Judicial review.

Except as provided in section 455B.191, subsection 6, judicial review of any order or other action of the commission or of the director may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, petitions for judicial review may be filed in the district court of the county in which the alleged offense was committed or such final order was entered.

455B.179 Trade secrets protected.

Upon a satisfactory showing by any person to the director that public disclosure of any record, report, permit, permit application or other document or information or part thereof would divulge methods or processes entitled to protection as a trade secret, any such record, report, permit, permit application or other document or part thereof other than effluent data and analytical results of monitoring or public water supply systems, shall be accorded confidential treatment. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 22, a person in connection with duties or employment by the department shall not make public any information accorded confidential status, however any such record or other information accorded confidential status may be disclosed or transmitted to other officers, employees or authorized representatives of this state or the United States concerned with carrying out this part of this division or when relevant in any proceeding under this Act*.

455B.181 Variances and exemptions.

The director may, after public notice and hearing, grant exemptions from a maximum contaminant level or treatment technique, or both. The director may also grant a variance from drinking water standards for public water supply systems when the characteristics of the raw water sources, which are available to a system, cannot meet the requirements with respect to maximum contaminant level of the standards despite application of the best treatment techniques which are generally available and if the director determines that the variance will not result in an unreasonable risk to the public health. A schedule of compliance may be prescribed by the director, at the time the variance or exemption is granted. The director shall also require the interim measures to minimize the contaminant levels of systems subject to the variance or exemption as may reasonably be implemented. The director may also issue variances from other rules of the department if necessary and appropriate. The denial of a variance or exemption may be appealed to the department.

455B.182 Failure constitutes contempt.

Failure to comply with any order issued by the department with reference to a violation of this part of this division or any rule promulgated or permit issued pursuant thereto shall constitute prima-facie evidence of contempt. In such event the department may certify to the district court of the county in which such alleged disobedience occurred the fact of such failure. The district court after notice, as prescribed by the court, to the parties in interest shall then proceed to hear the matter and if it finds that the order was lawful and reasonable it shall order the party to comply with the order. If the person fails to comply with the court order, that person shall be guilty of contempt and shall be fined not to exceed five hundred dollars for each day that the person fails to comply with the court order. The penalties provided in this section shall be considered as additional to any penalty which may be imposed under the law relative to nuisances or any other statute relating to the pollution of any waters of the state or related to public water supply systems and a conviction under this section shall not be a bar to prosecution under any other penal statute.

455B.183 Written permits required.

It is unlawful to carry on any of the following activities without first securing a written permit from the director, or from a city or county public works department if the public works department reviews the activity under this section, as required by the department:

1. The construction, installation or modification of any disposal system or public water supply system or part thereof or any extension or addition thereto except those sewer extensions and water supply distribution system extensions that are subject to review and approval by a city or county public works department pursuant to this section and private sewage disposal systems. A permit shall be issued for the construction, installation or modification of a public water supply system or part of a system if a qualified, registered engineer certifies to the department that the plans for the system or part of the system meet the requirements of state and federal law or regulations. The permit shall state that approval is based upon the engineer's certification that the system's design meets the requirements of all applicable state and federal laws and regulations and the review of the department shall be advisory.

2. The construction or use of any new point source for the discharge of any pollutant into any water of the state.

3. The operation of any waste disposal system or public water supply system or any part of or extension or addition to the system. This provision does not apply to a pretreatment system the effluent of which is to be discharged directly to another disposal system for final treatment and disposal, a semi-public sewage disposal system, the construction of which has been approved by the department and which does not discharge into water of the state or a private sewage disposal system which does not discharge into a water of the state. The exemption of this paragraph shall not apply to any industrial waste discharges.

Upon adoption of standards by the commission pursuant to section 455B.173, subsections 5 to 8, plans and specifications for sewer extensions and water supply distribution system extensions covered by this section shall be submitted to the city or county public works department for approval if the local public works department employs a qualified, registered engineer who reviews the plans and specifications using the specific state standards known as the Iowa Standards for Sewer Systems and the Iowa Standards for Water Supply Distribution Systems that have been formulated and adopted by the department pursuant... to section 455B.173, subsections 5 to 8. The local agency shall issue a written permit to construct if all of the following apply:

a. The submitted plans and specifications are in substantial compliance with departmental rules and the Iowa Standards for Sewer Systems and the Iowa Standards for Water Supply Distribution Systems.

b. The extensions primarily serve residential consumers and will not result in an increase greater than five percent of the capacity of the treatment works or serve more than two hundred fifty dwelling units or, in the case of an extension to a water supply distribution system, the extension will have a capacity of less than five percent of the system or will serve fewer than two hundred fifty dwelling units.

c. The proposed sewer extension will not exceed the capacity of any treatment works which received a state or federal monetary grant after 1972.

d. The proposed water supply distribution system extension will not exceed the production capacity of any public water supply system constructed after 1972. After issuing a permit, the city or county public works department shall notify the director of such issuance by forwarding a copy of the permit to the director. In addition, the local agency shall submit quarterly reports to the director including such information as capacity of local treatment plants and production capacity of public water supply systems as well as other necessary information requested by the director for the purpose of implementing this chapter.

Plans and specifications for all other waste disposal systems and public water supply systems, including sewer extensions and water supply distribution system extensions not reviewed by a city or county public works department under this section, shall be submitted to the department before a written permit may be issued. Plans and specifications for public water supply systems and water supply distribution system extensions must be certified by a registered engineer as provided in subsection 1. The construction of any such waste disposal system or public water supply system shall be in accordance with standards formulated and adopted by the department pursuant to section 455B.173, subsections 5 to 8. If it is necessary or desirable to make material changes in the plans or specifications, revised plans or specifications together with reasons for the proposed changes must be submitted to the department for a supplemental written permit.
The revised plans and specifications for a public water supply system must be certified by a registered engineer as provided in subsection 1.

Prior to the adoption of statewide standards, the department may delegate the authority to review plans and specifications to those governmental subdivisions if in addition to compliance with subsection 3 the governmental subdivisions agree to comply with all state and federal regulations and submit plans for the review of plans and specifications including a complete set of local standard specifications for such improvements.

The director may suspend or revoke delegation of review and permit authority after notice and hearing as set forth in chapter 17A if the director determines that a city or county public works department has approved extensions which do not comply with design criteria, which exceed the capacity of waste treatment plants or the production capacity of public water supply systems or which otherwise violate state or federal requirements.

The department shall exempt any public water supply system from any requirement respecting a maximum contaminant level or any treatment technique requirement of an applicable national drinking water regulation if these regulations apply to contaminants which the department determines are harmless or beneficial to the health of consumers and if the owner of a public water supply system determines that funds are not reasonably available to provide for controlling amounts of those contaminants which are harmless or beneficial to the health of consumers.

455B.184 Disposal system plans.
The department may also require the owner of a disposal system, discharging pollutants into any water of the state, or of a public water supply system to file with it complete plans of the whole or any part of such system and any other information and records concerning the installation and operation of such system.

455B.185 Data from departments.
The commission and the director may request and receive from any department, division, board, bureau, commission, public body, or agency of the state, or of any political subdivision thereof, or from any organization, incorporated or unincorporated, which has for its object the control or use of any of the water resources of the state, such assistance and data as will enable the commission or the director to properly carry out their activities and effectuate the purposes of this part 1 of division III. The department shall reimburse such agencies for special expense resulting from expenditures not normally a part of the operating expenses of any such agency.

455B.186 Prohibited discharges.
A pollutant shall not be disposed of by dumping, depositing or discharging such pollutant into any water of the state except that this section shall not be construed to prohibit the discharge of adequately treated sewage, industrial waste, or other waste pursuant to a permit issued by the director. A pollutant whether treated or untreated shall not be discharged into any state-owned natural or artificial lake.

455B.187 Water well construction.
A contractor shall not engage in well construction or reconstruction without first registering as required in department rules. Water wells shall not be constructed, reconstructed, or abandoned by a person except as provided in this part or rules adopted pursuant to this part. Within thirty days after construction or reconstruction of a well, a contractor shall provide well information required by rule to the department and the Iowa geological survey.

455B.189 and 455B.190 Reserved.

455B.191 Penalties — burden of proof.
1. Any person who violates any provision of part 1 of division III of this chapter or any permit, rule, standard, or order issued under part 1 of division III of this chapter shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars for each day of such violation. The civil penalty shall be an alternative to any criminal penalty provided under part 1 of division III of this chapter.
2. Any person who willfully or negligently discharges any pollutants in violation of section 455B.183 or 455B.186 or in violation of any condition or limitation included in any permit issued under section 455B.183 or in violation of any water quality standard or effluent standard or, with respect to the introduction of pollutants into publicly owned treatment works, violates a pretreatment standard or toxic effluent standard, shall be punished by a fine not to exceed ten thousand dollars for each day of violation. If the conviction is for a violation committed by a person after the person's first conviction under this section, the punishment shall be a fine not to exceed twenty thousand dollars for each day of violation.
3. Any person who knowingly makes any false statement, representation, or certification in any application, record, report, plan or other document filed or required to be maintained under part 1 of division III of this chapter, or who falsifies, tampers with or knowingly renders inaccurate any monitoring device or method required to be maintained under part 1 of division III of this chapter or by any permit, rule, regulation, or order issued under part 1 of division III of this chapter, shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by both such fine and imprisonment.
4. The attorney general shall, at the request of the director with approval of the commission, institute any legal proceedings, including an action for an injunction or a temporary injunction, necessary to enforce the penalty provisions of part 1 of division III of this chapter or to obtain compliance with the provisions of part 1 of division III of this chapter or any rules promulgated or any provision of any permit issued under part 1 of division III of this chapter. In any such action, any previous findings of fact of the director or the commission after notice and hearing shall be conclusive if supported by substantial evidence in the record when the record is viewed as a whole.
5. In all proceedings with respect to any alleged violation of the provisions of this part 1 of division III or any rule established by the commission or the department, the burden of proof shall be upon the commission or the department except in an action for contempt as provided in section 455B.182.
6. If the attorney general has instituted legal proceedings in accordance with this section, all related issues which could otherwise be raised by the alleged violator in a proceeding for judicial review under section 455B.178 shall be raised in the legal proceedings instituted in accordance with this section.

PART 2
WATER TREATMENT

455B.211 Definitions.
When used in this part 2 of division III, unless the context otherwise requires:
1. "Certificate" means the certificate of competence issued by the director stating that the operator has met the requirements for the specified operator classification of the certification program.
2. "Water supply system" means the system of pipes, structures, and facilities through which a public water supply is obtained, treated and sold or distributed for human consumption or household use.
3. "Water treatment plant" means that portion of the water supply system which in some way alters the physical, chemical, or bacteriological quality of the water.
4. "Waste water treatment plant" means the facility or group of units used for the treatment of waste water from public sewer systems and for the reduction and handling of solids removed from such wastes.
5. "Water distribution system" means that portion of the water supply system in which water is conveyed from the water treatment plant or other supply point to the premises of the consumer.
6. "Operator" means a person who has direct responsibility for the operation of a water treatment plant, water distribution system, or waste water treatment plant.
[C66, 71, §136A.1; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §455B.50]
86 Acts, ch 1245, §1890

455B.212 Director's duties.
The director shall classify all water treatment plants, water distribution systems, and waste water treatment plants affecting the public welfare with regard to the size, type, character of water and waste water to be treated and other physical conditions affecting such treatment plants and distribution systems, and according to the skill, knowledge, and experience that an operator must have to supervise the operation of the facilities to protect the public health and prevent pollution. The director may appoint advisory committees to advise the department in carrying out the requirements of this part.

455B.213 Certification of operators.
1 By director. The director shall certify persons as to their qualifications to supervise the operation of such treatment plants and water distribution systems after considering the recommendations of the board submitted through the commission.

2 Applications. Application for certification shall be on forms prescribed and furnished by the department and shall not contain a recent photograph of the applicant. An applicant is not ineligible for certification because of age, citizenship, sex, race, religion, marital status, or national origin although the application may require citizenship information. The director may consider the past felony record of an applicant only if the felony conviction relates directly to the practice of operation of waterworks or wastewater works. Character references may be required, but shall not be obtained from certificate holders.

3 Disclosure of confidential information. An employee of the department shall not disclose information relating to the following:

a. Criminal history or prior misconduct of the applicant.

b. Information relating to the contents of the examination to persons other than members of a board of certification of another state or their employees or an employee of the department.

c. Information relating to the examination results other than final scores except for information about the results of an examination which is given to the person who took the examination.

4 Violation. An employee of the department who willfully communicates or seeks to communicate such information, and a person who willfully requests, obtains, or seeks to obtain such information, is guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

A member of the board who willfully communicates or seeks to communicate such information, and any person who willfully requests, obtains, or seeks to obtain such information, is guilty of a public offense which is punishable by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than thirty days.

455B.215 Organization — compensation and expenses. Repealed by 86 Acts, ch 1245, §18990

455B.216 Examinations. The director shall hold at least one examination each year for the purpose of examining candidates for certification at a time and place designated by the director. Any written examination may be given by the department. All examinations in theory shall be in writing and the identity of the person taking the examination shall be concealed until after the examination papers have been graded. For examinations in practice, the identity of the person taking the examination shall also be concealed as far as possible. Those applicants whose competency is acceptable shall be recommended for certification. Applicants who fail the examination shall be allowed to take the examination at the next scheduled time. Thereafter, the applicant shall be allowed to take the examination at the discretion of the board. An applicant who has failed the examination may request in writing information from the department concerning the applicant's examination grade and subject areas or questions which the applicant failed to answer correctly, except that if the director administers a uniform, standardized examination, the director is only required to provide the examination grade and the other information concerning the applicant's examination results which is available to the department.

455B.217 Operator's certificate.
When the director is satisfied that an applicant is qualified by examination or otherwise, the director shall issue a certificate attesting to the competency of the applicant as an operator. The certificate shall indicate the classification of works which the operator is qualified to supervise.

455B.218 Duration of certificates — fee — renewal.
Certificates shall be for the multiyear period determined by the director unless sooner revoked by the director, but the certificates remain the property of the department and the certificate shall so state. The fee for issuance of certificates as determined under section 455B 221 shall be prorated on a quarterly basis for any original certificate issued for a period of less than twelve months. A person who fails to renew a certificate prior to its expiration shall be allowed to renew it within thirty days following its expiration, but the director may assess a reasonable penalty as established by rule.

455B.219 Revocation or suspension.
The director may suspend or revoke the certificate of an operator, following a hearing before the director, when the operator is guilty of the following acts or offenses:

1. Fraud in procuring a license.
2. Professional incompetency.
3. Knowingly making misleading, deceptive, untrue or fraudulent representations in the practice of the operator's profession or engaging in unethical conduct or practice harmful or detrimental to the public.

Proof of actual injury need not be established.

4. Habitual intoxication or addiction to the use of drugs.

455B.220 Certificate without examination.

1 A certificate in appropriate classification shall be issued without examination to any operator who, prior to January 1, 1973, held a valid certificate at a water treatment or wastewater treatment plant, the engineering, architectural, legal, or any other federal Act or program.

2 A certificate of proper classification shall be issued without examination to any operator who, prior to January 1, 1973, held a valid certificate to operate a particular treatment plant or water distribution system. The certificate so issued shall be valid only for that particular treatment plant or system and shall remain in effect indefinitely unless revoked as provided in section 455B.219.

3 A certificate of proper classification may be issued without examination to operators of a water distribution system in which water is conveyed from a supply point to the premises of consumers without treatment which in some way alters the physical, chemical, or bacteriological quality of the water and which serves a population of not more than two hundred fifty persons. Renewals of those certificates shall be governed by the provisions of this part of division III and rules promulgated pursuant to this part.

Notwithstanding chapter 258A, continuing education requirements shall not be imposed as a condition of certificate renewal for certificates issued under this subsection.

SEWAGE WORKS CONSTRUCTION

455B.241 Fund.

There is established a fund to be known as the "sewage works construction fund." All moneys appropriated to and deposited in the sewage works construction fund are hereby appropriated for and shall be used by the department in carrying out the purposes of this part of division III.

When used in said part, and unless the context requires otherwise:

1. "Treatment works" means any plant, disposal field, lagoon, holding or flow regulating basin, pumping station, interceptor sewer, or other works installed for the purpose of treating, stabilizing, or disposing of sewage, industrial waste, or other wastes, which qualify for federal grants pursuant to the federal Water Pollution Control Act as defined in section 455B.171, or any other federal Act or program.

2. "Construction" means the erection, building, acquisition, alteration, reconstruction, improvement, or extension of treatment works, preliminary planning to determine the economic and engineering feasibility of treatment works, the engineering, architectural, legal, fiscal, and economic investigations and studies, surveys, designs, plans, working drawings, specifications, procedures, inspection, and supervision, and other action necessary in the construction of treatment works.

3. "Eligible project" means a project for construction of sewage treatment works.

a. For which approval of the director is required under this part of division III.
§455B.241 Grants of assistance.

The director may make grants as funds are available to any municipality to assist such municipality in the construction of sewage treatment works pursuant to the federal Water Pollution Control Act as defined in section 455B-171.

[C71, §455C 1, C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §455B 67, 82 Acts, ch 1050, §5]

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899

455B.242 Acceptance of grants.

The director shall accept and administer all funds granted by the state pursuant to this part 3 of division III.

In allocating state grants under said part, the director shall give consideration to:

1. The public benefits to be derived by the construction of sewage treatment works
2. The ultimate cost of constructing and maintaining the works
3. The public interest and public necessity for the works
4. The adequacy of the provisions made or proposed by the municipality for assuring proper and efficient operation and maintenance of the treatment works after the completion of construction thereof
5. The applicant's readiness to start construction, including financing and planning

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899

455B.243 Contracts.

The director may, in the name of the state, contract with any municipality concerning eligible projects, subject to the approval of the commission. The contract may include such provisions as may be agreed upon by the parties, and shall include, in substance, the following provisions:

1. An estimate of the reasonable cost of the project as determined by the director
2. An agreement by the director to pay to the municipality, during the progress of construction or following completion of the construction as may be agreed upon by the parties, an amount as determined by appropriation of the general assembly
3. An agreement by the municipality:
   a. To proceed expeditiously with, and complete, the project in accordance with plans approved pursuant to this part 3 of division III and pursuant to part 1 of this division III
   b. To commence operation of the sewage treatment works on completion of the project, and not to discontinue operation or dispose of the sewage treatment works without the approval of the director
   c. To operate and maintain the sewage treatment works in accordance with applicable provisions of part 1 of this division III and rules of the commission
4. To obtain approval of the director before applying for federal assistance for pollution abatement, in order to maximize the amounts of such assistance received or to be received for all projects in Iowa
5. To provide for the payment by the municipality of its share of the cost of the project
6. The adequacy of the provisions made or proposed by the municipality for assuring proper and efficient operation and maintenance of the treatment works after the completion of construction thereof
7. The applicant's readiness to start construction, including financing and planning
8. An agreement by the director to pay to the municipality, during the progress of construction or following completion of the construction as may be agreed upon by the parties, an amount as determined by appropriation of the general assembly
9. An agreement by the municipality:
   a. To proceed expeditiously with, and complete, the project in accordance with plans approved pursuant to this part 3 of division III and pursuant to part 1 of this division III
   b. To commence operation of the sewage treatment works on completion of the project, and not to discontinue operation or dispose of the sewage treatment works without the approval of the director
   c. To operate and maintain the sewage treatment works in accordance with applicable provisions of part 1 of this division III and rules of the commission
   d. To obtain approval of the director before applying for federal assistance for pollution abatement, in order to maximize the amounts of such assistance received or to be received for all projects in Iowa

455B.245 Rules.

The commission may adopt such rules as are necessary for the effective administration of this part 3 of division III.

455B.246 Review of contracts by attorney general.

All contracts entered into pursuant to this part 3 of division III shall be subject to approval of the attorney general as to form. All payments by the state pursuant to such contracts shall be made after review and by warrant of the director of revenue and finance to the credit of the municipality and shall be used for the payment of the costs of construction of an eligible project. However, if such costs have been paid by the municipality, such payment may be used by the municipality for:

1. The payment of outstanding bonds or obligations incurred for any such eligible project
2. Any improvement or extension of an eligible project
3. Any other lawful municipal purpose determined to be necessary, reasonable, and in the interest of the public welfare

[C71, §455C 6, C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §455B 72]
455B.261 Definitions.

As used in this part of division III, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Flood plains" means the area adjoining a river or stream which has been or may be covered by flood water.

2. "Floodway" means the channel of a river or stream and those portions of the flood plains adjoining the channel which are reasonably required to carry and discharge the flood water or flood flow of any river or stream.

3. "Surface water" means the water occurring on the surface of the ground.

4. "Groundwater" means that water occurring beneath the surface of the ground.

5. "Diffused waters" means waters from precipitation and snowmelt which is not a part of any watercourse or basin including capillary soil water.

6. "Depleting use" means the storage, diversion, conveyance, or other use of a supply of water if the use may impair rights of lower or surrounding users, may impair the natural resources of the state, or may injure the public welfare if not controlled.

7. "Beneficial use" means the application of water to a useful purpose that inures to the benefit of the water user and subject to the user's dominion and control but does not include the waste or pollution of water.

8. "Nonregulated use" means any beneficial use of water by any person of less than twenty-five thousand gallons per day.

9. "Regulated use" means any depleting use except a use specifically designated as a nonregulated use.

10. "Permit" means any written authorization issued by the department to a permittee which authorizes diversion, storage, or withdrawal of water limited as to quantity, time, place, and rate in accordance with this part or authorizes construction, use, or maintenance of a structure, dam, obstruction, deposit, or excavation in a floodway or flood plain in accordance with the principles and policies of protecting life and property from floods as specified in this part.

11. "Permittee" means a person who obtains a permit from the department authorizing the person to take possession by diversion or otherwise and to use and apply an allotted quantity of water for a designated beneficial use, and who makes actual use of the water for that purpose or a person who obtains a permit from the department authorizing construction, use, or maintenance of a structure, dam, obstruction, deposit, or excavation in a floodway or flood plain for a designated purpose.

12. "Waste" means any of the following:
   a. Permitting groundwater or surface water to flow, or taking it or using it in any manner so that it is not put to its full beneficial use.
   b. Transporting groundwater from its source to its place of use in such a manner that there is an excessive loss in transit.
   c. Permitting or causing the pollution of a water bearing strata through any act which will cause salt water, highly mineralized water, or otherwise contaminated water to enter it.

13. "Watercourse" means any lake, river, creek, ditch, or other body of water or channel having definite banks and bed with visible evidence of the flow or occurrence of water, except lakes or ponds without outlet to which only one landowner is riparian.

14. "Basin" means a specific subsurface water bearing reservoir having reasonably ascertainable boundaries.

15. "Established average minimum flow" means the average minimum flow for a given watercourse at a given point determined and established by the commission. The "average minimum flow" for a given watercourse shall be determined by the following factors:
   a. Average of minimum daily flows occurring during the preceding years chosen by the commission as more nearly representative of changing conditions and needs of a given drainage area at a particular time.
   b. Minimum daily flows shown by experience to be the limit at which further withdrawals would be harmful to the public interest in any particular drainage area.
   c. The minimum daily flows shown by established discharge records and experiences to be definitely harmful to the public interest.

The determination shall be based upon available data, supplemented, when available data are incomplete, with whatever evidence is available.

83 Acts, ch 137, §7, 85 Acts, ch 7, §1

455B.262 Declaration of policy and planning requirements.

1. It is recognized that the protection of life and property from floods, the prevention of damage to lands from floods, and the orderly development, wise use, protection, and conservation of the water resources of the state by their considered and proper use is of paramount importance to the welfare and prosperity of the people of the state, and to realize these objectives, it is the policy of the state to correlate and vest the powers of the state in a single agency, the department, with the duty and authority to assess the water needs of all water users at five-year intervals for the twenty years beginning January 1, 1985, and ending December 31, 2004, utilizing a data base developed and managed by the Iowa geological survey, and to prepare a general plan of water allocation in this state considering the quantity and quality of water resources available in this state designed to meet the specific needs of the water users. The department shall also develop and the department shall adopt no later than June 30, 1986, a plan for delineation of floodplain and floodway boundaries for selected stream reaches in the various river basins of the state. Selection of the stream reaches and assignment of priorities for mapping of the selected reaches shall be based on consideration of flooding characteristics, the type and extent of existing and anticipated floodplain development in particular stream reaches, and the needs of local governmental bodies for assistance in delineating floodplain and floodway boundaries. The plan of floodplain mapping shall be for the period from June 30, 1986, to December 31, 2004. After the department adopts a plan of floodplain mapping, the department shall submit a progress report and proposed implementation schedule to the general assembly biennially. The department may modify the floodplain mapping plan as needed in response to changing circumstances.
The general welfare of the people of the state requires that the water resources of the state be put to beneficial use which includes ensuring that the waste or unreasonable use, or unreasonable methods of use of water be prevented, and that the conservation and protection of water resources be required with the view to their reasonable and beneficial use in the interest of the people, and that the public and private funds for the promotion and expansion of the beneficial use of water resources be invested to the end that the best interests and welfare of the people are served.

Water occurring in a basin or watercourse, or other body of water of the state, is public water and public wealth of the people of the state and subject to use in accordance with this chapter, and the control and development and use of water for all beneficial purposes is vested in the state, which shall take measures to ensure the conservation and protection of the water resources of the state. These measures shall include the protection of specific surface and groundwater sources as necessary to ensure long-term availability in terms of quantity and quality to preserve the public health and welfare.

The commission shall deliver to the general assembly by January 15, 1987, a plan embodying a groundwater protection strategy for this state which considers the effects of potential sources of groundwater contaminations on groundwater quality. The plan shall evaluate the ability of existing laws and programs to protect groundwater quality and recommend any necessary additional or alternative laws and programs. The department shall develop the plan with the assistance of and in consultation with representatives of agriculture, industry, and public and other interests.

The commission shall report to the general assembly on the status and implementation of the plan on a biennial basis. This section does not preclude the implementation of existing or new laws or programs which may protect groundwater quality.

2 The commission shall designate the official representative of this state on all comprehensive water resources planning groups for which state participation is provided. The commission shall coordinate state planning with local and national planning and, in safeguarding the interests of the state and its people, shall undertake the resolution of any conflicts that may arise between the water resources policies, plans, and projects of the federal government and the water resources policies, plans, and projects of the state, its agencies, and its people.

This section does not limit or supplant the functions, duties, and responsibilities of other state or local agencies or institutions with regard to planning of water associated projects within the particular area of responsibility of those state or local agencies or institutions.

The commission shall enter into negotiations and agreements with the federal government relative to the operation of, or the release of water from, any project that has been authorized or constructed by the federal government when the commission deems the negotiations and agreements to be necessary for the achievement of the policies of this state relative to its water resources.

4 The commission, on behalf of the state, shall enter into negotiations with the federal government relative to the inclusion of conservation storage features for water supply in any project that has been authorized by the federal government when the commission deems the negotiations to be necessary for the achievement of the policies of this state, however, an agreement reached pursuant to these negotiations does not bind the state until enacted into law by the general assembly.

5 A water user who benefits from the development by the federal government of conservation storage for water supply shall be encouraged to assume the responsibility for repaying to the federal government any reimbursable costs incurred in the development, and a user who accepts benefits from the developments financed in whole or in part by the state shall assume by contract the responsibility of repaying to the state the user's reasonable share of the state's obligations in accordance with a basis which will assure payment within the life of the development. An appropriation, diversion, or use shall not be made by a person of any waters of the state that have been stored or released from storage either under the authority of the state or pursuant to an agreement between the state and the federal government until the person has assumed by contract the person's repayment responsibility. However, this subsection does not infringe upon any vested property interests.

6 In its contracts with water users for the payment of state obligations incurred in the development of conservation storage for water supply, the commission shall include the terms deemed reasonable and necessary.

a To protect the health, safety, and general welfare of the people of the state.
b To achieve the purposes of this chapter.
c To provide that the state is not responsible to any person if the waters involved are insufficient for performance.

The commission may designate and describe any such contract, and describe the relationships to which it relates, as a sale of storage capacity, a sale of water release services, a contract for the storage or sale of water, or any similar terms suggestive of the creation of a property interest. The term of the contracts shall be commensurate with the investment and use concerned, but the commission shall not enter into any such contract for a term in excess of the maximum period provided for water use permits.

7 The commission shall procure flood control works and water resources projects from or by cooperation with any agency of the United States, by cooperation with the states and other subdivisions of the state under the laws of the state relating to flood control and use of water resources, and by cooperation with the action of landowners in areas affected by the works or projects when the commission deems the projects to be necessary for the achievement of the policies of this state.

8 The commission shall promote the policies set forth in this part and shall represent this state in all matters within the scope of this part.
shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A as necessary to transact its business and for the administration and exercise of its powers and duties.

9 In carrying out its duties, the commission may accept gifts, contributions, donations and grants, and use them for any purpose within the scope of this part.

455B.264 Jurisdiction — water and flood plains.

1 The department has jurisdiction over the public and private waters in the state and the lands adjacent to the waters necessary for the purposes of carrying out this part. The department may construct flood control works or any part of the works in the construction of the works, in making surveys and investigations, or in formulating plans and programs relating to the water resources of the state, the department may cooperate with an agency of another state or the United States, or with any other person.

2 Upon application by any person for permission to divert, pump, or otherwise take waters from any watercourse, underground basin or watercourse, drainage ditch, or settling basin within this state for any purpose other than a nonregulated use, the director shall investigate the effect of the use upon the natural flow of the watercourse, the effect of the use upon the owners of any land which might be affected by the use, the effect of the use upon prior users of the water source and contracts made under section 455B 263 and whether the use is consistent with the principles and policies of beneficial use.

3 Upon application by any person for approval of the construction or maintenance of any structure, dam, obstruction, deposit, or excavation to be erected, used, or maintained in or on the flood plains of any river or stream, the department shall investigate the effect of the construction or maintenance project on the efficiency and capacity of the floodway. In determining the effect of the proposal the department shall consider fully its effect on flooding of or flood control for any proposed works and adjacent lands and property, on the wise use and protection of water resources, on the quality of water, on fish, wildlife, and recreational facilities or uses, and on all other public rights and requirements.

1 In its consideration of applications for permits, the department shall give priority in processing to persons in the order that the applications are received, except where the application of this processing priority system prevents the prompt approval of routine applications or where the public health, safety, or welfare will be threatened by delay. If the department determines after investigation that the diversion, storage or withdrawal is consistent with the principles and policies of beneficial use and ensuring conservation, the department shall grant a permit. Regardless of the request in the application, the director or the department on appeal may determine the duration and frequency of withdrawal and the quantity of water to be diverted, stored or withdrawn pursuant to the permit. Each permit granted after July 1, 1986, shall include conditions requiring routine conservation practices, and requiring implementation of emergency conservation measures after notification by the department.

2 If an application is received by July 1, 1986, the department shall grant a permit for the continuation of a beneficial use of water that was a nonregulated use prior to July 1, 1985, and now requires a permit pursuant to section 455B 268. However, the permit is subject to conditions requiring routine and emergency conservation measures and to modification or cancellation under section 455B 271. Applications received after July 1, 1986 for those uses shall be determined pursuant to subsection 1.

3 Permits shall be granted for a period of ten years, however, permits for withdrawal of water may be granted for less than ten years if geological data on the capacity of the aquifer and the rate of its recharge are indeterminate, and permits for the storage of water may be granted for the life of the structure unless revoked by the department. A permit granted shall remain as an appurtenance of the land described in the permit through the date specified in the permit and any extension of the permit or until an earlier date when the permit or its extension is canceled under section 455B 271. Upon application for a permit prior to the termination date specified in the permit, a permit may be renewed by the department for a period of ten years.

1 After any event described in paragraphs "a" through "d" of this subsection has occurred, the department shall investigate and, if appropriate, may implement the priority allocation plan provided in subsection 2. The department shall require existing permittees to implement appropriate emergency conservation measures. The pertinent public notice and hearing requirements of subsection 4 of this section and sections 455B 271 and 455B 278 shall apply to the implementation of the plan.

a Receipt of a petition by twenty five affected persons or a governmental subdivision requesting that the priority allocation plan be implemented due to a substantial local water shortage.

b Receipt of information from a state or federal natural resource, research or climatological agency indicating that a drought of local or state magnitude is imminent.

c Issuance by the governor of a proclamation of a disaster emergency due to a drought or other event affecting water resources of the state.

d Determination by the department in conjunction with the disaster services division of the department of public defense of a local crisis which affects availability of water.

   a There is a breach of the terms of the permit
   b There is a violation of the law pertaining to the permit by the permittee or the permittee’s agents
c. There is a circumstance of nonuse as provided in section 455B.272.

d. The department finds that modification or cancellation is necessary to protect the public health or safety, to protect the public interests in lands or waters, to require conservation measures or to prevent substantial injury to persons or property in any manner. Before the modification or cancellation is effective, the department shall give at least thirty days' written notice mailed to the permittee at the permittee's last known address, stating the grounds of the proposed modification or cancellation and giving the permittee an opportunity to be heard on the proposal.

3. By written emergency order to the permittee, the department may suspend or restrict operations under a permit if the director finds it necessary in an emergency to protect the public health, to protect the public interest in waters against imminent danger of substantial injury in any manner or to an extent not expressly authorized by the permit, to implement the priority allocation system of section 455B.266, or to protect persons or property against imminent danger. The department may require the permittee to take measures necessary to prevent or remedy the injury. The emergency order shall state the effective date of the suspension or restriction and shall be immediately effective on that date unless stayed, modified or vacated at a hearing before the department or by a court.

§455B.272 Termination of permit.

The right of the permittee and the permittee's successors to the use of water shall terminate when the permittee or the permittee's successors fail for three consecutive years to use it for the specific beneficial purpose authorized in the permit and, after notification by the department of intent to cancel the permit for nonuse, the permittee or the permittee's successors fail to demonstrate adequate plans to use water within a reasonable time. However, nonuse of water due to adequate rainfall does not constitute grounds for cancellation of a permit to use water for irrigation.

§455B.273 Disposal of permit.

A permittee may sell, transfer, or assign a permit by conveying, leasing, or otherwise transferring the ownership of the land described in the permit, but the permit does not constitute ownership or absolute rights of use of the waters. The waters remain subject to the principle of beneficial use and the orders of the director or commission.

§455B.274 Unauthorized depleting uses.

If a person files a complaint with the department that another person is making a depleting use of water not expressly exempted as a nonregulated use under this part and without a permit to do so, the department shall cause an investigation to be made and if the facts stated in the complaint are verified the department shall order the discontinuance of the use.

§455B.275 Prohibited acts — powers of commission and executive director.

1. A person shall not permit, erect, use or maintain a structure, dam, obstruction, deposit, or excavation in or on a floodway, to be erected, made, used, or maintained in or on any floodway or floodplain, which will adversely affect the efficiency of or unduly restrict the capacity of the floodway, or adversely affect the control, development, protection, allocation, or utilization of the water resources of the state, and the same are declared to be public nuisances. However, this subsection does not apply to dams constructed and operated under the authority of chapter 469.

2. The department may commence, maintain, and prosecute any appropriate action to enjoin or abate a nuisance, including any of the nuisances specified in subsection 1 and any other nuisance which adversely affects flood control.

3. If a person desires to erect or make or to permit a structure, dam, obstruction, deposit, or excavation, other than a dam constructed and operated under chapter 469, to be erected, made, used, or maintained in or on any floodway or floodplain, the person shall file a written application with the department, setting forth information as required by rule of the commission. The department, after an investigation, shall approve or deny the application imposing conditions and terms as prescribed by the department.

4. The department may maintain an action in equity to enjoin a person from erecting or making or permitting to be made a structure, dam, obstruction, deposit, or excavation other than a dam constructed and operated under the authority of chapter 469, for which a permit has not been granted. The department may also seek judicial abatement of any structure, dam, obstruction, deposit, or excavation erected or made without a permit required under this part. The abatement proceeding may be commenced to enforce any administrative determination of the department in a contested case proceeding that a public nuisance exists and should be abated. The costs of abatement shall be borne by the violator. Notwithstanding section 176B.11, a structure, dam, obstruction, deposit, or excavation on a floodway or floodplain in an agricultural area established under chapter 176B is not exempt from the sections of this part which relate to regulation of flood plains and floodways.

5. The department may remove or eliminate a structure, dam, obstruction, deposit, or excavation in a floodway which adversely affects the efficiency of or unduly restricts the capacity of the floodway, by an action in condemnation, and in assessing the damages in the proceeding, the appraisers and the court shall take into consideration whether the structure, dam, obstruction, deposit, or excavation is lawfully in or on the floodway in compliance with this part.

6. The department may require, as a condition of an approval order or permit granted pursuant to this part or chapter 469, the furnishing of a performance bond with good and sufficient surety, conditioned upon full compliance with the order or permit and the rules of the commission. In determining the need for and amount of bond, the department shall give consideration to the hazard posed by the construction and maintenance of the approved works and the protection of the health, safety, and welfare of the people of the state. This subsection does not apply to orders or permits granted to a governmental entity.

7. When approving a request to straighten a stream, the department may establish as a condition of approval a permanent prohibition against tillage of land owned by the person receiving the approval and lying within a minimum distance from the stream sufficient in the judgment of the director or commission to hold soil erosion to reasonable limits. The department shall record the prohibition in the office of the county recorder of the appropriate county and the prohibition shall attach to the land.

8. The commission shall establish, by rule, thresholds for dimensions and effects, and any structure, dam, obstruction, deposit, or excavation having smaller dimensions and effects than those established by the commission is not subject to regulation under this section. The thresholds shall be established so that only those structures, dams, obstructions, deposits, or excavations posing a significant threat to the well-being of the public and the environment are subject to regulation.

455B.276 Flood plains — encroachment limits.

The commission may establish and enforce rules for the orderly development and wise use of the flood plains of any river or stream within the state and alter, change, or revoke the rules. The commission shall determine the characteristics of floodways which reasonably may be expected to occur and may establish by order encroachment limits, protection methods, and minimum protection levels appropriate to the flooding characteristics of the stream and to reasonable use of the flood plains. The order shall fix the length of flood plains to be regulated at any practical distance, the width of the zone between the encroachment limits so as to include portions of the flood plains adjoining the channel, which with the channel, are required to carry and discharge the flood waters or flood flow of the river or stream, and the design discharge and water surface elevations for which protection shall be provided for projects outside the encroachment limits but within the limits of inundation. Plans for the protection of projects proposed for areas subject to inundation shall be reviewed as plans for flood control works within the purview of section 455B.277. An order establishing encroachment limits shall not be issued until notice of the proposed order is given and opportunity for public hearing given for the presentation of protests against the order. In establishing the limits, the commission shall avoid to the greatest possible degree the evacuation of persons residing in the area of a floodway, the removal of residential structures occupied by the persons in the area of a floodway, and the removal of structures erected or made prior to July 4, 1965, which are located on the flood plains of a river or stream but not within the area of a floodway.

The commission shall cooperate with and assist local units of government in the establishment of encroachment limits, flood plain regulations, and zoning ordinances relating to flood plain areas within their jurisdiction. Encroachment limits, flood plain regulations, or flood plain zoning ordinances proposed by local units of government shall be submitted to the department for review and approval prior to adoption by the local units of government. Changes or variations from an approved regulation or ordinance as it relates to flood plain use are subject to approval by the commission prior to adoption. Individual applications, plans, and specifications and individual approval orders shall not be required for works on the flood plains constructed in conformance with encroachment limits, flood plain regulations, or zoning ordinances adopted by the local units of government and approved by the commission.

455B.277 Flood control works coordinated.

All flood control works in the state, which are established and constructed after April 16, 1949, shall be coordinated in design, construction, and operation according to sound and accepted engineering practice so as to effect the best flood control obtainable throughout the state. A person shall not construct or install works of any nature for flood control until the proposed works and the plans and specifications for the works are approved by the department. The department shall consider all the pertinent facts relating to the proposed works which will affect flood control and water resources in the state and shall determine whether the proposed works in the plans and specifications will be in aid of and acceptable as part of, or will adversely affect and interfere with flood control in the state, adversely affect the control, development, protection, allocation, or utilization of the water resources of the state, or adversely affect or interfere with an approved local water resources plan. In the event of disapproval, the department shall set forth the objectionable features so that the proposed works and the plans and specifications for the proposed works may be corrected or adjusted to obtain approval.

This section applies to drainage districts, soil conservation districts, the state conservation commission, political subdivisions of the state, and private persons undertaking projects relating to flood control.

455B.278 Permit application procedures.

1. The commission shall adopt, modify, or repeal rules establishing procedures by which permits required under this part shall be issued, suspended, revoked, modified, or denied. The rules shall include provisions for application, public notice and opportunity for public hearing, and contested cases. Public notice of a decision by the director to issue a permit shall be given in a manner designed to inform persons who may be adversely affected by the permitted project or activity.

2. Action by the department upon an application for a permit required under this part may be appealed to the commission by the applicant or any affected person within thirty days of the department’s action. A hearing before the commission or its designee is a contested case. The hearings and judicial review of decisions of the commission shall be carried out in accordance with chapter 17A. Notwithstanding chapter 17A, petitions for judicial review may be filed in the district court of Polk county or of any county in which the property affected is located. If the commission, the district court, or the supreme court determines that the action of the commission shall be stayed, the petitioner shall file an appropriate bond approved by the court.

1. The director may issue any order necessary to secure compliance with or prevent a violation of this part or the rules adopted pursuant to this part. Within thirty days of issuance, the order may be appealed to the commission by filing a notice of appeal with the director. The appeal shall be conducted as a contested case pursuant to chapter 17A and the commission may affirm, modify, or revoke the order. The department may request legal services as required from the attorney general, including any legal proceeding necessary to obtain compliance with this part and rules and orders issued under this part.

2. A person who violates a provision of this part or a rule or order adopted or promulgated or the conditions of a permit issued pursuant to this part is subject to administrative and judicial review and shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five hundred dollars for each day that a violation occurs.

The commission and the boards of the water resource districts established by chapter 467D shall coordinate their efforts in carrying out the purposes of this chapter and chapter 467D. In addition to other powers and duties conferred by law, the department shall:

1. Offer advice and assistance as appropriate to the boards of the several water resource districts in the state in discharging their powers and duties.
2. Review and make recommendations as necessary to bring the plan of each of the water resource districts, and any subsequent changes in the plan, into conformity with the statewide water resources plan established by the commission pursuant to section 455B.263.
3. Inform the board of any water resource district of any of the following:

   a. The receipt of each application for a permit to divert, store, or withdraw either surface or underground waters at any place within the district, filed with the director pursuant to this part.

   b. The receipt of each application for approval of a proposed dam, obstruction, deposit, or excavation in or on any floodway or flood plain in the district, filed with the director pursuant to section 455B.275.

   c. Any proposed order which would establish encroachment limits and zoning regulations on any flood plain in the district, filed with the director pursuant to section 455B.276.

   d. The receipt of each application for approval of a proposed flood control structure or works, filed with the director pursuant to section 455B.277.

455B.281 Compensation for well interference.
If an investigation by the department, using information provided by the applicant or permittee and the complainant, discloses that a proposed or existing permitted use or combination of such uses is causing or will cause the delivery system to fail in a well which supplies water for a nonregulated use, the department may condition issuance or continuation of a permit upon payment by the permittee of compensation for all or a portion of the cost of a replacement water supply system or remedial measures necessitated by the interference. However, such condition may be imposed only after the parties demonstrate to the department that a good faith effort to negotiate a mutually agreeable compensation has been made and has failed.

Determination of the amount of compensation for the well interference shall be made a part of the determination of the department in accordance with section 455B.265 or 455B.271. The department may require the submission of itemized estimates of the cost of remedial repairs or a replacement water supply system. In determining appropriate compensation, the department shall consider the age and condition of the affected well or pumping system and its reasonableness as a method of obtaining groundwater in light of the history of development of groundwater in the surrounding area. When compensation is required for all or part of the cost of construction of a replacement water supply system or reconstruction of an affected well, the construction or reconstruction must comply with applicable well construction standards. A permittee is not required to pay compensation before having an opportunity to do test pumping authorized by the department and supervised by the department or designee.

The determination of the department shall be subject to administrative and judicial review and shall be the exclusive remedy for such interference.

DIVISION IV
SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL
PART 1
SOLID WASTE

455B.301 Definitions.
As used in this part 1 of division IV, unless the context clearly indicates a contrary intent:
1. “Public agency” means a public agency as defined in section 28E.2.
2. “Private agency” means a private agency as defined in section 28E.2.
3. “Sanitary disposal project” means all facilities and appurtenances including all real and personal property connected with such facilities, which are acquired, purchased, constructed, reconstructed, equipped, improved, extended, maintained, or operated to facilitate the final disposition of solid waste without creating a significant hazard to the public health or safety, and which are approved by the executive director.
4. “Sanitary landfill” means a sanitary disposal project where solid waste is buried between layers of earth.
5. “Solid waste” means garbage, refuse, rubbish, and other similar discarded solid or semisolid materials, including but not limited to such materials resulting from industrial, commercial, agricultural, and domestic activities. Solid waste may include vehicles, as defined by section 321.1, subsection 1. However, this division does not prohibit the use of dirt, stone, brick, or similar inorganic material for fill, landscaping, excavation or grading at places other than a sanitary disposal. Solid waste does not include hazardous waste as defined in section 455B.411 or source, special waste as defined in section 455B.411 or source, special waste, the general operation and maintenance of sanitary disposal projects, and the implementation of this part.
6. “Resource recovery system” means the recovery and separation of ferrous metals and nonferrous metals and glass and aluminum and the preparation and burning of solid waste as fuel for the production of electricity.

C71, §406.2; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §455B.75]
85 Acts, ch 241, §1, 2; 86 Acts, ch 1175, §1

455B.302 Duty of cities and counties.
Every city and county of this state shall provide for the establishment and operation of a sanitary disposal project for final disposal of solid waste by its residents not later than July 1, 1975. Sanitary disposal projects may be established either separately or through cooperative efforts for the joint use of the participating public agencies as provided by law.

Cities and counties may execute with public and private agencies contracts, leases, or other necessary instruments, purchase land and do all things necessary not prohibited by law for the collection of solid waste, establishment and operation of sanitary disposal projects, and general administration of the same. Any agreement executed with a private agency for the operation of a sanitary disposal project shall provide for the posting of a sufficient surety bond as provided by law.

455B.303 Administrator’s duties.
The director shall administer the provisions of this part 1 of division IV subject to the rules established by the commission.

Local boards of health shall co-operate in the enforcement of the provisions of said part and the director may seek their aid and delegate administrative duties of the department to the local boards of health in matters relating to solid waste, refuse disposal plants, and sanitary disposal projects.
The director may issue, modify, or deny variances from the rules of the commission. The applicant may appeal the decision of the director to the commission.
[C71, §406.4; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §455B.77]
86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899

455B.304 Rules established.
The commission shall establish rules for the proper administration of this part 1 of division IV which shall reflect and accommodate as far as is reasonably possible the current and generally accepted methods and techniques for treatment and disposition of solid waste which will serve the purposes of this part, and which shall take into consideration the factors, including others which it deems proper, such as existing physical conditions, topography, soils and geology, climate, transportation, and land use, and which shall include but are not limited to rules relating to the establishment and location of sanitary disposal projects, sanitary practices, inspection of sanitary disposal projects, collection of solid waste, pollution controls, the issuance of permits, approved methods of private disposition of solid waste, the general operation and maintenance of sanitary disposal projects, and the implementation of this part.
The commission shall adopt rules that allow the use of wet or dry sludge from publicly owned treatment works for land application. A sale of wet or dry sludge for the purpose of land application shall be accompanied by a written agreement signed by both parties which contains a general analysis of the contents of the sludge. The heavy metal content of the sludge shall not exceed that allowed by rules of the commission. An owner of a publicly owned treatment works which sells wet or dry sludge is not subject to criminal liability for acts or omissions in connection with a sale, and is not subject to any action by the purchaser to recover damages for harm to person or property caused by sludge that is delivered pursuant to a sale unless it is a result of a violation of the written agreement or if the heavy metal content of the sludge exceeds that allowed by rules of the commission. Nothing in this section shall provide immunity to any person from action by the department pursuant to section 455B.307. The rules promulgated under this paragraph shall be generally consistent with those rules of the department existing on January 1, 1982 regarding the land application of municipal sewage sludge except that they may provide for different methods of application for wet sludge and dry sludge.
The commission shall adopt rules prohibiting the disposal of uncontained liquid waste in a sanitary landfill.
The commission shall adopt rules requiring that each sanitary disposal project established pursuant to section 455B.302 and permitted pursuant to section 455B.305 install and maintain a sufficient number of groundwater monitoring wells to adequately determine the quality of the groundwater and the impact the sanitary disposal project, if any, is having on the groundwater adjacent to the sanitary disposal project site.

The commission shall adopt rules requiring a schedule of monitoring of the quality of groundwater adjacent to the sanitary disposal project from the groundwater monitoring wells installed in accordance with this section during the period the sanitary disposal project is in use. Schedules of monitoring may be varied in consideration of the types of sanitary disposal practices, hydrologic and geologic conditions, construction and operation characteristics, and volumes and types of wastes handled at the sanitary disposal project site.

The commission shall, by rule, require continued monitoring of groundwater pursuant to this section for a period of twenty years after the sanitary disposal project is closed. The commission may prescribe a lesser period of monitoring duration and frequency in consideration of the potential or lack thereof for groundwater contamination from the sanitary disposal project. The commission may extend the twenty-year monitoring period on a site-specific basis by adopting rules specifically addressing additional monitoring requirements for each sanitary disposal project for which the monitoring period is to be extended.

The commission shall adopt rules which may require the installation of shafts to relieve the accumulation of gas in a sanitary disposal project.

A permit shall be issued by the director or at the director's direction, by a local board of health, for each sanitary disposal project. The commission shall adopt rules which may require the installation of shafts to relieve the accumulation of gas in a sanitary disposal project.

455B.305 Issuance or renewal of permits by director.

1. The director shall issue, revoke, suspend, modify, or deny permits for the construction and operation of sanitary disposal projects.

A permit shall be issued by the director or at the director's direction, by a local board of health, for each sanitary disposal project operated in this state. The permit shall be issued in the name of the city or county or, where applicable, in the name of the public or private agency operating the project. Each sanitary disposal project shall be inspected annually by the department or a local board of health. The permits issued pursuant to this section are in addition to any other licenses, permits or variances authorized or required by law, including, but not limited to, chapter 358A. A permit may be suspended or revoked by the director if a sanitary disposal project is found not to meet the requirements of part 1 or rules issued under part 1. The suspension or revocation of a permit may be appealed to the department.

2. Beginning July 1, 1988, the director shall not issue a permit for the construction or operation of a new sanitary landfill unless the permit applicant has filed a plan as required by section 455B.306.

3. Beginning July 1, 1988, the director shall not renew or reissue a permit which had been initially issued prior to that date for a sanitary landfill, unless the permit applicant has filed a plan as required by section 455B.306.

4. Beginning July 1, 1994, the director shall not renew or reissue a permit which had been initially issued or renewed prior to that date for a sanitary landfill, unless and until the permit applicant documents that steps are being taken to begin implementing the plan filed pursuant to section 455B.306. However, a permit may be issued for the construction and operation of a new sanitary landfill in accordance with subsection 2.

5. Beginning July 1, 1997, the director shall not renew or reissue a permit which had been renewed or reissued prior to that date for a sanitary landfill, unless and until the permit applicant documents that alternative methods of solid waste disposal other than use of a sanitary landfill have been implemented as set forth in the plan filed pursuant to section 455B.306. However, the director may issue a permit for the construction and operation of a new sanitary landfill in accordance with subsection 2 and a permit may be renewed or reissued for a sanitary landfill which had received an initial permit but the permit had not been previously renewed or reissued prior to July 1, 1997 in accordance with subsection 3.

455B.306 Plans filed.

1. A city, county and a private agency operating or planning to operate a sanitary disposal project shall file with the director a plan detailing the method by which the city, county or private agency will comply with this part 1. The director shall review each plan submitted and may reject, suggest modification, or approve the proposed plan. The director shall aid in the development of plans for compliance with this part. The director shall make available to a city, county and private agency appropriate forms for the submission of plans and may hold hearings for the purpose of implementing this part. The director and governmental agencies with primary responsibility for the development of plans and may hold hearings for the purpose of implementing this part. The director and governmental agencies with primary responsibility for the development of plans and may hold hearings for the purpose of implementing this part.

2. The plan required by subsection 1 shall be filed with the department at the time of initial application for the construction and operation of a sanitary landfill and shall be updated and refiled with the department at the time of each subsequent application for renewal or reissuance of a previously issued permit.

3. A plan filed pursuant to this section in conjunction with an application for issuance, renewal, or reissuance of a permit for a sanitary landfill shall address all of the following:

   a. The extent to which solid waste is or can be recycled.

   b. The economic and technical feasibility of using other existing sanitary disposal project facilities in lieu of initiating or continuing the sanitary landfill for which the permit is being sought.

   c. The expected environmental impact of alternative solid waste disposal methods, including the use of sanitary landfills.

   d. A specific plan and schedule for implementing technically and economically feasible solid waste disposal methods that will result in minimal environmental impact.

1. It shall be unlawful for any private agency or public agency to dump or deposit or permit the dumping or depositing of any solid waste at any place other than a sanitary disposal project approved by the director. This section shall not prohibit a private agency or public agency from dumping or depositing solid waste resulting from its own residential, farm, manufacturing, mining or commercial activities on land owned or leased by it if the action does not violate any statute of this state or rules promulgated by the commission or local boards of health, or local ordinances. The director may issue temporary permits for dumping or disposal of solid waste at disposal sites for which an application for a permit to operate a sanitary disposal project has been made and which have not met all of the requirements of part 1 of this division and the rules adopted by the commission if a compliance schedule has been submitted by the applicant specifying how and when the applicant will meet the requirements for an operational sanitary disposal project and the director determines the public interest will be best served by granting such temporary permit.
2. The director may issue any order necessary to secure compliance with or prevent a violation of the provisions of this part 1 of division IV or the rules promulgated pursuant thereto. The attorney general shall, on request of the department, institute any legal proceedings necessary in obtaining compliance with an order of the commission or the director or prosecuting any person for a violation of the provisions of said part or rules issued pursuant thereto.
3. Any person who violates any provision of part 1 of this division or any rule or any order promulgated or the conditions of any permit or order issued pursuant to part 1 of this division shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five hundred dollars for each day of such violation.

§455B.308 Appeal from order.
Any person aggrieved by an order of the director may appeal the order by filing a written notice of appeal with the director within thirty days of the issuance of the order. The director shall schedule a hearing for the purpose of hearing the arguments of the aggrieved person within thirty days of the filing of the notice of appeal. The hearing may be held before the commission or its designee. A complete record shall be made of the proceedings. The director shall issue the findings in writing to the aggrieved person within thirty days of the conclusion of the hearing. Judicial review may be sought of actions of the commission in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of the Act, petitions for judicial review may be filed in the district court of the county where the acts in issue occurred.

§455B.309 Groundwater fund.
1. A groundwater fund is created in the state treasury. Moneys received from the tonnage fee and from other sources designated for purposes related to groundwater monitoring and groundwater quality standards shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the fund. Any unexpended balance in the groundwater fund at the end of each fiscal year shall be retained in the fund.
2. The department may use the fund for any of the following purposes:
   a. The administration of a groundwater monitoring program.
   b. The development of groundwater monitoring programs.
   c. Research in alternative methods of solid waste disposal including recycling programs.
   d. Abatement and cleanup of threats to the public safety and environment resulting from a sanitary landfill when an owner or operator of the facility is unable to effectuate the abatement or cleanup. However, not more than ten percent of the fund may be used for this purpose in any given year without legislative authorization for that purpose.
   e. Grants to public water supply systems to abate or eliminate threats to public health and safety resulting from contamination of the water supply source.
3. An amount equal to twenty-five percent of the moneys received from the tonnage fee imposed under section 455B.310 in each fiscal year shall be reserved for the purpose of providing grants to public water supply systems to abate or eliminate threats to public health and safety resulting from contamination of the water supply source. However, a public water supply shall not receive a grant for more than ten percent of the moneys available for those purposes in any given year. Any moneys not expended under this subsection at the end of each fiscal year shall be available for any of the uses authorized in subsection 2.
4. An amount equal to fifty percent of the annual receipts to the groundwater fund derived from the landfill tonnage fee imposed pursuant to section 455B.310 shall be reserved for the purpose of providing grants to cities and counties required to provide for sanitary disposal projects under section 455B.302 for the purpose of developing or updating plans required to be filed under section 455B.306. Grants shall be governed by section 455B.311.

Requirement for testing of water supply systems for synthetic organic chemicals and pesticides by January 1, 1988; 86 Acts, ch 1181, §1 §455B.310 Tonnage fee imposed.

1. Except as provided in subsection 3, the operator of a sanitary landfill shall pay to the department a tonnage fee for each ton or equivalent volume of solid waste received and disposed of at the sanitary landfill during the preceding reporting period. The department shall determine by rule the volume which is equivalent to a ton of waste.
2. The tonnage fee is twenty-five cents per ton of solid waste.
3. Solid waste disposal facilities with special provisions which limit the site to the disposal of construction and demolition waste and solid waste materials approved by the department for lining or capping or for construction berms, dikes or roads in a sanitary disposal project or sanitary landfill or which limit the site to the disposal of excess fly ash used in the reclamation of strip mine land are exempt from the tonnage fees imposed under this section.
4. All tonnage fees received by the department under this section shall be paid to a groundwater fund created under section 455B.309.

5. Fees imposed by this section shall be paid to the department on an annual basis. Fees are due on April 15 for the previous calendar year. The payment shall be accompanied by a return in the form prescribed by the department.

6. A person required to pay fees by this section who fails or refuses to pay the fees imposed by this section shall be assessed a penalty of fifteen percent of the fee due. The penalty shall be paid in addition to the fee due.

455B.311 Grants.

The director, with the approval of the commission, may make grants to cities, counties, or central planning agencies representing cities and counties or combinations of cities, counties, or central planning agencies from funds reserved under and for the purposes specified in section 455B.309, subsection 4, subject to all of the following conditions:

1. Application for grants shall be in a form and contain information as prescribed by rule of the department.

2. Grants shall only be awarded to a city or a county; however, a grant may be made to a central planning agency representing more than one city or county or combination of cities or counties for the purpose of planning and implementing regional solid waste management facilities.

3. Grants shall be awarded only for an amount determined by the department to be reasonable and necessary to conduct the work as set forth in the grant application. Grants for less than a county-wide planning area shall be limited to twenty-five percent of the state funds, for a single-county planning area the state funds shall be limited to fifty percent, and for a two-county planning area the state funds shall be limited to seventy-five percent. For each additional county above a two-county planning area, the state funds shall be limited to fifty percent, and for a two-county planning area the state funds shall be limited to twenty-five percent. For each additional county above a two-county planning area, the maximum allowable state funds shall be increased by an additional five percent, up to a maximum of ninety percent of the state funds.

4. A city, county, or central planning agency on behalf of a city or county may not receive more than one grant under this section in any three-year period.

5. The director, with the approval of the commission, may deny a grant application if in the judgment of the director the applicant could not reasonably be expected to adequately and properly complete the plan for which the grant is requested or the applicant could not reasonably be expected to implement a planned sanitary disposal project.

PART 2

RADIOACTIVE WASTE

455B.331 Definitions.

As used in this part 2 of division IV, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Radiation” means any ionizing radiation including, but not limited to, high-speed electrons, neutrons, protons and other nuclear particles, but not sound waves.

2. “Radioactive material” means any solid, liquid, or gaseous material which emits radiation spontaneously.

3. “Nuclear waste disposal site” means all facilities and appurtenances including all real and personal property connected with such facilities, which are acquired, leased, purchased, constructed, reconstructed, equipped, improved, extended, maintained, or operated to facilitate the final disposition of radioactive waste without creating a significant hazard to the public health or safety, and which are approved by the director.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899

455B.332 Policy.

The department shall be the agency of the state to establish policy for the transportation, storage, handling, and disposal of radioactive material for the purpose of protecting the public health and safety.

455B.333 Rules for transporting.

The commission shall provide, by rule, for the proper methods of transporting, storage, and handling of radioactive material except that the provisions of this section shall not apply to the transportation, handling, or storage of radioactive material by licensed physicians and surgeons, licensed osteopathic physicians and surgeons, licensed podiatrists, licensed dentists or licensed pharmacists within the scope of their practice or by qualified employees of licensed hospitals within the scope of their duties. In adopting such rules, the commission shall consider the methods and techniques used by the United States nuclear regulatory commission and radiation control agencies of other states for the regulation of the transporting, handling, and storage of radioactive material. The commission shall also consult with the department of public safety in the development of rules for the transporting of radioactive material on the public roads of this state.

455B.334 Waste disposal site.

The commission may approve or prohibit the establishment and operation of a nuclear waste disposal site in this state by a private person. In determining whether to grant or deny a permit to establish and operate a nuclear waste disposal site, the commission shall consider the need for a nuclear waste disposal site and the existing physical conditions, topography, soils and geology, climate, transportation, and land use at the proposed site. If the commission decides to issue a permit to establish and operate a nuclear waste disposal site, it shall establish, by rule, standards and procedures for the safe operation and maintenance of the proposed site. The commission shall also require the permittee to provide a sufficient surety bond or other financial commitment to insure the perpetual maintenance and monitoring of the nuclear waste disposal site.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §455B 88]
83 Acts, ch 136, §5

455B.335 Director's duties.
The director
1. Shall enforce any rules adopted under this part 2 of division IV and furnish a copy of the rules to each applicant for a permit required under this part
2. May issue a permit to any person transporting, handling, or storing any radioactive material under rules adopted by the commission
3. May require the maintenance of records relating to the receipt, storage, transfer, or disposal of radioactive material
4. May issue, modify, or revoke orders in accordance with the provisions of this part 2 of division IV or the rules adopted under said part
5. May require the submission of plans and specifications for the design, construction, maintenance, and monitoring of nuclear waste disposal sites for review and appraisal

83 Acts, ch 136, §6, 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1898

455B.336 Notice to violators.
If the director determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe a violation of this part 2 of division IV or of the rules issued under said part has occurred, the director shall give written notice by certified mail to the alleged violator specifying the alleged violations involved and specifying a period of time in which to eliminate the violation. If the alleged violator fails to comply within such specified time, the director shall schedule a hearing and give written notice to the alleged violator by certified mail. In connection with the hearings, the director may issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses and the production of records pertinent to such hearing. On the basis of the findings, the director shall issue a final order which shall be forwarded to the alleged violator by certified mail.

455B.337 Emergency action.
Whenever the director finds that there exists requiring immediate action to protect the public health and safety, the director may, without notice or hearing, issue an emergency order reciting that there exists and requiring that such action be taken as the director deems necessary to meet the emergency. The order may be issued orally to the person whose operation constitutes the emergency by the director and confirmed by a copy of such order to be sent by certified mail within twenty-four hours after the issuance of the order. The emergency order shall be effective immediately. Any person receiving an emergency order may request a hearing before the commission within thirty days following the receipt of the order. The commission shall schedule a hearing within fourteen days after receipt of the request for a hearing and give written notice to the alleged violator by certified mail. The commission may also schedule a hearing in the absence of a request by the alleged violator. On the basis of the findings, the commission shall issue a final order which shall be forwarded to the alleged violator by certified mail.

The director may, if an emergency exists, impound or order the impounding of any radioactive material in the possession of any person who is not equipped to observe, or fails to observe, the provisions of this part 2 of division IV or any rules adopted under said part.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899

455B.338 Judicial review.
Judicial review of the actions of the commission may be sought in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Iowa administrative procedures Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, a petition for judicial review may be made in the district court of the county in which the alleged violation occurred or in which a final order was entered.

455B.339 Injunction.
Whenever, in the judgment of the director, any person has engaged in or is about to engage in any acts or practices which constitute or will constitute a violation of the provisions of this part 2 of division IV or any rule or order promulgated under said part, the director may request the attorney general to make application in the name of the state to the district court of the county in which such acts or practices may be performed, for an order enjoining such acts or practices notwithstanding the existence or pursuit of any other remedy, and the attorney general shall make such application.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899

455B.340 Penalty.
Any person who violates any provisions of this part 2 of division IV or rules adopted under said part, or any order of the department or director issued pursuant to said part, shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor and, in addition, the person may be enjoined from continuing such violation. Each day of continued violation after notice that a violation is being committed shall constitute a separate violation.

PART 4
HAZARDOUS CONDITIONS

Sections 455B 110 455B 120 Code 1981 renumbered as §455B 381 455B 391 in Code 1983

455B.381 Definitions.

As used in this part 4 unless the context otherwise requires

1. “Hazardous substance” means any substance or mixture of substances that presents a danger to the public health or safety and includes, but is not limited to, a substance that is toxic, corrosive, or flammable, or that is an irritant or that generates pressure through decomposition, heat, or other means.

2. “Hazardous condition” means any situation in which the actual, imminent, or potential spillage, discharge, or release of a hazardous substance onto the land, into a water of the state, or into the atmosphere, which creates an immediate or potential danger to the public health or safety or to the environment. For purposes of this division, a site which is an abandoned or uncontrolled disposal site as defined in section 455B 411, subsection 1, is a hazardous condition.

3. “Toxic” means causing or producing a dangerous physiological, anatomic, or biochemical change in a biological system.

4. “Corrosive” means causing or producing visible destruction or irreversible alterations in human skin tissue at the site of contact, or in the case of leakage of a hazardous substance from its packaging, causing or producing a severe destruction or erosion of other materials through chemical processes.

5. “Irritant” means a substance causing or producing dangerous or intensely irritating fumes upon contact with fire or when exposed to air.

6. “Cleanup” means actions necessary to contain, collect, control, identify, analyze, clean up, treat, dispose, remove, or dispose of a hazardous substance.

7. “Cleanup costs” means costs incurred by the state or its political subdivisions or their agents, or by any other person participating with the approval of the director in the prevention or mitigation of damages from a hazardous condition or the cleanup of a hazardous substance involved in a hazardous condition.

8. “Person having control over a hazardous substance” means a person who at any time produces, handles, stores, uses, transports, refines, or disposes of a hazardous substance the release of which creates a hazardous condition, including bailees, carriers, and any other person in control of a hazardous substance when a hazardous condition occurs, whether the person owns the hazardous substance or is operating under a lease, contract, or other agreement with the legal owner of the hazardous substance.

9. “Release” means a threatened or real emission, discharge, spillage, leakage, pumping, pouring, emptying, or dumping of a hazardous substance into or onto the land, air, or waters of the state unless one of the following applies:

a. The release is done in compliance with the conditions of a federal or state permit.

b. The hazardous substance is confined and expected to stay confined to property owned, leased or otherwise controlled by the person having control over the hazardous substance.

c. In the use of pesticides, the application is done in accordance with the product label.

10. “Waters of the state” means rivers, streams, lakes, and any other bodies of surface and subsurface water lying within or forming a part of the boundaries of the state which are not entirely confined and located completely upon lands owned, leased or otherwise controlled by a single person or by two or more persons jointly or as tenants in common. “Waters of the state” includes waters of the United States lying within the state.

455B.382 Administrative agency.

The department shall be the agency of the state to prevent, abate, and control the exposure of the citizens of the state to hazardous conditions as defined in this part 4 of division IV.

[C79, 81, §455B 111]
455B.383 Powers and duties of department.
The department shall:
1. Establish such rules pursuant to the provisions of chapter 17A as are necessary to protect the public from unnecessary exposure to hazardous substances.
2. Develop a comprehensive plan for the prevention, abatement and control of hazardous conditions within the state.

[C79, 81, §455B.112]
86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899B

455B.384 Powers and duties of the executive director.
The director shall:
1. Provide technical advice and assistance to other state agencies, to political subdivisions of the state and to other persons upon request for the control, abatement, and prevention of hazardous conditions.
2. Collect and disseminate such information, publish such guidelines or reports, and conduct such educational programs deemed necessary to implement the provisions of this part 4 of division IV. Educational programs may be conducted in cooperation with other public or private agencies through agreements concluded pursuant to chapter 28E.
3. Exercise such other powers consistent with the Code and the provisions of this part 4 as the commission may direct.

455B.385 State hazardous condition contingency plan.
All public agencies, as defined in chapter 28E, shall co-operate in the development and implementation of a state hazardous condition contingency plan. The plan shall detail the manner in which public agencies shall participate in the response to a hazardous condition. The director may enter into agreements, with approval of the commission, with any state agency or unit of local government or with the federal government, as necessary to develop and implement the plan. The plan shall be coordinated with the disaster services division of the department of public defense and any joint county-municipal disaster services and emergency planning administrations established pursuant to chapter 29C.

455B.386 Notification of spills — penalty.
A person manufacturing, storing, handling, transporting, or disposing of a hazardous substance shall notify the department, the local police department, or the office of the sheriff of the affected county of the occurrence of a hazardous condition as soon as possible but not later than six hours after the onset of the hazardous condition or discovery of the hazardous condition. A sheriff or police chief who has been notified of a hazardous condition shall immediately notify the department. If requested, a person shall submit within thirty days of the department’s request a written report of particulars of the incident. A person violating this section is subject to a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars.

455B.387 Removal of hazardous substances.
1. When any hazardous condition exists, the director may remove or provide for the removal and disposal of the hazardous substance at any time, unless the director determines such removal will be properly and promptly accomplished by the owner or operator of the vessel, vehicle, container, pipeline or other facility.
2. The director may use any resources available under the hazardous condition contingency plan to provide for the removal of hazardous substances. If the director finds that public agencies cannot provide the necessary labor or equipment or if the director determines that emergency conditions exist, the director may contract with a private person or agency for removal of the hazardous substance. In those cases where equipment or services are obtained from a public or private person or agency under emergency conditions, section 455B.105, subsection 7 does not apply.
3. An action taken by a person to abate, control, or clean up a hazardous substance involved in a hazardous condition shall not be construed as an admission of liability for a hazardous condition.

455B.388 Injunctions and emergency orders.
1. If it is determined by the director that an emergency exists respecting any matter affecting or likely to affect the public health, the director may issue any order necessary to terminate the emergency without notice and without hearing. Any such order shall be binding and effective immediately and until such order is modified or vacated at a contested case hearing before the commission or by a court.
2. The director may request that the attorney general institute legal proceedings for a temporary or permanent injunction pursuant to section 455B.391 for purposes of enforcing an emergency order.

[C79, 81, §455B.117]
86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899

455B.389 Judicial review.
Judicial review of any order or other action of the commission or of the director may be sought in accordance with the terms of chapter 17A. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 17A, petitions for judicial review may be filed in the district court of the county in which the alleged hazardous condition occurred.

[C79, 81, §455B.118]
86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899

455B.390 Jurisdiction limited.
Nothing contained in this part 4 of division IV shall be deemed to grant to the department any authority or jurisdiction under this part 4 with respect to the following:
1. Hazardous conditions existing solely within and which will probably continue to exist solely within commercial and industrial plants, works, or shops under the jurisdiction of chapters 88 and 91.
2. Relations between employers and employees with respect to hazardous conditions except that where such hazardous conditions extend to or affect areas within the scope of the authority granted by this part 4 of division IV, the department may take any action consistent with this part 4 to abate such hazardous condition

3 The storage, transportation, handling, or use of inflammable liquids, combustibles and explosives control over which is exercised by the state fire marshal under chapter 100

4 The storage, transportation, handling or use of pesticides over which control is exercised by the state secretary of agriculture under chapter 206, except when spillage of pesticides creates a hazardous condition

5 The storage, transportation, handling or use of fertilizers over which control is exercised by the state secretary of agriculture under chapter 200, except when spillage of fertilizers creates a hazardous condition

455B.391 Duties of attorney general.

1 The attorney general shall, at the request of the department, institute any legal proceedings, including an action for an injunction or temporary injunction, necessary to obtain compliance with the provisions of this part 4 of division IV. In any legal proceedings any previous findings of fact of the director or the department after due notice and hearing shall be conclusive if supported by substantial evidence in the record when the record is viewed as a whole

2 The attorney general shall, at the request of the director, take appropriate action against the person having control over a hazardous substance to recover for the liabilities resulting under section 455B 392

86 Acts, ch 1158, §1, 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899, 1899B

455B.392 Liability for cleanup costs.

1 A person having control over a hazardous substance is strictly liable to the state for all of the following:

   a The reasonable cleanup costs incurred by the state as a result of the failure of the person to clean up a hazardous substance involved in a hazardous condition caused by that person

   b The reasonable costs incurred by the state to evacuate people from the area threatened by a hazardous condition caused by the person

   c The reasonable damages to the state for the injury to, destruction of, or loss of natural resources resulting from a hazardous condition caused by that person including the costs of assessing the injury, destruction, or loss

   d The excessive and extraordinary cost, excluding salaries, incurred by the department in responding at and to the scene of a hazardous condition caused by that person

   If the failure is willful, the person is liable for punitive damages not to exceed triple the cleanup costs incurred by the state. Prompt and good faith notification to the director by the person having control over a hazardous substance that the person does not have the resources or managerial capability to begin or continue cleanup, or a good faith effort to clean up, relieves the person of liability for punitive damages, but not for actual cleanup costs. The director shall keep a record of all expenses incurred in carrying out a project or activity authorized by this part

Claims by the state under this subsection may be appealed to the commission by the person filing a writ ten notice of appeal within thirty days after receipt of the bill

2 Liability under subsection 1 is limited to the following maximum dollar limitations a Five million dollars for any vehicle, boat, aircraft, pipeline, or other manner of conveyance which transports a hazardous substance

   b Fifty million dollars for any facility generating, storing, or disposing of a hazardous substance

3 There is no liability under this section for a person otherwise liable if the hazardous condition is solely resulting from one or more of the following:

   a An act of God

   b An act of war

   c An act or omission of a third party if the person establishes both of the following

   (1) That taking into consideration the characteristics of the hazardous substance, the person otherwise liable exercised due care with respect to the hazardous substance

   (2) That the person otherwise liable took precautions against the foreseeable acts or omissions of the third party and the foreseeable consequences

As used in this paragraph, “third party” does not include an employee or agent of the person otherwise liable or a third party whose act or omission occurs directly or indirectly in connection with a contractual relationship with the person otherwise liable

4 There is no liability under this section for a person otherwise liable if all of the following conditions exist:

   a The liability arises during the transportation of a hazardous substance

   b The fact that the hazardous substance is a hazardous substance has been misrepresented to the person transporting the hazardous substance

   c The person transporting the hazardous substance does not know or have reason to know that the misrepresentation has been made

   d Money collected pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the hazardous waste remedial fund created in section 455B 423 and used in the manner permitted for the fund

5 This section does not deny any person any legal or equitable rights, remedies or defenses or affect any legal relationship other than the legal relationship between the state and a person having control over a hazardous substance pursuant to subsection 1

455B.393 Liability of state employees or persons providing assistance.

1 A person employed by the state is not liable for damages incurred as a result of actions taken by the person when acting in the person's official capacity pursuant to this part, rules adopted pursuant to this part and the hazardous condition contingency plan

2 A person who provides assistance at the request of the department or by previous agreement with the department in the event of a hazardous condition is not liable in a civil action for damages as a result of that person's acts or omissions in rendering the assistance. This section does not relieve a person from civil damages in any of the following circumstances a. If the person providing assistance is also the person having control over the hazardous substance which created the hazardous condition.

b. If the person rendered assistance for payment beyond reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses or with the expectation of such payment.

c. For acts or omissions which result from intentional wrongdoing or gross negligence.

455B.394 Right of entry.

A person shall not refuse entry or access to, or harass or obstruct an authorized representative of the department who seeks entry or access for the purpose of investigating or responding to a hazardous condition. The representative shall present appropriate credentials. Upon a showing of probable cause in writing and made under oath, a judge or magistrate having proper jurisdiction shall issue a suitably restricted search warrant to the representative of the department for the purposes of enabling the representative to investigate or respond to a hazardous condition.

455B.395 Public information.

Information obtained under this part or a rule, order or condition adopted or issued under this part, or an investigation authorized thereby, shall be available to the public unless the information constitutes trade secrets or information which is entitled to confidential treatment in order to protect a plan, process, tool, mechanism, or compound which is known only to the person claiming confidential treatment and confidential treatment is necessary to protect the person's trade, business or manufacturing process.

455B.396 Claim of state.

Liability to the state under this part or part 5 of this division is a debt to the state. The debt, together with interest on the debt at the maximum lawful rate of interest permitted pursuant to section 535.2, subsection 3, paragraph "a" from the date costs and expenses are incurred by the department is a lien on real property, except single and multi-family residential property, on which the department incurs costs and expenses creating a liability and owned by the persons liable under this part or part 5. To perfect the lien a statement of claim describing the property subject to the lien, signed by the director and approved by the commission must be filed within one hundred twenty days after the incurrence of costs and expenses by the department. The statement shall be filed with, accepted by, and recorded by the county recorder in the county in which the property subject to the lien is located. The statement of claim may be amended to include subsequent liabilities. To be effective the statement of claim shall be amended and filed within one hundred twenty days after the occurrence of the event resulting in the amendment.

The lien may be dissolved by filing with the appropriate recording officials a certificate, signed by the director, that the debt for which the lien is attached, together with interest and costs on the debt, has been paid or legally abated.

455B.397 Financial disclosure.

Immediately upon the incurrence of any liability to the state under this part, the debtor shall submit to the director a report consisting of documentation of the debtor's liabilities and assets, including if filed, a copy of the annual report submitted to the secretary of state pursuant to chapter 496. A subsequent report pursuant to this section shall be submitted annually on April 15 for the life of the debt. These reports shall be kept confidential and shall not be available to the public.

455B.399 Cleanup assistance — liability.

1. A person who provides assistance or advice in mitigating or attempting to mitigate the effects of an actual or threatened hazardous condition or in preventing, cleaning up or disposing of or in attempting to prevent, clean up or dispose of a hazardous condition is not liable for damages resulting from the assistance or advice.

2. Subsection 1 does not apply to a person who receives compensation other than reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses for services in rendering the assistance or advice.

3. This section does not limit the liability of a person for damages resulting from the person's gross negligence or reckless, wanton or intentional misconduct.

PART 5

HAZARDOUS WASTE AND SUBSTANCE MANAGEMENT

Sections 455B 130 to 455B 422, Code 1981, renumbered as §455B 411-455B 422 in Code 1985

Sections 455B 411, subsections 5, 8, and 9, 455B 412, subsections 2, 4, and 455B 413, 455B 421 partially suspended until July 1, 1987, 86 Acts, ch 260, §12

"Toxic Cleanup Days" pilot program, 85 Acts, ch 79, §1, 86 Acts, ch 1229, §1

455B.411 Definitions.

As used in this part 5, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Abandoned or uncontrolled disposal site" means real property which has been used for the disposal of hazardous waste or hazardous substances either illegally or prior to regulation under this chapter.

2. "Disposal" means the discharge, deposit, injection, dumping, spilling, leaking, or placing of a hazardous waste or hazardous substance into or on land or water so that the hazardous waste or hazardous substance or a constituent of the hazardous waste or hazardous substance may enter the environment or be emitted into the air or discharged into any waters, including ground waters.

4. a. "Hazardous waste" means a waste or combination of wastes that, because of its quantity, concentration, biological degradation, leaching from precipitation, or physical, chemical, or infectious characteristics, has either of the following effects

1. Causes, or significantly contributes to an increase in mortality or an increase in serious irreversible, or incapacitating reversible, illness
2. Poses a substantial present or potential hazard to human health or the environment when improperly treated, stored, transported, or disposed of, or otherwise managed. "Hazardous waste" may include but is not limited to wastes that are toxic, corrosive or flammable or irritants, strong sensitizers or explosives

"Hazardous waste" does not include
1. Agricultural wastes, including manures and crop residues that are returned to the soil as fertilizers or soil conditioners
2. Source, special nuclear, or by-product material as defined in the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended to January 1, 1979
3. Lubricating oil means the fraction of crude oil or re-refined oil which is sold for purposes of reducing friction in an industrial or mechanical device
4. Manifest means the form used for identifying the quantity, composition, and the origin, routing, and destination of hazardous waste during its transport from the point of generation to the point of disposal, treatment or storage
5. Recycled oil means oil which is refined, reclaimed, burned, or reprocessed
6. Re-refined oil means used oil from which the physical and chemical contaminants acquired through previous use have been removed through a refining process
7. Storage means the containment of a hazardous waste, either on a temporary basis or for a period of years, in a manner that does not constitute disposal of the hazardous waste
8. Treatment means a method, technique, or process, including neutralization, designed to change the physical, chemical or biological character or composition of a hazardous waste so as to neutralize the waste or to render the waste nonhazardous, safer for transport, amenable for recovery, amenable for storage, or to reduce the waste in volume. Treatment includes any activity or processing designed to change the physical formal or chemical composition of hazardous waste to render the waste nonhazardous
9. Used oil means oil which has been refined from crude oil, has then been used, and as a result of the use, is contaminated by physical or chemical impurities §455B.412 Duties of the department.

The department shall
1. Develop comprehensive plans and programs for the state for the management of hazardous waste. In the development of plans and programs, the department shall recognize the need for assuring that suitable facilities and sites for treatment and disposal are available for hazardous wastes generated in Iowa. As part of the hazardous waste management plan the department shall conduct a study of hazardous waste management in Iowa and shall report its findings to the general assembly not later than eighteen months after July 1, 1979. The study shall include the following
   a. A description of current sources of hazardous waste within the state, including the types and quantities of hazardous wastes
   b. A description of current hazardous waste transportation, storage, treatment and disposal practices and costs within the state
   c. A description of practices and methods that would reduce at the source the amount of hazardous waste generated and an estimate of the cost of these practices
   d. Identification and evaluation of alternatives to land disposal of hazardous wastes
   e. Identification of the general geologic and other criteria for a site for land disposal of hazardous wastes and the areas in Iowa that might meet the general criteria if alternatives to land disposal are not feasible
   f. The proper role and activities of the state in addition to those established in sections 455B 411 to 455B 421 and the federal Solid Waste Disposal Act in facilitating safe and efficient disposal of hazardous waste, including but not limited to a determination of the most appropriate procedures for receiving public comments and approving permits for siting hazardous waste disposal facilities
   g. The estimated private and public capital and annual operating costs of implementing the hazardous waste management plan recommended by the department
2. Adopt rules establishing criteria for identifying the characteristics of hazardous wastes and listing hazardous wastes that are subject to this part. The department shall consider toxicity, persistence and degradability in nature, potential for accumulation in tissue, and related factors including flammability, corrosiveness, and other hazardous characteristics
3. Adopt rules, applicable to generators or transporters of or owners or operators of facilities for the treatment, storage, or disposal of hazardous waste listed or identified by the department under subsection 2 of this section, as necessary to protect human health and the environment. The rules shall include establishment of a manifest system
4. Adopt rules establishing standards and procedures for the certification of supervisory personnel and operators at hazardous waste treatment, storage, or disposal facilities required to have a permit under section 455B 415
5. Notwithstanding section 455B 420, adopt rules regulating the use of recycled oil for the purpose of road oiling, dust control, or weed control necessary to protect public health and the environment. The rules adopted shall be limited to addressing the following
   a. Analysis of oils by those persons supplying the oils prior to their use for road oiling, dust control or weed control. This analysis shall be for polychlorinated biphenyl, flashpoints, and lead
   b. Notification by the person supplying the oils of the results of analysis required to the person to whom the oils are supplied or delivered and the department at the time of delivery or prior to application of oils for road oiling, dust control or weed control
c. Establishing maximum levels of contaminants allowed in oils used for the purpose of road oiling, dust control or weed control and prohibiting the use of oils containing contaminants in excess of maximum allowable levels for such purposes
d. Requirements for persons supplying or applying oils for the mitigation and cleanup of contamination posing a threat to public health and the environment resulting from oils applied for road oiling, dust control or weed control

[C81, §455B 132]

455B.412 Director's duties.
The director shall
1. Issue, revoke, suspend, modify or deny permits for persons owning or operating a facility for the treatment, storage or disposal of a hazardous waste identified by the commission under section 455B 412, subsection 2. Permits shall be issued for a period as the commission may by rule prescribe
2. Administer examinations to determine the competence of operators and supervisory personnel at facilities for the treatment, storage or disposal of hazardous waste that are required to have a permit under section 455B 415. The director shall issue, revoke, suspend, or deny certificates of competency for persons as supervisory or operating personnel at facilities for the treatment, storage or disposal of hazardous waste
3. Inspect and investigate hazardous waste generators and transporters and treatment, storage and disposal facilities as may be necessary to determine compliance with sections 455B 411 to 455B 421 and rules adopted and permits and orders issued pursuant to sections 455B 411 to 455B 421. The director shall periodically survey or inspect the construction, operation and monitoring, reporting and record-keeping systems of hazardous waste generators and transporters and treatment, storage and disposal facilities

455B.413 Hazardous waste notification.
1. A person who on the effective date of a rule adopted under section 455B 412, subsection 2 identifying a hazardous waste as subject to sections 455B 411 to 455B 421 is generating or transporting the identified hazardous waste or owns or is operating a treatment, storage or disposal facility handling the identified hazardous waste shall file with the director a notification stating the waste handled by the person and the location and a general description of the activity involving the waste. The notice shall be given within ninety days after the effective date of the rule identifying the waste
2. Except as provided in subsection 1, a person shall not commence to transport or generate a hazardous waste identified by rule under section 455B 412, subsection 2 without first notifying the director of the proposed activity. The notice shall state the waste to be handled, and the location and a general description of the activity involving the identified waste
3. When the commission amends a rule adopted under section 455B 412, subsection 2, identifying additional characteristics of hazardous waste or identifying an additional substance as hazardous waste, the commission may require a person to file the notification required by subsection 1 or 2

84 Acts, ch 1158, §5, 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899

455B.415 Permit required.
1. Except as provided in subsections 2 and 4, a person shall not construct or operate a facility for the treatment, storage or disposal of a hazardous waste identified under section 455B 412, subsection 2 unless the owner or operator has obtained a permit for the facility from the director
2. The owner or operator of a facility for the treatment, storage or disposal of a hazardous waste identified under section 455B 412, subsection 2 existing on the effective date of the rule listing the waste shall obtain a permit for the facility within six months of the effective date of the rule. A person owning or operating a facility for the treatment, storage or disposal of a hazardous waste that existed on the effective date of the rule identifying the waste and that is required to have a permit under sections 455B 411 to 455B 421 is considered to have a permit until a final administrative determination is made if the person meets the following conditions
a. The person has given notice as required by section 455B 414
b. The person has applied for a permit
c. The director has determined that the failure to issue the permit is not the result of the failure of the applicant to furnish information reasonably required or requested to process the application
3. The commission may by rule specify the information required to be submitted with the application for a permit and the conditions under which the director shall issue, deny, revoke, suspend or modify permits. However, a permit shall not be issued for a treatment, storage or disposal facility unless the applicant presents evidence of financial responsibility and continuity of operation consistent with the degree and duration of risks associated with the treatment, storage or disposal of the hazardous waste as determined by the commission
4. A permit is not required for the storage of a hazardous waste identified under section 455B 412, subsection 2 when the only purpose of the storage is to accumulate for a period of up to ninety days sufficient quantities of the waste for transportation, treatment or disposal unless a permit for the storage is required under federal law
5. A permit issued pursuant to this section shall be in addition to other licenses, permits or variances authorized or required by law, including, but not limited to, the requirements of chapter 358A
6. If the director denies a permit, the director shall inform the applicant in writing of the reasons for the denial. The applicant may appeal to the commission from the denial of a permit or from a condition of a permit if the applicant files a notice of appeal with the director within thirty days of receipt of the denial or issuance of the permit

455B.416 Inspections.

1 For purposes of developing a rule, conducting a study of hazardous waste management, compiling a site inventory, or enforcing sections 455B 411 to 455B 421, a person who generates, stores, treats, transports, disposes of or otherwise handles or has handled hazardous waste shall, upon request of the director, furnish information relating to the hazardous waste and permit the director at reasonable times to have access to and copy records relating to the waste. For the purpose of developing a rule or enforcing sections 455B 411 to 455B 421, the director may a Enter at reasonable times an establishment or other place where hazardous waste is or has been generated, stored, treated or disposed of, or a vehicle transporting hazardous waste

b Inspect and obtain samples from a person of a hazardous waste and of containers or labeling associated with the waste

c Install, service and take samples from monitoring equipment on the property

The inspection shall be completed within a reasonable period of time

2 If the director obtains a sample, prior to leaving the premises, the director shall give the owner, operator, or agent in charge a receipt describing the sample obtained and if requested a portion of each sample equal in volume or weight to the portion retained. If the sample is analyzed, a copy of the results of the analysis shall be furnished promptly to the owner, operator, or agent in charge

3 Documents or information obtained from a person under this section shall be available to the public except as provided in this subsection. Upon a showing satisfactory to the director by a person that documents or information, or a particular part of the documents or information to which the director has access under this section if made public would divulge commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential or a trade secret, the director shall consider the documents or information or the particular portion of the documents or information confidential. However, the document or information may be disclosed to officers, employees or authorized representatives of the United States charged with implementing the federal Solid Waste Disposal Act, to employees of the state of Iowa or of other states when the document or information is relevant to the discharge of their official duties, and when relevant in any proceeding under the federal Solid Waste Disposal Act or this part

4 a If upon receipt of any information, the director determines that the presence of a hazardous waste at a facility or site at which hazardous waste is, or has been, stored, treated, or disposed of, or the release of the waste from the facility or site may present a substantial hazard to human health or the environment, the director may issue an order requiring the owner or operator of the facility or site to conduct reasonable monitoring, testing, analysis, and reporting with respect to the facility or site to determine the nature and extent of the hazard

b In the case of a facility or site not in operation at the time a determination is made regarding the facility or site under this subsection, if the director finds that the owner of the facility or site could reasonably be expected to have actual knowledge of the presence of hazardous waste at the facility or site and of its potential for release, the director may issue an order requiring the most recent previous owner or operator of the facility or site who could reasonably be expected to have actual knowledge to carry out the actions referred to in this subsection c An order under this subsection shall require the person to whom the order is issued to submit to the director within thirty days from the issuance of the order a proposal for carrying out the required monitoring, testing, analysis, and reporting. The director may, after providing the person with an opportunity to confer with the director on the proposal, require the person to carry out the monitoring, testing, analysis, and reporting in accordance with the proposal, which may be modified as the director deems reasonable to determine the nature and extent of the hazard or to remove the hazard

d If the director determines that no owner or operator referred to in this subsection is able to conduct monitoring, testing, analysis, or reporting satisfactorily to the director, if the director deems any action carried out by an owner or operator to be unsatisfactory, or if the director cannot initially determine that there is an owner or operator referred to in this subsection who is able to conduct monitoring, testing, analysis, or reporting, the director may conduct reasonable monitoring, testing, or analysis to determine the nature and extent of the hazard associated with the site. The director may require the owner or operator referred to in this subsection to reimburse the director or other authority or person for the costs of the monitoring, testing, analysis, or reporting. The director shall not order a person to pay the costs of monitoring, testing, analysis, or reporting carried out by the director which confirms the results of monitoring, testing, or analysis done pursuant to an earlier order of the director

e For purposes of carrying out this subsection, the director may exercise the powers set forth in subsection 1 [C81, §455B 135, 81 Acts, ch 151, §3, 4]

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899

455B.417 Prohibited acts — penalties.

1 A person shall not knowingly do any of the following acts a Transport a hazardous waste identified under the commission’s rules to a hazardous waste storage, treatment or disposal facility that is located in Iowa and that does not have a permit under section 455B 415, subsection 1 b Treat, store, or dispose of a hazardous waste identified under sections 455B 411 to 455B 421 either without having obtained a permit for the treatment, storage, or disposal under section 455B 415, subsection 1, or in violation of a material condition or requirement of a permit

c Make a false material statement or representation in an application, label, manifest, record, report, permit or other document filed, maintained or used for purposes of compliance with the provisions of sections 455B 411 to 455B 421

d Destroy, alter or conceal after July 1, 1981, any record required to be kept under rules adopted by the commission under this part. This paragraph applies to all persons who generated, stored, treated, transported, disposed of, or otherwise handled hazardous waste after November 19, 1980

2 A person who violates subsection 1 is subject upon conviction to a fine of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for not to exceed one year, or both for each day of violation. If the conviction is for a violation committed after a first conviction, punishment shall be by a fine of not more than fifty thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both for each day of violation.

3 A person who violates a provision of this part or a rule, permit, or order adopted or issued under this part is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed ten thousand dollars for each violation. Each day of violation constitutes a separate violation.

455B.418 Enforcement.

1 If the director has substantial evidence that a person has violated or is violating a provision of sections 455B.411 to 455B.421, or of a rule or standard established or permit issued pursuant to sections 455B.411 to 455B.421

a The director may issue an order directing the person to desist in the practice that constitutes the violation or to take corrective action as necessary to ensure that the violation will cease. The person to whom the order is issued may commence a contested case within the meaning of chapter 17A by filing with the director within thirty days of receipt of the order. A notice of appeal to the commission. On appeal, the commission may affirm, modify, or vacate the order of the director.

b If it is determined by the director that an emergency exists, the director may issue without notice or hearing an order necessary to terminate the emergency. The order shall be binding and effective immediately and until the order is modified or vacated at a hearing. The order may seek relief in the district court on the grounds that the requirements imposed by the order are excessive, that the benefits to society are not commensurate with the costs of complying with the order and that society can be protected in a less costly manner.

c When the director determines that a disposal site contains hazardous waste in an amount and under conditions that cause an imminent threat to human health and that the person responsible for the site will not properly and promptly remove the waste or eliminate the threat, the director may take action as necessary to remove the waste or permanently alleviate or eliminate the threat to human health. The costs of removing the waste or alleviating or eliminating the threat shall be recovered from the person responsible for the disposal site.

d The director with the approval of the commission, may request the attorney general to institute legal proceedings pursuant to subsection 2 of this section.

2 The attorney general shall, at the request of the director pursuant to paragraph "d" of subsection 1 of this section, institute legal proceedings, including an action for an injunction, necessary to enforce the penalty provisions of sections 455B.411 to 455B.421 or to obtain compliance with said sections or a rule promulgated or a condition of a permit or order issued under said sections.

3 In a case arising from the violation of an order issued under subsection 1, paragraph "a" of this section, the burden of proof shall be on the state to show that the time specified in the order within which the individual must take corrective action is reasonable.

455B.419 Agricultural chemicals.

1 A farmer using or disposing of federally approved agricultural chemicals or the empty containers of agricultural chemicals is not in violation of sections 455B.411 to 455B.421 by reason of the use or disposal if the farmer does both of the following:

a Applies or disposes of the chemicals in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions.

b Triple rinses each chemical container after it has been emptied and uses the rinsing as makeup water in a tankmix and applies the mix to the farmer's cropland at an application rate that does not exceed the manufacturer's instructions.

2 As used in this section, farmer means an owner or tenant of a farm unit, a member of the family of the owner or tenant, or an employee of the owner or tenant. Farmer does not include a commercial applicator of agricultural chemicals.

455B.420 Rules.

Except as provided in chapter 89B, rules adopted by the commission under sections 455B.411 to 455B.421 shall be consistent with and shall not exceed the requirements of 42 U.S.C. secs 6921-6934 as amended to January 1, 1981, and rules and regulations adopted pursuant to those sections.

455B.421 Judicial review.

Judicial review of actions of the commission or the director may be sought in accordance with the provisions of chapter 17A. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 17A, petitions for judicial review may be filed in the district court of the county where the acts in issue occurred. In addition to other rights of judicial review authorized by this section, a person who has complied with an order issued by the director or commission may within six months of compliance with the order seek relief in the district court on the grounds that the requirements imposed by the order are excessive, that the benefits to society are not commensurate with the costs of complying with the order and that society can be protected in a less costly manner. Upon a finding that the requirements imposed by the order are excessive, the court may modify or vacate the order.

455B.422 Acquisition and lease of sites.

The commission shall adopt rules establishing cri-455B.423 Hazardous waste remedial fund.
1 A hazardous substance remedial fund is created within the state treasury. Moneys received from fees, penalties, general revenue, federal funds, gifts, bequests, donations, or other moneys so designated shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the fund. Any unexpended balance in the remedial fund at the end of each fiscal year shall be retained in the fund. However, any unexpended balance shall be transferred to the general fund to replace funds appropriated from the general fund during fiscal year 1985 and fiscal year 1986 for the purposes for which expenditures from the remedial fund are allowed.

2 The director may use the fund for any of the following purposes:
   a Administrative services for the identification, assessment and cleanup of abandoned or uncontrolled sites.
   b Payments to other state agencies for services consistent with the management of abandoned or uncontrolled disposal sites.
   c Emergency response activities as provided in part 4 of this division.
   d Financing the nonfederal share of the cost of cleanup and site rehabilitation activities as well as postclosure operation and maintenance costs, pursuant to the federal Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980.
   e Financing the cost of cleanup and site rehabilitation activities as well as postclosure operation and maintenance costs of abandoned or uncontrolled disposal sites that do not qualify for federal cost sharing pursuant to the federal Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980.
   f Through agreements or contracts with other state agencies, work with private industry to develop alternatives to land disposal of hazardous waste or hazardous substances including, but not limited to, resource recovery, recycling, neutralization, and reduction.

3 However, at least seventy-five percent of the fund shall be used for the purposes stated in paragraphs "d" and "e".

4 Neither the state nor its officers, agents, or other responsible persons shall be liable for an injury caused by a dangerous condition at an abandoned or uncontrolled site unless the condition is the result of gross negligence or willful misconduct on the part of the state, its officers, employees, or agents.

5 The director may contract with any person to perform the acts authorized in this section.

6 The director shall make all reasonable efforts to recover the full amount of moneys expended from the fund through litigation or cooperative agreements with responsible persons. Moneys recovered pursuant to this subsection shall be deposited with the treasurer of state and credited to the remedial fund.

455B.424 Hazardous waste fees.
1 The person who generates hazardous waste or the owner or operator of a hazardous waste disposal facility who transports hazardous wastes off of the site where the hazardous waste was generated or off the disposal facility site shall pay a fee of ten dollars for each ton of hazardous waste transported off the site, excluding the water content of any waste that is transported to another facility under the ownership of the generator for the purposes of waste treatment or recycling.

2 A person who generates hazardous waste or owns or operates a facility which treats or disposes of hazardous waste at the facility shall pay the following fees:
   a Forty dollars for each ton of hazardous wastes placed, deposited, dumped or disposed of onto or into the land at a disposal facility in Iowa.
   b Two dollars for each ton of hazardous waste destroyed or treated at the generator's site or at the disposal facility to render the hazardous waste non-hazardous.

3 Fees specified in subsections 1 and 2 shall not be imposed on the state or any of its political subdivisions.

4 Fees specified in subsections 1 and 2 shall not be imposed on any of the following:
   a Hazardous waste that is reclaimed or reused for energy or materials.
   b Hazardous waste that is transformed into new products which are not wastes.
   c Hazardous wastes created or retrieved as a result of remedial actions at an abandoned or uncontrolled hazardous waste site.
   d Influent waste water to a treatment facility.
which is subject to regulation under either 33 U.S.C. 1317(b) or 33 U.S.C. 1342

e A hazardous waste which due to its intrinsic physical, chemical or biological composition degrades, decomposes or changes physical characteristics so as to be rendered or considered nonhazardous without any form of external mechanical, physical or chemical treatment being introduced. However, such change to a nonhazardous nature must occur within twenty-four hours of the generation of the hazardous waste before the exemption granted in this paragraph is applicable.

5 Fees imposed by this section shall be paid to the department on an annual basis. Fees are due on April 15 for the previous calendar year. The payment shall be accompanied by a return in the form prescribed by the department.

6 A person required to pay fees by this section who fails or refuses to pay the fees imposed by this section shall be assessed a penalty of fifteen percent of the fee due. The penalty shall be paid in addition to the fee due.

7 Moneys collected or received by the department pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the treasurer of state for deposit in the hazardous waste remedial fund.

8 The fees imposed by this section shall be suspended if after collection of the fees due from the previous quarter, the hazardous waste remedial fund has a balance in excess of six million dollars. If the balance falls below three million dollars, the fees shall be reposed commencing the beginning of the next calendar quarter.

455B.425 Annual report on hazardous waste remedial fund.

The director shall annually on January 1 give a full accounting of moneys received, moneys expended, sources and recipients, and purposes of the expenditures for the preceding fiscal year in the hazardous substance remedial fund to the general assembly and the governor.

455B.426 Registry of abandoned or uncontrolled disposal sites.

1 The director shall maintain and make available for public inspection a registry of confirmed abandoned or uncontrolled disposal sites in the state. The director shall take all necessary action to ensure that the registry provides a complete listing of all sites. The registry shall contain the exact location of each site and identify the types of waste found at each site.

2 The director shall investigate all known or suspected abandoned or uncontrolled disposal sites and determine whether each site should be included in the registry. In the evaluation of known or suspected abandoned or uncontrolled disposal sites, the director may enter private property and perform tests and analyses in the manner provided in section 455B.416.

455B.427 Annual report on abandoned or uncontrolled disposal sites.

1 The director shall annually on January 1 transmit a report to the general assembly and the governor identifying all abandoned or uncontrolled disposal sites in the state listed on the registry. A copy of the report shall also be sent to the board of supervisors of every county containing a site.

2 The annual report shall include, but is not limited to, the following information for each site:

a A general description of the site, including the name and address of the site, the type and quantity of the hazardous waste or hazardous substance disposed of at the site and the name of the current owners of the site.

b A summary of significant environmental problems at or near the site.

c A summary of serious health problems in the immediate vicinity of the site and health problems deemed by the director in cooperation with the Iowa department of public health to be related to conditions at the site.

d The status of testing, monitoring, or remedial actions in progress or recommended by the director.

e The status of pending legal actions and federal, state, or local government permits concerning the site.

f The relative priority for remedial action at each site.

g The proximity of the site to private residences, public buildings or property, school facilities, places of work, or other areas where individuals may be regularly present.

3 In developing and maintaining the annual report, the director shall assess the relative priority of the need for action at each site to remedy environmental and health problems resulting from the presence of hazardous wastes or hazardous substances at the sites. In making assessments of relative priority, the director, in cooperation with the Iowa department of public health on matters relating to public health, shall place every site in one of the following classifications:

a Causing or presenting an imminent danger of causing irreversible or irreparable damage to the public health or environment—immediate action required.

b Significant threat to the environment—action required.

c Not a significant threat to the public health or environment—action may be deferred.

d Site properly closed—requires continued management.

e Site properly closed, no evidence of present or potential adverse impact—no further action required.

4 A site classified as properly closed under subsection 3, paragraph "c", shall be removed from all subsequent annual reports and the register of abandoned or uncontrolled disposal sites.

5 The director shall work with the Iowa department of public health when assessing the effects of an abandoned or uncontrolled disposal site on human health.

455B.428 Investigation of sites.

1 The director shall investigate each abandoned or uncontrolled disposal site listed in the registry to determine its relative priority.
2 The director shall identify each abandoned or uncontrolled disposal site by providing all of the following:
   a. The address and site boundaries
   b. The time period of use for disposal of hazardous waste or hazardous substances
   c. The name of the current owner and operator and names of reported owners and operators during the time period of use for disposal of hazardous waste or hazardous substances
   d. The names of persons responsible for the generation and transportation of the hazardous waste or hazardous substances disposed of at the site
   e. The type, quantity and manner of hazardous waste or hazardous substances disposed

3 When preliminary evidence suggests further assessment is necessary, the director may assess any of the following:
   a. The depth of the water table at the site
   b. The nature of soils at the site
   c. The location, nature, and size of aquifers at the site
   d. The direction of present and historic groundwater flows at the site
   e. The location and nature of surface waters at and near the site
   f. The levels of contaminants in groundwater, surface water, air, and soils at and near the site resulting from hazardous wastes or hazardous substances disposed of at the site
   g. The current quality of all drinking water drawn from or distributed through the area in which the site is located, if the director determines that water quality may have been affected by the site

4 The director shall maintain a site assessment file for each site listed in the registry. The file shall contain all information obtained pursuant to this section and shall be open to the public. Information in the file may be reproduced by any person at a charge not to exceed the actual cost of reproduction for copies of file information.

455B.430 Use and transfer of sites — penalty — financial disclosure.

1 A person shall not substantially change the manner in which an abandoned or uncontrolled disposal site on the registry pursuant to section 455B 426 is used without the written approval of the director.

2 A person shall not sell, convey, or transfer title to an abandoned or uncontrolled disposal site which is on the registry pursuant to section 455B 426 without the written approval of the director. The director shall respond to a request for a change of ownership within thirty days of its receipt.

3 Decisions of the director concerning the use or transfer of an abandoned or uncontrolled disposal site may be appealed in the manner provided in section 455B 429.

4 If the director has reason to believe this section has been violated, or is in imminent danger of being violated, the director may institute a civil action in district court for injunctive relief to prevent the violation and for the assessment of a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars per day for each day of violation. Moneys collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the remedial fund.

5 Immediately upon the listing of real property in the registry of abandoned or uncontrolled disposal sites, a person liable for cleanup costs shall submit to the director a report consisting of documentation of the responsible person's liabilities and assets, including filed, a copy of the annual report submitted to the secretary of state pursuant to chapter 496. A subsequent report pursuant to this section shall be submitted annually on April 15 for the period the site remains on the registry.

455B.431 Recording of site designation.

When the director places a site on the registry as provided in section 455B 426, then the director shall file with the county recorder a statement disclosing the period during which the site was used as a hazardous waste or hazardous substances disposal area. When the director finds that a site on the registry has been properly closed under section 455B 427, subsection 3, paragraph "e", with no evidence of potential adverse impact, this finding shall be filed with the county recorder. The finding shall state that the director's finding does not warrant to a future purchaser of the site that the site will be free from any future adverse impacts as a result of use of the site as a hazardous waste or hazardous substances disposal site.
455B.432 Liability.

Acts or omissions of the director or the department in carrying out the duties imposed by sections 455B.423 through 455B.431 shall not be cause for a claim against the state within the meaning of chapter 25A

PART 6

HAZARDOUS WASTE SITES AND FACILITIES

455B.441 Purpose and guidelines.

The purpose of this part is to protect the public health and the environment by providing a procedure for establishing appropriate sites and properly designed facilities for the treatment, storage and disposal of hazardous waste. It is the intent of the general assembly that in the implementation of this part, the department of water, air and waste management shall emphasize alternatives to land burial of hazardous waste whenever possible with emphasis on the following management methods in the following order: Source reduction, reuse, resource recovery, incineration, and detoxification.

83 Acts, ch 101, §95, 83 Acts, ch 137, §23

455B.442 Definitions.

As used in this part 6 of division IV unless the context otherwise requires

1. "Facility" means land and structures, other appurtenances, and improvements on the land used for the treatment, storage, or disposal of a hazardous waste required to have a permit under section 455B.415.

2. "Facility" does not include land, structures, other appurtenances and improvements contiguous to the source of generation and owned and operated by and exclusively for the treatment, storage, or disposal of hazardous waste of the generator.

3. As used in this subsection, property is contiguous if it is divided only by a public or private way.

4. "Hazardous waste" means a hazardous waste as defined in section 455B.411, subsection 4 and listed under section 455B.412, subsection 2.

5. "Regulatory agency" means a state or local agency that issues a license or permit required for the construction, operation, or maintenance of a facility pursuant to state statute or rule or local ordinance or resolution in effect on the date the application for a site license is submitted to the commission.

6. "Construct" means significant alteration of a site to install permanent equipment or structures but does not include activities incident to preliminary engineering, environmental studies, or acquisition of a site for a facility. "Construct" includes alteration to existing structures or a land disposal facility to initially accommodate hazardous waste but does not include any alteration to increase the capacity or change the ability to accommodate hazardous waste. However, any alteration to increase or change the ability to accommodate hazardous waste is subject to section 455B.413.

455B.443 License required.

1. A person shall not construct a facility until the person obtains a site license issued under this part 6 of division IV by the commission. A person planning to construct a facility shall give notice of the intent to construct the facility as provided in this section. The notice shall be served on the director and on the city council and board of supervisors of each city and county in which the facility is located and shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in each city and county in which the proposed site is located once a week for two consecutive weeks. The notice shall contain the following:

a. A description of the proposed location of the facility.

b. A description of the treatment, storage, or disposal method to be used and the types of wastes to be handled, including estimated volumes.

c. The names and addresses of the owners and the operators of the facility.

2. Within fifteen days of the date the notice is last published, the owners and operators of the facility shall submit an application to the director requesting that a site license be issued under this part 6 of division IV. The application for a site license shall contain the name and residence of the applicant and the following additional information:

a. The location of the proposed facility and a plat of the proposed location.

b. A description of the design and capacity of the proposed facility.

c. The expected sources of hazardous wastes for the facility, the proposed methods and routes of transporting the wastes to and from the facility.

d. The qualifications of the operator.

e. Other relevant information as the commission requires by rule.

The application shall be accompanied by a nonrefundable application fee determined by a schedule established by the commission by rule, but which shall not exceed one thousand dollars.

3. Within thirty days of the receipt of the application, the director shall determine whether the application is in substantial compliance with the information requirements, and shall either accept the application or notify the applicant of any deficiencies. An applicant who receives notification of deficiencies in the application has ninety days from the receipt of notice to remedy the deficiencies and resubmit the application for consideration. The director shall notify the applicant within thirty days of receipt of a resubmitted application whether the application is accepted. An application rejected under this subsection may be resubmitted only once if a resubmitted application is rejected the applicant may reapply for a license by giving notice and resubmitting an application as provided in subsections 1 and 2, including payment of the nonrefundable application fee.

4. This part 6 of division IV does not apply to a facility that is subject to section 455B.415, subsection 2 and that has obtained applicable local zoning permits and for which contracts have been signed prior to January 1, 1982.

[81 Acts, ch 152, §3]
455B.444 Temporary members appointed.
Immediately upon receipt of an application for a site license the director shall notify the city council of the city closest to the proposed facility and the county board of supervisors of the county in which the facility is proposed to be located that the application has been received. Within thirty days of the receipt of notification the city council or the county board of supervisors may make the following appointments to the commission for purposes of consideration of the site license application and if the city council or the county board of supervisors chooses to make the temporary appointments the director shall be notified of the names of those persons appointed as follows:
1. The county board may appoint two temporary members who are residents of the county.
2. The city council may appoint two temporary members who are residents of the city.
Temporary members who may be appointed under this section shall serve on the commission only during discussion and proceedings relating to the application for a site license which the temporary members were appointed to consider and shall vote only on questions relating to the issuance of that site license. Temporary members shall serve on the commission until final action is taken on the application for the site license which the temporary members were appointed to consider. Temporary members who are not public employees shall receive forty dollars per diem and actual and necessary expenses incurred in performance of their official duties. Temporary employees who are public employees shall receive reimbursement for expenses only. Per diem and expenses under this section shall be paid by the state.
86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899

455B.445 Notification requirements.
Upon acceptance of a site license application under section 455B.443 the director shall mail copies of the application to regulatory agencies. A regulatory agency receiving a copy of the application shall conduct a preliminary review of the contents and shall evaluate the application for completeness and for compliance with the regulatory agency's permit or licensing requirements.
[81 Acts, ch 152, §5]
86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899

455B.446 Proceeding.
1. Within thirty days after the acceptance of the application for a site license, the commission shall establish a timetable for consideration of the application. The timetable for final action by the commission shall not exceed one hundred eighty days after the date the application is accepted.
2. The proceeding for the issuance of a site license is a contested case under chapter 17A.
3. The commission shall establish a date for the hearing on the application and shall serve notice of the hearing on interested agencies, as determined by the commission, and regulatory agencies.
The commission shall notify all owners of record of real property located within one mile from the boundaries of the proposed site of the time and place of the hearing.
4. Notice of the hearing in the form provided in section 17A.12, subsection 2, shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in each city and county in which the proposed site is located once a week for two consecutive weeks with the second publication being at least twenty days prior to the date of the hearing.
[81 Acts, ch 152, §6]

455B.447 Proceeding — role of regulatory agencies.
1. Regulatory agencies that appear on record at the proceeding shall state whether the application meets their permit or licensing requirements. If the application does not meet the requirements of a regulatory agency, the regulatory agency shall state why the application is not in compliance.
2. Any person may present oral or written comments to the commission at the hearing.
[81 Acts, ch 152, §7]

455B.448 Decision by commission.
1. The commission shall grant or deny the site license. In making its decision, the commission shall consider the following:
   a. The need for the services to be offered by the facility.
   b. The impact of the proposed facility on the area in which it is to be located.
   c. The zoning classification of the proposed site and the extent to which a proposed site is by present or projected use dedicated to industrial development.
   d. The land uses and the density of population in areas near the facility.
   e. The density of population in areas adjacent to probable transportation routes to the facility.
   f. The risk and effect of accidents during the transportation of hazardous wastes to the site.
   g. The geology of the site, where relevant, with reference to factors which include, but are not limited to, the presence of fault zones and the risk of contamination of ground and surface waters by leaching and runoff from the facility.
   h. The risk and effect of fires or explosions from improper storage and disposal methods.
   i. The impact of the facility on the operations and responsibilities of the city and county in which the facility is proposed to be located and on cities and counties near the proposed site.
   j. Local ordinances, permits, or other requirements and their relationship to the proposed facility.
   k. The availability of alternative sites and methods of treatment, disposal, or storage, including cost comparisons. The cost comparisons shall cover short and long-term costs including, but not limited to, liability insurance, postclosure maintenance, monitoring of ground and surface waters, monitoring of air before and after closure, and the potential loss of land or water resources due to contamination.
   l. To the maximum extent feasible a site should be located away from all of the following areas:
      (1) Areas subject to natural hazards including, but not limited to, flooding, earthquakes, or subsidence.
      (2) Sources of drinking water supply including, but not limited to, reservoirs, lakes and rivers and their watersheds, and aquifers and their recharge areas.
      (3) Fragile land areas including, but not limited to, wetlands and the shorelines of rivers, lakes, and streams
§455B 448

(4) Areas with rare or valuable ecosystems or geologic formations or significant wildlife habitat

(5) Unique scenic or historic areas

(6) Residential areas, parks, or schools

(7) Prime farmland as defined by the United States department of agriculture in 7 C F R §657 5(a) m Other criteria adopted by rule which the commission finds relevant to the siting of a factory which are consistent with this part 6 of division IV

2 The commission shall grant the license if it finds that the facility will meet the requirements imposed by rules adopted by the commission under section 455B 412, subsection 3, and the permit requirement of section 455B 415, that operation of the facility at the proposed location will be in the public interest and that the public health and welfare and the environment will be adequately protected. The failure of the proposed facility to meet zoning requirements established under chapters 329, 358A, and 414, and the licensing requirements of regulatory agencies except the requirements imposed by sections 455B 412, subsection 3 and 455B 415 shall not preclude the commission from issuing the license and to that extent this subsection supersedes the licensing requirements of regulatory agencies and the requirements of chapters 329, 358A and 414

3 A municipality as defined in section 613A 1, subsection 1, is not liable in an action for damages arising out of the construction, operation, or maintenance of a hazardous waste facility which is licensed by the commission under this part 6 of division IV unless the municipality is responsible for or in control of the facility. However, a municipality may be subject to liability for damages caused by hazardous waste in connection with an act or omission which would otherwise subject the municipality to liability. A municipality shall not be required to pay any portion of the costs associated with the response to a release or threatened release of a hazardous waste from a facility into the land, air, or water that threatens or may threaten human health or the environment unless the municipality is responsible for or in control of the facility or unless the municipality is otherwise subject to liability under this subsection

§455B 449 Issuance of license — effect.

Issuance of a license by the commission authorizes construction of the facility on the site designated in the license according to the terms and conditions stated in the license. A license may be transferred, subject to the rules and approval of the commission, to a person who agrees and is able to comply with the terms of the license §455B.450 Cost of proceedings.

The cost of the proceeding for the issuance of a license shall be paid by the applicant for the license until the cost exceeds nine thousand dollars. The director shall notify the applicant upon the issuance or denial of the license or upon termination of the proceeding at any point during the process of the cost of the proceeding to the applicant. These costs include the costs of providing notices, holding the hearing and the per diem of the commissioners in the proceeding for the license. Money collected shall be deposited in the general fund of the state

455B.451 Further approvals prohibited — exception.

Upon the issuance of a license under this part 6 of division IV, notwithstanding any provision of law or ordinance except statutory requirements relating to the protection of employees engaged in the construction of the facility, no further approval, permit, or license for the construction, operation, or maintenance of the facility as stated in the license shall be required. The commission may incorporate in the license the licensing requirements of a regulatory agency to the extent that those requirements are consistent with the construction and operation of the facility according to the requirements of the commission. However, this section does not limit the authority of the director under sections 455B 413 and 455B 415. A local unit of government shall not unduly restrict the transportation of hazardous waste to a facility for which a license has been issued under this part 6 of division IV

455B.452 Single hearing — judicial review.

Notwithstanding chapter 17A

1 Any proceeding or oral presentation held before the commission on an application for a license shall be held in lieu of any other proceeding or oral presentation required for a license or permit necessary for the construction, maintenance, or operation of a facility

2 The issuance or denial of the license is a final agency action, and the date for determining whether any person is aggrieved or adversely affected by the action is the date of the issuance or denial of the license

455B.453 Rules.

The commission shall adopt rules under chapter 17A necessary to implement this part 6 of division IV including but not limited to the form for an application for a license and the description of information to be furnished by the applicant

[81 Acts, ch 152, §13]

455B.454 Penalties.

A person required to obtain a site license under this part 6 of division IV who constructs a facility without having first obtained the license is subject to a civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars for each violation or for each day of continuing violation. Civil penalties collected pursuant to this subsection shall be forwarded by the clerk of court to the treasurer of state for deposit in the general fund of the state

455B.455 Surcharge imposed.

A land burial surcharge tax of two percent is imposed on the fee for land burial of a hazardous waste
The owner of the land burial facility shall remit the tax collected to the director of revenue and finance after consultation with the director according to rules that the director shall adopt. The director shall forward a copy of the site license to the director of revenue and finance which shall be the appropriate license for the collection of the land burial surcharge tax and shall be subject to suspension or revocation if the site license holder fails to collect or remit the tax collected under this section. The provisions of sections 422.25, subsection 4, 422.30, 422.48 to 422.52, 422.54 to 422.58, 422.67, 422.68, 422.69, subsection 1, and 422.70 to 422.75, consistent with the provisions of this part 6 of division IV, shall apply with respect to the taxes authorized under this part, in the same manner and with the same effect as if the land burial surcharge tax were retail sales taxes within the meaning of those statutes. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, the director shall provide for only quarterly filing of returns as prescribed in section 422.51. Taxes collected by the director of revenue and finance under this section shall be deposited in the general fund of the state [81 Acts, ch 152, §15] 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899

DISPOSAL OF HAZARDOUS WASTE ON LAND
Department to submit by January 1, 1987 a plan for siting and construction of an above ground facility for long term storage of hazardous wastes 85 Acts ch 202 §10

455B.461 Definitions.
As used in this part 7 of division IV, unless the context otherwise requires
1 "Hazardous waste" means hazardous waste as defined in section 455B.411, subsection 4, and section 455B.464
2 "Land disposal" means either of the following a Disposal of hazardous wastes on or into the land, including, but not limited to, landfill, surface impoundment, waste piles, land spreading, and co-burn with municipal garbage
b Treatment of hazardous wastes on or in the land, such as neutralization and evaporation ponds and land farming, where the treatment residues are hazardous wastes and are not removed for subsequent processing or disposal within one year
"Land disposal" does not include long-term storage as defined in subsection 3 3 "Long term storage" means the above-ground containment of stabilized or solidified hazardous waste on a temporary basis or for a period of years in a manner that does not constitute disposal of hazardous waste
4 "Storage" means the containment of a hazardous waste for a period less than one year in a manner consistent with the requirements of 42 U.S.C. §6921-6934 as amended to January 1, 1981 and the regulations adopted pursuant to those sections
5 "Facility" means facility as defined in section 455B.442, subsection 1
6 "Restricted waste" means a hazardous waste or any other waste which is determined by the commission to be a significant environmental burden if disposed of at a land disposal facility 85 Acts, ch 202, §2

455B.462 Limitations on land disposal of hazardous waste.
1 A generator, recycler, transporter or other handler of hazardous waste shall not dispose of the wastes by land disposal or store wastes at an above ground storage facility, unless all of the following conditions exist a The commission determines that the best available technology is being used at the land disposal facility
b The handler proves to the satisfaction of the commission that there is no available alternative including above ground storage for the disposal of hazardous waste
c The handler utilizes methods of source reduction, recycling and destruction of hazardous waste to the extent feasible, as determined by rule d The handler pretreats the hazardous waste as determined by rule 2 The commission shall adopt rules including, but not limited to, the following a To determine the criteria that industry must satisfy to show that alternative land disposal of hazardous wastes are not technically or economically feasible
b To require that all industrial and commercial owners or users of land disposal and storage sites report to the department annually the amount and content of current hazardous waste production, treatment methods used and technological advances made or pursued to implement alternatives to land disposal and source reduction 85 Acts, ch 202, §3

455B.463 Dilution of hazardous waste.
Any hazardous waste shall be considered a restricted waste for the purposes of this part even though it is diluted to a concentration less than the listed concentration threshold by the addition of other hazardous waste or any other material during waste handling, treatment or storage. Dilution which occurs as a normal part of the manufacturing process shall not be considered dilution for purposes of this section 85 Acts, ch 202, §4 455B.464 Additional hazardous or restricted waste listed.

Notwithstanding the restriction in section 455B.420, the director shall compile, annually, a list of additional hazardous wastes for adoption by the commission pursuant to the rulemaking procedures of chapter 17A. The list shall include wastes which may be a significant environmental burden if disposed of at a land disposal facility 85 Acts, ch 202, §5, 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899A

455B.465 Well injection prohibited.
It is unlawful for a person to inject hazardous or restricted wastes into a well 85 Acts, ch 202, §6 455B.466 Civil penalties.
A person who violates a provision of this part is subject to a civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars for each violation and for each day of continuing violation. Civil penalties collected pursuant to this section shall be forwarded by the clerk of the district court to the treasurer of state for deposit in the general fund of the state.
85 Acts, ch 202, §7

455B.467 Emergency variance.
The department may grant a variance to the restrictions or prohibition of land disposal of a hazardous waste in either of the following situations:
1. When the materials sought to be disposed of resulted from the cleanup of a hazardous condition involving a hazardous waste
2. When the materials sought to be disposed of resulted from remediation or cleanup of abandoned or uncontrolled hazardous waste sites
85 Acts, ch 202, §8

455B.468 Coordination with existing reporting and permitting requirements.
This part does not require the department to establish a reporting or permitting system if such a system is already established under the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act, and administered and enforced through the federal environmental protection agency that achieves the objectives set out in this part. Consistent with this part, the department may establish requirements in addition to those established under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act for reporting, permitting, and enforcement. However, in such actions, the department shall avoid any redundancy in reporting, compliance, and enforcement with that provided under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act.

Notwithstanding section 455B.420, the rules and requirements imposed under this part may be more restrictive than required by federal law or regulation.

PART 8
UNDERGROUND STORAGE TANKS

455B.471 Definitions.
As used in this part unless the context otherwise requires:
1. "Nonoperational storage tank" means an underground storage tank in which regulated substances will not be deposited or from which regulated substances will not be dispensed after July 1, 1985.
2. "Operator" means a person in control of, or having responsibility for, the daily operation of the underground storage tank.
3. "Owner" means a person who owns the underground storage tank in use on or after July 1, 1985, a person who owns the underground storage tank used for the storage, use, or dispensing of regulated substances

b. In the case of an underground storage tank in use before July 1, 1985, but no longer in use on that date, a person who owned the tank immediately before the discontinuation of its use.
4. "Regulated substance" means an element, compound, mixture, solution or substance which, when released into the environment, may present substantial danger to the public health or welfare or the environment. Regulated substance includes substances designated in 40 CFR Part 61 and 116, and section 401.15, and petroleum including crude oil or any fraction of crude oil which is liquid at standard conditions of temperature and pressure (sixty degrees Fahrenheit and fourteen and seven-tenths pounds per square inch absolute). However, regulated substance does not include a substance regulated as a hazardous waste under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976. Substances may be added or deleted as regulated substances by rule of the commission pursuant to section 455B.474.
5. "Release" means spilling, leaking, emitting, discharging, escaping, leaching, or disposing from an underground storage tank into groundwater, surface water, or subsurface soils.
6. "Underground storage tank" means one or a combination of tanks, including underground pipes connected to the tanks which are used to contain an accumulation of regulated substances and the volume of which, including the volume of the underground pipes, is ten percent or more beneath the surface of the ground. Underground storage tank does not include:
   a. Farm or residential tanks of one hundred gallons or less capacity used for storing motor fuel for noncommercial purposes.
   b. Tanks used for storing heating oil for consumptive use on the premises where stored.
   c. Residential septic tanks.
   e. A surface impoundment, pit, pond, or lagoon.
   f. A storm water or wastewater collection system.
   g. A flow through process tank.
   h. A liquid trap or associated gathering lines directly related to oil or gas production and gathering operations.
   i. A storage tank situated in an underground area including, but not limited to, a basement, cellar, mine working, drift, shaft, or tunnel if the storage tank is situated upon or above the surface of the floor.
Underground storage tank does not include pipes connected to a tank described in paragraphs "a" to "i".
7. "Tank site" means a tank or grouping of tanks within close proximity of each other located on the facility for the purpose of storing regulated substances.
85 Acts, ch 162, §1

455B.472 Declaration of policy.
The general assembly finds that the release of regulated substances from underground storage tanks constitutes a threat to the public health and safety and to the natural resources of the state, and that existing regulatory programs of the department and other agencies do not adequately or appropriately address this substantial public concern.

85 Acts, ch 162, §2

455B.473 Report of existing tanks — fee.

1. Except as provided in subsection 2, the owner or operator of an underground storage tank existing on or before July 1, 1985, shall notify the department in writing by May 1, 1986, of the existence of each tank and specify the age, size, type, location and uses of the tank.

2. The owner of an underground storage tank taken out of operation between January 1, 1974 and July 1, 1985, shall notify the department in writing by July 1, 1986, of the existence of the tank unless the owner knows the tank has been removed from the ground. The notice shall specify to the extent known to the owner, the date the tank was taken out of operation, the age of the tank on the date taken out of operation, the size, type and location of the tank, and the type and quantity of substances left stored in the tank on the date that it was taken out of operation.

3. An owner or operator which brings into use an underground storage tank after July 1, 1985, shall notify the department in writing within thirty days of the existence of the tank and specify the age, size, type, location and uses of the tank.

4. The notice of the owner or operator to the department under subsections 1 through 3 shall be accompanied by a fee of five dollars for each tank included in the notice. A separate fund is created in the state treasury, the receipts of which are appropriated to pay the administrative expenses of the department incurred under this part. All fees collected by the department under this subsection shall be credited to the hazardous waste remedial fund.

5. Subsections 1 to 3 do not apply to an underground storage tank for which notice was given pursuant to section 103, subsection c, of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980.

6. A person who deposits a regulated substance in an underground storage tank shall notify the owner or operator in writing of the notification requirements pursuant to this section.

7. A person who sells a tank intended to be used as an underground storage tank shall notify the purchaser of the tank in writing of the owner's notification requirements pursuant to this section.

b. Maintaining records of any monitoring or leak detection system, inventory control system, or tank testing or comparable system.

c. Reporting of any releases and corrective action taken in response to a release from an underground storage tank.

d. Taking corrective action in response to a release or threatened release from an underground storage tank including appropriate testing of drinking water which may be contaminated by the release.

e. The closure of tanks to prevent any future release of a regulated substance into the environment.

f. Specifying an adequate monitoring system to detect the presence of a leaking underground storage tank and to provide for protection of the groundwater resources for regulated tanks installed prior to May 1, 1986. The commission shall adopt these rules not later than April 1, 1986; however, the effective date of the rules adopted shall be May 1, 1988. In the event that federal regulations are adopted by the United States environmental protection agency after the commission has adopted state standards pursuant to this subsection, the commission shall immediately proceed to adopt rules consistent with those federal regulations adopted.

In adopting the rules under this subsection, the commission may distinguish between types, classes, and ages of underground storage tanks. In making the distinctions, the commission may take into consideration factors including, but not limited to, location of the tanks, compatibility of a tank material with the soil and climate conditions, uses of the tanks, history of maintenance, age of the tanks, current industry recommended practices, national consensus codes, hydrogeology, water table, size of the tanks, quantity of regulated substances periodically deposited in or dispensed from the tank, the degree of risk presented by the regulated substance, the technical and managerial capability of the owners and operators, and the compatibility of the regulated substance and the materials of which the underground storage tank is fabricated.

2. The maintenance of evidence of financial responsibility as the director determines to be feasible and necessary for taking corrective action and for compensating third parties for bodily injury and property damage caused by release of a regulated substance from an underground storage tank.

a. Financial responsibility required by this subsection may be established in accordance with rules adopted by the commission by any one, or any combination, of the following methods: insurance, guarantee, surety bond, letter of credit, or qualification as a self-insurer. In adopting requirements under this subsection, the commission may specify policy or other contractual terms, conditions, or defenses which are necessary or are unacceptable in establishing the evidence of financial responsibility.

b. If the owner or operator is in bankruptcy, reorganization, or arrangement pursuant to the federal bankruptcy law or if jurisdiction in any state court or federal court cannot be obtained over an owner or operator likely to be solvent at the time of judgment, any claim arising from conduct for which evidence of financial responsibility must be provided under this subsection may be asserted directly against the guarantor providing the evidence of financial responsibility. In the case of action pursuant to this paragraph, the guarantor is entitled to invoke all rights and defenses which would have been available to the owner or operator if an action had been brought against the owner or operator by the claimant and which would have been available to the guarantor if an action had been brought against the guarantor by the owner or operator.

c The total liability of a guarantor shall be limited to the aggregate amount which the guarantor has provided as evidence of financial responsibility to the owner or operator under this subsection. This subsection does not limit any other state or federal statutory, contractual, or common law liability of a guarantor to its owner or operator including, but not limited to, the liability of the guarantor for bad faith in negotiating or in failing to negotiate the settlement of any claim. This subsection does not diminish the liability of any person under section 107 or 111 of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980 or other applicable law.

d For the purpose of this subsection, the term “guarantor” means any person, other than the owner or operator, who provides evidence of financial responsibility for an owner or operator under this subsection.

3 Standards of performance for new underground storage tanks which shall include, but are not limited to, design, construction, installation, release detection, and compatibility standards. Until the effective date of the standards adopted by the commission and after January 1, 1986, a person shall not install an underground storage tank for the purpose of storing regulated substances unless the tank (whether of single or double wall construction) meets all the following conditions:

a The tank will prevent release due to corrosion or structural failure for the operational life of the tank.

b The tank is cathodically protected against corrosion, constructed of noncorrosive material, steel clad with a noncorrosive material, or designed in a manner to prevent the release or threatened release of any stored substance.

c The material used in the construction or lining of the tank is compatible with the substance to be stored. If soil tests conducted in accordance with A S T M, standard G 57-78 or another standard approved by the commission show that soil resistivity in an installation location is twelve thousand ohm/cm or more (unless a more stringent soil resistivity standard is adopted by rule of the commission), a storage tank without corrosion protection may be installed in that location until the effective date of the standards adopted by the commission and after January 1, 1986.

d Rules adopted by the commission shall specify adequate monitoring systems to detect the presence of a leaking underground storage tank and to provide for protection of the groundwater resources from regulated tanks installed after May 1, 1986. The commission shall adopt these rules not later than January 1, 1986, however, the effective date of the rules adopted shall be May 1, 1986. In the event that federal regulations are adopted by the United States environmental protection agency after the commission has adopted state standards pursuant to this subsection, the commission shall immediately proceed to adopt rules consistent with those federal regulations adopted.

5 The duties of owners or operators of underground storage tanks to locate and abate the source of release of regulated substances, when in the judgment of the director, the local hydrology, geology and other relevant factors reasonably include a tank as a potential source.

6 Reporting requirements necessary to enable the department to maintain an accurate inventory of underground storage tanks.

7 Designation of regulated substances subject to this part, consistent with section 455B.471, subsection 4. The rules shall be at least as stringent as the regulations of the federal government pursuant to section 311, subsection b, paragraph 2, subparagraph a of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, 33 U. S. C. §1321(b)(2)(A), pursuant to section 102 of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act, 42 U. S. C. §9602, pursuant to section 307, subsection a of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act, 33 U. S. C. §1317(a), pursuant to section 112 of the Clean Air Act, 42 U. S. C. §7412, or pursuant to section 7 of the Toxic Substances Control Act, 15 U. S. C. §2606.

The rules adopted by the commission under this section shall be consistent with and shall not exceed the requirements of federal regulations relating to the regulation of underground storage tanks except as provided in subsection 1, paragraph "f" and subsection 3, paragraph "d". It is the intent of the general assembly that state rules adopted pursuant to subsection 1, paragraph "f" and subsection 3, paragraph "d" be consistent with and not more restrictive than federal regulations adopted by the United States environmental protection agency when those rules are adopted.

§455B.475 Duties and powers of the director.

1 Inspect and investigate the facilities and records of owners and operators of underground storage tanks as may be necessary to determine compliance with this part and the rules adopted pursuant to this part. An inspection or investigation shall be concluded subject to section 455B.103, subsection 4. For purposes of developing a rule, maintaining an accurate inventory or enforcing this part, the department may:

a Enter at reasonable times any establishment or other place where an underground storage tank is located.

b Inspect and obtain samples from any person of a regulated substance and conduct monitoring or testing of the tanks, associated equipment, contents or surrounding soils, air, surface water and groundwater. Each inspection shall be commenced and completed with reasonable promptness.

1 If the director obtains a sample, prior to leaving the premises, the director shall give the owner, operator, or agent in charge a receipt describing the sample obtained and if requested a portion of each sample equal in volume or weight to the portion re tain. If the sample is analyzed, a copy of the results of the analysis shall be furnished promptly to the owner, operator, or agent in charge.

(2) Documents or information obtained from a person under this subsection shall be available to the public except as provided in this subparagraph. Upon a showing satisfactory to the director by a person that public disclosure of documents or information, or a particular part of the documents or information to which the director has access under this subsection would divulge commercial or financial information entitled to protection as a trade secret, the director shall consider the documents or information or the particular portion of the documents or information confidential. However, the document or information may be disclosed to officers, employees or authorized representatives of the United States charged with implementing the federal Solid Waste Disposal Act, to employees of the state of Iowa or of other states when the document or information is relevant to the discharge of their official duties, and when relevant in any proceeding under the federal Solid Waste Disposal Act or this part.

2. Maintain an accurate inventory of underground storage tanks.

3. Take any action allowed by law which, in the director's judgment, is necessary to enforce or secure compliance with this part or any rule adopted under this part.

85 Acts, ch 162, §5; 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899A

455B.476 Violations — orders.

1. If there is substantial evidence that a person has violated or is violating a provision of this part or a rule adopted under this part the director may issue an order directing the person to desist in the practice which constitutes the violation, and to take corrective action as necessary to ensure that the violation will cease, and may impose appropriate administrative penalties pursuant to section 455B.109. The person to whom the order is issued may appeal the order to the commission as provided in chapter 17A. On appeal, the commission may affirm, modify or vacate the order of the director.

2. However, if it is determined by the director that an emergency exists respecting any matter affecting or likely to affect the public health, the director may issue any order necessary to terminate the emergency without notice and without hearing. The order is binding and effective immediately and until the order is modified or vacated at a hearing before the commission or by a district court.

3. The director, with the approval of the commission, may request the attorney general to institute legal proceedings pursuant to section 455B.477.

85 Acts, ch 162, §6; 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899A

455B.477 Penalties — burden of proof.

1. A person who violates a provision of this part or a rule or order issued under this part is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars for each day during which the violation continues. The civil penalty is an alternative to a criminal penalty provided under this part.

2. A person who knowingly fails to notify or makes a false statement, representation, or certification in a record, report, plan or other document filed or required to be maintained under this part or who falsifies, tampers with or knowingly renders inaccurate a monitoring device or method required to be maintained under this part or by a rule or order issued under this part, is guilty of an aggravated misdemeanor.

3. The attorney general, at the request of the director with approval of the commission, shall institute any legal proceedings, including an action for injunction, necessary to enforce the penalty provisions of this part or to obtain compliance with the provisions of this part or rules adopted or order issued under this part. In any action, previous findings of fact of the director or the commission after notice and hearing are conclusive if supported by substantial evidence in the record when the record is viewed as a whole.

4. In all proceedings with respect to an alleged violation of a provision of this part or a rule adopted or order issued by the commission, the burden of proof is upon the commission or the department.

5. If the attorney general has instituted legal proceedings in accordance with this section, all related issues which could otherwise be raised by the alleged violator in a proceeding for judicial review under section 455B.478 shall be raised in the legal proceedings instituted in accordance with this section.

455B.478 Judicial review.

Except as provided in section 455B.477, subsection 5, judicial review of an order or other action of the commission or the director may be sought in accordance with chapter 17A. Notwithstanding chapter 17A, the Iowa administrative procedure Act, petitions for judicial review may be filed in the district court of the county in which the alleged offense was committed or the final order was entered.

DIVISION V

CHEMICAL TECHNOLOGY

455B.491 Restrictions on use of agricultural chemicals.

1. If the commission determines that an agricultural chemical causes an unreasonable, adverse effect on humans or the environment, the commission shall submit to the secretary of agriculture its findings and recommended actions. The secretary of agriculture shall propose rules implementing the recommended actions and shall hold a public hearing to determine the effects of the proposed rules as provided in chapter 206 after review and consideration of the findings as provided in subsection 2 of this section. A rule of the secretary shall be adopted pursuant to chapter 17A.

2. The commission shall submit to the secretary of agriculture its findings on the unreasonable, adverse effect that the agricultural chemical causes to humans or the environment. The department of agriculture and land stewardship shall prepare an estimate of the economic impact of restricting the use of the agricultural chemical. The economic impact statement, the commission's findings and the report of the advisory committee created under section 206.23 shall be available at the time of publication of the intended rule action by the secretary. The secretary of agriculture and the advisory committee shall review the commission's findings and collect, analyze and interpret any other scientific data relating to the agricultural chemical. The secretary and the committee shall consider any official reports, academic studies, expert opinions or testimony, or other matters deemed to have probative value and shall consider the toxicity, hazard, effectiveness, public need for the agricultural chemical or other means of control other than the chemical in question, and the economic impact on the members of the public and agencies affected by it.

3. As used in this section, "agricultural chemical" means a pesticide as defined in section 206.2 and also means any feed or soil additive, other than a pesticide, which is designed for and used to promote the growth of plants or animals.

CHAPTER 455C
BEVERAGE CONTAINERS DEPOSIT

455C.1 Definitions.
   As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:
   1. "Beverage" means wine as defined in section 123.3, subsection 7, alcoholic liquor as defined in section 123.3, subsection 8, beer as defined in section 123.3, subsection 10, mineral water, soda water and similar carbonated soft drinks in liquid form and intended for human consumption.
   2. "Beverage container" means any sealed glass, plastic, or metal bottle, can, jar or carton containing a beverage.
   3. "Consumer" means any person who purchases a beverage in a beverage container for use or consumption.
   4. "Dealer" means any person who engages in the sale of beverages in beverage containers to a consumer.
   5. "Distributor" means any person who engages in the sale of beverages in beverage containers to a dealer in this state, including any manufacturer who engages in such sales.
   6. "Manufacturer" means any person who bottles, cans, or otherwise fills beverage containers for sale to distributors or dealers.
   7. "Director" means the director of the department.
   8. "Department" means the department of natural resources created under section 455A.2.
   9. "Commission" means the environmental protection commission of the department.
   10. "Nonrefillable beverage container" means a beverage container not intended to be refilled for sale by a manufacturer.
   [C79, 81, §455C.1; 82 Acts, ch 1199, §71, 96]
   85 Acts, ch 32, §111; 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899C, 1899D

455C.2 Refund values.
1. Except purchases of alcoholic liquor as defined in section 123.3, subsection 8, by holders of class "A", "B" and "C" liquor control licenses, a refund value of not less than five cents shall be paid by the consumer on each beverage container sold in this state by a dealer for consumption off the premises. Upon return of the empty beverage container upon which a refund value has been paid to the dealer or person operating a redemption center and acceptance of the empty beverage container by the dealer or person operating a redemption center, the dealer or person operating a redemption center shall return the amount of the refund value to the consumer.
2. In addition to the refund value provided in subsection 1 of this section, a dealer, or person operating a redemption center, who redeems empty beverage containers shall be reimbursed by the distributor required to accept the empty beverage containers an amount which is one cent per container. A dealer or person operating a redemption center may compact empty metal beverage containers with the approval of the distributor required to accept such container.

[C79, 81, §455C.2]

455C.3 Payment of refund value.
Except as provided in section 455C.4:
1. A dealer shall not refuse to accept from a consumer any empty beverage container of the kind, size and brand sold by the dealer, or refuse to pay to the consumer the refund value of a beverage container as provided under section 455C.2.
2. A distributor shall accept and pick up from a dealer served by the distributor or a redemption center for a dealer served by the distributor at least weekly, or when the distributor delivers the beverage product if deliveries are less frequent than weekly, any empty beverage container of the kind, size and brand sold by the distributor, and shall pay to the dealer or person operating a redemption center the refund value of a beverage container and the reimbursement as provided under section 455C.2.
3. A distributor shall not be required to pay to a manufacturer a deposit or refund value on a nonrefillable beverage container.

[C79, 81, §455C.3]
83 Acts, ch 84, §1

455C.4 Refusal to accept containers.
1. Except as provided in section 455C.5, subsection 3, a dealer, a person operating a redemption center, a distributor or a manufacturer may refuse to accept any empty beverage container which does not have stated on it a refund value as provided under section 455C.2.
2. A dealer may refuse to accept and to pay the refund value of any empty beverage container if the place of business of the dealer and the kind and brand of empty beverage containers are included in an order of the department approving a redemption center under section 455C.6.
3. A dealer, other than a state liquor store, a distributor or a manufacturer may refuse to accept and to pay the refund value of an empty wine container which is marked to indicate that it was sold by a state liquor store. A state liquor store may refuse to accept and to pay the refund value of an empty wine container which is not marked to indicate that it was sold by a state liquor store.

[C79, 81, §455C.4]
85 Acts, ch 32, §112

455C.5 Refund value stated on container — exceptions.
1. Each beverage container sold or offered for sale in this state by a dealer shall clearly indicate by embossing or by a stamp, label or other method securely affixed to the container, the refund value of the container. The department shall specify, by rule, the minimum size of the refund value indication on the beverage containers. Each beverage container containing wine which is sold or offered for sale in a state liquor store shall also be marked by embossing or by stamp, label, or other method securely affixed to the container to indicate that it was sold in a state liquor store.
2. A person, except a distributor, shall not import into this state after July 1, 1979 a beverage container which does not have securely affixed to the container the refund value indication. The provisions of this subsection do not apply if:
   a. For beverage containers containing alcoholic liquor as defined in section 123.3, subsection 8, the total capacity of the containers is not more than one quart or, in the case of alcoholic liquor personally obtained outside the United States, one gallon.
   b. For beverage containers containing beer as defined in section 123.3, subsection 10, the total capacity of the containers is not more than two hundred eighty-eight fluid ounces.
   c. For all other beverage containers, the total capacity of the containers is not more than five hundred seventy-six fluid ounces.
3. The provisions of subsections 1 and 2 of this section do not apply to a refillable glass beverage container which has a brand name permanently marked on it and which has a refund value of not less than five cents, to any other refillable beverage container which has a refund value of not less than five cents and which is exempted by the director under rules adopted by the commission, or to a beverage container sold aboard a commercial airliner or passenger train for consumption on the premises.

[C79, 81, §455C.5]
85 Acts, ch 32, §113

455C.6 Redemption centers.
1. To facilitate the return of empty beverage containers and to serve dealers of beverages, any person may establish a redemption center, subject to the approval of the department, at which consumers may return empty beverage containers and receive payment of the refund value of such beverage containers.
2. An application for approval of a redemption center shall be filed with the department. The application shall state the name and address of the person responsible for the establishment and operation of the redemption center, the kind and brand names of the beverage containers which will be accepted at the redemption center, and the names and addresses of the dealers to be served by the redemption center. The application shall contain such other information as the director may reasonably require.
3. The department shall approve a redemption center if it finds that the redemption center will provide a convenient service to consumers for the return of empty beverage containers. The order of the department approving a redemption center shall state the dealers to be served by the redemption center and the kind and brand names of empty beverage containers which the redemption center must accept. The order may contain such other provisions to insure that the redemption center will provide a convenient service to the public as the director may determine.
4. The department may review the approval of any redemption center at any time. After written notice to the person responsible for the establishment and operation of the redemption center, and to the dealers served by the redemption center, the commission may, after hearing, withdraw approval of a redemption center if the commission finds there has not been compliance with the department’s order approving the redemption center, or if the redemption center no longer provides a convenient service to the public.
5. All approved redemption centers shall meet applicable health standards.
[C79, 81, §455C.6]

455C.7 Unapproved redemption centers.
Any person may establish a redemption center which has not been approved by the department, at which a consumer may return empty beverage containers and receive payment of the refund value of the beverage containers. The establishment of an unapproved redemption center shall not relieve any dealer from the responsibility of redeeming any empty beverage containers of the kind and brand sold by the dealer.
[C79, 81, §455C.7]

455C.8 Snap-top cans prohibited.
A person shall not sell or offer for sale at retail in this state any metal beverage container so designed and constructed that a part of the container is detachable in opening the container.
[C79, 81, §455C.8]

455C.9 Rules adopted.
The commission shall adopt, upon recommendation of the director, the rules necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, subject to the provisions of chapter 17A.
[C79, 81, §455C.9]

455C.10 Appeal.
Any person aggrieved by an order of the department relating to the approval or withdrawal of approval for a redemption center may seek judicial review of such order as provided in chapter 17A.
[C79, 81, §455C.10]

455C.11 Annual appropriation.
For the fiscal year commencing July 1, 1979, and each fiscal year thereafter, there is appropriated from the beer and liquor control fund to the Iowa department of public health the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be available, which appropriation shall be made only from the difference between the funds collected from the deposit required on beverage containers containing alcoholic liquor and the funds dispersed in the payment of the refund value on such beverage containers. The Iowa department of public health shall use the appropriated funds only for the care, maintenance and treatment of alcoholics under chapter 125.
[C79, 81, §455C.11]

455C.12 Penalties.
1. Any person violating the provisions of section 455C.2, 455C.3, 455C.5, and 455C.8, or a rule adopted under this chapter shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.
2. A distributor who collects or attempts to collect a refund value on an empty beverage container when the distributor has paid the refund value on the container to a dealer, redemption center, or consumer is guilty of a fraudulent practice.
3. Any person who does any of the following acts is guilty of a fraudulent practice:
   a. Collects or attempts to collect the refund value on the container a second time, with the knowledge that the refund value has once been paid by the distributor to a dealer, redemption center or consumer.
   b. Manufactures, sells, possesses or applies a false or counterfeit label or indication which shows or purports to show a refund value for a beverage container, with intent to use the false or counterfeit label or indication.
   c. Collects or attempts to collect a refund value on a container with the use of a false or counterfeit label or indication showing a refund value, knowing the label or indication to be false or counterfeit.
4. As used in this section, a false or counterfeit label or indication means a label or indication meaning a label or indication purporting to show a valid refund value which has not been initially applied as authorized by a distributor.
5. Subsection 2 and subsection 3, paragraph “a” of this section have no application to empty beverage containers which are intended to be refillable and are in a standard of condition except for sanitization to be refillable by the manufacturer.
[C79, 81, §455C.12]

455C.13 Distributors’ agreements authorized.
A distributor may enter into a contract or agreement with any other distributor, manufacturer or person for the purpose of collecting or paying the refund value on, or disposing of, beverage containers as provided in this chapter.
[C81, §455C.13]

455C.14 Redemption of refused nonrefillable metal beverage containers.
1. If the refund value indication required under section 455C.5 on an empty nonrefillable metal beverage container is readable but the redemption of the container is lawfully refused by a dealer or person operating a redemption center under other sections of this chapter or rules adopted pursuant to these sections, the container shall be accepted and the refund value paid to a consumer as provided in this section.
Each beer distributor selling nonrefillable metal beverage containers in this state shall provide individually or collectively by contract or agreement with a dealer, person operating a redemption center or another person, at least one facility in the county seat of each county where refused empty nonrefillable metal beverage containers having a readable refund value indication as required by this chapter are accepted and redeemed. In cities having a population of twenty-five thousand or more, the number of the facilities provided shall be one for each twenty-five thousand population or a fractional part of that population.
2. A beer distributor violating this section is guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

[C81, §455C.14]
tracounty or intercounty, includes within its territory all of the territory of one or more other drainage or levee districts, and it appears that one assessment and one governing body would be to the benefit of the owners and occupants of the land within the mutual jurisdiction of the overlying and the contained districts, the board of supervisors or board of trustees may effect the dissolution of a contained district and the transfer of jurisdiction and control over that contained district's improvements to the overlying district, in the manner prescribed by sections 456.11 to 456.16.

456.2 Notice of hearing.
Upon the filing of such petition the board shall enter an order fixing the date for hearing thereon not less than forty days from the date of the filing thereof and shall enter an order directing the county auditor, if such district is under the control of the board of supervisors, or the clerk of the board, if under the control of a board of trustees, to immediately cause notice of hearing thereon to be served on the owners of lands in such district as may then be provided by law in proceedings for the establishment of a drainage or levee district.

456.3 Hearing on petition.
At the time set for hearing on said petition the board shall hear and determine the sufficiency of the petition as to form and substance (which petition may be amended at any time before final action thereon), and all objections filed against the abandonment and dissolution of such district. If it shall find that such district is free from indebtedness and that the necessity for the continued maintenance thereof no longer exists or that the expense of the continued maintenance of such district is not commensurate with the benefits derived therefrom, it shall enter an order abandoning and dissolving such district, which order shall be filed with the county auditor of the county or counties in which such district is situated and noted on the drainage record.

456.4 Appeal.
Appeal may be taken from the order of the board to the district court of the county in which such district or a part thereof is situated, in the same time and manner as appeal may be taken from an order of the board of supervisors establishing a district.

456.5 Expense — refund.
In case there are sufficient funds on hand in such district, or there are unpaid assessments outstanding or other property belonging to such district in an amount sufficient to pay such expense, the expense of abandonment and dissolution shall be paid out of such funds or out of funds realized by the sale of such property. Where such district is free of indebtedness but there are not sufficient funds on hand or unpaid assessments outstanding or other assets to pay such expense the board shall assess such expense against the property in the district in the same proportions as the last preceding assessments of benefits. Any excess remaining to the credit of such district after sale of its assets and after payment of such expenses shall be prorated back to the property owners in the district in the proportions according to class and benefits as last assessed. If the petition is denied, the costs of said proceedings shall be paid by the petitioning owners.

456.6 Abandonment of rights of way.
If a dissolution is effected pursuant to section 456.1, subsection 1, and sections 456.2 to 456.5, the rights of way of the district for all purposes of the district shall be deemed abandoned.

456.7 to 456.10 Reserved.

456.11 Initiating dissolution of contained district.
To initiate the dissolution of a contained district under the circumstances described in section 456.1, subsection 2:

1. The board of supervisors or board of trustees of the district proposed to be dissolved shall enter an order for the proposed dissolution of that district and the surrender of its improvements and rights of way to the overlying district.

2. The board of supervisors or board of trustees of the overlying district shall enter an order approving the proposed acceptance of those improvements and rights of way.

456.12 Procedure for notice of hearing.
1. The board of the overlying district shall enter an order fixing a place and a time, not less than forty days after the date of the later of the two orders required by section 456.11, for a hearing on the proposals described in the two orders.

2. The auditor, or auditors if the overlying district includes land lying in two or more counties, shall cause notice of the proposals and of the hearing to be given immediately upon the entry of an order under subsection 1. The notice must:

a. Include the texts of the orders entered pursuant to section 456.11, the date, time and place of the hearing, and a statement that all objections to the proposals embodied in the orders must be made in writing and filed in the office of the auditor at or before the time set for the hearing.

b. Be directed to all of the following:

(1) The owner of each tract of land or lot within the overlying district, as shown by the transfer books of the auditor's office, including railway companies having right of way in the district.

(2) All lienholders or encumbrancers of land within the overlying district, without naming them.

(3) All actual occupants of land in the overlying district, without naming individuals.

(4) All other persons whom it may concern.
3 Except as otherwise required by section 455.22, the notice required by this section shall be served by publication once in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in which the overlying district's land is situated. The publication shall be made not less than twenty days prior to the day set for the hearing. Proof of service shall be made by affidavit of the publisher.

456.16 Procedure at hearing.

The hearing shall be convened at the time and place fixed in accordance with section 456.12, subsection 1, and the procedure at the hearing shall be as prescribed by this section.

1 The board of the contained district shall first hear all objections filed against the dissolution of the district and the surrender of its improvements to the overlying district. If, at the conclusion of that portion of the hearing, that board finds that the contained district is free of debt, that the economic benefits of the continued maintenance of that district would not be commensurate with its cost, and that it would be advantageous to dissolve and discontinue the contained district and surrender its improvements and rights of way to the overlying district, it shall enter an order dissolving the contained district and directing the overlying district to enter an order accepting the improvements and rights of way of the contained district and surrendering those improvements and rights of way to the overlying district.

2 Immediately thereafter, the board of the overlying district shall hear all objections filed against the acceptance of the contained district's improvements and their maintenance. If it finds that the improvements are conducive to the drainage of surface waters from agricultural lands and all other lands in the overlying district or the protection of the lands from overflow, it shall enter an order accepting the improvements and rights of way of the contained district.

4 If at or before the time set for the hearing there have been filed with the county auditor or auditors, if either the contained or overlying district extends into more than one county, or with the board of either district, one or more remonstrances or objections to the dissolution of the contained district, or to the acceptance of that district's improvements and rights of way by the overlying district, signed by owners of land and land improvements in either district aggregating sixty percent of the total assessed value of the land in that district as shown by the tax records in the county or counties in which that district is located, the board to which the remonstrances or objections have been made shall abandon its proposed action.

456.14 Election in lieu of hearings.

In lieu of the hearings provided for in section 456.13, the board of either district may call an election for the purpose of determining the dissolution of the contained district or the acceptance of that district's improvements and rights of way by the overlying district. The questions may be submitted at a regular election of the district or at a special election called for that purpose. It is not mandatory for the county commissioner of elections to conduct the elections, however the provisions of sections 49.43 to 49.47, and of chapter 462, as they are applicable, shall govern the elections, and the question to be submitted shall be set forth in the notice of election.

1 If sixty percent or more of the votes cast are in favor of the proposed dissolution of the contained district involved, the board of that district shall enter an order dissolving the contained district and directing the surrender of its improvements and rights of way, conditioned on acceptance by the overlying district.

2 If sixty percent or more of the votes cast in the overlying district are in favor of the proposed acceptance by that district of the contained district's improvements and rights of way, the board of the overlying district shall enter an order accepting the improvements and rights of way of the contained district.

3 Orders issued pursuant to subsections 1 and 2 shall be filed with the county auditor of the county or counties in which the affected districts are situated and noted on the drainage record.

456.15 Effect of dissolution, surrender and acceptance.

When a contained district dissolves and surrenders its improvements and rights of way to the jurisdiction and control of an overlying district, and the overlying district accepts those improvements and rights of way, in accordance with sections 456.11 to 456.14,

1 It is presumed that the classification of the lands which were included in the dissolved district, as previously determined by the commissioners in the classification of those lands as a part of the overlying district, remains equitable and no reclassification of the overlying district or any part of it is necessary.

2 The improvements surrendered and accepted are at all times under the supervision of the board of the overlying district, and it is the duty of that board to keep the improvements in repair as provided in section 455.135 as fully and completely as though the improvements were a part of the original construction or improvements in the overlying district.

3 It is presumed that:

a The improvements surrendered and accepted are an integral part of the overlying district's improvements, and are a public benefit and conducive to the public health, convenience and welfare.

b No value is taken into consideration for the existing improvements nor is credit given to the parties owning them, and they shall not be considered an asset of the district that is dissolved.

4 The original cost and the subsequent cost of improvements in the district that has been dissolved are added to and become a part of the original cost and the subsequent cost of improvements in the overlying district.

456.16 Costs borne by overlying district.

The overlying district shall pay all costs of the proceedings held pursuant to sections 456.11 to 456.14.
CHAPTER 457
INTERCOUNTY LEVEE OR DRAINAGE DISTRICTS

457.1 Petition and bond.
When the levee or drainage district embraces land in two or more counties, a duplicate of the petition of any owner of land to be affected or benefited by such improvement shall be filed with the county auditor of each county into which said levee or drainage district will extend, accompanied by a duplicate bond to be filed with the auditor of each of the said counties as provided when the district is wholly within one county, in an amount and with sureties approved by the auditor of the county in which the largest acreage of the district is situated, which bond shall run in favor of the several counties in which it is filed.

457.2 Commissioners.
Upon the filing of such petition in each county and the approval of such duplicate bond by the proper auditor, the board of each of such counties shall appoint a commissioner and the joint boards shall appoint a competent engineer who shall also act as a commissioner.

457.3 Examination and report.
The commissioners thus appointed shall examine the application and make an inspection of all the lands embraced in the proposed district and shall determine what improvements in the way of levees, ditches, drains, settling basins, or change of natural watercourse are necessary for the drainage of the lands described in the petition. Such commissioners, including the engineer, shall file a detailed report of their examination and their findings and file a duplicate thereof in the office of the auditor of each of said counties.

457.4 Duty of engineer.
In addition to the report of the commissioners as a whole, the engineer so appointed shall perform the same duties and in the same manner required of the engineer by chapter 455 when the proposed district is located wholly within one county, and the engineer's surveys, plats, profiles, field notes, and reports of the engineer's surveys shall be made and filed in duplicate in each county.

457.5 Notice.
Immediately upon the filing of the report of the commissioners and the engineer, if the same recommends the establishment of such district, notice shall be given by the auditor of each county to the owners of all the lots and tracts of land in the auditor's own county respectively embraced within such district as recommended by the commissioners as shown by the transfer books in the office of the auditor of each of said counties, and also to the persons in actual occupancy of all the lots or tracts of land in such district, and also to each lienholder or encumbrancer of any of such lots or tracts as shown by the records of the respective counties.

457.6 Contents of notice — service.
Such notice shall state the time and place, when and where the boards of the several counties will meet in joint session for the consideration of said petition and the report of the commissioners and engineer thereon, and shall in other respects be the same and served in the same time and manner as required when the district is wholly within one county, except that the auditor of each county shall give notice only to the owners, occupants, encumbrancers, and lienholders of the lots and tracts of land embraced within the proposed district in the auditor's own county as shown by the records of such county.
[S13, §1989-a39; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7604; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §457.6]
Notice and service, §455.20 et seq

457.7 Claims for damages — filing — waiver.
Any person claiming damages or compensation on account of the construction of such improvement shall file the same in writing in the office of the auditor of the county in which the person's land is situated, at or before the time set for hearing. The person may, however, file it at the time and place of hearing. If the person shall fail to file such claim at the time specified the person shall be held to have waived the person's right thereto, but claims for lands taken for right of way for any open ditch or for settling basins need not be filed.
[S13, §1989-a30; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7605; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §457.7]

457.8 Organization and procedure — adjournments.
At the time set for hearing such petition, the boards of the several counties shall meet at the place designated in said notice. They shall organize by electing a chairperson and a secretary, and when deemed advisaable may adjourn to meet at the call of such chairperson at such time and place as the chairperson may designate, or may adjourn to a time and place fixed by said districts. They shall sit jointly in considering the petition, the report and the recommendations of the engineer, in the same manner as if the districts were wholly within one county.
[S13, §1989-a31; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7606; C46, 50,
54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §457.8]

457.9 Tentative adoption of plans.
The said boards by joint action may dismiss the petition and refuse to establish such district, or they may approve and tentatively adopt the plans and recommendations of the engineer for the said district.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7607; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66,
71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §457.9]

457.10 Appraisers.
If the said boards shall adopt a tentative plan for the district, the board of each county shall select an apprasier and the several boards by joint action shall employ an engineer, and the said appraisers and engineer shall constitute the appraisers to appraise the damages and value of all right of way required for open ditches and of all lands required for settling basins.
[S13, §1989-a31; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7608; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §457.10]

457.11 Duty of appraisers — procedure.
The appraisers shall proceed in the same manner and make return of their findings and appraisement the same as when the district is wholly within one county, except that a duplicate thereof shall be filed in the auditor's office of each of the several counties.
After the filing of the report of the appraisers, all further proceedings shall be the same as where the district is wholly within one county, except as otherwise provided.
[S13, §1989-a31; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7609; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §457.11]
Procedure, §455.30 et seq

457.12 Meetings of joint boards.
The board of supervisors of any county in which a petition for the establishment of a levee or drainage district to extend into or through two or more counties is on file, may meet with the board or boards of any other county or counties in which such petition is on file, for the purpose of acting jointly with such other board or boards in reference to said petition or any business relating to such district. Any such joint meetings held in either of the counties in which such petition is on file shall constitute a valid and legal meeting of said joint boards for the transaction of any business pertaining to said petition or to the business of such district.
[S13, §1989-a37; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7610; C46, 50,
54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §457.12]

457.13 Equalizing voting power.
When the boards are of unequal membership, for the purpose of equalizing their voting power each member of the smallest board shall cast a full vote and each member of a larger board shall cast such fractional part of a vote as results from dividing the smallest number by such larger number.
[S13, §1989-a37; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7611; C46, 50,
54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §457.13]

457.14 Commissioners to classify and assess.
If the boards of the several counties acting jointly shall establish the district, they shall appoint a commisson consisting of one from each county, and in addition thereto a competent engineer who shall within twenty days begin to inspect the premises and classify the lands in said district fixing the percentages and assessments of benefits and the apportionment of costs and expenses and shall complete said work within the time fixed by the boards. The qualifications of said commissioners, their classification of lands, fixing percentages and assessments of benefits and apportionment of costs and the report thereof in all details shall be governed in all respects by the provisions of chapter 455 for districts wholly within one county.
[S13, §1989-a32; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7612; C46, 50,
54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §457.14]

457.15 Notice and service thereof — objections.
Upon the filing of the report of the commissioners to classify lands, fix and assess benefits and apportionment costs and expenses, the auditors of the several counties, acting jointly, shall cause notice to be served upon all interested parties of the time when and the place where the boards will meet and consider such report and make a final assessment of benefits and apportionment of costs, which notice shall be the same and served for the time and in the manner and all proceedings thereon shall be the same as provided in chapter 455 in districts wholly within one county, except publication of notice as provided in section 455.21 shall be in each of the counties into which the district extends, and also except that said notice to be published in each of the several counties shall contain only the names of the owners of each tract of land or lot in the district located within the respective county in which said notice is to be published and the total amount of all proposed assessments on the lands located in each of the other counties into which the district extends, and except further that the objections not filed prior to the date of the hearing shall be filed with the boards at the time and place of such hearing.

457.16 Levies — certificates and bonds.

After the amount to be assessed and levied against the several tracts of land shall have been finally determined, the several boards, acting separately, and within their own counties, shall levy and collect the taxes apportioned and levied in their respective counties. They may issue warrants, improvement certificates, or bonds for the payment of the cost of such improvement within their respective counties, with the same right of landowners to pay without interest or in installments all as provided where the district is wholly within one county.

457.17 Bonds or proceeds made available.

When drainage bonds are to be issued under the provisions of section 457.16 they shall be issued at such time that they or the proceeds thereof shall be available for the use of the district at a date not later than ninety days after the actual commencement of the work on the improvement as provided in relation to districts wholly within one county.

457.18 Supervising engineer.

At the time of finally establishing the district, the boards of the several counties, acting jointly, shall employ a competent engineer to have charge and supervision of the construction of the improvement and they shall fix the engineer's compensation and the engineer shall, before entering upon said work, give a bond running to the several counties for the use and benefit of the district in the same amounts and of like tenor and effect as is provided in districts wholly within one county. A duplicate of such bond shall be filed with the auditor of each county.

457.19 Duty of engineer.

The duties of the supervising engineer shall be the same in all respects as is provided by chapter 455 for districts wholly within one county.

457.20 Notice of letting work — applicable procedure.

If the boards, acting jointly, shall establish such district, the auditors of the several counties shall immediately thereafter, acting jointly, cause notice to be given of the time and place of the meeting of the boards for letting contracts for the construction of the improvement. The notices, bids, bonds, and all other proceedings in relation to letting contracts shall be the same as provided where the district is wholly within one county, but duplicates of contractors' bonds shall be filed with the auditor of each county.

457.21 Contracts.

All contracts made for engineering work and the work of constructing improvements of an intercounty district shall be made by written contract executed by the contractor and such person as may be authorized by the boards of the several counties and by joint resolution and shall specify the work to be done, the amount of compensation therefor and the times and manner of payment, all as provided in relation to districts wholly within one county.

457.22 Monthly estimate — payment.

The engineer in charge of the work shall furnish the contractor monthly estimates of the amount of work done on each section and the amount thereof done in each county, a duplicate of which shall be filed with the auditor of each of the several counties. Upon the filing of such statement, each auditor shall draw a warrant for the contractor or give the contractor an order directing the treasurer to deliver to the contractor improvement certificates or drainage bonds, as the case may be, in favor of the contractor for eighty percent of the amount due from the auditor's county. Drainage warrants, bonds or improvement certificates when so issued shall be in such amounts as the auditor determines not however in amounts in excess of one thousand dollars.

457.23 Final settlement.

When the work to be done on any contract is completed to the satisfaction of the supervising engineer, the engineer shall so report and certify to the boards of the several counties, and the auditors of the county shall fix a day to consider said report, and all the provisions shall apply in relation to objections to said report and the approval of the same and the completion of any unfinished or abandoned work as is provided in chapter 455 relating to completion of work and final settlement in districts wholly within one county, except that, when the completed work is accepted by the joint action of the boards of supervisors of the several counties into which the district extends such acceptance shall be certified to the auditor of each county who shall draw a warrant for the contractor or give the contractor an order directing the treasurer to deliver to the contractor improvement certificates or drainage bonds, as the case may be, for the balance due from the portion of the district in such county.

457.24 Failure of board to act.

When the establishment of a district, extending into two or more counties, is petitioned for as hereinbefore provided and one or more of such boards fails to take action thereon, the petitioners may cause notice in writing to be served upon the chairperson of each board demanding that action be taken upon the petition within twenty days from and after the service of such notice.

457.25 Transfer to district court.
If such boards shall fail to take action thereon within the time named, or fail to agree, the petitioners may cause such proceedings to be transferred to the district court of any of the counties into which such proposed district extends by serving notice upon the auditors of the several counties within ten days after the expiration of said twenty days' notice, or after the failure of such boards to agree.

457.26 Transcript, docket and trial.
Within thirty days after completion of notice, the auditor shall, acting jointly, prepare and certify to the clerk of the district court a full and complete transcript of all proceedings had in such case. The clerk of the district court shall thereupon docket the case and same shall be triable in equity at any time after the expiration of twenty days thereafter.

457.27 Decree.
The court shall enter judgment and decree dismissing the case or establishing such district and may by proper orders and writs enforce the same.

457.28 Law applicable.
Except as otherwise stipulated in this chapter the provisions and procedure set forth in chapter 455 shall govern and apply to the formation, establishment, and conduct of every levee or drainage district extending into two or more counties, the petition therefor, the giving or publication or service of notice therein, the appointment and duties of all officers or appraisers or commissioners, the making or filing of waivers, reports, plats, profiles, recommendations, notices, contracts, and papers, the classification and apportionment and assessment of lands and all other property, the taking and hearing of appeals, the issuance and delivery of warrants, bonds and assessment certificates, the payment of taxes and assessments, the making of improvements, ditches, drains, settling basins, changes, enlargements, extensions, and repairs, the inclusion of lands, and the making or performance of every other matter or thing whatsoever relevant to or in any wise connected with such joint drainage or levee district, and the rights, privileges, and duties of all persons, landowners, officers, appellants, and courts.

457.29 Records of intercounty districts.
A record of all proceedings of an intercounty levee or drainage district shall be maintained by the auditor of each county in which a portion of the district lies, as provided by sections 455.185 and 455.186, but the records in the office of the auditor of the county having the largest acreage in the district shall be the official records of said district.

457.30 County with largest acreage to keep funds.
When an intercounty district has been finally established and original construction completed and final settlement made with the contractor, as provided by section 457.23, the treasurer of the county having the largest acreage of the district shall be the depository for all funds of the district and the treasurer of the other counties in which the district is situated shall periodically, at least annually, pay over all district funds received within said period to the treasurer of the county with the largest acreage, except that funds payable on improvement certificates or bonds shall be disbursed to the holders of the certificates or bonds by the treasurer of the county in which the land encumbered is located.

CHAPTER 458
CONVERTING INTRACOUNTY DISTRICTS INTO INTERCOUNTY DISTRICT

458.1 Intracounty districts converted into intercounty district.

458.2 Benefited land only included.

458.1 Intracounty districts converted into intercounty district.

Whenever one or more drainage districts in one county outlet into a ditch, drain, or natural watercourse, which ditch, drain, or natural watercourse is the common carrying outlet for one or more drainage districts in another county, the boards of supervisors of such counties acting jointly may by resolution, and on petition of the trustees of any one of such districts or one or more landowners therein, in either case such petition to be accompanied by a bond as provided in section 457.1, must initiate proceedings for the establishment of an intercounty drainage district by appointing commissioners as provided in section 457.2 and by requiring a bond as provided in section 457.1 and by proceeding as provided by chapter 457, and all powers, duties, limitations, and provisions of this chapter and chapter 457, shall be applicable thereto.

458.2 Benefited land only included.

Neither any land nor any previously organized drainage district shall be included within, or assessed for, the proposed new intercounty district unless such land or unless such previously organized district shall receive special benefits from the improvements in the proposed new intercounty district.

458.3 Appeal by landowner.

Any landowner affected by the establishment of the new intercounty district may appeal to the district court of the county where the owner's land lies from the action of the joint boards in establishing the new district or in including the owner's land within it.

458.4 Procedure on appeal.

The procedure for taking such appeal and for hearing and determining it shall be that provided for similar appeals in chapter 455.

458.5 Appeal by trustees or boards.

Trustees or boards of supervisors having charge of any previously organized district which is proposed to be included (either in whole or in part) within the new intercounty district may, in the same manner and under the same procedure appeal to the district court from the action of the joint boards in establishing the new district or in including therein the previously organized district or any part thereof.

CHAPTER 459
DRAINAGE DISTRICTS EMBRACING PART OR WHOLE OF CITY

459.1 Authority to include city.

The board of any county shall have the same power to establish a drainage district that includes the whole or any part of any city as they have to establish districts wholly outside of such cities, including assessment of damages and benefits within such cities, but no board of supervisors shall have power or authority to establish a drainage or levee district which lies wholly within the corporate limits of any city, nor in any case to establish any district for sewer purposes.

459.2 Inclusion of city — notice.

Notice of the filing of the petition for such district and the time of hearing thereon, shall set forth the boundaries of the territory included within such city and directed to the city clerk and the owners and lienholders of the property within such boundaries without naming individuals, to be served in the same manner as notices where the district is wholly outside of such city.
459.3 Assessments — notice.
When the streets, alleys, public ways, or parks or lots or parcels including railroad rights of way of any city, or city under special charter, so included within a levee or drainage district, will be beneficially affected by the construction of any improvement in such district, it shall be the duty of the commissioners appointed to classify and assess benefits to estimate and return in their report the percentage and assessment of benefits to such streets, alleys, public ways, and parks, or lots or parcels including railroad rights of way and notice thereof shall be served upon the clerk of such city, irrespective of the form of government, and upon owners of lots, parcels, and railroad rights of way so assessed.

459.4 Objections — appeal.
The council or clerk of such city or individual owners may file objections to such percentage and assessment of benefits in the time and manner provided in case of landowners outside such city, and they shall have the same right to appeal from the finding of the board with reference to such assessment.

459.5 Assessments — interest.
Such assessment as finally made shall draw interest at the same rate and from the same time as assessment against lands.

459.6 Bonds, certificates and waivers.
The board of supervisors and the city council shall have the same power in reference to issuing improvement certificates or drainage bonds and executing waivers on account of such assessment for benefits to streets, alleys, public ways, parks, and other lands as is herein conferred upon the board of supervisors in reference to assessment for benefits to highways.

459.7 Funding bonds.
Such cities may issue their funding bonds for the purpose of securing money to pay any assessment against it as provided by law.

459.8 Jurisdiction relinquished.
If the board of supervisors of any county at any time finds that twenty-five percent or more of the total area of any established drainage district is located within the corporate limits of any city, that the district's drains are wholly or partially constructed of sewer tile, and that the district's drain or drains are needed or being used by the city for storm sewer or drainage purposes, the board may by resolution transfer to the city control of the entire drainage district, including the portion outside the corporate limits of the city.

459.9 Request for relinquishment.
When a county board of supervisors elects to transfer control of a drainage district to a city, as provided in section 459.8, the resolution effecting the transfer shall state a time not less than thirty nor more than ninety days after adoption of the resolution when the transfer of control shall take effect. The resolution shall be certified to the governing body of the city and a copy thereof filed by the county auditor, who shall spread the same upon the records of the drainage district.

459.10 Duty to accept.
It shall be the duty of the governing body of any city to accept control of and thereafter to administer a drainage district properly transferred to the city, commencing on the date specified in the resolution of the county board of supervisors certified to the governing body as provided in section 459.9, or at such later date as may be agreed to by the county board upon request of the governing body.

459.11 Jurisdiction of municipality.
After the drainage district has been taken over by the city, it shall have complete control thereof, and may use the same for any purpose that said city through its city council deems proper and necessary for the advancement of the city or its health or welfare, and the city shall be responsible for the maintenance and upkeep of said drainage district only from and after its relinquishment by the board of supervisors to the city.

459.12 City council to control district.
The council of any city acting under the provisions of this chapter shall have control, supervision and management of the district, and shall be vested with all of the powers which are now or may hereafter be conferred upon the board of supervisors for the control, supervision and management of drainage districts under the laws of this state within the said district unless otherwise specifically provided.

459.13 Trustee control.
A district formed pursuant to this chapter, under the control of a city council, may be placed under the control and management of a board of trustees as provided in chapter 462. Each trustee shall be a citizen of the United States not less than eighteen years of age and a bona fide owner of benefited land in the district for which the trustee is elected. If the owner is a family farm corporation as defined by section 172C.1, subsection 8, a business corporation organized and existing under chapter 491, 494, or 496A, or a partnership, a stockholder or officer authorized by the corporation or a general partner may be elected as a trustee of the district.

460.1 Establishment.
Whenever, in the opinion of the board of supervisors, it is necessary to drain any part of any public highway under its jurisdiction, and any land abutting upon or adjacent thereto, it may proceed without petition or bond to establish a highway drainage district by proceeding in all other respects as provided in chapter 455.

460.2 Powers.
Such district, when established, shall have the powers granted to drainage and levee districts, and all parties interested shall have the same rights so far as applicable.

460.3 Initiation without petition.
When the board of supervisors determines on its own action to proceed to the establishment of a highway drainage district, it shall do so by the adoption of a resolution of necessity to be placed upon its records, in which it shall describe in a general way the portion of any highway or highways to be included in such district, together with the description of abutting or adjacent land and railroad rights of way to be included in such district and made subject to assessment for such improvement.

460.4 Engineer.
The board shall appoint a competent engineer for the district. If the county engineer is appointed, the engineer shall serve without additional compensation. In no case shall the county engineer act as a member of the assessment commission in a drainage district provided for in this chapter.

460.5 Survey and report.
The engineer shall make a survey of the proposed district and report the same to the board, being governed in all respects as provided by sections 455.17 and 455.18 and designate particularly any portion of the secondary road system, or the primary road system, or any portion of either or both of said systems, as well as all lands adjoining and adjacent thereto, including lands and rights of way of railway companies which in the engineer's judgment will be benefited by drainage of highways in such district, and which should be embraced within the boundaries of such district.

460.6 Assessment — report.
The commission for assessment of benefits and classification of the property assessed shall determine and report:
1. The separate amount which shall be paid by the county on account of the secondary road system.
2. The separate amount which shall be paid by the state on account of the primary road system.
3. The amounts which shall be assessed against the right of way or other real estate of each railway company within such district.
4. The amounts which shall be assessed against each forty-acre tract or less within such district.

460.7 Advanced payments.
The board on construction of the improvement may advance that portion to be collected by special assessment, the amount so advanced to be replaced as the first special assessments are collected. The board may, in lieu of making advancements, issue warrants to be known as "Drainage Warrants", the warrants to bear interest at a rate not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A payable annually from the date of issue and to be paid out of the special assessments levied, when they are collected.

460.8 Payment from road funds.
460.9 Dismissal — costs.
460.10 Condemnation of right of way.
460.11 Laws applicable.
460.12 Removal of trees from highway.
460.13 Trees outside of highways.
460.8 Payment from road funds.
The amount fixed by the final order of the board of supervisors to be paid
1 On account of the primary road system, shall be payable by the state department of transportation on due certification of the amount by the county treasurer to the state department of transportation out of the primary road fund
2 On account of the secondary road system, is payable from county funds

SS15, §1989 b5, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7645; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §460 8
83 Acts, ch 123, §197, 209

460.9 Dismissal — costs.
If such proceedings are dismissed or said improvement abandoned, all costs of such proceedings shall be paid out of the fund of the road system for the benefit of which said proceeding was initiated

460.10 Condemnation of right of way.
When in the judgment of the board of supervisors, it is inadvisable to establish a drainage district but necessary to acquire right of way through private lands for the construction of ditches or drains as outlets for the drainage of highways, the board of supervisors may cause such right of way to be condemned by proceedings in the manner required for the exercise of the right of eminent domain as for works of internal improvement, except that no attorney fee shall be taxed, and the costs and expense of such condemnation from either or both of said secondary road funds

Condemnation procedure ch 472
Similar provision §455 149

460.11 Laws applicable.
All proceedings for the construction and maintenance of highway drainage districts except as provided for in this chapter shall be as provided for in chapters 455, 457, 458, and 459

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7648; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §460 11]
83 Acts, ch 101, §98

460.12 Removal of trees from highway.
When the roots of trees located within a highway obstruct the ditches or tile drains of such highway, the board of supervisors shall remove such trees from highways, except shade or ornamental trees adjacent to a dwelling house or other farm buildings or feedlots, or any tree or trees for windbreaks upon cultivated lands consisting of sandy or other light soils

460.13 Trees outside of highways.
When the roots of trees and hedges growing outside a highway obstruct the ditches or tile drains of any highway, the board of supervisors may acquire the right to destroy such trees in the manner provided for taking private property for public use Ornamental trees adjacent to any dwelling, orchard trees and trees used as windbreaks for a dwelling house, outbuildings, barn or feedlots, shall be exempt from the provisions of this section

461 26 Construction near levee prohibited
461 27 Penalty
461 28 Action to restrain or abate
461 29 Liability for damage
461.1 Authorization.
The board of supervisors of any county or counties in which a drainage or levee district has been organized as by law provided, may establish and maintain a pumping station or stations, when and where the same may be necessary to secure a proper outlet for the drainage of the land comprising the district or any portion thereof, and the cost of construction and maintenance of said pumping station or stations shall be levied upon and collected from the lands in the district benefited by such pumping station or stations, in the same manner as provided for in the construction and maintenance of said districts.

461.2 Petition — procedure — emergency pumping station.
Such pumping station shall not be established or maintained unless a petition therefor shall be presented to the board signed by not less than one-third of the owners of lands benefited thereby. The lands benefited by such pumping station shall be determined by the board on said petition and report of the engineer, and such other evidence as it may hear. No additional land shall be taken into any such drainage district after the improvements therein have been substantially completed, unless one-third of the owners of the land proposed to be annexed have petitioned therefor or consented in writing thereto.

However, the board of supervisors may install a temporary portable pumping station to remove flood waters in an emergency. The board of supervisors shall levy and collect the cost of the purchase, operation and maintenance of the pumping station from the lands in the district benefited by the pumping station in the same manner as provided for in the construction and maintenance of a drainage or levee district. For the purpose of this paragraph an emergency occurs when ponded or standing water does not freely flow to the outlet ditch and the capacity of the outlet ditch is not fully used.

461.3 Additional pumping station.
After the establishment of a drainage district, including a pumping plant, and before the completion of the improvement therein, the board or boards may, if deemed necessary to fully accomplish the purposes of said improvement, by resolution authorize the establishment and maintenance of such additional pumping station or stations as the engineer may recommend. And if a petition is filed by one-third of the owners of land within such district asking the establishment of such pumping plant or plants, the board or boards must direct the engineer to investigate the advisability of the establishment thereof and upon the report of said engineer the board or boards shall determine whether such additional pumping plant or plants shall be established.

461.4 Transfer of pumps.
If the board or boards determine that additional pumping plant or plants shall be established and maintained, a pump or pumps may be removed from any pumping station already established and may be installed in any such additional plant, if such removal can be made without injuring the efficient operation of the plant from which removed.

461.5 Costs.
1. The cost of the establishment of such additional pumping plant or plants shall be paid in the same manner and upon the same basis as is provided for the cost of the original improvement.
2. The board of supervisors or the board of trustees, as the case may be, where the district has been established and the original improvement constructed, may proceed with the further improvement of the original project in the manner provided in section 455-135, provided, however, that the cost of such further improvement does not exceed twenty-five percent of the sum of the original cost to the district and the cost of subsequent improvements, including all federal contributions.

For the purpose of this section the word "improvement" shall include the construction, reconstruction, enlargement and relocation of levees and acquisition of rights of way therefor.

461.6 Dividing districts.
When a drainage district has been created and more than one pumping plant is established therein, the board or boards of supervisors may, and upon petition of one-third of the owners of land within said district shall, appoint an engineer to investigate the advisability of dividing said district into two or more districts so as to include at least one pumping plant in each of such districts.

461.7 Notice — publication.
If the engineer recommends such division the board of supervisors shall fix a time for hearing upon the question of such division and shall publish notice directed to all whom it may concern of the time and place of such hearing, for the time and in the manner as is required for the publication of notice of the establishment of said district, except that said notice need not name the owners and lienholders.

461.8 Hearing — jurisdiction of divided districts.
At the time fixed, the board shall determine the advisability of such division and shall make such order with reference thereto as shall be deemed proper, having consideration for the interests of all concerned. If such division is made, the board or boards having jurisdiction of the original district shall retain jurisdiction of the new districts created by such division for the purpose of collecting assessments therefor.
made and making such additional assessments as are necessary to pay the obligations theretofore contracted. For all other purposes, each division shall be under the jurisdiction of the board or boards of supervisors which would have had jurisdiction thereof if originally established as an independent district.

71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §461.8]

461.9 Division in other cases.
After a levee or drainage district operating a pumping plant shall have been established and the improvement constructed and accepted, if it shall become apparent that the lands can be more effectually drained, managed, or controlled by a division thereof, then the said board or boards, or trustees, may, and if the district is divided by a stream, they shall, divide the district.

71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §461.9]

461.10 Assessments not affected — maintenance tax.
Each district after the division shall be conducted as though established originally as a district. Nothing herein shall affect the legality or collection of any assessments levied before the division; but the maintenance tax, if any, shall be divided in proportion to the amount paid in by each district.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7660; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66,
71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §461.10]

461.11 Election and apportionment of trustees.
If said district, before the division was made, was under the control and management of trustees, then each trustee shall continue to serve in the district in which the trustee is situated, and other trustees shall be elected in each new district. The election for said new trustees shall be called by the old board of trustees in each district within ten days after said division is made and shall be conducted as provided for the election of trustees.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7661; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66,
71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §461.11]

461.12 Settling basin — condemnation.
If, before a district operating a pumping plant is completed and accepted, it appears that portions of the lands within said district are wet or nonproductive by reason of the floods or overflow waters from one or more streams running into, through, or along said district and that said district or some other district of which such district shall have formed a part, shall have provided a settling basin to care for the said floods and overflow waters of said stream or watercourse, but no channel to said settling basin has been provided, said board or boards are hereby empowered to lease, buy, or condemn the necessary lands within or without the district for such channel. Proceedings to condemn shall be as provided for the exercise of the right of eminent domain.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7662; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66,
71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §461.12]

461.13 Funding bonds.
When the owners of ten percent of the land in a drainage or levee district having and operating a pumping station shall petition the board of supervisors to extend the time of payment of the taxes as-essed against the lands within said district for a period not exceeding twenty years, under such rules and regulations as said board may direct, the interest on such assessments to be paid annually the same as other taxes levied against the property, not less than one-twentieth of the principal of said extended tax to be paid each year until the entire tax is paid, and the lien of such tax to continue until fully paid, the board of supervisors may settle, adjust, renew, or extend the legal indebtedness of such district as shown by the assessments levied against the lands therein whether evidenced by certificates, warrants, bonds, or judgments by refunding all such indebtedness and issuing coupon bonds therefor when such indebtedness amounts to one thousand dollars or upwards, but for no other purpose.

Refunding bonds, ch 463
Similar provision, §461.1

461.14 Form of bonds.
Such bonds shall be issued in sums of not less than one hundred dollars or more than one thousand dollars each, running not more than twenty years, bearing interest not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A, payable annually or semiannually, and shall be substantially in the form provided by law for funding bonds issued for drainage purposes.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7664; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66,

Form of bond, §455 82

461.15 Formal execution.
Such bonds shall be numbered consecutively, signed by the chairperson of the board of supervisors, attested by the county auditor. The interest coupons attached thereto shall be executed in the same manner.

461.16 Resolution — requisites — record.
All bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be issued pursuant to and in conformity with a resolution adopted by the board of supervisors, which shall specify the amount authorized to be issued, the purpose for which issued, the rate of interest they shall bear and whether payable annually or semiannually, the place where the principal and interest shall be payable and when it becomes due, and such other provisions not inconsistent with law in reference thereto as the board of supervisors shall think proper, which resolution shall constitute a contract between the drainage district and the purchasers or holders of said bonds.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7666; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66,
71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §461.16]

When bonds have been executed as aforesaid they shall be delivered to the county treasurer and the treasurer’s receipt taken therefor. The county treasurer shall register the same in a book provided for that purpose, which shall show the number of each bond, its date, date of sale, amount, date of maturity, and the name and address of the purchaser, and if exchanged what evidences of debt were received therefor, which record shall at all times be open to the inspection of the owners of property within the district. The treasurer shall thereupon certify on the back of each bond as follows:

Treasurer of the county of

§461.18 Liability of treasurer — reports.

The treasurer shall stand charged on the treasurer’s official bond with all bonds so delivered to the treasurer and the proceeds thereof. The treasurer shall report under oath to the board of supervisors, at each first regular session thereof in each month, a statement of all such bonds sold or exchanged by the treasurer since the treasurer’s last report and the date of such sale or exchange and when exchanged a description of the indebtedness for which exchanged.

§461.19 Sale — application of proceeds.

The county treasurer shall, under a resolution and the direction of the said county board of supervisors, sell the bonds for cash on the best available terms or exchange them on like terms for a legal indebtedness for which exchanged.

§461.20 Levy.

Drainage districts issuing funding or refunding bonds under this chapter shall levy taxes for the payment of the principal and interest thereof, where there has not been a prior levy covering same, in accordance with the provisions of the law relating to taxation.

§461.21 Scope of Act.

Refunding bonds for the purposes set out in this chapter may be issued to pay off and take up bonds issued in payment for drainage improvements under prior laws or to refund any part thereof. Bonds thus issued shall substantially conform to the provisions of the law relating to drainage bonds and the face amount thereof shall be limited to the amount of the unpaid assessments, with interest thereon, applicable to the payment of the bonds so taken up.

§461.22 Funds available to pay bonds.

When refunding bonds shall be issued to pay for drainage improvements under the provisions of this chapter, all special assessments, taxes, and sinking funds applicable to the payment of such bonds previously issued shall be applicable in the same manner and to the same extent to the payment of the refunding bonds issued hereunder, and all the powers and duties to levy and collect special assessments and taxes or create liens upon property shall continue until all refunding bonds shall be paid.

The drainage district shall collect the special assessments out of which the said bonds are payable and hold the same separate and in trust for the payment of said refunding bonds but the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to assessments or bonds adjudicated to be void.

§461.23 Limitation of actions.

No action shall be brought questioning the validity of any of the bonds authorized by this chapter from and after three months from the time the same are ordered issued by the proper authorities.

Similar provisions, §463 25, 464 12

§461.24 Bankruptcy proceedings.

All drainage districts with pumping plant and levee, which have power to incur indebtedness, through action of their own governing bodies are hereby authorized to proceed under and take advantage of all laws enacted by the Congress of the United States under the federal bankruptcy powers, which laws have for their object the relief of municipal indebtedness, including 48 Stat. L. ch.345, entitled “An Act to amend the bankruptcy laws of the United States, so as to provide for the relief of municipalities in bankruptcy throughout the United States”, approved July 1, 1898, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto”, approved May 24, 1934, and the officials and governing bodies of such drainage, pumping plant and levee districts, are authorized to adopt all proceedings and to do any and all acts necessary or convenient to fully avail such drainage, pumping plant, and levee districts, of the provisions of such Acts of Congress.

§461.25 Chapter applicable to districts with pumping stations.

The provisions of this chapter so far as applicable shall apply to all levee districts maintaining levees for the protection of any drainage district or districts having pumping stations

461.26 Construction near levee prohibited.
No person, firm or corporation shall hereafter erect, alter, or maintain any building or other structure, except necessary public utility structures, or construct, alter, or maintain any ditch, or remove any earth within three hundred feet of the center line of any levee maintained by a drainage or levee district with pumping stations without first securing permission to so do from the governing board of said drainage or levee district with pumping stations. Such permission may be granted at any regular meeting thereof, and after written application is made therefor upon the form prescribed by said governing board 461.27 Penalty.

Every person who shall violate any provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, and in default of payment thereof, by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than thirty days

461.28 Action to restrain or abate.
In the event that any building or other structure, or any ditch is constructed, altered or maintained, or any earth removed in violation of any provisions of this chapter, the governing board of said drainage or levee district with pumping stations maintaining said levee, may institute an appropriate action or proceeding to prevent such unlawful construction, alteration, or maintenance, or earth removal and to restrain, correct, or abate such violation, and may by petition duly verified, setting forth the facts, apply to the district court for an order enjoining all persons, firms or corporations from such construction, alteration, maintenance, or earth removal, until the entry of the final judgment or order

461.29 Liability for damage.
In addition to all other penalties contained herein, any person, firm or corporation who shall construct, alter or maintain any building, other structure, or any ditch, or remove earth, in violation of this chapter, shall be liable to the drainage or levee district with pumping stations maintaining said levee, for all damage sustained by the drainage or levee district resulting from the violation, and in the event of flood, or other emergency so declared by resolution of the governing body, any building or other structure, or ditch so constructed without permission of the governing board, as required herein, and within three hundred feet of the center line of any levee, may be removed, or the ditch filled in, without prior notice thereof to the owner

462.1 Trustees authorized.

In the manner provided in this chapter, any drainage or levee district in which the original construction has been completed and paid for by bond issue or otherwise, may be placed under the control and management of a board of three trustees to be elected by the persons owning land in the district that has been assessed for benefits.

A district under the control of a city council as provided in chapter 459 may be placed under the control and management of a board of trustees by the city council following the procedures provided in this chapter for the county board of supervisors.

462.2 Petition.

A petition shall be filed in the office of the auditor signed by a majority of the persons including corporations owning land within the district assessed for benefits.

462.3 Election.

The board, at the next regular, adjourned, or special session shall canvass the petition and if signed by the requisite number of landowners, it shall order an election to be held at some convenient place in the district not less than forty nor more than sixty days from the date of such order, for the election of three trustees of such district. It shall appoint from the freeholders of the district who reside in the county or counties, three judges and two clerks of election. It shall not be mandatory for the county commissioner of elections to conduct elections held pursuant to this chapter, but they shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 49 where not in conflict with this chapter.

462.4 Intercounty district.

If the district extends into two or more counties, a duplicate of the petition shall be filed in the office of the auditor of each county. The boards of supervisors shall, within thirty days after the filing of such petition, meet in joint session and canvass the same, and if found to be signed by a majority of the owners of land in the district assessed for benefits, they shall by joint action order such election and appoint judges and clerks of election as provided in section 462.3.

462.5 Election districts.

When a petition has been filed for the election of trustees to manage a district containing three thousand acres or more, the board, or, if the district extends into more than one county, the boards of such counties by joint action, shall, before the election, divide the district into three election districts for the purpose of securing a proper distribution of trustees in such district, and such division shall be so made that each election district will have substantially equal voting power and acreage, as nearly as may be. After such division is made there shall be elected one trustee for each of said election districts, but at such election all the qualified voters for the entire district shall be entitled to vote for each trustee. The division here provided for shall be for the purposes only of a proper distribution of trustees in the district and shall not otherwise affect said district or its management and control.

462.6 Record and plat of election districts.

At the time of making a division into election districts, as provided in section 462.5, the board or boards shall designate by congressional divisions, subdivisions, metes and bounds, or other intelligible description, the lands embraced in each election district, and the auditor, or auditors if more than one county shall make a plat thereof in the drainage record of the district indicating thereon the boundary lines of each election district, numbering them, one, two, and three, respectively.

462.7 Eligibility of trustees.

Each trustee shall be a citizen of the United States not less than eighteen years of age, and one of the following:

1. The bona fide owner of agricultural land in the election district for which the trustee is elected, and a resident of the county in which that district is located or of a county which is contiguous to or corners on that county.

2. The bona fide owner of nonagricultural land in the election district for which the trustee is elected, and a resident of that district. This subsection applies only when the election district is wholly within the corporate limits of a city.

3. A stockholder of a family farm corporation as defined in section 172C.1, subsection 8, which owns land in the election district who is a resident of the county in which that district is located or of a county which is contiguous to or corners on that county.

4. In a district which is a levee and drainage district which has eighty-five percent of its acreage within the corporate limits of a city and has been under the control of a city under chapter 459, a bona fide owner of benefited land in the district. If the owner is a family farm corporation as defined by section 172C.1, subsection 8, a business corporation organized and existing under chapter 491, 494, or 496A, or a partnership, a stockholder or officer authorized by the corporation or a general partner may be elected as a trustee of the district.

462.8 Notice of election.

The board, or, if in more than one county, the boards acting jointly, shall cause notice of said election to be given, setting forth the time and place of holding the same and the hours when the polls will open and close. Such notice shall be published for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper in which the official procedings of the board are published in the county, or if the district extends into more than one county, then in such newspaper of each county. The last of such publications shall not be less than ten days before the date of said election.

[S13, §1989-a56b; SS15, §1989-a63a; C24, 27, 31, 35,
39, §7681; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81,

462.9 Assessment to determine right to vote.

Before any election is held, the election board shall obtain from the county auditor or auditors a certified copy of so much of the record of the establishment of such district as will show the lands embraced therein, the assessment and classification of each tract, and the name of the person against whom the same was as­ essed for benefits, and the present record owner, and such certified record shall be kept by the trustees after they are elected, for use in subsequent elections. They shall, preceding each subsequent election, procure from the county auditor or auditors additional certificates showing changes of title of land assessed for ben­ fits and the names of the new owners.

[S15, §1989-a76; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7682; C46,
50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §462.9]

462.10 New owner entitled to vote.

Anyone who has acquired ownership of assessed lands since the latest certificate from the auditor shall be entitled to vote at any election if the person pres­ ts to the election board for its inspection at the time the person demands the right to vote evidence showing that the person has title.

[S15, §1989-a77; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7683; C46,
50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §462.10]

462.11 Qualifications of voters.

Each landowner eighteen years of age or over without regard to sex and any railway or other corpora­tion owning land in said district assessed for benefits shall be entitled to vote at any election, except as provided in section 462.12.

[S15, §1989-a78; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7684; C46,
50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §462.11]

462.12 Votes determined by assessment.

1. When a petition asking for the right to vote in proportion to assessment of benefits at all elections for any purpose thereafter to be held within said district, signed by a majority of the landowners owning land within said district assessed for benefits, is filed with the board of trustees, then, in all elections of trustees thereafter held within said district, any person whose land is assessed for benefits without regard to age, sex, or condition shall be entitled to one vote for each ten dollars or fraction thereof of the original assessment under the current classification against the land actually owned by the person in said district at the time of the election, but in order to have such ballot counted for more than one vote the voter shall write the voter's name upon the ballot. The vote of any landowner of the district may be cast by absent voters ballot as provided in chapter 53 except that the form of the applications for ballots, the voters' affidavits on the envelopes, and the endorsement of the carrier envelope for preserving the ballot shall be substantially in the form provided in subsections 2, 3 and 4, below.
Application blanks, envelopes and ballots shall be provided by and submitted to the office of the county auditor in which the election is held. The cost of such blanks, envelopes, ballots and postage shall be paid by the district. For the purpose of this chapter all landowners of the district shall be considered qualified voters, regardless of their place of residence.

2. For the purpose of this chapter, applications for ballots shall be made on blanks substantially in the following form:

4. For the purposes of this chapter, upon receipt of the ballot, the auditor shall at once enclose the same, unopened, together with the application made by the voter in a large carrier envelope, securely seal the same, and endorse thereon over the auditor's official signature, the following:
   a. Name of the district in which the voter is a landowner.
   b. Date of the election for which the ballot is cast.
   c. Location of the polling place at which the ballot would be legally and properly cast if voted in person.
   d. Names of the judges of the election of that polling place, and the statement that this envelope contains an absent voters ballot and must be opened only at the polls on election day while said polls are open.

462.13 Vote by agent.

Except where the provisions of section 462.12, providing for vote in proportion to assessment are invoked, any person or corporation owning land or right of way within the district and assessed for benefits may have the person's or the corporation's vote cast by the person's or the corporation's agent or proxy authorized to cast such vote by a power of attorney signed and acknowledged by such person or corporation, and filed before such vote is cast in the auditor's office of the county in which such election is held. Every such power of attorney shall specify the particular election for which it is to be used, indicating the day, month, and year of such election, and shall be void for all elections subsequently held. The vote of the owner of any land in a drainage or levee district in any election, where the vote is not determined by assessment, may be cast by absent voters ballot in the same manner and form and subject to the same rights and restrictions as is provided in section 462.12 relating to vote by absentee ballot when votes are determined by assessment.

462.14 Vote of minor or mentally ill.

The vote of any person who is a minor, mentally ill, or under other legal incompetency shall be cast by the parent, guardian, or other legal representative of such minor, mentally ill, or other incompetent person. The person casting such vote shall deliver to the judges and clerks of election a written sworn statement giving the name, age, and place of residence of such minor, mentally ill, or other incompetent person, and any false statement knowingly made to secure permission to cast such vote shall render the party so making it guilty of the crime of perjury.

Perjury, punishment, §720 2

462.15 Ballots — petition for printed ballots.

Candidates for drainage district trustee shall have their names placed on printed ballots provided a petition therefor is signed by ten qualified electors of the district and filed with the clerk of the board at least twenty-five days but not more than sixty-five days before the election. Space shall also be provided on the ballot for write-in votes.

462.16 Candidates voted for.

Each qualified voter for the whole district shall be entitled to vote for one candidate for which a trustee is to be elected.

462.17 Election — canvass of votes — returns.

On the day designated for said election the polls shall open at one o'clock p.m. and remain open until five o'clock p.m. If no convenient polling place is to be found within the district, the election may be held at some convenient place outside the district. The judges of election shall canvass the vote and certify the result, and deposit with the auditor the ballots cast, together with the pollbooks showing the names of the voters; but if there is more than one county in the district, the returns shall be filed with the auditor of the county having the greatest acreage of said district.

462.18 Canvass — certificates of election.

The canvass of the returns by the board or boards of supervisors shall be on the next Monday following the election. If the district is in more than one county, the board of supervisors of the county with the greatest acreage in the district shall canvass the vote. The board of supervisors of the other counties in which the district is located may attend and participate in the canvass of the returns. It or they shall make a return of the results of the canvass to the auditor, who shall issue certificates to the trustees elected, and when the district extends into more than one county, then the auditor with whom the election returns were filed shall issue the certificates and certify an abstract of the canvass to each other county in which the district is located.

462.19 Tenure of office.

The trustees so elected shall hold office until the fourth Saturday in January next succeeding their election and until their successors are elected and qualify. On the third Saturday in the January next succeeding their original election, an election shall be held at which three trustees shall be chosen, one for one year, one for two years, and one for three years, and each shall qualify and enter upon the duties of the office on the fourth Saturday of the same January. On the third Saturday in each succeeding January, an election shall be held to choose a successor to the trustee whose term is about to expire, and the term of the trustee's office shall be for three years and until a successor has qualified.

462.20 Levee and pumping station districts.

In levee and drainage districts having pumping stations trustees shall hold office until the fourth Saturday in January three years after election. On the third Saturday in January of each year a trustee shall be elected for a term of three years to succeed the member of the board whose term will expire on the following Saturday. At the election there shall also be elected, if necessary, a trustee to fill any vacancy which occurred before the election.

83 Acts, ch 101, §100

462.22 Elections — how conducted.

After the first election of trustees, the trustees shall act as judges of election; however, a trustee standing for election shall not serve as a judge and shall be replaced as judge by a person not standing for election who is eligible to be elected as a trustee. The clerk of the board shall act as one of the clerks and some owner of land in the district shall be appointed by the board to act as another clerk. The trustees shall fill all vacancies in the election board. The result of each election shall be certified to the auditor or the several county auditors if the district is located in more than one county.

[SS15, §1989-a69; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7695; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §462.22]
85 Acts, ch 163, §12

462.23 Change of time.

The date on which said annual election shall be held may be changed by the choice of a majority of electors of such district expressed by ballot at any such annual election, and the return of such vote shall be certified in the same manner as the returns for election of trustees.

[S13, §1989-a52e; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7696; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §462.23]

462.24 Vacancies.

If any vacancy occurs in the membership of the board of trustees between the annual elections, the remaining members of the board shall have power to fill such vacancies by appointment of persons having the same qualifications as themselves. The persons so appointed shall qualify in the same manner and hold office until the next annual election when their successors shall be elected. In the event that all places on the board become vacant, then a new board shall be appointed by the auditor, or if more than one county, then by the auditor of the county in which the greater acreage of the district is located. The persons so appointed shall hold office until the next annual election and until their successors are elected and qualify.

462.25 Bonds.

The trustees shall qualify by giving a bond in the sum of not less than one thousand dollars or more than five thousand dollars each, conditioned for the faithful discharge of their duties, said bond to be fixed and approved by the auditor of the county, and if more than one, then of the county in which the greater acreage of the district is located.

462.26 Organization.

As soon as the trustees have qualified, they shall organize by electing one of their own number as chairperson and may select some other competent person as clerk of the board who shall serve during the pleasure of the board of trustees.

462.27 Powers and duties of trustees.

Trustees shall have control, supervision, and management of the district for which they are elected and shall be clothed with all of the powers now conferred on the board or boards of supervisors for the control, management, and supervision of drainage and levee districts under the laws of the state, including the power to acquire lands by conveyance, lease, or by the exercise of the power of eminent domain as provided for in chapter 472 for right of way for levees, ditches and settling basins within or without the district and to annex lands to the district, except as provided in section 462.28. Such authority shall extend only to the district for which they are elected.

462.28 Costs and expenses.

All costs and expenses necessary to discharge the duties by this chapter conferred upon trustees shall be levied and collected as provided by law and such levy shall be upon certificate by the trustees to the board or boards of supervisors of the amount necessary for such levy.

462.29 Disbursement of funds.

Drainage and levee taxes when so levied and collected shall be kept by the treasurer of the county in a separate fund to the credit of the district for which it is collected, shall be expended only upon the orders of trustees, signed by the president of the board, upon which warrants shall be drawn by the auditor upon the treasurer.

462.30 Certificates and bonds.

The board of trustees of any district shall have the same power to issue improvement certificates and levee and drainage bonds under the same conditions and with like tenor and effect as is provided by chapter 455 for such issuance by the board of supervisors, except that in case of the issue of levee or drainage bonds, the same shall be approved by a judge of the district court in and for the county or counties in which such district lies, which approval shall be printed upon such bonds before the same are negotiated.

462.30 Change to supervisor management.

Any district which has been placed under the management of trustees may be placed back under the management of the board or boards of supervisors in the manner provided in section 462.37.

462.37 Petition — canvass.

For such purposes a petition signed by a majority of persons, including corporations, owning land within the district assessed for benefits and who in the aggregate own more than one-half the acreage of such lands, may be filed in the office of the auditor and if more than one county, then a duplicate shall be filed in the office of the auditor of each county.

The trustees shall fix a date not less than ten nor more than thirty days from the date such petition is filed for the canvass of such petition, and the trustees and auditor or auditors shall canvass said petition and certify and record in the drainage record the result.

463.1 Refunding bonds.
The board of supervisors of any county may extend the time of the payment of any of its outstanding drainage bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of drainage assessments levied upon property within a drainage district, and may extend the time of payment of any unpaid assessment, or any installment or installments thereof, and may renew or extend the time of payment of such legal bonded indebtedness, or any part thereof, for account of such drainage district, and may refund the same and issue drainage refunding bonds therefor subject to the limitation and in the manner hereinafter provided.

463.2 Petition for refunding.
Before the time of payment of said assessments or any installment or installments thereof shall be extended and before the board shall institute proceedings for the issuance of drainage refunding bonds, the owners of not less than fifteen percent of the land within a drainage district as shown by the transfer books in the auditor's office, upon which drainage assessments are unpaid, shall file a petition with the board requesting the extension of the time of payment of assessments levied in said drainage district or of any installment or installments thereof, setting forth the date said assessments to be extended were levied, the aggregate amount thereof unpaid, and requesting the issuance of drainage refunding bonds, stating the amount and purpose of said bonds.

463.3 Sufficiency of petition — hearing.
Upon the receipt of any such petition the board shall, at the next regular meeting or regular adjourned meeting, determine the sufficiency thereof and fix a date of meeting of the board at which it is proposed to extend the time of payment of said unpaid assessments and to take action for the issuance of drainage refunding bonds.

463.4 Notice.
The board shall give ten days' notice of said meeting as required in relation to the issuance of bonds under chapter 23.

463.5 Requirements of notice.
Said notice shall be directed to each person whose name appears upon the transfer books in the auditor's office as owner of lands within said drainage district upon which said drainage assessments are unpaid, naming the owner, and also to the person or persons in actual occupancy of any of said tracts of land without naming them, and shall state the amount of unpaid assessments upon each forty-acre tract of land or less, and that all of said unpaid assessments, installment or installments thereof as proposed to be extended, may be paid in cash on or before the time fixed for said hearing, and that after the expiration of such time no assessments may be paid except in the manner and at the times fixed by the board in the resolution authorizing the issuance of said drainage refunding bonds.
463.6 Extending payment of assessments.
In case no appeal is taken to the issuance of said bonds as provided by chapter 23, the board may extend the time of payment of said unpaid assessment or any installment or installments thereof as requested in the petition and may issue drainage refunding bonds, or, in case of an appeal, the board may issue such bonds in accordance with the decision of the state comptroller provided said assessments, installment or installments thereof have not been entered on the delinquent tax lists and have not been previously extended.

463.7 Appeal.
Any person aggrieved by the final action of the board extending the time of payment of said unpaid assessment, installment or installments thereof may appeal therefrom to the district court of the county in which such action was taken.

463.8 Time and manner of appeal.
All appeals shall be taken in the manner provided in section 455.94 except that said appeal shall be taken within ten days after the date of the final action of the board.

463.9 Maximum extension.
The unpaid assessments against said lands within said drainage district shall not be extended for a period exceeding forty years from the time any assessment, installment or installments thereof to be extended become due. The board shall fix the amount that shall be levied and collected each year and may issue drainage refunding bonds covering all said unpaid assessments.

463.10 Form of bonds.
Drainage refunding bonds shall be issued in denominations of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, each, running not more than forty years, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A, payable semiannually, and shall be substantially in the form provided by law relating to drainage bonds, with such changes as shall be necessary to conform with this chapter.

463.11 Numbering, signing and attestation.
Said bonds shall be numbered consecutively, signed by the chairperson of the board and attested by the county auditor with the seal of the county affixed. The interest coupons attached thereto shall be executed by the county auditor.

463.12 Resolution required.
All bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be issued pursuant to and in conformity with a resolution adopted by the board of supervisors which shall specify the amount of unpaid assessments to be extended, the times when the installment or installments of extended assessments shall become due, the amount of drainage refunding bonds authorized to be issued, the purpose for which issued, the rate of interest they shall bear, the place where the principal and interest shall be payable and the time or times when they shall become due, and such other provisions not inconsistent with law in reference thereto, as the board shall deem proper.

463.13 Record of resolution.
Said resolution shall be entered of record upon the minutes of proceedings of said board and shall constitute a contract between the drainage district and the purchasers or holders of said bonds and shall be full authority for the revision of the tax rolls to accord therewith.

463.14 Record of bonds.
When the bonds have been executed as aforesaid they shall be delivered to the county treasurer and the treasurer's receipt taken therefor. The treasurer shall register said bonds in a book provided for that purpose which shall show the number of each bond, its date, date of sale, amount, date of maturity, and the name and address of the purchaser, and if exchanged what evidences of indebtedness were received therefor, which record shall at all times be open to the inspection of the owners of property within said drainage district. The treasurer shall thereupon certify on the back of each bond as follows:

"This bond duly and properly registered in my office this ............ day of ............... , 19 .........

Treasurer of the County of .......

463.15 Liability of treasurer — reports.
The treasurer shall stand charged on the treasurer's official bond with all bonds so delivered to the treasurer and the proceeds thereof. The treasurer shall report all bonds issued pursuant to the resolution and payments made thereon in each month, a statement of all such bonds sold or exchanged by the treasurer since the treasurer's last report and the date of such sale or exchange and when exchanged a description of the indebtedness for which exchanged.

463.16 Sale, exchange and cancellation.
The county treasurer shall, under a resolution and the direction of the said county board of supervisors, sell the bonds for cash on the best available terms or exchange them on like terms for the legal indebtedness of the said drainage district evidenced by the outstanding drainage bonds, authorized to be refunded by the resolution authorizing the issue of said refunding bonds, and the proceeds shall be applied and exclusively used for the purpose for which said bonds are issued. In no case shall they be sold or exchanged for a less sum than their face value and all interest accrued. After registration the treasurer shall deliver said refunding bonds to the purchaser thereof and when exchanged for said bonded indebtedness of said district, shall at once cancel a like amount of said drainage bonds.

463.17 Redemption from tax sale.
In case any land within such drainage district shall have been sold at tax sale for failure of the owner thereof to pay any drainage assessments levied thereon, and before any tax deed has been issued, then on application of the owner of such land, the board of supervisors may effect a redemption thereof for such owner out of the proceeds of any refunding bond issue and add the cost of such redemption to the amount of the unpaid assessments against such land, payment thereof to be extended in manner and as a part of the remaining unpaid assessments thereon.

463.18 Effect of extension.
The extension of the time of payment of any unpaid assessments or installment or installments thereof, in the manner aforesaid shall in no wise impair the lien of said assessments as originally levied or the priority thereof, nor the right, duty, and power of the officers authorized by law to levy, collect, and apply the proceeds thereof to the payment of said drainage refunding bonds.

463.19 Additional assessments.
If said assessments should for any reason be insufficient to meet the interest and principal of said drainage refunding bonds additional assessments shall be made to provide for such deficiency.

463.20 Applicability of funds.
All special assessments, taxes, and sinking funds applicable to the payment of the indebtedness refunded by said drainage bonds shall be applicable in the same manner and to the same extent to the payment of such refunding bonds issued hereunder, and the powers, rights, and duties to levy and collect special assessments or taxes, or create liens upon property shall continue until all refunding bonds shall be paid.

463.21 Trust fund.
The special assessments out of which said bonds are payable shall be collected and held separate and apart in trust for the payment of said refunding bonds.

463.22 Liens unimpaired.
When drainage refunding bonds are issued hereunder, nothing in this chapter shall be construed as impairing the lien of any unpaid drainage assessments or installments in such drainage district, the time of payment of which is not extended, nor shall this chapter be construed as impairing the priority of the lien thereof nor the right, duty, and power of the officers authorized by law to levy, collect, and apply the proceeds thereof to the payment of outstanding drainage bonds issued in anticipation of the collection thereof.

463.23 Limitation of action.
No action shall be brought questioning the validity of any of the bonds authorized by this chapter from and after three months from the time the same are ordered issued by the proper authorities.

Similar provisions, §461.23, 464.12

463.24 Void bonds or assessments.
The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to bonds or assessments adjudicated to be void.

463.25 Interpretative clause.
This chapter shall be construed as granting additional power without limiting the power already existing for the extension of the time of payment of drainage assessments and the issuance of drainage bonds.

463.26 Composition with creditors — federal loans.
For the purpose of refinancing, adjusting, composing and refunding in such adjusted amount the indebtedness of any drainage districts or levee districts, found to be in financial distress, the governing body thereof, or board of supervisors as the case may be, upon its own motion, is authorized to enter into agreements with the creditors of said district, for the reduction and composition of its outstanding indebtedness, and to make application for and negotiate with the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, or any other loaning agency, for the borrowing of funds for such purposes.

463.27 Refinancing powers.
In order to effect such loan, the governing body of such district, or board of supervisors, is authorized to execute such agreements and contracts, and to fulfill such requirements of the loaning agency as are not inconsistent with this chapter; and to issue, and pledge or sell such bonds at their face value to the said Reconstruction Finance Corporation, or other loaning agency, furnishing the funds for such debt readjustment, in the amount required for such adjustment.

The governing body, or board of supervisors, shall also have the authority as a part of such plan of refinancing, adjusting, composing, and refunding its indebtedness, to cancel the old assessments collectible against the land within the district, pledged to the payment of its outstanding indebtedness and proportionately and equitably relevy the same, with interest, over the period covered by the new bonds, in an amount sufficient to pay said new bonds and interest thereon, provided, however, that the new assessments thereby created against any tract of land within the district shall not be in excess of the unpaid assessments against such tract before the readjustment or composition is made, and provided further, that such new and extended assessment against such tract shall fully replace the old assessment.

463.28 Report and hearing — appeal.

At the direction of the governing board of such district, or board of supervisors, the county auditor of the county within which the land on which the indebtedness is being adjusted is situated, shall compile a tabulated report as to the lands within the said district, setting forth:

1. The name of the owner of each assessed tract as shown by the transfer books in the county auditor's office.
2. The amount of the unpaid old assessments against each of said tracts.
3. The amount of the new assessment required to pay the new bonds to be issued, together with the installments to be paid thereon annually of principal and interest, and the maximum period of time over which such assessments shall be paid.

After such report is tabulated and filed, a hearing upon the contemplated action of the governing body of such district, or board of supervisors, to make the proposed adjustment, composition, renewal and refunding in such adjusted amount of its outstanding indebtedness, together with the issuance of bonds and the levying of assessments therefor, shall be had in the manner and upon the same notice as is prescribed in sections 463.4 to 463.6 and appeal may be made therefrom as provided in this chapter.

DEFAULTED DRAINAGE BONDS

464.1 Extension of payment — application.

When drainage district bonds have been issued in anticipation of the collection of drainage district assessments levied on real estate within such drainage district are in default, either for failure to pay principal installments or accrued interest thereon, and funds are not on hand within thirty days after such default, ten owners of real estate in such district or the owners of not less than ten percent in amount of the outstanding drainage bonds of such district may make application to the district court of the county wherein said drainage district is located, by filing a petition which shall set forth the names and addresses of the ten petitioning real estate owners or the names and addresses of ten percent in amount of the drainage bonds of said district, that said bonds are in default as defined in section 464.1, that the petitioners have good reason to believe that said default cannot, or will not, be removed by payment under the present schedule of said district, and asking that the matters herein presented be reviewed by the court, and determined as provided by this chapter.

464.2 Petition.

Ten owners of real estate in such district, or the owners of not less than ten percent in amount of the outstanding drainage bonds of such drainage district, may institute proceedings in the district court of the county issuing such bonds wherein the drainage district is located, by filing a petition which shall set forth the names and addresses of the ten petitioning real estate owners or the names and addresses of the petitioning owners of ten percent in amount of the drainage bonds of said district, that said bonds are in default as defined in section 464.1, that the petitioners have good reason to believe that said default cannot, or will not, be removed by payment under the present schedule of said district, and asking that the matters herein presented be reviewed by the court, and determined as provided by this chapter.

464.3 Hearing.

On the filing of such petition the court shall enter an order fixing the date for hearing, which date shall be at least four weeks subsequent to the date of the filing of the order.

464.4 Parties — notice — service.

The board of supervisors of such county or counties wherein the drainage district is located, shall be notified of the proceeding and hearing by original notice served in the same manner as in civil actions; notice of said hearing shall be served upon all owners of each tract of land or lot within such drainage district, as shown by the transfer books in the county auditor's office, upon each lienholder or encumbrancer of any land within the said drainage district as shown by the county records, and upon all persons holding claims against said drainage district, as shown by the county records, and also upon all other persons whom it may concern, including bondholders and actual occupants of the land within said drainage district, without naming individuals, by publication thereof, once each week for two consecutive weeks, in some newspaper of general circulation in the county or counties where said drainage district is located, the last of which publications shall be not less than twenty days prior to the date set for hearing on the said petition and a copy of such notice shall also be sent by ordinary mail to the person's last known address unless there is on file an affidavit of one of the petitioners or the petitioner's attorney stating that no mailing address is known and that diligent inquiry has been made to ascertain it. Such copy of notice shall be mailed not less than twenty days prior to the date set for hearing. Proof of publication and mailing shall be by affidavit and shall be included in the records of the proceedings.

464.5 Jurisdiction of court.

The district court shall have jurisdiction and power to adjudicate all the rights and issues between the drainage district, and the landowners, bondholders, lienholders, encumbrancers, claimants and creditors of the drainage district, and in determining the rights of the parties, shall take into consideration, the maturity of the bonds, the interest rate of the bonds, the present schedule and classification of assessments on the real estate, the ratio between the amount in default, and the amount of unpaid assessments in the drainage district, the gross amount needed to retire the bonds now outstanding and in default, the current retirement schedule on other indebtedness of the drainage district, the general tax structure of the drainage district, the unpaid taxes in the drainage district, the default by the drainage district in the payment of its bonded indebtedness, and the current financial condition of the taxpayers.

464.6 Conservator appointed.

If the court finds that the necessary parties have instituted the proceedings, and that all necessary parties have been properly served with notice, and the order of the court, and that the drainage district is in default in the payment of its installment assessments, or the interest thereon, the court shall enter an order appointing the county auditor of the county in which such drainage district is located, or if such drainage district is located in more than one county, the county auditor of the county wherein the greater portion of the lands within said drainage district are located, receiver for the said drainage district, said receiver being hereafter called "conservator", and the said conservator shall be under the court's direction. The conservator shall be allowed such compensation as may be determined by the court, and said conservator may employ, under the direction and approval of the court, an attorney, and such assistants as may be necessary to perform the duties required by the conservator under the law, and orders of court.

464.7 Report — hearing thereon.

The conservator shall, within thirty days from the date of the conservator's appointment, prepare and file with the clerk of the district court, a full report, giving in detail, the bonded indebtedness of said drainage district, the accrued interest thereon, and any and all other indebtedness owing by said drainage district; a full and complete schedule of all lands sold at tax sale, including the amount of drainage assessments thereon; a list of all real estate within the drainage district, showing the unpaid assessments thereon; also said conservator shall set forth a schedule, under which the bonded indebtedness of said drainage district may be reamortized; also a schedule under which all other indebtedness of said drainage district may be paid or reamortized. Upon the filing of the report by the conservator, the court shall set a date for hearing thereon, which date shall not be less than ten or more than fifteen days, from the filing thereof.

464.8 Adjudication on report.

At the hearing of the conservator's report, the court shall fix and determine the amount of money in the hands of the county treasurer belonging to said drainage district; the amount of the indebtedness of said drainage district; to whom said indebtedness is due, and fix and determine the time, manner and priority of payment of said indebtedness; also the court shall fix and determine the amount of unpaid assessment or assessments against each tract of land within said drainage district, and may extend the time of payment, reamortize and reallocate the said assessments upon each tract of land within said drainage district; also, if the court finds that the assessments as levied against each tract of land within said drainage district, are not sufficient to pay the indebtedness due and owing by said drainage district, the court may order the board of supervisors of the county within which the said drainage district is located, to levy an assessment against the lands within said drainage district, in an amount to pay the deficit; provided, however, that no assessment for the payment of drainage bonds or improvement certificates shall be levied against any tract of land where the owner of said land is not delinquent in payment of any assessment and provided, further, that the amount of the reassessment on a particular piece of land shall be in direct proportion to the amount of unpaid assessments on said land and provided, further, that no assessment or expenses incidental thereto, for the payment of drainage bonds or improvement certificates under this chapter, shall be levied against any tract of land where the owner of said land had previously paid all of the owner’s assessment. Said assessment to be assessed and levied by the board of supervisors upon the lands within said drainage district, in the same proportion as the original assessment. A copy of said order entered by the court, shall be filed by the clerk of the district court with the county auditor, and the schedule of payments of the indebtedness of said drainage district as fixed and determined by the court, shall be entered upon the drainage records of the drainage district and also spread upon the tax records of the county, and shall become due and payable at the same time as ordinary taxes, and shall be collected in the same manner with the same penalties for delinquency, and the same manner of enforcing collection by tax sale. Also the court may apportion the costs between the creditors of the drainage district, and the drainage district. [C35, §7714-f9; C39, §7714.36; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §464.8]

The court shall direct the board of supervisors to issue bonds in lieu of the outstanding drainage bonds for said drainage district, and additional bonds for the accrued interest and other indebtedness of said drainage district. Said bonds shall be payable in amounts, and at the time and manner, and with priority of payments as has been determined by order of court, as provided by section 464.8, and shall be called “conservator’s drainage district bonds”. Each bond shall be numbered and shall state on its face that it is a conservator’s drainage district bond; that it is issued in pursuance of a resolution adopted by the board of supervisors, under order of court, and giving the name of the court and the county where such court is held; that it is issued to pay indebtedness of the drainage district; shall state the county where such district is located, and the number of the drainage district for which it is issued; shall state the date of maturity of the bond, the rate of interest thereon, which rate shall not exceed that permitted by chapter 74A, and that the bond is to be paid only from taxes assessed, levied and collected on the lands within the drainage district for which the bond is issued subject to the provisions of section 464.8. All bonds shall be signed by the chairperson of the board of supervisors and countersigned by the conservator designated as such. The interest coupons attached to said bonds shall be attested by the signature of the conservator or a facsimile thereof. When the bonds have been executed as herein required, the conservator may sell said bonds at not less than par with accrued interest thereon, and pay the indebtedness of said drainage district, or may exchange said bonds with the creditors of said drainage district in amounts as have been fixed and determined by the court, and the conservator shall cancel all drainage bonds, improvement certificates, warrants or other evidence of indebtedness received by the conservator in lieu of the conservator’s bonds. [C35, §7714-f10; C39, §7714.37; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §464.9]

464.10 Lien.

When conservator’s drainage district bonds are issued hereunder, nothing herein shall be construed as impairing the lien of all unpaid assessments upon the real estate within said drainage district, nor shall this chapter be construed as impairing the priority of the lien thereof, nor the right, duty and power of the officer authorized by law, to levy, collect and apply the proceeds thereof, to the payment of outstanding drainage bonds issued in anticipation of the collection thereof. [C35, §7714-f11; C39, §7714.38; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §464.10]

464.11 Trustees as parties.

Should a drainage district in default be managed by drainage district trustees, said trustees shall also be named as proper and necessary parties defendant. [C35, §7714-f12; C39, §7714.39; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §464.11]

464.12 Limitation of action.

No action shall be brought, questioning the validity of any conservator’s drainage district bond issued under this chapter from and after three months from the date of the order causing the said bonds to be issued. [C35, §7714-f13; C39, §7714.40; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §464.12]

CHAPTER 465
INDIVIDUAL DRAINAGE RIGHTS

465.1 Drainage through land of others — application.

When the owner of any land desires to construct any levee, open ditch, tile or other underground drain, for agricultural or mining purposes, or for the purposes of securing more complete drainage or a better outlet, across the lands of others or across the right of way of a railroad or highway, or when two or more landowners desire to construct a drain to serve their lands, the landowner or landowners may file with the auditor of the county in which any such land or right of way is situated, an application in writing, setting forth a description of the land or other property through which the landowner is desirous of constructing any such levee, ditch, or drain, the starting point, route, terminus, character, size, and depth thereof. The auditor shall collect a fee of one dollar for filing each application for a ditch or drain.

465.2 Notice of hearing — service.

Upon the filing of any such application, the auditor shall forthwith fix a time and place for hearing thereon before the county board of supervisors, which hearing shall be not more than ninety days nor less than thirty days from the time of the filing of such application, and cause notice in writing to be served upon the owner of each tract of land across which any such levee, ditch, or drain is proposed to be located, as shown by the transfer books in the office of the county auditor, and also upon the person in actual occupancy of any such lands, of the pendency and prayer of such application and the time and place set for hearing on the same before the board of supervisors, which notice, as to residents of the county and railroad companies, shall be served not less than ten days before the time set for such hearing, in the manner that original notices are required to be served. Notice to a railroad company may be served upon any station agent.

Manner of service, RCP 48-66

465.3 Service upon nonresident.

In case any such owner is a nonresident of the county the owner may be personally served in the manner required for original notices or, in lieu thereof, the owner may be given notice as provided in section 455.21.

465.4 Service on omitted parties — adjournment.

If at the hearing it should appear that any person entitled to notice has not been served with notice, the board may postpone such hearing and fix a new time for the same, and notice of such new time of hearing may be served on such omitted persons in the manner and for the time provided by law and by fixing such new time for hearing and by adjournment to such time, the board shall not lose jurisdiction of the subject matter of such proceeding nor of any persons previously served with notice.

§465.5 Claims for damages — waiver.

Any person or corporation claiming damages or compensation for or on account of the construction of any such improvement, shall file a claim in writing therefor with the auditor at or before the time fixed for hearing on the application. A failure to file such claim at the time specified shall be deemed to be a waiver of the right to claim or recover such damage.

§465.6 Hearing — sufficiency of application — damages.

At the time set for hearing on the application, if the board shall find that all necessary parties have been served with notice as required, they shall proceed to hear and determine the sufficiency of the application as to form and substance, which application may be amended both as to form and substance before final action thereon. They shall also determine the merits of the application, all objections thereto, and all claims filed for damages or compensation, and may view the premises. The board may adjourn the proceedings from day to day, but no adjournment shall be for a longer period than ten days.

§465.7 Shall locate when — specifications.

If the supervisors find that the levee, ditch, or drain petitioned for will be beneficial for sanitary, agricultural, or mining purposes, they shall locate the same and fix the points of entrance and exit on such land or property, the course of the same through each tract of land, the size, character, and depth thereof, when and in what manner the same shall be constructed, how kept in repair, what connections may be made therewith, what compensation, if any, shall be made to the owners of such land or property for damages by reason of the construction of any such improvements, and any other question arising in connection therewith.

The board shall reduce its findings, decision, and determination to writing, which shall be filed with the auditor, who shall record it in the official record of the board's proceedings, together with the application and all other papers filed in connection therewith, and the auditor shall cause the findings and decision of the board to be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which such land is situated and said decision shall be final unless appealed from as provided in section 465.9.

§465.9 Appeal — notice.

Either party may appeal to the district court from any such decision by causing to be served, within ten days from the time it was filed with the auditor, a notice in writing upon the opposite party of the taking of such appeal, which notice shall be served in the same manner as is provided for the service of original notices. If the appellant is the party petitioning for the drain, the appellant shall also file a bond, conditioned to pay all costs of appeal that may be assessed against the appellant, which bond, if good and sufficient, shall be approved by the auditor.

In case of appeal, the auditor shall certify to the district court a transcript of the proceedings before the board, which shall be filed in said court with the appeal bond, the party appealing paying for said transcript and the docketing of said appeal, as in other cases.

§465.11 Appeal — how tried — costs.

The cause shall be tried in the district court by ordinary proceedings, upon such pleading as the court may direct, each party having the right to offer such testimony as shall be admissible under the rules of law. If the appellant does not recover a more favorable judgment in the district court than the appellant received in the decision of the board, the appellant shall pay all the costs of appeal.

§465.12 Parties — judgment — orders.

The party claiming damages shall be the plaintiff and the applicant shall be the defendant; and the court shall render such judgment as shall be warranted by the verdict, the facts, and the law upon all the matters involved, and make such orders as will cause the same to be carried into effect.

§465.13 Costs and damages — payment.

The applicant shall pay the costs of the board and auditor and for the serving of notices for hearing, the fees of witnesses summoned by the board on said hearing, and the recording of the finding of the board by the county recorder.

Before entering on the construction of the drain, the party applying therefor shall pay to the party through whose land said drain is to be constructed the damages awarded to that party, or shall pay the same to the board for that party's use. The applicant may proceed to construct said drain in accordance with the decision of the board, and the taking of an appeal shall not delay such work.

465.15 Construction through railroad property.
If any such ditch or drain shall be located through or across the right of way or other land of a railroad company, the board shall determine the cost of constructing the same and the railroad company shall have the privilege of constructing such improvement through its property in accordance with the specifications made by the board and recover the costs thereof as fixed by the board. Such railroad company before it may exercise such privilege shall file its election to that effect with the auditor within five days after the decision of the board is filed.

465.16 Deposit.
In case such election is filed the applicant shall within ten days thereafter pay to the auditor, for the use of the railroad company, the cost of constructing the drainage improvement through its property, in addition to the amount that may be allowed as damages, and when the railroad company shall have completed the improvement through its property in accordance with such specifications it shall be entitled to demand and receive from the auditor such cost.

465.17 Failure to construct.
If the railroad company shall fail to so construct the improvement for a period of thirty days after filing its election so to do, the applicant may proceed to do so and may have returned to the applicant the cost thereof deposited with the auditor.

465.18 Repairs.
In case any dispute shall thereafter arise as to the repair of any such drain, the same shall be determined by the county board of supervisors upon application in substantially the same manner as in the original construction thereof.

465.19 Obstruction.
Any person who shall dam up, obstruct, or in any way injure any ditch or drain so constructed, shall be liable to pay to the person owning or possessing the swamp, marsh, or other lowlands, for the draining of which such ditch or ditches have been opened, double the damages that shall be sustained by the owner, and, in case of a second or subsequent offense by the same person, treble such damages.

465.20 Drains on abutting boundary lines.
When any watercourse or natural drainage line crosses the boundary line between two adjoining landowners and both parties desire to drain their land along such watercourse or natural drainage line, but are unable to agree as to the junction of the lines of drainage at such boundary line, the board of supervisors of the county in which said land is located shall have full power and authority upon the application of either party to hear and determine all questions arising between such parties after giving due notice to each of the time and place of such hearing, and may render such decision thereon as to said board shall seem just and equitable.

465.21 Boundary between two counties.
If any controversy referred to in section 465.20 relates to a boundary line between adjoining owners which is also the boundary line between two counties, then such controversy shall be determined by the joint action of the boards of supervisors in said two adjoining counties, and all the proceedings shall be the same as provided in section 465.20 except that it shall be by the joint action of the boards of the two counties.

465.22 Drainage in course of natural drainage — reconstruction — damages.
 Owners of land may drain the same in the general course of natural drainage by constructing or reconstructing open or covered drains, discharging the same in any natural watercourse or depression whereby the water will be carried into some other natural watercourse, and when such drainage is wholly upon the owner's land the owner shall not be liable in damages therefor, nor shall any such owner in constructing a replacement drain, wholly on the owner's own land, and in the exercise of due care be liable in damages to another in case a previously constructed drain on the owner's own land is rendered inoperative or less efficient by such new drain, unless in violation of the terms of a written contract. Nothing in this section shall in any manner be construed to affect the rights or liabilities of proprietors in respect to running streams.

465.23 Drainage connection with highway.
When the course of natural drainage of any land runs to a public highway, the owner of such land shall have the right to enter upon such highway for the purpose of connecting the owner's drain or ditch with any drain or ditch constructed along or across the said highway, but in making such connections, the owner shall do so in accordance with specifications furnished by the highway authorities having jurisdiction thereof, which specifications shall be furnished to the owner on application. The owner shall leave the highway in as good condition in every way as it was before the said work was done.
If a tile line or drainage ditch must be projected across the right of way to a suitable outlet, the expense of both material and labor used in installing the tile line or drainage ditch across the highway and any subsequent repair thereof shall be paid from funds available for the highways affected.
465.24 Private drainage system — record.

Any person who has provided a system of drainage on land owned by the person may have the same made a matter of record in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the drainage system is located, provided any drainage system constructed after July 1, 1969, shall be made a matter of record, as is herein-after provided.

465.25 Drainage plat book.

The county recorder shall be provided with a loose-leaf plat book, made to scale, for each section of the land within the county in which such records shall be made. Such plat book shall consist of sheets of paper interbound by sheets of tracing cloth with proper heading, margin, and binding edge. Said plat book shall be used for keeping a record of drainage systems filed by any landowner. Plats so offered for record shall be drawn to scale on paper measuring eight and one-half by eleven inches, giving distances in feet and indicating the size of tile used, length and location of tile lines as installed with reference to government corners and subdivisions.

465.26 Record book and index.

The county recorder shall also be provided with a record book and index referring to the plats provided for in section 465.25, and which may be used to give the owner's name, description of tracts of land drained, stating the time when drainage system was established, the kind, quality, and brand of tile used, the name and place of manufacturing plant, the name of contractors who laid the tile, the name of the engineer in charge of the survey and installation, the cost of tile, delivery, installation, and engineering expense, depths, grades, outlets, connections, contracts for agreements with adjoining landowners as to connections, and any other matters or information that may be considered of value, all of said information to be received because of the construction of such mutual drains and improvements thereof, and may order such surveys, engineering reports, reclassification of lands and subdivisions.

465.27 Original plat filed.

In lieu of making the record as herein provided any landowner may file with the county recorder the original plat used in the establishment of said drainage system, or a copy thereof, which shall be certified by the engineer having made the same.

465.28 Record not part of title.

The drainage records herein provided for shall not be construed as an essential part of the title to said lands, but may upon request be set out by abstractors as part of the record title of said lands.

465.29 Fees for record and copies.

The county recorder shall be entitled to collect fees for the filing and information heretofore provided for, and for the making of copies of such records the same as is provided for other work of a similar nature.

465.30 Lost records — hearing.

When the records of any mutual drain are incomplete or have been lost, or when the owner of any land affected by such mutual drain believes that the apportionment of costs or damages is inequitable or that repair or reconstruction is needed, such owner may petition the board of supervisors for relief. The board shall notify all affected parties of such petition, and set a date for a hearing on the petition. The board may adjourn the proceedings from day to day, but no adjournment shall be for more than ten days, and may order such engineering examinations, reclassifications of lands and appraisals of damages as they deem necessary. At the completion of the hearing the supervisors shall re-establish the original records or establish a revised record and basis for apportionment of costs and damages as they find equitable and advisable, and may order such repairs or reconstruction as they find to be needed. All cost of such re-establishment or revisions of records, and of the needed repair or reconstruction shall be apportioned in accordance with the basis established.

465.31 Mutual drains — establishment as district.

Whenever a landowner fails to pay the cost apportioned as provided in section 465.30, or whenever a repair or reconstruction ordered as provided in said section is not made within reasonable time, and in such other instances as the board of supervisors desires, the board by resolution shall establish such mutual drain as a drainage district; all proceedings thereafter shall be as provided for other legally established districts.

465.32 Appeal.

The decisions and actions of the board of supervisors under section 465.31 may be appealed as provided in sections 465.9, 465.10 and 465.11.

465.33 Record filed with established district.

When the lands served by a mutual drain are within the boundary of an established drainage district, a complete record of the proceeding relating to such mutual drain shall be filed with and as a part of the, records of such established district.

465.34 Lost or incomplete records.

If the records referred to in section 465.33 are incomplete or have been lost, the board may re-establish such records so as to proportion future costs and damages in proportion to the benefits and damages received because of the construction of such mutual drains and improvements thereof, and may order such surveys, engineering reports, reclassification of lands and appraisal of damages as they deem necessary. All costs of such proceedings shall be assessed against the benefited lands.

465.35 Petition to combine with established district.

Upon receipt of a petition, signed by the owners of the lands served by a mutual drain, requesting that such drain be combined with an established drainage district, the board shall hold a hearing with due notice to the owners of all lands affected by said mutual drain, and if the board finds it desirable it may by resolution make such mutual drains a part of the established district. Such hearing and resolution may be continued as the board deems necessary for the collection of additional information as provided in section 465 34. Such combination with an established district shall constitute dissolution of the mutual drain, and shall be so recorded, after which such mutual drain shall be a part of the district drain in all respects.

CHAPTER 466

DRAINAGE DISTRICTS IN CONNECTION WITH UNITED STATES LEVEES

466 1 United States levees — co-operation of board

466 2 Manner of co-operation

466 3 Report of engineer — payment authorized

466 4 Costs assessed

466 5 Annual installments

466 6 Collection of tax

466 7 Cost of maintaining

466 8 Laws applicable

466.1 United States levees — co-operation of board.

In any case where the United States has built or shall build a levee along or near the bank of a navigable stream forming a part of the boundary of this state, the board of supervisors of any county through which the same may pass shall have the power to aid in procuring the right of way for and maintaining said levee, and providing a system of internal drainage made necessary or advisable by the construction thereof. Such improvement shall be presumed to be conducive to the public health, convenience, welfare, or utility.

466.2 Manner of co-operation.

Any United States government levee under the conditions mentioned in section 466 1 may be taken into consideration by the board as a part of the plan of any levee or drainage district and improvements therein, and such board may, by agreement with the proper authorities of the United States government, provide for payment of such just and equitable portion of the costs of procuring the right of way and maintenance of such levee as shall be conducive to the public welfare, health, convenience, or utility.

466.3 Report of engineer — payment authorized.

In the proceedings to establish such a district, the engineer shall set forth in the engineer’s report, separately from other items, the amount of the cost for the right of way of such levee, of constructing and maintaining the same, and if the plan is approved and the district finally established in connection with such levee, the board shall make a record of any such cooperative arrangement and may use such part of the funds of the district as may be necessary to pay the amount so agreed upon toward the right of way and maintenance of such levee.

466.4 Costs assessed.

If said district is established, the entire costs and expenses incurred under this chapter shall be assessed against and collected from the lands lying within such district, by the levy of a rate upon the assessable value of the land and improvements within such district, any sufficient to raise the required sum, provided the board may, in their discretion, classify the land within such district and graduate the tax thereon, as provided in chapter 455.

466.5 Annual installments.

If the proposed improvement is the maintenance of a levee, the amount collected in any one year shall not exceed three dollars and thirty-seven and one-half cents per thousand dollars of the assessment valuation, which said assessment shall be levied at a level rate on the assessable value of the said lands, improvements, easements, and railroads within the district.

If

the amount necessary to pay for the improvement exceeds said sum, it shall be levied and collected in annual installments of twenty or less. For all other improvements, the board shall levy a rate sufficient to pay for the same, and may, at their discretion, make the same payable in annual installments of twenty or less.

466.6 Collection of tax.

The assessment required under sections 466.4 and 466.5 shall be made by the board of supervisors at the time of levying general taxes, after the work has been authorized, and the same shall be entered on the records of the board of supervisors, then entered on the tax books by the county auditor as drainage taxes, and shall be collected by the county treasurer at the same time, in the same manner, and with the same penalties, as general taxes; and if the same is not paid the county treasurer shall sell all such lands upon which such assessment remains unpaid, at the same time, and in the same manner, as is now by law provided for the sale of lands for delinquent taxes, including all steps up to the execution and delivery of the tax deed for the same. The landowners shall take notice of and pay such assessments without other or further notice than such as is provided for in this chapter. The funds realized from such assessments shall constitute the drainage fund, as contemplated in this chapter, and shall be disbursed on warrants drawn against that fund by the county auditor, on the order of the board of supervisors.

466.7 Cost of maintaining.

The board of supervisors shall have the right and power to keep and maintain any such levee, ditches, drains, or system of drainage, either in whole or in part, established under sections 466.1 to 466.6, as may in their judgment be required, and to levy the expense thereof upon the real estate within such drainage district as herein provided for, and collect and expend the same; provided, however, that no such work which shall impose a tax exceeding three dollars and thirty-seven and one-half cents per thousand dollars on the assessable value of the lands and improvements within the district shall be authorized by them, unless the same is first petitioned for and authorized in substantially the manner required by this chapter for the inauguration of new work except that if such work is of the kinds contemplated by section 455.135, and the cost thereof is within the limitations of said section, or is of the kinds contemplated by section 455.201, and the cost thereof is within the limitations of said section, then the provisions of section 455.135 or section 455.201 shall supersede the limitations of this section.

466.8 Laws applicable.

In the establishment and maintenance of levee and drainage districts in co-operation with the United States as in this chapter provided, all the proceedings in the filing and the form and substance of the petition, assessment of damages, appointment of an engineer, the engineer's surveys, plats, profiles, and report, notice of hearings, filing of claims and objections, hearings, appointment of commissioners to classify lands, assess benefits, and apportion costs and expenses, report, notice and hearing on the report, the appointment of a supervising engineer, the engineer's duties, the letting of work and making contracts, payment for work, levy and collection of drainage or levee assessments and taxes, the issue of improvement certificates and drainage or levee bonds, the taking of appeals and the manner of trial of appeals, and all other proceedings relating to the district shall be as provided in chapters 455 and 456 through 465 except as otherwise in this chapter provided.

INTERSTATE DRAINAGE DISTRICTS

467.1 Co-operation — procedure.
467.2 Agreement as to costs.
467.3 Contracts let by joint agreement.
467.4 Separate contracts.
467.5 Conditions precedent.
467.6 Assessments, bonds and costs — limitation.
467.1 Co-operation — procedure.
When proceedings for the drainage of lands bordering upon the state line are had and the total cost of constructing the improvement in this state, including all damage, has been ascertained, and the engineer in charge, before the final establishment of the district, reports that the establishment and construction of such improvement ought to be jointly done with like proceedings for the drainage of lands in the same drainage area in such an adjoining state and that drainage proceedings are pending in such state for the drainage of such lands, the said authorities of this state may enter an order continuing the hearing on the establishment of such district to a fixed date, of which all parties shall take notice.

467.2 Agreement as to costs.
The board shall have power, when the total cost, including damages, of constructing the improvement in such other state has been ascertained by the authorities of such other state, to enter into an agreement as to the separate amounts which the property owners of each state should in equity pay toward the construction of the joint undertaking. When such amount is thus determined, the board or boards having jurisdiction in this state shall enter the same in the minutes of their proceedings and shall proceed therewith as though such amount to be paid by the portion of the district in this state had been originally determined by them as the cost of constructing the improvement in this state.

467.3 Contracts let by joint agreement.
When the bids for construction are opened, unless the construction work on each side of the line can go forward independently, no contract shall be let by the authorities in this state, unless the acceptance of a bid or bids for the construction of the whole project is first jointly agreed upon by the authorities of both states.

467.4 Separate contracts.
The contract or contracts for the construction of that portion of the improvement within this state shall be entirely distinct and separate from the contract or contracts let by the authorities of the neighboring state, but the aggregate amount of the contract or contracts for the construction of the work within this state shall not exceed an amount equal to the amount of the benefits assessed in this state including damages and other expenses.

467.5 Conditions precedent.
No contract shall be let until the improvement shall be finally established in both states, and after the final adjustment in both states of damages and benefits. No bonds shall be issued until all litigation in both states arising out of said proceedings has been finally terminated by actual trial or agreements, or the expiration of all right of appeal.

467.6 Assessments, bonds and costs — limitation.
All proceedings except as provided in this chapter in relation to the establishment, construction, and management of interstate drainage districts shall be as provided for the establishment and construction of districts wholly within this state as provided in chapter 455. All such proceedings shall relate only to the lands of such district which are located wholly within this state. Boards having jurisdiction in this state may make just and equitable agreements with like authorities in such adjoining state for the joint management, repair, and maintenance of the entire improvement, after the establishment and completed construction thereof.

467A.1 Short title.

This chapter may be known and cited as the "Soil Conservation Districts Law" [C39, §2603.02; C46, §160, C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §467A 1].

467A.2 Declaration of policy.

It is hereby declared to be the policy of the legislature to integrate the conservation of soil and water resources into the production of agricultural commodities to insure the long term protection of the soil and water resources of the state of Iowa, and to encourage the development of farm management and agricultural practices that are consistent with the capability of the land to sustain agriculture, and thereby to preserve natural resources, control floods, prevent impairment of dams and reservoirs, assist and maintain the navigability of rivers and harbors, preserve wildlife, protect the tax base, protect public lands and promote the health, safety and public welfare of the people of this state [C39, §2603.03; C46, §160, C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §467A 2].

467A.3 Definitions.

Wherever used or referred to in this chapter, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

1. "District" or "soil conservation district" means a governmental subdivision of this state, and a public body corporate and politic, organized for the purposes, with the powers, and subject to the restrictions herein after set forth.

2. "Commissioner" means one of the members of the governing body of a district, elected or appointed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

3. "Department" means the department of agriculture and land stewardship.

4. "Division" means the division of soil conservation created within the department.

5. "Committee" or "state soil conservation committee" means the committee established by section 467A 4.

6. "Petition" means a petition filed under the provisions of subsection 1 of section 467A 5 for the creation of a district.
7. "Nominating petition" means a petition filed under the provisions of section 467A.5 to nominate candidates for the office of commissioner of a soil conservation district.

8. "State" means the state of Iowa.

9. "Agency of this state" includes the government of this state and any subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the government of this state.

10. "United States" or "agencies of the United States" includes the United States of America, the soil conservation service of the United States department of agriculture, and any other agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States.

11. "Government" or "governmental" includes the government of this state, the government of the United States, and any subdivision, agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, or either of them.

12. "Landowner" includes any person, firm, or corporation or any federal agency, this state or any of its political subdivisions, who shall hold title to land lying within a proposed district or a district organized under the provisions of this chapter.

13. "Due notice" means notice published at least twice, with an interval of at least six days between the two publication dates, in a newspaper or other publication of general circulation within the appropriate area, or, if no such publication of general circulation be available, by posting at a reasonable number of conspicuous places within the appropriate area, such posting to include, where possible, posting at public places where it may be customary to post notices concerning county or municipal affairs generally. At any hearing held pursuant to such notice, at the time and place designated in such notice, adjournment may be made from time to time without the necessity of renewing such notice for such adjourned dates.

14. "Water resource district" means one of the six water resource districts established by section 467D.3.

15. "Board" means the body designated by section 467D.4 to administer each of the water resource districts.

467A.4 Soil conservation division — committee.

1. The soil conservation division is established within the department to perform the functions conferred upon it in chapters 83, 83A, and 467A through 467D. The division shall be administered in accordance with the policies of the state soil conservation committee, which shall advise the division and which shall approve administrative rules proposed by the division for the administration of chapters 83, 83A, and 467A through 467D before the rules are adopted pursuant to chapter 17A. The state soil conservation committee consists of a chairperson and ten other members. The following shall serve as ex officio nonvoting members of the committee: The director of the Iowa cooperative extension service in agriculture and home economics, or the director’s designee, and the director of the department of natural resources or the director’s designee. Nine voting members shall be appointed by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate. Six of the appointive members shall be persons engaged in actual farming operations, one of whom shall be a resident of each of the six water resource districts established by section 467D.3, and no more than one of whom shall be a resident of any one county. The seventh, eighth, and ninth appointive members shall be chosen by the governor from the state at large with one appointed to be a representative of citizens, one appointed to be a representative of the mining industry, and one appointee who is a farmer actively engaged in tree farming operations. The committee may invite the secretary of agriculture of the United States to appoint one person to serve with the other members, and the president of the Iowa county engineers association may designate a member of the association to serve in the same manner, but these persons have no vote and shall serve in an advisory capacity only.

2. The committee or division may call upon the attorney general of the state for necessary legal services. The committee may delegate to its chairperson, to one or more of its members, or to one or more agents or employees, powers and duties as it deems proper. Upon request of the committee, for the purpose of carrying out any of the functions assigned the committee or the department by law, the supervising officer of any state agency, or of any state institution of learning, shall, insofar as possible under available appropriations, and having due regard to the needs of the agency to which the request is directed, assign or detail the request to the staff or personnel of the agency or institution of learning, and make the special reports, surveys, or studies as the committee requests.

3. The committee shall designate its chairperson, and may change the designation. The members appointed by the governor shall serve for a period of six years. Members shall be appointed in each odd-numbered year to succeed members whose terms expire as provided by section 69.19. Appointments may be made at other times and for other periods as necessary to fill vacancies on the committee. Members shall not be appointed to serve more than two complete six year terms. Members designated to represent the department of natural resources and the director of the Iowa cooperative extension service in agriculture and home economics shall serve at the pleasure of the officer making the designation. A majority of the voting members of the committee constitutes a quorum, and the concurrence of a majority of the voting members of the committee in any matter within their duties is required for its determination. Members are entitled to actual expenses necessarily incurred in the discharge of their duties as members of the committee. The expenses paid to the committee members shall be paid from funds appropriated to the department. Each member of the committee may also be eligible to receive compensation as provided in section 7E.6. The committee shall provide for the execution of surety bonds for all employees and officers who are entrusted with funds or property, shall provide for the keeping of a full and accurate record of all proceedings and of all resolutions and orders issued or adopted, and shall provide for an annual audit of the accounts of receipts and disbursements.

4. In addition to other duties and powers conferred upon the division of soil conservation, the division has the following duties and powers.

a To offer such assistance as may be appropriate to the commissioners of soil conservation districts in carrying out any of their powers and programs

b To keep the commissioners of each of the several districts informed of the activities and experience of all other districts and to facilitate an interchange of advice and experience between such districts and cooperation between them

c To co-ordinate the programs of the several soil conservation districts so far as this may be done by advice and consultation

d To secure the cooperation and assistance of the United States and any of its agencies, and of agencies of this state, in the work of such districts

e To disseminate information throughout the state concerning the activities and program of the soil conservation districts

f To render financial aid and assistance to soil conservation districts for the purpose of carrying out the policy stated in this chapter

g To offer such assistance as may be appropriate to the water resources districts established by section 467D 3, and in the carrying out of any of their powers and programs

h Review, amend, and give final approval to the plan of each of the water resource districts, and to any subsequent changes therein, in the manner provided by chapter 467D

i Maintain files of such proceedings, rules, and orders, of each of the water resource districts in the state as the department may request from the water resource districts pursuant to section 467D 6, subsection 11

j To keep the boards of each of the six water resources districts established by section 467D 3 informed of the activities and experience of the other water resource districts and to facilitate an interchange of advice and experience between water resource districts and cooperation between them

k To co-ordinate the programs of the water resource districts so far as this may be done by advice and consultation l To disseminate information throughout the state concerning the activities and programs of the water resources districts established by section 467D 3

m To render financial aid and assistance to the six water resources districts established by section 467D 3 for the purpose of carrying out the policy stated in chapter 467D

n To establish a position of state drainage coordinator for drainage districts and drainage and levee districts which will keep the management of those districts informed of the activities and experience of all other such districts and facilitate an interchange of advice, experience and cooperation among the districts, coordinate by advice and consultation the programs of the districts, secure the cooperation and assistance of the United States and its agencies and of the agencies of this state and other states in the work of the districts, disseminate information throughout the state concerning the activities and programs of the districts and provide other appropriate assistance to the districts

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICTS

467A.5 Soil conservation districts.

1 The one hundred soil conservation districts established in the manner which was prescribed by law prior to July 1, 1975 shall continue in existence with the boundaries and the names in effect on July 1, 1975

If the existence of any district so established is discontinued pursuant to section 467A 10, a petition for re-establishment of the district or for annexation of the former district's territory to any other abutting district may be submitted to, and shall be acted upon by, the state soil conservation committee in substantially the manner provided by section 467A 5, Code 1975

2 The governing body of each district shall consist of five commissioners elected on a nonpartisan basis for staggered six-year terms commencing on the first day of January that is not a Sunday or holiday following their election Any eligible elector residing in the district is eligible to the office of commissioner, except that no more than one commissioner shall at any one time be a resident of any one township A vacancy is created in the office of any commissioner who changes residence into a township where another commissioner then resides A vacancy in the office of commissioner shall be filled by appointment of the state soil conservation committee until the next succeeding general election, at which time the balance of the unexpired term shall be filled as provided by section 69 12

3 At each general election a successor shall be chosen for each commissioner whose term will expire in the succeeding January Nomination of candidates for the office of commissioner shall be made by petition in accordance with chapter 45, except that each candidate's nominating petition shall be signed by at least twenty-five eligible electors of the district The petition form shall be furnished by the county commissioner of elections Every candidate shall file with the nomination papers an affidavit stating the candidate's name, the candidate's residence, that the person is a candidate and is eligible for the office of commissioner, and that if elected the candidate will qualify for the office An eligible elector shall not in any one year sign the nominating petitions of a number of candidates greater than the number of commissioners to be elected in that year The signed petitions shall be filed with the county commissioner of elections not later than five o'clock p.m. on the fifty-fifth day prior to the general election The votes for the office of district commissioner shall be canvassed in the same manner as the votes for county officers, and the returns shall be certified to the commissioners of the district A plurality shall be sufficient to elect commissioners, and no primary election for the office shall be held If the canvass shows that the two candidates receiving the highest and the second highest number of votes for the office of district commissioner are both residents of the same township, the board shall certify as elected the candidate who received the highest number of votes for the office and the candidate receiving the next highest number of votes for the office who is not a resident of the same township as the candidate receiving the highest number of votes

467A.6 Appointment, qualifications and tenure of commissioners.

The commissioners of each soil conservation district shall convene on the first day of January that is not a Sunday or holiday in such odd-numbered year. Those commissioners whose term of office begins on that day shall take the oath of office prescribed by section 63.10. The commissioners shall then organize by election of a chairperson and a vice chairperson.

The commissioners of the respective districts shall submit to the department such statements, estimates, budgets, and other information at such times and in such manner as the department may require.

A commissioner shall receive no compensation for the commissioner's services but the commissioner may be paid expenses, including traveling expenses, necessarily incurred in the discharge of the commissioner's duties, if funds are available for that purpose.

The commissioners may call upon the attorney general of the state for such legal services as they may require. The commissioners may delegate to their chairperson, to one or more commissioners or to one or more agents, or employees, such powers and duties as they may deem proper. The commissioners shall furnish to the division of soil conservation, upon request, copies of such ordinances, rules, regulations, orders, contracts, forms, and other documents as they shall adopt or employ, and such other information concerning their activities as it may require in the performance of its duties under this chapter.

The commissioners shall provide for the execution of surety bonds for all employees and officers who shall be entrusted with funds or property; shall provide for the keeping of a full and accurate record of all proceedings and of all resolutions, regulations, and orders issued or adopted; and shall provide for a biennial audit of the accounts of receipts and disbursements.

The commission may, in the interest of any municipality or county located near the territory comprised within the district, designate a representative to advise and consult with the commissioners of the district on all questions of program and policy which may affect the property, water supply, or other interests of such municipality or county.

467A.7 Powers of districts and commissioners.

A soil conservation district organized under the provisions of this chapter shall have the following powers, in addition to others granted in other sections of this chapter:

1. To conduct surveys, investigations, and research relating to the character of soil erosion and erosion, floodwater, and sediment damages, and the preventive and control measures needed, to publish the results of such surveys, investigations or research, and to disseminate information concerning such preventive and control measures; provided, however, that in order to avoid duplication of research activities, no district shall initiate any research program except in cooperation with the Iowa agricultural experiment station located at Ames, Iowa, and pursuant to a cooperative agreement entered into between the Iowa agricultural experiment service and such district.

2. To conduct demonstrational projects within the district on lands owned or controlled by this state or any of its agencies, with the consent and co-operation of the agency administering and having jurisdiction thereof, and on any other lands within the district upon obtaining the consent of the owner or occupier of such lands or the necessary rights or interests in such lands, in order to demonstrate by example the means, methods, and measures by which soil and soil resources may be conserved, and soil erosion in the form of soil blowing and soil washing may be prevented and controlled; provided, however, that in order to avoid duplication of agricultural extension activities, no district shall initiate any demonstrational projects, except in cooperation with the Iowa agricultural extension service whose offices are located at Ames, Iowa, and pursuant to a cooperative agreement entered into between the Iowa agricultural extension service and such district.

3. To carry out preventive and control measures within the district, including, but not limited to, crop rotations, engineering operations, methods of cultivation, the growing of vegetation, changes in use of land, and the measures listed in section 467A.2, on lands owned or controlled by this state or any of its agencies, with the consent and cooperation of the agency administering and having jurisdiction thereof, and on any other lands within the district, upon obtaining the consent of the owner or occupier of such lands or the necessary rights or interests in such lands. Any approval or permits from the council required under other provisions of law shall be obtained by the district prior to initiation of any construction activity.

4. To co-operate, or enter into agreements with, and within the limits of appropriations duly made available to it by law, to furnish financial or other aid to any agency, governmental or otherwise, or any owner or occupier of lands within the district, in the carrying on of erosion-control and watershed protection and flood prevention operations within the district, subject to such conditions as the commissioners may deem necessary to advance the purposes of this chapter.

5. To obtain options upon and to acquire, by purchase, exchange, lease, gift, grant, bequest, devise or otherwise, any property, real or personal, or rights or interests therein; to maintain, administer, and improve any properties acquired, to receive income from such properties and to expend such income in carrying out the purposes and provisions of this chapter; and to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any of its property or interests therein in furtherance of the purposes and provisions of this chapter.

6. To make available on such terms as it shall prescribe, to landowners or occupiers within the district, agricultural and engineering machinery and equipment, fertilizer, lime, and such other material or equipment as will assist such landowners or occupiers to carry on operations upon their lands for the conservation of soil resources and for the prevention and control of soil erosion and for the prevention of erosion, floodwater, and sediment damages.

7. To construct, improve, and maintain such structures as may be necessary or convenient for the performance of any of the operations authorized in this chapter. Any approval or permits from the council... required under other provisions of law shall be obtained by the district prior to initiation of any construction activity.

8. To develop comprehensive plans for the conservation of soil resources and for the control and prevention of soil erosion and for the prevention of erosion, floodwater, and sediment damages within the district, which plans shall specify in such detail as may be possible, the acts, procedures, performances, and avoidances which are necessary or desirable for the effectuation of such plans, including the specification of engineering operations, methods of cultivation, the growing of vegetation, cropping programs, tillage practices, and changes in use of land; and to publish such plans and information and bring them to the attention of owners and occupiers of lands within the district.

9. To sue and be sued in the name of the district; to have a seal, which seal shall be judicially noticed; to have perpetual succession unless terminated as hereinafter provided; to make and execute contracts and other instruments, necessary or convenient to the exercise of its powers; to make, and from time to time amend and repeal, rules not inconsistent with this chapter, to carry into effect its purposes and powers.

10. To accept donations, gifts, and contributions in money, services, materials, or otherwise, from the United States or any of its agencies, or from this state or any of its agencies, and to use or expend such monies, services, materials, or other contributions in carrying on its operations.

11. As a condition to the extending of any benefits under this chapter to, or the performance of work upon, any lands not owned or controlled by this state or any of its agencies, the commissioners may require contributions in money, services, materials, or otherwise to any operations conferring such benefits, and may require landowners or occupiers to enter into and perform such agreements or covenants as to the permanent use of such lands as will tend to prevent or control erosion thereon.

12. No provisions with respect to the acquisition, operation, or disposition of property by other public bodies shall be applicable to a district organized hereunder unless the legislature shall specifically so state.

13. After the formation of any district under the provisions of this chapter, all participation hereunder shall be purely voluntary, except as specifically stated herein.

14. Subject to the approval of the state soil conservation committee, to change the name of such soil conservation district.

15. To take notice of the water resource district plan, and conform to the duly promulgated rules of the water resource district or water resource districts in which the soil conservation district is located; provided that this subsection does not grant any authority not otherwise granted by law to the commissioners of soil conservation districts.

16. The commissioners shall, as a condition for the receipt of any state cost-sharing funds for permanent soil conservation practices, require the owner of the land on which the practices are to be established to covenant and file, in the office of the soil conservation district of the county in which the land is located, an agreement identifying the particular lands upon which the practices for which state cost-sharing funds are to be received will be established, and providing that the project will not be removed, altered, or modified so as to lessen its effectiveness without the consent of the commissioners, obtained in advance and based on guidelines drawn up by the state soil conservation committee, for a period of twenty years after the date of receiving payment. The commissioners shall assist the division in the enforcement of this subsection. The agreement does not create a lien on the land, but is a charge personally against the owner of the land at the time of removal, alteration, or modification if an administrative order is made under section 467A.61, subsection 3.

17. To enter into special funding agreements which, notwithstanding subsection 4, provide for cost sharing up to sixty percent of the cost of a project including five or more contiguous farm units which have at least five hundred or more acres of farmland and which constitute at least seventy-five percent of the agricultural land lying within a watershed or subwatershed, where the owners jointly agree to a watershed conservation plan in conjunction with their respective farm unit soil conservation plans.

18. To encourage local school districts to provide instruction in the importance of and in some of the basic methods of soil conservation, as a part of the course work relating to conservation of natural resources and environmental awareness required pursuant to section 256.11, subsections 3 and 4, and to offer technical assistance to schools in developing such instructional programs.

19. To make incentive payments to encourage summer construction of permanent soil and water conservation practices, provided that the commissioners of a soil conservation district shall not use state cost-sharing funds to pay such incentives in any fiscal year when requests which seek cost sharing for eligible permanent soil and water conservation practices, but which do not seek incentive payments under this subsection, are sufficient to use all of the state cost-sharing funds made available to the district for that year. Incentive payments made under this subsection may, notwithstanding subsection 4, provide for cost sharing up to sixty percent of the cost of establishing any permanent soil and water conservation practice where the establishment of that practice involves a construction project which begins after June 1 but before August 15 of any calendar year. Incentive payments under this subsection may also include, or may be limited to a pro rata amount, in accordance with rules of the department, to compensate for production loss on the area disturbed for construction of practices.

467A.8 Co-operation between districts.

The commissioners of any two or more districts organized under the provisions of this chapter may cooperate with one another in the exercise of any or all powers conferred in this chapter.

467A.9 State agencies to co-operate.
Agencies of this state which shall have jurisdiction over, or be charged with the administration of, any state-owned lands, and of any county, or other governmental subdivision of the state, which shall have jurisdiction over, or be charged with the administration of, any county-owned or other publicly owned lands, lying within the boundaries of any district organized hereunder, may co-operate to the fullest extent with the commissioners of such districts in the effectuation of programs and operations undertaken by the commissioners under the provisions of this chapter.

467A.10 Discontinuance of districts.
At any time after five years after the organization of a district under this chapter, any twenty-five owners of land lying within the boundaries of the district, but in no case less than twenty percent of the owners of land lying within the district, may file a petition with the division asking that the operations of the district be terminated and the existence of the district discontinued. The committee may conduct public meetings and public hearings upon the petition as necessary to assist in the consideration of the petition. Within sixty days after a petition has been received by the division, the division shall give due notice of the holding of a referendum, shall supervise the referendum, and shall issue appropriate rules governing the conduct of the referendum, the question to be submitted by ballots upon which the words “For terminating the existence of the ........................................ (name of the soil conservation district to be here inserted)” and “Against terminating the existence of the ........................................ (name of the soil conservation district to be here inserted)” shall be printed, with a square before each proposition and a direction to insert an X mark in the square before one or the other of the propositions as the voter favors or opposes discontinuance of the district. All owners of lands lying within the boundaries of the district are eligible to vote in the referendum. No informalities in the conduct of the referendum or in any matters relating to the referendum invalidate the referendum or the result of the referendum if notice was given substantially as provided in this section and if the referendum was fairly conducted.

When sixty-five percent of the landowners vote to terminate the existence of the district, the division shall advise the commissioners to terminate the affairs of the district. The commissioners shall dispose of all property belonging to the district at public auction and shall pay over the proceeds of the sale to be deposited into the state treasury. The commissioners shall then file an application, duly verified, with the secretary of state for the discontinuance of the district, and shall transmit with the application the certificate of the division setting forth the determination of the division that the continued operation of the district is not administratively practicable and feasible. The application shall recite that the property of the district has been disposed of and the proceeds paid over as provided in this section, and shall set forth a full accounting of the properties and proceeds of the sale. The secretary of state shall issue to the commissioners a certificate of dissolution and shall record the certificate in an appropriate book of record in the secretary of state’s office.

Upon issuance of a certificate of dissolution under this section, all ordinances and regulations previously adopted and in force within the districts are of no further force and effect. All contracts previously entered into, to which the district or commissioners are parties, remain in force and effect for the period provided in the contracts. The division is substituted for the district or commissioners as party to the contracts. The division is entitled to all benefits and subject to all liabilities under the contracts and has the same right and liability to perform, to require performance, to sue and be sued, and to modify or terminate the contracts by mutual consent or otherwise, as the commissioners of the district would have had.

The division shall not entertain petitions for the discontinuance of any district nor conduct referenda upon discontinuance petitions nor make determinations pursuant to the petitions in accordance with this chapter, more often than once in five years.

467A.11 Report to governor.
The division shall submit to the governor, no later than January 1 next preceding each biennial legislative session, a report which shall state the number and acreage of districts in existence or in process of organization, together with an estimate of the number and probable acreage of the districts which may be organized during the ensuing biennial fiscal period, and a statement of the balances of funds, if any, available to the division for its administrative and other expenses arising from this chapter, and for allocation among the several districts during the ensuing biennial fiscal period.

SUBDISTRICTS

467A.13 Purpose of subdistricts.
Subdistricts of a soil conservation district may be formed as hereinafter provided for the purposes of co-operating with water resource districts and of car-ranging out watershed protection and flood prevention programs within the subdistrict but may not be formed solely for the purpose of establishing or taking over the operation of an existing drainage district.

86 Acts, ch 1288, §61

§467A.14 Petition to form.

When the landowners in a proposed subdistrict desire that a subdistrict be organized, they shall file a petition with the commissioners of the soil conservation district. The area must be contiguous and in the same watershed but in no event shall it include any area located within the boundaries of an incorporated city. The petition shall set forth an intelligible description by congressional subdivision, or otherwise, of the land suggested for inclusion in the subdistrict and shall state whether the special annual tax or special benefit assessments will be used, or whether the use of both is contemplated. The petition shall contain a brief statement giving the reasons for organization, requesting that the proposed area be organized as a subdistrict and must be signed by sixty-five percent of the landowners in the proposed subdistrict. Land already in one subdistrict cannot be included in another. The soil conservation district commissioners shall review such petition and if found adequate shall arrange for a hearing thereon.

§467A.15 Notice and hearing.

Within thirty days after such petition has been filed with the soil district commissioners, they shall fix a date, hour, and place for a hearing thereon and direct the secretary to cause notice to be given to the owners of each tract of land, or lot, within the proposed subdistrict as shown by the transfer books of the auditor's office, and to each lienholder, or encumbrancer, of any such lands as shown by the county records, and to all other persons whom it may concern, and without naming individuals all actual occupants of land in the proposed subdistrict, of the pendency and prayer of said petition and that all objections to establishment of said subdistrict for any reason must be made in writing and filed with the secretary of the soil conservation district at, or before, the time set for hearing. The soil conservation district commissioners shall consider and determine whether the operation of the subdistrict within the defined boundaries as proposed is desirable, practicable, feasible, and of necessity in the interest of health, safety, and public welfare. All interested parties shall have a right to attend such hearing and to be heard. The soil district commissioners may for good cause adjourn the hearing to a day certain which shall be announced at the time of adjournment and made a matter of record. If the soil district commissioners determine that the petition meets the requirements set forth herein and in section 467A.5, they shall order that the subdistrict is duly organized and shall record such action in their official minutes together with an appropriate official name, or designation for the subdistrict.

§467A.16 Publication of notice.

The notice of hearing on the formation of a subdistrict shall be by publication once each week for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county (or district) the last of which shall be not less than ten days prior to the day set for the hearing on the petition. Proof of such service shall be made by affidavit of the publisher, and be on file with [the] secretary of the district at the time the hearing begins.

§467A.17 Subdistrict in more than one district.

If the proposed subdistrict lies in more than one soil conservation district, the petition may be presented to the commissioners of any one of such districts, and the commissioners of all such districts shall act jointly as a board of commissioners with respect to all matters concerning such subdistrict, including its formation. They shall organize as a single board for such purposes and shall designate its chairperson, vice chairperson, and secretary-treasurer to serve for terms of one year. Such a subdistrict shall be formed in the same manner and shall have the same powers and duties as a subdistrict formed in one soil conservation district.

§467A.18 Authentication.

Following the entry in the official minutes of the soil district commissioners of the creation of the subdistrict, the commissioners shall certify this fact on a separate form, authentic copies of which shall be recorded with the county recorder of each county in which any portion of the subdistrict lies, and with the division of soil conservation.

§467A.19 Governing body.

The commissioners of a soil conservation district in which the subdistrict is formed shall be the governing body of the subdistrict. When a subdistrict lies in more than one soil conservation district, the combined board of commissioners shall be the governing body. The governing body of the subdistrict shall appoint three trustees living within the subdistrict to assist with the administration of the subdistrict.

§467A.20 Special annual tax.

After obtaining agreements to carry out recommended soil conservation measures and proper farm plans from owners of not less than fifty percent of the lands situated in the subdistrict, a subdistrict shall have the authority to impose a special annual tax, the proceeds of which shall be used for the repayment of actual and necessary expenses incurred to organize the subdistrict, to acquire land or rights or interests therein by purchase or condemnation, repair, alteration, maintenance and operation of the present and future works of improvement within its boundaries.

On or before January 10 of each year its governing body shall make an estimate of the amount it deems necessary to be raised by such special tax for the ensuing year and transmit said estimate in dollars to the board of supervisors of the county in which the subdistrict lies.

If portions of the subdistrict are in more than one county, then the governing body, as hereinbefore des-designated in such event, after arriving at the estimate in dollars deemed necessary for the entire subdistrict shall ratably apportion such amount between the counties and transmit and certify the prorated portion to the respective boards of supervisors of each of the counties.

The board or boards of supervisors shall upon receipt of certification from the governing body of the district make the necessary levy on the assessed valuation of all real estate within the boundaries of the subdistrict lying within their respective county to raise said amounts, but in no event to exceed one dollar and eight cents per thousand dollars of assessed value.

The special tax so levied shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes with like penalty for delinquency, with the proceeds therefrom to be kept in a separate account by the appropriate county treasurer or treasurers identified by the official name of the subdistrict and expenditures therefrom shall be made on requisition of the chairperson and secretary of the governing body of the subdistrict.

467A.21 Condemnation by subdistrict.
A subdistrict of a soil conservation district may condemn land or rights or interests therein to carry out the authorized purposes of the subdistrict.

467A.22 General powers applicable — warrants or bonds.
A subdistrict organized under the provisions of this chapter shall have all of the powers of a soil conservation district in addition to other powers granted to the subdistrict in other sections of this chapter.

The governing body of the subdistrict, upon determination that benefits from works of improvement as set forth in the watershed work plan to be installed will exceed costs thereof, and that funds needed for purposes of the subdistrict require levy of a special benefit assessment as provided in section 467A.23, in lieu of the special annual tax as provided in section 467A.20, shall record its decision to use said taxing authority and shall have authority, upon majority vote of said governing body and with the approval of the state soil conservation committee, to issue warrants or bonds payable in not more than forty semiannual installments in connection therewith, and to pledge and assign the proceeds of the special benefit assessment and other revenues of the subdistrict as security therefor. Such warrants and bonds of indebtedness shall be general obligations of the subdistrict, exempt from all taxes, state and local, and in no event shall such warrants and bonds constitute an indebtedness of the soil conservation district or the state of Iowa.

DIVISION IV

ALTERNATE METHOD OF TAXATION FOR WATERSHED PROTECTION AND FLOOD PREVENTION

467A.23 Agreement by fifty percent of landowners.
After obtaining agreements to carry out recommended soil conservation measures and proper farm plans from owners of not less than fifty percent of the lands situated in the subdistrict, the governing body of the subdistrict shall have the authority to establish a special tax for the purpose of organization, construction, repair, alteration, enlargement, extension and operation of present and future works of improvement within the boundaries of said subdistrict. The governing body shall appoint three appraisers to assess benefits and classify the land affected by such improvements. One of such appraisers shall be a competent registered professional engineer and two of them shall be resident landowners of the county or counties in which the subdistrict is located but not living within nor owning or operating any lands included in said subdistrict.

The appraisers shall take and subscribe an oath of their qualifications and to perform the duties of classification of said lands, fix the percentages, benefits and apportion and assess the costs and expenses of construction of the said improvement according to law and their best judgment, skill, and ability. If said appraisers or any of them fail or neglect to act or perform the duties in the time and as required of them by law, the governing body of the subdistrict shall appoint others with like qualifications to take their places and perform said duties.

467A.24 Assessment for improvements.
At the time of appointing said appraisers, the governing body shall fix the time within which said assessment, classification, and apportionment shall be made, which may be extended for good cause shown. Within twenty days after their appointment, they shall begin to inspect and classify all the lands within said district, or any change, extension, enlargement, or relocation thereof in tracts of forty acres or less according to the legal or recognized subdivisions, in a graduated scale of benefits to be numbered according to the benefit to be received by each of such tracts from such improvement, and pursue said work continuously until completed and, when completed, shall make a full, accurate, and detailed report thereof and file the same with the governing body. The lands receiving the greatest benefit shall be marked on a scale of one hundred, and those benefited in a less degree with such percentage of one hundred as the benefits received bear in proportion thereto.

The amount of benefit appraised to each forty acres of land within the subdistrict shall be determined by the improvements within said subdistrict based upon the work plan as agreed upon by the subdistrict.

In the report of the appraisers so appointed they shall specify each tract of land by proper description, and the ownership thereof, as the same appears on the transfer books in the auditor’s office.

467A.26 Hearing.
The governing body shall fix a time for a hearing within sixty days upon receiving the report of the appraisers, and the governing body shall cause notice to be served upon each person not less than ten days before said hearing whose name appears as owner, naming that person, and also upon the person or persons in actual occupancy of any tract of land without naming them of the day and hour of such hearing, which notice shall be for the same time and served in the same manner as is provided for the establishment of a subdistrict, and shall state the amount of assessment of costs and expenses of organizing and construction apportioned to each owner upon each forty acre tract or less, and that all objections thereto must be in writing and filed with the governing body at or before the time set for such hearing.

467A.27 Determination by board.

At the time fixed or at an adjourned hearing, the governing body shall hear and determine all objections filed to said report and shall fully consider the said report, and may affirm, increase, or diminish the percentage of benefits or the apportionment of costs and expenses made in said report against any body or tract of land in said subdistrict as may appear to the board to be just and equitable.

467A.28 Appeal.

Any person aggrieved may appeal from any final action of the governing body in relation to any matter involving the person's rights, to the district court of the county in which the proceeding was held.

467A.29 Intercounty subdistricts.

In subdistricts extending into two or more counties, appeals from final orders resulting from the joint action of the several governing bodies of such subdistrict may be taken to the district court of any county into which the district extends.

467A.30 Notice of appeal.

All appeals shall be taken within twenty days after the date of final action or order of the governing body from which such appeal is taken by filing with the auditor a notice of appeal, designating the court to which the appeal is taken, the order or action appealed from, and stating that the appeal will come on for hearing thirty days following perfection of the appeal with allowances of additional time for good cause shown. This notice shall be accompanied by an appeal bond with sureties to be approved by the auditor conditioned to pay all costs adjudged against the appellant and to abide the orders of the court.

467A.31 Petition filed.

Within twenty days after perfection of notice, the appellant shall file a petition setting forth the order or final action of the governing body appealed from and the grounds of the appellant's objections and the appellant's complaint with a copy of the appellant's claim for damages or objections filed by the appellant with the auditor. The appellant shall pay to the clerk the filing fee as provided by law in other cases. A failure to pay the filing fee or to file such petition shall be deemed a waiver of the appeal and in such case the court shall dismiss the same.

467A.32 Assessment certified.

When the board or boards of supervisors shall receive a certification from the governing body of the district to make the necessary assessment on the real estate within the boundaries of the subdistrict lying within their respective county, this shall be construed as final action by the governing body.

467A.33 Assessments transmitted.

The governing body upon receiving the reports from three appointed appraisers and after holding the hearings shall transmit and certify the amounts of assessments to the respective boards of supervisors which upon receipt of certification from the governing body of the district, make the necessary levy of such assessments as fixed by the governing body upon the land within such subdistrict and all assessments shall be levied at that time as a tax and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A from that date payable annually except as hereafter provided as to cash payments therefor within a specified time. The assessment so levied shall be kept in a separate account by the appropriate county treasurer or treasurers, identified by the official name of the subdistrict and expenditures therefrom shall be made on requisition of the chairperson and secretary of the governing body of the subdistrict.

At no time will an assessment be made where the benefits accrued to the subdistrict do not exceed the cost of the improvements within the said subdistrict.

467A.34 Payment to county treasurer.

All assessments for benefits shall be levied at one time against the property benefited and when levied and certified by the board or boards of supervisors shall be paid at the office of the county treasurer. Each person or corporation shall have the right within twenty days after the levy of assessments to pay the person's or corporation's assessment in full without interest.

If any levy of assessments is not sufficient to meet the cost and expenses of organizing and construction apportioned to each owner upon each forty-acre tract or less, additional assessments may be made on the same classification as the previous ones.

467A.35 Installments.

If the owner of any premises against which a levy exceeding twenty dollars has been made and certified shall, within thirty days from the date of such levy, agree in writing in a separate agreement, that in consideration of having a right to pay the owner's assessment in installments, the owner will not make any objection as to the legality of the assessment for benefit, or the levy of the taxes against the owner's property, then such owner shall have the following options:

1. To pay one half of the amount of such assessment at the time of filing such agreement and the remaining one half shall become due and payable one year from the date of filing such agreement.

All such installments shall be without interest if paid at said times, otherwise said assessments shall bear interest from the date of the levy at a rate fixed by the governing body of the subdistrict, but not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A, payable annually, and be collected as other taxes on real estate, with like penalty for delinquency.

2. To pay such assessments in not less than ten nor more than forty equal installments, the number to be fixed by the governing body of the subdistrict and interest at the rate fixed by the governing body of the subdistrict, not exceeding that permitted by chapter 74A. The first installment of each assessment shall become due and payable at the October semiannual tax paying date after the date of filing such agreement, unless the agreement is filed with the county auditor less than thirty days prior to such October semiannual tax paying date, in that event, the first installment shall become due and payable at the next succeeding October semiannual tax paying date. The second and each subsequent installment shall become due and payable at the October semiannual tax paying date each year thereafter. All such installments shall be collected with interest accrued on the unpaid balance to the October semiannual tax paying date and as other taxes on real estate, with like penalty for delinquency.

467A.36 Option by appellant.

When any owner takes an appeal from the assessment against any of the owner's land, the option to pay in installments whatever assessment is finally established against such land in said appeal shall continue, if within twenty days after the final determination of said appeal the owner shall file in the office of the auditor the owner's written election to pay in installments, and within said period pay such installments as would have matured prior to that time if no appeal had been taken, together with all accrued interest on said assessment to the last preceding interest-paying date.

467A.37 Status of classification.

A classification of land for watershed purposes, when finally adopted, shall remain the basis of all future assessments for the purpose of said subdistrict, except as provided in section 467A.38.

467A.38 New classification.

After a subdistrict has been established and the improvements thereof constructed and put in operation, if the governing body shall find that the original assessments are not equitable as a basis for the expenses of any enlargement or extension thereof which may have become necessary, they shall order a new classification of all lands in said subdistrict by resolution, and appoint three appraisers, which shall meet the same requirements as set forth in section 467A.23.

Upon the completion of the recategorization, those affected by such recategorization shall have the right to appeal as hereinabove set forth.

467A.39 Benefit of whole subdistrict.

Assessments for repair, alteration, enlargement, extension, and operation of works of improvement within the watershed district shall be a benefit to the entire subdistrict and levied as such.

467A.40 Compensation of appraisers.

Persons appointed to appraise and make classifications of lands shall receive such compensation as the governing body may fix and in addition thereto, the necessary expenses of transportation of said persons while engaged in their work; such compensation and expenses shall be construed as part of the cost of the subdistrict which shall be included when considering classifications of lands within a subdistrict.

467A.41 Election of taxing methods.

Subdistricts organized under the provisions of this chapter shall designate in the petition which of the taxing methods will be used or may stipulate that both methods are contemplated for use. Should the governing body of the subdistrict find it desirable to change from a special annual tax to special benefit assessments it may elect to do so and shall institute proceedings described in sections 467A.23 through 467A.40 and may divert any moneys already collected under section 467A.20, for the purposes authorized in this chapter.

§467A.42

(1) Would otherwise cause erosion in excess of the applicable soil loss limit, and
(2) Does not carry nor constitute sewage, industrial waste, or other waste as defined by section 455B 171

b The employment of temporary devices or structures, temporary seeding, fibre mats, plastic, straw, or other measures adequate to prevent erosion in excess of the applicable soil loss limits from the site of, or land directly affected by, the construction of any public or private street, road or highway, any residential, commercial, or industrial building or development, or any publicly or privately owned recreational or service facility of any kind, at all times prior to completion of such construction

c The establishment and maintenance of vegetation upon the right of way of any completed portion of any public street, road, or highway, or the construction or installation thereon of structures or devices, or other measures adequate to prevent erosion from the right of way in excess of the applicable soil loss limits

4 "Agricultural land" has the meaning assigned that term by section 172C 1

5 "Farm unit" means a single contiguous tract of agricultural land, or two or more adjacent tracts of agricultural land, located within a single soil conservation district, upon which farming operations are being conducted by a person who owns or is purchasing or renting all of such land, or by that person’s tenant or tenants. If a landowner has multiple farm tenants, the land on which farming operations are being conducted by each tenant shall constitute a separate farm unit. This definition does not prohibit land which is within a single soil conservation district and is owned or being purchased by the same person, or is being rented by the same tenant, from being treated as two or more farm units if the commissioners of the soil conservation district deem it preferable to do so

6 "Conservation folder" means compiled information concerning the topography, soil composition, natural or artificial drainage characteristics and other pertinent factors concerning a particular farm unit, which are necessary to the preparation of a sound and equitable conservation agreement for that farm unit. The specific items to be contained in a conservation folder shall be prescribed by administrative rules of the department of soil conservation. The department shall provide by rule that an updated farm plan prepared for a particular farm unit within ten years prior to the effective date of this subsection shall be considered an adequate replacement for the conservation folder for that farm unit

7 "Farm unit soil conservation plan" means a plan jointly developed by the owner and, if appropriate, the operator of a farm unit and the commissioners of the soil conservation district within which that farm unit is located, based on the conservation folder for that farm unit, and identifying those permanent soil and water conservation practices and temporary soil and water conservation practices the use of which may be expected to prevent soil loss by erosion from that farm unit in excess of the applicable soil loss limit or limits. The plan shall if practicable identify alternative practices by which this objective may be attained

8 "Conservation agreement" means a commitment by the owner or operator of a farm unit to implement a farm unit soil conservation plan or, with the approval of the commissioners of the soil conservation district within which the farm unit is located, a portion of a farm unit soil conservation plan. The commitment shall be conditioned on the furnishing by the soil conservation district of such technical or planning assistance in the establishment of, and cost sharing or other financial assistance for establishment and maintenance of the soil and water conservation practices necessary to implement the plan, or a portion of the plan [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §467A 42]

467A.43 Duty of property owners.

To conserve the fertility, general usefulness, and value of the soil and soil resources of this state, and to prevent the injurious effects of soil erosion, it is hereby made the duty of the owners of real property in this state to establish and maintain soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices, as required by the regulations of the commissioners of the respective soil conservation districts. As used in this section, "owners of real property in this state" includes each state government agency, each political subdivision of the state and each agency of such a political subdivision which has under its control publicly owned land, including but not limited to agricultural land, forests, parks, the grounds of state educational, penal and human service institutions, public highways, roads and streets, and other public rights of way [C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §467A 43]

467A.44 Rules by commissioners — scope.

The commissioners of each soil conservation district shall, with approval of and within time limits set by administrative order of the division, adopt reasonable regulations as are deemed necessary to establish a soil loss limit or limits for the district and provide for the implementation of the limit or limits, and may subsequently amend or repeal their regulations as they deem necessary. The division shall review the soil loss limit regulations adopted by the soil conservation districts at least once every five years, and shall recommend changes in the regulations of a soil conservation district which the division deems necessary to assure that the district’s soil loss limits are reasonable and attainable. The commissioners may

1 Classify land in the district on the basis of topography, soil characteristics, current use, and other factors affecting propensity to soil erosion

2 Establish different soil loss limits for different classes of land in the district if in their judgment and that of the state soil conservation committee a lower soil loss limit should be applied to some land than can reasonably be applied to other land in the district, it being the intent of the general assembly that no land in the state be assigned a soil loss limit that cannot reasonably be applied to such land

3 Require the owners of real property in the district to employ either soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices, and a May not specify the particular practices to be employed so long as such owners voluntarily comply with the applicable soil loss limits established for the district

b May specify two or more approved soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices, one of which shall be employed by the landowner to bring erosion from land under the landowner's control within the applicable soil loss limit of the district when an administrative order is issued to the landowner.

c. In no case may the commissioners require:

(1) The employment of erosion control practices as defined in section 467A.42, subsection 3, on land used in good faith for agricultural or horticultural purposes only.

(2) The employment of soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices on that portion of any public street, road or highway completed or under construction within the corporate limits of any city, which is or will become the traveled or surfaced portion of such street, road, or highway.

(3) That any owner or operator of agricultural land refrain from fall plowing of land on which the owner or operator intends to raise a crop during the next succeeding growing season, however on those lands which are prone to excessive wind erosion the commissioners may require that reasonable temporary measures be taken to minimize the likelihood of wind erosion so long as such measures do not unduly increase the cost of operation of the farm on which the land is located. However, fall plowing of soil which is commonly known as gumbo shall always be permitted.

d. May require that a person under an order to employ soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices submit up to three bids to the commissioners for the work and provide an explanation to the commissioners if a bid other than the lowest bid has been selected by that person.

467A.45 Submission of regulations to division — hearing.

Regulations which the commissioners propose to adopt, amend, or repeal shall be submitted to the division, in a form prescribed by the division, for its approval. The division may approve the regulations as submitted, or with amendments as it deems necessary.

The commissioners shall, after approval, publish notice of hearing on the proposed regulations, as approved, in a newspaper of general circulation in the district, setting a date and time not less than ten nor more than thirty days after the publication when a hearing on the proposed regulations will be held at a specified place. The notice shall include the full text of the proposed regulations or shall state that the proposed regulations are on file and available for review at the office of the affected soil conservation district.

467A.46 Conduct of hearing.

At the hearing, the commissioners or their designees shall explain, in reasonable detail, the reasons why adoption, amendment, or repeal of the regulations is deemed necessary or advisable. Any landowner, or any occupant of land who would be affected by the regulations, shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard for or against the proposed regulations. At the conclusion of the hearing, the commissioners shall announce and enter of record their decision whether to adopt or modify the proposed regulations. Any modification must be approved by the division, which may at its discretion order the commissioners to republish the regulations and hold another hearing in the manner prescribed by this chapter.

467A.47 Inspection of land on complaint.

The commissioners of any soil conservation district shall inspect or cause to be inspected any land within the district, upon receipt of a written and signed complaint, from an owner or occupant of land being damaged by sediment, that soil erosion is occurring thereon in excess of the limits established by the district's soil erosion control regulations. If they find that sediment damages are occurring to property owned or occupied by the person filing the complaint and that such excess soil erosion is so occurring on the land inspected, they shall issue an administrative order to the landowner or landowners of record, and to the occupant of the land if known to the commissioners, describing said land and stating as nearly as possible the extent to which soil erosion thereon exceeds the limits established by the district's regulations. The order shall be delivered either by personal service or by restricted certified mail to each of the persons to whom it is directed, and shall:

1. In the case of erosion occurring on the site of any construction project or similar undertaking involving the removal of all or a major portion of the vegetation or other cover, exposing bare soil directly to water or wind, state a time not more than five days after service or mailing of the notice of the order when work necessary to establish or maintain erosion control practices must be commenced, and a time not more than thirty days after service or mailing of the notice of the order when the work is to be satisfactorily completed.

2. In all other cases, state a time not more than six months after service or mailing of the notice of the order, by which work needed to establish or maintain the necessary soil and water conservation practices or erosion control measures must be commenced, and a time not more than one year after the service or mailing of the notice of the order when the work is to be satisfactorily completed, unless the requirements of the order are superseded by the provisions of section 467A.48.

467A.48 Application for public cost-sharing funds.

1. An owner or occupant of land in this state is not required to establish any new permanent or temporary soil and water conservation practice unless public or other cost-sharing funds have been specifically approved for that land and actually made available to the owner or occupant. The amount of cost-sharing funds made available shall not exceed seventy-five percent of the estimated cost as established by the commissioners of a permanent soil and water conservation practice, or seventy-five percent of the actual cost, whichever is less, or an amount set by the division for a temporary soil and water conservation practice, except as otherwise provided by law with respect to land

classified as agricultural land under conservation cover. The commissioners shall establish the estimated cost of permanent soil and water conservation practices in the district based upon one and two-tenths of the average cost of the practices installed in the district during the previous year. The average costs shall be reviewed and approved by the commissioners each calendar year.

2. The division shall review these requirements once each year, and may authorize soil conservation district commissioners to make the mandatory establishment of any specified soil and water conservation practice in any particular case conditional on a higher proportion of public cost-sharing than is required by this section. When the commissioners have been so authorized, they shall, in determining the amount of cost-sharing for establishment of a specified soil and water conservation practice to comply with an administrative order issued pursuant to section 467A.47, consider the extent to which the practice will contribute benefits to the public in relation to the benefits that will accrue to the individual owner or occupant of the land on which the practice is to be established.

Evidence that an application for public or other cost-sharing funds, from a source or sources having authority to pay a portion of the cost of work needed to comply with an administrative order issued pursuant to section 467A.47, has been submitted to the proper officer or agency constitutes commencement of the work within the meaning of sections 467A.43 through 467A.53.

3. Upon receiving evidence of the submission of an application, the commissioners shall forward to the officer or agency to which the application was made a written request to receive notification of the disposition of the application. When notified of the approval of the application, the commissioners shall issue to the same parties who received the original application, or their successors in interest, a supplementary order, to be delivered in the same manner as provided by sections 467A.43 to 467A.53 for delivery of original administrative orders. The supplementary order shall state a time, not more than six months after approval of the application for public cost-sharing funds, by which the work needed to comply with the original administrative order shall actually be commenced, and a time thereafter when the work is to be satisfactorily completed. If feasible, that time shall be within one year after the date of the supplementary order, but the owner of land on which a soil and water conservation practice is being established under this section is not required to incur a cost for the practice in any one calendar year which exceeds ten dollars per acre for each acre of land belonging to that owner and located in the county containing the land on which the required practice is being established or in counties contiguous to that county.

467A.49 Petition for court order.

The commissioners shall petition the district court for a court order requiring immediate compliance with an administrative order previously issued by the commissioners as provided in section 467A.47, if:

1. The work necessary to comply with the administrative order is not commenced on or before the date specified in such order, or in any supplementary order subsequently issued as provided in section 467A.48, unless in the judgment of the commissioners the failure to commence or complete the work as required by the administrative order is due to factors beyond the control of the person or persons to whom such order is directed and the person or persons can be relied upon to commence and complete the necessary work at the earliest possible time.

2. Such work is not being performed with due diligence, or is not satisfactorily completed by the date specified in the administrative order, or when completed does not reduce soil erosion from such land below the limits established by the soil conservation district’s regulations.

3. The person or persons to whom the administrative order is directed advise the commissioners that they do not intend to commence or complete such work.

467A.50 Burden — court order.

In any action brought under section 467A.49, the burden of proof shall be upon the commissioners to show that soil erosion is in fact occurring in excess of the applicable soil loss limits and that the defendant has not established or maintained soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices in compliance with the soil conservation district’s regulations. With respect to construction, repair, or maintenance of any public street, road, or highway, evidence that soil erosion control standards equivalent to or in excess of those currently imposed by the United States government on the project or like projects involving use of federal funds shall create a presumption of compliance with the applicable soil loss limit. Upon receiving satisfactory proof, the court shall issue an order directing the landowner or landowners to comply with the administrative order previously issued by the commissioners. The court may modify such administrative order if deemed necessary. Notice of the court order shall be given either by personal service or by restricted certified mail to each of the persons to whom the order is directed, who may within thirty days from the date of the court order appeal to the supreme court. Any person who fails to comply with a court order issued pursuant to this section within the time specified in such order, unless the order has been stayed pending an appeal, shall be deemed in contempt of court and may be punished accordingly.

467A.51 Entering on land.

The commissioners and their authorized agents or employees may enter upon any private or public property, except private dwellings, at any reasonable time to classify land by soil sampling or other appropriate methods or to determine whether soil erosion is occurring on the property in violation of the district’s regulations.

1. If the owner or occupant of any property refuses admittance, or if prior to such refusal the commissioners demonstrate the need for a warrant, the commissioners may make an application under oath or affirmation to the district court of the county in which the property is located for the issuance of a search warrant.

2. In the application the commissioners shall state that entry on the premises is mandated by the laws of this state or that entry is needed to conduct soil sampling necessary to classify soil in the district as specified in section 467A.44, subsection 1, or to determine whether soil erosion is occurring on the property in violation of the district's regulations. The application shall describe the area or premises, give the date of the last known investigation or sampling, give the date and time of the proposed inspection, declare the need for such inspection, recite that notice of desire to make an inspection has been given to affected persons and that admission was refused if that be the fact, and state that the inspection has no purpose other than to carry out the purpose of the statute, ordinance or regulation pursuant to which the inspection is to be made.

3. The court may issue a search warrant, after examination of the applicant and any witnesses, if the court is satisfied that there is probable cause to believe the existence of the allegations in the application.

4. In soil sampling and making investigations pursuant to a warrant, the commissioners must execute the warrant in a reasonable manner within the time period specified in the warrant.

467A.53 Co-operation with other agencies.

Soil conservation districts are hereby authorized to enter into agreements with the federal government or any agency thereof, as provided by state law, or with the state of Iowa or any agency thereof, any other soil conservation district or water resource district, or other political subdivision of this state, for co-operation in preventing, controlling, or attempting to prevent or control, soil erosion. Soil conservation districts may accept, as provided by state law, any money disbursed for soil erosion control purposes by the federal government or any agency thereof, and expend such money for the purposes for which it was received.

467A.54 State agency conservation plans — exemptions.

Each state agency shall enter into an agreement with the soil conservation district in which the state agency has public land under its control in cultivation. The agreement shall contain a plan of the state agency to prevent soil erosion in excess of soil loss limits by the use of soil and water conservation practices and erosion control practices. This section applies to all public land which is used for horticultural or agricultural purposes. State soil conservation cost-sharing funds shall not be used on these public lands. Conservation plans required by this section shall be completed by July 1, 1986, and implementation shall occur consistent with the schedule contained in the conservation plan. Application for exemption from this section may be submitted to the appropriate soil conservation district. The exemption shall be granted for land upon which soil management research for the purposes of the study, evaluation, understanding and control of erosion, sedimentation and run-off water is conducted by or in conjunction with institutions governed by the board of regents.

85 Acts, ch 133, §1

467A.55 to 467A.60 Reserved.

467A.61 Discretionary inspection by commissioners — actions upon certain findings.

1. In addition to the authority granted by section 467A.47, the commissioners of any soil conservation district may inspect or cause to be inspected any land within the district on which they have reasonable grounds to believe that soil erosion is occurring in excess of the limits established by the district's soil erosion control regulations. If the commissioners find from an inspection conducted under authority of either section 467A.47 or this section that soil erosion is occurring on that land in excess of the applicable soil loss limits established by the district's soil erosion control regulations, they shall send notice of that finding to the landowner or landowners of record, and to the occupant of the land if known to the commissioners. The notice shall describe the land affected and shall state as nearly as possible the extent to which soil erosion from that land exceeds the applicable soil loss limits.

a. If the commissioners find that the excessive erosion described in the notice is not causing sediment damage to property owned or occupied by any person other than the owner or occupant of the land on which the excessive soil erosion is occurring, and that the rate of the excessive erosion is less than twice the applicable soil loss limit, the notice required by this subsection shall include or be accompanied by information regarding financial or other assistance which the commissioners are able to make available to the owner or occupant of the land to aid in achieving compliance with the applicable soil loss limits.

b. If the commissioners find that the excessive soil erosion described in the notice is not causing sediment damage to property owned or occupied by any person other than the owner or occupant of the land on which it is occurring, but that the erosion is occurring at a rate equal to or greater than twice the applicable soil loss limit, the notice shall so state, shall include or be accompanied by the information required by paragraph "a" of this subsection, and shall be delivered by personal service or by restricted certified mail to each of the persons to whom the notice is directed. A notice given under this paragraph shall also include or be accompanied by information explaining the provisions of subsection 2.

2. Beginning January 1, 1985, or five years after the completion of the conservation folder for a particular farm unit pursuant to this section, whichever date is later, the commissioners of the soil conservation district in which that farm unit is located may petition the district court for an appropriate order with respect to that farm unit if its owner or occupant has been sent a notice by the commissioners under subsection 1, paragraph "b" for three or more consecutive years. The commissioners' petition shall seek a court order which states a time not more than six months after the date... of the order when the owner or occupant must commence, and a time when the owner or occupant must complete the steps necessary to comply with the order. The time allowed to complete the establishment of any temporary soil and water conservation practice employed to comply or advance toward compliance with the court's order shall be not more than one year after the date of that order, and the time allowed to complete the establishment of any permanent soil and water conservation practice employed to comply with the court's order shall be not more than five years after the date of that order. The provisions of section 467A.48 shall apply to a court order issued under this subsection. The steps required of the farm unit owner or operator by the court order shall be those which are necessary to do one of the following:

a. Bring the farm unit which is the subject of the order into compliance with its farm unit soil conservation plan, if such a plan had been agreed upon prior to the time the commissioners petitioned for the order.

b. Bring the farm unit which is the subject of the order into compliance with a plan developed for that farm unit by the commissioners, in accordance with guidelines established by the division of soil conservation, and presented to the court as a part of the commissioners' petition, if a farm unit soil conservation plan has not previously been agreed upon for that farm unit. A plan presented to the court by the commissioners under this paragraph shall specify as many alternative approved soil and water conservation practices as feasible, among which the owner or occupant of the farm unit may choose in taking the steps necessary to comply with the court's order.

c. Bring the farm unit which is the subject of the order into compliance with a soil conservation plan developed by the owner or occupant of that farm unit as an alternative to the proposed soil conservation plan developed by the commissioners, if the owner or occupant so petitions the court and the court finds that the owner or occupant's plan will bring the farm unit into conformity with the applicable soil loss limits of the district.

3. The commissioners may also cause an inspection of land within the district on which they have reasonable grounds to believe that a permanent soil and water conservation practice established with public cost-sharing funds is not being properly maintained or is being altered in violation of section 467A.7, subsection 16. If the commissioners find that the practices are not being maintained or have been altered in violation of section 467A.7, subsection 16, the commissioners shall issue an administrative order to the landowner who made the unauthorized removal, alteration or modification to maintain, repair, or reconstruct the permanent soil and water conservation practices. The requirement for maintenance and repair is for the length of life as defined in section 467A.7, subsection 16. Public cost-sharing funds are not available for the work under this order. If the landowner fails to comply with the administrative order, the commissioners may petition the district court for an order compelling compliance with the order. Upon receiving satisfactory proof, the court shall issue an order directing compliance with the administrative order and may modify the administrative order. The provisions of section 467A.50 relating to notice, appeals and contempt of court shall apply to proceedings under this subsection.

467A.62 Duties of commissioners and of owners and occupants of agricultural land — restrictions on use of cost-sharing funds.

The commissioners of each soil conservation district shall seek to implement or to assist in implementing the following requirements:

1. Each farm unit shall be furnished a conservation folder complying with the rules of the department by the soil conservation district in which the farm unit is located, not later than January 1, 1985, or as soon thereafter as adequate funding is available to permit completion of a conservation folder for every farm unit in the state. Technical assistance in the development of the conservation folder may be provided by the United States department of agriculture soil conservation service through the memorandum of understanding with the district or by the department. The department shall provide by rule that an updated farm plan prepared for a particular farm unit within ten years prior to the effective date of this subsection shall be considered an adequate replacement for the conservation folder for that farm unit. Upon completion of the conservation folder for a particular farm unit, the district shall send the owner of that farm unit, and also the operator of the farm unit if known by the commissioners to be other than the owner, a letter offering that person or those persons a copy of the folder. The district shall keep a record of the date the folder is completed and the letter is sent. The folder shall be updated from time to time by the district as it deems necessary.

2. The commissioners of each soil conservation district shall complete preparation of a farm unit soil conservation plan for each farm unit within the district, not later than January 1, 1985 or five years after completion of the conservation folder for that farm unit, whichever date is later, or as soon thereafter as adequate funding is available to permit compliance with this requirement. Technical assistance in the development of the farm unit soil conservation plan may be provided by the United States department of agriculture soil conservation service through the memorandum of understanding with the district or by the department. The commissioners shall make every reasonable effort to consult with the owner and, if appropriate, with the operator of that farm unit, and to prepare the plan in a form which is acceptable to that person or those persons. The plan shall be drawn up and completed without expense to the owner or operator of the farm unit, except that the owner or operator shall not be reimbursed for the value of the owner's or occupant's own time devoted to participation in the preparation of the plan. If the commissioners' plan is unacceptable to the owner or operator of the farm unit, that person or those persons may prepare an alternative farm unit soil conservation plan identifying permanent or temporary soil and water conservation practices which may be expected to achieve compliance with the soil loss limit or limits applicable to that farm unit, and submit that plan to the soil conservation district commissioners for their review.

3. Within one year after completion of a farm unit soil conservation plan for a particular farm unit which is acceptable both to the commissioners of the soil conservation district within which the farm unit is located and to the owner and, if appropriate, to the operator of that farm unit, the commissioners shall offer to enter into a soil conservation agreement with the owner, and also with the operator if appropriate, based on the mutually acceptable farm unit soil conservation plan.

467A.63 Right of purchaser of agricultural land to obtain information.

A prospective purchaser of an interest in agricultural land located in this state is entitled to obtain from the seller, or from the office of the soil conservation district in which the land is located, a copy of the most recently updated conservation folder and of any farm unit soil conservation plan, developed pursuant to section 467A.62, subsection 2, which are applicable to the agricultural land proposed to be purchased. A prospective purchaser of an interest in agricultural land located in this state shall be entitled to obtain additional copies of either or both of the documents referred to in this subsection from the office of the soil conservation district in which the land is located, promptly upon request, at a fee not to exceed the cost of reproducing them. All persons who identify themselves to the commissioners or staff of a soil conservation district in which the land is located shall be given information, prepared in accordance with rules of the department, which clearly explains the provisions of section 467A.65.

[C81, §467A.63] 467A.63 Amend Ch 23, §40—67 Acts

467A.64 Erosion control plans required for certain projects.

1. If a political subdivision has adopted a sediment control ordinance which the commissioners and the political subdivision jointly agree is at least as equally effective as the commissioners' rules in preventing erosion from exceeding the established soil loss limits, the commissioners and the political subdivision shall execute an agreement under chapter 28E allowing an agency authorized by the political subdivision to receive and file an affidavit from a person, prior to initiating a land disturbing activity in that subdivision, stating that the proposed activity will not exceed the established soil loss limits. A copy of the affidavit shall be mailed to the district as a part of the terms of the agreement. The affidavit shall be in a form prescribed by the department and made available by the district.

2. Prior to initiating a land disturbing activity in a political subdivision which has not adopted sediment control ordinances as described in subsection 1, a person engaged in the land disturbing activity shall file a signed affidavit with the soil conservation district that the project will not exceed the soil loss limits. The affidavit shall be in a form prescribed by the department and made available by the district.

3. For the purposes of this section, "land disturbing activity" means a land change such as the tilling, clearing, grading, excavating, transporting or filling of land which may result in soil erosion from water or wind and the movement of sediment and sediment related pollutants into the waters of the state or onto lands in the state but does not include the following:

a. Tilling, planting or harvesting of agricultural, horticultural or forest crops.

b. Preparation for single-family residences separately built unless in conjunction with multiple construction in subdivision development.

c. Minor activities such as home gardens, landscaping, repairs and maintenance work.

d. Surface or deep mining.

e. Installation of public utility lines and connections, fence posts, sign posts, telephone poles, electric poles and other kinds of posts or poles.

f. Septic tanks and drainage fields unless they are to serve a building whose construction is a land disturbing activity.

g. Construction and repair of the tracks, right of way, bridges, communication facilities and other related structures of a railroad.

h. Emergency work to protect life or property.

i. Disturbed land areas of less than twenty-five thousand square feet unless a political subdivision by ordinance establishes a smaller exception or establishes conditions for this exception.

j. The construction, relocation, alteration or maintenance of public roads by a public body.

4. If the agency authorized under subsection 1 determines that a land disturbing activity is not being conducted in compliance with the soil loss limits, it shall file a written and signed complaint with the soil conservation district commissioners. The complaint shall have the same effect and validity as a complaint filed by an owner or occupant of land being damaged by sediment pursuant to section 467A.47. If the affidavit is filed by the district or the political subdivision, the commissioners may proceed on their own complaint. The soil conservation district commissioners may issue an administrative order as provided in that section to the person conducting the land disturbing activity.

467A.65 Cost sharing for certain lands restricted.

1. It is the intent of this Act* that, effective January 1, 1981, each tract of agricultural land which has not been plowed or used for growing row crops at any time within fifteen years prior to that date, shall for purposes of this section be considered classified as agricultural land under conservation cover. If any tract of land so classified is thereafter plowed or used for growing row crops, the commissioners of the soil conservation district in which the land is located shall not approve use of state cost-sharing funds for establishing permanent or temporary soil and water conservation practices on that tract of land in an amount greater than one-half the amount of cost-sharing funds which would be available for that land if it were not considered classified as agricultural land under conservation cover. The restriction imposed by this section shall apply even if an administrative order or court order has been issued requiring establishment of soil and water conservation practices on that land. The commissioners may waive the restriction imposed by this section if they determine in advance that the purpose of plowing or row cropping land classified as land under conservation cover is to revitalize permanent pasture and that the land will revert to permanent pasture within two years after it is plowed

2 When receiving an application for state cost-sharing funds to pay a part of the cost of establishing a permanent or temporary soil and water conservation practice, the commissioners of the soil conservation district to which the application is submitted shall require the applicant to write whether, to the best of the applicant's knowledge, the land on which the proposed practice will be established is land considered to be classified as agricultural land under conservation cover, as defined in subsection 1. An applicant who knowingly makes a false statement of material facts or who falsely denies knowledge of material facts in completing the written statement required by this subsection commits a simple misdemeanor and, in addition to the penalty prescribed therefore by law, shall be required to repay to the department any cost-sharing funds made available to the applicant in reliance on the false statement or false denial.

§467A.66 Procedure when commissioner is complainant.

A soil conservation district commissioner who is an owner or occupant of land being damaged by sediment has the same right as any other person in like circumstances to file a complaint under section 467A 47, how ever a commissioner who is the complainant shall not vote on the question whether, on the basis of the inspection made pursuant to the complaint, the commissioners shall issue an administrative order under section 467A 47.

§467A.71 Conservation practices revolving loan fund.

1 The division may establish a conservation practices revolving loan fund composed of any money appropriated by the general assembly for that purpose, and of any other moneys available to and obtained or accepted by the committee from the federal government or private sources for placement in that fund. Except as otherwise provided by subsection 3, the assets of the conservation practices revolving loan fund shall be used only to make loans directly to owners of land in this state for the purpose of establishing on that land any new permanent soil and water conservation practice in which the commissioners of the soil conservation district in which the land is located have found is necessary or advisable to meet the soil loss limits established for that land. A loan shall not be made for establishing a permanent soil and water conservation practice on land that is subject to the restriction on state cost-sharing funds of section 467A 65. Revolving loan funds and public cost-sharing funds shall not be used in combination for funding a particular soil and water conservation practice. Each loan made under this section shall be for a period not to exceed ten years, shall bear no interest, and shall be repayable to the conservation practices revolving loan fund in equal yearly installments due March 1 of each year the loan is in effect. The interest rate upon loans for which payment is delinquent shall accelerate immediately to the current legal usury limit. Applicants are eligible for no more than ten thousand dollars in loans outstanding at any time under this program.

"Permanent soil and water conservation practices" has the same meaning as defined in section 467A 42 and those established under this program are subject to the requirements of section 467A 7, subsection 16. Loans made under this program shall come due for payment upon sale of the land on which those practices are established.

2 The general assembly finds and declares the following.

a The erosion of topsoil on agricultural land by wind and water is a serious problem within the state and one which threatens to destroy the natural resource most responsible for Iowa's prosperity.

b It is necessary to the preservation of the economy and well being of the state to encourage soil conservation practices by providing loans for permanent soil and water conservation practices on agricultural land within the state.

c The use of state funds for the conservation practices revolving loan fund established under subsection 1 is in the public interest, and the purposes of this section are public purposes and uses for which public moneys may be borrowed, expended, advanced, loaned, or granted.

3 The division may a Contract, sue and be sued, and promulgate administrative rules necessary to carry out the provisions of this section, but the committee shall not in any manner directly or indirectly pledge the credit of the state of Iowa.

b Authorize payment from the conservation practices revolving loan fund, from fees and from any income received by investments of money in the fund for costs, commissions, attorney fees and other reasonable expenses related to and necessary for making and protecting direct loans under this section, and for the recovery of moneys loaned or the management of property acquired in connection with such loans.

4 This section does not negate the provisions of section 467A 48 that an owner or occupant of land in this state shall not be required to establish any new soil and water conservation practice unless public cost-sharing funds have been approved and are available for the land affected. However, the owner of land with respect to which an administrative order to establish soil and water conservation practices has been issued under section 467A 47 but not complied with for lack of public cost-sharing funds, may waive the right to await availability of such funds and instead apply for a loan under this section to establish any permanent soil and water conservation practices necessary to comply with the order. If a landowner does so, the loan application shall be given reasonable preference by the state soil conservation committee if there are applications for more loans under this section than can be made from the money available in the conservation practices revolving loan fund. If it is found necessary to deny an application for a soil and water conservation practices loan to a landowner who has waived the right to availability of public cost-sharing funds before complying with an administrative order issued under section 467A.47, the landowner's waiver is void.

467A.72 through 467A.74 Reserved.

467A.75 Financial incentive for soil conservation on forest lands.

1. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:
   a. "Forest" means stands of native or introduced trees containing at least two hundred trees per acre on privately owned land. However, fruit trees are not forest.
   b. "Professional forester" means a forestry graduate of an institution of higher learning and having a minimum of two years forest management experience.
   c. "State forester" means the person employed by the department of natural resources as required by section 107.13.

2. The department may reimburse private landowners for a portion of the cost of fencing materials and installation for permanent fence used to protect forest land from domestic livestock grazing from state cost-sharing funds if the grazing has been determined to cause excessive soil loss. Total department expenditures shall not exceed fifty percent of total landowner expenditures. Expenditures for boundary and road fence construction and for repair and replacement of existing fence are not eligible for reimbursement unless the complete fence is replaced.

3. As a condition for receiving reimbursement, landowners shall sign an agreement to maintain the fence for a minimum of ten years and shall follow written professional forester recommendations approved by the state forester or that person's designee on the tract to be protected by fencing.

4. Recipient landowners found to be in noncompliance with the maintenance agreement shall maintain, repair, or reconstruct damaged fence, or shall pay the department an amount equal to that reimbursed.

5. The department shall adopt, by rule, the form and informational requirements for reimbursement, the minimum forest acreage, and any limitation on the maximum reimbursement an individual landowner may receive. For the purposes of this section, forests shall be considered as agricultural land eligible for public cost-sharing funds.

SOIL CONSERVATION AND FLOOD CONTROL DISTRICTS

467C.1 Presumption of benefit.
The conservation of the soil resources of the state of Iowa, the proper control of water resources of the state and the prevention of damage to property and lands through the control of floods, the drainage of surface waters or the protection of lands from overflow shall be presumed to be a public benefit and conducive to the public health, convenience and welfare and essential to the economic well-being of the state.

467C.2 Board of supervisors to establish districts — strip coal mining.

The board of supervisors of any county shall have jurisdiction, power and authority at any regular, special or adjourned session to establish, subject to the provisions of this chapter, districts having for their purpose soil conservation and the control of flood waters and to cause to be constructed as hereinafter provided, such improvements and facilities as shall be deemed essential for the accomplishment of the purpose of soil conservation and flood control. Such board shall also have jurisdiction, power and authority at any regular, special or adjourned session to establish, in the same manner that the districts hereinabove referred to are established, districts having for their purpose soil conservation in mining areas within the county, and provide that anyone engaged in removing the surface soil over any bed or strata of coal in such district for the purpose of obtaining such coal shall replace the surface soil as nearly as practicable to its original position, and provide that, upon abandon­ment of such removal operation, all surface soil shall be so replaced. This section shall apply only to surface soil so removed after July 4, 1949, and then only if it is essential for the accomplishment of the purpose of soil conservation and flood control within the purview of this chapter.

467C.4 Old districts combined.
If any levee or drainage district or improvement established either by legal proceedings or by private parties shall desire to include in the activities of such district soil conservation or flood control projects, the board upon petition, as for the establishment of an original levee or drainage district, shall establish a new district covering and including such old district and improvement together with any additional lands deemed necessary. All outstanding indebtedness of the old levee or drainage district shall be assessed only against the lands included therein.

467C.5 Approval of commissioners.
A district shall not be established by any board of supervisors under this chapter unless the organization of the district is approved by the commissioners of any soil conservation district established under the provi­sions of chapter 467A and which is included all or in part within the district, nor shall any such district be established without the approval of the state conserva­tion commission and the department of water, air and waste management.

467C.6 Chapters made applicable.
In the organization, operation and financing of districts established under this chapter, the provisions of chapters 455 and 456 to 467 shall apply.

Wherever any of the provisions of said chapters refer to the word "drainage", the word shall be deemed to include in its meaning soil erosion and flood control or any combination of drainage, flood control and soil erosion control. The term "drainage district" shall be considered to include districts having as their purpose soil conservancy or flood control or any combination thereof, and the words "drainage certificates" or "drainage bonds" shall be deemed to include certificates or bonds issued in behalf of any district organized under the provisions of this chapter; and any procedure provided by these chapters in connection with the organization, financing and operation of any drainage district shall be applicable to the organization, financing and operation of districts organized under this chapter.

467D.1 Policy.

It is hereby declared to be the policy of the state of Iowa and the objectives of this chapter to preserve and protect the public interest in the soil and water resources of this state for future generations, and for this purpose to encourage, promote, facilitate, and where such public interest requires, to mandate the conservation and proper control and use of the soil and water resources of this state, by measures including but not limited to the control of floods, the control of erosion by water or by wind, the preservation of the quantity and quality of water for its optimum use for agricultural, irrigation, recreational, industrial, and domestic purposes, all of which shall be presumed conducive to the public health, convenience and welfare, both present and prospective.

467D.2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:
1. "Water resource district" means one of the six water resource districts established by section 467D 3.
2. "Board" means the body designated by section 467D 4 to administer each of the water resource districts.
3. "Internal improvement" includes, but it is not limited to, dams or other water impoundment structures, levees, ditches, or other artificial watercourses, tile lines, or any other physical structure constructed or improved by a water resource district in furtherance of the objectives of this chapter.
4. "Division" means the division of soil conservation established within the department of agriculture and land stewardship.
5. "Committee" or "state soil conservation committee" means the committee established by section 467A 4.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §467D 2, 82 Acts, ch 1199, §76, 96, 86 Acts, ch 1238, §41, 61, 86 Acts, ch 1245, §662, 663]

467D.3 Districts established.*

In furtherance of the policy set forth in section 467D 1, the entire area of the state of Iowa shall be divided into six water resource districts, and the same are hereby established as political subdivisions of the state of Iowa, as follows:
1. The northeast Iowa water resource district shall include all of Allamakee, Winneshiek, Howard, Fayette, Clayton, Delaware, Dubuque, Jackson, and Clinton counties, and the designated portions of each of the following counties.

467D.4 Governing body.
   The governing body of each water resource district shall be one of the following
   1 The state soil conservation committee established by section 467A 4
   2 A board of not less than five nor more than nine members elected from water resource district wards established under section 467D 5 Water resource district board members so elected shall be reimbursed for travel and other actual and necessary expenses incurred in performing their duties. The member of the state soil conservation committee appointed from that water resource district is an ex officio nonvoting member of the district board of directors

86 Acts, ch 1238, §61

467D.5 Election of water resource district board.
   1 The state soil conservation committee acting in its capacity as a water resource district board may propose division of a water resource district, currently being governed by the state soil conservation committee under subsection 1 of section 467D 4, into not less than five nor more than nine wards. Ward boundaries shall coincide with county boundaries, except that each ward shall be entirely within the water resource district of which it is a part. Each ward shall be com posed of contiguous territory and shall be drawn with equality of population as an objective, insofar as that objective can reasonably be implemented while meeting the other requirements of this subsection. The division of a water resource district into wards shall not become effective until it is approved by the soil conservation districts located entirely or partially within the water resource district casting a majority of the total votes of the soil conservation districts in the water resource district. For the purpose of this subsection each soil conservation district that is entirely within the water resource district shall cast one vote and each soil conservation district that is partially within the water resource district shall cast a fractional vote that is equal to the percentage of the soil conservation district's area that is in the water resource district.

2 The board of directors of a water resource district which has been divided into wards under subsection 1 shall consist of one director from each ward so established, who shall be elected as provided by subsection 3 Each director shall serve a term of three years beginning on the first day of January, following that director's election, which is not a Sunday or a holiday. When a proposal for establishment of wards in a water resource district has been approved by the state soil conservation committee, the members of the first elected board shall be chosen as provided by subsection 3 except that the election shall be held not more than one hundred eighty days after the date of approval of the proposal for establishment of wards. The first elected board of directors shall take office on a day specified by the state soil conservation committee, which shall be not more than thirty days after election of the directors is completed. Upon taking office, the first elected board shall divide itself by lot into three classes as nearly equal in size as possible. Thereafter, successors to members of the first class shall be elected in the first succeeding calendar year, successors to members of the second class shall be elected in the second succeeding calendar year, and successors to members of the third class shall be elected in the third succeeding calendar year after the year in which the first elected board takes office.

3 Each member of a water resource district board of directors shall be elected at a ward convention at the behest of delegates chosen by and from among the commissioners of the respective soil conservation districts located entirely or partially within that ward.

a A convention shall be held for each ward not earlier than October 1 nor later than November 30 of each year in which a director is to be elected from that ward. Each ward convention shall be called and its location shall be determined by the board of directors of the water resource district of which the ward is a part. The conventions shall be held within the boundaries of the respective wards, and may be held in conjunction with other meetings attended by soil conservation district commissioners where doing so will avoid or reduce expense for travel and for use of convention sites. Notice of the time, date and place of a ward convention shall be published by the water resource district board of directors, at least thirty days prior to the convention date, in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the ward. The cost of publication shall be paid by the water resource district.

b The commissioners of each separate soil conservation district located entirely or partially within a water resource district ward shall jointly cast a single, weighted vote for director of the water resource district from that ward. The weight of the vote cast by the commissioners of each soil conservation district shall be based upon the ratio that the population of the soil conservation district, or portion of the district, bears to that of the entire ward. The population of each soil conservation district, or portion of a district, shall be certified by the division of soil conservation.

c A candidate for election to the water resource district board from a ward may file a statement of candidacy with the secretary of the water resource district board at least ten days before the date of that ward's convention. The statement of candidacy shall state the candidate's name and address and shall indicate the soil conservation district within which the candidate resides. The list of candidates in each ward where an election is to occur shall be sent by ordinary mail to the commissioners of each soil conservation district located entirely or partially within the ward, immediately after the last day for filing. The filing of a statement of candidacy shall not be a prerequisite for election as a water resource district director. A delegate to a ward convention shall not be bound by the soil conservation district commissioners to pledge the delegate's vote to any candidate prior to the date of the convention.

4 Any eligible elector as defined in section 393 residing in a water resource district ward is eligible to be elected to represent that ward on the board. A water resource district board member need not be a soil conservation district commissioner, but the same individual may hold both offices concurrently. A person shall be elected to the board for no more than two consecutive terms. A vacancy is created when a member of the board removes the member's residence from the ward the member was elected to represent. A vacancy shall be filled by appointment of the state soil conservation committee from a list of nominees submitted by the remaining members of the board, for the period until the next regular election under subsection 3. At that election, a board member shall be elected for the remaining balance of the unexpired term.

467D.6 Powers and duties of board.

The board of each water resource district shall:

1 Exercise supervision over the water resources of the water resource district, including water in any basin, watercourse, or other body of water in the water resource district, and may adopt and repeal, with approval of the department, and enforce rules, except those rules relating to water resources under the authority of the department of natural resources, as necessary to achieve the objectives of this chapter as set forth in section 467D.1.

2 Have authority to employ, appoint, or retain attorneys, engineers, other professional and technical employees, and such other personnel as are deemed necessary, and approve bonds of water resource district employees.

3 Prepare, adopt, and implement a plan, and review and revise the same, in the manner prescribed by this chapter.
4 Encourage, foster, and promote establishment, enlargement, or consolidation of drainage, levee, soil conservation, flood control, and sanitation districts where desirable, provided that this subsection shall not be construed to vest the board with authority to directly establish, enlarge, or consolidate any such district by any procedure not otherwise prescribed by law
5 Review the plans and co-ordinate the programs and activities between counties, cities and any of the entities listed in subsection 4 of this section, and otherwise advise and assist the governing bodies of such entities in any appropriate manner, in all cases which relate to any matter within the jurisdiction of the water resource district, provided that the board shall have only advisory and consultative powers with respect to any such entities except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter 6 Have authority to enter into binding agreements, with respect to any matter within the jurisdiction of the water resource district, with a Any person, firm, corporation or association, the state of Iowa, or any of its political subdivisions
b The federal government, or any of the agencies thereof
c Other states or agencies or subdivisions thereof comparable in purpose to the district, provided all such agreements are entered into jointly with the department in accordance with other provisions of law
7 Have authority to expend funds outside the state of Iowa, or in adjoining water resource districts, pursuant to agreements made under subsection 6 of this section, where necessary in order to more effectively or efficiently achieve the objectives of this chapter, and to receive funds from other states for expenditure in Iowa, or from other water resource districts for expenditure in the district receiving such funds
8 Have authority to acquire by gift, lease, purchase, grant, or inheritance any property, real or personal, in fee or a lesser interest, needed to achieve the objectives of this chapter, and to sell and convey property owned but no longer needed by the water resource district. The board shall also have authority to acquire by condemnation proceedings any real property, in fee or a lesser interest, needed to achieve the objectives of this chapter, but no condemnation proceedings shall be instituted by the board less than fifteen days after a letter has been sent by restricted certified mail to the owner or owners of the property sought, setting forth in detail the reasons why the property is needed and the board's best offer for the property
9 Construct, operate, maintain, repair, enlarge, and make such internal improvements as are necessary to implement the water resource district's overall plan
10 Have authority to sue and be sued in the name of the water resource district, and bring action to abate soil erosion nuisances in the manner prescribed by section 467D 23
11 Maintain at its office a record of all the water resource district's proceedings, rules and orders, and furnish copies of them to the department and the department of natural resources upon request
12 Establish, administer and direct various advisory committees as authorized by this chapter 13 Whenever the name of the board member is required to be placed on any public document, the name of the person appointed or elected to serve as both a board secretary and a board treasurer, or as the treasurer for two or more water resource districts. A person appointed by the committee as secretary or treasurer of one or more water resource districts, who is not otherwise employed by the state or any of its political subdivisions, shall receive compensation as the committee determines 467D.8 Administration of water resource districts by elected board.

1 The board of each water resource district which is administered by an elected board shall hold an annual meeting in January and shall meet at least once each quarter. The chairperson of the board shall schedule a special meeting within five days on the request of any two board members. An action of the board requires the affirmative votes of at least a majority of the elected members.
2 At the first meeting after election of the initial board, at the annual meeting in the following calendar year, and at each succeeding annual meeting, the board shall organize by electing a chairperson and a vice chairperson. Upon completing its organization, the initial elected board of a water resource district shall notify the state soil conservation committee in writing. The committee shall transfer the powers, duties and records of the board of that water resource district to the elected board within thirty days after receiving the notice.
3 At its first meeting after election of the initial board pursuant to section 467D 5, and at each succeeding annual meeting, the board of each water resource district administered by an elected board shall appoint a secretary and a treasurer for the water resource district. However, a person shall not simultaneously serve as both a board secretary and a board treasurer, either for the same water resource district or for different water resource districts. The secretary and treasurer may be either full-time or part-time employees of the water resource district, at the board's discretion. The secretary and the treasurer shall each qualify by filing with the board, within ten days after being appointed, a bond in an amount designated by the board, but not less than one thousand dollars, conditioned on the faithful performance of their respective duties. The reasonable cost of the secretary's and the treasurer's bonds may be paid from the funds of the water resource district.

§467D.10 Duties.

The secretary of each water resource district shall:
1. Keep a complete record of the proceedings at each meeting of the board.
2. File and preserve copies of all rules promulgated and all orders adopted by the board, and of all correspondence and other papers transmitted to the secretary pertaining to the business of the water resource district.
3. Keep an accurate account of the water resource district’s funds with the treasurer, charge the treasurer with all warrants and drafts drawn in the treasurer’s favor, and credit the treasurer with all orders drawn on the water resource district’s funds.
4. Keep an accurate account of all expenses incurred by the water resource district, and present all claims to the board for audit and payment.
5. Perform other duties as directed by the board.

§467D.16 Plan — priorities — aid.

The board shall prepare a plan for accomplishment of the objectives of this chapter within the water resource district. For this purpose the board may request and shall obtain from any state agency or political subdivision information which the agency or subdivision has already collected which is pertinent to preparation of the plan, shall consult with soil conservation district commissioners, and may conduct hearings it deems necessary. The plan shall establish an order of priorities for carrying out projects necessary to accomplish the objectives of this chapter, shall conform as nearly as practicable to the comprehensive water allocation plan established by the department of natural resources pursuant to section 455B.263 and shall reflect the following general policies:

1. First consideration shall be given to work needed at or near the source of the streams in the district, and on or along the tributaries thereto, to the greatest extent practicable.
2. Water resource district funds shall not be expended for functions or improvements which are:
   a. The responsibility of other political subdivisions and are within their abilities, reasonable consideration being given to their other duties and obligations.
   b. Constructed or implemented, or planned for construction or implementation, on one or more tracts of privately owned land and primarily benefit those lands rather than other lands in the water resource district.

§467D.17 Plan presented to division, department of natural resources, and soil conservation districts.

The board shall tentatively adopt the plan by resolution and shall present the plan to the division and the department of natural resources for review. The department of natural resources shall within ninety days review the plan as presented and make recommendations it deems necessary to bring the water resource district’s plan into conformity with the comprehensive water allocation plan established pursuant to section 455B.263. The recommendations of the department of natural resources shall be submitted to the board for incorporation into the plan. The plan shall then be submitted to the soil conservation districts located entirely or partially within the water resource district. The soil conservation districts shall review, comment and record a vote within ninety days indicating their support of or opposition to the plan in the same manner provided in section 467D.5, subsection 1. The division shall inform the soil conservation districts of the votes of the districts within the water resource district. The division shall review the plan as presented, give consideration to the comments and votes of the soil conservation districts, give final approval or disapproval of the plan within ninety days, and provide a written statement detailing the basis of its decision.

A subsequent major change in the plan, as determined by the water resource board, is not effective until approved by the process provided in this section for approval of the original plan.

467D.18 Working program.

The plan and the order of priorities established thereby shall constitute the working program of the water resource district. The plan shall be reviewed from time to time and shall be changed as deemed necessary as the result of experience gained in construction and maintenance of internal improvements by the water resource district, and in operation of the water resource district, or as the result of changed conditions. The board may initiate changes in the water resource district plan on its own motion or at the direction of the department.

467D.19 Implementation.

After final approval of the plan, the board shall begin to implement the plan as expeditiously as possible, within the limitations of available appropriations and other financial resources. When implementation of the plan involves construction or improvement of any internal improvement by the water resource district, the board may order the preparation of detailed plans and specifications, and a refined cost estimate. Upon completion of the plans, specifications and cost estimate to its satisfaction, the board shall adopt them, subject to the approval of the department, and shall let contracts in accordance with section 467D.20. Any approval or permits from the department of natural resources required under other law shall be obtained by the water resource district prior to initiation of any construction activity.

467D.20 Bids on work — deposit.

When the estimated total cost of construction, enlargement, alteration or repair of an internal improvement exceeds five thousand dollars, the water resource district shall advertise for bids on the proposed improvement by two publications in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the water resource district. The first advertisement shall be not less than fifteen days prior to the date set for receiving bids and the district shall let the work to the lowest responsible bidder submitting a sealed proposal. However, if in the judgment of the board the bids received are not acceptable, all bids may be rejected and new bids requested. All bids shall be accompanied, in a separate envelope, by a deposit of money, credit union certified share draft or certified check, in an amount to be named in the advertisement for bids, as security that the bidder will enter into a contract in accordance with the terms of the bid. The board shall fix the bid security in an amount equal to at least five percent, but not more than ten percent of the estimated total cost of the work. The checks or deposits of money of the unsuccessful bidders shall be returned as soon as the successful bidder is determined, and the share draft, check or deposit of money of the successful bidder shall be returned upon execution of the contract documents.

467D.21 Protection against siltation.

Any other provision of this chapter notwithstanding, no water resource district shall let a contract for any internal improvement of any kind unless its engineer shall recommend, and the board shall find, that the proposed internal improvement would be adequately protected against siltation by soil and water conservation practices existing within the watershed of the internal improvement, or which would be developed as a part of the internal improvement, or that the nature of the internal improvement precludes the probability of damage due to siltation.

86 Acts, ch 1238, §61

467D.22 Procedure after finding.

When the water resource district's plan calls for an internal improvement which cannot be undertaken due to a finding that the internal improvement would not be adequately protected against siltation, the board shall undertake to effect the development of the needed soil and water conservation practices in the watershed of the proposed internal improvement by:

1. Consultation and cooperation with, and appropriate assistance to, the commissioners of any soil conservation district in the state.
2. Securing the establishment of, or repair or maintenance within, a subdistrict of a soil conservation district, a soil conservation and flood control district, a drainage district, a levee district, a sanitary district, or other appropriate special district, in the manner prescribed by law.

86 Acts, ch 1238, §61

467D.23 Erosion as nuisance — injunction.

Soil erosion resulting in or contributing to damage by siltation to any internal improvement of a water resource district, or resulting in or contributing to damage to property not owned by the owner or occupant of the land on which such erosion is occurring, is hereby declared to be a nuisance. The board of the §467D.23  Water resource district whose internal improvement is so damaged, the commissioners of the soil conservation district within which such erosion is occurring, or the owner or owners of any property so damaged, may bring action to enjoin and abate any such nuisance as provided by chapter 657. It shall be an adequate defense to such an action that any defendant, prior to the time the cause of action arose, had submitted application for public cost sharing funds pursuant to section 467A.48, or had established or maintained soil and water conservation practices or erosion control practices approved by the commissioners of the soil conservation district in which the erosion complained of occurred, or had taken other reasonable and prudent measures to prevent excessive soil erosion, and that the erosion complained of was an isolated occurrence caused by a single prolonged or unusually heavy rain fall, unusually rapid melting of accumulated snow, severe windstorm, or other similar event beyond the control of the defendant. The remedy for any soil erosion which constitutes a nuisance under this section shall be limited to requiring that the owner or occupant of the land on which the erosion is occurring take such measures as are necessary to comply with the regulations of the soil conservation district in which the land is located, and the fine and jail sentence provided by section 657.3 shall not apply in any action arising under this section.

467D.24  Surveys — soundings — drillings.

The board of the commissioners of a soil conservation district, or an engineer or any other authorized person employed by the board or commissioners, may after thirty days' written notice by restricted certified mail addressed to the owner and also to the occupant, enter upon private land for the purpose of making surveys, soundings, drillings, appraisals, and examinations as deemed appropriate or necessary to determine the advisability or practicability of locating an internal improvement on said land or part thereof, or to determine whether soil erosion is occurring thereon which constitutes a nuisance under section 467D.23 or is in violation of the soil conservation district's regulations, provided, no soundings or drillings shall be made within twenty rods of the dwelling house or buildings on said land without the written consent of the owner. Such entry, after notice, shall not be deemed a trespass, and the board or commissioners may be aided by injunction to insure peaceful entry. The board shall pay actual damages caused by such entry, surveys, soundings, drillings, appraisals, or examinations. The amount of such damages, if any, shall be determined by agreement or in the manner provided for the award of damages in condemnation of land for water resource district purposes.

CHAPTER 467E

AGRICULTURAL ENERGY MANAGEMENT

467E.1  Agricultural energy management fund.

1  The agricultural energy management fund is created within the department of agriculture and land stewardship. The fund shall be used to finance education and demonstration projects regarding tillage practices and the management of fertilizer and pesticide use which result in management practices that reduce energy inputs in agriculture and reduce potential for groundwater contamination.

2  An agricultural energy management advisory council is established which shall consist of the secretary of agriculture and the chief administrator of each of the following organizations or the administrator's designee:

   a  The energy and geological resources division of the department of natural resources.
   b  The environmental protection division of the department of natural resources.
   c  Iowa state university of science and technology college of agriculture.
   d  Iowa state university of science and technology college of engineering.
   e  Iowa state water resource research institute.
   f  State university of Iowa department of preventive medicine and environmental health.
   g  Division of soil conservation of the department of agriculture and land stewardship.
   h  Iowa cooperative extension service in agriculture and home economics.

The secretary of agriculture shall be the chairperson of the council. The presiding officers of the senate and house shall each appoint two nonvoting members, not more than one of any one political party, to serve on the advisory council for a term of two years. The council may invite the administrators of the United States...
geological survey and the federal environmental protection agency to each appoint a person to meet with the council in an advisory capacity. The council shall meet quarterly or upon the call of the chairperson. The council shall review possible uses of the funds and the effectiveness of current and past expenditures of the fund. The council shall make recommendations to the department of agriculture and land stewardship on the uses of the fund.

3. The department of agriculture and land stewardship shall report annually to the standing committees on energy and environmental protection of the house and senate on the projects conducted with the agricultural energy management fund.

469.31 Repealed by 64GA, ch 1088, §327.

469.1 Prohibition — permit.
A dam shall not be constructed, maintained, or operated in this state in any navigable or meandered stream for any purpose, or in any other stream for manufacturing or power purposes, nor shall any water be taken from the streams for industrial purposes, unless a permit has been granted by the department to the person, firm, corporation, or municipality constructing, maintaining, or operating the dam. [R60, §1264; C73, §1188; C97, §1921; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7767; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §469.1; 82 Acts, ch 1199. §81, 96] 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899N

469.2 Application for permit.
Any person, firm, corporation, or municipality making application for a permit to construct, maintain, or operate a dam in any of the waters, including canals, raceways, and other constructions necessary or useful in connection with the development and utilization of the water or power, shall file with the department a written application, which shall contain the following information:
1. The name of the navigable, meandered, or other stream in or across which a dam is maintained or it is proposed to construct a dam or other obstruction, and a description of the site for such dam, including the name or names of the riparian owners of the site.
2. The purpose for which the dam is maintained or for which it is proposed to maintain the same, including the use to which the water is to be put.
3. A general description of the dam, raceways, canals, and other constructions, including the specifications as to the material and plan of construction and a general description of all booms, piers, and other protection works which are constructed in connection therewith, or which it is proposed to erect in connection therewith.

4. The approximate amount of hydraulic power that the dam is capable of developing and the amount of power to be used.

5. A map or blueprint on a scale of not less than four inches to the mile, showing the lands that are or may be affected by the construction, operation, or maintenance of the dam, and the ownership of each tract of land within the affected area.

6. Any additional information required by the department.

§469.3 Notice of hearing.
When an application for a permit to construct, maintain, or operate a dam after the passage of this chapter is received, the department shall fix a time for hearing, and it shall give notice of the time and place of the hearing by publication once each week for two successive weeks in at least one newspaper in each county in which riparian lands will be affected by the dam.

§469.4 Hearing.
At the time fixed for the hearing or at any adjournment of the hearing, the department shall take evidence offered by the applicant and any other person, either in support of or in opposition to the proposed construction.

§469.5 When permit granted.
If it appears to the department that the construction, operation, or maintenance of the dam will not materially obstruct existing navigation, materially affect other public rights, or endanger life or public health, and any water taken from the stream in connection with the project, excepting water taken by a municipality for distribution in its water mains, is returned to the stream at the nearest practicable place without being materially diminished in quantity, polluted or rendered deleterious to fish life, it shall grant the permit, upon the terms and conditions as it may prescribe.

§469.9 Permit fee — annual license.
Every person, firm, or corporation, except a municipality, to whom a permit is granted to construct or to maintain and operate a dam already constructed in or across any stream for the purpose specified in this chapter, shall pay to the department a permit fee of one hundred dollars and shall pay an annual inspection and license fee, to be fixed by the commission, on or before the first day of January, 1925, and annually thereafter, but in no case shall the annual inspection and license fee be less than twenty-five dollars. All fees shall be paid into the general fund of the state treasury.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to dams already constructed for power production, having less than twenty-five horsepower capacity, nor shall they apply to dams developed solely for recreational use where the recreational facilities thus created are open to the public without charge.

§469.10 Construction and operation.
The department shall investigate methods of construction, reconstruction, operation, maintenance, and equipment of dams to determine the best methods to conserve and protect as far as possible all public and riparian rights in the waters of the state and to protect the life, health, and property of the general public; and the method of construction, operation, maintenance, and equipment of all dams of any character or for any purpose in the waters is subject to the approval of the department.

§469.11 Access to works.
The department shall at all times be accorded full access to all parts of any dam and its appurtenances being constructed, operated, or maintained in such waters.

§469.12 Duty to enforce statutes.
The department shall require that all existing statutes of the state, including this chapter, with reference to the construction of dams, are enforced.

§469.13 Violations.
The construction, maintenance, or operation of a dam for the purpose specified herein without a permit first being issued, as in this chapter provided, shall constitute a simple misdemeanor.

§469.14 Action to collect fees.
If any dam is constructed, operated, or maintained without the provisions of this chapter having been first complied with, including the payment of the permit fee and the annual inspection and license fee, the permit fee and the inspection and license fee may be recovered in an action brought in the name of the state, and in addition to the recovery of the amount due, there shall be collected a penalty of one thousand dollars.

469.15 Unlawful combination — receivership.
If any dam for which a permit has been issued becomes owned, leased, trusted, possessed, or controlled in such manner as to be controlled by any unlawful combination or trust, or forms the subject or part of the subject of any contract or agreement to limit the output of any hydraulic or hydroelectric power derived therefrom for the purpose of price fixing as to such output, the state may take possession thereof by receivership proceedings instituted by the state executive council, and such proceedings shall be conducted for the purpose of disposing of said property for lawful use and the proceeds shall be turned over to the persons found by the court to be entitled thereto, after the payment of all expenses of the receivership.

469.16 Nuisance.
If any dam is constructed, maintained, or operated for any of the purposes specified herein, in waters of this state in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter or in violation of any provisions of the law, the state may, in addition to the remedies herein prescribed, have such dam abated as a nuisance.

469.24 Embankments — damages.
If any person shall injure, destroy, or remove any such embankment or other works, the owner or occupier of such mill or machinery may recover of such person all damages the owner or occupant may sustain by reason thereof.

469.25 Right to utilize fall.
Any person owning and using a water power for the purpose of propelling machinery shall have the right to acquire, maintain, and utilize the fall below such power for the purpose of improving the same, in like manner and to the same extent as provided in this chapter for the erection or heightening of milldams. After such right has been acquired, the fall shall be considered part and parcel of said water power or privilege, and the deepening or excavating of the stream, tail, or raceway, as herein contemplated, shall in no way affect any rights relating to such water power acquired by the owner thereof prior to such change.

469.26 Revocation or forfeiture of permit.
If the person to whom a permit is issued under this chapter does not begin the construction or the improvement of the dam or raceway within one year from the date of the granting of the permit, the permit may be revoked by the department, and if any permit holder does not finish and have in operation the plant for which the dam is constructed within three years after the granting of the permit, unless for good cause shown the department has extended the time for completion, the permit shall be forfeited.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1899N

469.27 Legislative control.
No permit granted or rights acquired hereunder shall be perpetual, but they shall be subject to restriction, cancellation, and regulation by legislative action, and subject to all the provisions of this chapter.

469.28 Repealed by 53GA, ch 203, §28. See §469.29.

469.29 Existing licenses and permits.
All licenses and permits issued by the state executive council prior to April 17, 1949, or by the Iowa natural resources council prior to July 1, 1983, and in force immediately prior to July 1, 1983, or issued by the department of water, air and waste management before July 1, 1986 and in force immediately before July 1, 1986, are in full force and effect and all of the powers

CHAPTER 469A
HYDROELECTRIC PLANTS

469A.1  Certificate of convenience and necessity.
It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association or corporation to engage in the business of constructing, maintaining or operating within this state any hydroelectric generating plant or project without first having obtained from the executive council of Iowa a certificate of convenience and necessity declaring that the public convenience and necessity require such construction, maintenance or operation.

469A.2  Public hearing.
No certificate of convenience and necessity shall be issued by the executive council except after a public hearing thereon. The executive council shall, upon the filing of an application for such a certificate, fix the time of the public hearing thereon and shall prescribe the notice which shall be given by the applicant. Any interested person, firm, association, corporation, municipality, state board or commission may intervene and participate in such proceeding and at such hearing.

469A.3  Public welfare promoted.
Before the executive council shall issue a certificate of convenience and necessity, it shall first be satisfied that the public convenience and necessity will be promoted thereby, that the applicant has the financial ability to carry out the terms and conditions imposed, and the applicant has in writing agreed to accept, abide by and comply with such reasonable terms and conditions as the executive council may require and impose.
[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §469A.3]

469A.4  Rules imposed.
The executive council shall prescribe such rules as it may determine necessary for the administration of the provisions of this chapter and may amend such rules at any time.

469A.5  Costs advanced.
The executive council shall, upon the filing of an application, require the applicant to deposit with the secretary of the executive council such amount as the council shall determine, to pay the expenses to be incurred by the executive council in its investigations and in conducting the proceedings, and the executive council may, from time to time as it deems necessary, require the deposit of additional amounts for such purpose.

469A.6  Amendment or revocation.
The executive council may at any time for just cause or upon the failure of the applicant to comply with and to obey the terms and conditions attached to the issuance of any certificate, or when the public convenience and necessity demands, alter, amend or revoke any certificate issued under the provisions of this chapter.
[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §469A.6]

469A.7  Penalty.
Any person, firm, association or corporation who shall violate the provisions of section 469A.1, shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor. Each separate day that a violation occurs shall constitute a separate offense.

LIFE CYCLE COST ANALYSIS OF PUBLIC FACILITIES

470.1 Definitions.
As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires
1 "Public agency" means a county, city, school district, school corporation or combination thereof or an executive board, commission, bureau, division, office or department of the state
2 "Facility" means a building having twenty thousand square feet or more of usable floor space that is heated or cooled by a mechanical or electrical system
3 "Initial cost" means the moneys required for the capital construction or renovation of a facility
4 "Renovation" means a project where additions or alterations exceed fifty percent of the value of a facility and will affect an energy system
5 "Economic life" means the projected or anticipated useful life of a facility as expressed by a term of years
6 "Life cycle cost analysis" means an analytical technique that considers certain costs of owning, using and operating a facility over its economic life including but not limited to the following a Initial costs
b System repair and replacement costs
c Maintenance costs
d Operating costs, including energy costs
e Salvage value
7 "Energy system" includes but is not limited to the following equipment or measures a Equipment used to heat or cool the facility
b Equipment used to heat water in the facility c On site equipment used to generate electricity for the major facility d On site equipment that uses the sun, wind, oil, natural gas, coal or electricity as a power source
e Energy conservation measures in the facility design and construction that decrease the energy requirements of the facility
[C81, §470 1]

470.2 Policy — analysis required.
The general assembly declares that energy management is of primary importance in the design of publicly owned facilities. Commencing January 1, 1980, a public agency responsible for the construction or renovation of a facility shall, in a design begun after that date, include as a design criterion the requirement that a life cycle cost analysis be conducted for the facility. The objectives of the life cycle cost analysis are to optimize energy efficiency at an acceptable life cycle cost. The life cycle cost analysis shall meet the requirements of section 470.3
[C81, §470 2]

470.3 Elements of analysis.
1 A life cycle cost analysis shall include but is not limited to the following elements a Specification of energy management objectives and health, safety and functional constraints. The facility design shall comply with applicable state or local building code requirements
b Identification of the energy needs of the facility and energy system alternatives to meet those needs
c Cost of the energy system alternatives identified in paragraph "b" of this subsection d Determination of amounts and timing of cash flow e Calculation of life cycle cost using an economic model such as but not limited to rate of return, annual equivalent cost or present equivalent cost
f Evaluation of design and system alternatives using a method such as, but not limited to design matrices, ranking tables or network analysis
2 A public agency or a person preparing a life cycle cost analysis for a public agency shall consider the methods and analytical models in section 6 of the Manual of Procedures for authorized class "A" energy auditors as amended to March 31, 1979 by the engineering research institute at Iowa State University of Science and Technology in preparing a life cycle cost analysis
[C81, §470 3]

470.4 Analysis approved.
The life cycle cost analysis shall be approved by the public agency before contracts for the construction or renovation are let. A public agency may accept a facility design and shall meet the requirements of this chapter if the design meets the operational requirements of the agency and provides the optimum life cycle cost. The public agency shall retain a copy of the life cycle cost analysis and a statement justifying a design decision both of which shall be available for public inspection at reasonable hours
[C81, §470 4]
§470.5 Exceptions.
This chapter does not apply to buildings used on January 1, 1980 by the division of adult corrections of the department of human services as maximum security detention facilities or to the renovation of property nominated to, or entered in the national register of historic places, designated by statute, or included in an established list of historic places compiled by the historical division of the department of cultural affairs.

[C81, §470.5; 82 Acts, ch 1238, §22]

§470.6 Restriction on use of public funds.
Public funds shall not be used for the construction or renovation of a facility unless the design for the work is prepared in accordance with this chapter and the actual construction or renovation meets the requirements of the design.

[C81, §470.6]

CHAPTER 471
EMINENT DOMAIN

471.1 Exercise of power by state.
Proceedings may be instituted and maintained by the state of Iowa, or for the use and benefit thereof, for the condemnation of such private property as may be necessary for any public improvement which the general assembly has authorized to be undertaken by the state, and for which an available appropriation has been made. The executive council shall institute and maintain such proceedings in case authority to so do be not otherwise delegated.

State parks and highways connecting therewith, §111.7, 111 8

471.2 On behalf of federal government.
The executive council may institute and maintain such proceedings when private property is necessary for any use of the government of the United States. [S13, §2024-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7805; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §471.2]

471.3 Conveyance by state to federal government.
When land or any easement therein is condemned by the state for the use and benefit of the United States, the governor, after the land has been finally acquired, shall have power to convey, to the United States, the easement or lands so acquired and all rights of the state therein. [S13, §2024-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7804; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §471.3]

471.4 Right conferred.
The right to take private property for public use is hereby conferred:
1. Counties. Upon all counties for public purposes which are reasonable and necessary as an incident to the powers and duties conferred upon counties.
2. Owners of land without a way to the land. Upon the owner or lessee of lands, which have no public or private way to the lands, for the purpose of providing a public way, not exceeding forty feet in width, which will connect with an existing public road. The condemned public way shall be located on a division, sub-division or "forty" line, or immediately adjacent thereto, and along the line which is the nearest feasible route to an existing public road, or along a route established for a period of ten years or more by an easement of record or by use and travel to and from the property by the owner and the general public. The public way shall not interfere with buildings, orchards, or cemeteries. When passing through enclosed lands, the public way shall be fenced on both sides by the condemnor upon request of the owner of the condemned land. The condemnor or the condemnor's assignee, shall provide easement for access to the owner of property severed by the condemnation. The public way shall be maintained by the condemner or the condemner’s assignee, and shall not be considered any part of the primary or secondary road systems.

A public way condemned under this subsection shall not be considered an existing public road in subsequent condemnations to provide a public way for access to an existing public road.

3 Owners of mineral lands. Upon all owners, lessees, or possessors of land, for a railway right of way thereto not exceeding one hundred feet in width and located wherever necessary or practical, when such lands have no railway thereto and contain coal, stone, gravel, lead, or other minerals and such railway is necessary in order to reach and operate any mine, quarry, or gravel bed on said land and transport the products thereof to market. Such right of way shall not interfere with buildings, orchards, or cemeteries, and when passing through enclosed lands, fences shall be built and maintained on both sides thereof by the party condemning the land and by that party’s assignee. The jury, in the assessment of damages, shall consider the fact that a railway is to be constructed thereon.

4 Cemetery associations. Upon any private cemetery or cemetery association which is incorporated under the laws of this state relating to corporations for necessary and reasonable additions thereto. The right granted in this subsection shall not be exercised until the board of supervisors, of the county in which the land sought to be condemned is located, has, on written application and hearing, on such reasonable notice to all interested parties as it may fix, found that the land, describing it, sought to be condemned, is necessary for cemetery purposes. The association shall pay all costs incident to the hearing.

5 Subdistricts of soil conservation districts. Upon a subdistrict of a soil conservation district for such land or rights or interests therein as are reasonable and necessary to carry out the purposes of the subdistrict.

6 Cities. Upon all cities for public purposes which are reasonable and necessary as an incident to the powers and duties conferred upon cities.

1. [S13, §2024-f, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7806; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §471.4, 81 Acts, ch 117, §1084]

2. [C97, §2028, S13, §2028, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7806; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §471.4]

3. [C97, §2028, 2031, S13, §2028, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7806; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §471.4]

4. [S13, §1644 a-e, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7806; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §471.4]

5. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §471.4]

6. [R60, §1064, C73, §464, 470, 474, C97, §722, 880, S81, S13, §722, 729 b, 741 s, S15, §741, 891, 890, S81, S24, 77, 31, 35, 39, S13, §741, 4; 415, 740; C46, §397, 8, 403 1-403 3, C50, §3013; 3897, 8, 397 1-403 3, 420 51, C54, 62, 66, 71, 73, §3083 37, 397 8, C75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §471.4]

471.5 Right to purchase.

Whenever the power to condemn private property for a public use is granted to any officer, board, commission, or other official, or to any county, township, or municipality, such grant shall, unless otherwise declared, be construed as granting authority to the officer, board, or official body having jurisdiction over the matter, to acquire, at its fair market value, and from the parties having legal authority to convey, such right as would be acquired by condemnation.

471.6 Railways.

The Iowa railway finance authority or any railway corporation, may acquire by condemnation property as necessary for the location, construction, and convenient use of a railway. The Iowa railway finance authority may acquire fee title or a lesser property interest. The authority shall offer to sell its interest in the property at fair market value to the adjoining property owners upon abandonment. The acquisition shall carry the right to use for the construction and repair of the railway and its appurtenances any earth, gravel, stone, timber, or other material, on or from the land taken.

83 Acts, ch 121, §9

471.7 Cemetery lands.

No lands actually platted, used, and devoted to cemetery purposes shall be taken for any railway purpose without the consent of the proper officers or owners thereof.

471.8 Limitation on right of way.

Land taken for railway right of way, otherwise than by consent of the owner, shall not exceed one hundred feet in width unless greater width is necessary for excavation, embankment, or depositing waste earth.

471.9 Additional purposes.

The Iowa railway finance authority or a railway corporation, may, by condemnation or otherwise, acquire lands for the following additional purposes:

1 For necessary additional depot grounds or yards.

2 For constructing a track or tracks to any mine, quarry, gravel pit, manufacturing plant, warehouse, or mercantile establishment.

3 For additional or new right of way for constructing double track, reducing or straightening curves, changing grades, shortening or relocating portions of the line, and for excavations, embankments, or places for depositing waste earth.

4 For the preservation of abandoned railroad right of way for future railroad use.

§471.10 Initiating railroad condemnation.
1 The railway corporation shall apply to the department of transportation for permission to condemn. The department may, after hearing, report to the district court clerk of the county in which the land is situated the description of the land sought to be condemned. The corporation may begin condemnation proceedings in district court for the land described by the authority.
2 The railway finance authority may begin condemnation proceedings in district court.

§471.11 Lands for water stations — how set aside.
Lands which are sought to be condemned for water stations, dams, or reservoirs, including all the overflowed lands, if any, shall, if requested by the owner, be set aside in a square or rectangular shape by the department of transportation or district court.

§471.12 Access to water — overflow limited.
An owner of land, which has in part been condemned for water stations, dams, or reservoirs, shall not be deprived, without the owner's consent, of access to the water, or the use thereof, in common with the company, on the owner's own land, nor, without the owner's consent, shall the owner's dwelling, outhouses, or orchards be overflowed, or otherwise injuriously affected by such condemnation.

When a railway company would have the right to excavate a channel or ditch and thereby change and straighten the course of a stream or watercourse, which is too frequently crossed by such railway, and thereby protect the right of way and roadbed, or promote safety and convenience in the operation of the railway, it may, by condemnation or otherwise, acquire sufficient land on which to excavate such ditch or channel.

§471.14 Unlawful diversion prohibited.
Nothing in section 471.13 shall give such corporation the right to change the course of any stream or watercourse where such right does not otherwise exist, nor, without the owner's consent, to divert such stream or watercourse from any cultivated meadow or pasture land, when it only touches such lands at one point.

§471.15 Abandonment of right-of-way. Repealed by 83 Acts, ch 121, §15 See §471.16

§471.16 Right to condemn abandoned right-of-way.
Railroad right of way which has been abandoned by order of the proper authority, may be condemned by a railway corporation or the Iowa railway finance authority before or after the track materials have been removed. The procedure to condemn abandoned right of way shall be the same as for an original condemnation.

§471.17 Procedure to condemn. Repealed by 83 Acts, ch 121, §15 See §471.16

§471.18 No double damages.
Owners of abandoned right of way which was originally condemned for rail purposes shall not receive additional compensation unless the track materials were removed prior to the second condemnation.

§471.19 Interpretative clause.
A grant in this chapter of right to take private property for a public use shall not be construed as limiting a like grant elsewhere in the Code for another and different use.

§471.20 Description of land furnished.
Whenever any person, state department, or political subdivision takes title to land in fee simple for a public use by condemnation or by purchase in lieu of condemnation, the purchaser shall furnish to the owner of the land a legal description of the part taken and a legal description of the remainder which is compatible with the existing abstract description of the entire tract of land. For the purposes of this section a center line description is compatible only when it contains reference points which are a part of and tied to the abstract description.
CHAPTER 472

PROCEDURE UNDER POWER OF EMINENT DOMAIN

472.1 Procedure provided.

The procedure for the condemnation of private property for works of internal improvement, and for other public uses and purposes, unless and except as otherwise provided by law, shall be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter

472.2 By whom conducted.

Such proceedings shall be conducted

1 By the attorney general when the damages are payable from the state treasury

2 By the county attorney, when the damages are payable from funds disbursed by the county, or by any township, or school corporation

3 By the city attorney, when the damages are payable from funds disbursed by the city

This section shall not be construed as prohibiting any other authorized representative from conducting such proceedings

whether any of that land is classified as class I or class II land under the United States department of agriculture soil conservation service land capability classification system contained in the agriculture handbook number 210, 1961 edition and, if so classified, stating that the class I or class II land is reasonably necessary for the work of internal improvement for which condemnation is sought.

7. The applicant shall promptly certify that its application for condemnation has been approved by the chief judge and shall file the original approved application with the county recorder in the manner required under section 472.37. The county recorder shall file and index the application in the record of deeds and preserve the application as required by sections 472.38 and 558.55. The filing and indexing constitute constructive notice to all parties that a proceeding to condemn the property is pending and that the applicant has the right to acquire the property from all owners, lienholders, and encumbrancers whose interests are of record at the time of the filing. When indexed, the proceeding is considered pending so as to charge all persons not having an interest in the property with notice of its pendency, and while pending no interest can be acquired by the third parties in the property against the rights of the applicant. If the appraisement of damages is not made within one hundred twenty days, the proceedings instituted under this section are terminated and all rights and interests of the applicant arising out of the application for condemnation terminate. The applicant may reinstitute a new condemnation proceeding at any time. The reinstated proceedings are entirely new proceedings and not a revival of the terminated proceeding.

472.4 Commission to assess damages.

Annually the board of supervisors of a county shall appoint not less than twenty-eight residents of the county and the names of such persons shall be placed on a list and they shall be eligible to serve as members of a compensation commission. One-fourth of the persons appointed shall be owner-operators of agricultural property, one-fourth of the persons appointed shall be owners of city property, one-fourth shall be licensed real estate salespersons or real estate brokers, and one-fourth shall be persons having knowledge of property values in the county by reason of their occupation, such as bankers, auctioneers, property managers, property appraisers, and persons responsible for making loans on property.

The chief judge of the judicial district shall select by lot six persons from the list, two persons who are owner-operators of agricultural property when the property to be condemned is agricultural property; two persons who are owners of city property when the property to be condemned is other than agricultural property; and two persons from each of the remaining two representative groups, who shall constitute a compensation commission to assess the damages to all property to be taken by the applicant and located in the county, and shall name a chairperson from the persons selected. No member of the compensation commission selected shall possess any interest in the proceeding which would cause such person to render a biased decision.

472.5 Vacancies.

In case any appointee under section 472.4 fails to act, the chief judge of the judicial district shall appoint another person from the list, possessing the same qualifications as the person who is being replaced to complete the membership of the commission.

472.6 Repealed by 63GA, ch 1225, §3.

472.7 Commissioners to qualify.

Before proceeding with the assessment all commissioners shall qualify by filing with the sheriff a written oath that they will to the best of their ability faithfully and impartially assess said damages and make written report to the sheriff.

472.8 Notice of assessment.

The applicant, or the owner or any lienholder or encumbrancer of any land described in the application, may, at any time after the appointment of the commissioners, have the damages to the lands of any such owner assessed by giving the other party, if a resident of this state, ten days' notice, in writing. Such notice shall specify the day and the hour when the commissioners will view the premises, and be served in the same manner as original notices.

472.9 Form of notice.

Said notice shall be in substantially the following form, with such changes therein as will render it applicable to the party giving and receiving the notice, and to the particular case pending, to wit:

"To ________________________ (here name each record owner whose land is to be taken or affected and each record lienholder or encumbrancer thereof) and all other persons, companies, or corporations having any interest in or owning any of the following described real estate:

(Here describe the land as in the application.)

You are hereby notified that ________________________ (here enter the name of the applicant) desires the condemnation of the following described land: (Here describe the particular land or portion thereof sought to be condemned, in such manner that it will be clearly identified.)

That such condemnation is sought for the following purpose: (Here clearly specify the purpose.)

That a commission has been appointed as provided by law for the purpose of appraising the damages which will be caused by said condemnation.

That said commissioners will, on the __________ day of __________, 19________, at __________ o'clock ______ m., view said premises and proceed to appraise said damages, at which time you may appear before the commissioners if you care to do so.

Applicant.

472.10 Signing of notice.
The notice may be signed by the applicant, by the applicant's attorney, or by any other authorized representative.

472.11 Filing of notices and return of service.
Notices, immediately after the service thereof, shall, with proper return of service endorsed thereon or attached thereto, be filed with the sheriff. The sheriff shall at once cause the commissioners to be notified of the day and hour when they will be required to proceed with the appraisement.

472.12 Notice to nonresidents.
If the owner of such lands or any person interested therein is a nonresident of this state, or if the person's residence is unknown, no demand for the land for the purposes sought shall be necessary, but the notice aforesaid shall be published in some newspaper of the county and of general circulation therein, once each week for at least four successive weeks prior to the day fixed for the appraisement, which day shall be at least thirty days after the first publication of the notice.

472.13 Service outside state.
Personal service outside the state on nonresidents in the time and manner provided for the service of original notices shall have the same force and effect as publication service within the state.

472.14 Appraisement — report.
The commissioners shall, at the time fixed in the aforesaid notices, view the land sought to be condemned and assess the damages which the owner will sustain by reason of the appropriation; and they shall file their written report with the sheriff. At the request of the condemner or the condemnee, the commission shall divide the damages into parts to indicate the value of any dwelling, the value of the land and improvements other than a dwelling, and the value of any additional damages. The appraisement and return may be in parcels larger than forty acres belonging to one person and lying in one tract, unless the agent or attorney of the applicant, or the commissioners, have actual knowledge that the tract does not belong wholly to the person in whose name it appears of record; and in case of such knowledge, the appraisement shall be made of the different portions as they are known to be owned.

In assessing the damages the owner or tenant will sustain, the commissioners shall consider and make allowance for personal property which is damaged or destroyed or reduced in value.

In addition to all other damages provided by law, except moving expenses paid or required to be paid under relocation assistance programs, an owner or tenant occupying land which is proposed to be acquired by condemnation shall be awarded a sum sufficient to remove such owner's or tenant's personal property from the land to be acquired, which sum shall represent reasonable costs of moving said personal property from the said land to be acquired to a point no greater than twenty-five miles therefrom; but in any event, said damages for moving shall not exceed five hundred dollars for each owner or tenant occupying land so proposed to be condemned.

472.15 Guardianship.
In all cases where any interest in lands sought to be condemned is owned by a person who is under legal disability and has no guardian of the person's property, the applicant shall, prior to the filing of the application with the sheriff, apply to the district court for the appointment of a guardian of the property of such person.

472.17 When appraisement final.
The appraisement of damages returned by the commissioners shall be final unless appealed from.

472.18 Notice of appraisement — appeal of award.
After the appraisement of damages has been delivered to the sheriff by the compensation commission, the sheriff shall give written notice, by ordinary mail, to the condemner and the condemnee of the date on which the appraisement of damages was made, the amount of the appraisement, and that any interested party may, within thirty days from the date of mailing the notice of the appraisement of damages, appeal to the district court. The sheriff shall endorse the date of mailing of notice upon the original appraisement of damages. At the time of appeal, the appellant shall give written notice that the appeal has been taken to the adverse party, or the adverse party's agent or attorney, 472.18 Service of notice — highway matters.

1. Such notice of appeal shall be served in the same manner as an original notice. In case of condemnation proceedings instituted by the state department of transportation, when the owner appeals from the assessment made, such notice of appeal shall be served upon the attorney general, or the department general counsel to the state department of transportation, or the chief highway engineer for the department. When service of notice of appeal cannot be made as provided in this section, the district court of the county in which the real estate is situated, on application, shall direct what notice shall be sufficient.

2. In any condemnation proceedings instituted under this chapter by the state department of transportation in any court of the state wherein the property owner has delivered proper notice of appeal to the sheriff of the proper county with the intent that it be served immediately upon the person selected by the owner from among those persons designated for such service in subsection 1, the delivery of the notice of appeal to the sheriff shall be deemed a commencement of the appeal proceedings. If the sheriff, after delivery of notice of appeal, fails or is unable to serve the notice of appeal upon such designated person within the statutory period required under section 472.18, such inability or failure shall not deprive the court of jurisdiction of the appeal if the property owner shall, within twenty days after delivery of notice of appeal to the sheriff, make application for further direction as to service to the proper district court as provided by this section.

472.20 Sheriff to file certified copy.

When an appeal is taken, the sheriff shall at once file with the clerk of the district court a certified copy of as much of the assessment as applies to the part for which the appeal is taken.

472.21 Appeals — how docketed and tried.

The appeal shall be docketed in the name of the person appealing and all other interested parties to the action shall be defendants. In the event the condemnor and the condemnee appeal, the appeal shall be docketed in the name of the appellant which filed the application for condemnation and all other parties to the action shall be defendants. The appeal shall be tried as in an action by ordinary proceedings. The appraisement of damages by the compensation commission is admissible in the action.

472.22 Pleadings on appeal.

A written petition shall be filed by the plaintiff within twenty days after perfection of the appeal, stating specifically the items of damage and the amount thereof. The court may for good cause shown grant additional time for the filing of the petition. The defendant shall file a written answer to plaintiff's petition, or such other pleadings as may be proper.

472.23 Question determined.

On the trial of the appeal, no judgment shall be rendered except for costs, but the amount of damages shall be ascertained and entered of record.

472.24 Reduction of damages.

If the amount of damages awarded by the commissioners is decreased on the trial of the appeal, the reduced amount only shall be paid to the landowner.

472.25 Right to take possession of lands — title.

Upon the filing of the commissioners' report with the sheriff, the applicant may deposit with the sheriff the amount assessed in favor of a claimant, and the applicant, except as otherwise provided, may take possession of the land condemned and proceed with the improvement. An appeal from the assessment does not affect the right, except as otherwise provided. Upon appeal from the commissioners' award of damages the district court may direct that the part of the amount of damages deposited with the sheriff, as it finds just and proper, be paid to the claimant. If upon trial of the appeal a lesser amount is awarded the difference between the amount so awarded and the amount paid shall be repaid by the person to whom it was paid and upon failure to make the repayment the party shall have judgment entered against the person who received the excess payment. Title to the property or the interests in property passes to the applicant when damages have been finally determined and paid.

472.26 Disposition of owner.

A landowner shall not be dispossessed, under condemnation proceedings, of the landowner's residence, dwelling house, outhouse, orchard, or garden, until the damages thereto have been finally determined and paid. However, if the property described in this section is condemned for highway purposes by the state department of transportation, the condemning authority may take possession of the property either after the damages have been finally determined and paid or one hundred eighty days after the compensation commission has determined and filed its award, in which event all of the appraisement of damages shall be paid to the property owner before the dispossession can take place. This section shall not apply to condemnation proceedings instituted by the state department of transportation.
proceedings for drainage or levee improvements, or for public school purposes.

472.27 Erection of dam — limitation.

If it appears from the finding of the commissioners that the dwelling house, outhouse, orchard, or garden of the owner of any land taken will be overflowed or otherwise injuriously affected by any dam or reservoir to be constructed as authorized by this chapter, such dam shall not be erected until the question of such overflowing or other injury has been determined in favor of the corporation upon appeal.

472.28 and 472.29 Repealed by 58GA, ch 318, §2. See §472.25.

472.30 Additional deposit.

If, on the trial of the appeal, the damages awarded by the commissioners are increased, the condemner shall, if the condemner is already in possession of the property, make such additional deposit with the sheriff, as will, with the deposit already made, equal the entire damages allowed. If the condemner be not already in possession, the condemner shall deposit with the sheriff the entire damages awarded, before entering on, using, or controlling the premises.

472.31 Payment by public authorities.

When damages, by reason of condemnation, are payable from public funds, the sheriff, or clerk of the district court, as the case may be, shall certify to the officer, board, or commission having power to audit claims for the purchase price of said lands, the amount legally payable to each claimant, and, separately, a detailed statement of the cost legally payable from such public funds. Said officer, board, or commission shall audit said claims, and the warrant-issuing officer shall issue warrants therefor on any funds appropriated therefor, or otherwise legally available for the payment of the same. Warrants shall be drawn in favor of each claimant to whom damages are payable. The warrant in payment of costs shall be issued in favor of the officer certifying thereto.

472.32 Removal of condemner.

The sheriff, upon being furnished with a copy of the assessment as determined on appeal, certified to by the clerk of the district court, may remove from said premises the condemner and all persons acting for or under the condemner, unless the amount of the assessment is forthwith paid or deposited as hereinbefore provided.

472.33 Costs and attorney fees.

The applicant shall pay all costs of the assessment made by the commissioners and reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred by the condemnee as determined by the commissioners if the award of the commissioners exceeds one hundred ten percent of the final offer of the applicant prior to condemnation. The applicant shall file with the sheriff an affidavit setting forth the most recent offer made to the person whose property is sought to be condemned. Members of such commissions shall receive a per diem of fifty dollars and actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The applicant shall also pay all costs occasioned by the appeal, including reasonable attorney fees to be taxed by the court, unless on the trial thereof the same or a less amount of damages is awarded than was allowed by the tribunal from which the appeal was taken.

472.34 Refusal to pay final award.

Should the applicant decline, at any time after an appeal is taken as provided in section 472.18, to take the property and pay the damages awarded, the applicant shall pay, in addition to the costs and damages actually suffered by the landowner, reasonable attorney fees to be taxed by the court.

472.35 Sheriff to file record.

Thirty days after the date of mailing the notice of appraisal of damages, the sheriff shall file with the county recorder of the county in which the condemned land is situated, the following papers:

1. A certified copy of the application for condemnation.
2. All notices, together with all returns of service endorsed on the returns or attached to the returns.
3. The report of the commissioners.
4. All other papers filed with the sheriff in the proceedings.
5. A written statement by the sheriff of all money received in payment of damages, from whom received, to whom paid, and the amount paid to each claimant and reference to the application for condemnation by book and page or instrument number and the date the application was filed with the county recorder.

472.36 Clerk to file record.

The clerk of the district court, in case an appeal is taken in condemnation proceedings, shall file with the county recorder:

1. A copy of the final judgment entry of the court showing the amount of damages determined on appeal.
2. A written statement by the clerk of all money received by the clerk in payment of damages, from whom received, to whom paid, and the amount paid to each claimant.
3. A copy of the description of the property condemned and the interest acquired in the property.

84 Acts, ch 1065, §6
§472.37 Form of record — certificate.
Said papers shall be securely fastened together, arranged in the order named above, and be accompanied by a certificate of the officer filing the same that said papers are the original files in the proceedings and that the statements accompanying the same are true.

§472.38 Record of proceedings.
The county recorder shall record said papers, statements, and certificate in the record of deeds, properly index the same, and carefully preserve the originals as files of the recorder's office.

§472.39 Fee for recording.
The sheriff or clerk, as the case may be, shall collect from the condemnor such fee as the county recorder would have legal right to demand for making such record, and pay such fee to the recorder upon presenting the papers for record.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §7858; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §472.39]
Recorder fee, §331.604

§472.40 Failure to record — liability.
Any sheriff, or clerk of the district court, as the case may be, who fails to present said papers, statements, and certificate for record, and any recorder who fails to record the same as above provided shall be liable for all damages caused by such failure.

§472.41 Presumption.
The said original papers, statements, and certificate, or the record thereof shall be presumptive evidence of title in the condemnor, and shall constitute constructive notice of the right of such condemnor to the lands condemned.

§472.42 Eminent domain — payment to displaced persons.
1. Any utility or railroad subject to section 327C.2, chapter 479, or chapter 476, authorized by law to acquire property by condemnation that does acquire the property of any person who is displaced thereby after July 1, 1971, shall pay to such person in addition to all other sums of money required by law a displacement allowance and, if the person's right to the displacement allowance or the amount of the allowance is in dispute, the person's right to appeal to the Iowa state commerce commission or the transportation regulation authority. The decision of the transportation regulation authority upon review shall be final as to all parties.

2. The displacement allowance to be paid by a railroad subject to section 327C.2, shall be paid in the manner provided in sections 316.4, 316.5, 316.6, and 316.8 and pursuant to rules promulgated by the transportation regulation authority. Any person aggrieved by a determination as to eligibility for a payment or the amount of the payment may, upon application, have the matter reviewed by the transportation regulation authority. The decision of the transportation regulation authority upon review shall be final as to all parties.

3. The displacement allowance to be paid by a railroad subject to section 327C.2, shall be paid in the manner provided in sections 316.4, 316.5, 316.6, and 316.8 and pursuant to rules promulgated by the transportation regulation authority. Any person aggrieved by a determination as to eligibility for a payment or the amount of the payment may, upon application, have the matter reviewed by the transportation regulation authority. The decision of the transportation regulation authority upon review shall be final as to all parties.

§472.43 Chief justice to prepare instructions.
Written instructions for members of compensation commissions shall be prepared under the direction of the chief justice of the supreme court and distributed to the sheriff in each county. The sheriff shall transmit copies of the instructions to each member of a compensation commission, and such instructions shall be read aloud to each commission before it commences its duties.

§472.44 Taking property for highway — buildings and fences moved.
When real property or an interest therein is purchased or condemned for highway purposes and a fence or building is located on such property, the governmental agency shall be responsible for all costs incurred by the property owner in replacing or moving the fence or moving the building onto property owned by the landowner and abutting the property purchased or condemned for highway purposes, or the governmental agency may replace or move the fence or move the building. Such costs shall not constitute an additional element of damages which would permit unjust enrichment or a duplication of payments to any condemnee.

§472.45 Condemnation for road or street — mailing copy of appraisal.
When any real property or interest therein is to be purchased, or in lieu thereof to be condemned for highway, street or road purposes, the purchasing state agency, county or city or their agent shall submit to the person, corporation or entity whose property or interest therein is to be taken, by ordinary mail, at least ten days prior to the date of contact, a copy of the appraisal upon such real property or interest therein which shall include, at least, an itemization of the appraised value of the real property or interest therein, any buildings thereon, all other improvements including fences, severance damages and loss of access.
472.46 Special proceedings to condemn existing utility.
When any city has voted at an election to purchase, establish, erect, maintain and operate heating plants, waterworks, gasworks or electric light or power plants, or when it has voted to contract an indebtedness and issue bonds for such purposes, and in such city there exists any such utility, or incomplete parts thereof or more than one, not publicly owned, and the contract or franchise of the owner of the utility has expired or been surrendered, and the owner and the city cannot agree upon terms of purchase, it may, by resolution, proceed to acquire by condemnation any one or more of the utilities or incomplete parts thereof. When so acquired it may apply the proceeds of the bonds in payment therefor and in making extensions and improvements to such works or plants so acquired, but not more than one utility may be so acquired when the municipality is indebted in excess of the statutory limitation of indebtedness for such purposes for any such acquired property.

472.47 Court of condemnation.
Upon the passage of the resolution as provided in section 472.46 and the presentation of a certified copy thereof to the supreme court while in session, or to the chief justice of the supreme court, the court or chief justice shall within five days appoint as a court of condemnation three district court judges from three judicial districts, one of whom shall be from the district in which the city is located, if not a resident of the city, and shall enter an order requiring the judges to attend as such court of condemnation at the county seat of the county in which the city is located within ten days. The district court judges shall attend and constitute a court of condemnation.

472.48 Procedure.
Said court when it meets to organize or at any time during the proceedings, which may be adjourned from time to time for any purpose, may fix the time for the appearance of any person that any party desires to have joined in the proceedings, and whom the court deems necessary. The time for appearance shall be sufficiently remote to serve notice upon the parties, but if the time for appearance occurs after the proceedings are begun, the proceedings may be reviewed by the court to give all parties a full opportunity to be heard.

472.49 Notice — service.
Persons not voluntarily appearing, but having any right, title, or interest in or to the property which is the subject of condemnation, or any part thereof, including all leaseholders, mortgagees and trustees of bondholders, who are to be made parties to the proceedings shall be served with notice of the proceedings and the time and place of meeting of the court in the same manner and for the same length of time as for the service of original notice, either by personal service, or by service by publication, the time so set being the time at which the parties so served are required to appear, and actual personal service of the notice within or without the state shall supersede the necessity for publication.

472.50 Powers of court — duty of clerk — vacancy.
The court of condemnation shall have power to summon and swear witnesses, take evidence, order the taking of depositions, require the production of any books or papers, and may appoint a shorthand reporter. It shall perform all the duties of commissioners in the condemnation of property. The duties and the method of procedure and condemnation, including provisions for appeal shall be except as otherwise specifically provided, as provided for the taking of private property for works of internal improvement. The clerk of the district court of the county where the city is located shall perform all of the duties required of the sheriff in the condemnation; and in case of a vacancy in the court, the vacancy shall be filled in the manner in which the original appointment was made. When necessary by reason of a vacancy, the court may review any evidence in its record.

472.51 Costs — expenses.
The costs of the proceedings shall be the same and paid in the same manner as in proceedings in the district court, and the district court judges of the court of condemnation shall receive, while engaged in such service, their actual expenses, which expenses shall be taxed as costs in the case.

[S13, §722-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §6140; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §397.25; C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §472.51]

472.52 Renegotiation of damages.
Whenever property or an interest therein has been taken by condemnation or has been purchased for a public use and a settlement for construction or maintenance damages has been thereafter entered into pursuant to said condemnation or purchase, the owner shall have five years from the date of said settlement to renegotiate construction or maintenance damages not apparent at the time of said settlement. The condemnor or purchaser shall give written notice to the owner of such right of renegotiation at the time said settlement is entered into.

472.53 Procedure for homesteading projects.
If the purpose of condemnation is to obtain property for use as part of an Iowa homesteading project under section 220.14, the application required under section 472.3 may contain a verified statement that the property sought to be condemned is abandoned and deteriorating in condition, or is inhabited but is not safe for human habitation, or is or is likely to become a public nuisance, and that the property is suitable for use and is to be used in an Iowa homesteading project. Other information may be included. The statement must be verified by the Iowa finance authority or by a local agency authorized under rules of the authority. Upon proper filing of the statement and the report of the condemnation commission assessing damages, and deposit of the amount assessed with the sheriff, the applicant for condemnation may take possession as provided in section 472.25 if the property is abandoned, or may take steps to obtain possession after ninety days from the date of the filing of the statement, report, and deposit, if the property is inhabited. [C77, 79, 81, §472.53]

CHAPTER 473

REVERSION TO OWNERS UPON ABANDONMENT

Applicable to railroads Transferred to chapter 327G, division III

CHAPTER 473A

METROPOLITAN OR REGIONAL PLANNING COMMISSIONS

473A.1 Authority of governing bodies — joint commission.

The governing bodies of two or more adjoining cities, independently or together with the governing body or bodies of the county or counties within which such cities are located, or the governing bodies of two or more adjoining counties, or a county and its major city or cities, or the governing bodies of one or more counties together with the governing bodies of one or more cities adjoining such county or counties, or any of the above together with a school district, benefitted water district, benefitted fire district, sanitary district or any other similar district which may be formed under an Act of the legislature may co-operate in the creation of a joint planning commission which may be designated to be a regional or metropolitan planning commission, as agreed among the governing bodies. The governing bodies of cities, counties, school districts or other governmental units may co-operate with the governing bodies of the cities and counties or other authorized governing bodies of any adjoining state or states in the creation of such a joint planning commission where such co-operation has been authorized by law by the adjoining state or states.

The joint planning commission shall be separate and apart from the governmental units creating it, may sue and be sued, contract for the purchase and sale of real and personal property necessary for its purposes, and shall be a juristic entity as the term is used in section 97C.2, subsection 6. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §473A.1]

473A.2 Membership.

The commission shall have not less than five members, appointed by the governing bodies of the area served by the commission. A majority of the members of the commission may be citizens who hold no other public office or position except appointive membership on a city plan commission or other planning commission, board or agency. Citizen members shall be appointed for overlapping terms of not less than three nor more than five years or thereafter until their successors are appointed. The appointing governing bodies shall determine the amount of compensation, if any, to be paid to the members of a commission. Any vacancy in the membership of a commission shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as the initial appointment. The governing bodies shall have authority to remove any member for cause stated in writing and after a public hearing. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §473A.2] 473A.3 Organization.

The joint planning commission shall elect one of its members as chairperson who shall serve for one year or until the chairperson is re-elected or the chairperson's successor is elected. The commission shall appoint a secretary who may be an officer or an employee of a governing body or of the commission. The members of the commission shall meet not less than four times a year at the call of the chairperson and at such other times as the chairperson or the members of the commission shall determine, shall adopt rules for the transaction of business, and shall keep a record of their resolutions, transactions, findings and determinations, which record shall be a public record. The commission may employ such employees and staff as it may deem necessary for its work, including a director of planning and consultants. In the performance of its duties, the commission may co-operate with, contract with, and accept and expend funds from federal, state, or local agencies, public or semipublic agencies, or private individuals or corporations, and may carry out such co-operative undertakings and contract. It may enter into other contracts and make expenditures for the purchase of required equipment and supplies, and exercise all other powers necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The expenditures of the commission, exclusive of gifts or grants to the commission or its contract receipts, shall be within the amounts appropriated or provided to the commission by the governing bodies of the area served by the commission, who are empowered to determine, agree upon, and appropriate funds for the payment of the expenses of the commission of their respective shares thereof. The governing bodies of the area served by the commission shall co-operate with the commission and may aid the commission by furnishing staff, services and property. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §473A.3]

473A.4 Powers and duties.

The commission shall have the power and duty to make comprehensive studies and plans for the development of the area it serves which will guide the unified development of the area and which will eliminate planning duplication and promote economy and efficiency in the co-ordinated development of the area and the general welfare, convenience, safety, and prosperity of its people. The plan or plans collectively shall be known as the regional or metropolitan development plan. The plans for the development of the area may include, but shall not be limited to, recommendations with respect to existing and proposed highways, bridges, airports, streets, parks and recreational areas, schools and public institutions and public utilities, public open spaces, and sites for public buildings and structures; districts for residence, business, industry, recreation, agriculture, and forestry; water supply, sanitation, drainage, protection against floods and other disasters; areas for housing developments, slum clearance and urban renewal and redevelopment; location of private and public utilities, including but not limited to sewerage and water supply systems; and such other recommendations concerning current and impending problems as may affect the area served by the commission. Time and priority schedules and cost estimates for the accomplishment of the recommendations may also be included in the plans. The plans shall be based upon and include appropriate studies of the location and extent of present and anticipated populations; social, physical, and economic resources, problems and trends; and governmental conditions and trends. The commission is also authorized to make surveys, land-use studies, and urban renewal plans, provide technical services and other planning work for the area it serves and for cities, counties, and other political subdivisions in the area. A plan or plans of the commission may be adopted, added to, and changed from time to time by a majority vote of the planning commission. The plan or plans may in whole or in part be adopted by the governing bodies of the co-operating cities and counties as the general plans of such cities and counties. The commission may also assist the governing bodies and other public authorities or agencies within the area it serves in carrying out any regional plan or plans, and assist any planning commission, board or agency of the cities and counties and political subdivisions in the preparation or effectuation of local plans and planning consistent with the program of the commission. The commission may co-operate and confer, as far as possible, with planning agencies of other states or of regional groups of states adjoining its area.

A planning commission formed under the provisions of this chapter shall, upon designation as such by the governor, serve as a district, regional or metropolitan agency for comprehensive planning for its area for the purpose of carrying out the functions as defined for such an agency by federal, state and local laws and regulations. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §473A.4] 473A.5 Plans distributed.

Copies of the plan or plans and amendments or revisions of a plan or plans prepared by a commission may be transmitted by the commission to the chief administrative officers, the legislative bodies, the planning commissions, boards or agencies of the counties and cities, within its area, and to regional or metropolitan planning commissions established for adjoining areas. A commission may make copies of its plan or plans or parts of plans available for general distribution or sale, and may advise and supply information, as far as available, to persons and organizations who may request such advice and information and who are concerned with the area's development problems. It may also provide information to state and local agencies and to the public at large, in order to foster public awareness and understanding of the objectives of regional or metropolitan planning, and in order to stimulate public interest and participation in the orderly, integrated development of the area served by the commission. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §473A.5]

473A.6 Filing documents with commission.

To facilitate effective and harmonious planning of the region or metropolitan area, all governing bodies in the area served by a commission, and all county and city planning commissions, boards or agencies in the area may file with the commission, for its information, all county or city plans, zoning ordinances, official maps, building codes, subdivision regulations, or amendments or revisions of them, as well as copies of their regular and special reports dealing in whole or in part with planning matters. County or city governing bodies, or county or city local planning commissions, boards or agencies may also submit proposals to a commission for such plans, ordinances, maps, codes, regulations, amendments or revisions prior to their adoption, in order to afford an opportunity to the commission to study such proposals and to render advice thereon.

473A.7 Construction of provisions.
Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to remove or limit the powers of the co-operating cities, counties, school districts, benefited water districts, benefited fire districts, sanitary districts, or similar districts as provided by state law. All legislative power with respect to zoning and other planning legislation shall remain with the governing body of the co-operative cities and counties. Each participating city or county may continue to have its own planning commission or board but may under the joint agreement and in the interest of economy and efficiency and in the interest of uniform standards and procedures, request the metropolitan or regional planning commission to assume duties and functions of local planning agencies in whole or in part. The metropolitan or regional planning commission shall have the duty and function of promoting public interest and understanding of the economic and social necessity for long-term co-ordinated planning for the metropolitan or regional area, but its official recommendations shall be made to the governing bodies of the co-operating cities, counties, school districts, benefited water districts, benefited fire districts, sanitary districts, or similar districts.

473A.8 Contracts for planning.
A metropolitan planning commission may contract with professional consultants, the Iowa department of economic development or the federal government, for local planning assistance.

TITLE XVIII
PUBLIC UTILITIES

CHAPTER 474
UTILITIES DIVISION

474.1 Creation of division and board — organization.
   A utilities division is created within the department of commerce. The policymaking body for the division is the utilities board which is created within the division. The board is composed of three members appointed by the governor and subject to confirmation by the senate, not more than two of whom shall be from the same political party. Each member appointed shall serve for six-year staggered terms beginning and ending as provided by section 69.19. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term in the same manner as full-term appointments are made.

   The utilities board shall organize by appointing an executive secretary, who shall take the same oath as the members. The board shall set the salary of the executive secretary within the limits of the pay plan for exempt positions provided for in section 19A.9, subsection 2, unless otherwise provided by the general assembly. The board may employ additional personnel as it finds necessary. Subject to confirmation by the senate, the governor shall appoint a member as the chairperson of the board. The chairperson shall be the administrator of the utilities division. The appointment as chairperson shall be for a two-year term which begins and ends as provided in section 69.19.

   As used in this chapter and chapters 475A, 476, 476A, 478, “division” and “utilities division” mean the utilities division of the department of commerce.
   83 Acts, ch 127, §6; 86 Acts, ch 1245, §740
   Confirmation, §2 32

474.2 Certain persons barred from office.
   No person in the employ of any common carrier or other public utility, or owning any bonds, stock or property in any railroad company or other public utility shall be eligible to the office of utilities board member or secretary of the utilities board; and the entering into the employ of any common carrier or other public utility or the acquiring of any stock or other interest in any common carrier or other public utility by such member or secretary after appointment shall disqualify the member or secretary to hold the office or perform the duties thereof.

474.3 Proceedings.
   The utilities board may in all cases conduct its proceedings, when not otherwise prescribed by law, in such manner as will best conduce to the proper dispatch of business and the attainment of justice.

474.4 Quorum — personal interest.
   A majority of the utilities board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but no member shall participate in any hearing or proceeding in which the member has any pecuniary interest.

474.5 Rules, forms and service.
   The utilities board may from time to time make or amend such general rules or orders as may be necessary for the preservation of order and the regulation of proceedings before it, including forms of notice and the service thereof, which shall conform as nearly as may be to those in use in the courts of the state.

Manner of commencing actions, ch 617 §474.6  Appearances — record of votes — public hearings.

Any party may appear before the utilities board and be heard in person or by attorney. Every vote and official action thereof shall be entered of record, and, upon the request of either party or person interested, its proceedings shall be public.

§474.7  Seal.

The utilities board shall have a seal, of which courts shall take judicial notice.

§474.8  Office — time employed — expenses.

The utilities board shall have an office at the seat of government and each member shall devote the member's whole time to the duties of the office, and the members and secretary and other employees shall receive their actual necessary traveling expenses while in the discharge of their official duties away from the general offices.

§474.9  General jurisdiction of utilities board.

The utilities board shall have general supervision of all pipelines and all lines for the transmission, sale, and distribution of electrical current for light, heat, and power pursuant to the provisions of chapters 476, 478, 479 and 543 and such other duties as may be provided by law.

§474.10  General counsel.

The board shall employ a competent attorney to serve as its general counsel, and assistants to the general counsel as it finds necessary for the full and efficient discharge of its duties. The general counsel is the attorney for, and legal advisor of, the board and is exempt from chapter 19A. Assistants to the general counsel are subject to chapter 19A. The general counsel or an assistant to the general counsel shall provide the necessary legal advice to the board in all matters and represent the board in all actions instituted in a state or federal court challenging the validity of any rule or order of the board. The existence of a fact which disqualifies a person from election or from acting as utilities board member disqualifies the person from employment as general counsel or assistant general counsel. The general counsel shall devote full time to the duties of the office. During employment the counsel shall not be a member of a political committee, contribute to a political campaign fund other than through the income tax checkoff for contributions to the Iowa election campaign fund and the presidential election campaign fund, participate in a political campaign, or be a candidate for a political office.

83 Acts, ch 127, §8, 46, 86 Acts, ch 1245, §742, 743

475A.2 Duties.
The consumer advocate shall
1 Investigate the legality of all rates, charges, rules, regulations, and practices of all persons under the jurisdiction of the utilities board, and institute civil proceedings before the board or any court to correct any illegality on the part of any such person In any such investigation, the person acting for the office of the consumer advocate shall have the power to ask the board to issue subpoenas, compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses, and the production of papers, books, and documents, at the discretion of the board
2 Act as attorney for and represent all consumers generally and the public generally in all proceedings before the utilities board
3 Institute as a party judicial review of any decision of the utilities board, if the consumer advocate deems judicial review to be in the public interest
4 Appear for all consumers generally and the public generally in all actions instituted in any state or federal court which involve the validity of a rule, regulation, or order of the utilities board
5 Act as attorney for and represent all consumers generally and the public generally in proceedings before the board and any court to correct any illegality on the part of any such person In any such investigation, the person acting for the office of the consumer advocate shall have the power to ask the board to issue subpoenas, compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses, and the production of papers, books, and documents, at the discretion of the board
6 Appear and participate as a party in the name of the office of consumer advocate in the performance of the duties of the office
83 Acts, ch 127, §9

475A.3 Office — employees — expenses.
1 Office The office of consumer advocate shall be a separate division of the department of justice and located at the same location as the utilities division of the department of commerce Administrative support services shall be provided to the consumer advocate division by the utilities division of the department of commerce
2 Employees The consumer advocate may employ attorneys, legal assistants, secretaries, clerks, and other employees the consumer advocate finds necessary for the full and efficient discharge of the duties and responsibilities of the office The consumer advocate may employ consultants as expert witnesses or technical advisors pursuant to contract in any proceeding in which the consumer advocate division is a party Employees of the consumer advocate division, other than the consumer advocate, are subject to merit employee except as provided in section 19A 3
3 Salaries, expenses, and appropriation The salary of the consumer advocate shall be fixed by the attorney general within the salary range set by the general assembly, notwithstanding 1981 Iowa Acts, chapter 9, sections 6 and 7 and subsequent amendments to those sections The salaries of employees of the consumer advocate and the reimbursement of expenses for the employees and the consumer advocate are as provided by law The appropriation for the office of consumer advocate shall be a separate line item contained in the appropriation from the utility trust fund created pursuant to section 476 10

475A.4 Utilities division records and employees.
1 The consumer advocate has free access to all the files, records, and documents in the office of the utilities division except:
   a Personal information in confidential personnel records of the utilities division b Records which represent and constitute the work product of the general counsel of the utilities board, and records of confidential communications between utilities board members and their general counsel, where the records relate to a proceeding before the board in which the consumer advocate is a party or a proceeding in any state or federal court in which both the board and the consumer advocate are parties
   c Customer information of a confidential nature which could jeopardize the customer's competitive status and is provided by the utility to the division Such information shall be provided to the consumer advocate by the division, if the board determines it to be in the public interest
   d Financial statements which are confidential under section 542 16 or 543 24
2 The consumer advocate may utilize employees of the utilities division as expert witnesses or technical advisors in any proceeding in which the consumer advocate is a party The consumer advocate may utilize employees of the utilities division to assist in investigations and studies related to rates and services of utilities, as deemed appropriate by the board However, any utilities division employee utilized by the consumer advocate shall not participate on behalf of the board in its decision
83 Acts, ch 127, §11
§475A.5  Service.
The consumer advocate is entitled to service of all documents required by statute or rule to be served on parties in proceedings before the utilities board and all notices, petitions, applications, complaints, answers, motions, and other pleadings filed pursuant to statute or rule with the board.
83 Acts, ch 127, §12

§475A.6  Certification of expenses to utilities division.
The consumer advocate shall determine the advocate's expenses, including a reasonable allocation of general office expenses, directly attributable to participation in proceedings involving specific utilities, and shall certify the expenses to the utilities division not less than quarterly. The expenses shall then be includable in the expenses of the division subject to direct assessment under section 476.10.

The consumer advocate shall annually, within ninety days after the close of each fiscal year, determine the advocate's expenses, including a reasonable allocation of general office expenses, attributable to participation in proceedings involving public utilities generally, and shall certify the expenses to the utilities division. The expenses shall then be includable in the expenses of the division subject to remainder assessment under section 476.10.

The consumer advocate is entitled to notice and opportunity to be heard in any utilities board proceeding on objection to an assessment for expenses certified by the consumer advocate. Expenses assessed under this section shall not exceed the amount appropriated for the consumer advocate division of the department of justice.

§475A.7  Consumer advisory panel.
The attorney general shall appoint five members and the governor shall appoint four members to a consumer advisory panel to meet at the request of the consumer advocate for consultation regarding public utility regulation. A member shall be appointed from each congressional district with the appointee residing within the congressional district at the time of appointment. The remaining appointees shall be members at large. No more than five members shall belong to the same political party as provided in section 69.16. Not more than a simple majority of the members shall be of the same gender. The members appointed by the attorney general shall serve four-year terms at the pleasure of the attorney general and their appointments are not subject to confirmation. The members appointed by the governor shall serve four-year terms at the pleasure of the governor and their appointments are not subject to confirmation. The governor or attorney general shall fill a vacancy in the same manner as the original appointment for the unexpired portion of the member's term. Members of the consumer advisory panel shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for actual expenses from funds appropriated to the consumer advocate division.

CHAPTER 476
PUBLIC UTILITY REGULATION

REGULATION AUTHORITY
476.1  Applicability of authority.
476.1A  Applicability of authority — certain electric utilities.
476.1B  Applicability of authority — municipally owned utilities.
476.2  Powers — rules.
476.3  Complaints — investigation.
476.4  Tariffs filed.
476.4A  Exemption from tariff filings for telephone utilities.
476.5  Adherence to schedules — discounts.
476.6  Changes in rates, charges, schedules and regulations — supply and cost review.
476.7  Application by utility for review.
476.8  Utility charges and service.
476.9  Accounts rendered to board.
476.10  Investigations — expense — appropriation.
476.11  Telephone tolls determined.
476.12  Rehearings before board.
476.13  Judicial review.
476.14  Violations stopped.
476.15  Extent of jurisdiction.
476.16  Annual report.
476.17  Peak-load energy conservation.
476.18  Impermissible charges.
476.19  Construction of statutes.
476.20  Disconnection limited — notice — moratorium — deposits.
476.21  Discrimination prohibited.

ASSIGNED AREA OF SERVICE
476.22  Definition.
476.23  Electric service conflicts — certificates of authority.
476.24  Electric utility service area maps.
476.25  Assigned service areas — electric utilities — legislative policy.
476.26  Effect of incorporation, annexation or consolidation.
The jurisdiction of the board under this chapter shall include programs designed to promote the use of energy conservation strategies by rate or service-regulated gas and electric utilities. These programs shall be cost effective. The board may initiate these programs as pilot projects to accumulate sufficient data to determine if the programs meet the requirements of this paragraph.

The jurisdiction of the board as to the regulation of communications services is not applicable to a service or facility provided by a telephone utility that is or becomes subject to competition, as determined by the board. In determining whether a service or facility is or becomes subject to competition, the board shall consider whether a comparable service or facility is available from a supplier other than the telephone utility. When a service or facility provided by a telephone utility becomes subject to competition, the board shall, within a reasonable period of time, deregulate that service or facility. Upon deregulation, all investment, revenues, and expenses associated with the service or facility shall be removed from the telephone utility’s regulated operations and shall not be considered by the board in setting rates for the telephone utility unless they continue to affect the company’s regulated operations. In the event that the board considers in vestment, revenues, and expenses associated with unregulated services or facilities in setting rates for the telephone utility, the board shall not use any profits or costs from such unregulated services or facilities to determine the rates for regulated services or facilities. Nothing in this section shall preclude the board from considering the investment, revenues and expenses associated with the sale of classified directory advertising by a telephone utility in determining rates for the telephone utility.

83 Acts, ch 127, §15, 16, 84 Acts, ch 1031, §1

§476.1A Applicability of authority — certain electric utilities.

Electric public utilities having less than ten thou sand customers and electric cooperative corporations and associations are not subject to the rate regulation authority of the board. Such utilities are subject to all other regulation and enforcement activities of the board, including:
§476.1A

1. Assessment of fees for the support of the division
2. Safety and engineering standards for equipment, operations, and procedures
3. Assigned area of service
4. Pilot projects of the board

However, sections 476.20, 476.21, 476.41 through 476.44, 476.51 and 476.61 and chapters 476A and 478, to the extent applicable, apply to such electric utilities.

Electric cooperative corporations and associations and electric public utilities exempt from rate regulation under this section shall not make or grant any unreasonable preferences or advantages as to rates or services to any person or subject any person to any unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage.

The board of directors or the membership of an electric cooperative corporation or association otherwise exempt from rate regulation may elect to have the cooperative's rates regulated by the board. The board shall adopt rules prescribing the manner in which the board of directors or the membership of an electric cooperative may so elect. If the board of directors or the membership of an electric cooperative has elected to have the cooperative's rates regulated by the board, after two years have elapsed from the effective date of such election the membership of the electric cooperative may elect to exempt the cooperative from the rate regulation authority of the board.

476.1B Applicability of authority — municipally owned utilities.

1. Unless otherwise specifically provided by statute, a municipally owned utility is not subject to regulation by the board under this chapter, except for regulatory action pertaining to:

a. Assessment of fees for the support of the division and the office of consumer advocate, as set forth in section 476.10
b. Safety standards
c. Assigned area of service, as set forth in sections 476.22 through 476.26
d. Enforcement of civil penalties pursuant to section 476.51
e. Disconnection of service, as set forth in section 476.20
f. Discrimination against users of renewable energy resources, as set forth in section 476.21
g. Encouragement of alternate energy production facilities, as set forth in sections 476.41 through 476.45

2. Municipally owned utilities shall be required to adhere to the requirements of the following sections of the Code but all rules and regulations to enforce these sections shall be established with each local municipal utility's governing board. The board has no authority concerning these sections as they apply to municipal utilities:

a. Peak-load management techniques, as set forth in section 476.17
b. Promulgation of rules concerning the use of energy conservation strategies, as set forth in section 476.2

86 Acts, ch 1162, §1

476.2 Powers — rules.

The board shall have broad general powers to effect the purposes of this chapter notwithstanding the fact that certain specific powers are hereinafter set forth. The board shall have authority to issue subpoenas and to pay the same fees and mileage as are payable to witnesses in the courts of record of general jurisdiction and shall establish all needful, just and reasonable rules, not inconsistent with law, to govern the exercise of its powers and duties, the practice and procedure before it, and to govern the form, contents and filing of reports, documents and other papers provided for in this chapter or in the board's rules. In the establishment, amendment, alteration or repeal of any of such rules, the board shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 17A.

The board shall employ rates of compensation consistent with current standards in industry such as professionally trained engineers, accountants, attorneys, and skilled examiners and inspectors, secretaries, clerks, and other employees as it may find necessary for the full and efficient discharge of its duties and responsibilities as required by this chapter.

The board is hereby authorized and empowered to intervene in any proceedings before the federal power commission or any other federal or state regulatory body when it finds that any decision of such tribunal would adversely affect the costs of any public utility service within the state of Iowa.

The board shall have authority to inquire into the management of the business of all public utilities, and shall keep itself informed as to the manner and method in which the same is conducted, and may obtain from any public utility all necessary information to enable the board to perform its duties.

The board shall promulgate rules concerning the use of energy conservation strategies by rate or service-regulated gas and electric utilities by July 1, 1981. The board may prescribe appropriate rates for any approved energy conservation program. Nothing in this paragraph subjects the rates of municipal utilities to the regulatory authority of the board.

1. A public utility shall furnish reasonably adequate service at rates and charges in accordance with tariffs filed with the board. When there is filed with the board by any person or body politic, or filed by the board upon its own motion, a written complaint requesting the board to determine the reasonableness of the rates, charges, schedules, service, regulations, or anything done or omitted to be done by a public utility subject to this chapter or in contravention of this chapter, the written complaint shall be forwarded to the board to the public utility, which shall be called upon to satisfy the complaint or to answer it in writing with a reasonable time to be specified by the board. Copies of the written complaint forwarded by the board to the public utility and copies of all correspondence from the public utility in response to the complaint shall be furnished by the board in an expeditious manner to the consumer advocate. If the board determines the public utility's response is inadequate and there appears to be any reasonable ground for investigating the complaint, the board shall promptly initiate a formal proceeding.
If the consumer advocate determines the public utility's response to the complaint is inadequate, the consumer advocate may file a petition with the board which shall promptly initiate a formal proceeding if the board determines that there is any reasonable ground for investigating the complaint. The formal proceeding may be initiated at any time by the board on its own motion. If a proceeding is initiated upon petition filed by the consumer advocate or upon the board's own motion, the board shall set the case for hearing and give notice as it deems appropriate. When the board, after a hearing held after reasonable notice, finds a public utility's rates, charges, schedules, service, or regulations are unjust, unreasonable, discriminatory, or otherwise in violation of any provision of law, the board shall determine just, reasonable, and nondiscriminatory rates, charges, schedules, service, or regulations to be observed and enforced.

2. If, as a result of a review procedure conducted under section 476.31, a review conducted under section 476.32, a special audit, an investigation by division staff, or an investigation by the consumer advocate, a complaint is filed by division staff, or a petition is filed with the board by the consumer advocate, alleging that a utility's rates are excessive, the disputed amount shall be specified in the complaint or petition. The public utility shall, within the time prescribed by the board, file a bond or undertaking approved by the board conditioned upon the refund in a manner prescribed by the board of amounts collected after the date of filing of the complaint or petition in excess of rates or charges finally determined by the board to be lawful. If upon hearing the board finds that the utility's rates are unlawful, the board shall order a refund, with interest, of amounts collected after the date of filing of the complaint or petition that are determined to be in excess of the amounts which would have been collected under the rates finally approved. However, the board shall not order a refund that is greater than the amount specified in the complaint or petition, plus interest, and provided that if the board fails to render a decision within ten months following the date of filing of the complaint or petition, the board shall not order a refund of any excess amounts that are collected after the expiration of that ten-month period and prior to the date the decision is rendered.

3. A determination of utility rates by the board pursuant to this section that is based upon a departure from previously established regulatory principles shall apply prospectively from the date of the decision.

476.4A Exemption from tariff filings for telephone utilities.

Notwithstanding contrary provisions of this chapter, a telephone utility may offer centron, centrex, intraexchange private line, or multiline variety package service without filing a tariff unless the board determines such a procedure is not in the public interest. The telephone utility shall offer each service which is exempt from a tariff filing at a rate which exceeds the cost of the service. A telephone utility offering its services without filing a tariff shall not discriminate in an unreasonable manner for or against any customer.

A telephone utility shall provide the board with at least thirty days notice prior to a request to offer service without filing a tariff. The board may require the telephone utility to file its price lists, contracts, or cost allocations for services offered without a tariff. Any such price lists, contracts, or cost allocations so filed shall be afforded rebuttable presumptions that they meet the requirements of section 22.7, subsection 6.

The board shall consider the revenues, expenses and investment related to telephone utility services offered without a filed tariff in proceedings under section 476.3, 476.5 and 476.7.

476.5 Adherence to schedules — discounts.

No public utility subject to rate regulation shall directly or indirectly charge a greater or less compensation for its services than that prescribed in its tariffs, and no such public utility shall make or grant any unreasonable preferences or advantages as to rates or services to any person or subject any person to any unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit any public utility furnishing communications services from providing any service rendered by it without charge or at reduced rate to any of its active or retired officers, directors, or employees, or such officers, directors or employees of other public utilities furnishing communications services. Provided, however, said service is for personal use, and not for engaging in a business for profit.
1 Filing with board A public utility subject to rate regulation shall not make effective a new or changed rate, charge, schedule or regulation until the rate, charge, schedule, or regulation has been approved by the board, except as provided in subsections 11 and 13.

A subscriber of a telephone exchange or service, who is declared to be legally blind under section 422 12, subsection 1, paragraph "c", is exempt from any charges for telephone directory assistance that may be approved by the board.

2 Telephone directory assistance charges — record provided The board shall not approve a schedule of directory assistance charges unless the schedule provides that residential customers be provided a record of the date and time of each directory assistance call made from their residence.

3 Telephone directory assistance charges — approval by board Notwithstanding contrary provisions of this section, a public utility shall not implement a charge for telephone directory assistance or implement a new or changed rate for telephone directory assistance except pursuant to a tariff that has been filed with the board and finally approved by the board.

4 First seven calls exempted A telephone directory assistance tariff that is approved by the board on or after July 1, 1981, shall be subject to the limitation that a subscriber shall not be charged for the first seven directory assistance calls made from the subscriber's station during each of the first twelve months in which the tariff is in effect, and a charge made in violation of this limitation is an unlawful charge with the meaning of this chapter.

5 Written notice of increase All public utilities, except those exempted from rate regulation by section 476 1, shall give written notice of a proposed increase of any rate or charge to all affected customers served by the public utility no more than sixty-two days prior to and prior to the time the application for the increase is filed with the board. Public utilities exempted from rate regulation by section 476 1 shall give written notice of a proposed increase of any rate or charge to all affected customers served by the public utility at least thirty days prior to the effective date of the increase.

The notice to affected customers shall also state that the customer has a right to file a written objection to the rate increase and that the affected customers may request the board to hold a public hearing to determine if the rate increase should be allowed. The board shall prescribe the manner and method that the written notice to each affected customer of the public utility shall be served.

6 Facts and arguments submitted At the time a public utility subject to rate regulation files with the board an application for any new or changed rates, charges, schedules, or regulations, the public utility also shall submit factual evidence and written argument offered in support of the filing. If the filing is an application for a general rate increase, the utility shall also file affidavits containing testimonial evidence to be offered in support of the filing, although this requirement does not apply if the public utility is a rural electric cooperative.

7 Hearing set After the filing of an application for new or changed rates, charges, schedules, or regulations by a public utility subject to rate regulation, the board, prior to the expiration of thirty days after the filing date, shall docket the case as a formal proceeding and set the case for hearing unless the new or changed rates, charges, schedules, or regulations are approved by the board. In the case of a rural electric cooperative, the board may docket the case as a formal proceeding and set the case for hearing prior to the proposed effective date of the tariff. The board shall give notice of formal proceedings as it seems appropriate. The docketing of a case as a formal proceeding suspends the effective date of the new or changed rates, charges, schedules, or regulations until the rates, charges, schedules, or regulations are approved by the board, except as provided in subsection 13.

8 Utility hearing expenses reported When a case has been docketed as a formal proceeding under subsection 7, the public utility, within a reasonable time thereafter, shall file with the board a report outlining the utility's expected expenses for litigating the case through the time period allowed by the board in rendering a decision. At the conclusion of the utility's presentation of comments, testimony, exhibits, or briefs the utility shall submit to the board a listing of the utility's actual litigation expenses in the proceeding. As part of the findings of the board under subsection 9, the board shall allow recovery of costs of the litigation expenses over a reasonable period of time to the extent the board deems the expenses reasonable and just.

9 Finding by board If, after hearing and decision on all issues presented for determination in the rate proceeding, the board finds the proposed rates, charges, schedules, or regulations of the utility to be unlawful, the board shall by order authorize and direct the utility to file new or changed rates, charges, schedules, or regulations which, when approved by the board and placed in effect, will satisfy the requirements of this chapter. The rates, charges, schedules, or regulations so approved are lawful and effective upon their approval.

10 Limitation on filings A public utility shall not make a subsequent filing of an application for a new or changed rate, charge, schedule, or regulation which relates to services for which a rate filing is pending within twelve months following the date the prior application was filed or until the board has issued a final order on the prior application, whichever date is earlier, unless the public utility applies to the board for authority and receives authority to make a subsequent filing at an earlier date.

11 Automatic adjustments permitted This chapter does not prohibit a public utility from making provision for the automatic adjustment of rates and charges for public utility service provided that a schedule showing the automatic adjustment of rates and charges is first filed with the board.

If an automatic adjustment is used, the adjustment must be reduced to zero at least once in every twelve month period, and all appropriate charges collected by the automatic adjustment shall be incorporated in the utility's other rates at that time.

12 Rate levels for telephone utilities The board may approve a schedule of rate levels for any regulated service provided by a utility providing communication services.
13. Temporary authority. Upon the request of a public utility, the board shall, when required by this subsection, grant the public utility temporary authority to place in effect any or all of the suspended rates, charges, schedules or regulations by filing with the board a bond or other undertaking approved by the board conditioned upon the refund in a manner to be prescribed by the board of any amounts collected in excess of the amounts which would have been collected under rates, charges, schedules or regulations finally approved by the board. In determining that portion of the new or changed rates, charges, schedules or regulations to be placed in effect prior to a final decision, the board shall apply previously established regulatory principles and shall, at a minimum, permit rates and charges which will allow the utility the opportunity to earn a return on common stock equity equal to that which the board held reasonable and just in the most recent rate case involving the same utility or the same type of utility service, provided that if the most recent final decision of the board in an applicable rate case was rendered more than twelve months prior to the date of filing of the request for temporary rates, the board shall in addition consider financial market data that is filed or that is otherwise available to the board and shall adjust the rate of return on common stock equity that was approved in that decision upward or downward as necessary to reflect current conditions. The board shall render a decision on a request for temporary authority within ninety days after the date of filing of the request. The decision shall be effective immediately. If the board has not rendered a final decision with respect to suspended rates, charges, schedules or regulations upon the expiration of ten months after the filing date, plus the length of any delay that necessarily results either from the failure of the public utility to exercise due diligence in connection with the proceedings or from intervening judicial proceedings, plus the length of any extension permitted by section 476.33, subsection 3, then those portions that were approved by the board on a temporary basis shall be deemed finally approved by the board and the utility may place them into effect on a permanent basis, and the utility also may place into effect subject to refund and until the final decision of the board any portion of the suspended rates, charges, schedules or regulations not previously approved on a temporary basis by filing with the board a bond or other undertaking approved by the board.

If the board finds that an extension of the ten-month period is necessary to permit the accumulation of necessary data with respect to the operation of a newly constructed electric generating facility that has a capacity of one hundred megawatts or more of electricity and that is proposed to be included in the rate base for the first time, the board may extend the ten-month period up to a maximum extension of six months, but only with respect to that portion of the suspended rates, charges, schedules or regulations that are necessarily connected with the inclusion of the generating facility in the rate base. If a utility is proposing to include in its rate base for the first time a newly constructed electric generating facility that has a capacity of one hundred megawatts or more of electricity, the filing date of new or changed rates, charges, schedules or regulations shall, for purposes of computing the ninety-day and ten-month limitations stated above, be the date as determined by the board that the new plant went into service, but only with respect to that portion of the suspended rates, charges, schedules or regulations that are necessarily connected with the inclusion of the generating facility in the rate base.

The board shall determine the rate of interest to be paid by a public utility to persons receiving refunds. The interest rate to be applied to refunds of moneys collected subject to refund under this subsection is two percent per annum plus the average quarterly interest rate at commercial banks for twenty-four-month loans for personal expenditures, as determined by the board, compounded annually. The board shall consider federal reserve statistical release G.19 or its equivalent when determining interest to be paid under this subsection.

14. Refunds passed on to customers. If pursuant to federal law or rule a rate-regulated public utility furnishing gas to customers in the state receives a refund or credit for past gas purchases, the savings shall be passed on to the customers in a manner approved by the board. Similarly, if pursuant to federal law or rule a rate-regulated public utility furnishing gas to customers in the state receives a rate for future gas purchases which is lower than the price included in the public utility’s approved rate application, the savings shall be passed on to the customers in a manner approved by the board.

15. Natural gas supply and cost review. The board shall periodically, but not less than annually, conduct a proceeding for the purpose of evaluating the reasonableness and prudence of a rate-regulated public utility’s natural gas procurement and contracting practices. The natural gas supply and cost review shall be conducted as a contested case pursuant to chapter 17A.

Under procedures established by the board, each rate-regulated public utility furnishing gas shall periodically file a complete natural gas procurement plan describing the expected sources and volumes of its gas supply and changes in the cost of gas anticipated over a future twelve-month period specified by the board. The plan shall describe all major contracts and gas supply arrangements entered into by the utility for obtaining gas during the specified twelve-month period. The description of the major contracts and arrangements shall include the price of gas, the duration of the contract or arrangement, and an explanation or description of any other term or provision as required by the board. The plan shall also include the utility’s evaluation of the reasonableness and prudence of its decisions to obtain gas in the manner described in the plan, an explanation of the legal and regulatory actions taken by the utility to minimize the cost of gas purchased by the utility, and such other information as the board may require.

Contemporaneously with the natural gas procurement plan, the public utility shall file with the board a five-year forecast of the gas requirement of its customers, its anticipated sources of supply, and projections of gas costs. The forecast shall include a description of all relevant major contracts and gas supply arrangements entered into or contemplated between the gas utility and its suppliers, a description of all major gas supply arrangements which the gas utility knows have been, or expects will be, entered into between the utility's principal pipeline suppliers and their major sources of gas, and such other information as the board may require.

During the natural gas supply and cost review, the board shall evaluate the reasonableness and prudence of the gas procurement plan. In evaluating the gas procurement plan, the board shall consider the volume, cost, and reliability of the major alternative gas supplies available to the utility; the cost of alternative fuels available to the utility's customers; the availability of gas in storage; the appropriate legal and regulatory actions which the utility could take to minimize the cost of purchased gas; the gas procurement practices of the utility; and other relevant factors. If a utility is not taking all reasonable actions to minimize its purchase gas costs, consistent with assuring an adequate long-term supply of natural gas, the board shall not allow the utility to recover from its customers purchase gas costs in excess of those costs that would be incurred under reasonable and prudent policies and practices.

The board shall also evaluate the five-year forecast filed by the public utility. The board may indicate any cost items in the five-year forecast that on the basis of present evidence in the record the board would be unlikely to permit the utility to recover from its customers in rates, charges or purchased gas clauses established in the future. Nothing in this section prohibits the board from disallowing the recovery of other related or unrelated costs on the basis of evidence received in a later contested case proceeding.

The board shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A to implement the provisions of this section prior to January 1, 1984.

16. Annual electric energy supply and cost review. The board shall conduct an annual proceeding for the purpose of evaluating the reasonableness and prudence of a rate-regulated public utility's procurement and contracting practices related to the acquisition of fuel for use in generating electricity. The proceeding shall be conducted as a contested case pursuant to chapter 17A. Under procedures established by the board, the utility shall file information as the board deems appropriate. If a utility is not taking all reasonable actions to minimize its fuel costs, the board shall not allow the utility to recover from its customers fuel costs in excess of those costs that would be incurred under reasonable and prudent policies and practices.

Contemporaneously with the annual review proceeding, the board shall analyze the electric generating capacity needs for the next decade by the public utility's customers, under procedures established by the board. The utility shall file information regarding future capacity needs of its customers as deemed appropriate by the board.

476.7 Application by utility for review.

If there shall be filed with the board by any public utility an application requesting the board to determine the reasonableness of the utility's rates, charges, schedules, service or regulations, the board shall promptly initiate a formal proceeding. Such a formal proceeding may be initiated at any time by the board on its own motion. Whenever such a proceeding has been initiated upon application or motion, the board shall set the case for hearing and give such notice thereof as it deems appropriate. Whenever the board, after a hearing held after reasonable notice, finds any public utility's rates, charges, schedules, service or regulations are unjust, unreasonable, insufficient, discriminatory or otherwise in violation of any provision of law, the board shall determine just, reasonable, sufficient and nondiscriminatory rates, charges, schedules, service or regulations to be thereafter observed and enforced.

476.8 Utility charges and service.

Every public utility is required to furnish reasonably adequate service and facilities. "Reasonably adequate service and facilities" for public utilities furnishing gas or electricity includes programs for customers to encourage the use of energy conservation and renewable energy sources. The charge made by any public utility for any heat, light, gas, energy conservation and renewable energy programs, water or power produced, transmitted, delivered or furnished, or communications services, or for any service rendered or to be rendered in connection therewith shall be reasonable and just, and every unjust or unreasonable charge for such service is prohibited and declared unlawful. In determining reasonable and just rates, the board shall consider all factors relating to value and shall not be bound by rate base decisions or rulings made prior to the adoption of this chapter.

The board, in determining the value of materials or services to be included in valuations or costs of operations for rate-making purposes, may disallow any unreasonable profit made in the sale of materials to or services supplied for any public utility by any firm or corporation owned or controlled directly or indirectly by such utility or any affiliate, subsidiary, parent company, associate or any corporation whose controlling stockholders are also controlling stockholders of such utility. The burden of proof shall be on the public utility to prove that no unreasonable profit is made.

476.9 Accounts rendered to board.

1. Every public utility shall keep and render to the board in the manner and form prescribed by the board uniform accounts of all business transacted.

2. Every public utility engaged directly or indirectly in any other business than that of the production, transmission or furnishing of heat, light, water or power or furnishing communications services to the public shall, if required by the board, keep and render separately to the board in like manner and form the accounts of all such other business, in which case all the provisions of this chapter shall apply to the books, accounts, papers and records of such other business and all profits and losses may be taken into consideration by the board if deemed relevant to the general fiscal condition of the public utility.

3. Every public utility is required to keep and render its books, accounts, papers and records accurately.
and faithfully in the manner and form prescribed by the board, and to comply with all directions of the board relating to such books, accounts, papers and records.

4 The board shall consult with other state and federal regulatory bodies for the purpose of eliminating accounting discrepancies with regard to the keeping of public utility accounts before prescribing any system of accounts to be kept by the public utility.

476.10 Investigations — expense — appropriation.

When the board deems it necessary in order to carry out the duties imposed upon it by this chapter for the purpose of determining rate matters to investigate the books, accounts, practices, and activities of, or make appraisals of the property of any public utility, or to render any engineering or accounting services to any public utility, or to review the operations or annual reports of the public utility under section 476 31 or 476 32, the public utility shall pay the expense reasonably attributable to the investigation, appraisal, service, or review. The board shall ascertain the expenses including certified expenses incurred by the consumer advocate division of the department of justice directly chargeable to the public utility under section 475A 6, and shall render a bill, by certified mail, to the public utility, either at the conclusion of the investigation, appraisal, services, or review, or from time to time during its progress, which bill is notice of the assessment and shall demand payment. The total amount of such expense in any one calendar year, for which any public utility shall become liable, shall not exceed two tenths of one percent of its gross operating revenues derived from intrastate public utility operations in the last preceding calendar year.

The board shall ascertain the total of the division’s expenditures during each year which are reasonably attributable to the performance of its duties under this chapter. The board shall add to this total the certified expenses of the consumer advocate as provided under section 475A 6, and shall deduct all amounts chargeable directly to any specific utility under any law. The remainder shall be assessed by the board to the public utilities in proportion to their respective gross operating revenues during the last calendar year derived from intrastate public utility operations and may be assessed by the board on a quarterly basis. Assessments may be made quarterly based upon estimates of the utilities division’s and the consumer advocate’s expenditures for the fiscal year. Beginning with the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1987, the first assessment for any fiscal year may be made by the utilities division by May 15 of the preceding fiscal year and shall be paid by the utility on or before the following July 1. Not more than ninety days following the close of the fiscal year, the utilities division shall certify the amount of the prior fiscal year’s assessments to the requirements of this section. Public utilities exempt from rate regulation under this chapter shall not be assessed for remainder expenses incurred during review of rate regulated public utilities under section 476 31 or 476 32, but such remainder expenses shall be assessed proportionally as provided in this section among only the rate-regulated public utilities. The total amount which may be assessed to the public utilities under authority of this paragraph shall not exceed two tenths of one percent of the total gross operating revenues of the public utilities during the calendar year derived from intrastate public utility operations. However, the total amount which may be assessed in any one calendar year to a public utility under this section shall not exceed three-tenths of one percent of the utility’s total gross operating revenues derived from intrastate public utility operation in the last preceding year. For public utilities exempted from rate regulation under this chapter, the assessments under this paragraph shall be computed at one half the rate used in computing the assessment for other utilities.

Each utility shall pay the division the amount assessed against it within thirty days from the time the division mails notice to it of the amount due unless it shall file with the board objections in writing setting out the grounds upon which it claims that such assessment is excessive, erroneous, unlawful, or invalid. Upon the filing of such objections the board shall set the matter down for hearing and issue its order in accordance with its findings in such proceeding, which order shall be subject to review in the manner provided in this chapter. All amounts collected by the division pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be deposited with the state treasurer and credited to the general fund of the state. Such amounts shall be spent in accordance with the provisions of chapter 8.

Whenever the board shall deem it necessary in order to carry out the duties imposed upon it in connection with rate regulation under section 476 6, investigations under section 476 3, or review proceedings under section 476 31, the board may employ additional temporary or permanent staff, or may contract with persons who are not state employees for engineering, accounting, or other professional services, or both. The costs of these additional employees and contract services shall be paid by the public utility whose rates are being reviewed in the same manner as other expenses are paid under this section. There is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, such sums as may be necessary to enable the board to hire additional staff and contract for services under this section. The authority to hire additional temporary or permanent staff that is granted to the board by this section shall not be subject to limitation by any administrative or executive order or decision that restricts the number of state employees or the filling of employee vacancies, and shall not be subject to limitation by any law of this state that restricts the number of state employees or the filling of employee vacancies unless that law is made applicable to this section by express reference to this section.

Fees paid to the utilities division shall be deposited in a utilities trust fund. The treasurer of state shall hold these funds in an account that shall be established in the names of the administrator of the utilities division and the consumer advocate for the payment, upon appropriation by the general assembly, of the expenses of the utilities division and the consumer advocate division of the department of justice. This fund is subject at all times to the warrant of the director of revenue and finance, drawn upon written requisition of the administrator of the utilities division, the administrator’s designated representative, the con sumer advocate, or the consumer advocate's design nated representative for the payment of all salaries and other expenses necessary to carry out the duties of the utilities division or the consumer advocate divi sion. Subject to this section, the utilities division or the consumer advocate division may keep on hand with the treasurer of state funds in excess of the cur rent needs of the utilities division or the consumer advocate division. Transfers shall not be made from the general fund of the state or any other fund for the payment of the expenses of the divisions. No part of the funds held by the treasurer of state for the account shall be transferred to the general fund of the state or any other fund. The funds held by the treasurer of state for the account shall be invested by the treasurer of state and the income derived from these invest ments shall be credited to the general fund of the state.
The authority to modify allotments provided in sec tion 8.31 shall not apply to funds appropriated from the fund created in this section.

The administrator and consumer advocate shall ac count for receipts and disbursements according to the separate duties imposed upon the utilities and con sumer advocate divisions by the laws of this state and each separate duty shall be fiscally self-sustaining.

Whenever toll connection between the lines or facili ties of two or more telephone companies has been made, or is demanded under the statutes of this state and the companies concerned cannot agree as to the terms and procedures under which toll communica tions shall be interchanged, the board upon complaint shall determine such terms and procedures.

476.12 Rehearings before board.
Any party, as defined in the rules and regulations promulgated by the board as provided in section 476.2 hereof, to a proceeding before the board may within twenty days after the entry of the order apply for a rehearing. The board shall either grant or refuse an application for rehearing within twenty days after the filing of the application, or may after giving the inter ested parties notice and opportunity to be heard and after consideration of all the facts, including those arising since the making of the order, abrogate or mod ify its order. A failure by the board to act upon such application for rehearing within the above period shall be deemed a refusal thereof. Neither the filing of an application for rehearing nor the granting thereof shall stay the effectiveness of an order unless the board so directs.

476.13 Judicial review.
1 Notwithstanding the Iowa administrative pro county in which a public utility maintains its principal place of business has exclusive venue for the judicial

2 Upon the filing of a petition for judicial review in an action referred to in subsection 1, the clerk of the district court shall notify the chief justice of the su judge under section 602.1212. The judicial review pro ceeding shall be heard by the district judge appointed by the supreme court under section 602.1212, but in the county of venue under subsection 1.

3 Notwithstanding the Iowa administrative pro cedure Act, if a public utility seeks judicial review of an order approving rates for the public utility, the level of rates that may be collected, under bond and subject to refund, while the appeal is pending shall be limited to the level of the temporary rates set by the board, or the level of the final rates set by the board, whichever is greater. During the period the judicial review pro ceeding is pending, the board shall retain jurisdiction to determine the rate of interest to be paid on any refunds eventually required on rates collected during judicial review.

The board shall include in its annual report required by this chapter, the following:

1 A complete financial report of receipts and ex

by each.
2 A list of the applications, subject and disposi

476.17 Peak-load energy conservation.
1 The board may promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 17A which require or authorize a public utility to establish peak load management procedures.
2 Rules of the board shall relate to reducing or limiting the peak load period consumption.
3 In promulgating rules under this section, the board is not bound by decisions, rulings or orders which relate to the definitions of types or classes of customers and which were issued by the Iowa state commerce commission prior to July 1, 1980.
[C81, §476 17]
476.18 Impermissible charges.
2 Legal costs and attorney fees incurred by a public utility subject to rate regulation in an appeal in state or federal court involving the validity of any action of the board shall not be included either directly or indirectly in the public utility’s charges or rates to customers except to the extent that recovery of legal costs and attorney fees is allowed by the board. The board shall allow a public utility to recover reasonable legal costs and attorney fees incurred in the appeal. The board may consider the degree of success of the legal arguments of the public utility in determining the reasonable legal costs and attorney fees to be allowed.
3 Public utilities subject to rate regulation are prohibited from including either directly or indirectly in their charges or rates to customers the costs of advertising other than advertising which is required by the board or by other state or federal regulation. However, this subsection does not apply to a utility’s advertising which is deemed by the board to be necessary for the utility’s customers and which is approved by the board.
4 Every ad which is published, broadcast, or otherwise displayed or disseminated to the public by a public utility which is to be charged to the customers of the public utility and which is not required by the board or by other state or federal regulation shall include a statement in the ad that the costs of the ad are being charged to the customers of the public utility. This paragraph does not apply to a utility’s product or service that is or becomes subject to competition as determined by the board.
5 This section does not apply to a rural electric cooperative.

476.20 Disconnection limited — notice — moratorium — deposits.
1 A utility shall not, except in cases of emergency, discontinue, reduce, or impair service to a community, or a part of a community, except for nonpayment of account or violation of rules and regulations, unless and until permission to do so is obtained from the board.
2 The board shall establish rules requiring a regulated public utility furnishing gas or electricity to include in the utility’s notice of pending disconnection of service a written statement advising the customer that the customer may be eligible to participate in the low income home energy assistance program or weatherization assistance program administered by the division of community action agencies of the department of human rights. The written statement shall list the address and telephone number of the local agency which is administering the customer’s low income home energy assistance program and the weatherization assistance program. The written statement shall also state that the customer is advised to contact the public utility to settle any of the customer’s complaints with the public utility, but if a complaint is not settled to the customer’s satisfaction, the customer may file the complaint with the board. The written statement shall include the address and phone number of the board. If the notice of pending disconnection of service applies to a residence, the written statement shall advise that the disconnection does not apply from November 1 through April 1 for a resident who is a “head of household”, as defined by law, and who has been certified to the public utility by the local agency which is administering the low income home energy assistance program or weatherization assistance program as being eligible for either the low income home energy assistance program or weatherization assistance program, and that if such a resident resides within the serviced residence, the customer should promptly have the qualifying resident notify the local agency which is administering the low income home energy assistance program and weatherization assistance program. The board shall establish rules requiring that the written notice contain additional information as it deems necessary and appropriate.
3 The board shall establish rules which shall be uniform with respect to all public utilities furnishing gas or electricity relating to disconnection of service. This subsection applies both to regulated utilities and to municipally owned utilities and unincorporated villages which own their own distribution systems, and violations of this subsection subject the utilities to civil penalties under section 476 51.
A qualified applicant for the low income home energy assistance program or the weatherization assistance program who is also a “head of household”, as defined in section 422 4, subsection 11, shall be promptly certified by the local agency administering the applicant’s program to the applicant’s public utility for the initiation or reinstatement of service.
4 A public utility which violates a provision of this section relating to the disconnection of service or which violates a rule of the board relating to disconnection of service is subject to civil penalties imposed by the board under section 476 51.
5 The board shall establish rules which shall be uniform with respect to all public utilities furnishing gas or electricity relating to deposits which may be required by the public utility for the initiation or reinstatement of service.

a The deposit for a residential or commercial customer for a place which has previously received service shall not be greater than the highest billing of service for one month for the place in the previous twelve month period.

b The deposit for a residential or a commercial customer for a place which has not previously received service.
service or for an industrial customer shall be the customer's projected one month's usage for the place to be served as determined by the public utility according to rules established by the board.

This subsection does not prohibit a public utility from requiring payment of a customer's past due account with the utility prior to reinstatement of service.

The rules shall allow a person other than the customer to pay the customer's deposit. Upon termination of service to such a customer, the deposit plus accumulated interest less any unpaid utility bill of the customer, shall be reimbursed to the person who made the deposit.

476.21 Discrimination prohibited.
A municipality, corporation or co-operative association providing electrical or gas service shall not consider the use of renewable energy sources by a customer as a basis for establishing discriminatory rates or charges for any service or commodity sold to the customer or discontinue services or subject the customer to any other prejudice or disadvantage based on the customer's use or intended use of renewable energy sources. As used in this section, "renewable energy sources" includes but is not limited to, solar heating, wind power and the conversion of urban and agricultural organic wastes into methane gas and liquid fuels.

ASSIGNED AREA OF SERVICE

476.22 Definition.
As used in sections 476.23 to 476.26, unless the context otherwise requires, "electric utility" includes a public utility furnishing electricity as defined in section 476.1 and a city utility as defined in section 390.1.

[C77, 79, 81, §476.22]

476.23 Electric service conflicts — certificates of authority.
1. An electric utility shall not construct or extend facilities or furnish or offer to furnish electric service to the existing point of delivery of any customer already receiving electric service from another electric utility without having first filed with the board the express written agreement of the electric utility prestently serving this customer, except as otherwise provided in this section. Any municipal corporation, after being authorized by a vote of the people, or any electric utility may file a petition with the board requesting a certificate of authority to furnish electric service to the existing point of delivery of any customer already receiving electric service from another electric utility.
If, after notice by the board to the electric utility currently serving the customer, objection to the petition is not filed and investigation is not deemed necessary, the board shall issue a certificate within thirty days of the filing of the petition. When an objection is filed, if the board, after notice and opportunity for hearing, determines that service to the customer by the petitioner is in the public interest, including consideration of any unnecessary duplication of facilities, it shall grant this certificate in whole or in part, upon such terms, conditions, and restrictions as may be justified.
Whether or not an objection is filed, any certificate issued shall require that the petitioner pay to the electric utility presently serving the customer, the reasonable price for facilities serving the customer. This price determination by the board shall include due consideration of the cost of the facilities being acquired, any necessary generating capacity and transmission capacity dedicated to the customer, depreciation, loss of revenue, and the cost of facilities necessary to reintegrate the system of the utility after detaching the portion sold.

2. An electric utility shall not construct or extend facilities or furnish electric service to a prospective customer not presently being served, unless its existing service facilities are nearer the proposed point of delivery than the service facilities of any other utility.
However, an electric utility may extend electric service to the delivery point consents to this extension in writing and a copy of the agreement is filed with the board or, if the board, after notice and opportunity for hearing and after giving due consideration to the prevention of unnecessary duplication of facilities, finds that service from an electric utility, other than the closest utility, is in the public interest. This subsection shall not apply if the prospective customers are within an exclusive service area assigned to an electric utility as provided in this division.

3. Notwithstanding subsections 1 and 2 of this section, any electric utility may extend electric service and transmission lines to its own utility property and facilities.

4. If not inconsistent with the provisions of this division:
   a. All rights of municipal corporations under chapter 364 to grant a person a franchise to erect, maintain, and operate plants and systems for electric light and power within the corporate boundaries, and rights acquired by franchise or agreement shall be preserved in these municipal corporations;
   b. All rights of city utilities under the city code shall be preserved in these city utilities;
   c. All rights of city utilities and joint electric utilities under chapter 390 shall be preserved in these city utilities and joint electric utilities; and

   d. All rights of cities under chapter 472 are preserved. However, prior to the institution of condemnation proceedings, the city shall obtain a certificate of authority from the board in accordance with this division and the board's determination of price under this division shall be conclusive evidence of damages in these condemnation proceedings.

476.24 Electric utility service area maps.
1. On or before July 1, 1977, and subsequently whenever requested by the board, electric utilities furnishing electricity to the public for compensation in this state shall file, jointly or severally, with the board detailed maps of their service area drawn to a scale of not less than one inch per mile or drawn to a larger scale if required for clarity showing all of the following:

   a. The locations of an electric utility's generation, franchised transmission lines, distribution lines, and related facilities as of January 1, 1976
b All state and federal highways and other public roads within the electric utility's service area
c All section lines and numbers and township and range numbers within the electric utility's service area
d The corporate boundaries of all cities within the electric utility's service area e All lakes and rivers within the electric utility's service area
f All railroads within the electric utility's service area
g Any additional information requested by the board

2 On or before July 1, 1978, and subsequently when deemed by the board to be necessary, the board shall prepare or cause to have prepared a complete map of this state showing the service areas of electric utilities as submitted by the electric utilities. The form and detail of all maps shall be determined by the board.

476.25 Assigned service areas — electric utilities — legislative policy.

It is declared to be in the public interest to encourage the development of co-ordinated statewide electric service at retail, to eliminate or avoid unnecessary duplication of electric utility facilities, and to promote economical, efficient, and adequate electric service to the public. In order to effect that public interest, the board may establish service areas within which specified electric utilities shall provide electric service to customers on an exclusive basis. Except for good cause expressed through formal public statement, the board shall establish these exclusive service areas on or before July 1, 1979. These exclusive service area boundaries shall be established by the board upon the following bases:

1 The service area boundaries shall be in a line approximately equidistant between the electric distribution lines of adjacent electric utilities as they existed on January 1, 1976, and as shown by the maps filed in accordance with this division. However, those boundaries may be modified by the board to promote the public interest, to preserve existing service areas and electric utilities' rights to serve existing customers, and to prevent unnecessary duplication of facilities, to take account of natural and physical barriers which would make electric service beyond these barriers uneconomic and impractical and those boundaries shall be modified by the board to take account of the contracts between electric utilities which have been approved by the board pursuant to subsection 2 of this section. When an electric utility's exclusive service area is established by the board to include existing customers presently served by the facilities of another electric utility unless a voluntary exchange of facilities is agreed upon by the electric utilities involved and approved by the board, the board after notice and opportunity for hearing, shall require the purchase of those facilities presently serving these customers at a reasonable price to be determined by the board. The board, on its own motion or at the request of an electric utility or municipal corporation, after notice and opportunity for hearing, may modify the boundaries of an electric utility exclusive service area which it has previously established if this modification, including consideration of the factors noted in this subsection, is found to be in the public interest.

2 Contracts between electric utilities to designate service areas and customers to be served by the electric utilities or for the exchange of customers between electric utilities, when approved by the board, shall be valid and enforceable and shall be incorporated into the appropriate exclusive service areas established pursuant to subsection 1 of this section. The board shall approve a contract if it finds that the contract will eliminate or avoid unnecessary duplication of facilities, will provide adequate electric service to all areas and customers affected, will promote the efficient and economical use and development of the electric systems of the contracting electric utilities, and is in the public interest.

3 An electric utility shall not serve or offer to serve electric customers in an exclusive service area assigned to another electric utility, nor shall an electric utility construct facilities to serve electric customers in an exclusive service area assigned to another electric utility. The state, an electric utility, or any other person who is injured or threatened with injury by conduct prohibited by this section may institute a contested case proceeding with the board under chapter 17A. Upon finding a violation of this section the board shall order appropriate corrective action including discontinuance of the unlawful service to electric customers, removal of the unlawful facility, or other disposition the board deems just and reasonable.

476.26 Effect of incorporation, annexation or consolidation.

The inclusion by incorporation, consolidation, or annexation of any facilities or service area of an electric utility within the boundaries of any city shall not by such inclusion impair or affect in any respect the rights of the electric utility to continue to provide electric utility service and to extend service to prospective customers in accordance with the provisions of this division.

RULES

476.31 Continuing audit of operation.

The board shall adopt not later than July 1, 1983, rules and policies to implement a program for the continuous review of operations of rate regulated public utilities with respect to all matters that affect rates or charges for utility service.

[81 Acts, ch 156, §1]

476.32 Review of annual reports.

The board shall review annual reports submitted by rate-regulated public utilities. The board shall commence rate-review proceedings under this chapter if an annual report indicates that the earnings of the public utility are excessive.

[81 Acts, ch 156, §2]
Rules governing hearings.

1. The board shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A to provide for the completion of proceedings under section 476.3 within ten months after the date of the filing of a complaint or petition under section 476.3, subdivision 2, and to provide for the completion of proceedings under section 476.6 within ten months after the date of filing of the new or changed rates, charges, schedules or regulations under that section. These rules shall include reasonable time limitations for the submission or completion of comments and testimony, and exhibits, briefs and hearings, and may provide for the granting of additional time upon the request of a party to the proceeding or division staff for good cause shown.

2. Additional time granted to a party or to division staff under subdivision 1 shall not extend the amount of time for which a utility is required to file a bond or other undertaking conditioned upon refund under section 476.3, subdivision 2.

3. If in a proceeding under section 476.6 additional time is granted to a party or division staff under subdivision 1, the board may extend the ten-month period during which a utility is prohibited from placing its entire rate increase request into effect under section 476.6, but an extension shall not exceed the aggregate amount of all additional time granted under subdivision 1.

4. The board shall adopt rules that require the board, in rate regulatory proceedings under sections 476.3 and 476.6, to consider the use of the most current test period possible in determining reasonable and just rates, subject only to the availability of existing and verifiable data respecting costs and revenues, and in addition to consider verifiable data that exists as of the date of commencement of the proceedings respecting known and measurable changes in costs not associated with a different level of revenue, and known and measurable revenues not associated with a different level of costs, that are to occur at any time within twelve months after the date of commencement of the proceedings. For purposes of this subdivision, a proceeding commences under section 476.6 upon the filing date of new or changed rates, charges, schedules or regulations. This subdivision does not limit the authority of the board to consider other evidence in proceedings under sections 476.3 and 476.6.

ALTERNATE ENERGY PRODUCTION FACILITIES

Purpose.

It is the policy of this state to encourage the development of alternate energy production facilities and small hydro facilities in order to conserve our finite and expensive energy resources and to provide for their most efficient use.

[83 Acts, ch 182, §2]

Definitions.

As used in this division, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Alternate energy production facility" means any or all of the following:
   a. A solar, wind turbine, waste management, resource recovery, refuse-derived fuel, or woodburning facility.
   b. Land, systems, buildings, or improvements that are located at the project site and are necessary or convenient to the construction, completion, or operation of the facility.
   c. Transmission or distribution facilities necessary to conduct the energy produced by the facility to users located at or near the project site.

2. "Electric utility" means a public utility that furnishes electricity to the public for compensation.

3. "Small hydro facility" means any or all of the following:
   a. A hydroelectric facility at a dam.
   b. Land, systems, buildings, or improvements that are located at the project site and are necessary or convenient to the construction, completion, or operation of the facility.
   c. Transmission or distribution facilities necessary to conduct the energy produced by the facility to users located at or near the project site.

[83 Acts, ch 182, §3]

Rates for alternate energy production facilities.

1. Subject to section 476.44, the board shall require electric utilities to enter into long-term contracts to do the following:
   a. Purchase or wheel electricity from alternate energy production facilities or small hydro facilities located in the utility's service area under the terms and conditions that the board finds are just and economically reasonable to the electric utilities' ratepayers.
   b. Provide for the availability of supplemental or backup power to alternate energy production facilities or small hydro facilities on a nondiscriminatory basis and at just and reasonable rates.

2. Upon application by the owner or operator of an alternate energy production facility or small hydro facility or any interested party, the board shall establish for the affected public utility just and economically reasonable rates for electricity purchased under subdivision 1, paragraph "a." The rates shall be established at levels sufficient to stimulate the development of alternate energy production and small hydro facilities in Iowa and to encourage the continuation of existing capacity from those facilities.

3. The board shall base the rates for new facilities or new capacity from existing facilities on the following factors:
   a. The estimated capital cost of the next generating plant, including related transmission facilities, to be placed in service by the electric utility serving the area.
   b. The term of the contract between the electric utility and the seller.
   c. A levelized annual carrying charge based upon the term of the contract and determined in a manner.
consistent with both the methods and the current interest or return requirements associated with the electric utility's new construction program.

d. The electric utility's annual energy costs, including current fuel costs, related operation and maintenance costs, and other energy-related costs considered appropriate by the board.

4. The board shall consider the factors listed in subsection 3 in setting rates for existing facilities. However, the board may consider other factors and may establish a rate for existing facilities that is less than the rate established for new facilities if the board determines that a lower rate is sufficient to encourage small power production.

5. In the case of a utility that purchases all or substantially all of its electricity requirements, the rates established under this section must be equal to the current cost to the electric utility of similar types and quantities of electrical service.

6. In lieu of the other procedures provided by this section, an electric utility and an owner or operator of an alternate energy production facility or small hydro facility may enter into a long-term contract in accordance with subsection 1 and may agree to rates for purchase and sale transactions. A contract entered into under this subsection must be filed with the board in the manner provided for tariffs under section 476.4.

7. This section does not require an electric utility to construct additional facilities unless those facilities are paid for by the owner or operator of the affected alternate energy production facility or small hydro facility.

83 Acts, ch 182, §4, 7

§476.44 Exceptions.

1. The board shall not require an electric utility to purchase or wheel electricity from an alternate energy production facility or small hydro facility unless the facility meets all of the following conditions:

a. Has an electric generating capacity of not more than eighty megawatts.

b. Is owned or operated by an individual, firm, corporation, company, association, joint stock association, city, town, or county that:

(1) Is not primarily engaged in the business of producing or selling electricity, gas, or useful thermal energy other than electricity, gas, or useful thermal energy sold solely from alternate energy production facilities or small hydro facilities.

(2) Does not sell electricity, gas, or useful thermal energy to residential users other than the tenants or the owner or operator of the facility.

2. The board shall not require an electric utility to purchase or wheel electricity from a small hydro facility unless the facility has an electric generating capacity of not more than eighty megawatts.

83 Acts, ch 182, §5

§476.45 Exemption from excess capacity.

Capacity purchased from an alternate energy production facility or small hydro facility shall not be included in a calculation of an electric utility's excess generating capacity for rate-making purposes.

83 Acts, ch 182, §6

476.46 to 476.50 Reserved.

§476.51 Civil penalty.

A public utility which willfully violates a provision of this chapter, a rule adopted by the board, or a provision of an order lawfully issued by the board, is subject to a civil penalty, which may be levied by the board, of not more than one hundred dollars per violation or one thousand dollars per day of a continuing violation, whichever is greater. Civil penalties collected pursuant to this section shall be forwarded by the executive secretary of the board to the treasurer of state to be credited to the energy research and development fund.

83 Acts, ch 127, §34

§476.52 Management efficiency.

It is the policy of this state that a public utility shall operate in an efficient manner. If the board determines in the course of a proceeding conducted under section 476.3 or 476.6 that a utility is operating in an inefficient manner, or is not exercising ordinary, prudent management, or in comparison with other utilities in the state the board determines that the utility is performing in a less beneficial manner than other utilities, the board may reduce the level of profit or adjust the revenue requirement for the utility to the extent the board believes appropriate to provide incentives to the utility to correct its inefficient operation. If the board determines in the course of a proceeding conducted under section 476.3 or 476.6 that a utility is operating in such an extraordinarily efficient manner that tangible financial benefits result to the ratepayer, the board may increase the level of profit or adjust the revenue requirement for the utility. The board shall adopt rules for determining the level of profit or the revenue requirement adjustment that would be appropriate.

The board shall also adopt rules establishing a methodology for an analysis of a utility's management efficiency.

83 Acts, ch 127, §35

It is the intent of the general assembly of the state of Iowa to provide for the development of a fair resolution concerning the allocation of costs associated with excess electric generating capacity. It is the policy of this state that it is in the public interest that public utilities subject to rate regulation, at a minimum, be prohibited from including either directly or indirectly in their charges or rates to customers the return on common equity associated with excess electric generating capacity, however this shall not apply to rural electric cooperatives. The board shall not allow a return on common equity on that portion of a public utility's electric generating capacity which is determined to be excess electric generating capacity. Excess electric generating capacity is that portion of the public utility's electric generating capacity which exceeds the amount reasonably necessary to provide adequate and reliable service as determined by the board.

Electric generating capacity sold pursuant to the terms of contracts entered into between June 28, 1978 and June 30, 1978 for power delivered on or before May 1, 1983 to May 1, 1993, shall not be included in the determination of excess electric generating capacity.

Electric generating capacity purchased from qualifying cogeneration and small power production facilities shall not be included in the determination of excess electric generating capacity.

83 Acts, ch 127, §36, 50

476.54 Delayed payment charges.
A public utility shall not apply delayed payment charges on a customer's account if the scheduled payment was made by the customer within twenty days from the date the billing was sent to the customer. Delayed payment charges on a customer's account shall not exceed one and one half percent per month of the past due amount.
83 Acts, ch 127, §37

476.55 Complaint of antitrust activities.
An application for new or changed rates, charges, schedules or regulations filed under this chapter, or an application for a certificate or an amendment to a certificate submitted under chapter 476A, by an electric transmission line utility or a gas pipeline utility or a subsidiary of either shall not be approved by the board if, upon complaint by an Iowa electric or gas utility, the board finds activities which create or maintain a situation inconsistent with antitrust laws and the policies which underlie them. The board may grant the rate or facility certification request once it determines that those activities which led to the antitrust complaint have been eliminated. However, this subsection does not apply to an application for new or changed rates, charges, schedules or regulations after the expiration of the ten month limitation and applicable extensions.

ENERGY AUDITS

476.65 Energy audits.
1 A customer for whom a public utility has performed an energy audit under the I-SAVE program or the CACS program shall in writing designate one of the following:
   a That the results of the audit shall not be disclosed to any other person, except as permitted in subsection 2.
   b That the results of the audit are available to any person engaged in the business of making or providing energy conservation improvements or services who requests the information whether the request is made for the customer individually or the request is made for the customer as a class.
2 The results of an audit conducted under the I-SAVE program or the CACS program shall be made available, upon request, to a person who states in writing that the person is a prospective purchaser of the facility audited.
3 The public utility shall make results of the energy audits available consistent with this section.
4 As used in this section:
   a "I-SAVE program" means the Iowa Save America's Vital Energy program operated pursuant to rules adopted by the board.
   b "CACS program" means the Commercial Apartment Conservation Service program operated pursuant to rules adopted by the board.

ELECTRIC POWER GENERATORS
476A.1 Definitions.
As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires
1 “Facility” means any electric power generating plant or a combination of plants at a single site with a total capacity of one hundred megawatts of electricity or more and those associated transmission lines connecting the generating plant to either a power transmission system or an interconnected primary transmission system or both Transmission lines subject to the provisions of this chapter shall not require a franchise under chapter 478
2 “Certificate” means a certificate of public convenience, use and necessity issued pursuant to section 476A.6
3 “Commence to construct” means significant alteration of a site to install permanent equipment or structures but does not include activities incident to preliminary engineering, environmental studies or acquisition of a site for a facility
4 “Agency” means an agency as defined in section 17A 2, subsection 1
5 “Regulatory agency” means an agency which issues licenses or permits required for the construction, operation or maintenance of a facility pursuant to statutes or rules in effect on the date on which an application for a certificate is accepted by the utilities board
6 “Board” means the utilities board within the utilities division of the department of commerce [C77, 79, 81, §476A.1]

476A.2 Certificate required.
1 Commencing January 1, 1977, a person shall not commence to construct a facility except as provided in section 476A.9 unless a certificate for the facility has been issued by the board. This chapter shall not apply to persons who prior to July 1, 1976 a Have acquired a site for a facility, and,
   b Have publicly announced the intention to construct a facility, and,
   c Have let contracts for major components of a facility
2 Any significant alteration, as determined by the board, in the location, construction, maintenance, or operation of a facility whether constructed before or after July 1, 1976 shall require an application for an amendment to a certificate or a certificate, whichever is appropriate “Significant alteration” shall include but shall not be limited to a change in the type of fuel used by the major electric generating facility
3 Any person required to obtain a certificate or an amendment to a certificate shall construct, operate and maintain the facility according to the terms of the certificate and any amendments to the certificate. A certificate shall only be issued pursuant to this chapter [C77, 79, 81, §476A.2]

476A.3 Application submitted — review.
An application for a certificate or an amendment to a certificate shall be submitted to the board on such forms as the board may prescribe. Copies of the application shall be forwarded to regulatory agencies. Regulatory agencies receiving a copy of the application shall conduct a preliminary review of the contents and shall evaluate the application for completeness and compliance with the regulatory agency’s permit and licensing requirements within a reasonable amount of time [C77, 79, 81, §476A.3]

476A.4 Hearing scheduled — notice.
1 The proceeding for the issuance of a certificate or an amendment to a certificate shall be treated in the same manner as a contested case pursuant to the provisions of chapter 17A. Upon acceptance of an application by the board, a public hearing shall be scheduled,
2 The board shall serve notice of the proceeding on the following a Interested agencies, as determined by the board, and regulatory agencies b County and city zoning authorities from the area in which the proposed site is located c Owners of record of real property located within one thousand linear feet of the proposed site
3 Notice of the proceeding in the form provided in section 17A 2, subsection 2, shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in which the proposed site is located once a week for two consecutive weeks with the second publication being at least twenty days prior to the date of the hearing. The board shall be responsible for publication and delivery of notices required by this section
4 The board shall conduct the hearing, as described in subsection 1, in the county in which the construction of the greater portion of the facility is being proposed [C77, 79, 81, §476A.4]

476A.5 Proceeding — role of regulatory agencies and local authorities.
1 The board shall conduct the contested case proceeding. Regulatory agencies which appear on record at the proceeding shall state whether the application meets their permit and licensing requirements. If the application does not meet such requirements, the regulatory agency shall recommend amendments to the application which outline actions necessary to bring the applicant in compliance with the regulatory agency’s permit and licensing requirements. The board shall not issue a certificate for a facility which does not meet the permit and licensing requirements of a regulatory agency
2 If a regulatory agency which received notice pursuant to section 476A.4 fails to appear of record in the contested case proceeding, the board shall conclusively presume that the facility meets the regulatory agency’s permit and licensing requirements and the regulatory agency shall immediately issue any license or permit required for the construction, operation or maintenance of the facility 3 City and county zoning authorities designated as parties to the proceeding may appear on record and may state whether the facility meets city, county and airport zoning requirements. The failure of a facility to meet zoning requirements established pursuant to chapters 329, 358A and 414 shall not preclude the board from issuing the certificate and to that extent the provisions of this subsection shall supersede the provisions of chapters 329, 358A and 414

[C77, 79, 81, §476A 5]

476A.6 Decision — criteria.
The board shall render a decision on the application in an expeditious manner. A certificate shall be issued to the applicant if the board finds all of the following
1 The services and operations resulting from the construction of the facility are required by the present or future public convenience, use and necessity
2 The applicant is willing to perform such services and construct, maintain, and operate the facility pursuant to the provisions of the certificate and this chapter
3 The construction, maintenance, and operation of the facility will cause minimum adverse land use, environmental, and aesthetic impact and are consonant with reasonable utilization of air, land and water resources for beneficial purposes considering available technology and the economics of available alternatives
4 The applicant has in effect a comprehensive energy management program designed to reduce peak loads and to increase efficiency of use of energy by all classes of customers of the utility, and the facility in the application is necessary notwithstanding the existence of the comprehensive energy management program. As used in this subsection, a "comprehensive energy management program" includes at a minimum the following a Establishment of load management and interruptible service programs, where cost effective b Development of wheeling agreements and other energy sharing agreements, where cost effective with utilities that have available capacity
c Establishment of cost-effective energy conservation and renewable energy services and programs
d Compliance with board rules on energy management procedures
5 The applicant has considered all feasible alternatives to the proposed facility including nongeneration alternatives, has ranked those alternatives by cost, has implemented the least-cost alternatives first, and the facility in the application is necessary notwithstanding the implementation of these alternatives
[C77, 79, 81, §476A 6]
83 Acts, ch 127, §39

476A.7 Issuance of certificate — effect.
1 Issuance of a certificate by the board a Authorizes construction of the facility on the site designated in the certificate according to the terms and conditions stated in the certificate and licenses and permits issued by regulatory agencies during the proceeding, and,
b Gives the applicant the power of eminent domain to the extent and under such conditions as the board may approve, prescribe and find necessary for the public convenience, use and necessity, proceeding in the manner of works of internal improvement under chapter 472. The burden of proving the necessity for the exercise of the power of eminent domain shall be on the person issued the certificate
2 A certificate may be transferred, subject to the approval of the board, to a person who agrees to comply with the terms of the certificate including any amendments to the certificate. Certificates shall be transferable by operation of law to any receiver, trustee or similar assignee under a mortgage, deed of trust or similar instrument

476A.8 Further approvals prohibited — exception.
Upon issuance of a certificate, notwithstanding any provision of law except statutory requirements relating to the protection of employees engaged in the construction of the facility, a regulatory agency, city or county shall not require any further approval, permit or license for the construction of the facility

476A.9 Advance site preparation.
Subsequent to the hearing held pursuant to section 476A 5 and in the event of extensive delay in the issuance of a certificate, the board may permit an applicant having an application docketed for hearing to begin work to prepare the site for construction of the facility. Any activities conducted pursuant to this section shall have no probative value in the board's decision concerning the actual issuance of a certificate
[C77, 79, 81, §476A 9]

476A.10 Costs of proceeding.
The applicant for a certificate, or an amendment to certificate, shall pay all the costs and expenses incurred by the division in reaching a decision on the application including the costs of examinations of the site, the hearing, publishing of notice, division staff salaries, the cost of consultants employed by the division, and other expenses reasonably attributable to the proceeding
[C77, 79, 81, §476A 10]

Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 17A
1 Any proceeding or oral presentation held on an application for a certificate or an amendment to a certificate shall be held in lieu of any other proceeding or oral presentation required for a license or permit necessary for the construction, maintenance or operation of a facility
2 The decision of the board shall be considered a single agency action. The agency action shall be subject to judicial review in the manner provided in chapter 17A
[C77, 79, 81, §476A 11]

476A.12 Rules.
The board shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A necessary to implement the provisions of this chapter including but not limited to the promulgation of facility siting criteria, the form for an application for a certificate and an amendment to a certificate, the description of information to be furnished by the applicant, the determination of what constitutes a significant alteration to a facility, and the establishment of minimum guidelines for public participation in the proceeding.

476A.13 Staff assistance — federal pre-emption.

1 The board may request staff assistance from other federal, state and local agencies, pursuant to chapter 28D, to assist in discharging the responsibilities assigned to the board pursuant to this chapter. The board may exercise the powers and responsibilities assigned to the board under this chapter jointly with other governmental agencies pursuant to chapter 28E.

2 This chapter shall not apply to any facility over which an agency of the federal government has exclusive jurisdiction. When concurrent jurisdiction exists with certain powers reserved to the state, the state shall exercise those powers with respect to facilities operating within the state to the full extent permitted by the Constitution and the laws of the United States.

476A.14 Penalties.

1 Any person who commences to construct a facility as provided in this chapter without having first obtained a certificate, or who constructs, operates or maintains any facility other than in compliance with a certificate issued by the board or a certificate amended pursuant to this chapter, or who causes any of these acts to occur, shall be liable for a civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars for each violation or for each day of continuing violation. Civil penalties collected pursuant to this subsection shall be forwarded by the clerk of court to the treasurer of state for deposit in the general fund of the state.

2 The district court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to grant restraining orders and temporary or permanent injunctive relief as may be necessary to obtain compliance with this chapter.

3 Persons convicted of violating any provision of this chapter shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

476A.15 Energy sharing agreements.

Before a certificate is issued under section 476A 6, the public utility shall demonstrate to the board that the utility has considered sources for long term electric supply from either purchase of electricity or investment in facilities owned by other utilities.

CHAPTER 477

TELEGRAPH AND TELEPHONE LINES AND COMPANIES

477.1 Right of way.

Any person or firm, and any corporation organized for such purpose, within or without the state, may construct a telegraph or telephone line along the public roads of the state, or across the rivers or over any lands belonging to the state or any private individual, and may erect the necessary fixtures therefor.

[C51, §780, B60, §1348, C73, §1324, C97, §2158, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8300; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §488 1, C77, 79, 81, §477 1]

Authorizations in cities §364 1

Removal ch 119

477.2 Removal of lines.

When any road along which said line has been constructed shall be changed, the person, firm or corporation shall, upon ninety days' notice in writing, remove said lines to said road as established. The notice may be served upon any agent or operator in the employ of such person, firm or corporation.

[C73, §1324, C97, §2158, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8301; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §488 2, C77, 79, 81, §477 2]
§477.3  Construction — damages.

Such fixtures shall not be so constructed as to inconvenience the public in the use of any road or the navigation of any stream; nor shall they be set up on the private grounds of any individual without paying the individual a just equivalent for the damage the individual thereby sustains.

[C51, §781; R60, §1349; C73, §1325; C97, §2159; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8302; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §488.3; C77, 79, 81, §477.3]

§477.4  Condemnation.

If the person over whose lands such telegraph or telephone line passes claims more damages therefor than the proprietor of such line is willing to pay, the amount thereof may be determined in the same manner as provided for taking private property for works of internal improvement.

§477.5  Equal facilities — delay.

If the proprietor of any telegraph or telephone line within the state, or the person having the control and management thereof, refuses to furnish equal facilities to the public and to all connecting lines for the transmission of communications in accordance with the nature of the business which it undertakes to carry on, or to transmit the same with fidelity and without unreasonable delay, the law in relation to limited partnerships, corporations, and to the taking of private property for works of internal improvement, shall not longer apply to them, and property taken for the use thereof without the consent of the owner may be recovered by the owner.

§477.6  Delay — willful error — revealing contents.

Any person employed in transmitting messages by telegraph or telephone must do so with fidelity and without unreasonable delay, and if anyone willfully fails to transmit them, or intentionally transmits a message erroneously, or makes known the contents of any message sent or received to any person except the person to whom it is addressed, or such person's agent or attorney, or willfully and wrongfully takes or receives any telegraph or telephone message, the person is guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

§477.7  Mistakes and delays.

The proprietor of a telegraph or telephone line is liable for all mistakes in transmitting or receiving messages made by any person in the proprietor's employment, or for any unreasonable delay in their transmission or delivery, and for all damages resulting from failure to perform the foregoing or any other duty required by law, the provisions of any contract to the contrary notwithstanding.

§477.8  Negligence presumed.

In any action against any telegraph or telephone company for damages caused by erroneous transmission of a message, or by unreasonable delay in delivery of a message, negligence on the part of the telegraph or telephone company shall be presumed upon proof of erroneous transmission or of unreasonable delay in delivery, and the burden of proof that such error or delay was not due to negligence upon its part shall rest upon such company.

§477.9  Presentation of claim.

No action for the recovery of such damages shall be maintained unless a claim therefor is presented in writing to such company, officer or agent thereof within sixty days from time cause of action accrues.

[C97, §2164; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8308; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §488.9; C77, 79, 81, §477.9]

RECI PROCAL SERVICE

§477.10  Definitions.

1. “Local exchange”, within the meaning of this Act, shall refer to a telephone line or lines to or from a telephone switchboard or switchboards, operated by virtue of a franchise granted by a city furnishing telephonic communication between two or more members of the public within the same city, village, community, locality or neighborhood, which said line or lines or switchboard or switchboards shall be under the same management and control.

“Local exchange” within the meaning of this Act shall not include or refer to privately owned or leased lines or switchboards, operated by members of the public other than telephone or telegraph companies as a public utility by which the public is offered telephonic service.

2. “Local exchange company” within the meaning of this Act shall refer to and include one or more individuals, firms or corporations operating one or more local exchanges as herein defined.

“Long distance company” within the meaning of this Act shall refer to and include one or more persons, firms or corporations operating connecting lines between two or more local exchanges, one or more of which local exchanges are owned by a local telephone company other than such person, firm or corporation, over which line or lines telephonic communication is had between members of the public connected with said local exchanges.

§477-11  Facilities to local exchange.

Long distance companies shall furnish equal facilities to any local exchange within the state desiring same, and to that end shall immediately make, or at the option of the long distance company, shall immediately permit to be made under its direction and at reasonably accessible places to be designated by such long distance company, the necessary connections between said local exchange and said long distance company telephone system to effect the furnishing of equal facilities to such local exchange.

477.12 Transmission of messages.
After such connection has been made said long distance company shall transmit communications and messages to, from and through all local exchanges connected with its system when requested, with fidelity and equality and without discrimination or unreasonable delay.
[C35, §8308 f3, C39, §8308.3; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §488 12, C77, 79, 81, §477 12]

477.13 Facilities to long distance companies.
A connected local exchange company shall accept and furnish telephonic connection for all messages offered over the lines or through the system of any long distance company without discrimination or unreasonable delay, and with equality.
[C35, §8308 f4, C39, §8308.4; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §488 14, C77, 79, 81, §477 14]

477A.1 Definitions.
As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires
1  “911 service” means a service which provides the user of a public telephone system the ability to reach a public safety answering point by dialing the digits 9-1-1
2  “Public agency” means the state government and any unit of local government or special purpose district located in whole or in part within the state that provides or has authority to provide fire fighting, law enforcement, ambulance, medical, or other emergency services
3  “Public safety agency” means a functional unit of a public agency that provides fire fighting, law enforcement, ambulance, medical, or other emergency services
4  “Private safety entity” means a private entity which provides emergency fire, ambulance, or medical services whether by full or part time employees or on a volunteer basis
5  “Public safety answering point” means a communications facility operated on a twenty-four hour basis and serving participating jurisdictions, that initially receives 911 calls and either directly dispatches emergency response services, or relays the calls to the appropriate public safety agency
6  “Commission” means the state emergency telephone number commission established by section 477A 3

477A.2 911 service.
1  After July 1, 1986, when 911 service is established in a service area each public agency, public safety agency, and private safety entity serving territory within the service area shall participate in providing the 911 service. The 911 service shall be established according to a written plan which has the written approval of the governing bodies of each public agency, public safety agency, and private safety entity serving territory within the 911 service area.
2  This chapter does not prohibit or discourage participation in or the provision of 911 service covering the territory of more than one public agency, public safety agency, or private safety entity. A system established pursuant to this section may serve the territory of more than one public agency, public safety agency, or private safety entity or may include a part of their respective territories. Public agencies, public safety agencies, and private safety entities may cooperate in the establishment of a system that serves the territory of more than one public agency, public safety agency, or private safety entity.

agencies, and private safety entities may enter into agreements under chapter 28E to provide 911 service

3 The digits “911” shall be the primary emergency telephone number within the 911 service areas established under this section. A public safety agency or a private safety entity whose services are available through a 911 system may maintain a separate second ary backup number for emergencies, and shall maintain a separate number for nonemergency telephone calls.

4 A 911 system shall be capable of transmitting requests for law enforcement, fire fighting, and emergency medical and ambulance services to a public safety agency or agencies that provide the requested service at the place where the call originates. A 911 system may also provide for transmitting requests for disaster services, poison control, suicide prevention, and other emergency services. The public safety answering point shall be capable of receiving calls from hearing impaired persons through a telecommunications device for the deaf. Conferencing capability with counseling, aid to handicapped, and other services as deemed necessary for identifying appropriate emergency response services may be provided by the 911 service.

A public safety answering point may transmit emergency requests to private safety entities.

§477A.3 State emergency telephone number commission created.

The state emergency telephone number commission is created in the disaster services division of the department of public defense. The administrator of the disaster services division shall serve as chairperson of the commission. The disaster services division shall provide the meeting facilities for the commission. The division of communications, department of general services, shall provide administrative and technical support for the commission with the support of the staff of the respective members of the commission. The members of the commission are as follows:

1 One person appointed by the commissioner of public safety
2 One person appointed by the league of Iowa municipalities
3 One person appointed by the Iowa state association of counties
4 One person appointed by the legislative communications review committee
5 One person from the utilities division of the department of commerce
6 Twelve persons appointed by the governor as follows:
   a Two persons representing fire departments, one representing a paid fire department and the other representing a volunteer fire department
   b Two persons representing city police departments, one representing a city with a population of fifty thousand or more, and the other from a smaller city
   c Two persons representing county sheriff departments, one representing a county with a population of twenty five thousand or more, and the other representing a smaller county
   d Two persons representing emergency ambulance and medical service departments, one representing a public ambulance and medical service, and the other representing a private ambulance and medical service e Two persons representing exchange carriers providing public telephone service in Iowa, one representing a telephone company subject to rate regulation under section 476 1 and one representing a telephone company that is not subject to rate regulation under section 476 1 f Two persons who are qualified by education or employment experience to evaluate alternative financing methods.

Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointments are made. Terms shall commence upon appointment and shall run until the commission is abolished by repeal.

Repealed effective July 1, 1992 86 Acts ch 1246 §768

§477A.4 Meetings.

1 The chairperson shall call the first meeting of the commission within thirty days of the appointment of the members. A majority of the members of the commission constitute a quorum and the concurrence of a quorum is required on any question relating to the commission’s official duties. Commission members shall serve without compensation. Members who are not government employees shall be reimbursed from funds appropriated in 1986 Iowa Acts, ch 1246, section 766 for actual expenses incurred in the performance of duties. The commission shall meet as necessary, but at least once each month until the report required by section 477A 5 is completed.

2 Public agencies and exchange carriers providing public telephone service in Iowa shall cooperate, with in time, personnel, and budgetary limitations, in providing information, data, surveys, and studies as requested by the commission.

3 The commission may apply for, receive, and expend any private or public funds to implement this chapter.

4 The commission shall hold public hearings, prior to making its recommendations to the general assembly, and shall provide Iowans with information on 911 service to stimulate public interest and comment.

Repealed effective July 1, 1992 86 Acts ch 1246 §768

§477A.5 Recommendations to general assembly.

The commission shall submit a written report and recommendations for an overall plan to implement 911 service to the general assembly not later than January 10, 1987. The recommendations shall include, but are not limited to:

1 The responsibilities that should be assumed by state and local public agencies and public safety agencies and by exchange carriers providing public telephone service in implementing statewide 911 service.

2 The size of 911 service areas necessary to operate effectively and to achieve economies of scale and the local government coordination necessary to establish 911 service.

3 Whether it is necessary or desirable for an existing or new state agency to be given the responsibility for monitoring, reviewing, supervising, or coordinating the implementation of statewide 911 service.
4 The equipment, capability and operational standards that should be established for 911 service, including procedures for transmitting calls, that will result in the shortest response time in emergencies and the best service to the public.

5 An estimate of the cost to state and local public agencies to plan, implement, and operate 911 systems throughout the state. The cost reported should indicate the current costs of telephone and related services as well as the incremental costs of 911 implementation.

6 Whether it is necessary or desirable for the general assembly to establish a deadline by which every public agency and public or private safety agency must establish or participate in 911 service.

7 Whether it is necessary or desirable for the general assembly to allow a public agency or utility to seek a waiver of all or some of the time limits for implementing 911 service.

8 Identification and listing of all existing federal, state, local, and private funding sources available for implementation of 911 service. The report shall discuss the merits of alternative methods of collecting the necessary revenues including an increase in taxes, an imposition of a surcharge on the amounts paid by every person in the state for intrastate telephone service, and combinations of these methods.

9 How public agency costs for the planning, installation, and continued operation of the 911 system should be met and from which sources.

10 Legislation needed to implement statewide 911 services.

CHAPTER 478
ELECTRIC TRANSMISSION LINES

478.1 Franchise.
A person shall not construct, erect, maintain, or operate a transmission line, wire, or cable which operates at an electric voltage of thirty-four and one-half kilovolts or more along, over, or across any public highway or grounds outside of cities for the transmission, distribution, or sale of electric current, without first procuring from the utilities board within the public service division of the department of commerce a franchise granting authority as provided in this chapter.

If the transmission line, wire, or cable operates at an electric voltage of less than thirty-four and one-half kilovolts, no franchise is required. However, the utilities board shall retain jurisdiction over all such lines, wires or cables and shall prescribe the contents of a written notice and map to be timely provided to the affected parties, including owners of electric supply lines located within six-tenths of one mile of proposed construction of such lines, wires or cables.

A person who seeks to construct, erect, maintain or operate a transmission line, wire or cable which will operate at an electric voltage of less than thirty-four and one-half kilovolts outside of cities and which cannot secure the necessary voluntary easements to do so may petition the board pursuant to section 478.3, subsection 1 for a franchise granting authority for such con-

§478.2 Petition for franchise — informational meetings held.

Any person, corporation, or company authorized to transact business in the state including cities may file a verified petition asking for a franchise to erect, maintain, and operate a line or lines for the transmission, distribution, use, and sale of electric current outside cities and for such purpose to erect, use, and maintain poles, wires, guy wires, towers, conduits, and other fixtures and appliances necessary for conducting electric current for light, heat, or power over, along, and across any public lands, highways, streams, or the lands of any person, company, or corporation, and to acquire necessary interests in real estate for such purposes

As conditions precedent to the filing of a petition with the utilities board requesting a franchise for a new transmission line, and not less than thirty days prior to the filing of such petition, the person, company, or corporation shall hold informational meetings in each county in which real property or rights therein will be affected A member of the board, the counsel of the board, or a hearing examiner designated by the board shall serve as the presiding officer at each meeting and present an agenda for such meeting which shall include a summary of the legal rights of the affected landowners No formal record of the meeting shall be required

The meeting shall be held at a location reasonably accessible to all persons, companies, or corporations which may be affected by the granting of the franchise

The person, company, or corporation seeking the franchise for a new transmission line shall give notice of the informational meeting to each person, company, or corporation determined to be the landowner affected by the proposed project and any person, company or corporation in possession of or residing on the property For the purposes of this section, "landowner" means a person, company, or corporation listed on the tax assessment rolls as responsible for the payment of real estate taxes imposed on the property and "transmission line" means any line carrying thirty-four point five kilovolts or more and extending a distance of not less than one mile across privately owned real estate The notice shall set forth the name of the individual, company, or corporation asking for the franchise and the general description and purpose of the proposed project

The notice shall be served not less than thirty days prior to the time set for the meeting by certified mail or return receipt requested, and be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county at least one week and not more than three weeks before the time of the meeting and such publication shall be considered notice to landowners whose residence is not known

No person, company, or corporation seeking rights under this chapter shall negotiate or purchase any easements or other interests in land in any county known to be affected by the proposed project prior to the informational meeting

§478.3 Petition — requirements.

1 All petitions shall set forth a The name of the individual, company, or corporation asking for the franchise

   b The principal office or place of business
   c The starting points, routes, and termini of the proposed lines, accompanied with a map or plat showing such details
   d A general description of the public or private lands, highways, and streams over, across, or along which any proposed line will pass e General specifications as to materials and manner of construction f The maximum voltage to be carried over each line
   g Whether or not the exercise of the right of eminent domain will be used and, if so, a specific reference to the lands described in paragraph "d" which are sought to be subject thereto
   h An allegation that the proposed construction is necessary to serve a public use

2 Petitions for transmission lines carrying thirty four point five kilovolts or more and extending a distance of not less than one mile across privately owned real estate shall also set forth an allegation that the proposed construction represents a reasonable relationship to an overall plan of transmitting electricity in the public interest and substantiation of such allegations, including but not limited to, a showing of the following a The relationship of the proposed project to present and future economic development of the area

   b The relationship of the proposed project to comprehensive electric utility planning c The relationship of the proposed project to the needs of the public presently served and future projections based on population trends
   d The relationship of the proposed project to the existing electric utility system and parallel existing utility routes e The relationship of the proposed project to any other power system planned for the future
   f The possible use of alternative routes and methods of supply g The relationship of the proposed project to the present and future land use and zoning ordinances
   h The inconvenience or undue injury which may result to property owners as a result of the proposed project

The utilities board may waive the proof required for such allegations which are not applicable to a particular proposed project

The petition shall contain an affidavit stating that informational meetings were held in each county in which the proposed project will affect and the time and place of each meeting

478.4 Franchise — hearing.

The utilities board shall consider said petition and any objections filed thereto in the manner hereinafter provided. It shall examine the proposed route or cause any engineer selected by it to do so. If a hearing is held on the petition it may hear such testimony as may aid it in determining the propriety of granting such franchise. It may grant such franchise in whole or in part upon such terms, conditions, and restrictions, and with such modifications as to location and route as may seem to it just and proper. Before granting such franchise, the utilities board shall make a finding that the proposed line or lines are necessary to serve a public use and represents a reasonable relationship to an overall plan of transmitting electricity in the public interest. No franchise shall become effective until the petitioners shall pay, or file an agreement to pay, all costs and expenses of the franchise proceeding, whether or not objections are filed, including costs of inspections or examinations of the route, hearing, salaries, publishing of notice, and any other expenses reasonably attributable thereto. The funds received for the costs and expenses of the franchise proceeding shall be remitted to the treasurer of state for deposit in the general fund of the state.

478.5 Notice — objections filed.

Upon the filing of such petition, the utilities board shall cause a notice, addressed to the citizens of each county through which the proposed line or lines will extend, to be published in a newspaper located in each such county for two consecutive weeks. Said notice shall contain a general statement of the contents and purpose of the petition, a general description of the lands and highways to be traversed by the proposed line or lines, and shall state that any objections thereto must be filed in writing with the board not later than twenty days after the date of last publication of the notice. Any person, company, city or corporation whose rights may be affected, shall have the right to file written objections to the proposed improvement or to the granting of such franchise; such objections shall be filed with the board not later than twenty days after the date of last publication and shall state the grounds therefor. The board may allow objections to be filed later in which event the applicant must be given reasonable time to meet such late objections.

[S13, §2120-n; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8312, 8313; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §489.4, 489.5; C66, 71, 73, 75, §489.5; C77, 79, 81, §478.5]

478.6 Taking under eminent domain.

Upon the filing of objections or when a petition involves the taking of property under the right of eminent domain the utilities board shall set the matter for hearing and fix a time and place for the hearing. The hearing shall be not less than thirty days from the date of last publication and where a new proposed transmission line exceeds one mile in length, shall be held in the county seat of the county located at the midpoint of the proposed electric transmission line. Written notice of the time and place of the hearing shall be served by the board, by ordinary mail, on the applicant, and those having filed objections. If no objections are filed and the petition does not involve the taking of property under the right of eminent domain the board may grant a franchise without a hearing; however, the board may conduct a hearing if the board deems it necessary.

Where a petition seeks the use of the right of eminent domain over specific parcels of real property, the board shall prescribe the notice to be served upon the owners of record and parties in possession of said property over which the use of the right of eminent domain is sought.

When the board grants a franchise to any person, company, or corporation for the construction, erection, maintenance, and operation of transmission lines, wires, and cables for the transmission of electricity, such person, company, or corporation shall be vested with the power of condemnation to such extent as the board may approve and find necessary for public use.

478.7 Form of franchise.

The general counsel for the utilities board shall prepare a blank form of franchise, which shall provide space for a general description of the improvement authorized, the name and address of the person or corporation to whom granted, the general terms and conditions upon which the franchise is granted, and other things as necessary. This blank form shall be filled out and signed by the chairperson of the utilities board which grants the franchise, and the official seal shall be attached. The franchise is subject to regulations and restrictions as the general assembly prescribes, and to rules, not inconsistent with statutes, as the utilities board may establish.

83 Acts, ch 127, §41 Legislative control in general, §491 39

478.8 Valuation of franchise.

No financial consideration shall be charged for such franchise. In fixing the value for rate-making purposes of the property of any person, company, or corporation owning it or operating under it no account shall be taken of, and no increased value shall be allowed for, any such franchise, except that the reasonable cost to the petitioners of obtaining said franchise may be included in the cost of constructing said lines.

478.9 Exclusive rights — duration of franchise.

No exclusive right shall ever be given by franchise or otherwise to any person, company, corporation or city to conduct electrical energy, or to place electric wires, along or over or across any public highway or public place or ground; and no franchise or privilege shall ever be granted for any such purpose for a longer period than twenty-five years.

§478.10 Franchise transferable — notice.
When any such electric transmission line or lines are sold and transferred either by voluntary or judicial sale, such transfer shall carry with it the franchise under which the said improvement is owned, maintained, or operated. If a transfer of such franchise is made before the improvement for which it was issued is constructed, in whole or in part, such transfer shall not be effective till the person, company, or corporation to whom it was issued shall file in the office of the utilities board granting the franchise a notice in writing stating the date of such transfer and the name and address of the transferee.

§478.11 Record of franchises.
The utilities board shall keep a record of all such franchises granted and issued by it, when and to whom issued, with a general statement of the location, route, and termini of the transmission line or lines covered thereby. When any transfer of such franchise has been made as provided in this chapter, the board shall also make note upon its record of the date of such transfer and the name and address of the transferee.

§478.12 Acceptance of franchise.
Any person, company, or corporation obtaining a franchise as in this chapter provided, or owning or operating under one, shall be conclusively held to an acceptance of the provisions thereof and of all laws relating to the regulation, supervision, or control thereof which are now in force or which may be hereafter enacted, and to have consented to such reasonable regulation as the utilities board may, from time to time, prescribe. The provisions of this chapter shall apply equally to assignees as well as to original owners.

§478.13 Extension of franchise — public notice.
Any person, firm, or corporation owning a franchise granted under this chapter or previously existing law, desiring to acquire extensions of such franchise, may petition the utilities board in the manner provided for the granting of a franchise and the same proceeding shall be had as on an original application, including the assessing of costs provided by section 478.4 except that in the event the extension of franchise is sought for all lines in a given county or counties the published notice need not contain a general description of the lands and highways traversed by the lines, but in lieu thereof the petitioner may have on file at its offices in the county or counties affected a current, accurate map showing the location of the lines for which the franchise extension is sought, said map to be available for examination by any interested party, and the public notice shall advise the citizens of the county or counties affected of the location and availability of such map. If this alternate procedure is not followed, then the publication of the description of the lands and highways traversed by the lines shall be done in the manner as in an original application for franchise.

any event an extension under this section will be granted only for a valid, existing franchise and the lands, roads or streams covered thereby over, through or upon which electric transmission lines have in fact been erected or constructed and are in use or operation at the time of the application for extension of franchise. Such petition shall be accompanied by the written consent of the applicant that the provisions of all laws relating to public utilities, franchises, and transmission lines, or to the regulation, supervision, or control thereof which are then in force or which may be hereafter enacted shall apply to its existing line or lines, franchises, and rights with the same force and effect as if such franchise had been granted or such lines had been constructed or rights had been obtained under the provisions of this chapter.

§478.14 Service furnished.
Any city which owns or operates a system for the distribution of electric light or power, and which has obtained electric energy for such distribution from any person or firm or corporation owning or operating an electric light and power plant or transmission line, shall be entitled to have the service reasonably needed by such municipality and its patrons continued at and for a reasonable rate and charge and under reasonable rules of service.

It shall be unlawful for the owner or operator of such light and power plant or transmission line to disconnect or discontinue such service (except during nonpayment of reasonable charges) so long as such operator holds or enjoys any franchise to go upon or use any public streets, highways, or grounds.

Until the municipality and the operator shall agree upon a rate or charge for such service the municipality shall pay and the operator shall accept the rate provided in the expired contract if any existed, and if none existed then the rate before paid. This shall be without prejudice, however, to the right of either party to test in court or before any lawfully constituted rate making tribunal the reasonableness of such rate.

This section shall not apply if the original service to the municipality was given in case of emergency or for any other temporary purpose.

§478.15 Eminent domain — procedure — entering on land — reversion on nonuse.
Any person, company, or corporation having secured a franchise as provided in this chapter, shall thereupon be vested with the right of eminent domain to such extent as the utilities board may approve, prescribe and find to be necessary for public use, not exceeding one hundred feet in width for right of way and not exceeding one hundred sixty acres in any one location, in addition to right of way, for the location of electric substations to carry out the purposes of said franchise, provided however, that where two hundred K V lines or higher voltage lines are to be constructed, the person, company, or corporation may apply to the board for a wider right of way not to exceed two hundred feet, and the board may for good cause extend the width of such right of way for such lines to the person, company, or corporation applying for the same. The burden of proving the necessity for public use shall be on the person, company or corporation seeking the franchise. A homestead site, cemetery, or church or schoolhouse location shall not be condemned for the purpose of erecting an electric substation. If agreement cannot be made with the private owner of the land as to damages caused by the construction of said transmission line, or electric substations, the same proceedings shall be taken as provided for taking private property for works of internal improvement.

Any person, company or corporation proposing to construct a transmission line or other facility which involves the taking of property under the right of eminent domain and desiring to enter upon the land, which it proposes to appropriate, for the purpose of examining or surveying the same, shall first file with the utilities board, a written statement under oath setting forth the proposed routing of the line or facility including a description of the lands to be crossed, the names and addresses of owners, together with request that a permit be issued by said board authorizing said person, company or corporation or its duly appointed representative to enter upon the land for the purpose of examining and surveying and to take and use thereon any vehicle and surveying equipment necessary in making the survey. Said board shall within ten days after said request issue a permit, accompanied by such bond in such amount as the board shall approve, to the person, company or corporation making said application, if in its opinion the application is made in good faith and not for the purpose of harassing the owner of the land. If the board is of the opinion that the application is not made in good faith or made for the purpose of harassment to the owner of said land it shall set the matter for hearing and it shall be heard not more than twenty days after filing said application. Notice of the time and place of hearing shall be given by said board to the owner of said land by registered mail with a return receipt requested, not less than ten days preceding date of hearing.

Any person, company or corporation that has obtained a permit in the manner herein prescribed may enter upon said land or lands, as above provided, and shall be liable for actual damages sustained in connection with such entry. An action in damages shall be the exclusive remedy.

If an electric transmission line right of way, or any part thereof, is wholly abandoned for public utility purposes by the relocation of the transmission lines, is not used or operated for a period of five years, or if its construction has been commenced and work has ceased and has not in good faith been resumed for five years, the right of way shall revert to the person or persons who, at the time of the abandonment or reversion, are the owners of the tract from which such right of way was taken. Following such abandonment of right of way, the owner or holder of purported fee title to such real estate may serve notice upon the owner of such right of way easement, or the owner's successor in interest, and upon any party in possession of said real estate, a written notice which shall (1) accurately describe the real estate in question, (2) set out the facts concerning ownership of the fee, ownership of the right of way easement, and the period of abandonment, and (3) notify said parties that such reversion shall be complete and final, and that the easement or other right shall be forfeited, unless said parties shall, within one hundred twenty days after the completed service of notice, file an affidavit with the county recorder of the county in which the real estate is located disputing the facts contained in said notice.

Said notice shall be served in the same manner as an original notice under the Iowa rules of civil procedure, except that when notice is served by publication no affidavit thereof shall be required before publication. If no affidavit disputing the facts contained in the notice is filed within one hundred twenty days, the party serving the notice may file for record in the office of the county recorder a copy of the notice with proofs of service attached thereto or endorsed thereon, and when so recorded, the record shall be constructive notice to all persons of the abandonment, reversion, and forfeiture of such right of way.

§478.16 Injury to person or property. Repealed by 86 Acts, ch 1198, §1

§478.17 Access to lines — damages.

Individuals or corporations operating such transmission lines shall have reasonable access to the same for the purpose of constructing, reconstructing, enlarging, repairing, or locating the poles, wires, or construction and other devices used in or upon such line, but shall pay to the owner of such lands and of crops thereon all damages to said lands or crops caused by entering, using, and occupying said lands for said purposes. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the execution of an agreement between the person or company owning or operating such line and the owner of said land or crops with reference to the use thereof.

The utilities board shall have power of supervision over the construction of said transmission line and over its future operation and maintenance. Said transmission line shall be constructed near and parallel to the right of way of the railways of the state or along the division lines of the lands, according to the government survey thereof, wherever the same is practicable and reasonable, and so as not to interfere with the use by the public of the highways or streams of the state, nor unnecessarily interfere with the use of any lands by the occupant thereof.

Removal from highway ch 119

Such lines shall be built of strong and proper wires attached to strong and sufficient insulators at all points of attachment, all wires, poles, and other devices which by ordinary wear or other causes are no longer safe shall be removed and replaced by new wires, poles, or other devices, as the case may be, and all abandoned wires, poles, or other devices shall be at once removed. Where wires carrying current are carried across, either above or below wires used for other service, the said transmission line shall be constructed in such manner as to eliminate, so far as practicable, damages to persons or property by reason of said crossing. There shall also be installed sufficient devices to automatically shut off electric current through said transmission line whenever connection is made whereby current is transmitted from the wires of said transmission line to the ground, and there shall also be provided a safe and modern improved device for the protection of said line against lightning. The utilities board shall have power to make and enforce such further and additional rules relating to location, construction, operation and maintenance of said transmission line as may be reasonable.

All transmission lines, wires or cables outside of cities for the transmission, distribution or sale of electric current at any voltage shall be constructed and maintained in accordance with standards adopted by rule by the utilities board.

478.20 Distance from buildings.

No transmission line shall be constructed, except by agreement, within one hundred feet of any dwelling house or other building, except where said line crosses or passes along a public highway or is located alongside or parallel with the right of way of any railway company. In addition to the foregoing, each person, company, or corporation shall conform to any other rules, regulations, or specifications established by the utilities board, in the construction, operation, or maintenance of such lines.

478.21 Nonuser.

Unless the improvement for which a franchise is granted is constructed in whole or in part within two years from the granting thereof, it shall be forfeited and the utilities board which granted the franchise shall cancel and revoke the same and make record thereof.

478.22 Forfeiture for violations.

If any person, company, or corporation shall violate the provisions of this chapter or any rule established for the construction, maintenance, or operation of such electric transmission line, and shall fail for ninety days after notice from the utilities board to comply therewith, such board shall have power to cancel and annul such franchise and order the removal of such line. Provided, however, that if proceedings are commenced within said ninety days in any court of competent jurisdiction to determine whether the provisions of this chapter, or whether any rule established for the construction or maintenance or operation of an electrical transmission line, have been violated, or are legal and enforceable rules or provisions, no forfeiture shall be declared or become effective if within sixty days from the date of the final decree or judgment in such proceedings the said rule or provisions have been fully complied with and the cause of forfeiture removed.

478.23 Prior franchises — legislative control.

Any such franchise heretofore granted under previously existing law shall not be abrogated by the provisions of this chapter, but all such franchises and all franchises granted under the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to further legislative control.

478.24 Violations.

Any person, company or corporation constructing or undertaking to construct or maintain any electric transmission line, without first procuring a franchise for such purpose in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor; and for violating any of the other provisions of this chapter relating to electric transmission lines or disobeying any order or rule made by the utilities board in relation thereto, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

478.25 Wire crossing railroads — supervision.

The utilities board shall have general supervision over any and all wires whatsoever crossing under or over any railway track and shall make rules prescribing the manner in which such wires shall cross such track; but in no case shall the board prescribe a less height for any wire than twenty-two feet above the top of the rails of any railroad track.

478.26 Wires across railroad right of way at highways.

The utilities board shall prescribe the manner for the crossing of wires over and across railroad rights of way at highways and other places within the state.

[S13, §2120-i; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8334; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §489.25; C66, 71, 73, 75, §489.26; C77, 79, 81, §478.26]

478.27 Wires — how strung.

No corporation or person shall place or string any such wire for transmitting electric current or any wire whatsoever across any track of a railroad except in the manner prescribed by the utilities board.

[S13, §2120-f; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8335; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §489.26; C66, 71, 73, 75, §489.27; C77, 79, 81, §478.27]

478.28 Examination of existing wires.

The utilities board shall, either by personal examination or otherwise, obtain information where railroad tracks are crossed by wires contrary to, or not in compliance with, the rules prescribed by it. It shall order the person, company, or corporation owning or operating such wires as may be necessary to make the same comply with said rules and within such reasonable time as it may prescribe.
§478.33 Cancellation.

Upon receipt of such petition the utilities board shall determine that a franchise should not be granted, or that further restrictions, conditions or modifications are required, or if the petitioner shall fail to make a sufficient and proper showing of the necessity for the granting of a franchise within six months of the granting of the temporary construction permit, the permit issued hereunder shall become null and void and the permit holder may be required to take such action deemed necessary by the board to remove, modify or relocate the construction undertaken by virtue of the temporary permit issued hereunder.

§478.32 Rehearing — judicial review.

Any person, company, or corporation aggrieved by the action of the utilities board in granting or failing to grant a franchise under the provisions of this chapter, shall be entitled to the rehearing procedure provided in section 476.12. Judicial review of actions of the board may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

See §476.13

§478.33 Cancellation.

A person seeking to acquire an easement or other property interest for the construction, maintenance or operation of an electric transmission line shall:

1. Allow the landowner or a person serving in a fiduciary capacity in the landowner’s behalf to cancel any agreement granting an easement or other interest by certified mail with return requested to the company’s principal place of business if received by the company within seven days, excluding Saturday and Sunday, of the date of the contract and inform the landowner or such fiduciary in writing of the right to cancel prior to the signing of the agreement by the landowner or such fiduciary.

2. Provide the landowner or a person serving in a fiduciary capacity in the landowner’s behalf with a form in duplicate for the notice of cancellation.

3. Not record any agreement until after the period for cancellation has expired.

4. Not include in the agreement any waiver of the right to cancel in accordance with this section. The landowner or a person serving in a fiduciary capacity in the landowner’s behalf may exercise the right of cancellation only once for each transmission line project.

§478.34  and §478.35  Reserved.

§478.36  Subsequent construction near buried line.
At least forty-eight hours before performing construction involving earthwork, tiling, or excavation within fifty feet of a buried electric line, the landowner, tenant, or contractor shall notify the company or corporation that owns or maintains the buried line. Upon notification, if the proposed work will disturb the soil within fifteen feet of the line the company or corporation shall then mark the location of the line or inform the landowner, tenant, or contractor of the line's route and voltage. If the line carries an operating voltage of thirty-four point five kilovolts or greater and if requested by the landowner, tenant, or contractor, the corporation or company shall have a representative present during the performance of the earthwork, tiling or excavation. The company or corporation shall not charge a fee for this service. This section does not apply to emergency construction involving earthwork, tiling, or excavation located in a highway or street right-of-way.

CHAPTER 478A
GAS LAMPS

§478A.7  Decorative gas lamps.
1. Commencing January 1, 1979 a person shall not sell or offer for sale in this state a decorative gas lamp manufactured after December 31, 1978.
2. As used in this section "decorative gas lamp" means a device installed for the purpose of producing illumination by burning natural, mixed or liquid petroleum gas and utilizing either a mantle or an open flame, but does not include portable camp lanterns or gas lamps.
3. Persons convicted of violating this section shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

479.1 Purpose and policy.

It is hereby declared to be the purpose and policy of the legislature in enacting this law to confer upon the utilities board the power and authority to supervise the transportation or transmission of any solid, liquid, or gaseous substance, except water, within or through this state by pipeline, whether specifically mentioned herein or not, and the power and authority to supervise the underground storage of gas, so as to protect the safety and welfare of the public in its use of any public or private highways, grounds, waters and streams of any kind in this state.

[C31, §8338-d2; C35, §8338-fl6; C39, §8338.24; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §490.4; C77, 79, 81, §479.4]

479.2 Definitions.

The term “pipeline” asfar as this chapter is concerned shall include and mean any pipe, pipes or pipelines used for the transportation or transmission of any solid, liquid, or gaseous substance, except water, within or through this state.

The term “pipeline company”, asfar as this chapter is concerned shall include and mean any person, firm, copartnership, association, corporation or syndicate engaged in or organized for the purpose of owning, operating or controlling pipelines for the transportation or transmission of any solid, liquid, or gaseous substance, except water, within or through this state.

The term “board” when used in this chapter means the utilities board within the utilities division of the department of commerce.

The term “underground storage” asfar as this chapter is concerned shall include and mean storage of gas in a subsurface stratum or formation of the earth.

479.3 Conditions attending operation.

No pipeline company shall construct, maintain or operate any pipeline or lines under, along, over or across any public or private highways, grounds, waters or streams of any kind in this state except in accord­ance with the provisions of this chapter.

479.4 Dangerous construction — inspection.

The board is vested with power and authority and it shall be its duty to supervise all pipelines and underground storage and pipeline companies and shall from time to time inspect and examine the construction, maintenance and the condition of said pipelines and underground storage facilities and whenever said board shall determine that any pipeline and underground storage facilities or any apparatus, device or equipment used in connection therewith is unsafe and dangerous it shall immediately in writing notify said pipeline company, constructing or operating said pipeline and underground storage facilities, device, apparatus or other equipment to repair or replace any defective or unsafe part or portion of said pipeline and underground storage facilities, device, apparatus or equipment.

All faulty construction, as determined by the inspector, shall be repaired immediately by the contractor operating for the pipeline company and the cost of such repairs shall be paid by said contractor. If such repairs are not made by contractor, the board shall proceed to collect under the provisions of section 479.26.

See also §479.29

479.5 Application for permit.

Any pipeline company engaging in its said business in this state shall file with the board its verified petition asking for a permit to construct, maintain and operate its pipeline or lines along, over or across the public or private highways, grounds, waters and streams of any kind of this state. Any pipeline company now owning or operating a pipeline in this state shall be issued a permit by the board upon supplying the information as provided for in section 479.6.

Any pipeline company engaging in its said business in this state and proposing to engage in underground storage of gas within this state shall file with the board its verified petition asking for a permit to construct, maintain and operate its pipeline or lines along, over or across the public or private highways, grounds, waters and streams of any kind of this state. Any pipeline company now owning or operating facilities for the underground storage of gas to include the construction, placement, maintenance and operation of machinery, appliances, fixtures, wells, pipelines, and stations necessary for the construction, maintenance and operation of such gas underground storage facilities.

As conditions precedent to the filing of a petition with the board requesting a permit, and not less than thirty days prior to the filing of such petition, the person, company, or corporation shall hold informational meetings in each county in which real property or rights therein will be affected. A member of the board, the counsel of the board, or a hearing examiner designated by the board shall serve as the presiding officer at each meeting and present an agenda for such meeting which shall include a summary of the legal rights of the affected landowners. No formal record of the meeting shall be required.

The meeting shall be held at a location reasonably accessible to all persons, companies, or corporations which may be affected by the granting of the permit.

The person, company, or corporation seeking the permit shall give notice of the informational meeting to each person, company, or corporation determined to be the landowner affected by the proposed project and any person, company or corporation in possession of or residing on the property. For the purposes of this section, “landowner” means a person, company, or corporation listed on the tax assessment rolls as responsible for the payment of real estate taxes imposed on the property and “pipeline” means any line transporting any solid, liquid, or gaseous substance, except water, under pressure in excess of one hundred fifty pounds per square inch and extending a distance of not less than five miles or future anticipated extension of an overall distance of five miles.

The notice shall set forth the name of applicant, the applicant’s principal place of business, the general description and purpose of the proposed project, the general nature of the right of way desired, a map showing the route of the proposed project, that the landowner has a right to be present at such meeting and to file objections with the board, and a designation of the time and place of the meeting, and shall be served by certified mail with return requested not less than thirty days previous to the time set for the meeting, and shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. Such publication shall be considered notice to landowners whose residence is not known.

No person, company, or corporation seeking rights under this chapter shall negotiate or purchase any easements or other interests in land in any county known to be affected by the proposed project prior to the informational meeting.

479.6 Petition.

Said petition shall state:

1. The name of the individual, firm, corporation, company, or association asking for said permit.
2. The applicant’s principal office and place of business.
3. A legal description of the route of said proposed line or lines, together with a map thereof.
4. A general description of the public or private highways, grounds and waters, streams and private lands of any kind along, over or across which said proposed line or lines will pass.
5. The specifications of material and manner of construction.
6. The maximum and normal operating pressure under which it is proposed to transport any solid, liquid, or gaseous substance, except water.
7. If permission is sought to construct, maintain and operate facilities for the underground storage of gas said petition shall include the following information in addition to that stated above:
   a. A description of the public or private highways, grounds and waters, streams and private lands of any kind under which such storage is proposed, together with a map thereof.
   b. Maps showing the location of proposed machinery, appliances, fixtures, wells and stations necessary for the construction, maintenance and operation of such gas underground storage facilities.
8. The possible use of alternative routes.
9. The relationship of the proposed project to the present and future land use and zoning ordinances.
10. The inconvenience or undue injury which may result to property owners as a result of the proposed project.
11. By affidavit, that informational meetings were held in each county which the proposed project will affect and the time and place of each meeting.

[S31, §§8338-d4, C35, §§8338 f19, C39, §§8338.27; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §490 6, C77, 79, 81, §479 6]

479.7 Hearing — notice.

Upon the filing of said petition the board shall fix a date for hearing thereon and shall cause notice thereof to be published in some newspaper of general circulation in each county through which said proposed line or lines or gas storage facilities will extend, said notice to be published for two consecutive weeks.

[S31, §§8338-d5, C35, §§8338 f20, C39, §§8338.28; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §490 7, C77, 79, 81, §479 7]

479.8 Time and place.

The hearing shall not be less than ten days nor more than thirty days from the date of the last publication and where the proposed new pipeline would operate under pressure exceeding one hundred fifty pounds per square inch and exceed five miles in length, shall be held in the county seat of the county located at the midpoint of the proposed line or lines or the county in which the proposed gas storage facility would be located.

[S31, §§8338-d6, C35, §§8338 f21, C39, §§8338.29; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §490 8, C77, 79, 81, §479 8, 81 Acts, ch 159, §10]

479.9 Objections.

Any person, corporation, company or city whose rights or interests may be affected by said pipeline or lines or gas storage facilities may file written objections to said proposed pipeline or lines or gas storage facilities or to the granting of said permit.

[S31, §§8338-d7, C35, §§8338-f22, C39, §§8338.30; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §490 9, C77, 79, 81, §479 9]

479.10 Filing.

All such objections shall be on file in the office of said board not less than five days before the date of hearing on said application but said board may permit the filing of said objections later than five days before said hearing, in which event the applicant must be granted a reasonable time to meet said objections.

479.11 Examination — testimony.

The said board may examine the proposed route of said pipeline or lines and location of said gas storage area, or may cause such examination to be made by an engineer selected by it. At said hearing the said board shall consider said petition and any objections filed thereto and may in its discretion hear such testimony as may aid it in determining the propriety of granting.
such permit.

479.12 Final order — condition.
It may grant such permit in whole or in part upon such terms, conditions and restrictions as to safety requirements and as to location and route as may be determined by it to be just and proper. Provided, however, that before any permit shall be granted to any pipeline company proposing to engage in intrastate commerce, the board shall, after a public hearing as provided in this chapter, determine whether the services proposed to be rendered will promote the public convenience and necessity, and an affirmative finding to such effect shall be a condition precedent to the granting of such permit.

479.13 Costs and fees.
Applicant shall pay all costs and expenses of the informational meetings, hearing and necessary preliminary investigation in connection therewith including the cost of publishing notice of hearing and shall pay a construction inspection fee in the sum of fifty cents per mile of pipeline or fraction thereof for each inch of diameter of such pipeline located in the state.
[C31, §8338-d11, -d12; C35, §8338-f26; C39, §8338.34; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §490.13; C77, 79, 81, §479.13]

479.14 Inspection fee.
Every pipeline company shall pay an annual inspection fee in the sum of twenty-five cents per mile of pipeline or fraction thereof for each inch of diameter of such pipeline located in the state and said inspection fee to be paid for the calendar year in advance between January 1 and February 1 of each year to the board.

479.15 Failure to pay.
It shall be the duty of the board to collect all inspection fees provided in this chapter, and failure to pay any such inspection fee within thirty days after the time the same shall become due shall be cause for revocation of the permit.
[C35, §8338-f28; C39, §8338.36; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §490.15; C77, 79, 81, §479.15]

479.16 Use of funds.
All moneys received under the provisions of this chapter shall be remitted monthly to the treasurer of the state and credited to the general fund of the state.
[C31, §8338-d14; C35, §8338-f29, -30; C39, §8338.37, 8338.38; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, §490.16, 490.17; C73, 75, §490.17; C77, 79, 81, §479.16]

479.17 Rules.
The said board shall have full authority and power to promulgate such rules as it deems proper and expedient to insure the orderly conduct of the hearings herein provided for and also to prescribe rules for the enforcement of this chapter.
[C31, §8338-d15; C35, §8338-f31; C39, §8338.39; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §490.18; C77, 79, 81, §479.17]

479.18 Permit.
The board shall prepare and issue any permit granted in accordance with section 479.12. Said permit shall show the name and address of the pipeline company to which it is issued and identify by reference thereto the decision and order of the board under which said permit is issued. It shall be signed by the chairperson of the board and the official seal of the board shall be affixed thereto.

479.19 Limitation on grant.
No exclusive right shall ever be granted to any pipeline company to construct, maintain, and operate its pipeline or lines along, over or across any public highway, grounds or waters and no such permit shall ever be granted for a longer period than twenty-five years.
[C31, §8338-d17; C35, §8338-f33; C39, §8338.41; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §490.20; C77, 79, 81, §479.19]

479.20 Sale of permit.
No permit shall be sold until the sale is approved by the board.
[C35, §8338-f34; C39, §8338.42; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §490.21; C77, 79, 81, §479.20]

479.21 Transfer of permit.
If a transfer of such permit is made before the construction for which it was issued is completed in whole or in part such transfer shall not be effective until the person, company or corporation to whom it was issued shall file in the office of said board a notice in writing stating the date of such transfer and the name and address of said transferee.

479.22 Records.
The board shall keep a record of all permits granted and issued by it, showing when and to whom issued and the location and route of said pipeline or lines or gas storage area covered thereby. When any transfer of such permit has been made as provided in this chapter the said board shall also note upon its record the date of such transfer and the name and address of such transferee.

479.23 Extension of permit.
Any pipeline company owning a permit granted under this chapter desiring to acquire an extension of such permit may petition the board in the same manner provided for the granting of such permit and the same proceeding shall be had as on an original application [C31, §8338-d22, C35, §8338 f37, C39, §8338.45;

§479 23]

479.24 Eminent domain.
Any pipeline company having secured a permit for pipelines as in this chapter provided shall thereupon be vested with the right of eminent domain* to such extent as may be necessary and as prescribed and ap proved by said board, not exceeding seventy five feet in width for right of way and not exceeding one acre in any one location in addition to right of way for the location of pumps, pressure apparatus or other sta tions or equipment necessary to the proper operation of its said pipeline or lines
Any pipeline company having secured a permit for underground storage of gas as in this chapter provided shall be vested with the right of eminent domain to such extent as may be necessary and as prescribed and ap proved by said board in order to appropriate for its use for the underground storage of gas any subsurface stratum or formation in any land which the board shall have found to be suitable and in the public interest for the underground storage of gas, and in connection therewith may appropriate such other interests in property, as may be required adequately to examine, prepare, maintain and operate such underground gas storage facilities The right of appropriation hereby granted shall be without prejudice to the rights of the owner of said lands or of other rights or interests therein to drill or bore through the underground stratum or formation so appropriated in such manner as shall comply with orders, rules of the board issued for the purpose of protecting underground storage strata or formations against pollution and against the escape of gas therefrom and shall be without prejudice to the rights of the owner of said lands or other rights or interest therein as to all other uses thereof
If agreement cannot be made with the private owner of lands as to damages caused by the construction of said pipeline or gas storage facilities, the same pro ceedings shall be taken as provided for taking private property for works of internal improvement Nothing in this chapter shall authorize the con struction of a pipeline longitudinally on, over or under any railroad right of way or public highway, or at other than an approximate right angle to such railroad track or public highway without the consent of such railroad company, the state department of transportation or board of supervisors, as the case may be, nor shall any provision of this chapter authorize or give the right of condemnation or eminent domain for such purposes

479.25 Damages.
Pipeline companies operating pipelines or a gas storage area shall have reasonable access to the same for the purpose of constructing, reconstructing, en larging, repairing or locating their pipes, pumps, pres sure apparatus or other stations, wells, devices or equipment used in or upon such line or gas storage area, but shall pay to the owner of such lands for the right of entry thereon and the owner of crops thereon all damages caused by entering, using or occupying said lands for said purposes, and shall pay to the owner or owners of such lands all damages caused after the completion of construction of said pipeline on account of wash or erosion of the soil at or along the location of said pipeline by reason of the construction thereof upon said lands on account of the settling of the soil along and above said pipeline, provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the execution of an agreement between the pipeline company and the 479.26 Financial condition of permittee — bond.

Before any permit is granted under this chapter the applicant must satisfy the board that the applicant has property within this state other than pipelines, subject to execution of a value in excess of two hundred fifty thousand dollars, or the applicant must file and maint tain with the board a surety bond in the penal sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars with surety ap proved by the board, conditioned that the applicant will pay any and all damages legally recovered against it growing out of the construction or operation of its pipeline and gas storage facilities in the state of Iowa.
 When the pipeline company deposits with the board security satisfactory to the board as a guaranty for the payment of the damages, or furnishes to the board satisfactory proofs of its solvency and financial ability to pay the damages, the pipeline company is relieved of the provisions requiring bond

479.27 Venue — service of original notice.
In all cases arising under this chapter the district court of any county, through which said pipeline com pany is located, shall have jurisdiction, and service of original notice on the pipeline company therein shall be had and made upon the chairperson of the board

479.28 Orders — enforcement.
If said pipeline company fails to obey an order with in a time prescribed by the said board the said board may commence an equitable action in the district court of the county where said defective, unsafe, or dangerous portion of said pipeline, device, apparatus or equipment is located to compel compliance with its said order If, after due trial of said action the court finds that said order is reasonable, equitable and just, it shall decree a mandatory injunction compelling obe dience to and compliance with said order and may grant such other relief as may be just and proper. Ap peal from said decree may be taken in the same man ner as in other actions

479.29 Construction standards.

1. The board shall, pursuant to chapter 17A, adopt rules establishing standards for the protection of underground improvements during the construction of pipelines, to protect soil conservation and drainage structures from being permanently damaged by pipeline construction and for the restoration of agricultural lands after pipeline construction. To ensure that all interested persons are informed of this rule-making procedure and are afforded a right to participate, the board shall schedule an opportunity for oral presentations on the proposed rule making and, in addition to the requirements of section 17A.4, shall distribute copies of the notice of intended action and opportunity for oral presentations to each county board of supervisors. Any county board of supervisors may, under the provisions of chapter 17A, and subsequent to the rule-making proceedings, petition under those provisions for additional rule making to establish standards to protect soil conservation practices, structures and drainage age structures within that county. Upon the request of the petitioning county, the board shall schedule a hearing to consider the merits of the petition. These rules adopted under this section shall not apply within the boundaries of a city.

2. The county board of supervisors shall cause an on-site inspection for compliance with the standards adopted under this section to be performed at any pipeline construction project in the county. A professional engineer familiar with the standards adopted under this section and registered under chapter 114 shall be in responsible charge of the inspection. A county board of supervisors may contract for the services of a professional engineer for the purposes of the inspection. The reasonable costs of the inspection shall be borne by the pipeline company.

3. If the inspector determines that there has been a violation of the standards adopted under this section, the inspector shall give oral notice, followed by written notice, to the pipeline company and the contractor operating for the pipeline company and order corrective action to be taken in compliance with the standards. The costs of the corrective action shall be borne by the contractor operating for the pipeline company.

4. As a part of the inspection process, the inspector shall ascertain that the trench excavation has been filled in a manner to provide that the topsoil has been replaced on top and rocks and debris have been removed from the topsoil of the easement area. An existing topsoil layer extending at least one foot in width on either side of the pipeline excavation at a maximum depth of twelve inches shall be removed separately and shall be stockpiled and preserved separately during subsequent construction operations, unless other means for separating the topsoil are provided in the easement. The topsoil shall be replaced so the upper portion of the pipeline excavation and the crowned surface shall contain only the topsoil originally removed.

5. Adequate inspection of underground improvements altered during construction of pipeline shall be conducted at the time of the replacement or repair of the underground improvements. An inspector shall be present on the site at all times at each phase and separate activity of the opening of the trench, the restoration of underground improvements, and backfilling. The pipeline company and its contractor shall keep all county inspectors continually informed of the work schedule and any schedule changes.

6. If the pipeline company or its contractor does not comply with the orders of the inspector for compliance with the standards, the county board of supervisors may direct the county attorney to petition the district court for an order requiring corrective action to be taken in compliance with the standards adopted under this section.

7. The pipeline company shall allow landowners and inspectors to view the proposed center line of the pipeline prior to commencing trenching operations to ensure that construction takes place in its proper location.

8. An inspector may temporarily halt the construction if the construction is not in compliance with the law or the terms of the agreement with the pipeline company regarding topsoil removal and replacement, drainage structures, soil moisture conditions or the location of construction until the inspector consults with the supervisory personnel of the pipeline company. If the construction is then continued over the inspector's objection and is found to not be in compliance with the law or agreement and is found to cause damage, any civil penalty recovered under section 479.31 as a result of that violation shall be paid to the landowner.

9. The board shall instruct inspectors appointed by the board of supervisors regarding the content of the statutes and rules and the inspector's responsibility to require construction conforming with the standards provided by this chapter.

10. Any underground drain tile damaged, cut or removed shall be temporarily repaired and maintained as necessary to allow for its proper function during construction of the pipeline. If temporary repair is not determined to be necessary, the exposed line will nonetheless be screened or otherwise protected to prevent the entry of any foreign material, small animals, etc., into the tile line system.

479.30 Entry for land surveys.

A pipeline company may enter upon private land for the purpose of making land surveys to determine direction or depth of pipelines not to exceed a depth of twenty-five feet, after receipt of a permit to construct, maintain and operate its pipeline by giving ten days' written notice by restricted certified mail to the landowner as defined in section 479.35 and to any person residing on or in possession of the land. The entry for land surveys authorized in this section shall not be deemed a trespass and may be aided by injunction. The pipeline company shall pay the actual damages caused by the entry and survey.

[C81, §479.30]

479.31 Civil penalty.

Any person who violates any provision of this chapter or any regulation issued pursuant to this chapter...
§479.31 shall be subject to a civil penalty of not to exceed one thousand dollars for each violation. Each day that the violation continues shall constitute a separate offense. However, the maximum civil penalty shall not exceed two hundred thousand dollars for any related series of violations.

Any civil penalty may be compromised by the board. In determining the amount of the penalty, or the amount agreed upon in compromise, the appropriateness of the penalty to the size of the business of the person charged, the gravity of the violation, and the good faith of the person charged in attempting to achieve compliance, after notification of a violation, shall be considered. The amount of the penalty, when finally determined, or the amount agreed upon in compromise, may be deducted from any sums owed by the state to the person charged, or may be recovered in a civil action.

479.32 Rehearing — judicial review.

Rehearing procedure for any person, company or corporation aggrieved by the action of the board in granting or failing to grant a permit under the provisions of this chapter shall be as provided in section 476.12. Judicial review may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

[C71, 73, 75, §490.32; C77, 79, §479.30; C81, §479.32] See §476.13

479.33 Authorized federal aid.

The board may enter into agreements with and receive moneys from the United States department of transportation for the enforcement of the applicable standards of pipeline safety as provided by Public Law 90-481, the Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act of 1968 (49 United States Code 1671-1684).

479.34 Cancellation.

A person seeking to acquire an easement or other property interest for the construction, maintenance or operation of a pipeline shall:

1. Allow the landowner or a person serving in a fiduciary capacity in the landowner's behalf to cancel an agreement granting an easement or other interest by certified mail with return requested to the company's principal place of business if received by the company within seven days, excluding Saturday and Sunday, of the date of the contract and inform the landowner or such fiduciary in writing of the right to cancel prior to the signing of the agreement by the landowner or such fiduciary.

2. Provide the landowner or a person serving in a fiduciary capacity in the landowner's behalf with a form in duplicate for the notice of cancellation.

3. Not record any agreement until after the period for cancellation has expired.

4. Not include in the agreement any waiver of the right to cancel in accordance with this section. The landowner or a person serving in a fiduciary capacity in the landowner's behalf may exercise the right of cancellation only once for each pipeline project.

[C81, §479.34]

479.35 to 479.40 Reserved.

479.41 Arbitration agreements.

If an easement or other written agreement between a landowner and a pipeline company provides for the determination through arbitration of the amount of monetary damages sustained by a landowner and caused by the construction, maintenance, or repair of a pipeline, and if either person has not appointed its arbitrator or agreed to an arbitrator under the agreement within thirty days after the other person has invoked the arbitration provisions of the agreement by written notice to the other party by restricted certified mail, the landowner or the pipeline company may petition a judicial magistrate in the county where the real property is located for the appointment of an arbitrator to serve in the stead of the arbitrator who would have been appointed or agreed to by the other person. Before filing the petition the landowner or pipeline company shall give notice of the petitioning of the judicial magistrate by restricted certified mail to the other person and file proof of mailing with the petition. If after hearing, the magistrate finds that the landowner or pipeline company has not been diligent in appointing or reasonable in agreeing to an arbitrator, the magistrate shall appoint an impartial arbitrator who shall have all of the powers and duties of an arbitrator appointed or agreed to by the other person under the agreement.

For purposes of this section only, "landowner" means the persons who signed the easement or other written agreement, their heirs, successors, and assigns.

479.42 Subsequent pipelines.

A pipeline company shall not install a subsequent pipeline upon its existing easement when a damage claim from the installation of its previous pipeline has not been determined by negotiation, arbitration or action of the courts. This section does not apply if the damage claim is under litigation or arbitration.

With the exception of claims for damage to drain tile and future crop deficiency, landowners and tenants must submit in writing their claims for damages caused by installation of the pipeline within one year of final cleanup on the real property.

479.43 Damage agreement.

A pipeline company shall not install a pipeline until there is a written statement on file with the board as to how damages resulting from the construction of the pipeline shall be determined and paid, except in cases of eminent domain. The company shall provide a copy of the statement to the landowner.

[C81, §479.43]

479.44 Negotiated fee.

In lieu of a one-time lump sum payment for an easement or other property interest allowing a pipeline to cross the property, a landowner and the pipeline company may negotiate an annual fee, to be paid over a fixed number of years. Unless the easement provides otherwise, the annual fee shall run with the land and shall be payable to the owner of record.

479.45 Particular damage claims.

1. The loss of gain by or the death or injury of livestock caused by the interruption or relocation of normal feeding of the livestock caused by the construction or repair of a pipeline is a compensable loss and shall be recognized as such by a pipeline company.

2. A claim for damage for future crop deficiency within the easement strip shall not be precluded from renegotiation under section 472.52 on the grounds that it was apparent at the time of settlement unless the settlement expressly releases the pipeline company from claims for damage to the productivity of the soil. The landowner shall notify the company thirty days prior to harvest in each year to assess crop deficiency.

3. A claim for damage for personal property caused by the construction activity of installing a pipeline and its attendant structures but does not include compensation for a property interest, and “landowner” includes a farm tenant.

4. The loss of gain by or the death or injury of livestock caused by the interruption or relocation of normal feeding of the livestock caused by the construction or repair of a pipeline is a compensable loss and shall be recognized as such by a pipeline company.

5. Chapter 472 applies to this section to the extent it is applicable and consistent with this section.

6. The pipeline company shall pay all costs of the assessment made by the commissioners and reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred by the landowner as determined by the commissioners if the award of the commissioners exceeds one hundred ten percent of the final offer of the pipeline company prior to the determination of damages; if the award does not exceed one hundred ten percent, the landowners shall pay the fees and costs incurred by the pipeline company. The pipeline company shall file with the sheriff an affidavit setting forth the most recent offer made to the landowner. Commissioners shall receive a per diem of fifty dollars and actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The pipeline company shall also pay all costs occasioned by the appeal, including reasonable attorney fees to be taxed by the court, unless on the trial of the appeal the same or a less amount of damages is awarded than was allowed by the commission from which the appeal was taken.

7. As used in this section, “damages” means compensation for damages to the land, crops, and other personal property caused by the construction activity of installing a pipeline and its attendant structures but does not include compensation for a property interest, and “landowner” includes a farm tenant.

8. The provisions of this section do not apply if the easement provides for any other means of negotiation or arbitration.

479.46 Determination of installation damages.

1. The county board of supervisors shall determine when installation of a pipeline has been completed in that county for the purposes of this section. Between seventy-five and one hundred days after the completion of installation, a landowner whose land was affected by the installation of the pipeline may file with the board of supervisors a petition asking that a compensation commission determine the damages arising from the installation of the pipeline.

2. If the board of supervisors by resolution approves the petition, the landowner shall commence the proceeding by filing an application with the chief judge of the judicial district of the county for the appointment of a compensation commission as provided in section 472.4.

3. The application shall contain the following:
   a. The name and address of the petitioning landowner and a description of the land on which the damage is claimed to have occurred.
   b. A description of the nature of the damage claimed to have occurred and the amount of the damage claimed.
   c. The name and address of the pipeline company claimed to have caused the damage.

4. After the commissioners have been appointed, the landowner shall serve notice on the pipeline company stating the following:
   a. That a compensation commission has been appointed to determine the damages caused by the installation of the pipeline.
   b. The name and address of the landowner and a description of the land on which the damage is claimed to have occurred.
   c. The date, time, and place when the commissioners will view the premises and proceed to appraise the damages and that the pipeline company may appear before the commissioners.

5. Chapter 472 applies to this section to the extent it is applicable and consistent with this section.

6. The pipeline company shall pay all costs of the assessment made by the commissioners and reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred by the landowner as determined by the commissioners if the award of the commissioners exceeds one hundred ten percent of the final offer of the pipeline company prior to the determination of damages; if the award does not exceed one hundred ten percent, the landowners shall pay the fees and costs incurred by the pipeline company. The pipeline company shall file with the sheriff an affidavit setting forth the most recent offer made to the landowner. Commissioners shall receive a per diem of fifty dollars and actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. The pipeline company shall also pay all costs occasioned by the appeal, including reasonable attorney fees to be taxed by the court, unless on the trial of the appeal the same or a less amount of damages is awarded than was allowed by the commission from which the appeal was taken.

7. As used in this section, “damages” means compensation for damages to the land, crops, and other personal property caused by the construction activity of installing a pipeline and its attendant structures but does not include compensation for a property interest, and “landowner” includes a farm tenant.

8. The provisions of this section do not apply if the easement provides for any other means of negotiation or arbitration.

[81 Acts, ch 159, §2, 8]

479.47 Subsequent tiling.

All additional costs of new tile construction caused by an existing pipeline shall be paid by the pipeline company. The additional costs shall be paid by the pipeline company upon presentation of an invoice, verified by the county engineer or soil conservation district conservationist and specifically showing the added costs caused by the presence of the pipeline. A copy of the county engineer's or district conservationist's verification of additional costs shall accompany the invoice to the pipeline company.

Before performing earthwork, tiling, or excavation within three hundred feet of an existing pipeline, a landowner, tenant, contractor, or the representative of any one of them shall notify the pipeline company or its representative by calling the pipeline company telephone number listed on the roadside right-of-way marker. The pipeline company shall mark the location of the existing pipeline within forty-eight hours of notification with appropriate marker flags or stakes on the land surface directly above the pipeline for a distance of one hundred fifty feet either side of the proposed work site. Markers shall be placed at twenty-five foot intervals, where physically possible, along the pipeline route indicating the diameter of the pipeline. The pipeline company shall not charge the landowner, tenant, or contractor for the placement of the markers. Excavation, earthwork, or tiling shall not be commenced in that area until the markers are in place and the pipeline company representative is present and has notified the contractor of the depth at the site of crossing. The pipeline company representative shall be present during all the excavation, earthwork, or tiling within the marked area when that area is any one of the following:

(1) Land located outside the corporate limits of a city.
(2) Agricultural land within the corporate limits of a city.
(3) Nonagricultural land within the corporate limits of a city when the pipeline facility is operated at a pressure in excess of one hundred fifty pounds per square inch. As used in this paragraph agricultural land means land of one or more acres suitable for cultivation for the production of crops, fruit or other horticultural purposes or for the grazing or production of livestock.

§491.5  Articles adopted and recorded.
Before commencing any business except their own organization, they must adopt articles of incorporation, which must be signed and acknowledged by the incorporators. Said articles shall then be forwarded to the secretary of state. Upon the filing of such articles, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of incorporation and record said articles in a book kept for that purpose. The secretary of state shall then forward said articles to the county recorder of deeds of the county where the principal place of business is to be located, there to be recorded in a book kept therefor, and the recorder shall endorse thereon the book and page where the record will be found.
Such articles shall contain
1 Name of corporation and its principal place of business
2 The objects for which it is formed
3 The amount of authorized capital stock, the classes of stock and number of shares authorized, with the par value and conditions of each class of such shares, and the time and conditions under which it is to be paid in 4 The time of commencement and existence of the corporation

§491.6 Filing or refusal to file.
When articles of incorporation are presented to the secretary of state for the purpose of being filed, if the secretary is satisfied that they are in proper form to meet the requirements of law, that their object is a lawful one and not against public policy, that their plan for doing business, if any be provided for, is honest and lawful, the secretary shall file them, but if the secretary is of the opinion that they are not in proper form to meet the requirements of the law, or that their object is an unlawful one, or against public policy, or that their plan for doing business is dishonest or unlawful, the secretary shall refuse to file them

§491.7 Question of legality submitted.
Should a question of doubt arise as to the legality of the articles, the secretary of state shall submit them to the attorney general whose duty it shall be to forthwith examine and return them with an opinion in writing touching the point or points concerning which inquiry has been made of the attorney general

§491.8 Action on opinion.
If such opinion is in favor of the legality of the articles, and no other objections are apparent, they shall then, upon payment of the proper fee, be filed and otherwise dealt with as the law provides. If, however, such opinion be against their legality they shall not be filed

§491.9 Submission to executive council.
Upon the rejection of any articles of incorporation by the secretary of state, except for the reason that they have been held by the attorney general to be illegal, they shall, if the person or persons presenting them so request, be submitted to the executive council, which shall, as soon as practicable, consider the said articles and if the council determines that the articles are in proper form, of honest purpose, not against public policy, nor otherwise objectionable, it shall so advise the secretary of state in writing, whereupon the secretary shall, upon the payment of the proper fees, file the same and proceed otherwise as the law directs, but if the council sustains the previous action of the secretary of state in rejecting said articles, such decision by the council shall be reported to the secretary of state in writing, and the secretary shall then return said articles to the person or persons presenting them with such explanation as shall be proper in the case

§491.10 Interpretative clause.
Nothing in sections 491 to 491 9 shall be construed as repealing or modifying any statute now in force in respect to the approval of articles of incorporation relating to insurance companies, building and loan associations or investment companies

§491.11 Incorporation fee.
Corporations organized for a period of years shall pay the secretary of state, before a certificate of incorporation is issued, a fee of twenty-five dollars together with a recording fee of fifty cents per page, and, for all authorized stock in excess of ten thousand dollars, an additional fee of one dollar per thousand Corporations organized to exist perpetually shall pay to the secretary of state, before a certificate of incorporation is issued, a fee of one hundred dollars together with a recording fee of fifty cents per page, and, for all authorized stock in excess of ten thousand dollars, an additional fee of one dollar ten cents per thousand. Should any corporation increase its capital stock, it shall pay to the secretary of state a recording fee of fifty cents per page and in addition a fee which in the case of corporations existing for a period of years shall be one dollar per thousand of such increase and in case of corporations empowered to exist perpetually shall be one dollar and ten cents per thousand of such increase. The fees, except the recording fees, required by this section to be paid, shall not be collected from a corporation organized for the purpose of carrying into effect a plan of reorganization approved in bankruptcy proceedings under the laws of the United States or in a general equity receivership in a court of competent jurisdiction, for the period until the termination of the time for which such fees were paid by the corporation so reorganized
[C97, §1610, S13, §1610, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8349; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §491 11]

Foreign corporations §494 14
See §491 30
See also §491 28

§491.12 Exemption from fee.
Farmers mutual co-operative creamery associations, whose articles of incorporation provide that the business of the association be conducted on a purely mutual and co-operative plan, without capital stock, and whose patrons shall share equally in expense and profits, domestic and local building and loan associations and incorporations organized for the 491.12 Manufacture of sugar from beets grown in the state, shall be exempt from the payment of the incorporation filing fee provided herein in excess of twenty five dollars.

491.13 Place of business.

Any corporation organized under the laws of this state shall fix upon and designate in its articles of incorporation its principal place of business which must be in this state, and if outside the limits of a city then its post-office address must be given. The place of business so designated shall not be changed except by amendment to its articles of incorporation.

When a corporation changes its principal place of business from one county to another, an amendment for this purpose shall be filed with the secretary of state, recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county of the previous place of business and the county of the new place of business. Notice of the amendment shall be published in a newspaper in the county where the amendment is recorded. The amendment shall be valid if published within the time herein prescribed, but is subject to the publication of the amendment.

491.14 Custody of office — business maintained.

Its place of business shall be in charge of an agent of the corporation and shall be the place where it shall hold its stockholders' meetings, keep a record of its proceedings and its stock and transfer books. The board of directors may designate by resolution some other place in the county where business of the corporation is transacted as the place for holding a stockholders' meeting if notice is mailed to the stockholders at least twenty days prior to each meeting informing the stockholders of the place, date, and hour of the stockholders' meeting.

491.15 Service of original notice — secretary of state.

Any corporation organized under the laws of this state that does not maintain an office in the county of its organization may file with the secretary of state a certified copy of a resolution of the board of directors of said corporation giving name and address in Iowa of a resident agent on whom service of notice or process may be made, and of the agent's capacity and authority to accept service of notice or process for and in behalf of such corporation in any court in which the suit is pending, addressed by the clerk's official title, and shall also forthwith mail a copy with a copy of the secretary's acknowledgment of service written thereon, by certified mail addressed to the corporation at the address of its principal place of business as shown by the records in the secretary of state's office, and shall retain the second copy for the secretary's files.

491.16 Indemnification of officers, directors, employees and agents — insurance.

The provisions of section 496A.4 shall apply to corporations organized under or subject to this chapter.

491.17 Notice of incorporation.

A notice must be published once each week for four weeks in succession in some newspaper as convenient as practicable to the principal place of business, which must contain:

1. The name of the corporation and its principal place of business.
2. The general nature of the business to be transacted.
3. The amount of capital stock authorized, and the times and conditions on which it is to be paid in.
4. The time of the commencement and existence of the corporation.
5. By what officers or persons its affairs are to be conducted, and the times when and manner in which they will be elected.
6. Whether private property is to be exempt from corporate debts.

491.18 Proof of publication — filing.

Proof of such publication, by affidavit of the publisher of the newspaper in which it is made, shall be filed with the secretary of state, and shall be evidence of the fact.

491.19 Commencement of business.

The corporation may commence business as soon as the certificate is issued by the secretary of state, and its acts shall be valid if the publication in a newspaper is made within three months from the date of such certificate, providing that when the notice is not published within the time herein prescribed, but is subsequently published for the required time, and proof of the publication thereof filed with the secretary of state, the acts of such corporation after such publication shall be valid.
491.20 Amendments — fees.

Amendments to articles of incorporation making changes in any of the provisions of the articles may be made at any annual meeting of the stockholders or special meeting called for that purpose, and they shall be valid only when recorded, approved and published as the original articles are required to be, except where the amendment provides for changing the principal place of business from one county to another, in which event said amendment shall be published in both the counties of the former and new place of business. Publication shall be by notice setting out the substance of the amendment and, in the case of amended and substituted articles, said notice shall contain the matters and things required to be published by section 491.17, relating to original incorporations. If no increase is made in the amount of capital stock, a certificate fee of one dollar and a recording fee of fifty cents per page must be paid. Where capital stock is increased the certificate fee shall be omitted but there shall be paid a recording fee of fifty cents per page and in addition a filing fee which in case of corporations existing for a period of years shall be one dollar per thousand of such increase and in case of corporations empowered to exist perpetually shall be one dollar and ten cents per thousand of such increase. Corporations providing for perpetual existence by amendment to its articles shall, at the time of filing such amendment, pay to the secretary of state a fee of one hundred dollars together with a recording fee of fifty cents per page, and, for all authorized capital stock in excess of ten thousand dollars, an additional fee of one dollar ten cents per thousand.

Its articles of incorporation to the contrary notwithstanding, if three-fourths of the voting stock of any corporation organized under the provisions of this chapter, with assets of the value of one million dollars or more, is owned by individuals owning not more than one share each of the voting stock thereof, said articles may be amended at any regular or special meeting of stockholders, when a notice in writing of the substance of the proposed amendment has been mailed by ordinary mail to each voting stockholder of such corporation not more than ninety nor less than sixty days prior to said meeting, by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the voting stock represented at said meeting when said amendment is approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members of the board of directors at a meeting prior to the mailing of said notice.

If such corporation is renewed under the provisions of section 491.25, the voting stock of dissident stockholders or any portion thereof may be purchased by the corporation at its option as provided in said section.

491.21 Signing and acknowledging of amendments.

Such amendments need only be signed and acknowledged by such officers of the corporation as may be designated by the stockholders to perform such act.

491.22 Individual property liable.

A failure to substantially comply with the foregoing requirements in relation to organization and publicity shall render the individual property of the stockholders liable for the corporate debts; but corporators and stockholders in railway and street railway companies shall be liable only for the amount of stock held by them therein.

491.23 Dissolution — notice of — filing with secretary of state.

A corporation may be dissolved prior to the period fixed in the articles of incorporation, by unanimous consent, or in accordance with the provisions of its articles, and notice thereof must be given in the same manner and for the same time as is required for its organization; provided, however, that the notice of such dissolution shall be deemed sufficient if signed by the officers of such corporation and published as required by law. Notice thereof shall also be given by the filing in the office of the secretary of state the proof of publication of notice of dissolution and said proof shall be recorded by the secretary of state in the same manner as the recording of amendments, and a recording fee of one dollar shall apply thereto, and the secretary of state shall forward said proof of publication to the county recorder of the county wherein the corporation maintains its place of business, there to be recorded in a book kept therefor.

491.24 Duration.

Corporations for the construction and operation, or the operation alone, of steam railways, interurban railways, and street railways, or for the transaction of the business of life insurance, may be formed to endure fifty years; those for other purposes, not to exceed twenty years; provided, however, that in addition to the power herein granted to incorporate for a period of years, corporations hereafter organized or now existing may have perpetual existence by so providing in the articles of incorporation or by amendment thereto pursuant to section 491.20.

491.25 Renewal — conditions.

Corporations existing for a period of years may be renewed from time to time for the same or shorter periods, or may be renewed to exist perpetually, upon compliance with the provisions of this section and other applicable statutes.

The right of renewal is vested in the stockholders and shall be exercised by a resolution thereof adopted at any regular meeting or at any special meeting called for that purpose. Such resolution must be adopted by a majority of all the votes cast at such meeting, or by such other vote as is authorized or required in the company's existing articles of incorporation.

If the renewal instrument in proper form and the necessary fees are tendered to the secretary of state for filing three months or less either prior or subsequent to the corporation's expiration date, such renewal shall take effect immediately upon the expiration of the corporation's previous period of existence, and in such case, the corporate existence shall be considered as having been extended without interruption. If the renewal is filed more than three months before or after the expiration date, such renewal shall take effect upon the date such renewal with necessary fees is accepted and filed by the secretary of state; and in cases where filed more than three months after the expiration date, shall not be in legal effect a renewal unless the procedure provided for and the additional fees provided for in section 491.28 are fully complied with and paid.

In all cases of renewal, those stockholders voting for such renewal must purchase at its real value the stock voted against such renewal, and shall have three years from the date such action for renewal was taken in which to purchase and pay for the stock voting against such renewal, which purchase price shall bear interest at the rate of five percent per annum from the date of such renewal action until paid.

491.26 Stock of dissenting holders.

The provisions of section 491.25 shall not apply to any renewal voted before July 4, 1951, but all rights of any corporation described or referred to in the last two paragraphs of section 491.20 to purchase stock of dissenting stockholders or any portion thereof are preserved to said corporation both before and after this section becomes operative.

[Sections 491.26 and 491.25]

491.27 Execution of renewal — record required.

After the said action of the stockholders for the renewal of any corporation, a certificate, showing the proceedings resulting in such renewal, sworn to by the president and secretary of the corporation, or by such other officers as may be designated by the stockholders, together with the articles of incorporation, which may be the original articles of incorporation or amended and substituted articles, shall be filed with the secretary of state and be recorded by the secretary in a book kept for that purpose. The secretary of state shall then forward said renewal articles to the recorder of deeds of the county where the principal place of business is located, and the recorder shall record said renewal articles and endorse thereon the book and page where the record will be found.

491.28 Filing with secretary of state — fees — certificate of renewal.

Upon filing with the secretary of state the said certificate and articles of incorporation, and upon the payment to the secretary of state of the fees prescribed by section 491.11 for newly organized corporations, the secretary of state shall issue a proper certificate for the renewal of the corporation.

Whenever, after timely notice has been received that its articles of incorporation will expire and the corporate existence of any corporation has expired and not been renewed within the period prescribed by statute, said corporation thereafter files with the secretary of state amended and substituted articles of incorporation for the purpose of renewing and extending its corporate existence, the secretary of state shall cause said corporation to file satisfactory proof that no judgments against said corporation or the stockholders thereof are outstanding which may be liens against said corporation and that there is no pending litigation involving said corporation or the corporate existence of said corporation. Upon the filing of said proof the secretary of state may acknowledge and file for record the amended and substituted articles of said corporation and issue a certificate of renewal upon the payment of the renewal fees required by statute, however, the secretary of state shall charge and collect an additional ten percent of said renewal fees for each month or major fraction thereof said corporation was delinquent in renewal of its corporate existence as a penalty, but in no instance shall such additional delinquency fee be less than one hundred dollars and not more than one thousand dollars. Said certificate of renewal when issued shall have the same force and effect as though issued upon proper and timely application by said corporation and it shall date from the expiration of the corporate period which it succeeds.

491.29 Erroneous certificate — correction.

In all cases wherein the secretary of state has prior to April 10, 1931 issued to a corporation organized or purporting to have been organized under the laws of this state a certificate renewing and extending its corporate existence from an erroneous date or for a period of time in excess of that provided by law, the secretary of state shall, upon the surrender of such certificate, issue to such corporation a new certificate, extending and renewing the corporate existence thereof from the correct date or for the period of time provided by law.

491.30 Perpetual corporations — periodic fees.

Corporations having the right of perpetual existence shall periodically pay the fees herein provided. Fifty years from the date of incorporation or last renewal of such corporations for the construction and operation, or the operation alone, of steam railways, interurban railways and street railways, or for the transaction of the business of life insurance, and each fifty years thereafter, and twenty years from the date of incorporation or last renewal of such corporations for other purposes, and each twenty years thereafter, there shall be paid to the secretary of state a fee of one hundred dollars and an additional fee of one dollar ten cents per thousand for all authorized stock in excess of ten thousand dollars; and upon such payment being made the secretary of state shall issue a certificate showing such payment. The period of existence of any such corporation failing to pay such fees at the time they are due shall thereupon terminate, provided, however, that any such corporation may be renewed at any time within three months thereafter.

491.31 Exemption from fee.
Farmers mutual co-operative creamery associations, domestic and domestic local building and loan associations, and corporations organized for the manufacture of sugar from beets grown in the state of Iowa, shall be exempt from the payment of the incorporation fee, provided in section 491.28, in excess of twenty-five dollars.

491.33 Foreign insurance companies becoming domestic.
The secretary of state upon a corporation complying with the provisions of this section and upon the filing of articles of incorporation and upon receipt of the fees as provided in this chapter shall issue a certificate of incorporation as of the date of the corporation's original incorporation in its state of original incorporation. The certificate of incorporation shall state on its face that it is issued in accordance with the provisions of this section. The secretary of state shall forward said articles as provided in this chapter to the county recorder where the principal place of business of the corporation is to be located. The secretary of state shall then notify the appropriate officer of the state or country of the corporation's last domicile that the corporation is now a domestic corporation domiciled in this state. This section applies to life insurance companies, and to insurance companies doing business under chapter 515.

491.55 Right to vote stock — attachment.
Every executor, administrator, guardian, or trustee shall represent the stock in the person's hands at all corporate meetings, and may vote the same as a stockholder.

Every person who shall pledge the person’s stock, in comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at such meeting. An officer or agent having charge of the transfer books who shall fail to prepare the list of stockholders, or keep the same on file for a period of ten days, or produce and keep the same open for inspection at the meeting, as provided in this section, shall be liable to any stockholder suffering damage on account of such failure, to the extent of such damage.

491.56 Expiration and closing of business.

Corporations whose charters expire by limitation or the voluntary act of the stockholders may nevertheless continue to act for the purpose of winding up their affairs.

491.57 Sinking fund and loaning thereof.

For the purpose of repairs, rebuilding, enlarging, or to meet contingencies, or for the purpose of creating a sinking fund, the corporation may set apart a sum which it may loan, and take proper securities therefor.

491.58 Liability of stockholders.

Neither anything in this chapter contained, nor any provisions in the articles of incorporation, shall exempt the stockholders from individual liability to the amount of the unpaid installments on the stock owned by them, or transferred by them for the purpose of defrauding creditors; and execution against the stockholder, or transferred by them for the purpose of defrauding creditors, and execution against the stockholder, and against the corporation, and a demand has been there­to controverted the validity of the judgment rendered against the corporation, unless it was rendered through fraud and collusion.

491.61 Corporate property exhausted.

Before any stockholder can be charged with the payment of a judgment rendered for a corporate debt, an action shall be brought against the stockholder, in any stage of which the stockholder may point out corporate property subject to levy; and, upon the stockholder's satisfying the court of the existence of such property, by affidavit or otherwise, the cause may be continued, or execution against the stockholder stayed, until the property can be levied upon and sold, and the court may subsequently render judgment for any balance which there may be after disposing of the corporate property; but if a demand of property has been made as contemplated in section 491.59, the costs of said action shall, in any event, be paid by the company or the defendant therein, but the stockholder shall not be permitted to controvert the validity of the judgment rendered against the corporation, unless it was rendered through fraud and collusion.

491.62 Indemnity — contribution.

When the property of a stockholder is taken for a corporate debt, the stockholder may maintain an action against the corporation for indemnity, and against any of the other stockholders for contribution.

491.63 Franchise sold on execution.

The franchise of a corporation may be levied upon under execution and sold, but the corporation shall not become thereby dissolved, and no dissolution of the original corporation shall affect the franchise, and the purchaser becomes vested with all the powers of the corporation therefor. Such franchise shall be sold without appraisal.

491.64 Production of books.

In proceedings by or against a corporation or a stockholder to charge the stockholder's private property, or the dividends received by the stockholder, the court may, upon motion of either party, upon cause shown for that purpose, compel the officers or agents of the corporation to produce the books and records of the corporation.

491.65 Estoppel.

No person or persons acting as a corporation shall be permitted to set up the want of a legal organization as a defense to an action against them as a corporation, nor shall any person sued on a contract made with such an acting corporation, or sued for an injury to its property, or a wrong done to its interests, be permitted to set up a want of such legal organization in the person's defense.

491.66 Dissolution — receivership.

Courts of equity shall have full power, on good cause shown, to dissolve or close up the business of any corporation, and to appoint a receiver therefor, who shall be a resident of the state of Iowa. An action therefor may be instituted by the attorney general in the name of the state, reserving, however, to the stockholders and creditors all rights now possessed by them.

CORPORATION MERGER OR CONSOLIDATION

491.101 Definitions.

1. "Merger" means the uniting of two or more corporations into one corporation in such manner that the corporation resulting from the merger retains its corporate existence and absorbs the other constituent corporation or corporations which thereby lose their or its corporate existence.

2. "Consolidation" means the uniting of two or more corporations into a single new corporation, all of the constituent corporations thereby ceasing to exist as separate entities.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §491.101]

491.102 Procedure for merger.

Any two or more corporations whether heretofore or hereafter organized may merge into one of such corporations in the following manner:

The board of directors of each corporation shall, by resolution adopted by a majority vote of the members of each such board, approve a plan of mergers setting forth:

1. The names of the corporations proposing to merge, and the name of the corporation into which they propose to merge, which is hereinafter designated as the surviving corporation.

2. The terms and conditions of the proposed merger.

3. The manner and basis of converting the shares of each merging corporation into shares or other securities or obligations of the surviving corporation.

4. A statement of any changes in the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation to be effected by such merger.

5. Such other provisions with respect to the proposed merger as are deemed necessary or desirable.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §491.102]

491.103 Procedure for consolidation.

Any two or more corporations whether heretofore or hereafter organized may consolidate into a new corporation in the following manner:

The board of directors of each corporation, shall, by a resolution adopted by a majority vote of the members of each such board, approve a plan of consolidation setting forth:

1. The names of the corporations proposing to consolidate, and the name of the new corporation into which they propose to consolidate, which is hereinafter designated as the new corporation.

2. The terms and conditions of the proposed consolidation.

3. The manner and basis of converting the shares of each corporation into shares, or other securities, or obligations of the new corporation.

4. With respect to the new corporation, all of the statements required to be set forth in articles of incorporation for corporations organized under this chapter.

5. Such other provisions with respect to the proposed consolidation as are deemed necessary or desirable.

491.104 Meetings of shareholders.

The board of directors of each corporation, upon approving such plan of merger or plan of consolidation, shall, by resolution, direct that the plan be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written or printed notice shall be delivered not less than twenty days before such meeting, either personally or by mail, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. Such notice shall state the place, day, hour and purpose of the meeting, and a copy or a summary of the plan of merger or plan of consolidation, as the case may be, shall be included in or enclosed with such notice.

491.105 Approval by shareholders.

At each such meeting, a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereat shall be taken on the proposed plan of merger or consolidation. The plan of merger or consolidation shall be approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two thirds of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at such meeting, of each of such corporations, unless any class of shares of any such corporations is entitled to vote as class in respect thereof in which event, as to such corporation, the plan of merger or consolidation shall be approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of each such class of shares entitled to vote as a class in respect thereof and two-thirds of the total outstanding shares entitled to vote at such meeting. Any class of shares of any such corporation shall be entitled to vote as a class if the plan of merger or consolidation, as the case may be, contains any provision which, if contained in a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation, would entitle such class of shares to vote as a class

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §491 105]

491.106 Articles of merger or consolidation.

Upon such approval, articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall be executed in duplicate by each company by its president or a vice president, and verified by that person, attested by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and shall be acknowledged and shall set forth

1 The plan of merger or the plan of consolidation
2 As to each corporation, the number of shares outstanding, and the number of shares entitled to vote, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the designation of such class and the number of outstanding shares thereof entitled to vote
3 As to each corporation, the number of shares voted for and against such plan respectively, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against such plan, respectively

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §491 106]

491.107 Filing articles of merger or consolidation.

A duly executed and acknowledged copy of the articles of merger or consolidation shall be forwarded to the Secretary of State for filing and recording as provided in section 491.5, and if a new corporation is created under the provisions of this chapter as the result of consolidation or if an existing Iowa corporation becomes the survivor corporation as the result of merger the Secretary of State shall then forward said articles to the county recorder of deeds of the county where the principal place of business of the new corporations or the existing Iowa corporation is located as provided in section 491.5.

The procedure set forth in sections 491.6 to 491.9 of this chapter shall be applicable to the filing of articles of consolidation or merger

If as the result of a consolidation a new Iowa corporations is formed then the fees provided for in section 491.11 shall be applicable. If as the result of a merger an existing Iowa corporation becomes the survivor the articles of merger shall be deemed an amendment to its articles of incorporation and section 491.20 shall be applicable.

491.108 Effective date of merger or consolidation.

Upon the payment of all fees and charges and upon the filing of the articles of consolidation or merger with the Secretary of State the Secretary of State shall issue to the corporation or its representative a certificate of consolidation or a certificate of merger and upon the issuance of said certificate the merger or consolidation shall be effected.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §491 108]

491.109 Notice.

Notice of the articles of consolidation or merger shall be given as provided in section 491.17.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §491 109]

491.110 Effect of merger or consolidation.

When such merger or consolidation has been effected

1 The several corporations parties to the plan of merger or consolidation shall be a single corporation, which, in the case of a merger, shall be that corporation designated in the plan of merger as the surviving corporation, and, in the case of a consolidation, shall be the new corporation provided for in the plan of consolidation.

2 The separate existence of all corporations parties to the plan of merger or consolidation, except the surviving or new corporation, shall cease.

3 Such surviving or new corporation shall have all the rights, privileges, immunities and powers and shall be subject to all the duties and liabilities of a corporation organized under this chapter.

4 Such surviving or new corporation shall there upon and thereafter possess all the rights, privileges, immunities and franchises, as well as of a public as of a private nature, of each of the merging or consolidating corporations and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due on whatever account, including subscriptions to shares, and all other choses in action and all and every other interest, of or belonging to or due to each of the corporations so merged or consolidated, shall be taken and deemed to be trans-furred to and vested in such single corporation without further act or deed, and the title to any real estate, or any interest therein, vested in any of such corporations shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of such merger or consolidation.

5 Such surviving or new corporation shall thenceforth be responsible and liable for all the liabilities and obligations of each of the corporations so merged or consolidated, and any claim existing or action or proceeding pending by or against any of such corporations may be prosecuted to judgment as if such merger or consolidation had not taken place, or such surviving or new corporation may be substituted in its place. Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of any such corporation shall be impaired by such merger or consolidation.

6 In the case of a merger, the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation shall be deemed to be amended to the extent, if any, that changes in its articles of incorporation are stated in the articles of merger, and, in the case of a consolidation, the statements set forth in the articles of consolidation and which are required or permitted to be set forth in the articles of incorporation of corporations organized under this chapter shall be deemed to be the articles of incorporation of the new corporation.
The aggregate amount of the net assets of the merging or consolidating corporations which was available for the payment of dividends immediately prior to such merger or consolidation, to the extent that the amount thereof is not transferred to stated capital by the issuance of shares or otherwise, shall continue to be available for the payment of dividends by such surviving or new corporation.

If a shareholder of a corporation which is a party to a merger or consolidation shall file with such corporation, prior to or at the meeting of shareholders at which the plan of merger or consolidation is submitted to a vote, a written objection to such plan of merger or consolidation, and shall not vote in favor thereof, and such shareholder, within twenty days after the merger or consolidation is effected, shall make written demand on the surviving or new corporation for payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares as of the day prior to the date on which the vote was taken approving the merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation shall pay to such shareholder, upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing said shares, such fair value thereof. Such demand shall state the number and class of the shares owned by such dissenting shareholder. Any shareholder failing to make demand within the twenty day period shall be conclusively presumed to have consented to the merger or consolidation and shall be bound by the terms thereof.

If within thirty days after the date on which such merger or consolidation was effected the value of such shares is agreed upon between the dissenting shareholder and the surviving or new corporation payment therefor shall be made within ninety days after the date on which such merger or consolidation was effected, upon the surrender of the certificate or certificates representing said shares. Upon payment of the agreed value the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares or in the corporation.

If within such period of thirty days the shareholder and the surviving or new corporation do not so agree, then the dissenting shareholder may, within sixty days after the expiration of the thirty day period, file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction within the state and judicial subdivision thereof in which the registered office or the principal place of business of the surviving or new corporation is situated, asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of such shares, and shall be entitled to judgment against the surviving or new corporation for the amount of such fair value as of the day prior to the date on which such vote was taken approving such merger or consolidation, together with interest thereon at the rate of five percent per annum to the date of such judgment. The action shall be prosecuted as an equitable action and the practice and procedure shall conform to the practice and procedure in equity cases. The judgment shall be payable only upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the surviving or new corporation of the certificate or certificates representing said shares. Upon payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares, or in the surviving or new corporation. Such shares may be held and disposed of by the surviving or new corporation as it may see fit. Unless the dissenting shareholder shall file such petition within the time herein limited, such shareholder and all persons claiming under the shareholder shall be conclusively presumed to have approved and ratified the merger or consolidation and shall be bound by the terms thereof.

The right of a dissenting shareholder to be paid the fair value of the shareholder's shares as herein provided shall cease if and when the corporation shall abandon the merger or consolidation.

Shares acquired by the corporation pursuant to the payment of the agreed value thereof or to the payment of judgment entered therefor as in this section provided may be held and disposed of by the corporation as it shall see fit.
491.113 Issuance of stock.
All stock issued in connection with such merger or consolidation shall be issued pursuant to the provisions of chapter 492 and nothing in this amendment shall be construed as eliminating the requirements of said chapter.
[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §491 113]

491.114 Amana stock.
Notwithstanding anything contained in this chapter and chapters 492 and 502, a corporation organized under the laws of the state of Iowa having assets of the value of one million dollars or more, the articles of which provide that an individual may not vote more than one share of the common voting shares of stock of the corporation, and which give to children of the owners of shares of the common voting stock the right to purchase one common voting share of stock in the corporation upon attaining majority or within a fixed period thereafter, and which authorize the issuance, sale and delivery of not to exceed one share of the common voting stock to any one individual, may issue, sell and deliver its shares of common voting stock, whether held by it as treasury stock or whether issued as an original issue, for the following considerations and upon the following terms and conditions, and with the following limitations:
1. Such common voting stock may be issued, sold and delivered by the corporation either for cash or upon credit or time payments or installment payments or for a consideration evidenced in part or in whole by the written agreement of the purchaser thereof to pay for the same, payment of said purchase price to be secured by a lien on said stock.
2. No such stock shall be issued, sold and delivered for a price less than the par value thereof at the time of such issuance, sale and delivery.
3. Not more than one share of said stock shall be so issued, sold and delivered to any one individual, but when issued, sold and delivered, said stock may be voted by the owner thereof, if the articles of incorporation or bylaws of such corporation, whether now in effect or hereafter adopted or amended, so provide, although a part or all of the price to be paid therefor may be owing to the corporation under said written agreement of the purchaser to pay for the same.

CHAPTER 492
CAPITAL STOCK

492.1 Endorsement of amount paid.
No certificate or shares of stock shall be issued, delivered, or transferred by any corporation, officer or agent thereof, or by the owner of such certificate or shares without having endorsed on the face thereof what amount or portion of the par value has been paid to the corporation issuing the same, and whether such payment has been in money or property.

492.2 Effect of violation.
Any certificate of stock issued, delivered, or transferred in violation of section 492 1 when the corporation has not received payment therefor at par in money or property at a valuation approved by the executive council, shall be void, and the issuance, delivery, or transfer of each certificate shall be considered a separate transaction.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8409; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §492 2]

492.3 Penalties.
Any person violating the provisions of sections 492 1 and 492 2, or knowingly making a false statement on such certificate, shall be guilty of a fraudulent practice.
[C97, §1627, S13, §1627, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8410; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §492 3]

492.4 Certain corporations excepted.
Sections 492 1 to 492 3 shall not apply to railway or quasi public corporations organized before October 1, 1897.
[S13, §1627, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8411; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §492 4]
§492.5 Par value required.
No corporation organized under the laws of this state, except building and loan associations, shall issue any certificate of a share of capital stock, or any stock therefor, until the corporation has received the par value thereof.

§492.6 Payment in property other than cash.
If it is proposed to pay for said capital stock in property or in any other thing than money, the corporation proposing the same must, before issuing capital stock in any form, apply to the executive council of the state for leave so to do. Such application shall state the amount of capital stock proposed to be issued for a consideration other than money, and set forth specifically the property or other thing to be received in payment for such stock, providing that the foregoing provision shall not apply to trust companies or insurance companies organized under the laws of this state.

Any insurance company proposing to issue capital stock for property or any other thing than money, before issuing the capital stock in any form, shall apply to the commissioner of insurance for leave so to do. Such application shall state the amount of capital stock proposed to be issued for a consideration other than money and set forth specifically the property or other thing to be received in payment for such stock, providing that the foregoing provision shall not apply to trust companies or insurance companies organized under the laws of this state.

§492.7 Executive council to fix amount.
The executive council or the commissioner of insurance, as the case may be, shall make investigation, under such rules as it may prescribe, and ascertain the real value of the property or other thing which the corporation is to receive for the stock. It shall enter its finding, fixing the value at which the corporation may receive the same in payment for capital stock, and no corporation shall issue capital stock for the said property or thing in a greater amount than the value so fixed.

§492.8 Elements considered in fixing amount.
For the purpose of encouraging the construction of new steam or electric railways, and manufacturing in distress within this state, the labor performed in effecting the organization and promotion of such corporation, and the reasonable discount allowed or reasonable commission paid in negotiating and effecting the sale of bonds for the construction and equipment of such railroad or manufacturing plant, shall be taken into consideration by said council as elements of value in fixing the amount of capital stock that may be issued.

§492.9 Certificate of issuance of stock.
It shall be the duty of every corporation, except corporations qualified under chapter 494 or chapter 534, to file a certificate under oath with the secretary of state, within thirty days after the issuance of any capital stock, stating the date of issue, the amount issued, the sum received therefor, if payment be made in money, or the property or thing taken, if such be the method of payment. If the corporation fails to file said certificate of issuance of stock within the thirty day period herein provided, it may thereafter file the same upon first paying to the secretary of state a penalty of ten dollars when the said certificate is offered for filing. Provided further that the penalty herein provided for is first paid and provided the said report contains the specific information required by this section as to the issuance of any capital stock not previously reported, then the first annual report filed by such corporation following such failure to comply with the provisions of this section, shall be received by the secretary of state as a compliance with this section.

§492.10 Cancellation of stock — reimbursement.
The capital stock of any corporation issued in violation of the terms and provisions of sections 492 5 to 492 8 shall be void, and in a suit brought by the attorney general on behalf of the state in any court having jurisdiction, a decree of cancellation shall be entered, and if the corporation has received any money or thing of value for the said stock, such money or thing of value shall be returned to the individual, firm, company, or corporation from whom it was received, and if represented by labor or other service of intangible nature, the value thereof shall constitute a claim against the corporation issuing stock in exchange therefor.

§492.11 Dissolution — distribution of assets.
Any corporation violating the provisions of sections 492 5 to 492 8 shall, upon the application of the attorney general, in behalf of the state, made to any court of competent jurisdiction, be dissolved, its affairs wound up, and its assets distributed among the stockholders other than those who have received the stock so unlawfully issued.

§492.12 Violation.
Any officer, agent or representative of a corporation who violates any of the provisions of sections 492 5 to 492 8 shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

[S13, §1641-f, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8419; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §492 12]
CHAPTER 493

CORPORATION STOCK WITHOUT PAR VALUE

493.1 Authorization.

Any corporation, heretofore or hereafter organized for pecuniary profit under the laws of this state, except state banks, trust companies, building and loan associations and insurance companies, may create one or more classes of stock without any nominal or par value, with such rights, preferences, privileges, voting powers, limitations, restrictions and qualifications thereon not inconsistent with law as shall be expressed in its articles of incorporation, or any amendment thereto. Stock without par value which is preferred as to dividends, or as to its distributive share of the assets of the corporation upon dissolution, may be made subject to redemption at such times and prices as may be determined in such articles of incorporation, or any amendment thereto. In the case of stock without par value which is preferred as to its distributive share of the assets of the corporation upon dissolution, the amount of such preference shall be stated in the articles of incorporation, or any amendment thereto. [C31, 35, §8419-c1; C39, §8419.01; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §493.1]

493.2 Par value — method of stating.

In any case, in which the par value of the shares of stock of a corporation shall be required to be stated in the articles of incorporation, or any amendment thereto, or in any other place, it shall be stated in respect to shares without par value that such shares are without par value, and when the amount of such stock authorized, issued or outstanding shall be required to be stated, the number of shares thereof shall be stated, and the excess thereof, if any, shall be stated. [C31, 35, §8419-c2; C39, §8419.02; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §493.2]

493.3 Amount of stock.

For the purpose of any rule of law or of any statutory provision relating to the amount of capital stock issued and represented by shares of stock without par value except as otherwise provided in this chapter such amounts shall be taken to be the amount of money or the actual value of the consideration, as fixed by the directors or otherwise, in accordance with law, as the case may be, for which such shares of stock shall have been issued. In any such case in which stock having a par value shall have been issued with stock without par value for a specified combined consideration, in determining the amount of the capital stock issued and represented by shares of stock without par value the then book value of such stock having a par value shall first be deducted from the amount of the money or actual value of the consideration determined as aforesaid, and the excess thereof, if any, shall be taken to be the amount of capital stock represented by the shares of stock without par value so issued. [C31, 35, §8419-c3; C39, §8419.03; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §493.3]

493.4 Sale value.

Subject to any limitations and restrictions set forth in the articles of incorporation, or amendment thereto, any such corporation may issue its authorized capital stock without par value for such consideration as may be prescribed in the articles of incorporation, or amendment thereto, or, if not prescribed, then for such consideration as may be fixed by resolution passed by the stockholders of such corporation at any annual meeting thereof, or at any special meeting thereof duly called for that purpose, or by the board of directors acting under authority of such stockholders given in like manner. In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the board of directors in fixing and determining such sale value shall be conclusive as to the creditors and stockholders. Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to repeal the law as it now appears in sections 492.6, 492.7, and 492.8. [C31, 35, §8419-c4; C39, §8419.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §493.4]

493.5 Liability of holder.

Any and all shares without par value issued for the consideration as prescribed or fixed in section 493.4 shall be deemed fully paid and nonassessable and the holder of such shares shall not be liable to the corporation or to its creditors in respect thereto. [C31, 35, §8419-c5; C39, §8419.05; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §493.5]

493.6 Status of stock.

Except as to any preferences, rights, limitations, privileges and restrictions, lawfully granted or imposed with respect to any stock or class thereof, shares of stock without nominal or par value shall be deemed to be an aliquot part of the aggregate capital of the corporation issuing the same and equal to every other share of stock of the same class.

493.7 Certificates of stock.
Each stock certificate issued for shares without nominal or par value shall have plainly written or printed upon its face the number of shares which it represents, and the number of such shares the corporation is authorized to issue, and no such certificate shall state any nominal or par value of such shares or express any rate of dividend to which it shall be entitled in terms of percentage of any par or other value.

493.8 Number of shares.
The number of authorized shares of stock without par value may be increased or reduced in the manner and subject to the conditions provided by law for the increase or reduction of the capital stock of a similar corporation having shares with par value. All other statutory provisions relating to stock having a par value shall also apply to stock without par value, so far as the same may be legally, necessarily or practically applicable to, and not inconsistent with, the provisions of this chapter.

493.9 Change in stock.
Any such corporation may, by appropriate amendments to its articles of incorporation, adopted by a two-third affirmative vote of each class of stock then issued and outstanding and affected by such amendment, change its stock (common or preferred) having a par value to an equal, greater or less number of shares of stock having no par value, and, in connection therewith, may fix the amount of capital represented by such shares of stock without par value.

493.10 Convertibility.
The articles of incorporation, or any amendment thereto, of any such corporation may provide that shares of stock of any class shall be convertible into shares of stock of any other class upon such terms and conditions as may be therein stated.

493.11 Incorporation fee — computation.
For the purpose of computing the statutory fee for incorporating or for any other statutory provision based on the par value of shares of stock, but for no other purpose, each share of stock without par value shall be considered equivalent to a share having a nominal or par value of one hundred dollars.

493.12 Applicability of statutes.
Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, such corporations issuing shares without par value, under the provisions hereof, shall be and remain subject to the laws of this state, now or hereafter in force, relating to the formation, regulation, consolidation, or merger, rights, powers and privileges of corporations organized for pecuniary profit, and all other laws applicable thereto.

All acts or parts of acts providing for the incorporation, organization, administration and management of the affairs of corporations organized for pecuniary profit and having shares of stock with a par value are hereby made applicable to corporations having shares of stock without par value, except where the same are inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

CHAPTER 493A

UNIFORM STOCK TRANSFER ACT

Repealed by 61GA, ch 413, §10102; see ch 5S4
CHAPTER 494

PERMITS TO FOREIGN CORPORATIONS

494.1 Application for permit.
Any corporation for pecuniary profit organized under the laws of another state, or of any territory of the United States, or of any foreign country, which has transacted business in the state of Iowa since September 1, 1886, or desires hereafter to transact business in this state, and which has not a permit to do such business, shall file with the secretary of state a certificate of its articles of incorporation, duly attested by the secretary of state or other state officer in whose office the original articles were filed, accompanied by a resolution of its board of directors or stockholders authorizing the filing thereof, and also authorizing service of process to be made upon any of its officers or agents in this state engaged in transacting its business, and requesting the issuance to such corporation of a permit to transact business in this state, said application to contain a stipulation that such permit shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter. The secretary of state may accept duly certified restated articles, substituted articles, and articles or certificates of merger, or similar instruments which purport to be a complete restatement of the corporate articles in lieu of the original articles and amendments which they purport to supersede, if satisfied that such instruments in fact contain a complete restatement to the date thereof of all articles and amendments.

494.2 Details of application — secretary of state as process agent.

Said application shall also contain a statement subscribed and sworn to by at least two of the principal officers of the corporation, setting forth the following facts, to wit:
1. The total authorized capital of the corporation
2. The total paid up capital of the corporation
3. The total value of all assets of the corporation, including money and property other than money represented by capital, surplus, undivided profits, bonds, promissory notes, certificates of indebtedness or other designation, whether carried as money on hand or in bank, real estate or personal property of any description
4. The total value of money and all other property the corporation has in use or held as investment in the state, at the time the statement is made (if any)
5. The total value of money and all other property the corporation proposes or expects to make use of in the state, during the ensuing year
6. Certified copy of the resolution of the board of directors of said corporation giving name and address in Iowa of a resident agent on whom the service of original notice of civil suit in the courts of this state may be served. Failing which, or in the event such agent may not be found within the state, service of such process may then be made upon said corporation through the secretary of state by sending the original and two copies thereof to the secretary, and on the original of which the secretary shall accept service on behalf of said corporation, retain one copy for the secretary’s files and send the other by certified mail to the corporation at the address of its home office as shown by the records in the secretary of state’s office, which service shall have the same force and effect as if lawful ly made upon said corporation within the county where such civil suit could be maintained against it under the laws of this state.

494.3 Secretary of state to determine values.
The secretary of state can make such independent and further investigation as to the property within this state owned by any such corporation as the secretary may desire, and upon the true facts determine the value thereof, and fix the fee to be paid by such company.

494.4 Fees.

Before a permit is issued authorizing such corporation to transact business in the state, said corporation shall file with the secretary of state a certified copy of the articles, with resolution and statement as previously set forth, and pay a filing fee of twenty five dollars upon ten thousand dollars or less of money and property of such company actually within the state, §494.4 and of one dollar for each one thousand dollars of such money or property within this state in excess of ten thousand dollars if said corporation has existence for a period of years. If the corporation has perpetual existence under its articles or charter it shall make the filings as herebefore provided for and shall pay a filing fee of one hundred dollars and a further fee of one dollar and ten cents for each one thousand dollars of such money or property within this state in excess of ten thousand dollars, and thereafter shall periodically pay the said fee as follows: In the case of a corporation for the construction and operation, or the operation alone, of steam railways, interurban railways, and street railways, every fifty years from the date of qualification and in the case of all other corporations, every twenty years from the date of qualification, and upon the failure to make such payments within three months from the date same are due, the secretary of state shall cancel the permit of said corporation. The fees required by this section to be paid shall not be collected from a corporation organized for the purpose of carrying into effect a plan of reorganization approved in bankruptcy proceedings under the laws of the United States or in a general equity receivership in a court of competent jurisdiction, until the period of time for which a permit to transact business within this state has previously been issued to the corporation so reorganized has elapsed.

494.5 Increase or decrease of capital — fees.

If from time to time the amount of money or other property in use in the state by said foreign corporation is increased, said corporation shall at the time of said increase or at the time of making annual report to the secretary of state, in July of each year, file with the secretary of state a sworn statement showing the amount of such increase, and shall pay a filing fee thereon of one dollar for each one thousand dollars or fraction thereof of such increase if such corporation has duration in its home state for a period of years, if said corporation has a perpetual duration in its home state, said filing fee thereon shall be one dollar and ten cents for each one thousand dollars or fraction thereof of such increase. The secretary of state shall upon request furnish a blank upon which to make report of such increase of capital in use within the state

If said foreign corporation amends its articles of incorporation or files with the corporation official in the state of its incorporation any certificate of increase or decrease in its capital stock, or any instrument which affects its articles of incorporation, said corporation shall file with the secretary of state a copy of said amendment, certificate, or other instrument, certified by the official of the state of incorporation with whom it is filed. The fee for filing such copies shall be one dollar for each instrument separately certified by the official of the state of incorporation. The secretary of state shall issue to said corporation a certificate for each such instrument, stating that said instrument has been filed with the secretary of state

494.6 Exemption.

Any corporation transacting business in this state prior to September 1, 1886, shall be exempt from the payment of the fees required under the provisions of sections 494 4 and 494 5

[C97, §1637, S13, §1637, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8425; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §494 6]

494.7 Issuance of permit — effect

Upon complying with the provisions of sections 491 1 to 491 5 the secretary of state shall issue to such corporation a permit in such form as the secretary may prescribe, for the transaction of the business of such corporation within the state which permit shall authorize the transaction of business in the state from the date thereof for the period that is permitted by the provisions of section 491 4 unless by the terms of its articles or charter its corporate life expires prior thereto, in which case the permit shall expire with the life of the corporation.

494.8 Foreign corporations — requalification

A foreign corporation which has a permit under this chapter may requalify or renew its permit hereunder by fully completing the proceedings therefor at any time within three months before or after the date upon which its permit expires by filing a list duly attested by the secretary of state of the home state of the corporate documents filed therein together with the dates of said filing accompanied by a resolution of its board of directors or stockholders authorizing the filing thereof and by paying fees as set forth in section 494 4. The renewal papers shall include a duly certified copy of any corporate document on file in the home state as indicated by the above list which is not already on file in the office of the secretary of state. The permit of a foreign corporation shall not be canceled by the secretary of state for failure to renew or requalify until three months after the expiration date of its permit and no penalty or forfeiture under the provisions of sections 491 12 and 491 13 shall be effected or collected for any business transacted by the corporation, its agents, officers, or employees, during the three month period following the expiration date of its permit.

494.9 Denial of right to sue.

No foreign stock corporation doing business in this state shall maintain any action in this state upon any contract made by it in this state unless prior to the making of such contract it shall have procured such permit. This prohibition shall also apply to any assignee of such foreign stock corporation and to any person claiming under such assignee of such foreign corporation or under either of them

494.10 Alphabetical records required.

The secretary of state shall number consecutively all such certified copies herefore and hereafter filed in the secretary of state's office and shall maintain a card index thereof alphabetically arranged and shall pre serve the same and the originals of said certified copies as permanent records of the secretary of state's office.

§495.11 Powers denied.

No foreign corporation which has not in good faith complied with the provisions of this chapter and taken out a permit shall possess the right to exercise the power of eminent domain, or exercise any of the rights and privileges conferred upon corporations, until it has so complied herewith and taken out such permit.

§495.12 Violations by corporation.

Any foreign corporation that shall carry on its business in violation of the provisions of this chapter in the state of Iowa, by its officers, agents, or otherwise, without having complied with the preceding sections of this chapter and taken out and having a valid permit, shall forfeit and pay to the state, for each and every day in which such business is transacted and carried on, the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered by suit in any court having jurisdiction.

§495.13 Violation by officers.

Any agent, officer, or employee who shall knowingly act or transact such business for such corporation, when it has no valid permit as provided herein, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

§495.14 Status of corporation and officers.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall relieve any person, company, corporation, association, or partnership from the performance of any duty or obligation now enjoined upon or required of it, or from the payment of any penalty or liability created by the statutes heretofore in force, and all foreign corporations, and the officers and agents thereof, doing business in this state shall be subject to all the liabilities, restrictions and duties that are or may be imposed upon corporations of like character organized under the general laws of this state, and shall have no other or greater powers.

CHAPTER 495
FOREIGN PUBLIC UTILITY CORPORATIONS

495.1 Capital stock and permit.

Sections 492.5 to 492.9 and 494.1 to 494.10 are hereby made applicable to any foreign corporation which directly or indirectly owns, uses, operates, controls, or is concerned in the operation of any public gasworks, electric light plant, heating plant, waterworks, interurban or street railway located within the state, or the carrying on of any gas, electric light, electric power, heating business, waterworks, interurban or street railway business within the state, or that owns or controls, directly or indirectly, any of the capital stock of any corporation which owns, uses, operates or is concerned in the operation of any public gasworks, electric light plant, electric power plant, heating plant, waterworks, interurban or street railway located within the state, or any foreign corporation that exercises any control in any way or in any manner over any of said works, plants, interurban or street railways or the business carried on by said works, plants, interurban or street railways by or through the ownership of the capital stock of any corporation or corporations or in any other manner whatsoever, and the ownership, operation, or control of any such works, plants, interurban or street railways or the business carried on by any of such works or plants or the ownership or control of the capital stock in any corporation owning or operating any of such works, plants, interurban or street railways by any foreign corporation in violation of the provisions of this chapter is hereby declared to be unlawful.

495.2 Holding companies.

The provisions of this chapter are hereby made applicable to all corporations, including so-called “holding companies” which by or through the ownership of the capital stock in any other corporation or corporations or a series of corporations owning or controlling the capital stock of each other can or may exercise control over the capital stock of any corporation which owns, uses, operates, or is concerned in the operation of any public gasworks, electric light plant, electric power plant, heating plant, waterworks, interurban or street railway located in the state, or the business carried on by such works or plants.

495.3 Annual report — fee.

All corporations subject to the provisions of this chapter are hereby required to pay the annual fee and to make the annual report in the form and manner and at the time as specified in chapter 496.

[S13, §1641-n; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8435; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §495.3]

495.4 Sale of capital stock.

The provisions of this chapter are hereby made applicable to the sale of its own capital stock by any corporation subject to the provisions of this chapter, whether said capital stock has been heretofore issued by said corporation or not, including the sale of so-called "treasury stock" or stock of the corporation in the hands of a trustee or where the corporation participates in any way or manner in the benefits of said sales, and also to the sale of any of the obligations of any corporation subject to the provisions of this chapter, the payment of which is secured by the deposit or pledge of any of the capital stock of said corporation.

495.5 Violations — stock void.

Shares of capital stock of any corporation owned or controlled in violation of the provisions of this chapter shall be void and the holder thereof shall not be entitled to exercise the powers of a shareholder of said corporation or permitted to participate in or be entitled to any of the benefits accruing to shareholders of said corporation, and sections 494.12 to 494.14 are hereby made applicable to violations of the provisions of this chapter; and courts and juries shall construe this chapter so as to prevent evasion and to accomplish the intents and purposes thereof.

495.6 Dissolution — receiver.

Courts of equity shall have full power to dissolve, close up, or dispose of any business or property owned, operated, or controlled in violation of the provisions of this chapter; to dissolve any corporation owning or controlling the capital stock of any other corporation in violation of the provisions of this chapter and to close up or dispose of the business or property of said corporation; and if the court finds that, in order to carry out the purposes of this chapter, it is necessary so to do, it may dissolve the corporation issuing the stock which is owned in violation of the provisions of this chapter, close up the business of said corporation and dispose of its property, and the court may also appoint a receiver who shall be a resident of Iowa for any business or for any corporation which has violated the provisions thereof or of the corporation issuing the stock which is held in violation thereof. Any action to enforce the provisions of this chapter may be instituted by the attorney general in the name of the state of Iowa or by a citizen in the name of the state of Iowa at the citizen's own proper cost and expense, reserving, however, to the stockholders owning capital stock not held in violation of this chapter all rights possessed by them.

[S13, §1641-q; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8438; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §495.6]

496.2 Signature.
The report required by section 496.1 shall be signed by an officer of the corporation and when filed with the secretary of state shall be accompanied by the fee required in section 496.4.

496.3 Exemption.
Any corporation organized under the laws of this state, and any foreign corporation filing a certified copy of its articles of incorporation after the first day of April of any year, shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter, for the period ending one year from the first day of July following, after which it shall be subject to all the provisions of this chapter.

496.4 Annual fee.
Every corporation whose corporate period has not expired, which has heretofore obtained, or may hereafter obtain, a certificate of incorporation or permit under the provisions of chapters 491 or 494, to transact business in this state as a corporation, whether the same be a domestic or a foreign corporation, shall pay to the secretary of state an annual fee in the sum of one dollar.

496.5 Schedule of penalties.
Any corporation organized under the laws of this state, and any foreign corporation authorized to do business in this state, which shall fail to make the report and pay the annual fee provided for in this chapter, and within the time required in section 496.1, shall, in addition to the annual fee of one dollar required, incur the following penalties beginning with the month of September and dating from the first day thereof, to wit: For the month of September the sum of one dollar, for the month of October the sum of two dollars, for the month of November the sum of three dollars, for the month of December the sum of four dollars, and for each month thereafter the sum of five dollars.

496.6 Collection.
If on the first day of January following, such corporation shall not have filed the annual report and paid the annual fee, together with all monthly penalties due at the time of filing said report and paying said fee, the secretary of state shall furnish to the attorney general a list of delinquent domestic corporations and the attorney general may direct the county attorney of the county in which the corporation has its principal place of business to bring suit for the collection of the fee and penalties then due, or the attorney general may bring such action.

496.7 Dissolution — effect.
Any domestic corporation may, prior to the first day of February of any subsequent year, escape the payment of fee and penalty by dissolving the corporation in the manner provided by section 491.23 and filing with the secretary of state a proof of publication of notice of dissolution.

496.8 Forfeiture of right to do business.
Any foreign corporation that shall fail to make the annual report and pay the annual fee and penalties that may be due shall thereby forfeit its right to do business within this state.

496.9 Notice of delinquency — recommendation of attorney general.
During the month of August of each year the secretary of state shall prepare a list of all delinquent corporations and file the same in the secretary of state's office, and on or before the first day of September the secretary shall send by certified mail to each delinquent a notice of such delinquency and of the penalties provided in section 496.5 and if the annual report required is not filed and the annual fee paid, together with penalties due, on or before the last day of January, on the first day of February following, notice of such delinquency will be filed with the attorney general, who may cause action to be brought for the collection of the fee and penalties due the state; or, at the attorney general's discretion, the attorney general may recommend that the secretary of state cancel the name of any delinquent corporation from the list of live corporations in the secretary of state's office, and enter such cancellation on the proper records, and when so canceled by the secretary of state the corporate rights of any such corporation shall be forfeited and its corporate period terminated on the date such cancellation shall have been entered on the records of the secretary of state's office.

§496.10 Notice of recommendations.

The secretary of state shall forward to such corporation, a written notice of the recommendations of the attorney general, such notice to state that unless said corporation shall within sixty days of the date of such notice fully comply with the provisions of section 496 9 by filing in the office of the secretary of state any report that may be due and pay all fees and penalties that have accrued, or, in lieu thereof file a proof of publication of notice of dissolution as required by section 491 23, a declaration of forfeiture and cancellation will be entered on the records of the secretary of state's office.

9 ‘Treasury shares” means shares of a corporation which have been issued, have been subsequently acquired by and belong to the corporation, and have not, either by reason of the acquisition or thereafter, been canceled or restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares. Treasury shares shall be deemed to be “issued” shares, but not “outstanding” shares.

10 “Net assets” means the amount by which the total assets of a corporation, excluding treasury shares, exceed the total debts of the corporation.

11 “Stated capital” means, at any particular time, the sum of (a) the par value of all shares of the corporation having a par value that have been issued, (b) the amount of the consideration received by the corporation for all shares of the corporation without par value that have been issued, except such part of the consideration therefor as may have been allocated to surplus in a manner permitted by law, and (c) such amounts not included in clauses (a) and (b) of this subsection as have been transferred to stated capital of the corporation, whether upon the issue of shares as a share dividend or otherwise, minus all reductions from such sums as have been effected in a manner permitted by law. Irrespective of the manner of designation thereof by the laws under which a foreign corporation is organized, the stated capital of a foreign corporation shall be determined on the same basis and in the same manner as the stated capital of a domestic corporation, for the purposes of computing fees and other charges now or hereafter imposed by this chapter.

12 “Surplus” means the excess of the net assets of a corporation over its stated capital.

13 “Insolvent” means inability of a corporation to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of its business.

14 “Nonadmitted organization” means any corporation, bank, trust company, mutual savings bank, savings and loan association, national banking association or insurance company which is organized under laws other than the laws of this state and which is not entitled under this chapter to procure a certificate of authority to transact business in this state.

496A.3 Purposes

Subject to the provisions of section 496A 142, sub section 1, corporations may be organized under this chapter for any lawful purpose or purposes.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A 3]

496A.4 General powers.

Each corporation, unless otherwise stated in its articles of incorporation, shall have power.

1 To have perpetual succession by its corporate name unless a limited period of duration is stated in its articles of incorporation.

2 To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name.

3 To have a corporate seal which may be altered at pleasure and to use the same by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed or affixed or in any other manner reproduced.

4 To purchase, take, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use and otherwise deal in and with, real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated.

5 To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.

6 To lend money and use its credit to assist its employees. A corporation shall not lend money to or use its credit to assist its directors without authorization in the particular case by its shareholders, but may lend money to and use its credit to assist any employee of the corporation or of a subsidiary including any such employee who is a director of the corporation, if the board of directors decides that such loan or assistance may benefit the corporation.

7 To purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares or other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, associations, partnerships or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States or of any other government, state, territory, governmental district or municipality or of any instrumentality thereof.

8 To make contracts and guarantees and incur liabilities, borrow money at such lawful rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property, franchises and income, and to guarantee the obligations of other persons.

9 To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

10 To conduct its business, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted by this chapter within or without this state.

11 To elect or appoint officers and agents of the corporation, and define their duties and fix their compensation.

12 To make and alter bylaws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the corporation.

13 To make donations for the public welfare, or for religious, charitable, scientific or educational purposes.

14 To transact any lawful business which the board of directors shall find will be in aid of governmental authority.

15 To pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit sharing plans, stock bonus plans, stock option plans and other incentive, insurance and welfare plans for any or all of its officers, directors, employees.

16 To cease its corporate activities and surrender its corporate franchise.

17 To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect its purposes.

18 To enter into general partnerships, limited partnerships, whether the corporation be a limited or general partner, joint ventures, syndicates, pools, associations and other arrangements for carrying on of any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized, jointly or in common with others.

3. A director shall not be indemnified under subsection 2 in respect of any proceeding charging

   a. Improper personal benefit to the director, whether or not involving action in the director's official capacity, in which the director shall have been adjudged to be liable on the basis that personal benefit was improper by reason of the

   b. Written affirmation by the director of the director's good faith belief that the director has met the standard of conduct set forth in subsection 2, the election of director in the corporation, and determine as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made in a manner specified in paragraph "b" of this subsection for the selection of such counsel.

4. Unless limited by the articles of incorporation,

   a. A director who has been wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding referred to in subsection 2 shall be indemnified against reasonable expenses incurred by the director in connection with the proceeding, and

   b. A court of appropriate jurisdiction, upon application of a director and such notice as the court shall require, shall have authority to order indemnification in the following circumstances:

      (1) If it determines a director is entitled to reimbursement under paragraph "a", the court shall order indemnification, in which case the director shall also be entitled to recover the expenses of securing such reimbursement, or

      (2) If it determines that the director is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not the director has met the standard of conduct set forth in subsection 2 or has been adjudged liable in the circumstances described in subsection 3, the court may order such indemnification as the court shall deem proper, except that indemnification with respect to any proceeding by or in the right of the corporation or in which liability shall have been adjudged in the circumstances described in subsection 3 shall be limited to expenses. A court of appropriate jurisdiction may be the same court in which the proceeding involving the director's liability took place.

5. No indemnification under subsection 2 shall be made by the corporation unless authorized in the specific case after a determination has been made that indemnification of the director is permissible in the circumstances because the director has met the standard of conduct set forth in subsection 2. Such determination shall be made:

   a. By the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time parties to the proceeding, or

   b. By special legal counsel, selected by the board of directors by vote as set forth in paragraph "a" of this subsection 5, or, if the requisite quorum of the full board cannot be obtained therefor, by a majority vote of the full board, in which selection directors who are parties may participate, or

   c. By the shareholders. Authorization of indemnification and determination as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that if the determination that indemnification is permissible is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and determination as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made in a manner specified in paragraph "b" of this subsection for the selection of such counsel. Shares held by directors who are parties to the proceeding shall not be voted on the subject matter under this subsection 5.

6. Reasonable expenses incurred by a director who is a party to a proceeding may be paid or reimbursed by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt by the corporation of:

   a. A written affirmation by the director of the director's good faith belief that the director has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification by the corporation as authorized in this section, and

   b. A written undertaking by or on behalf of the director to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that the director has not met such standard of conduct, and after determination that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under this section. The undertaking required by this paragraph shall be an unlimited general obligation of the director but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment. Determinations and authorizations of payments under this subsection 6 shall be made in the manner specified in subsection 5.

7. No provision for the corporation to indemnify or to advance expenses to a director who is made a party to a proceeding, whether contained in the articles of incorporation, the bylaws, a resolution of shareholders or directors, an agreement or otherwise, except as contemplated by subsection 10, shall be valid unless consistent with this section or, to the extent that indemnity hereunder is limited by the articles of incorporation, consistent therewith. Nothing contained in this section shall limit the corporation’s power to pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a director in connection with the director’s appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the director has not been made a named defendant or respondent in the proceeding.

8. For purposes of this section, the corporation shall be deemed to have requested a director to serve an employee benefit plan whenever the performance by the director of the director’s duties to the corporation also imposes duties on, or otherwise involves services by, the director to the plan or participants or beneficiaries of the plan; excise taxes assessed on a director with respect to an employee benefit plan pursuant to applicable law shall be deemed fines; and action taken or omitted by the director with respect to an employee benefit plan in the performance of the director’s duties for a purpose reasonably believed by the director to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of the plan shall be deemed to be for a purpose which is not opposed to the best interests of the corporation.

9. Unless limited by the articles of incorporation:
   a. An officer of the corporation shall be indemnified as and to the same extent provided in subsection 4 for a director and shall be entitled to the same extent as a director to seek indemnification pursuant to the provisions of subsection 4;
   b. A corporation shall have the power to indemnify and to advance expenses to an officer, employee or agent of the corporation to the same extent that it may indemnify and advance expenses to directors pursuant to this section; and
   c. A corporation, in addition, shall have the power to indemnify and to advance expenses to an officer, employee or agent who is not a director to such further extent, consistent with law, as may be provided by its articles of incorporation, bylaws, general or specific action of its board of directors, or contract.

10. A corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or who, while a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, other enterprise or employee benefit plan, against any liability asserted against the person and incurred by the person in any such capacity or arising out of the person’s status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the person against such liability under the provisions of this section.

11. Any indemnification of, or advance of expenses to, a director in accordance with this section, if arising out of a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, shall be reported in writing to the shareholders with or before the notice of the next shareholders’ meeting.

83 Acts, ch 71, §1

496A.5 Right of corporation to acquire and dispose of its own shares.

A corporation shall have the right to purchase, take, receive, or otherwise acquire, hold, own, pledge, transfer, or otherwise dispose of its own shares, but purchases of its own shares, whether direct or indirect, shall be made only to the extent of surplus.

Notwithstanding the foregoing limitation, a corporation may purchase or otherwise acquire its own shares for the purpose of:
   1. Eliminating fractional shares.
   2. Collecting or compromising indebtedness to the corporation.
   3. Paying dissenting shareholders entitled to payment for their shares under the provisions of this chapter.
   4. Effecting, subject to the other provisions of this chapter, the retirement of its redeemable shares by redemption or by purchase at not to exceed the redemption price.
   No purchase of or payment for its own shares shall be made at a time when the corporation is insolvent or when such purchase or payment would make it insolvent.

496A.6 Defense of ultra vires.

No act of a corporation and no conveyance or transfer of real or personal property to or by a corporation shall be invalid by reason of the fact that the corporation was without capacity or power to do such act or to make or receive such conveyance or transfer, but such lack of capacity or power may be asserted:
   1. In a proceeding by a shareholder against the corporation to enjoin the doing of any act or acts or the transfer of real or personal property by or to the corporation. If the unauthorized acts or transfer sought to be enjoined are being, or are to be, performed or made pursuant to any contract to which the corporation is a party, the court may, if it deems the same to be equitable, set aside and enjoin the performance of such contract, without prejudice to the rights of persons not parties to the proceeding, and in so doing may allow to the corporation or to the other parties to the contract, as the case may be, compensation for the loss or damage sustained by either of them which may result from the action of the court in setting aside and enjoining the performance of such contract, but anticipated profits to be derived from the performance of the contract shall not be awarded by the court as a loss or damage sustained.

2. In a proceeding by the corporation, whether acting directly or through a receiver, trustee, or other legal representative, or through shareholders in a representative suit, against the incumbent or former officers or directors of the corporation.

3. In a proceeding by the attorney general, as provided in this chapter, to dissolve the corporation, or in a proceeding by the attorney general to enjoin the corporation from the transaction of unauthorized business.

[C62, 66, 71, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.6]

496A.7 Corporate name.

The corporate name:

1. Shall contain the word "corporation", "company", "incorporated" or "limited" or shall contain an abbreviation of one of such words.

2. Shall not contain any word or phrase which indicates or implies that it is organized for any purpose other than one or more of the purposes contained in its articles of incorporation.

3. Shall not be the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation or limited partnership existing under the laws of this state or any foreign corporation or limited partnership authorized to transact business in this state, or a name the exclusive right to which is, at the time, reserved in the manner provided in this chapter or chapter 545, or the name of a corporation which has in effect a registration of its corporate name as provided in this chapter, or an assumed name which has been adopted by a domestic or a foreign corporation for use in this state in the manner provided by this chapter except that this provision does not apply if the applicant files with the secretary of state either of the following:

a. The written consent of such other corporation or holder of a reserved or registered name to use the same or deceptively similar name and one or more words are added to make such name distinguishable from the other name.

b. A certified copy of final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the prior right of the applicant to the use of such name in this state. A corporation with which another domestic or foreign corporation is merged, or which is formed by the reorganization or consolidation of one or more domestic or foreign corporations or upon a sale, lease or other disposition to or exchange with a domestic corporation of all or substantially all the assets of another domestic or foreign corporation, including its name or assumed name, may have the same name as that used in this state by any of such corporations if such other corporation was organized under the laws of or is authorized to transact business in this state.

4. Shall be the name under which the corporation shall transact business in this state unless the corporation also shall elect to adopt one or more assumed names as provided in this chapter.

5. A corporation may elect to adopt an assumed name that is not the same as or deceptively similar to the corporate name of any other domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state or of any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, or the same as or deceptively similar to any name registered or reserved under the provisions of this chapter.

Such election shall be made by filing with the secretary of state an application executed by an officer of the corporation, setting forth such assumed name and paying to the secretary of state a filing fee of forty dollars.

If such assumed name complies with the provisions of this chapter the secretary of state shall issue a certificate authorizing the use of said name, but such certificate shall not confer any right to the use of said name as against any person having any prior right to the use thereof.

At the time annual license fees are payable under this chapter, a corporation which has elected to adopt an assumed name shall pay to the secretary of state an annual fee of ten dollars for such assumed name. However, if the assumed name was filed and became effective in December of any year, the first annual fee of ten dollars shall be paid at the time of filing of the annual report in the second year following such December.

If the corporation fails to pay the annual fee when due and payable, the secretary of state shall give notice to the corporation of such nonpayment by registered or certified mail; and if such fee together with a penalty of ten dollars is not paid within sixty days after such notice is mailed, the right to use such assumed name shall cease.

A separate application and annual fee shall be filed and paid for each assumed name adopted by the corporation.

83 Acts, ch 144, §1

496A.8 Reserved name.

The exclusive right to the use of a corporate name may be reserved by:

1. Any person intending to organize a corporation under this chapter.

2. Any domestic corporation intending to change its name.

3. Any foreign corporation intending to make application for a certificate of authority to transact business in this state.

4. Any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state and intending to change its name.

5. Any person intending to organize a foreign corporation and intending to have such corporation make application for a certificate of authority to transact business in this state.

The reservation shall be made by filing with the secretary of state an application to reserve a specified corporate name, executed by the applicant. If the secretary of state finds that the name is available for corporate use, the secretary shall reserve the same for the exclusive use of the applicant for a period of ninety days.

The right to the exclusive use of a specified corporate name so reserved may be transferred to any other person or corporation by filing in the office of the secretary of state a notice of such transfer, executed by the applicant for whom the name was reserved, and specifying the name and address of the transferee.

496A.9 Registered name.
Any corporation organized and existing under the laws of any state or territory of the United States or the District of Columbia may register its corporate name under this chapter, provided its corporate name is not the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state, or the name of any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, or any corporate name reserved or registered under this chapter.

Such registration shall be made by:
1. Filing with the secretary of state (a) an application for registration executed by the corporation by an officer thereof, setting forth the name of the corporation, the state or territory under the laws of which it is organized, the date of its incorporation, a statement that it is carrying on or doing business, and a brief statement of the business in which it is engaged, and (b) a certificate setting forth that such corporation is in good standing under the laws of the state or territory wherein it is organized, executed by the secretary of state of such state or territory or by such other officer as may have custody of the records pertaining to corporations, and
2. Paying to the secretary of state a registration fee in the amount of two dollars for each month, or fraction thereof, between the date of filing such application and December 31 of the calendar year in which such application is filed.

Such registration shall be effective until the close of the calendar year in which the application for registration is filed.

496A.10 Renewal of registered name.
A corporation which has in effect a registration of its corporate name, may renew such registration from year to year by annually filing an application for renewal setting forth the facts required to be set forth in an original application for registration and a certificate of good standing as required for the original registration and by paying a fee of twenty dollars. A renewal application may be filed between the first day of October and the thirty-first day of December in each year, and shall extend the registration for the following calendar year.
[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.10]

496A.11 Registered office and registered agent.
Each corporation shall have and continuously maintain in this state:
1. A registered office which may be, but need not be, the same as its place of business.
2. A registered agent or agents who may be either an individual or individuals resident in this state, the business office of whom shall be identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, having a business office identical with such registered office.

In addition to all other statutory provisions relating to venue, an action may be brought against any corporation in the county where its registered office is maintained or, if a corporation fails to maintain a registered office in this state, then in any county within the state.

496A.12 Change of registered office or registered agent.
A corporation may change its registered office or change its registered agent or agents, or both office and agent or agents upon filing in the office of the secretary of state a statement setting forth:
1. The name of the corporation.
2. The address of its then registered office.
3. If the address of its registered office be changed, the address to which the registered office is to be changed.
4. The name of its then registered agent or agents.
5. If its registered agent or agents be changed, the name of its successor registered agent or agents.
6. That the address of its registered office and the address of the business office of its registered agent or agents, as changed, will be identical.
7. That such change was authorized by resolution duly adopted by its board of directors.

Such statement shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president, and verified by that person. If the registered office is changed from one county to another, such statement shall be executed in duplicate. Such statement shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state’s office, and the statement shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder; and if the registered office is changed from one county to another, the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which the registered office was located prior to the filing of such statement in the office of the secretary of state, and in the office of the recorder of the county to which the registered office is changed.

If the registered office is changed from one county to another, the corporation shall also cause to be filed and recorded forthwith in the office of the recorder of the county to which such registered office is changed, its original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto, or copies thereof certified by the secretary of state, or its restated articles and all amendments thereto, or copies thereof certified by the secretary of state.

The change of address of registered office or the change of registered agent or agents or both registered office and agent or agents, as the case may be, shall become effective upon the filing of such statement by the secretary of state, but until such statement is recorded in the office of the recorder as above prescribed, service of process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served upon the person who was its registered agent at its registered office prior to the filing of such statement with the same force and effect as if no change in registered office or registered agent had been made.

Any registered agent of a corporation may resign as such agent upon filing a written notice thereof, executed in duplicate, with the secretary of state, who shall record one copy and forthwith mail the other copy thereof to the corporation at its registered office. The copy recorded by the secretary of state shall be sent by the secretary to the county recorder of the county in which the registered office is located for recording in the county recorder’s office. The appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expira-

ion of thirty days after receipt of such notice by the secretary of state

If a registered agent changes the agent’s business address to another place within the same county, the agent may change such address and the address of the registered office of any corporation of which the agent is a registered agent by filing a statement as required above for each corporation, or a single statement for all corporations named therein, except that it need be signed only by the registered agent or agents and need not be responsive to subsections 5 and 7 of this section, and must recite that a copy of the statement has been mailed to each such corporation.

496A.13 Service of process on corporation.
The registered agent so appointed by a corporation, or if more than one registered agent has been appointed by the corporation then any one of such agents, shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served.

Whenever a corporation shall fail to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this state, or whenever its registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the registered office, then the secretary of state shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any such process, notice, or demand may be served. Service on the secretary of state of any such process, notice, or demand shall be made by delivering to and leaving with the secretary, the secretary’s deputy, or with any person having charge of the corporation department of the secretary of state’s office, duplicate copies of such process, notice or demand. In the event any such process, notice or demand is served on the secretary of state, the secretary shall immediately cause one of the copies thereof to be forwarded by registered or certified mail, addressed to the corporation at its registered office. No corporation served in accordance with the procedure provided for by this paragraph shall be in default until thirty days have elapsed following such service on the secretary of state.

The secretary of state shall keep a record of all processes, notices and demands served upon the secretary under this section, and shall record therein the time of such service and the secretary’s action with reference thereto.

Nothing hereon contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a corporation in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

496A.14 Authorized shares.
Each corporation shall have power to create and issue the number of shares stated in its articles of incorporation. Such shares may be divided into one or more classes, any or all of which classes may consist of shares with par value or shares without par value, with such designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights as shall be stated in the articles of incorporation. The articles of incorporation may limit or deny the voting rights of, or provide special voting rights for, the shares of any class to the extent not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

Without limiting the authority hereon contained, a corporation, when so provided in its articles of incorporation, may issue shares of preferred or special classes.

1. Subject to the right of the corporation to redeem any of such shares at the price fixed by the articles of incorporation for the redemption thereof.

2. Entitling the holders thereof to cumulative, noncumulative or partially cumulative dividends.

3. Having preference over any other class or classes of shares as to the payment of dividends.

4. Having preference in the assets of the corporation over any other class or classes of shares upon the voluntary or involuntary liquidation of the corporation.

5. Convertible into shares of any other class or into shares of any series of the same or any other class, except a class having prior or superior rights and preferences as to dividends or distribution of assets upon liquidation, but shares without par value shall not be converted into shares with par value unless that part of the stated capital of the corporation represented by such shares without par value is, at the time of conversion, at least equal to the aggregate par value of the shares into which the shares without par value are to be converted or the amount of any such deficiency is transferred from surplus to stated capital.

496A.15 Issuance of shares of preferred or special classes in series.
1. If the articles of incorporation so provide, the shares of any preferred or special class may be divided into and issued in series. If the shares of any such class are to be issued in series, then each series shall be so designated as to distinguish the shares thereof from the shares of all other series and classes. Any or all of the series of any such class and the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between different series may be fixed and determined by the articles of incorporation, but all shares of the same class shall be identical except as to the following relative rights and preferences, as to which there may be variations between different series:

   a. The rate of dividend.
   b. The price at and the terms and conditions on which shares may be redeemed.
   c. The amount payable upon shares in event of involuntary liquidation.
   d. The amount payable upon shares in event of voluntary liquidation.
   e. Sinking fund provisions for the redemption or purchase of shares.
   f. The terms and conditions on which shares may be converted, if the shares of any series are issued with the privilege of conversion.
   g. Voting rights, if any.

2. If the articles of incorporation shall expressly vest authority in the board of directors, then, to the extent that the articles of incorporation shall not have established series and fixed and determined the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series, the board of directors shall have authority to divide any or all of such classes into series and, within the limitations set forth in this section and in the articles of incorporation, fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series so established.
In order for the board of directors to establish a series, where authority so to do is contained in the articles of incorporation, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the designation of the series and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof, or so much thereof as shall not be fixed and determined by the articles of incorporation.

Prior to the issue of any shares of a series established by resolution adopted by the board of directors, the corporation shall file in the office of the secretary of state a statement setting forth:

a. The name of the corporation
b. A copy of the resolution establishing and designating the series, and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof

c. The date of adoption of such resolution

d. That such resolution was duly adopted by the board of directors.

Such statement shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of the officers signing such statement, and shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder.

Upon the filing of such statement by the secretary of state, the resolution establishing and designating the series and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof shall become effective and shall constitute an amendment of the articles of incorporation.

496A.16 Subscriptions for shares.

A subscription for shares of a corporation to be organized shall be irrevocable for a period of six months, unless otherwise provided by the terms of the subscription agreement or unless all of the subscribers consent to the revocation of such subscription.

Unless otherwise provided in the subscription agreement, subscriptions for shares, whether made before or after the organization of a corporation, shall be paid in full at such time, or in such installments and at such times, as shall be determined by the board of directors.

Any call made by the board of directors for payment on subscriptions shall be uniform as to all shares of the same class or as to all shares of the same series, as the case may be.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A 16]

496A.17 Consideration for shares.

Shares having a par value may be issued for such consideration expressed in dollars, not less than the par value thereof, as shall be fixed from time to time by the board of directors.

Shares without par value may be issued for such consideration expressed in dollars as may be fixed from time to time by the board of directors unless the articles of incorporation reserve to the shareholders the right to fix the consideration. In the event that such right be reserved as to any shares, the shareholders shall, prior to the issuance of such shares, fix the consideration to be received for such shares, by a vote of the holders of a majority of all shares entitled to vote thereon.

Treasury shares may be disposed of by the corporation for such consideration expressed in dollars as may be fixed from time to time by the board of directors.

That part of the surplus of a corporation which is transferred to stated capital upon the issuance of shares as a share dividend shall be deemed to be the consideration for the issuance of such shares.

In the event of the issuance of shares upon the conversion or exchange of indebtedness or shares, the consideration for the shares so issued shall be (1) the principal sum of, and accrued interest on, the indebtedness so exchanged or converted, or the stated capital then represented by the shares so exchanged or converted, (2) that part of the surplus, if any, transferred to stated capital upon the issuance of shares for the shares so exchanged or converted, and (3) any additional consideration paid to the corporation upon the issuance of shares for the indebtedness or shares so exchanged or converted.

496A.18 Payment for shares.

The consideration for the issuance of shares may be paid, in whole or in part, in money, in other property, tangible or intangible, or in labor or services actually performed for the corporation.

When payment of the consideration for which shares are to be issued shall have been received by the corporation, such shares shall be deemed to be fully paid and nonassessable.

Neither promissory notes of the subscriber nor future services shall constitute payment or part payment, for shares of a corporation.

In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the board of directors or the shareholders, as the case may be, as to the value of the consideration received for shares shall be conclusive.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A 18]

496A.19 Stock rights and options.

Subject to any provisions in respect thereof set forth in its articles of incorporation, a corporation may create and issue, whether or not in connection with the issuance and sale of any of its shares or other securities, rights or options entitling the holders thereof to purchase from the corporation shares of any class or classes.

Such rights or options shall be evidenced in such manner as the board of directors shall approve and, subject to the provisions of the articles of incorporation, shall be set forth the terms upon which, the time or times within which and the price or prices at which such shares may be purchased from the corporation upon the exercise of any such right or option.

If such rights or options are to be issued to the directors, officers or employees, as such, of the corporation, or of any subsidiary thereof, their issuance shall be approved by a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon, at a duly constituted meeting or authorized by, and consistent with, a plan approved by such a vote of shareholders and, in every instance, such approval or plan shall be set forth or incorporated by reference in the instrument or instruments evidencing such rights or options.

In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the board of directors as to the adequacy of the consideration received for such rights or options shall be conclusive.

The price or prices to be received for any shares having a par value shall not be less than the par value thereof. The provisions of this section shall not limit the right of the corporation to grant rights and options with respect to treasury shares.
[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.19]

496A.20 Determination of amount of stated capital.
In case of the issuance by a corporation of shares having a par value, the consideration received therefor shall constitute stated capital to the extent of the par value of such shares, and the excess, if any, of such consideration shall constitute surplus.
In case of the issuance by a corporation of shares without par value, the entire consideration received therefor shall constitute stated capital unless the corporation shall determine as provided in this section that only a part thereof shall be stated capital. Within a period of sixty days after the issuance of any shares without par value, the board of directors may allocate to surplus any portion of the consideration received for the issuance of such shares. No such allocation shall be made of any portion of the consideration received for shares without par value having a preference in the assets of the corporation in the event of involuntary liquidation except the amount, if any, of such consideration in excess of such preference.
The stated capital of a corporation may be increased from time to time by resolution of the board of directors directing that all or a part of the surplus of the corporation be transferred to stated capital. The board of directors may direct that the amount of the surplus so transferred shall be deemed to be stated capital in respect of any designated class of shares.
[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.20]

496A.21 Expenses of organization, reorganization and financing.
The reasonable charges and expenses of organization or reorganization of a corporation, and the reasonable expenses of and compensation for the sale or underwriting of its shares, may be paid or allowed by such corporation out of the consideration received by it in payment for its shares without thereby rendering such shares not fully paid and nonassessable.
[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.21]

496A.22 Certificates representing shares.
The shares of a corporation shall be represented by certificates signed by such officers, employees or agents as are authorized by the articles of incorporation or bylaws to sign. If no contrary provision is made in the articles or bylaws, such certificates shall be signed by the president or a vice president and the secretary or an assistant secretary of the corporation, and may be sealed with the seal of the corporation or a facsimile thereof. The signatures of the president or vice president and the secretary or assistant secretary or other persons signing for the corporation upon a certificate may be facsimiles. If the certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent, or registered by a registrar, the signatures of the persons signing for such transfer agent or registrar also may be facsimiles. In case any officer or other authorized person who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon such certificate for the corporation shall have ceased to be such officer or employee or agent before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the corporation with the same effect as if that person were such officer or employee or agent at the date of its issue.
Every certificate representing shares issued by a corporation which is authorized to issue shares of more than one class shall set forth upon the face or back of the certificate, or shall state that the corporations will furnish to any shareholder upon request and without charge, a full statement of the designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights of the shares of each class authorized to be issued and, if the corporation is authorized to issue any preferred or special class in series, the variations in the relative rights and preferences between the shares of each such series so far as the same have been fixed and determined and the authority of the board of directors to fix and deter-mate the relative rights and preferences of subsequent series.
Each certificate representing shares shall state upon the face thereof:
1. That the corporation is organized under the laws of this state.
2. The name of the person to whom issued.
3. The number and class of shares, and the designation of the series, if any, which such certificate re-resents.
4. The par value of each share represented by such certificate, or a statement that the shares are without par value.
No certificate shall be issued for any share until such share is fully paid.
[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.22]

496A.23 Issuance of fractional shares or scrip.
A corporation may, (1) issue fractions of a share, (2) arrange for the disposition of fractional interests by those entitled thereto, (3) pay in cash the fair value of fractions of a share as of the time when those entitled to receive such fractions are determined, or (4) issue scrip in registered or bearer form which shall entitle the holder to receive a certificate for a full share upon the surrender of such scrip aggregating a full share. A certificate for a fractional share shall, but scrip shall not unless otherwise provided therein, entitle the holder to exercise voting rights, to receive dividends thereon, and to participate in any of the assets of the corporation in the event of liquidation. The board of directors may cause such scrip to be issued subject to the condition that it shall become void if not exchanged for certificates representing full shares before a specified date, or subject to the condition that the shares for which such scrip is exchangeable may be sold by the corporation and the proceeds thereof distributed to the holders of such scrip, or subject to any other conditions which the board of directors may deem advisable.
[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.23]

496A.24 Liability of subscribers and shareholders.
A holder of or subscriber to shares of a corporation shall be under no obligation to the corporation or its creditors with respect to such shares other than the obligation to pay to the corporation the full consideration for which such shares were issued or to be issued.
Any person becoming an assignee or transferee of shares or of a subscription for shares in good faith and without knowledge or notice that the full consideration therefor has not been paid shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its creditors for any unpaid portion of such consideration.

An executor, administrator, conservator, guardian, trustee, assignee for the benefit of creditors, or receiver shall not be personally liable to the corporation as a holder of or subscriber to shares of a corporation but the estate and funds in that person's hands shall be so liable.

No pledgee or other holder of shares as collateral security shall be personally liable as a shareholder.

496A.25 Shareholders' pre-emptive rights.

Except to the extent limited or denied by this section or by the articles of incorporation, shareholders shall have a pre-emptive right to acquire unissued shares or securities convertible into such shares or carrying a right to subscribe to or acquire shares.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation:

1. No pre-emptive right shall exist:
   a. To acquire any shares issued to directors, officers or employees pursuant to approval by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon or when authorized by and consistent with a plan approved by such a vote of shareholders.
   b. To acquire any shares sold otherwise than for cash.
   c. To acquire treasury shares of the corporation.
   2. Holders of shares of any class that is preferred or limited as to dividends or assets shall not be entitled to any pre-emptive right.
   3. Holders of shares of common stock shall not be entitled to any pre-emptive right to shares of any class that is preferred or limited as to dividends or assets or to any obligations, unless convertible into shares of common stock or carrying a right to subscribe to or acquire shares of common stock.
   4. Holders of common stock without voting power shall have no pre-emptive right to shares of common stock with voting power.
   5. The pre-emptive right shall be only an opportunity to acquire shares or other securities under such terms and conditions as the board of directors may fix for the purpose of providing a fair and reasonable opportunity for the exercise of such right.

496A.26 Bylaws.

The initial bylaws of a corporation shall be adopted by its board of directors. The power to alter, amend or repeal the bylaws or adopt new bylaws shall be vested in the board of directors unless reserved to the shareholders by the articles of incorporation. The bylaws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the corporation not inconsistent with law or the articles of incorporation. If the articles of incorporation so provide, the bylaws may contain any provisions restricting the transfer of shares.

The board of directors of any corporation may adopt emergency bylaws, subject to repeal or change by action of the shareholders, which shall, notwithstanding any different provision elsewhere in this chapter or in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, be operative during any emergency in the conduct of the business of the corporation resulting from an attack on the United States or any nuclear or atomic disaster. The emergency bylaws may make any provision that may be practical and necessary for the circumstances of the emergency, including provisions that:

1. A meeting of the board of directors may be called by any officer or director in such manner and under such conditions as shall be prescribed in the emergency bylaws;
2. The director or directors in attendance at the meeting, or any greater number fixed by the emergency bylaws, shall constitute a quorum; and
3. The officers or other persons designated on a list approved by the board of directors before the emergency, all in such order of priority and subject to such conditions and for such period of time (not longer than reasonably necessary after the termination of the emergency) as may be provided in the emergency bylaws or in the resolution approving the list, shall, to the extent required to provide a quorum at any meeting of the board of directors, be deemed directors for such meeting.

The board of directors, either before or during any such emergency, may provide, and from time to time modify, lines of succession in the event that during such an emergency any or all officers or agents of the corporation shall for any reason be rendered incapable of discharging their duties.

The board of directors, either before or during any such emergency, may, effective in the emergency, change the head office or designate several alternative head offices or regional offices, or authorize the officers so to do.

To the extent not inconsistent with any emergency bylaws so adopted, the bylaws of the corporation shall remain in effect during any such emergency and upon its termination the emergency bylaws shall cease to be operative.

Unless otherwise provided in emergency bylaws, notice of any meeting of the board of directors during any such emergency may be given only to such of the directors as it may be feasible to reach at the time and by such means as may be feasible at the time, including publication or radio.

To the extent required to constitute a quorum at any meeting of the board of directors during any such emergency, the officers of the corporation who are present shall, unless otherwise provided in emergency bylaws, be deemed, in order of rank and within the same rank in order of seniority, directors for such meeting.

No officer, director or employee acting in accordance with any emergency bylaws shall be liable except for willful misconduct. No officer, director or employee shall be liable for any action taken by that person in good faith in such an emergency in furtherance of the ordinary business affairs of the corporation even though not authorized by the bylaws then in effect.

496A.27 Meetings of shareholders.

Meetings of shareholders may be held at such place within or without this state as may be stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no other place is stated or fixed, meetings shall be held at the registered office of the corporation.

An annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held at such time as may be stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If the annual meeting is not held within any eighteen month period the district court of the county wherein the registered office of the corporation is located may, upon the written application of any shareholder, order an annual meeting to be held.

Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the president, the board of directors, the holders of not less than one tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting, or such other officers or persons as may be provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

496A.28 Notice of shareholders' meetings.

Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the president, the secretary, or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at the shareholder's address as it appears on the stock transfer books of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid.

496A.29 Closing of transfer books and fixing record date.

For the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend, or in order to make a determination of shareholders for any other proper purpose, the board of directors of a corporation may provide that the stock transfer books shall be closed for a stated period but not to exceed, in any case, sixty days. If the stock transfer books shall be closed for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, such books shall be closed for at least ten days immediately preceding such meeting. In lieu of closing the stock transfer books, the bylaws, or in the absence of an applicable bylaw the board of directors, may fix in advance a date as the record date for any such determination of shareholders, such date in any case to be not more than sixty days and, in case of a meeting of shareholders, not less than ten days prior to the date on which the particular action, requiring such determination of shareholders, is to be taken. If the stock transfer books are not closed and no record date is fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, or shareholders entitled to receive payment of a dividend, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed or the date on which the resolution of the board of directors declaring such dividend is adopted, as the case may be, shall be the record date for such determination of shareholders. When a determination of shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders has been made as provided in this section, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof.

496A.30 Voting list.

The officer or agent having charge of the stock transfer books for shares of a corporation shall make, at least ten days before each meeting of shareholders, a complete record of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof, arranged in alphabetical order, with the address of and the number of shares held by each, which record, for a period of ten days prior to such meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office of the corporation and shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder at any time during usual business hours. Such record shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting. The original stock transfer books shall be prima facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such record or transfer books or to vote at any meeting of shareholders.

Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of any action taken at such meeting.

496A.31 Quorum of shareholders.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of shareholders, but in no event shall a quorum consist of less than one fourth of the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the shareholders, unless the vote of a greater number or voting by classes is required by this chapter or the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

496A.32 Voting of shares.

Each outstanding share, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, except as may be otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation.

If the articles of incorporation provide for more or less than one vote for any share on any matter, every reference in this chapter to a majority or other proportion of shares shall refer to such majority or other proportion of votes.

Neither treasury shares nor shares held by another corporation if a majority of the shares entitled to vote for the election of directors of such other corporation is held by the corporation, shall be voted at any meeting or counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares at any given time.

A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by the shareholder's duly authorized attorney in fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy.
At each election for directors every shareholder enti-titled to vote at such election shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares owned by the shareholder for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election the shareholder has a right to vote, or, if the articles of icorporation specifically permit cumulative voting, to cumulate the vote either by giving one candidate as many votes as the number of such directors multiplied by the number of the shareholder's shares shall equal or by distributing such votes on the same principle among any number of such candidates.

Shares standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may machine, or, in the absence of such provision, as the board of directors of such corporation may determine.

Shares held by an administrator, executor, guardian or conservator may be voted by that person, either in person or by proxy, without a transfer of such shares into the person's name. Shares standing in the name of a trustee may be voted by the trustee, either in person or by proxy, but no trustee shall be entitled to vote shares held by the trustee without a transfer of such shares into the trustee's name.

Shares standing in the name of a receiver may be voted by such receiver, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver may be voted by such receiver without the transfer thereof into the receiver's name if authority so to do be contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver was appointed.

A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be enti-titled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafeter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred.

On and after the date on which written notice of redemption of redeemable shares has been mailed to the holders thereof and a sum sufficient to redeem such shares has been deposited with a bank or trust company with irrevocable instruction and authority to pay the redemption price to the holders thereof upon surrender of certificates therefor, such shares shall not be entitled to vote on any matter and shall not be deemed to be outstanding shares.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.32]

496A.33 Voting trust.

Any number of shareholders of a corporation may create a voting trust for the purpose of conferring upon a trustee or trustees the right to vote or otherwise represent their shares, for a period of not to exceed twenty years, by entering into a written voting trust agreement specifying the terms and conditions of the voting trust, by depositing a counterpart of the agreement with the corporation at its registered office, and by transferring their shares to such trustee or trustees for the purposes of the agreement. Such trustee or trustees shall keep a record of the holders of voting trust certificates evidencing a beneficial interest in the voting trust, giving the names and addresses of all such holders and the number and class of the shares in respect of which the voting trust certificates held by each are issued, and shall deposit a copy of such record with the corporation at its registered office. The counterpart of the voting trust agreement and the copy of such record so deposited with the corporation shall be subject to the same right of examination by a shareholder of the corporation, in person or by agent or attorney, as are the books and records of the corporation, and such counterpart and such copy of such record shall be subject to examination by any holder of record of voting trust certificates, either in person or by agent or attorney, at any reasonable time for any proper purpose.

Agreements among shareholders regarding the voting of their shares shall be valid and enforceable in accordance with their terms. Such agreements shall not be subject to the provisions of this section regarding voting trusts.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.33]

496A.34 Board of directors — relationship or interest in contracts.

All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of a corporation shall be managed under the direction of, a board of directors consisting of one or more memers, except as may be otherwise provided in this chapter or in the articles of incorporation. If any such provision is made in the articles of incorporation, the powers and duties conferred or imposed upon the board of directors by this chapter shall be exercised or performed to such extent and by such person or persons as shall be provided in the articles of incorporation. Directors need not be residents of this state or shareholders of the corporation unless the articles of icorporation or bylaws so require. The articles of inicorporation or bylaws may prescribe other qualifications for directors. The board of directors shall have authority to fix the compensation of directors unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation.

A director shall perform the duties of a director, including the duties as a member of any committee of the board upon which such director may serve, in good faith, in a manner such director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, and with such care as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. In performing such duties, a director shall be entitled to rely on such information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by: (1)
One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; (2) Counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters which the director reasonably believes to be within such person's professional or expert competence; or,
(3) A committee of the board upon which such director does not serve, duly designated in accordance with a provision of the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, as to matters within its designated authority, which committee the director reasonably believes to merit confidence. However, such director shall not be considered to be acting in good faith if such director has knowledge concerning the matter in question that would cause such reliance to be unwarranted. A person who so performs such duties shall not have liability by reason of being or having been a director of the corporation.
A director of a corporation who is present at a meeting of its board of directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken, unless the dissent of such director is entered in the minutes of the meeting, such director files a written dissent to such action with the secretary of the meeting before the meeting’s adjournment, or such director forwards such dissent by registered or certified mail to the secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

No contract or other transaction between a corporation and one or more of its directors or any other corporation, firm, association or entity in which one or more of its directors are directors or officers or are financially interested, shall be either void or voidable because of such relationship or interest or because such director or directors are present at the meeting of the board of directors or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves or ratifies such contract or transaction or because the director’s or directors’ votes are counted for such purpose, if any of the following occur:

1. The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the board of directors or committee which authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract or transaction by a vote or consent sufficient for the purpose without counting the votes or consents of such interested director.

2. The fact of such relationship or interest is disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote and they authorize, approve or ratify such contract or transaction by vote or written consent.

3. The contract or transaction is fair and reasonable to the corporation.

Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the board of directors or a committee thereof which authorizes, approves, or ratifies such contract or transaction.

496A.35 Number and election of directors.

The number of directors shall be fixed by or in the manner provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, except as to the number constituting the initial board of directors, which number shall be fixed by the articles of incorporation. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to or in the manner provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, but no decrease shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. In the absence of a bylaw providing for the number of directors and in the absence of a provision adopted in the manner provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, the number shall be the same as that provided for in the articles of incorporation. The names and addresses of the members of the first board of directors shall be stated in the articles of incorporation. Such persons shall hold office until the first annual meeting of shareholders, and until their successors shall have been elected and qualify. At the first annual meeting of shareholders and at each annual meeting thereafter the shareholders shall elect directors to hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting, except in case of the classification of directors as permitted by this chapter. Each director shall hold office for the term for which the director is elected and until the director’s successor shall have been elected and qualifies, unless removed in accordance with provisions of this chapter.

Except as otherwise provided in articles of incorporation, any or all directors may be removed, with or without cause, at a meeting called expressly for that purpose by a vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors. In the case of a corporation having cumulative voting, if less than the entire board is to be removed, no one of the directors may be removed if the votes cast against the director’s removal would be sufficient to elect the director if then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire board of directors, or, if there be classes of directors, at an election of the class of directors of which the director is a part. Whenever the holders of the shares of any class are entitled to elect one or more directors by the provisions of the articles of incorporation, the provisions of this section shall apply, in respect of the removal of a director or directors so elected, to the vote of the holders of the outstanding shares of that class and not to the vote of the outstanding shares as a whole.

496A.36 Classification of directors.

In lieu of electing the whole number of directors annually, the articles of incorporation may provide that the directors be divided into two or three classes, each class to be as nearly equal in number as possible, the term of office of directors of the first class to expire at the first annual meeting of shareholders after their election, that of the second class to expire at the second annual meeting after their election, and that of the third class, if any, to expire at the third annual meeting after their election. At each annual meeting after such classification the number of directors equal to the number of the class whose term expires at the time of such meeting shall be elected to hold office until the second succeeding annual meeting, if there be two classes, or until the third succeeding annual meeting, if there be three classes. No classification of directors shall be effective prior to the first annual meeting of shareholders.

496A.37 Vacancies.

Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors though less than a quorum of the board of directors. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of the director’s predecessor in office. Any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors may be filled by the board of directors for a term of office continuing only until the next election of directors by the shareholders.

496A.38 Quorum of directors.

A majority of the number of directors fixed by the bylaws, or in the absence of a bylaw fixing the number of directors, then of the number stated in the articles of incorporation, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless a greater number is required by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.
The act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.
[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.38]

496A.39 Executive and other committees.
If the articles of incorporation or the bylaws so provide, the board of directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the full board of directors, may designate from among its members an executive committee and one or more other committees each of which, to the extent provided in such resolution or in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws of the corporation, shall have and may exercise all the authority of the board of directors, except that no such committee shall have the authority to: (1) declare dividends or distributions;
(2) approve or recommend to shareholders actions or proposals required by this chapter to be approved by shareholders; (3) designate candidates for the office of director, for purposes of proxy solicitation or otherwise, or fill vacancies on the board of directors or any committee thereof; (4) amend the bylaws; (5) approve a plan of merger not requiring shareholder approval;
(6) reduce surplus; (7) authorize or approve the reacrquisition of shares unless pursuant to a general formula or method specified by the board of directors; or, (8) authorize or approve the issuance or sale of, or any contract to issue or sell, shares or designate the terms of a series of a class of shares; however, the board of directors, having acted regarding general authorization for the issuance or sale of shares, or any contract for issuance or sale, and, in the case of a series, the designation of the series, may, pursuant to a general formula or method specified by the board by resolution or by adoption of a stock option or other plan, authorize a committee to fix the terms of any contract for the sale of the shares and to fix the terms upon which such shares may be issued or sold, including, without limitation, the price, the dividend rate, provisions for redemption, sinking fund, conversion, voting or pref-erential rights, and provisions for other features of a class of shares, or a series of a class of shares, with full power in such committee to adopt any final resolution setting forth all the terms and to authorize the statement of the terms of a series for filing with the secretary of state under this chapter.

Neither the designation of any such committee, the delegation to it of authority, nor action by such committee pursuant to such authority shall alone constitute compliance by any member of the board of directors, not a member of the committee in question, with such director’s responsibility to act in good faith, in a manner such director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, and with such care as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances.
[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.39]

496A.40 Place and notice of directors’ meetings — telephone conference.
Meetings of the board of directors, regular or special, may be held either within or without this state.

Regular meetings of the board of directors or any committee designated by the board may be held with or without notice as prescribed in the bylaws. Special meetings of the board of directors or any committee designated by the board shall be held upon such notice as is prescribed in the bylaws. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the board of directors or any committee designated by the board need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting unless required by the bylaws.

Unless otherwise restricted by the articles of incorporation or bylaws, members of the board of directors of any corporation, or any committee designated by such board, may participate in a meeting of such board or committee by conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this provision shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

496A.41 Dividends.
The board of directors of a corporation may, from time to time, declare and the corporation may pay dividends on its outstanding shares in cash, property, or in its own shares, out of unreserved surplus, subject to the following provisions:

1. No dividend shall be declared or paid at a time when the corporation is insolvent or its net assets are less than its stated capital, or when the payment thereof would render the corporation insolvent or reduce its net assets below its stated capital, or when the declaration or payment thereof would be contrary to any restrictions contained in its articles of incorporation.

2. If the articles of incorporation of a corporation engaged in the business of exploiting natural resources so provide, dividends may be declared and paid in cash out of the depletion reserves, but each such dividend shall be identified as a distribution of such reserves and the amount per share paid from such reserves shall be disclosed to the shareholders receiving the same concurrently with the distribution thereof.

3. No dividend, except a dividend payable in its own shares, shall be declared or paid out of surplus arising from unrealized appreciation in value, or revaluation, of assets.
[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.41]

496A.42 Distributions in partial liquidation.
A corporation, from time to time, may distribute a portion of its assets, in cash or kind, to its shareholders as a liquidating dividend, in the following manner and subject to the following restrictions:

1. The board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending the payment of a liquidating dividend, specifying the class or classes of shareholders entitled thereof and the amount thereof, and directing that the question of such distribution be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

2. Written or printed notice stating that the purpose or one of the purposes of such meeting is to consider the question of such distribution shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders. If such meeting be an annual meeting, such purpose shall be included in the notice of such meeting.

3. At such meeting a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereat shall be taken by classes on the question of the proposed distribution. The affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class shall be required for the authorization of such distribution.

4. No such distribution shall be made at a time when the corporation is insolvent or when such distribution would render the corporation insolvent.

5. No such distribution shall be made to any class of shareholders unless all cumulative dividends accrued on preferred or special classes of shares entitled to preferential dividends shall have been fully paid.

6. No such distribution shall be made to any class of shareholders which will reduce the remaining net assets below the aggregate preferential amount payable in event of voluntary liquidation to the holders of shares having preferential rights to the assets of the corporation in the event of liquidation.

7. Each such distribution, when made, shall be identified as a liquidating dividend and the amount per share shall be disclosed to the shareholders receiving the same, concurrently with the payment thereof.

496A.43 Provisions relating to actions by shareholders.

No action shall be brought in this state by a shareholder in the right of a domestic or foreign corporation unless the plaintiff was a holder of shares or of voting trust certificates therefor at the time of the transaction of which the plaintiff complains, or the plaintiff's shares or voting trust certificates thereafter devolved upon the plaintiff by operation of laws from a person who was a holder at such time.

496A.44 Liability of directors and officers in certain cases.

In addition to any other liabilities imposed by law upon directors and officers of a corporation, a director shall be liable in the following circumstances, unless the director complies with the standard provided in this chapter for performance of the duties of directors:

1. A director who votes for or assents to the declaration of any dividend or other distribution of the assets of a corporation to its shareholders contrary to the provisions of this chapter or to any restrictions contained in the articles of incorporation, shall be liable to the corporation jointly and severally with all other directors so voting or assenting for the amount of such dividend which is paid or the value of such assets which are distributed in excess of the amount of such dividend or distribution which could have been paid or distributed without a violation of the provisions of this chapter or of the restrictions in the articles of incorporation.

2. A director who votes for or assents to the purchase of the corporation's own shares contrary to the provisions of this chapter or to any restrictions contained in the articles of incorporation, shall be liable to the corporation jointly and severally with all other directors so voting or assenting for the amount of consideration paid for such shares which is in excess of the maximum amount which could have been paid therefor without a violation of the provisions of this chapter or of the restrictions in the articles of incorporation.

3. A director who votes for or assents to any distribution of assets of a corporation to its shareholders during the liquidation of the corporation without the payment and discharge of, or making adequate provision for, all known debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation shall be liable to the corporation jointly and severally with all other directors so voting or assenting for the value of such assets which are distributed, to the extent that such debts, obligations and liabilities of the corporation are not thereafter paid and discharged.

If an officer willfully or negligently submits an incorrect financial statement to a director or directors, and such officer is also an officer of the corporation, action, contrary to the provisions of this chapter or of any restrictions in the articles of incorporation, is taken in reliance thereon, the officer shall be liable to the same extent as if the officer were a director voting for or assenting to such action. No officer shall be deemed to be negligent within the meaning of this section if the officer exercised that diligence, care and skill which an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances.

Any director against whom a claim shall be asserted under or pursuant to this section for the payment of a dividend or other distribution of assets of a corporation and who shall be held liable thereon, shall be entitled to contribution from the shareholders who accepted or received any such dividend or assets, knowing such dividend or distribution to have been made in violation of the provisions of this chapter or of any restrictions in the articles of incorporation, in proportion to the amounts received by them respectively, and to contribution from any other director found to be similarly liable.

Any action seeking to impose liability under this section, other than liability for contribution, shall be commenced only within five years of the action complained of and not thereafter.

496A.45 Officers.

The officers of a corporation shall consist of a president, one or more vice presidents as may be prescribed by the bylaws, a secretary and a treasurer, each of whom shall be elected by the board of directors at such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by the bylaws. Such other officers and assistant officers and agents as may be deemed necessary may be elected or appointed by the board of directors or chosen in such other manner as may be prescribed by the bylaws. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person.

All officers and agents of the corporation, as between themselves and the corporation, shall have such authority and perform such duties in the management of the corporation as may be provided in the bylaws, or as may be determined by resolution of the board of directors not inconsistent with the bylaws.

Subject to any restrictions contained in its articles of incorporation or bylaws, the signatures of the officers of any corporation organized under this chapter, on the bonds, notes, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness of any such corporation may be facsimiles and such facsimiles on such instruments shall be deemed the equivalent of and constitute the written signatures of such officers for all purposes including, but not limited to, the full satisfaction of any signature requirements of the laws of this state on the bonds, notes, debentures and other evidence of indebtedness of any such corporation.

496A.46 Removal of officers.

Any officer or agent may be removed by the board of directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. Election or appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights.

496A.47 Books and records.

Each corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall keep minutes of the proceedings of its shareholders and board of directors; and shall keep at its registered office or principal place of business, or at the office of its transfer agent or registrar, a record of its shareholders, giving the name and addresses of all shareholders and the number and class of the shares held by each. The office of any transfer agent or registrar may be maintained within or without the state of Iowa. Any books, records and minutes may be in written form or in any other form capable of being converted into written form within a reasonable time.

Any person who shall have been a holder of record of shares or of voting trust certificates therefor at least six months immediately preceding the person’s demand, or shall be the holder of record of, or the holder of record of voting trust certificates for, at least five percent of all of the outstanding shares of a corporation, upon written demand stating the purpose thereof, shall have the right to examine, in person, or by agent or attorney, at any reasonable time or times, for any proper purpose its relevant books and records of account, minutes, and record of shareholders and make extracts therefrom.

Any officer or agent who, or a corporation which, arbitrarily or in bad faith shall refuse to allow any such shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates, or the shareholder's or holder's agent or attorney, so to examine and make extracts from its books and records of account, minutes and record of shareholders, for any proper purpose, shall be liable to such shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates in a penalty of ten percent of the value of the shares owned by such shareholder, or in respect of which such voting trust certificates are issued, but not to exceed five hundred dollars, in addition to any other damages or remedy afforded the shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates by law, but the court may decrease the amount of such penalty on a finding of mitigating circumstances. It shall be a defense to any action for penalties under this section that the person suing therefor has within two years sold or offered for sale any list of shareholders or of holders of voting trust certificates for shares of such corporation or any other corporation or has aided or abetted any person in procuring any list of shareholders or of holders of voting trust certificates for any such purpose, or has improperly used any information secured through any prior examination of the books and records of account, or minutes, or record of shareholders or of holders of voting trust certificates for shares of such corporation or any other corporation, or was not acting in good faith or for a proper purpose in making the demand.

Nothing herein contained shall impair the power of any court of competent jurisdiction, upon proof by a shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates of proper purpose, irrespective of the period of time during which such shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates shall have been a shareholder of record or a holder of record of voting trust certificates, and irrespective of the number of shares held by the shareholder or represented by voting trust certificates held by the holder, to compel the production for examination by such shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates of the books and records of account, minutes and record of shareholders of a corporation.

Upon the written request of any shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates for shares of a corporation, the corporation shall mail to such shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates its most recent financial statements showing in reasonable detail its assets and liabilities and the results of its operations.

496A.48 Who may incorporate.

One or more persons as defined in this chapter having capacity to contract, may act as incorporators of a corporation by signing, acknowledging and delivering to the secretary of state articles of incorporation for such corporation.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.48]

496A.49 Articles of incorporation.

The articles of incorporation shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation and the chapter of the Code or session laws under which incorporated.
2. The period of duration if for a limited period, but in the absence of any statement in the articles all corporations organized hereunder shall have perpetual duration.
3. The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized which may be stated to be, or to include, the transaction of any or all lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under this chapter.
4. The aggregate number of shares which the corporation shall have authority to issue; if such shares are to consist of one class only, the par value of each of such shares, or a statement that all of such shares are without par value; or, if such shares are to be divided into classes, the number of shares of each class, and a statement of the par value of the shares of each such class or that such shares are to be without par value.
5. If the shares are to be divided into classes, the §496A.49  designation of each class and a statement of the preferences, voting rights, if any, limitations and relative rights in respect of the shares of each class.

6. If the corporation is to issue the shares of any preferred or special class in series, then the designation of each series and a statement of the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series, to the same are to be fixed in the articles of incorporation, and a statement of any authority to be vested in the board of directors to establish series and fix and determine the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series.

7. Any provision limiting or denying to shareholders the pre-emptive right to acquire additional shares of the corporation and any provision giving to shareholders the pre-emptive right to acquire treasury shares of the corporation.

8. Any provision, not inconsistent with law, which the incorporators elect to set forth in the articles of incorporation for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation, including any provision restricting the transfer of shares and any provision which under this chapter is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws.

9. The address of its initial registered office including street and number, if any, the name of the county in which the registered office is located, and the name of its initial registered agent or agents at such address.

10. The number of directors constituting the initial board of directors and the names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as directors until the first annual meeting of shareholders or until their successors be elected and qualify.

11. The name and address of each incorporator.

12. The date on which the corporate existence shall begin, which may be any date identified by year, month and day not more than ninety days in the future. In the absence of any statement in the articles as to date of beginning of corporate existence, such existence shall commence on the date on which the secretary of state issues the certificate of incorporation.

13. Any provision not inconsistent with law or the purposes for which the corporation is organized, which the incorporators elect to set forth; or any provision limiting any of the corporate powers enumerated in this chapter.

It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers enumerated in this chapter.

Upon the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, the corporate existence shall begin unless the certificate in conformity with a provision in the articles provides that it shall begin on a stated day in the future in which event the corporate existence shall without further action by either the incorporators or the secretary of state begin on the day so stated. Such certificate of incorporation shall be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent required to be performed by the incorporators have been complied with and that the corporation has been incorporated under this chapter except as against this state in a proceeding to cancel or revoke the certificate of incorporation or for involuntary dissolution of the corporation.

496A.53 Procedure for filing and recording of documents.

If in this chapter, it is required that any document be:

1. Filed in the office of the secretary of state, the secretary of state, when the secretary finds that such document conforms to law and when all fees and taxes due the secretary have been paid as in this chapter prescribed, shall endorse on such document, the word "Filed", and the month, day and year of the filing thereof and file the same in the secretary of state's office;

2. Recorded in the office of the secretary of state, the secretary of state, upon filing thereof, shall record the same;

3. Filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder, the secretary of state upon recording such document in the secretary of state's office shall forward the same to the county recorder of the county wherein the registered office of the corporation is located, and shall forward a copy certified by the secretary as a true copy of the filed original to such other county recorder, if any, as is required by this chapter. Upon receipt thereof and upon receipt of recording fees due the county recorder, such county recorder shall record and index such instrument and endorse thereon the date of filing in such county and the book and page in which recorded. The recorder of each county shall keep in the county recorder's office an alphabetically subdivided index book for articles of incorporation and other instruments the recording of which in the county recorder's office is provided for by this chapter, which book shall have as a minimum, columns headed with "Name of Corporation," "Place of Registered Office," "Day, Month and Year of Filing" and the reference to the book and page or other record where recorded and shall make appropriate entries in said index for each such instrument recorded by the recorder.

Any instrument required to be filed and recorded in the office of the secretary of state only, shall be returned by the secretary to the corporation or its representative. Any instrument required to be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder shall be returned by the recorder to the corporation or its representative.

496A.54 Organization meeting of directors.

After the issuance of the certificate of incorporation an organization meeting of the board of directors named in the articles of incorporation may be held, either within or without this state, at the call of a majority of the directors named in the articles of incorporation for the purpose of adopting bylaws, electing officers, if necessary, and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. The directors calling the meeting shall give at least three days' notice thereof by mail to each director so named, which notice shall state the time and place of the meeting.

496A.55 Right to amend articles of incorporation.

A corporation may amend its articles of incorporation, from time to time, in any and as many respects as may be desired, so long as its articles of incorporation as amended contain only such provisions as might be lawfully contained in original articles of incorporation at the time of making such amendment, and, if a change in shares or the rights of shareholders, or an exchange, reclassification or cancellation of shares or rights of shareholders is to be made, such provisions as may be necessary to effect such change, exchange, reclassification or cancellation.

In particular, and without limitation upon such general power of amendment, a corporation may amend its articles of incorporation, from time to time, so as:

1. To change its corporate name.
2. To change its period of duration.
3. To change, enlarge or diminish its corporate purposes.
4. To increase or decrease the aggregate number of shares, or shares of any class, which the corporation has authority to issue.
5. To increase or decrease the par value of the authorized shares of any class having a par value, whether issued or unissued.
6. To exchange, classify, reclassify or cancel all or any part of its shares, whether issued or unissued.
7. To change the designation of all or any part of its shares, whether issued or unissued, and to change the preferences, limitations, and the relative rights in respect of all or any part of its shares, whether issued or unissued.
8. To change shares having a par value, whether issued or unissued, into the same or a different number of shares without par value, and to change shares without par value, whether issued or unissued, into the same or a different number of shares having a par value.
9. To change the shares of any class, whether issued or unissued, and whether with or without par value, into a different number of shares of the same class or into the same or a different number of shares, either with or without par value, of other classes.
10. To create new classes of shares having rights and preferences either prior and superior or subordinate and inferior to the shares of any class then authorized, whether issued or unissued.
11. To cancel or otherwise affect the right of the holders of the shares of any class to receive dividends which have accrued but have not been declared.
12. To divide any preferred or special class of shares, whether issued or unissued, into series and fix and determine the designations of such series and the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between the shares of such series.
13. To authorize the board of directors to establish, out of authorized but unissued shares, series of any preferred or special class of shares and fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series so established.
14. To authorize the board of directors to fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the authorized but unissued shares of series theretofore established in respect of which either the relative rights and preferences have not been fixed and determined or the relative rights and preferences theretofore fixed and determined are to be changed.
15. To revoke, diminish, or enlarge the authority of the board of directors to establish series out of authorized but unissued shares of any preferred or special class and fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series so established.
16. To limit, deny or grant to shareholders of any class the pre-emptive right to acquire additional shares or treasury shares of the corporation, or obligations of the corporation convertible into such shares, whether then or thereafter authorized.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.55]

496A.56 Procedure to amend articles of incorporation.

Amendments to the articles of incorporation shall be made in the following manner:

1. The board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment and, if shares have been issued, directing that it be submitted to a vote of a meeting of shareholders, which may be either the annual or a special meeting. If no shares have been issued, the amendment shall be adopted by resolution of the board of directors and the provisions for adoption by shareholders shall not apply. The resolution may incorporate the proposed amendment in restated articles of incorporation which contain a statement that except for the designated amendment the restated articles of incorporation correctly set forth without change the corresponding provisions of the articles of incorporation as amended, and that the restated articles of incorporation together with the designated amendment supersede the original articles of incorporation and all prior amendments. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, upon the written request of the holders of at least five percent of the shares entitled to vote on amendments to articles of incorporation, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the amendment proposed by such shareholders and directing that it be submitted to the next meeting of the shareholders held not less than ninety days after the date of the filing of the request of the shareholders with the secretary of the corporation.

2. Written or printed notice setting forth the proposed amendment or a summary of the changes to be effected thereby shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote thereon within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders. If the meeting be an annual meeting, the proposed amendment or such summary may be included in the notice of such annual meeting.
3. At such meeting a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon shall be taken on the proposed amendment or, to the extent permitted by the articles of incorporation, any modification or revision thereof which shall be proposed at the meeting, and shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon, unless any class of shares is entitled to vote thereon as a class, in which event it shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of each class of shares entitled to vote thereon as a class and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon.

Any number of amendments may be submitted to the shareholders, and voted upon by them at one meeting.

496A.57 Class voting on amendments.

The holders of the outstanding shares of a class shall be entitled to vote as a class upon a proposed amendment, whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the provisions of the articles of incorporation, if the amendment would:

1. Increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of such class.
2. Increase or decrease the par value of the shares of such class.
3. Effect an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of all or part of the shares of such class.
4. Effect an exchange, or create a right of exchange, of all or any part of the shares of another class into the shares of such class.
5. Change the designations, preferences, limitations or relative rights of the shares of such class.
6. Change the shares of such class, whether with or without par value, into the same or a different number of shares, either with or without par value, of the same class or another class or classes.
7. Create a new class of shares having rights and preferences prior or superior to the shares of such class, or increase the rights and preferences, or the number of authorized shares of any class having rights and preferences prior or superior to the shares of such class.
8. In the case of a preferred or special class of shares, divide the unissued shares of such class into series and fix and determine the designation of such series and the variations in the relative rights and preferences between the shares of such series, or authorize the board of directors to do so.
9. Limit or deny the existing pre-emptive rights, if any, of the shares of such class.
10. Cancel or otherwise affect dividends on the shares of such class which have accrued but have not been declared.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.57]

496A.58 Articles of amendment.

The articles of amendment shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of the officers signing such articles, and shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation and the effective date of its incorporation; and its original name if different from the present name.
2. The amendment so adopted.
3. The date of the adoption of the amendment by the shareholders or by the board of directors where no shares have been issued.
4. The number of shares outstanding, and the number of shares entitled to vote thereon, and if the shares of any class are entitled to vote thereon as a class, the designation and number of outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon of each such class.
5. The number of shares voted for and against such amendment, respectively, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote thereon as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against such amendment, respectively, or if no shares have been issued, a statement to that effect.
6. If such amendment provides for an exchange, reclassification or cancellation of issued shares, and if the manner in which the same shall be effected is not set forth in the amendment, then a statement of the manner in which the same shall be effected.
7. If such amendment effects a change in the amount of stated capital, then a statement of the manner in which the same is effected and a statement, expressed in dollars, of the amount of stated capital as changed by such amendment.
8. The date on which the amendment shall become effective, which may be any date identified by year, month and day not more than ninety days in the future. In the absence of any statement in the articles of amendment as to the date on which the amendment shall become effective, such amendment shall become effective on the date on which the secretary of state issues the certificate of amendment.

496A.59 Filing of articles of amendment.

The articles of amendment shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder. The secretary of state upon the filing of the articles of amendment shall issue a certificate of amendment and send the same to the corporation or its representative.

496A.60 Effect of certificate of amendment.

Upon the issuance of the certificate of amendment by the secretary of state, the amendment shall become effective and the articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be amended accordingly unless the certificate in conformity with the provisions in the articles of amendment provides that it shall become effective on a stated day not more than ninety days in the future in which event the amendment shall without further action by either the corporation or the secretary of state become effective on the day so stated.

No amendment shall affect the existing rights of persons other than shareholders, or any existing cause of action in favor of or against such corporation, or any pending suit to which such corporation shall be a party; and, in the event the corporate name shall be changed by amendment, no suit brought by or against such corporation under its former name shall abate for that reason.

A domestic corporation may at any time restate its articles of incorporation, which may be amended by such restatement, so long as its articles of incorporation as so restated contain only such provisions as might be lawfully contained in original articles of incorporation at the time of making such restatement, by the adoption of restated articles of incorporation, including any amendments to its articles of incorporation to be made thereby, in the following manner:

1. The board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed restated articles of incorporation, which may include an amendment or amendments to the corporation's articles of incorporation to be made thereby, and directing that such restated articles, including such amendment or amendments, be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

2. Written or printed notice setting forth the proposed restated articles or a summary of the provisions thereof shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote thereon within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders. If the meeting be an annual meeting, the proposed restated articles may be included in the notice of such annual meeting. If the restated articles include an amendment or amendments to the articles of incorporation to be made thereby, the notice shall separately set forth such amendment or amendments or a summary of the changes to be effected thereby.

3. At such meeting a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon shall be taken on the proposed restated articles. The proposed restated articles shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon, unless such restated articles include an amendment to the articles of incorporation to be made thereby which, if contained in a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation to be made without restatement of the articles of incorporation, would entitle a class of shares to vote as a class thereon, in which event the proposed restated articles shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of each class of shares entitled to vote thereon as a class, and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon.

Upon such approval, restated articles of incorporation shall be executed by the corporation by its president or vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing the same, and shall set forth, as then stated in the corporation's articles of incorporation and, if the restated articles of incorporation include an amendment or amendments to the articles of incorporation to be made thereby, as so amended:

a. The name of the corporation,

b. If its duration is for a limited period, the date of expiration,

c. The purpose which the corporation is authorized to pursue, or that the purpose which the corporation is authorized to pursue is, or include, the transaction of any or all lawful business for which the corporation may be incorporated under this chapter,

d. The aggregate number of shares which the corporation has authority to issue, if such shares consist of one class only, the par value of each of such shares, or a statement that all of such shares are without par value, or, if such shares are divided into classes, the number of shares of each class, and a statement of the par value of the shares of each such class or that such shares are without par value,

e. If the shares are divided into classes, the designation of each class and a statement of the preferences, voting rights, if any, limitations and relative rights in respect of the shares of each class,

f. If the shares of any preferred or special class are issuable in series, the designation of each series and a statement of the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series insofar as the same are fixed in the restated articles of incorporation, and a statement of any authority vested in the board of directors to establish series and fix and determine the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series,

g. Any provisions limiting or denying to shareholders the pre emptive right to acquire additional shares of the corporation or giving to shareholders the pre emptive right to acquire treasury shares of the corporation,

h. The date on which the restated articles of incorporation shall become effective, which may be any date identified by year, month and day not more than ninety days in the future. In the absence of any statement in the restated articles of incorporation as to the date on which the restated articles of incorporation shall become effective, such restated articles of incorporation shall become effective on the date on which the secretary of state issues the restated certificate of incorporation,

i. Any other provisions, not inconsistent with law or the purposes which the corporation is authorized to pursue, which are set forth in the articles of incorporation, except that it shall not be necessary to set forth any statement with respect to the chapter of the Code or session laws under which the corporation was incorporated, its registered office, registered agent, directors, or incorporators, or the date on which its corporate existence began.

The restated articles of incorporation shall set forth also a statement that they correctly set forth the provisions of the articles of incorporation as theretofore or thereby amended, that they have been duly adopted as required by law and that they supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

The restated articles of incorporation shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder.

The secretary of state upon filing the restated articles of incorporation shall issue a restated certificate of incorporation and send the same to the corporation or its representative.

Upon the issuance of the restated certificate of incorporation by the secretary of state, the restated articles of incorporation including any amendment or amendments to the articles of incorporation made thereby, shall become effective unless the certificate in conformity with a provision in the restated articles of incorporation provides that it shall become effective on a stated day not more than ninety days in the future in which event the restated articles of incorporation...
shall without further action by either the corporation or the secretary of state become effective on the day so stated and shall supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

No amendment shall affect the existing rights of persons other than shareholders, or any existing cause of action in favor of or against such corporation, or any pending suit to which such corporation shall be a party; and, in the event the corporate name shall be changed by amendment, no suit brought by or against such corporation under its former name shall abate for that reason.

496A.62 Amendment of articles of incorporation in reorganization proceedings.

Whenever a plan of reorganization of a corporation has been confirmed by decree or order of a court of competent jurisdiction in proceedings for the reorganization of such corporation, pursuant to the provisions of any applicable statute of the United States relating to reorganizations of corporations, the articles of incorporation of the corporation may be amended, in the manner provided in this section, in as many respects as may be necessary to carry out the plan and put it into effect, so long as the articles of incorporation as amended contain only such provisions as might be lawfully contained in original articles of incorporation at the time of making such amendment.

In particular and without limitation upon such general power of amendment, the articles of incorporation may be amended for such purpose so as to:

1. Change the corporate name, period of duration or corporate purposes of the corporation;
2. Repeal, alter or amend the bylaws of the corporation;
3. Change the aggregate number of shares, or shares of any class, which the corporation has authority to issue;
4. Change the preferences, limitations and relative rights in respect of all or any part of the shares of the corporation, and classify, reclassify or cancel all or any part thereof, whether issued or unissued;
5. Authorize the issuance of bonds, debentures or other obligations of the corporation, whether or not convertible into shares of any class or bearing warrants or other evidences of optional rights to purchase or subscribe for shares of any class, and fix the terms and conditions thereof; and
6. Constitute or reconstitute and classify or reclassify the board of directors of the corporation, and appoint directors and officers in place of or in addition to all or any of the directors or officers then in office.

Amendments to the articles of incorporation pursuant to this section shall be made in the following manner:

7. Articles of amendment approved by decree or order of such court shall be executed and verified in duplicate by such person or persons as the court shall designate or appoint for the purpose, and shall set forth the name of the corporation, the amendments of the articles of incorporation approved by the court, the date of the decree or order approving the articles of amendment, the title of the proceedings in which the decree or order was entered, and a statement that such decree or order was entered by a court having jurisdiction of the proceedings for the reorganization of the corporation pursuant to the provisions of an applicable statute of the United States.

8. The articles of amendment shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder. The secretary of state upon the filing of the articles of amendment shall issue a certificate of amendment and send the same to the corporation or its representative.

Upon the issuance of the certificate of amendment by the secretary of state, the amendment shall become effective and the articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be amended accordingly, without any action thereon by the directors or shareholders of the corporation and with the same effect as if the amendments had been adopted by unanimous action of the directors and shareholders of the corporation.

496A.63 Restriction on redemption or purchase of redeemable shares.

No redemption or purchase of redeemable shares shall be made by a corporation when it is insolvent or when such redemption or purchase would render it insolvent, or which would reduce the net assets below the aggregate amount payable to the holders of shares having prior or equal rights to the assets of the corporation upon involuntary dissolution.

496A.64 Cancellation of redeemable shares by redemption.

When redeemable shares of a corporation are redeemed by the corporation, the redemption shall effect a cancellation of such shares, and a statement of cancellation shall be filed as provided in this section. Thereupon such shares shall be restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares, unless the articles of incorporation provide that such shares when redeemed shall not be reissued, in which case the filing of the statement of cancellation shall constitute an amendment to the articles of incorporation and shall reduce the number of shares of the class so canceled which the corporation is authorized to issue by the number of shares so canceled.

The statement of cancellation shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of the officers signing such statement, and shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation and the effective date of its incorporation; and its original name if different from the present name.
2. The number of redeemable shares canceled through redemption, itemized by classes and series.
3. The aggregate number of issued shares, itemized by classes and series, after giving effect to such cancellation.
4. The amount, expressed in dollars, of the stated capital of the corporation after giving effect to such cancellation.
5. If the articles of incorporation provide that the canceled shares shall not be reissued, then the number of shares which the corporation has authority to issue, itemized by classes and series, after giving effect to such cancellation.
Such statement shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and if the same effects a reduction in its authorized shares the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder.

Upon the filing of such statement of cancellation, the stated capital of the corporation shall be deemed to be reduced by that part of the stated capital which was, at the time of such cancellation, represented by the shares so canceled.

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to forbid a cancellation of shares or a reduction of stated capital in any other manner permitted by this chapter.

496A.65 Cancellation of other reacquired shares.

A corporation may at any time, by resolution of its board of directors, cancel all or any part of the shares of the corporation of any class reacquired by it, other than redeemable shares redeemed, and in such event a statement of cancellation shall be filed as provided in this section.

The statement of cancellation shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of the officers signing such statement, and shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation and the effective date of its incorporation; and its original name if different from the present name.
2. The number of reacquired shares canceled by resolution duly adopted by the board of directors, itemized by classes and series, and the date of its adoption.
3. The aggregate number of issued shares, itemized by classes and series, after giving effect to such cancellation.
4. The amount, expressed in dollars, of the stated capital of the corporation after giving effect to such cancellation.

Such statement shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office.

Upon the filing of such statement of cancellation, the stated capital of the corporation shall be deemed to be reduced by that part of the stated capital which was, at the time of such cancellation, represented by the shares so canceled, and the shares so canceled shall be restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares.

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to forbid a cancellation of shares or a reduction of stated capital in any other manner permitted by this chapter.

496A.66 Reduction of stated capital in certain cases.

A reduction of the stated capital of a corporation, where such reduction is not accompanied by any action requiring an amendment of the articles of incorporation and not accompanied by a cancellation of shares, may be made in the following manner:

1. The board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the amount of the proposed reduction and the manner in which the reduction shall be effected, and directing that the question of such reduction be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.
2. Written or printed notice, stating that the purpose or one of the purposes of such meeting is to consider the question of reducing the stated capital of the corporation in the amount and manner proposed by the board of directors, shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote thereon within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders.
3. At such meeting a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon shall be taken on the question of approving the proposed reduction of stated capital, which shall require for its adoption the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon.

When a reduction of the stated capital of a corporation has been approved as provided in this section, a statement shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of the officers signing such statement, and shall set forth:

4. The name of the corporation.
5. A copy of the resolution of the shareholders approving such reduction, and the date of its adoption.
6. The number of shares outstanding, and the number of shares entitled to vote.
7. The number of shares voted for and against such reduction, respectively.
8. A statement of the manner in which such reduction is effected, and a statement, expressed in dollars, of the amount of stated capital of the corporation after giving effect to such reduction.

Such statement shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office.

Upon the filing of such statement, the stated capital of the corporation shall be reduced as therein set forth. No reduction of stated capital shall be made under the provisions of this section which would reduce the amount of the aggregate stated capital of the corporation to an amount equal to or less than the aggregate preferential amounts payable upon all issued shares having a preferential right in the assets of the corporation in the event of involuntary liquidation, plus the aggregate par value of all issued shares having a par value but no preferential right in the assets of the corporation in the event of involuntary liquidation.

496A.67 Special provisions relating to surplus and reserves.

A corporation may, by resolution of its board of directors, create a reserve or reserves out of its surplus for any proper purpose or purposes, and may abolish any such reserve in the same manner. Surplus of the corporation to the extent so reserved shall not be available for the payment of dividends or other distributions by the corporation except as expressly permitted by this chapter.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.67]

496A.68 Procedure for merger.

Any two or more domestic corporations may merge into one of such corporations pursuant to a plan of merger approved in the manner provided in this chapter.

The board of directors of each corporation shall, by resolution adopted by each such board, approve a plan of merger setting forth:

1. The names of the corporations proposing to merge, and the name of the corporation into which they propose to merge, which is hereinafter designated as the surviving corporation.

2. The terms and conditions of the proposed merger.

3. The manner and basis of converting the shares of each corporation into shares, obligations or other securities of the surviving corporation or of any other corporation or, in whole or in part, into cash or other property.

4. The date on which the merger shall become effective which may be any date identified by year, month and day not more than ninety days in the future. In the absence of any statement in the plan of merger as to the date on which the merger shall become effective, such merger shall become effective on the date on which the secretary of state issues the certificate of merger.

5. A statement of any changes in the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation to be effected by such merger.

6. Such other provisions with respect to the proposed merger as are deemed necessary or desirable.

The purchase by a corporation of all, or substantially all, of the assets of another corporation, domestic or foreign, followed by dissolution of the selling corporation, shall not, by itself, constitute a merger of such corporations.

Any two or more domestic corporations may consolidate into a new corporation pursuant to a plan of consolidation approved in the manner provided in this chapter.

The board of directors of each corporation shall, by a resolution adopted by each such board, approve a plan of consolidation setting forth:

1. The names of the corporations proposing to consolidate, and the name of the new corporation into which they propose to consolidate, which is hereinafter designated as the new corporation.

2. The terms and conditions of the proposed consolidation.

3. The manner and basis of converting the shares of each corporation into shares, obligations or other securities of the new corporation or of any other corporation, in whole or in part, into cash or other property.

4. The date on which the consolidation shall become effective which may be any date identified by year, month and day not more than ninety days in the future. In the absence of any statement in the plan of consolidation as to the date on which the consolidation shall become effective, such consolidation shall become effective on the date on which the secretary of state issues the certificate of consolidation.

5. With respect to the new corporation, all of the statements required to be set forth in articles of incorporation for corporations organized under this chapter.

6. Such other provisions with respect to the proposed consolidation as are deemed necessary or desirable.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.69]

496A.70 Approval by shareholders.

The board of directors of each corporation, upon approving such plan of merger or plan of consolidation, shall, by resolution, direct that the plan be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written or printed notice shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than twenty days before such meeting, in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders, and shall state the purpose of the meeting, whether the meeting be an annual or a special meeting. A copy or a summary of the plan of merger or plan of consolidation, as the case may be, shall be included in or enclosed with such notice.

At each such meeting, a vote of the shareholders shall be taken on the proposed plan of merger or consolidation. Each outstanding share of each such corporation shall be entitled to vote on the proposed plan of merger or consolidation, whether or not such share has voting rights under the provisions of the articles of incorporation of such corporation. The plan of merger or consolidation shall be approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each such corporation, unless any class of shares of any such corporation is entitled to vote as a class thereof, in which event, as to such corporation, the plan of merger or consolidation shall be approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon and of the total outstanding shares. Any class of shares of any such corporation shall be entitled to vote as a class if the plan of merger or consolidation, as the case may be, contains any provision which, if contained in a proposed amendment to the articles of incorporation, would entitle such class of shares to vote as a class.

After such approval by a vote of the shareholders of each corporation, and at any time prior to the filing of the articles of merger or consolidation, the merger or consolidation may be abandoned pursuant to provisions therefor, if any, set forth in the plan of merger or consolidation.

Notwithstanding the voting requirements set forth in this section, unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, no vote of the shareholders of a constituent corporation surviving a merger shall be necessary to authorize a merger if (1) the plan of merger does not effect any amendment to the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation, and (2) the number of authorized unissued shares or treasury shares of any class of the surviving corporation to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger does not exceed fifteen percent of the shares of the surviving corporation of the same class outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger.

§496A.71 Articles of merger or consolidation.

Upon such approval, articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall be executed by each corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of the officers of each corporation signing such articles, and shall set forth:

1. The plan of merger or the plan of consolidation.
2. As to each corporation, the number of shares outstanding, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the designation and number of outstanding shares of each such class.
3. As to each corporation, the number of shares voted for and against such plan, respectively, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against such plan, respectively. If a plan of merger is adopted by the constituent corporation surviving the merger, by action of its board of directors and without the vote of its shareholders pursuant to the provisions of section 496A.70, then that fact shall be stated in the articles of merger in lieu of the information as to voting of shares which would otherwise be required by this subsection.

The articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which the registered office of each domestic merging or consolidating corporation is located prior to the merger or consolidation and, if the new corporation into which the corporations have consolidated is a domestic corporation, in the office of the recorder of the county in which the registered office of the new corporation is located.

The secretary of state upon the filing of the articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall issue a certificate of merger or a certificate of consolidation and send the same to the surviving or new corporation as the case may be, or to its representative.

§496A.72 Merger of subsidiary corporation.

1. Any corporation owning at least ninety percent of the outstanding shares of each class of another corporation may merge such other corporation into itself without approval by a vote of the shareholders of either corporation. Its board of directors shall, by resolution, approve a plan of merger setting forth:
   a. The name of the subsidiary corporation and the name of the corporation owning at least ninety percent of its shares, which is hereinafter designated as the surviving corporation.
   b. The manner and basis of converting the shares of the subsidiary corporation into shares, obligations or other securities of the surviving corporation or of any other corporation, or in whole or in part, into cash or other property. A copy of such plan of merger shall be mailed to each shareholder of record of the subsidiary corporation other than the surviving corporation.
2. Articles of merger shall be executed by the surviving corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of its officers signing such articles, and shall set forth:
   a. The plan of merger;
   b. The number of outstanding shares of each class of the subsidiary corporation and the number of such shares of each class owned by the surviving corporation; and
   c. The date of the mailing to shareholders of the subsidiary corporation other than the surviving corporation of a copy of the plan of merger. If the surviving corporation is the owner of all of the issued shares of the other corporation, the plan of merger may contain in lieu of such statement as to mailing, a statement that the surviving corporation is the owner of all such issued shares and that the surviving corporation waived the mailing of a copy of the plan of merger.

The articles of merger shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder.

The secretary of state upon filing the articles of merger shall issue a certificate of merger, and send the same to the surviving corporation or its representative.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.72]

§496A.73 Effect of merger or consolidation.

Upon the issuance of the certificate of merger or the certificate of consolidation by the secretary of state, the merger or consolidation shall become effective unless the certificate in conformity with a provision in the articles of merger or articles of consolidation provides that it shall become effective on a stated date not more than ninety days in the future in which event the merger or consolidation shall without further action by either the corporation or the secretary of state become effective on the day so stated.

When such merger or consolidation has been effected:

1. The several corporations parties to the plan of merger or consolidation shall be a single corporation, which, in the case of a merger, shall be that corporation designated in the plan of merger as the surviving corporation, and, in the case of consolidation, shall be the new corporation provided for in the plan of consolidation.
2. The separate existence of all corporations parties to the plan of merger or consolidation, except the surviving or new corporation, shall cease.
3. Such surviving or new corporation, if to exist under the laws of this state, shall have all the rights, privileges, immunities and powers and shall be subject to all the duties and liabilities of a corporation organized under this chapter.
4. Such surviving or new corporation shall thereupon and thereafter possess all the rights, privileges, immunities, and franchises, as well of a public as of a private nature, of each of the merging or consolidating corporations; and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due on whatever account, including subscriptions to shares, and all other choses in action, and all and every other interest, of or belonging to or due to each of the corporations so merged or consolidated, shall be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in such single corporation without further act or deed; and the title to any real estate, or any interest therein, vested in any of such corporations shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of such merger or consolidation.
5. Such surviving or new corporation shall thenceforth be responsible and liable for all the liabilities and obligations of each of the corporations so merged or consolidated; and any claim existing or action or proceeding pending by or against any of such corporations may be prosecuted as if such merger or consolidation had not taken place, or such surviving or new corporation may be substituted in its place. Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of any such corporation shall be impaired by such merger or consolidation.

6. In the case of a merger, the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation shall be deemed to be amended to the extent, if any, that changes in its articles of incorporation are stated in the plan of merger; and, in the case of a consolidation, the statements set forth in the articles of consolidation and which are required or permitted to be set forth in the articles of incorporation of corporations organized under this chapter shall be deemed to be the original articles of incorporation of the new corporation.

7. The aggregate amount of the net assets of the merging or consolidating corporations which was available for the payment of dividends immediately prior to such merger or consolidation, to the extent that the amount thereof is not transferred to stated capital by the issuance of shares or otherwise, shall continue to be available for the payment of dividends by such surviving or new corporation.

496A.74 Merger or consolidation of domestic and foreign corporations.

One or more foreign corporations and one or more domestic corporations may be merged or consolidated in the following manner, if such merger or consolidation is permitted by the laws of the state under which each such foreign corporation is organized:

1. Each domestic corporation shall comply with the provisions of this chapter with respect to the merger or consolidation, as the case may be, of domestic corporations and each foreign corporation shall comply with the applicable provisions of the laws of the state under which it is organized.

2. If the surviving or new corporation, as the case may be, is to be governed by the laws of any state other than this state, it shall comply with the provisions of the laws of this state with respect to qualifications of foreign corporations if it is to transact business in this state, and in every case it shall file with the secretary of state of this state:
   a. An agreement that it may be served with process in this state in any proceeding for the enforcement of any obligation of any domestic corporation which is a party to such merger or consolidation and in any proceeding for the enforcement of the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any such domestic corporation against the surviving or new corporation;
   b. An irrevocable appointment of the secretary of state of this state as its agent to accept service of process in any such proceeding; and
   c. An agreement that it will promptly pay to the dissenting shareholders of any such domestic corporation the amount, if any, to which they shall be entitled under the provisions of this chapter with respect to the rights of dissenting shareholders.

The effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations, if the surviving or new corporation is to be governed by the laws of this state. If the surviving or new corporation is to be governed by the laws of any state other than this state, the effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations except insofar as the laws of such other state provide otherwise.

At any time prior to the filing of the articles of merger or consolidation, the merger or consolidation may be abandoned pursuant to the provisions therefor, if any, set forth in the plan of merger or consolidation.

The purchase by a corporation, domestic or foreign, of all, or substantially all, of the assets of another corporation, domestic or foreign, followed by dissolution of the selling corporation, shall not, by itself, constitute a merger of such corporations.

496A.75 Sale or other disposition of assets in regular course of business and mortgage or pledge of assets.

The sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of a corporation, when made in the usual and regular course of the business of the corporation, and the mortgage or pledge of any or all of the property and assets of the corporation may be made upon such terms and conditions and for such considerations, which may consist in whole or in part of money or property, real or personal, including shares of any other corporation, domestic or foreign, as shall be authorized by its board of directors; and in such case no authorization or consent of the shareholders shall be required.

496A.76 Sale or other disposition of assets other than in regular course of business.

A sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets, with or without the good will, of a corporation, if not made in the usual and regular course of its business, may be made upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration, which may consist in whole or in part of money or property, real or personal, including shares of any other corporation, domestic or foreign, as may be authorized in the following manner:

1. The board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending such sale, lease, exchange or other disposition and directing the submission thereof to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

2. Written or printed notice shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders, and, whether the meeting be an annual or a special meeting, shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the proposed sale, lease, exchange or other disposition.

3. At such meeting the shareholders may authorize such sale, lease, exchange or other disposition and may fix, or may authorize the board of directors to fix, any or all of the terms and conditions thereof and the consideration to be received by the corporation therefor. Such authorization shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote thereon, unless any class of shares is entitled to vote as a class thereon, in which event such authorization shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon and of the total outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon.

4. After such authorization by a vote of shareholders, the board of directors nevertheless, in its discretion, may abandon such sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of assets, subject to the rights of third parties under any contracts relating thereto, without further action or approval by shareholders.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.76]

496A.77 Right of shareholders to dissent.
Any shareholder of a corporation shall have the right to dissent from any of the following corporate actions:
1. Any plan of merger or consolidation to which the corporation is a party; or
2. Any sale or exchange of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation, otherwise than in the usual and regular course of its business.

A shareholder may dissent as to less than all of the shares registered in the shareholder's name. In that event, the shareholder's rights shall be determined as if the shares as to which the shareholder has dissented and the shareholder's other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

This section shall not apply to the shareholders of the surviving corporation in a merger if such corporation is on the date of the filing of the articles of merger the owner of all outstanding shares of the other corporations, domestic or foreign, which are parties to the merger or if a vote of the shareholders of such corporation is not necessary to authorize such merger. Nor shall it apply to the holders of shares of any class or series if the shares of such class or series were registered on a national securities exchange on the date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of shareholders at which a plan of merger or consolidation or a proposed sale or exchange of property and assets is to be acted upon unless the articles of incorporation of the corporation shall otherwise provide.

496A.78 Rights of dissenting shareholders.
Any shareholder electing to exercise such right of dissent shall file with the corporation, prior to or at the meeting of shareholders at which such proposed corporate action is submitted to a vote, a written objection to such proposed corporation action. If such proposed corporate action be approved by the required vote and such shareholder shall not have voted in favor thereof, such shareholder may, within ten days after the date on which the vote was taken, or if a corporation is to be merged without a vote of its shareholders into another corporation, any of its shareholders may, within ten days after the plan of such merger shall have been mailed to such shareholders make written demand on the corporation, or, in the case of a merger or consolidation, on the surviving or new corporation, domestic or foreign, for payment of the fair value of such shareholder's shares and, if such proposed corporate action is effected, such corporation shall pay to such shareholder, upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing such shares, the fair value thereof as of the day prior to the date on which the vote was taken approving the proposed corporate action, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of such corporate action. Any shareholder failing to make demand within the ten-day period shall be bound by the terms of the proposed corporate action. If the proposed corporate action shall be abandoned or rescinded or the shareholders shall revoke the authority to effect such action, then the right of such shareholder to be paid the fair value of the shareholder's shares shall cease and that person's status as a shareholder shall be restored, without prejudice to any corporate proceedings which may have been taken during the interim.

Within twenty days after such corporate action is effected, the corporation, or, in the case of a merger or consolidation, the surviving or new corporation, domestic or foreign, shall give written notice thereof to each dissenting shareholder who has made demand as herein provided, and shall make a written offer to each such shareholder to pay for such shares at a specified price deemed by such corporation to be the fair value thereof. Such notice and offer shall be accompanied by a balance sheet of the corporation the shares of which the dissenting shareholder holds, as of the latest available date and not more than twelve months prior to the making of such offer, and a profit and loss statement of such corporation for the twelve months' period ended on the date of such balance sheet.

If within thirty days after the date on which such corporate action was effected the fair value of such shares is agreed upon between any such dissenting shareholder and the corporation, payment therefor shall be made within ninety days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing such shares. Upon payment of the agreed value the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares.

If within such period of thirty days the dissenting shareholder and the corporation do not agree, then the dissenting shareholder may, within sixty days after the expiration of the thirty-day period, file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction within the state and county thereof in which the registered office or principal place of business of the corporation is situated asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of such shares, and shall be entitled to judgment against the corporation for the amount of such fair value as of the day prior to the date on which such vote was taken approving such corporate action, together with interest thereon at the rate of five percent per annum to the date of such judgment. The action shall be prosecuted as an equitable action and the practice and procedure shall be in accordance with such practice and procedure in equity cases. The judgment shall be payable only upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the corporation of the certificate or certificates representing such shares.
Upon payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares. Unless the dissenting shareholder shall file such petition within the time herein limited, such shareholder and all persons claiming under the shareholder shall be conclusively presumed to have approved and ratified the corporate action and shall be bound by the terms thereof.

Shares acquired by a corporation pursuant to payment of the agreed value therefor or to payment of the judgment entered therefor, as in this section provided, may be held and disposed of by such corporation as in the case of other treasury shares, except that, in the case of a merger or consolidation, they may be held and disposed of as the plan of merger or consolidation may otherwise provide.

496A.79 Voluntary dissolution by incorporators.

A corporation which has not commenced business and which has not issued any shares, may be voluntarily dissolved by its incorporators at any time after the date of the issuance of its certificate of incorporation, in the following manner:

1. Articles of dissolution shall be executed by a majority of the incorporators, and verified by them, and shall set forth:
   a. The name of the corporation.
   b. The date of issuance of its certificate of incorporation.
   c. That none of its shares has been issued.
   d. That the corporation has not commenced business.
   e. That the amount, if any, actually paid in on subscriptions for its shares, less any part thereof disbursed for necessary expenses, has been returned to those entitled thereto.
   f. That no debts of the corporation remain unpaid.
   g. That they elect that the corporation be dissolved.

2. The articles of dissolution shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the office of the county recorder.

The secretary of state upon filing the articles of dissolution shall issue a certificate of dissolution and recorded in the office of the county recorder.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.79]

496A.80 Voluntary dissolution by consent of shareholders.

A corporation may be voluntarily dissolved by the written consent of all of its shareholders.

Upon the execution of such written consent, a statement of intent to dissolve shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, which statement shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. The names and respective addresses of its officers.
3. The names and respective addresses of its directors.
4. A copy of the written consent signed by all shareholders of the corporation.
5. A statement that such written consent has been signed by all shareholders of the corporation or signed in their names by their attorneys thereunto duly authorized.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.80]

496A.81 Voluntary dissolution by act of corporation.

A corporation may be dissolved by the act of the corporation, when authorized in the following manner:

1. The board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending that the corporation be dissolved, and directing that the question of such dissolution be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

2. Written or printed notice shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders, and, whether the meeting be an annual or special meeting, shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the advisability of dissolving the corporation.

3. At such meeting a vote of shareholders entitled to vote thereat shall be taken on a resolution to dissolve the corporation. Such resolution shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote upon the question of dissolution, unless any class of shares is entitled to vote as a class thereon, in which event the resolution shall require for its adoption the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon, and of the total outstanding shares entitled to vote upon the question of dissolution.

4. Upon the adoption of such resolution, a statement of intent to dissolve shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, which statement shall set forth:

   a. The name of the corporation.
   b. The names and respective addresses of its officers.
   c. The names and respective addresses of its directors.
   d. A copy of the resolution adopted by the shareholders authorizing the dissolution of the corporation.
   e. The number of shares outstanding, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the designation and number of outstanding shares of each such class.
   f. The number of shares voted for and against the resolution, respectively, and if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against the resolution, respectively.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.81]

496A.82 Filing of statement of intent to dissolve.

The statement of intent to dissolve, whether by consent of shareholders or by act of the corporation, shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A 82]

496A.83 Effect of statement of intent to dissolve.

Upon the filing by the secretary of state of a statement of intent to dissolve, whether by consent of shareholders or by act of the corporation, the corporation shall cease to carry on its business, except as far as may be necessary for the winding up thereof, but its corporate existence shall continue until a certificate of dissolution has been issued by the secretary of state or until a decree dissolving the corporation has been entered by a court of competent jurisdiction as in this chapter provided [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A 83]

496A.84 Procedure after filing of statement of intent to dissolve.

After the filing by the secretary of state of a statement of intent to dissolve
1 The corporation shall proceed to collect its assets, convey and dispose of such of its properties as are not to be distributed in kind to its shareholders, pay, satisfy and discharge its liabilities and obligations and do all other acts required to liquidate its business and affairs, and, after paying or adequately providing for the payment of all its obligations, distribute the remainder of its assets, either in cash or in kind, among its shareholders according to their respective rights and interests
2 The corporation, at any time during the liquidation of its business and affairs, may make application to the district court in and for the county in which the registered office or principal place of business of the corporation is situated, to have the liquidation continued under the supervision of the court as provided in this chapter [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A 84]

496A.85 Revocation of voluntary dissolution proceedings by consent of shareholders.

By the written consent of all of its shareholders, a corporation may, at any time prior to the issuance of a certificate of dissolution by the secretary of state, revoke voluntary dissolution proceedings theretofore taken, in the following manner
Upon the execution of such written consent, a statement of revocation of voluntary dissolution proceedings shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of the officers signing such statement, which statement shall set forth
1 The name of the corporation
2 The names and respective addresses of its officers
3 The names and respective addresses of its directors
4 A copy of the written consent signed by all shareholders of the corporation revoking such voluntary dissolution proceedings
5 That such written consent has been signed by all shareholders of the corporation or signed in their names by their attorneys thereunto duly authorized [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A 85]

496A.86 Revocation of voluntary dissolution proceedings by act of corporation.

By the act of the corporation, a corporation may, at any time prior to the issuance of a certificate of dissolution by the secretary of state, revoke voluntary dissolution proceedings theretofore taken, in the following manner
1 The board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending that the voluntary dissolution proceedings be revoked, and directing that the question of such revocation be submitted to a vote at a special meeting of shareholders
2 Written or printed notice stating that the purpose or one of the purposes of such meeting is to consider the advisability of revoking the voluntary dissolution proceedings, shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of special meetings of shareholders
3 At such meeting a vote of shareholders entitled to vote thereat shall be taken on a resolution to revoke the voluntary dissolution proceedings. Such resolution shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the corporation then entitled to vote upon the question of dissolution, unless any class of shares is entitled to vote as a class thereon, in which event the resolution shall require for its adoption the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon, and of the total outstanding shares entitled to vote upon the question of dissolution
4 Upon the adoption of such resolution, a statement of revocation of voluntary dissolution proceedings shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of the officers signing such statement, which statement shall set forth
a The name of the corporation
b The names and respective addresses of its officers
c The names and respective addresses of its directors
d A copy of the resolution adopted by the shareholders revoking the voluntary dissolution proceedings
e The number of shares outstanding, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the designation and number of outstanding shares of each such class
f The number of shares voted for and against the resolution, respectively, and if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against the resolution, respectively [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A 86]

496A.87 Filing of statement of revocation of voluntary dissolution proceedings.

The statement of revocation of voluntary dissolution proceedings, whether by consent of shareholders or by act of the corporation, shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state’s office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A 87] §496A.88 Effect of statement of revocation of voluntary dissolution proceedings.

Upon the filing by the secretary of state of a statement of revocation of voluntary dissolution proceedings, whether by consent of shareholders or by act of the corporation, the revocation of the voluntary dissolution proceedings shall become effective and the corporation may again carry on its business.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.88]

496A.89 Articles of dissolution.

If voluntary dissolution proceedings have not been revoked, then when all debts, liabilities and obligations of the corporation have been paid or otherwise discharged, or adequate provision has been made therefor, and all of the remaining property and assets of the corporation have been distributed to its shareholders, articles of dissolution shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, which statement shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. That the secretary of state has theretofore filed a statement of intent to dissolve the corporation, and the date on which such statement was filed.
3. That all debts, obligations and liabilities of the corporation have been paid or otherwise discharged or that adequate provision has been made therefor.
4. That all the remaining property and assets of the corporation have been distributed among its shareholders in accordance with their respective rights and interests.
5. That there are no suits pending against the corporation in any court, or that adequate provision has been made for the satisfaction of any judgment, order or decree which may be entered against it in any pending suit.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.89]

496A.90 Filing of articles of dissolution.

Such articles of dissolution shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder.

The secretary of state upon filing the articles of dissolution shall issue a certificate of dissolution, and send the same to the representative of the dissolved corporation. Upon the issuance of such certificate of dissolution the existence of the corporation shall cease, except for the purpose of suits, other proceedings and appropriate corporate action by shareholders, directors and officers as provided in this chapter.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.90]

496A.91 Involuntary dissolution.

A corporation may be dissolved involuntarily by a decree of the district court in a suit filed by the attorney general when it is established that it is in default in any of the following particulars:

1. The corporation has failed to file its annual report within the time required by law, or has failed to pay any fees, or penalties prescribed by this chapter when the same have become due and payable; or
2. The corporation has failed to maintain a record in the secretary of state's office of its registered office and agent in this state as required by law.

3. The corporation has failed or refused to file a statement or report, or obey a subpoena issued by the attorney general, as provided in section 714.16.

A corporation may be dissolved involuntarily by order of the secretary of state if all notices have been sent to the corporation by the secretary of state as required by section 496A.92 and the corporation shall have failed to file an annual report or pay an annual license fee as required by this chapter for three consecutive years and shall not have been otherwise dissolved. The order of the secretary of state for the dissolution of such a corporation shall be entered in a permanent journal therefor maintained by the secretary in the secretary of state's office and may be entered therein by the secretary at any time after the last day for the filing of such third annual report. Upon the entry of such an order of dissolution of a corporation, the existence of the corporation shall cease, except for the purpose of suits, other proceedings and appropriate corporate action by shareholders, directors and officers as provided in this chapter and the corporation shall proceed to liquidate its business and affairs as provided by this chapter in cases of dissolution by consent of shareholders or by act of the corporation, provided, however, that the district court in a suit in equity shall have full power to liquidate the assets and business of such a corporation upon application by such corporation or in a suit by a shareholder or creditor of such corporation when such corporation fails to proceed promptly with such liquidation or to make application to court therefor. Such an order of dissolution of a corporation certified by the secretary of state shall be taken and received in all courts as prima-facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

496A.92 Notification and action by the attorney general.

The secretary of state, on or before the first day of November of each year, shall certify to the attorney general the names of all corporations which have failed to file their annual reports or to pay annual license fees in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, together with the facts pertinent thereto. The attorney general shall also certify, from time to time, the names of all corporations which have given other cause for dissolution as provided in this chapter, together with the facts pertinent thereto. Whenever the secretary of state shall certify the name of a corporation to the attorney general as having given any cause for dissolution the secretary of state shall certify the name of a corporation to the attorney general or registered or certified mail concurrently send to the corporation at its registered office, a notice that such certification has been made and the grounds therefor. Upon the expiration of thirty days from the receipt of such certification, the attorney general, if the attorney general believes one or more probable grounds for dissolution exist, shall file suit in equity in the name of the state against such corporation for its dissolution. Every such certificate from the secretary of state to the attorney general pertaining to the failure of a corporation to file an annual report or pay an annual license fee shall be taken and received in all courts as prima-facie evidence of the facts therein stated. If, before suit is filed, the corporation shall cure the default constituting the cause for dissolution, such fact shall be forthwith certified by the secretary of state to the attorney general and the attorney general shall not file suit against such corporation for such cause. If, after suit is filed, the corporation shall cure the default constituting the cause for dissolution and shall pay the costs of such suit, the suit for such cause shall be dismissed.

In addition to any other remedies provided by law, a corporation may be dissolved involuntarily by a decree of the district court in a suit filed by the attorney general when it is established that the franchise of the corporation was procured through fraud or that the corporation has continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred upon it by law.

496A.93 Venue and process.

A suit in equity commenced by the attorney general for the involuntary dissolution of a corporation shall be brought in the district court of the county in which the registered office or principal office of the corporation is situated. Original notice shall be served as in other civil actions.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.93]

496A.94 Jurisdiction of court to liquidate assets and business of corporation.

The district court in a suit in equity shall have full power to liquidate the assets and business of a corporation:

1. In a suit by a shareholder when it is established:
   a. That the directors are deadlock in the management of the corporate affairs and the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock, and that irreparable injury to the corporation is being suffered or is threatened by reason thereof; or
   b. That the shareholders are deadlocked in voting power, and have failed, for a period which includes at least two consecutive annual meeting dates, to elect successors to directors whose term has expired or would have expired upon the election of their successors; or
   c. That the acts of the directors or those in control of the corporation are illegal, oppressive or fraudulent; or
   d. That as shown by the proceedings at any meeting of the shareholders the shareholders are deadlocked in voting power and that irreparable injury to the corporation is being suffered or is threatened by reason thereof; or
   e. That the corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted.

2. In a suit by a creditor:
   a. When the claim of the creditor has been reduced to judgment which has become final, and an execution thereon returned unsatisfied and it is established that the corporation is insolvent; or
   b. When the corporation has admitted in writing that the claim of the creditor is due and owing and it is established that the corporation is insolvent.

3. Upon application by a corporation which has filed a statement of intent to dissolve, as provided in this chapter, to have its liquidation continued under the supervision of the court.

4. When a suit has been filed by the attorney general to dissolve a corporation and it is established that liquidation of its business and affairs should precede the entry of a decree of dissolution.

5. Upon application by the board of directors when it is established that circumstances make it impossible to obtain a representative vote by shareholders on the question of dissolution and that the continuation of the business of the corporation is not in the interest of the shareholders but it is desirable in their interest that the assets and business be liquidated.

Proceedings under this section shall be brought in the county in which the registered office or the principal office of the corporation is situated.

It shall not be necessary to make shareholders parties to any such suit or proceeding unless relief is sought against them personally.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.94]

496A.95 Procedure in liquidation of corporation by court.

In proceedings to liquidate the assets and business of a corporation the court shall have power to issue injunctions, to appoint a receiver or receivers pendente lite, with such powers and duties as the court, from time to time, may direct, and to take such other proceedings as may be requisite to preserve the corporate assets wherever situated, and carry on the business of the corporation until a full hearing can be had.

After a hearing had upon such notice as the court may direct to be given to all parties to the proceedings and to any other parties in interest designated by the court, the court may appoint a liquidating receiver or receivers with authority to collect the assets of the corporation, including all amounts owing to the corporation by shareholders on account of any unpaid portion of the consideration for the issuance of shares. Such liquidating receiver or receivers shall have authority, subject to the order of the court, to sell, convey and dispose of all or any part of the assets of the corporation wherever situated, either at public or private sale. The assets of the corporation or the proceeds resulting from a sale, conveyance or other disposition thereof shall be applied to the expenses of such liquidation and to the payment of the liabilities and obligations of the corporation, and any remaining assets or proceeds shall be distributed among its shareholders according to their respective rights and interests. The order appointing such liquidating receiver or receivers shall state their powers and duties. Such powers and duties may be increased or diminished at any time during the proceedings.

The court shall have power to allow from time to time as expenses of the liquidation compensation to the receiver or receivers and to attorneys in the proceedings, and to direct the payment thereof out of the assets of the corporation or the proceeds of any sale or disposition of such assets.

A receiver of a corporation appointed under the provisions of this section shall have authority to sue and defend in all courts in the receiver's own name as receiver of such corporation. The court appointing such receiver shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the corporation and its property, wherever situated.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.95]

496A.96 Qualifications of receivers.

A receiver shall in all cases be a natural person or a corporation authorized to act as receiver, which corporation may be a domestic corporation or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, and shall in all cases give such bond as the court may direct with such sureties as the court may require.
[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.96]

496A.97 Filing of claims in liquidation proceedings.
In proceedings to liquidate the assets and business of a corporation the court may require all creditors of the corporation to file with the clerk of the court or with the receiver, in such form as the court may prescribe, proofs under oath of their respective claims. If the court requires the filing of claims it shall fix a date, which shall not be less than four months from the date of the order, as the last day for the filing of claims, and shall prescribe the notice that shall be given to creditors and claimants of the date so fixed. Prior to the date so fixed, the court may extend the time for the filing of claims. Creditors and claimants failing to file proofs of claim on or before the date so fixed may be barred, by order of court, from participating in the distribution of the assets of the corporation.

496A.98 Discontinuance of liquidation proceedings.
The liquidation of the assets and business of a corporation may be discontinued at any time during the liquidation proceedings when it is established that cause for liquidation no longer exists. In such event the court shall dismiss the proceedings and direct the receiver to redeliver to the corporation all its remaining property and assets.
[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.98]

496A.99 Decree of dissolution.
In proceedings to liquidate the assets and business of a corporation, when the costs and expenses of such proceedings and all debts, obligations and liabilities of the corporation shall have been paid and discharged and all of its remaining property and assets distributed to its shareholders, or in case its property and assets are not sufficient to satisfy and discharge such costs, expenses, debts and obligations, all the property and assets have been applied so far as they will go to their payment, the court shall enter a decree dissolving the corporation, whereupon the existence of the corporation shall cease.
[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.99]

496A.100 Filing of decree of dissolution.
In case the court shall enter a decree dissolving a corporation, it shall be the duty of the clerk of such court to cause certified copies of the decree to be filed with and recorded by the secretary of state and the county recorder of the county in which is located the corporation's registered office. No fee shall be charged by the secretary of state or said county recorder for the filing or recording thereof.

496A.101 Deposit with state treasurer of amount due certain shareholders and creditors.
1. Upon the voluntary or involuntary dissolution of a corporation the portion of the assets distributable to a creditor or shareholder who is unknown, or who is under disability and there is no person legally competent to receive such distributive portion, or who cannot be found after the exercise of reasonable diligence by the person or persons responsible for the distribution in liquidation of the corporation's assets, shall be reduced to cash and deposited with the state treasurer, together with a statement giving the name of the person, if known, entitled to such fund, that person's last known address, the amount of that person's distributive portion, and such other information about such person as the state treasurer may reasonably require, whereupon the person or persons responsible for the distribution in liquidation of the corporation's assets shall be released and discharged from any further liability with respect to the funds so deposited. The state treasurer shall issue the state treasurer's receipt for such fund and shall deposit same in a special account to be maintained by the state treasurer.
2. On receipt of satisfactory proof of ownership of or right to such fund within twenty years from the date such fund was so deposited, the state treasurer shall certify such fact to the director of revenue and finance, who shall issue proper warrant therefor drawn on the state treasurer in favor of the person or persons then entitled thereto. If no claimant has made satisfactory proof of right to such fund within twenty years from the time of such deposit, the state treasurer shall then cause to be published in one issue of a newspaper of general circulation in the county of the last registered office of the corporation, as shown by the records of the secretary of state, a notice of the proposed escheat of such fund, giving the name of the creditor or shareholder apparently entitled thereto, that person's last known address, if any, the amount of the fund so deposited, and the name of the dissolved corporation from whose assets such fund was derived. If no claimant makes satisfactory proof of right to such fund within two months from the time of such publication, the fund so unclaimed shall thereupon automatically escheat to and become the property of the general fund of the state.

496A.102 Survival of rights and remedies after dissolution or expiration.
The dissolution of a corporation or the expiration of its period of duration, shall not take away or impair any remedy available to or against such corporation, its directors, officers, or shareholders, for any right or claim existing, or any liability incurred, prior to such dissolution or expiration, if action or other proceeding thereon is commenced within two years after the date of such dissolution or expiration. Any such action or proceeding by or against the corporation may be prosecuted or defended by the corporation in its corporate name. The shareholders, directors and officers shall have power to take such corporate or other action as shall be appropriate to protect such remedy, right or claim. If the period of duration of a corporation has expired, it may, subject to the provisions of subsection 11 of section 496A.142, amend its articles of incorporation at any time within five years after the date of such expiration so as to extend its period of duration.
A corporation which has been dissolved or the period of duration of which has expired by limitation or otherwise, may nevertheless continue to act for the purpose of conveying title to its property, real and personal, and otherwise winding up its affairs.
496A.103 Admission of foreign corporation — nonadmitted organization.

1 No foreign corporation shall have the right to transact business in this state until it shall have procured a certificate of authority so to do from the secretary of state. No foreign corporation shall be entitled to procure a certificate of authority under this chapter to transact in this state any business which a corporation organized under this chapter is not permitted to transact. A foreign corporation shall not be denied a certificate of authority by reason of the fact that the laws of the state or country under which such corporation is organized governing its organization and internal affairs differ from the laws of this state, and nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed to authorize this state to regulate the organization of the internal affairs of such corporation.

2 Without excluding other activities which may not constitute transacting business in this state, a foreign corporation or nonadmitted organization shall not be considered to be transacting business in this state, for the purposes of this chapter, by reason of carrying on in this state any one or more of the following activities:

a. Maintaining or defending any action or suit or any administrative or arbitration proceeding, or effecting the settlement thereof or the settlement of claims or disputes.

b. Holding meetings of its directors or shareholders or carrying on other activities concerning its internal affairs.

c. Maintaining bank accounts.

d. Maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange and registration of its securities, or appointing and maintaining trustees or depositories with relation to its securities.

e. Effecting sales through independent contractors.

f. Soliciting or procuring orders, whether by mail or through employees or agents or otherwise, where such orders require acceptance without this state before becoming binding contracts.

g. Creating as borrower or lender, or acquiring, indebtedness or mortgages or other security interests in real or personal property.

h. Securing or collecting debts due it or enforcing any rights in property securing the same.

i. Transacting any business in interstate commerce.

j. Conducting an isolated transaction completed within a period of thirty days and not in the course of a number of repeated transactions of like nature.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A 103]

496A.104 Powers of foreign corporation.

A foreign corporation which shall have received a certificate of authority under this chapter shall, until a certificate of revocation or of withdrawal shall have been issued as provided in this chapter, enjoy the same, but no greater, rights and privileges as a domestic corporation organized for the purposes set forth in the application pursuant to which such certificate of authority is issued, and, except as in this chapter otherwise provided, shall be subject to the same duties, restrictions, penalties and liabilities now or hereafter imposed upon a domestic corporation of like character.

496A.105 Corporate name or trade of foreign corporation.

No certificate of authority shall be issued to a foreign corporation unless the corporate name of such corporation

1 Shall contain the word "corporation", "company", "incorporated", or "limited", or shall contain an abbreviation of one of such words, or such corporation shall, for use in this state, add at the end of its name one of such words or an abbreviation thereof.

2 Shall not contain any word or phrase which indicates or implies that it is organized for any purpose other than one or more of the purposes contained in its articles of incorporation.

3 Shall not be the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state or any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, or a name the exclusive right to which is, at the time, reserved in the manner provided in this chapter, or the name of a corporation which has in effect a registration of its name as provided in this chapter, or an assumed name which has been adopted by a domestic or a foreign corporation for use in this state in the manner provided by this chapter except that this provision shall not apply if the foreign corporation applying for a certificate of authority files with the secretary of state any one of the following:

a. A resolution of its board of directors adopting an assumed name for use in transacting business in this state which assumed name is not deceptively similar to the name of any domestic corporation or of any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state or to any name reserved or registered as provided in this chapter.

b. The written consent of such other corporation or holder of a reserved or registered name to use the same or deceptively similar name and one or more words are added to make such name distinguishable from such other name.

c. A certified copy of a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the prior right of such foreign corporation to the use of such name in this state.

The corporate name of such foreign corporation shall be the name under which the corporation shall transact its business in this state unless the corporation also shall elect to adopt one or more assumed names as provided in this chapter.

A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may elect to adopt an assumed name that is not the same as or deceptively similar to the corporate name of any domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state or of any other foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, or the same as or deceptively similar to any name registered or reserved under the provisions of this chapter.

An election shall be made by filing with the secretary of state an application executed by an officer of the corporation, setting forth the assumed name and paying to the secretary of state a filing fee of forty dollars.

If such assumed name complies with the provisions of this chapter, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate authorizing the use of said name, but such certificate shall not confer any right to the use of said name as against any person having any prior right to the use thereof.

At the time annual license fees are payable under this chapter, a foreign corporation which has elected to adopt an assumed name shall pay to the secretary of state an annual fee of ten dollars for the assumed name. However, if the assumed name was filed and became effective in December of any year, the first annual fee of ten dollars shall be paid at the time of filing of the annual report in the second year following that December.

If the corporation fails to pay the annual fee when due and payable, the secretary of state shall give notice to the corporation of the nonpayment by registered or certified mail, and if the fee together with a penalty of ten dollars is not paid within sixty days after notice is mailed, the right to use the assumed name shall cease.

A separate application and annual fee shall be filed and paid for each assumed name adopted by a foreign corporation.

496A.106 Change of name by foreign corporation.

Whenever a foreign corporation which is authorized to transact business in this state shall change its name to one under which a certificate of authority would not be granted to it on application therefor, the certificate of authority of such corporation shall be suspended and it shall not thereafter transact any business in this state until it has changed its name to a name which is available to it under the laws of this state.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A 106]

496A.107 Application for certificate of authority.

A foreign corporation, in order to procure a certificate of authority to transact business in this state, shall make application therefor to the secretary of state, which application shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation and the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.
2. If the name of the corporation does not contain the word "corporation", "company", "incorporated", or "limited", or does not contain an abbreviation of one of such words, then the name of the corporation with the word or abbreviation which it elects to add thereto for use in this state.
3. The date of incorporation and the period of duration of the corporation.
4. The address of the principal office of the corporation in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.
5. The address of the proposed registered office of the corporation in this state, and the name of its proposed registered agent or agents in this state at such address.
6. The purpose or purposes of the corporation which it proposes to pursue in the transaction of business in this state.
7. The names and respective addresses of the directors and officers of the corporation.
8. A statement of the aggregate number of shares which the corporation has authority to issue, itemized by classes, par value of shares, shares without par value, and series, if any, within a class.
9. A statement of the aggregate number of issued shares itemized by classes, par value of shares, shares without par value, and series, if any, within a class.
10. A statement, expressed in dollars, of the amount of stated capital of the corporation, as defined in this chapter.
11. An estimate, expressed in dollars, of the fair and reasonable value of all property to be employed and used in Iowa by the corporation during the year.

Such additional information as may be necessary or appropriate in order to enable the secretary of state to determine whether such corporation is entitled to a certificate of authority to transact business in this state and to determine the fees payable as in this chapter prescribed.

Such application shall be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state and shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary and verified by one of the officers signing such application.

496A.108 Filing of application for certificate of authority.

Duplicate originals of the application of the corporation for a certificate of authority, together with a certificate of good standing or existence, duly certified by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated, shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing in the secretary of state's office.

Upon the filing of the application the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of authority to transact business in this state to which the secretary shall affix the other duplicate original application, and send the same to the corporation or its representatives.

96 Acts, ch 1173, §2

496A 109 Effect of certificate of authority.

Upon the issuance of a certificate of authority by the secretary of state, the corporation shall be authorized to transact business in this state for those purposes set forth in its application, subject, however, to the right of this state to suspend or to revoke such authority as provided in this chapter.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A 109]

496A.110 Registered office and registered agent of foreign corporation.

Each foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state shall have and continuously maintain in this state:

1. A registered office which may be, but need not be, the same as its place of business in this state.
2. A registered agent or agents which may be either an individual resident in this state whose business office is identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, having a business office identical with such registered office.

496A.111 Change of registered office or registered agent of foreign corporation.

A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may change its registered office or change its registered agent or agents, or both office and agent or agents, upon filing in the office of the secretary of state a statement setting forth:
1. The name of the corporation.
2. The address of its then registered office.
3. If the address of its registered office be changed, the address to which the registered office is to be changed.
4. The name of its then registered agent or agents.
5. If its registered agent or agents be changed, the name of its successor registered agent or agents.
6. That the address of its registered office and the address of the business office of its registered agent or agents, as changed, will be identical.
7. That such change was authorized by resolution duly adopted by its board of directors.

Such statement shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president, and verified by that person, and delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that such statement conforms to the provisions of this chapter, the secretary shall file such statement in the secretary of state's office, and upon such filing the change of address of the registered office, or the appointment of a new registered agent or agents, or both, as the case may be, shall become effective.

Any registered agent of a foreign corporation may resign as such agent upon filing a written notice thereof, executed in duplicate, with the secretary of state, who shall forthwith mail a copy thereof to the corporation at its principal office in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated. The appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expiration of thirty days after receipt of such notice by the secretary of state.

If a registered agent of a corporation subject to this section changes its business address to another address within this state, this agent may change the address of the registered office of the agent's corporation by filing a statement for each corporation as required by this section or by filing a single statement covering all corporations named in such statement. However, such statement may be signed by the registered agent alone, must recite that a copy of the statement has been mailed to each corporation, and shall not be subject to the provisions of subsections 5 and 7 of this section.

3. That the corporation surrenders its authority to transact business in this state.
4. That the corporation revokes the authority of its registered agent or agents in this state to accept service of process and consents that service of process in any action, suit or proceeding based upon any cause of action arising in this state during the time the corporation was authorized to transact business in this state may thereafter be made on such corporation by service thereof on the secretary of state.
5. A post-office address to which the secretary of state may mail a copy of any process against the corporation that may be served on the secretary.
6. A statement of the aggregate number of shares which the corporation has authority to issue, itemized by classes, par value of shares, shares without par value, and series, if any, within a class, as of the date of such application.
7. A statement of the aggregate number of issued shares, itemized by classes, par value of shares, shares without par value, and series, if any, within a class, as of the date of such application.
8. A statement, expressed in dollars, of the amount of stated capital of the corporation, as of the date of such application.
9. Such additional information as may be necessary or appropriate in order to enable the secretary of state to determine and assess any unpaid fees payable by such foreign corporation as in this chapter prescribed.

The application for withdrawal shall be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state and shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing the application, or, if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver or trustee, shall be executed on behalf of the corporation by such receiver or trustee and verified by the receiver or trustee.

496A.117 Filing of application for withdrawal.
Duplicate originals of such application for withdrawal shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that such application conforms to the provisions of this chapter, the secretary shall, when all fees due the secretary of state have been paid as in this chapter prescribed:
1. Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word “Filed”, and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.
2. File one of such duplicate originals in the secretary of state’s office.
3. Issue a certificate of withdrawal to which the secretary of state shall affix the other duplicate original.

The certificate of withdrawal, together with the duplicate original of the application for withdrawal affixed thereto by the secretary of state, shall be returned to the corporation or its representative. Upon the issuance of such certificate of withdrawal, the authority of the corporation to transact business in this state shall cease.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.117]

496A.118 Revocation of certificate of authority.
The certificate of authority of a foreign corporation to transact business in this state may be revoked by the secretary of state upon the conditions prescribed in this section when:
1. The corporation has failed to file its annual report within the time required by this chapter, or has failed to pay any fees or penalties prescribed by this chapter when the same have become due and payable; or
2. The corporation has failed to appoint and maintain a registered agent in this state as required by this chapter; or
3. The corporation has failed, after change of its registered office or registered agent, to file in the office of the secretary of state a statement of such change as required by this chapter; or
4. A misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, report, affidavit, or other document submitted by such corporation pursuant to this chapter.
A certificate of authority of a foreign corporation shall not be revoked by the secretary of state unless the secretary has given the corporation not less than sixty days’ notice by mail addressed to the principal office of the corporation in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated, and the corporation fails prior to revocation to file the annual report, or pay the fees or penalties, or file the required statement of change of registered agent or registered office, or correct the misrepresentation.

496A.119 Issuance of certificate of revocation.
Upon revoking any such certificate of authority, the secretary of state shall:
1. Issue a certificate of revocation in duplicate.
2. File one of such certificates in the secretary of state’s office.
3. Mail to such corporation at the principal office of the corporation in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated a notice of such revocation accompanied by one of such certificates.

Upon the issuance of such certificate of revocation, the authority of the corporation to transact business in this state shall cease.

496A.120 Transacting business without certificate of authority.
No foreign corporation transacting business in this state without a certificate of authority shall be permitted to maintain any action, suit or proceeding in any court of this state, until such corporation shall have obtained a certificate of authority, nor shall any action, suit or proceeding be maintained in any court of this state by any successor or assignee of such corporation on any right, claim or demand arising out of the transacting of business by such corporation in this state, until a certificate of authority shall have been obtained by such corporation or by a corporation which has acquired all or substantially all of its assets; provided, however, that no foreign corporation transacting business in this state shall maintain any action, suit or proceeding in this state upon any contract made by it in this state prior to the effective date of this chapter unless prior to the making of such contract it shall have procured a permit to transact business in this state as required by the laws in force at the time of making such contract, which prohibition shall also apply to any assignee of such foreign corporation and to any person claiming under such assignee of such foreign corporation or under either of them.

The failure of a foreign corporation to obtain a certificate of authority to transact business in this state shall not impair the validity of any contract or act of such corporation, and shall not prevent such corporation from defending any action, suit or proceeding in any court of this state.

A foreign corporation which transacts business in this state without a certificate of authority shall be liable to this state, for the years or parts thereof during which it transacted business in this state without a certificate of authority, in an amount equal to all fees which would have been imposed by this chapter upon such corporation had it duly applied for and received a certificate of authority to transact business in this state as required by this chapter and thereafter filed all reports required by this chapter, plus all penalties imposed by this chapter for failure to pay such fees. The attorney general shall bring proceedings to recover all amounts due this state under the provisions of this section.

496A.121 Annual report of domestic and foreign corporations.

Each domestic corporation, and each foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, shall file, within the time prescribed by this chapter, an annual report setting forth:

1. The name of the corporation and the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.

2. The address of the registered office of the corporation in this state, and the name of its registered agent or agents in this state at such address, and, in the case of a foreign corporation, the address of its principal office in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.

3. A brief statement of the character of the business in which the corporation is actually engaged in this state.

4. The names and respective addresses of the directors and officers of the corporation.

5. A statement of the aggregate number of shares which the corporation has authority to issue, itemized by classes, par value of shares, shares without par value, and series, if any, within a class.

6. A statement of the aggregate number of issued shares, itemized by classes, par value of shares, shares without par value, and series, if any, within a class.

7. A statement, expressed in dollars, of the amount of stated capital of the corporation, as defined in this chapter.

8. A statement of the amount of land in this state owned by the corporation.

9. Whether the corporation is a family farm corporation as defined in section 172C.1.

10. In the case of a foreign corporation, a statement, expressed in dollars, of the fair and reasonable value of all property employed and used in Iowa by the corporation. If the foreign corporation elects to pay the annual license fee on the basis of its entire stated capital, then the information required by this subparagraph need not be set forth in such report.

11. Such additional information as may be necessary or appropriate to enable the secretary of state to determine the proper amount of license fees payable by such corporation.

The annual report shall be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state, and the information contained in the report shall be given as of the first day of January of the year in which the report is due. It shall be executed by the corporation by a representative duly authorized by the board of directors, or, if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver, trustee, or assignee for benefit of creditors, it shall be executed on behalf of the corporation by the receiver, trustee, or assignee.

86 Acts, ch 1173, §5, 6

496A.122 Filing of annual report of domestic and foreign corporations.

Such annual report of a domestic or foreign corporation shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing in the secretary of state's office between the first day of January and the thirty-first day of March of each year, except as otherwise provided in this section.

The first annual report of a domestic corporation shall be filed between the first day of January and the thirty-first day of March of the year next succeeding the calendar year in which its corporate existence began, or in which, by voluntary election to adopt the provisions of this chapter, it first became subject to the provisions of this chapter, except that if such existence began in December of any year, or by such adoption it first became subject to the provisions of this chapter in December of any year, its first annual report shall be filed between the first day of January and the thirty-first day of March of the year next succeeding the calendar year in which its certificate of authority was issued by the secretary of state except that if such certificate was issued in December of any year, its first annual report shall be filed between the first day of January and the thirty-first day of March of the second year succeeding the calendar year in which its corporate existence began, or in which, by such adoption, it first became subject to the provisions of this chapter.

The first annual report of a foreign corporation shall be filed between the first day of January and the thirty-first day of March of the year next succeeding the calendar year in which its certificate of authority was issued by the secretary of state and thereafter filed between the first day of January and the thirty-first day of March of the year next succeeding the calendar year in which such certificate was issued by the secretary of state.

Such report shall be deemed filed within the required time if deposited in the United States mail with postage prepaid in a sealed envelope, properly addressed and postmarked on or prior to the thirty-first day of March. If the secretary of state finds that such report conforms to the requirements of this chapter, and that all prior annual reports required by this chapter to be filed by such corporation or foreign corporation have been filed and that all annual license fees and penalties, if any, required by this chapter to have been theretofore paid by such corporation or foreign corporation have been paid the secretary shall file the same. If the secretary of state finds that it does not so conform, the secretary shall promptly return the same to the corporation for any necessary corrections in which event the penalties here inferred prescribed for failure to file such report within the time hereinabove provided shall not apply if such report is corrected to conform to the requirements of this chapter and is resubmitted to the secretary of state within thirty days from the date on which it was mailed to the corporation by the secretary of state but not later than July 1 of the year in which it is due

Provided that a domestic corporation having no stated capital, or a foreign corporation having no stated capital or no property in Iowa, shall pay an annual license fee of fifteen dollars
[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A 126, 81 Acts, ch 21, §9]
496A.127 Annual license fees payable by foreign corporations.

At the time of filing its annual report, each foreign corporation having a permit to transact business in this state shall pay to the secretary of state an annual license fee for the calendar year, which shall be due on January 1, payable March 31, to be based on the sum total of the fair and reasonable value of all property employed and used in Iowa as of January 1 of the year in which the report is due, without deductions of sums due and owing by said foreign corporation. The annual license fee to be paid by said foreign corporation shall be based upon the sum so computed which shall be considered the stated capital in this state for the purpose of said annual license fee, and the fees to be paid thereon shall be computed by applying the schedule of annual license fees as in this chapter prescribed for domestic corporations.

A foreign corporation shall have the option, if it so elects, to pay its annual license fee upon its total stated capital, and said fee shall be computed by applying the schedule of annual license fees as in this chapter prescribed for domestic corporations.

The minimum annual license fee shall be fifteen dollars.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A 127, 81 Acts, ch 21, §10]

496A.128 Collection of annual license fees.

It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to collect all annual license fees and penalties imposed by, or assessed in accordance with, this chapter.

Between the thirty first day of March and the first day of June of each year, the secretary of state shall determine the annual license fee payable by each corporation, domestic and foreign, required to file an annual report in such year, and if any such corporation has failed to file its annual report within the time prescribed by this chapter, or has failed to pay the amount of the annual license fee so determined, shall assess against such corporation the unpaid annual license fee and the penalty or penalties prescribed by this chapter, and mail a written notice to each corporation against which such an assessment is made, addressed to such corporation at its registered office in this state, notifying the corporation (1) of the amount of additional license fee and penalty assessed against it, (2) that objections, if any, to such assessment shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of June of such year, and (3) that such license fee and penalty shall be payable to the secretary of state on the first day of July next succeeding the date of the notice. Failure to receive such notice shall not relieve the corporation of its obligations to pay the license fee and penalty assessed, or invalidate the assessment thereof. The secretary of state shall have the power to hear and determine objections to any such assessment and, after hearing to change and modify the same in the event of any adjustment, the penalty shall be adjusted in accordance with the provisions of this chapter imposing such penalty. If the annual license fee determined to be payable shall be less than the amount theretofore paid by the corporation thereon, the excess shall be refunded, without interest by the secretary of state.

All annual license fees shall be due and payable on the thirty-first day of March of each year, and all assessments of annual license fees and penalties made by the secretary of state shall be due and payable on the first day of July. If the annual license fee payable by any corporation under the provisions of this chapter, together with all penalties assessed thereon, shall not be paid to the secretary of state on or before the thirty-first day of July of the year in which such fee is due and payable, the secretary of state shall certify such fact to the attorney general on or before the first day of November of such year, whereupon the attorney general may institute an action against such corporation in the name of this state, in any court of competent jurisdiction, for the recovery of the amount of such license fee and penalties, together with the cost of suit, and proceed to collect the same to final judgment.

496A.129 Credit against annual license fees.

Each domestic and foreign corporation which within twenty years prior to July 4, 1959 has paid a fee or fees to the secretary of state for the purposes hereinafter mentioned shall be entitled to a credit against annual license fees becoming due from such corporation pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, to be allowed and made available as hereinafter provided.

1. The fees on which said credit is based shall be, for each domestic corporation including each such corporation organized with a term of fifty years for the construction and operation or the operation alone of a steam railway, interurban railway or a street railway, the total of all fees set forth in paragraphs "a" to "e" below, inclusive, excluding therefrom those set forth in paragraphs "f" to "i" below, inclusive:

   a. All fees paid to the secretary of state within twenty years prior to July 4, 1959 by each such corporation as incorporation fees and fees for increase of capital stock paid pursuant to section 491 11 of the Code,

   b. Filing fees for the filing of amendments increasing capital stock which fees were computed on the basis of the amount of increase of capital stock and which were paid pursuant to section 491 20,

   c. Fees paid pursuant to section 491 20 by a corporation which was organized for a term of years and which became entitled to perpetual existence by an amendment to its articles of incorporation which amendment was filed under the authority of said section 491 20,

   d. Periodic fees paid pursuant to section 491 30, and

   e. Renewal fees referred to in section 491 25 and in section 491 28 which were paid in connection with the filing of an instrument or certificate which extended or renewed, for a term of years or perpetually, the existence of a corporation which previously had existence for a term of years, excluding, however, those fees mentioned in paragraph "i" below,

   The following fees shall be excluded from those on which said credit is based:

   f. That portion of all fees paid to the secretary of state as recording fees or certificate fees,

   g. Fees paid for renewal pursuant to the provisions of section 2 of chapter 47 of the laws of the Fifty seventh General Assembly,

   h. All incorporation fees and other fees paid to the secretary of state prior to the last renewal or extension of corporate existence by a domestic corporation which both incorporated and renewed or extended its corporate existence within twenty years prior to July 4, 1959, and

1 That portion of all fees paid pursuant to section 491 28 constituting the penalty of ten percent required to be paid by a corporation, the existence of which has expired, and which has failed to renew its existence within the period prescribed by statute

2 The fees on which said credit is based shall be, for each foreign corporation including those having a permit in this state for a term of fifty years for the construction and operation or the operation alone of a steam railway, interurban railway or street railway, the total of all fees set forth in paragraphs "a" to "e" below, inclusive, excluding therefrom those set forth in paragraphs "d" and "e" below a All fees paid to the secretary of state pursuant to section 494 4 within twenty years prior to July 4, 1959, by each such corporation as filing fees in connection with the qualification in this state of such corporation, b Renewal fees referred to in section 494 8 which were paid to the secretary of state within twenty years prior to July 4, 1959, in connection with the requalification of a foreign corporation, and c All fees paid to the secretary of state pursuant to section 494 5 within twenty years prior to July 4, 1959, by each such corporation for increase of money or property in use in this state

The following fees shall be excluded from those on which said credit is based

d All qualification fees paid pursuant to section 494 4, all requalification fees paid pursuant to section 494 8 and all fees for increase of money or property in use in this state paid to the secretary of state pursuant to section 494 5, prior to the last qualification or prior to the last requalification as the case may be, by a foreign corporation which has qualified or requalified more than once in the last twenty years prior to July 4, 1959, or which has both qualified and requalified within the last twenty years prior to July 4, 1959, and e Fees paid for renewal pursuant to the provisions of section 3 of chapter 47 of the laws of the Fifty seventh General Assembly

3 The credit shall be computed as follows

a As to each domestic corporation having existence for a term of years and as to each domestic corporation having perpetual existence but required by section 491 30 to pay periodic fees every twenty years or every fifty years, and as to each foreign corporation the total amount of said credit shall be one twentieth of the fees upon which said credit is based, as defined in subsection 1 or 2 above, as the case may be, multiplied by the number of full calendar years remaining between the year in which this chapter became effective and the year in which but for the adoption of this chapter, the corporation would again be required, if a domestic corporation organized for a term of years, to renew its existence and pay renewal fees under section 491 25 or if a domestic corporation having perpetual existence be required to pay periodic fees under section 491 30 or if a foreign corporation be required to requalify and pay fees therefor under section 494 8, subject to the limitation, however, that as to each domestic and foreign corporation organized for the construction and operation or the operation alone of a steam railway, interurban railway or street railway having a term of fifty years in this state or having a permit to transact business in this state for fifty years as the case may be, the amount of said credit shall not in any case be more than one twentieth of the fees upon which said credit is based as defined in subsection 1 or 2 above multiplied by twenty

b Upon this chapter becoming effective, the secretary of state shall compute for each domestic and foreign corporation the total amount of said credit to which it is entitled under this section and shall enter the amount thereof on the records in the secretary of state's office relating to each such corporation

c Each year the secretary of state in determining the annual license fee payable by each corporation, domestic and foreign, without request by said corporation, shall apply against such annual license fee the remaining unused total credit to which such corporation is entitled or a portion thereof subject to the following limitations

(1) The maximum amount of any such credit that may be applied against such annual license fee becoming due in any one year shall be an amount equal to fifty percent of the annual license fee becoming due from such domestic or foreign corporation in said year

(2) The credit herein provided for may not be applied to the extent that it would reduce the annual license fee below the minimum of fifteen dollars

(3) The credit herein provided for shall be allowed only against annual license fees coming due under this chapter and paid to the secretary of state within twenty years after July 4, 1959

(4) The credit herein provided for shall not be allowed against any portion of an annual license fee representing a penalty, whether the same be a penalty for failure to file annual report within the time prescribed by this chapter or a penalty for failure to pay annual license fee prior to delinquency thereof

(5) The maximum amount of any such credit for any domestic corporation which adopts this chapter after July 4, 1963, shall be an amount equal to one-twentieth of the fees upon which said credit is based, as defined in subparagraph (1) above, multiplied by the number of full calendar years remaining between the year in which this chapter is adopted by such corporation and the year in which, but for the adoption of this chapter, the corporation would again be required to renew its existence and pay renewal fees under section 491 25 or to pay periodic fees under section 491 30

the provisions of this chapter, the amount of the penalty shall be likewise adjusted to ten percent of the amount of the adjusted license fee. In no event shall such penalty be less than fifteen dollars. The amount of the license fee and the amount of the penalty shall be separately stated in any notice to the corporation with respect thereto.

If any portion of the annual license fee determined to be payable in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall not have been paid on or before the thirty first day of March, the same shall be deemed to be delinquent.

Each corporation, domestic or foreign, that fails or refuses to answer truthfully and fully within the time prescribed by this chapter interrogatories propounded by the secretary of state in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed to be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof may be fined in any amount not exceeding five hundred dollars.

The secretary of state may cancel the certificate of incorporation of any corporation that fails or refuses to file its annual report for any year prior to the first day of October of the year in which it is due or fails to pay prior to the first day of October any fees or penalties prescribed by this chapter by issuing a certificate of such cancellation at any time after the expiration of thirty days following the mailing to the corporation of notice of the certification to the attorney general of the failure of the corporation to file such annual report or pay such fees and penalties as required by section 496A 92, provided the corporation has not filed such annual report or paid such fees and penalties prior to the issuance of the certificate of cancellation. Upon the issuance of the certificate of cancellation, the secretary of state shall send the certificate to the corporation at its registered office and shall retain a copy thereof in the permanent records of the secretary of state's office.

Upon the issuance of the certificate of cancellation, the corporate existence of the corporation shall terminate, subject to right of reinstatement as herein provided, and the corporation shall cease to carry on its business, except in so far as may be necessary for the winding up thereof or for securing reinstatement and the right of the corporation to the use of its name shall cease and such name shall thereupon be available to any other corporation or foreign corporation or for reservation, registration or use as a trade name as provided in this chapter. The cancellation of the certificate of incorporation of a corporation shall not take away or impair any remedy available to or against such corporation, its directors, officers or shareholders for any right or claim existing or any liability incurred prior to such cancellation, but no action or proceeding thereon may be prosecuted by such corporation until it shall have been reinstated. Any such action or proceeding against such corporation may be defended by the corporation, if it has not been reinstated, in its corporate name to which there shall be appended the word “Canceled” followed by the date of the issuance of the certificate of cancellation. Unless the corporation is reinstated, the corporation, upon the issuance of the certificate of cancellation, shall proceed to liquidate its business and affairs as provided by this chapter in cases of dissolution by consent of shareholders or by act of the corporation, provided, however, that the district court in a suit in equity shall have full power to liquidate the assets and business of such a corporation upon application by such corporation or in a suit by a shareholder or creditor of such corporation when such corporation fails to proceed promptly with such liquidation or to make application to the court therefor. A copy of the certificate of cancellation, certified by the secretary of state, shall be taken and received in all courts as prima-facie evidence of the cancellation of the certificate of incorporation as stated therein.

If the certificate of incorporation of a corporation has been canceled by the secretary of state as provided in this section for failure to file an annual report, or failure to pay fees or penalties, the corporation shall be reinstated by the secretary of state at any time within ten years following the date of the issuance by the secretary of state of the certificate of cancellation upon:

1. The delivery by the corporation to the secretary of state for filing in the secretary of state's office of an application for reinstatement, executed by its president or vice president and by the secretary or an assistant secretary and verified by one of the officers signing such application, which shall set forth:
   a. The date of the issuance by the secretary of state of the certificate of cancellation,
   b. The name of the corporation at the time of the issuance of the certificate of cancellation and, if, at the time of the filing of the application for reinstatement, another corporation or foreign corporation is entitled to use such name or such name is then reserved or registered as provided in this chapter, the name of the corporation as changed, which shall be a name then available under the laws of this state, and
   c. The address, including street and number, if any, of the registered office of the corporation upon the reinstatement thereof, which shall be located in the same county as the county in which the registered office of the corporation was located at the time of the issuance of the certificate of cancellation, and the name of its registered agent or agents at such address upon the reinstatement of the corporation,

2. The filing with the secretary of state of the corporation of all annual reports then due and theretofore becoming due,

3. The payment to the secretary of state of the corporation of all annual license fees and penalties then due and theretofore becoming due and an additional penalty of two hundred dollars.

The secretary of state, upon filing the application for reinstatement, shall issue a certificate of reinstatement and file and record the same in the secretary of state's office and, if the application for reinstatement shall set forth a change in the name of the corporation, as required by this section, the certificate shall constitute an amendment to the articles of incorporation of the corporation and the certificate of reinstatement shall set forth such fact and shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder. Upon the issuance of the certificate of reinstatement, the corporation shall be entitled to continue to act as a corporation for the unexpired portion of its corporate period as fixed by its articles of incorporation, provided, however, that the corporation shall not be entitled to use the name of the corporation at the time of the issuance of the certificate of cancellation if another corporation or foreign corporation is entitled to use such name or such name is then reserved or registered as provided in this chapter.

496A.130 Penalties imposed upon officers and directors.
Each officer and director of a corporation, domestic or foreign, who willfully fails or refuses within the time prescribed by this chapter to answer truthfully and fully reasonable and proper interrogatories propounded to the officer or director by the secretary of state in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, or who signs any articles, statement, report, application or other document filed with the secretary of state which is known to such officer or director to be false in any material respect, shall be deemed to be guilty of a fraudulent practice.

496A.131 Interrogatories by secretary of state.
The secretary of state may propound to any corporation, domestic or foreign, subject to the provisions of this chapter, and to any officer or director thereof, such interrogatories as may be reasonably necessary and proper to enable the secretary to ascertain whether such corporation has complied with all the provisions of this chapter applicable to such corporation. Such interrogatories shall be answered within thirty days after the mailing thereof, or within such additional time as shall be fixed by the secretary of state, and the answers thereto shall be full and complete and shall be made in writing and under oath. If such interrogatories be directed to an individual they shall be answered by that individual, and if directed to a corporation they shall be answered by the president, vice president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, secretary or assistant secretary thereof. The secretary of state need not file any document to which such interrogatories relate until such interrogatories be answered as herein provided, and not then if the answers thereto disclose that such document is not in conformity with the provisions of this chapter. The secretary of state shall certify to the attorney general, for such action as the attorney general may deem appropriate, all interrogatories and answers thereto which disclose a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter.

496A.132 Information disclosed by interrogatories.
Interrogatories propounded by the secretary of state and the answers thereto shall not be open to public inspection nor shall the secretary of state disclose any facts or information obtained therefrom except insofar as required in the performance of the secretary of state's official duties.

496A.133 Powers of secretary of state.
The secretary of state shall have the power and authority reasonably necessary to enable the secretary to administer this chapter efficiently and to perform the duties therein imposed upon the secretary.

496A.134 Certificates and certified copies to be received in evidence.
All certificates issued by the secretary of state in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and copies of all documents filed or recorded in the secretary of state's office in accordance with the provisions of this chapter when certified by the secretary, shall be taken and received in all courts, public offices, and official bodies as prima-facie evidence of the existence or nonexistence of the facts therein stated. A certificate by the secretary of state under the seal of the secretary of state's office, as to the existence or nonexistence of the facts relating to corporations which would not appear from a certified copy of any of the foregoing documents or certificates shall be taken and received in all courts, public offices, and official bodies as prima-facie evidence of the existence or nonexistence of the facts therein stated.

496A.135 Judicial review.
If the secretary of state shall fail to approve any articles of incorporation, amendment, merger, consolidation or dissolution, or any other document required by this chapter to be approved by the secretary of state before the same shall be filed in the secretary of state's office, the secretary shall, within ten days after the delivery thereof to the secretary, give written notice of the secretary's disapproval to the person or corporation, domestic or foreign, delivering the same, specifying the reasons therefor. Judicial review of the acts of the secretary of state may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, petitions for judicial review may be filed in the district court of the county in which the registered office of such corporation is, or is proposed to be, situated.

If the secretary of state shall revoke the certificate of authority to transact business in this state of any foreign corporation, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, judicial review of such action of the secretary of state may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, petitions for judicial review may be filed in the district court of the county where the registered office of such corporation in this state is situated.

496A.136 Forms to be furnished by secretary of state.
All reports required by this chapter to be filed in the office of the secretary of state shall be made on forms which shall be prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state. Forms for other documents to be filed in the office of the secretary of state may be furnished by the secretary of state on request therefor, but the use thereof, unless otherwise specifically prescribed in this chapter, shall not be mandatory.

496A.137 Voting requirements.
Whenever, with respect to any action to be taken by the shareholders of a corporation, the articles of incorporation require the vote or concurrence of the holders of a greater proportion of the shares, or of any class or series thereof, than required by this chapter with respect to such action, the provisions of the articles of incorporation shall control.
496A.139 Waiver of notice.
Whenever any notice is required to be given to any shareholder or director of a corporation under the provisions of this chapter or under the provisions of the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice.

496A.140 Informal action by shareholders or directors.
Any action required by this chapter to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders or directors of a corporation, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders or directors or of a committee of directors, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof or all of the directors or all of the members of the committee of directors, as the case may be. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote and may be stated as such in any articles or document filed with the secretary of state under this chapter. The provisions of this section shall be applicable whether or not this chapter requires that an action be taken by resolution.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.140]

496A.141 Unauthorized assumption of corporate powers.
All persons who assume to act as a corporation without authority so to do shall be jointly and severally liable for all debts and liabilities incurred or arising as a result thereof.

496A.142 Application to existing corporations.
1 Except as provided in section 496A.2, in section 496A.103, subsection 2 and in this subsection, this chapter shall not apply to or affect corporations subject to the provisions of chapters 174, 176, 497, 498, 499, 499A, 504, 506, 508, 510, 512, 514, 515, 518A, 519, 533, 534 of the Code and state banks organized under chapter 524. Such corporations shall continue to be governed by all laws of this state heretofore applicable thereto and as the same may hereafter be amended. This chapter shall not be construed as in derogation of or as limitation on the powers to which such corporations may be entitled.

2 This chapter shall not apply to any domestic corporation organized under the provisions of chapter 491 nor, for a period of two years from and after July 4, 1959, to any foreign corporation holding a permit under the provisions of chapter 494 or pursuant to the provisions of chapter 495 on July 4, 1959, unless such domestic corporation or such foreign corporation shall voluntarily elect to adopt the provisions of this chapter and shall comply with the procedure prescribed by the provision of subsection 3 of this section.

3 Any domestic corporation existing as of July 4, 1959, or thereafter organized under the provisions of chapter 491 may voluntarily elect to adopt the provisions of this chapter and thereby become subject to its provisions and, during the period of two years from and after July 4, 1959, any foreign corporation holding a permit under the provisions of chapter 494 or pursuant to the provisions of chapter 495 on said date may voluntarily elect to adopt the provisions of this chapter and thereby become subject to the provisions of this chapter. The procedure for electing to adopt the provisions of this chapter shall be as follows:

a As to domestic corporations, a resolution reciting that the corporation voluntarily adopts this chapter and designating the address of its initial registered office and the name of its registered agent or agents at such address and, if the name of the corporation does not contain such a word or abbreviation as is required by this chapter, amending the articles of incorporation of the corporation to change the name of the corporation to one complying with the requirements of this chapter, shall be adopted by the board of directors and shareholders by the procedure prescribed by this chapter for the amendment of articles of incorporation. As to foreign corporations, a resolution shall be adopted by the board of directors, reciting that the corporation voluntarily adopts this chapter, and designating the address of its registered office in this state and the name of its registered agent or agents at such address and, if the name of the corporation does not contain such a word or abbreviation as is required by this chapter, setting forth the name of the corporation with the word or abbreviation conforming to the requirements of this chapter which it elects to add thereto for use in this state.

b Upon adoption of the required resolution or resolutions, an instrument shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary and verified by one of the officers signing the instrument, which shall set forth:

1 The name of the corporation.
2 Each such resolution adopted by the corporation and the date of adoption thereof.
3 As to domestic corporations such instrument shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder. The corporation shall at the time it files such instrument with the secretary of state deliver also to the secretary of state for filing in the secretary of state's office any annual report which is then due.

If the county of the initial registered office as stated in such instrument is one which is other than the county wherein the principal place of business of such corporation, as theretofore designated in its articles of incorporation, was located, the secretary of state shall forward also to the county recorder of the county in which the said principal place of business of said corporation was located a copy of such instrument and the secretary of state shall forward to the recorder of the county in which the initial registered office of such corporation is located, in addition to the original of such instrument, a copy of the articles of incorporation of said corporation together with all amendments thereto as then on file in the secretary of state's office.

c As to foreign corporations, such instrument shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing in the secretary of state's office and the corporation shall at the same time deliver also to the secretary of state... for filing in the secretary of state's office any annual report which is then due.

e. Upon the filing of such instrument by a domestic or foreign corporation:

1. All of the provisions of this chapter shall thereafter apply to the corporation, and thereupon every such foreign corporation subject to the limitations set forth in its certificate of authority, shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges applicable to foreign corporations procuring certificates of authority to transact business in this state under this chapter, and shall be subject to all the limitations, restrictions, liabilities, and duties prescribed herein for foreign corporations procuring certificates of authority to transact business in this state under this chapter.

2. The secretary of state shall issue a certificate as to the filing of such instrument and deliver such certificate to the corporation or its representative.

3. The secretary of state shall not file such instrument with respect to a domestic corporation unless at the time thereof such corporation is validly existing in good standing in that office under the provisions of chapter 491. Such corporation shall be considered validly existing in good standing for the purpose of this section for a period of three months following the expiration date of the corporation, provided all annual reports due have been filed and all fees due in connection therewith have been paid.

4. The provisions of this chapter becoming applicable to any domestic or foreign corporation shall not affect any right accrued or established, or any liability or penalty incurred, under the provisions of chapter 491, 494 or 495 prior to the filing by the secretary of state and the corporation of the instrument manifesting the election by such corporation to adopt the provisions of this chapter as provided in subsection 3 of this section.

5. Except for the exceptions and limitations of subsection 1 of this section, this chapter shall apply only to domestic corporations organized under this chapter; domestic corporations existing as of July 4, 1959, or thereafter organized under chapter 491 which voluntarily elect to adopt the provisions of this chapter and comply with the provisions of subsection 3 of this section; all foreign corporations transacting or seeking to transact business within this state and not holding, on July 4, 1959, a valid permit so to do; foreign corporations holding, on July 4, 1959, a valid permit under the provisions of chapter 494 or pursuant to the provisions of chapter 495, which, during the period of two years from and after July 4, 1959, voluntarily elect to adopt the provisions of this chapter and comply with the provisions of subsection 3 of this section; and, upon the expiration of the period of two years from and after July 4, 1959, all foreign corporations holding such a permit on July 4, 1959.

6. Upon the expiration of a period of two years from and after July 4, 1959, except for the exceptions and limitations of subsection 1 of this section, this chapter shall apply to all foreign corporations transacting or seeking to transact business within this state. Those foreign corporations holding a valid permit to do business in this state on July 4, 1959, which have not meanwhile adopted this chapter by complying with the provisions of subsection 3 of this section, shall at the expiration of two years from and after July 4, 1959, be deemed to have elected to adopt this chapter by not voluntarily withdrawing from the state, and thereupon, every such foreign corporation, subject to the limitations set forth in its certificate of authority, shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges applicable to foreign corporations procuring certificates of authority to transact business in this state under this chapter, and shall be subject to all the limitations, restrictions, liabilities, and duties prescribed herein for foreign corporations procuring certificates of authority to transact business in this state under this chapter.

7. Within eight months after this chapter becomes applicable to any foreign corporation pursuant to the provisions of subsection 6 of this section, the board of directors of such foreign corporation shall adopt a resolution designating the address of its registered office in this state and the name of its registered agent or agents at such address and, if the name of such corporation does not contain such a word or abbreviation as is required by this chapter, setting forth the name of the corporation with the word or abbreviation conforming to the requirements of this chapter which it elects to add thereto for use in this state.

Upon adoption of the required resolution or resolutions, an instrument or instruments shall be executed by the foreign corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary and verified by one of the officers signing such instrument, which shall set forth the name of the corporation, each resolution adopted as required by the provisions of this subsection, and the date of the adoption thereof. Such instrument shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing in the secretary of state's office. Upon the filing of such instrument by a foreign corporation the secretary of state shall issue a certificate as to the filing of such instrument and deliver such certificate to the corporation or its representative. The secretary of state shall not file any annual report of any foreign corporation subject to the provisions of this subsection unless and until said corporation has fully complied with the provisions of this paragraph and, in such event, such foreign corporation shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in this chapter for failure to file such report within the time as provided therefor in this chapter.

8. The first annual report required to be filed by a domestic or foreign corporation under the provisions of this chapter shall be filed between January 1 and March 31 of the year next succeeding the calendar year in which it becomes subject to this chapter.

9. No corporation to which the provisions of this chapter apply shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, or 496. Except as otherwise provided in this section, existing corporations shall continue to be governed by the laws of this state heretofore applicable thereto and each domestic corporation organized under the provisions of chapter 491 shall be governed by the provisions thereof unless and until such corporation shall have elected to adopt the provisions of this chapter and shall have complied with the provisions of subsection 3 of this section.

10. Except as otherwise provided in this section, existing corporations shall continue to be governed by the laws of this state heretofore applicable thereto and each domestic corporation organized under the provisions of chapter 491 shall be governed by the provisions thereof unless and until such corporation shall have elected to adopt the provisions of this chapter and shall have complied with the provisions of subsection 3 of this section.

11. If any corporation, organized under the provisions of chapter 491 and existing for a period of years, shall elect to adopt the provisions of this chapter and shall at the same time or thereafter amend its articles of incorporation to extend its period of duration, then upon the amendment becoming effective, the shares voted against the amendment shall be purchased in accordance with the following provisions:

a. The purchase shall be made by the corporation, if the resolution setting forth the amendment provides for the purchase by the corporation; if the resolution does not so provide, the purchase shall be made by the holders of the shares voted for the amendment.

b. The purchase price shall be the real value of the shares, as of the day on which the vote was taken approving the amendment.

c. The purchase price, together with interest thereon at five percent per annum from the effective date of the amendment, shall be paid within three years from such date.

d. This subsection shall not apply to any subsequent amendment to the articles of incorporation further extending the period of duration of said corporation.

12. Any domestic corporation which elects to adopt the provisions of this chapter by complying with the provisions of subsection 3 may, at the same time:

a. Amend or restate its articles of incorporation by complying with the provisions of this chapter with respect to amendment articles of incorporation or restating articles of incorporation, as the case may be.

b. Take action to enter into a merger or consolidation or to dissolve by complying with the provisions of this chapter with respect to merger, consolidation or dissolution, as the case may be.

13. The provisions of sections 496A.139 and 496A.140 shall apply to any action required or permitted to be taken under this section. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.142]

496A.143 Application to foreign and interstate commerce.
The provisions of this chapter shall apply to commerce with foreign nations and among the several states only insofar as the same may be permitted under the provisions of the Constitution of the United States. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.143]

496A.144 Reservation of power.
The general assembly shall at all times have power to prescribe such regulations, provisions and limitations as it may deem advisable, which regulations, provisions and limitations shall be binding upon any and all corporations subject to the provisions of this chapter, and the general assembly shall have power to amend, repeal or modify this chapter at pleasure. [C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496A.144]

496A.145 Repealed by 66GA, ch 57, §17.

CHAPTER 496B
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATIONS

496B.1 Title of Act.
This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the “Iowa Economic Development Act.” [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496B.1]

496B.2 Definitions.
As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the term:

1. “Development corporation” means any corporation organized pursuant to this chapter and for the purpose of developing businesses, industries, and enterprises in the state of Iowa by the loaning of money thereto and investing money therein, and otherwise organizing for the purposes in section 496B 5
2 "Financial institution" means any bank, trust company, savings and loan association, insurance company or related corporation, partnership, foundation or other institution licensed to do business in the state of Iowa and engaged primarily in lending or investing funds
3 "Member" means any financial institution which shall undertake to lend money to a development corporation upon its call and in accordance with the provision of section 496B 9
4 "Board of directors" means members of the board of directors of a development corporation constituted under section 496B 13 in office from time to time
5 "Loan limit" means, for any member, the maximum amount permitted to be outstanding at any one time on loans made by any such member to a development corporation, as determined herein
6 "Department" means the Iowa department of economic development of the state of Iowa, or any agency which succeeds to the functions of the Iowa department of economic development
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496B 2]

496B.3 Authorized corporations.
There is hereby authorized to be incorporated under the Iowa business corporation Act, development corporations which meet and comply with the requirements of this chapter. Such corporations shall be subject to and have the powers and privileges conferred by the provisions of this chapter and those provisions of the Iowa business corporation Act which are not inconsistent with and to the extent not restricted or limited by the provisions of this chapter. No corporation shall be deemed incorporated pursuant to and under the provisions of this chapter unless the same is approved by the department and unless its articles of incorporation provide that it is incorporated pursuant to this chapter. To assure a broad base from which development corporations may obtain loans from members, the department at its discretion may limit the number of development corporations organized and existing pursuant to this chapter to one or more such corporations
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496B 3]
*See ch 496A

496B.4 Offices.
A development corporation may have offices in such places within the state of Iowa as may be fixed by the board of directors
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496B 4]

496B.5 Purposes.
The purposes of a development corporation shall be limited to those provided in this section and shall be to promote, stimulate, develop and advance the business prosperity and economic welfare of the state of Iowa and its citizens, to encourage and assist through loans, investments, or other business transactions, the location of new business and industry in the state, to rehabilitate and assist existing business and industry in this state, to stimulate and assist in the expansion of any kind of business activity which would tend to promote business development and maintain the economic stability of this state, provide maximum opportunities for employment, encourage thrift, and improve the standard of living of the citizens of this state, to co-operate and act in conjunction with other organizations, public or private, in the promotion and advancement of industrial, commercial, agricultural, and recreational development in this state, and to provide financing for the promotion, development, and conduct of all kinds of business activity in this state
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496B 5]

496B.6 Powers.
Any development corporation shall, subject to the restrictions and limits herein contained, have the following powers
1 To make contracts and incur liabilities for any of the purposes of the development corporation, provided that no development corporation shall incur any secondary liability by way of guaranty or endorsement of the obligations of any person, firm, corporation, joint stock company, association or trust, or in any other manner
2 To borrow money either from its members or pursuant to lending arrangements entered into under the authority granted in subsection 7 of this section, or both from its members and pursuant to said lending arrangements, and to issue therefor its bonds, debentures, notes or other evidences of indebtedness, whether secured or unsecured, and when necessary to secure the same by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, or other lien on its property, franchises, rights and privileges of every kind and nature, or any part thereof or interest therein, without securing shareholder or member approval, provided, that no loan to a development corporation shall be secured in any manner unless all outstanding loans to such corporation, and for which loan or loans no subordination agreement has been entered into between the respective loan maker and the development corporation, shall be secured equally and ratably in proportion to the unpaid balance of such loans and in the same manner
3 To make loans to any person, firm, corporation, joint stock company, association or trust and to establish and regulate the terms and conditions with respect to any such loans, and the charges for interest and service connected therewith
4 To acquire the good will, business, rights, real and personal property, and other assets, or any part thereof, or interest therein, of any persons, firms, corporations, associations or trusts, and to assume, undertake, or pay the obligations, debts and liabilities of any such person, firm, corporation, association or trust, to acquire, construct or reconstruct, alter, repair, maintain, operate, sell, convey, transfer, lease, or otherwise dispose of industrial plants and business establishments
5 To co operate with and avail itself of the facilities of the department and to co operate with and assist and otherwise encourage organizations in the various communities of the state of Iowa in the promotion, assistance and development of business prosperity and economic welfare of such communities or of this state or any part thereof
6 To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly granted in this chapter and such other powers not in conflict herewith granted under the Iowa business corporation Act 496B.7 Stock — limitations.
Capital stock shall be issued only on receipt by each development corporation of cash in such amount not less than the par value thereof as may be determined by the board of directors. No shareholder of any development corporation shall be entitled as of right to purchase or subscribe for any unissued or treasury shares of the corporation, and no such shareholder shall be entitled as of right to purchase or subscribe for any bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness, debentures, or other obligations convertible into shares of the development corporation.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496B.6]

496B.8 Stockholders privileges.
Notwithstanding any rule at common law or any provision of any general or special law or any provision in their respective articles of incorporation, agreements of association, or trust indentures:

1. Any person, as defined in the Iowa business corporation Act, is hereby authorized to acquire, purchase, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of any bond, security or other evidences of indebtedness created by, or the shares of the capital stock of, development corporations, and while owners of said shares to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon, all without the approval of any regulatory agency of this state.

2. Any financial institution is hereby authorized to become a member of a development corporation and to make loans to such corporation.

3. Any financial institution which does not become a member of a development corporation shall not be permitted to acquire any shares of the capital stock of such development corporation.

4. Each financial institution which becomes a member of a development corporation is hereby authorized to acquire, purchase, hold, sell, assign, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, any bonds, securities or other evidences of indebtedness created by, or the shares of the capital stock of, the development corporation, of which it is a member and while owners of such shares to exercise all rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon, all without the approval of any regulatory agency of this state; provided that the amount of the capital stock of any development corporation which may be acquired by any member pursuant to the authority granted herein, shall not exceed ten percent of the loan limit of such member. The amount of capital stock of a development corporation which any member is authorized to acquire pursuant to the authority granted herein, is in addition to the amount of capital stock in other corporations which such member may otherwise be authorized to acquire, provided, however, that no financial institution shall become a shareholder or member of more than one development corporation.

496B.9 Loan procedures.
A financial institution may request membership in a development corporation by making application to the board of directors thereof on such form and in such manner as such board of directors may require, and membership shall become effective upon acceptance of such application by said board. Each member of any development corporation shall make loans to such development corporation as and when called upon by that corporation to do so on such terms and conditions as shall be approved from time to time by the board of directors subject to the following:

1. All loan limits shall be established at the thousand dollar amount nearest the amount computed in accordance with the provisions of this section.

2. No loan to a development corporation shall be made if immediately thereafter the total amount of the obligations of the development corporation calling for the loan would exceed ten times the amount then paid in on the outstanding capital stock of such corporation.

3. The total amount outstanding at any one time on loans to a development corporation made by a member thereof when added to the amount of the investment in the capital stock of such corporation and held by such member, shall not exceed the lesser of:

   a. Twenty percent of the total amount then outstanding on loans to such development corporation by all members thereof, including in said total amount outstanding amounts validly called for loan but not yet loaned.

   b. The limit, to be determined as of the time such member becomes a member, on the basis of the investment in the capital stock of such member at the close of its fiscal year immediately preceding its application for membership, as follows:

      (1) Banks and trust companies — two percent of the paid-in capital, surplus, and undivided profits.

      (2) Savings and loan associations — two percent of the general reserve account, surplus and undivided profits.

      (3) Stock life insurance companies — one percent of capital and unassigned surplus.

      (4) Mutual life insurance companies — one percent of the unassigned surplus.

      (5) All other insurance companies — one-tenth of one percent of the assets.

      (6) Other financial institutions — such limits as may be approved by the board of directors of the development corporation.

Provided that the lending limit of any one member shall not exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars.

4. Each call for loan shall be prorated among the members in substantially the same proportion that the adjusted loan limit of each member bears to the aggregate of the adjusted loan limits of all members. The adjusted loan limit of a member shall be the amount of such member's loan limit, reduced by the balance of outstanding obligations of the corporation to such member and the investment in capital stock of the corporation held by such member at the time of such call.

5. All loans to a development corporation by a member shall be evidenced by registered bonds, debentures, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness of the development corporation, which shall be freely transferable.
496B.10 Duration of membership.

Membership in any development corporation shall be for the duration of the respective development corporation; provided, however, that upon written notice given to the development corporation five years in advance a member thereof may withdraw from membership in such corporation at the expiration date of such notice. Provided that a financial institution may at any time withdraw from membership without such notice in the event of its merger with another financial institution, after commencement of proceedings for voluntary or involuntary dissolution, receivership, or reorganization pursuant to or by operation of federal or state law or in the event of conversion from a state financial institution to a federal financial institution or the reverse. If there shall be a legislative amendment of this chapter affecting the rights and obligations of the members and shareholders or otherwise affecting the articles of incorporation of such corporation which shall not have been approved by the members and shareholders within the time set forth and in the manner provided in this chapter, any member not approving such amendment may immediately withdraw from membership upon giving written notice to the corporation not later than ninety days from the effective date of the amendment. A member shall not be obligated to make any loans to a development corporation pursuant to calls made subsequent to the withdrawal of said member therefrom.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496B.10]

496B.11 Powers of shareholders.

The shareholders and the members of the development corporation shall have the following powers of such corporation:

1. Those powers granted in the Iowa business corporation Act which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.
2. To determine the number and elect directors as provided herein.
3. To amend the articles of incorporation as provided herein.
4. To dissolve the corporation as provided herein.
5. To exercise such other of the powers of the corporation as may be conferred on the shareholders and the members by the bylaws. As to all matters requiring action by the shareholders and the members of the corporation, such shareholders and such members shall vote separately thereon by classes and, except as otherwise herein provided, approval of such matters shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes to which the shareholders present or represented at the meeting are entitled, and the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes to which the members present or represented at the meeting are entitled. Each shareholder shall have one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share of capital stock held by the shareholder, and each member shall have one vote, in person or by proxy, except that any member having a loan amount of more than one thousand dollars shall have one additional vote, in person or by proxy, for each additional one thousand dollars which such member is authorized to have outstanding on loans to the corporation at any one time as determined herein.

496B.12 Articles amended.

The articles of incorporation of any development corporation may be amended by the votes of the shareholders and the members thereof voting separately by classes. Any amendment shall require approval by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes to which the shareholders shall be entitled and two-thirds of the votes to which the members shall be entitled. No amendment, however, shall be made which: (1) is inconsistent with this chapter; (2) authorizes any additional class or classes of shares of capital stock; (3) eliminates or curtails the authority of the department with respect to the corporation. Without the consent of each of the members affected, no amendment shall be made which: (1) increases the obligation of a member to make loans to the corporation; (2) makes any change in the principal amount, interest rate, maturity date, or in the security or credit position of any outstanding loan of a member to the corporation; (3) affects a member's right to withdraw from membership as provided herein, or (4) affects a member's voting rights in the corporation. Within thirty days after any meeting at which amendment of any such articles has been adopted, articles of amendment signed and sworn to by the president, secretary and majority of the directors, setting forth such amendment and the due adoption thereof, shall be submitted to the director of the department who shall examine them, and if the director finds that they conform to the requirements of this chapter, shall so certify and endorse the director's approval thereof. Thereupon, the articles of amendment shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state in the manner set forth and as provided in the Iowa business corporation Act and no such amendment shall take effect until such articles of amendment have been approved and filed as aforesaid. Within sixty days after the effective date of any legislative amendment affecting the rights and obligations of the members and shareholders or otherwise affecting the articles of incorporation, the approval of such legislative amendments shall be voted on by the shareholders and the members of the development corporation at a meeting duly called for that purpose. If such legislative amendment is not approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes to which such shareholders shall be entitled and two-thirds of the votes to which such members shall be entitled, any such member voting against the approval of such legislative amendment shall have the right to withdraw from membership as provided in this chapter. Within thirty days after any meeting at which a legislative amendment affecting the articles of incorporation of a development corporation has been voted on, a certificate filed and sworn to by the secretary or other recording officer of such corporation setting forth the action taken at such meeting with respect to such amendment shall be submitted to the director of the department and upon receipt of such approval shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496B.12]
496B.13 Board of directors.

The board of directors shall consist of such number not less than fifteen as shall be determined in the first instance by the incorporators and thereafter annually by the members and the shareholders at each annual meeting or at any special meeting held in lieu of the annual meeting. At each annual meeting or at any special meeting held in lieu of the annual meeting, the members of each corporation shall elect two thirds of the board of directors and the shareholders shall elect the remaining directors. The directors shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the corporation or special meeting held in lieu of the annual meeting after their election, and until their successors are elected and qualify unless sooner removed in accordance with the provisions of the bylaws. Any vacancy in the office of a director elected by the members shall be filled by the directors elected by the members, and any vacancy in the office of a director elected by the shareholders shall be filled by the directors elected by the shareholders.

Notwithstanding any provisions of law to the contrary, officers and directors of insurance companies and other financial institutions may be members of the board of directors of any corporation organized for the purposes of this chapter to which the insurance company or other financial institution may make a loan or may make an investment.

496B.14 Earned surplus set aside.

Each year each development corporation shall set apart as earned surplus not less than ten percent of its net earnings for the preceding fiscal year until such surplus shall be equal in value to one-half of the amount paid in on the capital stock then outstanding. Whenever the amount of surplus established herein shall become impaired, it shall be built up again to the required amount in the manner provided for its original accumulation. Net earnings and surplus shall be determined by the board of directors, after providing for such reserves as said directors deem desirable, and the directors’ determination made in good faith shall be conclusive on all persons.

496B.15 Deposit of funds.

No development corporation shall deposit any of its funds in any financial institution unless such institution has been designated as a depository by a vote of a majority of the directors present at any authorized meeting of the board of directors exclusive of any director who is an officer or director of the depository so designated. No development corporation shall receive money on deposit.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496B 15]

496B.16 Reports to department of economic development.

Each development corporation is subject to the examination of the department and shall make reports of its condition not less than annually to the department. The department shall make copies of the reports available to the commissioner of insurance and the superintendent of banking. Each development corporation shall also furnish other information as the department may require. The department may request the superintendent of banking to examine the condition of a development corporation and to submit a report on the examination to the department and the commissioner of insurance.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496B 16]

83 Acts, ch 103, §1

496B.17 Certificate to do business.

Upon the approval of the department as required in this chapter and the issuance of a certificate as provided in the Iowa business corporation Act, a development corporation shall then be authorized to commence business and to issue stock thereof to the extent authorized in its articles of incorporation.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496B 17]

496B.18 Repealed by 68GA, ch 120, §18 See §502 202(13)

496B.19 Dissolution.

A development corporation may be dissolved upon the affirmative vote of two thirds of the votes to which the shareholders thereof shall be entitled and two thirds of the votes to which the members shall be entitled. Upon any dissolution of a development corporation, none of the corporation’s assets shall be distributed to the shareholders until all sums due the members of the corporation as creditors thereof have been paid in full.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496B 19]

496B.20 State credit not available.

Under no circumstances is the credit of the state of Iowa pledged herein.

CHAPTER 496C

PROFESSIONAL CORPORATIONS

496C.1 Short title.
This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Iowa Professional Corporation Act" [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496C 1]

496C.2 Definitions.
As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions contained in the Iowa business corporation Act [chapter 496A] apply, and

1 "Profession" means the profession of certified public accountancy, architecture, chiropractic, dentistry, physical therapy, psychology, professional engineering, land surveying, landscape architecture, law, medicine and surgery, optometry, osteopathy, osteopathic medicine and surgery, accounting practitioner, podiatry, speech pathology, audiology, veterinary medicine, pharmacy and the practice of nursing

2 "Professional corporation" means a corporation subject to this Act, except a foreign professional corporation

3 "Foreign professional corporation" means a corporation organized under laws other than the laws of this state for a purpose for which a professional corporation may be organized under this chapter

4 "Licensed" includes registered, certified, admitted to practice, or otherwise legally authorized under the laws of this state

5 "Regulating board" means any board, commission, court, or governmental authority which, under the laws of this state, is charged with the licensing, registration, certification, admission to practice, or other legal authorization of the practitioners of any profession

6 "Voluntary transfer" includes any sale, voluntary assignment, gift, pledge, or encumbrance, any voluntary change of legal or equitable ownership or beneficial interest, or any voluntary change of persons having voting rights with respect to any shares, except as proxies, but does not include any transfer of an individual's shares or other property to a guardian or conservator appointed for such individual or the individual's property

7 "Employees" or "agents" does not include clerks, stenographers, secretaries, bookkeepers, technicians, or other persons who are not usually and ordinarily considered by custom and practice to be practicing a profession, nor any other person who performs all that person's duties for the professional corporation under the direct supervision and control of one or more officers, employees, or agents of the professional corporation who are duly licensed in this state to practice a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice in this state This chapter shall not be construed to require any such persons to be licensed to practice a profession if they are not required to be licensed under any other law of this state [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496C 2]

496C.3 Applicability of Iowa business corporation Act.
The Iowa business corporation Act shall be construed as part of this chapter and shall apply to professional corporations, including, but not limited to, their organization, reports, fees, authority, powers, rights, and the regulation and conduct of their affairs The provisions of the Iowa business corporation Act on foreign corporations shall apply to foreign professional corporations The provisions of this chapter shall prevail over any inconsistent provisions of the Iowa business corporation Act or any other law [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496C 3]

496C.4 Purposes and powers.
A professional corporation shall be organized only for the purpose of engaging in the practice of one specific profession, or two or more specific professions which could lawfully be practiced in combination by a licensed individual or a partnership of licensed individuals, and for the additional purpose of doing all lawful things which may be incidental to or necessary or convenient in connection with the practice of the profession or professions. The articles of incorporation shall state in substance that the purposes for which the corporation is organized are to engage in the general practice of a specified profession or professions, or one or more specified branches or divisions thereof, and to do all lawful things which may be incidental to or necessary or convenient in connection with the practice of the profession or professions. Each professional corporation, unless otherwise provided in its articles of incorporation or unless expressly prohibited by this chapter, shall have all powers granted to corporations by the Iowa business corporation Act.

496C.5 Corporate name.

The corporate name of a professional corporation, the corporate name of a foreign professional corporation or its name as modified for use in this state, and any assumed name or trade name adopted by a professional corporation or foreign professional corporation shall contain the words "professional corporation" or the abbreviation "P.C.", and except for the addition of such words or abbreviation, shall be a name which could lawfully be used by a licensed individual or by a partnership of licensed individuals in the practice in this state of a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice. Each regulating board may by rule or regulation adopt additional requirements as to the corporate names and assumed or trade names of professional corporations and foreign professional corporations which are authorized to practice a profession which is within the jurisdiction of the regulating board.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496C.5]

496C.6 Who may incorporate.

One or more individuals having capacity to contract, each of whom is licensed to practice in this state a profession which the professional corporation is to be authorized to practice, may act as incorporators of a professional corporation.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496C.6]

496C.7 Practice by professional corporation.

Notwithstanding any other statute or rule of law, a professional corporation may practice a profession, but may do so in this state only through shareholders, directors, officers, employees, and agents who are licensed to practice the same profession in this state.

In its practice of a profession, no professional corporation shall do any act which could not lawfully be done by individuals licensed to practice the profession which the professional corporation is authorized to practice.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496C.7]

496C.8 Professional regulation.

No professional corporation shall be required to register with or to obtain any license, registration, certificate, or other legal authorization from any regulating board in order to practice a profession. Except as provided in this section, nothing in this chapter shall restrict or limit in any manner the authority or duties of any regulating board with respect to individuals practicing any profession which is within the jurisdiction of the regulating board, even if the individual is a shareholder, director, officer, employee, or agent of a professional corporation or foreign professional corporation and practices the individual's profession through such corporation.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496C.8]

496C.9 Relationship and liability to persons served.

This chapter does not modify any law applicable to the relationship between an individual practicing a profession and a person receiving professional services, including, but not limited to, any liability arising out of such practice and any law respecting privileged communications.

This chapter does not modify or affect the ethical standards or standards of conduct of any profession, including, but not limited to, any standards prohibiting or limiting the practice of the profession by a corporation or prohibiting or limiting the practice of two or more professions in combination. All such standards shall apply to the shareholders, directors, officers, employees, and agents through whom a professional corporation practices any profession in this state, to the same extent that the standards apply to an individual practitioner.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, the liability of the shareholders of a professional corporation, as shareholders, shall be limited in the same manner and to the same extent as in the case of a corporation organized under the Iowa business corporation Act.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496C.9]

496C.10 Issuance of shares.

Shares of a professional corporation may be issued, and treasury shares may be disposed of, only to individuals who are licensed to practice in this state, in any other state or territory of the United States or in the District of Columbia, a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, the affirmative vote or consent in writing of all of the outstanding shareholders entitled to vote, or such lesser proportion as may be provided in the articles or bylaws, is necessary in order to authorize the issuance of any shares or the disposal of any treasury shares, and to fix the consideration for shares or treasury shares.

No shares of a professional corporation shall at any time be issued in, transferred into, or held in joint tenancy, tenancy in common, or any other form of joint ownership or co-ownership.

The Iowa securities law shall not be applicable to nor govern any transaction relating to any shares of a professional corporation.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496C.10]

496C.11 Transfer of shares.

No shareholder or other person shall make any voluntary transfer of any shares in a professional corporation to any person, except to the professional corporation or to an individual who is licensed to practice in this state a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, the affirmative vote or consent in writing of all of the outstanding shareholders entitled to vote, or such lesser proportion as may be provided in the articles or bylaws, is necessary in order to authorize any voluntary transfer of any shares of a professional corporation

The articles of incorporation or bylaws may contain any additional provisions restricting the transfer of shares

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496C 11]

496C.12 Convertible securities — stock rights and options.

No professional corporation shall create or issue any securities convertible into shares of the professional corporation The provisions of this chapter with respect to the issuance and transfer of shares and disposal of treasury shares apply to the creation, issuance, and transfer of any rights or options entitling the holder to purchase from a professional corporation any shares of the corporation, including treasury shares Rights or options shall not be transferable, whether voluntarily, involuntarily, by operation of law, or in any other manner Upon the death of the holder, or whenever the holder ceases to be licensed to practice in this state a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice, the rights or options shall expire

496C.13 Voting trust — proxy.

No shareholder of a professional corporation shall create or enter into a voting trust or any other agreement conferring upon any other person the right to vote or otherwise represent any shares of a professional corporation, and no such voting trust or agreement shall be valid or effective Any proxy of a shareholder of a professional corporation shall be an individual licensed to practice in this state a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice Any provision in any proxy instrument denying the right of the shareholder to revoke the proxy at any time or for any period of time is not valid or effective This section does not otherwise limit the right of a shareholder to vote by proxy, but the articles of incorporation or bylaws may further limit or deny the right to vote by proxy

496C.14 Required purchase by professional corporation of its own shares.

Notwithstanding any other statute or rule of law, a professional corporation shall purchase its own shares as provided in this section and the shareholders of a professional corporation and their executors, administrators, legal representatives, and successors in interest, shall sell and transfer the shares held by them as provided in this section

The corporation may validly purchase its own shares even though its net assets are less than its stated capital, or even though by so doing its net assets would be reduced below its stated capital

Upon the death of a shareholder, the professional corporation shall immediately purchase all shares held by the deceased shareholder

In order to remain a shareholder of a professional corporation, a shareholder shall at all times be licensed to practice in this state a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice Whenever any shareholder does not have or ceases to have this qualification, the corporation shall immediately purchase all shares held by that shareholder

Whenever any person other than the shareholder of record becomes entitled to have shares of a corporation transferred into that person's name or to exercise voting rights, except as a proxy, with respect to shares of the corporation, the corporation shall immediately purchase such shares Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, this section shall be applicable whether the event occurs as a result of the appointment of a guardian or conservator for a shareholder or the shareholder's property, transfer of shares by operation of law, involuntary transfer of shares, judicial proceedings, execution, levy, bankruptcy proceedings, receivership proceedings, foreclosure or enforcement of a pledge or encumbrance, or any other situation or occurrence However, this section does not apply to any voluntary transfer of shares as defined in this chapter

Shares purchased by the corporation under the provisions of this section shall be transferred to the corporation as of the close of business on the date of the death or other event which requires purchase The shareholder and the shareholder's executors, administrators, legal representatives, or successors in interest, shall promptly do all things which may be necessary or convenient to cause transfer to be made as of the transfer date However, the shares shall promptly be transferred on the stock transfer books of the corporation as of the transfer date, notwithstanding any delay in transferring or surrendering the shares or certificates representing the shares, and the transfer shall be valid and effective for all purposes as of the close of business on the transfer date The purchase price for such shares shall be paid as provided in this chapter, but the transfer of shares to the corporation as provided in this section shall not be delayed or affected by any delay or default in making payment

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, purchase by the corporation is not required upon the occurrence of any event other than death of a shareholder, if the corporation is dissolved within sixty days after the occurrence of the event The articles of incorporation or bylaws may provide that purchase is not required upon the death of a shareholder, if the corporation is dissolved within sixty days after the death

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws or in an agreement among all shareholders of the professional corporation

1 The purchase price for shares shall be their book value as of the end of the month immediately preceding the death or other event which requires purchase Book value shall be determined from the books and records of the professional corporation in accordance with the regular method of accounting used by the corporation, uniformly and consistently applied Adjustments to book value shall be made, if necessary, to take into account work in process and accounts receivable Any final determination of book value made in good faith by any independent certified public accountant or firm of certified public accountants employed by the corporation for the purpose shall be conclusive on all persons

2 The purchase price shall be paid in cash as fol loows Upon the death of a shareholder, thirty percent of the purchase price shall be paid within ninety days after death, and the balance shall be paid in three equal annual installments on the first three anniversaries of the death. Upon the happening of any other event referred to in this section, one tenth of the purchase price shall be paid within ninety days after the date of such event, and the balance shall be paid in three equal annual installments on the first three anniversaries of the date of the event.

3 Interest from the date of death or other event shall be payable annually on principal payment dates, at the rate of six percent per annum on the unpaid balance of the purchase price.

4 All persons who are shareholders of the professional corporation on the date of death or other event, and their executors, administrators, and legal representatives, shall, to the extent the corporation fails to meet its obligations hereunder, be jointly liable for the payment of the purchase price and interest in proportion to their percentage of ownership of the corporation's shares, disregarding shares of the deceased or withdrawing shareholder.

5 The part of the purchase price remaining unpaid after the initial payment shall be evidenced by a negotiable promissory note, which shall be executed by the corporation and all shareholders liable for payment. Any person liable on the note shall have the right to prepay the note in full or in part at any time.

6 If the person making any payment is not reasonably able to determine which of two or more persons is entitled to receive a payment, or if the payment is payable to a person who is unknown, or who is under disability and there is no person legally competent to receive the payment, or who cannot be found after the exercise of reasonable diligence by the person making the payment, it shall be deposited with the treasurer of state and shall be subject to the provisions of the Iowa business corporation Act with respect to funds deposited with the treasurer of state upon the voluntary or involuntary dissolution of a corporation.

7 Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, no part of the purchase price shall be required to be paid until the certificates representing such shares have been surrendered to the corporation.

8 Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, payment of any part of the purchase price for shares of a deceased shareholder shall not be required until the executor or administrator of the deceased shareholder provides any indemnity, release, or other document from any taxing authority, which is reasonably necessary to protect the corporation against liability for estate, inheritance, and death taxes.

The articles of incorporation or bylaws or an agreement among all shareholders of a professional corporation may provide for a different purchase price, a different method of determining the purchase price, a different interest rate or no interest, and other terms, conditions, and schedules of payment.

The articles of incorporation or bylaws or an agreement among all shareholders of a professional corporation may provide for the optional or mandatory purchase of its own shares by the corporation in other situations, subject to any applicable law regarding such purchase.

496C.15 Certificates representing shares.
Each certificate representing shares of a professional corporation shall state in substance that the certificate represents shares in a professional corporation and is not transferable except as expressly provided in this chapter and in the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the corporation.
[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496C 15]

496C.16 Management.
All directors of a professional corporation and all officers of a professional corporation except assistant officers, shall at all times be individuals who are licensed to practice in this state a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice. No person who is not licensed shall have any authority or duties in the management or control of the corporation. If any director or any officer ceases to have this qualification, the director or officer shall immediately and automatically cease to hold the directorship or office.
[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496C 16]

496C.17 Bylaws.
The initial bylaws of a professional corporation shall be adopted by its board of directors. The power to alter, amend, or repeal the bylaws or adopt new bylaws is reserved to and vested in the shareholders unless granted to the board of directors by the articles of incorporation.
[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496C 17]

496C.18 Merger or consolidation.
No professional corporation shall merge or consolidate with any other corporation except another professional corporation subject to this chapter. Merger or consolidation shall not be permitted unless the surviving or new corporation is a professional corporation which complies with all requirements of this chapter.
[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496C 18]

496C.19 Dissolution or liquidation.
Violation of any provision of this chapter by a professional corporation or any of its shareholders, directors, or officers, shall be cause for its involuntary dissolution, or liquidation of its assets and business by the district court, as provided in the Iowa business corporation Act. Upon the death of the last remaining shareholder of a professional corporation, or whenever the last remaining shareholder is not licensed or ceases to be licensed to practice in this state a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice, or whenever any person other than the shareholder of record becomes entitled to have all shares of the last remaining shareholder of the corporation transferred into that person's name or to exercise voting rights, except as a proxy, with respect to such shares, the corporation shall not practice any profession and it shall be promptly dissolved. However, if prior to such dissolution all outstanding shares of the corporation are acquired by one or more persons licensed to practice in this state a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice, the corporation need not be dissolved and may practice the profession as provided in this chapter.
[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496C 19]
496C.20 Foreign professional corporation.

A foreign professional corporation may practice a profession in this state if it complies with the provisions of the Iowa business corporation Act on foreign corporations. The secretary of state may prescribe forms for such purpose.

A foreign professional corporation may practice a profession in this state only through shareholders, directors, officers, employees, and agents who are licensed to practice the profession in this state. The provisions of this chapter with respect to the practice of a profession by a professional corporation apply to foreign professional corporations.

The certificate of authority of a foreign professional corporation may be revoked by the secretary of state as provided in the Iowa business corporation Act, if the foreign professional corporation fails to comply with any provision of this chapter.

This chapter shall not be construed to prohibit the practice of a profession in this state by an individual who is a shareholder, director, officer, employee, or agent of a foreign professional corporation, if the individual could lawfully practice the profession in this state in the absence of any relationship to a foreign professional corporation. The preceding sentence shall apply regardless of whether or not the foreign professional corporation is authorized to practice a profession in this state.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496C.20]

496C.21 Annual report.

Each annual report of a professional corporation or foreign professional corporation shall, in addition to the information required by the Iowa business corporation Act, set forth:

1. The name and address of each shareholder.
2. In the case of a professional corporation, a statement under oath whether or not all shareholders, directors, and officers, except assistant officers, of the corporation are licensed to practice in this state a profession which the corporation is authorized to practice, and whether or not all employees and agents of the corporation who practice a profession in this state on behalf of the corporation are licensed to practice the profession in this state.
3. In the case of a foreign professional corporation, a statement under oath whether or not all shareholders, directors, officers, employees, and agents who practice a profession in this state on behalf of the corporation are licensed to practice the profession in this state.
4. Additional information necessary or appropriate to enable the secretary of state or regulating board to determine whether the professional corporation or foreign professional corporation is complying with this chapter.

Information shall be set forth on forms prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state.

The original of each annual report of a professional corporation or foreign professional corporation shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing. The provisions of the Iowa business corporation Act relating to annual license fee apply to professional corporations.

83 Acts, ch 144, §5

496C.22 Corporations organized under other laws.

This chapter shall not apply to or interfere with the practice of any profession by or through any corporation hereafter organized under any other law of this state or any other state or country, if such practice is lawful under any other statute or rule of law of this state.

Any corporation subject to the provisions of the Iowa business corporation Act may voluntarily elect to adopt this chapter and become subject to its provisions, by amending its articles of incorporation to be consistent with all provisions of this chapter and by stating in its amended articles of incorporation that the corporation has voluntarily elected to adopt this chapter.

Any corporation organized under any law of any other state or country may become subject to the provisions of this chapter by complying with all provisions of this chapter with respect to foreign professional corporations.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §496C.22]
497.1 Plan authorized.

Any number of persons, not less than five, may associate themselves as a co-operative association, society, company or exchange, for the purpose of conducting any agricultural, dairy, mercantile, mining, manufacturing or mechanical business on the co-operative plan. For the purpose of this chapter, the words "association", "company", "corporation", "exchange", "society", or "union", shall be construed to mean the same.

[SS15, §1641-r1, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8459; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497 1]

497.2 Articles of incorporation.

They shall sign and acknowledge written articles which shall contain the name of said association and the names and residences of the persons forming the same. Such articles shall also contain a statement of the purposes of the association, and shall designate the city or village where its principal place of business shall be located. Such articles shall also state the amount of capital stock, the number of shares, and the par value of each.

[SS15, §1641-r2, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8460; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497 2]

497.3 Filing — certificate of incorporation.

The original articles of incorporation of associations organized under this chapter shall be filed with the secretary of state, and be by the secretary recorded in a book kept for that purpose, and if such articles comply with the provisions of sections 497 1 and 497 2, the secretary shall issue a certificate of incorporation to the association. The secretary of state shall then for ward said articles of incorporation to the recorder of deeds of the county where the principal place of business is to be located, and the same shall be there recorded by such recorder who shall indorse thereon the book and page where the record will be found and the date of the record. No publication of notice of the incorporation of such an association shall be required.

[SS15, §1641-r3, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8461; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497 3]

497.4 Fee.

For filing the articles of incorporation of associations organized under this chapter, there shall be paid to the secretary of state ten dollars, and for the filing of an amendment to such articles, five dollars, provided that when the capital stock of such corporation shall be less than five hundred dollars, such fee for filing either the articles of incorporation or amendments thereto shall be one dollar. In all cases there shall be paid a recording fee of fifty cents per page. For recording copy of such articles, the recorder of deeds shall receive the usual fee for recording.

Recorder’s fee §331 604

497.5 Board of directors.

Every such association shall be managed by a board of not less than five directors, who shall be elected by and from the stockholders at such time and for such term of office as the bylaws may prescribe, and shall hold office for the time for which elected and until their successors are elected and qualify.

[SS15, §1641-r5, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8463; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497 5]

497.6 Removal.

A majority of the stockholders shall have the power, at any regular or special stockholders' meeting, legally called, to remove any director or officer for cause, and fill the vacancy, and thereupon the director or officer so removed, shall cease to be a director or officer of said corporation.

[SS15, §1641-r5, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8464; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497 6]

497.7 Officers.

The officers of every such association shall be a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary, and a treasurer, who shall be elected annually by the directors, and each of said officers must be a director of the association. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be combined, and when so combined the person filling the office shall be secretary treasurer.

497.8 Amending articles.

The association may amend its articles of incorporation by a majority vote of its stockholders at any regular stockholders' meeting, or at any special stockholders' meeting called for that purpose, on ten days' notice to all stockholders. Said power to amend shall include the power to increase or diminish the amount of capital stock and the number of shares, provided the amount of the capital stock shall not be diminished below the amount of paid in capital at the time the amendment is adopted.

497.9 Record of amendments.

Within thirty days after the adoption of an amendment to its articles of incorporation, an association shall cause a copy of such amendment adopted to be recorded in the office of the secretary of state and of the recorder of deeds of the county where its principal place of business is located.

[SS15, §1641-r6, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8467; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497 9]

497.10 Powers.

An association created under this chapter shall have power to conduct any agricultural, dairies, mercantile, mining, manufacturing, or mechanical business, on the co-operative plan, and may buy, sell, and deal in the products of any other co-operative company here before or hereafter organized under the provisions hereof.

[SS15, §1641-r7, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8468; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497 10]

497.11 Ownership of shares and voting power limited.

No stockholder in any such association shall own shares of a greater aggregate par value than five thousand dollars, except as hereafter provided, nor shall a stockholder be entitled to more than one vote.

[SS15, §1641-r8, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8469; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497 11]

497.12 Stockholding.

At any regular meeting, or any regularly called special meeting, at which at least a majority of all of its stockholders shall be present, or represented, an association organized under this chapter, may by a majority vote of the stockholders present or represented, subscribe for shares and invest its reserve fund, not to exceed twenty-five percent of its capital, in the capital stock of any other co-operative association.

[SS15, §1641-r9, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8470; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497 12]

497.13 Issue of shares as payment.

Whenever an association created under this chapter shall purchase the business of another association, person, or persons, it may pay for the same in whole or in part by issuing to the selling association or person shares of its capital stock to an amount, which at fair market value as determined by the executive council, would equal the fair market value of the business so purchased as determined by the executive council as in cases of other corporations.

[SS15, §1641-r10, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8471; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497 13]

Payment in property other than money §492 6 et seq.

497.14 May act as trustee.

In case the cash value of such purchased business exceeds one thousand dollars, the directors of the association are authorized to hold the shares in excess of one thousand dollars in trust for the vendor, and dispose of the same to such persons, and within such times, as may be mutually satisfactory to the parties in interest, and to pay the proceeds thereof as currently received to the former owner of said business.

[SS15, §1641-r11, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8472; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497 14]

497.15 Paid-up stock — right to vote.

Certificates of stock shall not be issued to any subscriber until fully paid, but the bylaws of the association may allow subscribers to vote as stockholders, provided part of the stock subscribed for has been paid in cash.

[SS15, §1641-r11, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8473; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497 15]

497.16 Voting by mail.

At any regularly called general or special meeting of the stockholders, a written vote received by mail from any absent stockholder, and signed by that stockholder, may be read in such meeting, and shall be equivalent to a vote of each of the stockholders so signing, provided the stockholder has been previously notified in writing by the secretary of the exact motion or resolution upon which such vote is taken, and a copy of same is forwarded with and attached to the vote so mailed by the stockholder.

[SS15, §1641-r12, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8474; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497 16]

497.17 Reserve fund.

The board of directors, subject to revision by the association at any general or special meeting, shall each year set aside not less than ten percent of the net profits for a reserve fund, until an amount has accumulated therein equal to fifty percent of the paid-up capital stock.

[SS15, §1641-r13, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8475; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497 17]

497.18 Educational fund — dividends.

The board may each year, out of remaining net profits, subject to the approval of the association at any general or special meeting:

1. Provide an educational fund to be used in teaching co-operation, not exceeding five percent of the net profits.

2. Declare and pay a dividend on the stock, not exceeding ten percent.

[SS15, §1641-r13, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8476; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497 18]

497.19 Additional dividends.

The remainder of said net profits shall be distributed by uniform dividends upon the amount of purchases of shareholders, and upon the wages and salaries of employees. In producing associations, such as creameries, canneries, elevators, factories, and the like, dividends shall be on raw material delivered instead of on goods purchased. In case the association is both a selling and a producing concern, the dividends may be on both raw material delivered and goods purchased by patrons.

[SS15, §1641-r13, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8477; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497 19]

497.20 When dividends distributed.

The profits or net earnings of such associations shall be distributed to those entitled thereto, at such times as the bylaws shall prescribe, which shall be as often as once in twelve months.

[SS15, §1641-r14, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8478; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497 20]
497.21 Dissolution.

If such association, for five consecutive years, shall fail to declare a dividend upon the shares of its paid-up capital, five or more stockholders, by petition, setting forth such fact, may apply to the district court of the county wherein is situated its principal place of business in this state, for its dissolution. If, upon hearing, the allegations of the petition are found to be true, the court may adjudge a dissolution of the association.

[SS15, §1641-rl6; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8480; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497.21]

497.22 Annual report — penalty.

Every association organized under the terms of this chapter shall annually, on or before the first day of March of each year, make a report to the secretary of state; such report shall contain the name of the company, its principal place of business in this state, and generally a statement as to its business, showing total amount of business transacted, amount of capital stock subscribed for and paid in, number of stockholders, total expense of operation, amount of indebtedness for liabilities, and its profits and losses. Such reports shall be for the calendar or fiscal year immediately preceding the said first day of March, provided that a calendar or fiscal year has been completed upon said date.

Failure to comply with this section before the first day of April shall subject the delinquent association to a penalty of ten dollars.

[SS15, §1641-r15; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8480; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497.22]

497.23 Exemption from report.

Any corporation organized under the provisions of this chapter after the first day of January shall be exempt from the provisions of section 497.22 for the year in which incorporated, after which it shall, however, be subject to all of the provisions of said section.

[C27, 31, 35, §8480-a1; C39, §8480.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497.23]

497.24 List of delinquents.

In the month of April of each year the secretary of state shall prepare a list of all delinquent corporations and file the same in the secretary of state's office.

[C27, 31, 35, §8480-a2; C39, §8480.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497.24]

497.25 Notice to delinquents.

On or before the first day of May the secretary of state shall send by registered mail to each delinquent and to each of its officers, as may be disclosed by the latest records on file in the office of the secretary of state, a notice of such delinquency and of the penalties provided in section 497.22.

[C27, 31, 35, §8480-a3; C39, §8480.3; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497.25]

497.26 Cancellation.

If the annual report required is not filed and penalties paid on or before the last day of June the secretary of state shall, on the first day of July following, cancel the name of any delinquent corporation from the list of live corporations in the secretary of state's office, and enter such cancellation on the proper records.

[C27, 31, 35, §8480-a4; C39, §8480.4; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497.26]

497.27 Effect of cancellation.

When so canceled the corporate rights of any such corporation shall be forfeited and its corporate period terminated on the date such cancellation shall have been entered on the records of the secretary of state's office.

[C27, 31, 35, §8480-a5; C39, §8480.5; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497.27]

497.28 Reinstatement of corporation.

Any corporation whose corporate rights have been canceled and forfeited in the manner provided herein may, however, before September 1 following such cancellation, make application to the secretary of state for reinstatement and upon being furnished good and sufficient reasons for not having filed its report the secretary shall, upon the filing of such report and the payment of the penalty, reinstate said corporation and the decree of cancellation shall be annulled and the corporation shall be entitled to continue to act as a corporation for the unexpired portion of its corporate period as fixed by its articles of incorporation and the limitations prescribed by law.

[C27, 31, 35, §8480-a6; C39, §8480.6; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497.28]

497.29 Chapter extended to former companies.

All co-operative corporations, companies, or associations heretofore organized and doing business under prior statutes, or which have attempted to so organize and do business, shall have the benefit of all the provisions of this chapter and be bound thereby, on filing with the secretary of state and the county recorder of the county in which the principal place of business is located, amended and substituted articles of incorporation drawn in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and a written declaration, signed and sworn to by the president and secretary to the effect that said co-operative company or association has by a majority vote of its stockholders decided to accept the benefits of and to be bound by the provisions hereof.

497.30 Use of term "co-operative" restricted.

No corporation or association organized after July 4, 1915, shall be entitled to use the term "co-operative" as part of its corporate or other business name or title, unless it has complied with the provisions of this chapter, and any corporation or association violating the provisions of this section may be enjoined from doing business under such name at the instance of any stockholder of any association legally organized under the provisions of this chapter.

[SS15, §1641-r17; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8482; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497.30]

497.31 Use of funds.

None of the funds of any association organized under the provisions of this chapter shall be used in the payment of any promotion; as commissions, salaries or expenses of any kind, character, or nature whatsoever.

[SS15, §1641-r18; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8483; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497.31]
497.32 Private property exempt.
The private property of the stockholders shall be exempt from execution for the debts of the corporation.

[SS15, §1641-r19; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8484; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §497.32]

CHAPTER 498
Ch 498 Add'l 498.35 Personal Liability
Ch 212, §7-87 Acts
NONPROFIT-SHARING CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATIONS
Applicable only to associations originally chartered before July 4, 1935. See ch 499 Permissible reorganization under later law, §499.43 498.1 Nature.

Associations organized under the provisions of this chapter are declared to be not for pecuniary profit.
[C27, 31, 35, §8485-b; C39, §8485.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.1]

498.2 Organization.
Any number of persons, not less than five, may associate themselves as a co-operative association, without capital stock, for the purpose of conducting any agricultural, livestock, horticultural, dairy, mercantile, mining, manufacturing, or mechanical business, or the constructing and operating of telephone and high tension electric transmission lines on the co-operative plan and of acting as a co-operative selling agency. Co-operative livestock shipping associations organized under this chapter shall do business with members only.

498.3 Terms defined — products of nonmembers.
For the purpose of this chapter, the words "association", "exchange", "society", or "union", shall be construed to mean the same and are defined to mean a corporate body composed of actual producers or consumers of the given commodity handled by the association, whose business is conducted for the mutual benefit of its members and not for the profit of stockholders, and control of which is vested in its members upon the basis of one vote to each member. Associations shall not deal in the products of nonmembers to an amount greater in value than such as are handled by it for members.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8487; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.3]

498.32 Use of term "co-operative" — injunction.

498.33 Use of funds — promotion expenses.

498.34 Duration of incorporation — renewal.
498.5 Filing — certificate of incorporation.
   The original articles of incorporation shall be filed for record with the secretary of state. Upon approval of such articles, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of incorporation.
   [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8489; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.5]

498.6 Fees.
   For filing the articles of incorporation of associations organized under this chapter, there shall be paid to the secretary of state five dollars, and for the filing of an amendment to such articles, two dollars. In all cases there shall be paid a recording fee of fifty cents per page.
   [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8490; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.6]

498.7 Amendments.
   Within thirty days after the adoption of any amendment to its articles of incorporation, the association shall cause a copy of such amendment to be recorded in the office of the secretary of state.
   [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8491; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.7]

498.8 Board of directors — removals.
   Every such association shall be managed by a board of not less than five directors, who shall be elected by and from the members at such time and for such term of office as the articles may prescribe. They shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualify; but a majority of the members shall have the power at any regular or special meeting of the association legally called, to remove any director or officer for cause, and fill the vacancy.
   [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8492; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.8]

498.9 Officers.
   The officers of every such association shall be a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary, and treasurer, who shall be elected annually by the directors, from amongst their own number. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be held by the same person.
   [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8493; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.9]

498.10 Admission of members.
   Under the terms and conditions prescribed in its bylaws, an association may admit as members persons engaged in the production of the products, or in the use or consumption of the supplies, to be handled by or through the association, including the lessors and landlords of lands used for the production of such products, who receive as rent part of the crop raised on the leased premises.
   [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8494; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.10]

498.11 Membership certificates.
   Membership certificates in due form shall be issued to all charter members and to such others as shall subsequently be admitted by the association in accordance with its articles and bylaws.
   [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8495; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.11]

498.12 Certificates nontransferable — surrender.
   No such certificate shall be transferable by the member to any other person, but shall be surrendered to the association in case of the member's voluntary withdrawal.
   [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8496; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.12]

498.13 Automatic cancellation — revocation.
   It shall become void upon the member's death, or may be revoked by the directors upon proof duly made that the member has ceased to be a producer of products handled by or through the association, in the case of producing or selling associations or has ceased to be the user of products handled by or through the association in case of stores and supply associations, or for failure to observe its bylaws or the member's contractual obligations to it.
   [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8497; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.13]

498.14 Conditions printed on certificates.
   The conditions of membership specified in sections 498.12 and 498.13 shall be printed upon the face of every membership certificate.
   [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8498; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.14]

498.15 Combinations of local associations.
   Likewise, associations may be formed under this chapter whose membership shall consist of other associations formed under the provisions of this chapter, the purpose being to federate local associations into central co-operative associations for the more economical and efficient performance of their marketing or other operations.
   [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8499; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.15]

498.16 Powers of central associations.
   Such central associations may enter into contracts, agreements and arrangements with their member associations. Each member association in such federated associations shall have an official representative chosen by its own board of directors, who shall cast one vote and no more at all business meetings of the federated association.
   [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8500; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.16]

498.17 Voting power.
   Each member of an association shall be entitled to one vote and no more upon all questions affecting the control and management of the affairs of the association and in the selection of its board of directors.
   [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8501; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.17]

498.18 Proxies — voting by mail.
   No vote by proxy shall be permitted, but a written vote received by mail from any absent member, and signed by that member, may be read and counted at any regular or special meeting of the association, provided that the secretary shall notify all members in writing of the exact motion or resolution upon which such vote is to be taken, and a copy of same shall be 498.23 Reserve and educational funds — patronage dividends.

Out of any surplus remaining in any given year, the directors shall each year set aside not less than ten percent of such savings for the accumulation of a reserve fund until such reserve shall equal at least forty percent of the invested capital of the association, not less than one percent nor more than five percent for a permanent educational fund from which expenditures shall be made annually at the discretion of the directors for the purpose of teaching co-operation, and the remainder to be returned to the members as a patronage dividend prorated on a uniform basis to each member upon the value of business done by that member through the association

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8507; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498 23]

498.24 Annual report — penalty.

Every association organized under the terms of this chapter shall annually, on or before the first day of March of each year, make a report to the secretary of state, such report shall contain the name of the company, its principal place of business in this state, and generally a statement as to its business, showing total amount of business transacted, number of members, total expense of operation, amount of indebtedness, and its profits or losses. Such reports shall be for the calendar or fiscal year immediately preceding the said first day of March, provided that a calendar or fiscal year has been completed upon said date.

Failure to comply with this section before April 1 of each year shall subject the delinquent association to a penalty of ten dollars

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8508; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498 24]

498.25 Exemption from report.

Any corporation organized under the provisions of this chapter after the first day of January shall be exempt from the provisions of section 498.24 for the year in which incorporated, after which it shall, however, be subject to all of the provisions of said section

[C27, 31, 35, §8508 a1, C39, §8508.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498 25]

498.26 List of delinquents.

In the month of April of each year the secretary of state shall prepare a list of all delinquent corporations and file the same in the office of the secretary of state, such report shall contain the name of the company, its principal place of business in this state, and its profits or losses. Such reports shall be for the calendar or fiscal year immediately preceding the said first day of March, provided that a calendar or fiscal year has been completed upon said date

[C27, 31, 35, §8508 a2, C39, §8508.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498 26]

498.27 Notice to delinquents.

On or before the first day of May the secretary of state shall send by certified mail to each delinquent and to each of its officers, as may be disclosed by the latest records on file in the office of the secretary of state, a notice of such delinquency and of the penalties provided in section 498.24

[C27, 31, 35, §8508 a3, C39, §8508.3; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498 27]

498.28 Cancellation.

If the annual report required is not filed and penalties paid on or before the last day of June the secretary of state shall, on the first day of July following, cancel the name of any delinquent corporation from the list of live corporations in the secretary of state's office, and enter such cancellation on the proper records.
[C27, 31, 35, §8508-a4; C39, §8508.4; C46, 50, 54, 58,
62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.28]

498.29 Effect of cancellation.
When so canceled the corporate rights of any such corporation shall be forfeited and its corporate period terminated on the date such cancellation shall have been entered on the records of the secretary of state's office.
[C27, 31, 35, §8508-a5; C39, §8508.5; C46, 50, 54, 58,
62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.29]

498.30 Reinstatement of corporation.
Any corporation whose corporate rights have been canceled and forfeited in the manner provided herein may, however, before September 1 following such cancellation, make application to the secretary of state for reinstatement and upon being furnished good and sufficient reasons for not having filed its report the secretary shall, upon the filing of such report and the payment of the penalty, reinstate said corporation and the corporation shall be entitled to continue to act as a corporation for the unexpired portion of its corporate period as fixed by its articles of incorporation and the limitations prescribed by law.
[C27, 31, 35, §§8508-a6; C39, §8508.6; C46, 50, 54, 58,
62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.30]

498.31 Chapter extended to former associations.
All corporations, or associations heretofore organized and doing business under prior statutes, or which have attempted so to organize and do business co-operatively, shall have the benefit of all the provisions of this chapter and be bound thereby, on filing with the secretary of state amended and substituted articles of incorporation drawn in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and a written declaration signed and sworn to by the president and secretary, to the effect that said company or association has, by a majority vote of its stockholders, decided to accept the benefits of and to be bound by the provisions of this chapter.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8509; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66,
71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.31]

498.32 Use of term "co-operative" — injunction.
No corporation or association hereafter organized shall be entitled to use the term "co-operative" as part of its corporate or other business name or title, unless it has complied with the provisions of this chapter or of chapter 497, and any corporation or association violating the provisions of this chapter may be enjoined from doing business under such name at the instance of any stockholder of any association legally organized under the provisions of this chapter.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8510; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66,
71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.32]

498.33 Use of funds — promotion expenses.
None of the funds of any association shall be used for purposes of any promotion as commissions, salaries, or expenses of any kind, character, or nature whatsoever, except that in the case of associations operating in more than one county, if the par value of securities to be sold is in excess of one hundred thousand dollars, a sum not to exceed five percent of the par value of bonds or debentures sold may be used by committees elected by the members for selling or solicting for the sale of such securities or for hiring responsible salaried solicitors for that purpose.

71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §498.33]

498.34 Duration of incorporation — renewal.
Associations formed under the provisions of this chapter shall continue for a period of twenty-five years, unless earlier dissolved by order of its members or by other processes as by law provided, and the term of its existence may be renewed by the filing of new articles of association, as by law provided.

499.1 Applicable.

This chapter applies only to co-operative associations as defined in section 499 2. All such associations formed from and after July 4, 1935 must be organized under this chapter.

[C35, §8512.1, C39, §8512.01; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 1]

499.2 Definitions.

A "co-operative association" is one which, in serving some purpose enumerated in section 499 6, deals with or functions for its members at least to the extent required by section 499 3, and which distributes its net earnings among its members in proportion to their dealings with it, except for limited dividends or other items permitted in this chapter, and in which each voting member has one vote and no more.

"Association" means a corporation formed under this chapter.

"Agricultural products" include horticultural, viticultural, forestry, dairy, livestock, poultry, bee and any other farm products.

"Agricultural associations" are those formed for a purpose specified in subsection 2, section 499 6.

"Member" refers not only to members of nonstock associations but also to common stockholders of stock associations, unless the context of a particular provision otherwise indicates.

"Local deferred patronage dividends" of an association means that portion of each member's deferred patronage dividends described in section 499 30 which the board of directors of the association has determined arise from earnings of the association other than earnings which have been allocated to the association but which have not been paid in cash to the association by other cooperative organizations of which the association is a member. However, if the board of directors fails to make a determination with respect to a deceased member's deferred patronage dividends prior to the member's death, then "local deferred patronage dividends" means that portion of the member's deferred patronage dividends which is proportional to the deferred patronage dividends described in section 499 30 less the amount of undistributed net earnings which have been allocated to the association by other cooperative organizations of which the association is a member, compared to all deferred patronage dividends of the association.

"Local deferred patronage preferred stock" of an association means preferred stock, if any, of an association which has been issued in exchange for local deferred patronage dividends if preferred stock has been issued in exchange for deferred patronage dividends prior to the time the board of directors of the association has determined the portion of each member's deferred patronage dividend which represents... local deferred patronage dividends, then the board of directors may reasonably determine what portion of the preferred stock was issued in exchange for local deferred patronage dividends and the portion which was issued for other deferred patronage dividends.

499.3 Dealing with nonmembers.
A nonstock livestock shipping association shall not handle livestock of any nonmembers.

Any association may limit its dealings or any class thereof to members only.

No association shall, during any year, deal or function with or for nonmembers to an extent exceeding one-half of the value of business done. This provision shall not apply to its sales or services to municipal or governmental bodies; nor to agricultural associations’ purchases from or sales to corporate landowners who are not primarily engaged in the business of farming.

499.4 Use of term “co-operative” restricted.

No person or firm, and no corporation hereafter organized, which is not an association defined herein, shall use the word “co-operative” or any abbreviation thereof in its name or advertising or in any connection with its business, except foreign associations admitted under section 499.54. The attorney general or any association or any member thereof may sue and enjoin such use.

499.5 Permissible organizers.

Five or more individuals, or two or more associations, may organize an association. All individual incorporators of agricultural associations must be engaged in producing agricultural products, which term shall include landlords and tenants as specified as in section 499.13.

499.6 Objects.

Associations may be formed either:
1. To conduct a mercantile, manufacturing, mechanical or mining business, or to construct or operate telephone or electric transmission lines; or
2. To produce, grade, blend, preserve, process, store, warehouse, market, sell or handle any agricultural product, or any by-product thereof; or to purchase, produce, sell or supply machinery, petroleum products, equipment, fertilizer, supplies, business or educational service to or for those engaged as bona fide producers of agricultural products; or to finance any such activities; or to engage in any co-operative activity connected with any of said purposes; or for any number of these purposes.

499.7 Powers.

Except as expressly limited in its articles, each association shall have power to do anything permitted anywhere in this chapter, and also:
1. To conduct any business enumerated in section 499.6 which its articles specify; and to conduct such business either as principal or as agent for its members.
2. To borrow any amounts of money, and give any form of obligation or security thereof.
3. To make advances to patrons or members, or members of member-associations, and take any form of obligation or security thereof.
4. To acquire, hold, transfer or pledge any obligation or security representing funds actually advanced or used for any co-operative activity; or stock, memberships, bonds or obligations of any co-operative organization dealing in any product handled by the association, or any by-product thereof.
5. To make any contract, endorsement or guaranty it deems desirable incident to its transfer or pledge of any obligation or security.
6. To acquire, own or dispose of any real or personal property deemed convenient for its business, including patents, trade-marks and copyrights.
7. To exercise any power, right or privilege suitable or necessary for, or incident to, promoting or accomplishing any of its powers, purposes or activities, or granted to ordinary corporations, save such as are inconsistent with this chapter.
8. To exercise any of its powers anywhere. No association organized under this chapter shall engage in the business of banking.

499.8 Contracts authorized.

An agricultural association may contract with any member for the member’s exclusive sale to or through it, of all or any part of the member’s agricultural products or other designated commodities. Such contracts may permit the association to take and sell the property without acquiring title thereto, and pay the member the sale price less costs and expenses of selling, which may include the member’s pro rata portion of the association’s annual outlay for overhead, interest, preferred dividends, reserves or other specified charges. Such contracts must be for a specified time, not less than one year. Each contract shall fix a period of at least ten days during each year after the first, within which either party may terminate it without affecting any liability previously accrued.

66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.8]

499.9 Penalties — performance — injunction — arbitration.

Contracts permitted by section 499.8 may provide that the member pay the association any sum, fixed in amount or by a specified method of computation, for each violation thereof; also all the association’s expenses of any suit thereon, including bond premiums and attorney’s fees. All such provisions shall be enforced as written, whether at law or in equity, and shall be deemed proper measurement of actual damages, and not penalties or forfeitures.

The association may obtain specific performance of any such contract, or enjoin its threatened or continued breach, despite the adequacy of any legal or other remedy.

If the association files a verified petition, showing an actual or threatened breach of any such contract and seeking any remedy therefor, the court shall, with notice or delay but on such bond as it deems proper, issue a temporary injunction against such breach or its continuance.

The parties to such contracts may agree to arbitrate any controversy subsequently arising thereunder, and fix the number of arbitrators and method of their appointment. Such agreements shall be valid and irrevocable, except on such grounds as invalidate contracts generally. If they specify no method for appointing arbitrators, or if either party fails to follow such method, or if for any reason arbitrators are not named or vacancies filled, either party may apply to the district court to designate the necessary arbitrator, who shall then act under the agreement with the same authority as if named in it. Unless otherwise agreed, there shall be but one arbitrator.

§499.10 Co-operative agreements.

Any association may make any agreement or arrangement with any other association or co-operative organization for the co-operative or more economical carrying on of any of its business. Any number of such associations or organizations may unite to employ or use, or may separately employ or use, the same methods, means or agencies for conducting their respective businesses.

§499.11 Legality declared.

No association, contract, method or act which complies with this chapter shall be deemed a conspiracy or combination in restraint of trade or an illegal monopoly, or an attempt to lessen business or fix prices arbitrarily, or to accomplish any improper or illegal purpose.

[C35, §8512-g11, C39, §8512.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 11]

§499.12 Exemption of private property.

The private property of the members or stockholders shall be exempt from execution for the debts of the corporation.

[C35, §8512 g12, C39, §8512.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 12]

§499.13 Membership — eligibility.

No membership or share of common stock shall ever be issued to, or held by, any party not eligible to membership in the association under its articles. Individuals may be made eligible only if they are engaged in producing products marketed by the association, or if they customarily consume or use the supplies or commodities it handles, or use the services it renders. Farm tenants, and landlords who receive a share of agricultural products as rent, may be made eligible to membership in agricultural associations as producers.

Other associations engaged in any directly or indirectly related activity may be made eligible to membership. Federated associations may be formed whose membership is restricted to cooperative associations.

[C35, §8512 g13, C39, §8512.13; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 13]

§499.14 Membership in nonstock associations.

Membership in associations without capital stock may be acquired by eligible parties in the manner provided in the articles, which shall specify the rights of members, the issuing price of memberships, and what, if any, fixed dividends accrue thereon. If the articles so provide, membership shall be of two classes, voting and nonvoting. Voting members shall be agricultural producers, and all other members shall be nonvoting members. Nonvoting members shall have all the rights of membership except the right to vote.

[C35, §8512 g14, C39, §8512.14; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 14]

§499.15 Contents of certificates.

The association shall issue certificates of membership or stock, each of which states the fixed dividend, if any, and the restrictions or limitations upon its ownership, voting, transfer, redemption or cancellation.

[C35, §8512 g15, C39, §8512.15; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 15]

§499.16 Subscriptions — issuing certificates.

If the articles permit, any eligible subscriber for common stock or membership may vote and be treated as a member, after making part payment therefor in cash and giving the subscriber's note for the balance. Such subscriptions may be forfeited as provided in section 499.32. No stock or membership certificate shall be issued until fully paid for. No subscriber shall hold office until the subscriber's certificate has been issued.

[C35, §8512-g16, C39, §8512.16; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 16]

§499.17 Transfer of stock or membership.

No common stock shall be transferable, unless the articles expressly provide for transfer to others eligible for membership. Such provision may require that the transfer be preceded by an offer to the association, or be otherwise restricted. No nonstock membership shall be transferable, and all certificates thereof shall be surrendered to the association on the member's voluntary withdrawal.

[C35, §8512-g17, C39, §8512.17; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 17]

§499.18 Expulsion of members.

The directors may expel any member if the member has attempted to transfer that member's membership or stock in violation of its terms, or has willfully violated any article or bylaw which provides for such penalties.

[C35, §8512 g18, C39, §8512.18; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 18]

§499.19 Cancellation of membership or stock.

If a common stockholder or member dies, or becomes ineligible, or is expelled, that person's stock or membership shall forthwith be canceled. In cases of expulsion the association shall pay the stockholder or member its value as shown by the books on the date of cancellation, but not more than its original issuing price, within sixty days thereafter. In cases of death or meligibility, it shall pay such value to the stockholder or member or the stockholder's or member's personal representative within two years thereafter, without interest.

[C35, §8512-g19, C39, §8512.19; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 19]

499.20 Withdrawal of members.
The articles may permit and regulate voluntary withdrawal of members and the resulting cancellation of their common stock and memberships.

[C35, §8512-g20, C39, §8512.20; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 20]

499.21 Obligations not affected.
The death, expulsion or withdrawal of a member shall not impair the member's contracts, debts, or obligations to the association.

[C35, §8512-g21, C39, §8512.21; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 21]

499.22 Capital stock.
Associations with capital stock may divide the shares into common and preferred stock. Par value stock shall not be issued for less than par. The general corporation laws shall govern the consideration for which no-par stock is issued. If the articles so provide, common stock may be issued in two classes, voting and nonvoting. Voting stock shall be issued to all agricultural producers and nonvoting stock to all other members. Nonvoting stock shall have all privileges of membership except the right to vote. Preferred stock held by nonmembers shall not exceed in amount that held by members.

[C35, §8512-g22, C39, §8512.22; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 22]

499.23 Dividends on common stock.
Unless the articles provide that common stock shall receive no dividends, the directors may declare non-cumulative dividends thereon at such rate as they may fix, not exceeding eight percent per annum.

[C35, §8512-g23, C39, §8512.23; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 23]

499.24 Preferred stock.
Preferred stock shall bear cumulative or non-cumulative dividends as fixed by the articles, not exceeding eight percent per annum. It shall have no vote. It shall be issued and be transferable without regard to eligibility or membership, and be redeemable on terms specified in the articles and as provided for in this chapter. The directors shall determine the time and amount of its issue.

499.25 Issuing preferred stock in purchases.
An association may discharge all or any part of obligations incurred in purchasing any business, property or stock, or an interest therein, by issuing its authorized preferred stock in an amount not exceeding the fair market value of the thing purchased. Issuance of such stock in an amount exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars shall be governed by the law as found in sections 492.6 and 492.7. Issuance of such stock in amounts smaller than twenty-five thousand dollars shall be upon the fair market value of the property purchased, as determined through an appraisal made by the director or a competent appraiser employed by the directors. Within thirty days after such issue, the association shall file with the secretary of state a verified report containing an accurate detailed description of the thing purchased, the valuation thereof by the directors, and the amount of preferred stock thus issued. Such preferred stock shall be valid as though paid for in cash.

[C35, §8512-g25, C39, §8512.25; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 25]

499.26 Service charges.
Unless the articles otherwise provide, the bylaws or the directors may prescribe charges to be made to each member for services rendered to the member or upon products bought from or sold to the member, and the time and manner of their collection.

[C35, §8512-g26, C39, §8512.26; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 26]

499.27 Meetings.
Regular meetings of members shall be held at least once each year, the first of which shall be on the date specified in its articles. Unless otherwise provided, in the articles or bylaws, subsequent meetings shall be on the same date in each succeeding year. Unless otherwise provided in the articles, the directors may call special meetings of members, and must do so upon written demand of twenty percent of the members. Unless the member waives it in writing, each member shall have ten days' written notice of the time and place of all meetings, and of the purpose of all special meetings. Such notice shall be given to the member in person or by mail directed to the member's address as shown on the books of the association, or if the articles so provide, by publication in a regular publication of general circulation among its members, or a newspaper of general circulation published at the principal place of business of the association.

[C35, §8512-g27, C39, §8512.27; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 27]

Articles of incorporation §499 40

499.28 Number of votes.
No member may own more than one membership or share of common stock. Each voting member shall be entitled to one vote and no more at all corporate meetings.

[C35, §8512-g28, C39, §8512.28; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 28]

499.29 Manner of voting.
Votes shall be cast in person, and not by proxy. The vote of a member association shall be cast only by its representative duly authorized in writing. If the articles or bylaws permit, an absent member may cast that member's signed written vote upon any proposition of which the member has been previously notified in writing, and of which a copy accompanies the member's vote.

[C35, §8512-g29, C39, §8512.29; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 29]
§499.30 Distribution of earnings.

The directors shall annually dispose of the earnings of the association in excess of its operating expenses as follows:

To provide a reasonable reserve for depreciation, obsolescence, bad debts, or contingent losses or expenses.

At least ten percent of the remaining earnings must be added to surplus until surplus equals either thirty percent of the total of all capital paid in for stock or memberships, plus all unpaid patronage dividends, plus certificates of indebtedness payable upon liquidation, earnings from nonmember business, and earnings arising from the earnings of other cooperative organizations of which the association is a member, or one thousand dollars, whichever is greater. No additions shall be made to surplus when it exceeds either fifty percent of the total, or one thousand dollars, whichever is greater.

Not less than one percent nor more than five percent of such earnings in excess of reserves may be placed in an educational fund, to be used as the directors deem suitable for teaching or promoting co-operation.

After the foregoing, to pay fixed dividends on stock or memberships, if any.

Notwithstanding the articles of incorporation of any association, for each taxable year of the association beginning after December 31, 1962, all remaining net earnings shall be allocated to the account of each member, including subscribers described in section 499.16, ratably in proportion to the business the member did with the association during that year. The directors shall determine, or the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the association may specify, the percentage or the amount of the allocation that currently shall be paid in cash. However, so long as there are unpaid local deferred patronage dividends of deceased members for prior years, the amount currently payable in cash shall not exceed twenty percent of the allocation. All the remaining allocation not paid in cash shall be transferred to a revolving fund and credited to the members and subscribers. The credits in the revolving fund are referred to in this chapter as deferred patronage dividends.

[C35, §8512-g30; C39, §8512.30; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.30]

86 Acts, ch 1196, §2, 3

§499.31 Control of allocation by members.

The members may at any meeting control the amount to be allocated to surplus or educational fund, within the limits specified in section 499.30, or the amount to be allocated to reserves.

[C35, §8512-g31; C39, §8512.31; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.31]

§499.32 Patronage dividends of subscribers.

Patronage dividends to subscribers whose stock or membership is not fully paid in cash shall be applied toward such payment until it is completed. If the articles or bylaws so provide, subscriptions not fully paid within two years may be canceled and all payments or patronage dividends thereon forfeited.

[C35, §8512-g32; C39, §8512.32; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.32]

§499.33 Use of revolving fund.

The directors may use the revolving fund to pay the obligations or add to the capital of the association or retire its preferred stock. In that event the deferred patronage dividends credited to members constitute a charge on the revolving fund, on future additions to the revolving fund, and on the corporate assets, subordinate to existing or future creditors and preferred stockholders. Deferred patronage dividends for any year have priority over those for subsequent years. However, prior to other payments of deferred patronage dividends or redemption of preferred stock held by members, the directors of co-operative associations, other than those co-operative associations which are public utilities as defined in section 476.1, shall pay local deferred patronage dividends and redeem local deferred patronage preferred stock of deceased natural persons who were members, and may pay deferred patronage dividends or may redeem preferred stock of deceased natural persons who were members or of members who become ineligible, without reference to the order of priority. Directors of co-operative associations which are public utilities as defined in section 476.1 may pay deferred patronage dividends and redeem preferred stock of deceased natural persons who were members, and may pay deferred patronage dividends or redeem preferred stock of members who become ineligible without reference to priority. Payment of deferred patronage dividends or the redemption of preferred stock of ineligible members shall be carried out to the extent and in the manner specified in the bylaws of the association.

[C35, §8512-g33; C39, §8512.33; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.33]

§499.34 Patronage dividend certificates.

If its articles or bylaws so provide, an association may issue transferable or nontransferable certificates for deferred patronage dividends.

[C35, §8512-g34; C39, §8512.34; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.34]

§499.35 Time of payment.

Credits or certificates referred to in sections 499.33 and 499.34 shall not mature until the dissolution or liquidation of the association, but shall be callable by the association at any time in the order of priority specified in section 499.33.

[C35, §8512-g35; C39, §8512.35; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.35]

§499.36 Directors.

1. The affairs of each association shall be managed by a board of not less than five directors, who must be members of the association or officers or members of a member-association. They shall be elected by the members as the articles prescribe.

2. Unless the articles or bylaws otherwise provide, vacancies in the board shall be filled by the remaining directors, the director thus selected to serve for the remainder of the vacant term.

3. The articles or bylaws may permit the directors to select an executive committee from their own number; and may prescribe its authority, which may be coextensive with that of the whole board.
4 Directors shall be elected by districts, if the articles specify the districts, the number of directors from each district, the manner of nomination, redistricting, or reapportionment, and whether directors are to be directly elected by the members or by delegates chosen by them. Districts shall be formed and redistricting shall be ordered, from time to time, so that the districts contain as nearly as possible an equal number of members. The bylaws shall describe the district boundaries currently in effect.

[C35, §8512-g36, C39, §8512 36; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 36]

499.37 Officers and employees.

The directors shall select from their own number a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary-treasurer or a secretary and a treasurer, and shall fill vacancies in such offices unless the articles or bylaws otherwise provide, and officers shall be chosen for annual terms at the close of the first regular meeting of members in each year.

The directors shall also choose and may remove such other officers and employees as they deem proper, or, as the articles or bylaws may prescribe.

[C35, §8512-g37, C39, §8512 37; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 37]

499.38 Removal of officers and directors.

At any meeting called for that purpose, any officer or director may be removed by vote of a majority of all voting members of the association. A director chosen under section 499.36, subsection 4, may likewise be removed by vote of a majority of all members in the director’s district.

[C35, §8512-g38, C39, §8512 38; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 38]

499.39 Referendum.

If provided for in the articles of incorporation, any action of directors shall, on demand of one-third of the directors made and recorded at the same meeting, be referred to a regular or special meeting of members called for such purpose. Such action shall stand until and unless annulled by a majority of the votes cast at such meeting, which vote shall not impair rights of third parties previously acquired.

[C35, §8512-g39, C39, §8512 39; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 39]

499.40 Articles.

Articles of incorporation must be signed and acknowledged by each incorporator. They may deal with any fiscal or internal affair of the association or any subject hereof in any manner not inconsistent with this chapter. All articles must state in the English language:

1. The name of the association, which must include the word “co-operative”, and the address of its principal office.

2. The purposes for which it is formed, and a statement that it is organized under this chapter.

3. Its duration, which may be perpetual.

4. The name, occupation and post office address of each incorporator.

5. The number of directors, their qualifications and terms of office and how they shall be chosen and removed.

6. Who are eligible for membership, how members shall be admitted and how membership is lost, how earnings shall be distributed among members, how assets shall be distributed in liquidation, and, in addition, either:

   a. That the association shall have capital stock, the classes, par value and authorized number of shares of each class thereof, how shares shall be issued and paid for, and what rights, limitations, conditions and restrictions pertain to the stock, which shall be alike as to all stock of the same class, or

   b. That the association shall have no capital stock, and what limitations, conditions, restrictions and rights pertain to membership, and if the rights are unequal, the rules respecting them shall be specifically stated.

7. The date of the first regular meeting of members.

[C35, §8512-g40, C39, §8512 40; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 40]

499.41 Amendments.

Notwithstanding the provisions of the articles of incorporation of any association pertaining to amendment thereto now in effect, any association may amend its articles of incorporation by a vote of sixty-six and two-thirds percent of the members present, or represented by mailed ballots, and having voting privileges, at any annual meeting or special meeting called for that purpose, provided that at least ten days before said annual meeting or special meeting a copy of the proposed amendment or summary thereof be sent to all members having voting rights, or said articles of incorporation may be amended in accordance with the amendment requirements contained in the articles or bylaws of said association that are adopted subsequent to July 4, 1963, or are in effect on or after July 4, 1964, provided said amendment requirements in the articles or bylaws are not less than established in this section.

Amendments, signed and acknowledged by officers designated for such purpose, shall be filed and recorded as provided in section 499.44.

[C35, §8512-g41, C39, §8512 41; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 41]

499.42 Renewal.

An association may extend its duration perpetually, or for any definite time, by resolution adopted by a majority of all its members, or any different vote for which the articles may provide, at a meeting called for that purpose and held before its original expiration.

Unless the association has meanwhile wound up, its duration may be extended in like manner within three years after its original expiration, with the same effect as if done prior thereto, by a vote of two thirds of all its members.

The resolution must state the name of the association, its original expiration date, and for how long thereafter its duration is extended, and must also adopt, and designate officers to execute, renewal articles of incorporation containing the things required in section 499.40.

The renewal articles shall be signed, filed and recorded as required by section 499.41. Renewal shall...

not relieve the association from fees, charges or penalties which may have accrued against it
[C35, §8512-g42, C39, §8512.42; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 42]

499.43 Existing corporations — option.

Any existing Iowa co operative corporation may, by a majority vote of all its members, at a meeting called for that purpose and held before its present articles expire, amend its articles so as to comply with this chapter and section 499-40, which may extend its corporate duration. Such amended articles, signed and acknowledged by officers designated for that purpose, shall be filed and recorded, and a certificate of incorporation issued, as required by section 499-44, whereupon such corporation shall be deemed an association under this chapter.

Any such existing corporation whose present articles have now expired, or will expire before January 1, 1938, may adopt this chapter as above provided at any time before that date, with the same effect as though done before such articles expired.

If any shareholder or member of such corporation vote against such amendment, those voting for it shall purchase that person's stock or interest at its real value, within two years from the date of such vote, paying interest thereon at the rate of six percent until paid. The association may retire the stock or interest thus purchased.

If any shareholder or member of such corporation shall not be eligible to continue membership under such amendment, the association shall within two years after the amendment is filed purchase and retire that person's stock or membership for its real value.

It shall be presumed that the real value of such stock or interest is its proportionate share of the corporate assets at book value less liabilities as shown by its books.
[C35, §8512-g43, C39, §8512.43; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 43]

499.44 Filing and recording — certificate of incorporation.

Articles, amendments, and renewals shall be filed with and approved and recorded by the secretary of state, and recorded in the county where the association has its principal place of business, as required by the general corporation laws.

Upon approving the articles, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of incorporation, whereupon corporate existence shall begin.
[C35, §8512-g44, C39, §8512.44; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 44]

499.45 Fees.

The following fees shall be paid to the secretary of state:

1. Upon filing articles of incorporation or renewals thereof, ten dollars for authorized capital stock up to twenty-five thousand dollars, and one dollar per one thousand dollars or fraction in excess thereof, or ten dollars if there be no capital stock.

2. Upon filing amendments, one dollar, and if authorized capital stock is increased to an amount exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars, an additional fee of one dollar per thousand dollars or fraction of such excess.

3. Upon filing all articles, renewals, or amendments, a recording fee of fifty cents per page.

4. An annual license fee of one dollar shall be paid by each domestic or foreign association on or before the first day of April in each year, with its annual report.
[C35, §8512-g45, C39, §8512.45; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 45]

499.46 Bylaws.

The directors, by a vote of seventy-five percent of the directors, may adopt, alter, amend, or repeal bylaws for the association, which shall remain in force until altered, amended, or repealed by a vote of seventy-five percent of the members present or represented having voting privileges, at any annual meeting or special meeting of the membership, or as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws. Bylaws shall be kept by the secretary subject to inspection by any member at any time. Bylaws may deal with the fiscal or internal affairs of the association or any subject of this chapter in any manner not inconsistent with this chapter or the articles.
[C35, §8512-g46, C39, §8512.46; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 46]

499.47 Dissolution.

1. An association whose duration has expired, or which is sooner dissolved by voluntary act of its members, shall continue to exist for the purpose of winding up its affairs until its complete liquidation under subsection 3 hereof.

2. An association may be dissolved by two thirds of all votes cast at any meeting called for that purpose at which a majority of all voting members vote.

3. Upon the expiration or voluntary dissolution of an association, the members shall designate three of their number as trustees to replace the officers and directors and wind up its affairs. Such trustees shall thereupon have all the powers of the board, including the power to sell and convey all real or personal property and execute conveyances thereof. Within the time fixed in their designation, or any extension thereof, they shall liquidate its assets, pay its debts and expenses, and distribute any remaining funds among the members, and thereupon the association shall stand dissolved and cease to exist. The trustees shall make, sign, and acknowledge a duplicate report of such dissolution, filing one with the secretary of state and one with the recorder of the county where the articles were recorded.

4. The trustees and their successors in office shall be chosen, and the time for their action fixed and extended, by a majority of all votes cast at any meeting called for such purpose.
[C35, §8512-g47, C39, §8512.47; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 47]

499.48 Distribution in liquidation.

On dissolution or liquidation, the assets of the association shall be used to pay liquidation expenses first, next the association's obligations other than patronage dividends or patronage dividend certificates which it has issued, and the remainder shall be distributed in the following priority:

1. To pay to each person the full amount originally paid by that person in cash for stock or other equity interest in the association.

2. To pay to each person in proportion to the total of each person's revolving fund, stock, or other equity interest in the association remaining after the payment under subsection 1.

In applying subsections 1 and 2, all classes of stock, all revolving funds, and all other equity interests in the association shall be treated equally on their stated values. However, an association may establish its own method of distributing the assets remaining, after paying liquidation expenses and obligations other than patronage dividends or patronage dividend certificates which it has issued, in articles of incorporation adopted, amended, or restated after July 1, 1986.

[C35, §8512-g48; C39, §8512.48; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.48]

86 Acts, ch 1196, §6

499.49 Annual reports.

Each association shall, before April 1 of each year, file a report with the secretary of state on forms prescribed by the secretary, to be accompanied by the annual fee required by section 499.45, subsection 4. Such report shall be signed by an officer of the association, or a receiver or trustee liquidating its affairs, and shall state:

1. Its name and address.
2. The names, addresses and occupations of its officers and directors.
3. The number of shares of each class of stock authorized and outstanding and the par value thereof; or, if there be none, the number of members and the amount of membership fees paid in.
4. The nature and character of its business.
5. What percentage of its business was done with or for its own members during the preceding fiscal or calendar year, and what percentage thereof was done with or for each class of nonmembers specified in section 499.3.
6. Any other information deemed necessary by the secretary to advise the secretary whether the association is actually functioning as a co-operative.

[C35, §8512-g49; C39, §8512.49; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.49]

499.50 Notice of delinquent reports.

Before May 15 the secretary shall send to each association failing to report or pay the fee, a notice by certified mail directed to its principal office specified in its articles, stating the delinquency and its consequences.

[C35, §8512-g50; C39, §8512.50; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.50]

499.51 Forfeiture.

If an association fails to file such report or pay such fee before July 1, its corporate rights shall stand forfeited. The secretary shall notify it thereof by mail, remove its name from the secretary of state's list of live corporations, and notify the attorney general who shall cause its affairs to be wound up, and shall make a showing of good cause for its delinquency which is satisfactory to the secretary of state, the secretary shall set aside such forfeiture and any such suit shall be dismissed.

[C35, §8512-g52; C39, §8512.52; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.52]

499.53 Quo warranto.

The right of an association to exist or continue under this chapter may be inquired into by the attorney general, but not otherwise. If from its annual report or otherwise, the secretary of state is informed that it is not functioning as a co-operative, the secretary shall so notify the attorney general, who, if the attorney general finds reasonable cause so to believe, shall bring action to oust it and wind up its affairs.

[C35, §8512-g53; C39, §8512.53; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.53]

499.54 Foreign associations.

Any foreign corporation now or hereafter organized under generally similar laws of any other state shall be admitted to do business in Iowa upon compliance with the general laws relating to foreign corporations and payment of the same fees as would be required under section 494.4 were said foreign co-operative corporation a foreign corporation for profit seeking authority to transact business in Iowa under chapter 494. Upon the secretary of state being satisfied that such foreign corporation is so organized and has so complied, he shall issue it a certificate authorizing it to do business in Iowa.

Such foreign associations thus admitted shall be entitled to all remedies provided in this chapter, and to enforce all contracts theretofore or thereafter made by it which any association might make under this chapter.

If such foreign corporation amends its articles it shall forthwith file a copy thereof with the secretary of state, certified by the secretary or other proper official of the state under whose laws it is formed, and shall pay the fees prescribed for amendments by section 494.5. Foreign corporations shall also file statements and pay fees otherwise prescribed by said section 494.5.

MERGER AND CONSOLIDATION

499.61 Definitions.

When used in this division, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Merger” means the uniting of two or more co-operative associations into one co-operative association, in such manner that one of the merging associations retains its corporate existence and absorbs the others, which cease to exist as corporate entities. “Merger” does not include the mere acquisition, by purchase or otherwise, of the assets of one co-operative association by another.

2. “Consolidation” means the uniting of two or more co-operative associations into one co-operative association, in such manner that a new co-operative association is formed, and the new co-operative association absorbs the others, which cease to exist as separate entities.

3. “Surviving association” is the co-operative association resulting from the merger of two or more co-operative associations.

4. “New association” is the co-operative association resulting from the consolidation of two or more co-operative associations.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.61]

499.62 Merger.

Any two or more co-operative associations may merge into one co-operative association in the following manner:

The board of directors of each co-operative association shall, by resolution adopted by a majority vote of all members of each board, approve a plan of merger which shall set forth:

1. The names of the co-operative associations proposing to merge and the name of the surviving association.

2. The terms and conditions of the proposed surviving association.

3. A statement of any changes in the articles of incorporation of the surviving association.

4. Other provisions deemed necessary or desirable.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.62]

499.63 Consolidation.

Any two or more co-operative associations may be consolidated into a new co-operative association in the following manner:

The board of directors of each co-operative association shall, by resolution adopted by a majority vote of all members of each board, approve a plan of consolidation setting forth:

1. The names of the co-operative associations proposing to consolidate and the name of the new association.

2. The terms and conditions of the proposed consolidation.

3. With respect to the new association, all of the statements required to be set forth in articles of incorporation for co-operative associations.

4. Other provisions deemed necessary or desirable.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.63]

499.64 Vote of members.

The board of directors of each co-operative association, upon approving a plan of merger or consolidation, shall, by motion or resolution, direct that the plan be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members, which may be either an annual or special meeting. Written notice shall be given not less than twenty days prior to the meeting, either personally or by mail to each member and shareholder of record. The notice shall state the time, place, and purpose of the meeting, and a summary of the plan of merger or consolidation shall be included in or enclosed with the notice.

At the meeting, a ballot of the members who are entitled to vote in the affairs of the association shall be taken on the proposed plan of merger or consolidation. The plan of merger or consolidation shall be approved if two-thirds of the members vote affirmatively on a ballot in which a majority of all voting members participate. Voting may be by mail ballot notwithstanding any contrary provision in the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

499.65 Objection of members — purchase of shares upon demand.

If a voting member or voting shareholder of a co-operative association which is a party to a merger or consolidation files with the co-operative association, prior to or at the meeting of members at which the plan is submitted to a vote, a written objection to the plan of merger or consolidation, and votes in opposition to the plan, and the member or shareholder, within twenty days after the merger or consolidation is approved by the other members, makes written demand on the surviving or new association for payment of the fair value of that member’s or shareholder’s interest as of the day prior to the date on which the vote was taken approving the merger or consolidation, the surviving or new association shall pay to the member or shareholder, upon surrender of that person's certificate of membership or shares of stock, the fair value of that person's interest. A member or shareholder who fails to make demand within the twenty-day period is conclusively presumed to have consented to the merger or consolidation and is bound by its terms.

In the event that a dissenting member or shareholder does business with the surviving or new association before payment has been made for that person's membership or stock, the dissenting member or shareholder is deemed to have consented to the merger or consolidation and to have waived all further rights as a dissenting member or shareholder.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.65]
86 Acts, ch 1196, §7

499.66 Value determined.
1. As used in this section:
   a. "Dissenting member" means a voting member who votes in opposition to the plan of merger or consolidation and who makes a demand for payment of the fair value under section 499.65.
   b. "Old association" means the association in which the member owns or owned a membership.
   c. "New association" means the surviving or new association after the merger or consolidation.
   d. "Issue price" means the amount paid for an interest in the old association or the amount stated in a notice of allocation of patronage dividends.
   e. "Fair market value" means the lesser of the cash price that would be paid by a willing buyer to a willing seller, neither being under any compulsion to buy or sell, or the issue price of the dissenting member's membership or common stock, deferred patronage dividends, and preferred stock.
2. Within twenty days after the merger or consolidation is effected, the new association shall make a written offer to each dissenting member to pay a specified sum deemed by the new association to be the fair value of that dissenting member's interest in the old association. This offer shall be accompanied by a balance sheet of the old association as of the latest available date, a profit and loss statement of the old association for the twelve-month period ending on the date of this balance sheet, and a list of the dissenting member's interests in the old association. If the dissenting member does not agree that the sum stated in this notice represents the fair value of the member's interest, then the member may file a written objection with the new association within twenty days after receiving this notice. A dissenting member who fails to file this objection within the twenty-day period is conclusively presumed to have consented to the fair value stated in the notice.
   If the surviving or new association receives any objections to fair values, then within ninety days after the merger or consolidation is effected, the new association shall file a petition in the Iowa district court asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of each type of equity. The action shall be prosecuted as an equitable action.
   The fair value shall be determined as of the day preceding the merger or consolidation by subtracting the old association's debts from the fair market value of the old association's assets, and dividing the remainder by the total issue price of all memberships, common stock, preferred stock, and revolving funds. The quotient from this division shall be multiplied by the total issue price of a dissenting member's membership, common stock, preferred stock, and revolving fund interest to determine the fair value of that dissenting member's interest in the old association.
3. The new association shall pay to each dissenting member in cash within sixty days after the merger or consolidation the amount paid in cash by the dissenting member for that member's interest in the old association. The new association shall pay the remainder of each dissenting member's fair value at the same time other payments of deferred patronage dividends or redemption of preferred stock are made, but in any event within fifteen years after the merger or consolidation. A dissenting member who is a natural person who dies before receiving the fair value shall have all of the person's fair value paid with the same priority as if the person was a member at the time of death.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.66]
86 Acts, ch 1196, §8

499.67 Articles of merger or consolidation.
Upon approval, articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall be executed by each co-operative association by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of the officers of each co-operative association signing the articles, and shall set forth:
1. The plan of merger or the plan of consolidation.
2. As to each co-operative association, the number of individuals or co-operative associations entitled to vote.
3. As to each co-operative association, the number of individuals or co-operative associations who voted for and against the plan at the meeting called for that purpose.
   The articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder.
   The secretary of state, upon the filing of articles of merger or articles of consolidation, shall issue a certificate of merger or a certificate of consolidation, and send the certificate to the surviving or new association, or to its representative.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499.67]

499.68 When effective — effect.
Upon the issuance of the certificate of merger or the certificate of consolidation by the secretary of state, the merger or consolidation shall become effective.
When a merger or consolidation has become effective:
1. The several co-operative associations which are parties to the plan of merger or consolidation shall be a single co-operative association, which, in the case of a merger, shall be that co-operative association designated in the plan of merger as the surviving association, and, in the case of consolidation, shall be that co-operative association designated in the plan of consolidation as the new association.
2. The separate existence of all co-operative assocations which are parties to the plan of merger or consolidation, except the surviving or new association, shall cease
3  The surviving or new association shall have all the rights, privileges, immunities, and powers and shall be subject to all the duties and liabilities of a co-operative association organized under the laws of this state
4  The surviving or new association shall possess all the rights, privileges, immunities, and franchises, public as well as private, of each of the merging or consolidating co-operative associations
5  All property, real, personal, and mixed, and all debts due on whatever account, including subscriptions to shares, and all other choses in action, and all and every other interest, of or belonging to or due to each of the co-operative associations merged or consolidated, shall be transferred to and vested in the surviving or new association without further act or deed. The title to any real estate, or any interest in real estate vested in any of the co-operative associations merged or consolidated, shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of the merger or consolidation
6  A surviving or new association shall be responsible and liable for all obligations and liabilities of each of the co-operative associations merged or consolidated
7  Any claim existing or action or proceeding pending by or against any of the co-operative associations merged or consolidated may be prosecuted as if the merger or consolidation had not taken place, or the surviving or new association may be substituted for the merged or consolidated association. Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of any co-operative association shall be impaired by a merger or consolidation
8  In the case of a merger, the articles of incorporation of the surviving association shall be deemed to be amended to the extent that changes in its articles of incorporation are stated in the plan of merger. In the case of a consolidation, the statements set forth in the articles of consolidation which are required to be set forth in the articles of incorporation of co-operative associations organized under the laws of the state of Iowa shall be deemed to be the original articles of incorporation of the new co-operative association
9  The aggregate amount of the net assets of the merging or consolidating co-operative associations which was available for the payment of dividends immediately prior to the merger or consolidation, to the extent that the amount is not transferred to stated capital by the issuance of shares or otherwise, shall continue to be available for the payment of dividends by the surviving or new association

§499.69 Foreign and domestic mergers or consolidations.

One or more foreign co-operative associations and one or more domestic co-operative associations may be merged or consolidated in the following manner, if such merger or consolidation is permitted by the laws of the state under which each foreign co-operative association is organized
1  Each domestic co-operative association shall comply with the provisions of this division with respect to the merger or consolidation of domestic co-operative associations, and each foreign co-operative association shall comply with the applicable provisions of the laws of the state under which it is organized
2  If the surviving or new association is to be governed by the laws of any state other than this state, it shall comply with the provisions of the laws of this state with respect to the qualifications of foreign co-operative associations if it is to transact business in this state, and in every case it shall file with the secretary of state of this state
   a  An agreement that it may be served with process in this state in any proceeding for the enforcement of any obligation of any domestic co-operative association which is a party to the merger or consolidation, and in any proceeding for the enforcement of the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any such domestic co-operative association, against the surviving or new association
   b  An irrevocable appointment of the secretary of state of this state as its agent to accept service of process in any proceeding
   c  An agreement that it will promptly pay to the dissenting shareholders of any domestic co-operative association the amount to which they are entitled under the provisions of this division with respect to the rights of dissenters

The effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as the effect of the merger or consolidation of domestic co-operative associations, if the surviving or new association is to be governed by the laws of this state. If the surviving or new association is to be governed by the laws of any other state, the effect of merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic co-operative associations, except as the laws of the other state otherwise provide §499.70 Abandonment before filing.
[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 69]

At any time prior to the filing of the articles of merger or consolidation, the merger or consolidation may be abandoned pursuant to provisions set forth in the plan of merger or consolidation
[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499 70]

§499.71 Other laws applicable.

The provisions of this division shall also apply to co-operative associations organized under chapters 497 and 498

CHAPTER 499A

MULTIPLE HOUSING ACT

499A.1 Articles.

Any two or more persons of full age, a majority of whom shall be citizens of the state, may organize themselves for the following or similar purposes: Ownership of residential, business property on a co-operative basis. A corporation is a person within the meaning of this chapter. The organizers shall adopt, and sign and acknowledge the articles of co-operation, stating the name by which the co-operation shall be known, the location of its principal place of business, its business or objects, the number of trustees, directors, managers or other officers to conduct the same, the names thereof for the first year, the time of its annual meeting, and of annual meeting of its trustees, or directors and the manner in which the articles may be amended. Said articles shall not be filed by the secretary of state until a filing fee of five dollars together with a recording fee of fifty cents per page is paid, and upon the payment of said fees and the approval of the articles by the secretary of state, the secretary shall issue to said co-operation a certificate of co-operation as a co-operation not for pecuniary profit.

Amendments to the articles may be filed and receive approval as provided herein for articles, and the fee therefor shall be five dollars in each instance, and no amendment shall be effective until the same is approved and the fee therefor is paid.

499A.2 Powers — duration.

Upon filing such articles the persons signing and acknowledging the same and their associates and successors shall become a body co-operative with the name therein stated and shall have power:

1. To have perpetual succession by its name, unless a limited period of duration is stated in its articles of co-operation, or they are sooner dissolved by three-fourths vote of all the members thereof, or by act of the general assembly or by operations of law.
2. To sue and be sued in its co-operative name.
3. To build and construct apartment houses or dwellings.
4. To purchase, take, receive, lease as lessee, take by gift, devise or bequest, or otherwise acquire, and to own, hold, use and otherwise deal in and with any real or personal property or any interest therein.
5. To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease as lessor, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.
6. To make contracts and incur liabilities which may be appropriate to enable it to accomplish any or all of its purposes; to borrow money for its co-operative purposes at such rates of interest as the co-operation may determine, to issue its notes, bonds and other obligations; and to secure any of its obligations by mortgage, pledge, or deed of trust of all or any of its property.
7. To elect or appoint officers and agents of the co-operation, and to define their duties and fix their compensation.
8. To make and alter bylaws not inconsistent with its articles of co-operation or with the laws of this state, for the administration and the regulation of the affairs of the co-operation.
9. To cease its co-operate activities and surrender its co-operate franchise.
10. To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the co-operation is organized.

499A.3 Members.

A co-operation may have one or more classes of members. The designation of such class or classes and the qualifications and rights of the members of each class shall be set forth in the articles of co-operation.
or the bylaws. The co-operation must issue certificates or deeds evidencing membership or ownership of a particular interest therein.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499A.3]

499A.4 Dividends.

No dividend or distribution of property among the stockholders shall be made until dissolution of the co-operation.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499A.4]

499A.5 Trustees or managers.

Such co-operation may, annually or oftener, elect from its members its directors, or managers, at such time and place and in such manner as may be specified in its bylaws, or articles of co-operation, who shall have the control and management of its affairs and funds, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. When a vacancy occurs in its governing body, it shall be filled in such manner as shall be provided in the bylaws, or article of co-operation.

The trustee may be one or more persons, or may be a corporation and need not be a member and shall be selected by the directors.

499A.6 Election of officers.

If an election of trustees, directors or managers shall not be made on the day designated by the bylaws, the society for that cause shall not be dissolved, but such election may take place on any other day directed in the bylaws.

499A.7 Reorganizing prior to expiration of term.

The trustees, directors, or members of any co-operation organized under this chapter may reorganize the same, and all the property and rights thereof shall vest in the co-operation as reorganized.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499A.7]

499A.8 Reorganizing after expiration of term.

When the term of a co-operation organized under this chapter has expired, but the organization has continued to act as such co-operation, the directors or members thereof may reorganize, and the property and rights therein shall vest in the reorganized co-operation for the use and benefit of all of the members in the original co-operation.

499A.9 Amendments of articles.

Any co-operation organized under this chapter may change its name or amend its articles of co-operation by a vote of a majority of the members, in such manner as may be provided in its articles; but if no such provision is made in the articles the same may be amended at any regular meeting or special meeting called for that purpose by the president or secretary or a majority of the board of directors. Notice of any meeting at which it is proposed to amend the articles of co-operation, shall be given by mailing to each member at the member's last known post-office address at least ten days prior to such meeting, a notice signed by the secretary setting forth the proposed amendments in substance, or by two publications of said notice in some daily or weekly newspaper in general circulation in the county wherein said co-operation has its principal place of business. The last publication of said notice shall be not less than ten days prior to the date of said meeting. There shall be paid to the secretary of state at the time of the filing of such change or amendment a recording fee of fifty cents per page.

499A.10 Record — effect.

The change or amendment provided for in section 499A.9 shall be recorded as the original articles are recorded. From the date of filing such change or amendment for record, the provisions of said section having been complied with, the change or amendment shall take effect as a part of the original articles, and the co-operation thus constituted shall have the same rights, powers and franchises, be entitled to the same immunities, and liable upon all contracts to the same extent, as before such change or amendment.

499A.11 Certificate of ownership.

The co-operative association shall have the right to purchase real estate for the purpose of erecting apartment houses or apartment buildings and the members shall be the owners thereof. The interest of each individual member shall be evidenced by the issuance of a certificate of ownership or deed to a particular apartment or room therein. Such certificate of ownership or deed shall be executed by the president of the co-operation and attested by its secretary in the name and in the behalf of the co-operation.

499A.12 Title in trustees.

The title to the real estate upon which any apartment buildings are constructed shall be conveyed to the trustees or trustee who shall hold the said title for the use and benefit of the owners of such apartments or rooms.

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499A.12]

499A.13 Sale and encumbrance of the premises.

Neither the premises nor the real estate shall be sold by the trustees unless a three-fourths majority of the owners and the board of directors authorize the sale. A mortgage shall not be given by the trustees unless it is authorized by a resolution of three-fourths of the owners of the apartments or rooms in the building and the board of directors, and a mortgage shall not be given by the trustees unless it is given for the purchase of, or repair and maintenance of, the building.

499A.14 Taxation.

The real estate shall be taxed in the name of the co-operation, and each person owning an apartment or room shall pay that person’s proportionate share of such tax, and each person owning an apartment as a residence and under the qualifications of the laws of the state of Iowa as such shall receive that person’s proportionate homestead tax credit and each veteran of the military services of the United States identified §499A.21 Execution exemption.

Title of Act.

This chapter shall be known and cited as “The Multiple Housing Act of 1947.”

HORIZONTAL PROPERTY ACT (CONDOMINIUMS)

Referred to in §404A — 42 A 1 A 1 72 11

499B.1 Short title
This chapter shall be known as the "Horizontal Property Act ."
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499B 1]

499B.2 Definitions.

Unless it is plainly evident from the context that a different meaning is intended, as used herein
1. "Apartment" means one or more rooms occupying all or a part of a floor or floors in a building of one or more floors or stories and notwithstanding whether the apartment be intended for use or used as a residence, office, for the operation of any industry or business or for any use not prohibited by law
2. "Co owner" means a person, corporation, or other legal entity capable of holding or owning any interest in real property who owns all or an interest in an apartment within the building
3. "Council of co owners" means all the co owners of the building. The business and affairs of the council of co-owners may be conducted by organizing a corporation not for pecuniary profit of which the co-owners are members
4. "General common elements", unless otherwise provided in the declaration or lawful amendments thereto, means and includes a. The land on which the building is erected
   b. The foundations, basements, floors, exterior walls of each apartment and of the building, ceilings and roofs, halls, lobbies, stairways, and entrances and exits or communication ways, elevators, garbage incinerators and in general all devices or installations existing for common use
   c. Compartments or installations of central services for public utilities, common heating and refrigeration units, reservoirs, water tanks and pumps servicing other than one apartment
   d. Premises for lodging of service personnel engaged in performing services other than services with in a single apartment
5. "Limited common elements" means and includes those common elements which are specified in or determined under the declaration to be reserved for the use of one or more apartments to the exclusion of the other apartments, such as special corridors, stairways and elevators, sanitary services common to the apartments of a particular floor, and the like 6. "Majority of co owners" or "percent of co owners" means the owners of more than one half or owners of that percent of interest in the building irrespective of the total number of co owners
7. "Property" includes the land whether committed to the horizontal property regime in fee or as a leasehold interest, the building, all other improvements located thereon, and all easements, rights and appurtenances belonging thereto
8. All pronouns used herein include the male, female and neuter genders and include the singular or plural numbers, as the case may be 9. "Building" means and includes one or more buildings, whether attached to one or more buildings or unattached, provided, however, that if there is more than one building, all such buildings shall be described and included in the declaration, or an amendment thereto, and comprise an integral part of a single horizontal property regime
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499B 2]

499B.3 Recording of declaration to submit property to regime.

When the sole owner or all of the owners, or the sole lessee or all of the lessees of a lease desire to submit a parcel of real property upon which a building is located or to be constructed to the horizontal property regime established by this chapter, a declaration to that effect shall be executed and acknowledged by the sole owner or lessee or all of such owners or lessees and shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which such property lies.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499B.5]

499B.4 Contents of declaration.

The declaration provided for in section 499B.3 shall contain:
1. A description of the land.
2. A description of the building, stating the number of stories and basements, the number of apartments and the principal materials of which it is or is to be constructed.
3. The apartment number of each apartment, and a statement of its location, approximate area, number of rooms, an immediate common area to which it has access, and any other data necessary for its proper identification.
4. A description of the general common elements and facilities.
5. A description of the limited common elements and facilities, if any, stating to which apartments their use is reserved.
6. The fractional or percentage interest which each apartment bears to the entire horizontal property regime. The sum of such shall be one if expressed in fractions and one hundred if expressed in percentage.
7. The provision as to the percentage of votes by the apartment owners which shall be determinative of whether to rebuild, repair, restore, or sell the property in the event of damage or destruction of all or part of the property.
8. Any further details in connection with the property which the person executing the declaration may deem desirable to set forth consistent with this chapter.
9. The method by which the declaration may be amended, consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499B.4]

499B.5 Contents of deeds of apartments.

Deeds of apartments shall include the following particulars:
1. Description of land as provided in section 499B.4, including the book, page and date of recording of the declaration.
2. The apartment number of the apartment in the declaration and any other data necessary for its proper identification.
3. The percentage of undivided interest appurtenant to the apartment in the common areas and facilities.
4. Any further details which the grantor and grantee may deem desirable to set forth consistent with the declaration and this chapter.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499B.5]

499B.6 Copy of the floor plans to be filed.

There shall be attached to the declaration, at the time it is filed, a full and an exact copy of the plans of the building, which copy shall be entered of record along with the declaration. The plans shall show graphically all particulars of the building including, but not limited to, the dimensions, area and location of common elements affording access to each apartment. Other common elements, both limited and general, shall be shown graphically insofar as possible and shall be certified to by an engineer, architect, or land surveyor, either of which is registered or licensed to practice that profession in this state.

499B.7 Interest in common elements — reference to them in instrument.

1. The fractional or percentage interest in the general common elements and the fractional or percentage interest in the limited common elements where such exist are hereby declared to be appurtenant to each of the separate apartments.
2. Any conveyance, encumbrance, lien, alienation or devise of an apartment under a horizontal property regime by any instrument which describes the land and apartment as set forth in section 499B.4, shall also convey, encumber, alienate, devise or be a lien upon the fractional or percentage interest appurtenant to each such apartment under section 499B.4, subsection 6, to the general common elements, and the respective share or percentage interest to limited common elements where applicable, whether such general common elements or limited common elements are described as in section 499B.4, subsections 4 and 5, by general reference only, or not at all.

499B.8 Removal from provisions of this chapter.

1. All of the apartment owners may remove a property from the provisions of this chapter by an instrument to that effect, duly recorded, provided that the holders of all liens affecting any of the apartments consent thereto or agree, in either case by instruments duly recorded, that their liens be transferred to the percentage of the undivided interest of the apartment owner in the property as hereinafter provided.
2. Upon removal of the property from the provisions of this chapter, the property shall be deemed to be owned in common by the apartment owners. The undivided interest in the property owned in common which shall appertain to each apartment owner shall be the percentage of undivided interest previously owned by such owner in the common area and facilities.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499B.8]

499B.9 Removal no bar to subsequent resubmission.

The removal provided for in section 499B.8 shall in no way bar the subsequent resubmission of the property to the provisions of this chapter.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499B.9]

499B.10 Individual apartments and interest in common elements are alienable.

When real property containing a building is committed to a horizontal property regime, each individual apartment located therein and the interests in the general common elements and limited common elements if, appurtenant thereto, shall be vested as, and shall be as completely and freely alienable as any separate parcel of real property is or may be under the laws of this state, except as limited by the provisions of this chapter.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499B.10]

499B.11 Real property tax and special assessments — levy on each apartment.
1. All real property taxes and special assessments shall be levied on each apartment and its respective appurtenant fractional share or percentage of the land, general common elements and limited common elements where applicable as such apartments and appurtenances are separately owned, and not on the entire horizontal property regime.
2. Any exemption from taxes that may exist on real property or the ownership thereof shall not be denied by virtue of the registration of the property under the provisions of this chapter.

499B.12 Liens against apartments — removal from lien — effect of part payment.
1. Subsequent to recording the declaration provided for in section 499B.3, and while the property remains enrolled in a horizontal property regime, no lien shall thereafter arise or be effective against the property. During such period liens or encumbrances shall arise or be created only against the individual apartment and the general common elements and limited common elements where applicable, appurtenant to such apartment, in the same manner and under the same conditions in every respect as liens or encumbrances may arise or be created upon or against any other separate parcel of real property subject to individual ownership.
2. In the event a lien against two or more apartments becomes effective, the owners of the separate apartments may remove their apartment and the general common elements and limited common elements where applicable appurtenant to such apartment from the lien by payment of the fractional or proportional amounts attributable to each of the apartments affected. Such individual payments shall be computed by reference to the fractions or percentages appearing on the declaration provided for in section 499B.4, subsection 6. Subsequent to any such payment, discharge or other satisfaction the individual apartment and the general common elements and limited common elements applicable appurtenant thereto shall thereafter be free and clear of the lien so paid, satisfied or discharged. Such partial payment, satisfaction or discharge shall not prevent the lienor from proceeding to enforce the lienor’s rights against any apartment and the general common elements, limited common elements where applicable appurtenant thereto not so paid, satisfied or discharged.

499B.13 Limitation upon availability of partition — exception as to limitation of partition by joint ownership.
1. The provisions of chapter 651, relating to partition of real property shall not be available to any owner of any interest in real property included within a regime established under this chapter as against any other owner or owners of any interest or interests in the same regime, so as to terminate the regime.
2. Nothing contained in the chapter shall be construed as a limitation on partition by joint owners of one or more apartments in a regime as to individual ownership of such apartment or apartments without terminating the regime, or as to ownership of such apartment or apartments and lands outside the limits of the regime.

499B.14 Bylaws.
The administration of every property shall be governed by bylaws, a true copy of which shall be annexed to the declaration and made a part thereof. No modification of or amendment to the bylaws shall be valid unless set forth in an amendment to the declaration and such amendment is duly recorded.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499B.14]

499B.15 Contents of bylaws.
The bylaws must provide for at least the following:
1. The form of administration, indicating whether this shall be in charge of an administrator or of a board of administration, or otherwise, and specifying the powers, manner of removal, and, where proper, the compensation thereof.
2. Method of calling or summoning the co-owners to assemble; what percentage, if other than a majority of apartment owners, shall constitute a quorum; who is to preside over the meeting and who will keep the minute book wherein the resolutions shall be recorded.
3. Maintenance, repair and replacement of the common areas and facilities and payments therefor including the method of approving payment vouchers.
4. Manner of collecting from the apartment owners their share of the common expenses.
5. Designation and removal of personnel necessary for the maintenance, repair and replacement of the common areas and facilities.
6. The percentage of votes required to amend the bylaws.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499B.15]

499B.16 Disposition of property — destruction or damage.
If within thirty days of the date of the damage or destruction to all or part of the property, it is not determined by the council of co-owners to repair, reconstruct or rebuild, then and in that event:
1. The property shall be deemed to be owned in common by the apartment owners;
2. The undivided interest in the property owned in common which shall appertain to each apartment owner shall be the percentage of undivided interest previously owned by such owner in the common areas and facilities;
3. Any liens affecting any of the apartments shall be deemed to be transferred in accordance with the existing priorities to the percentage of the undivided interest of the apartment owner in the property as provided herein; and
4. The property shall be subject to an action for partition at the suit of any apartment owner, in which event the net proceeds of sale, together with the net proceeds of the insurance on the property, if any, shall be considered as one fund and shall be divided among all the apartment owners in a percentage equal to the percentage of undivided interest owned by each owner.
in the property, after first paying out of the respective shares of the apartment owners, to the extent sufficient for the purpose, all liens on the undivided interest in the property owned by each apartment owner. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499B.16]

499B.17 Lien against owner of unit.

All sums assessed by the council of co-owners but unpaid for the share of the common expenses chargeable to any apartment shall constitute a lien on such apartment prior to all other liens except only (1) tax liens on the apartment in favor of any assessing unit and special district, and (2) all sums unpaid on a first mortgage of record. Such lien may be foreclosed by suit by the council of co-owners or the representatives thereof, acting on behalf of the apartment owners, in like manner as a mortgage of real property. In the event of any such foreclosure, the apartment owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the apartment if so provided in the bylaws, and the plaintiff in such foreclosure shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same. The council of co-owners or the representatives thereof, acting on behalf of the apartment owners, shall have power, unless prohibited by the declaration, to bid in the apartment at foreclosure sale, and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage and convey the same. Suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid common expenses shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing the same. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499B.17]

499B.18 Common expenses before foreclosure.

Where the mortgagee of a first mortgage of record or other purchaser of an apartment obtains title to the apartment as a result of foreclosure of the first mortgage, such acquirer of title, the acquirer’s successors and assigns, shall not be liable for the share of the common expenses or assessments by the council of co-owners chargeable to such apartment which became due prior to the acquisition of title to such apartment by such acquirer. Such unpaid share of common expenses or assessments shall be deemed to be common expenses collectible from all of the apartment owners including such acquirer, the acquirer’s successors and assigns. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499B.18]

499B.19 Common expenses after voluntary conveyance.

In a voluntary conveyance the grantee of an apartment shall be jointly and severally liable with the grantor for all unpaid assessments against the latter for the grantor’s share of the common expenses up to the time of the grant or conveyance, without prejudice to the grantee’s right to recover from the grantor the amounts paid by the grantee therefor. However, any such grantee shall be entitled to a statement from the council of co-owners or its representatives, setting forth the amount of the unpaid assessments against the grantor and such grantee shall not be liable for, nor shall the apartment conveyed be subject to a lien for, any unpaid assessments against the grantor in excess of the amount therein set forth. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §499B.19]

CHAPTER 500

COLLECTIVE MARKETING

500.1 Authorization.

Persons engaged in the conduct of any agricultural, horticultural, dairy, livestock, mercantile, mining, or manufacturing business in the manner provided in section 500.3 may act together in associations, corporate or otherwise, for the purpose of collectively producing, processing, preparing for market, handling, and marketing the products of their members. Such persons may organize and operate such associations, and such associations may make the necessary contracts and agreements to effect that purpose, any law to the contrary notwithstanding. 500.2 Liquidated damages.

Contracts and agreements entered into between associations and the members thereof may, where damages that may be sustained for the breach thereof are difficult of ascertainment, provide for such penalties as may be agreed upon, which penalties, if the parties thereto so agree, shall be construed as liquidated damages and be enforceable in the full amount thereof both at law and in equity. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8514; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §500.2] 500 3 Applicability of chapter.
The provisions of this chapter shall apply 1 To corporations organized under the provisions of chapter 497
2 To other incorporated associations or companies organized without capital stock, not for pecuniary profit and for the mutual benefit of their members For purposes of this subsection, “not for pecuniary profit” includes but is not necessarily limited to an incorporated association organized to assist its members to make profits for themselves as producers by the means authorized in section 500 1, but not to make income or profit for distribution to its members, directors, or officers, except as provided in chapter 504A

502.101 Short title.

This chapter may be cited as the "Iowa Uniform Securities Act".

[C31, 35, §8581-c1, C39, §8581.01; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §502 1, C77, 79, 81, §502 101]

502.102 Definitions.

When used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires
1. "Administrator" means the commissioner of insurance or the deputy appointed pursuant to section 502.601
2. "Agent" means any individual other than a broker dealer who represents a broker dealer or issuer in effecting or attempting to effect purchases or sales of securities. "Agent" does not include an individual who represents an issuer in
   a. Effecting transactions in a security exempted by section 502.202, subsection 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 10, 11 or 12, or a security issued by an industrial loan company licensed under chapter 536A,
   b. Effecting transactions exempted by section 502.203, or
   c. Effecting transactions with existing employees, partners or directors of the issuer if no commission or other remuneration is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any person in this state. "Agent" also does not include other individuals who are not within the intent of this subsection whom the administrator by rule or order designates. A partner, officer, or director of a broker-dealer or issuer, or a person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, is an agent only if such person otherwise comes within this definition
3. An "affiliate" of, or a person "affiliated" with, a specified person, means a person who directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the person specified
4. "Broker dealer" means any person engaged in the business of effecting transactions in securities for the account of others or for such person's own account. "Broker-dealer" does not include a. An agent,
   b. An issuer,
   c. An institutional investor, including an insurance company or bank, except where the insurance company or bank is engaged in the business of selling interests (other than through a subsidiary) in a separate account that are securities,
   d. A person who has no place of business in this state if such person
   (1) Effects transactions in this state exclusively with or through the issuers of the securities involved in the transaction, other broker-dealers, or banks, savings institutions, trust companies, insurance companies, investment companies as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, pension or profit sharing trusts, or other financial institutions or institutional buyers, whether acting for themselves or as trustees, or
   (2) During any period of twelve consecutive months does not effect transactions in this state in any manner with more than three persons other than those specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, whether or not the offeror or any of the offerees is then present in this state,
   e. Other persons not within the intent of this subsection whom the administrator by rule or order designates
5. "Fraud", "deceit" and "defraud" are not limited to common law deceit
6. "Guaranteed" means guaranteed as to payment of principal, interest or dividends
7. "Issuer" means any person who issues or proposes to issue any security, except that
   a. With respect to certificates of deposit, voting trust certificates or collateral trust certificates, or with respect to certificates of interest or shares in an unincorporated investment trust not having a board of directors or persons performing similar functions or of the fixed, restricted management, or unit type, the term "issuer" means the person or persons performing the acts and assuming the duties of depositor or manager pursuant to the provisions of the trust or other agreement or instrument under which the security is issued, and
   b. With respect to certificates of interest or participation in oil, gas or mining titles or leases, or in payments out of production under such titles or leases, there is not considered to be any "issuer"
8. "Nonissuer" means not directly or indirectly for the benefit of the issuer
9. "Person" means an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, a fiduciary, an unincorporated organization, a government, or a political subdivision of a government
10. a. "Sale" or "sell" includes every contract of sale of, contract to sell, or disposition or exchange of, a security or interest in a security for value
   b. "Offer" or "offer to sell" includes every attempt or offer to exchange or dispose of or solicitation of an offer to buy, a security or interest in a security for value
   c. A security given or delivered with, or as a bonus on account of, a purchase of a security or any other thing is offered and sold for value as part of the subject of the purchase §502.102

1. Any bona fide pledge or loan; or
(2) Any stock split, other than a reverse stock split, or security dividend payable with respect to the securities of a corporation in the same or any other class of securities of such corporation, provided nothing of value, including the surrender of a right or an option to receive a cash or property dividend, is given by security holders for the security dividend.

12. "Security" means any note; stock; treasury stock; bond; debenture; evidence of indebtedness; certificate of interest or participation in a profit sharing agreement; collateral trust certificate; preorganization certificate or subscription; transferable share; investment contract; voting trust certificate; certificate of deposit for a security; certificate of interest or participation in an oil, gas or mining title or lease or in payments out of production under such a title or lease; or, in general, any interest or instrument commonly known as a "security", or any certificate of interest or participation in, temporary or interim certificate for, receipt for, guarantee of, or warrant or right to subscribe to or purchase, any of the foregoing. "Security" does not include a time-share interval as defined in section 557A.2 or an insurance or endowment policy or annuity contract under which an insurance company promises to pay money either in a lump sum or periodically for life or for some other specified period.

13. "State" means any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico.

14. "Equity security", for the purposes of subsections 15 and 16 of this section and sections 502.211 to 502.215, means any stock, bond or other obligation the holder of which has the right to vote, or any share of stock or similar security representing an equity interest in the target company, or any security convertible into, or any right, option or warrant to purchase, any such stock, bond, obligation or security.

15. a. "Target company" means a person whose securities are or are to be the subject of an offer to acquire, pursuant to a tender offer or request or invitation for tenders, any equity securities of such person provided that such person is either:
(1) A person which is a Williams Act registrant and is either (i) organized under the laws of the state of Iowa or (ii) has its principal place of business within the state of Iowa; or
(2) A person which (i) is not a Williams Act registrant and (ii) has registered any equity security at any time subsequent to December 31, 1959 under either this Act* or under this chapter as it existed prior to January 1, 1979.

b. For purposes of this subsection, a "Williams Act registrant" means a person which (i) has any equity security which is registered pursuant to section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; or (ii) is an insurance company which would have been required to register any equity security pursuant to section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 except for the exemption provided in subparagraph (G) of paragraph 2 of subsection "g" of section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; or (iii) is a closed-end investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

c. For purposes of this subsection, the term "principal place of the business" shall have the same meaning as that term when used in title 28, United States Code, section 1332, subsection "c."

16. "Tender offer" shall not include (i) an offer to purchase equity securities to be effected by a registered broker-dealer on a stock exchange or in the over-the-counter market if the broker performs only the customary broker's function, and receives no more than the customary broker's commission, and neither the principal nor the broker solicits or arranges for the solicitation of orders to sell such equity securities; or (ii) any offer if the acquisition of all equity securities for which the offer is made, together with all other acquisitions by the offeror of securities of the same class during the preceding twelve months, would not exceed two percent of that class; or (iii) offers made by a broker-dealer for its own account in the ordinary course of its business of buying and selling such security.

17. "Interest at the legal rate" means the interest rate for judgments specified in section 535.3.

502.201 Registration requirement.
It is unlawful for any person to offer or sell any security in this state unless
1. It is registered under this chapter; or
2. The security or transaction is exempted under section 502.202 or 502.203.

502.202 Exempt securities.
The following securities are exempted from sections 502.201 and 502.602:
1. Any security, including a revenue obligation, issued or guaranteed by the United States, any state, any political subdivision of a state, or any agency or corporate or other instrumentality of one or more of the foregoing; or any certificate of deposit for any of the foregoing; but this exemption shall not include any revenue obligation payable from payments to be made in respect of property or money used under a lease, sale or loan arrangement by or for a nongovernmental industrial or commercial enterprise, unless such payments are or will be made or unconditionally guaranteed by a person whose securities are exempt from registration under this chapter by (a) this section subsection 7 or 8, or (b) subsection 9 of this section, provided the issuer first files with the administrator a written notice specifying the terms of the offer and the administrator does not by order disallow the exemption within fifteen days thereafter

2. Any security issued or guaranteed by Canada, any Canadian province, any political subdivision of any such province, any agency or corporate or other instrumentality of one or more of the foregoing, or any other foreign government with which the United States currently maintains diplomatic relations, if the security is recognized as a valid obligation by the issuer or guarantor

3. Any security issued by and representing an interest in or a debt of, or guaranteed by, any bank organized under the laws of the United States, or any bank, savings institution, or trust company organized and supervised under the laws of this state

4. Any security issued by and representing an interest in or a debt of, or guaranteed by, any federal savings and loan association, or any savings and loan or similar association organized and supervised under the laws of this state

5. Any security issued by and representing an interest in or a debt of, or guaranteed by, any insurance company organized under the laws of this state and authorized to do business in this state

6. Any security issued or guaranteed by any federal credit union or any credit union or similar association organized and supervised under the laws of this state

7. Any security issued or guaranteed by any railroad, other common carrier, public utility, or holding company which is

(a) Subject to the jurisdiction of the interstate commerce commission,

(b) A registered holding company under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 or a subsidiary of such a company within the meaning of that Act, or

c) Regulated in respect of the issuance or guarantee of the security by a governmental authority of the United States, any state, Canada, or any Canadian province

8. Any security listed or approved for listing upon notice of issuance on the New York Stock Exchange, the American Stock Exchange, the Midwest Stock Exchange, the Pacific Coast Stock Exchange, or any other national securities exchange registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and designated by rule of the administrator, any other security of the same issuer which is of senior or substantially equal rank, any security called for by subscription rights or warrants so listed or approved, or any warrant or right to purchase or subscribe to any of the foregoing

9. Any security issued by any person organized and operated not for private profit but exclusively for religious, educational, benevolent, charitable, fraternal, social, athletic or reformatory purposes, or as a chamber of commerce or trade or professional association, provided the issuer first files with the administrator a written notice specifying the terms of the offer and the administrator does not by order disallow the exemption within fifteen days thereafter

10. Any commercial paper which arises out of a current transaction or the proceeds of which have been or are to be used for current transactions, and which evidences an obligation to pay cash within nine months of the date of issuance, exclusive of days of grace, or any renewal of such paper which is likewise limited, or any guarantee of such paper or of any such renewal, except where such paper is proposed to be sold or offered to the public in units of less than five thousand dollars to any single person

11. A security issued in connection with an empLOYEE stock purchase, option, savings, pension, profit sharing or similar benefit plan, provided, in the case of plans which are not qualified under section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and which provide for contribution by employees, the administrator is notified in writing fifteen days before the inception of the plan of the terms of the plan

12. A stock or similar security, including a patronage refund certificate, issued by

(a) A cooperative association as defined in the Agricultural Marketing Act, or a federation of such cooperative associations that possesses no greater powers or purposes than cooperative associations so defined, if such stock or similar security including a certificate of interest, certificate of indebtedness, or bonding note

(1) Qualifies its holder for membership in the cooperative association or federation, or in the case of patronage refund certificate, is issuable only to members, and

(2) Is transferable only to the issuer or to a successor in interest of the transferor that qualifies for membership in the cooperative association or federation,

(b) A cooperative housing corporation described in paragraph 1 of subsection "b" of section 216, of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, if its activities are limited to the ownership, leasing, management, or construction of residential properties for its members, and activities incident thereto, or

(c) A mutual or cooperative organization, including a cooperative association organized in good faith under and for any of the purposes enumerated in chapters 497, 498, and 499, that deals in commodities or supplies goods or services in transactions primarily with and for the benefit of its members, if

(1) Such stock or similar security is part of a class issuable only to persons who deal in commodities with, or obtain goods or services from, the issuer,

(2) Such stock or similar security is transferable only to the issuer or a successor in interest of the transferor who qualifies for membership in such mutual or cooperative organization, and

(3) No dividends other than patronage refunds are payable to holders of such stock or similar security except on a complete or partial liquidation

13. Any security issued in exchange for any issued and outstanding security of a cooperative association, as defined in the Agricultural Marketing Act, or a federation of such cooperatives which possess no greater powers or purposes than cooperative associations so defined, if such exchange is a part of a merger or consolidation of two or more such cooperative associations
14 Any security issued by a corporation formed under chapter 496B
15 Any security issued by the agricultural development authority under chapter 175
16 Any security representing a thrift certificate of an industrial loan company which is a member of the industrial loan thrift guaranty corporation of Iowa
83 Acts, ch 95, §1, 2, 83 Acts, ch 169, §3

§502.203 Exempt transactions
The following transactions are exempted from sections 502 201 and 502 602
1 Any isolated nonissuer transaction, whether effected through a broker dealer or not 2 Any nonissuer distribution of an outstanding security if a A recognized securities manual approved by the administrator contains the names of the issuer's officers and directors, a balance sheet of the issuer as of a date within eighteen months, and a profit and loss statement for either the fiscal year preceding that date or the most recent year of operations, b The security was issued by an issuer which has a class of securities currently registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, c The security was issued by an issuer which has a class of securities registered under this chapter, or under chapter 502 of the Code as it existed prior to January 1, 1976, or d The security was issued by an issuer which is registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940
3 Any nonissuer transaction effected by or through a registered broker-dealer pursuant to an unsolicited order or offer to buy, but the administrator may by rule require that the customer acknowledge that the sale was unsolicited in accordance with provisions of such rule
4 Any transaction between the issuer or other person on whose behalf the offering is made and an underwriter, or among underwriters
5 A sale of bonds or notes directly secured by a real estate mortgage, security interest, deed of trust, or agreement for the sale of real estate or chattels, if the entire mortgage, security interest, deed of trust, or agreement, together with all the bonds or notes secured thereby, is offered and sold as a unit, provided that the entire mortgage, security interest, deed of trust or agreement together with all of the bonds or notes secured thereby, shall not be deemed to be sold as a unit if a Such bonds or notes are part of a single issue including other bonds or notes secured by interests in real estate or chattels owned or developed by the same person or by persons affiliated with such person, or b Such bonds or notes are offered or sold with any right to have substitution by or recourse against, or with guarantee by, the real estate developer or any person other than the person primarily obligated on the bond or note 6 Any judicial sale or any transaction executed by an executor, administrator, sheriff, marshal, receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, guardian, custodian or conservator without any purpose of evading this chapter
7 Any transaction executed by a bona fide pledgee without any purpose of evading this chapter
8 An offer or sale to a bank, savings institution, trust company, insurance company, investment company as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, pension or profit sharing trust, or other financial institution or institutional buyer, or to a broker-dealer, whether the purchaser is acting for itself or in a fiduciary capacity. However, the administrator, by rule or order, may grant this exemption to a person or class of persons based upon the factors of financial sophistication, net worth, and the amount of assets under investment
9 The sale, as part of a single issue, of securities by the issuer of the securities if all of the following conditions are satisfied a Within any period of twelve consecutive months, sales are made to less than thirty-six purchasers in this state, exclusive of purchases by bona fide institutional investors for their own account for investment
   b Unless permitted by the administrator by rule, or by order issued upon written application showing good cause for the allowance of the sale, the issue is not an issue of
      (1) Fractional undivided interests in oil, gas, or other mineral leases, rights, or royalties
      (2) Interests in a partnership organized under the laws of or having its principal place of business in a foreign jurisdiction
   c The issuer reasonably believes that all the buyers in this state are purchasing for investment
   d Commission or other remuneration is not paid or given, directly or indirectly, for the sale, except as may be permitted by the administrator by rule, or by order issued upon written application showing good cause for allowance of commission or other remuneration
   e The issuer or a person acting on behalf of the issuer does not offer or sell the securities by any form of general solicitation or advertising 10 Any offer or sale of a preorganization certificate or subscription if a No commission or other remuneration is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any prospective subscriber, b The number of subscribers does not exceed ten,
   c No payment is made by any subscriber, and d No public advertisement of the offer is made 11 Any transaction pursuant to an offer of its securities by an issuer to its existing security holders in connection with a The conversion of convertible securities, b The exercise of nontransferable rights or warrants or the exercise of transferrable rights or warrants exercisable within not more than ninety days of their issuance,
   c The purchase of securities pursuant to preemp tive rights, provided that no commission or other remuneration other than a standby commission is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any security holder in this state, or d The sale, for cash, in connection with a stock dividend, of less than full shares of stock to avoid the... issuance of fractional shares, by rounding up the stock dividend payable to any holder to the next higher full share.

12. An offer, but not a sale, of a security for which a registration statement has been filed under this chapter or a written notice has been filed pursuant to section 502.202, subsection 1, 9, or 11 if no stop order or suspension or denial order is in effect and no proceeding is pending under this chapter.

13. Any transaction incident to a vote by security holders of a person or incident to a written consent or resolution of some or all security holders of a person, pursuant to the articles of incorporation of such person, or pursuant to the applicable corporate statute or other statute governing such person, pursuant to such person's partnership agreement, declaration of trust, or trust indenture, or pursuant to any agreement among security holders of such person, on a reclassification of securities, reverse stock split, reorganization involving the exchange of securities, merger, consolidation, or sale of assets, in consideration, in whole or in part, of the issuance of securities of such person or of any other person, if:

a. A party to such transaction files proxy or informational materials pursuant to subsection "a" of section 14, or subsection "c" of section 14 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or pursuant to section 20 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, provided that such materials are, at least ten days prior to the meeting of security holders called for the purpose of approving such transaction:

(1) Filed with the administrator, and
(2) Distributed to each of the security holders of each party to such transaction;

b. A party to such transaction is excused from registration under section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 pursuant to subparagraph (G) of paragraph 2 of subsection "g" of section 12 of that Act, and such party is required by the laws of its domiciliary state to file proxy materials with an agency of said state provided that such proxy materials are, at least ten days prior to the meeting of security holders called for the purpose of approving such transaction:

(1) Filed with the administrator, and
(2) Distributed to each of the security holders of each party to such transaction;

c. One party to a merger owns not less than ninety percent of the outstanding shares of each class of stock of each other party to the merger; or

d. A party to such transaction files with the administrator and distributes to the security holders of each party to the transaction, such materials, within such time limits, as may be specified by rule or order of the administrator.

14. Any transaction incident to a judicially approved reorganization in which a security is issued in exchange for one or more outstanding securities, claims or property interests, or partly in such exchange and partly for cash.

15. The distribution of securities as a dividend, where the corporation distributing the dividend is the issuer of the securities distributed, if the only value given by shareholders for the dividend is the surrender of a right to a cash or property dividend when each shareholder may elect to take the dividend.

a. In cash or property, or

b. In such securities.

16. The administrator may create by rule a limited offering transactional exemption which further the objectives of compatibility with federal exemptions and uniformity among the states and provides criteria to determine and assure the suitability of investors. [SS15, §1920-u1, -u3; C24, 27, §8526, 8554; C31, 35, §8581-e5; C39, §8581.05; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §502.5; C77, 79, 81, §602.203]

83 Acts, ch 169, §4-7

502.204 Denial and suspension of exemptions.

The administrator may by order deny or revoke any exemption specified in sections 502.202 and 502.203 with respect to a specific security or transaction. No such order may be entered without appropriate prior notice to all interested parties, opportunity for hearing, and written findings of fact and conclusions of law, except that the administrator may by order summarily deny or revoke any of the specified exemptions pending final determination of any proceeding under this section. Upon the entry of a summary order, the administrator shall promptly notify all interested parties that it has been entered and of the reasons therefore and that within fifteen days of the receipt of a written request the matter will be set down for hearing. If no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the administrator, the order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the administrator. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the administrator, after notice of and opportunity for hearing to all interested persons, may modify or vacate the order or extend it until final determination. No order under this section may operate retroactively. No person may be considered to have violated section 502.201 or 502.602 by reason of any offer or sale effected after the entry of an order under this section if such person sustains the burden of proof that such person did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the order.

[C31, 35, §8581-c4; C39, §8581.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §502.45; C77, 79, 81, §502.204]

502.205 Burden of proof.

In any proceeding under this chapter, the burden of proving an exemption or an exception from a definition is upon the person claiming it.

[C31, 35, §8581-c15; C39, §8581.19; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §502.19; C77, 79, 81, §502.205]

502.206 Registration by co-ordination.

1. Registration by co-ordination may be used for any offering for which a registration statement has been filed under the Securities Act of 1933, or for any proposed sale pursuant to the exemption contained in subsection "b" of section 3 of such Act where such registration statement or notification of proposed sale has not become effective.

2. A registration statement under this section shall contain the following information and be accompanied by the following documents in addition to the information specified in section 502.208, subsection 3, and the consent to service of process required by section 502.609:

a. Two copies of the most recent preliminary prospectus or offering circular filed under the Securities Act of 1933.
If the administrator by rule requires, a copy of the articles of incorporation and bylaws or their substantial equivalents currently in effect, a copy of any agreements with or among underwriters, a copy of any indenture or other instrument governing the issuance of the security to be registered, and a specimen or copy of the security

If the administrator requests, any other information, or copies of any documents, filed under the Securities Act of 1933

An undertaking to forward to the administrator all future amendments to the federal prospectus or offering circular, other than an amendment which merely delays the effective date of the registration statement, not later than the first business day after they are forwarded to or filed with the securities and exchange commission, or such longer period as the administrator permits

A registration statement under this section automatically becomes effective at the moment the federal registration statement or notification becomes effective if

No stop order is in effect in this state and no proceeding is pending under section 502 209,

The registration statement has been on file with the administrator for at least twenty days,

A statement of the maximum and minimum proposed offering prices and the maximum underwriting discounts and commissions has been on file for not less than two full business days, or such shorter period as the administrator permits, and

The offering is made within these limitations

The registrant shall notify the administrator promptly by telephone or telegram of the date and time when the federal registration statement became effective and the content of the price amendment, if any, and shall file a post-effective amendment promptly containing the information and documents in the price amendment "Price amendment" means the final federal amendment which includes a statement of the offering price, underwriting and selling discounts or commissions, amount of proceeds, conversion rates, call prices and other matters dependent upon the offering price. Upon failure to receive the required notification and post-effective amendment with respect to the price amendment, the administrator may enter a stop order, without notice or hearing, retroactively denying the effectiveness of the registration statement or suspending its effectiveness until compliance with this subsection is effected, if the administrator promptly notifies the registrant by telephone or telegram of the issuance of such order. If the registrant proves compliance with the requirements of this subsection as to notice and post-effective amendment the stop order shall be vacated as of the time of its entry. The administrator may by rule or order waive any of the conditions specified in subsection 2 or 3

If the federal registration statement becomes effective before all conditions in this section are satisfied and they are not waived, the registration statement automatically becomes effective as soon as all the conditions are satisfied. If the registrant advises the administrator of the date when the federal registration statement is expected to become effective, the administrator shall promptly advise the registrant by telephone or telegram, at the registrant's expense, whether all the conditions are satisfied and whether the administrator then contemplates the institution of a proceeding under section 502 209 but this advice by the administrator does not preclude the institution of such a proceeding at any time 502.207 Registration by qualification.

1 Any security may be registered by qualification.

2 A registration statement under this section shall contain the following information and be accompanied by the following documents in addition to the information specified in section 502 208, subsection 3 and the consent to service of process required by section 502 609

With respect to the issuer and any significant subsidiary:

a With respect to the issuer and any significant subsidiary:

b With respect to the price amendment:

With respect to any person on whose behalf any proposal is made to make an offer or sale:

d With respect to any person owning of record, or beneficially if known, five percent or more of the outstanding shares of any class of equity security of the issuer:

e With respect to any person owning of record, or beneficially if known:

f With respect to any person on whose behalf any part of the offering is to be made in a nonissuer distribution:

g The capitalization and long-term debt (on both a current and pro forma basis) of the issuer and any significant subsidiary, including a description of each security outstanding or being registered or otherwise offered, and a statement of the amount and kind of consideration, whether in the form of cash, physical assets, services, patents, goodwill, or anything else, for which the issuer or any subsidiary has issued any of its securities within the past two years or is obligated to issue any of its securities.

h. The kind and amount of securities to be offered; the proposed offering price or the method by which it is to be computed; any variation therefrom at which any proportion of the offering is to be made to any person or class of persons other than the underwriters, with a specification of any such person or class; the basis upon which the offering is to be made if otherwise than for cash; the estimated aggregate underwriting and selling discounts or commissions and finders' fees, including separately cash, securities, contracts, or anything else of value to accrue to the underwriters or finders in connection with the offering, or, if the selling discounts or commissions are variable, the basis of determining them and their maximum and minimum amounts; the estimated amounts of other selling expenses, including legal, engineering and accounting charges; the name and address of every underwriter and every recipient of a finder's fee; a copy of any underwriting or selling-group agreement pursuant to which the distribution is to be made, or the proposed form of any such agreement which terms have not yet been determined; and a description of the plan of distribution of any securities which are to be offered otherwise than through an underwriter.

i. The estimated cash proceeds to be received by the issuer from the offering; the purposes for which the proceeds are to be used by the issuer; the amount to be used for each purpose; the order or priority in which the proceeds will be used for the purposes stated; the amounts of any funds to be raised from other sources to achieve the purposes stated; the sources of any such funds; and, if any part of the proceeds is to be used to acquire any property including goodwill otherwise than in the ordinary course of business, the names and addresses of the vendors, the purchase price, the names of any persons who have received commissions in connection with the acquisition and the amounts of any such commissions and any other expense in connection with the acquisition (including the cost of borrowing money to finance the acquisition).

j. A description of any stock options or other security options outstanding, or to be created in connection with the offering, together with the amount of any such options held or to be held by every person required to be named in paragraphs "b", "d", "e", "f", or "h" of this subsection, and by any person who holds or will hold ten percent or more in the aggregate of any such options.

k. The dates of, parties to, and general effect concisely stated of, every management or other material contract made or to be made otherwise than in the ordinary course of business if it is to be performed in whole or in part at or after the filing of the registration statement or was made within the past two years, together with a copy of every such contract; and a description of any pending litigation or proceeding to which the issuer is a party and which materially affects its business or assets, including any such litigation or proceeding known to be contemplated by government authorities.

l. A copy of any prospectus, pamphlet, circular, form letter, advertisement, or other sales literature intended as of the effective date to be used in connection with the offering.

m. A specimen or copy of the security being registered; a copy of the issuer’s articles of incorporation and bylaws, or their substantial equivalents, as currently in effect; and a copy of any indenture, or other instrument covering the security to be registered.

n. A signed or conform copy of an opinion of counsel as to the legality of the security being registered, with an English translation if it is in a foreign language, which shall state whether the security when sold will be legally issued, fully paid, and nonassessable, and, if a debt security, a binding obligation of the issuer.

o. The written consent of any accountant, engineer, appraiser, or other person whose profession gives authority to a statement made by such person, if any of the foregoing persons is named as having prepared or certified a report or valuation, other than a public and official document or statement, which is used in connection with the registration statement.

p. A balance sheet of the issuer as of a date within four months prior to the filing of the registration statement; a profit and loss statement and statement of changes in financial position for each of the three fiscal years preceding the date of the balance sheet and for any period between the close of the last fiscal year and the date of the balance sheet, or for the period of the issuer’s and any predecessor’s existence if less than three years, and, if any part of the proceeds of the offering is to be applied to the purchase of any business, the same financial statements which would be required if that business were the registrant, or such other financial statements as may be required pursuant to section 502.607, subsection 3.

q. Such other additional information as the administrator requires by rule or order.

3. Except as provided in this subsection, registration under this section shall become effective when the administrator so orders. If a registration statement has been on file for at least thirty days and all information required by the administrator has been furnished, the person filing the statement may at any time file a written request that the administrator, within ten days following the filing of such request, order that the registration statement become effective or deny or postpone effectiveness pursuant to section 502.209. If a request is filed, and the administrator fails to act thereon within such period, the registration shall become effective at the end of the ten-day period.

502.208 Provisions applicable to registration generally.

1. A registration statement may be filed by the issuer, any other person on whose behalf the offering is to be made, or a registered broker-dealer.

2. Every person filing a registration statement shall pay a filing fee of one-tenth of one percent of the maximum aggregate offering price at which the registered securities are to be offered in this state, but the fee shall in no case be less than fifty dollars or more than one thousand dollars. When a registration statement is withdrawn before the effective date or a pre-effective stop order is entered under section 502 209, the administrator shall retain the fee.

3 Every registration statement shall specify:
   a The amount of securities to be offered in this state, b The states in which a registration statement or application in connection with the offering has been or is to be filed, and c Any adverse order, judgment or decree entered in connection with the offering by the regulatory authorities in any state or by any court or the securities and exchange commission, or any withdrawal of a registration statement or application relating to the offering.

4 Any document filed under this chapter or a predecessor act within five years preceding the filing of a registration statement may be incorporated by reference in the registration statement to the extent that the document is currently accurate.

5 The administrator may by rule or otherwise permit the omission of any item of information or document from any registration statement.

6 In the case of a nonissuer distribution, information may not be required under section 502 207, or subsection 9, paragraph "b" of this section, unless it is known to the person filing the registration statement or to the persons on whose behalf the distribution is to be made, or can be furnished by them without unreasonable effort or expense.

7 The administrator may by rule or order require as a condition of registration that any security issued within the past three years or to be issued to a promoter for a consideration substantially different from the public offering price, or to any person for a consideration other than cash, be deposited in escrow, or that the proceeds from the sale of the registered security in this state be impounded until the issuer receives a specified amount from the sale of the security either in this state or elsewhere, or the administrator may impose both such requirements. The administrator may by rule or order determine the conditions of any escrow or impounding required hereunder, but the administrator may not reject a depository solely because of location in another state.

8 The administrator may by rule require that securities of designated classes shall be issued under a trust indenture containing such provisions as the administrator determines.

9 a Every registration statement shall remain effective until withdrawal, suspension or revocation, during which time all outstanding securities of the same class as the registered security are considered registered for the purposes of any nonissuer transaction. A registration statement may not be withdrawn for one year from its effective date if securities of the same class are outstanding. A registration statement may be withdrawn otherwise only at the discretion of the administrator, by order.

b While the registration is effective, the issuer shall:
   (1) During the period while the security is being offered or distributed in a nonexempt transaction by or for the account of the issuer or any other person on whose behalf the offering is being made or by any underwriter or broker dealer who is still offering part of an unsold allotment or subscription taken as a participant in the distribution, amend the registration statement from time to time in such respects as may be necessary to keep reasonably current the information contained therein and to disclose the progress of the offering, and
   (2) File with the administrator, and distribute to holders in this state of securities of the registered class, within one hundred twenty days following the close of each fiscal year an annual report containing financial statements of the issuer in such form and meeting such requirements as the administrator may by rule or order prescribe, and, not more frequently than semi-annually, such additional financial statements or information as such rule or order may prescribe.

10 The administrator may by rule or order require as a condition of registration by qualification, and at the expense of the applicant or registrant, that a report by an accountant, engineer, appraiser or other professional person be filed. The administrator may also designate one or more employees of the securities department to make an examination of the business and records of an issuer of securities for which a registration statement has been filed by qualification, at the expense of the applicant or registrant.

11 A registration statement relating to any continuous offering of securities may be amended after its effective date so as to increase the specified amount of securities proposed to be offered. The amendment becomes effective when the administrator so orders. Every person filing such an amendment shall pay a filing fee, calculated in the manner specified in subsection 2, with respect to the additional securities proposed to be offered.

12 The administrator may by rule or order require as a condition of registration under this chapter that a prospectus containing any designated part of the information specified in section 502 207, subsection 2, or the final prospectus or offering circular required by section 502 206, subsection 2, be delivered to each person to whom an offer is made before or concurrently with:
   a The first written offer made to the offeree otherwise than by means of a public advertisement by or for the account of the issuer or any other person on whose behalf the offering is being made, or by any underwriter or broker dealer who is offering part of an unsold allotment or subscription taken as a participant in the distribution, b The confirmation of any sale made by or for the account of any such person, c Payment pursuant to any such sale, or d Delivery of the security pursuant to any such sale, whichever first occurs.

13 If a registrant sells securities in excess of the aggregate amount registered for sale in this state, the registrant may file an amendment to the registration statement to include the excess sales. Every person filing such an amendment shall pay a filing fee of three times the amount calculated in the manner specified in subsection 2 as though the additional securities sold constituted a separate issue. The administrator may order the amendment effective retroactively as of the effective date of the registration statement being amended

[SS515, §1920 u2, -u3, -u6, -u8, C24, 27, §8527, 8528, 8531, 8536, 8543, C31, 35, §8581-c8, -c12, -c16, C39, §8581.07, 8581.12, 8581.20; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §502 7(3), 502 12, 502 20, C77, 79, 81, §502 208]

502.209 Denial, suspension and revocation of registration.

1 The administrator may issue a stop order denying effectiveness to, or suspending or revoking the effectiveness of, any registration statement if the administrator finds that the order is in the public interest and that a The registration statement as of its effective date or as of any earlier date in the case of an order denying effectiveness, or any amendment filed under either subsection 9 or subsection 11 of section 502.208 as of its effective date, or any financial statement or report required under section 502.208, subsection 9 is incomplete in any material respect or contains any statement which was, in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, false or misleading with respect to any material fact,

b Any provision of this chapter or any rule, order or condition lawfully imposed under this chapter has been willfully violated, in connection with the offering, by

(1) The person filing the registration statement,
(2) The issuer,
(3) Any partner, officer or director of the issuer, or any person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions,
(4) Any affiliate of the issuer, but only if the person filing the registration statement is an affiliate of the issuer, or
(5) Any broker-dealer,

c The securities registered or sought to be registered are the subject of an administrative stop order or similar order or a permanent or temporary injunction of any court of competent jurisdiction entered under any other federal or state Act applicable to the offering, but the administrator may not institute a proceeding against an effective registration statement under this section more than one year from the date of the order or injunction relied on, and the administrator may not enter an order under this section the basas of an order or injunction entered under any other state Act unless that order or injunction was based on facts which would currently constitute a ground for a stop order under this section, d The issuer’s enterprise or method of business includes or would include activities which are illegal where performed, e The issuance or sale of the securities has worked or tended to work a fraud upon purchasers or would so operate, f The offering has been or would be made with unreasonable amounts of underwriters’ and sellers’ discounts, commissions, or other compensation, or promoters’ profits or participation, or unreasonable amounts or kinds of options, g Advertising has been used in connection with the offering contrary to the provisions of section 502.602,

h The financial condition of the issuer affects or would affect the soundness of the securities, except that applications for registration of securities by companies which are in the development stage shall not be denied based solely upon the financial condition of the company For purposes of this rule, a “development stage company” is defined as a company which has been in existence for five years or less

1 The applicant or registrant has failed to pay the proper filing fee, but the administrator may enter only a denial order under this subsection, and shall vacate any such order when the deficiency has been corrected

2 The administrator may not institute a stop order proceeding against an effective registration statement on the basis of a fact known to the administrator when the registration statement became effective unless the proceeding is instituted within thirty days after effectiveness

3 The administrator may issue a summary order postponing, suspending or denying the effectiveness of a registration statement pending final determination of any proceeding under this section Upon the entry of the order, the administrator shall promptly notify the applicant or registrant, the issuer, and the person on whose behalf the securities are to be or have been offered that the order has been entered and of the reasons therefor and that within fifteen days after the receipt of a written request the matter will be set down for hearing If no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the administrator, the order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the administrator If a hearing is requested or ordered, the administrator, after notice of and opportunity for hearing to each of the aforementioned persons, may modify or vacate the order or extend it until final determination

4 No stop order may be entered under any part of this section except the first sentence of subsection 3 without compliance with the Iowa administrative procedure Act

5 The administrator may vacate or modify a stop order upon a finding that the conditions which prompted its entry have changed or that it is otherwise in the public interest to do so

83 Acts, ch 169, §8, 20, 21

502.210 Limits on securities registered by qualification.

1 Notwithstanding the provisions of section 502.207, no securities may be registered under that section if the aggregate offering price of all securities of the issuer which will be offered or sold in this state, as part of a single issue of equity securities, in reliance upon the exemption from federal registration requirements provided by paragraph 11 of subsection “a” of section 3 of the federal Securities Act of 1933, as amended, exceeds the following amounts

a Two million dollars if the securities are to be offered or sold by or on behalf of the issuer or affiliates of the issuer, or by the estate of a decedent who owned the securities at death, provided that the aggregate offering price of securities to be offered or sold by or on behalf of any one affiliate, other than an estate, shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars

b Seven hundred fifty thousand dollars if the securities are to be offered or sold by or on behalf of any person other than a person specified in subsection 1, paragraph "a", provided that the aggregate offering price of the securities to be offered or sold by or on behalf of any one such other person shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars.

2. The following definitions shall apply for the purposes of this section:

a. The term "securities of the issuer" shall include securities issued by any predecessor of the issuer or by any affiliate of the issuer which was organized or became such an affiliate within three years prior to the effectiveness of the registration of those securities sought to be registered in this state.

b. The term "person" includes, in addition to such person, all of the following:

(1) When having the same home as that person, any relative or spouse or relative of the spouse.

(2) Any trust or estate in which that person and any of the persons specified in subparagraph (1) collectively own ten percent or more of the total beneficial interest, or of which any of such persons serves as trustee or executor, or in any similar capacity.

(3) Any corporation or other organization other than the issuer in which that person and any of the persons specified in subparagraph (1) are the beneficial owners collectively of ten percent or more of any class of equity securities, or ten percent or more of the equity interest.

c. The term "predecessor of the issuer" is

(1) A person the major portion of whose assets have been acquired directly or indirectly by the issuer; or

(2) A person from which the issuer acquired directly or indirectly the major portion of its assets.

502.211 Registration requirement.

It is unlawful for any person to purchase an equity security of a target company pursuant to a cash tender offer for such security unless the offeror's tender offer registration statement pertaining to such security is in effect under section 502.212 or 502.213 if (i) after the consummation of the cash tender offer, the offeror and the affiliates of the offeror would own beneficially, directly or indirectly, more than five percent of any class of the outstanding equity securities of the target company; or (ii) the offer is for five percent or more of any class of outstanding equity securities of the target company and the offer is made by the target company itself.

502.212 Tender offer registration by co-ordination.

1. Tender offer registration by co-ordination may be used for any tender offer for which a tender offer statement has been filed under section 14, paragraph 1 of subsection "d" of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

2. A tender offer registration statement under this section shall contain the following information and shall be accompanied by the following documents in addition to the consent to service of process required by section 502.609.

a. Two copies of the tender offer statement, including all exhibits thereto, filed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

b. An undertaking to forward to the administrator two copies of all future amendments to such tender offer statement (including exhibits thereto) and of all additional material soliciting or requesting tender offers, not later than the first business day after they are forwarded to or filed with the securities and exchange commission.

3. A copy of the tender offer statement, filed under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, including all exhibits thereto, shall be sent by registered or certified mail, or delivered to the target company at its principal executive office.

4. On the tenth day after both (i) the tender offer registration statement required by subsection 2 has been filed and (ii) the documents required by subsection 3 have been sent, the tender offer registration statement shall become effective if no stop order is in effect in this state and no proceeding is pending under section 502.215; except that while a tender offer registration statement is effective, a subsequent tender offer made by any other person with respect to the same securities shall become effective on the fourth business day after both (i) the filing of the tender offer registration statement required by subsection 2 and (ii) the sending of the documents required by subsection 3, if no stop order is in effect in this state and no proceeding is pending under section 502.215.

5. After a tender offer registration statement has become effective pursuant to subsection 4, an amendment thereto shall become effective upon (i) the filing of said amendment and (ii) the sending of said amendment, by registered or certified mail, to the target company at its principal office.

6. Prior to a tender offer registration statement having become effective pursuant to subsection 4, an amendment thereto may be filed, but such amendment shall not be deemed to be filed until a copy of said amendment has been sent by registered or certified mail to the target company at its principal office. The filing of such an amendment shall not extend the time periods specified in subsection 4.

7. All additional materials, other than the tender offer statement itself, soliciting or requesting tender offers shall be sent, by registered or certified mail, to the target company at its principal executive office at the same time they are sent to the administrator.

8. A tender offer shall remain open for not less than the longer of the following periods:

a. Twenty-one days after it becomes effective;

b. Fourteen days after any amendment which changes the amount or type of consideration offered or the number of equity securities for which the offer is made;

c. The period of time during which the offer is required, by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or the rules promulgated thereunder, to remain open.

9. Every tender offer registration statement shall remain effective until ninety days after it has become effective, unless it has earlier expired by its terms or has been withdrawn, suspended, or revoked, but the effectiveness of any such registration statement may be extended by order of the administrator upon application by the offeror.
502.213 Tender offer registration by qualification.

1. Any tender offer may be registered by qualification.

2. A tender offer registration statement under this section shall contain the following information and shall be accompanied by the consent to service of process required by section 502.609:
   a. The name and address of the offeror and of any person controlling the offeror and of each director and each executive officer (or person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions) of the offeror and of any person controlling the offeror; a description of the business of the offeror (including a description of any material pending legal or administrative proceeding) and of its affiliates; as to each director or officer, such person’s principal occupation for the past five years and any criminal convictions (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) or any securities law, antitrust, labor law, environmental law, or fair employment practices injunction or judgment entered against such person or against the offeror or any person in control of the offeror during the past five years;
   b. A description of the equity securities to be purchased and the consideration to be offered;
   c. The duration of the offer;
   d. The date on which the offeror may first purchase tendered securities;
   e. The amount or number of equity securities to be purchased or the manner in which such number or amount will be determined;
   f. Whether the offeror will unconditionally accept all or any part of the equity securities tendered and, if not, upon what conditions acceptance will be made;
   g. The number or amount of any equity securities of the target company owned beneficially by the offeror and all affiliates of the offeror as of the date of the filing of the registration statement and a description of all transactions within one year of the filing of the registration statement in which the offeror or any of its affiliates acquired or disposed of any such securities;
   h. A description of any present and proposed contract, agreement or understanding to which the offeror or any affiliate of the offeror is a party with respect to the ownership, voting rights or any other interest in any equity security of the target company;
   i. The source and amount of funds to be used in making the purchases, including a description of all borrowing transactions and the parties thereto;
   j. The purposes of the proposed purchase and if any such purpose is to acquire control of the target company, any plans to make any major change in the business, assets, location of facilities, employment levels, corporate structure, capitalization or dividend policies of the target company;
   k. The exact dates prior to which or subsequent to which the security holders who deposit their securities will have the right to withdraw their securities;
   l. A description of any material transactions, negotiations or business relationships between the offeror or its affiliates and the target company or its affiliates during the past three years;
   m. A description of any plans to make any changes in the present board of directors or management of the target company;
   n. Any present or proposed contract, arrangement or understanding between the offeror or any of its affiliates and the target company, or any of its executive officers, directors or affiliates; and,
   o. Copies of (i) a balance sheet of the offeror (and of any person, other than any individual, controlling the offeror) as of the close of its most recent fiscal year; (ii) the income statement of the offeror (and of any person, other than any individual, controlling the offeror) for the three years ended with the balance sheet required by (i) hereof; (iii) the statements of sources and application of funds of the offeror (and of any person, other than any individual, controlling the offeror) for the three years ended with the balance sheet required by (i) hereof; and (iv) a balance sheet of the offeror (or of said person controlling the offeror, as the case may be) and statements of income and of sources and application of funds for such person for the period from the close of its most recent fiscal year to a date within one hundred twenty days of the filing;
   p. A description of any material transaction between the offeror and its affiliates during the past three years.

3. A copy of the tender offer registration statement, including all exhibits thereto, shall be sent, by registered or certified mail, to the target company at its principal executive office.

4. On the tenth day after both (i) the tender offer registration statement required by subsection 2 has been filed and (ii) the documents required by subsection 3 have been sent, the tender offer registration statement shall become effective if no stop order is in effect in this state and no proceeding is pending under section 502.215; except that while a tender offer registration statement is effective, a subsequent tender offer made by any other person with respect to the same securities shall become effective on the fourth business day after both (i) the filing of the tender offer registration statement required by subsection 2 and (ii) the sending of the documents required by subsection 3, if no stop order is in effect in this state and no proceeding is pending under section 502.215.

5. After a tender offer registration statement has become effective pursuant to subsection 4, an amendment thereto shall become effective upon (i) the filing of said amendment and (ii) the sending of said amendment, by registered or certified mail, to the target company at its principal office.

6. Prior to a tender offer registration statement having become effective pursuant to subsection 4, an amendment thereto may be filed, but such amendment shall not be deemed to be filed until a copy of said amendment has been sent by registered or certified mail to the target company at its principal office. The filing of such an amendment shall not extend the time periods specified in subsection 4.

7. All additional materials, other than the tender offer registration statement itself, soliciting or requesting tender offers, shall, not later than two days after its first use, be (i) sent by registered or certified mail to the target company at its principal executive office and (ii) filed with the administrator.

8. If any material change occurs in the facts set forth in the tender offer registration statement, the offeror shall promptly file with the administrator and mail to the target company, an amendment to said registration statement disclosing such change.
9 A tender offer shall remain open for not less than the longer of the following periods:
   a. Twenty-one days after it becomes effective, or
   b. Fourteen days after any amendment which changes the amount or type of consideration offered or the number of equity securities for which the offer is made.

10 Securities deposited pursuant to a tender offer may be withdrawn by or on behalf of the depositor:
   a. At any time until the expiration of fifteen days after the registration statement becomes effective, or
   b. If the offeror has not previously accepted them, at any time after sixty days from the date the registration statement becomes effective, or
   c. If the offeror has not previously accepted them, at any time during the fifteen days following the date on which a competing tender offer registration statement has been filed with the administrator, or
   d. If the offeror has not previously accepted them, at any time during the ten days immediately after the effectiveness of any amendment filed by a competing tender offeror which changes the amount or type of consideration offered.

11 If, during the period the tender offer must remain open pursuant to paragraph "a" of subsection 10, a greater number of equity securities is tendered than the offeror is bound or willing to purchase, the equity securities shall be purchased pro rata, as nearly as may be, according to the number of shares tendered during such period by each equity security holder.

12 Whenever any offeror varies the terms of a tender offer by increasing the consideration offered to holders of such securities, the offeror shall pay the increased consideration to each security holder whose securities are taken up and paid for pursuant to the tender offer whether or not such securities have been taken up by the offeror prior to the variation of the tender offer.

13 Every tender offer registration statement shall remain effective until ninety days after it has become effective, unless it has earlier expired by its terms or has been withdrawn, suspended, or revoked, but the effectiveness of any such registration statement may be extended by order of the administrator upon application by the offeror.

[C79, 81, §502.213]

502.214 Provisions applicable to tender offer registration generally.
1. Every person filing a tender offer registration statement shall pay a nonrefundable filing fee of one hundred dollars.
2. The administrator may by rule or otherwise permit the omission of any item of information or document from any tender offer registration statement.
3. The administrator may by rule or order require as a condition of registration under this Act that all or a part of the information contained in the tender offer registration statement be made publicly available, either prior to or subsequent to the registration statement becoming effective, by publication in one or more newspapers of appropriate circulation or be made available to stockholders via a mailing to stockholders.
4. The offeror shall not, during any period during which it is making a tender offer, purchase any equity security of the target company for a consideration other than that stated in its tender offer.
5. The offeror shall not, in connection with any tender offer, purchase any equity security of the target company from any officer, director or affiliate of the target company for a consideration in excess of that to be paid to other stockholders pursuant to the tender offer, unless such purchase is made at the then existing market price.

6 a. The target company shall, not later than the end of the next business day following the receipt of a written request from any offeror who has filed a tender offer registration statement, disclose to such offeror the number of holders of record of the class of securities for which the tender offer will be made. The target company shall, not later than five business days after the receipt from the offeror of a number of sets of the tender offer materials equal to the number of holders of record as disclosed by the target company under this paragraph and the receipt of payment in advance of an amount representing the first class postage required to mail those materials, cause a set of those materials to be mailed, first class postage prepaid, to each holder of record of the class of securities for which the tender offer will be made, provided that the offeror undertakes in writing to the target company that (i) it will promptly reimburse the target company for any reasonable costs incurred by the target company in causing such mailing, and (ii) it will promptly furnish at its own expense the number of additional sets of the tender offer materials which may be requested by the target company. The target company shall not cause any materials to be removed from, added to, or incorporated with materials submitted by the offeror for mailing.

b. The target company may, at its option, elect to furnish shareholder lists to the offeror as provided in this paragraph in lieu of complying with paragraph "a" of this subsection. If the target company elected to furnish such lists, it shall, not later than the end of the next business day following the receipt of a written request from the offeror, give notice in writing to the offeror of such election, and shall, within four business days after receipt of the request, furnish to such offeror the most recent list, in whatsoever form is reasonably requested by the offeror, in its possession or under its control, of the names and addresses of the holders of record of the class of securities for which the tender offer will be made, together with the number of shares so held, and together with the security position listings, if any, from the depository trust company and similar clearing agencies, provided that the offeror undertakes in writing to the target company that (i) such lists will be used exclusively in connection with the tender offer, (ii) it will promptly reimburse the target company for the reasonable costs incurred by it in furnishing such lists, and (iii) it undertakes in writing to mail, at its own expense, a copy of the tender offer material to each person whose name appears on the list of stockholders and to furnish, at its own expense, the number of sets of the tender offer materials requested by participants whose names appear on the clearing agency's security position listings.

c. The target company shall, within two business days after the receipt of a written request from an offeror which has previously received a shareholder list pursuant to paragraph "b" of this subsection furnish to such offeror a supplementary list showing all transfers since the date of the furnished list, or, if one or more supplemental lists have already been furnished, from the date of the last such supplemental list so furnished.

7 All materials disseminated in connection with the tender offer, by the target company, or by persons acting in concert with it, shall within two days after its first use, (i) be sent, by registered or certified mail, to the offeror at its principal executive office and (ii) be filed with the administrator.

[C79, 81, §502 214] *See 67GA ch 1186

502.215 Denial, suspension and revocation of tender offer registration.

1 The administrator may issue a stop order denying effectiveness to, or suspending or revoking the effectiveness of, any tender offer registration statement if the administrator finds that the order is in the public interest and that at least one of the following conditions exists.

a The tender offer registration statement is incomplete in any material respect or contains any statement which was, in light of the circumstances under which it was made, false or misleading with respect to any material fact.

b Any provision of this Act or any rule, order, or condition lawfully imposed under this Act has been willfully violated, in connection with the tender offer, by (i) the person filing the tender offer registration statement, (ii) any partner, officer or director of the offeror, or any person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, (iii) any affiliate of the offeror, or (iv) any broker-dealer acting on behalf of the offeror.

c The offer registered or sought to be registered is the subject of an administrative stop order or similar order or a permanent or temporary injunction of any court of competent jurisdiction entered under any other federal or state Act applicable to the offer, but the administrator may not enter an order under this section on the basis of an order or injunction entered under any other state Act unless that order or injunction was based on facts which would currently constitute a ground for a stop order under this section.

d The applicant or registrant has failed to pay the proper filing fee, but the administrator may enter only a denial order under this subsection, and shall vacate any such order when the deficiency has been corrected.

2 The administrator may not institute a stop order proceeding against an effective tender offer registration statement on the basis of a fact known to the administrator when the tender offer registration statement became effective unless the proceeding is instituted within thirty days after effectiveness.

3 The administrator may issue a summary order postponing, suspending or denying the effectiveness of a tender offer registration statement pending final determination of any proceeding under this section. Upon the entry of the order, the administrator shall promptly notify the offeror that the order has been entered and of the reasons therefor and that within fifteen days after the receipt of a written request the matter will be set down for hearing. If no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the administrator, the order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the administrator. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the administrator, after notice of an opportunity for hearing to the offeror, may modify or vacate the order or extend it until final determination.

4 A stop order shall not be entered under any part of this section without compliance with the Iowa Administrative Procedure Act, except that a summary order may be issued under subsection 3 prior to notice and hearing as may be required by that Act.

5 The administrator may vacate or modify a stop order upon a finding that the conditions which prompted its entry have changed or that it is otherwise in the public interest to do so.

[C79, 81, §502 215] *See 67GA ch 1186

PART III
REGISTRATION OF BROKER DEALERS AND AGENTS

502.301 Registration requirement.

1 It is unlawful for any person to transact business in this state as a broker-dealer or agent unless registered under this chapter.

2 It is unlawful for any broker-dealer or issuer to employ an agent in this state unless the agent is registered under the registration of an agent is not effective during any period when the agent is not associated with a specified broker-dealer registered under this chapter or a specified issuer. Unless permitted by order of the administrator, no agent shall at any time represent more than one broker-dealer or issuer, except that where organizations affiliated by direct or indirect common control are registered as broker dealers or are issuers of securities registered under this chapter, an agent may represent any such organization. When an agent begins or terminates employment with a broker-dealer or issuer or begins or terminates the activities which makes such person an agent, the agent as well as the broker-dealer or issuer shall promptly notify the administrator.

3 Every registration shall expire on the last day of December in each year.

83 Acts, ch 169, §9

502.302 Registration procedures.

1 A broker-dealer or agent may obtain an initial or renewal license by filing with the administrator, or an organization which the administrator by rule designates, an application together with a consent to service of process pursuant to section 502.609 and the appropriate filing fee. The application shall contain the information the administrator requires by rule concerning the applicant's form and place of organization, proposed method of doing business and financial condition, the qualifications and experience of the applicant, including, in the case of a broker-dealer, the qualifications and experience of any partner, officer, director or controlling person, any injunction or administrative order or conviction of a misdemeanor involving securities and any conviction of a felony, and any other matters which the administrator determines.
are relevant to the application. If no denial order is in effect and no proceeding is pending under section 502.304, registration becomes effective at noon of the thirtieth day after an application is filed. The administrator may by rule or order specify an earlier effective date and may by order defer the effective date until noon of the thirtieth day after the filing of an amendment. Registration of a broker dealer automatically constitutes registration of an agent named in the application or amendments to the application who is a partner, officer or director, or who is a person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions.

2. Every applicant for initial or renewal registration as a broker dealer shall pay a filing fee of two hundred dollars. Every applicant for initial or renewal registration as an agent shall pay a filing fee of twenty dollars. A filing fee is not refundable.

3. A registered broker dealer may file an application for registration of a successor, whether or not the successor is then in existence, for the unexpired portion of the year. There shall be no filing fee.

4. The administrator may by rule require a minimum capital for broker dealers and establish limitations on aggregate indebtedness of broker-dealers in relation to net capital and may classify broker-dealers for purposes of such requirements. The administrator may not, however, with respect to any broker-dealer who is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., or who is registered with the securities and exchange commission, require a higher minimum capital or lower ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital than is contained in the rules and regulations adopted by such association or commission.

5. Every broker dealer and every issuer who employs agents in connection with any security or transaction not exempted either by section 502.202 or section 502.203, shall file and maintain with the administrator a bond conditioned that the broker-dealer or issuer shall properly account for any moneys or securities received from or belonging to another and shall pay, satisfy, and discharge any judgment or decree that may be rendered against such broker-dealer or issuer in any court of competent jurisdiction in a suit or action brought by a purchaser or seller of securities against such broker-dealer or issuer in which it shall be found or adjudged that such securities were sold or purchased by the broker dealer or issuer in violation of this chapter. Such bond may be drawn to cover the original license and any renewals thereof, and may contain a provision authorizing the surety therein to cancel upon thirty days’ notice to the principal and the administrator.

6. Every such bond shall run in favor of the state of Iowa for the use and benefit of any person who sustains damages as a result of any breach of the conditions thereof, in the sum of fifteen thousand dollars and shall be in such form consistent with the provisions hereof as the administrator may prescribe, and shall be executed with surety or sureties satisfactory to the administrator. In suits against the surety upon such bond it shall not be necessary to join such broker-dealer or issuer as a party.

Banks or trust companies under the supervision of the state or of the United States which would otherwise be required under the provisions of this chapter to file and maintain the bond required herein may execute said bond without surety.

One or more recoveries upon any such bond shall not vitiate the same but it shall remain in full force and effect, but the aggregate recoveries from the surety upon any such bond shall not exceed the full amount of the penal sum of the bond, and upon suits being commenced in excess of the amount of the same the administrator may require additional bond, and if not given within ten days the administrator may revoke the registration of such broker-dealer or issuer.

6. The administrator may by rule or order impose such other conditions in connection with registration under this chapter as are deemed appropriate, in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

502.303 Post-registration provisions.

1. Every registered broker-dealer shall make and keep such accounts, correspondence, memoranda, papers, books, and other records as the administrator by rule prescribes. All records so required shall be preserved for three years unless the administrator by rule prescribes otherwise for particular types of records. All required records shall be kept within this state and shall, at the request of the administrator, be made available at any time for examination at the administrator’s option either in the principal office of the registrant or by production of exact copies thereof in this state.

2. Every registered broker-dealer shall file such financial reports as the administrator by rule prescribes.

3. If the information contained in any document filed with the administrator is or becomes inaccurate or incomplete in any material respect, the registrant shall promptly file a correcting amendment unless notification of the correction has been given under section 502.301, subsection 2.

4. The administrator shall make periodic examinations, within or without this state, of the business and records of each registered broker-dealer, at the times and in the scope as the administrator determines. The examinations may be made without prior notice to the broker-dealer. The administrator may copy all records the administrator feels are necessary to conduct the examination. The expense reasonably attributable to an examination shall be paid by the broker-dealer whose business is examined, but the expense so payable shall not exceed an amount which the administrator by rule prescribes. For the purpose of avoiding unnecessary duplication of examinations, the administrator may co-operate with securities administrators of other states, the securities and exchange commission, and any national securities exchange or national securities association registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The administrator shall not make public the information obtained in the course of examinations, except when a duty under this chapter requires the administrator to take action regarding a broker dealer or to make the information available to one of the agencies specified in this section, or except when the administrator is called as a witness in a criminal or civil proceeding.
Denial, revocation, suspension, and withdrawal of registration.

1. The administrator may by order deny, suspend or revoke a registration or may censure an applicant or registrant or may impose a civil penalty, if the order is found to be in the public interest and it is found that the applicant or registrant or, in the case of a broker-dealer, a partner, an officer, or a director, a person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions, or a person directly or indirectly controlling the broker-dealer:

a. Has filed an application for registration which as of its effective date, or as of any date after filing in the case of an order denying effectiveness, was incomplete in any material respect or contained any statement which was, in light of the circumstances under which it was made, false or misleading with respect to any material fact;

b. Has willfully violated or willfully failed to comply with any provision of this chapter or a predecessor act or any rule or order under this chapter or a predecessor act;

c. Has been convicted within the past ten years of

(1) Any misdemeanor involving a security or any aspect of the securities business, or

(2) Any felony;

d. Is permanently or temporarily enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice involving any aspect of the securities business;

e. Is the subject of an order of the administrator denying, suspending, or revoking registration as a broker-dealer or agent;

f. Is the subject of an order entered within the past five years by the securities administrator of any other state or by the securities and exchange commission denying or revoking registration as a broker-dealer, agent, or investment adviser, or is the subject of an order of the securities and exchange commission suspending or expelling such person from a national securities exchange or national securities association, registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or is the subject of a United States Post Office fraud order; but the administrator

(1) May not institute a revocation or suspension proceeding under this paragraph more than one year from the date of the order relied on, and

(2) May not enter an order under this paragraph on the basis of an order under another state Act unless that order was based on facts which would currently constitute a ground for an order under this section;

g. Has engaged in dishonest or unethical practices in the securities business;

h. Is insolvent, either in the equity or bankruptcy sense; but the administrator may not enter an order against a broker-dealer under this paragraph without a finding of insolvency as to the broker-dealer;

i. Is not qualified on the basis of such factors as training, experience and knowledge of the securities business; or

j. If a broker-dealer, it has failed reasonably to supervise its agents.

2. The administrator may not institute a suspension or revocation proceeding under subsection 1 on the basis of a fact known to the administrator when registration became effective unless the proceeding is instituted within thirty days after the effective date.

3. The administrator may by order summarily postpone or suspend registration pending final determination of any proceeding under this section. Upon the entry of the order, the administrator shall promptly notify the applicant or registrant, as well as the employer or prospective employer if the applicant or registrant is an agent, that it has been entered and of the reasons therefor and that within fifteen days after the receipt of a written request the matter will be set down for hearing. If no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the administrator, the order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the administrator. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the administrator, after notice of and opportunity for hearing, may modify or vacate the order or extend it until final determination.

4. If the administrator finds that any registrant or applicant for registration is no longer in existence or has ceased to do business as a broker-dealer, or agent, or is subject to an adjudication of mental incompetence or to the control of a committee, conservator, or guardian, or cannot be located after search, the administrator may by order revoke the registration or application.

5. Withdrawal from registration as a broker-dealer or agent becomes effective thirty days after receipt of an application to withdraw or within such shorter period of time as the administrator may by order determine, unless a revocation or suspension proceeding is pending when the application is filed or a proceeding to revoke or suspend or to impose conditions upon the withdrawal is instituted within thirty days after the application is filed. If a proceeding is pending or instituted, withdrawal becomes effective at such time and upon such conditions as the administrator by order determines. If no proceeding is pending or instituted and withdrawal automatically becomes effective, the administrator may nevertheless institute a revocation or suspension proceeding under subsection 1 paragraph "b" within one year after withdrawal became effective and enter a revocation or suspension order as of the last date on which registration was effective.

6. No order may be entered under any part of this section except the first sentence of subsection 3 without compliance with the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

7. A civil penalty levied under subsection 1 shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars per violation per person nor ten thousand dollars in a single proceeding against any one person. All administrative fines received shall be deposited in the state general fund.

PART IV

PROHIBITION OF FRAUDULENT PRACTICES
502.401 Offers, sales and purchases.
It is unlawful for any person, in connection with the offer to sell, offer to purchase, sale or purchase of any security in this state, directly or indirectly
1 To employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud,
2 To make any untrue statement of a material fact or to omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, or 3 To engage in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person.

502.402 Trading on inside information.
It is unlawful for any person who is or was an officer, director or affiliate of an issuer or any other person whose relationship to the issuer or to any of the foregoing persons gives or gave such person access, directly or indirectly, to material information which is of decisive importance about the issuer or the security not generally available to the public, to purchase or sell any security of the issuer in this state at a time when that person knows such information about the issuer or the security gained from such relationship, which information
1 Would significantly affect the market price of that security,
2 Is not generally available to the public, and
3 Such person knows is not intended to be so available, unless that person has reason to believe that the other party to such transaction is also in possession of such information.

[C77, 79, 81, §502 402]

502.403 Market manipulation.
It is unlawful for any person, directly or indirectly, in this state 1 For the purpose of creating a false or misleading appearance of active trading in a security or a false or misleading appearance with respect to the market for a security a To effect any transaction in the security which involves no change in the beneficial ownership thereof, or b To enter any order or orders for the purchase (or sale) of the security with the knowledge that an order or orders of substantially the same size, at substantially the same time, and at substantially the same price for the sale (or purchase) of the security have been or will be entered by or for the same or affiliated persons,
2 To effect, alone or with one or more other persons, a series of transactions in any security creating actual or apparent active trading in the security or raising or depressing the price of the security for the purpose of inducing the purchase or sale of the security by others, or 3 To induce the purchase or sale of any security by the circulation or dissemination of information to the effect that the price of the security will or is likely to rise or fall because of market operations of one or more persons conducted for the purpose of raising or depressing the price of the security, if that person is receiving a consideration, directly or indirectly, from any such person, or is selling or offering to sell or purchasing or offering to purchase the security.

502.404 Prohibited transactions of broker-dealers and agents.
A broker dealer or agent shall not effect a transaction in, or induce or attempt to induce the purchase or sale of, any security in this state by means of any manipulative, deceptive or other fraudulent scheme, device, or contrivance, fictitious quotation, or in violation of this Act* or any rule or order hereunder. A broker dealer or agent shall not recommend to a customer the purchase, sale or exchange of a security without reasonable grounds to believe that the transaction or recommendation is suitable for the customer based on reasonable inquiry concerning the customer’s investment objectives, financial situation and needs, and other relevant information known by the broker-dealer.

[C77, 79, 81, §502 404]

83 Acts ch 169, §14

502.405 Misleading filings.
It is unlawful for any person to make or cause to be made, in any document filed with the administrator or in any proceeding under this chapter, any statement of a material fact which is, at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which it is made, false or misleading, or, in connection with such statement, to omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

[SS15, §1920 u19, C24, 27, §8577, C31, 35, §8581 c21, C39, §8581.26; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §502 26, C77, 79, 81, §502 405]

502.406 Misrepresentations of government approval.
1 It is unlawful for any person registered as a broker dealer or agent under this chapter to represent or imply in any manner whatsoever that such person has been sponsored, recommended, or approved or that the person’s abilities or qualifications have in any respect been passed upon by the administrator. Nothing in this subsection prohibits a statement other than in a paid advertisement that a person is registered under this chapter, if such statement is true in fact and if the effect of such registration is not misrepresented.

2 a Neither the fact that a registration statement has been filed under this chapter nor the fact that such statement has become effective constitutes a finding by the administrator that any document filed under this chapter is true, complete or not misleading; neither any such fact nor the fact that an exemption is available for a security or a transaction means that the administrator has passed in any way upon the merits or qualifications of, or has recommended or given approval to, any person, security or transaction
b It is unlawful to make, or cause to be made, to any prospective purchaser or any other person, any representation inconsistent with paragraph “a” of this subsection.
3 No state official or employee of the state shall use such person’s name in an official capacity in connection with the endorsement or recommendation of the organization or the promotion of any issuer or in the sale to the public of its securities, nor shall anyone use the stationery of the state or of any official thereof in connection with any such transaction.

[C24, 27, §8580; C31, 35, §8581-c24; C39, §8581.29; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §502.29; C77, 79, 81, §502.406]

502.407 Misstatements in publicity.

It is unlawful for any person to make or cause to be made, in any public report or press release, or in other information which is either made generally available to the public or used in opposition to a tender offer, any statement of a material fact relating to an issuer or made in connection with a tender offer which is, at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which it is made, false or misleading, if it is reasonably foreseeable that such statement will induce other persons to buy, sell or hold securities of the issuer.

PART V
CIVIL LIABILITY

502.501 Violation of registration and related requirements.

1. Any person who:
   a. Violates section 502.201, section 502.208, subsection 12 or section 502.406, subsection 2, paragraph “b”;
   b. Violates any material condition imposed under section 502.208, or
   c. Offers or sells a security at any time when such person has committed a material violation of section 502.301, or
   d. Commits a material violation of any order issued by the administrator under this chapter, shall be liable to the person purchasing the security offered or sold in connection with such violation, who may sue either at law or in equity to recover the consideration paid for the security, together with interest at the legal rate from the date of payment, costs and reasonable attorneys’ fees, less the amount of any income or distributions, in cash or in kind, received on the security, upon the tender of the security, or for damages if the purchaser no longer owns the security. Damages shall be the amount that would be recoverable upon a tender less:
      (1) The value of the security when the purchaser disposed of it and
      (2) Interest on said value at the legal rate from the date of disposition.
   The persons on whose behalf an offering is made shall be jointly and severally liable for damages if the offering is made and any underwriter of the offering, whether on a best efforts or a firm commitment basis, shall be jointly and severally liable under this section, but in no event shall any underwriter be liable in any suit or suits authorized under this section for damages in excess of the total price at which the securities were underwritten by it and distributed to the public were offered to the public. Tender requires only notice of willingness to exchange the security for the amount specified. Any notice may be given by service as in civil actions or by certified mail addressed to the last known address of the person liable.
   2. Any person who violates section 502.211 shall be liable to the person selling the security to such violator, which seller may sue either at law or in equity to recover the security, costs and reasonable attorney’s fees, plus any income or distributions, in cash or in kind, received by the purchaser thereon, upon tender of the consideration received, or for damages if the purchaser no longer owns the security. Damages shall be the excess of the value of the security when the purchaser disposed of it, plus interest at the legal rate from the date of disposition, over the consideration paid for the security. Tender requires only notice of willingness to pay the amount specified in exchange for the security. Any notice may be given by service as in civil actions or by certified mail to the last known address of the person liable.

502.502 Fraudulent practices.

1. Any person, other than an underwriter, who offers or sells a security in connection with an offering of securities (i) registered under section 502.207 or under the Securities Act of 1933, or (ii) pursuant to an exemption from registration under section 3(b) of the Securities Act of 1933, in violation of section 502.401, the purchaser not knowing of the violation, shall be liable to the purchaser, who may sue either at law or in equity to recover the consideration paid for the security, together with interest at the legal rate from the date of payment, costs and reasonable attorneys’ fees, less the amount of any income or distributions, in cash or in kind, received on the security, upon the tender of the security, or for damages if the purchaser no longer owns the security. Damages shall be the amount that would be recoverable upon a tender less:
   a. The value of the security when the purchaser disposed of it; and
   b. Interest on said value at the legal rate from the date of disposition.
   The persons on whose behalf an offering is made shall be jointly and severally liable for damages if the offering is made and any underwriter of the offering, whether on a best efforts or a firm commitment basis, shall be jointly and severally liable under this subsection. Tender requires only notice of willingness to exchange the security for the amount specified. Any notice may be given by service as in civil actions or by certified mail addressed to the last known address of the person liable.
   2. Any underwriter and any person, other than a person on whose behalf an offering described in subsection 1 is made, who offers or sells a security in violation of section 502.401, the purchaser not knowing of the violation, and who fails to sustain the burden of proof that the underwriter or person did not know and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known of the violation, shall be liable to the purchaser, who may sue either at law or in equity to recover the consideration paid for the security, together with interest at the legal rate from the date of payment, costs and reasonable attorneys’ fees, less the amount of any income or distributions, in cash or in kind, received on the security, upon the tender of the security, or for damages if the purchaser no longer owns the security. Damages shall be the amount that would be recoverable upon a tender less:
      a. The value of the security when the purchaser disposed of it; and §502.502  1404

b  Interest on said value at the legal rate from the date of disposition

Any person liable under this subsection on whose behalf an offering is made and any underwriter of the offering, whether on a best efforts or a firm commitment basis, shall be jointly and severally liable under this subsection, but in no event shall any underwriter be liable in any suit or suits authorized under this subsection for damages in excess of the total price at which the securities underwritten by it and distributed to the public were offered to the public. Tender requires only notice of willingness to exchange the security for the amount specified. Any notice may be given by service as in civil actions or by certified mail addressed to the last known address of the person liable.

3  Any person who offers to purchase or purchases a security in violation of section 502.401, the seller not knowing of the violation, and who fails to sustain the burden of proof that the person did not know and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known of the violation, shall be liable to the seller, who may sue either at law or in equity to recover the security, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees, plus any income or distributions, in cash or in kind, received by the purchaser thereon, upon tender of the consideration received, or for damages if the purchaser no longer owns the security. Damages shall be the excess of the value of the security when the purchaser disposed of it, plus interest at the legal rate from the date of disposition, over the consideration paid for the security. Tender requires only notice of willingness to pay the amount specified in exchange for the security. Any notice may be given by service as in civil actions or by certified mail to the last known address of the person liable.

4  Any person who willfully and knowingly participates in any act or transaction in violation of sections 502.403, 502.404, 502.405 or 502.407 shall be liable to any other person who purchases or sells any security (but not a mere holder thereof) at a price which was affected by the act or transaction for the damages sustained as a result of such act or transaction. Damages shall not exceed the difference between the price at which the other person purchased or sold securities and the market value which the securities would have had at the time of such purchase or sale in the absence of the act or transaction, plus interest at the legal rate, costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

5  Any person, referred to in this subsection as the "defendant", who violates section 502.402 shall be deemed to be unjustly enriched and liable to any person, referred to in this subsection as the "plaintiff", who purchased or may have purchased a security from, or sold or may have sold a security to, the defendant in connection with such violation, for damages equal to the difference between the price at which such security was purchased or sold and the market value which such security would have had at the time of the purchase or sale if the information known to the defendant had been publicly disseminated prior to that time and a reasonable time had elapsed for the market to absorb the information, plus interest at the legal rate, costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, unless the defendant proves that the plaintiff knew the information or that the plaintiff would have purchased or sold at the same price even if the information had been revealed to the plaintiff.

6  Any person who is aggrieved by a violation of section 502.407 may bring an action in the district court to enjoin the acts complained of and, upon proper showing, to require that correcting material be disseminated, and such person may be awarded costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

§502.503  Joint and several liability; contribution; indemnity.

1  Any person liable under this chapter shall have a right of indemnification against any affiliate whose willful violation of any provision of this chapter gave rise to such liability. Any person liable under this chapter shall have a right of contribution against all other persons similarly liable, except that no person whose willful violation of any provision of this chapter has given rise to any civil liability shall have any right of contribution against any other person guilty merely of a negligent violation.

[C77, 79, 81, §502 503]

§502.504  Time limitations on rights of action.

1  No action shall be maintained to enforce any liability created under either section 502.401 or section 502.403, subsection 1 insofar as it relates to section 502.401 unless brought within two years after the violation upon which it is based.

2  No action shall be maintained to enforce any liability created under either section 502.402 or section 502.403, subsection 1, insofar as it relates to section 502.402, unless brought within the shorter of the following two periods:

a  Five years after the act or transaction constituting the violation, b  Two years after the plaintiff receives actual notice of, or upon the exercise of reasonable diligence should have known of, the facts constituting the violation.

3  No action shall be maintained to enforce any right of indemnification or contribution created by section 502.403, subsection 2 unless brought within one year after final judgment based upon the liability.
for which the right of indemnification or contribution exists 4 No purchaser may commence an action under section 502.501, 502.502 or 502.503 if a Before suit is commenced, the purchaser has received a written offer
      (1) Stating in reasonable detail why liability under such section may have arisen and fairly advising the purchaser of the purchaser’s rights,
      (2) Offering to repurchase the security for cash, payable on delivery of the security, equal to the consideration paid, together with interest at the legal rate from the date of payment, less the amount of any income or distributions, in cash or in kind, received thereon or, if the purchaser no longer owns the security, offering to pay the purchaser upon acceptance of the offer an amount in cash equal to the damages computed in accordance with section 502.502, subsection 1, and
      (3) Stating that the offer may be accepted by the purchaser at any time within a specified period of not less than thirty days after the date of receipt thereof, or such shorter period as the administrator may by rule prescribe, and b The purchaser has failed to accept such offer in writing within the specified period 5 No seller may commence an action under section 502.501, 502.502 or 502.503 if a Before suit is commenced, the seller has received a written offer
      (1) Stating in reasonable detail why liability under such section may have arisen and fairly advising the seller of the seller’s rights,
      (2) Offering to return the security plus the amount of any income or distributions, in cash or in kind, received thereon upon payment of the consideration received, or, if the purchaser no longer owns the security, offering to pay the seller upon acceptance of the offer an amount in cash equal to the damages computed in accordance with section 502.502, subsection 2, and
      (3) Stating that the offer may be accepted by the seller at any time within a specified period of not less than thirty days after the date of receipt thereof, or such shorter period as the administrator may by rule prescribe, and b The seller has failed to accept the offer in writing within the specified period
6 Offers under subsection 4 or 5 shall be in the form and contain the information the administrator by rule prescribes. Every offer under either subsection shall be delivered to the offeree personally or sent by certified mail addressed to the offeree at the offeree’s last known address. If an offer is not performed in accordance with its terms, suit by the offeree under the offeror’s or the offeror’s assignor entered into the transaction for the purchase or sale of a security that the plaintiff or the plaintiff’s assignor entered into the transaction which gave rise to the contract under circumstances which would subject the plaintiff or the assignor to liability under section 502.501, 502.502, or 502.503

502.505 Limitation on implied liability.
Except as explicitly provided in this chapter, no civil liability in favor of any person shall arise against any person by implication from or as a result of the violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder Nothing in this chapter shall limit any liability which might exist by virtue of any other statute or under common law if this chapter were not in effect
[C77, 79, 81, §502.505]

502.506 No waiver of right of action.
Any condition, stipulation or provision binding any person to waive compliance with any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder is void
[C77, 79, 81, §502.506]

502.507 Enforceability of illegal contracts.
It shall be a defense to an action based on a contract for the purchase or sale of a security that the plaintiff or the plaintiff’s assignor entered into the transaction which gave rise to the contract under circumstances which would subject the plaintiff or the assignor to liability under section 502.501, 502.502, or 502.503
[C77, 79, 81, §502.507]

PART VI ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT

502.601 Administration.
1 This chapter shall be administered by the commissioner of insurance of the state of Iowa The administrator shall appoint a deputy administrator who shall be exempt from the merit system provided for in chapter 19A The deputy administrator shall be the principal operations officer of the securities department and shall be responsible to the administrator for the routine administration of the chapter and the management of the securities department. In the absence of the administrator, whether because of vacancy in the office, by reason of absence, physical disability or other cause, the deputy administrator shall be the acting administrator and shall, for the time being, have and exercise the authority conferred upon the administrator. The administrator may by order from time to time delegate to the deputy administrator any or all of the functions assigned to the administrator in this chapter. The administrator shall employ officers, attorneys, accountants, and other employees as shall be needed for the administration of the chapter.
2 It is unlawful for the administrator or any officer or employee of the securities department to use for personal benefit any information which is filed with or obtained by the administrator and which is not made public. No provision of this chapter authorizes the administrator or any such officer or employee to disclose any such information except among themselves or to other securities administrators, regulatory authorities or governmental agencies, or when necessary or appropriate in a proceeding or investigation under this chapter. No provision of this chapter either creates or derogates from any privileges which exist at common law or otherwise when documentary or other evidence is sought under a subpoena directed to the administrator or any officer or employee of the securities department
§502.602 Filing of sales and advertising literature.

The administrator may by rule or order require the filing of any prospectus, pamphlet, circular, form letter, advertisement, or other sales literature or advertising communication addressed or intended for distribution to prospective investors, unless the security or transaction is exempted by section 502.202 or 502.203. The administrator may by rule or order prohibit the publication, circulation or use of any advertising deemed false or misleading.

[SS15, §1590-u2; C24, 27, §8527; C31, 35, §8581-c8; C39, §8581.07(4); C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §502.72(2, d); C77, 79, 81, §502.602]

§502.603 Investigations and subpoenas.

1. The administrator may
   a. Make such public or private investigations within or outside of this state as the administrator deems necessary to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, or to aid in the enforcement of this chapter or in the prescribing of rules and forms hereunder;
   b. Require or permit any person to file a statement in writing, under oath or otherwise as the administrator determines, as to all the facts and circumstances concerning the matter to be investigated; and
   c. Keep confidential the information obtained in the course of an investigation. However, if the administrator determines that it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors, the administrator may share information with other securities administrators, regulatory authorities, or governmental agencies or may publish information concerning a violation of this chapter or a rule or order hereunder.

2. For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this chapter, the administrator or any officer designated by the administrator may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements or other documents or records which the administrator deems relevant or material to the inquiry, all of which may be enforced in accordance with the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

3. No person is excused from attending and testifying or from producing any document or record before the administrator, or in obedience to the subpoena of the administrator or any officer designated by the administrator, or in any proceeding instituted by the administrator, on the ground that the testimony or evidence required, whether documentary or otherwise, may tend to incriminate such person or subject such person to a penalty or forfeiture; but no individual may be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which such person is compelled, after claiming the privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence, whether documentary or otherwise, except that the individual testifying is not exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury or contempt committed in testifying.

§502.604 Cease and desist orders — injunctions.

Whenever it appears to the administrator that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, the administrator may:

1. Issue an order directed at any such person requiring such person to cease and desist from engaging in such act or practice; or
2. Bring an action in the district court to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter or any rule or order hereunder. Upon a proper showing a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandamus shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets. The administrator shall not be required to post a bond.

§502.605 Criminal penalty.

1. Any person who willfully and knowingly violates any provision of this chapter, or any rule or order under this chapter, shall be guilty of a class "D" felony.

2. The administrator may refer such evidence as is available concerning violations of this chapter or of any rule or order hereunder to the attorney general or the proper county attorney who may, with or without such a reference, institute the appropriate criminal proceedings under this chapter.

3. Nothing in this chapter limits the power of the state to punish any person for any conduct which constitutes a crime under any other statute.

[SS15, §1920-u19, -u20, -u21; C24, 27, §8577-8579; C31, 35, §8581-c21, -c22, -c23; C39, §8581.26-8581.28; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §502.26-502.28; C77, 79, 81, §502.605]

Judicial review of actions of the administrator may be sought pursuant to the Iowa administrative procedure Act, upon execution of a bond in the penal sum of one thousand dollars to the state of Iowa, with sufficient surety, to be approved by the clerk of the court condition upon the faithful prosecution of such petition for judicial review, and the payment of all costs adjudged against the petitioner.

[SS15, §1920-u17; C24, 27, §8575; C31, 35, §8581-c19; C39, §8581.24; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §502.24; C77, 79, 81, §502.606]

§502.607 Rules, forms, orders and hearings.

1. Pursuant to the Iowa administrative procedure Act, the administrator may from time to time make, amend and rescind such rules, forms and orders as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, including rules and forms governing registration statements, applications, and reports, and defining any terms, whether or not used in this chapter, insofar as the definitions are not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. For the purpose of rules and forms, the administrator may classify securities, persons, and other relevant matters, and prescribe different requirements for different classes.

2. No rule, form or order may be made, amended or rescinded unless the administrator finds that the action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this chapter. In prescribing rules and forms the administrator may co operate with the securities administrators of the other states, the securities and exchange commission, and national securities exchanges and national securities associations registered under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, with a view to effectuating the policy of this statute to achieve maximum uniformity in form and content of registration statements, applications, and reports wherever practicable.

3 The administrator may by rule or order prescribe:
   a. The form and content of financial statements required under this chapter,
   b. The circumstances under which consolidated financial statements shall be filed, and
   c. Whether any required financial statements shall be certified by independent or certified public accountants. All financial statements shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

4 No provision of this chapter imposing any liability applies to any act done or omitted in good faith in conformity with any rule, form or order of the administrator, notwithstanding that the rule, form or order may later be amended or rescinded or be determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

5 Every hearing in an administrative proceeding shall be public, in the exercise of discretion, the administrator grants a request joined in by all the respondents that the hearing be conducted privately.

502.608 Administrative files and opinions.

1 A document is filed when it is received by the administrator, except that documents required to be filed under sections 502 202 and 502 203 shall be deemed to be filed with the administrator:
   a. On the date received by the administrator;
   b. If it has not been received by the administrator prior to the date by which the document must be filed, on the date the document is mailed with the United States postal service by registered or certified mail addressed to the administrator's office in Des Moines, Iowa.

2 The administrator shall keep a register of all applications for registration and registration statements which are or have been effective under this chapter and predecessor laws, and all censure, denial, suspension or revocation orders which have been entered under this chapter and predecessor laws. The register shall be open for public inspection.

3 The information contained in or filed with any registration statement, application or report may be made available to the public under such rules as the administrator prescribes.

4 Upon request and at such reasonable charges as may be prescribed, the administrator shall furnish to any person photostatic or other copies, certified if requested, of any entry in the register or any document which is a matter of public record. In any proceeding or prosecution under this chapter any copy so certified is prima facie evidence of the contents of the entry or document certified.

5 The administrator may honor requests from interested persons for interpretative opinions:

   83 Acts, ch 169, §17.

502.609 Service of process.

1 Every applicant for registration under this chapter, and every issuer which proposes to offer a security in this state through any person acting as agent, shall file with the administrator, in such form as the administrator by rule prescribes, an irrevocable consent appointing the administrator or the administrator's successor in office to be such person's attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action or proceeding against such person or the successor, executor or administrator of such person which arises under this chapter or any rule or order hereunder after the consent has been filed, with the same validity as if served personally on the person filing the consent. The consent need not be filed by a person who has filed a consent in connection with a previous registration which is then in effect. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the administrator, but it is not effective unless the plaintiff, including the administrator when acting as such:
   a. Promptly sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by registered or certified mail to the defendant or respondent at such person's last known address or takes other steps which are reasonably calculated to give actual notice, and
   b. Files an affidavit of compliance with this subsection in the case on or before the return day of the process, or within such time as the court allows.

2 When any person, including any nonresident of this state, engages in conduct prohibited or made actionable by this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, has not filed a consent to service of process under subsection 1, and personal jurisdiction over such person cannot otherwise be obtained in this state, that conduct shall be considered equivalent to the appointment by such person of the administrator or the administrator's successor in office to be that person's attorney to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action or proceeding against that person or the successor, executor or administrator of that person which arises out of that conduct and which is brought under this chapter or by any rule or order hereunder, with the same validity as if served personally. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the administrator, and it is not effective unless the plaintiff, including the administrator when acting as such:
   a. Promptly sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by registered or certified mail to the defendant or respondent at such person's last known address or takes other steps which are reasonably calculated to give actual notice, and
   b. Files an affidavit of compliance with this subsection in the case on or before the return day of the process, or within such time as the court allows.
§502.609

3 When process is served under this section, the court, or the administrator in a proceeding before the administrator, shall order such continuance as may be necessary to afford the defendant or respondent reasonable opportunity to defend

[SS15, §1920 u5, C24, 27, §8534, 8535, C31, 35, §8581 c9, C39, §8581.09; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §502 9, C77, 79, 81, §502 609]

§502.610 Scope.

1 The provisions of this chapter concerning sales and offers to sell apply when a sale or an offer to sell is made in this state or when an offer to purchase is made and accepted in this state. The provisions concerning purchases and offers to purchase apply when a purchase or an offer to purchase is made in this state or an offer to sell is made and accepted in this state.

2 For the purpose of this section, an offer to sell or an offer to purchase is made in this state, whether or not either party is then present in this state, when the offer originates from this state or is directed by the offeror to this state and received by the offeree in this state, but for the purpose of section 502.201 an offer to sell which is not directed to or received by the offeree in this state is not made in this state.

3 For the purpose of this section, an offer to purchase or to sell is accepted in this state when acceptance is communicated to the offeror in this state, and has not previously been communicated to the offeror, orally or in writing, outside this state, and acceptance is communicated to the offeror in this state, whether or not either party is then present in this state, when the offeree directs it to the offeror in this state reasonably believing the offeror to be in this state and it is received by the offeror in this state.

4 Except when made in connection with a tender offer, an offer to sell or to purchase is not made in this state when made by means of either of the following:
   a Any bona fide newspaper or other publication of general, regular and paid circulation which is not published in this state, or b A radio or television program originating outside this state which is received in this state

[C77, 79, 81, §502 610]

502.611 Statutory policy.

This chapter shall be so construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact the “Uniform Securities Act” and to co-ordinate the interpretation and administration of this chapter with the related federal regulation

[C77, 79, 81, §502 611]

502.612 Prior law.

1 Chapter 502, Code 1973, as amended by chapters 1090 and 1238, Laws of the Sixty fifth General Assembly, 1974 Session, referred to in this section as “prior law”, exclusively governs all suits, actions, prosecutions, or proceedings which are pending or may be instituted on the basis of facts or circumstances occurring before the effective date of this chapter, except that no civil suit or action may be maintained to enforce any liability under prior law unless brought within any period of limitation which applied when the cause of action accrued.

2 All effective registrations under prior law, all administrative orders relating to such registrations, and all conditions imposed upon such registrations remain in effect so long as they would have remained in effect if this chapter had not been passed. They are considered to have been filed, entered, or imposed under this chapter, but are governed by prior law.

3 Prior law applies in respect of any offer or sale made within six months after the effective date of this chapter pursuant to an offering begun in good faith before its effective date on the basis of an examination available under prior law.

4 Judicial review of all administrative orders as to which review proceedings have not been instituted by the effective date of this chapter are governed by section 502.606, except that no review proceeding may be instituted unless the petition is filed within any period of limitation which applied to a review proceeding when the order was entered and in any event within sixty days after the effective date of this chapter.

CHAPTER 503

MEMBERSHIP SALES
§503.1 Administration.
The administration of the provisions of this chapter shall be vested in the commissioner of insurance, to be administered in the same manner as is provided for in chapter 502.

[C35, §8581-e1; C39, §8581.32; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §503.1]

§503.2 Definitions.
The term "association" as used in this chapter means a person other than building and loan associations, state and national banks, insurance companies and associations, mutual or cooperative telephone companies organized under chapter 491 which have been determined to be exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(12) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and corporations and co-operative associations subject to the provisions of chapters 497, 498, and 499, which sells or offers for sale to the public generally memberships or certificates of membership entitling the holder to purchase merchandise, materials, equipment or service, on a discount or cost-plus basis.
The term "membership" when used in this chapter shall mean certificates, memberships, shares, bonds, contracts, stocks, or agreements of any kind or character issued upon any plan offered generally to the public entitling the holder thereof to purchase merchandise, materials, equipment or service, either from the issuer or someone designated by the issuer, either under a franchise or otherwise, whether it be at a discount, cost plus a percentage, cost plus a fixed amount, at a fixed price, or on any other basis.

§503.3 Nonapplicability.
This chapter shall not apply to any of the following:
1. A corporation or association organized upon the assessment plan for the purpose of insuring the lives of individuals or furnishing benefits to the widows, heirs, orphans or legatees of deceased members.
2. A benevolent association or society.
3. An association which sells or offers for sale memberships to an individual or to a family unit for consideration which is fifty dollars or less for a one-year period.

[C35, §8581-e3; C39, §8581.34; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §503.3]

§503.4 Application for authority.
No association contemplated by this chapter shall sell or offer for sale any membership until it shall have procured from the commissioner of insurance a certificate of authority authorizing it to engage in such business.
To secure such certificate of authority it shall be necessary for such association to file with the commissioner of insurance an application under oath, containing the name and location of such association, the name and post-office address of its officers, the date of organization, and if incorporated, a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, a copy of its bylaws or rules by which it is to be governed, the form of its certificates or contracts, all printed matter issued by it, together with a detailed statement of its financial condition and such other information concerning its affairs or plan of business as the commissioner of insurance may require.

[C35, §8581-e4; C39, §8581.35; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §503.4]

§503.5 Certificate of authority.
Upon the filing of the application referred to in section 503.4, if the commissioner of insurance is satisfied that the business is not in violation of law, or against public policy, and that the certificate or contract is in proper form, the commissioner may issue a certificate of authority authorizing it to transact business within this state for the period of one year from the date of the issuance thereof.

[C35, §8581-e5; C39, §8581.36; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §503.5]

§503.6 Bond.
Before any association shall be authorized to transact the business contemplated by this chapter, it shall file and deposit with the commissioner of insurance a bond in the penal sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, running to the state of Iowa, for the use and benefit of any purchaser of a membership or contract, conditioned upon the faithful performance of all contracts entered into by such association, to be performed by it or someone designated by it, for whose benefit the same may be made, and providing for the refunding of the amount of the membership fee in the event of the failure of the association, or someone designated by it, to perform its contract or contracts in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof, and the payment of any and all damages sustained as a result of any breach of the conditions of said bond. Said bond shall be in such form, consistent with the provisions hereof, as the commissioner of insurance may prescribe, and shall be executed with surety by a surety company authorized to do business in this state. In suits against the surety company upon such bond it shall not be necessary to join the issuer as a party.

[C35, §8581-e6; C39, §8581.37; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §503.6]

§503.7 Repealed by 68GA, ch 121, §7.

§503.8 Tenure of license — fees.
The license period for each such association shall be one year, and renewable annually thereafter on the same terms and conditions as provided for in the original qualification.
Such association shall pay to the commissioner of insurance for its certificate of authority to transact business in accordance with this chapter, a fee of one hundred dollars and an annual renewal fee of one hundred dollars to be paid on or before the date of the expiration of the license period both of which fees shall be by the commissioner of insurance turned into the state treasury as are other fees of the commissioner's office.

[C35, §8581-e8; C39, §8581.39; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §503.8]

§503.9 Financial report.
During the month of January of each year, or at such other time as the commissioner of insurance may require, every association transacting the business contemplated herein shall file with the commissioner of insurance in such form as the commissioner prescribes, a statement showing its financial condition on December 31 preceding.

[C35, §8581 e9, C39, §8581.40; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §503 9]

503.10 Examination.

Every such association shall be subject to examination by the commissioner of insurance or the commissioner's representatives, the expense of which shall be paid by the association in the same manner and on the same basis and under the same terms and conditions as is now provided for in section 502 208, subsection 10 and section 502 303, subsection 4. In making such examination the commissioner of insurance or the commissioner's representatives, shall have full access to and may demand the production of all books, securities, papers, contracts, moneys and other relevant documents of said association, and may administer oaths, summon and compel the attendance of witnesses and the giving of testimony thereby.

[C35, §8581 e10, C39, §8581.41; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §503 10]

503.11 Revocation of certificate — receiver — injunction.

If upon such examination, or at any other time after reasonable notice and a hearing, it shall appear that such association does not conduct its business in accordance with law, or is insolvent, or is doing an unsafe and unsound business, or is conducting its business contrary to public policy, or that the further continuance of its business is hazardous and against the public interest, or if such association upon request refuses to be examined, or fails to make the reports as herein required, the commissioner of insurance shall revoke its certificate of authority and having revoked the certificate of authority of such association the commissioner shall report this fact to the attorney general who shall at once apply to the district court or a judge thereof, for the appointment of a receiver to close up the affairs of such association, and an injunction may issue in the same proceeding enjoining and restraining the association from transacting business in this state.

504.1 Articles.

Except as may be otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, any three or more persons of full age, a majority of whom shall be citizens of the state, may incorporate themselves for the establishment of churches, colleges, seminaries, lyceums, libraries, fraternal lodges or societies, temperance societies, trades unions or other labor organizations, commercial clubs, associations of business persons, agricultural societies, farmers' granges, or organizations of a benevolent, charitable, scientific, political, athletic, military, or religious character, or for the acquisition and ownership of rural fire fighting equipment or for the promotion of the establishment and expansion of industries and the doing of all things necessary thereto. The incorporators shall adopt, and sign and acknowledge the articles of incorporation, stating the name by which the corporation or association shall be known, the location of its principal office or place of business, its business or objects, the number of trustees, directors, managers, or other officers to conduct the same, the names thereof for the first year, the time of its annual meeting and of annual meeting of its trustees or directors and the manner in which the articles may be amended. Said articles of incorporation shall be filed with the secretary of state who shall, if the secretary of state approves the same, endorse approval thereon, record same, and thereafter forward the same to the county recorder in the county where the principal place of business is to be located and there it shall be recorded and, upon recording, be returned to the corporation. The said articles shall not be filed by the secretary of state until a filing fee of five dollars is paid and upon the payment of said fee and the approval of the articles by the secretary of state, the secretary of state shall issue to said corporation a certificate of incorporation as a corporation not for pecuniary profit. Amendments to articles may be filed and receive approval as provided herein for articles, and the fee therefor shall be five dollars in each instance, and no amendment shall be effective until the same is approved and the fee therefor is paid.

504.2 Powers — duration.

Upon filing such articles, the persons signing and acknowledging the same, and their associates and successors, shall become a body corporate, with the name therein stated, and may sue and be sued. It may have a corporate seal, alterable at its pleasure, and may take by gift, purchase, devise, or bequest real and personal property for purposes appropriate to its creation, and may make bylaws. It may make contracts, borrow money and transfer property, possessing the same powers in such respects as natural persons. Corporations so organized shall endure for fifty years, unless a shorter period is fixed in the articles, or they are sooner dissolved by three fourths vote of all the members thereof, or by act of the general assembly, or by operation of law.

[R60, §1185, 1194, 1198, C73, §1070, 1096, 1101, C97, §1643, S13, §1643, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8583; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504 2]

504.3 Existing corporations — reincorporation.

Any corporation not for pecuniary profit, incorporated in the state prior to July 4, 1943, which may seek to reincorporate or renew its corporate existence, shall proceed in the same manner as provided in section 504 18.

[C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504 3]

504.4 County records preserved

On or before the first day of October, 1943, the county recorder in each county shall prepare and file in the office of the secretary of state a complete alphabetical record, duly certified to by the recorder, showing the name of the corporation, its place of business, date of filing its articles of incorporation, and the book and page where same are recorded in the county recorder's office, of every corporation not for pecuniary profit having filed articles of incorporation in the office of the recorder of said county since July 4, 1893, together with the same information as to any amendments to articles. The secretary of state shall preserve the said records so filed by the recorder as a part of the permanent records of the secretary of state's office.

[C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504 4]

504.12 Power to confer degree.
Any corporation of an academical character may confer the degrees usually conferred by such an institution. No academic degree for which compensation is to be paid shall be issued or conferred by any corporation or by any individual conducting an academic course unless the person obtaining the said degree has completed at least one academic year of resident work at the institution which grants the degree.

504.15 Academical — meetings.
Any corporation of an academical character, the membership of which shall consist of lay members and pastors of churches, delegates to any synod, conference, or council holding annual meetings in states other than Iowa, may hold its annual meetings for the election of officers and the transaction of business in any such state, at the place where such synod, conference, or council holds its annual meeting, and the election and business transacted shall be of the same effect as if held and transacted at its place of business in this state.

504.16 Power to confer degree.
Any corporation of an academical character, the membership of which shall consist of lay members and pastors of churches, may confer the degrees usually conferred by such an institution. No academic degree for which compensation is to be paid shall be issued or conferred by any corporation or by any individual conducting an academic course unless the person obtaining the said degree has completed at least one academic year of resident work at the institution which grants the degree.

504.17 Power to confer degree.
Any corporation of an academical character, the membership of which shall consist of lay members and pastors of churches, may confer the degrees usually conferred by such an institution. No academic degree for which compensation is to be paid shall be issued or conferred by any corporation or by any individual conducting an academic course unless the person obtaining the said degree has completed at least one academic year of resident work at the institution which grants the degree.

504.18 Power to confer degree.
Any corporation of an academical character, the membership of which shall consist of lay members and pastors of churches, may confer the degrees usually conferred by such an institution. No academic degree for which compensation is to be paid shall be issued or conferred by any corporation or by any individual conducting an academic course unless the person obtaining the said degree has completed at least one academic year of resident work at the institution which grants the degree.
§504.16 Election of officers.

If an election of trustees, directors, or managers shall not be made on the day designated by the bylaws, the society for that cause shall not be dissolved, but such election may take place on any other day directed in the bylaws.

[R60, §1196; C73, §1099; C97, §1649; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8591; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504.16]

§504.18 Reincorporation.

The trustees, directors, or members of any corporation organized under this chapter may reincorporate the corporation, and all the property and rights of the corporation shall vest in the corporation as reincorporated. When the term of incorporation of a corporation organized under this chapter has expired, but the organization has continued to act as such corporation, the trustees, directors, or members of that corporation may reincorporate, and the property and rights of the corporation shall vest in the reincorporation for the use and benefit of all of the shareholders in the original corporation. Any corporation reincorporating on or after January 1, 1978, shall be governed by the provisions of chapter 504A. The corporation shall reincorporate in the same manner as though voluntarily electing to adopt the provisions of chapter 504A in accordance with section 504A.100 pertaining to domestic corporations organized under this chapter.

[R60, §1199; C73, §1102; C97, §1650; S13, §1650; C24, §8592; C27, 31, 35, §8592, 8592-a1; C39, §8592, 8592.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504.17, 504.18]

§504.19 Amendment of articles.

Any corporation organized under this chapter may change its name or amend its articles of incorporation by a vote of a majority of the members, in such manner as may be provided in its articles; but if no such provision is made in the articles the same may be amended at any regular meeting or special meeting called for that purpose by the president or secretary or a majority of the board of directors. Notice of any meeting at which it is proposed to amend the articles of incorporation, shall be given by mailing to each member at the member's last known post-office address at least ten days prior to such meeting, a notice signed by the secretary setting forth the proposed amendments in substance, or by two publications of said notice in some daily or weekly newspaper in general circulation in the county wherein said corporation has its principal place of business. The last publication of said notice shall be not less than ten days prior to the date of said meeting. If the trustees, directors, or managers of such corporation are appointed by two or more synods, conferences, associations, or other ecclesiastical bodies, such change or amendment shall not be made without the concurrence of a majority of those appointed by each such body.

Amendments legalized, §591.6

§504.20 Record — effect.

The change or amendment provided for in section 504.19 shall be recorded as the original articles are recorded. From the date of filing such change or amendment for record, the provisions of the previous section having been complied with, the change or amendment shall take effect as a part of the original articles, and the corporation thus constituted shall have the same rights, powers, and franchises, be entitled to the same immunities, and liable upon all contracts to the same extent, as before such change or amendment.

§504.21 Endowment fund — trustees.

Any presbytery, synod, conference, state or diocesan convention, or other state or district representative body of any religious denomination in this state, now or hereafter incorporated under this chapter, or any assembly, synod, conference, convention, or other general ecclesiastical body of any religious denomination in the United States having local societies in this state and wherever incorporated, may in its articles of incorporation or by amendment thereto create a board, committee, or commission of three or more members for any endowment fund or other fund or property of the denomination represented by such body, and at any regular meeting of such presbytery, synod, conference, state or diocesan convention, or other representative assembly of such denomination in this state, or of such assembly, synod, conference, convention, or other general ecclesiastical body in the United States, may elect not less than three members of such denomination, one of whom shall be a resident freeholder in this state, to serve as trustees of such fund or property; and a copy of such articles of incorporation and amendment, duly certified to by the officer with whom the same have been filed for record, shall be evidence in the courts of this state of the existence of such trust and of the powers of such trustees.

§504.22 Powers of trustees.

Such trustees, if chosen to take charge of any endowment or other like fund, may invest, manage, and dispose of the same in accordance with the purpose for which it was created, subject to such regulations as the body by which they were elected may from time to time prescribe; and shall have power to make contracts regarding, and to collect and sue for, and in all ways to control and protect, any property belonging or which should belong to any such funds.

[S13, §1652-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8596; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504.22]

§504.23 Extinct religious societies — disposition of property.

When any local religious society shall have become extinct, such trustees of the denomination with which it shall have been at any time connected shall take charge of its property, whether real or personal, and control, dispose of, and use the same in trust, as part of the endowment or other like funds of such denomination within the territorial limits represented by such trustees and the corporation by which they were elected and especially for the work of such denomination at the place where such extinct local society shall have been situated. A transfer of such property by resolution or act of the remaining member or members, representative or representatives, of such extinct local society to such trustees shall operate to pass complete title. If on demand therefor there is a failure or refusal to transfer such property to such trustees, or if such trustees think proper so to do, they may commence action in equity in the district court of the county where such extinct local society was situated, making parties defendant thereto all persons known to have any interest in or claim upon such property; notice shall be given as in other equitable actions, and said court shall have jurisdiction to enter a decree whereby the title to all the property of such extinct society shall be transferred to such trustees, or for the sale thereof and transfer of the proceeds of such sale to such trustees. Such decree or sale thereunder shall pass good title to such property. Provisions shall be made for the protection of all having claims against such local society or its property.

[S13, §1652-c; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8597; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504.23]

504.24 Property in trust — use of principal.

The property of any such extinct religious society shall be held and disposed of by such trustees in trust for the work of the denomination in the territorial limits represented by such trustees, and especially in trust for such work at the place where such extinct society was situated or its immediate vicinity within the judgment of the religious body by which such trustees were elected. Only income therefrom shall be used for the general work of such denomination in such territorial limits, but the principal shall be kept as a permanent fund for not less than five years, except that it may be used in the locality where such extinct local society was situated or its immediate vicinity if thought best by such body. No local society of such denomination at such place shall be allowed to demand the use of such principal for its benefit until it has been recognized and approved by and has complied with the reasonable requirements of the body so electing such trustees. If the principal or income in the hands of such trustees is not used in the locality where the extinct local society was situated within the term of five years from the time of the sale or disposition of its property, then the said principal and income, if any, may be used for building or improving other property of the denomination within the territorial limits in which such extinct society was located.

[S13, §1652-d; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8598; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504.24]

504.25 Contract and rights not affected.

Existing contract and property rights arising under the organization, rules, laws, or canons heretofore adopted by any corporation or organization of a religious character, shall not be affected by the provisions of sections 504.7, 504.11 and 504.21 to 504.24 except by consent of the interested parties.

[S13, §1652-e; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8599; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504.25]

504.26 Corporation organized for promotion.

Any corporation may be organized hereunder for the purpose of promoting the development, establishment and expansion of industries in an area which adjoins or borders (except for any intervening natural watercourse) an area located in an adjoining state intended to be included in such promotion and may join with any corporation not for pecuniary profit created by an adjoining state and having an identical purpose.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504.26]

504.27 Joining with foreign corporation.

Whenever, pursuant to section 504.26, any corporation organized under this chapter for the purpose of promoting the development, establishment and expansion of industries joins with a foreign corporation having an identical purpose, such corporations shall be permitted to do business in Iowa as one corporation; provided: (1) that the name, bylaw provisions, officers and directors of each corporation are identical, (2) that the foreign corporation complies with the provisions of sections 504.28 to 504.31, relating to foreign nonpecuniary corporations, and (3) that the Iowa corporation file a statement with the secretary of state indicating that it has joined with a foreign corporation setting forth the name thereof and the state of its incorporation.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504.27]

FOREIGN NONPECUNIARY CORPORATIONS

504.28 Permits.

Any corporation organized under the laws of another state, or of any territory of the United States, for any of the purposes mentioned in section 504.1, desiring a permit to do business in the state, shall file with the secretary of state a certified copy of its articles of incorporation duly attested by the secretary of state, or other state officer in whose office the original articles were filed, accompanied by a resolution of its board of directors or stockholders authorizing the filing thereof, and also authorizing service of process to be made upon any of its officers or agents in this state engaged in transacting its business, and requesting the issuance to such corporation of a permit to transact business in the state.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8600; C46, 50, 54, 58, §504.26; C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504.28]

504.29 Record and permit.

If it appears that said foreign corporation is, in fact, organized not for pecuniary profit, the secretary of state shall file said articles of incorporation and issue a permit to such corporation to do business in the state, for which permit the secretary of state shall charge, and receive, a fee of five dollars. Upon the issuance of such permit the corporation shall be entitled to carry on its business in the state. The secretary of state shall number consecutively all such certified copies filed in the secretary of state's office and shall maintain a card index thereof alphabetically arranged and shall preserve the same as permanent records of the secretary of state's office.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8601; C46, 50, 54, 58, §504.27; C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504.29]
§504.30 Annual reports.
Any corporation, organized as provided in sections 504:28 and 504:29 shall, between the first day of July and the first day of August of each year, make an annual report to the secretary of state, said report to be in such form as the secretary may prescribe and upon a blank to be prepared by the secretary for that purpose.

504.31 Forfeiture.
Should any corporation referred to in sections 504:28 and 504:29 fail to comply with the provisions of this chapter, notice of such failure shall be called to its attention by the secretary of state by registered letter and, if such delinquent corporation fails or neglects to comply with this chapter within sixty days from the receipt of such letter from the secretary of state, then and in such case said corporation shall forfeit its right to do business in this state.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8603; C46, 50, 54, 58, §504:29, C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504:31]

IOWA CENTENNIAL MEMORIAL FOUNDATION

504.32 Centennial fund.
The Iowa centennial memorial foundation established on the fifth day of January, 1949, shall have perpetual existence, and the certificate of incorporation heretofore issued to the Iowa centennial memorial foundation by the secretary of state shall be deemed a valid certificate of perpetual existence, and no corporation fees shall hereafter be required to renew or continue its existence.

It shall be the duty of the governor to serve as president of the Iowa centennial memorial foundation, and it shall be the duty of the treasurer to serve as treasurer of the Iowa centennial memorial foundation, and it shall be the duty of the attorney general to serve as legal counsel for the Iowa centennial memorial foundation, and it shall be the duty of the president of the state board of regents to serve as secretary of the Iowa centennial memorial foundation.

The duties of the state officials heretofore provided with respect to the Iowa centennial memorial foundation shall be a part of their official duties pertaining to their respective offices.

§504A.1 Short title.
This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the “Iowa Nonprofit Corporation Act.”
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.1]

§504A.2 Definitions.
As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the term:
1. “Person” means an individual, a corporation (domestic or foreign, whether nonprofit or for profit), a partnership, an association, a trust or a fiduciary.
2. “Corporation” or “domestic corporation” means a nonprofit corporation subject to the provisions of this chapter, except a foreign corporation.
3. “Foreign corporation” means a nonprofit corporation organized under laws other than the laws of this state.
4. “Nonprofit corporation” means a corporation no part of the income or profit of which is distributable to its members, directors or officers except as provided in this chapter.
5. “Articles of incorporation” means the original or restated articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto, and includes articles of merger.
6. “Bylaws” means the code or codes of rules adopted for the regulation or management of the affairs of the corporation irrespective of the name or names by which such rules are designated.
7. “Member” means a person as herein defined having membership rights in a corporation in accordance with the provisions of its articles of incorporation or bylaws.
8. “Board of directors” means the person or group of persons vested with the management of the affairs of the corporation irrespective of the name by which such person or group is designated.
9. “Insolvent” means inability of a corporation to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of its affairs.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.2]

§504A.3 Purposes.
Subject to the provisions of section 504A.100, subsection 1, corporations may be organized under this chapter for any lawful purpose or purposes not for pecuniary profit.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.3]

§504A.4 General powers.
Each corporation, unless otherwise stated in its articles of incorporation, shall have power:
1. To have perpetual succession by its corporate name unless a limited period of duration is stated in its articles of incorporation.
2. To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name.
3. To have a corporate seal which may be altered at pleasure, and to use the same by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed or affixed or in any other manner reproduced.

4. To purchase, take, receive, lease, take by gift, devise or bequest, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use and otherwise deal in and with real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated.

5. To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.

6. To lend money to its employees other than its officers and directors, and otherwise assist its employees, officers and directors.

7. To purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares or other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or not for profit, associations, partnerships or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States, or of any other government, state, territory, governmental district or municipality or of any instrumentality thereof.

8. To make contracts and guarantees and incur liabilities, borrow money at such lawful rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property, franchises and income, and to guarantee the obligations of other persons.

9. To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

10. To conduct its affairs, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted by this chapter in any state, territory, district, or possession of the United States, or in any foreign country.

11. To elect or appoint officers and agents of the corporation who may be directors or members, and define their duties and fix their compensation, and to pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, and other incentive, insurance and welfare plans for any or all of its directors, officers and employees.

12. To make and alter bylaws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the corporation.

13. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, to make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, religious, eleemosynary, benevolent, scientific or educational purposes; and in time of war to make donations in aid of war activities.

14. To indemnify any director or officer or former director or officer of the corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, whether nonprofit or for profit, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by that person in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding, civil or criminal, in which the person is made a party by reason of being or having been such director or officer, except in relation to matters as to which the person shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty; and to make any other indemnification that shall be authorized by the articles of incorporation or bylaws, or resolution adopted after notice by the members entitled to vote.

15. To cease its corporate activities and surrender its corporate franchise.

16. To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.4]

504A.5 Defense of ultra vires.

No act of a corporation and no conveyance or transfer of real or personal property to or by a corporation shall be invalid by reason of the fact that the corporation was without capacity or power to do such act or to make or receive such conveyance or transfer, but such lack of capacity or power may be asserted:

1. In a proceeding by a member or a director against the corporation to enjoin the doing or continuance of unauthorized acts, or the transfer of real or personal property by or to the corporation. If the unauthorized acts or transfers sought to be enjoined are being or are to be, performed pursuant to any contract to which the corporation is a party, the court may, if all of the parties to the contract are parties to the proceeding and if it deems the same to be equitable, set aside and enjoin the performance of such contract, and in so doing may allow to the corporation or the other parties to the contract, the case may be, compensation for the loss or damage sustained by either of them which may result from the action of the court in setting aside and enjoining the performance of such contract, but anticipated profits to be derived from the performance of the contract shall not be awarded by the court as a loss or damage sustained.

2. In a proceeding by the corporation, whether acting directly or through a receiver, trustee, or other legal representative or through members in a representative suit, against the incumbent or former officers or directors of the corporation for exceeding their authority.

3. In a proceeding by the attorney general, as provided in this chapter, to dissolve the corporation, or in a proceeding by the attorney general to enjoin the corporation from performing unauthorized acts, or in any other proceeding by the attorney general.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.5]

504A.6 Corporate name.

The corporate name:

1. Shall not contain any word or phrase which indicates or implies that it is organized for any purpose other than one or more of the purposes contained in its articles of incorporation.

2. Shall not be the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, or any limited partnership existing under the laws of this state, or any foreign corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, or any limited partnership authorized to transact business or conduct affairs in this state, or a corporate name or limited partnership name reserved or registered as permitted by the laws of this state.
3. Shall be transliterated into letters of the English alphabet, if it is not in English.
4. A corporation may elect to adopt an assumed name if the name is not the same as or deceptively similar to the name of another domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state or of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, or the same as or deceptively similar to a name registered or reserved as permitted by the laws of this state.

The election shall be made by filing with the secretary of state an application executed by an officer of the corporation, setting forth the assumed name and paying to the secretary of state a filing fee of ten dollars.

If the assumed name complies with the provisions of this chapter the secretary of state shall issue a certificate authorizing the use of the name. However, the certificate shall not confer a right to the use of the name as against a person having a prior right to the use of the name.

At the time annual license fees are payable under this chapter, a corporation which has elected to adopt an assumed name shall pay to the secretary of state an annual fee of five dollars for the assumed name. However, if the assumed name was filed and became effective in December of any year, the first annual fee of five dollars shall be paid at the time of filing of the annual report in the second year following the December in which the assumed name was filed.

If the corporation fails to pay the annual fee when due and payable, the secretary of state shall give notice to the corporation of the nonpayment by registered or certified mail; and if the fee together with a penalty of five dollars is not paid within sixty days after the notice is mailed, the right to use the assumed name shall cease.

A separate application and annual fee shall be filed and paid for each assumed name adopted by the corporation.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.6]
83 Acts, ch 144, §6, 7

504A.7 Reserved name.
The exclusive right to the use of a corporate name may be reserved by filing in the office of the secretary of state an application to reserve a specified corporate name, executed by the applicant. If the secretary of state finds that such name is available for corporate use, the secretary shall reserve the same for the exclusive use of such applicant for a period of one hundred twenty days.

The right to the exclusive use of a specified corporate name so reserved may be assigned by filing in the office of the secretary of state a notice of such assignment, executed by the person for whom such name was reserved and specifying the name and address of the transferee.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.7]

504A.8 Registered office and registered agent.
Each corporation shall have and continuously maintain in this state:
1. A registered office which may be, but need not be, the same as its principal office.
2. A registered agent or agents who may be either an individual or individuals resident in this state, the business office of whom shall be identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, or a foreign corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, authorized to transact business or conduct affairs in this state, having an office identical with such registered office.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.8]

504A.9 Change of registered office or registered agent.
A corporation may change its registered office or change its registered agent or agents, or both office and agent or agents upon filing in the office of the secretary of state a statement setting forth:
1. The name of the corporation.
2. The address of its then registered office.
3. If the address of its registered office be changed, the address to which the registered office is to be changed.
4. The name of its then registered agent or agents.
5. If its registered agent or agents be changed, the name of its successor registered agent or agents.
6. That the address of its registered office and the address of the business office of its registered agent or agents, as changed, will be identical.
7. That such change was authorized by resolution duly adopted by its board of directors.

Such statement shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president. If the registered office is changed from one county to another, such statement shall be executed in duplicate. Such statement shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the office of state's office, and the statement shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder; and if the registered office is changed from one county to another, the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which the registered office was located prior to the filing of such statement in the office of the secretary of state, and in the office of the recorder of the county to which the registered office is changed.

If the registered office is changed from one county to another, the corporation shall also cause to be filed and recorded forthwith in the office of the recorder of the county to which such registered office is changed, its original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto, or copies thereof certified by the secretary of state, or its restated articles and all amendments thereto, or copies thereof certified by the secretary of state.

If a registered agent or agents change the agent's or agents' business address to another place within the same county, the agent or agents may change the address of the registered office of any corporations of which that person is registered agent by filing a statement as required above for each corporation, or a single statement for all corporations named therein, except that it need be signed only by the registered agent or agents and need not be responsive to subsections 5 and 7 above, and must recite that notification of such change has been mailed to each such corporation.

The change of address of registered office or the change of registered agent or agents or both registered office and agent or agents, as the case may be, shall become effective upon the filing of such statement by the secretary of state, but until such statement is recorded in the office of the recorder as above prescribed, service of process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served upon the person who was its registered agent at its registered office prior to the filing of such statement with the same force and effect as if no change in registered office or registered agent had been made.

Any registered agent of a corporation may resign as such agent upon filing a written notice thereof, executed in duplicate, with the secretary of state, who shall record one copy and forthwith mail the other copy thereof to the corporation in care of an officer, who is not the resigning registered agent, at the address of such officer as shown by the most recent annual report of the corporation. The copy recorded by the secretary of state shall be sent by the secretary to the county recorder of the county in which the registered office is located for recording in the county recorder's office. The appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expiration of thirty days after receipt of such notice by the secretary of state.

504A.10 Service of process on corporation.

The registered agent so appointed by a corporation shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served.

Whenever a corporation shall fail to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this state, or whenever its registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the registered office, then the secretary of state shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any such process, notice, or demand may be served. Service on the secretary of state of any such process, notice, or demand shall be made by delivering to and leaving with the secretary, the secretary's deputy, or with any person having charge of the corporation department of the secretary of state's office, duplicate copies of such process, notice or demand. In the event any such process, notice or demand is served on the secretary of state, the secretary shall immediately cause one of the copies thereof to be forwarded by registered or certified mail, addressed to the corporation at its registered office. No corporation served by such process, notice or demand shall be in default until thirty days have elapsed following such service on the secretary of state.

The secretary of state shall keep a record of all processes, notices and demands served upon the secretary under this section, and shall record therein the time of such service and the secretary's action with reference thereto.

Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a corporation in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

504A.11 Members.

A corporation may have one or more classes of members or may have no members. If the corporation has one or more classes of members, the designation of such class or classes, the manner of election or appointment and the qualifications and rights of the members of each class shall be set forth in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. If the corporation has no members, that fact shall be set forth in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. A corporation may issue certificates evidencing membership therein.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.11]

504A.12 Bylaws.

The initial bylaws of a corporation shall be adopted by its board of directors. The power to alter, amend or repeal the bylaws or adopt new bylaws shall be vested in the board of directors unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation. The bylaws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of a corporation not inconsistent with law or the articles of incorporation.

The board of directors of any corporation may adopt emergency bylaws, subject to repeal or change by action of the members, which shall, notwithstanding any different provision elsewhere in this chapter or in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, be operative during any emergency, in the conduct of the affairs of the corporation resulting from an attack on the United States or any nuclear or atomic disaster. The emergency bylaws may make any provision that may be practical and necessary for the circumstances of the emergency including provisions that:

1. A meeting of the board of directors may be called by any officer or director in such manner and under such conditions as shall be prescribed in the emergency bylaws;
2. The director or directors in attendance at the meeting, or any greater number fixed by the emergency bylaws, shall constitute a quorum; and
3. The officers or other persons designated on a list approved by the board of directors before the emergency, all in such order of priority and subject to such conditions and for such period of time (not longer than reasonably necessary after the termination of the emergency) as may be provided in the emergency bylaws or in the resolution approving the list, shall, to the extent required to provide a quorum at any meeting of the board of directors, be deemed directors for such meeting.

The board of directors, either before or during any such emergency, may provide, and from time to time modify, lines of succession in the event that during such an emergency any or all officers or agents of the corporation shall for any reason be rendered incapable of discharging their duties.

To the extent not inconsistent with any emergency bylaws so adopted, the bylaws of the corporation shall remain in effect during any such emergency and upon its termination the emergency bylaws shall cease to be operative.

Unless otherwise provided in emergency bylaws, notice of any meeting of the board of directors during any such emergency may be given only to such of the directors as it may be feasible to reach at the time and by such means as may be feasible at the time, including publication or radio.

To the extent required to constitute a quorum at any meeting of the board of directors during any such emergency, the officers of the corporation who are present shall, unless otherwise provided in emergency bylaws, be deemed, in order of rank and within the same rank in order of seniority, directors for such meeting.

No officer, director or employee acting in accordance with any emergency bylaws shall be liable except for willful misconduct. No officer, director or employee shall be liable for any action taken by that person in good faith in such an emergency in furtherance of the ordinary affairs of the corporation, even though not authorized by the bylaws then in effect.

504A.13 Meetings of members.

Meetings of members may be held at such places, either within or without this state, as may be provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, or as may be fixed from time to time in accordance with the provisions thereof. In the absence of any such provision, all meetings shall be held at the registered office of the corporation.

An annual meeting of the members shall be held at such time as may be provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work a forfeiture or dissolution of the corporation.

Special meetings of the members may be called by the president or by the board of directors. Special meetings of the members may also be called by such other officers or persons or number or proportion of members as may be provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. In the absence of a provision fixing the number or proportion of members entitled to call a meeting, a special meeting of members may be called by members having one twentieth of the votes entitled to be cast at such meeting.

504A.14 Notice of members' meetings.

Unless the articles of incorporation or the bylaws otherwise provide, written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered no less than ten nor more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the president, the secretary, or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each member entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the member at the member's address as it appears on the records of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 14]

504A.15 Voting.

The right of the members, or any class or classes of members, to vote may be limited, enlarged or denied to the extent specified in the articles of incorporation or, if the articles of incorporation so provide, by the bylaws. Unless so limited, enlarged or denied, each member, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of members.

A member entitled to vote may vote in person or, unless the articles of incorporation or the bylaws otherwise provide, may vote by proxy executed in writing by the member or by the member's duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Where directors or officers are to be elected by members the bylaws may provide that such elections may be conducted by mail.

The articles of incorporation may provide that in all elections for directors every member entitled to vote shall have the right to cast a quorum at a meeting of members. In the absence of any such provision, members holding one tenth of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter to be voted upon shall constitute a quorum. A majority of the votes entitled to be cast on a matter to be voted upon by the members present or represented by proxy at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be necessary for the adoption thereof.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, the articles of incorporation or the bylaws may prescribe other qualifications for directors.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 15]

504A.16 Quorum.

The bylaws may provide the number or percentage of members entitled to vote represented in person or by proxy, or the number or percentage of votes represented in person or by proxy, which shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of members. In the absence of any such provision, members holding one tenth of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter to be voted upon shall constitute a quorum.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 16]

504A.17 Board of directors.

The number of directors shall be fixed by the bylaws, except as to the number constituting the initial board of directors, which number shall be fixed by the articles of incorporation. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to the bylaws, unless the articles of incorporation provide that a change in the number of directors shall be made only by amendment of the articles of incorporation. No decrease in number shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director.

504A.18 Number and election of directors.

The number of directors shall be fixed by the bylaws, except as to the number constituting the initial board of directors, which number shall be fixed by the articles of incorporation. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to the bylaws, unless the articles of incorporation provide that a change in the number of directors shall be made only by amendment of the articles of incorporation. No decrease in number shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director.

The directors constituting the initial board of directors shall be named in the articles of incorporation and shall hold office until the first annual election of directors or for such other period as may be specified in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. Thereafter directors shall be elected or appointed in a manner and for the terms provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. In the absence of a provision fixing the term of office, the term of office of a director shall be one year.
Directors may be divided into classes and the terms of office of the several classes need not be uniform. Each director shall hold office for the term for which the director is elected or appointed and until the director's successor shall have been elected or appointed and qualified.

A director may be removed from office pursuant to any procedure therefor provided in the articles of incorporation. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 18]

§504A.19 Vacancies.

Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors and any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, though less than a quorum of the board of directors unless the articles of incorporation or the bylaws provide that a vacancy or directorship so created shall be filled in some other manner, in which case such provision shall control.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, a director so elected or appointed shall be elected or appointed for the unexpired term of the director's predecessor in office or the full term of such new directorship. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 19]

§504A.20 Quorum of directors.

A majority of the number of directors fixed by the bylaws, or in the absence of a bylaw fixing the number of directors, then of the number stated in the articles of incorporation, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, but in no event shall a quorum consist of less than one third of the number of directors so fixed or stated. The act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by this chapter, the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 20]

§504A.21 Committees.

If the articles of incorporation or the bylaws so provide, the board of directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the full board of directors, may designate from among its members an executive committee and one or more other committees each of which, to the extent provided in such resolution or in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws of the corporation, shall have and may exercise all the authority of the board of directors, but no such committee shall have the authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting a plan of merger or consolidation, recommending to the members the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all or substantially all the property and assets of the corporation, recommending to the members a voluntary dissolution of the corporation or a revocation thereof, or amending the bylaws of the corporation. The designation of any such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the board of directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed by law. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 21]

§504A.22 Place and notice of directors' meetings.

Meetings of the board of directors, regular or special, may be held either within or without this state, and upon such notice as the bylaws may prescribe. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting unless required by the bylaws.

Unless otherwise restricted by the articles of incorporation or bylaws, members of the board of directors of any corporation, or any committee designated by the board of directors, may participate in a meeting of the board or committee by conference telephone or similar communications equipment. All persons participating in the meeting shall be able to hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this provision shall constitute presence in person at the meeting. Records of the meeting shall be kept as required in section 504A 25. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 22]

§504A.23 Officers.

The officers of a corporation shall consist of a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary, a treasurer and such other officers and assistant officers as may be deemed necessary, each of whom shall be elected or appointed at such time and in such manner and for such terms as may be prescribed in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. In the absence of any such provision, all officers shall be elected or appointed annually by the board of directors. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person.

The articles of incorporation or the bylaws may provide that any one or more officers of the corporation shall be ex officio members of the board of directors. The officers of a corporation may be designated by such additional titles as may be provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 23]

§504A.24 Removal of officers.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, any officers elected or appointed may be removed by the persons authorized to elect or appoint such officer whenever in their judgment the best interest of the corporation will be served thereby. The removal of an officer shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the officer so removed. Election or appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 24]

§504A.25 Books and records.

Each corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall keep minutes of the proceedings of its members, board of directors and committees having any of the authority of the board of directors, and shall keep at its registered or principal office in this state a record of the names and addresses of its members entitled to vote. All books and records of a corporation may be mi-spected by any member, or the member's agent or attorney, for any proper purpose at any reasonable time.

§504A.26 Shares of stock and dividends prohibited.

A corporation shall not have or issue shares of stock. No dividend shall be paid and no part of the income or profit of a corporation shall be distributed to its members, directors or officers. A corporation may pay compensation in a reasonable amount to its members, directors or officers for services rendered, may confer benefits upon its members in conformity with its purposes, and upon dissolution or final liquidation may make distributions to its members as permitted by this chapter, and no such payment, benefit or distribution shall be deemed to be a dividend or a distribution of income or profit.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 26]

§504A.27 Loans to directors and officers prohibited.

No loans shall be made by a corporation to its directors or officers. Any director or officer who assents to or participates in the making of any such loan shall be liable to the corporation for the amount of such loan until the repayment thereof.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 27]

§504A.28 Incorporators.

One or more persons as defined in this chapter having capacity to contract, may act as incorporators of a corporation by signing, acknowledging and delivering to the secretary of state articles of incorporation for such corporation.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 28]

§504A.29 Articles of incorporation.

The articles of incorporation shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation and the chapter of the Code or session laws under which incorporated
2. The period of duration if for a limited period, but in the absence of any statement in the articles all corporations organized hereunder shall have perpetual duration
3. The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized
4. Any provision, not inconsistent with law, which the incorporators elect to set forth in the articles of incorporation for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation, including any provision for distribution of assets on dissolution or final liquidation
5. The address of its initial registered office including street and number, if any, the name of the county in which the registered office is located, and the name of its initial registered agent or agents at such address
6. The number of directors constituting the initial board of directors and the names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as the initial directors
7. Any provision not inconsistent with law or the purposes for which the corporation is organized, which the incorporators elect to set forth, or any provision limiting any of the corporate powers enumerated in this chapter
8. The date on which the corporate existence shall begin, which may be any date identified by year, month and day not more than ninety days in the future. In the absence of any statement in the articles as to date of beginning of corporate existence, such existence shall commence on the date on which the secretary of state issues the certificate of incorporation
9. The name and address of each incorporator

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 29]

§504A.30 Filing and recording of articles of incorporation.

The articles of incorporation shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder. The secretary of state upon the filing of such articles shall issue a certificate of incorporation and send the same to the corporation or its representative.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 30]

§504A.31 Effect of issuance of certificate of incorporation.

Upon the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, the corporate existence shall begin unless the certificate in conformity with a provision in the articles provides that it shall begin on a stated day in the future in which event the corporate existence shall without further action by either the incorporators or the secretary of state begin on the day so stated. Such certificate of incorporation shall be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent required to be performed by the incorporators have been complied with and that the corporation has been incorporated under this chapter except as against this state in a proceeding to cancel or revoke the certificate of incorporation or for involuntary dissolution of the corporation.

§504A.32 Procedure for filing and recording of documents.

If in this chapter, it is required that any document be

1. Filed in the office of the secretary of state, the secretary of state, when the secretary finds that such document conforms to law and when all fees and taxes due the secretary have been paid as in this chapter prescribed, shall endorse on such document, the word "Filed" and the month, day and year of the filing thereof and file the same in the secretary of state's office.
2. Recorded in the office of the secretary of state, the secretary of state, upon filing thereof, shall record the same.
3. Filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder, the secretary of state upon recording such document in the secretary of state's office shall forward the same to the county recorder of the county.
§504A.32 1424

wherein the registered office of the corporation is located, and shall forward a duplicate executed copy certified by the secretary as a true copy of the filed original to such other county recorder, if any, as is required by this chapter. Upon receipt thereof and upon receipt of recording fees due the county recorder, such county recorder shall record and index such instrument and endorse thereon the date of filing in such county and the book and page in which recorded. The recorder of each county shall keep in the county recorder's office an alphabetically subdivided index book for articles of incorporation and other instruments the recording of which in the county recorder's office is provided for by this chapter, which book shall have as a minimum, columns headed with "Name of Corporation", "Place of Registered Office", "Day, Month and Year of Filing" and the reference to the book and page or other record where recorded and shall make appropriate entries in said index for each such instrument recorded by the recorder.

Any instrument required to be filed and recorded in the office of the secretary of state only, shall be returned by the secretary to the corporation or its representative. Any instrument required to be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder shall be returned by the recorder to the corporation or its representative.

504A.33 Organization meetings.

After the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, an organization meeting of the board of directors named in the articles of incorporation may be held, either within or without this state, at the call of a majority of the incorporators, for the purpose of adopting bylaws, electing officers, if necessary, and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. The incorporators calling the meeting shall give at least three days' notice thereof by mail to each director so named, which notice shall state the time and place of the meeting.

A first meeting of the members may be held at the call of the directors, or a majority of them, upon at least three days' notice, for such purposes as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting.

504A.34 Right to amend articles of incorporation.

A corporation may amend its articles of incorporation, from time to time, in any and as many respects as may be desired, so long as its articles of incorporation as amended contain only such provisions as are lawful under this chapter.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 34]

504A.35 Procedure to amend articles of incorporation.

Amendments to the articles of incorporation shall be made in the following manner:

1. Where there are members entitled to vote thereon, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members entitled to vote thereon which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, upon the written request of at least five percent of the members entitled to vote on amendments to articles of incorporation, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the amendment proposed by such members and directing that it be submitted to the next meeting of the members entitled to vote thereon held not less than ninety days after the date of the filing of the request of the members with the secretary of the corporation. Written notice setting forth the proposed amendment or a summary of the changes to be effected thereby shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of members.

The proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving at least two thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting or represented by proxy are entitled to cast.

2. Where there are no members, or no members entitled to vote thereon, an amendment shall be adopted at a meeting of the board of directors upon receiving the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

Any number of amendments may be submitted and voted upon at any one meeting.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 35]

504A.36 Articles of amendment.

The articles of amendment shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of the officers signing such articles, and shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation and the effective date of its incorporation, and its original name if different from the present name.

2. The amendment so adopted.

3. Where there are members entitled to vote thereon, (a) a statement setting forth the date of the meeting of members at which the amendment was adopted, that a quorum was present at such meeting, and that such amendment received at least two thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting or represented by proxy were entitled to cast, or (b) a statement that such amendment was adopted by a consent in writing signed by all members entitled to vote with respect thereto.

4. Where there are no members, or no members entitled to vote thereon, a statement of such fact, the date of the meeting of the board of directors at which the amendment was adopted, and a statement of the fact that such amendment received the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

504A.37 Filing of articles of amendment.

The articles of amendment shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder. The secretary of state upon the filing of the articles of amendment shall issue a certificate of amendment and send the same to the corporation or its representative.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 37]

504A.38 Effect of certificate of amendment.

Upon the issuance of the certificate of amendment by the secretary of state, the amendment shall become effective and the articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be amended accordingly.

No amendment shall affect any existing cause of action in favor of or against such corporation, or any pending action to which such corporation shall be a party, or the existing rights of persons other than members; and, in the event the corporate name shall be changed by amendment, no suit brought by or against such corporation under its former name shall abate for that reason.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.38]

504A.39 Restated articles of incorporation.

A domestic corporation may at any time restate its articles of incorporation, which may be amended by such restatement, so long as its articles of incorporation as so restated contain only such provisions as might be lawfully contained in original articles of incorporation at the time of making such restatement, by the adoption of restated articles of incorporation, including any amendments to its articles of incorporation to be made thereby, in the following manner:

1. Where there are members having voting rights, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed restated articles of incorporation, which may include an amendment or amendments to the corporation’s articles of incorporation to be made thereby and directing that such restated articles, including such amendment or amendments be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members having voting rights, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

2. Written or printed notice setting forth the proposed restated articles or a summary of the provisions thereof shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of members. If the restated articles include an amendment or amendments to the articles of incorporation to be made thereby, the notice shall separately set forth such amendment or amendments or a summary of the changes to be effected thereby.

3. The proposed restated articles shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting or represented by proxy are entitled to cast, unless such restated articles include an amendment to the articles of incorporation to be made thereby which, if contained in a proposed amendment to the articles of incorporation to be made without restatement of the articles of incorporation, would entitle a class of members to vote as a class thereon, in which event the proposed restated articles shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the members of each class entitled to vote thereon as a class, and of the total members entitled to vote thereon.

4. Where there are no members, or no members having voting rights, proposed restated articles of incorporation, which may include an amendment or amendments to the corporation’s articles of incorporation to be made thereby shall be adopted at a meeting of the board of directors upon receiving the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

Upon such approval, restated articles of incorporation shall be executed by the corporation by its president or vice president and by its secretary or assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing the same, and shall set forth, as then stated in the corporation’s articles of incorporation and, if the restated articles of incorporation include an amendment or amendments to the articles of incorporation to be made thereby, as so amended:

a. The name of the corporation;

b. If its duration is for a limited period, the date of expiration;

c. The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized;

d. If the members are divided into classes, the designation of each class and a statement of the preferences, voting rights, if any, limitations and relative rights in respect of the members of each class;

e. Any other provisions, not inconsistent with law or the purposes which the corporation is authorized to pursue, which are to be set forth in articles of incorporation; except that it shall not be necessary to set forth in the restated articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers enumerated in this chapter nor any statement with respect to the chapter of the Code or session laws under which the corporation was incorporated, its registered office, registered agent, directors, or incorporators, or the date on which its corporate existence began.

The restated articles of incorporation shall also set forth a statement that they correctly set forth the provisions of the articles of incorporation as theretofore or thereby amended, that they have been duly adopted as required by law and that they supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

The restated articles of incorporation shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder.

The secretary of state upon filing the restated articles of incorporation shall issue a restated certificate of incorporation and send the same to the corporation or its representative.

Upon the issuance of the restated certificate of incorporation by the secretary of state, the restated articles of incorporation, including any amendment or amendments to the articles of incorporation made thereby, shall become effective and shall supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.39]

504A.40 Procedure for merger.

Any two or more domestic corporations may merge into one of such corporations, pursuant to a plan of merger approved in the manner prescribed by this chapter.

Each corporation shall adopt a plan of merger setting forth:

1. The names of the corporations proposing to merge, and the name of the corporation into which they propose to merge, which is hereinafter designated as the surviving corporation.

2. The terms and conditions of the proposed merger.

3. A statement of any changes in the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation to be effected by such merger.

4. Such other provisions with respect to the proposed merger as are deemed necessary or desirable.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.40]
§504A.41 Procedure for consolidation.
Any two or more domestic corporations may consolidate into a new corporation pursuant to a plan of consolidation approved in the manner prescribed by this chapter.

Each such corporation shall adopt a plan of consolidation setting forth:
1. The names of the corporations proposing to consolidate, and the name of the new corporation into which they propose to consolidate, which is hereinafter designated as the new corporation.
2. The terms and conditions of the proposed consolidation.
3. With respect to the new corporation, all of the statements required to be set forth in articles of incorporation for corporations organized under this chapter.
4. Such other provisions with respect to the proposed consolidation as are deemed necessary or desirable.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.41]

§504A.42 Approval of merger or consolidation.
A plan of merger or consolidation shall be adopted by each domestic corporation in the following manner:
1. Where the members of any merging or consolidating corporation are entitled to vote thereon, the board of directors of such corporation shall adopt a resolution approving the proposed plan and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members entitled to vote thereon, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written notice setting forth the proposed plan or a summary thereof shall be given to each member entitled to vote thereon at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of members. The proposed plan shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at each such meeting or represented by proxy are entitled to cast.
2. Where any merging or consolidating corporation has no members, or no members entitled to vote thereon, a plan of merger or consolidation shall be adopted at a meeting of the board of directors of such corporation upon receiving the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

After such approval, and at any time prior to the filing of the articles of merger or consolidation, the merger or consolidation may be abandoned pursuant to provisions thereof, if any, set forth in the plan of merger or consolidation.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.42]

§504A.43 Articles of merger or consolidation.
Upon such approval, articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall be executed by each corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and acknowledged by one of the officers of each corporation signing such articles, and shall set forth:
1. The plan of merger or the plan of consolidation.
2. Where the members of any merging or consolidating corporation are entitled to vote thereon, then as to each such corporation (a) a statement setting forth the date of the meeting of members at which the plan was adopted, that a quorum was present at such meeting, and that such plan received at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting or represented by proxy were entitled to cast, or (b) a statement that such amendment was adopted by a consent in writing signed by all members entitled to vote with respect thereto.
3. Where any merging or consolidating corporation has no members, or no members entitled to vote thereon, then as to each such corporation a statement of such fact, the date of the meeting of the board of directors at which the plan was adopted and a statement of the fact that such plan received the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

The articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the recorder of each county in which the registered office of each domestic merging or consolidating corporation was located prior to the merger or consolidation and, if the new corporation into which the corporations have consolidated is a domestic corporation, in the office of the recorder of the county in which the registered office of the new corporation is located.

The secretary of state upon the filing of the articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall issue a certificate of merger or a certificate of consolidation and send the same to the surviving or new corporation as the case may be, or to its representative.

§504A.44 Effect of merger or consolidation.
Upon the issuance of the certificate of merger or the certificate of consolidation by the secretary of state, the merger or consolidation shall be effected.

When such merger or consolidation has been effected:
1. The several corporations parties to the plan of merger or consolidation shall be a single corporation, which, in the case of a merger, shall be that corporation designated in the plan of merger as the surviving corporation, and, in the case of consolidation, shall be the new corporation provided for in the plan of consolidation.
2. The separate existence of all corporations parties to the plan of merger or consolidation, except the surviving or new corporation, shall cease except as provided in subsection 5.
3. Such surviving or new corporation, if to exist under the laws of this state, shall have all the rights, privileges, immunities and powers and shall be subject to all the duties and liabilities of a corporation organized under this chapter.
4. Such surviving or new corporation shall thereupon and thereafter possess all the rights, privileges, immunities, and franchises, as well as of a public as of a private nature, of each of the merging or consolidating corporations; and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due on whatever account, and all other choses in action, and all and every other interest, of or belonging to or due to each of the corporations so merged or consolidated, shall be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in such single corporation without further act or deed; and the title to any real estate, or any interest therein, vested in any of such corporations shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of such merger or consolidation.
5 A devise, bequest, gift or grant contained in a will or other instrument, made before or after the merger or consolidation, to or for the benefit of any of the merging or consolidating corporations, shall inure to the benefit of the surviving or new corporation. So far as is necessary for that purpose, the existence of each merging or consolidating corporation shall be deemed to continue in and through the surviving or new corporation.

6 Such surviving or new corporation shall henceforth be responsible and liable for all the liabilities and obligations of each of the corporations so merged or consolidated, and any claim existing or action or proceeding pending by or against any of such corporations may be prosecuted as if such merger or consolidation had not taken place, or such surviving or new corporation may be substituted in its place. Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of any such corporation shall be impaired by such merger or consolidation.

7 In the case of a merger, the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation shall be deemed to be amended to the extent, if any, that changes in its articles of incorporation are stated in the plan of merger, and, in the case of consolidation, the statements set forth in the articles of consolidation and which are required or permitted to be set forth in the articles of incorporation of corporations organized under this chapter shall be deemed to be the original articles of incorporation of the new corporation.

§504A.45 Merger or consolidation of domestic and foreign corporations.

One or more foreign corporations and one or more domestic corporations may be merged or consolidated in the following manner, if such merger or consolidation is permitted by the laws of the state under which each such foreign corporation is organized.

1 Each domestic corporation shall comply with the provisions of this chapter with respect to the merger or consolidation, as the case may be, of domestic corporations and each foreign corporation shall comply with the applicable provisions of the laws of the state under which it is organized.

2 If the surviving or new corporation, as the case may be, is to be governed by the laws of any state other than this state, it shall comply with the provisions of this chapter with respect to qualification of foreign corporations if it is to conduct affairs in this state, and in every case it shall file with the secretary of state of this state

a An agreement that it may be served with process in this state in any proceeding for the enforcement of any obligation of any domestic corporation which is a party to such merger or consolidation, and

b An irrevocable appointment of the secretary of state of this state as its agent to accept service of process in any such proceeding.

The effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations, if the surviving or new corporation is to be governed by the laws of this state. If the surviving or new corporation is to be governed by the laws of any state other than this state, the effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations except insofar as the laws of the other state provide otherwise.

At any time prior to the filing of the articles of merger or consolidation, the merger or consolidation may be abandoned pursuant to provisions therefor, if any, set forth in the plan of merger or consolidation.

§504A.46 Sale, lease, exchange, or mortgage of assets.

A sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of a corporation may be made upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration, which may consist in whole or in part of money or property, real or personal, including shares of any corporation for profit, domestic or foreign, as may be authorized in the following manner.

1 Where there are members entitled to vote thereon, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending such sale, lease, exchange or other disposition and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members entitled to vote thereon, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

Written notice stating that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of the corporation shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting, within the time and in the manner provided by this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of members.

At such meeting the members may authorize such sale, lease, exchange or other disposition and may fix, or may authorize the board of directors to fix, any or all of the terms and conditions thereof and the consideration to be received by the corporation therefor. Such authorization shall require at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting or represented by proxy are entitled to cast.

After such authorization by a vote of members, the board of directors, nevertheless, in its discretion, may abandon such sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of assets, subject to the rights of third parties under any contracts relating thereto, without further action or approval by members.

2 Where there are no members, or no members entitled to vote thereon, a sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of a corporation shall be authorized upon receiving the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

3 Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation a mortgage or pledge of any or all property and assets of the corporation may be made upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration, which may consist in whole or in part of money or property, real or personal, including shares of any other corporation, domestic or foreign, as shall be authorized by its board of directors, and in such case no authorization or consent of the members shall be required.

[§504A.46]

§504A.47 Voluntary dissolution.

A corporation may dissolve and wind up its affairs in the following manner:

1 Where there are members entitled to vote thereon, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending that the corporation be dissolved, and directing that the question of such dissolution be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members entitled to vote thereon, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written notice stating that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the advisability of dissolving the corporation, shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting, within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of members. A resolution to dissolve the corporation shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting or represented by proxy are entitled to cast.
§504A.47 1428

2 Where there are no members, or no members entitled to vote thereon, the dissolution of the corporation shall be authorized at a meeting of the board of directors upon the adoption of a resolution to dissolve by the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

Upon the adoption of such resolution by the members, or by the board of directors where there are no members or no members entitled to vote thereon, the corporation shall cease to conduct its affairs except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up thereof, shall immediately cause a notice of the proposed dissolution to be mailed to each known creditor of the corporation, and shall proceed to collect its assets and apply and distribute them as provided in this chapter.

504A.48 Distribution of assets.

The assets of a corporation in the process of dissolution shall be applied and distributed as follows:

1 All liabilities and obligations of the corporation shall be paid and discharged, or adequate provision shall be made therefor.

2 Assets held by the corporation upon condition requiring return, transfer or conveyance, which condition occurs by reason of the dissolution, shall be returned, transferred or conveyed in accordance with such requirements.

3 Assets received and held by the corporation subject to limitations permitting their use only for charitable, religious, eleemosynary, benevolent, educational or similar purposes, but not held upon a condition requiring return, transfer or conveyance by reason of the dissolution, shall be transferred or conveyed to one or more domestic or foreign corporations, societies or organizations engaged in activities substantially similar to those of the dissolving corporation, pursuant to a plan of distribution adopted as provided in this chapter.

4 Other assets, if any, shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions of the articles of incorporation or bylaws to the extent that the articles of incorporation or bylaws determine the distributive rights of members, or any class or classes of members, or provide for distribution to others.

5 Any remaining assets may be distributed to such persons, societies, organizations or domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or nonprofit, as may be specified in a plan of distribution adopted as provided in this chapter.

504A.49 Plan of distribution.

A plan providing for the distribution of assets, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, may be adopted by a corporation in the process of dissolution and shall be adopted by a corporation for the purpose of authorizing any transfer or conveyance of assets for which this chapter requires a plan of distribution, in the following manner:

1 Where there are members entitled to vote thereon, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending a plan of distribution and directing the submission thereof to a vote at a meeting of members entitled to vote thereon, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written notice setting forth the proposed plan of distribution or a summary thereof shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting, within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of members. Such plan of distribution shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting or represented by proxy are entitled to cast.

2 Where there are no members, or no members entitled to vote thereon, a plan of distribution shall be adopted at a meeting of the board of directors upon receiving a vote of a majority of the directors in office.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 49]

504A.50 Revocation of voluntary dissolution proceedings.

A corporation may, at any time prior to the issuance of a certificate of dissolution by the secretary of state, revoke the action theretofore taken to dissolve the corporation, in the following manner:

1 Where there are members entitled to vote thereon, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending that the voluntary dissolution proceedings be revoked, and directing that the question of such revocation be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members entitled to vote thereon, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written notice stating that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the advisability of revoking the voluntary dissolution proceedings, shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting, within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of members. A resolution to revoke the voluntary dissolution proceedings shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting or represented by proxy are entitled to cast.

2 Where there are no members, or no members entitled to vote thereon, a resolution to revoke the voluntary dissolution proceedings shall be adopted at a meeting of the board of directors upon receiving the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

Upon the adoption of such resolution by the members, or by the board of directors where there are no members or no members entitled to vote thereon, the corporation may thereupon again conduct its affairs.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 50]

504A.51 Articles of dissolution.

If voluntary dissolution proceedings have not been revoked, then when all debts, liabilities and obligations of the corporation shall have been paid and discharged, or adequate provision shall have been made therefor, and all of the remaining property and assets of the corporation shall have been transferred, conveyed or distributed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, articles of dissolution shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president, and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, which statement shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. Where there are members entitled to vote thereon, (a) a statement setting forth the date of the meeting of members at which the resolution to dissolve was adopted, that a quorum was present at such meeting, and that such resolution received at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting or represented by proxy were entitled to cast, or (b) a statement that such resolution was adopted by a consent in writing signed by all members entitled to vote with respect thereto.
3. Where there are no members, or no members entitled to vote thereon, a statement of such fact, the date of the meeting of the board of directors at which the resolution to dissolve was adopted and a statement of the fact that such resolution received the vote of a majority of the directors in office.
4. That all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation have been paid and discharged or that adequate provision has been made therefor.
5. A copy of the plan of distribution, if any, as adopted by the corporation, or a statement that no plan was so adopted.
6. That all the remaining property and assets of the corporation have been transferred, conveyed or distributed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.
7. That there are no suits pending against the corporation in any court, or that adequate provision has been made for the satisfaction of any judgment, order or decree which may be entered against it in any pending suit.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.51]

504A.52 Filing of articles of dissolution.
Such articles of dissolution shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state’s office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder.

The secretary of state upon filing the articles of dissolution shall issue a certificate of dissolution, and send the same to the representative of the dissolved corporation. Upon the issuance of such certificate of dissolution the existence of the corporation shall cease, except for the purpose of suits, other proceedings and appropriate corporate action by members, directors and officers as provided in this chapter.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.52]

504A.53 Involuntary dissolution.
A corporation may be dissolved involuntarily by a decree of the district court in an action filed by the attorney general when it is established that:

1. The corporation has failed to file its annual report within the time required by this chapter; or
2. The corporation procured its articles of incorporation through fraud; or
3. The corporation has continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred upon it by law; or
4. The corporation has failed for ninety days to appoint and maintain a registered agent in this state; or
5. The corporation has failed for ninety days after change of its registered agent to file in the office of the secretary of state a statement of such change.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.53]

504A.54 Notification to attorney general.
The secretary of state, on or before the first day of July of each year, shall certify to the attorney general the names of all corporations which have failed to file their annual reports in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. The secretary of state shall also certify, from time to time, the names of all corporations which have given other cause for dissolution as provided in this chapter, together with the facts pertinent thereto. Whenever the secretary of state shall certify the name of a corporation to the attorney general as having given any cause for dissolution, the secretary of state shall concurrently mail to the corporation at its registered office a notice that such certification has been made. Upon the receipt of such certification, the attorney general shall file an action in the name of the state against such corporation for its dissolution. Every such certificate from the secretary of state to the attorney general pertaining to the failure of a corporation to file an annual report shall be taken and received in all courts as prima-facie evidence of the facts therein stated. If, before action is filed, the corporation shall file its annual report, or shall appoint or maintain a registered agent as provided in this chapter, or shall file with the secretary of state the required statement of change of registered agent, such fact shall be forthwith certified by the secretary of state to the attorney general and the attorney general shall not file an action against such corporation for such cause. If, after action is filed, the corporation shall file its annual report, or shall appoint or maintain a registered agent as provided in this chapter, or shall file with the secretary of state the required statement of change of registered agent, and shall pay the costs of such action, the action for such cause shall abate.

504A.55 Venue and process.
Every action for the involuntary dissolution of a corporation shall be commenced by the attorney general in the district court of the county in which the registered office of the corporation is situated. Original notice shall be served as in other civil actions. If process is returned not found, the attorney general shall cause publication to be made as in other civil cases in some newspaper published in the county where the registered office of the corporation is situated, containing a notice of the pendency of such action, the title of the court, the title of the action, and the date on or after which default may be entered. The attorney general may include in one notice and in one petition the names of any number of corporations against which actions are then pending in the same county. The attorney general shall cause a copy of such notice to be mailed to the corporation at its registered office within ten days after the first publication thereof The certificate of the attorney general of the mailing of such notice shall be prima facie evidence thereof. Such notice shall be published at least once each week for two successive weeks, and the first publication thereof may begin at any time after the original notice has been returned. Unless a corporation shall have been served with original notice, no default shall be taken against it earlier than thirty days after the last publication of such notice.

504A.56 Jurisdiction of court to liquidate assets and affairs of corporation.

Courts of equity shall have full power to liquidate the assets and affairs of a corporation

1 In a suit by a member or director when it is established a That the directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs and that irreparable injury to the corporation is being suffered or is threatened by reason thereof, and either that the members are unable to break the deadlock or there are no members having voting rights, or b That the acts of the directors or those in control of the corporation are illegal, oppressive or fraudulent, or c That the members entitled to vote in the election of directors are deadlocked in voting power and have failed for at least two years to elect successors to directors whose terms have expired or would have expired upon the election of their successors, or d That the corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted, or e That the corporation is unable to carry out its purposes

2 In an action by a creditor a When the claim of the creditor has been reduced to judgment and an execution thereon has been returned unsatisfied and it is established that the corporation is insolvent, or
   b When the corporation has admitted in writing that the claim of the creditor is due and owing and it is established that the corporation is insolvent

3 Upon application by a corporation to have its dissolution continued under the supervision of the court

4 When an action has been filed by the attorney general to dissolve a corporation and it is established that liquidation of its affairs should precede the entry of a decree of dissolution

Proceedings under this section shall be brought in the county in which the registered office or the principal office of the corporation is situated.

It shall not be necessary to make directors or members parties to any such suit or proceedings unless relief is sought against them personally.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 56]

504A.57 Procedure in liquidation of corporation by court.

In proceedings to liquidate the assets and affairs of a corporation the court shall have the power to issue injunctions, to appoint a receiver or receivers pending lite, with such powers and duties as the court, from time to time, may direct, and to take such other proceedings as may be requisite to preserve the corporation assets wherever situated, and carry on the affairs of the corporation until a full hearing can be had.

After a hearing had upon such notice as the court may direct to be given to all parties to the proceedings and to any other parties in interest designated by the court, the court may appoint a liquidating receiver or receivers with authority to collect the assets of the corporation. Such liquidating receiver or receivers shall have authority, subject to the order of the court, to sell, convey and dispose of all or any part of the assets of the corporation wherever situated, either at public or private sale. The order appointing such liquidating receiver or receivers shall state their powers and duties. Such powers and duties may be increased or diminished at any time during the proceedings.

The assets of the corporation or the proceeds resulting from a sale, conveyance, or other disposition thereof shall be applied and distributed as follows:

1 All costs and expenses of the court proceedings and all liabilities and obligations of the corporation shall be paid, satisfied and discharged, or adequate provision shall be made therefor.

2 Assets held by the corporation upon condition requiring return, transfer or conveyance, which condition occurs by reason of the dissolution or liquidation, shall be returned, transferred or conveyed in accordance with such requirements.

3 Assets received and held by the corporation subject to limitations permitting their use only for charitable, religious, eleemosynary, benevolent, educational or similar purposes, but not held upon a condition requiring return, transfer or conveyance by reason of the dissolution or liquidation, shall be transferred or conveyed to one or more domestic or foreign corporations, societies or organizations engaged in activities substantially similar to those of the dissolving or liquidating corporation as the court may direct.

4 Other assets, if any, shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions of the articles of incorporation or the bylaws to the extent that the articles of incorporation or bylaws determine the distributive rights of members, or any class or classes of members, or provide for distribution to others.

5 Any remaining assets may be distributed to such persons, societies, organizations or domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or not for profit, specified in the plan of distribution adopted as provided in this chapter, or where no plan of distribution has been adopted, as the court may direct.

The court shall have power to allow, from time to time, as expenses of the liquidation compensation to the receiver or receivers and to attorneys in the proceedings, and to direct the payment thereof out of the assets of the corporation or the proceeds of any sale or disposition of such assets.

A receiver of a corporation appointed under the provisions of this section shall have authority to sue and defend in all courts in that person's own name as receiver of such corporation. The court appointing such receiver shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the corporation and its property, wherever situated.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 57]

504A.58 Qualification of receivers.

A receiver shall in all cases be a citizen of the United States or a corporation for profit authorized to act as receiver, which corporation may be a domestic corporation or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, and shall in all cases give such bond as the court may direct with such sureties as the court may require.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.58]

504A.59 Filing of claims in liquidation proceedings.

In proceedings to liquidate the assets and affairs of a corporation the court may require all creditors of the corporation to file with the clerk of the court or with the receiver, in such form as the court may prescribe, proofs under oath of their respective claims. If the court requires the filing of claims it shall fix a date, which shall be not less than four months from the date of the order, as the last day for the filing of claims, and shall prescribe the notice that shall be given to creditors and claimants of the date so fixed. Prior to the date so fixed, the court may extend the time for the filing of claims. Creditors and claimants failing to file proofs of claim on or before the date so fixed may be barred, by order of court, from participating in the distribution of the assets of the corporation.

504A.60 Discontinuance of liquidation proceedings.

The liquidation of the assets and affairs of a corporation may be discontinued at any time during the liquidation proceedings when it is established that cause for liquidation no longer exists. In such event the court shall dismiss the proceedings and direct the receiver to deliver to the corporation its remaining property and assets.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.60]

504A.61 Decree of dissolution.

In proceedings to liquidate the assets and affairs of a corporation, when the costs and expenses of such proceedings and all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation shall have been paid and discharged and all of its remaining property and assets distributed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, or in case its property and assets are not sufficient to satisfy and discharge such costs, expenses, debts, and obligations, and all the property and assets have been applied so far as they will go to their payment, the court shall enter a decree dissolving the corporation, whereupon the existence of the corporation shall cease.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.61]

504A.62 Filing of decree of dissolution.

In case the court shall enter a decree dissolving a corporation, it shall be the duty of the clerk of such court to cause certified copies of the decree to be filed with and recorded by the secretary of state and the county recorder of the county in which is located the corporation’s registered office. No fee shall be charged by the secretary of state or said county recorder for the filing or recording thereof.

504A.63 Deposit with state treasurer.

1. Upon the voluntary or involuntary dissolution of a corporation the portion of the assets distributable to any person who is known, or who is under disability and there is no person legally competent to receive such distributive portion, or who cannot be found after the exercise of reasonable diligence by the person or persons responsible for the distribution in liquidation of the corporation’s assets, shall be reduced to cash and deposited with the state treasurer, together with a statement giving the name of the person, if known, entitled to such fund, that person’s last known address, the amount of such person’s distributive portion, and such other information about such person as the state treasurer may reasonably require, whereupon the person or persons responsible for the distribution in liquidation of the corporation’s assets shall be released and discharged from any further liability with respect to the funds so deposited. The state treasurer shall issue the treasurer of state’s receipt for such fund and shall deposit same in a special account to be maintained by the treasurer.

2. On receipt of satisfactory written and verified proof of ownership of or right to such fund within twenty years from the date such fund was so deposited, the state treasurer shall certify such fact to the director of revenue and finance, who shall issue proper warrant therefor drawn on the state treasurer in favor of the person or persons entitled thereto. If no claimant has made satisfactory proof of right to such fund within twenty years from the time of such deposit, the state treasurer shall then cause to be published in one issue of a newspaper of general circulation in the county of the last registered office of the corporation, as shown by the records of the secretary of state, a notice of the proposed escheat of such fund, giving the name of the person apparently entitled thereto, that person’s last known address, if any, the amount of the fund so deposited, and the name of the dissolved corporation from whose assets such fund was derived. If no claimant makes satisfactory proof of right to such fund within two months from the time of such publication, the fund so unclaimed shall thereupon automatically escheat to and become the property of the general fund of the state.

504A.64 Survival of rights and remedies after dissolution or expiration.

The dissolution of a corporation or the expiration of its period of duration, shall not take away or impair any remedy available to or against such corporation, its directors, officers, or members, for any right or claim existing, or any liability incurred, prior to such dissolution or expiration, if action or other proceeding thereon is commenced within two years after the date of such dissolution or expiration. Any such action or proceeding by or against the corporation may be prosecuted or defended by the corporation in its corporate name. The members, directors and officers shall have power to take such corporate or other action as shall be appropriate to protect such remedy, right or claim. If the period of duration of a corporation has expired, it may amend its articles of incorporation at any time within five years after the date of such expiration so as to extend its period of duration.

A corporation which has been dissolved or the period of duration of which has expired by limitation or otherwise, may nevertheless continue to act for the purpose of conveying title to its property, real and personal, and otherwise winding up its affairs.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.64]

504A.65 Admission of foreign corporation.

No foreign corporation shall have the right to conduct affairs in this state until it shall have procured a certificate of authority so to do from the secretary of state. No foreign corporation shall be entitled to procure a certificate of authority under this chapter to conduct in this state any affairs which a corporation organized under this chapter is prohibited from conducting. A foreign corporation shall not be denied a certificate of authority by reason of the fact that the laws of the state or country under which such corporation is organized governing its organization and internal affairs differ from the laws of this state, and nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed to authorize this state to regulate the organization or the internal affairs of such corporation.

Without excluding other activities which may not constitute conducting affairs in this state, a foreign corporation shall not be considered to be conducting affairs in this state, for the purposes of this chapter, by reason of carrying on in this state any one or more of the following activities:

1. Maintaining or defending any action or suit or any administrative or arbitration proceeding, or affecting the settlement thereof or the settlement of claims or disputes.
2. Holding meetings of its directors or members or carrying on other activities concerning its internal affairs.
4. Creating evidences of debt, mortgages or liens on real or personal property.
5. Securing or collecting debts due to it or enforcing any rights in property securing the same.
7. Conducting its affairs in interstate commerce.
8. Granting funds.
9. Distributing information to its members.
10. Conducting an isolated transaction completed within a period of thirty days and not in the course of a number of repeated transactions of like nature.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.65]

504A.66 Powers of foreign corporation.

A foreign corporation which shall have received a certificate of authority under this chapter, shall, until a certificate of revocation or of withdrawal shall have been issued as provided in this chapter, enjoy the same, but no greater, rights and privileges as a domestic corporation organized for the purposes set forth in the application pursuant to which such certificate of authorization is issued, and, except as in this chapter otherwise provided, shall be subject to the same duties, restrictions, penalties and liabilities now or hereafter imposed upon a domestic corporation of like character.

504A.67 Corporate name of foreign corporation.

No certificate of authority shall be issued to a foreign corporation unless the corporate name of such corporation

1. Shall not contain any word or phrase which indicates or implies that it is organized for any purpose other than one or more of the purposes contained in its articles of incorporation.
2. Shall not be the same as, or deceptively similar to the name of a corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, existing under the laws of this state or a foreign corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, authorized to transact business or conduct affairs in this state, or a corporate name reserved or registered as permitted by the laws of this state, or an assumed name which has been adopted by a domestic or a foreign corporation for use in this state in the manner permitted by the laws of this state. However, this provision shall not apply if the foreign corporation applying for a certificate of authority files with the secretary of state one of the following:
   a. A resolution of its board of directors adopting an assumed name for use in transacting business in this state and the assumed name is not deceptively similar to the name of a domestic corporation or of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state or to a name reserved or registered as permitted by the laws of this state.
   b. The written consent of another corporation or holder of a reserved or registered name to use the same or deceptively similar name and one or more words are added to make the name distinguishable from the other name.
   c. A certified copy of a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the prior right of the foreign corporation to the use of the name in this state.

The corporate name of the foreign corporation is the name under which the corporation shall transact its business in this state unless the corporation also elects to adopt one or more assumed names as provided in this chapter.

A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may elect to adopt an assumed name if the name is not the same as or deceptively similar to the name of a domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state or of another foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, or the same as or deceptively similar to a name registered or reserved as permitted by the laws of this state.

The election shall be made by filing with the secretary of state an application executed by an officer of the corporation, setting forth the assumed name and paying to the secretary of state a filing fee of ten dollars.

If the assumed name complies with the provisions of this chapter, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate authorizing the use of the name. However, the certificate shall not confer a right to the use of the name as against a person having a prior right to the use of the name.

At the time annual license fees are payable under this chapter, a foreign corporation which has elected to adopt an assumed name shall pay to the secretary of state an annual fee of five dollars for the assumed name. However, if the assumed name was filed and became effective in December of any year, the first annual fee of five dollars shall be paid at the time of filing of the annual report in the second year following the December in which the assumed name was filed.
If the corporation fails to pay the annual fee when due and payable, the secretary of state shall give notice to the corporation of the nonpayment by registered or certified mail; and if the fee together with a penalty of five dollars is not paid within sixty days after the notice is mailed, the right to use the assumed name shall cease.

A separate application and annual fee shall be filed and paid for each assumed name adopted by a foreign corporation.

3. Shall be transliterated into letters of the English alphabet, if it is not in English.

83 Acts, ch 144, §8

504A.68 Change of name by foreign corporation.

Whenever a foreign corporation which is authorized to conduct affairs in this state shall change its name to one under which a certificate of authority would not be granted to it on application therefor, the certificate of authority of such corporation shall be suspended and it shall not thereafter conduct any affairs in this state until it has changed its name to a name which is available to it under the laws of this state.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.68]

504A.69 Application for certificate of authority.

A foreign corporation, in order to procure a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state, shall make application therefor to the secretary of state, which application shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation and the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.
2. The date of incorporation and the period of duration of the corporation.
3. The address of the principal office of the corporation in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.
4. The address of the proposed registered office of the corporation in this state, and the name of its proposed registered agent or agents in this state at such address.
5. The purpose or purposes of the corporation which it proposes to pursue in conducting its affairs in this state.
6. The names and respective addresses of the directors and officers of the corporation.
7. Such additional information as may be necessary or appropriate in order to enable the secretary of state to determine whether such corporation is entitled to a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state.

Such application shall be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state and shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such application.

504A.70 Filing of application for certificate of authority.

Duplicate originals of the application for the corporation for a certificate of authority, together with a certificate of good standing or existence, duly certified by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated, shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing in the secretary of state's office.

Upon the filing of the application the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state to which the secretary shall affix the other duplicate original application, and send the same to the corporation or its representative.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.70]
86 Acts, ch 1173, §10

504A.71 Effect of certificate of authority.

Upon the issuance of a certificate of authority by the secretary of state, the corporation shall be authorized to conduct affairs in this state for those purposes set forth in its application, subject, however, to the right of this state to suspend or to revoke such authority as provided in this chapter.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.71]

504A.72 Registered office and registered agent of foreign corporation.

Each foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state shall have and continuously maintain in this state:

1. A registered office which may be, but need not be, the same as its principal office.
2. A registered agent or agents which may be either an individual resident in this state whose business office is identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, or a foreign corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, authorized to transact business or conduct affairs in this state, having an office identical with such registered office.

504A.73 Change of registered office or registered agent of foreign corporation.

A foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state may change its registered office or change its registered agent or agents, or both office and agent or agents, upon filing in the office of the secretary of state a statement setting forth:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. The address of its then registered office.
3. If the address of its registered office be changed, the address to which the registered office is to be changed.
4. The name of its then registered agent or agents.
5. If its registered agent or agents be changed, the name of its successor registered agent or agents.
6. That the address of its registered office and the address of the business office of its registered agent or agents, as changed, will be identical.
7. That such change was authorized by resolution duly adopted by its board of directors.

Such statement shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president, and verified by that person, and delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that such statement conforms to the provisions of this chapter, the secretary shall file such statement in the secretary of state's office, and upon such filing the change of address of the registered office, or the appointment of a new registered agent or agents, or both, as the case may be, shall become effective.
If a registered agent or agents change the agent's or agents' business address to another place within the same county, the agent or agents may change such address and the address of the registered office of any corporations of which that person is registered agent by filing a statement as required above for each corporation, or a single statement for all corporations named therein, except that it need be signed only by the registered agent or agents and need not be responsive to subsections 5 and 7 above, and must recite that notification of such change has been mailed to each such corporation. Such statement executed and filed by a registered agent shall become effective upon the filing thereof in the manner as required above for statements executed by the foreign corporation.

Any registered agent of a foreign corporation may resign as such agent upon filing a written notice thereof, executed in duplicate, with the secretary of state, who shall forthwith mail a copy thereof to the corporation at its principal office in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated. The appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expiration of thirty days after receipt of such notice by the secretary of state.

504A.74 Service of process on foreign corporation.

Each registered agent so appointed by a foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served.

Whenever a foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state fails to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this state, or whenever any such registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the registered office, or whenever the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation shall be suspended or revoked, then the secretary of state shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any such process, notice or demand may be served. Service on the secretary of state of any such process, notice or demand shall be made by delivering to and leaving with the secretary, the secretary's deputy, or with any person having charge of the corporation department of the secretary of state's office, duplicate copies of such process, notice or demand. In the event any such process, notice or demand is served on the secretary of state, the secretary shall immediately cause one of such copies thereof to be forwarded by registered or certified mail, addressed to the corporation at its principal office in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated. Process, notice or demand served on the secretary of state upon a foreign corporation which has withdrawn from this state shall be mailed in the manner provided by this section to the corporation at the address set forth in its application for withdrawal. Any service so had on the secretary of state shall be returnable in not less than thirty days.

The secretary of state shall keep a record of all processes, notices and demands served upon the secretary under this section, and shall record therein the time of such service and the secretary's action with reference thereto.

Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice or demand, required or permitted by law to be served upon a corporation in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

504A.75 Amendment to articles of incorporation of foreign corporations. Repealed by 86 Acts, ch 1173, §20

504A.76 Merger of foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state. Repealed by 86 Acts, ch 1173, §20

504A.77 Amended certificate of authority.

A foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state shall procure a certificate of authority in the event it changes its corporate name, or desires to pursue in this state other or additional purposes than those set forth in its prior application for a certificate of authority, by making application therefor to the secretary of state.

The requirements in respect to the form and contents of such application, the manner of its execution, the filing of duplicate originals thereof with the secretary of state, the issuance of an amended certificate of authority and the effect thereof, shall be the same as in the case of an original application for a certificate of authority.

504A.78 Withdrawal of foreign corporation.

A foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state may withdraw from this state upon procuring from the secretary of state a certificate of withdrawal. In order to procure such certificate of withdrawal, such foreign corporation shall deliver to the secretary of state an application for withdrawal, which shall set forth:

1. The name of the corporation and the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.
2. That the corporation is not conducting affairs in this state.
3. That the corporation surrenders its authority to conduct affairs in this state.
4. That the corporation revokes its authority in the event it changes its corporate name, or desires to pursue in this state other or additional purposes than those set forth in its prior application.
5. A post office address to which the secretary of state may mail a copy of any process against the corporation that may be served on the secretary.
6. Such additional information as may be necessary or appropriate in order to enable the secretary of state to determine and assess any unpaid fees payable by such foreign corporation as in this chapter prescribed.

The application for withdrawal shall be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state and shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing the application, if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver or trustee, shall be executed on behalf of the corporation by such receiver or trustee and verified by that person.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.78]

504A.79 Filing of application for withdrawal.
Duplicative originals of such application for withdrawal shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that such application conforms to the provisions of this chapter, the secretary shall, when all fees due the secretary have been paid as in this chapter prescribed:
1. Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed", and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.
2. File one of such duplicate originals in the secretary of state's office.
3. Issue a certificate of withdrawal to which the secretary of state shall affix the other duplicate original.

The certificate of withdrawal, together with the duplicate original of the application for withdrawal affixed thereto by the secretary of state, shall be returned to the corporation or its representative. Upon the issuance of such certificate of withdrawal, the authority of the corporation to conduct affairs in this state shall cease.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.79]

504A.80 Revocation of certificate of authority.
The certificate of authority of a foreign corporation to conduct affairs in this state may be revoked by the secretary of state upon the conditions prescribed in this section when:
1. The corporation has failed to file its annual report within the time required by this chapter, or has failed to pay any fees or penalties prescribed by this chapter when the same have become due and payable;
2. The corporation has failed to appoint and maintain a registered agent in this state as required by this chapter;
3. The corporation has failed, after change of its registered office or registered agent, to file in the office of the secretary of state a statement of such change as required by this chapter;
4. A misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, report, affidavit, or other document submitted by such corporation pursuant to this chapter.

A certificate of authority of a foreign corporation shall not be revoked by the secretary of state unless the secretary has given the corporation not less than sixty days' notice by mail addressed to the principal office of the corporation in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated, and the corporation fails prior to revocation to file the annual report, or pay the fees or penalties, or file the required statement of change of registered agent or registered office, or correct the misrepresentation.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.80]
86 Acts, ch 1173, §11, 12

504A.81 Issuance of certificate of revocation.
Upon revoking any such certificate of authority, the secretary of state shall:
1. Issue a certificate of revocation in duplicate.
2. File one of such certificates in the secretary of state's office.
3. Mail to such corporation at the principal office of the corporation in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated a notice of such revocation accompanied by one of such certificates.

Upon the issuance of such certificate of revocation, the authority of the corporation to conduct affairs in this state shall cease.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.81]

504A.82 Conducting affairs without certificate of authority.
No foreign corporation which is conducting affairs in this state without a certificate of authority shall be permitted to maintain any action, suit or proceeding in any court of this state until such corporation shall have obtained a certificate of authority. Nor shall any action, suit or proceeding be maintained in any court of this state by any successor or assignee of such corporation on any right, claim or demand arising out of the conduct of affairs by such corporation in this state, until a certificate of authority shall have been obtained by such corporation or by a corporation which has acquired all or substantially all of its assets.

The failure of a foreign corporation to obtain a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state shall not impair the validity of any contract or act of such corporation, and shall not prevent such corporation from defending any action, suit or proceeding in any court of this state.

A foreign corporation which conducts affairs in this state without a certificate of authority shall be liable to this state, for the years or parts thereof during which it conducted affairs in this state without a certificate of authority, in an amount equal to all fees which would have been imposed by this chapter upon such corporation had it duly applied for and received a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state as required by this chapter and thereafter filed all reports required by this chapter, plus all penalties imposed by this chapter for failure to pay such fees. The attorney general shall bring proceedings to recover all amounts due this state under the provisions of this section. If any foreign corporation shall conduct affairs in this state without a certificate of authority, it shall by conducting such affairs be deemed thereby to have appointed the secretary of state its attorney for service of process.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.82]

504A.83 Annual report of domestic and foreign corporations.
Each domestic corporation, and each foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state, shall file, within the time prescribed by this chapter, an annual report setting forth:
1. The name of the corporation and the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.
2. The address of the registered office of the corporation in this state, and the name of its registered agent or agents in this state at such address, and, in the case of a foreign corporation, the address of its principal office in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.
3. A brief statement of the character of the affairs which the corporation is actually conducting, or, in the case of a foreign corporation, which the corporation is actually conducting in this state.

4. The names and respective addresses of the directors and officers of the corporation.

The annual report shall be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state, and the information contained in the report shall be given as of the date of the execution of the report. It shall be executed by the corporation by a representative duly authorized by the board of directors, or, if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver, trustee, or assignee for benefit of creditors, it shall be executed on behalf of the corporation by the receiver, trustee, or assignee.

86 Acts, ch 1173, §13

§504A.84 Filing of annual report of domestic and foreign corporations.

Such annual report of a domestic or foreign corporation shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing in the secretary of state's office between the first day of January and the thirty-first day of March of each year, except that the first annual report of a domestic or foreign corporation shall be filed between the first day of January and the thirty-first day of March of the year succeeding the calendar year in which its certificate of incorporation or its certificate of authority, as the case may be, was issued by the secretary of state, and except that if the existence of such domestic corporation or the authority of such foreign corporation to conduct affairs in this state began in December of any year, its first annual report shall be filed between the first day of January and the thirty-first day of March of the second year succeeding the calendar year in which such corporate existence or authority to conduct affairs began. Such report shall be deemed filed within the required time if deposited in the United States mail with postage prepaid in a sealed envelope, properly addressed and postmarked on or prior to the thirty-first day of March. If the secretary of state finds that such report conforms to the requirements of this chapter, the secretary shall file the same. If the secretary of state finds that it does not so conform, the secretary shall promptly return the same to the corporation for any necessary corrections, in which event the penalties hereinafter prescribed for failure to file such report within the time hereinabove provided shall not apply, if such report is corrected to conform to the requirements of this chapter, and is resubmitted to the secretary of state within thirty days from the date on which it was mailed to the corporation by the secretary of state.

§504A.85 Fees for filing documents and issuing certificates.

The secretary of state shall charge and collect for:

1. Filing articles of incorporation and issuing a certificate of incorporation, twenty dollars.
2. Filing statement of election to accept the chapter, five dollars.
3. Filing articles of amendment and issuing a certificate of amendment, ten dollars.
4. Filing restated articles of incorporation, twenty dollars.
5. Filing articles of merger or consolidation and issuing a certificate of merger or consolidation, twenty dollars.
6. Filing an application to reserve a corporate name, ten dollars.
7. Filing a notice of transfer of a reserved corporate name, ten dollars.
8. Filing a statement of change of address of registered office or change of registered agent, or both, five dollars. If a single statement of change changes the address of the registered office of more than one corporation, the fee shall be five dollars for each corporation; the address of whose registered office is changed thereby.
9. Filing articles of dissolution, five dollars.
10. Filing an application of a foreign corporation for a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state and issuing a certificate of authority, twenty-five dollars.
11. Filing an application of a foreign corporation for an amended certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state and issuing an amended certificate of authority, twenty-five dollars.
12. Filing an application for withdrawal of a foreign corporation and issuing a certificate of withdrawal, five dollars.
13. Filing any other statement or report of a domestic or foreign corporation, five dollars.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.85; 81 Acts, ch 21, §14]
86 Acts, ch 1173, §14, 15

§504A.86 Miscellaneous charges.

The secretary of state shall charge and collect:

1. For furnishing a certified copy of any document, instrument, or paper relating to a corporation, one dollar per page and five dollars for the certificate and affixing the seal thereto; and for furnishing an uncertified copy, one dollar per page.
2. At the time of any service of process on the secretary of state as resident agent of a corporation, ten dollars, which amount may be recovered as taxable costs by the party to the suit or action causing such service to be made if such party prevails in the suit or action.
3. For a certificate of good standing, five dollars.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.86; 81 Acts, ch 21, §15]

§504A.87 Penalties imposed upon corporation.

Each corporation, domestic or foreign, that fails or refuses to file its annual report for any year within the time prescribed by this chapter shall be subject to a penalty of five dollars to be assessed by the secretary of state.

Each corporation, domestic or foreign, that fails or refuses to answer truthfully and fully within the time prescribed by this chapter reasonable and proper interrogatories propounded by the secretary of state in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed to be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

The secretary of state may cancel the certificate of incorporation of any corporation that fails or refuses to file its annual report for any year prior to the first day of June of the year in which it is due by issuing a certificate of such cancellation at any time after the expiration of thirty days following the mailing to the corporation of notice of the certification to the attorney general of the failure of the corporation to file such annual report as required by section 504A.54, provided the corporation has not filed such annual report prior to the issuance of the certificate of cancellation. Upon the issuance of the certificate of cancellation, the secretary of state shall send the certificate to the corporation at its registered office and shall retain a copy thereof in the permanent records of the secretary of state's office.

Upon the issuance of the certificate of cancellation, the corporate existence of the corporation shall termi- nate, subject to right of reinstatement as herein provided, and the corporation shall cease to conduct its affairs, except insofar as may be necessary for the "winding up" thereof or for securing reinstatement and the right of the corporation to the use of its name shall cease and such name shall thereafter be available to any other corporation or foreign corporation or for reservation as provided in this chapter. The cancellation of the certificate of incorporation of a corporation shall not take away or impair any remedy available to or against such corporation, its directors, officers or members for any right or claim existing or any liability incurred prior to such cancellation, but no action or proceeding thereon may be prosecuted by such corporation until it shall have been reinstated. Any such action or proceeding against such corporation may be defended by the corporation, if it has not been reinstated, in its corporate name to which there shall be appended the word "canceled" followed by the date of the issuance of the certificate of cancellation. Unless the corporation is reinstated, the corporation, upon the issuance of the certificate of cancellation, shall proceed to liquidate its affairs as provided by this chapter in cases of voluntary dissolution. However, the district court in a suit in equity shall have full power to liquidate the assets and affairs of such a corporation upon application by such corporation or in a suit by a member or director or creditor of such corporation when such corporation fails to proceed promptly with such liquidation or to make application to the court therefor. A copy of the certificate of cancellation, certified by the secretary of state, shall be taken and received in all courts as prima-facie evidence of the cancellation of the certificate of incorporation as stated therein.

If the certificate of incorporation of a corporation has been canceled by the secretary of state as provided in this section for failure to file an annual report, such corporation shall be reinstated by the secretary of state at any time within five years following the date of the issuance by the secretary of state of the certificate of cancellation upon

1 The delivery by the corporation to the secretary of state for filing in the secretary of state's office of an application for reinstatement, executed by its president or vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary and verified by one of the officers signing such application, which shall set forth a The date of the issuance by the secretary of state of the certificate of cancellation,

b The name of the corporation at the time of the issuance of the certificate of cancellation and, if, at the time of the filing of the application for reinstatement, another corporation or foreign corporation is entitled to use such name or such name is then reserved or registered as provided in this chapter, the name of the corporation as changed, which shall be a name then available under the laws of this state, and
c The address, including street and number, if any, of the registered office of the corporation upon the reinstatement thereof, which shall be located in the same county as the county in which the registered office of the corporation was located at the time of the issuance of the certificate of cancellation, and the name of its registered agent or agents at such address upon the reinstatement of the corporation.

2 The filing with the secretary of state by the corporation of all annual reports then due and theretofore becoming due.

3 The payment to the secretary of state by the corporation of all annual license fees and penalties then due and theretofore becoming due and an additional penalty of twenty-five dollars.

The secretary of state, upon filing the application for reinstatement, shall issue a certificate of reinstatement and file and record the same in the secretary of state's office and, if the application for reinstatement shall set forth a change in the name of the corporation, as required by this section, the same shall constitute an amendment to the articles of incorporation of the corporation and the certificate of reinstatement shall set forth such fact and shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder. Upon the issuance of the certificate of reinstatement, the corporation shall be entitled to continue to act as a corporation for the unexpired portion of its corporate period as fixed by its articles of incorporation, except, that the corporation shall not be entitled to use the name of the corporation at the time of the issuance of the certificate of cancellation if another corporation or foreign corporation is entitled to use such name or such name is then reserved as provided in this chapter.

504A.88 Penalties imposed upon officers and directors.

Each director and officer of a corporation, domestic or foreign, who willfully fails or refuses within the time prescribed by this chapter to answer truthfully and fully reasonable and proper interrogatories propounded to the director or officer by the secretary of state in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, or who signs any articles, statement, report, application or other document filed with the secretary of state which is known to such officer or director to be false in any material respect, shall be deemed to be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

504A.89 Interrogatories by secretary of state.

The secretary of state may propound to any corporation, domestic or foreign, subject to the provisions of this chapter, and to any officer or director thereof, such interrogatories as may be reasonably necessary and proper to enable the secretary to ascertain whether such corporation has complied with all the provisions of this chapter applicable to such corporation. Such interrogatories shall be answered within thirty days after the mailing thereof, or within such additional time as shall be fixed by the secretary of state, and the answers thereto shall be full and complete and shall be made in writing and under oath. If such interrogatories be directed to an individual they shall be answered by that individual, and if directed to a corporation they shall be answered by the president, vice president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, secretary or assistant secretary thereof. The secretary of state need not file any document to which such interrogatories relate until such interrogatories be answered as herein provided, and not then if the answers thereto disclose that such document is not in conformity with the provisions of this chapter. The secretary of state shall certify to the attorney general, for such action as the attorney general may deem appropriate, all interrogatories and answers thereto which disclose a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter.
§504A.89 1438
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 89]

§504A.90 Information disclosed by interrogatories.
Interrogatories propounded by the secretary of state and the answers thereto shall not be open to public inspection nor shall the secretary of state disclose any facts or information obtained therefrom except as required in the performance of the secretary of state's official duties.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 90]

§504A.91 Powers of secretary of state.
The secretary of state shall have the power and authority reasonably necessary to enable the secretary to administer this chapter efficiently and to perform the duties therein imposed upon the secretary.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 91]

§504A.92 Judicial review.
If the secretary of state shall fail to approve any articles of incorporation, amendment, merger, consolidation or dissolution, or any other document required by this chapter to be approved by the secretary of state before the same shall be filed in the secretary of state's office, the secretary shall, within ten days after the delivery thereof to the secretary, give written notice of the secretary's disapproval to the person or corporation, domestic or foreign, delivering the same, specifying the reasons therefor. Judicial review of the acts of the secretary of state may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, petitions for judicial review may be filed in the district court of the county in which the registered office of such corporation is situated, or in such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice.

§504A.93 Certificates and certified copies to be received in evidence.
All certificates issued by the secretary of state in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and copies of all documents filed or recorded in the secretary of state's office in accordance with the provisions of this chapter when certified by the secretary, shall be taken and received in all courts, public offices, and official bodies as prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. A certificate by the secretary of state under the seal of the secretary of state's office, as to the existence or nonexistence of the facts relating to corporations which would not appear from a certified copy of any of the foregoing documents or certificates shall be taken and received in all courts, public offices, and official bodies as prima-facie evidence of the existence or nonexistence of the facts therein stated.

§504A.94 Forms to be furnished by secretary of state.
All reports required by this chapter to be filed in the office of the secretary of state shall be made on forms which shall be prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state. Forms for other documents to be filed in the office of the secretary of state may be furnished by the secretary of state on request therefor, but the use thereof, unless otherwise specifically prescribed in this chapter, shall not be mandatory.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 94]

§504A.95 Voting requirements.
Whenever, with respect to any action to be taken by the members or directors of a corporation, the articles of incorporation or bylaws require voting by classes of members or the vote or concurrence of a greater or lesser proportion of the directors or members or any class of members, as the case may be, than required by this chapter with respect to such action, the provisions of the articles of incorporation or bylaws, as the case may be, shall control.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 95]

§504A.96 Waiver of notice.
Whenever any notice is required to be given to any member or director of a corporation under the provisions of this chapter or under the provisions of the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A 96]

§504A.97 Informal action by members or directors.
Any action required by this chapter to be taken at a meeting of the members or directors of a corporation, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the members or directors or of a committee of directors, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the members entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof or all of the directors or all of the members of the committee of directors, as the case may be. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote and may be stated as such in any articles or document filed with the secretary of state under this chapter. The provisions of this section shall be applicable whether or not this chapter requires that an action be taken by resolution.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504A.97]

504A.98 Unauthorized assumption of corporate powers.

All persons who assume to act as a corporation without authority so to do shall be jointly and severally liable for all debts and liabilities incurred or arising as a result thereof.

504A.99 Reservation of power.

The general assembly shall at all times have power to prescribe such regulations, provisions and limitations as it may deem advisable, which regulations, provisions and limitations shall be binding upon any and all corporations subject to the provisions of this chapter, and the general assembly shall have power to amend, repeal or modify this chapter at pleasure.

504A.100 Application to existing corporations.

1. Except for this subsection, this chapter shall not apply to or affect corporations subject to the provisions of chapters 176, 497, 498, 499, or 512. Such corporations shall continue to be governed by all laws of this state heretofore applicable thereto and as the same may hereafter be amended. This chapter shall not be construed as in derogation of or as a limitation on the powers to which such corporations may be entitled.

2. This chapter shall not apply to any domestic corporation heretofore organized or existing under the provisions of chapter 504 of the Code nor, for a period of two years from and after July 4, 1965, to any foreign corporation holding a permit under the provisions of said chapter on the said date, unless such domestic or foreign corporation shall voluntarily elect to adopt the provisions of this chapter and shall comply with the procedure prescribed by the provisions of subsection 3 of this section.

3. Any domestic corporation organized or existing under the provisions of chapter 504 may voluntarily elect to adopt the provisions of this chapter and thereby become subject to its provisions and, during the period of two years from and after the effective date of this chapter, any foreign corporation holding a permit under the provisions of said chapter on said date, unless such domestic or foreign corporation shall voluntarily elect to adopt the provisions of this chapter and thereby become subject to the provisions of this chapter. The procedure for electing to adopt the provisions of this chapter shall be as follows:

a. As to domestic corporations, a resolution reciting that the corporation voluntarily adopts this chapter and designating the address of its initial registered office and the name of its registered agent or agents at such address and, if the name of the corporation does not thereby issued shares of stock, said resolution shall contain a statement of such fact including the number of shares theretofore authorized, the number issued and outstanding, and a statement that all issued and outstanding shares of stock have been delivered to the corporation to be canceled upon the adoption of this chapter by the corporation becoming effective and that from and after the effective date of said adoption the authority of the corporation to issue shares of stock shall be thereby terminated. As to foreign corporations, a resolution shall be adopted by the board of directors, reciting that the corporation voluntarily adopts this chapter, and designating the address of its registered office in this state and the name of its registered agent or agents, at such address and, if the name of the corporation does not comply with this chapter, setting forth the name of the corporation with the changes which it elects to make therein conforming to the requirements of this chapter for use in this state.

b. Upon adoption of the required resolution or resolutions, an instrument shall be executed by the corporation by its president or vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary and verified by one of the officers signing the instrument, which shall set forth:

(1) The name of corporation;
(2) Each such resolution adopted by the corporation and the date of adoption thereof.

c. As to domestic corporations such instrument shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state’s office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder.

If the county of the initial registered office as stated in such instrument is one which is other than the county wherein the principal office or place of business of such corporation, as theretofore designated in its articles of incorporation, was located, the secretary of state shall forward also to the county recorder of the county in which the said principal office or place of business of said corporation was located a copy of such instrument and the secretary shall forward to the recorder of the county in which the initial registered office of such corporation is located, in addition to the original of such instrument, a copy of the articles of incorporation of said corporation together with all amendments thereto as then on file in the secretary of state’s office.

d. As to foreign corporations, such instrument shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing in the secretary of state’s office and the corporation shall at the same time deliver also to the secretary of state for filing in the secretary of state’s office any annual report which is then due.

e. The secretary of state shall not file such instrument with respect to a domestic corporation unless at the time thereof such corporation is validly existing and in good standing in that office under the provisions of chapter 504 of the Code. If the articles of incorporation of such corporation have not theretofore been filed in the office of the secretary of state, but are on file in the office of a county recorder, no such instrument of adoption shall be accepted by the secretary of state until the corporation shall have caused its articles of incorporation and all amendments duly certified by the proper county recorder to be recorded in the office of the secretary of state. Upon the filing of such instrument the secretary of state shall issue a certificate as to the filing of such instrument and deliver such certificate to the corporation or its representative.

Upon the issuance of such certificate by the secretary of state:

1. All of the provisions of this chapter shall there after apply to the corporation and thereupon every such foreign corporation shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges applicable to foreign corporations procuring certificates of authority to conduct affairs in this state under this chapter, and shall be subject to all the limitations, restrictions, liabilities, and duties prescribed herein for foreign corporations procuring certificates of authority to conduct affairs in this state under this chapter.

2. In the case of any corporation with issued shares of stock, the holders of such issued shares who surrender them to the corporation to be canceled upon the adoption of this chapter by the corporation becoming effective, shall be and become members of the corporation with one vote for each share of stock so surrendered until such time as the corporation by proper corporate action relative to the election, qualification, terms and voting power of members shall otherwise prescribe.

3. Any domestic corporation which elects to adopt the provisions of this chapter by complying with the provisions of subsection 3 of this section may, at the same time, amend or restate its articles of incorporation by complying with the provisions of this chapter with respect to amending articles of incorporation or restating articles of incorporation, as the case may be.

4. The provisions of this chapter becoming applicable to any domestic or foreign corporation shall not affect any right accrued or established, or any liability or penalty incurred, under the provisions of chapter 504 prior to the filing by the secretary of state in the secretary of state's office of the instrument manifesting the election of such corporation to adopt the provisions of this chapter as provided in subsection 3 of this section.

5. Except for the exceptions and limitations of subsection 1 of this section, this chapter shall apply to all domestic corporations organized after the date on which this chapter became effective, domestic corporations organized or existing under chapter 504 which voluntarily elect to adopt the provisions of this chapter and comply with the provisions of subsection 3 of this section, all foreign corporations conducting or seeking to conduct affairs within this state and not holding, July 4, 1965, a valid permit so to do, foreign corporations holding, on the date the chapter becomes effective, a valid permit under the provisions of chapter 504 which, during the period of two years from and after said date, voluntarily elect to adopt the provisions of this chapter and comply with the provisions of subsection 3 of this section, and, upon the expiration of the period of two years from and after July 4, 1965, all foreign corporations holding such a permit on July 4, 1965.

7. Upon the expiration of a period of two years from and after the date on July 4, 1965, except for the exceptions and limitations of subsection 1 of this section, this chapter shall apply to every foreign corporation holding a valid permit to do business within this state or seeking to conduct affairs within this state. Every foreign corporation holding a valid permit to do business within this state on July 4, 1965, which has not meanwhile adopted this chapter by complying with the provisions of subsection 3 of this section, shall at the expiration of two years from and after said date be deemed to have elected to adopt this chapter by not voluntarily withdrawing from the state, and thereupon every such foreign corporation subject to the limitations set forth in its certificate of authority, shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges applicable to foreign corporations procuring certificates of authority to conduct affairs in this state under this chapter, and shall be subject to all the limitations, restrictions, liabilities, and duties prescribed herein for foreign corporations procuring certificates of authority to conduct affairs in this state under this chapter.

8. Within eight months after this chapter becomes applicable to any foreign corporation pursuant to the provisions of subsection 7 of this section, the board of directors of such foreign corporation shall adopt a resolution designating the address of its registered office in this state and the name of its registered agent or agents at such address and, if the name of such corporation does not comply with this chapter, setting forth the name of the corporation with the changes which it elects to make therein conforming to the requirements of this chapter for use in this state.

9. Upon adoption of the required resolution or resolutions, an instrument or instruments shall be executed by the foreign corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or assistant secretary and verified by one of the officers signing such instrument, which shall set forth the name of the corporation, each resolution adopted as required by the provisions of this subsection, and the date of the adoption thereof. Such instrument shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing in the secretary of state's office. Upon the filing of such instrument by a foreign corporation the secretary of state shall issue a certificate as to the filing of such instrument and deliver such certificate to the corporation or its representative. The secretary of state shall not file any annual report of any foreign corporation subject to the provisions of this subsection unless and until said corporation has fully complied with the provisions of this paragraph and, in such event, such foreign corporation shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in this chapter for failure to file such report within the time as provided therefor in this chapter.

10. No corporation to which the provisions of this chapter apply shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 504.

11. The provisions of sections 504A.96 and 504A.97 shall apply to any action required or permitted to be taken under this section.

12. Except as otherwise provided in this section, existing corporations shall continue to be governed by the laws of this state heretofore applicable thereto.
504A.101 Personal liability.
Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the directors, officers, employees and members of the corporation shall not, as such, be liable on its debts or obligations and directors, officers, members or other volunteers shall not be personally liable for any claim based upon an act or omission of such person performed in the reasonable discharge of their lawful corporate duties.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 79, 81, §504A.101]

CHAPTER 504B
NONPROFIT CORPORATIONS AND FEDERAL TAX LIABILITY

504B.1 Corporations applicable.
This chapter shall apply to every corporation organized under chapter 504 or 504A, which corporation is deemed to be a private foundation as defined in section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, which is incorporated in the state of Iowa after December 31, 1969, and as to any such corporation organized in this state before January 1, 1970, it shall apply only for its federal taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1972.
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504B.1]

504B.2 Articles of incorporation — contents.
The articles of incorporation of every such corporation shall be deemed to contain provisions forbidding the corporation to:
1. Engage in any act of self-dealing, as defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4941(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;
2. Retain any excess business holdings, as defined in section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4943(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;
3. Make any investment which would jeopardize the carrying out of any of its exempt purposes, within the meaning of section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4944(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; and
4. Make any taxable expenditures, as defined in section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, which would give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by section 4945(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504B.2]

504B.3 Avoiding tax liability.
The articles of incorporation of every such corporation shall be deemed to contain a provision requiring such corporation to distribute, for the purposes specified in its articles of incorporation, for each taxable year, amounts at least sufficient to avoid liability for the tax imposed by section 4942(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504B.3]

504B.4 Construction.
Nothing in this chapter shall impair the rights and powers of the courts or the attorney general of this state with respect to any corporation.
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504B.4]

504B.5 Internal Revenue Code updated.
All references to sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 shall mean the Code as amended to and including January 1, 1971.
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504B.5]

504B.6 Certain powers not limited.
Nothing in this chapter shall limit the power of any nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 504 or organized under chapter 504A:
1. To at any time amend its articles of incorporation or other instrument governing such corporation by any amendment process allowable under the laws of this state to provide that some or all provisions of sections 504B.2 and 504B.3 shall have no application to such corporation, or
2. In the case of any such corporation formed after July 1, 1971, to include any specific provisions in its original articles of incorporation, which provide that some or all provisions of sections 504B.2 and 504B.3 shall have no application to such corporation.
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §504B.6]

PREFACE TO 1987 IOWA CODE

The 1987 Iowa Code is published pursuant to chapter 14. Its form is substantially the same as the 1985 Iowa Code, and it includes the permanent enactments of the 1985 and 1986 sessions of the Seventy-first General Assembly which take effect on or before July 1, 1987. The Code is published in three volumes with a separate index bound in a different color.

Because of the extensive reorganization of the executive branch, enacted primarily in 1986 Iowa Acts, chapter 1245, a large number of Code references to official and departmental names needed to be changed. The General Assembly did not enact all of these changes specifically, but left many to be done by the Code editor under the authority of Iowa Code section 14 13, and the expression of legislative intent found mainly in 1986 Iowa Acts, chapter 1245. However, if there was doubt as to the correct change, the former terminology was left, and further legislation will be required. The system of uniform terminology set out in Iowa Code chapter 7E was not fully implemented this year and further development and application of it will occur, so that it will be fully implemented by the statutory deadline of July 1, 1988. Therefore the user will find inconsistencies of terminology, and should be aware of the statement in 1986 Iowa Acts, chapter 1245, section 2064, that “In cases of inconsistent usage of terminology superseded terms shall be read to be consistent with the intent of this Act until necessary changes in language are made under this section.”

The bracketed material at the end of most Code sections indicates the history of the subject matter of the section. Beginning with the Code of 1985, the histories were not continued, but source notes were added to indicate the location in the Iowa Acts of subsequent amendments and enactments.

Please note that a codified version of the 1857 Constitution of the State of Iowa as well as the original version is now included with the introductory material at the beginning of Volume I.

At the end of Volume III are further historical materials. Tables showing the “Disposition of Acts,” “Corresponding Sections of Code 1985 to Code Supplement 1985 and Code 1987,” and “Internal References to Sections and Chapters of Code 1987” which is new and replaces the internal reference footnotes formerly found under the individual Code sections and chapter headings.

The editorial staff of the Iowa Code strives to make it an accurate and convenient record of the permanent laws of Iowa, and will welcome comments and suggestions for improvements.

505.1 Insurance division created.
An insurance division is created within the department of commerce to regulate and supervise the conducting of the business of insurance in the state. The commissioner of insurance is the chief executive officer of the division. As used in this chapter, the rest of the insurance title, and chapters 502, 503, and 535C, "division" means the insurance division.

505.2 Appointment and term of commissioner.
The governor shall appoint subject to confirmation by the senate, a commissioner of insurance, who shall be selected solely with regard to qualifications and fitness to discharge the duties of this position, devote the entire time to such duties, and serve for four years beginning and ending as provided by section 69.19. The governor may remove the commissioner for malfeasance in office, or for any cause that renders the commissioner ineligible, incapable, or unfit to discharge the duties of the office.

505.3 Vacancies.
Vacancies shall be filled as regular appointments are made for the unexpired portion of the regular term.

505.4 Deputy — assistants — bond.
The commissioner of insurance shall appoint a first and second deputy commissioner and such other clerks and assistants as shall be needed to assist the commissioner in the performance of the commissioner's duty, all of whom shall serve during the pleasure of the commissioner. Before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, deputy commissioners shall give a bond in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars.

505.5 Expenses — salary.
The commissioner shall be entitled to reimbursement of actual necessary expenses in attending meetings of insurance commissioners of other states, and in the performance of the duties of the office. The commissioner's salary shall be as fixed by the general assembly.

505.6 Documents and records.
All books, records, files, documents, reports, and securities, and all papers of every kind and character relating to the business of insurance shall be delivered to, and filed or deposited with, the said commissioner.

505.7 Fees — inspection and examination expenses of division.
All fees and charges which are required by law to be paid by insurance companies and associations shall be payable to the commissioner of the insurance division of the department of commerce or department of revenue and finance, as provided by law, whose duty it shall be to account for and pay over the same to the treasurer of state at the time and in the manner provoked by law. However, fees paid for the inspection or examination of an insurer or other entity subject to regulation by the insurance division shall be deposited in a special trust fund. The treasurer of state shall hold these funds in an account that shall be established in the name of the commissioner for the payment of the inspection and examination expenses of the division upon appropriation by the general assembly. This fund is subject at all times to the warrant of the department of revenue and finance, drawn upon written requisition of the commissioner or the commissioner’s designated representative, for the payment of all salaries and other expenses necessary to carry out the inspection or examination duties of the insurance division. The commissioner may keep on hand with the treasurer of state funds in excess of the current needs of the division. Transfers shall not be made from the general fund of the state or any other fund for the payment of the inspection and examination expenses of the division. No part of the funds held by the treasurer of state for the account of the commissioner shall be transferred to the general fund of the state or any other fund. The funds held by the treasurer of state for the account of the commissioner shall be invested by the treasurer of state and the income derived from these investments shall be credited to the general fund of the state.

The commissioner shall account for receipts and disbursements according to the separate inspection and examination duties imposed upon the commissioner by the laws of this state and each separate inspection and examination duty shall be fiscally self-sustaining.

Deposit of fees 12 10

505.8 General powers and duties.

The commissioner of insurance shall be the head of the division, and shall have general control, supervision, and direction over all insurance business transacted in the state, and shall enforce all the laws of the state relating to such insurance.

The commissioner shall, subject to the provisions of chapter 17A, establish, publish and enforce rules not inconsistent with the law for the enforcement of the provisions of this title and for the enforcement of the laws, the administration and supervision of which are imposed on the division and as necessary to obtain from persons authorized to do business in the state or regulated by the division data required pursuant to section 145 3 by the state health data commission.

The commissioner shall supervise all transactions relating to the organization, reorganization, liquidation, and dissolution of domestic insurance corporations, and all transactions leading up to the organization of such corporations.

The commissioner shall also supervise the sale in the state of all stock, certificates, or other evidences of interest, either by domestic or foreign insurance companies or organizations proposing to engage in any insurance business

See also §510A c.

505.9 Ex officio receiver.

The commissioner of insurance henceforth shall be the receiver and liquidating officer for any insurance company, association, or insurance carrier, and shall serve without compensation other than the stated compensation as commissioner of insurance, but the commissioner shall be allowed clerical and other expenses necessary for the conduct of such receivership.

[C31, 35, §8613 c1, C39, §8613 1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §505 9]

505.10 Expenses attending liquidation.

All expenses of supervision and liquidation shall be fixed by the commissioner of insurance, subject to approval by the court or a judge thereof, and shall, upon the commissioner’s order, be paid out of the funds of such company, association, or insurance carrier in the commissioner’s hands.

[C31, 35, §8613 c2, C39, §8613 2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §505 10]

505.11 Refunds.

Whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the commissioner of insurance that because of error, mistake, or erroneous interpretation of statute that a foreign or domestic insurance corporation has paid to the state of Iowa taxes, fines, penalties, or license fees in excess of the amount legally chargeable against it, the commissioner of insurance shall have power to refund to such corporation any such excess by applying the amount thereof toward the payment of taxes, fines, penalties, or license fees already due or which may hereafter become due, until such excess payments have been fully refunded. The commissioner shall certify to the department of revenue and finance the amount of any such credit to be applied to future taxes due and notify the insurance company affected of the amount thereof.

[C31, 35, §8613 c3, C39, §8613 3; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §505 11]

505.12 Life insurance — annual report.

Before the first day of August the commissioner of insurance shall make an annual report to the governor of the general conduct and condition of the life insurance companies doing business in the state, and include therein an aggregate of the estimated value of all outstanding policies in each of the companies, and in connection therewith prepare a separate abstract thereof as to each company, and of all the returns and statements made to the commissioner by them.

[C73, §1176, C97, §1781, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8614; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §505 12]

505.13 Other insurance — annual report.

The commissioner shall cause the information contained in the statements required of the companies, other than life insurance, organized or doing business in the state to be arranged in detail, and prepare the same for printing, which report shall be made to the governor on or before the first day of August of each year.

[C73, §1158, C97, §1720, S13, §1720 a, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8615; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §505 13]
§506.3 Foreign insurers — reciprocal provisions.

When by the laws of any other state a premium or income or other taxes, or fees, fines, penalties, licenses, deposit requirements or other obligations, prohibitions or restrictions are imposed upon Iowa insurance companies actually doing business in the other state, or upon the agents of the Iowa companies, which in the aggregate are in excess of the aggregate of the taxes, fees, fines, penalties, licenses, deposit requirements or other obligations, prohibitions or restrictions directly imposed upon insurance companies of the other state under the statutes of this state, the same obligations, prohibitions or restrictions of whatever kind are in the same manner and for the same purpose imposed upon insurance companies of the other state doing business in Iowa. Insurance premium taxes paid which were not paid under protest shall not be refunded if the refund claim is based upon an alleged error or mistake of law or erroneous interpretation of statute regarding the validity or legality of this section under the laws or constitutions of the United States or this state. For the purpose of this section, an alien insurer is deemed domiciled in a state designated by it wherein it has (1) established its principal office or agency in the United States, or (2) maintains the largest amount of its assets held in trust or on deposit for the security of its policyholders or policyholders and creditors in the United States, or (3) in which it was admitted to do business in the United States. This section does not apply to ad valorem taxes on real or personal property or to personal income taxes.

CHAPTER 506
ORGANIZATION OF DOMESTIC INSURANCE COMPANIES

506.1 Rules — limitations.

The commissioner of insurance shall promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations as the commissioner deems necessary to assure the proper operation of newly organized insurance companies but in no event shall the commissioner

1. Require that more than twenty percent of the original capital and surplus of a stock corporation subject to the provisions of this chapter be invested by the organizers, or
2. Restrict the alienation of securities issued to organizers for a period of more than
   a. Five years, or
   b. Until the operation of the insurance company produces earned surplus for two successive years.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §506 1]

506.2 Sale of securities restricted.

Neither the securities in an insurance company, nor securities in a holding company, one of the purposes of which is to organize, purchase, or otherwise acquire control of an insurance company, nor membership in an association in process of organization shall be sold or solicited until such company or association, and the promoters thereof, shall have first complied with all of the statutory provisions regulating the organization of such companies and associations, and also have secured from the commissioner of insurance a certificate indicating full compliance with the provisions of this chapter.

[S13, §1683 r3, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8616; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §506 1, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §506 2]

506.3 Certificate of compliance.

Before the commissioner of insurance shall issue such certificate of compliance, the commissioner shall first be satisfied with the general plan of such organization and the character of the advertising to be used; the commissioner shall also see that all rules and regulations promulgated under this chapter have been complied with and fix the time within which such organization shall be completed, the commissioner shall also prescribe the method of keeping books and accounts of insurance companies and those of fiscal agents of corporations subject to the provisions of this chapter.

[S13, §1683 r3, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8617; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §506 2, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §506 3]
§506.4 Maximum promotion expense allowed.

The maximum promotion expense which may be incurred shall in no case exceed fifteen percent of the sale price of said stock, and no portion of such amount shall be used in the payment of salaries for officers and directors before the issuance, by the commissioner of insurance, of authority to transact an insurance business. Any amount paid to the company for stock above the par value of the stock shall constitute a contributed surplus but no dividends shall be paid by the company except from the earned profits arising from their business, which shall not include contributed capital or contributed surplus.

§506.5 Regulation by commissioner.

The commissioner of insurance shall have power to regulate all other matters in connection with the organization of such domestic corporations, and the sale of stock or the issuing of certificates by all insurance corporations within the state, to the end that fraud may be prevented in the organization of such companies and the sale of their stocks and securities.

[S13, §1683 r3, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8619; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §506 4, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §506 5]

§506.6 Promoters restricted.

No company shall enter into any contract with any promoter, officer, director, or agent of the company or any other person to pay the person’s expenses or to pay the person any commission or any compensation for the person’s services in promoting or organizing such company, or in selling its stock in excess of the amount authorized in section 506 4, nor shall it contract with any such person to pay the person any part of the proceeds arising from the insurance it has written or may write as compensation, directly or indirectly, for aiding in the promotion or for aiding or effecting any consolidation of such company with any other company, without the approval of the commissioner of insurance.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8620; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §506 5, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §506 6]

§506.7 Penalty.

Any person who violates any of the provisions of the preceding sections of this chapter, or who violates any order of the commissioner of insurance made by authority thereof, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8621; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §506 6, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §506 7]

§506.8 Liability to stockholders.

Any person, association, or corporation who sells or aids in selling or causes to be sold any stock, certificate of membership, or evidence of interest in any such corporation or association, in violation of law, shall be personally liable to any person to whom the person, association or certificate of membership or evidence of interest, in an amount equal to the price paid therefor by such person with legal interest, and suit to recover the same may be brought by such purchasers, jointly or severally, in any court of competent jurisdiction.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8622; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §506 7, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §506 8]

§506.9 Judicial review.

Judicial review of the acts of commissioner of insurance may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8623; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §506 8, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §506 9]

§506.10 Sale of stock as inducement to insurance.

No insurance company shall issue in this state, or permit its agents, officers, or employees to issue in this state its own stock, agency company stock or other stock or securities, or any special or advisory board or other contract of any kind promising returns and profits as an inducement to insurance.

No insurance company shall be authorized to do business in this state which issues or permits its agents, officers, or employees to issue in this state or in any other state or territory, agency company stock or other stock or securities, or any special advisory board or other contract of any kind promising returns and profits as an inducement to insurance.

No corporation or stock company, acting as an agent of an insurance company, or any of its agents, officers, or employees, shall be permitted to agree to sell, offer to sell, or give or offer to give, directly or indirectly, in any manner whatsoever, any share of stock, securities, bonds, or agreement of any kind or nature, promising returns and profits as an inducement to insurance, or in connection therewith.

Nothing herein contained shall impair or affect in any manner any such contracts issued or made as an inducement to insurance prior to the enactment of this section, or prevent the payment of the dividends or returns therein stipulated to be paid.

It shall be the duty of the commissioner upon being satisfied that any insurance company, or any agent thereof, has violated any of the provisions of this section, to revoke the certificate of authority of the company or agent so offending.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8624; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §506 9, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §506 10]

§506.11 Securities law applicable.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to exempt any corporation from the requirements of chapter 502.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §506 11]
CHAPTER 507
EXAMINATION OF INSURANCE COMPANIES

§507.1 “Company” defined.
The word “company” as used in this chapter shall mean all companies or associations organized under the provisions of chapters 508, 510, 511, 512, 514, 514B, 515, 515C, 518A, associations subject to the provisions of chapters 518 and 520, and all companies or associations admitted or seeking to be admitted to this state under the provisions of any of the chapters here referred to.

[C97, §1753, S13, §1821 a, h, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8626, 8642, 9009, 9061; C46, §507 2, 507 18, 515 130, 518 36, C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §507 1]

§507.2 Examination required.
The insurance commissioner may at any time examine or inquire into the affairs of any insurance company authorized or seeking to be authorized to transact business in the state of Iowa. Domestic companies shall be examined at least once for each three-year period.
