 Transferred from §465.30 in 1989 Code to §468.629 in 1989 Code Supplement

468.630 Mutual drains—establishment as district.

Whenever a landowner fails to pay the cost apportioned as provided in section 468.629, or whenever a repair or reconstruction ordered as provided in said section is not made within reasonable time, and in such other instances as the board of supervisors desires, the board by resolution shall establish such mutual drain as a drainage district; all proceedings thereafter shall be as provided for other legally established districts.

 Transferred from §465.31 in 1989 Code to §468.630 in 1989 Code Supplement

468.631 Appeal.

The decisions and actions of the board of supervisors under section 468.630 may be appealed as provided in sections 468.608 through 468.610.

89 Acts, ch 126, §2, 3 SF 479
 Transferred from §465.32 in 1989 Code to §468.631 in 1989 Code Supplement

468.632 Record filed with established district.

When the lands served by a mutual drain are within the boundary of an established drainage district, a complete record of the proceeding relating to such mutual drain shall be filed with and as a part of, the records of such established district.

 Transferred from §465.33 in 1989 Code to §468.632 in 1989 Code Supplement

468.633 Lost or incomplete records.

If the records referred to in section 468.632 are incomplete or have been lost, the board may re-establish such records so as to proportion future costs and damages in proportion to the benefits and damages received because of the construction of such mutual drains and improvements thereof, and may order such surveys, engineering reports, reclassification of lands and appraisal of damages as they deem necessary. All costs of such proceedings shall be assessed against the benefited lands.

 Transferred from §465.34 in 1989 Code to §468.633 in 1989 Code Supplement

468.634 Petition to combine with established district.

Upon receipt of a petition, signed by the owners of the lands served by a mutual drain, requesting that such drain be combined with an established drainage district, the board shall hold a hearing with due notice to the owners of all lands affected by said mutual drain, and if the board finds it desirable it may by resolution make such mutual drains a part of the established district. Such hearing and resolution may be continued as the board deems necessary for the collection of additional information as provided in section 468.633. Such combination with an established district shall constitute dissolution of the mutual drain, and shall be so recorded, after which such mutual drain shall be a part of the district drain in all respects.

 Transferred from §465.35 in 1989 Code to §468.634 in 1989 Code Supplement

CHAPTER 470

LIFE CYCLE COST ANALYSIS OF PUBLIC FACILITIES

470.7 Life cycle cost analysis—approval.

The public agency responsible for the new construction or renovation of a public facility shall submit a copy of the life cycle cost analysis for review by the state building code commissioner who shall consult with the department of natural resources. If the public agency is also a state agency under section 19.34, comments by the department of natural resources or the state building code commissioner, including any recommendation for changes in the analysis, shall, within thirty days of receipt of the analysis, be forwarded in writing to the public agency. If either the department or the commissioner disagrees with any aspects of the life cycle cost analysis, the public agency affected shall timely respond in writing to the state building code commissioner and the department of natural resources. The response shall indicate whether the agency intends to implement the recommendations and, if the agency does not intend to implement them, the public agency shall present its reasons. The reasons may include, but are not limited to, a description of the purpose of the facility or renovation, preservation of historical architectural features, architectural and site considerations, and health and safety concerns.

Within thirty days of receipt of the response of the public agency affected, the department, the commissioner, or both, shall notify in writing the public agency affected of the department's, the commissioner's, or both's agreement or disagreement with the response. In the event of a disagreement, the department, the commissioner, or both, shall at the same time transmit the notification of disagreement with response and related papers to the executive council for resolution pursuant to section 19.34.

CHAPTER 472

PROCEDURE UNDER POWER OF EMINENT DOMAIN

472.42 Eminent domain—payment to displaced persons.

1. A utility or railroad subject to section 327C.2, chapter 479, or chapter 476, authorized by law to acquire property by condemnation, which acquires the property of a person or displaces a person for a program or project which has received or will receive federal financial assistance as defined in section 316.1, shall provide to the person in addition to any other sums of money in payment of just compensation, the payments and assistance required by law, in accordance with chapter 316.

2. A person aggrieved by a determination made by a utility as to eligibility for relocation assistance, a payment, or the amount of the payment, upon application, may have the matter reviewed by the utilities division of the department of commerce.

3. A person aggrieved by a determination made by a railroad as to eligibility for relocation assistance, a payment, or the amount of the payment, upon application, may have the matter reviewed by the state department of transportation.

4. A utility or railroad subject to this section that proposes to displace a person shall inform the person of the person's right to receive relocation assistance and payments, and of an aggrieved person's right to appeal to the utilities division of the department of commerce or the state department of transportation.

89 Acts, ch 20, §18 SF 152
Section amended

472.54 Federally assisted project and displacing activities—acquisition policies.

If a project or displacing activity has received or will receive federal financial assistance as defined in section 316.1, an acquiring agency shall be guided by the following policies:

1. Every reasonable effort shall be made to acquire expeditiously real property by negotiation.

2. Real property shall be appraised as required by section 472.45 before the initiation of negotiations, and the owner or the owner's designated representative shall be given an opportunity to accompany at least one appraiser of the acquiring agency during an inspection of the property, except that the state department of transportation may prescribe a procedure to waive the appraisal in cases involving the acquisition of property with a low fair market value.

3. Before the initiation of negotiations for real property, the acquiring agency shall establish an amount which it believes to be just compensation for the real property, and shall make a prompt offer to acquire the property for the full amount established by the agency. In no event shall the amount be less than the agency's approved appraisal of the fair market value of the property.

4. The construction or development of a public improvement shall be so scheduled that, to the greatest extent practicable, no person lawfully occupying real property shall be required to move from a dwelling or to move the person's business or farm operation without at least ninety days' written notice of the date by which the move is required.

5. If an owner or tenant is permitted to occupy the real property acquired on a rental basis for a short term or for a period subject to termination on short notice, the amount of rent required shall not exceed the fair rental value of the property to a short-term occupier.

6. In no event shall the time of condemnation be advanced, or negotiations or condemnation and the deposit of funds in court for the use of the owner be deferred, or any other coercive action be taken to compel an agreement on the price to be paid for the property.

7. If an interest in real property is to be acquired by exercise of the power of eminent domain, formal condemnation proceedings shall be instituted. The acquiring agency shall not intentionally make it necessary for an owner to institute legal proceedings to prove the fact of the taking of the owner's real property.

8. If the acquisition of only a portion of property would leave the owner with an uneconomical remnant, the head of the agency concerned shall offer to acquire that remnant. For the purposes of this chapter, an "uneconomical remnant" is a parcel of real property in which the owner is left with an interest after the partial acquisition of the owner's property, where the head of the agency concerned determines that the parcel has little or no value or utility to the owner.

9. A person whose real property is being acquired in accordance with this chapter, after the person has been fully informed of the person's right to receive just compensation for the property, may donate the property, any part of the property, any interest in the property, or any compensation paid for it to any agency as the person may determine.

10. As soon as practicable after the date of payment of the purchase price or the date of deposit in court of funds to satisfy the award of compensation in a condemnation proceeding to acquire real property, whichever is earlier, the acquiring agency shall reimburse the owner, to the extent the acquiring agency deems fair and reasonable, for expenses the owner necessarily incurred for all of the following:

a. Recording fees, transfer taxes, and similar expenses incidental to conveying the real property to the acquiring agency.

b. Penalty costs for full or partial prepayment of any preexisting recorded mortgage entered into in good faith encumbering the real property.

Payments and expenditures under this subsection are incident to and arise out of the program or project for which the acquisition activity takes place. Such payments and expenditures may be made from the funds made available for the program or project.

A person aggrieved by a determination as to the eligibility for or amount of a reimbursement may have the matter reviewed in accordance with section 316.9.

11. An owner shall not be required to surrender possession of real property before the acquiring agency concerned pays the agreed purchase price.

89 Acts, ch 20, §19 SF 152
NEW section

472.55 Buildings, structures, and improvements on federally assisted programs and projects.

If a program or project has received or will receive federal financial assistance as defined in section 316.1, an acquiring agency shall be guided by the following policies:

1. If an interest in real property is acquired, the acquiring agency shall acquire an equal interest in all buildings, structures, or other improvements located upon the real property which are required to be removed from the real property or which are determined to be adversely affected by the use to which the real property will be put.

2. For the purpose of determining the just compensation to be paid for any building, structure, or other improvement required to be acquired under this section, the building, structure, or other improvement shall be deemed to be a part of the real property to be acquired, notwithstanding the right or obligation of a tenant of the lands, as against the owner of any other interest in the real property, to remove the building, structure, or improvement at the expiration of the tenant's term. The fair market value which the building, structure, or improvement contributes to the fair market value of the real property to be acquired, or the fair market value of the building, structure, or improvement for removal from the real property, whichever is the greater, shall be paid to the owner of the building, structure, or improvement.

3. Payment for the building, structure, or improvement under this section shall not result in duplication of any payments otherwise authorized by state law. The payment shall not be made unless the owner of the land involved disclaims all interest in the improvements of the tenant. In consideration for any such payment, the tenant shall assign, transfer, and release all the tenant's right, title, and interest in and to the improvements. Nothing with regard to the above-mentioned acquisition of buildings, structures, or other improvements shall be construed to deprive the tenant of any rights to reject payment and to obtain payment for the property interests in accordance with other laws of this state.

CHAPTER 474

UTILITIES DIVISION

474.1 Creation of division and board—organization.

A utilities division is created within the department of commerce. The policy-making body for the division is the utilities board which is created within the division. The board is composed of three members appointed by the governor and subject to confirmation by the senate, not more than two of whom shall be from the same political party. Each member appointed shall serve for six-year staggered terms beginning and ending as provided by section 69.19. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term in the same manner as full-term appointments are made.

The utilities board shall organize by appointing an executive secretary, who shall take the same oath as the members. The board shall set the salary of the executive secretary within the limits of the pay plan for exempt positions provided for in section 19A.9, subsection 2, unless otherwise provided by the general assembly. The board may employ additional personnel as it finds necessary. Subject to confirmation by the senate, the governor shall appoint a member as the chairperson of the board. The chairperson shall be the administrator of the utilities division. The appointment as chairperson shall be for a two-year term which begins and ends as provided in section 69.19.

As used in this chapter and chapters 475A, 476, 476A, 478, 479, and 479A, "division" and "utilities division" mean the utilities division of the department of commerce.

89 Acts, ch 296, §70 SF 141
Unnumbered paragraph 3 amended

474.5 Rules, forms and service.

1. The utilities board may from time to time make or amend its rules or orders as necessary for the preservation of order and the regulation of proceedings before it, including forms of notice and the service thereof, which shall conform as nearly as may be to those in use in the courts of the state.

2. The utilities board shall adopt rules approving the types of city-owned or utility-owned lighting which shall be used in providing energy efficient exterior lighting under sections 364.23 and 476.62.

89 Acts, ch 297, §8 SF 419
Section amended

474.9 General jurisdiction of utilities board.

The utilities board has general supervision of all pipelines and all lines for the transmission, sale, and distribution of electrical current for light, heat, and power pursuant to chapters 476, 476A, 478, 479, and 479A, and has other duties as provided by law.

89 Acts, ch 296, §71 SF 141
Section amended

CHAPTER 475A

CONSUMER ADVOCATE

475A.3 Office—employees—expenses.

1. Office. The office of consumer advocate shall be a separate division of the department of justice and located at the same location as the utilities division of the department of commerce. Administrative support services may be provided to the consumer advocate division by the department of commerce.

2. Employees. The consumer advocate may employ attorneys, legal assistants, secretaries, clerks, and other employees the consumer advocate finds necessary for the full and efficient discharge of the duties and responsibilities of the office. The consumer advocate may employ consultants as expert witnesses or technical advisors pursuant to contract as the consumer advocate finds necessary for the full and efficient discharge of the duties of the office. Employees of the consumer advocate division, other than the consumer advocate, are subject to merit employment, except as provided in section 19A.3.

3. Salaries, expenses, and appropriation. The salary of the consumer advocate shall be fixed by the attorney general within the salary range set by the general assembly. The salaries of employees of the consumer advocate shall be at rates of compensation consistent with current standards in industry. The reimbursement of expenses for the employees and the consumer advocate is as provided by law. The appropriation for the office of consumer advocate shall be a separate line item contained in the appropriation from the utility trust fund created pursuant to section 476.10.

89 Acts, ch 158, §1 SF 170
Section amended

475A.4 Utilities division records and employees.

The consumer advocate has free access to all the files, records, and documents in the office of the utilities division except:

1. Personal information in confidential personnel records of the utilities division.

2. Records which represent and constitute the work product of the general counsel of the utilities board, and records of confidential communications between utilities board members and their general counsel, where the records relate to a proceeding before the board in which the consumer advocate is a party or a proceeding in any state or federal court in which both the board and the consumer advocate are parties.

3. Customer information of a confidential nature which could jeopardize the customer's competitive status and is provided by the utility to the division. Such information shall be provided to the consumer advocate by the division, if the board determines it to be in the public interest.

1989 amendment striking former subsection 2 is effective April 1, 1990; 89 Acts, ch 158, §4(2) SF 170
Subsection 2 stricken and paragraphs a-c of subsection 1 changed to subsections 1-3

CHAPTER 476

PUBLIC UTILITY REGULATION

476.1A Applicability of authority—certain electric utilities.

Electric public utilities having less than ten thousand customers and electric cooperative corporations and associations are not subject to the rate regulation authority of the board. Such utilities are subject to all other regulation and enforcement activities of the board, including:

1. Assessment of fees for the support of the division.
2. Safety and engineering standards for equipment, operations, and procedures.
3. Assigned area of service.
4. Pilot projects of the board.

However, sections 476.20, 476.21, 476.41 through 476.44, 476.51, 476.56, 476.62, and 476.66 and chapters 476A and 478, to the extent applicable, apply to such electric utilities.

Electric cooperative corporations and associations and electric public utilities exempt from rate regulation under this section shall not make or grant any unreasonable preferences or advantages as to rates or services to any person or subject any person to any unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage.

The board of directors or the membership of an electric cooperative corporation or association otherwise exempt from rate regulation may elect to have the cooperative's rates regulated by the board. The board shall adopt rules prescribing the manner in which the board of directors or the membership of an electric cooperative may so elect. If the board of directors or the membership of an electric cooperative has elected to have the cooperative's rates regulated by the board, after two years have elapsed from the effective date of such election the membership of the electric cooperative may elect to exempt the cooperative from the rate regulation authority of the board.

89 Acts, ch 297, §9 SF 419
Unnumbered paragraph 2 amended

476.1B Applicability of authority—municipally owned utilities.

1. Unless otherwise specifically provided by statute, a municipally owned utility is not subject to regulation by the board under this chapter, except for regulatory action pertaining to:

- a. Assessment of fees for the support of the division and the office of consumer advocate, as set forth in section 476.10.
- b. Safety standards.
- c. Assigned areas of service, as set forth in sections 476.22 through 476.26.
- d. Enforcement of civil penalties pursuant to section 476.51.
- e. Disconnection of service, as set forth in section 476.20.
- f. Discrimination against users of renewable energy resources, as set forth in section 476.21.
- g. Encouragement of alternate energy production facilities, as set forth in sections 476.41 through 476.45.
- h. Enforcement of section 476.56.
- i. Enforcement of section 476.66.
- j. Enforcement of section 476.62.

2. Municipally owned utilities shall be required to adhere to the requirements of the following sections of the Code but all rules and regulations to enforce these sections shall lie with each local municipal utility's governing board. The board has no authority concerning these sections as they apply to municipal utilities:

- a. Peak-load management techniques, as set forth in section 476.17.
- b. Promulgation of rules concerning the use of energy conservation strategies, as set forth in section 476.2.

89 Acts, ch 297, §10 SF 419
Subsection 1, NEW paragraph j

476.3 Complaints—investigation—refunds.

1. A public utility shall furnish reasonably adequate service at rates and charges in accordance with tariffs filed with the board. When there is filed with the board by any person or body politic, or filed by the board upon its own motion, a written complaint requesting the board to determine the reasonableness of the rates, charges, schedules, service, regulations, or anything done or omitted to be done by a public utility subject to this chapter in contravention of this chapter, the written complaint shall be forwarded by the board to the public utility, which shall be called upon to satisfy the complaint or to answer it in writing within a reasonable time to be specified by the board. Copies of the written complaint forwarded by the board to the public utility and copies of all correspondence from the public utility in response to the complaint shall be provided by the board in an expeditious manner to the consumer advocate. If the board determines the public utility's response is inadequate and there appears to be any reasonable ground for investigating the complaint, the board shall promptly initiate a formal proceeding. If the consumer advocate determines the public utility's response to the complaint is inadequate, the consumer advocate may file a petition with the board which shall promptly initiate a formal proceeding if the board determines that there is any reasonable ground for investigating the complaint. The complainant or the public utility also may petition the board to initiate a formal proceeding which petition shall be granted if the board determines that there is any reasonable ground for investigating the complaint. The formal proceeding may be initiated at any time by the board on its own motion. If a proceeding is initiated upon petition filed by the consumer advocate, complainant, or the public utility, or upon the board's own motion, the board shall set the case for hearing and give notice as it deems appropriate. When the board, after a hearing held after reasonable notice, finds a public utility's rates, charges, schedules, service, or regulations are unjust, unreasonable, discriminatory, or otherwise in violation of any provision of law, the board shall determine just, reasonable, and nondiscriminatory rates, charges, schedules, service, or regulations to be observed and enforced.

2. If, as a result of a review procedure conducted under section 476.31, a review conducted under section 476.32, a special audit, an investigation by division staff, or an investigation by the consumer advocate, a petition is filed with the board by the consumer advocate, alleging that a utility's rates are excessive, the disputed amount shall be specified in the petition. The public utility shall, within the time prescribed by the board, file a bond or undertaking approved by the board conditioned upon the refund in a manner prescribed by the board of amounts collected after the date of filing of the petition in excess of rates or charges finally determined by the board to be lawful. If upon hearing the board finds that the utility's rates are unlawful, the board shall order a refund, with interest, of amounts collected after the date of filing of the petition that are determined to be in excess of the amounts which would have been collected under the rates finally approved. However, the board shall not order a refund that is greater than the amount specified in the petition, plus interest, and if the board fails to render a decision within ten months following the date of filing of the petition, the board shall not order a refund of any excess amounts that are collected after the expiration of that ten-month period and prior to the date the decision is rendered.

3. A determination of utility rates by the board pursuant to this section that is based upon a departure from previously established regulatory principles shall apply prospectively from the date of the decision.

Subsections 1 and 2 amended

476.6 Changes in rates, charges, schedules and regulations—supply and cost review—water costs for fire protection.

1. Filing with board. A public utility subject to rate regulation shall not make effective a new or changed rate, charge, schedule or regulation until the rate, charge, schedule, or regulation has been approved by the board, except as provided in subsections 11 and 13.

A subscriber of a telephone exchange or service, who is declared to be legally blind under section 422.12, subsection 1, paragraph "e", is exempt from any charges for telephone directory assistance that may be approved by the board.

2. Telephone directory assistance charges—record provided. The board shall not approve a schedule of directory assistance charges unless the schedule provides that residential customers be provided a record of the date and time of each directory assistance call made from their residence.

3. Telephone directory assistance charges—approval by board. Notwithstanding contrary provisions of this section, a public utility shall not implement a charge for telephone directory assistance or implement a new or changed rate for telephone directory assistance except pursuant to a tariff that has been filed with the board and finally approved by the board.

4. First seven calls exempted. A telephone directory assistance tariff that is approved by the board on or after July 1, 1981, shall be subject to the limitation that a subscriber shall not be charged for the first seven directory assistance calls made from the subscriber's station during each of the first twelve months in which the tariff is in effect, and a charge made in violation of this limitation is an unlawful charge within the meaning of this chapter.

5. Written notice of increase. All public utilities, except those exempted from rate regulation by section 476.1, shall give written notice of a proposed increase of any rate or charge to all affected customers served by the public utility no more than sixty-two days prior to and prior to the time the application for the increase is filed with the board. Public utilities exempted from rate regulation by section 476.1 shall give written notice of a proposed increase of any rate or charge to all affected customers served by the public utility at least thirty days prior to the effective date of the increase. If the public utility is subject to rate regulation, the notice to affected customers shall also state that the customer has a right to file a written objection to the rate increase and that the affected customers may request the board to hold a public hearing to determine if the rate increase should be allowed. The board shall prescribe the manner and method that the written notice to each affected customer of the public utility shall be served.

6. Facts and arguments submitted. At the time a public utility subject to rate regulation files with the board an application for any new or changed rates, charges, schedules, or regulations, the public utility also shall submit factual evidence and written argument offered in support of the filing. If the filing is an application for a general rate increase, the utility shall also file affidavits containing testimonial evidence to be offered in support of the filing, although this requirement does not apply if the public utility is a rural electric cooperative.

7. Hearing set. After the filing of an application for new or changed rates, charges, schedules, or regulations by a public utility subject to rate regulation, the board, prior to the expiration of thirty days after the filing date, shall docket the case as a formal proceeding and set the case for hearing unless the new or changed rates, charges, schedules, or regulations are approved by the board. However, if an application presents no material issue of fact subject to dispute, and the board determines that the application violates a relevant statute, or is not in substantial compliance with a board rule lawfully adopted pursuant to chapter 17A, the application may be rejected by the board without prejudice and without a hearing, provided that the board issues a written order setting forth all of its reasons for rejecting the application. In the case of a gas public utility having less than two thousand customers, the board shall docket a case as a formal proceeding and set the case for hearing as provided in section 476.1C. In the case of a rural electric cooperative, the board may docket the case as a formal proceeding and set the case for hearing prior to the proposed effective date of the tariff. The board shall give notice of formal proceedings as it deems appropriate. The docketing of a case as a formal proceeding suspends the effective date of the new or changed rates, charges, schedules, or regulations until the rates, charges, schedules, or regulations are approved by the board, except as provided in subsection 13.

8. Utility hearing expenses reported. When a case has been docketed as a formal proceeding under subsection 7, the public utility, within a reasonable time thereafter, shall file with the board a report outlining the utility's expected expenses for litigating the case through the time period allowed by the board in rendering a decision. At the conclusion of the utility's presentation of comments, testimony, exhibits, or briefs the utility shall submit to the board a listing of the utility's actual litigation expenses in the proceeding. As part of the findings of the board under subsection 9, the board shall allow recovery of costs of the litigation expenses over a reasonable period of time to the extent the board deems the expenses reasonable and just.

9. Finding by board. If, after hearing and decision on all issues presented for determination in the rate proceeding, the board finds the proposed rates, charges, schedules, or regulations of the utility to be unlawful, the board shall by order authorize and direct the utility to file new or changed rates, charges, schedules, or regulations which, when approved by the board and placed in effect, will satisfy the requirements of this chapter. The rates, charges, schedules, or regulations so approved are lawful and effective upon their approval.

10. Limitation on filings. A public utility shall not make a subsequent filing of an application for a new or changed rate, charge, schedule, or regulation which relates to services for which a rate filing is pending within twelve months following the date the prior application was filed or until the board has issued a final order on the prior application, whichever date is earlier, unless the public utility applies to the board for authority and receives authority to make a subsequent filing at an earlier date.

11. Automatic adjustments permitted. This chapter does not prohibit a public utility from making provision for the automatic adjustment of rates and charges for public utility service provided that a schedule showing the automatic adjustment of rates and charges is first filed with the board.

If an automatic adjustment is used, the adjustment must be reduced to zero at least once in every twelve-month period, and all appropriate charges collected by the automatic adjustment shall be incorporated in the utility's other rates at that time.

12. Rate levels for telephone utilities. The board may approve a schedule of rate levels for any regulated service provided by a utility providing communication services.

13. Temporary authority. Upon the request of a public utility, the board shall, when required by this subsection, grant the public utility temporary authority to place in effect any or all of the suspended rates, charges, schedules or regulations by filing with the board a bond or other undertaking approved by the board conditioned upon the refund in a manner to be prescribed by the board of any amounts collected in excess of the amounts which would have been collected under rates, charges, schedules or regulations finally approved by the board. In determining that portion of the new or changed rates, charges, schedules or regulations to be placed in effect prior to a final decision, the board shall apply previously established regulatory principles and shall, at a minimum, permit rates and charges which will allow the utility the opportunity to earn a return on common stock equity equal to that which the board held reasonable and just in the most recent rate case involving the same utility or the same type of utility service, provided that if the most recent final decision of the board in an applicable rate case was rendered more than twelve months prior to the date of filing of the request for temporary rates, the board shall in addition consider financial market data that is filed or that is otherwise available to the board and shall adjust the rate of return on common stock equity that was approved in that decision upward or downward as necessary to reflect current conditions. The board shall render a decision on a request for temporary authority within ninety days after the date of filing of the request. The decision shall be effective immediately. If the board has not rendered a final decision with respect to suspended rates, charges, schedules or regulations upon the expiration of ten months after the filing date, plus the length of any delay that necessarily results either from the failure of the public utility to exercise due diligence in connection with the proceedings or from intervening judicial proceedings, plus the length of any extension permitted by section 476.33, subsection 3, then those portions that were approved by the board on a temporary basis shall be deemed finally approved by the board and the utility may place them into effect on a permanent basis, and the utility also may place into effect subject to refund and until the final decision of the board any portion of the suspended rates, charges, schedules or regulations not previously approved on a temporary basis by filing with the board a bond or other undertaking approved by the board.

If the board finds that an extension of the ten-month period is necessary to permit the accumulation of necessary data with respect to the operation of a newly constructed electric generating facility that has a capacity of one hundred megawatts or more of electricity and that is proposed to be included in the rate base for the first time, the board may extend the ten-month period up to a maximum extension of six months, but only with respect to that portion of the suspended rates, charges, schedules or regulations that are necessarily connected with the inclusion of the generating facility in the rate base. If a utility is proposing to include in its rate base for the first time a newly constructed electric generating facility that has a capacity of one hundred megawatts or more of electricity, the filing date of new or changed rates, charges, schedules or regulations shall, for purposes of computing the ninety-day and ten-month limitations stated above, be the date as determined by the board that the new plant went into service, but only with respect to that portion of the suspended rates, charges, schedules or regulations that are necessarily connected with the inclusion of the generating facility in the rate base.

The board shall determine the rate of interest to be paid by a public utility to persons receiving refunds. The interest rate to be applied to refunds of moneys collected subject to refund under this subsection is two percent per annum plus the average quarterly interest rate at commercial banks for twenty-four-month loans for personal expenditures, as determined by the board, compounded annually. The board shall consider federal reserve statistical release G.19 or its equivalent when determining interest to be paid under this subsection.

14. Refunds passed on to customers. If pursuant to federal law or rule a rate-regulated public utility furnishing gas to customers in the state receives a refund or credit for past gas purchases, the savings shall be passed on to the customers in a manner approved by the board. Similarly, if pursuant to federal law or rule a rate-regulated public utility furnishing gas to customers in the state receives a rate for future gas purchases which is lower than the price included in the public utility's approved rate application, the savings shall be passed on to the customers in a manner approved by the board.

15. Natural gas supply and cost review. The board shall periodically, but not less than annually, conduct a proceeding for the purpose of evaluating the reasonableness and prudence of a rate-regulated public utility's natural gas procurement and contracting practices. The natural gas supply and cost review shall be conducted as a contested case pursuant to chapter 17A.

Under procedures established by the board, each rate-regulated public utility furnishing gas shall periodically file a complete natural gas procurement plan describing the expected sources and volumes of its gas supply and changes in the cost of gas anticipated over a future twelve-month period specified by the board. The plan shall describe all major contracts and gas supply arrangements entered into by the utility for obtaining gas during the specified twelve-month period. The description of the major contracts and arrangements shall include the price of gas, the duration of the contract or arrangement, and an explanation or description of any other term or provision as required by the board. The plan shall also include the utility's evaluation of the reasonableness and prudence of its decisions to obtain gas in the manner described in the plan, an explanation of the legal and regulatory actions taken by the utility to minimize the cost of gas purchased by the utility, and such other information as the board may require.

Contemporaneously with the natural gas procurement plan, the public utility shall file with the board a five-year forecast of the gas requirement of its customers, its anticipated sources of supply, and projections of gas costs. The forecast shall include a description of all relevant major contracts and gas supply arrangements entered into or contemplated between the gas utility and its suppliers, a description of all major gas supply arrangements which the gas utility knows have been, or expects will be, entered into between the utility's principal pipeline suppliers and their major sources of gas, and such other information as the board may require.

During the natural gas supply and cost review, the board shall evaluate the reasonableness and prudence of the gas procurement plan. In evaluating the gas procurement plan, the board shall consider the volume, cost, and reliability of the major alternative gas supplies available to the utility; the cost of alternative fuels available to the utility's customers; the availability of gas in storage; the appropriate legal and regulatory actions which the utility could take to minimize the cost of purchased gas; the gas procurement practices of the utility; and other relevant factors. If a utility is not taking all reasonable actions to minimize its purchase gas costs, consistent with assuring an adequate long-term supply of natural gas, the board shall not allow the utility to recover from its customers purchase gas costs in excess of those costs that would be incurred under reasonable and prudent policies and practices.

The board shall also evaluate the five-year forecast filed by the public utility. The board may indicate any cost items in the five-year forecast that on the basis of present evidence in the record the board would be unlikely to permit the utility to recover from its customers in rates, charges or purchased gas clauses established in the future. Nothing in this section prohibits the board from disallowing the recovery of other related or unrelated costs on the basis of evidence received in a later contested case proceeding.

The board shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A to implement the provisions of this section prior to January 1, 1984.

16. Annual electric energy supply and cost review. The board shall conduct an annual proceeding for the purpose of evaluating the reasonableness and prudence of a rate-regulated public utility's procurement and contracting practices related to the acquisition of fuel for use in generating electricity. The proceeding shall be conducted as a contested case pursuant to chapter 17A. Under procedures established by the board, the utility shall file information as the board deems appropriate. If a utility is not taking all reasonable actions to minimize its fuel costs, the board shall not allow the utility to recover from its customers fuel costs in excess of those costs that would be incurred under reasonable and prudent policies and practices.

Contemporaneously with the annual review proceeding, the board shall analyze the electric generating capacity needs for the next decade by the public utility's customers, under procedures established by the board. The utility shall file information regarding future capacity needs of its customers as deemed appropriate by the board.

17. Comprehensive energy management required for electric utilities. An electric utility shall not have an increased revenue requirement finally approved under this section unless the utilities board finds that the electric utility has in effect a comprehensive energy management program which meets the primary objectives of section 476A.6, subsection 4.

18. Water costs for fire protection in certain cities.

a. Application. A city furnished water by a public utility subject to rate regulation may apply to the board for inclusion of all or a part of the costs of fire hydrants or other improvements, maintenance, and operations for the purpose of providing adequate water production, storage, and distribution for public fire protection in the rates or charges assessed to consumers covered by the applicant's fire protection service. The application shall be made in a form and manner approved by or as directed by the board. The applicant shall provide such additional information as the board may require to consider the application.

b. Review. The board shall review the application, and may in its discretion consider additional evidence, beyond that supplied in the application or provided by the applicant in response to a request for additional information pursuant to paragraph "a", including, but not limited to, soliciting oral or written testimony from other interested parties.

c. Notice. Written notice of a proposed rate increase shall be provided by the public utility pursuant to subsection 5, except that notice shall be provided within ninety days of the date of application. Costs of the notice shall be paid for by the applicant.

d. Conditions for approval. As a condition to approving an application to include water-related fire protection costs in the utility's rates or charges, the board shall make an affirmative determination that the following conditions will be met:

(1) That the service area currently charged for fire protection, either directly or indirectly, is substantially the same service area containing those persons who will pay for water-related fire protection through inclusion of such costs within the utility's rates or charges.

(2) That the inclusion of such costs within the utility's rates or charges will not cause substantial inequities among the utility's customers.

(3) That all or a portion of the costs sought to be included in the utility's rates or charges by the applicant are reasonable in the circumstances, and limited to the purposes specified in paragraph "a".

(4) That written notice has been provided pursuant to paragraph "c" and that the costs of the notice have been paid by the applicant.

e. Inclusion within rates or charges. If the board affirmatively determines that the conditions of paragraph "d" are or will be satisfied, the board shall include the reasonable costs in the rates or charges assessed to consumers covered by the applicant's fire protection service.

f. Written order. The board shall issue a written order within six months of the date of application. The written order shall include a recitation of the facts found pursuant to consideration of the application.

476.10 Investigations—expense—appropriation.

When the board deems it necessary in order to carry out the duties imposed upon it by this chapter for the purpose of determining rate matters to investigate the books, accounts, practices, and activities of, or make appraisals of the property of any public utility, or to render any engineering or accounting services to any public utility, or to review the operations or annual reports of the public utility under section 476.31 or 476.32, or to evaluate a proposal for reorganization under section 476.73, the public utility shall pay the expense reasonably attributable to the investigation, appraisal, service, or review. The board shall ascertain the expenses including certified expenses incurred by the consumer advocate division of the department of justice directly chargeable to the public utility under section 475A.6, and shall render a bill to the public utility, either at the conclusion of the investigation, appraisal, services, or review, or from time to time during its progress, which bill is notice of the assessment and shall demand payment. The total amount of such expense in any one calendar year, for which any public utility shall become liable, shall not exceed two-tenths of one percent of its gross operating revenues derived from intrastate public utility operations in the last preceding calendar year.

The board shall ascertain the total of the division's expenditures during each year which are reasonably attributable to the performance of its duties under this chapter. The board shall add to this total the certified expenses of the consumer advocate as provided under section 475A.6 and shall deduct all amounts chargeable directly to any specific utility under any law. The remainder shall be assessed by the board to the public utilities in proportion to their respective gross operating revenues during the last calendar year derived from intrastate public utility operations and may be assessed by the board on a quarterly basis. Assessments may be made quarterly based upon estimates of the utilities division's and the consumer advocate's expenditures for the fiscal year. Beginning with the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1987, the first assessment for any fiscal year may be made by the utilities division by May 15 of the preceding fiscal year and shall be paid by the utility on or before the following July 1. Not more than ninety days following the close of the fiscal year, the utilities division shall conform the amount of the prior fiscal year's assessments to the requirements of this section. Public utilities exempt from rate regulation under this chapter shall not be assessed for remainder expenses incurred during review of rate-regulated public utilities under section 476.31 or 476.32, but such remainder expenses shall be assessed proportionally as provided in this section among only the rate-regulated public utilities. The total amount which may be assessed to the public utilities under authority of this paragraph shall not exceed two-tenths of one percent of the total gross operating revenues of the public utilities during the calendar year derived from intrastate public utility operations. However, the total amount which may be assessed in any one calendar year to a public utility under this section shall not exceed three-tenths of one percent of the utility's total gross operating revenues derived from intrastate public utility operation in the last preceding year. For public utilities exempted from rate regulation under this chapter, the assessments under this paragraph shall be computed at one-half the rate used in computing the assessment for other utilities.

Each utility shall pay the division the amount assessed against it within thirty days from the time the division mails notice to it of the amount due unless it shall file with the board objections in writing setting out the grounds upon which it claims that such assessment is excessive, erroneous, unlawful, or invalid. Upon the filing of such objections the board shall set the matter down for hearing and issue its order in accordance with its findings in such proceeding, which order shall be subject to review in the manner provided in this chapter. All amounts collected by the division pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be deposited with the state treasurer and credited to the general fund of the state. Such amounts shall be spent in accordance with the provisions of chapter 8.

Whenever the board shall deem it necessary in order to carry out the duties imposed upon it in connection with rate regulation under section 476.6, investigations under section 476.3, or review proceedings under section 476.31, the board may employ additional temporary or permanent staff, or may contract with persons who are not state employees for engineering, accounting, or other professional services, or both. The costs of these additional employees and contract services shall be paid by the public utility whose rates are being reviewed in the same manner as other expenses are paid under this section. The board shall increase quarterly assessments specified in unnumbered paragraph two, by amounts necessary to enable the board to hire additional staff and contract for services under this section. The authority to hire additional temporary or permanent staff that is granted to the board by this section shall not be subject to limitation by any administrative or executive order or decision that restricts the number of state employees or the filling of employee vacancies, and shall not be subject to limitation by any law of this state that restricts the number of state employees or the filling of employee vacancies unless that law is made applicable to this section by express reference to this section. Before the board expends or encumbers an amount in excess of the funds budgeted for rate regulation and before the board increases quarterly assessments pursuant to this paragraph, the director of the department of management shall approve the expenditure or encumbrance. Before approval is given, the director of the department of management shall determine that the expenses exceed the funds budgeted by the general assembly to the board for rate regulation and that the board does not have other funds from which the expenses can be paid. Upon approval of the director of the department of management the board may expend and encumber funds for the excess expenses, and increase quarterly assessments to raise the additional funds.

Fees paid to the utilities division shall be deposited in a utilities trust fund. The treasurer of state shall hold these funds in an account that shall be established in the names of the administrator of the utilities division and the consumer advocate for the payment, upon appropriation by the general assembly, of the expenses of the utilities division and the consumer advocate division of the department of justice. This fund is subject at all times to the warrant of the director of revenue and finance, drawn upon written requisition of the administrator of the utilities division, the administrator's designated representative, the consumer advocate, or the consumer advocate's designated representative for the payment of all salaries and other expenses necessary to carry out the duties of the utilities division or the consumer advocate division. Subject to this section, the utilities division or the consumer advocate division may keep on hand with the treasurer of state funds in excess of the current needs of the utilities division or the consumer advocate division. Transfers shall not be made from the general fund of the state or any other fund for the payment of the expenses of the divisions. No part of the funds held by the treasurer of state for the account shall be transferred to the general fund of the state or any other fund. The funds held by the treasurer of state for the account shall be invested by the treasurer of state and the income derived from these investments shall be credited to the general fund of the state. The authority to modify allotments provided in section 8.31 shall not apply to funds appropriated from the fund created in this section.

The administrator and consumer advocate shall account for receipts and disbursements according to the separate duties imposed upon the utilities and consumer advocate divisions by the laws of this state and each separate duty shall be fiscally self-sustaining.

476.33 Rules governing hearings.

1. The board shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A to provide for the completion of proceedings under section 476.3 within ten months after the date of the filing of a petition under section 476.3, subsection 2, and to provide for the completion of proceedings under section 476.6 within ten months after the date of filing of the new or changed rates, charges, schedules, or regulations under that section. These rules shall include reasonable time limitations for the submission or completion of comments and testimony, and exhibits, briefs, and hearings, and may provide for the granting of additional time upon the request of a party to the proceeding or division staff for good cause shown.

2. Additional time granted to a party or to division staff under subsection 1 shall not extend the amount of time for which a utility is required to file a bond or other undertaking conditioned upon refund under section 476.3, subsection 2.

3. If in a proceeding under section 476.6 additional time is granted to a party or division staff under subsection 1, the board may extend the ten-month period during which a utility is prohibited from placing its entire rate increase request into effect under section 476.6, but an extension shall not exceed the aggregate amount of all additional time granted under subsection 1.

4. The board shall adopt rules that require the board, in rate regulatory proceedings under sections 476.3 and 476.6, to consider the use of the most current test period possible in determining reasonable and just rates, subject only to the availability of existing and verifiable data respecting costs and revenues, and in addition to consider verifiable data that exists as of the date of commencement of the proceedings respecting known and measurable changes in costs not associated with a different level of revenue, and known and measurable revenues not associated with a different level of costs, that are to occur at any time within twelve months after the date of commencement of the proceedings. For purposes of this subsection, a proceeding commences under section 476.6 upon the filing date of new or changed rates, charges, schedules or regulations. This subsection does not limit the authority of the board to consider other evidence in proceedings under sections 476.3 and 476.6.

Subsection 1 amended

476.52 Management efficiency.

It is the policy of this state that a public utility shall operate in an efficient manner. If the board determines in the course of a proceeding conducted under section 476.3 or 476.6 that a utility is operating in an inefficient manner, or is not exercising ordinary, prudent management, or in comparison with other utilities in the state the board determines that the utility is performing in a less beneficial manner than other utilities, the board may reduce the level of profit or adjust the revenue requirement for the utility to the extent the board believes appropriate to provide incentives to the utility to correct its inefficient operation. If the board determines in the course of a proceeding conducted under section 476.3 or 476.6 that a utility is operating in such an extraordinarily efficient manner that tangible financial benefits result to the ratepayer, the board may increase the level of profit or adjust the revenue requirement for the utility. In making its determination under this section, the board may also consider a public utility's pursuit of energy efficiency programs. The board shall adopt rules for determining the level of profit or the revenue requirement adjustment that would be appropriate.

The board shall also adopt rules establishing a methodology for an analysis of a utility's management efficiency.

PUBLIC UTILITY AFFILIATES

476.71 Purpose.

It is the intent of the general assembly that a public utility should not directly or indirectly include in regulated rates or charges any costs or expenses of an affiliate engaged in any business other than that of utility business unless the affiliate provides goods or services to the public utility. The costs that are included should be reasonably necessary and appropriate for utility business. It is also the intent of the general assembly that a public utility should only provide nonutility services in a manner that minimizes the possibility of cross-subsidization or unfair competitive advantage.

89 Acts, ch 103, §2 SF 373
NEW section

476.72 Definitions.

As used in this division, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Affiliate" means a party that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a rate-regulated public utility.

2. "Control" means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of an enterprise through ownership, by contract or otherwise.

3. "Nonutility service" includes the sale, lease, or other conveyance of commercial and residential gas or electric appliances, interior lighting systems and fixtures, or heating, ventilating, or air conditioning systems and component parts or the servicing, repair, or maintenance of such equipment.

4. "Public utility" includes only gas or electric rate-regulated public utilities and rate-regulated telephone utilities providing local exchange telecommunication service.

5. "Utility business" means the generation or transmission of electricity or furnishing of gas or furnishing electricity or furnishing rate-regulated communications services to the public for compensation.

89 Acts, ch 103, §3 SF 373

476.73 Affiliate records.

1. Access to records. Every public utility and affiliate through the public utility shall provide the board with access to books, records, accounts, documents, and other data and information which the board finds necessary to effectively implement and effectuate the provisions of this chapter.

2. Separate records. The board may require affiliates of a public utility to keep separate records and the board may provide for the examination and inspection of the books, accounts, papers, and records, as may be necessary to enforce this chapter.

3. Allocation permitted. The board may inquire as to and prescribe, for ratemaking purposes, the allocation of capitalization, earnings, debts, and expenses related to ownership, operation, or management of affiliates.

89 Acts, ch 103, §4 SF 373

476.74 Affiliate information required to be filed.

1. Goods and services. All contracts or arrangements providing for the furnishing or receiving of goods and services including but not limited to the furnishing or receiving of management, supervisory, construction, engineering, accounting, legal, financial, marketing, data processing, or similar services made or entered into on or after July 1, 1989, between a public utility and any affiliate shall be filed annually with the board.

2. Sales, purchases, and leases. All contracts or arrangements for the purchase, sale, lease, or exchange of any property, right, or thing made or entered into on or after July 1, 1989, between a public utility and any affiliate shall be filed annually with the board.

3. Loans. All contracts or arrangements providing for any loan of money or an extension or renewal of any loan of money or any similar transaction made or entered into on or after July 1, 1989, between a public utility and any affiliate, whether as guarantor, endorser, surety, or otherwise, shall be filed annually with the board.

4. Verified copies required. Every public utility shall file with the board a verified copy of the contract or arrangement referred to in this section, or a verified summary of the unwritten contract or arrangement, and also of all the contracts and arrangements or a verified summary of the unwritten contracts or arrangements, whether written or unwritten, entered into prior to July 1, 1989, and in force and effect at that time. Any contract or agreement determined by the board to be a confidential record pursuant to section 22.7 shall be returned to the public utility filing the confidential record within sixty days after the contract or agreement is filed.

5. Exemption. The provisions of this section requiring filing of contracts or agreements with the board shall not apply to transactions with an affiliate where the amount of consideration involved is not in excess of fifty thousand dollars or five percent of the capital equity of the utility, whichever is smaller. However, regularly recurring payments under a general or continuing arrangement which aggregate a greater annual amount shall not be broken down into a series of transactions to come within this exemption. In any proceeding involving the rates, charges or practices of the public utility, the board may exclude from the accounts of the public utility any unreasonable payment or compensation made pursuant to any contract or arrangement which is not required to be filed under this subsection.

6. Continuing jurisdiction. The board shall have the same jurisdiction over modifications or amendments of contracts or arrangements in this section as it has over the original contracts or arrangements. Any modification or amendment of contracts or arrangements shall also be filed annually with the board.

7. Sanction. For ratemaking purposes, the board may exclude the payment or compensation to an affiliate or adjust the revenue received from an affiliate associated with any contract or arrangement required to be filed with the board if the contract or arrangement is not so filed.

8. Alternative information. The board shall consult with other state and federal regulatory agencies for the purpose of eliminating duplicate or conflicting filing requirements and may adopt rules which provide that comparable information required to be filed with other state or federal regulatory agencies may be accepted by the board in lieu of information required by this section.

9. Reasonableness required. In any proceeding, whether upon the board's own motion or upon application or complaint involving the rates, charges, or practices of any public utility, the board, for ratemaking purposes may exclude from the accounts of the public utility or adjust any payment or compensation related to any transaction with an affiliate for any services rendered or for any property or service furnished or received, as described in this section, under contracts or arrangements with an affiliate unless and upon inquiry the public utility shall establish the reasonableness of the payment or compensation.

10. Exemption by rule or waiver. The board may adopt rules which exempt any public utility or class of public utility or class of contracts or arrangements from this section or waive the requirements of this section if the board finds that the exemption or waiver is in the public interest.

476.75 Audits required.

The board may periodically retain a nationally or regionally recognized independent auditing firm to conduct an audit of the transactions between a public utility and its affiliates. An affiliate transaction audit shall not be conducted more frequently than every three years, unless ordered by the board for good cause. The cost of the audit shall be paid by the public utility to the independent auditing firm and shall be included in its regulated rates and charges, unless otherwise ordered by the board for good cause after providing the public utility the opportunity for a hearing on the board's decision.

89 Acts, ch 103, §6 SF 373

476.76 Reorganization defined.

For purposes of this division unless the context otherwise requires, "reorganization" means either of the following:

1. The acquisition, sale, lease, or any other disposition, directly or indirectly, including by merger or consolidation, of the whole or any substantial part of a public utility's assets.
2. The purchase or other acquisition or sale or other disposition of the controlling capital stock of any public utility, either directly or indirectly.

89 Acts, ch 103, §7 SF 373

476.77 Time and standards for review.

1. A reorganization shall not take place if the board disapproves. Prior to reorganization, the applicant shall file with the board a proposal for reorganization with supporting testimony and evidence to establish that the reorganization is not contrary to the interests of the public utility's ratepayers and the public interest.

2. A proposal for reorganization shall be deemed to have been approved unless the board disapproves the proposal within forty-five days after its filing. However, the board shall not disapprove a proposal for reorganization without providing for notice and opportunity for hearing. The notice of hearing shall be provided no later than twenty-one days after the proposal for reorganization has been filed.

3. In its review of a proposal for reorganization, the board may consider all of the following:

- a. Whether the board will have reasonable access to books, records, documents, and other information relating to the public utility or any of its affiliates.
- b. Whether the public utility's ability to attract capital on reasonable terms, including the maintenance of a reasonable capital structure, is impaired.
- c. Whether the ability of the public utility to provide safe, reasonable, and adequate service is impaired.
- d. Whether ratepayers are detrimentally affected.
- e. Whether the public interest is detrimentally affected.

4. The board may adopt rules which exempt any public utility or class of public utility or class of reorganization from this section if the board finds that with respect to the public utility or class of public utility or class of reorganization review is not necessary in the public interest. The board may adopt rules necessary to protect the interest of the customers of the exempt public utility. These rules may include, but are not limited to, notification of a proposed sale or transfer of assets or stock. The board may waive the requirements of this section, if the board finds that board review is not necessary in the public interest.

476.78 Cross-subsidization prohibited.

A rate-regulated gas or electric public utility shall not directly or indirectly include any costs or expenses attributable to providing nonutility service in regulated rates or charges.

89 Acts, ch 103, §9 SF 373

476.79 Provision of nonutility service.

1. A rate-regulated gas or electric public utility providing any nonutility service to its customers shall keep and render to the board separate records of the nonutility service. The board may provide for the examination and inspection of the books, accounts, papers, and records of the nonutility service, as may be necessary, to enforce any provisions of this chapter.

2. The board shall adopt rules which specify the manner and form of the accounts relating to providing nonutility services which the rate-regulated gas or electric utility shall maintain.

89 Acts, ch 103, §10 SF 373

476.80 Additional requirements.

A rate-regulated gas or electric public utility which engages in a systematic marketing effort as defined by the board, other than on an incidental or casual basis, to promote the availability of nonutility service from the public utility shall make available at reasonable compensation on a nondiscriminatory basis to all persons engaged primarily in providing the same competitive nonutility services in that area all of the following services to the same extent utilized by the public utility in connection with its nonutility services:

1. Access to and use of the public utility's customer lists.
2. Access to and use of the public utility's billing and collection system.
3. Access to and use of the public utility's mailing system.

89 Acts, ch 103, §11 SF 373

476.81 Audit required.

The board may periodically retain a nationally or regionally recognized independent auditing firm to conduct an audit of the nonutility services provided by a rate-regulated gas or electric public utility subject to the provisions of section 476.80. A nonutility service audit shall not be conducted more frequently than every three years, unless ordered by the board for good cause. The cost of the audit shall be paid by the public utility to the independent auditing firm and shall be included in its regulated rates and charges, unless otherwise ordered by the board for good cause after providing the public utility the opportunity for a hearing on the board's decision.

476.82 Exemption—energy efficiency.

Notwithstanding any language to the contrary, nothing in this division shall prohibit a public utility from participating in or conducting energy efficiency projects or programs established or approved by the board or required by statute. A public utility participating in or conducting energy efficiency projects or programs established or approved by the board or required by statute shall not be subject to the provisions of sections 476.80 and 476.81 for those energy efficiency projects or programs.

89 Acts, ch 103, §13 SF 373

476.83 Complaints.

Any person may file a written complaint with the board requesting the board to determine compliance by a rate-regulated gas or electric utility with the provisions of section 476.78, 476.79, or 476.80 or any validly adopted rules to implement those sections. If the board determines there is any reasonable ground to investigate the complaint, the board shall promptly initiate formal complaint proceedings. The formal proceeding may be initiated at any time by the board on its own motion.

ALTERNATIVE OPERATOR SERVICES

476.91 Alternative operator services.

1. Definitions. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

a. "Alternative operator services company" means a nongovernmental company which receives more than half of its Iowa intrastate telecommunications services revenues from calls placed by end-user customers from telephones other than ordinary residence or business telephones. The definition is further limited to include only companies which provide operator assistance, either through live or automated intervention, on calls placed from other than ordinary residence or business telephones, and does not include services provided under contract to rate-regulated local exchange utilities.

b. "Contracting entity" means an entity providing telephones other than ordinary residence or business telephones for use by end-user customers which has contracted with an alternative operator services company to provide telecommunications services to those telephones.

c. "End-user customer" means a person who places a local or toll call.

d. "Other than ordinary residence or business telephones" means telephones other than the residence or business telephones of the customary users of the telephones, including but not limited to pay telephones and telephones in motel, hotel, hospital, and college dormitory rooms.

2. Jurisdiction. Notwithstanding any finding by the board that a service or facility is subject to competition and should be deregulated pursuant to section 476.1, all intrastate telecommunications services provided by alternative operator services companies to end-user customers, using other than ordinary residence or business telephones, are subject to the jurisdiction of the board and shall be rendered pursuant to tariffs approved by the board. Alternative operator services companies shall be subject to all requirements and sanctions provided in this chapter. Contracting entities shall be subject to the requirements of any board regulations concerning telecommunications services provided by alternative operator services companies.

3. Requirements. The board shall adopt and enforce requirements for the provision of services by alternative operator services companies and contracting entities.

4. Billing by local exchange utilities. Notwithstanding any finding by the board that a service or facility is subject to competition and should be deregulated pursuant to section 476.1, a regulated local exchange utility shall not perform billing and collection functions relating to regulated telecommunications services provided by an alternative operator services company, unless the alternative operator services company has filed a statement with the local exchange utility signed by a corporate officer, or other authorized person having personal knowledge, that all regulated telecommunications services to be billed shall be rendered pursuant to tariffs approved by the board.

TELEGRAPH AND TELEPHONE LINES AND COMPANIES— CABLE SYSTEMS

477.9A Deregulated services.

A telegraph or telephone company whose services are deregulated by the board under section 476.1 may use public notice as a means of conveying terms and conditions to customers where identification of those customers is infeasible or impractical. Public notice may also be used to convey changes in terms and conditions, other than price increases or limitations of liability, to all other customers, but only if those customers were put on notice that this means would be used to convey subsequent changes. Notwithstanding section 477.7, when services are deregulated by the board under section 476.1, a telegraph or telephone company, in any contract, agreement, or by means of public notice, may reasonably limit its liability under section 477.7 in the course of providing the deregulated communications services to its customers, except for acts of willful misconduct. However, this section shall not be construed to allow a greater limitation on liability than exists in any contract or approved tariff as of the effective date of the deregulation of the services.

CHAPTER 477B

ENHANCED 911 EMERGENCY TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION SYSTEMS

477B.3 Joint 911 service board—911 service plan—implementation—waivers.

1. Joint 911 service boards to submit plans. The board of supervisors of each county shall establish a joint 911 service board not later than January 1, 1989. Each political subdivision of the state having a public safety agency serving territory within the county is entitled to voting membership on the joint 911 service board. Each private safety agency operating within the area is entitled to nonvoting membership on the board. A township which does not operate its own public safety agency, but contracts for the provision of public safety services, is not entitled to membership on the joint 911 service board, but its contractor is entitled to membership according to the contractor's status as a public or private safety agency. The joint 911 service board shall develop an enhanced 911 service plan encompassing at minimum the entire county, unless an exemption is granted by the administrator permitting a smaller E911 service area. The administrator may grant a discretionary exemption from the single county minimum service area requirement based upon an E911 joint service board's or other E911 service plan operating authority's presentation of evidence which supports the requested exemption if the administrator finds that local conditions make adherence to the minimum standard unreasonable or technically infeasible, and that the purposes of this chapter would be furthered by granting an exemption. The minimum size requirement is intended to prevent unnecessary duplication of public safety answering points and minimize other administrative, personnel, and equipment expenses. An E911 service area must encompass a geographically contiguous area. No exemption shall be granted from the contiguous area requirement. The administrator may order the inclusion of a specific territory in an adjoining E911 service plan area to avoid the creation by exclusion of a territory smaller than a single county not serviced by surrounding E911 service plan areas upon request of the joint 911 service board representing the territory. The E911 service plan operating authority shall submit the plan on or before March 1, 1989, to all of the following:

- a. The division.
- b. Public and private safety agencies in the enhanced 911 service area.
- c. Providers affected by the enhanced 911 service plan.

The division shall prepare a statewide summary of the plans submitted and present the summary to the legislature on or before June 1, 1989.

2. Compliance waivers available in limited circumstances. The administrator may extend, in whole or in part, the time for implementation of an enhanced 911 service plan beyond the scheduled plan of implementation, by issuance of a compliance waiver. The waiver shall be based upon a joint 911 service board's presentation of evidence which supports an extension if the administrator finds that local conditions make implementation financially unreasonable or technically infeasible by the originally scheduled plan of implementation. The compliance waiver shall be for a set period of time, and subject to review and renewal or denial of renewal upon its expiration. The waiver may cover all or a portion of a 911 service plan's enhanced 911 service area to facilitate phased implementation when possible. The granting of a compliance waiver does not create a presumption that the identical or similar waiver will be extended in the future. Consideration of compliance waivers shall be on a case-by-case basis.

3. Chapter 28E agreement—alternative to joint 911 service board. A legal entity created pursuant to chapter 28E by a county or counties, other political divisions, and public or private agencies to jointly plan, implement, and operate a county-wide, or larger, enhanced 911 service system may be substituted for the joint 911 service board required under subsection 1.

An alternative legal entity created pursuant to chapter 28E as a substitute for a joint 911 service board, as permitted by this subsection, may be created by either:

a. Agreement of the parties entitled to voting membership on a joint 911 service board.

b. Agreement of the members of a joint 911 service board.

An alternative chapter 28E entity has all of the powers of a joint 911 service board and any additional powers granted by the agreement. As used in this chapter, "joint 911 service board" includes an alternative chapter 28E entity created for that purpose, except as specifically limited by the chapter 28E agreement or unless clearly provided otherwise in this chapter. A chapter 28E agreement related to E911 service shall permit the participation of a private safety agency or other persons allowed to participate in a joint 911 service board, but the terms, scope, and conditions of participation are subject to the chapter 28E agreement.

4. Participation in joint E911 service board required. A political subdivision or state agency having a public safety agency within its territory or jurisdiction shall participate in a joint E911 service board and cooperate in preparing the E911 service plan.

477B.6 Referendum on E911 in proposed service area.

1. Before a joint E911 service board may request imposition of the surcharge by the administrator, the board shall submit the following question to voters, as provided in subsection 2, in the proposed E911 service area, and the question shall receive a favorable vote from a simple majority of persons submitting valid ballots on the following question within the proposed E911 service area:

"Should enhanced 911 emergency telephone service be funded, in whole or in part, by a surcharge of (up to twenty-five cents) per month per telephone access line collected as part of each telephone subscriber's monthly phone bill if provided within (description of the proposed E911 service area)?"

2. The referendum required as a condition of the surcharge imposition in subsection 1 shall be conducted using the following electoral mechanism:

At the request of the joint E911 service board a county commissioner of elections shall include the question on the next eligible general election ballot in each electoral precinct to be served, in whole or in part, by the proposed E911 service area, provided the request is timely submitted to permit inclusion. The question may be included in the next election in which all of the voters in the proposed E911 service area will be eligible to vote on the same day, such as a primary, general, or school board election. The county commissioner of elections shall report the results to the joint E911 service board. The joint E911 service board shall compile the results if subscribers from more than one county are included within the proposed service area. The joint E911 service board shall announce whether a simple majority of the compiled votes reported by the commissioner approved the referendum question.

3. The secretary of state, in consultation with the administrator of the office of disaster services of the department of public defense, shall adopt rules for the conduct of joint E911 service referendums as required by and consistent with subsections 1 and 2.

477B.7 Funding—E911 service surcharge.

When an E911 service plan is implemented, the costs of providing E911 service within an E911 service area are the responsibility of the joint E911 service board and the member political subdivisions. Costs in excess of the amount raised by imposition of the E911 service surcharge provided for under subsection 1, shall be paid by the joint E911 service board from such revenue sources allocated among the member political subdivisions as determined by the joint E911 service board. Funding is not limited to the surcharge, and surcharge revenues may be supplemented by other permissible local and state revenue sources. A joint 911 service board shall not commit a political subdivision to appropriate property tax revenues to fund an E911 service plan without the consent of the political subdivision. A joint 911 service board may approve a 911 service plan, including a funding formula requiring appropriations by participating political subdivisions, subject to the approval of the funding formula by each political subdivision. However, a political subdivision may agree in advance to appropriate property tax revenues or other moneys according to a formula or plan developed by an alternative chapter 28E entity.

1. Local E911 service surcharge imposition.

a. To encourage local implementation of E911 service, one source of funding for E911 emergency telephone communication systems shall come from a surcharge of twenty-five cents, per month, per access line on each access line subscriber, except as provided in subsection 5. The surcharge shall be imposed by order of the administrator as follows:

(1) The administrator shall notify a provider scheduled to provide exchange access line service to an E911 service area, that implementation of an E911 service plan has been approved by the joint 911 service board and by the service area referendum, and that collection of the surcharge is to begin within one hundred days.

(2) The notice shall be provided at least one hundred days before the surcharge must be billed for the first time.

b. The surcharge shall terminate at the end of twenty-four months, unless either, or both, of the following conditions is met:

(1) E911 service is initiated for all or a part of the E911 service area.

(2) An extension is granted by the administrator for good cause.

c. The surcharge shall terminate at the end of twenty-four months if the joint E911 service plan has not been approved by the administrator within eighteen months of the original notice to the provider to impose the surcharge, and shall not be reimposed until a service plan is approved by the administrator and the administrator gives providers notice as required by paragraph "a", subparagraphs (1) and (2).

2. Surcharge collected by providers. The surcharge shall be collected as part of the access line service provider's periodic billing to a subscriber. In compensation for the costs of billing and collection, the provider may retain one percent of the gross surcharges collected. If the compensation is insufficient to fully recover a provider's costs for billing and collection of the surcharge, the deficiency shall be included in the provider's costs for ratemaking purposes to the extent it is reasonable and just under section 476.6. The surcharge shall be remitted to the E911 service operating authority for deposit into the E911 service fund quarterly by the provider. A provider is not liable for an uncollected surcharge for which the provider has billed a subscriber but not been paid. The surcharge shall appear as a single line item on a subscriber's periodic billing entitled, "E911 emergency telephone service surcharge". The E911 service surcharge is not subject to sales or use tax.

3. Maximum limit per subscriber billing for surcharge. An individual subscriber shall not be required to pay on a single periodic billing the surcharge on more than one hundred access lines, or their equivalent, in an E911 service area. A subscriber shall pay the surcharge in each E911 service area in which the subscriber receives access line service.

4. E911 service fund. Each joint E911 service board shall establish and maintain as a separate account an E911 service fund. Any funds remaining in the account at the end of each fiscal year shall not revert to the general funds of the member political subdivisions, except as provided in subsection 5, but shall remain in the E911 service fund. Moneys in an E911 service fund may only be used for nonrecurring and recurring costs of the E911 service plan as approved by the administrator, as those terms are defined by section 477B.2.

5. Use of moneys in fund—priority and limitations on expenditure. Moneys deposited in the E911 service fund shall be used for the following, in order of priority:

a. Money shall first be spent for actual recurring costs of operating the E911 service plan.

b. If money remains in the fund after fully paying for recurring costs incurred in the preceding year, the remainder may be spent to pay for nonrecurring costs, not to exceed actual nonrecurring costs as approved by the administrator.

c. If money remains in the fund after fully paying obligations under subsections 1 and 2, the remainder may be accumulated in the fund as a carryover operating surplus. If the surplus is greater than twenty-five percent of the approved annual operating budget for the next year, the administrator shall reduce the surcharge by an amount calculated to result in a surplus of no more than twenty-five percent of the planned annual operating budget. After nonrecurring costs have been paid, if the surcharge is less than twenty-five cents and the fund surplus is less than twenty-five percent of the approved annual operating budget, the administrator shall, upon application of the joint E911 service board, increase the surcharge in an amount calculated to result in a surplus of twenty-five percent of the approved annual operating budget. In no case may the surcharge exceed twenty-five cents per month, per access line. The surcharge may only be adjusted once in a single year, upon one hundred days' prior notice to the provider.

6. Limitation of actions—provider not liable on cause of action related to provision of 911 services. A claim or cause of action does not exist based upon or arising out of an act or omission in connection with a provider's participation in an E911 service plan or provision of 911 or local exchange access service, unless the act or omission is determined to be willful and wanton negligence.

CHAPTER 478A

GAS LAMPS

478A.7 Decorative gas lamps.

1. Commencing January 1, 1979 a person shall not sell or offer for sale in this state a decorative gas lamp manufactured after December 31, 1978.

2. As used in this section "decorative gas lamp" means a device installed for the purpose of producing illumination by burning natural, mixed or liquid petroleum gas and utilizing either a mantle or an open flame, but does not include portable camp lanterns or gas lamps.

3. Persons convicted of violating this section shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

4. Notwithstanding subsection 1, commencing January 1, 1990, a person may sell or offer for sale in this state a decorative gas lamp manufactured after December 31, 1978, if the utilities board within the utilities division of the department of commerce determines, after notice and an opportunity for interested persons to comment at an oral presentation, that the sale or offer for sale of decorative gas lamps does not violate the public interest.

2. The document must be filed in the office of the secretary of state.
3. The document must contain the information required by this chapter. It may contain other information as well.
4. The document must be typewritten or printed.
5. The document must be in the English language. A corporate name need not be in English if written in English letters or Arabic or Roman numerals, and the certificate of existence required of foreign corporations need not be in English if accompanied by a reasonably authenticated English translation.
6. Except as provided in section 490.1622, subsection 2, the document must be executed by one of the following methods:
  - a. The chairperson of the board of directors of a domestic or foreign corporation, its president, or another of its officers.
  - b. If directors have not been selected or the corporation has not been formed, by an incorporator.
  - c. If the corporation is in the hands of a receiver, trustee, or other court-appointed fiduciary, by that fiduciary.
7. The person executing the document shall sign it and state beneath or opposite the person's signature, the person's name and the capacity in which the person signs. The document may, but need not, contain:
  - a. The corporate seals.
  - b. An attestation by the secretary or an assistant secretary.
  - c. An acknowledgment, verification, or proof.

The secretary of state may accept for filing a document containing a copy of a signature, however made.

8. If the secretary of state has prescribed a mandatory form for the document under section 490.121, the document must be in or on the prescribed form.

9. The document must be delivered to the office of the secretary of state for filing and must be accompanied by the correct filing fee.

490.124 Correcting filed documents.

1. A domestic or foreign corporation may correct a document filed by the secretary of state if the document satisfies one or both of the following requirements:

a. Contains an incorrect statement.

b. Was defectively executed, attested, sealed, verified, or acknowledged.

2. A document is corrected by complying with both of the following:

a. By preparing articles of correction that satisfy all of the following requirements:

(1) Describe the document, including its filing date, or attach a copy of it to the articles.

(2) Specify the incorrect statement and the reason it is incorrect or the manner in which the execution was defective.

(3) Correct the incorrect statement or defective execution.

b. By delivering the articles to the secretary of state for filing.

3. Articles of correction are effective on the effective date of the document they correct except as to persons relying on the uncorrected document and adversely affected by the correction. As to those persons, articles of correction are effective when filed.

490.125 Filing duty of secretary of state.

1. If a document delivered to the office of the secretary of state for filing satisfies the requirements of section 490.120, the secretary of state shall file it.

2. The secretary of state files a document by stamping or otherwise endorsing "filed", together with the secretary's name and official title and the date and time of receipt, on both the document and the receipt for the filing fee. After filing a document, except the annual report required by section 490.1622, and except as provided in sections 490.503 and 490.1509, the secretary of state shall deliver the document, with the filing fee receipt, or acknowledgment of receipt if no fee is required, attached, to the domestic or foreign corporation or its representative.

3. If the secretary of state refuses to file a document, the secretary of state shall return it to the domestic or foreign corporation or its representative within ten days after the document was received by the secretary of state, together with a brief, written explanation of the reason for the refusal.

4. The secretary of state's duty to file documents under this section is ministerial. Filing or refusing to file a document does not:

a. Affect the validity or invalidity of the document in whole or part.

b. Relate to the correctness or incorrectness of information contained in the document.

c. Create a presumption that the document is valid or invalid or that information contained in the document is correct or incorrect.

490.126 Appeal from secretary of state's refusal to file document.

1. If the secretary of state refuses to file a document delivered to the secretary's office for filing, the domestic or foreign corporation may appeal the refusal, within thirty days after the return of the document, to the district court for the county in which the corporation's principal office or, if none in this state, its registered office is or will be located. The appeal is commenced by petitioning the court to compel filing the document and by attaching to the petition the document and the secretary of state's explanation of the refusal to file.

2. The court may summarily order the secretary of state to file the document or take other action the court considers appropriate.

3. The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

490.128 Certificate of existence.

1. Anyone may apply to the secretary of state to furnish a certificate of existence for a domestic corporation or a certificate of authorization for a foreign corporation.

2. A certificate of existence or authorization must set forth all of the following:

a. The domestic corporation's corporate name or the foreign corporation's corporate name used in this state.

b. That one of the following apply:

(1) If it is a domestic corporation, that it is duly incorporated under the law of this state, the date of its incorporation, and the period of its duration if less than perpetual.

(2) If it is a foreign corporation, that it is authorized to transact business in this state.

c. That all fees required by this chapter have been paid.

d. That its most recent annual report required by section 490.1622 has been filed by the secretary of state.

e. That articles of dissolution have not been filed.

f. Other facts of record in the office of the secretary of state that may be requested by the applicant.

3. Subject to any qualification stated in the certificate, a certificate of existence or authorization issued by the secretary of state may be relied upon as conclusive evidence that the domestic or foreign corporation is in existence or is authorized to transact business in this state.

490.130 Recording of documents with county recorder.

A domestic corporation shall provide the secretary of state with a copy of each document, except an annual report which does not change the registered office or registered agent of the corporation, delivered by the corporation for filing with the secretary of state. A registered agent who delivers to the secretary of state for filing a statement pursuant to section 490.502, subsection 2, or files a statement pursuant to section 490.502, subsection 3, shall provide a copy of the statement to the secretary of state. A registered agent who delivers to the secretary of state for filing a statement pursuant to section 490.503, subsection 1, shall provide an additional copy pursuant to this section. If a registered agent delivers for filing with the secretary of state a statement changing the operation's business address from one county to another county or the corporation delivers for filing with the secretary of state a statement changing its registered office from one county to another county, two copies of the statement shall be provided to the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall stamp the copy or copies provided by the corporation or registered agent indicating receipt by the secretary of state and shall send the copy or copies to the county recorder. Upon receipt of the copy and upon receipt of the recording fees due the county recorder, the county recorder shall record and index the copy and return the copy to the corporation or registered agent who provided the copy. Notwithstanding section 331.602, subsection 1, original signatures and typed or printed names of signatories are not required on the copy to be recorded pursuant to this section. For purposes of this section, "county recorder" means the county recorder of the county in which the registered office of the corporation is located as shown on the records of the secretary of state, except that with respect to a change of registered office changing the location of the registered office from one county to another, "county recorder" means the county recorder for the county in which the registered office is located before the change and the county recorder for the county in which the registered office is located after the change.

In this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

1. "Articles of incorporation" include amended and restated articles of incorporation and articles of merger.
2. "Authorized shares" means the shares of all classes a domestic or foreign corporation is authorized to issue.

3. "Conspicuous" means so written that a reasonable person against whom the writing is to operate should have noticed it. For example, printing in italics or boldface or contrasting color, or typing in capitals or underlined, is conspicuous.

4. "Corporation" or "domestic corporation" means a corporation for profit, which is not a foreign corporation, incorporated under or subject to this chapter.

5. "Deliver" includes mail delivery.

6. "Distribution" means a direct or indirect transfer of money or other property, except its own shares, or incurrence of indebtedness by a corporation to or for the benefit of its shareholders in respect of any of its shares. A distribution may be in the form of a declaration or payment of a dividend; a purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of shares; a distribution of indebtedness; or otherwise.

7. "Effective date of notice" is defined in section 490.141.

8. "Employee" includes an officer but not a director. A director may accept duties that make the director also an employee.

9. "Entity" includes corporation and foreign corporation; not-for-profit corporation; profit and not-for-profit unincorporated association; business trust, estate, partnership, trust, and two or more persons having a joint or common economic interest; and state, United States, and foreign government.

10. "Foreign corporation" means a corporation for profit incorporated under a law other than the law of this state.

11. "Governmental subdivision" includes authority, city, county, district, township, and other political subdivision.

12. "Includes" denotes a partial definition.

13. "Individual" includes the estate of an incompetent, a ward, or a deceased individual.

14. "Means" denotes an exhaustive definition.

15. "Notice" is defined in section 490.141.

16. "Person" means a person as defined in section 4.1 and includes an individual and an entity.

17. "Principal office" means the office, in or out of this state, so designated in the annual report, where the principal executive offices of a domestic or foreign corporation are located.

18. "Proceeding" includes civil suit and criminal, administrative, and investigatory action.

19. "Record date" means the date established under division VI or VII on which a corporation determines the identity of its shareholders for purposes of this chapter.

20. "Secretary" means the corporate officer to whom the board of directors has delegated responsibility under section 490.840, subsection 3, for custody of the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors and of the shareholders and for authenticating records of the corporation.

21. "Share" means the unit into which the proprietary interests in a corporation are divided.

22. "Shareholder" means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.

23. "State", when referring to a part of the United States, includes a state and commonwealth and their agencies and governmental subdivisions, and a territory and insular possession and their agencies and governmental subdivisions, of the United States.

24. "Subscriber" means a person who subscribes for shares in a corporation, whether before or after incorporation.

25. "United States" includes a district, authority, bureau, commission, department, and any other agency of the United States.

26. “Voting group” means all shares of one or more classes or series that under the articles of incorporation or this chapter are entitled to vote and be counted together collectively on a matter at a meeting of shareholders. All shares entitled by the articles of incorporation or this chapter to vote generally on the matter are for that purpose a single voting group.

490.141 Notice.

1. Notice under this chapter must be in writing unless oral notice is reasonable under the circumstances.

2. Notice may be communicated in person; by telephone, telegraph, teletype, or other form of wire or wireless communication; or by mail or private carrier. If these forms of personal notice are impracticable, notice may be communicated by a newspaper of general circulation in the area where published; or by radio, television, or other form of public broadcast communication.

3. Written notice by a domestic or foreign corporation to its shareholder, if in a comprehensible form, is effective when mailed, if mailed postpaid and correctly addressed to the shareholder’s address shown in the corporation’s current record of shareholders.

4. Written notice to a domestic or foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may be addressed to its registered agent at its registered office or to the corporation or its secretary at its principal office shown in its most recent annual report or, in the case of a foreign corporation that has not yet delivered an annual report, in its application for a certificate of authority.

5. Except as provided in subsection 3, written notice, if in a comprehensible form, is effective at the earliest of the following:

a. When received.

b. Five days after its deposit in the United States mail, as evidenced by the postmark, if mailed postpaid and correctly addressed.

c. On the date shown on the return receipt, if sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, and the receipt is signed by or on behalf of the addressee.

6. Oral notice is effective when communicated if communicated in a comprehensible manner.

7. If this chapter prescribes notice requirements for particular circumstances, those requirements govern. If articles of incorporation or bylaws prescribe notice requirements not inconsistent with this section or other provisions of this chapter, those requirements govern.

89 Acts, ch 288, §16 SF 502

490.142 Number of shareholders.

1. For purposes of this chapter, any of the following identified as a shareholder in a corporation’s current record of shareholders constitutes one shareholder:

a. Three or fewer co-owners.

b. A corporation, partnership, trust, estate, or other entity.

c. The trustees, guardians of the property, custodians, or other fiduciaries of a single trust, estate, or account.

2. For purposes of this chapter, shareholdings registered in substantially similar names constitute one shareholder if it is reasonable to believe that the names represent the same person.

DIVISION II
INCORPORATION

490.201 Incorporators.

One or more persons may act as the incorporator or incorporators of a corporation by executing and delivering articles of incorporation to the secretary of state for filing.

89 Acts, ch 288, §18 SF 502

490.202 Articles of incorporation.

1. The articles of incorporation must set forth all of the following:
  - a. A corporate name for the corporation that satisfies the requirements of section 490.401.
  - b. The number of shares the corporation is authorized to issue.
  - c. The street address of the corporation's initial registered office and the name of its initial registered agent at that office.
  - d. The name and address of each incorporator.
2. The articles of incorporation may set forth any or all of the following:
  - a. The names and addresses of the individuals who are to serve as the initial directors.
  - b. Provisions not inconsistent with law regarding:
    - (1) The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized.
    - (2) Managing the business and regulating the affairs of the corporation.
    - (3) Defining, limiting, and regulating the powers of the corporation, its board of directors, and shareholders.
    - (4) A par value for authorized shares or classes of shares.
    - (5) The imposition of personal liability on shareholders for the debts of the corporation to a specified extent and upon specified conditions.
  - c. Any provision that under this chapter is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws.
  - d. A provision consistent with section 490.832.
3. The articles of incorporation need not set forth any of the corporate powers enumerated in this chapter.

89 Acts, ch 288, §19 SF 502

490.203 Incorporation.

1. Unless a delayed effective date or time is specified, the corporate existence begins when the articles of incorporation are filed.
2. The secretary of state's filing of the articles of incorporation is conclusive proof that the incorporators satisfied all conditions precedent to incorporation except in a proceeding by the state to cancel or revoke the incorporation or involuntarily dissolve the corporation.

89 Acts, ch 288, §20 SF 502

490.204 Liability for preincorporation transactions.

All persons purporting to act as or on behalf of a corporation, knowing there was no incorporation under this chapter, are jointly and severally liable for all liabilities created while so acting.

89 Acts, ch 288, §21 SF 502
NEW section

490.205 Organization of corporation.

1. After incorporation:
  - a. If initial directors are named in the articles of incorporation, the initial directors shall hold an organizational meeting, at the call of a majority of the directors, to complete the organization of the corporation by appointing officers, adopting bylaws and carrying on any other business brought before the meeting.

b. If initial directors are not named in the articles, the incorporator or incorporators shall hold an organizational meeting at the call of a majority of the incorporators to do one of the following:

(1) Elect directors and complete the organization of the corporation.

(2) Elect a board of directors who shall complete the organization of the corporation.

2. Action required or permitted by this chapter to be taken by incorporators at an organizational meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action taken is evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken and signed by each incorporator.

3. An organizational meeting may be held in or out of this state.

89 Acts, ch 288, §22 SF 502

490.206 Bylaws.

1. The incorporators or board of directors of a corporation shall adopt initial bylaws for the corporation.

2. The bylaws of a corporation may contain any provision for managing the business and regulating the affairs of the corporation that is not inconsistent with law or the articles of incorporation.

89 Acts, ch 288, §23 SF 502

490.207 Emergency bylaws.

1. Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, the board of directors of a corporation may adopt bylaws to be effective only in an emergency defined in subsection 4. The emergency bylaws, which are subject to amendment or repeal by the shareholders, may make all provisions necessary for managing the corporation during the emergency, including:

a. Procedures for calling a meeting of the board of directors.

b. Quorum requirements for the meeting.

c. Designation of additional or substitute directors.

2. All provisions of the regular bylaws consistent with the emergency bylaws remain effective during the emergency. The emergency bylaws are not effective after the emergency ends.

3. Corporate action taken in good faith in accordance with the emergency bylaws has both of the following effects:

a. The action binds the corporation.

b. The action shall not be used to impose liability on a corporate director, officer, employee, or agent.

4. An emergency exists for purposes of this section if a quorum of the corporation's directors cannot readily be assembled because of some catastrophic event.

89 Acts, ch 288, §24 SF 502
NEW section

DIVISION III PURPOSES AND POWERS

490.301 Purposes.

1. A corporation incorporated under this chapter has the purpose of engaging in any lawful business unless a more limited purpose is set forth in the articles of incorporation.

2. A corporation engaging in a business that is subject to regulation under another statute of this state may incorporate under this chapter only if permitted by, and subject to all limitations of, the other statute.

89 Acts, ch 288, §25 SF 502

490.302 General powers.

Unless its articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a corporation has perpetual duration and succession in its corporate name and has the same powers as an individual to do all things necessary or convenient to carry out its business and affairs, including without limitation power to do all of the following:

1. Sue and be sued, complain, and defend in its corporate name.
2. Have a corporate seal, which may be altered at will, and use it, or a facsimile of it, by impressing or affixing it or in any other manner reproducing it.
3. Make and amend bylaws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state, for managing the business and regulating the affairs of the corporation.
4. Purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, and own, hold, improve, use, and otherwise deal with, real or personal property, or any legal or equitable interest in property, wherever located.
5. Sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property.
6. Purchase, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, and deal in and with shares or other interests in, or obligations of, any other entity.
7. Make contracts and guarantees, incur liabilities, borrow money, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, which may be convertible into or include the option to purchase other securities of the corporation, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of any of its property, franchises, or income.
8. Lend money, invest and reinvest its funds, and receive and hold real and personal property as security for repayment.
9. Be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager of any partnership, joint venture, trust, or other entity.
10. Conduct its business, locate offices, and exercise the powers granted by this chapter within or without this state.
11. Elect directors and appoint officers, employees, and agents of the corporation, define their duties, fix their compensation, and lend them money and credit.
12. Pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit sharing plans, share bonus plans, share option plans, and benefit or incentive plans for any or all of its current or former directors, officers, employees, and agents.
13. Make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific, or educational purposes.
14. Transact any lawful business that will aid governmental policy.
15. Make payments or donations, or do any other act, not inconsistent with law, that furthers the business and affairs of the corporation.

89 Acts, ch 288, §26 SF 502

490.303 Emergency powers.

1. In anticipation of or during an emergency as defined in subsection 4, the board of directors of a corporation may do either or both of the following:
  - a. Modify lines of succession to accommodate the incapacity of any director, officer, employee, or agent.
  - b. Relocate the principal office, designate alternative principal offices or regional offices, or authorize the officers to do so.

2. During an emergency defined in subsection 4, unless emergency bylaws provide otherwise:

a. Notice of a meeting of the board of directors need be given only to those directors whom it is practicable to reach and may be given in any practicable manner, including by publication and radio.

b. One or more officers of the corporation present at a meeting of the board of directors may be deemed to be directors for the meeting, in order of rank and within the same rank in order of seniority, as necessary to achieve a quorum.

3. Corporate action taken in good faith during an emergency under this section to further the ordinary business affairs of the corporation shall both:

a. Bind the corporation.

b. Not be used to impose liability on a corporate director, officer, employee, or agent.

4. An emergency exists for purposes of this section if a quorum of the corporation's directors cannot readily be assembled because of some catastrophic event.

89 Acts, ch 288, §27 SF 502

490.304 Ultra vires.

1. Except as provided in subsection 2, the validity of corporate action is not challengeable on the ground that the corporation lacks or lacked power to act.

2. A corporation's power to act may be challenged in any of the following proceedings:

a. By a shareholder against the corporation to enjoin the act.

b. By the corporation, directly, derivatively, or through a receiver, trustee, or other legal representative, against an incumbent or former director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation.

c. By the attorney general under section 490.1430.

3. In a shareholder's proceeding under subsection 2, paragraph "a", to enjoin an unauthorized corporate act, the court may enjoin or set aside the act, if equitable and if all affected persons are parties to the proceeding, and may award damages for loss, other than anticipated profits, suffered by the corporation or another party because of enjoining the unauthorized act.

89 Acts, ch 288, §28 SF 502
NEW section

DIVISION IV

NAMES

490.401 Corporate name.

1. A corporate name:

a. Must contain the word "corporation", "incorporated", "company", or "limited", or the abbreviation "corp.", "inc.", "co.", or "ltd.", or words or abbreviations of like import in another language.

b. Shall not contain language stating or implying that the corporation is organized for a purpose other than that permitted by section 490.301 and its articles of incorporation.

2. Except as authorized by subsections 3 and 4, a corporate name must be distinguishable upon the records of the secretary of state from all of the following:

a. The corporate name of a corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state.

b. A corporate name reserved or registered under section 490.402 or 490.403.

c. The fictitious name adopted by a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state because its real name is unavailable.

d. The corporate name of a not-for-profit corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state.

3. A corporation may apply to the secretary of state for authorization to use a name that is not distinguishable upon the secretary's records from one or more of the names described in subsection 2. The secretary of state shall authorize use of the name applied for if one of the following conditions applies:

a. The other corporation consents to the use in writing and submits an undertaking in form satisfactory to the secretary of state to change its name to a name that is distinguishable upon the records of the secretary of state from the name of the applying corporation.

b. The applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use the name applied for in this state.

4. A corporation may use the name, including the fictitious name, of another domestic or foreign corporation that is used in this state if the other corporation is incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state and the proposed user corporation meets one of the following conditions:

a. Has merged with the other corporation.

b. Has been formed by reorganization of the other corporation.

c. Has acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the corporate name, of the other corporation.

5. This chapter does not control the use of fictitious names; however, if a corporation uses a fictitious name in this state it shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing a copy of the resolution of its board of directors, certified by its secretary, adopting the fictitious name.

89 Acts, ch 288, §29 SF 502

490.402 Reserved name.

1. A person may reserve the exclusive use of a corporate name, including a fictitious name for a foreign corporation whose corporate name is not available, by delivering an application to the secretary of state for filing. The application must set forth the name and address of the applicant and the name proposed to be reserved. If the secretary of state finds that the corporate name applied for is available, the secretary of state shall reserve the name for the applicant's exclusive use for a nonrenewable one hundred twenty day period.

2. The owner of a reserved corporate name may transfer the reservation to another person by delivering to the secretary of state a signed notice of the transfer that states the name and address of the transferee.

89 Acts, ch 288, §30 SF 502

490.403 Registered name.

1. A foreign corporation may register its corporate name, or its corporate name with any addition required by section 490.1506, if the name is distinguishable upon the records of the secretary of state from the corporate names that are not available under section 490.401, subsection 2, paragraph "b".

2. A foreign corporation registers its corporate name, or its corporate name with any addition required by section 490.1506, by delivering to the secretary of state for filing an application:

a. Setting forth its corporate name, or its corporate name with any addition required by section 490.1506, the state or country and date of its incorporation, and a brief description of the nature of the business in which it is engaged.

b. Accompanied by a certificate of existence, or a document of similar import, from the state or country of incorporation.

3. The name is registered for the applicant's exclusive use upon the effective date of the application.

4. A foreign corporation whose registration is effective may renew it for successive years by delivering to the secretary of state for filing a renewal application which complies with the requirements of subsection 2 between October 1 and December 31 of the preceding year. The renewal application renews the registration for the following calendar year.

5. A foreign corporation whose registration is effective may thereafter qualify as a foreign corporation under that name or consent in writing to the use of that name by a corporation thereafter incorporated under this chapter or by another foreign corporation thereafter authorized to transact business in this state. The first registration terminates when the domestic corporation is incorporated with that name or the foreign corporation qualifies or consents to the qualification of another foreign corporation under the registered name.

89 Acts, ch 288, §31 SF 502
NEW section

DIVISION V

REGISTERED OFFICE AND AGENT—SERVICE

490.501 Registered office and registered agent.

Each corporation must continuously maintain in this state both of the following:

1. A registered office that may be the same as any of its places of business.
2. A registered agent, who may be any of the following:
  - a. An individual who resides in this state and whose business office is identical with the registered office.
  - b. A domestic corporation or not-for-profit domestic corporation whose business office is identical with the registered office.
  - c. A foreign corporation or not-for-profit foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state whose business office is identical with the registered office.

89 Acts, ch 288, §32 SF 502
NEW section

490.502 Change of registered office or registered agent.

1. A corporation may change its registered office or registered agent by delivering to the secretary of state for filing a statement of change that sets forth all of the following:

- a. The name of the corporation.
- b. The street address of its current registered office.
- c. If the current registered office is to be changed, the street address of the new registered office.
- d. The name of its current registered agent.
- e. If the current registered agent is to be changed, the name of the new registered agent and the new agent's written consent, either on the statement or attached to it, to the appointment.

f. That after the change or changes are made, the street addresses of its registered office and the business office of its registered agent will be identical.

2. If a registered agent changes the street address of the registered agent's business office, the registered agent may change the street address of the registered office of any corporation for which the person is the registered agent by notifying the corporation in writing of the change and signing, either manually or in facsimile, and delivering to the secretary of state for filing a statement that complies with the requirements of subsection 1 and recites that the corporation has been notified of the change.

3. If a registered agent changes the registered agent's business address to another place, the registered agent may change the business address and the address of the registered agent by filing a statement as required in subsection 2 for each corporation, or a single statement for all corporations named in the notice, except that it need be signed only by the registered agent or agents and need not be responsive to subsection 1, paragraph "e", and must recite that a copy of the statement has been mailed to each corporation named in the notice.

4. A corporation may also change its registered office or registered agent in its annual report as provided in section 490.1622.

89 Acts, ch 288, §33 SF 502

490.503 Resignation of registered agent.

1. A registered agent may resign the agent's agency appointment by signing and delivering to the secretary of state for filing the signed original and two exact or conformed copies of a statement of resignation. The statement may include a statement that the registered office is also discontinued.

2. After filing the statement the secretary of state shall mail one copy to the registered office, if not discontinued, and the other copy to the corporation at its principal office.

3. The agency appointment is terminated, and the registered office discontinued if so provided, on the thirty-first day after the date on which the statement was filed.

89 Acts, ch 288, §34 SF 502
NEW section

490.504 Service on corporation.

1. A corporation's registered agent is the corporation's agent for service of process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served on the corporation.

2. If a corporation has no registered agent, or the agent cannot with reasonable diligence be served, the corporation may be served by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the secretary of the corporation at its principal office. Service is perfected under this subsection at the earliest of:

- a. The date the corporation receives the mail.
- b. The date shown on the return receipt, if signed on behalf of the corporation.
- c. Five days after its deposit in the United States mail, as evidenced by the postmark, if mailed postpaid and correctly addressed.

3. This section does not prescribe the only means, or necessarily the required means, of serving a corporation.

89 Acts, ch 288, §35 SF 502
NEW section

DIVISION VI

SHARES AND SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS

PART A

490.601 Authorized shares.

1. The articles of incorporation must prescribe the classes of shares and the number of shares of each class that the corporation is authorized to issue. If more than one class of shares is authorized, the articles of incorporation must prescribe a distinguishing designation for each class, and, prior to the issuance of shares of a class, the preferences, limitations, and relative rights of that class must be described in the articles of incorporation. All shares of a class must have preferences, limitations, and relative rights identical with those of other shares of the same class except to the extent otherwise permitted by section 490.602.

2. The articles of incorporation must authorize both of the following:

- a. One or more classes of shares that together have unlimited voting rights.
- b. One or more classes of shares, which may be the same class or classes as those with voting rights, that together are entitled to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution.

3. The articles of incorporation may authorize one or more classes of shares that have any of the following qualities:

a. Have special, conditional, or limited voting rights, or no right to vote, except to the extent prohibited by this chapter.

b. Are redeemable or convertible as specified in the articles of incorporation in any of the following ways:

(1) At the option of the corporation, the shareholders, or another person or upon the occurrence of a designated event.

(2) For cash, indebtedness, securities, or other property.

(3) In a designated amount or in an amount determined in accordance with a designated formula or by reference to extrinsic data or events.

c. Entitle the holders to distributions calculated in any manner, including dividends that may be cumulative, noncumulative, or partially cumulative.

d. Have preference over any other class of shares with respect to distributions, including dividends and distributions upon the dissolution of the corporation.

4. The description of the designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights of share classes in subsection 3 is not exhaustive.

89 Acts, ch 288, §36 SF 502

490.602 Terms of class or series determined by board of directors.

1. If the articles of incorporation so provide, the board of directors may determine, in whole or part, the preferences, limitations, and relative rights, within the limits set forth in section 490.601, of either of the following:

a. Any class of shares before the issuance of any shares of that class.

b. One or more series within a class before the issuance of any shares of that series.

2. Each series of a class must be given a distinguishing designation.

3. All shares of a series must have preferences, limitations, and relative rights identical with those of other shares of the same series and, except to the extent otherwise provided in the description of the series, with those of other series of the same class.

4. Before issuing any shares of a class or series created under this section, the corporation must deliver to the secretary of state for filing articles of amendment, which are effective without shareholder action, that set forth all of the following:

a. The name of the corporation.

b. The text of the amendment determining the terms of the class or series of shares.

c. The date it was adopted.

d. A statement that the amendment was duly adopted by the board of directors.

89 Acts, ch 288, §37 SF 502

490.603 Issued and outstanding shares.

1. A corporation may issue the number of shares of each class or series authorized by the articles of incorporation. Shares that are issued are outstanding shares until they are reacquired, redeemed, converted, or canceled.

2. The reacquisition, redemption, or conversion of outstanding shares is subject to the limitations of subsection 3 and to section 490.640.

3. At all times that shares of the corporation are outstanding, one or more shares that together have unlimited voting rights and one or more shares that together are entitled to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution must be outstanding.

89 Acts, ch 288, §38 SF 502

490.604 Fractional shares.

1. A corporation may:
  - a. Issue fractions of a share or pay in money the value of fractions of a share.
  - b. Arrange for disposition of fractional shares by the shareholders.
  - c. Issue scrip in registered or bearer form entitling the holder to receive a full share upon surrendering enough scrip to equal a full share.
2. Each certificate representing scrip must be conspicuously labeled "scrip" and must contain the information required by section 490.625, subsection 2.
3. The holder of a fractional share is entitled to exercise the rights of a shareholder, including the right to vote, to receive dividends, and to participate in the assets of the corporation upon liquidation. The holder of scrip is not entitled to any of these rights unless the scrip provides for them.
4. The board of directors may authorize the issuance of scrip subject to any condition considered desirable, including:
  - a. That the scrip will become void if not exchanged for full shares before a specified date.
  - b. That the shares for which the scrip is exchangeable may be sold and the proceeds paid to the scrip holders.

89 Acts, ch 288, §39 SF 502
NEW section

490.605 through 490.619 Reserved.

PART B

490.620 Subscription for shares before incorporation.

1. A subscription for shares entered into before incorporation is irrevocable for six months unless the subscription agreement provides a longer or shorter period or all the subscribers agree to revocation.
2. The board of directors may determine the payment terms of subscriptions for shares that were entered into before incorporation unless the subscription agreement specifies them. A call for payment by the board of directors must be uniform so far as practicable as to all shares of the same class or series, unless the subscription agreement specifies otherwise.
3. Shares issued pursuant to subscriptions entered into before incorporation are fully paid and nonassessable when the corporation receives the consideration specified in the subscription agreement.
4. If a subscriber defaults in payment of money or property under a subscription agreement entered into before incorporation, the corporation may collect the amount owed as any other debt. Alternatively, unless the subscription agreement provides otherwise, the corporation may rescind the agreement and may sell the shares if the debt remains unpaid more than twenty days after the corporation sends written demand for payment to the subscriber.
5. A subscription agreement entered into after incorporation is a contract between the subscriber and the corporation subject to section 490.621.

89 Acts, ch 288, §40 SF 502

490.621 Issuance of shares.

1. The powers granted in this section to the board of directors may be reserved to the shareholders by the articles of incorporation.
2. The board of directors may authorize shares to be issued for consideration consisting of any tangible or intangible property or benefit to the corporation, including cash, promissory notes, services performed, contracts for services to be performed, or other securities of the corporation.
3. Before the corporation issues shares, the board of directors must determine that the consideration received or to be received for shares to be issued is adequate. That determination by the board of directors is conclusive insofar as the adequacy of consideration for the issuance of shares relates to whether the shares are validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable.

4. When the corporation receives the consideration for which the board of directors authorized the issuance of shares, the shares issued for that consideration are fully paid and nonassessable.

5. The corporation may place in escrow shares issued for a contract for future services or benefits or a promissory note, or make other arrangements to restrict the transfer of the shares, and may credit distributions in respect of the shares against their purchase price, until the services are performed, the note is paid, or the benefits received. If the services are not performed, the note is not paid, or the benefits are not received, the shares escrowed or restricted and the distributions credited may be canceled in whole or in part.

490.622 Liability of shareholders.

1. A purchaser from a corporation of its own shares is not liable to the corporation or its creditors with respect to the shares except to pay the consideration for which the shares were authorized to be issued under section 490.621, or specified in the subscription agreement authorized under section 490.620.

2. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a shareholder of a corporation is not personally liable for the acts or debts of the corporation.

89 Acts, ch 288, §42 SF 502

490.623 Share dividends.

1. Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, shares may be issued pro rata and without consideration to the corporation's shareholders or to the shareholders of one or more classes or series. An issuance of shares under this subsection is a share dividend.

2. Shares of one class or series shall not be issued as a share dividend in respect of shares of another class or series unless one or more of the following conditions are met:

- a. The articles of incorporation so authorize.
- b. A majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the class or series to be issued approve the issue.
- c. There are no outstanding shares of the class or series to be issued.

3. If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining shareholders entitled to a share dividend, it is the date the board of directors authorizes the share dividend.

490.624 Share options.

A corporation may issue rights, options, or warrants for the purchase of shares of the corporation. The board of directors shall determine the terms upon which the rights, options, or warrants are issued, their form and content, and the consideration for which the shares are to be issued.

490.624A Poison pill defense authorized.

The terms and conditions of stock rights or options issued by the corporation may include, without limitation, restrictions or conditions that preclude or limit the exercise, transfer, or receipt of such rights or options by a person, or group of persons, owning or offering to acquire a specified number or percentage of the outstanding common shares or other securities of the corporation, or a transferee of the offeror, or that invalidate or void such stock rights or options held by an offeror or a transferee of the offeror.

89 Acts, ch 288, §45 SF 502

490.625 Content of certificates.

1. Shares may be, but need not be, represented by certificates. Unless this chapter or another section expressly provides otherwise, the rights and obligations of shareholders are identical whether or not their shares are represented by certificates.

2. At a minimum each share certificate must state on its face all of the following:

a. The name of the issuing corporation and that it is organized under the law of this state.

b. The name of the person to whom issued.

c. The number and class of shares and the designation of the series, if any, the certificate represents.

3. If the issuing corporation is authorized to issue different classes of shares or different series within a class, the designations, relative rights, preferences, and limitations applicable to each class, the variations in rights, preferences, and limitations determined for each series, and the authority of the board of directors to determine variations for future series must be summarized on the front or back of each certificate. Alternatively, each certificate may state conspicuously on its front or back that the corporation will furnish the shareholder this information on request in writing and without charge.

4. Each share certificate:

a. Must be signed either manually or in facsimile by two officers designated in the bylaws or by the board of directors.

b. May bear the corporate seal or its facsimile.

5. If the person who signed, either manually or in facsimile, a share certificate no longer holds office when the certificate is issued, the certificate is nevertheless valid.

490.626 Shares without certificates.

1. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors of a corporation may authorize the issue of some or all of the shares of any or all of its classes or series without certificates. The authorization does not affect shares already represented by certificates until they are surrendered to the corporation.

2. Within a reasonable time after the issue or transfer of shares without certificates, the corporation shall send the shareholder a written statement of the information required on certificates by section 490.625, subsections 2 and 3, and, if applicable, section 490.627.

490.627 Restriction on transfer of shares and other securities.

1. The articles of incorporation, bylaws, an agreement among shareholders, or an agreement between shareholders and the corporation may impose restrictions on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares of the corporation. A restriction does not affect shares issued before the restriction was adopted unless the holders of the shares are parties to the restriction agreement or voted in favor of the restriction.

2. A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares is valid and enforceable against the holder or a transferee of the holder if the restriction is authorized by this section and its existence is noted conspicuously on the front or back of the certificate or is contained in the information statement required by section 490.626, subsection 2. Unless so noted, a restriction is not enforceable against a person without knowledge of the restriction.

3. A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares is authorized for any of the following purposes:

a. To maintain the corporation's status when it is dependent on the number or identity of its shareholders.

b. To preserve exemptions under federal or state securities law.

c. For any other reasonable purpose.

4. A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares may do any of the following:

a. Obligate the shareholder first to offer the corporation or other persons, separately, consecutively, or simultaneously, an opportunity to acquire the restricted shares.

b. Obligate the corporation or other persons, separately, consecutively, or simultaneously, to acquire the restricted shares.

c. Require the corporation, the holders of any class of its shares, or another person to approve the transfer of the restricted shares, if the requirement is not manifestly unreasonable.

d. Prohibit the transfer of the restricted shares to designated persons or classes of persons, if the prohibition is not manifestly unreasonable.

5. For purposes of this section, "shares" includes a security convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares.

490.629 Reserved.

PART C

490.630 Shareholders' preemptive rights.

1. Unless section 490.1704 is applicable to the corporation, the shareholders of a corporation do not have a preemptive right to acquire the corporation's unissued shares except to the extent the articles of incorporation so provide.

2. A statement included in the articles of incorporation that "the corporation elects to have preemptive rights", or words of similar import, means that the following principles apply except to the extent the articles of incorporation expressly provide otherwise:

a. The shareholders of the corporation have a preemptive right, granted on uniform terms and conditions prescribed by the board of directors to provide a fair and reasonable opportunity to exercise the right, to acquire proportional amounts of the corporation's unissued shares upon the decision of the board of directors to issue them.

b. A shareholder may waive the shareholder's preemptive right. A waiver evidenced by a writing is irrevocable even though it is not supported by consideration.

c. There is no preemptive right with respect to:

(1) Shares issued as compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employees of the corporation, its subsidiaries, or its affiliates.

(2) Shares issued to satisfy conversion or option rights created to provide compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employees of the corporation, its subsidiaries, or its affiliates.

(3) Shares authorized in articles of incorporation that are issued within six months from the effective date of incorporation.

(4) Shares sold otherwise than for money.

d. Holders of shares of any class without general voting rights but with preferential rights to distributions or assets have no preemptive rights with respect to shares of any class.

e. Holders of shares of any class with general voting rights but without preferential rights to distributions or assets have no preemptive rights with respect to shares of any class with preferential rights to distributions or assets unless the shares with preferential rights are convertible into or carry a right to subscribe for or acquire shares without preferential rights.

f. Shares subject to preemptive rights that are not acquired by shareholders may be issued to any person for a period of one year after being offered to shareholders at a consideration set by the board of directors that is not lower than the consideration set for the exercise of preemptive rights. An offer at a lower consideration or after the expiration of one year is subject to the shareholders' preemptive rights.

3. For purposes of this section, "shares" includes a security convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares.

490.631 Corporation's acquisition of its own shares.

1. A corporation may acquire its own shares and shares so acquired constitute authorized but unissued shares.

2. If the articles of incorporation prohibit the reissue of acquired shares, the number of authorized shares is reduced by the number of shares acquired, effective upon amendment of the articles of incorporation.

3. The board of directors may adopt articles of amendment under this section without shareholder action, and deliver them to the secretary of state for filing. The articles must set forth all of the following:

a. The name of the corporation.

b. The reduction in the number of authorized shares, itemized by class and series.

c. The total number of authorized shares, itemized by class and series, remaining after reduction of the shares.

490.632 through 490.639 Reserved.

PART D

490.640 Distribution to shareholders.

1. A board of directors may authorize and the corporation may make distributions to its shareholders subject to restriction by the articles of incorporation and the limitation in subsection 3.

2. If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining shareholders entitled to a distribution, other than one involving a repurchase or reacquisition of shares, it is the date the board of directors authorizes the distribution.

3. No distribution may be made if, after giving it effect either of the following would result:

a. The corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business.

b. The corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus, unless the articles of incorporation permit otherwise, the amount that would be needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

4. The board of directors may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection 3 either on financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a fair valuation or other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.

5. The effect of a distribution under subsection 3 is measured:

a. In the case of distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of the corporation's shares, as of the earlier of:

(1) The date money or other property is transferred or debt incurred by the corporation.

(2) The date the shareholder ceases to be a shareholder with respect to the acquired shares.

b. In the case of any other distribution of indebtedness, as of the date the indebtedness is distributed.

c. In all other cases, as of:

(1) The date the distribution is authorized if the payment occurs within one hundred twenty days after the date of authorization.

(2) The date the payment is made if it occurs more than one hundred twenty days after the date of authorization.

6. A corporation's indebtedness to a shareholder incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section is at parity with the corporation's indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

DIVISION VII

MEETINGS—NOTICE—VOTING

PART A

490.701 Annual meeting.

1. A corporation shall hold annually, at a time stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, a meeting of shareholders.

2. Annual shareholders' meetings may be held in or out of this state at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no place is stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, annual meetings shall be held at the corporation's principal office.

3. The failure to hold an annual meeting at the time stated in or fixed in accordance with a corporation's bylaws does not affect the validity of any corporate action.

89 Acts, ch 288, §53 SF 502
NEW section

490.702 Special meeting.

1. A corporation shall hold a special meeting of shareholders either:

a. On call of its board of directors or the person or persons authorized to call a special meeting by the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

b. If the holders of at least ten percent of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting sign, date, and deliver to the corporation's secretary one or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held.

2. If not otherwise fixed under section 490.703 or 490.707, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to demand a special meeting is the date the first shareholder signs the demand.

3. Special shareholders' meetings may be held in or out of this state at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no place is stated or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, special meetings shall be held at the corporation's principal office.

4. Only business with the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice required by section 490.705, subsection 3, may be conducted at a special shareholders' meeting.

89 Acts, ch 288, §54 SF 502

490.703 Court-ordered meeting.

1. The district court of the county where a corporation's principal office, or, if none in this state, its registered office, is located may summarily order a meeting to be held either:

a. On application of any shareholder of the corporation entitled to participate in an annual meeting if an annual meeting was not held within the earlier of six months after the end of the corporation's fiscal year or fifteen months after its last annual meeting.

b. On application of a shareholder who signed a demand for a special meeting valid under section 490.702 if either:

(1) Notice of the special meeting was not given within thirty days after the date the demand was delivered to the corporation's secretary.

(2) The special meeting was not held in accordance with the notice.

2. The court may fix the time and place of the meeting, ascertain the shares entitled to participate in the meeting, specify a record date for ascertaining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting, prescribe the form and content of the meeting notice, fix the quorum required for specific matters to be considered at the meeting or direct that the votes represented at the meeting constitute a quorum for action on those matters, and enter other orders necessary to accomplish the purpose or purposes of the meeting.

89 Acts, ch 288, §55 SF 502

490.704 Action without meeting.

1. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, any action required or permitted by this chapter to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting or vote, and, except as provided in subsection 5, without prior notice, if one or more written consents describing the action taken are signed by the holders of outstanding shares having not less than ninety percent of the votes entitled to be cast at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote on the action were present and voted, and are delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

2. A written consent shall bear the date of signature of each shareholder who signs the consent and no written consent is effective to take the corporate action referred to in the consent unless, within sixty days of the earliest dated consent delivered in the manner required by this section to the corporation, written consents signed by a sufficient number of holders to take action are delivered to the corporation.

3. If not otherwise fixed under section 490.703 or 490.707, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to take action without a meeting is the date the first shareholder signs the consent under subsection 1.

4. A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

5. If this chapter requires that notice of proposed action be given to shareholders not entitled to vote and the action is to be taken by consent of the voting shareholders, the corporation must give all shareholders written notice of the proposed action at least ten days before the action is taken. The notice must contain or be accompanied by the same material that, under this chapter, would have been required to be sent to shareholders not entitled to vote in a notice of meeting at which the proposed action would have been submitted to the shareholders for action.

6. Prompt notice of the taking of corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those shareholders who have not consented in writing. If the taking of that corporate action requires the giving of notice under section 490.1320, subsection 2, the notice of the action shall set forth the matters described in section 490.1322.

89 Acts, ch 288, §56 SF 502

490.705 Notice of meeting.

1. A corporation shall notify shareholders of the date, time, and place of each annual and special shareholders' meeting no fewer than ten nor more than sixty days before the meeting date. Unless this chapter or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, the corporation is required to give notice only to shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting.

2. Unless this chapter or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, notice of an annual meeting need not include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

3. Notice of a special meeting must include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

4. If not otherwise fixed under section 490.703 or 490.707, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at an annual or special shareholders' meeting is the close of business on the day before the first notice is delivered to shareholders.

5. Unless the bylaws require otherwise, if an annual or special shareholders' meeting is adjourned to a different date, time, or place, notice need not be given of the new date, time, or place if the new date, time, or place is announced at the meeting before adjournment. If a new record date for the adjourned meeting is or must be fixed under section 490.707, however, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given under this section to persons who are shareholders as of the new record date.

89 Acts, ch 288, §57 SF 502

490.706 Waiver of notice.

1. A shareholder may waive any notice required by this chapter, the articles of incorporation, or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. The waiver must be in writing, be signed by the shareholder entitled to the notice, and be delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

2. A shareholder's attendance at a meeting:

a. Waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting, unless the shareholder at the beginning of the meeting or promptly upon the shareholder's arrival objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting.

b. Waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice, unless the shareholder objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

89 Acts, ch 288, §58 SF 502

490.707 Record date.

1. The bylaws may fix or provide the manner of fixing the record date for one or more voting groups in order to determine the shareholders entitled to notice of a shareholders' meeting, to demand a special meeting, to vote, or to take any other action. If the bylaws do not fix or provide for fixing a record date, the board of directors of the corporation may fix a future date as the record date.

2. A record date fixed under this section shall not be more than seventy days before the meeting or action requiring a determination of shareholders.

3. A determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a shareholders' meeting is effective for any adjournment of the meeting unless the board of directors fixes a new record date, which it must do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than one hundred twenty days after the date fixed for the original meeting.

4. If a court orders a meeting adjourned to a date more than one hundred twenty days after the date fixed for the original meeting, it may provide that the original record date continues in effect or it may fix a new record date.

490.708 through 490.719 Reserved.

PART B

490.720 Shareholders' list for meeting.

1. After fixing a record date for a meeting, a corporation shall prepare an alphabetical list of the names of all its shareholders who are entitled to notice of a shareholders' meeting. The list must be arranged by voting group and within each voting group by class or series of shares, and show the address of and number of shares held by each shareholder.

2. The shareholders' list must be available for inspection by any shareholder beginning two business days after notice of the meeting is given for which the list was prepared and continuing through the meeting, at the corporation's principal office or at a place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting will be held. A shareholder, or a shareholder's agent or attorney, is entitled on written demand to inspect and, subject to the requirements of section 490.1602, subsection 3, to copy the list, during regular business hours and at the person's expense, during the period it is available for inspection.

3. The corporation shall make the shareholders' list available at the meeting, and any shareholder, or a shareholder's agent or attorney, is entitled to inspect the list at any time during the meeting or any adjournment.

4. If the corporation refuses to allow a shareholder, or a shareholder's agent or attorney, to inspect the shareholders' list before or at the meeting, or copy the list as permitted by subsection 3, the district court of the county where a corporation's principal office or, if none in this state, its registered office, is located, on application of the shareholder, may summarily order the inspection or copying at the corporation's expense and may postpone the meeting for which the list was prepared until the inspection or copying is complete.

5. Refusal or failure to prepare or make available the shareholders' list does not affect the validity of action taken at the meeting.

89 Acts, ch 288, §60 SF 502

490.721 Voting entitlement of shares.

1. Except as provided in subsections 2 and 3 or unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, each outstanding share, regardless of class, is entitled to one vote on each matter voted on at a shareholders' meeting. Only shares are entitled to vote.

2. Absent special circumstances, the shares of a corporation are not entitled to vote if they are owned, directly or indirectly, by a second corporation, domestic or foreign, and the first corporation owns, directly or indirectly, a majority of the shares entitled to vote for directors of the second corporation.

3. Subsection 2 does not limit the power of a corporation to vote any shares, including its own shares, held by it in a fiduciary capacity.

4. Redeemable shares are not entitled to vote after notice of redemption is mailed to the holders and a sum sufficient to redeem the shares has been deposited with a bank, trust company, or other financial institution under an irrevocable obligation to pay the holders the redemption price on surrender of the shares.

89 Acts, ch 288, §61 SF 502
NEW section

490.722 Proxies.

1. A shareholder may vote the shareholder's shares in person or by proxy.

2. A shareholder may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the shareholder by signing an appointment form, either personally or by the shareholder's attorney-in-fact.

3. An appointment of a proxy is effective when received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for eleven months unless a longer period is expressly provided in the appointment form.

4. An appointment of a proxy is revocable by the shareholder unless the appointment form conspicuously states that it is irrevocable and the appointment is coupled with an interest. Appointments coupled with an interest include, but are not limited to, the appointment of:

a. A pledgee.

b. A person who purchased or agreed to purchase the shares.

c. A creditor of the corporation who extended it credit under terms requiring the appointment.

d. An employee of the corporation whose employment contract requires the appointment.

e. A party to a voting agreement created under section 490.731.

5. The death or incapacity of the shareholder appointing a proxy does not affect the right of the corporation to accept the proxy's authority unless notice of the death or incapacity is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises the proxy's authority under the appointment.

6. An appointment made irrevocable under subsection 4 is revoked when the interest with which it is coupled is extinguished.

7. A transferee for value of shares subject to an irrevocable appointment may revoke the appointment if the transferee did not know of its existence when the transferee acquired the shares and the existence of the irrevocable appointment was not noted conspicuously on the certificate representing the shares or on the information statement for shares without certificates.

8. Subject to section 490.724 and to any express limitation on the proxy's authority appearing on the face of the appointment form, a corporation is entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the shareholder making the appointment.

89 Acts, ch 288, §62 SF 502

490.723 Shares held by nominees.

1. A corporation may establish a procedure by which the beneficial owner of shares that are registered in the name of a nominee is recognized by the corporation as the shareholder. The extent of this recognition may be determined in the procedure.

2. The procedure may set forth:

- a. The types of nominees to which it applies.
- b. The rights or privileges that the corporation recognizes in a beneficial owner.
- c. The manner in which the procedure is selected by the nominee.
- d. The information that must be provided when the procedure is selected.
- e. The period for which selection of the procedure is effective.
- f. Other aspects of the rights and duties created.

89 Acts, ch 288, §63 SF 502

490.724 Corporation's acceptance of votes.

1. If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment corresponds to the name of a shareholder, the corporation if acting in good faith is entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder.

2. If the name signed on a voted consent, waiver, or proxy appointment does not correspond to the name of its shareholder, the corporation if acting in good faith is nevertheless entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder if:

- a. The shareholder is an entity and the name signed purports to be that of an officer or agent of the entity.
- b. The name signed purports to be that of an administrator, executor, guardian of the property, or conservator representing the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment.
- c. The name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment.
- d. The name signed purports to be that of a pledgee, beneficial owner, or attorney-in-fact of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment.

e. Two or more persons are the shareholder as co-tenants or fiduciaries and the name signed purports to be the name of at least one of the co-owners and the person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the co-owners.

3. The corporation is entitled to reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment if the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature on it or about the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder.

4. The corporation and its officer or agent who accepts or rejects a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance with the standards of this section are not liable in damages to the shareholder for the consequences of the acceptance or rejection.

5. Corporate action based on the acceptance or rejection of a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment under this section is valid unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines otherwise.

490.725 Quorum and voting requirements for voting groups.

1. Shares entitled to vote as a separate voting group may take action on a matter at a meeting only if a quorum of those shares exists with respect to that matter. Unless the articles of incorporation or this chapter provides otherwise, a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by the voting group constitutes a quorum of that voting group for action on that matter.

2. Once a share is represented for any purpose at a meeting, it is deemed present for quorum purposes for the remainder of the meeting and for any adjournment of that meeting unless a new record date is or must be set for that adjourned meeting.

3. If a quorum exists, action on a matter, other than the election of directors, by a voting group is approved if the votes cast within the voting group favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action, unless the articles of incorporation or this chapter require a greater number of affirmative votes.

4. An amendment of articles of incorporation adding, changing, or deleting a quorum or voting requirement for a voting group greater than specified in subsection 2 or 3 is governed by section 490.727.

5. The election of directors is governed by section 490.728.

89 Acts, ch 288, §65 SF 502
NEW section

490.726 Action by single or multiple groups.

1. If the articles of incorporation or this chapter provide for voting by a single voting group on a matter, action on that matter is taken when voted upon by that voting group as provided in section 490.725.

2. If the articles of incorporation or this chapter provide for voting by two or more voting groups on a matter, action on that matter is taken only when voted upon by each of those voting groups counted separately as provided in section 490.725. Action may be taken by one voting group on a matter even though no action is taken by another voting group entitled to vote on the matter.

490.727 Greater quorum or voting requirements.

1. The articles of incorporation may provide for a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders or voting groups of shareholders than is provided for by this chapter.

2. An amendment to the articles of incorporation that adds, changes, or deletes a greater quorum or voting requirement must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote and voting groups required to take action under the quorum and voting requirements then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

89 Acts, ch 288, §67 SF 502

490.728 Voting for directors—cumulative voting.

1. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

2. Shareholders do not have a right to cumulate their votes for directors unless the articles of incorporation so provide.

3. A statement included in the articles of incorporation that “[all][a designated voting group of] shareholders are entitled to cumulate their votes for directors”, or words of similar import, means that the shareholders designated are entitled to multiply the number of votes they are entitled to cast by the number of directors for whom they are entitled to vote and cast the product for a single candidate or distribute the product among two or more candidates.

PART C

490.730 Voting trusts.

1. One or more shareholders may create a voting trust, conferring on a trustee the right to vote or otherwise act for them, by signing an agreement setting out the provisions of the trust, which may include anything consistent with its purpose, and transferring their shares to the trustee. When a voting trust agreement is signed, the trustee shall prepare a list of the names and addresses of all owners of beneficial interests in the trust, together with the number and class of shares each transferred to the trust, and deliver copies of the list and agreement to the corporation’s principal office.

2. A voting trust becomes effective on the date the first shares subject to the trust are registered in the trustee’s name. A voting trust is valid for not more than ten years after its effective date unless extended under subsection 3.

3. All or some of the parties to a voting trust may extend it for additional terms of not more than ten years each by signing an extension agreement and obtaining the voting trustee’s written consent to the extension. An extension is valid for ten years from the date the first shareholder signs the extension agreement. The voting trustee must deliver copies of the extension agreement and list of beneficial owners to the corporation’s principal office. An extension agreement binds only those parties signing it.

490.731 Voting agreements.

1. Two or more shareholders may provide for the manner in which they will vote their shares by signing an agreement for that purpose. A voting agreement created under this section is not subject to section 490.730.

2. A voting agreement created under this section is specifically enforceable.

PART D

490.740 Procedure in derivative proceedings.

1. A person shall not commence a proceeding in the right of a domestic or foreign corporation unless that person was a shareholder of the corporation when the transaction complained of occurred or unless that person became a shareholder through transfer by operation of law from one who was a shareholder at that time.

2. A complaint in a proceeding brought in the right of a corporation must be verified and allege with particularity the demand made, if any, to obtain action by the board of directors and either that the demand was refused or ignored or why the complainant did not make the demand. Whether or not a demand for action was made, if the corporation commences an investigation of the charges made in the demand or complaint, the court may stay any proceeding until the investigation is completed.

3. A proceeding commenced under this section shall not be discontinued or settled without the court's approval. If the court determines that a proposed discontinuance or settlement will substantially affect the interest of the corporation's shareholders or a class of shareholders, the court shall direct that notice be given the shareholders affected.

4. On termination of the proceeding the court may require the plaintiff to pay any defendant's reasonable expenses including attorney fees incurred in defending the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding was commenced without reasonable cause.

5. For purposes of this section, "shareholder" includes a beneficial owner whose shares are held in a voting trust or held by a nominee on the beneficial owner's behalf.

DIVISION VIII DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS
PART A

490.801 Requirement for and duties of board of directors.

1. Except as provided in subsection 3, each corporation must have a board of directors.

2. All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation managed under the direction of, its board of directors, subject to any limitation set forth in the articles of incorporation.

3. A corporation having fifty or fewer shareholders may dispense with or limit the authority of a board of directors by describing in its articles of incorporation who will perform some or all of the duties of a board of directors.

89 Acts, ch 288, §72 SF 502

490.802 Qualifications of directors.

The articles of incorporation or bylaws may prescribe qualifications for directors. A director need not be a resident of this state or a shareholder of the corporation unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws so prescribe.

89 Acts, ch 288, §73 SF 502

490.803 Number and election of directors.

1. A board of directors must consist of one or more individuals, with the number specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

2. If a board of directors has power to fix or change the number of directors, the board may increase or decrease by thirty percent or less the number of directors last approved by the shareholders, but only the shareholders may increase or decrease by more than thirty percent the number of directors last approved by the shareholders.

3. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may establish a variable range for the size of the board of directors by fixing a minimum and maximum number of directors. If a variable range is established, the number of directors may be fixed or changed from time to time, within the minimum and maximum, by the shareholders or the board of directors. After shares are issued, only the shareholders may change the range for the size of the board or change from a fixed-range to a variable-range size board or vice versa.

4. Directors are elected at the first annual shareholders' meeting and at each annual meeting thereafter unless their terms are staggered under section 490.806.

89 Acts, ch 288, §74 SF 502

490.804 Election of directors by certain classes of shareholders.

If the articles of incorporation authorize dividing the shares into classes, the articles may also authorize the election of all or a specified number of directors by the holders of one or more authorized classes of shares. Each class, or classes, of shares entitled to elect one or more directors is a separate voting group for purposes of the election of directors.

89 Acts, ch 288, §75 SF 502

490.805 Terms of directors generally.

1. The terms of the initial directors of a corporation expire at the first shareholders' meeting at which directors are elected.

2. The terms of all other directors expire at the next annual shareholders' meeting following their election unless their terms are staggered under section 490.806.

3. A decrease in the number of directors does not shorten an incumbent director's term.

4. The term of a director elected to fill a vacancy expires at the next shareholders' meeting at which directors are elected.

5. Despite the expiration of a director's term, the director continues to serve until a successor for that director is elected and qualifies or until there is a decrease in the number of directors.

89 Acts, ch 288, §76 SF 502

490.806 Staggered terms for directors.

The articles of incorporation may provide for staggering the terms of directors by dividing the total number of directors into two or three groups, with each group containing one-half or one-third of the total, as near as may be. In that event, the terms of directors in the first group expire at the first annual shareholders' meeting after their election, the terms of the second group expire at the second annual shareholders' meeting after their election, and the terms of the third group, if any, expire at the third annual shareholders' meeting after their election. At each annual shareholders' meeting held thereafter, directors shall be chosen for a term of two years or three years, as the case may be, to succeed those whose terms expire.

490.807 Resignation of directors.

1. A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the board of directors, its chairperson, or to the corporation.

2. A resignation is effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date.

89 Acts, ch 288, §78 SF 502

490.808 Removal of directors by shareholders.

1. The shareholders may remove one or more directors with or without cause unless the articles of incorporation provide that directors may be removed only for cause.

2. If a director is elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the shareholders of that voting group may participate in the vote to remove that director.

3. If cumulative voting is authorized, a director shall not be removed if the number of votes sufficient to elect that director under cumulative voting is voted against the director's removal. If cumulative voting is not authorized, a director may be removed only if the number of votes cast to remove that director exceeds the number of votes cast not to remove the director.

4. A director may be removed by the shareholders only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing the director and after notice stating that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. A director shall not be removed pursuant to written consents under section 490.704 unless written consents are obtained from the holders of all the outstanding shares of the corporation.

89 Acts, ch 288, §79 SF 502

490.809 Removal of directors by judicial proceeding.

1. The district court of the county where a corporation's principal office or, if none in this state, its registered office is located may remove a director of the corporation from office in a proceeding commenced either by the corporation or by its shareholders holding at least twenty percent of the outstanding shares of any class if the court finds that both of the following apply:

a. The director engaged in fraudulent or dishonest conduct with respect to the corporation.

b. Removal is in the best interest of the corporation.

2. The court that removes a director may bar the director from reelection for a period prescribed by the court.

3. If shareholders commence a proceeding under subsection 1, they shall make the corporation a party defendant.

89 Acts, ch 288, §80 SF 502

490.810 Vacancy on board.

1. Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, if a vacancy occurs on a board of directors, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors, the vacancy may be filled in any of the following manners:

a. The shareholders may fill the vacancy.

b. The board of directors may fill the vacancy.

c. If the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office.

2. If the vacant office was held by a director elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the holders of shares of that voting group are entitled to vote to fill the vacancy if it is filled by the shareholders.

3. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date, by reason of a resignation effective at a later date under section 490.807, subsection 2 or otherwise, may be filled before the vacancy occurs but the new director shall not take office until the vacancy occurs.

89 Acts, ch 288, §81 SF 502

490.811 Compensation of directors.

Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors may fix the compensation of directors.

490.812 through 490.819 Reserved.

PART B

490.820 Meetings.

1. The board of directors may hold regular or special meetings in or out of this state.

2. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

89 Acts, ch 288, §83 SF 502

490.821 Action without meeting.

1. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, action required or permitted by this chapter to be taken at a board of directors' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the board. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by each director, and included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken.

2. Action taken under this section is effective when the last director signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a different effective date.

3. A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

89 Acts, ch 288, §84 SF 502
NEW section

490.822 Notice of meeting.

1. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice of the date, time, place, or purpose of the meeting.

2. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide for a longer or shorter period, special meetings of the board of directors must be preceded by at least two days' notice of the date, time, and place of the meeting. The notice need not describe the purpose of the special meeting unless required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

89 Acts, ch 288, §85 SF 502

490.823 Waiver of notice.

1. A director may waive any notice required by this chapter, the articles of incorporation, or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. Except as provided by subsection 2, the waiver must be in writing, signed by the director entitled to the notice, and filed with the minutes or corporate records.

2. A director's attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any required notice to that director of the meeting unless the director at the beginning of the meeting or promptly upon the director's arrival objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting and does not thereafter vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting.

89 Acts, ch 288, §86 SF 502

490.824 Quorum and voting.

1. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require a different number, a quorum of a board of directors consists of either:

a. A majority of the fixed number of directors if the corporation has a fixed board size.

b. A majority of the number of directors prescribed, or, if no number is prescribed the number in office immediately before the meeting begins, if the corporation has a variable-range size board.

2. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may authorize a quorum of a board of directors to consist of no fewer than one-third of the fixed or prescribed number of directors determined under subsection 1.

3. If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present is the act of the board of directors unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require the vote of a greater number of directors.

4. A director who is present at a meeting of the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors when corporate action is taken is deemed to have assented to the action taken unless one or more of the following occurs:

a. The director objects at the beginning of the meeting or promptly upon the director's arrival to holding it or transacting business at the meeting.

b. The director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting.

c. The director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the corporation immediately after adjournment of the meeting.

The right of dissent or abstention is not available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

89 Acts, ch 288, §87 SF 502

490.825 Committees.

1. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, a board of directors may create one or more committees and appoint members of the board of directors to serve on them. Each committee may have two or more members, who serve at the pleasure of the board of directors.

2. The creation of a committee and appointment of members to it must be approved by the greater of either:

a. A majority of all the directors in office when the action is taken.

b. The number of directors required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws to take action under section 490.824.

3. Sections 490.820 through 490.824, which govern meetings, action without meetings, notice and waiver of notice, and quorum and voting requirements of the board of directors, apply to committees and their members as well.

4. To the extent specified by the board of directors or in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, each committee may exercise the authority of the board of directors under section 490.801.

5. A committee shall not, however:

a. Authorize distributions.

b. Approve or propose to shareholders action that this chapter requires be approved by shareholders.

c. Fill vacancies on the board of directors or on any of its committees.

d. Amend articles of incorporation pursuant to section 490.1002.

e. Adopt, amend, or repeal bylaws.

f. Approve a plan of merger not requiring shareholder approval.

g. Authorize or approve reacquisition of shares, except according to a formula or method prescribed by the board of directors.

h. Authorize or approve the issuance or sale or contract for sale of shares, or determine the designation and relative rights, preferences, and limitations of a class or series of shares, except that the board of directors may authorize a committee or a senior executive officer of the corporation to do so within limits specifically prescribed by the board of directors.

6. The creation of, delegation of authority to, or action by a committee does not alone constitute compliance by a director with the standards of conduct described in section 490.830.

490.826 through 490.829 Reserved.

PART C

490.830 General standards for directors.

1. A director shall discharge that director's duties as a director, including the director's duties as a member of a committee in conformity with all of the following:

- a. In good faith.
- b. With the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances.
- c. In a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

2. In discharging the director's duties a director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by any of the following:

- a. One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented.
- b. Legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence.

c. A committee of the board of directors of which the director is not a member if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.

3. A director is not acting in good faith if the director has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection 2 unwarranted.

4. A director is not liable for any action taken as a director, or any failure to take any action, if the director performed the duties of the director's office in compliance with this section, or if, and to the extent that, liability for any such action or failure to act has been limited by the articles of incorporation pursuant to section 490.832.

89 Acts, ch 288, §89 SF 502

490.831 Director conflict of interest.

1. A conflict of interest transaction is a transaction with the corporation in which a director of the corporation has a direct or indirect interest. A conflict of interest transaction is not voidable by the corporation solely because of the director's interest in the transaction if any one of the following is true:

a. The material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors and the board of directors or committee authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction.

b. The material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote and they authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction.

c. The transaction was fair to the corporation.

2. For purposes of this section, a director of the corporation has an indirect interest in a transaction if either:

a. Another entity in which the director has a material financial interest or in which the director is a general partner is a party to the transaction.

b. Another entity of which the director is a director, officer, or trustee is a party to the transaction and the transaction is or should be considered by the board of directors of the corporation.

3. For purposes of subsection 1, paragraph "a", a conflict of interest transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors on the board of directors or on the committee, who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction, but a transaction may not be authorized, approved, or ratified under this section by a single director. If a majority of the directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve, or ratify the transaction, a quorum is present for the purpose of taking action under this section. The presence of, or a vote cast by, a director with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction does not affect the validity of any action taken under subsection 1, paragraph "a", if the transaction is otherwise authorized, approved, or ratified as provided in that subsection.

4. For purposes of subsection 1, paragraph "b", a conflict of interest transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified if it receives the vote of a majority of the shares entitled to be counted under this subsection. Shares owned by or voted under the control of a director who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction, and shares owned by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection 2, paragraph "a", shall not be counted in a vote of shareholders to determine whether to authorize, approve, or ratify a conflict of interest transaction under subsection 1, paragraph "b". The vote of those shares, however, is counted in determining whether the transaction is approved under other sections of this chapter. A majority of the shares, whether or not present, that are entitled to be counted in a vote on the transaction under this subsection constitutes a quorum for the purpose of taking action under this section.

490.832 Indemnification of directors.

The articles of incorporation may contain a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that the provision does not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders, for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, for a transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit, or under section 490.833. A provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for an act or omission occurring prior to the date when the provision in the articles of incorporation becomes effective.

490.833 Liability for unlawful distribution.

1. Unless the director complies with the applicable standards of conduct described in section 490.830, a director who votes for or assents to a distribution made in violation of this chapter or the articles of incorporation is personally liable to the corporation for the amount of the distribution that exceeds what could have been distributed without violating this chapter or the articles of incorporation.

2. A director held liable for an unlawful distribution under subsection 1 is entitled to contribution from both of the following:

a. Every other director who voted for or assented to the distribution without complying with the applicable standards of conduct described in section 490.830.

b. Each shareholder for the amount the shareholder accepted knowing the distribution was made in violation of this chapter or the articles of incorporation.

PART D

490.840 Required officers.

1. A corporation has the officers described in its bylaws or appointed by the board of directors in accordance with the bylaws.

2. A duly appointed officer may appoint one or more officers or assistant officers if authorized by the bylaws or the board of directors.

3. The bylaws or the board of directors shall delegate to one of the officers responsibility for preparing minutes of the directors' and shareholders' meetings and for authenticating records of the corporation.

4. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in a corporation.

490.841 Duties of officers.

Each officer has the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in the bylaws or, to the extent consistent with the bylaws, the duties prescribed by the board of directors or by direction of an officer authorized by the board of directors to prescribe the duties of other officers.

89 Acts, ch 288, §94 SF 502

490.842 Standards of conduct for officers.

1. An officer with discretionary authority shall discharge the officer's duties under that authority in conformity with all of the following:

- a. In good faith.
- b. With the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances.
- c. In a manner the officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

2. In discharging the person's duties an officer is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by either:

- a. One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented.
- b. Legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the officer reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence.

3. An officer is not acting in good faith if the officer has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection 2 unwarranted.

4. An officer is not liable for any action taken as an officer, or any failure to take any action, if the officer performed the duties of the officer's office in compliance with this section.

490.843 Resignation and removal of officers.

1. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the corporation. A resignation is effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the corporation accepts the future effective date, its board of directors may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the board of directors provides that the successor does not take office until the effective date.

2. A board of directors may remove any officer at any time with or without cause.

PART E

490.850 Definitions.

As used in this part of this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Corporation" includes any domestic or foreign predecessor entity of a corporation in a merger or other transaction in which the predecessor's existence ceased upon consummation of the transaction.

2. "Director" means an individual who is or was a director of a corporation or an individual who, while a director of a corporation, is or was serving at the corporation's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise. A director is considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the corporation's request if the director's duties to the corporation also impose duties on, or otherwise involve services by, that director to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. "Director" includes, unless the context requires otherwise, the estate or personal representative of a director.

3. "Expenses" include counsel fees.

4. "Liability" means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine, including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan, or reasonable expenses incurred with respect to a proceeding.

5. "Official capacity" means:

a. When used with respect to a director, the office of director in a corporation.

b. When used with respect to an individual other than a director, as contemplated in section 490.856, the office in a corporation held by the officer or the employment or agency relationship undertaken by the employee or agent on behalf of the corporation.

"Official capacity" does not include service for any other foreign or domestic corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise.

6. "Party" includes an individual who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding.

7. "Proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal.

89 Acts, ch 288, §98 SF 502

490.851 Authority to indemnify.

1. Except as provided in subsection 4, a corporation may indemnify an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if all of the following apply:

- a. The individual acted in good faith.
- b. The individual reasonably believed:

(1) In the case of conduct in the individual's official capacity with the corporation, that the individual's conduct was in the corporation's best interests.

(2) In all other cases, that the individual's conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation's best interests.

c. In the case of any criminal proceeding, the individual had no reasonable cause to believe the individual's conduct was unlawful.

2. A director's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan for a purpose the director reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in and beneficiaries of the plan is conduct that satisfies the requirement of subsection 1, paragraph "b", subparagraph (2).

3. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, determinative that the director did not meet the standard of conduct described in this section.

4. A corporation shall not indemnify a director under this section in either of the following circumstances:

a. In connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which the director was adjudged liable to the corporation.

b. In connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to the director, whether or not involving action in the director's official capacity, in which the director was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by the director.

5. Indemnification permitted under this section in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation is limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

490.852 Mandatory indemnification.

Unless limited by its articles of incorporation, a corporation shall indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director was a party because the director is or was a director of the corporation against reasonable expenses incurred by the director in connection with the proceeding.

89 Acts, ch 288, §100 SF 502

490.853 Advance for expenses.

1. A corporation may pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if any of the following apply:

a. The director furnishes the corporation a written affirmation of the director's good faith belief that the director has met the standard of conduct described in section 490.851.

b. The director furnishes the corporation a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director did not meet that standard of conduct.

c. A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under this part.

2. The undertaking required by subsection 1, paragraph "b", must be an unlimited general obligation of the director but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

3. Determinations and authorizations of payments under this section shall be made in the manner specified in section 490.855.

89 Acts, ch 288, §101 SF 502

490.854 Court-ordered indemnification.

Unless a corporation's articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a director of the corporation who is a party to a proceeding may apply for indemnification to the court conducting the proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction. On receipt of an application, the court after giving any notice the court considers necessary may order indemnification if it determines either of the following:

1. The director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under section 490.852, in which case the court shall also order the corporation to pay the directors reasonable expenses incurred to obtain court-ordered indemnification.

2. The director is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not the director met the standard of conduct set forth in section 490.851 or was adjudged liable as described in section 490.851, subsection 4, but if the director was adjudged so liable the director's indemnification is limited to reasonable expenses incurred.

89 Acts, ch 288, §102 SF 502

490.855 Determination and authorization of indemnification.

1. A corporation shall not indemnify a director under section 490.851 unless authorized in the specific case after a determination has been made that indemnification of the director is permissible in the circumstances because the director has met the standard of conduct set forth in section 490.851.

2. The determination shall be made by any of the following:

a. By the board of directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time parties to the proceeding.

b. If a quorum cannot be obtained under paragraph "a", by majority vote of a committee duly designated by the board of directors, in which designation directors who are parties may participate, consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time parties to the proceeding.

c. By special legal counsel:

(1) Selected by the board of directors or its committee in the manner prescribed in paragraph "a" or "b".

(2) If a quorum of the board of directors cannot be obtained under paragraph "a" and a committee cannot be designated under paragraph "b", selected by majority vote of the full board of directors, in which selection directors who are parties may participate.

d. By the shareholders, but shares owned by or voted under the control of directors who are at the time parties to the proceeding shall not be voted on the determination.

3. Authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that if the determination is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses shall be made by those entitled under subsection 2, paragraph "c" to select counsel.

89 Acts, ch 288, §103 SF 502
NEW section

490.856 Indemnification of officers, employees, and agents.

Unless a corporation's articles of incorporation provide otherwise all of the following apply:

1. An officer of the corporation who is not a director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under section 490.852, and is entitled to apply for court-ordered indemnification under section 490.854, in each case to the same extent as a director.

2. The corporation may indemnify and advance expenses under this part to an officer, employee, or agent of the corporation who is not a director to the same extent as to a director.

3. A corporation may also indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee, or agent who is not a director to the extent, consistent with law, that may be provided by its articles of incorporation, bylaws, general or specific action of its board of directors, or contract.

89 Acts, ch 288, §104 SF 502

490.857 Insurance.

A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or who, while a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise, against liability asserted against or incurred by that individual in that capacity or arising from the individual's status as a director, officer, employee, or agent, whether or not the corporation would have power to indemnify that individual against the same liability under section 490.851 or 490.852.

89 Acts, ch 288, §105 SF 502

490.858 Application of part E.

Except as limited in section 490.851, subsection 4, paragraph "a" and subsection 5 with respect to proceedings by or in the right of the corporation, the indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, sections 490.850 through 490.857 are not exclusive of any other rights to which persons seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses are entitled under a provision in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, agreements, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in a person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding the office. However, such provisions, agreements, votes, or other actions shall not provide indemnification for a breach of a director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders, for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of the law, for a transaction from which the person seeking indemnification derives an improper personal benefit, or for liability under section 490.833.

DIVISION IX

SPECIAL CLASSES

490.901 Foreign-trade zone corporation.

A corporation may be organized under the laws of this state for the purpose of establishing, operating, and maintaining a foreign-trade zone as defined in 19 U.S.C. §81(a). A corporation organized for the purposes set forth in this section has all powers necessary or convenient for applying for a grant of authority to establish, operate, and maintain a foreign-trade zone under 19 U.S.C. §81(a), et seq., and regulations promulgated under that law, and for establishing, operating, and maintaining a foreign-trade zone pursuant to that grant of authority.

490.902 Foreign insurance companies becoming domestic.

The secretary of state, upon a corporation complying with this section and upon the filing of articles of incorporation and upon receipt of the fees as provided in this chapter, shall issue a certificate of incorporation as of the date of the corporation's original incorporation in its state of original incorporation. The certificate of incorporation shall state on its face that it is issued in accordance with this section. The secretary of state shall forward the articles as provided in this chapter to the county recorder where the principal place of business of the corporation is to be located. The secretary of state shall then notify the appropriate officer of the state or country of the corporation's last domicile that the corporation is now a domestic corporation domiciled in this state. This section applies to life insurance companies, and to insurance companies doing business under chapter 515.

DIVISION X

AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION AND BYLAWS

PART A

490.1001 Amendment of articles of incorporation—authority to amend.

1. A corporation may amend its articles of incorporation at any time to add or change a provision that is required or permitted in the articles of incorporation or to delete a provision not required in the articles of incorporation. Whether a provision is required or permitted in the articles of incorporation is determined as of the effective date of the amendment.

2. A shareholder of the corporation does not have a vested property right resulting from any provision in the articles of incorporation, including provisions relating to management, control, capital structure, dividend entitlement, or purpose or duration of the corporation.

89 Acts, ch 288, §109 SF 502

490.1002 Amendment by board of directors.

Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a corporation's board of directors may adopt one or more amendments to the corporation's articles of incorporation without shareholder action for any of the following purposes:

1. To extend the duration of the corporation if it was incorporated at a time when limited duration was required by law.
2. To delete the names and addresses of the initial directors.
3. To delete the name and address of the initial registered agent or registered office, if a statement of change is on file with the secretary of state.
4. To change each issued and unissued authorized share of an outstanding class into a greater number of whole shares if the corporation has only shares of that class outstanding.
5. To change the corporate name by substituting the word "corporation", "incorporated", "company", "limited", or the abbreviation "corp.", "inc.", "co.", or "ltd.", for a similar word or abbreviation in the name, or by adding, deleting, or changing a geographical attribution for the name.

6. To make any other change expressly permitted by this chapter to be made without shareholder action.

89 Acts, ch 288, §110 SF 502
NEW section

490.1003 Amendment by board of directors and shareholders.

1. A corporation's board of directors may propose one or more amendments to the articles of incorporation for submission to the shareholders.

2. For the amendment to be adopted both of the following must occur:

a. The board of directors must recommend the amendment to the shareholders unless the board of directors determines that because of conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation and communicates the basis for its determination to the shareholders with the amendment.

b. The shareholders entitled to vote on the amendment must approve the amendment as provided in subsection 5.

3. The board of directors may condition its submission of the proposed amendment on any basis.

4. The corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the proposed shareholders' meeting in accordance with section 490.705. The notice of meeting must also state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the proposed amendment and contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment.

5. Unless this chapter, the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection 3 requires a greater vote or a vote by voting groups, the amendment to be adopted must be approved by both of the following:

a. A majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment by any voting group with respect to which the amendment would create dissenters' rights.

b. The votes required by sections 490.725 and 490.726 by every other voting group entitled to vote on the amendment.

89 Acts, ch 288, §111 SF 502
NEW section

490.1004 Voting on amendments by voting groups.

1. The holders of the outstanding shares of a class are entitled to vote as a separate voting group, if shareholder voting is otherwise required by this chapter, on a proposed amendment if the amendment would do any of the following:

a. Increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of the class.

b. Effect an exchange or reclassification of all or part of the shares of the class into shares of another class.

c. Effect an exchange or reclassification, or create the right of exchange, of all or part of the shares of another class into shares of that class.

d. Change the designation, rights, preferences, or limitations of all or part of the shares of the class.

e. Change the shares of all or part of the class into a different number of shares of the same class.

f. Create a new class of shares having rights or preferences with respect to distributions or to dissolution that are prior, superior, or substantially equal to, the shares of the class.

g. Increase the rights, preferences, or number of authorized shares of any class that, after giving effect to the amendment, have rights or preferences with respect to distributions or to dissolution that are prior, superior, or substantially equal to the shares of the class.

h. Limit or deny an existing preemptive right of all or part of the shares of the class.

i. Cancel or otherwise affect rights to distributions or dividends that have accumulated but not yet been declared on all or part of the shares of the class.

2. If a proposed amendment would affect a series of a class of shares in one or more of the ways described in subsection 1, the shares of that series are entitled to vote as a separate voting group on the proposed amendment.

3. If a proposed amendment that entitles two or more series of shares to vote as separate voting groups under this section would affect those two or more series in the same or a substantially similar way, the shares of all the series so affected must vote together as a single voting group on the proposed amendment.

4. A class or series of shares is entitled to the voting rights granted by this section although the articles of incorporation provide that the shares are nonvoting shares.

89 Acts, ch 288, §112 SF 502
NEW section

490.1005 Amendment before issuance of shares.

If a corporation has not yet issued shares, its incorporators or board of directors may adopt one or more amendments to the corporation's articles of incorporation.

89 Acts, ch 288, §113 SF 502
NEW section

490.1006 Articles of amendment.

A corporation amending its articles of incorporation shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing articles of amendment setting forth:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. The text of each amendment adopted.
3. If an amendment provides for an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of issued shares, provisions for implementing the amendment if not contained in the amendment itself.
4. The date of each amendment's adoption.
5. If an amendment was adopted by the incorporators or board of directors without shareholder action, a statement to that effect and that shareholder action was not required.
6. If an amendment was approved by the shareholders:
  - a. The designation, number of outstanding shares, number of votes entitled to be cast by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the amendment, and number of votes of each voting group indisputably represented at the meeting.
  - b. Either the total number of votes cast for and against the amendment by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the amendment or the total number of undisputed votes cast for the amendment by each voting group and a statement that the number cast for the amendment by each voting group was sufficient for approval by that voting group.

89 Acts, ch 288, §114 SF 502

490.1007 Restated articles of incorporation.

1. A corporation's board of directors may restate its articles of incorporation at any time with or without shareholder action.
2. The restatement may include one or more amendments to the articles. If the restatement includes an amendment requiring shareholder approval, it must be adopted as provided in section 490.1003.
3. If the board of directors submits a restatement for shareholder action, the corporation shall notify each shareholder whether or not entitled to vote, of the proposed shareholders' meeting in accordance with section 490.705. The notice must also state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the proposed restatement and contain or be accompanied by a copy of the restatement that identifies any amendment or other change it would make in the articles.

4. A corporation restating its articles of incorporation shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing articles of restatement setting forth the name of the corporation and the text of the restated articles of incorporation together with a certificate setting forth:

a. Whether the restatement contains an amendment to the articles requiring shareholder approval and, if it does not, that the board of directors adopted the restatement.

b. If the restatement contains an amendment to the articles requiring shareholder approval, the information required by section 490.1006.

5. Duly adopted restated articles of incorporation supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments to them.

6. The secretary of state may certify restated articles of incorporation, as the articles of incorporation currently in effect, without including the certificate information required by subsection 4.

89 Acts, ch 288, §115 SF 502

490.1008 Amendment pursuant to reorganization.

1. A corporation's articles of incorporation may be amended without action by the board of directors or shareholders to carry out a plan of reorganization ordered or decreed by a court of competent jurisdiction under federal statute if the articles of incorporation after amendment contain only provisions required or permitted by section 490.202.

2. The individual or individuals designated by the court shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing articles of amendment setting forth all of the following:

a. The name of the corporation.

b. The text of each amendment approved by the court.

c. The date of the court's order or decree approving the articles of amendment.

d. The title of the reorganization proceeding in which the order or decree was entered.

e. A statement that the court had jurisdiction of the proceeding under federal statute.

3. Shareholders of a corporation undergoing reorganization do not have dissenters' rights except as and to the extent provided in the reorganization plan.

4. This section does not apply after entry of a final decree in the reorganization proceeding even though the court retains jurisdiction of the proceeding for limited purposes unrelated to consummation of the reorganization plan.

89 Acts, ch 288, §116 SF 502

490.1009 Effect of amendment.

An amendment to articles of incorporation does not affect a cause of action existing against or in favor of the corporation, a proceeding to which the corporation is a party, or the existing rights of persons other than shareholders of the corporation. An amendment changing a corporation's name does not abate a proceeding brought by or against the corporation in its former name.

490.1010 through 490.1019 Reserved.

PART B

490.1020 Amendment of bylaws by board of directors or shareholders.

1. A corporation's board of directors may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws unless either of the following apply:

a. The articles of incorporation or this chapter reserve this power exclusively to the shareholders in whole or part.

b. The shareholders in amending or repealing a particular bylaw provide expressly that the board of directors shall not amend or repeal that bylaw.

2. A corporation's shareholders may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws even though the bylaws may also be amended or repealed by its board of directors.

89 Acts, ch 288, §118 SF 502
NEW section

490.1021 Bylaw increasing quorum or voting requirement for shareholders.

1. If authorized by the articles of incorporation, the shareholders may adopt or amend a bylaw that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders or voting groups of shareholders than is required by this chapter. The adoption or amendment of a bylaw that adds, changes, or deletes a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote and voting groups required to take action under the quorum and voting requirement then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

2. A bylaw that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders under subsection 1 shall not be adopted, amended, or repealed by the board of directors.

89 Acts, ch 288, §119 SF 502
NEW section

490.1022 Bylaw increasing quorum or voting requirement for directors.

1. A bylaw that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors may be amended or repealed:

- a. If originally adopted by the shareholders, only by the shareholders.
- b. If originally adopted by the board of directors, either by the shareholders or by the board of directors.

2. A bylaw adopted or amended by the shareholders that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors may provide that it may be amended or repealed only by a specified vote of either the shareholders or the board of directors.

3. Action by the board of directors under subsection 1, paragraph "b" to adopt or amend a bylaw that changes the quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote required to take action under the quorum and voting requirement then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

DIVISION XI

MERGER AND SHARE EXCHANGE

490.1101 Merger.

1. One or more corporations may merge into another corporation if the board of directors of each corporation adopts and its shareholders, if required by section 490.1103, approve a plan of merger.

2. The plan of merger must set forth all of the following:

- a. The name of each corporation planning to merge and the name of the surviving corporation into which each other corporation plans to merge.
- b. The terms and conditions of the merger.
- c. The manner and basis of converting the shares of each corporation into shares, obligations, or other securities of the surviving or any other corporation or into cash or other property in whole or part.

3. The plan of merger may set forth:

- a. Restated articles or amendments to the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation.
- b. Other provisions relating to the merger.

89 Acts, ch 288, §121 SF 502

490.1102 Share exchange.

1. A corporation may acquire all of the outstanding shares of one or more classes or series of another corporation if the board of directors of each corporation adopts and its shareholders, if required by section 490.1103, approve the exchange.
  2. The plan of exchange must set forth all of the following:
    - a. The name of the corporation whose shares will be acquired and the name of the acquiring corporation.
    - b. The terms and conditions of the exchange.
    - c. The manner and basis of exchanging the shares to be acquired for shares, obligations, or other securities of the acquiring or any other corporation or for cash or other property in whole or part.
  3. The plan of exchange may set forth other provisions relating to the exchange.
  4. This section does not limit the power of a corporation to acquire all or part of the shares of one or more classes or series of another corporation through a voluntary exchange or otherwise.

89 Acts, ch 288, §122 SF 502

490.1103 Action on plan.

1. After adopting a plan of merger or share exchange, the board of directors of each corporation party to the merger, and the board of directors of the corporation whose shares will be acquired in the share exchange, shall submit the plan of merger, except as provided in subsection 7, or share exchange for approval by its shareholders.
2. For a plan of merger or share exchange to be approved both of the following must occur:
  - a. The board of directors must recommend the plan of merger or share exchange to the shareholders, unless the board of directors determines that because of conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation and communicates the basis for its determination to the shareholders with the plan.
  - b. The shareholders entitled to vote must approve the plan.
3. The board of directors may condition its submission of the proposed merger or share exchange on any basis.
4. The corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the proposed shareholders' meeting in accordance with section 490.705. The notice must also state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the plan of merger or share exchange and contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan.
5. Unless this chapter, the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection 3 require a greater vote or a vote by voting groups, the plan of merger or share exchange to be authorized must be approved by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the plan by a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast on the plan by that voting group.
6. Separate voting by voting groups is required:
  - a. On a plan of merger if the plan contains a provision that, if contained in a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation, would require action by one or more separate voting groups on the proposed amendment under section 490.1004.

b. On a plan of share exchange, by each class or series of shares included in the exchange, with each class or series constituting a separate voting group.

7. Action by the shareholders of the surviving corporation on a plan of merger is not required if all of the following apply:

a. The articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation will not differ, except for amendments enumerated in section 490.1002, from its articles before the merger.

b. Each shareholder of the surviving corporation whose shares were outstanding immediately before the effective date of the merger will hold the same number of shares, with identical designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights, immediately after.

c. The number of voting shares outstanding immediately after the merger, plus the number of voting shares issuable as a result of the merger, either by the conversion of securities issued pursuant to the merger or the exercise of rights and warrants issued pursuant to the merger, will not exceed by more than twenty percent the total number of voting shares of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately before the merger.

d. The number of participating shares outstanding immediately after the merger plus the number of participating shares issuable as a result of the merger, either by the conversion of securities issued pursuant to the merger or the exercise of rights and warrants issued pursuant to the merger, will not exceed by more than twenty percent the total number of participating shares outstanding immediately before the merger.

8. As used in subsection 7:

a. "Participating shares" means shares that entitle their holders to participate without limitation in distributions.

b. "Voting shares" means shares that entitle their holders to vote unconditionally in elections of directors.

9. After a merger or share exchange is authorized, and at any time before articles of merger or share exchange are filed, the planned merger or share exchange may be abandoned, subject to any contractual rights, without further shareholder action, in accordance with the procedure set forth in the plan of merger or share exchange or, if none is set forth, in the manner determined by the board of directors.

89 Acts, ch 288, §123 SF 502

490.1104 Merger of subsidiary.

1. A parent corporation owning at least ninety percent of the outstanding shares of each class of a subsidiary corporation may merge the subsidiary into itself without approval of the shareholders of the parent or subsidiary.

2. The board of directors of the parent shall adopt a plan of merger that sets forth both of the following:

a. The names of the parent and subsidiary.

b. The manner and basis of converting the shares of the subsidiary into shares, obligations, or other securities of the parent or any other corporation or into cash or other property in whole or part.

3. The parent corporation shall mail a copy or summary of the plan of merger to each shareholder of the subsidiary who does not waive the mailing requirement in writing.

4. The parent corporation shall not deliver articles of merger to the secretary of state for filing until at least thirty days after the date it mailed a copy of the plan of merger to each shareholder of the subsidiary who did not waive the mailing requirement.

5. Articles of merger under this section shall not contain amendments to the articles of incorporation of the parent corporation except for amendments enumerated in section 490.1002.

89 Acts, ch 288, §124 SF 502

490.1105 Articles of merger or share exchange.

1. After a plan of merger or share exchange is approved by the shareholders, or adopted by the board of directors if shareholder approval is not required, the surviving or acquiring corporation shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing articles of merger or share exchange setting forth all of the following:

- a. The plan of merger or share exchange.
- b. If shareholder approval was not required, a statement to that effect.
- c. If approval of the shareholders of one or more corporations party to the merger or share exchange was required, both of the following:

(1) The designation, number of outstanding shares, and number of votes entitled to be cast by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the plan as to each corporation.

(2) Either the total number of votes cast for and against the plan by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the plan or the total number of undisputed votes cast for the plan separately by each voting group and a statement that the number cast for the plan by each voting group was sufficient for approval by that voting group.

2. A merger or share exchange takes effect upon the effective date of the articles of merger or share exchange.

89 Acts, ch 288, §125 SF 502
NEW section

490.1106 Effect of merger or share exchange.

1. When a merger takes effect all of the following apply:

a. Every other corporation party to the merger merges into the surviving corporation and the separate existence of every corporation except the surviving corporation ceases.

b. The title to all real estate and other property owned by each corporation party to the merger is vested in the surviving corporation without reversion or impairment.

c. The surviving corporation has all liabilities of each corporation party to the merger.

d. A proceeding pending against any corporation party to the merger may be continued as if the merger did not occur or the surviving corporation may be substituted in the proceeding for the corporation whose existence ceased.

e. The articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation are amended to the extent provided in the plan of merger.

f. The shares of each corporation party to the merger that are to be converted into shares, obligations, or other securities of the surviving or any other corporation or into cash or other property are converted, and the former holders of the shares are entitled only to the rights provided in the articles of merger or to their rights under division XIII.

2. When a share exchange takes effect, the shares of each acquired corporation are exchanged as provided in the plan, and the former holders of the shares are entitled only to the exchange rights provided in the articles of share exchange or to their rights under division XIII.

490.1107 Merger or share exchange with foreign corporation.

1. One or more foreign corporations may merge or enter into a share exchange with one or more domestic corporations if:

a. In a merger, the merger is permitted by the law of the state or country under whose law each foreign corporation is incorporated and each foreign corporation complies with that law in effecting the merger.

b. In a share exchange, the corporation whose shares will be acquired is a domestic corporation, whether or not a share exchange is permitted by the law of the state or country under whose law the acquiring corporation is incorporated.

c. The foreign corporation complies with section 490.1105 if it is the surviving corporation of the merger or acquiring corporation of the share exchange.

d. Each domestic corporation complies with the applicable provisions of sections 490.1101 through 490.1104 and, if it is the surviving corporation of the merger or acquiring corporation of the share exchange, with section 490.1105.

2. Upon the merger or share exchange taking effect, the surviving foreign corporation of a merger and the acquiring foreign corporation of a share exchange is deemed:

a. To appoint the secretary of state as its agent for service of process in a proceeding to enforce any obligation or the rights of dissenting shareholders of each domestic corporation party to the merger or share exchange.

b. To agree that it will promptly pay to the dissenting shareholders of each domestic corporation party to the merger or share exchange the amount, if any, to which they are entitled under division XIII.

3. This section does not limit the power of a foreign corporation to acquire all or part of the shares of one or more classes or series of a domestic corporation through a voluntary exchange or otherwise.

490.1108 Consideration of community interests in consideration of acquisition proposals.

1. A director, in determining what is in the best interest of the corporation when considering a tender offer or proposal of acquisition, merger, consolidation, or similar proposal, may consider any or all of the following community interest factors, in addition to consideration of the effects of any action on shareholders:

a. The effects of the action on the corporation's employees, suppliers, creditors, and customers.

b. The effects of the action on the communities in which the corporation operates.

2. If on the basis of the community interest factors described in paragraph 1, the board of directors determines that a proposal or offer to acquire or merge the corporation is not in the best interests of the corporation, it may reject the proposal or offer. If the board of directors determines to reject any such proposal or offer, the board of directors has no obligation to facilitate, to remove any barriers to, or to refrain from impeding, the proposal or offer. Consideration of any or all of the community interest factors is not a violation of the business judgment rule or of any duty of the director to the shareholders, or a group of shareholders, even if the director reasonably determines that a community interest factor or factors outweigh the financial or other benefits to the corporation or a shareholder or group of shareholders.

DIVISION XII
SALE OF ASSETS

490.1201 Sale of assets in regular course of business and mortgage of assets.

1. A corporation may, on the terms and conditions and for the consideration determined by the board of directors do any of the following:

a. Sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all, of its property in the usual and regular course of business.

b. Mortgage, pledge, dedicate to the repayment of indebtedness, whether with or without recourse, or otherwise encumber any or all of its property whether or not in the usual and regular course of business.

c. Transfer any or all of its property to a corporation all the shares of which are owned by the transferring corporation whether or not in the usual course of business.

2. Unless the articles of incorporation require it, approval by the shareholders of a transaction described in subsection 1 is not required.

89 Acts, ch 288, §129 SF 502

490.1202 Sale of assets other than in regular course of business.

1. A corporation may sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all, of its property, with or without the good will, otherwise than in the usual and regular course of business, on the terms and conditions and for the consideration determined by the corporation's board of directors, if the board of directors proposes and its shareholders approve the proposed transaction.

2. For a transaction to be authorized both of the following must occur:

a. The board of directors must recommend the proposed transaction to the shareholders unless the board of directors determines that because of conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation and communicates the basis for its determination to the shareholders with the submission of the proposed transaction.

b. The shareholders entitled to vote must approve the transaction.

3. The board of directors may condition its submission of the proposed transaction on any basis.

4. The corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the proposed shareholders' meeting in accordance with section 490.705. The notice must also state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property of the corporation and contain or be accompanied by a description of the transaction.

5. Unless the articles of incorporation or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection 3 require a greater vote or a vote by voting groups, the transaction to be authorized must be approved by a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast on the transaction.

6. After a sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of property is authorized, the transaction may be abandoned subject to any contractual rights without further shareholder action.

7. A transaction that constitutes a distribution is governed by section 490.640 and not by this section.

DIVISION XIII

DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

PART A

490.1301 Definitions for division XIII.

In this division:

1. "Corporation" means the issuer of the shares held by a dissenter before the corporate action, or the surviving or acquiring corporation by merger or share exchange of that issuer.

2. "Dissenter" means a shareholder who is entitled to dissent from corporate action under section 490.1302 and who exercises that right when and in the manner required by sections 490.1320 through 490.1328.

3. "Fair value", with respect to a dissenter's shares, means the value of the shares immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action unless exclusion would be inequitable.

4. "Interest" means interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment, at the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans or, if none, at a rate that is fair and equitable under all the circumstances.

5. "Record shareholder" means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.

6. "Beneficial shareholder" means the person who is a beneficial owner of shares held by a nominee as the record shareholder.

7. "Shareholder" means the record shareholder or the beneficial shareholder.

89 Acts, ch 288, §131 SF 502

490.1302 Shareholders' right to dissent.

1. A shareholder is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:

a. Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party if either of the following apply:

(1) Shareholder approval is required for the merger by section 490.1103 or the articles of incorporation and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger.

(2) The corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under section 490.1104.

b. Consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan.

c. Consummation of a sale or exchange of all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within one year after the date of sale.

d. An amendment of the articles of incorporation that materially and adversely affects rights in respect of a dissenter's shares because it does any or all of the following:

- (1) Alters or abolishes a preferential right of the shares.
- (2) Creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of redemption, including a provision respecting a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase, of the shares.
- (3) Alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares or other securities.
- (4) Excludes or limits the right of the shares to vote on any matter, or to cumulate votes, other than a limitation by dilution through issuance of shares or other securities with similar voting rights.
- (5) Reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if the fractional share so created is to be acquired for cash under section 490.604.
- (6) Extends, for the first time after being governed by this chapter, the period of duration of a corporation organized under chapter 491 or 496A and existing for a period of years on the day preceding the date the corporation is first governed by this chapter.

e. Any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.

2. A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for the shareholder's shares under this chapter is not entitled to challenge the corporate action creating the shareholder's entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.

89 Acts, ch 288, §132 SF 502

490.1303 Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners.

1. A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in that shareholder's name only if the shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the shareholder asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which the shareholder dissents and the shareholder's other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

2. A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on the shareholder's behalf only if the shareholder does both of the following:

a. Submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights.

b. Does so with respect to all shares of which the shareholder is the beneficial shareholder or over which that beneficial shareholder has power to direct the vote.

490.1304 through 490.1319 Reserved.

PART B

490.1320 Notice of dissenters' rights.

1. If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 490.1302 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice must state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under this part and be accompanied by a copy of this part.

2. If corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 490.1302 is taken without a vote of shareholders, the corporation shall notify in writing all shareholders entitled to assert dissenters' rights that the action was taken and send them the dissenters' notice described in section 490.1322.

490.1321 Notice of intent to demand payment.

1. If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 490.1302 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights must do all of the following:

a. Deliver to the corporation before the vote is taken written notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment for the shareholder's shares if the proposed action is effectuated.

b. Not vote the dissenting shareholder's shares in favor of the proposed action.

2. A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection 1, is not entitled to payment for the shareholder's shares under this part.

89 Acts, ch 288, §135 SF 502

490.1322 Dissenters' notice.

1. If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under section 490.1302 is authorized at a shareholders' meeting, the corporation shall deliver a written dissenters' notice to all shareholders who satisfied the requirements of section 490.1321.

2. The dissenters' notice must be sent no later than ten days after the corporate action by the shareholders was taken and must do all of the following:

a. State where the payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for certificated shares must be deposited.

b. Inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received.

c. Supply a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action and requires that the person asserting dissenters' rights certify whether or not the person acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date.

d. Set a date by which the corporation must receive the payment demand, which date shall not be fewer than thirty nor more than sixty days after the date the subsection 1 notice is delivered.

e. Be accompanied by a copy of this division.

89 Acts, ch 288, §136 SF 502

490.1323 Duty to demand payment.

1. A shareholder sent a dissenters' notice described in section 490.1322 must demand payment, certify whether the shareholder acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the dissenters' notice pursuant to section 490.1322, subsection 2, paragraph "c", and deposit the shareholder's certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice.

2. The shareholder who demands payment and deposits the shareholder's shares under subsection 1 retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are canceled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action.

3. A shareholder who does not demand payment or deposit the shareholder's share certificates where required, each by the date set in the dissenters' notice, is not entitled to payment for the shareholder's shares under this division.

89 Acts, ch 288, §137 SF 502

490.1324 Share restrictions.

1. The corporation may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares from the date the demand for their payment is received until the proposed corporate action is taken or the restrictions released under section 490.1326.

2. The person for whom dissenters' rights are asserted as to uncertificated shares retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are canceled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action.

89 Acts, ch 288, §138 SF 502

490.1325 Payment.

1. Except as provided in section 490.1327, as soon as the proposed corporate action is taken, or upon receipt of a payment demand, the corporation shall pay each dissenter who complied with section 490.1323 the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus accrued interest.

2. The payment must be accompanied by all of the following:

a. The corporation's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than sixteen months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any.

b. A statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares.

c. An explanation of how the interest was calculated.

d. A statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under section 490.1328.

e. A copy of this division.

89 Acts, ch 288, §139 SF 502
NEW section

490.1326 Failure to take action.

1. If the corporation does not take the proposed action within sixty days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, the corporation shall return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares.

2. If after returning deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, the corporation takes the proposed action, it must send a new dissenters' notice under section 490.1322 and repeat the payment demand procedure.

89 Acts, ch 288, §140 SF 502

490.1327 After-acquired shares.

1. A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by section 490.1325 from a dissenter unless the dissenter was the beneficial owner of the shares before the date set forth in the dissenters' notice as the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action.

2. To the extent the corporation elects to withhold payment under subsection 1, after taking the proposed corporate action, it shall estimate the fair value of the shares, plus accrued interest, and shall pay this amount to each dissenter who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of the dissenter's demand. The corporation shall send with its offer a statement of its estimate of the fair value of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated, and a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under section 490.1328.

89 Acts, ch 288, §141 SF 502
NEW section

490.1328 Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with payment or offer.

1. A dissenter may notify the corporation in writing of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and amount of interest due, and demand payment of the dissenter's estimate, less any payment under section

490.1325, or reject the corporation's offer under section 490.1327 and demand payment of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and interest due, if any of the following apply:

a. The dissenter believes that the amount paid under section 490.1325 or offered under section 490.1327 is less than the fair value of the dissenter's shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated.

b. The corporation fails to make payment under section 490.1325 within sixty days after the date set for demanding payment.

c. The corporation, having failed to take the proposed action, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within sixty days after the date set for demanding payment.

2. A dissenter waives the dissenter's right to demand payment under this section unless the dissenter notifies the corporation of the dissenter's demand in writing under subsection 1 within thirty days after the corporation made or offered payment for the dissenter's shares.

PART C

490.1330 Court action.

1. If a demand for payment under section 490.1328 remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within sixty days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the sixty-day period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

2. The corporation shall commence the proceeding in the district court of the county where a corporation's principal office or, if none in this state, its registered office is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the registered office of the domestic corporation merged with or whose shares were acquired by the foreign corporation was located.

3. The corporation shall make all dissenters, whether or not residents of this state, whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

4. The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection 2 is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The dissenters are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

5. Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment for either of the following:

a. The amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation.

b. The fair value, plus accrued interest, of the dissenter's after-acquired shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under section 490.1327.

89 Acts, ch 288, §143 SF 502
NEW section

490.1331 Court costs and counsel fees.

1. The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under section 490.1330 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under section 490.1328.

2. The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable, for either of the following:

a. Against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of sections 490.1320 through 490.1328.

b. Against either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this chapter.

3. If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to these counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenters who were benefited.

DIVISION XIV

DISSOLUTION

PART A

490.1401 Dissolution by incorporators or initial directors.

A majority of the incorporators or initial directors of a corporation that has not issued shares or has not commenced business may dissolve the corporation by delivering to the secretary of state for filing articles of dissolution that set forth all of the following:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. The date of its incorporation.
3. Either of the following:
  - a. That none of the corporation's shares has been issued.
  - b. That the corporation has not commenced business.
4. That no debt of the corporation remains unpaid.
5. That the net assets of the corporation remaining after winding up have been distributed to the shareholders, if shares were issued.
6. That a majority of the incorporators or initial directors authorized the dissolution.

89 Acts, ch 288, §145 SF 502
NEW section

490.1402 Dissolution by board of directors and shareholders.

1. A corporation's board of directors may propose dissolution for submission to the shareholders.
2. For a proposal to dissolve to be adopted both of the following must apply:
  - a. The board of directors must recommend dissolution to the shareholders unless the board of directors determines that because of conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation and communicates the basis for its determination to the shareholders.
  - b. The shareholders entitled to vote must approve the proposal to dissolve as provided in subsection 5.

3. The board of directors may condition its submission of the proposal for dissolution on any basis.

4. The corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the proposed shareholders' meeting in accordance with section 490.705. The notice must also state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider dissolving the corporation.

5. Unless the articles of incorporation or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection 3 requires a greater vote or a vote by voting groups, the proposal to dissolve to be adopted must be approved by a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast on that proposal.

89 Acts, ch 288, §146 SF 502

490.1403 Articles of dissolution.

1. At any time after dissolution is authorized, the corporation may dissolve by delivering to the secretary of state for filing articles of dissolution setting forth all of the following:

a. The name of the corporation.

b. The date dissolution was authorized.

c. If dissolution was approved by the shareholders, both of the following:

(1) The number of votes entitled to be cast on the proposal to dissolve.

(2) Either the total number of votes cast for and against dissolution or the total number of undisputed votes cast for dissolution and a statement that the number cast for dissolution was sufficient for approval.

d. If voting by voting groups was required, the information required by paragraph "c" must be separately provided for each voting group entitled to vote separately on the plan to dissolve.

2. A corporation is dissolved upon the effective date of its articles of dissolution.

89 Acts, ch 288, §147 SF 502
NEW section

490.1404 Revocation of dissolution.

1. A corporation may revoke its dissolution within one hundred twenty days of its effective date.

2. Revocation of dissolution must be authorized in the same manner as the dissolution was authorized unless that authorization permitted revocation by action of the board of directors alone, in which event the board of directors may revoke the dissolution without shareholder action.

3. After the revocation of dissolution is authorized, the corporation may revoke the dissolution by delivering to the secretary of state for filing articles of revocation of dissolution, together with a copy of its articles of dissolution, that set forth all of the following:

a. The name of the corporation.

b. The effective date of the dissolution that was revoked.

c. The date that the revocation of dissolution was authorized.

d. If the corporation's board of directors or incorporators revoked the dissolution, a statement to that effect.

e. If the corporation's board of directors revoked a dissolution authorized by the shareholders, a statement that revocation was permitted by action by the board of directors alone pursuant to that authorization.

f. If shareholder action was required to revoke the dissolution, the information required by section 490.1403, subsection 1, paragraph "c" or "d".

4. Revocation of dissolution is effective upon the effective date of the articles of revocation of dissolution.

5. When the revocation of dissolution is effective, it relates back to and takes effect as of the effective date of the dissolution as if the dissolution had never occurred.

89 Acts, ch 288, §148 SF 502

490.1405 Effect of dissolution.

1. A dissolved corporation continues its corporate existence but shall not carry on any business except that appropriate to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs, including any of the following:

- a. Collecting its assets.
- b. Disposing of its properties that will not be distributed in kind to its shareholders.
- c. Discharging or making provision for discharging its liabilities.
- d. Distributing its remaining property among its shareholders according to their interests.
- e. Doing every other act necessary to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs.

2. Dissolution of a corporation does not do any of the following:

- a. Transfer title to the corporation's property.
- b. Prevent transfer of its shares or securities, although the authorization to dissolve may provide for closing the corporation's share transfer records.
- c. Subject its directors or officers to standards of conduct different from those prescribed in division VIII.
- d. Change quorum or voting requirements for its board of directors or shareholders; change provisions for selection, resignation, or removal of its directors or officers or both; or change provisions for amending its bylaws.
- e. Prevent commencement of a proceeding by or against the corporation in its corporate name.
- f. Abate or suspend a proceeding pending by or against the corporation on the effective date of dissolution.
- g. Terminate the authority of the registered agent of the corporation.

490.1406 Known claims against dissolved corporation.

1. A dissolved corporation may dispose of the known claims against it by following the procedure described in this section.

2. The dissolved corporation shall notify its known claimants in writing of the dissolution at any time after its effective date. The written notice must do all of the following:

- a. Describe information that must be included in a claim.
- b. Provide a mailing address where a claim may be sent.
- c. State the deadline, which may not be fewer than one hundred twenty days from the effective date of the written notice, by which the dissolved corporation must receive the claim.
- d. State that the claim will be barred if not received by the deadline.

3. A claim against the dissolved corporation is barred if either of the following occur:

- a. A claimant who was given written notice under subsection 2 does not deliver the claim to the dissolved corporation by the deadline.
- b. A claimant whose claim was rejected by the dissolved corporation does not commence a proceeding to enforce the claim within ninety days from the effective date of the rejection notice.

4. For purposes of this section, "claim" does not include a contingent liability or a claim based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution.

89 Acts, ch 288, §150 SF 502
NEW section

490.1407 Unknown claims against dissolved corporation.

1. A dissolved corporation may also publish notice of its dissolution and request that persons with claims against the corporation present them in accordance with the notice.

2. The notice must meet all of the following requirements:

a. Be published one time in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the dissolved corporation's principal office or, if none in this state, its registered office is or was last located.

b. Describe the information that must be included in a claim and provide a mailing address where the claim may be sent.

c. State that a claim against the corporation will be barred unless a proceeding to enforce the claim is commenced within five years after the publication of the notice.

3. If the dissolved corporation publishes a newspaper notice in accordance with subsection 2, the claim of each of the following claimants is barred unless the claimant commences a proceeding to enforce the claim against the dissolved corporation within five years after the publication date of the newspaper notice:

a. A claimant who did not receive written notice under section 490.1406.

b. A claimant whose claim was timely sent to the dissolved corporation but not acted on.

c. A claimant whose claim is contingent or based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution.

4. A claim may be enforced under this section in either of the following ways:

a. Against the dissolved corporation, to the extent of its undistributed assets.

b. If the assets have been distributed in liquidation, against a shareholder of the dissolved corporation to the extent of the shareholder's pro rata share of the claim or the corporate assets distributed to the shareholder in liquidation, whichever is less, but a shareholder's total liability for all claims under this section shall not exceed the total amount of assets distributed to the shareholder in liquidation.

PART B

490.1420 Grounds for administrative dissolution.

The secretary of state may commence a proceeding under section 490.1421 to administratively dissolve a corporation if any of the following apply:

1. The corporation does not pay within sixty days after they are due any franchise taxes or penalties imposed by this chapter or other law.

2. The corporation has not delivered an annual report to the secretary of state in a form that meets the requirements of section 490.1622, within sixty days after it is due.

3. The corporation is without a registered agent or registered office in this state for sixty days or more.

4. The corporation does not notify the secretary of state within sixty days that its registered agent or registered office has been changed, that its registered agent has resigned, or that its registered office has been discontinued.

5. The corporation's period of duration stated in its articles of incorporation expires.

89 Acts, ch 288, §152 SF 502

490.1421 Procedure for and effect of administrative dissolution.

1. If the secretary of state determines that one or more grounds exist under section 490.1420 for dissolving a corporation, the secretary of state shall serve the corporation with written notice of the secretary of state's determination under section 490.504.

2. If the corporation does not correct each ground for dissolution or demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the secretary of state that each ground determined by the secretary of state does not exist within sixty days after service of the notice is perfected under section 490.504, the secretary of state shall administratively dissolve the corporation by signing a certificate of dissolution that recites the ground or grounds for dissolution and its effective date. The secretary of state shall file the original of the certificate and serve a copy on the corporation under section 490.504.

3. A corporation administratively dissolved continues its corporate existence but shall not carry on any business except that necessary to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs under section 490.1405 and notify claimants under sections 490.1406 and 490.1407.

4. The administrative dissolution of a corporation does not terminate the authority of its registered agent.

490.1422 Reinstatement following administrative dissolution.

1. A corporation administratively dissolved under section 490.1421 may apply to the secretary of state for reinstatement within two years after the effective date of dissolution. The application must meet all of the following requirements:

a. Recite the name of the corporation at its date of dissolution and the effective date of its administrative dissolution.

b. State that the ground or grounds for dissolution either did not exist or have been eliminated.

c. State a corporate name that satisfies the requirements of section 490.401.

d. Contain a certificate from the department of revenue and finance reciting that all taxes owed by the corporation have been paid.

2. If the secretary of state determines that the application contains the information required by subsection 1 and that the information is correct, the secretary of state shall cancel the certificate of dissolution and prepare a certificate of reinstatement that recites the secretary of state's determination and the effective date of reinstatement, file the original of the certificate, and serve a copy on the corporation under section 490.504. If the corporate name in subsection 1, paragraph "c" is different than the corporate name in subsection 1, paragraph "a", the certificate of reinstatement shall constitute an amendment to the articles of incorporation insofar as it pertains to the corporate name.

3. When the reinstatement is effective, it relates back to and takes effect as of the effective date of the administrative dissolution as if the administrative dissolution had never occurred.

490.1423 Appeal from denial of reinstatement.

1. If the secretary of state denies a corporation's application for reinstatement following administrative dissolution, the secretary of state shall serve the corporation under section 490.504 with a written notice that explains the reason or reasons for denial.

2. The corporation may appeal the denial of reinstatement to the district court within thirty days after service of the notice of denial is perfected. The corporation appeals by petitioning the court to set aside the dissolution and attaching to the petition copies of the secretary of state's certificate of dissolution, the corporation's application for reinstatement, and the secretary of state's notice of denial.

3. The court may summarily order the secretary of state to reinstate the dissolved corporation or may take other action the court considers appropriate.

4. The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

PART C

490.1430 Grounds for judicial dissolution.

The district court may dissolve a corporation in any of the following ways:

1. A proceeding by the attorney general, if it is established that either of the following apply:

a. The corporation obtained its articles of incorporation through fraud.

b. The corporation has continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred upon it by law.

2. A proceeding by a shareholder if it is established that any of the following conditions exist:

a. The directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs, the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock, and either irreparable injury to the corporation is threatened or being suffered, or the business and affairs of the corporation can no longer be conducted to the advantage of the shareholders generally, because of the deadlock.

b. The directors or those in control of the corporation have acted, are acting, or will act in a manner that is illegal, oppressive, or fraudulent.

c. The shareholders are deadlocked in voting power and have failed, for a period that includes at least two consecutive annual meeting dates, to elect successors to directors whose terms have expired.

d. The corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted.

3. A proceeding by a creditor if it is established that either of the following apply:

a. The creditor's claim has been reduced to judgment, the execution on the judgment returned unsatisfied, and the corporation is insolvent.

b. The corporation has admitted in writing that the creditor's claim is due and owing and the corporation is insolvent.

4. A proceeding by the corporation to have its voluntary dissolution continued under court supervision.

490.1432 Receivership or custodianship.

1. A court in a judicial proceeding brought to dissolve a corporation may appoint one or more receivers to wind up and liquidate, or one or more custodians to manage, the business and affairs of the corporation. The court shall hold a hearing, after notifying all parties to the proceeding and any interested persons designated by the court, before appointing a receiver or custodian. The court appointing a receiver or custodian has exclusive jurisdiction over the corporation and all its property wherever located.

2. The court may appoint an individual or a domestic or foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state as a receiver or custodian. The court may require the receiver or custodian to post bond, with or without sureties, in an amount the court directs.

3. The court shall describe the powers and duties of the receiver or custodian in its appointing order, which may be amended from time to time. Among other powers:

a. The receiver may do either or both of the following:

(1) Dispose of all or any part of the assets of the corporation wherever located, at a public or private sale, if authorized by the court.

(2) Sue and defend in the receiver's own name as receiver of the corporation in all courts of this state.

b. The custodian may exercise all of the powers of the corporation, through or in place of its board of directors or officers, to the extent necessary to manage the affairs of the corporation in the best interests of its shareholders and creditors.

4. The court during a receivership may redesignate the receiver a custodian, and during a custodianship may redesignate the custodian a receiver, if doing so is in the best interests of the corporation, its shareholders, and creditors.

5. The court from time to time during the receivership or custodianship may order compensation paid and expense disbursements or reimbursements made to the receiver or custodian and the receiver's or custodian's counsel from the assets of the corporation or proceeds from the sale of the assets.

490.1502 Consequences of transacting business without authority.

1. A foreign corporation transacting business in this state without a certificate of authority shall not maintain a proceeding in any court in this state until it obtains a certificate of authority.

2. The successor to a foreign corporation that transacted business in this state without a certificate of authority and the assignee of a cause of action arising out of that business shall not maintain a proceeding based on that cause of action in any court in this state until the foreign corporation or its successor obtains a certificate of authority.

3. A court may stay a proceeding commenced by a foreign corporation, its successor, or assignee until it determines whether the foreign corporation or its successor requires a certificate of authority. If it so determines, the court may further stay the proceeding until the foreign corporation or its successor obtains the certificate.

4. A foreign corporation is liable for a civil penalty of not to exceed a total of one thousand dollars if it transacts business in this state without a certificate of authority. The attorney general may collect all penalties due under this subsection.

5. Notwithstanding subsections 1 and 2, the failure of a foreign corporation to obtain a certificate of authority does not impair the validity of its corporate acts or prevent it from defending any proceeding in this state.

490.1504 Amended certificate of authority.

1. A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state must obtain an amended certificate of authority from the secretary of state if it changes any of the following:

- a. Its corporate name.
  - b. The period of its duration.
  - c. The state or country of its incorporation.
2. The requirements of section 490.1503 for obtaining an original certificate of authority apply to obtaining an amended certificate under this section.

89 Acts, ch 288, §164 SF 502

490.1505 Effect of certificate of authority.

1. A certificate of authority authorizes the foreign corporation to which it is issued to transact business in this state subject, however, to the right of the state to revoke the certificate as provided in this chapter.

2. A foreign corporation with a valid certificate of authority has the same but no greater rights and has the same but no greater privileges as, and except as otherwise provided in this chapter is subject to the same duties, restrictions, penalties, and liabilities now or later imposed on, a domestic corporation of like character.

3. This chapter does not authorize this state to regulate the organization or internal affairs of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state.

490.1506 Corporate name of foreign corporation.

1. If the corporate name of a foreign corporation does not satisfy the requirements of section 490.401, the foreign corporation, to obtain or maintain a certificate of authority to transact business in this state, may do either of the following:

a. Add the word "corporation", "incorporated", "company", or "limited", or the abbreviation "corp.", "inc.", "co.", or "ltd.", to its corporate name for use in this state.

b. Use a fictitious name to transact business in this state if its real name is unavailable and it delivers to the secretary of state for filing a copy of the resolution of its board of directors, certified by its secretary, adopting the fictitious name.

2. Except as authorized by subsections 3 and 4, the corporate name, including a fictitious name, of a foreign corporation must be distinguishable upon the records of the secretary of state from all of the following:

a. The corporate name of a corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state.

b. A corporate name reserved or registered under section 490.402 or 490.403.

c. The fictitious name of another foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state.

d. The corporate name of a not-for-profit corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state.

3. A foreign corporation may apply to the secretary of state for authorization to use in this state the name of another corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state that is not distinguishable upon the secretary of state's records from the name applied for. The secretary of state shall authorize use of the name applied for if either of the following apply:

b. The applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use the name applied for in this state.

4. A foreign corporation may use in this state the name, including the fictitious name, of another domestic or foreign corporation that is used in this state if the other corporation is incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state and the foreign corporation has done any of the following:

a. Merged with the other corporation.

b. Been formed by reorganization of the other corporation.

c. Acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the corporate name, of the other corporation.

5. If a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state changes its corporate name to one that does not satisfy the requirements of section 490.401, it shall not transact business in this state under the changed name until it adopts a name satisfying the requirements of section 490.401 and obtains an amended certificate of authority under section 490.1504.

490.1511 through 490.1519 Reserved.

PART B

490.1520 Withdrawal of foreign corporation.

1. A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state shall not withdraw from this state until it obtains a certificate of withdrawal from the secretary of state.
2. A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may apply for a certificate of withdrawal by delivering an application to the secretary of state for filing. The application must set forth all of the following:
  - a. The name of the foreign corporation and the name of the state or country under whose law it is incorporated.
  - b. That it is not transacting business in this state and that it surrenders its authority to transact business in this state.
  - c. That it revokes the authority of its registered agent to accept service on its behalf and appoints the secretary of state as its agent for service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action arising during the time it was authorized to transact business in this state.
  - d. A mailing address to which the secretary of state may mail a copy of any process served on the secretary of state under paragraph "c".
  - e. A commitment to notify the secretary of state in the future of any change in its mailing address.
3. After the withdrawal of the corporation is effective, service of process on the secretary of state under this section is service on the foreign corporation. Upon receipt of process, the secretary of state shall mail a copy of the process to the foreign corporation at the mailing address set forth under subsection 2.

NEW section

490.1521 through 490.1529 Reserved.

PART C

490.1530 Grounds for revocation.

The secretary of state may commence a proceeding under section 490.1531 to revoke the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state if:

1. The foreign corporation does not deliver its annual report to the secretary of state within sixty days after it is due.

2. The foreign corporation does not pay within sixty days after they are due any franchise taxes or penalties imposed by this chapter or other laws.

3. The foreign corporation is without a registered agent or registered office in this state for sixty days or more.

4. The foreign corporation does not inform the secretary of state under section 490.1508 or 490.1509 that its registered agent or registered office has changed, that its registered agent has resigned, or that its registered office has been discontinued within sixty days of the change, resignation, or discontinuance.

5. An incorporator, director, officer, or agent of the foreign corporation signed a document that person knew was false in any material respect with intent that the document be delivered to the secretary of state for filing.

6. The secretary of state receives a duly authenticated certificate from the secretary of state or other official having custody of corporate records in the state or country under whose law the foreign corporation is incorporated stating that it has been dissolved or disappeared as the result of a merger.

490.1531 Procedure for and effect of revocation.

1. If the secretary of state determines that one or more grounds exist under section 490.1530 for revocation of a certificate of authority, the secretary of state shall serve the foreign corporation with written notice of the secretary's determination under section 490.1510.

2. If the foreign corporation does not correct each ground for revocation or demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the secretary of state that each ground determined by the secretary of state does not exist within sixty days after service of the notice is perfected under section 490.1510, the secretary of state may revoke the foreign corporation's certificate of authority by signing a certificate of revocation that recites the ground or grounds for revocation and its effective date. The secretary of state shall file the original of the certificate and serve a copy on the foreign corporation under section 490.1510.

3. The authority of a foreign corporation to transact business in this state ceases on the date shown on the certificate revoking its certificate of authority.

4. The secretary of state's revocation of a foreign corporation's certificate of authority appoints the secretary of state the foreign corporation's agent for service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action which arose during the time the foreign corporation was authorized to transact business in this state. Service of process on the secretary of state under this subsection is service on the foreign corporation. Upon receipt of process, the secretary of state shall mail a copy of the process to the secretary of the foreign corporation at its principal office shown in its most recent annual report or in any subsequent communication received from the corporation stating the current mailing address of its principal office, or, if none is on file, in its application for a certificate of authority.

5. Revocation of a foreign corporation's certificate of authority does not terminate the authority of the registered agent of the corporation.

RECORDS AND REPORTS
PART A

490.1601 Corporate records.

1. A corporation shall keep as permanent records minutes of all meetings of its shareholders and board of directors, a record of all actions taken by the shareholders or board of directors without a meeting, and a record of all actions taken by a committee of the board of directors in place of the board of directors on behalf of the corporation.

2. A corporation shall maintain appropriate accounting records.

3. A corporation or its agent shall maintain a record of its shareholders in a form that permits preparation of a list of the names and addresses of all shareholders in alphabetical order by class of shares showing the number and class of shares held by each.

4. A corporation shall maintain its records in written form or in another form capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time.

5. A corporation shall keep a copy of the following records:

a. Its articles or restated articles of incorporation and all amendments to them currently in effect.

b. Its bylaws or restated bylaws and all amendments to them currently in effect.

c. Resolutions adopted by its board of directors creating one or more classes or series of shares, and fixing their relative rights, preferences, and limitations, if shares issued pursuant to those resolutions are outstanding.

d. The minutes of all shareholders' meetings, and records of all action taken by shareholders without a meeting, for the past three years.

e. All written communications to shareholders generally within the past three years, including the financial statements furnished for the past three years under section 490.1620.

f. A list of the names and business addresses of its current directors and officers.

g. Its most recent annual report delivered to the secretary of state under section 490.1622.

490.1602 Inspection of records by shareholders.

1. A shareholder of a corporation is entitled to inspect and copy, during regular business hours at the corporation's principal office, any of the records of the corporation described in section 490.1601, subsection 5, if the shareholder gives the corporation written notice of the shareholder's demand at least five business days before the date on which the shareholder wishes to inspect and copy.

2. A shareholder of a corporation is entitled to inspect and copy, during regular business hours at a reasonable location specified by the corporation, any of the following records of the corporation if the shareholder meets the requirements of subsection 3 and gives the corporation written notice of the shareholder's demand at least five business days before the date on which the shareholder wishes to inspect and copy any of the following:

a. Excerpts from minutes of any meeting of the board of directors, records of any action of a committee of the board of directors while acting in place of the board of directors on behalf of the corporation, minutes of any meeting of the shareholders, and records of action taken by the shareholders or board of directors without a meeting, to the extent not subject to inspection under subsection 1 of this section.

b. Accounting records of the corporation.

c. The record of shareholders.

3. A shareholder may inspect and copy the records described in subsection 2 only if:

a. The shareholder's demand is made in good faith and for a proper purpose.

b. The shareholder describes with reasonable particularity the shareholder's purpose and the records the shareholder desires to inspect.

c. The records are directly connected with the shareholder's purpose.

4. The right of inspection granted by this section shall not be abolished or limited by a corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws.

5. This section does not affect either of the following:

a. The right of a shareholder to inspect records under section 490.720 or, if the shareholder is in litigation with the corporation, to the same extent as any other litigant.

b. The power of a court, independently of this chapter, to compel the production of corporate records for examination.

NEW section

490.1603 Scope of inspection right.

1. A shareholder's agent or attorney has the same inspection and copying rights as the shareholder the agent or attorney represents.

2. The right to copy records under section 490.1602 includes, if reasonable, the right to receive copies made by photographic, xerographic, or other technological means.

3. The corporation may impose a reasonable charge, covering the costs of labor and material, for copies of any documents provided to the shareholder. The charge shall not exceed the estimated cost of production or reproduction of the records.

4. The corporation may comply with a shareholder's demand to inspect the record of shareholders under section 490.1602, subsection 2, paragraph "c" by providing the shareholder with a list of its shareholders that was compiled no earlier than the date of the shareholder's demand.

89 Acts, ch 288, §177 SF 502

490.1604 Court-ordered inspection.

1. If a corporation does not allow a shareholder who complies with section 490.1602, subsection 1, to inspect and copy any records required by that subsection to be available for inspection, the district court of the county where the corporation's principal office or, if none in this state, its registered office is located may summarily order inspection and copying of the records demanded at the corporation's expense upon application of the shareholder.

2. If a corporation does not within a reasonable time allow a shareholder to inspect and copy any other records, the shareholder who complies with section 490.1602, subsections 2 and 3 may apply to the district court in the county where the corporation's principal office or, if none in this state, its registered office is located for an order to permit inspection and copying of the records demanded. The court shall dispose of an application under this subsection on an expedited basis.

3. If the court orders inspection and copying of the records demanded, it shall also order the corporation to pay the shareholder's costs, including reasonable counsel fees, incurred to obtain the order unless the corporation proves that it refused inspection in good faith because it had a reasonable basis for doubt about the right of the shareholder to inspect the records demanded.

4. If the court orders inspection and copying of the records demanded, it may impose reasonable restrictions on the use or distribution of the records by the demanding shareholder.

490.1622 Annual report for secretary of state.

1. Each domestic corporation, and each foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing an annual report that sets forth all of the following:

a. The name of the corporation and the state or country under whose law it is incorporated.

b. The address of its registered office and the name of its registered agent at that office in this state, together with the consent of any new registered agent.

c. The address of its principal office.

d. The names and business addresses of its directors and principal officers.

e. The total number of authorized shares, itemized by class and series, if any, within each class.

f. The total number of issued and outstanding shares, itemized by class and series, if any, within each class.

g. A statement of the amount of agricultural land in this state owned by the corporation.

h. A statement that the corporation is or is not a family farm corporation as defined in section 172C.1.

2. Information in the annual report must be current as of the first day of January of the year in which the report is due. The annual report shall be executed on behalf of the corporation and signed as provided in section 490.120 or by any other person authorized by the board of directors of the corporation.

3. The first annual report shall be delivered to the secretary of state between January 1 and April 1 of the year following the calendar year in which a domestic corporation was incorporated or a foreign corporation was authorized to transact business. Subsequent annual reports must be delivered to the secretary of state between January 1 and April 1 of the following calendar years.

4. If an annual report does not contain the information required by this section, the secretary of state shall promptly notify the reporting domestic or foreign corporation in writing and return the report to it for correction. If the report is corrected to contain the information required by this section and delivered to the secretary of state within thirty days after the effective date of notice, it is deemed to be timely filed.

5. The secretary of state may provide for the change of registered office or registered agent on the form prescribed by the secretary of state for the annual report, provided that the form contains the information required in section 490.502 or 490.1508. If the secretary of state determines that an annual report does not contain the information required by this section but otherwise meets the requirements of section 490.502 or 490.1508 for the purpose of changing the registered office or registered agent, the secretary of state shall file the statement of change of registered office or registered agent, effective as provided in section 490.123, before returning the annual report to the corporation as provided in this section. A statement of change of registered office or agent pursuant to this subsection shall be executed by a person authorized to execute the annual report.

DIVISION XVII

TRANSITION PROVISIONS

490.1701 Application to existing corporations.

1. Except as provided in this subsection or chapter 504 or 504A, this chapter does not apply to or affect entities subject to chapter 504 or 504A. Such entities continue to be governed by all laws of this state applicable to them before December 31, 1989, as those laws are amended. This chapter does not derogate or limit the powers to which such entities are entitled.

2. Unless otherwise provided, this chapter does not apply to an entity subject to chapter 174, 176, 497, 498, 499, 499A, 524, 533, or 534 or a corporation organized on the mutual plan under chapter 491, or a telephone company organized as a corporation under chapter 491 qualifying pursuant to an internal revenue service letter ruling under I.R.C. §501(c)(12) as a nonprofit corporation entitled to distribute profits in a manner similar to a chapter 499 corporation, unless such entity voluntarily elects to adopt the provisions of this chapter and complies with the procedure prescribed by subsection 3 of this section.

3. The procedure for the voluntary election referred to in subsection 2 is as follows:

a. A resolution reciting that the corporation voluntarily adopts this chapter and designating the address of its initial registered office and the name of its registered agent or agents at that office and, if the name of the corporation is not in compliance with the requirements of this chapter, amending the articles of incorporation of the corporation to change the name of the corporation to one complying with the requirements of this chapter, shall be adopted by the board of directors and shareholders by the procedure prescribed by this chapter for the amendment of articles of incorporation.

b. Upon adoption of the required resolution or resolutions, an instrument shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary and verified by one of the officers signing the instrument, which shall set forth all of the following:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) Each such resolution adopted by the corporation and the date of adoption of each resolution.

(3) The address of its registered office and the name of its registered agent.

c. The instrument shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder. The corporation shall at the time it files the instrument with the secretary of state deliver also to the secretary of state for filing in the secretary of state's office any annual report which is then due.

If the county of the initial registered office as stated in the instrument is one which is other than the county where the principal place of business of the corporation, as designated in its articles of incorporation, was located, the secretary of state shall forward also to the county recorder of the county in which the principal place of business of the corporation was located a copy of the instrument and the secretary of state shall forward to the recorder of the county in which the initial registered office of the corporation is located, in addition to the original of the instrument, a copy of the articles of incorporation of the corporation together with all amendments to them as then on file in the secretary of state's office.

d. Upon the filing of the instrument by a corporation all of the following apply:

(1) All of the provisions of this chapter apply to the corporation.

(2) The secretary of state shall issue a certificate as to the filing of the instrument and deliver the certificate to the corporation or its representative.

(3) The secretary of state shall not file the instrument with respect to a corporation unless at the time of filing the corporation is validly existing and in good standing in that office under the chapter under which it is incorporated. The corporation shall be considered validly existing and in good standing for the purpose of this chapter for a period of three months following the expiration date of the corporation, provided all annual reports due have been filed and all fees due in connection with the annual reports have been paid.

e. The provisions of this chapter becoming applicable to a corporation voluntarily electing to be governed by this chapter do not affect any right accrued or established, or any liability or penalty incurred, under the chapter under which it is incorporated prior to the filing by the secretary of state in the secretary of state's office of the instrument manifesting the election by the corporation to adopt the provisions of this chapter as provided in this subsection.

4. Except as specifically provided in this chapter, this chapter applies to all domestic corporations in existence on December 31, 1989, that were incorporated under any general statute of this state providing for incorporation of corporations for profit if power to amend or repeal the statute under which the corporation was incorporated was reserved.

5. A corporation subject to this chapter which does not have a registered office or registered agent or both designated on the records of the secretary of state is subject to all of the following provisions:

a. The office of the corporation set forth in its first annual report filed under this chapter shall be deemed its registered office until December 31, 1990, or until it files a designation of registered office with the secretary of state, whichever is earlier.

b. The person signing the first annual report of the corporation filed under this chapter shall be deemed the registered agent until December 31, 1990, or a statement designating a registered agent has been filed with the secretary of state, whichever is earlier.

c. Section 490.502 does not apply to the corporation until December 31, 1990, or until the corporation files a designation of registered office and registered agent at that office with the secretary of state, whichever is earlier.

6. A corporation subject to this chapter is not subject to chapter 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, or 496.

490.1703 Savings provisions.

1. Except as provided in subsection 2, the repeal of a statute by this chapter* does not affect:

- a. The operation of the statute or any action taken under it before its repeal.
- b. Any ratification, right, remedy, privilege, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred under the statute before its repeal.
- c. Any violation of the statute, or any penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred because of the violation, before its repeal.
- d. Any proceeding, reorganization, or dissolution commenced under the statute before its repeal, and the proceeding, reorganization, or dissolution may be completed in accordance with the statute as if it had not been repealed.

2. If a penalty or punishment imposed for violation of a statute repealed by 1989 Iowa Acts, chapter 288, is reduced by 1989 Iowa Acts, chapter 288, the penalty or punishment if not already imposed shall be imposed in accordance with this chapter.

490.1704 Preemptive rights for existing corporations.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, a corporation which was incorporated under, or which elected to be governed by, chapter 496A prior to December 31, 1989, shall be governed by the following until December 31, 1992:

Except to the extent limited or denied by this section or by the articles of incorporation, shareholders have a preemptive right to acquire unissued shares or securities convertible into such shares or carrying a right to subscribe to or acquire shares.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation:

1. No preemptive right exists:
  - a. To acquire any shares issued to directors, officers, or employees pursuant to approval by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon or when authorized by and consistent with a plan approved by such a vote of shareholders.
  - b. To acquire any shares sold otherwise than for cash.
  - c. To acquire treasury shares of the corporation.
2. Holders of shares of any class that is preferred or limited as to dividends or assets are not entitled to any preemptive right.
3. Holders of shares of common stock are not entitled to any preemptive right to shares of any class that is preferred or limited as to dividends or assets or to any obligations, unless convertible into shares of common stock or carrying a right to subscribe to or acquire shares of common stock.

4. Holders of common stock without voting power have no preemptive right to shares of common stock with voting power.

5. The preemptive right is only an opportunity to acquire shares or other securities under such terms and conditions as the board of directors may fix for the purpose of providing a fair and reasonable opportunity for the exercise of the right.

491.101B Consideration of community interests in consideration of acquisition proposals.

1. A director, in determining what is in the best interest of the corporation when considering a tender offer or proposal of acquisition, merger, consolidation, or similar proposal, may consider any or all of the following community interest factors, in addition to consideration of the effects of any action on shareholders:

- a. The effects of the action on the corporation's employees, suppliers, creditors, and customers.
- b. The effects of the action on the communities in which the corporation operates.

2. If on the basis of the community interest factors described in subsection 1, the board of directors determines that a proposal or offer to acquire or merge the corporation is not in the best interests of the corporation, it may reject the proposal or offer. If the board of directors determines to reject any such proposal or offer, the board of directors has no obligation to facilitate, to remove any barriers to, or to refrain from impeding, the proposal or offer. Consideration of any or all of the community interest factors is not a violation of the business judgment rule or of any duty of the director to the shareholders, or a group of shareholders, even if the director reasonably determines that a community interest factor or factors outweigh the financial or other benefits to the corporation or a shareholder or group of shareholders.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATIONS

496B.8 Stockholders privileges.

Notwithstanding any rule at common law or any provision of any general or special law or any provision in their respective articles of incorporation, agreements of association, or trust indentures:

1. Any person, as defined in the Iowa business corporation Act, is hereby authorized to acquire, purchase, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of any bond, security or other evidences of indebtedness created by, or the shares of the capital stock of, development corporations, and while owners of said shares to exercise all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon, all without the approval of any regulatory agency of this state.

2. Any financial institution is hereby authorized to become a member of a development corporation and to make loans to such corporation.

3. Any financial institution which does not become a member of a development corporation shall not be permitted to acquire any shares of the capital stock of such development corporation.

4. Each financial institution which becomes a member of a development corporation is hereby authorized to acquire, purchase, hold, sell, assign, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, any bonds, securities or other evidences of indebtedness created by, or the shares of the capital stock of, the development corporation, of which it is a member and while owners of such shares to exercise all rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon, all without the approval of any regulatory agency of this state; provided that the amount of the capital stock of any development corporation which may be acquired by any member pursuant to the authority granted herein, shall not exceed ten percent of the loan limit of such member. The amount of capital stock of a development corporation which any member is authorized to acquire pursuant to the authority granted herein, is in addition to the amount of capital stock in other corporations which such member may otherwise be authorized to acquire.

CHAPTER 504A

IOWA NONPROFIT CORPORATION ACT

504A.6 Corporate name.

1. A corporate name shall not contain language stating or implying that the corporation is incorporated for a purpose other than that permitted by its articles of incorporation.

2. Except as authorized by subsections 3 and 4, a corporate name must be distinguishable upon the records of the secretary of state from all of the following:

a. The corporate name of a nonprofit corporation or business corporation incorporated or authorized to conduct affairs or do business in this state.

b. A corporate name reserved under section 504A.7, or reserved or registered under the Iowa business corporation Act.

c. The fictitious name of a foreign business or nonprofit corporation authorized to transact business or conduct affairs in this state because its real name is unavailable.

3. A corporation may apply to the secretary of state for authorization to use a name that is not distinguishable upon the secretary's records from one or more of the names described in subsection 2. The secretary of state shall authorize use of the name applied for if one of the following conditions applies:

a. The other corporation consents to the use in writing and submits an undertaking in a form satisfactory to the secretary of state to change its name to a name that is distinguishable upon the records of the secretary of state from the name of the applying corporation.

b. The applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use the name applied for in this state.

4. A corporation may use the name, including the fictitious name, of another domestic or foreign corporation that is used in this state if the other corporation is incorporated or authorized to conduct affairs or transact business in this state and the proposed user corporation meets one of the following conditions:

a. Has merged with the other corporation.

b. Has been formed by reorganization of the other corporation.

c. Has acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the corporate name, of the other corporation.

5. This chapter does not control the use of fictitious names; however, if a corporation uses a fictitious name in this state it shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing a copy of the resolution of its board of directors, certified by its secretary, adopting the fictitious name.

504A.9 Change of registered office or registered agent.

A corporation may change its registered office or change its registered agent or agents, or both office and agent or agents upon filing in the office of the secretary of state a statement setting forth:

1. The name of the corporation.

2. The address of its then registered office.

3. If the address of its registered office be changed, the address to which the registered office is to be changed.

4. The name of its then registered agent or agents.

5. If its registered agent or agents be changed, the name of its successor registered agent or agents.

6. That the address of its registered office and the address of the business office of its registered agent or agents, as changed, will be identical.

7. That such change was authorized by resolution duly adopted by its board of directors.

Such statement shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president. Such statement shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and the statement shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder. If the registered office is changed from one county to another, the statement shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county to which the registered office is changed, and a certified copy of the statement shall be furnished by the secretary of state and delivered to the office of the county recorder for filing in the county in which the registered office was located prior to the filing of the statement.

If the registered office is changed from one county to another, the corporation shall also cause to be filed and recorded forthwith in the office of the recorder of the county to which such registered office is changed, its original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto, or copies thereof certified by the secretary of state, or its restated articles and all amendments thereto, or copies thereof certified by the secretary of state.

If a registered agent or agents change the agent's or agents' business address to another place within the same county, the agent or agents may change the address of the registered office of any corporations of which that person is registered agent by filing a statement as required above for each corporation, or a single statement for all corporations named therein, except that it need be signed only by the registered agent or agents and need not be responsive to subsections 5 and 7 above, and must recite that notification of such change has been mailed to each such corporation.

The change of address of registered office or the change of registered agent or agents or both registered office and agent or agents, as the case may be, shall become effective upon the filing of such statement by the secretary of state, but until such statement is recorded in the office of the recorder as above prescribed, service of process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served upon the person who was its registered agent at its registered office prior to the filing of such statement with the same force and effect as if no change in registered office or registered agent had been made.

Any registered agent of a corporation may resign as such agent upon filing a written notice thereof, executed in duplicate, with the secretary of state, who shall record one copy and forthwith mail the other copy thereof to the corporation in care of an officer, who is not the resigning registered agent, at the address of such officer as shown by the most recent annual report of the corporation. The copy recorded by the secretary of state shall be sent by the secretary to the county recorder of the county in which the registered office is located for recording in the county recorder's office. The appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expiration of thirty days after receipt of such notice by the secretary of state.

The secretary of state may provide for the change of registered office or registered agent on the form prescribed by the secretary of state for the annual report pursuant to section 504A.83, provided that the form contains the information required in this section. If the secretary of state determines that an annual report does not contain the information required by section 504A.83 but otherwise meets the requirements of this section for the purpose of changing the registered office or registered agent, the secretary of state shall file the statement of change of registered office or registered agent before returning the annual report to the corporation pursuant to section 504A.84. The secretary of state shall deliver a notice certifying the change in registered office or registered agent to the office of the county recorder for filing and recording. A statement of change of registered office or registered agent pursuant to this paragraph shall be executed by a person authorized to execute the annual report.

 NEW unnumbered paragraph 7 (at end of section)

504A.32 Procedure for filing and recording of documents.

If in this chapter, it is required that any document be:

1. Filed in the office of the secretary of state, the secretary of state, when the secretary finds that such document conforms to law and when all fees and taxes due the secretary have been paid as in this chapter prescribed, shall endorse on such document, the word "Filed", and the month, day and year of the filing thereof and file the same in the secretary of state's office;
2. Recorded in the office of the secretary of state, the secretary of state, upon filing thereof, shall record the same;
3. Filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder, the secretary of state upon recording such document in the secretary of state's office shall forward the same to the county recorder of the county wherein the registered office of the corporation is located, and shall forward a duplicate executed copy certified by the secretary as a true copy of the filed original to such other county recorder, if any, as is required by this chapter. Upon receipt thereof and upon receipt of recording fees due the county recorder, such county recorder shall record and index such instrument and endorse thereon the date of filing in such county and the book and page in which recorded. The recorder of each county shall keep in the county recorder's office an alphabetically subdivided index book for articles of incorporation and other instruments the recording of which in the county recorder's office is provided for by this chapter, which book shall have as a minimum, columns headed with "Name of Corporation", "Place of Registered Office", "Day, Month and Year of Filing" and the reference to the book and page or other record where recorded and shall make appropriate entries in said index for each such instrument recorded by the recorder.

Except for a statement of change of registered office or registered agent filed pursuant to section 504A.9 or 504A.73, and an annual report filed pursuant to section 504A.83, any instrument required to be filed and recorded in the office of the secretary of state only, shall be returned by the secretary to the corporation or its representative. Any instrument required to be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder shall be returned by the recorder to the corporation or its representative.

504A.67 Name of a foreign corporation.

1. If the corporate name of a foreign corporation does not satisfy the requirements of section 504A.6, the foreign corporation, to obtain or maintain a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state, may use a fictitious name to transact business in this state if its real name is unavailable and it delivers to the secretary of state for filing a copy of the resolution of its board of directors, certified by its secretary, adopting the fictitious name.
2. Except as authorized by subsections 3 and 4, the corporate name, including a fictitious name, of a corporation must be distinguishable upon the records of the secretary of state from all of the following:
  - a. The corporate name of a nonprofit or business corporation incorporated or authorized to conduct affairs or to transact business in this state.
  - b. A corporate name reserved under section 504A.7 or section 490.402, or registered under section 490.403.
  - c. The fictitious name of another foreign business or nonprofit corporation authorized to transact business or conduct affairs in this state.

3. A foreign corporation may apply to the secretary of state for authorization to use in this state the name of another corporation, incorporated or authorized to transact business or conduct affairs in this state, that is not distinguishable upon the records of the secretary of state from the name applied for. The secretary of state shall authorize use of the name applied for if one of the following conditions applies:

a. The other corporation consents to the use in writing and submits an undertaking in a form satisfactory to the secretary of state to change its name to a name that is distinguishable upon the records of the secretary of state from the name of the applying corporation.

b. The applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use the name applied for in this state.

4. A foreign corporation may use in this state the name, including a fictitious name, of another domestic or foreign business or nonprofit corporation that is used in this state if the other corporation is incorporated or authorized to transact business or conduct affairs in this state and the foreign corporation meets one of the following conditions:

a. Has merged with the other corporation.

b. Has been formed by reorganization of the other corporation.

c. Has acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the corporate name, of the other corporation.

5. If a foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state changes its corporate name to one that does not satisfy the requirements of section 504A.6, it shall not conduct affairs in this state under the changed name until it adopts a name satisfying the requirements of section 504A.6 and obtains an amended certificate of authority.

504A.73 Change of registered office or registered agent of foreign corporation.

A foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state may change its registered office or change its registered agent or agents, or both office and agent or agents, upon filing in the office of the secretary of state a statement setting forth:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. The address of its then registered office.
3. If the address of its registered office be changed, the address to which the registered office is to be changed.
4. The name of its then registered agent or agents.
5. If its registered agent or agents be changed, the name of its successor registered agent or agents.
6. That the address of its registered office and the address of the business office of its registered agent or agents, as changed, will be identical.
7. That such change was authorized by resolution duly adopted by its board of directors.

Such statement shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president, and verified by that person, and delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that such statement conforms to the provisions of this chapter, the secretary shall file such statement in the secretary of state's office, and upon such filing the change of address of the registered office, or the appointment of a new registered agent or agents, or both, as the case may be, shall become effective.

If a registered agent or agents change the agent's or agents' business address to another place within the same county, the agent or agents may change such address and the address of the registered office of any corporations of which that person is registered agent by filing a statement as required above for each corporation, or a single statement for all corporations named therein, except that it need be signed only by the registered agent or agents and need not be responsive to subsections 5 and 7 above, and must recite that notification of such change has been mailed to each such corporation. Such statement executed and filed by a registered agent shall become effective upon the filing thereof in the manner as required above for statements executed by the foreign corporation.

Any registered agent of a foreign corporation may resign as such agent upon filing a written notice thereof, executed in duplicate, with the secretary of state, who shall forthwith mail a copy thereof to the corporation at its principal office in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated. The appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expiration of thirty days after receipt of such notice by the secretary of state.

The secretary of state may provide for the change of registered office or registered agent on the form prescribed by the secretary of state for the annual report pursuant to section 504A.83, provided that the form contains the information required in this section. If the secretary of state determines that an annual report does not contain the information required by section 504A.83 but otherwise meets the requirements of this section for the purpose of changing the registered office or registered agent, the secretary of state shall file the statement of change of registered office or registered agent before returning the annual report to the corporation pursuant to section 504A.84. The secretary of state shall deliver a notice certifying the change in registered office or registered agent to the office of the county recorder for filing and recording. A statement of change of registered office or registered agent pursuant to this paragraph shall be executed by a person authorized to execute the annual report.

89 Acts, ch 171, §6 HF 678

504A.77 Amended certificate of authority.

A foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state shall procure an amended certificate of authority in the event it changes its corporate name, or desires to pursue in this state other or additional purposes than those set forth in its prior application for a certificate of authority, by making application therefor to the secretary of state.

The requirements in respect to the form and contents of the application, the manner of its execution, the filing of the application with the secretary of state, the issuance of an amended certificate of authority and the effect thereof, shall be the same as in the case of an original application for a certificate of authority.

89 Acts, ch 171, §7 HF 678
Unnumbered paragraph 2 amended

504A.79 Filing of application for withdrawal.

The application for withdrawal shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that such application conforms to the provisions of this chapter, the secretary shall, when all fees due the secretary have been paid as in this chapter prescribed:

1. Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed", and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.
2. File one of such duplicate originals in the secretary of state's office.
3. Issue a certificate of withdrawal to which the secretary of state shall affix the other duplicate original.

The certificate of withdrawal, together with the duplicate original of the application for withdrawal affixed thereto by the secretary of state, shall be returned to the corporation or its representative. Upon the issuance of such certificate of withdrawal, the authority of the corporation to conduct affairs in this state shall cease.

89 Acts, ch 171, §8 HF 678
Unnumbered paragraph 1 amended

504A.85 Fees for filing documents and issuing certificates.

The secretary of state shall charge and collect for:

1. Filing articles of incorporation and issuing a certificate of incorporation, twenty dollars.
2. Filing statement of election to accept the chapter, five dollars.
3. Filing articles of amendment and issuing a certificate of amendment, ten dollars.
4. Filing restated articles of incorporation, twenty dollars.
5. Filing articles of merger or consolidation and issuing a certificate of merger or consolidation, twenty dollars.
6. Filing an application to reserve a corporate name, ten dollars.
7. Filing a notice of transfer of a reserved corporate name, ten dollars.
8. Filing articles of dissolution, five dollars.

9. Filing an application of a foreign corporation for a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state and issuing a certificate of authority, twenty-five dollars.

10. Filing an application of a foreign corporation for an amended certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state and issuing an amended certificate of authority, twenty-five dollars.

11. Filing an application for withdrawal of a foreign corporation and issuing a certificate of withdrawal, five dollars.

12. Filing any other statement or report, except a statement of change of registered office or registered agent, of a domestic or foreign corporation, five dollars.

89 Acts, ch 171, §9, 10 HF 678
 Subsection 8 stricken
 Subsection 13 amended

504A.87 Penalties imposed upon corporation.

Each corporation, domestic or foreign, that fails or refuses to file its annual report for any year within the time prescribed by this chapter shall be subject to a penalty of five dollars to be assessed by the secretary of state.

Each corporation, domestic or foreign, that fails or refuses to answer truthfully and fully within the time prescribed by this chapter reasonable and proper interrogatories propounded by the secretary of state in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, shall be deemed to be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

The secretary of state may cancel the certificate of incorporation of a corporation that fails or refuses to file its annual report for any year prior to the first day of October of the year in which it is due by issuing a certificate of the cancellation at any time after the expiration of thirty days following the mailing to the corporation of notice of the certification to the attorney general of the failure of the corporation to file the annual report as required by section 504A.54, provided the corporation has not filed the annual report prior to the issuance of the certificate of cancellation. Upon the issuance of the certificate of cancellation, the secretary of state shall send the certificate to the corporation at its registered office and shall retain a copy of the certificate in the permanent records of the secretary of state's office.

Upon the issuance of the certificate of cancellation, the corporate existence of the corporation shall terminate, subject to right of reinstatement as herein provided, and the corporation shall cease to conduct its affairs, except insofar as may be necessary for the "winding up" thereof or for securing reinstatement and the right of the corporation to the use of its name shall cease and such name shall thereupon be available to any other corporation or foreign corporation or for reservation as provided in this chapter. The cancellation of the certificate of incorporation of a corporation shall not take away or impair any remedy available to or against such corporation, its directors, officers or members for any right or claim existing or any liability incurred prior to such cancellation, but no action or proceeding thereon may be prosecuted by such corporation until it shall have been reinstated. Any such action or proceeding against such corporation may be defended by the corporation, if it has not been reinstated, in its corporate name to which there shall be appended the word "canceled" followed by the date of the issuance of the certificate of cancellation. Unless the corporation is reinstated, the corporation, upon the issuance of the certificate of cancellation, shall proceed to liquidate its affairs as provided by this chapter in cases of voluntary dissolution. However, the district court in a suit in equity shall have full power to liquidate the assets and affairs of such a corporation upon application by such corporation or in a suit by a member or director or creditor of such corporation when such corporation fails to proceed promptly with such liquidation or to make application to the court therefor. A copy of the certificate of cancellation, certified by the secretary of state, shall be taken and received in all courts as prima-facie evidence of the cancellation of the certificate of incorporation as stated therein.

If the certificate of incorporation of a corporation has been canceled by the secretary of state as provided in this section for failure to file an annual report, such corporation shall be reinstated by the secretary of state at any time within five years following the date of the issuance by the secretary of state of the certificate of cancellation upon:

1. The delivery by the corporation to the secretary of state for filing in the secretary of state's office of an application for reinstatement, executed by its president or vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary and verified by one of the officers signing such application, which shall set forth:

a. The date of the issuance by the secretary of state of the certificate of cancellation;

b. The name of the corporation at the time of the issuance of the certificate of cancellation and, if, at the time of the filing of the application for reinstatement, another corporation or foreign corporation is entitled to use such name or such name is then reserved or registered as provided in this chapter, the name of the corporation as changed, which shall be a name then available under the laws of this state; and

c. The address, including street and number, if any, of the registered office of the corporation upon the reinstatement thereof, which shall be located in the same county as the county in which the registered office of the corporation was located at the time of the issuance of the certificate of cancellation, and the name of its registered agent or agents at such address upon the reinstatement of the corporation;

2. The filing with the secretary of state by the corporation of all annual reports then due and theretofore becoming due;

3. The payment to the secretary of state by the corporation of all annual license fees and penalties due and becoming due.

The secretary of state, upon filing the application for reinstatement, shall issue a certificate of reinstatement and file and record the same in the secretary of state's office and, if the application for reinstatement shall set forth a change in the name of the corporation, as required by this section, the same shall constitute an amendment to the articles of incorporation of the corporation and the certificate of reinstatement shall set forth such fact and shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder. Upon the issuance of the certificate of reinstatement, the corporation shall be entitled to continue to act as a corporation for the unexpired portion of its corporate period as fixed by its articles of incorporation, except, that the corporation shall not be entitled to use the name of the corporation at the time of the issuance of the certificate of cancellation if another corporation or foreign corporation is entitled to use such name or such name is then reserved as provided in this chapter.

CHAPTER 507B

INSURANCE TRADE PRACTICES

507B.4 Unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices defined.

The following are hereby defined as unfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the business of insurance:

1. Misrepresentations and false advertising of insurance policies. Making, issuing, circulating, or causing to be made, issued or circulated, any estimate, illustration, circular, statement, sales presentation, omission, or comparison which does any of the following:

a. Misrepresents the benefits, advantages, conditions, or terms of any insurance policy.

b. Misrepresents the dividends or share of the surplus to be received on any insurance policy.

c. Makes any false or misleading statements as to the dividends or share of surplus previously paid on any insurance policy.

d. Is misleading or is a misrepresentation as to the financial condition of any person, or as to the legal reserve system upon which any life insurer operates.

e. Uses any name or title of any insurance policy or class of insurance policies misrepresenting the true nature thereof.

f. Is a misrepresentation for the purpose of inducing or tending to induce the lapse, forfeiture, exchange, conversion, or surrender of any insurance policy.

g. Is a misrepresentation for the purpose of effecting a pledge or assignment of or effecting a loan against any insurance policy.

h. Misrepresents any insurance policy as being shares of stock.

i. Misrepresents any insurance policy to consumers by using the terms "burial insurance", "funeral insurance", "burial plan", or "funeral plan" in its names or titles, unless the policy is made with a funeral provider as beneficiary who specifies and fixes a price under contract with an insurance company. This paragraph does not prevent insurers from stating or advertising that insurance benefits may provide cash for funeral or burial expenses.

2. False information and advertising generally. Making, publishing, disseminating, circulating or placing before the public, or causing, directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, or placed before the public in a newspaper, magazine or other publication, or in the form of a notice, circular, pamphlet, letter or poster, or over any radio or television station, or in any other way, an advertisement, announcement or statement containing any assertion, representation, or statement with respect to the business of insurance or with respect to any person in the conduct of the person's insurance business, which is untrue, deceptive or misleading.

3. Defamation. Making, publishing, disseminating, or circulating, directly or indirectly, or aiding, abetting or encouraging the making, publishing, disseminating, or circulating of any oral or written statement or any pamphlet, circular, article or literature which is false, or maliciously critical of or derogatory to the financial condition of any person, and which is calculated to injure such person.

4. Boycott, coercion and intimidation. Entering into any agreement to commit, or by any concerted action committing, any act of boycott, coercion or intimidation resulting in or tending to result in unreasonable restraint of, or monopoly in, the business of insurance.

5. False statements and entries.

a. Knowingly filing with any supervisory or other public official, or knowingly making, publishing, disseminating, circulating or delivering to any person, or placing before the public, or knowingly causing directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, delivered to any person, or placed before the public, any false material statement of fact as to the financial condition of a person.

b. Knowingly making any false entry of a material fact in any book, report or statement of any person or knowingly omitting to make a true entry of any material fact pertaining to the business of such person in any book, report or statement of such person.

6. Stock operations and advisory board contracts. Issuing or delivering or permitting agents, officers or employees to issue or deliver, agency company stock or other capital stock, or benefit certificates or shares in any common law corporation, or securities or any special or advisory board contracts or other contracts of any kind promising returns and profits as an inducement to insurance.

7. Unfair discrimination.

a. Making or permitting any unfair discrimination between individuals of the same class and equal expectation of life in the rates charged for any contract of life insurance or of life annuity or in the dividends or other benefits payable thereon, or in any other of the terms and conditions of such contract.

b. Making or permitting any unfair discrimination between insureds of the same class for essentially the same hazard in the amount of premium, policy fees, or rates charged for any policy or contract of insurance other than life or in the benefits payable thereunder, or in any of the terms or conditions of such contract, or in any other manner whatever.

a. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, knowingly permitting or offering to make or making any contract of life insurance, life annuity or accident and health insurance, or agreement as to such contract other than as plainly expressed in the contract issued thereon, or paying or allowing, or giving or offering to pay, allow, or give, directly or indirectly, as inducement to such insurance, or annuity, any rebate of premiums payable on the contract, or any special favor or advantage in the dividends or other benefits thereon, or any valuable consideration or inducement whatever not specified in the contract; or giving, or selling, or purchasing or offering to give, sell, or purchase as inducement to such insurance or annuity or in connection therewith, any stocks, bonds, or other securities of any insurance company or other corporation, association, or partnership, or any dividends or profits accrued thereon, or any thing of value whatsoever not specified in the contract.

b. Nothing in subsection 7 or paragraph "a" of this subsection shall be construed as including within the definition of discrimination or rebates any of the following practices:

(1) In the case of any contract of life insurance or life annuity, paying bonuses to policyholders or otherwise rebating their premiums in whole or in part out of surplus accumulated from nonparticipating insurance, provided that any such bonuses or rebatement of premiums shall be fair and equitable to policyholders and for the best interests of the company and its policyholders.

(2) In the case of life insurance policies issued on the industrial debit plan, making allowance to policyholders who have continuously for a specified period made premium payments directly to an office of the insurer in an amount which fairly represents the saving in collection expenses.

(3) Readjustment of the rate of premium for a group insurance policy based on the loss or expense experienced thereunder, at the end of the first or any subsequent policy year of insurance thereunder, which may be made retroactive only for such policy year.

9. Unfair claim settlement practices. Committing or performing with such frequency as to indicate a general business practice any of the following:

a. Misrepresenting pertinent facts or insurance policy provisions relating to coverages of issue.

b. Failing to acknowledge and act reasonably promptly upon communications with respect to claims arising under insurance policies.

c. Failing to adopt and implement reasonable standards for the prompt investigation of claims arising under insurance policies.

d. Refusing to pay claims without conducting a reasonable investigation based upon all available information.

e. Failing to affirm or deny coverage of claims within a reasonable time after proof of loss statements have been completed.

f. Not attempting in good faith to effectuate prompt, fair and equitable settlements of claims in which liability has become reasonably clear, or failing to include interest on the payment of claims when required under section 511.38.

g. Compelling insureds to institute litigation to recover amounts due under an insurance policy by offering substantially less than the amounts ultimately recovered in actions brought by such insureds.

h. Attempting to settle a claim for less than the amount to which a reasonable person would have believed the person was entitled by reference to written or printed advertising material accompanying or made part of an application.

i. Attempting to settle claims on the basis of an application which was altered without notice to, or knowledge or consent of the insured.

j. Making claims payments to insureds or beneficiaries not accompanied by a statement setting forth the coverage under which payments are being made.

k. Making known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration.

l. Delaying the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, claimant, or the physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information.

m. Failing to promptly settle claims, where liability has become reasonably clear, under one portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage.

n. Failing to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable law for denial of a claim or for the offer of a compromise settlement.

10. Misrepresentation in insurance applications. Making false or fraudulent statements or representations on or relative to an application for an insurance policy, for the purpose of obtaining a fee, commission, money, or other benefit from any insurer, agent, broker, or individual.

11. Rating organizations. Any violation of section 515A.16.

12. Minor traffic violations. Failure of a person to comply with section 516B.3.

INSURANCE ASSISTANCE ACT

507D.3 Authorized assistance programs.

The commissioner of insurance is authorized to institute programs, order the institution of programs within the private sector, or to contract with or delegate authority to the department of general services for the institution of programs relating to insurance assistance including, but not limited to, the following:

1. The development and implementation of a market assistance program to facilitate, arrange, or provide for the acquisition of property, casualty, product, professional, or other liability insurance coverage for all persons or entities seeking such coverage but for which the coverage is presently unavailable or unobtainable to the person or entity.

2. The development and implementation of a mandatory risk allocation system for property, casualty, product, professional, or other liability insurance, except asbestos and environmental impairment liability, in order to assure that all persons or entities for which such insurance is essential may obtain such insurance from insurers authorized to do business within this state.

3. The development and implementation of a risk-sharing program to assist and advise persons or entities seeking property, casualty, product, professional, or other liability insurance, except asbestos and environmental impairment liability, on the most efficient manner in which to share or pool similar risks in order to obtain essential insurance coverage at the minimum cost.

4. The development and implementation of a risk management program for persons or entities to which property, casualty, product, professional, or other liability insurance is essential, such program to include at a minimum the following:

a. Assistance in developing and maintaining loss and loss exposure data on such liability risks.

b. Recommendations regarding risk reduction and risk elimination programs.

c. Recommendations of those practices which will permit protection against such losses at the lowest costs, consistent with good underwriting practices and sound risk management techniques.

5. Subsections 2 and 3 shall have no application or effect after July 1, 1991.

6. An assistance program for the facilitation of insurance and financial responsibility coverage for owners and operators of underground storage tanks which store petroleum shall not be affected by the exceptions of subsections 2 and 3.

Unnumbered paragraph 1 amended

CHAPTER 508

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES

508.12 Redomestication of insurers.

An insurer which is organized under the laws of any state, and is admitted to do business in this state for the purpose of writing insurance authorized by this chapter may become a domestic insurer by complying with section 490.902 or 491.33 and with all of the requirements of law relative to the organization and licensing of a domestic insurer of the same type and by designating its principal place of business in this state, and, upon payment to the commissioner of insurance of a transfer tax in a sum equal to twenty-five percent of the premium tax paid pursuant to the provisions of chapter 432 for the last calendar year immediately preceding its becoming a domestic corporation or the sum of ten thousand dollars, whichever is the lesser but not less than one thousand dollars, may become a domestic corporation and be entitled to like certificates of its corporate existence and license to transact business in this state, and be subject in all respects to the authority and jurisdiction thereof.

The certificates of authority, agent's appointments and licenses, rates, and other items which are in existence at the time any insurer transfers its corporate domicile to this state, pursuant to this section, shall continue in full force and effect upon such transfer. For purposes of existing authorizations and all other corporate purposes, the insurer is deemed the same entity as it was prior to the transfer of its domicile. All outstanding policies of any transferring insurer shall remain in full force and effect and need not be endorsed as to any new name of the company or its new location unless so ordered by the commissioner of insurance.

1989 amendment effective December 31, 1989; 89 Acts, ch 288, §196 SF 502

508.14 Violation by domestic company—dissolution or administrative penalty.

Upon a failure of a company organized under the laws of this state to make the deposit provided in section 511.8, subsection 16, or file the statement in the time herein stated, or to file in a timely manner any financial statement required by rule of the commissioner of insurance, the commissioner of insurance shall notify the attorney general of the default, who shall at once apply to the district court of the county where the home office of the company is located for an order requiring the company to show cause, upon reasonable notice to be fixed by the court, why its business shall not be discontinued. If, upon the hearing, no sufficient cause is shown, the court shall decree its dissolution. In lieu of a district court action authorized by this section, the commissioner may impose an administrative penalty of three hundred dollars upon the company.

508.15 Violation by foreign company.

Companies organized and chartered by the laws of a foreign state or country, failing to file the evidence of investment and statement within the time fixed, or failing to timely file any financial statement required by rule of the commissioner of insurance, shall forfeit and pay the sum of three hundred dollars, to be collected in an action in the name of the state and paid to the treasurer of state for deposit in the general fund of the state, and their right to transact further new business in this state shall immediately cease until the requirements of this chapter have been fully complied with.

89 Acts, ch 321, §34 HF 779

CHAPTER 508C

IOWA LIFE AND HEALTH INSURANCE GUARANTY ASSOCIATION

508C.3 Scope.

1. This chapter shall provide coverage under the policies and contracts specified in subsection 2 to all of the following:

a. Except for nonresident certificate holders under group policies or contracts, persons who are the beneficiaries, assignees, or payees of the persons covered under paragraph "b".

b. Persons who are owners of the policies or contracts specified in subsection 2, or are insureds or annuitants under the policies or contracts, and who are either of the following:

(1) Residents of this state.

(2) Nonresidents of this state if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The state in which the person resides has an association similar to the association created in this chapter.

(b) The person is not eligible for coverage by an association described in subparagraph part (a).

(c) The insurer which issued the policy or contract never held a license or certificate of authority in the state in which the person resides.

(d) The insurer is domiciled in this state.

2. This chapter shall provide coverage to the persons specified in subsection 1 under direct life insurance policies, health insurance policies, annuity contracts, supplemental contracts, certificates under group policies or contracts, and unallocated annuity contracts issued by member insurers.

3. This chapter does not apply to:

a. Any portion of a life, health, or annuity benefit payment liability arising on or after the date of insolvency to the extent that it is based upon a rate of interest which exceeds the lesser of the following:

- (1) The minimum rate of interest guaranteed under the policy or contract.
- (2) The rate of interest calculated as prescribed in the standard valuation law of this state for determining the minimum standard for the valuation of life insurance policies issued during the year of insolvency which have an interest-guaranteed duration of ten or fewer years.

b. That portion or part of a policy or contract under which the risk is borne by the policyholder.

c. A policy or contract or part of a policy or contract assumed by the impaired or insolvent insurer under a contract of reinsurance, other than reinsurance for which assumption certificates have been issued.

d. An unallocated annuity contract issued to an employee benefit plan protected under the federal pension benefit guaranty corporation, which is not issued to or in connection with a specific employee, union, or association of natural persons, or any portion of a financial guarantee.

e. A policy or contract issued by a company which is licensed under chapter 509A, 512, 512A, 514, 514B, 518, 518A, or 520.

f. Except for a policy issued pursuant to section 515.48, subsection 5, paragraph "a", a policy or contract issued by a company which is licensed under chapter 515.

g. An insurer which was placed under an order of liquidation, rehabilitation, or conservation by a court prior to July 1, 1987, is not an impaired insurer or an insolvent insurer for the purposes of this chapter.

h. An annuity contract issued to a government lottery or to a liability insurer in connection with a structured settlement.

89 Acts, ch 83, §67 SF 112
Subsection 3, paragraph e amended

CHAPTER 509

GROUP INSURANCE

509.3 Provisions as part of accident or health policy.

All policies of group accident or health insurance or combination thereof issued in this state shall contain in substance the following provisions:

1. The policy shall have a provision that a copy of the application, if any, of the policyholder shall be attached to the policy when issued, that all statements made by the policyholder or by the persons insured shall be deemed representations and not warranties, and that no statement made by any person insured shall be used in any contest unless a copy of the instrument containing the statement is or has been furnished to such person.

2. A provision that the company will issue to the policyholder for delivery to each person insured under such policy an individual certificate setting forth a statement as to the insurance protection to which the person is entitled, to whom the insurance benefits are payable, and such provisions of the policy as are, in the opinion of the commissioner of insurance, necessary to inform the holder thereof as to the holder's rights under the policy.

3. A provision that to the group or class thereof originally insured shall be added, from time to time, all new persons eligible to insurance in such group or class.

4. A provision that if the insurance on a person or insurance on a person and the person's dependents covered by the policy ceases because of termination of employment or of membership in the class, the person and the person's dependents may continue their accident or health insurance under the group policy and may subsequently apply for a converted policy without evidence of insurability, as provided in chapter 509B.

5. A provision shall be made available to policyholders, under group policies covering vision care services or procedures, for payment of necessary medical or surgical care and treatment provided by an optometrist licensed under chapter 154 if the care and treatment are provided within the scope of the optometrist's license and if the policy would pay for the care and treatment if the care and treatment were provided by a person engaged in the practice of medicine or surgery as licensed under chapter 148 or 150A. The policy shall provide that the policyholder may reject the coverage or provision if the coverage or provision for services which may be provided by an optometrist is rejected for all providers of similar vision care services as licensed under chapter 148, 150A, or 154. This subsection applies to group policies delivered or issued for delivery after July 1, 1983, and to existing group policies on their next anniversary or renewal date, or upon expiration of the applicable collective bargaining contract, if any, whichever is later. This subsection does not apply to blanket, short-term travel, accident only, limited or specified disease, or individual or group conversion policies, or policies designed only for issuance to persons for coverage under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, or any other similar coverage under a state or federal government plan.

6. A provision shall be made available to policyholders, under group policies covering hospital, medical, or surgical expenses, for payment for diabetic outpatient self-management education programs, under terms and conditions agreed upon between the insurer and the policyholder, subject to utilization controls. This subsection applies to group policies delivered or issued for delivery after July 1, 1984, and to existing group policies on their next anniversary or renewal date, or upon expiration of the applicable collective bargaining contract, if any, whichever is later. This subsection does not apply to blanket, short-term travel, accident only, limited or specified disease, or individual or group conversion policies, or policies designed only for issuance to persons for coverage under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, or any other similar coverage under a state or federal government plan. Coverage shall apply only to programs directed and supervised by a physician licensed under chapter 148 or 150A. Covered diabetic outpatient self-management education programs shall be provided by health care professionals including, but not limited to, physicians, registered nurses, and licensed pharmacists who are knowledgeable about the disease process of diabetes and the treatment of diabetic patients. As used in this subsection, "diabetic outpatient self-management education programs" means instruction which will enable diabetic patients and their families to gain an understanding of the diabetic disease process and the daily management of diabetic therapy thereby avoiding frequent hospitalizations and complications. Such programs shall meet standards developed by the Iowa department of public health in consultation with American diabetes association, Iowa affiliate, for certification of outpatient diabetes education programs. This subsection does not require the coverage for programs whose sole or primary purpose is weight reduction.

7. A provision shall be made available to policyholders under group policies covering diagnosis and treatment of human ailments for payment or reimbursement for necessary diagnosis or treatment provided by a chiropractor licensed under chapter 151, if the diagnosis or treatment is provided within the scope of the chiropractor's license and if the policy would pay or reimburse for the diagnosis or treatment by a person licensed under chapter 148, 150, or 150A of the human ailment, irrespective of and disregarding variances in terminology employed by the various licensed professions in describing the human ailment or its diagnosis or its treatment. The policy shall provide that the policyholder may reject the coverage or provision if the coverage or provision for diagnosis or treatment of a human ailment by a chiropractor is rejected for all providers of diagnosis or treatment for similar human ailments licensed under chapter 148, 150, 150A, or 151. A policy of group health insurance may limit or make optional the payment or reimbursement for lawful diagnostic or treatment service by all licensees under chapters 148, 150, 150A, and 151 on any rational basis which is not solely related to the license under or the practices authorized by chapter 151 or is not dependent upon a method of classification, categorization, or description based directly or indirectly upon differences in terminology used by different licensees in describing human ailments or their diagnosis or treatment. This subsection applies to group policies delivered or issued for delivery after July 1, 1986, and to existing group policies on their next anniversary or renewal date, or upon expiration of the applicable collective bargaining contract, if any, whichever is later. This subsection does not apply to blanket, short-term travel, accident-only, limited or specified disease, or individual or group conversion policies, or policies under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, or any other similar coverage under a state or federal government plan.

8. A provision shall be made available to policyholders, under group policies covering hospital, medical, or surgical expenses, for payment of covered services determined to be medically necessary provided by registered nurses certified by a national certifying organization, which organization shall be identified by the Iowa board of nursing pursuant to rules adopted by the board, if the services are within the practice of the profession of a registered nurse as that practice is defined in section 152.1, under terms and conditions agreed upon between the insurer and the policyholder, subject to utilization controls. This subsection shall not require payment for nursing services provided by a certified nurse practicing in a hospital, nursing facility, health care institution, physician's office, or other noninstitutional setting if the certified nurse is an employee of the hospital, nursing facility, health care institution, physician, or other health care facility or health care provider. This subsection applies to group policies delivered or issued for delivery in this state on or after July 1, 1989, and to existing group policies on their next anniversary or renewal dates, or upon expiration of the applicable collective bargaining contract, if any, whichever is later. This subsection does not apply to blanket, short-term travel, accident only, limited or specified disease, or individual or group conversion policies, policies rated on a community basis, or policies designed only for issuance to persons for eligible coverage under Title XVIII of the federal Social Security Act, or any other similar coverage under a state or federal government plan.

509.5 Authorized companies.

1. Any level premium life insurance company, organized on the stock or mutual plan and authorized to transact business under the provisions of chapter 508 may, upon complying with the provisions of said chapter and of this chapter, issue contracts providing for group life, or health, or accident insurance, or combinations thereof as defined in this chapter.

2. A casualty company organized on the stock or mutual plan, or accident and health association authorized to transact business under chapter 515, or a reciprocal or interinsurance exchange organized under chapter 520, may, by complying with those chapters and this chapter, issue contracts providing for health or accident insurance, or combinations of health and accident insurance, as defined in this chapter.

CHAPTER 510

MANAGING GENERAL AGENTS AND ADMINISTRATORS

Former ch 510 repealed by 88 Acts, ch 1112, §207

MANAGING GENERAL AGENTS

510.1 Definition.

For purposes of this subchapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

"Managing general agent" means a person, acting as an independent contractor with respect to a domestic insurer, except a county mutual association that operates only within a given county and counties contiguous to that county, who performs an underwriting or claims function for the insurer, but does not include any of the following:

1. A licensed attorney retained for the defense of an insured, as required or allowed by the policy of insurance issued by the domestic insurer.
2. A licensed insurance agent who is extended settlement authority by an insurer as an incidental part of the agent's duties as an agent.
3. An independent claims adjuster who receives periodic assignments of claims from an insurer.
4. A person retained for the purpose of obtaining photographs, diagrams, or otherwise verifying information submitted on applications for insurance, and who does not perform any other claim or underwriting services for the insurer.

89 Acts, ch 227, §1 SF 272

510.2 Contracts with managing general agents.

A domestic insurer shall not enter into a contract with a managing general agent unless the domestic insurer notifies the commissioner in writing of its intention to enter into the contract at least thirty days prior to entering into the contract or within a shorter time permitted by the commissioner and the commissioner has not disapproved of the contracts within the time period. The commissioner shall not approve the contracts if the commissioner finds any of the following:

1. The service or management charges in the contract are based upon criteria unrelated either to the insurer's profits or to the reasonable, customary, and usual charges for such services to the company.
2. Management personnel or other employees of the insurance company are to be performing management functions and receiving any remuneration for those management functions through the contract in addition to the compensation received directly from the insurance company for their services.
3. The contract would transfer substantial control of the insurer or any of the powers vested in the board of directors, by statute, articles of incorporation, or bylaws, or substantially all of the basic functions of the insurer's management to the managing general agent.
4. The contract contains provisions which would be clearly detrimental to the best interest of policyholders, stockholders, or members of the company.
5. The officers and directors of the managing general agent firm are of known bad character or have been affiliated, directly or indirectly, through ownership, control, management, reinsurance transactions, or other insurance or business relations with any person known to have been involved in the improper manipulation of assets, accounts, or reinsurance.

If the commissioner disapproves of a contract, notice of the disapproval shall be given to the insurer, specifying the reasons in writing. The commissioner shall grant any party to the contract a hearing on the disapproval upon request pursuant to chapter 17A.

510.3 Liability of managing general agents.

Notwithstanding any obligation of a director or officer of an insolvent insurer to the liquidator of the insolvent insurer, a managing general agent of a domestic insurer against whom an order of liquidation has been entered is liable for fees paid to the managing general agent prior to the entry of the order of liquidation upon a finding that the rendering of services, or failure to render services contracted for, substantially caused or contributed to the insolvency of the domestic insurer, and was pursuant to a contract which had not been submitted to the commissioner, or which had been submitted to the commissioner and disapproved, or the services did not meet accepted standards for such services.

510.4 through 510.10 Reserved.

ADMINISTRATORS

510.11 Definitions.

As used in this subchapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Administrator" means a person who collects charges or premiums from, or who adjusts or settles claims on, residents of this state in connection with life or health insurance coverage or annuities other than any of the following:
  - a. A union or association on behalf of its members.
  - b. An insurance company which is either licensed in this state or acting as an insurer with respect to a policy lawfully issued and delivered by it in and pursuant to the laws of a state in which the insurer was authorized to do an insurance business.
  - c. An entity licensed under chapter 514 including its sales representatives licensed in this state when engaged in the performance of its duties as sales representatives.
  - d. A life or health agent or broker licensed in this state, whose activities are limited exclusively to the sale of insurance.
  - e. A creditor on behalf of its debtors with respect to insurance covering a debt between the creditor and its debtors.
  - f. A trust, its trustees, agents, and employees acting under the trust, established in conformity with 29 U.S.C. §186.
  - g. A trust exempt from taxation under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, its trustees, and employees acting under the trust.
  - h. A custodian, its agents, and employees acting pursuant to a custodian account which meets the requirements of section 401(f) of the Internal Revenue Code.
  - i. A bank, credit union, or other financial institution which is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state banking authorities.
  - j. A credit card issuing company which advances for and collects premiums or charges from its credit card holders who have authorized it to do so, if the company does not adjust or settle claims.
  - k. A person who adjusts or settles claims in the normal course of the person's practice or employment as an attorney-at-law, and who does not collect charges or premiums in connection with life or health insurance coverage or annuities.
2. "Life or health insurance" includes, but is not limited to, the following:
  - a. Individual or group accident and sickness insurance providing coverage on an expense-incurred basis.

- b. An individual or group hospital or medical service contract issued pursuant to chapter 509, 514, or 514A.
- c. An individual or group health maintenance organization contract regulated under chapter 514B.
- d. An individual or group Medicare supplemental policy.
- e. A long-term care policy.
- f. An individual or group life insurance policy or annuity issued pursuant to chapter 508, 508A, or 509A.

510.12 Written agreement necessary.

A person shall not act as an administrator without a written agreement between the administrator and the insurer, and the written agreement shall be retained as part of the official records of both the insurer and the administrator for the duration of the agreement plus five years. The written agreement shall contain provisions which include the requirements of sections 510.11 through 510.16, except insofar as those requirements do not apply to the functions performed by the administrator.

When a policy is issued to a trustee, a copy of the trust agreement and any amendments to the trust agreement shall be furnished to the insurer by the administrator and shall be retained as part of the official records of both the insurer and the administrator for the duration of the policy plus five years.

510.13 Payment to administrator.

If an insurer uses the services of an administrator under the terms of a written contract as required in section 515.167, payment to the administrator of any premiums or charges for insurance by or on behalf of the insured shall be deemed to have been received by the insurer, and the payment of return premiums or claims by the insurer to the administrator shall not be deemed payment to the insured or claimant until the payments are received by the insured or claimant. This section does not limit any right of the insurer against the administrator resulting from the administrator's failure to make payments to the insurer, insureds, or claimants.

89 Acts, ch 227, §6 SF 272

510.14 Maintenance of information.

An administrator shall maintain at its principal administrative office for the duration of the written agreement referred to in section 510.12 plus five years, adequate books and records of all transactions between it, insurers, and insured persons. The administrator's books and records shall be maintained in accordance with prudent standards of insurance recordkeeping. The commissioner shall have access to such books and records for the purpose of examination, audit, and inspection. Trade secrets contained in an administrator's books and records, including but not limited to the identity and addresses of policyholders and certificate holders, shall be confidential, except the commissioner may use trade secret information in any proceeding instituted against the administrator. The insurer retains the right to continuing access to the administrator's books and records sufficient to permit the insurer to fulfill all of its contractual obligations to insured persons, subject to any restrictions in the written agreement between the insurer and administrator on the proprietary rights of the parties in the administrator's books and records.

510.17 Premium collection.

1. All insurance charges or premiums collected by an administrator on behalf of or for an insurer, and return premiums received from the insurer, shall be held by the administrator in a fiduciary capacity. Such funds shall be immediately remitted to the person or persons entitled to them, or shall be deposited promptly in a fiduciary bank account established and maintained by the administrator. If charges or premiums so deposited have been collected on behalf of or for more than one insurer, the administrator shall cause the bank in which the fiduciary account is maintained to keep records clearly recording the deposits in and withdrawals from the account on behalf of or for each insurer. The administrator shall promptly obtain and keep copies of all such records and, upon request of an insurer, shall furnish the insurer with copies of the records pertaining to deposits and withdrawals on behalf of or for that insurer.

2. The administrator shall not pay a claim by withdrawal from the fiduciary account. Withdrawals from the fiduciary account shall be made, as provided in the written agreement between the administrator and the insurer, for any of the following:

- a. Remittance to an insurer entitled thereto.
- b. Deposit in an account maintained in the name of the insurer.
- c. Transfer to and deposit in a claims-paying account, with claims to be paid as provided in section 510.18.
- d. Payment to a group policyholder for remittance to the insurer entitled thereto.
- e. Payment to the administrator of its commission, fees, or charges.
- f. Remittance of return premiums to the persons entitled thereto.

510.19 Claim adjustment and settlement.

The compensation paid to an administrator shall not be contingent on claim experience on policies for which the administrator adjusts or settles claims. This section does not prevent the compensation of an administrator from being based on premiums or charges collected or number of claims paid or processed.

89 Acts, ch 227, §12 SF 272

510.20 Notification required.

When the services of an administrator are used, the administrator shall provide a written notice, approved by the insurer, to insured individuals, advising them of the identity of and relationship among the administrator, the policyholder, and the insurer. When an administrator collects funds, it must identify and state separately in writing to the person paying to the administrator any charge or premium for insurance coverage the amount of any such charge or premium specified by the insurer for such insurance coverage.

89 Acts, ch 227, §13 SF 272

510.21 Certificate of registration required.

A person shall not act as or represent oneself to be an administrator in this state, other than an adjuster licensed in this state for the kinds of business for which the person is acting as an administrator, unless the person holds a current certificate of registration as an administrator issued by the commissioner of insurance. A certificate of registration as an administrator is renewable every three years. Failure to hold a certificate subjects the administrator to the sanctions set out in section 507B.7. The certificate shall be issued by the commissioner to an administrator unless the commissioner, after due notice and hearing, determines that the administrator is not competent, trustworthy, financially responsible, or of good personal and business reputation, or has had a previous application for an insurance license denied for cause within the preceding five years.

An application for registration shall be accompanied by a filing fee of one hundred dollars. After notice and hearing, the commissioner may impose any or all of the sanctions set out in section 507B.7, upon finding that either the administrator violated any of the requirements of section 515.134 and sections 510.1 through this section, or the administrator is not competent, trustworthy, financially responsible, or of good personal and business reputation.

510.22 Waiving of requirements.

The commissioner may waive the requirements of section 510.21 for any person or class of persons. The factors taken into account in granting a waiver shall include, but are not limited to whether:

1. The person acting as an administrator is primarily in a business other than that of administrator.
2. The financial strength and history of the organization indicates stability in its continuity of doing business.
3. The regular duties being performed as an administrator are such that the covered persons are not likely to be injured by a waiver of such requirements.

CHAPTER 511

PROVISIONS APPLYING TO LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES AND ASSOCIATIONS

511.8 Investment of funds.

A company organized under chapter 508 shall, at all times, have invested in the securities provided in this section, funds equivalent to its legal reserve. Legal reserve is the net present value of all outstanding policies and contracts involving life contingencies. This section does not prohibit a company or association from holding a portion of its legal reserve in cash.

1. United States government obligations. Bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued, assumed, or guaranteed by the United States of America, or by any agency or instrumentality thereof.

2. State, District of Columbia, territorial and municipal obligations. Bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued, assumed, or guaranteed by the District of Columbia, or by any state, insular or territorial possession of the United States of America, or by any county, city, town, school, road, drainage, or other district located within any state, or insular or territorial possession of the United States of America, or by any civil subdivision or governmental authority of any such state, or insular or territorial possession, or by any instrumentality of any such state, or insular or territorial possession, civil subdivision, or governmental authority; provided that the obligations are valid, legally authorized and issued.

3. Canadian government, provincial and municipal obligations. Bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued, assumed, or guaranteed by the Dominion of Canada, or by any province thereof, or by any municipality or district therein, provided that the obligations are valid, legally authorized and issued.

4. International Bank bonds. Bonds or other evidence of indebtedness issued, assumed or guaranteed by the International Bank for reconstruction and development, in an amount not to exceed two percent of its total assets as shown by the last annual report, or by the Inter-American Development Bank in an amount not to exceed two percent of its total assets as shown by the last annual report, by the Asian Development Bank in an amount not to exceed two percent of its total assets as shown by the last annual report or by the African Development Bank in an amount not to exceed two percent of its total assets as shown by the last annual report. However, the combined investment in bonds or evidences of indebtedness permitted by this subsection shall not exceed four percent of its total assets as shown by the last annual report.

5. Corporate obligations. Subject to the restrictions contained in subsection 8 hereof, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued, assumed, or guaranteed by a corporation incorporated under the laws of the United States of America, or of any state, district, insular or territorial possession thereof; or of the Dominion of Canada, or any province thereof; and which meet the following qualifications:

a. If fixed interest-bearing obligations, the net earnings of the issuing, assuming or guaranteeing corporation available for its fixed charges for a period of five fiscal years next preceding the date of acquisition of the obligations by such insurance company shall have averaged per year not less than one and one-half times such average annual fixed charges of the issuing, assuming or guaranteeing corporation applicable to such period, and, during at least one of the last two years of such period, its net earnings shall have been not less than one and one-half times its fixed charges for such year; or if, at the date of acquisition, the obligations are adequately secured and have investment qualities and characteristics wherein the speculative elements are not predominant.

However, with respect to fixed interest-bearing obligations which are issued, assumed or guaranteed by a financial company, the net earnings by the financial company available for its fixed charges for the period of five fiscal years preceding the date of acquisition of the obligations by the insurance company shall have averaged per year not less than one and one-fourth times such average annual fixed charges of the issuing, assuming or guaranteeing financial company applicable to such period, and, during at least one of the last two years of the period, its net earnings shall have been not less than one and one-fourth times its fixed charges for such year; or if, at the date of acquisition, the obligations are adequately secured and speculative elements are not predominant in their investment qualities and characteristics. As used in this paragraph, "financial company" means a corporation which on the average over its last five fiscal years preceding the date of acquisition of its obligations by the insurer, has had at least fifty percent of its net income, including income derived from subsidiaries, derived from the business of wholesale, retail, installment, mortgage, commercial, industrial or consumer financing, or from banking or factoring, or from similar or related lines of business.

b. If adjustment, income or other contingent interest obligations, the net earnings of the issuing, assuming or guaranteeing corporation available for its fixed charges for a period of five fiscal years next preceding the date of acquisition of the obligations by such insurance company shall have averaged per year not less than one and one-half times such average annual fixed charges of the issuing, assuming or guaranteeing corporation and its average annual maximum contingent interest applicable to such period and, during at least one of the last two years of such period, its net earnings shall have been not less than one and one-half times the sum of its fixed charges and maximum contingent interest for such year.

The term "net earnings available for fixed charges" as used herein shall mean the net income after deducting all operating and maintenance expenses, taxes other than any income taxes, depreciation and depletion, but nonrecurring items of income or expense may be excluded.

The term "fixed charges" as used herein shall include interest on unfunded debt and funded debt on a parity with or having a priority to the obligation under consideration.

The term "corporation" as used in this chapter includes a joint stock association, a partnership, or a trust.

The securities, real estate, and mortgages described in this section include participations, which means instruments evidencing partial or undivided collective interests in such securities, real estate, and mortgages.

6. Preferred and guaranteed stocks. Subject to the restrictions contained in subsection 8 hereof, preferred stocks of, or stocks guaranteed by, a corporation incorporated under the laws of the United States of America, or of any state, district, insular or territorial possession thereof; or of the Dominion of Canada, or any province thereof; and which meet the following qualifications:

a. Preferred stocks.

(1) All of the obligations and preferred stocks of the issuing corporation, if any, prior to the preferred stock acquired must be eligible as investments under this section as of the date of acquisition; and

(2) The net earnings available for fixed charges and preferred dividends of the issuing corporation shall have been, for each of the five fiscal years immediately preceding the date of acquisition, not less than one and one-half times the sum of the annual fixed charges and contingent interest, if any, and the annual preferred dividend requirements as of the date of acquisition.

The term "preferred dividend requirements" shall mean cumulative or noncumulative dividends whether paid or not.

The term "fixed charges" shall be construed in accordance with subsection 5 above. The term "net earnings available for fixed charges and preferred dividends" as used herein shall mean the net income after deducting all operating and maintenance expenses, taxes, including any income taxes, depreciation and depletion, but nonrecurring items may be excluded.

b. Guaranteed stocks.

(1) All of the fixed interest-bearing obligations of the guaranteeing corporation, if any, must be eligible under this section as of the date of acquisition; and

(2) The net earnings available for fixed charges of the guaranteeing corporation shall meet the requirements outlined in paragraph "a" of subsection 5 above, except that all guaranteed dividends shall be included in "fixed charges".

Any investments in preferred stocks or guaranteed stocks made under the provisions of this subsection shall be considered as moneys and credits for purposes of taxation and their assessment shall be subject to deductions for indebtedness as provided by law in the case of assessment of moneys and credits in general. This provision shall be effective as to assessments made during the year 1947 and thereafter.

7. Equipment trust obligations. Subject to the restrictions contained in subsection 8, bonds, certificates, or other evidences of indebtedness secured by any transportation equipment used wholly or in part in the United States of America or Canada, that provide a right to receive determined rental, purchase or other fixed obligatory payments adequate to retire the obligations within twenty years from date of issue, and also provide:

a. For vesting of title to such equipment free from encumbrance in a corporate trustee, or

b. For creation of a first lien on such equipment.

8. Further restrictions. Securities included under subsections 5, 6 and 7 shall not be eligible:

a. If the corporation is in default on fixed obligations as of the date of acquisition. Securities provided in paragraph "a" of subsection 6 shall not be eligible if the issuing corporation is in arrears with respect to the payment of any preferred dividends as of the date of acquisition.

b. The investments of any company or association in such securities shall not be eligible in excess of the following percentages of the legal reserve of such company or association:

(1) With the exception of public securities, two percent of the legal reserve in the securities of any one corporation. Five percent of the legal reserve in the securities of any one public utility corporation.

(2) Fifty percent of the legal reserve in the securities described in subsection 5 issued by other than public utility corporations. Fifty percent of the legal reserve in the securities described in subsection 5 issued by public utility corporations.

(3) Ten percent of the legal reserve in the securities described in subsection 6.

(4) Ten percent of the legal reserve in securities described in subsection 7.

c. Statements adjusted to show the actual condition at the time of acquisition or the effect of new financing (known commercially as pro forma statements) may be used in determining whether investments under subsections 5 and 6 are in compliance with requirements. Statements so adjusted or consolidated statements may be used in order to include the earnings of all predecessor, merged, consolidated, or purchased companies.

9. Real estate bonds and mortgages.

a. Bonds, notes, obligations, or other evidences of indebtedness secured by mortgages or deeds of trust which are a first or second lien upon otherwise unencumbered real property and appurtenances thereto within the United States of America, or any insular or territorial possession of the United States, or the Dominion of Canada, and upon leasehold estates in real property where fifty years or more of the term including renewals is unexpired, provided that at the date of acquisition the total indebtedness secured by the first or second lien shall not exceed ninety percent of the value of the property upon which it is a lien. However, a company or organization shall not acquire an indebtedness secured by a first or second lien upon a single parcel of real property, or upon a leasehold interest in a single parcel of real property, in excess of two percent of its legal reserve. These limitations do not apply to obligations described in paragraphs "b", "c", "d", "e" and "f" of this subsection.

Improvements and appurtenances to real property shall not be considered in estimating the value of the property unless the owner contracts to keep the property adequately insured during the life of the loan in some reliable fire insurance companies, or associations, the insurance to be made payable in case of loss to the mortgagee, trustee, or assignee as its interest appears at the time of the loss.

For the purpose of this subsection a mortgage or deed of trust is not other than a first or second lien upon property by reason of the existence of taxes or assessments that are not delinquent, instruments creating or reserving mineral, oil, or timber rights, rights of way, joint driveways, sewer rights, rights in walls or by reason of building restrictions or other like restrictive covenants, or when the real estate is subject to lease in whole or in part whereby rents or profits are reserved to the owner.

b. Bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness representing loans and advances of credit that have been issued, guaranteed, or insured, in accordance with the terms and provisions of an Act of Congress of the United States of America approved June 27, 1934, entitled the "National Housing Act"* , as heretofore and hereafter amended.

c. Bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness representing loans and advances of credit that have been issued or guaranteed, in whole or in part, in accordance with the terms and provisions of Title III of an Act of Congress of the United States of America approved June 22, 1944, known as Public Law 346—Seventy-eighth Congress, Chapter 268—2nd Session, cited as the "Service-men's Readjustment Act of 1944"***, as heretofore and hereafter amended.

d. Contracts of sale, purchase money mortgages or deeds of trust secured by property obtained through foreclosure, or in settlement or satisfaction of any indebtedness, or in the acquisition or disposition of real property acquired pursuant to subsection 14.

e. Bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness representing loans and advances of credit that have been issued or guaranteed, in whole or in part, in accordance with Title I of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act, an Act of the Congress of the United States, cited as the "Farmers Home Administration Act of 1946"***, as heretofore or hereafter amended.

f. Bonds, notes, obligations or other evidences of indebtedness secured by mortgages or deeds of trust which are a first lien upon unencumbered personal or real property or both personal and real property, including a leasehold of real estate, within the United States of America, or any insular or territorial possession of the United States of America, or the Dominion of Canada, under lease, purchase contract, or lease purchase contract to any governmental body or instrumentality whose obligations qualify under subsection 1, 2 or 3 of this section, or to a corporation whose obligations qualify under paragraph "a" of subsection 5 of this section, if the terms of the bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness provide for the amortization during the initial, fixed period of the lease or contract of one hundred percent of the indebtedness and there is pledged or assigned, as additional security for the loan, sufficient of the rentals payable under the lease, or of contract payments, to provide the required payments on the loan necessary to permit such amortization, including but not limited to payments of principal, interest, ground rents and taxes other than the income taxes of the borrower; provided, however, that where the security consists of a first mortgage or deed of trust lien on a fee interest in real property only, the bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness may provide for the amortization during the initial, fixed period of the lease or contract of less than one hundred percent of the indebtedness if there is to be left unamortized at the end of such period an amount not greater than the appraised value of the land only, exclusive of all improvements, and if there is pledged or assigned, as additional security for the loan, sufficient of the rentals payable under the lease, or of contract payments, to provide the required payments on the loan necessary to permit such amortization, including but not limited to payments of principal, interest, and taxes other than the income taxes of the borrower. Investments made in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph shall not be eligible in excess of twenty-five percent of the legal reserve, nor shall any one such investment in excess of five percent of the legal reserve be eligible.

g. Bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness representing loans and advances of credit that have been issued, guaranteed, or insured, in accordance with the terms and provisions of an Act of the federal Parliament of the Dominion of Canada approved March 18, 1954, cited as the "National Housing Act, 1954", as heretofore and hereafter amended.

a. Real estate in this state which is necessary for the accommodation of the company or association as a home office or in the transaction of its business. In the erection of buildings for such purposes, there may be added rooms for rent. Before the company or association invests any of its funds in accordance with this paragraph it shall first obtain the consent of the commissioner. The maximum amount which a company or association shall be permitted to invest in accordance with these provisions shall not exceed ten percent of the legal reserve. However, a stock company may invest such portion of its paid-up capital, in addition to ten percent of the legal reserve, as is not held to constitute a part of its legal reserve, under section 508.36, and the total legal reserve of the company shall be equal to or exceed the amount of its paid-up capital stock.

b. Any real estate acquired through foreclosure, or in settlement or satisfaction of any indebtedness. Any company or association may improve real estate so acquired or remodel existing improvements and exchange such real estate for other real estate or securities, and real estate acquired by such exchange may be improved or the improvements remodeled.

11. Certificates of sale. Certificates of sale obtained through foreclosure of liens on real estate.

12. Policy loans. Loans upon the security of the policies of the company or association and constituting a lien thereon in an amount not exceeding the legal reserve thereon.

13. Collateral loans. Loans secured by collateral consisting of any securities qualified in this section, provided the amount of the loan is not in excess of ninety percent of the value of the securities.

Provided further that subsection 8 of this section shall apply to the collateral securities pledged to the payment of loans authorized in this subsection.

14. Urban real estate and personal property. Personal or real property or both located within the United States or the Dominion of Canada, other than real property used or to be used primarily for agricultural, horticultural, ranching or mining purposes, which produces income or which by suitable improvement will produce income. However, personal property acquired under this subsection shall be acquired for the purpose of entering into a contract for the sale or for a use under which the contractual payments may reasonably be expected to result in the recovery of the investment and an investment return within the anticipated useful life of the property. Legal title to the real property may be acquired subject to a contract of sale. "Real property" as used in this subsection includes a leasehold of real estate, an undivided interest in a leasehold of real estate, and an undivided interest in the fee title of real estate. Investments under this subsection are not eligible in excess of ten percent of the legal reserve.

15. Railroad obligations. Bonds or other evidences of indebtedness which carry a fixed rate of interest and are issued, assumed or guaranteed by any railroad company incorporated under the laws of the United States of America, or of any state, district, insular or territorial possessions thereof, not in reorganization or receivership at the time of such investment, provided that the railroad company:

a. Shall have had for the three-year period immediately preceding investment (for which the necessary data for the railroad company shall have been published) a balance of income available for fixed charges which shall have averaged per year not less than one and one-quarter times the fixed charges for the latest year of the period; and

b. Shall have had for the three-year period immediately preceding investment (for which the necessary data for both the railroad company and all class I railroads shall have been published):

(1) A balance of income available for the payment of fixed charges at least as many times greater than the fixed charges for the latest year of the period as the balance of income available for the payment of fixed charges of all class I railroads for the same three-year period is times greater than the amount of all fixed charges for such class I railroads for the latest year of the period; and

(2) An amount of railway operating revenues remaining after deduction of three times the fixed charges for the latest year of the period from the balance of income available for the payment of fixed charges for the three-year period, which amount is as great a proportion of its railway operating revenues for the same three-year period as is the proportion of railway operating revenues remaining for all class I railroads, determined in the same manner and for the same period as for the railroad.

The terms "class I railroads", "balance of income available for the payment of fixed charges", "fixed charges" and "railway operating revenues" when used in this subsection, are to be given the same meaning as in the accounting reports filed by a railroad company in accordance with the regulations for common carriers by rail of the Interstate Commerce Act; 24 Stat. L. 379; 49 U.S.C. §1 to 40 inc., 1001 to 1100 inc., provided that the "balance of income available for the payment of fixed charges" and "railway operating revenues remaining", as the terms are used in this subsection, shall be computed before deduction of federal income or excess profits taxes; and that in computing "fixed charges" there shall be excluded interest and amortization charges applicable to debt called for redemption or which will otherwise mature within six months from the time of investment and for the payment of which funds have been or currently are being specifically set aside.

The eligibility of railroad obligations described in the first sentence of this subsection shall be determined exclusively as provided herein, without regard to the provisions for qualification contained in subsections 5 and 8 of this section. Provisions for qualification contained in this section shall not be construed as applying to equipment trust obligations, guaranteed stocks, or contingent interest bonds of railroad companies. Investments made in accordance with the provisions of this subsection shall not be eligible in excess of ten percent of the legal reserve.

16. Deposit of securities. Securities in an amount not less than the legal reserve as defined in this section shall be deposited and the deposit maintained with the commissioner of insurance or at such places as the commissioner may designate as will properly safeguard them. There may be included in the deposit an amount of cash on hand not in excess of five percent of the deposit required, that deposit to be evidenced by a certified check, certificate of deposit, or other evidence satisfactory to the commissioner of insurance. Deposits of securities may be made in excess of the amounts required by this section. A stock company organized under the laws of this state shall not be required to make a deposit until the legal reserve, as ascertained by the commissioner, exceeds the amount deposited by it as capital. Real estate may be made a part of the deposit by furnishing evidence of ownership satisfactory to the commissioner and by conveying the real estate to the commissioner or the commissioner's successors in office by warranty deed. The commissioner and the successors in office shall hold the real estate in trust for the benefit of the policyholders of the company or members of the association. Real estate mortgage loans and policy loans may be made a part of the deposit by filing a verified statement of the loans with the commissioner, which statement is subject to check at the discretion of the commissioner.

The securities comprising the deposit of a company or association against which proceedings are pending under sections 508.17 and 508.18 shall vest in the state for the benefit of all policyholders of the company or association.

Securities or title to real estate on deposit may be withdrawn at any time and other eligible securities may be substituted, provided the amount maintained on deposit is equal to the sum of the legal reserve and twenty-five thousand dollars. In the case of real estate the commissioner shall execute and deliver to the company or association a quitclaim deed to the real estate. Any company or association shall, if requested by the commissioner, at the time of withdrawing any securities on deposit, designate for what purpose the same are being withdrawn.

Companies or associations having securities or title to real estate on deposit with the commissioner of insurance shall have the right to collect all dividends, interest, rent, or other income thereon unless proceedings against such company or association are pending under sections 508.17 and 508.18, in which event the commissioner shall collect such interest, dividends, rent, or other income and add the same to the deposit.

Any company or association receiving payments or partial payments of principal on any securities deposited with the commissioner of insurance shall notify the commissioner of such fact at such times and in such manner as the commissioner may prescribe, giving the amount and date of payment.

The commissioner of insurance may receive on deposit securities or title to real estate of alien companies authorized to do business in the state of Iowa, for the purpose of securing its policyholders in the state of Iowa and the United States. The provisions hereof not inconsistent with the deposit agreement shall apply to the deposits of such alien companies.

17. Rules of valuation.

a. All bonds or other evidences of debt having a fixed term and rate of interest, if amply secured and not in default as to principal or interest, may be valued as follows:

(1) If purchased at par, at the par value.

(2) If purchased above or below par, on the basis of the purchase price adjusted so as to bring the value to par at maturity and so as to yield in the meantime the effective rate of interest at which the purchase was made.

In applying the above rule, the purchase price shall in no case be taken at a higher figure than the actual market value at the time of purchase.

b. (1) Real estate acquired through foreclosure or in settlement or satisfaction of any indebtedness, shall be valued in an amount not greater than the amount of the unpaid principal of the defaulted indebtedness, plus any amounts actually expended for taxes, acquisition costs, (but not including any interest due or subsequently accrued thereon) and the cost of any additions or improvements.

(2) Real estate acquired and held under the provisions of paragraph "a" of subsection 10 hereof, shall be valued in an amount not greater than the original cost plus any subsequent additions or improvements.

c. Certificates of sale obtained by foreclosure of liens on real estate shall be valued in an amount not greater than the unpaid principal of the defaulted indebtedness plus any amounts actually expended for taxes and acquisition costs.

d. All investments, except those for which a specific rule is provided in this subsection, shall be valued at their market value, or at their appraised value, or at prices determined by the commissioner of insurance as representing their fair market value, or at a value as determined under rules adopted by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners.

The commissioner of insurance shall have full discretion in determining the method of calculating values according to the foregoing rules, but no company or association shall be prevented from valuing any asset at an amount less than that provided by this subsection.

18. Common stocks or shares.

a. Common stocks or shares issued by solvent corporations or institutions are eligible if the total investment in stocks or shares in the corporations or institutions does not exceed ten percent of legal reserve, provided not more than one-half percent of the legal reserve is invested in stocks or shares of any one corporation. However, the stocks or shares shall be listed or admitted to trading on an established foreign securities exchange or a securities exchange in the United States or shall be publicly held and traded in the "over-the-counter market" and market quotations shall be readily available, and further, the investment shall not create a conflict of interest for an officer or director of the company between the insurance company and the corporation whose stocks or shares are purchased.

b. Common stocks or shares in a subsidiary corporation, the acquisition or purchase of which is authorized by section 508.33 are eligible if the total investment in these stocks or shares does not exceed five percent of the legal reserve. These stocks or shares are eligible even if the stocks or shares are not listed or admitted to trading on a securities exchange in the United States and are not publicly held and have not been traded in the "over-the-counter market". The stocks or shares shall be valued at their book value.

19. Other foreign government or corporate obligations. Bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, not to include currency, issued, assumed or guaranteed by a foreign government other than Canada, or by a corporation incorporated under the laws of a foreign government other than Canada. Any such governmental obligations must be valid, legally authorized and issued. Any such corporate obligations must meet the qualifications established in subsection 5 of this section for bonds and other evidences of indebtedness issued, assumed, or guaranteed by a corporation incorporated under the laws of the United States or Canada. Foreign investments authorized by this subsection are not eligible in excess of two percent of the legal reserve of the life insurance company or association.

Eligible investments in foreign obligations under this subsection are limited to the types of obligations specifically referred to in this subsection. This subsection in no way limits or restricts investments in Canadian obligations and securities specifically authorized in other subsections of this section.

This subsection shall not authorize investment in evidences of indebtedness issued, assumed, or guaranteed by a foreign government which engages in a consistent pattern of gross violations of human rights.

20. Venture capital funds. Shares or equity interests in venture capital funds which agree to invest an amount equal to at least fifty percent of the funds in small businesses having their principal offices within this state and having either more than one half of their assets within this state or more than one half of their employees employed within this state. A company shall not invest more than five percent of its legal reserve under this subsection. For purposes of this subsection, "venture capital fund" means a corporation, partnership, proprietorship, or other entity formed under the laws of the United States, or a state, district, or territory of the United States, whose principal business is or will be the making of investments in, and the provision of significant managerial assistance to, small businesses which meet the small business administration definition of small business. "Equity interests" means limited partnership interests and other equity interests in which liability is limited to the amount of the investment, but does not mean general partnership interests or other interests involving general liability.

21. Use of custodian banks, clearing corporations, and the federal reserve book-entry system.

a. As used in this subsection:

(1) "Clearing corporation" means a corporation as defined in section 554.8102, subsection 3.

(2) "Custodian bank" means a federal or state bank or trust company regulated under the Iowa banking laws or the federal reserve system, which maintains an account in its name in a clearing corporation and acts as custodian of securities owned by a domestic insurer.

(3) "Federal reserve book-entry system" means the computerized system sponsored by the United States department of the treasury and certain agencies and instrumentalities of the United States for holding and transferring securities of the United States government and its agencies and instrumentalities, in the federal reserve banks through national banks, state banks, or trust companies, which either are members of the federal reserve system or otherwise have access to the computerized systems.

b. Securities deposited by a domestic insurance company with a custodian bank, or redeposited by a custodian bank with a clearing corporation, or held in the federal reserve book-entry system may be used to meet the deposit requirements of subsection 16. The commissioner shall adopt rules necessary to implement this section which:

(1) Establish guidelines on which the commissioner determines whether a custodian bank qualifies as a bank in which securities owned by an insurer may be deposited for the purpose of satisfying the requirements of subsection 16.

(2) Designate those clearing corporations in which securities owned by insurers may be deposited.

(3) Set forth provisions that custodian agreements executed between custodian banks and insurers shall contain. These shall include provisions stating that minimum deposit levels shall be maintained and that the parties agree securities in deposits with custodian banks shall vest in the state in accordance with sections 508.17 and 508.18 whenever proceedings under those sections are instituted.

(4) Establish other safeguards applicable to the use of custodian banks and clearing corporations by insurers which the commissioner believes necessary to protect the policyholders of the insurers.

c. A security owned by a domestic insurer and deposited in a custodian bank or clearing corporation does not qualify for purposes of its legal reserve deposit unless the custodian bank and clearing corporation are approved by the commissioner for that purpose.

511.38 Interest on delayed claims payments.

1. When an insurance policy provides for the payment of its proceeds to a beneficiary upon the death of an individual and, without the written consent of the beneficiary, the company fails or refuses to pay the proceeds within thirty days after receipt of satisfactory proof of death, the company shall pay interest on the proceeds or any amount of the proceeds not paid within the thirty days, provided, however, if the policy requires a beneficiary to survive for a designated period after the death of the insured, the company shall pay interest on the proceeds or any amount of the proceeds not paid within thirty days after the designated period.

2. The interest owed on any amount of the proceeds of a policy under this section shall be computed from the date of receipt of the proof of death. The rate of interest shall be the higher of the following:

a. The effective rate of interest charged by the company on policy loans under section 511.36 on the date of receipt of proof of death.

b. The effective rate of interest paid by the company on death proceeds left on deposit with the company.

3. A payment of interest shall not be required under this section in any case in which the beneficiary elects to receive the proceeds under the policy by any means other than a lump sum payment.

CHAPTER 514*NONPROFIT HEALTH SERVICE CORPORATIONS*514.7 Contracts—approval by commissioner—provisions to be available.

The contracts by any such corporation with the subscribers for health care service shall at all times be subject to the approval of the commissioner of insurance. The commission shall require that participating pharmacies be reimbursed by the pharmaceutical service corporation at rates or prices equal to rates or prices charged nonsubscribers, unless the commissioner determines otherwise to prevent loss to subscribers.

A provision shall be available in approved contracts with hospital and medical service corporate subscribers under group subscriber contracts or plans covering vision care services or procedures, for payment of necessary medical or surgical care and treatment provided by an optometrist licensed under chapter 154, if the care and treatment are provided within the scope of the optometrist's license and if the subscriber contract would pay for the care and treatment if it were provided by a person engaged in the practice of medicine or surgery as licensed under chapter 148 or 150A. The subscriber contract shall also provide that the subscriber may reject the coverage or provision if the coverage or provision for services which may be provided by an optometrist is rejected for all providers of similar vision care services as licensed under chapter 148, 150A, or 154. This paragraph applies to group subscriber contracts delivered after July 1, 1983, and to group subscriber contracts on their anniversary or renewal date, or upon the expiration of the applicable collective bargaining contract, if any, whichever is the later. This paragraph does not apply to contracts designed only for issuance to subscribers eligible for coverage under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, or any other similar coverage under a state or federal government plan.

A provision shall be available in approved contracts with hospital and medical service corporate subscribers under group subscriber contracts or plans covering medical and surgical service, for payment for diabetic outpatient self-management education programs, under terms and conditions agreed upon between the corporation and subscriber group, subject to utilization controls. This paragraph applies to group subscriber contracts delivered after July 1, 1984, and to group subscriber contracts on their anniversary or renewal date, or upon the expiration of the applicable collective bargaining contract, if any, whichever is the later. This paragraph does not apply to contracts designed only for issuance to subscribers eligible for coverage under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, or any other similar coverage under a state or federal government plan. Coverage shall apply only to programs directed and supervised by a physician licensed under chapter 148 or 150A. Covered diabetic outpatient self-management education programs shall be provided by health care professionals including, but not limited to, physicians, registered nurses, and licensed pharmacists who are knowledgeable about the disease process of diabetes and the treatment of diabetic patients. As used in this paragraph, "diabetic outpatient self-management education programs" means instruction which will enable diabetic patients and their families to gain an understanding of the diabetic disease process and the daily management of diabetic therapy thereby avoiding frequent hospitalizations and complications. Such programs shall meet standards developed by the Iowa department of public health in consultation with American diabetes association, Iowa affiliate, for certification of outpatient diabetes education programs. This paragraph does not require the coverage for programs whose sole or primary purpose is weight reduction.

A provision shall be made available in approved contracts with hospital and medical subscribers under group subscriber contracts or plans covering diagnosis and treatment of human ailments, for payment or reimbursement for necessary diagnosis or treatment provided by a chiropractor licensed under chapter 151 if the diagnosis or treatment is provided within the scope of the chiropractor's license and if the subscriber contract would pay or reimburse for the diagnosis or treatment of the human ailment, irrespective of and disregarding variances in terminology employed by the various licensed professions in describing the human ailment or their diagnosis or treatment, if it were provided by a person licensed under chapter 148, 150, or 150A. The subscriber contract shall also provide that the subscriber may reject the coverage or provision if the coverage or provision for diagnosis or treatment of a human ailment by a chiropractor is rejected for all providers of diagnosis or treatment for similar human ailments licensed under chapter 148, 150, 150A or 151. A group subscriber contract may limit or make optional the payment or reimbursement for lawful diagnostic or treatment service by all licensees under chapters 148, 150, 150A, and 151 on any rational basis which is not solely related to the license under or the practices authorized by chapter 151 or is not dependent upon a method of classification, categorization, or description based upon differences in terminology used by different licensees in describing human ailments or their diagnosis or treatment. This paragraph applies to group subscriber contracts delivered after July 1, 1986, and to group subscriber contracts on their anniversary or renewal date, or upon the expiration of the applicable collective bargaining contract, if any, whichever is the later. This paragraph does not apply to contracts designed only for issuance to subscribers eligible for coverage under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, or any other similar coverage under a state or federal government plan.

A provision shall be available in approved contracts with hospital and medical service corporate subscribers under group subscriber contracts or plans covering medical and surgical service, for payment of covered services determined to be medically necessary provided by certified registered nurses certified by a national certifying organization, which organization shall be identified by the Iowa board of nursing pursuant to rules adopted by the board, if the services are within the practice of the profession of a registered nurse as that practice is defined in section 152.1, under terms and conditions agreed upon between the corporation and subscriber group, subject to utilization controls. This paragraph shall not require payment for nursing services provided by a certified registered nurse practicing in a hospital, nursing facility, health care institution, a physician's office, or other noninstitutional setting if the certified registered nurse is an employee of the hospital, nursing facility, health care institution, physician, or other health care facility or health care provider. This paragraph applies to group subscriber contracts delivered in this state on or after July 1, 1989, and to group subscriber contracts on their anniversary or renewal date, or upon the expiration of the applicable collective bargaining contract, if any, whichever is the later. This paragraph does not apply to limited or specified disease or individual contracts or contracts designed only for issuance to subscribers eligible for coverage under Title XVIII of the federal Social Security Act, contracts which are rated on a community basis, or any other similar coverage under a state or federal government plan.

514.21 Utilization review program.

A utilization review program shall be established for purposes of health care cost control, according to usual and customary third-party insurance payment or reimbursement procedures, by a corporation subject to this chapter and by physician providers as defined in section 135.1 and registered nurse providers licensed under chapter 152. This utilization review program shall not be used directly or indirectly to circumvent the provisions for payment or reimbursement to providers of health care services as provided in section 509.3, subsections 7 and 8, and section 514.7.

CHAPTER 514B

HEALTH MAINTENANCE ORGANIZATIONS

514B.1 Definitions—services required or available.

As provided in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Commissioner" means the commissioner of insurance.
2. "Health care services" means services included in the furnishing to any individual of medical or dental care, or hospitalization, or incident to the furnishing of such care or hospitalization, as well as the furnishing to any person of all other services for the purposes of preventing, alleviating, curing, or healing human illness, injury, or physical disability.

The health care services available to enrollees under prepaid group plans covering vision care services or procedures, shall include a provision for payment of necessary medical or surgical care and treatment provided by an optometrist licensed under chapter 154, if performed within the scope of the optometrist's license, and the plan would pay for the care and treatment when the care and treatment were provided by a person engaged in the practice of medicine or surgery as licensed under chapter 148 or 150A. The plan shall provide that the plan enrollees may reject the coverage for services which may be provided by an optometrist if the coverage is rejected for all providers of similar vision care services as licensed under chapter 148, 150A, or 154. This paragraph applies to services provided under plans made after July 1, 1983, and to existing group plans on their next anniversary or renewal date, or upon the expiration of the applicable collective bargaining contract, if any, whichever is the later. This paragraph does not apply to enrollees eligible for coverage under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act or any other similar coverage under a state or federal government plan.

The health care services available to enrollees under prepaid group plans covering hospital, medical, or surgical expenses, may include, at the option of the employer purchaser, a provision for payment for diabetic outpatient self-management education programs, under terms and conditions agreed upon between the provider and the health maintenance organization, subject to utilization controls. This paragraph applies to services provided under plans made after July 1, 1984, and to existing group plans on their next anniversary or renewal date, or upon the expiration of the applicable collective bargaining contract, if any, whichever is the later. This paragraph does not apply to enrollees eligible for coverage under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act or any other similar coverage under a state or federal government plan. Coverage shall apply only to programs directed and supervised by a physician who is under contract with or employed by a health maintenance organization and is licensed under chapter 148 or 150A. Covered diabetic outpatient self-management education programs shall be provided by health care professionals including, but not limited to, physicians, registered nurses, and licensed pharmacists who are knowledgeable about the disease process of diabetes and the treatment of diabetic patients. As used in this paragraph, "diabetic outpatient self-management education programs" means instruction which will enable diabetic patients and their families to gain an understanding of the diabetic disease process and the daily management of diabetic therapy thereby avoiding frequent hospitalizations and complications. Such programs shall meet standards developed by the Iowa department of public health in consultation with American diabetes association, Iowa affiliate, for certification of outpatient diabetes education programs. This paragraph does not require the coverage for programs whose sole or primary purpose is weight reduction.

The health care services available to enrollees under prepaid group plans covering diagnosis and treatment of human ailments, shall include a provision for payment of necessary diagnosis or treatment provided by a chiropractor licensed under chapter 151 if the diagnosis or treatment is provided within the scope of the chiropractor's license and if the plan would pay or reimburse for the diagnosis or treatment of human ailment, irrespective of and disregarding variances in terminology employed by the various licensed professions in describing the human ailment or its diagnosis or its treatment, if it were provided by a person licensed under chapter 148, 150, or 150A. The plan shall also provide that the plan enrollees may reject the coverage for diagnosis or treatment of a human ailment by a chiropractor if the coverage is rejected for all providers of diagnosis or treatment for similar human ailments licensed under chapter 148, 150, 150A, or 151. A prepaid group plan of health care services may limit or make optional the payment or reimbursement for lawful diagnostic or treatment service by all licensees under chapters 148, 150, 150A, and 151 on any rational basis which is not solely related to the license under or the practices authorized by chapter 151 or is not dependent upon a method of classification, categorization, or description based upon differences in terminology used by different licensees in describing human ailments or their diagnosis or treatment. This paragraph applies to services provided under plans made after July 1, 1986, and to existing group plans on their next anniversary or renewal date, or upon the expiration of the applicable collective bargaining contract, if any, whichever is the later. This paragraph does not apply to enrollees eligible for coverage under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, or any other similar coverage under a state or federal government plan.

The health care services available to enrollees under prepaid group plans covering hospital, medical, or surgical expenses, may include, at the option of the employer purchaser, a provision for payment of covered services determined to be medically necessary provided by a certified registered nurse certified by a national certifying organization, which organization shall be identified by the Iowa board of nursing pursuant to rules adopted by the board, if the services are within the practice of the profession of a registered nurse as that practice is defined in section 152.1, under terms and conditions agreed upon between the employer purchaser and the health maintenance organization, subject to utilization controls. This paragraph shall not require payment for nursing services provided by a certified registered nurse practicing in a hospital, nursing facility, health care institution, a physician's office, or other noninstitutional setting if the certified registered nurse is an employee of the hospital, nursing facility, health care institution, physician, or other health care facility or health care provider. This paragraph applies to services provided under plans within this state made on or after July 1, 1989, and to existing group plans on their next anniversary or renewal date, or upon the expiration of the applicable collective bargaining contract, if any, whichever is later. This paragraph does not apply to enrollees eligible for coverage under an individual contract or coverage designed only for issuance to enrollees eligible for coverage under Title XVIII of the federal Social Security Act, or under coverage which is rated on a community basis, or any other similar coverage under a state or federal government plan.

3. "Health maintenance organization" means any person, who:
  - a. Provides either directly or through arrangements with others, health care services to enrollees on a fixed prepayment basis;
  - b. Provides either directly or through arrangements with other persons for basic health care services; and,
  - c. Is responsible for the availability, accessibility and quality of the health care services provided or arranged.
4. "Enrollee" means an individual who is enrolled in a health maintenance organization.
5. "Provider" means any physician, hospital, or person as defined in chapter 4 which is licensed or otherwise authorized in this state to furnish health care services.
6. "Basic health care services" means services which an enrollee might reasonably require in order to be maintained in good health, including as a minimum, emergency care, inpatient hospital and physician care, and outpatient medical services rendered within or outside of a hospital.
7. "Evidence of coverage" means any certificate, agreement or contract issued to an enrollee setting out the coverage to which the enrollee is entitled.

CHAPTER 514C

SPECIAL HEALTH AND ACCIDENT INSURANCE COVERAGES

514C.4 Mandated coverage for mammography.

1. A policy or contract providing for third-party payment or prepayment of health or medical expenses shall provide minimum mammography examination coverage, including, but not limited to, the following classes of third-party payment provider contracts or policies delivered, issued for delivery, continued, or renewed in this state on or after July 1, 1989:

- a. Individual or group accident and sickness insurance providing coverage on an expense-incurred basis.
- b. An individual or group hospital or medical service contract issued pursuant to chapter 509, 514, or 514A.
- c. An individual or group health maintenance organization contract regulated under chapter 514B.
- d. An individual or group Medicare supplemental policy.

A long-term care policy or contract is specifically excluded from regulation under this section.

2. As used in this section, "minimum mammography examination coverage" means benefits which are better than or equal to the following minimum requirements:

- a. One baseline mammogram for any woman who is thirty-five through thirty-nine years of age.
- b. A mammogram every two years for any woman who is forty through forty-nine years of age, or more frequently if recommended by the woman's physician.
- c. A mammogram every year for any woman who is fifty years of age or older.

3. Mammogram benefits may be subject to any policy or contract provisions which apply generally to other services covered by the policy or contract.

4. As used in this section:

- a. "Medicare" means the Health Insurance for the Aged Act, Title XVIII of the federal Social Security Amendments of 1965, as amended (Title I, Part I of Pub. L. No. 89-97).

b. "Medicare supplemental policy" means any individual or group accident and sickness insurance policy or certificate or individual subscriber contract delivered or issued for delivery to any resident of the state who is eligible for Medicare, except any long-term care insurance policy as defined in section 514G.4.

5. The commissioner of insurance shall adopt rules under chapter 17A necessary to implement this section no later than July 1, 1989.

CHAPTER 514E

IOWA COMPREHENSIVE HEALTH INSURANCE ASSOCIATION

514E.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Association" means the Iowa comprehensive health association established by section 514E.2.

2. "Association policy" means an individual or group policy issued by the association that provides the coverage specified in section 514E.4.

3. "Carrier" means an insurer providing accident and sickness insurance under chapter 509, 514 or 514A and includes a health maintenance organization established under chapter 514B if payments received by the health maintenance organization are considered premiums pursuant to section 514B.31 and are taxed under chapter 432. "Carrier" also includes a corporation which becomes a mutual insurer pursuant to section 514.23 and any other person as defined in section 4.1, subsection 13, who is or may become liable for the tax imposed by chapter 432.

4. "Commissioner" means the commissioner of insurance.

5. "Eligible expenses" means the usual, customary and reasonable charges for the health care services specified in section 514E.4.

6. "Health care facility" means a health care facility as defined in section 135C.1, subsection 4, a hospital as defined in section 135B.1, subsection 1, or a community mental health center established under chapter 230A.

7. "Health care services" means services, the coverage of which is authorized under chapter 509, chapter 514, chapter 514A, or chapter 514B as limited by sections 514E.4 and 514E.5, and includes services for the purposes of preventing, alleviating, curing, or healing human illness, injury or physical disability.

8. "Health insurance" means accident and sickness insurance authorized by chapter 509, 514 or 514A.

9. "Health insurance trust fund" means the fund created in section 514E.3.

10. "Insured" means an individual who is provided qualified comprehensive health insurance under an association policy, which policy may include dependents and other covered persons.

11. "Medicaid" means the federal-state assistance program established under Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act.

12. "Medicare" means the federal government health insurance program established under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act.

13. "Policy" means a contract, policy, or plan of health insurance.

14. "Policy year" means a consecutive twelve-month period during which a policy provides or obligates the carrier to provide health insurance.

89 Acts, ch 304, §1003 SF 538
Subsection 2 amended

514E.2 Iowa comprehensive health insurance association.

1. There is established a nonprofit corporation known as the Iowa comprehensive health insurance association which shall assure that health insurance, as limited by sections 514E.4 and 514E.5, is made available to each eligible Iowa resident applying to the association for coverage. All carriers as defined in section 514E.1, subsection 3, providing health insurance or health care services in Iowa shall be members of the association. The association shall operate under a plan of operation established and approved under subsection 3 and shall exercise its powers through a board of directors established under this section.

2. The board of directors of the association shall consist of four members selected by the members of the association, two of whom shall be representatives from corporations operating pursuant to chapter 514 on July 1, 1989, or any successors in interest, and two of whom shall be representatives of insurers providing coverage pursuant to chapter 509 or 514A; four public members selected by the governor; the commissioner or the commissioner's designee from the division of insurance; and two members of the general assembly, one of whom shall be appointed by the speaker of the house and one of whom shall be appointed by the senate majority leader, who shall be ex officio and nonvoting members. The composition of the board of directors shall be in compliance with sections 69.16 and 69.16A. The governor's appointees shall be chosen from a broad cross-section of the residents of this state.

Members of the board may be reimbursed from the moneys of the association for expenses incurred by them as members, but shall not be otherwise compensated by the association for their services.

3. The association shall submit to the commissioner a plan of operation for the association and any amendments necessary or suitable to assure the fair, reasonable, and equitable administration of the association. The plan of operation becomes effective upon approval in writing by the commissioner prior to the date on which the coverage under this chapter must be made available. After notice and hearing, the commissioner shall approve the plan of operation if the plan is determined to be suitable to assure the fair, reasonable, and equitable administration of the association, and provides for the sharing of association losses, if any, on an equitable and proportionate basis among the member carriers. If the association fails to submit a suitable plan of operation within one hundred eighty days after the appointment of the board of directors, or if at any later time the association fails to submit suitable amendments to the plan, the commissioner shall adopt, pursuant to chapter 17A, rules necessary to implement this section. The rules shall continue in force until modified by the commissioner or superseded by a plan submitted by the association and approved by the commissioner. In addition to other requirements, the plan of operation shall provide for all of the following:

- a. The handling and accounting of assets and moneys of the association.
- b. The amount and method of reimbursing members of the board.
- c. Regular times and places for meeting of the board of directors.
- d. Records to be kept of all financial transactions, and the annual fiscal reporting to the commissioner.
- e. Procedures for selecting the board of directors and submitting the selections to the commissioner for approval.

f. Establishing, in cooperation with the commissioner of insurance and the director of revenue and finance, procedures for the determination and payment to the association from the health insurance trust fund of amounts which represent the net loss for the preceding calendar year to the association. The amount of the payment shall be based upon the amount of funds deposited in the health insurance trust fund and the amount of net loss of the association. If funds deposited in the health insurance trust fund are insufficient to pay all of the losses, the director of revenue and finance shall notify the commissioner of insurance and the association of the amount of the deficiency.

g. The periodic advertising of the general availability of health insurance coverage from the association.

h. Additional provisions necessary or proper for the execution of the powers and duties of the association.

4. The plan of operation may provide that the powers and duties of the association may be delegated to a person who will perform functions similar to those of the association. A delegation under this section takes effect only upon the approval of both the board of directors and the commissioner. The commissioner shall not approve a delegation unless the protections afforded to the insured are substantially equivalent to or greater than those provided under this chapter.

5. The association has the general powers and authority enumerated by this subsection and executed in accordance with the plan of operation approved by the commissioner under subsection 3. The association has the general powers and authority granted under the laws of this state to carriers licensed to issue health insurance. In addition, the association may do any of the following:

a. Enter into contracts as necessary or proper to carry out this chapter.

b. Sue or be sued, including taking any legal action necessary or proper for recovery of any assessments for, on behalf of, or against participating carriers.

c. Take legal action necessary to avoid the payment of improper claims against the association or the coverage provided by or through the association.

d. Establish or utilize a medical review committee to determine the reasonably appropriate level and extent of health care services in each instance.

e. Establish appropriate rates, scales of rates, rate classifications, and rating adjustments, which rates shall not be unreasonable in relation to the coverage provided and the reasonable operations expenses of the association.

f. Pool risks among members.

g. Issue association policies on an indemnity or provision of service basis providing the coverage required by this chapter.

h. Administer separate pools, separate accounts, or other plans or arrangements considered appropriate for separate members or groups of members.

i. Operate and administer any combination of plans, pools, or other mechanisms considered appropriate to best accomplish the fair and equitable operation of the association.

j. Appoint from among members appropriate legal, actuarial, and other committees as necessary to provide technical assistance in the operation of the association, policy and other contract design, and any other functions within the authority of the association.

k. Hire independent consultants as necessary.

l. Develop a method of advising applicants of the availability of other coverages outside the association, and shall promulgate a list of health conditions the existence of which would make an applicant eligible without demonstrating a rejection of coverage by one carrier.

m. Include in its policies a provision providing for subrogation rights by the association in a case in which the association pays expenses on behalf of an individual who is injured or suffers a disease under circumstances creating a liability upon another person to pay damages to the extent of the expenses paid by the association but only to the extent the damages exceed the policy deductible and coinsurance amounts paid by the insured. The association may waive its subrogation rights if it determines that the exercise of the rights would be impractical, uneconomical, or would work a hardship on the insured.

6. Rates for coverages issued by the association shall not be unreasonable in relation to the benefits provided, the risk experience, and the reasonable expenses of providing coverage. Separate scales of rates based on age may apply for individual risks. Rates must take into consideration the extra morbidity and administration expenses, if any, for risks insured in the association. The rates for a given classification shall not be more than one hundred fifty percent of the average premium or payment rate for that classification charged by the five carriers with the largest health insurance premium or payment volume in the state during the preceding calendar year. In determining the average rate of the five largest carriers, the rates or payments charged by the carriers shall be actuarially adjusted to determine the rate or payment that would have been charged for benefits similar to those issued by the association.

7. Following the close of each calendar year, the association shall determine the net premiums and payments, the expenses of administration, and the incurred losses of the association for the year. The association shall certify the amount of any net loss for the preceding calendar year to the commissioner of insurance and director of revenue and finance who shall make payment to the association according to procedures established under subsection 3, paragraph "f". Any remaining loss, after payment to the association from the health insurance trust fund, shall be assessed by the association to all members in proportion to their respective shares of total health insurance premiums or payments for subscriber contracts received in Iowa during the second preceding calendar year, or with paid losses in the year, coinciding with or ending during the calendar year or on any other equitable basis as provided in the plan of operation. In sharing losses, the association may abate or defer in any part the assessment of a member, if, in the opinion of the board, payment of the assessment would endanger the ability of the member to fulfill its contractual obligations. The association may also provide for an initial or interim assessment against members of the association if necessary to assure the financial capability of the association to meet the incurred or estimated claims expenses or operating expenses of the association until the next calendar year is completed. Net gains, if any, must be held at interest to offset future losses or allocated to reduce future premiums.

8. The association shall conduct periodic audits to assure the general accuracy of the financial data submitted to the association, and the association shall have an annual audit of its operations, made by an independent certified public accountant.

9. The association is subject to examination by the commissioner of insurance. Not later than April 30 of each year, the board of directors shall submit to the commissioner a financial report for the preceding calendar year in a form approved by the commissioner.

10. The association is subject to oversight by the legislative fiscal committee of the legislative council. Not later than April 30 of each year, the board of directors shall submit to the legislative fiscal committee a financial report for the preceding year in a form approved by the committee.

11. All policy forms issued by the association must be filed with and approved by the commissioner before their use.

12. The association shall not issue an association policy to an individual who, on the effective date of the coverage applied for, has not been rejected for, already has, or will have coverage similar to an association policy, as an insured or covered dependent.

13. The association is exempt from payment of all fees and all taxes levied by this state or any of its political subdivisions.

14. A member who, after July 1, 1986, has paid one or more assessments levied under this chapter may take a credit against the premium taxes, or similar taxes, upon revenues or income of the member that are imposed by the state on health insurance premiums pursuant to chapter 432 or payments subject to taxation under section 514B.31, up to the amount of twenty percent of those taxes due, for each of the five calendar years following the year for which an assessment was paid, or until the aggregate of those assessments has been offset by credits against those taxes if this occurs first. If a member ceases doing business, all uncredited assessments may be credited against its premium tax liability for the year it ceases doing business.

Former subsection 12 stricken

514E.5 Expenses excluded.

Eligible expenses shall not include an expense for any of the following:

1. Services for which a charge is not made in the absence of insurance or for which there is no legal obligation on the part of a patient to pay.

2. Services and charges made for benefits provided under the laws of the United States, including Medicare and Medicaid, military service-connected disabilities, medical services provided for members of the armed forces and their dependents or for employees of the armed forces of the United States, and medical services financed on behalf of all citizens by the United States.

However, the association policy shall pay benefits as a primary payer in any case where benefit coverage provided under the laws of the United States, including Medicare and Medicaid, or under the laws of this state is, by rule or statute, secondary to all other coverages.

3. Benefits which would duplicate the provision of services or payment of charges for any care for an injury, disease, or condition for which either of the following applies:

a. It arises out of and in the course of an employment subject to a workers' compensation or similar law.

b. Benefits for it are payable without regard to fault under a coverage required to be contained in any motor vehicle or other liability insurance policy or equivalent self-insurance. However, this does not authorize exclusion of charges that exceed the benefits payable under the applicable workers' compensation or no-fault coverage.

4. Care which is primarily for a custodial or domiciliary purpose.

5. Cosmetic surgery unless provided as the result of an injury or medically necessary surgical procedure.

6. Services the provision of which is not within the scope of the license or certificate of the institution or individual rendering the services.

7. That part of any charge for services or articles rendered or prescribed by a health care provider which exceeds the prevailing charge in the locality where the service is provided, or a charge for services or articles not medically necessary.

8. Services rendered prior to the effective date of coverage under this plan for the person on whose behalf the expense is incurred.

9. Routine physical examinations including examinations to determine the need for eye glasses and hearing aids.

10. Illness or injury due to an act of war.

11. Service of a blood donor and any fee for failure to replace the first three pints of blood provided to an eligible person each calendar year.

12. Personal supplies or services provided by a health care facility or any other nonmedical or nonprescribed supply or service.

13. Experimental services or supplies. "Experimental" means a service or supply not recognized by the appropriate medical board as normal mode of treatment for the illness or injury involved.

14. Eye surgery if corrective lenses would alleviate the problem.

The coverage and benefit requirements of this section for association policies shall not be altered by any other state law without specific reference to this chapter indicating a legislative intent to add or delete from the coverage requirements of this chapter.

This chapter does not prohibit the association from issuing additional types of health insurance policies with different types of benefits which, in the opinion of the board of directors, may be of benefit to the citizens of the state.

CHAPTER 514F

UTILIZATION AND COST CONTROL

514F.1 Utilization and cost control review committees.

The boards of examiners under chapters 148, 149, 150, 150A, 151, 152, and 153 shall establish utilization and cost control review committees of licensees under the respective chapters, selected from licensees who have practiced in Iowa for at least the previous five years, or shall accredit and designate other utilization and cost control organizations as utilization and cost control committees under this section, for the purposes of utilization review of the appropriateness of levels of treatment and of giving opinions as to the reasonableness of charges for diagnostic or treatment services of licensees. Persons governed by the various chapters of Title XX of the Code and self-insurers for health care benefits to employees may utilize the services of the utilization and cost control review committees upon the payment of a reasonable fee for the services, to be determined by the respective boards of examiners. The respective boards of examiners under chapters 148, 149, 150, 150A, 151, 152, and 153 shall adopt rules necessary and proper for the implementation of this section pursuant to chapter 17A. It is the intent of this general assembly that conduct of the utilization and cost control review committees authorized under this section shall be exempt from challenge under federal or state antitrust laws or other similar laws in regulation of trade or commerce.

CHAPTER 514G

LONG-TERM CARE INSURANCE

514G.7 Disclosure and performance standards for long-term care insurance.

1. Rules. The commissioner may adopt rules for full and fair disclosure of the terms and benefits of a long-term care insurance policy, including but not limited to rules setting forth the manner, content, and required disclosures for the sale of long-term care insurance policies, terms of renewability, initial and subsequent conditions of eligibility, nonduplication of coverage provisions, coverage of dependents, preexisting conditions, termination of insurance, probationary periods, limitations, exceptions, reductions, elimination periods, requirements for replacement, recurrent conditions, and definitions of terms.

2. Prohibitions. A long-term care insurance policy shall not:

a. Be cancelled, nonrenewed, or otherwise terminated on the grounds of the age or the deterioration of the mental or physical health of the insured individual or certificate holder.

b. Contain a provision establishing a new waiting period in the event existing coverage is converted to or replaced by a new or other form within the same company, except with respect to an increase in benefits voluntarily selected by the insured individual or group policyholder.

c. Provide coverage for skilled nursing care only, or provide significantly more coverage for skilled care in a facility than coverage for lower levels of care.

3. Preexisting conditions.

a. A long-term care insurance policy or certificate shall not use a definition of "preexisting condition" which is more restrictive than the following: "Preexisting condition" means the existence of symptoms which would cause an ordinarily prudent person to seek diagnosis, care, or treatment, or a condition for which medical advice or treatment was recommended by or received from a provider of health care services, within the limitation periods specified below:

(1) Six months preceding the effective date of coverage of an insured person who is sixty-five years of age or older on the effective date of coverage.

(2) Twenty-four months preceding the effective date of coverage of an insured person who is under age sixty-five on the effective date of coverage.

b. A long-term care insurance policy shall not exclude coverage for a loss or confinement which is the result of a preexisting condition unless the loss or confinement begins within the shortest applicable period specified below:

(1) Six months following the effective date of coverage of an insured person who is sixty-five years of age or older on the effective date of coverage.

(2) Twenty-four months following the effective date of coverage of an insured person who is under age sixty-five on the effective date of coverage.

c. The commissioner may extend the limitation periods in paragraphs "a" and "b" of this subsection to specific age group categories in specific policy forms, upon findings that the extension is in the best interest of the public.

d. The definition of "preexisting condition" does not prohibit either of the following:

(1) An insurer from using an application form designed to elicit the complete health history of an applicant.

(2) An insurer from underwriting in accordance with that insurer's established underwriting standards based on the answers on an application conforming with subparagraph (1).

4. Prior hospitalization—institutionalization.

a. Effective July 1, 1989, a long-term care insurance policy shall not be delivered or issued for delivery in this state if the policy does either of the following:

(1) Conditions eligibility for any benefits on a requirement of prior hospitalization.

(2) Conditions eligibility for benefits covering care provided in an institutional care setting on the receipt of a higher level of institutional care.

b. Effective July 1, 1989, a long-term care insurance policy containing any limitations or conditions for eligibility, other than those prohibited in paragraph 1, shall clearly label such limitations or conditions in a separate paragraph of the policy or certificate entitled "Limitations or Conditions on Eligibility for Benefits".

c. A long-term care insurance policy advertised, marketed, or offered as containing long-term care benefits at home shall not condition receipt of benefits on a requirement of prior hospitalization.

d. A long-term care insurance policy which conditions eligibility for noninstitutional benefits on the prior receipt of institutional care shall not require a prior institutional stay of more than thirty days for which benefits are paid.

5. Rules. The commissioner may adopt rules establishing loss ratio standards for long-term care insurance policies provided that a specific reference to long-term care insurance policies is contained in the rules.

6. Right to return after examination.

a. Except as provided in paragraph "b", an individual long-term care insurance policyholder has the right to return the policy within ten days of its delivery and to have the premium refunded, if, after examination of the policy, the policyholder is not satisfied for any reason. Individual long-term care insurance policies must have a notice prominently printed on the first page of the policy or attached to the first page stating in substance that the policyholder has the right to return the policy within ten days of its delivery and to have the premium refunded if, after examination of the policy, the policyholder is not satisfied for any reason.

b. A person insured under a long-term care insurance policy issued pursuant to a direct response solicitation has the right to return the policy within thirty days of its delivery and to have the premium refunded if, after examination, the insured person is not satisfied for any reason. Long-term care insurance policies issued pursuant to a direct response solicitation must have a notice prominently printed on the first page or attached to the first page stating in substance that the insured person has the right to return the policy within thirty days of its delivery and to have the premium refunded if, after examination of the policy, the insured person is not satisfied for any reason.

7. Outline of coverage. An outline of coverage shall be delivered to an applicant for an individual long-term care insurance policy at the time of application. An outline of coverage must include all of the following:

a. A description of the principal benefits and coverage provided in the policy.

b. A statement of the principal exclusions, reductions, and limitations contained in the policy.

c. A statement of the renewal provisions, including any reservation in the policy of a right to change premiums. Continuation or conversion provisions of group coverage shall be specifically described.

d. A statement that the outline of coverage is a summary of the policy issued or applied for, not a contract of insurance, and that the policy or group master policy should be consulted to determine governing contractual provisions.

e. A description of the terms by which the policy or certificate may be returned and premium refunded.

f. A description of the cost of care and benefits.

8. Certificates. A certificate issued pursuant to a group long-term care insurance policy which is delivered or issued for delivery in this state shall include all of the following:

a. A description of the principal benefits and coverage provided in the policy.

b. A statement of the principal exclusions, reductions, and limitations contained in the policy.

c. A statement that the group master policy determines governing contractual provisions.

9. Compliance required. A policy shall not be advertised, marketed, or offered as long-term care or nursing home insurance unless it complies with this chapter.

515.99 Foreign companies may become domestic.

An insurer which is organized under the laws of any state, and is admitted to do business in this state for the purpose of writing insurance authorized by this chapter may become a domestic insurer by complying with section 490.902 or 491.33 and with all of the requirements of law relative to the organization and licensing of a domestic insurer of the same type and by designating its principal place of business in this state, and, upon payment to the commissioner of insurance of a transfer tax in a sum equal to twenty-five percent of the premium tax paid pursuant to the provisions of chapter 432 for the last calendar year immediately preceding its becoming a domestic corporation or the sum of ten thousand dollars, whichever is the lesser but not less than one thousand dollars, may become a domestic corporation and be entitled to like certificates of its corporate existence and license to transact business in this state, and be subject in all respects to the authority and jurisdiction thereof.

The certificates of authority, agent's appointments and licenses, rates, and other items which are in existence at the time any insurer transfers its corporate domicile to this state, pursuant to this section, shall continue in full force and effect upon such transfer. For purposes of existing authorizations and all other corporate purposes, the insurer is deemed the same entity as it was prior to the transfer of its domicile. All outstanding policies of any transferring insurer shall remain in full force and effect and need not be endorsed as to any new name of the company or its new location unless so ordered by the commissioner of insurance.

515.150 Demolition reserve on fire and casualty claims on property.

1. An insurer shall reserve five thousand dollars or ten percent, whichever amount is greater, of the payment for damages to the property excluding personal property on which it has issued a fire and casualty insurance policy as demolition cost reserve if the following are applicable:

- a. The property is located within the corporate limits of a city.
- b. The damage to the property renders it uninhabitable or unfit for the purpose for which it was intended, without repair.
- c. Proof of loss has been submitted by the policyholder for a sum in excess of seventy-five percent of the face value of the policy covering the building or other insured structure.

2. An insurer which has received a proof of loss in excess of seventy-five percent of the face value of the policy covering a building or other insured structure, shall notify the city council of the city within which the property is located. The notice shall be made by certified mail within five working days after receipt of the proof of loss.

3. The city shall release all interest in the demolition cost reserve within ninety days after receiving notice of the existence of the demolition cost reserve unless the city has instituted legal proceedings for the demolition of said building or other insured structure, and has notified the insurer in writing of the institution of such legal proceedings. Failure of the city to notify the insurer of such legal proceedings shall terminate the city's claim to any proceeds from the reserve.

4. A reserve for demolition costs shall no longer be required if:

a. The insurer has received notice from both the insured and the city council that the insured has commenced repairs to the property or has commenced demolition of the property.

b. The city has failed to notify the insurer as provided under subsection 3.

5. If the city is required to demolish the damaged property at city expense, after instituting legal proceedings, emergency actions, or obtaining waivers for the demolition of the building or other insured structure, the city shall present to the insurer the actual cost of demolition of the property, including engineering, legal, and other demolition project costs, and the insurer shall compensate the city for that actual cost of the demolition project up to the amount in the demolition cost reserve. Any amount left from the demolition cost reserve after the cost of demolition of the property is paid to the city shall be paid to the insured if the insured is entitled to the remaining proceeds under the policy.

6. The insurer is not liable for any amount in excess of the limits of liability set out by the policy.

7. Insurers complying with this section or attempting in good faith to comply with this section shall be immune from civil and criminal liability.

CHAPTER 515B

INSURANCE GUARANTY ASSOCIATION

515B.2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Association" means the Iowa insurance guaranty association created pursuant to section 515B.3.

2. "Commissioner" means the commissioner of insurance of this state.

3. "Covered claim" means an unpaid claim, including one for unearned premiums, which arises out of and is within the coverage and is subject to the applicable limits of an insurance policy to which this chapter applies issued by an insurer, if such insurer becomes an insolvent insurer after July 1, 1970, and one of the following conditions exists:

a. The claimant or insured is a resident of this state at the time of the insured event. Other than an individual, the residence of the claimant or insured is the state in which its principal place of business is located.

b. The claim is one by an insured for damage to property permanently located in this state.

"Covered claim" does not include an amount due any reinsurer, insurer, insurance pool, underwriting association, or other group assuming insurance risks, as subrogation, contribution, or indemnity recoveries or otherwise; a portion of a claim that is within an insured's deductible or self-insured retention; a claim for unearned premium calculated on a retrospective basis, experience-rated plan, or premium subject to adjustment after termination of the policy; an amount due an attorney, adjuster, or witness as fees for services rendered to the insolvent insurer; a fine, penalty, interest, or punitive or exemplary damages; or a claim under a policy issued by an insolvent insurer with a deductible or self-insured retention of two hundred thousand dollars or more. A claim under a liability policy shall be considered to be a covered claim if as of the deadline set for the filing of claims against the insolvent insurer or its liquidator, the insured is a debtor in a liquidation bankruptcy under 11 U.S.C. §701 et seq. This paragraph does not prevent a person from presenting a noncovered claim to the insolvent insurer or its liquidator, but the noncovered claim shall not be asserted against any other person, including the person to whom benefits were paid or the insured of the insolvent insurer, except to the extent that it is outside the coverage of the policy issued by the insolvent insurer.

4. "Insurer" means an insurer licensed to transact insurance business in this state under either chapter 515 or chapter 520, either at the time the policy was issued or when the insured event occurred. It does not include county or state mutual assessment associations licensed under chapter 518 or chapter 518A, or fraternal beneficiary societies, orders, or associations licensed under chapter 512, or corporations operating nonprofit service plans under chapter 514, or life insurance companies or life, accident, or health associations licensed under chapter 508, or those professions under chapter 519.

5. "Insolvent insurer" means an insurer against which a final order of liquidation with a finding of insolvency has been entered on or after July 1, 1980, by a court of competent jurisdiction of this state or of the state of the insurer's domicile.

6. "Net direct written premiums" means direct gross premiums written in this state on insurance policies to which this chapter applies, less return premiums and dividends paid or credited to policyholders on such direct business. Such term does not include premiums on contracts between insurers or reinsurers.

7. "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or voluntary organization.

89 Acts, ch 83, §74 SF 112
Subsection 4 amended

515B.12 Tax exemption.

The association is exempt from payment of all fees and all taxes levied by this state or any of its subdivisions, except taxes levied on property.

CHAPTER 523A

SALES OF FUNERAL SERVICES AND MERCHANDISE

523A.2 Deposit of funds—records—examinations—reports.

1. a. All funds held in trust under section 523A.1 shall be deposited in a state or federally insured bank, savings and loan association, or credit union authorized to conduct business in this state, or trust department thereof, or in a trust company authorized to conduct business in this state, within thirty days after the receipt of the funds and shall be held in a separate account or in one common trust fund under a trust agreement in the name of the depositor in trust for the designated beneficiary until released pursuant to section 523A.1.

b. The seller under an agreement referred to in section 523A.1 shall maintain accurate records of all receipts, expenditures, interest or earnings, and disbursements relating to funds held in trust, and shall make these records available to the commissioner for examination at any reasonable time upon request.

c. The seller under an agreement referred to in section 523A.1 shall file with the commissioner not later than March 1 of each year a report including the following information:

(1) The name and address of the seller and the name and address of the establishment that will provide the funeral services or funeral merchandise.

(2) The name of the purchaser, beneficiary, and the amount of each agreement under section 523A.1 made in the preceding year and the date on which it was made.

(3) The total value of agreements subject to section 523A.1 entered into, the total amount paid pursuant to those agreements, and the total amount deposited in trust as required under section 523A.1, during the preceding year.

(4) The amount of any payments received pursuant to agreements reported in previous years in accordance with subparagraphs (2) and (3) and the amount of those payments deposited in trust for each purchaser.

(5) The change in status of any trust account, including total amount of interest or income withdrawn from each trust account in the preceding year, and for each purchaser, any other amounts withdrawn from trust and the reason for each withdrawal. However, regular increments of interest or income need not be reported on a yearly basis.

(6) The name and address of the financial institution in which trust funds were deposited, and the name and address of each insurance company which funds agreements under section 523A.1.

(7) The name and address of each purchaser of funeral merchandise delivered in lieu of trusting pursuant to section 523A.1, and a description of that merchandise for each purchaser.

(8) The complete inventory of funeral merchandise and its location in the seller's possession that has been delivered in lieu of trusting pursuant to section 523A.1.

(9) Other information reasonably required by the commissioner for purposes of administration of this chapter.

The information required by subparagraphs (7) and (8) shall include a verified statement of a certified public accountant that the certified public accountant has conducted a physical inventory of the funeral merchandise specified in subparagraph (8) and that each item of that merchandise is in the seller's possession at the specified location. The statement shall be on a form prescribed by the commissioner.

The report shall be accompanied by a filing fee determined by the commissioner which shall be sufficient to defray the costs of administering this chapter.

d. A financial institution referred to in paragraph "a" shall file notice with the commissioner of all funds deposited under the trust agreement. The notice shall be on forms prescribed by the commissioner and shall be filed not later than March 1 of each year. Each notice shall contain the required information for all deposits made during the previous calendar year. Forms may be obtained from the commissioner.

e. Notwithstanding chapter 22, all records maintained by the commissioner under this subsection shall be confidential and shall not be made available for inspection or copying except upon approval of the commissioner or the attorney general.

f. The state or federally insured bank, savings and loan association, or credit union in which trust funds are held shall not be owned or under the control of the seller and shall not use any funds required to be held in trust pursuant to this chapter or chapter 566A to purchase an interest in any contract or agreement to which the seller is a party, or otherwise to invest, directly or indirectly, in the seller's business operations.

g. The bank, savings and loan, credit union, or trust department thereof, in which trust funds are held shall serve as trustee to the extent that organization has been granted those powers under the laws of this state or the United States and may invest, reinvest, exchange, retain, sell, and otherwise manage the trust fund. The trustee may combine trust accounts established pursuant to this chapter as long as a separate accounting of each purchaser's principal, interest, and income is maintained. The seller may appoint an independent investment advisor to act in an advisory capacity with the trustee relative to the investment of the trust funds. The trust shall pay the cost of the operation of the trust and any annual audit fees.

2. In addition to complying with subsection 1, each seller under an agreement referred to in section 523A.1 shall file annually with the commissioner an authorization for the commissioner or a designee to investigate, audit, and verify all funds, accounts, safe-deposit boxes, and other evidence of trust funds held by or in a financial institution.

3. The commissioner shall adopt rules under chapter 17A specifying the form, content, and cost of the forms for the notices and disclosures required by this section, and shall sell blank forms at that cost to any person on request.

4. If a seller under an agreement referred to in section 523A.1 ceases to do business, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, all funds held in trust under section 523A.1, including accrued interest or earnings, shall be repaid to the purchaser under the agreement.

5. The commissioner may require the performance of an audit of the seller's business by a certified public accountant if the commissioner receives reasonable evidence that the seller is not complying with this chapter. The audit shall be paid for by the seller, and a copy of the report of audit shall be delivered to the commissioner and to the seller.

6. A seller or financial institution that knowingly fails to comply with any requirement of this section or that knowingly submits false information in a document or notice required by this section commits a serious misdemeanor.

7. This chapter does not prohibit the funding of an agreement otherwise subject to section 523A.1 by insurance proceeds derived from a policy issued by an insurance company authorized to conduct business in this state. The seller of an agreement subject to this chapter which is to be funded by insurance proceeds shall obtain all permits required to be obtained under this chapter and comply with the reporting requirements of this section.

CHAPTER 523D

RETIREMENT FACILITIES

523D.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

1. "Continuing care" means the furnishing to residents, the majority of whom are sixty years of age or older, other than a resident related by consanguinity or affinity to the person furnishing the care, of senior adult congregate living services together with nursing services regardless of whether or not the services are provided at one location and pursuant to one or more agreements effective for the life of the resident or for a period of time greater than one year.

2. "Continuing care retirement community" means a senior adult congregate living facility which furnishes senior adult congregate living services together with nursing services to residents, regardless of whether or not the services are provided at one location, and pursuant to one or more agreements effective for the life of the resident or for a period of time greater than one year.

3. "Entrance fee" means an initial or deferred transfer, which exceeds the lesser amount of five thousand dollars or six times the living unit's monthly fee, to a provider of a sum of money or other property made or promised to be made as full or partial consideration for acceptance of a specified individual as a resident in a facility.

4. “Facility” means a senior adult congregate living facility or a continuing care retirement community.

5. “Living unit” means a room, apartment, cottage, or other area within a facility set aside for the exclusive use or control of one or more identified residents.

6. “Provider” means a person undertaking to provide care in a senior adult congregate living facility or continuing care facility.

7. “Resident” means an individual, sixty years of age or older, entitled to receive care in a senior adult congregate living facility or continuing care facility.

8. “Senior adult congregate living facility” means any building or buildings, section of a building, or distinct part of a building, residence, private home, boarding home, home for the aged, or other place, other than facilities licensed and operated under chapter 135C, or community supervised living arrangements approved by the department of human services under section 225C.21, whether operated by a for-profit or a not-for-profit organization which undertakes through its ownership or management to provide housing and one or more supportive services for a time period exceeding twenty-four consecutive hours, to ten or more residents, the majority of whom are sixty years of age or older. A person who is furnishing the continuing care and who is related by consanguinity or affinity to the resident living in the facility shall not be included in the capacity calculation.

9. “Senior adult congregate living services” means the services provided to residents in a facility.

10. “Supportive services” includes, but is not limited to, services such as laundry; maintenance; emergency nursing care; activity services; security; dining options; transportation; beauty and barber; personal, including eating, bathing, dressing, and supervised medication administration; and health.

523D.2 Filing with division of insurance.

A person shall not, as a provider, enter into a contract to provide continuing care or senior adult congregate living services in a facility, or extend the term of an existing contract to provide continuing care or senior adult congregate living services in a facility, if the contract requires or permits the payment of an entrance fee to any person, and the facility is or will be located in this state, or the provider or a person acting on the provider's behalf solicits the contract within this state for a facility located in this state and the person to be provided with continuing care or senior adult congregate living services under the contract resides within this state at the time of the solicitation, unless the person has filed with the division of insurance of the department of commerce, a current disclosure statement which meets the requirements of section 523D.3. The disclosure statement shall be accompanied by a one hundred dollar filing fee as a condition of filing and compliance with this section.

89 Acts, ch 217, §2 SF 278

523D.3 Disclosure statement.

1. At the time of or prior to the execution of a contract to provide continuing care or senior adult congregate living services, or at the time of or prior to the transfer of any money or other property to a provider by or on behalf of a prospective resident, whichever occurs first, the provider shall deliver a disclosure statement to the person, and to the person's personal representative if one is appointed, with whom the contract is to be entered into, which shall contain all of the following information unless such information is in the contract, a copy of which must be attached to the statement:

a. The name and business address of the provider and a statement of whether the provider is a partnership, corporation, or other type of legal entity.

b. The names and business addresses of the officers, directors, trustees, managing or general partners, and any person having a ten percent or greater equity or beneficial interest in or of the provider and a description of such person's interest in or occupation with the provider.

c. With respect to each person covered by paragraph "b", and if the facility will be managed on a day-to-day basis by a person other than a person directly employed by the provider, a person named in response to paragraph "b", or the proposed manager:

(1) A description of the business experience of the person, if any, in the operation or management of similar facilities.

(2) The name and address of any professional service, firm, association, trust, partnership, or corporation in which the person has, or which has in the person, a ten percent or greater interest and which will or may provide goods, leases, or services to the facility of a value of five hundred dollars or more, within a year, including a description of the goods, leases, or services and their probable or anticipated cost to the facility or provider.

(3) A description of any matter in which the person has been convicted of a felony or pleaded nolo contendere to a felony charge or been held liable or enjoined in a civil action by final judgment if the felony or civil action involved fraud, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, or misappropriation of property or similar felonies involving theft or dishonesty.

(4) A description of any matter in which the person is subject to a currently effective injunctive or restrictive order of a court of record, or within the past five years had any state or federal license or permit suspended or revoked as a result of an action brought by a governmental agency or the division of insurance, arising out of or relating to business activity or health care, including, without limitation, actions affecting a license to operate a foster care facility, health care facility, retirement home, home for the aged, or facility licensed under this chapter or a similar law of another state.

d. A statement as to:

(1) Whether the provider is or ever has been affiliated with a for-profit organization or with a religious, charitable, or other nonprofit organization.

(2) The nature of the affiliation, if any.

(3) The extent to which the affiliate organization will be responsible for the financial and contractual obligations of the provider.

(4) The provision of the federal Internal Revenue Code, if any, under which the provider or affiliate is exempt from the payment of federal income tax.

e. The location and description of the physical property or properties of the facility, existing or proposed, and, to the extent proposed, the estimated completion date or dates, whether or not construction has begun, and the contingencies subject to which construction may be deferred.

f. The services provided or proposed to be provided under contracts for continuing care at the facility, including the extent to which medical care is furnished. The disclosure statement shall clearly state which services are included in basic contracts for continuing care and which services are made available at or by the facility at extra charge.

g. A description of all fees required of residents, including the entrance fee and periodic charges, if any. The description shall include the manner by which the provider may adjust periodic charges or other recurring fees and the limitations on such adjustments, if any.

h. The provisions which have been made or will be made, if any, to provide reserve funding or security to enable the provider to fully perform its obligations under contracts to provide continuing care or senior adult congregate living services at the facility, including the establishment of escrow accounts, trusts, or

i. Certified financial statements of the provider, for all parts of an operation covered by the contract, including the health center or nursing home portion of the continuing care retirement community, if those services are included in the contract, but the disclosure statement may exclude services or operations not provided to residents as senior adult congregate living services under their contract, including:

- (1) A balance sheet as of the end of the two most recent fiscal years.
- (2) Income statements of the provider for the two most recent fiscal years or the shorter period of time in which the provider has been in existence.

j. If operation of the facility has not yet commenced, a statement of the anticipated source and application of the funds used or to be used in the purchase or construction of the facility, including:

- (1) An estimate of the cost of purchasing or constructing and equipping the facility, including related costs such as financing expense, legal expense, land costs, occupancy development costs, and all other similar costs which the provider expects to incur or become obligated for prior to the commencement of operations.
- (2) A description of any mortgage loan or other long-term financing intended to be used for the financing of the facility, including the anticipated terms and costs of the financing.

(3) An estimate of the total entrance fees to be received from or on behalf of residents at or prior to commencement of operation of the facility.

(4) An estimate of the funds, if any, which are anticipated to be necessary to fund start-up losses and provide reserve funds to assure full performance of the obligations of the provider under contracts for the provision of continuing care or senior adult congregate living services.

(5) A projection of estimated income from fees and charges other than entrance fees, showing individual rates presently anticipated to be charged and including a description of the assumptions used for calculating the estimated occupancy rate of the facility and the effect on the income of the facility of government subsidies for health care services, if any, to be provided pursuant to the contracts for continuing care or senior adult congregate living services.

(6) A projection of estimated operating expenses of the facility, including a description of the assumptions used in calculating the expenses and separate allowances, if any, for the replacement of equipment and furnishings and anticipated major structural repairs or additions.

(7) Identification of any assets pledged as collateral for any purpose.

(8) An estimate of annual payments of principal and interest required by any mortgage loan or other long-term financing.

k. Other material information, which may include an independent analysis of the actuarial soundness of the financial plan, concerning the facility or the provider as required by the division of insurance or as the provider wishes to include.

l. The cover page of the disclosure statement shall state, in a prominent location and type face, the date of the disclosure statement.

m. A copy of the standard form or forms of contract for continuing care or senior adult congregate living services used by the provider, attached as an exhibit to each disclosure statement.

2. The provider shall file with the division of insurance, annually within five months following the end of the provider's fiscal year, an annual disclosure statement which shall contain the information required by this chapter for the initial disclosure statement. The annual disclosure statement shall also be accompanied by a narrative describing:

a. Any material differences between the pro forma income statement filed pursuant to this chapter either as part of the most recent annual disclosure statement and the actual results of operations during the fiscal year, if the material differences substantially affect the financial safety or soundness of the community.

b. Any material differences between the pro forma balance sheet and the actual results of operations during the fiscal year.

The annual disclosure statement shall also contain a revised pro forma income statement for the next fiscal year.

3. From the date an annual disclosure statement is filed until the date the next succeeding annual disclosure statement is filed with the division of insurance and prior to the provider's acceptance of part or all of any application fee or part of the entrance fee or the execution of the continuing care or senior adult congregate living services contract by the resident, whichever occurs first, the provider shall deliver the current annual disclosure statement to the current or prospective residents with whom the continuing care or senior adult congregate living services contract is or may be entered into and to a resident's or prospective resident's personal representative if one is appointed.

4. In addition to filing the annual disclosure statement, the provider may amend its currently filed disclosure statement at any other time if, in the opinion of the provider, an amendment is necessary to prevent the disclosure statement and annual disclosure statement from containing any material misstatement of fact or omission to state a material fact required to be included in the statement. The amendment or amended disclosure statement shall be filed with the division of insurance before the statement is delivered to a resident or prospective resident and a personal representative of a resident or prospective resident and is subject to all the requirements, including those as to content and delivery, of this chapter.

523D.4 False information.

1. A provider shall not make, publish, disseminate, circulate, or place before the public, or cause, directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, or placed before the public, in a newspaper or other publication, or in the form of a notice, circular, pamphlet, letter, or poster, or over any radio or television station, or in any other way, an advertisement, announcement, or statement of any sort containing any assertion, representation, or statement which is untrue, deceptive, or misleading.

2. A provider shall not file with the division of insurance or make, publish, disseminate, circulate, or deliver to any person or place before the public, or cause, directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, or delivered to any person or placed before the public, a financial statement which does not meet generally accepted accounting principles.

523D.5 Entrance fee escrow for new construction.

The provider shall establish an interest-bearing escrow account with a state or federally regulated financial institution for a living unit which has not previously been occupied by a resident for which an entry fee arrangement is used. The escrow account agreement shall be entered into between the financial institution and the provider with the financial institution as the escrow agent and as a fiduciary for the resident or the prospective resident, the agreement shall state that its purpose is to protect the resident or the prospective resident, and the funds deposited in the account shall be kept and maintained in an account separate and apart from the provider's business accounts. These funds may be released only as follows:

1. If the entrance fee applies to a living unit which has not previously been occupied by a resident, the entrance fee shall be released to the provider only when the escrow agent reasonably determines that the following conditions have been satisfied:

a. The facility has a minimum of fifty percent of the units reserved for which the provider is charging an entrance fee.

b. The aggregate amount of the entrance fees received by or pledged to the provider, plus anticipated proceeds from any long-term financing commitment, plus funds from all other sources in the actual possession of the provider, equal not less than ninety percent of the aggregate cost of constructing or purchasing, equipping, and furnishing the facility.

2. Upon receipt by the escrow agent of a request by the provider for the release of these escrow funds, the escrow agent shall approve release of the funds within five working days unless the escrow agent finds that the requirements of subsection 1 have not been met and notifies the provider of the basis for this finding. The request for release of the escrow funds shall be accompanied by any documentation the fiduciary requires.

3. If the provider fails to meet the requirements for release of funds held in this escrow account within a time period the escrow agent considers reasonable, these funds shall be returned by the escrow agent to the persons who have made payment to the provider. The escrow agent shall notify the provider of the length of this time period when the provider requests release of the funds.

4. An entrance fee held in escrow shall be returned by the escrow agent to the person who made payment to the provider at any time upon receipt by the escrow agent of notice from the provider that this person is entitled to a refund of the entrance fee.

523D.6 Personal representative—cancellation.

1. A prospective resident or resident shall be provided a form to appoint a personal representative to receive copies of all notices, disclosures, or forms required by this chapter to be delivered to a prospective resident or resident. A personal representative appointed under this section shall not have legal authority to make any decision for the prospective resident or resident appointing the person to be a personal representative. The personal representative may advise the prospective resident or resident as to the materials provided. A personal representative shall not be affiliated or associated with a provider or any person identified in section 523D.3, subsection 1, paragraph "b" or "c" and shall not be a prospective resident or resident.

2. A person may cancel a contract for a period equal to the later ending period of the following:

a. Forty-five calendar days after the disclosure statement required by section 523D.3 was delivered to the person and to the person's personal representative if one is appointed.

b. Within three business days after the execution of a contract to provide continuing care or senior adult congregate living services, or at the time of the transfer of any money or other property to a provider by or on behalf of a prospective resident, whichever occurs first.

3. A provider shall furnish to each prospective resident and the prospective resident's personal representative, if one is appointed, at the time section 523D.3 requires delivery of a disclosure statement, a completed form in duplicate, captioned "Notice of Cancellation", which shall be attached to the disclosure statement and easily detachable, and which shall contain in ten point boldface type the following information and statements in the same language as that used in the contract:

NOTICE OF CANCELLATION

a. Date contract was executed or money or property transferred to the provider, whichever occurs first, if known: .....

b. Date disclosure statement was delivered: .....

You may cancel this contract, without any penalty or obligation, within three business days from date in paragraph "a" above, or within forty-five calendar days of date in paragraph "b" above, whichever period ends upon a later date.

If you cancel this contract, any money or property transferred to the provider, any payments made by you will be returned within thirty calendar days following receipt by the provider of your cancellation notice, and any security interest arising out of the transaction will be canceled, except that the provider may retain the reasonable value of care and services actually provided to the resident prior to the resident vacating the provider's facility.

If you cancel this contract, and have already moved into the provider's facility, you must vacate the provider's facility within ten days after receipt by the provider of your cancellation notice.

To cancel this contract, mail by certified mail or hand deliver, a signed and dated copy of this cancellation notice or any other written notice clearly indicating your intent to cancel the contract, or send a telegram, to ..... (name of provider) at ..... (address of provider's place of business).

I hereby cancel this contract.

(Date)

.....
(prospective resident's or resident's signature)

4. A purchaser's cancellation is effective upon mailing by certified mail, when transmitted by telegraph, or when actual notice is given to the provider, whichever is earlier.

523D.7 Civil liability.

1. A provider is liable to the person contracting for continuing care or senior adult congregate living services for damages and repayment of all fees paid to the provider, facility, or person violating this chapter, less the reasonable value of care and lodging provided to the resident by or on whose behalf the contract for continuing care or senior adult congregate living services was entered into prior to discovery of the violation, misstatement, or omission, or the time the violation, misstatement, or omission should reasonably have been discovered, together with interest at the legal rate for judgments and court costs and reasonable attorney fees, if the provider does any of the following:

a. Enters into a contract to provide continuing care or senior adult congregate living services at a facility without having first delivered a disclosure statement meeting the requirements of this chapter to the person contracting for continuing care or senior adult congregate living services and to the person's personal representative if one is appointed by the person.

b. Enters into a contract to provide continuing care or senior adult congregate living services at a facility with a person who has relied on a disclosure statement which contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading.

2. Liability under this section exists regardless of whether or not the provider or person liable had actual knowledge of the misstatement or omission.

3. A person shall not file or maintain an action under this section if the person, before filing the action, received an offer to refund, payable upon acceptance, all amounts paid the provider, facility, or person violating this chapter, together with interest from the date of payment, less the reasonable value of care and lodging provided prior to receipt of the offer, and the person failed to accept the offer within thirty days of its receipt. At the time a provider makes a written offer of refund, the provider shall file a copy with the division of insurance. The refund offer shall refer to the provisions of this section.

4. An action shall not be maintained to enforce a liability created under this chapter unless brought before the expiration of six years after the execution of the contract for continuing care or senior adult congregate living services which gave rise to the violation.

5. Except as expressly provided in this chapter, civil liability in favor of a private party shall not arise against a person, by implication, from or as a result of the violation of this chapter. This chapter does not limit a liability which may exist by virtue of any other statute or under common law if this chapter were not in effect.

523D.8 Criminal penalties.

1. A person who willfully and knowingly violates a provision of this chapter or a rule adopted or order entered pursuant to this chapter, upon conviction, is guilty of an aggravated misdemeanor.

2. This chapter does not limit the power of the state to punish any person for any conduct which constitutes a crime under any other statute.

26. "Agricultural credit corporation" means as defined in section 535.12, subsection 4.

27. "Bankers' bank" means a bank which is organized under the laws of any state or under federal law, and whose shares are owned exclusively by other banks or by a bank holding company whose shares are owned exclusively by other banks, except for directors' qualifying shares when required by law, and which engages exclusively in providing services for depository institutions and officers, directors and employees of those depository institutions.

28. "Trust company" means a business organization which is authorized to engage in trust business pursuant to section 524.1005. A bank lawfully granted trust powers under the laws of this state or of the United States is not a trust company by reason of having authority to engage in trust business in addition to its general business.

NEW subsection 28

524.107 Persons authorized to engage in banking business—educational bank.

1. No person may lawfully engage in this state in the business of receiving money for deposit, transact the business of banking, or may lawfully establish in this state a place of business for such purpose, except a state bank which is subject to the provisions of this chapter, a private bank to the extent provided for and limited by sections 524.1701 and 524.1702, and a national bank authorized by the laws of the United States to engage in the business of receiving money for deposit.

2. A person doing business in this state shall not use the words "bank" or "trust" or use any derivative, plural, or compound of the words "bank", "banking", "bankers", or "trust" in any manner which would tend to create the impression that the person is authorized to engage in the business of banking or to act in a fiduciary capacity, except a state bank authorized to do so by this chapter, a national bank to the extent permitted by the laws of the United States, a state association pursuant to section 534.507, or a federal association to the extent permitted by the laws of the United States, or, insofar as the word "trust" is concerned, an individual permissibly serving as a fiduciary in this state, pursuant to section 633.63, or, insofar as the words "trust" and "bank" are concerned, a nonresident corporate fiduciary permissibly serving as a fiduciary in this state pursuant to section 633.64.

3. Notwithstanding subsections 1 and 2, an organization formed for educational purposes in association with an accredited school which engages in the receipt of deposits of no more than twenty dollars per depositor, may use the words "educational bank", the use of which is otherwise restricted in subsection 2, and such an educational bank is not a bank within the meaning or scope of regulation of this chapter.

524.217 Examinations.

dent's judgment such examination is necessary or advisable, but in no event less frequently than once during each eighteen-month period. During the course of each examination of a state bank or trust company, inquiry shall be made as to its financial condition, the security afforded to those to whom it is obligated, the policies of its management, whether the requirements of law have been complied with in the administration of its affairs, and such other matters as the superintendent may prescribe. The superintendent shall also have power to make or cause to be made such limited examinations at such times and with such frequency as the superintendent may deem necessary and advisable to determine the condition of any state bank or trust company and whether any person has violated any of the provisions of this chapter.

2. The superintendent shall have power to make or cause to be made an examination of any corporation in which the state bank or trust company owns shares except corporations described in paragraphs "a" and "b" of subsection 3 of section 524.901. The superintendent shall also have power, upon application to and order of the district court of Polk county, to make or cause to be made an examination of any person having business transactions or a relationship with any state bank or trust company when such an examination is deemed necessary and advisable in order to determine whether the capital of the state bank or trust company is impaired or whether the safety of its deposits has been imperiled. The fee for any such examination shall be paid by the state bank or trust company.

3. To the extent necessary for the purpose of any examination provided for by this section and section 524.1105, the superintendent shall have the power to examine all relevant books, records, accounts and documents and to compel the production of the same in the manner prescribed by section 524.214.

4. The superintendent may furnish to the federal deposit insurance corporation and the federal reserve system, the office of the comptroller of the currency, federal home loan bank board, national credit union administration, and financial institution regulatory authorities of other states, or to any official or supervising examiner thereof, a copy of the report of any or all examinations made of any state bank and of any affiliate of a state bank.

5. A copy of the report of each examination of a state bank or trust company shall be transmitted by the superintendent to the board of directors of the state bank or trust company except to the extent that the report of any such examination may be confidential to the superintendent, and each member of the board of directors shall furnish to the superintendent, on forms to be supplied by the superintendent, a statement that the member has read the report of examination.

6. All reports of examinations, including any copies thereof, in the possession of any person other than the superintendent or employee of the banking division, including any state bank or any agency to which any report of such examination may be furnished under subsection 4 of this section, shall be confidential communications, shall not be subject to subpoena from such persons and shall not be published or made public by such persons.

7. The report of examination of any affiliate or of any person examined as provided for in subsection 2 shall not be transmitted by the superintendent to any such affiliate or person or to any state bank or trust company or to the board of directors of any state bank or trust company unless authorized or requested by such affiliate or person.

Subsections 1, 2, 4, 5 and 7 amended

524.225 Procedures—judicial review.

Judicial review of the actions of the superintendent may be sought in accordance with chapter 17A. However, contested case provisions of chapter 17A, the Iowa administrative procedure Act, do not apply to an action by the superintendent to take over the management of or to manage a state bank, as authorized by sections 524.224 and 524.226.

524.302 Articles of incorporation.

The articles of incorporation of a state bank, in the form prescribed by the superintendent, shall set forth the following:

1. The name of the state bank, that it is incorporated for the purpose of conducting the business of banking, and that it is incorporated under the provisions of this chapter.
  2. The location of its proposed or existing principal place of business including the name of the county, municipal corporation or unincorporated area.
  3. The duration of the state bank which shall be perpetual.
  4. The aggregate number of shares which the state bank shall have authority to issue, and the par value of such shares; if such shares are to be divided into classes, the number of shares of each class and a statement of the par value of the shares of each class.
  5. If there is to be a preferred class, a statement of the preferences, voting rights, if any, limitations and relative rights in respect of the shares of such class.
  6. Any provision, permissible under section 524.506, limiting or denying the shareholders the pre-emptive right to acquire additional shares of the state bank.
  7. Any provision, not inconsistent with law, which the incorporators elect to set forth in the articles of incorporation for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation, including any provision restricting the transfer of shares and any provision which under this chapter is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws.
  8. The number of directors constituting the initial board of directors and the names and addresses of the individuals who are to serve as directors until the first annual meeting of shareholders or until their successors be elected and qualify.
  9. The name and address of each incorporator.
  10. At the election of the incorporators or shareholders, a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that the provision does not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders, for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit, or under section 524.605, subsection 1 and 2. A provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for any act or omission occurring prior to the date when the provision in the articles of incorporation becomes effective.
  11. The specific month in which the annual meeting of shareholders shall be held.
  12. Any provision not inconsistent with law or the purposes for which the state bank is organized, which the incorporators elect to set forth; or any provision limiting any of the powers enumerated in this chapter.
- It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers enumerated in this chapter. The articles of incorporation shall be signed by all of the incorporators and acknowledged before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds.

524.814 Pledge of assets.

Pursuant to a resolution of its board of directors, a state bank may pledge its assets for the following purposes, and for no other purposes:

1. To secure deposits when a customer is required to obtain such security by the laws of the United States, by any agency or instrumentality of the United States, by the laws of the state of Iowa, by the state board of regents, by a resolution or ordinance relating to the issuance of bonds, by the terms of any interstate compact or by order of any court of competent jurisdiction.

2. To secure money borrowed by the state bank, provided that capital notes or debentures issued pursuant to section 524.404 shall not in any event be secured by a pledge of assets or otherwise.

3. To secure participations sold to the federal agricultural mortgage corporation.

89 Acts, ch 257, §9 HF 234
NEW subsection 3

524.901 Investments.

1. A state bank may invest without limitation for its own account in the following bonds or securities:

a. Obligations of the United States and bonds and securities with respect to which the payment of principal and interest is fully and unconditionally guaranteed by the United States.

b. Obligations issued by any or all of the farm credit banks, any or all of the banks for co-operatives, and any or all of the federal home loan banks, organized under the laws of the United States.

c. Obligations issued by the federal national mortgage association, under the laws of the United States.

d. Any other bonds or securities which are the obligations of or the payment of principal and interest of which is fully and unconditionally guaranteed by a federal reserve bank or by any department, bureau, board, commission, agency or establishment of the United States, or any corporation owned directly or indirectly by the United States.

e. General obligations of the state of Iowa and of political subdivisions thereof.

2. A state bank may invest for its own account in other readily marketable bonds or securities, with investment characteristics as defined by the superintendent by general regulation applicable to all state banks, subject to the following limitations:

a. The total amount of the bonds or securities of any one issuer or obligor, other than revenue or improvement bonds issued by a municipality, the Iowa finance authority, or the agricultural development authority and subjected to separate investment limits under paragraph "b", "c", "d", "f", or "g" of this subsection, shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

b. The total amount of special assessment improvement or refunding bonds which have been issued by a municipality under authority of section 384.68 and which are repayable from the proceeds of any one levy shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

c. The total amount of revenue bonds and pledge orders which have been issued by a municipality under authority of chapter 384, division V, and which are repayable from the revenues of any one city utility, combined utility system, city enterprise or combined city enterprise shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

d. The total amount of revenue bonds issued by a municipality pursuant to section 419.2 which have been issued on behalf of any one lessee, as defined in section 419.1, or which are guaranteed by any one guarantor, or which are issued on behalf of or guaranteed by a corporation, a ten percent or greater ownership interest in which is held by or in common with a lessee or guarantor, or any combination of the foregoing whereby the municipality could receive revenues for payment of such bonds from any one person or any group of persons under common control, shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

e. No bond or security shall be eligible for investment by a state bank within this subsection if the bond or security has been in default either as to principal or interest at any time within five years prior to the date of purchase.

f. The total amount of bonds or notes issued by the agricultural development authority pursuant to chapter 175 which have been issued on behalf of any one beginning farmer, as defined in section 175.2, subsection 6, and the proceeds of which have been loaned to that beginning farmer shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

g. The total amount of bonds or notes issued by the Iowa finance authority pursuant to chapter 220 which have been issued on behalf of any one small business as defined in section 220.1, subsection 28, or any one group home referred to in section 220.1, subsection 11, paragraph "a," and the proceeds of which have been loaned to that small business or group home shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the bank.

h. The total amount of bonds or notes issued by the agricultural development authority pursuant to chapter 175 which have been issued on behalf of any one owner or operator of agricultural land within the state, as provided for in section 175.34, and the proceeds of which have been loaned to that owner or operator, shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank for each borrower.

3. A state bank shall not, directly or indirectly, invest for its own account in the shares of any corporation except:

a. Shares in a federal reserve bank.

b. Shares in the federal national mortgage association.

c. When approved by the superintendent, shares and obligations of a corporation engaged solely in making loans for agricultural purposes eligible to discount or sell loans to a farm credit bank, commonly known as an agricultural credit corporation, in amounts not to exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

d. Shares in a corporation which the state bank is authorized to acquire and hold pursuant to section 524.803, subsection 1, paragraphs "c", "d", "e", and "f" and section 524.825.

e. Shares in an economic development corporation organized under chapter 496B to the extent authorized by and subject to the limitations of such chapter.

f. When approved by the superintendent, shares of a small business investment company as defined by the laws of the United States, except that in no event shall any such state bank hold shares in small business investment companies in an amount aggregating more than two percent of its capital and surplus.

g. Shares or equity interests in venture capital funds which agree to invest an amount equal to at least fifty percent of the state bank's investment in small businesses having their principal offices within this state and having either more than one half of their assets within this state or more than one half of their employees employed within this state. A state bank shall not invest more than a total of five percent of its capital and surplus in investments permitted under this paragraph and paragraph "h". For purposes of this paragraph, "venture capital fund" means a corporation, partnership, proprietorship, or other entity formed under the laws of the United States, or a state, district, or territory of the United States, whose principal business is or will be the making of investments in, and the provision of significant managerial assistance to, small businesses which meet the small business administration definition of small business. "Equity interests" means limited partnership interests and other equity interests in which liability is limited to the amount of the investment, but does not mean general partnership interests or other interests involving general liability.

h. Shares or equity interests in small businesses having their principal offices within this state and having either more than one half of their assets within this state or more than one half of their employees employed within this state. The total amount of a state bank's investments under this paragraph and paragraph "g" shall not exceed five percent of the state bank's capital and surplus. The investment of a state bank in a small business under this paragraph shall be included with the obligations of the small business to the state bank that are incurred as a result of the exercise by the state bank of the powers conferred in section 524.902 for the purpose of determining the total obligations of the small business to the state bank at any one time under section 524.904. A state bank shall not invest in more than twenty percent of the total capital and surplus of any one small business under this paragraph. For purposes of this paragraph, "small business" means a corporation, partnership, proprietorship, or other entity formed under the laws of the United States, or a state, district, or territory of the United States, which meets the appropriate small business administration definition of small business and which is principally engaged in the development or exploitation of inventions, technological improvements, new processes, or other products not previously generally available in this state or other investments which provide an economic benefit to the state; and "equity interests" means limited partnership interests and other equity interests in which liability is limited to the amount of the investment, but does not mean general partnership interests or other interests involving general liability.

i. Shares or units of investment companies or investment trusts registered under the federal Investment Company Act of 1940, 15 U.S.C. §80a, the portfolio of which is limited to the United States obligations or Iowa general obligations described in subsection 1 or repurchase agreements fully collateralized by obligations described in subsection 1 if delivery of the collateral is taken either directly or through an authorized custodian, up to a maximum of twenty percent of capital and surplus of the state bank in any one company or trust.

j. Shares of investment companies whose portfolios contain investments which are subject to limitations pursuant to this section, provided that a state bank's investment in such shares does not exceed the limitation set forth in this section for the underlying instrument.

k. Shares in the federal agricultural mortgage corporation.

l. When approved by the superintendent, shares of a corporation certified by the federal agricultural mortgage corporation which is engaged solely in pooling agricultural loans for federal agricultural mortgage corporation guarantees, not to exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

4. A state bank may invest in participation certificates issued by one or more production credit associations chartered under the laws of the United States in an amount which does not exceed, in the aggregate with respect to all such associations, twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

5. A state bank may invest for its own account in the shares of a bankers' bank or in the shares of a bank holding company which owns a bankers' bank. A state bank shall not invest in more than one bankers' bank or in more than one bank holding company which owns a bankers' bank. A state bank shall not invest an amount greater than ten percent of its capital and surplus in the shares of a bankers' bank or in the shares of a bank holding company which owns a bankers' bank. A state bank shall not invest any amount if after the investment the state bank would own or control more than five percent of any class of the voting shares of a bankers' bank or a bank holding company which owns a bankers' bank.

6. A state bank may, in the exercise of the powers granted in this chapter, purchase cash value life insurance contracts which may include provisions for the lump sum payment of premiums and which may include insurance against the loss of the lump sum payment. The cash value life insurance contracts purchased from any one company shall not exceed twenty percent of capital and surplus of the state bank.

7. a. A state bank may invest in real estate as set forth in paragraph "b", subject to the following limitations:

(1) The investment shall be approved by the superintendent.
 (2) The investment shall be for economic or community development purposes only.

(3) The total aggregate amount invested shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

(4) The real estate purchased shall not be agricultural-zoned land.

b. The state bank may acquire real estate as follows:

(1) At a sheriff's sale or any other sale of real estate against which the state bank has a legal or equitable lien or claim.

(2) In satisfaction of any obligation to the state bank.

(3) Upon contracts for sale or improvement and sale, at the cost of the land and improvements, if the contracts are executed concurrently or prior to the purchase. However, the transaction is subject to the limitations on real estate loans.

(4) In exchange for real estate owned by the state bank.

(5) In connection with salvaging the value of property owned by the state bank.

(6) For the purpose of producing income through the improvement or erection of a building and the sale or rental of the property.

8. If approved by the superintendent, a state bank may invest in a community development corporation. A state bank shall have the same authority to invest in a community development corporation as does a federal bank pursuant to Title XII of the United States Code.

9. A state bank may invest without limitation for its own account in futures, forward, and standby contracts to purchase and sell any of the instruments eligible for state banks' purchase and sale, subject to the prior approval of the superintendent and pursuant to applicable federal laws and regulations governing such contracts. Purchase and sale of such contracts shall be conducted in accordance with safe and sound banking practices and with levels of the activity being reasonably related to the state bank's business needs and capacity to fulfill its obligations under the contracts.

524.904 Obligations of one customer.

1. For the purpose of this section:

a. The term "obligations" means the amounts for the payment of which a customer is obligated, whether directly or indirectly, primarily or secondarily, to a state bank as a result of the exercise by the state bank of the powers conferred by section 524.902.

b. Obligations of a customer include obligations of others to a state bank arising out of loans made by such state bank for the benefit of such customer.

c. Obligations of a customer who is a partner include the obligations of a partnership or other unincorporated association for which obligations the customer is liable.

d. Obligations of a customer which is a partnership or other unincorporated association include the obligations of its partners who are liable for its obligations.

e. Obligations of a customer include the obligations of any and all corporations in which such customer owns or controls more than fifty percent of the shares entitled to vote.

f. Obligations of a customer which is a corporation include obligations of a person, who is also a customer, and who owns or controls more than fifty percent of the shares entitled to vote of such corporation.

g. Obligations of a customer which is a corporation include the obligations of any other corporation when a person owns or controls more than fifty percent of the shares entitled to vote, of such corporations.

h. If the superintendent shall determine at any time that the interests of a group of more than one customer, or any combination thereof, are so interrelated that they should be considered as a unit for the purpose of applying the limitations of this section, the total obligations of that group of customers existing at any time shall be combined and deemed obligations of one customer. A state bank shall not be deemed to have violated this section solely by reason of the fact that the obligations of a group exceed the limitations of this section at the time of a determination by the superintendent that the indebtedness of that group must be combined, but the state bank shall, if required by the superintendent, dispose of the obligations of the group in the amount in excess of the limitations of this section within such reasonable time as shall be fixed by the superintendent.

2. The total obligations of any one customer to a state bank at any one time, secured and unsecured, shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank except that:

a. The total obligations of any one customer to a state bank at any one time, shall not exceed forty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank if at least all of the amount by which such obligations exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank shall consist of any of the following or any combination of the following:

(1) Obligations in the form of notes or drafts, secured by nonnegotiable bills of lading, warehouse receipts or other documents transferring or securing title covering readily marketable nonperishable staples when such goods are covered by insurance to the extent that insuring such goods is customary, and when the market value of such goods is not at any time less than one hundred twenty percent of the face amount of such obligations.

(2) Obligations in the form of notes or drafts secured by nonnegotiable bills of lading, warehouse receipts or other documents transferring or securing title covering readily marketable refrigerated or frozen staples when such goods are fully covered by insurance and when the market value of such goods is not at any time less than one hundred twenty percent of the face amount of such obligations.

(3) Obligations in the form of notes or drafts secured by bills of lading, bills of sale or security agreements covering feeder livestock or female animals purchased and held for resale, or raised and held for sale prior to giving birth to their first offspring or after giving birth to but prior to weaning of their first offspring. Such livestock loans, including renewals or extensions thereof, made under the foregoing provisions shall not be made for a period in excess of eighteen months. In the case of purchase price livestock, the proceeds of such obligations shall have been given as purchase money for all or part of the purchase price of such livestock, but not to exceed the purchase price thereof. In the case of nonpurchase livestock, the proceeds of such obligations shall not be in an amount in excess of the prevailing local market price at the time of the loan, and the bank shall maintain proof of this fact.

(4) Obligations of the customer as endorser, guarantor or accommodation party for others, other than obligations as endorser of chattel paper described in paragraph "b" of this subsection.

(5) Such other obligations to a state bank as may be prescribed by the superintendent by regulations of general application to all state banks, or

b. The total obligations of any one customer to a state bank at any one time shall not exceed sixty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank if at least all of the amount by which such obligations exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank shall consist of obligations as endorser of negotiable chattel paper negotiated by endorsement with recourse, or as unconditional guarantor of nonnegotiable chattel paper, or as transferor of chattel paper endorsed without recourse subject to a repurchase agreement, or

c. The total obligations of any one customer to a state bank at any one time shall not exceed the sum of twenty percent of the capital and surplus and fifty percent of the capital of the state bank, if at least all of the amount by which such obligations exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of a state bank shall consist of obligations secured by a first lien on farmland, or on single family or two family residences, subject to the provisions of section 524.905, except that the amount so loaned shall not exceed fifty percent of the appraised value of such real property, or

d. The total obligations of any one customer, which is an individual or a corporation, to a state bank at any one time shall not exceed forty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank if all of the amount by which such obligations exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank consists of amounts owed by one or more corporations of which the customer owns or controls more than fifty percent of the shares entitled to vote, or, if the customer is a corporation, of amounts owed by another corporation which owns or controls more than fifty percent of the shares of the customer entitled to vote, or of amounts owed by one or more other corporations more than fifty percent of the voting shares of each of which are owned or controlled by a person which also owns or controls more than fifty percent of the shares of the customer entitled to vote, provided however, when this paragraph applies:

(1) The amounts owed by such customer shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

(2) The amounts owed by any one or all of the corporations other than the customer shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

(3) The shares, assets and any liabilities of any such corporation other than the customer shall not be included in the financial statement of such customer or otherwise relied upon as a basis for a loan to such customer.

(4) The assets or guarantee of such customer shall not be relied upon as a basis for a loan to any such corporation.

(5) The proceeds of the amounts owed by the customer shall not be intermingled with or used for a common purpose with the proceeds of the amounts owed by the corporation or corporations other than the customer.

For the purposes of this paragraph, the term "amounts owed" means the amounts for the payment of which such customer or any one or all such corporations are obligated, whether directly or indirectly, primarily or secondarily, to a state bank as a result of the exercise by the state bank of the powers conferred by section 524.902, but determined without reference to paragraphs "e", "f" and "g" of subsection 1 of this section.

3. The total obligations of any one customer to a state bank at any one time for the purpose of applying the limitations of subsection 2 of this section shall include:

a. The aggregate rentals payable by the customer under leases of personal property by the state bank as lessor, except obligations secured by a lease on property in situations described in the second sentence of paragraph "h" of subsection 4 of this section.

b. Obligations secured by real property pursuant to section 524.905 and installment obligations, except to the extent any such obligations are secured, guaranteed, insured or covered by unconditional commitments or agreements to purchase by the United States, veterans administration, federal housing administration, small business administration, farmers home administration, a federal reserve bank, or other department, bureau, board, commission, agency, or establishment of the United States, or any corporation owned directly or indirectly by the United States.

c. Obligations of the customer by reason of acceptance by the state bank of drafts of a type not described in subsection 1 of section 524.903, to the extent that the state bank has acquired such acceptances.

d. Obligations of the customer consisting of bonds and securities in which the state bank has invested pursuant to section 524.901, subsection 2.

e. Amounts invested by a state bank for its own account pursuant to section 524.901, subsection 3, paragraphs "c" and "f", in the shares and obligations of a corporation which is a customer of the state bank.

f. Obligations of the customer as obligor pursuant to evidences of indebtedness and agreements for the payment of money acquired by purchase or discount by the state bank.

g. All other obligations of the customer of the state bank, not otherwise excluded by subsection 4 of this section, whether direct or indirect, primary or secondary, including overdrafts and liability for items paid by the state bank against uncollected deposits of the customer.

4. The total obligations of any one customer to a state bank at any one time for the purpose of applying the limitations of subsection 2 of this section shall not include:

a. Obligations of such customer as the drawer of drafts drawn in good faith against actually existing values in connection with a sale of goods which have been endorsed by such customer with recourse or which have been accepted.

b. Obligations arising out of the discount of commercial paper actually owned by the customer negotiating the same and endorsed by the customer without recourse and which is not subject to repurchase by the customer.

c. Obligations drawn by the customer in good faith against actually existing values and secured by nonnegotiable bills of lading for goods in process of shipment.

d. Obligations in the form of acceptances of other banks of the kind described in section 524.903, subsection 3.

e. Obligations of the customer by reason of acceptances by the state bank for the account of the customer pursuant to section 524.903, subsection 1.

f. Obligations of the customer which are fully secured by bonds and securities of the kind in which a state bank is authorized to invest for its own account without limitation under section 524.901, subsection 1.

g. Obligations of a customer which is a bank to the extent the obligations are repayable on demand or on the first business day following demand for repayment.

h. Obligations of a federal reserve bank or of the United States, or of any department, bureau, board, commission, agency, or establishment of the United States, or of any corporation owned directly or indirectly by the United States, or obligations of a customer to the extent that such obligations are secured or guaranteed or covered by unconditional commitments or agreements to purchase by a federal reserve bank or by the United States, or any department, bureau, board, commission, agency, or establishment of the United States, or any corporation owned directly or indirectly by the United States. An obligation of a customer secured by a lease on property under the terms of which the United States, or any department, bureau, board, commission, agency, or establishment of the United States, or any corporation owned directly or indirectly by the United States, or the state of Iowa, or any political subdivision thereof, is lessee and under the terms of which the aggregate rentals payable to the customer will be sufficient to satisfy the amount loaned shall be considered to be an obligation secured or guaranteed in the manner provided for in this paragraph.

i. Obligations of a customer as endorser or guarantor for a corporation in which that customer owns or controls more than fifty percent of the shares entitled to vote, provided that under rules promulgated by the superintendent the customer and the corporation qualify as separate customers because the assets and the demonstrated ability to generate income of the corporation and the customer taken together are adequate to secure and fund all outstanding and contemplated debt of the corporation and the customer.

j. Obligations of the customer equal in dollar amount to the amount of time certificates of deposit in the state bank, held in the name of that customer, which the state bank may lawfully offset against the obligations of that customer in the event of default. For the purpose of this paragraph an amount held in a time certificate of deposit in the name of more than one customer shall be counted only once with respect to all such customers, allocated as the customers may determine.

524.1005 Trust companies operating on January 1, 1970.

1. A trust company existing and operating on January 1, 1970 and which was authorized to act only as a trust company may continue to act only in a fiduciary capacity according to the terms of its articles of incorporation. The articles of incorporation of the trust company may be renewed in perpetuity. When applicable, this chapter applies to the operations of the trust company. Section 524.107, subsection 2, regarding the use of the word "trust" does not apply to a trust company subject to this section.

2. Notwithstanding subsection 1, a trust company shall have the power to do all of the following:

a. Acquire and hold, or lease as lessee, such personal property as is used, or is to be used, in its operations.

b. Subject to the prior approval of the superintendent, acquire and hold, or lease as lessee, only such real property as is used, or is to be used, wholly or substantially, in its operations or acquired for future use.

c. Subject to the prior approval of the superintendent, acquire and hold shares of a corporation engaged solely in holding and operating real property used wholly or substantially by the trust company in its operation or acquired for its future use.

d. Subject to the prior approval of the superintendent, acquire and hold shares of a corporation organized to perform, or performing, functions or activities that may be performed by a trust company, including activities of a fiduciary, agency, or custodial nature, in the manner authorized by federal or state law, as long as the corporation is not a bank and does not make loans and investments or accept deposits other than the following permitted deposits:

(1) Deposits that are generated from trust funds not currently invested and that are properly secured to the extent required by law.

(2) Deposits representing funds received for a special use in the capacity of managing agent or custodian for an owner of, or investor in, real property, securities, or other personal property; or for such owner or investor as agent or custodian of funds held for investment or as escrow agent; or for an issuer of, or broker or dealer in securities, in a capacity such as a paying agent, dividend disbursing agent, or securities clearing agent. However, such deposits shall not be employed by or for the account of the customer in the manner of a general purpose checking account or interest-bearing account.

(3) Making call loans to securities dealers or purchasing money market instruments such as certificates of deposit, commercial paper, government or municipal securities, and bankers acceptances. Such authorized loans and investments, however, shall not be used as a method of channeling funds to nontrust company affiliates of the trust company.

e. Subject to the prior approval of the superintendent, acquire and hold shares of a corporation organized to perform, or performing, the collection of charges and premiums from, or adjusting and settling claims on, residents of this state and any other state where authorized or qualified to conduct such activity, in connection with life or health insurance coverage or annuities.

524.1102 Loans and other transactions with affiliates.

No state bank shall make any loan or any extension of credit to, or purchase securities under repurchase agreement from, any of its affiliates, or invest any of its funds in the shares, bonds, capital securities, or other obligations of any such affiliate, or accept the shares, bonds, capital securities, or other obligations of any such affiliate as collateral security for advances made to any customer, if the aggregate amount of such loans, extensions of credit, repurchase agreements, investments and advances against such collateral security will exceed:

1. In the case of any one such affiliate, ten percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank. However, a state bank may invest its funds in shares of a bank service corporation pursuant to section 524.803, subsection 1, paragraph f, in an amount up to twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

2. In the case of all such affiliates, twenty percent of the capital and surplus of such state bank.

Within the foregoing limitations, each loan or extension of credit of any kind or character to an affiliate shall be secured by collateral in the form of shares of stock, bonds, capital securities or other such obligations having a market value at the time of making the loan or extension of credit of at least twenty percent more than the amount of the loan or extension of credit, or of at least ten percent more than the amount of the loan or extension of credit if it is secured by obligations of any state, or of any political subdivision or agency thereof.

A loan or extension of credit to a director, officer, clerk or other employee or any representative of any such affiliate shall be deemed a loan to the affiliate to the extent that the proceeds of such loan are used for the benefit of, or transferred to, the affiliate.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to loans or extensions of credit fully secured by obligations of the United States, or the farm credit banks, or the federal home loan banks, or obligations fully guaranteed by the United States as to principal and interest. The provisions of this section shall likewise not apply to indebtedness of any affiliate for unpaid balances due a state bank on assets purchased from such bank.

For the purposes of this section, the term "extension of credit" and "extensions of credit" shall be deemed to include any purchase of securities, other assets or obligations under repurchase agreement, and the discount of promissory notes, bills of exchange, conditional sales contracts, or similar paper, whether with or without recourse.

Subsection 1 amended
Unnumbered paragraph 4 amended

524.1103 Exceptions.

The provisions of section 524.1102 shall not apply to any affiliate:

1. Engaged solely in holding or operating real estate used wholly or substantially by the state bank in its operations or acquired for its future use.
2. Engaged solely in conducting a safe-deposit business or the business of an agricultural credit corporation eligible to discount loans with a farm credit bank.
3. Engaged solely in holding obligations of the United States, the farm credit banks, the federal home loan banks, or obligations fully guaranteed by the United States as to principal and interest.
4. Where the affiliate relationship has arisen as a result of shares acquired in satisfaction of a bona fide debt contracted prior to the date of the creation of such relationship provided that such shares shall be sold at public or private sale within one year from the date of the creation of the relationship, unless the time is extended by the superintendent.
5. Where the affiliate relationship exists by reason of the ownership or control of any voting shares thereof by a state bank as executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, agent, depository, or in any other fiduciary capacity, except where such shares are held for the benefit of all or a majority of the shareholders of such state bank.
6. Which is a bank.

524.1201 General provisions.

A bank shall not open or maintain a branch bank. A state bank may establish and operate bank offices subject to approval and regulation of the superintendent and to the restrictions upon location and number imposed by section 524.1202. A bank office may furnish all banking services ordinarily furnished to customers and depositors at the principal place of business of the state bank which operates the office, and a bank office manager or an officer of the bank shall be physically present at each bank office during a majority of its business hours. The central executive and official business and principal recordkeeping functions of a state bank shall be exercised only at its principal place of business, except that data processing services referred to in section 524.804 may be performed for the state bank at some other point. All transactions of a bank office shall be immediately transmitted to the principal place of business of the state bank which operates the office, and no current recordkeeping functions shall be maintained at a bank office except to the extent the state bank which operates the office deems it desirable to keep there duplicates of the records kept at the principal place of business of the state bank. Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this section, original trust recordkeeping functions may be centrally located at an authorized bank office. Original loan documentation recordkeeping functions may be located at an authorized bank office, subject to the approval of the superintendent.

89 Acts, ch 257, §23 HF 234

524.1202 Location of offices.

The location of any new bank office, or any change of location of a previously established bank office, shall be subject to the approval of the superintendent. No state bank shall establish a bank office outside the boundaries of the counties contiguous to or cornering upon the county in which the principal place of business of the state bank is located.

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2 of this section, no state bank shall establish a bank office outside the corporate limits of a municipal corporation or in a municipal corporation in which there is already an established state or national bank or office, however the subsequent chartering and establishment of any state or national bank, through the opening of its principal place of business within the municipal corporation where the bank office is located, shall not affect the right of the bank office to continue in operation in that municipal corporation. The existence and continuing operation of a bank office shall not be affected by the subsequent discontinuance of a municipal corporation pursuant to the provisions of sections 368.11 to 368.22. A bank office existing and operating on July 1, 1976, which is not located within the confines of a municipal corporation, shall be allowed to continue its existence and operation without regard to this subsection.

2. a. A state bank may establish bank offices within the municipal corporation or urban complex in which the principal place of business of the bank is located, subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) If the municipal corporation or urban complex has a population of one hundred thousand or less according to the most recent federal census, the state bank shall not establish more than four bank offices.

(2) If the municipal corporation or urban complex has a population of more than one hundred thousand but not more than two hundred thousand according to the most recent federal census, the state bank shall not establish more than five bank offices.

(3) If the municipal corporation or urban complex has a population of more than two hundred thousand according to the most recent federal census, the state bank shall not establish more than six bank offices.

b. For purposes of this subsection, "urban complex" means the geographic area bounded by the corporate limits of two or more municipal corporations, each of which being contiguous to or cornering upon at least one of the other municipal corporations within the complex. A state bank located in a municipal corporation or urban complex which is located on a boundary of this state and contiguous to a municipal corporation in another state may have one bank office in addition to the number of bank offices permitted by paragraph "a"; provided that nothing contained in this paragraph authorizes a state bank to establish a bank office outside of the boundaries of this state.

c. One such facility located in the proximity of a state bank's principal place of business may be found by the superintendent to be an integral part of the principal place of business, and not a bank office within the meaning of this section. This paragraph does not authorize more than one facility to be found to be an integral part of a bank's principal place of business.

d. One such facility that is located on the same property, or that is adjacent to or cornering upon the property on which an office of a bank is located, or that is separated from being adjacent to or cornering upon the property only by a street, alley, or other publicly owned right of way, may be found by the superintendent to be an integral part of that office location and not a separate bank office within the meaning of this section. This paragraph does not authorize more than one facility to be found to be an integral part of a bank office.

3. Notwithstanding subsection 1, if the assets of a state or national bank in existence on January 1, 1989, are transferred to a different state or national bank in the state which is located in the same county or a county contiguous to or cornering upon the county in which the principal place of business of the acquired bank is located, the resulting or acquiring bank may convert to and operate as its bank office any one or more of the business locations occupied as the principal place of business or as a bank office of the bank whose assets are so acquired. The limitations on bank office locations contained in unnumbered paragraph 1 of this section, and the limitation on the number of bank offices within the municipality or urban complex of the resulting or acquiring bank contained in subsection 2 shall be applicable to any bank office otherwise authorized by this subsection. A bank office established under the authority of this subsection is subject to the approval of the superintendent, shall be operated in accordance with this chapter relating to the operation of bank offices, and may be augmented by an integral facility when approved under subsection 2, paragraph "d".

524.1213 United community bank offices.

1. A bank may convert to a united community bank office as provided in this section.

2. A united community bank office formed under this section shall have a united community bank office board, at least one-half or more of the members of which shall be residents of the county in which the united community bank office is located. The liability of the united community bank office board shall be limited as provided in section 524.614. The bank establishing and operating the united community bank office may indemnify members of the united community bank office board as agents of the bank in the manner and in the instances authorized by section 496A.4A.

3. Any two or more state banks, national banks, or state and national banks that are located in this state, that are affiliates as defined in section 524.1101, and that individually have been in existence and operated as banks continuously in this state for at least five years, may be merged or consolidated into a single state or national bank, and the resulting entity shall be a "united community bank". Subject to subsection 9, the resulting united community bank of the merger or consolidation:

a. Shall retain and operate as its principal place of business one of the principal places of business of the banks that are the parties to the merger or consolidation.

b. May retain and continue to operate as united community bank offices of the resulting bank any of the remaining principal places of business of the banks that are the parties to the merger or consolidation.

c. May retain and continue to operate as retained bank offices of the resulting united community bank any of the bank offices that are being operated as of the date of the merger or consolidation by any of the banks that are parties to the merger or consolidation.

d. May establish additional bank offices within the municipal corporation or urban complex in which a united community bank office referred to in paragraph "b" is located, provided that the number of bank offices of the resulting bank within that municipal corporation or urban complex, including bank offices retained under paragraph "c" and bank offices established under the authority of this paragraph, but excluding the united community bank office, shall not exceed the maximum number of bank offices permitted by section 524.1202, subsection 2, paragraph "a", for a bank located within that municipal corporation or urban complex.

e. May retain and continue to operate and may establish in conjunction with the resulting bank, or with any retained united community bank office, or with any other retained bank office, any facility authorized by section 524.1202, subsection 2, paragraph "c" or "d", and in operation at the time of the merger or consolidation or established after the merger or consolidation.

f. May relocate any principal place of business and any bank offices operated pursuant to this section by complying with other provisions of law applicable to relocation.

4. For purposes of subsection 3, the period of existence and operation of a bank shall be deemed continuous, notwithstanding any of the following:

a. Any direct or indirect change in the name, ownership, or control of the bank.

b. Any rechartering of the bank, or any merger or consolidation with one or more banks.

c. The bank acquired its initial assets and liabilities from the federal deposit insurance corporation, or other transferor, pursuant to a purchase and assumption transaction or any other type of transaction involving the transfer of ownership of a failed bank or other bank.

5. All united community bank offices and other bank offices retained by the resulting bank of a merger or consolidation under the authority of this section shall be deemed bank offices established under the authority of section 524.1201 for all intents and purposes of this chapter, except as is otherwise expressly provided in this section.

6. This section does not alter the limitations upon bank holding companies contained in section 524.1802.

7. This section shall be strictly construed as an exception to the bank office limitations contained in section 524.1202. It is the intent of the general assembly that a court or regulatory agency shall not deem, construe, or interpret this section to permit statewide branch banking or to permit the establishment of a bank office at any location in this state unless specifically authorized by this section or section 524.312 or 524.1202.

8. This section does not authorize the establishment of a bank office or an integral facility at any time by any bank except as a direct and immediate consequence of a merger or consolidation of two or more affiliated banks and as expressly permitted by subsection 3. This section does not authorize the resulting bank of a merger or consolidation to establish or retain any united community bank office, bank office, or integral facility at any location other than those expressly permitted by subsection 3, or to preserve any business location acquired in the merger or consolidation for subsequent use.

9. The resulting bank of a merger or consolidation shall not retain any united community bank office or any other bank office within the municipality or urban complex in which the principal office of the resulting bank is located if the resulting bank then would have a greater number of bank offices within that municipality or urban complex than is expressly permitted by section 524.1202, subsection 2.

10. As used in this section, the term “bank” does not include any entity unless it is chartered as a state or national bank and is authorized by its bylaws to, and actually does, accept deposits, pay checks, and make commercial loans.

CHAPTER 527

ELECTRONIC TRANSFER OF FUNDS

527.2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, the following definitions shall apply unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Administrator” means and includes the superintendent of banking, the superintendent of savings and loan associations, and the superintendent of credit unions within the department of commerce and the supervisor of industrial loan companies within the office of the superintendent of banking. However, the powers of administration and enforcement of this chapter shall be exercised only as provided in sections 527.3, 527.5, subsection 7, 527.11, 527.12, and any other pertinent provision of this chapter.

2. "Batch basis" means the delivery of an accumulation of messages representing multiple transactions after completion of the transactions.

3. "Central routing unit" means any facility where electronic impulses or other indicia of a transaction originating at a satellite terminal are received and are routed and transmitted to a financial institution, or to a data processing center, or to another central routing unit, wherever located.

4. "Data processing center" means a facility, wherever located, at which electronic impulses or other indicia of a transaction originating at a satellite terminal are received and are processed in order to enable the satellite terminal to perform any function for which it is designed. However, "data processing center" does not include a facility which is directly connected to a satellite terminal and which performs only the functions of direct transmission of all requested transactions from that terminal to a data processing facility without performing any review of the requested transactions for the purpose of categorizing, separating, or routing. "Categorizing" means the process of reviewing and grouping of requested electronic funds transfer transactions according to the source or nature of the requested transaction. "Separating" means the process of interpreting and segregating requested electronic funds transfer transactions, or portions of such transactions, to provide for processing of information relating to such requested transactions or portions of such transactions. "Routing" means the process of interpreting and transmitting requested electronic funds transfer transactions to a destination selected at the time of interpretation and transmission from two or more alternative destinations.

5. "Financial institution" means and includes any bank incorporated under the provisions of chapter 524 or federal law, any savings and loan association incorporated under the provisions of chapter 534 or federal law, any credit union organized under the provisions of chapter 533 or federal law, any corporation licensed as an industrial loan company under chapter 536A, and any bank, savings and loan association, or credit union incorporated under federal law or the laws of a state other than Iowa which has an office located within this state.

6. "Multiple use terminal" means any machine or device to which all of the following are applicable:

a. The machine or device is owned or operated by a person who primarily engages in a service, business or enterprise, including but not limited to the retail sale of goods or services, but who is not organized under the laws of this state or under federal law as a bank, savings and loan association, or credit union;

b. The machine or device is used by the person by whom it is owned or operated in some capacity other than as a satellite terminal; and

c. A financial institution proposes to contract or has contracted to utilize that machine or device as a satellite terminal.

7. "Municipal corporation" means an incorporated city.

8. "On-line real time basis" means the delivery or return of a message initiated at a satellite terminal through transmission of electronic impulses to or from a location remote from the location of the satellite terminal prior to completion of the transaction.

9. "Premises" means and includes only those locations where, by applicable law, financial institutions are authorized to maintain a principal place of business and other offices for the conduct of their respective businesses; provided that with respect to an industrial loan company, "premises" means only a location where business may be conducted under a single license issued to the industrial loan company.

10. "Satellite terminal" means and includes any machine or device located off the premises of a financial institution, whether attended or unattended, by means of which the financial institution and its customers may engage through either the immediate transmission of electronic impulses to or from the financial institution or the recording of electronic impulses or other indicia of a transaction for delayed transmission to the financial institution, in transactions which are incidental to the conduct of the business of the financial institution and which otherwise are specifically permitted by applicable law. "Satellite terminal" also includes any machine or device located on the premises of a financial institution only if the machine or device is available for use by customers of other financial institutions. However, the term "satellite terminal" does not include any such machine or device, wherever located, if that machine or device is not generally accessible to persons other than employees of a financial institution or an affiliate of a financial institution.

11. "On-line point-of-sale terminal" means a satellite terminal that satisfies the requirements of section 527.4, subsection 3, paragraph "d" and is operated on an on-line real time basis.

12. "Off-line point-of-sale terminal" means a satellite terminal that satisfies the requirements of section 527.4, subsection 3, paragraph "d" and is other than an on-line point-of-sale terminal.

13. "Office" means and includes any business location in this state of a financial institution at which is offered the services of accepting deposits, originating loans, and dispensing cash, by financial institution personnel in the office.

14. "Access device" means a card, code, or other means of access to a customer's account, or any combination thereof, that may be used by the customer for the purpose of initiating a transaction by means of a satellite terminal.

15. "Personal terminal" means and includes a satellite terminal located in a personal residence and a telephone, wherever located, operated by a customer of a financial institution for the purpose of initiating a transaction affecting a noncommercial account of the customer.

16. "Completion of the transaction" means when the presence of the customer at a satellite terminal is no longer needed to consummate the sale of goods or services, to grant to the seller the right to receive payment for the goods or services, and to issue a receipt to the customer.

17. "Reciprocal basis" means that a financial institution whose licensed or principal place of business is located in this state has the express authority under the laws of a state other than Iowa to conduct business under qualifications and conditions which are no more restrictive than those imposed by the laws of the other state on financial institutions whose licensed or principal place of business is located in the other state, as determined by the administrator, and the laws of Iowa are no more restrictive of financial institutions whose licensed or principal place of business is located in such other state than they are of financial institutions whose licensed or principal place of business is located in this state.

527.4 Establishment of satellite terminals—restrictions.

1. A satellite terminal shall not be established within this state except by a financial institution whose principal place of business is located in this state, one which has a business location licensed in this state under chapter 536A, or one which has an office located in this state and which meets the requirements of subsection 4.

2. A financial institution whose licensed or principal place of business is located in this state shall not establish a satellite terminal at any location outside of this state unless the other state provides for the establishment of satellite terminals by Iowa financial institutions on a reciprocal basis.

3. A financial institution whose licensed or principal place of business is located within this state may establish any number of satellite terminals in any of the following locations:

a. Within the boundaries of a municipal corporation if the principal place of business or an office of the financial institution is also located within the boundaries of the municipal corporation.

b. Within the boundaries of an urban complex composed of two or more Iowa municipal corporations each of which is contiguous to or corners upon at least one of the other municipal corporations within the urban complex if the principal place of business or an office of the financial institution is also located in the urban complex.

c. Within the Iowa county in which the financial institution has its principal place of business or an office.

d. At any retail sales location in this state if all of the following apply:

(1) The satellite terminal is not designed, configured, or operated to accept deposits or to dispense scrip or other negotiable instruments.

(2) The satellite terminal is not designed, configured, or operated to dispense cash except when operated by the retailer as part of a retail sales transaction.

(3) The satellite terminal is utilized for the purpose of making payment to the retailer for goods or services purchased at the location of the satellite terminal.

A financial institution shall not establish a satellite terminal at any other location except pursuant to an agreement with a financial institution which is authorized by this subsection to establish a satellite terminal at that location and which will utilize the satellite terminal at that location. This subsection does not amend, modify, or supersede any provision of chapter 524 regulating the number or locations of bank offices of a state or national bank, or authorize the establishment by a financial institution of any offices or other facilities except satellite terminals at locations permitted by this subsection.

4. A financial institution whose licensed or principal place of business is not located in this state may establish, control, maintain, or operate any number of satellite terminals at the locations identified in subsection 3, paragraphs "a", "b", "c", and "d" if both of the following apply:

a. The other state provides for the establishment, control, maintenance, or operation of satellite terminals by a financial institution, whose licensed or principal place of business is located in this state, on a reciprocal basis.

b. All satellite terminals, wherever located, that are owned, controlled, maintained, or operated by the financial institution are available for use on a nondiscriminatory basis by any other financial institution which engages in electronic transactions in this state and by all customers who have minimum contact with this state and who have been designated by a financial institution using the satellite terminal and who have been provided with an access device, approved by the administrator, by which to engage in electronic transactions by means of the satellite terminal.

527.5 Satellite terminal requirements.

A satellite terminal may be utilized by a financial institution to the extent permitted in this chapter only if the satellite terminal is utilized and maintained in compliance with the provisions of this chapter and only if all of the following are complied with:

1. A satellite terminal in this state may be established by one or more financial institutions. The establishing financial institutions shall designate a single controlling financial institution which shall maintain the location, use, and operation of the satellite terminal, wherever located, in compliance with this chapter. The use and operation of a satellite terminal shall be governed by a written agreement between the controlling financial institution and the person controlling the physical location at which the satellite terminal is placed. The written agreement shall specify all of the terms and conditions, including any fees and charges, under which the satellite terminal is placed at that location. If the satellite terminal is a multiple use terminal, the written agreement shall specify, and may limit, the specific types of transactions incidental to the conduct of the business of a financial institution which may be engaged in through that terminal.

2. a. A satellite terminal shall be available for use on a nondiscriminatory basis by any other financial institution which has its principal place of business within this state, and by all customers who have been designated by a financial institution using the satellite terminal and who have been provided with an access device, approved by the administrator, by which to engage in electronic transactions by means of the satellite terminal.

b. A financial institution shall not be required to join, be a member or shareholder of, or otherwise participate in any corporation, association, partnership, co-operative, or other enterprise as a condition of its utilizing any satellite terminal located within this state.

c. For the purposes of complying with paragraph "a", an on-line point-of-sale terminal is not required to be available for use by customers of a financial institution by means of an access device by which an off-line point-of-sale terminal can be used to engage in electronic transactions.

d. All off-line point-of-sale terminals located at the retail location or retail locations within this state of a single retailer are exempt from paragraph "a" if electronic transactions can be initiated at each of such terminals only by an access device unique to the retailer.

e. Paragraph "a" applies to a financial institution whose licensed or principal place of business is located in a state other than Iowa if all satellite terminals owned, controlled, operated, or maintained by the financial institution, wherever located, are available on a reciprocal basis to any financial institution whose licensed or principal place of business is located in this state, and to all customers who have been designated by a financial institution using the satellite terminal and who have been provided with an access device.

3. An informational statement shall be filed and shall be maintained on a current basis with the administrator by the financial institution controlling a satellite terminal in this state, which sets forth all of the following:

a. The name and business address of the controlling financial institution.

b. The location of the satellite terminal.

c. A schedule of the charges which will be required to be paid by a financial institution utilizing the satellite terminal.

d. An agreement with the administrator that the financial institution controlling the satellite terminal will maintain that satellite terminal in compliance with this chapter.

The informational statement shall be accompanied by a copy of the written agreement required by subsection 1. The informational statement also shall be accompanied by a statement or copy of any agreement, whether oral or in writing, between the controlling financial institution and a data processing center or a central routing unit, unless operated by or solely on behalf of the controlling financial institution, by which transactions originating at that terminal will be received.

4. A satellite terminal in this state shall not be attended or operated at any time by an employee of a financial institution or an affiliate of a financial institution, except for the purpose of instructing customers, on a temporary basis, in the use of the satellite terminal, for the purpose of testing the terminal, or for the purpose of transacting business on the employee's own behalf.

5. A satellite terminal in this state shall bear a sign or label identifying each type of financial institution utilizing the terminal. A satellite terminal location in this state shall not be used to advertise individual financial institutions or a group of financial institutions. However, a satellite terminal shall bear a sign or label no larger than three inches by two inches identifying the name, address, and telephone number of the owner of the satellite terminal. The administrator may authorize methods of identification the administrator deems necessary to enable the general public to determine the accessibility of a satellite terminal.

6. The charges required to be paid by any financial institution which utilizes the satellite terminal shall not exceed a pro rata portion of the costs, determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, of establishing, operating and maintaining the satellite terminal, plus a reasonable return on these costs to the owner of the satellite terminal.

7. If the administrator finds grounds, under any applicable law or rule, for denying establishment of a satellite terminal the administrator shall notify the person filing the informational statement or an amendment thereto, within thirty days of the filing thereof, of the existence of such grounds. If such notification is not given by the administrator, the administrator shall be considered to have expressly approved the establishment and operation of the satellite terminal as described in the informational statement or amendment and according to the agreements attached thereto, and operation of the satellite terminal in accordance therewith may commence on or after the thirtieth day following such filing. However, this subsection shall not be construed to prohibit the administrator from enforcing the provisions of this chapter, nor shall it be construed to constitute a waiver of any prohibition, limitation or obligation imposed by this chapter.

8. a. A satellite terminal in this state shall not be operated in a manner to permit a person to credit a demand deposit account, savings account, share account, or any other account representing a liability of a financial institution, if that financial institution is located outside of this state.

b. Paragraph "a" of this subsection does not apply to a corporation licensed under chapter 536A. A satellite terminal shall not be operated in any manner to permit a person to credit an account representing a liability of a corporation licensed under chapter 536A, if the business location of the corporation where the original records pertaining to the person's account are maintained is located outside of this state.

9. a. Satellite terminals located in this state shall be directly connected to either of the following:

(1) A central routing unit approved pursuant to this chapter.

(2) A data processing center which is directly connected to a central routing unit approved pursuant to this chapter.

b. If a data processing center which is directly connected to a satellite terminal located in this state does not authorize or reject a transaction originated at that terminal, the transaction shall be immediately transmitted by the data processing center to a central routing unit approved pursuant to this chapter, unless one of the following applies:

(1) The transaction is not authorized because of a mechanical failure of the data processing center or satellite terminal.

(2) The transaction does not affect a deposit account held by a financial institution.

c. This subsection does not limit the authority of a data processing center to authorize or reject transactions requested by customers of a financial institution pursuant to an agreement whereby the data processing center authorizes or rejects requested transactions on behalf of the financial institution and provides to the financial institution, on a batch basis and not on an on-line real time basis, information concerning authorized or rejected transactions of customers of the financial institution.

10. A personal terminal may be utilized by a financial institution to the extent permitted by this chapter if the use and operation of the personal terminal is governed by a written agreement between the controlling financial institution and its customer and if the personal terminal is utilized and maintained in compliance with subsection 9 and all other applicable sections of this chapter. A telephone located at other than a personal residence and used primarily as a personal terminal must be utilized and maintained in compliance with this section.

Subsection 2 amended
Subsection 9, paragraph b, subparagraph (2) amended.

527.8 Liability and errors.

1. As a condition of exercising the privilege of utilizing a satellite terminal, a financial institution is liable to each of its customers for all losses incurred by the customer as a result of the transmission or recording of electronic impulses as a part of a transaction not authorized by the customer or to which the customer was not a party. However, if the financial institution has provided the customer with an access device for engaging in a transaction at a satellite terminal which is unique to the customer, and losses are incurred by the customer as a result of the theft, loss or other compromise of that access device, the liability of the financial institution pursuant to this section shall not include the first fifty dollars of any losses incurred prior to the time the customer notifies the financial institution of the theft, loss or compromise except that the financial institution shall have no liability if the losses are a result of the customer's fraudulent acts or omissions.

2. If, upon receipt of a periodic statement of account from a financial institution, a customer or member of the financial institution believes that the statement contains an error with respect to a transaction engaged in by such person through a satellite terminal, then such person shall, within sixty days of the date on which such statement was mailed or otherwise delivered by the financial institution, notify the financial institution by means of a writing which (a) sets forth or otherwise enables the financial institution to identify the member or customer and the number of the account in question; (b) indicates the customer's or member's belief that the statement contains an error with respect to a transaction engaged in by such person through a satellite terminal, and states the amount of the alleged error; and (c) sets forth the reasons for the person's belief that the statement contains such an error. Unless the action required in subsection 3 is taken prior to the end of the thirty day period, the financial institution shall acknowledge in writing its receipt of the notice provided for in this subsection within 30 days of its actual receipt thereof.

3. Within ninety days of the financial institution's receipt of the notice described in subsection 2, it shall either:

a. Correct the account in question and provide the customer or member with written notification of the correction and, if the correction is not in the exact amount of the alleged error, provide such person with a written explanation of any difference between the alleged error and the correction made; or

b. Provide the customer or member with a written explanation, after having conducted an investigation of the matter, stating the reason the financial institution believes the statement is correct and, within thirty days of further written request of the customer or member, provide such person with a written copy of the record of the transaction in question, as maintained by the financial institution pursuant to section 527.7.

4. A financial institution which has received a notice specified in subsection 2 shall not, prior to its compliance with subsection 3, close the account concerning which the dispute exists or restrict transactions in such account which affect only the portion thereof which is not in dispute. A financial institution which has complied with the provisions of subsection 3 with respect to an alleged error concerning a transaction engaged in through a satellite terminal shall have no further responsibility under subsections 2 to 4 if the customer or member continues to make substantially the same allegation with respect to such error.

5. If the correction of any error relating to a transaction engaged in through a satellite terminal in an account of a customer or member results in a credit to such account, the financial institution shall additionally credit such account with any amount of interest which would have been paid to such customer or member by the financial institution except for the error, or which was paid by such person to the financial institution as a result of the error.

6. A financial institution which fails to comply with the provisions of subsections 2 to 5 shall be liable to the customer or member who has complied with such provisions for a civil penalty in the amount of fifty dollars.

89 Acts, ch 86, §15 SF 130
Subsection 1 amended

527.9 Central routing units.

1. A central routing unit shall not be operated in this state unless written approval for that operation has been obtained from the administrator.

2. A person desiring to operate a central routing unit shall submit to the administrator an application which shall contain all of the following information:

a. The name and business address of the owner of the proposed unit.

b. The name and business address of each data processing center and other central routing unit with which the proposed central routing unit will have direct electronic communication.

c. The location of the proposed central routing unit.

d. A schedule of the charges which will be required to be paid to that applicant by each financial institution which utilizes the proposed central routing unit.

The application shall be accompanied by all agreements between the proposed central routing unit and all data processing centers and other central routing units respecting the transmission of transaction data; and a copy of any agreement between the proposed central routing unit and any financial institution establishing a satellite terminal unless that agreement theretofore has been filed with the administrator pursuant to section 527.5.

e. An agreement by the applicant that the proposed central routing unit will be capable of accepting and routing, and will be operated to accept and route, transmissions of data originating at any satellite terminal located in this state, whether receiving from that terminal or from a data processing center or other central routing unit.

f. A representation and undertaking that the proposed central routing unit is directly connected to every data processing center that is directly connected to a satellite terminal located in this state, and that the proposed central routing unit will provide for direct connection in the future with any data processing center that becomes directly connected to a satellite terminal located in this state.

3. The administrator shall approve or disapprove an application for operation of a central routing unit within sixty days after receipt.

4. A central routing unit operating under the approval of the administrator shall be subject to examination by the administrator for the purpose of determining compliance with this chapter.

5. a. Effective July 1, 1987, a person owning or operating a central routing unit authorized under this section shall include public representation on any board setting policy for the central routing unit. Four or five public members shall be appointed to the board in the following manner:

- (1) Two members shall be appointed by the superintendent of banking.
- (2) One member shall be appointed by the superintendent of credit unions.
- (3) One member shall be appointed by the superintendent of savings and loan associations.

(4) If an industrial loan company is connected to the central routing unit, one member shall be appointed by the superintendent of banking.

b. The superintendent of banking, superintendent of credit unions, and superintendent of savings and loan associations shall form a committee to set, in conjunction with the entity owning or operating the central routing unit, the term of office, the rate of compensation, and the rate of reimbursement for each public member. However, the public members shall be entitled to reasonable compensation and reimbursement from the board.

c. Each public member is entitled to all the rights of participation and voting as any other member of the board. The public members are to represent the interest of consumers and the business and agricultural communities in establishing policies for the central routing unit.

d. It is the intention of the general assembly that the ratio of public members to the overall membership of the board shall not be less than one public member for each seven members of the board. If the number of members on the board is increased, then the number of members appointed pursuant to paragraph "a" shall be increased to maintain the minimum ratio. In this event, a committee composed of the superintendent of banking, the superintendent of credit unions, and the superintendent of savings and loan associations shall appoint additional public members in order to maintain the minimum ratio.

e. An individual shall not be appointed as a public member pursuant to this subsection if the individual is a director of a financial institution or is directly employed by a financial institution doing business in this state.

CHAPTER 528

ALTERNATIVE MORTGAGE LOANS

528.1 Title.

This chapter is entitled "Alternative and Reverse Annuity Mortgage Loan Act".

89 Acts, ch 267, §1 SF 361
NEW section

528.2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Administrator" means the superintendent of banking, the superintendent of savings and loan associations, and the superintendent of credit unions within the department of commerce.

2. "Alternative mortgage loan" means a mortgage loan which is a reverse annuity mortgage loan or graduated payment mortgage loan.

3. "Financial institution" means financial institution as defined in section 535A.1.

4. "Graduated payment mortgage loan" means a mortgage loan in which principal and interest payments, if any, and the making of additional advances, if any, are scheduled to reflect the prospective increasing or decreasing income of the mortgagor.

5. "Mortgage loan" means a loan secured by a first mortgage on one, two, three, or four family, owner-occupied residential real property.

6. "Reverse annuity mortgage loan" means a mortgage loan in which either the loan proceeds are used to purchase an annuity with the annuity proceeds to be advanced to the mortgagors, or the loan proceeds are directly advanced to the mortgagors, in ten or more installments, either directly or indirectly, and which together with unpaid interest, if any, are to be repaid in accordance with section 528.7.

89 Acts, ch 267, §2 SF 361

528.3 Financial institutions allowed to make alternative mortgages.

A financial institution may make alternative mortgage loans in accordance with this chapter. General provisions governing a financial institution's mortgage loans apply to alternative mortgage loans unless inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. This chapter does not prohibit a financial institution from making any loan which is not an alternative mortgage loan, provided such loan otherwise complies with applicable laws.

89 Acts, ch 267, §3 SF 361

528.4 Prepayment penalty prohibited.

A financial institution making an alternative mortgage loan may contract with the mortgagor for interest to be paid currently or to accrue, and if accrued, for accrued interest to be added to the mortgage debt on which interest may be charged and collected. Accrued interest which is added to the mortgage debt shall be secured by the mortgage to the same extent as the principal of the alternative mortgage loan. An instrument evidencing an alternative mortgage loan shall not contain a provision imposing a penalty for prepayment of the loan.

89 Acts, ch 267, §4 SF 361

528.5 Disclosure of alternative mortgage loan information to applicants.

1. A financial institution that offers or makes an alternative mortgage loan shall include in any disclosure of the rates or availability of mortgage loans, the rates and availability of reverse annuity mortgages or graduated payment mortgage loans, if and when such loans are offered. The administrator may prescribe by rule forms for the required disclosures.

2. A prospective mortgage loan applicant shall have the choice of applying for a mortgage loan or any type of alternative mortgage loan offered by the financial institution.

89 Acts, ch 267, §5 SF 361

528.6 Prototype plan for alternative mortgage loans—approval by administrator.

1. Before a financial institution makes an alternative mortgage loan, it shall submit to the administrator for that type of institution, for the administrator's approval, the prototype plan and subsequent amendments to the plan under which alternative mortgage loans are to be made. A plan submitted shall include a copy of the form of note and mortgage instrument that will be used for that type of alternative mortgage loan, a detailed description of how the plan will function, and other information as the administrator requires. The administrator shall specifically review the mortgage instrument submitted as part of the plan to ensure that any default provisions included in the deed pursuant to section 528.7, subsection 2, paragraph "c", are necessary to protect the interests of the mortgagee and are fair and equitable for the mortgagor. A reverse annuity mortgage shall provide that the mortgagor or mortgagors of the property shall retain a life estate in the property until the death of the mortgagor or all of the mortgagors, notwithstanding that the annuity may expire prior to the end of the life estate, depending upon the terms of the annuity.

2. The administrator may approve any plan and amendment to a plan that in the administrator's opinion serves the best interests of prospective mortgagors and mortgagees. The administrator's considerations shall include, without limitation, the flexibility of each plan to serve the differing needs of various persons who may apply for an alternative mortgage loan under the plan.

3. If the administrator approves the plan or amendment, the financial institution may make alternative mortgage loans in accordance with the approved plan and any approved amendments.

4. This section applies to all alternative mortgage loans made on or after January 1, 1990.

89 Acts, ch 267, §6 SF 361

528.7 Reduction in installment payments—repayment of mortgage debt.

1. If the mortgagee or its assignee and the mortgagor agree, any installment payment of either the loan proceeds or an annuity purchased with the loan proceeds of a reverse annuity mortgage loan may be reduced by an amount used for partial repayment of the mortgage debt, except as provided in subsection 2 of this section.

a. Notwithstanding any such reduction, each mortgagor shall receive a cash payment in each installment for the term of the annuity or, if no annuity, for the term during which the mortgagee contracted with the mortgagor to advance the loan proceeds.

b. Except as provided in subsection 2, no repayments of any part of the mortgage debt shall be required from the mortgagor after termination of the period during which loan proceeds or any annuity purchased with the loan proceeds are advanced to the mortgagor.

2. If the mortgagee or its assignee and the mortgagor agree, and at the option of the mortgagee, advances under a reverse annuity mortgage loan may terminate and the entire unpaid balance of the loan plus accrued interest may become due and payable upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

a. The death of the last surviving mortgagor.

b. The sale or other transfer of the real estate securing the loan to a person other than any of the original mortgagors.

c. Any other occurrence which materially decreases the value of the property securing the loan or which will have the likely effect of causing the loan not to be repaid. Any such additional occurrence shall be clearly described in the note or mortgage instrument.

89 Acts, ch 267, §7 SF 361
NEW section

528.8 Interest on graduated payment mortgage loans.

A graduated payment mortgage loan offered or made by a financial institution shall provide for interest at a specified rate or a series of specified rates.

CHAPTER 533

CREDIT UNIONS

533.4 Powers.

A credit union shall have the following powers to:

1. Receive the savings of its members either as payment on shares or as deposits, including the right to conduct Christmas clubs, vacation clubs, and other such thrift organizations within the membership.
2. Make loans to members for provident or productive purposes.
3. Make loans to a co-operative society or other organization having membership in the credit union.
4. Deposit in state and national banks.
5. Make investments in:
  - a. Time deposits in national banks and in state banks, the deposits of which are insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation.
  - b. Obligations, participations, or other instruments of or issued by, or fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States government or any agency thereof; or any trust or trusts established for investing directly or collectively in the same.
  - c. General obligations of the state of Iowa and any subdivision thereof.
  - d. Paid-up deposits of savings and loan associations, the deposits of which are insured by the federal savings and loan insurance corporation.
  - e. Purchase of notes of liquidating credit unions with the approval of the superintendent.
  - f. Shares and deposits in other credit unions.
  - g. Shares, stocks, loans, and other obligations or a combination thereof of an organization, corporation, or association, provided the membership or ownership, as the case may be, of the organization, corporation, or association is primarily confined or restricted to credit unions or organizations of credit unions and provided that the purpose of the organization, corporation, or association is primarily designed to provide services to credit unions, organizations of credit unions, or credit union members. However, the aggregate amount invested pursuant to this subsection shall not exceed five percent of the assets of the credit union.
  - h. Obligations issued by federal land banks, federal intermediate credit banks, banks for cooperatives, or any or all of the federal farm credit banks.
  - i. Commercial paper issued by United States corporations as defined by rule.
  - j. Corporate bonds as defined by and subject to terms and conditions imposed by the administrator, provided that the administrator shall not approve investment in corporate bonds unless the bonds are rated in the two highest grades of corporate bonds by a nationally accepted rating agency, including but not limited to a rating of AAA or AA from Standard and Poors.
6. Borrow money as hereinafter indicated.
7. Assess fines as may be provided by the bylaws.
8. Sue and be sued.
9. Make contracts.
10. Purchase, hold and dispose of property necessary and incidental to its operation provided, however, that any property acquired through foreclosure shall be disposed of within a period not to exceed ten years.
11. Exercise such incidental powers as may be necessary or requisite to enable it to carry on effectively the business for which it is incorporated.
12. Apply for share account and deposit account insurance which meets the requirements of this chapter and take all actions necessary to maintain an insured status.

13. Upon the approval of the superintendent, serve an employee group having an insufficient number of members to form or conduct the affairs of a separate credit union. There shall be no requirement for the existence of a common bond relationship between the said small employee group and the credit union effecting such service.

14. Deposit with a credit union which has been in existence for not more than a year an amount not to exceed twenty-five percent of the assets of the new credit union, but only one credit union may at any time make the deposit.

15. Acquire the conditional sales contracts, promissory notes or other similar instruments executed by its members, but the rate of interest existing on the instrument shall not exceed the highest rate charged by the acquiring credit union on its outstanding loans.

16. Sell, participate in, or discount the obligations of its members with or without recourse. Purchase the obligations of credit union members, provided the obligations meet the requirements of this chapter.

17. Subject to the prior approval of the superintendent, acquire and hold shares in a corporation engaged in providing and operating facilities through which a credit union and its members may engage, by means of either the direct transmission of electronic impulses to and from the credit union or the recording of electronic impulses or other indicia of a transaction for delayed transmission to the credit union, in transactions in which such credit union is otherwise permitted to engage pursuant to applicable law.

18. Engage in any transaction otherwise permitted by this chapter and applicable law, by means of either the direct transmission of electronic impulses to or from the credit union or the recording of electronic impulses or other indicia of a transaction for delayed transmission to the credit union. Subject to the provisions of chapter 527, a credit union may utilize, establish or operate, alone or with one or more other credit unions, banks incorporated under the provisions of chapter 524 or federal law, savings and loan associations incorporated under the provisions of chapter 534 or federal law, corporations licensed under chapter 536A, or third parties, the satellite terminals permitted under chapter 527, by means of which the credit union may transmit to or receive from any member electronic impulses constituting transactions pursuant to this subsection. However, such utilization, establishment, or operation shall be lawful only when in compliance with chapter 527. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as authority for any person to engage in transactions not otherwise permitted by applicable law, nor shall anything in this subsection be deemed to repeal, replace or in any other way affect any applicable law or rule regarding the maintenance of or access to financial information maintained by any credit union.

19. Establish one or more offices other than its main office, subject to the approval and regulation of the superintendent, if such offices shall be reasonably necessary to furnish service to its membership. A credit union office may furnish all credit union services ordinarily furnished to the membership at the principal place of business of the credit union which operates the office. All transactions of a credit union office shall be transmitted daily to the principal place of business of the credit union which operates the office, and no current recordkeeping functions shall be maintained at a credit union office except to the extent the credit union which operates the office deems it desirable to keep at the office duplicates of the records kept at the principal place of business of the credit union. The central executive and official business functions of a credit union shall be exercised only at the principal place of business.

A credit union office shall not be opened without the prior written approval of the superintendent. Upon application by a credit union in the form prescribed by the superintendent, the superintendent shall determine, after notice and hearing, if the establishment of the credit union office is reasonably necessary for service to, and is in the best interests of, the members of the credit union.

20. Purchase insurance or make the purchase of insurance available for members.

21. A credit union may take a second mortgage on real property to secure a loan made by the credit union, pursuant to rules adopted by the superintendent.

22. Charge fees and penalties and apply them to income.

23. a. Act as agent of the federal government when requested by the secretary of the United States department of treasury; perform such services as may be required in connection with the collection of taxes and other obligations due the United States and the lending, borrowing and repayment of money by the United States; and be a depository of public money when designated for that purpose.

b. Act as agent of the state when requested by the treasurer of state; perform such services as may be required in connection with the collection of taxes and other obligations due the state and the lending, borrowing and repayment of money by the state; and be a depository of public money when designated for that purpose.

24. Receive public funds pursuant to chapter 453.

25. Engage in any activity authorized by the superintendent which would be permitted if the credit union were federally chartered and which is consistent with state law.

26. Pledge its assets to secure the deposit of public funds.

27. To provide indemnity for the director, officer, or employee in the same fashion that a corporation organized under chapter 496A* could under section 496A.4A*, provided that where section 496A.4A* provides for action by shareholders the section is applicable to action by members of the credit union and where the section has reference to the corporation organized under chapter 496A*, it is applicable to the association organized under this chapter.

89 Acts, ch 94, §1 SF 218

*Chapter 496A repealed by 89 Acts, ch 288, §195. See ch 490, SF 502

Subsection 5, NEW paragraph j

533.24 Taxation.

A credit union shall be deemed an institution for savings and is subject to taxation only as to its real estate and moneys and credits. The shares shall not be taxed.

The moneys and credits tax on credit unions is imposed at a rate of five mills on each dollar of the legal and special reserves which are required to be maintained by the credit union under section 533.17, and shall be levied by the board of supervisors, and placed upon the tax list and collected by the county treasurer, except that an exemption shall be given to each credit union in the amount of forty thousand dollars. The amount collected in each taxing district within a city shall be apportioned twenty percent to the county, thirty percent to the city general fund, and fifty percent to the general fund of the state, and the amount collected in each taxing district outside of cities shall be apportioned fifty percent to the county and fifty percent to the general fund of the state. The moneys and credits tax shall be collected at the location of the credit union as shown in its articles of incorporation.

Unnumbered paragraph 1 amended

CHAPTER 533C

CREDIT SERVICES ORGANIZATIONS

533C.1 Definitions.

In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Buyer" means an individual who is solicited to purchase or who purchases the services of a credit services organization.
2. "Consumer reporting agency" has the meaning assigned by section 603(f), Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. §1681a(f) as amended through January 1, 1989.
3. "Extension of credit" means the right to defer payment of debt or to incur debt and defer its payment offered or granted primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

89 Acts, ch 183, §1 HF 496

533C.2 Credit services organization defined—exemptions.

1. A credit services organization is a person who, with respect to the extension of credit by others and in return for the payment of money or other valuable consideration, provides, or represents that the person can or will provide, any of the following services:
  - a. Improving a buyer's credit record, history, or rating.
  - b. Obtaining an extension of credit for a buyer.
  - c. Providing advice or assistance to a buyer with regard to paragraph "a" or "b".
2. The following are exempt from this chapter:
  - a. A person authorized to make loans or extensions of credit under the laws of this state or the United States who is subject to regulation and supervision of this state or the United States, or a lender approved by the United States secretary of housing and urban development for participation in a mortgage insurance program under the National Housing Act, 12 U.S.C. §1701 et seq.
  - b. A bank or savings and loan association whose deposits or accounts are eligible for insurance by the federal deposit insurance corporation or the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, or successor deposit insurance entities, or a subsidiary of a bank or savings and loan association.
  - c. A credit union doing business in this state.
  - d. A nonprofit organization exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as defined in section 422.3.
  - e. A person licensed as a real estate broker or salesperson, under section 117.20, acting within the course and scope of that license.
  - f. A person licensed to practice as an attorney in this state acting within the course and scope of the person's practice as an attorney.
  - g. A broker-dealer registered with the securities and exchange commission or the commodity futures trading commission acting within the course and scope of the regulations of the commission that person is registered with.
  - h. A consumer reporting agency.

89 Acts, ch 183, §2 HF 496
NEW section

533C.3 Prohibited conduct.

A credit services organization, a salesperson, agent, or representative of a credit services organization, or an independent contractor who sells or attempts to sell the services of a credit services organization shall not:

1. Charge a buyer or receive from a buyer money or other valuable consideration before completing performance of all services the credit services organization has agreed to perform for the buyer, unless the credit services organization has obtained a bond in accordance with section 533C.4 or established and maintained a surety account at a federally insured bank or savings and loan association located in this state in the amount required by section 533C.4, subsection 5.

2. Charge a buyer or receive from a buyer money or other valuable consideration solely for referral of the buyer to a retail seller who will or may extend credit to the buyer if the credit that is or will be extended to the buyer is substantially the same as that available to the general public.

3. Make or use a false or misleading representation in the offer or sale of the services of a credit services organization.

4. Engage, directly or indirectly, in a fraudulent or deceptive act, practice, or course of business in connection with the offer or sale of the services of a credit services organization.

89 Acts, ch 183, §3 HF 496
NEW section

533C.4 Bond—surety account.

1. This section applies to a credit services organization required by section 533C.3, subsection 1, to obtain a surety bond or establish a surety account.

2. If a bond is obtained, a copy of it shall be filed with the secretary of state. If a surety account is established, notification of the depository, the trustee, and the account number shall be filed with the secretary of state.

3. If a bond is obtained, the bond shall be executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, and the bond shall be continuous in nature until cancelled by the surety with not less than thirty days' written notice to both the credit services organization and to the secretary of state. The notice shall indicate the surety's intent to cancel the bond effective on a date at least thirty days after the date of the notice.

4. The bond or surety account required must be in favor of the state for the benefit of any person who is damaged by a violation of this chapter.

5. A person claiming against the bond or surety account for a violation of this chapter may maintain an action at law against the credit services organization and against the surety or trustee. The surety or trustee is liable only for damages awarded under section 533C.9, subsection 1, and not the punitive damages permitted under that section. The aggregate liability of the surety or trustee to all persons damaged by a credit services organization's violation of this chapter shall not exceed the amount of the surety account or bond.

6. The bond or the surety account shall be in an amount of at least ten thousand dollars.

7. A depository holding money in a surety account under this chapter shall not convey money in the account to the credit services organization that established the account or a representative of the credit services organization unless the credit services organization or representative presents a statement issued by the secretary of state indicating that section 533C.5, subsection 6, has been satisfied in relation to the account. The secretary of state may conduct investigations and require submission of information as necessary to enforce this subsection.

89 Acts, ch 183, §4 HF 496

533C.5 Registration.

1. A credit services organization shall file a registration statement with the secretary of state before conducting business in this state. The registration statement must contain both of the following:

- a. The name and address of the credit services organization.
- b. The name and address of any person who directly or indirectly owns or controls ten percent or more of the outstanding shares of stock in the credit services organization.

2. The registration statement must also contain one of the following:
  - a. A full and complete disclosure of any litigation or unresolved complaint filed with a governmental authority of this state relating to the operation of the credit services organization.

CHAPTER 535

MONEY AND INTEREST

535.12 Loans by agricultural credit corporation.

1. An agricultural credit corporation, as defined in subsection 4, may lend money pursuant to a written promissory note or other writing evidencing the loan obligation, at a rate of interest which is not more than four percentage points above the lending rate in effect at the farm credit bank of Omaha, Nebraska, for the month during which the writing evidencing the loan obligation is made, provided that the loan is for an agricultural production purpose as defined in subsection 5 and further provided that the loan would, but for this section, be subject to the maximum rate of interest prescribed by section 535.2, subsection 3, paragraph "a".

2. On or prior to the first day of each calendar month following June 13, 1980, the superintendent of banking shall determine the maximum rate of interest which may be charged pursuant to subsection 1 of this section on loans made by an agricultural credit corporation during that month, and shall cause the maximum rate to be published as soon after determination as possible, as a notice in the Iowa Administrative Bulletin or as a legal notice in a newspaper of general circulation published in Polk county. The maximum rate so determined shall be effective as provided in subsection 1 of this section regardless of the date of publication of the notice, except that no agricultural credit corporation shall be found in violation of this chapter solely on account of having made a loan on or prior to the day on which a notice of a maximum rate is published as provided in this subsection, if the loan would have been lawful if made during the preceding calendar month.

3. This section does not prohibit an agricultural credit corporation from lending money as otherwise permitted by law.

4. As used in this section, "agricultural credit corporation" means a corporation which has been designated by the farm credit bank of Omaha, Nebraska, as an agricultural credit corporation eligible to sell or discount loans to that bank pursuant to 12 U.S.C. §2074.

5. As used in this section "agricultural production purpose" means a purpose related to the production of agricultural products. "Agricultural products" includes agricultural, horticultural, viticultural, and dairy products, livestock, wildlife, poultry, bees, forest products thereof, and any and all products produced on farms.

CHAPTER 535B

MORTGAGE BANKERS AND BROKERS

535B.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Mortgage banker" means a person who does one or more of the following:
  - a. Makes at least four first mortgage loans on residential real property located in this state in a calendar year.
  - b. Originates at least four first mortgage loans on residential real property located in this state in a calendar year and sells four or more such loans in the secondary market.
  - c. Services at least four first mortgage loans on residential real property located in this state. However, a natural person, who services less than fifteen first mortgage loans on residential real estate within the state and who does not sell or transfer first mortgage loans, is exempt from this paragraph if that person is otherwise exempt from the provisions of this chapter.
2. "Mortgage broker" means a person who arranges or negotiates, or attempts to arrange or negotiate, at least four first mortgage loans or commitments for four or more such loans on residential real property located in this state in a calendar year.
3. "Residential real property" means real property, which is an owner-occupied single-family or two-family dwelling, located in this state, occupied or used or intended to be occupied or used for residential purposes, including an interest in any real property covered under chapter 499B.
4. "Person" means an individual, an association, joint venture or joint stock company, partnership, limited partnership, business corporation, nonprofit corporation, or any other group of individuals however organized.
"Natural person" means an individual who is not an association, joint venture, or joint stock company, partnership, limited partnership, business corporation, nonprofit corporation, other business entity, or any other group of individuals or business entities, however organized.
5. "Licensee" means a person licensed under this chapter; however, any individual who is acting solely as an employee or agent of a mortgage banker or broker licensed under this Act need not be separately licensed.
6. "Administrator" means the superintendent of the division of savings and loans of the department of commerce.
7. "First mortgage loan" means a loan of money secured by a first lien on residential real property and includes a refinancing of a contract of sale, an assumption of a prior loan, and a refinancing of a prior loan.
8. "Registrar" means a person registered under section 535B.3.

535B.2 Exemptions.

This chapter, except for sections 535B.3, 535B.11, 535B.12, and 535B.13, does not apply to any of the following:

1. A national bank.
2. A federally chartered savings and loan association.
3. A federally chartered savings bank.
4. A federally chartered credit union.
5. A loan company licensed under chapter 536 or 536A.
6. A bank organized under chapter 524.
7. A savings and loan association or savings bank organized under chapter

8. A credit union organized under chapter 533.
9. An insurance company organized under the laws of this state and subject to regulation by the commissioner of insurance.
10. A wholly owned subsidiary of an organization listed in subsections 1 through 9 if the listed organization has its principal place of business in Iowa.
11. A bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or insurance company organized or chartered under the laws of any other state, provided the financial institution or insurance company has a place of business in Iowa or in a county of another state if that county is contiguous to an Iowa border.
12. Mortgage lenders or mortgage bankers maintaining an office in this state whose principal business in this state is conducted with or through mortgage lenders or mortgage bankers otherwise exempt under this section and which maintain a place of business in this state.

535B.3 Registration.

1. A person exempt under section 535B.2, subsection 10, 11, or 12, shall register with the administrator.
2. A registrant shall submit to the administrator a registration statement on forms provided by the administrator. The forms shall include all addresses at which business is to be conducted, the names and titles of each director and principal officer of the business, and a description of the activities of the applicant in such detail as the administrator may require.
3. The registrant shall pay an annual registration fee of one hundred dollars.
4. A registration under this chapter is not assignable.

89 Acts, ch 133, §6 HF 645

535B.4 General licensing requirements.

1. A person shall not act as a mortgage banker or mortgage broker in this state or use the title "mortgage banker" or "mortgage broker" without first obtaining a license from the administrator.
2. License applicants shall submit to the administrator an application on forms provided by the administrator. The forms shall include, at a minimum, all addresses at which business is to be conducted, the names and titles of each director and principal officers of the business, and a description of the activities of the applicant in such detail as the administrator may require.
3. The applicant shall also submit a recently prepared certified financial statement.
4. The applicant for an initial license shall submit a fee in the amount of five hundred dollars.
5. Licenses granted under this chapter are not assignable.
6. Licenses granted under this chapter expire on the next June 30 after their issuance.
7. Applications for renewals of licenses under this chapter must be filed with the administrator before June 1 of the year of expiration and must be accompanied by a fee of two hundred dollars for a license to transact business solely as a mortgage broker, and four hundred dollars for a license to transact business as a mortgage banker.

89 Acts, ch 133, §7 HF 645
 Subsection 7 amended

535B.9 Bonds required of license applicants.

1. An applicant for a license shall file with the administrator a bond furnished by a surety company authorized to do business in this state. The bond shall be in the amount of fifteen thousand dollars for an applicant seeking to transact business solely as a mortgage broker, or thirty thousand dollars for an applicant seeking to transact business as a mortgage banker. The bond shall be continuous in nature until canceled by the surety with not less than thirty days' notice in writing to the mortgage broker or mortgage banker and to the administrator indicating the surety's intention to cancel the bond on a specific date. The bond shall be for the use of the state and any persons who may have causes of action against the applicant. The bond shall be conditioned upon the applicant's faithfully conforming to and abiding by this chapter and any rules adopted under this chapter and shall require that the surety pay to the state and to any persons all moneys that become due or owing to the state and to the persons from the applicant by virtue of this chapter.

2. In lieu of filing a bond, the applicant may pledge an alternative form of collateral acceptable to the administrator, if the alternative collateral provides protection to the state and any aggrieved person that is equivalent to that provided by a bond.

89 Acts, ch 133, §8 HF 645
Section stricken and rewritten

535B.11 Servicing mortgages and payoffs.

A licensee or other mortgagee who services mortgages on residential real estate located in this state shall do all of the following:

1. Disburse required funds paid by the mortgagor and held in escrow for the payment of real estate taxes and insurance payments no later than their final due date.

2. Pay penalties incurred by the mortgagor due to the licensee's or mortgagee's failure to meet the due dates referred to in subsection 1 unless the licensee or mortgagee can show that the failure was due solely to the fact that the mortgagor received a statement of the amount due more than fifteen days before the due date and has failed to remit it to the licensee or mortgagee.

3. Perform a complete escrow analysis yearly. A clear and legible copy of the yearly analysis shall be promptly mailed to the mortgagor. If there is a change in the payment amount, the analysis shall be mailed at least twenty days before the effective date of the change. The summary shall contain all of the following information:

a. The name and address of the mortgagee.
b. The name and address of the mortgagor.
c. A summary of escrow account activity during the year which includes all of the following:

(1) The balance of the escrow account at the beginning of the year.
(2) The aggregate amount of deposits to the escrow account during the year.
(3) The aggregate amount of withdrawals from the escrow account for each of the following categories:

(a) Payments against loan principal.
(b) Payments against interest.
(c) Payments against real estate taxes.
(d) Payments for real property insurance premiums.
(e) All other withdrawals.
(4) A summary of loan principal for the year as follows:
(a) The amount of principal outstanding at the beginning of the year.
(b) The aggregate amount of payments against principal during the year.
(c) The amount of principal outstanding at the end of the year.

Compliance with sections 524.905, 533.16, 534.206, and 536A.20 shall constitute compliance with this subsection.

4. Answer in writing, within ten business days of receipt, any written request for payoff information received from a mortgagor or the mortgagor's designated representative.

5. Execute and deliver a release after payoff and within forty-five days after receipt of correct payment. If the licensee or mortgagee fails to execute and deliver a release of lien to the mortgagor or the mortgagor's designated representative, the mortgagor or the mortgagor's designated representative may notify in writing the administrator and any other official to whom the mortgagee is primarily subject. The administrator shall promptly mail by certified mail to the licensee or mortgagee a notice stating that the licensee or mortgagee must both release the mortgage and deliver the release to the administrator within fifteen days of receipt of said notice or face a penalty as provided in this section. If the licensee or mortgagee fails to make the release and deliver it to the administrator, the administrator may assess a penalty not to exceed fifty dollars for each day of delinquency after the fifteen days. The administrator may waive the penalty if the administrator finds the failure was not intentional and resulted from bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid error.

6. If a person in connection with a first mortgage loan has possession of an abstract of title and fails to deliver the abstract to the borrower within twenty calendar days of the borrower's request made by certified mail return receipt requested in connection with a proposed sale of the property, then the borrower may authorize the preparation of a new abstract of title to the property and the person failing to deliver the original abstract shall pay to the borrower the reasonable costs of preparation. If the borrower brings an action against the person failing to deliver to recover such payment and in the action recovers the payment, then the borrower shall also be entitled to recover attorney fees and court costs incurred in the action.

7. When the servicing of a first mortgage loan is transferred, sold, purchased, or accepted by a licensee or registrant, the licensee or registrant who is transferring or selling the servicing shall issue to the mortgagor, within five business days of the transfer, a notice which shall include at a minimum:

- a. The name and address of the licensee or registrant transferring or selling the servicing.
- b. The name and address of the licensee or registrant accepting or purchasing the servicing.
- c. The effective date of the transfer.
- d. A statement concerning the effect of the transfer on the terms and conditions of the mortgage.
- e. The address where payments are to be submitted for at least the next three months.
- f. The name and address of the licensee or registrant to whom questions related to the mortgage may be addressed.

89 Acts, ch 133, §9 HF 645
NEW subsection 7

535B.16 Notice to administrator.

A licensee or registrant maintaining an office in the state shall notify the administrator in writing at least thirty days before closing or otherwise ceasing operations at any office in the state.

CHAPTER 536

IOWA REGULATED LOAN ACT

536.2 Application—fees.

Application for such license shall be in writing, under oath, and in the form prescribed by the superintendent, and shall contain the name and the address (both of the residence and place of business) of the applicant, and if the applicant is a copartnership or association, of every member thereof, and if a corporation, of each officer and director thereof; also the county and municipality with street and number, if any, of the place where the business of making loans under the provisions of this chapter is to be conducted and such further relevant information as the superintendent may require. Such applicant at the time of making such application shall pay to the superintendent the sum of fifty dollars if the liquid assets of the applicant are not in excess of twenty thousand dollars, and the sum of one hundred dollars if the liquid assets of the applicant are in excess of twenty thousand dollars, as a fee for investigating the application and the additional sum of one hundred twenty-five dollars if the liquid assets of the applicant are not in excess of twenty thousand dollars, and two hundred fifty dollars if the liquid assets of the applicant are in excess of twenty thousand dollars, as an annual license fee.

Every applicant shall also prove, in form satisfactory to the superintendent, that the applicant has available for the operation of such business at the place of business specified in the application, liquid assets of at least five thousand dollars, or that the applicant has at least the said amount actually in use in the conduct of such business at such place of business.

89 Acts, ch 257, §27 HF 234
Unnumbered paragraph 1 amended

536.16 Nonresident licensees—face-to-face solicitation.

Notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, a person who neither has an office physically located in this state nor engages in face-to-face solicitation in this state, if authorized by another state to make loans in that state at a rate of finance charge in excess of the rate provided in chapter 535, shall not be subject to the following provisions of this chapter:

1. Section 536.2 to the extent it requires payment of an annual license fee in excess of two hundred fifty dollars and requires a person to prove the person has any dollar amount of liquid assets or the use of any dollar amount in the conduct of the person's business at the licensed place of business.

2. Section 536.4, however, the superintendent may deny a license if upon investigation the superintendent determines that the financial responsibility, experience, character or general fitness of the person, or members, officers, or directors thereof, do not warrant the belief that the business will be operated lawfully, honestly, fairly and efficiently, within the purposes of this chapter.

3. Section 536.6 to the extent it requires a person to have any dollar amount of assets available for a licensed place of business.

4. Section 536.10 to the extent it requires the superintendent to make an examination of the affairs, place of business and records of the person on a periodic basis.

89 Acts, ch 257, §28 HF 234
Subsection 1 amended

CHAPTER 536A

IOWA INDUSTRIAL LOAN LAW

536A.7 Application for license.

Applications for licenses to engage in the business of operating industrial loan companies shall be in writing on such forms as may be prescribed by the superintendent. The application shall give the name of the corporation, the location where the business is to be conducted, the street address of the place of business, the names and addresses of the officers and directors of the corporation and such other relevant information as the superintendent shall require. At the time of making such application the applicant shall pay to the superintendent the sum of fifty dollars to cover the cost of the investigation of the applicant. The applicant shall also pay to the superintendent the sum of two hundred fifty dollars as an annual license fee for the period ending December 31 next following the application; provided that if the license is granted after June 30 in any year, the license fee for the remainder of that year shall be one hundred twenty-five dollars and any license fee paid by the applicant in excess of that amount shall be refunded by the superintendent.

89 Acts, ch 257, §29 HF 234
Section amended

536A.23 Powers of industrial loan companies.

No industrial loan company licensed under the provisions of this chapter shall have the power and authority to:

1. Charge, receive or collect interest at a rate exceeding ten cents on the hundred by the year, except that the interest may be computed when the note is made on the full amount of the cash advanced on the loan from the date of the note to the date of the final installment thereof, and the interest so computed may be included in the note, notwithstanding any agreement to pay the entire amount in installments; or the interest may be computed on the amount of the note and discounted or collected in advance when the loan is made, notwithstanding any agreement to pay the entire amount in installments. If the note is repayable in other than equal monthly installments, the interest may be an amount computed on the basis of the effective rates permitted as provided above; provided, however, there shall be no compounding of interest and when an interest rate as authorized herein is advertised, or negotiated for with a prospective borrower, with intent that it be computed by either of the two methods authorized herein, they being the "add on" method or the "discount" method, in such case such rate shall be further described as to the method of computation to be used, but interest computed by either method shall be stated to the borrower as provided in section 537.3210.

If a borrower elects to repay a loan secured by a mortgage or deed of trust upon real property which is a single-family or two-family dwelling or agricultural land at a date earlier than is required by the terms of the loan, the licensee shall be governed by section 535.9.

The limitation on interest rate which is contained in this subsection shall not apply to any loan in which the borrower is a corporation or investment trust or any other person who is referred to in section 535.2, subsection 2.

2. Charge, receive, or collect in advance, a service charge in excess of one dollar for each fifty dollars of the amount of the note, not to exceed a total of one hundred twenty dollars.

3. Require any borrower to purchase insurance from the lender as a condition for obtaining a loan. However, an industrial loan company may collect from the borrower, at the option of the borrower, and transmit the premiums charged for insuring real or personal property used by the borrower as security for a loan and provided that such insurance is obtained from a licensed insurance agent for an insurance company authorized to do business in Iowa; and the premiums charged for insuring the life of one party on the loan in an amount not to exceed the total amount of the note or contract, including cash advance, interest and service charge, provided that no licensee shall require that the contract of life insurance be outstanding for more than the unpaid balance of the indebtedness and provided that such insurance is obtained from a licensed insurance agent for an insurance company authorized to do business in Iowa; and an industrial loan company may receive and transmit the premiums charged for accident and health insurance on the borrower, provided such insurance bears a reasonable relationship to the existing hazards or risk of loss, and the aggregate benefits of which shall not exceed the approximate amount of the contractual payments on the loan outstanding at the time of loss, and provided that such insurance is obtained from a licensed agent for an insurance company authorized to do business in Iowa. However, all life insurance rates in connection with industrial loans shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the insurance commissioner of the state of Iowa.

4. Industrial loan companies licensed under the provisions of this chapter may purchase notes, contracts, mortgages, accounts, receivables, leases and securities of a type and kind authorized by the superintendent.

5. In addition to the other charges authorized by this chapter, industrial loan companies licensed under this chapter may collect an appraisal fee on a loan secured by a mortgage or deed of trust upon real property, if the appraisal fee is bona fide, reasonable in amount, and not for purposes of circumvention or evasion of this chapter.

89 Acts, ch 295, §1 SF 462
Subsection 2 stricken and rewritten

536A.30 Nonresident licensees—face-to-face solicitation.

Notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, a person which neither has an office physically located in this state nor engages in face-to-face solicitation in this state, if authorized by another state to make loans in that state at a rate of finance charge in excess of the rate provided in chapter 535, shall not be subject to the following provisions of this chapter:

1. Section 536A.7, to the extent it requires payment of an annual license fee in excess of two hundred fifty dollars.

2. Section 536A.8.

3. Section 536A.10, subsections 2, 3 and 4.

4. Section 536A.12, to the extent it requires a licensee to pay an annual license fee which, when combined with that required in section 536A.7, is in excess of ten dollars.

5. Section 536A.15, to the extent it requires the superintendent to make an examination and audit of the books, accounts and records of the licensee on a periodic basis.

Subsection 1 amended

CHAPTER 537

CONSUMER CREDIT CODE

537.1302 Definition—Truth in Lending Act.

As used in this chapter, "Truth in Lending Act" means title 1 of the Consumer Credit Protection Act, in subchapter 1 of chapter 41 of title 15 of the United States Code, as amended to and including January 1, 1989, and includes regulations issued pursuant to that Act prior to January 1, 1989.

89 Acts, ch 68, §1 HF 552
Section amended

537.2402 Finance charge for consumer loans pursuant to open-end credit.

1. If authorized to make supervised loans, a creditor may contract for and receive a finance charge with respect to a loan pursuant to open-end credit not exceeding that permitted in this section.

2. For each billing cycle, a charge may be made which is a percentage of an amount not exceeding the greatest of the following:

a. The average daily balance of the open-end account in the billing cycle for which the charge is made, which is the sum of the amount unpaid each day during that cycle, divided by the number of days in that cycle. The amount unpaid on a day is determined by adding to the balance, if any, unpaid as of the beginning of that day all purchases and other debits and deducting all payments and other credits made or received as of that day.

b. The balance of the open-end account at the beginning of the first day of the billing cycle, after deducting all payments and credits made in the cycle except credits attributable to purchases charged to the account during the cycle.

c. The median amount within a specified range including the balance of the open-end account not exceeding that permitted by paragraph "a" or "b". A charge may be made pursuant to this paragraph only if the organization, subject to classifications and differentiations it may reasonably establish, makes the same charge on all balances within the specified range and if the percentage when applied to the median amount within the range does not produce a charge exceeding the charge resulting from applying that percentage to the lowest amount within the range by more than eight percent of the charge on the median amount.

3. If the billing cycle is monthly, the charge shall not exceed an amount equal to one and sixty-five hundredths percent of the maximum amount pursuant to subsection 2. If the billing cycle is not monthly, the maximum charge for the billing cycle shall bear the same relation to the applicable monthly maximum charge as the number of days in the billing cycle bears to three hundred sixty-five divided by twelve. A billing cycle is monthly if the closing date of the cycle is the same date each month or does not vary by more than four days from the regular date.

4. If the charge determined pursuant to subsection 3 is less than fifty cents, a charge may be made which does not exceed fifty cents if the billing cycle is monthly or longer, or the pro rata part of fifty cents which bears the same relation to fifty cents as the number of days in the billing cycle bears to three hundred sixty-five divided by twelve if the billing cycle is shorter than monthly.

5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter or chapter 535, a creditor may contract for and receive a finance charge without limitation as to amount or rate with respect to a loan pursuant to open-end credit obtained pursuant to a credit card issued by the creditor which entitles the cardholder to purchase or lease goods or services from at least one hundred persons not related to the card issuer.

6. If the differential treatment of this section based on the number of persons honoring a credit card is found to be unconstitutional, a creditor may contract for and receive a finance charge not to exceed twenty-two percent per year for a loan pursuant to open-end credit.

89 Acts, ch 295, §2 SF 462
Subsection 3 amended

537.2501 Additional charges.

1. In addition to the finance charge permitted by parts 2 and 4, a creditor may contract for and receive the following additional charges:

a. Official fees and taxes.

b. Charges for insurance as described in subsection 2.

c. Amounts actually paid or to be paid by the creditor for registration, certificate of title or license fees.

d. Annual charges, payable in advance, for the privilege of using a credit card which entitles the cardholder to purchase or lease goods or services from at least one hundred persons not related to the card issuer, under an arrangement pursuant to which the debts resulting from the purchases or leases are payable to the card issuer.

e. With respect to a debt secured by an interest in land, the following "closing costs," provided they are bona fide, reasonable in amount, and not for the purpose of circumvention or evasion of this chapter:

(1) Fees or premiums for title examination, abstract of title, title insurance, or similar purposes including surveys.

(2) Fees for preparation of a deed, settlement statement, or other documents, if not paid to the creditor or a person related to the creditor.

(3) Escrows for future payments of taxes, including assessments for improvements, insurance and water, sewer and land rents.

(4) Fees for notarizing deeds and other documents, if not paid to the creditor or a person related to the creditor.

f. With respect to open-end credit pursuant to a credit card issued by the creditor which entitles the cardholder to purchase or lease goods or services from at least one hundred persons not related to the card issuer, the parties may contract for an over-limit charge not to exceed ten dollars if the balance of the account exceeds the credit limit established pursuant to the agreement. The over-limit charge under this paragraph shall not be assessed again in a subsequent billing cycle unless in a subsequent billing cycle the account balance has been reduced below the credit limit.

If the differential treatment of this subsection based on the number of persons honoring a credit card is found to be unconstitutional, the parties may contract for the over-limit charge as described in this paragraph in any consumer credit transaction pursuant to open-end credit, and the other conditions relating to the over-limit charge shall remain in effect.

g. A surcharge of not more than ten dollars for each dishonored payment instrument provided that the fee is clearly and conspicuously disclosed in the cardholder agreement. However, the surcharge shall not be assessed against the maker if the reason for the dishonor of the instrument is that the maker has stopped payment pursuant to section 554.4403.

h. Charges for other benefits, including insurance, conferred on the consumer, if the benefits are of value to the consumer and if the charges are reasonable in relation to the benefits, are of a type which is not for credit, and are authorized as permissible additional charges by rule adopted by the administrator.

2. An additional charge may be made for insurance written in connection with the transaction, as follows:

a. With respect to insurance against loss of or damage to property, or against liability arising out of the ownership or use of property, if the creditor furnishes a clear, conspicuous and specific statement in writing to the consumer setting forth the cost of the insurance if obtained from or through the creditor and stating that the consumer may choose the person through whom the insurance is to be obtained.

b. With respect to consumer credit insurance providing life, accident, health, or unemployment coverage, if the insurance coverage is not required by the creditor, and this fact is clearly and conspicuously disclosed in writing to the consumer, and if, in order to obtain the insurance in connection with the extension of credit, the consumer gives specific dated and separately signed affirmative written indication of the consumer's desire to do so after written disclosure to the consumer of the cost. However, credit unemployment insurance shall be permitted under this paragraph if all of the following conditions have been met:

(1) The insurance provides coverage beginning with the first day of unemployment. However, the policy may include a waiting period before the consumer may file a claim.

(2) The insurance shall be sold separately and shall be separately priced from any other insurance offered or sold at the same time. The credit unemployment insurance need not be sold separately or separately priced from other insurance offered if it is included as part of a mailed insurance offering by a credit card issuer to its credit cardholders. However, credit unemployment insurance shall not be sold in conjunction with an application for a credit card or for the renewal of a credit card.

(3) The premium rates have been affirmatively approved by the insurance division of the department of commerce. In approving or establishing the rates, the division shall review the insurance company's actuarial data to assure that the rates are fair and reasonable. The insurance commissioner shall either hire or contract with a qualified actuary to review the data. The insurance division shall obtain reimbursement from the insurance company for the cost of the actuarial review prior to approving the rates. In addition, the rates shall be made in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) Rates shall not be excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory.

(b) Due consideration shall be given to all relevant factors within and outside this state but rates shall be deemed to be reasonable under this section and section 537.2501 if they reasonably may be expected to produce a ratio of fifty percent by dividing claims incurred by premiums earned.

3. With respect to open-end credit obtained pursuant to a credit card issued by the creditor which entitles the cardholder to purchase or lease goods or services from at least one hundred persons not related to the card issuer, the creditor may contract for and receive any charge lawfully contained in a prior agreement between the consumer and a prior creditor from whom the creditor currently issuing the credit card acquired the credit card account, if the account was acquired in an arm's-length for-value sale from a nonrelated or nonaffiliated creditor. The creditor may charge any charge on new open-end credit accounts lawfully permitted in a prior agreement between a consumer and a prior creditor from whom the creditor currently issuing the credit card acquired the credit card accounts.

537.2502 Delinquency charges.

1. With respect to a precomputed consumer credit transaction, the parties may contract for a delinquency charge on any installment not paid in full within ten days after its due date, as originally scheduled or as deferred, in an amount not exceeding the greater of either of the following:

a. One and one-half percent of the unpaid amount of the installment, or a maximum of five dollars.

b. The deferral charge that would be permitted to defer the unpaid amount of the installment for the period that it is delinquent.

2. A delinquency charge under subsection 1, paragraph "a," may be collected only once on an installment however long it remains in default. No delinquency charge may be collected with respect to a deferred installment unless the installment is not paid in full within ten days after its deferred due date. A delinquency charge may be collected at the time it accrues or at any time afterward.

3. No delinquency charge may be collected under subsection 1, paragraph "a", on an installment which is paid in full within ten days after its scheduled or deferred installment due date even though an earlier maturing installment or a delinquency or deferral charge on an earlier installment may not have been paid in full. For purposes of this subsection payments are applied first to current installments and then to delinquent installments.

4. With respect to open-end credit obtained pursuant to a credit card issued by the creditor which entitles the cardholder to purchase or lease goods or services from at least one hundred persons not related to the card issuer, the parties may contract for a delinquency charge on any payment not paid in full within ten days after its due date, as originally scheduled or as deferred, in an amount not to exceed ten dollars.

5. A delinquency charge under subsection 4 may be collected only once on a payment however long it remains in default. No delinquency charge may be collected with respect to a deferred payment unless the payment is not paid in full within ten days after its deferred due date. A delinquency charge may be collected at the time it accrues or at any time afterward.

6. No delinquency charge may be collected under subsection 4 on a payment which is paid in full within ten days after its scheduled or deferred due date even though an earlier maturing payment or a delinquency or deferred charge on an earlier payment has not been paid in full. For purposes of this subsection, payments are applied first to amounts due for the current billing cycle and then to delinquent payments.

7. If the differential treatment of subsection 4 based on the number of persons honoring a credit card is found to be unconstitutional, the parties may contract for the delinquency charge as described in subsection 4 in any consumer credit transaction pursuant to open-end credit, and the other conditions provided in this section relating to delinquency charges remain in effect.

537.3605 Disclosures.

In a consumer rental purchase agreement, the lessor shall disclose the following items, as applicable:

1. The total of scheduled payments accompanied by an explanation that this term means the "total dollar amount of lease payments you will have to make to acquire ownership".
2. By item, the total number, amounts, and timing of all lease payments and other charges including taxes or official fees paid to or through the lessor which are necessary to acquire ownership of the property.
3. Any initial or advance payment such as a delivery charge, security deposit, or trade-in allowance.
4. A statement that the lessee will not own the property until the lessee has made the total of payments necessary to acquire ownership of the property.
5. A statement that the total of payments does not include additional charges such as late payment charges, and a separate listing and explanation of these charges as applicable.
6. If applicable, a statement that the lessee is responsible for the fair market value of the property if and as of the time it is lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed.
7. A description of the goods or merchandise including model numbers as applicable and a statement indicating whether the property is new or used. It is not a violation of this subsection to indicate that the property is used if it is actually new.
8. A statement that at any time after the first periodic payment is made, the lessee may acquire ownership of the property by exercising the option to purchase the property, and at what price, or by what formula or method the purchase price will be determined. It is not a violation of this subsection for the lessor and the lessee to agree in writing to allow the lessee to acquire ownership of the property for less than the amounts referred to in this subsection.

9. The cash price of the merchandise.

89 Acts, ch 128, §1 SF 486
Subsection 8 stricken and rewritten

537.3608 Acquiring ownership.

1. A lessor shall not offer a consumer rental purchase agreement in which fifty percent of all lease payments necessary to acquire ownership of the leased property exceeds the cash price of the leased property. When fifty percent of all lease payments made by a lessee equals the cash price of the property disclosed to the lessee pursuant to section 537.3605, subsection 9, the lessee shall acquire ownership of the leased property and the agreement shall terminate.

2. At any time after tendering an initial lease payment, a lessee may acquire ownership of the property that is the subject of the consumer rental purchase agreement by tendering an amount equal to the amount by which the cash price of the leased property exceeds fifty percent of all lease payments made by the lessee.

3. It is not a violation of this section for the lessor and the lessee to agree in writing to allow the lessee to acquire ownership of the property for less than the amounts referred to in this section.

89 Acts, ch 128, §2 SF 486
Section stricken and rewritten

537.3621 Damages.

In case of a violation of a provision of this part with respect to a consumer rental purchase agreement, or a violation of the Iowa debt collection practices Act, article 7 of this chapter, where a debt arises in connection with a consumer rental purchase agreement, the lessee in the agreement may recover from the person committing the violation, or may set off or counterclaim in an action by that person, actual damages, with a minimum recovery of three hundred dollars or twenty-five percent of the total cost to acquire ownership under the consumer rental purchase agreement, whichever is greater; attorneys' fees; and court costs.

89 Acts, ch 128, §3 SF 486
Section amended

537.6201 Applicability.

This part applies to all of the following:

1. Creditors engaged in consumer credit transactions and acts, practices or conduct involving consumer credit transactions to which this chapter applies pursuant to section 537.1201, but not to those licensed, certificated, or otherwise authorized to engage in business by chapter 524, 533, 534, 536 or 536A.

2. Debt collectors, as defined in section 537.7102, subsection 3, to whose acts, practices, or conduct this chapter applies pursuant to section 537.1201 if the total debt collected by a debt collector in the preceding calendar year exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars, or if not, if the total debt collected during the current calendar year exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars, but this part does not apply to those licensed, certified, or otherwise authorized to engage in business under chapter 524, 533, 534, 536, or 536A.

89 Acts, ch 68, §5 HF 552
Subsection 2 amended

537.6202 Notification.

1. Persons subject to this part shall file notification with the administrator within thirty days after commencing business in this state or within thirty days after enactment of this Act,* whichever is applicable, and, thereafter, on or before January 31 of each year. The notification must state all of the following:

a. Name of the person.

b. Every name in which business is transacted if different from the name of the person.

c. Address of principal office, whether or not within this state.

d. Address of all offices or retail stores, if any, in this state at which consumer credit transactions are entered into or acts, practices or conduct involving consumer credit transactions are engaged in, or in the case of a person taking assignments of obligations, any offices or places of business within this state at which business is transacted or, in the case of debt collectors, any offices in this state from or at which debt collection is engaged in.

e. If consumer credit transactions or acts, practices or conduct involving consumer credit transactions or debt collection, are engaged in otherwise than at an office or retail store in this state and this chapter applies to such transactions, acts, practices or conduct, pursuant to section 537.1201, a brief description of the manner in which they are engaged in.

f. Address of designated agent upon whom service of process may be made in this state.

g. Whether or not supervised loans are made.

2. If information in a notification becomes inaccurate after filing, no further notification is required until the following January 31.

89 Acts, ch 68, §6 HF 552

*April 27, 1989

Subsection 1, unnumbered paragraph 1 amended

537.6203 Fees.

1. A person required to file notification shall pay to the administrator an annual fee of ten dollars. The fee shall be paid with the filing of the first notification and on or before January 31 of each succeeding year.

2. A person required to file notification who is a seller, lessor, or lender and who is not an assignee shall pay an additional fee at the time and in the manner stated in subsection 1 of ten dollars for each one hundred thousand dollars, or part thereof exceeding ten thousand dollars, of the average unpaid balances, including unpaid scheduled periodic payments under consumer leases, of obligations arising from consumer credit transactions entered into or modified by the person in this state and held on the last day of each calendar month during the preceding calendar year and held either by the seller, lessor, or lender, or by an immediate or remote assignee who has not filed notification. The unpaid balances of assigned obligations held by an assignee who has not filed notifications are presumed to be the unpaid balances of the assigned obligations at the time of their assignment by the seller, lessor, or lender.

3. A person required to file notification who is an assignee shall pay an additional fee at the time and in the manner stated in subsection 1 of ten dollars for each one hundred thousand dollars, or part thereof exceeding ten thousand dollars, of the average unpaid balances including unpaid scheduled periodic payments payable by lessees, of obligations arising from consumer credit transactions entered into or modified in this state, taken by the person by assignment and held by the person on the last day of each calendar month during the preceding calendar year.

4. In addition to the penalties provided by section 537.6113, subsection 3, the administrator may collect a charge, established by rule, not exceeding twenty-five dollars from each person required to pay fees under this section who fails to pay the fees in full within thirty days after they are due.

5. Moneys collected under this section shall be deposited in a consumer credit administration fund in the state treasury and shall be used for the administration of chapter 537. The moneys are subject to warrant upon certification of the administrator and are appropriated for these purposes. Notwithstanding section 8.33, the moneys in the fund do not revert at the end of a fiscal period.

89 Acts, ch 68, §7 HF 552

537.7102 Definitions.

As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Debt" means an actual or alleged obligation arising out of a consumer credit transaction, consumer rental purchase agreement, or a transaction which would have been a consumer credit transaction either if a finance charge was made, if the obligation was not payable in installments, if a lease was for a term of four months or less, or if a lease was of an interest in land. A debt includes a check as defined in section 554.3104 given in a transaction in connection with a consumer rental purchase agreement, in a transaction which was a consumer credit sale or in a transaction which would have been a consumer credit sale if credit was granted and if a finance charge was made.

2. "Debt collection" means an action, conduct or practice in soliciting debts for collection or in the collection or attempted collection of a debt.

3. "Debt collector" means a person engaging, directly or indirectly, in debt collection, whether for the person, the person's employer, or others, and includes a person who sells, or offers to sell, forms represented to be a collection system, device, or scheme, intended to be used to collect debts.

4. "Administrator" means the person designated in section 537.6103.

5. "Debtor", for the purposes of this article, means the person obligated.

6. "Creditor", for the purposes of this article, means the person to whom a debtor is obligated, either directly or indirectly, on a debt.

89 Acts, ch 128, §4 SF 486
Subsection 1 amended

537.7103 Prohibited practices.

1. A debt collector shall not collect or attempt to collect a debt by means of an illegal threat, coercion or attempt to coerce. The conduct described in each of the following paragraphs is an illegal threat, coercion or attempt to coerce within the meaning of this subsection:

a. The use, or express or implicit threat of use, of force, violence or other criminal means, to cause harm to a person or to property of a person.

b. The false accusation or threat to falsely accuse a person of fraud or any other crime.

c. False accusations made to a person, including a credit reporting agency, or the threat to falsely accuse, that a debtor is willfully refusing to pay a just debt. However, a failure to reply to requests for payment and a failure to negotiate disputes in good faith are deemed willful refusal.

d. The threat to sell or assign to another an obligation of the debtor with an attending representation or implication that the result of the sale or assignment will be to subject the debtor to harsh, vindictive or abusive collection attempts.

e. The false threat that nonpayment of a debt may result in the arrest of a person or the seizure, garnishment, attachment or sale of property or wages of that person.

f. An action or threat to take an action prohibited by this chapter or any other law.

2. A debt collector shall not oppress, harass or abuse a person in connection with the collection or attempted collection of a debt of that person or another person. The following conduct is oppressive, harassing or abusive within the meaning of this subsection:

a. The use of profane or obscene language or language that is intended to abuse the hearer or reader and which by its utterance would tend to incite an immediate breach of the peace.

b. The placement of telephone calls to the debtor without disclosure of the name of the business or company the debt collector represents.

c. Causing expense to a person in the form of long distance telephone tolls, telegram fees or other charges incurred by a medium of communication by attempting to deceive or mislead persons as to the true purpose of the notice, letter, message or communication.

d. Causing a telephone to ring or engaging a person in telephone conversation repeatedly or continuously or at unusual hours or times known to be inconvenient, with intent to annoy, harass or threaten a person.

3. A debt collector shall not disseminate information relating to a debt or debtor as follows:

a. The communication or threat to communicate or imply the fact of a debt to a person other than the debtor or a person who might reasonably be expected to be liable for the debt, except with the written permission of the debtor given after default. For the purposes of this paragraph, the use of language on envelopes indicating that the communication relates to the collection of a debt is a communication of the debt. However, this paragraph does not prohibit a debt collector from any of the following:

(1) Notifying a debtor of the fact that the debt collector may report a debt to a credit bureau or engage an agent or an attorney for the purpose of collecting the debt.

(2) Reporting a debt to a credit reporting agency or any other person reasonably believed to have a legitimate business need for the information.

(3) Engaging an agent or attorney for the purpose of collecting a debt.

(4) Attempting to locate a debtor whom the debt collector has reasonable grounds to believe has moved from the debtor's residence, where the purpose of the communication is to trace the debtor, and the content of the communication is restricted to requesting information on the debtor's location.

(5) Communicating with the debtor's employer or credit union not more than once during any three-month period when the purpose of the communication is to obtain an employer's or credit union's debt counseling services for the debtor. In the event no response is received by the debt collector from a communication to the debtor's employer or credit union the debt collector may make one inquiry as to whether the communication was received. In addition a debt collector may respond to any communications by a debtor's employer or credit union.

(6) Communicating with the debtor's employer once during any one-month period, if the purpose of the communication is to verify with an employer the fact of the debtor's employment and if the debt collector does not disclose, except as permitted in subparagraph (5), information other than the fact that a debt exists. This subparagraph does not authorize a debt collector to disclose to an employer the fact that a debt is in default.

(7) Communicating the fact of the debt not more than once in any three-month period, with the parents of a minor debtor, or with any trustee of any property of the debtor, conservator of the debtor or the debtor's property, or guardian of the debtor. In addition, a debt collector may respond to inquiry from a parent, trustee, conservator or guardian.

(8) Communicating with the debtor's spouse with the consent of the debtor, or responding to inquiry from the debtor's spouse.

b. The disclosure, publication, or communication of information relating to a person's indebtedness to another person, by publishing or posting a list of indebted persons, commonly known as "deadbeat lists", or by advertising for sale a claim to enforce payment of a debt when the advertisement names the debtor.

c. The use of a form of communication to the debtor, except a telegram, an original notice or other court process, or an envelope displaying only the name and address of a debtor and the return address of the debt collector, intended or so designed as to display or convey information about the debt to another person other than the name, address, and phone number of the debt collector.

4. A debt collector shall not use a fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading representation or means to collect or attempt to collect a debt or to obtain information concerning debtors. The following conduct is fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading within the meaning of this subsection:

a. The use of a business, company or organization name while engaged in the collection of debts, other than the true name of the debt collector's business, company, or organization or the name of the business or company the debt collector represents.

b. The failure to clearly disclose in all written communications made to collect or attempt to collect a debt or to obtain or attempt to obtain information about a debtor, that the debt collector is attempting to collect a debt and that information obtained will be used for that purpose, except where disclosure would tend to embarrass the debtor.

c. A false representation that the debt collector has information in the debt collector's possession or something of value for the debtor, which is made to solicit or discover information about the debtor.

d. The failure to clearly disclose the name and full business address of the person to whom the claim has been assigned at the time of making a demand for money.

e. An intentional misrepresentation, or a representation which tends to create a false impression of the character, extent or amount of a debt, or of its status in a legal proceeding.

f. A false representation, or a representation which tends to create a false impression, that a debt collector is vouched for, bonded by, affiliated with, or an instrumentality, agency or official of the state or an agency of federal, state or local government.

g. The use or distribution or sale of a written communication which simulates or is falsely represented to be a document authorized, issued or approved by a court, an official or other legally constituted or authorized authority, or which tends to create a false impression about its source, authorization or approval.

h. A representation that an existing obligation of the debtor may be increased by the addition of attorney's fees, investigation fees, service fees or other fees or charges, when in fact such fees or charges may not legally be added to the existing obligation.

i. A false representation, or a representation which tends to create a false impression, about the status or true nature of, or services rendered by, the debt collector or the debt collector's business.

5. A debt collector shall not engage in the following conduct to collect or attempt to collect a debt:

a. The seeking or obtaining of a written statement or acknowledgment in any form that specifies that a debtor's obligation is one chargeable upon the property of either husband or wife or both, under section 597.14, when the original obligation was not in fact so chargeable.

b. The seeking or obtaining of a written statement or acknowledgment in any form containing an affirmation of an obligation which has been discharged in bankruptcy, without clearly disclosing the nature and consequences of the affirmation and the fact that the debtor is not legally obligated to make the affirmation. However, this subsection does not prohibit the accepting of promises to pay that are voluntarily written and offered by a bankrupt debtor.

c. The collection of or the attempt to collect from the debtor a part or all of the debt collector's fee for services rendered, unless both of the following are applicable:

(1) The fee is reasonably related to the actions taken by the debt collector.

(2) The debt collector is legally entitled to collect the fee from the debtor.

d. The collection of or the attempt to collect interest or other charge, fee or expense incidental to the principal obligation unless the interest or incidental charge, fee, or expense is expressly authorized by the agreement creating the obligation and is legally chargeable to the debtor, or is otherwise legally chargeable.

e. A communication with a debtor when the debt collector knows that the debtor is represented by an attorney and the attorney's name and address are known, or could be easily ascertained, unless the attorney fails to answer correspondence, return phone calls or discuss the obligation in question, within a reasonable time, or prior approval is obtained from the debtor's attorney or when the communication is a response in the ordinary course of business to the debtor's inquiry.

6. A debt collector shall not use or distribute, sell or prepare for use, a written communication that violates or fails to conform to United States postal laws and regulations.

89 Acts, ch 296, §76 SF 141

Subsection 3, paragraph a, subparagraph (1) amended

CHAPTER 537A

CONTRACTS

537A.4 Gaming contracts void—exceptions.

All promises, agreements, notes, bills, bonds, or other contracts, mortgages or other securities, when the whole or any part of the consideration thereof is for money or other valuable thing won or lost, laid, staked, or bet, at or upon any game of any kind or on any wager, are absolutely void and of no effect.

This section does not apply to a contract for the operation of or for the sale or rental of equipment for games of skill or games of chance, if both the contract and the games are in compliance with chapter 99B. This section does not apply to wagering under the pari-mutuel method of wagering authorized by chapter 99D. This section does not apply to the sale, purchase or redemption of a ticket or share in the state lottery in compliance with chapter 99E. This section does not apply to the sale, purchase, or redemption of any ticket or similar gambling device legally purchased in Indian lands within this state.

Unnumbered paragraph 2 amended

CHAPTER 542

GRAIN DEALERS

542.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Department" means the department of agriculture and land stewardship.
2. "Grain" means any grain for which the United States department of agriculture has established standards including, but not limited to, corn, wheat, oats, soybeans, rye, barley, grain sorghum, flaxseeds, sunflower seed, spelt (emmer) and field peas.
3. "Grain dealer" means a person who buys during any calendar month five hundred bushels of grain or more from the producers of the grain for purposes of resale, milling, or processing. However, "grain dealer" does not include a producer of grain who is buying grain for the producer's own use as seed or feed; a person solely engaged in buying grain future contracts on the board of trade; a person who purchases grain only for sale in a registered feed; a person who purchases grain for sale in a nonregistered customer-formula feed regulated by chapter 198, who purchases less than a total of fifty thousand bushels of grain annually from producers, and who is also exempt as an incidental warehouse operator under chapter 543; a person engaged in the business of selling agricultural seeds regulated by chapter 199; a person buying grain only as a farm manager; an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or conservator of an estate; a bargaining agent as defined in section 542A.1; or a custom livestock feeder.

4. “Producer” means the owner, tenant, or operator of land in this state who has an interest in and receives all or a part of proceeds from the sale of grain produced on that land.

5. “Credit-sale contract” means a contract for the sale of grain pursuant to which the sale price is to be paid more than thirty days after the delivery of the grain to the buyer, and includes but is not limited to those contracts commonly referred to as deferred payment contracts, deferred pricing contracts, and price-later contracts.

6. “Custom livestock feeder” means a person who buys grain for the sole purpose of feeding it to livestock owned by another person in a feedlot as defined in section 172D.1, subsection 6, or a confinement building owned or operated by the custom livestock feeder and located in this state.

7. “Seller” means a person who sells grain which the person has produced or caused to be produced to a licensed grain dealer, and includes a person who executes a credit sale contract as a seller.

8. “Bond” means a bond issued by a surety company or an irrevocable letter of credit issued by a financial institution described in subsection 9.

9. “Financial institution” means a bank or savings and loan association authorized by the state of Iowa or by the laws of the United States, which is a member of the federal deposit insurance corporation or the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, respectively; or the national bank for cooperatives established in the Agricultural Credit Act, Pub. L. No. 100-233.

89 Acts, ch 143, §1001 HF 533
Subsection 9 amended

542.2 Powers and duties of the department.

The department may exercise general supervision over the business operations of grain dealers. The supervisory and regulatory powers authorized by this chapter shall be the responsibility of the warehouse bureau of the department. The department may inspect or cause to be inspected any grain dealer operating in this state and may require the filing of reports pertaining to the operation of the dealer's business. The department shall adopt rules to provide for the efficient administration and regulation of the provisions of this chapter, and may designate an employee of the department to act for the department in any details connected with such administration, including the issuance of licenses and approval of grain dealers' bonds in the name of the department.

89 Acts, ch 143, §101 HF 533
Section amended

542.3 License required—financial responsibility.

1. A person shall not engage in the business of a grain dealer in this state without having obtained a license issued by the department.

2. The type of license required shall be determined as follows:

a. A class 1 license is required if the grain dealer purchases any grain by credit-sale contract, or if the value of grain purchased by the grain dealer from producers during the grain dealer's previous fiscal year exceeds five hundred thousand dollars. Any other grain dealer may elect to be licensed as a class 1 grain dealer.

b. A class 2 license is required for any grain dealer not holding a class 1 license. A class 2 licensee whose purchases from producers during a fiscal year exceed a limit of five hundred thousand dollars in value shall file within thirty days of the date the limit is reached a complete application for a class 1 license. If a class 1 license is denied, the person immediately shall cease doing business as a grain dealer.

3. An application for a license to engage in business as a grain dealer shall be filed with the department and shall be in a form prescribed by the department. The application shall include the name of the applicant, its principal officers if the applicant is a corporation or the active members of a partnership if the applicant is a partnership and the location of the principal office or place of business of the applicant. A separate license shall be required for each location at which records are maintained for transactions of the grain dealer. The application shall be accompanied by a complete financial statement of the applicant setting forth the assets, liabilities and the net worth of the applicant. The financial statement must be prepared according to generally accepted accounting principles. Assets shall be shown at original cost less depreciation. Upon a written request filed with the department, the department or a designated employee may allow asset valuations in accordance with a competent appraisal. Unpriced contracts shall be shown as a liability and valued at the applicable current market price of grain as of the date the financial statement is prepared.

4. In order to receive and retain a class 1 license the following conditions must be satisfied:

a. The grain dealer shall have and maintain a net worth of at least seventy-five thousand dollars, or maintain a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit in the amount of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction thereof of net worth deficiency. However, a person shall not be licensed as a class 1 grain dealer if the person has a net worth of less than thirty-seven thousand five hundred dollars.

b. The grain dealer shall submit, as required by the department, a financial statement that is accompanied by an unqualified opinion based upon an audit performed by a certified public accountant licensed in this state. However, the department may accept a qualification in an opinion that is unavoidable by any audit procedure that is permitted under generally accepted accounting principles. An opinion that is qualified because of a limited audit procedure or because the scope of an audit is limited shall not be accepted by the department. The department shall not require that a grain dealer submit more than one such unqualified opinion per year. The grain dealer may elect, however, to submit a financial statement that is accompanied by the report of a certified public accountant licensed in this state that is based upon a review performed by the certified public accountant in lieu of the audited financial statement specified in this paragraph. However, at any time the department may require a financial statement that is accompanied by the report of a certified public accountant licensed in this state that is based upon a review performed by a certified public accountant if the department has good cause to believe that the net worth or current asset to current liability ratio of a licensee presents a danger to producers or sellers with whom the licensee deals. "Good cause" means that the department has evidence that the licensee issued checks on insufficient funds, evidence of a quality or quantity shortage in a warehouse facility, or evidence of violations of recordkeeping requirements. If a grain dealer making the election engages in credit sale contracts, the grain dealer shall also comply with the provisions of section 542.15, subsection 8.

c. The grain dealer shall have and maintain current assets equal to at least one hundred percent of current liabilities or provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit under the following conditions:

(1) A grain dealer with current assets equal to at least fifty percent of current liabilities may provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction of one thousand dollars of current assets that the grain dealer is lacking to meet the minimum requirement. However, the bond or irrevocable letter of credit shall not be used for longer than six consecutive months in a twelve-month period.

(2) A grain dealer with current assets equal to less than fifty percent of current liabilities may provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction of one thousand dollars of current assets that the grain dealer is lacking to meet the minimum requirement. However, the bond or irrevocable letter of credit shall not be used for longer than thirty consecutive days in a twelve-month period.

5. In order to receive and retain a class 2 license the following conditions must be satisfied:

a. The grain dealer shall have and maintain a net worth of at least thirty-seven thousand five hundred dollars, or maintain a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit in the amount of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction thereof of net deficiency. However, a person shall not be licensed as a class 2 grain dealer if the person has a net worth of less than seventeen thousand five hundred dollars.

b. The grain dealer shall submit, as required by the department, a financial statement that is accompanied by an unqualified opinion based upon an audit performed by a certified public accountant licensed in this state. However, the department may accept a qualification in an opinion that is unavoidable by any audit procedure that is permitted under generally accepted accounting principles. An opinion that is qualified because of a limited audit procedure or because the scope of an audit is limited shall not be accepted by the department. The department shall not require that a grain dealer submit more than one such unqualified opinion per year. The grain dealer may elect, however, to submit a financial statement that is accompanied by the report of a certified public accountant licensed in this state that is based upon a review performed by the certified public accountant in lieu of the audited financial statement specified in this paragraph. However, at any time the department may require a financial statement that is accompanied by the report of a certified public accountant licensed in this state that is based upon a review performed by a certified public accountant if the department has good cause to believe that the net worth or current asset to current liability ratio of a licensee presents a danger to producers or sellers with whom the licensee deals. "Good cause" means that the department has evidence that the licensee issued checks on insufficient funds, evidence of a quality or quantity shortage in a warehouse facility, or evidence of violations of recordkeeping requirements. If a grain dealer making the election engages in credit sale contracts, the grain dealer shall also comply with the provisions of section 542.15, subsection 8.

c. The grain dealer shall have and maintain current assets equal to at least one hundred percent of current liabilities or provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit under the following conditions:

(1) A grain dealer with current assets equal to at least fifty percent of current liabilities may provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction of one thousand dollars of current assets that the grain dealer is lacking to meet the minimum requirement. However, the bond or irrevocable letter of credit shall not be used for longer than six consecutive months in a twelve-month period.

(2) A grain dealer with current assets equal to less than fifty percent of current liabilities may provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction of one thousand dollars of current assets that the grain dealer is lacking to meet the minimum requirement. However, the bond or irrevocable letter of credit shall not be used for longer than thirty consecutive days in a twelve-month period.

6. The department shall adopt rules relating to the form and time of filing of financial statements. The department may require additional information or verification with respect to the financial resources of the applicant and the applicant's ability to pay producers for grain purchased from them.

7. a. When the net worth or current ratio of a licensee in good standing is less than that required by this section, the grain dealer shall correct the deficiency or file a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit within thirty days of written notice by the department. Unless the deficiency is corrected or the deficiency bond or irrevocable letter of credit is filed within thirty days, the grain dealer license shall be suspended.

b. If the department finds that the welfare of grain producers requires emergency action, and incorporates a finding to that effect in its order, immediate suspension of a license may be ordered notwithstanding the thirty-day period otherwise allowed by paragraph "a".

8. A deficiency bond or irrevocable letter of credit filed with the department pursuant to this section shall not be canceled by the issuer on less than ninety days' notice by certified mail to the secretary of agriculture and the principal.

542.5 License.

Upon the filing of the application and compliance with the terms and conditions of this chapter and rules of the department, the department shall issue a license to the applicant. The license shall terminate on the thirtieth of June of each year. A grain dealer's license may be renewed annually by the filing of a renewal fee and a renewal application on a form prescribed by the department. An application for renewal shall be received by the department before the thirtieth of June. A grain dealer license which has terminated may be reinstated by the department upon receipt of a proper renewal application, the renewal fee, and the reinstatement fee as provided in section 542.6 if filed within thirty days from the date of termination of the grain dealer license. The department may cancel a license upon request of the licensee unless a complaint or information is filed against the licensee alleging a violation of a provision of this chapter.

If an applicant has had a license under chapter 542, 542A, or 543 revoked for cause within the past three years, or has been convicted of a felony involving violations of chapter 542, 542A, or 543, or is owned or controlled by a person who has had a license so revoked or who has been so convicted, the department may deny a license to the applicant.

The department may deny a license to an applicant if any of the following apply:

1. The applicant has caused liability to the Iowa grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund in regard to a license issued under this chapter or chapter 543, and the liability has not been discharged, settled, or satisfied.

2. The applicant is owned or controlled by a person who has caused liability to the fund through operations under a license issued under this chapter or chapter 543 and the liability has not been discharged, settled, or satisfied.

542.9 Inspection of premises, books and records.

The department may inspect the premises used by any grain dealer in the conduct of the dealer's business at any time, and the books, accounts, records, and papers of every grain dealer which pertain to grain purchases are subject to inspection by the department during ordinary business hours. The department shall cause the business premises and books, accounts, records, and papers of every grain dealer to be inspected not less than once during each twelve-month period, but not more than four times in a twenty-four month period without good cause. The transporter of grain in transit shall possess bills of lading or other documents covering the grain, and shall present them to any law enforcement officer or to a person designated as an enforcement officer under section 542.13 on demand. If there is good cause to believe that a person is engaged without a license in the business of a grain dealer in this state, the department may inspect the books, papers, and records of the person which pertain to grain purchases.

If the grain dealer does not maintain a place of business in this state, the department is not required to inspect the business premises of the grain dealer, and the grain dealer shall submit all books, records and papers relating to grain transactions occurring within this state to the department for purposes of an inspection required or permitted under this section at any reasonable time and place, including the offices of the department during regular business hours, as ordered by the department or the administrator of the warehouse bureau.

89 Acts, ch 143, §101 HF 533

542.10 Suspension or revocation—notice.

The department may after hearing and upon information being filed with the department by the administrator of the warehouse bureau of the department or upon complaint filed by any person, suspend or revoke the license of any person licensed under this chapter for the violation of or failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or any rule adopted under this chapter. An information or a verified complaint stating the grounds for suspension or revocation shall be filed with the department in triplicate. The department shall notify the licensee of the complaint and furnish the licensee with a copy of the information or the complaint and a copy of the order of the department fixing the time for a hearing, which time shall be at least five days from the date of notification. If the department determines that the public good requires immediate action, the department may, upon the filing of the information or the complaint and without hearing, temporarily suspend a license pending the determination by it of the complaint. Judicial review of the actions of the department may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

The department may revoke a grain dealer's license upon information without hearing if a grain dealer fails to submit to inspection.

542.15 Credit-sale contracts.

1. A grain dealer shall not purchase grain by a credit-sale contract except as provided in this section.

2. A grain dealer shall give written notice to the department prior to engaging in the purchase of grain by credit-sale contracts. Notice shall be on forms provided by the department. The notice shall contain information required by the department.

3. All credit-sale contract forms in the possession of a grain dealer shall have been permanently and consecutively numbered at the time of printing of the forms. A grain dealer shall maintain an accurate record of all credit-sale contract forms and numbers obtained by that dealer. The record shall include the disposition of each numbered form, whether by execution, destruction, or otherwise.

4. A grain dealer who purchases grain by credit-sale contracts shall maintain books, records and other documents as required by the department to establish compliance with this section.

5. In addition to other information as may be required, a credit-sale contract shall contain or provide for all of the following:

- a. The seller's name and address.
- b. The conditions of delivery.
- c. The amount and kind of grain delivered.
- d. The price per bushel or basis of value.
- e. The date payment is to be made.
- f. The duration of the credit-sale contract, which shall not exceed twelve months from the date the contract is executed.

6. Title to all grain sold by a credit-sale contract is in the purchasing dealer as of the time the contract is executed, unless the contract provides otherwise. The contract must be signed by both parties and executed in duplicate. One copy shall be retained by the grain dealer and one copy shall be delivered to the seller. Upon revocation, termination, or cancellation of a grain dealer license, the payment date for all credit-sale contracts shall be advanced to a date not later than thirty days after the effective date of the revocation, termination, or cancellation, and the purchase price for all unpriced grain shall be determined as of the effective date of revocation, termination, or cancellation in accordance with all other provisions of the contract. However, if the business of the grain dealer is sold to another licensed grain dealer, credit-sale contracts may be assigned to the purchaser of the business.

7. A grain dealer shall not purchase grain on credit during any time period in which the grain dealer's current assets are less than fifty percent of current liabilities.

8. A licensed grain dealer who purchases grain by credit-sale contract shall obtain from the seller a signed acknowledgement stating that the seller has received notice that grain purchased by credit-sale contract is not protected by the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund. The form for the acknowledgement shall be prescribed by the department, and the licensed grain dealer and the seller shall each be provided a copy.

89 Acts, ch 143, §403 HF 533
Subsection 7 amended

542.16 Confidentiality of records.

Notwithstanding chapter 22, all financial statements of grain dealers under this chapter shall be kept confidential by the department and its agents and employees and are not subject to disclosure except as follows:

1. Upon waiver by the licensee.
2. In actions or administrative proceedings commenced under this chapter or chapter 543.
3. Disclosure to the Iowa grain indemnity fund board in regard to licensees who present liability to the fund.
4. When required by subpoena or court order.
5. Disclosure to law enforcement agencies in regard to the detection and prosecution of public offenses.
6. When released to a bonding company approved by the department, or released to the United States department of agriculture or any of its divisions.
7. Where released at the request of the Iowa board of accountancy for licensee review and discipline in accordance with chapters 116 and 258A and subject to the confidentiality requirements of section 258A.6.

CHAPTER 542A

GRAIN BARGAINING AGENTS

542A.7 Suspension or revocation of permit.

The department may after hearing and upon information being filed with the department by the administrator of the warehouse bureau of the department or upon complaint filed by any person, suspend or revoke a bargaining agent permit issued under this chapter for the violation of or failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or any rule adopted thereunder. An information or a verified complaint stating the grounds for suspension or revocation shall be filed with the department in triplicate. The department shall notify the permittee of the complaint and furnish the permittee with a copy of the information or the complaint and a copy of the order of the department fixing the time for a hearing, which time shall be at least five days from the date of notification. If the department determines that the public good requires immediate action, the department may, upon the filing of the information or the complaint and without hearing, temporarily suspend a permit pending the determination by it of the complaint. Judicial review of the actions of the department may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

The department may revoke a bargaining agent permit upon information without hearing if the permittee fails to have sufficient bond on file with the department, or if the permittee fails to submit to inspection.

The department, after a hearing, may suspend or revoke a bargaining agent's permit if the permittee is licensed as a grain dealer under chapter 542 and the permittee's grain dealer license is under suspension or has been revoked pursuant to section 542.10.

Upon revocation of a permit, any claim of a creditor shall be filed against the former permittee within one hundred twenty days after the date of revocation. The department shall provide for giving notice to all agricultural producers under contract with the person holding the bargaining agent permit of the revocation of the permit.

CHAPTER 543

WAREHOUSES FOR AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS

543.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

1. "Agricultural product" shall mean any product of agricultural activity suitable for storage in quantity, including refined or unrefined sugar and canned agricultural products and shall also mean any product intended for consumption in the production of other agricultural products, such as stock salt, binding twine, bran, cracked corn, soybean meal, commercial feeds, and cottonseed meal.

2. "Bond" means a bond issued by a surety company or an irrevocable letter of credit issued by a financial institution described in subsection 25.

3. "Bulk grain" shall mean grain which is not contained in sacks.

4. "Credit-sale contract" means a contract for the sale of grain pursuant to which the sale price is to be paid more than thirty days after the delivery of the grain to the buyer, and includes but is not limited to those contracts commonly referred to as deferred-payment contracts, deferred-pricing contracts, and price-later contracts.

5. "Department" means the department of agriculture and land stewardship.

6. "Depositor" means any person who deposits an agricultural product in a warehouse for storage, handling, or shipment, or who is the owner or legal holder of an outstanding warehouse receipt, or who is lawfully entitled to possession of the agricultural product.

7. "Financial institution" means a bank or savings and loan association authorized by the state of Iowa or by the laws of the United States, which is a member of the federal deposit insurance corporation or the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, respectively; or the national bank for cooperatives established in the Agricultural Credit Act, Pub. L. No. 100-233.

8. "Grain" shall mean wheat, corn, oats, barley, rye, flaxseed, field peas, soybeans, grain sorghums, spelt, and similar agricultural products, as defined in the Grain Standards Act.

9. "Grain bank" means grain owned by a depositor and held temporarily by the warehouse operator for use in the formulation of feed or to be processed and returned to the depositor on demand.

10. "Grain Standards Act" means the United States Grain Standards Act, 7 U.S.C. ch. 3.

11. "Incidental warehouse operator" means a person regulated under chapter 198 whose grain storage capacity does not exceed twenty-five thousand bushels which is used exclusively for grain owned or grain which will be returned to the depositor for use in a feeding operation or as an ingredient in a customer-formula feed, as defined in section 198.1.

12. "License" means a license issued under this chapter.

13. "Licensed warehouse" shall mean a warehouse for the operation of which the department has issued a license in accordance with the provisions of section 543.6.

14. "Licensed warehouse operator" shall mean a warehouse operator who has obtained a license for the operation of a warehouse under the provisions of section 543.6.

15. "Official grain standards" means the standards of quality and condition of grain which establishes the grade, fixed and established by the secretary of agriculture under the Grain Standards Act.

16. "Open storage" means grain or agricultural products which are received by a warehouse operator from a depositor for which warehouse receipts have not been issued or a purchase made and the records documented accordingly.

17. "Person" shall mean an individual, corporation, partnership, or two or more persons having a joint or common interest in the same venture, and, except with respect to the privilege of operating a warehouse under this chapter, shall include the United States or Iowa state government, or any subdivision or agency of either.

18. "Receiving and loadout charge" shall mean the charge made by the warehouse operator for receiving grain into and loading grain from the warehouse, exclusive of the warehouse operator's other charges.

19. "Scale weight ticket" means a load slip or other evidence, other than a receipt, given to a depositor by a warehouse operator licensed under this chapter upon initial delivery of the agricultural product to the warehouse.

20. "Station" means a warehouse located more than three miles from the central office of the warehouse.

21. "Storage" means any grain or other agricultural products that have been received and have come under care, custody or control of a warehouse operator either for the depositor for which a contract of purchase has not been negotiated or for the warehouse operator operating the facility.

22. "Warehouse" shall mean any building, structure, or other protected enclosure in this state used or usable for the storage of agricultural products. Buildings used in connection with the operation of the warehouse shall be deemed to be a part of the warehouse.

23. “Warehouse operator” means a person engaged in the business of operating or controlling a warehouse for the storing, shipping, handling or processing of agricultural products, but does not include an incidental warehouse operator.

24. “Warehouse operator’s obligation” means a sufficient quantity and quality of grain or other products for which a warehouse operator is licensed including company owned grain and grain of depositors as the warehouse operator’s records indicate. For an unlicensed warehouse operator it means a sufficient quantity and quality to cover company owned and all deposits of grain for which actual payment has not been made. At no time may a warehouse operator have less grain or other agricultural products in the warehouse than the obligations to depositors, as determined by investigation of the warehouse operator’s records.

25. “Unlicensed warehouse operator” means a warehouse operator who retains grain in the warehouse not to exceed thirty days and is not licensed under the provisions of this chapter or Title VII, U.S.C.

89 Acts, ch 143, §1002, 1101 HF 533

Subsections renumbered to alphabetize, and subsections 7 and 10 amended

543.3 Appointment of department as receiver.

1. The department in its discretion may, following summary suspension of a license under section 543.10, or following a suspension or revocation of a license as otherwise provided in section 543.10 or 543.11, file a verified petition in the district court requesting that the department be appointed as a receiver to take custody of commodities stored in the licensee’s warehouse and to provide for the disposition of those assets in the manner provided in this chapter and under the supervision of the court. The petition shall be filed in the county in which the warehouse is located. The district court shall appoint the department as receiver. Upon the filing of the petition the court shall issue ex parte such temporary orders as may be necessary to preserve or protect the assets in receivership, or the value thereof, and the rights of depositors, until a plan of disposition is approved.

2. A petition filed by the department under subsection 1 shall be accompanied by the department’s plan for disposition of stored commodities. The plan may provide for the pro rata delivery of part or all of the stored commodities to depositors holding warehouse receipts or unpriced scale weight tickets, or may provide for the sale under the supervision of the department of part or all of the stored commodities for the benefit of those depositors, or may provide for any combination thereof, as the department in its discretion determines to be necessary to minimize losses.

3. When a petition is filed by the department under subsection 1 the clerk of court shall set a date for hearing on the department’s proposed plan of disposition at a time not less than ten nor more than fifteen days after the date the petition is filed. Copies of the petition, the notice of hearing, and the department’s plan of disposition shall be served upon the licensee and upon the issuer of a deficiency bond or of an irrevocable letter of credit pursuant to section 543.6 in the manner required for service of an original notice. A delay in effecting service upon the licensee or issuer is not cause for denying the appointment of a receiver and is not grounds for invalidating any action or proceeding in connection with the appointment.

4. The department shall cause a copy of each of the documents served upon the licensee under subsection 3 to be mailed by ordinary mail to every person holding a warehouse receipt or unpriced scale weight ticket issued by the licensee, as determined by the records of the licensee or the records of the department. The failure of any person referred to in this subsection to receive the required notification shall not invalidate the proceedings on the petition for the appointment of a receiver or any portion thereof. Persons referred to in this subsection are not parties to the action unless admitted by the court upon application therefor.

5. When appointed as a receiver under this chapter, the department shall cause notification of the appointment to be published once each week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in each of the counties in which the licensee maintains a business location, and in a newspaper of general circulation in this state.

6. The department may designate an employee of the department to appear on behalf of the department in any proceedings before the court with respect to the receivership, and to exercise the functions of the department as receiver under this section and section 543.4, except that the department shall determine whether or not to petition for appointment as receiver, shall approve the proposed plan for disposition of stored commodities, shall approve the proposed plan for distribution of any cash proceeds, and shall approve the proposed final report.

7. The actions of the department in connection with petitioning for appointment as a receiver, and all actions pursuant to such appointment shall not be subject to the provisions of the administrative procedure Act.

8. A person employed or appointed by the department and carrying out the duties of the department acting as receiver under this chapter shall be deemed to be an employee of the state as defined in section 25A.2. Chapter 25A is applicable to any claim as defined in section 25A.2 against the person carrying out the duties of the department acting as receiver.

89 Acts, ch 143, §501 HF 533
NEW subsection 8

543.4 Powers and duties of receiver.

1. When the department is appointed as receiver under this chapter the issuer of a deficiency bond or of an irrevocable letter of credit pursuant to section 543.6 shall be joined as a party defendant by the department. If required by the court, the issuer shall pay the indemnification proceeds or so much thereof as the court finds necessary into the court, and when so paid the issuer shall be absolutely discharged from any further liability under the bond or irrevocable letter of credit to the extent of the payment.

2. When appointed as receiver under this chapter the department is authorized to give notice in the manner specified by the court to persons holding warehouse receipts or other evidence of deposit issued by the licensee to file their claims within one hundred twenty days after the date of appointment. Failure to timely file a claim shall defeat the claim with respect to the issuer of a deficiency bond or of an irrevocable letter of credit, grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund created in chapter 543A, and any commodities or proceeds from the sale of commodities, except to the extent of any excess commodities or proceeds of sale remaining after all timely claims are paid in full.

3. When the court approves the sale of commodities, the department shall employ a merchandiser to effect the sale of those commodities. A person employed or appointed as a merchandiser is deemed to be an employee of the state as defined in section 25A.2 and chapter 25A is applicable to any claim as defined in section 25A.2 against the person acting as a merchandiser. A person employed as a merchandiser must meet the following requirements:

a. The person shall be experienced or knowledgeable in the operation of warehouses licensed under this chapter; and if the person has ever held a license issued under this chapter, the person shall never have had that license suspended or revoked.

b. The person shall be experienced or knowledgeable in the marketing of agricultural products.

c. The person shall not be the holder of a warehouse receipt or scale weight ticket issued by the licensee, and shall not have a claim against the licensee whether as a secured or unsecured creditor, and otherwise shall not have any pecuniary interest in the licensee or the licensee's business. The merchandiser shall be entitled to reasonable compensation as determined by the department, payable out of funds appropriated for operating expenses of the department. A sale of commodities shall be made in a commercially reasonable manner and under the supervision of the warehouse bureau of the department. The department shall provide for the payment out of appropriations to the department of all expenses incurred in handling and disposing of commodities. The department shall have authority to sell the commodities, any provision of chapter 554 to the contrary notwithstanding, and any commodities so sold shall be free of all liens and other encumbrances.

4. The plan of disposition, as approved by the court, shall provide for the distribution of the stored commodities, or the proceeds from the sale of commodities, or the proceeds from any insurance policy, deficiency bond, or irrevocable letter of credit, less expenses incurred by the department in connection with the receivership, to depositors as their interests are determined. Distribution shall be without regard to any setoff, counterclaim, or storage lien or charge.

5. The department may, with the approval of the court, continue the operation of all or any part of the business of the licensee on a temporary basis and take any other course of action or procedure which will serve the interests of the depositors.

6. The department is entitled to reimbursement out of commodities or proceeds held in receivership for all expenses incurred as court costs or in handling and disposing of stored commodities, and for all other costs directly attributable to the receivership. The right of reimbursement of the department is prior to any claims against the commodities or proceeds of sales of commodities, and constitutes a claim against a deficiency bond or irrevocable letter of credit.

7. If the approved plan of disposition requires a distribution of cash proceeds, the department shall submit to the court a proposed plan of distribution of those proceeds. Upon notice and hearing as required by the court, the court shall accept or modify the proposed plan. When the plan is approved by the court and executed by the department, the department shall be discharged and the receivership terminated.

8. At the termination of the receivership the department shall file a final report containing the details of its actions, together with such additional information as the court may require.

89 Acts, ch 143, §101, 502 HF 533

Subsection 3, unnumbered paragraph 1 and paragraph c amended

543.6 Issuance of license and financial responsibility.

1. The department, upon application to it, may issue to a warehouse operator or to a person about to become a warehouse operator a license for the operation of a warehouse in accordance with this chapter and the rules adopted by the department under section 543.5. A single license to operate two or more warehouses located anywhere within the state may be issued.

2. The type of license required shall be determined as follows:

a. A class 1 license is required if the storage capacity of a warehouse is more than one hundred thousand bushels.

b. A class 2 license is required for a warehouse that is not required to have a class 1 license.

3. An application for a warehouse license shall be accompanied by a complete financial statement of the applicant setting forth the assets, liabilities and net worth of the applicant. The financial statement must be prepared according to generally accepted accounting principles. Assets shall be shown at original cost less depreciation. Upon written request, the department may allow asset valuations in accordance with a competent appraisal. Unpriced contracts shall be shown as a liability and valued at the applicable current market price of grain as of the date the financial statement is prepared.

4. In order to receive and retain a class 1 license, the following conditions must be satisfied:

a. The warehouse operator shall have and maintain a net worth of at least twenty-five cents per bushel of warehouse capacity, or maintain a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit in the amount of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction thereof of net worth deficiency. However, a person shall not be licensed as a class 1 warehouse operator if the person has a net worth of less than twenty-five thousand dollars.

b. The warehouse operator shall submit, as required by the department, a financial statement that is accompanied by an unqualified opinion based upon an audit performed by a certified public accountant licensed in this state. However, the department may accept a qualification in an opinion that is unavoidable by any audit procedure that is permitted under generally accepted accounting principles. An opinion that is qualified because of a limited audit procedure or because the scope of an audit is limited shall not be accepted by the department. The department shall not require that a warehouse operator submit more than one such unqualified opinion per year. The warehouse operator may elect, however, to submit a financial statement that is accompanied by the report of a certified public accountant licensed in this state that is based upon a review performed by the certified public accountant in lieu of the audited financial statement specified in this paragraph. However, at any time the department may require a financial statement that is accompanied by the report of a certified public accountant licensed in this state that is based upon a review performed by a certified public accountant if the department has good cause to believe that the net worth or current asset to current liability ratio of a licensee presents a danger to producers or sellers with whom the licensee deals. "Good cause" means that the department has evidence that the licensee issued checks on insufficient funds, evidence of a quality or quantity shortage in a warehouse facility, or evidence of violations of recordkeeping requirements.

5. In order to receive and maintain a class 2 license, the following conditions must be satisfied:

a. The warehouse operator shall have and maintain a net worth of at least twenty-five cents per bushel of warehouse capacity, or maintain a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit in the amount of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction thereof of net worth deficiency. However, a person shall not be licensed as a class 2 warehouse operator if the person has a net worth of less than ten thousand dollars.

b. The warehouse operator shall submit, as required by the department, a financial statement that is accompanied by an unqualified opinion based upon an audit performed by a certified public accountant licensed in this state. However, the department may accept a qualification in an opinion that is unavoidable by any audit procedure that is permitted under generally accepted accounting principles. An opinion that is qualified because of a limited audit procedure or because the scope of an audit is limited shall not be accepted by the department. The department shall not require that a warehouse operator submit more than one such unqualified opinion per year. The warehouse operator may elect, however, to submit a financial statement that is accompanied by the report of a certified public accountant licensed in this state that is based upon a review performed by the certified public accountant in lieu of the audited financial statement specified in this paragraph. However, at any time the department may require a financial statement that is accompanied by the report of a certified public accountant licensed in this state that is based upon a review performed by a certified public accountant if the department has good cause to believe that the net worth or current asset to current liability ratio of a licensee presents a danger to producers or sellers with whom the licensee deals. "Good cause" means that the department has evidence that the licensee issued checks on insufficient funds, evidence of a quality or quantity shortage in a warehouse facility, or evidence of violations of recordkeeping requirements.

6. The department may adopt rules governing the timing and form of financial statements to be submitted to it. The department may require additional information or verification with respect to the financial resources of the applicant or licensee and the applicant's or licensee's ability to maintain the quantity and quality of stored grain.

7. If an applicant has had a license under chapter 542, 542A or 543 revoked for cause within the past three years, or has been convicted of a felony involving violations of chapter 542, 542A or 543, or is owned or controlled by a person who has had a license so revoked or who has been so convicted, the department may deny a license to the applicant.

8. The department may deny a license to an applicant if any of the following apply:

a. The applicant has caused liability to the Iowa grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund through operations under a license issued under this chapter or chapter 542, and the liability has not been discharged, settled, or satisfied.

b. The applicant is owned or controlled by a person who has caused liability to the fund through operations under a license issued under this chapter or chapter 542, and the liability has not been discharged, settled, or satisfied.

9. A deficiency bond or irrevocable letter of credit filed with the department pursuant to this section shall not be canceled by the issuer on less than one hundred twenty days' notice by certified mail to the department and the principal.

543.7 Application for license.

Each application for a license or licenses shall be in writing subscribed and sworn to by the applicant or a duly authorized representative of the applicant. In addition to any other information required by rule of the department the application shall include the following:

1. The name of the individual, partnership, or corporation making the application, the names of all partners if applicant is a partnership, and the names and titles of the principal officers if applicant is a corporation.

2. The principal office or place of business of the applicant.

3. A general description of each warehouse as to storage capacity, type of construction, mechanical equipment, if any, and condition.

4. The approximate location of each warehouse.

5. The type and quantity of agricultural product, or products intended to be stored in each warehouse.

6. A complete financial statement for use of the department in the administration of this chapter, as required by section 543.6.

7. A tariff on a form to be prescribed by the department for storage, receiving and loadout charges.

89 Acts, ch 143, §803 HF 533
 Subsection 7 amended

543.10 Suspension or revocation of license.

The department is empowered after hearing before it and upon information being filed with the department by the duly authorized head of the warehouse bureau of the department or upon complaint filed by any person to suspend or revoke the license of anyone licensed under this chapter for the violation of or failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or any rule made in pursuance of the authority therefor granted under this chapter. An information or a verified complaint stating the grounds for suspension or revocation shall be filed with the department in triplicate, and thereupon the department shall serve the licensee complained against with a copy of the information or the complaint and a copy of the order of the department fixing the time for hearing thereon, which time shall be at least ten days from the date of service.

If upon the filing of the information or complaint the department finds that the licensee has failed to meet the warehouse operator's obligation or otherwise has violated or failed to comply with the provisions of this chapter or any rule promulgated under this chapter, and if the department finds that the public health, safety or welfare imperatively requires emergency action, then the department without hearing may order a summary suspension of the license in the manner provided in section 17A.18. When so ordered, a copy of the order of suspension shall be served upon the licensee at the time the information or complaint is served as provided in this section.

Judicial review of the actions of the department may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

543.15 Insurance required—exception.

All agricultural products in storage in a licensed warehouse and all agricultural products which have been deposited temporarily in a licensed warehouse pending storage or for purposes other than storage, shall be kept fully insured by the warehouse operator for the current value of the agricultural products against loss by fire, inherent explosion, or windstorm.

The insurance shall be carried in an insurance company or companies authorized to do business in this state, and evidence of the insurance coverage in a form approved by the department shall be filed with the department. An insurance policy shall not be canceled by the insurance company on less than ninety days' notice by certified mail to the department and the principal unless the policy is being replaced with another policy and evidence of the new policy is filed with the department at the time of cancellation of the policy on file. The insurance shall be provided by, and carried in the name of, the warehouse operator. However, whenever the department shall receive notice from an insurance company that it has canceled the insurance of a licensed warehouse, the department shall automatically suspend the warehouse license if replacement insurance is not received by the department within seventy-five days of receipt of the notice of cancellation. The department shall cause an inspection of the licensed warehouse immediately at the end of the seventy-five day period. If replacement insurance is not filed within another ten days following suspension, the warehouse license shall be automatically revoked. When a license is revoked, the department shall notify each holder of an outstanding warehouse receipt and all known persons who have grain retained in open storage of the revocation. The department shall further notify each receipt holder and all known persons who have grain retained in open storage that the grain must be removed from the warehouse not later than the thirtieth day following the revocation. The notice shall be sent by ordinary mail to the last known address of each person having grain in storage as provided in this subsection. Claimants against the insurance have precedence in the following order:

1. Holders of warehouse receipts other than the warehouse operator and owners of bulk grain other than the warehouse operator.
2. Owners of all other agricultural products as their interests appear.
3. Warehouse operators who have warehouse receipts.
4. Warehouse operators owners of bulk grain.

However, notwithstanding the insurance requirements set forth in this section, a licensed warehouse may exclude from the insurance coverage stored grain to which title is fully vested in the United States government or any of its subdivisions or agencies, provided that the licensed warehouse has on file with the United States government or any of its subdivisions or agencies a current and accepted uninsured storage rate under the provisions of their uniform grain storage agreement. The licensed warehouse shall file a copy of the current uninsured tariff rate with the department immediately upon acceptance of the uninsured rate by the United States government or any of its subdivisions or agencies.

543.24 Confidentiality of records.

Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 22, all financial statements of warehouse operators under this chapter shall be kept confidential by the department and its agents and employees and are not subject to disclosure except as follows:

1. Upon waiver by the licensee.
2. In actions or administrative proceedings commenced under this chapter or chapter 542.
3. Disclosure to the Iowa grain indemnity fund board in regard to licensees who present liability to the fund.
4. When required by subpoena or other court orders.
5. Disclosure to law enforcement agencies in regards to the detection and prosecution of public offenses.
6. Where released to a bonding company approved by the department or to the United States department of agriculture or any of their divisions.
7. Where released at the request of the Iowa board of accountancy for licensee review and discipline in accordance with chapters 116 and 258A and subject to the confidentiality requirements of section 258A.6.

543.39 Grain stored in another warehouse.

A licensed warehouse operator may store grain in any other warehouse in Iowa licensed in accordance with section 543.6 or the United States Warehouse Act, 7 U.S.C. ch. 10, subject to the following conditions:

1. The warehouse operator must obtain from such warehouse operator a nonnegotiable warehouse receipt and such receipt must show clearly the following notation: "Held in trust for depositors of" (name of original receiving warehouse).
2. When the warehouse operator begins to use the additional facilities described in this section, the operator must have sufficient net worth under section 543.6 or provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit to cover the increase in the operator's gross capacity.
3. A licensed warehouse operator shall not accept grain for storage from another licensed warehouse operator while such warehouse operator has grain stored elsewhere under the provisions of this section.

89 Acts, ch 143, §1102 HF 533
Unnumbered paragraph 1 amended

c. Grain purchased under a credit sale contract entered into on or before the date of delivery.

The grain dealer shall forward the per-bushel fee to the department on a quarterly basis in the manner and using the forms prescribed by the department. A licensee is delinquent if the licensee fails to submit the full fee or quarterly forms when due, or if upon examination, an underpayment of the fee is found by the department. The grain dealer is subject to a penalty of ten dollars for each day the grain dealer is delinquent or an amount equal to the amount of the deficiency, whichever is less. However, a licensee who fails to submit the full fee or quarterly forms when due, is subject to a minimum payment of ten dollars. The department may establish and apply a margin of error in determining whether a grain dealer is delinquent. If the per-bushel fee and any penalty due have not been received by the department within thirty days after notice by the department, the grain dealer's license shall be suspended. The per-bushel fee shall be collected only once on each bushel of grain.

3. a. All licensed grain dealers and licensed warehouse operators shall annually remit a fee to be deposited into the fund which is determined as follows:

(1) For class 1 grain dealers, five hundred dollars.

(2) For class 2 grain dealers, two hundred fifty dollars.

(3) For warehouse operators or participating federally licensed grain warehouses:

(a) For intended storage of bulk grain in any quantity less than twenty thousand bushels, forty-two dollars plus seven dollars for each two thousand bushels or fraction thereof in excess of twelve thousand bushels.

(b) For intended storage of bulk grain in any quantity not less than twenty thousand bushels and not more than fifty thousand bushels, seventy dollars plus four and a half dollars for each three thousand bushels or fraction thereof in excess of twenty thousand bushels.

(c) For intended storage of bulk grain in any quantity not less than fifty thousand bushels and not more than seventy thousand bushels, one hundred fifteen dollars plus four and a half dollars for each four thousand bushels or fraction thereof in excess of fifty thousand bushels.

(d) For intended storage of bulk grain in any quantity not less than seventy thousand bushels, one hundred thirty-seven and a half dollars plus two and three-quarters dollars for each five thousand bushels or fraction thereof in excess of seventy thousand bushels.

b. Payment of the required amount shall be made before the grain dealer's or warehouse operator's license is renewed.

4. Payment of the full annual fee shall be made before a grain dealer's or warehouse operator's license is issued or renewed. If a licensee amends its license during the fiscal year for which an annual fee was paid, and the licensing entity remains the same, the licensee is required to pay a further fee only if the amendment changes the licensee's class from class 2 to class 1.

5. All disbursements from the fund shall be paid by the treasurer of state pursuant to vouchers authorized by the department.

6. The administrative costs of this chapter shall be paid from the fund after approval of the costs by the board.

7. A grain dealer may choose to pass on the cost of a per-bushel fee to the sellers by an itemized discount noted on the settlement sheet. However, if the per-bushel fee is not in effect, no grain dealer shall make such a discount on the purchase of grain. A discount made nominally for the per-bushel fee while the fee is not in effect is grounds for license suspension and revocation under chapter 542.

543A.4 Indemnity fund board.

1. The Iowa grain indemnity fund board is established to advise the department on matters relating to the fund and to perform the duties provided in this chapter. The board is composed of the secretary of agriculture or a designee who shall serve as president; the commissioner of insurance or a designee who shall serve as secretary; the state treasurer or a designee who shall serve as treasurer; and four representatives of the grain industry appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate, two of whom shall be representatives of producers and who shall be actively participating producers, and two of whom shall be representatives of grain dealers and warehouse operators and who shall be actively participating grain dealers and warehouse operators, each of whom shall be selected from a list of three nominations made by the secretary of agriculture. The term of membership of the grain industry representatives is three years, and the representatives are eligible for reappointment. However, only actively participating producers, and grain dealers and warehouse operators are eligible for reappointment. The grain industry representatives are entitled to forty dollars per diem for each day spent in the performance of the duties of the board, plus actual expenses incurred in the performance of those duties. Four members of the board constitute a quorum, and the affirmative vote of four members is necessary for any action taken by the board, except that a lesser number may adjourn a meeting. A vacancy in the membership of the board does not impair the rights of a quorum to exercise all the rights and perform all the duties of the board.

2. The duties of the board include the review and determination of claims, and the review and approval of administrative costs of the fund. To carry out these duties, the board has the power to adopt rules regarding its organization and procedures for determining claims. Further, the board shall approve rules proposed by the department for the administration of the per-bushel fee prior to their adoption by the department. The board may provide comment and advice to the department in regard to the department's administration of chapters 542 and 543 where the department's policies and rules may affect the exposure of the fund to liability. However, the board shall not become actively involved in a determination by the department as to whether disciplinary action is to be taken against a particular licensee. The board is not a forum for review or appeal in regard to any particular action taken by the department against a licensee.

3. The department through the grain warehouse bureau shall perform the administrative functions necessary for the operation of the board and the fund. Administrative costs approved by the board shall be paid from the fund. The rules of the department shall contain the rules of the board adopted for its organization and its procedures. The department shall adopt rules for the administration of the per-bushel fee upon the board's approval of the rules proposed by the department. The secretary of agriculture, as president of the board as well as head of the department of agriculture and land stewardship, shall administer the department so as to minimize the risk of loss to the fund while protecting interests of depositors and sellers of grain. Policies and rules for the administration of chapters 542 and 543 which, as determined by the secretary of agriculture, may affect the exposure of the fund, shall be presented to the board for comment prior to their adoption by the department. The department shall make reports to the board in regard to licensee investigations which may result in disciplinary action against a licensee and exposure of the fund. The reports may be discussed by the board in closed session pursuant to section 21.5, and are confidential. In making the report, the department shall make available to the board records of licensees which are otherwise confidential under section 22.7, 542.16, or 543.24. However, a determination to take disciplinary action against a particular licensee shall be made exclusively by the department. A report to the board is not a prerequisite to disciplinary action against a licensee. Review of any action against a licensee, whether or not relating to the fund, shall be made exclusively through the department.

89 Acts, ch 143, §906 HF 533
NEW unnumbered paragraphs 2 and 3 numbered as subsections

543A.5 Adjustments to fee.

1. The board shall review annually the debits of and credits to the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund created in section 543A.3 and shall make any adjustments in the per-bushel fee required under section 543A.3, subsection 2, and the dealer-warehouse fee required under section 543A.3, subsection 3, that are necessary to maintain the fund within the limits established under this section. Not later than the first day of May of each year, the board shall determine the proposed amount of the per-bushel fee based on the expected volume of grain on which the fee is to be collected and that is likely to be handled under this chapter, and shall also determine any adjustment to the dealer-warehouse fee. The board shall make any changes in the previous year's fees in accordance with chapter 17A. Changes in the fees shall become effective on the following first day of July. The per-bushel fee shall not exceed one-quarter cent per bushel on all purchased grain as defined in section 543A.3. Until the per-bushel fee is adjusted or waived as provided in this section, the per-bushel fee is one-quarter cent on all purchased grain.

2. If, at the end of any three-month period, the assets of the fund exceed six million dollars, less any encumbered balances or pending or unsettled claims, the per-bushel fee required under section 543A.3, subsection 2, and the dealer-warehouse fee required under section 543A.3, subsection 3, shall be waived and the fees are not assessable or owing. The board shall reinstate the fees if the assets of the fund, less any unencumbered balances or pending or unsettled claims, are three million dollars or less.

89 Acts, ch 143, §907 HF 533
Subsection 1 amended

543A.6 Claims against fund.

1. Persons who may file claims—time of filing. A depositor or seller may file a claim with the department for indemnification of a loss from the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund. A claim shall be filed in the manner prescribed by the board. A claim shall not be filed prior to the incurrence date, which is the earlier of the following:

a. The revocation, termination, or cancellation of the license of the grain dealer or warehouse operator.

b. The filing of a petition in bankruptcy by a grain dealer or warehouse operator.

To be timely, a claim shall be filed within one hundred twenty days of the incurrence date.

2. Notice. The department shall cause notice of the opening of the claim period to be published once each week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in each of the counties in which the licensee maintains a business location and in a newspaper of general circulation within the state. The notice shall state the name and address of the licensee and the claim incurrence date. The notice shall also state that any claims against the fund on account of the licensee shall be sent by ordinary mail to the department within one hundred twenty days after the incurrence date, and that the failure to make a timely claim relieves the fund from liability to the claimant. This notice may be incorporated by the department with a notice required by section 542.12 or 543.14.

3. Determination of eligible claims. The board shall determine a claim to be eligible for payment from the fund if the board finds all of the following:

a. That the claim was timely filed.

- b. That the incurrence date was on or after May 15, 1986.
  - c. That the claimant qualifies as a depositor or seller.
  - d. That the claim derives from a covered transaction. For purposes of this paragraph, a claim derives from a covered transaction if the claimant is a seller who transferred title to the grain to the grain dealer other than by credit sale contract within six months of the incurrence date, or if the claimant is a depositor who delivered the grain to the warehouse operator.
  - e. That there is adequate documentation to establish the existence of a claim and to determine the amount of the loss.
4. Value of loss—warehouse claims. The board shall determine the dollar value of a claim incurred by a depositor holding a warehouse receipt or a scale weight ticket for grain that the depositor delivered for storage to the licensed warehouse operator. If the department has been appointed by the court as receiver of the grain assets of the warehouse operator, the value shall be presumed to be as stated in the plan of disposition approved by the court. If the warehouse operator has filed a petition in bankruptcy, the value shall be presumed to be based upon the fair market price, free-on-board from the site of the warehouse operator, being paid to producers for grain by the grain terminal operator nearest the warehouse operator on the date the petition was filed. If there is neither a department receivership nor a bankruptcy filing, the value shall be presumed to be based upon the fair market price, free-on-board from the site of the warehouse operator, being paid to producers for grain by the grain terminal operator nearest the warehouse operator on the date of license revocation or cancellation. If more than one date applies to a claim, the board may choose between the two. However, the board may accept an alternative valuation of a claim upon a showing of just cause by the depositor or department. All depositors filing claims under this section shall be bound by the value determined by the board. The value of the loss is the outstanding balance on the validated claim at time of payment from the fund.
5. Value of loss—grain dealer claims. The dollar value of a claim incurred by a seller who has sold grain or delivered grain for sale or exchange and who is a creditor of the licensed grain dealer for all or part of the value of the grain shall be based on the amount stated on the obligation on the date of the sale. If the sold grain was unpriced, the value of a claim shall be presumed to be based upon the fair market price, free-on-board from the site of the grain dealer, being paid to producers for grain by the grain terminal operator nearest the grain dealer on the date of the license revocation or cancellation or the filing of a petition in bankruptcy. If more than one date applies to a claim, the board may choose between the two. However, the board may accept an alternative valuation of a claim upon a showing of just cause by the seller or department. All sellers filing claims under this section shall be bound by the value determined by the board. The value of the loss is the outstanding balance on the validated claim at the time of payment from the fund.
6. Procedure—appeal. The board, through the department, shall provide for notice to each depositor and seller upon its determination of eligibility and value of loss. Within twenty days of the notice, the depositor or seller may request a hearing for the review of either determination. The request shall be made in the manner provided by the board. The hearing and any further appeal shall be conducted as a contested case subject to chapter 17A. A depositor or seller whose claim has been refused by the board may appeal the refusal to either the district court of Polk county or the district court of the county in which the depositor or seller resides.
7. Payment of claims. Upon a determination that the claim is eligible for payment, the board shall provide for payment of ninety percent of the loss, as determined under subsection 4, but not more than one hundred fifty thousand dollars per claimant. If at any time the board determines that there are insufficient funds to make payment of all claims, the board may order that payment be deferred on specified claims. The department, upon the board's instruction, shall hold those claims for payment until the board determines that the fund again contains sufficient assets.

8. Subrogation of fund. In the event of payment of a loss under this section, the fund is subrogated to the extent of the amount of any payments to all rights, powers, privileges, and remedies of the depositor or seller against any person regarding the loss. The depositor or seller shall render all necessary assistance to aid the department and the board in securing the rights granted in this section. No action or claim initiated by a depositor or seller and pending at the time of payment from the fund shall be compromised or settled without the consent of the board.

IOWA UNIFORM LIMITED PARTNERSHIP ACT

545.102 Name.

The name of each limited partnership as set forth in its certificate of limited partnership:

1. Shall contain the words "limited partnership" or the abbreviation "L.P."
2. Shall not contain the name of a limited partner unless either or both of the following apply:
  - a. That name is also the name of a general partner or the corporate name of a corporate general partner.
  - b. The business of the limited partnership had been carried on under that name before admission of that limited partner.
3. Shall not contain any word or phrase indicating or implying that the limited partnership is organized other than for a purpose stated in its certificate of limited partnership.
4. Shall be distinguishable upon the records of the secretary of state from the name of a corporation or limited partnership organized under the law of this state or licensed or registered as a foreign corporation or foreign limited partnership in this state or a name the exclusive right to which is, at the time, reserved in the manner provided in this chapter, without the written consent of the corporation or limited partnership, which consent shall be filed with the secretary of state, and provided the name is not identical.
5. Shall not contain either the word "corporation" or the word "incorporated" or an abbreviation of either.

CHAPTER 547

CONDUCTING BUSINESS UNDER TRADE NAME

547.1 Use of trade name—verified statement required.

A person or copartnership shall not engage in or conduct a business under a trade name, or an assumed name of a character other than the true surname of each person owning or having an interest in the business, unless the person first records with the county recorder of the county in which the business is to be conducted a verified statement showing the name, post-office address, and residence address of each person owning or having an interest in the business, and the address where the business is to be conducted.

89 Acts, ch 102, §3 SF 367
Section amended

547.2 Change in statement.

A like verified statement shall be recorded of any change in ownership of the business, or persons interested in the business and the original owners are liable for all obligations until the certificate of change is recorded.

89 Acts, ch 102, §4 SF 367
Section amended

547.3 Fee for recording.

The county recorder shall charge and receive a fee in the amount specified in section 331.604 for each verified statement recorded under this chapter.

89 Acts, ch 102, §5 SF 367
Section amended

547.6 County recorder to submit monthly list of filings.

A county recorder shall within ten days of the end of each calendar month submit to the secretary of state a list of persons currently covered by a verified statement or certificate of change filed in the county pursuant to this chapter. The monthly list shall contain only the verified statements and certificates of change filed during the preceding month. The monthly list submitted shall contain the information required to be filed by section 547.1 for each person listed.

CHAPTER 554

UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

554.1201 General definitions.

Subject to additional definitions contained in the subsequent Articles of this chapter which are applicable to specific Articles or Parts thereof, and unless the context otherwise requires, in this chapter:

1. "Action" in the sense of a judicial proceeding includes recoupment, counterclaim, setoff, suit in equity and any other proceedings in which rights are determined.
2. "Aggrieved party" means a party entitled to resort to a remedy.
3. "Agreement" means the bargain of the parties in fact as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances including course of dealing or usage of trade or course of performance as provided in this chapter (sections 554.1205 and 554.2208). Whether an agreement has legal consequences is determined by the provisions of this chapter, if applicable; otherwise by the law of contracts (section 554.1103). (Compare "Contract".)
4. "Bank" means any person engaged in the business of banking.
5. "Bearer" means the person in possession of an instrument, document of title, or certificated security payable to bearer or endorsed in blank.
6. "Bill of lading" means a document evidencing the receipt of goods for shipment issued by a person engaged in the business of transporting or forwarding goods, and includes an airbill. "Airbill" means a document serving for air transportation as a bill of lading does for marine or rail transportation, and includes an air consignment note or air waybill.
7. "Branch" includes a separately incorporated foreign branch of a bank.

8. "Burden of establishing" a fact means the burden of persuading the triers of fact that the existence of the fact is more probable than its nonexistence.

9. "Buyer in ordinary course of business" means a person who in good faith and without knowledge that the sale to that person is in violation of the ownership rights or security interest of a third party in the goods buys in ordinary course from a person in the business of selling goods of that kind but does not include a pawnbroker. All persons who sell minerals or the like (including oil and gas) at wellhead or minehead shall be deemed to be persons in the business of selling goods of that kind. "Buying" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a pre-existing contract for sale but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.

10. "Conspicuous": A term or clause is conspicuous when it is so written that a reasonable person against whom it is to operate ought to have noticed it. A printed heading in capitals (as: "Nonnegotiable Bill of Lading") is conspicuous. Language in the body of a form is "conspicuous" if it is in larger or other contrasting type or color. But in a telegram any stated term is "conspicuous". Whether a term or clause is "conspicuous" or not is for decision by the court.

11. "Contract" means the total legal obligation which results from the parties' agreement as affected by this chapter and any other applicable rules of law. (Compare "Agreement".)

12. "Creditor" includes a general creditor, a secured creditor, a lien creditor and any representative of creditors, including an assignee for the benefit of creditors, a trustee in bankruptcy, a receiver in equity and an executor or administrator of an insolvent debtor's or assignor's estate.

13. "Defendant" includes a person in the position of defendant in a cross-action or counterclaim.

14. "Delivery" with respect to instruments, documents of title, chattel paper, or certificated securities means voluntary transfer of possession.

15. "Document of title" includes bill of lading, dock warrant, dock receipt, warehouse receipt or order for the delivery of goods, and also any other document which in the regular course of business or financing is treated as adequately evidencing that the person in possession of it is entitled to receive, hold and dispose of the document and the goods it covers. To be a document of title a document must purport to be issued by or addressed to a bailee and purport to cover goods in the bailee's possession which are either identified or are fungible portions of an identified mass.

16. "Fault" means wrongful act, omission or breach.

17. "Fungible" with respect to goods or securities means goods or securities of which any unit is, by nature or usage of trade, the equivalent of any other like unit. Goods which are not fungible shall be deemed fungible for the purposes of this chapter to the extent that under a particular agreement or document unlike units are treated as equivalents.

18. "Genuine" means free of forgery or counterfeiting.

19. "Good faith" means honesty in fact in the conduct or transaction concerned.

20. "Holder" means a person who is in possession of a document of title or an instrument or a certificated investment security drawn, issued, or endorsed to that person or to that person's order or to bearer or in blank.

21. To "honor" is to pay or to accept and pay, or where a credit so engages to purchase or discount a draft complying with the terms of the credit.

22. "Insolvency proceedings" includes any assignment for the benefit of creditors or other proceedings intended to liquidate or rehabilitate the estate of the person involved.

23. A person is “insolvent” who either has ceased to pay that person’s debts in the ordinary course of business or cannot pay that person’s debts as they become due or is insolvent within the meaning of the federal bankruptcy law.

24. “Money” means a medium of exchange authorized or adopted by a domestic or foreign government as a part of its currency.

25. A person has “notice” of a fact when

- a. the person has actual knowledge of it; or
- b. the person has received a notice or notification of it; or

c. from all the facts and circumstances known to the person at the time in question the person has reason to know that it exists. A person “knows” or has “knowledge” of a fact when that person has actual knowledge of it. “Discover” or “learn” or a word or phrase of similar import refers to knowledge rather than to reason to know. The time and circumstances under which a notice or notification may cease to be effective are not determined by this chapter.

26. A person “notifies” or “gives” a notice or notification to another by taking such steps as may be reasonably required to inform the other in ordinary course whether or not such other actually comes to know of it. A person “receives” a notice or notification when

- a. it comes to that person’s attention; or
- b. it is duly delivered at the place of business through which the contract was made or at any other place held out by that person as the place for receipt of such communications.

27. Notice, knowledge or a notice or notification received by an organization is effective for a particular transaction from the time when it is brought to the attention of the individual conducting that transaction, and in any event from the time when it would have been brought to that individual’s attention if the organization had exercised due diligence. An organization exercises due diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the person conducting the transaction and there is reasonable compliance with the routines. Due diligence does not require an individual acting for the organization to communicate information unless such communication is part of that individual’s regular duties or unless the individual has reason to know of the transaction and that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.

28. “Organization” includes a corporation, government or governmental sub-division or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

29. “Party”, as distinct from “third party”, means a person who has engaged in a transaction or made an agreement within this chapter.

30. “Person” includes an individual or an organization (See section 554.1102).

31. “Presumption” or “presumed” means that the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact presumed unless and until evidence is introduced which would support a finding of its nonexistence.

32. “Purchase” means any voluntary transaction creating an interest in property, including taking by sale, discount, negotiation, mortgage, pledge, voluntary lien, issue, reissue or gift.

33. “Purchaser” means a person who takes by purchase.

34. “Remedy” means any remedial right to which an aggrieved party is entitled with or without resort to a tribunal.

35. “Representative” includes an agent, an officer of a corporation or association, and a trustee, executor or administrator of an estate, or any other person empowered to act for another.

36. “Rights” includes remedies.

37. “Security interest” means an interest in personal property or fixtures which secures payment or performance of an obligation. The retention or reservation of title by a seller of goods notwithstanding shipment or delivery to the buyer (section 554.2401) is limited in effect to a reservation of a “security interest”. The term also includes any interest of a buyer of accounts or chattel paper which is subject to Article 9. The special property interest of a buyer of goods on identification of such goods to a contract for sale under section 554.2401 is not a “security interest”, but a buyer may also acquire a “security interest” by complying with Article 9. Unless a lease or consignment is intended as security, reservation of title thereunder is not a “security interest” but a consignment is in any event subject to the provisions on consignment sales (section 554.2326). Whether a lease is intended as security is to be determined by the facts of each case; however, (a) the inclusion of an option to purchase does not of itself make the lease one intended for security, and (b) an agreement that upon compliance with the terms of the lease the lessee shall become or has the option to become the owner of the property for no additional consideration or for a nominal consideration does make the lease one intended for security.

38. “Send” in connection with any writing or notice means to deposit in the mail or deliver for transmission by any other usual means of communication with postage or cost of transmission provided for and properly addressed and in the case of an instrument to an address specified thereon or otherwise agreed, or if there be none to any address reasonable under the circumstances. The receipt of any writing or notice within the time at which it would have arrived if properly sent has the effect of a proper sending.

39. “Signed” includes any symbol executed or adopted by a party with present intention to authenticate a writing.

40. “Surety” includes guarantor.

41. “Telegram” includes a message transmitted by radio, teletype, cable, any mechanical method of transmission, or the like.

42. “Term” means that portion of an agreement which relates to a particular matter.

43. “Unauthorized” signature or endorsement means one made without actual, implied or apparent authority and includes a forgery.

44. “Value”. Except as otherwise provided with respect to negotiable instruments and bank collections (sections 554.3303, 554.4208 and 554.4209) a person gives “value” for rights if the person acquires them

a. in return for a binding commitment to extend credit or for the extension of immediately available credit whether or not drawn upon and whether or not a charge-back is provided for in the event of difficulties in collection; or

b. as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a pre-existing claim; or

c. by accepting delivery pursuant to a pre-existing contract for purchase; or

d. generally, in return for any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract.

45. “Warehouse receipt” means a receipt issued by a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire.

46. “Written” or “writing” includes printing, typewriting or any other intentional reduction to tangible form.

89 Acts, ch 113, §54 SF 475
Subsections 5, 14 and 20 amended

554.5114 Issuer's duty and privilege to honor—right to reimbursement.

1. An issuer must honor a draft or demand for payment which complies with the terms of the relevant credit regardless of whether the goods or documents conform to the underlying contract for sale or other contract between the customer and the beneficiary. The issuer is not excused from honor of such a draft or demand by reason of an additional general term that all documents must be satisfactory to the issuer, but an issuer may require that specified documents must be satisfactory to it.

2. Unless otherwise agreed when documents appear on their face to comply with the terms of a credit but a required document does not in fact conform to the warranties made on negotiation or transfer of a document of title (section 554.7507) or of a certificated security (section 554.8306) or is forged or fraudulent or there is fraud in the transaction:

a. the issuer must honor the draft or demand for payment if honor is demanded by a negotiating bank or other holder of the draft or demand which has taken the draft or demand under the credit and under circumstances which would make it a holder in due course (section 554.3302) and in an appropriate case would make it a person to whom a document of title has been duly negotiated (section 554.7502) or a bona fide purchaser of a certificated security (section 554.8302); and

b. in all other cases as against its customer, an issuer acting in good faith may honor the draft or demand for payment despite notification from the customer of fraud, forgery or other defect not apparent on the face of the documents but a court of appropriate jurisdiction may enjoin such honor.

3. Unless otherwise agreed an issuer which has duly honored a draft or demand for payment is entitled to immediate reimbursement of any payment made under the credit and to be put in effectively available funds not later than the day before maturity of any acceptance made under the credit.

4. When a credit provides for payment by the issuer on receipt of notice that the required documents are in the possession of a correspondent or other agent of the issuer

a. any payment made on receipt of such notice is conditional; and

b. the issuer may reject documents which do not comply with the credit if it does so within three banking days following its receipt of the documents; and

c. in the event of such rejection, the issuer is entitled by charge-back or otherwise to return of the payment made.

5. In the case covered by subsection 4 failure to reject documents within the time specified in subparagraph "b" constitutes acceptance of the documents and makes the payment final in favor of the beneficiary.

89 Acts, ch 113, §55 SF 475
Subsection 2 amended

554.8102 Definitions and index of definitions.

1. In this Article, unless the context otherwise requires a. A "certified security" is a share, participation, or other interest in property of or an enterprise of the issuer or an obligation of the issuer which is

i. represented by an instrument issued in bearer or registered form;

ii. of a type commonly dealt in on securities exchanges or markets or commonly recognized in any area in which it is issued or dealt in as a medium for investment; and

iii. either one of a class or series or by its terms divisible into a class or series of shares, participations, interests, or obligations.

b. An "uncertificated security" is a share, participation, or other interest in property or an enterprise of the issuer or an obligation of the issuer which is

i. not represented by an instrument and the transfer of which is registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on behalf of the issuer;

ii. of a type commonly dealt in on securities exchanges or markets; and

iii. either one of a class or series or by its terms divisible into a class or series of shares, participations, interests, or obligations.

c. A "security" is either a certificated or an uncertificated security. If a security is certificated, the terms "security" and "certified security" may mean either the intangible interest, the instrument representing that interest, or both, as the context requires. A writing that is a certificated security is governed by this Article and not by Article 3 even though it also meets the requirements of that Article. This Article does not apply to money. If a certificated security has been retained by or surrendered to the issuer or its transfer agent for reasons other than registration of transfer, other temporary purpose, payment, exchange, or acquisition by the issuer, that security shall be treated as an uncertificated security for purposes of this Article.

d. A certificated security is in “registered form” if:

- i. it specifies a person entitled to the security or to the rights it represents, and
- ii. its transfer may be registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on behalf of the issuer, or the security so states.

e. A certificated security is in “bearer form” if it runs to bearer according to its terms and not by reason of any endorsement.

2. A “subsequent purchaser” is a person who takes other than by original issue.

3. A “clearing corporation” is a corporation registered as a “clearing agency” as under federal securities laws or a corporation:

a. At least ninety percent of whose capital stock is held by or for one or more organizations, none of which, other than a national securities exchange or association, holds in excess of twenty percent of the capital stock of the corporation, each of which is

- i. subject to supervision or regulation pursuant to the provisions of federal or state banking laws or state insurance laws,
- ii. a broker or dealer or investment company registered under the federal securities laws, or
- iii. a national securities exchange or association registered under the federal securities laws, and

b. Any remaining capital stock of which is held by individuals who have purchased it at or prior to the time of their taking office as directors of the corporation and who have purchased only so much of such capital stock as is necessary to permit them to qualify as directors.

4. A “custodian bank” is a bank or trust company that is supervised and examined by state or federal authority having supervision over banks and is acting as custodian for a clearing corporation.

6. In addition Article 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this Article.

554.8103 Issuer's lien.

A lien upon a security in favor of an issuer thereof is valid against a purchaser only if:

- a. the security is certificated and the right of the issuer to the lien is noted conspicuously thereon; or
- b. the security is uncertificated and a notation of the right of the issuer to the lien is contained in the initial transaction statement sent to the purchaser or, if the purchaser's interest is transferred to the purchaser other than by registration of transfer, pledge, or release, the initial transaction statement sent to the registered owner or the registered pledgee.

89 Acts, ch 113, §2 SF 475
Section amended

554.8104 Effect of overissue—"overissue."

1. The provisions of this Article which validate a security or compel its issue or reissue do not apply to the extent that validation, issue or reissue would result in overissue; but if:

- a. an identical security which does not constitute an overissue is reasonably available for purchase, the person entitled to issue or validation may compel the issuer to purchase the security for that person and either to deliver a certificated security or to register the transfer of an uncertificated security to that person against surrender of any certificated security that person holds; or
- b. a security is not so available for purchase, the person entitled to issue or validation may recover from the issuer the price that person or the last purchaser for value paid for it with interest from the date of that person's demand.

2. "Overissue" means the issue of securities in excess of the amount the issuer has corporate power to issue.

89 Acts, ch 113, §3 SF 475
Section amended

554.8105 Certificated securities negotiable—statements and instructions not negotiable—presumptions.

1. Certificated securities governed by this Article are negotiable instruments.
2. Statements (section 554.8408), notices, or the like, sent by the issuer of uncertificated securities and instructions (section 554.8308) are neither negotiable instruments nor certificated securities.
3. In any action on a security:
  - a. unless specifically denied in the pleadings, each signature on a certificated security, in a necessary endorsement, on an initial transaction statement, or on an instruction, is admitted;
  - b. if the effectiveness of a signature is put in issue, the burden of establishing it is on the party claiming under the signature, but the signature is presumed to be genuine or authorized;
  - c. if signatures on a certificated security are admitted or established, production of the security entitles a holder to recover on it unless the defendant establishes a defense or a defect going to the validity of the security;
  - d. if signatures on an initial transaction statement are admitted or established, the facts stated in the statement are presumed to be true as of the time of its issuance; and
  - e. after it is shown that a defense or defect exists, the plaintiff has the burden of establishing that the plaintiff or some person under whom the plaintiff claims is a person against whom the defense or defect is ineffective (section 554.8202).

89 Acts, ch 113, §4 SF 475
Section amended

554.8106 Applicability.

The law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction of organization of the issuer governs the validity of a security, the effectiveness of registration by the issuer, and the rights and duties of the issuer with respect to:

- a. registration of transfer of a certificated security;
- b. registration of transfer, pledge, or release of an uncertificated security; and
- c. sending of statements of uncertificated securities.

89 Acts, ch 113, §5 SF 475
Section amended

554.8107 Securities transferable—action for price.

1. Unless otherwise agreed and subject to any applicable law or regulation respecting short sales, a person obligated to transfer securities may transfer any certificated security of the specified issue in bearer form or registered in the name of the transferee, or endorsed to the transferee, or in blank, or the transferor may transfer an equivalent uncertificated security to the transferee or a person designated by the transferee.

2. If the buyer fails to pay the price as it comes due under a contract of sale, the seller may recover the price of:

- a. certificated securities accepted by the buyer;
- b. uncertificated securities that have been transferred to the buyer or a person designated by the buyer; and
- c. other securities if efforts at their resale would be unduly burdensome or if there is no readily available market for their resale.

89 Acts, ch 113, §6 SF 475
Section amended

554.8108 Registration of pledge and release of uncertificated securities.

A security interest in an uncertificated security may be evidenced by the registration of pledge to the secured party or a person designated by the secured party. There can be no more than one registered pledge of an uncertificated security at any time. The registered owner of an uncertificated security is the person in whose name the security is registered, even if the security is subject to a registered pledge. The rights of a registered pledgee of an uncertificated security under this Article are terminated by the registration of release.

89 Acts, ch 113, §7 SF 475
NEW section

554.8201 “Issuer.”

1. With respect to obligations on or defenses to a security “issuer” includes a person who:

- a. places or authorizes the placing of that person’s name on a certificated security (otherwise than as authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent, or the like) to evidence that it represents a share, participation, or other interest in that person’s property or in an enterprise or to evidence that person’s duty to perform an obligation represented by the certificated security;
- b. creates shares, participations or other interests in the person’s property or in an enterprise or undertakes obligations, which shares, participations, interests, or obligations are uncertificated securities;
- c. directly or indirectly creates fractional interests in that person’s rights or property, which fractional interests are represented by certificated securities; or
- d. becomes responsible for or in place of any other person described as an issuer in this section.

2. With respect to obligations on or defenses to a security, a guarantor is an issuer to the extent of the guarantor’s guaranty, whether or not the guarantor’s obligation is noted on a certificated security or on statements of uncertificated securities sent pursuant to section 554.8408.

3. With respect to registration of transfer, pledge, or release (Part 4 of this Article), “issuer” means a person on whose behalf transfer books are maintained.

89 Acts, ch 113, §8 SF 475
Section amended

554.8202 Issuer’s responsibility and defenses—notice of defect or defense.

1. Even against a purchaser for value and without notice, the terms of a security include:

- a. if the security is certificated, those stated on the security;
- b. if the security is uncertificated, those contained in the initial transaction statement sent to such purchaser, or if the purchaser’s interest is transferred to the purchaser other than by registration of transfer, pledge, or release, the initial transaction statement sent to the registered owner or registered pledgee; and
- c. those made part of the security by reference, on the certificated security or in the initial transaction statement, to another instrument, indenture, or document or to a constitution, statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order or the like, to the extent that the terms referred to do not conflict with the terms stated on the certificated security or contained in the initial statement. A reference under this paragraph does not of itself charge a purchaser for value with notice of a defect going to the validity of the security, even though the certificated security or statement expressly states that a person accepting it admits notice.

2. A certificated security in the hands of a purchaser for value or an uncertificated security as to which an initial transaction statement has been sent to a purchaser for value, other than a security issued by a government or governmental agency or unit, even though issued with a defect going to its validity, is valid with respect to the purchaser if the purchaser is without notice of the particular defect unless the defect involves a violation of constitutional provisions, in which case the security is valid with respect to a subsequent purchaser for value and without notice of the defect.

This subsection applies to an issuer that is a government or governmental agency or unit only if either there has been substantial compliance with the legal requirements governing the issue or the issuer has received a substantial consideration for the issue as a whole or for the particular security and a stated purpose of the issue is one for which the issuer has power to borrow money or issue the security.

3. Except as provided in the case of certain unauthorized signatures (section 554.8205), lack of genuineness of a certificated security or an initial transaction statement is a complete defense, even against a purchaser for value and without notice.

4. All other defenses of the issuer of a certificated or uncertificated security, including nondelivery and conditional delivery of a certificated security, are ineffective against a purchaser for value who has taken without notice of the particular defense.

5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the right of a party to a “when, as and if issued” or a “when distributed” contract to cancel the contract in the event of a material change in the character of the security that is the subject of the contract or in the plan or arrangement pursuant to which the security is to be issued or distributed.

89 Acts, ch 113, §9 SF 475
Section amended

554.8203 Staleness as notice of defects or defenses.

1. After an act or event creating a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation represented by a certificated security or that sets a date on or after which the security is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange, a purchaser is charged with notice of any defect in its issue or defense of the issuer if:

a. the act or event is one requiring the payment of money, the delivery of certificated securities, the registration of transfer of uncertificated securities, or any of these on presentation or surrender of the certificated security, the funds or securities are available on the date set for payment or exchange, and the purchaser takes the security more than one year after that date; and

b. the act or event is not covered by paragraph "a" and the purchaser takes the security more than two years after the date set for surrender or presentation or the date on which performance became due.

2. A call that has been revoked is not within subsection 1.

89 Acts, ch 113, §10 SF 475
Section amended

554.8204 Effect of issuer's restrictions on transfer.

A restriction on transfer of a security imposed by the issuer, even though otherwise lawful, is ineffective against any person without actual knowledge of it unless:

a. the security is certificated and the restriction is noted conspicuously thereon; or

b. the security is uncertificated and a notation of the restriction is contained in the initial transaction statement sent to the person or, if the person's interest is transferred to the person other than by registration of transfer, pledge, or release, the initial transaction statement sent to the registered owner or the registered pledgee.

89 Acts, ch 113, §11 SF 475
Section amended

554.8205 Effect of unauthorized signature on certificated security or initial transaction statement.

An unauthorized signature placed on a certificated security prior to or in the course of issue or placed on an initial transaction statement is ineffective, but the signature is effective in favor of a purchaser for value of the certificated security or a purchaser for value of an uncertificated security to whom such initial transaction statement has been sent, if the purchaser is without notice of the lack of authority and if the signing has been done by:

a. an authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or other person entrusted by the issuer with the signing of the security, of similar securities, or of initial transaction statements or the immediate preparation for signing of any of them; or

b. an employee of the issuer, or of any of the foregoing, entrusted with responsible handling of the security or initial transaction statement.

89 Acts, ch 113, §12 SF 475
Section amended

554.8206 Completion or alteration of certificated security or initial transaction statement.

1. If a certificated security contains the signatures necessary to its issue or transfer but is incomplete in any other respect:

a. any person may complete it by filling in the blanks as authorized; and

b. even though the blanks are incorrectly filled in, the security as completed is enforceable by a purchaser who took it for value and without notice of the incorrectness.

2. A complete certificated security that has been improperly altered, even though fraudulently, remains enforceable, but only according to its original terms.

3. If an initial transaction statement contains the signatures necessary to its validity, but is incomplete in any other respect:

a. any person may complete it by filling in the blanks as authorized; and

b. even though the blanks are incorrectly filled in, the statement as completed is effective in favor of the person to whom it is sent if the person purchased the security referred to therein for value and without notice of the incorrectness.

4. A complete initial transaction statement that has been improperly altered, even though fraudulently, is effective in favor of a purchaser to whom it has been sent, but only according to its original terms.

89 Acts, ch 113, §13 SF 475
Section amended

554.8207 Rights of issuer with respect to registered owners.

1. Prior to due presentment for registration of transfer of a certificated security in registered form, the issuer or indenture trustee may treat the registered owner as the person exclusively entitled to vote, to receive notifications, and otherwise to exercise all the rights and powers of an owner.

2. Subject to the provisions of subsections 3, 4, and 6, the issuer or indenture trustee may treat the registered owner of an uncertificated security as the person exclusively entitled to vote, to receive notifications, and otherwise to exercise all the rights and powers of an owner.

3. The registered owner of an uncertificated security that is subject to a registered pledge is not entitled to registration of transfer prior to the due presentment to the issuer of a release instruction. The exercise of conversion rights with respect to a convertible uncertificated security is a transfer within the meaning of this section.

4. Upon due presentment of a transfer instruction from the registered pledgee of an uncertificated security, the issuer shall:

a. register the transfer of the security to the new owner free of pledge, if the instruction specifies a new owner (who may be the registered pledgee) and does not specify a pledgee;

b. register the transfer of the security to the new owner subject to the interest of the existing pledgee, if the instruction specifies a new owner and the existing pledgee; or

c. register the release of the security from the existing pledge and register the pledge of the security to the other pledgee, if the instruction specifies the existing owner and another pledgee.

5. Continuity of perfection of a security interest is not broken by registration of transfer under subsection (4)(b) or by registration of release and pledge under subsection (4)(c), if the security interest is assigned.

6. If an uncertificated security is subject to a registered pledge:

a. any uncertificated securities issued in exchange for or distributed with respect to the pledged security shall be registered subject to the pledge;

b. any certificated securities issued in exchange for or distributed with respect to the pledged security shall be delivered to the registered pledgee; and

c. any money paid in exchange for or in redemption of part or all of the security shall be paid to the registered pledgee.

7. Nothing in this Article shall be construed to affect the liability of the registered owner of a security for calls, assessments, or the like.

89 Acts, ch 113, §14 SF 475
Section amended

554.8208 Effect of signature of authenticating trustee, registrar or transfer agent.

1. A person placing that person's signature upon a certificated security or an initial transaction statement as authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent, or the like, warrants to a purchaser for value of the certificated security or a purchaser for value of an uncertificated security to whom the initial transaction statement has been sent, if the purchaser is without notice of the particular defect, that:

- a. the certificated security or initial transaction statement is genuine;
- b. that person's own participation in the issue or registration of transfer, pledge, or release of the security is within that person's capacity and within the scope of the authority received by that person from the issuer; and
- c. that person has reasonable grounds to believe that the security is in the form and within the amount the issuer is authorized to issue.

2. Unless otherwise agreed, a person by so placing that person's signature does not assume responsibility for the validity of the security in other respects.

89 Acts, ch 113, §15 SF 475
Section amended

554.8301 Rights acquired by purchaser.

1. Upon transfer of a security to a purchaser (section 554.8313), the purchaser acquires the rights in the security which the purchaser's transferor had or had actual authority to convey unless the purchaser's rights are limited by section 554.8302, subsection 4.

2. A transferee of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest transferred. The creation or release of a security interest in a security is the transfer of a limited interest in that security.

89 Acts, ch 113, §16 SF 475
Section amended

554.8302 "Bona fide purchaser"—"adverse claim"—title acquired by bona fide purchaser.

1. A "bona fide purchaser" is a purchaser for value in good faith and without notice of any adverse claim:

- a. who takes delivery of a certificated security in bearer form or in registered form, issued or endorsed to that purchaser or in blank;
- b. to whom the transfer, pledge, or release of an uncertificated security is registered on the books of the issuer; or
- c. to whom a security is transferred under the provisions of paragraph "c", "d"(i), or "g" of section 554.8313, subsection 1.

2. "Adverse claim" includes a claim that a transfer was or would be wrongful or that a particular adverse person is the owner of or has an interest in the security.

3. A bona fide purchaser in addition to acquiring the rights of a purchaser (section 554.8301) also acquires interest in the security free of any adverse claim.

4. Notwithstanding section 554.8301, subsection 1, the transferee of a particular certificated security who has been a party to any fraud or illegality affecting the security, or who as a prior holder of that certificated security had notice of an adverse claim, cannot improve the transferee's position by taking from a bona fide purchaser.

89 Acts, ch 113, §17 SF 475
Section amended

554.8303 "Broker."

"Broker" means a person engaged for all or part of the person's time in the business of buying and selling securities, who in the transaction concerned acts for, buys a security from, or sells a security to, a customer. Nothing in this Article determines the capacity in which a person acts for purposes of any other statute or rule to which the person is subject.

89 Acts, ch 113, §18 SF 475
Section amended

554.8304 Notice to purchaser of adverse claims.

1. A purchaser (including a broker for the seller or buyer but excluding an intermediary bank) of a certificated security is charged with notice of adverse claims if:

- a. the security, whether in bearer or registered form, has been endorsed "for collection" or "for surrender" or for some other purpose not involving transfer; or
- b. the security is in bearer form and has on it an unambiguous statement that it is the property of a person other than the transferor. The mere writing of a name on a security is not such a statement.

2. A purchaser (including a broker for the seller or buyer, but excluding an intermediary bank) to whom the transfer, pledge, or release of an uncertificated security is registered is charged with notice of adverse claims as to which the issuer has a duty under section 554.8403, subsection 4 at the time of registration and which are noted in the initial transaction statement sent to the purchaser or, if the purchaser's interest is transferred to the purchaser other than by registration of transfer, pledge, or release, the initial transaction statement sent to the registered owner or the registered pledgee.

3. The fact that the purchaser (including a broker for the seller or buyer) of a certificated or uncertificated security has notice that the security is held for a third person or is registered in the name of or endorsed by a fiduciary does not create a duty of inquiry into the rightfulness of the transfer or constitute constructive notice of adverse claims. However, if the purchaser (excluding an intermediary bank) has knowledge that the proceeds are being used or the transaction is for the individual benefit of the fiduciary or otherwise in breach of duty, the purchaser is charged with notice of adverse claims.

89 Acts, ch 113, §19 SF 475
Section amended

554.8305 Staleness as notice of adverse claims.

An act or event that creates a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation represented by a certificated security or sets a date on or after which a certificated security is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange does not itself constitute any notice of adverse claims except in the case of a transfer:

- a. after one year from any date set for presentment or surrender for redemption or exchange; or
- b. after six months from any date set for payment of money against presentation or surrender of the security if funds are available for payment on that date.

89 Acts, ch 113, §20 SF 475
Section amended

554.8306 Warranties on presentment and transfer of certificated securities—warranties of originators of instructions.

1. A person who presents a certificated security for registration or for payment or exchange, warrants to the issuer that the person is entitled to the registration, payment or exchange. But, a purchaser for value and without notice of adverse claims who receives a new, reissued, or reregistered certificated security on registration or transfer or receives an initial transaction statement confirming the registration of transfer of an equivalent uncertificated security to that purchaser warrants only that that purchaser has no knowledge of any unauthorized signature (section 554.8311) in a necessary endorsement.

2. A person by transferring a certificated security to a purchaser for value warrants only that:

- a. the person's transfer is effective and rightful;
  - b. the security is genuine and has not been materially altered; and
  - c. the person knows of no fact which might impair the validity of the security.
3. If a certificated security is delivered by an intermediary known to be entrusted with delivery of the security on behalf of another or with collection of a draft or other claim against delivery, the intermediary by delivery warrants only the intermediary's own good faith and authority, even though the intermediary has purchased or made advances against the claim to be collected against the delivery.

4. A pledgee or other holder for security who redelivers a certificated security received, or after payment and on order of the debtor delivers that security to a third person, makes only the warranties of an intermediary under subsection 3.

5. A person who originates an instruction warrants to the issuer that:

a. the originator is an appropriate person to originate the instruction; and
b. at the time the instruction is presented to the issuer the originator will be entitled to the registration of transfer, pledge, or release.

6. A person who originates an instruction warrants to any person specially guaranteeing the originator's signature (section 554.8312, subsection 3) that:

a. the originator is an appropriate person to originate the instruction; and
b. at the time the instruction is presented to the issuer
i. the originator will be entitled to the registration of transfer, pledge, or release; and
ii. the transfer, pledge, or release requested in the instruction will be registered by the issuer free from all liens, security interests, restrictions, and claims other than those specified in the instruction.

7. A person who originates an instruction warrants to a purchaser for value and to any person guaranteeing the instruction (section 554.8312, subsection 6) that:

a. the originator is an appropriate person to originate the instruction;
b. the uncertificated security referred to therein is valid; and
c. at the time the instruction is presented to the issuer
i. the transferor will be entitled to the registration of transfer, pledge, or release;
ii. the transfer, pledge, or release requested in the instruction will be registered by the issuer free from all liens, security interests, restrictions, and claims other than those specified in the instruction; and
iii. the requested transfer, pledge, or release will be rightful.

8. If a secured party is the registered pledgee or the registered owner of an uncertificated security, a person who originates an instruction of release or transfer to the debtor or, after payment and on order of the debtor, a transfer instruction to a third person, warrants to the debtor or the third person only that the secured party is an appropriate person to originate the instruction and at the time the instruction is presented to the issuer, the transferor will be entitled to the registration of release or transfer. If a transfer instruction to a third person who is a purchaser for value is originated on order of the debtor, the debtor makes to the purchaser the warranties of paragraphs "b", "c", ii, and "c" iii of subsection 7.

9. A person who transfers an uncertificated security to a purchaser for value and does not originate an instruction in connection with the transfer warrants only that:

a. The person's transfer is effective and rightful; and
b. The uncertificated security is valid.

10. A broker gives to the broker's customer and to the issuer and a purchaser the applicable warranties provided in this section and has the rights and privileges of a purchaser under this section. The warranties of and in favor of the broker acting as an agent are in addition to applicable warranties given by and in favor of the broker's customer.

89 Acts, ch 113, §21 SF 475
Section amended

554.8307 Effect of delivery without endorsement—right to compel endorsement.

If a certificated security in registered form has been delivered to a purchaser without a necessary endorsement the purchaser may become a bona fide purchaser only as of the time the endorsement is supplied; but against the transferor, the transfer is complete upon delivery and the purchaser has a specifically enforceable right to have any necessary endorsement supplied.

89 Acts, ch 113, §22 SF 475
Section amended

554.8308 Endorsements—instructions.

1. An endorsement of a certificated security in registered form is made when an appropriate person signs on it or on a separate document an assignment or transfer of the security or a power to assign or transfer it or the person's signature is written without more upon the back of the security.

2. An endorsement may be in blank or special. An endorsement in blank includes an endorsement to bearer. A special endorsement specifies to whom the security is to be transferred, or who has power to transfer it. A holder may convert a blank endorsement into a special endorsement.

3. An endorsement purporting to be only of part of a certificated security representing units intended by the issuer to be separately transferable is effective to the extent of the endorsement.

4. An "instruction" is an order to the issuer of an uncertificated security requesting that the transfer, pledge, or release from pledge of the uncertificated security specified therein be registered.

5. An instruction originated by an appropriate person is:

- a. a writing signed by an appropriate person; or
- b. a communication to the issuer in any form agreed upon in a writing signed by the issuer and an appropriate person.

If an instruction has been originated by an appropriate person but is incomplete in any other respect, any person may complete it as authorized and the issuer may rely on it as completed even though it has been completed incorrectly.

6. "An appropriate person" in subsection 1 means the person specified by the certificated security or by special endorsement to be entitled to the security.

7. "An appropriate person" in subsection 5 means:

- a. for an instruction to transfer or pledge an uncertificated security which is then not subject to a registered pledge, the registered owner; or
- b. for an instruction to transfer or release an uncertificated security which is then subject to a registered pledge, the registered pledgee.

8. In addition to the persons designated in subsections 6 and 7, "an appropriate person" in subsections 1 and 5 includes:

- a. if the person designated is described as a fiduciary but is no longer serving in the described capacity,—either that person or that person's successor;
- b. if the persons designated are described as more than one person as fiduciaries and one or more are no longer serving in the described capacity,—the remaining fiduciary or fiduciaries, whether or not a successor has been appointed or qualified;
- c. if the person designated is an individual and is without capacity to act by virtue of death, incompetence, infancy, or otherwise,—that person's executor, administrator, guardian, or like fiduciary;
- d. if the persons designated are described as more than one person as tenants by the entirety or with right of survivorship and by reason of death all cannot sign,—the survivor or survivors;
- e. a person having power to sign under applicable law or controlling instrument; and
- f. to the extent that the person designated or any of the foregoing persons may act through an agent,—that person's authorized agent.

9. Unless otherwise agreed, the endorser of a certificated security by the endorser's endorsement or the originator of an instruction by the originator's origination assumes no obligation that the security will be honored by the issuer but only the obligations provided in section 554.8306.

10. Whether the person signing is appropriate is determined as of the date of signing and an endorsement made by or an instruction originated by the person does not become unauthorized for the purposes of this Article by virtue of any subsequent change of circumstances.

11. Failure of a fiduciary to comply with a controlling instrument or with the law of the state having jurisdiction of the fiduciary relationship, including any law requiring the fiduciary to obtain court approval of the transfer, pledge, or release, does not render the fiduciary's endorsement or an instruction originated by the fiduciary unauthorized for the purposes of this Article.

89 Acts, ch 113, §23 SF 475
Section amended

554.8309 Effect of endorsement without delivery.

An endorsement of a certificated security, whether special or in blank, does not constitute a transfer until delivery of the certificated security on which it appears or, if the endorsement is on a separate document, until delivery of both the document and the certificated security.

89 Acts, ch 113, §24 SF 475
Section amended

554.8310 Endorsement of certificated security in bearer form.

An endorsement of a certificated security in bearer form may give notice of adverse claims (section 554.8304) but does not otherwise affect any right to registration the holder possesses.

89 Acts, ch 113, §25 SF 475
Section amended

554.8311 Effect of unauthorized endorsement or instruction.

Unless the owner or pledgee has ratified an unauthorized endorsement or instruction or is otherwise precluded from asserting its ineffectiveness:

a. the owner may assert its ineffectiveness against the issuer or any purchaser other than a purchaser for value and without notice of adverse claims, who has in good faith received a new, reissued, or reregistered certificated security on registration of transfer or received an initial transaction statement confirming the registration of transfer, pledge, or release of an equivalent uncertificated security to the purchaser; and

b. an issuer who registers the transfer of a certificated security upon the unauthorized endorsement or who registers the transfer, pledge, or release of an uncertificated security upon the unauthorized instruction is subject to liability for improper registration (section 554.8404).

89 Acts, ch 113, §26 SF 475
Section amended

554.8312 Effect of guaranteeing signature or endorsement or instruction.

1. Any person guaranteeing a signature of an endorser of a certificated security warrants that at the time of signing

- a. the signature was genuine;
- b. the signer was an appropriate person to endorse (section 554.8308); and
- c. the signer had legal capacity to sign.

2. Any person guaranteeing a signature of the originator of an instruction warrants that at the time of signing:

- a. the signature was genuine;
- b. the signer was an appropriate person to originate the instruction (section 554.8308) if the person specified in the instruction as the registered owner or registered pledgee of the uncertificated security was, in fact, the registered owner or registered pledgee of such security, as to which fact the signature guarantor makes no warranty;

c. the signer had legal capacity to sign; and

d. the taxpayer identification number, if any, appearing on the instruction as that of the registered owner or registered pledgee was the taxpayer identification number of the signer or of the owner or pledgee for whom the signer was acting.

3. Any person specially guaranteeing the signature of the originator of an instruction makes not only the warranties of a signature guarantor (subsection 2) but also warrants that at the time the instruction is presented to the issuer:

a. the person specified in the instruction as the registered owner or registered pledgee of the uncertificated security will be the registered owner or registered pledgee; and

b. the transfer, pledge, or release of the uncertificated security requested in the instruction will be registered by the issuer free from all liens, security interests, restrictions, and claims other than those specified in the instruction.

4. The guarantor under subsections 1 and 2 or the special guarantor under subsection 3 does not otherwise warrant the rightfulness of the particular transfer, pledge, or release.

5. Any person guaranteeing an endorsement of a certificated security makes not only the warranties of a signature guarantor under subsection 1 but also warrants the rightfulness of the particular transfer in all respects.

6. Any person guaranteeing an instruction requesting the transfer, pledge, or release of an uncertificated security makes not only the warranties of a special signature guarantor under subsection 3, but also warrants the rightfulness of the particular transfer, pledge, or release in all respects.

7. No issuer may require a special guarantee of signature (subsection 3), a guarantee of endorsement (subsection 5), or a guarantee of instruction (subsection 6) as a condition to registration of transfer, pledge, or release.

8. The foregoing warranties are made to any person taking or dealing with the security in reliance on the guarantee and the guarantor is liable to the person for any loss resulting from breach of the warranties.

89 Acts, ch 113, §27 SF 475
Section amended

554.8313 When transfer to purchaser occurs: financial intermediary as bona fide purchaser—"financial intermediary".

1. Transfer of a security or a limited interest (including a security interest) therein to a purchaser occurs only:

a. at the time the purchaser or a person designated by the purchaser acquires possession of a certificated security;

b. at the time the transfer, pledge, or release of an uncertificated security is registered to the purchaser or a person designated by the purchaser;

c. at the time the purchaser's financial intermediary acquires possession of a certificated security specially endorsed to or issued in the name of the purchaser;

d. at the time a financial intermediary, not a clearinghouse, sends the purchaser confirmation of the purchase and also by book entry or otherwise identifies as belonging to the purchaser

- i. a specific certificated security in the financial intermediary's possession;
- ii. a quantity of securities that constitute or are part of a fungible bulk of certificated securities in the financial intermediary's possession or of uncertificated securities registered in the name of the financial intermediary; or
- iii. a quantity of securities that constitute or are part of a fungible bulk of securities shown on the account of the financial intermediary on the books of another financial intermediary;

e. with respect to an identified certificated security to be delivered while still in the possession of a third person, not a financial intermediary, at the time that person acknowledges that that person holds for the purchaser;

f. with respect to a specific uncertificated security the pledge or transfer of which has been registered to a third person, not a financial intermediary, at the time that person acknowledges that that person holds for the purchaser;

g. at the time appropriate entries to the account of the purchaser or a person designated by the purchaser on the books of a clearing corporation are made under section 554.8320;

h. with respect to the transfer of a security interest where the debtor has signed a security agreement containing a description of the security, at the time a written notification, which, in the case of the creation of the security interest, is signed by the debtor (which may be a copy of the security agreement) or which, in the case of the release or assignment of the security interest created pursuant to this paragraph, is signed by the secured party, is received by

i. a financial intermediary on whose books the interest of the transferor in the security appears;

ii. a third person, not a financial intermediary, in possession of the security, if it is certificated;

iii. a third person, not a financial intermediary, who is the registered owner of the security, if it is uncertificated and not subject to a registered pledge; or

iv. a third person, not a financial intermediary, who is the registered pledgee of the security, if it is uncertificated and subject to a registered pledge;

i. with respect to the transfer of a security interest where the transferor has signed a security agreement containing a description of the security, at the time new value is given by the secured party; or

j. with respect to the transfer of a security interest where the secured party is a financial intermediary and the security has already been transferred to the financial intermediary under paragraph "a", "b", "c", "d", or "g", at the time the transferor has signed a security agreement containing a description of the security and value is given by the secured party.

2. The purchaser is the owner of a security held for the purchaser by a financial intermediary, but cannot be a bona fide purchaser of a security so held except in circumstances specified in paragraphs "c", "d"(i), and "g" of subsection 1. If a security so held is part of a fungible bulk, as in the circumstances specified in paragraphs "d"(ii) and "d"(iii) of subsection 1, the purchaser is the owner of a proportionate property interest in the fungible bulk.

3. Notice of an adverse claim received by the financial intermediary or by the purchaser after the financial intermediary takes delivery of a certificated security as a holder for value or after the transfer, pledge, or release of an uncertificated security has been registered free of the claim to a financial intermediary who has given value is not effective either as to the financial intermediary or as to the purchaser. However, as between the financial intermediary and the purchaser the purchaser may demand transfer of an equivalent security as to which no notice of adverse claim has been received.

4. A "financial intermediary" is a bank, broker, clearing corporation or other person (or the nominee of any of them) which in the ordinary course of its business maintains security accounts for its customers and is acting in that capacity. A financial intermediary may have a security interest in securities held in account for its customer.

89 Acts, ch 113, §28 SF 475
Section amended

554.8314 Duty to transfer, when completed.

1. Unless otherwise agreed if a sale of a security is made on an exchange or otherwise through brokers:

a. the selling customer fulfills that customer's duty to transfer at the time that customer:

i. places a certificated security in the possession of the selling broker or of a person designated by the broker;

ii. causes an uncertificated security to be registered in the name of the selling broker or a person designated by the broker;

iii. if requested, causes an acknowledgment to be made to the selling broker that a certificated or uncertificated security is held for that broker; or

iv. places in the possession of the selling broker or of a person designated by the broker a transfer instruction for an uncertificated security, providing the issuer does not refuse to register the requested transfer if the instruction is presented to the issuer for registration within thirty days thereafter; and

b. the selling broker, including a correspondent broker acting for a selling customer, fulfills that broker's duty to transfer at the time that broker

i. places a certificated security in the possession of the buying broker or a person designated by the buying broker;

ii. causes an uncertificated security to be registered in the name of the buying broker or a person designated by the buying broker;

iii. places in the possession of the buying broker or of a person designated by the buying broker a transfer instruction for an uncertificated security, providing the issuer does not refuse to register the requested transfer if the instruction is presented to the issuer for registration within thirty days thereafter; or

iv. effects clearance of the sale in accordance with the rules of the exchange on which the transaction took place.

2. Except as provided in this section and unless otherwise agreed, a transferor's duty to transfer a security under a contract of purchase is not fulfilled until the transferor:

a. places certificated security in form to be negotiated by the purchaser in the possession of the purchaser or of a person designated by the purchaser;

b. causes an uncertificated security to be registered in the name of the purchaser or a person designated by the purchaser; or

c. if the purchaser requests, causes an acknowledgment to be made to the purchaser that a certificated or uncertificated security is held for the purchaser.

3. Unless made on an exchange, a sale to a broker purchasing for the broker's own account is within subsection 2 and not within subsection 1.

89 Acts, ch 113, §29 SF 475
Section amended

554.8315 Action against transferee based upon wrongful transfer.

1. Any person against whom the transfer of a security is wrongful for any reason, including the person's incapacity, as against anyone except a bona fide purchaser, may:

a. reclaim possession of the certificated security wrongfully transferred;

b. obtain possession of any new certificated security representing all or part of the same rights;

c. compel the origination of an instruction to transfer to the person or a person designated by that person an uncertificated security constituting all or part of the same rights; or

d. have damages.

2. If the transfer is wrongful because of an unauthorized endorsement of a certificated security, the owner may also reclaim or obtain possession of the security or a new certificated security, even from a bona fide purchaser, if the ineffectiveness of the purported endorsement can be asserted against the purchaser under the provisions of this Article on unauthorized endorsements (section 554.8311).

3. The right to obtain or reclaim possession of a certificated security or to compel the origination of a transfer instruction may be specifically enforced and the transfer of a certificated or uncertificated security enjoined and a certificated security impounded pending the litigation.

89 Acts, ch 113, §30 SF 475
Section amended

554.8316 Purchaser's right to requisites for registration of transfer, pledge, or release on books.

Unless otherwise agreed, the transferor of a certificated security or the transferor, pledgor, or pledgee of an uncertificated security on due demand must supply the transferor's, pledgor's, or pledgee's purchaser with any proof of the transferor's authority to transfer, pledge, or release or with any other requisite necessary to obtain registration of the transfer, pledge, or release of the security; but if the transfer, pledge, or release is not for value, a transferor, pledgor, or pledgee need not do so unless the purchaser furnishes the necessary expenses. Failure within a reasonable time to comply with a demand gives the purchaser the right to reject or rescind the transfer, pledge, or release.

89 Acts, ch 113, §31 SF 475
Section amended

554.8317 Creditors' rights.

1. Subject to the exceptions in subsections 3 and 4, no attachment or levy upon a certificated security or any share or other interest represented thereby which is outstanding is valid until the security is actually seized by the officer making the attachment or levy, but a certificated security which has been surrendered to the issuer may be reached by a creditor by legal process at the issuer's chief executive office in the United States.

2. An uncertificated security registered in the name of the debtor may not be reached by a creditor except by legal process at the issuer's chief executive office in the United States.

3. The interest of a debtor in a certificated security that is in the possession of a secured party not a financial intermediary or in an uncertificated security registered in the name of a secured party not a financial intermediary (or in the name of a nominee of the secured party) may be reached by a creditor by legal process upon the secured party.

4. The interest of a debtor in a certificated security that is in the possession of or registered in the name of a financial intermediary or in an uncertificated security registered in the name of a financial intermediary may be reached by a creditor by legal process upon the financial intermediary on whose books the interest of the debtor appears.

5. Unless otherwise provided by law, a creditor's lien upon the interest of a debtor in a security obtained pursuant to subsection 3 or 4 is not a restraint on the transfer of the security, free of the lien, to a third party for new value; but in the event of a transfer, the lien applies to the proceeds of the transfer in the hands of the secured party or financial intermediary, subject to any claims having priority.

6. A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a security is entitled to aid from courts of appropriate jurisdiction, by injunction or otherwise, in reaching the security or in satisfying the claim by means allowed at law or in equity in regard to property that cannot readily be reached by ordinary legal process.

89 Acts, ch 113, §32 SF 475
Section amended

554.8318 No conversion by good faith conduct.

An agent or bailee who in good faith (including observance of reasonable commercial standards if the agent or bailee is in the business of buying, selling or otherwise dealing with securities) has received certificated securities and sold, pledged, or delivered them or has sold or caused the transfer or pledge of uncertificated securities over which the agent or bailee had control according to the instructions of the agent's or bailee's principal, is not liable for conversion or for participation in breach of fiduciary duty although the principal had no right so to deal with the securities.

89 Acts, ch 113, §33 SF 475
Section amended

554.8319 Statute of frauds.

A contract for the sale of securities is not enforceable by way of action or defense unless:

- a. there is some writing signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by that party's authorized agent or broker sufficient to indicate that a contract has been made for sale of a stated quantity of described securities at a defined or stated price;
- b. delivery of a certificated security or transfer instruction has been accepted or transfer of an uncertificated security has been registered and the transferee has failed to send written objection to the issuer within ten days after receipt of the initial transaction statement confirming the registration, or payment has been made, but the contract is enforceable under this provision only to the extent of the delivery or payment;
- c. within a reasonable time a writing in confirmation of the sale or purchase and sufficient against the sender under paragraph "a" has been received by the party against whom enforcement is sought and that party has failed to send written objection to its contents within ten days after its receipt; or
- d. the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party's pleading, testimony, or otherwise in court that a contract was made for the sale of a stated quantity of described securities at a defined or stated price.

89 Acts, ch 113, §34 SF 475
Section amended

554.8320 Transfer or pledge within central depository system.

1. In addition to other methods, a transfer, pledge, or release of a security or any interest therein may be effected by the making of appropriate entries on the books of a clearing corporation reducing the account of the transferor, pledgor, or pledgee and increasing the account of the transferee, pledgee, or pledgor by the amount of the obligation, or the number of shares or rights transferred, pledged, or released, if the security is shown on the account of a transferor, pledgor, or pledgee on the books of the clearing corporation; is subject to the control of the clearing corporation; and

- a. if certificated,
    - i. is in the custody of the clearing corporation, another clearing corporation, a custodian bank or a nominee of any of them; and
    - ii. is in bearer form or endorsed in blank by an appropriate person or registered in the name of the clearing corporation, a custodian bank, or a nominee of any of them; or
  - b. if uncertificated, is registered in the name of the clearing corporation, another clearing corporation, a custodian bank, or a nominee of any of them.
2. Under this section entries may be made with respect to like securities or interests therein as a part of a fungible bulk and may refer merely to a quantity of a particular security without reference to the name of the registered owner, certificate or bond number, or the like, and, in appropriate cases, may be on a net basis taking into account other transfers, pledges, or releases of the same security.
3. A transfer under this section is effective (section 554.8313) and the purchaser acquires the rights of the transferor (section 554.8301). A pledge or release under this section is the transfer of a limited interest. If a pledge or the creation of a security interest is intended, the security interest is perfected at the time when both value is given by the pledgee and the appropriate entries are made (section 554.8321). A transferee or pledgee under this section may be a bona fide purchaser (section 554.8302).

4. A transfer or pledge under this section is not a registration of transfer under Part 4.

5. That entries made on the books of the clearing corporation as provided in subsection 1 are not appropriate does not affect the validity or effect of the entries or the liabilities or obligations of the clearing corporation to any person adversely affected thereby.

89 Acts, ch 113, §35 SF 475
Section amended

554.8321 Enforceability, attachment, perfection, and termination of security interests.

1. A security interest in a security is enforceable and can attach only if it is transferred to the secured party or a person designated by the secured party pursuant to a provision of section 554.8313, subsection 1.

2. A security interest so transferred pursuant to agreement by a transferor who has rights in the security to a transferee who has given value is a perfected security interest, but a security interest that has been transferred solely under paragraph "i" of section 554.8313, subsection 1 becomes unperfected after twenty-one days unless, within that time, the requirements for transfer under any other provision of section 554.8313, subsection 1 are satisfied.

3. A security interest in a security is subject to the provisions of Article 9, but:

a. no filing is required to perfect the security interest; and

b. no written security agreement signed by the debtor is necessary to make the security interest enforceable, except as otherwise provided in paragraph "h", "i", or "j" of section 554.8313, subsection 1. The secured party has the rights and duties provided under section 554.9207, to the extent they are applicable, whether or not the security is certificated, and, if certificated, whether or not it is in the secured party's possession.

4. Unless otherwise agreed, a security interest in a security is terminated by transfer to the debtor or a person designated by the debtor pursuant to a provision of section 554.8313, subsection 1. If a security is thus transferred, the security interest, if not terminated, becomes unperfected unless the security is certificated and is delivered to the debtor for the purpose of ultimate sale or exchange or presentation, collection, renewal, or registration of transfer. In that case, the security interest becomes unperfected after twenty-one days unless, within that time, the security (or securities for which it has been exchanged) is transferred to the secured party or a person designated by the secured party pursuant to a provision of section 554.8313, subsection 1.

554.8401 Duty of issuer to register transfer, pledge, or release.

1. If a certificated security in registered form is presented to the issuer with a request to register transfer or an instruction is presented to the issuer with a request to register transfer, pledge, or release the issuer shall register the transfer, pledge, or release as requested if:

a. the security is endorsed or the instruction was originated by the appropriate person or persons (section 554.8308);

b. reasonable assurance is given that those endorsements or instructions are genuine and effective (section 554.8402);

c. the issuer has no duty as to adverse claims or has discharged the duty (section 554.8403);

d. any applicable law relating to the collection of taxes has been complied with; and

e. the transfer, pledge, or release is in fact rightful or is to a bona fide purchaser.

2. If an issuer is under a duty to register a transfer, pledge, or release of a security, the issuer is also liable to the person presenting a certificated security or an instruction for registration or that person's principal for loss resulting from any unreasonable delay in registration or from failure or refusal to register the transfer, pledge, or release.

89 Acts, ch 113, §37 SF 475
Section amended

554.8402 Assurance that endorsements and instructions are effective.

1. The issuer may require the following assurance that each necessary endorsement of a certificated security or each instruction (section 554.8308) is genuine and effective:

a. in all cases, a guarantee of the signature (section 554.8312, subsection 1 or 2) of the person endorsing a certificated security or originating an instruction including, in the case of an instruction, a warranty of the taxpayer identification number or, in the absence thereof, other reasonable assurance of identity;

b. if the endorsement is made or the instruction is originated by an agent, appropriate assurance of authority to sign;

c. if the endorsement is made or the instruction is originated by a fiduciary, appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency;

d. if there is more than one fiduciary, reasonable assurance that all who are required to sign have done so; and

e. if the endorsement is made or the instruction is originated by a person not covered by any of the foregoing, assurance appropriate to the case corresponding as nearly as may be to the foregoing.

2. A "guarantee of the signature" in subsection 1 means a guarantee signed by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the issuer to be responsible. The issuer may adopt standards with respect to responsibility if they are not manifestly unreasonable.

3. "Appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency" in subsection 1 means

a. in the case of a fiduciary appointed or qualified by a court, a certificate issued by or under the direction or supervision of that court or an officer of that court and dated within one hundred eighty days before the date of presentation for transfer, pledge, or release; or

b. in any other case, a copy of a document showing the appointment or a certificate issued by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the issuer to be responsible or, in the absence of that document or certificate, other evidence reasonably deemed by the issuer to be appropriate. The issuer may adopt standards with respect to the evidence if they are not manifestly unreasonable. The issuer is not charged with notice of the contents of any document obtained pursuant to this paragraph "b" except to the extent that the contents relate directly to the appointment or incumbency.

4. The issuer may elect to require reasonable assurance beyond that specified in this section, but if it does so and, for a purpose other than that specified in subsection 3 "b", both requires and obtains a copy of a will, trust, indenture, articles of copartnership, bylaws, or other controlling instrument, it is charged with notice of all matters contained therein affecting the transfer, pledge, or release.

554.8403 Issuer's duty as to adverse claims.

1. An issuer to whom a certificated security is presented for registration shall inquire into adverse claims if:

a. a written notification of an adverse claim is received at a time and in a manner affording the issuer a reasonable opportunity to act on it prior to the issuance of a new, reissued, or registered certificated security, and the notification identifies the claimant, the registered owner, and the issue of which the security is a part, and provides an address for communications directed to the claimant; or

b. the issuer is charged with notice of an adverse claim from a controlling instrument it has elected to require under section 554.8402, subsection 4.

2. The issuer may discharge any duty of inquiry by any reasonable means, including notifying an adverse claimant by registered or certified mail at the address furnished by the adverse claimant or if there be no such address at the adverse claimant's residence or regular place of business that the certificated security has been presented for registration of transfer by a named person, and that the transfer will be registered unless within thirty days from the date of mailing the notification, either:

a. an appropriate restraining order, injunction or other process issues from a court of competent jurisdiction; or

b. there is filed with the issuer an indemnity bond, sufficient in the issuer's judgment to protect the issuer and any transfer agent, registrar, or other agent of the issuer involved from any loss it or they may suffer by complying with the adverse claim.

3. Unless an issuer is charged with notice of an adverse claim from a controlling instrument which it has elected to require under section 554.8402, subsection 4, or receives notification of an adverse claim under subsection 1, if a certificated security presented for registration is endorsed by the appropriate person or persons the issuer is under no duty to inquire into adverse claims. In particular:

a. an issuer registering a certificated security in the name of a person who is a fiduciary or who is described as a fiduciary is not bound to inquire into the existence, extent, or correct description of the fiduciary relationship; and thereafter the issuer may assume without inquiry that the newly registered owner continues to be the fiduciary until the issuer receives written notice that the fiduciary is no longer acting as such with respect to the particular security;

b. an issuer registering transfer on an endorsement by a fiduciary is not bound to inquire whether the transfer is made in compliance with a controlling instrument or with the law of the state having jurisdiction of the fiduciary relationship, including any law requiring the fiduciary to obtain court approval of the transfer; and

c. the issuer is not charged with notice of the contents of any court record or file or other recorded or unrecorded document even though the document is in its possession and even though the transfer is made on the endorsement of a fiduciary to the same fiduciary or to the fiduciary's nominee.

4. An issuer is under no duty as to adverse claims with respect to an uncertificated security except:

a. claims embodied in a restraining order, injunction, or other legal process served upon the issuer if the process was served at a time and in a manner affording the issuer a reasonable opportunity to act on it in accordance with the requirements of subsection 5;

b. claims of which the user* has received a written notification from the registered owner or the registered pledgee if the notification was received at a time and in a manner affording the issuer a reasonable opportunity to act on it in accordance with the requirements of subsection 5;

c. claims (including restrictions on transfer not imposed by the issuer) to which the registration of transfer to the present registered owner was subject and were so noted in the initial transaction statement sent to the issuer; and

d. claims as to which an issuer is charged with notice from a controlling instrument it has elected to require under section 554.8402, subsection 4.

5. If the issuer of an uncertificated security is under a duty as to an adverse claim, the issuer discharges that duty by:

a. including a notation of the claim in any statements sent with respect to the security under section 554.8408, subsections 3, 6, and 7; and

b. refusing to register the transfer or pledge of the security unless the nature of the claim does not preclude transfer or pledge subject thereto.

6. If the transfer or pledge of the security is registered subject to an adverse claim, a notation of the claim must be included in the initial transaction statement and all subsequent statements sent to the transferee and pledgee under section 554.8408.

7. Notwithstanding subsections 4 and 5, if an uncertificated security was subject to a registered pledge at the time the issuer first came under a duty as to a particular adverse claim, the issuer has no duty as to that claim if transfer of the security is requested by the registered pledgee or an appropriate person acting for the registered pledgee unless:

a. the claim was embodied in legal process which expressly provides otherwise;

b. the claim was asserted in a written notification from the registered pledgee;

c. the claim was one as to which the issuer was charged with notice from a controlling instrument it required under section 554.8402, subsection 4 in connection with the pledgee's request for transfer; or

d. the transfer requested is to the registered owner.

554.8404 Liability and nonliability for registration.

1. Except as provided in any law relating to the collection of taxes, the issuer is not liable to the owner, pledgee, or any other person suffering loss as a result of the registration of a transfer, pledge, or release of a security if:

a. there were on or with a certificated security the necessary endorsements or the issuer had received an instruction originated by an appropriate person (section 554.8308); and

b. the issuer had no duty as to adverse claims or has discharged the duty (section 554.8403).

2. If an issuer has registered a transfer of a certificated security to a person not entitled to it, the issuer on demand shall deliver a like security to the true owner unless:

a. the registration was pursuant to subsection 1;

b. the owner is precluded from asserting any claim for registering the transfer under section 554.8405, subsection 1; or

c. the delivery would result in overissue, in which case the issuer's liability is governed by section 554.8104.

3. If an issuer has improperly registered a transfer, pledge, or release of an uncertificated security, the issuer on demand from the injured party shall restore the records as to the injured party to the condition that would have obtained if the improper registration had not been made unless:

a. the registration was pursuant to subsection 1; or

b. the registration would result in overissue, in which case the issuer's liability is governed by section 554.8104.

554.8405 Lost, destroyed, and stolen certificated securities.

1. If a certificated security has been lost, apparently destroyed, or wrongfully taken, and the owner fails to notify the issuer of that fact within a reasonable time after the owner has notice of it and the issuer registers a transfer of the security before receiving notification, the owner is precluded from asserting against the issuer any claim for registering the transfer under section 554.8404 or any claim to a new security under this section.

2. If the owner of a security claims that a certificated security has been lost, destroyed, or wrongfully taken, the issuer shall issue a new certificated security or, at the option of the issuer, an equivalent uncertificated security in place of the original security if the owner:

- a. so requests before the issuer has notice that the security has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser;
- b. files with the issuer a sufficient indemnity bond; and
- c. satisfies any other reasonable requirements imposed by the issuer.

3. If, after the issue of a new certificated or uncertificated security, a bona fide purchaser of the original certificated security presents it for registration of transfer, the issuer shall register the transfer unless registration would result in overissue, in which event the issuer's liability is governed by section 554.8104. In addition to any rights on the indemnity bond, the issuer may recover the new certificated security from the person to whom it was issued or any person taking under the person to whom it was issued except a bona fide purchaser or may cancel the uncertificated security unless a bona fide purchaser or any person taking under a bona fide purchaser is then the registered owner or registered pledgee thereof.

554.8406 Duty of authenticating trustee, transfer agent or registrar.

1. If a person acts as authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar, or other agent for an issuer in the registration of transfers of its certificated securities or in the registration of transfers, pledges, and releases of its uncertificated securities, in the issue of new securities, or in the cancellation of surrendered securities:

- a. that person is under a duty to the issuer to exercise good faith and due diligence in performing that person's functions; and
- b. with regard to the particular functions that person performs, that person has the same obligation to the holder or owner of a certificated security or to the owner or pledgee of an uncertificated security and has the same rights and privileges as the issuer has in regard to those functions.

2. Notice to an authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar or other agent is notice to the issuer with respect to the functions performed by the agent.

89 Acts, ch 113, §42 SF 475
Section amended

554.8407 Exchangeability of securities.

1. No issuer is subject to the requirements of this section unless it regularly maintains a system for issuing the class of securities involved under which both certificated and uncertificated securities are regularly issued to the category of owners, which includes the person in whose name the new security is to be registered.

2. Upon surrender of a certificated security with all necessary endorsements and presentation of a written request by the person surrendering the security, the issuer, if the issuer has no duty as to adverse claims or has discharged the duty (section 554.8403), shall issue to the person or a person designated by that person an equivalent uncertificated security subject to all liens, restrictions, and claims that were noted on the certificated security.

3. Upon receipt of a transfer instruction originated by an appropriate person who so requests, the issuer of an uncertificated security shall cancel the uncertificated security and issue an equivalent certificated security on which must be noted conspicuously any liens and restrictions of the issuer and any adverse claims (as to which the issuer has a duty under section 554.8403, subsection 4) to which the uncertificated security was subject. The certificated security shall be registered in the name of and delivered to:

- a. the registered owner, if the uncertificated security was not subject to a registered pledge; or
- b. the registered pledgee, if the uncertificated security was subject to a registered pledge.

NEW section

554.8408 Statements of uncertificated securities.

1. Within two business days after the transfer of an uncertificated security has been registered, the issuer shall send to the new registered owner and, if the security has been transferred subject to a registered pledge, to the registered pledgee a written statement containing:

- a. a description of the issue of which the uncertificated security is a part;
- b. the number of shares or units transferred;
- c. the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of the new registered owner and, if the security has been transferred subject to a registered pledge, the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of the registered pledgee;
- d. a notation of any liens and restrictions of the issuer and any adverse claims (as to which the issuer has a duty under section 554.8403, subsection 4) to which the uncertificated security is or may be subject at the time of registration or a statement that there are none of those liens, restrictions, or adverse claims; and
- e. the date the transfer was registered.

2. Within two business days after the pledge of an uncertificated security has been registered, the issuer shall send to the registered owner and the registered pledgee a written statement containing:

- a. a description of the issue of which the uncertificated security is a part;
- b. the number of shares or units pledged;
- c. the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of the registered owner and the registered pledgee;
- d. a notation of any liens and restrictions of the issuer and any adverse claims (as to which the issuer has a duty under section 554.8403, subsection 4) to which the uncertificated security is or may be subject at the time of registration or a statement that there are none of those liens, restrictions, or adverse claims; and
- e. the date the pledge was registered.

3. Within two business days after the release from pledge of an uncertificated security has been registered, the issuer shall send to the registered owner and the pledgee whose interest was released a written statement containing:

- a. a description of the issue of which the uncertificated security is a part;
- b. the number of shares or units released from pledge;
- c. the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of the registered owner and the pledgee whose interest was released;
- d. a notation of any liens and restrictions of the issuer and any adverse claims (as to which the issuer has a duty under section 554.8403, subsection 4) to which the uncertificated security is or may be subject at the time of registration or a statement that there are none of those liens, restrictions, or adverse claims; and
- e. the date the release was registered.

4. An "initial transaction statement" is the statement sent to:

- a. the new registered owner and, if applicable, to the registered pledgee pursuant to subsection 1;
- b. the registered pledgee pursuant to subsection 2; or
- c. the registered owner pursuant to subsection 3.

Each initial transaction statement shall be signed by or on behalf of the issuer and must be identified as “initial transaction statement”.

5. Within two business days after the transfer of an uncertificated security has been registered, the issuer shall send to the former registered owner and the former registered pledgee, if any, a written statement containing:

- a. a description of the issue of which the uncertificated security is a part;
- b. the number of shares or units transferred;
- c. the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of the former registered owner and of any former registered pledgee; and
- d. the date the transfer was registered.

6. At periodic intervals no less frequent than annually and at any time upon the reasonable written request of the registered owner, the issuer shall send to the registered owner of each uncertificated security a dated written statement containing:

- a. a description of the issue of which the uncertificated security is a part;
- b. the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of the registered owner;
- c. the number of shares or units of the uncertificated security registered in the name of the registered owner on the date of the statement;
- d. the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of any registered pledgee and the number of shares or units subject to the pledge; and
- e. a notation of any liens and restrictions of the issuer and any adverse claims (as to which the issuer has a duty under section 554.8403, subsection 4) to which the uncertificated security is or may be subject or a statement that there are none of those liens, restrictions, or adverse claims.

7. At periodic intervals no less frequent than annually and at any time upon the reasonable written request of the registered pledgee, the issuer shall send to the registered pledgee of each uncertificated security a dated written statement containing:

- a. a description of the issue of which the uncertificated security is a part;
- b. the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of the registered owner;
- c. the name and address and any taxpayer identification number of the registered pledgee;
- d. the number of shares or units subject to the pledge; and
- e. a notation of any liens and restrictions of the issuer and any adverse claims (as to which the issuer has a duty under section 554.8403, subsection 4) to which the uncertificated security is or may be subject or a statement that there are none of those liens, restrictions, or adverse claims.

8. If the issuer sends the statements described in subsections 6 and 7 at periodic intervals no less frequent than quarterly, the issuer is not obliged to send additional statements upon request unless the owner or pledgee requesting them pays to the issuer the reasonable cost of furnishing them.

9. Each statement sent pursuant to this section must bear a conspicuous legend reading substantially as follows: “This statement is merely a record of the rights of the addressee as of the time of its issuance. Delivery of this statement, of itself, confers no rights on the recipient. This statement is neither a negotiable instrument nor a security.”

554.9103 Perfection of security interests in multiple state transactions.

1. Documents, instruments and ordinary goods.

a. This subsection applies to documents and instruments and to goods other than those covered by a certificate of title described in subsection 2, mobile goods described in subsection 3, and minerals described in subsection 5.

b. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of a security interest in collateral are governed by the law of the jurisdiction where the collateral is when the last event occurs on which is based the assertion that the security interest is perfected or unperfected.

c. If the parties to a transaction creating a security interest in goods in one jurisdiction understand at the time that the security interest attaches that the goods will be kept in another jurisdiction, then the law of the other jurisdiction governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of the security interest from the time it attaches until thirty days after the debtor receives possession of the goods and thereafter if the goods are taken to the other jurisdiction before the end of the thirty-day period.

d. When collateral is brought into and kept in this state while subject to a security interest perfected under the law of the jurisdiction from which the collateral was removed, the security interest remains perfected, but if action is required by Part 3 of this Article to perfect the security interest,

i. if the action is not taken before the expiration of the period of perfection in the other jurisdiction or the end of four months after the collateral is brought into this state, whichever period first expires, the security interest becomes unperfected at the end of that period and is thereafter deemed to have been unperfected as against a person who became a purchaser after removal;

ii. if the action is taken before the expiration of the period specified in subparagraph (i), the security interest continues perfected thereafter;

iii. for the purpose of priority over a buyer of consumer goods, section 554.9307, subsection 2, the period of the effectiveness of a filing in the jurisdiction from which the collateral is removed is governed by the rules with respect to perfection in subparagraphs (i) and (ii).

2. Certificate of title.

a. This subsection applies to goods covered by one or more certificates of title issued under a statute of this state or of another jurisdiction under the law of which indication of a security interest on the certificate is required as a condition of perfection.

c. Except with respect to the rights of a buyer described in the next paragraph, a security interest, perfected in another jurisdiction otherwise than by notation on a certificate of title, in goods brought into this state and thereafter covered by a certificate of title issued by this state is subject to the rules stated in subsection 1, paragraph "d."

d. If goods are brought into this state while a security interest therein is perfected in any manner under the law of the jurisdiction from which the goods are removed and a certificate of title is issued by this state and the certificate does not show that the goods are subject to the security interest or that they may be subject to security interests not shown on the certificate, the security interest is subordinate to the rights of a buyer of the goods who is not in the business of selling goods of that kind to the extent that that buyer gives value and receives delivery of the goods after issuance of the certificate and without knowledge of the security interest.

3. Accounts, general intangibles and mobile goods.

a. This subsection applies to accounts (other than an account described in subsection 5 on minerals) and general intangibles (other than uncertificated securities) and to goods which are mobile and which are of a type normally used in more than one jurisdiction, such as motor vehicles, trailers, rolling stock, airplanes, shipping containers, road building and construction machinery and commercial harvesting machinery and the like, if the goods are equipment or are inventory leased or held for lease by the debtor to others, and are not covered by a certificate of title described in subsection 2.

b. The law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction in which the debtor is located governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of the security interest.

c. If, however, the debtor is located in a jurisdiction which is not a part of the United States, and which does not provide for perfection of the security interest by filing or recording in that jurisdiction, the law of the jurisdiction in the United States in which the debtor has its major executive office in the United States governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of the security interest through filing. In the alternative, if the debtor is located in a jurisdiction which is not a part of the United States or Canada and the collateral is accounts or general intangibles for money due or to become due, the security interest may be perfected by notification to the account debtor. As used in this paragraph, "United States" includes its territories and possessions and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

d. A debtor shall be deemed located at the debtor's place of business if the debtor has one, at the debtor's chief executive office if the debtor has more than one place of business, otherwise at the debtor's residence. If, however, the debtor is a foreign air carrier under the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended, it shall be deemed located at the designated office of the agent upon whom service of process may be made on behalf of the foreign air carrier.

e. A security interest perfected under the law of the jurisdiction of the location of the debtor is perfected until the expiration of four months after a change of the debtor's location to another jurisdiction, or until perfection would have ceased by the law of the first jurisdiction, whichever period first expires. Unless perfected in the new jurisdiction before the end of that period, it becomes unperfected thereafter and is deemed to have been unperfected as against a person who became a purchaser after the change.

4. Chattel paper. The rules stated for goods in subsection 1 apply to a possessory security interest in chattel paper. The rules stated for accounts in subsection 3 apply to a nonpossessory security interest in chattel paper, but the security interest may not be perfected by notification to the account debtor.

5. Minerals. Perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of a security interest which is created by a debtor who has an interest in minerals or the like (including oil and gas) before extraction and which attaches thereto as extracted, or which attaches to an account resulting from the sale thereof at the wellhead or minehead are governed by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction wherein the wellhead or minehead is located.

6. Uncertificated securities. The law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction of organization of the issuer governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of a security interest in uncertificated securities.

554.9105 Definitions and index of definitions.

1. In this Article unless the context otherwise requires:

a. "Account debtor" means the person who is obligated on an account, chattel paper or general intangible;

b. "Chattel paper" means a writing or writings which evidence both a monetary obligation and a security interest in or a lease of specific goods, but a charter or other contract involving the use or hire of a vessel is not chattel paper. When a transaction is evidenced both by such a security agreement or a lease and by an instrument or a series of instruments, the group of writings taken together constitutes chattel paper;

c. "Collateral" means the property subject to a security interest, and includes accounts and chattel paper which have been sold;

d. "Debtor" means the person who owes payment or other performance of the obligation secured, whether or not the person owns or has rights in the collateral, and includes the seller of accounts or chattel paper. Where the debtor and the owner of the collateral are not the same person, the term "debtor" means the owner of the collateral in any provision of the Article dealing with the collateral, the obligor in any provision dealing with the obligation, and may include both where the context so requires;

e. "Deposit account" means a demand, time, savings, passbook or like account maintained with a bank, savings and loan association, credit union or like organization, other than an account evidenced by a certificate of deposit;

f. "Document" means document of title as defined in the general definitions of Article 1 (section 554.1201), and a receipt of the kind described in section 554.7201, subsection 2;

g. "Encumbrance" includes real estate mortgages and other liens on real estate and all other rights in real estate that are not ownership interests;

h. "Goods" include all things which are movable at the time the security interest attaches or which are fixtures (section 554.9313), but do not include money, documents, instruments, accounts, chattel paper, general intangibles or minerals or the like (including oil and gas) before extraction. "Goods" also include standing timber which is to be cut and removed under a conveyance or contract for sale, the unborn young of animals and growing crops;

i. "Instrument" means a negotiable instrument (defined in section 554.3104), or a certificated security (defined in section 554.8102) or any other writing which evidences a right to the payment of money and is not itself a security agreement or lease and is of a type which is in ordinary course of business transferred by delivery with any necessary endorsement or assignment;

j. "Mortgage" means a consensual interest created by a real estate mortgage, a trust deed on real estate, or the like;

k. An advance is made "pursuant to commitment" if the secured party has bound itself to make it, whether or not a subsequent event of default or other event not within the secured party's control has relieved or may relieve the secured party from the secured party's obligation;

l. "Security agreement" means an agreement which creates or provides for a security interest;

m. "Secured party" means a lender, seller or other person in whose favor there is a security interest, including a person to whom accounts or chattel paper have been sold. When the holders of obligations issued under an indenture of trust, equipment trust agreement or the like are represented by a trustee or other person, the representative is the secured party;

n. "Transmitting utility" means any person primarily engaged in the railroad, street railway or trolley bus business, the electric or electronics communications transmission business, the transmission of goods by pipeline, or the transmission or the production and transmission of electricity, steam, gas or water, or the provision of sewer service.

554.9203 Attachment and enforceability of security interest—proceeds, formal requisites.

1. Subject to the provisions of section 554.4208 on the security interest of a collecting bank, section 554.8321 on security interests in securities and section 554.9113 on a security interest arising under the Article on Sales, a security interest is not enforceable against the debtor or third parties with respect to the collateral and does not attach unless:

- the collateral is in the possession of the secured party pursuant to agreement, or the debtor has signed a security agreement which contains a description of the collateral and in addition, when the security interest covers crops growing or to be grown or timber to be cut, a description of the land concerned;
- value has been given; and
- the debtor has rights in the collateral.

2. A security interest attaches when it becomes enforceable against the debtor with respect to the collateral. Attachment occurs as soon as all of the events specified in subsection 1 have taken place unless explicit agreement postpones the time of attaching.

3. Unless otherwise agreed a security agreement gives the secured party the rights to proceeds provided by section 554.9306.

4. A transaction, although subject to this Article, is also subject to chapters 322, 534, 535, 536, 536A, and the Iowa consumer credit code, where applicable, and in the case of conflict between the provisions of this Article and those statutes, the provisions of those statutes control. Failure to comply with any applicable statute has only the effect which is specified therein.

Subsections 1 and 4 amended

554.9302 When filing is required to perfect security interest—security interests to which filing provisions of this Article do not apply.

1. A financing statement must be filed to perfect all security interests except the following:

- a security interest in collateral in possession of the secured party under section 554.9305;

b. a security interest temporarily perfected in instruments or documents without delivery under section 554.9304 or in proceeds for a ten-day period under section 554.9306;

c. a security interest created by an assignment of a beneficial interest in a trust or a decedent's estate;

d. a purchase money security interest in consumer goods; but filing is required for a vehicle required to be registered; and fixture filing is required for priority over conflicting interests in fixtures to the extent provided in section 554.9313;

e. an assignment of accounts which does not alone or in conjunction with other assignments to the same assignee transfer a significant part of the outstanding accounts of the assignor;

f. a security interest of a collecting bank (section 554.4208) or in securities (section 554.8321) or arising under the Article on Sales (see section 554.9113) or covered in subsection 3 of this section;

g. an assignment for the benefit of all the creditors of the transferor, and subsequent transfers by the assignee thereunder.

2. If a secured party assigns a perfected security interest, no filing under this Article is required in order to continue the perfected status of the security interest against creditors of and transferees from the original debtor.

3. The filing of a financing statement otherwise required by this Article is not necessary or effective to perfect a security interest in property subject to

a. a statute or treaty of the United States which provides for a national or international registration or a national or international certificate of title or which specifies a place of filing different from that specified in this Article for filing of the security interest; or

b. the following statutes of this state; sections 321.18, 321.20 and 321.50; but during any period in which collateral is inventory held for sale by a person who is in the business of selling goods of that kind, the filing provisions of this Article (Part 4) apply to a security interest in that collateral created by that person as debtor; or

c. a certificate of title statute of another jurisdiction under the law of which indication of a security interest on the certificate is required as a condition of perfection (section 554.9103, subsection 2).

4. Compliance with a statute or treaty described in subsection 3 is equivalent to the filing of a financing statement under this Article, and a security interest in property subject to the statute or treaty can be perfected only by compliance therewith except as provided in section 554.9103 on multiple state transactions. Duration and renewal of perfection of a security interest perfected by compliance with the statute or treaty are governed by the provisions of the statute or treaty; in other respects the security interest is subject to this Article.

89 Acts, ch 113, §49 SF 475
Subsection 1, paragraph f amended

554.9304 Perfection of security interest in instruments, documents, and goods covered by documents—perfection by permissive filing—temporary perfection without filing or transfer of possession.

1. A security interest in chattel paper or negotiable documents may be perfected by filing. A security interest in money or instruments (other than certificated securities or instruments which constitute part of chattel paper) can be perfected only by the secured party's taking possession, except as provided in subsections 4 and 5 of this section and section 554.9306, subsections 2 and 3, on proceeds.

2. During the period that goods are in the possession of the issuer of a negotiable document therefor, a security interest in the goods is perfected by perfecting a security interest in the document, and any security interest in the goods otherwise perfected during such period is subject thereto.

3. A security interest in goods in the possession of a bailee other than one who has issued a negotiable document therefor is perfected by issuance of a document in the name of the secured party or by the bailee's receipt of notification of the secured party's interest or by filing as to the goods.

4. A security interest in instruments (other than certificated securities) or negotiable documents is perfected without filing or the taking of possession for a period of twenty-one days from the time it attaches to the extent that it arises for new value given under a written security agreement.

5. A security interest remains perfected for a period of twenty-one days without filing where a secured party having a perfected security interest in an instrument (other than certificated securities), a negotiable document or goods in possession of a bailee other than one who has issued a negotiable document therefor

a. makes available to the debtor the goods or documents representing the goods for the purpose of ultimate sale or exchange or for the purpose of loading, unloading, storing, shipping, transshipping, manufacturing, processing or otherwise dealing with them in a manner preliminary to their sale or exchange, but priority between conflicting security interests in the goods is subject to section 554.9312, subsection 3; or

b. delivers the instrument to the debtor for the purpose of ultimate sale or exchange or of presentation, collection, renewal, or registration of transfer.

6. After the twenty-one day period in subsections 4 and 5 perfection depends upon compliance with applicable provisions of this Article.

89 Acts, ch 113, §50 SF 475
Subsections 1, 4 and 5 amended

554.9305 When possession by secured party perfects security interest without filing.

A security interest in letters of credit and advices of credit (subsection 2 "a" of section 554.5116), goods, instruments (other than certificated securities), money, negotiable documents or chattel paper may be perfected by the secured party's taking possession of the collateral. If such collateral other than goods covered by a negotiable document is held by a bailee, the secured party is deemed to have possession from the time the bailee receives notification of the secured party's interest. A security interest is perfected by possession from the time possession is taken without relation back and continues only so long as possession is retained, unless otherwise specified in this Article. The security interest may be otherwise perfected as provided in this Article before or after the period of possession by the secured party.

89 Acts, ch 113, §51 SF 475

554.9309 Protection of purchasers of instruments and documents and securities.

Nothing in this Article limits the rights of a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument (section 554.3302) or a holder to whom a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated (section 554.7501) or a bona fide purchaser of a security (section 554.8302) and such holders or purchasers take priority over an earlier security interest even though perfected. Filing under this Article does not constitute notice of the security interest to such holders or purchasers.

89 Acts, ch 113, §52 SF 475
Section amended

554.9312 Priorities among conflicting security interests in the same collateral.

1. The rules of priority stated in other sections of this Part and in the following sections shall govern when applicable: section 554.4208 with respect to the security interests of collecting banks in items being collected, accompanying documents and proceeds; section 554.9103 on security interests related to other jurisdictions; section 554.9114 on consignments.

2. A perfected security interest in crops for new value given to enable the debtor to produce the crops during the production season and given not more than three months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise takes priority over an earlier perfected security interest to the extent that such earlier interest secures obligations due more than six months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise, even though the person giving new value had knowledge of the earlier security interest.

3. A perfected purchase money security interest in inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same inventory and also has priority in identifiable cash proceeds received on or before the delivery of the inventory to a buyer if

a. the purchase money security interest is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

b. the purchase money secured party gives notification in writing to the holder of the conflicting security interest if the holder had filed a financing statement covering the same types of inventory (1) before the date of the filing made by the purchase money secured party, or (2) before the beginning of the twenty-one-day period where the purchase money security interest is temporarily perfected without filing or possession (section 554.9304, subsection 5); and

c. the holder of the conflicting security interest receives the notification within five years before the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

d. the notification states that the person giving the notice has or expects to acquire a purchase money security interest in inventory of the debtor, describing such inventory by item or type.

4. A purchase money security interest in collateral other than inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same collateral or its proceeds if the purchase money security interest is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the collateral or within twenty days thereafter.

5. In all cases not governed by other rules stated in this section (including cases of purchase money security interests which do not qualify for the special priorities set forth in subsections 3 and 4 of this section), priority between conflicting security interests in the same collateral shall be determined according to the following rules:

a. Conflicting security interests rank according to priority in time of filing or perfection. Priority dates from the time a filing is first made covering the collateral or the time the security interest is first perfected, whichever is earlier, provided that there is no period thereafter when there is neither filing nor perfection.

b. So long as conflicting security interests are unperfected, the first to attach has priority.

6. For the purposes of subsection 5 a date of filing or perfection as to collateral is also a date of filing or perfection as to proceeds.

7. If future advances are made while a security interest is perfected by filing, the taking of possession, or under section 554.8321 on securities, the security interest has the same priority for the purposes of subsection 5 with respect to the future advances as it does with respect to the first advance. If a commitment is made before or while the security interest is so perfected, the security interest has the same priority with respect to advances made pursuant thereto. In other cases a perfected security interest has priority from the date the advance is made.

CHAPTER 556

DISPOSITION OF UNCLAIMED PROPERTY

556.8 Property held by state courts and public officers and agencies—abandonment.

All intangible personal property held for the owner by any court, public corporation, public authority, agency, instrumentality, employee, or public officer of this state, or the United States, or a political subdivision of the state, another state, or the United States, that has remained unclaimed by the owner for more than two years after becoming payable or distributable is presumed abandoned.

89 Acts, ch 287, §4 SF 407
Section amended

556.11 Report of abandoned property.

1. Every person holding funds or other property, tangible or intangible, presumed abandoned under this chapter shall report to the state treasurer with respect to the property as hereinafter provided.

2. The report shall be verified and shall include:

a. Except with respect to traveler's checks and money orders, the name, if known, and last known address, if any, of each person appearing from the records of the holder to be the owner of any property of the value of twenty-five dollars or more presumed abandoned under this chapter.

b. In case of unclaimed funds of life insurance corporations, the full name of the insured or annuitant and the insured's or annuitant's last known address according to the life insurance corporation's records.

c. The nature and identifying number, if any, or description of the property and the amount appearing from the records to be due, except that items of value under twenty-five dollars each may be reported in aggregate.

d. The date when the property became payable, demandable, or returnable, and the date of the last transaction with the owner with respect to the property.

e. Other information which the state treasurer prescribes by rule as necessary for the administration of this chapter.

3. If the person holding property presumed abandoned is a successor to other persons who previously held the property for the owner, or if the holder has changed names while holding the property, the holder shall file with the holder's report all prior known names and addresses of each holder of the property.

4. The report shall be filed before November 1 of each year as of June 30 next preceding, but the report of life insurance corporations shall be filed before May 1 of each year as of December 31 next preceding. The state treasurer may postpone the reporting date upon written request by any person required to file a report.

5. If the holder of property presumed abandoned under this chapter knows the whereabouts of the owner and if the owner's claim has not been barred by the statute of limitations, the holder shall, before filing the annual report, communicate with the owner and take necessary steps to prevent abandonment from being presumed. The holder shall exercise due diligence to ascertain the whereabouts of the owner.

6. Verification, if made by a partnership, shall be executed by a partner; if made by an unincorporated association or private corporation, by an officer; and if made by a public corporation, by its chief fiscal officer.

7. The initial report filed under this chapter shall include all items of property that would have been presumed abandoned if this chapter had been in effect during the ten-year period preceding its effective date.

All agreements to pay compensation to recover or assist in the recovery of property reported under this section, made within twenty-four months after the date payment or delivery is made under section 556.13 are unenforceable.

However, such agreements made after twenty-four months from the date of payment or delivery are valid if the fee or compensation agreed upon is not more than fifteen percent of the recoverable property, the agreement is in writing and signed by the owner, and the writing discloses the nature and value of the property and the name and address of the person in possession. This section does not prevent an owner from asserting, at any time, that an agreement to locate property is based upon excessive or unjust consideration. This section does not apply to an owner who has a bona fide fee contract with a practicing attorney and counselor as described in chapter 602, article 10.

89 Acts, ch 287, §5 SF 407
Unnumbered paragraph 1 (last paragraph) amended

556.18 Deposit of funds.

1. Except as provided in subsection 3, all funds received under this chapter, including the proceeds from the sale of abandoned property under section 556.17, shall be deposited monthly by the treasurer of state in the general fund of the state. However, the treasurer of state shall retain in a separate trust fund an amount not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars from which the treasurer of state shall make prompt payment of claims duly allowed under section 556.20. Before making the deposit, the treasurer of state shall record the name and last known address of each person appearing from the holders' reports to be entitled to the abandoned property and of the name and last known address of each insured person or annuitant, and with respect to each policy or contract listed in the report of a life insurance corporation, its number, the name of the corporation, and the amount due. The record shall be available for public inspection at all reasonable business hours.

2. Before making any deposit to the credit of the general funds, the state treasurer may deduct:

- a. Any costs in connection with sale of abandoned property.
- b. Any costs of mailing and publication in connection with any abandoned property.
- c. Reasonable service charges.

3. After July 1, 1988, the treasurer of state shall annually credit the first one hundred fifty thousand dollars of all moneys received under section 556.4 to the energy research and development fund created under section 93.14, and shall credit all additional moneys received under section 556.4 to the energy crisis fund created under section 601K.102.

Subsection 1 amended

CHAPTER 561

HOMESTEAD

561.22 Waiver.

If a homestead exemption waiver is contained in a written contract affecting agricultural land as defined in section 172C.1, or dwellings, buildings, or other appurtenances located on the land, the contract must contain a statement in substantially the following form, in boldface type of a minimum size of ten points, and be signed and dated by the person waiving the exemption at the time of the execution of the contract: "I understand that homestead property is in many cases protected from the claims of creditors and exempt from judicial sale; and that by signing this contract, I voluntarily give up my right to this protection for this property with respect to claims based upon this contract." A principal or deputy state, county, or city officer shall not be required to waive the officer's homestead exemption in order to be bonded as required pursuant to chapter 64.

Section amended

CHAPTER 566

CEMETERIES AND MANAGEMENT THEREOF

566.19 Settlement of estates—maintenance fund.

The court in which the estate of a deceased person is administered, before final distribution, may allow and set apart from the estate, a sum sufficient to provide an income adequate to pay for the perpetual care and upkeep of the cemetery lot upon which the body of the deceased is buried, except where perpetual care has otherwise been provided for. The sum so allowed and set apart shall be paid to a trustee as provided by this chapter.

89 Acts, ch 83, §77 SF 112
Section amended

CHAPTER 567

NONRESIDENT ALIENS—LAND OWNERSHIP

567.3 Restriction on agricultural land holdings.

1. A nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government, or an agent, trustee or fiduciary thereof, shall not purchase or otherwise acquire agricultural land in this state. A nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government, or an agent, trustee or fiduciary thereof, which owns or holds agricultural land in this state on January 1, 1980, may continue to own or hold the land, but shall not purchase or otherwise acquire additional agricultural land in this state.

2. A person who acquires agricultural land in violation of this chapter or who fails to convert the land to the purpose other than farming within five years, as provided for in this chapter, remains in violation of this chapter for as long as the person holds an interest in the land.

3. The restriction set forth in subsection 1 of this section does not apply to the following:

- a. Agricultural land acquired by devise or descent.
- b. A bona fide encumbrance on agricultural land taken for purposes of security.
- c. Agricultural land acquired by a process of law in the collection of debts, by a deed in lieu of foreclosure, pursuant to a forfeiture of a contract for deed, or by any procedure for the enforcement of a lien or claim on the land, whether created by mortgage or otherwise. However, agricultural land so acquired shall be sold or otherwise disposed of within two years after title is transferred. Pending the sale or disposition, the land shall not be used for any purpose other than farming, and the land shall not be used for farming except under lease to an individual, trust, corporation, partnership or other business entity not subject to the restriction on the increase in agricultural land holdings imposed by section 172C.4. Agricultural land which has been acquired pursuant to this paragraph shall not be acquired or utilized by the nonresident alien, foreign business, or foreign government, or an agent, trustee, or fiduciary thereof, under either paragraph "d" or paragraph "e".

d. Agricultural land acquired for research or experimental purposes. Agricultural land is used for research or experimental purposes if any of the following apply:

(1) Research and experimental activities are undertaken on the agricultural land and commercial sales of products produced from farming the agricultural land do not occur or are incidental to the research or experimental purposes of the corporation. Commercial sales are incidental to the research or experimental purposes of the corporation when such sales are less than twenty-five percent of the gross sales of the primary product of the research.

(2) The agricultural land is used for the primary purpose of testing, developing, or producing seeds or plants for sale or resale to farmers as seed stock. Grain which is not sold as seed stock is an incidental sale and must be less than twenty-five percent of the gross sales of the primary product of the research and experimental activities.

(3) Until July 1, 2001, the agricultural land is used for the primary purpose of testing, developing, or producing animals for sale or resale to farmers as breeding stock. However, after July 1, 1989, to qualify under this paragraph, the following conditions must be satisfied:

(a) The nonresident alien, foreign business, or foreign government or an agent, trustee, or fiduciary of the alien, business, or government must not hold the agricultural land other than as a lessee. The term of the lease must be for not more than twelve years. A lessee shall not renew a lease entered into under this subparagraph (3). The lessee shall not enter into a lease under this paragraph, if another lease under this paragraph has been entered into by the lessee.

(b) A term or condition of sale, including resale, of seed stock or breeding stock must not relate to the direct or indirect control by the lessee of the breeding stock or breeding stock progeny subsequent to the sale.

(c) The number of acres of agricultural land held by the lessee must not exceed six hundred forty acres.

(d) The lessee must deliver a copy of the lease to the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall notify the lessee of receipt of the copy of the lease.

(4) Culls and test animals may be sold under subparagraph (3). For a three-year period beginning on the date that the lease takes effect, the gross sales for any year shall not be greater than five hundred thousand dollars. After the three-year period ends, the gross sales for any year shall not be greater than twenty-five percent of the gross sales for that year of the breeding stock, or five hundred thousand dollars, whichever is less. As used in subparagraph (3), "lessee" means a nonresident alien, foreign business, or foreign government, or an agent, trustee, or fiduciary acting on behalf of the nonresident alien, foreign business, or foreign government, or any other trade or business which is under the lessee's common control as provided in 26 U.S.C. §414.

(5) Effective July 1, 2001, subparagraph (3) shall not be effective. However, a lessee may continue for the duration of the period of the lease to lease the agricultural land under subparagraph (3) if the lease was entered into prior to July 1, 2001.

(6) Effective July 1, 2001, a nonresident alien, foreign business, or foreign government or an agent, trustee, or fiduciary of the alien, business, or government shall not, except as provided in subparagraph (5), acquire or hold agricultural land used for the primary purpose of testing, developing, or producing animals.

e. An interest in agricultural land, not to exceed three hundred twenty acres, acquired for an immediate or pending use other than farming. However, a nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government, or an agent, trustee or fiduciary thereof, who lawfully owns over three hundred twenty acres on January 1, 1980, may continue to own or hold the land, but shall not purchase or otherwise acquire additional agricultural land in this state except by devise or descent from a nonresident alien. Pending the development of the agricultural land for purpose other than farming, the land shall not be used for farming except under lease to an individual, trust, corporation, partnership or other business entity not subject to the restriction on the increase in agricultural land holdings imposed by section 172C.4.

4. A nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government, or an agent, trustee or fiduciary thereof shall not transfer title to or interest in agricultural land to a nonresident alien, foreign business or foreign government, or an agent, trustee or fiduciary thereof except by devise or descent.

567.8A Lessees conducting research or experiments.

Lessees of agricultural land under section 567.3, subsection 3, paragraph "d", subparagraph (3), for research or experimental purposes, shall file a report with the secretary of state on or before March 31 of each year on forms adopted pursuant to chapter 17A and supplied by the secretary of state. The report shall contain the following information for the last year:

1. The name and principal place of business of the lessee.
2. The location of the agricultural land used for research or experimental purposes.
3. The date that the lease became effective.
4. The name and address of each person purchasing breeding stock produced on the agricultural land.
5. The number or volume of breeding stock purchased by each person purchasing breeding stock produced on the agricultural land.

CHAPTER 575

NONSTATUTORY LIENS

575.1 Nonstatutory liens.

A person claiming a common law lien, an equitable servitude lien, or a lien of similar nature which is other than a statutory lien, shall first give notice to any legal and equitable owners and persons in possession of the real or personal property against which the lien is sought. If the lien is filed by an owner of the real or personal property, notice shall first be given to any person with a lien or other interest in the property. The notice shall be given pursuant to the Iowa rules of civil procedure. Prior to the filing of the lien in any office of record in the county where the real or personal property is located, the district court in such county shall hold a hearing to determine the validity of the lien. Pendency of such a proceeding shall not be indexed under section 617.10 and shall not constitute lis pendens or constructive notice to third persons under sections 617.11 through 617.15. A bona fide purchaser takes title to the real or personal property free of any claims arising from such proceeding unless proper filing is made in the office of the county recorder as provided in this section. The person claiming the lien is required to prove the validity of the lien by a preponderance of the evidence. If the court determines the person claiming the lien has willfully and maliciously proceeded, a judgment may be entered against the person claiming the lien in favor of any resisting party for reasonable damages, including actual damages, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the resisting party. A lien, as described in this section, shall not be filed in any office of record other than as provided in this section and if such lien is filed other than as provided in this section, the lien shall be null and void and of no force or effect. If after hearing the district court enters an order determining the lien to be valid, the person claiming the lien shall file a certified copy of the order in the office of the county recorder where the real or personal property is located. An appeal from the district court arising from such proceeding is by certiorari.

CHAPTER 598

DISSOLUTION OF MARRIAGE

Child custody and visitation issues; mandatory mediation; pilot program in 1990 and 1991;
89 Acts, ch 165 HF 20

598.17 Dissolution of marriage—evidence.

A decree dissolving the marriage may be entered when the court is satisfied from the evidence presented that there has been a breakdown of the marriage relationship to the extent that the legitimate objects of matrimony have been destroyed and there remains no reasonable likelihood that the marriage can be preserved. The decree shall state that the dissolution is granted to the parties, and shall not state that it is granted to only one party.

If at the time of trial petitioner fails to present satisfactory evidence that there has been a breakdown of the marriage relationship to the extent that the legitimate objects of matrimony have been destroyed and there remains no reasonable likelihood that the marriage can be preserved, the respondent may then proceed to present such evidence as though the respondent had filed the original petition.

No marriage dissolution granted due to the mental illness of one of the spouses shall relieve the other spouse of any obligation imposed by law as a result of the marriage for the support of the mentally ill spouse. The court may make an order for such support or may waive the support obligation when satisfied from the evidence that it would create an undue hardship on the obliged spouse or that spouse's other dependents.

89 Acts, ch 296, §77 SF 141
Unnumbered paragraph 2 amended

598.21 Orders for disposition and support.

1. Upon every judgment of annulment, dissolution or separate maintenance the court shall divide the property of the parties and transfer the title of the property accordingly. The court may protect and promote the best interests of children of the parties by setting aside a portion of the property of the parties in a separate fund or conservatorship for the support, maintenance, education and general welfare of the minor children. The court shall divide all property, except inherited property or gifts received by one party, equitably between the parties after considering all of the following:

- a. The length of the marriage.
- b. The property brought to the marriage by each party.
- c. The contribution of each party to the marriage, giving appropriate economic value to each party's contribution in homemaking and child care services.
- d. The age and physical and emotional health of the parties.
- e. The contribution by one party to the education, training or increased earning power of the other.
- f. The earning capacity of each party, including educational background, training, employment skills, work experience, length of absence from the job market, custodial responsibilities for children and the time and expense necessary to acquire sufficient education or training to enable the party to become self-supporting at a standard of living reasonably comparable to that enjoyed during the marriage.

g. The desirability of awarding the family home or the right to live in the family home for a reasonable period to the party having custody of the children, or if the parties have joint legal custody, to the party having physical care of the children.

h. The amount and duration of an order granting support payments to either party pursuant to subsection 3 and whether the property division should be in lieu of such payments.

i. Other economic circumstances of each party, including pension benefits, vested or unvested, and future interests.

j. The tax consequences to each party.

k. Any written agreement made by the parties concerning property distribution.

l. The provisions of an antenuptial agreement.

m. Other factors the court may determine to be relevant in an individual case.

2. Property inherited by either party or gifts received by either party prior to or during the course of the marriage is the property of that party and is not subject to a property division under this section except upon a finding that refusal to divide the property is inequitable to the other party or to the children of the marriage.

3. Upon every judgment of annulment, dissolution or separate maintenance, the court may grant an order requiring support payments to either party for a limited or indefinite length of time after considering all of the following:

a. The length of the marriage.

b. The age and physical and emotional health of the parties.

c. The distribution of property made pursuant to subsection 1.

d. The educational level of each party at the time of marriage and at the time the action is commenced.

e. The earning capacity of the party seeking maintenance, including educational background, training, employment skills, work experience, length of absence from the job market, responsibilities for children under either an award of custody or physical care, and the time and expense necessary to acquire sufficient education or training to enable the party to find appropriate employment.

f. The feasibility of the party seeking maintenance becoming self-supporting at a standard of living reasonably comparable to that enjoyed during the marriage, and the length of time necessary to achieve this goal.

g. The tax consequences to each party.

h. Any mutual agreement made by the parties concerning financial or service contributions by one party with the expectation of future reciprocation or compensation by the other party.

i. The provisions of an antenuptial agreement.

j. Other factors the court may determine to be relevant in an individual case.

4. The supreme court is authorized to prescribe uniform child support guidelines and criteria to be effective October 12, 1989, and to review the guidelines at least once every four years, pursuant to the federal Family Support Act of 1988, Pub. L. No. 100-485.

a. Upon every judgment of annulment, dissolution, or separate maintenance, the court may order either parent or both parents to pay an amount reasonable and necessary for supporting a child. In establishing the amount of support, consideration shall be given to the responsibility of both parents to support and provide for the welfare of the minor child and of a child's need, whenever practicable, for a close relationship with both parents. There shall be a rebuttable presumption that the amount of child support which would result from the application of the guidelines prescribed by the supreme court is the correct amount of child support to be awarded. A variation from the guidelines shall not be considered by a court without a record or written finding, based on stated reasons, that the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate as determined under the criteria prescribed by the supreme court.

b. The guidelines prescribed by the supreme court shall be used by the department of human services in determining child support payments under sections 252C.2 and 252C.4. A variation from the guidelines shall not be considered by the department without a record or written finding, based on stated reasons, that the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate as determined under criteria prescribed by the supreme court.

5. The court may protect and promote the best interests of a minor child by setting aside a portion of the child support which either party is ordered to pay in a separate fund or conservatorship for the support, education and welfare of the child.

6. The court may provide for joint custody of the children by the parties pursuant to section 598.41. All orders relating to custody of a child are subject to chapter 598A.

7. Orders made pursuant to this section need mention only those factors relevant to the particular case for which the orders are made but shall contain the names, birth dates, addresses, and counties of residence of the petitioner and respondent.

8. The court may subsequently modify orders made under this section when there is a substantial change in circumstances. In determining whether there is a substantial change in circumstances, the court shall consider the following:

- a. Changes in the employment, earning capacity, income or resources of a party.
- b. Receipt by a party of an inheritance, pension or other gift.
- c. Changes in the medical expenses of a party.
- d. Changes in the number or needs of dependents of a party.
- e. Changes in the physical or emotional health of a party.
- f. Changes in the residence of a party.
- g. Remarriage of a party.
- h. Possible support of a party by another person.
- i. Changes in the physical, emotional or educational needs of a child whose support is governed by the order.
- j. Contempt by a party of existing orders of court.
- k. Other factors the court determines to be relevant in an individual case.

A modification of a support order entered under chapter 252A, chapter 675, or this chapter between parties to the order is void unless the modification is approved by the court, after proper notice and opportunity to be heard is given to all parties to the order, and entered as an order of the court. If support payments have been assigned to the department of human services pursuant to section 239.3, the department shall be considered a party to the support order. Modifications of orders pertaining to child custody shall be made pursuant to chapter 598A. If the petition for a modification of an order pertaining to child custody asks either for joint custody or that joint custody be modified to an award of sole custody, the modification, if any, shall be made pursuant to section 598.41.

9. If the court orders a transfer of title to real property, the clerk of court shall issue a certificate under chapter 558 relative to each parcel of real estate affected by the order and immediately deliver the certificate for recording to the county recorder of the county in which the real estate is located. Any fees assessed shall be included as part of the court costs. The county recorder shall deliver the certificates to the county auditor as provided in section 558.58, subsection 1. Property divisions made under this chapter are not subject to modification.

ADOPTION

600.6 Attachments to an adoption petition.

An adoption petition shall have attached to it the following:

1. A certified copy of the birth certificate showing parentage of the person to be adopted or, if such certificate is not available, a verified birth record.
2. A copy of any order terminating parental rights with respect to the person to be adopted.
3. Any written consent and verified statement required under section 600.7, except the consent required under subsection 1, paragraph "d", of that section.
4. Any preplacement investigation report that has been prepared at the time of filing pursuant to section 600.8.
5. An adoption information form completed by the petitioner containing the data specified under federal regulations adopted pursuant to Pub. L. No. 99-509, as codified in 42 U.S.C. §679 and 679A.

89 Acts, ch 140, §1 HF 196
NEW subsection 5

600.13 Adoption decrees.

1. At the conclusion of the adoption hearing, the court shall:
  - a. Issue a final adoption decree;
  - b. Issue an interlocutory adoption decree; or,
  - c. Dismiss the adoption petition if the requirements of this Act have not been met or if dismissal of the adoption petition is in the best interest of the person whose adoption has been petitioned. Upon dismissal, the court shall determine who is to be guardian or custodian of a minor child, including the adoption petitioner if it is in the best interest of the minor person whose adoption has been petitioned.
2. An interlocutory adoption decree automatically becomes a final adoption decree at a date specified by the court in the interlocutory adoption decree, which date shall not be less than one hundred eighty days nor more than three hundred sixty days from the date the interlocutory decree is issued. However, an interlocutory adoption decree may be vacated prior to the date specified for it to become final. Also, the court may provide in the interlocutory adoption decree for further observation, investigation, and report of the conditions of and the relationships between the adoption petitioner and the person petitioned to be adopted.
3. If an interlocutory adoption decree is vacated under subsection 2, it shall be void from the date of issuance and the rights, duties, and liabilities of all persons affected by it shall, unless they have become vested, be governed accordingly. Upon vacation of an interlocutory adoption decree, the court shall proceed under the provisions of subsection 1, paragraph "c".
4. A final adoption decree terminates any parental rights, except those of a spouse of the adoption petitioner, existing at the time of its issuance and establishes the parent-child relationship between the adoption petitioner and the person petitioned to be adopted. Unless otherwise specified by law, such parent-child relationship shall be deemed to have been created at the birth of the child.

5. An interlocutory or a final adoption decree shall be entered with the clerk of the court. Such decree shall set forth any facts of the adoption petition which have been proven to the satisfaction of the court and any other facts considered to be relevant by the court and shall grant the adoption petition. If so designated in the adoption decree, the name of the adopted person shall be changed by issuance of that decree. The clerk of the court shall, within thirty days of issuance, deliver one certified copy of any adoption decree to the petitioner, one copy of any adoption decree to the department and any agency or person making an independent placement who placed a minor person for adoption, and one certification of adoption as prescribed in section 144.19 to the state registrar of vital statistics. Upon receipt of the certification, the state registrar shall prepare a new birth certificate pursuant to section 144.23 and deliver to the parents named in the decree and any adult person adopted by the decree a copy of the new birth certificate. The parents shall pay the fee prescribed in section 144.46. If the person adopted was born outside the state, the state registrar shall forward the certification of adoption to the appropriate agency in the state or foreign nation of birth. A copy of any interlocutory adoption decree vacation shall be delivered and another birth certificate shall be prepared in the same manner as a certification of adoption is delivered and the birth certificate was originally prepared.

6. The clerk of the district court shall attach to the certified copy of the decree delivered to the department, a copy of the adoption information form required to be attached to the adoption petition under section 600.6, subsection 5.

89 Acts, ch 140, §2 HF 196
NEW subsection 6

600.16 Termination and adoption record.

1. Any information compiled under section 600.8, subsection 1, paragraph "c", subparagraphs (1) and (2) shall be made available at any time by the clerk of the court, the department, or any agency which made the placement to:

- a. The adopting parents.
- b. The adopted person, provided that person is an adult at the time the request for information is made.
- c. Any person approved by the department if the person uses this information solely for the purposes of conducting a legitimate research project or of treating a patient in a medical facility.

Information regarding an adopted person's existing medical and developmental history and family medical history, which meets the definition of background information in section 600.8, subsection 1, paragraph "c", but which was compiled prior to July 1, 1976, shall be made available as provided in this subsection. However, the identity of the adopted person's natural parents shall not be disclosed.

2. The permanent termination of parental rights record of the juvenile court under chapter 600A and the permanent adoption record of the court shall be sealed by the clerk of the juvenile court and the clerk of court, as appropriate, when they are complete and after the time for appeal has expired. All papers and records pertaining to a termination of parental rights under chapter 600A and to an adoption, whether a part of the permanent termination and adoption records of the juvenile court and of the court or on file with a guardian, guardian ad litem, custodian, person who placed a minor person, or the department shall not be open to inspection and the identity of the natural parents of an adopted person shall not be revealed. However, an agency involved in placement shall contact the adopting parents or the adult adopted child regarding eligibility of the adopted child for benefits based on entitlement of benefits or inheritance from the terminated natural parents. Also, the clerk of the court or county recorder shall, upon application to and order of the court for good cause shown, open the permanent adoption record of the court for the adopted person who is an adult and reveal the names of either or both of the natural parents.

A natural parent may file an affidavit requesting that the court reveal or not reveal the parent's name. The court shall consider any such affidavit in determining whether there is good cause to order opening of the records. If the adopted person who applies for revelation of the natural parents' name has a sibling who is a minor and who has been adopted by the same parents, the court may deny the application on the grounds that revelation to the applicant may also indirectly and harmfully permit the same revelation to the applicant's minor sibling. To facilitate the natural parents in filing an affidavit, the department shall, upon request of a natural parent, file an affidavit in the court in which the adoption records have been sealed.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision in this section, the juvenile court or court may, upon competent medical evidence, open termination or adoption records if opening is shown to be necessary to save the life of or prevent irreparable physical harm to an adopted person or the person's offspring. The juvenile court or court shall make every reasonable effort to prevent the identity of the natural parents from becoming revealed under this subsection to the adopted person. The juvenile court or court may, however, permit revelation of the identity of the natural parents to medical personnel attending the adopted person or the person's offspring. These medical personnel shall make every reasonable effort to prevent the identity of the natural parents from becoming revealed to the adopted person.

4. Any person, other than the adopting parents or the adopted person, who discloses information in violation of the provisions of this section shall be, upon conviction, guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

Subsection 2 amended

CHAPTER 601A

CIVIL RIGHTS COMMISSION

601A.2 Definitions.

When used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Commission" means the Iowa state civil rights commission created by this chapter.
2. "Commissioner" means a member of the commission.
3. "Court" means the district court in and for the judicial district of the state of Iowa in which the alleged unfair or discriminatory practice occurred or any judge of said court if the court is not in session at that time.
4. "Disability" means the physical or mental condition of a person which constitutes a substantial handicap, and the condition of a person with a positive human immunodeficiency virus test result, a diagnosis of acquired immune deficiency syndrome, a diagnosis of acquired immune deficiency syndrome-related complex, or any other condition related to acquired immune deficiency syndrome. The inclusion of a condition related to a positive human immunodeficiency virus test result in the meaning of "disability" under the provisions of this chapter does not preclude the application of the provisions of this chapter to conditions resulting from other contagious or infectious diseases.
5. "Employee" means any person employed by an employer.
6. "Employer" means the state of Iowa or any political subdivision, board, commission, department, institution, or school district thereof, and every other person employing employees within the state.

7. "Employment agency" means any person undertaking to procure employees or opportunities to work for any other person or any person holding itself to be equipped to do so.

8. "Familial status" means one or more individuals under the age of eighteen domiciled with either of the following:

a. A parent or another person having legal custody of the individual or individuals.

b. The designee of the parent or the other person having custody of the individual or individuals, with the written permission of the parent or other person.

9. "Labor organization" means any organization which exists for the purpose in whole or in part of collective bargaining, of dealing with employers concerning grievances, terms, or conditions of employment, or of other mutual aid or protection in connection with employment.

10. "Person" means one or more individuals, partnerships, associations, corporations, legal representatives, trustees, receivers, and the state of Iowa and all political subdivisions and agencies thereof.

11. "Public accommodation" means each and every place, establishment, or facility of whatever kind, nature, or class that caters or offers services, facilities, or goods for a fee or charge to nonmembers of any organization or association utilizing the place, establishment, or facility, provided that any place, establishment, or facility that caters or offers services, facilities, or goods to the nonmembers gratuitously shall be deemed a public accommodation if the accommodation receives governmental support or subsidy. Public accommodation shall not mean any bona fide private club or other place, establishment, or facility which is by its nature distinctly private, except when such distinctly private place, establishment, or facility caters or offers services, facilities, or goods to the nonmembers for fee or charge or gratuitously, it shall be deemed a public accommodation during such period.

"Public accommodation" includes each state and local government unit or tax-supported district of whatever kind, nature, or class that offers services, facilities, benefits, grants or goods to the public, gratuitously or otherwise. This paragraph shall not be construed by negative implication or otherwise to restrict any part or portion of the pre-existing definition of the term "public accommodation".

12. "Unfair practice" or "discriminatory practice" means those practices specified as unfair or discriminatory in sections 601A.6, 601A.7, 601A.8, 601A.9, 601A.10 and 601A.11.

601A.8 Unfair or discriminatory practices—housing.

It shall be an unfair or discriminatory practice for any owner, or person acting for an owner, of rights to housing or real property, with or without compensation, including but not limited to persons licensed as real estate brokers or salespersons, attorneys, auctioneers, agents or representatives by power of attorney or appointment, or any person acting under court order, deed of trust, or will:

1. To refuse to sell, rent, lease, assign or sublease any real property or housing accommodation or part, portion or interest therein, to any person because of the race, color, creed, sex, religion, national origin, disability, or familial status of such person.

2. To discriminate against any person because of the person's race, color, creed, sex, religion, national origin, disability, or familial status, in the terms, conditions or privileges of the sale, rental, lease assignment or sublease of any real property or housing accommodation or any part, portion or interest therein.

3. To directly or indirectly advertise, or in any other manner indicate or publicize that the purchase, rental, lease, assignment, or sublease of any real property or housing accommodation or any part, portion or interest therein, by persons of any particular race, color, creed, sex, religion, national origin, disability, or familial status is unwelcome, objectionable, not acceptable or not solicited.

4. To discriminate against the lessee or purchaser of any real property or housing accommodation or part, portion or interest of the real property or housing accommodation, or against any prospective lessee or purchaser of the property or accommodation, because of the race, color, creed, religion, sex, disability, age or national origin of persons who may from time to time be present in or on the lessee's or owner's premises for lawful purposes at the invitation of the lessee or owner as friends, guests, visitors, relatives or in any similar capacity.

89 Acts, ch 205, §2 SF 56
Subsections 1, 2 and 3 amended

601A.12 Exceptions.

The provisions of section 601A.8 shall not apply to:

1. Any bona fide religious institution with respect to any qualifications it may impose based on religion, when such qualifications are related to a bona fide religious purpose.

2. The rental or leasing of a housing accommodation in a building which contains housing accommodations for not more than two families living independently of each other, if the owner or members of the owner's family reside in one of such housing accommodations.

3. The rental or leasing of less than six rooms within a single housing accommodation by the occupant or owner of such housing accommodation, if the occupant or owner or members of that person's family reside therein.

4. Restrictions based on sex on the rental or leasing of housing accommodations by nonprofit corporations.

5. The rental or leasing of a housing accommodation within which residents of both sexes must share a common bathroom facility on the same floor of the building.

6. Housing accommodations provided under any state or federal program specifically designed and operated to assist elderly persons, as defined in the state or federal program, and housing for older persons. As used in this subsection, "housing for older persons" means housing communities consisting of accommodations intended for either of the following:

a. For ninety percent occupancy by at least one person fifty-five years of age or older per unit, and providing significant facilities and services specifically designed to meet the physical or social needs of such persons.

b. For and occupied solely by persons sixty-two years of age or older.

7. The rental or leasing of a housing accommodation in a building which contains housing accommodations for not more than four families living independently of each other, if the owner resides in one of the housing accommodations for which the owner qualifies for the homestead tax credit under section 425.1.

CHAPTER 601G

CITIZENS' AIDE

601G.9 Powers.

The citizens' aide may:

1. Investigate, on complaint or on the citizens' aide's own motion, any administrative action of any agency, without regard to the finality of the administrative action, except that the citizens' aide shall not investigate the complaint of an employee of an agency in regard to that employee's employment relationship with the agency. A communication or receipt of information made pursuant to the powers prescribed in this chapter shall not be considered an ex parte communication as described in the provisions of section 17A.17.

2. Prescribe the methods by which complaints are to be made, received, and acted upon; determine the scope and manner of investigations to be made; and, subject to the requirements of this chapter, determine the form, frequency, and distribution of the conclusions and recommendations of the citizens' aide.

3. Request and receive from each agency assistance and information as necessary in the performance of the duties of the office. Notwithstanding section 22.7, pursuant to an investigation the citizens' aide may examine any and all records and documents of any agency unless its custodian demonstrates that the examination would violate federal law or result in the denial of federal funds to the agency. Confidential documents provided to the citizens' aide by other agencies shall continue to maintain their confidential status. The citizens' aide is subject to the same policies and penalties regarding the confidentiality of the document as an employee of the agency. The citizens' aide may enter and inspect premises within any agency's control and may observe proceedings and attend hearings, with the consent of the interested party, including those held under a provision of confidentiality, conducted by any agency unless the agency demonstrates that the attendance or observation would violate federal law or result in the denial of federal funds to that agency. This subsection does not permit the examination of records or access to hearings and proceedings which are the work product of an attorney under section 22.7, subsection 4, or which are privileged communications under section 622.10.

4. Issue a subpoena to compel any person to appear, give sworn testimony, or produce documentary or other evidence relevant to a matter under inquiry. The citizens' aide, deputies, and assistants of the citizens' aide may administer oaths to persons giving testimony before them. If a witness either fails or refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the citizens' aide, the citizens' aide may petition the district court having jurisdiction for an order directing obedience to the subpoena. If the court finds that the subpoena should be obeyed, it shall enter an order requiring obedience to the subpoena, and refusal to obey the court order is subject to punishment for contempt.

5. Establish rules relating to the operation, organization, and procedure of the office of the citizens' aide. The rules are exempt from chapter 17A and shall be published in the Iowa administrative code.

CHAPTER 601J

TRANSPORTATION PROGRAMS

601J.5 Coordination of transportation services.

The department of human services, department of elder affairs, and the officers and agents of other state and local governmental units shall assist the department in carrying out section 601J.4, subsections 1 and 2, insofar as the functions of these respective officers and departments are concerned with the health, welfare and safety of any recipient of transportation services.

1. Prior to July 1, 1985 all agencies or organizations purchasing or providing transportation services, except public school transportation, with federal, state or local funds shall comply with section 601J.4.

2. Any agency or organization found to be in noncompliance with section 601J.4 shall be notified in writing by the department of those activities which are not in compliance. The notice shall also provide for a period of thirty days during which compliance with section 601J.4 can be accomplished without penalty or sanction.

3. If noncompliant activities continue after the period of thirty days, the department shall, in cooperation with the attorney general and the director of revenue and finance, initiate the following actions:

a. If the activities that are not in compliance with section 601J.4 are funded with state or federal funds which are administered by the state and can be used by agencies or organizations that are in compliance with section 601J.4, then upon notice by the department, the director of revenue and finance shall not permit the expenditure of ten percent of the funds during fiscal year 1986, an additional twenty percent of funds during the following year, an additional thirty percent during the third year, and the remaining funds in the fourth year that the activities remain in noncompliance. Any funds retained by the director of revenue and finance shall be distributed to agencies and organizations eligible to receive the funds for transportation purposes.

b. If the activities that are not in compliance with section 601J.4 are funded with state, federal or local funds which are not administered by the state or cannot be used by agencies and organizations that are in compliance with section 601J.4, then upon notice by the department, the attorney general shall file an action to enjoin agencies or organizations from expending funds for transportation purposes until and unless compliance with section 601J.4 is achieved. If federal funds are involved in such cases, then the attorney general shall notify the responsible federal agency of the actions and request its cooperation.

c. The department of human services shall not purchase services from any provider which has been denied a certificate of compliance with this chapter from the department.

d. The department of inspections and appeals shall establish an appeal process pursuant to chapters 10A and 17A which allows those agencies or organizations determined to not be in compliance with this chapter an opportunity for a timely hearing before the department of inspections and appeals. A decision by the department of inspections and appeals is subject to review by the state department of transportation. The state department of transportation's decision is the final agency action. Judicial review of the action of the department may be sought in accordance with chapter 17A.

e. The department shall, in accordance with chapter 17A, adopt and enforce rules setting minimum standards for determination of compliance and certification. The rules and standards required by this section shall be formulated in consultation with all affected state agencies, local government units with professional and consumer groups affected, and shall be designed to further the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter.

601K.32 Policy for children, youth, and families.

It is the policy of the state of Iowa to promote the best interests of children, youth, and families. To further this policy there is created a division of children, youth, and families and the commission on children, youth, and families. The division of children, youth, and families shall:

1. Promote coordination of federal, state and local services by developing a plan to streamline delivery of services and making recommendations to the governor and general assembly by December 1 of each year.
  2. Work with state agencies in an advisory capacity to help plan needed services for children, youth, and their families.
  3. Provide the administrator, general assembly and governor with recommendations and information to improve services for children, youth, and their families by December 1 of each year.
  4. Identify state and federal resources that can be used in local areas; and
  5. Provide information to parents to assist and support them in their parenting roles.
  6. Cooperate with the department of economic development in connection with that department's collection, assembly, and dissemination of information on the changing composition of the Iowa family, the level of poverty among different age groups and different family structures in Iowa society, and the changing composition of the Iowa work force and the impact of those changes on Iowa families.
- The commission shall examine the following issues related to the cycle of dependency which some families have on services, including, but not limited to, child care, chemical dependency, child welfare, youth employment, parent education, health, and education.

89 Acts, ch 209, §3 SF 88
NEW subsection 6

601K.33 Commission on children, youth, and families.

1. The commission on children, youth, and families is established.
2. The following persons or a designee are members of the commission:
  - a. The director of the department of human services.
  - b. The director of the department of public health.
  - c. The director of the department of education.

- d. The director of the department of corrections.
3. The following members of the commission shall be appointed by the governor:
- a. A member of a county board of supervisors.
  - b. A member of the board of directors of a school corporation.
  - c. One citizen, who shall be a professional family counselor.
  - d. Seven citizens who have expertise in the areas of child care, child welfare, youth employment, maternal and child health, chemical dependency, education, or law.
  - e. A person sixteen through eighteen years of age at the time of appointment.
4. The following shall be nonvoting members of the commission:
- a. Two members of the senate, not more than one from any political party, appointed by the president of the senate.
  - b. Two members of the house of representatives, not more than one from any political party, appointed by the speaker of the house.
  - c. A district court judge appointed by the governor.
5. The members of the commission appointed by the governor shall be appointed to terms of four years beginning May 1. Legislative members shall be appointed to terms of two years beginning January 1 of odd-numbered years. However, members appointed under subsections 3 and 4 shall cease to be members if they no longer hold the office from which they were appointed. Not more than seven of the members appointed under subsection 3 shall belong to the same political party at the time of appointment. A person designated under subsection 2 is appointed for a term of four years beginning May 1 and must be an assistant director, or head of a division, section, or bureau of that agency whose function relates to children, youth, or families while serving on the commission. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment. Not more than nine of the voting members of the commission shall be of the same gender.

601K.80 Advisory council on head injuries.

1. For purposes of this section, unless the context otherwise requires:
  - a. "Head injury" means "brain injury" as defined in section 135.22.
  - b. "Council" means the advisory council on head injuries.
2. The advisory council on head injuries is established. The following persons or their designees shall serve as ex officio, nonvoting members of the council:
  - a. The director of public health.
  - b. The director of human services and any division administrators of the department of human services so assigned by the director.
  - c. The director of the department of education.
  - d. The chief of the special education bureau of the department of education.
  - e. The administrator of the division of vocational rehabilitation of the department of education.
  - f. The director of the department for the blind.
  - g. The commissioner of insurance.
3. The council shall be composed of a minimum of nine members appointed by the governor in addition to the ex officio members, and the governor may appoint additional members. Insofar as practicable, the council shall include persons with head injuries, family members of persons with head injuries, representatives of industry, labor, business, and agriculture, representatives of federal, state, and local government, and representatives of religious, charitable, fraternal, civic, educational, medical, legal, veteran, welfare, and other professional groups and organizations. Members shall be appointed representing every geographic and employment area of the state and shall include members of both sexes.

4. Members of the council appointed by the governor shall be appointed for terms of two years. Vacancies on the council shall be filled for the remainder of the term of the original appointment. Members whose terms expire may be reappointed.

5. The members of the council shall appoint a chairperson and a vice chairperson and other officers as the council deems necessary. The officers shall serve until their successors are appointed and qualified. Members of the council shall receive actual expenses for their services. Members may also be eligible to receive compensation as provided in section 7E.6. The council shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A.

6. The council shall:

a. Promote meetings and programs for the discussion of methods to reduce the debilitating effects of head injuries, and disseminate information in cooperation with any other department, agency, or entity on the prevention, evaluation, care, treatment, and rehabilitation of persons affected by head injuries.

b. Study and review current prevention, evaluation, care, treatment, and rehabilitation technologies and recommend appropriate preparation, training, retraining, and distribution of manpower and resources in the provision of services to persons with head injuries through private and public residential facilities, day programs, and other specialized services.

c. Participate in developing and disseminating criteria and standards which may be required for future funding or licensing of facilities, day programs, and other specialized services for persons with head injuries in this state.

d. Make recommendations to the governor for developing and administering a state plan to provide services for persons with head injuries.

e. Meet at least quarterly.

f. Report on or before February 15 of each year to the governor and the general assembly on council activities, and submit recommendations believed necessary to promote the welfare of persons with head injuries.

7. The council is assigned to the division for administrative purposes. The administrator shall be responsible for budgeting, program coordination, and related management functions.

8. The council may receive gifts, grants, or donations made for any of the purposes of its programs and disburse and administer them in accordance with their terms and under the direction of the administrator.

601K.81 through 601K.90 Reserved.

601K.98 Audit.

Each community action agency shall be audited annually but shall not be required to obtain a duplicate audit to meet the requirements of this section. In lieu of an audit by the auditor of state, the community action agency may contract with or employ a certified public accountant to conduct the audit, pursuant to the applicable terms and conditions prescribed by sections 11.6 and 11.19 and an audit format prescribed by the auditor of state. Copies of each audit shall be furnished to the division within three months following the annual audit.

89 Acts, ch 264, §9 HF 451
Section amended

601K.114 Duties of commission.

The commission shall:

1. Interpret to communities and to interested persons the needs of the deaf and how their needs may be met through the use of service providers.

2. Obtain without additional cost to the state available office space in public and private agencies which service providers may utilize in carrying out service projects for deaf persons. However, if space is not available in a specific service area without additional cost to the state, the commission may obtain other office space which is colocated with public or private agencies. The space shall be obtained at the lowest cost available and the terms of the lease must be approved by the director of general services.

3. Establish service projects for deaf persons throughout the state. Projects shall not be undertaken by service providers for compensation which would duplicate existing services when those services are available to deaf people through paid interpreters or other persons able to communicate with deaf people.

As used in this section, "service projects" includes interpretation services for persons who are deaf, referral and counseling services for deaf people in the areas of adult education, legal aid, employment, medical, finance, housing, recreation, and other personal assistance and social programs.

"Service providers" are persons who, for compensation or on a volunteer basis, carry out service projects.

4. Identify agencies, both public and private, which provide community services, evaluate the extent to which they make services available to deaf people, and cooperate with the agencies in coordinating and extending these services.

5. Collect information concerning deafness and provide for the dissemination of the information.

6. Provide for the mutual exchange of ideas and information on services for deaf people between federal, state, and local governmental agencies and private organizations and individuals.

7. Pursuant to section 601K.2, be responsible for budgeting and personnel decisions for the commission and division.

89 Acts, ch 54, §1 HF 399
Subsection 2 amended

601K.117 Interpretation services account.

All fees collected by the division for provision of interpretation service by the division to obligated agencies shall be deposited in a separate account within the general operating fund of the division and shall be dedicated to and used by the division for the provision of continued and expanded interpretation services. The commission shall adopt rules which establish a fee schedule for the costs of provision of interpretation services, for collection of the fees, and for disposition of moneys received under this section. Notwithstanding section 8.33, any balance in the separate account at the end of any fiscal year, shall be retained in the account.

DEPARTMENT FOR THE BLIND

601L.3 Commission duties.

The commission shall:

1. Prepare and maintain a complete register of the blind of the state which shall describe the condition, cause of blindness, ability to receive education and industrial training, and other facts the commission deems of value.

2. Assist in marketing of products of blind workers of the state.

3. Ameliorate the condition of the blind by promoting visits to them in their homes for the purpose of instruction and by other lawful methods as the commission deems expedient.

4. Make inquiries concerning the causes of blindness to ascertain what portion of cases are preventable, and cooperate with the other organized agents of the state in the adoption and enforcement of proper preventive measures.

5. Provide for suitable vocational training if the commission deems it advisable and necessary. The commission may establish workshops for the employment of the blind, paying suitable wages for work under the employment. The commission may provide or pay for, during their training period, the temporary lodging and support of persons receiving vocational training. The commission may use receipts or earnings that accrue from the operation of workshops as provided in this chapter, but a detailed statement of receipts or earnings and expenditures shall be made monthly to the director of the department of management.

6. Establish, manage, and control a special training, orientation, and adjustment center or centers for the blind. Training in the centers shall be limited to persons who are sixteen years of age or older, and the department shall not provide or cause to be provided any academic education or training to children under the age of sixteen except that the commission may provide library services to these children. The commission may provide for the maintenance, upkeep, repair, and alteration of the buildings and grounds designated as centers for the blind including the expenditure of funds appropriated for that purpose. Nonresidents may be admitted to Iowa centers for the blind as space is available, upon terms determined by rule.

7. Establish and maintain offices for the department and commission.

8. Accept gifts, grants, devises, or bequests of real or personal property from any source for the use and purposes of the department. Notwithstanding sections 8.33 and 453.7, the interest accrued from moneys received under this section shall not revert to the general fund of the state.

9. Provide library services to blind and physically handicapped persons.

10. Act as a bureau of information and industrial aid for the blind, such as assisting the blind in finding employment.

11. Be responsible for the budgetary and personnel decisions for the department and commission.

12. Whenever the price is reasonably competitive and the quality intended, and in keeping with the schedule established in this subsection, purchase soybean-based inks and starch-based plastics, including but not limited to starch-based garbage can liners.

a. By July 1, 1989, a minimum of fifty percent of the purchases of inks which are used for newsprint paper for printing services performed internally or contracted for by the commission shall be soybean-based.

b. By July 1, 1989, a minimum of fifteen percent of the purchases of garbage can liners made by the commission shall be starch-based plastic garbage can liners. The percentage purchased shall increase by five percent annually until fifty percent of the purchases of garbage can liners are purchases of starch-based plastic garbage can liners.

c. The commission shall report to the general assembly on January 1 of each year, the plastic products which are regularly purchased by the commission for which starch-based product alternatives are available. The report shall also include the cost of the plastic products purchased and the cost of the starch-based product alternatives.

13. In conjunction with the recommendations made by the department of natural resources, purchase and use recycled printing and writing paper in accordance with the schedule established in section 18.18; establish a wastepaper recycling program, the schedule established in section 18.20; in accordance with the recommendations made by the department of natural resources and requirements of section 18.20; comply with the recycling goal, recycling schedule, and ultimate termination of purchase and use of polystyrene products for the purpose of storing, packaging, or serving food for immediate consumption pursuant to section 455D.16; and, in accordance with section 18.6, require product content statements, the provision of information regarding on-site review of waste management in product bidding and contract procedures, and compliance with requirements regarding contract bidding.

CHAPTER 602

THE COURTS

602.1209 General duties of the state court administrator.

The state court administrator shall:

1. Manage the judicial department.
2. Administer funds appropriated to the department.
3. Authorize the filling of vacant court-employee positions, review the qualifications of each person to be employed within the department, and assure that affirmative action goals are being met by the department. The state court administrator shall not approve the employment of a person when either the proposed terms and conditions of employment or the qualifications of the individual do not satisfy personnel policies of the department. The administrator shall implement the comparable worth directives issued under section 602.1204, subsection 2 in all court employment decisions.
4. Supervise the employees of the supreme court and court of appeals, and the clerk of the supreme court.
5. Administer the judicial retirement system as provided in article 9.
6. Collect and compile information and statistical data, and submit reports relating to judicial business, including juvenile court activities and other matters relating to the department.
7. Formulate and submit recommendations for improvement of the judicial system, with reference to the structure of the department and its organization and methods of operation, the selection, compensation, number, and tenure of judicial officers and court employees, and other matters as directed by the chief justice or the supreme court.
8. Call conferences of district court administrators as necessary in the administration of the department.
9. Provide a secretary and clerical services for the board of examiners of shorthand reporters under article 3.
10. Act as executive secretary of the commission on judicial qualifications under article 2.
11. Act as custodian of the bonds and oaths of office of judicial officers and court employees.
12. Issue vouchers for the payment of per diem and expenses from funds appropriated for purposes of articles 2, 3, and 10.
13. Collect and account for fees paid to the board of examiners of shorthand reporters under article 3.
14. Collect and account for fees paid to the board of bar examiners under article 10.
15. Distribute notices of interest rates and changes to interest rates as required by section 668.13, subsection 3.
16. Perform other duties as assigned by the supreme court, or the chief justice, or by law.

602.1216 Retention of clerks of the district court.

A clerk of the district court shall stand for retention in office, in the county of the clerk's office, upon the petition of ten percent of all qualified electors in the county to the state commissioner of elections, at the judicial election in 1988 and every four years thereafter, under sections 46.17 through 46.24. The petition shall be filed in the office of the state commissioner not later than one hundred twenty days before the general election. A clerk who is not retained in office is ineligible to serve as clerk, in the county in which the clerk was not retained, for the four years following the retention vote.

89 Acts, ch 136, §74 SF 371
Section amended

602.1301 Budget and fiscal procedures.

1. The supreme court shall prepare an annual operating budget for the department, and shall submit a budget request to the general assembly for the fiscal period for which the general assembly is appropriating funds.

2. a. As early as possible, but not later than December 1, the supreme court shall submit to the legislative fiscal bureau the annual budget request and detailed supporting information for the judicial department. The submission shall be designed to assist the legislative fiscal bureau in its preparation for legislative consideration of the budget request. The information submitted shall contain and be arranged in a format substantially similar to the format specified by the director of management and used by all departments and establishments in transmitting to the director estimates of their expenditure requirements pursuant to section 8.23, except the estimates of expenditure requirements shall be based upon one hundred percent of funding for the current fiscal year accounted for by program, and using the same line item definitions of expenditures as used for the current fiscal year's budget request, and the remainder of the estimate of expenditure requirements prioritized by program. The supreme court shall also make use of the department of management's automated budget system when submitting information to the director of management to assist the director in the transmittal of information as required under section 8.35A.

b. Before December 1, the supreme court shall submit to the director of management an estimate of the total expenditure requirements of the judicial department. The director of management shall submit this estimate received from the supreme court to the governor for inclusion without change in the governor's proposed budget for the succeeding fiscal year. The estimate shall also be submitted to the chairpersons of the committees on appropriations.

3. The state court administrator shall prescribe the procedures to be used by the operating components of the department with respect to the following:

- a. The preparation, submission, review, and revision of budget requests.
- b. The allocation and disbursement of funds appropriated to the department.
- c. The purchase of forms, supplies, equipment, and other property.
- d. Other matters relating to fiscal administration.

4. The state court administrator shall prescribe practices and procedures for the accounting and internal auditing of funds of the department, including uniform practices and procedures to be used by judicial officers and court employees with respect to all funds, regardless of source.

89 Acts, ch 316, §19 HF 772
Subsection 2, paragraph a amended

602.1505 District court clerk salaries.

The state court administrator shall set the salaries of the clerks of the district court in accordance with the pay plan established under section 602.1401 and within the funds appropriated by the general assembly for that purpose.

89 Acts, ch 40, §1 SF 397
Section amended

602.3105 Applications.

Applications for certification shall be on forms prescribed and furnished by the board and the board shall not require that the application contain a photograph of the applicant. An applicant shall not be denied certification because of age, citizenship, sex, race, religion, marital status, or national origin although the application may require citizenship information. The board may consider the past felony record of an applicant. Character references may be required, but shall not be obtained from certified shorthand reporters.

89 Acts, ch 296, §80 SF 141
Section amended

602.3201 Requirement of certification—use of title.

A person shall not engage in the profession of shorthand reporting unless the person is certified pursuant to this chapter, or otherwise exempted pursuant to section 602.6603, subsection 4. Only a person who is certified by the board may assume the title of certified shorthand reporter, or use the abbreviation C.S.R., or any words, letters, or figures to indicate that the person is a certified shorthand reporter.

89 Acts, ch 296, §81 SF 141
Section amended

602.3203 Revocation or suspension.

A certification may be revoked or suspended if the person is guilty of any of the following acts or offenses:

1. Fraud in procuring a license.
2. Professional incompetency.
3. Knowingly making misleading, deceptive, untrue, or fraudulent representations in the practice of shorthand reporting, or engaging in unethical conduct or in a practice that is harmful or detrimental to the public. Proof of actual injury need not be established.
4. Habitual intoxication or addiction to the use of drugs.
5. Conviction of a felony. A copy of the record of conviction or plea of guilty is conclusive evidence.
6. Fraud in representations relating to skill or ability.
7. Use of untruthful or improbable statements in advertisements.

89 Acts, ch 296, §82 SF 141
Subsection 5 amended

602.6110 Peer review court—pilot projects.

1. A peer review court is established as a pilot program to divert youthful offenders from the criminal or juvenile justice systems. The court shall consist of a qualified adult to act as judge with prosecutor, defense counsel, court attendant, clerk, and jury composed of persons ten through seventeen years of age.

2. The jurisdiction of the peer review court extends to those persons ten through seventeen years of age who have committed misdemeanor offenses or delinquent acts which would be misdemeanor offenses if committed by an adult and who have entered a plea of guilty, entered into an informal adjustment agreement, or agreed to the entry of a consent decree to those offenses in district or juvenile court. Those persons may then elect to appear before the peer review court to receive sentence. The peer review court shall not determine guilt or innocence. The peer review court shall only determine the sentence for the offense. The sentence may consist of fines, restrictions for damages, attendance at treatment programs, or community service work or any combination of these. A person appearing before the peer review court may also be required to serve as a juror on the court as a part of the person's sentence.

3. Subject to the agreement of the chief judge of the judicial district, the supreme court shall designate two judicial districts in which to locate a peer review court pilot project. The chief judge of the district shall appoint a peer review court advisory board. The advisory board shall adopt rules for the peer review court advisory program, shall appoint persons to serve on the peer review court, and shall supervise the expenditure of funds appropriated to the program.

89 Acts, ch 262, §1 HF 71
NEW section

602.6302 Appointment of district associate judge in lieu of magistrates.

1. The chief judge of the judicial district may designate by order of substitution that a district associate judge be appointed pursuant to this section in lieu of magistrates appointed under section 602.6403, subject to the following limitations:

a. The county in which the district associate judge is to be appointed, or the counties in which the district associate judge is to be appointed in combination, must have an apportionment of three or more magistrates.

b. The substitution must not result in a lack of a resident district associate judge or magistrate in one or more of the counties.

c. The substitution must be approved by the supreme court.

d. A majority of district judges in that judicial election district, or in the case of an appointment involving more than one judicial election district in the same judicial district, a majority of the district judges in each judicial election district, must vote in favor of the substitution and find that the substitution will provide more timely and efficient performance of judicial business within that judicial election district.

2. An order of substitution shall not take effect unless a copy of the order is received by the chairperson of the county magistrate appointing commission or commissions no later than May 31 of the year in which the substitution is to take effect. A copy of the order shall also be sent to the state court administrator.

3. For a county in which a substitution order is in effect, the number of magistrates actually appointed pursuant to section 602.6403 shall be reduced by three for each district associate judge substituted under this section. However, if the substitution order is for a district associate judge appointed to more than one county, the reduction of three magistrates shall be as provided in the order of the chief judge of the judicial district. Upon a subsequent reduction in the apportionment of magistrates to the county or counties, the magistrate appointing commission shall further reduce the number of magistrates appointed.

4. a. Except as provided in subsections 1 through 3, a substitution shall not increase or decrease the number of magistrates authorized by this article.

b. A substitution shall not be made where the apportionment of magistrates to a county is insufficient to permit the full reduction in appointments of magistrates as required by subsection 3.

5. If an apportionment by the state court administrator pursuant to section 602.6401 reduces the number of magistrates in the county or counties to less than the number required to be apportioned to allow a substitution order pursuant to subsection 1, or if a majority of the district judges in the judicial election district or districts determines that a substitution is no longer desirable, then the substituted office shall be terminated. However, a reversion pursuant to this subsection, irrespective of cause, shall not take effect until the substitute district associate judge fails to be retained in office at a judicial election or otherwise leaves office, whether voluntarily or involuntarily. Upon the termination of office of that district associate judge, appointments shall be made pursuant to section 602.6403 as necessary to reestablish terms of office as provided in section 602.6403, subsection 4.

602.6305 Term, retention, qualifications.

1. District associate judges shall serve initial terms and shall stand for retention in office within the judicial election districts of their residences at the judicial election in 1982 and every four years thereafter, under sections 46.17 to 46.24.

2. A person does not qualify for appointment to the office of district associate judge unless the person is at the time of appointment a resident of the county in which the vacancy exists, licensed to practice law in Iowa, and will be able, measured by the person's age at the time of appointment, to complete the initial term of office prior to reaching age seventy-two. An applicant for district associate judge shall file a certified application form, to be provided by the supreme court, with the chairperson of the county magistrate appointing commission.

3. A district associate judge must be a resident of a county in which the office is held during the entire term of office. A district associate judge shall serve within the judicial district in which appointed, as directed by the chief judge, and is subject to reassignment under section 602.6108.

4. District associate judges shall qualify for office as provided in chapter 63 for district judges.

89 Acts, ch 114, §2 SF 498; 89 Acts, ch 212, §2 HF 791; 89 Acts, ch 296, §83 SF 141
See Code editor's note to §22.7
Subsection 2 amended

602.6403 Appointment and qualification of magistrates.

1. In June of each year in which magistrates' terms expire, the county magistrate appointing commission shall appoint, except as otherwise provided in section 602.6302, the number of magistrates apportioned to the county by the state court administrator under section 602.6401, and may appoint an additional magistrate when allowed by section 602.6402. The commission shall not appoint more magistrates than are authorized for the county by this article.

2. The magistrate appointing commission for each county shall prescribe the contents of an application, in addition to any application form provided by the supreme court, for an appointment pursuant to this section. The commission shall publicize notice of any vacancy to be filled in at least two publications in the official county newspaper. The commission shall accept applications for a minimum of fifteen days prior to making an appointment, and shall make available during that period of time any printed application forms the commission prescribes.

3. Within thirty days following receipt of notification of a vacancy in the office of magistrate, the commission shall appoint a person to the office to serve the remainder of the unexpired term. For purposes of this section, vacancy means a death, resignation, retirement, or removal of a magistrate, or an increase in the number of positions authorized.

4. The term of office of a magistrate is four years, commencing August 1, 1989. However, the terms of all magistrates in a county are deemed to expire if a substitution under section 602.6302 or the allocation under section 602.6401 results in a reduction in the number of magistrates in a county where the magistrates hold office.

5. The commission shall promptly certify the names and addresses of appointees to the clerk of the district court and to the chief judge of the judicial district. The clerk of the district court shall certify to the state court administrator the names and addresses of these appointees.

6. Before assuming office, a magistrate shall subscribe and file in the office of the state court administrator the oath of office specified in section 63.6.

7. Before the commencement of the term of a magistrate, the members of the magistrate appointing commission may reconsider the appointment. Written notification of the reasons for reconsideration and time and place for the meeting must be sent to the magistrate appointee and the clerk of the district court. The commission may reconvene and decertify the magistrate appointee for good cause. Notice of the decertification and a statement of the reasons justifying the decertification shall be promptly sent to the clerk of the district court, the chief judge of the judicial district, and the state court administrator.

8. Annually, the state court administrator shall cause a school of instruction to be conducted for magistrates, and each magistrate shall attend prior to the time of taking office unless excused by the chief justice for good cause. A magistrate appointed to fill a vacancy shall attend the first school of instruction that is held following the appointment, unless excused by the chief justice for good cause.

NEW subsection 7 and existing subsection 7 renumbered as 8

602.6404 Qualifications.

1. A magistrate shall be a resident of the county of appointment during the magistrate's term of office. A magistrate shall serve within the judicial district in which appointed, as directed by the chief judge, provided that the chief judge may assign a magistrate to hold court outside of the county of the magistrate's residence only if it is necessary for the orderly administration of justice. A magistrate is subject to reassignment under section 602.6108.

2. A person is not qualified for appointment as a magistrate unless the person files a certified application form, to be provided by the supreme court, with the chairperson of the county magistrate appointing commission. A person is not qualified for appointment as a magistrate if at the time of appointment the person has reached age seventy-two.

3. A person is not required to be admitted to the practice of law in this state as a condition of being appointed to the office of magistrate, but the magistrate appointing commission shall first consider applicants who are admitted to practice law in this state when selecting persons for the office of magistrate.

89 Acts, ch 114, §5 SF 498; 89 Acts, ch 212, §5 HF 791
See Code editor's note to §22.7

602.6603 Court reporters.

1. Each district judge shall appoint a court reporter who shall, upon the request of a party in a civil or criminal case, report the evidence and proceedings in the case, and perform all duties as provided by law.

2. Each district associate judge may appoint a court reporter, subject to the approval of the chief judge of the judicial district.

3. If a district judge determines that it is necessary to employ an additional court reporter because of an extraordinary volume of work, or because of the temporary illness or incapacity of a regular court reporter, the district judge may appoint a temporary court reporter who shall serve as required by the district judge.

4. If a regularly appointed court reporter becomes disabled, or if a vacancy occurs in a regularly appointed court reporter position, the judge may appoint a competent uncertified shorthand reporter for a period of time of up to six months, upon verification by the chief judge that a diligent but unsuccessful search has been conducted to appoint a certified shorthand reporter to the position and, in a disability case, that the regularly appointed court reporter is disabled. An uncertified shorthand reporter shall not be reappointed to the position unless the reporter becomes a certified shorthand reporter within the period of appointment under this subsection.

5. Except as provided in subsection 4, a person shall not be appointed to the position of court reporter of the district court unless the person has been certified as a shorthand reporter by the board of examiners under article 3.

6. Each court reporter shall take an oath faithfully to perform the duties of office, which shall be filed in the office of the clerk of district court.

7. A court reporter may be removed for cause with due process by the judicial officer making the appointment.

8. If a judge dies, resigns, retires, is removed from office, becomes disabled, or fails to be retained in office and the judicial vacancy is eligible to be filled, the court reporter appointed by the judge shall serve as a court reporter, as directed by the chief judge or the chief judge's designee, until the successor judge appoints a successor court reporter. The court reporter shall receive the reporter's regular salary and benefits during the period of time until a successor court reporter is appointed or until the currently appointed court reporter is reappointed.

89 Acts, ch 110, §1 SF 406
Subsection 8 amended

602.7103 Referee—procedure.

1. The chief judge may appoint and may remove for cause with due process a juvenile court referee. The referee shall be an attorney admitted to practice law in this state, and shall be qualified for duties by training and experience.

2. The referee shall have the same jurisdiction to conduct juvenile court proceedings and to issue orders, findings, and decisions as the judge of the juvenile court, except that the referee shall not issue warrants. However, the appointing judge may limit the referee's exercise of juvenile court jurisdiction.

3. The parties to a proceeding heard by the referee are entitled to a review by the judge of the juvenile court of the referee's order, finding, or decision, if the review is requested within ten days after the entry of the referee's order, finding, or decision. A request for review does not automatically stay the referee's order, finding, or decision. The review is on the record only.

89 Acts, ch 296, §84 SF 141
Subsection 1 amended

602.8102 General duties.

The clerk shall:

1. Keep the office of the clerk at the county seat.
2. Attend sessions of the district court.
3. Keep the records, papers, and seal, and record the proceedings of the district court as provided by law under the direction of the chief judge of the judicial district.

4. Upon the death of a judge or magistrate of the district court, give written notice to the department of management and the department of revenue and finance of the date of death. The clerk shall also give written notice of the death of a justice of the supreme court, a judge of the court of appeals, or a judge or magistrate of the district court who resides in the clerk's county to the state commissioner of elections, as provided in section 46.12.

5. When money in the amount of five hundred dollars or more is paid to the clerk to be paid to another person and the money is not disbursed within thirty days, notify the person who is entitled to the money or for whose account the money is paid or the attorney of record of the person. The notice shall be given by certified mail within forty days of the receipt of the money to the last known address of the person or the person's attorney and a memorandum of the notice shall be made in the proper record. If the notice is not given, the clerk and the clerk's sureties are liable for interest at the rate specified in section 535.2, subsection 1 on the money from the date of receipt to the date that the money is paid to the person entitled to it or the person's attorney.

6. On each process issued, indicate the date that it is issued, the clerk's name who issued it, and the seal of the court.

7. Upon return of an original notice to the clerk's office, enter in the appearance or combination docket information to show which parties have been served the notice and the manner and time of service.

8. When entering a lien or indexing an action affecting real estate in the clerk's office, enter the year, month, day, hour, and minute when the entry is made. The clerk shall mail a copy of a mechanic's lien to the owner of the building, land, or improvement which is charged with the lien as provided in section 572.8.

9. Enter in the appearance docket a memorandum of the date of filing of all petitions, demurrers, answers, motions, or papers of any other description in the cause.  NEW subsection 105A

602.8103 General powers.

The clerk may:

1. Administer oaths and take affirmations as provided in section 78.1.
2. Reproduce original records of the court by any reasonably permanent legible means including, but not limited to, reproduction by photographing, photostating, microfilming, and computer cards. The reproduction shall include proper indexing. The reproduced record has the same authenticity as the original record.
3. After the original record is reproduced and after approval of a majority of the judges of the district court by court order, destroy the original records including, but not limited to, dockets, journals, scrapbooks, files, and marriage license applications. The order shall state the specific records which are to be destroyed. An original court file shall not be destroyed until after the contents have been reproduced. As used in this subsection and subsection 4, "destroy" includes the transmission of the original records which are of general historical interest to any recognized historical society or association.
4. Destroy the following original records without prior court order or reproduction except as otherwise provided in this subsection:
  - a. Records including, but not limited to, journals, scrapbooks, and files, forty years after final disposition of the case. However, judgments, decrees, stipulations, records in criminal proceedings, probate records, and orders of court shall not be destroyed unless they have been reproduced as provided in subsection 2.
  - b. Administrative records, after five years, including, but not limited to, warrants, subpoenas, clerks' certificates, statements, praecipes, and depositions.
  - c. Records, dockets, and court files of civil and criminal actions heard in the municipal court which were transferred to the clerk, other than juvenile and adoption proceedings, after a period of twenty years from the date of filing of the actions.
  - d. Original court files on dissolutions of marriage, one year after dismissal by the parties or under R.C.P. 215, Ia. Ct. Rules, 2nd ed.
  - e. Small claims files, one year after dismissal with or without prejudice.
  - f. Uniform traffic citations in the magistrate court or traffic and scheduled violations office, one year after final disposition.
  - g. Court reporters' notes and certified transcripts of those notes in civil cases, ten years after final disposition of the case. For purposes of this section, "final disposition" means one year after dismissal of the case, after judgment or decree without appeal, or after procedendo or dismissal of appeal is filed in cases where appeal is taken.
  - h. Court reporters' notes and certified transcripts of those notes in criminal cases, ten years after dismissal of all charges, or ten years after the expiration of all sentences imposed or the date probation is granted, whichever later occurs. For purposes of this subsection "sentences imposed" include all sentencing options pursuant to section 901.5.
  - i. Court files, as provided by rules prescribed by the supreme court, ten years after final disposition in civil cases, or ten years after expiration of all sentences in criminal cases. For purposes of this paragraph, "purging" means the removal and destruction of documents in the court file which have no legal, administrative, or historical value. Purging shall be done without reproduction of the removed documents. For purposes of this paragraph, "civil cases" does not include divorce, dissolution of marriage, child support, or paternity cases, or juvenile, mental health, probate, or adoption proceedings.

5. Invest money which is paid to the clerk to be paid to any other person in a savings account of a supervised financial organization as defined in section 537.1301, subsection 41, except a credit union operating pursuant to chapter 533. The provisions of chapter 453 relating to the deposit and investment of public funds apply to the deposit and investment of the money except that a supervised financial organization other than a credit union may be designated as a depository and the money shall be available upon demand. The interest earnings shall be paid into the general fund of the state, except as otherwise provided by law.

  - (2) For an equity case, three dollars.
  - (3) For an injunction or other extraordinary process or order, five dollars.
  - (4) For a cause continued on application of a party by affidavit, two dollars.
  - (5) For a continuance, one dollar.
  - (6) For entering a final judgment or decree, one dollar and fifty cents.
  - (7) For taxing costs, one dollar.
  - (8) For issuing an execution or other process after judgment or decree, two dollars.
  - (9) For filing and docketing a transcript of judgment from another county, one dollar.
  - (10) For entering a rule or order, one dollar.
  - (11) For issuing a writ or order, not including subpoenas, two dollars.
  - (12) For entering a judgment by confession, two dollars.
  - (13) For entering a satisfaction of a judgment, one dollar.
  - (14) For a copy of records or papers filed in the clerk's office, transcripts, and making a complete record, fifty cents for each one hundred words.
  - (15) For taking and approving a bond and sureties on the bond, two dollars.
- d. For filing, entering, and endorsing a mechanic's lien, three dollars, and if a suit is brought, the fee is taxable as other costs in the action.
- e. For filing and entering an agricultural supply dealer's lien, three dollars.
- f. For filing and entering any statutory lien not specifically enumerated in this section, three dollars.
- g. For a certificate and seal, two dollars.

h. For receiving and filing a declaration of intention and issuing a duplicate, two dollars. For making, filing, and docketing the petition of an alien for admission as a citizen of the United States and for the final hearing, four dollars; and for entering the final order and the issuance of the certificate of citizenship, if granted, four dollars.

i. In addition to the fees required in paragraph "h", the petitioner shall, upon the filing of a petition to become a citizen of the United States, deposit with the clerk money sufficient to cover the expense of subpoenaing and paying the legal fees of witnesses for whom the petitioner may request a subpoena, and upon the final discharge of the witnesses they shall receive, if they demand it from the clerk, the customary and usual witness fees from the moneys collected, and the residue, if any, except the amount necessary to pay the cost of serving the subpoenas, shall be returned by the clerk to the petitioner.

j. For a certificate and seal to an application to procure a pension, bounty, or back pay for a soldier or other person, no charge.

k. For making out a transcript in a criminal case appealed to the supreme court, for each one hundred words, fifty cents.

l. In criminal cases, the same fees for the same services as in civil cases, to be paid by the county or city, which has the duty to prosecute the criminal action, payable as provided in section 602.8109. When judgment is rendered against the defendant, costs collected from the defendant shall be paid to the county or city which has the duty to prosecute the criminal action to the extent necessary for reimbursement for fees paid. However, the fees which are payable by the county to the clerk of the district court for services rendered in criminal actions prosecuted under state law and in habitual offender actions pursuant to section 321.556, and the court costs taxed in connection with the trial of those actions or appeals from the judgments in those actions are waived.

m. For filing an application for a license to marry, fifteen dollars. The clerk of the district court shall remit to the treasurer of state five dollars for each marriage license application filed. The treasurer of state shall deposit the funds received in the general fund of the state. For issuing an application for an order of the district court authorizing the issuance of a license to marry prior to the expiration of three days from the date of filing the application for the license, five dollars.

n. For entering a final decree of dissolution of marriage, fifteen dollars. The fees shall be deposited in the general fund of the state. It is the intent of the general assembly that the funds generated from the dissolution fees be appropriated and used for sexual assault and domestic violence centers.

a. For certifying a change in title of real estate, two dollars.

p. In addition to all other fees, for making a complete record in cases where a complete record is required by law or directed by an order of the court, for every one hundred words, twenty cents.

q. For providing transcripts, certificates, other documents, and services in probate matters, the fees specified in section 633.31.

r. The jury fee and court reporter fee specified in chapter 625.

s. For filing and docketing a transcript of judgment from another county, two dollars.

t. For entering a judgment by confession, two dollars.

u. Other fees provided by law.

2. The fees collected by the clerk as provided in subsection 1 shall be deposited in the court revenue distribution account established under section 602.8108, except as otherwise provided by that section or by applicable law.

3. The clerk shall keep an accurate record of the fees collected in a fee book, and make a quarterly report of the fees collected to the supreme court.

4. The clerk shall pay to the treasurer of state all fees which have come into the clerk's possession and which are unclaimed pursuant to section 556.8 accompanied by a form prescribed by the treasurer. Claims for payment of the moneys must be filed pursuant to chapter 556.

602.8106 Certain fees—collection and disposition.

1. Notwithstanding section 602.8105, the fee for the filing and docketing of a complaint or information for a simple misdemeanor is twenty dollars except that the filing and docketing of a complaint or information for a nonscheduled simple misdemeanor under chapter 321 is fifteen dollars. However, a fee for filing and docketing a complaint or information shall not be collected in cases of overtime parking.

2. The clerk shall remit ninety percent of all fines and forfeited bail received from a magistrate or district associate judge to the city that was the plaintiff in any action, and shall provide that city with a statement showing the total number of cases, the total of all fines and forfeited bail collected, and the total of all cases dismissed. The clerk shall deposit the remaining ten percent in the court revenue distribution account established under section 602.8108.

3. The clerk shall remit all fines and forfeited bail received from a magistrate or district associate judge for violation of a county ordinance, except an ordinance relating to vehicle speed or weight restrictions, to the county treasurer of the county that was the plaintiff in the action, and shall provide that county with a statement showing the total number of cases, the total of all fines and forfeited bail collected, and the total of all cases dismissed. However, if a county ordinance provides a penalty for a violation which is also penalized under state law, the fines and forfeited bail collected for the violation of that ordinance shall be deposited in the court revenue distribution account established under section 602.8108.

4. The clerk shall remit all other fines and forfeited bail received from a magistrate to the treasurer of state to be credited to the general fund of the state, except that annually the first two million five hundred thousand dollars in fines which are imposed through vehicle violation citations issued by motor vehicle division personnel at portable and fixed weigh stations in the state which shall be credited to the road use tax fund.

5. All fees and costs for the filing of a complaint or information or upon forfeiture of bail received from a magistrate shall be distributed by the clerk as follows:

a. Two fifths shall be remitted monthly by the clerk to the treasurer of state to be credited to the general fund of the state.

b. Three tenths shall be deposited in the court revenue distribution account established under section 602.8108.

c. Three tenths shall be remitted monthly by the clerk to the treasurer of state to be credited to the judicial retirement fund established under section 602.9104.

602.9203 Senior judgeship requirements.

1. A supreme court judge, court of appeals judge, district judge or district associate judge, who qualifies under subsection 2 may become a senior judge by filing with the clerk of the supreme court a written election in the form specified by the court administrator. The election shall be filed within six months of the date of retirement.

2. A judicial officer referred to in subsection 1 qualifies for a senior judgeship if the judicial officer meets all of the following requirements:

a. Retires from office on or after July 1, 1977, whether or not the judicial officer is of mandatory retirement age.

b. Meets the minimum requirements for entitlement to an annuity as specified in section 602.9106. However, a judge who elects to retire prior to attaining the age of sixty-five and who has not had twenty-five years of consecutive service, may serve as a senior judge, but shall not be paid an annuity pursuant to section 602.9204 until attaining age sixty-five.

c. Agrees in writing on a form prescribed by the court administrator to be available as long as the judicial officer is a senior judge to perform judicial duties as assigned by the supreme court for an aggregate period of thirteen weeks out of each successive twelve-month period.

d. Submits evidence to the satisfaction of the supreme court that as of the date of retirement the judicial officer does not suffer from a permanent physical or mental disability which would substantially interfere with the performance of duties agreed to under paragraph "c" of this subsection.

e. Submits evidence to the satisfaction of the supreme court that since the date of retirement the judicial officer has not engaged in the practice of law.

3. The clerk of the supreme court shall maintain a book entitled "Roster of Senior Judges", and shall enter in the book the name of each judicial officer who files a timely election under subsection 1 and qualifies under subsection 2. A person shall be a senior judge upon entry of the person's name in the roster of senior judges and until the person becomes a retired senior judge as provided in section 602.9207, or until the person's name is stricken from the roster of senior judges as provided in section 602.9208, or until the person dies.

4. The supreme court shall cause each senior judge on the roster to actually perform judicial duties during each successive twelve-month period.

5. A judicial officer referred to in subsection 1 who retired from office on or after the date specified in subsection 2 and before July 1, 1979, may become a senior judge by filing with the clerk of court not later than thirty days after July 1, 1979, a written election in the form specified by the court administrator. If prior to July 1, 1979, the judicial officer filed an election to practice law under section 602.1612, the filing of an election under this subsection revokes the election to practice law, and the judicial officer shall divest the judicial officer of any interest in the practice of law within ninety days after July 1, 1979. For purposes of subsection 2, paragraph "d", of this section only, the date of retirement of a judicial officer who files an election under the authority of this subsection shall be deemed to be July 1, 1979.

89 Acts, ch 162, §1 SF 459
Subsection 2, paragraph b amended

602.9204 Annuity of senior judge and retired senior judge.

A senior judge or a retired senior judge shall not be paid a salary. A senior judge or retired senior judge shall be paid an annuity under the judicial retirement system in the manner provided in section 602.9109, but computed under this section in lieu of section 602.9107, as follows: The annuity paid to a senior judge or retired senior judge shall be an amount equal to three percent of the current basic salary, as of the time each payment is made, of the office in which the senior judge last served as a judge before retirement as a judge or senior judge, multiplied by the judge's years of service prior to retirement as a judge of one or more of the courts included under this article, for which contributions were made to the system, except the annuity of the senior judge or retired senior judge shall not exceed fifty percent of the current basic salary. In addition, if a senior judge is under sixty-five years of age at the time the judge becomes a senior judge, the state shall pay the state's share of the senior judge's medical insurance premium until the judge attains age sixty-five.

89 Acts, ch 162, §2 SF 459
Section amended

CHAPTER 613A

TORT LIABILITY OF GOVERNMENTAL SUBDIVISIONS

613A.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

1. "Municipality" means city, county, township, school district, and any other unit of local government except soil and water conservation districts as defined in section 467A.3, subsection 1.
2. "Governing body" means the council of a city, county board of supervisors, board of township trustees, local school board, and other boards and commissions exercising quasi-legislative, quasi-executive, and quasi-judicial power over territory comprising a municipality.
3. "Tort" means every civil wrong which results in wrongful death or injury to person or injury to property or injury to personal or property rights and includes but is not restricted to actions based upon negligence; error or omission; nuisance; breach of duty, whether statutory or other duty or denial or impairment of any right under any constitutional provision, statute or rule of law.
4. "Officer" includes but is not limited to the members of the governing body.

89 Acts, ch 83, §82 SF 112
Subsection 1 amended

613A.4 Claims exempted.

The liability imposed by section 613A.2 shall have no application to any claim enumerated in this section. As to any such claim, a municipality shall be liable only to the extent liability may be imposed by the express statute dealing with such claims and, in the absence of such express statute, the municipality shall be immune from liability.

1. Any claim by an employee of the municipality which is covered by the Iowa workers' compensation law.
2. Any claim in connection with the assessment or collection of taxes.
3. Any claim based upon an act or omission of an officer or employee of the municipality, exercising due care, in the execution of a statute, ordinance, or regulation whether the statute, ordinance or regulation is valid, or based upon the exercise or performance or the failure to exercise or perform a discretionary function or duty on the part of the municipality or an officer or employee of the municipality, whether or not the discretion is abused.
4. Any claim against a municipality as to which the municipality is immune from liability by the provisions of any other statute or where the action based upon such claim has been barred or abated by operation of statute or rule of civil procedure.

5. Any claim for punitive damages.

6. Any claim for damages caused by a municipality's failure to discover a latent defect in the course of an inspection.

7. Any claim based upon or arising out of a claim of negligent design or specification, negligent adoption of design or specification, or negligent construction or reconstruction of a highway, secondary road, or street as defined in section 321.1, subsection 48, that was constructed or reconstructed in accordance with a generally recognized engineering or safety standard, criteria, or design theory in existence at the time of the construction or reconstruction. A claim under this chapter shall not be allowed for failure to upgrade, improve, or alter any aspect of an existing highway, secondary road, or street, to new, changed, or altered design standards. In respect to highways and roads, sealcoating, asphaltting, patching, resurfacing, ditching, draining, repairing, graveling, rocking, blading, or maintaining an existing highway or road does not constitute reconstruction. This subsection shall not apply to claims based upon gross negligence.

8. Any claim based upon or arising out of a claim of negligent design or specification, negligent adoption of design or specification, or negligent construction or reconstruction of a public improvement as defined in section 384.37, subsection 1, or other public facility that was constructed or reconstructed in accordance with a generally recognized engineering or safety standard, criteria, or design theory in existence at the time of the construction or reconstruction. A claim under this chapter shall not be allowed for failure to upgrade, improve, or alter any aspect of an existing public improvement or other public facility to new, changed, or altered design standards. This subsection shall not apply to claims based upon gross negligence. This subsection takes effect July 1, 1984 and applies to all cases tried or retried on or after July 1, 1984.

9. Any claim based upon an act or omission by an officer or employee of the municipality or the municipality's governing body, in the granting, suspension, or revocation of a license or permit, where the damage was caused by the person to whom the license or permit was issued, unless the act of the officer or employee constitutes actual malice or a criminal offense.

10. Any claim based upon an act or omission of an officer or employee of the municipality, whether by issuance of permit, inspection, investigation, or otherwise, and whether the statute, ordinance, or regulation is valid, if the damage was caused by a third party, event, or property not under the supervision or control of the municipality, unless the act or omission of the officer or employee constitutes actual malice or a criminal offense.

11. A claim based upon or arising out of an act or omission in connection with an emergency response including but not limited to acts or omissions in connection with emergency response communications services.

12. A claim relating to a swimming pool or spa as defined in section 135I.1 which has been inspected by a municipality or the state in accordance with chapter 135I, or a swimming pool or spa inspection program which has been certified by the state in accordance with that chapter, whether or not owned or operated by a municipality, unless the claim is based upon an act or omission of an officer or employee of the municipality and the act or omission constitutes actual malice or a criminal offense.

The remedy against the municipality provided by section 613A.2 shall hereafter be exclusive of any other civil action or proceeding by reason of the same subject matter against the officer, employee or agent whose act or omission gave rise to the claim, or the officer's, employee's, or agent's estate.

This section does not expand any existing cause of action or create any new cause of action against a municipality.

613A.7 Insurance.

The governing body of a municipality may purchase a policy of liability insurance insuring against all or any part of liability which might be incurred by the municipality or its officers, employees, and agents under section 613A.2 and section 613A.8 and may similarly purchase insurance covering torts specified in section 613A.4. The governing body of a municipality may adopt a self-insurance program, including but not limited to the investigation and defense of claims, the establishment of a reserve fund for claims, the payment of claims, and the administration and management of the self-insurance program, to cover all or any part of the liability. The governing body of a municipality may join and pay funds into a local government risk pool to protect itself against any or all liability. The governing body of a municipality may enter into insurance agreements obligating the municipality to make payments beyond its current budget year to provide or procure such policies of insurance, self-insurance program, or local government risk pool. The premium costs of the insurance, the costs of a self-insurance program, the costs of a local government risk pool, and the amounts payable under any such insurance agreements may be paid out of the general fund or any available funds or may be levied in excess of any tax limitation imposed by statute. However, for school districts, the costs shall be included in the district management levy as provided in section 296.7. Any independent or autonomous board or commission in the municipality having authority to disburse funds for a particular municipal function without approval of the governing body may similarly enter into insurance agreements, procure liability insurance, adopt a self-insurance program, or join a local government risk pool within the field of its operation. The procurement of such insurance constitutes a waiver of the defense of governmental immunity as to those exceptions listed in section 613A.4 to the extent stated in the policy but shall have no further effect on the liability of the municipality beyond the scope of this chapter, but if a municipality adopts a self-insurance program or joins and pays funds into a local government risk pool such action does not constitute a waiver of the defense of governmental immunity as to the exceptions listed in section 613A.4. The existence of any insurance which covers in whole or in part any judgment or award which may be rendered in favor of the plaintiff, or lack of any such insurance, shall not be material in the trial of any action brought against the governing body of a municipality, or its officers, employees, or agents and any reference to such insurance, or lack of insurance, is grounds for a mistrial. A self-insurance program or local government risk pool is not insurance and is not subject to regulation under chapters 505 through 523C.

613A.10 Tax to pay judgment or settlement.

When a final judgment is entered against or a settlement is made by a municipality for a claim within the scope of section 613A.2 or 613A.8, payment shall be made and the same remedies apply in the case of nonpayment as in the case of other judgments against the municipality. If a judgment or settlement is unpaid at the time of the adoption of the annual budget, the municipality shall budget an amount sufficient to pay the judgment or settlement together with interest accruing on it to the expected date of payment. A tax may be levied in excess of any limitation imposed by statute. However, for school districts the costs of a judgment or settlement under this section shall be included in the district management levy pursuant to section 298.4.

CHAPTER 617

MANNER OF COMMENCING ACTIONS

617.13 Real estate in other county.

When any part of real property, the subject of an action, is situated in any other county than the one in which the action is brought, the plaintiff must, in order to affect third persons with constructive notice of the pendency of the action, file with the clerk of the district court of the other county a notice of the pendency of the action, containing the names of the parties, the object of the action, and a description of the property in that county affected by the action. The clerk shall at once index and enter a memorandum of the notice in the encumbrance book.

CHAPTER 622

EVIDENCE

622.84 Subpoenas—enforcing obedience.

1. When, by the laws of this or any other state or country, testimony may be taken in the form of depositions to be used in any of the courts thereof, the person authorized to take the depositions may issue subpoenas for witnesses, which must be served by the same officers and returned in the same manner as is required in district court, and obedience to the subpoenas may be enforced in the same way and to the same extent, or the person may report the matter to the district court who may enforce obedience as though the action was pending in the district court.

2. If a witness is located in any other state or country and refuses to voluntarily submit to the deposition, the court of jurisdiction in this state may, upon the application of any party, petition the court of competent jurisdiction in the foreign jurisdiction where the witness is located to issue subpoenas or make other appropriate orders to compel the witness' attendance at the deposition.

89 Acts, ch 230, §22 HF 690

CHAPTER 624

TRIAL AND JUDGMENT

624.23 Liens of judgments—homesteads—enforceability.

1. Judgments in the appellate or district courts of this state, or in the circuit or district court of the United States within the state, are liens upon the real estate owned by the defendant at the time of such rendition, and also upon all the defendant may subsequently acquire, for the period of ten years from the date of the judgment.

2. Judgment liens described in subsection 1 do not remain a lien upon real estate of the defendant, platted as a homestead pursuant to section 561.4, unless execution is levied within thirty days of the time the defendant or the defendant's agent has served written demand on the owner of the judgment. The demand shall state that the lien and all benefits derived from the lien as to the real estate platted as a homestead shall be forfeited unless the owner of the judgment levies execution against that real estate within thirty days from the date of service of the demand. Written demand shall be served in any manner authorized for service of original notice under the Iowa rules of civil procedure. A copy of the written demand and proof of service of the written demand shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county where the real estate platted as a homestead is located.

3. Judgment liens described in subsection 1 shall not attach to subsequently acquired real estate owned by the defendant if the personal liability of the defendant on the judgment has been discharged under the bankruptcy laws of the United States.

89 Acts, ch 102, §8 SF 367
Subsection 2 amended

CHAPTER 626

EXECUTIONS

626.80 Time and manner.

The sale must be at public auction, between nine o'clock in the forenoon and four o'clock in the afternoon, and the hour of the commencement of the sale must be fixed in the notice.

The sheriff shall receive and give a receipt for a sealed written bid submitted prior to the public auction. The sheriff may require all sealed written bids to be accompanied by payment of any fees required to be paid at the public auction by the purchaser, to be returned if the person submitting the sealed written bid is not the purchaser. The sheriff shall keep all written bids sealed until the commencement of the public auction, at which time the sheriff shall open and announce the written bids as though made in person.

89 Acts, ch 123, §1 HF 384
Section amended

CHAPTER 626B

UNIFORM FOREIGN MONEY-JUDGMENTS RECOGNITION ACT

626B.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Foreign judgment" means a judgment, decree, or order of a court of a foreign state granting or denying recovery of a sum of money, other than a judgment for taxes, a fine or other penalty, or a judgment for support of dependents.
2. "Foreign state" means any governmental unit other than the United States, a state, district, commonwealth, territory, insular possession of the United States, the Panama Canal Zone, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, or the Ryukyu Islands.

89 Acts, ch 173, §1 SF 111
NEW section

626B.2 Application and enforceability.

This chapter applies to any foreign judgment which is final and conclusive, and enforceable where rendered even though the judgment is subject to an appeal or an appeal from that judgment is pending. Except as provided in section 626B.3, a foreign judgment is conclusive between the parties to the extent that the judgment grants or denies recovery of a sum of money. The final and conclusive foreign judgment is enforceable in the same manner and to the same extent as the judgment of a sister state which is entitled to full faith and credit.

89 Acts, ch 173, §2 SF 111
NEW section

626B.3 Inconclusive judgments.

1. A foreign judgment is not conclusive in any of the following cases:
  - a. The foreign judgment was rendered under a system which does not provide impartial tribunals or procedures compatible with the requirements of due process of law.
  - b. Except as provided in section 626B.4, the court of the foreign state did not have personal jurisdiction over the defendant.
  - c. The court of the foreign state did not have jurisdiction over the subject matter involved in the action.
2. A foreign judgment need not be recognized in any of the following cases:
  - a. The defendant in the proceedings in the court of the foreign state did not receive notice of the proceedings in sufficient time to enable the defendant to defend against the action.
  - b. The foreign judgment was obtained by fraud.
  - c. The cause of action on which the foreign judgment was based is contrary to the public policy of this state.
  - d. The foreign judgment conflicts with a previous, final, and conclusive foreign judgment or other judgment.
  - e. The proceeding in the foreign court was contrary to a settlement agreement entered into between the parties prior to the foreign judgment's being rendered by the court in the foreign state.
  - f. The court where the plaintiff is seeking to enforce the foreign judgment determines that jurisdiction in the court of the foreign state was based upon personal service only, and the doctrine of forum non conveniens applies to the original action.

89 Acts, ch 173, §3 SF 111
NEW section

626B.4 Personal jurisdiction.

1. A foreign judgment shall not be refused recognition in a court of this state for lack of personal jurisdiction if any of the following occurred:

- a. The defendant was served personally in the foreign state.
  - b. The defendant voluntarily appeared in the proceedings, other than for the purpose of protecting property seized or threatened with seizure in the proceedings or for the purpose of contesting jurisdiction of the court in the foreign state over the defendant.
  - c. The defendant, prior to the commencement of the proceedings in the court of the foreign state, had agreed to submit to the jurisdiction of that court in the action concerning the subject matter involved.
  - d. The defendant was domiciled, had its principal place of business, or otherwise had acquired corporate status in the foreign state when the proceedings were instituted.
  - e. The defendant had a business office in the foreign state and the proceedings in the court of the foreign state involved a cause of action arising out of business done by the defendant through that office in the foreign state.
  - f. The defendant operated a motor vehicle or airplane in the foreign state and the proceedings involved a cause of action arising out of that operation.
2. A court of this state may recognize other bases of jurisdiction.

89 Acts, ch 173, §4 SF 111
NEW section

626B.5 Effect of appeal.

Upon satisfactory proof by the defendant that an appeal is pending or that the defendant is entitled to and intends to appeal the foreign judgment, the court may stay the proceedings until the appeal has been determined or until a sufficient period of time has expired during which the defendant could have commenced an appeal in the court of the foreign state.

633.410 Limitation on filing claims against decedent's estate.

All claims against a decedent's estate, other than charges, whether due or to become due, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, founded on contract or otherwise, are forever barred against the estate, the personal representative, and the distributees of the estate, unless filed with the clerk within the later to occur of four months after the date of the second publication of the notice to creditors or, as to each claimant whose identity is reasonably ascertainable, one month after service of notice by ordinary mail to the claimant's last known address. However, notice is not required to be given by mail to any creditor whose claim will be paid or otherwise satisfied during administration and the personal representative may waive the limitation on filing provided under this section. This section does not bar claims for which there is insurance coverage, to the extent of the coverage, or claimants entitled to equitable relief due to peculiar circumstances.

89 Acts, ch 35, §6 SF 275
Section amended

633.434 Payment of debts and charges after expiration of four months' period.

The personal representative shall, as soon as practicable following appointment, make reasonably diligent efforts to ascertain the names and addresses of all persons believed to own or possess claims against a decedent's estate.

Upon the expiration of the later to occur of four months after the date of the second publication of notice to creditors or one month after the service of the notice by ordinary mail upon all claimants whose identities are reasonably ascertainable, at their last known addresses and whose claims will not or may not be paid or otherwise satisfied during administration, the personal representative shall pay the debts and charges against the estate in accordance with this code. If it appears at any time that the estate is or may be insolvent, that there are insufficient funds on hand, or that there is other good and sufficient cause, the personal representative may report that fact to the court and apply for any order that the personal representative deems necessary.

89 Acts, ch 35, §7 SF 275
Section amended

633.477 Final report.

Each personal representative shall, in the personal representative's final report, set forth:

1. An accurate description of all the real estate of which the decedent died seized, stating the nature and extent of the decedent's interest therein, which has not been sold and conveyed by the personal representative.
2. Whether the deceased died testate or intestate.
3. The name and place of residence of the surviving spouse, or that none survived the deceased.
4. In intestate estates, the name and place of residence of each of the heirs and their relationship to the deceased.
5. In testate estates, the name and place of residence of each of the devisees and their relationship to the deceased, and the name and residence of after-born children, if any, as defined in section 633.267.
6. Whether any legacy or devise remains a charge on the real estate, and, if so, the nature and amount thereof.
7. Whether any distributee is under any legal disability.

8. The name of the conservator or trustee for any distributee, and the court from which the letters were issued.

9. An accounting of all property coming into the hands of the personal representative and a detailed accounting of all cash receipts and disbursements. The accounting may be omitted if waived by all interested parties.

10. A statement as to whether or not all statutory requirements pertaining to taxes have been complied with and a statement as to whether the federal estate tax due has been paid and whether a lien continues to exist for any federal estate tax.

11. Upon the request of the personal representative, an itemization of services performed, time spent for such services, and responsibilities assumed by the personal representative's attorney for all estates of decedents dying after January 1, 1981. If the itemization is not included, there shall be set forth a statement that the personal representative was informed of the provisions of this subsection and did not request the itemization.

12. A statement as to whether all statutory requirements pertaining to claims have been complied with and a statement as to whether all claims, including charges, have been paid and whether a lien continues to exist on any property as security for any claim.

NEW subsection 12

633.557 Appointment of guardian on voluntary petition.

A guardian may also be appointed by the court upon the verified petition of the proposed ward, without further notice, if the proposed ward is other than a minor under the age of fourteen years, provided the court determines that such an appointment will inure to the best interest of the applicant. However, if an involuntary petition is pending, the court shall be governed by section 633.634. The petition shall provide the proposed ward notice of a guardian's powers as provided in section 633.562.

89 Acts, ch 178, §9 HF 585
Section amended

633.561 Representation.

1. In a proceeding for the appointment of a guardian, if the proposed ward is an adult and is not the petitioner, the proposed ward is entitled to representation. In a proceeding for the appointment of a guardian, if the proposed ward is a minor or if the proposed ward is an adult under a standby petition, the court shall determine whether, under the circumstances of the case, the proposed ward is entitled to representation. The determination regarding representation shall be made only after notice to the proposed ward is made as the court deems necessary.

2. The court shall ensure that all proposed wards entitled to representation have been provided with notice of the right to representation and right to be personally present at all proceedings and shall make findings of fact in any order of disposition setting out the manner in which notification was provided.

3. If the proposed ward is entitled to representation and is indigent or incapable of requesting counsel, the court shall appoint an attorney to represent the proposed ward. The cost of court appointed counsel for indigents shall be assessed against the county in which the proceedings are pending. For the purposes of this subsection, the court shall find a person is indigent if the person's income and resources do not exceed one hundred fifty percent of the federal poverty level or the person would be unable to pay such costs without prejudicing the person's financial ability to provide economic necessities for the person or the person's dependents.

4. An attorney appointed pursuant to this section shall:

a. Ensure that the proposed ward has been properly advised of the nature and purpose of the proceeding.

b. Ensure that the proposed ward has been properly advised of the ward's rights in a guardianship proceeding.

- c. Personally interview the proposed ward.
  - d. File a written report stating whether there is a return on file showing that proper service on the proposed ward has been made and also stating that specific compliance with paragraphs "a" through "c" has been made or stating the inability to comply by reason of the proposed ward's condition.
  - e. Represent the proposed ward.
  - f. Ensure that the guardianship procedures conform to the statutory and due process requirements of Iowa law.
5. In the event that an order of appointment is entered, the attorney appointed pursuant to this section, to the extent possible, shall:
- a. Inform the proposed ward of the effects of the order entered for appointment of guardian.
  - b. Advise the ward of the ward's rights to petition for modification or termination of the guardianship.
  - c. Advise the ward of the rights retained by the ward.
6. If the court determines that it would be in the ward's best interest to have legal representation with respect to any proceedings in a guardianship, the court may appoint an attorney to represent the ward at the expense of the ward or the ward's estate, or if the ward is indigent the cost of the court appointed attorney shall be assessed against the county in which the proceedings are pending.

89 Acts, ch 178, §10 HF 585
Subsection 2 amended

633.562 Notification of guardianship powers.

In a proceeding for the appointment of a guardian, the proposed ward shall be given written notice which advises the proposed ward that if a guardian is appointed, the guardian may, without court approval, provide for the care of the ward, manage the ward's personal property and effects, assist the ward in developing self-reliance and receiving professional care, counseling, treatment or services as needed, and ensure that the ward receives necessary emergency medical services. The notice shall also advise the proposed ward that, upon the court's approval, the guardian may change the ward's permanent residence to a more restrictive residence, and arrange for major elective surgery or any other nonemergency major medical procedure. The notice shall clearly advise the proposed ward in boldfaced type of a minimum size of ten points, of the right to counsel and the potential deprivation of the proposed ward's civil rights. In an involuntary guardianship proceeding, the notice shall be served upon the proposed ward with the notice of the filing of the petition as provided in section 633.554.

633.563 to 633.565 Reserved.

633.572 Appointment of conservator on voluntary petition.

A conservator may also be appointed by the court upon the verified petition of the proposed ward, without further notice, if the proposed ward is other than a minor under the age of fourteen years, provided the court determines that such an appointment will inure to the best interest of the applicant. However, if an involuntary petition is pending, the court shall be governed by section 633.634. The petition shall provide the proposed ward notice of a conservator's powers as provided in section 633.576.

89 Acts, ch 178, §12 HF 585
Section amended

633.575 Representation.

1. In a proceeding for the appointment of a conservator, if the proposed ward is an adult and is not the petitioner, the proposed ward is entitled to representation.

In a proceeding for the appointment of a conservator, if the proposed ward is a minor or where the proposed ward is an adult under a standby petition, the court shall determine whether, under the circumstances of the case, the proposed ward is entitled to representation. The determination regarding representation shall be made only after notice to the proposed ward is made as the court deems necessary.

2. The court shall ensure that all proposed wards entitled to representation have been provided with notice of the right to representation and right to be personally present at all proceedings and shall make findings of fact in any order of disposition setting out the manner in which notification was provided.

3. If the proposed ward is entitled to representation and is indigent or incapable of requesting counsel, the court shall appoint an attorney to represent the proposed ward. The cost of court appointed counsel for indigents shall be assessed against the county in which the proceedings are pending. For the purposes of this subsection, the court may find a person is indigent if the person's income and resources do not exceed one hundred fifty percent of the federal poverty level or the person would be unable to pay such costs without prejudicing the person's financial ability to provide economic necessities for the person or the person's dependents.

4. An attorney appointed pursuant to this section, to the extent possible, shall:

a. Ensure that the proposed ward has been properly advised of the nature of the proceeding and its purpose.

b. Ensure that the proposed ward has been properly advised of the ward's rights in a conservatorship proceeding.

c. Personally interview the proposed ward.

d. File a written report stating whether there is a return on file showing that proper service on the proposed ward has been made and also stating that specific compliance with paragraphs "a" through "c" has been made or stating the inability to comply by reason of the proposed ward's condition.

e. Represent the proposed ward.

f. Ensure that the conservatorship procedures conform to the statutory and due process requirements of Iowa law.

5. In the event that an order of appointment is entered, the attorney appointed pursuant to this section, to the extent possible, shall:

a. Inform the proposed ward of the effects of the order entered for appointment of conservator.

b. Advise the ward of the ward's rights to petition for modification or termination of conservatorship.

c. Advise the ward of the rights retained by the ward.

6. If the court determines that it would be in the ward's best interest to have legal representation with respect to any proceedings in a conservatorship, the court may appoint an attorney to represent the ward at the expense of the ward or the ward's estate, or if the ward is indigent the cost of the court appointed attorney shall be assessed against the county in which the proceedings are pending.

89 Acts, ch 178, §13 HF 585
Subsection 2 amended

633.576 Notification of conservatorship powers.

In a proceeding for the appointment of a conservator, the proposed ward shall be given written notice which advises the proposed ward that if a conservator is appointed, the conservator may, without court approval, manage the proposed ward's principal, income, and investments, sue and defend any claim by or against the ward, sell and transfer personal property, and vote at corporate meetings. The notice shall also advise the proposed ward that, upon the court's approval, the conservator may invest the ward's funds, execute leases, make payments to or for the benefit of the ward, support the ward's legal dependents, compromise or settle any claim, and do any other thing that the court determines is in the ward's best interests. The notice shall clearly advise the proposed ward, in boldfaced type of a minimum size of ten points, of the right to counsel and the potential deprivation of the proposed ward's civil rights. In an involuntary conservatorship proceeding, the notice shall be served upon the proposed ward with the notice of the filing of the petition as provided in section 633.568.

2. When the gross value of the probate and nonprobate property of a decedent subject to the jurisdiction of this state does not exceed fifteen thousand dollars in property subject to taxation under section 450.3, upon the petition of a parent or grandchild of the decedent the clerk shall issue to a resident of the state of Iowa designated by the petitioner, letters of appointment as executor or administrator for administration of a small estate if either of the following occurs:

a. The decedent dies intestate without a surviving spouse or children but with a surviving parent or parents or surviving grandchild or grandchildren.

b. The decedent dies without a surviving spouse or children and leaves a last will and testament and the only beneficiaries are a surviving parent or parents or surviving grandchild or grandchildren.

3. When the entire estate of the decedent does not exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars after deducting the debts, as defined in chapter 450, upon the petition of a person related within the fourth degree of consanguinity to the decedent, the clerk shall issue to a resident of the state of Iowa designated by the petitioner, letters of appointment as executor or administrator for administration of a small estate if either of the following occurs:

a. The decedent dies intestate without a surviving spouse, issue, or parent, but with heirs that are all within the fourth degree of consanguinity.

b. The decedent dies without a surviving spouse, issue, or parent, and leaves a last will and testament and the only beneficiaries are surviving persons related to the decedent within the fourth degree of consanguinity.

89 Acts, ch 25, §1 SF 506
Section amended

635.2 Petition requirements.

The petition for administration of a small estate must contain the following:

1. The name, domicile, and date of death of the decedent.

2. The name and address of the surviving spouse, if any, the name and address of each child of the decedent, the name and address of each parent of the decedent, if the parent is an heir or beneficiary of the decedent, and the name and address of each grandchild of the decedent if the grandchild is an heir or beneficiary of the decedent, unless none are beneficiaries under the will of the decedent, and the name and address of each relative within the fourth degree of consanguinity of the decedent who is an heir or beneficiary of the decedent, unless none are beneficiaries under the will of the decedent.

3. Whether the decedent died intestate or testate, and, if testate, the date of the will.

4. A statement that the probate and nonprobate property of the decedent subject to the jurisdiction of this state does not have an aggregate gross value of more than the amount permitted under the provisions of section 635.1.

5. The name and address of the proposed executor or administrator.

89 Acts, ch 25, §2 SF 506
Section amended

635.7 Report and inventory—excess value and termination.

The executor or administrator is required to file the report and inventory for which provision is made in section 633.361. Nothing in sections 635.1 to 635.3 shall exempt the executor or administrator from complying with the requirements of section 422.27, 450.22 or 450.58, or the clerk from complying with the requirements of section 633.481. If the inventory and report shows assets subject to the jurisdiction of this state which exceed the total gross value of the amount permitted the small estate under the applicable provision of section 635.1, the clerk shall terminate the letters issued under section 635.1 without prejudice to the rights of persons who delivered property as permitted under section 635.3. The executor or administrator shall then be required to petition for administration of the estate as provided in chapter 633.

89 Acts, ch 25, §3 SF 506
Section amended

635.8 Closing by sworn statement.

1. Unless an interested person petitions for administration of the estate on a basis other than for a small estate within four months after letters of administration for a small estate are issued, if those letters of administration are not terminated under the provisions of section 635.7, any property of the estate shall then be free of debts and charges, unless a claim has been filed as provided in section 635.13. The executor or administrator is personally liable for the payment of debts and charges against the estate to the extent the assets of the estate would be subject to the payment of those debts and charges under estate administration other than a small estate.

2. The executor or administrator shall file with the court a closing statement within six months from the date of issuance of the letters of appointment, and the closing statement shall be verified or affirmed under penalty of perjury, stating all of the following:

a. To the best knowledge of the person, the gross value of the estate subject to the jurisdiction of this state does not exceed the amount permitted the small estate under the applicable provision of section 635.1.

b. The estate has been fully administered, dispersed, and distributed to persons entitled to the estate and a description of the disbursement and distribution of the estate including an accurate description of all the real estate of which the decedent died seized, stating the nature and extent of the interest in the real estate and its disposition.

c. A copy of the closing statement has been sent to all distributees of the estate and to all known creditors and a full account in writing of the administration of the estate has been furnished to the distributees whose interests are affected.

3. If no actions or proceedings involving the estate are pending in the court sixty days after the closing statement is filed, the estate shall close and the clerk shall discharge the administrator or executor.

4. The closing statement shall include a statement as to the amount of fees paid for services rendered by the executor or administrator and the executor's or administrator's attorney in administration of the estate. The fees for the executor or administrator and the executor's or administrator's attorney shall not be in excess of the fees permitted by section 633.197.

5. A closing statement filed under this section has the same effect as final settlement of the estate under chapter 633.

89 Acts, ch 25, §4 SF 506
Section amended

635.9 Petition for administration on other basis.

At any time within four months after letters of administration are issued for a small estate, any interested person may petition for appointment of an executor or administrator for administration of the estate other than as a small estate. In that event the clerk shall notify the person holding letters of appointment for administration of a small estate by ordinary mail not less than ten days before a hearing on the petition. The notice shall be directed to the executor or administrator of the small estate at the executor's or administrator's last known address as reflected in the petition filed under section 635.2 or the report and inventory filed under section 633.361, whichever is filed later.

89 Acts, ch 25, §5 SF 506
Section amended

635.13 Notice—claims.

If a petition for administration of a small estate of a decedent is granted, the notice as provided in section 633.230 or section 633.304 shall indicate administration as a small estate. Creditors having claims against the estate must file them with the clerk within four months from the second publication of the notice. The notice has the same force and effect as in chapter 633.

89 Acts, ch 25, §6 SF 506
Section amended

635.14 Minimum time before distribution.

The executor or administrator shall not distribute property of the estate not exempt from execution, prior to four months after the issuance of the letters of appointment.

89 Acts, ch 25, §7 SF 506
Section amended

CHAPTER 645

RECOVERY OF MERCHANDISE OR DAMAGES

645.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Mercantile establishment" includes any place where merchandise is displayed, held, or offered for sale, either retail or wholesale.

2. "Merchandise" includes any object, ware, good, commodity, or other similar item displayed or offered for sale.

3. "Owner" means an owner of a mercantile establishment and includes an owner's employee acting on behalf of the owner.

89 Acts, ch 99, §1 SF 343
NEW section

645.2 Actions for merchandise or damages.

An action for recovery of merchandise or the purchase price, damages, and costs may be brought by an owner pursuant to this chapter in any court of competent jurisdiction, including a court of small claims if the claim does not exceed jurisdictional limits.

A conviction under chapter 714 is not required as a condition precedent to the maintenance of an action pursuant to this chapter.

89 Acts, ch 99, §2 SF 343
NEW section

645.3 Liability.

1. A person who knowingly and without claim of right wrongfully appropriates, takes possession of, or alters the price indicia of merchandise of a mercantile establishment without the consent of the owner and with the intent to convert the merchandise to the person's own use without having paid the full purchase price for it, is liable for:

a. The return of the merchandise or the purchase price of the merchandise, provided that the merchandise is not evidence in a criminal proceeding under chapter 714.

b. Actual damages for any decrease in value of the merchandise returned.

c. The greater of fifty dollars or actual costs, not to exceed two hundred dollars, incurred by the owner in recovering the merchandise or damages pursuant to this chapter.

2. Damages awarded under this section shall be reduced by any amount received by the owner pursuant to court ordered restitution under chapter 232A or 910.

3. The parent or parents of an unemancipated minor child under the age of eighteen years are liable for any judgment awarded against the child pursuant to subsection 1 in accordance with, and subject to the limits established in, section 613.16.

CHAPTER 654*FORECLOSURE OF REAL ESTATE MORTGAGES*654.2C Mediation notice—foreclosure on agricultural property.

Repealed July 1, 1990; 86 Acts, ch 1214, §29; 89 Acts, ch 108, §1 SF 389.

654.15 Continuance—moratorium.

1. In all actions for the foreclosure of real estate mortgages, deeds of trust of real property, and contracts for the purchase of real estate, when the owner enters an appearance and files an answer admitting some indebtedness and breach of the terms of the designated instrument, which admissions cannot be withdrawn or denied after a continuance is granted, the owner may apply for a continuance of the foreclosure action if the default or inability of the owner to pay or perform is mainly due or brought about by reason of drought, flood, heat, hail, storm, or other climatic conditions or by reason of the infestation of pests which affect the land in controversy. The application must be in writing and filed at or before final decree. Upon the filing of the application the court shall set a day for hearing on the application and provide by order for notice to be given to the plaintiff of the time fixed for the hearing. If the court finds that the application is made in good faith and is supported by competent evidence showing that default in payment or inability to pay is due to drought, flood, heat, hail, storm, or other climatic conditions or due to infestation of pests, the court may continue the foreclosure proceeding as follows:

a. If the default or breach of terms of the written instrument on which the action is based occurs on or before the first day of March of any year by reason of any of the causes specified in this subsection, causing the loss and failure of crops on the land involved in the previous year, the continuance shall end on the first day of March of the succeeding year.

b. If the default or breach of terms of the written instrument occurs after the first day of March, but during that crop year and that year's crop fails by reason of any of the causes set out in this subsection, the continuance shall end on the first day of March of the second succeeding year.

c. Only one continuance shall be granted, except upon a showing of extraordinary circumstances in which event the court may grant a second continuance for a further period as the court deems just and equitable, not to exceed one year.

d. The order shall provide for the appointment of a receiver to take charge of the property and to rent the property. The owner or person in possession shall be given preference in the occupancy of the property. The receiver, who may be the owner or person in possession, shall collect the rents and income and distribute the proceeds as follows:

(1) For the payment of the costs of receivership.

(2) For the payment of taxes due or becoming due during the period of receivership.

(3) For the payment of insurance on the buildings on the premises.

(4) The remaining balance shall be paid to the owner of the written instrument upon which the foreclosure is based, to be credited on the instrument.

An owner of a small business may apply for a continuance as provided in this subsection if the real estate subject to foreclosure is used for the small business. The court may continue the foreclosure proceeding if the court finds that the application is made in good faith and is supported by competent evidence showing that the default in payment or inability to pay is due to the economic condition of the customers of the small business, because the customers of the small business have been significantly economically distressed as a result of drought, flood, heat, hail, storm, or other climatic conditions or due to infestation of pests. The length of the continuance shall be determined by the court, but shall not exceed two years.

2. In all actions for the foreclosure of real estate mortgages, deeds of trust of real estate, and contracts for the purchase of real estate, an owner of real estate may apply for a moratorium as provided in this subsection if the governor declares a state of economic emergency. The governor shall state in the declaration the types of real estate eligible for a moratorium continuance, which may include real estate used for farming; designated types of real estate not used for farming, including real estate used for small business; or all real estate. Only property of a type specified in the declaration which is subject to a mortgage, deed of trust, or contract for purchase entered into before the date of the declaration is eligible for a moratorium. In an action for the foreclosure of a mortgage, deed of trust, or contract for purchase of real estate eligible for a moratorium, the owner may apply for a continuation of the foreclosure if the owner has entered an appearance and filed an answer admitting some indebtedness and breach of the terms of the designated instrument. The admissions cannot be withdrawn or denied after a continuance is granted. Applications for continuance made pursuant to this subsection must be filed within one year of the governor's declaration of economic emergency. Upon the filing of an application as provided in this subsection, the court shall set a date for hearing and provide by order for notice to the parties of the time for the hearing. If the court finds that the application is made in good faith and the owner is unable to pay or perform, the court may continue the foreclosure proceeding as follows:

a. If the application is made in regard to real estate used for farming, the continuance shall terminate two years from the date of the order. If the application is made in regard to real estate not used for farming, the continuance shall terminate one year from the date of the order.

b. Only one continuance shall be granted the applicant for each written instrument or contract under each declaration.

c. The court shall appoint a receiver to take charge of the property and to rent the property. The applicant shall be given preference in the occupancy of the property. The receiver, who may be the applicant, shall collect the rents and income and distribute the proceeds as follows:

(1) For the payment of the costs of receivership, including the required interest on the written instrument and the costs of operation.

(2) For the payment of taxes due or becoming due during the period of receivership.

(3) For the payment of insurance deemed necessary by the court including but not limited to insurance on the buildings on the premises and liability insurance.

(4) The remaining balance shall be paid to the owner of the written instrument upon which the foreclosure was based, to be credited against the principal due on the written instrument.

d. A continuance granted under this subsection may be terminated if the court finds, after notice and hearing, all of the following:

(1) The party seeking foreclosure has made reasonable efforts in good faith to work with the applicant to restructure the debt obligations of the applicant.

(2) The party seeking foreclosure has made reasonable efforts in good faith to work with the applicant to utilize state and federal programs designed and implemented to provide debtor relief options. For the purposes of subparagraph (1) and this subparagraph, the determination of reasonableness shall take into account the financial condition of the party seeking foreclosure, and the financial strength and the long-term financial survivorship potential of the applicant.

(3) The applicant has failed to pay interest due on the written instrument.

3. As used in this section, "small business" means the same as defined in section 220.1.

Effective March 30, 1989, and notwithstanding subsection 2, the declaration of economic emergency made by the governor on October 1, 1985, is in effect until March 30, 1990. A person eligible to file an application under subsection 2 must file for the continuance by March 30, 1990. Notwithstanding the provisions of the declaration of economic emergency made by the governor on October 1, 1985, real estate used for small business is eligible for a moratorium continuance; 89 Acts, ch 79, §1, 2 SF 174; see also 88 Acts, ch 1017, §1-3; 87 Acts, ch 81, §1; 86 Acts, ch 1216, §11, 12

CHAPTER 654A

FARM MEDIATION

Sections 654A.1 through 654A.14 repealed July 1, 1990; 86 Acts, ch 1214, §29; 89 Acts, ch 108, §1 SF 389
Legislative findings; 86 Acts, ch 1214, §1

654A.4 Applicability of chapter.

1. This chapter applies to all creditors of a borrower described under subsection 2 with a secured debt against the borrower of twenty thousand dollars or more.
2. This chapter applies to a borrower who is a natural person operating a farm or any corporation, trust, or limited partnership as defined in section 172C.1.

89 Acts, ch 108, §2 SF 389
Subsection 2 stricken and rewritten

654A.6 Mandatory mediation proceedings.

1. A creditor subject to this chapter desiring to initiate a proceeding to enforce a debt against agricultural property which is real estate under chapter 654, to forfeit a contract to purchase agricultural property under chapter 656, to enforce a secured interest in agricultural property under chapter 554, or to otherwise garnish, levy on, execute on, seize, or attach agricultural property, shall file a request for mediation with the farm mediation service. The creditor shall not begin the proceeding subject to this chapter until the creditor receives a mediation release, or until the court determines after notice and hearing that the time delay required for the mediation would cause the creditor to suffer irreparable harm. Title to land that is agricultural property is not affected by the failure of any creditor to receive a mediation release regardless of its validity. The time period for the notice of right to cure provided in section 654.2A shall run concurrently with the time period for the mediation period provided in this section and section 654A.10.

2. Upon the receipt of a request for mediation, the farm mediation service shall conduct an initial consultation with the borrower without charge. The borrower may waive mediation after the initial consultation.

3. Unless the borrower waives mediation, the borrower shall file a list containing at least the name and place of business for each creditor as defined in section 654A.1 or apply for an extension to file the list with the farm mediation service within twenty-one days of the service's receipt of a request for mediation.

89 Acts, ch 108, §3 SF 389
NEW subsection 3

654A.11 Mediation release.

1. If an agreement is reached between the borrower and the creditors, the mediator shall draft a written mediation agreement, have it signed by the creditors, and submit the agreement to the farm mediation service.

2. The borrower and the creditors who are parties to the mediation agreement may enforce the mediation agreement as a legal contract. The agreement constitutes a mediation release.

3. If the borrower waives mediation, or if a mediation agreement is not reached, the borrower and the creditors may sign a statement prepared by the mediator that mediation was waived or that the parties did not reach an agreement. If any party does not sign the statement, the mediator shall sign the statement. The statement constitutes a mediation release. Unless the borrower waives mediation, a creditor shall not receive a mediation release until the creditor has participated in at least one mediation meeting.

4. The farm mediation service shall provide by rule a procedure, consistent with chapter 17A, for review of an initial decision by a mediator relating to the issuance of a mediation release. A decision may be reviewed by the administrative head of the service or a designee. Upon final action by the service and exhaustion of administrative remedies, an action for judicial review of a decision by the service may be brought in either the district court of Polk county or in the district court in which the farmer or creditor resides.

89 Acts, ch 108, §4 SF 389
NEW subsection 4

654A.13 Confidentiality.

1. All data regarding the finances of individual borrowers and creditors which is created, collected, and maintained by the farm mediation service are not public records under chapter 22.

2. Meetings of the farm mediation service are closed meetings and are not subject to chapter 21.

3. Verbal or written information relating to the mediation process and transmitted between a party to a dispute and the farm mediation service, including a mediator or the mediation staff, or any other person present during any stage of the mediation process conducted by the service, whether reflected in notes, memoranda, or other work products in the case files, is a confidential communication. Mediators and staff members shall not be examined in any judicial or administrative proceeding regarding confidential communications and are not subject to judicial or administrative process requiring the disclosure of confidential communications.

If a governmental subdivision is a party to a dispute which has been scheduled for a mediation meeting, verbal or written information obtained by the governmental subdivision which was transmitted by the farm mediation service, including a mediator or the mediation staff, or by any other person present during any stage of the mediation process, is confidential for the purposes of chapter 22 and 5 U.S.C. §552 (1970).

This subsection does not apply to information transmitted by a party to a dispute where the farm mediation service, including a mediator or staff member, has reason to believe that the party has given perjured evidence.

89 Acts, ch 108, §5 SF 389
NEW subsection 3

654A.14 Rules and forms.

The farm mediation service shall recommend rules to the coordinator. The coordinator shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A to set the compensation of mediators and to implement this chapter. The compensation of the mediators shall be no more than twenty-five dollars per hour, and all parties shall contribute an equal amount of the cost. The coordinator shall adopt voluntary mediation application and mediation request forms.

The coordinator shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A to provide for an hourly mediation fee not to exceed twenty-five dollars per hour per party. The hourly mediation fee may be waived for any party demonstrating financial hardship upon application to the farm mediation service.

89 Acts, ch 108, §6 SF 389
NEW unnumbered paragraph 2

654A.15 Limitation on liability—immunity from special actions.

1. A member of the farm mediation staff, including a mediator, employee, or agent of the service, or member of a board for the service, is not liable for civil damages for a statement or decision made in the process of mediation unless the member acts in bad faith, with malicious purpose, or in a manner exhibiting willful and wanton disregard of human rights, safety, or property.

2. A judicial action relating to a matter which is in the mediation process, which seeks an injunction, mandamus, or similar equitable relief shall not be brought against the farm mediation service, including a mediator, employee, or agent of the service, or member of a board for the service.

CHAPTER 663A

POSTCONVICTION PROCEDURE

663A.3 How to commence proceeding—limitation.

A proceeding is commenced by filing an application verified by the applicant with the clerk of the district court in which the conviction or sentence took place. However, if the applicant is seeking relief under section 663A.2, subsection 6, the application shall be filed with the clerk of the district court of the county in which the applicant is being confined within ninety days from the date the disciplinary decision is final. All other applications must be filed within three years from the date the conviction or decision is final or, in the event of an appeal, from the date the writ of procedendo is issued. However, this limitation does not apply to a ground of fact or law that could not have been raised within the applicable time period. Facts within the personal knowledge of the applicant and the authenticity of all documents and exhibits included in or attached to the application must be sworn to affirmatively as true and correct. The supreme court may prescribe the form of the application and verification. The clerk shall docket the application upon its receipt and promptly bring it to the attention of the court and deliver a copy to the county attorney and the attorney general.

CHAPTER 682

SURETIES—FIDUCIARY FUNDS—FEDERALLY INSURED LOANS—TRUSTS

682.23 Authorized securities.

All proposed investments of trust funds by fiduciaries shall first be reported to the court or a judge for approval and be approved and unless otherwise authorized or directed by the court under authority of which the fiduciary acts, or by the will, trust agreement, or other document which is the source of authority, a trustee, executor, administrator, or guardian shall invest all moneys received by such fiduciary, to be by the fiduciary invested, in securities which at the time of the purchase thereof are included in one or more of the following classes:

1. Federal bonds. Bonds or other interest-bearing obligations of the United States for the payment of which the faith and credit of the United States is pledged.

2. Federal bank bonds. Bonds, notes or other obligations issued by any federal land bank, federal intermediate credit bank, bank for cooperatives, or any or all of the federal farm credit banks, and in bonds issued by any federal home loan bank under the Act of Congress known and cited as the federal Home Loan Bank Act, [12 USC, §1421-1449] and the Acts amendatory thereof.

3. State bonds. Bonds or other interest-bearing obligations of any state in the United States for the payment of which the faith and credit of such state is pledged and which state has not defaulted in the payment of any of its bonded debts within the ten preceding years.

4. Municipal bonds. Bonds, or other interest-bearing obligations, which are a direct obligation of a county, township, city, school district, or other municipal corporation or district, having power to levy general taxes in the state of Iowa, and also bonds or other interest-bearing obligations which are a direct obligation of a county, township, city, village, school district, or other municipal corporation or district, having power to levy general taxes in any adjoining state, and having a population of not less than five thousand. However, the total funded indebtedness of a municipality enumerated in this subsection shall not exceed ten percent of the assessed value of the taxable property in the municipality, as ascertained by the last assessment for tax purposes, and the municipality or district shall not have defaulted in the payment of any of its bonded indebtedness within the ten preceding years.

5. Real estate mortgage bonds. Notes or bonds of any individual secured by a first mortgage on improved real estate located in this state, provided the aggregate amount of such notes and/or bonds secured by such first mortgage, does not exceed fifty percent of the value of the mortgage property as determined by the fiduciary; any such loan may be made in an amount not to exceed seventy-five percentum of the appraised value of the real estate offered as security and for a term not longer than twenty years if the loan is secured by an amortized mortgage, deed of trust, or other such instrument under the terms of which the installment payments are sufficient to amortize the entire principal of the loan within the period ending on the date of its maturity.

6. Corporate mortgages. Notes or bonds of any corporation secured by a first mortgage on improved real estate located in this or any adjoining state upon which no default in payment of principal or interest shall have occurred within five preceding years provided the aggregate amount of such notes and/or bonds secured by such first mortgage does not exceed fifty percent of the value of the mortgage property as determined by the fiduciary.

7. Railroad bonds. Bonds of any railroad corporation which are secured by a first lien mortgage or trust deed upon not less than one hundred miles of main track in the United States and which mortgage or trust deed has been outstanding not less than fifteen years and upon which bonds issued thereunder there has been no default in the payment of principal and/or interest since the date of said such trust deed.

8. Bonds guaranteed by railroad. Bonds of any corporation secured by a first lien upon any railroad terminal depot, tunnel, or bridge in the United States used by two or more railroad companies which have guaranteed the payment of principal and interest of such bonds and have otherwise covenanted or agreed to pay the same, provided at least one of said railroad companies meets the following requirements:

a. Has earned net income equal to at least four percent of the par value of its outstanding capital stock for five preceding years, and

b. Has regularly and punctually paid interest and maturing principal on all of its mortgage indebtedness for five preceding years.

c. Has outstanding capital stock of the par value of at least one-third of its total mortgage indebtedness.

9. Public utility bonds. Bonds of any corporation supplying either water, electric energy, or artificial manufactured gas or two or more thereof for light, heat, power, water, or other purposes, or furnishing telephone or telegraph service, provided that such bonds are secured by a first mortgage on all property used in the business of the issuing corporation or by a first and refunding mortgage containing provision for retiring all prior liens, and provided further, that the issuing corporation is incorporated within the United States, and if operating entirely outside this state is operating in a state or other jurisdiction having a public utilities commission with regulatory powers, and providing such operating corporation has annual gross earnings of at least one million dollars, seventy-five percent of which gross earnings have come from the sale of water, gas, or electricity, or the rendering of telephone or telegraph service and not more than fifteen percent from any other one kind of business and which corporation has a record on its behalf or for its predecessors or constituent companies, of having officially reported net earnings at least twice its interest charges on all mortgage indebtedness for the period of five years immediately preceding the investment and having outstanding stock the book value of which is not less than two-thirds of its total funded debt, and which corporation shall have all franchises to operate in the territory it serves in which at least seventy-five percent of its gross income is earned, which franchise shall extend at least five years beyond the maturity of such bonds or which have indeterminate permits or agreements with duly constituted public authorities, or in the bonds of any constituent or subsidiary company of any such operating company which are secured by a first mortgage on all property of such constituent or subsidiary company, provided such bonds are to be retired or refunded by a junior mortgage, the bonds of which are eligible hereunder.

10. Building and loan associations. Shares of building and loan associations and savings and loan associations, incorporated under the laws of Iowa and in shares of federal savings and loan associations organized under the laws of the United States of America.

11. Bonds and debentures guaranteed by the federal government. Bonds, debentures, or other interest-bearing obligations, the payment of which is guaranteed by the United States of America.

12. Stock in federal government instrumentalities. Stock in any association or corporation created or which may be created by authority of the United States and as an instrumentality of the United States, when the purchase of said stock is necessary or required as an incident or condition of obtaining a loan from any association or corporation created or which may be created by authority of the United States and as an instrumentality of the United States.

13. Life, endowment or annuity contracts of legal reserve life insurance companies authorized to do business in Iowa. The purchase of contracts authorized by this subsection shall be limited to executors or the successors to their powers when specifically authorized by will, and to guardians and trustees, in an amount not to exceed twenty-five percent of the value of the ward's property in possession of the fiduciary. Such contract may be issued on the life or lives of a ward or wards or beneficiary or beneficiaries of a trust fund created by will or trust agreement, or upon the life or lives of persons in whose life or lives such ward or beneficiary has an insurable interest. The proceeds or avails of such contract shall be the sole property of the person or persons whose funds are invested therein.

14. Limitation as to court-approved investments. This section does not prohibit investment of such funds in a savings account or time certificate of deposit of a bank or savings and loan association, located within the city or its county of this state and when first approved by the court. However, a city that is the trustee of a cemetery as provided in section 566.14 may invest perpetual care funds in a savings account or certificates of deposit at a bank or savings and loan association, located in this state without court approval.

15. When court approval not required. Nothing in this section contained shall be construed as modifying the probate code nor be construed as requiring investments of trust funds by fiduciaries to be reported to any court or judge for approval where the trust agreement or other document under which the fiduciary is acting is not being administered under the jurisdiction of any court or by its terms specifically exempts the fiduciary from reporting any such investments for approval.

16. Investments included—government obligations. Federal bonds, federal bank bonds, and bonds and debentures guaranteed by the federal government which are authorized investments under subsections 1, 2, and 11 include investments in an investment company or investment trust registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, 15 U.S.C. §80a, the portfolio of which is limited to the United States government obligations described in subsections 1, 2, and 11 and to repurchase agreements fully collateralized by such United States government obligations, if the investment company or investment trust takes delivery of the collateral either directly or through an authorized custodian.

CHAPTER 692

CRIMINAL HISTORY AND INTELLIGENCE DATA

692.2 Dissemination of criminal history data—fees.

1. Except in cases in which members of the department are participating in an investigation or arrest, the department and bureau may provide copies or communicate information from criminal history data only to the following:

- a. Criminal justice agencies.
- b. Other public agencies as authorized by the commissioner of public safety.
- c. The department of human services for the purposes of section 232.71, subsection 16, section 237.8, subsection 2, section 237A.5, and section 600.8, subsections 1 and 2.

- d. The state racing commission for the purposes of section 99D.8A.
- e. The state lottery division for purposes of section 99E.9, subsection 2.
- f. The Iowa department of public health for the purposes of screening employees and applicants for employment in substance abuse treatment programs which admit juveniles and are licensed under chapter 125.
- g. Licensed private child-caring and child-placing agencies and certified adoption investigators for the purpose of section 237.8, subsection 2, and section 600.8, subsections 1 and 2.
- h. A psychiatric medical institution for children licensed under chapter 135H for the purposes of section 237.8, subsection 2 and section 600.8, subsections 1 and 2.

2. The bureau shall maintain a list showing the individual or agency to whom the data is disseminated and the date of dissemination.

3. Persons authorized to receive information under subsection 1 shall request and may receive criminal history data only when both of the following apply:

a. The data is for official purposes in connection with prescribed duties or required pursuant to section 237.8, subsection 2 or section 237A.5.

b. The request for data is based upon name, fingerprints, or other individual identifying characteristics.

4. The provisions of this section and section 692.3 which relate to the requiring of an individually identified request prior to the dissemination or redissemination of criminal history data do not apply to the furnishing of criminal history data to the federal bureau of investigation or to the dissemination or redissemination of information that an arrest warrant has been or will be issued, and other relevant information including but not limited to, the offense and the date and place of alleged commission, individually identifying characteristics of the person to be arrested, and the court or jurisdiction issuing the warrant.

5. Notwithstanding other provisions of this section, the department and bureau may provide copies or communicate information from criminal history data to any youth service agency approved by the commissioner of public safety. The department shall adopt rules to provide for the qualification and approval of youth service agencies to receive criminal history data.

The criminal history data to be provided by the department and bureau to authorized youth service agencies shall be limited to information on applicants for paid or voluntary positions, where those positions would place the applicant in direct contact with children.

6. The department may charge a fee to any nonlaw-enforcement agency to conduct criminal history record checks and otherwise administer this section and other sections of the Code providing access to criminal history records. The fee shall be set by the commissioner of public safety equal to the cost incurred not to exceed twenty dollars for each individual check requested. Notwithstanding any other limitation, the department is authorized to use revenues generated from the fee to employ clerical personnel to process criminal history checks for nonlaw-enforcement purposes.

In cases in which members of the department are participating in the investigation or arrest, or where officers of other criminal justice agencies participating in the investigation or arrest consent, the department may disseminate criminal history data and intelligence data when the dissemination complies with section 692.3.

CHAPTER 702

DEFINITIONS

702.11 Forcible felony.

A "forcible felony" is any felonious child endangerment, assault, murder, sexual abuse other than sexual abuse in the third degree committed between spouses or in violation of section 709.4, subsection 2, paragraph "c", subparagraph (4), kidnapping, robbery, arson in the first degree, or burglary in the first degree.

CHAPTER 707

HOMICIDE

707.6A Homicide by vehicle.

1. A person commits a class "D" felony when the person unintentionally causes the death of another by either of the following means:

a. Operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or a drug or a combination of such substances or while having an alcohol concentration of .10 or more, in violation of section 321J.2. Upon a plea or verdict of guilty of a violation of this paragraph, the court shall order the state department of transportation to revoke the defendant's motor vehicle license or nonresident operating privileges for a period of six years. The defendant shall surrender to the court any Iowa license or permit and the court shall forward it to the department with a copy of the revocation order.

b. Driving a motor vehicle in a reckless manner with willful or wanton disregard for the safety of persons or property, in violation of section 321.277.

2. A person commits an aggravated misdemeanor when the person unintentionally causes the death of another by operating a motor vehicle in any of the following manners:

a. Drag racing, in violation of section 321.278.

b. Eluding or attempting to elude a pursuing law enforcement vehicle, in violation of section 321.279.

3. As used in this section, "motor vehicle" includes any vehicle defined as a motor vehicle in section 321.1.

CHAPTER 708

ASSAULT

708.7 Harassment.

1. A person commits harassment when, with intent to intimidate, annoy or alarm another person, the person does any of the following:

a. Communicates with another by telephone, telegraph, or writing without legitimate purpose and in a manner likely to cause the other person annoyance or harm.

b. Places a simulated explosive or simulated incendiary device in or near a building, vehicle, airplane, railroad engine or railroad car, or boat occupied by another person.

c. Orders merchandise or services in the name of another, or to be delivered to another, without the other person's knowledge or consent.

d. Reports or causes to be reported false information to a law enforcement authority implicating another in some criminal activity, knowing that the information is false, or reports the alleged occurrence of a criminal act, knowing the act did not occur.

2. A person commits harassment in the first degree when the person commits harassment involving a threat to commit a forcible felony, or commits harassment and has previously been convicted of harassment three or more times under this section or any similar statute during the preceding ten years.

Harassment in the first degree is an aggravated misdemeanor.

3. A person commits harassment in the second degree when the person commits harassment involving a threat to commit bodily injury, or commits harassment and has previously been convicted of harassment two times under this section or any similar statute during the preceding ten years.

Harassment in the second degree is a serious misdemeanor.

4. Any other act of harassment is harassment in the third degree. Harassment in the third degree is a simple misdemeanor.

Section amended

708.10 Hazing.

1. a. A person commits an act of hazing when the person intentionally or recklessly engages in any act or acts involving forced activity which endanger the physical health or safety of a student for the purpose of initiation or admission into, or affiliation with, any organization operating in connection with a school, college, or university. Prohibited acts include, but are not limited to, any brutality of a physical nature such as whipping, forced confinement, or any other forced activity which endangers the physical health or safety of the student.

b. For purposes of this section, "forced activity" means any activity which is a condition of initiation or admission into, or affiliation with, an organization, regardless of a student's willingness to participate in the activity.

2. A person who commits an act of hazing is guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

3. A person who commits an act of hazing which causes serious bodily injury to another is guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 709

SEXUAL ABUSE

709.4 Sexual abuse in the third degree.

A person commits sexual abuse in the third degree when the person performs a sex act under any of the following circumstances:

1. The act is done by force or against the will of the other participant, whether or not the other participant is the person's spouse or is cohabiting with the person.

2. The act is between persons who are not at the time cohabiting as husband and wife and if any of the following are true:

a. The other participant is suffering from a mental defect or incapacity which precludes giving consent.

b. The other participant is twelve or thirteen years of age.

c. The other participant is fourteen or fifteen years of age and any of the following are true:

(1) The person is a member of the same household as the other participant.

(2) The person is related to the other participant by blood or affinity to the fourth degree.

(3) The person is in a position of authority over the other participant and uses that authority to coerce the other participant to submit.

(4) The person is six or more years older than the other participant.

Sexual abuse in the third degree is a class "C" felony.

CHAPTER 710

KIDNAPPING AND RELATED OFFENSES

710.11 Purchase or sale of individual.

A person commits a class "C" felony when the person purchases or sells or attempts to purchase or sell an individual to another person. This section does not apply to a surrogate mother arrangement. For purposes of this section, a "surrogate mother arrangement" means an arrangement whereby a female agrees to be artificially inseminated with the semen of a donor, to bear a child, and to relinquish all rights regarding that child to the donor or donor couple.

89 Acts, ch 116, §1 HF 628
NEW section

CHAPTER 714

THEFT, FRAUD, AND RELATED OFFENSES

714.1 Theft defined.

A person commits theft when the person does any of the following:

1. Takes possession or control of the property of another, or property in the possession of another, with the intent to deprive the other thereof.

2. Misappropriates property which the person has in trust, or property of another which the person has in the person's possession or control, whether such possession or control is lawful or unlawful, by using or disposing of it in a manner which is inconsistent with or a denial of the trust or of the owner's rights in such property, or conceals found property, or appropriates such property to the person's own use, when the owner of such property is known to the person. Failure by a bailee or lessee of personal property to return the property within seventy-two hours after a time specified in a written agreement of lease or bailment shall be evidence of misappropriation.

3. Obtains the labor or services of another, or a transfer of possession, control, or ownership of the property of another, or the beneficial use of property of another, by deception. Where compensation for goods and services is ordinarily paid immediately upon the obtaining of such goods or the rendering of such services, the refusal to pay or leaving the premises without payment or offer to pay or without having obtained from the owner or operator the right to pay subsequent to leaving the premises gives rise to an inference that the goods or services were obtained by deception.

4. Exercises control over stolen property, knowing such property to have been stolen, or having reasonable cause to believe that such property has been stolen, unless the person's purpose is to promptly restore it to the owner or to deliver it to an appropriate public officer. The fact that the person is found in possession of property which has been stolen from two or more persons on separate occasions, or that the person is a dealer or other person familiar with the value of such property and has acquired it for a consideration which is far below its reasonable value, shall be evidence from which the court or jury may infer that the person knew or believed that the property had been stolen.

5. Takes, destroys, conceals or disposes of property in which someone else has a security interest, with intent to defraud the secured party.

6. Makes, utters, draws, delivers, or gives any check, share draft, draft, or written order on any bank, credit union, person or corporation, and obtains property or service in exchange therefor, if the person knows that such check, share draft, draft or written order will not be paid when presented.

Whenever the drawee of such instrument has refused payment because of insufficient funds, and the maker has not paid the holder of the instrument the amount due thereon within ten days of the maker's receipt of notice from the holder that payment has been refused by the drawee, the court or jury may infer from such facts that the maker knew that the instrument would not be paid on presentation. Notice of refusal of payment shall be by certified mail, or by personal service in the manner prescribed for serving original notices.

Whenever the drawee of such instrument has refused payment because the maker has no account with the drawee, the court or jury may infer from such fact that the maker knew that the instrument would not be paid on presentation.

7. Obtains gas, electricity or water from a public utility or obtains cable television or telephone service from an unauthorized connection to the supply or service line or by intentionally altering, adjusting, removing or tampering with the metering or service device so as to cause inaccurate readings.

8. Any act that is declared to be theft by any provision of the Code.

89 Acts, ch 170, §1 HF 513
Subsection 7 amended

714.7A Veterans' grave markers.

A person commits a simple misdemeanor when the person takes possession or control of a veteran's grave marker which was provided pursuant to section 250.16, with the intention to deprive the owner of the marker, regardless of the value of the marker. The person shall also be liable for restitution in an amount equal to three times the cost of the marker to be paid to the county commission of veteran affairs or other person who furnished the marker.

89 Acts, ch 47, §1 SF 360

714.16 Consumer frauds.

1. Definitions:

a. The term "advertisement" includes the attempt by publication, dissemination, solicitation or circulation to induce directly or indirectly any person to enter into any obligation or acquire any title or interest in any merchandise;

b. The term "merchandise" includes any objects, wares, goods, commodities, intangibles, securities, bonds, debentures, stocks, real estate or services;

c. The term "person" includes any natural person or the person's legal representative, partnership, corporation (domestic and foreign), company, trust, business entity or association, and any agent, employee, salesperson, partner, officer, director, member, stockholder, associate, trustee or cestui que trust thereof;

d. The term "sale" includes any sale, offer for sale, or attempt to sell any merchandise for cash or on credit;

e. The term "subdivided lands" refers to improved or unimproved land or lands divided or proposed to be divided for the purpose of sale or lease, whether immediate or future, into five or more lots or parcels; provided, however, it does not apply to the leasing of apartments, offices, stores or similar space within an apartment building, industrial building or commercial building unless an undivided interest in the land is granted as a condition precedent to occupying space in said structure.

f. "Unfair practice" means an act or practice which causes substantial, unavoidable injury to consumers that is not outweighed by any consumer or competitive benefits which the practice produces.

g. "Deception" means an act or practice which has the tendency or capacity to mislead a substantial number of consumers as to a material fact or facts.

h. "Water treatment system" means a device or assembly for which a claim is made that it will improve the quality of drinking water by reducing one or more contaminants through mechanical, physical, chemical, or biological processes or combinations of the processes. As used in this paragraph and in subsection 2, paragraph "h", each model of a water treatment system shall be deemed a distinct water treatment system.

i. "Contaminant" means any particulate, chemical, microbiological, or radiological substance in water which has a potentially adverse health effect and for which a maximum contaminant level (MCL) has been specified in the national primary drinking water regulations.

j. "Label", as used in subsection 2, paragraph "h", means the written, printed, or graphic matter permanently affixed or attached to or printed on the water treatment system.

k. "Manufacturer's performance data sheet" means a booklet, document, or other printed material containing, at a minimum, the information required pursuant to section 714.16, subsection 2, paragraph "h".

l. "Seller", as used in subsection 2, paragraph "h", means the person offering the water treatment system for sale, lease, or rent.

m. "Buyer", as used in subsection 2, paragraph "h", means the person to whom the water system is being sold, leased, or rented.

n. "Consummation of sale" means completion of the act of selling, leasing, or renting.

a. "Consumer information pamphlet" means a publication which explains water quality, health effects, quality expectations for drinking water, and the effectiveness of water treatment systems.

2. a. The act, use or employment by a person of an unfair practice, deception, fraud, false pretense, false promise, or misrepresentation, or the concealment, suppression, or omission of a material fact with intent that others rely upon the concealment, suppression, or omission, in connection with the lease, sale, or advertisement of any merchandise or the solicitation of contributions for charitable purposes, whether or not a person has in fact been misled, deceived, or damaged, is an unlawful practice.

It is deceptive advertising within the meaning of this section for a person to represent in connection with the lease, sale, or advertisement of any merchandise that the advertised merchandise has certain performance characteristics, accessories, uses, or benefits or that certain services are performed on behalf of clients or customers of that person if, at the time of the representation, no reasonable basis for the claim existed. The burden is on the person making the representation to demonstrate that a reasonable basis for the claim existed.

A retailer who uses advertising for a product, other than a drug or other product claiming to have a health related benefit or use, prepared by a supplier shall not be liable under this section unless the retailer participated in the preparation of the advertisement; knew or should have known that the advertisement was deceptive, false, or misleading; refused to withdraw the product from sales upon the request of the attorney general pending a determination of whether the advertisement was deceptive, false, or misleading; refused upon the request of the attorney general to provide the name and address of the supplier; or refused to cooperate with the attorney general in an action brought against the supplier under this section.

"Material fact" as used in this subsection does not include repairs of damage to or adjustments on or replacements of parts with new parts of otherwise new merchandise if the repairs, adjustments or replacements are made to achieve compliance with factory specifications and are made before sale of the merchandise at retail and the actual cost of any labor and parts charged to or performed by a retailer for any such repairs, adjustments and parts does not exceed three hundred dollars or ten percent of the actual cost to a retailer including freight of the merchandise, whichever is less, providing that the seller posts in a conspicuous place notice that repairs, adjustments or replacements will be disclosed upon request. The exemption provided in this paragraph does not apply to the concealment, suppression or omission of a material fact if the purchaser requests disclosure of any repair, adjustment or replacement.

b. The advertisement for sale, lease or rent, or the actual sale, lease, or rental of any merchandise at a price or with a rebate or payment or other consideration to the purchaser which is contingent upon the procurement of prospective customers provided by the purchaser, or the procurement of sales, leases, or rentals to persons suggested by the purchaser, is declared to be an unlawful practice rendering any obligation incurred by the buyer in connection therewith, completely void and a nullity. The rights and obligations of any contract relating to such contingent price, rebate, or payment shall be interdependent and inseparable from the rights and obligations relating to the sale, lease, or rental.

c. It is an unlawful practice for any person to advertise the sale of merchandise at reduced rates due to the cessation of business operations and after the date of the first such advertisement remain in business under the same or substantially the same ownership, or under the same or substantially the same trade name, or to continue to offer for sale the same type of merchandise at the same location for more than one hundred twenty days. As used in this paragraph "person" includes a person who acquires an ownership interest in the business either within sixty days before the initial advertisement of the sale or at any time after the initial advertisement of the sale. In addition, a person acquiring an ownership interest shall comply with paragraph "g" if the person adds additional merchandise to the sale.

d. (1) No person shall offer or advertise within this state for sale or lease, any subdivided lands without first filing with the real estate commission, true and accurate copies of all road plans, plats, field notes and diagrams of water, sewage and electric power lines as they exist at the time of such filing, provided such filing shall not be required for a subdivision subject to section 306.21 or chapter 409. Each such filing shall be accompanied by a fee of fifty dollars for each subdivision included, payable to the real estate commission.

(2) False or misleading statements filed pursuant to subparagraph 1 of paragraph "d" of this subsection or section 306.21 or chapter 409, and advertising, offers to sell, or contracts not in substantial conformity with the filings made pursuant to section 306.21 or chapter 409 are unlawful.

e. Any violations of chapter 123 or any other provisions of law by a manufacturer, distiller, vintner, importer, or any other person participating in the distribution of alcoholic liquor or beer as defined in chapter 123.

f. A violation of a provision of sections 535C.1 through 535C.10 is an unlawful practice.

g. It is an unlawful practice for a person to acquire directly or indirectly an interest in a business which has either gone out of business or is going out of business and conduct or continue a going-out-of-business sale where additional merchandise has been added to the merchandise of the liquidating business for the purposes of the sale, unless the person provides a clear and conspicuous notice in all advertisements that merchandise has been added. The advertisement shall also state the customary retail price of the merchandise that has been added or brought in for the sale. The person acquiring the interest shall obtain a permit to hold the sale before commencing the sale. If the sale is to be held in a city which has an ordinance regulating going-out-of-business sales, then the permit shall be obtained from the city. If the sale is to be located outside of a city or in a city which does not have an ordinance regulating going-out-of-business sales, then the permit shall be obtained from the county in which the proposed sale is to be held. The county board of supervisors shall prescribe the procedures necessary to obtain the permit. The permit shall state the percentage of merchandise for sale that was obtained from the liquidating business and the percentage of merchandise for sale that was added from other sources. The permit or an accurate reproduction of the permit shall be clearly and conspicuously posted at all entrances to the site of the sale and at all locations where sales are consummated. A person who violates this paragraph, including any misrepresentation of the presence and the percentage of additional merchandise that had been added to that of the liquidating company, is liable for a civil penalty of not to exceed one thousand dollars for each day of each violation. The civil penalties collected shall be deposited in the general fund of the political entity which prosecutes the violation. The civil penalty is in addition to and not in lieu of any criminal penalty. A political entity enforcing this paragraph may obtain a preliminary injunction without posting a bond to enjoin a violation of paragraph "c" and this paragraph pending a hearing.

This paragraph does not prohibit a city or county from adopting an ordinance prohibiting the conducting of a going-out-of-business sale in which additional merchandise is added to the merchandise of the liquidating business for the purposes of the sale.

h. It is an unlawful practice for a person to sell, lease, rent, or advertise the sale, lease, or rental of a water treatment system in this state, for which claims or representations of removing health-related contaminants are made, unless the water treatment system:

(1) Has been performance tested by a third-party testing agency that has been authorized by the Iowa department of public health. Alternatively, in lieu of third-party performance testing of the manufacturer's water treatment system, the manufacturer may rely upon the manufacturer's own test data after approval of the data by an accepted third-party evaluator as provided in this subparagraph. The Iowa department of public health shall review the qualifications of a third-party evaluator proposed by the manufacturer. The department may accept or reject a proposed third-party evaluator based upon the required review. If a third-party evaluator, accepted by the Iowa department of public health, finds that the manufacturer's test data is reliable, adequate, and fairly presented, the manufacturer may rely upon that data to satisfy the requirements of this subparagraph after filing a copy of the test data and the report of the third-party evaluator with the Iowa department of public health. The testing agency shall use, or the evaluator shall review for the use of, approved methods of performance testing determined to be appropriate by the state hygienic laboratory.

(2) Has met the performance testing requirements specified in the testing protocol.

(3) Bears a conspicuous and legible label stating, "IMPORTANT NOTICE - Read the Manufacturer's Performance Data Sheet" and is accompanied by a manufacturer's performance data sheet.

The manufacturer's performance data sheet shall be given to the buyer and shall be signed and dated by the buyer and the seller prior to the consummation of the sale of the water treatment system. The manufacturer's performance data sheet shall contain information including, but not limited to:

(a) The name, address, and telephone number of the seller.

(b) The name, brand, or trademark under which the unit is sold, and its model number.

(c) Performance and test data including, but not limited to, the list of contaminants certified to be reduced by the water treatment system; the test influent concentration level of each contaminant or surrogate for that contaminant; the percentage reduction or effluent concentration of each contaminant or surrogate; where applicable, the maximum contaminant level (MCL) specified in the national primary drinking water regulations; where applicable, the approximate capacity in gallons; where applicable, the period of time during which the unit is effective in reducing contaminants based upon the contaminant or surrogate influent concentrations used for the performance tests; where applicable, the flow rate, pressure, and operational temperature of the water during the performance tests.

(d) Installation instructions.

(e) The recommended operational procedures and requirements necessary for the proper operation of the unit including, but not limited to, electrical requirements; maximum and minimum pressure; flow rate; temperature limitations; maintenance requirements; and where applicable, replacement frequencies.

(f) The seller's limited warranty.

(4) Is accompanied by the consumer information pamphlet compiled by the Iowa department of public health.

The consumer information pamphlet provided to the buyer of a water treatment system shall be compiled by the Iowa department of public health, reviewed annually, and updated as necessary. The consumer information pamphlet shall be distributed to persons selling water treatment systems and the costs of the consumer information pamphlet shall be borne by persons selling water treatment systems. The Iowa department of public health shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A and charge all fees necessary to administer this section.

i. It is an unlawful practice for a person to sell, lease, rent, or advertise the sale, lease, or rental of a water treatment system in this state for which false or deceptive claims or representations of removing health-related contaminants are made.

j. It is an unlawful practice for a person to make any representation or claim that the seller's water treatment system has been approved or endorsed by any agency of the state.

3. When it appears to the attorney general that a person has engaged in, is engaging in, or is about to engage in any practice declared to be unlawful by this section or when the attorney general believes it to be in the public interest that an investigation should be made to ascertain whether a person in fact has engaged in, is engaging in or is about to engage in, any such practice, the attorney general may:

a. Require such person to file on such forms as the attorney general may prescribe a statement or report in writing under oath or otherwise, as to all the facts and circumstances concerning the sale or advertisement of merchandise by such person, and such other data and information as the attorney general may deem necessary;

b. Examine under oath any person in connection with the sale or advertisement of any merchandise;

c. Examine any merchandise or sample thereof, record, book, document, account or paper as the attorney general may deem necessary; and

d. Pursuant to an order of a district court impound any record, book, document, account, paper, or sample of merchandise that is produced in accordance with this section, and retain the same in the attorney general's possession until the completion of all proceedings in connection with which the same are produced.

4. a. To accomplish the objectives and to carry out the duties prescribed by this section, the attorney general, in addition to other powers conferred upon the attorney general by this section, may issue subpoenas to any person, administer an oath or affirmation to any person, conduct hearings in aid of any investigation or inquiry, prescribe such forms and promulgate such rules as may be necessary, which rules shall have the force of law.

b. No information or evidence provided the attorney general by a person pursuant to subsections 3 and 4 of this section shall be admitted in evidence, or used in any manner whatsoever, in any criminal prosecution. If a criminal prosecution under the provisions of this section is initiated in a state court against a person who has provided information pursuant to subsections 3 and 4 of this section, the state shall have the burden of proof that the information so provided was not used in any manner to further the criminal investigation or prosecution.

c. In any civil action brought pursuant to this chapter, the attorney general shall have the right to require any defendant to give testimony, and no criminal prosecution based upon transactions or acts about which the defendant is questioned and required to give testimony shall thereafter be brought against such defendant.

5. Service by the attorney general of any notice requiring a person to file a statement or report, or of a subpoena upon any person, shall be made personally within this state, but if such cannot be obtained, substituted service therefor may be made in the following manner:

a. Personal service thereof without this state; or

b. The mailing thereof by registered mail to the last known place of business, residence or abode within or without this state of such person for whom the same is intended; or

c. As to any person other than a natural person, in the manner provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure as if a petition had been filed; or

d. Such service as a district court may direct in lieu of personal service within this state.

6. If any person fails or refuses to file any statement or report, or obey any subpoena issued by the attorney general, the attorney general may, after notice, apply to a district court and, after hearing thereof, request an order:

a. Granting injunctive relief, restraining the sale or advertisement of any merchandise by such persons;

b. Dissolving a corporation created by or under the laws of this state or revoking or suspending the certificate of authority to do business in this state of a foreign corporation or revoking or suspending any other licenses, permits or certificates issued pursuant to law to such person which are used to further the allegedly unlawful practice; and

c. Granting such other relief as may be required; until the person files the statement or report, or obeys the subpoena.

7. A civil action pursuant to this section shall be by equitable proceedings. If it appears to the attorney general that a person has engaged in, is engaging in, or is about to engage in a practice declared to be unlawful by this section, the attorney general may seek and obtain in an action in a district court a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction prohibiting the person from continuing the practice or engaging in the practice or doing an act in furtherance of the practice. The court may make orders or judgments as necessary to prevent the use or employment by a person of any prohibited practices, or which are necessary to restore to any person in interest any moneys or property, real or personal, which have been acquired by means of a practice declared to be unlawful by this section, including the appointment of a receiver in cases of substantial and willful violation of this section. Except in an action for the concealment, suppression, or omission of a material fact with intent that others rely upon it, it is not necessary in an action for restitution or an injunction, to allege or to prove reliance, damages, intent to deceive, or that the person who engaged in an unlawful act had knowledge of the falsity of the claim or ignorance of the truth. A claim for restitution may be proved by any competent evidence, including evidence that would be appropriate in a class action.

In addition to the remedies otherwise provided for in this subsection, the attorney general may request and the court may impose a civil penalty not to exceed forty thousand dollars per violation against a person found by the court to have engaged in a method, act, or practice declared unlawful under this section; provided, however, a course of conduct shall not be considered to be separate and different violations merely because the conduct is repeated to more than one person. In addition, on the motion of the attorney general or its own motion, the court may impose a civil penalty of not more than five thousand dollars for each day of intentional violation of a temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, or permanent injunction issued under authority of this section. A penalty imposed pursuant to this subsection is in addition to any penalty imposed pursuant to section 537.6113. Civil penalties ordered pursuant to this subsection shall be paid to the treasurer of state to be deposited in the general fund of the state.

8. When a receiver is appointed by the court pursuant to this section, the receiver shall have the power to sue for, collect, receive and take into possession all the goods and chattels, rights and credits, moneys and effects, lands and tenements, books, records, documents, papers, choses in action, bills, notes and property of every description, derived by means of any practice declared to be illegal and prohibited by this section, including property with which such property has been mingled if it cannot be identified in kind because of such commingling, and to sell, convey, and assign the same and hold and dispose of the proceeds thereof under the direction of the court. Any person who has suffered damages as a result of the use or employment of any unlawful practices and submits proof to the satisfaction of the court that the person has in fact been damaged, may participate with general creditors in the distribution of the assets to the extent the person has sustained out-of-pocket losses. In the case of a partnership or business entity, the receiver shall settle the estate and distribute the assets under the direction of the court. The court shall have jurisdiction of all questions arising in such proceedings and may make such orders and judgments therein as may be required.

9. Subject to an order of the court terminating the business affairs of any person after receivership proceedings held pursuant to this section, the provisions of this section shall not bar any claim against any person who has acquired any moneys or property, real or personal, by means of any practice herein declared to be unlawful.

10. A civil action pursuant to this section may be commenced in the county in which the person against whom it is brought resides, has a principal place of business, or is doing business, or in the county where the transaction or any substantial portion of the transaction occurred, or where one or more of the victims reside.

11. In an action brought under this section, the attorney general is entitled to recover costs of the court action and any investigation which may have been conducted, including reasonable attorneys' fees, for the use of this state.

12. If any provision of this section or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions of applications of the section which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this section are severable.

13. The attorney general or the designee of the attorney general is deemed to be a regulatory agency under chapter 692 for the purpose of receiving criminal intelligence data relating to violations of this section.

14. This section does not apply to the newspaper, magazine, publication, or other print media in which the advertisement appears, or to the radio station, television station, or other electronic media which disseminates the advertisement if the newspaper, magazine, publication, radio station, television station, or other print or electronic media has no knowledge of the fraudulent intent, design, or purpose of the advertiser at the time the advertisement is accepted; and provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall apply to any advertisement which complies with the rules and regulations of, and the statutes administered by the federal trade commission.

714.18 Bond filed.

Every person, firm, association, or corporation maintaining or conducting in Iowa any such course of instruction, by classroom instruction or by correspondence, or soliciting in Iowa the sale of such course, shall file with the director of the department of education:

1. A continuous corporate surety bond to the state of Iowa in the sum of fifty thousand dollars or ten percent of the total annual tuition collected, whichever is less, conditioned for the faithful performance of all contracts and agreements with students made by such person, firm, association, or corporation, or their salespersons. A person, firm, association, or corporation desiring to file a surety bond based on a percentage of annual tuition shall provide to the director of the department of education, in the form prescribed by the director, a notarized statement attesting to the total amount of tuition collected in the preceding twelve-month period. The director shall determine the sufficiency of the statement and the amount of the bond. Tuition information submitted pursuant to this subsection shall be kept confidential.

If the person, firm, association, or corporation has filed a performance bond with an agency of the United States government pursuant to federal law, the director of the department of education shall reduce the bond required by this subsection by an amount equal to the amount of the federal bond.

The aggregate liability of the surety for all breaches of the conditions of the bond shall not exceed the sum of the bond. The surety on the bond may cancel the bond upon giving thirty days' written notice to the director of the department of education and thereafter shall be relieved of liability for any breach of condition occurring after the effective date of the cancellation.

The director of the department of education may accept a letter of credit from a bank in lieu of the corporate surety bond required by this subsection.

2. A statement designating a resident agent for the purpose of receiving service in civil actions. In the absence of such designation, service may be had upon the director of the department of education if service cannot otherwise be made in this state.

3. A copy of any catalog, prospectus, brochure, or other advertising material intended for distribution in Iowa. Such material shall state the cost of the course offered, the schedule of refunds for portions of the course not completed, and if no refunds are to be paid, the material shall so state. Any contract induced by advertising materials not previously filed as provided in this chapter shall be voidable on the part of the pupil or any person liable for the tuition provided for in the contract.

714.19 Nonapplicability.

None of the provisions of sections 714.17 to 714.22 shall apply to the following:

1. Colleges or universities authorized by the laws of Iowa or any other state or foreign country to grant degrees.
2. Schools of nursing accredited by the board of nurse examiners or an equivalent public board of another state or foreign country.
3. Public schools.
4. Private and nonprofit schools recognized by the department of education or a local school board for the purpose of complying with chapter 299 and employing certified teachers.
5. Nonprofit schools exclusively engaged in training physically handicapped persons in the state of Iowa.
6. Schools and educational programs conducted by firms, corporations, or persons for the training of their own employees, for which no fee is charged.
7. Seminars, refresher courses and schools of instruction sponsored by professional, business, or farming organizations or associations for the members and employees of members of such organizations or associations.
8. Private business schools accredited by the accrediting commission for business schools or an acknowledged accrediting agency.
9. Private college preparatory schools accredited or probationally accredited* under section 256.11, subsection 13.

714.25 Disclosure.

For purposes of this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, "proprietary school" means a person offering a course of instruction at the postsecondary level, for profit, that is more than four months in length and leads to a degree, diploma, or license.

A proprietary school located within the state shall, prior to the time a student is obligated for payment of any moneys, inform the student of all of the following:

1. The total cost of the course of instruction as charged by the school.
2. An estimate of any fees which may be charged the student by others which would be required if the student is to successfully complete the course and, if applicable, obtain a degree, diploma, or license.
3. The percentage of students who successfully complete the course, the percentage who terminate prior to completing the course, and the period of time upon which the school has based these percentages. The reporting period shall not be less than one year in length and shall not extend more than five years into the past.

4. If claims are made by the school as to successful placement of students in jobs upon completion of the course of study, the school shall provide the student with all of the following:

a. The percentage of graduating students who were placed in jobs in fields related to the course of instruction.

b. The percentage of graduating students who went on to further education immediately upon graduation.

c. The percentage of students who, ninety days after graduation, were without a job and had not gone on to further education.

d. The period of time upon which the reports required by paragraphs "a" through "c" were based. The reporting period shall not be less than one year in length and shall not extend more than five years into the past.

5. If claims are made by the school as to income levels of students who have graduated and are working in fields related to the school's course of instruction, the school shall inform the student of the method used to derive such information.

725.12 Lotteries and lottery tickets—definition.

If any person make or aid in making or establishing, or advertise or make public a scheme for a lottery; or advertise, offer for sale, sell, negotiate, dispose of, purchase, or receive a ticket or part of a ticket in a lottery or number of a ticket in a lottery; or have in the person's possession a ticket, part of a ticket, or paper purporting to be the number of a ticket of a lottery, with intent to sell or dispose of the ticket, part of a ticket, or paper on the person's own account or as the agent of another, the person commits a serious misdemeanor. However, this section does not prohibit the advertising of a lottery or possession by a person of a lottery ticket, part of a ticket, or number of a lottery ticket from a lottery legally operated or permitted under the laws of another jurisdiction. This section also does not prohibit the advertising of a lottery, game of chance, contest, or activity conducted by a not-for-profit organization that would qualify as tax exempt under section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code, as defined in section 422.3, or conducted as a promotional activity by a commercial organization which is clearly occasional and ancillary to the primary business of that organization.

When used in this section, lottery shall mean any scheme, arrangement, or plan whereby a prize is awarded by chance or any process involving a substantial element of chance to a participant who has paid or furnished a consideration for such chance.

For the purpose of determining the existence of a lottery under this section, a consideration shall be deemed to have been paid or furnished only in such cases where as a direct or indirect requirement or condition of obtaining a chance to win a prize, the participants are required to make an expenditure of money or something of monetary value through a purchase, payment of an entry or admission fee, or other payment or the participants are required to make a substantial expenditure of effort; provided, however, that no substantial expenditure of effort shall be deemed to have been expended by any participant solely by reason of the registration of the participant's name, address, and related information, the obtaining of an entry blank or participation sheet, by permitting or taking part in a demonstration of any article or commodity, by making a personal examination of posted lists of prize winners, or by acts of a comparable nature, whether performed or accomplished in person at any store, place of business, or other designated location, through the mails, or by telephone; and further provided, that no participant shall be required to be present in person or by representative at any designated location at the time of the determination of the winner of the prize, and that the winner shall be notified either by the same method used to communicate the offering of the prize or by regular mail.

CHAPTER 727*HEALTH, SAFETY AND WELFARE*727.11 Disclosure of information concerning use of videotapes—penalty.

1. Except as provided in subsection 2, a person engaged in the business of renting, leasing, loaning, or otherwise distributing for a fee videotapes or other like items to individuals for personal use shall not disclose any information which would reveal the identity of an individual renting, leasing, borrowing, or otherwise obtaining through the business a videotape or other like item, except to the extent permitted by the individual as evidenced by the individual's written consent or as otherwise provided in this section.

2. In the absence of consent, the information may be released in any of the following situations:

a. To a criminal justice agency only pursuant to an investigation of a particular person or organization suspected of committing a known crime. The information shall be released only upon a judicial determination that a rational connection exists between the requested release of information and a legitimate end and that the need for the information is cogent and compelling.

b. To the extent reasonably necessary to collect payment for the rental, lease, or other distribution fee for the materials, if the individual has been given written notice that the payment is due and the individual has failed to pay or arrange for payment within a reasonable time after this notice.

c. If the disclosure is for the exclusive purpose of marketing goods and services directly to the consumer. The person disclosing the information shall inform the customer in writing that the customer may, by written notice, require the person to refrain from disclosing the information pursuant to this paragraph.

3. A person who violates this section commits a simple misdemeanor.

89 Acts, ch 296, §89 SF 141
Section amended

CHAPTER 728*OBSCENITY*728.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Obscene material" is any material depicting or describing the genitals, sex acts, masturbation, excretory functions or sadomasochistic abuse which the average person, taking the material as a whole and applying contemporary community standards with respect to what is suitable material for minors, would find appeals to the prurient interest and is patently offensive; and the material, taken as a whole, lacks serious literary, scientific, political or artistic value.

2. "Material" means any book, magazine, newspaper or other printed or written material or any picture, drawing, photograph, motion picture, or other pictorial representation or any statue or other figure, or any recording, transcription or mechanical, chemical or electrical reproduction or any other articles, equipment, machines or materials.

3. "Disseminate" means to transfer possession, with or without consideration.

4. "Knowingly" means being aware of the character of the matter.

5. "Sadomasochistic abuse" means the infliction of physical or mental pain upon a person or the condition of a person being fettered, bound or otherwise physically restrained.

6. "Minor" means any person under the age of eighteen.

7. "Sex act" means any sexual contact, actual or simulated, either natural or deviate, between two or more persons, or between a person and an animal, by penetration of the penis into the vagina or anus, or by contact between the mouth or tongue and genitalia or anus, or by contact between a finger of one person and the genitalia of another person or by use of artificial sexual organs or substitutes therefor in contact with the genitalia or anus.

8. Unless otherwise provided, "prohibited sexual act" means any of the following:

a. A sex act as defined in section 702.17.

b. An act of bestiality involving a minor.

c. Fondling or touching the pubes or genitals of a minor.

d. Fondling or touching the pubes or genitals of a person by a minor.

e. Sadomasochistic abuse of a minor for the purpose of arousing or satisfying the sexual desires of a person who may view a depiction of the abuse.

f. Sadomasochistic abuse of a person by a minor for the purpose of arousing or satisfying the sexual desires of a person who may view a depiction of the abuse.

g. Nudity of a minor for the purpose of arousing or satisfying the sexual desires of a person who may view a depiction of the nude minor.

9. "Promote" means to procure, manufacture, issue, sell, give, provide, lend, mail, deliver, transfer, transmute, transmit, publish, distribute, circulate, disseminate, present, exhibit, or advertise, or to offer or agree to do any of these acts.

89 Acts, ch 263, §1 HF 740
Subsection 8 amended

728.4 Rental or sale of hard-core pornography.

A person who knowingly rents, sells, or offers for rental or sale material depicting patently offensive representations of oral, anal, or vaginal intercourse, actual or simulated, involving humans, or depicting patently offensive representations of masturbation, excretory functions, or bestiality, or lewd exhibition of the genitals, which the average adult taking the material as a whole in applying statewide contemporary community standards would find appeals to the prurient interest; and which material, taken as a whole, lacks serious literary, scientific, political, or artistic value, upon conviction is guilty of an aggravated misdemeanor. However, second and subsequent violations of this section by a person who has been previously convicted of violating this section are class "D" felonies. Charges under this section may only be brought by a county attorney or by the attorney general.

89 Acts, ch 263, §2 HF 740

728.12 Sexual exploitation of a minor.

1. A person commits a class "C" felony when the person employs, uses, persuades, induces, entices, coerces, knowingly permits, or otherwise causes a minor to engage in a prohibited sexual act or in the simulation of a prohibited sexual act if the person knows, has reason to know, or intends that the act or simulated act may be photographed, filmed, or otherwise preserved in a negative, slide, book, magazine, or other print or visual medium. Notwithstanding section 902.9, the court may assess a fine of not more than fifty thousand dollars for each offense under this subsection in addition to imposing any other authorized sentence.

2. A person commits a class "D" felony when the person knowingly promotes any material visually depicting a live performance of a minor engaging in a prohibited sexual act or in the simulation of a prohibited sexual act. Notwithstanding section 902.9, the court may assess a fine of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars for each offense under this subsection in addition to imposing any other authorized sentence.

3. A person who knowingly purchases or possesses a negative, slide, book, magazine, or other print or visual medium depicting a minor engaging in a prohibited sexual act or the simulation of a prohibited sexual act commits a serious misdemeanor.

However, this section does not apply to law enforcement officers, court personnel, licensed physicians, licensed psychologists, or attorneys in the performance of their official duties.

89 Acts, ch 263, §3 HF 740
Section amended

728.14 Commercial film and photographic print processor reports of depictions of minors engaged in prohibited sexual acts.

1. A commercial film and photographic print processor who has knowledge of or observes, within the scope of the processor's professional capacity or employment, a film, photograph, video tape, negative, or slide which depicts a minor whom the processor knows or reasonably should know to be under the age of eighteen, engaged in a prohibited sexual act or in the simulation of a prohibited sexual act, shall report the depiction to the county attorney immediately or as soon as possible as required in this section. The processor shall not report to the county attorney depictions involving mere nudity of the minor, but shall report depictions involving a prohibited sexual act. This section shall not be construed to require a processor to review all films, photographs, video tapes, negatives, or slides delivered to the processor within the processor's professional capacity or employment.

For purposes of this section, "prohibited sexual act" means any of the following:

- a. A sex act as defined in section 702.17.
  - b. An act of bestiality involving a minor.
  - c. Fondling or touching the pubes or genitals of a minor for the purpose of arousing or satisfying the sexual desires of a person who may view a depiction of the act.
  - d. Fondling or touching the pubes or genitals of a person by a minor for the purpose of arousing or satisfying the sexual desires of a person who may view a depiction of the act.
  - e. Sadoomasochistic abuse of a minor for the purpose of arousing or satisfying the sexual desires of a person who may view a depiction of the abuse.
  - f. Sadoomasochistic abuse of a person by a minor for the purpose of arousing or satisfying the sexual desires of a person who may view a depiction of the abuse.
2. A person who violates this section is guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

728.15 Telephone dissemination of obscene material to minors.

1. A person shall not knowingly disseminate obscene material by the use of telephones or telephone facilities to a minor. A person who violates this subsection upon conviction is guilty of an aggravated misdemeanor. However, second and subsequent offenses of this subsection by a person who has been previously convicted of violating this subsection are class "D" felonies. As used in this subsection, a "person" excludes any information-access service provider that merely provides transmission capacity without control over the content of the transmission.

2. It shall be a defense in any prosecution for a violation of subsection 1 by a person who knowingly disseminates obscene material by the use of telephones or telephone facilities to a minor that the defendant has taken either of the following measures to restrict access to the obscene material:

a. Required the person receiving the obscene material to use an authorized access or identification code, as provided by the information provider, before transmission of the obscene material begins, where the defendant has previously issued the code by mailing it to the applicant after taking reasonable measures to ascertain that the applicant was eighteen years of age or older and has established a procedure to immediately cancel the code of any person after receiving notice, in writing or by telephone, that the code has been lost, stolen, or used by persons under the age of eighteen years or that the code is no longer desired.

b. Required payment by credit card before transmission of the obscene material.

3. Any list of applicants or recipients compiled or maintained by an information-access service provider for purposes of compliance with subsection 2 is confidential and shall not be sold or otherwise disseminated except upon order of the court.

CHAPTER 801

CRIMINAL PROCEDURE SCOPE AND DEFINITIONS

801.4 Definitions for titles XXXV to XXXVII.

For the purposes of titles XXXV to XXXVII, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Attorney general" includes an authorized assistant of the attorney general.
2. "Charge" means a written statement presented to a court accusing a person of the commission of a public offense, including but not limited to a complaint, information, or indictment.
3. "County attorney" includes an authorized assistant of the county attorney.
4. "Court" means a place where justice is administered by a magistrate and includes such magistrate while acting in a judicial capacity.
5. "Criminal proceeding" is a proceeding in which a person is accused of a public offense.
6. "Magistrate" means all judges of the district court, including district associate judges and judicial magistrates throughout the state.
7. "Peace officers", sometimes designated "law enforcement officers", include:
  - a. Sheriffs and their regular deputies who are subject to mandated law enforcement training.
  - b. Marshals and police officers of cities.
  - c. Peace officer members of the department of public safety as defined in chapter 80.
  - d. Parole agents acting pursuant to section 906.2.
  - e. Probation officers acting pursuant to section 602.7202, subsection 4, and section 907.2.
  - f. Special security officers employed by board of regents institutions as set forth in section 262.13.
  - g. Conservation officers as authorized by section 107.13.
  - h. Such employees of the department of transportation as are designated "peace officers" by resolution of the department under section 321.477.

i. Employees of an aviation authority designated as “peace officers” by the authority under section 330A.8, subsection 16.

j. Such persons as may be otherwise so designated by law.

8. “Prosecuting attorney”, sometimes designated “prosecutor”, means any attorney who is authorized by law to appear on the behalf of the state in a criminal case, and includes the attorney general, an assistant attorney general, the county attorney, an assistant county attorney, or a special or substitute prosecutor whose appearance is approved by a court having jurisdiction to try the defendant for the offense with which the defendant is charged. In the case of prosecution for a municipal ordinance violation, “prosecuting attorney” means a city attorney or an assistant city attorney.

9. The words “accused person”, “accused”, “defendant”, and similar words mean an individual, a public or private corporation, a partnership, or an unincorporated or voluntary association.

10. “Indigent person” means a person who is indigent as determined in accordance with section 815.9.

11. “Complaint” means a statement in writing, under oath or affirmation, made before a magistrate or district court clerk or clerk’s deputy as the case may be, of the commission of a public offense, and accusing someone thereof. A complaint shall be substantially in the form provided in the Iowa rules of criminal procedure.

12. “Prosecution” means the commencement, including the filing of a complaint, and continuance of a criminal proceeding, and pursuit of that proceeding to final judgment on behalf of the state or other political subdivision.

13. “Indictable offense” means an offense other than a simple misdemeanor.

CHAPTER 804

COMMENCEMENT OF ACTIONS—ARREST— DISPOSITIONS OF PRISONERS

804.21 Initial appearance before magistrate—arrest by warrant.

1. A person arrested in obedience to a warrant shall be taken without unnecessary delay before the nearest or most accessible magistrate. The officer shall at the same time deliver to the magistrate the warrant with the officer’s return endorsed on it and subscribed by the officer with the officer’s official title. However, this section, and sections 804.22 and 804.23, do not preclude the release of an arrested person within the period of time the person would otherwise remain incarcerated while waiting to be taken before a magistrate if the release is pursuant to pretrial release guidelines or a bond schedule promulgated by the judicial council. If, however, a person is released pursuant to pretrial release guidelines, a magistrate must, within twenty-four hours of the release, or as soon as practicable on the next subsequent working day of the court, either approve in writing of the release, or disapprove of the release and issue a warrant for the person’s arrest.

2. Where the offense is bailable, the magistrate shall fix bail giving due consideration to the bail endorsed on the warrant or other conditions stipulated on the warrant for the defendant’s appearance in the court which issued the warrant; if such person is not released on bail, the magistrate must redeliver the warrant to the officer, and the officer shall retain custody of the arrested person until the person’s removal to appear before the magistrate who issued the warrant.

3. If the magistrate who issued the warrant is absent or unable to act, the arrested person shall be taken to the nearest or most accessible magistrate in the judicial district where the offense occurred, and all documents on which the warrant was issued must be sent to such magistrate, or if they cannot be procured, the informant and the informant's witnesses must be subpoenaed to make new affidavits.

4. When the court is not in session, a person arrested and placed in jail may be released on the person's own recognizance with or without other conditions, by the verbal or written order of a judge or magistrate. The verbal order may be communicated by telephone. The judge or magistrate may issue such order of release only upon the request of an attorney or person believed by the judge or magistrate to be reliable.

5. a. The judicial council shall promulgate rules and bond levels to be contained within a bond schedule for the release of an arrested person.

b. The bond schedule shall not be used unless both the following conditions are met:

- (1) The person was arrested for a crime other than a forcible felony, and
- (2) The courts are not in session.

6. This section does not prevent the release of the arrested person pending initial appearance upon the furnishing of bail in the amount endorsed on the warrant. The initial appearance of a person so released shall be scheduled for a time not more than ten days after the date of release.

CHAPTER 805

CITATIONS IN LIEU OF ARREST

805.6 Uniform citation and complaint.

1. a. The commissioner of public safety and the director of natural resources, acting jointly, shall adopt a uniform, combined citation and complaint which shall be used for charging all traffic violations in Iowa under state law or local regulation or ordinance, and which shall be used for charging all other violations which are designated by section 805.8 to be scheduled violations. The court costs in cases of parking violations which are denied, and charged and collected pursuant to section 321.236, subsection 1, are eight dollars per court appearance, regardless of the number of parking violations considered at that court appearance. The court costs in scheduled violation cases where a court appearance is not required are ten dollars. The court costs in scheduled violation cases where a court appearance is required are fifteen dollars. This subsection does not prevent the charging of any of those violations by information, by private complaint filed under chapter 804, or by a simple notice of fine where permitted by section 321.236, subsection 1. Each uniform citation and complaint shall be serially numbered and shall be in quintuplicate, and the officer shall deliver the original and a copy to the court where the defendant is to appear, two copies to the defendant, and a copy to the law enforcement agency of the officer. The court shall forward the copy of the uniform citation and complaint in accordance with section 321.207 when applicable.

The uniform citation and complaint shall contain spaces for the parties' names; the address of the alleged offender; the registration number of the offender's vehicle; the information required by section 805.2; a promise to appear as provided in section 805.3 and a place where the cited person may sign the promise to appear; a list of the scheduled fines prescribed by section 805.8, either separately or by group, and a statement of the court costs payable in scheduled violation cases, whether or not a court appearance is required or is demanded; a brief explanation of sections 805.9 and 805.10; and a space where the defendant may sign an admission of the violation when permitted by section 805.9; and the uniform citation and complaint shall require that the defendant appear before a court at a specified time and place. The uniform citation and complaint also may contain a space for the imprint of a credit card, and may contain any other information which the commissioner of public safety and the director of natural resources may determine.

b. The uniform citation and complaint shall contain the following statement with a space immediately below it for the signature of the person being charged:

I hereby give my unsecured appearance bond in the amount of ..... dollars and enter my written appearance. I agree that if I fail to appear in person or by counsel to defend against the offense charged in this citation the court is authorized to enter a conviction and render judgment against me for the amount of my appearance bond in satisfaction of the penalty plus court costs.

c. Unless the officer issuing the citation arrests the alleged offender, or permits admission or requires submission of bail as provided in section 805.9, subsection 3, the officer shall enter in the blank contained in the statement required by paragraph "b" one of the following amounts and shall require the person to sign the written appearance:

(1) If the offense is one to which a scheduled fine is applicable, an amount equal to one and one-half times the scheduled fine plus court costs.

(2) If the violation charged involved or resulted in an accident or injury to property and the total damages are less than five hundred dollars, the amount of fifty dollars plus court costs.

(3) If the violation is for any offense for which a court appearance is mandatory, the amount of one hundred dollars plus court costs.

d. The written appearance defined in paragraph "b" shall not be used for any offense other than a simple misdemeanor.

2. In addition to those violations which are required by subsection 1 to be charged upon a uniform citation and complaint, a violation of chapter 321 which is punishable as a simple, serious, or aggravated misdemeanor may be charged upon a uniform citation and complaint, whether or not the alleged offender is arrested by the officer making the charge.

3. Supplies of the uniform citation and complaint for municipal corporations, county agencies, and all other agencies shall be paid for out of the budget of the municipal corporation, county, or other agency receiving the fine resulting from use of the citation and complaint.

4. The uniform citation and complaint shall contain a place for the verification of the officer issuing the complaint. The complaint may be verified before the chief officer of the law enforcement agency, or the chief officer's designee, and the chief officer of each law enforcement agency of the state is authorized to designate specific individuals to administer oaths and certify verifications.

5. The commissioner of public safety and the director of the department of natural resources, acting jointly, shall design and publish a compendium of scheduled violations and scheduled fines, containing other information which they deem appropriate, and shall distribute copies to all courts and law enforcement officers and agencies of the state upon request. The cost of the publication shall be paid out of the budget of the department of public safety and out of the budget of the department of natural resources, each budget being liable for half of those costs. Copies shall be made available to individuals upon request, and a charge may be collected which does not exceed the cost of printing.

805.7 Traffic and scheduled violations offices—fine collection boxes.

1. Offices. Each district court clerk's office shall constitute a traffic and scheduled violations office of the district court. Additional offices may be established at other locations, as needed, if authorized by the chief judge of the district.

2. Collection boxes. The chief judge of the district may permit the maintenance of locked collection boxes to be used at weigh stations and other locations where vehicles are inspected and weighed with portable scales. The boxes shall be used solely for the deposit of fines, costs, and guaranteed arrest bond certificates received for scheduled violations applicable to commercial carriers. The collection boxes shall remain locked at all times and shall be opened only by the clerk of the district court or the clerk's designee. The chief judge of the district may prescribe procedures for the system and may discontinue its use if necessary.

Subsection 2 amended

805.8 Scheduled violations.

1. Application. Except as otherwise indicated, violations of sections of the Code specified in this section are scheduled violations, and the scheduled fine for each of those violations is as provided in this section, whether the violation is of state law or of a county or city ordinance. The criminal penalty surcharge required by section 911.2 shall be added to the scheduled fine.

2. Traffic violations.

a. For parking violations under sections 321.236, 321.239, 321.358, 321.360, and 321.361, the scheduled fine is five dollars: However, violations charged by a city upon simple notice of a fine instead of a uniform citation and complaint as permitted by section 321.236, subsection 1, paragraph "a", are not scheduled violations, and this section shall not apply to any offense charged in that manner. For a parking violation under section 111.38 or 321.362 the scheduled fine is ten dollars.

b. For registration violations under sections 321.32, 321.34, 321.37, 321.38, and 321.41 the scheduled fine is five dollars.

c. For improperly used or nonused, or defective or improper equipment, other than brakes, driving lights and brakelights, under sections 321.317, 321.387, 321.388, 321.389, 321.390, 321.391, 321.392, 321.393, 321.422, 321.432, 321.436, 321.437, 321.438, subsection 1 or 3, 321.439, 321.440, 321.441, 321.442, 321.444, and 321.445, the scheduled fine is ten dollars.

d. For improper equipment under section 321.438, subsection 2, the scheduled fine is fifteen dollars.

e. For improperly used or nonused or defective or improper equipment under sections 321.383, 321.384, 321.385, 321.386, 321.398, 321.402, 321.403, 321.404, 321.409, 321.419, 321.420, 321.423, 321.430, and 321.433, the scheduled fine is twenty dollars.

f. For violations of a restricted license under sections 321.180, 321.193 and 321.194, the scheduled fine is twenty dollars.

g. (1) For excessive speed violations when not more than five miles per hour in excess of the limit under sections 111.36, 321.236, subsections 5 and 11, 321.285, 321.286 and 321.287, the scheduled fine is ten dollars.

(2) Excessive speed in conjunction with a violation of section 321.278 is not a scheduled violation, whatever the amount of excess speed.

(3) For excessive speed violations when in excess of the limit under sections 111.36, 321.236, subsections 5 and 11, 321.285, 321.286, and 321.287 by five or less miles per hour the fine is ten dollars, by more than five and not more than ten miles per hour the fine is twenty dollars, by more than ten and not more than fifteen miles per hour the fine is thirty dollars, by more than fifteen and not more than twenty miles per hour the fine is forty dollars, and by more than twenty miles per hour the fine is forty dollars plus two dollars for each mile per hour of excessive speed over twenty miles per hour over the limit.

(4) Notwithstanding subparagraphs (1) and (3), for excessive speed violations in speed zones greater than fifty-five miles per hour when in excess of the limit by five miles per hour or less the fine is ten dollars, by more than five and not more than ten miles per hour the fine is twenty dollars, by more than ten and not more than fifteen miles per hour the fine is forty dollars, by more than fifteen and not more than twenty miles per hour the fine is sixty dollars, and by more than twenty miles per hour the fine is sixty dollars plus two dollars for each mile per hour of excessive speed over twenty miles per hour over the limit.

(5) Excessive speed in whatever amount by a school bus is not a scheduled violation under any section listed in a subparagraph of this paragraph "g".

h. For operating, passing, turning and standing violations under sections 321.236, subsections 3, 4, 9 and 12, 321.275, subsections 1 through 8, 321.295, 321.297, 321.299, 321.303, 321.304, subsections 1 and 2, 321.305, 321.306, 321.311, 321.312, 321.314, 321.315, 321.316, 321.318, 321.323, 321.340, 321.344, 321.353, 321.354, 321.363, 321.365, 321.366, 321.368, 321.382 and 321.395, the scheduled fine is fifteen dollars.

i. For violations involving failures to yield or to observe pedestrians and other vehicles under sections 321.257, subsection 2, 321.288, 321.298, 321.300, 321.307, 321.308, 321.313, 321.319, 321.320, 321.321, 321.329, 321.333, and 321.367, the scheduled fine is twenty dollars.

j. For violations by pedestrians and bicyclists under sections 321.234, subsections 3 and 4, 321.236, subsection 10, 321.257, subsection 2, 321.325, 321.326, 321.328, 321.331, 321.332, 321.397 and 321.434, the scheduled fine is ten dollars.

k. For violations by operators of school buses and emergency vehicles, and for violations by other motor vehicle operators when in vicinity, under sections 321.231, 321.324, 321.372 and 321.377, the scheduled fine is twenty-five dollars: However, excessive speed by a school bus in excess of ten miles over the limit is not a scheduled violation.

l. For violations of traffic signs and signals, and for failure to obey an officer under sections 321.229, 321.236, subsections 2 and 6, 321.256, 321.257, subsection 2, 321.294, 321.304, subsection 3, 321.322, 321.341, 321.342, 321.343 and 321.415, the scheduled fine is twenty dollars.

m. For height, weight, length, width and load violations and towed vehicle violations under sections 321.309, 321.310, 321.381, 321.394, 321.437, 321.454, 321.455, 321.456, 321.457, 321.458, 321.461, and 321.462, the scheduled fine is twenty-five dollars. For weight violations under sections 321.459 and 321.466, the scheduled fine is twenty dollars for each two thousand pounds or fraction thereof of overweight.

n. For violation of display of identification required by section 326.22 and violation of trip permits as prescribed by section 326.23, the scheduled fine is twenty dollars.

a. For violation of registration provisions under section 321.17; violation of intrastate hauling on foreign registration under section 321.54; improper operation or failure to register under section 321.55; and violation of requirement for display of registration or plates under section 321.98, the scheduled fine is twenty dollars.

For failure to comply with administrative rules adopted under section 325.3, 327.3 or 327A.17 which require that evidence of intrastate authority be carried and displayed upon request, that a valid lease be carried and displayed upon request, or that a valid fee receipt be carried and displayed upon request, the scheduled fine is twenty-five dollars.

For failure to have proper carrier identification markings under section 325.31, 327.19, 327A.8 or 327B.1, the scheduled fine is fifteen dollars.

For failure to have proper evidence of interstate authority carried or displayed under section 327B.1 and for failure to register, carry, or display evidence that interstate authority is not required under section 327B.1, the scheduled fine is one hundred dollars.

For violations of rules adopted by the department under section 321.449, the scheduled fine is twenty-five dollars.

For violation of section 321.364 or rules adopted under section 321.450, the scheduled fine is fifty dollars.

p For obtaining, possessing, or having in one's control or one's premises a motor vehicle license, a nonoperator's identification card, or a blank motor vehicle license form in violation of section 321.216, subsection 7 or 8, the scheduled fine is fifty dollars.

q Violations of the schedule of axle and tandem axle and gross or group of axle weight violations in section 321.463 shall be scheduled violations subject to the provisions, procedures and exceptions contained in sections 805.6 to 805.11, irrespective of the amount of the fine under that schedule. Violations of the schedule of weight violations shall be chargeable, where the fine charged does not exceed one hundred dollars, only by uniform citation and complaint. Violations of the schedule of weight violations, where the fine charged exceeds one hundred dollars:

(1) Shall, when the violation is admitted and section 805.9 applies, be chargeable upon uniform citation and complaint, indictment, or county attorney's information,

(2) but otherwise, shall be chargeable only upon indictment or county attorney's information. In all cases of charges under the schedule of weight violations, the charge shall specify the amount of fine charged under the schedule. Where a defendant is convicted and the fine under the foregoing schedule of weight violations exceeds one hundred dollars, the conviction shall be of an indictable offense although section 805.9 is employed and whether the violation is charged upon uniform citation and complaint, indictment, or county attorney's information.

r For failure to have a valid license or permit for operating a motor vehicle on the highways of this state, the scheduled fine is fifteen dollars.

s Reserved.

t For failing to secure a child with a child restraint system, safety belt, or harness in violation of section 321.446, the scheduled fine is ten dollars.

u For failure of having a bicycle safety flag on a motorized bicycle in violation of section 321.275, subsection 9, the scheduled fine is five dollars.

3. Violations of navigation laws.

a For violations of registration, inspections, identification, and record provisions under sections 106.5, 106.35, 106.37, and for unused or improper or defective lights and warning devices under section 106.9, subsections 3, 4, 5, 9, and 10, the scheduled fine is ten dollars.

b For violations of registration, identification, and record provisions under sections 106.4 and 106.10 and for unused or improper or defective equipment under section 106.9, subsections 2, 6, 7, 8, and 13, and section 106.11 and for operation violations under sections 106.26, 106.31 and 106.33, the scheduled fine is twenty dollars.

c For operating violations under sections 106.12, 106.15, subsection 1, 106.24, and 106.34, the scheduled fine is twenty-five dollars. However, a violation of section 106.12, subsection 2, is not a scheduled violation.

d For violations of use, location and storage of vessels, devices and structures under sections 106.27, 106.28 and 106.32, the scheduled fine is fifteen dollars.

e For violations of all subdivision ordinances under section 106.17, subsection 2, except those relating to matters subject to regulation by authority of subsection 5 of section 106.31, the scheduled fine is the same as prescribed for similar violations of state law. For violations of subdivision ordinances for which there is no comparable state law the scheduled fine is ten dollars.

4. Snowmobile violations.

a. For registration and identification violations under sections 321G.3 and 321G.5, the scheduled fine is five dollars.

b. For operating violations under sections 321G.9, subsections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 7, 321G.11, and 321G.13, subsections 4 and 9, the scheduled fine is twenty dollars.

c. For improper or defective equipment under section 321G.12, the scheduled fine is ten dollars.

d. For violations of section 321G.19, the scheduled fine is fifteen dollars.

5. Fish and game law violations.

a. For violations of section 110.1, the scheduled fine is twenty dollars: However, engaging without a license in any activity the license fee for which is greater than twenty dollars is not a scheduled violation.

b. For violations of sections 109.54, 109.80, first paragraph, 109.82, 109.91, 109.122, 109.123 and 110.19, the scheduled fine is twenty dollars.

c. For hunting or taking a raccoon during a closed season in violation of sections 109.38 and 109.39 or administrative orders or rules adopted under those sections, the scheduled fine is fifty dollars.

6. Violations relating to the use and misuse of parks and preserves.

a. For violations under sections 111.39, 111.45 and 111.50, the scheduled fine is ten dollars.

b. For violations under sections 111.40, 111.43, 111.46 and 111.49, the scheduled fine is fifteen dollars.

7. Description of violations. The descriptions of offenses used in this section are for convenience only and shall not be construed to define any offense or to include or exclude any offense other than those specifically included or excluded by reference to the Code. A reference to a section or subsection of the Code without further limitation includes every offense defined by that section or subsection.

8. Energy emergency violations. For violations of an executive order issued by the governor under the provisions of section 93.8, the scheduled fine is fifty dollars.

9. Radar jamming devices. For violation of section 321.232, the scheduled fine is ten dollars.

10. Alcoholic beverage violations. For violations of section 123.47A, the scheduled fine is fifteen dollars.

11. Smoking violations. For violations of section 98A.6, the scheduled fine is ten dollars, and is a civil penalty, and the criminal penalty surcharge under section 911.2 shall not be added to the penalty, and the court costs pursuant to section 805.9, subsection 6, shall not be imposed. If the civil fine is not paid in a timely manner, a citation shall be issued for the violation in the manner provided in section 804.1.

805.10 Required court appearance.

Section 805.9 shall not apply to a scheduled violation in any of the following circumstances:

1. When the violation charged involved or resulted in an accident or injury to property and the total damages are five hundred dollars or more, or in an injury to person.

2. When the violation created an immediate threat to the safety of other persons or property because of highway conditions, visibility, traffic, repetition, or other circumstances.

In such cases, the defendant shall appear before the court and regular procedure shall apply. If an information is used the officer shall endorse thereon, "Court appearance required." If a citation and complaint is used, the officer shall strike out the space in which the defendant may admit the violation before a scheduled violations office and shall endorse thereon "Court appearance required" and the defendant shall appear before the court either in person or by attorney.

CHAPTER 808A

STUDENT SEARCHES

808A.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Student" means a person enrolled in a school for any of grades kindergarten through twelve.
2. "School" means a public or nonpublic educational institution offering any of grades kindergarten through twelve.
3. "School official" means a licensed school employee, and includes unlicensed school employees employed for security or supervision purposes.
4. "Protected student area" includes, but is not limited to:
  - a. A student's body.
  - b. Clothing worn or carried by a student.
  - c. A student's pocketbook, briefcase, duffel bag, bookbag, backpack, knapsack, or any other container used by a student for holding or carrying personal belongings of any kind and in the possession or immediate proximity of the student.
  - d. A school locker, desk, or other facility or space issued or assigned to, or chosen by, the student for the storage of personal belongings of any kind, which the student locks or is permitted to lock. School officials may conduct periodic inspections of all school lockers. However, the school district shall provide notice to the students, at least twenty-four hours prior to the inspection, of the date and time of the inspection.
5. "Student search rule" means a rule established by the school board of a public school, pursuant to section 279.8 or 279.9, or the authorities in charge of a nonpublic school controlling the manner of the searching of students or protected student areas. A student search rule, to be valid for purposes of this chapter, must be reasonable and shall be based upon relevant factors which include, but are not limited to, the following:
  - a. The seriousness of the violation for which a search may be instituted.
  - b. The age or ages of the students which may be searched pursuant to the rule.
  - c. The information or suspicion which must exist to warrant the institution of a search.

b. Willfully uses, endeavors to use, or procures any other person to use or endeavor to use an electronic, mechanical, or other device to intercept any oral communication when either of the following applies:

(1) The device is affixed to, or otherwise transmits a signal through, a wire, cable, or other like connection used in wire communication.

(2) The device transmits communications by radio, or interferes with the transmission of radio communications.

c. Willfully discloses, or endeavors to disclose, to any other person the contents of a wire communication or oral communication, knowing or having reason to know that the information was obtained through the interception of a wire communication or oral communication in violation of this subsection.

d. Willfully uses, or endeavors to use, the contents of a wire communication or oral communication, knowing or having reason to know that the information was obtained through the interception of a wire communication or oral communication in violation of this subsection.

2. a. It is not unlawful under this chapter for an operator of a switchboard, or an officer, employee, or agent of a communications common carrier, whose facilities are used in the transmission of a wire communication, to intercept, disclose, or use that communication in the normal course of employment while engaged in an activity which is a necessary incident to the rendition of service or to the protection of the rights or property of the carrier of the communication. However, communications common carriers shall not use service observing or random monitoring except for mechanical or service quality control checks.

b. It is not unlawful under this chapter for a person acting under color of law to intercept a wire communication or oral communication, if the person is a party to the communication or one of the parties to the communication has given prior consent to the interception.

c. It is not unlawful under this chapter for a person not acting under color of law to intercept a wire communication or oral communication if the person is a party to the communication or if one of the parties to the communication has given prior consent to the interception, unless the communication is intercepted for the purpose of committing a criminal or tortious act in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States or of any state or for the purpose of committing any other injurious act.

3. An operator of a switchboard, or an officer, employee, or agent of a communications common carrier, whose facilities are used in the transmission or interception of a wire or oral communication shall not disclose the existence of any transmission or interception or the device used to accomplish the transmission or interception with respect to a court order under this chapter, except as may otherwise be required by legal process or court order. Violation of this subsection is a class "D" felony.

808B.3 Court order for interception by special agents.

The attorney general shall authorize and prepare any application for an order authorizing the interception of wire communications or oral communications. The attorney general may apply to any district court of this state, or request that the county attorney in the district where application is to be made deliver the application of the attorney general, for an order authorizing the interception of wire communications or oral communications, and the court may grant, subject to this chapter, an order authorizing the interception of wire communications or oral communications by special state agents having responsibility for the investigation of the offense as to which application is made, when the interception may provide or has provided evidence of the commission of felony offenses involving dealing in controlled substances, as defined in section 204.101, subsection 6.

808B.4 Permissible disclosure and use.

1. A special state agent who, by any means authorized by this chapter, has obtained knowledge of the contents of a wire communication or oral communication, or has obtained evidence derived from a wire communication or oral communication, may disclose the contents to another investigative or law enforcement officer to the extent that the disclosure is appropriate to the proper performance of the official duties of the officer making or receiving the disclosure.

2. An investigative or law enforcement officer who, by any means authorized by this chapter, has obtained knowledge of the contents of a wire communication or oral communication or has obtained evidence derived from a wire communication or oral communication may use the contents to the extent the use is appropriate to the proper performance of the officer's official duties.

3. A person who has received, by any means authorized by this chapter, any information concerning a wire communication or oral communication, or evidence derived from a wire communication or oral communication intercepted in accordance with this chapter may disclose the contents of that communication or derivative evidence while giving testimony under oath or affirmation in a criminal proceeding in any court of the United States or of this state or in any federal or state grand jury proceeding.

4. An otherwise privileged wire communication or oral communication intercepted in accordance with, or in violation of, the provisions of this chapter does not lose its privileged character.

5. If a special state agent, while engaged in intercepting a wire communication or oral communication in the manner authorized, intercepts a communication relating to an offense other than those specified in the order of authorization, the contents of the communication, and the evidence derived from the communication, may be disclosed or used as provided in subsections 1 and 2. The contents of and the evidence derived from the communication may be used under subsection 3 when authorized by a court if the court finds on subsequent petition that the contents were otherwise intercepted in accordance with this chapter. The petition shall be made as soon as practicable.

808B.5 Application and order.

1. An application for an order authorizing or approving the interception of a wire communication or oral communication shall be made in writing upon oath or affirmation to a court and shall state the applicant's authority to make the application. An application shall include the following information:

a. The identity of the special state agent requesting the application, the supervisory officer reviewing and approving the request, and the approval of the administrator of a division of the department of public safety under whose command the special state agent making the application is operating or the administrator's designee.

b. A full and complete statement of the facts and circumstances relied upon by the applicant to justify the belief that an order should be issued, including details as to the particular offense that has been, is being, or is about to be committed, a particular description of the nature and location of the facilities from which or the place where the communication is to be intercepted, a particular description of the type of communications sought to be intercepted, and the identity of the person, if known, committing the offense and whose communications are to be intercepted.

c. A full and complete statement as to whether other investigative procedures have been tried and failed or why they reasonably appear to be unlikely to succeed if tried or to be too dangerous.

d. A statement of the period of time for which the interception is required to be maintained. If the nature of the investigation is such that the authorization for interception should not automatically terminate when the described type of communication has been first obtained, a particular description of facts establishing probable cause to believe that additional communications of the same type will subsequently occur.

e. A full and complete statement of the facts concerning all previous applications known to the individuals authorizing and making the application, made to any court for authorization to intercept, or for approval of interceptions of, wire communications or oral communications involving any of the same persons, facilities or places specified in the application, and the action taken by the court on those applications.

f. If the application is for the extension of an order, a statement setting forth the results thus far obtained from the interception, or a reasonable explanation of the failure to obtain results.

2. The court may require the applicant to furnish additional testimony or documentary evidence in support of the application.

3. Upon application the court may enter an ex parte order, as requested or as modified, authorizing interception of wire communications or oral communications within the territorial jurisdiction of the court, if the court finds on the basis of the facts submitted by the applicant all of the following:

a. There is probable cause for belief that an individual is committing, has committed, or is about to commit a felony offense involving dealing in controlled substances, as defined in section 204.101, subsection 6.

b. There is probable cause for belief that particular communications concerning the offense will be obtained through the interception.

c. Normal investigative procedures have been tried and have failed or reasonably appear to be unlikely to succeed if tried or to be too dangerous.

d. There is probable cause for belief that the facilities from which, or the place where, the wire communications or oral communications are to be intercepted are being used, or are about to be used, in connection with the commission of the offense, or are leased to, listed in the name of, or commonly used by the person whose communications are to be intercepted.

4. Each order authorizing the interception of a wire communication or oral communication shall specify all of the following:

a. The identity of the person, if known, whose communications are to be intercepted.

b. The nature and location of the communications facilities as to which, or the place where, authority to intercept is granted.

c. A particular description of the type of communication sought to be intercepted, and a statement of the particular offense to which the communication relates.

d. The identity of the agency authorized to intercept the communications, and of the person requesting the application.

e. The period of time during which interception is authorized, including a statement as to whether the interception shall automatically terminate when the described communication has been first obtained.

5. Each order authorizing the interception of a wire communication or oral communication shall, upon request of the applicant, direct that a communications common carrier, landlord, custodian, or other person shall furnish to the applicant all information, facilities, and technical assistance necessary to accomplish the interception inconspicuously and with a minimum of interference with the services that the carrier, landlord, custodian, or person is giving to the person whose communications are to be intercepted. Any communications common carrier, landlord, custodian, or other person furnishing facilities or technical assistance shall be compensated by the applicant at the prevailing rates.

6. An order entered under this section shall not authorize the interception of a wire communication or oral communication for a period longer than is necessary to achieve the objective of the authorized interception, or in any event longer than thirty days. The thirty-day period shall commence on the date specified in the order upon which the commencement of the interception is authorized or ten days after the order is entered, whichever is earlier. An extension of an order may be granted, but only upon application for an extension made in accordance with subsection 1 and the court making the findings required by subsection 3. The period of extension shall be no longer than the authorizing court deems necessary to achieve the purposes for which it was granted and in no event longer than thirty days. Every order and its extension shall contain a provision that the authorization to intercept shall be executed as soon as practicable, shall be conducted in such a way as to minimize the interception of communications not otherwise subject to interception under this section and sections 808B.1 through 808B.4, 808B.6, and 808B.7, and shall terminate upon attainment of the authorized objective, or in any event in thirty days.

7. If an order authorizing interception is entered pursuant to this chapter, the order may require reports to be made to the court which issued the order showing what progress has been made toward achievement of the authorized objective and the need for continued interception. The reports shall be made at intervals as the court requires.

8. The contents of a wire communication or oral communication intercepted by a means authorized by this chapter shall, if possible, be recorded on tape or wire or other comparable device. The recording of the contents of a wire communication or oral communication under this subsection shall be done in a way which will protect the recording from editing or other alterations. Immediately upon the expiration of the period of the order, or extensions of it, the recordings shall be made available to the court issuing the order and shall be sealed under the court's directions. Custody of the recordings shall be in accordance with the court order. Recordings shall be kept for five years and shall then be destroyed unless it is necessary to keep the recordings due to a continued legal process or court order, but the recordings shall not be kept for longer than ten years. Duplicate recordings may be made for disclosure or use pursuant to section 808B.4, subsections 1 and 2. The presence of a seal, or a satisfactory explanation for its absence, is a prerequisite for the disclosure or use of the contents of a wire communication or oral communication or evidence derived from a communication under section 808B.4, subsection 3.

Applications made and orders granted under this chapter shall be sealed by the court. Custody of the applications and orders shall be in accordance with the directives of the court. The applications and orders shall be disclosed only upon a showing of good cause before a court and shall be kept for five years and shall then be destroyed unless it is necessary to keep the applications or orders due to a continued legal process or court order, but the applications and orders shall not be kept for longer than ten years.

A violation of this subsection may be punished as contempt of court.

9. Within a reasonable time, but not longer than ninety days, after the termination of the period of an order or its extensions, the court shall cause a notice to be served on all persons named in the order or the application which includes the following:

a. The names of other parties to intercepted communications if the court determines disclosure of the names to be in the interest of justice.

b. An inventory which shall include all of the following:

- (1) The date of the application.
- (2) The date of the entry of the court order and the period of authorized, approved, or disapproved interception, or the denial of the application.
- (3) Whether, during the period, wire or oral communications were or were not intercepted.

The court, upon the filing of a motion by a person whose communications were intercepted, shall make available to the person or the person's attorney for inspection the intercepted communications, applications, and orders. On an ex parte showing of good cause to a court, the service of the inventory required by this subsection may be postponed.

10. The contents of an intercepted wire communication or oral communication or evidence derived from the wire communication or oral communication shall not be received in evidence or otherwise disclosed in a trial, hearing, or other proceeding in a federal or state court unless each party, not less than ten days before the trial, hearing, or proceeding, has been furnished with a copy of the court order, and accompanying application, under which the interception was authorized. This ten-day period may be waived by the court if it finds that it was not possible to furnish the party with the above information ten days before the trial, hearing, or proceeding and that the party will not be prejudiced by the delay in receiving the information. If the ten-day period is waived by the court, the court may grant a continuance, or enter such other order as it deems just under the circumstances.

11. An aggrieved person in a trial, hearing, or proceeding in or before any court, department, officer, agency, regulatory body, or other authority of this state, may move to suppress the contents of an intercepted wire communication or oral communication, or evidence derived from the wire communication or oral communication, on the grounds that the communication was unlawfully intercepted, the order of authorization under which it was intercepted was insufficient on its face, or the interception was not made in conformity with the order of authorization. The motion shall be made before the trial, hearing, or proceeding unless there was no opportunity to make the motion or the person was not aware of the grounds of the motion. If the motion is granted, the contents of the intercepted wire communication or oral communication, or evidence derived from the wire communication or oral communication, shall be treated as having been obtained in violation of this chapter.

12. An appeal by the attorney general from an order granting a motion to suppress or from the denial of an application for an order of approval shall be pursuant to section 814.5, subsection 2.

808B.6 Reports to state court administrator.

1. Within thirty days after the denial of an application or after the expiration of an order granting an application, or after an extension of an order, the court shall report to the state court administrator all of the following:

- a. The fact that an order or extension was applied for.
- b. The kind of order or extension applied for.
- c. The fact that the order or extension was granted as applied for, was granted as modified, or that an application was denied.
- d. The period of interceptions authorized by the order, and the number and duration of any extensions of the order.
- e. The offense specified in the order or application, or extension of an order.
- f. The identity of the prosecutor making the application and the court reviewing and approving the request.
- g. The nature of the facilities from which or the place where communications were to be intercepted.

2. In January of each year, the attorney general and the county attorneys of this state shall report to the state court administrator and to the administrative offices of the United States district courts all of the following:

- a. The fact that an order or extension was applied for.
- b. The kind of order or extension applied for.
- c. The fact that the order or extension was granted as applied for, was granted as modified, or that an application was denied.

d. The period of interceptions authorized by the order, and the number and duration of any extensions of the order.

e. The offense specified in the order or application, or extension of an order.

f. The nature of the facilities from which or the place where communications were to be intercepted.

g. A general description of the interceptions made under such order or extension, including:

(1) The approximate nature and frequency of incriminating communications intercepted.

(2) The approximate nature and frequency of other communications intercepted.

(3) The approximate number of persons whose communications were intercepted.

(4) The approximate nature, amount, and cost of personnel and other resources used in the interceptions.

h. The number of arrests resulting from interceptions made under such order or extension, and the offenses for which arrests were made.

i. The number of trials resulting from such interceptions.

j. The number of motions to suppress made with respect to such interceptions, and the number granted or denied.

k. The number of convictions resulting from such interceptions and the offenses for which the convictions were obtained and a general assessment of the importance of the interceptions.

l. The information required by paragraphs "b" through "f" with respect to orders or extensions obtained in a preceding calendar year and not yet reported.

m. Other information required by the rules of the administrative offices of the United States district courts.

3. In March of each year the state court administrator shall transmit to the general assembly a full and complete report concerning the number of applications for orders authorizing the interception of wire communications or oral communications and the number of applications, orders, and extensions granted or denied during the preceding calendar year. The report shall include a summary and analysis of the data required to be filed with the state court administrator by the attorney general, county attorneys, and the courts.

808B.8 Civil damages authorized—civil and criminal immunity—injunctive relief.

1. A person whose wire communication or oral communication is intercepted, disclosed, or used in violation of this chapter shall:

a. Have a civil cause of action against any person who intercepts, discloses, or uses or procures any other person to intercept, disclose, or use such communications.

b. Be entitled to recover from any such person all of the following:

(1) Actual damages, but not less than liquidated damages computed at the rate of one hundred dollars a day for each day of violation, or one thousand dollars, whichever is higher.

(2) Punitive damages upon a finding of a willful, malicious, or reckless violation of this chapter.

(3) A reasonable attorney's fee and other litigation costs reasonably incurred.

2. A good faith reliance on a court order shall constitute a complete defense to any civil or criminal action brought under this chapter.

3. A person whose wire communication or oral communication is intercepted, disclosed, or used in violation of this chapter may seek an injunction, either temporary or permanent, against any person who violates this chapter.

PRETRIAL RELEASE—BAIL

811.1 Bailable and nonbailable offenses.

All defendants are bailable both before and after conviction, by sufficient surety, or subject to release upon condition or on their own recognizance, except that the following defendants shall not be admitted to bail:

1. A defendant awaiting judgment of conviction and sentencing following either a plea or verdict of guilty of a class "A" felony, murder, felonious assault, sexual abuse in the second degree, sexual abuse in the third degree, kidnapping, robbery in the first degree, arson in the first degree, or burglary in the first degree.

2. A defendant appealing a conviction of a class "A" felony, murder, felonious assault, sexual abuse in the second degree, sexual abuse in the third degree, kidnapping, robbery in the first degree, arson in the first degree, or burglary in the first degree.

89 Acts, ch 138, §4, 5 SF 426
Subsections 1 and 2 amended

CHAPTER 901

JUDGMENT AND SENTENCING PROCEDURES

901.2 Presentence investigation.

Upon a plea of guilty, a verdict of guilty, or a special verdict upon which a judgment of conviction of a public offense may be rendered, the court shall receive from the state, from the judicial district department of correctional services, and from the defendant any information which may be offered which is relevant to the question of sentencing. The court may consider information from other sources. Notwithstanding section 13.10, the court may determine if the defendant shall be required to provide a physical specimen to be submitted for DNA profiling if the defendant is to be placed on probation or work release. The court shall consider the deterrent effect of DNA profiling, the likelihood of repeated violations by the defendant, and the seriousness of the offense. When funds have been allocated from the general fund of the state, or funds are provided by other public or private sources, the court shall order DNA profiling. The court shall order a presentence investigation when the offense is a class "B," class "C," or class "D" felony. A presentence investigation for a class "B," class "C," or class "D" felony shall not be waived. The court may order, with the consent of the defendant, that the presentence investigation begin prior to the acceptance of a plea of guilty, or prior to a verdict of guilty. The court may order a presentence investigation when the offense is an aggravated or serious misdemeanor.

The court may withhold execution of any judgment or sentence for such time as shall be reasonably necessary for an investigation with respect to deferment of judgment, deferment of sentence, or suspension of sentence and probation. The investigation shall be made by the judicial district department of correctional services.

The purpose of the report by the judicial district department of correctional services is to provide the court pertinent information for purposes of sentencing and to include suggestions for correctional planning for use by correctional authorities subsequent to sentencing.

89 Acts, ch 156, §2 SF 233
Unnumbered paragraph 1 amended

901.4 Presentence investigation report confidential.

The presentence investigation report is confidential and the court shall provide safeguards to ensure its confidentiality, including but not limited to sealing the report, which may be opened only by further court order. At least three days prior to the date set for sentencing, the court shall serve all of the presentence investigation report upon the defendant's attorney and the attorney for the state, and the report shall remain confidential except upon court order. However, the court may conceal the identity of the person who provided confidential information. The report of a medical examination or psychological or psychiatric evaluation shall be made available to the attorney for the state and to the defendant upon request. The reports are part of the record but shall be sealed and opened only on order of the court. If the defendant is committed to the custody of the Iowa department of corrections and is not a class "A" felon, a copy of the presentence investigation report shall be forwarded to the director with the order of commitment by the clerk of the district court and to the board of parole at the time of commitment. The defendant or the defendant's attorney may file with the presentence investigation report, a denial or refutation of the allegations, or both, contained in the report. The denial or refutation shall be included in the report.

904A.4 Duties of the board of parole.

1. The board of parole shall interview and consider inmates for parole and work release and a majority vote of the members is required to grant a parole or work release.

2. The board of parole shall interview inmates according to administrative rules adopted by the board.

3. The board of parole shall gather and review information regarding new parole and work release programs being instituted or considered nationwide and determine which programs may be useful for this state. The board shall review the current parole and work release programs and procedures used in this state on an annual basis.

4. The board of parole shall increase utilization of data processing and computerization to assist in the orderly conduct of the parole and work release system.

5. The board of parole shall conduct such studies of the parole and work release system as are requested by the governor and the general assembly.

6. The board of parole shall provide technical assistance and counseling related to the board's purposes to public and private entities.

7. The board of parole shall review and make recommendations to the governor regarding all applications for reprieves, pardons, commutation of sentences, remission of fines or forfeitures, or restoration of citizenship rights as required by chapter 248A.

8. The board of parole shall implement a risk assessment program which shall provide risk assessment analysis for the board.

904A.4B Executive director of the board of parole—duties.

The chief administrative officer of the board of parole shall be the executive director. The executive director shall be appointed by the chairperson, subject to the approval of the board and shall serve at the pleasure of the board. The executive director shall do all of the following:

1. Advise the board on matters relating to parole, work release, and executive clemency, and advise the board on matters involving automation and word processing.
2. Carry out all directives of the board.
3. Hire and supervise all of the board's staff pursuant to the provisions of chapter 19A.
4. Act as the board's liaison with the general assembly.
5. Prepare a budget for the board, subject to the approval of the board, and prepare all other reports required by law.
6. Develop long-range parole and work release planning, in cooperation with the department of corrections.

CHAPTER 906

PAROLES AND WORK RELEASE

906.4 Standards for release on parole or work release.

A parole or work release shall be ordered only for the best interest of society and the offender, not as an award of clemency. The board shall release on parole or work release any person whom it has the power to so release, when in its opinion there is reasonable probability that the person can be released without detriment to the community or to the person. A person's release is not a detriment to the community or the person if the person is able and willing to fulfill the obligations of a law-abiding citizen, in the board's determination.

Notwithstanding section 13.10, the board may determine if the defendant shall be required to provide a physical specimen to be submitted for DNA profiling as a condition of parole or work release. The board shall consider the deterrent effect of DNA profiling, the likelihood of repeated violations by the offender, and the seriousness of the offense. When funds have been allocated from the general fund of the state, or funds have been provided by other public or private sources, the board shall order DNA profiling if appropriate.

89 Acts, ch 156, §3 SF 233
NEW unnumbered paragraph 2

906.5 Record reviewed—rules.

1. Within one year after the commitment of a person other than a class "A" felon, class "B" felon convicted of murder in the second degree and serving a sentence of more than twenty-five years, or a felon serving a mandatory minimum sentence, other than a class "A" felon, to the custody of the director of the Iowa department of corrections, a member of the board shall interview the person. Thereafter, at regular intervals, not to exceed one year, the board shall interview the person and consider the person's prospects for parole or work release. However, if the registration of a victim prohibits conducting a timely interview as provided in this subsection, the interview may be conducted within a reasonable period of time after the one-year period or interval has expired in order to provide the victim notice as provided in section 910A.10, subsection 1, paragraph "a".

Not less than twenty days prior to conducting a hearing at which the board will interview the person, the board shall notify the department of corrections of the scheduling of the interview, and the department shall make the person available to the board at the person's institutional residence as scheduled in the notice. However, if health, safety, or security conditions require moving the person to another institution or facility prior to the scheduled interview, the department of corrections shall so notify the board.

2. At the time of an interview required under this section, the board shall consider all pertinent information regarding the person, including the circumstances of the person's offense, any presentence report which is available, the previous social history and criminal record of the person, the person's conduct, work, and attitude in prison, and the reports of physical and mental examinations that have been made.

3. A person while on parole or work release is under the supervision of the district department of correctional services of the district designated by the board of parole. The department of corrections shall prescribe rules for governing persons on parole or work release. The board may adopt other rules not inconsistent with the rules of the department of corrections as the board deems proper or necessary for the performance of its functions.

DEFERRED JUDGMENT, DEFERRED SENTENCE, SUSPENDED SENTENCE AND PROBATION

907.3 Deferred judgment, deferred sentence or suspended sentence.

Pursuant to section 901.5, the trial court may, upon a plea of guilty, a verdict of guilty, or a special verdict upon which a judgment of conviction may be rendered, exercise any of the options contained in this section. However, this section does not apply to a forcible felony.

1. With the consent of the defendant, the court may defer judgment and place the defendant on probation upon such conditions as it may require. Upon a showing that the defendant is not co-operating with the program of probation or is not responding to it, the court may withdraw the defendant from the program, pronounce judgment, and impose any sentence authorized by law. Before taking such action, the court shall give the defendant an opportunity to be heard on any matter relevant to the proposed action. Upon fulfillment of the conditions of probation, the defendant shall be discharged without entry of judgment. Upon violation of the conditions of probation, the court may proceed as provided in chapter 908.

However, this subsection shall not apply if any of the following is true:

a. The offense is a violation of section 709.8 and the child is twelve years of age or under.

b. The defendant previously has been convicted of a felony. "Felony" means a conviction in a court of this or any other state or of the United States, of an offense classified as a felony by the law under which the defendant was convicted at the time of the defendant's conviction.

c. Prior to the commission of the offense the defendant had been granted a deferred judgment or similar relief, two or more times anywhere in the United States.

d. Prior to the commission of the offense the defendant had been granted a deferred judgment or similar relief in a felony prosecution anywhere in the United States within the preceding five years, measured from the date of granting of deferment of judgment to the date of commission of the offense.

e. The defendant committed an assault as defined in section 708.1, against a peace officer in the performance of the peace officer's duty.

f. The defendant is a corporation.

g. The offense is a violation of section 321J.2 and, within the previous six years, the person has been convicted of a violation of that section or the person's driver's license has been revoked pursuant to section 321J.4, 321J.9, or 321J.12.

2. At the time of or after pronouncing judgment and with the consent of the defendant, the court may defer the sentence and assign the defendant to the judicial district department of correctional services. Upon a showing that the defendant is not fulfilling the conditions of probation, the court may revoke probation and impose any sentence authorized by law. Before taking such action, the court shall give the defendant an opportunity to be heard on any matter relevant to the proposed action. Upon violation of the conditions of probation, the court may proceed as provided in chapter 908.

3. By record entry at the time of or after sentencing, the court may suspend the sentence and place the defendant on probation upon such terms and conditions as it may require including commitment to an alternate jail facility or a community correctional residential treatment facility for a specific number of days to be followed by a term of probation as specified in section 907.7. A person so committed who has probation revoked shall be given credit for such time served.

89 Acts, ch 296, §93 SF 141
Unnumbered paragraph 1 amended

CHAPTER 908

VIOLETIONS OF PAROLE OR PROBATION

908.4 Parole revocation hearing.

The parole revocation hearing shall be conducted by an administrative parole judge who is an attorney. The revocation hearing shall determine the following:

1. Whether the alleged parole violation occurred.

2. Whether the violator's parole should be revoked.

The administrative parole judge shall make a verbatim record of the proceedings. The alleged violator shall be informed of the evidence against the violator, shall be given an opportunity to be heard, shall have the right to present witnesses and other evidence, and shall have the right to cross-examine adverse witnesses, except if the judge finds that a witness would be subjected to risk or harm if the witness' identity were disclosed. The revocation hearing may be conducted electronically.

89 Acts, ch 282, §9 SF 519
Section amended

908.5 Disposition.

If a violation of parole is established, the administrative parole judge may continue the parole with or without any modification of the conditions of parole. The administrative parole judge may revoke the parole and require the parolee to serve the sentence originally imposed, or may revoke the parole and reinstate the parolee's work release status. The order of the administrative parole judge shall contain findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a disposition of the matter.

89 Acts, ch 282, §10 SF 519
Section stricken and rewritten

908.6 Appeal or review.

The order of the administrative parole judge shall become the final decision of the board of parole unless, within the time provided by rule, the parole violator appeals the decision or a panel of the board reviews the decision on its own motion. On appeal or review of the administrative parole judge's decision, the board panel has all the power which it would have in initially making the revocation hearing decision. The appeal or review shall be conducted pursuant to rules adopted by the board of parole. The record on appeal or review shall be the record made at the parole revocation hearing conducted by the administrative parole judge.

89 Acts, ch 282, §11 SF 519
Section amended

908.7 Waiver of parole revocation hearing.

The alleged parole violator may waive the parole revocation hearing, in which event the administrative parole judge shall proceed to determine the disposition of the matter. The administrative parole judge shall dispose of the case as provided in section 908.4. The administrative parole judge shall make a verbatim record of the proceedings. The waiver proceeding may be conducted electronically.

89 Acts, ch 282, §12 SF 519
Section amended

908.10 Conviction of a felony while on parole.

When a person is convicted and sentenced to incarceration in this state for a felony committed while on parole, or is convicted and sentenced to incarceration under the laws of any other state of the United States or a foreign government or country for an offense committed while on parole, and which if committed in this state would be a felony, the person's parole shall be deemed revoked as of the date of the commission of the new felony offense.

The parole officer shall inform the sentencing judge that the convicted defendant is a parole violator. The term for which the defendant shall be imprisoned as a parole violator shall be the same as that provided in cases of revocation of parole for violation of the conditions of parole. The new sentence of imprisonment for conviction of a felony shall be served consecutively with the term imposed for the parole violation, unless a concurrent term of imprisonment is ordered by the court.

The parolee shall be notified in writing that parole has been revoked on the basis of the new felony conviction, and a copy of the commitment order shall accompany the notification. The inmate's record shall be reviewed pursuant to the provisions of section 906.5, or as soon as practical after a final reversal of the new felony conviction.

An inmate may appeal the revocation of parole under this section according to the board of parole's rules relating to parole revocation appeals. Neither the administrative parole judge nor the board panel shall retry the facts underlying any conviction.

89 Acts, ch 282, §13 SF 519
Section stricken and rewritten

CHAPTER 910

VICTIM RESTITUTION

910.4 Condition of probation—payment plan.

When restitution is ordered by the sentencing court and the offender is placed on probation, restitution shall be a condition of probation. Failure of the offender to comply with the plan of restitution, plan of payment, or community service requirements when community service is ordered by the court as restitution, shall constitute a violation of probation and shall constitute contempt of court. The court may hold the offender in contempt, revoke probation, or extend the period of probation, or upon notice of such noncompliance and hearing thereon, the court may enter a civil judgment against the offender for the outstanding balance of payments under the plan of restitution and such judgment shall be governed by the law relating to judgments, judgment liens, executions, and other process available to creditors for the collection of debts. However, if the period of probation is extended it shall not be for more than the maximum period of probation for the offense committed as provided in section 907.7.

If an offender's probation is revoked, the offender's assigned probation officer shall forward to the director of the Iowa department of corrections, information concerning the offender's restitution plan, restitution plan of payment, the restitution payment balance, and any other pertinent information concerning or affecting restitution by the offender.

When the offender is committed to a county jail, or to an alternate facility, the office or individual charged with supervision of the offender shall prepare a restitution plan of payment taking into consideration the offender's income, physical and mental health, age, education, employment and family circumstances. The office or individual charged with supervision of the offender shall review the plan of restitution ordered by the court, and shall submit a restitution plan of payment to the sentencing court. When community service is ordered by the court as restitution, the restitution plan of payment shall set out a plan to meet the requirement for the community service. The court may approve or modify the plan of restitution and restitution plan of payment. When there is a significant change in the offender's income or circumstances, the office or individual which has supervision of the plan of payment shall submit a modified restitution plan of payment to the court. When there is a transfer of supervision from one office or individual charged with supervision of the offender to another, the sending office or individual shall forward to the receiving office or individual all necessary information regarding the balance owed against the original amount of restitution ordered and the balance of public service required. When the offender's circumstances and income have significantly changed, the receiving office or individual shall submit a new plan of payment to the sentencing court for approval or modification based on the considerations enumerated in this section.

CHAPTER 910A

VICTIM AND WITNESS PROTECTION ACT

910A.1 Title—definitions.

This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the “Victim and Witness Protection Act.”

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Victim” means a person who has suffered physical, emotional, or financial harm as the result of a public offense, other than a simple misdemeanor, committed in this state. The term also includes the immediate family members of a victim who died or was rendered incompetent as a result of the offense or who was under eighteen years of age at the time of the offense.
2. “Violent crime” means a forcible felony, as defined in section 702.11, and includes any other felony or aggravated misdemeanor which involved the actual or threatened infliction of physical or emotional injury on one or more persons.
3. “Registered” means having provided the county attorney with the victim’s written request for registration and current mailing address and telephone number.
4. “Notification” means mailing by regular mail or providing for hand delivery of appropriate information or papers. However, this notification procedure does not prohibit an agency from also providing appropriate information to a registered victim by telephone.

89 Acts, ch 279, §8 HF 700
Subsection 3 amended

910A.2 Registration.

The county attorney shall be the sole registrar of victims under this chapter. A victim may register by filing a written request-for-registration form with the county attorney. The county attorney shall notify the victims in writing and advise them of their registration and rights under this chapter. The county attorney shall provide the appropriate offices, agencies, and departments with a registered victim list for notification purposes.

89 Acts, ch 279, §9 HF 700
Section 910A.2 in Code Supplement 1985 transferred to §910A.13 in Code 1987; 86 Acts, ch 1178, §19.
NEW section

910A.3 and 910A.4 Transferred in Code 1987 to §910A.14 and 910A.15. See 86 Acts, ch 1178, §19.

910A.5 Victim impact statement.

A victim may file a signed victim impact statement with the county attorney, and a filed impact statement shall be included in the presentence investigation report. If a presentence investigation report is not ordered by the court, a filed victim impact statement shall be provided to the court prior to sentencing.

The court shall consider a filed victim impact statement in determining the appropriate sentence and in entering any order of restitution to the victim pursuant to chapter 910.

The victim impact statement shall:

1. Identify the victim of the offense.
2. Itemize any economic loss suffered by the victim as a result of the offense. For purposes of this paragraph, a pecuniary damages statement prepared by a county attorney pursuant to section 910.3, may serve as the itemization of economic loss.
3. Identify any physical injury suffered by the victim as a result of the offense with detail as to its seriousness and permanence.

4. Describe any change in the victim's personal welfare or familial relationships as a result of the offense.

5. Describe any request for psychological services initiated by the victim or the victim's family as a result of the offense.

6. Contain any other information related to the impact of the offense upon the victim.

Subsection 5 stricken

910A.7 Notification by clerk of the district court.

The clerk of court shall notify a registered victim of all dispositional orders of the case in which the victim was involved and may advise the victim of any other orders regarding custody or confinement.

89 Acts, ch 279, §12 HF 700

Section amended

910A.7A Notification by clerk of the supreme court.

The clerk of the supreme court shall notify a registered victim of all dispositional orders of a case currently on appeal in which the victim was involved.

89 Acts, ch 279, §13 HF 700

NEW section

910A.8 Notification by law enforcement.

The local police department or county sheriff's department shall advise a victim of the right to register with the county attorney, and shall provide a request-for-registration form to each victim. The county sheriff or other person in charge of the local jail or detention facility shall notify a registered victim of the following:

1. The offender's release from custody on bail and the terms or conditions of the release.

2. The offender's final release from local custody.

3. The offender's escape from custody.

89 Acts, ch 279, §14 HF 700

Unnumbered paragraph 1 amended

910A.9 Notification by department of corrections.

The department of corrections shall notify a registered victim, regarding an offender convicted of a violent crime and committed to the custody of the director of the department of corrections, of the following:

1. The date on which the offender is expected to be released from custody on work release, and whether the offender is expected to return to the community where the registered victim resides.

2. The date on which the offender is expected to be temporarily released from custody on furlough, and whether the offender is expected to return to the community where the registered victim resides.

3. The offender's escape from custody.

4. The recommendation by the department of the offender for parole consideration.

5. The date on which the offender is expected to be released from an institution or facility pursuant to a plan of parole or work release, or upon discharge of sentence.

89 Acts, ch 279, §15, 16 HF 700
Unnumbered paragraph 1 amended
NEW subsection 5

910A.10 Notification by board of parole.

1. The board of parole shall notify a registered victim, regarding an offender who has committed a violent crime, as follows:

a. Not less than twenty days prior to conducting a hearing at which the board will interview an offender, the board shall notify the victim of the interview and inform the victim that the victim may submit the victim's opinion concerning the release of the offender in writing prior to the hearing or may appear personally or by counsel at the hearing to express an opinion concerning the offender's release.

b. Whether or not the victim appears at the hearing or expresses an opinion concerning the offender's release on parole, the board shall notify the victim of the board's decision regarding release of the offender.

2. Offenders who are being considered for release on parole may be informed of a victim's registration with the county attorney and the substance of any opinion submitted by the victim regarding the release of the offender.

89 Acts, ch 279, §17, 18 HF 700
Subsection 1, unnumbered paragraph 1 and paragraph a amended
Subsection 2 amended

910A.14 Recorded evidence—court testimony.

1. A court may, upon its own motion or upon motion of any party, order that the testimony of a child, as defined in section 702.5, be taken in a room other than the courtroom and be televised by closed circuit equipment in the courtroom to be viewed by the court. Only the judge, parties, counsel, persons necessary to operate the equipment, and any person whose presence, in the opinion of the court, would contribute to the welfare and well-being of the child may be present in the room with the child during the child's testimony.

2. The court may, upon its own motion or upon motion of a party, order that the testimony of a child, as defined in section 702.5, be taken by recorded deposition for use at trial, pursuant to rule of criminal procedure 12(2)(b). In addition to requiring that such testimony be recorded by stenographic means, the court may on motion and hearing, and upon a finding that the child is unavailable as provided in Iowa rules of evidence 804(a), order the videotaping of the child's testimony for viewing in the courtroom by the court. The videotaping shall comply with the provisions of rule of criminal procedure 12(2)(b), and shall be admissible as evidence in the trial of the cause.

3. The court may upon motion of a party admit into evidence the recorded statements of a child, as defined in section 702.5, describing sexual contact performed with or on the child, not otherwise admissible in evidence by statute or court rule if the court determines that the recorded statements substantially comport with the requirements for admission under Iowa rules of evidence 803(24) or 804(5).

4. A court may, upon its own motion or upon the motion of a party, order the court testimony of a child to be limited in duration in accordance with the developmental maturity of the child. The court may consider or hear expert testimony in order to determine the appropriate limitation on the duration of a child's testimony. However, the court shall, upon motion, limit the duration of a child's uninterrupted testimony to one hour, at which time the court shall allow the child to rest before continuing to testify.

CHAPTER 912

CRIME VICTIM REPARATION PROGRAM

912.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Department" means the department of justice.
2. "Victim" means a person who suffers personal injury or death as a result of any of the following:
  - a. A crime.
  - b. The good faith effort of a person attempting to prevent a crime.
  - c. The good faith effort of a person to apprehend a person suspected of committing a crime.
3. "Crime" means conduct that occurs or is attempted in this state, poses a substantial threat of personal injury or death, and is punishable as a felony, an aggravated misdemeanor, or a serious misdemeanor, or would be so punishable but for the fact that the person engaging in the conduct lacked the capacity to commit the crime under the laws of this state. "Crime" does not include conduct arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle, motorcycle, motorized bicycle, train, boat, or aircraft except for violations of section 321J.2 or when the intention is to cause personal injury or death. A plea or verdict of guilty of a charge under section 321J.2 or a license revocation under section 321J.9 or 321J.12 shall be considered by the department as evidence of a violation of section 321J.2 for the purposes of this chapter.
4. "Dependent" means a person wholly or partially dependent upon a victim for care or support and includes a child of the victim born after the victim's death.
5. "Reparation" means compensation awarded by the department as authorized by this chapter.

89 Acts, ch 279, §19, 20 HF 700
 Subsections 1 and 5 amended
 Subsection 2 stricken and former subsections 3-6 renumbered as 2-5

912.2 Award of reparation.

The department shall award reparations authorized by this chapter if the department is satisfied that the requirements for reparation have been met.

Word "commissioner" changed to "department"

912.2A Crime victim assistance board.

1. A crime victim assistance board is established, and shall consist of the following members to be appointed pursuant to rules adopted by the department:
  - a. A county attorney or assistant county attorney.
  - b. A person engaged full time in law enforcement.
  - c. A public defender or an attorney practicing primarily in criminal defense.
  - d. A hospital medical staff person involved with emergency services.
  - e. A public member who has received victim services.
  - f. A victim service provider.
  - g. A person licensed pursuant to chapter 154B or 154C.

Board members shall be reimbursed for expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the discharge of their duties.

2. The board shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A relating to program policies and procedures.

3. A victim aggrieved by the denial or disposition of the victim's claim may appeal to the district court within thirty days of receipt of the board's decision.

89 Acts, ch 279, §21 HF 700
NEW section

912.3 Duties of department.

The department shall:

1. Adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A relating to the administration of the crime victim reparation program, including the filing of claims pursuant to the program, and the hearing and disposition of the claims.

2. Hear claims, determine the results relating to claims, and reinvestigate and reopen cases as necessary.

3. Publicize through the department, county sheriff departments, municipal police departments, county attorney offices, and other public or private agencies, the existence of the crime victim reparation program, including the procedures for obtaining reparation under the program.

4. Request from the department of human services, the divisions of job service and industrial services of the department of employment services, the attorney general, the county sheriff departments, the municipal police departments, the county attorneys, or other public authorities or agencies reasonable assistance or data necessary to administer the crime victim reparation program.

5. Require medical examinations of victims as needed. The victim shall be responsible for the cost of the medical examination if reparation is made. The department shall be responsible for the cost of the medical examination from funds appropriated to the department for the crime victim reparation program if reparation is not made to the victim unless the cost of the examination is payable as a benefit under an insurance policy or subscriber contract covering the victim or the cost is payable by a health maintenance organization.

6. Receive moneys collected pursuant to section 246.702 for the purpose of compliance with Pub. L. 98-473.

7. Render to the governor and the general assembly by January 1, 1984, a written report of activities undertaken for the crime victim reparation program.

Word "commissioner" changed to "department"

912.4 Application for reparation.

1. To claim a reparation under the crime victim reparation program, a person shall apply in writing on a form prescribed by the department and file the application with the department within one hundred eighty days after the date of the crime, or of the discovery of the crime, or within one hundred twenty days after the date of death of the victim. The department may extend the time limit for the filing of an application to up to one year after the date of the crime, the discovery of the crime, or the death of the victim upon a finding of good cause. Lack of awareness of the crime victim reparations program by a prospective applicant alone shall not constitute good cause.

2. A person is not eligible for reparation unless the crime was reported to the local police department or county sheriff department within seventy-two hours of its occurrence. If the crime cannot reasonably be reported within that time period, the crime shall have been reported within seventy-two hours of the time a report can reasonably be made.

3. Notwithstanding subsection 2, a victim under the age of eighteen who has been sexually abused or subjected to any other unlawful sexual conduct under chapter 709 or 726 or who has been the subject of a forcible felony is not required to report the crime to the local police department or county sheriff department to be eligible for reparation if the crime was allegedly committed upon a child by a person responsible for the care of a child, as defined in section 232.68, subsection 7, and was reported to an employee of the department of human services and the employee verifies the report to the department.

4. When immediate or short-term medical services or mental health services are provided to a victim under section 910A.16, the department of human services shall file the claim for reparation as provided in subsection 3 for the victim.

5. When immediate or short-term medical services to a victim are provided pursuant to section 910A.16 by a professional licensed or certified by the state to provide such services, the professional shall file the claim for reparation, unless the department of human services is required to file the claim under this section. The requirement to report the crime to the local police department or county sheriff department under subsection 2 does not apply to this subsection.

89 Acts, ch 279, §22 HF 700
Subsections 2, 4 and 5 amended

912.5 Reparations payable.

The department may order the payment of reparation:

1. To or for the benefit of the person filing the claim.
2. To a person responsible for the maintenance of the victim who has suffered pecuniary loss or incurred expenses as a result of personal injury to the victim.
3. To or for the benefit of one or more dependents of the victim, in the case of death of the victim. If two or more dependents are entitled to a reparation, the reparation may be apportioned by the department as the department determines to be fair and equitable among the dependents.

Word "commissioner" changed to "department"

912.6 Computation of reparation.

The department shall make reparation, as appropriate, for any of the following economic losses incurred as a direct result of an injury to or death of the victim:

1. Reasonable charges incurred for medical care not to exceed ten thousand dollars.
2. Reasonable charges incurred for counseling provided to victims of domestic abuse, as defined in section 236.2, to victims of sexual assault, or to victims under eighteen years of age by a psychologist licensed under chapter 154B or by an individual holding at least a master's degree in social work or counseling and guidance, not to exceed five hundred dollars.
3. Reasonable charges incurred for victim counseling provided by a psychologist licensed under chapter 154B, a victim counselor as defined in section 236A.1, subsection 1, or an individual holding at least a master's degree in social work or counseling and guidance, not to exceed five hundred dollars.
4. Loss of income from work the victim would have performed and for which the victim would have received compensation if the victim had not been injured not to exceed two thousand dollars.
5. Reasonable replacement value of clothing that is held for evidentiary purposes not to exceed one hundred dollars.
6. Reasonable funeral and burial expenses not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars.
7. Loss of support for dependents resulting from death or a period of disability of the victim of sixty days or more not to exceed two thousand dollars per dependent or a total of six thousand dollars.
8. In the event of a victim's death, reasonable charges incurred for counseling the victim's spouse, children, parents, siblings, or persons cohabiting with or related by blood or affinity to the victim if the counseling services are provided by a psychologist licensed under chapter 154B, a victim counselor as defined in section 236A.1, subsection 1, or an individual holding at least a master's degree in social work or counseling and guidance, and reasonable charges incurred by such persons for medical care counseling provided by a psychiatrist licensed under chapter 147 or 150A. The allowable charges under this subsection shall not exceed five hundred dollars per person or a total of two thousand dollars per victim death.

89 Acts, ch 279, ch 23, 24 HF 700
 Subsection 3 amended
 NEW subsection 8

912.7 Reductions and disqualifications.

Reparations are subject to reduction and disqualification as follows:

1. A reparation shall be reduced by the amount of any payment received, or to be received, as a result of the injury or death:
  - a. From or on behalf of, a person who committed the crime or who is otherwise responsible for damages resulting from the crime.
  - b. From an insurance payment or program, including but not limited to workers' compensation or unemployment compensation.
  - c. From public funds.
  - d. As an emergency award under section 912.11.
2. A reparation shall not be made when the bodily injury or death for which a benefit is sought was caused by any of the following:
  - a. Consent, provocation, or incitement by the victim.
  - b. The victim assisting, attempting, or committing a criminal act.

89 Acts, ch 279, §25-27 HF 700
 Subsection 1, paragraph a amended
 Subsection 2, paragraphs b and c stricken and existing paragraph d relettered as b Subsections 3 and 4 stricken

912.9 Erroneous or fraudulent payment—penalty.

1. If a payment or overpayment of a reparation is made because of clerical error, mistaken identity, innocent misrepresentation by or on behalf of the recipient, or other circumstances of a similar nature, not induced by fraud by or on behalf of the recipient, the recipient is liable for repayment of the reparation. The department may waive, decrease, or adjust the amount of the repayment of the reparation. However, if the department does not notify the recipient of the erroneous payment or overpayment within one year of the date the reparation was made, the recipient is not liable for the repayment of the reparation.
2. If a payment or overpayment has been induced by fraud by or on behalf of a recipient, the recipient is liable for repayment of the reparation.

Word "commissioner" changed to "department"

912.10 Release of information.

A person in possession or control of investigative or other information pertaining to an alleged crime or a victim filing for a reparation shall allow the inspection and reproduction of the information by the department upon the request of the department, to be used only in the administration and enforcement of the crime victim reparation program. Information and records which are confidential under section 22.7 and information or records received from the confidential information or records remain confidential under this section.

A person does not incur legal liability by reason of releasing information to the department as required under this section.

Word "commissioner" changed to "department"

912.11 Emergency payment reparation.

If the department determines that reparation may be made and that undue hardship may result to the person if partial immediate payment is not made, the department may order an emergency reparation to be made to the person, not to exceed five hundred dollars.

Word "commissioner" changed to "department"

912.12 Right of action against perpetrator—subrogation.

A right of legal action by the victim against a person who has committed a crime is not lost as a consequence of a person receiving reparation under the crime victim reparation program. If a person receiving reparation under the program seeks indemnification which would reduce the reparation under section 912.7, subsection 1, the department is subrogated to the recovery to the extent of payments by the department to or on behalf of the person. The department has a right of legal action against a person who has committed a crime resulting in payment of reparation by the department to the extent of the reparation payment. However, legal action by the department does not affect the right of a person to seek further relief in other legal actions.

CODE EDITOR'S NOTES

Code Section

- 22.7 The 1989 amendments do not appear to conflict, so they were harmonized to give effect to each, as required by Code section 4.11. In some cases where this note is referred to, the amendments were actually identical. If amendments were to different distinct parts of a section, a Code editor's note was not considered necessary. Also, a Code editor's note was generally not written for cases where a strike or repeal prevailed over an amendment to the same material.
- 203B.3 Although 1989 Acts, chapter 197, sections 3 and 6, refer to section 203B.13, that section was struck from the bill by amendment, so the reference was omitted in codification.
- 220.151 Although 1989 Acts, chapter 131, section 12, included an unnumbered paragraph 2 as part of new section 220.151, it appears that the substance of that unnumbered paragraph is more appropriately placed in new section 424.1 as subsection 5, and it was so codified.
- 232.71 The new subsection added by 1989 Acts, chapter 230, section 13, is identical to the new subsection added by 1989 Acts, chapter 283, section 22, so the subsection has been codified only once, as subsection 17.
- 256.7 Amendment to unnumbered paragraph 2 of subsection 3 by 1989 Acts, chapter 210, section 1, was superseded by a later-approved amendment in 1989 Acts, chapter 265, section 19, which struck and rewrote the subsection.
- 260.13 Although 1989 Acts, chapter 265, section 13, enacted this material as an amendment striking and rewriting section 260.12, the same Act repealed section 260.12. It appears that the intent was to insert this as new material in chapter 260, so it was codified as section 260.13.
- 261.39
261.40 Although 1989 Acts, chapter 300, section 26, directed that the words "loan payment" be substituted for the words "student loan" in these sections, the directive was not carried out where the reference was to a section or program of an earlier year when "student loan program" was the correct designation.
- 261.54 The amendments to unnumbered paragraph 2 in 1989 Acts, chapter 300, section 17, and 1989 Acts, chapter 319, section 49, could not be fully harmonized. They were enacted (signed by the governor) on the same day. However, 1989 Acts, chapter 319, was passed by the general assembly a day later than 1989 Acts, chapter 300. It also appears that 1989 Acts, chapter 319, section 49, is more specific as to the subject matter of the science and mathematics loan program, as chapter 319 dealt with that program more completely by repealing the other sections relating to the program (sections 261.51 through 261.53), and by amending section 261.54 more extensively; therefore, the amendments to unnumbered paragraph 2 in 1989 Acts, chapter 319, section 49, were codified.
- 261.81 The substance of the amendments in 1989 Acts, chapter 300, section 18, and 1989 Acts, chapter 319, section 50, was harmonized as required by Code section 4.11. Where there were technical conflicts, the later enactment, 1989 Acts, chapter 319, section 50, was codified.
- 307B.23 1989 Acts, chapter 4, section 2, and 1989 Acts, chapter 6, section 1, each struck one of the two Code section references in subsection 1, unnumbered paragraph 1, leaving a meaningless part of a sentence which could not be editorially corrected by simple harmonizing. Corrective legislation is pending.

CODE EDITOR'S NOTES

Code Section

- 321.34 Although the amendments to subsection 7 are phrased differently as to the type of physician authorized to issue a statement of an applicant's handicap, the substance of the amendments is not in conflict. It appears that 1989 Acts, chapter 27, section 1, was effective from April 18, 1989, until the effective date of 1989 Acts, chapter 247, section 4, on January 1, 1990. Only the latter amendment was codified.
- 321.180 Although the lead-in of 1989 Acts, chapter 265, section 39, indicates that it amends subsection 1, it appears from the text of the amendment that only unnumbered paragraph 1 of the subsection was intended, and the amendment was so codified.
- 321G.1 1989 Acts, chapter 244, section 3, added a definition of "commission" although the section already contained nearly the same definition. The earlier definition was omitted in codification.
- 442.12 Although the lead-in of 1989 Acts, chapter 135, section 120, indicates that it amends section 442.13, it appears from the text of the amendment that it amends section 442.12, and it was so codified.
- 455A.18 Subsection 4 is codified from 1989 Acts, chapter 311, section 9, subsection 2, as directed in subsection 5 of that section. Although that subsection 5 mentions both subsections 1 and 2, it appears likely that subsection 2 was intended in both cases, so subsection 1, which is a one-year appropriation, was not codified.
- 455B.306 Although the lead-in of 1989 Acts, chapter 272, section 31, indicates that subsection 4 (renumbered as subsection 5) is amended in its entirety, it appears from the text of the amendment that only unnumbered paragraph 1 of subsection 4 was intended, and the amendment was so codified.
- 805.6 Subsection 1, paragraph a, unnumbered paragraph 2, was inadvertently omitted from the database in preparing the 1987 Code. Because the error was not discovered, it was also omitted from the 1987 Code Supplement and the 1989 Code. It is reinserted here.
